

Autumn's Latest Fashions

salin, draped to form a shirred crown and rippled brim; Mrs. Thomas A. Nelson chose a duchess beaver in magie purple, with a matching cloche at the side. A white fluffy felt with generous crown was the choice of Mrs. Robert E. Thomas, while Mrs. August Taute matched a bag to her beret of leopard.

Newly-Elected Leaders

Shown with the newly-elected president, Mrs. Thomas Seebo, third from left, are the other leaders of the Officers' Wives' Club, who were elected at the luncheon Thursday. At left is Mrs. Brown Riley; Mrs. Thomas Casey, first vice president;

Mrs. Seebo; Mrs. Harry V. Lindsey, second vice president; Mrs. William Overacker, recording secretary; Mrs. Lyon, treasurer. The group will serve for six months.

New Fall Chapeaux Are Seen By OWC, Guests

Indicative of the pleasure to come, tables for the Officers Wives Club luncheon were decorated with bow-trimmed hat boxes and miniature straw hats, Thursday.

Following the luncheon, members and guests viewed a fashion parade of fall styles in hats from Hemphill-Wells Co., furnished by Mrs. Jane Gray.

Mrs. Leland Younkin, wearing a high-crowned hat of garnet satin with shirred drape, was commentator for the showing.

Seagrass was the shade chosen by Mrs. August Taute, who wore a high velour and satin combination; she also modeled a beret of leopard with matching bag, and a wide brimmed style with gathered square crown. This was in pansy, a rich shade of purple. A black velvet pillbox in the new high fashion, worn by Mrs. Taute, was encircled with satin bands of tone on tone beige. Duchess beaver in magie purple made the brimmed cloche worn by Mrs. Thomas A. Nelson, who also modeled a draped toque of white velvet. A bow of grosgrain ribbon was the sole trim of the tall black close-fitting hat which Mrs. Nelson selected, and she also showed a tall pillbox of white satin.

The brunette coloring of Mrs. Robert A. Chepolis made a pleasing contrast to the tiny red feather caplet, lightly veiled, as well as to the turban of white fur with a single jeweled ornament. Sapphire was the shade of the velvet cloche worn by Mrs. Chepolis, who also chose a tiny cloche with feathers enhancing the brim.

Black velvet fashioned into a large cartwheel was a flattering style for Mrs. Robert Thomas, who also selected a hat of white fluffy fur with generous crown and rhinestone band. Feathers fringed the brim of her pixie hat in sapphire, and a high crown in the new fashion was also a choice of Mrs. Thomas. It was steel gray. Special prizes were awarded to Dried materials were shown to the club, and Mrs. Dickens demonstrated the method of arranging them; she also displayed a completed arrangement.

About 30 leaders gathered at the Girl Scout Little House Thursday for an all-day period of study. Four more sessions are planned for the group, with meetings from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., each Thursday. Instructors are Mrs. D. M. Costlow of Stanton and Harriet Redwine of Abilene.

Included in the instruction is program planning, which takes in songs and games for the scouts and the various ceremonies observed by the troops. Leadership is stressed as part of the training as are other activities. On Oct. 27, the group will have a cookout at the Boy Scout Encampment Ground.

Women who are interested in working with the Girl Scouts are invited to participate in the course, Mrs. Costlow stated.

CRMWD Deliveries Off From August

Water deliveries dropped off in September for the Colorado River Municipal Water District, but sales for the year continued to show an edge over 1959.

During the month the district metered 908,539,000 gallons to member cities and other customers. This was about 100 million gallons less than for the peak in August, but it boosted the sales for the year to 7,484,000,000 gallons, or 2.4 per cent over the 7,313,000,000 for the same period a year ago.

A Plea For Unity In Christ

"We preach Christ; and Christ is not divided. The Apostle admonished Christians at Corinth to speak the same thing and have no divisions. He asked, 'Is Christ divided?' (1 Cor. 1:10-13). We plead for unity. This is pleading for Christ. But it must be the right sort of unity."

His word, the New Testament, must be the basis of the unity; for we are to be judged by His Word (John 12:48).

Not only Bible doctrine, but obedience to the Bible, must be included. It takes this to build on the solid foundation (Mat. 7:24-29).

The blood of Christ cannot be compromised for the sake of unity; else we would be united in sin (Heb. 9:18-24).

It must be unity through returning to the New Testament church; for Christ died to reconcile a divided world in the one body which is the church (Eph. 1:22, 23; and 2:16).

We plead for Christ. We plead for unity in Christ, upon His Word, through obedience to Him, by His blood and in His church. Three preaching services each week: Sun., 10:30 and 7:30; Thurs., 7:30. Welcome. Adv.

State Dept. At Vets Dinner

State Department officers will be present Saturday evening at a membership rally and dinner meeting, to be held by World War I Veterans and auxiliaries.

The meeting will be at the Carpenters' Hall at 7:30. A covered dish supper will be served.

Bulk of the loss occurred at Odessa where heavy showers temporarily dulled demand. Deliveries for the month amounted to 372,201,000 gallons, whereas in September of 1959 the figure had been 221,212,000 gallons. Big Spring drew 241,964,000 gallons, which was about 37,000,000 under the same month a year ago. Snyder, at 68,862,000, was down about 12 million.

Thus, sales to cities amounted to 683,027,000 gallons, and the remaining 225,512,000 was sold as surplus water to oil companies. Of this total, 161,977,000 went to SACROC, repressuring unit, 32,385,000 to Sharon Ridge, 26,229,000 to Lion Oil and 4,721,000 to Texas Gulf Producing. The repressuring demands were up by about 25,000,000 gallons for the month.

With residential demands tapering off, sales will not fluctuate so pronouncedly with the weather, and O. H. Ivie, assistant general manager-production, said that trends for the year indicated that the final figures on 1960 might go as much as 5 per cent over those of 1959.

An active campaign throughout the West Texas Districts is to begin at once with the fall conventions. Balloting for the new commander will be held at the May convention.

In other business, Commander Joe Pendleton stressed the fullest cooperation with the Post's annual fall safety campaign. Primary target is to cut the toll on weekend football traffic and general accidents around the home. Members and friends of the Post are issuing reminder safety stickers.

Roscoe Cone, heading membership activities, announced 102 members signed up as "early birds" for 1961. The Early-Bird status will apply to all new and renewal members prior to Nov. 11. Members and eligible veterans are urged to get on the roster before that deadline.

Kennedy Accent Draws A Laugh

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy's Boston accent got a big laugh here Thursday. "Cincinnati," said Kennedy and when his audience laughed, "the Democratic presidential nominee explained: 'That's the way we pronounce it in Boston.'"

But when Kennedy continued his talk in downtown Fountain Square, he played it safe. "This city," he called it.

Andrews announced the executive committee of the state department assigned the Odessa, Monahans, Kermit area to the 19th District Junior Baseball league. The program will be under the supervision of Jack Pearson, Big Spring member, as district chairman.

Pendleton, newly installed commander lauded the accomplishments of the Post, carried on by so few active members. "The opportunities of this year's program will demand more workers," he said, in announcing a campaign to get the membership out to the Thursday night meetings.

Cities Ask Air Service

DALLAS (AP)—Representatives of several Texas cities Thursday asked a Civil Aeronautics Board examiner for better airline service or a continuation of the present service.

They appeared at a CAB hearing being held to determine routes and local carriers that can best serve 60 Texas cities and the states that surround Texas.

The hearing ends here today and moves to Amarillo Monday where they will be held through Thursday.

Cities in the Amarillo area will present testimony before CAB Examiner Herbert Ryan.

San Angelo spokesmen asked for a new route to Oklahoma City, via Abilene and Wichita Falls.

Russell Willis, manager of the San Angelo Chamber of Commerce told the examiner, "We are for the continuation of service by both Continental and Trans-Texas Airlines" and if Continental curtails its service, we want it replaced with a local carrier.

He said "We like the service we've got, but would also like a route to Oklahoma City."

Other cities presenting testimony were Temple, Texarkana, Sherman, Waco, Pecos and Shreveport.

Other San Angelo witnesses were Gail Wiginton, assistant manager of the San Angelo Chamber of Commerce; Wallace Morris, representative of the small businessman; and Hubert M. Preston of the General Telephone Co.

DEAR ABBY

YOU'RE BUSY

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am 23 and have 4 children and am expecting my 5th in December. I sometimes get migraine headaches so bad I feel like the top of my head is coming off. We have a dog and two cats and our dog is going to have pups.

My mother-in-law asked me to take in a relative I've never seen—a teen-aged girl with two children. She's getting divorced and wants me to care for her children while she works. My husband has rehearsals here three nights a week for his barbershop quartette and I give trombone lessons in our basement. I also run an answering service for a loan company and I don't see how I can take in this girl and her children right now. What excuse should I use?

BUSY LADY
DEAR BUSY: EXCUSE? You don't need an "excuse." Just give her the facts, Ma'am.

DEAR ABBY: The wife of a dear friend took her own life recently. We wish to express our sympathy to the family, but are hesitant about sending a note under the circumstances. What is the proper way to handle this? We don't want to do anything that would embarrass or offend the family.

ANXIOUS FRIENDS
DEAR FRIENDS: By all means, express your sympathy to the family. Just don't make any reference to the manner of the death.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter, Cecelia, is 26 and single. She just returned from a vacation at a "Naturalist Camp." She just told us it's a "nudist" resort. I've been in bed with a high fever ever since I found out. Her father says if this ever gets out we'll have to leave town as he is an elder in the church.

I told Cecelia she needs to see a head doctor. She said we should go. She tells us with a straight face that clothing the body creates inhibitions and no one need be ashamed of his body—unless his posture is poor. Are we old fogies for being ashamed of a daughter like this? I thought there were laws to lock up people who go naked in mixed company. I'm not signing my name, but would appreciate a reply in the paper.

SICK AND ASHAMED:
Natalist camps ARE permitted in some areas. Cecelia is old enough to make her own decisions, so if there is any shame, it should not be yours. Personally, I think civilized people NEED a few inhibitions.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NEEDS HELP" AT ITAZUKE, JAPAN: Do not let him send you home, talk to the chaplain at his base.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-agers Want To Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed stamped envelope in care of the Big Spring Herald.

Tech Enrollment Indicates Coeds Are Outnumbered

LUBBOCK — There are two males to complete academically with each coed at Texas Tech, a final audit of fall enrollment figures reveals.

Tech has a total of 9,177 students enrolled for the 1960 fall term, said Miss Evelyn Clewell, assistant registrar for statistics and reports at Tech. There are 6,239 men and 2,938 women attending classes here, making it the second largest state-supported school in Texas.

This year's enrollment has the largest number of women ever enrolled at Tech. Coeds outnumber the male students only in the School of Arts and Sciences—1,796 to 1,579—for a total of 3,365, making it the largest school at Tech.

The School of Engineering has 2,128 students enrolled, 66 of whom are coeds, while Business Administration has 1,846 students—359 of whom are women with a head for business.

Tech's School of Agriculture has a total enrollment of 749 students with 17 of them coeds. A total of 516 women is enrolled in the School of Home Economics, but they do have to compete with men in applied arts courses.

There are 415 men and 158 women enrolled in Tech's Graduate School for a total of 573.

All told, there are 2,944 freshmen, 2,029 sophomores, 1,812 juniors and 1,220 seniors.

Flood Spreads

MARSEILLE, France (AP)—The flood menace that struck west-central France earlier this week spread today to the lower Rhone Valley of southern France.

Outside Avignon the Rhone spilled over its banks and cut the national highway. Outside Marseille at Aubagne, flood waters of swept into the lower parts of town.

P.O. Disclaims Crash Damages

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A crumpled, water-stained envelope postmarked Boston, Oct. 4, arrived at a hotel here Thursday. Stamped on the envelope was the following explanation for its condition: "Damaged in airplane accident over Boston Harbor. No fault of Post Office Department."

The envelope contained reservations for two Boston residents for Oct. 14. It had been aboard the Eastern Airlines Electra which crashed Tuesday in Boston Harbor, killing 61 persons.

Baptists Warned To Keep Converts

DALLAS (AP)—Rev. Bruce McIver warned Baptists Thursday that unless the church retains more of the people it converts it will "spread out, organize, build, grow, and die."

Speaking to the 58th annual meeting of the Dallas Baptist Association, The Rev. Mr. McIver said the "failure to conserve the results of our evangelistic efforts" is the major failing of Southern Baptists. He is pastor of the Wilshire Baptist Church.

S. Africa Votes To Be A Republic

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—South Africans turned today to the question of who will be their first president after final returns showed the country has voted to become a republic.

The South African Press Association said the complete vote in Wednesday's all-white referendum gave a 73,980 majority for a republic—849,958 votes to 775,978. Long before, however, South Africans had accepted the word of an electric computer that the pro-republic forces of Nationalist Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd had won. The computer had forecast a republican majority of close to 80,000 even while the anti-republicans were still ahead in early returns.

The republic is expected to be proclaimed early next year after Verwoerd presents to the Nationalist-dominated Parliament legislation making a president the chief of state instead of Britain's Queen Elizabeth II.

The present governor general, Charles R. Swart, and Finance Minister Theophilus E. Doneses were regarded as the two strongest possibilities for president.

Swart, 65, a former journalist and movie extra in the United States who as a child was a prisoner in a British concentration camp at the end of the Boer War, would be an obvious choice. He entered Parliament at the age of 24 and was Nationalist interior minister for 11 years before he was appointed governor general.

He may prefer to retire to private life, however. If he does, informed political sources said, Doneses would be the leading possibility.

Doneses, 52, has a reputation as one of the more moderate and level-headed members of the Cabinet. A man with a silver tongue who got his law degree at the University of London, he might allay some of the fears of British-descended South Africans who bitterly fought the republic.

Army's Courier Proves Practical

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army says its Courier satellite has proved itself practical for "peaceful purposes for all mankind as well as military means."

The Army statement noted that through its first 24 orbits completed Thursday the satellite had handled more than two million words in communications. The test material was provided by news services, newspapers, television and radio stations.

The news and special stories were broadcast to the satellite which recorded them and retransmitted them to earth.

The satellite was designed primarily as a new means of handling military communications especially during wartime when land lines may be cut and regular radio communications jammed or otherwise unsatisfactory.

ON THE SHELF

THE GONCOURT BROTHERS. By Andre Billy. Translated from French by Margaret Shaw. Horizon, $6.50.

Such titles as "En 18 . . ." "Charles Demilly," "La Fille Elisa," "Germinie Lacerteux," "Henriette, Marechal," "Manette Salomon" and "Madame Gervais," to name only those whose renown was widest and indeed reached this country, don't mean much to the American reader today. Even the Goncourt "Journal" isn't well known here. But we have all read, surely, numerous Academy Goncourt prize winners imported from Paris; our memories go back to Duse, Rejane and Bernhardt who acted in his plays; and we recall his pioneering collection of Japanese objects and pictures which helped importantly to give direction to modern art—though it must be noted he was cool to Impressionists and made a favorite of Gavarni when he would have done better with Daumier.

They were a curiously French, curiously literary pair, Edmond born in Nancy in 1822 and Jules in Paris in 1830. They belligerently defended their right to the "de" in their name and if they suspected the world was changing (Charles X to Louis Philippe to Napoleon III to the Republic) they still lived by preference within a royalist tradition. They mined much of their material in the gutter, the corner bar, the charity ward and the house of prostitution—where Jules picked up the disease that killed him—but for the sociability they frequented the salon of the Bonaparte Princess Mathilde.

They were anti-Semitic, and anti-American, and believed celibacy was good for their art, and though they had mistresses, including one in common, they didn't marry. They were two men, but one; they worked together across a large table; in conversation one began a sentence that the other finished; as they experienced life so to speak hand in hand, so did they record it in their fiction, nonfiction and drama. They were realists, with little imagination and emotion well under control. Their friends were, on and off, Flaubert, Gautier, Turgenev, Zola, Alphonse Daudet, better known, to be sure, but the Goncourts belonged in their worthy company. As their astute biographer Billy points out, they were abstractly the ideal literary figures that is, literary for literary's sake. They were not great, yet greatness alone mattered to them, and they were fanatically, even heroically, devoted to the cause of their art. Their sort of integrity is just as rare as genius.

Seeks To Toss Out Ex-Husband

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A woman has sought court help to get her former husband thrown out of the house where she lives with her present spouse.

James W. Somers, 48, has been living and eating in the same house with the Hunts for the past six years, Mrs. Charles Hunt, 40, said Thursday. She added there has been much dissension in the household recently and she wants him to get out.

The problem isn't that simple, however—her present husband wants Somers to stay. The judge asked why.

"That's what I want to know," she told the judge, who has an appointment with Somers today.

Half A Dozen Reasons For Good Beginning

Here are at least half a dozen good reasons why the Western Car Company is getting off to a good start as the new Volkswagen agency in Big Spring. Frank Winterhalter is head of the concern located at 1187 E. 3rd and is operating a fully equipped sales and service center for Volkswagen cars and trucks. These cars being unloaded are part of those on display at the agency which has the traditional Volkswagen Protective Service plan warranted up to six months or 6,000 miles, and regular systematized service up to 100,000 miles. Factory-trained technicians handle the service.

Amarillo Craftsman Still Makes His Saddles By Hand

AMARILLO (AP)—An 80-year-old Amarillo craftsman is probably the oldest of a few vanishing journeymen who still can make a saddle entirely by hand.

Alvin L. (Pop) Bettes started making saddles 58 years ago.

"I guess I've averaged at least two a week since I started back in 1902, maybe more, maybe less," Pop said while oiling down a finished saddle recently.

Pop, a native of Fannin County, learned his trade after moving to Indian Territory, Okla. with his parents as a boy.

"I got to reading about how this country was developing into a cattle country while working with my brother in a saddle shop in Oklahoma and I came West," he said, "but I was too late... nearly all the country was taken up."

Bettes landed in Snyder in 1902 and set up a saddle shop. There he married the former Miss Jettie Elkins.

After making saddles at Post and Lubbock, Pop moved to Amarillo in 1941.

Presently he is employed at the Maddox Western Leather Shop operated by Dr. W. A. Maddox.

Fitting the seats is the hardest part about saddle making, Pop says.

He's made all types of saddles, including a silver-mounted one that cost a Kansas rancher $4,500. He made a similar saddle, costing $3,000, for Dr. Maddox.

"I've made saddles for people in about every state and several foreign countries, but the best of all, I like to make the working saddle for the cowboy," Pop said.

He describes the working saddle as one having a medium cantle and well rounded pommel where the cowboy can ride in comfort and still be equipped for riding a bronc or roping a steer.

Pop starts with the tree and hand cuts every piece of leather. He makes his own designs in hand stamping the decorative finish and says the stamp is deep enough in the leather that it could be used for a door mat without wearing out.

The machine has nearly scuttled the oldtime saddlemaker. As a result a veteran Albuquerque, N.M., saddlemaker wrote recently that there may be as few as 25 U.S. journeymen who are able to start with the tree and build up to the last bit of fancy hand-raised stamping.

Pop says he isn't ready to shelve the tools.

"I've made saddles a long time, and though I've thought some about retiring, I still just can't find time to quit."

With an air of determination, Pop jerked his newest product from a wooden "horse" in the shop and slowly calculated.

"Yep, it weighs about 35 pounds and took a full cow skin to make. It's a good saddle for any man."

Chivalrous Bulls

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Tom McHugh killed a cow with his car in open range country. Then the action really started.

Two irate bulls, horns lowered, charged his car and demolished it. One of the bulls suffered fatal injuries. McHugh was treated for a minor scalp cut.

Weight Reducer

DILLWYN, Va. (AP)—J. H. Jamerson, who weighs 210, rode his bicycle 65 miles to Richmond—to reduce, he said. He came back by automobile. Net loss for the 60-year-old man was one pound.

Pastors Needed

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Lutheran Church says a survey of its 4,600 congregations shows a need for at least 427 additional ministers.

Solons' Decision: Which Schools?

By TEX EASLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The opening of school forced most Texas members of Congress to decide whether their children should be enrolled here or back home.

Three youngsters of Rep. Joe Kilgore of McAllen sized up the problem from their own experience. Mark, 12, acted as spokesman and told their dad they'd rather "stay put" here once enrolled — even though they preferred Texas.

"I'm just getting tired of being 'that new little boy' every time we transfer back up here," said 10-year-old Bill. Dean, 11, agreed. The Kilgore's youngest is Shannon, 1.

All but four of the 24 members of the Texas delegation have children. Their sons and daughters total 62, of whom many have children of their own.

Champion father of the group is 45-year-old Rep. Bob Casey of Houston with 9 offspring. His pretty Hazel recently begged off traveling over Texas with other congressional wives on behalf of the Kennedy-Johnson ticket because, she said, she expects a 10th child next April.

The Casey family's children of elementary and high school age are enrolled here. A son, Bob Jr., is a law student at the University of Texas.

Rep. Walter Rogers of Pampa and his wife Jean are next to the Caseys with six children. The eldest, John, recently was graduated from college and now is an ensign on a Navy destroyer on the west coast. The remainder of their children are in school here, two of them in local colleges.

Third place honor regarding family size is held by Rep. Lindsey Beckworth of Gladewater with five. He and Mrs. Beckworth take the view that it's worth the trouble to keep the kids in school back home.

Three of the Texas delegation members have four children each: Rep. Jim Wright, Fort Worth; John Young, Corpus Christi, and Kilgore. Five have three each: Reps. Wright Patman, Texarkana; Bruce Alger, Dallas; Olin Teague, Bryan; Homer Thornberry, Austin, and J. T. Rutherford, Odessa.

Son Tops Pa

FIE TOP MOUNTAIN, N. C. (AP)—Charlie Adams Jr., a 17-year-old youngster entering his first competition, is the new champion of the muzzle-loadin' rifle clan of North Carolina's mountains.

Young Charlie won the recent 20th annual Cataloochee rifle shoot by putting three shots into a circle the size of a silver dollar from 60 yards away.

The youngster learned well. His father was runnerup, his worst shot being an eighth of an inch away from his son's.

Give God A Chance—God Will Open Doors For You!

Grownups forget that a child experiences fear, disappointment and despair even more often than they.

Experience prepares the adult for sudden shocks. A child stumbles upon them unaware.

And each will breed more bitterness in his heart, if he has not found firm foundation for his courage, perseverance and hope.

But when a boy or girl has been given the undergirding of religious faith, the dreadful moments challenge rather than destroy.

Our children pray more often than we realize. They believe more confidently than we suppose. Life teaches them to draw strength from their faith . . . self-confidence from their trust in God.

But you and I must provide them opportunity to acquire faith. And our own example in worship and life must inspire their trust in God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Few Seconds Can Halt Success Of Car Thieves

By JACK RADER
A couple of seconds are all that are required to help slow down one of the most active criminal groups in the nation—the car thief.

The few seconds include the time it requires to take the car keys out of the ignition switch and slip them into your pocket or purse as you leave the car.

These seconds may mean the difference between finding your car where you left it or calling the police to report an auto theft.

290,000 STOLEN
Across the nation auto thefts are steadily increasing. To date they have risen about 70 per cent compared with last year. So far this year there have been about 290,000 cars stolen in the United States.

The situation is not as grim in Big Spring, however, where the curve slopes in the other direction. Auto thefts to date have shown about a 50 per cent decline here. There have been 29 cars stolen this year, compared with 42 for the same nine months last year.

The situation is not stable, though. Carelessness on the part of motorists could result in Big Spring's auto theft record taking an upward leap.

Police Chief Jay Banks made the matter of removing car keys from the ignition switch his first suggestion to residents in helping combat car thefts.

REMOVE KEYS
"Take the keys out of your car, even if you only plan to be gone a short time," he said. Car keys dangling at the dashboard is tempting and makes stealing a car much easier, he said.

Removing the car keys will not guarantee your car against theft, since an accomplished thief can start a car by wiring the ignition switch, but it does complicate the task.

To further insure against car theft, banks strongly recommended locking your car. "A car thief can break a window to get in, of course, but most of them will pass up a locked car," he said.

The majority of cars stolen are taken from remote areas or poorly lighted areas. For this reason, the chief cautioned against parking for any length of time in such places. Areas where traffic is infrequent also makes an ideal place for car thieves to operate, the chief said.

Banks emphasized that Big Spring is fortunate in its good record of auto thefts. "We are luckier than bigger cities and, for some reason, many cities of our size."

TRANSIENTS
Banks said that most car thefts here are committed by transients, passing through on the two major highways. "Usually these persons are petty criminals hitchhiking through the country. They get tired of walking, spot an available car and drive it away."

Big Spring residents who have lost cars, however, usually get them back. The recovery rate here is very good. Twenty-five of the 29 cars stolen this year have been recovered. Police made 16 arrests in connection with the recoveries. Last year there were a total of 60 cars stolen and 53 were recovered.

In most cities the car theft usually connected to the commission of another crime, the chief said. A burglar will steal a car to be used in a burglary, or a stolen car may be used in committing a robbery.

"Our rate of major crime, such as robbery and safe burglary, is low, however, and stolen cars are usually not a factor," the chief said.

To help prevent an increase in car thefts, motorists are urged to follow the chief's easy suggestions.

ABANDONED
Residents can also aid in recovery of stolen cars by watching for apparently abandoned cars. "If you see a car that appears to be abandoned, notify the police," Chief Banks said. "We can determine whether or not it is a stolen car in a matter of minutes. If it is not, no harm has been done."

Service stations and body shops are being called on to aid police in stolen car recovery. The police department is distributing pamphlets outlining methods for spotting possible stolen cars.

Citizens are urged not to hesitate to notify police concerning suspicious cars. "It is better to check on a hundred that turn out okay than to let one wanted car or subject get away."

Change Theme

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP) — The South Carolina delegation to the national Democratic convention chose "Carolina in the Morning" for its convention song.

A spokesman explained that the Th Pan Alley tune is "a little bouncier and more familiar" than the official state song, "Carolina," adopted in 1911.

Ernest Welch Named New Kiwanis Prexy

Ernest Welch, acting president of the Big Spring Kiwanis Club, was elected president for the new year at the annual election Thursday. He is currently first vice president who took over the reins of president when Dr. Marvin Baker, club president this year, moved to Florida.

J. C. Pickle moved up in the election from second vice president to first vice president. Bruce Dunn and James Jay were named new members of the board of directors.

Kiwanians usually elect the slate submitted to it by a nominating committee and nomination is tantamount to election.

The Kiwanians devoted their meeting time to discussion of plans on selling ball gum on a city-wide basis. The gum is to be sold in 51 packages in a house-to-house campaign on the nights of Oct. 17 and 18.

Last year's sale of the packages of gum ball—deal, the club points out for meeting demands for "trick-or-treat" from young Halloweeners—netted the club $397 profit. This year, the club hopes to sell 1,500 packages which would bring in $750 for the club's underprivileged children's fund. Plans were also outlined to sell the gum in one or two downtown stores with wives of Kiwanians manning the sales tables.

Kiwanis Club sponsors the numerous penny-vending machines which dispense gum. The club netted $600 last year from these machines.

Cap Rock Electric Co-op Sets New Sales Record

Cap Rock Electric Cooperative surpassed records for a single year by selling over 7,000,000 KWH of power in September.

For the first nine months of 1960, Cap Rock has sold 41,948,823 KWH by reason of 7,019,021 in September, exceeding the 41,433,304 sold in all of 1959 when the previous record sales were recorded. The total was up from the August single-month record of 8,635,390 and was well over the 5,689,226 for September a year ago.

Purchases of power during September amounted to 7,417,970 KWH, whereas a year ago it had been 6,087,330, and 9,951,480 in August. This brought the total purchases for nine months to 48,002,600, which is over the 47,972,950 for all of 1959.

As of Sept. 30, Cap Rock had 2,186 miles of line energized, a gain of two for the month. Members connected grew to 4,455, a gain of 91 for the month. This was one of the biggest monthly gains on record, and it boosted density of members per mile from 2.00 to 2.04.
