Campaign Launched

Nixon-Lodge backers put their campaign into full swing here today with the opening of the "Texans for Nixon" headquarters between 4th and 5th on Main. Jim Watts, publicly chairman of the local contingent, is shown putting up the identifying poster on the headquarters trailer. Mrs. Patricia Simpson will manage the headquarters. She and other volunteers will be on hand from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. six days a week to answer questions and distribute literature. Watts said that everyone is invited to drop in and ask questions about the platform of the Republican candidates. Coffee will be served throughout the time the headquarters is open, he said.

Susan Nobles Killed In Fall From Horse

An eight-year-old Big Spring girl was killed Sunday afternoon when she fell from a running horse. Susan Alice Nobles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Nobles, died in a local hospital at about 5:30 p.m. She and her sister, Cynthia Lee, 12, were riding double when their horse became frightened, bolted and started running. Both girls fell from the horse. Cynthia Lee was not injured. They were riding the horse near their home on the Old San Angelo Highway. Susan Alice was born on March 13, 1952 in Big Spring. She was a third grade student at Elbow Elementary School.

BY ROAD BUREAU

Special Ramps Are Turned Down

A request by the Howard County Commissioners Court that ramps and lead-in roads from an overpass in the heart of Sand Springs be constructed has been rejected by the Federal Bureau of Roads in Washington, according to Ralph White, county commissioner. Residents of Sand Springs had asked that the ramps be built and the roads leading off and on IS 20 be constructed. They pointed out that extensive building had occurred in Sand Springs and that additional homes are being constructed. The overpass, built over the highway, currently goes no place. There is no way to get on or off it.

Reid Carries Coahoma Bid To Commission

COAHOMA—Bill Reid, who will be president of the proposed Coahoma state bank when and if the institution is established, will go to Austin on Wednesday for a conference with the Texas Banking Commission. Efforts have been under way for some months to establish a state bank here. Stock purchases in the amount of $180,000 have been pledged. Application for a charter has been filed with the state commissioner. Recently a technical requirement relative to the stock pledges was met and the organizers feel they have complied in full with all requirements of the banking commission. Reid's conference with the commission is expected to bring some sort of definite answer to whether the bank is to be organized or not.

Johnson Invades Southern States

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic vice-presidential nominee, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, headed into the South today aboard a special campaign train that will cover some 60 towns in eight states. About 100 Texans who reside in the nation's capital were at Union Station with an eight-piece band to cheer the Texas senator on as the 13-car special pulled away at 8 a.m. The train, due to spend two nights in Charlotte, N.C., ends its run in New Orleans, La., Friday night. In a rear platform response just before departure, Johnson told the crowd he was setting out on a unity tour.

Job Situation Has An Improved Look

WASHINGTON (AP)—Both employment and unemployment declined in September in an improving national job situation attributed mainly to seasonal factors. Both employment and unemployment were affected by the return of young workers to their classrooms from temporary summer jobs. Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary of labor for manpower problems, said the latest job figures show employment is continuing at a relatively high level. But he said unemployment also is remaining at a high point "that is far from satisfactory by any standard." The Labor Department reported that employment dropped from 68,282,000 in August to 67,767,000 in September. The 515,000 reduction still left the September job total at a record for the month. Normally a post-summer drop of about 750,000 is expected in the employment count. The department said unemployment dropped from 3,788,000 in August to 3,388,000 in September, a reduction of 400,000. Normally unemployment is expected to decline by 500,000 in September. The seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment to the total work force declined from 5.9 per cent to 5.7 per cent. The department said an earlier-than-usual model changeover in the auto industry exaggerated the August rise in this rate as well as the September decline. The idle rate of 5.7 per cent is about the same as a year ago during the steel strike and higher than any month this year except August.

U.S. Faces Difficulty On Cold War Issues

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States will have a harder time getting together enough votes to pass resolutions on cold war issues in the U. N. General Assembly. This was shown Saturday when the Assembly, for the 10th straight year, approved a U. S. resolution to defer the issue of seating Communist China. The resolution squeaked through by a mere eight votes. That compared with 15 a year earlier and 35 in 1952. The tally was 42-34, and there were 22 abstentions. Plainly, what the Soviet Union calls the Americans' "mechanical majority" no longer worked. Soviet Premier Khrushchev himself said on TV Sunday night, "There will come a time when the United States will be in a minority."

REASON?

What is the reason for this trend? Why did support of the United States on the Red China issue slip from 44-29 last year to 42-34 this year? For one thing, Malaya and Laos shifted from "yes" to "abstention." Cuba and Ethiopia from "abstention" to "no." But the biggest danger to the U. S. majority was seen in the actions of 16 new U. N. members—15 African countries and Cyprus. Thirteen abstained. The other three—Mali, Nigeria and Senegal—voted against the American resolution.

If nine of those 13 abstainers vote with those other three next year, the United States will lose—and the Assembly will be open to proposals to seat Communist China. In 1955, 16 new members were taken into the United Nations. The percentage voting in the Assembly in favor of the U. S. moratorium resolution skidded from 77 to 66. This year another 16 came in—and the percentage slipped to 56.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department estimated the cotton crop today at 14,553,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight. This is 28,000 bales less than last month's forecast of 14,581,000 bales. It compared with 14,558,000 produced last year and 13,710,000 for the 10-year (1949-58) average. The crop will be supplemented by a reserve and surplus of 7,600,000 bales accumulated from past crops. Much of this is held by the government under farm price support programs.

States Lose Tideland Bid

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court denied Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama a rehearing today on their contention they are entitled to 10 1/2 miles of submerged oil lands in the Gulf of Mexico. Chief Justice Warren and Justice Clark took no part in today's action. They have not participated in any of the submerged lands litigation. In a decision last May 31, the Supreme Court ruled that Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama boundaries are restricted to 3 1/2 miles offshore. The same decision said the boundaries of Texas and Florida were three leagues—about 10 1/2 miles—from their coasts.

Attorneys general of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama in support of a request for a rehearing submitted copies of a map recently discovered among old records.

Market Rises

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rose in fairly active early trading today. Standard Oil (New Jersey) added 1/4. American Telephone rose 1/4. American Can gained 1/4 and General Electric dipped 1/4. Among issues opening unchanged were U.S. Steel and Bethlehem. Fractional gains were scored by DuPont, Ford and Sears Roebuck.

Bucs Win Today 5-2

NEW YORK—Another magnificent relief by Roy Face blocked the New York Yankees here today as the Pittsburgh Pirates took a one-game advantage in the World Series, 5-2. Face came on in the seventh with one out and two on to cut down the Yanks in order. Harvey Haddox had pitched sound ball to that point for a 4-2 lead. The Bucs added a run for insurance in the ninth when Burgess singled to left, went to second on Bob Cerv's error. Christopher, running for Burgess, went to third on Duxen's wild pitch, and then scored on Don Hoak's single through the box. Face got Richardson to bounce out, Kubeck to pop up and Blanche to fly out to Clemente to snuff out the Yanks in the ninth. Pittsburgh's three victories have all been protected by the relief pitching of Face. Play resumes Wednesday in Pittsburgh in the best four out of seven series. In the second Stuart singled,

African Gets Red Applause

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—President Sekou Toure of Guinea today supported Soviet attacks on the U. N. peace-making machinery and demanded revision of the world organization's structure to permit equitable representation for Asia and Africa. Premier Khrushchev and a full-strength Soviet delegation was on hand and enthusiastically applauded the appearance of the white-robed African leader on the U. N. General Assembly rostrum. Khrushchev has just reminded the world of his view that the United Nations "will die" unless it agrees to his demands for reorganizing the secretariat. He wants a presidium of three members—Communist, Western and neutral—each with veto powers over U. N. peace-making decisions.

BOSTON (AP)—At least a dozen subway commuters were felled today when a packed train discharged them at the underground stop at South Station filled with smoke from a burning transformer. ## Truman Blasts Republicans In Second Speech Of Tour

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—Harry Truman today told the Republicans are using "an Alice in Wonderland approach to government in these perilous times," seeing no reason "to do anything to make the free world safe and the country's finances sound." The former president assailed the Republican administration in a speech prepared for a Democratic rally here. It was Truman's second stop on a coast-to-coast speaking tour in behalf of Democrat John Kennedy. He said no one expected Republicans to do anything for farmers and working people or about developing public power resources and added: "The record will show that in the two fields the Republican National defense and fiscal policy—they have been a flop." He said when he left the White House the national debt was $239 billion, but under President Eisenhower's administration it has increased to $286 billion. "So you see," he added, "if I were a Republican, I would never bring up the subject of deficit spending."

Truman said President Eisenhower once claimed he had appointed more certified public accountants than any other president. "If the American people are buried under tons of radioactive ash, he wants to be sure that historians will find the books in order and the deficit carefully accounted for," he said. He said the Republican candidate, Richard Nixon, "would be no better. The same forces would continue to control the Republican party that have controlled it for the past eight years. These are

Mobutu Puts Quarantine On Lumumba's Residence

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Col. Joseph Mobutu, the Congo's strong man, appeared today to have flipped in the bad latest move by flamboyant Patrice Lumumba to rally public support. After the deposed premier's trip through Leopoldville's native quarter, Sunday night, Mobutu today ordered Lumumba's residence ringed with 200 Congolese soldiers. There was a brief scuffle as soldiers drove back several dozen Lumumba supporters with rifle bolts. One shot was fired into the air. Ten of the pro-Lumumba crowd were taken into custody. One or two were reported slightly injured by the rough and determined action of the soldiers. Mobutu told one of his officers: "Nobody must go in or go out." As soon as Mobutu left, Lumumba walked out on his balcony and shouted: "I am not a prisoner. I am still master. The people are still with me." There were no further incidents. A little later Mobutu ordered the troop strength around Lumumba's home cut to 50 men. Soldiers told reporters that they had been ordered to the residence to "prevent Lumumba from making political moves." They said they had no orders to arrest Lumumba but that they were there to prevent his political friends and Parliament members from getting into the house. Lumumba, who was fired as government head early last month, made an unannounced sortie through the bars of Leopoldville's sprawling native quarter Sunday night. He confidently told cheering groups of Africans, "Lumumba has come back to power."

Tension mounted in the city today, and most observers believed Lumumba would try to get a new hold on the government reins. After Lumumba's pub crawl, the Congo army chief of staff, Col. Joseph Mobutu, who has tried to neutralize Lumumba and other politicalists, deployed strong troop detachments in key parts of the city. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers stood guard in parts of the European and African quarters.

Ike Stars On TV Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—A quiz show starring President Eisenhower will be telecast tonight on behalf of the Republican presidential and vice-presidential candidates. The half-hour program, starting at 8:30 p.m. EDT, will be carried by the National Broadcasting Co. TV network. Eisenhower will not make a speech, although he may open the program with a brief statement in support of Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge.

Air Tour Due Here Tonight

Fifty pilots were to land their private planes in Big Spring today for an overnight stop on the All Texas Air Tour. They were to begin arriving about 5 p.m. The planes were to land at the Howard County Airport where members of the chamber of commerce and the Webb AFB Aero club were to be on hand to meet them. Around 100 persons were expected to de-plane when the small planes land here. They will be taken to the Settles Hotel for lodging, and dinner and a party are slated at the Cosden Club. The tour will leave Big Spring Tuesday morning and fly to Lamesa, Brownfield, Littlefield and Plainview. The group will spend Tuesday night in Pampa. This is the 12th annual tour, which is held to promote private aviation. It is the second year the tour has stopped at Big Spring. The stopover here was arranged by a subcommittee of the aviation committee of the chamber of commerce, headed by Judge Ralph Eaton.

Vote On Red China

New Blast Seen From Castro

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro was expected to deliver a new blast at the United States today with charges that Washington had armed counter-revolutionary guerrillas in the Cuban regime claimed it smashed over the weekend.

The prime minister was scheduled to address the closing session of a congress of municipal education boards.

Castro was certain to take his text from an announcement by the Armed Forces Ministry Sunday that volunteer militiamen led by army regulars liquidated an anti-Castro force operating in the strategic Escambray Mountains of south-central Cuba, scene of Castro's second front during his successful revolt against dictator Fulgencio Batista.

A communique said 127 persons captured during the operations would be tried by a military tribunal beginning Tuesday.

The communique said three insurgents were killed and four wounded. Government casualties were listed as one regular army officer and two militiamen dead and two others wounded.

The government announcements played up the operation as a crushing blow to anti-Castro elements. The insurgents in the Escambray Mountains reportedly were the largest group to take up arms against Castro since he came to power 21 months ago.

A huge supply of arms was reported captured. The communique said it included "warlike equipment so complete and detailed it could have been acquired clandestinely by arms smugglers and only could have been obtained by direct delivery by Northern American (U.S.) authorities from stocks of their arms arsenals. All the arms are of North American make."

The government claimed the weapons were parachuted into the mountains from a U.S. four-engine plane on Sept. 29.

The government also promised a report on its pursuit of the small band of invaders it claimed landed on the northeastern coast of Cuba last week. Three Americans were reported among the invaders at the time.

Council May Take Car Bids

Three new police cars may be purchased Tuesday when the City Commission meets in regular session at 5:15 p.m. at the city hall.

Commissioners will open bids Tuesday for the new cars, hoping that the bids will be in line with available money.

Three of the police cars are already past or nearing the 60,000-mile mark and require replacements, according to City Manager A. K. Steinheimer.

Already some shuffling has taken place with regard to police vehicles, due to the collapse of a traffic division unit.

Steinheimer has turned his car over to the police department in trade for a police vehicle no longer suitable for police work. The Chevrolet Corvair which was being used in the police department has been turned over to the public works inspection department.

Other items to be taken up by the commissioners include the recommendation from the traffic commission concerning a one-way street pattern for the downtown area, and readings of ordinances changing zoning of property owned by Hank McDaniels, Eugene Thomas and Dr. Al Simpson.

A proposed police department code will also be considered for adoption, and additional streets are expected to be presented for commission approval under the paving assessment program.

Nixon Says His Program Will Give America More Progress

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP)— Vice President Richard M. Nixon today told a shivering but enthusiastic Western audience—whom he described as a "go-ahead people"—that his program will provide more progress for America than anything the Democrats offer.

Nixon chose the incredible hour of 7:40 a. m. to begin the four weeks in which he thinks this election will be won or lost.

And Police Chief R. L. Wilson estimated that 5,000 were standing in 36-degree weather in the street to hear Nixon.

Nixon pointed out that he's a Westerner, too, from California.

"We're a go-ahead people," Nixon said. "We never want to stand still."

FAR FASTER

And he sized up the Republican program this way: "I'm proud to stand for a program that will move America far faster than anything the Democrats offer."

Nixon is expected to step up his attacks on Sen. John F. Kennedy in the last month of this campaign.

He got in a few practice licks on this chilly morn—it felt more like attending a football game than a political rally.

He said Kennedy's program supports the idea that "the federal bureaucrat solves all our problems."

Nixon used a line that always gets a laugh from his Republican audiences: "Remember it's not Jack's money he's going to spend, but yours."

The crowd was surprisingly enthusiastic considering the hour. Maybe they were clapping in an effort to keep warm.

After Billings, his schedule called for a speech in Denver and then on to Salt Lake City for a talk in the Mormon Tabernacle at night. Mr. Nixon planned to fly from Washington, D. C., and join him in Denver.

RESTFUL SUNDAY

Nixon spent a comparatively restful Sunday, during which he made news by wandering alone around Billings, and by finding himself so embarrassed for ready money that he had to make a $2.50 touch.

Nixon used most of the afternoon polishing a 750-word state-

CRMWA Gets Federal Money

WASHINGTON (AP)—Approval of a proposed contract providing for repayment of $92,900,000 of the $96,000,000 cost of the Canadian River reclamation project in Texas was announced today.

The Interior Department said the contract will be the largest dollar repayment agreement of its kind in Reclamation Bureau history.

Execution of the contract by the Canadian River Reclamation Water Authority and its validation by the courts are necessary steps before construction of the project can start. Also still to be worked out before construction can begin are contracts between the authority and its 11 member municipalities for repayment of their portions of the cost.

The 11 cities, in the High Plains region of Northwest Texas are Borger, Pampa, Amarillo, Plainview, Lubbock, Slaton, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Levelland and Brownfield.

The project is designed to include a multiple purpose dam and reservoir on the Canadian River west of Sandford and to supply water to the municipalities through a 325-mile aqueduct system.

The federal government will assume construction costs allocated to flood control and fish and wildlife protection.

DAV To Meet

School And City Values Show Substantial Gains

Big Spring Independent School District valuation for tax purposes is $2,556,394 greater than that in 1959 and the valuation of property in the city of Big Spring $5,250,260 greater than last year.

Novis Womack, tax officer for the three agencies, in a report to the county commissioners court said that valuation for the school district for 1960 has been pegged at $57,225,303 as compared with $54, 668,394 in 1959. The city of Big Spring valuation for this year is $44,941,800. It was $39,691,340 in 1959.

He added that the county tax rolls are not as yet completed and valuation figures are not available.

He said that 49 building permits were issued in September. Seven of these were for residences in the southeast part of town. The remainder were for office buildings, improvements, repairs and new roofs.

Methodist Sessions Termed Successful

Methodists, more than 500 strong, took part Sunday in what was described as one of the most successful workshops ever held in this area.

Representatives from the 32 churches in the Big Spring District, headed by Dr. H. Clyde Smith, district superintendent, joined with First Methodist members to supply a crowd of over 700 to hear Bishop Paul V. Galloway Sunday evening. Bishop Galloway, making his first appearance in this area since he was named to the San Antonio-Northwest Texas episcopacy during the early summer, also addressed the congregation Sunday morning.

Some 450 adults took part in a series of committee and commission conferences at the First Methodist Church at 4 p.m. at the Wesley Methodist Church, 90 young people shared in a Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting. Conference leadership was supplied for all the parishes.

Bishop Galloway Sunday evening stressed the importance of education to the Christian for effective witnessing and service. The trained mind is important, but the kind of training is even more important. With education must go concern, he told the large congregation.

Missing Canopy Located And Is Made Harmless

A T-33 jet aircraft canopy lost between Lamesa and Gall Thursday afternoon was recovered Saturday night and made safe by a Webb AFB team.

For Capt. Tom Seebö, helicopter pilot, and S. Sgt. George Schweikert, head of the Explosives Ordnance Disposal team, it was the climax of a 14-hour search Saturday.

In the process they recovered at 75-foot weather balloon that had been mistakenly identified as the missing canopy which peeled from a jet trainer in flight.

A report from the Lamesa sheriff's department that the canopy was 16 miles southeast of Lamesa didn't pan out Saturday morning. The Borden County sheriff's department relayed reports of the canopy near Gall, but this turned out to be a 70 to 100-foot diameter balloon.

Carroll Walker, Lamesa, helped pin-point the missing canopy in heavy brush. Explosive items in the canopy had two primers that were bent, making removal too dangerous an operation. Sgt. Schweikert decided to demolish them in place, but this necessitated a trip back to Webb. Sgt. Warren D. Hannabach and other team members, aided by Carl Zeek and C. B. Hogg, Lamesa,

Kennedy Takes First Turn Into The Southern States

WARM SPRINGS, Ga. (AP)— Sen. John F. Kennedy came to this shrine of former President Franklin D. Roosevelt today and got a friendly, shouting greeting from his first Deep South audience of the campaign.

Speaking from the front porch of the Little White House where Roosevelt spent so many hours and where he died, Kennedy said he was proud to be carrying the banner the New Deal president raised.

The Massachusetts senator described it as a banner "that summons all Americans in every section, in every walk of life, in every race and creed."

He recalled the many federal programs which Roosevelt started and declared, "The protections of our government in every field must be extended without regard to artificial distinctions."

He added: "Full participation in our national life must be open to all."

The Democratic presidential nominee made only these standing references to the problems of minority rights, however. His speech was built around Roosevelt and the need to extend and broaden the health programs which he said Roosevelt began.

Many thousands were on hand for his speech here. Some came in motorcars from distant parts of the state.

The Kennedy party landed at Columbus, Ga., and drove the 40 miles to Warm Springs. Rural school children and farm families were out along the highway to greet him.

On his arrival at Muscogee County Airport at Columbus, Kennedy was met by Gov. Ernest Vandiver, Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, and local officials.

The Democratic nominee chose this spot with its many Roosevelt associations for an attempt to rally support in a normally Democratic section where Vice President Richard M. Nixon hopes to make heavy inroads.

"No Democrat, and particularly no Democrat who aspires to be president, can stand on this spot without mingled feelings of awe and gratitude—all for the great man who lived here, worked here and died here."

He said Roosevelt "raised a Democratic banner that we can be proud to raise today—a banner that summoned all Americans in every section, in every walk of life, in every race and creed."

"Franklin Roosevelt knew who had been ignored and omitted by 12 years of Harding, Coolidge and Hoover," Kennedy said.

"And he set about to help them to remember the forgotten man, to light the farms, to help the aged, to protect the worker, to open new doors to the Negro, to care for the needs of millions of Americans in a thousand different ways."

The Democratic contender made these references to equal opportunity for the Negro and to the need for solving racial problems in his prepared text but did not go into any detailed discussion of his civil rights views.

Nixon repeatedly has challenged Kennedy to give his version on this subject in the South as well as in the North. The senator has agreed that he has discussed civil rights in every one of his southern speeches.

The principal theme of the speech here was the need for greater effort in the field of health and medical care.

Referring to a recent position paper of Nixon's, offering a health program, Kennedy said caustically, "for him to boast now of the increase in funds for medical research, funds his party opposed all the way, if the height of election-year hypocrisy."

"Whatever progress was made in this field was made by a Democratic Congress over the foot-dragging opposition of the Republican party," the senator declared.

Kennedy whirled through a 75-mile motorcade in Youngstown, Ohio, Sunday, drawing crowds which enthusiastic aides described as one of his greatest days in the campaign.

Grant Keyes, Ohio highway patrol director, estimated between 600,000 and 750,000 saw the senator at Youngstown, Warren, Niles, Canfield, Salem, Girard and other cities.

A throng which waited more than three hours was at the Youngstown airport for his departure for Louisville, Ky., where he spent the night. The senator boarded his plane but after the crowd sent up a loud chant of "We want Kennedy," he emerged and went to the hangar for a final brief speech.

There was a sprinkling of Nixon signs along the motorcade route and some shouts of "We want Nixon."

Gov. Michael D. Sallee, who traveled with Kennedy said he was confident the Democrats would capture the state's 25 electoral votes.

It was referred to Wayne Burns, county attorney, for examination and no final action was taken.

Continental, which has been using the airport since early spring offered to pay $125 per landing for all of its aircraft not to exceed a DC3 in weight and $35 a square foot per year for 435 square feet required for its office operations in the terminal building.

One feature the commissioners did not particularly like was that the contract called for the agreement to begin this fall. The commissioners felt that the county should receive compensation for the time the company has already made use of the facilities as well. They want the contract to be retroactive to the date Continental moved onto the new airport, if they approve the contract.

In general, it was said the terms of the agreement coincide with the recommendations of the Howard County Airport committee.

C.A.L. Proposes Airport Contract

A proposed contract with Continental Airlines by which the county would receive approximately $2,400 in fees and rental for facilities at the Howard County airport was submitted to the Howard County Commissioners Court today.

Dick Standifer, operator of the airport, reviewed the contract with the court.

It was referred to Wayne Burns, county attorney, for examination and no final action was taken.

Jury Cases Due For This Week

There will be some business for the jury panel in 118th District Court to handle starting this afternoon but exactly how many cases will be ready for trial was a little uncertain shortly before noon Monday.

Judge Ralph Caton sounded the docket starting at 10 a.m. A large number of the cases on the tentative docket were passed for the term. One or two were reported settled.

"I wound up with about eight big question marks," Judge Caton commented. However, he added there would be some cases ready for action.

A panel, originally comprising 90 names had been called to report at 1:30 p.m. for jury duty. Excuses and disqualifications up to 10 a.m. had shrunk the list to 59 names.

County Court Panel Called

County Court Judge Ed Carpenter has instructed a panel of 50 jurors to report Tuesday morning to serve in the trial of criminal matters docketed for disposition during the next two weeks.

He planned to sound the docket Monday afternoon.

Wayne Burns, county attorney, said Monday that he was uncertain as to how many of the cases would be ready for trial. Many of the attorneys, he said, who represent the defendants have already informed him they cannot be in court for this session.

Texas GOP Hoping For One Member In State Legislature

By GARTH JONES AUSTIN (AP)—Texas Republicans aren't bragging, but they are hoping for at least one GOP member in the 57th Legislature.

Some GOP leaders see what they consider good prospects for success in at least three general election contests.

Also challenging the traditional Democratic domination of state Senate and House are a handful of Constitution Party candidates.

The last non-Democratic member of the legislature was Republican Edward Dicker of Dallas, in the 52nd Legislature.

This year four Democratic nominees for Senate and 24 for the House will have opposition Nov. 8. Three Senate nominees and 8 House nominees are incumbents.

Reports show considerable campaign activity in races in all but the San Angelo and Austin areas.

State GOP leaders are particularly enthusiastic over reports from the San Antonio, Kerrville and lower Valley areas. They

Keeping Prepared For Prayer

Our prayers are hindered, when we are unfaithful to Christian principles. Husbands were told to treat their wives right, to the end, "that your prayers be not hindered" (I Pet. 3:7).

Faithful Christian living is necessary that our prayers may be answered. "And whatsoever we ask, we receive of Him, because we keep His commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in His sight" (I Jno. 3:22).

This does not mean we must be perfect. No one lives above sin. The Apostle John said he and those to whom he wrote could not say they had no sin (I Jno. 1:8).

But having become children of God they could call God "Father," and thus had a right to pray and ask for forgiveness. (I Jno. 1:9 to 2:1).

We must not only endeavor to walk worthily; we must also continue to repent of our sins and ask forgiveness.

For free Gospel tracts, write Church of Christ, Box 1383, Advs.

think they have a long shot in the Dallas race.

One of the hottest races is in San Antonio between retired gambler V. E. Berry, Democrat, and insurance man Henry Catto Jr. Berry, who wants a return of legalized horse race betting, calls his opponent "Fat Cat Catto."

San Antonio politicians give Catto a good chance of getting the House seat but say a Republican win in the other four local legislative races would be genuine upsets.

Attorney Ike Kampmann Jr. is challenging Sen. Henry Gonzalez, liberal Democrat. Jim Helland, geologist, opposes Democratic nominee Jake Johnson of the district attorney's office.

Democratic Rufus Kilpatrick, the incumbent, is favored over GOP nominee Arthur Wilde in Port Arthur for a House seat.

Little activity is reported from San Angelo in the James Bayard-Forest Harding race although Republicans and conservative Democrats are making an intensive drive for the Republican national ticket.

Some Bayard-for-legislation placards have been tacked up for the GOP nominee.

GOOD CHANCE

In the valley, Raymond Mills, prosperous real estate man and former mayor of Weslaco, is given a good chance by GOP leaders to defeat Raul Longoria of Pharr for the Dist. 38-1 House seat.

Reports from the 10-county Dist. 78 indicate Republican W. G. Stacy may be strongest in Kerr County while Democrat James Nugent, also of Kerrville, is the favorite among the ranchers.

The race apparently will be settled by the vote of the sparse ranching areas. Kerr County elected a GOP county judge and voted heavily for President Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956.

In Dallas, Republican Tom Byrne is speaking two or three times daily in an effort to defeat Democratic nominee Joe Ratcliff for the House. Ratcliff has made no active campaign and Democrats say he should win with ease.

Both sides remember that six years ago when Republican Bruce Alger surprised even himself by defeating a strong Democratic nominee for Congress.

Houston has the most candidates, by far, for its eight House posts — eight Democrats, eight Constitution Party nominees, and four Republicans. Democrats apparently have the inside track but the Republicans are making an active campaign. One GOP House candidate, Louis Ehlers Jr., resigned recently in his race against the Democratic liberal leader, Bob Eckhardt, the incumbent.

Carlos Watson Jr., son of a former well known Texas Republican, then withdrew from his race against Don Garrison, a conservative Democrat, to take on Eckhardt. In turn, Lewis W. Emrich Jr. Houston insurance adjuster, was announced as Garrison's new opponent.

Democrat William Patman of Ganado, who trounced prominent Sen. William Fly of Victoria in the primaries, apparently will have little trouble with GOP nominee Jack Doyle of Tilden. It is the first time in the memory of Victoria politicians that Republicans have challenged Democrats with an active campaign.

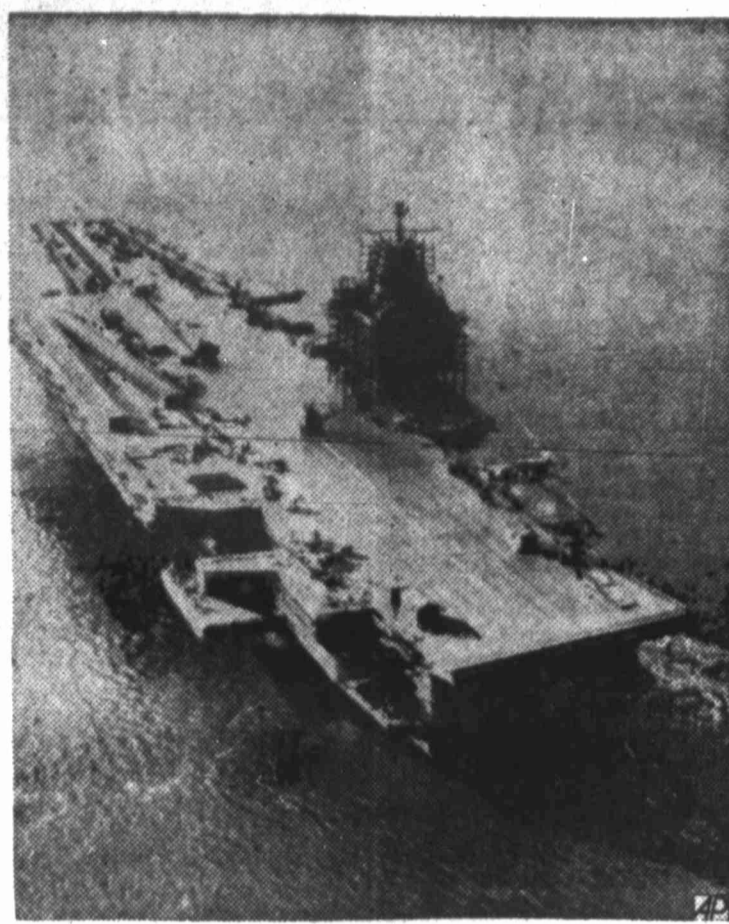

GOOD VOTE

In far West Texas, GOP nominee Jim Leonard of Pecos is trying to unseat Sen. Frank Owen of El Paso. Leonard is expected to poll a sizeable vote, maybe a majority, in the conservative Midland-Odessa part of the district, but politicians expect that to be offset by El Paso with its heavy Latin-American population that is solidly Democratic. El Paso County has never gone Republican.

Democrat Rufus Kilpatrick, the incumbent, is favored over GOP nominee Arthur Wilde in Port Arthur for a House seat.

Little activity is reported from San Angelo in the James Bayard-Forest Harding race although Republicans and conservative Democrats are making an intensive drive for the Republican national ticket.

Some Bayard-for-legislation placards have been tacked up for the GOP nominee.

Died Happy After Birthday

CORBIN, Ky. (AP)—Robert A. Early approached his 111th birthday recalling "the taste of good tobacco in a good corn cob pipe, the joy in working with your hands, the fun I had keeping a diary."

The former builder, police judge and storekeeper also joshed about his cake being too small for candles and said "they'd have to write his age on it."

Twenty friends and relatives attended the birthday celebration and Early appeared to have a fine time.

Then Sunday, the day after his birthday, he was stricken shortly after dinner and died a few minutes later from unannounced causes.

Acuna Residents Prepare To Host 2 Nations' Presidents

CIUDAD ACUNA, Mex. (AP)—The 20,000 inhabitants of this small Mexican border town were busy today with their preparations to receive the chief executives of Mexico and United States in their second official meeting within a year.

Presidents Adolfo Lopez Mateos and Dwight D. Eisenhower are scheduled to meet briefly here on Monday, Oct. 24.

Meanwhile, a small village-like Ciudad Acuna goes through a fever of activity, with everybody in town participating in the rush.

An army of engineers, architects, communications experts and other technicians has invaded the town, in a process of rejuvenation which goes from the painting of the main public buildings to the installation of new lighting in the streets and the air-conditioning of the municipal palace, where the presidents will have their first meeting.

The main conversation between the Mexican and U.S. chief executives, is scheduled to take place in the modern and conveniently appointed home of one of Ciudad Acuna's leading citizens.

Also important in the plans to receive the presidents is the enlarging and modernization of the small local airport.

President Eisenhower's plane will land in the U.S. military base near Del Rio, Tex., on the other side of the Rio Grande. From there, the American presidential party will then proceed by car to Ciudad Acuna.

President Lopez Mateos will leave Mexico City in his personal plane on Thursday for a four-day working trip through the state of Coahuila, ending precisely at Ciudad Acuna.

The rest of the Mexican official and photographers, will arrive by train.

After their talks and an official dinner offered by Lopez Mateos, Eisenhower will go back to the Texas side of the border early in the afternoon of the same day.

The interview will mark the last chance that Lopez Mateos will have to talk with President Eisenhower before the U.S. executive leaves office next year.

Swedish Paper Takes Dim View

STOCKHOLM (AP)—The liberal newspaper Dagens Nyheter attacked today what it called "influential economic groups" in Texas that it said were encouraging attacks on Sen. John Kennedy's Roman Catholic religion because they fear his economic policy.

The paper called this "a particularly objectionable example of how religious intolerance and ignorance is exploited in the election campaign."

The paper recalled "how prominent Texas Democrats in the two previous presidential elections supported the Republicans and that the state's Democratic organization two weeks ago made a number of conservative additions to the Democratic program as it was adopted in Los Angeles."

Ribbing For Faces, Health Lack In Scientific Reports

By The Associated Press

A look at medicine finds good health not so widespread as it might be and ribs used to help repair deformed faces:

SICKER THAN WE THINK

Americans apparently are not so healthy as generally thought. There are more minor illnesses and days of being below par, than has been suspected.

This is indicated, at least, by 15 scientists who kept careful records upon themselves for nine months, beginning in the fall.

On average, they were free of some symptoms of minor ills only 45 per cent of all that time. The 10 suffered 45 bouts of upper respiratory ailments.

But they averaged only 1 1/2 days absence from their jobs. This suggests absenteeism records don't accurately reflect the extent of minor illnesses, at least among persons who like their work, says the report in the American Review of Respiratory Diseases.

WINE AS MEDICINE

Drinking a dry, white wine helped patients overcome one after-effect of surgery in which part of the stomach is removed because of ulcers or cancer. These persons no longer could absorb fats from their food normally, and this caused pain, indigestion, and sometimes far more serious complications. The wine boosted ability to utilize essential food fats reports Dr. Theodore L. Althausen University of California Medical School.

The 4-year-old boy was so ashamed of his deformed face that he hid in a closet rather than face other youngsters in a hospital ward.

He's one of a number of children whose faces since have been rebuilt by using ribs taken from the youngsters' own chest cages. If care is taken not to damage the membrane surrounding the rib, the rib grows back again, and can even be used repeatedly in step-by-step plastic surgery to repair defects.

Dr. J. J. Longacre, G. A. deStefano and Kaj Holmstrand of Cincinnati report.

Carbon paper is not uncommon as a cause of allergic skin rashes, particularly among secretaries and stenographers, a medical journal says. Patch-tests easily can show if carbon paper is causing the trouble.

Is bruxism one of your bad habits? That means habitual grinding, clenching or clicking of the teeth, even when you're not aware of it, or during sleep. Most people do this to some extent, and it's a cause of abnormal wear and erosion of teeth, and recessing bleeding or inflammation of gums, says Dr. Samuel C. Nadler, Forest Hills, N.Y., dentist in the Journal of the American Dental Assn. He urges dentists to help patients detect and overcome bruxism.

Famed General Loses Battle

ALTON, England (AP)—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, still mopping up after the battle of Islington Mill, today admitted he's been outflanked and outmaneuvered.

Britain's most famous World War II commander was forced to retreat over the weekend by floods that invaded his home.

After a night of torrential rain, Montgomery climbed out of bed Sunday and found his garden and orchard under water.

Remorselessly the enemy advanced. Montgomery's home, Islington Mill, was threatened. Then the nearby River Wey burst its banks and joined forces with the local mill race.

Water swirled down the driveway and into Montgomery's garage. A strategic withdrawal was inevitable.

Up came the Persian carpets in the hall and dining room. Off the shelves came Monty's prized books. The household retreated to the second floor.

The hero of Alamein called for reinforcements. The local fire brigade arrived with pumps. The fight raged for hours. Finally the floods subsided.

Panhandle Gets Cooler Weather

By The Associated Press

Slightly cooler weather with occasional showers was predicted for the Texas Panhandle late Monday but continuing balmy weather was in store for the rest of the state.

Skies Monday were partly cloudy in the Panhandle, Southwest Texas and along the coast but clear elsewhere. Early morning fog was reported Monday at Beaumont and College Station. Predawn readings ranged from 61 degrees at El Paso and Dalhart to 78 at Laredo.

Maximum readings Sunday ran from 82 degrees at Dalhart to 97 at Laredo and San Angelo. The only rain reported was a trace at Wink.

DEAR ABBY

ALTAR ARDOR

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: A young couple was married in our church last Sunday. When it came time to kiss, they held it so long the parson had to tap the groom on the shoulder and tell him to break it up.

WAS THERE

DEAR WAS: The parson should have advised the couple at the rehearsal that too much ardor is out of order at the altar.

DEAR ABBY: Your viewpoint and that of other executives' wives on the subject of husbands taking their secretaries out to lunch would be appreciated. The claim that there's nothing "wrong" in it makes me bristle. I disapprove but am almost ashamed to say so because I am called absurd, insecure and just plain childish.

PERPLEXED

DEAR PERPLEXED: This is not "the custom" in Canada (or anywhere else). Your relatives probably carry their own linen for personal reasons. Don't take yours when you visit them.

DEAR ABBY: I really got mad when I read Howard's letter calling girls "deceitful" because they padded themselves a little. If a girl doesn't have naturally curly hair, is she "deceitful" to get a permanent? And if a girl doesn't have naturally red lips, is she "deceitful" to use a little lipstick? A better example yet: Is a girl "deceitful" to take a bath and put on deodorant and pretend she doesn't perspire?

NOBODY'S FOOL

DEAR ABBY: Recently my husband's aunt and uncle from Canada were overnight guests at our home. They brought their own bed linen, towels and wash cloths. This has never happened to us before. Is it a custom of that country? We expect to visit them next spring. Do you think we are expected to do the same thing?

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—General rains continued in Northwest, North Central and Northeast Texas. Director John Hutchison of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service said this week: Scattered showers in other sections brought no significant moisture.

Rains delayed the cotton and grain sorghums harvests in the Rolling Plains, but were adequate for small grains in all but five counties near Vernon.

Increased use of strippers has speeded the cotton harvest in North Texas. Farmers are busy planting small grains now that moisture is adequate.

Heavy rains fell in Northeast Texas. Peanuts are sprouting in some fields. Better than average yields are being obtained on well drained areas.

Moisture throughout deep East Texas ranges from fair to good. The harvest is 80 per cent complete.

Scattered showers improved moisture in far West Texas, but vest is back in full swing after rains. Small grains are up. Rain is needed for peanuts and stock fall growth of grass. The cotton harvest has reached the peak. Grass is curing well for winter grazing.

Ranges in West Central Texas deteriorated but livestock remains in fair to good condition. Farmers "dusted in" small grains. Increased use of mechanical harvesting equipment has cotton stacked up at the gins.

The Central Texas cotton harvest general rains are needed to speed tanks. Peanuts are beginning to hull, but the crop appears short.

Moisture in the Panhandle is adequate. An excellent carrot crop is moving to market but prices are low. Early grain sorghum yields are good and wheat and pasture prospects bright. Cotton is slow to mature.

Dryland yields of sorghum and cotton are good in the northern areas where a late cotton crop needs hot, dry weather to mature. The soybean and castor bean crops are looking good and wheat fields are about two-thirds planted.

Aided by dry weather, the cotton and corn harvest along the Gulf coast is nearing completion.

WASHINGTON — Irrespective of which presidential candidate is supposed to have made the "better impression" on television's "great debates," the fact remains that when a theatrical exhibition, by two-and-a-half-minute comments by the party nominees, is substituted for a dignified presentation of length of the issues of the campaign, the American electoral system is hurt rather than helped.

"What do you propose to do about the right of citizens to work at their jobs and to prevent them from being ousted by unions as a punishment because they do not believe in being members of organizations that participate in politics and endorse candidates with whose views these same workers may differ?"

Logically, if the stunt means that people are going to select a president largely on the basis of how likeable he is on the screen, then the day may come when a Bob Hope or a George Gobel or crooners like Bing Crosby and Frank Sinatra will be given consideration by national conventions—for, on the basis of a winning personality, they would be regarded as sure "vote-getters."

1. "WHAT DO YOU propose to do to prevent the cost of living from going higher and the purchasing power of the dollar from declining further?"

TELEVISION could readily have set aside two hours a night for an exhaustive discussion of the principal issues separately by each nominee over a period of several days in the last two weeks of the campaign, and this would have helped the American voters to become more familiar with the basic questions. But in a sparring match that is called a "debate," the slick phrase and the smart answer take the place of the reasoned statement. And what is wrong with the reading of a speech prepared by each candidate after a thorough study of fundamental issues?

2. "What do you propose to do to recover or get adequate compensation for American properties which now have been confiscated by Castro? Would you use the military forces of the United States to protect them, or would you do nothing but 'protest' through the organization of American States or the United Nations?"

THE PEOPLE of the United States are entitled to know, moreover, what steps military and otherwise will be taken by their government versus the Soviet Union to maintain peace—how Communism's invasion of Africa will be checked. The people have the right to be informed so that they may determine for themselves whether a change in administration policies will mean peace or will unwittingly encourage the Communists to intensify their "cold war" and perhaps plunge us into a "hot war." Families with young men of draft age want to be told what lies ahead for them—and it is a safe bet that the "great debates" on television will not thoroughly inform them on vital points such as these that could mean the difference between life or death for their boys.

Around The Rim Inchworms, Peanuts And Honesty

One thing and another This area isn't the only one bothered by tree blights. In Georgia, and throughout the East for that matter, they're concerned about the fact that the famed chestnut trees are dying out.

RACE DRIVERS have fewer superstitions than would be expected of men who lead such a hazardous life, but peanuts happen to be regarded as one of their pet voodooes.

WITH THE BUSHES, however, came a fungus growth that spread to the chestnut trees, with disastrous results. The inchworm, or the Ennomos Subsignaris omnivorus looper, which got its start mysteriously, is swiftly destroying thousands of acres of hardwood growth in the South. White oak and hickory trees that once supplied wide green shade and a promise of food for all game look like stark dead trees, or feathery ferns of mammoth size, because of the invasion of the inchworm.

THE SACKS, of course, would denote that they had been paid for. All 20 boxes were picked up in an afternoon's time and only two were turned in as lost packages.

ODDLY ENOUGH, a long time ago, the inchworm was considered a lucky worm, and when ladies saw it they believed it had come to measure them for a new dress.

YOU'VE HEARD of those honesty tests store managers try on their customers occasionally? The boss of a big emporium in a large city not long ago collected 20 empty stocking boxes, put them in paper sacks and placed them about various corners as if the customers had laid them down while looking at other merchandise and forgotten them.

ONLY ENGLISH sparrows have been able to control the inchworm, so the foresters in Dixie may go into the bird-importing business in a big way, any day now.

THEY THOUGHT they had been paid for. When those who took the boxes opened them they found instead of free nylons a slip of paper which read: "Did you go to church Sunday?" —TOMMY HART presidential election, so many qualified voters are simply too slothful to go to the polls and exercise one of the greatest privileges bestowed on free men: the secret ballot.

I HAVE A HUNCH that my youthful experience is probably rather general in the United States: I was taught to divvy up my few pennies with the Salvation Army, missionaries, Community Chest and any other good cause.

WHY NOT GIVE A season's nonpartisan ticket to the voter, a ticket that can be punched every time he goes to the polls? And what about asking him to show his ticket, or his voting record, before he backs you and me into the corner with a long diatribe against either the "ins" or the "outs"?

ONCE UPON A TIME that may have been true, but during the past 20 years, both parties have been passing the hat. Now I read that any contribution is welcome, herring bobby pins and campaign buttons. If little drops of water, little grains of sand, make the mighty ocean and the pleasant land, then little gifts of silver, nice one-dollar bills, keep the parties solvent and fill up their tills.

AM NOT disposed to listen with any degree of patience to a man or woman bellyaching about political conditions he has scorned to help create or correct. I have a hunch that we Americans, who love to grope, might flock to the polls in vast numbers if there was a tough rule to the effect: "No tickle, not talkie." Holmes Alexander Johnson In Role Of Hatchet Man he furiously opposed the vice president in secret policy sessions. Properly presented and played up, this point alone could damage the vice president's carefully cultivated image of maturity and peace-loving.

IT MAY BE THAT the majority leader's artistic temperament is concentrated on the style and emotion which go into performances, and that he does not stoop to wringing the mundane element of publicity out of them. Or it may be that he takes the long, lofty view that everything will come his way if he just keeps on being himself. In any event, Johnson makes friends, provides good listening and good watching wherever he goes, but he doesn't make as much news as he might.

JOHNSON has been slushing and poking fun at Ambassador Lodge's self-spun success yarn laid in 1953-59 in the plush "front lines" of the cold war at the U.N. rear echelon headquarters. Lodge's claims of victory because the United States hasn't yet lost a roll call are very pale beside the realities of Eisenhower in Paris, Powers in the prisoner's dock at Moscow, Hagerty in Tokyo, Khrushchev in Manhattan and Castro in Havana. "When a skunk gets into my smokehouse, we don't call that success down in Texas," Johnson observes.

THIS could be a major factor in a closely-fought battle for the national election. As Democratic vice president candidate, the irrepressible Texas has assumed two principal duties. Johnson is knocking the wind out of the self-asserted claims of Richard Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge to be statesmen of record. And Johnson is in action as the master builder of John Kennedy's statesmanship role.

BESIDES DOING this hatchet-work on the enemy, Johnson is warming up and building up Kennedy as nobody else, including Kennedy, has yet done. The majority leader's interpretation of the dismal August session of Congress is that, "It's not important that you always win—it's what you stand for." He then makes Kennedy "stand for" the 27 million workers and the 15 million elderly invalids who didn't get wage hikes and medical care. Finally, Johnson gives a he's-my-boy pledge to head of the Democratic ticket: "I think I can help Jack Kennedy be a great president."

WHAT A BREAK for the Democratic ticket if the majority leader were able to hit the headlines consistently! This current tour takes him through the Middle Atlantic area of Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia. In most of the towns and cities he is a fresh personality in a big, beige Western hat, accompanied by the charming Lady Bird, his brunette wife, in a scarlet coat. The things that Johnson is saying against the Nixon-Lodge Republican ticket and for Democratic Candidate Jack Kennedy are plenty new and startling enough to draw national attention.

There are points here of unmistakable news impact—but Johnson buries the points under jokes, and loses them in the circuitous lanes of memory. At the end of a Johnson address, everybody's had a wonderful time—including the speaker. So much so that sometimes it's hard to remember what he was driving at. (Distributed by McNaughton Syndicate, Inc.)

FOR INSTANCE, Johnson has said that he's attended dozens of top-level White House meetings where the vice president was present but contributed mere suggestions and no decisions. Johnson has said that Nixon has proved to be the "greatest misjudger of the past decade." To prove the point, Johnson has handed out a press release with eight examples of the vice president's misjudgments, from Latin-American relations to the Benson farm program.

While there they checked this year's ranch registry and found the names of guests from Russia, Austria, the Orient, Africa and almost every state in the union. But there were no Arizonans listed from the home state of the Grand Canyon.

For 13th Time, Legislators Ask Voters For Raise In Pay

By ED OVERHOLSER
 (Editors Note: This is the first of three stories on four constitutional amendments to be voted on Nov. 8)

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas taxpayers decide next month if they think paying their lawmakers $4,800 a year would produce a better legislature.

This is the 13th time since the adoption of the 1876 Constitution that the issue has gone to the people after the legislators first convinced themselves they were worth a pay raise. Voters disagreed 10 of the 12 times.

Constitutional Amendment No. 3 to be voted on Nov. 8 provides each member $4,800 a year whether the legislature is in session or not. It also would give each of the 181 members $12 a day for extra expenses during sessions plus travel expense of 10 cents a mile.

The annual salary plan is used in 34 states, ranging from $200 in New Hampshire to $15,000 in New York. The average amount is $3,600.

Texas ranks sixth in population. Of the top five states, New York pays its members $15,000 a year; California, Pennsylvania and Illinois pay $12,000; and Ohio $10,000. However, Texas ranks favorably with most of its neighbors and the South.

Members now receive $25 a day for the first 120 days of the regular session and the same amount during a 30-day special session. This amendment cuts off the regular session automatically at 140 days and the $12 per diem snaps after 120 days.

When the annual salary request of $7,500 was linked with an annual session proposal in 1958 voters turned it down, 441,803 to 195,993. In a 2-year period in which one regular and three special sessions were called—as in 1959—under the present rate of pay the cost would be $950,250 and under the proposed plan would rise to $2,193,720. On an individual basis, the climb would be from $5,250 to $12,120.

If adopted, the legislature in January would need to pass enabling legislation fixing an effective date. The legislature also would continue voting a contingency expense fund at the start of each session to pay operating costs ranging from stamps to interim committees.

The Texas Legislative Council discovered a few years ago that the average legislator spends $3,157 more than he makes during a regular session in addition to an average outlay of $2,722 to be elected.

In 1929 voters agreed to increase the per diem from $5 to $10 for the first 120 days and $5 thereafter until the end of the session. The present scale was adopted in 1954.

Proponents of the amendment contend the lawmakers should be paid enough to offset sacrifices entailed by absence from their regular vocation. They argue that adequate pay must be offered to make government service attractive in order to get the most capable people available.

Most legislators are self-employed or are able to take an extended break from their business. There were 88 lawyers and 24 ranchers in the last legislature but many professions were not represented. Many well-qualified persons stay out of public life because they cannot make the financial sacrifices necessary to hold office.

Opponents point to the state's large and growing deficit and declare the amendment will cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. The reply is that the increase parallels the rising costs of other governmental activities and is only a drop in the figurative bucket in comparison with the $1 billion a year state government.

Syracuse Due Severe Test

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Is Syracuse, the powerful defending national football champion, due a severe test for a fall?

For two weeks now, Ben Schwartzwalder's outfit has found the going rough.

Against Kansas, the Orange won by one touchdown, 14-7. There was some cause for that. The Jayhawks are a good club, capable of winning the Big Eight championship.

Last Saturday, Syracuse barely stumbled past winless Holy Cross, 15-6.

Directly ahead is Penn State, perennial Eastern power and apparently just beginning to find itself. The Nittany Lions rebounded from a defeat by Missouri to whip Army, 27-16, Saturday.

If Penn State plays like it did against Army and if Syracuse plays like it did against Holy Cross, Schwartzwalder's behemoths are in for trouble.

Holy Cross outplayed Syracuse for 41 minutes, and the outcome caused Schwartzwalder to moan: "We'll have to go back to fundamentals. We couldn't throw. We couldn't catch. We couldn't even catch the ball thrown into our hands by the opposition."

ONE OTHER TEST

After Penn State, Syracuse' only big problem appears to be Army on Nov. 5.

Mississippi, No. 2 behind Syracuse in the current Associated Press poll, has no great problem in Tulane this week. Ole Miss swept past Vanderbilt in a Southeastern Conference game Saturday, 26-0, but Vandy already had been beaten twice.

More significant than Mississippi's third victory was the downfall of three other pretenders to Syracuse's throne—two in the Big Ten and one in the Southwest Conference.

Both Illinois and Purdue, rated No. 4 and 7, respectively in the AP poll, were well beaten. Ohio State, No. 5 humiliated Illinois, 34-7, and Wisconsin clobbered Purdue, 24-13.

That makes Iowa, No. 3 and a 27-15 victor over Michigan State, and Ohio State—the favorites for the Big Ten title. They meet on Nov. 12. Iowa takes on Wisconsin this week and Ohio State is at Purdue.

BAYLOR BLOOMING

Arkansas, which had been rolling along as the strong favorite to win the Southwest Conference title, fell before Baylor, 28-14.

Baylor, by the way, hasn't won the league championship in a quarter of a century and now is in a position to do so.

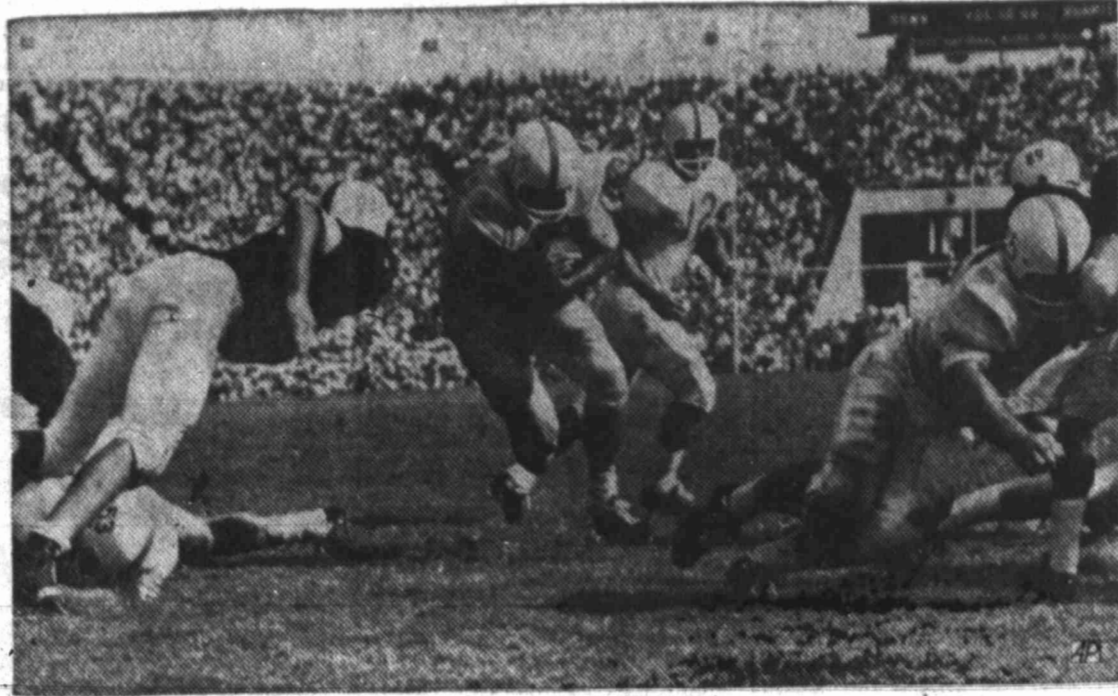

Arkansas faces another roughie in Texas this week, and while Baylor plays Texas Tech. The following week Texas gets its shot at Baylor.

Navy, No. 6 in the poll, stopped Southern Methodist, 25-7, and has a date with the Air Force Academy this week. The Fly Boys lost to Missouri, 34-8, Saturday. Clemson, No. 8 and the top candidate for the Atlantic Coast Conference title, coasted to a 21-7 triumph over Virginia, while Kansas No. 10, trounced Iowa State, 28-14.

With Kansas in the No. 10 spot and Missouri No. 12 in the nation, it looks like the Oklahoma dynasty in the Big Eight is ready to crumble.

The Sooners have won the Big Eight championship the last dozen years, but they already have lost two of their three games including Saturday's 24-0 pasting at the hands of Texas.

They play Kansas this week and for the first time in many a moon, the Jayhawks are favored.

Packers Upset Colts As Race Becomes Four-way Scramble

By MIKE RATHEP
Associated Press Sports Writer

The rebuilt Green Bay Packers, molded into a title contender by Vince Lombardi, have struck the first blow against the kingly Baltimore Colts in a determined bid to bring the smallest city in the National Football League its first championship since 1944.

The Packers played a pair of pass interceptions by Hank Greminger and two fumble recoveries into four touchdowns and shocked the two-time champion Colts 35-21 Sunday.

Lombardi, 47, former New York Giants' assistant who was one of the "seven blocks of granite" at Fordham University, became the Packers' coach and general manager after the dismal 1958 season in which Green Bay won only one game.

A year later in 1959 Lombardi's deft touch was evident as the Packers soared to a 7-5 record and tied for third place in the Western Division.

FOUR-WAY BATTLE

The Packers now are in a four-way scramble for the lead in the West with Baltimore, Chicago and San Francisco—all with 2-1 records.

The Bears' Ed Brown tossed three touchdowns in a 34-27 victory over Los Angeles while San Francisco edged the Detroit Lions 14-10 on an 18-yard pass from John Brodie to R. C. Owens as the final game sounded.

The New York Giants beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 19-17 on a last-minute 44-yard TD pitch from Charley Conerly to Frank Gifford and took over the top spot in the Eastern Division with a 3-0 record, a half-game in front of Philadelphia whipped St. Louis 31-27 and Washington won its first 26-14 over Dallas in other games.

Bouncing Bucos Get Off Mat, Even Series

By JOE REICHEL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It is hard to believe that the Bouncing Bucos, so thoroughly humiliated by two successive one-sided defeats, were all even today with New York Yankees at two victories apiece in the best-of-four series for the world championship.

It is even harder to believe that the same pitiful Pirates of two days ago, who apparently were on the way to four straight licksings following their opening game triumph, actually are in better shape than their Yankee tormentors.

True, the odds-makers continue to make the Yankees a strong 9-5 favorite to capture the Series despite the Pirates' comeback 3-2 victory before 67,812 Yankee Stadium fans. New York is an 8 to 5 choice to win today's fifth game. But the odds-makers are not reckoning with these hard, cold facts: The Pirates must be conceded an edge on the mound today with their veteran southpaw Harvey Haddix, an 11-game winner during the regular season opposed by rookie right-hander Bill Stafford, who had a 3-1 record following his promotion from the Yankees' Richmond farm last summer.

Pittsburgh still has the edge even if Casey Stengel switched to Art Ditmar, as he indicated he might. Ditmar failed to last an inning in the first game.

TYPICAL

Murtaugh said Pittsburgh's heart-in-the-mouth victory Sunday was "typical" of his team. The Pirates got good pitching, good defense and earned their runs the hard way—by scratching and clawing and causing the opposition to make mistakes.

"The game we play the day before doesn't mean a thing to us," he said, referring to Saturday's 10-0 shellacking (there was also that 16-3 defeat in the second game). "We've been counted out a half dozen times but we've always come back."

It happened for the Bucos in the fifth inning. Gino Cimoli, playing in place of the injured Bob Skinner, singled for the first hit off Ralph Terry.

Smoky Burgess followed with a slow grounder toward first. Skowron grabbed the ball close to the bag and tried for the force but Cimoli beat the throw. So, instead of there being one out and a runner on second, there were two out and nobody out.

BOO BOO

Hoak, ordered to sacrifice, elected to push a bunt past the pitcher but sent a low popup to Richardson instead. Since a bunt is not an infield fly and therefore not an automatic out, Richardson could have trapped the ball and turned it into a double play. But the second baseman decided to catch it instead.

After Bill Mazeroski popped up this was an infield fly and an automatic out—Law banged a double to left scoring Cimoli. Virvon followed with a Texas League single over the infield to score Burgess and Law with the second and third runs.

This stood up all the way despite some anxious moments in the seventh and ninth.

The Yankees were trailing 3-1 in the seventh when Skowron, whose home run in the fourth had given his team a temporary 1-0 lead, slammed a one-bounce double into the right field stands. Gil McDougald singled to right but Skowron had to hold up at third when Roberto Clemente made a true throw to the plate.

Richardson, who had already doubled and singled, missed a 45-foot bunt attempt. They bounced into a force play at second, Skowron scoring. Pinch hitter Johnny Blanchard singled Richardson to second and Murtaugh summoned Face from the bullpen.

The brilliant reliever threw Bob Cerv a fast ball and the bemused outfielder whaled it to deep right center. Virvon, racing toward the bleachers, made a spectacular running leaping catch, holding the ball despite a hard fall on the cinder path at the foot of the wall. Richardson ambled to third after the catch but was left there when Face tossed out Tony Kubek.

The little right-hander retired the next six batters but received another scare in the ninth. Skowron, leading off the last inning, first missed a homer with one strike to right that curved foul at the last moment, then smashed a sizzler inside third. Hoak made a brilliant stab and threw him out.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Coaches around District 2-AAAA are talking, and not in eardraining terms, of the manner in which the Abilene High School Junior Varsity shellacks B teams from other cities without compassion.

At least one coach has remarked that he believes the Abilene JV's, egged on by their coaches, try to make the kicking as one sided as possible in order to get the whip hand in for future seasons.

The Abilene club massacred San Angelo's B team, 80-0, last week, just five days after routing a good Big Spring club, 60-0.

The local team was made up of some promising but green sophomores and were handicapped by the fact that one of its better running backs, Jack Roden, suffered a broken ankle early in the contest and its leading rushing threat, Rickey Wise, did not even suit up for the game.

In a case of trying to get a bluff in on the local team, it may not work. For one thing, the Abilene talent—at long last—will be divided among two schools next year unless they decide to send all the boys to one school and all the girls to another, as has been laughingly predicted. For another, the local boys have long memories. They might be a bit vengeful by the time they get promoted to the varsity.

The Eagles have run up 272 points in five games now and have not had a touchdown scored against them. They beat the Mason varsity, 24-0, Oesta B, 60-0, and the Stamford B team, 44-0, in addition to Big Spring and San Angelo.

Abilene should have divided its squad this year. It didn't because it has an athletic-minded superintendent of schools and an equally athletic-minded school board who are proud of the school's past glories and couldn't stand the thought of a community's growth (and increasing demands for student space in the classrooms) cramping a tradition.

Phil Cavarretta, who moved to Dallas shortly after his major league baseball career was terminated (due to his child's asthmatic condition) and who later transferred to take care of that item Saturday night, has returned to Chicago to live. He's being considered as the next manager of the Cubs.

School officials at Waco are moaning low over the apathy of the football fans' attitude in that city toward high school athletics.

They say the paid attendance at one of the recent games of Waco High School was barely enough to outfit four players and pay the light bill. The school, after expenses had been paid and the gate had been split with the visiting team, wound up with $448 net receipts.

When the gates at the games drop, the loss incurred has to be picked up by the taxpayers.

Critics of the program like to point out that it takes about $41,000 annually to subsidize athletics in Waco—enough money to employ 10 experienced teachers, which were badly needed this year, but which were not hired because of a lack of funds.

Despite the lackadaisical attitude of the fans, Waco is planning to build a big, new stadium for the use of the city's high school teams.

More and more, the schools in that area—suffering through a losing battle for the entertainment dollar with the pro teams, the colleges and TV all on the other side—will probably turn to West Texas for non-conference games. The gates, on the whole, continue good out this way.

TCU's Robert Lilly was boomed for All-America honors long before this football season began but a mediocre showing against Kansas University could cost him the rating.

Too, observers who saw him against Arkansas recently thought the best lineman on the field was Dean Garrett, a junior guard for Arkansas.

The intersectional game, especially, often make or break an athlete's chances to be included on the star spangled squads.

Baylor, Texas Are Favored

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baylor and Texas, now championship co-favorites in the fast-changing Southwest Conference football race, headline this week's schedule of all-out conference warfare.

The Golden Bears, who thumped Arkansas 28-14 last week and found themselves shooting to the top, visit Lubbock for a whack at Texas Tech Saturday night.

Texas, which showed a solid team in a 24-0 conquest of Oklahoma, takes on Arkansas at Austin in the afternoon.

Baylor and Texas are tied for the lead in the conference race with 1-0 records while Rice and Southern Methodist have yet to play. They will take care of that item Saturday night when they battle each other at Dallas.

Expectations are that Texas, Baylor and Rice will be tied for the top after Saturday's firing.

Rice indicated it was one to be considered when a championship talk arises as it won its second important intersectional game in a row—a 10-0 victory over Florida.

Texas Tech is the only team definitely eliminated from the championship race. The Red Raiders absorbed a 21-7 licking from Texas Christian last week to limp home with an 0-2-1 record.

Impotent Southern Methodist, losing its first three games for the first time since 1932, was the victim of Navy 26-7. The Methodists had only the consolation of scoring their first touchdown.

Texas A&M, which has managed to win only one game in four, was taken to a 17-0 cleaning by University of Houston.

Gra-Y Games Are Booked Saturday

The Gra-Y rag football league moves into its second round Saturday with three games. Lakeview meets College Heights at 8:30 a.m.; Airport meets Boydston at 9:45 a.m.; and Marcy tangles with Park Hill at 11 a.m.

Last Saturday Frank Pierno, Joe Valdez and Pete Hernandez each scored at Bauer decisioned Washington, Place 18-0. Cedar Crest measured March 2-0 with Harold Ross counting twice. Joe Davis and Johnny Cuchia also scored.

Boydston turned back Kate Morrison 22-0 with Lonnie Clanton, R. Rogers and M. Shaffer each making a touchdown.

still highly regarded, took a 15-7 setback in its second round while undefeated El Campo was pulling out a 16-14 squeaker over Port Lavaca. Levelland supplied the final straw to the topsy-turvy weekend by dumping powerful Andrews 16-0.

San Benito, in addition to McKinney, Kilgore and Port Lavaca, got its winning streak clipped. Unbeaten Pharr-San Juan-Alamo tripped the Greyhounds 18-8.

Carrollton and Brownwood picked up a pair of impressive victories. Carrollton crushing Fort Worth Brewer 46-6 and Brownwood trimming Stephenville 22-0.

The top Class AAA games this week send Phillips against Lamesa, Monahans against Seminole, Sweetwater against Graham and McKinney against AAAA Garland.

Andrews meets Kermit, Carthage tackles Center, Jasper engages Newton and Bay City plays Channelview in some others.

Lakeview Books Lubbock Friday

Lakeview squares off here Friday evening against Lubbock at Memorial Stadium in the second district encounter of the season. Lakeview dropped its first district contest Friday night against Plainview 50-16.

Plainview, one of the powers of the loop, scored twice in the first quarter, taking about two minutes for its first counter. Before the quarter was out, the opposition had punched over another, then added a third in the second casto to account for a 18-0 half-time lead.

However, Danny Traylor brought Lakeview back into the game with a sensational return of the second half kickoff for 70 yards and a touchdown. Danny Brown rammed over the two extra points.

Plainview countered with a pair of TDs before Danny Brown connected with Roy Luck for 30 yards and another Lakeview touchdown. Danny Brown got the extra points.

Plainview added two counters in the fourth.

Lakeview came out of the game in reasonably good physical condition and should be ready to give Lubbock a rough time at 8 p.m. Friday.

Stephens, Short Go-Cart Winners

Malcolm Stephens piled up 45 points to capture the men's B standard go-cart race at the V&W Raceway on U.S. 80 west at 4:30 p.m. Sunday.

He out-puncted Reg Rives, who had 15 for the course in this event.

In the men's A standard race, R. U. Short edged Floyd Klaus 32 to 25 for top honors.

Bobby Lyons captured the boy's division with 35 points to 29 for Velton Jones.

National League Leads American

By The Associated Press

The National Football League averaged over 37,000 fans a game for its six weekend contests compared to an 18,000 average for a trip of clashes in the New American League.

The largest NFL turnout was the 49,825 who clicked the turnstiles at Detroit for the Lions-San Francisco game Sunday while 47,776 saw Los Angeles at Chicago.

The senior circuit total for the day was 224,917.

Spinney Impressive In Sunland Win

EL PASO (Sp)—Spinney showed the class that carried him to a $100,000 victory in the Santa Anita Maturity and romped home to a length and a quarter victory in the Mt. Christo Reg purse here Sunday. Under a confident ride by Ken Copperrill, the horse immediately established himself as a threat for the Sunland Park Park Handicap on Jan. 8.

Copperrill led Gallant Bid set a five length lead going down the backstretch, then called on the free striding Spinney entering the far turn. By the time the field turned from home, Spinney took the lead and was running easily as he crossed the wire in front of the outsider, Jet Flow. Chatterly was third.

KILGORE FALLS
Four Teams Ousted From Untied, Unbeaten Ranks

By The Associated Press

Four teams, including mighty Kilgore, tumbled from the unbeaten, untied list last week, leaving only 14 perfect record clubs in Class AAA Texas schoolboy football.

The campaign this week shifts into high gear as many of the teams begin district competition. And one game involving Carrollton and Hurst-Eules of District 5, matches unbeaten teams.

All in all it was a rough week for the AAA powers. Jacksonville pulled the big trick by derailling the Kilgore express 22-19 in what may have decided the District 7 championship.

Sweetwater, which has been pushing Kilgore for top honors, was smothered 33-12 by Odessa Permian of AAAA Greenville. Permian slashed a black mark on McKinney's unbeaten record, holding the potent Lions to a scoreless deadlock.

week Big Spring digs in to prepare for the first district game of the season — and one of the hardest all year. They met Abilene here the evening of Oct. 21, and they let it be known they aren't playing it just to hold or scare the high-flying Eagles — but to win.

Bikes Now Have Power Brakes, Transmission

The automatic gear shift and power brakes have come to bicycle riders with the development of a new bike transmission and brake unit by the Eclipse Machine Division of the Bendix Corporation.

Cecil Thixton, 908 W. 3rd, has three bicycles equipped with automatic transmission and power brake assembly. The special unit, which is similar to the coaster brake in appearance, has been road-tested by newsboys in the Elmira, N. Y. area for more than a year before Bendix put it into production.

The entire mechanism, which Bendix says is "the first successful development of an automatic gearshift and power brake assembly for bicycles," is contained in a bicycle hub, such as is used for a regular bicycle coaster brake. The unit can be installed at the factory, or in the replacement field, as simply as a regular brake, Bendix engineers said.

It incorporates two shifts — a low for starting and hill-climbing and a high for "cruising" speed. A shift from one to the other is accomplished by back-pedaling about two inches. When the brake is applied — regardless of which gear the rider is using — the unit utilizes the gear ratio of the low-speed shift, which reduces pedal pressures by about 50 per cent and this makes it a "power" brake, the engineers said.

"This new device," the Bendix announcement said, "will help to give a bicycle a streamlined appearance — a style that has been impossible to achieve on bicycles with other gearshifts. As a result of this development all leading American bicycle manufacturers, distributors and multiple outlet retailers have announced that they intend to feature the unit on various models in the near future."

World Series Games Were Most Popular TV Events

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television - Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The World Series games were without doubt the most popular events of the television weekend. NBC seemed to be doing an adequate job of reporting baseball.

It was in color, too, but as far as I can judge, about the only thing the color adds to regular black and white TV is a reminder that baseball is played on a grass diamond.

Phil Silvers and Polly Bergen, a talented pair, put on a 60-minute show Saturday night on CBS which was amusing bright and tuneful. Comedian Silvers proved himself to be a man with an engaging way with song lyrics and singer Bergen turns out to have a flare for comedy.

The sketches, with one exception, were off the beaten TV track. Unfortunately, one about an insanely jealous husband was very much like a sketch a week ago in "Hooray for Love" by Art Carney and Alice Ghostley.

But there was a nice satire on the success theme about an ambitious plumber and an amusing number showing the home life of a department store window dresser.

Jackie Gleason returned to the home screen in a CBS special Sunday night. Occasionally, it was sort of like the old days—there was a nostalgic reunion between Jackie and Art Carney.

Jackie did a bartender monologue and turned up as Reggie Van Gleason—but it wasn't the same. He seemed sort of dignified, for one thing, and the whole show lacked exuberance.

Shirley Temple's adaptation, "Tom and Huck," from Mark Twain's books looked like a combination of "Riverboat" and "Our Gang Comedy." That's not a good combination.

NBC and CBS forced the viewers to sit down and be counted. At exactly the same hour—6-6:30 p.m.—Sunday, CBS had a panel interviewing Henry Cabot Lodge and NBC had a panel interview Lyndon B. Johnson. It would be interesting to know how viewers made their choices.

Black Widow Spider Works For The State

By ED OVERHOLSER
AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The black widow spider crawled out of her peanut butter bottle and began working for the State of Texas. Dangling on a rack, the poisonous little creature spun yards of web. Eventually her production will become the cross hairs of delicate instruments at the State Highway Department.

The black widow's only pay is an occasional fly or moth and a little water. For this she will work for months.

But there is nothing cheap about her wares. When it can't harvest its own, the department pays $15 for 50 feet of web.

Working with the spider—and her countless predecessors—is a serious business to the men in the air-conditioned instrument repair shop at Camp Hubbard, a departmental branch in North Austin.

NOTHING LIKE IT
Claude Evans, chief instrument repairman, and Milton Sweet, senior instrument repairman, think there's nothing like the widow's web for cross hairs. Most of the department's 2,200 levels and transits used in surveying are so equipped.

The web is stronger and more flexible than platinum wire. It's easier to clean. The black widow is the front runner in the spider field because her silk is always a uniform blackness and even in diameter.

"Other webs look knotty and transparent in places," Evans explains.

The black widow seems to produce more silk when she's upset. She won't spin if she hasn't been fed. But once she gets going she can crank out $100 worth of web at one time.

To get the filament, the spider is placed on a small rack with two bars. She is gently thumped off the rack and immediately begins to produce a thread. This is rolled onto the rack while the spider hangs suspended in the air.

ONLY TYPE
A single strand spun by a spider traveling in the air is the only type which can be used for instruments. The web silk produced for snaring prey is sticky and unusable.

A medium sized spider produces the best cross hairs. A large spider will spin too thick a web. Actually the single thread is composed of several strands, Sweet says.

Scraping with a horse hair on the end of a match, Sweet split one filament into strands. Under a microscope an observer watched a single strand being bent like a loose bow from pressure of the horse hair. But it didn't snap.

"A platinum wire will break a whole lot easier than that will," Evans said.
The spiders are easily picked up around old cans and bottles but between November and spring they can't be found here. This requires the instrument men to roll up an adequate supply of webbing during the warm months.

Jail-Breakers Nabbed By Radar

HARTINGTON, Neb. (AP)—Two men who broke out of the Montgomery County, Tex., jail at Conroe were arrested Sunday when state troopers operating a radar speed trap nabbed them.

State patrolmen said the men identified themselves as Thomas McGaha, 30, of Houston, Tex., and Jimmy P. Stewart, 21, of Singleton, Tex.

They were arrested on U.S. 81 north of here.

Stewart's brother, Ned, 25 who also escaped the Texas jail with the pair was captured Sunday at Fritley, Minn. All had been held in the Conroe jail for burglary.

Now We Have Drive-In Religion

GARDEN GROVE, Calif. (AP)—To drive-in restaurants and drive-in theaters, add drive-in religion.

The Garden Grove Community Drive-in Church, affiliated with the reformed branch of the Presbyterian Church, has 10 acres and 100 loudspeakers to accommodate 600 cars at Sunday services.

The Rev. Robert Schuller conducted his church's first outdoor services in a drive-in theater five years ago. He said it proved a boon to the disabled and sick and decided to keep it when he acquired a permanent site.

Niki Projects Folksy Image

By JOHN SCALI
NEW YORK (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev, the tough-tempered Soviet premier, has drawn this self-portrait: He is a peace-loving old grandfather who would never threaten war or grab an inch of anyone's territory.
Furthermore, he said he is convinced that the storm over U2 plane flights will subside in time for the next U. S. president to meet at the summit with him in friendly fashion.
This is the folksy image Khrushchev sought to project across American television screens and on radio Sunday night during a two-hour question and answer session.

BRIEF BLOWUPS

Except for a few brief blowups, Khrushchev soft-pedaled the campaign of threats and denunciations he has waged since arriving three weeks ago to lead the Soviet delegation at the United Nations.

"What do I want with war?" he asked. "I have so many grandchildren, even a great grandchild."

Khrushchev pictured himself as the elected leader of a nation who wants nothing more than to help his people realize their dream of being friends with the American people.

"We don't ask to get anything from you. We only want friendship and peace, that is all," he said. Khrushchev played the let-be-friends theme, however, without backtracking from his latest demands. In softer language, he still wanted the West to get out of Berlin, overhaul the UN according to Moscow's specifications, disarm now and talk about inspection later.

He said the Soviet Union would have no alternative but to shoot down further spy planes.

TIME HELPS

But, he added in talking about the U2 spy plane furor: "There can be international relations be all sorts of aggravations. Sometimes they can be very sharp indeed, but with the passage of time such relations lose their rough edges. Evidently (this) will happen also with the U2 incident."

Khrushchev was interviewed by television producer David Susskind on the WNTA-TV program "Open End."

The program was carried live or on a delayed basis over more than 250 TV and radio stations. In addition, the Australian Broadcasting Commission, the Canadian Broadcasting Co. and the British Broadcasting Corp. have acquired rights to the telecast.

The show touched off protests. Hundreds of viewers phoned the studio to protest Khrushchev's appearance. Others called to complain about spot announcements during the program which extolled the work of Radio Free Europe and the North Atlantic Pact.

ANGERED

Khrushchev "just got rigid" with anger when an aide passed him a note during the show telling him about the Radio Free Europe announcements, Susskind said later.

Victor Sukhadrev, his interpreter, relayed Khrushchev's comment. It was: "How dare you!" But in a few seconds the Soviet leader calmed down.

"Well, do anything you like. We

Congregation Gets Stamps

LAKE WALES, Fla. (AP)—The congregation at the First Methodist Church got trading stamps Sunday night, just as the preacher promised.
It also got mimeographed slips labeled: "First Methodist Church stamps." These licensed recipients "to participate fully in the Sunday evening services of your church. You will receive more than stamps through loyal attendance every Sunday evening."
Each of the 190 churchgoers received five trading stamps and five church stamps as he entered the auditorium.
The Rev. Robert C. Boggs, 45, said, "Although the crowd was a little better tonight, I don't think the stamps had anything to do with it."
Trading stamps for the project were accumulated through purchases at stores that give them, the minister said.

Candy Barr Shares Honors In Rodeo

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Candy Barr, former Dallas strip queen, shared honors here Sunday with the cowboys in the annual Texas Prison Rodeo.
Candy, sent up on a charge of possessing marijuana, brought the house down when she sang "Fever" in what was described as "Peggy Lee Style."
Convict riders found the going rougher than usual but managed to tame some of the prison's prize stock in both bronc and bull riding events.
Cruz Davilla, serving 99 years from Cotulla, successfully rode a wild horse called "Davis Mountain" to be the second rider ever to control the animal.
Besides Candy Barr, another former Dallas entertainer, Aldo Phillips, and several television and radio stars sang for the spectators.

Winners of the inmate contests: Mad scramble: Donald Redd, Dallas, first; J. W. Lyles, Houston, second; Cruz Davilla, Cotulla, third.
Saddle Bronc riding: O'Neal Browning, Houston; Benigno Granada, Fort Stockton; Davila.
Bareback bronc riding: Davila; Willie Jones, Roysse, City; James Benson, Rock Wall.
Bull riding: Stoneham; Gail Hall, Odessa; Davila.
In the wild horse race, which featured 30 contestants and 10 Broncs, the team of Browning, James Gordon and Charlie Arthur was first to cross the judges line. In second place came James Foster, V.A. Braswell and Eddie Barrett. The third place team was Pete Clominger, Benson and W.E. Bradford.

Mrs. Riddle Is Honored

Mrs. Phillip Riddle was complimented with a bridal shower by friends at the Central Baptist Church in Elbow Friday.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Helen Jones, Mrs. D. Armstrong, Mrs. James Grantham, Mrs. H. G. Huestis, Mrs. Charles Grizzard, Mrs. M. M. Fairchild, Mrs. Jim Woodard, Mrs. Herb Gibson, Annette Parrish and Jayne McElroy.

A musical centerpiece that featured a miniature bride under an archway was the focal point of the refreshment table that was laid with a lace cloth over blue. Favours were little bags of rice.

The recent bride wore a sheath of jersey with patent accessories. Her corsage, a gift of the hostesses, was fashioned from miniature kitchen utensils and centered with a tiny bridal couple.

During the receiving hours 65 guests called.

Miss Singletary Is Complimented

A miscellaneous shower was given for Melita Singletary recently at the home of Mrs. Jackie Touchstone with Mrs. Joan Washburn and Mrs. Pete Sanderson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Washburn greeted the guests along with the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Lee Singletary. The couple will be married on October 20. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Singletary and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Mays of Aspermont.

Employing the shades of autumn the hostesses used a yellow linen cloth on the serving table and centered it with an arrangement of bronze and yellow flowers and accessories.

Local Operators Give Permanents At Hospital

Local beauticians, Unit 24, gave 28 permanents at the Big Spring State Hospital Sunday. Eleven operators from six shops worked during the day and hope to give all women patients at the hospital curl before Christmas. They will be joined in the work by operators from Midland and Odessa. Each town takes its turn for a period of three months.

The shops are all members of Texas Association of Accredited Beauty Culturists.

Nancy Baird Given Birthday Party

Nancy Baird, 3, was the honoree for a birthday anniversary party by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Baird at their home Sunday.

Twelve guests played games and were given favors at the refreshment hour. Vickie and Nancy Hawkins of Lamesa joined the local friends for the party.

Two Attend Regional Meeting

Mrs. Hollis Smith, president of Council No. 7, South Central Region of International Toastmistresses, and Mrs. Leland Younklin, local club representative, attended the regional meeting in Lubbock Saturday and Sunday.

Clubs from Amarillo, Abilene, Midland, Big Spring, Altus, Okla., Clovis, N. Mex., and Lubbock were represented and heard the regional supervisor, Mrs. Gene Jarett of San Antonio, bring the principal address.

Forum On Tuesday

The Friendship Day Tea and program of the Junior Woman's Forum will be held on Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in the parlor of the H.C.J.C. Student Union Building. An error was made in the date given in the Herald-Sunday.

College Heights

College Heights P-TA will meet at 3:30 Tuesday afternoon according to an announcement made by W. C. Blankenship. The meeting will not be held Thursday due to the teachers' meeting.

Mary Zinn Cancelled

The meeting of the Mary Zinn Circle of the First Methodist Church has been cancelled due to the death of Susan Nobles, grand daughter of the circle president, Mrs. S. R. Nobles.

Flavorful Stew

Add your herbs to Spanish olive oil in a heavy pot, cook a few seconds before browning meat for the stew in the hot oil. This freshens the herbs and helps to give the sauce more robust flavor. Instead of using plain water for the liquid, use vegetable or meat stock, or tomato juice, or wine, or dissolve a bouillon cube in water for the liquid; in the stew (in this case omit salt). Tricks like this turn an ordinary stew into ragout.

Lunches May Be Varied With Sweets, Vegetables

If you have children in your household, you may be putting up school-day lunches five days a week, for one, two, three, four or five. Certainly a lunch has to be had somewhere, if the hot lunch program is not available in your school.

It may be your husband takes his lunch, rather than take the time to stand in line at a crowded counter. You, yourself, may carry your lunch neatly wrapped, in a carry-all size purse. Whoever it is that eats a carried lunch, let's hope that the meal that goes to school—or work—is one that is appealing as well as nutritious.

What should a packed lunch contain? It should include milk, some protein food, fruit or vegetables, enriched or whole grain bread and a teaspoon or two of butter.

Put this into a basic pattern—pack one or two generously filled sandwiches; something crunchy, as a fruit or vegetable; something sweet, and liquid nourishment, as milk or a soup. Being more specific, choose a beef or a peanut butter-honey-salsin filling.

Add pickles and carrot sticks, hot cream soup, fruit and a cupcake or cookie.

Another possibility could be a sandwich with a fruit filling, vegetable salad, apple and cheese wedges, honey date bars and milk for a child, coffee for the grown-up.

Try these to brighten up the lunch box and give the mid-day snack a lift.

FRUIT FILLING
 1/4 cup each dried prunes, dates, figs, orange peel
 1 tsp. candied ginger (if desired)
 1/4 cup honey
 Chop fruit and blend with honey. Use between slices of buttered bread.

HONEY DATE BARS
 1/2 cup shortening
 1 cup honey
 1 tsp. vanilla
 3 eggs or 4 egg yolks
 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
 1 tsp. baking powder
 1/4 tsp. salt
 1 cup chopped dates
 1 cup chopped nuts
 Confectioner's sugar

Personality Important
 Hope Holiday is not disturbed by the fact that she is not beautiful. She believes it is more important to have a pleasing personality and to be fun to be with. She is presently appearing in "The Apartment."

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Not Beauty But Personality Counts

HOLLYWOOD — "If you aren't pretty as a child, you may suffer because of remarks made by others, but when you grow up you'll find that it has helped you develop individuality and that it has become an invaluable part of your personality," Hope Holiday declared.

"The important part is being remembered, not being beautiful," she went on. "I have a flat nose that was 'busted' in my torn-boy days and my voice has a break in it. But because of these characteristics, I got a part in 'The Apartment.' And that wonderful Billy Wilder has promised to use me in another of his pictures."

Hope is easy to meet and gives the impression of having no pretenses.

"I have never been pretty," she continued, "so I try to be fun. I know my capabilities and I try to use them to the best advantage. I know what I have and what I don't have and I'm not letting it worry me. I've been told that I improve on acquaintance, and some beauties can't boast the same."

We were having a five o'clock cocktail in the Polo Lounge at the Beverly Hills Hotel, and as we talked I told Hope that I hadn't realized that she was so small.

"I'm five-four and weigh 105," she admitted. "And people tell me that I think tall. I started training to be a dancer when I was 11 years old, and by working on my posture, I believe I've created an impression of being taller than I am."

"Once you have been a dancer, you have to keep it up or you won't be happy about the way your body feels. When I was dancing professionally, I learned to eat energy foods. All the boys and girls in the chorus line used to eat food from the health stores—yogurt, wheat germ oil on different foods and raw milk. These are still a part of my diet."

"It's not an empty saying, but a fact, that you have more stamina and you don't get nearly as tired when you eat nutritionally than when you eat without a plan."

Hope's escort was announced by a waiter and as she left, she said: "I am happy to say that in this town of gorgeous girls, little old Hope has no trouble in the date department."

'ROUND TOWN With LUCILLE PICKLE

It has generally fallen our lot to delay converting our heating and cooling system too long and finding ourselves shivering in the dawn's early light when an unexpected cold snap blows in. This year this is not the case. We have turned off the cooling system and Baby It's Hot Outside. The only time we are cool is in the dawn's early light and it feels good.

MRS. NOEL LESTER entertained Sunday evening with a family dinner at her home in Vealmoor and the special guests were her father, S. P. Petty, and his sister, Mrs. Lillie Lawson who is visiting him from her home in Oakland, Calif. Fifteen members of the family joined in the gathering.

In case you are wondering, DR. JORDAN GROOMS wasn't here over the weekend. Only FELIE, who was the houseguest of WINNIE GREENLEES, and her mother, who visited the T. J. Williams, came down for the game.

MR. and MRS. PETE SANDERSON spent the weekend in Lubbock as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cook.

WINEMA PEARCE of Durant, Okla., is here visiting in the home of her sister MRS. CHARLES SWEENEY. Miss Pearce will continue her trip to Los Angeles, Calif., in several days for a visit in the home of her brother, Capt. Perry Pearce, and his family.

Word comes from MRS. FRANK SHANNON in New York City that she has been enjoying listening to the World Series while driving through the Allegheny Mountains. The artistic Mrs. Shannon is delighted with the colors of the autumn season and sees much to inspire painting especially the picturesque farms in the valleys.

HENRY S. FINGADO

Truck Firm Hires Fingado

DALLAS—Henry S. Fingado, former Texas Instruments administrator in the Middle East, has been appointed industrial engineer of the Texas and Pacific Motor Transport Company, it was announced today by Tom L. Farmer, T&PMT president.

Fingado, a Coloradan who was born at Selbert but reared in Alamosa, was graduated cum laude from the University of Colorado where he studied engineering and international commerce. He served with the U. S. Army field forces for two years prior to the Korean conflict.

For the past nine years, Fingado has been associated with Texas Instruments, serving in the company's geophysical field. During most of this period, he held the posts of technical director and Middle East administrator in Saudi Arabia, Egypt, Libya, Lebanon and Turkey.

He will have his headquarters in Dallas. He is married to a Texas girl, the former Ruth Lawrence Lamesa. The Fingados have one child, a son, who was born in Lebanon coincident with the landing of the U. S. Marines at Beirut at the outbreak of the revolution in 1958.

MEN IN SERVICE

Army Spec. 4 Stanley D. Menix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Menix, Lamesa, participated with other personnel from the 54th Transportation Battalion in Operation Flash Back in Europe.

A clerk-typist in the battalion's Headquarters Detachment, Specialist Menix entered the Army in January, 1959, completed basic training at Fort Riley, Kan., and arrived overseas in July, 1959. Menix, whose wife, Wanda, is with him in Germany, is a 1958 graduate of Ackerly High School.

Army Pfc. Wesley H. Robinson, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson, Lamesa, recently participated with other personnel from the 6th Infantry in four weeks of intensive field training in Germany.

Robinson, who arrived overseas in January 1959, is a radio operator in the infantry's Company A. The former Lamesa High School student entered the Army in August, 1958.

Richard A. Pachall, 1301 Nolan, has enlisted in the U. S. Army for three years. He will take his basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. Pachall chose personnel and administration work, according to Sgt. Linden, local Army recruiter.

Group Urges Policy Talks

HARRIMAN, N. Y. (AP)—The 18th American Assembly suggests that the secretary of state be allowed by Congress to explain to the public the aims of American foreign policy and the difficulty reaching those goals.

"It is unwise," the assembly said in a report, "particularly when foreign dictators have access to our mass media, to put limits on the Department of State to keep the American people informed about foreign policies and programs."

The presentation Sunday of the report on problems facing the secretary of state concluded a four-day meeting at Arden House. The report reflected the views of 68 government officials, educators, businessmen and newsmen.

The assembly was founded by Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1951—when he was president of Columbia University—in an effort to bring together knowledgeable men to discuss problems of importance to the country.

Soviet Farms Having Trouble

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda today reported falling production on many of the Soviet Union's collective and state farms. It accused officials of being indifferent to serious shortcomings.

Less than a year ago the Soviet Union announced it would surpass the United States in farm output in the next few years. The Pravda article indicated that the program was running behind schedule.

Ambassador Dies In Congo River

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — West Germany's ambassador to the Congo, Hans Juergen Soehring, disappeared and apparently drowned while swimming in the Congo River Sunday.

Soehring went for a Sunday outing to an island with his wife and children and some friends. That part of the river is considered safe for bathing, although elsewhere there are crocodiles and a powerful current.

Flying Car Can Beat Traffic Jams

LONDON (AP)—A Soviet engineer Sunday night outlined Soviet designs for a flying car to beat traffic jams.

"Only in recent years," said engineer Dmitry Petko in a talk on Moscow radio, "have engineers and scientists managed to create a vertical flying machine close in form and dimensions to a modern car."

Solution of the problem, Petko said, was connected with a new ventilator principle in motors. He did not say how near it is to production.

Girl Killed In Car-Truck Wreck

CORTEZ, Colo. (AP) — Mary Bull, 13, of Farmington, N.M., was killed Sunday when her parents' car and a semi-trailer collided.

State patrolmen said the truck was driven by Ray Eller, 24, of Sweetwater, Tex. They said Eller's truck plunged 60 feet into a dry wash, and burned after the crash.

The parents of the girl, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bull, both 42, were not injured seriously.

Nonstrikers Admitted To General Electric Plant

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—The striking International Union of Electrical Workers permitted nonstrikers to enter the General Electric Co. plant here today for the first time since the union posted pickets last Thursday.

John Shambo, president of Local 301, said the local's executive board had decided Sunday it would be unfair to continue barring salaried workers because

More violence had been feared here and in Syracuse, N. Y., but none was reported in either city this morning as the union's nationwide strike against the company entered its second week.

The number of employees who reported for work in each city was not determined immediately.

In Syracuse, several strikers drove their automobiles inside GE's Electronics Park, parked them so they would block the gates, locked the cars and left.

Company security guards summoned tow trucks and had the cars hauled to the plant parking lots. Some car windows were broken so that the vehicles could be removed from the gates.

One woman was arrested in Syracuse for failing to obey a police order to halt her car.

About 600 IUE members appeared at their Syracuse quarters for a 5 a. m. meeting.

In Schenectady, some sections of the fence at the plant had been taken down, reportedly to make it easier for nonstrikers to enter the plant grounds.

With picket activity lessened, some of the Schenectady non-strikers entered the main gate in small groups. Others reported for work through gates in suburban Rotterdam, into which the plant spreads.

A state of emergency was declared in Schenectady after violence flared last week. The plant employs 22,000, of whom IUE claims to represent 8,700.

TYPHOON KIT NEARS CHINA

HONG KONG (AP) — Typhoon Kit roared slowly across the South China Sea toward the Red Chinese island of Hainan today, leaving more than 100 persons dead and another 100 missing in the central Philippines.

Earlier reports had said the storm, with 92-mile center winds, was heading for this British colony. But the Royal Observatory later relocated Kit 240 miles south of Hong Kong and said it should miss Hainan, some 300 miles to the west, Tuesday.

Engineer Dies In Train Wreck

AMARILLO (AP)—A Burlington passenger train struck the rear of a freight train in the Panhandle today.

The engineer on the passenger train was killed.

At least 3 other crewmen were hurt. The crash occurred near Memphis.

The engineer was identified only as Hargus.

Railroad officials said the passenger train conductor, whose name is West, received a broken arm and cuts.

The passenger train's fireman, identified only as Loveday, and the rear flagman on the freight train also were injured.

Memphis is 30 miles northwest of Childress or about 90 miles southeast of Amarillo. The crash occurred at about 5:30 a. m.

The passenger train was en route to Amarillo, where it was due at 7:15 a. m.

Sullivan To Be On TV Tonight

DALLAS (AP)—Charles Sullivan of Clarksdale, Miss., presidential candidate of the Constitution Party, will speak at a fund raising dinner here tonight.

He will also give a television address tonight.

Youth Found Dead Of Suffocation

BARTLESVILLE, Okla. (AP)—A boy who remained home to study while his family took a Sunday drive was found dead Sunday.

A plastic bag had been tied over his head.

The hands of Curtis Lee Renfro, 11, were tied between his legs and his body was nude. Police Chief W. J. Jarvis said there were no marks of violence on the body. Jarvis said the boy apparently suffocated.

Police said neighbors saw no visitors to the Renfro home during the 45 minutes Mr. and Mrs. Curtis L. Renfro and their twin daughters were away. The girls, Suzanne and Suzanne, found their brother's body in his bedroom.

Mrs. Renfro said Curtis passed up the outing because he had to study. His homework was laid out on a desk.

Graham Has 16,000 In Audience

NEW YORK (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham preached to more than 16,000 persons Sunday at the windup of a three-day "Crusade for Souls" aimed primarily at the city's Spanish-speaking population.

Graham's sermon, which dealt largely with the problem of racial tensions, was interpreted by the Rev. Rogelio Archilla.

The evangelist called on New Yorkers to "ask Christ for the power to love our neighbors no matter what their color."

Total attendance at the three rallies was announced as 43,500, with more than 1,000 persons reported to have made "decisions for Christ."

The only compact with fine-car styling. A spirited sense of proportion gives Comet the most successful styling in the compact-car field. New rustproof aluminum grille, exquisite new interior fabrics, new fine-car appointments everywhere.

The first family-size compact Comet's 114" wheelbase (longer than any other compact) provides spacious comfort other compacts sacrifice. There is room for six grownups and a family-size load of luggage besides.

Big-car ride—small-car handling. The refined suspension (plus the 114" wheelbase) makes Comet's ride steady and smoother than many standard cars. And you'll find that Comet turns, parks and handles almost as easily as a baby carriage.

Priced with or below compacts of other makers. For all its fine-car flair, family size, big-car ride and value features, Comet's priced with or below compacts of other makers.
