Jack Arrives Today For Visit With LBJ

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy flies today to the Texas ranch of the new administration's vice president, Lyndon B. Johnson, for planning of the forthcoming switch of power from Republican hands.

The Kennedy-Johnson talks beginning this evening and continuing through Thursday are expected to deal also with preliminary formulation of a congressional legislative program against the background of campaign promises on a wide range of domestic and international matters.

The Democratic winners will be meeting for the first time since their election last week over Republicans Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge.

Kennedy arranged to take off from his vacation headquarters in the late afternoon aboard a chartered jet airplane. From Palm Beach he flies to Bergstrom Air Force Base near Austin, Tex., and switches there to a small plane for about a 60-mile flight to the LBJ ranch at Johnson City.

Johnson, who moves to the vice presidency in January from his powerful post as Senate Democratic leader, arranged to meet Kennedy at Bergstrom and escort him to the ranch.

After a tour of the ranch and dinner, the president-elect and Johnson will get down to serious talking about the Kennedy program for moving America ahead in the 1960s.

Scheduled Thursday is a full round of further conferences into the early evening but there may be some time out for recreation.

The Texas hunting season for white tail deer opens a few hours after Kennedy's arrival, and herds of these swift animals are a familiar sight on the LBJ ranch on the Pedernales River.

Kennedy plans to be back at Palm Beach, where since last Friday he has been staying at the home of his parents, by midnight Thursday.

The Florida stay has been a combination of work and relaxation. Tuesday afternoon the president-elect conferred for two hours with one of his earliest and staunchest supporters, Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut. Then they played nine holes of golf—and Ribicoff reported Kennedy the winner, one-up in match play.

Ribicoff, also vacationing in Florida, has been mentioned prominently for a Cabinet post or some other key position in the new administration.

But he told a news conference after his session with Kennedy that the president-elect made him no job offer.

The governor reiterated what Kennedy himself has said—that no final decisions or announcements regarding Cabinet posts can be expected until after Thanksgiving Day.

Ribicoff noted that his term as governor has two years to run. He has been mentioned as a possible choice for attorney general or for appointment to the Supreme Court when the first vacancy occurs after Kennedy takes office.

Ford British Move Stirs Protest Storm

LONDON (AP)—A bid by the Ford Motor Co. of Detroit to acquire complete ownership of its British subsidiary provoked a storm of protest in press and Parliament today.

It seemed almost certain that Prime Minister Macmillan's government would approve the multi-million dollar deal even though it has brought out latent anti-Americanism in Britain. The government must consider British investments in the United States—transatlantic investment is a two-way affair.

ALL SHARES

Ford of Detroit has offered to buy all outstanding shares in British Ford Stock brokers think the deal will stimulate the London Stock Exchange. Bankers noted that it will provide a large injection of dollars for the British economy.

Yet the protests gave pause to many stock buyers. The price surge which featured trading in British Ford shares was missing this morning.

Newspapers printed charts showing how many products in everyday use in Britain—from fountain pens to canned soup—are being produced in British factories owing allegiance to American parent firms.

From the tone of some editorials it was evident that the Ford deal had become tied up with occasional British restiveness toward all things American.

Sir Patrick Hennessy, chairman of British Ford, said the takeover would help the productive capacity of Ford works in Britain. He promised that the jobs of the workers would be protected.

Some members of Parliament wanted to know if Detroit Ford really wants to restrict exports and profits of its British business in a way-independent shareholders never would tolerate.

OBJECT

In a statement issued in London, Henry Ford II said the object of the American offer was to "obtain greater operational flexibility and enable us better to coordinate our European and American operations on a worldwide basis."

The $377-million deal, which Tuesday sparked a scramble for Ford shares on the London stock market, ran into opposition in press and Parliament.

More than 100 labor legislators Tuesday night signed a protest motion. They pointed out the takeover would put half of Britain's auto industry under American ownership.

Ford of Detroit already owns 54 per cent of the common shares of British Ford.

It has announced it is prepared to pay 145 shillings ($30.30) per share for the other 46 per cent—17,726,804 shares.

N. Orleans School Disorders Spread

Arrested At School

Three New Orleans policemen take into custody an unidentified man in an unruly crowd which heckled Negro students and police outside the newly integrated William Francis elementary school.

Protests Center In Downtown Area

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Club-swinging police called fire hoses into action today in an attempt to break up a screaming demonstration against school integration in downtown New Orleans.

Firemen aimed streams of water at the demonstrators, to keep them back from the New Orleans Board office.

The crowd chanted "We don't want to integrate."

But the water deflected from the pavement in front of them and the streams sailing overhead dispersed the demonstrators from the school board office area.

The police radio reported in the midst of the melee that a group of teen-agers had taken at least one fire hose from the firemen and turned it against the officers.

The report did not elaborate. Police loud speakers blared over the tumult: "Move on, move on. We don't want to injure anyone."

While the impassioned show against the mixing of races in the schools spread to downtown New Orleans, a pupil boycott virtually halted education at the two schools integrated by four Negro first-grade girls last Monday.

In Baton Rouge, the Louisiana

Legislature heard U.S. Sen. Russell Long of Louisiana tell members the situation in Washington "is likely to get worse. We simply do not have the votes."

FIGHTING MAD

Wesley legislators—still fighting mad—began a 30-day special session trying to find a way out of integration.

A newsman reported he saw from 50 to 75 persons arrested.

The same man reported the first violence between a white man and a Negro, a fist fight.

A crowd of 1,000 teen-agers, bolstered by plague-carrying mothers, invaded City Hall in a yelling, bell-ringing protest at midnight.

Then the boisterous group, after the arrest of one girl demonstrator, marched on the New Orleans School Board office a few blocks away.

The white youths rang a bell they called "The Liberty Bell for Freedom."

The mob left the ultramodern City Hall after a few minutes and dashed toward Canal Street, the city's main thoroughfare, where another crowd joined in the march on the city's school board office.

Mothers carrying signs denouncing school integration—put into effect only last Monday with four Negro girls—led the march.

The crowd of teen-agers, now swelled to nearly 1,000, at first headed for the school board office, but veered and returned to City Hall.

EMERGENCY CALL

An emergency call for more police went out from City Hall, where a thin line of 30 newly arrived officers stood vigil.

The crowds at the two integrated schools dwindled this morning and there was an icy reception waiting for the four Negro first graders.

The number of white school children attending McDonough fell off. Only two were seen entering the school—its normal enrollment 467—when the bell rang.

Louisiana legislators Tuesday urged white parents to keep their children away from the integrated schools.

But one mile away from the silent school 50 cars filled with truant teen-agers carrying signs paraded along streets near the industrial canal.

CUT OFF

Police cut off the caravan at the canal.

Some signs bore the insignia "KKK." Youths clung to the sides of the cars. Car horns sounded a nearly constant blare of noise.

At William Francis school, the one Negro girl showed up late, nearly at 8:30 a.m. The crowd that watched four U.S. marshals escort her into the school was smaller, probably under 200.

Two white children carried an effigy of a little Negro girl through the crowd. There were cheers.

Police escorted the two children a block away from the school before the Negro first-grader arrived.

There were cheers for a mother withdrawing her white child from the school, jeers and taunts of "nigger-lover" for parents who brought their child to school.

IMPEACHMENT

Impeachment of a federal judge who ordered the integration was reported under discussion as the lawmakers ended a 13-day special session at Baton Rouge in early morning hours.

A recessed session was called today to start a new special 30-

Salvation Army Reports Example Of UF Services

The Salvation Army had a case in point today as one of the humanitarian services provided by United Fund agencies.

With her five children between 2 and 7 years of age, a mother who is expecting her sixth child was stranded here in a futile attempt to get to her parents.

Her husband had been sentenced to prison in Huntsville, and she had started to El Paso in hopes of reaching her parents. But her funds ran out here, and the operators of the Key Motel took her to El Paso only to learn her parents had moved. They returned her here and took care of the family for most of a fortnight until the woman finally located her parents in New Jersey.

The motel operators suggested the Salvation Army might help, and Capt. James Jay verified that the parents were in New Jersey and would take care of the young mother and her children. Arrangements were made to get the family aboard a bus for New Jersey, and the First Baptist and Wesleyan Methodist Churches gave a helping hand so the group would be cared for en route.

Only 11.5 per cent to go, was the report from United Fund headquarters this morning.

After Tuesday's report meeting, the total stands at $98,996.10 for 88.5 per cent of the United Fund goal of $98,210.

Leaders urged all workers to pitch in and clean up all outstanding contact cards as quickly as possible in order to bring the drive to a close on schedule.

Two divisions are in the home-stretch of winding up their campaign. The public employees division has reached 95.7 per cent with $17,244.05. The metropolitan division has collected $4,707 for 94.1 per cent of its goal.

Other divisions are pushing to catch up, including big gifts which has $27,223.30 for 92.7 per cent; special gifts, $9,875 for 64.5 per cent; employees, $16,951.55 for 73.7 per cent; and out of town, 43.2 per cent.

Publisher Prime Suspect In Recent Bank Holdups

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Pictures drawn from descriptions by hold-up victims led to a manhunt today for a mild-looking newspaper publisher accused of two bank robberies.

State and federal authorities named Lawrence C. Pope, 42, a church-going former bank executive, as the camera-carrying bandit who coolly staged the holdups on successive Saturdays.

In each instance the robber tied up his victims, collected all the money in sight and took time to snap pictures of women bank workers before fleeing unnoticed by outsiders.

Last weekend he made off with $4,783 from the Farmers Bank East in Schuenburg, 100 miles east of San Antonio in south Texas. Investigators said the same individual got $1,744 Nov. 5 from the First State Bank at Thornton, 120 miles north of Schuenburg.

Pope is publisher of the Giddings (Tex.) Star in the next county north from Schuenburg and also owns another small newspaper at Lexington, in the same county. He formerly was a federal bank examiner and has worked for banks in four Texas cities.

FBI agent C. W. Peasinger said Pope's wife and child at Giddings last saw him a week ago.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation charged Pope with the Thornton robbery in a complaint filed at San Antonio. Sheriff Jim

Temperature Falls 41 Degrees

There was a 41-degree temperature differential in Big Spring between 3 p.m. Tuesday and 3 a.m. Wednesday.

U.S. Experiment Station reported the high Tuesday hit 79 degrees and the populace found the summer-like weather out of harmony with the fall clothing generally worn. Early Wednesday morning the mercury had fallen to a chilly 38 degrees. It had climbed to a still brisk 47 degrees at 9 a.m.

Cloudy skies prevailed in the forenoon.

Africa Called New Cold War Front

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP)—Independence for African colonial territories has opened a new front in the cold war, Lynn Heinzerling, Associated Press Foreign Correspondent, said today.

Addressing The Associated Press Managing Editors' Association's annual convention Heinzerling, who recently returned from the Congo, said Africa will become increasingly important in international relations as more territories gain freedom and the Soviets are offered more opportunities of opening up diplomatic relations in Africa and installing their familiar espionage and propaganda networks.

NEA President Will Visit Here

Clarice Kline, president of the National Education Association, will visit here on Dec. 12, it was announced Wednesday.

Miss Kline will arrive here the evening of Dec. 11 and will spend the next day visiting Big Spring schools. A program is being arranged for that evening when she will address teachers and administrators of not only the local schools but those within this area.

Schools in Texas State Teacher Association District No. 4 are being invited to participate. Big Spring has had the president of the National Classroom Teachers Association visit here but never before the ranking officer of the NEA.

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill has broken a bone in his back in a fall at his home, a household spokesman said today.

Traffic Group Discusses Variety Of Problems

Members of the Big Spring Traffic Commission considered a variety of city problems Tuesday, but took no official action. Several problems were deferred to later meetings as more study was suggested.

Bruce Dunn, executive secretary, reported the new speed limit signs for Wason Road had arrived and would be installed within the week. The commission recently recommended that 40 miles per hour be set on this roadway.

Another crossing for school children in the Airport school area was discussed. Dunn said the crossing would be installed in a few days.

Loading zones in the downtown area and the problem of double-parked trucks were pinpointed. The commission asked Dunn to make a study of the requirements and report at the next meeting.

Speed limits for emergency vehicles were discussed as well as parking space for employees of downtown stores.

Deadline On Overseas Yule Packages Becomes Crucial

If you plan to send Christmas parcels overseas to members of the Armed Forces, and have not done so, you are face to face with a crucial deadline, E. C. Boatler, postmaster, warned.

Deadline for parcels to travel by surface transportation overseas will be Nov. 20. The same general schedule applies to Christmas greeting cards, he said. Air-mail parcels for overseas for Christmas, to insure they reach their destinations on time should be dispatched during the period Dec. 1 to Dec. 10.

Boatler said that the term "armed forces overseas" includes personnel of the military, mem-

Home Votes Help Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP)—California absentee ballots continued to help Richard M. Nixon whittle at the small lead today of President-elect John F. Kennedy in the national popular vote.

With 1,587 of the nation's 166,065 precincts missing and thousands of absentee ballots uncoun- ted, Kennedy had a lead of 239,351 votes in the counting of the Nov. 3 election. Nixon had cut the lead by 18,248 votes in 24 hours.

The count: Kennedy 33,796,375, Nixon 33,557,024.

This gave Kennedy 50.18 per cent and Nixon 49.82 per cent of the 67,353,399 votes counted.

With officials counting absentee ballots in California, Nixon had cut the Kennedy lead there to 13,405 votes. Kennedy had 3,166,612 votes and Nixon had 3,153,207 votes.

Most of the nation's unreported precincts come from areas in the South and West where the voting was so one-sided that unofficial counting was halted.

These include Alabama, Georgia, and Arkansas, which voted for Kennedy, and North Dakota, and South Dakota, which voted for Nixon.

Atom Spy Who Helped Put Sister In Chair Is Freed

NEW YORK (AP)—David Greenglass, the convicted atom bomb spy who helped send his sister and her husband to the electric chair, went free today after 9 1/2 years in prison.

The short, meek-appearing man emerged at 8:35 a.m. from the Federal House of Detention. He was accompanied by his attorney, O. John Rogge, who ruled out any statement.

Greenglass appeared terrified as he confronted 60 newsmen and photographers and heard derogatory shouts from longshoremen and truckers attracted to the scene.

"Drop dead, you lousy Communist," a voice in the hostile crowd yelled as Greenglass and his attorney got into a taxicab and left for an undisclosed destination.

Someone else directed the cabbie, "Drive him off the pier, right into the river, the dirty rat."

Greenglass accepted the slurs in silence.

TIME OFF

Greenglass, now 38, was sentenced to 15 years in prison in 1951 for his part in the spy plot. He got time off for good behavior.

He served his term in the Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., and was transferred to the Federal House of Detention here last weekend to facilitate his release.

What are his plans? Does he have a job? No one is saying.

It was Greenglass' testimony that helped send his brother-in-law, Julius Rosenberg, and his sister, Ethel Rosenberg, to the Sing Sing Prison death chair.

Greenglass, a former Brooklyn machinist and U.S. Army technician, pleaded guilty for his part in the theft of U.S. atomic secrets, which were passed on to the Soviets. He was the government's key witness at the Rosenbergs' trial.

ALL CONVICTED

A radar expert, Morton Sobell, joined the Rosenbergs in denying their guilt and stood trial with them. All three were convicted. Sobell was sentenced to 30 years. The Rosenbergs were executed in June, 1953.

Another member of the ring, Harry Gold, a Philadelphia biochemist, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 8 to 30 years in prison.

Sobell and Gold are still in prison.

Why did Greenglass steal atomic information? He said it was because he felt the Soviet Union—wartime ally of the United States—was entitled to it.

Greenglass was born on New York's lower East Side, and in his youth belonged to the Young Communist League. In 1945, he was inducted into the Army and a year later sent to Los Alamos, N.M., where he worked on the atomic bomb.

SKETCH OF BOMB

Greenglass provided a sketch of the bomb—the type dropped on Nagasaki, an expert said—for Rosenberg for relay to the Soviet Union. Greenglass was arrested in 1950.

The spy ring allegedly was headed by Rosenberg, but masterminded by Anatoli Yakovlev, a former Soviet vice consul in New York. He disappeared before the espionage ring was uncovered.

The ring also reputedly had connections with KJ-u Fuchs, the British scientist, who served a prison term in England. Fuchs, after his release, disappeared behind the Iron Curtain.

Greenglass' wife, Ruth, was named a co-conspirator but not a defendant at the time Greenglass was arrested. They have two children.

No Absentee Votes Reported

No requests for absentee ballots for the Dec. 3 county bond election have been filed with the Howard County Clerk.

Ballots are on hand and preparations complete to handle absentee voting in the bond election, Mrs. Pauline Petty, county clerk, said.

The election is to be held on Dec. 3 at which time the voters will express their wishes on whether the county shall issue $150,000 in county bonds to pay for right-of-way on four state road projects planned for 1961-62.

Most urgent of these is the right-of-way the county must obtain on U.S. 87 north of Big Spring to Fairview. The state is to rebuild U.S. 87 from Big Spring to the Martin County line as a four-lane highway.

School Annexation Rehearing Panned

Gil Jones, attorney for the Howard County School Board, said Wednesday morning he had been instructed to proceed with a motion for a rehearing before the Court of Civil Appeals in the Gay Hill-Center Point school district annexation case.

If the rehearing is denied, the board instructed Jones to file application for a writ of error in the Texas Supreme Court.

The school board's contention, upheld in the 118th District Court, that the local court had no jurisdiction to try the protest of the annexed districts, was denied by the appeals court last week.

Jones said that the application for rehearing of the case in the Civil Court of Appeals was essential in order to clear the way to apply for a writ of error in the Supreme Court.

The Howard County School

School Annexation Rehearing Panned

Board, by executive order, annexed the Gay Hill and Center Point common school districts to the Big Spring Independent School District. The annexed districts filed a protest against the action, lodging notice of appeal with the state commissioner of education and a short time later on the same date with the 118th District Court. In a hearing here, the court ruled it had no jurisdiction to try the protest on its merits because the common schools had earlier filed notice of appeal from the action of the county board with the commissioner of education.

This ruling was carried to the Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland where it was heard and the appellate court ruled the district court had erred. It reversed the lower court's holding and remanded the case to the district court for trial.

Ike To Continue Sound Dollar Fight

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower, who has preached the gospel of a sound dollar, apparently will keep fighting for his cherished goal until his last moment in office.

Eisenhower made this clear Tuesday in ordering government agencies to adopt emergency moves to cut down the amount of money they spend overseas.

His action—only 64 days before he leaves the White House—will put President-Elect John F. Kennedy's Democratic regime in a better position to weather a financial storm which has seriously worried the Republican administration in the last two years.

The President's move was aimed mainly at helping the government close the gap between the amount of money it spends and earns overseas.

This deficit, now running at a near-record rate of $4.3 billion a year, has drained American gold reserves and shaken the prestige of the dollar in international money markets.

To help solve this continuing problem, Eisenhower also paved the way for the Kennedy administration to get financial help from Allied countries on these two fronts:

1. More contributions from Europe's industrialized nations—such as West Germany, Britain and France—in carrying the heavy burden of economic and technical aid to Communist-threatened areas in other lands.
2. Possible sharing by West Germany of the cost of maintaining six U. S. divisions on German soil as a shield against surprise attack by the Soviet bloc.

Eisenhower authorized Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson to seek this outside aid after a 2½ day conference at his Augusta vacation headquarters.

The President, beginning the second week of his golfing holiday, met with Anderson and Defense Secretary Thomas C. Gates to review the financial gap.

The unusual conference was set up to make clear Anderson has the President's solid backing when he leaves Sunday for financial talks with German, British, and French government leaders.

Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon, the State Department's top expert on trade and aid, is to accompany Anderson.

'Stairstep' Plan For Dallas Schools

FORT WORTH (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals appears ready to approve a stairstep integration plan for Dallas schools.

This would mean a reversal of U.S. Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson and rejection of his recommended and approved "Salt-and-pepper" plan.

While the 3-man court did not announce a decision after a 45-minute hearing Tuesday, it made no effort to hide a preference for the grade-a-year method and disinterest in both the salt-and-pepper and a sweeping, mass integration approach.

The three jurists—Richard Rives, Elbert Tuttle and Warren Jones—now return to their New Orleans headquarters and are not expected to disclose any ruling for at least three months.

All questions asked by lawyers for the Dallas school board and the Negro plaintiffs were about mechanics of carrying out the stair-step concept.

"Houston has already started and we're trying the same in New Orleans," commented Chief Judge Rives. "It would seem that Dallas will be a year behind."

"What would be the objection to maybe integrating two grades at a time to begin with?" he asked Mark Martin, representing the Dallas board.

Martin replied that in the best judgment of the board and School Supt. W. T. White, anything "further than a grade a year would be too fast."

A peculiarity in the proceedings was that the school board was there to support both the stairstep plan, which Judge Davidson had rejected, and the salt-and-pepper. Judge Davidson turned down a board recommendation for the stairstep at a Dallas hearing in May, instructing the board to "consider" the salt-and-pepper. Less than a month later the new plan was submitted and approved by the judge.

Lawyer W. J. Durham said the Negroes objected to both plans—stairstep because it was too slow and would not provide adequate relief for students presently in school, and the salt-and-pepper because it still allowed for racial discrimination.

But when it filed objections with the court of appeals in the form of an appeal, the school board also filed a cross appeal in support of its stair-step plan.

"Our position is that both plans are proper, workable, good and constitutional," explained Martin, "but we think the first plan (stair-step) is the better of the two."

The stair-step plan calls for the first grade to be integrated in September, 1961, following each year thereafter with each succeeding grade until the entire system is integrated.

Judge Davidson's salt-and-pepper method would integrate only selected schools in Dallas and would allow voluntary attendance there by children of both races. No student would be made to attend the school if he or his parents did not wish.

Actors Strike On TV Averted

NEW YORK (AP) — A settlement offer today averted a performers' strike—at least temporarily—against the four major television and radio networks. Terms were not disclosed.

Formal negotiations between the networks and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) ended 3½ hours after a midnight strike deadline.

AFTRA had sought a 10 per cent increase in performer fees and higher payments to performers for re-runs of commercials.

Also sitting in on the discussions were officials of the Screen Actors Guild, which has been working under a contract continuation arrangement since its work pacts expired last June.

Officials said the networks' offer would be submitted to the national boards of both unions.

No formal contract extension or settlement announcement was made. But a union spokesman said members would continue working until the national boards had studied the proposals.

AFTRA has about 16,000 members who work for the American Broadcasting System, the Mutual Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Co. Mutual is a radio network only. The guild has about 13,000 members.

William C. Fitts, a CBS vice president and spokesman for the networks, said the networks expected to hear from the national boards "in a day or so." No further sessions have been scheduled.

Spook Master Dreams Up Best Gimmick

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — William Castle, never prone to understatement, says the gimmick in his latest scare epic is the best in the history of the theater.

"This covers a lot of ground, since theater history spans from Sophocles to the Three Stooges. Yet Castle says his idea for 'Homicidal' has never been tried by any of his artistic predecessors. Just what is it?"

"Ah, I never reveal my gimmicks before the picture is released," said the movie maker. Castle, a square-jawed, wire-haired film veteran but no square, has made a career and tidy fortune of out-gimmicking his competitors.

"It started with 'Macabre,'" he related with relish. "I had no gimmick on the screen; the thing was the insurance policy on any patron who might be frightened to death."

He marched upward to "The House on Haunted Hill," for which he employed a skeleton sailing over the patrons' heads. Then came "The Tingler," which was literally so, the theater seats being wired for shock.

"His latest accomplishment was 'Thirteen Ghosts,' which were visible via special spectacles but unseen by the naked eye.

"Columbia ordered only 1-600,000 of the glasses, which I told them was not enough," said Castle triumphantly. "The final order will be 13 million."

Now comes "Homicidal" with his gimmick supreme. It is his most ambitious effort to date — "Imagine, 30 shooting days! I've only had 10 or 11 before."

Despite the sneers of critics, Castle has compounded an amazing record.

"The four pictures have cost a total of $750,000," he declared. "They will make a gross profit of $8 million."

Senate Liberal Democrats Seek Influential Position

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of the Senate's liberal Democratic bloc said today they plan strategy meetings here next month to seek a strong voice in legislative affairs.

They hope to back one of their number, possibly Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, for the post of assistant Democratic leader, and to place more liberals on the Democratic Policy Committee.

They plan also to fight any move to tone down their party's legislative program, including the civil rights plank.

"We're not going to lie down and play dead," Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., told a reporter. We won on the Democratic platform, we believe in it and we're going to enact it if we can."

He couldn't see how the Democrats could miss getting a great deal of the platform program enacted in the first four months of the Congress session starting Jan. 3.

Humphrey, who said he is not seeking the assistant leader's position, indicated he would accept it if it were offered. "I would consider it a real honor, privilege and responsibility to be included in the Democratic leadership," he said.

Humphrey was interviewed by telephone in Minneapolis, Douglas in Chicago and Proxmire in Sheboygan, Wis.

Conservatives in both parties have been suggesting that the election returns might spell some retreat from the Democratic platform by Congress.

Texas Papers, Stations Get News Citations

By The Associated Press
Texas newspapers and radio stations received national recognition Wednesday for aggressive and alert news coverage. They were among 43 newspapers and stations cited by The Associated Press Managing Editors' Association for outstanding news and photographic coverage during 1960.

The awards went to the Paris News, the San Antonio News and the San Antonio Express, Stations KRLD and KRLD-TV in Dallas and Station KNUZ of Houston. Broadcasting, telecasting and newspaper members of The Associated Press in Texas have been consistent winners of the national APME awards.

News and newspaper citations went to the Paris News and the San Antonio News and San Antonio Express. Managing Editor Bill Thompson of the Paris News, the citation read, "gave The Associated Press a quick telephone call, enough for a solid beat, when six students and two teachers died in a school bus-truck collision Sept. 29, 1959. Then he and staffers Tony Price, Ronnie Thompson, Britt Martin and Miss Marsha Pyle (now Mrs. Britt Martin) worked around the clock to protect AP members. Price drove halfway to Dallas to meet AP photographer Ted Powers, carrying a portable transmitter to speed picture movement."

Doomed Man Gets Hearing

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A young Crockett Negro sentenced to die Friday for raping a white woman was due a habeas corpus hearing in federal court here today. Charles Williams, 18, was granted the hearing Tuesday by U.S. Dist. Judge Allan Hannay. The Court of Criminal Appeals had refused to consider his petition Monday.

Williams was sentenced Sept. 21, 1959, by a Houston County jury to die for raping a 48-year-old woman. Williams claimed he was beaten and kicked to force him to sign a confession. His handwritten petition said court-appointed lawyers told Williams to plead guilty even though he told them he was innocent. "One of the attorneys told me if I got on the stand and made that woman out a liar, that the jury would give me the death penalty," Williams said. "They said it would not be any use for me to take the stand, and that if I made her out a liar her brother might shoot me while I was on the witness stand."

Top Bid Made In Lease Sale

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—Continental Oil Co. of Fort Worth submitted the top bid Tuesday in a monthly oil and gas lease sale conducted by the State Land Office. The company paid $27,918.41 for 640 acres north of Carlsbad. Shell Oil Co. of Midland, Tex., made the high bid of $42.50 an acre for 80 acres west of Lovington.

I Want To Invite You To Be With Us In Our Services At The First Baptist Church

As a public school teacher and homemaker, I am constantly in need of "spirit lifters." Along with Bible reading and prayer, I attend my church regularly to get the inoculation I feel I must have.

During our revival, I hope to increase my inward tranquility, an unquenchable gaiety of spirit and a love for my fellow man and God.

Capsule Recovery

An Air Force C-119 plane piloted by Capt. Gene W. Jones, 39, of Walla Walla, Wash., snagged the capsule ejected from the Discover XVII satellite high over the Pacific northeast of Hawaii. It is history's second aerial catch of a capsule from an orbiting satellite. The photo shows the aircraft's trapeze-like catching device hooked onto the parachute which provided for slow descent of the capsule.

Kremlin Writes Off Ike Administration On Arms, Looks To Kennedy Regime

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union wrote off the Eisenhower administration as a disarmament bargainer Tuesday night and made clear she will only do business with the incoming Kennedy government.

Valerian Zorin, Soviet deputy foreign minister, sparked an angry retort from the U. S. ambassador who called Moscow's position an unjustified interference in the internal affairs of the United States.

The exchange made clear to delegates that the current General Assembly's attempt to resolve the arms deadlock faces a dead end. Zorin and U. S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth clashed in the Political Committee after the Soviet delegate threw his support behind a compromise resolution submitted by India and co-sponsored by a group of uncommitted nations.

Zorin said the resolution presented by India's V. K. Krishna Menon had its faults, but that it presented the best hope for solution of the disarmament deadlock. Wadsworth countered that the Indian proposal was unacceptable unless it was changed to make it clearer and give it more balance. The United States favors many parts of the resolution, he said, but feels it would "tie the hands of negotiators when they sit down at the table."

Wadsworth then challenged Zorin to accept amendments which would make the resolution more explicit and put it in focus.

Zorin quickly denounced the U. S. suggestion of amendments as a scheme to wreck the resolution and establish loopholes to "squirm out of agreement on general and complete disarmament."

Murder, Youthful Suicide Among Science News Items

By The Associated Press
Murder, age, athlete's foot, suicide, and hot weather diets are topics this week with a focus on health.

THE SUDDEN MURDERERS
The sudden murderers who kill without apparent reason usually have abnormal brain activity, British researchers report.

They charted the electrical activity in the brains of known murderers in English prisons. Among those who murdered while trying to commit some other crime, one in four showed brain abnormalities—roughly the same as other prisoners.

Among those who killed after considerable personal provocation, only 17 per cent showed abnormal. But in those who murdered without motive or provocation except for the stress of sexual excitement, resentment or exhaustion, 73 per cent had brain abnormalities.

HOT WEATHER EATERS
The hotter it is the more you need to eat, Army researchers report.

Men living in 105 degree desert heat ate some 400 calories more per day than did men living in air-conditioned comfort. They also gained weight, probably due to drinking more water.

The hot weather eaters needed more food for several reasons: Increased blood flow to aid the body's adjustment to the heat, greater sweat gland activity and the loss of calories due to sweat loss.

CHILD SUICIDES
Under the age of 15, suicide is a minor cause of death. But thereafter it becomes more and more important as a killer, a new study shows.

Discipline, emotional upset, depression, jealousy, school and family problems were the most frequent reasons for attempted suicides. Lesser reasons: Drug addiction and the birth of an illegitimate child. The highest number of attempts came at the age of 13.

Parents should watch for a sudden change in personality or behavior, anxiety, irritability, depression, insomnia and frequent but unnecessary outbursts of temper.

CLIMATE FOR FUNGUS

Athlete's foot—a common fungus infection—is more common and harder to cure among boys than girls. The reason, say British researchers: Boys' footwear is badly ventilated, making their feet a more suitable soil for the growth of the fungus.

RX DAFFODILS

U.S. studies of a Soviet-discovered drug are yielding a whole family of new compounds that hold hope for persons suffering from nerve-muscle diseases like Myasthenia Gravis.

This is not a common disease. It is characterized by abnormal muscle weakness.

The drugs, last year, were derived from the bulbs of a plant related to the daffodil, which grows in abundance all over the world. Doctors may soon try out one of the compounds on human patients.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation II®. At all drug counters.

Makers Sued
DALLAS (AP)—In a suit filed in federal district court, Braniff International Airways blames the manufacturers of a turbo-prop Electra for its crash near Buffalo, Tex., last year.

A Devotional For Today

Jesus stretched forth his hand and caught Peter, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? (Matthew 14:31.)
PRAYER: Our heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the opportunities to serve Thee. Help us to become strong in faith and diligent in service to Thee. This we ask in the name of Christ Jesus. Amen.

Good Investment For Your Health

Envelopes containing Christmas seals have been mailed to hundreds of Big Spring and Howard County residents with a request to purchase these seals.
This is the manner in which the Howard County Tuberculosis Association finances the bulk of its program. Over the years our local association has carried on an outstanding work and has made an unique contribution to the health of the community.
Therefore, we hope that you will give earnest consideration to an generous purchase of seals as possible. Eighty-two per cent of the money raised will go directly to the Howard County Tuberculosis Association, and if 1961 is like other years it will be applied to a variety of uses aimed at securing and then following through on all tuberculosis cases.

For many years TB almost dropped out of the picture as a public health problem. But as the bacilli have built up immunity to new wonder drugs and as attention has been focused on other dramatic health problems the slumbering white plague has managed to reawaken itself. Now we are faced with the sobering fact that tuberculosis is on the increase in our own county.

One compelling thing about TB is that it is contagious. One person may infect a family, members of a family may inadvertently spread it to another, and thus so on it is really safe from it.
The safest course is to spot it wherever it may and whenever it may occur. Your purchase of seals will help the county association better accomplish this objective.

Back To Normal—Too Quick

The wires are abounding these days with the latest gossip that Marilyn Monroe the former miss who parlayed a rippling latent movement into a fabulous movie career, is thinking about checking her husband, Arthur Miller, the playwright, overboard.
The gossip, who seem to have some mysterious access to the press wires are speculating that there may be something between Miss Monroe and Yves Montand, French actor and husband of Simone Sigmond, French actress. Miss Signoret noted that "Marilyn is a warm, delightful person. I lived with her for three months while Yves was filming a picture with her, but this business could spoil our friendship." Well, now see what how old-fashioned can you get?

If during the heat of the quadrennial battle to name a president we longed for a return to normal in the everyday news fare, we didn't really want it to get normal that quick.

World Wonders About Kennedy

WASHINGTON—All over the world people are wondering what kind of President of the United States the 43-year-old senator of Massachusetts—John F. Kennedy—is going to make.

The newspapers abroad refer to his youth as both an advantage and a disadvantage. They argue that a young man has flexibility, rather than rigidity, and that there is an inclination not to hesitate but to be bold and assertive. There is wonder on the other hand, how the new President will get along with the older and more experienced men in world affairs who head the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy, West Germany and the Soviet Union. The truth is that John F. Kennedy is today a mystery to the leaders of the other countries of the world—an unknown quantity.

THE COMMENTS of the European newspapers on the whole reflect their unfamiliarity with public opinion in America. Indeed some of the so-called "liberal" newspapers are already expressing the hope that Red China will be recognized and that the firm positions taken by the Eisenhower administration will be abandoned. It is natural for some Britishers to worry about keeping their colony in Hong Kong, with their big investments there, and this is perhaps one of the reasons why Britain has from the start recognized the Communist regime in Peking. But the recognition of Red China by the United States could mean the collapse of the whole Allied position in Japan, Formosa, the Philippines and Southeast Asia, and could bring on the very war in the Far East that nobody in the West wants to see happen.

THE SPOKESMEN of the "left wing" in Britain, moreover, are already expecting President-elect Kennedy to take a softer line toward Russia and to pour out more American billions than ever before to all parts of the world. They are in for a surprise.
What most of the editorial writers in other countries do not realize is that in the United States there is a substantial agreement on the fundamental principles of our foreign policy and that, while there may be a change in method coming and an attempt to set forth American ideals more vigorously, the end result will not be any real shift in the direction of American policy abroad.

THE MERK FACT that the heads of governments and the newspapers overseas are in such an inquiring mood about the new President of the United States proves how important America is to them all. Some newspapers and officials abroad speak of America as having elected not only a new President but "a new leader of the free world." Certainly it doesn't look as if the "prestige" of the United States is so low, after all, despite the disappointing losses sustained in this point during the recent campaign.

Perhaps the most important aftermath of the election is that there are so many pressures for a change in American for-

Communists Move Ahead In Cuba

Underground sources report the Communists are not about ready for a try at driving the final nails into the coffin of what once was free Cuba.
As the Cubans begin to lose their enthusiasm for government by mass meeting, the Communists are moving on two important fronts to consolidate their grip and substitute government by fear and suspicion.

First, the Communists are the inspiration for the organization by the Fidel Castro regime of what appears to be a secret police system closely patterned on the lines of the Soviet KGB of Stalin's day.
THIS POLICE setup is reported to go under the name of "9-34" for reasons known best to its organizers. A Czechoslovak Communist who himself is a veteran of the Soviet MVD service is reported to be in complete charge of whipping the network together so that control eventually will be complete over every aspect of Cuban daily life.

They're Eating High

NEW YORK (AP)—As a pore old country boy still full of hayseeds after years in the big city, I can't help but admire how the other half lives.
I sure do admire how they eat.

While gnawing on my cold home-made sandwich the other day I got to reading in the papers about how the big fellows of business industry, money and whatnot take their "goodly" nourishment.
They eat high up on top of tall buildings.

They also eat high up on the 'big I' judge that's an old expression I brought here with me from Oklahoma.
This article in the paper was telling about the newest skyscraper spoon and fork spot on top of a new Fifth Avenue building.

The story said that the club probably is the most exclusive and most expensive luncheon club in town—serving only 350 top-level business men and financiers.
And even those folks can't get in until they have been invited to join.

The paper ran a picture showing a real nice place with big windows so you can look out all over town while you eat. But evidently the big executives don't go just to eat and look out over town. The story said:
"One thing all of these clubs have in common is their altitude—a factor that seems to fulfill some inner need of the executive ego."

Well, I'm not any kind of an executive, but it certainly would fulfill my ego to eat in a place like that. Other parts of me, too, no doubt.
A ham sandwich would taste a lot better while I was looking out over all of New York.

The newspaper said the Fifth Avenue club probably would charge several hundred dollars more than any of the other places just to join up, so you can get in to buy a bite.
The top price up to now was listed as $125 for membership in another such "high-falutin'" eatery.

But—hang the cost—I'm for the Fifth Avenue. Its membership, said the paper, includes some pretty big names.
Yet there's always a sour apple. One unidentified prominent industrialist was quoted as saying he turned down an invitation to join because "I already belong to several clubs that I never visit. I don't really want to add another to my list."

Tired of eating out, I guess I'd like to know his name because I'd like to invite him to share my old cold sandwich from home during my half-hour lunch period.
Ah, shucks. What am I saying. Pure envy. I'd give almost anything to eat up there high in the sky along with all those big wheels.

I might even pay 50 cents for one of their ham sandwiches. —FRANCIS STITLEY

Around The Rim

The Man With The Microscope

The man peered into a microscope, adjusted its focus and studied the specimen for a moment. Then he took another slide and confirmed his conclusions. He relayed the information to the operating room.

The news was good. On the strength of this, there remained the task of closing a wound, dressing it and returning the patient to the room.

It took only minutes, but within the space of those few minutes the surgeon could be fairly certain that the patient did not have a cancer. Of course these samples of tissue would be sent through a series of other slower and more exhaustive tests to confirm the initial findings, but what the pathologist—the man at the microscope—had seen likely told the story accurately. The double check was just to be absolutely certain.

WHEN A BIOPSY is ordered the surgeon also was playing it safe. It is far better to look and be sure than to be cautious and wrong. In his decision he relied heavily upon what the pathologist finds.

Pathologists are highly and intensively trained for their special field of medicine. They are as familiar with the patterns and workings of the cellular structure as you are with your living room. For instance the healthy cell under the high-power microscope shows a substantial dark-rimmed circle which is the nucleus of the cell. Around it are clusters of other tiny rings. The healthy cells also tend to line up like bricks laid evenly in a wall.

ON THE OTHER HAND, the malignant cell structure is erratic. Instead of the large ring with tiny ones clustering around there may be a series of elongated nuclei of irregular shape. For the individual cell may have a king-sized nucleus bulging to the sides of the cell wall or it may push the cell wall all over of shape. The basal line for the cell—the rooter line between the bricks—becomes shattered. The skilled eye of the pathologist sees many other things which tell him of specific types and conditions, things that will be of great value to the physician.

To get a look at cells from a patient, the pathologist puts the extracted tissue into a solution that freezes instantly to a rock-like solidarity through use of liquid rock. This is subjected to an appropriate which shaves the tissue to about one-thirtieth of an inch thick. The shivers—almost as thin as a paper—are then put into a special dye from which they are dipped in a washing solution, then put on to a slide for examination.

PRACTICALLY ALL TISSUE removed in surgery is examined by a pathologist, on the spot or later. This is the way to be sure.

One kind of tissue against the possibility of cancer is that of a physician ways that the pathologist helps unravel the mysteries of the human body. He can tell whether a tumor was rubbed or whether he died of a burning building or whether he died of a stroke and a fall. He can tell whether a subject was a smoker. He can tell whether a subject was a drinker. He can spot those infinitesimal details which point ever so faintly to what's ahead. Without him the physician often times would be at sea with him he can give you the truth.

Lord Macaulay Could Have Been Wrong

WASHINGTON—It has now been 103 years since the British historian Lord Macaulay predicted the certain and early demise of the American Republic because of its democratic persuasions. One way to see what happened last election day is to check over Macaulay's predictions and see why they have failed thus far to materialize. He wrote from London, May 23, 1857:

"THE DAY WILL come when a multitude of people, none of whom has had more than a breakfast or expects to have more than half a dinner will choose a legislature. It is possible to doubt what sort of legislature will be chosen? On one side is a statesman preaching patience, respect for vested rights, strict observance of public faith. On the other side is a demagogue ranting about the tyranny of capitalists which the two candidates is likely to be preferred."

It is instantly apparent that the USA of Macaulay's time—a country still practicing human slavery, flooded by a riffraff of immigrants, still dependent on Europe for manufactured goods—did not develop along the indicated lines. Slavery was abolished, immigration limited, tariffs raised against foreign goods. As a result, we developed a dominant middle-class, neither very rich nor very poor, never hungry, seldom radical.

AS A PRIMARY consequence, Macaulay's description of the two extreme candidates never became fitting.
Richard Nixon in 1960 certainly did preach go-slow conservatism, respect for private property and fiscal responsibility. But John Kennedy, while taking opposite positions, did not rant very much. With two hand candidates, we had a bland return with Kennedy getting a 66 per cent majority of the votes and Nixon carrying 25 of the 50 States. These are not the statistics of revolution.

MACAULAY WROTE: "I have long been convinced that institutions purely Democratic must sooner or later, destroy liberty or civilization or both—your fate I believe to be certain, though it is deferred by a physical cause. As long as you have a boundless expanse of fertile and unoccupied land, the Jeffersonian policy may continue until the time will come when the population will be fairly put to the test, your constitution is all soil and no water."

But in our 103-year states voted for the first time in a presidential election, American pioneering has branched off into science and space exploration. Our yield of food per acre is far greater than a century ago. Today we are on the verge of tapping an infinite supply of sweet water by desalting the seas. The constitution far from proving too much soil, has served as a saving anchor to windward in many an emergency.

FINALLY MACAULAY wrote: "Either some Caesar or Napoleon will seize the reins of government with a strong hand, or your Republic will be fearfully plundered and laid waste by barbarians in the 20th century as the Roman Empire was in the fifth century with this difference. That the Huns and Vandals who ravaged the Roman Empire came from without—and that your Huns and Vandals will have been engendered within your own country by your own institutions."

Only this last fearsome prophecy still remains for Americans of our time to dispense. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

American Opera Hopefuls In Milan

MILAN, Italy—Not everyone can be a Milan Galles, which is probably just as well.

But it seems doubtful if there breathes an ambitious student of grand opera with soul so dead that he or she does not dream, while practicing all those scales of some-day starting on two opera stages. La Scala in Milan and the Metropolitan in New York.

WITH ALL due respect for the Met, La Scala is probably the most generous opera house in the world. It has been doing business at the same old stand since it was first built in 1778. After damage in World War II it was glued back together again with its dazzling acoustics unimpaired and its gorgeous red, white and gold interior a faithful copy of the earlier design.

Because of La Scala and Milan's fame as a music center, a sizable number of American students studying music are a constant in this city. American officials estimate that the number of American men, women and children here to advance their musical careers number between 300 and 500.

MANY AN AMERICAN singer has reached the Met via La Scala. But if none of the American voice students now in Milan ever makes La Scala, at least a handful of them are going to do the next best thing. They are going to have a chance to sing opera in Milan this coming winter.

The Milan city fathers have asked the American Artists Association of Milan to present two one-act American operas in a theatre that the city has recently refurbished. The theatre is designed to encourage experimental and amateur groups.

Removal of tonsils is a serious matter. You will find my views on tonsils in my pamphlet, "Don't Trifle With Tonsils." For a copy write to Dr. Molner in care of the Herald enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 5 cents in coin to cover cost of handling.

of forthright on-the-spot criticism from Milan audiences, among the most musically sophisticated in the world, that has even rocked Mme. Galles on her heels.

THE AMERICAN Artists Association which includes any American musical student who can prove he's not tone-deaf, is new to this city. Necessary and an American official sponsored it. Music students, eager to get a hearing in Milan and financially unable to hire a hall, have long besieged the American consulate and the United States Information Service for permission to give concerts in any of the assembly rooms on Uncle Sam's Milan premises.

Officialdom has always felt itself ill-qualified to decide which applicant is a future Caruso and which a potential Schnoz Durante. In this bind, an American official had the Solomon-like idea of encouraging American students to organize and decide among themselves which of their number are best qualified to sing at seven recitals on U. S. premises during the current season.

NOR ARE THE two one-act operas and the seven recitals the only American artistic fare available to Milanese this year. The Milan Little Theatre Group will present, in Italian, its second annual group of American plays. Late in November, the group will stage Lillian Hellman's "Another Part of the Forest." It will be followed by William Inge's "Picnic," Eugene O'Neill's "Welded" and four one-act plays by Tennessee Williams.

The Milan city fathers have asked the American Artists Association of Milan to present two one-act American operas in a theatre that the city has recently refurbished. The theatre is designed to encourage experimental and amateur groups.

Thus Milan will have a "season" of American Opera sung by American hopefuls, and the American hopefuls, in turn, will have a chance to be heard. The Americans may even get a taste of the type

Checkups - Doctor And Patient Relationship

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
I'm taking up from where I left off yesterday. Here are the basics: Periodic physical checkups are good for everybody.

But there aren't enough doctors to check everybody.
However, not everybody will ask for such a checkup, and I think it's up to what doctors we have to take pains with what patients we have who do ask for checkups.

I doubt whether the average patient realizes how much a physician can tell about a person without the patient walking in. Seeing the patient walk in gives a doctor some ideas. His color, vigor or lassitude, skin texture, posture, breathing (asthmatic or normal), fingernails, voice (including cough, hoarseness, etc.), present some ideas.

Just as important is the information the patient gives. Never go to your doctor with the attitude of "Here I am! Now YOU figure out how I am!" This isn't a guessing game. This is a matter of detecting the state of your health! So tell the doctor any unusual things you've noticed about yourself. But don't, of course, waste time trying to think up things that aren't real.

Tell him about any lumps, pains, itches. Any difficulty in breathing, walking, sleeping, swallowing. Tell him whether your appetite is good or bad, whether you eliminate normally or don't. Tell him anything about your body or your habits that has changed. And let it go at that.

He in turn will, I trust, use his stethoscope, his eyes, and his ears. For a modest cost he can add a urinalysis and suggest a chest X-ray either at your hospital or, if available, through one of the mobile TB units which do so much good work.

It's my feeling that the way to do the most good at the least cost is to get both the doctor and patient in the habit of having a checkup once a year. Maybe less often with young, healthy patients, and perhaps more often as we reach advanced years and have more of the symptoms that develop as we grow older.

Since these checkups are routine, give your doctor a break. Tell him you just want a checkup and let him fit it into his busy times—if he has any. If you have an emergency, tell him so on the phone; if it's not an emergency, tell him that, too.

And for doctors, here's my view: Do the most basic tests each time. Weight, observation, evaluation of the patient's comments, blood pressure, heart-lungs, and—well, you know what I mean.

Mothers Take Noon Duty At Park Hill

A plan to relieve teachers of noon duties in the cafeterias at the schools is in the experimental stage this week at Park Hill Elementary School where the room mothers have volunteered to arrange for mothers to take over. This is a plan new to Big Spring but has been successfully carried out in California schools according to Mrs. John Amen, cafeteria director. The mothers will be at the cafeteria during the noon period and will assist the pupils in handling their trays, encourage them to eat all of their food, note likes and dislikes, and of course, maintain discipline.

All mothers may serve but the room mothers will be in charge of the volunteers. Each room mother will get two volunteers per day for a week. According to Mrs. Amen, the mothers would have to serve only three days out of a year.

Mrs. H. H. Rutherford is principal at the Park Hill school where the experiment is taking place. Room mothers and their grades are Mrs. R. R. McEwen Jr., sixth; Mrs. Gaylon Head and Mrs. C. C. Lewis, fifth; Mrs. B. Broadrick, fourth; Mrs. Omar Jones and Mrs. Ralph Gossett, third; Mrs. Allan D. Kernodie, second; Mrs. Granville Hahn and Mrs. Ed Swift, first.

At the experimental school between 80 and 120 children, (half the enrollment) are served each day depending on the weather and the menu. It has been noted the favorites of the students are hamburgers, pinto beans, meat loaf, chili and spaghetti and sandwiches.

This activity concerns only the cafeteria and does not concern the rooms where children who bring their lunch eat.

All Day Meet Held By Fairview Club

An all day meeting and Thanksgiving luncheon was held by members of the Fairview Home Demonstration Club Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Frank Wilson.

Roll call was answered to "Name one book you have read this year." The thought for the day was "Life is a grindstone and whether it polishes you up or grinds you down depends on the stuff you are made of."

Mrs. J. H. Sellers gave the devotion from Psalms 103 and the reading "The Art of Being Thankful" by Dr. Walter Courtney.

The program was given by Mrs. Lonnie Griffith who also gave a report on her attendance of the state meeting held recently in Brownsville.

Council delegate, Mrs. O. D. Engle, gave the council report.

On Dec. 13 the club will serve lunch at Walker's Auction Sale.

The next meeting will be the annual Christmas party at 2 p.m., Dec. 6 in the home of Mrs. H. F. Hanson.

Ruth Circle Meets In Smith Home

The Ruth Circle of First Christian Church met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. H. W. Smith.

The circle continued their study of the book of Acts.

Refreshments were served to eight members and two guests.

The next meeting will be on Dec. 20 in the home of Mrs. A. A. Marchant.

Turkey Dinner To Be Served By Club

A turkey dinner will be served Saturday evening at the First Methodist Church in Fellowship Hall by the Business and Professional Women's Club. Dinner will be served from 5:30 p.m. until 8 p.m.

Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12. Proceeds of the dinner will go to the buying of shoes for underprivileged children and paying for the Howard County Junior College student's tuition the club is sponsoring, and other club projects.

Mrs. Redman Is Hostess For Circle

The Kathryn White Circle of Vincent Baptist Church met Monday morning in the home of Mrs. J. H. Redman.

The Bible study, "Sharing My Savior," was given by Mrs. Redman.

Mrs. Gene Lockhart read the names on the prayer calendar.

The next meeting of the circle will be on Nov. 21 at 1:30 p.m. at the church.

Eleven members were present.

Dr. Young Is Club Speaker

Dr. and Mrs. Paul C. Young were special guests of the American Association of University Women at their meeting Tuesday evening in the music hall of Howard County Junior College.

Dr. Young, who is psychologist at the Big Spring State Hospital, spoke to the group on the parallelism between psychology and religion and how it is applied at the hospital.

Mrs. Doris Thurman, coordinator of volunteers, spoke on what the AAUW could do to help at the hospital.

Members of the club are to meet at 2 p.m. Saturday to tour the hospital.

Mrs. Glen Cootes will serve as editor of a newspaper, "Round Up," which will contain news of the patients and activities of the hospital.

Hostesses for the Tuesday evening meeting were Mrs. Keith McMillan and Nell Brown.

On Dec. 20 the group will bring their favorite recipes, prepared, to the sub at HJC and a covered dish dinner will be served. Following the dinner the recipes will be sold. Mrs. Cootes and Mrs. Bruce Dunn will be hostesses to that meeting.

Gladys Burnham and Mrs. Homer L. Honea were welcomed as new members.

Great Books Group Turns To Donne

Moses Maimonides (Moses Ben Maimon, son of Maimon), left his readers still perplexed after Tuesday's Great Books meeting but with a high respect for the author, called by a Spanish reference work, the Plato to the Jews.

For the next meeting, Dec. 6, the subject is John Donne's "Holy Sonnets." Donne, whose poetry and religious oratory have been read for more than three centuries, is probably best known to many Americans for an excerpt from a sermon that gave Hemingway his title, "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

Great Books meetings are open to anyone interested, and there are no fees or other membership requirements.

"The Womanless Wedding" which will be a benefit affair will be held at the lodge Thursday night at 7:30. Members are urged to attend and bring a guest. Tickets will be 50 cents.

A special practice of the drill team is scheduled for Friday evening at the lodge hall.

Visits to sick members were re-

Mrs. R. R. McEwen, in the foreground, and Mrs. Vance Lebkowsky, roommothers at Park Hill Elementary School lead a helping hand to the youngsters in the cafeteria Tuesday. This is an experimental program to relieve teachers of noon duties in the cafeteria.

Three Baptist Temple Circles Begin 'Across The Bridge'

First in the studies from the book, "Across the Bridge" were held at circle meetings of the Baptist Temple Tuesday morning when the groups met in the homes of members for study and business.

HORACE BUDDIN
An outstanding study was conducted by Mrs. Monroe Gafford at her home for the Horace Buddin Circle.

Mrs. H. I. Cox led the missionary prayer after reading the prayer list and Mrs. J. R. Berry was in charge of the business. A menu was set for the Thanksgiving baskets which will be prepared for needy families. Members were asked to bring their contributions to the Nov. 22 meeting at the church.

In bringing the first two chapters from the study book, Mrs. Gafford brought the devotional thoughts from Titus 2:11 and told about the Christ of the Andes statue, a symbol of peace between Chile and Argentina.

Each member was given a blank map of the area to be studied and filled in the territory where the Southern Baptists have worked in the Spanish American countries. Mrs. Richard Grimes told the number of missionaries in the country and the year each started to work and listed the progress.

The principal speaker told the history of Dr. Frank Means and his qualifications for writing the book. She also told of the Spanish work the Baptists have in Mexico, Guatemala, Honduras, Costa Rica and Argentina. She pointed out the literary role Baptists play and showed posters of the work in education, religion, social background, medical achievement and publishing.

Key personalities were presented by Mrs. Dalton D. Johnston who told of Benita Juarez, religious freedom; Mrs. J. R. Berry, James Hickey, Baptist beginnings; Mrs. Cox, George Lacy, education; Mrs. Sam Bennett, Dr. Hallie Neal, medical missions; Mrs. Pete Shepherd, E. E. Hasty, evangelism; Mrs. Gafford, J. Edgar Davies, publishing.

Mrs. Bennett offered the closing prayer.

EVAN HOLMES
Mrs. Otto Couch brought the first of the mission studies from the book "Across the Bridge" to members of the Baptist Temple Evan Homes Circle at their meeting in the home of Mrs. B. F. Mabe.

Mrs. Mabe gave the devotion and read the missionary birthday calendar after which Mrs. A. W. Page worded a prayer for the missionaries having birthdays. The group was reminded of the Week of Prayer beginning Nov. 28 through Dec. 2.

Seven members were present for the meeting.

FISHER CIRCLE
Mrs. Dick Collier was hostess to members of the Fisher Circle at her home when members met to hear the first two chapters of the study book.

Mrs. A. T. Boren read the prayer calendar and Mrs. Tom Buckner led the prayer for the missionaries and asked special guidance for the missionaries during the week of prayer that begins Nov. 28.

Mrs. Collier led the devotional thoughts and used as her theme "Christ of the Andes," the symbol of peace in the Latin American countries. Mrs. D. C. Boren led in special prayer.

During the study, maps of the countries were distributed and members placed colored outlines in the sections where Baptists have work. The women also engaged in a quiz defining Spanish words and filled in the names of the countries.

Key personalities were discussed by the group and Mrs. A. T. Boren led the closing prayer.

Members took mission study books to read and also the names of missionaries with which they will correspond and remember in daily prayer.

Refreshments were served to eight members and a guest, Mrs. W. E. Carrrike.

Decoration, Gift Program Seen By HDC

A program on Christmas decorations and gifts that can be made was seen by members of the Lees Home Demonstration Club at their meeting Tuesday. Mrs. Mildred Eliand, HD agent, have the holiday meal.

Mrs. J. J. Overton was hostess to the meeting in the club house. The hostess gave the devotion from Hebrews 11.

Roll call was answered with a favorite recipe for the holiday season. The club will enter into the neighborhood program again this year.

Eight members and four visitors attended.

The club also heard a discussion on Christmas menus that can be prepared and frozen before the holiday meal.

Everyone is invited to attend and bring a covered dish for the luncheon to be served at noon. The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the club house with Mrs. William Schaefer acting as hostess.

Hatch Circle Meets For Business, Study

Charitable activities and mission study interested the members of the Mary Hatch Circle when the members met in the home of Mrs. Walter Douglas Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Harold Farquhar, community missions chairman, told the group she had purchased large white towels for use at the Crippled Children's Center and had also distributed leaflets to lost people which she had listed. The members agreed to witness to those named during this revival week at the church.

The nine members of the circle were present and heard the prayer calendar read by Mrs. Douglas. Mrs. B. H. Tingle led in prayer for the missionaries and asked a special blessing on the church during the revival.

Mrs. Charles Sweeney, study chairman, brought the lesson on Spanish-American work in Mexico, Uruguay and Argentina from the book, "Across the Bridge" by Dr. Frank K. Means.

The meeting on Nov. 22 will be held at 9:30 in the home of Mrs. G. G. Morehead.

Bride-Elect Is Honored

Peggy Daugherty, bride elect of Everett Sproles, was the honoree for a surprise miscellaneous shower at the home of Judy Johnson Tuesday evening.

Hostesses for the affair were Miss Johnson, Netta Kay Laws, Demmie Nicholson, Sharon Homberg and Jackie Clark.

The couple will be married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Forrest on Nov. 25.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Fortune and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sproles.

Columbia Program Held By GA Group

The program of the Beverly Blake Intermediate GA's of Baptist Temple, Tuesday was on Columbia. There was a display of things that had been done for the missions in Columbia. Program parts were given by Marion Gilbert, Susan Collier, Jean Cox, Kathy Huff and Linda Taylor.

Miss Gilbert read the prayer calendar and Jean Cox led the prayer for the missionaries.

The group discussed plans for a party later on in the new year.

Flower Arranging Seen By Brownies

Mrs. A. A. Graumann gave a demonstration on the general facts of flower arranging for members of Brownie Troop 388 Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Graumann showed various arrangements.

The troop met in the home of Mrs. George Russell, 1403 Tucson.

A get well card was signed by the girls and sent to Susie Armstrong.

Plans were made for a Thanksgiving basket to be sent to a shut in.

The field trip, recently taken to Howard County Airport, was discussed by the girls.

Lynn Davis served refreshments to 17 members.

Conference Attended By Group

Four women of the St. Paul Presbyterian Church attended the District Conference of The Women of the church Presbytery of the southwest Tuesday in Colorado City Tuesday.

Mrs. Alex Saunders of Ballinger is chairman of the group.

The theme of the conference is "Heritage and Missions."

Mrs. M. S. Dickerson of Midland and presently a medical missionary of Africa was special speaker using "Life In The Congo" as her topic.

Mrs. Roland Schwarzenbach of the local First Presbyterian Church gave the devotion.

Those attending from the St. Paul Church were Mrs. Jim Layman, Mrs. Al Seddon, Mrs. Harvey Carmack and Mrs. Dave Evans.

Garden Club Will Take Park As New Project

The Jefferson Park will be taken on as a new project of the After Five Garden Club to be landscaped and cared for. The club will also decorate the Cosden Country Club for the Lone Star District Boy Scout meeting to be held at the club.

Mrs. Jack Hanson was hostess to the group in her home Tuesday with Mrs. Paul Sheedy serving as cohostess.

Serving on the decorating committee will be Mrs. J. E. Smith,

Mrs. Joe Peay, Mrs. Ed Shive and Mrs. Perry Chandler.

Mrs. Bessie Love gave a report on the flower show and showed colored pictures of the Christmas table that won first place in the show.

Mrs. Johnny Hill and Mrs. Harold Bell were welcomed into the club as new members.

The next meeting of Dec. 20 will be the Christmas party and will take place in the home of Mrs. John Balch.

Methodist Circles Have Mission Study Meetings

Mrs. Harwood Keith served as hostess to the Mary Zion Circle of the First Methodist WSCS Tuesday when the meeting was held in the church parlor.

Mrs. H. H. Stephens led the study on "The Old Story in a New Day" from the mission book, "One World, One Mission."

Mrs. W. A. Laswell brought the devotion and also talked on literacy and literature; Mrs. Keith spoke on education; Mrs. T. G. Adams on refugees.

Mrs. Joe Leatherwood was a guest with the 13 members. The meeting was closed with the WSCS benediction.

LAMUN-STRIPLING
The Sylvia Lamun and Fannie Stripling Circles of the First Methodist WSCS met in the home of Mrs. Delaine Crawford Tuesday for the mission study from "One World, One Mission."

Mrs. Rex Baggett brought the opening prayer and Mrs. L. C.

Zant led the devotion. Mrs. Bill Coleman and Mrs. W. M. Romans gave parts on the program.

Mrs. Zant led the affirmation of faith as a benediction for the 23 who attended.

HODGES-MORRIS
Mrs. R. W. Thompson, Mrs. Darrell Hulme and Mrs. L. L. Patton presented the third session of the study "Into All the World Together" for members of the Fannie Hodges and Maudie Morris Circles of First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Merle Stewart was hostess to the 15 members attending in her home.

The next meeting will be on Nov. 22 in the home of Mrs. A. S. Wood, 600 West 17th.

Banking Chapter Takes Time Out

The Big Spring chapter of the American Institute of Banking, now ranked second in the nation for chapters with a potential membership of not over 750, took off from its serious studies Tuesday for an evening of fun at the Big Spring Country Club. More than 125 were on hand to enjoy the social hour, dinner, style show and music.

Guests included Verna Lynn Lubbock, member of the women's panel of the national AIB organization and Elton Weichel, Wichita Falls, associate member of the national chapter. Weichel pointed out that banking is a growth industry and that it is incumbent upon those in banking to be in constant training to improve services.

Following the buffet dinner, AIB members, bank officers and directors, and their guests were treated to a style show arranged by Mrs. Jim Zack, with members of the bank staffs serving as models for the colorful affair. Mrs. Zack furnished the creations which ranged from sport attire to suits.

Bill Hensley presided as master of ceremonies for the informal program and introduced the Trinitones, a combo which displayed an exceptional range of repertoire.

He also recognized the officers of the chapter which embraces Big Spring, Lamesa, Snyder, Colorado City and Stanton, including Temp Currie, president; Chester Cathey, first vice president; Charles Dunnam, second vice president; Winifred Greenlee, secretary; Selma Roberts, treasurer; Jane Eubanks, publicity; Betty Rames, women's division; Jean

5 Minor Wrecks Reported Tuesday

Five minor traffic accidents, none of them apparently related to the three-day one-way street system downtown, occurred during the past 24 hours. No injuries were reported by investigating police.

At Eleventh Place and Benton, Mike William Felix, 1507 Lancaster, was involved in a collision with Warren Cress McCreary, 1302 E. 18th.

A three-car mishap at 3rd and Gregg involved Charles M. Nelson, Ellis Homes, A. E. Arencibia, 1202 Lloyd Ave., and Paul Grobman, Abilene.

Nell Taylor Jones, Western Hills, and Patrick T. Ferguson, West U.S. 80, were in collision at 14th and Lancaster.

Sybil B. Burklow, 2009 Runnels, and Michael Peters, 811 Runnels, were in collision at 9th and Johnson.

Eula Norton Moren, 1301 Eleventh Place, and Edward A. Johnson, Michigan City, Ind., collided at 4th and Gregg.

A petition calling for impeachment of Wright was circulated at the Citizens Council meeting.

In the Senate, Sen. Speedy O. Long advised parents that the legislature had repealed the state's compulsory school attendance law and said, "We are behind them in this fight."

The House approved 91-6 and sent to the Senate a resolution warning business firms that four New Orleans School Board members fired by legislative action no longer have any authority to act in fiscal matters.

Mounted police held shouting demonstrators in check as four 6-year-old Negro girls entered the two white elementary schools Tuesday. Three of the girls spent the day at McDonough 19 school, which was ringed with 125 patrolmen and mounted officers.

The assault with intent to murder was the third such complaint filed growing out of violence which flared on Saturday.

De La Torres had not posted bond at noon Wednesday.

The general public is being invited by Dewey's Marine Supply, West Highway 80, to attend a sneak preview on the 1961 Johnson Motors which is scheduled to begin Thursday.

The sneak preview is being held by Dewey's Marine Supply and by the Johnson Motors Corporation in order that area boating enthusiasts may get a chance to see the complete new line of Johnson motors now, rather than having to wait until the usual spring showings.

The sneak preview will run through Sunday, Nov. 20.

Firemen made quick work of extinguishing a small blaze at the Guitar Gin, 209 N. 2nd, Tuesday afternoon and damage was reported as negligible.

The fire apparently started when the gin's burr burner ignited nearby trash. The firemen answered the call at about 3:35 p.m. and were back at the station 10 minutes later.

Smith was endeavoring to query the defendant on answers he had given last July 22 in depositions taken in another case. Gomez repeatedly insisted that he could not remember.

He said he was subject to lapses of memory. Wayne Basden, his attorney, asked to see the deposition. Smith handed it to him and Basden, in turn, handed it to his client on the stand. Smith and Clyde Thomas Sr., his associate, immediately raced to the witness stand in an effort to take the deposition from Gomez, complaining they had handed it to Basden as a courtesy and with no intention the witness should have it.

When they sought to seize the document Gomez held it back out of their reach. Judge Caton ordered the jury from the room and Tommy Cole, deputy sheriff acting as bailiff, stepped into the scene. Gomez then surrendered the deposition.

A few minutes later, after the session had resumed, the court again excused the jury from the room and warned that he was becoming weary of the repeated answers of "I don't remember"

SCHOOLS

day meeting called by Gov. Jimmie H. Davis.

Both houses approved a resolution urging a boycott of the integrated schools. The House approved it 93-2 and it passed the Senate 34-0.

An estimated 10,000 white pupils stayed away from city schools Tuesday, the second day of efforts to integrate two local schools.

Many absentees took part in rowdy demonstrations resulting in 11 arrests, all white persons.

Louisiana's U.S. senators and congressmen were asked to attend the closed session and help halt federal intervention.

AIMED AT JUDGE

The resolution calling for their arrest was aimed at U.S. District Judge J. Skelly Wright, who issued the integration order and thwarted segregation acts of legislators with restraining orders.

An informant who asked not to be identified said the question of asking Louisiana's congressional delegation to institute impeachment proceedings against Wright is one of the moves under consideration.

Segregation leader John Garrett called for Wright's arrest at a meeting of the Citizens Council Tuesday night. Garrett, chairman of the state legislative committee on segregation, also called for the arrest of U.S. marshals who escorted four Negro girls to school Tuesday.

Garrett recommended full interposition, a legal maneuver through which the legislature would put state sovereignty between the federal government and the people to block integration.

Some 6,000 persons attending the meeting of the council, a segregationist group, shouted approval.

At the start of the council rally it was announced that mothers of students at the William Frantz School, where one Negro girl has been enrolled, would stage a protest march today on the New Orleans School Board office. The board, acting under federal court order, authorized interposition.

A petition calling for impeachment of Wright was circulated at the Citizens Council meeting.

In the Senate, Sen. Speedy O. Long advised parents that the legislature had repealed the state's compulsory school attendance law and said, "We are behind them in this fight."

DEAR ABBY

CRUEL TRICK

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: This morning I received a telephone call from a man who would not tell me his name. He just told me to give my husband a message. The message was to stay away from his wife. I almost fainted. He said his wife worked with my husband and if I gave my husband that message he would know who the woman was. I gave him the message and he said somebody must be playing a joke on me. I am expecting in 3 months and am so upset and nervous I can't think about anything else. Should I believe my husband or try to get to the bottom of it?

DEAR ABBY: I wear glasses. I have had a boy say to me, "I wish you would take off your glasses when I am trying to kiss you." Well, Abby, how is a girl supposed to know when a boy is going to try to kiss her? I would feel pretty foolish taking off my glasses when he didn't even have it in mind.

DEAR ABBY: My son, who is 19, is in the service and is stationed at a nearby camp. He and a 15-year-old girl who lives in our home town claim to be married. The girl says she doesn't want her parents to know it as they think she's too young. Every weekend my son comes home and the two of them spend the weekend here in this house like a married couple. I ask them to show me their marriage license and they say one of their friends has it. I'm a widow and don't know how to handle this alone.

DEAR ABBY: You stated that you were short for Jujitsu. You are mistaken. Judo is a sport and Jujitsu is the weaponless art of self-defense in which the aggressive movements of the attacker are used against himself by the use of leverage and off-balancing techniques. You are forgiven, however, because very few people know the difference.

FOUR EYES
DEAR ABBY: When you find approximately twelve inches between your nose and his nose—if the time, place and the boy are right—slip your glasses off.

Negro Leader Is Loyal To His Race

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A.P. (Alexander Pierre) Tureaud, Negro attorney who spearheaded the court suits to integrate New Orleans public schools, has been mistaken for white many times. The mistake is easily made. Like many Louisiana Negroes with mixed French and West Indian blood, Tureaud, 61, has skin the color of light mahogany and Caucasian features. He is a soft-spoken, roundish man—5 feet 5 and 185 pounds—with a paunch and a crest of gray hair around his bald head.

Tureaud, who has been a lawyer 34 years, has devoted most of his life to bringing civil rights to Negroes in the Bayou State. He has an office near legendary Basin Street in an old building that was once a hospital. A ceiling fan whirred overhead as he told why he wants schools integrated in Louisiana.

"When I was a boy, Negro schools went only as high as the sixth grade in New Orleans. The school I went to was in an old house. We ate lunch on a wooden bench on muddy ground. We had an outhouse for a toilet.

"We were pretty well off. Some Negro schools were in old barns and abandoned churches. One was in a former barroom. Roofs leaked so bad, children ran for shelter when it rained.

"Other schools had no drinking water. Kids had to walk three or four blocks to a well. Some drank out of ditches. In some cases, there were no toilets.

"The separate but equal doctrine is a myth. It always has been. I honestly feel if the states in the South had shown interest in fair implementation of that doctrine, we would not be pressing litigation for integration today."

Tureaud says he's a family man. He is a father of six and a Catholic. He says he doesn't smoke and drinks only on social occasions.

Tureaud graduated from Howard University in 1926 and opened a law office in New Orleans. He joined the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and started battling in courts all over the state for civil rights for Negroes.

Segregationists have attacked and vilified him. Liberal Negroes have championed and sanctified him.

He handled suits that: Ended bus desegregation in New Orleans and in four other Louisiana cities, opened attendance for Negroes in state-run colleges and in Louisiana State University's graduate schools, fought for equalization of Negro and white teacher salaries, helped open vote rolls to greater Negro registration, and ended segregation in New Orleans parks.

"A Negro doesn't like being reminded every day that things are for 'white only' wherever you turn," Tureaud said. "But the time has come when we can do something. And we are."

Nixon Takes Lead In Hawaii Count

HONOLULU (AP) — Hawaii's vote totals for the Nov. 8 presidential election now give Vice President Richard M. Nixon a 141 vote lead over Sen. John F. Kennedy as an audit of the island ballots continues.

William Kaina, administrative assistant in the lieutenant governor's office, said the latest official totals Tuesday gave Nixon 92,505 votes to Kennedy's 92,364. The state has three electoral votes.

Democrats, citing nearly a dozen discrepancies in several precincts, are demanding a recount. Republicans oppose it.

Fairris Convicted Of Robbery Charge

HOUSTON (AP)—Bethel Raymond Fairris, nephew of outlaw Raymond Hamilton, has been convicted of a crime that carries an automatic life sentence.

Fairris, 28, was found guilty of second offense robbery by a Houston District Court jury Tuesday.

He was convicted of torturing William Hall and robbing him of $250.

Fairris said he was in a Grand Prairie motel the night of Sept. 15 when Hall was robbed. An admitted prostitute testified she was at the motel with Fairris.

Hamilton was a Texas outlaw who was electrocuted for murder.

Transportation Strike Hits L.A.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Public transportation for 750,000 daily riders in a vast four-county area ground to a halt today.

Nine hundred mechanics struck the Metropolitan Transit Authority at 12:01 a.m. paralyzing local and interurban bus and trolley service.

Police envisaged a monumental traffic problem as hundreds of thousands of workers were left to their own devices—walking, sharing auto rides or driving their own cars to jobs in the downtown area, where parking conditions are critical even under normal circumstances.

The walkout, in defiance of a fresh court order Tuesday night, was called by the Amalgamated Transportation Union after 18 months of fruitless contract negotiations.

On Vacation

MEXICO CITY (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy's brothers Robert and Edward and their wives joined forces Tuesday night on a holiday from their campaign labors. They were en route to the Mexican west coast.

Officials Agree U.S. Should Supply A-Weapons To Allies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State and Defense Departments were reported substantially agreed today that the United States should provide the North Atlantic Alliance with its own strategic nuclear striking force.

In spite of this development of policy within the Eisenhower administration, high officials are uncertain what position the United States can take on the problem at a ministerial meeting of the NATO council in Paris next month.

Any decisions which are made now on such a long-range undertaking would have to be carried out by the next administration. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and others here therefore are waiting for some indication of views from President-Elect John F. Kennedy before determining finally the line they will take at the council meeting.

The basic idea behind the strategic nuclear force for NATO is to provide this country's European allies with nuclear weapons which would be committed primarily to their own defense.

Nuclear rockets are already stationed on Allied territory in the European area but they are subject to joint control of the United States and the nation on whose territory they are based.

One plan which has been talked about both here and with Allied governments would provide for placing a force of Polaris submarines under the direct control of the supreme Allied commander of NATO for Europe. Throughout NATO's 12-year history the supreme commander has been an American officer; at present it is Gen. Lauris Norstad. The expectation is that an American will continue to hold this assignment.

Consideration has also been given to stationing modified versions of the Polaris on mobile bases in Western Europe, subject to the control of the NATO commander.

Officials have now decided, it is said, that if either or both of these plans is finally adopted by NATO the U. S. president should ask congressional approval for the project. Some legal authorities believe the president probably has enough authority already to delegate power over nuclear weapons to an American officer commanding NATO. But the decision now is reported to be that in undertaking a project of such magnitude the president should be assured of congressional support.

Although Kennedy's views on the problem will be sought as soon as possible, he may not want to express an opinion until after he has selected the men who will be his secretary of state and secretary of defense.

During the election campaign Kennedy spoke of a need to strengthen NATO as well as build up this country's own military power.

Addison Trial Moved To Jan. 16

DALLAS (AP)—Trial of uranium promoter John Milton Addison has been moved back to Jan. 16, U.S. Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson set the new date Tuesday. The case had been set for Dec. 5.

"The number of witnesses involved, the length of trial and the necessity of disposing of certain motions in advance of trial," was the reason given by U.S. Atty. W. B. West III for asking the postponement. He said defense motions and other matters will still be heard Dec. 5 and 6.

Addison, 38, is under a 26-count federal criminal indictment charging fraud, conspiracy and violation of securities regulations in connection with his complex operations.

Oilman Sees Peril in Fuels Committee

CHICAGO (AP)—An oil executive charged today coal suppliers with using the issues of peace and war for their own interests.

J. Rathbone, board chairman of the American Petroleum Institute, said the National Coal Conference is asking the federal government for protection from competition.

The coal conference has asked Congress to set up a national fuels study committee. The national platforms adopted this summer by both the Democratic and Republican parties gave at least indirect approval to such a study.

Oilmen have charged such a study would prevent consumers from selecting the energy of their choice.

"Make no mistake about the nature of the threat," said Rathbone, who also is president of Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey).

"The aim of the coal conference is not to present a rational case," he said. "It is to scare their audience."

Rathbone spoke at the concluding session of API's 40th annual meeting. Nearly 7,000 oil and gas operators, large and small, participated in the three-day meeting.

Coal spokesmen have said a national fuels policy would strengthen national security, in that foreign oil now being brought into the United States might not be available should an international emergency develop.

"They are using the serious issues of peace and war for their own interest, playing upon the concerns of the American people about the state of our international relations," Rathbone said.

Rathbone said the oil industry has no objections to an objective study by Congress but said the coal conference has played "a most astute political game."

A Texas independent oil operator told reporters the industry also should give ground on another problem that is expected to receive attention from Congress next year.

W. J. Goldston of Houston, president of the Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, said the industry should fight to protect the full 27 1/2 per cent oil depletion tax allowance on foreign as well as domestic operations.

"Elimination of foreign depletion would open wide the door to further attacks on depletion for domestic oil," he said.

Goldston's remarks were made after Sen. Mike Monroney, D-Okl., said in a Tulsa speech it might be necessary to give up depletion on overseas production in order to save it for domestic production.

He described Monroney as a true and able friend of the oil industry.

"But in our global competition with Russia we can ill afford to handicap our American oil companies, wherever they may be operating, in the race to develop our worldwide energy resources," Goldston said.

Cold Front Creates Winds

By The Associated Press

Skies cleared Wednesday in the wake of a cold front which surged southward across Texas, kicking up gusty winds and at least one damaging storm during the night.

The storm, likened to a tornado by some witnesses, battered the Grandview area near Cleburne in North Central Texas. It caused damage to the hangar and a plane at the Grandview airport.

Winds tugged and tore at a broad area of northern Texas most of Tuesday.

Before dawn Wednesday the cold front had thrust within 100 miles of the Texas coast. Skies were generally clear to only partly cloudy in the cooler air behind the front. Considerable cloudiness lingered along the state's upper coast but there was no report of rainfall by morning.

Thundershowers which formed along a line from Sherman to southwest of Fort Worth marched eastward across North Texas early Tuesday evening.

Temperatures before dawn Wednesday ranged from a sub-freezing 24 degrees at Dalhart in the upper Texas Panhandle to 73 at Corpus Christi on the coast.

Cooler weather was in prospect across the state, and scattered frost was promised early Thursday in parts of Southwest Texas.

Actress' Illness Finally Diagnosed

LONDON (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor's multimillion-dollar illness finally has been diagnosed by doctors as a comparatively minor irritation of the membranes covering the brain. It is called meningitis and usually is found only in children.
Fears were expressed Sunday when the actress, weeping and clutching her head, was rushed to the London Clinic that she might be suffering from meningitis. Tuesday night, after 48 hours of suspense, the diagnosis ruling out meningitis was announced.
A spokesman for Dr. Carl Goldman, physician for Miss Taylor, explained that "meningitis" is caused by a bacteria which is inside the brain. Meningitis is caused by an infection outside the brain and its effects are ephemeral.
He was unable to say what the treatment for meningitis would be or how long Miss Taylor would have to stay in the clinic. He said it was possible she would return to the United States for further treatment to complete her recovery.
Miss Taylor awoke "considerably refreshed" today after a peaceful night's sleep, the clinic reported.
Dr. Goldman said the meningitis may have been caused by an abscessed tooth or teeth and it would be up to a dentist to decide if extractions were necessary.

If she is well enough, Miss Taylor will have her teeth X-rayed sometime today. Her husband, singer Eddie Fisher, was upset by talk of pulling the teeth of the beautiful Liz.
"This teeth thing was blown all out of proportion," he said in a telephone conversation with a Hollywood reporter. "Nobody ever said anything to her about removing teeth. At most, she might have to have a cavity filled."
Fisher was backed up by Dr. Rex Kennamer, his wife's personal physician who rushed to London from New York Monday. "Liz's tooth problem is all solved," he said.
"Liz is showing tremendous improvement," Dr. Kennamer continued. He explained that she is suffering from a prolonged virus complicated by meningitis, which means literally symptoms like meningitis. A spinal tap was necessary.
During the two months the 28-year-old beauty has been sick, causing costly delay in the movie "Cleopatra," doctors have been baffled more often than not. Finally they discovered she had an abscessed tooth, whose removal seemed to restore her to health.

Robert Morley Thinks TV In America Is A Shame

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP-TV Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—"American television," said actor Robert Morley, "is far worse than it was a year ago. It is a shame, too, because today it is your most significant export, a barometer of your prestige abroad."
Morley, a British theatrical star and playwright, is in New York for the first time in 12 months to play a lead in tonight's CBS Show of the Month, an adaptation of the venerable play, "Heaven Can Wait," a comedy.
The performer, a witty man who obviously enjoys making outrageous remarks (perhaps one rub-off from playing Oscar Wilde so often on the stage and in motion pictures) suggests that it would be "impossible to make a film under the conditions imposed on American television producers."
"It is like an author trying to write a book with four sponsors breathing over his shoulders," he said, "and that is ludicrous. Television programs should be created like any other art forms. It can't be run by a committee—nothing really can be created by a committee. The way it works out is that one man is writing a show while 17 people around him are busy keeping their jobs. Sponsors really shouldn't be allowed any hand in it. And in England they are not."
Morley — who among other things finds it "ridiculous" that American television producers go to all the expense of importing one actor from Europe to play a role — cannot understand why there is such a shortage of good writers for television in this country.
"In England there is a school of new writers concentrating on television," he said. "There are plenty of original dramas—about two a week. And we don't give them enormous sums for their work—and that's another trouble spot in American television: You give too much money to a few and not enough to the majority, and nothing ruins a writer quicker than too much money."

In spite of his grumbling, Morley really enjoys his visits to this country, although he complains that he spends most of his time in New York shopping for his family and friends.
"Just today I bought a gold dress," he said. "I rather like gold dresses on pretty women, and I hope it fits someone."

Demo Candidate In Close Win

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Rep. Morgan Moulder, a Democrat, apparently has been elected to a seventh term in Congress from Missouri's 11th District.
The complete, unofficial tally in the 17-county district gave Moulder 74,836 votes to 74,455 for the Rev. Robert A. Bartel, of Columbia, Republican candidate.
Moulder got his winning margin in absentee ballots cast in heavily Democratic Randolph County, which finished the official canvass Tuesday.
The four Republican judges refused to sign the canvass report on the grounds that "there are challenged votes and illegal votes counted over our objections."

Ex-Actor, Drama Coach Dies Of Heart Attack

VICTORIA, Tex. (AP)—Bernard Szold, former actor and drama coach of better known Hollywood stars, died of a heart attack after a minor auto accident Tuesday night. He was 66.
He was director of the Victoria Civic Theater and the accident happened as Szold was en route home from a rehearsal of his latest play—"Outward Bound," a fantasy dealing with death.
Although Szold suffered a heart attack seven months ago, he was believed to have recovered. After the traffic mishap he stepped from his car and collapsed.
Szold had coached such stars as Gregory Peck, Rita Hayworth, Glenn Ford, Henry Fonda, Ann Miller, Dorothy Maguire, Forrest Tucker, Judith Anderson and Jeff Chandler.

Films in which he played included "The Lemon Drop Kid," "The Tanks are Coming," "Black Tower" and "Union Station." On television he appeared in the Death Valley series.
His "Sons of Yesteryear" had won the Maxwell Anderson play contest.
He leaves his widow and a daughter, Stephanie, of Carmel, Calif.

Anti-Pornography Drive Results In Three Indictments

DALLAS (AP)—A federal grand jury, seeking to keep pornography out of North Texas, indicted two out-of-state paperback book distributors and a photographer record supplier Tuesday.
It charged Newport News, Va., and Chicago, Ill., concerns with transporting obscene paperback books to newsstands in Fort Worth.
The photographer man Irving Kregel of Hollywood, Calif., who does business as "Hollywood Jokers," was charged with mailing advertisements for his goods to Dallas last May.
