Holiday In Bed

Gale Yvonne, 16-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Johnson of Ringsted, Ia., spent her Thanksgiving in bed at Fairmont, Minn., the result of a broken leg. The girl was blown out of her mother's arms by a gust of wind which struck as Mrs. Johnson went out the front door of their home.

Traffic Fatalities Mar The Holiday

Traffic fatalities made the Thanksgiving holiday a tragic time in many American homes. The traffic toll reached 137 as the extended weekend's second day wore on. Fires took 22 lives since Thanksgiving eve. Other types of accidents left 34 dead. The total reached 193.

The latest deaths reported to The Associated Press include: Mrs. W. E. Holley, 72, of near Denton, Tex., burned to death; her husband, 74, was critically burned, and Earl Otis King, 18, of Colorado City, Tex., was seriously injured in a 2-car collision on State 24 on the eastern edge of Denton Thursday night. Mrs. Holley was pinned inside the car and burned to death in a fire that broke out after the accident. Her husband, his clothes afire, got out of the wreckage and ran to a nearby house where a man wrapped a blanket around him to put out the flames. Both Mr. Holley and King were taken to Flo Memorial Hospital in Denton.

Lyndon Finds Policy Concern

PARIS (AP) — Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson said today he has found concern about future U.S. intentions in conversations this week with European leaders.

Asked by newsmen whether he found a loss of U.S. prestige here, Johnson replied: "I am proud to find among our allies the traditional warmth and friendship between us. But I found here a concern for the future—questions about our intentions and purposes."

"It is my hope—and I speak for myself—that the course of American leadership in the 1960s will ally this feeling by new vigor, new vitality and new confidence," he said.

Before leaving for London for talks with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, Johnson called on Paul-Henri Spaak, secretary-general of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. He said he had a "very useful and constructive" visit with Spaak.

Johnson said he had just learned of the birth of a boy to President-elect and Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

He said that he hoped the future would develop in such a way "so that this youngster won't be called on to give his life to preserve freedom."

Aides said Johnson will fly back to Washington Saturday.

President-Elect Is Father Of Black-Haired Baby Son

Kennedy Heir Surprises Medics

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 6-pound, 3-ounce son with a shock of black hair was born today to President-elect and Mrs. John F. Kennedy. Radio flashed the news dramatically to the father as he was speeding from Florida to his wife's bedside.

The word changed the grim look on the president-elect's face to a happy smile. All he knew earlier was that his wife, Jacqueline, 31, had been rushed by ambulance to a Washington hospital and was undergoing a caesarean section.

Dr. John A. Walsh, the attending physician, said "both mother and son are doing beautifully." The baby was delivered at 12:23 a. m. Eastern Standard Time.

IN INCUBATOR Dr. Walsh, back at the hospital shortly after 9 a. m., reported the new mother resting very comfortably and said the baby is fine. The physician said Mrs. Kennedy had not yet seen her son, occupying an incubator in a nursery about 25 feet down the hall from her room. He said she might see him Saturday, depending on when she can make the wheelchair trip to the nursery or the pediatrician will permit the baby to be brought to her.

Hospital authorities said incubator care for a time is routine in such cases. Dr. Walsh described Mrs. Kennedy as being delighted that the baby is a boy.

"He's a very good-looking youngster," the physician said. "He's a healthy youngster."

In some disagreements with other descriptions of a shock of black hair, Dr. Walsh said John Fitzgerald Jr. has a fair or moderate amount of brown hair. He said the baby's cry is good.

Asked if anything risky was involved, Dr. Walsh said there is "always some attendant risk in the circumstances we had."

DUE DEC. 27 The baby was not normally due until about Dec. 27 and doctors had planned for delivery Dec. 12, a procedure described as routine in caesarean cases.

But the doctor said it started to happen "a little sooner than we had expected so we went ahead as planned."

The baby is expected to remain in the incubator another day or day and a half, and Mrs. Kennedy may be in the hospital 10 to 14 days.

Dr. Walsh said Mrs. Kennedy was given an inhalation anesthetic, Cyclopropane, for the surgery. He said she had been given intravenous nourishment but at the time he spoke she probably was on her last such feeding.

Gladys Uhl, who has served as secretary for Mrs. Kennedy, described the Kennedy boy: "He's adorable. He's giggling. He has a shock of black hair."

TO HOSPITAL Kennedy, soon after returning to Washington, was driven to the Georgetown Medical Center.

He beamed happily as he looked at his son through a heavy glass window. The baby lay in an incubator in the premature baby room. He'll be there a day or two normal procedure for caesarean cases.

After watching his son, Kennedy spent eight or nine minutes with his wife and then left the hospital. He planned to get some sleep at his Georgetown home and return to the hospital by noon.

As he left, he told newsmen the boy would be named John Fitzgerald Kennedy Jr.

The baby is the first son for the president-elect and his wife. Their daughter, Caroline, will be 3 on Sunday.

When Kennedy arrived at his home, he told newsmen he had found his wife awake, and had talked with her. "She is fine," he said. Asked about his son, Kennedy said, "He is fine, too."

WITH FAMILY The president-elect had spent Thanksgiving Day with his family in their home in the Georgetown section of Washington. The baby had not been expected until mid-December, and Kennedy left Washington Thursday night for Palm Beach, Fla., to continue his post-election vacation.

But, just a few hours after Kennedy left, Dr. Walsh called an ambulance to rush Mrs. Kennedy to the Georgetown University Medical Center, a Roman Catholic hospital. The Kennedys are Catholics.

Mrs. Kennedy was carried down the steps of her home on a stretcher. She wore a wide red coat and a white bulky knit sweater over her nightgown. She had heavy white socks but no shoes.

The ambulance driver, Willard Baucon, said he overheard Mrs. Kennedy, who has a history of miscarriages, ask her doctor if she was going to lose the baby.

LIKE BABY DOLL The driver said Dr. Walsh replied, "No, don't worry." Baucon

Highway Death Toll For Texas Stands At 8

By The Associated Press The traffic death toll for the Thanksgiving holiday in Texas stood at eight Friday.

Four persons died in hunting accidents, two in fires and four were killed in shootings to boost the total death count to 18.

The Associated Press count began at 6 p. m. Wednesday and ends at midnight Sunday.

The latest deaths reported to The Associated Press include: Mrs. W. E. Holley, 72, of near Denton, Tex., burned to death; her husband, 74, was critically burned, and Earl Otis King, 18, of Colorado City, Tex., was seriously injured in a 2-car collision on State 24 on the eastern edge of Denton Thursday night. Mrs. Holley was pinned inside the car and burned to death in a fire that broke out after the accident. Her husband, his clothes afire, got out of the wreckage and ran to a nearby house where a man wrapped a blanket around him to put out the flames. Both Mr. Holley and King were taken to Flo Memorial Hospital in Denton.

Mrs. Irma Louise Burleson, 37, a Sweetwater resident, died of an accidental gunshot wound while deer hunting near Breckenridge Thursday.

Arthur W. Clay, 40, of Alpine, died of a bullet wound at Alpine Thursday. Police said no charges had been filed.

Robert James Neel, 40, Abilene, was found shot to death Thursday in Abilene. His death was ruled a suicide.

Generally fair weather in most of the country Thursday lured millions to the highways. But the National Safety Council said traffic on Thanksgiving Day normally is not as heavy as on other major holidays.

The council did not make an estimate of traffic deaths for the holiday or for the 104-hour period which started at 6 p. m. (local time) Wednesday and ends at midnight Sunday.

But the toll appeared running close to the figure taken by The Associated Press in a survey for a non-holiday period, extending over 102 hours from 6 p. m. Wednesday Nov. 9 until midnight Sunday Nov. 13. The count was 433 traffic deaths, 69 deaths in fires and 144 killed in miscellaneous accidents, for total of 646.

In last year's four-day Thanksgiving holiday weekend, the AP count was 445 traffic fatalities, 70 dead in fires and 135 killed in miscellaneous accidents, a total of 650. The 1958 holiday traffic toll was 454, fires claimed 54 lives and 118 died in miscellaneous mishaps. The over-all total was 626.

Another fire this morning occurred at the residence of Grace Russell, 205 Greag. One room, which was filled with clothes, was a total loss. Flames burned through the roof. Firemen were in time to save the rest of the house.

A car belong to R. F. Craddock, Midland, was a total loss Wednesday after flames destroyed it about three miles out on the Lamesa highway.

Smoke damage was reported at the Daryle Hohertz residence, 614 Linda Lane, this morning when a pan of grease flamed on the cook stove.

GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP) — Dr. Bob Jones Sr., founder of Bob Jones University here, says evangelist Billy Graham could have swung the presidential election to Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

"A straightforward statement by Billy would have influenced enough votes to have made the difference," Dr. Jones told a faculty and staff meeting.

"Instead, Billy chose to straddle the fence in politics just as he does in evangelism."

At one point in the campaign, Graham, a friend of Nixon's, indicated that he might endorse one of the presidential candidates. He said later he decided against it.

Thugs Hold Up Taxi Operator

PITTSBURG, Tex. (AP) — Two armed thugs held up Pat Leak, taxi operator in this Northeast Texas town, and escaped Thursday night with about $8,000 in cash.

The robbery occurred at Leak's home, where he lived alone. The holdup was under way when a young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fife, both 22, dropped by for a visit.

They were admitted by the robbers, who tied them up along with Leak before fleeing with their loot.

Sheriff H. H. Loveless of Camp County said Leak had the money on his person. The officer suspected a third person was involved in the holdup.

Identifies Gun

Albert Hall Sr., second from left, identifies the gun at Purvis, Miss., he says he used to kill his 12-year-old mentally retarded son, Albert Jr. Holding a rifle is Lamar County Sheriff James Patterson. Others are city patrolman A. B. Wall and Police Chief W. M. Sustaite, both of Euleus, Tex., where Hall was arrested. (See story, picture on page 5-B).

Texas Election Board Begins Tedious Task Of Tabulating

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Election Board began today the tedious task of tabulating stacks of election returns while last ditch protests to election procedures were filed by Republican leaders.

Secretary of State Zollie Steakley opened a telegram from Republican officials demanding a "fair and legal recount" in counties using paper ballots.

Gail Reeves, former Houston mayor pro tempore, appeared as a "private citizen" to protest that county election officials had not followed the law in preserving ballots mutilated or discarded.

Reeves said the Houston Chronicle reported a check of 12 counties showed that none had complied with this provision.

"There are some dishonest election officials although the majority are honest. As a poll tax holder, I obtain certain rights and the state assumes certain obligations when they sell me my poll tax. Where are the people to look for protection under the code?" he said.

Under questioning by Atty. Gen. Will Wilson and Steakley, Reeves said he had no personal knowledge of any wrongdoing.

He called on the election board not to certify the returns from the counties unless they are convinced all provisions of the code had been carefully followed. The board took the matter under advisement but Steakley said it had no authority to go behind the returns submitted by the counties.

"That's a matter for the counties to handle, not for us. There are things we might want to do but can't do."

Steakley, Wilson and John Goldsum, representing Gov. Price Daniel, opened the sealed envelopes on the various national, state and district contests. The returns were turned over to State Auditor C. H. Cavness' staff for compilation.

Thad Hutcheson, the Republican state chairman, said Thursday a recount conceivably could result in Vice President Richard Nixon carrying Texas.

And the Houston Chronicle said a spot check it made showed that thousands of ballots in the presidential election that were thrown out by election judges have not been rechecked as required by Texas law.

An unofficial count showed John F. Kennedy carried Texas by 45,264 votes out of 2,288,940 cast. Kennedy received 1,167,192 and Nixon 1,121,638.

The Republican demand for a recount was made Thursday in a message sent to the Election Board by Hutcheson, state Republican national committeeman Albert Fey and Paul Leadrick, who received from the local organization. Names of the selected boy and girl, who are to be honored by the Gold Star designation, is a closely guarded secret and not announced until presentation is made.

Ralph White, county commissioner, will make the presentations. Approximately 40 awards will be made in addition to the Gold Star announcement.

A free barbecue dinner is to be served at noon to the 4-H club members and their families. The entire proceedings will be at the Howard County fair grounds, west of town. (See VOTES, Pg. 6-A, Col. 5)

Fire Trucks Kept On Move

City fire trucks were kept on the road during the Thanksgiving holiday and this morning.

One of the most serious blazes occurred at the Woodrow Robertson place, seven miles southeast of Big Spring this morning. Electrical wiring was blamed for the blaze that destroyed the barn and killed two goats, six hogs, a sow and her litter.

Another fire this morning occurred at the residence of Grace Russell, 205 Greag. One room, which was filled with clothes, was a total loss. Flames burned through the roof. Firemen were in time to save the rest of the house.

A car belong to R. F. Craddock, Midland, was a total loss Wednesday after flames destroyed it about three miles out on the Lamesa highway.

Annual 4-H Achievement Day Scheduled Saturday

Annual Achievement Day for the Howard County 4-H clubs will be observed Saturday at the Howard County fair grounds. The public is invited to attend and watch the proceedings.

In addition to demonstrations and training sessions in judging, showmanship and the preparation of show animals, the presentation of awards to the boys and girls of the county who have made outstanding records as club members will be featured.

Highlight of the day will be the selection of the 1960 Gold Star boy and girl. This is the highest award that a 4-H club member can receive from the local organization.

Names of the selected boy and girl, who are to be honored by the Gold Star designation, is a closely guarded secret and not announced until presentation is made.

Ralph White, county commissioner, will make the presentations. Approximately 40 awards will be made in addition to the Gold Star announcement.

U. S. Living Costs Rise .4 Of 1 Per Cent In October

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose four-tenths of one per cent in October to hit another peak.

Nearly half the increase was attributed to higher food prices but practically every element of consumer expenditures advanced.

The government index rose to 127.3 per cent of the 1947-49 average. This is 1.4 per cent higher than a year ago.

The October increase was the largest since last April. The index increased in eight of the first 10 months of 1960.

The new cost increase will bring a pay boost of two cents an hour to approximately a million workers in auto and farm equipment manufacturing.

About 80,000 other workers in the farm equipment industry and in several small aircraft firms are due a one-cent hourly increase.

U.S. Gains In Oil Exchange Visits

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States gained in exchange visits this year of Russian and U.S. oil men, says Frank Dennis of the American Petroleum Institute.

"The Americans learned something about the Russian oil picture they didn't know—as to how far along the Russians were," Dennis said.

"The Americans got a whole new vista of the economic competition of which the Russians are capable."

The Russians seemed to have a great deal of advance information about U.S. oil operations. Their tour, he said, didn't do much more than enable them to confirm, at first hand, what they already had read about producing and refining operations in this country.

Dennis, special assistant to the president of the API, accompanied the Russian group on its tour of U.S. oil fields and refineries, Oct. 12-Nov. 10. Nine Russians made the trip, which followed a visit of 10 representatives of the U.S. industry to Russia in August.

"I was impressed," Dennis said, "by the Russians' knowledge of American technology and of our oil fields specifically."

Some Russians even knew about water flooding projects, he said. Dennis related these further impressions:

In Texas, the Russians showed great interest in the East Texas fields and processes employed there.

In Oklahoma they were interested in water flooding techniques being tried in fields near Bartlesville to recover more oil from underground sands.

In talking with Americans about advances or techniques in geology and methods of fuller recovery of underground oil, the Russians appeared to be just another group of oil men.

But the exchange of ideas became more guarded as the refining industry was reached. The Russians professed not to understand how refining ideas worked out by private companies could remain trade secrets.

White House Aide To Help Artistic Life

By MARTHA COLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The social secretary-in-charge of the White House is a successful young career woman who fits right into the scheme of new things to come.

She is Letitia K. Baldrige, already an enthusiastic harbinger of plans by the next first lady, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, to make the White House a showcase for great American art and artists.

Miss Baldrige is an expert on art. She's the author of one book and working on another. She can type, use a transcript machine, play a fast game of tennis and strum a melodious guitar.

She speaks French and Italian fluently, and she cooks the dishes of both lands. "A marvelous cook," a friend said of her.

Miss Baldrige is a tall blonde known to all her friends as "Tish." She's an old school friend of the young mother who will become first lady Jan. 20.

Through some 20 years the two have continued their friendship. Miss Baldrige once told a reporter she had watched Mrs. Kennedy "grow through the years with grace and serenity" and added "she's going to bring a great deal of distinction to the White House."

Miss Baldrige says she was formerly a Republican, but voted for Kennedy. And so, she said, did her father, attorney Malcolm Baldrige, a Republican representative from Omaha in 1931-33.

Her story is one of the girl from Omaha who went East to school, worked as a government girl, went to Europe, became an embassy social secretary and came back to New York in a public relations job.

She and Mrs. Kennedy, the former Jacqueline Bouvier, went to the fashionable Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Conn. Miss Baldrige was two classes ahead. Both went on to Vassar College in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Mrs. Kennedy was studying in Paris the year Miss Baldrige was social secretary to the wife of Ambassador David Y. B. Bruce.

IN ROME

Miss Baldrige was social secretary to Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce in Rome, from 1953 to 1956. This was the job about which she wrote her book, "Roman Candle."

Prior to her new appointment, she was director of public relations for a New York jeweler.

She comes to her new job, she says, "very happy, very excited and very scared."

She told a press conference last week that she was asked by Mrs. Kennedy several weeks before the election to take the job "if my husband should win." Miss Baldrige said she replied, "You bet I will."

As social secretary she will handle everything from formal state dinners to answering mail for the first lady.

Her parents live here. Miss Baldrige said she plans to take a small apartment of her own.

DEAR ABBY

IT'S FOREIGN

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I hid my paper very quickly after reading the many letters from readers who gave various reasons why French poodles made poor pets. You see I have a French poodle, and he doesn't know he's supposed to be high-strung, temperamental and noisy. If he had seen those letters, it might have been disastrous.

MARTHA

DEAR MARTHA: You didn't have to hide the paper. French poodles can't read English.

DEAR ABBY: I've seen many opinions expressed in your column about what to call one's in-laws. Here is how I feel about it: I raised three sons and two daughters. As each was about to be married I let it be known that I was "MRS. BROWN" to the wives and husbands of my children.

The first time I heard my own son call HIS mother-in-law "Mother" it almost broke my heart to think he could call another woman "Mother" while his own mother was still living.

I don't think it's possible to call anyone except one's own parents "Mother and Dad" and be sincere.

MRS. BROWN

DEAR "MRS. BROWN": You have a right to your own opinion, but thank heaven you are in the minority.

DEAR ABBY: Last year when it came time to mail out our Christmas cards, my husband and I had an argument. I put our name and return address on the back of every envelope. My husband said that it looked like we were hinting for them to send US a card. The reason I did it was in case the front of the envelope got smeared and the postman couldn't read the address, the card would be returned to us. I would appreciate it if you would tell me who was right and who was wrong.

PEEVED

DEAR PEEVED: At last I have an opportunity to do something for the Post Office Department; it has done so much for me! You were right. All cards and letters should bear the name and address of the sender so that if the address is illegible, incomplete or incorrect, the letter can be returned to the sender.

Paroled Lifer Weds Girl He Had Dated As Youth

NORWAY, Maine (AP)—Paul N. Dwyer, 41, a paroled lifer who spent 22 years in prison for murder, Thursday night married Caroline Pinkos, 40, who had dated him as a teen-ager.

Dwyer and his bride left for an abbreviated wedding trip after the ceremony at her home. Dwyer said he expects to be back at his job in a local shoe factory Monday.

Dwyer, convicted of the 1937 bludgeon murder of Dr. James G. Littlefield of South Paris, won commutation of his sentence about a year ago.

Mrs. Pinkos, who is divorced, began corresponding with Dwyer while he was in prison and interceded for him during the latter part of his long battle for release. The couple had to wait to marry until Dwyer received permission from the state parole board early this month.

The marriage was performed by the Rev. James H. Burns of Boston, who was a Baptist pastor —and Dwyer's Sunday school teacher—at Nebron in 1927. The Rev. Mr. Burns, currently a director of social services and pastoral relations for the Massachusetts Council of Churches, worked for Dwyer's release for nearly 20 years.

Among the 30 guests at the quiet ceremony were Dwyer's mother, Mrs. Jessie Mann of Worcester, Mass., and Mrs. Pinkos' three daughters by her previous marriage, Lorraine Conley, 20, of Portland; Pamela, 16, and Cheryl, 10.

The crime of which Dwyer and another defendant—the late Francis M. Carroll—were convicted had Maine aghast for many months. Each blamed the other, with Dwyer contending that Carroll killed Littlefield because the doctor knew of incestuous relations Carroll had with his daughter. Carroll won freedom in 1950, but died six years later.

Most Of Texas Is Fair And Mild

By The Associated Press

Fair and mild temperatures ruled most of Texas Friday.

The exception was in the southern part of the state and some parts of East Texas which had early morning fog.

However, a warm sun cleared away the fog by midmorning and gave the state another almost ideal fall day.

Beaumont, Lufkin, Houston, Junction, San Antonio, Austin, College Station and Tyler reported fog at dawn. Skies were cloudy at Corpus Christi, Alice and Brownsville.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 67 at Brownsville to 32 at El Paso. Dalhart had 36.

The only rain in the state Thanksgiving Day was a trace at Lufkin. Thursday's lowest temperature was 21 at Dalhart and the highest 79 at Lubbock.

A Devotional For Today

Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice. (Philippians 4:4.)
PRAYER: Our Father, grant us the joy of which Thy Son Jesus Christ spoke that, according to His promise, our joy may be full. May we continually remember Thy mercies to us, who merit them not. Bless us with the greatest of them all — the gift of Thy presence with us. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Looking Ahead While There Is Time

The heavy margin by which 11 West Texas cities voted approval of contracts between the Canadian River Municipal Authority and the federal government, and nine of them (two others won't ballot on this issue until later) to approve contracts between their cities and the CRMWA is convincing and encouraging.

If there was ever a feeling on the part of cities on the high plains that their ground water supplies were inexhaustible, the results of Tuesday's election serves notice that this idea has been abandoned.

For small towns advantageously located, there may remain an adequate supply for the foreseeable future, but for municipalities which require any sizeable volume of water, the limitations of a ground water source are plainly apparent.

This is not to say that the danger of exhaustion or stringent reduction is imminent; on the contrary for most of the cities it is many years removed. To take positive action now while there is still ample time is a mark of prudence. To lay hold of a generous source of surface supply now while it may be had is a mark of wisdom. This step may well prove a resource which in the not-too-distant future can spell the difference between progress and economic strangulation.

Unpolished Mental Resource

In a recent issue, Time magazine expressed alarm that the U.S. was permitting a vast pool of bright young talent, which with training and opportunity would blossom into a national resource, to go down the educational drain.

Hundreds of thousands of talented and sometimes brilliant youngsters not only lack the means to go to college but do not even aspire to go, Time contended. Many in the low economic brackets do not know that they are bright, and some others never go to college because they go to the 21,500 high schools which produce only 18 per cent of the college students. Even in a rich and fat country we cannot afford such a waste of young minds, said Time.

Citing some of the waste of talent, the magazine reported that 20 per cent of those in the upper quarter of their class do not stay through high school; about half of the top 10 per cent of high school seniors do not go to college; 40 per cent of all college students fail to graduate.

The key to the waste was held to be environment. "Culturally disadvantaged" families produced only one talented child for every 235 of those who had the higher advantages. Rarely do the bright minds break through the tough crust, rather the bright slum kid seems to get dumber as he grows older. If schools accept this verdict, he quits school.

To get at the problem, it is suggested that better testing and guidance discover children with rich minds as early as the third grade; that parents be persuaded that college is possible and desirable; that scholarship aid be provided. Easier should than done, but that doesn't mean it shouldn't be attempted.

David Lawrence Big Cities Decided The Election

WASHINGTON — America's "prestige" as the champion of "fair and free elections" may have gotten a black eye as a result of the charges and countercharges being made about how the recent presidential election was conducted.

Three states—Illinois, New Jersey and Texas—with a total of 67 electoral votes now credited to Kennedy would, if switched to Nixon, give the latter 290 electoral votes, which is more than enough to win.

IN ALL THREE states the Republican state chairmen have asked for an investigation and a recount. The charge is that illegal ballots were counted or that some ballots weren't counted at all. The Department of Justice has received many complaints of alleged voting fraud and has ordered the FBI to make investigations. Indeed, it may even be impossible to get a complete recount before the electoral votes are cast on December 19.

But there is something else in the election worth studying entirely apart from the counting of the ballots themselves. It is the concentration of power in the cities and metropolitan areas where the machines and the bosses hold sway—almost all of them in the Democratic party.

IT SO HAPPENS that the margin of victory in electoral votes for Kennedy was provided by less than a dozen big cities in America. Here the political machines are effective, and the popular vote in those metropolitan areas wasn't close at all. The nation as a whole, for instance, gave Kennedy slightly more than 50 per cent of the two-party vote and Nixon slightly less. The percentage difference is about three-tenths of one point.

But when the big-city vote is considered—where 32 major big-city areas cast about 42 per cent of the nation's total—the story is decidedly different. Ranging from 37 per cent down to 27 per cent, the Nixon vote is comparatively low in Baltimore, Chicago, Boston, Detroit, New York, Newark, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Philadelphia. In fact, in those same 10 cities the average percentage for Kennedy is 63.4, and the actual majority in them for the Democratic presidential nominee totals around 2,999,000. The Kennedy margin for the country as a whole was about 250,000.

GEORGE BLOOM, Republican state chairman of Pennsylvania, made a speech the other day citing the way the big cities swung the election this year, in which he said:

"If Republicans are to elect a President, and send majorities to Congress—if we are to elect governors and control state legislatures—we must head for the big city wards with the same zeal and dedication we display in fighting to control a county courthouse which represents a few thousand votes.

THE SITUATION calls for us to strike at the heart of our problem in every major city in America.

Perhaps it isn't generally realized how the big cities can win presidential elections by reason of their predominant voting numbers. This year only nine states, with a total of 189 electoral votes, were needed to win the Kennedy victory when added to the 81 electoral votes he received in the South, for a total of 270.

Those nine states are dominated by less than a dozen big-city areas. The political machines have ready access to the voters through precinct captains and other workers, many of whom are paid to do the job. This in itself is considered lawful, but it isn't always clear whether some forms of economic coercion aren't being used, too, along with the promise or distribution of political favors. The rural districts, on the other hand, are widely scattered and not so accessible, and similar organization work is expensive and difficult to undertake.

BACK IN 1937, this writer wrote a little book about the 1936 election entitled "Who Were the Eleven Million?" and presented therein an analysis of President Franklin Roosevelt's re-election majority over Alf Landon. The point was made that nine cities alone—New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis, Los Angeles, Detroit, Milwaukee and Cleveland—gave the Democratic nominee a margin big enough to win the electoral vote in each of those states for a total of 223. These, together with the solid South, provided 336 in all. The writer's comment then was as follows:

"HERE, THEREFORE, the political strategist can see the value of concentration, and whether or not one likes the idea of abolishing by constitutional amendment the electoral-college system in favor of a straight popular vote, as Sen. Norris of Nebraska has urged, it must be conceded that these figures furnish some interesting food for thought to the farmers. Residents of our rural areas who want the prices kept down on manufactured articles they buy or the prices of food grown on the farm raised to a parity with the prices of city goods may look askance at the idea that future Presidents could with political justification take their cue in national policies from a few big cities where labor is the heaviest voting group. This becomes especially important if we are to enter an era of price-fixing of commodities by the federal government at Washington."

Do times really change very much, and do election statistics vary so much after all as pressure groups and political machines today influence our supposedly "free and fair elections"?

Election Speedup

NEW DELHI (AP)—India's third general election, in February, 1962, will be completed in one-fourth the time required for the second election in 1957.

Under new procedures laid down by the chief election commissioner, voting in 1962 will be on three days, each balloting day to be separated by 48 hours. Counting will begin only after the last ballot is cast, but should be completed within eight days of the beginning of the poll.

In 1957 voting was staggered over 16 days, and another 16 days was needed to count the votes.

Election officials say the speed-up has been made possible by experience gained in previous elections.

William L. Ryan Could Sino-Russian Struggle Bring War?

Here is an ominous aspect of the Soviet-Russia Chinese quarrel: It could result in World War III, and Moscow seems to be preparing for the possibility.

Soviet propaganda makes much of the term peace, but at the same time it seems to be actively conditioning the minds of people in Red ruled lands for the possibility of a preventive war against the United States.

The suspicion is reinforced by the statement of Premier Khrushchev Wednesday to Pravda on the subject of disarmament. Historically, Communist leaders have accused others of planning what, in fact, has been in their own minds.

KHRUSHCHEV ACCUSED the West of duplicity in disarmament talks, of steadily building up nuclear weapons stockpiles and of constant provocations and spying against the U.S.S.R. All this, said Khrushchev, could enable the United States to "choose the suitable moment for dealing their blow and starting an aggression."

Taken by itself, this might not appear too menacing. But this sort of thing has been publicized time and again by Soviet propaganda ever since last May, when Khrushchev, using the U2 plane incident as his excuse, was preparing to blow up the Paris summit conference.

Hal Boyle The Blindest Prejudice

NEW YORK (AP)—A sightless young educator here believes one of America's blindest prejudices is its prejudice against the blind.

"It is prejudice—there is no other word for it," said Dr. Herbert M. Greenberg, 31, assistant professor of sociology at Long Island University.

"The blind are the most discriminated against minority in the United States."

Dr. Greenberg, who lost his own sight at 10 after a mastoid operation, objects to the isolation of the blind in special schools and institutions and the reluctance of many employers to hire blind people for other than menial tasks.

"Three-quarters of all blind children are in segregated schools," he pointed out. "But they don't want to be isolated in this way. It gives them a psychology of defeat."

"You can't spend 18 years in a school for the blind and then come out and adjust to a world of the sighted."

"So many end up going from schools for the blind to workshops for the blind, where they tend to spend the rest of their lives weaving baskets or making mats."

"It is a tragic waste of human skills, a waste we can't afford. This prejudice hurts not only the blind—it hurts society by robbing it of talent which is available, and needed."

Dr. Greenberg, a rugged, athletic man of 31 with a boyish crew cut, is living proof of his contention that a blind student can compete on equal terms in classes with children who can see.

He was a Phi Beta Kappa college graduate at 20. He attended graduate school while working as a consultant on rehabilitation for the city department of welfare here—and took his doctorate degree with honors at 24.

Aided only by a slender aluminum cane, Dr. Greenberg daily travels alone by train and subway the 70-mile round trip between his home near New Brunswick, N. J., and the Brooklyn campus where he teaches. He sees nothing unusual about this.

"If you really need help, you can always ask for it and get it," he said crisply.

Popular with his students, Dr. Greenberg found carrying a full teaching load wasn't enough for a man with his energy and dreams.

So he pursues two other careers. He maintains a private practice in psychotherapy and acts as research director for a Manhattan marketing firm.

"This doesn't leave me much time with my wife and two sons," he said, smiling.

Nevertheless, he does find time to participate in local politics and pursue his hobbies — swimming, bowling, bridge and chess.

Dr. Greenberg is robustly critical of what he regards as false pity for the blind.

"Losing your sight is not as bad as the feeling you get later when people slam doors in your face when all you ask is—not a favor—but merely a chance to prove your ability. That really hurts."

The funny thing about prejudice is this: Once you get the job, the prejudice melts away. You are treated as an equal."

RED CHINA insists upon the letter of Leninist dogma: That war between the two world camps must come. The Chinese say it must not be feared, that Communists must not hesitate, regardless of risks, to expand at every opportunity.

Manifestly, this worries Khrushchev, who has contended that while communism would win, there would be little left after nuclear war on either side.

Khrushchev could lose the argument and be toppled in favor of a group more receptive to the Chinese idea. Desperation could lead to that, if an entrenched hierarchy should see in the developing argument a real threat to its continued sway over the Soviet Union and the world Communist movement.

However, the net important facts are these: Despite the above difficulty, we can identify the trouble; and after that, we can control it so the patient can live a normal life of full durations.

To Your Good Health Pernicious Anemia Curbed By Vitamin B12

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D.
"Dear Dr. Molner: Please give me some information on pernicious anemia. Is there a cure? And what is the cause? —Mrs. D. K."

This disease, a progressive (and hence pernicious) loss of red blood cells, was discovered only a little over a century ago, in 1849.

Until only 34 years ago, there was not any known treatment for it. However, in 1926 it was found that if the patient ate a half-pound of liver a day, not overly cooked, the meat supplied whatever was missing from the system, and the pernicious anemia was thus kept under control.

This discovery parallels, in some ways, that of insulin, which came at about the same time. Here was a disease which was hopelessly deadly, but with the discovery of a way to replace what the body was lacking, patients suddenly were provided with the means to live out their normal life span, in normal fashion. Already millions of people have benefited by these two discoveries.

The liver—and the medications developed since, so the patient doesn't have to eat 3½ pounds of liver a week—do not "cure" pernicious anemia, but they replace what is missing, and the disease thus disappears, as long as the treatment continues. And that's almost as good.

As to what causes the disease, I guess I can say we "know" what it is, but we don't know what "causes the cause."

That is, formation of red blood cells requires an "intrinsic" factor coming from within the body, and an "extrinsic" factor coming from outside.

Anyway, giving B12 by mouth is not wholly satisfactory because nerve complications can develop. Giving B12 by injection appears to avoid such complications.

Pernicious anemia, unless treated, causes three principle types of trouble: First, the blood deficiency itself, and the anemic conditions which result; second, intestinal tract disturbances, ranging from a smooth, too-red tongue to lack of hydrochloric acid in the stomach, and diarrhea; third, problems in the nervous system, such as numbness and weakness in the legs, lack of vibration sense, etc.

Because B12 controls this disease, what happens if people take vitamins which include a share of B12 or folic acid? Such vitamins can, as you might suspect, interfere with diagnosis. Some serious stomach disorders, and such things as sprue, give similar symptoms in some ways, and B12 in moderate quantities can "mask" a case of pernicious anemia for a time. This means that doctors have to be on their toes, and must ask some questions about what vitamin preparations a patient has been taking.

However, the net important facts are these: Despite the above difficulty, we can identify the trouble; and after that, we can control it so the patient can live a normal life of full durations.

"Dear Dr. Molner: I have tried a lot of creams and everything to get rid of freckles, but nothing works.—J. S."

Nothing will. Since you can't get rid of them, why not enjoy them?

Attention all women! For my pamphlet, "The Pre-Menstrual Blues," write to Dr. Molner in care of The Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 5 cents in coin to cover handling. This pamphlet may help you!

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous column received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim Chessman, Not His Case, Died

It seems that the Chessman case just won't die, after all.

There are those who feel it should; there are others who are not quite satisfied that Caryl Chessman was the right man to die in San Quentin's gas chamber. Two of the latter, writing in a leading men's magazine, have come up with some new evidence that could prove rather embarrassing to California police officials.

Chessman, in case you have forgotten already, met his executioner just a few months ago after having fought him off for nine years. He had been sentenced to death for kidnaping in connection with crimes by the "Red Light Bandit" in Los Angeles. Sex offenses also were involved in some of these crimes, although Chessman was not tried specifically on these charges.

THE NEW EVIDENCE indicates that there was more than one Red Light Bandit—similar crimes were committed while Chessman was still in prison serving an earlier sentence; and after his conviction and death sentence, there were still other red light crimes.

The writers further report that the police records listing these crimes were kept in secret during Chessman's trial and afterwards; and that some of them still are unavailable.

The writers also have discovered what they believe to be links between the Red Light Bandit (or bandits) and the big tycoons of organized crime. There was a deadly rivalry at the time between the two big criminal factions, and Chessman was believed to have been working for one of them. Evidence is reported that Chessman's relatives, including a daughter whose existence he had long kept secret, had been threatened while Chessman fought off his date with death. They and others had been warned to keep quiet (about what?), or else.

THESE TWO enterprising reporters simply may be digging for sensationalism, and again they may be of the old breed of newsmen whose integrity cannot be questioned. Given enough time, they will expose their own motives as well as, possibly, whatever the truth may be about Caryl Chessman.

In the meantime, there are going to be a lot of catcalls by people who think Chessman got what he deserved, even if he wasn't guilty of the red light crimes; and a lot of noise by those who never thought him guilty.

This may turn into an even more interesting case.

—BOB SMITH

The Germans Are Out-Wheeling Us

ROME—The United States has lost an other international championship, by default, to a more aggressive rival.

It was only yesterday that all the world regarded U. S. citizens as the most brash, loud, uncouth, ill-mannered, boastful and badly dressed tourists, bar none, under the shining canopy of heaven.

Yet today, no matter what this does to our national prestige, it must be admitted that the laurels in the Traveling Boor round-robin have been snatched from our brow.

IN THE UNANIMOUS opinion of other Europeans, the West Germans, as of now, are the new titleholders and undisputed champs. All the old complaints that used to be lodged against us—free-wheeling Americans are now hurled in spades at the Germans, the most sleek, prosperous and peripatetic people on this side of the Iron Curtain.

The extraordinary economic resurgence of West Germany has permitted her people in ever-increasing numbers to travel, high, wide and handsome, during the past 10 years.

NOWHERE is the visual evidence of the German tourist inundation of Europe more plain or surprising than on the French and Italian Riviera. My husband and I, who drove to Rome via these gorgeous resort sections of France and Italy, were amazed to find more hotel, restaurant and pension signs in German than in English—and, occasionally, more than in French or Italian.

That was particularly true of the breath-taking Italian littoral from San Remo to Rapallo. The Germans, on a still hunt for joy through strength and sunshine, have all but pre-empted this lovely coast in recent years.

ALL OVER ITALY, traffic signs and directions, and often roadside advertising, appear in German as well as Italian. Between wars, Germans have always been great travelers and their tourists hordes are by no means confined to Italy. England, France, Switzerland, the Scandinavian countries and Spain have their share.

As a result, Western Europe resounds with charges that German tourists are too rich, too arrogant, too rude and too demanding (and what a familiar ring those have to American ears!). They are accused of everything from insolent provincialism to endangering life and limb by a basic inability to handle motorcars!

THE 1960 TOURIST season presented a classic and fiery cause celebre when a German tourist in Sicily wrote in a half-dozen large Italian dailies complaining bitterly that he had been unable to find any room in Sicily the wonderbar sausage produced by his particular German district. Without this sausage he was inconsolable, but scarcely silent.

The Italian newspapers answered with varying degrees of bitterness and contempt. The Great Sausage War of '60 seemed imminent when the German government sent conciliatory notes to the Italian press. The note, in effect, told German tourists to pipe down, mind their manners and, in extremis, eat salami and like it.

THE OBVIOUS richness of the German tourists we have encountered (man, you should see the size of the rocks worn by the frauleins) encourages me to believe that Germany could shoulder a lot more foreign aid, as urged by Uncle Sam, if she really wanted to help.

In the meantime, at least the German tourist escapes one complaint lodged against the American tourist in the past. No one has yet accused a German of over-tipping.

However, I suppose the American tourist in the long run should be grateful to the German species for coping the traveling boor title. He has at least gotten us off the hook.

Holmes Alexander Agreeing With Congressman Mahon

WASHINGTON—Sen. Lyndon Johnson, a good listener, has a motto in his office which points out that you never learn anything while talking—and vice versa. The columnist's equivalent to listening is to read and heed his fan mail, like this:

From H.R.D., Louisiana: You say that my "Dear Jack" letter, written to congratulate Sen. Kennedy and to wish him well was "moving... forthright... this perfect gem of journalism." Well, thanks, and quite a few readers were equally kind, but a columnist who reads all his mail isn't likely to suffer from swollen vanity.

M.B. IN MASSACHUSETTS says of the same column that it was "unthinking and quite insulting" in its lack of respect for "that 50.2 per cent of this country's voters who supported Kennedy." An anonymous writer from Ohio says he's read my pieces "religiously and enjoyed most of them"—up till now. For congratulating the senator and analyzing his victory I am "as low as a rattlesnake and more vicious"—and never will this correspondent read anything I write again.

Then there's J.K.B. of Louisiana who finds it "despicable, sour grapes and un-American" of me—"What are you, one of those bigots who are tools of the Communists?"—to felicitate the new President in the way I did. Well, it's differences of opinions that make horse-racing and politics.

FROM ED SIMMONS of the New Bedford (Mass.) Standard-Times: You say that my column in support of the Electoral College doesn't make the "all-important distinction between the Electoral College and the electoral vote." Well, I guess you're right. In your opinion we should abolish the college but preserve the system. The electors who make up the college could be bribed or otherwise pressured to falsify the results of the state elections. You say, "Electoral votes should be inanimate credits, and not people."

YES, YOU'VE GOT something there. Since electors are no longer trusted to choose the best man for president, there seems little point in using them as a mere transmission line—subject to human frailty—to record the will of the people in the states. Another reader, J.H.W. of the District of Columbia, thinks I missed another point. He says that if we would change the electoral system to represent congressional districts instead of states, we would change — and improve — both candidates and campaigning. No party would nominate a man to carry Pennsylvania or California, but rather to carry the counties of Somerset and Franklin, El Dorado and Plumas; the cities of Lancaster, Santa Barbara, Pittsburgh and Sacramento. The emphasis being on localities, and giving weight to each locality, might bring us a better American product out of the conventions and into the White House.

MAYBE SO: anyhow, those are things I hadn't thought about before—but will from now on.

From Congressman George Mahon of Lubbock, Texas: You are "unhappy" because I give senators too much credit for "prodding the Secretary of Defense." Well, I should have said more about the House. You tell me—quite correctly—that "it was the House Committee on Appropriations which added $600 million to the defense budget and sparked the Polaris program."

A less modest man, and more of a glory hunter than you could ever be, Mr. Congressman, might have added that it was principally the subcommittee of which you are chairman that made both the Polaris and B-70 possible above the budget-conscious objections of the Eisenhower administration. But I'm glad to say that you and I are not far apart on general interpretations, as the following quotations show:

MAHON ON SEPT. 1, 1960: "... the Congress, not the executive branch, has carried the ball, provided the zeal and sense of urgency, provided the drive and determination, provided the initiative that have sparked our most spectacular gains in defense."

Alexander on Nov. 7th: "By handing the President more defense funds than he requested, and by bringing public pressure on him to spend these funds, the Democratic Legislative branch combined with the Republican Executive branch in a manner that would have made the Founding Fathers proud."

SEATTLE (AP)—If he knew what he was doing when he stole a fishing tackle box from Dr. Flory E. Wagenar, some thief is going to revolutionize fishing by using a hypodermic needle instead of a hook.

Dr. Wagenar said the tackle box contained a complete set of anesthesiologist's instruments valued at $400.

Lamesa Man Marries In Houston Ceremony

LAMESA — Wedding vows were exchanged at 11 a.m. Thanksgiving Day in the Chapel of River Oaks Baptist Church in Houston between Virginia Knauts of Houston and Winslow Joshua Beckham Jr., of Lamesa.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Knauts of Malvern, Ark., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beckham Sr., of Lamesa.

Dr. Joseph W. Knowles, professor of pastoral care, institute of Religion at the Texas Medical Center in Houston, read the double ring ceremony before an altar highlighted by two large arrangements of fall flowers in Thanksgiving and autumn shades and chrysanthemums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of French blue velvet. The sculptured bodice was fashioned with a bateau decolletage and elbow length sleeves and was marked at the waist by a small bow. With it she wore a blue velvet hat and matching shoes and veil. Her outfit was completed by a single strand pearl choker and tiny pearl earrings. She carried a small bouquet of stephanotis and English ivy centered with white and pale yellow cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Beckham, mother of the bridegroom, played traditional wedding marches and favorite hymns of the couple on the organ. Patrick Beckham, brother of the bridegroom, was soloist and sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony.

A traditional Thanksgiving Day dinner was served and the guests were registered by Mrs. C. T. Beckham.

Decorations included place cards with white and silver wedding bells. The centerpiece was accented with fall foliage and various shades of chrysanthemums.

Following the dinner, the couple left on a wedding trip to the Texas Gulf Coast. They will make their home at 1509 Castle Court, Houston. The bridegroom is registrar of the Baylor University College of Medicine.

The flower girls' dresses were pink velvet with corded waistline and sleeve puffs.

Only immediate families of the couple attended the ceremony and a wedding dinner was held in the Briar Club of Houston immediately afterward. Mr. and Mrs. Knauts hosted the event.

Follow Rules

June Blair feels that changing the color of your hair need not be a problem if all the rules are followed. She is now appearing in the "Two Faces West" TV series.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Learned Early About Danger Of Dyed Hair

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — When June Blair was in school, she earned extra money by modeling for hair shows. At one show they asked her if she would be a guinea pig and have her hair dyed, and she did, watching everything they did to her hair.

"That saved me a lot of money," June said, "for I learned about dyes and had no trouble doing my own. But then I got a term contract with a major studio and they gave me a permanent over the dye; inches of my hair broke off."

"Ever since, I've been trying to bring my hair back to normal," June confided. "I've really worked with conditioning ointments, damaged-hair creams that are steamed in with a machine, and I've taken lots of vitamins to help build my hair from the inside."

"Changing the color of your hair is an unnatural process; so is a permanent, and these two don't go together. You have to make the choice between curl or color or you are headed for trouble," she declared.

"What did you learn when you were in modeling school?" I asked.

"The importance of posture was certainly stressed. Standing up straight becomes a habit, and when you are used to keeping your head high and your body pulled up from your waist, you feel all crowded when you slump over. I learned that you naturally look better in your clothes when you carry yourself well, but you also feel better because you are not cutting off your breath."

"I don't think criticizing a young girl's posture always helps her," she went on. "She may feel she is being nagged, and she'll resist being helped. But if she can see herself in a candid picture or home movies when she is slumping, she won't want to look like that."

We were chatting during an afternoon break on the "Two Faces West" set, and June ordered a malted milk-shake. "I'm trying to gain weight," she confessed, "but nothing makes me fat."

"I hardly call that a problem," I said.

"I don't look well too thin, and when I'm all keyed-up, it is difficult for me to gain. But I find that by having an eggnog every night before going to bed helps me more than anything," she concluded.

But the role of Jane with Elmo Lincoln as Tarzan was the beginning of her road to fame.

Now hedging 60, beige-blond, sabled, and perturbed, Miss Markey is remarkably well preserved. A tiny, unenthusiastic audience shared the actress' meeting with her young self without recognizing her... not even when the camera fell down and the lights went on.

As a shirt-sleeved piano player trilled the keys, Miss Markey watched the plot thicken. Tarzan and his hairy companions flickering and jerking through the jungle brought back a flood of memories.

Miss Markey giggled at the dress worn by Lady Graystone, Tarzan's ill-fated mother. ("Still, they're not as bad as some we've got today.") And she roared at the picture captions. ("If this be justice, sir, I want none of it!")

But she politely demanded silence at the point where she was due to enter.

"My dear Jane, you cannot take your maid!" The caption said Jane was warned. The piano keys danced belligerently.

"Sir, is courage only for men then?" And Jane and her maid flickered into the tiger-infested jungle. Miss Markey's laughter rose above the piano noise.

Enid Markey was determined to stay until the bitter end. Somewhere there was a lion. "Oh yes... there. Now watch. O no, that part has been cut out. No, there it is. Well, anyway, see Elmo (I mean Tarzan) knock him out!"

"Oh he was real all right, supposed to have been drugged, but something went wrong, the drug I guess. But that lion really meant serious business. Elmo had no idea! I tell you I was terrified!"

Yet everything turned out all right. Jane found happiness in the tree tops, and Tarzan learned to treat ladies like a gentleman should. The piano turned from mournful to lyrical as the jungle of Hollywood, 1918, vanished from the screen.

And Jane, now Miss Markey, exited into her world of 1960.

TARZAN'S JANE

Enid Markey Watches First Film Of Series

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
Actress Enid Markey sat in the darkness of a tiny Greenwich Village theatre recently and curiously waited to come face to face with herself as she was 42 years ago.

Celluloid had captured and immortalized her in 1918 as "You, Jane," the pretty young thing with a blanching face, wide eyes, and pursed lips who taught Tarzan to appreciate girls.

Since the silent screen star's days as the first Jane (and the only fully dressed one), a number of "Janes," talking and animal-skinned, have swung tree limb to tree limb across the screen.

In the four decades that have

Lodge Asks Reports Of Services

All members of the BPODees have been requested to list the number of hours given to charitable work with Mrs. Joe Clark according to an announcement made at the Wednesday meeting.

Reports from the individuals should be in soon in order to get this in the 1960 report. Work done at the V.A. Hospital, the state hospital, United Fund and other drives or any other volunteer services is to be counted.

A report was made from the nominating committee and election of officers will be held on Dec. 14. The installation service will take place in January.

The president's party will be held on Dec. 10 at the Elk's Hall. The committee for arrangements includes Mrs. Glen Gale, Mrs. Grace Grandstaff, Mrs. Leland Graves, Mrs. Pauline Anderson and Mrs. L. D. Jenkins.

Mrs. Bill Raggsdale, who has served in most offices of the lodge including that of president, will be presented a five year pin at the December meeting.

Pro tem officers at the meeting were Mrs. Alma George, inner guard, and Mrs. W. R. Rogers, first councillor.

Girl Finds Companionship In Friendship Of Animal

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

A lonely girl can find great companionship in the friendship of an animal, says Meg Hausman of Kings Point, Long Island.

Meg had no close girl or boy friends and her sister and brother were much older, so she fell in love with a horse when she was 9 years old.

"A horse is a wonderful friend. When I got this pony Cinnamon Sugar, she was just to be a companion, but I learned to ride well enough to go into some horse shows, and she has become more than a friend. She has made me a good rider," says Meg, who becomes a teen-ager on her next birthday.

For the third year Meg has participated in the National Horse Show in New York. She has won more than 200 ribbons, 11 championships and 10 reserves. She won the large pony championship with another pony she owns, Serendipity. She rides him in winter, and the smaller pony, her room mare, Cinnamon Sugar stays home.

Serendipity boards out, so Meg doesn't assist with those chores. But she helps a good deal with Cinnamon Sugar. Her dad gives her a hand with the water pails she can't lift.

Meg has fun keeping her pony clean. She says it is a real production.

"I tie her to a hitching post. Then I get a bucket of warm water and soap suds, and wash her with a sponge. Her tail and mane must be soaped, and this causes plenty of splashing when she swooshes around. I clean her with the hose and she drinks from it. She likes the cold hose water even though she doesn't like cold weather," Meg explains.

Meg sometimes wins seven or eight ribbons at one show. She wins small money awards.

"I use the money to help pay for the horse. I'm saving up now to buy a horse van."

A horse need not be expensive, she points out, if you can care for him yourself, and have access to hay and oats, "but a horse sure can eat a lot," she says. "It costs about $40 a month."

She also has a French poodle and a cat, and finds that all animals are wonderful friends as well as pets. She knits and cooks, plays baseball, golf and swims, but best of all she likes to be with her animal friends.

There are important lessons in owning a horse and riding in shows, she says. She has learned "to win and lose gracefully, and they gave me a permanent over the dye; inches of my hair broke off."

"Ever since, I've been trying to bring my hair back to normal," June confided. "I've really worked with conditioning ointments, damaged-hair creams that are steamed in with a machine, and I've taken lots of vitamins to help build my hair from the inside."

"Changing the color of your hair is an unnatural process; so is a permanent, and these two don't go together. You have to make the choice between curl or color or you are headed for trouble," she declared.

"What did you learn when you were in modeling school?" I asked.

"The importance of posture was

Cosden Club To Reopen

Wives of the directors of the Cosden Country Club will be hostesses for the open house slated Saturday from 5 until 7 p.m. when the newly decorated and enlarged clubhouse is open to the public.

Refreshments will be served during the open house by members of the Cosden Ladies Club and later, from 8 until 9 p.m., hors d'oeuvres will be served for Cosden Club members and their guests.

The formal opening of the new building will take place with the dance that begins at 9 and continues until 1 a.m. The Down Beats will furnish music for this affair. Dress is optional.

Garden Council Hears Reports

Reports were heard and business discussed when garden club representatives met at the Council of Big Spring Garden Clubs Wednesday with Mrs. J. D. Elliott.

Mrs. Zack Gray reported a successful flower show which she said was highly praised by the judges.

Representatives from the six clubs were asked to bring name suggestions from their clubs for the council sponsored rose garden at the City Park.

The group discussed possibilities of securing a storage place for flower show materials.

The council will meet with the 4 O'clock Garden Club at their Dec. 28 meeting.

Ten attended the meeting.

Follow Rules

June Blair feels that changing the color of your hair need not be a problem if all the rules are followed. She is now appearing in the "Two Faces West" TV series.

Modern Day Living May Change Fashions

By RUBY WEIL
NEW YORK (AP)—Spring may be a song to the poets, but to the fashion industry it's a headache.

Depending on the area and the time of year, spring doesn't last long enough, starts too late (when Easter is in April), or is practically non-existent. As a result, women shoppers are likely to skip from winter to summer.

Unlike those of us who talk about the weather but do nothing about it, some people in the fashion industry are doing something. They're simply out to abolish spring.

The evidence was presented to store buyers and the fashion press who have been looking at spring fashion collections while ordinary mortals were still shaking the mothsballs out of their winter wardrobes. They found a spreading movement toward any-season fashions.

The movement has been under way for several seasons. But this year it is crystallizing. Fabrics, colors and types of clothes all contribute to the trend toward clothes that can be worn practically year round.

The weatherman is not entirely responsible. The airplane plays a part. So do modern heating in winter and air conditioning in summer, and the steady increase in vacations any time of the year.

For the airborne traveler, there are more and more costumes with built-in comfort and wrinkle resistance.

The higher priced ones are designed for "the woman who jets from climate to climate," as one designer phrases it. This customer's coordinated costume is brought down to budget level in handy outfits for the coach flight passenger.

The change in heating and cooling patterns of homes, theaters, restaurants, in recent years has brought about a steady increase in the dress-plus costume. Dressing in layers now is recognized as a way to comfort.

And more and more, the anytime vacation is influencing fashion. Resort fashions merge into those for spring and into summer until the line often is wiped out.

For the fashion details: Collettes, introduced last year, may become classic in another few seasons. They're still a novelty for street wear. But they are everywhere in sportswear, in at-home fashions, in travel clothes. Knee pants are around, too, under skirts which may be slit, wrapped, or buttoned-on.

Knitted dresses, suits, coats and costumes are so all-pervasive that sometimes one wonders whether they will crowd out woven fabrics. They range from the popular Italian flat woolknit to all sorts of novelty textures and the cotton knits.

Costumes, with short or long coats, are everywhere. Sometimes they have a new name—"compositions." Coat dresses appear in new, interesting shapes.

The most interesting prints are vidid and original. Fabrics are in the strictly fabulous category in the designer fashions. More and more, it's hard to tell cottons from silks or wool synthetics from natural fibers. And such combinations as cotton jackets with wool jersey dresses suggest cross-season purposes.

For evenings, chiffon goes flat-teringly down from season to season. Sequins and rhinestones glitter on spring ballgowns instead of going into storage after the "bi" season as they once did.

Colors are gay or subtle, again proclaiming freedom from the old customs. Spring's navy blue is likely to be a brightened shade just a bit deeper than royal. Or it may be ignored for the pastels which move more easily into summer. Brown comes out of winter's popularity into unaccustomed prominence for the warmer seasons.

The news in silhouettes is that the relaxed feeling gets more so all the time. The chemise is around, renamed and redesigned. Full skirts continue their return to fashion approval, in pleats, easy gored versions, and occasionally full circles.

And—a note of reassurance to the men—skirts continue a little below the knees—and here and there, right at the kneecap.

Lyndon To Talk With Macmillan

PARIS (AP) — Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson was flying to London today for talks with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan after making clear President Eisenhower's recent foreign policy moves were made on his own.

The Texas senator, who came to Paris for the NATO parliamentary conference, said in a recorded CBS interview Thursday that he found America's allies worried about the United States' future role in world affairs.

Johnson did not elaborate but apparently referred to Eisenhower's belt-tightening measures to check the drain on the U. S. gold reserves—including bringing home thousands of military dependents.

"Unfortunately, some actions being taken by the present administration—its last 60 days—are being interpreted in Europe as forerunners of new policies by the incoming administration," said Johnson.

I have tried to make it clear that until Jan. 20, President Eisenhower alone speaks for the United States. Actions taken now do not necessarily reflect policies Sen. Kennedy may follow—and neither Sen. Kennedy nor I are commenting on such policies, until the next administration is responsible for the policies of the United States.

The vice president-elect emphasized, however, that there was "responsible continuity in American foreign policy" and declared: "In the North Atlantic community and the others, the bonds are strong. We will work to make them stronger. But we will work also to build greater strength for freedom throughout the world."

Johnson said that John F. Kennedy as president would be a vigorous and complete leader. He dismissed the slim margin of the Democratic victory as a factor.

"Whatever the size of the vote," Johnson said, "the American people have entrusted responsibility to the administration of Sen. Kennedy. That is not a trust of just a small share of responsibility. Whoever leads America must lead completely—with full vigor, full courage, full responsibility—and we shall."

managed the Nixon campaign in Texas.

Dist. Judge J. Harris Gardner Wednesday rejected a Republican request for a statewide investigation of vote counting. He said there was not enough evidence of criminal fraud to justify the attorney general to seek impounding and opening of ballot boxes.

Republicans had charged that thousands of paper ballots were tossed out because voters had failed to scratch out all minor party candidates for president and thus voted for two candidates for the same office. Thousands of other ballots which had the same imperfection were counted, they charged. Hutchison said the percentage of ballots invalidated in some precincts was as high as 40 per cent.

The Houston Chronicle said that not a single county it checked had complied with provisions of the State Election Code which require that ballots not counted for various reasons be placed in a separate box and then checked by county commissioners courts.

The newspaper said some county clerks said they did not know that there is such a provision in the Election Code.

THE FACE IS FAMILIAR
A new robot that will be able to recognize friends from strangers is being fashioned by British scientists. They hope to make it able to talk in electronic squeaks, to see, read and write.

The machine will have an eye of 100 photoelectric cells, its brain will have 4,000 cells. University of London researchers are trying to equip it with the ability to distinguish important problems from unimportant ones. They expect to have it operating in about a year.

How well we do a job appears to depend on how closely our minds check the work while we are doing it.

Psychologists set volunteers to some simple writing chores, tracing figures and writing simple words. The volunteers watched their hands at work in a television monitor. By using a TV tape recorder, the psychologists were able to delay by a fraction of a second the subject's impression of what he was doing.

With the delay the figure tracings became wildly marked by scribbling and the simple words were illegible or misspelled.

Crystals of the stuff that makes fireflies and luminous fish glow in the dark have been extracted from a South Pacific fish the Japanese call kinme modoki. U. S. and Japanese scientists had to dissect more than 4,000 luminous organs from fish before they had enough of the material to isolate a crystal. It was the third time a chemically pure, luminescent substance had been isolated, the first two times from fireflies.

The plants in your garden may look longingly at the water in your swimming pool when the summer sun gets hot, but it's a pool of poison for them.

Chlorine added to the swimming water to kill bacteria and algae causes a continuous build-up of salt. University of California experts report. If the salty water gets to plant roots, it stunts growth, burns foliage and may kill the plant.

A splash deck and curb around the pool will protect plants against dripping, splashing waters.

The federation, numbering 14 European countries and the United States, completed its annual meeting Thursday. The United States joined only this year.

In a final resolution, the federation agreed that bourbon should have the same legal protection that most member countries now give the scotch of Scotland and the cognac of France.

Republicans To File Suit For Chicago Vote Recount

CHICAGO (AP)—Republicans, asserting they may carry Cook County's vote fraud controversy to court, said they would file petitions today asking a recount of voting in many Democratic precincts.

Francis X. Connell, Cook County GOP chairman, said the petitions would request a study of paper ballots in 863 of Chicago's heavily Democratic precincts and in 43 suburban precincts.

Connell said the recount of paper ballots, coupled with a recent GOP study of many county voting machines, would uncover sufficient evidence to warrant obtaining a court order for an official recount.

"We feel there will be enough evidence uncovered to file a suit for recount" of the county's vote, Connell asserted.

He said the canvass boards failed to thoroughly probe alleged voting irregularities and refused to make "proper adjustments accrediting each candidate with the true vote received."

Republicans charged that the city's canvass board sidestepped a study of vote irregularities and issued an official proclamation illegally.

George H. Dapples, attorney representing a group backing Vice President Richard M. Nixon, said because the sole Republican member of the city board—Marie Suthers—declined to sign the proclamation the canvass wasn't officially concluded.

But Edward W. Parlee, assistant city corporation counsel, said the law requires only a simple majority of the three-member board to sign the proclamation.

Mrs. Suthers refused to sign the proclamation after the city board responded to her requests for an investigation ordering 400 election judges to appear before the board simultaneously.

Connell, a member of the County Election Board, similarly refused to sign his board's proclamation. He said he and Mrs. Suthers will file minority reports charging that the official canvass "isn't a true and correct record of the votes cast in Cook County."

County Court Hears Pleas
Two pleas of guilty have been received by the Howard County Court.

Horace Aulter Smith, charged with DWI, pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $75 and sentenced to three days in jail.

Virginia Wilkerson, charged with writing a worthless check, drew a fine of $10 and costs.

WEATHER

Natty Bandit Robs Grocery

HOUSTON (AP)—A well-dressed thug, who said he had just killed someone and needed money to get out of town, robbed a Weingarten grocery store early today and fled with several thousand dollars.

The robber, wearing a white sport coat and dark slacks, pointed a pistol at a woman clerk and demanded:

"Give me your money. I killed someone this morning and I need the money to get out of town."

The cashier said the gunman, 25, had worked for the store for about seven years.

Police said the suspect, believed to have had recent marital difficulties, had a record of arrests dating to 1951. He has never been convicted here.

Police said no killings were reported here overnight, but they were working on a report that the suspect had slain a man in Galveston Thursday night.

Galveston police, however, said the last reported homicide there was Oct. 20.

Pretty Roommates Supply Brothers
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Two pretty roommates were honeymooning as sisters-in-law today after a double-ring marriage in which each supplied a brother as the bridegroom.

Virginia Gordon, 20, became Mrs. Wallace Donaldson and Louise Donaldson, 19, became Mrs. James Gordon. The ceremony was performed Thursday.

It all started in September when the girls—one unemployed—visited Miss Donaldson's parents at Bailey Station, Tenn., where Wallace Donaldson, 25, was home.

Later the girls visited Miss Gordon's parents at Water Valley, Miss. James Gordon, 24, also happened to be home on a visit at the time.

The couples will live in neighboring apartments.

Secret Service Seizes Film
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secret Service agents today confiscated a camera and destroyed a roll of film containing pictures of Mrs. John F. Kennedy being wheeled from the recovery room of Georgetown Hospital.

The pictures were made by AP photographer Thomas F. Freeman. He was the first photographer to reach the hospital after Mrs. Kennedy's arrival for birth of her son.

Upon arrival, he asked an attendant where Mrs. Kennedy's room was and he was directed to the fourth floor. There he took a position in an open-doored service room about 150 feet from the recovery room. While waiting he talked with several nurses and said one brought him a cup of tea.

When Mrs. Kennedy was wheeled from the recovery room, Freeman took three shots before the Secret Service intervened and seized his camera. It was returned after the film was removed.

Freeman was directed to work from the hospital lobby where he made pictures of the arrival of President-elect Kennedy.

Sir Winnie Feeling Better
LONDON (AP)—Rapidly recovering from a back injury, Sir Winston Churchill is now well enough to enjoy two of his favorite luxuries—cigars and Scotch whisky.

Grpek shipping magnate Aristotile Onassis called on him Thursday.

Sir Winston, who will be 86 next Wednesday, was out of bed and sitting in a chair when Onassis arrived. The two men talked for nearly an hour.

Roads Open
AUSTIN (AP)—The Highway Department said today Farm 247 between Midway and Huntsville is open. All other roads in the Bryan District that were closed during recent heavy rains are also open.

Pope John Marks 79th Birthday
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII was 79 years old today. The Vatican's yellow and gold flags were unfurled in his honor but there was no special celebration.

For the pontiff the day was another day of routine work. This included a general audience for several thousand persons.

Searchers Hunt Philippine Plane
MANILA (AP)—Planes and ships set out again today in search of a plane missing which vanished Wednesday with 33 persons on board.

The Philippine Airlines pilot last reported his position as 100 miles southeast of Manila on a flight from the central Philippines.

All aboard were Filipinos.

Mexican Consul Dies in Lubbock
LUBBOCK (AP)—The Mexican consul in Lubbock, Louis Perez Abreu, was found shot to death in his office today.

Police said he died of a bullet wound in the right temple. They said a pistol was found in the office.

Congo Ruler Flies Home To Pave Way For U.N.
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—President Joseph Kasavubu of the Congo was flying home today to prepare his people for the visit of a political conciliation commission from the United Nations.

Kasavubu left New York Thursday night after telling Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld that he would let him know within a week when he was ready for the commission to come.

Hammarskjöld's 13-member advisory committee for the Congo agreed to wait for word from Kasavubu before deciding on a new date for making the trip.

The commission includes all countries with troops in the 20,000-man U. N. force in the Congo.

The conciliation group first planned to leave for the Congo a week ago but ran into delays.

When the General Assembly voted Tuesday to seat a delegation headed by Kasavubu, it put off the trip to talk with him first.

secret service men aboard the plane. It touched off a rousing round of cheers and applause.

Kennedy, who had received the news in the front compartment, came to the door in his shirt sleeves. He waved and smiled to the well wishers.

More news came over the plane radio, and the president-elect kept smiling.

Pierre Sainger, Kennedy's press secretary, said later that the president-elect didn't know his wife was in the hospital until he reached the foot of the ramp after his plane landed in Palm Beach.

There an aide, Kenneth O'Donnell, told him the news. A phone had been kept open to the hospital. Kennedy hurried to the terminal building and talked to the floor nurse.

TOLD OF SURGERY
He was advised that Mrs. Kennedy was undergoing a caesarean section at that moment. He was given no further information.

His face had a serious, calm look as he boarded the plane to speed to Washington.

Newsman had some difficulty learning the exact weight of the baby at birth. First word was that the Kennedy son weighed 6 pounds 3 ounces.

Later a hospital source corrected this, saying the weight should be listed as 6 pounds 2 ounces.

But Sainger told newsmen that the baby's weight marked on the incubator is 6 pounds 3 ounces. That should make it official, Sainger said.

BS Cagers Host Chiefs Tonight

An 8 o'clock game here this evening officially launches the 1960-61 basketball season for the Big Spring Chiefs, who will be making their debut under coach Delnor Poss.

San Angelo of Lake View will be the guest of the evening. A close contest is anticipated. Both teams are rebuilding.

Big Spring is having to start without a single letterman back from last season. Only three reserve letter winners are on hand. They are Jimmy Haynes, 6-3; Ronnie Hamby, 6-2; and Dick Ebling, who stands an even six feet.

Those three are almost certain to start for Big Spring. The other two are apt to come from a list that included Rip Patterson, 5-11 1/2; Jimmy Patterson, 6-4; George Ryan, 5-7; Ross Reagan, 6-1; and Bob Andrews, 5-10.

Lake View was battered, 78-24, by San Angelo Central High earlier this week. That score is descriptive, however. Central apparently had one of its truly great clashes this year and had a considerable height advantage over the Chiefs.

The Chiefs can better compete with the Steers around the backboards.

Larry Hudson will probably be Lake View's top threat. Others who will get into the fray for the visitors include Bob and Jack Meek, Mac Mackowsky and Rod Dunlap.

Houston Oilers Oppose Patriots

By The Associated Press

Houston, Eastern Division leader and with the best record in both divisions, takes on the Patriots at Boston in the only American Football League game on Friday's schedule.

Clash at 6:30 p.m. Jimmy Marcus will mastermind the court tactics of the B team.

DRAGONS SLAM BEARS, 31-20

CRANE-Flower Grove defeated the Balmorhea Bears, 31-20, in the Regional championship six-man football game here Thursday afternoon.

The Dragons thus ended the season with a 9-2 won-lost record. Balmorhea's loss was its first in 11 years.

Dan Lemon led the Dragon attack. He scored on runs of 12 and 77 yards and passed for two more TD's. Jerry Webb taking both of the aerials in for scores.

Beaver Ramsey got the other tally on a dash of 79 yards. Ronny Deatherage caught a pass from Mike Holcomb for the Dragons' only extra point.

Flower Grove mangled only one touchdown in the first half of play but dominated action thereafter.

Haas Leader With A 66

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A veteran who hasn't won a tournament in nearly seven years and a young pro seeking his first tournament victory are tied with 6-under par 66 after the first round of the Mobile Open golf tournament.

Freddie Haas, 44, of New Orleans toured the 6,900-yard par 36-36-72 Mobile Municipal in 32-34-66. He birdied six holes and parred the rest.

The field of 148 will be trimmed to the low 60s and ties after today's second round. Eighteen-hole rounds are scheduled for Saturday and Sunday.

Arnold Palmer, leading money winner of the year, was tied with six others, two strokes off the leaders. Palmer rejoined the tour here after a two-month layoff. He needs a little more than $1,100 to become the all-time top money winner for a year.

Haas used a hot putter in smashing par on the 18th. He sank birdie putts of 35, 30, 18, 6, 5 and 3 feet.

Gustin started his par-busting round by dropping a 50-foot putt on the first hole for a birdie.

Others in the 68 bracket with Palmer were: Jerry Pittman, Tulsa, Okla.; Johnny Pott, Shreveport, La.; Gene Mitchell, Lubbock, Tex.; Gay Brewer Jr., Crystal River, Fla.; Dave Hill, Denver, Colo.; and Frank Boynton, Orlando, Fla.

At 69 were Howie Johnson and Marty Furgol, both of Cog Hill, Ill., and Tony Lema, San Leandro, Calif.

Jayton Triumphs Over Miami Club

CHILDRESS—Jayton's Jaybirds trampled Miami, 28-6, here Thursday afternoon in the Regional championship eight-man football game.

Held scoreless in the first two quarters, the Jaybirds broke through for two touchdowns in the second round and counted twice more in the third.

Cecil Hallum set up Jayton's first touchdown with a 45-yard pass to Harold Murrell, then ran over from the three for the marker. Hallum then plunged over from the one for the second TD, passed to Royce Stalander for the third and connected with Murrell again for the fourth.

Miami had beaten Galt in bi-district play last week.

Police Chief Asks Monster Be Protected

By RONALD THOMSON
INVERNESS, Scotland (AP)—A police chief whose beat is the Scottish Highlands called today for a special act of Parliament to protect the Loch Ness monster against human villainy.

"At the moment we don't know whether the monster can be properly helped under the law," said J. R. Johnstone, chief constable of the County of Inverness.

"Everybody accepts that something strange lives in the Loch, but nobody knows whether it's an animal or a fish or something completely outside our experience."

Johnstone, who has been county police chief for the past 10 years, said that without new legislation his men might not be able to stop adventurers trying to kill or catch the creature in dangerous experiments.

There have been reports that a hand of young men from England intend to drop home-made depth charges into the Loch with the aim of forcing the monster to the surface where it can be captured.

"Any such nonsense will be stopped before it ever begins," Johnstone said firmly. "I would welcome real scientific investigations but bombing the monster is out of the question."

As he spoke in an interview in Inverness Castle, Loch Ness brooded under a thick fog. A few lights winked through the mist under the Black Mountains but they came only from fishing trawlers. If the monster was around no one could see him from the shore.

This has been a poor year for the brute. Only about a dozen sightings have been recorded in the 24-mile stretch of water which goes down to 900 feet in parts.

Most descriptions roughly coincide on the essentials:

The monster is about 30 feet long, with three or more humps on its scaly back, has a lashing tail and a little flat head with bulging eyes. It is capable of great speed through the water.

Montgomery Relaxes; No Race Violence

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Montgomery was relaxing today after threats of Thanksgiving Day race violence failed to materialize at a Negro college football game.

Officers arrested five white men, who later were released on bond, as groups of white persons were kept moving at Thursday's game between Tuskegee Institute and Alabama State College.

Though signs were posted the city Thursday morning urging "10,000 white people" to appear at the game, nowhere near that figure showed up at Cranston Bowl.

City and county officers kept white persons moving and broke up white gatherings near the stadium, making it difficult to estimate the size of the crowd outside the bowl.

The arrests were made near a restaurant in the vicinity of the publicly-owned bowl, where Tuskegee defeated Alabama state 12 to 8.

The restaurant, which has a liquor license, was ordered closed for the day.

Sheriff's deputies said those arrested included Sonny Kile Livingston and Henry Alexander, who were indicted in an outbreak of Negro church bombings in Montgomery in 1957. Livingston was acquitted.

Alexander never was tried. Also arrested were D. V. Andrews, G. W. Sexton and Wilson Bragg. Sexton was charged with illegally carrying a pistol. Andrews with disorderly conduct and Alexander, Livingston and Bragg with failure to obey an officer.

Bonds posted were $1,000 each for Livingston and Bragg and $100 each for Sexton, Alexander and Andrews.

The approximately 3,000 Negro spectators left the game without incident.

Land Sought For Church Studio

FORT WORTH (AP)—The expected purchase of land for the construction of a headquarters building here was announced Thursday by the Southern Baptists' Radio and Television Commission.

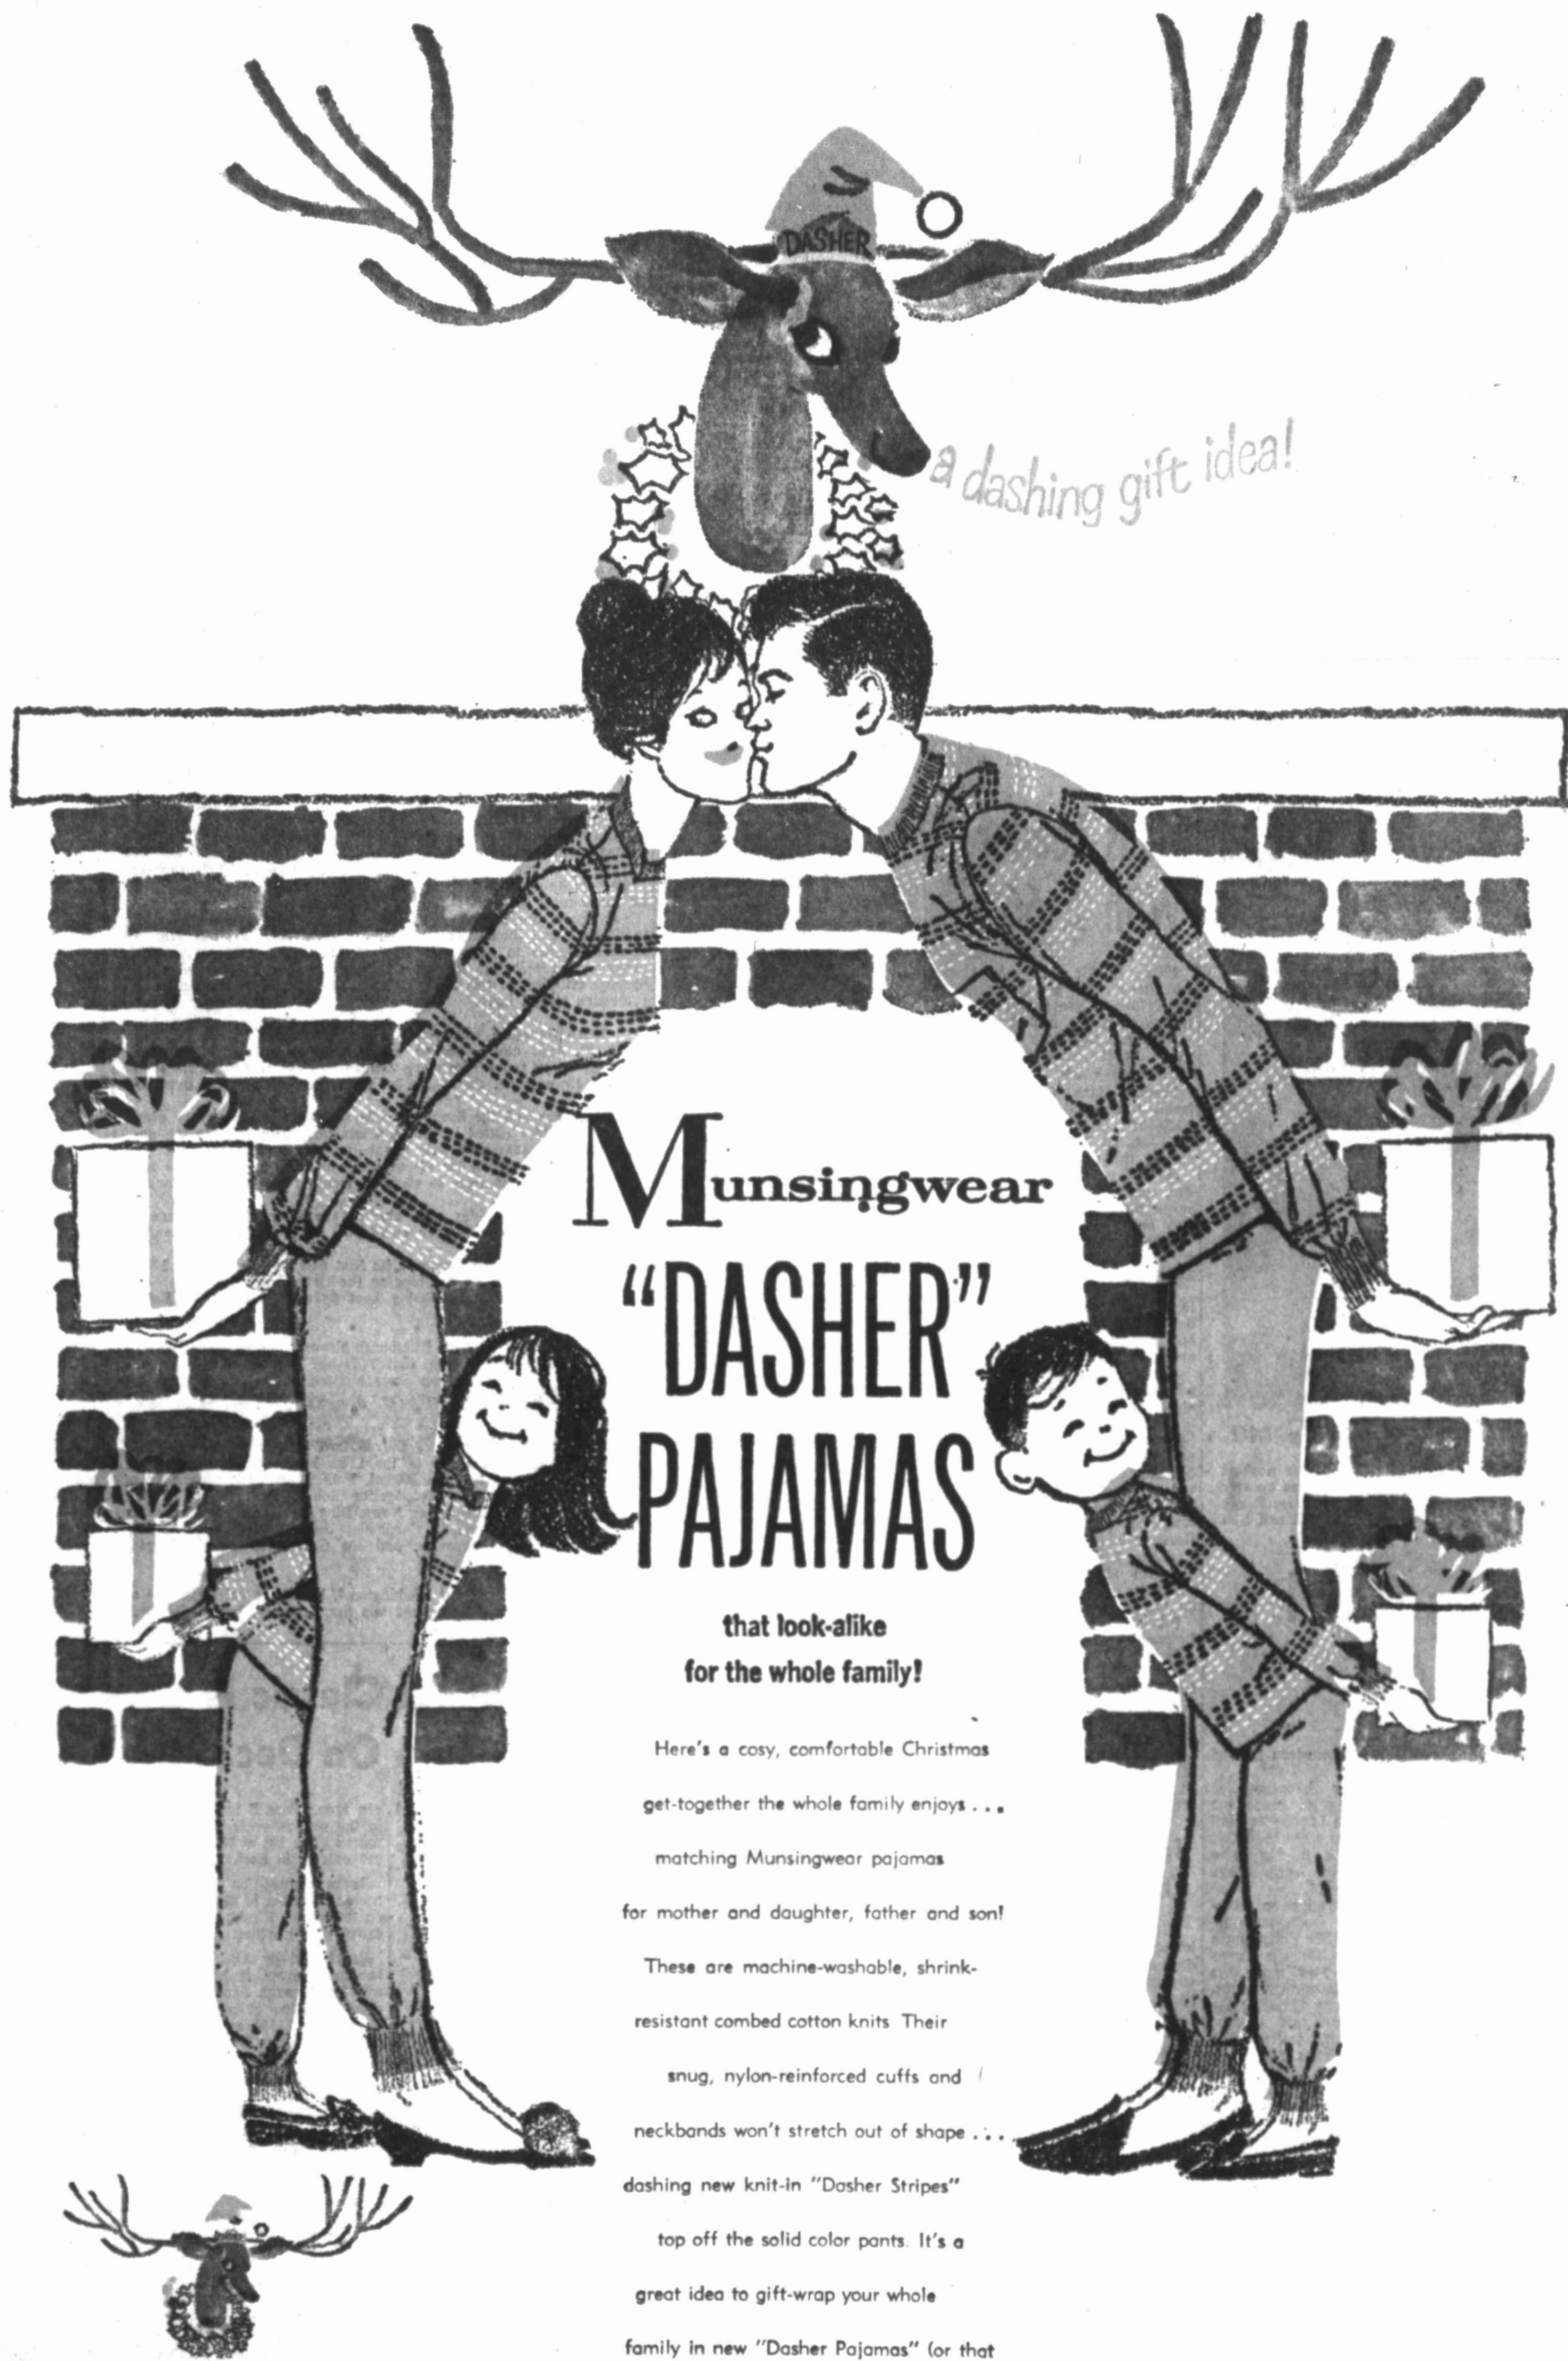

Construction of the first 40,000 square feet of the building will start in 1963 and the building will eventually be expanded to 100,000 square feet.

Purchase price of the land is expected to be about $118,000.

The building will house an underground television studio, two radio studios and offices and work areas for 175 persons. The existing radio-TV center is now located in Fort Worth.

Drowning Ruled

FORT WORTH (AP)—Justice of Peace Whit Boyd ruled drowning in the death of William Simmons, 40, whose badly decomposed body was found in the Trinity River Thursday.

Haitian Cleric Is Deported

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Roman Catholic Archbishop Francois Poirier, long a foe of President Francois Duvalier, was secretly hustled out of Haiti Thursday night with no baggage and no money except a borrowed dollar.

The highest church official of this Negro Catholic republic was accused of giving $7,000 to aid striking students accused by the government of being involved in Communist plotting. To deal with the strike the government declared martial law last Tuesday. Thursday it closed all schools for Christmas vacations a month ahead of time.

(The archbishop, 56, said on arriving in Miami Thursday that the charges against him were "entirely false." He is going back to his native Brittany in France.)

(Vatican sources said Haitian authorities involved in the expulsion of the archbishop "very likely" incurred excommunication denying them the church sacraments. No official word was available but the sources said Canon Law No. 2334 normally automatically inflicts excommunication upon persons who directly or indirectly impede a Catholic prelate in his work.)

The churchman's expulsion was swift. Police and presidential guards arrested him at his office and escorted him to the airport where they bought him a ticket for Miami. He was put on a plane without any clothes except the white cassock he was wearing and with only a dollar loaned him by a priest.

said the flag was found at the oldest college in the city. Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro's revolution has been called the 26th of July Movement.

Baguidy said the strike was the work of "professional agitators, foreign and Haitian, who are brandishing the hammer and sickle."

Haiti, which shares the island of Hispaniola with the Dominican Republic, was invaded by a rebel band of 31 men in August 1959. The government said all but one were Cubans and that all were killed or captured.

At about the same time the government's dispute with church leaders bobbed up with the expulsion of two priests. They were Father Etienne Grienerberger, rector of Saint Martial, the largest Catholic College, and Father Joseph Marrec, a village priest.

Clement Bardot, Duvalier's press secretary, said at the time that Grienerberger advised "underground elements responsible for a bombing which wounded 42 persons and also contacted army officers in an attempt to stir up a revolt. The priest said the explosion was part of a concerted campaign against the church."

Bardot charged that Archbishop Poirier and certain French priests were supporting Duvalier's opposition despite a concordat with the Vatican not to mix in Haitian politics.

Baptists Urged To Crusade

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A Baptist educator urges his denomination to "think less about campaigning and more about crusading."

"Our immediate task is to make twin sisters of evangelism and training," Dr. T. C. Gardner of Dallas, vice president of East Texas Baptist College at Marshall, said Thursday in a speech to the convention of the Baptist Training Union. Some 3,000 persons are attending the union's two-day convention.

Dr. Gardner, who is a former director of the Baptist Training Union programs, spoke on the subject of "What Baptists Believe."

A growing Christian, he said, "like the leaders of a growing industry or business, must constantly be on the alert, thinking of the present and planning for the future."

He called the union and Baptist colleges primary sources of proper information.

"Every Baptist church should maintain a student loan fund for members of the church who must secure financial aid to help them get a college education," he said.

U.S. Helps Pay For Jap Reactor

TOKYO (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II handed the foreign ministry a check for $50,000 today under America's atom-for-peace program to help pay for a research reactor at Japan's Tokai Mura nuclear energy installation.

The reactor, designed by the American Machine and Foundry Co., went into operation in September.

Western Oregon Washed By Floods

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Flood waters poured from ankle to waist deep through scores of western Oregon communities today. Heavy rains put one entire town of 1,000 persons under water.

U.S. 101 along the coast, U.S. 22 across the Cascade Range and many secondary routes were blocked by rampaging streams and slides touched off by a Thanksgiving Day downpour that continued today. It was, however, slackening off in some areas.

Most residents sat it out as the water swirled into stores and homes, but an estimated 50 families were evacuated in scattered areas. No casualties were reported.

Small communities bore the brunt of it. Weather Bureau forecasters said only minor flooding is to be expected along the major rivers. Along the tributaries it was another matter.

Several points reported more than four inches of rain in 24 hours, and the already sodden community of Valseit in the coast range measured 6.41 inches, making a total of 32 inches there in the past two weeks.

The streams could not handle it.

Mill Creek came bursting into the town of Turner, nine miles south of the state capital of Salem. First it spread boards from a lumber yard throughout the town of 1,000. Before midnight the entire town was under water, which was waist deep in some streets. There were no evacuations there.

Twenty-eight families were evacuated from the community of Shady Dell on the Molalla River, about 25 miles southeast of Portland.

land. A number of families also were evacuated from lowlands east of Portland, where Johnson Creek overflowed.

U.S. 101, the coast highway, was cut in a half-dozen places by slides, most of them in the stretch between Florence and Newport.

A 300-foot-long slide buried U.S. 22 under 12 feet of mud, rocks and trees about 35 miles southeast of Salem.

Water flowed three feet deep over the Corvallis-Waldport highway as the Alsea River overflowed. The Siuslaw River flooded the Eugene-Florence highway.

The flooding closed scores of secondary roads throughout the Willamette Valley south of Portland, washed out a bridge near Newberg and nearly drowned two duck hunters caught on the upsurging Willamette River.

Their boat capsized near Junction City. They managed to swim to an island, where they had to spend a shivering day until they finally were sighted and rescued by boat after nightfall. They were James V. Murphy, 50, and Rupert Park, 38, both of Junction City.

Warm winds from the Pacific Ocean brought the heavy rains, but later the weather turned cold. A chill rain continued along the coast and in the Willamette Valley, but snow began falling in the Cascade and Coast ranges.

NO COMMENT
The police escort refused to comment and told reporters: "We are awaiting the arrival of a friend." Claude Raymond, commander of the presidential guard, and Haitian Police Chief Daniel Beauvoit watched the departure.

A communique broadcast later by Defense Minister Aurele Joseph said the banishment was because the prelate aided the student strikers.

President Duvalier did not mention the expulsion when he addressed a rally of 6,000 of his partisans on the lawn of the National Palace.

Denouncing "lizards" who oppose him, he said he knew who they are and where they are hiding.

The president's supporters carried slogans declaring "Duvalier is the last formula" and "Duvalier or death."

The government's charges concerning the student strike were spelled out at a news conference by Gen. Pierre Merceron, the army chief, and Joseph Baguidy, foreign minister and acting education minister.

ON STRIKE
Haiti University students went on strike Monday demanding the release of Joseph Roney, student union treasurer, who was arrested in September on charges of distributing Communist tracts.

Baguidy held up a small white flag with red hammer and sickle and the numerals "26" on it. He

4 People Die In Fire

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A quickly-spreading fire swept an apartment in Pittsburgh's Homewood section early today, killing a man, his two young daughters and a woman.

The dead were Robert Heagy, 64, his daughters Darlene, about 8, and Mariene, about 7 and Elsie Altoff, 74.

Firemen said they were trapped inside the flaming three-story apartment. No one else was in the building.

The first firemen arriving on the scene were unable to get very far into the apartment because most of it had already been engulfed in flames.

The bodies of Heagy and the girls were found on the first floor. Mrs. Altoff's body was found on the third floor.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started in the basement. Cause was not known immediately.

Four fire companies battled the blaze for over two hours.

Last Of Russian Royalty Is Dead

TORONTO (AP)—Olga, Russian imperial grand duchess who claimed to be the last of the Romanoffs, died Thursday. She was 78.

She was the youngest daughter of Czar Alexander III and sister of Czar Nicholas II who was murdered with his family in a Ekaterinburg cellar in July, 1918, by a Bolshevik firing squad.

Since 1948 she had lived with her husband in nearby Cooksville.

Monks Develop New Art Form Called Balletorio

By EDWARD S. KITCH
LISLE, Ill. (AP)—Two Benedictine monks have harmonized words, music and dance steps into what they believe is a new art form. They call it the balletorio.

They have woven abstract dancing into the oratorio form — a sacred lyric performed to profound music, of which Handel's "Messiah" is perhaps the best-known example.

"This is modern music with a purpose," said Fathers Alban and Mathias, the composer and librettist. They are members of the Order of St. Benedict at St. Procopius Abbey in Lisle.

"It's a story of the emotions of the people involved in the situations of the Bible," they said. "We've called it a balletorio only for want of a better name."

The monks have dedicated their work, a two-year project, to a Protestant choirmaster.

He is Dr. Frederick Toenniges, a violinist who once directed the Detroit Symphony and now leads the 70-member choir in the First Evangelical United Brethren Church in Naperville, near Lisle.

Dr. Toenniges has advised, encouraged and assisted the two clerics and will be in the audience at St. Procopius College when the balletorio, based on the Gospel of St. John and entitled "A Light for the Darkness," has its premiere next Wednesday. Father Alban will conduct.

Five soloists will be backed by a chorus and symphony orchestra in the two-hour performance. About 250 students, townspeople and professional singers and dancers round out the company.

For the performance the stage will be bare of scenery. Chorus and soloists will wear conventional attire. The dancers will perform in leotards. Abstract lighting will play on a backdrop to create a visual mood in harmony with the music.

The balletorio begins with the creation of the world and in song and dance relates the story of Adam and Eve, the birth of Christ, His Crucifixion and Resurrection.

Father Alban, 34, first teamed with Father Mathias, 39, eight years ago. Their work mainly had been songs for school revues.

Four years ago they composed a Christmas carol but found no market for it. They began writing their balletorio two years later. Father Alban entered the monastery in 1945 after earning a master's degree at the Chicago Conservatory of Music.

Father Mathias was born on Chicago's West Side, entered the monastery in 1941 and studied at Catholic University of America in Washington under Walter Kerr, Kerr, now is drama critic of the New York Herald-Tribune. He now is professor of speech and drama.

"We are absolute opposites," they say. "We haven't had a cross word yet. But we criticize each other; that's how we bring out the best that's in us."

Lutherans Attend Odessa Meeting

Four members of the St. Paul Lutheran Church were in Odessa Monday to attend the Permian Basin meeting there.

A meeting is being planned for Lutheran Friendship Week, Jan. 29-Feb. 4. The Rev. Ed Heyne of Amarillo is area director. Those attending from the local church were the Rev. Clair Weidner, Gilbert Pachall and Mrs. H. H. Smith. Rev. Weidner is general chairman of the Basin group.

20 Plan Youth Meeting Trip

The Rev. and Mrs. V. Ward Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Carille and Mrs. Helen Jones will accompany 20 youths of the First Church of God to Austin where they will attend the State Youth Convention. The convention was to begin today and continue until noon Sunday. The local president of the youth group is Vernon Jackson.

Strength in God

DIVINE RESOURCES AVAILABLE TO CHRISTIANS FOR VICTORY OVER EVERY EVIL POWER

Scripture—Psalm 46; Ephesians 6:10-20.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THE REV. WIDBUR M. SMITH in his "Peloubet's Select Notes" on this lesson writes: "Because of limited space, we can give only brief consideration to the verses assigned from the Psalm, to allow for more fully exploring the marvelous paragraph from the Epistle to the Ephesians. This Psalm and the two following have the same general subject and character. They express the perfect confidence of true Israelites in the presence and protection of God at the power of His might. Put that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil (temptations)."

"For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness."—Ephesians 6:10-12.

"And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching therewith all perseverance and supplication for all saints: And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel, for which I am an ambassador in bonds: That therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak."—Ephesians 6:17-20.

"Be still, and know that I am God."—Psalm 46:10.

Now we turn to the teaching of St. Paul. "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the word of God."—Ephesians 6:10. ## No Favorite Hymn Found In Survey

By GAYNELLE PRICE
The Christian Herald lists America's favorite hymn as being "The Old Rugged Cross." However, according to a local survey there doesn't seem to be one particular favorite hymn in Big Spring.

The Rev. H. L. Bingham gives "How Great Thou Art" as being one of his favorites. He says it stresses the meaning of just how great God really is. "Amazing Grace" is a favorite of Dr. P. D. O'Brien.

Because of the light he saw when he accepted Christ, the Rev. Jack Stricklan favors "The Light of the World Is Jesus." He believes that this light should be sufficient for anyone.

The Rev. V. Ward Jackson classifies hymns in categories such as the cross, loyalty and faith. "Abide With Me" is one of his favorites; others on the favorite list are "Faith of Our Fathers" and "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus." His favorite, however, is "How Great Thou Art."

Sin Is Insanity Without Innocence

After sin had brought the prodigal son down to the mire of the pig pen, he "came to himself" and resolved to arise and go to his father. (Luke 15:11-13). In sin he had been beside himself. Yet he was accountable and responsible.

There is an insanity that renders one unaccountable for his deeds; but sin is insanity without the advantage of innocence.

Jesus tells us that the man who hears His Word and does not obey it is like a foolish man that builds his house on the drifting sand (Mat. 7:26).

Sinner, friend, we would like to awaken you, and bring you to yourself before it is everlastingly too late.

We invite you to the three preaching services a week of the Church of Christ, 2609 West Highway 90: Sundays, 10:30 and 7:30; Thursdays, 7:30. Sermons next Sunday: "The Three Crosses" and "The Ten Commandments of the Old Covenant." —Adv.

The Rev. C. W. Parmenter's favorite, "Sweet Hour of Prayer," describes everything, he says.

The Rev. Dewitt Seago, pastor, and Don Ford, minister of music of First Methodist Church came up with "God of Grace, God of Glory."

Rev. Seago states that certain types of hymns put a different mood into different types of things. "The Church's One Foundation" has a text that covers Christian belief and the process of Christianity here on earth, says Ford. The words of the melody put together a great thought.

"My Faith Looks Up to Thee," and "Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross" are two of the favorites of Dr. R. Gage Lloyd. Dr. Lloyd says that his favorite depends upon the mood he happens to be in.

The meaning of the words of the song, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," means a great deal to T. E. Cudd, minister of 14th and Main Church of Christ. The words teach a lesson and give hope and encouragement, he says.

Other local as well as American favorites are "What A Friend We Have in Jesus," "In the Garden," "How Great Thou Art," "Sweet Hour of Prayer," "Abide With Me," "Rock of Ages," "Amazing Grace," and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

Diligently Pray For The Work of Your Church

THE FACE OF FAITH

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sapday	Psalms	24	6
Monday	II Corinthians	4	6
Tuesday	Psalms	121	1-8
Wednesday	Acts	2	28
Thursday	I Peter	1	8-9
Friday	Romans	1	16-17
Saturday	II Timothy	1	7-9

Sometimes a face is striking. It isn't the sort of face you're accustomed to. It's a face you wouldn't have expected to see. But you have seen it! That's why you call it striking.

The Face of Faith is like that . . .

The eyes seem lifted toward the hills, to a source of strength. The lips are firm with a courage that rests neither on prowess nor weapon. The countenance shines with a joyous light . . . a light that seems to reflect some mystic Sun though the world around is cast in shadow and gloom.

I see the Face of Faith each Sunday . . . the face of a child . . . perhaps your child!

I am her Sunday School teacher—and the joyous light of that striking face inspires me to seek more faithfully in the worship and work of my Church the help of God.

You are her parents. How that confident, expectant radiance must inspire you!

Family Gives Thanks As Boy Rescued From Hole

GILROY, Calif. (AP)—A Thanksgiving Day prayer was answered for the safety of a 2-year-old boy trapped in a narrow hole at a motel for nearly four hours.

When Todd Duncan, who had run off in midday to play with a brother, tumbled into a hole eight feet deep and only 14 inches across, his parents feared the worst.

Five hours later, however, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin E. Duncan of Gardena, Calif., prepared for a joyous turkey feast. And Todd was tucked in bed, his dirty face washed and his tummy full of turkey.

"We had a minute of thanks at our meal. We normally do in our family. But this time it had much more meaning," said Todd's father.

Principals In Killing

Albert Hall Sr., left, 35-year-old former mental patient, told Tarrant County police he had killed his 12-year-old son, Albert Jr., right, and buried the body under a pile of pine cones near Purvis, Miss. Hall first told police the shooting was intentional but later said the boy was killed accidentally. Police took Hall to Mississippi to locate the spot where he buried the boy.

Charges To Be Filed Today After Search Finds Body

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (AP)—Charges were expected to be filed today against a 34-year-old former mental patient after a two-day search through the piney woods of southern Mississippi finally turned up the body of his 12-year-old son.

Albert Lloyd Hall led police to the spot 12 miles west of here along State Highway 26 where he buried Albert Jr. He said he shot the boy in a hunting accident last Friday.

An inquest was arranged. Constable A. D. Hartfield of Lamar County found the body buried beneath pine needles near tiny White Sands in Pearl River County.

At Franklinton, La., 40 miles west of here, Hall had pawned the gun used in the shooting.

As the party drove toward Louisiana, Hall suddenly said: "Turn here." The group fanned out over the area and Hartfield found the body. It was identified by Wilburn Hall of Big Spring, Tex., Albert's brother, and Coy Anderson of Houston, Albert's brother-in-law. Wilburn Hall and Anderson accompanied Albert Hall from Euless, Tex., where he was arrested.

Monday. Euless Police Chief W. M. Sustaite said Hall first told him he kidnaped the youth from a hospital for the mentally retarded at Mexia, Tex., Nov. 11 and "took the boy on a vacation."

Then Hall told Sustaite he had shot the boy intentionally because both were hungry and near penniless, and buried the body near Purvis.

Hall later claimed the shooting was an accident.

Mother Held In Abandonment

NEW YORK (AP)—The mother who left her two children in Gimbel's toy department has been arrested and charged with abandonment.

The children, Michael, 5, and Maria, 4, were found in the store Thanksgiving eve and taken to a children's shelter. The mother had put a note in the boy's pocket saying she could no longer care for them.

After receiving a telephone tip Thursday, police picked up the mother, Eileen Weiss, 29, in a Brooklyn apartment.

While the Weiss woman was being booked, the children's father, Salvatore Andrioli, 31, showed up and told authorities he was willing to take care of the boy and girl.

Andrioli was told to make a formal plea after arraignment of the mother, scheduled for today.

CBS Sinks Last Radio Soap Operas

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP-TV Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—It's our unhappy duty to report that this afternoon the radio network of the Columbia Broadcasting Company permanently seals off the peepholes through which millions of housewives for many years followed the family fortunes of the Perkinses, the Malones, the Bradens and the Burtons.

In one lethal stroke, CBS erased the last of its daytime radio serials, more often called soap operas, in a sweeping program reorganization. But because it has had since August to tinker with the story lines, it was able to send each of the four into oblivion with nothing but happiness ahead.

"Ma Perkins," dean of CBS soaps (it started in August, 1933), celebrated Thanksgiving with the entire family gathered at the Perkins house, notes a special press release from the network, and Ma herself "sees happiness ahead, primarily because Anushka and her grandson Junior will be married next month."

After 20 years, things are finally looking good at the Braden house in "Right to Happiness." Dick has been paroled from prison, his parents are reconciled, Grace has told Skip he is the only boy in her life, and Lee's court case has wound up satisfactorily. Thus Lee and Carolyn "now face the future with assurance, the events of the past few weeks having brought them closer together than ever."

"Young Doctor Malone," another serial 20 years old, has been concerned for months over whether Dr. Jerry (originally young, but now old enough to think of retiring) would consider taking back his old job as clinic head. He did—today. What's more, Mrs. Scott decided that she would, after all, attend her son's marriage.

Finally, "The Second Mrs. Burton," (vintage 1946) decided not to take her young artist-protégé abroad and now can concentrate "all her energies into preparing for an ambitious Christmas bazaar."

Two other hardy radio series depart, too, but they are weekly features and episodic so carefully constructed swan-songs were not necessary: "Have Gun, Will Travel," parent of the popular TV version, and "Suspense." Remaining are "Gunsmoke," a Western of course, and "Johnny Dollar," a private eye series.
