

Algiers Battleground

Angry demonstrators battle army tanks in the Rue Michelet in downtown Algiers during rioting in the city. The tanks rolled over barricades set up by the rioters who were protesting French President de Gaulle's arrival in Algiers to sell his self-determination policy.

DeGaulle To Cut Short Trip Following Algerian Rioting

ALGIERS (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle decided today to cut short his six-day tour of Algeria in the wake of bloody rioting which killed 65 persons and injured more than 300.

The French president will end his handshaking search for support of his self-determination policy for Algeria on Tuesday, a full day earlier than planned, and return to Paris.

No official reason was given but the uprisings Sunday in Algiers and Oran bordering on open insurrection may have led to his decision to hurry back to the seat of government.

De Gaulle has kept in touch with Paris officials by telephone during his trip but may have decided that dealing with the danger of further revolt and fighting between Europeans and Moslems in Algeria required first-hand attention in the capital.

It also is possible that officials had persuaded the usually stubborn general that his continued presence in Algeria might lead itself to even greater disorder.

Resentment against his trip to spread his program of home rule for Algeria touched off right-wing Europeans to riot in Algiers and Oran. The Moslem masses broke their sullen silence to get into the fighting.

De Gaulle revised his schedule today. Instead of visiting Collo, a small city on the coast in eastern Algeria, and Philippeville, he was making trips to several military posts in the L'Aure region. It was in this mountainous area that the Moslem rebellion against French rule in Algeria broke out six years ago.

De Gaulle spent Sunday night at Bougie and at daybreak left by car for a helicopter base at D'Ain-Arnat near Setif.

He was far from the roaring gun battles and street fights between thousands of European settlers and Moslems that raged in the streets of Algiers and Oran Sunday.

French paratroops fired on rampaging Moslems in Algiers in the bloodiest clash since the nationalist rebellion broke out six years ago.

Before nightfall, 61 persons lay dead in the streets of the capital—55 Moslems, 5 Europeans and one French police officer. Four persons were killed in the Oran fighting.

Behind the long-feared outbreak of smoldering hatred between right-wing European settlers and Moslems were two underground organizations—the European rightists' Front for a French Algeria (FAF), and the rebels' National Liberation Front (FLN).

Army Mixup Gets Discharge

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A Miami man is getting out of the Army ahead of time because the service made him a weatherman instead of a missileman.

Spec. 4 Fred W. Garlick brought suit in U.S. District Court in Texas, charging the Army failed to honor its recruiting promise that he'd have a choice of military schools. He asked to become a missileman and wound up a weatherman.

His attorney said Sunday the Army has decided to give Garlick a discharge this week rather than fight his "breach of promise" lawsuit.

Rescue Practice Becomes Real

DANVERS, Mass. (AP)—A Boy Scout troop turned rescue practice into the real thing Sunday.

One of the Scouts, out on a lost persons search drill, saw Thomas Barbrick, 12, break through thin ice on College Pond. Scout-master George Murray, 33, ran to his car for a rope, crawled 130 feet onto the ice, threw the line to Barbrick, and hauled the boy to safety.

Every Christian Can Succeed

Every failure in the Christian life has been unnecessary. God has promised to make it possible for each of us to succeed. "There hath no temptation taken you but such is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it." I Cor. 10:13.

Let us therefore, rely on the Lord's strength, and we will succeed. "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of His might." Eph. 6:10.

One important thing is to attend the services of the Lord's church. This is the Lord's plan, and it works well. (Heb. 10:25). It will help us keep strong in the strength of the Lord.

Welcome to the services at 3900 West Highway 80. Three preaching services a week: Sundays, 10:30 a.m., 7:30 p.m. and Thursdays, 7:30 p.m.

Tom Farber, Christian, a member of the Church of Christ.

Demos To Face Same Interest Conflict Test

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., said today President-elect John F. Kennedy's top appointees will face the same kind of conflict-of-interest inquiries as those of President Eisenhower.

Mansfield slated to become the Senate majority leader, said he hopes the new Congress will write "a reasonable set of rules" to eliminate barriers he said now cause some men to reject government service.

Among these barriers, he indicated, is the requirement that certain Cabinet officers divest themselves of stock and business holdings before the Senate will confirm their nominations.

"To keep the matter from becoming involved in political controversy we are going to have to apply the same rules to the new president's appointees as those which governed President Eisenhower's nominations," Mansfield said in an interview.

"But after we have confirmed Cabinet members and other high officials I hope Congress will bring in some new rules on conflict-of-interest that will eliminate some of the provisions that are unfair to nominees."

"We should have a reasonable set of rules under which good men, regardless of their wealth or lack of it, could be brought into the government."

In 1953 the Senate required Charles E. Wilson to divest himself of his General Motors stock before it would agree to confirm his appointment as secretary of defense. Wilson was the head of General Motors at the time.

Under Mansfield's edict, the same rule would apply to any big business man chosen by Kennedy for that post. Robert S. McNamara, Ford Motor Co., president, has been among those mentioned for the Defense post.

Kennedy laid down the rule during the campaign that no federal appointee could have "any financial interest" in a business enterprise dealing with the government. He barred acceptance of gifts by federal officials from such enterprises.

Kennedy indicated that as president he will accept no personal gifts, a rule that Eisenhower did not follow. The president-elect has not indicated whether he would transfer his personal holdings to a trust, as Eisenhower did.

Teen-Agers Convicted

Dale Allen Johnson, left, of Salt Lake City and George Mitropoulos, Monterey, Calif., both 15 years old, were convicted of first-degree murder at Salt Lake City, Utah. The pair was charged with slaying a substitute night watchman in a Labor Day shooting. The jury that found them guilty recommended leniency. A first-degree conviction without the leniency recommendation in Utah would have carried a mandatory death sentence.

Expert Begs Off On Jack's Weather

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Charles Greeley Abbot, 87, long-range weather forecaster for the Smithsonian Institution, is begging off making any forecasts for John F. Kennedy's inauguration day.

He correctly predicted, months in advance, fair weather for the last Roosevelt inaugural in 1945 and the Truman inaugural in 1949. He had a near-miss on the first Eisenhower inaugural in 1953, and decided not to try on Eisenhower's second in 1957.

Staunch Republican Abbot—"I was born in New Hampshire and I'm still a good Republican"—says he hopes the senator from neighboring Massachusetts will have fine weather on January 20.

He explained he's begging off again because he no longer has faith in the weather forecast system he used for the Roosevelt and Truman inaugurations.

Abbot, a tall man with a drooping moustache, formerly was secretary of the Smithsonian. He still is on the staff as a research associate.

The system he formerly used to forecast inaugural weather was restricted to weather in the nation's capital—and called the shot for particular days as much as a year in advance.

The probabilities of fair or foul weather on a particular day were based, he held, on cycles of precipitation occurring within a 27-day period, with the cycles being influenced by variations in solar radiation.

For almost 20 years, he says, his forecasts were pretty close to the mark.

But he said early in the 1950s the forecasts began to go somewhat haywire.

"I don't know the reason," he says, "but since the system depended upon atmospheric conditions associated with solar radiation, it's possible that all those atomic explosions, releasing products of combustion into the atmosphere, may have altered the picture."

While he has given up on this particular system, Abbot says he is sticking to his guns on a much more extensive long-range system announced last March.

Under that one, he has ventured predictions through 1967 for 32 American cities, with primary attention to forecasting average expected weather for four-month intervals.

He says so far it seems to be working well—"I've had especially good reports from Oklahoma and Kansas and have done well here in Washington."

Herter Lauds NATO Ability

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter expressed confidence today in the ability of the North Atlantic Alliance to meet "the changing conditions of the coming decade."

In a statement prepared for his departure for an Allied foreign ministers conference at Paris, Herter made no specific reference to proposals for creating a separate NATO nuclear rocket striking force.

However, he was known to be taking with him a number of suggestions as to how such a force might be created.

These suggestions cover the possibility that the United States may provide Europe's NATO command with several hundred Polaris missiles which would be subject to use by NATO rather than U.S. decision.

As the spokesman for the outgoing Eisenhower administration, Herter will not be in a position in Paris to make any commitment about future U.S. policy when he meets with other ministers of the 15-nation NATO Council Dec. 16-18.

African Art And Dress

Betty Campbell, left, models the latest fashion in women's clothing for African women over her own "American" shirtwaist dress. The finger painting between Betty and her sister, Peggy, was done by an African artist who has sold much of his work. It is the African's view of Christ, carrying the cross while surrounded by Roman soldiers, and is largely done in black and white, although there is color worked in the background of the painting.

Missionary Sisters Are At Home For Holidays

By VIVIAN LEE

LAMESA (SC)—Betty and Peggy Campbell, this town's missionary sisters have arrived home in time to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Campbell.

Peggy has been in Elisabethville, Katanga Province of the Congo, for the past three years as a short-term missionary under the direction of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church. Betty, who rounded out three years of service in the same capacity in Cuba just a year ago this month, left early in June for the Belgian Congo to visit her sister.

The two had saved and planned ahead so that they might tour the Holy Land and other foreign places before returning to the United States, but the incidents which occurred after the Congo gained her independence, prevented this.

When they finally left Africa in September, they visited several European nations as they made their way back to the United States.

Soon after Betty arrived in Elisabethville, the Campbell sisters were among those asked by the American Consulate to leave, and they went into Southern Rhodesia. Peggy was allowed to return after three weeks, but Betty remained and worked in an experimental international and interracial living under the direction of the World Council of Churches.

The girls saw none of the violence and turbulence which broke out during the first days of July and has continued for months since these incidents occurred largely in the central Congo.

While working in Elisabethville, a city of some 70,000, Peggy was in charge of a dormitory of Congolese girls ranging in age from 13 to 18.

Education is the most important thing for the people of the Congo at this time, Peggy believes. The 40 girls in her dormitory were studying to become teachers and nurses, professions where the need is acute.

Ordinarily girls are given very little education in Africa. Those studying under the mission school program will teach in the first and second grades since there is no opportunity for them to receive higher education there at this time.

Civilization has entered some parts of the Congo; Elisabethville is a modern city, Peggy related, but five miles outside the city the people live just as their fathers and grandfathers did.

There are about 250 languages spoken by tribes in the Congo, each having its own dialect. Swahili, an African Bantu language, is the trade language used throughout Eastern Africa, and the one Peggy learned to converse with the natives.

Betty and Peggy are graduates of Lamesa High School and McMurry College, Abilene; both have completed their work with the Methodist Mission Board, and Betty plans to follow a career in the field of education.

Peggy is undecided about the future. She just wants a little time to catch up after three years far away from home.

ESA Chapters Give Yule Dance

Members of Mu Kappa and Alpha Chi Chapters of Epsilon Sigma Alpha with their husbands and dates gathered at Cosden County Club Saturday evening for dancing.

About 50 couples danced to the music of Steve Birdwell and his orchestra from Snyder.

Bells, wreaths and twinkling lights decorated the party rooms for the occasion. The dance was the first time the two chapters had joined forces for a social event.

Progressive Dinner Planned For For

A progressive dinner for members of the Spoudatio Fora will begin Tuesday at 6 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Bill Coleman, 1100 Lloyd, when the group will meet for cocktails. They will then go to Masters Cafeteria, where dinner will be served.

Dessert and coffee will be served at the home of Mrs. J. W. Dickens, 624 McEwen, and a Christmas program will be presented.

Wedding music was furnished by Nelda Emberton, pianist, and Jeanette Schaffer, soloist.

Mrs. Donald Stringer was matron of honor and Mrs. Billy Wilson, bridesmaid. Robert Scott was the bridegroom's best man and Billy Wilson, groomsmen. Ushering were Wayne Hill and Glen Toles.

For her marriage the bride wore a two-piece dressmaker suit of ice blue wool and white velvet hat embellished with feathers and sequins and tiny veil. She carried white carnations on a white satin Bible.

Her attendants, dressed in darker blue sheaths, designed with bracelet sleeves and boat necklines, had nosegays of white carnations.

The wedding reception was held at Woman's Study Club building where blue and white were featured in the decorations. Members of the house party included Marjorie Harkrider, Diane Hancock, Linda Nelson, Donna Callis, Mrs. Mac Nelson and Mrs. Charles Jones.

Guests were registered from Hobbs, Lubbock, Midland, Odessa and Lamesa.

Mrs. Hungerford is a senior at Lamesa High School and will remain here to continue her schooling. After a short wedding trip, Hungerford, who is serving in the U. S. Army, will report for duty at Fort Bragg, N. C. He is a graduate of Klondike High School.

Shower Is Courtesy For Mrs. Lovelady

A miscellaneous shower, given Saturday afternoon, was a courtesy for Mrs. Donald Lovelady, the former Brenda Gordon. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gordon, 1509 E. 6th; the bridegroom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, 1503 Eleventh Place, and the son of Mrs. Mamie Ann Steek of Colorado City.

The couple was married in the First Baptist Church in Denton, Nov. 18.

Greeting guests was Mrs. Lonnie Coker, in whose home the party was given; she presented Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Lovelady and Mrs. Wilson. At the register were Mrs. Larry Shortes and Honey Anne Steek, sister of the bridegroom.

White tapers in holders of tiny forget-me-nots enhanced the tea table, which was laid with a white linen cutwork cloth over blue, chosen colors of the bride. White doves formed the centerpiece, and the same motif was repeated in the miniature frosting doves which decorated the white cake.

Assisting in the house party were Linda Heflin, Mrs. Ronnie Howard, Mrs. Whitney Reynolds, Mrs. Jimmy Hayworth, Mrs. Ed Harris and Mrs. Paschal Odom.

Hostesses who joined Mrs. Coker included Mrs. J. O. Hagood, Mrs. Harold Farquhar, Mrs. S. M. Smith, Mrs. Sam McComb, Mrs. J. F. Skalicky, Mrs. J. D. Ward, Mrs. Gus Barr, Mrs. Tom Buckner, Mrs. Ray Shortes and Mrs. Ray McMahan.

Cafeteria Workers Have Yule Dinner

Local school cafeteria workers gathered Saturday evening for a Christmas dinner and gift exchange with their husbands and guests.

The dinner was given at Marcy School with carol singing as part of the diversion. Games of bingo climaxed the festivity.

Red Dress Party Is Christmas Courtesy

Mrs. Dale Smith and Mrs. J. J. Hardegee were hostesses for a red dress party Saturday in the Smith home, with about 60 friends calling from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m.

On the refreshment table, a sandalwood cloth formed the background for an arrangement of white carnations and golden Christmas balls. Five-branched candelabra of brass held green tapers and milkglass appointments contained yuletide dainties.

Miss Martha M. Smith popped off—with a cap pistol—at newsmen and photographers just before she moved out of her San Francisco flat. Finally she packed her household articles, took in tow her two dogs, waved her toy gun and departed to a new residence.

New Methods For Law Up To Legislature

By LEE JONES
AUSTIN (AP)—New methods of dealing with Texas' criminal element and for meting out justice to the accused may be considered by the next Legislature, a survey of lawmakers' pre-session views show.

Some legislators are likely to attempt to strike down capital punishment, jury assessment of sentences and the 17-year-old upper limit at which juvenile delinquent becomes an adult crook. These and other changes in the Texas criminal code were suggested in replies to an Associated Press questionnaire.

SET PENALTY

"Allow judges to set the penalty after a jury has found a person guilty," one legislator said.

Abolition of the death penalty stands near the top of Rep. Charles Whitfield's list of major problems confronting the 57th Legislature.

Rep.-elect Dan Struve of Campbellton says he favors steps to banish capital punishment from Texas.

"I would favor abolition of capital punishment if those persons convicted of such crimes as murder or other heinous crimes could be effectively prevented from returning to live in our society," Struve said.

Rep.-elect Charles Wilson of Trinity also said the death penalty should be abolished.

STRIP JURIES

Several lawmakers said juries should be stripped of their power to sentence convicted offenders. Sen. Charles Herring of Austin said he favored several changes in Texas' criminal law, "including sentencing by the court and release of a jury at the discretion of the judge in certain cases."

New ways of handling juvenile offenders were suggested by two lawmakers. Rep. John Blaine of El Paso said he favors juvenile parole supervision. "Lower the age of responsibility," said Rep.-elect Henry Grover of Houston.

Two freshman representatives from Houston have announced they will introduce a bill to set up a legislative committee to investigate subversive activities in the state.

SUBVERSIVES

Reps.-elect W. H. Miller and Don Garrison said they hope to make voters and legislators "aware of the extent to which subversive organizations and individuals have infiltrated positions of high influence."

Another law enforcement measure up every two years for legislative action is the appropriation for the state's police forces. Col. Homer Garrison, chief of the Department of Public Safety, said he wants some $8 million more this coming biennium for his agency than was granted for the current two-year period.

Two-thirds of the legislators who replied to AP's questionnaire stated they probably would be willing to endorse a larger budget for the DPS.

Rep. B. H. Dewey of Bryan said he would like to see the state require chemical tests to determine whether a person picked up for traffic violations is intoxicated.

A measure not mentioned by the lawmakers but likely to come up during the session is a stringent new pistol permit law. The attorney general recently held unconstitutional the state's only legal regulations on pistol sales.

Harris County Dist. Atty.-elect Frank Briscoe said jail sentences should be assessed persons carrying pistols without permits. Third and subsequent offenses should be felonies and punished by prison terms, Briscoe believes.

Winter Scene

This scene was common in El Paso after eight inches of snow fell along the West Texas and Southwest New Mexico border. Motorists were stranded and traffic almost halted as 20-mile-an-hour winds piled snow up to 14 inches in some spots.

Snow-Ice Storm Hits Hard Blows In East

By The Associated Press

A pre-winter snow-ice storm, sweeping out of the Southwest and across the midlands, struck damaging blows in the eastern part of the nation today.

The first heavy snow of the season, up to a foot in some areas, blanketed wide areas eastward to the Atlantic Coast and into parts of the South.

The snow, strong winds and freezing weather came 10 days before winter's official start.

The storm was blamed for at least 15 deaths over the weekend. Most of them resulted from traffic accidents on icy or snow-covered streets or from over-exertion while shoveling snow.

Nearly a foot of snow piled up in the western Maryland mountain region. In northern Virginia, with more than six inches on the ground, falls of a foot were predicted.

Snow measured nearly a foot in the West Virginia eastern Panhandle. Between 4 and 8 inches covered areas in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey and foot-high falls were in prospect in some sections of Pennsylvania.

Heavy snow was forecast from southeastern Pennsylvania northward into southern Maine.

Traffic was a mess in the big cities and the drifting snow was a virtual car-stopper in some rural sections. In Philadelphia, Washington, New York, Cleveland and many other cities, travel was bumper-to-bumper as gusty winds whirled the falling snow or glazed streets made motorists extra cautious. Hundreds of cars were stranded throughout the storm belt.

Airline flights were canceled or delayed in some cities. Schools in many parts of Ohio and New Jersey and in suburban areas of Washington and Philadelphia were closed.

Bus operations throughout the storm-swept region but they were far behind schedule.

Gale warnings were posted along the Atlantic Coast. Ship sailings were canceled out of Baltimore and inbound ships anchored in Chesapeake Bay. Racing at Pimlico track was canceled. Snow was expected to reach up to 10 inches in some parts of Maryland.

Washington struggled to clear streets of more than seven inches of snow, an unusually heavy fall for the nation's capital. Trouble calls from stranded motorists poured into emergency road service stations at the rate of 150-200 an hour. The Washington-New York pro football game in Griffith Stadium was delayed 45 minutes while workmen cleared drifts from the playing field.

Airline traffic was at a virtual standstill in New York City, hit by more than 4 inches of snow, with up to 7 inches in suburban areas.

New Jersey's snowfall ranged from 6 to 8 inches. Newark's airport was closed.

Driving conditions on the New Jersey and Pennsylvania turnpikes were dangerous and speed limit were reduced from 60 to 35 m.p.h.

The storm swept across the Midwest, dumping heavy snow in many areas, and sleet in some sections. Rain and sleet hit eastern sections before a cold front moved in and the precipitation changed to snow.

More than 11,000 homes in the Kansas City area were deprived of electric power as ice-laden trees snapped power lines. Many homes were without heat for 11 hours in freezing weather. At Hutchinson, in central Kansas, nearly 1,000 homes were without power. Power lines were covered with inch-thick ice. Snowfall ranged up to nine inches in parts of Kansas five inches in Kansas City, Mo.

Snow continued during the morning from the lower Great Lakes southward into eastern Kentucky and eastward through the middle and north Atlantic Coast states. More snow also fell in central sections of the Dakotas and Nebraska while snow flurries peppered the upper Great Lakes region.

The intense storm centered in North Carolina and moved northward.

Freezing or lower temperatures were reported across most sections from the Rockies to New England. It was below zero in parts of Montana and in the teens in many northern border states.

Miami was completely out of the cold pocket, with an early morning reading of 72.

Santa Doll Reflects Jap Yule Spirit

TOKYO (AP) — Even Dakko-chan looks like Santa Claus.

That's one sign that Tokyo, too, is getting ready for a big Christmas.

Dakko-chan, the clinging, winking doll that Japan gave to the world, now shows up in the sidewalk stalls wearing a red jacket and hat and sporting a white beard.

Recorded renditions of "Jingle Bells" and Japanese language versions of "Silent Night" fill the air.

Arches bearing real looking stained glass images of a mother and child extend over the sidewalks of the Ginza, Tokyo's famed tourist, shopping, restaurant, night club, cabaret area.

On one of the busiest intersections a cardboard choir of blond youngsters rears three stories, the feet planted on giant letters saying "Xmas sale."

One of the big department stores boasts a mammoth sprawling evergreen laden with artificial snow. Smaller trees in the expensive jewelry shops are decked with pearls and other baubles.

Many big stores have window decorations that might give New York's Fifth Avenue a brief run for the money.

That is more than a figure of speech, since the Japanese effort is aimed directly at the commercial aspect of the Christmas holiday. Except for a scattering of Japanese Christians and a few Western residents, Japan does not observe Christmas as a day of religious significance. But it is the time of the traditional year-end bonus for most Japanese workers and alert merchant is bidding for the money.

This year the escalators, elevators and stairways of the big stores are jammed with shoppers. Counters, cases and racks are overflowing with goods. Wrappings for packages bear holiday greetings and trimmings.

Railway stations in the heart of the city have Christmas trees. The "pachinko" or pinball parlors have added to their garish decorations signs saying "Merry Xmas" in English and Japanese.

Tea and coffee houses have scattered tinsel, wreaths, stars and bells with a lavish hand. Petite girls in the confectionery shop wear Santa type jackets and hats of red and white.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch — Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all — results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H® at all drug counters.

Floods Threaten Sections Of State As Storm Abates

By The Associated Press
Floods from heavy rains and snowfall threatened sections of Texas Monday as the worst cold wave and storm of the winter moved out of the state.
The greatest flooding threats were along the Trinity, Brazos, and Sabine Rivers and along Oyster Creek in Southeast Texas.
Bright sunshine and above-freezing temperatures Sunday melted much of the heavy blanket of snow that covered the Panhandle. Up to 18 inches of snow was reported in the Shamrock area Sunday.
The week-long storm brought snow and ice to the Panhandle and freezing mist that caused ice storms in a wide band across West Texas. Traffic was slowed and heavy damage to utility lines occurred in the ice storm areas. Torrential rains fell in the southern half of the state.

Maximum temperatures Sunday ranged from 36 degrees at El Paso to 67 at Laredo. The only precipitation reported Sunday was .03 of an inch at Amarillo, .08 at Childress, .02 at Dalhart, and .02 at Wichita Falls.

W. Virginia Casts Shadow

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP)—The skull-shaped shadow of West Virginia looms oppressively over Washington this week.
It is a symbolic shadow, representing the challenge President-elect John F. Kennedy and his special citizens' committee face in trying to halt creeping unemployment throughout the nation and to revitalize its economically depressed areas.
The citizens' committee, a task force of 21 business, labor, scholarly and government representatives, was appointed by Kennedy two weeks ago. The members held their organization meeting here last Friday.
The plan to convene again in Washington Wednesday, Thursday and Friday to draw up some measures which Kennedy can act on soon after he takes the oath on Jan. 20.
West Virginia is certain to play an important role in Kennedy's revitalization program.
The state is an ideal guinea pig. Its unemployment woes are representative of the majority of depressed areas pockets — a labor force left stagnant by changing economic conditions and shifting markets.
There's a personal reason, too. When Kennedy was waging a life-or-death campaign here last spring for the presidential nomination ("If I can't win here, I don't deserve the nomination"), he pledged he would take quick, positive action to correct West Virginia's economic ills.
The citizens committee has assigned itself six all-inclusive subjects, such as world trade and industry inducements. One of the six subjects is, simply, "West Virginia."

Laos Parliament Lashes Red Regime

VIENTIANNE, Laos (AP)—A majority of the Laos Parliament today moved to oust the day-old pro-Communist government of Quinim Pholsena.
Assembly President Tiao Som-santhit left Savannakhet for Luang Prabang to ask King Savang Vatthana to summon a special constitutional session, according to a dispatch from the AP correspondent at the rightist headquarters.
Rightist rebel deputies, holding 38 of 58 Assembly seats, stood ready to vote a quick death to the Quinim regime.
Savannakhet radio earlier claimed the Assembly already had voted to dissolve Quinim's government.
Quinim, minister of information in the old neutralist regime who seized power in Vientiane when government leaders fled, declared defiantly, "We will fight to the last bullet if they attack us."
Quinim indicated he would defy the assemblymen and possibly even King Vathana himself if the king comes out against the Vientiane regime.
The Soviet Union rushed arms and supplies by air to the leftists holding the capital, which is surrounded by right-wing pro-Western forces led by Gen. Phoumi Nosavan.
Witnesses said the Soviets secretly unloaded cargo which included at least four howitzers and 14 cases of ammunition. Soviet technicians also departed.
Neighboring Communist China and North Viet Nam are expected to lend their support to Quinim.
He had just returned from Hanoi, North Viet Nam's capital, when he seized power from a six-man junta and brought Laos its third change of government in four days.
The majority of the National Assembly, which fled to Gen. Phoumi's headquarters in Savannakhet, voted "no confidence in Quinim's government Sunday night, according to a Savannakhet radio broadcast today.
It said the Vientiane government, which is still officially headed by neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma but controlled by acting Premier Quinim, "is disloyal and stripped of all constitutional rights and powers."
Quinim took over the Laotian government Sunday from a military junta which had headed it for barely 24 hours.
Souvanna fled to neighboring Cambodia Friday night after two successive military changes of power in Vientiane. He had fled to a negotiated settlement of the six-year-old Laotian civil war.
Quinim would not comment on the National Assembly's action but said his troops would put up an all-out fight for the defense of Vientiane.

A hungry burglar entered Charlie's Cafe, 1810 Gregg, Saturday night and walked off with five pounds of cutlets and six pounds of sausage.

One other non burglary and theft are under police investigation today.
The Western Ice Co., 709 E. 3rd, was entered and 12 or 15 cartons of cigarettes taken. Burglars entered through the east door of the connecting grocery after breaking a pane of glass in the door.

Supreme Court Hits Louisiana Appeal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court unanimously upheld today a decision of a three-judge federal court in New Orleans which swept aside special Louisiana laws to preserve segregation.
Like the lower court, the Supreme Court bluntly rejected Louisiana's effort to block desegregation by invoking the old doctrine of interposition.
This is a theory that the state can interpose its sovereignty between federal courts and state citizens.
The Supreme Court said this doctrine is without substance, and cited an earlier ruling to this effect in an Arkansas school case.
In refusing Louisiana's plea to hold up effectiveness of the lower court ruling pending a full scale review by the Supreme Court, the high court said:
"The nub of decision of the three-judge court is this: 'The conclusion is clear that interposition is not a constitutional doctrine. If taken seriously, it is an illegal defiance of constitutional authority.'"
The main base for challenging this ruling is that the State of Louisiana "has interposed itself in the field of public education over which it has exclusive control."
"This objection is without substance, as we held, upon full consideration, in Cooper v. Aaron 358 U.S. 1. The others are likewise without merit. Accordingly, the motions for a stay are denied."

Jurists Strike Teacher Law On Affidavits

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today struck down as too broad an Arkansas law requiring public school teachers to make annual affidavits listing organizations to which they have belonged or contributed in the last five years.
Justice Stewart delivered the 5-4 decision. Justice Harlan wrote a dissent in which Justices Frankfurter, Clark and Whitaker joined. Justice Frankfurter also wrote a separate dissenting opinion.
Counsel for three former Arkansas teachers told the high court the law was aimed at the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and other organizations advocating racial integration in schools.
The statute, enacted at a special session of the Arkansas Legislature in 1958, requires a new statement from each teacher annually and provides that no person may be hired as a teacher unless such a list is given to school officials.
Arkansas teachers are hired on a year-to-year basis. The law does not require dismissal of teachers, or require a school board to take any action, regardless of organizations listed in teacher affidavits.
Stewart in the majority opinion said "the unlimited and indiscriminate sweep" of the Arkansas statute brought it within the ban of earlier similar cases decided by the Supreme Court.
"The statute's comprehensive interference with associational freedom goes far beyond what might be justified in the exercise of the state's legitimate inquiry into the fitness and competency of its teachers," he said.
Justice Harlan, in dissenting from the high court's majority view, said neither of the two cases "actually presents an issue of racial discrimination."
Harlan added, "the statute on its face applies to all Arkansas teachers irrespective of race, and there is no showing that it has been discriminatorially administered."
Frankfurter said in his dissenting opinion, in which Clark, Harlan and Whitaker concurred, that he did not feel the law exceeded the permissible range of state action limited by the 14th Amendment.

Integration Enters Its Fourth Week

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Public school integration moved into its fourth week here today, and School Superintendent James F. Redmond predicted a near-complete white boycott at two elementary schools would stand firm.
Gov. Jimmie H. Davis forged ahead with Louisiana's anti-integration battle. He called the legislature into its third straight special session. The new 30-day meeting will start Saturday.
"Think," Dr. Redmond said, "there are about as many white students in William Frantz School as we're going to see in there for a while. I think the boycott will hold pretty well this week."
White attendance rose to a peak of 23 at William Frantz last Friday, but slipped back to eight by Monday. No whites now attend McDonogh 19 school.
Four Negro first-grade girls have gone to the two integrated schools since Nov. 14.
The Rev. Lloyd C. Foreman, the Methodist Minister who continues to take his daughter to Frantz kindergarten in the face of leers and vandalism, urged imitation of Mahatma Gandhi.
The Rev. Mr. Foreman quoted Gandhi in a sermon Sunday: "I won't fight you. If you shoot me, you'll just have to shoot. I'm going to love you, live or die."
Later, the minister asked for more than love and prayers. He urged the congregation "to put feet to your prayers—to express yourself in letters to those who bear responsibilities for making decisions."
Davis' third session call contained a provision for a possible boost of one cent in the statewide sales tax to raise an extra $45 million annually. The money would promote private segregated schools and bolster state revenues for other purposes.
The Louisiana state sales tax, which began Nov. 4, cost $168,000, cost $420,000. The House voted Sunday night to accept the 650-per-day salaries only when actually meeting.
The House Sunday night passed a concurrent resolution cancelling pay for teachers at the two integrated schools unless they quit.
The New Orleans School Board immediately announced teachers at Frantz and McDonogh 19 would

Burglars Hit Lamesa Clinic

LAMESA (SC)—A pre-dawn burglary of the Medical Arts Clinic here netted thieves $484 in cash and narcotics valued at approximately $500.
Dust was still settling in the pharmacy at 4:50 a.m. today when the clinic janitor, Lasaro Landin, discovered the broken safe and summoned police.
Gaining entrance to the building through a rear door, the burglars apparently used a hammer and chisel to crush the concrete partition between the outer and inner doors of the safe. Various wrecking tools were found at the scene.
No arrests had been made this morning.

Airliner Helps Convict Escape

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A jet airliner flying at a low altitude was blamed Sunday for the escape of a dangerous convict.
Pedro Molina Salvador, charged with robbery and several hold-ups, was taken to jail in a jeep by Jose Diaz-Saucedo, a uniformed policeman.
"Look at the beautiful plane," Molina told his guardian at a busy city intersection, while the jet made its landing approach.
Diaz-Saucedo was so excited by the plane, that he lost sight of his captive for a minute, which was all that Molina needed to jump and get lost in the crowd.

Pacifist Freed In Surprise Move

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Dr. Willard Uphaus, 70, freed from a New Hampshire jail, said today his beliefs "against tale-bearing or hearing false witness" are as strong as ever.

The controversial pacifist and former Methodist lay preacher was released unexpectedly from Merrimack County jail in Bosca-wen, N. H., Sunday—two days before his scheduled departure.

Judge George R. Grant Jr. of New Hampshire Superior Court, ordered the release at the request of Uphaus' attorneys. His wife was on hand to greet him.

Uphaus issued a statement shortly after his arrival Sunday night, saying he had done "the only thing I could honorably have done."

He was jailed Dec. 14, 1959 for rejecting an official demand for names of those who attended a

Fire Expenses, Library Discussed In Joint Meet

LAMESA (SC) — The rural fire protection contract between the city of Lamesa and Dawson County was extended for 90 days and preliminary plans on a proposed annex to the Dawson County Public Library building, not yet under construction, was authorized at a joint meeting of the Lamesa City Council and Commissioners' Court here Thursday.

The contract was extended from Jan. 1 to March 31, 1961 to allow the Commissioners' Court to decide whether or not to purchase a fire truck for rural areas. The present contract, which expires Dec. 31, provides for the Lamesa fire department to furnish rural protection for $8,000.

The council has requested that the county's share be raised from $2,000 to $12,000 for 1961. The hike was based on an estimate of the percentage of calls made outside the city limits this year. The court, however, felt they could obtain a truck and turn it over to the city for use, rather than continue payments.

Howard Allen, architect who is presently drawing plans for the library, was authorized to complete preliminary sketches on a proposed annex, which will be used to house the South Plains Health Unit and the county welfare office.

The health department is presently located in the old library and will be displaced when the building is removed for construction of the new facility. The annex is expected to cost $15,000 and will also be joined with the Chamber of Commerce.

No definite action was taken on the proposal but both groups indicated they would split the costs. The plans will be presented along with the library plans early next year.

The groups also discussed financing of the joint police radio system used here, but took no definite action on the matter. The county has been contemplating the purchase of a new base station and would operate it independently. Presently, the city operates the station, KKD-351, for all law authorities in Dawson County.

Violence Kills 18

By The Associated Press

Violent deaths in Texas over the weekend claimed at least 18 lives with traffic accidents blamed for 10 of the reported fatalities.

The highway toll was below that of previous weekends. Snow, ice and rains that slowed traffic in many sections of the state was credited in helping to reduce the death count.

This unusual picture of a Mimosa is proof that the popular trees can be pretty even out of season. Graham Calls Racial Issue A World Problem

DALLAS (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham told the nation's largest all-white Baptist Church Sunday that "the race problem is a world problem."

Graham spoke at the First Baptist Church here where the pastor, the Rev. W. A. Criswell, has been outspokenly against integration. Graham holds his membership at the church but there is talk that he soon will move his membership to a church nearer his Montreal, N.C., home.

The evangelist touched only lightly on integration in his talk here which followed a week of preaching at Las Vegas, Nev., and addressing young ministers at the Southwestern Theological Seminary in nearby Fort Worth.

Most of his sermon was devoted to the struggle of the free world with communism.

He said he believed Russia's military might has been overrated and said he thought this country was far in front from a military standpoint.

Ex-Oil Field Man Aids Crime Probe

DALLAS (AP) — A former oil field roughneck is scheduled to go before a grand jury at Beaumont Tuesday, and his appearance may start a new public investigation by the House General Investigating Committee.

The ex-roughneck is Rep. Tom James of Dallas, vice-chairman of the committee.

This same young man wound up a similar role in Amarillo some months back. And when he did, he left a county judge, two sheriff's deputies and others under indictments.

James, 31, now primarily is looking into the law enforcement situation in the Beaumont area.

"As a public official, nothing guts you as deeply as finding another public official with his hand out," James said in an interview.

"Why doesn't Beaumont take care of its own problem?" He was asked.

"Several men — in the Chamber of Commerce, in the newspapers

President Lauds Armed Forces Work Of YMCA

President Eisenhower today lauded the Young Men's Christian Association for its work on behalf of America's Armed Forces, declaring this service to be a major contribution to national security.

This information was received by Dan M. Krause, president of the Big Spring Y.M.C.A. from the organization's national headquarters.

"By advancing the physical and moral strength of men and women in uniform," the President said, "the YMCA helps to ensure a continuance of our way of life and a full measure of individual freedom."

The President's views were expressed in a congratulatory letter addressed to the National Board of Y.M.C.A.'s on the eve of the Association's 100th Anniversary of service to the nation's fighting men.

The Y.M.C.A. movement will commemorate this Anniversary throughout the country in 1961.

The Y's Armed Services work began in 1961, when a group of local Y.M.C.A. Associations formed the United States Christian Commission. The Commission sent 4,859 volunteers to battlefields, hospitals and camps in an effort to provide spiritual and physical relief to Union and Confederate soldiers.

Subsequently, the Y.M.C.A. directed practically all volunteer services for troops in the Spanish-American War, handled nine-tenths of all welfare work in World War I, and operated a quarter of all American-based U. S. O. Clubs during World War II and the Korean conflict. The Y also provided spiritual, educational and recreational services to millions of prisoners-of-war in more than 30 countries.

O'Keefe Rites Slated Tuesday

Thomas Edward O'Keefe, 31, retired railroad mechanic and last surviving member of the local Council No. 1482 of the Knights of Columbus, died in a hospital here at 4:30 a.m. Sunday.

Mr. O'Keefe had been in failing health since last August.

Mr. O'Keefe was born Oct. 24, 1879 in Indianapolis, Ind., and came here originally in 1885, only four years after the T&P had arrived and the village of Big Spring had sprung up.

He worked for the T&P for 20 years, then went with the MK&T in Fort Worth, where he served an additional 2 1/2 years before he retired in 1945. He and Mrs. O'Keefe then moved back to Big Spring to establish their home at 1503 Johnson.

LAMESA (SC)—David Fry, vice president of the Eastland National Bank for the past six years, has been elected to a similar position with the First National Bank of Lamesa, J. W. Bryant, chairman of the board, announced.

Fry will assume his new duties here on Jan. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Fry, both graduates of Abilene Christian College, plan to move here later this month. They have three children.

The banker was employed by the First State Bank of Abilene prior to accepting a position with the Eastland bank. He was elected vice president at Eastland in 1959.

He is also president of the Lions Club there, a past director of the Chamber of Commerce and United Fund. The family attends the Church of Christ.

Fry is currently serving as vice president of the West Texas chapter of the National Association of Bank Auditors and Comptrollers and is a graduate of the School of Banking in the South.

He is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Fry of Star and is a graduate of Tolia High School.

DEAR ABBY

BARBERS NOTE

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: This is for the mothers taking their children to the barber shop on Saturday. Unless the barber wants me in his shop with all my seven children—ranging from 11 months to 12 years—he had better keep quiet. My husband stays at home with the younger ones while I take the older boys for haircuts. And Saturday is the only day I have the car.

SATURDAY LADY

DEAR ABBY: If I had my way, I'd never set foot in a barber shop, but what can I do when my husband refuses to take the boys for hair cuts? Saturday is his day to relax and unless I want my boys mistaken for girls, I have to take them to the barber shop myself.

"STUCK"

DEAR ABBY: I almost blew my top when I read where the barber complained about cutting children's hair on Saturdays. He gets as much for cutting a child's hair as he does an adult's. Half the time our barber turns out the kids looking like nincompoops. If he sang like Perry Como I would not mind, but he whistles off-key.

BORN TO LOSE

DEAR ABBY: Tell that barber that the reason mothers take their children to the barber on Saturdays is because the fathers are busy working to earn the fantastic price of a haircut.

WORKING FATHER

DEAR ABBY: I am a barber with 30 years' experience, and that barber who wrote to you should be kicked out of the union, if he belongs to one. A good barber welcomes children any time, and gives them bubble gum and lollipop for good behavior. And we WANT mothers to tell us how to cut their hair. That's the only way we are sure they are satisfied and will come back.

ANDY THE BARBER

DEAR ABBY: I am a barber's wife and I agree with the barber who prefers to have children come in on week-days and leave Saturday for the working men. My husband earns one-third of his salary on Saturday and doesn't want to be slowed up by fidgety kids who cry and squirm. And mothers coaching from the sidelines make him nervous. Saturdays should be reserved for ADULTS ONLY.

BARBER'S WIFE

DEAR ABBY: My husband was getting his hair cut the afternoon Pittsburgh won the Series. His hair hasn't grown out yet.

PITTSBURGH WIFE

DEAR WIFE: He's lucky he wasn't getting a shave.

DEAR ABBY: About barbers: I have eight boys. At today's prices, it would cost me $14 a week for haircuts, so I bought a barber kit and learned how to cut hair myself. My husband laughed at me at first, then he came home one day looking like his hair had been cut with a knife and fork. He asked me to try to patch it up a little. I did such a good job he begs me to give him a haircut every week.

Packers Clinch Tie For Western Title

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Green Bay Packers have clinched a tie for their first Western Conference title since 1944, apparently ending the Baltimore Colts' two-year reign as National Football League kings.

And the Packers seem to have gotten one of their biggest assists from a former Vanderbilt star named Billy Wade, who engineered the Los Angeles Rams to a 10-3 victory over the Colts Sunday.

Wade ran 66 yards for the deciding touchdown as the Rams prevented the defending world champions from tying the Packers for first place in the West. Green Bay broke a three-way tie Saturday, sloshing to a 13-0 victory over San Francisco in the mud of Kezar Stadium.

However, the Colts' loss, and a 23-14 Detroit victory over Dallas has created another three-way tie—for this time for second place—in the conference. Baltimore, San Francisco and the Lions, each 6-5, trail Green Bay by a game. The Packers are 7-4, with the regular season coming to a close this weekend.

Then, Los Angeles will try to play spoiler twice in a row, meeting Green Bay, while the Colts play San Francisco. Detroit meets the Chicago Bears, creating the possibility of a three-way tie if the Packers lose and two of the other three win.

The Bears were eliminated by Cleveland, 42-0, with the latter retaining a half game edge for second place in the Eastern Conference over the New York Giants.

The Giants, plagued by five inches of snow in Washington, beat the Redskins, 17-3, to set up a showdown for runnerup in the East next Sunday with the Browns. The teams meet in New York, with the winner playing the eventual second place team in the West in a post-season game Jan. 7 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

The Eastern champion Philadelphia Eagles suffered their first loss since opening day as Pittsburgh held on for a 27-21 upset.

In the American League, Houston clinched the Eastern championship with a 31-23 triumph over Buffalo after Los Angeles had grabbed the Western title by defeating Denver 41-33 in a Saturday game. Dallas thumped Boston 34-0 and New York edged Oakland 31-28 on Sunday's program.

The Rams (3-6-1) completely humiliated Baltimore's offense-laden Colts, snapping Johnny Unitas' TD-a-game streak at 47 while handing the roiling champs their third straight setback.

Baltimore, failing to score a touchdown for the first time since a 1956 loss to Detroit, took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on Steve Myhra's nine-yard field goal. It stood up until Wade electrified the crowd of 75,461 in Los Angeles.

Unitas steered the Colts' goalward in the closing minutes after Danny Villanueva's 33-yard field goal had built the Ram lead to 10-3, but with time running out Alex Hawkins fumbled on the 19, George Strugar recovered and Baltimore was finished.

Although he failed to connect for a TD, Unitas gained 182 yards through the air and broke the NFL one-season record for yards gained passing with 2,593. That eclipsed Sammy Baugh's 1947 mark by one yard.

Oilers, Los Angeles Vie For AFL Honors

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Houston will ring in the New Year in grand style, with its hometown Oilers meeting Los Angeles in the American Football League's first title game.

Both clubs won division titles over the weekend and will fight for the championship Jan. 1 in Houston.

Los Angeles got its crown Saturday before the home folks, beating Denver 41-33. Houston clinched the Eastern crown Sunday with a 31-23 triumph over Buffalo, also before the home-towners.

New York beat Oakland 31-28 in the last four minutes and Dallas bombed Boston 34-0 in other games Sunday.

In the National League, Los Angeles helped create a three-way tie for second place in the Western Division with a 10-3 victory over the Baltimore Colts. The Colts are tied with Detroit, which beat Dallas 23-14, and San Francisco, beaten 13-0 Saturday by first place Green Bay. Cleveland walloped Chicago 42-0, Pittsburgh broke eastern champion Philadelphia's win streak at nine 27-21, and New York won over Washington 17-3.

Quarterback George Blanda celebrated his return to the Houston lineup by tossing scoring passes of 39, 6 and 21 yards and adding a 53-yard field goal for the Oilers, who stand 9-4 with one game left.

Los Angeles (9-4) came from behind three times, before capitalizing on a poor punt midway in the last period. Quarterback Jack Kemp engineered a 9-play, 35-yard drive, capping it with a 1-yard plunge. Ben Agajanian's conversion made it 24-23 and Kemp's third touchdown pass a short time later merely added some frills. Denver quarterback Frank Tripucka had two scoring tosses and team with end Lionel Taylor for nine completions.

New York quarterback Al Dorow threw three touchdowns passes, the last a 20-yarder to Dewey Bohling for the final point. Bill Shockley's 27-yard field goal in the third period turned out to be the margin of difference. Tom Flores also threw scoring passes of 14, 19 and 3 yards while one of Dorow's was a 73-yard play to Art Powell.

Dallas used some long-distance plays in its victory over Boston. Duane Wood ran 66 yards with an intercepted pass for a score, Johnny Robinson scampered 62 with a punt return for another and Cotton Davidson passed 32 to Chris Burford for a third. Jack Spikes also got into the act, kicking a 46-yard field goal, as the Texans led Boston past midfield only twice.

Italians End U.S. Bid For Davis Cup

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

P E R T H, Australia (AP)—Italy's veteran combination of Nicola Pietrangeli and Orlando Sirola rose to tennis heights today and abruptly ended the United States bid for the Davis Cup with surprise victories in the final two singles matches of the inter-zone final.

As Pietrangeli defeated 20-year-old Earl (Butch) Buchholz of St. Louis 6-1, 6-2, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4 and towering Sirola soundly whipped 25-year-old Larry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, 9-7, 6-3, 8-6, the U.S. failed to reach the challenge round for the first time since 1936.

For Pietrangeli and Sirola it capped 16 years of cup play and gave Italy the right to challenge for the coveted international trophy for the first time in history. They meet Australia at Sydney Dec. 26-28.

Down 2-0 after Buchholz had beaten Sirola and MacKay had taken a heartbreaker from Pietrangeli in the opening singles, the Italians came back and won the doubles Sunday after a tense five-set struggle with the U.S. schoolboy combination of Buchholz and Chuck McKinley.

Even then they were not given much chance of beating the youth-inspired American team. But Pietrangeli squared the series by whipping Buchholz in a thrilling five setter. Still the Americans were favored even though MacKay has lost in the 1959 French championships.

Sirola, however, was far from awed at the American's big game. He stood MacKay off until he pulled out the deuced first set, whipped through the second with two breaks of the American's service and then wrapped it up in a hard fought third set.

Winsham Lad Is Sunland Surprise

EL PASO—Winsham Lad proved to be the surprise package of the day as he completely reversed his "come from behind" tactics and won the featured Pan Zareta purse.

Under the top impost of 120 pounds, the carrying of the Ternac Stable rolled out of the gate to an early lead and was never headed as he coasted under the wire three lengths ahead of Just-A-Dream who was six lengths ahead of Footfall.

It was a winning double of the day for Jockey Gale Mower who said he planned to steal the race after the speed horse Masud was a late scratch.

Time for the six and one half furlongs was 1:22 2/5 over a heavy track. Despite the usual up-ending of the form chart over such tracks, five favorites came bounding home.

The fourth race quinella provided a record payoff of $361.30. Chilly weather with snow in the area held the crowd to 3,231 hardy fans and the wagering to $179,239.

Carter Wins First In World Tourney

CHICAGO (AP) — Don Carter of St. Louis won the $7,500 first prize in the fourth annual World's Invitational Bowling Tournament despite the unusual family distraction in the final position round.

While Don was defending his championship Sunday in the $48,000 fourth annual tournament, his attractive blonde wife, LaAverne, was challenging the women's leader on the next pair of lanes for the $4,000 top prize.

Trying to keep his attention on both matches at the same time, Don lost his final match, 224-314, to runner-up Joe Joseph of Detroit.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Carter won her final match with Mrs. Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., 581-564, but fell 18 pins short of catching Mrs. Ladewig on Peterson points.

Carter finished his 16 matches with 309-18 (or 309 and 18-50th) Peterson points, while Joseph took the second prize of $3,750 with 307-32 points. Forty-seven year-old Steve Nagy of St. Louis, oldest man in the field of 16, finished a close third with 307-29 points and won $2,000.

Webb Pair Match Talents In Base Bowling Alley

Knocking down 504 sticks two Friday nights ago, S.M. Sgt. John Homberg earned high individual honors, while helping the Go-Getters shut out the Pin Twisters at the Webb Bowling Alley.

That was his best performance so far this season. The same night his wife Doris, caught fire for a 465 to mark her best score since the fall. She also rolls on the Go-Getter squad.

"If I had turned in my usual 300 or so (plus handicap), Mrs. Homberg quipped, "there'd be no end to his 504. So, by matching his 170-186-148 with a 160-137-168, he still had to do the dishes that night."

Neither of the Hombergs could be called star bowlers. But the bowling couple enjoy coming out for the team.

She is a 130 bowler with a 23-pin average. She started regular competition three years ago, and pulled out John a year ago. He liked representative bowling, stayed with it, and now boasts a 132 clip and a 32-pin average.

Friday Night Mixed Doubles league competition on the base takes care of Sgt. Homberg's bowling. But "my wife," he said, "who literally taught me the game, sees action Monday nights in the Rock & Roller circuit."

There is another Mid-western outfit that might challenge Ohio State when the tournaments roll around next March. Bradley is the name, and rivals in New York's National Invitation tournament are well aware of it. While Ohio State was winning the NCAA national championship last season, Bradley was taking care of the NIT. In fact, in four straight years of NIT play, Bradley has won two championships and had a runner-up.

Ohio State pulverized Army Saturday, 103-54 for its third straight victory after fairly easy wins over Ohio University and St. Louis. The Bucks, loaded with talent, had four players scoring in double figures. Lucas tops with 29.

Schoolboy 11's To Settle Titles

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Writer

Four Texas schoolboy football champions will be crowned this week and they look like Wichita Falls, Brownwood, Denver City and Albany.

This makes no allowance for upsets which is a fallacy in view of the way things have been going.

Wichita Falls, seeking its fifth Class AAAA title, plays Corpus Christi Miller in search of its second. They clash at Waco Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

There are no other former champions in the field. The closest to it is Albany of Class A, which reached the finals in 1954 only to lose to Deer Park.

Brownwood, which came up unheralded and unsung, battles Port Lavaca, which didn't even have singing, for the Class AAA championship. They meet at Austin Friday night at 8.

Denver City, sensation of all the races, and Bellville, unbeaten, untied power of the South, tangle at San Angelo Friday at 2:30 for the Class AA diadem.

Albany the team that tumbled mighty Stimpert from the running, meets Crosby at Temple Saturday night at 7:30 for the Class A title.

While the big prize is Class AAAA, the game attracting the most attention is that between Denver City and Bellville. Denver City particularly is being watched by all the football fans. It has one Bert Gravitt, who may be the greatest player in Texas high school history.

Gravitt already is a living legend. In 14 games he has scored 321 points and passed for 48. He has carried the ball for 2,297 yards and passed for 420. He won't set the all-time scoring record but he may come close. The record is 395 points in a season, set by Ken Hall at Sugar Land in 1953.

Against this 195-pound runner, Bellville will throw its twin scoring terrors—Ernie Koy Jr. and Joe Ed Lynn. But both may not be enough to offset the fabled Gravitt.

Wichita Falls, winner of 103 straight games, will play 200-pound Larry Shields and the clever Mike Kelly. Corpus Christi Miller pins most of its hopes on the great running of Johnny Roland.

Miller lost only one game in its drive to the finals for the third time in history. Then known as Corpus Christi High School Miller was beaten 48-0 by Amarillo in the 1934 finals and won the state title in 1938 by defeating Lubbock 20-6.

Wichita Falls won championships in 1941, 1949, 1950 and 1958 and over the years has been in the finals seven times.

There is no direct comparison between the two teams but an indirect one indicates a close game. Miller beat Midland 14-12. Midland was edged 7-6 by Odessa at Wichita Falls has trouble beating Odessa 19-12.

The other teams in the finals offer no comparison of any kind. But all have their stars.

Zen Elledge, versatile quarterback, leads a Brownwood team that lost only one game—to Class AAAA Temple. Port Lavaca has a quartet of threats—Tom and Pat McGrath, Sid Baker and that passing man, Ron Cervenka.

Joe Agan runs like a rabbit to carry Albany along and it need be G. G. Willie, a talented field goal kicker, will put them across.

The star of Crosby, a team that got up off the floor from four defeats and rode the upset trail to the finals, is an end, John Dillard, who can catch passes in his hip pocket. Bob Stevens knows where to throw them for him to do it.

Wichita Falls, Denver City and Bellville are the only unbeaten, untied teams left. Miller, Brownwood, Port Lavaca and Albany have lost only one game each.

Paret Eyeing A New Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Benny (Kid) Paret, winner of his first welterweight title defense, already is eyeing the middleweight title.

At least that's what his manager, Manuel Alfaro, said today he had in mind following the aggressive Cuban's crowd-pleasing, unanimous decision over Argentina's Federico Thompson at Madison Square Garden and over television Saturday night.

The 23-year-old Cuban is a hot property now in the talent-scarce boxing industry. Alfaro knows it, too.

The manager mentioned a battle of champions with NBA middleweight king Gene Fullmer after Garden matchmaker Teddy Brenner offered a March title fight with the winner of next Saturday's Luis Rodriguez-Emile Griffith clash. Rodriguez, another Cuban, is unbeaten and the No. 1 contender. Griffith is ranked fourth.

"What's the rush with them," said Alfaro. "We'd like three or four non-title fights first, and then maybe a shot at middleweight champion Gene Fullmer. We've also got offers from London, Spain, Japan and Italy that I'd like to look into."

The talk on Broadway is that the manager is just hoping to fatten the kitty for another welter title defense. Not that they did bad Saturday night. With the $50,000 TV fee added to the estimated $20,000 gate receipts from 6,900 fans, Paret earned about $26,000, his largest purse. Thompson collected $13,000 also his biggest purse.

Paret, at 147 pounds, was sharp and fast. He swarmed all over his 32-year-old, 145½ pound foe with a two-fisted attack that seldom left Thompson with enough punching room to exert all his power. There were no knock-downs.

The Cuban was a 6-5 favorite. He has a 33-3 record. Thompson's three-year unbeaten streak was snapped at 32. His record is 100-8-9.

SVC Teams Seek Better Cage Records

By The Associated Press

As if the two-to-one lacing they've been taking weren't enough, Southwest Conference basketball teams go all-out intersectional this week.

They'll be playing 18 games against outside foes with small chance of making up the glaring deficit this far. With the campaign just two weeks old Southwest Conference teams have won only seven out of 21 intersectional games.

Arkansas, Texas A&M and Rice have the best records, each 3-1, but Texas, the defending conference champion, has managed to win only two games, both against Texas teams. They have lost their intersectional tests—to Oklahoma City and to Tulane.

Rice has been a pleasant surprise. The Owls got off on their losing foot but last week won a couple of intersectional games, beating Florida 69-63 and Louisiana State 67-50.

Arkansas' only loss was to Oklahoma State, 59-50, in an overtime game. The Razorbacks came back to strap Mississippi 77-71.

Baylor and Texas Christian were on a Western tour last week and the results were quite bad. Baylor took lumps from Utah and Wyoming after losing at home to Memphis State. Texas Christian was whipped by Oklahoma City 73-71 then went out to Salt Lake City and was clobbered 101-55 by Utah.

Rice had a tough week ahead, playing Tulane at New Orleans, Centenary at Shreveport and Vanderbilt at Nashville. Arkansas tackles Tulsa at Tulsa and Centenary at Fayetteville while Texas A&M gets mixed up in a college double-header at Houston.

The Aggies and Houston play Oklahoma State and Oklahoma Baylor, winless in three games, is the first league team to play in a tournament. The Bears first try Oklahoma City at Waco then journey to Alabama to compete in the Birmingham Classic. They get a team with a record in the first round, meeting Alabama.

Texas Christian continues its Western tour, playing Brigham Young at Provo Monday, then coming home to meet Louisiana State at Fort Worth Saturday.

Texas tries Louisiana State at Baton Rouge Monday and returns to Austin for a clash with Tulsa Saturday.

Southern Methodist gets two games at home after dropping two on the road—67-64 to Georgia Tech and 76-64 to Vanderbilt. The Methodists host Oklahoma Tuesday and Tulane Saturday.

Yuletide Portion Of 'Messiah' Reverent And Well-Directed

The Christmas portion of "The Messiah" was reverently attempted and well-directed. The Handel masterwork was presented by a combined chorus before an overflow crowd Sunday afternoon in Howard County Junior College Auditorium.

Director was Ira Schantz, vocal instructor at HCC. The chorus was made up of choir members from the college and the First Methodist and First Christian Churches.

Soloists included Mrs. Carl Bradley, Mrs. Don Newsom, Mrs. J. R. Hensley and Don Ford, of Big Spring; Mrs. T. J. Lovett of Lubbock; and Vernon Moody of Abilene.

Mrs. Jimmy Cribbs was at the organ and Mrs. Douglas Wiebe was pianist. Both gave excellent support.

The best part of the program was in those sections sung by the chorus. The Handel passages are highly difficult and tortuously interwoven, providing great temptation to a singer to get ahead of himself, but the chorus responded exactly to the fine hand of Schantz. He kept the sound level loud where it should be loud and velvety soft where it should be soft, and it is in the softer passages that a chorus' artistry is most bared.

The men soloists had good diction, and Moody was best on his deeper notes. Among the women soloists, Mrs. Bradley had a rather weak but pleasant and controlled voice. Some of the soloists were a bit short of breath.

Handel's music is highly emotional and few remain unaffected after the first few minutes of listening. He made extensive use of repetitive patterns which often border on the hypnotic.

Handel's ideas show an unusually sharp perception of the meaning of Christianity, as reflected in the Scriptural quotations he chose to set to music. And Schantz showed an understanding of Handel's intent in including the Hallelujah Chorus, in the local program, even though that portion comes at the last of the hour-long "Messiah," and the Christmas portion at the first.

Without the Resurrection, the Christmas story becomes simply a nice little tale about the birth of a baby; just as, without the Resurrection, Calvary itself becomes simply the story of the world's most famous lynching. The birth of Jesus must be seen in the light of Calvary and its aftermath if it is not to become like the meaningless drivel we hear today.

An added feature to the program was the singing of familiar Christmas carols by chorus and audience, between sections of "The Messiah." It was a fine and enjoyable idea, although it is this critic's opinion that it had been better to have the carols before or after the program, instead of interrupting the oratorio.

The crowd was the largest this writer has ever seen for a public program in HCC Auditorium. Chairs were brought to the more than 20 standing patrons, and the auditorium remained filled even after some guests departed while the free will offering was being collected.

CINEMA COMMENT

By Bob Smith

King Ahasuerus obviously was a dolt. He had to refer to his ministers on practically everything that required a little thought, and was influenced first into condemning to death all the Jews in his Persian empire of 2,500 years ago, and then into reversing his order and giving permission to the Jews to slay their enemies.

Haman, the instigator of the death plot, was just as obviously dense, for his machinations at the royal court were easily outmaneuvered by a sharp old minister called Mordecai.

The upshot of it all was that Mordecai had introduced his cousin, Esther, to the king, who in his turn was smitten with Cupid's arrow. From that moment, Esther was able to turn the king's head and Mordecai was exalted in the empire.

This is the story of Esther as given in the Bible. Persian records do not mention it, which would give support to the theory that Ahasuerus was a dolt whose reign probably was short and quickly forgotten. And the Encyclopedia Americana points out in its short summation of this Persian king that "Ahasuerus" is simply a Jewish term for "venerable king" whose pronunciation got garbled through many translations, and not a proper name at all.

Nevertheless, the Biblical story is filled with drama. It's too bad Hollywood hasn't yet learned how to handle the Good Book. "Esther and the King" is a prime example. The way this movie version came out, it would seem the script writers took the basic Bible story and, stripping its plot to the bare skeleton, added one by one factors from the various standard movie plots—a touch of the palace intrigue bit, a dash of the Arabian Knights method, a measure of the tired old Western formula.

They didn't forget to re-write history, either. In the movie version, the Persian king is depicted as going to war against a Grecian upstart named Alexander. That great warrior lived in the 300's BC, and the story of Esther took place 200 years earlier. Besides, the movie king's name is not Darius, and it was Darius whom Alexander defeated at Arbela.

And the movie king is pictured as a young, robust warrior with a handsome face, and Haman also is young, robust and handsome, but he's also a hop head.

Oh, there's color and spectacle, alright, to say nothing of sex. But there's very little in the way of dramatics. Joan Collins is a wooden Esther, Richard Egan as Ahasuerus acts like he hadn't learned his lines, and Denis O'Dea as Mordecai looks to be bored by the whole unholy mess. Sergio Fantoni (you might have known, it was filmed in Italy) as Haman can't decide whether his villainous characterization should be a sexy leer or an idiotic grin designed to pass for a conniving expression.

Farmers Plan Control Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern and Southwestern farmers vote Tuesday on the question of continuing federal controls next year on upland cotton, extra long staple cotton and rice.

They will ballot specifically on marketing quotas designed to help prevent overproduction and to hold oversupplies off markets. The quotas must be approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting.

It is being taken for granted that the controls will be approved. They have become deeply rooted into the production pattern of these crops. Quotas on this year's upland cotton were approved by 85 per cent while those for rice won by 90.5 per cent.

The department will set up polling places in all major localities where these crops are grown.
