Farm Bureau Hits Union Move In U.S. Agriculture

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The American Farm Bureau Federation convention struck today at what it called monopolistic practices of organized labor and criticized moves of some unions to organize farmers.

Federation President Charles B. Shuman told the annual farm meeting that much of the unemployment in the country's steel industry could be attributed to unjustified wage increases that have helped to price steel out of its markets, he said.

Resolutions to be submitted to the convention later this week hit at recent efforts on West Coast and in some sections of the Northeast to unionize farmers and farm laborers.

"The concentration of economic power in labor unions permits resort," the resolutions stated, "to measures which, if used by any other economic group, would result in drastic anti-trust action."

Several members of the Resolutions Committee predicted the day will come—and perhaps soon—when organized agriculture's biggest battle will be to head off unionization efforts in the farm field.

"The methods and procedures authorized for labor unions are unworkable when applied to the marketing and pricing of farm products," the resolutions said.

As to farm policy, the resolutions stuck pretty closely to those adopted a year ago. They call for a minimum of government intervention in agriculture—or a rejection of farm programs advanced by President-elect John F. Kennedy.

The Kennedy program—which Shuman predicted Congress will reject—would impose rigid production and supply controls on farm products and raise price supports as major devices for eliminating troublesome farm surpluses and raising farm income, he said.

Cotton, Rice Farmers Vote In Referendum

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cotton and rice farmers vote in referendum today to determine whether they favor continuation of marketing quotas and higher price supports for the 1961 crop.

Agriculture Department experts say there is every indication the farmers will vote by more than the required two-thirds majority for continuation of the program.

Upland cotton farmers in 19 states who have cotton acreage allotments are eligible to vote. In recent years, the allotment program has been supported by more than 90 per cent of those voting.

The cotton program for 1961 goes back to the old system and will not continue the elective program in effect in 1959 and 1960.

During these two years cotton farmers could elect an "A" or "B" program. Under the first, farmers stayed within their acreage allotments but received a higher price support. Under the "B" program, they could increase their acreage by 40 per cent, but receive a lower level of price supports.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has not yet set the support price to be in effect for 1961 if the program is approved. However, if voted down, the price supports would drop to 90 per cent of parity. Even this level of supports would be available only to those cotton farmers who stay within their allotments. The cotton price props for 1960 are about 75 per cent of parity.

C. City Council Asked To Halt Transient Merchants

COLORADO CITY (SC)—A delegation of downtown businessmen appeared before the Colorado City Council Monday night to ask for protection from merchants who come to Colorado City in the fall, open business establishments and leave before the first of January.

"They pay no taxes," said Charles Freeman, owner of the Ben Franklin Store and spokesman for the group. "They just come to Colorado City in the fall, skim the cream from the fall business and leave before having to render their property to the tax assessor in January. We'd like you to work out something to make them help pay their way."

City attorney John Worrell told the group that "I can't offer too much hope, but we'll work on it and do all we can."

Worrell explained that attempts to regulate supposedly transient merchants ran into constitutional guaranteed rights but the council might pass an ordinance which would allow the city to "bluff" these short term merchants. "But if the merchant refuses to be bluffed," he said, "he can go to the courts for an injunction against the city's requirements."

The council also played Santa to 41 city employees, passing out a $25 bonus to employees with more than six months service.

A 1961 Ford pickup was purchased at the low bid for a standard 1961 six cylinder model of $1,322.85 and a Ford truck at the low bid of $3,485. Both bids were submitted by Craddock-Witten.

The light bill for Christmas lights strung over downtown streets by the Chamber of Commerce was approved for payment.

A Cut In Salary

NEW YORK (AP) — Dean Rusk apparently will take a cut in salary when he takes over as secretary of state in the Kennedy administration.

Bombs Give Fidel Proof Of Opposition

HAVANA (AP)—Three bombs exploded in the Cuban capital Monday night, injuring seven persons and giving Prime Minister Fidel Castro stark proof of growing opposition to his regime.

One bomb shattered the rest room of a crowded downtown cafe at midnight. Another blasted lighting fixtures in the busy Vedado district tunnel under the Almendares River and disrupted traffic for a half hour. The third bomb merely caused noise.

Opposition to the bearded dictator among labor groups was evident as the giant Cuban Labor Confederation summoned leaders of member unions to boot out the bosses of the rebellious Electrical Workers Union—the first workers group to stand up openly in defiance of Castro.

Amury Fraginals, boss of the electricians, led his union in a march on the Presidential Palace Friday evening, shouting "Cuba si, Russia no." Fraginals sought a conference with President Osvaldo Dorticos.

Fraginals and Fidel Iglesias, another Electrical Workers leader, have been termed traitors by the Labor Confederation.

The government-controlled confederation now appears ready to strip both men of authority.

Safe Driving

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel has urged Texas motorists not to interrupt the "significant progress" this year in reducing traffic deaths by causing a fatality over the Christmas-New Year's holiday.

The Department of Public Safety has predicted 90 persons will die in auto accidents during the 10-day holiday period from 12:01 a.m. Dec. 23 to 11:59 p.m. Jan. 1.

Busy Agenda Faces Council

A proposed water and sewer extension ordinance could draw heavy discussion at the city commission meeting today, slated for 5:15 p.m. at city hall.

First reading of the water and sewer extension ordinance was to be held, along with the second reading of the closely related subdivision ordinance.

Another ordinance scheduled for reading was that governing salvage yard operations. This ordinance was due a third reading. Final reading of the re-zoning ordinance for property on Eleventh Place, just south of the Phillips Station, was also due.

Bids for three new vehicles were to be opened, as were bids for gasoline for a four-month period. More completed paving units were to be considered by the commission and paving cost estimates on Birdwell and Virginia were to be presented.

Jet 'Inventor' Sues Lockheed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Nathan C. Price, who claims he invented the aircraft jet engine, has sued Lockheed Aircraft Corp. for royalties.

The engineer contended in his complaint, filed in Superior Court Monday, that Lockheed instituted a plan under which its employees receive a share in royalties accruing from the inventions of the firm's engineers.

His suit said such royalties are computed when inventions are leased to other concerns, and Price maintains that licensing agreements were made by Lockheed with manufacturers in Germany, Japan, Canada, Belgium and the Netherlands.

His suit said that, under the plan, he is entitled to 20 per cent of the first $100,000 in royalties, 10 per cent of the next $400,000 and 5 per cent of any sums in excess of $500,000.

9 Jurors Still To Be Named For Rahm Trial

ORANGE, Tex. (AP)—Nine jurors remained to be picked today in the murder trial of Dr. Charles C. Rahm, charged with slaying Thurman Jackson during a school board meeting fight at Brownsboro.

During Monday's opening session three jurors were selected. They were Fred E. Force, tax assessor-collector of the Orange Independent School District; Mrs. S. O. Harris, wife of an Orange construction man; and A. F. Huff, a machinist.

Attorneys for the state announced Monday they would not seek the death penalty for Dr. Rahm, a Brownsboro osteopath who was secretary of the school board at the time of the shooting. Dr. Rahm, dressed in a neat, dark, pin-striped suit, appeared calm in court except for a nervous twining and untwining of his fingers. Mrs. Rahm, who appeared with him in court, seemed more nervous. She was dressed in black.

Attorneys expressed hope that the jury could be completed today and testimony be started Wednesday.

Jackson, 42-year-old lumber company operator, was killed by two bullets June 16 when about 30 of the 150 persons attending the school board meeting engaged Rahm in a fight.

City, County Push Higher In Census Report

Big Spring and Howard County had even higher populations according to the final official 1960 census report announced last week.

Big Spring pushed across the 31,000 mark with 31,229.

Howard County passed the 40,000 mark with 40,139.

The final figures give the eight county area a total population of 85,629, compared with 75,491 in the 1950 census.

Although the area count shows only a 10,138 increase, the jump for Howard County is 13,417. Losses in other counties ate up the advantage given the area by this county.

Urban growth, and losses in rural areas are indicated in the census tabulations.

The total population for cities within the area totaled 74,933, up 31,085 from the 1950 count of 43,848. This leaves a rural population of 10,696. In 1950 the rural total was 31,643.

The Texas count ended up at 9,579,677, up 24.2 per cent from 1950's tally of 7,711,194.

Area counties losing population during the decade included Borden, Martin, Mitchell, and Sterling. Dawson, Garza, Glasscock counties showed gains.

All towns in the area, except those in Mitchell County and O'Donnell, came through with increases.

Fanatic Blamed In School Blast

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A fanatic was blamed today for an explosion which blasted the side of a large Negro elementary school and damaged a dozen homes in Atlanta's northwest section.

"It was the work of a fanatic, of that we are sure," said Police Capt. R. E. Little, head of a special subversive section in the Detective Bureau.

All available men in the Police Department were taking part in the intensive investigation. FBI agents and a demolition team from the 3rd Army entered the case on a cooperative basis.

Investigators were still trying to learn the type of explosive used. Particles picked up at the scene were being tested in FBI laboratories and at the 3rd Army's nearby Ft. McPherson.

The blast damaged the school auditorium and two classrooms and showered neighboring Negro homes and parked cars with flying stones and debris. Dr. John Letson, city school superintendent, estimated it would cost between $1,000 and $1,500 to repair the school.

The school explosion took place the day after massive Negro prayer meetings and a downtown march protesting segregated lunch counters in the downtown area.

Herter Arrives For Royal Fair

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter flew into Brussels today to represent President Eisenhower at the pre-wedding ceremonies of King Baudouin.

The king, 30, weds Dona Fabiola de Mora y Aragon of Spain Thursday.

The secretary will leave the Belgian capital Wednesday to attend the North Atlantic Treaty Organization ministers meeting in Paris.

Herter's plane was delayed more than 12 hours in leaving Washington because of a snow-storm.

When the secretary moves on to Paris, he will leave Wiley Buchanan, State Department protocol officer, in Brussels as Eisenhower's personal representative at the wedding.

Who'll be in some Big Spring store each day for three days, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

(Persons under 16 are not eligible)

Here's How It Works

On each of the nine days listed here (Wednesday-Thursday-Friday of this week) some sales person in one of these stores will be designated as the day's "Secret Santa."

Simply ask the person waiting on you: "Are you the Secret Santa?" If the answer is "Yes," you'll receive a certificate redeemable immediately at The Herald office for $20 cash!

Ask any—and all—of the sales people in all these stores on any of the days, who's the "Secret Santa." You may get the right answer any day!

If the $20 award is not won on any day, that sum is added to the next day's prize, which becomes $40. The prize grows by $20 each day it is not won. There's a total of $180 in cash!

The "Secret Santa" game is for adults only. No awards made to children under 16.

Judge Spurns GOP, Board Certifies Votes

HOUSTON (AP) — The State Board of Canvassers Monday certified the 24 Texas Democratic presidential electors—pledged to John F. Kennedy—after a Houston federal judge dashed the hopes of Republicans for a recount.

The federal judge threw out a Republican suit asking for the recount on the ground he had no jurisdiction. The hope of a revision of the State Election Code was all the GOP had for its efforts in contesting the Nov. 8 presidential election.

Hardy Hollers of Austin, a lawyer who represented the Republican party at the hearing, said the state board's action "virtually cuts off any further action under state law." He indicated that all the Republicans can do now is to press for a bi-partisan revision of the State Election Code when the legislature convenes in January.

The Republicans asked Federal Judge Ben C. Connelly to keep the state board from making a final decision until the votes in the presidential election could be recounted.

The Republicans said more than 100,000 paper ballots were tossed out by election judges because voters failed to mark out the columns for the Constitution Party and Prohibition Party when they voted for the Republicans or Democrats.

The Democrats carried Texas by 46,233 votes.

Connelly said the Republican request was really an election contest and said federal courts have no authority in such cases.

Connelly said the Republicans failed to prove that any civil rights had been violated.

His order paved the way for the immediate action by the State Canvassing Board. Republican attorneys were still discussing the possibilities of an appeal from Connelly's ruling when newsmen told them of the board's action that also denied a formal request for a recount. The board, meeting in Austin, then certified the Democratic electors.

Connelly ruled that the Republican petition was actually based on the contentions that the right to vote had been denied to some by the original counting of ballots and that Republicans feared they would be victims of discrimination by erroneous action by the State Canvassing Board.

"I can see this in no way except as an election contest to which this court is specifically denied jurisdiction," Connelly said. "The best that can be said" Connelly added, "is that uncertainty prevailed among the election officials throughout the state. Some election judges counted questioned ballots while others did not count the same type ballots. That fact does not show any discrimination against one voter or groups of voters."

Republicans Lose
Battles In 2 States

By The Associated Press

Republicans have lost court tests in their attempts to overturn President-elect John F. Kennedy's winning margins in Illinois and Texas. At the same time official returns from all but three states cut still further Kennedy's popular vote edge over Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

New York's official canvass Monday sliced 20,869 votes from the Kennedy total compiled unofficially right after the Nov. 8 election. That gave Kennedy a nationwide popular vote margin over Nixon of 114,859, out of more than 68 million votes cast. The margin has not been that low since early in the vote counting on election night.

Only Illinois, Massachusetts and Rhode Island have not yet reported official vote counts. As they stand now, the popular vote totals are Kennedy 34,220,304 and Nixon 34,105,505. Kennedy still is credited with 300 electoral votes, however, 31 more than the 269 minimum needed to win.

In another development, unpledged electors from Mississippi and Alabama met in Jackson, Miss., and said they would vote for Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., for president. They urged other Southern states to join their cause, hoping to throw the election into the House of Representatives. It is considered very unlikely that this will happen.

There was no immediate comment from Byrd, who supported neither presidential candidate in the campaign.

The eight unpledged electors from Mississippi and the six from Alabama have not been counted either way in determining Kennedy's electoral vote total of 300. In Texas, which has 24 electoral votes, U. S. Dist. Court Judge Ben C. Connelly ruled that his court had no jurisdiction to rule on the Republican challenge of the election result. He also said there was no proof that anyone's rights had been violated when thousands of Texas ballots were voided for technical reasons.

Within two hours after the ruling the State Board of Canvassers met in Austin and formally certified the election of 24 Democratic electors pledged to Kennedy. This move appeared to preclude any further legal action by Texas Republicans under state law.

Kennedy won Texas by a margin of 46,233 votes. The Republicans charged that more than 100,000 ballots had not been counted and asked the court to order a recount of all paper ballots cast in Texas.

In Illinois, with 27 electoral votes, State Circuit Judge Thomas E. Kluczynski dismissed two suits by Republicans against the Democratic-dominated Cook County and Chicago Election Boards. They demanded that official canvass results be altered in favor of Nixon.

Kennedy's margin in Illinois was 8,849 votes. His big plurality in Chicago just edged Nixon's bulge in GOP downstate areas.

Georges Daynes, attorney for the Nixon recount committee that filed the suits, said he would appeal Kluczynski's rulings to higher state courts.

But time is running out. The National Electoral College will go through its traditional ceremony of electing the president on Dec. 19, less than a week from now. Once that occurs, Kennedy's election will be official.

Latest Discoverer Satellite Ran Into Less Radiation

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Air Force scientists said Monday that Discoverer XVIII satellite's nose cone was subjected to far less radiation than was that of Discoverer XVII during a similar flight through space.

The earlier satellite flew through much heavier radiation than last week's vehicle because a solar flare of near-record size occurred seven hours before the November firing, said Dr. George Crawford, a nuclear physicist at the School of Aviation Medicine here.

The gold-plate capsule from Discoverer XVIII, which was opened yesterday, did not receive enough radiation on its 48 trips around the world to register on the detectors called needle dosimeters, he said.

Detailed reports on the exact amount of radiation and its effect on seven types of human tissue, bread mold, bacterial spores, algae and other specimens in the capsule, are expected within two weeks.

The capsule was flown here from California after being recovered by an Air Force C119 over the Pacific.

Soldier Testifies Some Absent In Fatal Accident

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — The breach operator of the eight-inch howitzer which killed 17 U.S. soldiers at Grafenwoehr training area Sept. 2 testified today several men were absent from the normal 20-man gun crew at the time of the accident.

Pfc. Larry Wallace said "several men weren't there to take their jobs."

He testified at the second day of the general court-martial of 2nd Lt. Mark F. Kempf, 24, of San Antonio, Tex., on charges of negligent homicide. Kempf was safety officer at the gun that fired the round.

Other witnesses testified that two types of charges are used with howitzers, known as white bag and green bag charges.

The green bag contains five charges, the white has five to seven charges.

The prosecution contends that somebody failed to remove two extra charges from the white bag, resulting in a fatal overshoot which hit a tent camp killing 17 and injuring 26.

One powder man, Pfc. Raymond R. Riggs, 20, of New Iberia, La., and 1st Lt. George L. O'Grady, 26, of Arlington, Va., battery executive officer, will be tried on negligent homicide charges, following the Kempf hearings.

Pro-Algerians See U.N. Referendum

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Diplomats backing the Algerian rebels showed confidence today that the General Assembly would call for a U. N.-supervised referendum on self-determination in Algeria.

They said more delegations were sure to vote for it since French troops shot and killed many Algerian Moslems demonstrating under the rebel flag.

Official reports said 90 persons, mostly Moslems, had been killed in Algeria in the past four days, but rebel sources claimed the dead totaled more than 1,000.

One Asian said the reaction to the violence definitely helped the Algerian case and boosted the prospective vote for a U. N. referendum toward the two-thirds majority needed for final approval in the 99-nation Assembly.

An African remarked that the two-thirds vote had been assured and the new turn of events would make for "quite a comfortable margin." He said the feeling was growing that French President Charles de Gaulle could not cope with the Algerian situation.

The 48-nation Asian-African group, which drafted the resolution for a referendum, pressed for an early initial vote in the assembly's Political Committee.

The group also worked up a letter to Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold condemning the killings and asking him to take effective action to stop them. Algerian rebel sources said they hoped he would speak out on the subject.

The decision to seek a quick vote and to approach Hammarskjold were made in private group meetings Monday afternoon and night.

Between the meetings, U Thant of Burma, chief draftsman of the pending proposal, told the Political Committee the group was "profoundly shocked and grieved at the news of the mass killing."

He said it wanted an expeditious debate and an expeditious vote. Later he introduced the resolution formally and asked for unanimous approval.

Ambassador Thant, citing rebel figures, said the group had information that "more than 1,000 Algerians were killed in the past 48 hours" by soldiers firing on demonstrators.

French Ambassador Armand Berard, whose delegation is boycotting the debate, denied this.

Here is a typical case taken from the files that was sick, discouraged and confused. Too bad she didn't find chiropractic sooner. Her savings might have been tremendous — both in money and suffering. A man brought his 32-year-old wife to the Hansen Chiropractic Clinic upon the recommendation of his home town chiropractor. For over five years she had been suffering with a chronic low backache and drawing pains in her side that made breathing difficult. She was on the verge of a nervous breakdown with shaky, weak spells, daily headaches, irregular scant periods, bad cramps and nausea, and dizziness. Her blood pressure was low with a weak pulse. Further examination disclosed defective nerves for the pelvic area in the lower spine, and X-rays of this area showed severe compression of nerve trunk interference with the flow of nerve energy.

Corrective adjustments removed the nerve pressure and as proper realignment of the lower spine was restored, her painful symptoms gradually, but naturally, disappeared. Within two months, her husband was able to report to his home town chiropractor, that the spine was corrected — and her worry lines too had turned to smile wrinkles.

Rusk Expected To Oppose Rush To Summit Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new secretary of State for the Kennedy administration, Dean Rusk, is expected to oppose the rush to a summit conference advocated by Soviet Premier Khrushchev and favored by British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Rusk, 51, a self-made diplomat, favors more traditional and cautious forms of negotiation. His views on the subject were spelled out earlier this year in a lecture delivered at the Council on Foreign Relations in New York. He made clear there that he thinks the president's personal diplomacy should be reserved for very rare and special uses.

Rusk was named by President-elect John F. Kennedy Monday to take over the State Department and the day-to-day direction of U. S. foreign policy in the administration starting Jan. 20.

War outbreak in 1950 and in the months following. He was reported to have favored decisive action by the United States such as President Truman ordered to meet the Communist attack on South Korea. He then favored keeping the war strictly limited and once told associates that it might be vital in the nuclear age to establish the practice of fighting for a precise and limited purpose; in that case, to repel the aggression.

Bitter Cold, Hard Winds Hit East Following Storm

A bitter, record cold and cutting winds fought the Northeast's efforts Tuesday to dig out from its worst blizzard in 13 years.

to the State Capitol, close by, where the baby was born in the deserted building.

The storm took more than 120 lives, crippled transportation and brought much business activity to a halt. But the prospect was that many of these same effects would be felt throughout the day.

The mercury slithered to 9 degrees in New York City, and in some surrounding areas it fell to near zero. It was the coldest Dec. 13 in the records of the Weather Bureau.

A steady north wind whipped at the snow—up to 20 1/2 inches of it—that blanketed the East from Virginia to Nova Scotia. In the New York area the wind whistled at 32 miles an hour.

Snowdrifts, which reached the height of 10 feet in New Jersey, formed again behind snow plows bucking their way down main roads. In many cases side streets which were left untouched became playgrounds for children and their sleds.

In the New York area, many suburban schools remained closed, railroads operated with substantial delays, and buses crawled along snowy streets on curtailed schedules. Airports struggled to clear runways and maintain them against the ever-dripping snow and drastically cut the number of flights planned.

In New York City, public and parochial schools opened but excused those pupils who depend on buses to get to class.

The great majority of motorists, who prudently left their cars at home during the storm, faced the job of shoveling their autos free of mountainous drifts.

With scores already dead of heart attacks suffered while shoveling snow or pushing cars, a spokesman for the American Heart Association issued this warning: Take it easy.

The extreme cold preserved every bit of the record snow accumulation for a prewinter storm. Only the blizzards of 1888 and 1947, which occurred during the official winter period, produced a greater snowfall.

Some sunshine was expected during the day, with diminishing winds and slightly moderating temperatures. No real relief was in sight until Wednesday, when the mercury was expected to climb into the 30s in the afternoon, bringing some thawing and help to the shovelers.

The violence of the storm wrought varied disasters and troubles up and down the coast Monday.

Wine Of Learning

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—The snow canceled many a meeting here Monday night, but 125 Yale students fought their way to one that was too good to pass up. They sat politely as the lecturer spoke on domestic and imported wines. Their thirst for learning was rewarded when the speaker uncorked 36 bottles of wine at the end of the session.

Top Cow Pony

Tom White, a wrangler at the Old Tucson movie set, maintains that Ribbons, a nine-year-old African zebra, is just about the best cow pony in Arizona. White and the zebra take care of Old Tucson livestock, drag logs around for fences and corrals and startle eastern visitors who believe that White has painted the stripes on a small mule. Ribbons is claimed to be the only working zebra-pony in the U.S.

1,000 Hurt In Celebration

MEXICO CITY (AP) — More than 1,000 were injured, 358 arrested, two women gave birth in the middle of the street and four were raped during the Guadalupe celebrations here yesterday.

There was also a homicide provoked by a drunk's street brawl and many other smaller incidents as a crowd estimated at almost three million persons converged over the weekend at the famous church to commemorate the 429th anniversary of the apparitions of the Virgin Mary on the Tepeyac hills.

It was a trying day for the special police brigades, which were later reinforced by additional squads, as the crime wave increased in intensity.

Inside the church the archbishop of Mexico, Msgr. Miguel Dario Miranda held the main mass of the day, addressing a sermon to more than 50,000 pilgrims who listened, both within the church and at the huge plaza surrounding it under a scorching sun.

The archbishop said the world is going through dangerous times, and called upon everybody to fight against the "alien doctrines" which seek only to weaken peace, understanding and faith.

Masses were held throughout the day, with thousands receiving communion.

Nixon Fears Kennedy Swing To Middle Is GOP Danger

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon fears President-elect John F. Kennedy is robbing Republicans of some of their thunder by veering to the middle of the political road.

Nixon bases this view on appointments to the Cabinet and other posts his successful presidential rival already has announced—and some that still are in the speculative stage.

It is no secret that Nixon feels if Kennedy names Douglas Dillon, now undersecretary of state, as secretary of the Treasury and Dillon accepts, the action will make it more difficult to build Republican opposition to the new Democratic administration.

This would put a Republican of moderate views at the helm of a department concerned with management of the nation's fiscal affairs. Dillon would be in a position to put a brake on the kind of big spending Nixon forecast in the campaign would be the hallmark of a Kennedy administration.

Republican political philosophy has always been geared to claims of fiscal responsibility. If Kennedy makes this a keynote of his administration—as he has pledged to do—the Republicans are going to have to look elsewhere for ammunition to use against him in 1964.

Nixon and Dillon talked by telephone before the latter went off to Paris to sign the charter of the new 20-nation Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development. While Nixon avoided advising Dillon, other Republicans have made it clear to the undersecretary they don't think he ought to become the first GOP member of the Kennedy Cabinet.

There is admiration in the Republican camp for the political finesse Kennedy has displayed in other appointments.

His choice of Dean Rusk as secretary of state has given the Republicans little to complain about. At the same time, Kennedy moved out of the direct line of their fire three favorite GOP political targets.

He did this by naming Adlai E. Stevenson as ambassador to the United Nations, Rep. Chester Bowles as undersecretary of state and Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan as assistant secretary for African affairs.

In his U. N. post Stevenson is not likely to be the object of the kind of attacks he would have faced as secretary of state.

Republicans say that by appointing some of the outstanding Democratic liberals in this manner to less than top level jobs, Kennedy is trying to pre-empt the middle of the road.

They hope Dillon won't crowd it further by joining the Kennedy band. They already have the word of Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr. that he won't go over to the opposition if he is asked to remain at the Pentagon.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, the Republican national chairman, said that as far as he knows nobody is putting any pressure on either Dillon or Gates.

He said he had talked by telephone with Dillon last week but only to tell him he would like to help smooth the way to confirmation if Dillon is offered and accepts the Treasury post.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—On March 26, 1950, Charles M. Saunders, then a sergeant first class in an Army medical company, suffered frostbitten hands and feet as he descended a steep mountain slope in Colorado to rescue a person injured in an auto crash.

Now an Air Force captain, Saunders was presented the Army commendation ribbon Monday in ceremonies at Brooks Air Force Base here in recognition for the Colorado rescue.

Successful Conversion

One may be unsuccessful in his attempt to live the Christian life because he was not successfully converted. He was never saved in the first place. He may have thought he was, as did the people mentioned in Matt. 7: 22, 23.

Having never truly become a child of God, he did not have the promise of a way of escape in every temptation. It was to the child of God that this promise was made (1 Cor. 1: 1, 2; and 10: 13).

Go back and re-check everything by the Bible to make sure you were converted.

The alien sinner must hear the gospel, believe in Christ, repent of his sins, confess the name of Christ and be immersed; all this is necessary for obtaining the remission of sins and gift of the Holy Spirit. (Mark 16: 15, 16; Rom. 10: 9; Acts 2: 38; Col. 2: 12.)

Welcome to the meetings at 800 West Highway 80. Next preaching service, Thursday, 7:30. Question period follows. —Adv.

Wright Sees Need For Stronger Men

"A nation of moral depth, America needs men who haven't learned that it can't be done," said United States Congressman Jim Wright, speaking here Monday.

Speaking to the Junior Chamber of Commerce at noon, Congressman Wright championed the exchange of groups with foreign countries and urged a bold, imaginative approach to with "the all important war of ideas."

"The world is now choosing sides between two diametrically opposed ideologies," Wright said "and if we lose Latin America, we lose the world."

One hundred years ago the U. S. was an inspiration to the world—a champion to the down-trodden—and now that image is grotesquely distorted, according to Wright. He said that America must have firm

The party marked the annual pre-Christmas welcoming party for Santa Claus sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary for children of the members to talk with Santa on their Christmas wishes. Carol singing and refreshments were included in the program.

Meanwhile Auxiliary members completed arrangements for their Christmas party to be held at Masters Cafeteria on Thursday, Dec. 15 at 7 p.m. The party will be for Auxiliary members only with Legionnaires attending the regular Thursday Legion meeting.

Following dinner the Auxiliary will exchange gifts at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Odie Funderburk, 33A Albrook, in Webb Village.

British Baby Wins Soccer Pool

OXFORD, England (AP)—an 18-month-old baby today won 43,283 pounds—$121,192—in a British soccer pool.

The entry went in under the name of baby Paul's mother, Jacqueline Cox, who greeted the big win with the comment: "Good heavens. The baby did it."

Paul made eight stabs on the coupon with his colored pencil. Mrs. Cox faithfully entered each stab. Each one turned into a drawn match and Mrs. Cox hit the jackpot for a farthing—quarter of a cent—bet.

The pool claims the win is a world record for a farthing bet.

Western Europe Welcomes Rusk As U.S. Secretary

LONDON (AP)—Western Europe today welcomed the choice of Dean Rusk as the new Kennedy administration's secretary of State.

In Britain, some observers viewed his appointment as indicating President-elect John F. Kennedy intends to bring U. S. foreign policy more directly under the president's personal control.

Rusk, together with his two principal aides—Adlai E. Stevenson and Chester Bowles—were hailed as a State Department team that could be counted on to pursue Western aims with dignity and resolution.

MEADOR URGES CARE IN CHRISTMAS TREE PURCHASE

A fiery Christmas is not a merry one. With Christmas less than two weeks away, Big Spring residents are urged to use care with fire and make the holiday season a happy one.

When you select your Christmas tree, choose a tree that is freshly cut and one that has firmly-attached needles. Fire Marshal A. D. Meador suggested. A dry tree is a fire hazard.

Meador said that the tree should be kept outdoors until it is put up and decorated, then it should be set in the coolest part of the room away from all sources of heat.

Only electric lights should be used, never candles, and other decorations should be completely fireproof, he said. When you leave the house, Christmas tree lights should be turned off, Meador said.

The Christmas tree should be inspected from time to time to check for drying out. When the tree begins to shed its needles it is time to discard it, Meador said.

Meador reminded residents that fires take no holidays. Last year in three days beginning at 8 p.m. on Christmas eve, 43 persons in this country died through fires. Some will die through fires this year, but it is hoped that Big Spring will be spared, Meador said.

Estimates Of Oil Demand Down For Nominations

AUSTIN (AP)—A 22,974-barrel cut in oil refining companies' estimates of demand for Texas crude in January has been reported by the Texas Railroad Commission.

The commission said Monday total nominations for January are 2,583,971 barrels a day, compared with 2,616,945 this month. Decreases were reported for all but two of the 10 producing districts.

Increases were registered for Dist. 8 (676 barrels a day) and Dist. 9 (1,277).

Nominations were down 784 barrels in Dist. 1; 2,050 in Dist. 2; 5,508 in Dist. 3; 3,448 in Dist. 4; 500 in Dist. 5; 6,049 in Dist. 6 (outside); 3,541 in Dist. 6; 1,881 in Dist. 7-B; 202 in Dist. 7-C; and 964 in Dist. 10.

DEAR ABBY

BOYS ARE BOYS

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of the custom of a husband having a "night out" with the boys? My husband and I haven't been married very long and he says all the married couples go in for that kind of arrangement. Should I agree to it? Or do you think it is dangerous?

MRS. NEWLYWED
DEAR MRS.: There's nothing dangerous about it as long as the boys are boys.

DEAR ABBY: We are grandparents with 8 married children and lots of grandchildren. Every Christmas they give us gifts that mean money wasted. They are not poor, but every penny has to count. Dad has put away more ties that don't match his suits, socks with elastic tops that make his legs swell, and shirts too loud to wear. I get cologne and compact I never use, and scads of costume jewelry not suitable for a woman my age. Is it all right for me to drop a hint that they should all get together and buy one practical gift for Dad and me, such as a porch chair or tulip bulbs?

PRACTICAL GRANDMA
DEAR PRACTICAL: Of course it's all right. Make the suggestion to the one in your family with whom you can talk the most frankly.

DEAR ABBY: A letter appeared in your column, and I pray your advice will be followed, because I witnessed such a "problem" many years ago.

A friend of mine confided that she was expecting a child that was not her husband's. They were having marital difficulties at the time and were temporarily separated.

It was then that she had a short-lived romance with another man. Her husband (who may have had a few things on his own conscience) acted wisely and maturely. He forgave her and made the best of it. He raised the handsome little boy with the same love as their other three children. They are now a happy, closely-knit family. The boy, who might have been rejected, is an outstanding student today.

The man had two choices: Acting the part of the "outraged" husband, and destroying his family to satisfy his pride. Or the choice he made. I admire him beyond words. Through your column I can tell the world that "Forgiveness works."

Flexible Speed Limits Urged By Highway Panel

AUSTIN (AP)—Flexible speed limits, replacing the "unrealistic" state 60 miles per hour limits, have been recommended by the board of directors of the Texas Good Roads Association.

The board adopted a committee report Monday proposing that "our laws should allow higher speeds where such speeds would be consistent with safety, and lower speed limits should be established on segments of our road system which are below standard."

The report said the present limit, applying uniformly to all roads, is "unrealistic and unresponsive to the needs of modern traffic and thus contributes little, if anything, to highway safety."

Also adopted was a set of three recommendations of a committee on highway finance.

The recommendations propose: 1. That the Highway Commission be authorized to use present farm to market roads for a maintenance of such roads as well as for construction of added mileage.

2. That the Colson-Briscoe allocation of $15 million per year from the general revenue fund for farm to market roads be retained as a partial off-set to the present diversion of road-user taxes into the general fund.

3. That intensive study be devoted to the problem of state versus county responsibility for low traffic rural roads, with the object of developing a state policy which would clearly define the state's future responsibility in the rural road program.

Purdue And Hoosiers Post Important Wins

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Purdue, beaten by Pitt and Penn State before overpowering Ball State, lowered the boom on previously unbeaten Detroit, 83-64. Indiana rallied from a 35-32 deficit at halftime to defeat Missouri, one of four teams who beat the Hoosiers last season, 66-55. Terry Dischinger, who played on the victorious U. S. Olympic team at Rome, led the charge against the Detroit Titans with 31 points. The Titans rated a No. 3 spot in the first weekly Associated Press nationwide poll, after beating South Dakota State, Utah State and Indiana. Purdue connected with 50 per cent of its field goal tries and led by as many as 22 points. Dave DeBusschere of Detroit was hampered by a groin injury but scored 15 points, two less than teammate Tom Villeneuve who sank a 20-footer to beat Indiana Saturday in double overtime.

Mavs Win Two Of Contests In Snyder

SNYDER—Big Spring Goliad Junior High School won two of three starts from Snyder Travis in basketball games unveiled here Monday evening.

In the feature attraction, Travis' Ninth Graders won a 47-31 decision.

Big Spring prevailed in the Eighth Grade contest, 35-25, after the Seventh Grade Mavericks had won, 25-23.

The win was the third without defeat for the Goliad Seventh Grade. Goliad's Eighth currently boasts a 4-1 won-lost record.

Simon Terrazas tossed in the field goal that enabled Goliad's Seventh to win and wound up as the top scorer with eight points. Van Tom Whatley had six and Don Anderson five for Big Spring.

In the Eighth Grade contest, Don White scorched the nets for 17 points in leading Big Spring. The Goliad Ninth Graders trailed, 35-10, going into the final period of their game. In that final quarter, Monty Clendennin, who had been held scoreless up to that point, broke loose with a 12-point effort.

Palermo, Liston Called To Testify In Probe

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators call Frank (Blinky) Palermo and Sonny Liston, top contender for the heavyweight championship, for quizzing today in hearings on mobster influence on boxing.

Palermo, a Philadelphia racketeer figure gets a chance to answer testimony from former lightweight champion Ike Williams that Palermo had relayed bribe offers totaling more than $100,000 to throw fights. Palermo was his manager at the time.

LOOKING 'EM OVER
With TOMMY HART

Sports dialogue:
BOBBY LAYNE, quarterback for the Pittsburgh Steelers:

"Pro football is just a game of guesswork between the quarterback and the defense—whether four men will rush the passer and seven drop back to cover the receivers, or seven men will rush the passer and four drop back."

CHRIS DUNDEE, Miami boxing promoter when informed that Truman Gibson had told a Senate investigating committee that Dundee had once put the notorious Frankie Carbo on the telephone in a vain pitch for closed television rights for a Carmen Basilio-Ray Robinson championship fight:

"Sure. I knew Carbo. He used to come in when I was promoting in New York. That was around 1937. He used to be the licensed manager of Johnny Greco. Always hanging around Stillman's Gym and Mike Jacobs' office. This Basilio-Robinson business was about two years ago. Carbo was all over Miami then. A man-about-town. He was in my club here a few times, but he spent most of his time at the race track. But I was never in with him on any closed-circuit television fight. I never had one. I'm not big enough."

NORMAN VAN BROCKLIN, star quarterback of the Philadelphia Eagles:

"Most of the quarterback's passes are called for by the ends. The ends do more quarterbacking than pass receiving. All I do is throw the ball."

TONY PENNA, pro golfer who works for McGregor:

"Sam Snead hasn't won the National Open because of his attitude. It has become a mental block with him. I'll give you an example to show that his attitude toward the Open is terrible. In the last Open at Denver, the last thing you needed was distance. The payoff was on accuracy and from some tees an iron shot would have been sufficient for Sam. But he had to show off with his woods. He could have knocked the ball into good position with an iron better than anyone."

DAVE CAMPBELL, Waco scribe:

"Something to remember when naming your choice for a Bluebonnet Bowl victory: Alabama has yet to win its first victory over the Texas Longhorns, and Paul Bryant can point to only one triumph in five attempts against Texas."

JESSE OUTLAR, Atlanta scribe:

"Fame is a gorgeous hussy who embraces sports stars for a few thrilling years and suddenly deserts them. The super greasards such as Bob Jones, Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth, Jack Dempsey and Red Grange go steady with the fickle lady all her life, but they are exceptions. Most have a swift fling in the glowing bright lights and swiftly fade into obscurity. . . . An athlete is usually over the hill at an age men in other professions arrive at the top. In the old days a ball player seldom considered another career until he struck out as a performer. Now, most of today's heroes keep a keen eye on the future. They're usually on the road to financial success before focusing full-time attention on business."

LOU MAYSEL, Austin sports writer:

"Easily the most under-rated football players in the Southwest Conference are end Larry Cooper (of Midland) and quarterback Mike Cotton, who're far better players than the honorable mention spots they're getting (on the All-SWC team). That's the sacrifice of grubbing as blockers and tacklers on a conservative team such as Texas."

cent of its field goal tries and led by as many as 22 points. Dave DeBusschere of Detroit was hampered by a groin injury but scored 15 points, two less than teammate Tom Villeneuve who sank a 20-footer to beat Indiana Saturday in double overtime.

Georgia Tech, winner of three straight, finally was beaten as the University of Louisville opened the Bluegrass invitational tournament with a 74-65 victory. Louisville ran up a 41-22 halftime advantage and won its sixth straight without a loss as Bud Olsen scored 23 points, and John Turner got 21. Roger Kaiser, high-scoring Tech guard, never got a field goal until the second half and wound up with 18 points.

Louisville meets Western Kentucky, 86-72 winner over Utah State, in the Bluegrass finals tonight. Louisville is rated No. 9 in the first AP poll. Western Kentucky made it 5-0, with Bobby Rascoe scoring 22 points, Charles Osborne 20, and Bobby Jackson 19. Cornell Green tallied 20 for Utah State.

St. Bonaventure, the country's No. 6 team made it 5-0 by smothering Xavier of Ohio 85-75, after leading at halftime 46-29.

Sophomore Fred Crawford got 26 points for the Bonnies, with teammate Tom Smith scoring 25. Before fouling out late in the game, Frank Pinchback scored 20 points for Xavier.

Southwest Conference teams, with a bleak record against inter-sectional rivals, again got clipped. Louisiana State beat Texas, defending Southwest champion, 62-59. Brigham Young beat Texas Christian 74-65, and Tulane went into overtime to defeat Rice 84-83. Texas Tech saved the night by beating New Orleans Loyola 78-74.

Duke remained unbeaten in four starts by trouncing South Carolina 107-79 in an Atlantic Conference game, and Florida State defeated Clemson 74-57. Kansas State defeated New Mexico 81-64.

Gavilan beat him anyway, Williams recalled, and Carter dethroned him. He whipped Dawson and Fontaine.

Subcommittee Chairman Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., suggested that on looking back, Williams could feel better because he resisted temptation.

"I do not, senator," Williams persisted. "I do not."

Since then, Williams ruefully recalled, a lot of friends he had not wanted to disappoint had run out on him.

Matinee Ticket Hottest On B'way

By WILLIAM GLOVER
 Associated Press Drama Critic

NEW YORK (AP)—The hottest theater ticket on Broadway suddenly is the Saturday matinee. Any matinee. Any Saturday.

Solid, increasing demand for afternoon tickets is being widely noted this show season among new hits, long-runs and even so-so productions.

"Friday and Saturday nights used to be the big box office scramble," observed one veteran cashier, "but now we can still supply those long after the matinees are gone."

One top triumph, "The Sound of Music" is already cleaned out on the favored duets through next July.

The reason isn't hard to find. The best seats at weekend evening performances of musicals scale generally around $9; the same chairs in the afternoon are about $5.50. A similar ratio prevails on straight dramas and comedies; evenings about $7.50, matinee, $4.80.

Performers note that a lot more men are on hand at Saturday matinees. The midweek matinee is a different story — audiences continue mostly women, and the clamor for seats goes up and down in line with the general popularity of any production.

A couple of other economic straws in the wind are being noted along the Rialto. Departing from seasonal pattern, the weekly gross at playhouses has been swirling erratically for several weeks.

The take at three musicals, including two new ones, plummeted last week about $8,000 each, and the gross at three others, including two older shows, jumped by almost identical amounts.

Another late symptom is increased popularity at some productions of cheaper seats over down-front pews, a reversal of a growing trend in recent seasons. This has been noted particularly at shows such as "Bye, Bye Birdie" that have considerable appeal for younger, less well-heeled spectators.

Altogether, the box office barometer is showing signs that the public is in a bargain-hunting mood, is selecting more shrewdly and that the theater may be starting to recruit a new generation of fans.

Folks who still have holiday ticket-shopping to do are going to have long waits to see the biggest hits. These include "Becket," "An Evening with Mike Nichols and Elaine May," "Camelot," "The Sound of Music" and "Irma la Douce."

Not very far behind, though tickets to some performances can be had, are another quintet—"Bye, Bye Birdie," "Fiorello," "Gypsy," "Tenderloin" and "The Unsinkable Molly Brown."

Sikh Situation

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Police Monday rounded up nearly 100 slogan-shouting Sikh demonstrators demanding autonomy for Punjab State, where their six million compatriots are in the majority. Later, other Sikhs hurled stones, bricks and clubs at the police from balconies of a temple, which police are not permitted to enter.

Storm Forces Peek At Daytime Video

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
 AP Movie-TV Writer

CHAPPAQUA, N. Y. (AP)—There's nothing like a blizzard, closed roads and abandoned railroad schedules to reveal to those of us who are usually away from our TV sets during the daytime hours what really goes on during the workday hours.

The TV schedules work out in a pretty fascinating way. I learned Monday. For instance, the television programmers figure that once the working classes are out of the house by around 9 a.m., the remaining housewives are ready to spend the rest of the morning merrily watching other people play guessing games. The networks are awash with things like "Dough Re Mi," "Concentration," "The Price Is Right." And there's a jolly master of ceremonies to make feeble little jokes—each greeted with roars of laughter—and to ask each contestant where he or she is from and how many children they have. Fascinating.

Monday in my storm-tossed section of the country, these apparently endless game sessions were interrupted every 15 minutes or so with storm bulletins, so their full impact was somewhat unhappily diluted.

At the stroke of noon, however, we stopped games watching and moved into drama. I tell you, it's hard for a blizzard-stranded watcher to understand all that's going on in TV soap operas, but I assure you that every last sudsy family is in a terrible mess, and often more than one.

On "Search for Tomorrow" there's a pretty girl who for some reason doesn't want to face pain and rejection, and there's talk of taking Patty, whoever she is, to a psychiatrist. Then, on "Guiding Light," a mother-in-law is trying to bust up the marriage of Michael and Robin. But on "As the World Turns," things are looking up—a girl just passed the crisis of her illness, and everybody is collapsing from joy at the good news.

As the day wore slowly on, we moved out of the soaps and into some reruns of old nighttime shows. There was also the Art Linkletter show, where I was the most surprised viewer to find Joly Art interviewing a man on, of all subjects, the crimes of Adolph Eichmann.

It makes you feel glad and kind of warm inside that there's always that little knob on the set that you can turn to "off."

Mary Chase, the former newspaper woman from Denver who wrote the stage play "Harvey," is now in New York for rehearsals of her newest play, "Midge Purvis." Mrs. Chase is an extraordinary woman: She's the first playwright I have ever met who was quite happy with the television adaptation of her hit show. "Harvey" will be rerun tonight—the first time CBS' Show of the Month series has rebroadcast one of its programs. It was a good one, and Art Carney and Marian Lorne were bright and amusing in the leading role. Mrs. Chase, however, feels that however good Carney was in the show, her favorite Edward remains Frank Fay who originally created the part of Harvey's human pal. The program was first shown two years ago.

Palace Guards Win Paving Strip

LONDON (AP)—Buckingham Palace guardsmen have won a new 35-yard-long strip of pavement for stomping out their sentry duty inside the palace gates. It's level, and a boost to morale. The stiff-backed guardsmen, moved inside the gates 14 months ago to protect them from pestering tourists, had stomped to pieces the old gravel and stone footpath between their boxes.

The footing got so uneven all their training was useless. They were slipping and sliding instead of wheeling and dealing.

The palace called for the new pavement after the guardsmen, in mild rebellion, dragged out an old British axiom: "It ain't the 'eavy 'auling that 'urts the 'orses 'oo's, it's the 'ammer, 'ammer, 'ammer on the 'ard 'ighway."

Oil Level Highest In Eight Months

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Daily average production of crude oil and condensate increase 144,900 barrels to 7,123,300 barrels, highest level in eight months, during the week ended Dec. 10, the Oil and Gas Journal's survey showed today.

Texas accounted for much of what the Journal called a seasonal jump. It advanced 90,725 barrels to 2,590,000 barrels. The state is on a 9-day December producing schedule after seven months on an 8-day basis.

Oklahoma rose 41,500 barrels to 522,900. The Journal estimated 1960 production at 2,421,513,700 barrels compared to 2,423,332,200 a year ago.

Other increases included New Mexico, up 2,850 to 300,500; and Louisiana, 575 to 1,103,450.
