Move To Open College Doors Again Planned

MACON, Ga. (AP)—A legal move seeking readmission of two Negro students to the University of Georgia was planned today as the FBI and the Georgia Legislature opened separate investigations into rioting on the university campus.

The students were suspended following an anti-integration demonstration in which stones and firecrackers were thrown and police used tear gas. They were taken from the campus at Athens early Thursday and returned to their homes in Atlanta.

Constance Motley, an attorney for Charlayne A. Hunter, 18, and Hamilton E. Holmes, 19, promptly asked the U.S. District Court in Macon to reverse the suspension.

In overruling her oral motion, U.S. Dist. Judge W. A. Bootle suggested a written motion be filed. The judge conferred with Mrs. Motley and attorneys for the state and then said court would reconvene at 2 p. m. today.

MOB ACTION
Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers disclosed in Washington the Justice Department was "initiating a preliminary investigation of reported mob action at the University of Georgia to ascertain whether or not federal law violations occurred."

The Georgia House of Representatives named a special five-man subcommittee to begin hearings in Athens today to check conflicting reports and rumors of recent happenings at the university.

House Speaker George L. Smith II said in a statement he was confident the subcommittee would "neither whitewash the event nor engage in a witch hunt."

More than half the 600 members of the Georgia faculty Thursday night unanimously adopted a resolution saying, "We insist that the two suspended students be returned to their classes."
The resolution also urged "all measures necessary to the protection of students and faculty and to the preservation of orderly education be taken by appropriate state authorities."

ASK ACTION
Fifty student leaders began circulating petitions protesting violence and urging "decisive action" by university officials.

These developments in the state's week-old integration crisis occurred shortly after Judge Bootle issued a far-reaching decision invalidating that portion of Georgia's appropriation act which bans use of tax monies for support of an integrated public school or college.

The judge continued in effect an injunction granted Tuesday against Gov. Ernest Vandiver and other state officials which had kept them from closing the university by cutting off funds.

The governor had no comment on the federal order. But he made it clear at a news conference he had no plans to help Miss Hunter and Holmes return to classes at the university.

Hearing Delayed In Bombing Plot

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A federal judge has delayed a competency hearing for Richard Paul Pavlick, 73, pending a report from the physician of the man accused of plotting to bomb President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Judge Ernest C. Choate also agreed Thursday to consider motions filed by Pavlick's court-appointed attorney to dismiss the charge and to suppress evidence.

The government has filed a competency report on Pavlick which was sealed.
Pavlick, formerly of Laconia, N.H., was arrested at Palm Beach last month.

Bob Kennedy Okayed As U. S. Atty. General

Senate Panel Has No Objections

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today approved without objection the selection of Robert F. Kennedy to be attorney general in the Cabinet of his brother, President-elect John F. Kennedy.

The committee acted immediately after a two-hour hearing at which some of the Republican members made a point of the 35-year-old Kennedy's lack of experience in the private practice of law.

Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., announced that all the committee members had been recorded in favor of recommending Senate confirmation except Sen. William A. Blakley, D-Tex. Blakley was in Texas and could not be reached, Eastland told newsmen.

The action was informal but clears the way for quick formal approval once Kennedy is inaugurated and can send the Senate his nominations for Cabinet positions.

Eastland said that under a motion made by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., Robert Kennedy's nomination, when it is received by the Senate, will not have to be referred to the committee.

As a witness before the committee, Robert Kennedy said he had sold all of his stocks to avoid any possible conflict of interest as attorney general.

Kennedy gave his testimony under oath to the committee on his selection to become the nation's chief law enforcement officer at the age of 35.

The attorney general-designate came under some needling from Republicans but there was every prospect that the committee would approve his nomination.

There was smooch sailing for other Cabinet appointees of the new administration, several of whom were before other Senate committees simultaneously.

The Senate Labor Committee informally approved the choice of Arthur J. Goldberg to be secretary of labor. Formal action can't be taken until after Kennedy's inauguration.

Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut, the secretary of welfare-designate, had a friendly meeting with the Senate Finance Committee and heard a prediction by Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., that he would be confirmed unanimously by the Senate.

Byrd also told newsmen he believed that Douglas Dillon would have no trouble in winning confirmation as secretary of the Treasury.

Former Gov. Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota, the secretary of agriculture-designate, had a two-hour meeting with the Senate Agriculture Committee and was told by Chairman Allen J. Ellender, D-La., that the committee would approve his nomination within minutes after it begins formal consideration.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois quarterbacked the GOP questioning of Robert Kennedy.

"I think the country has always felt that the attorney general should be a legal scholar and learned in the law," the Illinois senator said at a Judiciary Committee hearing on the appointment.

Democratic members of the committee quickly sprang to the defense of Kennedy, 35-year-old brother and campaign manager of President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Sens. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C. and John A. Carroll, D-Colo., said they had been struck by a strong parallel between the experience of Kennedy and William P. Rogers, attorney general in the outgoing Eisenhower administration.

Both Robert Kennedy and Rogers are former counsels of the Senate Investigations subcommittee.

TENSE START

The hearing on Kennedy's selection to be a member of the new Cabinet got off to a crisp, tense start in a jam-packed hearing room.

Unlike other Cabinet selections who have been called for questioning in advance of the formal submission of their nominations, Kennedy was sworn as a witness.

Dirksen got permission to lead off the questioning and began by reading newspaper editorials and other press comments critical of Robert Kennedy's selection to head the Justice Department.

The prospect was for some Republican needling—but no serious challenge—to Kennedy as the man to lead the government's far-flung law enforcement activities.

Castro Rally Aim To Whip Labor Into Line

HAVANA (AP)—The workers' rally called for tonight by Fidel Castro is generally believed to be a move to whip dissident labor factions into line.

Observers say the latest big parade as an attempt to counter the effect of the open demonstration of anti-communism last month by electrical workers, who marched on the presidential palace shouting "Cuba si! Russia no!"

That resulted in a nationwide purge of their union, including the anti-Communist leadership. The labor confederation hierarchy has been successful so far in putting down the demonstration.

It was generally assumed that Castro would address the rally tonight.

He is expected to announce that the "invasion" from the United States had been scared off by the extensive display of Czech and Soviet arms which has made much of the island an armed camp for several weeks.

Roman Catholic Church sources said that the heads of all parochial schools have been summoned to an urgent meeting.

The informants said the conference may draft a protest against the occupation of Belen College by Castro's militia last week.

Classes at Belen, a grammar and high school operated by the Jesuits, were suspended when troops moved in — as they have into numerous other public buildings — on the pretext of invasion defense.

Tear-Drenched Madonna

A tightly clenched madonna and eyes filled with tears tell a graphic story as a Negro girl is whisked away from the University of Georgia campus, Athens, Ga., in a State Patrol car. Charlayne Hunter, 18, who started classes at the school under federal order, was withdrawn for her own protection when students staged an uprising against the integration.

'61 Auto Tags Arrive Here

More than seven tons of very valuable scrap iron was being carefully unloaded and stored in the tax assessor's office Friday morning.

The seven tons of precious metal comprise the 22,346 motor vehicle license plates issued to this county for 1961.

The assignment of tags arrived Friday and Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, tax collector-assessor, was busy determining the best place to store them.

They will go on sale Feb. 1. Bulk of the plates will be stored in the automobile section in the real-estate division.

New letter designations have been assigned to Howard County this year.

Bulk of the passenger cars will bear tags beginning with the prefix DA. Other prefixes are DB and CZ. This past year's tags have been CW, CX and CZ—the same letter combinations assigned to this county for a good many years.

The truckers who brought in the new tags said that letter designations in this part of the state have all been changed from what they were in the past.

The CZ series runs from 6825 through 9999; the DA series from 10 through 9999 and the DB group 10 through 2324.

Of the 22,346 tags on hand, 15,490—a thousand more than were allocated to the county last year—are for passenger cars. The others are for trucks, trailers, farm trucks, tractors, motorcycles, dealers and all other motor vehicles.

Laos Air Force Pounds Rebel Artillery Positions

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The Laotian government's four newly acquired planes from the United States pounded the pro-Communist rebels' artillery positions 70 miles north of Vientiane today for the third straight day.

No reports were available so far on the damage but military experts said the Laotian pilots—trained in France and Thailand—probably would need more of flying to sharpen their aim.

So far there was no sign of air retaliation from the Soviet Union, Communist China or North Viet Nam, which support the Pathet Lao rebels. But Western intelligence sources reported an old model Soviet spotter plane was observed directing rebel artillery fire Monday, the day before the United States delivered the four propeller-driven trainer planes the government forces are using.

Use of the planes for attack missions raised fears among British and French diplomats here that the Soviets or Red Chinese would supply combat planes for use against the anti-Communist forces.

The planes were reported attacking in the area of the Nam Lic River, 70 miles north of Vientiane, where two companies of government forces were reported engaged with a rebel force of about the same size.

Trustees To Buy School Site In SW Portion Of City

School trustees Thursday evening decided to purchase a 20-acre school site in the southwest part of the city near the Capehart Housing area.

The trustees of the Big Spring Independent School district board members have been considering various locations for school sites for several months. Thursday, Supt. Floyd Parsons presented a study of two sites in the southwest section of the city for consideration.

One, submitted by E. C. Smith, is located adjacent to the Catholic Church property in the Suburban Heights subdivision. Smith offered the 20 acres at $2,000 per acre, a total cost of $40,000.

The other offer came from Lloyd Curley. He submitted a site adjacent to the Wasson Place No. 1 subdivision at $500 per acre, a total cost of $10,000. The sites are about two miles apart.

Parsons' study indicated that Curley's site would involve fewer miles for students to travel. However, several other factors of growth could change this, he pointed out.

Mrs. R. B. G. Cowper made a motion to authorize Parsons to begin negotiations to purchase Curley's property; it was seconded by Harold Talbot. All trustees voted for the motion.

Trustees have indicated that a junior high school might be built on the site, however no definite decision has been made. Parsons said a junior high enrollment in this area could be expected to be between 545 to 782 students by 1964.

In other business, trustees received a gift of $1,000 from Drs. Virgil and Nell Sanders.

Resignations were approved from Mrs. Patsy Bryan, Mrs. Charlotte Lansing, Mrs. Gladys Weatherly, Mrs. Frances Pharis, and Mrs. Janice Armstrong.

Two teachers were formally employed. Clifford B. Underwood, with 26 years experience and a Master's Degree, will teach the sixth grade at Kate Morrison or Bauer. He is to begin work Jan. 23 and comes to the district from Colorado City.

Mrs. Edith Gossett, with four years experience and a bachelor's degree, will teach fifth grade at Cedar Crest. She began work Jan. 3.

Parsons told trustees that many letters of thanks have been received from employees concerning $25 Christmas bonuses which were given all employees of the district. The faculty of the Boydston school, by letter, thanked the trustees for paving and walkways which were recently installed around the school.

A contract was approved with McEwen Motor Co. for a new Buick, which is used for driver education. The maximum cost to the district is $175 per year.

Approval was given the Marcy School P.T.A. request to provide a "black top" play area and a walkway. Mrs. Loran Warren, on behalf of the P.T.A., said the walk would help in inclement weather and the play area would make a better recreational facility for the youngsters. Principal W. R. Dawes endorsed the gift.

Army-Navy Talk By Satellite Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy and the Army plan to use a satellite to talk to each other. The Navy announced Thursday it will put communications equipment in a ship for radio voice and telegraphic contact with two Army stations ashore—using the proposed Advent satellite to relay the statements.

The Advent communications satellite is expected to be ready for tests in the spring of 1962. It is intended to orbit on an equatorial path at a height of about 22,000 miles, with its speed matched to the rotation of the earth. The effect of this will be to put the satellite into a relative fixed position above a given point on the earth.

U.N. Protects Whites In Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—"U.N." forces fanned out across Kivu Province today to rescue Europeans, including two white nuns, from rebel Congo soldiers threatened by racial Congo violence.

A U.N. spokesman said 29 American missionaries and their families are now under U.N. protection in Bukavu, capital of the province controlled by supporters of ousted Premier Patrice Lumumba.

A Belgian mother superior and one nun from a hospital in Bukavu were arrested Thursday on vague charges of misusing funds. U.N. officials are seeking their release.

Kennedy, Rusk Talk Foreign Issues

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy talked over foreign policy problems and organization matters today with Secretary of State-designate Dean Rusk.

Kennedy's headquarters said he will confer Saturday with the incoming vice president, Lyndon B. Johnson.

In testimony to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in Washington Thursday, Rusk indicated the new administration plans no immediate policy departures in dealing with specific trouble spots around the world.

Kennedy announced he is retaining Eisenhower administration officials.

Joseph Charlyk will continue to serve as undersecretary of the Air Force.

Uruguay Ousts Cuban Envoy

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP)—The Uruguayan government has ordered the Cuban ambassador and the Soviet Embassy's first secretary out of the country, charging they were connected with pro-Castro demonstrations and street fights.

The expulsion order was voted Thursday night by Uruguay's 9-man governing council, which reportedly is split 5-4 against an outright break in diplomatic relations with Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime.

The decision declaring Cuban Ambassador Mario Garcia Inchausti and Soviet First Secretary Mikhail K. Samilov persona non grata brought still another demonstration by admirers of Castro. A crowd of about 4,000 gathered in Montevideo's streets, shouting "Cuba yes! Yankees no!"

A force of 1,500 police wearing steel helmets prevented any violence.

The governing council acted after police stormed into Communist headquarters here Wednesday, and arrested 139 persons and seized documents.

Officials said the raid was on a judge's order to arrest persons who beat an anti-Castro partisan to death in front of the headquarters. So far no one has been charged with the death.

The man was killed in a fight that spread over 20 blocks Tuesday night when about 1,000 Castro adherents tried to break up an anti-Castro rally of about 3,000. Scores were injured.

The pro-Castro demonstrations have been building up here while the government debated whether to break relations with Cuba. In addition to the United States, Peru, Guatemala and the Dominican Republic have cut their diplomatic link with the Castro regime.

Haiti, Nicaragua, Paraguay and Colombia have called their ambassadors home from Havana. Castro repeatedly has urged that the masses in other Latin American countries adopt his revolutionary tactics.

Double Ring Vows Read For Miss Bain, Voyles

In a double ring ceremony performed Thursday evening in the Church of the Nazarene, Linda Bain became the bride of Arthur S. C. Fred L. Voyles of Holly Springs, Ga.

Parents of the bridal pair are Mrs. Mattie Bain, 308 Benton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Voyles of Holly Springs, Ga.

The Rev. W. M. Dorough, pastor of the church, read the vows before an altar decorated with candles and greenery.

Brenda Morgan, vocalist, was accompanied by Mrs. Bob Sparks, organist, and Mrs. Earl Robinson, pianist, as the song "I Love You Truly" and "Always."

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by Curtis Hood. She was attired in a pink floor-length gown of crinkled nylon. Her hair styled in a short, wavy style. Her veil of white illusion was held in place by a tangle of pearls.

The traditional custom was observed by the bride in carrying an old cross that was given to her by the bridegroom's father; she carried her well as something new, she carried a white Bible and carried her bride bouquet to a blue base.

Mrs. Richard Hammonds of El Paso was the sister of the bride. Her bridesmaids were Joyce Thomas and Lillian Wood.

Richard Hammonds of El Paso, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. Serving the bridegroom as groomsman were Ray Peacock and Lloyd Strickland.

Guests were seated by Benny Pitzer and Gene Lamb.

A wedding trip to Georgia is planned for a later date.

The couple will make their home in Big Spring.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School where she was a member of the Bible Club, Short-hand Club and Science Club.

The bridegroom attended Holly Springs, Ga., schools before entering the Air Force.

Prevues Are Released Of Jackie's Wardrobe

NEW YORK (AP)—Designer Oleg Cassini has declassified three top-secret sketches of the new First Lady's fashions for inauguration and spring activities.

The suave, mustached couturier Thursday gave the press descriptions and sketches of a gown and a daytime ensemble of a dress and coat he designed for Mrs. John F. Kennedy. He also included two sketches of proposed trends.

Still under wraps are details of the gown she will wear to the Jan. 19 gala.

"My desire is to protect Mrs. Kennedy in her great moment," Cassini told more than 200 fashion writers from the nation's newspapers jamming his news conference. "It's not every day you become First Lady."

In his sketches Cassini, Paris-born, Italy-reared Russian designer of the American look—feminine, form-fitting, clothes—seemed to have tempered his figure-hugging fashion convictions to Mrs. Kennedy's apparent liking for more relaxed lines.

The gown, for example, he described as a mere covering of primrose white satin—the fluid line from shoulder to floor, unbroken except for the bequilling bow at the waistline. A completely natural look with the dignity and fitness that can only be achieved by simplicity of design.

The dress sketch showed a one-piece soft wool in lawn, a subdued beige. It's gently draped to the figure with a natural shoulder and simple rounded neckline. Matching silk serge at the waistline and cuffs is the only accent.

The dress is to be worn with a soft-finish two-button wool coat in matching lawn color, with a semi-fitted shape, simple rounded neckline and an appliqued band from neck to hem. It has a detachable collar of Russian sable. The coat is lined with the same lawn silk serge accenting the dress.

Cassini, 47, obviously enjoying himself hugely, staged the conference during the time he was slotted for displaying his spring collection of fashions for the 30th National Press Week gathering. He showed no clothes at all, giving over the entire period to a discussion of his Kennedy appointment and a question and answer session.

He paid the new First Lady lavish compliments.

"One of the most perfect models a designer ever had to work with will be available to me."

"Three words to describe her—beautiful, elegant, understated," Cassini said he was selected from a group of designers who submitted sketches. "I was lucky to catch the synthesis of Mrs. Kennedy's elegance. She really liked the sketches. The fact I know the Kennedy family had nothing to do with it. As I am sure you know by the way Mrs. Kennedy picked my Cabinet, it is talent that counts with them."

All of her clothes will be understated and uncluttered, with fluid lines, he said. "As of the 19th, we'll begin to see my work. Nothing in her wardrobe now is mine."

Girl Scout Council Meets For Thursday Session In Snyder

SNYDER — Nearly 100 delegates from the entire 13-county West Texas Girl Scout Council Thursday attended a day-long annual meeting of the council, held at Snyder's First Methodist Church.

It was announced at the meeting that Mrs. Margaret McAdams Lloyd, executive director of the West Texas Council since 1951 and veteran of 12½ years with the council, will resign her post as of March 1 and will be replaced by Mrs. E. L. DuPage, a native of Abilene and graduate of Hardin-Simmons University.

Mrs. DuPage, the former Junior Robertson of Abilene, has seven years of professional Girl Scouting experience and has served for the past 4½ years as executive director of the Blinetsumet Council in Waco.

Mrs. Lloyd, who was married on Dec. 11 to Big Spring banker Larsen Lloyd, will move to Big Spring in a few weeks. She was honored at the council meeting with a special bracelet given to her by members of the board of directors and employees of the council.

Julmie Amundson of Ruby, president of the council, was in charge at Thursday's meeting. The council business session, which included a luncheon in following hall at the church, followed a morning meeting of the board of directors.

Board members elected at the Thursday afternoon meeting were Dan Conroy, Big Spring, vice president; Mrs. Frank Mitchell, lobby, Snyder, camp chairman; John Ward, Abilene, personnel chairman; Dr. Shipman, membership nominating chairman; Jack Holden, public relations chairman.

Elected as district chairmen were Mrs. Morgan Jones Jr., Abilene for the Butterfield Trail (Abilene) District; Mrs. Miller, Snyder, for the Black Gold District; and Mrs. W. A. Stephens, Lamesa, for the High Cotton District.

Named to the membership-nominating committees were Mrs. B. B. Lawrence, Abilene; Jay Craddock, Colorado City; Mrs. W. D. Pratt, Lamesa; and H. L. Davis, Rotan.

Business conducted at the council session:

Reports of the functional committees, including a camp committee report which indicated 378 girls used Camp Boothe Oaks, the council's established camp, during the summer of 1950, an increase of 11 per cent in the camping program; attendance; and that 59 girls were in day camp activities during the summer.

A report of senior planning board activities, presented by Allene Adcock, Lamesa; and the junior planning board, by Linda Cox, Sweetwater.

Voted to send to the finance committee a proposed sustaining membership program for study.

Voted to merge Districts II (Nolan and Coke counties) and District VII (Fisher County) with the consent of those involved.

Voted to change the method of determining the number of delegates to council, basing it upon the number of girls registered in a neighborhood instead of number of troops.

Awards were presented by Jones to Jay Craddock, retiring treasurer; Ralph Kruger, Abilene, retiring personnel committee chairman; Het Hawley Jr., Sweetwater, retiring camp chairman; H. L. Davis, district chairman; and Morgan Jones Jr., retiring chairman of Membership Nominating Committee.

Attending the meeting from Big Spring were Mrs. C. M. Wozencraft, Mrs. J. D. Mitchell, Mrs. R. E. Hickson, Mrs. E. L. Heintz, Mrs. Richard Caudle, Mrs. Charles A. Houston, Mrs. Marjorie Helton, Mrs. Lou Reed, Mrs. Pauline Ellison, Mrs. W. L. Bryant, Mrs. Bill Davis, Mrs. Lee Burkive, Mrs. D. W. Pendergrast, Mrs. E. D. Tindol, Mrs. Earnest Miller, Mrs. Ross Stutzeville, Mrs. Jean Gamman.

ESA Chapter Plans For District Meeting

Final plans for the district meeting were made by members of Alpha Chi Chapter, Epistol Sigma Alpha, at their session Thursday evening in the home of Bo Bowen.

Representatives of District Eight will gather Sunday afternoon at the old student union building at Howard County Junior College, with the two local chapters, Alpha Chi and Mu Kappa as hostesses.

Mrs. Hansen Lawton, president of Mu Kappa, was a guest at the planning session.

Mrs. Bill Davis was announced as the winner of $2.50 for selling the most tickets to the pre-history dance given by the sorority.

COAHOMA

Mrs. Sam Armstrong was the speaker Monday for the 1941 Study Club program on "Women in Politics." Mrs. L. G. Potemkin and Mrs. Harold Morris were hostesses in the activity room of the new high school building.

Feb. 6, Mrs. J. E. Hogan, Big Spring, will be the guest speaker.

Held In Baby's Death

Mrs. William J. Mikeka, above, wipes a tear from her eyes shortly after making a statement to Houston police in connection with the death of her 2-months and 11 days old baby, Darrell Glenn Mikeka. Detectives found the baby dead of neck wounds and a stab. The father said his wife called him at his job and said, "You'd better come home. I've killed the baby."

Will Wilson Jumps Into Senate Race

AUSTIN (AP)—Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, who etched sensational headlines with his crackdowns on the loan sharks, naturopaths and Galveston gamblers, has moved into the crowded field contesting for a U.S. Senate seat.

Wilson, who has never been beaten in a race for public office, joined 11 others in the April 4 special election race.

He, like U.S. Rep. Jim Wright of Fort Worth and State Sen. Henry Gonzalez of San Antonio, has nothing to lose, in one sense, because he is not jeopardizing his current elective job.

The attorney general's announcement came as no surprise. Previous Associated Press dispatches said he would announce today. A little more than a year ago, however, Wilson was debating whether to run for governor.

"The main battle for the preservation of local government is now being waged in Washington. I think I can be of the greatest service to Texas where the challenge is greatest," he said in his announcement. He timed his statement for 12:01 a.m. today, but the release was broken Thursday afternoon.

Wilson, 48-year-old former Dallas district attorney, is serving his third term as attorney general after six years on the State Supreme Court.

He played a key role in Texas' case before the U.S. Supreme Court decision which apparently will mean millions of dollars to Texas from oil and gas revenues in the tidelands which otherwise would have gone to the federal government.

James Report Has Criticism For Wilson

AUSTIN (AP)—Atty. Gen. Will Wilson and Rep. Tom James, vice chairman of the crusading House Investigating Committee, swapped political insults Thursday over alleged Beaumont and Port Arthur vice conditions.

James said his committee's report would criticize Wilson. He said the report would not be ready for another month or two but he was speaking now because the report, when issued, might be considered "an unwarranted intervention" in Wilson's race for the U.S. Senate.

Wilson replied that he considered James' statement "obviously timed for political purposes best known to him in spite of his disclaimer."

James was an active campaign worker for former Speaker Waggoner Carr when Carr unsuccessfully challenged Wilson for the attorney general's term just beginning.

Wilson also contended that James "did not make a full disclosure of facts in his statement about the state investigating committee's findings."

Wilson said the committee report will criticize Wilson for not acting to clean up Beaumont and Port Arthur. James said committee evidence will show that Wilson was asked for help from Beaumont more than two years ago. He said records show that Wilson's department said more than a year ago it was investigating conditions in Beaumont and Port Arthur. He also said that more than a month ago the committee asked Wilson to look into an injunction issued in 1951 against the use of telegraph facilities for gambling.

The attorney general said complaints his department has received from Beaumont and Port Arthur were referred to the Department of Public Safety and to date the DPS has not returned a report.

Kennedy Team Will Act More Quickly On Farm Problems

Editor's Note — President-elect John F. Kennedy has promised vigorous action to increase the farmer's income. How will he go about fulfilling this pledge and others to aid urban centers? Here's a review of the broad shape of Kennedy's probable attack on problems of the farm and city, last in a series of five on policies of the new administration.

By OVID MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration has promised to help farmers attain a higher level of prosperity and to assist city dwellers in coping with mushrooming municipal problems.

But the new team will get to work quicker on problems of farmers than those of their city cousins.

Orville L. Freeman, former governor of Minnesota, will take over the Department of Agriculture, with its vast system of field offices and farmer committees, on Jan. 20.

One of his first steps is expected to be assurance to farmers that they can look for better days before the year is out.

Insofar as the cities are concerned, it may take more time to develop a coordinated assistance program to solve complex problems of slum clearance, mass transportation, urban planning, sewage disposal, juvenile delinquency and education. The Democratic platform promised city folk a seat on the president's Cabinet and Kennedy has endorsed a special report by urban experts calling for creation of a Cabinet-level department for urban affairs. However, no time schedule was indicated. The post would require approval by Congress.

TWO PHASES
The attack on the farm problem is expected to have two phases. One would greatly broaden measures to increase consumption of agriculture's super-abundant production both at home and abroad.

The other would tighten government controls on farm production—in cases approved by farmers—to help prevent excessive output. Nevertheless, Kennedy has said that abundant farm production—now represented by huge surplus stocks—would be regarded as a blessing and not as a curse.

The administration is expected to move cautiously in development of its programs. One reason is that much of the Midwestern farm belt voted for Nixon rather than for Kennedy.

Details of the farm program will be developed after a big farm conference of leaders of farmers' own organizations in Washington Jan. 26. This meeting—arranged by Kennedy and Freeman at New York last week—is designed to help the new administration draft policies that would be widely accepted by producers. Some new farm legislation doubtless will be required.

3 Brothers Die In Dallas Blaze

DALLAS (AP)—Three young brothers died Thursday in a fire that destroyed their five-room frame home in the Oak Cliff section of the city.

The victims were John Cox, 1; Wayne, 2, and Reginald, 3.

Firemen said the home was warmed by an open gas heater, believed to be the cause of the fire.

The children of Mrs. Louise Cox, 23, became the city's first fire victims of the year. Two other sons, Joseph Calvin Bailey, 6, and Robert S. Bailey, 4, were at a nearby parochial school when the blaze broke out.

Mrs. Cox said she had left the house shortly before 2 p.m. to make a telephone call.

"I couldn't have been gone more than 10 minutes," she said.

Detachment Is Cited For Safety

The 2016-3 AACS Detachment at Webb AFB was recently cited for its outstanding ground safety program from July 1 to Sept. 30, 1960.

The certificate was signed by Col. Robert D. Easter, commander of the AACS Southwestern Region, Randolph AFB.

According to CWO William C. Boyer Jr., detachment commander at Webb, the unit not only had a free "reportable accident" record during this period, but there was no instance in which any of its members were given first aid treatment.

SPELLED OUT

While the details may be lacking, the Kennedy farm goal has been spelled out repeatedly. It is action by the government to enable the family farm to earn incomes on a par with those of other economic groups. Presently, farm income averages considerably below that of nonfarmers. It also is down about a fourth from what it was eight years ago.

To be decided are methods and devices to raise the income level. Both Kennedy and his party's platform proposed use of rigid production controls, higher price supports, production payments to producers and marketing orders and agreements.

These devices have run into sharp opposition from some farm organizations, including the influential American Farm Bureau Federation. The Federation, like the outgoing Eisenhower administration, wants to reduce government's role in agriculture.

HIGHER PRICES
The Kennedy farm program could result in somewhat higher food prices for consumers and possibly higher taxes for taxpayers. However, Kennedy has said that this need not be the case. Freeman himself has said the farm program would exploit neither consumer nor taxpayer.

The Kennedy proposals for urban areas contemplates a four-point 10-year improvement program, as follows: (1) federal aid in elimination of slums; (2) federal aid for metropolitan area planning and community facilities development; (3) federal aid for comprehensive metropolitan transportation programs, including bus and rail mass transit, commuter railroads as well as highway and civil airports; and (4) expansion of park systems to meet recreational needs of the growing urban population.

The special report on urban problems said the federal government must share the leadership in improving city conditions because it is in the national interest to rebuild and maintain cities representing billions of dollars of investment and productive power.

The report suggested that the federal government provide two dollars for every dollar advanced by cities to solve these problems. The total cost to Uncle Sam, it said, would be less than the cost of farm-aid programs.

Witnesses Tell Of Tragic Fire

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Witnesses told Thursday of the tragic blaze and rescue attempts in the Oct. 6 fire in which three children and their governess perished.

They testified in the first-degree murder trial of Mrs. Joseph Garrett, 33, former Dallas socialite, accused of setting the fire after a quarrel with her husband.

Mrs. Garrett and her daughter, Wendy, 4, were rescued from the blazing Garrett home where Mrs. Garrett's three other children and their governess died.

Harold B. Abelsen told of hearing Mrs. Garrett's screams and rushing to the house.

"Little Wendy was inside. She came to the window. I can't remember whether Mrs. Garrett helped me take her out or I took her out," Abelsen said.

"I could hear the children inside. She said, 'They're in there, in there. My God, this is it.' My children, my children, my children." I called and yelled for the kids to come. I could hear the children crying in the background... it seemed to me they were a couple of rooms away."

He said the heat and smoke prevented him from going inside.

Christ Our Judge

Read John, ch. 5
"For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: that all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father..." (vno. 5:22, 23).

The standard by which the Lord judges is the Word of God. He that hears the Word and believes on Christ, escapes condemnation (v. 24). The condemned one has not the Word abiding in him (v. 38).

The word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day." (Jno. 12:48).

Faith comes by hearing the Word (Rom. 10:17). The Word saves us, if we are doers of it (Jas. 1:21, 22; I Pet. 1:22). The Word builds up the saved person and gives him the inheritance (Acts 20:32).

Come and study the Word with us. Be with us Sunday, Bible classes for adults and children: 9:30 a.m. Preaching: 10:30 and 7:30. Mid-week service: Thursday, 7:30.

Are you ready for the judgment?

A Devotional for Today

I lift up my eyes to the hills. From whence does my help come? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. (Psalms 121: 1, 2. RSV.)
PRAYER: Our Father, give us the grace to look ever to Thee as the source of our wisdom and strength for the living of these days. In the name of the great Shepherd of our souls. Amen.

With Love And Respect

With pardonable pride and commendable modesty, President Dwight Eisenhower in effect took his leave of the presidency Thursday. The terminal date is not until next week with the inauguration of John F. Kennedy, but President Eisenhower used his final State of the Union message to take a look at what had happened and what is ahead.

connected with the development of the new nations in Africa." He hastened to note the multiplicity of problems at home, including areas of unemployment, sound currency, balance of trade, elimination of heavy farm surplus, overcoming educational and health deficiencies, and several other items.

Pretty Fair Record

A report from County Agent Jimmy Taylor reflects 1960 as one of the best cotton harvests in years. The final figure on ginnings may be right at 41,000 bales. Of course, some gins have handled cotton from other counties, but then some Howard County cotton has gone across the line to be ginned in other counties.

Howard County lacks a lot being the biggest agricultural county in the area, but with a $6,000,000 cotton crop, it isn't exactly a lost cause by a long shot.

Around The Rim

The Calm Approach

Several years ago, the University of Texas faced the problem of integration. A fellow by name of Heman Marion Sweatt, a Houston Negro mail carrier, wanted in our graduate school. The state provided no advanced work in his chosen field, and under the separate-but-equal system, the state was obliged to provide him with full and equal educational facilities.

be the attitude on the University of Georgia campus where, after the battle against integration had been lost, Negroes were accepted in much the same way as I recall at Texas U. Georgia moderates and liberals weren't heard from; but, on the other hand, we haven't seen any really violent race riots at Georgia U. lately, and the Negroes are accepted quietly by most students. The demonstrations there could hardly compare to those in Little Rock.

AFTER AWHILE, undergraduate Negroes were enrolled, and they went about their business quietly. As did the white students. Few people thought much about it, or cared enough to argue.

It has become increasingly evident how much depends on the level-headedness of a community's leaders. In Little Rock and New Orleans, where some leaders tried to defy the federal courts, rioters were emboldened to come out, and it seemed the worse half of the public's nature turned face up. Yet, considering the total populations of these cities, it seems odd there were so few rioters; and in New Orleans, most people seemed more intent on getting their children into school, even if private ones, than in racism.

Recently, some visiting African students described a tour through the Deep South, claiming that whites were afraid to speak up for fear of retaliation by a vociferous minority.

IN GEORGIA, Gov. Vandiver fought integration, but not at the expense of law and order. When the battle was lost, like Gen. Lee, he decided to accept the situation as best he could. So far, there have been no Little Rocks in Georgia.

Ignorant Yesterday, Ignorant Today

In the good, old days, before the perfection of television, when man had to depend upon radio for his mental stimulus, there was a wonderfully funny program, called "It Pays To Be Ignorant."

DR. GARAI is appalled by such ignorance of current history, but, for what consolation it is to him, the situation is S.O.P. Colleges have changed considerably by coed days in the Cro - Magnon age. But one factor remains constant: the abysmal ignorance of college students regarding anything and everything going on any place other than the campus.

WHILE IT MAY have paid to be ignorant in the radio era, and funny to boot, it ain't necessarily so in college, Charlie! College students ought to know, at least, the names of the current Secretary of State and the capital of Canada, be able to identify the United Nations representative in the Congo and recognize the name of the president of Communist China.

NATURALLY that was long, long before the Korean War, and it was probably very unfair that the respective fathers of the two students who knew the right answer should have been lifelong subscribers to the National Geographic, which they read aloud to their captive families.

EDUCATION — Eisenhower recounted, with apparent pride, what his administration has done in this field. But the Kennedy study group on education thought far more is needed. It proposed a vast program of federal aid to schools, amounting to nearly $2.5 billion yearly.

It is IS ODD that modern education, so hopped on "life adjustment," ignores the world in which the collegian must live when he leaves school. Yet college students today, as yesterday and the day before, read only the funnies and the sports pages of the front page, they know from nothing.

Colonel von Staffenberg, who planted the bomb, flew to Berlin and tried to seize power. When it was discovered in Berlin that Hitler was still alive, many of the generals hesitated to move their troops against the government and the insurrection failed. It failed, says Shirer, "because almost all the men who kept this great country running, generals and civilians, and the mass of the German people, in uniform and out, were not ready for a revolution—in fact, despite their misery and the bleak prospect of defeat and foreign occupation, they did not want it. They still accepted and indeed supported (National Socialism), and in Adolf Hitler they still saw the country's savior."

DEAR ABBY

JUST PLUG OUT

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When I was a young girl, I had to cut across a cow pasture to get to school. A couple of cows chased me once, making those terrible mooring noises, and I have been terrified of cows ever since.

husband was seeing another woman. It just so happens I am not married. Sincerely yours, EVA

I've been married a short time, and have been having horrible nightmares about those cows. Then I discovered that my husband's snoring brought back the memories of those pursuing cows. We have a very small apartment so I can't go into another bedroom to sleep. How does a wife sleep with a husband who snores?

DEAR ABBY: When people you otherwise enjoy ask personal questions, what is the best way to handle the situation? I have been asked by this certain woman how much I paid for my shoes, taxes and how much my gas and electric bill is. I tried saying, "I don't remember," but the questioning continues.

DEAR WIFE: Go to a drug store and ask for "bee's wax ear plugs." They really work! There are several brands on the market but, curiously enough, most pharmacy clerks have trouble finding them. You have to be persistent!

DEAR TOO: A person who would ask you what you paid for your shoes is starting at the bottom and working her way up to some dilemma. With your sweetest smile and warmest tone, reply, "I'd rather not say." Then change the subject.

DEAR ABBY: Regarding the letter from the woman who has been getting anonymous phone calls telling her that her husband was stepping out on her. I was tickled pink when you told her to pay no attention to it. Only last week I received such a phone call from a woman who refused to tell me who she was. She said she thought I should know that my

Hiroshima Vet Back In Hospital

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Claude R. Eatherly, a pilot who took part in the only use of the atomic bomb as a war weapon, is back in a hospital by court order for mental treatments.

Acting on a request by his brother, a County Court jury adjudged the decorated World War II flier insane Thursday. Its verdict capped a series of incidents landing him in jail the past eight years.

Eatherly, now 41, flew a reconnaissance plane just ahead of the 1945 A-bomb strikes at Hiroshima and Nagasaki in Japan. Psychiatrists say that as a result of the raids, the tall and affable Texan developed a nagging guilt complex, although he did not actually drop the bombs.

He once told Dr. O. P. Constantine at the Veterans Administration Hospital here he held himself to blame for killing 100,000 people in Hiroshima.

Eatherly, from Van Alstyne, Tex., left the Air Force in 1947 as a major with an honorable discharge. The year before he was a pilot observer of Bikini A-bomb tests in the Pacific.

The insanity verdict forces Eatherly, a voluntary patient in recent months, to remain at the VA Hospital here in Central Texas.

James Eatherly, a brother whose home also is at Van Alstyne, had asked the court last September to commit the wartime hero for "the protection of himself as well as others."

The ex-flier has entered the Waco hospital nine times—all of his own volition—since 1950, when he attempted suicide.

Ten witnesses reviewed Eatherly's activities since the raids on Japan at Thursday's hearing before County Judge Ray Mormino. Eatherly spent two hours on the stand to relate calmly that he tried to get into jail periodically because he found "a certain amount of relief and a chance to get away from it all" behind bars.

A "Match the Masters" contest highlighted Monday's meeting of the Freelance Photographers Guild of Big Spring. Master prints were put out by the Anasco Corp. Mrs. Tina Greene, Big Spring, won the contest.

Professional works by master photographers from all over the country were shown and discussed. The 18 portraits, featured different types of paper and composition, as well as sepia toning. Low and high key-lighted portraits were among the exhibits.

Pictures taken by guild members during the Christmas holidays were displayed and discussed during the meeting. Guests included Mrs. Lydia Miles and Bill Rains, Big Spring, and Eugene Hood of the Webb accounting and finance office.

Mrs. Greene accepted the office of vice president and program. Persons wishing to join the guild may call Pat Johnston, AM 3-4846.

His and the others' accounts covered a nine-month jail term for Eatherly in New Orleans after he forged a check in 1953, burglaries in 1956 of village post offices at Avoca and View near Abilene in West Central Texas, armed robbery of a drive-in food store at Dallas in 1959 and another grocery store holdup near Sherman in North Texas.

He won acquittal on a plea of insanity at his trial for the post office break-ins. Dallas authorities dropped a robbery complaint on Eatherly's agreement to re-enter the hospital here.

Repeated drunken spree, coupled with his other troubles, led to a divorce for Eatherly in 1957. He walked away from the VA hospital here last Oct. 19. Dallas police arrested him Dec. 31 after his car ran a red light and sent him back to the hospital.

Eatherly received the Distinguished Flying Cross for his weather scouting flights ahead of the atomic raid Aug. 6, 1945, on Hiroshima and the strike at Nagasaki three days later.

TV Show Goes On Despite Warnings

NEW YORK (AP)—Ten stations of the American Broadcasting Co. presented the taped TV show "The Untouchables" Thursday night despite a warning from the director of the U.S. Bureau of Prisons.

At the end of the one-hour program came a network announcement that nothing in the show was intended to reflect on the integrity of the bureau.

In a telegram last Monday the bureau's director, James V. Bennett, told the 10 TV stations that his organization would oppose renewal of their broadcasting licenses if they showed the second installment of the two-part program called "The Big Train."

The theme—admittedly fiction—involved an abortive attempt by mobsters to free Al Capone from a transcontinental train transferring him and other prisoners from Atlanta to Alcatraz prison in San Francisco Bay. The show depicted a prison guard as being in cahoots with Capone.

Bennett, after the first installment, asked ABC to withhold the second until he had consulted with the Federal Communications Commission and the U.S. attorney general.

"To picture honorable and courageous officers as venal, and a public institution like the Atlanta Penitentiary as toadying to a character like Capone," said Bennett, "is an unforgivable public disservice."

In Washington last night, Bennett apparently did not see the danger. He was attending a dinner. Omar F. Elder Jr., vice president and general counsel of ABC, had wired a reply to Bennett in which he said he doubted anyone would interpret the unfavorable portrayal of one or two guards as "representative of, or cast any general reflection upon, the integrity of other members of that group."

In Santa Fe, N.M., Harold A. Cox, who was an official at Atlanta prison when Capone was moved from there, said he was "highly incensed" by the program.

Cox, now warden of New Mexico Penitentiary, said the program should be labeled as fiction if it was intended as such.

The television drama was based on a book by Elliot Ness, a government agent now dead, and Oscar Fraley, a writer.

Cox had particularly objected to a scene in the first installment shown last week, in which officers at Atlanta Penitentiary accept money from Capone. He denied that such ever happened "and I doubt that anyone could prove that it did."

The stations to which Bennett sent the telegram are WABC-TV, New York; WBKB-TV, Chicago; KGO-TV, San Francisco; KABC-TV, Los Angeles; WTAE-TV, Pittsburgh; WXYZ-TV, Detroit; WEAT-TV, West Palm Beach, Fla.; WPST-TV, Miami; WLOF-TV, Orlando, Fla.; and WFGA-TV, Jacksonville, Fla.

Station KMBC-TV in Kansas City, which said it did not receive a telegram from Bennett, started to show the program. But news director Claude Dorsey said transmitter troubles knocked the station off the air midway through the show. The last 15 minutes of the show were taped from the network and rebroadcast after the equipment was repaired.

Dr. Harrison Is Panel Member

Dr. Preston Harrison, superintendent of the Big Spring State Hospital, is on a panel for the 28th annual conference of the Texas Association for Mental Health, which will be held in Galveston on Jan. 19-20.

He will be one of the participants on the group discussing the title "What's New: Mental Health Studies and Pilot Projects in Texas."

Dr. Robert Sutherland, director of the Hog Foundation for Mental Health, will preside, and other participants will be Dr. Bernice Moore, consultant for the Hog Foundation and Texas Education Agency; Dr. Fred Crawford, director of research for mental health in the Texas Health Department; Beatrix Cobb, director of rehabilitation counselor service, Texas Tech; Dr. James A. Knight, assistant dean of psychiatry, Baylor University College of Medicine.

The main emphases of the meeting will be on "Recruitment for Mental Health Careers" and the "Development of Mental Health Services for Children" with key speakers also dealing with "Religion and Mental Health," "Working with Legislators" and "The Role of the Volunteer in Mental Health."

The Texas Association for Mental Health and its affiliates work for better mental hospitals and community guidance clinics, support research into the causes and treatment of mental illness, and help the discharged mental patient to find a job and stay well.

Padre Island Future Bright

WASHINGTON (AP)—The possibility of a compromise brightened prospects Thursday that Congress will authorize creation of a national seashore park on Padre Island off the Texas Gulf Coast.

Rep. Stewart Udall, D-Ariz., chosen by President-elect John F. Kennedy to be secretary of the interior, hinted he may encourage differences in the project be worked out by a compromise.

"I'm not an all or nothing man," Udall said. "It may be that an agreement can be worked out."

Controversy centers over the amount of land to be acquired on a 117-mile long strip which is only 1 to 3 miles wide. The National Park Service has endorsed an 88-mile long park. Some landowners, to leave more for private development, advocate 55 miles.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., has introduced a bill to establish an 88-mile long park. Reps. John Young of Corpus Christi and Joe Kilgore of McAllen, Democrats in whose districts Padre Island lies, are not committed to any specific distance and are proposing to introduce a bill with other provisions which they feel are necessary.

"First, let me say I am for a park of this kind," Udall said. "The longer the delay the more difficult it will be to get it created. And it is for generations yet to come that it will mean the most."

He said he may be able to make a personal inspection of Padre Island in mid-March.

He said he had been invited by Kilgore to inspect some reclamation projects in the Lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas and that he would like to fit that in with the Padre Island inspection tour, if possible.

Young later said he was pleased at Udall's views regarding Padre Island.

IN BIG SPRING

Mormons Plan To Build Church

Many homes in Big Spring will be visited during the next six to eight months by Elder John L. Christensen of Fremont, Utah and Elder Douglas P. Dobbins of Roseburg, Oregon.

The two are ministers of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Their purpose here is to help build a new Mormon Church and to familiarize the people of Big Spring with the church.

Plans for building a new Mormon church are slated to begin around the first of February. The church will be located on the San Angelo highway, it was announced. Robert Allen will be the head of the local church. At present, the temporary church location is in the chapel annex at Webb AFB. Services are held at 11 a.m. on Sundays.

The local missionaries are two of over six thousand who are working in most of the countries of the world. They receive no pay and are here at their own expense. And they are not being trained by fulfilling requirements of schools of religion.

After two years of missionary activity they return to their homes to fulfill military assignments, their education, or their occupations; to marry in time and to remain active in the church with their families. They do not sell anything or take collections. The sole purpose of their work is to deliver a message.

MISSIONARIES SLATE 2 VISITS

GARDEN CITY — Betty and Peggy Campbell, missionaries to Cuba and the Congo under the direction of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, and both natives of Garden City, will show African Art and Dress, and speak to two churches Sunday.

They will be at Pioneer Methodist Church at 9 a.m. and at the Garden City Methodist at 10:55. There will be a covered dish lunch at the Garden City church following their appearance there.

Group Plans Training Trip

Travel arrangements in connection with their coming circuit assembly to be held in Carlsbad, N. M., Jan. 20-22, were discussed Thursday at the regular meeting by the Big Spring congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. J. W. O'Shields, presiding minister, said that almost the entire membership had expressed intention of attending the training session. He added that free transportation has been arranged for interested persons.

The local membership will incorporate instructions and organizational procedure learned at the Carlsbad meet in their congregational activity. "Be Taught By Jehovah" is the theme around which the program will be developed.

The main talk will be given by R. L. Anderson, district supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses from Brooklyn, N. Y., speaking Sunday Jan. 22 at 3 p.m. on the subject, "Is God Interested in the Affairs of Men?"

The public is invited.

Protestants, Catholics Kneel For Unity Prayer

By JULES LOH
NEW YORK (AP)—Protestants and Catholics throughout the world next week will kneel together—and pray separately.

They will be praying for unity—though with different ideas of the form it should take—in dual observances of a devotion as unique in origin as it is in practice, and one which goes far beyond any current endeavor of the popular ecumenical movement.

Unlike most current ecumenical efforts being carried out by learned church leaders on a lofty theological plane, this is an annual assault on religious differences by simple people on their knees.

Catholics call it the "Chair of Unity Octave"; the World Council of Churches calls it the "Week of Prayer for Christian Unity." It will be observed Jan. 18-25.

Can persons pray together from opposing positions?

The question itself, says Dr. Keith Bridston, secretary of the World Council's Faith and Order Commission, helps participants "to sense the naked scandal of Christian disunity."

He feels the observance, at least brings the churches together to face their differences, and "this is one of the most creative things it can accomplish."

There is no mistake, however, about the route the founder of the observance had in mind for his prayer movement.

His name was Lewis Thomas Watten, a deeply religious man and an eloquent speaker who graduated from the General Theological Seminary in New York in 1885 and assumed the name Father Paul James Francis.

From his earliest days in the ministry he dreamed of establishing an order of Anglican friars dedicated to the apostolate of unity.

This he did in 1896, in the monastic quiet of Graymoor, near Garrison, N.Y., across the Hudson River from West Point.

Father Paul called his new religious order the Society of the Atonement. He explained he chose the word not in its usual sense of expiation, but because of its literal, though archaic, connotation of at-one-ment, reunion. He and his 16 followers, including a small group of Anglican nuns, by this time were convinced they should be Roman Catholics.

For 11 years, however, they refused to desert their faith individually, instead they worked toward corporate reunion with Rome of the entire Anglican Church. In their zeal, they con-considered such a goal attainable. It was a trying period for Father Paul.

Understandably barred from Protestant pulpits, he likewise was berated by the Catholic press for his apparently contradictory position.

Finally in 1909—a year after his friars conducted their first octave of prayer for unity—Father Paul turned for advice to his Anglican superior, the Rt. Rev. Frederick J. Kinsman, bishop of Delaware.

Places for private prayer retreats are growing across the nation. In Washington, D. C., rises anything and everything in the form of noise in contrast to prayer. Nevertheless, there is a place where members of Congress can retire to be alone with God.

First requested in 1962, finally approved in 1954, a prayer room was opened a year or so later behind the main rotunda and apart from the noise of the lawmakers, the favor-seekers, and visitors.

Painted in soft blues it is approximately 17 feet square with an altar before a stained glass window. Pictured in the window is the seal of the United States and a figure of George Washington kneeling in prayer. Beside him is the first verse of the 16th Psalm: "Preserve me, O God, for in Thee do I put my trust."

On the altar below it lies the Bible, containing both the Old and New Testaments open at the 23rd Psalm. It is a small retreat where elected representatives of the people may withdraw for meditation and lift any and all problems to God. Because, as George Washington said in his first term of office, "Our form of government has no sense unless it is based upon a deeply felt religious faith."

First requested in 1962, finally approved in 1954, a prayer room was opened a year or so later behind the main rotunda and apart from the noise of the lawmakers, the favor-seekers, and visitors.

Painted in soft blues it is approximately 17 feet square with an altar before a stained glass window. Pictured in the window is the seal of the United States and a figure of George Washington kneeling in prayer. Beside him is the first verse of the 16th Psalm: "Preserve me, O God, for in Thee do I put my trust."

On the altar below it lies the Bible, containing both the Old and New Testaments open at the 23rd Psalm. It is a small retreat where elected representatives of the people may withdraw for meditation and lift any and all problems to God. Because, as George Washington said in his first term of office, "Our form of government has no sense unless it is based upon a deeply felt religious faith."

Diligently Pray For The Work of Your Church

When Christopher Columbus began his probe of an unknown ocean there were many who predicted he would soon reach the edge of the world...and fall off into nothingness.

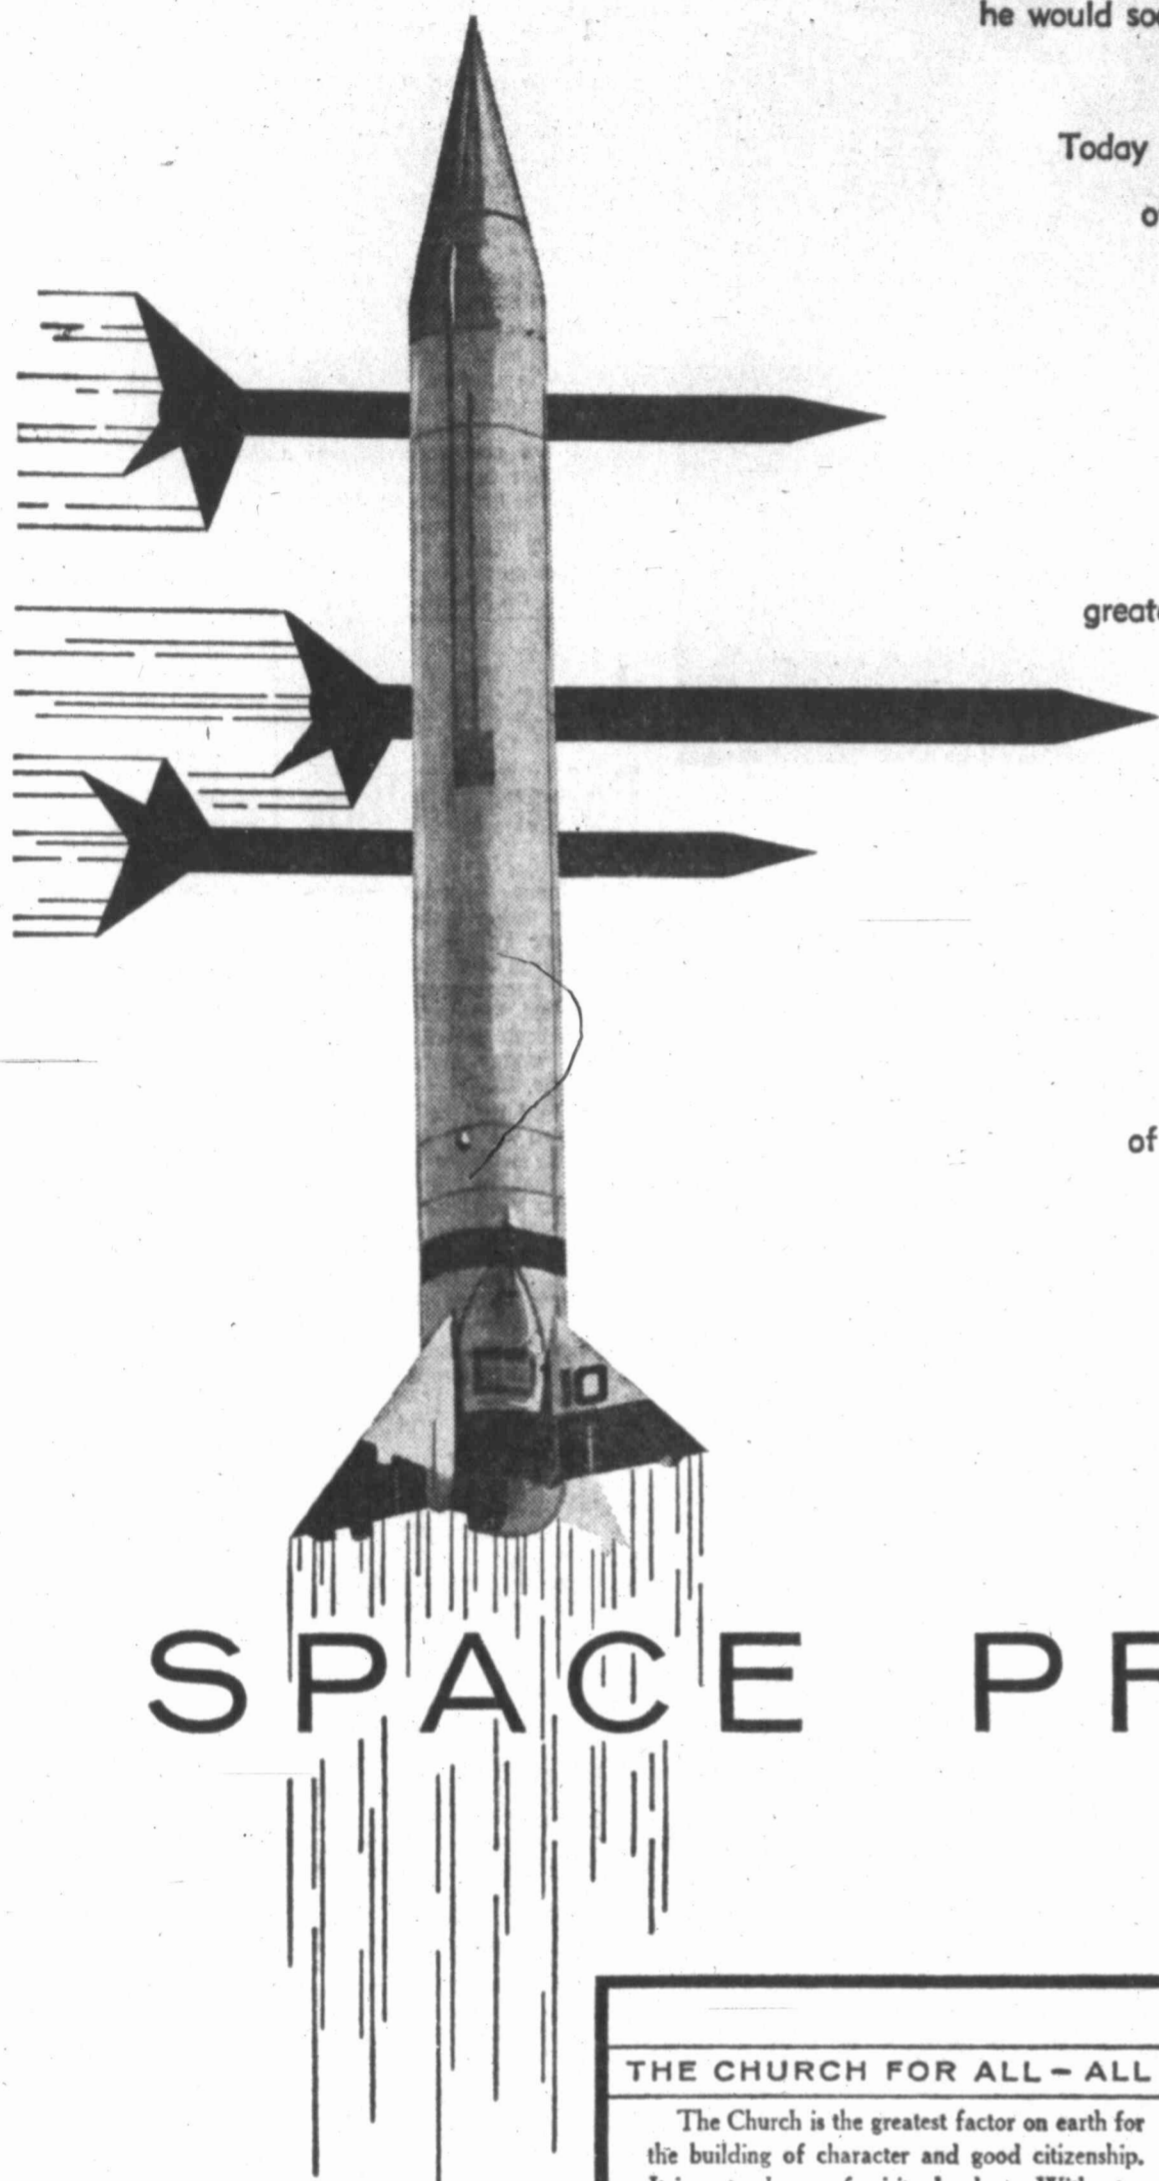

Today we are probing that nothingness. The edge of the world is everywhere; and man eagerly reaches for whirling worlds that pioneers yet unborn may colonize.

As we explore the vastness of God's creation we realize with greater awe

His might and majesty. But greater, we know, is our need for understanding His Will, and His Love for man.

For man can take to his new worlds tomorrow only the Truth and Faith, and Life he discovers in this world today.

Therefore, while a few gifted scientists are building highways from the edge of the earth, the Church is offering everyone opportunity to probe the spiritual depths which shall determine our destiny.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Longhorns, Permian Clash Here At 8:00

Locals Seek Tenth Win

Two teams relegated to the District 2-AAA second division by the Odessa circuit, Permian and Big Spring, clash at 8 o'clock here tonight.

The loser has a good chance of winding up in the conference cellar. Permian is favored but the Steers could make it interesting, by carrying the fight to the enemy.

Permian, coached by Jack Crawley and with an attack built around Gene Ross, brings an 11-7 win-loss record to town. Big Spring is 9-11.

The Odessans gave Abilene, one of the favorites in the circuit, a scare before losing in Abilene the other night, 63-60. Permian got off to an extremely slow start or it might have surprised the Eagles.

Big Spring, meanwhile, was losing to Midland, 58-31. The Steers could never seem to get a clear shot at the basket and must be prepared to drive more or face the same prospect.

The Steers, of course, are in a rebuilding stage. Coach Delnor Poss is striving to play all the sophomores and juniors he can. He sometimes goes with only one senior in the lineup. So far, his most consistent point getter has been little George Ryan, a junior. Ryan will start tonight, along with Dick Ebling, Ross Reagan, Rip Patterson and either Bob Andrews, Jeff Brown or Don White.

Andrews only recently got back in action after suffering an injury.

On display in the Permian lineup, along with Ross, tonight will be Gary Crain, a splendid football player for the Panthers last fall.

Crain stands an even six feet, Robert Duzan, at 6-3, is the only Panther over six feet. Bobby Green, 6-0, the team's leading scorer, and Buddy True, 5-9, are the Permian players who will see a lot of action.

No Two Ways About It

The wrong way (top photo) and the right way (lower) to mark Texas boats with registration numbers is pointed out by Bob Townsley, Director of the Texas Highway Department's Motor Vehicle Division. Top number, in white, gives poor contrast with the light hull. The bottom number, contrasting sharply with the dark background, has good visibility.

Boat Owners May Require Woman's Color Opinion

AUSTIN — "Texas boat owners may need a woman's opinion in choosing the colors for the registration numbers on the hulls," Bob Townsley, Director of the Texas Highway Department's Motor Vehicle Division said today.

"Boat number colors and hull colors aren't contrasting enough to be readable—that's the problem."

"Too many boats are not numbered in accordance with the law—which requires a legible, visible, contrasting number for good identification. The solid-color area of the boat number should contrast strongly with the hull of the boat. A good many of the boats we've looked at have white numbers on a white hull—and the thin colored border around the number doesn't make it show up."

Three times the Texas boat owner should do after getting his registration number from the Highway Department:

1. The solid-color area of the registration three-inch block letters must contrast with the hull of the boat.
2. The numbers should be located on each side of the forward half of the hull, as near to the stem as possible.
3. Between each part of the number there should be a hyphen or a space. Example: TX-1234-AA or TX 1234 AA.

Townsley said the boat-numbering problem was nationwide, and that manufacturers who

Soph Manager Is Promoted

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—With the naming of two more coaches, the Chicago Cubs nearly have reached their magic number—8.

The additions are Charlie Grimm, a vice president of the club and three-time manager, and Verlon Walker, a Cub employee since 1948 who was manager of the Carlisle, N.M., club of the Sophomore League last year.

The Cubs now have seven coaches, with another yet to be chosen to complete the unique field staff under owner P. K. Wrigley's plan of operating a baseball team this season without a designated manager.

Other coaches previously named are Rip Collins, Harry Craft, Verdie Himsel, Goldie Holt and Elvin Tappe.

All seven were at Thursday's mid-winter news party given by the Cubs. Announcements were made that star shortstop Ernie Banks has signed at a boost in salary (reportedly, around $55,000); the Cubs will have rotating coaches instead of managers for their farm clubs in Los Angeles and Wenatchee, Wash.; and that Richie Ashburn, as Cub player representative, will be an ex-officio member of the management corps.

Wrigley displayed some IBM statistical cards which will be used in the dugout to keep the coaches up to date on each of their players' average against the opposing pitcher as well as the Cub pitcher against individual opponents.

"This is a speed-up in a system we've been using," said Wrigley. "In the past, we had the figures all right, but by the time they could give us the dope, the ball game was over."

Wrigley insisted that a manager, as such will not be named, adding that a leader of the coaching staff "naturally will emerge automatically. This should come in spring training, he said.

It is estimated each coach is being paid $15,000 annually, excluding Grimm, who presumably receives the $20,000 vice president's pay.

Grimm said he would not be interested in becoming field manager, or head coach, or whatever title is used.

Ernie Koy, Jr., On All-Star 11

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Ernie Koy Jr., son of a former University of Texas player, was named to the first team of the National High School All-America football team as selected by the Wigwag Wisemen of America.

Seniors who are named through the first seven teams will be eligible to play in the All-Star "prey" football game in August. Koy, of Belleville, Tex., was named as a halfback.

Other Texans named to the first seven teams included: Bobby Smith, San Antonio tackle, and Timmy Doerr, Cleburne quarterback, third team; Danny Thomas, Dallas quarterback, fourth team; Bert Gravitt, Denver City halfback, fifth team; and Junior Coffey, Dimmitt halfback.

Some 119 Texas players were given honorable mention.

Alf Cobb, Big Spring, gained the Honorable Mention list on the National High School All-American team, according to a dispatch received from Mose Simms, promoter.

Goliad Quints Lose A Pair

ANDREWS — Andrews Junior High swept both ends of a basketball doubleheader from Big Spring Goliad here Thursday night.

The Ninth graders won, 58-44, after the Eighth Graders had finished in front, 41-37.

Goliad's Ninth made its best effort of the season but went down to its fifth defeat in 10 games. Robert Goodlett led the Mavericks in scoring with 17 points.

The Goliad teams, along with the Seventh Graders, oppose Big Spring Ravens Monday evening.

Three Top Yanks Still Unsigned

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—It's too early to tag a "holdout" label on an unsigned player but the fact is that at least three top ranking members of the New York Yankees have rejected first offers and demanded more sizeable increases.

The three are Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Bill Skowron. Each has been given a raise over last year's salary. Each believes the raise is insufficient.

One who accepted a "slight increase" was Yogi Berra, who signed Thursday, for just over $50,000, a sum he received last year for hitting 276 in 120 games. The only other Yankee to come to terms is reserve infielder Joe DeMaestri, who signed his 1961 contract two weeks ago.

"All the contracts have been mailed out," said General Manager Roy Hamey. "There are no cuts for anybody. A few have been offered the same salaries but they are in the minority."

"I won the pennant and I don't see any reason why anybody particularly deserves a cut," Mantle has been offered a boost

Ryan Pushes Point Total

George Ryan continues to lead the Big Spring Steers in scoring after 20 games, with a total of 238 points.

Dick Ebling is averaging ten points a game for the campaign, having counted an even 200 points.

Two other boys on the Steer squad, Ronnie Hamby and Ross Reagan, have each counted more than 100 points.

The scoring:

| Player | Points |

| Dick Ebling | 100 |

Monti Pacing Tourney Field At San Diego

By BOB MYERS
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Eric Monti of Los Angeles, who was seven strokes off the pace a year ago, led the field into the second round of the $20,000 San Diego golf tournament today.

The 41-year-old teaching professional had a brilliant first round, 66, five-under-par. But he was only one stroke ahead of his nearest rival as play was resumed over the par 35-36-71 Mission Valley County Club course.

In a three-way tie for second place at 67 were Gary Player of South Africa, who missed a $10,000 hole-in-one prize by 10 inches Thursday; Jerry Barber, 135-pound veteran from Los Angeles; and Marty Furgol, another old-timer who won the tournament in 1959.

Just two shots behind Monti were six threats—Bob Goalby, the Los Angeles Open winner last Monday; ex-National PGA champion Lionel Hebert; Bo Winger, Don January, Frank Boynton and Darrell Hickok.

Best known name in the 69-bracket was Arnold Palmer, who rebounded from his sad 12-stroke blowup on one hole in the Los Angeles Open that sent him out of play after two rounds. Palmer shot a 34-35 to tie Billy Casper Jr., and eight others in the San Diego event.

Some of the other better known pros faced rougher going.

Mike Souchak, the 1960 San Diego winner, was tied at 72, with Art Wall Jr., and Dow Finsterwald and others.

Ray Hebert, the current national PGA champion, and brother of Lionel, took a 74, and Doug Ford scored to a 78.

Player, who three years ago at the age of 23 won the British Open provided the most exciting shot of the day. He drove off the 16th tee with a 4-wood to the green 207 yards away. The ball rolled and stopped 10 inches from the pin.

Had it dropped in, Player would have won the $10,000 posted by the tournament committee for a hole in one. He settled for a birdie 2.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

All the grass has been sowed and the dirt leveled on the first nine holes at the Munny golf course. The job of getting the grass up is now strictly up to Mother Nature.

Originally, it was planned to re-open the first nine on Feb. 1. Quite possibly, the opening date will be moved back now, to give the tender young grass more time to catch on.

Trenches are to be dug around each of the greens, which will eliminate the need for water boxes.

Incidentally, business has been very good at the Munny course since the first of the year. Opening of the new Country Club course seemed to have helped, rather than hindered business.

The city-owned layout, with its irrigation system now in place, should be on the verge of its most prosperous era.

Jayhawks And NMMI To Meet Saturday

HCJ's Jayhawks, boasting a 12-game winning streak, journey to Roswell, N.M., for a Western Conference basketball game with New Mexico Military Institute.

The Hawks are 2-0 in conference standings, having defeated Amarillo and Frank Phillips on a road trip last weekend.

NMMI has been none too impressive this season but is double tough at home. The Cadets are coached by Maj. Robert Shaw.

NMMI won two of its first three starts in league play. The Cadets thrashed Frank Phillips, 78-69, and Clarendon, 94-73, but lost to Lubbock Christian, 87-70.

Maj. Shaw can call upon such boys as Sammy Cohn (6-2), Tom

Greer (6-4), Tom Hager (6-3), Bill Inabnett (6-5), Douglass Law (6-3), Doug McCarty (6-4), Bill Miller (6-5), Ray Pomeroy (6-2), Roger Romer (6-5) and Roger Staubach (6-2) to man the starting positions.

Romer is supposed to be the best of the lot. He was named to the all-tournament team at Odessa last month.

NMMI won five of its first eight starts this season. The Cadets have averaged 70.9 points a game, compared to 64.6 for the opposition.

Romer is averaging 33.8 points a game on his own and is perhaps the average's most effective rebounder, having picked off an average of 14.2 points a game.

Buddy Travis, the HCJC mentor who has seen his team win 15 of its first 17 starts, will probably start a lineup composed of Ronald Weak's, Kenneth Cleaman, Bill (Red) Edwards, Charles Knotts and Larry McElyea.

This will be the last game for the Hawks until Jan. 25, at which time they host South Plains. After tonight, the local cagers will concentrate on their mid-term exams.

Cee City Grid Party Saturday

COLORADO CITY (SC)—The Wolverines Football banquet will be held at the Primary school cafeteria Saturday with the presentation of football awards slated to be the feature of the evening's entertainment.

The "Hustling Wolf" award is given annually to a player who has tried hard all season—both on the practice field and in actual play.

The Colorado City Record's "E" award is given for excellence and outstanding play.

Frank Wilson, Colorado City superintendent of schools and district chairman of 3-AAA, will present district awards.

Co-captains will be presented, and the Wolf Sweethair and the Wolverine Sweetheart will be announced.

Head Coach Sam Christy will introduce his squad.

Houston Shocks Bradley, 60-59

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas, sub, is big, bold, brash and — to Bradley's basketball Braves — just plain bad!

For the second time in two seasons, the University of Houston has derailed one of Bradley's unbeaten streaks. Thursday night, it was a 60-59 upset that snapped the Braves' nation-leading major college winning string at 18. Bradley had started the new one, which carried through the National Invitation Tournament championship and 12 games this season, after having a 15-game streak broken by the same big, bold, brash and bad Houston on Feb. 22 last year.

It was an Illinois boy—hauling from Wood River about 150 miles south of Bradley's Peoria campus—who applied the string-snapper in the intersectional game at Houston.

Clear Skies In W. Texas

By The Associated Press
Cloudy skies covered the eastern and southern sections of Texas as early Friday and very light rain fell at Galveston and Texas.

Skies were clear elsewhere although fog drifted around Palacios, Junction, Waco, Mineral Wells and Lufkin.
The mercury early Friday slid into the 20s in portions of the Panhandle, South Plains and West Texas. Temperatures near dawn ranged from 23 at Dallart up into the 50s along the Gulf Coast.
A long range forecast called for temperatures in Northeast and North Central Texas to average near normal with the possibility of light rain early next week.
The forecast said temperatures will average 4 to 8 degrees above normal in Northeast Texas and 2 to 8 degrees below normal in the southern portion of the state.
The Weather Bureau at New Orleans Thursday issued a small craft warning which called for "increasing east and northeast winds reaching 20-30 knots tonight and becoming northerly on Louisiana coast Friday." The warning area extended from Apalachicola, Fla., to Sabine Pass, Tex.

Princess, Playboy On Honeymoon

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Princess Ira von Furstenberg Hohenlohe and Brazilian playboy Francisco (Baby) Pignatari are honeymooning at an undisclosed location after a whirlwind marriage here Thursday.
The couple, who made headlines last August when the princess' then estranged husband raided her Mexico City hotel room and had Pignatari arrested on adultery charges, arrived in Reno Wednesday night.
They were married by a justice of the peace in the home of Reno attorney Richard Blakey, and left immediately after the ceremony.
Mrs. Pignatari's former husband, Prince Alfonso Hohenlohe, dropped the adultery charges in October in return for custody of their two boys, aged 4 and 1.

Puckett and a pilot in another plane had been sent out on an air defense mission to investigate an object picked up earlier on radar.

Last Mule Barn Turns Cow Shed

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The last mule barn in Memphis—once the world's biggest mule market—is being converted to the cattle trade.

Wade H. Tribble, who heads the barn firm, said the demand for mules had dwindled to the vanishing point. Farmers nowadays prefer tractors.

As late as 1943, the Memphis market was handling 10,000 mules a month. But Thursday there were only six mules at the big barn and half of them were "canners"—destined for a dog food plant in Illinois.

'Psycho' Was Good 'Cure' For Tony Perkins' Trauma

By BOB THOMAS AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tony Perkins may have flipped his wig in "Psycho," but he's finding that the sensational film is therapeutic for his psyche.

It's like this, doctor. You see, he and the movies weren't meant for each other. He suffered a trauma whenever a film of his failed to light up the box office, which happened distressingly often.

Oh, he had his periods of elation when a film would do well, but then the flop neurosis would recur. The runaway hit of "Psycho" wiped out his problem and now he even has a healthy Oscar syndrome.

But let him take the couch and tell his own case history: "It was true; I actually felt guilt-ridden. I thought that maybe I was kidding myself, that maybe the movies just weren't my medium.

"That's why it's so great to be associated with something that is headed for an $18-million gross. It is the most-seen black-and-white picture of all time; only the big color epics surpass it.

Naturally the credit goes to Alfred Hitchcock. But I think the cast contributed to its success, too. I think 'Psycho' with unknowns would have been a good hit, but I don't think it would have been the smash that it is."

Perkins is now so boyishly confident that he predicts an Academy nomination for himself.

Win or lose, Perkins feels a new buoyancy in his career. He just finished a film with Ingrid Bergman and Yves Montand in France and is picking and choosing for his next one. He said Hitchcock is looking for another one they can do together, though not necessarily "Psycho Strikes Back."

Entertainment Widely Varied

NEW YORK (AP)—All three major networks will broadcast the farewell address by President Dwight D. Eisenhower next Tuesday night. The speech will be carried on ABC, CBS and NBC from 8:30 to 9 (EST).

In addition, there will be entertainment in widely varied form during the next seven days.

Tackling the schedules chronologically, tonight there is another in the NBC American Heritage series (9-10 Eastern Standard Time), this called "The Invincible Teddy," and dealing with the debut of Theodore Roosevelt into politics. George Peppard plays young TR.

On Sunday, there is the annual professional football game on NBC from Los Angeles (3:45 p.m. to conclusion). This conflicts with the CBS "A Question of Chaire. The Challenge of American Education," about the evolution of our school system.

CBS's big, expensive special, "The Gershwin Years," with Maurice Chevalier, Frank Sinatra and Ethel Merman comes up Sunday night, 8:30, probably the highlight of the week.

Tuesday evening there's NBC's satirical revue, "Everybody's Do-in' It," with Art Carney and Alice Ghostley (10-11). And on Wednesday evening there is CBS Show of the Month, an adaptation of "The Prisoner of Zenda," prototype of all Ruritania tales, with Christopher Plummer in the leading dual role (8:30-10).

TV Crime Drama Has Happy End

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP-TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"The Untouchables" two-part drama, bullet-pocked and corpse-strewn, came to the anticipated happy ending Thursday night.

Elliot Ness had foiled the Chicago and West Coast gangsters—they were either dead or captured—and the prison train break averted. A vicious snarling prisoner identified as Al Capone was safely transferred from Atlanta Penitentiary to Alcatraz. Ness and his hardy aides were safe, sound and ready for new adventures.

Obviously, after the controversy which blew up after last week's installment of "The Big Train" episode, it was an ironic oversight that the only culprit that got away undetected was a corrupt prison guard who had a part in the escape plot.

After the first installment, James B. Bennett, head of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, fired a blast at ABC for the way the show depicted federal prison personnel and asked that the second installment be withheld until he had consulted the Federal Communications Commission and the attorney general.

Such is "Ben-Hur" which played before a good-sized opening night audience Thursday in a newly renovated State Theatre. The film will be here for two weeks.

"Ben-Hur" surpasses the spectacular level of the late, great Cecil B. DeMille and goes beyond his achievements in bringing his characters to life. Characterizations are deeply defined, so much so that the people actually seem to be human.

NO STILTED LINES

In all too many Biblical film dramas (or, in Arabian Nights-type movies, for that matter), actors seem to have difficulty achieving any more than a stilted recitation of their lines. The script of "Ben-Hur" is carried through realistically without resorting to crude modern colloquialisms.

The lengthy movie (four hours, approximately) is tremendous in scope, and it is obvious all concerned took great pains to make it seem real. The makeup, the settings, every tiny detail looks real—and this is unusual in big screen historical epics filmed in color.

I recall, as an example, an otherwise historically excellent motion picture called "Helen of Troy." The costumes, weapons, backgrounds and props in general all looked like they were brand new—which they were, of course—and the total impression was one of unreality and play-acting.

Play-acting any show may be, but if it leaves that impression it has failed.

IN EVERY PORE

The usual Hollywood method in depicting someone who needs a bath is to daub a bit of dirt on an otherwise freshly-washed face. The galley slaves in "Ben-Hur" look like they're dirty in every pore.

The music was fitting and impressive and never was allowed to override the dramatic situations at hand.

The story is that of two boyhood friends torn by opposing loyalties, forced by circumstance into a bitter enmity. Charlton Heston as Judah Ben-Hur, the Hebrew prince, and Stephen Boyd as Messala, the Roman tribune, are excellent dramatic counterpoints one to the other.

The film was based on the book by Civil War Gen. Lew Wallace, the same who presided over the war crimes trials at Andersonville. The book was written in an-

'Ben-Hur' Is Spectacular But Ranks As Fine Drama

It is gratifying to see a film that can be truly deserving of adjectives like "spectacular," and still capture the Bible's eternal truths.

Such is "Ben-Hur" which played before a good-sized opening night audience Thursday in a newly renovated State Theatre. The film will be here for two weeks.

"Ben-Hur" surpasses the spectacular level of the late, great Cecil B. DeMille and goes beyond his achievements in bringing his characters to life. Characterizations are deeply defined, so much so that the people actually seem to be human.

NO STILTED LINES

In all too many Biblical film dramas (or, in Arabian Nights-type movies, for that matter), actors seem to have difficulty achieving any more than a stilted recitation of their lines. The script of "Ben-Hur" is carried through realistically without resorting to crude modern colloquialisms.

The lengthy movie (four hours, approximately) is tremendous in scope, and it is obvious all concerned took great pains to make it seem real. The makeup, the settings, every tiny detail looks real—and this is unusual in big screen historical epics filmed in color.

I recall, as an example, an otherwise historically excellent motion picture called "Helen of Troy." The costumes, weapons, backgrounds and props in general all looked like they were brand new—which they were, of course—and the total impression was one of unreality and play-acting.

Play-acting any show may be, but if it leaves that impression it has failed.

IN EVERY PORE

The usual Hollywood method in depicting someone who needs a bath is to daub a bit of dirt on an otherwise freshly-washed face. The galley slaves in "Ben-Hur" look like they're dirty in every pore.

The music was fitting and impressive and never was allowed to override the dramatic situations at hand.

The story is that of two boyhood friends torn by opposing loyalties, forced by circumstance into a bitter enmity. Charlton Heston as Judah Ben-Hur, the Hebrew prince, and Stephen Boyd as Messala, the Roman tribune, are excellent dramatic counterpoints one to the other.

The film was based on the book by Civil War Gen. Lew Wallace, the same who presided over the war crimes trials at Andersonville. The book was written in an-answer to a famous atheist who was an acquaintance of Wallace, but both the book and the movie show strong evidence of a principle brought out at his Andersonville, which must have haunted Gen. Wallace all his life.

BLIND OBEDIENCE?

That principle asks the question, is a man bound to follow blindly his superior's orders, whether that superior be modern general or ancient Roman emperor? Is he morally bound to commit every crime against humanity on the excuse that he is just following orders, and would himself be executed if he failed?

"Ben-Hur" answers that question explicitly, soundly and, we hope, eternally. The answer, as at Andersonville and later at Nuremberg, is "No!"

Wallace's story skirts judiciously by the actual Bible scenes, for his characters were peripheral to those recorded in the Bible. The effect is better than in films of the same genre which create a succession of holy tableaux with little to hold them together.

And since this is Wallace's story, not all the truths he tells are strictly Scriptural. Pontius Pilate tells Judah Ben-Hur on one occasion that there is no perfect freedom on Earth; that the mature man accepts the world as it is "and that world is Rome." Esther also tells Ben-Hur that he has changed into an image of his evil enemy—"You've become like Messala." Which is another way of saying that libertarianism often can turn into the very same kind of tyranny it has fought.

FINE ACTRESS

Esther, incidentally, is portrayed by Israeli actress Haya Harareet, and she has created a tremendous portrayal. Spectacular though "Ben-Hur" may be, there was no attempt to inject sex for the sake of sex, and Miss Harareet was called upon to act instead of just looking pretty. She succeeded in both.

There is nothing in the film that could be called non-Scriptural, for all the fictional portions were sensibly dramatized.

There were a few errors—the story at times gives the ancient credit for knowledge and understanding that simply were not available then. The wide-screen focus was poor at first, although it later improved. There was some mispronunciation of names, and Heston was the biggest sinner in this respect.

There is a long succession of dramatic scenes. The sea battle, involving ancient triremes that used fire and ramming as weapons, looks both real and fantastic—like another world, which it was, but one our ancestors lived in.

The chariot race is exciting and brutal, and builds to a climax that keeps the viewer on the edge of his seat so he doesn't mind its length. The brutality of chariot racing is faithfully depicted and in keeping with the story.

TITLES BACKGROUNDED

The film begins with the Nativity, preceding the titles and credits which are themselves backgrounded by a famed painting of the Creation.

The cleansing of the lepers, Ben-Hur's two meetings with Christ, Pilate's washing of his hands—these are but a few of the more dramatic scenes. But it is the last scene, the quietest one, that also is the deepest, when Ben-Hur has returned from the Crucifixion, hearing the words "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." Ben-Hur returns to Esther with peace in his heart, and says, "...and I felt His voice take the sword out of my hand."

There are a few bits of comedy, but they are never out of place—the Roman emperor, a tiny, wizened man, and all too human, but blandly accepting his role as a god; the Arabian Sheikh's fatherly love for his chariot horses that causes him to bring the animals into his tent for a fond "goodnight."

REDEMPTION

There are many fine portrayals in "Ben-Hur," too many to list, but a word should be said for Jack Hawkins' role as the Roman admiral who adopts a galley slave as his own son and thus finds redemption.

Many experts have said it could not be done—that it was impossible to wed fine drama to the sweeping spectacular, since too vast a vista automatically loses its humanity—but "Ben-Hur" has done it.

When a film can make its audience feel its characters actually lived, it is successful—and it is easy to see how "Ben-Hur" earned eleven Academy Awards.

Cole Guilty, Gets Life Term

HONDO (AP)—An all-male jury convicted Paul Franklin Cole Jr., 24, of the murder of San Antonio resident E. L. Gilliam and sentenced him to life in prison Thursday.

Cole's attorney said no appeal was planned. Moments after the verdict was read Texas Ranger Capt. Alfred Allee headed for the state prison at Huntsville with Cole.

Cole clenched his lips and appeared on the verge of tears when the verdict was read. But he did not break down in the courtroom, packed with spectators who stood three deep in the rear.

The state had asked for the death penalty while defense attorneys maintained that Cole was insane. The defense pointed out he had been an inmate of several mental institutions and was the victim of a broken home when a small child.

R. S. Crawford Jr., the prosecutor, said he thought the "long psychiatric testimony kept him from getting the death penalty."

The shooting took place July 29 while Gilliam was visiting the ranch of his brother, A. L. Gilliam, near Castroville. A statement from Cole, introduced in evidence, said he shot down his victim.

Cole escaped to Mexico but was deported and arrested at Laredo, Cole's father, Paul Franklin Cole Sr., of Syracuse, N.Y., said after the verdict was read that he was "glad it turned out this way instead of otherwise..."

Executive Gets Catty Over Cat, Union's Back Is Up

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—If Mister Tom 'he cat gets the gate, the state may be asked to arbitrate.

That's the essence of a labor-management crisis developing at Pacific Mercury Electronics Corp. Mister Tom has been the plant mascot there, has even become an honorary member of the union.

But now comes a new chief security officer. He says Mister Tom has certain sub-standard hygienic habits. The cat, he says, must go. The workers reacted with a petition bearing 300 pro-cat signatures. But security remained firm. So, next week, a union grievance committee will meet with management. If that fails, says a union official, "we shall submit the matter to the state conciliation service for arbitration."
