Legislature Sends Pay Bill To Daniel

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas legislators completed action today on their pay raise bill and sent the $4,800 a year annual salary measure to Gov. Price Daniel for approval.

The Senate approved the bill 25 to 1 in the same form it passed the House last week. One attempt to lower the salary to $3,600 was shouted down by voice vote.

Both houses then met in joint session to canvass the Nov. 8 votes for governor and lieutenant governor and to hear an address by the president of the Guatemala Congress, Jorge Luis Zelaya Coronado.

Both houses also approved today a resolution inviting Daniel to deliver his first address of the legislature at 10:15 a.m. Wednesday. The governor's address will contain his budget recommendations and his views on additional taxes and revenue needed to cover state spending.

Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo voted against the pay raise bill. Sen. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth offered the amendment to lower the annual wage to $3,600 but when it was defeated voted for the $4,800 figure.

The bill was approved 113 to 26 by the House last Wednesday. A move to lower it to $3,200—"the same as the present base rate for Texas school teachers"—was defeated 97-45.

Previously, legislators got $25 a day while in session.

The new $4,800 salary will be effective as of the beginning of this legislature.

The House approved unanimously a resolution authorizing the speaker and five members to represent it at the Washington inaugural ceremonies. The resolution specified that the House delegation must pay its own way "due to the condition of the state's general revenue fund." Last week the Senate approved a delegation of Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey and five senators with their expenses to be paid from legislative expense funds.

The president of the Congress of Guatemala addressed a joint session and warned Texas legislators that Fidel Castro "constitutes a grave and enormous threat to Democracy and all of the Americas."

Gorge Luis Zelaya Coronado advocated two solutions to be considered by the United States in Latin America: "Eradication of colonialism and improvements of standards of living in Latin America."

Baluba Warriors Attack Hospital

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Baluba warriors attacked a hospital at Luena and severely wounded a Belgian doctor, the United Nations reported today.

The U.N. command said Congolese also opened fire on Moroccan soldiers of the United Nations stationed in the same Katanga town. The Moroccans returned fire but no casualties were reported. Both attacks took place Sunday.

White refugees fleeing from race violence waged by the Lumumbists in Kivu Province have been pouring into a refugee set up by the United Nations at Goma.

The U.N. command today was trying to obtain the release of six American missionaries and their families who were arrested while trying to get out of Kivu.

White refugees said the missionaries, their wives and 17 children—29 persons in all—were seized by Congolese troops while trying to cross the Ruzizi River into the Belgian trust territory of Ruanda-Urundi Saturday.

The Americans reportedly were stopped at the frontier bridge leading to the Ruanda town of Shangungu, put in Congolese army trucks, and driven to Bukavu, the provincial capital controlled by followers of deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba.

(The missionaries apparently are members of the Beran mission, an interdenominational group with headquarters in St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. C. Reuben Lindquist, wife of the Beran president, said in St. Louis the group has 13 adults and 16 children, in the Congo or Ruanda-Urundi.)

In Wheaton, Ill., an official of the Conservative Baptist Foreign Missions Board said a member of his group, Dr. R. H. Bothwell, had arranged for the Beran missionaries to leave Kivu. The only families known to have been in the party, he said, were the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Huribert of Wheaton, Ill., and the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Handyside of Webster, N.Y. Others known to be in Kivu, he said, are Dr. Bothwell; the Rev. and Mrs. James Kruetner, who have no permanent U.S. address; the Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Kile of Grenada, Minn.; the Rev. and Mrs. William Battistilli of Warren, Mich.; and Ruth Uhlinger of Memphis, Tenn.

Congolese troops refused to recognize the group's passes, other refugees said.

In north Katanga Province Swedish U.N. guards fought off Baluba tribesmen attacking a train near the town of Bukama Sunday. Three Swedes were wounded and several tribesmen were reported killed.

A U.N. spokesman said 120 Swedish soldiers aboard the train were moving from Elisabethville, capital of Katanga, to Kamina, in Kasai Province, to relieve U.N. Moroccan troops on another train that was attacked by the Balubas last week.

The relief train finally reached the Moroccans, the U.N. spokesman said, and the Swedes provided covering fire as the Moroccans switched trains.

The U.N. Command announced it would not officially answer a demand from the Congo's foreign minister, Justin Bomboko, that the Indian head of the U.N. Congo operation, Rajeshwar Dayal, be removed.

Bomboko in a letter Saturday denounced the entire U.N. operation in the Congo and charged Dayal showed partiality to factions backing Lumumba.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower returned to Washington by auto Sunday after spending the weekend at his retreat in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains.

BUDGET

grams of all kinds, but mostly military, up $770 million to $9.4 billion. Included is $1 billion for basic research.

Foreign-aid up $250 million to $3.6 billion. Including requests for 1962 and future years, the total comes to $4 billion. This involves $1.8 billion in military aid.

Space exploration up $195 million to $965 million.

Agricultural programs up $165 million, mostly for price supports, to $5.1 billion.

Health, education and welfare activities up $300 million to $4 billion.

The biggest spending cut in fiscal 1962, apart from the one that would result from higher postal rates, was foreseen in interest charges on the national debt. Because rates have dropped and the debt has fallen very slightly, interest costs are estimated at $8.6 billion—down $400 million.

Eisenhower said that by June 30, 1962, the debt should be down to $283.4 billion, compared with the present $290 billion. However, he said Congress once again will have to vote a temporary increase in the permanent $285 billion debt limit. A temporary boost to $293 billion expires June 30.

In making his surprise suggestion of a super-level White House post, Eisenhower said: "I have reached the conclusion that serious attention should be given to providing in the President's office an official ranking higher than Cabinet members, possibly with the title of first secretary of the government, to assist the President in consulting with the departments on the formulation of national security objectives, in coordinating international programs, and in representing the President at meetings with foreign officials above the rank of foreign minister and below the rank of head of state."

BRING TOGETHER

As for a department of transportation, he said it "should be established so as to bring together at Cabinet level the presently fragmented federal functions regarding transportation activities."

Kennedy has talked about a new department of urban affairs that would encompass transportation, housing and other metropolitan problems.

In calling for a higher gasoline tax, Eisenhower said this would make it possible to finish building 41,000 miles of interstate super-highways by 1972.

The gas tax now is 4 cents a gallon but is scheduled to drop to 3 cents on June 30. Simultaneously, part of the excise taxes collected on autos, parts and accessories would be diverted from general funds to the road-financing highway trust fund, outside the budget, to make up for the gas tax cut. Eisenhower called for repeal of the diversion.

DOUBLE PLAY
Eisenhower said a congressional double play involving gasoline and excise taxes would stave off a general revenue loss of $810 million in fiscal 1962.

He recommended that the present tax on aviation gasoline be increased from 2 to 4 1/2 cents per gallon and that the 4 1/2 cent fuel rate be extended to jet fuels, which are now tax free.

Eisenhower said postal rates should be increased enough to bring in an additional $843 million in the coming year. His 1959 and 1960 requests for postal rate increases were rejected by Congress.

Another tax proposal was as predictable as the rising of the sun: Congress will have to head off the annual threat of an automatic July 1 cut in excise and corporation income taxes. Otherwise, revenues would drop by $2.6 billion, the President estimated.

2 Negroes Back In Class At University Of Georgia

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — Two young Negroes returned in peace today to classes at the University of Georgia which suspended them last Wednesday night after campus riots following their admission under a federal court order.

There were no resumption of classes until today. The watch disclosed only the normal traffic of any college campus.

Holmes walked into his classroom at 8:45 a.m., accompanied by three white men. He entered a different building from that where Miss Hunter was in class.

Miss Hunter and Holmes were driven to Athens, starting before dawn, by their attorney, Donald L. Hollowell, and the Rev. Samuel W. Williams, president of the Atlanta branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Upon arrival in Athens, they transferred to other cars.

An armed prowler created excitement Sunday night when he appeared at a dormitory and told a guard he was looking for the Negro girl enrolled in the school. Police were told he drew a gun when asked to identify himself, relieved the guard of his gun and fled. The incident occurred about 9:30 p.m.

A thorough search of the campus was made but the man, described as short, stocky and about 35 or 40 years old, eluded detection.

U.S. Dist. Judge W. A. Boothe ordered the two re-admitted and enjoined school and state officials from again removing them on the ground that unruly demonstrations endanger their personal safety.

Earlier the jurist barred state officials from cutting off funds for the university as required by state law for integrated schools.

Hours in advance of the re-entry of the two students state police in the area were re-inforced by patrolmen from other sections. Eighty state troopers were reported on hand for the new effort to integrate the university which has 7,500 white students.

The campus, spread over several thousand acres, was under constant watch by Georgia Bureau of Investigation agents cruising in unmarked cars. FBI agents were on hand to check on any violation of federal law. City and county authorities warned that law violators would get immediate prosecution.

Sheriff Tommy Huff of Clarke County issued an appeal for everyone to stay away from any trouble areas.

An 8:30 p.m. curfew for coeds was ordered by school officials. Spectators at Wednesday night's rock-throwing included a number of girl students.

University officials and students said they believe a hard core of 15 or 20 segregationist students sparked the disorder. A dozen identified with the riotous action have been suspended.

President-Elect Takes Time Out For Lunch With Graham

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy takes time today from consultations on appointments and speech-writing to lunch with Baptist evangelist Billy Graham.

Kennedy, who is scheduled to leave Palm Beach Tuesday afternoon to fly to Washington and New York for a round of activity in advance of his Friday inauguration, planned more work today on the address he will deliver after taking the oath of office.

With several more key positions to be filled before taking over the reins of government, the President-elect is spending considerable time in consultation regarding prospective appointees.

Today he announced the appointment of a career government official, John M. Leddy, as assistant secretary of the Treasury for international affairs.

Leddy, 46, has held State Department positions since 1941 and for the last two years has been assistant to Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon, who — as secretary of the Treasury — will continue to be his chief.

A native of Chicago, Leddy has a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University School of Foreign Service. He began his government career in 1934 with the Home Owners Loan Corporation.

The President-elect's luncheon date with Graham was arranged, Kennedy's headquarters said, by Sen. George Smathers, D-Fla., who also is invited.

During the presidential campaign when Kennedy's Roman Catholicism was an issue, Graham did not publicly endorse either Kennedy or his Republican opponent, Vice President Richard M. Nixon. The evangelist gave a well-publicized invocation at a rally for the GOP candidate, a close friend.

Over the weekend Kennedy announced these other selections: Elvis J. Stahr Jr., 44, president of West Virginia University, as secretary of the Army. This completed organization of the Pentagon high command under Robert S. McNamara, former president of the Ford Motor Co., as secretary of defense.

Dr. Luther L. Terry of Rockville, Md., as surgeon general of the United States. Terry, 49, will head the Public Health Service. He now is assistant director of the National Heart Institute, one of the government's major medical research units, and is a member of the faculty of Johns Hopkins University Medical School.

Former Rep. James M. Quigley, 42, Pennsylvania Democrat defeated for re-election last November, as assistant secretary of federal and state matters in the Health, Education and Welfare Department.

Wilbur Cohen of Ann Arbor, Mich., as assistant secretary in that department for legislative matters. Cohen, 47, headed a Kennedy-appointed study group on Social Security matters.

Alanson W. Wilcox, 59, as general counsel of the same department. Wilcox, whose home is in Washington, now is general counsel of the American Hospital Association.

Robert J. Burkhardt, 44, of Titusville, N.J., as assistant postmaster general for facilities. Burkhardt is a former executive secretary to Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey and has been director of the New Jersey Democratic Central Committee.

Plans for the U.S. Senate campaign of John Tower will be discussed and plans made for the 1962 election.

Hughes said Constitution party members and conservative Democrats are invited to participate. The speaker will be John Rich Anderson, Borden County rancher who has been leader in this area of the Constitution party. Anderson will play a tape recording of remarks by Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Sen. Harry Byrd of Virginia.

Kennedy Names Gleason To VA
John S. Gleason, Chicago banker and former national commander of the American Legion, has been named to head the Veterans Administration by President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Upon conferring with Secretary of State-designate, Dean Rusk, Kennedy announced the appointment of Gleason to administer the varied Veterans Affairs program.

Gleason, a vice-president of the First National Bank of Chicago, is a graduate of Notre Dame University and enlisted as an Army private in World War II, advancing to the rank of lieutenant colonel by the end of the war.

Mrs. Chavez Is Treated For Shock
Mrs. Marcia Chavez, Gail Route, was taken to the Howard County Hospital Foundation at 7:30 p.m. Sunday where she was treated for shock and released. She fell and struck her head after the family car caught fire in the 300 block of NE 10th.

Firemen answered the call and found only burning wires caused by a short circuit. The damage was slight.

Hospital Gets 50 Star Flag

A band concert and ceremonies will surround the raising of a new flag at the Big Spring State Hospital on Tuesday morning.

The American Legion Post has furnished a new, large, 50-star flag to the hospital, replacing a worn 48-star national emblem.

The Rannels Junior High School band, under the direction of Joe Burdfield, will furnish the music, and the presentation will be in charge of Calvin Foster, post adjutant of the American Legion post.

The Webb AFB color guard will raise the colors, and afterwards the audience will sing "America" to the accompaniment of the band.

The public is invited to join with the patients of the hospital in this ceremony, said Dr. Preston Harrison, superintendent.

Castro's Militia Attacks Rebels in Cuban Mountains

HAVANA (AP)—Between 10,000 and 15,000 militiamen, unleashed by Prime Minister Fidel Castro in a major offensive, have surrounded growing rebel bands operating in the rugged Escambray Mountains of south central Cuba.

It could not be determined if the offensive was part of a nationwide drive to fulfill Castro's pledge to wipe out all rebel activity in Cuba this year, or merely a one-shot attack to clean up an area troublesome to Castro since he took power.

One of the hundreds of civilians evacuated from the mountains in Las Villas Province said the militiamen were shelling an area where the rebels were believed concentrated and would move in after the mortar and artillery bombardment.

Castro's troops reportedly are commanded by Maj. Dermidio Es-calona, recently transferred to Las Villas after commanding the army in westernmost Pinar del Rio Province.

In Havana, the Castro regime continue a crackdown on accused counter-revolutionaries, with 37 men, one of them a North American, were sentenced to prison terms of 9 to 30 years on charges they were involved in various plots against the government.

The North American, identified only as Robert John Gentile, was sentenced to 30 years on charges he plotted to kidnap Cuban President Osvaldo Dorticos.

Two American newsmen were arrested and held six hours Sunday. They were Richard Valeriani of The Associated Press and James Wallace of the Wall Street Journal. Both were released after questioning and after they signed statements that "no charges (against them) existed." Valeriani said his questioners seemed to be interested mainly in American politics.

Authorities at first told Valeriani and Wallace they would be expelled but later said they could remain in Cuba. Labor unrest appeared to have spread to the Bus Drivers Union, less than 48 hours after Castro's 1 1/2-hour speech Friday demanding that workers close ranks behind the revolution.

The bus drivers, once strong Castro backers, reportedly complained about compulsory contributions to a food fund for the militiamen and cuts in pay and privileges. The Transport Ministry ordered all union locals in Havana to purge unpatriotic elements,

Hughes said Constitution party members and conservative Democrats are invited to participate. The speaker will be John Rich Anderson, Borden County rancher who has been leader in this area of the Constitution party. Anderson will play a tape recording of remarks by Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Sen. Harry Byrd of Virginia.

Mrs. C. W. Fisher, who was injured in a two-car collision Saturday afternoon, was released from Malone and Hogan Hospital Foundation Monday morning. She received cuts and bruises in the accident, and two stitches were taken to close a cut on her face. Fisher escaped injury.

Injured in the same accident was Dick Kendall, assistant manager of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce. 4th Louisiana Legislature Opens BATON ROUGE (AP) — Gov. Jimmie Davis' administration opens today its fourth straight session of the Legislature in a fight for elementary public school segregation.

The Legislature, meeting since Nov. 4, handed the administration a setback at the final meeting of the third session Sunday night. Lawmakers rejected Davis' plea for a sales tax boost to finance private school cooperatives.

The Senate turned down the House-approved bill 18-15, or 8 votes short of the 26 needed to meet a required two-thirds majority on a tax bill.

The first special session began 10 days before two public schools were integrated in New Orleans. All anti-integration acts and resolutions of the three special sessions have been blocked as soon as they have been taken into federal court.

Admission of three Negro first grade girls into McDonogh No. 19 resulted in a boycott by white pupils. One Negro first grade girl entered William Frantz school which now has an average attendance of 12 white pupils.

A Devotional For Today

Arise, shine; for your light has come. (Isaiah 60:1. RSV.)

Good Man Leaves, Another Takes Over

At the end of this month, L. C. Porter will retire as vice president-operations of the Texas & Pacific Railway Company, ending a career of distinguished service not only for the T&P but for the area it served.

A good railroader, a friend of Big Spring, while we regret to lose the services of a man of his caliber, it is especially pleasing to friends here to know that his successor is Wilbur C. Foster, a former superintendent of the western division here, 1952-55. During his tenure here, Mr. Foster gained the respect of Big Spring as an active participant in its affairs, and he also did a good enough job that he stepped up to the eastern division superintendency, and then to a top level operations post. He made his way up from a start as a worker, pile driving crew member and section foreman. Railroads, like some other businesses, are having to dig in these days, but with men like Wilbur Foster to replace men like L. C. Porter, the effort will have mighty good manpower.

Difficult Chore

The Big Spring Independent School District Board of Trustees is taking steps to acquire another school site. The one selected is in the outer southwest edge of town, and the board is arranging to obtain 20 acres.

one of the knotty problems that the board must face. It is difficult, sometimes impossible, to accurately pinpoint the best spot for a school, but if a board waits until this is absolutely certain chances are that the land will not be available. Also, unlike some other types of building such as that for residence, a certain amount of reasonable level or very gently sloping land is required for playground and auxiliary areas, thus complicating the matter of site selection.

What Will Happen To Dollar's Value?

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower has issued a challenge to those in control of the government in the next four years: Will the dollar, which is now worth about 47 cents in purchasing power, as compared with 1959, be worth only 25 cents in another four years?

administrations, problems rarely have terminal dates. The biggest achievement has been the avoidance of any war during the eight years. The outcome of the Korean War can hardly be regarded, of course, as entirely the responsibility of the present administration. For, rightly or wrongly, practically all the important provisions of the armistice agreement had been agreed upon by both sides before the Eisenhower administration took office.

CRITICS, OF COURSE, still say that it was in the conduct of the Korean War and the failure to bomb the bases of the Red Chinese that the real blunder was made by the Truman administration. It has been asserted that much of the trouble in the world has resulted from that error on the part of the West. But it should be added that the Truman administration was directly influenced by the wishes of Britain and France, who discouraged any all-out retaliation when the Red Chinese entered the war in Korea. Allies have also caused the Eisenhower administration to digress from some of its policies, and the same is bound to happen under the Kennedy administration.

BUT IT IS ON the economic side that the President's message will evoke the widest comment. For the public is not aware of the many influences that can, for instance, interfere with the stabilization of the dollar and cause its value to decline. Labor - union power has grown so formidable that it can inflate the economy almost at will.

An examination of the history of the decline in the value of the dollar indicates that as wages have gone up, prices rose, and the dollar dropped in its purchasing power. Even today, the labor - union leaders are boldly urging that a 22-hour week be established and that workers be paid the same for the shorter week as they now are being paid for 40 hours. In the end, of course, this added wage cost would have to be paid for by the American people in the form of higher prices. This could quickly bring a 25-cent dollar.

IT'S ON the economic side that Mr. Kennedy will have his biggest challenge. For, even if he can keep America out of war without materially increasing the present rate of expenditures for defense, he will find that the larger and larger appropriations required for more and more benefits under "welfare" programs—being advocated by his own advisers and key supporters in the pressure groups—will put the budget out of balance for several years to come. So it is understandable that, in his final report to Congress, President Eisenhower should at least wish to present to the American people a review of the "state of the union" for the past eight years and describe in explicit language exactly the condition in which the country is being left on January 20, 1961.

LATE BLOOMING SWITCHEROO

James Marlow Keeping Balance While In Motion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Keeping his balance while in motion will be as much of a task for President-elect John F. Kennedy as anything facing him these next four years. For him standing still would be equivalent to failure. He has to move. He promised it in the campaign. In trying to get things done, Kennedy will encounter a thousand frustrations. The test of his balance will come in how well he avoids letting his judgment get twisted by exasperation and impatience.

He will not have that luxury any more. His now is the primary responsibility for seeing that his promised programs get through Congress or are approved by allies and, sometimes, by enemies. He will be open to criticism, just as were his immediate predecessors: Presidents Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower. Roosevelt had almost subservient support from Congress in the crisis days of the early New Deal. He began to lose it as the sense of emergency got lost in the sense of recovery in the late 1930s.

Hal Boyle Be Careful On Sunday Morning

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail: What is the most dangerous hour of the week for heart attacks? A medical survey found it was 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Maybe because of two much Saturday night celebrations? Sign outside an air-conditioned restaurant in Tokyo: "It's fleeing inside!"

Even vegetables take medicine now. A new tranquilizer for plants is said to help them offset the shock and strain caused by heat spells, cold snaps and too much or too little rain. Science has found that a newborn baby is 77 per cent water. Most veteran fathers we have talked to feel this figure is too low. Americans buy between 8 and 10 million used cars a year. More than half the automobiles you pass on the highway—or that pass you—have had two or more owners.

Our quotable notables "Concept," said Bruce Barton, "is God's gift to little men." In colonial America, families usually gave a mourning ring to a preacher for conducting a funeral. A minister could measure his lifetime popularity by the number of such rings he received. Some collected thousands. Every human being is a crowd-stroiling universe to lower forms of life. The average person pastures about 10 trillion bacteria on his 19-square feet of skin. Want to present your best girl a really unusual Valentine gift? Send her a mile of pennies. The cost: $20—not including delivery charges. But it'll prove to your sweetie you're one guy with a lot of common sense. Everybody has a favorite old saying. Here's singer Tommy Hazard's: "Taking the least line of resistance is what makes both men and rivers crooked." Gem lore: In ancient days the diamond was thought to protect its owner against poisoning, and aristocrats wore an emerald on their forehead to cure them of eye diseases. You may believe nature gave you an odd anatomy, but you could be in a lot stranger shape. For, example: A shrimp has its heart and stomach in its head, the cuttlefish has three hearts, and crabs have teeth in their stomachs. Wisecrack of the week: Asked by his wife and three children what he wanted for his birthday, actor Walter Slezak sighed, "A chance to use the telephone." Great minds at work: A law passed in Vermont in 1803 banned the teaching of grammar in its high schools as a useless subject. Hint to housewives: If your husband complains about helping you with home chores, tell him this—many medical authorities now believe lack of exercise is one of the most important factors in premature aging. Lying on the sofa watching you will only make him older sooner. It was millionaire William K. Vanderbilt who observed, "Inherited wealth is a big handicap to happiness. It is as certain death as ambition as cocaine is to morality."

TRUMAN HAD firm support in the closing days of the war but after that practically nothing but cat and dog fights with Congress. Eisenhower, working for most of his eight years with a Congress run by Democrats, got a lot of his programs through but endured a lot of disappointments. Roosevelt, frustrated and exasperated by opposition in Congress, went to the extreme of trying to purge fellow Democrats and enlarge the Supreme Court. The fiery Truman was truly exasperated—and showed it—by the roadblocks thrown up by Republicans, particularly the late Sen. Robert A. Taft. His pitched battles with them were famous and often unproductive. Eisenhower, the opposite of Truman, remained calm, friendly and non-personal with Congress. But there were times when he probably could have accomplished more if he had fought harder. With these examples before him, Kennedy knows the great trick in a successful presidency is in somehow creating a minimum of personal antagonism while fighting for and getting what he wants. Can he do it? He has been unusually well-balanced so far. But his troubles haven't begun.

To Your Good Health Rheumatoid Arthritis An Ornerly Disease

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D. "Dear Dr. Molner: I am 50 and a typist. For several months I have been suffering from pain in my shoulders and arms, particularly at night. I have taken cortisone but stopped as I thought it was doing more harm than good. I understand it is the opinion of doctors that many of the high-powered drugs have a 'side effect.' "At present I am taking nothing, not even aspirin. Though the pain, especially at night, is very severe, I am able to endure it. "In its drive for funds, I notice that the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation uses the phrase, 'Pain today—crippled tomorrow.' "In your opinion is it absolutely necessary to take drugs in order not to become crippled from arthritis? As long as I am able to do so, I am willing to 'live with the pain,' but on the other hand I do not want to become crippled through failure to do the right thing—'J. K.' "You know, I like the thoughtfulness of your letter, yet at the same time I think you are on a somewhat wrong track. "As a matter of fact, I'm not sure I've seen that phrase you attribute to the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation—which, by the way, in my opinion is a splendid organization built around a group of doctors all over the country who are devoted to trying to solve the riddle of what is a very baffling group of diseases. "Anyway, I don't care for that slogan. I'll tell you why. There are many forms of arthritis: Rheumatoid, osteo, gouty, and a lot of others. I'd count bursitis in the list. "What's wrong with the slogan, in my view, is that it gives the idea pains in the joints are bound to cause crippling if you don't 'do something.' This just isn't so. Real rheumatoid arthritis, an acute, crippling, chronic disease, most decidedly needs the best possible medical care. Let the painful joints 'freeze' from misuse and permanent damage is the result. "But take a different disease, osteoarthritis, which is the result of wear-and-tear on the joints, and all you have is the old-fashioned 'rheumatism' that may make you creak but won't leave you with 'frozen' joints that won't move at all. "There are numerous kinds of 'arthritis' which have only one thing in common: They bother our joints. Some cause, some little. "A fascinating case of rheumatoid arthritis can cause the sufferer to well use hospital care—lots of rest, medication, and carefully specified daily movement, yet not exercise that can harm the joints in the acute, inflamed stage of the attack. "For J. K. I'd suggest this: If cortisone is called for, in her doctor's opinion, she can take it—and trust him to watch for side effects, and when it ever they develop. "Dear Dr. Molner: Does skim milk contain as much calcium as whole milk?—R. V. D. "Yes. As a matter of fact, more. Because with skim milk, much of the fat content has been removed, and the room is occupied by more of the part of the milk which contains calcium. "Vitamin starvation" is possible even if you eat a lot. In order to check your diet to make sure you are getting necessary nourishment, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Big Spring Herald for a copy of his pamphlet, "Vitamins—The Alphabet of Health." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 5 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling. "Dr. Molner is always glad to hear from his readers, and whenever possible he uses their questions in his column, but because of the tremendous volume of mail received daily, he cannot answer individual letters. Around The Rim You Never Can Win, But—

Is gambling a disease like alcoholism or do you get addicted to it as you would to narcotics? There's no doubt about the seriousness of the problem. Most everyone has gambled to a degree in some form or another some time during his life. Maybe a milk shake on a World Series game or coffee money on a presidential race. Many of us are in it deeper than we like to admit, however.

ACCORDING to a conservative estimate by the U. S. Attorney General's Special Group on Organized Crime, made not long ago, more than $47 billion a year is wagered by Americans — more than the country invests in national defense. Of that amount, the crime syndicate nets something like $9 billion a year—or ten times what the nation's biggest corporation nets in profit in a single year.

THE BIGGEST gamblers in the country will tell you the average guy has little chance breaking even at a horse track, yet the little man will often forego paying his rent or an installment on his refrigerator or again a doctor bill in order to go to the track or slip the money to his favorite bookie. Something like four years ago, a Crime Commission in one of our eastern states made a thorough study of betting and discovered that $2 billion a year was bet illegally in that commonwealth alone—nearly double what was spent on food within the state.

IN ILLEGAL betting, of course, no one but the hoodlum element benefits. The state doesn't reap a dime in taxes. Of course, where illegal betting takes place on such a vast scale, the criminals are bound to be buying protection from dishonest police and public officials. Consider what one college professor reported, after making a thorough study of horse - track betting: "No one who bets regularly on horses or other sports with bookies, or bucks the house percentages in craps, roulette, or slot machines, has the slightest chance of winning in the long run."

THE SLOT MACHINES are geared so that the owner makes 20 cents on every dollar shoved into them, sometimes much more.

You say the Las Vegas play is okay because (1) you get a good show for your money and (2) everything has to be on the square. Sure, but you should also be aware of the fact that the house where you might be a guest comes in for its 'cut' on every hand of poker you play, or every turn you make of the roulette wheel. It's certainly not in business to lose money.

PLAY ANY GAME under such circumstances long enough, and you'll find yourself playing against your own money. The stories out of England, where-in some working stiff has won $100,000 or more on a wager of two cents, makes nice reading, but they come few and far between. The money must come out of somebody's pocket and the bookies certainly don't stand the loss.

Some people never give up hope that they'll hit the big money with a modest wager when, often, they have to ask a friend for a loan to make the bet in the first place. —TOMMY HART

Inez Robb If It's A Bad Picture, You Can't Leave

Ever since World War II, airlines—both domestic and foreign—have been ardently wooing the passenger via his alimentary canal and his taste buds. The passenger has never had it so good, with free champagne, caviar, pate de foie gras, green turtle soup, guinea hen under glass, crepes suzette, the proper wine with every course, liqueurs and even fine de bicarb, when needed.

SINCE THE ARRIVAL of the Jet Age, airlines have learned to stretch a gourmet dinner, from cocktails to coffee, all the way from take-off in New York to touch down in Paris. When I recently flew by jet to Los Angeles, we locked-in passengers ate steadily for 3,000 glorious, vitamin-packed miles across the continent. This airline fight for the allegiance of the stomach has been prompted, obviously, by the fact that once a plane is airborne there isn't much a passenger can do except eat, sleep, read or tell his life story to his hapless seat mate or a captive hostess.

AT 25,000 to 41,000 feet, the scenic intake is limited. Airlines have been quick to stuff passengers continuously with goodies to fight the yawn that leads to boredom rather than to Morpheus. But something new is about to be added to air travel to divert the passenger who is a calorie counter or hates guinea hen. Trans World Airlines, with the coming of spring, will begin showing motion pictures on its long-distance jet flights (Yes, Virginia, there are some flights long enough even to show "Exodus").

A FEW EVENINGS ago TWA loaded one of its big jets with the first audience that ever saw a motion picture at an altitude of 39,000 feet. Or: ever flew to Miami (without landing) and back to see a movie. These may not be landmarks in aviation history, but it chalks up some kind of a record for me, who hardly makes it—on terra firma—around the corner to the neighborhood movie once a year. Technically the equipment, called In-flight, works perfectly. But among the convictions I carried away from this first night flight are that altitude does not improve a mediocre picture ("Marriage-Go-Round", in this instance) and you cannot walk out. Who wants to walk out when the temperature beyond the door is 65 degrees below zero?

HOWEVER, passengers on Trans World Airlines' future films-and-flight jet service will not constitute a captive audience. If the passenger chooses, he can watch the screen in the front of the ship, or he can read, sleep or hunt up a canasta partner, as he prefers. Privacy for all passengers is made possible by individual, featherweight headsets through which the passenger hears the movie soundtrack. The passenger can look and listen, if he wishes, or mind his own business; that's more interesting.

The screen on which the pictures will be shown is 27 x 48 inches. The other night, the picture image, in glorious color, was perfection, as was the sound. THE EQUIPMENT is fully automatic, and is turned on and off with the flip of a switch. It is the invention and baby of David Flexer, who owns and operates a chain of motion-picture theatres in the South. He began tinkering when, on frequent flights to California, he asked himself, "Why don't airlines show movies aboard their planes?"

Although it has added films to the jet bill-of-fare, TWA won't neglect the stomach in the future. Fine vittles came with the show the other night. And, finally, I don't think the drive-ins have cause for worry. (Copyright, 1961, United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Holmes Alexander An Unfortunate Appointment

WASHINGTON — Came the millennium when our mail is postmarked United States of Utopia, it may be possible to discuss race and religion without being charged as a racist or bigot. But unless he's timid and chooses to be silent on these subjects, a man must speak up and take his knocks. With this preface, I think the President-elect may have made a mistake in naming Dr. Robert C. Weaver as Administrator of Housing and Home Finance with the probability that Dr. Weaver will soon become Secretary of Urban Affairs.

THE APPOINTEE is a native Washingtonian, went to Dunbar High School here, went on to Harvard where he became an economist and in 1954 became a New Deal bureaucrat under Harold Ickes and Nathan Strassus. During the Eisenhower Administration, Dr. Weaver worked in the housing field under two New York Democrats, Governor Harriman and Mayor Wagner. He is chairman of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and President of the National Committee Against Discrimination in Housing.

THERE IS ENOUGH in this fast run-down to reveal two self-evident facts about Dr. Weaver. He is a logical and qualified nominee in an Administration which intends to press the Democratic platform pledge to end discrimination in housing. He is a logical and inviting target for Democratic and Republican conservatives who do not want to see the Federal government using its enormous power to force integration upon home owners. Mr. Kennedy, perhaps unavoidably in seeking the best man for the job, has muddled the situation by appointing a Negro. His first venture across the color line was much wiser, even though futile, when he tried to get Congressman William Dawson to be Postmaster General. Dawson, who declined, is well-known and well liked on Capitol Hill, where he has served amicably in the House with many Southerners. They include Virginia Senator Willis Robertson, who indicates that he would gladly vote for Dawson but maybe not for Dr. Weaver. ROBERTSON'S POSITION illustrates the cliff stick where Mr. Kennedy has pinned a number of Southern Senators.

Even though not favorable to the Advancement of Colored People, these Senators would not strenuously object to a Negro politico in the Cabinet—but they must object to a Negro policy-maker who told the press at Mr. Kennedy's Palm Beach home that he stands for "the idea of open occupancy and non-discrimination in housing."

DR. WEAVER'S philosophy, rather than his pigmentation, is at issue. Yet it would be less than honest to say that—and say no more. There is a race question here. We'd better be brave and face up to it. The American Constitution and Republic were the work of men who were predominantly Anglo-Saxon. In the Anglo-Saxon blood and tradition there is an idea expressed by the saying that "a man's house is his castle." In the concept of American republicanism there is an idea called "sanctity of contract." It has the effect of protecting a man's property, and the value thereof, against damage and destruction from his neighbors and government.

IT IS ALREADY assumed in Washington that the Home and Housing Administrator-designate has a personal philosophy which conflicts with these Early American concepts of home and property. As a Negro, he belongs to a race which, sadly, has more experience in poverty than property. It is surmised that Dr. Weaver will feel it his duty to use administrative decrees, or bureaucratic procedures, in ways to hang integration conditions on the various loans, credits and insurance that make up the Federal housing activities. In so doing, he will inevitably affect property values. He will be acting to favor the poor against the rich, the black against the white, the new socialism against established canons of private ownership and protected property values. Here is an imbraglio in which neither side is wholly right nor wholly wrong. Here is a tragic conflict in the making. (Distributed by McNaught Systems, Inc.)

The airman is Johnnie De La Garza, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. James De La Garza, 108 NW 4th. He has been sent to Lackland Air Force Base for his basic training. Johnnie is a native of Big Spring and has spent all of his life here.

His friend, Manuel D. Sanchez, 17, chose the U. S. Army for his service and has been sent to Waco. He is the son of Mrs. D. Sanchez, of Big Spring.

Army S-4 William D. Lovelace, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie D. Lovelace, 204 Carl St., Big Spring, is scheduled to participate in the inaugural parade for President-elect John F. Kennedy as one of the Presidential military escorts. Specialist Lovelace is assigned to the 1st Battle Group, 3rd Infantry (The Old Guard), from Fort Myer, Va., a specialty selected unit which serves regularly as the President's personal honor guard. The group also performs ceremonial activities at high-level functions and provides guards at the tomb of the unknown soldier. Lovelace, an ordnance parts specialist in the infantry's Headquarters Company, entered the Army in February 1958.

He is a 1956 graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College.

Ward's Mails Out 1961 Catalogs To Customers

"We service what we sell," says Fred O. Gebert, manager of Montgomery-Ward, 221 W. 3rd. One of the oldest Montgomery-Ward stores in the United States, the Big Spring branch employs 60 people and has been recently designated as a training store for managerial prospects. Only three of the 160 stores in this region, have that honor and Gebert is proud of the fine employe efforts in making this possible.

Gebert has been with the company 29 years, 24 in a managerial capacity, and has been manager of the Big Spring store four years. He says Texas is getting the bulk of the new stores to be constructed as part of Montgomery-Ward's new $500 million expansion program throughout the United States.

One employe, Timmie McCormick has been in the store for 25 years and another, Charles Stotts, a trainee, has been promoted to assistant manager of the Gainesville store. Most all the employes have had a lengthy tenure with the firm, assuring the store's many customers expert service.

Catalogues for the new year are being mailed to the thousands of satisfied Montgomery-Ward customers across the nation. One can get everything from bolts to boats through the catalogue, if the items are not available at a local store.

Each week Montgomery-Ward offers reduced prices on various types of merchandise and has full credit facilities for the convenience of its patrons. Living up to the slogan, they promise "satisfaction guaranteed or money back."

Montgomery-Ward is a full line department store, also carrying boats, tires, batteries, hardware and plumbing supplies, furniture, appliances, and automobile and building supplies. In addition, they feature a complete line of wearing apparel and many types of floor coverings, stressing only quality merchandise, whether it be sporting goods or topcoats.

DEAR ABBY

COMES NATURALLY

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am almost 18 and have only been kissed by one boy. He said I didn't know how to kiss and offered to teach me. But after two lessons he gave up and I haven't seen him since. I've dated two other boys since that time and managed to get out of kissing them because I was afraid I would make a fool of myself. Can you tell me how to learn how to kiss without showing my ignorance?

ASHAMED OF MY IGNORANCE: DEAR ABBY: Yours is a case of inexperience—not ignorance; and it's nothing to be ashamed of. In a demonstration of sincere affection, a kiss is as natural as breathing. When you meet the right person, you won't need any lessons.

DEAR ABBY: I don't like to brag, but I am a very good cook

Belgian Work Force Returns

BRUSSELS (AP)—Much of Belgium's work force returned to their jobs today after 28 days of mass strikes. But a police patrol and demonstrators exchanged shots in Chenee, near Liege, and two demonstrators were reported seriously wounded. Police said a small group of strikers attacked a trolley being escorted by police. Socialist trade unions called the strike in an effort to force the government to withdraw its austerity program of higher taxes and cuts in social security benefits.

Koumintang Wins

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Chiang Kai-shek's Koumintang party won 746 of the 929 seats on the island's city and county councils Sunday.

Living Water

Read Jno. ch. 7

"... Jesus stood and cried, saying, 'If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth in me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.' Jno. 7:37-38. This living water is the indwelling Spirit, the Comforter, the helper of our infirmities (Jno. 7:39; Jno. 14:16; Rom. 8:26). This water is figurative, representing the Holy Spirit within. This water is received after (not before) we become children of God ('because ye are sons,' Gal. 4:6). There is another water that comes before we are sons of God. It is a part of the new birth (Jno. 3:5). It is literal water. It is baptism. Baptism comes before the new life (Rom. 6:3,4). When one believes in Christ, repents of sins, confesses Him and is baptized 'for the remission of sins,' Christ gives him 'living water,' which is His presence through the Holy Spirit (Rom. 10:9; Acts 2:38).

Determined Traveler

Enos, a 5-year-old chimpanzee being trained for a flight through space, has a determined look as he sits in a conditioning couch at the Air Research and Development Command's Aeromedical Field Laboratory at Holloman Air Force Base, N.M. The chimp is one of 75 such animals undergoing training. They are taught to perform tasks which will enable scientists to predict whether man can perform useful functions in a space environment. This photograph was released in Washington by the Department of Defense.

American 'Nazi' Attacked In Boston

BOSTON (AP)—An angry crowd estimated by police at 10,000, hurling eggs and tomatoes Sunday ripped a swastika off George Lincoln Rockwell, self-styled "fuhrer" of the American Nazi Party, and routed an attempt by him and four "storm troopers" to picket a downtown movie.

In Chicago, a group of pickets wearing armbands and calling themselves the Fighting American Nationalists were escorted away from a Loop theater by police after scuffling with patrons. Police dispersed a crowd estimated at 200.

Both theaters were showing the same film, "Exodus," a story of the Jewish migration to Israel and the establishment of the Jewish state.

Rockwell, of Arlington, Va., and his companions, were led away through a side door of the theater, taken to a police station in protective custody and later placed aboard a New York-bound plane. No charges were placed against them.

At Boothbay Harbor, Maine, old-time vaudeville and radio comedian George R. (Doc) Rockwell, a close friend of the late Fred Allen, identified the American Nazi leader as his son, a former Maine artist and publisher. "He gets off on these things every so often," the father said.

Mounted police and foot patrolmen battled the Boston crowd for more than an hour to rescue Rockwell and his companions. Rockwell's shirt was torn in the scuffling.

A truck bearing 16 other Rockwell followers was intercepted by police before it arrived at the theater and was ordered out of the city with a police escort.

The Chicago pickets said they were protesting the hiring of Dalton Trumbo to write the screen play for "Exodus." Trumbo was one of a group of screen writers who refused to answer certain questions of a Senate investigating committee during a hearing on alleged subversive activities several years ago.

Government Called Silent Partner In Segregation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Rights Commission says "the federal government has been a silent partner in the creation and perpetuation of separate colleges for Negroes."

The commission Sunday proposed cutting off federal financial aid to publicly supported colleges and universities which discriminate on grounds of race, religion or national origin.

"The Supreme Court has held that the federal government is prohibited by the Constitution from maintaining racially segregated educational institutions," the report said. "It is not sound policy for the federal government to subsidize the unconstitutional operations of others; to do indirectly what it is not permitted to do directly."

Five of the six members of the commission joined in recommending federal fund cutoffs by congressional or executive action. Commissioner Doyle E. Carlton, a former governor of Florida, dissented.

"The withholding of such funds is to me unsound from a political, governmental and moral standpoint."

ified Von Dem Bach-Zelewski as his accomplice in the killing.

In 1951, he told an American prosecutor that he passed Goering the vial of poison Goering swallowed on the eve of his hanging. This part of Von Dem Bach-Zelewski's career is not scheduled to figure in the current trial.

point," Carlton said. "I cannot approve the withholding of money, coming as it does to the federal government from the taxpayers of the several states, as a club to forge any fixed pattern set forth by a federal agency. Such action would impede rather than advance public higher education."

Much of the report dealt with what it called "the resistant states" in the South.

It labeled Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi and South Carolina the hard core states of segregation.

Where Federal Tax Dollar Goes

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is where your federal tax dollar will go, under the fiscal 1962 budget: National security, 37 cents. Interest on debt, 11 cents. Veterans, 6 cents. Agriculture, 6 cents. Paying off debt, 2 cents. All other, 18 cents. And this is where the budget dollar comes from: Individual income tax, 35 cents. Corporation taxes, 25 cents. Excise taxes, 12 cents. Other receipts, 8 cents.

Stores Burn

ATHENS, Tex. (AP)—A early morning fire destroyed three store buildings on the northeast corner of the courthouse square here Sunday. Fire Chief Frank Newbill blamed the fire on an electrical switch in a variety store. Loss was not estimated.

Nazi Elite Guard General On Trial

NUERNBERG, Germany (AP)—A former Nazi elite guard general who claims to have helped Luftwaffe chief Hermann Goering commit suicide in the Nuernberg jail went on trial today.

Ex-Gen. Erich von dem Bach-Zelewski, 61, is charged with killing Baron Anton von Hobbberg Buchwald in 1934. The baron at that time was alleged to have had a part in the anti-Hitler putsch of Stormtrooper boss Ernst Roehm.

Coogan, Dancer To Be Charged

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former child star Jackie Coogan and a onetime striptease dancer will be charged today with narcotics law violations, the district attorney's office said.

Coogan, 45, and Nona Carver, 40, were arrested with two others Jan. 7 when sheriff's deputies said they found enough marijuana in Coogan's Malibu home to make 300 cigarettes.

Coogan denied knowledge of the narcotics.

MRS. MELVEN RAY LOBSTEIN

Miss McCrary Bride Of Melven Lobstein

LAMESA (SC)—Marriage vows were recited Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church of O'Donnell by Joan McCrary and Melven Ray Lobstein of Lamesa. The Rev. Wilburn Norris, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church was the officiating clergyman.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McCrary of Route 3, Tahoka, are the bride's parents, and Mrs. Lucy Lobstein of Route B, Lamesa, is the mother of the bridegroom.

The wedding music was presented by Jo Ann Lacy, organist, and Mrs. Don Bogus of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, who sang the nuptial solos.

Baskets of white mums and red roses flanked an archway of greenery before tapers in branched candelabra to form the setting for the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of Chantilly type lace combined with silk organza. It was fashioned with a bateau neckline and brief sleeves which were complemented by short kid gloves; a fitted lace bodice was highlighted with sequins and seed pearls. The bouffant skirt of silk organza was appliqued with patterns of lace re-embroidered in sequins and seed pearls; it swept to a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of French silk illusion was attached to a tiered crown of pearls and sequins and she carried white gardenias surrounded by red roses atop a white Bible.

Nelda Stalcup of Tahoka was maid of honor. She wore a dress of white brocaded taffeta with brief sleeves and neckline scooped low in back. Her headband of pearls held nosetip veils of white tulle, and the red roses she carried were attached to a white velvet muff.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Reams Shofner, Route B, Lamesa, and Mary Forbes of O'Donnell, were dressed identically to the honor attendant.

Reams Shofner attended the bridegroom as best man; groomsmen were the bridegroom's brother, Wilburn Lobstein of Abernathy, and his brother-in-law, Darrel Derrington of Lamesa.

Junior members of the wedding party included the bridegroom's niece, Janette Mickey of Plainview, who was flower girl; the bride's sister, Iris Lee McCrary of Tahoka, and Carolyn Chambers of Amarillo, niece of the bridegroom, who served as candlelighters.

Ushers were the bridegroom's brothers, Clarence Lobstein of Lubbock and Albert Lobstein of Lamesa.

A reception honoring the couple was held in Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony. Wedding guests attended from Keen, Lubbock, Fort Worth, Seminole, Big Spring and Portales, N. M.

When the newlyweds left for a trip to points in South Texas, the bride was wearing a red wool sheath with matching jacket and black and white accessories. A graduate of O'Donnell High School, the new Mrs. Lobstein is employed by the First National Bank, Lamesa.

Lobstein, who graduated from Lamesa High School, has completed a tour of duty with the U. S. Army, and is now engaged in farming in Dawson County.

Mrs. Brewer Is Named District Eight Queen

Mrs. Kellon Brewer of the Lambda Nu Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha in Andrews was named the beauty queen of District Eight at a meeting held Sunday in the old Student Union Building at Howard County Junior College.

Runners-up in the contest were Mrs. Bill Griffin of the Kappa Gamma Chapter and Mrs. Martha Schneider of the Lambda Zeta Chapter, both of Midland.

Gayle Price served as master of ceremonies for the afternoon. Judges for the beauty queen contest were Mrs. Price, Conard Davis and Mrs. Glenn Hartwell.

Mrs. Conard Davis was a special guest.

A buffet luncheon was served at noon to 108 District ESA women and the five guests.

Roll call was answered by 15 Chapters by relating various successful money making projects for the year.

The Iota Psi Chapter of Snyder won the travel prize for having the most members present.

The doll, which was given by the Big Spring Alpha Chi Chapter, was won by Mrs. Peggy Morgan of the Mu Delta Chapter of Crane. Mrs. B. B. Foster of Midland won the door prize.

The Sunday meeting was announced to be the largest ever held by the District Eight ESA group.

The dining tables were covered with white linen clothes and decorated with blue candles with gold crowns covering the base of each.

Local Chapters hosting the meeting were the Alpha Chi Chapter and the Mu Kappa Chapter of Big Spring. These chapters were represented in the beauty queen contest by Mrs. Loy Carroll and Mrs. Kenneth Smith.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Thanks For Band Support, Regrets Derby Decision

To The Editor:

I sincerely hope that every subscriber of the Herald will see this letter and read it, for it is truly to the citizens of Big Spring and surrounding areas.

Once more a big job has been successfully completed because so many, many people helped. Each time a cake in our annual Fruit Cake Sale was sold, hundreds of boys and girls were affected. The main benefit any adult receives is the satisfaction of knowing they did just a little to help some child. These little bits added up so immensely that we are happy to say many satisfied people live in our community.

We should like to find a new way to express our grateful appreciation to everyone—the newspapers, television and radio stations as well as the citizens of our community. But since sometimes an old way is best, we shall resort to a grateful "Thank You" to each and every one. We hope you all received God's blessing from it.

Sincerely,
The Band Boosters Assn.
of Big Spring Schools.
LIDA FIVEASH

To The Editor:

It was with great disappointment that I read in Sunday's paper that a decision had been made to withdraw Big Spring from the All-American Soap Box Derby program. I think this is one of the most important programs that a city can sponsor for boys age 11-15 years. I feel that lots of our boys will be disappointed that they will not get to build their racers and enter the contest along with the many who have already rebuilt their racers from last year. The boys should have known sooner, if Big Spring was not going to sponsor the race this year.

Each year the racers were improving. Last year more boys showed interest than ever before. I enjoyed the four years I worked on my racer-building project and improving it each year. Many Big Spring boys started rebuilding their racers the day after the race was over last year in hopes of having a racer this year which would be a winner.

I am grateful that I grew up in a town that was progressive enough to sponsor the Soap Box Derby races. It meant so much to me to be able to represent Big Spring in the 1958 All-American Soap Box Derby races in Akron, Ohio.

Sincerely,
DAVID SPRADLING

His experiences should be interesting to all local residents, the Rev. Ward Jackson, pastor of the local church said this morning, and all Big Springers are invited to attend.

Rev. Jackson said his church has 80 congregations in Germany and Rev. Klabunde is considered a spokesman for them.

Nasty Temper

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—Eugene G. Rossetti told police he lost his temper when he dialed two consecutive wrong numbers at a pay telephone.

Rossetti was arrested while smashing windows in the phone booth. At the county jail it took five policemen to get him into a cell.

Sometime Sunday he stuffed clothing into the lavatory in the cell. Plumbing on the fourth-floor cell row was clogged, water flooded that floor and showered onto the third floor, soaking records in the sheriff's office.

Bright, Mild For Texas

By The Associated Press
Bright and mild weather prevailed over Texas Monday but new rains were predicted for most of the state by the latter part of the week.

With the exception of a few clouds in the Tyler area, skies were clear over the state early Monday. Pre-dawn temperatures ranged from 25 degrees at Lubbock to 48 at Corpus Christi and Galveston.

Temperatures Monday afternoon were expected to be in the 50s and 60s Monday. Maximum temperatures Sunday afternoon ranged from 87 at Dallas to 74 at Brownsville.

No rainfall was reported in the state.

The forecasts called for increasing cloudiness in some sections Tuesday. A cooling trend with light rains was predicted during the latter part of the week for most sections.

Two Killed

Workers swarm over the wreckage of an ambulance in which two men answering an attempted suicide call were killed when their ambulance crashed under the side of a six-wheel truck turning in front of the emergency vehicle in Ft. Worth. The ambulance was towed to a garage where the bodies were freed. The crash ended 80 deathless traffic days in Ft. Worth.

Crowd Cheers Crime Probers

PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (AP)—A mass meeting of 2,500 Jefferson County residents Sunday applauded Rep. Tom James, vice chairman of the House General Investigations Committee, when he told them they should petition for the removal of certain city and county officers.

A cheering crowd that overflowed the Woodrow Wilson Junior High School auditorium gave a standing ovation to James and David A. Witts of Dallas, legal counsel for the committee which investigated crime conditions in Beaumont and Port Arthur early this month.

Disclosures at the hearing have already led to the firing of the police chiefs in both Port Arthur and Beaumont, the discharge of an assistant county auditor and the filing of an embezzlement charge against the chief clerk in the sheriff's office.

James called Sunday's ovation here "the greatest demonstration of democracy" he had been heard of in the nation.

"In the past 10 days citizens of Jefferson County have made great progress in clamping the lid on vice and if they maintain a united front they could make Jefferson County a model not only for Texas but throughout the nation," he said.

He said there were statutes on the books of Texas governing breaches of promise and failure in responsibility of elected or appointed officials and that citizens had several recourses.

One recourse is to petition for removal of officials, elected or appointed, he told the crowd.

James said Dist. Atty. Ramie Griffin of Jefferson County "should step aside . . . and if he does not, you should then institute proceedings to remove him from office."

"Members of the institutions attending this meeting should take all available means to recall City Commission members who have not carried out duties of their office, and the grand jury in Jefferson County should take up where the (House) committee left off," James said.

"This community should not let up on this shakeup lest you be victims of a shake-down," he added.

Witts told the crowd that with "public opinion and cooperation between the many organizations represented at the meeting, Port Arthur could reverse and forever dam those (vice) forces or they return to destroy you, your family, your jobs and your community."

The meeting was called by the Citizens' Betterment Committee of Greater Port Arthur which presented a petition asking Witts what Port Arthur could do in furthering the work of the House committee.

The petition also asked that the Legislature continue the interim committee, which went out of existence when the new Legislature convened Jan. 10, and to help Jefferson County citizens set up a blue ribbon grand jury to investigate vice conditions further.

Civic leaders of the community also spoke at the meeting.

The Jan. 4-6 hearings in Beaumont brought these developments: Port Arthur Police Chief G. B. Douglas, 57, was fired by City Manager Charles Brazil. Douglas testified at the hearings that he received $65,584 in cash during a five-year period as political campaign donations.

Jefferson County Auditor E. S. Foreman fired James M. (Doc) Gowling, an assistant auditor. Foreman said Gowling's poor bookkeeping methods made it possible for an estimated $15,000 shortage in the sheriff's department accounts to go undiscovered.

Beaumont City Manager Jack Jeffery fired Chief of Police Jim Mulligan for failure to enforce the law. Mulligan, 64, was a 35-year veteran of the Beaumont force. He was fired as he started to suspend City Detective Chief Jim Stafford, 50, named before the Texas House General Investigating Committee as a recipient of gambling protection payoffs in 1957. Stafford denied the charge.

Sheriff C. H. Meyer charged his chief clerk, Bob Ness, with misapplying more than $15,000 in funds of the Jefferson County sheriff's office. Meyer admitted accepting $84,481 in five years from persons he could not identify "to run for and stay in office."

Heart Attack Is Fatal To 2

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—The death of a child has been blamed on a fatal heart attack suffered by his 400-pound father.

The bodies of Dr. William G. Buchanan, 31, a chiropractor, and his son, James Ross, 2, were found by Mrs. Buchanan Sunday. Buchanan recently returned from a hospital after a siege of pneumonia.

A physician said Buchanan apparently suffered a heart attack during the night and rolled over on his son, suffocating the child.

Migratory Farm Workers Said In Precarious Role

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Agriculture Department study reported today that migratory farm workers in 30 inland states are in a precarious situation.

The report said annual movement of these workers from South Texas to the north, east and west appears to be an established phase of the country's agricultural economy.

It said the companies and organizations that promoted this movement during the planting, cultivating and harvesting seasons are still active, although on a reduced scale.

Both sugar beet companies and cotton producers were said to be looking forward to the time when they need not depend on a large seasonal labor force.

"But the many smaller operators in the work areas will continue to depend each year on seasonal labor supplies, and they have neither the organization nor the funds for intensive recruiting of labor," the department said.

"The role of state employment services in this movement is certain to increase."

The report said the workers in this movement of migrants are usually Spanish-Americans. Almost three-fourths of them were born in the United States of Mexican parents.

Formerly, these migrants needed a crew leader or spokesman to make job contacts. Now 60 per cent travel in family groups in their own cars and make their own work arrangements.

The report said practically all these workers have many days during the year when no work is available.

The families were said to be large, averaging 6.5 members.

"It is customary among these families for all children to help in whatever tasks need doing. This results in irregular schooling, as the work season in the northern states begins a month or more before the school term closes in the spring and ends several months after the fall term has begun. Because of this, practically all the children are educationally retarded."

Composer Salute Sure-Fire Program

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—If there's a sure-fire recipe for a television variety show, it is a salute to the composer of a lot of songs the nation knows by heart. Then just the tunes, some dancers to add diversity and string the music along some nostalgic commentary.

That was exactly how producer Leland Hayward handled Sunday night's 90-minute "The Gershwin Years" on CBS. It could hardly fail. Gershwin was a natural—he wrote many, many wonderful familiar songs. There was Ethel Merman belting out one of his show tunes after another. Frank Sinatra strolled on for an occasional romantic song like "A Foggy Day." Julie London handled the blues.

The program studiously avoided the cliché, perhaps too studiously. "Rhapsody in Blue," for instance, was a short piano solo instead of a big orchestral climax. Some decidedly lesser Gershwin like "Tum and Tiss Me," received more attention—even though it was in a comedy vein—than they merited.

The program was curiously constructed. The first half of the show was devoted to production numbers of mostly minor Gershwin. Then, for the last 45 minutes, the principals gathered around the piano and literally poured out one great song after another. This was great, and probably half the audience at home was singing right along with the stars. Somewhere along the line, there was a knockout of a dance from "Porgy and Bess."

If we were short-changed, it was in the appearance of Maurice Chevalier. He appeared in one number, plugged his new autobiography, confessed his age, sang a couple of short songs, and disappeared. Host Richard Rodgers turned up every now and then to reminisce warmly about his fellow composer and describe the period—those popular 1920s which hardly need describing now.

The program, incidentally, carried the classic credit of the season: "The Gertrude Stein portrait was shown by permission of Pablo Picasso."
