Russia Rockets Man Into Space; Astronaut Returns Safely To Earth

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union announced it fired a man into space today who rode once around the earth and then landed safely back in the Soviet Union at a pre-arranged target point.
A statement from the Soviet government and the Communist party said the satellite space ship Vostok — east — with Maj. Yuri Alekseyevich Gagarin, 27, aboard, rose into outer space at 9:07 a.m. Moscow time "and, having rounded the globe, safely returned to the sacred soil of our homeland, the land of the Soviets."
Vostok landed at 10:55 a.m. Moscow time, 108 minutes after the launching, the Russians said. Neither the point of the takeoff nor the location of the landing was announced.
Soviet scientists watched Gagarin during his flight by television and he was in constant radio communication with a control station, the Soviets said. Messages from him that he was well were broadcast.
According to Tass, the Soviet news agency, Gagarin on landing said: "Please report to the party and government and personally to Nikita Sergeevich Khrushchev that the landing was normal. I feel well, have no injuries or bruises."

Soviet Premier Khrushchev replied with a message of congratulations telling Gagarin the "entire Soviet people acclaim your valiant feat which will be remembered down the centuries as an example of courage, gallantry and heroism in the name of service to mankind."
In a statement boasting that the Soviet Union, "the land of triumphant socialism," had "opened the new era in the development of mankind," the Soviet government and the party issued an appeal for peace to all countries and called on all people "to make an all-out effort to put an end to the arms race, to effect universal and complete disarmament, to ensure world peace."
"We place the Soviet achievements not in the service of war, but in the service of peace and the security of the peoples," the statement said.

Scientists around the world hailed the Soviet achievement. The Young Communist League entered the name of Gagarin, a married man with two daughters, in its book of honor, terming him an "outstanding example of selfless service to the homeland."
"Telegrams" from Gagarin, sent from outer space, were read to spellbound radio listeners gathered around loudspeakers in their homes and in snow-covered Moscow squares. "I feel well," he said in one from over South America and another from over Africa.
Then, an hour and 15 minutes after the original announcement, Moscow radio said the space ship and its untired occupant were being directed down to land in a predetermined — but unidentified — location within the Soviet Union.
Radio Moscow told all Soviet citizens to turn on their television sets at noon when the radio said Gagarin would be shown on their sets.

Soviet announcements gave these details of Gagarin's flight:
The space ship was named Vostok, meaning east, and weighed 4,275 kilograms (about five tons), exclusive of the last stage of the carrier rocket.
After a successful launching, the space ship separated from its carrier rocket and went into free flight around the world.
Gagarin zipped around the earth in 89.1 minutes. His minimum distance from the earth was 110 miles and the maximum 188 miles.
The angle of inclination of the orbit plane to the equator was 65 degrees 4 minutes.
Soviet scientists maintained contact with Gagarin on two radio frequencies, 9.019 and 20.006 megacycles, and also observed his condition in flight by television.
The Soviet announcements did not say where the multistage rocket was fired from.

Tornadoes, Lashing Winds Rake Texas

Skies cleared over Texas again Wednesday as residents of at least four areas added up losses from tornadoes and hard-hitting thunderstorms.
One twister dipping from a series of blustery storms late Tuesday flattened a gas station and injured four persons northeast of Richardson, near the north edge of Dallas.
Another funnel cloud united in a rural community near Malone, southwest of Corsicana in Central Texas. It wrecked two homes and damaged another but the occupants escaped harm.
A pair of tornadoes appeared near Clifton in Bosque County and McGregor in McLennan County, also in Central Texas. The Department of Public Safety said neither caused injuries or damage. Sheriff's officers watched a tornado warily as it passed close to the Ferguson Prison Farm near Huntsville without touching ground.
TENT FALLS
A powerful gust of wind caused a big canvas tent to collapse on a revival service crowd of 200 Tuesday night during a heavy rain in Houston. Several wriggled clear with minor bruises and all escaped serious hurt.
Another vicious thunderstorm battered Port Arthur, where winds up to 56 miles per hour and small hail smashed windows, toppled trees and snapped power lines.
There was no report of injuries.
All the thunderstorms surged eastward into Louisiana well before midnight. The turbulence developed as two cold fronts billowed across the state and caused tornado alerts for two sectors 120 miles wide. One danger zone centered on a line from Dallas to Fayetteville, Ark., and the other from Palestine to 40 miles south-east of Shreveport, La.
The tornado hitting near Richardson smashed the crossroads service station of Aubrey Crawford, 46. It left Crawford, his wife Valta, 49, and their 10-month-old nephew Kenneth Crocker cut and bleeding in the wreckage.
TERRIFYING SIGHT
"The last thing I can remember," Mrs. Crawford said later at a Dallas hospital, "is my husband holding 'Let's go!' I went to the door and saw the tornado right there in front of me. I thought 'There isn't anyone but God that can do anything now.'"
Crawford suffered a broken ankle and a possible fracture of his left shoulder. His wife and the baby got out with cuts and bruises.
A storm cellar door slammed shut and mashed the arm of Mrs. Park Grissom as she and her husband dashed into the shelter about three blocks from where the Crawfords lived in an old trailer van.
The same twister overturned two house trailers in the same rural area, blew away a shed and unroofed a barn before hitting the Crawford property.
OTHER DAMAGE
Between Malone and Pelham, southwest of Corsicana in Navarro County, a another tornado crushed two farm houses, damaged another and carried away two barns. City patrolman P. F. Smith said the same funnel cloud apparently knocked a house off its foundation a mile west of Malone before skipping over town to hit

Electric Rate Change OK'd On Initial Vote

An ordinance providing for a nominal increase in electric rates was passed on the first reading by the City Commission Tuesday evening.
The action was sought by Texas Electric Service Co., whose local manager, R. L. Beale, submitted documents to support the position that rate adjustments are required to offset rising costs of operations.
Beale said the maximum increase of any residential customer's monthly bill will be 32 cents.
The Commission has scheduled April 25 as the date for a public hearing on the matter. This is the date that the second reading of the ordinance would be made.
The Commission also revised the municipality's own contract for electric power, calling for a two and a half per cent increase in lighting rates and a five per cent increase for power in their billing. Those using 300 kw per month with electric water heater would have a reduction of 35 cents; those using 500 kw without water heater would have an increase of 32 cents.
There are similar adjustments on the small general service rate and the large general service rate.

Eichmann Stonily Hears Accusations

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli Attorney General Gideon Hausner, pointing his finger directly at Adolf Eichmann, cried out in court today that the Jewish people will never forget Eichmann "succeeded in part" in carrying out the Nazi plan to exterminate Europe's 11 million Jews.
Hausner's impassioned warning brought no visible reaction from Eichmann. He looked at the attorney general with stony eyes, his face a blank mask.
Hausner's outburst came in the second morning of Eichmann's trial on Israeli charges of "crimes against the Jewish people and crimes against humanity." One of these is the crime of genocide—mass murder. The state alleges that Eichmann, as chief of the Jewish Affairs Section of the Nazi Gestapo, bears direct responsibility for the slaughter of an estimated six million Jews.
PREVIOUS ATTEMPTS
Hausner reminded the three-judge court that in thousands of years of Jewish history there had been previous attempts to wipe the Jewish people off the face of the earth.
Then, suddenly raising his voice and stabbing the air with his left hand, he said: "There is no pardon and there can be no forgetting."
Eichmann looked a little haggard when he came into court on this second day. His wispy hair was slightly ruffled. Dark circles ringed his eyes. He coughed frequently, blew his nose, and removed his spectacles to wipe his eyes.
Through most of the morning

Court Rejects Gas Rehearing

AUSTIN (AP)—The State Supreme Court today rejected the state's motion for rehearing of its action invalidating the last legislature's natural gas pipeline tax.
The court on March 29 upheld lower court findings that the 1959 gas tax law was unconstitutional.
The court's refusal to reconsider was another formal step toward final submission of the lawsuit to the United States Supreme Court. In rare cases second motions for rehearing are submitted and considered, but this was not considered likely in the current test.
Lower courts held that the pipeline tax is invalid because it constitutes a levy on interstate commerce.

Murder Trial Is Under Way

LAMESA (SC) — The jury was selected this morning and testimony started after the noon recess in the murder trial of Rudy Gonzales, 19, charged in the slaying of Herman Curtis, 61, service station attendant, on Feb. 25, 1956.
Judge Trust Smith, 106th District Court, granted a motion for severance this morning, which will mean a separate trial for Alfredo Gonzales, charged in the same indictment. Observers said Alfredo's case will probably not be tried in this term of court.
Wayne Basden, Big Spring, is attorney for Rudy and court appointed attorneys R. B. Snel and Ed Brown, both of Lamesa, will represent Alfredo. Brown has filed a motion for change of venue for his client.
The two Latin Americans have been held without bail since November. Alfredo admitted in a statement that he fired the fatal shot that killed Curtis during an armed robbery. He named Rudy as an accomplice and his cousin corroborated the story.
Alfredo is also under indictment in Terry County for the slaying of a "service" station attendant there in December, 1959.

Wife's Persuasion Halts Man's Leap

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — With coaching from a psychiatrist, the wife of a San Angelo man persuaded him to descend instead of leaping, as he threatened, from a 60-foot tower Tuesday.
Police withheld the names of the couple.
"You come up and I'll jump," the man shouted as firemen raised a ladder toward his perch on top of the beacon tower.
"I won't come down until my wife gets here," he called a bit later.
Officers argued in vain with the man until his wife arrived. They said she took her baby and left him Sunday in San Angelo, returning to her parents' home here.

Directors Of 1st National Bank Add 5 Men To Board

In an expansion of its directorate, the First National Bank in a special stockholders meeting held Tuesday, added five men to the board.
Three of these are from Big Spring, two represent Odessa interests which recently bought controlling interest in the bank.
Clyde McMahon, operator of a concrete and building supply business and prominently identified in a myriad of civic activities; and Morris Patterson, stock farmer and insurance man and a native of Big Spring, are local men added to the board.
Also joining the directorate is Lester Morton, who became president of the institution when V. V. Middleton, Hardy Morgan and recent purchase was made, and K. H. McGibbon, who has established his home here.
Others going on the board are J. L. (Dusty) Rhoades and P. C. (Cody) Harbour, both prominent Odessa business men.
Although no official statement accompanied an announcement of the action, bank officials have indicated that their aim is to reach a broader segment of the business community through the board.
Other members of the board are H. H. (Pat) Simmons, Odessa, chairman; and Marion Edwards, Horace Garrett, T. G. Good, C. W. Guthrie, G. H. Hayward, H. H. Hurt, L. S. McDowell Jr., R. V. Middleton, Hardy Morgan and recent purchase was made, and K. H. McGibbon.

House Kills Limit On Campaign Costs

AUSTIN (AP)—The House overwhelmingly killed today a Senate-approved proposal to put a $25,000 campaign expenditures ceiling on races for the U.S. Senate or congressman-at-large. The vote was 50-84.
The House then agreed, by voice vote, that the measure should be tabled permanently.
Before being voted down, the bill was amended to provide that it would not be effective until Sept. 1, after the current senatorial runoff election, and that it would include congressmen-at-large. As approved by the Senate, it tracked the Federal Corrupt Practices Act which says that each winner of a U.S. Senate seat must swear that to his knowledge no more than $25,000 was spent in his campaign.
UPPER HAND
"This bill would just legalize an honest person and let a crooked candidate have the upper hand," said Rep. Ben Jarvis, Tyler. "It is reported it takes from $500,000 to $1 million to make a race for the Senate or any statewide office."
Rep. Sam Collins, Newton, House sponsor of the bill, refused to accept the amendment.
"This puts a premium on an old political name and keeps a new, virtual unknown candidate from becoming well known," said Rep. Howard Green, Fort Worth.
Collins said he merely wanted to put into state law what is on the federal law books now. Any candidate in a special or general election race for the Senate would be limited to $25,000 for newspaper, radio and television expenses, "to the candidate's consent and knowledge."
The House quickly passed 138-0 a Senate bill by Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock that would at

Four Students Lead School Into Finals

Four Big Spring seniors carried the school into the finals of the University Interscholastic League district meet here last week, and three of them will go on to the regional meet in Odessa next week.

They were Iameta Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carr, who won first place in poetry reading; Johnny Cone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Cone, and Dick Meacham, son of Chaplain and Mrs. B. F. Meacham, placed first in debate; and Lida Fiveash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fiveash, placed third in extemporaneous speaking.

District Winners

HARD WORK

The meet ended months of hard work by the contestants and they were jubilant over their success. Already, they are preparing for the next rounds of competition in the regional contests.

The debate team outpointed three other schools in the eliminations to wind up on top. The debate topic was whether or not the United Nations should be strengthened.

Cone and Meacham drew the affirmative side in each of their outings. They beat, successively, Abilene, Odessa and Midland to claim first place.

Their work began early last fall, when they began collecting material to support their arguments. They corresponded with Congressmen and had a chat with Rep. George Mahon. They mailed letters to then President Eisenhower and Khrushchev.

MATERIAL

"The Russian sent us more information than the President," the boys said, "but it was mostly propaganda." They consulted many magazines and encyclopedias and received considerable information from the U.N. itself.

From all of this material, they compiled a card catalog of facts and figures to use in the meet. This same catalog with added material will be used in the forthcoming regional meet. They already have their eye on the state meet, the next encounter if they win at Odessa.

This is Meacham's first time out in speech. Cone recently advanced to the regional meet in the Americanism oratory competition sponsored by the American Legion.

The boys also registered an "excellent" rating in an Abilene tournament.

LONG RECORD

Miss Carr has a long record of wins in literary events and this year's first place district victory puts the cap on them.

Her reading of "Renaissance," by Edna St. Vincent Millay, was judged best of the field of entries from all the district schools. She placed third in this same contest at the Midland meet last year.

Earlier this year, at the Abilene tournament, Miss Carr placed first in declamation, second in poetry reading, and reached the finals in Bible reading. She won first place last summer in the Odessa College speech school tournament.

Also to her credit are a second place in declamation and best actress last year in the one-act play contest. She was selected the best high school actress last year.

DRAMA WORK

Miss Fiveash is best known in Big Spring for her exceptionally well done work in drama. She has appeared in six high school plays and two Big Spring Civic Theatre productions.

In last week's meet, she placed third in extemporaneous speaking, the first time she had given it a try in the shorthand competition, she placed fifth in a field of 23.

"I read everything imaginable," she replied when asked how she prepared for the contest. Her topic, selected at the meet and with only 30 minutes to prepare to talk, was "the state of the union, as Kennedy sees it."

Last year, she was named to the all star cast following the one-act play contest. Earlier this year, she placed first in impromptu speaking at the Denton tournament. This contest allows the contestant only 30 seconds to prepare a talk.

Grain Plan Talk

LAMESA (SC)—Lamesa ASC office manager Eddie Brown and Lee Roy Colgan, Dawson County agent, will conduct a meeting in the junior high school auditorium on April 13 to discuss the new feed grain program.

OLD SETTLERS

Donations Pay For New Pavilion

An addition to the old settler's pavilion in the city park will get under way in a few days. Bruce Dunn, director of public works, said Tuesday.

The 40 x 60-foot addition will form a letter "L" with the old 40 x 40-foot pavilion now on the park grounds, Dunn said. "Individuals have donated money and materials for the new part of the pavilion, and the city will do the building work," Dunn said. "In addition to the annual Howard-Glasscock County Old Settlers Association meeting, there will be lots of room for barbecues, pop meetings, and other functions where a roof overhead is important."

Jess Slaughter, president of the association, said Tuesday that 36 firms and individuals had contributed to the addition, but that more was needed to complete it. "We can use cash, chairs, benches, tables, or materials suitable for the pavilion," he said. "Any one wishing to make a contribution may contact me through Post Office Box 188, Big Spring."

come to my office at the courthouse, or telephone me at AM 4-6982. Other officials of the two-county association are Paul Bishop, vice president and Ruth Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

The 37th annual reunion meeting will be held some time in late July, but the date has not been definitely set, Slaughter said. "Individuals and business firms making contributions through Tuesday were: Clyde McMahon, Cusden Petroleum Corp., Farmer's Co-op Gin and Supply, Lomax Gin Co., Lloyd F. Curley, Planter's Gin, K. H. WORDS TO LIVE BY

OUR AIM

By E. H. Tazbel, preacher
Church of Christ, West Highway 80

Our sole concern is to promote Christianity! Our work is that of persuading men and women to be "both almost and altogether" Christians.

This is a teaching process. "And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and learned of the Father, cometh unto me" (Jno. 6:44, 45).

Religious zeal, without a knowledge of God's plan of salvation could not help the people of Paul's day (Rom. 10:3).

Thus we must teach the truth of the gospel.

If anyone will show us how we can do the Lord's work of soul-winning by some way that is different from our practice; or by a message different from what we preach; or through an institution other than the church described in the Bible—then we will gladly make the change.

To be saved men only need to be Christians. Christ died that it might be possible; and the gospel was given to make us Christians.

Therefore, our sole aim is to promote Christianity!

Proudly holding the trophy won in the hairdressers' contest Monday evening are Mrs. Mary Johnson, model, at left, and Mrs. John Polson, operator. The contest was held to decide the entry for a contest in Midland, when the winner will be selected for the Lone Star Contest, slated for Fort Worth in August.

Bride-Elect Is Honoree At Luncheon

A miscellaneous shower was a pre-nuptial courtesy for Kathleen O'Brien Tuesday at noon in the Blue Room at Cosden Country Club.

Miss O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. O'Brien, Boston, Mass., is to be married Saturday to William McCoy Gilliland in the chapel of Webb AFB. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gilliland, 307 Mesquite.

The luncheon for 20 guests was served buffet and the dining table held an arrangement of tulips and roses. The chosen colors of the bride-elect, blue and white, were emphasized in the floral centerpiece, contained in a silver bowl.

Hostesses for the affair were Catherine Greenlees, Mrs. Tommy Weaver, Mrs. Bob Thomas and Mrs. Mary Ann Coffey.

For the party, the honoree was attired in a sheath of blue and white cotton; she wore a corsage of white carnations, presented to her by the hostess group.

Decor For Dinner Is Unique

In keeping with the day, hostesses for the Past Matrons dinner Tuesday evening decorated head table with a container of mud holding a large tumbleweed.

The group of 34 met at Smith Tea Room where hostesses were Mrs. Tom Helton, Mrs. G. W. Dabney and Mrs. Russell Stringfellow.

Appointed as a visiting committee for the month were Mrs. Drew Dyer, Mrs. Harry Lees and Mrs. R. J. Michel. On the telephone committee are Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. Paul Carroll and Mrs. J. D. Benson.

Hostesses for the next dinner will be Mrs. Charles Eberly, Mrs. Allen Hill and Mrs. Eberly.

'Queen's Necklace' To Be Reviewed In C-City

A replica of a famous necklace, which Marie Antoinette owned but never wore, will be displayed at a book review in Colorado City Tuesday evening, at 7:30, in the high school auditorium.

Evelyn Oppenheimer of Dallas will present a review of "The Queen's Necklace" by Mrs. Frances Mossiker, also of Dallas. The benefit affair is to be sponsored by the Mitchell County Library Board; tickets, priced at one dollar each, are available locally at Zack's.

The author was inspired to write the book because of the mysterious disappearance of the necklace in 1785 and because of the "fantastic cast of characters

-a French Queen, a great prince of the church, a handsome courtess and a young woman who was a double of the Queen.

Creators of the necklace, the jeweler Bohmer and Bassenger, left a drawing of their work, and it is from this that the exact replica, in French paste brilliants, was made. It will be the third such-copy, the others having disappeared with no trace.

Elbow P-TA Hears Musical Program

Mrs. Son Dunagan presided for a meeting of the Elbow P-TA Tuesday. More than 100 members heard musical demonstrations by several of the grades, directed by Bob Mason.

The first grade rhythm band presented several selections and was directed by Chuck Crane. Song flute selections were played by the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Directors were Tommy Girdner, Tommy Crane, Kathy Howie, Jack Ellis and Ray McKinnon.

Girls in the seventh and eighth grades accompanied the flutists on bottles and jugs.

Bank Seeks Vault Bids

COAHOMA—Bill Reid, president of the State Bank of Coahoma, said today that bids are being sought to build a vault in the building which is to be the home of the new bank.

He said that he has acquired most of the furnishings needed. Some he bought from other banks. A few items were given him by banks.

As soon as the contract is awarded for the vault, the way will be cleared for the building to be put in shape to serve its new purpose. It formerly housed a garage. The building is a short distance north of U. S. 80 and on the west side of the street. It is convenient to the downtown area.

The sponsors of the bank are pushing at top speed to get the new bank in operation as quickly as possible.

Why is the Ford Galaxie head and shoulders above all the imitators?

Because it's beautifully built to take care of itself!

Frankly, we're tickled to see so many other cars trying to latch on to the styling trend started by Galaxie. But they can't copy that Thunderbird roofline—any more than they can match Galaxie's Thunderbird luxury and handling.

What's more, Galaxie is the fine car built to out your operating costs—by being beautifully built to take care of itself! For example, you can go 30,000 miles without a lubrication. And when you compare price, you find that Galaxie costs several hundred dollars less than some cars that give you less. Challenging statement? We're here to prove it—today.

Here's how the '61 Ford takes care of itself:

- Lubricates itself—You go 30,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flo oil filter which filters better through filters.
- Cleans its own oil—You go 4,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flo oil filter which filters better through filters.
- Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves automatically.
- Guards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminum to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.
- Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the doors.
- Takes care of its own finish—Just wash and clean Ford's new Diamond Extra Finish and it will continue to gleam like new. It never needs waxing.

Unveils Dream Car

Two wheels instead of four, coupled with a delta wing shape, mark the Gyron, an experimental car built by the Ford Motor Co. The stylists assume that the vehicle could be stabilized with a gyroscope mounted behind the passenger compartment. Two small outrigger wheels at the rear would retract when the gyro is in operation. A steering dial between the contoured seats replaces the steering wheel and makes it possible for the car to be steered from either seat. This is a style version and not an operational model, as no gyros have been installed.

Surplus Sale Set April 27

A sealed bid sale of government surplus property with an acquisition cost of approximately $1,000,000 has been announced for April 27. Bids on this sale will be opened at 10 a.m. at the consolidated Surplus Sales Office, Fort Worth General Depot, P. O. Box 6988, Fort Worth.

The sale will offer 659 aluminum aircraft wing tip tanks from Webb AFB. The 123 gallon tanks are 12 feet long and 2 1/2 feet in diameter. Also included are 224 tip tanks from Dyess AFB, Abilene. The 1,700 gallon tanks are about 24 1/2 feet long and 4 1/4 feet in diameter.

Miscellaneous items include shop equipment, display cases, kitchen equipment, and electrical items. These items are located at Webb, Dyess, and Goddellow AFB, San Angelo.

All items available for bid may be inspected at the property locations between 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. daily Monday through Friday, until April 27. Sales catalog and additional information on Webb items may be had by contacting Redistribution and Marketing Activity at Webb AFB.

Texas Cut Helps To Lower Daily Average Production

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Only five states reported declines but a cut in Texas lowered daily average production of domestic crude oil and condensate 103,900 barrels to 7,244,325 barrels during the week ended April 8, The Oil & Gas Journal said today.

Texas' drop of 123,400 barrels to 2,634,750 reflected the state's 9-day producing schedule for April. In March the allowable was based on a 10-day schedule.

The week's largest increases were in Louisiana, up 6,575 barrels to 1,160,300; Illinois, up 5,400 to 213,700; New Mexico, up 3,900 to 311,400; and North Dakota, up 2,500 to 69,500.

The Journal estimated 1961 production at 710,113,300 barrels, compared to 704,322,900 a year ago.

Other losing states were Kansas, down 4,800 barrels to 305,050; Oklahoma, off 1,600 to 523,400; Montana, off 1,200 to 80,200; and Michigan, off 100 to 53,000.

Legislature Vote Brings Church Ban

AUSTIN (AP)—Several state representatives praised Rep. Tommy Shannon, who said he was forced to resign from a Fort Worth Baptist church because he voted for the so-called Carling's beer bill.

Shannon, for 10 years a member of the Beacon Baptist Church, said he was ousted solely for voting for the bill. The bill would allow a brewery to keep producing although the area in which it was located voted against the sale of alcoholic beverages.

Shannon was a deacon and Sunday School superintendent when he resigned.

"It is regrettable that such a tragedy should befall a good Christian man for casting one vote. I hope they thought it out before they made their choice," said Rep. W. S. Healy of Paducah, who said he has not had a drink in 13 years.

Rep. Marshall Bell of San Antonio said "There has never been a more conscientious or diligent man than Tommy Shannon." He called Shannon "a true Christian gentleman."

Bell said it did violence to the constitutional provision of separation of church and state "for any one or any group to attempt to dictate a decision to any member of the House or Senate."

"This is the first case I have ever heard of where a fine upstanding member of the House has been excommunicated, so to speak, for voting according to his conscience and convictions," Bell said.

Shannon's fellow Fort Worth representative, Howard Green, said, "I have never seen anyone at any time show more courage or more dedication to the job at hand than Tommy Shannon."

The Rev. Carl Sims, Shannon's pastor, said, "I'd ask my mother if she were alive today and took such a position (as Shannon's) to dismiss herself from the church."

"It is an invasion of my personal rights," Shannon said. "But I wouldn't be telling the truth if I said it didn't hurt. It does, naturally. But I still feel I was right and couldn't conscientiously take any other course."

The bill would pave the way for building in Fort Worth of a $20 million plant by the Carling Brewing Co.

Clerics Approve Ouster Of Solon

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Baptist Pastors Conference has commended the Beacon Hill Baptist Church of Fort Worth for forcing state Rep. Tommy Shannon to resign for supporting a beer bill.

"This is a moral issue and his (Shannon's) vote goes contrary to everything Baptists believe," said the Rev. R. G. Commander, publicity director for the Union Baptist Association.

Commander asserted that the vote by 63 members of the conference "was not an intrusion on the man's freedom as an individual or citizen."

Eastland Wants Impeachment Of Supreme Court

DALLAS (AP)—Referring to justices of the U.S. Supreme Court, Sen. James Eastland, D-Miss., said "I think all of them ought to be impeached."

Eastland, here to speak to the Texas Cotton Ginners Association, said the Supreme Court has handed down more pro-Communist decisions than "any judicial tribunal outside the Iron Curtain."

James Walsh of Mission, association president, reported significant findings in a two-year study of gin production in the state by the Cotton Research Committee of Texas.

"Spinners across the nation had severely penalized and criticized cotton grown in Texas" for flung blacklands and Lower Rio Grande Valley, Walsh said, claiming it was too dry and yielded an inferior product.

Will Wallace, Edinburg ginner, predicted the Valley would produce the first bale of cotton between May 9 and 15, about three weeks earlier than in 1960.

Awards Announced At PTG Dinner

Honors and recognition captured top spot on the program at the April 300th Pilot Training Group Dinner at the Webb AFB Officers' Club recently.

The Instructor Pilot of the Month Award went to Capt. Bowman A. Price. He was presented a letter of appreciation and a desk pen set by Lt. Col. Henry G. Victor, Pilot Training Group Commander.

Doctor of Jet Instruction degrees were presented to Capt. Richard Hickenbottom and Capt. Val G. Nelson. Jet instructors must have a total of 2,000 hours jet flying time with 1,000 hours instructor pilot time to qualify for this degree.

Special recognition was given the 350th Maintenance and Supply Group by Pilot Training Group.

A letter from students of Jaguar Flight citing flight line maintenance crews, was read and presented to Col. Donald W. Pendergraft, M&S Group Commander, by Capt. Paul J. Plucinsky, Flight PT Group Commander.

Daniel Fills School Posts

AUSTIN (AP)—Appointments to the Texas Commission on Higher Education and to the boards of directors for Texas A&M and Texas Tech have been made by Gov. Price Daniel.

Named to the Commission on Higher Education were Watson Wise of Tyler, former chairman of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission; Jesse Cooper, Dumas farmer and businessman; Miss Elizabeth Koch, San Antonio teacher and former president of the Texas State Teachers Association; L. L. Duckett, El Campo lawyer and former state representative; John Gray, president of the First National Bank of Beaumont and former president of Lamar State College, and Ralph Logan, San Angelo lawyer.

Appointees to the Texas A&M board are Clyde Thompson of Diboll, vice president of Southern Pine Lumber Co.; Clyde Wells, Granbury rancher, and H. C. Helfendels, Corpus Christi contractor.

New Texas Tech directors are Wright Armstrong of Fort Worth, president of the Fort Worth & Denver Railroad; Alvin Allison, Levelland lawyer, and J. E. McLaughlin, Falls banker and president of Rotary International.

State Deficit Falls $2 Million

AUSTIN (AP)—The general revenue fund deficit dropped nearly $2 million in the past two weeks, State Treasurer Jesse James reported.

He said the deficit stood at $103,116,877 at the close of business Friday. The general fund was $105,013,618 in the red March 23, date of the last call for warrants on the general fund.

James issued a call of $8,622,734 in general revenue warrants, including some dated up to Nov. 16, 1960.

Works Department Builds Up Steam On City Projects

By M. A. WEBB

The Big Spring department of public works is getting up a lot of steam as the weather warms and conditions become more favorable for remodeling, rejuvenating and rebuilding projects.

The city park is getting two areas watered this year for the first time. Permanent grass is being planted and can be grown with the new sprinkler systems installed. The outfield of the soft ball park is getting a sprinkler system also which will cut down on the dust during playing season.

Other city parks are being improved and grass planted. The park at Hill and Elgin streets, and one at Virginia and Washington, are both being worked over with the cooperation of a Big Spring Garden Club. A complete cover of grass is being placed on the park by the north side fire station, and additional play apparatus installed in the Lakeview Park.

REMODELED

The city cemetery is being remodeled. Top soil is being taken from one part and used to build up and level some of the older areas.

The city commission will soon be asked to call for bids on a new garbage truck to be added to the five now in operation. Three new men will be employed, as set up in the new budget, to operate the truck. The city will be restricted to speed up the collection of garbage and make the department more efficient.

A new top and body repair man has gone to work at the city garage, in the municipal services division. Billy Barber, who has been in similar work in the Big Spring area for some time, began last Friday to take dents and bent spots out of all city equipment, some of which was in bad shape.

"All body work, on city equipment, will be done in our own shop in the future," Bruce Dunn, director, said Monday. "We now have a wreck-damaged police car which will be worked over in the shop."

The engineering division is busy getting ready for the water and sewer line extensions which will be started April 17 by Clyde Construction Co. of Odessa.

CONSTRUCTION

"We look for a lot of construction work in subdivisions this summer," Dunn said, "especially in the Wasson No. 1, Douglass No. 2, Marshall Fields Estates, Kentwood, Highland South, and Suburban Heights. Our engineers will be in the field much of the time."

The assessment paving program will soon be wound up under the present program, he continued.

Curb and gutter is being laid on Birdwell Lane from East 4th to the alley between Purdue and Yale, and paving will probably start Tuesday or Wednesday. Crews were putting down pavement Monday on Settles and 22nd Street, and will go on to Golland and Birdwell.

The next assessment program will get under way in 1963, Dunn said.

"Of course we will always pave a street if property owners go in 100 per cent, but the city will not have funds for participation again until 1963."

The present program has approximately 72 blocks paved and rebuilt.

Officer Tries Unique Method

LAMESA (SC)—Dawson County juvenile officer Bill Hollingsworth has undertaken a unique method of trying to find underlying causes of delinquency in county residents. The plan evolves from a 22-question examination, which when used with a rating system, may pinpoint potential trouble.

The more "yes" answers obtained means that the child has little chance to become a delinquent, with scores of 18 or more rated highly. Scores in the 13 to 17 range means that the child has a better than average chance of becoming a wholesome citizen. Scores below 13 indicate a cause for serious self-analysis.

The questions, which apply only to the parents, were developed more than a decade ago by Drs. Sheldon and Eleanor Glueck of the Harvard Law School. The question-formula system is presently being used by the New York Youth Board and other juvenile agencies throughout the nation. The tests are most effective in the 4 to 7-year age group.

Pushers Pooped But Pleased

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Pleased but pooped pushers have completed shoving a bed on bicycle wheels from the University of Idaho at Moscow, Idaho, to Boise, a distance of 360 miles.

The collegians huffed and puffed their bed up to the Idaho Capitol building and attempted to ram it through a door, but it wouldn't fit.

The students claimed a distance record for their 96-hour grind. Eighteen students pushed in relays and rested in accompanying cars and trucks. They hope to raise $600 for a leukemia fund.

Ft. Worth Dries Lose Election Call

FORT WORTH (AP)—Dry forces seeking to block construction of a brewery failed in an effort to get Tarrant County commissioners to call another election in Precinct 7.

The commissioners denied a request for a ballot on legalized sale of alcoholic beverages.

Clearing the way for the Carling Brewing Co. to build a $20 million plant, residents of the precinct approved sale of wine and beer for off-premise consumption in September.

C-City Student Wins Award

State-wide winners in the 1961 Association of American Physicians and Surgeons essay contest have been selected by the judges and will be sent to the AAPS headquarters for competition in the national finals.

The essay contest, sponsored annually in Texas by the Texas Medical Association and the AAPS, was open to all high school students. Choice of topics included "The Advantages of the American Free Enterprise System Over Communism" and "The Advantages of Private Medical Care." A total of 56 entries were received from both public and private schools throughout the state, and represented 24 county medical societies.

First place winner is Judy Clarice Jeter, Port Neches, who will receive a scholarship check of $500. Second place honors, and $200, went to Pat Ranspot of Hereford.

Brenda Bell, daughter of Joe Bell, publisher of the Colorado City Record, took third place and $100.

Fourth place went to Lloyd Boyd of Beaumont. He received $75. Charles E. Koch Jr. of Galveston, and Elizabeth Hatzembuehler, Dallas, tied for fifth place and $25.

The winning entries have been forwarded to the Chicago office for the national finals. First prize is $1,000, with a total of $2,675 given in national prizes.

Nominated

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Marie McGuire was formally nominated Monday by President Kennedy to be public housing commissioner. She has been in the housing field at San Antonio and Houston since 1942.

Subcommittee Gets Bill To Outlaw Trading Stamps

AUSTIN (AP) — The House State Affairs Committee has sent to subcommittee a bill to outlaw trading stamps in Texas.

Rep. Bill Rapp of Raymondville, the sponsor, said groceries, service stations and other companies using stamps often pass on the cost of the stamps in either higher prices or poorer service.

He said businessmen lose sales when the stamps are turned in for free gifts ranging from furniture to toys to china.

T. A. Lambert, San Antonio druggist, said the drug stores there have not raised prices but are trying to absorb the costs.

"This is hurting the small retail merchant," he said, asserting that 55 million dollars a year "go out of Texas on stamp sales."

Robert Hailey, former Houston service station operator, said stamps increase business but decrease profits. He said his oil companies threatened him with the loss of his lease if he did not conform to company policy and give stamps.

"They told me trading stamps are a part of our merchandising plan," he said.

Richard Johnson, chairman of the SMU Economics Department of Dallas, said he had found in studies that 80 to 90 per cent of the families save stamps. He said trading stamps "are better than advertising. The retailer finds them to his advantage."

Gary Crosby Is A Changed Man

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A changed man is Gary Crosby.

You can sense it just talking to him. The words flow freely. There is none of the doubt and suspicion that were once displayed by the first-born of Bing's boys.

He admits that change himself. "I was always fighting," he says. "I blamed myself for everything that went wrong."

What brought about the change? A series of physical reverses—plus love and marriage.

Two years ago, the four Crosbys opened their night club act in Las Vegas. Gary's drive helped make the debut a success. But the tension continued on their nationwide tour, and he suffered a series of colds and throat ailments.

"By the time we reached Montreal, I was screeching—ruining my voice by singing in my throat instead of lower, as singers are supposed to do," he recalled.

Montreal was the end of the line. The act broke up and came home. Gary vehemently denied that there had been any fights among the brothers, as had been reported.

"My doctor told me not to use my voice for five months or I wouldn't have any," Gary said. "So for five months I didn't go out of my house. I told the brothers it was ridiculous to wait around for me; they were working well together and should go on as a trio. They did, and it turned out fine."

Gary recovered and began taking vocal lessons to use his voice correctly. "Every singer should, except my dad—he's the greatest natural singing talent in the world," said Gary.

Gary freely admits the turning point in his life came when he plucked Barbara Stuart from a Las Vegas chorus line to be his bride.

BIG SPRING HERALD

DEAR ABBY

Great Debate On Family Sizes

DEAR ABBY: I boiled when I read the letter from the woman who signed herself "Fed Up." She was annoyed because her clergyman (Protestant) visited her in the hospital after her seventh child was born and asked her if she had ever heard of birth control. She said that the size of one's family was a personal matter. Well, she is gravely mistaken. When children are abandoned by their parents because they can't feed and clothe them properly, who takes care of them? And who pays for public education and juvenile delinquency and homes for unwed mothers? The taxpayer! As long as I am a taxpayer, the number of children produced in this country IS my business.

at the present rate, unemployment will choke us? I used to raise pure breed dogs at one time, but just because my dog came in season every six months did not mean I had to breed her that often. But I guess I thought more of my dog than that man did of his wife.

DEAR ABBY: Tell "Fed Up" to cheer up. Time will fix things. I was the mother of nine when my eldest was 12. "Friends" would come with suggestions all the way from birth control to divorce. Our 5th child was born during the depression, and a cousin even came to take the baby home with her, like a stray kitten. Her heart was broken because I couldn't spare her just this one. ("You have so many!") You should have heard the cruel comments in town. ("Don't they know any better: How ignorant can people be!")

Now, years later, to our faces they tell us how proud we ought to be, and they look with envy upon our 16 beautiful grandchildren. But I can't let myself hate them. There is no room in a mother's heart for hate. It's full of too much real love.

MOTHER OF TEN AND PROUD DEAR ABBY: "FED UP" is encouraging the very condition she objects to. As the number of people increases, the more limited will become personal freedom of action. One hundred years ago, the number of children a woman had was her business. Today, with roads clogged with cars, and schools jammed with children uninhibited breeding by human beings becomes a community problem. Child-bearing is no longer a "personal matter" since the number of children my neighbor has will affect the health and welfare of my children, and vice versa.

GOODHUE LIVINGSTON, Ph. D.

ALSO FED UP DEAR ABBY: I agree with "FED UP" that the size of one's family is one's own personal business. I know how she must feel because I have born 13 children. People would point me out and make all sorts of foolish remarks about this "tremendous" accomplishment, which was really the most natural thing in the world for a woman to have done. When they asked, "Why so many?" I would reply, "When I go to face my Supreme Judge, He cannot say to me, "Where are the children I sent you?"—because I accepted them all.

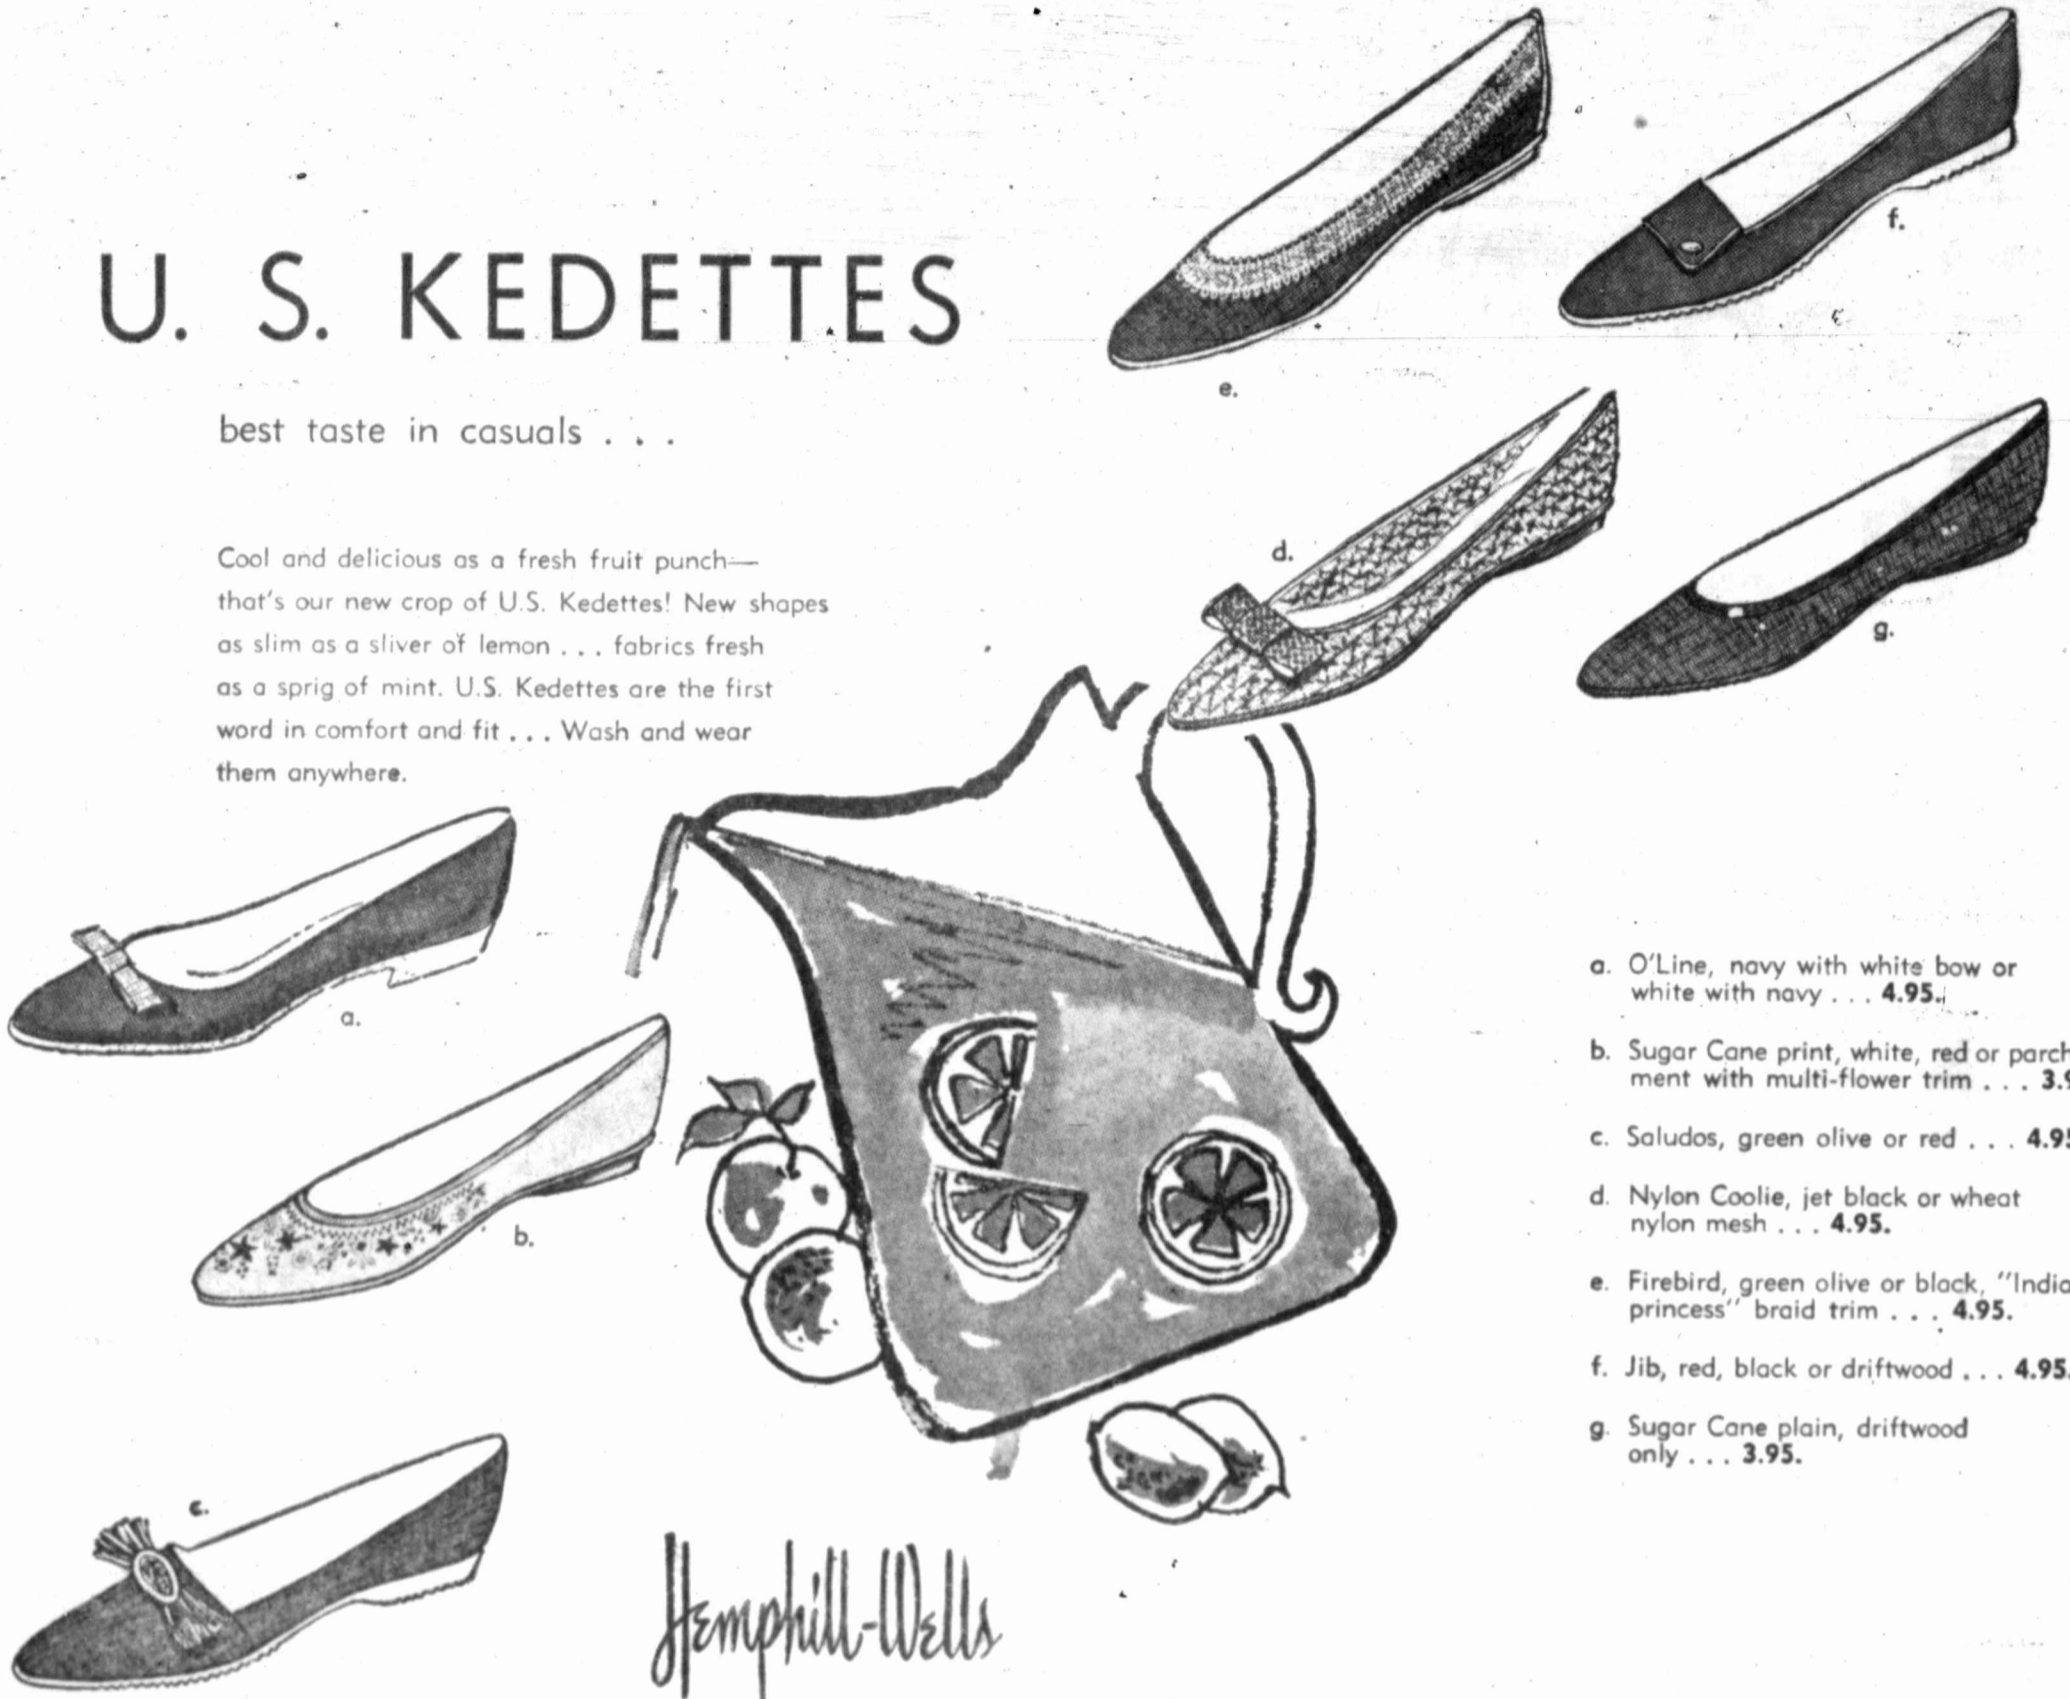

MOTHER OF 18 DEAR ABBY: My hat is off to that minister who asked the woman in the hospital if she had ever heard of birth control.

If that lady can write, I assume she can read. Doesn't she know that in 40 years the population of this world will be doubled? Doesn't she know that today one man with a machine can do the work of 120 men? And if we continue to populate this country

Optimist Hopes For Good Video

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Producer Fred Friendly has a theory that if television keeps on steadily throwing out informational and educational programs, mass audiences eventually will develop a taste for them.

"Like children," he said. "All kids would rather eat popcorn and candy than string beans and spinach. But no decent parents would let children have steady diets of popcorn and candy. And if they are exposed to enough spinach, they'll eventually like it—even prefer it."

Friendly is a big, rangy man with enormous enthusiasm and respect for what he calls "realistic programs." He is executive producer of "CBS Reports" and "Face the Nation," programs of a type he believes constitute the muscle and sinew of television.

The important thing about these programs—about missiles, the population explosion, mother-love, even obesity—is that they are about real things in our lives. And now they appear regularly—every week at the same time.

Friendly explained, "Our responsibility, and it's a big one, is to keep turning out good programs. Then we can't go wrong."

Friendly believes that the popularity of adventure programs and Westerns can be attributed to a desire on the part of many adults "to escape the terror around us by acting like ostriches or by retreating into the safety of the 19th century."

"But I say that the only way to escape terror is with knowledge, by knowing the truth and what we must face," he insisted.

The problem, of course, is that the programs usually labeled worthwhile, including "CBS Reports" and NBC's "The Nation's Future" and others, win critical acclaim and awards, but attract comparatively small audiences. In addition there is a network tendency to drop them in late evening time spots or into periods when the competition for audiences is tough if not hopeless.
