Guthrie Gets Discoverer In Borden's Spraberry

A. K. Guthrie discovered Lower Spraberry oil production in the prospect No. 1 Fred Shaffer two miles northwest of the Myrtle, East (Strawn) field in Borden County. The well was drilled to 5,423 feet trying for Strawn production and then plugged back to 5,235 feet and completed in the Lower Spraberry for 44 barrels on initial potential.

Borden

A. K. Guthrie No. 1 Fred Shaffer pumped 44 barrels of 23 gravity oil with 10 per cent water from the Lower Spraberry on initial potential. The wildcat was drilled to 5,423 feet for tests and then plugged back to 5,235 feet and completed in the Lower Spraberry. It was acidized with 10,000 gallons. The gas-oil ratio was nil. Perforations, in 5/8 inch casing set at 6,575 feet, are between 5,713-22 feet and 5,720-33 feet. The discoverer is C SW SW, section 42-97, H&T C survey, two miles northwest of the Myrtle, East field and six miles southwest of the Fluvanna field.

Dawson

Amerada No. 1 Dunlop has been tested at 11,715 feet and is logging the Devonian, between 11,200-404 feet. On tests, the project swabbed 45.18 barrels of load oil and no water in 5 1/2 hours. After acidizing with 1,000 gallons, it swabbed 48.6 barrels of load oil and 12.2 barrels of acid water in 9 1/2 hours. The venture is 657 feet from the north and 644 feet from

Bunche Brushes Off Muslims

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Muslim movement among American Negroes is escapist, defeatist and unlikely to meet with any great success, says Dr. Ralph Bunche.

The United Nations undersecretary for special political affairs told a news conference at UCLA Monday that he saw nothing very new in the black supremacy cult. He cited such previous Negro movements as the "Back to Africa" campaign of the 1930s and the later drive to establish a 49th state for Negroes.

"These are escapist movements," he said, "essentially defeatist. They operate on the assumption there is no solution to the problem of racial relations. In my way of thinking this reasoning is entirely erroneous."

China Growing, But Soviet Subs Pose Biggest Threat

By FRED S. HOFFMAN WASHINGTON (AP) — Red China's growing submarine fleet — it is believed to total more than 20 long-range, modern craft — has added a new dimension to the Navy's man-size problem of defending this country's shipping lanes and coasts.

But the big menace is posed by an estimated 400 Soviet submarines, most of them advanced, far-ranging types and some capable of firing missiles, although apparently not as deep-striking as the U.S. Polaris rocket with its 1,200-mile reach.

fare chief, said in an interview that as things stand "we could win" any test of strength with the Communist bloc sub fleet — but not without losses.

There are others in the Navy, and outside, who contend there is ground for doubt about present U.S. capability in this field.

many of them, taken by patrol planes. About 75 per cent of the Soviet subs have been built since 1950. Mustin said the reason the number stays at around 400 is that as new boats join the Red fleet, older ones are retired.

"We believe the Russians have been building nuclear and conventional subs at the rate of about 20 a year," Mustin said.

He estimated the Communist Chinese have been building Soviet-type boats at what he called a "modest but continuing rate" of about five a year.

For the coming fiscal year, President Kennedy's budget calls for funds to construct 13 subs — 10 of them missile-firing Polaris craft. All would be atomic.

Vice President Supports Blakley

AUSTIN (AP)—Vice President Lyndon Johnson said Monday he is for William Blakley in the Senate runoff election May 27.

Johnson told a news conference: "I will cast my vote as a Texan for what I believe is for the best interest of the people of the state and for the country. That vote will be for Bill Blakley."

The vice president said Blakley has a good record in the Senate and as an interim senator has excellent committee assignments and seniority.

"I can't conceive of any good that could come from Texans turning their back on the Democratic administration and the Democratic Congress and voting against their own interests," Johnson said.

Tower Answers Student Questions On SMU Visit

DALLAS (AP)—Republican senatorial candidate John Tower visited Southern Methodist University and answered a wide variety of questions by students Monday.

They ranged from activities of the John Birch Society to Tower's opposition to Nelson Rockefeller as GOP presidential candidate in 1964.

Speaking of a Birch Society movement to impeach Chief Justice Earl Warren, Tower said it was "legally impractical" and he doesn't think there are "adequate grounds."

As for Rockefeller, Tower called him a "personal friend" but said that because of differences in ideologies he would oppose nomination of Rockefeller in 1964.

To other questions, he replied: "I consider myself a moderate on civil rights."

"I probably would have voted against Dr. Robert Weaver to head the federal housing program not because of his race but because he is not qualified by experience."

He put Robert Kennedy in this same category when he told 150 students that he would have opposed the President's brother as attorney general.

"My election as U.S. senator would enhance Texas' position in the Republican party and give the state six additional delegates at the nominating convention in 1964," he said.

ATOM SUBS

U.S. Navy officials are operating on the assumption the U.S.S.R. soon will have nuclear-powered subs—if it doesn't have them already.

So far, none have been spotted, but officials speculated the Soviets may be holding them from view while working out remaining bugs.

The advent of Soviet nuclear subs will multiply demands on U.S. anti-submarine forces, some say by as much as 5 or 10 times.

This is because atomic-propelled undersea craft can stay submerged indefinitely, thus defying surface and air detection. They can travel underwater at more than 20 knots, as compared with 5 or 6 knots of conventional subs.

If and when the Soviets muster 20 or more nuclear subs, the problem of coping with them may take on critical proportions, officials said.

However, "We know what to do about it," Mustin said, claiming the U.S. Navy has the techniques and weapons in quality.

The question in the admiral's view is quantity. At the present rate of acquiring ships, helicopters, nuclear depth charges and torpedoes, supersensitive sonar detecting gear and the like, "We won't cut the mustard," Mustin said.

"We've got to find some means to provide more money for anti-submarine warfare capability or we're going to fall behind," he said.

Over-all, the Communist bloc has about 450 submarines. The United States has more than 100. Of these, 17 are nuclear-powered.

In addition, Britain and other nations friendly to the United States have about 100 subs. None are nuclear, although Britain is building its first.

How can U.S. officials speak with assurance of Communist sub numbers?

"We know every one of their subs by name and number," Mustin said, adding that the United States has pictures of

DEAR ABBY
Be Happy For Constant Love

DEAR ABBY: Well, St. Valentine's Day came and went and so did Easter with not so much as a "boo" from my husband. I've been married 14 years and he has never given me even a 10-cent card for my birthday, anniversary or any other occasion. I remember him on all occasions, and he seems pleased.

I'll admit, he doesn't drink, chase or curse. He works hard and steady and is a good church-going family man. But do you think I am asking too much to want a token of his affection to show my friends now and then?

DEAR WAITING: A man shows his "affection" to his wife by being a good family man 365 days of the year. Don't confuse his lack of sentimentality with lack of love. Some men are not the "remembering" kind, but their love is deep and constant.

DEAR ABBY: I recently had a date with a gentleman—at least I thought he was. I am in my middle forties and he is in his early fifties. (It was a date arranged by mutual friends.)

When we got to the restaurant, I didn't wait for him to open the car door for me. I just opened it myself and hopped out. He said, "A LADY always gives her escort the opportunity to be a gentleman."

Now this man is from Virginia and he did a lot of talking about his fine Southern background. Then he threw in some cracks about how refined and feminine the Southern ladies were. I was born in Brooklyn and am proud of it. Should I have said, "Drop dead, you-all!" How would you have handled it?

FROM BROOKLYN
DEAR FROM BROOKLYN: You should have said nothing, and thanked him for a lovely evening—and a short one.

DEAR ABBY: I am only 15 but I would like to speak from knowledge and experience.

I think the advice you gave "In Love in Korea"—to wait until he got back to the states before marrying the girl he fell in love with over there—was the best advice that could be given to anyone.

I know someone who was sent overseas for Uncle Sam. He met a girl there and married her a few weeks later. Now they have a family. But there is no love in the family because the parents do not get along. They can't separate for religious reasons.

You may say, "How do you know so much about this family?" Well, I will tell you how. The family is mine. The "girl" is my mother, and the "boy" is my father. I don't say that all overseas marriages don't work, but ours is an example of one that didn't, and I am living in a family without love, or the knowledge of what a real family should be like. Thank you, Abby, for warning others. You could have done no better.

ONE WHO KNOWS

DEAR ABBY: I wonder how many women have tried to kneel in church with those pointed-toe shoes and sharp, steel-tipped heels? KATIE FROM BOSTON

DEAR ABBY: Have you ever noticed how a MAN'S shoe is shaped? Just like a MAN'S FOOT, of course. Why, then, must ladies' shoes look as though they are ready for the ski slopes? Nobody hates the new ladies' shoe more than I, and I refuse to buy shoes until the manufacturers regain their senses.

STUBBORN FROM CHI
DEAR ABBY: You deserve a gold medal for trying to get decent footwear for women. I am 72 and have lived through the pointed-toe shoe era of the "Gay Nineties." My feet were badly crippled from the shoes I wore then. And now when I see the same thing happening to my beautiful teenage granddaughters, I want to cry. GRANNY FROM TYLER

DEAR ABBY: I am deeply moved by your diatribes on the issue of pointed-toe shoes. I am a designer-retailer of women's shoes and must assume my share of the responsibility for the diabolical machinations you accused us of. We are just trying to fit your feet, enhance your beauty and make an honest buck. Is this the gratitude we get for such lofty motives? Let me say that when you women stop BUYING them, we will stop SELLING them.

HONEST SHOE MAN
Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, Box 1365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Lyndon, Adenauer Hold Policy Talks

AUSTIN (AP) — Top level foreign policy talks between Vice President Lyndon Johnson and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer continued until minutes before Adenauer started home Monday.

"Chancellor Adenauer's trip was a decided success," Johnson told newsmen after his guest departed. "We had a free exchange of views on many questions."

An assistant secretary of state rode with the two men to the airport.

"Together we reviewed the content of the talks that Adenauer has had with me and with President Kennedy," Johnson said.

The vice president returned to Washington Monday night.

"Adenauer has a very high regard for President Kennedy," he said. "He appreciates the President's candor and thoroughness, and his knowledge of world conditions."

"The chancellor particularly appreciated the President's thoughtful telephone call from the White House."

He said the President asked Johnson to tell Adenauer that Kennedy:

1. Regretted not being able to see Adenauer "so wonderfully received by Texas."
 2. Wanted to assure Adenauer there would be a continued exchange of confidences with West Germany.
 3. Sought "to again assure him that we recognize the Federal Republic of Germany as a full partner and a great power and it would be treated as such in any matters involving them."
- Johnson said he and Mrs. Johnson will be going to Germany "before long and return the visit."
- He said he and the President talked about the "general world situation" in Monday's telephone call but did not specifically discuss either the Cuban situation or Laos.
- In introducing Adenauer at a joint session of the Texas Legislature, Johnson said that "the security of free Germany and free Berlin is our security."
- Adenauer said he was grateful "for this clear unmistakable pledge, which will be welcomed in Germany with great joy."

Finch, Carole Get Life Terms

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 43, and his paramour, ex-model Carole Tregoff, 23, have been sentenced to life imprisonment for the fatal shooting of Finch's socialite wife.

Superior Court Judge David Coleman said Monday the case against the two was overwhelming. He called their defense "a shoddy and crudely woven fabric of deceit."

The once prosperous West Covina surgeon and his red-haired mistress were convicted in their third trial of murder and conspiracy in the July 18, 1959, slaying of Barbara Jean Finch, 36. The jury set their penalty.

The judge rejected their bids for new trials. Both said they would appeal.

Finch was ordered to Chino, Miss Tregoff to Corona Women's Prison—both in Southern California.

W. Texans Called Freest People

STAMFORD (AP) — Former Highway Commission Chairman Marshall Formby of Plainview said Monday night the people who have the most freedom in the world "are right here in West Texas."

Accident Fatal

ALPINE (AP)—Joe Gonzales, 23, of El Paso died Monday as a result of a road building accident in a remote section of the Big Bend area.

Dr. Walter Stover of Marfa and medical supplies were flown to the scene but Gonzales died several hours after he was run over by a piece of equipment. He had fallen from another machine.

Eichmann Prosecutor Ends Description Of Nazi Crimes

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel's Attorney General Gideon Hausner, using the map of Europe as his canvas, completed the vast picture today of the terrible World War II ordeal of the Jews and made Adolf Eichmann the central figure in the blood-red painting. Hausner did not ask the death penalty for Eichmann as he ended his opening statement. But the law under which the former Gestapo officer is being tried provides it automatically for conviction on seven of the 15 counts in the indictment against him.

Country by country, city by city, from death camp to death camp, Hausner traced the fearful chain of events that led to the annihilation of six million Jews during World War II at the hands of the Nazis.

He spelled it out in detail even more horrifying than in the first two-thirds of his statement Monday.

Murder was the least terrible part of his narrative. Cannibalism, castration, surgical experiments on the living, the killing of infants before the eyes of their mothers were described in fearful detail.

Even more unspeakable acts were delineated by Hausner in the final three hours of his statement.

Spectators in the audience wept openly and the horror of the prosecutor's recital was reflected in their faces.

Liz Is Weak But Happy As She Carries Off Her Oscar

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie - TV Writer
SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—"I feel weak but wonderful," Liz Taylor sighed happily after winning her first Oscar. Monday night—a few months after recovering from a brush with death.

LIZ TAYLOR
Her longest walk

ing the 90-minute Academy Awards show. But she told newsmen: "I'm going to the party, too. I wouldn't miss it."

Liz, nominated four straight years for the movies' big award, stole the 33rd annual Oscar show from the other winners—Burt Lancaster, best actor; Shirley Jones, best supporting actress, and Peter Ustinov, best supporting actor.

"The Apartment" won five awards, including best picture and best direction (by Billy Wilder).

CUTS POSING
All the winners posed backstage for photographers but Liz got weak in the knees and had to cut her posing short. Accompanied by her husband Eddie Fisher and her doctor, she swayed shakily toward an open door. The fresh air revived her quickly and she was all smiles again.

Earlier, on her arrival, she had to rest 15 minutes before entering the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium. The show, telecast over ABC-TV, was well under way before she was able to make it to her seat.

"That's the longest I've walked since my illness," she told a reporter. "My knees got all shaky, like they were made of water."

Her beautiful green Dior gown covered a leg still bandaged from antibiotic shots given her two months ago during her nearly fatal battle with pneumonia.

STAGGERS UP
When her name was called for the Oscar, she put her hands over her face in surprise, kissed her husband and then walked slowly, with his help, to the podium.

"I don't really know how to express my great gratitude," she said with emotion. "I guess I will just have to thank you with all my heart."

Lancaster, the hell-firing revivalist of "Elmer Gantry," told a cheering audience: "I want to thank all the members of the Academy who voted for me. And I am so happy that I also want to thank all the members who didn't vote for me."

For Lancaster, 47, the award climaxed a career that had taken him from the New York slums through circus acrobatics to movie stardom.

Miss Jones clutched her Oscar and thanked another Oscar—the late Oscar Hammerstein.

It was Hammerstein and Richard Rodgers who picked the 27-year-old brewer's daughter from Smithton, Pa., to play the ingenue lead in "Oklahoma" and "Carousel."

"BAD" ROLE
But it was her switch to the hardboiled tart of "Elmer Gantry" that won her the Oscar.

"I guess it pays to be bad on the screen," she said.

The bearded Ustinov, who won an Oscar for his portrayal of a gladiator school operator in "Spartacus," flew in from Rome to attend the ceremonies.

"I'm glad I made the trip," he

PETER USTINOV
At a loss for words said. Then he added: "I attended English schools so long I was taught how to lose gracefully. I've been preparing myself all afternoon. Now that I've won I don't know what to say."

Special Oscars were given to Gary Cooper and Stan Laurel among others. Neither was well enough to attend the ceremonies.

James Stewart accepted Cooper's Oscar with an emotion-filled speech. Fighting back tears and swallowing hard, he said: "We're very proud of your, Coop," all of us are tremendously proud.

"Spartacus" was runner-up to "The Apartment" with four Oscars. Besides two acting awards, "Elmer Gantry" also won an Oscar for its writer, Richard Brooks.

The Swedish producer Ingemar Bergman's "The Virgin Spring" was named best foreign language film. Another foreign entry, the Greek comedy, "Never on Sunday," upset four domestic competitors to win the best original title award with a song of the same name.

Academy Awards A Good Show But Fearfully Long

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The Academy Awards ceremonies may be Hollywood's "roudest night," but the 2 1/2 hour television vigil was a long wait to find out who and what won four or five awards.

For residents of the Eastern part of the country, the last "Oscar" was handed out at 12:45 this morning, and even M. C. Bob Hope, who had been introducing, wisecracking and pacing the stage, was showing signs of fatigue.

There were, of course, occasional bright moments as the behind-the-camera awards were being handed out earlier in the evening. There were movie stars by the gross to look at. There was a poignant moment when Elizabeth Taylor, recuperating, but still weak, was escorted tenderly by husband Eddie Fisher to receive her award for best actress and gave a brief, tremulous word of thanks. There was the funny, awkward moment when Steve Allen and Jayne Meadows were left holding an "Oscar" nobody came up to claim.

This year's award ceremony was held in a Santa Monica auditorium instead of the usually posh Hollywood theater. The auditorium appeared to be larger than Soldier's Field and because of its size the enthusiasm of the audience didn't register in the microphone. However, it was obvious that the principal awards—to Miss Taylor, to Burt Lancaster for best actor, and to "The Apartment" as best film—were popular choices.

But it would be a better and more interesting television show if it were cut in half, both in the number of awards and in the length of the program.

Immediately after the "Oscar" show, ABC premiered its network "news final," a late news wrap-up which hereafter will come along at 11 p. m. It was the first trial having ABC correspondents report their own stories instead of an announcer reading the news. The big story was Cuba. But the business of bouncing that story between New York, Washington, Buenos Aires and other points seemed aimless and time consuming.

Bill Cullen, who recently decided to abandon his daily, local four-hour radio stint, apparently found he can't stand so much leisure. He has signed to take Arthur Godfrey's hosting job on "Candid Camera" next fall.

Demos Seek Wage Bill By Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leaders hope to win passage of President Kennedy's minimum wage bill by tonight.

But Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois says he's not so sure about the timetable for final action.

Administration forces were mobilized to fight off all major amendments to the bill—a must on Kennedy's legislative list.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana last week obtained an agreement limiting debate on each amendment to one hour. About 15 were pending, but all may not be offered.

The bill the Senate is debating would largely carry out the President's recommendations. It would boost the wage floor from $1 to $1.25 by 1963 in two steps and would bring an additional 4,086,000 workers under the wages and hours law. Most of these would be in retail stores, service establishments and construction.

The Senate version is far broader than the bill passed by the House last month after a sharp Kennedy defeat. That measure would boost the minimum to $1.15 and cover an additional 1,200,000 workers, all in chain stores.

Administration lieutenants were reasonably confident they could beat back all crippling Senate amendments.

They looked for a hard tussle on the coverage issue, however. There has been no increase in the types of workers brought under the act since it first became law in 1938.

GOP To Study Results Of New Jersey Election

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans across the nation will study the results of today's New Jersey primary election for new evaluations of liberal and conservative strength within their party.

While a contest for nomination for governor is likely to be decided in most instances by the power of candidates' organizations and the impact of local issues, most Republicans think the New Jersey battle has some national overtones.
