Everything Comes Off Just Right For Rodeo Opener

Opening night for the 28th Annual Howard County Cowboy Reunion Rodeo was everything its sponsors could have wished. The weather was good, the attendance excellent. The stock was rough and tough and gave the cowboys a hard time. No one injured; the crowd was enthusiastic.

The grand entry packed the arena from stem to stern and was described by veteran rodeo observers as the biggest of its kind at a local rodeo.

DAWSON TOPS

Dawson County Sheriff's posse was declared top riding group of the big parade which was opening event of the four night show. Tom Good, president of the local rodeo group, presented its president with the first place trophy. Martin County Posse was second and Lynn County was third.

The show moved with good speed and minimum delays. The grand entry and the formal introductions absorbed more than half an hour but after the contests began, there was no delay in operations.

BULLS

Cowboys found the going rough in both the bareback bronc riding and the Brahma bull riding. Eight riders had their try at the bulls—only Dave Hopper, Hereford, stayed for the ride and scored. His ride netted him a 167 rating. All of the other riders found the bulls too tough to handle and most of them wound up in the soft sand of the arena floor.

Leonard Lancaster, Oklahoma City, and Guy Weeks, Abilene, each with 170 scores, tied for top honors in the bareback bronc riding. Frank Freas, Elk City, Okla., was second with 168 and Cecil Richardson, Abilene, third with 163. There were six other riders but they failed to stay on board for the required eight seconds.

CALF ROPING

Ronnie Sewalt, Chico, tied his calf in the neat time of 11.2 seconds.

Hanging On

Billy Weeks hangs on as this bronc makes every effort to unseat him during the many events on opening night of the rodeo. It was a good night for the critters too, as they could claim a better average than the cowboys in the several events.

ons to lead the field in the first night's calf roping. Don McLaughlin, Fort Worth, with 12.4 was second and Dusty Bogard, Bula, with 12.5 third. Other ropers and their times: Horace Rankin, Big Spring, 12.8; Pete Reid, Breckenridge, 15; Jake Bogard, Bula, 15.9; Toots Mansfield, Big Spring, 14.4; Alton Carter, Tuscola, 14.3; Bill Teague, Crane; 15.2; Gip Lovejoy, Andrews, 15.3; Bob Johnson, Barnhart, lost out when his rope broke and J. L. Sawyers, Garden City, failed to snare his calf.

BARREL RACE

Betty Frye, Abilene, was first place winner in the girls' barrel race. She turned in the creditable time of 19.5; Billie Ann Evans, Fort Davis, was second with 19.8; Billie McBride, San Angelo, was third, with 20. Pat Murphy of Ira and Ruth Ann Craddock, tied for fourth spot with 20.2. Other riders and their times: Peggy Harris, San Angelo, 21.9; Valyncia Conway, Big Spring, 23.3; Jane Williams, Eldorado, 23.3; Carol Ann Jackson, Colorado City, 20.5; Wanda Collier, Midland, disqualified.

Leonard Lancaster, who had scored tops in the bareback bronc riding, wound up in a three way tie for first place in the saddle bronc contest. He scored 171—the identical points accorded Jim Busch, Rapid City, N.D., and Jack Suggler, Tucson, Ariz.

Two riders tied for second honors, too, each scoring 167. They were Bill Watts, Big Spring; and Ray Rodewald, Craig, Colo. Other riders and their scores: Dennis Reiners, Clara City, Minn., 165; Melvin Fields, Coffeyville, Kans., 164; Duane Rodewald, Craig, Colo., was thrown and disqualified.

STEER WRESTLING

Frank Freas, who was the tinal contestant of the evening in the steer wrestling, came up with an 8.3 which gave him an easy first place in that event. Doyle Cobbler, Dallas, with 10.1 was second and Junior Weeks, Cleburne, with 10.4 third. Bill Watts, Andrews, made the speediest time of all in pinning his bull—5.8 seconds. Unfortunately, he broke the barrier and had to take a 10-second penalty which pushed his score to 15.8. Other wrestlers and their time: Charles Boyles, Fort Stockton, 20.7; Bill Usery, McAllister, Okla., 13.7; Bill McGuire, Fort Worth, 12.3; George Chapman, Wynoka, Okla., 40.1.

Second round of the four night show is set for 8 p.m. Thursday. The rodeo runs four nights this season. In the past it has terminated after three nights. Champions will be announced and the rodeo queen crowned at the Saturday night closing performance.

Long Procession Sets Spirit Of Excitement For Rodeo

The rodeo parade got under way Wednesday amid the wail of sirens to give the air a chill of expectancy befitting the spitting events soon to come up.

County, city and rodeo officials headed the long procession with the Big Spring High School Band providing the marching beat at the beginning of the line and the Coahoma Band at the middle.

Eleven Sheriff's Poses and Riding clubs let their mounts strut up the pavement along Main Street to 2nd St. and back down Scurry Street to 11th St.

Ten Queens from the area rode their horses near the head of the line. Girls vying for the titles of queen and princess to be chosen Saturday were Karen Ward, Odessa; Mitsy Davis, Sterling City; Carol Ann Jackson, Colorado City; Mrs. Tim Jones, Hamlin; Jan Cooper, McCarney; Ada La Riggs, Sanderson; Rena Kay Saunders, Stanton; Wanda Collier, Midland; Dorothy Taylor, Lamessa.

Four floats were entered and rodeo parade contraptions might have been called that had the maker's so desired. Drawing particular interest was the Kiwanis arrangement for advertising the barbecue held Wednesday night at the Rodeo Grounds.

Winning first prize money of $50 was the float entered by the Knott 4-H Club. Second place, and $30, went to the Beta Sigma Phi sorority and the Epsilon Sigma Alpha entry placed third, winning $20.

Winners were selected by Jack Lee, Mrs. Sue Smith and Mrs. Patsy Anderson.

Dawson County was judged the winning posse and Martin and Lynn counties were second and third.

Other entries were from Cochran, Eastland, Scurry, and Ector counties. In addition, there were the Big Spring Mounted Patrol, the Western Riding Club, the New Home Riding Club and the Scurry County Posse Anns, an all-girl entry.

About 200 single riders made up the final portion of the parade. Some were Rodeo contestants; others were persons who wanted to take part in the spectacular affair but were not affiliated with any unit.

Many spectators observed that this was one of the biggest parades yet for the rodeo.

"This is certainly the most riders we ever had and the best array of organized groups," T. J. Good, president, said.

The parade moved rapidly and easily over the new route and little traffic difficulty was encountered by police.

"The new route required more men on duty to handle the traffic and keep the streets open," according to Leo Hull, assistant chief of police, "but the parade moved faster and more people got to view it." There were 20 policemen on duty.

Hull praised the many spectators for their cooperation in helping the parade move smoothly.

War Heroine Stabbed To Death

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—A woman once decorated by Gen. Charles de Gaulle for her underground work and years later acquitted of manslaughter in the shooting of a young sailor, died of stab wounds on a downtown sidewalk early today.

Nina Leona Butler, 52, was apparently being pursued when she fell through the window of a store. She died while bystanders tried to stem bleeding in a neck wound. She had been stabbed in the breast and thigh also.

Sidney A. Wilson, clerk in a nearby hotel, said an unidentified man stood around for a moment while others tried to help the dying woman and then hurried off.

Mrs. Butler was acquitted early in 1960 on a charge of manslaughter in the shooting of Gary Moretz, 18, outside her home. Mrs. Butler testified she had been bothered by prowlers and thought that Moretz was an intruder. The youth's grandmother lived next door to Mrs. Butler.

A native of Liege, Belgium, Mrs. Butler married U.S. soldier Doyle E. Butler in 1944 but was divorced.

331st FIS Adopts Center

Men in the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron have "adopted" the Crippled Children and Adults Center as a project.

The goal is $100 a month contribution to the center as a sustaining support of the facility. Sgt. B. E. Prather, one of those who helped organize the squadron's car wash project which produced about $700 to the recent fund drive for the center, turned $100 into the society treasury. He explained that a jar was put out on payday so that each officer and airman would have an opportunity to contribute 25 cents to the sustaining fund, and the $100 was the result.

Nor is this all that the squadron is doing for it has planned a tour of Webb AFB for children who are in the school for exceptional children. A bus will pick up the youngsters at the school at 10:30 a.m. Friday and will take them to the base. Airmen will assist the children and will serve as their guides.

Rebel French Generals Get 15-Year Term

PARIS (AP)—Two generals who once held top posts in the French army were each sentenced to 15 years in prison Wednesday night for leading the Foreign Legion mutiny in Algeria two months ago.

Maurice Challe, 55, and Andre Zeller, 63, were spared from death by the special court of nine officers and civilian jurists set up under the emergency powers of the man they defied, President Charles de Gaulle.

The prosecution had asked life sentences for Challe, former commander of allied forces in Central Europe, and Zeller, former French army chief of staff. Only De Gaulle can lighten their penalties and there was no sign that he would.

Two other retired generals had joined Challe and Zeller in the military junta that seized power in Algiers in April and held it four days. Raoul Salan and Edmond Jouhaud are believed still hiding out somewhere in Algeria, possibly reading new resistance in their zeal to keep Algeria French.

De Gaulle already had stripped all four of their rank. Challe and Zeller gave up when France and the armed forces rallied behind De Gaulle and the mutiny collapsed. Their voluntary surrender worked to their advantage in the three-day trial.

Jewish Death March Related

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP)—Adolf Eichmann's final roundup of the Jews of Hungary turned the road from Budapest to the Austrian border into a highway of death, an eyewitness testified today.

Attorney Arie Breslauer said that he worked with the Swedes and the Swiss to save the Jews from the Gestapo chieftain's last big pogrom in November 1944 but was unable to balk the Germans and the Hungarian fascists who collaborated with them enthusiastically.

The Israeli prosecution, nearing the end of its case against Eichmann as the high priest of the Jewish slaughter, developed the death march story first with documents showing Eichmann initiated it.

The evidence showed that Hiller ordered the Hungarian regent, Adm. Nicholas Horthy, deposed for defeatism, seized complete power, installed a new Hungarian regime and sent Eichmann back from Berlin to complete "the final solution of the Jewish problem"—extermination.

Total mobilization of the remaining Jews in Budapest—about 200,000—ensued. Breslauer said the streets were black with them, shoved along, herded like cattle.

Man Admits Burning Car

The 1955 Chevrolet was blazing furiously when City Policeman Bob Dugan reached the scene.

Jack White, highway patrolman soon joined him.

Standing near the blazing car was a 61-year-old man. "Your car?" inquired the officers.

"Yes," said the man. "What caused the fire?" "I poured gasoline on it and set it on fire," calmly replied the owner.

The car, badly charred, burned just outside the city limits on West U. S. 80.

The man was taken into custody and was being questioned. He was docketed at the county jail on a charge of arson.

Investigating officers said that he had no insurance on the car and that apparently he blamed domestic troubles as the motive for his action.

Lyndon Predicts A Strong Stand

RICHMOND, Ky. (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson said today that President Kennedy will warn Soviet Premier Khrushchev the United States "has no intention of yielding to diplomatic blackmail."

Johnson, in an address prepared for commencement exercises at Eastern Kentucky College, said Kennedy will make clear at Vienna that "no greater blunder can be made by any leader than to discount the strength of the free."

Trujillo's Heirs Still In Control

SURPLUS PLAN

Nearly 12 Tons Of Food Due In

Nearly 12 tons of surplus foods, assigned to Howard County from the federal reserves, will be brought to Big Spring on Saturday or Monday from San Angelo.

On Wednesday, this mountain of food will be issued to perhaps 1,000 Howard County persons who have been accepted by the Howard County Public Welfare Department as in need of help.

Ed Carpenter, county judge, said that 23,000 pounds of food has been earmarked for Howard County. A truck will be dispatched from this county either Saturday or Monday to get the food.

It will be taken to the warehouse rented by the county as a distribution center and first distribution will be made on Wednesday.

Carpenter said that all persons who feel they are entitled to participate in the program should contact the county welfare department.

The county judge was told that the current supplies of canned pork and gravy, beans and dried eggs is exhausted and that these items will not be in the first assignment to this county. Foods which will be provided will include dried milk, peanut butter, lard, butter, rolled oats, flour, corn meal, milled rice. Should additional allocations of beans, dried eggs and canned pork be received before Saturday at the San Angelo district warehouse, they will be added to the local list.

Mrs. Ruby Phillips, county welfare officer, said that an auditor from the state office at Austin will be here on Wednesday to lend a hand in getting the program operating.

Plans are to operate the distribution center each Wednesday. Applicants will be assigned specific dates to come to the warehouse. Probably the applicants will be divided into four groups the division being made alphabetically with 250 (if 1,000 proves to be the total number of applicants to be served) to report each Wednesday.

Approximately 30 pounds of food per person per month will be distributed under the program. A family of 10, for example, would get 300 pounds of the staples available.

Assassins Cut Down Dictator

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP)—Strongman Rafael Leonidas Trujillo's political heirs appeared today to be still in control of the Dominican Republic after the assassination of the dictator. But a power struggle was generally expected.

The dictator's hand-picked government proclaimed "the continuity" of his policies and declared nine days of mourning for the generalissimo who ruled the eastern half of the island of Hispaniola with a tyrannical hand for 31 years.

The dictator's hand-picked government proclaimed "the continuity" of his policies and declared nine days of mourning for the generalissimo who ruled the eastern half of the island of Hispaniola with a tyrannical hand for 31 years.

A dispatch from Ciudad Trujillo said high government officials were among the crowd that greeted the plane Wednesday night. With him were his younger brother, Rhadames, and the Dominican ambassador to France, Porfirio Roldosa.

COMMUNIQUE

A communique announcing the assassination was signed by President Joaquin Balaguer, whom Trujillo installed as a figurehead president last August when the dictator's brother Hector resigned.

The communique extolled the generalissimo, who was 69, and said he had been the victim of a "treacherous attack." Tuesday night, more than 19 hours before the assassination was announced, But it gave no details of the killing and no clue to the identity of the assassins.

A Dominican newsman reported by telephone from Ciudad Trujillo—the capital city the dictator remained in his own honor—that Trujillo was ambushed by gunmen as he rode along an oceanfront highway outside the capital. Another car forced his to halt. Several shots were fired from a "handgun." He was believed to have died instantly. His chauffeur was wounded.

NO TIME

Trujillo was armed but "probably had no time to defend himself." A crack shot, the dictator once boasted, "The man who takes a potshot at me had better be sure of his aim. Otherwise he'll be a dead man."

Other sources said seven persons in an automobile made the attack; that two of the assailants were caught or killed and the

Tough Dictator Fought Back Before Being Killed

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Dominican dictator Rafael L. Trujillo, though wounded, managed to draw his revolver and shoot it out with a band of assassins before being killed Tuesday night, an official statement said today.

The Dominican armed forces, which are investigating the murder of the 69-year-old strong man, gave this story:

A group that had planned the assassination three months ago attacked as Trujillo and his personal driver, Capt. Zacarias de la Cruz, were motoring from Ciudad Trujillo to the dictator's estate in his home town of San Cristobal.

The driver and Trujillo were wounded by the first burst of gunfire. Trujillo ordered the car stopped, drew his revolver and returned the fire.

The driver used one of the tommy guns usually carried in the car. The driver said Trujillo had no time to use his.

Trujillo fell out of the car and the attackers beat him, seriously cutting his face and injuring his left arm. Trujillo was killed and his body taken to a nearby car and put in the trunk. The body was found there later.

One of the attackers was seriously wounded and another was presumed injured. The exact number of attackers was not known.

The armed forces said one of the conspirators against Trujillo was a former brigadier general, Juan Tomas Diaz.

State Tax Stamp Revenue Increases

AUSTIN (AP)—Money from tax stamps on cigarettes, liquor and wine during May increased $1,837,659 over April, state treasurer Jesse James said today.

Last month's increase was $711,917 over May of last year.

Cigarettes brought in $7,821,931 during May and $6,310,562 during April. Liquor stamp revenue brought in $1,235,186 last month compared to $950,788 during April. Wine stamp sales amounted to $142,118 during May and $100,826 during April.

JFK Advises NATO To Look After Its Southern Defenses

PARIS (AP)—President Kennedy urged members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today to concern themselves "with the whole southern half of the globe, where we and our freedoms are now in peril."

The President, addressing a special session of the NATO council, cautioned there should be no less attention to the protection of the North Atlantic area. He had just come to agreement with France's President Charles de Gaulle on a tough Western posture to the Communists on the issue of threatened West Berlin.

But the President, advising a broadened NATO outlook, added that "the other side of the table" referring to the Communist bloc, has been making advances in the southern half of the globe, including Asia, Latin America and Africa.

SECOND DAY

Earlier, Kennedy and De Gaulle began their second day of talks on world issues, agreed that the West must stand firm in Berlin but still divided on France's demand for an equal voice with Britain and the United States in the direction of Allied policy.

Kennedy arrived at the Elysee Palace shortly after 10 a.m. for the first of two extended conversations today with the French president. De Gaulle was on the steps of the palace, waiting to greet his American guest.

En route to his morning conference with De Gaulle, Kennedy stopped at the U.S. Embassy and told 500 cheering employees he plans to "take every measure to strengthen common ties" between France and the United States.

"This country is extremely vital to the common cause," the President said, adding that Frenchmen have a special voice and special prestige.

POLICY BASIS

The agreement on Berlin strengthens the policy basis for Kennedy's exploratory talks with Soviet Premier Khrushchev this weekend in Vienna, Austria. The French indicated they were confident Kennedy would take a firm, no-compromise line.

From his morning session with De Gaulle, Kennedy went to the Hotel de Ville—Paris' City Hall—for the capital's official, ceremonial welcome.

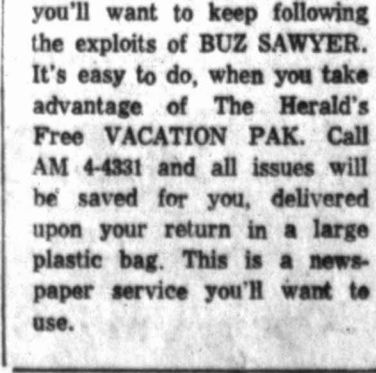

A huge, enthusiastic crowd awaited him. A great cheer went up from the crowd outside as Kennedy arrived and a band struck up flourishes. A mounted contingent of Republican Guards in red-plumed, golden helmets brought their glittering sabers to salute as Kennedy entered the ornate main salon. It was packed with invited spectators.

Interior Minister Roger Frey escorted Kennedy down a reception line.

A Close-Up View

Few spectators at the Rodeo Parade had as close a view as the three youngsters shown here, but hundreds lined Main and Scurry streets for a glimpse Wednesday at 4 p.m. Eleven organized groups, four floats and an assortment of other riders and participants got the 28th Annual Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo started in gala fashion. John Quigley's Mother Dies

Mr. and Mrs. John Quigley left Thursday for Glenwood Springs, Colo., to attend last rites for his mother, Mrs. C. M. Quigley, who died there Wednesday. She had been in failing health for several years.

Weapons Sales Ordered Stopped

HOUSTON (AP)—Police Chief Carl Shuptrine ordered merchants today to stop the sale of brass knuckles, switch-blade, spring-blade and throw-blade knives under penalty of a fine or jail.

Some 61 junior volunteers worked at the hospital last year, Mrs. Ara Cunningham, voluntary service officer, said, but she could offer no estimate of the number who might enroll this summer.

"Many boys and girls have called asking for information," she said. "We hope for about 100 to sign up to fill the current need."

Junior volunteers must be at least 15 years old to work on the wards, but wards are not the only place they can work. This year the engineering department has been added to the other areas in which they can offer services.

Mrs. Cunningham pointed out that the voluntary service, no matter where performed, was either a direct or indirect service for patients.

MUCH WORK

"There is so much to be done around the hospital and the employees cannot do it all. They do the most important things first and then those which are considered secondary. Any assistance given by volunteers allows more of these secondary things to be done to help make the patient's stay at the hospital more comfortable and pleasant," she said.

Dressed in distinctive uniforms, volunteers stand out wherever they work. Boys wear white sport shirts and cotton trousers and the girls wear red candy-striped pinafores with big pockets on the skirt and white shirtwaist blouses.

The orientation has been tailored to acquaint prospective volunteers with as many phases of hospital work as possible.

Methodists Support Council

DALLAS (AP)—North Texas Methodists have reaffirmed their support of the National Council of Churches. But they asked that the council refrain from speaking on controversial issues with "a voice of finality."

About 500 delegates representing 300 churches in the North Texas Methodist Conference approved the resolution Wednesday without debate after a discussion of the council.

The resolution defended the right of the council to speak on social matters. But it urged that the council avoid giving the impression that its pronouncements are ultimate authority of the church on any issue.

A GOOD FEELING

By E. R. Tarbet, preacher Church of Christ, West Highway 20 P. O. Box 1283.

Because a person has a good feeling, is not proof he is saved. Nowhere does the Word of God tell us to know we are saved by the way we feel. Rather it says, "And hereby we know that we know Him if we keep His commandments" (1 Jno. 2:3).

The Lord has promised to save those who are obedient. "And being made perfect, He became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey Him" (Heb. 5:9). Thus when we obey Him we know we are saved; for He is not slack concerning His promises (II Pet. 3:9).

Summer Classes To Begin Monday

Summer school gets under way at senior high school at 9 a.m. Monday, and in the past the offerings will be designed to meet the demand. Usually, about 20 pupils are required for a course offering.

This year, in addition to the customary courses in English, mathematics and social science, there may be science offerings such as biology or general science.

Pupils may sign for one full credit or two half credits in separate courses. The only exception to the latter rule is where a course is needed to complete graduation requirements.

MUST ATTEND ALL

State regulations prescribe a minimum of 70 hours of instruction, so that those who sign should be prepared to attend every class session. Charges are $15 per course. The summer school ends July 26.

At Goliad and Runnels Junior High schools, registration will be completed separately, but classes will be combined to make them large enough to operate, according to Sam Anderson, assistant superintendent-education.

A special remedial reading course is scheduled at Park Hill Elementary School for grades 1-6 inclusive. Cost of the course is $20 and classes will be held each Monday through Friday from June 5 to July 14.

Grades 4, 5 and 6 will receive instruction between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. and grades 1, 2 and 3 between 10 a.m. and noon. Twenty students have already been registered and others may register at the school Monday at 9 a.m.

HELP CHILD

"Both group and individual instruction will be given to help each child as much as possible," Anderson said. He stressed that the course was not for credit, but rather to improve the reading of those who wish to take advantage of it.

The teacher for this course will be Mrs. Mary A. Hefley.

Hunting Death

CHILDRESS, Tex. (AP)—Richard Higgenbotham, 15, of Irving, was accidentally killed Wednesday while hunting with a younger brother. Relatives said gun held by the younger brother discharged by accident.

A course for pre-school children who do not speak English will be taught at Bauer and Kate Morrison Schools beginning Monday. Most registrants have already signed up, but parents may still register their children before classes begin.

These classes will be held from 9 a.m. to noon each day for an eight-week period. The children will receive 120 hours of instruction so that they can begin school with enough knowledge of English to keep from falling behind.

90 REGISTER

Some 90 students have already been registered and Anderson expects the course to have a total enrollment of about 120 when classes start.

Two classes are now set up for each school and another will be added if needed. Mrs. Agnes Mitchell and Mrs. Elodia Bustamente will teach at Kate Morrison and Mrs. Arthur Rueckart and Mrs. Irene Brewster will be instructors at Bauer.

A STATEMENT FROM THE STORE MANAGER:

I called a meeting with the assistant manager and all of the department managers. I asked them to produce the largest June this store has on record. I told them, "This is your sale and the prices will be set by you as department managers." This was where I made my mistake. I have been in Big Spring several years and these are the lowest prices since I have been here. As you can see, profit is no object, so buy at the lowest prices in years. All items are first quality unless so stated.

At Work With A Saw

R. E. Jones has been sawing months to give him the house he and his ex-wife want in Galveston. Jones and his ex-wife, Margaret, were divorced last year and the judge ruled that the couple divide their property evenly. Since the first of the year Jones spent his spare time cutting the house in half—lengthwise—with a hand saw.

NEWS MEDLEY

This House Is Being Divided, But Will It Stand?

GALVESTON (AP)—The house of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Jones is a divided one. Jones, 62, and his wife, Margaret, were divorced in 1952. Jones moved across the street and rented a place to live while his wife finished raising the younger of their five children. Then the Negro couple got around to completing a property settlement. They talked about selling the five-room frame house, Jones said, but cutting it in two was "kind of her idea and I went along with her." Jones moved back into his half of the house. A brother, Ellis, helped Jones start sawing the house apart in their spare time. Jones said it won't be long before there are two houses instead of one. He plans to skid his wife's part of the house three feet away, nail on new siding on both sections and slap a coat of paint on them.

Mrs. Jones isn't available for comment.

A Real Smash

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP)—Ray Rollins, a Wake Forest senior, reports his "car smash" was just that—a smashing success. He turned down a junkman's offer of $10 for his 1947 automobile and instead let students take whacks at the old car with a sledgehammer at 25 cents a stroke. Rollins said the "car smash" gave the fellows a chance to let off exam tension. And—he made $18 on the old jalopy.

Isn't That How It Always Happens?

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP)—Richard J. Rutkowski of South San Francisco has two wives but he can't remember how it happened. Or so he told Carson City Police.

Rutkowski, 24, was arrested for passing bad checks. A routine police check showed he had one wife too many.

"I just woke up one morning with an extra wife," Rutkowski said. "Don't ask me how it happened."

He was arraigned on a felony bigamy charge.

Check Your Guns

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Science has caught up with another of the shoot-em-up traditions of the Old West.

A bill to regulate tranquilizer guns was introduced in the Nebraska Legislature. A couple of cattle country senators told their colleagues the tranquilizer guns, used to produce unconsciousness or temporary disability in live animals, are a potential weapon for cattle rustlers.

Daniel Asks Voters Sound Opinions On Tax Problem

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel is ready to accept the will of the people on taxes, even general sales taxes, but he will keep fighting for a better way to finance the state government. Daniel invited Texans Wednesday night to communicate freely with him and their legislators, becoming their own family lobbyists, to guide the July 19 special session on taxation. Lobbyists who crowded the Capitol corridors on the closing night of the regular session were "making errand boys" of some lawmakers and "the gall" of this procedure should not be tolerated, the governor said. It would not be in Congress, he added. "Congress would kick them out."

In a statewide television speech followed by a news conference, Daniel said he is standing with his back to the wall in his battle against a general sales tax.

TELL HIM

He urged Texans to tell him how they feel about it. Daniel said he held up the special session for 40 days so the people could have plenty of time to speak, and the lawmakers to listen.

The television program originated at KTEC TV here.

The governor told questioning news men that he would "have to yield to the people" if he decides they favor the kind of sales tax which he says he will veto. Daniel still does not think the people want it, he emphasized.

Daniel said he would favor an unofficial statewide referendum on taxation conducted by election officials. The issue has clarified enough now that such a referendum would be useful, he said.

The speech was the opening gun in a campaign in which the governor promised to educate the people on taxation.

Daniel said he would favor an unofficial statewide referendum on taxation conducted by election officials.

TELL SOLONS

"If you agree with me that the gas pipeline companies should pay at least the same 2 per cent tax that they want Texas consumers to pay, and that interstate and foreign corporations ought to pay on a basis comparable to our own domestic companies, and that any sales tax ought to be collected on whisky, beer and other alcoholic beverages the same as on other products, I hope you will tell your members of the Legislature how you feel."

Texas should also tell their representatives about it, Daniel said. "If they disagree with him," he said, "and think Texas should continue to get less than half of the taxes that Louisiana collects on natural gas, and the big interstate corporations should continue to pay on a cheaper allocation than domestic corporations, and that clothes should be taxed while beer and whisky are exempt."

OUTNUMBERED

During the 190 days of the regular session, legislators were outnumbered by "commercial and corporation" lobbyists 10 to 1, Daniel said. He singled out those of gas pipelines and foreign and interstate corporations as those he blamed for the Legislature's stalemate on taxes.

INDIFFERENT

The governor sharply attacked lobbyists who he said harassed the legislature and opposed all tax writing compromise in the general session.

"I shall continue to fight the battle for a limited or selective sales and excise tax, plus the tax on natural gas pipeline companies, interstate corporations and alcoholic beverages," Daniel said. "But the governor and one-half the House cannot do the job alone."

propaganda of the special interests who want to save their companies from taxation by putting the lion's share of the burden on the people."

Asked for comment on a statement by E. B. Germany, president of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, who said that the governor should keep his hands off tax matters in the future, Daniel replied: "I will if he will get the lobbyists to keep hands off."

The governor said he has "no idea" of seeking a fourth term. "If you want to get rid of me, help me put my program over," he advised.

U. S. Seeking Clues For Dominican Future

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. policymakers watched anxiously today for clues on whether the post-Trujillo Dominican Republic would move toward democracy or erupt in revolution with dangerous results.

The United States wants to be able to throw its weight behind a reform Dominican regime dedicated to democracy, economic improvement and anti-communism. It doesn't want an oppressor of either right or left who would further torment hemisphere relations, and it hopes to avoid links with such a ruler.

Scant information on Tuesday's assassination of strongman Rafael Trujillo seeping out of the tightly censored Caribbean land so far suggests the new rulers, for the time being, are carryovers from the rightwing Trujillo nest.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk put off his trip to Paris for the Kennedy-De Gaulle talks to take charge personally of U.S. strategy at a Dominican moment of change which could have heavy impact on the future.

AGREED President Kennedy and Rusk, in telephone contact between Paris and Washington, were said to be agreed that the Dominican situation was of such top priority that Rusk could do more by setting the U.S. course as the situation clears than by speeding off to the summit talks.

Informed sources said both the President and the secretary of state had the recent Cuban invasion fiasco very much in mind and were determined to avoid any mistake on the neighboring Caribbean island. They feel the outcome will affect the whole of U.S.-Latin American affairs.

Aides said Rusk was proposing a military transport plane be ready for departure later today, but he might delay again. He postponed a takeoff for Paris at the last minute Wednesday and skipped a New York date with Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-gurion.

SCARCITY OF DATA Balking Washington strategists was a scarcity of solid information. Officials said they did not yet know who engineered the assassination or who might be behind the figurehead president who continued in office, Joaquin Balaguer. They said their information did not point to pro-Communist Cuba or other foreign manipulators.

The only post-assassination communication from the U.S. Consulate in Ciudad Trujillo reported by late Wednesday was a brief message from Consul General Henry Dearborn saying the capital was calm and he knew of no injury to the 5,200 citizens in the country.

Some U.S. authorities foresaw a struggle for power, both within the Trujillo group and between it and the large elements of Dominican society persecuted during the reign.

U.S. LURES The United States had several lures to attract Trujillo's successors down the democratic path, a main aim of Kennedy's "all-

Paris (AP)—A leading French hairdresser gave Jacqueline Kennedy what he called a "Gothic madonna" look Wednesday night, clipping more than an inch from her locks and pinning a tambourine-shaped wigpiece and a dazzling diamond on the back of her head.

For tonight's state dinner in the fabulous Hall of Mirrors at the Palace of Versailles, the hairdresser, Alexandre, said he would style the U.S. First Lady's coiffure in keeping with the scene, a style of the period of Louis XIV.

Four diamond flame clips will give her a "fairy-like air," Alexander said.

Mrs. Kennedy changed her wardrobe plans and appeared Wednesday night in the pink and white straw lace gown she had originally intended to wear to Versailles.

Fashion experts immediately speculated that she had some new, unpublicized gown she plans to show off tonight.

French newspapers—except the Communist L'Humanite—had nothing but praise for the visiting First Lady. They said she had been adopted by Paris, looked like a Parisian and had a Parisian air.

One paper noted with some surprise that she was not the sophisticated sure-of-herself personality that had been expected.

L'Humanite made only brief mention of the visiting President's wife.

French officials after the dinner Wednesday night said that no guest of honor at the Elysee Palace had ever made the sensation Mrs. Kennedy did.

Two thousand persons crowded in for the after-dinner reception and a close look. The guests at one point almost jammed the Kennedys against a refreshment table, and President De Gaulle summoned aides to open a path for his guests of honor.

Khrushchev Expected To Put 4 Major Topics On Agenda

VIENNA (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev at his meeting this weekend with President Kennedy is expected to put disarmament, the German peace treaty, the Berlin question and abolition of colonialism at the top of his discussion list.

This was indicated Wednesday night by Antonin Novotny, Czechoslovakia's president and Communist party chief, as he welcomed the Soviet leader on his arrival at Bratislava, just across the border from Austria.

Novotny said many "dangerous open questions" will make the Khrushchev-Kennedy meeting a difficult one.

"Among the problems," he continued, "are disarmament, the conclusion of a peace treaty with Germany, including a solution of the West Berlin question, and a definite liquidation of colonialism."

Khrushchev in reply said he did not want to "make any prior judgment on the result of the meeting but we will strive for a relaxation of world tensions and to secure peace."

"Our delegation will intercede for not only what the people of the socialist countries want, but what the people of the entire world want, namely peace, the Soviet premier said.

Khrushchev is due in Vienna Friday. There had been speculation he would hold a Communist bloc summit meeting in Czechoslovakia before his meeting with Kennedy. But reports from Prague said such a get-together might be held after the Vienna conference, not before.

While it was generally expected that the Soviet premier would beat down hard on his long-standing demand that the allied garrisons withdraw from West Berlin, authoritative Austrian sources reported Khrushchev had indicated otherwise to Llewellyn Thompson, the U.S. ambassador in Moscow.

The Austrian sources said that Thompson, in one of his recent talks with Khrushchev, had told the premier that Kennedy was not ready so early in his administration to discuss such a critical issue as Berlin. Khrushchev indicated he "understood" Kennedy's position, the Austrians said.

There was no confirmation of the report from American sources and Preston Grover, chief of the AP bureau in Moscow, said neither Thompson nor other embassy officials had given newsmen there a hint of any such conversation.

"We must recognize that there is something very boring about radio programming that alternates two minutes of music with one minute of commercial.

Really Big Chunks

There was plenty of barbecue available for patrons at the Kiwanis Club barbecue Wednesday and many of the ticket-holders were really surprised at the pounds of meat put on their plate.

Marsha Hornbaker shows the surprise as Kiwanian (Rev.) V. Ward Jackson loads down her plate. Obviously, he enjoyed the look of surprise on the faces of his customers.

Kiwanis Rodeo Barbecue Is Described As A Big Success

The Big Spring Kiwanis Club rodeo barbecue Wednesday was about the biggest success the club has enjoyed in any enterprise in a long, long time, according to Ernest Welch, club president.

"We do not know as yet exactly how many we fed," he said. "We had just the right amount of meat for the customers on hand; there was just a little bit left unfeared."

All supplies for the big feed at the City Park worked out even. The folk who came complimented the club on the tastiness of the food and on the generous helpings doled out by the Kiwanians.

The first eaters showed up at 5 p.m. They were quickly served and the flow of diners was such that no one had to wait to get his helping of barbecued beef, beans, cole slaw, onions, bread, pickles and iced tea.

"We'll make a nice profit off the barbecue," Welch said. "Every cent above actual expenses will go to the Crippled Children's Center just as we planned."

Welch said that he believed more members of the club participated in this project than in any other organization has attempted in a long time.

Harvey Clay and Sherman Smith were the head chefs for the affair and responsible for the barbecue. Bruce Dunn headed up the ticket sales committee. Bob Travis was general chairman.

The club was divided into two groups. One was dispatched to the rodeo grounds where the club was assigned to serve the members of the several out-of-county sheriff's posse and other guests of the Rodeo Association. The Association paid the club for this service.

Final report on the project will be announced as soon as all ticket sales are checked and expenses paid.

Registration Picks Up For Summer Fun Clubs

Registrations are picking up sharply for the Summer Fun Clubs and other phases of the citywide summer recreational program.

Joe Leach, director, said Thursday that registrations are picking up sharply for the Summer Fun Clubs and other phases of the citywide summer recreational program.

He urged parents to sign as promptly as possible in order to secure a place in the clubs and groups.

The Fun Clubs are for children grades one through six and serve the Airport, Cedar Crest, Washington, Boydston, College Heights, Park Hill, Marcy, Lakeview, Kate Morrison, and Bauer school areas.

The programs will be conducted at the Runnels, Goliad and Lakeview gyms, and buses will pick up children at Airport, Cedar Crest, Washington, Kate Morrison and Bauer areas. If there is sufficient registration and request, they may also be picked up at Park Hill, Marcy and College Heights and transported to the program site.

Registration for the two-month program is $1, and this includes the cost of swimming, crafts, etc. The program will include these activities along with trips to interesting places, archery, games, movies, and daily devotions. Clubs meet twice each week from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Children are encouraged to attend the Vacation Bible School of their church, said Leach, and if parents will only register them for the Fun Club, their places will be held open.

More registrations can be handled for the first period of the learn-to-swim program. This will be conducted at the City Park pool and the only charge is the 10 cents pool fee for instruction periods, payable at the time of registration. Boys come from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. and girls from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. The first period is June 12-24.

Teen-age boys and girls may register for special activity groups such as tumbling, riflery, golf, basketball, wrestling, etc. These boys and girls must register for themselves, but only parents can register their children in the Fun Club groups.

Staff for the program today began its training sessions which will continue the balance of the week.

Registration is continuing at the YMCA for the first of two Indian Day Camps to be held June 12-23 at the old Kiowa and Comanche Indian camp grounds in City Park, according to Joe Leach, acting general secretary.

To date, 47 boys have been entered and about 25 more can be accommodated. June 10 will be the final day for registering. The first camp is for grades 1-3.

The campers will carry out an Indian Lore theme and will participate in sports, crafts, swimming and other activities. They will meet at the YMCA at 8 a.m. each day and will return to the Y at 4 p.m.

Registration fees are $10 for Y members and $14 for non-members. The fee includes a noonday dinner and milk, insurance, craft supplies and daily swimming.

Leach pointed out that parents should register youngsters early to insure that all can attend.

A second Day Camp is scheduled July 10-21 for 4-6 graders. There are 11 early entries and registration will continue at the Y until July 8.

Behind the President, on a huge, draped American flag was an immense seal of the U.S. presidency.

Responding to the mayor's speech of welcome, Kennedy thanked Paris for its hospitality to himself and Mrs. Kennedy and told the audience the "interests and policies of France and the United States" are directed toward the desire for freedom and liberty in the world today.

SHARE IDEALS Kennedy said, "share ideals of liberty, equality and fraternity, which are in accord with the basic aspirations of people around the world. The desire for freedom and liberty is the strongest tide in the affairs of the world in the 20th century, and the interests and policies of France and the United States are directed to that goal."

Kennedy recalled his state visit to Canada two weeks ago, and noted that debates in Canada's Parliament are in both French and English. Much of New England, too, he recalled, has retained French language and cultural ties with France and he said such French influences are a source of strength in the West today.

"I salute you, I salute your country, I salute your distinguished president," Kennedy said.

Another roar of applause echoed through the salon. The reception seemed extraordinarily warm, even in comparison with that accorded President Eisenhower, a soldier-hero to many Frenchmen, on his state visit two years ago.

other five were presumed to have got away.

NBC correspondent John Havacek reported from Ciudad Trujillo that the leader of the band was Gen. Juan Tomas Diaz, who was believed to have had a personal grudge against Trujillo.

Dominican exiles in Mexico City said Diaz was a career soldier whose sister and her husband fled to Brazil last year. But Diaz reportedly continued as army commander of the country's central zone, at least until last January.

BORDERS CLOSED

Communications were broken with Ciudad Trujillo most of Wednesday but were restored Wednesday night. Dominican citizens apparently were banned from leaving the country, and planes from Ciudad Trujillo had many empty seats. A tight censorship also appeared to be in force.

For the moment the Dominican masses appeared to be stunned by the removal of the man who had dominated their lives for so long. One report said, "The people are very sad—the streets are deserted."

In Washington, U.S. policy makers waited anxiously to learn whether the Caribbean state would move toward democracy or explode in a revolution.

President Kennedy ordered Secretary of State Dean Rusk to remain in Washington instead of joining him in Paris.

Trujillo—hated by the Communists, fighting with Catholics and bitterly denounced by liberals—has been a storm center of inter-American relations in recent years.

ALLIES?

Cuba's Fidel Castro once charged him with financing an invasion to overthrow his regime but the two dictators were reported lately to have been drawn together by the U.S. opposition to both of them.

An estimated 5,200 American citizens live in the Dominican Republic. Even though the United States broke off diplomatic relations with the Trujillo regime, a consulate is maintained there and reports reaching Washington said no Americans had been harmed as a result of the assassination.

At the news of the assassination, Dominican exiles tried to invade their country's consulates in New York and San Juan and seize control. Police subdued them.

Neighboring Haiti, which shares the island of Hispaniola, put its army on full alert and closed its interior border.

IRON HAND

Trujillo ruled his 2 1/2 million subjects with an iron hand, giving them economic benefits and benevolent government unusual for Latin America while at the same time acquiring vast fortunes for himself, his family and friends. The Trujillo clique dominated virtually every phase of Dominican economic life, and the generalissimo profited most from it.

Through his career, the dictator did nothing about training a successor or designating an heir. He did show a personal partiality for Rafael Jr., 32, made him head of the air force and headedly defended him against criticism in the United States of the young general's high living and lavish spending on actresses.

Zsa Zsa Gabor and Kim Novak were ostensibly taking advanced military training in the United States.

line. The President, smiling and looking fit despite his long round of activities, shook hands cordially with city officials and guests.

APPLAUSE Mrs. Kennedy entered the salon a few minutes later and the spectators burst into spontaneous applause.

Trim in a tailored gray suit with a pearl necklace and two diamond brooches on her lapel, she bowed smilingly to her admirers.

The President was greeted by the mayor of Paris, Argentine-born Julien Tardieu, and, after the playing of national anthems, seated himself in a gilded chair.

Behind the President, on a huge, draped American flag was an immense seal of the U.S. presidency.

Responding to the mayor's speech of welcome, Kennedy thanked Paris for its hospitality to himself and Mrs. Kennedy and told the audience the "interests and policies of France and the United States" are directed toward the desire for freedom and liberty in the world today.

Police Chief Denies Intended Riot Failure

By The Associated Press

Police Commissioner L. B. Sullivan denied today that Montgomery police deliberately failed to prevent "Freedom Riders" from a white mob.

Testifying during a federal court injunction hearing, Sullivan said there was no indication that there would be trouble before the bus reached the Greyhound terminal in Montgomery May 20.

A shrieking mob of white men and women attacked the racially mixed riders and bystanders, and left at least 20 victims clubbed and beaten.

Sullivan conceded, on cross-examination, that he assigned no additional officers to the bus depot as the segregation-challenging riders approached the city from Birmingham.

Before Sullivan testified, a police captain said he took a beaten Justice Department official to a hospital during the May 20 riot even though, he said, the man did not want to go.

The statement by Capt. D. H. Lackey regarding John Seigenthaler tied in with testimony of other defense witnesses in an effort to disprove the government charges that police were lax in handling the situation.

U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. has been listening to testimony for four days about mob violence against Freedom Riders in Montgomery and at Birmingham and Anniston.

Justice Department attorneys are asking for a court order to compel Montgomery police to protect interstate bus riders in the future, and also for continuation of a temporary no-violence injunction against the Ku Klux Klan.

Birmingham police and one Klan faction were cleared of blame earlier in the hearing.

A witness told the court Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy intervened in behalf of the Freedom Riders after refusal of Greyhound drivers to take the bus on to Montgomery had left the riders stranded in Birmingham.

Greyhound Supt. George E. Cruitt of Birmingham testified about a telephone call he received from the President's brother after regular drivers refused to drive the bus from Birmingham to Montgomery, saying they feared for their safety.

Cruitt said the attorney general asked him if he couldn't get someone else to drive the bus, or drive it himself. Then, he continued, Kennedy suggested he get a Negro driver if the regular white drivers wouldn't move it.

After he told Kennedy no Negro drivers were available, the bus official said, Kennedy commented: "Well, hell, you can look for one, can't you?"

CANCELED Several regular schedules were canceled before a Greyhound driver finally brought the bus to Montgomery.

The Freedom Riders were attacked at the Montgomery bus station by a jeering mob of white persons and about 30 persons were injured during the rioting.

Defense attorneys called several police officers who told of precautions they said were taken. They said there had been no rumblings of possible violence prior to the arrival of the bus and said police were hurried to the station once the trouble started.

Seigenthaler, of Washington, D.C., was among those beaten during the violence. He testified he saw bus riders slugged and clubbed, but, in answer to a question, said he did not call police when the violence erupted.

IN CABROOTS? At one point in his interrogation of Seigenthaler, the defense attorney told the judge he was trying to determine whether Justice Department officials had been working with the Congress of Racial Equality "and pushing these riders through here."

Seigenthaler said, "I can assure you that they did not."

Calvin Whitesell, attorney for the police, filed the motion for a restraining order against Freedom Riders just as the court recessed its third long day of testimony. Named in the complaint were the Congress of Racial Equality, sponsor of the original Freedom Riders group; the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; the Students of Nashville (Tenn.) Non-Violent Movement; and the Montgomery County Jail Association.

The letter was formed by six Negroes who were arrested last week with four white college professors during an integration attempt at the Trailways bus station in Montgomery. All are free on bond.

NO RULING Johnson said no immediate ruling on the motion.

In Jackson, Miss., a county penal farm superintendent was suspended pending an investigation into charges that Freedom Riders had been mistreated at his camp.

In Jackson, Miss., seven white Freedom Riders launched a protest hunger strike today in jail. One of them said they would fast until federal officials obtain court injunctions to halt segregation in the South's transportation facilities. Three of the hunger strikers are Cornell University students.

Also in Jackson, a county penal farm superintendent was suspended pending an investigation into charges that Freedom Riders had been mistreated.

Jean Thompson of New Orleans accused the official, Max Thomas of slapping her in the face and breaking her glasses. She also said Thomas hit another Negro Freedom Rider, Henry Thomas, a student at Howard University in Washington, D.C. Earlier, another rider, the Rev. C. T. Vivian, complained that guards had beaten him for not addressing them as "sir."

Miss Thompson posted $500 bond and flew to New Orleans where she said the Negroes of Mississippi are backing the Freedom Riders despite statements to the contrary by Gov. Ross Barnett and other state officials. She said that she was undaunted by her week of imprisonment and added: "I'm going to keep on until we win."

A group of Cornell University students participating in the Freedom Rides said CORE's plan was to swamp Jackson jails with riders.

OIL REPORT

Area Picks Up Two Locations

Two locations were reported in the area and other projects are either making hole or coring. The Breedlove (Devonian) field in Martin County got a new site projected to 12,200 feet. It is Pano Tech Exploration Corp. No. 8 F. D. Breedlove.

In the Howard-Glasscock Field, the Sawnee Robertson No. 11 Reed is set to bottom at 2,350 feet.

Trice No. 2 Dupree, a Dupree (Fuselman) field venture, is coring at 11,706 in an unidentified formation.

Dawson Forest No. 2 Schmidt is digging in lime below 9,500 feet. The site is 1,650 feet from the north and 1,800 feet from the east lines of section 3-2, D. L. Cunningham.

Sinclair No. 1 Kent CSL Survey is drilling below 3,220 feet. This prospect is trying for the Devonian but may drill through it to the Ellenburger. It spots C SW SW, labor 19-265, Kent CSL survey.

Trice No. 2 Dupree is coring at 11,706 feet. The project is C NE SE, section 41-M, ELARR survey.

J. M. Wilson, Floydada, offered a tract of land south of Lubbock for a conference headquarters site. The land and building were valued at $25,000 and were offered for $6,250, he said, with proviso to refund the purchase price if the conference decided later to not develop the property for offices of conference boards.

Dr. A. Gordon Bennett, president of McMurry College, told the conference that the college had experienced its greatest year. Capital gifts in the amount of $500,000 had been reported.

The payment factor for retired ministers was increased $1, making it $53 for each year of service. In addition the retired ministers will receive $10 a day for conference (plus $5 if wives attend) and 10 cents a mile travel.

Aldersgate of Abilene was due to put in a bid for the next conference as was Big Spring.

The conference urged the governor to veto the house bill which would grant certain immunities to Carling Brewery should Fort Worth subsequently vote dry after the establishment of a proposed $20,000,000 brewery.

Police went to a location on West 15th because of boys using objectionable language, and to West 8th because girls were doing the same thing.

A report came from 408 N. Ayford of juveniles creating a disturbance, and the boys were sent home by police. The juvenile officer was asked to contact the owner regarding youngsters tearing up a rent house at 1007 W. 5th, and the police were asked to watch a house on Dixon where vandalism was bad.

Reports have come to police on several occasions in the past three days about young children playing in the street and making it difficult for cars to pass.

A report came from 408 N. Ayford of juveniles creating a disturbance, and the boys were sent home by police. The juvenile officer was asked to contact the owner regarding youngsters tearing up a rent house at 1007 W. 5th, and the police were asked to watch a house on Dixon where vandalism was bad.

Reports have come to police on several occasions in the past three days about young children playing in the street and making it difficult for cars to pass.

Police went to a location on West 15th because of boys using objectionable language, and to West 8th because girls were doing the same thing.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Don't look for the betting handle at Ruidoso Downs to jump another million this year, as has been the case the past several seasons.

The average handle is slightly down from a year ago. However, the Downs has two more racing days than it had in 1960.

Ruidoso officials figure that two factors have influenced the fact this year: (1) the season opened while school was still going on and (2) neighboring Sunland Park had a spring season for the first time in history.

Famed baseball wit Vernon (Lefty) Gomez says of his son, Gery, who is now a freshman baseball player at the University of Wyoming: "He's a real fine batter—takes after his mother as a hitter."

HJC's fine all-around trackster, Eugene Franklin, cleared the hurdle with the wrong leg in the 220-yard low hurdles in the National JC Track and Field Meet held here recently.

He was next to last when the field passed the half-way point, at which time he was trying to straighten himself out, but recovered sufficiently to finish fourth and pick up four important points for his team. James Love of Tarleton State won the event in 22.5 seconds.

Incidentally, Texas entries won seven first places in the 17 events held in the Nationals. They prevailed in the shot put, discus, sprint relay, mile relay, 100 and 220, as well as the low hurdles.

Fredrick Lindstrom, one-time star third baseman of the New York Giants, has been named postmaster at Evanston, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago.

He has been the baseball coach at Northwestern University.

Riggs Stephenson, one of the great major league hitters of his day, now owns an automobile agency in Tuscaloosa, Ala. He spent most of his big league career with the Chicago Cubs.

Thus, far, 18 schools, including five in Texas, have entered teams in the National J.C. Golf Tournament, which will be held in Odessa, June 7-9.

Host Odessa College has won the meet the past two years and, although the Wranglers didn't win the Western J.C. Conference title this spring, must be regarded among the favorites again this year.

Archie Moore, still one of the better boxers around despite his advanced age, is also good at turning a quip.

In a conversation with a West Coast writer recently, Moore commented: "It is interesting to note that Sonny Liston should get together with a manager named Katz. All my managers have been dogs."

Right now, I am represented by Doc Kearns. I wouldn't describe Mr. Kearns as my manager. He is what you would call my arranger. I write the music, and he arranges the parts for the saxophones, the clarinets and so forth."

River Maid Is Downs' Choice

RUIDOSO, N. M.—The Ruidoso News Allowance, a middle distance event fashioned for three-year-olds and upward, has drawn the featured spot on Friday's card at Ruidoso Downs.

The favorites role and top weight of 121 go to H. E. Riskey's fine gelding, River Maid, winner of three during the year.

This fleet-footed sprinter from Robertson, Wyoming, will find plenty of competition from such stalwarts as Mrs. Esky (Leonard Wedell, Chino, California) a winner of many races at the Downs last year; Calamanco (Mrs. M. Meren, Baton, N. M.) always in contention; Sing N Cat from the stable of R. Nix and J. Pierce (Artesia and Tucson); Yes More (H. W. Cathey, Mertzton, Texas)

Daggers Edge Past Comets

The Daggers topped the Comets, 12-7, in an International Little League game here Wednesday night that was decided in an extra inning of play.

David Compton, the winning pitcher, got the only dagger hit in the seventh but the winners benefited from walks and Comet errors.

Eddie Faubion collected three singles for the Daggers while Bobby Babin and Tommy Kirkpatrick each collected two safeties for the Comets and one of Babin's hits went for two bases. Mike Wilson also had a double for the Comets.

The defeat was charged to Lonnie Crosby. Charles Bishop started on the mound for the Daggers and labored six innings.

McDaniel Signs With How. Payne

BROWNWOOD, Tex. (AP)—Glen McDaniel, the only senior on the Vernon High School track team, has signed a pre-enrollment application to enroll at Howard Payne College on a full track scholarship.

McDaniel won the Dist. 4-AAA 220 blue ribbon and was on the mile relay team that won regional and placed fourth at state with a 3:22.0 timing.

Addison To HPC

BROWNWOOD, Tex. (AP)—David Addison, 6-foot guard who guided Lipan High School to the 1960 Class B basketball tournament, has signed a letter of intent to enroll at Howard Payne College this fall. He averaged 26.4 points per game.

FISH LINE Local Men In Luck

Several Big Spring parties have reported sizeable catches of fish in the vicinity of Earl Richardson's Lake View camp at Lake Colorado City.

C. H. Hayden caught two channel cat weighing up to three pounds each and a yellow cat weighing nine pounds.

George Chapman and Bob Landrum teamed up to get a four-pound yellow cat on a trotline. They used perch as bait.

Don Williams and John Black, who made a return trip to the lake, caught one yellow cat weighing 11 pounds and a channel cat weighing 2 1/2 pounds. They were fishing with a trotline and were using perch and shade as bait.

W. W. Alcherson of Stanton caught three yellow cat weighing from 2 1/2 to seven pounds each and a channel cat which pushed the needle on the scales to two pounds. He was fishing with a trotline and using minnows and perch as bait.

Charlie Parrish of Westbrook is another who reported good luck in the vicinity. He caught two yellow cat, weighing from nine to 13 pounds each. Another Westbrook resident, Jerry Cunningham, caught two bass near Richardson's camp, weighing two pounds each. He was using a rod and reel.

Richardson reports that some of the largest catfish are now being caught in shallow water.

Star of Chicago Black Sox Ails

HOUSTON (AP)—The star pitcher for the Chicago "Black Sox" in the 1919 World Series, Dickie Kerr, underwent surgery Wednesday. Doctors say he is resting comfortably.

He was honored for winning two games in the 1919 series although investigations later turned up bribes taken by several of his teammates to lose the series to Cincinnati.

Kerr received the Tris Speaker Award in January at Houston's major league baseball dinner.

Amazing Reds Retain Lead With 8-7 Win

By The Associated Press
The Cincinnati Reds, winning their sixth in a row as relievers Bill Henry and Jim Brosnan saved starter Joey Jay's eighth straight victory, beat Los Angeles 8-7 Wednesday night and retained a tie with San Francisco for the National League lead. The defeat dropped the Dodgers a full game behind the Reds and Giants, who defeated St. Louis 3-2 in an afternoon game.

Pittsburgh beat Milwaukee and Warren Spahn 9-1, and the Chicago Cubs defeated Philadelphia 5-4. Los Angeles before Henry and Brosnan moved in. A two-out single by Jerry Lynch brought home the winning run in the ninth.

Gene Freese's second homer, a two-run shot off losing reliever Dick Farrell (4-1), made it 7-3 in the eighth. But Jay (6-3) then gave up a two-out home run by John Roseboro in the bottom of the eighth. The Dodgers next sent up left-handed swinger Duke Snider, but when Henry loped in they replaced Snider with right-handed hitter Frank Howard. It made no difference to Henry. He fanned Howard.

Quick-Hitting Footballer Succeeds, Says McKenzie

Downtown Lions got a closeup on spring football practice and its objectives Wednesday.

Coach Emmett McKenzie, aided by Bob Rogers, showed motion pictures of the Steer practice routine for the spring. It added up to work, more work to obtain alertness and quickness.

"There's a lot of difference in being there and almost there when it comes to defense," observed McKenzie. He indicated that last year's work, plus the spring drills, are gradually producing faster reaction.

"On defense, it is important to hit hard, hit quick and maintain balance enough to move laterally," he explained. Many of the drills are designed to do that. For instance, boys learn to hit the blocking sled with one shoulder, spin and catch the alternate pad, or they hit the sled, roll laterally to come up and attempt a tackle.

The movies included drills of men blocking dummies, being obliged to get out ahead of the ball carrier. There were others such as backs running down the sideline while others tried to bump him out of bounds, or defenders (not allowed to use their hands) trying to keep a back between them. McKenzie also commented

Coach D. R. Gartman has issued an invitation to any high school youth born January 1, 1943 or thereafter, to report to Steer Stadium to try out for the team. Players may be legally signed until June 15.

If everyone rode on the Captive-Air Double Eagle, there would be no more flat tires.

It's two tires in one. A nylon-and-steel cord "inner spare" makes this the one tire that doesn't go flat. If your Captive-Air Double Eagle ever does go flat from any cause: Goodyear will (1) pay for your road service, (2) replace the inner shield free, and (3) give you full allowance for all unused tread wear if the outer tire is damaged.

The new Double Eagle is trimmer. The trimmer it is, the more it "gives" against bumps. So you ride safer, softer, smoother, quieter. Yet you don't sacrifice a mile of the wonderful wear Double Eagles are famous for.

For a limited time only, we are offering a huge allowance for any tire off your car in trade—and, of course, you put NO MONEY DOWN. Take months to pay!

112 Play In Muny

The City Golf tournament wound up with 112 players, enough for seven flights.

The registration represents a record. Pairings for the meet are being drawn up today and will be released in Friday's edition of The Daily Herald.

One player asked to enter but had to be turned down because Shorty Gideon, manager of the course and the director of the tournament, already had enough to round out seven complete flights.

Last player to enter was R. H. Weaver, who turned in a 75. One player who got in under the wire and is certain to rate the championship flight is Donald Lovelady, who checked in Wednesday with a 71, two under par.

Medalist of the meet is Paul Mosley, who posted a 68 last Monday.

Match play will get under way Saturday, at which time the front nine of the course will be reopened. All play in the tournament must be completed within a week, Gideon stated.

Webb In Standoff With Midlanders

Webb AFB split a softball doubleheader with Maxwell Sports Goods of Midland last weekend, 5-1; 4-2. Webb's Jack Long and N. E. Stevens of Midland performed "Iron Man" stunts as the two mound antagonists pitched both games without relief.

Long was pitching hitless ball when in the fourth he permitted two runs off a pair of singles.

By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer

It's still "Dial M—Mantle and Maris—for Murder" with the New York Yankees.

Those two thumpers have come alive again, powering the Yankees along for seven victories in their last 10 games.

Between them, Mantle and Maris have hammered 10 home runs and have driven in 20 runs in those games.

They were at it again as the Yankees regained third place, 2½ games behind Detroit, with a 7-6 victory at Boston Wednesday night. Maris drove in three runs, one with a homer. And Mantle put it away, capping a five-run fourth inning and taking the AL lead with his 14th home run.

Fifth-place Kansas City spilled Detroit 6-4, handing the Tigers their fifth defeat in seven games and shaving their lead to two games over rain-idled Cleveland.

The Chicago White Sox dropped Baltimore to fourth place, beating the Orioles 9-4, but stayed in the cellar as the Los Angeles Angels, after losing 12 in a row on the road, won 5-3 in 12 innings at Washington.

Maris broke a 1-1 tie with his 12th home run in the third inning off loser Billy Muffett (0-5).

Rookie Roland Sheldon won his first in the majors, although he gave up a homer by Frank Malone, who drove in three runs for the Red Sox and needed late relief.

Mike Gartner and Billy Reese teamed up to set the Dodgers down without a hit as the Braves raced to a 7-0 National Little League victory here Wednesday night.

Between them, Gartner and Reese fanned eight and walked four. Gartner was credited with the win. Each boy pitched three innings.

Gartner drove out a double and a single to benefit his own cause. Mike McCreary had two singles for the winners.

In minor league play, the Red Sox mauled the Ramblers, 11-5.

The A's made it two in a row over the Tigers and handed ace Frank Lary (7-3) his second straight setback to boot. Joe Nuxhall (3-1) was the winner with relief help from Bill Kunkel.

Al Smith's one-on homer triggered a three-run third inning that wrapped up the White Sox' first victory over the Orioles in seven tries. Jim Landis also homered for the Sox. Frank Baumann

Charley's Wins Two Games From Lamesans, 10-0, 6-1

Charley's Package Store of Big Spring ran its softball won-lost record to 6-2 for the season by defeating Dyer Hardware of Lamesa in both ends of a doubleheader at the City Park here Wednesday night, 10-0 and 6-1.

Lonnie Crosby pitched the victory in the opener, giving up only one hit to the visitors. He fanned 12 and walked only two.

Raymond Gilstrap led the local team's attack in the opener with a home run, double and single. He drove in two runs. Eddie Acree and D. A. Miller each had two hits for the winners.

Crosby helped his own cause by driving home three runs.

In the second game, Cotton Mize was on the hill for Charley's. He gave up only one hit and fanned 11 while walking none. The only run he surrendered was unearned.

Gerold Cox slugged a home run for the Big Spring team, the only extra base hit of the game.

The game rocked along until the fifth, when Charley's cut loose for five runs to salt away the verdict.

DEAR ABBY

She's Passing The Buck!

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law, who is 40 and a divorcee, has written that she is going to send us her 14-year-old, boy-crazy daughter so we can "straighten her out." She says the girl is so wild she can't handle her.

Abby, my husband and I have been married only eight months. I am 19 and he is 20, and I don't think this is fair to us. My husband feels sorry for his mother, and so do I, but I don't know the first thing about how to straighten out a 14-year-old, boy-crazy girl.

Is there any way we can refuse to take this girl into our home without getting his mother mad at us forever?

NO NAME PLEASE
DEAR NO: Yes! Your husband should write his mother last year. She has everything, and I am not qualified to "straighten out" a 14-year-old problem girl. Suggest that she seek professional help from her local guidance clinic.

DEAR ABBY: I have been dating a girl off and on for about a year. She has everything, and I do mean everything, but she is very much "on guard" at all times. I go to kiss her goodnight and she gives me her cheek. When we see a movie, I consider myself lucky to just hold her hand. We aren't kids. I am 22 and she is 20. I believe in girls keeping high standards, but can't get to first base with her. Any suggestions?

BATTING ZERO
DEAR BATTING: This girl is smart. She isn't letting you get to "first base" because she doesn't want to have trouble getting home.

DEAR ABBY: I am now in my senior year of high school. My god mother has been ill and financially embarrassed for many years. I haven't heard from her in I don't know how long. My mother says I should not send my godmother an invitation to my graduation because she could not possibly attend, and it would look like a request for a gift. I neither expect nor want a gift. I just want her to know that her godchild is graduating. Would it be all right to send an invitation and explain that a gift is unnecessary?

SENIOR
DEAR SENIOR: Since you haven't heard from your godmother in many years, don't break the silence with an invitation you know she can't accept. After graduation, write her a letter and tell her you've graduated.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SID: For the best advice on how to live, ask a man who knows he is dying.

Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Getting married? For Abby's booklet, "How To Have a Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Child Clinic Plans Made

Announcement that a "well child clinic" would be established at the Big Spring-Howard County Health Unit was made by Bo Bowen, health unit nurse this week.

The clinic will be made possible through the cooperation of the local medical society, the medical society auxiliary, registered nurses, and the health unit. It is designed for indigent mothers and is aimed at insuring that all children served will maintain good health and that parents will increase their skills in the art of child care.

Gov. Daniel Signs Bills

AUSTIN (AP)—A bill authorizing incentive aid to school districts which agree to consolidate was signed Wednesday by Gov. Price Daniel.

The bill provides that the state will continue for 10 years to furnish the same amount of aid as before when two or more districts consolidate.

Daniel also signed a bill aimed at eliminating spurious private clubs operating as fronts for selling liquor by the drink. The measure requires private clubs to pay annual fees and sets up rules for their conduct.

Bus System

HOUSTON (AP)—Bernard Calkins took over Houston's public bus system today and changed the name to the Rapid Transit Lines. It had been known as the Houston Transit Co. Calkins, of Wichita, Kan., bought the firm for about $2.5 million. He said he will have 150 new air conditioned buses by September.

Physical examinations and evaluation aids, as well as the communication between parents and clinic personnel, are considered basic in achieving these aims.

The clinic will be held on the second and fourth Thursday of each month, beginning June 8. The clinic is limited to well children. It will accept youngsters only by referral of a physician and will be seen only by appointment.

Clinic appointments with physicians will be between 1-2 p.m. Classes on baby care will be conducted from 2-3 p.m. by registered nurses.

All classes will be held at the health unit, 209 E. 2nd. There will be no charge for the program.

Big Spring firemen have given the program an added boost by providing some 2,150 cans of baby food to Miss Bowen for use in the program. The food is being warehoused in the central fire station and will be disbursed by Miss Bowen.

Miss Bowen pointed out this food will make it easier to maintain the program as proper diets can be planned and encouraged with foods many of the families cannot afford.

Legislature Halted Massed Campaigns

AUSTIN (AP)—The 57th Legislature acted to block any future repetition of the 71-candidate April 4 Senate free-for-all and passed six other changes in the Texas Election Code.

A $1,000 filing fee for candidates in statewide elections was approved by both houses.

The filing fee will be paid the secretary of state in special elections and the party executive committee in primaries. The present filing fee for statewide special elections is $50. Gov. Price Daniel has not yet signed the bill (HB350).

The election bills passed were only a few of the many such measures offered during the session.

The completely Democratic Legislature passed a bill (HB239) which purported to erase the "undue advantage" held by parties, including the Republicans, which do not always nominate by primary.

The act requires all candidates for a party's nomination to file by the same date. Under present law Republicans, in years when they are not required to nominate by primary, can wait until after the Democratic primary to select their candidates.

"No persons shall be nominated by an . . . convention . . . unless he has filed with the chairman of the appropriate executive committee an application requesting that his name be placed before the convention as a candidate for nomination," the bill said.

Shortly after the House passed the bill, however, GOP State Chairman Tad Smith said the act will not affect Texas Republicans.

"Those who think that this bill is aimed at Republicans should understand that Republicans in Texas will nominate by primary in 1962 and the tremendous up-surge in Republican strength all over Texas indicates that Republicans will probably nominate by primaries in all subsequent years," Smith said.

Nomination by primary is required of all parties whose candidate for governor polls more than 200,000 votes at the last general election.

Early risers and people who get off work late in Harris County were given a hand in getting to the polls. The Legislature passed an act (HB148) providing that Houston voting places shall be open from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Counties using voting machines may now allow school districts to use machines in electing school board members (HB437). A district may hold a run-off election if no candidate receives a majority in a school board election (SB35).

A bill (HB77) passed both houses insuring that persons who become eligible for exemption certificates within the 30 days preceding an election are placed on the poll lists given election judges. Under the old law a person coming eligible for an exemption within the 30 days could not get a certificate in time to vote.

Another bill (HB33) gave El Paso permission to use voting machines in both a city election April 1 and the Senate election April 4. It gave the district judge power to have voting machines unlocked at the end of five days if the 10 day limit for keeping them locked would interfere with a second election.

Among the bills left hanging at the close of the session Monday midnight were measures changing the method of marking and counting ballots and requiring a declaration of party affiliation at the time one buys his poll tax.

Tulsa Boy Wins U.S. Spelling Bee

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Capehart, 12, Tulsa, Okla., won the 1961 National Spelling Bee today.

The calm young son of a neurosurgeon outspelled Mary Lukes of Oxnard, Calif., in the 26th round for his victory over more than five million other youngsters who started in regional competition.

John's triumph was set up by correctly spelling "distichous," which means arranged in two vertical rows, after Mary had misspelled it "distichous."

He then clinched the championship by spelling "smaragdine," as his extra required word.

He did not even pause for the pronouncer to define the word, which means of or pertaining to emerald.

The field, which started out at 73 Wednesday, was cut to 17-12 girls and 5 boys—in those rounds.

Then today's first round of blockbusters trimmed the list to 9. Eight finalists fell in the first round of the second day of competition.

The contest is sponsored by Scripps-Howard newspapers in 18 cities and 54 other newspapers and radio and television stations. Lana Gay Burkett of Andrews, Tex., lost in the 12th round, missing "adipose," meaning fatty, which she gave as "adipoce."

That left Steven, an intent little guy with a long drawl, the only Texan in competition.

Steven, 10, of Vernon, was the youngest one in the Bee. He tripped on "abatoir." His try on the word meaning slaughterhouse was "abatoire."

7,000 Texans Due Training

FT. HOOD (AP) — Fleets of Army trucks and about 100 commercial buses will take 7,000 Texans to this Central Texas military post Saturday for two weeks of field training. The soldiers are members of the 90th Division. The 90th is the only Army Reserve division in Texas. Others are National Guard organizations.

Skies Clear In Most Areas

By The Associated Press
Skies were cloudy over South Texas and clear over the northern part of the state Thursday.

Temperatures were mostly in the upper 60s and lower 70s, ranging from Dalhart's 63 degrees to El Paso's 79.

No rainfall was reported during the night but official totals for the 24-hour period ending at 6 p.m. Wednesday included 2.12 inches at Amarillo, .13 at Wink and .07 at Alpine. Some areas of Amarillo received larger amounts.

A Pacific cool front that drifted eastward from New Mexico stirred up dust in far West Texas Wednesday. Gusty winds hit 35 miles per hour at El Paso.

Presidio's 107 degrees was the highest reading in the nation Wednesday. Other temperature highs were mostly in the 90s.

Dolphin Sounds Head Science News

By The Associated Press
Sounds from animals, sound from humans and the piano tones that appeal to humans are subjects for science at work:

Voices Of The Sea

Dolphins, those remarkable animals of the sea, have a large and changeable repertoire of sounds that vary from clicks and whistles to quacks and blats. Furthermore they control these sounds and use them to communicate, scientists report.

Now scientists have studied the noises of restrained dolphins to see what sounds come from which situations.

A whistle from a human, for instance, brings a chorus of whistles from the dolphins. Manipulating the dolphin's body brings whistles, quacks or blats. Yet left alone dolphins seldom quack or blat.

In violent play or courtship the squawks come fairly often. Two whistles, one in crescendo, the other in decrescendo, repeated over and over are a distress signal, silencing neighbor dolphins and setting them all on a search for the distressed source.

The Sound Of Music

A study of soprano voices indicates that the more trained the voice, the greater its vibrato—a warbling effect—say Norwegian scientists. They studied both untrained singers and those of world fame.

When a highly trained soprano holds a note, there is also evidence that the note has irregularities in the overtones and that this too is a product of training. Untrained sopranos without any great vibrato hold notes with more harmonic regularity.

Do-Re-Mi

Piano tuners tend to stretch the scale when they tune the piano by standard methods—making the upper tones higher and the lower tones lower than in a precise scale of pure tones.

Research engineers with some appreciation of music and music students were asked to listen to pianos tuned by such human methods and those tuned more precisely. The precise or perfectly tuned piano sounds were rejected by both groups.

Seeds Of History

Tiny spores, the soft, waxlike seeds of primitive plants, can outlast the ravages of 100 million years.

Now an Emory University scientist is looking for tiny seeds in the ancient rocks of the earth to help date the rocks in the earth's history.

But, so far, he has found only small carbon particles the size and shape of spores. Says Dr. James G. Lester: These may be spores laid down in ancient days and changed by heat and pressure in the development of the earth.

Where Man Began?

It is now 100 per cent certain that man originated in Africa, says Dr. L. S. B. Leakey of the Coryndon Museum, Nairobi, Kenya.

Fossils from all over Africa support the theory that man evolved from the families of apes in Africa, he told a recent conference of the New York Academy of Sciences.

Dinner Guests Are Served Spaghetti When Visiting Rusts

When friends visit the Bill Rusts for dinner, they can pretty well count on having spaghetti, a favorite dish with the Rust family and one that Mrs. Rust enjoys cooking.

Of course, Mrs. Rust doesn't feed her husband and two daughters, July, 11, and Jo Ann, 9, spaghetti all the time. Mrs. Rust loves to cook and doesn't mind preparing the meals that her family suggests.

As a rule, Mrs. Rust sticks to the traditional meat and potatoes dishes and doesn't go in for experimenting. She knows what her family prefers and that's what she cooks. Her daughters and husband are sweets-lovers, which means dessert after every meal. This doesn't bother Mrs. Rust because she prefers baking cakes and pies to other dishes.

Right now, Mrs. Rust is taking a short rest from the kitchen with her daughters visiting their grandparents in Anson. Salads and sandwiches have dominated the menu, or the Rusts go out for dinner. When the girls return this weekend, it will be back to the kitchen for mom.

Another household chore that Mrs. Rust particularly enjoys is sewing. She makes all of her daughters' clothes and many of her own.

The Rusts still can be considered newcomers to Big Spring as they moved here from Anson a year ago in May. Their activities include attending the First Methodist Church, having friends over for 42, swimming and playing golf.

Mrs. Rust says she doesn't encourage her daughters to cook or sew as she didn't acquire these traits until after she married. Right now the girls are more interested in being out of doors, rather than in the kitchen. A simple recipe and one the girls enjoy preparing is Holy-Poly cookies.

HOLY-POLIES
Mrs. Rust often serves these to guests during an evening of 42, if there are any left. Usually the girls eat them as soon as they're cooked.

1/2 cup flour
1 tsp. baking soda
1 cup shortening and
1 1/4 cups sugar, creamed
1/2 tsp. salt
2 eggs, beaten, add flour mixture and blend
Chill dough 30 minutes, mix 2 tbsps. sugar, 2 tbsps. cinnamon; roll dough into small balls, dip in cinnamon and sugar. Place on baking sheet and bake at 350 degrees for 10 to 12 minutes.

SPAGHETTI
Mrs. Rust's recipe differs in that she uses a can of mushroom soup and a can of tomato soup. Perhaps that's why it is a favorite with family and guests.

1 lb. ground meat
1 can mushroom soup
1 can tomato soup
1/2 cup green pepper
1/2 cup celery
1/2 cup onion
1 tsp. garlic powder
1 cup water

Chop pepper, celery and onion together. Mix ingredients and add water, let simmer for 2 or 3 hours. Add box cooked spaghetti and 15 minutes before serving add 1/2 pound soft yellow cheese.

COCOA DIVINITY CAKE

This is the family's favorite dessert, and Mrs. Rust usually has some on hand to top off her spaghetti dinners.

1 1/2 cup sifted cake flour (two cups minus 2 tbsps.)
1 1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 tps. baking powder
1/2 tsp. soda
1 tsp. salt
6 tbsps. cocoa
Sift ingredients together. Add 2-3 cup high grade vegetable shortening, 1 cup buttermilk. Beat 2 minutes at No. 3 speed. Add 1/2 to 2-3 cup unbeaten eggs, 1/4 tsp.

red food coloring, if desired. Beat 2 minutes, pour into two greased round 8 in. cake pans (1 1/2 in. deep) or an 8 1/2 in. square (1 1/2 in. deep) and bake at 350 degrees for 30 to 35 minutes.

DIVINITY ICING

1 box powdered sugar
1 stick melted margarine
Pinch of salt
1 egg yolk
6 tbsps. cocoa
1 tsp. vanilla
Four sugar, cocoa and salt in bowl; add melted margarine and mix well. Add egg yolk and boiling coffee (enough to make spread).

Making Preparations

Mrs. Bill Rust, 614 Bucknell, is preparing to bake one of her favorite cakes, cocoa divinity. Her two children and husband insist on having dessert after meals and this is one of their favorites.

Fruit Drinks In Molded Dessert

A new non-carbonated pineapple-grapefruit drink available in many stores this spring has an especially pleasing tang. The vitamin-C enriched fruit juice duo comes in convenient 1-quart throw-away cartons.

Not only is the beverage recommended for the morning breakfast drink and in making punches but it can be used as a flavor-some ingredient in gelatin salads and desserts.

This jellied cranberry dessert is a tasteful example.
Soften 2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin in 1/2 cup pineapple-grapefruit drink for 5 minutes. Heat 2 cups pineapple-grapefruit drink until hot. Add gelatin, stirring until dissolved.

Stir in enough red food coloring to tint a red. Chill until partially thickened. Fold in a 1-pound can cranberry sauce, a 1-pound 4-ounce can crushed pineapple, drained and 2 cups miniature marshmallows. Spoon into a 1 1/2-quart mold or individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with whipped cream. Make 10-12 servings.

Gourmet's Dessert

That's this gay cheese and fruit tray. It is cool variety everyone will find a favorite. To prepare, refreshing to eat; and with such a

Cheese For Dessert Will Be Delight For Gourmets And You

Cheese for dessert and for the gourmet's delight. But let the experts have all the fun? Take a tip from the connoisseurs and serve a cheese and fruit tray for dessert.

It has many advantages but good taste is first and foremost. By serving several choice varieties of cheese, each person can enjoy his favorite and become acquainted with a new type.

Fresh, juicy fruit is the perfect cheese companion. Chill it thoroughly before adding to the tray and quick as a wink you have a most refreshing dessert.

Such a tray is easy on the cook. Bring the cheeses out of the refrigerator about a half hour before serving. Standing at room temperature enhances their delicate flavor and makes them easier to spread. But, cut the cheeses into desired size and shapes while still cold, as cheese slices better then.

Place cheeses on a serving tray and cover well with aluminum foil or other wrap until serving time. Then, add the cold fruits and garnishes. Bright green leaves of most any variety can be used for garnish.

Serving couldn't be simpler. All you need are dessert plates, knives for spreading, and assorted crispy crackers as "go-with." Add some jelly if you please.

You don't have to be a gourmet to appreciate cheeses. Starting in the center is the colorful Edam cheese with its bright red coat. For an unusual, eye-catching touch, cut through the red coat from the center to the sides, as you would cut a pie. Pull back each pie-shaped piece for petal effect.

At the upper left of the tray are wedges of Camembert, long a popular dessert cheese. Camembert has a waxy, creamy texture, soft on the inside with whitish outer crust. This crust can be eaten too. Apples, tart plums, or pears are all delightful with Camembert.

The large wedge is Port du Salut, which also is used chiefly for dessert. A soft, creamy cheese with a thin rind, it has an aroma similar to Limburger but is more mild in taste.

To make inbbling a little easier, cut Blue cheese into cubes and insert a toothpick into each. This

Noodle Pudding Is Accompaniment

Looking for an interesting meat accompaniment? Here it is!

NOODLE PUDDING

1 pkg. (8 oz.) medium egg noodles
4 eggs
1/2 cup buttermilk

Salt and white pepper

Cook the noodles according to package directions with the boiling water and salt called for; drain. Beat eggs enough to blind yolks and whites; blend in buttermilk; mix with cooked noodles adding salt and pepper to taste.

Turn into buttered 2-quart baking dish (about 3 inches deep) and bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour or until set and top is lightly browned. Makes 8 servings.

is one of the easiest of all cheeses to recognize, for its whiteness is pierced with decided blue-green veins running through. Its sharp salty flavor has long made it a favorite in salad dressings. But be different and serve blue cheese with chilled, fresh pears.

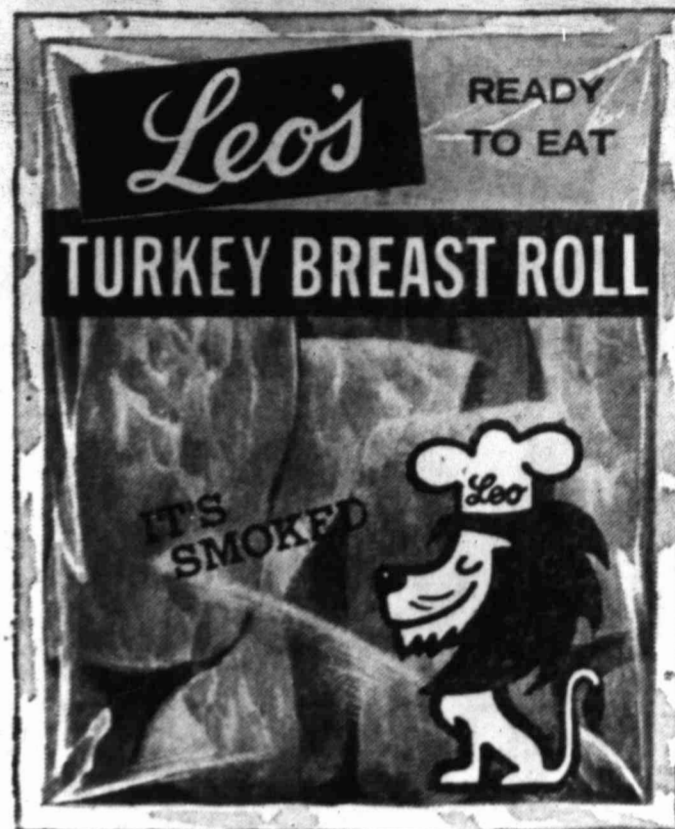

American or Cheddar cheese is the number one choice of Americans. To make an interesting arrangement this cheese is sliced into long fingers. In any form... wedges, blocks or square slices, it is just as attractive, tastes just as good. Its flavor varies from mild to sharp, depending on the length of aging.

The cream cheese has been garnished by making diagonal lines across the top with a fork, and decorating with a colorful sprig of parsley. Its creamy, delicately flavored goodness blends beautifully with any fruit. Spread orange sections or ripe strawberries with soft cream cheese.

Lemon Juice

Add a little lemon juice to sieved cooked dried apricots and fold into an egg white or two that is beaten stiff and sweetened with confectioners sugar. Serve the whip over sponge cake.

Buttermilk In June For Fish Cookout And Compliments

Fishing for food compliments? You needn't go far to bait them with the wealth of dairy foods available these bright June days.

One of the most delicious dairy products that "Bossy" has to offer is buttermilk. And mindfully, don't make the mistake of using refreshing buttermilk for a beverage alone.

Have a cook-out. Make it a fish fry—a Crusty Fish Fry with Buttermilk Sauce Tartare. Clean the fish (walleye pike, perch, or haddock will do) before dipping in buttermilk; then roll in a seasoned cornmeal-flour mixture and fry to a golden turn in butter. Top fish with a delightful Buttermilk Sauce Tartare. Then just sit back and dive in.

If fish is not your family's forte, try a delicious grilled center slice of ready-to-eat ham served with generous amounts of hot Buttermilk Mustard Sauce. This sauce is a tasty, tangy combination of buttermilk, dry mustard, flour, salt and egg yolks well blended and cooked to a rich, thick stage. To be at its best, Hot Buttermilk Sauce should be served HOT, not lukewarm or cold.

Last, but not least, to lend a bonus flavor and an attractive glaze to the ham slice, brush both sides with buttermilk before grilling and baste with buttermilk while on the grill.

Be it fish or ham, the flavor is much, much better when cooked with buttermilk.

BUTTERMILK MUSTARD SAUCE

(Yield: 1 cup)
1 cup buttermilk
1/4 tsp. dry mustard
1 tsp. flour
1/4 tsp. salt
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten

Buttermilk
In a small saucepan, slowly heat buttermilk. Mix mustard, flour and salt; add to egg yolks and beat well. Blend egg yolk mixture into buttermilk; stirring constantly, cook until sauce thickens. Brush both sides of ham steak with buttermilk; place under broiler or on grill.

Baste with buttermilk every few minutes to give ham an attractive glaze. Serve with Hot Buttermilk Mustard Sauce.

CRUSTY FISH FRY

2 pounds fish fillets, such as walleye pike, perch, haddock, cod, etc.
2 cups buttermilk
1 cup yellow cornmeal
1 cup flour

MR. AND MRS. W. D. LOVELACE

... to hold open house

Open House Is Planned

Mrs. Tommy Lovelace probably doesn't realize what a big part she had in the celebration of a silver wedding anniversary, to be observed Sunday afternoon, with an open house.

It was June 1, 1936, that her brother-in-law W. D. Lovelace, took as his bride, Sylvia Peters, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Peters, in the home of the Rev. C. A. Bickley; the couple had met at a picnic, and Mrs. Lovelace remarked that young Miss Peters would not be interested in dating her brother-in-law.

That did it. Not only did he get a date—the courtship continued, and the couple will hold open house to mark their anniversary Sunday. Mrs. Lovelace with a chuckle of the nervous bridegroom's attempts to place the wedding ring on her middle finger.

The Rev. Peters was, at that time, pastor of Wesley Methodist Church; he is now retired and is living in Shallowater.

Friends are expected to call between the hours of 2:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m., at the Lovelace home, 2200 Carl, in the Lockhart Addition.

On hand for the party will be the couple's son, Bill, recently returned from a tour of duty in the armed forces, and their niece, Mrs. Marshall Day.

Appointments will follow the silver theme, with a silver underlay covered by a cutwork cloth.

Approximately 150 girls will participate in the project that includes group work, FHA leadership training, clothing construction, family meals and management. This phase of the course will be offered the first two weeks.

For home experience, the girls will practice the work in their home with members of the family. This will include child care and training, clothing construction, family meals, home improvement and management. They will also do community work in various vacation Bible schools, the YMCA recreational program and will provide cookies and magazines for the Big Spring State Hospital.

In addition to these activities, some of the girls will work as volunteer helpers at the Veterans' Hospital, and the girls from Runnels plan a party for the children at the Westside Recreation Center. Beginning Monday through June 23, departments will be open to accommodate adults. Classes in modern methods of clothing construction will run from June 5 through June 13 at Runnels Junior High School, in the evenings from 7:30 to 9, with Mrs. Florence Lenox as teacher.

Also, from June 19 through June 23, classes in drapery making will be offered in the homemaking department at Goliad Junior High School from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. This class will be under the direction of Mrs. Jack Alexander.

All women interested in making draperies in the class are asked to contact Mrs. Alexander before June 19 and she will be glad to help them measure windows and figure the amount of fabric needed.

The four homemaking teachers will attend an in-service training workshop for homemaking teachers of the area in Odessa on June 8 and 9.

Measurements Count

Judy Bamber believes that it is the measurements and not the pounds that mean the most to a figure. She appears regularly in CBS-TV shows from Hollywood.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

No Diets For Her; Exercises Help

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD—"It is distribution of weight, not the actual pounds, that makes your figure attractive," Judy Bamber declared. Before she became an actress, she was a model and knew her work depended on measurements.

"I never have to diet," Judy confessed as we lunched in a little restaurant near CBS. "I am five-foot-five and weigh 110. But I need spot reducing because I have to fight the battle of the bulging hips."

Judy was wearing a lacy knit dress that showed the slim line of her figure.

"You have succeeded in winning the battle," I observed.

"I do my own brand of spot reducing. It really works. My mother, who has always been hippy, was able to take off three inches with daily exercise," Judy revealed. "And she taught me her exercises."

"For the side bulge, I stand with my right side about a foot away from the wall and with a little swing to the left for leverage bump my right side against the wall with a good thump. I do this 50 times on each side, and my hip is good and red when I have finished, but the circulation helps to sweep away the excess fat."

"Then I sit on the floor with my legs stretched out and my palms flat on the floor. Using my heels and my palms as leverage I lift up my bottom and thump it down fast and hard. I do this 25 times and then turn and give a pounding to each side 25 times."

"You don't want to get yourself so sore that you can't work," Judy cautioned. "You have to decide how much of a beating you can take. If you work too long and have to lay off from work the next day, you won't accomplish your results. It's that every day."

Suave Sheath

Here's a suave slim-line style with turned-back cuffs. No. 3148 comes in sizes 14½, 16½, 18½, 20½, 22½. Size 16½ takes 3 yards of 35-inch fabric.

Ike, Tower To Bask In GOP's Glory

WASHINGTON (AP) — The old and the new in Republican heroes will bask in the GOP limelight at a $100 a plate dinner here tonight.

The long-time GOP breadwinner, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who held the presidency in Republican hands for eight years, is expected to castigate the Kennedy administration's spending and deficit financing.

The new subject of Republican cheers, John G. Tower, first Republican to be elected to the Senate by Texas voters, is scheduled to be on hand. No speech is planned for him, but he may be called on for brief remarks to nearly 6,000 Republicans in the National Guard armory.

Tower, 35, and a college professor threatens to eclipse Eisenhower as the Republican man of the hour during the two-day session of the GOP National Committee. Tower was elected last Saturday to fill the Senate seat vacated by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

GREETED

As the staunchly conservative Tower stepped from a plane here Wednesday, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Senate Republican leader, embraced the Texan and cried: "Good to see you."

All the party's high congressional brass was at Washington National Airport to welcome Tower to the capital.

Tower is due for more lionizing today at a luncheon arranged for Eisenhower and the Republican leadership.

In his dinner speech tonight Eisenhower is expected to skirt delicately around the problems of American foreign policy, in view of the approaching meeting between President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

But the word was out that Eisenhower would lambast the Kennedy program for its spending proposals which, Eisenhower is said to believe, could endanger the stability of the dollar. This will be Eisenhower's first major speaking date since he left the White House in January.

TOP ITEM

The GOP National Committee session was to be called to order this afternoon. Top item on this afternoon's agenda was a report by Ray Bliss, Ohio state chairman, on the committee's intensive survey of big-city voting to discover why Republicans fare badly in big cities.

The election of a new chairman was scheduled for a session starting Friday morning.

The job was believed sure to go to Rep. William E. Miller of New York, who won his spurs by helping bring about substantial GOP gains in Congress last November as head of the House Republican Campaign Committee. Miller's path to the chairmanship was cleared when Bliss, who had strong support, withdrew his name.

Miller, like the retiring national chairman, Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, will keep his seat in Congress along with the committee chairmanship. He is 47, a Roman Catholic, and considered a middle-of-the-road Republican.

Ex-Slave Dies At Age Of 106

ANSONVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Matthew McLendon, born a slave 106 years ago, was buried here Wednesday. The Negro had recalled that he was "about big enough to plow" when the Union Army came through Anson County.

The last survivor in a family of 27 children, McLendon used to wear a robe and layers of loose-fitting clothing as he roamed Anson County. He said his dress symbolized Christ's mode of dress when he was on earth.

Goldwyn Wins Big Suit Against Film Distributors

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Samuel Goldwyn won a $300,000 verdict in his suit charging that the monopoly power of film distributors forced him to accept their terms for exhibiting rights to seven Goldwyn productions. Federal Judge George B. Harris Wednesday awarded Goldwyn $100,000 damages, trebled under the Clayton Anti-Trust Act. Goldwyn originally asked $6,750,000 in his suit against 20th Century-Fox Film Corp., National Theaters, Inc., Fox West Coast Theaters, Inc., and Fox West Coast Agency Corp. The claim later was reduced to $1,750,000. The trial started in 1957 before the late Federal Judge Edward P. Murphy. Judge Harris took over the case following Judge Murphy's death. Judge Harris said the evidence showed that Goldwyn "had no alternative but that of dealing with the defendants largely on their own terms." He cited testimony that Goldwyn had lost $62,000 on his sale of exhibiting rights to "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty."

The other Goldwyn films in the case were "The Best Years of Our Lives," "The Bishop's Wife," "Enchantment," "Roseanna McCoy," "My Foolish Heart," and "A Son Is Born."

Cub Scout Den To Make Tour

Nine Cubs, and the Den Mother of Den 3, Pack 202, plan to make a train trip to Sweetwater Friday morning. Mrs. Teresa Bauch, Den Mother, said the Cubs would take sack lunches, which they would eat in the park, and that whatever time allowed would be made in the city. They will return to Big Spring in the afternoon.

Not Much News In Kennedy's Trip

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The three major TV networks, at 11:15 Wednesday night, launched special programs on President Kennedy's European trip, mostly on television tape rushed here by jet planes. The programs unfortunately suffered setback: The reception of the President by the French, while cordial and colorful, was mostly pageantry, but the day's big news story was breaking far away in the Caribbean—the assassination of the Dominican dictator.

However, the experts in Paris briefed us on Franco-American relations, dwelt glowingly at great length on the reception ceremonies, the processions, the speeches and the translations. But they just don't have much news to report.

NBC brass still has no comment to make on Dave Garroway's request to be relieved of his "Today Show" chores. There is much speculation however that John Daly, newscaster and "What's My Line?" m.c., will be asked to take over the spot.

After all these years, CBS-radio will quietly discontinue, on June 18, its "Gunsmoke," the voice-only parent of the popular TV series. It will be replaced by "Suspense," which after an 18-year existence on the network was discontinued last fall.

Helen O'Connell, the blonde singer who was on the Dave Garroway show for so long, starts work June 12 as hostess on the NBC "Here's Hollywood" program, replacing Joanne Jordan. The Crosby boys, Philip, Dennis and Lindsay, will be the first guests on "Person to Person" when it returns for a summer run on June 23. Probably because Lucille Ball has been in poor health during much of the season, plans to make "Lucy Goes to Broadway" during the summer have been abandoned.

Recommended tonight: "Summer Sports Spectacular," CBS, 7:30-8:30 Eastern Daylight Time—parachute-jumping will be the subject.

Army Exhibit To Visit Here

A U. S. Army mobile exhibit will be in Big Spring Monday, according to Sgt Willis Brown, local Army recruiter.

Sgt. Brown said the exhibit is currently touring the area and admission is free. He said it contains displays pointing out the various enlistment programs available to men and women. Also, there are sections explaining educational opportunities, recreational and religious activities, sports and travel.

Sgt. Brown will be on hand to answer questions. The bus will be parked on 4th St., across from the post office.
