

New Hartwells Road Opened

The Hartwells Road, connecting U.S. 80 and the Andrews Highway (SH 176) has been completed as a farm-to-market road. Strain Brothers, San Angelo, contractors for the job, are putting finishing touches to the road this week. Coincidental with opening of this road, the Hamlin road which links U.S. 87 with the Gail road near Luther also was put into use.

WTCC Issues Exhaustive Data On Grain Sorghum's Potential

ABILENE — How can more profitable use be made of the more than 200 million bushels of grain sorghum produced each year in West Texas?

A 54-page publication just released by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, entitled "The Grain Sorghum Challenge," identifies both industrial and agricultural opportunities for the use of this tremendous resource. The West Texas region produces more than 70 per cent of the state's annual crop.

The new book replaces an earlier study, "Industrial Utilization of Potentials of Grain Sorghums," released in 1948. It updates information on industrial utilization and also includes data on agricultural uses. Both publications were produced by Texas Electric Service Company in cooperation with the regional chamber. "The Grain Sorghum Challenge" was compiled and edited by Jesse L. Ward and R. H. Browder, agricultural engineers in the area development division of Texas Electric Service Company.

NEW INDUSTRIES

The publication explains how new techniques make grain sorghum valuable for dextrines for candy and other foods, for adhesives and drilling muds. An entire complex of industries built around grain sorghum and its products is practical for West Texas is a conclusion of the study.

Dr. W. L. Stangel of Lubbock said the book "boosts our efforts to encourage more feeding of livestock in West Texas." Stangel, dean emeritus of the School of Agriculture at Texas Technological College, is chairman of the regional chamber's agriculture and livestock committee. The committee is urging increased use of grain sorghum in finishing of cattle, hogs and sheep for market and has published two pamphlets on the subject.

"This new book covers the latest livestock feeding techniques and the improved feed additives which place grain sorghum on equal basis with other cereal grains," Stangel said.

LIMITED COPIES

Copies of the publication will be distributed to sorghum products industries and to livestock feed processors, with a limited number available upon request to the West Texas Chamber office in Abilene.

Chapters deal with the history and development of grain sorghum, its production, marketing, growing practices and problems, industrial utilization, feeding to livestock and poultry. There also is a chapter on utilization research on grain sorghum, the various products and processes as well as some of the potentials of the grain.

BY FAITH; BUT WHEN?

By T. H. Tarbet, preacher, Church of Christ, 2500 West Highway 80, P.O. Box 1282.

It is generally understood that salvation is by faith; that one cannot earn salvation; but must trust the Lord for it (Eph. 2:8-10 etc.). We all preach these things. But many do not understand when faith saves. They think one is saved the moment he believes.

In the wilderness when the people were dying from the serpent bite, they were required to not only believe God had provided a remedy, but to look upon that serpent of brass to be cured (Numb. 21:4-9). This could not mean they were to trust in this piece of brass.

The piece of brass was not to be honored and worshipped as their savior. Later, when the people did idolatry (II Kings 18:4). It was God who cured them by His unseen power, and their faith was in Him and His promise. Had they not believed in Him, they would not have looked at the serpent. They believed, then looked, then were cured.

So it is in man's salvation from sin. He believes, then obeys; then is saved (Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38-41; Gal. 3:26, 27, Jas. 2:14-26; I Pet. 1:22).

OPEN-AIR REVIVAL

"Naaman's Trouble" will be the sermon by T. H. Tarbet tonight at 8, in the open-air meeting on the old San Angelo Highway one half mile west of the city park. It has been decided that these meetings will be continued through Wednesday night. Everyone is cordially invited. You are also invited to the services this morning at our building, 3900 West Highway 80. Bible classes, 9:30; worship, 10:30. Because of the revival, there will be no evening service there except a short communion service at 7:15. —Adv.

Probers To Expose Crooked Gambling

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate rackets probers said Saturday they hoped to show in hearings next week how illegal gambling places use crooked devices to make their patrons can't "beat the house."

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said he has chosen a flourishing traffic in crooked gambling paraphernalia as the starting point for his Senate investigations subcommittee's hearings on the growth of organized crime.

The hearings are to start Tuesday, and will run periodically into 1962 to explore gambling, narcotics and white slavery rackets, he said.

He said that as the inquiry spreads out, the testimony might raise some questions about what law enforcement officials have been doing about the problem in some areas, and whether new federal laws are needed to help them do their job.

McClellan ordered a tight lid on details about the inquiry until the testimony unfolds.

Witnesses have been subpoenaed from cities scattered from coast to coast, but only when the witnesses or their lawyers told it themselves would McClellan confirm the names of any of them.

They have been summoned from New York and New Jersey, Boston, Philadelphia, Miami, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Louisville, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Los Angeles, and Little Rock, Ark.

The best known name disclosed so far as among the witnesses is that of Owen Madden, the old New York Prohibition era mobster who now lives in Little Rock. He disclosed this himself.

McClellan said he doubted that even the new package of anti-racketeering laws requested by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, a former counsel to the subcommittee, would be sufficient to meet the challenge of the underworld.

Gambling is the mainstay source of income for the mobs, and the senator said there were gaps in the laws to deal with it. He cited the traffic in crooked gaming devices—cards, dice, roulette wheels and other items.

"This equipment, the subcommittee has been informed, is being used to milt the public of large amounts of money," McClellan said. "Nevertheless, there is nothing in present federal law to prohibit its distribution in interstate commerce."

He plans, through questioning makers and distributors of crooked devices and experts in detecting them, to explore the story of the manufacture, sale, distribution and use of such equipment. He declined to mention any names in advance.

Man Returned From Kansas

A. L. Lancaster, who says he lives in San Angelo, has been returned to Howard County from Kingman, Kans., and charges of forgery filed against him. Sheriff Miller Harris and Police Capt. Walter Eubanks returned the prisoner to Big Spring Saturday.

Wanted since June, he had been arrested in Kingman on a local warrant.

Bond has been set in his case at $1,500. He made no effort to post bond Saturday, the sheriff's office said. His case will be placed before the grand jury on Aug. 28.

Bobby Dee Anderson, Fort Worth, arrested Thursday night for DWI, possession of barbiturates and operating a motor vehicle with no driver's license has been released from custody.

He posted $1,000 bond in the barbiturates charge, $500 for the DWI complaint, and an appeal from his conviction in justice court for the no driver's license complaint. He was arrested by the highway patrol.

Newburgh Appeals For The Right To Run Own Affairs

NEWBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—City Mgr. Joseph Mitchell Saturday appealed directly to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as the result of a court edict which blocks Newburgh's tightened welfare regulations.

In a telegram to Rockefeller,

Mitchell referred to the temporary injunction granted Friday by State Supreme Court Justice John P. Donohue. The injunction had been asked by the state on the grounds that the Newburgh plan violated state welfare laws. Mitchell immediately said the city would appeal the ruling.

Mitchell told Rockefeller the injunction "will deprive the city council of local autonomy and the ability to cope with its problems."

Rockefeller could not be reached immediately for comment.

The court action against the new welfare regulations stems from the city's definitions of relief eligibility.

Borden Classes Begin Aug. 28

GAIL — Borden County schools will open the 1961-62 school year with a general faculty meeting at 9 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 26. Classes will be called to order Monday morning, Aug. 28.

AUSTIN (AP) — Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, predicted Saturday that 30 persons will die in Texas in Labor Day weekend motor accidents.

Courtney Reunion Set

COURTNEY—The annual Courtney community and school homecoming will be held a week from today.

All present and former residents of the central-Martin County settlements, as well as the former teachers in the school, are urged to take part in the annual affair. Activities will begin at 1:30 p.m. on Aug. 28, and although it is not a dinner event, several families may bring basket lunches.

There will be a program to recognize former residents, to make awards to those traveling the greatest distance, and to the oldest person present, etc. There also will be a brief business session for election of officers. Mrs. J. W. Graham, Midland, is president; Mrs. F. O. Rhodes is vice president; and Mrs. R. S. Lewis is secretary-treasurer. Last year about 200 attended the reunion.

Meany Lends A Hand To Hoffa Foes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The AFL-CIO under President George Meany is quietly extending a warm welcome to defecting units of James R. Hoffa's Teamsters union.

But Meany at the same time is as determined as ever to spurn bids for the ousted Teamsters organization to be brought back into the federation so long as Hoffa remains union president.

Sources close to Meany confirmed Saturday that the AFL-CIO played an encouraging role—with Meany's consent—in the decision of four Cincinnati, Ohio, Teamsters locals to break away from Hoffa's union.

The welcome mat is out, these sources said, for these locals comprising about 4,000 members to join individual AFL-CIO unions. Some already are talking with the AFL-CIO brewery workers.

IN CINCINNATI

The AFL-CIO's regional man in Cincinnati, William L. Kircher, was reliably reported to have lent encouragement and worked along with James Luken, head of Cincinnati area Teamsters and a longtime foe of Hoffa.

The midweek revolt of the Cincinnati Teamsters has been countered by Hoffa by placing the locals under trusteeship. However, the locals' members have voted overwhelmingly to leave for good.

Nor is Cincinnati the only spot that Hoffa has met with sizable defections since his overwhelming election in early July to a new five-year term as Teamsters president.

Over 5,000 Chicago taxi drivers have bolted the Teamsters in a government-held election to form their own independent union. Cab drivers in St. Louis are attempting to do the same.

And Hoffa, busy for weeks trying to negotiate a new West Coast truck drivers' contract, has met a determined revolt from drivers in the San Francisco Bay area who want to do their own negotiating.

Meany hasn't had much to say about Hoffa for months. This is in the face of bids from Hoffa and some of the AFL-CIO's own unions to end the expulsion meted out to the Teamsters in late 1957 on charges of corruption.

Bank Partners Summoned In Bankruptcy

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Three persons identified as partners in the defunct Bank of Zapata in Zapata, were subpoenaed Friday for a federal bankruptcy hearing.

Celso Cuellar, Mrs. Matiana Cuellar and Celsa Medina, all of San Antonio, were ordered to appear at the Aug. 29 hearing in Laredo.

The subpoenas were issued by U.S. Dist. Judge Ben Connolly.

Three depositors of the private bank, Kenneth Miley, William Randolph Jr. and Varde Robinson, are seeking to have the bank and the partnership declared bankrupt, alleging the institution owes them $1,119 and is unable to pay them.

Kilgore's Progress Noted In Paper's Special Edition

KILGORE (AP)—Celebrating the 31st year of the great East Texas oil field, the Kilgore News Herald issues Sunday its 31st annual Oil, Progress and Mail—Away Edition.

The 158-page edition is dedicated to Kilgore College, which observes its 27th year with an open house Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. for two new $500,000 structures—a student center and a women's dormitory.

Saluting the junior college as "one of the nation's finest," the newspaper points to its high standards, $5 million plant and increasing enrollment. In May, 255 graduates made up the largest graduating class in history, and last year's enrollment totaled 1,600 day and night students.

Major Kilgore projects of the year are the $1 million resort-style community inn and the $300,000 East Texas treatment center for the handicapped, both slated for construction this fall.

Recently completed were a new $100,000 station and cementing plant for Dowell Division of Dow Chemical Co., with 41 employees, and a $70,000 expansion of Gregg Home for the aged.

Nearing completion is extensive remodeling of the Kilgore Hotel and office building.

A Chamber of Commerce city-wide remodeling and cleanup campaign has seen major face-lifting of a dozen business buildings.

Under way now is a $117,000 street paving program. During the year the city bought a new 12.5-acre site for future city hall and general activity headquarters. Under consideration are proposals for a new city lake.

A residential building boom is expected to set a new record. Bank and savings deposits of $28,888,000 were up almost $2 million over 1960. Utility connections were paced by a 271-gain to a total of 7,439 telephones.

A multi-million dollar highway improvement program saw the widening to 4 lanes of State 26 in South Kilgore, with completion expected in the fall of 4 lanes all the way to Longview and a new state 31 to Tyler next spring.

The section on oil reported 3,482,158.671 barrels of crude had been produced from the East Texas field by Aug. 1, with almost 2 billion barrels estimated yet to be produced and a current total of 18,783 producing wells.

Dawson Farm Tour Slated On Wednesday

LAMESA — Annual Dawson County Farm Tour is to be conducted on Aug. 23, starting at 1 p.m.

Meeting place will be the Forest Park Community Building where buses furnished by the Dawson County Cotton Growers Association will be on hand. First stop will be at the Arlan Youngblood farm, 1:30 p.m.

Here the tourists will inspect fertilized irrigated cotton being tested, inspect a grain sorghum varieties test and look over the registered Herefords on the farm.

At 2 p.m. the tour stops at the Elwyn Scitern farm. Here they will see mung beans interplanted with sorghum, a planting of Blackwell switch grass and a field of sorghum in 20 inch rows.

C. B. Grissom & Son will be host at the 3 p.m. stop. Registered Poland China hogs are being shown at this farm.

Registered Angus cattle are to be inspected at 3:30 p.m. at the Ray Adams place.

At 4 p.m. the visitors will be with Billy and Bobby Shoffner, where they will see 4-H club lambs, 4-H club calves and 4-H club pigs.

Final stop at 4:30 p.m. will be at the Harold Vogler farm where the visitors will look over fertilized irrigated cotton on test; a test of fertilized dry land cotton; a grain sorghum varieties test and an example of pea-skip row planting varieties test.

The tour is jointly sponsored by the Dawson County Farm Bureau, Dawson County Soil Conservation District; Lamesa Chamber of Commerce and the Dawson County Agricultural extension office.

Range Projects Going Well In North Concho District

STERLING CITY—Claude Collins Estate, known as the Hackberry Ranch, in north Sterling County has recently entered the Great Plains Conservation program in the North Concho Soil Conservation District.

The contract calls for the aerial spraying of approximately 8,000 acres of mesquite, treeing 400 acres of cedar and the development of four new livestock watering facilities.

The Merrill system of deferred rotation grazing will be used to improve range grasses. This system was developed by Dr. Leo Merrill, of the Sonora Experiment Station.

The Great Plains Conservation Program has treated 22,500 acres of mesquite with aerial chemical control in Glasscock County so far this year.

J. W. Cox, Glasscock County rancher, has controlled 100 acres of mesquite by aerial spraying. Cox has been successful this year in getting a good stand of native grasses on 16 acres of rangeland. He pitted the land, seeding with a mixture of sideoats grama, plains bristle grass and green sprangletop.

Gene Alley, who pitted and seeded 5 acres of his land in 1956 and had decided his effort had failed is getting a good stand of blue grama and sideoats grama this year. The ranch is in southern Sterling County.

J. B. Calverly, who seeded land in 1960 and charged the effort off as a failure, this year has a good stand of sideoats grama and green sprangletop on two waterways.

Local Man Wins Portable Generator

Robert B. Riner, 1901 Colby Ave., is one of 10 winners in a contest that attracted several hundred entries throughout the nation.

His award is a 1,000-watt portable electric generating plant, earned because of the thought of a new use for the plant that its manufacturers had never heard of before. Neither Riner nor the Onan division of the Studebaker-Packard Corporation, the sponsoring firm, will say what his prize-winning idea was. This is because the idea is due to be used in new sales promotion. McIntyre Bros. of Odessa made the actual presentation to Riner.

RAINWATER TAKES OFFICE

Ellington Retires After 52 Years Of Dental Practice

Dr. E. O. Ellington, who has practiced dentistry in Big Spring continuously since January, 1909, has laid aside his forceps pulled off his white jacket and turned over his office to another dentist, Dr. Charles Rainwater.

Fifty-two years, he feels, is long enough to work at any job. And when a man reaches 79, even though he is still spry and healthy, it's time to do a little resting.

What does he intend to do? "Well," replied the veteran dentist, "I will probably travel some—I intend to visit my daughter and grandchildren in California. I do not intend to do any real work."

Will he make his home elsewhere?

TO KEEP HOME
"No," said the doctor. "I intend to continue living here. I built this house (at 704 Main) a long time ago. It's so comfortable and I like living here. It will continue to be my home."

Dr. Ellington and his wife came to Big Spring in January, 1909. They moved here from Henderson, where the doctor had practiced for five years after graduating from Vanderbilt University Dental College in Nashville, Tenn.

He set up his first office in a building which occupied part of the tract now covered by the Watson Building at Main and Fourth. Later he moved to the Petroleum Building where he remained for quarter of a century.

His office at the time he retired was in the Permian Building.

Miss Fern Wells has served as his assistant for the past 33 years.

Young Dr. Rainwater, son of Mr. and Mrs. Champ Rainwater, has purchased the office furnishings and equipment of Dr. Ellington. Dr. Rainwater has already begun practice in his new quarters. A graduate of Big Spring High School, he attended Texas Tech and was in the U. S. Navy before he entered the University of Texas Dental College.

Dr. Ellington served for 12 years as a member of the Big

Forsan's Pool To Close After Today

FORSAN (SC) — The Forsan swimming pool will close after today, it was announced by school authorities. The closing traditionally is in advance of the opening of school, which takes place Aug. 23. During the summer James Blake and W. M. Romans have alternated in keeping the pool open. The volume of patronage has been on a par with previous summers.

and was active in that club for many years. He is affiliated with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Knights of Pythias and has served as an elder of the Presbyterian Church. He also was formerly a director in the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce at about the time Jimmie Greene became secretary-manager.

His wife died in 1959 after a long illness.

He has one daughter, Mrs. W. E. Meyer, who lives in Orange, Calif. He also has two grandchildren. Mrs. Meyer is now in Big Spring on a visit.

Dr. Ellington was born in Shelbyville. "I used to like to play golf," said the veteran dentist. "Maybe now that I have retired, I'll take up golf again."

He denied he was oldest practicing dentist in Big Spring. Dr. E. H. Hoppel, he believes, has practiced here longer than he has.

"Dentists who came to Big Spring and opened offices," he recalls, "stayed here. They didn't move on."

Two Die, Two Use Chutes As B47 Crashes

HASTY, Colo. (AP) — An Air Force B47 jet bomber crashed in a pasture on the southeastern Colorado plains just after midnight, killing two airmen.

The two other occupants of the $8-million four-engined jet parachuted from the plane and landed with minor injuries in wheatfields near the John Martin reservoir on the Arkansas River.

The plane was from Davis-Monthan Air Force Base at Tucson, Ariz. It crashed at 12:15 a.m. just after completing a high-altitude simulated bomb release.

Residents in the area near the Colorado-Kansas border said they saw three brilliant flashes just before the crash. Lowry AFB in Denver said it had received no information the plane was in difficulty prior to the accident.

One of the survivors walked through the darkness to a farmhouse. The other was picked up by motorists on a nearby dirt road. They were being checked at Lamar Hospital today but Air Force officials said both were in good condition.

The police department at Lamar, about 25 miles from the crash scene, said one body was found soon after the accident and the other was discovered at about daylight.

Both Lowry AFB and Ft. Carson, an Army base at Colorado Springs, sent helicopters with medical and rescue units to the crash and they cordoned off the wreckage.

Highway Deaths

AUSTIN (AP) — Twenty more persons have died on Texas highways this year than at this time last year, the Department of Public Safety reports. Highway deaths this year total 1,312, compared with 1,292 figure last year.

Fallout Shelter Survey Slated

By M. A. WEBB

A fallout shelter survey will be made in Big Spring and Howard County, beginning in about two weeks, W. D. Berry, director of Civil Defense for Big Spring, said Saturday. The survey will make it possible for citizens to know whether their homes are safe for survival in case of radioactive fallout, and what buildings in the area will provide shelter.

"The survey will be made by volunteer workers divided into 16 teams of two members each," Berry said. "Clifton Bellamy, engineer, has agreed to head the planning. He will be assisted by Ed Fisher, chairman of the shelter group. Most of the professional engineers and architects will assist. Each of the 16 teams will be headed by a registered engineer or architect."

Berry said that when the survey had been completed all safe places will be designated according to categories which will indicate the number of persons who may take shelter in listed buildings.

Categories, and the number of persons who can be accommodated, are: (A) 1,000 or more, (B)

250 to 1,000, (C) 50 to 250, (D) 10 to 50, (E) 2 to 10, and (F) one. The final report of the surveyors will be available to the Office of Civil Defense Mobilization for planning future safety.

"Questionnaires will be mailed to home owners with requests for complete answers within two weeks," Berry said. "In making the survey the teams will consider buildings in new additions, where structures are substantially the same except for floor plans, and make only spot checks. When this is done the buildings in the entire area will be covered under the same category."

"Office buildings, business houses, and other structures will be classified. These will be placed in their proper categories and the public informed of safe places."

The city will be divided into four zones, Berry said and each zone surveyed as the work progresses.

"We are not trying to scare anybody," Berry said. "This is just part of our job. We hope the general public will cooperate by making their homes and business buildings accessible to the teams, and that every one will fill out the questionnaires when they are received.

"The plans for the survey have been under study for about a month, and the time required for completion will depend upon the amount of time the volunteers have to spare, and on the amount of help given by home and building owners," he continued.

"We are not anticipating any radioactive fallout in our area, but even though a bomb fell in an area many miles away there might be some radiation here. The OCDM will have a permanent record of available shelter and would know how to fit an area plan into a pattern for evacuation if necessary."

Merchants Due Tax Explanation

AUSTIN (AP)—Merchants will receive an explanation of the new sales tax law from the comptroller's office.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert announced the resume will go to 100,000 holders of state store tax licenses.

Calvert said the resume will answer some of the questions merchants have asked. He said he hoped to have it in the mail before Sept. 1, when the tax goes into effect.

Death Cancels Man's Plan Of Retirement

The retirement plans of William Frank Shannon, 63, Iatan-East Howard lease foreman for Standard Oil of Texas, were ended Friday by death.

The veteran of nearly 35 years in oilfield work became ill last Sunday with a heart condition. After appearing to make satisfactory progress, he suddenly took a turn for the worse Friday and died at 9:20 p.m.

Services will be held at 4 p.m. today in the Nalley-Pickie Chapel with Elmo Wasson, Christian Science reader, officiating, and burial will be at 10 a.m. Monday in the Merkel Cemetery. The casket will not be reopened after the service here.

Mr. and Mrs. Shannon had just returned from Dunedin, Fla. where they had bought a home in anticipation of his retirement. They had completed their packing to move when he became ill a week ago today and entered the hospital.

Born Nov. 23, 1897 in Evansville, Ark., he saw service as a sergeant during World War I with the engineers. After seeing duty in the European theatre, he served in the Army of Occupation. When he returned home, he went to work immediately in the Oklahoma oilfields. In 1926 he became associated with Standard Oil of Texas in the Westbrook field, later going to LaPorte to help drill some of the first wells in Galveston Bay. He also was at Falfurrias and Big Lake before coming to Forsan 11 years ago.

Survivors include his widow, Anna Shannon, Forsan; two daughters, Mrs. R. S. Johnson, Seguin, and Mrs. Charles E. Noland, Tampa, Fla.; 4 grandchildren; and an uncle, Jess Scott, Eunice, N.M. Pallbearers will be Sam Dannis, Roy Walraven, Troy Lankford, Jackie Walker, James Breedlove and Henry Sullivan.

Integration Tempo Faster This Fall

By The Associated Press
Integration of Texas schools steps up its pace this fall, with desegregation leaders demanding still more speed.

Latest information indicates five school systems will integrate for the first time compared with two last fall.

The information sometimes is sketchy, since there is no central education agency to which schools report their integration status. Some schools have not revealed their full intentions. Planning to integrate are the school districts of Dallas, Galveston, Lockney, Judson, Andrews and Yorktown. Dallas and Galveston are doing so under federal court orders.

Tabulations show that 134 school districts have integrated out of 720 Texas districts which have both Negro and white pupils. The other 1,539 districts are segregated automatically simply because only one race resides in the area.

TOO SLOW
But the speed of integration appears slow to Clarence A. Laws, regional secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

In a speech this summer marking the seventh anniversary of the 1955 U.S. Supreme Court decision declaring public school segregation unconstitutional, Laws noted that only 134 of the 720 bi-racial districts "have completed or even begun desegregation."

Laws added that it would take about 40 years to end segregation at the present pace.

"The State of Texas finds itself far from having complied with that decision," Laws claimed.

Southern School News, a publication which seeks to keep abreast of integration developments, reported that an estimated 3,500 Negroes actually attended school with white students last year in Texas.

This is slightly more than one per cent of the estimated Negro school-age population.

Southern School News estimated that as of 1960, integrated Texas school districts contained in their boundaries 65,000 Negro students and 800,000 white students.

NUMBERS
This year, about 120,000 Negroes will be with about one million white children in desegregated districts, but the actual attendance of Negro children in formerly all-white schools is not expected to be much more than 3,500 or 3,700.

The chief reason only 3,500 out of 85,000 Negroes—about 4 per cent—in integrated districts attended school with white children last year is that only token integration has taken place in many districts—a scattering of Negroes placed in predominantly white schools.

This percentage is expected to increase over the years since many schools, particularly the large ones, have been permitted by federal courts to limit new integration to one grade of school a year.

TO DECLINE
But the percentage will decline sharply this year, largely because the large Dallas and Galveston schools will integrate.

School officials in Dallas and Galveston have not announced the number of Negroes who will be sent to formerly all-white schools, but best guesses are that the total will not amount to more than 1 per cent of the two cities' 26,300 Negro students.

Dallas has 22,000 school age Negro children out of 122,000 students. Galveston has 4,300 Negro school children out of about 15,000 total scholastics.

The first Texas school system to integrate in modern history—perhaps in all history—was that of Friona in 1953, two years before the Supreme Court decision.

The largest number of schools presently integrated did so shortly after the 1955 decision paved the way. The Supreme Court decision was accompanied by a decision by Judge Charles Sullivan in Big Spring that Texas laws did not cut off state aid to integrated schools.

The Texas Legislature caused the big slowdown in integration in 1957 when it passed specific laws cutting off schools from certain forms of state aid if they integrated without a referendum.

DECISION SOUGHT
Dallas spent the intervening years seeking a court decision which would tell it what to do—to follow federal orders to integrate or the state laws which in effect halted integration.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson in 1960 resolved that question by ruling that schools facing federal court orders to integrate would not lose state aid since they did not desegregate voluntarily.

This paved the way for such schools as Houston, Galveston and Dallas to integrate.

Several smaller school systems have held votes since the 1960 attorney general's ruling. These votes were required to preserve their state aid, since they were not under federal court pressure as laid down by Wilson's ruling.

Two witnesses said that Hufford passed them at high speed just before the accident. His 1959-model auto struck the Harvey car broadside as it pulled into his path from the county road, deputies said.

5 In Family Die In Crash
UPPER SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—A broadside collision at a rural intersection Friday killed all six persons in two cars, including five members of one family.

It happened at the intersection of a northern Wyandot County road and Ohio 509 in north central Ohio.

Killed in their 1957-model station wagon were Don M. Harvey, 57, of Kenton, Ohio, identified as the driver; his wife, Ethel, 55; their son, Frank G., 30, who lived at home; and the Harvey couple's grandchildren, Linda Nowland 11; and her sister, Mary, 7, also of Kenton.

The other driver, Claude Hufford, 19, of nearby Carey, was found face down in a small stream that runs along a ditch in which both cars came to rest. He apparently drowned.

Two witnesses said that Hufford passed them at high speed just before the accident. His 1959-model auto struck the Harvey car broadside as it pulled into his path from the county road, deputies said.

Superior handling

One of Cadillac's most appreciated qualities has long been its extreme maneuverability for a car of such stature. A current example of this emphasis on handling ease is a new 1961 front end suspension system which permits a turning diameter importantly less than any other car of comparable wheelbase. Cadillac's superior handling ease quickly becomes evident behind the wheel—as does the incomparable seating comfort you enjoy as driver of the "car of cars."

NAACP Denies Violation Of Restrictive Injunction

DALLAS (AP) — The Texas chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People denied Saturday that the agency has violated a 1957 state injunction against it. It asserted action of the Texas House General Investigating Commission was an American.

The charges against the NAACP were made this week in a report by the Investigating Committee.

The committee said "violations of the permanent injunction...not only is clearly established but such violations have been so flagrant and highly publicized that it would appear that those officials charged with protecting the legal rights of the people of Texas would have become aware of these violations and challenged the unlawful activities of the NAACP."

The denial of violation issued by Clarence Laws, NAACP Southwest regional secretary, and the Rev. S. Y. Nixon, Dallas, state NAACP president.

"We categorically deny that the NAACP has acted in violation of the injunction granted in the Tyler case, or in violation of the Constitution and laws of Texas and the United States,"

Miss Gregg Is Taken By Death

Miss Bess Irene Gregg, 71, died here Friday evening after a long illness.

Services have been set for 2 p.m. today at the Nalley-Pickie Funeral Home with Elmo Wasson reading the Christian Science rites. Burial will be in the Trinity Memorial Park.

Miss Gregg was born on Sept. 20, 1889 in Bardonia, Ky., and came to Big Spring in 1959 from Florida to be with her sister, Mrs. Ora Johnston. She had worked as a sales lady in department stores, specializing in interior decorations, in Kentucky and Florida.

Surviving are her sister, Mrs. Johnston; two nephews, W. G. Johnston and E. C. Johnston, both of Big Spring.

leges for payment of fines, charged to Marshall students involved in the sit-ins. Nevertheless, we believe that we, as other citizens, have a right to use our money to mutually protect our constitutional rights.

The reference to "Tyler" was to the city where a state court issued the injunction against encouraging or financing lawsuits.

The Marshall sit-ins spanning eight days occurred in March 1960 and caused considerable violence. Nearly 300 were taken into custody and another 700 dispersed with fire hoses. Thirty-five students were fined from $50 to $200.

The NAACP statement said that "We charge that the findings of the committee were made without affording the NAACP and its officers an opportunity to be heard and that such a procedure is manifestly un-American."

Moreover, we charge that these findings are presumptive and wholly false."

Illness Fatal To Mitchell Woman

Mrs. Manuel Gallegos 33, Colorado City, died late Thursday night in the Root Memorial Hospital after an illness of six weeks. She was born Oct. 15, 1927 in Marlin and had lived in Mitchell County for 10 years.

She was a member of the Catholic Church and had married Gallegos in Austin in 1946. Funeral rites will be held from St. Ann's Mission and burial will be in the Mitchell County Cemetery, with details of the service to be announced from the Kiker and Son Funeral Home in Colorado City.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by her father of Nueva Laredo, Mexico, 3 sons, 6 daughters and a sister.

Auto Collision Fatal To Texan

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — A Mexia man was killed late Friday night when two cars collided on a county road 3 miles north of Sinton.

Highway Patrolman said Oscar S. Orange, about 26, of Mexia died in a Sinton hospital after the wreck. Alberto R. Tamez, 28, of Taft was taken to a hospital with a broken left arm.

Vital Space Launchings Scheduled For The Week

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — In a pair of major launchings next week, the United States plans to try to send an unmanned Project Mercury capsule into orbit for the first time and to hurl aloft a space platform from which a payload will be fired deep into space.

Both shots are basic steps in a broad program aimed at placing an American astronaut on the moon in this decade.

The attempt to hoist the two-ton Mercury capsule into orbit and have it return automatically to earth after a single circuit of the globe is the start of a drive to place an American in orbit within a few months.

The capsule will carry a small gray box called a crewman simulator, which will "breathe, sweat and talk" much like a human passenger.

If the shot is successful, a chimpanzee and then a man will be lofted into orbits taking them three times around the world — hopefully before the end of the year.

The Soviet Union already has orbited two men, Yuri Gagarin and Gherman Titov, and the United States is hurrying to catch up.

An Atlas-Agena rocket will zoom skyward in an effort to place the second stage in a so-called "parking orbit." When the Agena reaches a desired position on its course, it will fire and propel a Ranger I toward a million-mile roundtrip journey into space.

Ranger I, the most complex space package this nation's scientists have devised, will test techniques for launching interplanetary vehicles. Another Ranger is scheduled to land on the moon early next year.

Pointing up the urgency placed on the manned-orbit program, NASA announced Friday that it plans no further suborbital flights like those of Alan B. Shepard Jr. and Virgil L. Grissom. An announcement said all information possible had been gained from the two up-and-down tests.

IT TAKES KNOWLEDGE TO TREAT THE SICK

Despite great advances in medical knowledge, there are still some people who depend on old-fashioned self-treatments. Some let persons with no drug or medical training advise them what medicines to take.

QUAKE JOLTS JAPAN

TOKYO (AP)—A strong earthquake jolted central Japan today. Police said at least five persons were killed and 11 injured. No major property damage was reported, however.

In neighboring Ishikawa Prefecture, four dam workers were reported buried alive by a landslide caused by the earthquake. A man swimming in a river was killed by a falling rock.

In Fukui seven school children resting on a river embankment after a swim were partly buried and tossed into the water when the quake crumbled the bank.

Five were seriously injured. A woman jumped out of a second-floor window and broke a leg in Kanazawa. Five other injuries were reported elsewhere.

In Fukui, a 200-yard length of railway rails were twisted and signals disrupted.

The Central Meteorological Observatory said the epicenter was in a thinly populated area of the Gifu-ukui provincial border. The observatory said serious damage would have been caused if the epicenter had been in a populated area. It was of the same magnitude as the great tremor that ravaged Fukui in 1948.

Picture Deadline Looming For Girls In Senior Class

By KAY LOVELAND

All Big Spring High senior girls who have not had their pictures made yet should call Barr's Photo-center and make an appointment this week. This includes senior girls at Lakeview. If the pictures aren't made this month, they will not appear in the 1962 edition of El Rodeo next spring. Pictures of senior boys and all juniors and sophomores will be made during the school term.

Speaking of school, there's not much time left until it's back to the old grind. Registration for junior high and high school students is set between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. with days and grades as follows: Aug. 23, grades nine through 12; Aug. 24, grades eight and 11, and Aug. 25, grades seven and 10.

Secondary students who are new to the system should pre-register any day, Monday through Friday, between now and the time school begins.

Hours and places: Senior high school, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Goliad Junior High and Rannels Junior High, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Registration at Howard County Junior College has begun. Students may register in the school office any day, and they are advised to do so in order to avoid long waiting lines and delay when official registration days are held Sept. 12 and 13.

Still number 1 on the Billboard top ten list this week is "Tossin' and Turnin'," Lewis. The rest of the list goes as follows: 2. "I Like It Like That," Kenner; 3. "Last Night," Mar-Keys; 4. "Dum Dum," Lee; 5. "Wooden Heart," Joe Dowell; 6. "Michael," Highwaymen; 7. "Pretty Little Angel Eyes," Lee; 8. "Let's Twist Again," Checker; 9. "Together," Francis; 10. "School Is Out," Bonds.

Up and coming: "Stick Shift," Duals; "Theme From Silver City," Ventures; "Johnny Willow," Fred Darian.

New Records at the Record Shop: "Sweet Little You" and "I Found My World in You" by Neil Sedka on RCA. Latter side is a pretty good ballad, which Sedka helped write; "One More Time" and "There Was A Tavern in the Town," Sammy Davis Jr. on Reprise. Some State Costs Are Understandable

AUSTIN (AP)—The taxpayer has been bombarded recently with reports of vast sums the state plans to spend in the next two years.

A billion here, a few million there, and occasionally a couple of hundred thousand somewhere else.

Scanning the 500 pages of the appropriations bill recently passed by the legislature, the reader encounters some sums and items which are understandable and closer to home.

Little things like the $10,000 limousine provided for the exclusive use of the governor. One senator said it was a "dirty shame we have to mooch a horse off some funeral home every time we have a visiting potentate."

Or like the $4,000 planned for emergency use of National Guard troops and then the $5,000 provided to buy medals and awards to reward their bravery.

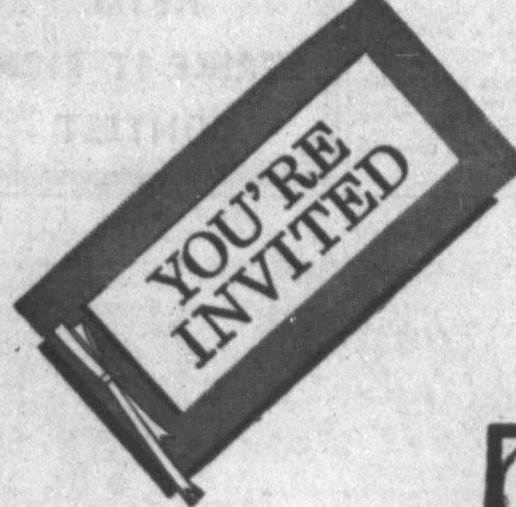

If you get tired of the fields and forests, you can visit the $50,000 wildlife exhibit provided for the State Office Building.

The Game Commission also gets in excess of $416,000 to buy 220 automobiles—but no air conditioning or automatic transmissions.

And $129,640 goes for the governor's travel, a face-lifting for the mansion and Texas' share in the Interstate Oil Compact.

Another $37,000 is headed for purchase of furnishings including silverware, linen and chinaware, and salaries and upkeep for the mansion grounds.

The state's part-time boxing and wrestling inspectors get $19,000.

Sculptra

by Broyhill Premier

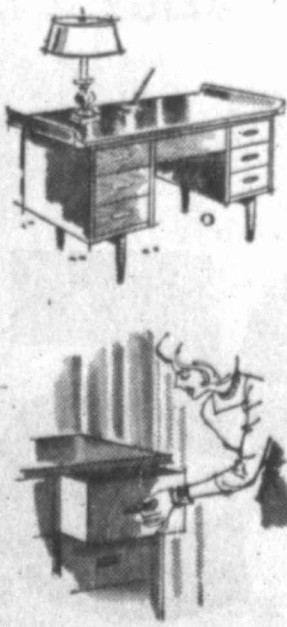

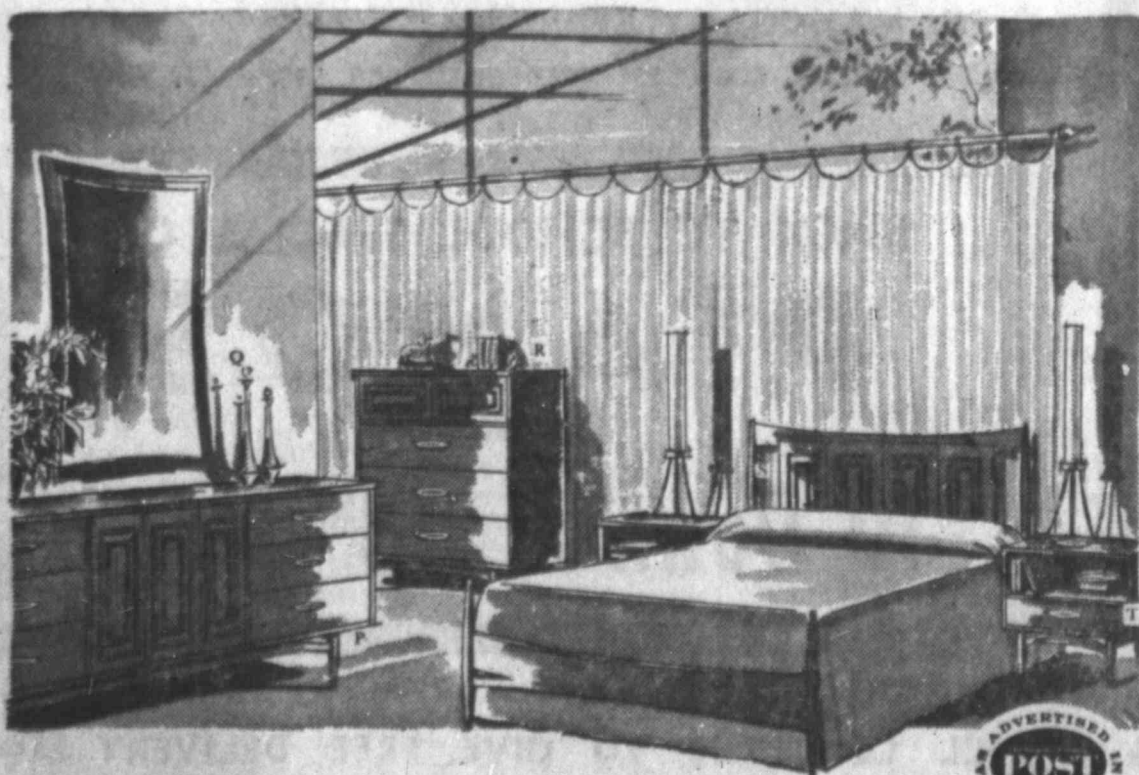

Sleek and simple with purpose... Sculptra by Broyhill Premier is equally at home in the city apartment or suburban home. The design motif... a theme taken from modern wood sculpture. Especially interesting is the moulded relief on doors and drawers, the back galleries that curve upward to the wall, the recessed drawer pulls. And decorating with Sculptra is a real pleasure for it subtle hint of "import" sophistication takes perfectly to "today's" decorating colors. DEAR ABBY

Let Him Cut His Own Meat

DEAR ABBY: My son-in-law is a very big-hearted person, has a good disposition and is a good provider. But he has one fault that bothers me no end. When he eats, he holds his fork straight up, and he cuts his meat all at once into bite-sized pieces. My daughter knows better, but she has never corrected him. This has been going on for 22 years. Should I speak to him about it? It may seem like a little thing to you, but it annoys me something terrible.

ANNNOYED

DEAR ANNNOYED: Mention it to your daughter in a good-humored way. If SHE wants to correct him, that's her business. But if he has brought home the bacon for 22 years, I'd let him cut it up the way he wants to.

DEAR ABBY: I am a young (32) unmarried working girl. I get my hair washed and set every week. My hairdresser is a man about my age. He is very good-looking and single. He has been fixing my hair for over three years, and I am no closer to him now than I was three years ago. He acts like he thinks a lot of me, but he has never asked me out. If he has a girl friend, he has never mentioned her. He shares an apartment with another fellow. He is just about the nicest man I have ever met. How can I get him interested in me?

GOT A CRUSH

DEAR GOT: If this man has been running his fingers through your hair once a week for three years, and you have made no headway, it's time you faced reality. He has no romantic interest in you. If he's a good hairdresser, continue to let him make you beautiful... but for somebody else.

DEAR ABBY: I am married to the most suspicious man in the world. I have never given him any reason to doubt me. The funniest part of the whole thing is this: I am not especially attractive. I have no figure to speak of. I am on the quiet side, and no man has ever made a pass at me. If I leave the house, and am not back on the dot, my husband gets in the other car and starts to hunt me up. He is always cross-examining me and trying to get me to "confess" things that never happened. It hurts me to think he doesn't trust me. What on earth is wrong with him? I am 38 and he is 42, and we have been married for 17 years.

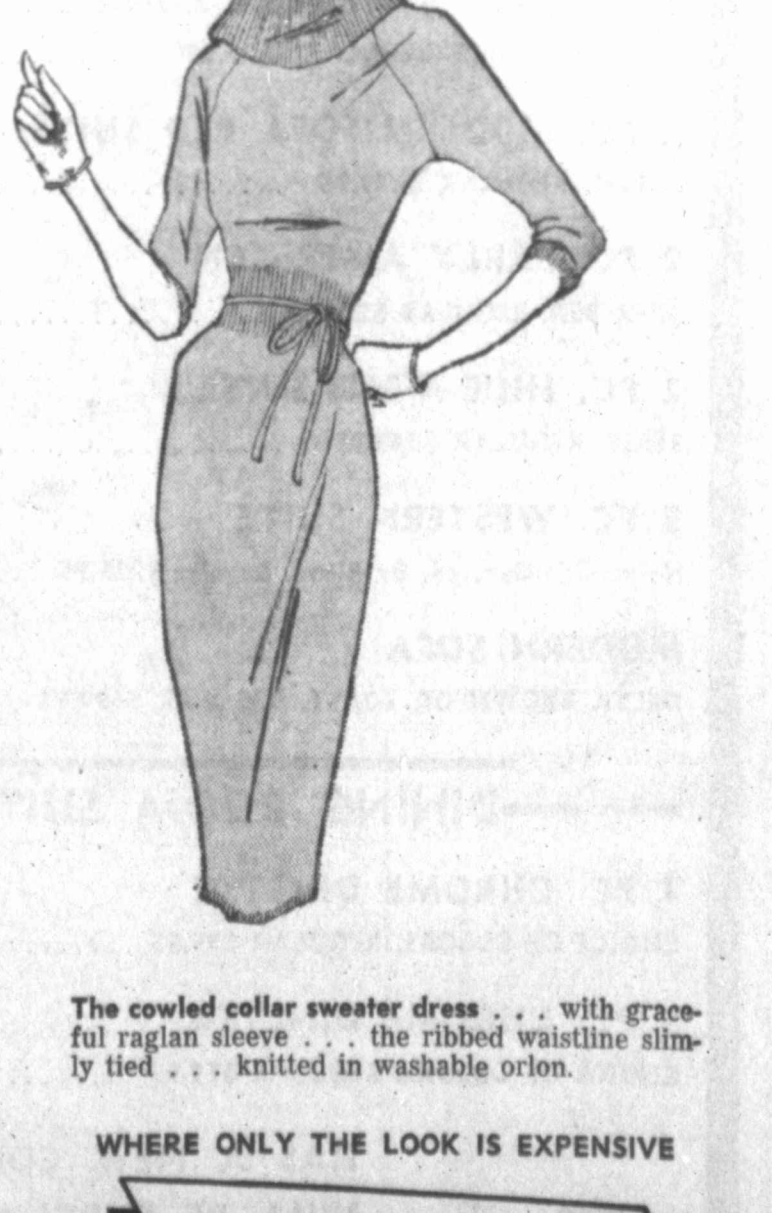

NOT TRUSTED

DEAR NOT: Persistent suspicion, without grounds, is a well-known symptom of an emotional disorder. Don't tolerate it in hopes that it will disappear. Your husband needs to see a doctor.

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — Charlie Bivens raced 79 and 93 yards for touchdowns Saturday night to lead the Chicago Bears to a 29-13 victory over the Washington Redskins in a professional exhibition football game.

A pass by Dorow set up one Titan score and he also threw to Don Maynard for a 74-yard scoring play in the third period. Boston scored first on a 29-yard ramble by Larry Garrison. A few minutes later Dorow hit Art Powell with a pass to move New York to the 3 from where Bill Mathis scored. Dick Guesman tied the game with his kick. Just before the end of the half, a pass interference play moved New York to the 26, and Guesman kicked a field goal.

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Two Baytown, Tex., tennis players advanced to the singles finals in the Gulf States championships Saturday. First-seeded Jerry Walters bested Jim Beste of Baton Rouge, 6-3, 8-6, 6-3. Clint Nettleton, fourth seeded, beat Lee Fentress of Baton Rouge, 4-6, 7-5, 7-5. The finals will be played Sunday.

Two Course Records Set Here Saturday

Two course records were established at the Big Spring Country Club Saturday. Daryle Hohertz fired a sizzling 33-36 in a qualifying round for the Sept. 1 Couden Cup matches to topple the old 18-hole course record by one stroke.

Hohertz W. Green

Bobby Wright established the old record many months ago. Wendy Green, assistant pro at the club, toured the front nine of the course in 31 strokes while playing with Earl Reynolds, Jerry Scott and Son Powell, that was another new record.

Green wound up with a 37 on the back side when his approach shots began to give him trouble and settled for a 69. The other three players each had a 71.

Hohertz had birdies on the fourth and sixth holes on the front nine in his hand, bogied 11 and then fired birds on the 12th, 14th, 15th and 18th holes on the back side to make sure of his record.

His score: Par out 454 344 344-35 Green out 384 342 334-31

Green, who ran down a fine 15-foot putt on the first hole for a birdie three, went on to get three more birdies, along with five pars.

His round: Par out 454 344 344-35 Green out 384 342 334-31

The Country Club was a busy place Saturday as more linksters finished rounds in trying to qualify for the local Couden Cup matches.

Others are due to tour the course today for the same reason, as well as for pure pleasure. Bill Craig, a finalist in the most last year and a past champion, came over from Colorado City to get in a practice round. He's considered a title threat.

Deadline for the completion of play for a spot on the local Couden Cup team is Thursday, Aug. 31. The matches themselves take place on the first day of the 30th annual Big Spring Invitational tournament Sept. 1.

Eight local players — or seven plus team captain Obie Bristow — will be picked and anyone in town who plays golf is eligible. All they have to do is play 72 holes at the Country Club.

The visiting team is to be led by Bill (Red) Roden of Odessa, a one-time Big Spring resident, who has won the Invitational title four times. He can name whom he chooses.

R. S. (Red) McCullah is the only local linkster to complete his required 72 holes of play and he stands a good chance to rate the elite group. He carded rounds of 76-73-76-75 for an even 300.

Others who have played part of their qualifying rounds, listed with their scores, include: Sam Thurman, 76-75; Dick Pfeiffer, 84; Daryle Hohertz, 75-66; Earl Reynolds, 75-74; J.R. Farmer, 76-70-80; Gil Jones, 72-82; W. E. Ramsey, 77-73; Tommy Hutto, 74-76; Jack Wallace, 72; Johnny Sloan, 71; Jimmy Patterson, 73; Bobby Wright, 70; Joe Connally, 76; R. H. Weaver, 71; Jack Cook, 74; Weldon Bryant, 72.

All golfers can start qualifying next Sunday for the big tournament, by paying $15 entry fees. However, only those who qualify on the appointed day (Sept. 1) are eligible for the medalist's prize, a watch.

M. R. (Krog) Koger, tournament chairman, said the finals of the tournament would be broadcast over radio station KBST as well as be telecast over KEDY Channel 4.

Lubbock Baptist Team Champion

DALLAS (AP) — Second Baptist Church of Lubbock defeated Meadowbrook Methodist of Fort Worth 4-2 Saturday night to take first place in the TAAF church softball tournament. Meadowbrook defeated Houston Woodridge 9-4 for second place. Darrell Summers, Lubbock catcher, was selected outstanding player in the tournament.

Lowe's Penrock Trials' Winner

RUIDOSO, N. M. — A couple of prohibitive favorites, Ralph Lowe's Penrock and Dixie Denney's Little Juan, led the way into the $20,000 Ruidoso Downs Thoroughbred Derby Saturday.

Each streaked home in his respective trial divisions for next Sunday's finale and oddly each made the charmed circle by two lengths.

Penrock, $2.50 favorite, knocked off the 7 1/2 furlongs in 1:36.4 over a slow track for Larry Byers, leading rider at Ruidoso Downs. In the second division, jockey Bobby Ford spanked the Phoenix flash, Little Juan, under the wire in 1:35.2 to whip stalemated Atomic Girl as he pleased.

The first five finishers in each division make the unofficial Derby lineup.

Harm Killebrew Hits 37th Homer As Twins Triumph

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Minnesota Twins scored all their runs on homers — including Harmon Killebrew's 37th — and defeated the Los Angeles 5-3 Saturday. Minnesota left-hander Jim Kant had a three-hit shutout going into the ninth but was relieved by Ray Moore after Earl Averill tagged him for a two-run homer. A two-out single by pinch-hitter Ted Kluszewski brought in a third Angel. Green hit his sixth homer for the Twins with a man on in the third and Killebrew got his in the same inning with the bases empty.

Zorro Versalles made it 4-0 with a home run in the sixth, and Bill Tuttle produced the fifth Minnesota run with a homer in the eighth.

Fernandez Gets Sweet Revenge

NEW YORK (AP) — Argentina's Jorge Fernandez avenged the only knockout defeat of his career by soundly drubbing Isaac Logart of Cuba in a 10-round television fight at Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

Fernandez, a 34-1 favorite, weighed 150 pounds to Logart's 147 1/2.

The victory was the 25-year-old Argentine's fifth straight and moved him in line for a title fight with the winner of the Ernie Griffith-Benny (Kid) Paret welterweight championship fight Sept. 30.

The three officials voted for Fernandez by the following scores: Judge Bill Reht 7 rounds to 1 and 2 even; Referee Jimmy Devlin and Judge Joe Agnello 8-2 each. The Associated Press had Fernandez in front, 7-3.

El Campo Makes It To Finals

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — El Campo, Tex., jumped to a three-run lead in the first inning and edged Charlotte, N.C., 3-2 Saturday in the final round of the southern regional Little League playoffs. Dave Vaclavik homered for the three El Campo runs. Southern champion, El Campo now goes to the Little World Series in Williamsport, Pa.

M Boys Stopped But Yanks Win

CLEVELAND (AP) — Elston Howard lined a two-out single in the 10th inning Saturday to score the deciding run in New York's 3-2 victory over Cleveland. Whitey Ford posted his 21st triumph, but the Yankees' Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle failed to hit a homer.

Maris, with 48 homers, was 0-for-5 and now is 12 games ahead of Babe Ruth's 60-homer record pace in 1927. Mantle had a single in four trips, but took a called third strike on two occasions. He has 45 homers and is 10 games in front of the Babe.

Howard set up the first two Yankee runs with a double in the fourth inning, then delivered the

LOOKING 'EM OVER With TOMMY HART

Forsan will know the first day of school whether or not it will be promoted to 11-man circles next year (it now plays eight man football).

The South Howard County school was very close to the 100-pupil breakpoint point last year and around 40 freshmen are due to enroll in high school there later this month.

If the Buffs make the leap, they go either into District 4-B, along with Sands, Lorenzo, Cooper, New Deal, New Home and Wilson or 6-B, where they would play against such clubs as Bronte, Hermleigh, Lorraine, Robert Lee, Roy and Trent.

Anticipating a classification promotion, coach James Blake of Forsan will have his B team playing an 11-man schedule this year. Of the 768 polo players in this country who have handicap ratings, only 17 are listed at eight goals or better, only four at nine or more and only two have perfect ten-goal ratings.

There's a move on in polo circles in this country to renew the United States-Argentina series, which was halted in the early '50's. San Angelo College, which is now in the Western Athletic Conference, along with HCJC, is expecting over 1,000 students this fall.

B. B. Lees, the one-time Big Spring High School athlete, helped coach the City Slickers in that all-star football game at Amarillo this weekend.

B. B. is now the first assistant to Carl Richardson at Eastern New Mexico University.

Buddy Allredge, the Sweetwater grinder who was being touted as an all-state end this year, may instead wind up at fullback.

Sweetwater, incidentally, will scrimmage four different teams before opening 1961 play.

San Angelo Lake View High will probably field its largest football team in history this fall. Included on the squad are two backs weighing 191 and 185 and two linemen tipping in at 340 and 228.

The Snyder Tigers reportedly will field a fine interior line this fall.

Bulldogs Have New Practice Field

The Coahoma Bulldogs, members of District 6-A, should have more depth this year than last.

Coach Jimmy Spann is counting on booking six games for his reserve team.

Coahoma was hard pressed to field a B team last year. Coahoma's football turf is much better than it was and the size of the football press box has been doubled.

In addition, the Bulldogs are working out on a fine new practice field.

When Babe Ruth clubbed his record 60 home runs in 1927, balls which bounced into the stands counted as four-masters.

However, all of Ruth's smashes sailed into the seats on the fly.

The rule to give a batter credit for a home run hit over the fence in the last half of the final inning, when the winning run was on base, wasn't adopted until 1930, three years after the Babe had his big fling.

The incidence of injury in Little League baseball around the nation was low this season—around two per cent.

Here are the types of injuries which required medical or dental attention: Abrasions and contusions, 32 per cent; fractures, 19 per cent; sprains, 13 per cent; lacerations, 10 per cent; concussions, three per cent; and dental, three per cent.

Jimmy Marcus, the junior high mentor; former HCJC cager Charles Clark and Larry McElvey, who will play his sophomore year of basketball at HCJC this year, have been serving as life guards at the Webb AFB officers' swimming pool this summer.

Clark

LARRY McELVEY goes to El Paso next month to become a coach in one of the junior high schools out there.

Phillie Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, heads a concern that sold 12 billion sticks of gum last year.

Gross sales of the product totaled over $100,000,000.

Dumas, which enjoyed a 4-1 won-lost season last football season, is favored over Lleveland to cop the District 1-AAA championship this fall.

Tennessee, coached by Bowden Wyatt, may be the sleeper in SEC football play this year.

The Vols have a relatively easy warmup schedule.

With a successful start, they could develop an impetus that could make them great.

Midland Planning Another Pro Game

Ex-Big Spring Charley Johnson probably sitting in the cardinal seat with the St. Louis Cardinals, now that Sam Etchberry is on the doubtful list with an arm injury.

However, don't be surprised if the Cards trade for another quarterback as an insurance move.

Johnson will probably clock more playing time with the Red Birds than did Don Meredith with the Dallas Cowboys last season.

The gross sale of tickets for that AFL exhibition in Midland last weekend approached $50,000, which means the Dallas Texans will probably book into Midland again in 1962.

The Red Cross building fund, benefactor in the exhibition, stands to gain considerably more than $10,000.

Business is picking up all over for the AFL, by the way.

Houston and Oakland played to about a $75,000 crowd in Honolulu the other day.

Ed McGah, co-owner of the Oakland franchise, has thrown cold water on the idea of moving the Raiders to Hawaii if they don't click in California, however.

No one could afford that transportation cost over a full season, he pointed out.

At least eight players on the Forsan football team this fall have had big brothers on the club in years past.

They are, with their older kinsmen listed in parentheses: Charles Newcomb (Robert), Bobby Huestis (Wayne), Harry King (Johnny), Roger Park (Fred), Hubert Bardwell (Milton and Jerry), Duane Allison (Rodney), Walter Fields (Joe) and Danny Henry (Tommy).

Jim Alexander, another member of the Buff squad, is a brother to Mackle Alexander, the former BSHS center, who is now the biggest player on the H-SU grid squad.

Ex-Big Spring Billy Maxwell very modestly attributed his recent golf victory at Hartford, Conn., to nothing but luck, pointing out that Lady Luck deserted Ted Kroll, his nearest pursuer, at the last moment.

Sun Bowl Press Box. This modern press box will provide facilities for newspaper, radio and television coverage of the Sun Bowl in El Paso. The Sun Bowl, now under construction, will be completed in 1962. It is being built at Texas Western College, near downtown El Paso. The stadium, which will seat 30,000 and which can be increased to seat 70,000, is to cost $1,750,000. It's close to Kidd Field, the stadium now used by the college teams. Kidd Field seats only 15,000. The single level press box has ample facilities for extensive newspaper, radio and television coverage. It will rest on concrete columns and spectators can walk beneath en route to their seats. It has been designed so that it can be enlarged if necessary.

Phillies Lose 22nd In Row

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves pushed their winning streak to nine straight games by handing the hapless Philadelphia Phillies their 22nd loss in a row Saturday by a 4-3 margin.

Philadelphia threatened with an uprising in the ninth inning that had the bases filled and forced Tony Cloninger from the mound but reliever Don McMahon succeeded in retiring the side after the Philis got one run.

The Braves scored all their runs in the third inning in which Frank Thomas hit a home run and Joe Adcock doubled.

The victory string equaled the National League streak of nine runs up by Cincinnati between April 30 and May 19 earlier this season.

Philadelphia, which Friday night set a modern major league record by losing their 21st in a row, came within two losses of the all-time major league losing mark of 24 by Cleveland in 1909.

Grid Pre-Game Feed Is Planned

The evening Lions Club has placed on sale tickets to the traditional feed given each year prior to the opening football game.

This year's event will be in the high school cafeteria starting at 5 p.m. on Sept. 8. Tickets ($1) are available from any member of the club or at Thompson Furniture, 1219 Gregg. The meal will feature barbecue chicken with the trimmings.

Linz Closes In On Mace Crown

By The Associated Press

Phil Linz, Amarillo shortstop, moves on toward the batting championship of the Texas League.

He dropped 6 points last week but still was first with 344. Doug Clemens, who was at Tulsa long enough to qualify for the title, is second with 342.

Amarillo players lead in almost every category. Dick Berardino tops in runs with 96, in runs batted in with 85, and is tied for the lead in triples with teammate Mike Mathiesen with 9.

Don Brummer and Jack Davis of Amarillo are tied with Clemens for the lead in doubles with 28.

Jose Tartabull of Victoria is out front in hits with 153, and Craig Sorenson of San Antonio tops in homers with 22.

Hal Stowe of Amarillo is unbeaten as a pitcher with a 12-0 record. Harry Fanok and Paul Toth of Tulsa have won the most games, 15 each. Fanok leads in strikeouts with 154.

Amarillo sets the pace in club batting with .284.

Detroit Keeps Pace With NY

DETROIT (AP) — Bubba Morton riddled a ninth-inning single that drove in the winning run in the Detroit Tigers 3-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox Saturday.

Colavito had led off the inning with a double off loser Mike Farioules.

Don Mossi faltered in the top of the ninth after almost winning his own game with an eight-

49ers, Browns Tangle Today

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco's 49ers stage their 1961 home debut Sunday in Kezar Stadium against the Cleveland Browns with John Brodie the man behind the shotgun.

When the 49ers traded veteran Y. A. Tittle to the New York Giants last Tuesday the job of directing the new shotgun spread offense was left almost exclusively to Brodie, the ex-Stanford star.

The Blomshield Family

Just recently moved to Big Spring from Midland are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blomshield. Wes and Bette Jan. Ginger, in Bette's lap, was a little reluctant to have her picture taken, but finally

Two In Blomshield Family Are Newcomers

Although the Harry Blomshield family moved to Big Spring just two weeks ago, they cannot be termed newcomers, for the fact is, Blomshield considers Big Spring his hometown. And both he and Mrs. Blomshield lived here for two years after their marriage.

The town is new, however, to the other members of the family. Wes, 13, and Bette Jan, 8—not to leave out Ginger, a Siamese cat who has been in the family six years, and the newest member, Pancho, a chihuahua.

Born in Oklahoma, Blomshield moved to Big Spring when only a young lad in 1929. He attended the public schools here and graduated from Big Spring High School.

His college days were spent on the campuses of Texas A&M and Texas Tech, where he received his degree in electrical engineering and met his future wife, Janelle. She received her degree in education from Tech.

The couple lived in Big Spring while he served in the armed forces. In 1946 they moved to Lubbock, and since then they have lived in Odessa and Midland before moving here.

Blomshield has been in the bearing and supply business for 16 years, but he came to Big Spring to put in his own business, Blomshield Bearing and Supply Company, 207 Austin, which has been in operation since May.

The family is active in Boy and Girl Scout work, Blomshield being a Scout leader, while Mrs.

Blomshield works with a Brownie troop. Of course, Wes is an active Boy Scout, and Bette Jan belongs to the Brownies.

In addition to her Girl Scout work, Mrs. Blomshield has been a member of garden clubs and likes to play bridge. She also participates in activities at St. Mary's Episcopal Church. He is a hunting and fishing enthusiast, while Wes is quite the baseball player. Bette Jan says she likes "animals and dolls."

With school about to begin, Wes will enroll in the eighth grade at Rannels Junior High, while Bette Jan will start her third school year at Washington Elementary.

Having lived in several West Texas cities, it would seem that the Blomshields might not always know where their loyalties lie, come football season, but says Blomshield, "Any town we live in is the best."

Miss Lurting, Frank Powell Take Vows Friday Afternoon

Wedding vows, taken at 4 p.m. Friday, united in marriage Sheron Adele Lurting and Frank Bolen Powell in the First Presbyterian Church.

Parents of the couple are Dr. and Mrs. Fred W. Lurting, 608 W. 16th, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Powell, 900 Mountain Park Drive. An all-green and white altar was formed of emerald fern trees with large urns holding arrangements of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and asters; white satin markers denoted family pews.

The couple knelt on a white prie die for the conclusion of the double ring ceremony read by Dr. Gage Lloyd, pastor of the church.

Nuptial music was presented by Delores Howard at the organ. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza; the scooped neckline and short sleeves were outlined with appliques of organza roses, as was the waist, which was marked with a bustle bow at the back. Identical appliques enhanced the

RECEPTION
A reception at Big Spring Country Club honored the couple, who received guests with Mrs. Lurting, the parents of the bridegroom and the bride's attendants.

The bride's table held an epergne of large white asters, pink sweetheart roses and silvered leather leaf fern. A three-tiered wedding cake was frosted in pale pink and topped with pink blossoms. A nearby punch table was laid with a cutwork cloth and appointed with silver accessories.

At the guest register was Mrs. Denny Marsalis of Lubbock; assisting in the house party were Mrs. Ricky Terry, Mrs. D. M. McCrorey, Shirley Terry, Kay McGibbon, Marilyn Bigham, Lyn Anderson, Miss Howard and Carol Ann Drake.

From out of town, guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Reeve of Annapolis, Md., grandparents of the bride, and her cousin, Judy Shafer of Baltimore, Md.; Frances Childress of Ozona; Mr. and Mrs. T. Tippet of McAlister, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Powell and Mrs. C. Erwin, all of Colorado City; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Erwin of Stanton.

For a trip to Acapulco, Mexico, the bride donned a brown and white pin-striped suit of arnel, fashioned with bouson and pleated skirt. Bone and brown shoes and purse with tan feather hat completed her ensemble.

Following the trip, the couple will make a home in Fort Worth, where both will be junior students in Texas Christian University. The new Mrs. Powell is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority; he is a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

REHEARSAL DINNER
The rehearsal dinner, hosted by the bridegroom's parents, was given Thursday evening in the Blue Room at Cosden Country Club. About 40 were included in the buffet affair, at which gifts were presented by the bridegroom to his attendants.

Grandfather Of Bride Reads Wedding Rites

Vows read by the grandfather of the bride joined in marriage Jo Ann Ebling and Robert A. Fuller, Saturday evening, in the First Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Irvin E. Deer of Baltimore, Md. was assisted by Dr. Gage Lloyd, pastor of the church, in the double ring ceremony, performed before an altar centered with a large Grecian urn holding white gladioli, chrysanthemums and asters, laurel and ivy, backed with emerald fern trees. Tall white tapers lighted the sanctuary, and pews were marked with white satin and ivy.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Ebling, 2805 Cactus Drive; Mrs. Henry Covert, 1701 Donley, and the late Mr. Covert.

Mrs. Leslie Green at the organ accompanied Mrs. Carl Bradley as she sang "The Lord's Prayer."

"I Love You Truly" and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of silk peau de soie, fashioned with empire bodice and portrait neckline. Appliques of peau de soie flowers decorated the skirt, which was topped with a bustle bow and extended into a chapel train. Brief sleeves were complemented with short white gloves.

From a French crown of pearlized orange blossoms, floated a tiered veil of illusion. The bride carried a cascade of stephanotis and frenched carnations centered with white orchids and showered with white satin.

ATTENDANTS

Elizabeth Towles of Houston attended the bride as maid of honor; bridesmaids were Kathleen Thomas, LaVerne Carter and Shirley Terry.

Frooked identically, the attendants wore peau de soie in emerald shade with puffed sleeves, scoop necks and peplum overskirts. Their headresses were emerald and they carried nosegays of white asters with showers of satin.

Michael Musgrove was best man, and groomsmen were Jerry Barron, Milton Davis and Ronnie King of Vealmoor. Ushers were Dick Ebling, brother of the bride; Kenneth Dees and Ricky Terry of Midland.

In the parlor of the church, the couple's mothers helped them receive greetings from guests; also in the line were the bride's attendants.

Silk organza, embroidered in a flower design covered the table, which was centered with a single five-branched candelabrum twined with smilax and white carnations.

A wedding cake in three tiers was based in a net ruffle; scalloped in clover leaf pattern, the cake was frosted with roses and wedding bells.

At the bride's book was Judi Shields; others in the house party were Mrs. King, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. A. O. Vanderford.

WEDDING TRIP

A suit of dark green tweed with brown accessories was the choice of the bride for the wedding trip to points in New Mexico; her bag and shoes were of lizard.

The couple will be at home at 410 Bell when they return; the bridegroom, who is employed by Cosden Petroleum Corp., is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College; he received a degree in chemical engineering from the University of Florida; he is a member of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

Also a graduate of BSHS, the bride attended the University of Texas for two years and is a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority.

Coming from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Ebling and sons of Kansas City, Kan.; Mrs. Deer, Mrs. Nora Woodward of Pawhuska, Okla.; Mrs. E. E. Ebling and Mary Jean Ebling of Lindsborg, Kan., grandmother and cousin, respectively, of the bride, and Ester Norberg, also of Lindsborg, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindemoode of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Autry of Franklin City.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mrs. Covert was hostess for the rehearsal dinner given Friday evening in the Blue Room at Cosden Country Club.

Place cards with silver etching marked places for 24 and matched the center arrangement of greenery with silver inserts and white blossoms. Gifts were presented to their attendants by the couple at this time.

Go To Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Champ Rainwater 716 Hillside, left Friday for Woodward, Okla., where they were to attend the wedding of their nephew, Charles Lovett, and Dana Gaston Saturday evening. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lovett of Muskogee, Okla., the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Gaston of Woodward.

Phillips-Hair Ritual Read

Jan Lois Hair, Dallas, became the bride of Hal Wesley Phillips Saturday evening in a double ring ceremony at the Highland Park Methodist Church in Dallas. The wedding was performed in Cox Chapel by the Rev. William A. Holmes.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bernays, Dallas. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Phillips, 1702 Harvard.

Decorating the chapel were two urns of white flowers and candles. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. William Ligon at the organ. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in the wedding dress of her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Raynor Jr., who served as the matron of honor. The gown was of silk peau de soie appliqued with Alencon lace encrusted with crystals, pearls and beads. The fitted bodice had a bateau neckline, and the skirt fell in a chapel train.

A crown of pearls held the fingertip veil of silk illusion, and the bride carried a nosegay of white roses and stephanotis. Serving as bridesmaids were Frances Salyer and Mary Luan Phillips, sister of the bridegroom, both of Big Spring; and Lana Sue Frizel, Dallas.

Doyle Phillips, brother of the bridegroom, was best man; ushers were Joe Bob Clendennin and Thomas Phillips, brother of the bridegroom, both of Big Spring; Lynn Clayton, Oklahoma City, Okla., and Edgar Phillips, cousin of the bridegroom, Big Spring.

Lila Katherine Phillips, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl, while her brother, Nathan Lee Phillips, acted as ring bearer.

For a wedding trip to Monterey, Mexico, the bride chose a lilac silk suit with a pink lavender blouse and champagne accessories.

Upon their return, the couple will make their home in Big Spring, where Mrs. Phillips will continue her studies at Howard County Junior College as a sophomore.

A graduate of North Dallas High School, she was elected sweetheart of Sigma Delta Phi fraternity in her freshman year at the college. The bridegroom is a 1961 graduate of the junior college.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 3612 Colgate, Dallas. Receiving guests in addition to the bride and groom were the parents of both and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. T. E. Bullock, Dallas.

A white beribboned net cloth covered the refreshment table, and placed on either side of the four-tiered cake held by columns with wedding bells on top were white stock and gladioli.

Mrs. Jean Marion Bullock, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the register. Members of the houseparty included Mrs. Edgar Phillips, Big Spring, and Janie Richards, Dallas.

Legro-Yates Vows Are Exchanged In Houston

Mr. and Mrs. Monta K. Legro will make a home in Austin following their marriage Friday evening in Bethany Methodist Church, Houston.

The bride is the former Donna Lee Yates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Yates Jr. of McCamery, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Yates, P.O. Johnson. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne L. Legro of Houston. The Yateases formerly lived in Big Spring.

Background for the bridal party was the white marble altar of the church with a cross hanging from above; twin spiral arrangements of lily of the valley and shasta daisies and two tall candelabra, each holding a single white taper completed the setting.

Double ring vows were taken before the Rev. Harry Holmes, pastor of the church.

Paul Ofield, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and "O. Perfect Love" at the entrance of the mothers of the couple; accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Ofield, he sang "The Wedding Benediction," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bridal gown had been designed and made by the mother of the bride, who was given in marriage by her father.

Of gardenia white satin, the dress was made on princess lines with the decollete neckline applied with lace scallops sprinkled with seed pearls; brief sleeves were finished in a similar manner and lace medallions extended to the hem of the front panel in the skirt featuring a bustle effect and unpressed pleats which spread into a train. Hand-made roses of satin marked the waistline.

A tiara of lace and pearls held the fingertip veil of illusion, and the bridal bouquet was of orchids and stephanotis cascaded with satin streamers.

Mrs. George Richards of Dallas was matron of honor; bridesmaids were Barbara Buchanan of San Antonio; Ann Howard of Dallas and Peggy Lee of Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania.

Maize organza frocks were chosen by the attendants, who wore pillbox hats with roses of the organza on the tops. Sleeves were puffed and skirts were bouffant. Bouquets were cascade arrangements of fuji mums and shasta daisies with satin streamers.

L. Stanley Legro of Ocean-side, Calif., served his brother as best man. Ushers were L. James E. Payne of San Antonio; Mike Kirkpatrick and Jimmy Fogel of Houston; Donald Bray of Mineola; George Richards and Dennis Beach, both of Dallas; Warren Turner of New Braunfels. Beach and Turner also served as taper lighters.

The church parlor was the setting for the reception which followed the wedding; Mrs. Yates, with the parents of the bridegroom, the couple and the bride's attendants received guests.

White net over tulle covered the table, which was decorated with two three-branch candelabra and an arrangement of fuji mums and daisies. A three-tiered cake was frosted in yellow and white and was topped with a miniature bridal couple.

At the register was Mrs. Winston Atkins; others in the house party were Mrs. Carter Chase, Mrs. Fred Allgair, Joan Bar-nore, Carolyn McCabe, Dianne Hodge, Jane Malone and Dolores McClain.

The wedding trip will take the pair to Monterrey, Mexico; for traveling, the bride chose a linen suit and hat in shaded tones of pink, with black patent accessories, and she wore the orchid from her bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Legro are 1961 graduates of Southern Methodist University; the bride was a member of Mortar Board and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority and was president of Texas Student Education Association. She will be a teacher in the Austin schools this fall.

The bridegroom, who will attend law school at the University of Texas, was given the "M" award at SMU and was named in Rotunda Salutes for Loyalty. He is a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity.

DIANNE FISHER

Miss Fisher To Be Wed

The betrothal of Dianne Fisher, 606 Scurry, to Lt. Roger William Foote, Webb AFB, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ashley of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Dr. and Mrs. Perry Albert Foote of Gainesville, Fla.

The bride-elect, who has been employed this summer at Malone-Hogan Hospital Foundation, will re-enter the University of Florida this fall, where she will be a senior student in the College of Nursing. The couple will be married upon her graduation in June, 1962.

Miss Fisher is a member of the Mortar Board, Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic sorority, Delta Gamma, social sorority, and is president of the Women's Student Association.

Lt. Foote is a 1960 graduate of the University of Florida and holds a degree in industrial engineering; he was in the Aug. 4, 1961 class of graduates in pilot training at Webb AFB and has been assigned to Perrin AFB, ATC, F-102 Pilot Training.

At the university, he was a member of Arnold Air Society, an honorary association, and served as undergraduate assistant in physics.

Andersons Visit In Weatherford winning door prizes were Mrs. Paul Taylor, Mrs. W. C. Holcomb and Mrs. Robert Sapp.

Lt. and Mrs. W. L. Hugo Jr. are expecting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hugo of Upper Darby, Pa., this week.

The OWC held its August bridge session Thursday at the Officers' Club. Winning first were Mrs. M. H. Williams and Mrs. H. V. Lindsey. Second was won by Mrs. Ray Council and Mrs. Glen Fletcher while third place went to Mrs. Leo Hicks and Mrs. Charles Skelton.

Taking fourth were Mrs. Arons and Mrs. Paul Lee.

Pilot Training Group sponsored the affair, with Mrs. F. G. Routen as chairman and Mrs. Hicks and Mrs. Skelton assisting. M&S and Civil Eng. will sponsor the September party.

MRS. CURTIS ALLEN

Pair Weds In Sand Springs

Before an arch of huckleberry centered with an arrangement of white gladioli and graced with palms on each side, Rita Ann Herbert and Curtis Allen took their wedding vows in the Sand Springs Baptist Church, Friday evening.

The Rev. Bill Irwin, pastor of the church, read the twin ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John J. Herbert and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Allen, all of Rt. 1.

Yvonne Knous, pianist, played nuptial music throughout the ritual; preceding the ceremony, she accompanied Patsy Greenfield as she sang "O, Promise Me".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a dress which had been made by her aunt, Mrs. D. R. Seward; of powder blue lace, the dress was pipled at the scalloped neckline and on the sleeves with satin. A veil of blue illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls with tear-drop pearls circling it; she wore a blue garter, the gift of her aunt, and a pearl necklace which was her great-grandmother's.

Garlands of white frenched carnations with a Japette orchid made the bridal bouquet.

Attending as maid of honor, Carla Seward, a cousin of the bride, wore white tulle with a wide sash of blue and a hat of white flowers. The bridesmaid was Phyllis Herbert, sister of the bride; her dress was trimmed with pink and she wore a pink flower hat.

Their flowers were white carnations in corsage.

Weldon Weaver of Coahoma was best man; Eddie Allen, Sam Kerby and Johnny Prentzas were ushers.

A reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Smith honored the couple, with guests registered by Frances Allen, sister of the bridegroom.

Blue and white were featured on the bride's table, laid with lace, and holding candles in blue hobnail candlesticks. A three-tiered cake with a bridal figurine on top was placed in the center of a heart decorated with ribbons and flowers with tiny wedding bells.

Attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Allen and son and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Warren, all of Crane; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Ogle Tyler, all of Odessa.

On a trip to Red River, N. M., the bride wore a white nylon jersey frock with pleated skirt and blue chiffon scarf; her accessories were blue.

Upon their return they will make a home at 1511 Main. The bride attended Big Spring and Coahoma schools; her husband attended the Coahoma Schools and is employed by Kountz Drilling Co., Big Spring.

Ackerly Church Scene Of Talkington-Adams Rites

The Ackerly Baptist Church was the setting for the exchange of twin-ring vows, Saturday evening, when Sandra Adams became the bride of Kenneth Max Talkington.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Adams of Ackerly, Mrs. W. I. Talkington of Tyler, and the late Mr. Talkington.

A sunburst arrangement of white chrysanthemums centered the altar with smaller groupings on each side; palms and wedding tapers completed the setting before which the Rev. J. D. Mabry read the marriage ritual.

By Pyron of Tyler; Don Hunt and Wayne Isom, both of Lubbock. Ushers were Bryan Adams, brother of the bride; Bill Worley of Midland and Benny Lawrence of Amarillo.

Tapers were lighted by Dorothy and Shirley Williams; dressed as the bride's attendants, they wore wrist corsages of blue carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception took place at the home of the bride's parents; the couple, their parents and the feminine attendants greeted guests.

BRIDE'S TABLE

Silk organza over satin covered the bride's table, which held a miniature bridal couple in the center. The bride's parents, the couple, their parents and the feminine attendants greeted guests.

Bells decorated the three-tiered cake topped with three white satin bells and based in a white net ruffe.

At the register was Neva Jackson, assisting with the houseparty duties were Mrs. Dub Grigg, Kay Dyer, Mrs. Elmer Dyer, Mrs. Covie Williams, Sondi Nelson of Waco, Mrs. Eugene Clanton, Mrs. Bob Roberts and Jeanine Cagle.

For a wedding trip to Red River, N.M., the bride chose a suit

NCO Wives Honor Mrs. Eisenhart

Mrs. Donald W. Eisenhart was honored recently at a farewell party given by the NCO Wives at the NCO Club; she has been the club advisor for the past two years.

Mrs. Eisenhart was presented with a white orchid corsage and was given a chafing dish as a memento. Mrs. Jack C. Price, wife of the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron's commander, also received a corsage.

The table decoration was a centerpiece of red roses and dogwood blooms in silver. The evening included a "crazy bridge" session—first prize going to Mrs. James Wilson, and the "perseverance prize" to Mrs. Eisenhart. Hostesses were Mrs. Kenneth Cleveland and Mrs. Harold Butler.

MR. AND MRS. O. R. SMITH

O. R. Smiths Mark Anniversary Today

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Smith are celebrating their Golden Wedding anniversary today, and all but one of their children will be here to share the occasion with them.

Most brides change names at marriage, but not in this case. Before her wedding, Mrs. Smith was Annie Eula Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Smith of Knott. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith.

The couple had been going together about three years before they were married at 7 a.m. Aug. 20, 1911, at her parents' home at Knott by the Rev. J. F. Wood, Baptist associational missionary.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith started out right—they got in their buggy and drove three miles to church. There was no honeymoon, and they pitched right in and started making a home on a farm. After four years they moved into Dawson County for a year, then returned to Howard County and farmed near Knott, and also in Martin County, until about 14 years ago when they moved to Big Spring. Mr. Smith is now retired.

All the family will attend church today at Airport Baptist Church, where Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Smith are members. Afterwards, they will have dinner at the Wagon Wheel Restaurant, then spend the afternoon at the Smiths' home at 608 State Street.

Six children were born to the couple, and all are living. Robert Smith and Harmon Smith live in Big Spring; Mrs. Thulo Grissam in Hopewell, Va.; Norris Smith in Stamford; Mrs. Elgin Jones in Odessa; and Howard Smith in Denver, Colo.

There are 12 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Mrs. Grissam and family visited here in July and will be unable to be here today for the celebration.

Lawettes Have Supper And Games

Cards and dominoes entertained members of the Lawettes, Friday evening, following a salad supper in the home of Mrs. E. J. Banks.

Hostesses with Mrs. Banks were Mrs. Lindy Oldfield, Mrs. Walter Eubanks, Mrs. Sam Roberts, Mrs. Pam Hamill and Mrs. Bill Whitten.

Mrs. Travis Steele was welcomed as a new member.

The group voted to serve cookies at the Big Spring State Hospital two days in November, the dates to be announced.

Hostesses and the date for the September party of the club will be decided later, it was announced.

Zinns At Home On Wood Street

Dr. and Mrs. Houston J. Zinn are making a home at 1512 A Wood, following their marriage in Lovington, N. M., Aug. 4.

The bride is the former Bee Hickman; the couple was married by a Rev. Beauchamp, Methodist minister of Lovington, with no attendants.

A wedding trip included visits in Ruidoso, N. M., and Las Vegas, Nev.

Both are on the staff at the VA hospital.

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

SECTION D BIG SPRING, TEXAS, SUNDAY, AUGUST 20, 1961 SECTION D

Big Year: Agent Forecasts 45,000 Bale Cotton Crop

By SAM BLACKBURN
Jimmy Taylor, county farm agent, whose guesses in other years have been close to the official final score, predicts the 1961 cotton crop in this county will hit 45,000 bales.

GOOD FOR A BALE TO THE ACRE!
G. W. Webb looks over promising crop Northwest of town

"I can beat that," said Taylor, who added that the fields are in excellent condition, the cotton flourishing and the crop well enough along that it is reasonably safe from possible disaster. Last year's crop was 43,630 bales—a record crop for the county.

This year, Taylor points out, there are more acres in cotton than in 1960 and the crop in general is better. There has been an absence of insect pests to a degree that has amazed growers. There has been enough rain fairly close to the best possible times. Hail and other elements have passed the county by. Even jack-rabbits, which were a major menace last year, have not appeared on the scene.

BALE TO ACRE
There was a lot of cotton in 1960 which made a bale an acre. This year's crop at this time promises to do even better.

The first Howard County bale of 1961 cotton could show up nearly any day, Taylor said. There are spotted areas over the county where some cotton is open. Gins are revving up and getting in shape. However, no one who has been studying the picture seems to look for any grand rush of cotton until late in September or later.

There are 83,000 acres of Howard County farm land sowed to cotton this year which is considerably more than was planted to the crop in 1960.

Taylor is estimating that the crop, across the board, will average better than half a bale to the acre. He looks for a great many fields to beat that. Hence, his estimate of 45,000 bales.

Most cotton authorities are inclined to agree with Taylor. They all say this is "the year"—that there is not now any reason why cotton shouldn't hang up an all time record per acre.

FRUITING WELL
"Cotton is fruiting the best I have ever seen it," Taylor said. "I was in one field of irrigated cotton last week which had plants towering even feet high."

The one worry which is besetting the growers is the increased prevalence of angular leaf spot. This disease, for which there is no remedy, showed up first in local irrigated fields about two years ago.

This season it has spread rapidly to invade the dryland cotton. The pest attacks the leaves and denudes the plant.

Taylor said relatively few cases have arisen where poisoning was needed for leafhoppers, bollworms or other cotton insects.

"We have been freer this year of insect troubles than in any other year," he said.

Cotton is the major crop in the county and grain sorghums are second crop. This year, there are fewer acres planted to the sorghums than were planted in 1960. Around 60,000 acres are in grain and it is estimated that the fields should yield around 1,200 pounds to the acre. Many fields will exceed that production.

LATE FEED
The feed crop is late and rain would help it tremendously. It is debatable, though, if any benefit would derive to the cotton from rains at this time. The hot dry weather is accelerating the fruiting of the cotton.

Last year's state crop of grain was more than 13 billion pounds. Howard County will probably produce around 72 million pounds of harvested grain this season. Bulk of the grain raised in this area goes to north and west to breweries.

The price of grain at the present time is $1.60 per hundred pounds which is about 20 cents higher than it was last year. A scattering harvest of grain has begun but buyers said that the early loads are wet and still a little green.

LESS ACREAGE
The bulk of the grain harvest will be in October.

Many farmers reduced their grain acreage this year and Taylor said he had never before seen so many peas planted. Most of these are planted for soil improvement although some will be used as forage.

Farmers this year went in largely for home gardens with highly gratifying results. Blackeye peas were exceptionally good.

The county agent's office has had more requests this year for official bulletins on how to can produce than in many years.

Pastures are much improved due to the abundant rains. Ranchers have one bad problem—there are more screwworms than in many years. Ranchers are having a hard time controlling this pest.

From border to border, reports have it, all crops are good. Fields are flourishing. Pastures are the greenest they have been in many years.

This should be the "big" year that farmers have been awaiting. Bigger and better, even, than last year.

Shelters Included In Defense Fund

WASHINGTON (AP)—A peacetime record $46,622,356,000 military appropriation bill, including funds to start a nationwide system of air raid shelters, has been signed by President Kennedy.

It includes about $3.5 billion in emergency funds which Kennedy asked last month to build up both the manpower and the equipment of the armed forces, and another billion to continue production and development of long-range jet bombers.

Tossed into the military money bill for the first time was an allotment of $7.6 million to start work on Civil Defense projects, including eventual construction of fallout shelters in post offices and other federal buildings throughout the country. The money could be used also to purchase food, medical supplies and other emergency equipment.

FIRST VISIT HERE IN 62 YEARS
Mrs. Edward Bucher spots lot she owns

Early Developer's Daughter Visits Her Native Town

Way back in 1892, William Yancey Tennyson, then bookkeeper for Bessie Bros., big store, tried his hand as real estate developer. He acquired a tract of land on the east side of the village of Big Spring, laid it out in lots and dubbed it the Tennyson Addition.

Ultimately, he disposed of the land until he retained title to only one lot—a triangular shaped tract, 13.56 feet by 53.10 feet, located at the corner of Benton and the Stockpans Road. Why he held on to that one lot is unknown now.

Sometime around 1899, Tennyson and his family decided to move from Big Spring. They made the move reluctantly for Tennyson, a true pioneer of the community, had first come here in early 1880's. He and his family moved to Ponca City, Okla.

Friday, Mrs. Edward Bucher, 1905 E. Park Place, Oklahoma City, came to Big Spring where she was born. She conferred with Miss Andrea Walker, of the Howard County Abstract Co.

"I HAVE A LOT"
"I think," she said, "I have a lot in Big Spring and I would like to locate it and clear up any thing about it that needs clearing up."

"I am the daughter of William Yancey Tennyson. He kept one lot in the Tennyson Addition and I have inherited it from my father."

The upshot was that the lot was located on the records. It was still in the name of William Yancey Tennyson and taxes were up to date. It seems that a property owners adjacent to it—the heirs of George Rice—kept the taxes paid under the impression it was a part of the Rice Estate.

The lot is vacant. Officially it is Lot 8, Block 9, Tennyson addition.

It was the first time Mrs. Bucher, a retired school teacher, has been in Big Spring since she left in 1899. There were three Tennyson children—Mrs. Bucher, Miss Isla Beall Tennyson, now deceased, and Harry Langley Tennyson, who lives on the West Coast.

"We lived about where the Ritz theatre building is now," said Mrs. Bucher. "My father worked for the Bessie store which was

Policemen Will Attend Seminar On Auto Theft

Patrolmen Josh Messenger and Robert E. Dugan, of the Big Spring Police Department, will attend the 9th Annual International Auto Theft Investigation Seminar at SMU, Dallas, Aug. 28-31.

Chief E. J. Banks said Friday that sending the men to the seminar, at which top men in investigation and enforcement will speak, was a part of the continuous program of keeping the department abreast the latest methods in police work.

Featured at the seminar will be talks, some illustrated, on investigation tips and techniques, prosecution, legal arrests, statements, admissibility of evidence and court decisions, testifying as a witness, auto theft and law enforcement's responsibilities during these changing times.

Some of the featured men on the programs will be Curtis Lynn, special agent in charge, FBI, Dallas; Lon Evans, Tarrant County Sheriff, William Hughes, assistant U. S. District attorney.

Testing Rates Pupil, May Measure Teaching

By JOE BEYER
The standardized testing program used in Big Spring elementary schools has a dual purpose—to help the student and to help the teacher.

The program provides objective test data about individual students and groups of students and can be used by teachers to aid in determining areas of strength or weakness in ability and achievement.

In testing local elementary grade children during the past two years, the Kuhlmann-Anderson Intelligence test was used, according to Mary Foreman, elementary counselor. This is a group intelligence test and where individual testing was carried out, the more accurate Wechsler Intelligence Scale for Children or the Stanford-Binet Intelligence Scale were used.

"Even though an IQ test is only an approximation of a child's mental ability, it can be of considerable value to the teacher," Miss Foreman said. "The teacher can see if the student is doing the job he is capable of, and, if not, find out the reasons for the inconsistency."

TEST BENEFITS
She pointed out three general benefits the tests furnish teachers.

1. The teacher can see where the children in her class stand relative to others in the school and can see if they are progressing as they should.

2. The results are useful for group children according to ability. The range of subject material at a specific time can be adapted to the limitations of the students and need not be spread too wide to meet requirements of both the extremely slow and extremely quick.

3. The teacher and administrator can see how the children progress. Both can know if the teacher is doing the job, or if improvements need to be made.

GUIDE OF EXPECTATION
Parents benefit from the program by learning what they can reasonably expect from their children. If progress does not meet capabilities, the cause can be determined.

"Parents should be told the results of testing," Miss Foreman said, "but they should be told in such a way that they understand the real meaning of the score and can use it to help the children."

"Expecting too much from even a gifted child can stifle the child's development," she said. "If a child is below standard in ability, parents should not expect more from the child than he or she is capable of accomplishing."

Even so, too much emphasis should not be placed on the tests because they are only crude indicators until about the fourth or fifth year of school, she pointed out. There are many factors which affect the test score and only if the results are consistent for several years can they be considered reliable with any degree of assurance. Environment, home life, training and language knowledge play an important role in determining what the person will accomplish with given capabilities.

COMPARISONS LATER
Since the general summaries of standardized testing programs are available only as far back as 1959, the academic progress made by our school system cannot yet be determined.

Among results turned up by the testing has been a comparison of Big Spring School Children to national norms.

The Kuhlmann-Anderson tests indicate that Big Spring children are below national norms by 2.5

per cent in the very superior category; below by 1.9 per cent in the superior class; above by 7.1 per cent in the Bright-Normal class; below by .6 per cent in the Average class; below by 2.5 per cent in the Dull Normal class; above by .5 per cent in the borderline cases, and below by .1 per cent in the Mental Defective class.

This shows there is a wide range in intelligence quotients among pupils enrolled in the grades levels tested, and hence the program needs to be flexible and adaptable to the wide range of needs. It reflects that our children attending school are essentially normal by national standards, according to Miss Foreman.

Achievement tests given in 1959-60 and 1960-61 give the initial information needed to compare progress of students. Since our students are virtually normal by national standards, they should be expected to be normal in achievement if the teaching is up to par. One of the facts revealed by the Metropolitan Achievement Tests is that added emphasis needs to be placed upon the reading program in our schools.

"We are only beginning to make use of this valuable tool in educating our children," Miss Foreman said. "In a few years we will know still more accurately where we can improve our instruction for the betterment of the pupils."

A light agenda is scheduled for the city commission meeting at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday unless additional requests are made before the meeting date.

Bids will be read and considered for the purchase of three new automobiles for the police department. One of the new cars will be an outright purchase and the other two will have trade-ins considered.

An ordinance regulating wrecker service within the Big Spring city limits will be read and considered. Provisions of such ordinance were discussed at the July meetings, and features agreed upon will be covered in the new draft to be read. If approved, the ordinance may be adopted at the meeting.

The second reading of an ordinance amending the zoning ordinance changing the Cole property in Southeast Big Spring from a 1F-2 residential district to a Planned District for the purpose of creating a housing development will be considered. The area is bounded on the north by Middle Acres Addition, on the east by Donley Street extended, on the south by undeveloped land, and on the west by Mittel Ave.

Kiwanis Panel Sets Session

The safety committee of the Big Spring Kiwanis Club, with E. J. Banks as chairman, has called a briefing session at the police classroom at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 24.

A film on how to prevent child molestation will be shown to representatives of newspapers, radio and television stations, schools, juvenile officer, sheriff's office, WAFB provost marshal and the legal office, and the city-county health office. Pamphlets, designed along the lines of comic books, will also be available for school children from the first through the sixth grades.

The film, which shows some of the signs leading up to child molestation, is about 15 minutes long.

The Kiwanis committee is inviting ideas and helps in getting parents to inform their children about how to prevent falling into the hands of molesters, and how to make parents aware of the possibilities of danger to their children.

The film is in charge of Bo Bowen, county health nurse, and will be available for showing to groups of parents.

"The Kiwanis club is interested in getting parents aware of the growing tendency toward child molestation," Banks said, "and in getting them to be more frank in advising their children about what could happen to them."

Others on the committee are Stanley Tropashka, John Stanley Jr. and Billie R. Watson.

Airport Experiences Some Of Its Heaviest Traffic Flow

Air traffic through Howard County Airport has been exceptionally heavy for the past two weeks. Ted McClung, manager, said Thursday.

"There have been as many as 70 to 100 operations a day," McClung said. "A heavy load of transient traffic has gone through with pilots stop for gas or weather reports. We have also had a heavy run of student work, and ownership by locals. The weather has been ideal for all kinds of flying, and it has been a big help."

The run-up pads will enable an airplane to stay off the runway while warming up so that other craft may land or take off. The island, when paved, will provide approximately 38,000 square feet of space for parking airplanes. Additional runway lights will have to be installed, and some of those now in use will have to be moved. The run-up pads will also provide room for heavier aircraft to make a 360-degree turn which is impossible now on the runways.

A recent report of the runways on the San Angelo airport breaking up brings up the fact that they were built during World War II and in subsequent years have had a lot of aircraft far heavier than anticipated.

The Howard County Airport runways, now in their third year, are in excellent condition, McClung said.

"We have a heavy caliche base under asphalt, and clay under the caliche," he said. "Outside of tire marks, to be found on the runways, there is no sign of deterioration."

The Flying Farmers are holding their annual meeting in Colorado this year, and around 15 of them stopped in at Howard County on their way up. A Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm, from South Dakota, stopped by en route to visit friends in Big Spring.

Four members of the pulp committee of the First Baptist Church, took off at 10 a.m. last Saturday, piloted by Dr. P. W. Malone, and returned at 8:30 p.m. Sunday. Others in the party were Lonnie Coker, Merrill Creighton, and Zack Gray. They flew first to Wheeler, then to Memphis, Tenn., to Rome, Ga., to Shreveport, La., and back to Big Spring, approximately 2,400 air miles in 14 hours flying time.

Other trips made by local pilots included: Kasch Brothers made trips to Andrews and Wichita Falls, Midland and Andrews, Snyder, Wichita Falls twice, and to Lubbock; George Peacock Jr. to College Station and Beaumont last weekend; Don Williams and Ted McClung to Lubbock, Amarillo and Borger Wednesday.

Cosden's airplanes have been on several trips; J. R. Henderson to Midland and Quanah; Hayes Bryan, wife and baby, to Plainview over the weekend; and Dr. M. W. Talbot Jr. to Louisiana.

Local flying was done by Lt. and Mrs. Bill Largent, Gene Bernal, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Lutting, Clayton Beddie, Bert Andries, Mr. B. Broadrick, Joe Clark, J. Letcowitz, Jack Lewis, Jimmie D. Jones, and Roy Merworth.

Member Of First Jet Class At Webb Assigned Here

Happy to be back in "the south 40" after a tour in Anchorage, Alaska at Elmendorf AFB are Captain Richard L. Davis, and Captain Samuel P. Brooks.

Capt. Davis has the distinction of being a member of the first jet training class that was conducted at Webb AFB. He won his wings here in June 1952, shortly after the base was reactivated.

In October 1952, after completing combat crew training at Nellis AFB, Nev., Capt. Davis joined the 334th FIS at Kimpo Korea. He flew 100 combat missions in the F-86 "Saberjet" and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters.

Upon returning to the States he instructed in the F-86D at Tyndall AFB, Florida, for three and half years and then was assigned to the 31st FIS at Oscoda, Michigan. He remained with the 31st when it moved to Elmendorf AFB, Alaska, and when it deactivated became a member of the 317th FIS until his present assignment to the Webb AFB.

Capt. Brooks won his wings at Greenville AFB, Mississippi, in October 1953 and completed Advanced Interceptor Training at Perrin AFB, Texas. His first tactical assignment was with the 31st FIS at Oscoda, Mich., and he too remained with the squadron during its move to Alaska.

Both are skillful F-102A pilots, they each have flown over 700 hours in the "Delta Dagger" and both hold the highest ADC rating of "Expert".

They are now residents of Webb Village with their families; Captain Brooks lives at 15A Albrook with his wife Louise and their children Robert, 6 and Susan, 5. Captain Davis resides at 88B East Drive with his wife Lois and their sons Donald, 7 and William, 4.

Trustees To Study Pay Distribution

A pay raise for teachers in the Big Spring Independent School District will be the subject of a special meeting of trustees called for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the administrative office, 109 E. 10th.

With the approval of an $810 increase in salaries by the state legislature, trustees must decide how much of this will be passed on to teachers.

The raise brings the basic salary to $4,014 for an inexperienced teacher with a bachelor's degree. At present the Big Spring district is paying $3,754 as the minimum salary. All which trustees are legally bound to pass on to teachers is $260.

"If we give teachers the entire $810 raise and bring our minimum salary to $4,564, we would be on a good competitive basis," Sam Anderson, superintendent, said.

However, some segments of the teaching profession were not included in the raise and if the increase in salaries is extended to all local teachers, the district will have to bear 100 per cent of the cost for those teachers instead of 20 per cent. Since the number of teachers for which a school system may receive state subsidy depends on the enrollment of the previous year, there are other teachers who would normally qualify, but must be carried as overages. The entire cost for these teachers would also have to be absorbed locally. Hence, the problem of how to slice the increase becomes a complex one.

The bill provides extra funds for maintenance, transportation, an assistant superintendent, principals and special service increments. These costs have already been allocated in the budget and for this year these funds could be used to give teachers a raise even if they are not covered by the bill.

Robert Blum Is Area IBM Chief

Robert J. Blum has been promoted to resident manager of the Midland IBM office, according to an announcement from C. B. Hanson Jr., Lubbock branch manager.

Blum, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blum, 609 George, was reared here and is a graduate of Big Spring High School.

Size of the Midland office had doubled in the past five years, said P. W. Melitz, district manager at Dallas. Blum will assume responsibility for sales and community relations of the company in the Permian Basin area and in San Angelo.

TOWER SAVES ORPHANS IN TYPHOON DISASTER!

True Friend Island, a mission home for homeless South Korean boys, was directly in the path of Typhoon Sarah. To escape it, 200 children and many workers huddled for hours in a recently erected escape tower—and lived. The livestock and every other building in the area were completely washed away.

This life-saving tower, part of a settlement built expressly for the care of homeless youngsters, is the direct result of Americans supporting the Overseas Aid Program of their faith. While this particular endeavor is Protestant, all three great faiths—Protestant, Catholic, Jewish—maintain far-reaching programs. They provide clothing, food, medicine, jobs, education, tools and equipment to the millions in need.

These overseas programs must continue. They often provide the only hope to indigent millions. And they need your support.

Remember, it is the generosity of those like yourself that offers new hope where none now exists.

Scottish Rite Group Meets

The Scottish Rite Association Friday evening held its first social affair since chartering last April.

Thirty-three guests were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil D. McDonald at 608 Washington.

Among the out-of-town guests taking part were Judge O. L. Sims, San Angelo, regarded as "Mr. Masonry" in Texas; Dr. Perry C. Byers, potentate of the Suez Temple, and Mrs. Byers of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Berl Godfrey, San Angelo. Godfrey is the Suez Temple recorder.

Dr. W. A. Hunt pronounced the invocation and William Vaughn the benediction. In charge of the affair was Henry D. Bewer, president of the new association.

Community Home For Elderly Is Proposed To Club

Bo Bowen, county health nurse, broached the idea of a home for senior citizens in a short talk made before members of the American Business Club at their regular luncheon Friday at the Settles Hotel.

The speaker contended that such a facility could be provided if Big Spring residents tackled the project with the same verve and enthusiasm that they displayed in building the Crippled Children's Center here.

Miss Bowen also extended thanks to the club and its members for the part they played in building the center and helping reopen it recently.

She was introduced by Johnny Johnson, program chairman.

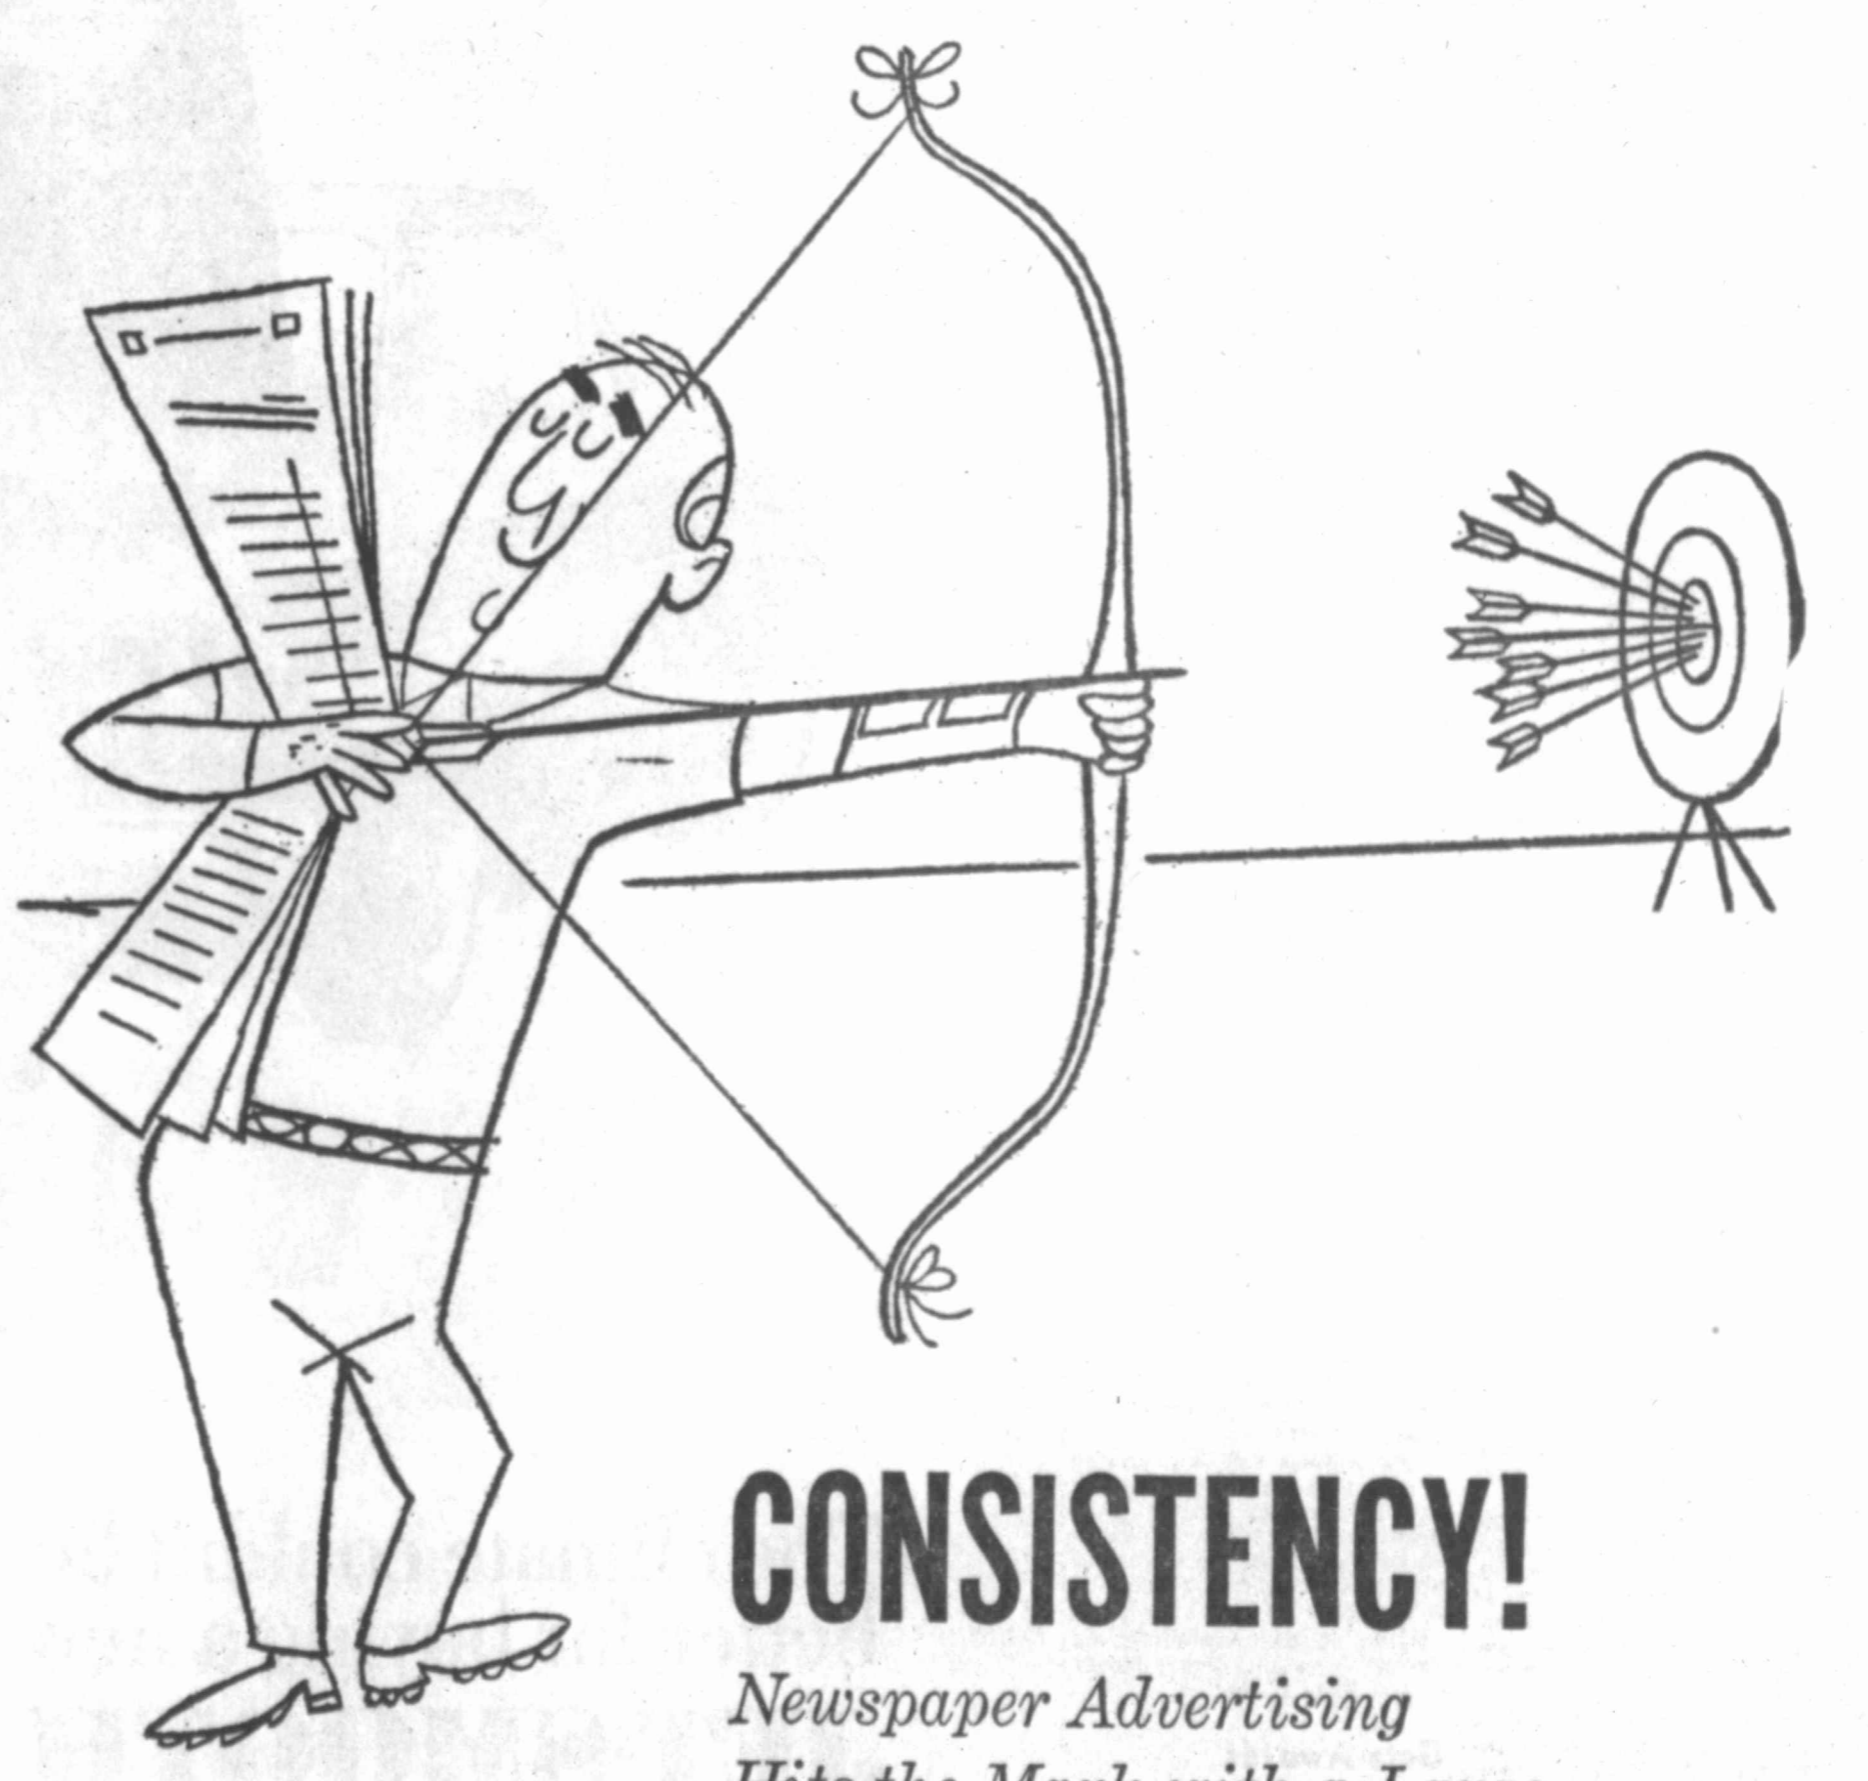

Among guests present was Ferrell Squyres of El Monte, Calif. Garner McAdams, newly seated president of the club, appealed to club members to take their assignments to various committees seriously.

"The only justification for the existence of our club is the good we can do for our community," he reminded the gathering.

Donald L. Hitchcock, operator of the Travelodge here, was introduced as a new member.

Led by a magical monkey

Adventurers on the March... Led by a magical monkey... The Total scope and Color production was directed by Frank Ferraro.

Fans of Elvis Presley will be interested to know that his latest picture, "Wild in the Country," will be back for another showing this week through Wednesday at six p.m.

Elvis portrays a special young man who has several fantasies with his girl, and not necessarily in country.

The Saturday 10:30 Show will be "The Hound Dog Man," based on the story by Texas writer Fred Crockett. It is now among the class of his genre and will do the job of a world of good as well as be entertaining.

Hollywood has come up with a new type of book which is a combination of a novel and a picture book. It has separate chapters and pictures and being illustrated by the artist style.

Under the editor's eye, the editor obtains with most of the departments' editors and staff through review of the material for accuracy and truthfulness. The editor's job is to rewrite the material for clarity and readability.

The editor's job is to handle the material in the news books with the same care and attention as before. Hollywood has really been doing the same thing for more than the last 20 years.

ON THE SHELF

AP Westchester... THE BOWL OF THE MALINCHITE, By Sara Marchant, $2.95.

The author and her husband, an actor, spent a winter at Lake Malinche in the state of Mexico, making a documentary movie on the life of the Malinche.

The book is a must for anyone who is interested in the life of the Malinche, a woman who became a famous figure in the history of Mexico.

Mrs. Marchant has recorded a good many interesting things about the Malinche and the children who are the most important of her characters. Her writing style leaves something to be desired, but she succeeds in giving the reader a good idea of the Malinche.

The author's fellow dog lovers will enjoy this book, and that classification includes a good many readers.

THE BOOK OF JOE, By Joe Price, $2.95.

All the world loves a dog lover, they say, and author Price, author of "The Dog and the Boy," is no exception.

The hero of this small volume is Joe, a mutt about 14 years old, with a white patch on his face and a black patch on his chest.

Price's profession has kept him moving about a good deal, but he never has been without some pet to keep his attentions limber. Among them were a cat who was named on the front end and striped tiger on the rear end; his wife's poodles, who used Joe as a toilet; and assorted goldfish and birds. The story has a common theme: Joe's adventures.

Joe, however, has been his own master, and the reader will find him a bright Joe who was accused of causing a bicyclist to fall and break a collar bone, but when Joe had his day in court he won a non-culpable victory.

The author's fellow dog lovers will enjoy this book, and that classification includes a good many readers.

Sales Tax May Boost Cost Of Buildings

The cost of homes, office buildings, and other construction projects will go up in Texas after Sept. 1. All this has been brought about as a result of the state sales tax passed by the called session of the legislature.

Interpretation of the new law calls for coverage of building materials such as lumber, nails, brick, glass, etc., as well as the tools used by the contractor, in the tax. Building materials are considered as a consumer item for the contractor. The builder will be forced to pass along his increased material costs when he figures on the project.

However, the finished product—a home or other building—will not be taxed when sold, as real estate is exempt.

"General contractors will figure in the tax on their bids on new projects after Sept. 1," H. M. Jones, managing director of the Dallas chapter of the Associated General Contractors, said.

SEPT. 1 CUT-OFF

"However, according to an interpretation we have received, the tax will not apply for materials on contracts that have already been awarded or are under negotiation.

"For jobs now underway, or awarded before the Sept. 1 deadline, the contractor can obtain a certificate of exemption from the State Comptroller's office," Jones said.

This certificate will enable contractors to buy future building materials for a job now underway without paying the tax.

In some cases, such as large office buildings or plants, the contractor might use his certificate of exemption for two or three years, or for as long as it takes to complete a specific project.

Since building materials generally account for 50 per cent or more of the cost of a structure, the tax would have raised the cost of building in Big Spring last year by well over $31,000.

ON TO CONSUMER

In the home construction area many builders are not sure what effect the new tax will have on the price of homes. Most of them assume the tax will be passed on to the buyers in the form of higher priced houses. In the average $13,000 home the tax will probably raise the price by $175 to $200.

Paul Kasch, with A. P. Kasch & Sons, contractors of big projects over the state, said that the added cost, of the tax on materials, would be included in the bid price.

"On some of these it will run into a good many dollars and pennies," he said, "but in some instances also, the labor cost will be heavier than material costs. A lot depends upon the type construction and the amount of time required for installation of tedious materials and appliances."

Members of the Associated General Contractors of America have been briefed on handling the sales tax on materials, and on what to do about materials for construction started before Sept. 1.

Elevator Gives Lad Yo-Yo Ride

AUSTIN (AP) — A harrowing "yo-yo" ride up and down an Austin shaft battered an Austin youth.

Monroe Porter, 17, told detectives he was sweeping the bottom of the elevator shaft in the Perry-Brooks building when a cable snagged his shirt.

A 12-story ride under the elevator banged and bumped him to the top and back again. He is in fair condition at a hospital. He had a possible spine fracture and multiple head cuts.

Scraping against the side of the shaft, the boy fell free as the elevator descended past the second floor.

He caught on a narrow ledge and was trapped between the elevator and the shaft eight feet above the lobby floor. An engineer saved him.

Mayflower Given Packing Contract

The American Transfer and Storage Company, known as Mayflower, has been awarded the contract for packing and crating of household goods for the fiscal year 1962. Of the seven companies invited to submit bids, only two responded. The bid of the American was estimated at $18,710.00, while the only other bid received, according to Floyd Henderson, purchasing and contracting officer at Webb AFB, was $28,495.

Test Holes For Sewer Plant Sunk

Test holes were being drilled at the location for the $730,000 addition to the sewage treatment plant in East Big Spring Friday. Forrest and Cotton, consulting engineers, are having the tests made for completing plans on the new plant for footings and foundations.

The sewage treatment plant and elevated water storage tank for the business area are included in the 1962 capital improvement program under the Master Plan bond issue.

Bruce Dunn, director of public works, said Friday that the work was scheduled to begin early next year. The elevated storage tank cost is set up as $225,000, bringing the total estimate for both projects to $955,000.

PAVING WORK

Dunn also said that approximately 70 per cent of the 30 blocks of city streets scheduled for seal coating had been completed by noon Friday.

"As soon as we complete the street seal coating," Dunn said, "we will begin seal coating downtown alleys. These will be between Johnson and Gregg, and First to Fifth streets. Then we will go to the north side where we will begin stabilization of water ways and streets."

Weed cutting is still going on in the southwest part of town, Dunn said. When that area is completed crews will begin in the main part of town from Main Street east.

Fields Open In Navy Programs

The Navy recruiting station in the post office basement has announced openings in all of the Navy's high school graduate training program.

These include polaris, electronics, hospital, aviation, general and the musician fields. Under this program applicants are given qualification tests, and those who qualify, may select the field of their choice.

Emphasis is now being placed on enlistments for nuclear and polaris fields, these being the main source of qualified men to man the new atomic submarines for modern fleets. Recruiters noted that a man may enlist any time up to the day he receives his call to report for induction. This includes men who have had their pre-induction physical. If no call for induction has been received, he is free to enlist in the service of his choice.

Brownfield Man Named Counselor For Goliad

Lee J. Freeze, a former counselor at the Brownfield Junior High, has accepted a similar position in the Big Spring public schools, according to Sam M. Anderson, superintendent.

He will be a counselor at Goliad Junior High. Freeze has eight years experience, the last four being at Brownfield.

The counselor received a bachelor of science degree from Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Okla., and a master's degree from the University of Oklahoma. He has completed the 30-hour counselor certificate program at East Texas State College, Commerce, and has done advanced work at Texas Tech.

His wife, Ruseen, also a teacher in the Brownfield schools, will teach first grade here at Marcy Elementary School. She received a BS degree from Oklahoma College for Women, Chickasha, Okla., and MA in elementary education from the University of Oklahoma.

Freeze is a member of the Kiwanis Club and belongs to numerous professional organizations, including the National Education Association, Texas State Teachers Association and Texas Personnel and Guidance Association. He is presently chairman of the District XIII PGA.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeze have one son, J. Lee, age two. They are members of the Methodist Church.
