In the 1890s, a woman named J. M. Sparks was an active member of the order of the Eastern Star, a women's mystic society. Violet, her daughter, was a prominent member of the Eastern Star and also served as the secretary of the Midland Livestock Reporter, a journal dedicated to livestock news. Violet had a profound impact on her family and community, and she left behind a legacy that continues to inspire and uplift. Her dedication to her work and her family is a testament to her character and the values she held dear. Today, the Midland Livestock Reporter continues to serve as a valuable resource for the livestock industry, reflecting the strong tradition of excellence and innovation set by J. M. Sparks and Violet. Their contributions have left a lasting impact on the community and the industry as a whole.

You Must Sleep.

If you cannot, it is due to an irritated or congested state of the brain, which will soon disappear by proper medication.

Nature demands sleep, and it is a necessity for health. Only a sound sleep, in a dark, sleep, is a necessity for health. Only a sound sleep, in a dark, silence, and in the fresh air, can be obtained. Nothing will give strength as sleep. Never eat or drink after you have gone to sleep. A sound sleep is the best medicine for the brain, and the sleep will return.

Dr. Mills' Nervine brings relief to thousands of people in distress. It is a safe and effective remedy, and it is never to be confused with other medicines.

Rev. A. L. Lindsey Wins $100 Offered for Best Ballad on the Trail.

"John Malcolm Graham," winner of the price of $100 for the best ballad of any kind, offered by Mr. J. P. Fiedler, chairman of the exhibition and public committee for the Lewis and Clark Expedition, turns out to be a woman, Mr. A. L. Lindsey, who for a year has resided in Portland. Mrs. Lindsey is the author of the songs and is treasurer of Washington. She is a graduate of the University of Washington at Ann Arbor.

The winning poem, which was entered by the public committee, signed by John Malcolm Graham, General Delivery, was chosen by the judges. When the judges announced their decision, no one knew who "John Malcolm Graham," was the name not appearing in the Portland city directory. Nearly four hundred writers of verses throughout the country, some of them notoriously bad, competed for the prize. The judging was held on a second prize would have been awarded to Robertc Moore, the Masonic poet, present residing in Portland. His poem is entitled "The Dream of the Star" (A Song of the Oregon Trail), and will be published shortly in an eastern magazine. Mr. Moore, by the way, is the man who named the Trail. The impression being made in a letter from Secretary Reed of the Expedition about two years ago. The fitness of the name for the song is apparent to the public.

MARKET REPORT

Special to The Reporter.

Kansas City, Mo., Wednesday, June 17, 1913—The usual summer break in cattle prices, which seems to have arrived this week, brought prices on the market.

The steers received for feeding are expected to give the market some support, but the market is still down.

A 10! section ranch and 300 pounds of cattle were expected to bring $5.10 to $5.20 at this week.

A string of Panhandle ranchers, stockmen, sold yesterday at $4.85, 450 pounds.

Handlers from some territory at $4.80 to $5.00, and an average of 400 head of cattle, $4.80, 350 pounds for the country.

Indigestion Causes Call to the Stomach.

For many years, the complaint that women in the South have suffered from indigestion and dyspepsia has been increasing. This is due to the fastidious living and the indulgence in rich foods, which taxes the system of the stomach. The result is indigestion.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Kodol is a safe and effective remedy, and it is recommended by the United States Medical Society for the relief of indigestion.

Kodol Digests What You Eat and affords quick and permanent relief from indigestion.
