Many among the artists who made this program so outstanding and dis-tinctive responded to enthusiastic encores, but none were so applauded as Mr. Lackey himself, who, after a first heroic response, feelingly interpreting "Would to God I were a Ten-der Apple Blossom," declined to fur-ther favor his all but hysterically applauding audience by bowing a fond and graceful exit.

No man works to surer effects than Mr. Lackey. No man marshals his forces to clearer purposes than he, and in his school and out of it the results of his exhibitions in song are marvel-ous. We credit the local talent that interpreted the deepest classics of the masters of music on this occasion, classics that tax the natural and acquired riches of the stellar artists in opera, and mark it as wonderful that they could; but Mr. Lackey! Times without number The Reporter has voted him votes of thanks, and we must think of something else. Some day, then, our energies shall be bent to the task of commemorating him in enduring marble, a statue of him, and there shall be halos, and a harp in graceful poise, and garlanded about there shall be tender apple blossoms Our, Midland's lasting vote of thanks.

There may not be much news in The Reporter this week—there is not, as news is determined-but our columns are largely filled with interesting advertisements, merchandising announcements that will profit you to

ASA RUTLAND LAST CLUB IN PROGRAM WEEK TO HUNTSVILLE

GOES TO PENITENTIARY THERE TO SERVE A SENTENCE OF 5 TO 35 YEARS

During the first week in March, this schools of Midland, as director of the Midland Choral Club, has won for district court of Ector County, upon himself and for Midland a wide reputation by the semi-annual musical in Midland, in front of the county festivities that have a pleasing and jail, in the afternoon, about 4:20 edifying diversion for larg; Midland o'clock, on the evening of January audiences now for many years past 14th, 1920. The trial was concluded The Club's Thanksgiving program, on Thursday evening, March the 4th, however, rendered in the Christian the jury finding a verdict of guilty

> Rutland's attorneys motioned for a An appeal was filed and heard before the court of criminal appeals. The decision of the lower court was sustained. Early last week an order came, authorizing the removal of Rutland to the penitentiary at Huntsville. A penitentiary agent arrived Thursday and left that evening, accompanied by his prisoner. Rutland's sentence, it will be understood, began when the verdict of guilty was rendered, and, as we understand it, an indeterminate sentence of from 5 to 35 years has the following significance:

The prisoner must serve, under any circumstance, a minimum of five years, and may be held to the maximus term. Should such prisoner, by exemplary conduct and evidence of ficers of the Club, the personnel of reform, prove worthy of confidence tablished to the satisfaction of the board of pardons, at the discretion of such board he may be pardoned and restored to citizenship, it being borne in mind, however, that the pardoning power of the governor and board of pardons is available at any time. The above is not the language of the law, but it is, we are informed, the

> SEVEN RATTLESNAKES FOUND IN CELLAR

The Geo. T. McClintics had a disagreeable surprise on their ranch in "Fighting Hollow" on Thursday of last week. The little girl, Marie, finbach)-Soprano and Alto: Miss was sent to the dug-out or cellar for a jar of fruit. Upon entering she gave a childish scream: "Rattle-snakes!" "Uncle George" hurried for his gun and when the bombardment ceased, besides the many demolfruit containers, seven large rattlesnakes were killed. dinned in the cellar for the winter, evidently. They killed eleven rattlesnakes there during the past week.

"Old Polks at Home" found a fine interpretation in the hands of the Club. Also many and varied were the ways that the theme "Way Down Upon the Swanee River, Far, Far Away" was brought out. The piano seemed to be in perfect sympathy with the other three instrunents at all times, and in the introductory chords it seemed to give assurance that what was to follow would be well. The "Quartet from Rigoletta" by Donizetta was well neither side scoring. Haley, the new played and received great applause find, at quarter had been placed on from the audience.

Miss Mary Wilhite seemed to be in the Waters of Minnetonka" and dar-key lullabys, "Just a Little Bit o' ball on her own twenty yard line. Fourth quarter—This qua and "His Lullaby" was ar-Honey," peatedly encored.

Mr. Ned Watson's cello solo was well rendered and he was given a hearty encore, but his banjo solos and negro dialect singing brought more applause. It seemed that the audtainly plays a whole lot of instruments yery well.

The violin duet played by Mr. Dew-Wiley and Miss Mabel Shaw was well rendered. Their playing together is always sympathetic and this number was good. Wiley later played "Orientale" by Caesar Cui and as an encore played "Arkansas Travel-Everybody likes those old "fiddle tunes," college students included.

"Let the peace of God rule in your hearts, and be ye thankful," seems to have been an admonition universally heeded in our little city yesterday. The union service at the Baptist church was pretty well attended and a good sermon was preached by Rev. J. T. McKissick in which he bade his hearers take heed lest they forget to be thankful for the gracious outpouring of God's mercy. There were many special Thanksgiving dinners in the city and a most delightful one was served at Midland College, where Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dawson and lit-tle son, William, Mrs. Sam Holloway, Mr. Ned and Miss Lydie G. Watson as guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Mc-Kissick, enjoyed dining with the faculty and student body. The menu consisted of turkey and all the good fixings and everyone ate with such hearty, and evident appreciation that they were utterly incapacitated for the after dinner speeches which the affable president called for.

Our old friend, Mr. S A. Ingham, or "Grandpa," as he is more familiarly and lovingly known, has been confined to his bed for the past month, but he had a happy Thanksgiving nevertheless, for a dear brother, Mr. W. F. Ingham, of Lincoln, Neb., and O. B. Holt. whom he had not seen for twelve years, came in as a joyous surprise to Thursday was indeed a day of re-Grandpa; also a favorite nephew.Mr. joicing and Tervent Thanksgiving in Author Ingham, of Roswell, N. Her pretty confusion only added to her girlish charm, however, and she soon regain-ed her poise. An attractive feature of the entertainment was the stunts each had to perform. Miss Bessie Cowden did a rabbit dance as her specialty and received as a prize for her nimble toes, a pretty cut glass tooth pick holder, which she graciously presented to the honor guest. Misses Clara Wright and Leila Smith in the blackface role of Rastus and Mandy the cook and delivery-

With witty jests and repartee they brought in two immense baskets heavily laden with handsome aluminum and pyuex and all sorts of pretty and useful things for the kitchen. The dining table which was covered with quantities of handsome hand painted china and its central decoration of white chrysits central decoration of white chrysanthemums was also the object of much admiration. A most delicious salad course consisting of ham and cheese sandwiches, fruit salad and coffee was served from this table eafeteria style.

The guest book in which the guests all registered and wrote a bit of advice to the bride, was also an inter-esting feature. About forty guests enjoyed this charming hospitality.

HAS A SINGLE UNIT

THE TWO LARGER ENGINES ARE BROKEN DOWN AND TOWN WITHOUT SERVICE

The plant of the Midland Light Company is now all but completely out of commission. The small, 50 horsepower engine is still serviceable, but it is barely adequate for pumping water and lighting the business sec tion of town.

Manager W. H. Williams had a telegram and letter this week, from the company's headquarters at Dallas, stating that a new Deisel engine had been secured, and would be rushed from Dublin with all possible haste. This signifies the possibility of relief within the next ten days, but it is not certain. Manager Williams states that only about three days will be required in which to install the new unit, after its arrival. In the meantime The Reporter has been one of the serious sufferers on account of lack of power. Our facilities have been seriously limited, and this week we have been unable to care for but little more than the demands of our advertisers. From this point of view the paper is an exceptionally good issue. The advertisements are especially newsy and will prove profitable to the reader, and we are offering no apology for the appearance of the paper. It is quite representative as a country weekly, and is lacking only in the curtailment of its news columns. This may be taken care of fully only when our light plant is again in normal condition.

MR. AND MRS. YEAKEL LOCATE IN AMARILLO

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Yeakel left Midland for their new ome in Amarillo. They made the trip in their car, a Super-Six speed-ster. They have bought a lease on the Olive Hotel of that city, also the entire furnishings of the establishment, and, we understand, took charge immediately upon their arriv-al. Mr. and Mrs. Yeakel are much experienced in the hotel business, they naving made the Yeakel Hotel in Midland one of the most popular institutions in all West Texas. It is our prediction that they will be no less popular in Amarillo, for they friends very readily. many friends in Midland deeply regret their leaving, while all join in a wish for their utmost happiness and prosperity in their new home.

AFFIDAVIT OF COMMISSIONERS' COURT TO TREASURER'S QUAR-TERLY REPORT

IN THE MATTER OF COUNTY FINANCES IN THE HANDS OF G. E. MORLEY, Treasurer of Andrews County, Texas. Commissioners' Court, Andrews County, Texas, in Regular Quarterly Session, November 8th Term. 1920.

ember 8th Term, 1920.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, as County Commissioners within and for said Andrews County, and the Hon. J. W. Irwin, County Judge of said Andrews County, constituting the entire Commissioners' Court of said County, and each one of us, do hereby certify that on this, the 8th day of Nov., A. D., 1920, at a regular quarterly term of our said Court we have compared and examined the quarterly report of G. E. Moxley, Treasurer of Andrews County, Texas, for the quarter beginning on the 9th day of August, A. D., 1920, and ending on the 8th day of November, A. D., 1920, and finding the same correct have caused an order to be entered upon the minutes of the Commissioners' Court of Andrews County, stating the approval of said Treasurer's Report by our said Court, which said order recites separately the amount received and paid out of each fund by said County Treasurer since his last report to this Court, and for and during the time covered by his present report, and the balance of each fund remaining in said Treasurer's hands on the said 9th day of August, A. D., 1920, and have ordered the proper credits to be made in the accounts of the said County Treasurer, in accordance with said order as required by Article 867, Chapter 1, Title XXV, of the Revised Statutes of Texas, as amended by an Act of the Twenty-fifth Legislature of Texas, at its regular session, approved March 20th, 1897.

And we, and each of us, further certify that we have actually and fully inspected *the affidavit of A. N. Brown, cashier of Andrews State Bank, the County Depository, showing* and counted all the actual cash and assets in hands of the said Treasurer belonging to Andrews County at the close of the examination of said Treasurer's Report, on the 8th day of Neurophys A. ### Fooling Himself!

This skinny critter is busy at making himself believe he is a fat steer! But his delusion is no more complete than that of the farmer who thinks he saves money by raising cheap scrubs. These days, when the margin between feed cost and selling price on the hoof is uncertain, there is on y one economical kind of steerthe pure-bred. His superiority over the scrub can be measured in size, in quality, in pounds of beef for pounds of feed consumed - and finally in dollars on the credit side of the farm led rer.
