Voluntary Freeze Of Wages, Profits Sought In Britain

LONDON—(AP)—The Labor government put the British people on an honor system Wednesday to sacrifice possible increased earnings.

Wage earners, landlords and employers alike were asked in a white paper to give up possible advances in wages and profits for the sake of combating inflation and rebuilding the British economy.

Prime Minister Attlee's cabinet in effect called for a freeze on wages and profits, except in exceptional cases, in order to promote the export market and thus draw in additional dollars and United Kingdom needs.

The government regarded the problem so seriously that Attlee went before the House of Commons to present the case after consulting trade unions, the backbone of his party, and Britain's organized employers.

The white paper amounted to a reaffirmation of the government's stand a year ago for voluntary curbs on increased earnings. The government promised that, except for taxation, it would not interfere with individual incomes.

The program remained on the voluntary basis. The government, however, said the only alternative to acceptance would be "a serious and prolonged setback in our economic reconstruction, accompanied by a persistent low standard of living."

Price-Fixing Threat

And the government held one powerful weapon to make its will prevail. It still retains wartime power to fix prices. It said there should be no presumption that an increase in prices will be granted if increased costs of a product result, increased wages and profits.

"Unless we are prepared to check such a tendency, we shall find ourselves unable to fulfill our export task, owing to rise in costs, which will be reflected on the home market."

Fritz Kuhn Flees From Prison Camp

MUNICH, GERMANY—(AP)—The Bavarian Denazification Ministry announced that Fritz Kuhn, former leader of the German-American Bund in the United States, escaped from a German internment camp at Dachau Wednesday morning.

Kuhn was jailed in July for possible trial as a Nazi offender. He has been held since without trial.

Kuhn, who had become a United States citizen by naturalization, was deprived of his citizenship in 1943 and deported to Germany in 1945.

First reports from the German-operated internment camp said Kuhn escaped from guards as he was being taken from his cell. Unconfirmed reports said he was to be transferred to Nuerberg as a possible witness in American war crimes trials there.

Kuhn was freed by American authorities in Asperg, Germany, April 25, 1946, after six and a half years as a prisoner of the United States.

Italy To Crack Down On Private Communist Army

ROME—(AP)—Italy's government has decided to get tough with the Communists' "Private Army," a spokesman for Premier Alcide De Gasperi said Wednesday.

The spokesman said the cabinet, meeting Thursday, will vote decrees to put teeth into Article 18 of the new constitution. This article bans secret societies and military organizations for political purposes.

He made no bones of the fact that the measures—while applicable to such groups as armed neofascists—would be aimed primarily at the Communist underground.

That the Communists have an army is now everybody's secret. They parade it through the streets of Italy's biggest cities, drill it in open country, brag about it in their press.

Plan For Uniforms

De Gasperi himself, in a fighting speech Monday which opened his Christian Democrats' election campaign, spoke of the shock troops at the orders of Luigi Longo, organizer of the underground.

They sought, he said, to impose a Balkan dictatorship on Italy.

What finally decided the government to clamp down was the disclosure that the Communists are preparing now to put the force into regular uniforms—khaki pants, khaki, red or blue shirts (varying with the unit), red kerchief, visor caps.

DALLAS—(AP)—Dallas attorneys have pledged $101,550 to build a proposed Southwestern Legal Foundation on the Southern Methodist University campus.

UN Group May Enter Palestine Within 10 Days

LAKE SUCCESS—(AP)—The United Nations Palestine Partition Commission will enter the Holy Land, possibly within 10 days.

A source close to the five-nation commission said the party would go to Jerusalem first to lay groundwork for the splitting of Palestine.

The commission made the decision Tuesday but did not decide on the composition or date of entry of the group. It was stipulated, however, that the party would not include any of the delegates. A U.N. official said the move from here might be started within 10 days.

A U.N. press officer said the commission did not discuss the security of the advance party in making its decision. However, delegates planned to begin drafting a report Wednesday to the Security Council asking for military help in carrying out the partition plan.

In another move, the commission decided to notify the British government that it regarded as unsatisfactory London's policy in respect to the entry of the commission itself into the Holy Land. In what was described as a strong letter, the commission asked the British government to reconsider the repeated demand that the U.N. body stay out of the Holy Land until two weeks before the end of British rule.

Britain has decided to give up the Palestine mandate May 15 or earlier. The letter did not mention the decision to send an advance party.

★ LATE NEWS FLASHES ★

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A Senate-House subcommittee voted Wednesday to seek a Congressional pledge to cut $2,500,000,000 from President Truman's $39,700,000,000 budget for the fiscal year starting July 1.

CHICAGO — (AP) — Corn plunged as much as eight cents a bushel as a heavy selling wave swept over the grain pits on the Board of Trade Wednesday. Wheat, oats, and soybeans also suffered substantial losses in very active trading.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Consolidation of the Air Transport Command in the Naval Air Transport Service, with Maj. Gen. Laurence S. Kuter as chief, was announced Wednesday by Secretary of Defense Forrestal.

Winter Kills Colorado Cattle

Roundup time takes on a new slant as ranch hands haul a frozen steer across the ice on a lake near Pueblo, Colo. Eighty-two Hereford steers, valued at $10,000, broke through the ice, quickly drowned and froze. Workmen retrieved some of the frozen carcasses, right background. The cattle is said to be unfit for dressing and eating because exteriors rot, forcing body heat inward and causing instant spoilage.

Congress Passes Allowance Hikes For GI Students

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A $10 to $30 monthly boost in living allowances is in prospect for approximately 2,000,000 veterans attending school.

Congressional action on a bill providing the increases was completed Tuesday by the House. Only President Truman's signature is needed to make them effective April 1.

The House also passed Senate-approved legislation to let ex-GIs draw more pay for on-the-job training. But it has to go to a Senate House Conference Committee to thrash out differences.

The bill raising government subsistence allowances for student veterans cleared the House on a 370-6 vote. It provides:

1. A $75 monthly payment for unmarried veterans—an increase of $10.

2. A $108-a-month allowance for a veteran with one dependent—a veteran and his wife, for example. A veteran with two or more dependents would get $120. The allowance for veterans with one or more dependents now is $90 monthly.

The other bill, passed 371 to 5, hikes the amount a veteran taking on-the-job training may receive from his employer while getting a government allowance. It sets these ceilings for combined allowances

For single men, $250 a month; married veterans with one dependent, $325; and those with two or more, $350.

Famous Quarter Horse Is Found Dead Wednesday

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Death of the highest priced Quarter Horse of all time in his stall before he was to be shown in the class for champion of champions clouded the fifth day of livestock judging and auctions at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show Wednesday as the 100,000th visitor passed through the turnstiles into the grounds.

Peppy's Pepper, a King Ranch-bred four-year-old sold only last September to Danny Powelle of Grapevine by Lloyd Jinkins of Fort Worth for $26,500, was found dead in his stall at 6 a. m.

Autopsy Scheduled

The red sorrel champion, by Peppy out of Cubana, was brought to the exposition grounds Thursday and apparently was in good health when ridden in the arena between rodeo performances Tuesday.

First opinion of Dr. D. J. Anderson, Haltom city veterinarian, was that a heart attack cost the life of the great horse, but an autopsy was to be performed later Wednesday.

Condition Of White Children 'Unchanged'

The conditions of Glen White, six, and his sister, Elizabeth Ann, three, who were seriously burned Tuesday morning at their home, 1810 West Texas Street, were reported by hospital attendants Wednesday as "unchanged." They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ebb White.

The blaze at the family residence, firemen said, resulted when a cleaning fluid being used to clean a playroom floor was ignited from a heater. The youngsters received burns on the face and body.

The children's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Morris of Oklahoma City, arrived in Midland late Tuesday.

Ebb White is production superintendent for the Seaboard Oil Company here.

Faint 'SOS' Radio Signals Picked Up

MIAMI, FLA.—(AP)—Faint SOS signals ending in the word "Tiger"—believed possibly from the missing British airliner Star Tiger with 29 persons aboard—were established Wednesday as originating from somewhere north of the Leeward Islands in the Caribbean Sea.

The mysterious signals, first picked up by an amateur in Ohio Tuesday night, have been heard by military and civilian communication centers along the entire Atlantic Seaboard.

Two stations reported receiving the entire name "Star Tiger."

Truman May Pick Rayburn

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Politicians wondered Wednesday whether the cries of Dixie Democrats outraged by the racial issue might influence President Truman to choose a southerner as his running mate.

The speculation among some Democrats here runs this way:

1. The revolt against Truman's 10-point civil rights program may never bring about the electoral college results its sponsors predict, but it could hurt the President in border states.

2. The late President Roosevelt was sufficiently concerned in 1944 by an even weaker Dixie protest to lose Henry Wallace overboard. He picked Truman, a Missourian, for his vice presidential nominee.

3. Someone like House Minority Leader Rayburn of Texas could be chosen without serious offense to either racial or labor groups in the North. He would give southern Democrats a voice at court.

The politicians who talk of these things emphasized that they are only speculating. President Truman alone knows how seriously he regards the Southern complaints.

Senator McGrath (RI), Democratic national chairman, told a news conference at Troy, N. Y., that the Democratic Party historically has championed human rights. He added he does not expect it to "fall in this issue."

It apparently is the party leaders' view that they have more to worry about on the score of Wallace's third party bid for the presidency than they have about the role of the South.

FLARE, RAFT SIGHTED

NEW YORK—(AP)—Pilots of two Pan American World Airways planes Wednesday reported sighting a green flare and a white life raft in two separate Atlantic Ocean areas between 655 and 790 miles south of Bermuda, a spokesman for the airline said Wednesday.

No signs of life were seen, pilots of the two planes said.

The sightings were reported six days after the disappearance of a British South American Airways plane, carrying Sir Arthur Coningham, British air hero of World War II, and 28 other persons, on a flight from the Azores to Bermuda.

The airliner was a four-engine Tudor IV. The last radio message was sent when the plane was about 380 miles from Bermuda.

Food Strike Ends With Threats Of Further Action

FRANKFURT, GERMANY—(AP)—Western Germany's biggest strike since pre-Nazi days ended at midnight Tuesday but union leaders threatened even more drastic action unless German officials improve the food ration.

An estimated two to three million strikers began returning to work Wednesday morning after a 24-hour "hunger" walkout which crippled business and industry in the entire British Zone and in the American Zone State of Wurttemberg-Baden.

The strike was not directed against the occupation powers but against German officials, whom the workers blame for their short rations.

Unions Make Demands

William Kleinkecht, Wurttemberg-Baden's union chairman, warned that more drastic measures would be taken unless the German Food Administration take steps to:

1. Distribute the available food supply more equitably.
2. Stamp out widespread black marketing and hoarding.
3. Compel farmers to turn in their crop quotas for rationed distribution.

Scout Drive Plans Mapped At Meeting Of Leaders Here

The drive for $200,000 to purchase and equip the proposed Davis Mountain Scout ranch will be launched next week throughout the 15-county county area.

Vernon Speaker Urges Increased Activity By Church Lay Members

Ray H. Nichols of Vernon spoke at the meeting of the Methodist Men of First Methodist Church Tuesday night.

He is president of the General Board of Lay Activities of the denomination in the United States.

Declaring that the churches are not keeping up with the growth and expansion of their communities, Nichols urged the laymen to "do something about" the situation.

He is publisher of the Vernon Daily Record and operator of a radio station in that city. He is a past president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and has held prominent positions in Rotary International.

In his address Nichols said it is important for men to be diligent in their professions and occupations and for them to contribute to the general betterment of their communities. He insisted, that it also is important for them to do more about making their churches meet the needs of the present time.

Churches Decide Future

He asserted that the future of the world is likely to be decided by the manner in which the churches and religion is accepted and supported.

"Regardless of the material provisions we may make for national defense," the church lay leader declared "unless we men do the things we should through the churches, the future is not promising."

A quartet composed of Ralph Smith, Don Moore, Alex Oates and Jeff Williams, and accompanied at the piano by Homer Meek, sang two selections.

M. C. Ulmer introduced Nichols. James C. Watson, president of the organization, presided.

Approximately 80 persons attended. A dinner was served prior to the program.

Miller and special prayer by the Junior Choir, the map travelogue began with the seven Presbyterian missions in the Belgian Congo of Africa, as reviewed by Mrs. John Hills.

Following Mrs. Keyes Curry's reading of a letter from a missionary in the Belgian Congo, Mrs. H. Parkinson took the group to South America, the tour including Brazil, the land of the future in missionary work because of its progressiveness. This talk, too, was supplemented by a letter read by Mrs. Curry.

Mrs. D. A. Newbold described Asia, China and the missions located in those places, followed by the reading of a letter from a missionary in China.

Mrs. Butler Hurley discussed Korea, including its one mission in the interior and the four in the coastal regions. There is need for medical missionaries there, it was stated, after which a letter was read from a Korean missionary.

Mrs. Vera Cubitt's discussion took the group to Japan, where there are nine mission stations. The letter read was from a missionary who had been there only a few weeks.

Mrs. C. E. Prichard concluded the program with a discussion of Mexico, followed by a letter.

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, FEB. 4, 1948-3

Midland Theater Lists Achievements, Elects Board At Annual Dinner-Meet

Midland Community Theatre, Inc., at the organization's annual dinner-meeting Tuesday night in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel, elected seven members to the board of governors and heard a summary of the year's work.

Elected to serve on the board were Dr. H. A. Ireland, Ruth Shephard, Leon Valdes, Clifford Keith, W. F. Heil, Paxton Howard and Mrs. M. A. Pising.

William H. Pomeroy, Jr., welcomed members and guests and introduced the president, Ronald K. DeFord, who cited the 1947 progress of the Midland Community Theatre, a non-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas.

"It is organized," said DeFord, who has served two years as president, "to conduct a community drama and recreational organization, without profit to any member, and... dedicated to the study, practice, and production of dramatics, music, and other fine arts, for educational, recreational, civic and benevolent purposes in the public interest of Midland, Midland County, Texas."

DeFord, following a financial summary for the year, culminated his remarks with a review of the 1947 season, which included six major plays, "Papa Is All," "State of the Union," "Kiss and Tell," "Runnin' Hi," "Angel Street," and "Years Ago." Other productions during the season included five plays by Children's Theater and one Junior Workshop play. The season also saw the production of a health department film, using much Midland talent.

The success of Community Theatre is measured by participation; how many paid subscribers.

are there; how many take part in the productions; how many attend the plays; how many citizens take part in theater activities," continued President DeFord. The number of people (man units), according to the corporation's figures, who participated in the six plays included 461 adults, with 149 children taking part in children's plays. Approximately 4800 people attended 47 plays-as audiences, it was reported, with an average attendance of 530 at each play.

"I believe, as last year," concluded DeFord, "that this production record is unique for a city of this size and recommend that Midland and Midland citizens, in true Texas fashion, tell the world of our achievements in community entertainment."

DeFord's report was followed with a rising vote of thanks to him and to Director Art Cole for their services throughout the year.

The program highlight was a dramatization of Robert Frost's poem, "The Death of the Hired Man," starring Addie Penn, who was voted the season's best female performer for her role in "Papa Is All," and Norris Creath and Bill Pomeroy, who were also rated high in the '47 poll.

First Methodist Circle Meetings Feature Prayers

First Methodist Church's WGS circles met early Monday afternoon to enable members to attend the First Presbyterian meeting featuring the Rev. H. Kerr Taylor, noted missionary and educational secretary of the foreign mission committee of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Program highlights for the regular circle meetings were studies taken from the book, "Great Prayers of the Bible" by Charles M. Laymon.

Mrs. Dave Hoover conducted the Belle Bennett Circle's lesson on "Prayers of Old Patriarchs" at a meeting in the home of Mrs. L. I. Baker, 516 Holmsley Street. Mrs. R. D. Myers, chairman of the group, led the opening prayer which was followed by the reading of the minutes and the transaction of business. The next session is scheduled in the home of Mrs. George P. Bradbury, Magnolia Tank Farm. Those attending included Mrs. C. W. Chancellor, Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. James C. Watson, Mrs. Otis Ligon, Mrs. A. W. Butler, Mrs. S. H. Hudkins, Mrs. M. Myers, Mrs. Bradbury and the hostess.

Mrs. Joe V. Birdwell, 500 West Storey Street, was hostess to members of the Laura Haygood Circle, with Mrs. Earl Chapman reviewing the study on the "Great Prayers of the Bible." Mrs. L. C. Stephenson conducted the opening prayer, and following a brief business session, Mrs. W. F. Prothro offered the benediction. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Stacy Allen, 720 West Storey Street. It was announced. Those present were Mrs. J. L. Barber, Mrs. W. B. Hunter, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Bill Kinney, Mrs. E. J. Voliva, Mrs. C. H. Shepard, Mrs. A. W. Stanley, Mrs. Prothro, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Stephenson and Mrs. Birdwell.

Mary Scharbauer Circle members, meeting in the home of Mrs. W. A. Black, 111 North G Street, heard the lesson by Mrs. O. F. Hedrick and then adjourned to the First Presbyterian Church. Members attending included Mrs. J. L. Tidwell, Mrs. Hedrick, Mrs. T. A. Fannin, Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs. Tanner Laine, Mrs. B. F. Haag, Mrs. A. J. Norwood, Mrs. Mollie McCormick and Mrs. Black.

February Plans For GS Discussed At Board Meeting

International Friendship Day for the Girl Scout organization, scheduled February 22, will include letters written to overseas friends. It was outlined to the Board of Directors of the Association Council of Girl Scouts by Mrs. Robert Payne, program chairman, at a Monday session in the First Presbyterian Church. For other highlights in the month of February, it was suggested that all troops have a clothing drive for the city's Children's Service League.

Programs for 1948 Girl Scouts in Midland also will include the celebration of the birthday of Scouting during the period of March 8-12 when mothers will visit the troops of their daughters and a special radio program will be presented. Mrs. Steve Hazlip announced the negro troops have planned a Valentine party.

Association Meet Planned
The entire Girl Scout Association will meet April 5, and it was suggested that pictures of day camp be shown at this session.

Forthcoming training courses will include a five-day course to be conducted here February 16 by the two professional trainers from Pecos. The group voted to send Mrs. I. A. Searles, volunteer trainer here, to the April 20-21 course in Fort Worth.

Directors attending the session included Mrs. C. E. Bissell, the Rev. R. J. Snell, J. C. Rinker, Mrs. Hazel, Mrs. Vernon Bottom, Mrs. Searles, Frank True, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Don Johnson and Dick Looby.

PONTIAC

Presenting the new 1948
A FINE CAR MADE EVEN FINER!

GM Hydra-Matic Drive optional on all models!

Today, Pontiac announces a series of notable advancements in the car that has already won the wholehearted endorsement of more than a million owners and friends.

Foremost among these advancements is the great General Motors Hydra-Matic Drive—now offered as optional equipment on all Pontiac cars. Pontiac is the lowest-priced car in the world to provide this great mechanical masterpiece—which shifts gears automatically, and completely eliminates the clutch pedal. Coupled with this great engineering triumph is a striking improvement in beauty and luxury. New exterior smartness extends from the new radiator grille to the streamlined rear bumper.

Interiors, too, are remarkably improved. Upholsteries are more beautiful and are expertly blended to achieve new attractiveness and charm. Instrument panels are finished in a smart design adapted from quarter-sawn mahogany—and an adroit use of chrome moulding adds a deft touch of modernity.

Engine and chassis have been refined wherever possible—but they remain, basically, the same engineering masterpieces which have become synonymous in the automotive industry with goodness and dependability. There are many more things we could tell you about the new Pontiac, for there are countless improvements which add to its traditional quality and value. But we feel that, for those who know Pontiac, we need only say—

—here is, by far, the most beautiful Pontiac ever built —here is the most luxurious Pontiac ever built
—here is the most dependable Pontiac ever built —and it is now available with GM Hydra-Matic Drive—optional at additional cost.

We wish only to add that it is here—on display in our showroom—and that you are most cordially invited to see and inspect it.

Same Old Hurdle

As a member of the American delegation, Harold E. Stassen played an important part in the San Francisco conference of 1945, which produced the United Nations Charter. Since then, he has shown many times that his interest in the organization's success is as keen as his knowledge of it is intimate. So his views and opinions on the UN deserve attention.

A few days ago, Stassen proposed that the United States call a UN convention in 1950 to amend the charter and strengthen the organization. He, like most of us, wants to see the single-power veto ended, and world control and inspection of atomic-energy facilities established. He wants to see the UN set up its own police force, and he favors world law to cover human rights and special problems.

For the two intervening years, Stassen suggests a five-point program—"continued success of our free economy in America," a follow-through on the Marshall Plan without bi-partisan "quibbling or politics," a strong military position with increased air power and research; no more exports to Russia, which might form part of a war machine; and a worldwide campaign of ideas to combat Russian propaganda.

All this seems fine, except for one plaguing, familiar question: How is the UN going to abolish the veto? That is the first and last hurdle that blocks any effort toward major charter reform. No sooner does the reformer start galloping toward his goal, than he checks up short at this obstacle. For Russia can veto any attempt to ban the veto.

If Stassen has an idea of how the obstacle can be avoided, he should come out with it now—not two years from now. The weakness of the UN, like the weakness of Western Europe, is a present danger.

Stassen's interim plan is primarily a domestic program. His plan for strengthening the UN is a world program. There seems no reason why the two cannot be carried on side by side—if only the veto hurdle can be cleared.

If it cannot be, then almost certainly there will not be agreement on atomic energy. There will be no world law for Russia defies state sovereignty.

So long as Russia can veto the world's will, there may be civil war in Greece and China, and communal strife in Palestine and India. Secret research for atomic war will go on. The UN will have no recognized law or authority; to enforce its decisions.

The best proposal that we have seen for bypassing the veto would enforce decisions on matters threatening the peace through a treaty of the majority of UN members. This seems possible under the "collective self-defense" clause of the charter. Such a treaty would need only a two-thirds vote to become effective.

This promises only a partial solution, but it is better than none. And it is a way out that might well be taken up by the "Little Assembly" in its first sessions. If even a partial solution can be found, there is no reason to wait until 1950 to start looking for it.

Inroads Of Civilization

The native of Portuguese West Africa does not commute or ride the subway. The din of traffic, the juke box, the singing commercial are as foreign to him as the supercharged tempo of western life in general. Yet he has stomach ulcers—even as the most civilized worrier.

The reason, says a medical missionary, is the witch doctor. He scares his patients right into peptic and duodenal tizzies. All we can say is that if he can achieve the net result of civilization's myriad annoyances by his primitive witchcraft, there must be powerful magic in masks, rattles and mumbo-jumbo.

Nehru Makes War Against Violence In India

AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Jawaharlal Nehru, prime minister of the Hindu Dominion of India and faithful disciple of the martyred Gandhi, has declared that the restoration of peace in his strife-torn country is the issue on which his government will stand or fall.

That's Nehru's answer to those who sneer the Mahatma.

Good for Nehru! Such a stand for light and justice deserves success, but Gandhi's death emphasizes that he prime minister will be up against this appalling fact: There still exist in this sorry world of ours powerful interests

Where Are The Curls?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK —(P)— So Shirley Temple's a mother, I feel, as the poet said, "chilly and grown old." Don't you?

No news could make an entire generation of men more aware of the passing of time than the announcement that the screen's one-time favorite moppet now has a daughter of her own.

Why, wasn't it just yesterday that she took out hearts with her treble voice and chubby dancing legs in "Stand Up and Cheer?" You mean that was way back in 1934?

It isn't fair. It isn't fair at all. Shirley was the "Peter Pan" of our time, the symbol of childhood that never grows up, but is always fresh and fair and new.

Ambassador On Celluloid
No child in history ever took the world's heart more. Natural and unspoiled, she was the child that everyone yearned to have—pretty, warm-hearted, laughing and mischievous.

She was a junior ambassador on celluloid for America. It wasn't just the kids who were crazy about her, although they were, too.

Hundreds of thousands of mothers across the land trotted their youngsters to dancing schools and vocal lessons, hoping by some legerdemain to change them into Shirleys. She became a kind of Madame Schiaparelli in the world of juvenile styles. For six years she was one of the ten top money makers among the movie stars, and she paid more in income taxes than Franklin Roosevelt got for running the country.

In her golden reign a man could get into a fist fight merely by stating he didn't like Shirley Temple. Wherever she traveled, she received the 24-karat welcome usually reserved for royalty and in her way she was about the nearest thing to a princess this Democracy has ever had.

Shirley Grew-Up
In those years Adolf Hitler rose and fell and a world went to war. Alphonse Capone has gone underground. Man O'War is dead, and Babe Ruth no longer points at the place in the bleachers where he is going to knock the next ball.

Change that touches all things touched Shirley, too. While we were busy with other things she just went ahead and grew up. The little girl in curls went into the cocoon of retirement and emerged a woman.

It was bad enough to see Jack Coogan getting bald—and remember his timeless portrayal in "The Kid." But Shirley Temple a mother!—that really gives us all a feeling of doddering antiquity.

Where did the years fly so fast?

Stassen Clubs To Be Formed In Texas

DALLAS —(P)— A campaign to form Stassen-for-President clubs in each large city of Texas will be launched in the near future.

William H. Burnham of New York, general membership chairman of the National Draft Eisenhower League, said here that a state chairman for Texas would be named for the Stassen organization.

Burnham threw his support to Stassen when Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower declined to consider the presidential nomination.

Two clubs already are functioning in West Texas. Harold E. Stassen leads one at Amarillo and Kenneth Dalley has formed another at Borger.

Everyman's Bible Class Attracts Men Of Varied Faiths Each Sunday

One of Midland's most popular Sunday School classes is held every Sabbath morning in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel. Called "Everyman's Bible Class," it is a spiritual meeting for men of all faiths and stations. The stranger to Midland, happening to be here on Sunday and hesitant about visiting a class in one of the city's churches, finds Everyman's Class a convenient, friendly place to worship. And residents of the city like its informality, the thought-provoking lectures of Delbert Downing, and the general fellowship.

Sacred Music
Eomer Meek, pianist for the class, begins playing sacred music at about 9:30 a.m. The class convenes at 10 o'clock. Khaki work clothes as well as business suits are worn by visitors, and nobody looks askance if somebody lights a smoke during the meeting. Average attendance ranges from 25 to 30, though more names than that are on the membership roster. After Downing's lecture, there is a 15-minute discussion period in which visitors talk about anything they please—current national and international affairs, scientific developments, or any other subject may be heard debated at this time.

Officers of the club are Carl Weval, president; Dr. Henry Schlichting, vice president; Malcolm Breneman, secretary-treasurer; O. W. Breneman, sergeant-at-arms, and Art Cole, song leader.

Cosmic Ray Samples Hunted By Clippers

JOHANNESBURG—(AP)—A small sealed package of photographic plates was carried in a Pan-American Airways clipper that arrived from New York. It had already made two trips from New York to Calcutta, and will make another trip to New York and back to South Africa, and two to London.

When it was unwrapped by physicists of the Chicago University Institute for Nuclear Research the plates are expected to contain information of vital importance in cosmic ray research.

Cosmic ray particles, when traversing photographic emulsion, leave tracks. Even the weight and speed of the particles are clearly shown.

Possibilities Shown
The possibilities of this new type of induced radio-activity were shown by H. E. Huntley of Wisconsin University, who deposited photographic plates 11,100 feet up in the Drakensburg mountains in Natal, and obtained pictures of cosmic rays smashing a glass atom.

Atom smashing by cosmic rays cannot be controlled as in the man-made article. Its projectiles have vastly greater energies than the artificial product. To get the full force of cosmic radiation it is necessary to be above the blanket of the earth's atmosphere.

Poland Is Educating Supply Of Doctors

POZNAN, POLAND—(AP)—Poland lost more than 50 per cent of its physicians during the war, but new doctors now are being trained in seven Polish cities.

Poland had 13,000 doctors before the war and only 6,300 when it was over. Today, 8,200 students are attending medical schools in Poznan, Warsaw, Krakow, Lodz, Lublin, Gdansk and Wroclaw. A new medical academy also is to be established in Lower Silesia.

Dr. F. Polgar Delights Large Audience With Clever Performance

A clever, unusual and entertaining lecture-demonstration, "Miracles of the Mind," was given by Dr. Franz Polgar, noted telepathist and hypnotist, before a large crowd in the high school auditorium here Tuesday night.

He was introduced by H. Winston Full, president of the Midland Concert and Lecture Association, which sponsored his appearance as the fourth number of the current season.

The program was presented in three parts—memory feats, mind reading, and hypnotism. The first was demonstrated by memorizing and repeating numbers and names of objects written on a blackboard. He said it is easy to memorize, but difficult to forget. He proved the statement by demonstration.

Check Hidden
To demonstrate his mind-reading ability, Doctor Polgar asked the check for his performance be hidden while he was out of the room, promising that if he was unable to find the check upon his return, the performance would be for free. The check was hidden in a woman's shoe. The doctor, upon his return, asked for a volunteer known to the audience, to give him mental directions. He found the check promptly.

After discussing hypnosis and answering questions on the subject, he asked for volunteers, both men and women, to come to the stage to assist him in a demonstration. He hypnotized members of the group individually and collectively—proving the powers for which he is world famous. And the audience delighted at the antics of the subjects who performed at his bidding. The volunteers apparently suffered no ill effects.

'That Look' Certain To Save Embarrassment
LINN, MO.—(AP)—"If they have that look they want to get married," says L. L. Davis, Oeage County circuit clerk, who no longer has to ask a young man and his fiancée which office they are looking for in the courthouse.

To save them embarrassment, Davis tells them instead of asking them, and he says he has been 100 per cent right.

"Just what that look is I can't explain, but they all have it—every one of them."

MULTIPLE FOUL?— Abilene Takes 'Tainted' Tilt

By TANNER LAINE
 Officiating, which seemed to be in favor of Abilene all evening, drew thunderous objection in the final seconds of a Midland-Abilene basketball game Tuesday night, as the winning Eagles were "awarded" two free shots which brought them a "tainted referee's" victory, 31-30. Here is what happened and the why of the howling disapproval:

Three minutes remained to be played in the game and Midland led, 30-27. The Bulldogs successfully "from" the ball until there was less than a half minute to go. In this fatal time, Abilene charged the ball, got it, and a player streaked downcourt and shot. The basket was good. That made the tally Midland 30, Abilene 29. Ah, but here came the blow which drew the fire. One of the officials ruled that the Abilene goal-shooter was fouled on his trip. And the official claimed this was no ordinary foul—it was a multiple foul. The official ruled two Midlanders, repeat two, fouled. So, with five seconds of time, the Abilene boy sank his two gratis tosses. And that was the mighty questionable ball game.

When the scoreboard had to read Midland 30, Abilene 31, it took away the drama of one of the most courageous fights in history put up by a Midland team. This Midland team, superbly coached and strongly determined, fought its heart out for the victory which was denied it by one of the freaks seldom dug up by officials to grant their favored multiple foul. Midland was so willed to win that with just two seconds to go, the Bulldogs pumped a long pass way down the court toward Larry Messersmith, who was promptly sat upon by an Abilene defender. The game died before anything else could happen.

Abilene "B" Wins, 43-38
 Abilene managed a halftime lead of 21-16. Midland, in a furious rally, erased the figure to post a 27-21 Midland-lead going into the last stanza. Leonard (Hoot) Harris of Midland was high-pointner with 14 tallies. Landrum of Abilene manufactured 10 points.

Abilene won the "B" game curtain-raiser by 43-38. The Eagles had an 18-7 halftime lead and increased it. Holland of Abilene got nine points for scoring honors and Henderson chalked eight for Midland.

Busy Doctor Forgets 'Geography Lessons'

MANILA—(AP)—A Formosan accused of being an army doctor with the Japanese who then became a guerrilla with the Filipinos faces deportation because he added one more nationality to his collection—that of a Chinese physician.

Police say that as a lieutenant in the Japanese army medical corps he was in one of the first invasion waves two days after the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Police say he deserted in 1944, joined the Filipino guerrillas, married a Filipino woman, and since the liberation has practiced at Lucena, on Panay Island, by posing as a Chinese physician.

They are deporting him to Formosa because he practiced medicine without a Philippine license.

Chaperones once were known as "gooseberries" in England.

Adults 'Ga-Ga' Over Dolls So Grandma Plays Doctor

PORTLAND—(AP)—Grown-ups also go ga-ga over dolls—and the result is a very nice business.

Mrs. Mae Lawson, a grandmother and competent businesswoman, is a professional doll-mender, who can repair dolls when there are many more pieces missing than remain.

"It sounds silly to people who don't work with dolls," she said. "But we become so attached to them! Sometimes, when you sell a doll, you almost grieve about it."

Since a lot of adults feel the same way, the doll business is a steadily expanding industry. Every big city now has doll hospitals. Nearly every hamlet has some citizen who collects dolls, dresses them, or makes them.

Mrs. Lawson estimates she has mended several thousand dolls, a large share of them not for children. Sometimes it's a businessman who wants his daughter's toy saved for sentimental reasons or a woman anxious to preserve the doll grandmas played with or collectors.

Task Requires Art

"Right now, we are getting a lot of young mothers who want their old dolls repaired for their children," Mrs. Lawson said. "Some are so broken and cracked they look as if no one could repair them. They come armless and legless and with heads in pieces."

It's a task that requires the art of sculptor, painter, and artisan. If a hand is gone, Mrs. Lawson takes malleable material, sculps a new one to exactly match the original, sands, dries and paints it.

Most tedious job, she says, is installing eyelashes. Doll eyelashes can be bought in strips, like ribbon; but sometimes an extra special doll requires the lash-by-lash task. Hardest job is to build up missing pieces for a bisque doll and make it look as if it were the original bisque.

Mrs. Lawson has been repairing dolls professionally for only four or five years, but she first tried her hand at it when her daughter's favorite doll, Alma, was hit by a rake and beheaded. The child came screaming, "Mother! Is Alma dead?"

Has 500 Dolls

Mrs. Lawson thought she might be able to repair it and at Christmas Mrs. Lawson gave her daughter the mended doll, along with a new one of the same make. The two couldn't be told apart.

She went on repairing, then, learning by the boy-with-watch system. "If I didn't know how to do a job, I'd tear one up and put it back together," she said.

Besides repairing, Mrs. Lawson collects antique and foreign dolls. She has about 500 and displays them occasionally. "It has to be occasionally," she explained, "because it's just as much work as getting 500 children ready for a party... hair has to be curled, dresses ironed, and ruffles crisp."

Besides her professional work, Mrs. Lawson fixes dolls for the neighborhood and friends. She'd intended to fix them for her grandchildren, too.

"But I can't," she said. "Both my grandchildren turned out to be boys."

Tuberculosis Hits Many Polish Peasant Children

WARSAW—(AP)—Incidence of tuberculosis still runs high in the Polish people.

The Danish Red Cross, single survey, found 70 per cent of the peasant children in the Podlaskie district had the disease. The Warsaw rate was estimated at 55 per cent.

At one time, health authorities estimated 18,000 persons dying monthly of tuberculosis in Poland but outside medical help has considerably cut the mortality rate.

One of the most important committees of the American Contract Bridge League is the master plan committee. It was through efforts of William M. When it comes to mathematical probabilities, Bill Anderson is one of the best, and he uses that talent in the play of a hand. He and his wife arrived at six hearts on today's hand and proceeded to make seven.

The opening lead of the six of diamonds led Anderson to believe that East held the diamond king and therefore West must hold at least the king of spades to justify his vulnerable overcall. Working on that theory, he went

Sheet Shortage Cuts Participation In Ku Klux Klan Parade

SWAINSBORO, GA.—(AP)—Hooded night riders of the Ku Klux Klan, 189 strong, rededicated themselves "to the protection of white womanhood" here Tuesday night. There would have been more Klansmen present, said a leader, but others were unable to obtain sheets.

In single file the white-robed Klansmen marched around the town square and through the residential section, ending on the courthouse lawn where they sang "America." On the last note a masked leader shouted: "Where's Walter Winchell?" The syndicated columnist both have written anti-Klan stories. Small groups of citizens gathered on sidewalks to watch the parade. Some were silent and others laughed.

Texas Former POWs Seek Tax Exemption

DALLAS — (AP) — More than 800 former war prisoners in Texas have been asked to support a "write your congressman" campaign in interests of an income tax exemption bill applicable to military pay received while prisoners of an enemy country.

The exemption bill was introduced by Rep. Lindley Beckworth (D-Tex.). It has been referred to the Ways and Means Committee. Henry L. Pritchett, Jr., of Dallas, secretary-treasurer of the Texas Prisoner of War Club, said he had sent copies of his correspondence with Texas congressmen to officials of the Lost Battalion Association, inviting them to join the move. Pritchett said he already had assurance of support from Texas Congressman Paul J. Kilday of San Antonio, Lyndon Johnson of Johnson City and George Mahon of Colorado City.

New Split Of Texas Democrats Looms In Wrangle On Civil Rights Proposal

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN—(AP)—Are Texas Democrats headed for another split—this time over President Truman's civil rights proposals—remindful of 1944's row? There is raw material for a three-way division. Some ultra-conservatives may want to go along with the plan of holding a separate Southern Democratic convention. Some liberals have already made up their minds to vote for Henry Wallace. Middle-of-the-roaders would stick to the old party lines, but many of them are already mad about the national party's apparent stand on the tidelands question. Southern rebel yells Wednesday had been echoed by Merritt Gibson of Longview, who was active in the 1944 fuss. He managed the anti-Roosevelt campaign of the Texas Regulars, who split from the Democratic Party when the State Supreme Court held the Roosevelt electors should be listed in the Democratic column

Wants Southern Convention "Southern Democrats ought to call a Southern Democratic convention," he said from his home in Longview. "We can't win in the national convention. This is not a matter for convention maneuvering. The people should rise up and throw the presidential election into the House of Representatives." He would not offer a guess on what might happen at the May convention. Neither would Roy Sanderford of Belton, who was permanent chairman of 1944 May convention. Crossways On Tidelands Already this year, the State Democratic Executive Committee has gotten crossways with the national party over the tidelands question. It threatened to withdraw Texas financial support for national party affairs and sharply criticized National Chairman J. Howard McGrath. The committee generally may be regarded as representative of the middle-of-the-roaders in Texas. Many party leaders contacted over the state were unwilling to go on the record over what might happen here in the storm stirred up by the President's civil rights declarations. They said they had heard of no organized movement at the grass roots to send county delegations to the May convention instructed on any issue but tidelands.

Hoof-Mouth Quarantine Line Okay, Says Report

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—There is no need of moving the northern quarantine line against the spread of foot and mouth disease, the joint U. S.-Mexican Commission has reported. The commission said a recent check of 230,875 animals in the area north of the line showed only two infected animals. The quarantine line is about 300 miles from the U. S. border. A quarantine fence is being constructed across Mexico to prevent further spread of the infection toward the United States.

WHAT PART DOES ADVERTISING PLAY IN YOUR FUTURE?
Here's How Advertising Helps Make Your Income Safe and Sure; Helps Create Good Jobs for Your Daughter and Son
TODAY producing goods is no longer America's big problem. In most fields selling the goods is the big job.
You know of dozens of businesses right in your neighborhood that could be twice as big as they now are if they could sell twice as much. And if they were twice as big, they'd employ twice as many people.
One of the lowest-cost methods of selling goods on a big scale is through advertising. Advertising sells goods. When more goods are sold, often prices come down—so more people buy those goods more often.
That means more jobs at the factory—and at all the firms that do business with that factory; the mines, mills, transportation companies, dealers, stores, banks, insurance companies, real estate firms, etc.
All along the line there are more and better jobs for everyone.
That's how advertising—by stimulating business—makes for a more secure present and brighter future for you and yours.
Other Ways Advertising Helps You:
1. Brings you better goods for less money.
2. Makes shopping more pleasant and easier.
3. Has given us the world's highest standard of living.
Advertising... BY SELLING MORE GOODS TO MORE PEOPLE
Makes your job more secure

Paratroopers Thaw Out Wednesday In Exercise Snowdrop

PINE CAMP, N. Y.—(AP)—Fifty-four paratroopers thawed out Wednesday in a bivouac area after forming the largest mass snow pile in U.S. Army history without for casualties.

The men parachuted Tuesday night planes 800 feet above the snow-covered drop zone. A snowed-out advance against an imaginary enemy followed, climaxing three months of training in the army's "Exercise Snowdrop" at this northern New York military village.

In sub-zero weather, the 500 troops depended upon sleeping bags and improvised shelters to keep warm. Each man wore 20-pounds of clothing. No fires were allowed. The move to the bivouac area involved an eight-mile hike on snow-covered roads and skis.

Free Education Plan Proposed by Truman Would Aid Colleges

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman's commission on higher education wants $1,875,000,000 in federal aid for colleges in the next five years.

But a recommendation that the government money go only to publicly supported institutions brought a vigorous dissent from two Catholic members of the commission.

The majority report said that any school accepting public funds should accept "the right of the people as a whole to exercise review and control of the educational policies and procedures of that institution."

"Such acceptance by privately controlled institutions would tend to destroy the competitive advantages and free inquiry which they have established and which are so important in providing safeguards to freedom," the majority said.

Monsignor Frederick G. Hochwalt, higher education director of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, and Martin R. P. McGuire, dean of the graduate school of Catholic University, disagreed. They said:

"We believe it is timely to call attention to the dangers of higher education system largely or completely dominated by the state. Exclusive control of education, more than any other factor made the dictatorships of Germany, Italy and Japan acceptable to an ever-increasing number of the population."

The majority and minority reports, released for publication, have been forwarded to Truman.

The majority acknowledged that its plan for free schooling for 12 years, plus low fees thereafter, "will undoubtedly force many of the weaker private schools out of existence."

The proposed $1,875,000,000 five-year outlay would be used to help pay operating and building costs of public colleges. The objective is to double enrollment by 1960.

SKEPTICISM

While one man is saying, "It can't be done," someone is doing it. Folks are skeptical of things they do not understand, never taking the trouble to study them. Revolutionary inventions have been scouted as impractical. Every new discovery has its hosts of doubters, without the unthinking boldy proclaim every new idea an impossibility because perchance, simple as it may be, it is unintelligible to them. The new is condemned, if for no other reason than its newness.

It is not unusual for some people to forget that these are days of change, when scientific revolutions are effected overnight. Skeptics ask, "What possible assistance can be given disordered kidneys, liver, stomach or heart by CHIROPRACTIC SPINAL ADJUSTMENTS?"

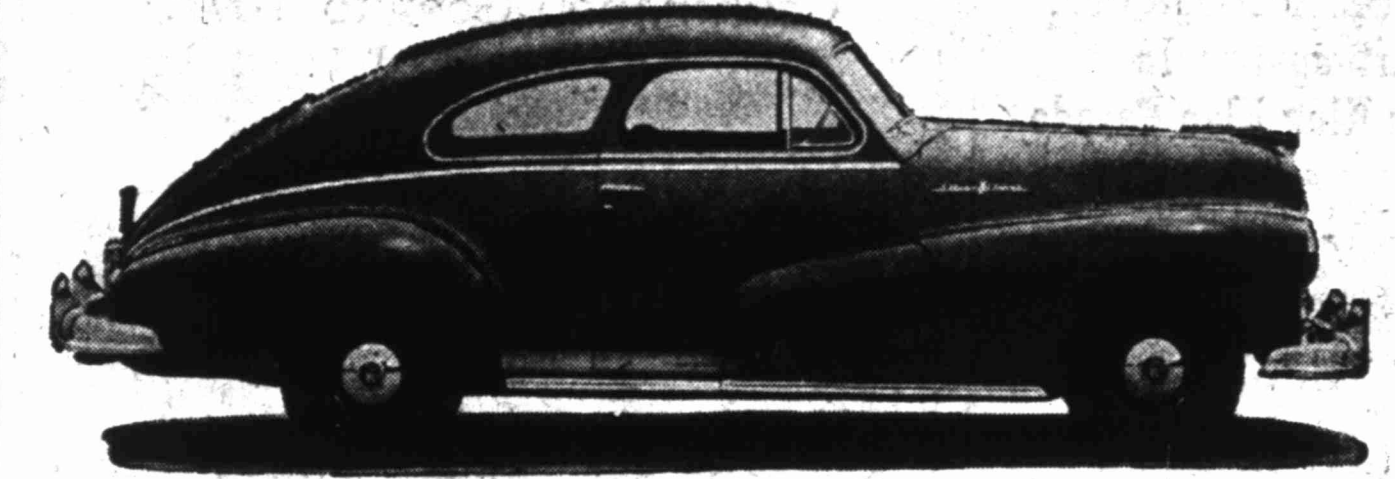

Pulling the trigger of a gun is remarkably easy. Its effect upon any living thing within the line of fire might well appear incredible. But to those who can reason from CAUSE to EFFECT, the consequences are clearly defined.

So it is with the SPECIFIC CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENT. It immediately releases the latent force which is an inherent part of all living organisms, stirring dormant matter to life and action. And its value in the restoration of conditions wherein normal functioning of the various organs may be resumed is testified to by thousands of chronic invalids who have regained normal health through its application.

Power Of Injunction In Taft-Hartley Act, 'Two-Edged Sword'

By MAX HALL

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The two-edged sword of the Taft-Hartley Act has come into full use. This weapon is the injunction power. It is a weapon so new and so important that people concerned with labor-management relations are watching it intently.

So far, ten injunctions (court orders) have been issued under the new labor law. Nine were against unions, ordering them to stop certain practices. The other was against an employer (General Motors).

The man who grasps the two-edged sword in his hand, Robert N. Denham, says the injunction power is "perhaps the most far-reaching feature of the act."

He also says it won't be used often for "it is too powerful and sharp a weapon to be weakened and dulled by indiscriminate usage."

He Has No Choice

The new law says neither unions nor employers may commit unfair labor practices. It gives Denham, as general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, the power to prosecute offenders. And it gives the five-man board the power to order the practices stopped.

But first the board must hold a trial on the charges. And such trials take a lot of time, sometimes more than a year.

So the new law, to cover urgent cases, gives Denham the power to seek a court order halting an alleged practice pending an NLRB verdict. The law says federal judges may issue such an order when they believe it is needed.

Denham can take this action when prosecuting any unfair practice. But whenever he prosecutes a union for certain kinds of practices—a secondary boycott for example—he not only can, but must, seek an injunction. He has no choice.

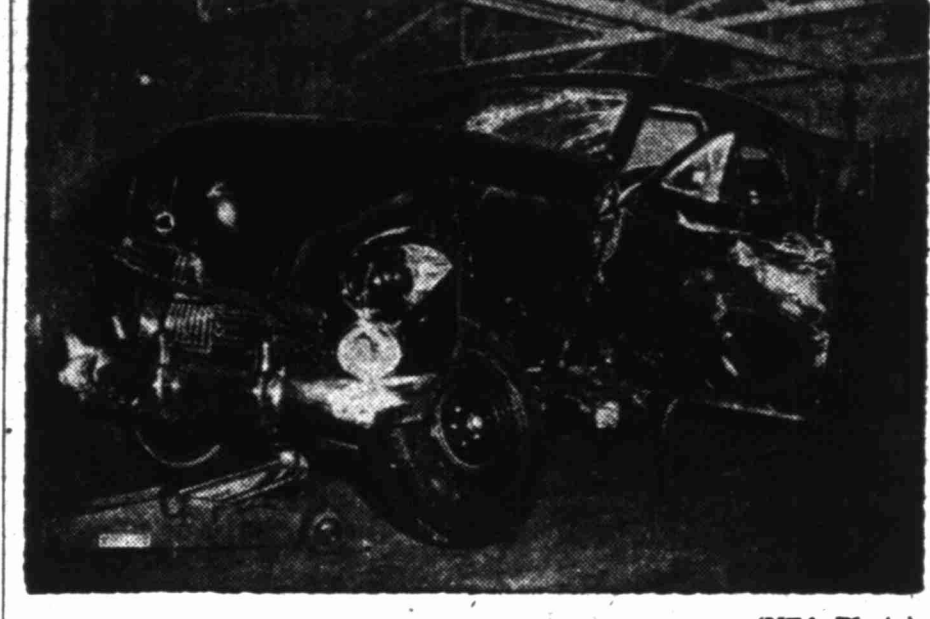

Most people, including Denham's office and leading members of Congress, have interpreted the Taft-Hartley Act as giving the injunction power to government officials only—and not to a union or employer.

But a federal judge in North Carolina has ruled that the NLRB (above) will be considered luxuries, including those for hunting.

The rules also say that "the size or the race of the dog will not influence a dog's classification."

The mayor says he knows his suggestions sound funny but "good or bad, all dogs eat and it so happens that they eat one of man's most important foodstuffs, meat." Meat is rationed in Brazil.

New Car Stolen, Wrecked

Three men broke into a motor sales room in Cleveland, Ohio, transferred license plates from a car being repaired to a new '47 model, and drove the shiny new auto out—right into the path of a big trailer truck. Result of a few action-packed seconds—one pile of wreckage, above, one thief in the hospital, probably fatally injured, two others sought by police.

Dogs Tax Meat Supply, So Rio May Tax Dogs

RIO DE JANEIRO—(AP)—Ninety thousand dogs in this South American capital are in the mayor's doghouse.

They eat meat, he says.

He sees no way to break them of this expensive habit. So he has proposed a "class" society for them, asking the city council to tax them according to the amount of work they do.

The speaker pointed out accomplishments of the past by the Chamber of Commerce. He said: "Its affairs are more civic than commercial. It will work in harmony with city government."

Sealy was presented by Lion John P. Butler.

New Lions Club members announced at the luncheon, with some of them being inducted, are Gordon Bird, Larry Burnside, Copper Daugherty, Jack Goddard, J. V. Hanks, Norman Hoffman, H. B. Horton, G. E. Payne, Sherwood O'Neal, H. D. Williams, Francis Weaver, Charles Robinson and Dr. M. C. Fitch.

Tom Sealy Speaks At Lions Meeting

Tom Sealy, newly-elected president of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, told members of the Lions Club at a luncheon meeting Wednesday, "Your Chamber of Commerce in 1948 will carry on, will keep in step and touch with new problems of our city."

The speaker pointed out accomplishments of the past by the Chamber of Commerce. He said: "Its affairs are more civic than commercial. It will work in harmony with city government."

Sealy was presented by Lion John P. Butler.

New Lions Club members announced at the luncheon, with some of them being inducted, are Gordon Bird, Larry Burnside, Copper Daugherty, Jack Goddard, J. V. Hanks, Norman Hoffman, H. B. Horton, G. E. Payne, Sherwood O'Neal, H. D. Williams, Francis Weaver, Charles Robinson and Dr. M. C. Fitch.

Two Perish In Chicago Garage Fire

CHICAGO—(AP)—A woman and a six-year-old boy perished Wednesday in a fire which destroyed a small South Side garage in which seven persons lived.

Fatally burned as they slept were Mrs. Birdie Smith, and Nor Mungson, whose father, Norah, 26, suffered serious burns. The boy's mother and her three other children, ranging in age from 17 months to five years, escaped without injury. Stockyards police said the fire started after an oil stove exploded.

13 Versatile Roles Offered In Tryouts For First '48 Play

Try-outs for the Community Theater production, "Guest in the House," will be held Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 8:00 p. m. in the City-County Auditorium.

Anyone interested in taking a part in the play is urged to attend either of the try-outs.

Evelyn, the female lead, is a slight, dark-haired girl who has the look of a delicate, wistful child. She has a horrible phobia of birds, and is a neurotic.

Ain Proctor, the supporting female lead, is a pleasant woman of approximately 35 years. She is the patient, loving wife of Douglas Proctor, the male lead, who is an artist of several different moods.

One of the "choice" roles in the play is that of Miriam, a tall beautiful model, who speaks some of the most clever lines. Miriam is quite frank, and easily angered.

Dignified Aunt Martha

The younger brother of Douglas Proctor, Dan, is in and out of the scenes, as he is supposed to be studying out of the state.

Aunt Martha is a dignified woman, partial to Dan, but looking out for the interests of the entire Proctor family. Her character has a definite effect on the entire mood of the play.

The healthy, lively daughter of Ann and Douglas, Lee, becomes infatuated by the neurotic Evelyn, thus affording a quite versatile role.

Mr. and Mrs. Dow are a middle-aged kindly couple.

Sympathetic Minister

The Proctor's maid, Hilda, is a hard-working woman, but is finally enraged by Evelyn's laziness. John is the butler of few words.

Doctor Shaw, the local minister to whom Evelyn runs for help, is a plump, sympathetic man, but finally becomes more stern and less understanding.

Rounding off the list of characters, Pamela Rhodes is a newspaper reporter out to get her story. She is accompanied by Cam Tracy, a newspaper photographer.

"Guest in the House," by Hagar Wilde and Dale Eunson, is a truly human story, portrayed by many types of characters.
