CONSTIPATION

Constipation is a sluggishness of the bowel resulting from a deficient perstalic motion or it is a condition resulting from a lack of motor tonicity in the muscular fibers of the intestine.

Specific Chiropractic readily alleviates symptoms of constipation by releasing the impingement upon nerves that supply the muscle wall of the intestine thereby giving the proper muscular activity.

If you are a victim of constipation, Specific Chiroproctic is the answer to your health problem.

Get-Tough Diplomacy

There is a candidate for President who, has been preaching for more than a year that the leaders of both major parties are committed to a policy of "get tough with Russia." Now at last there is some basis for his accusation. But most Americans, except for this candidate and his followers, will doubtless find encouragement in that fact.

The Truman Doctrine was not a get-tough policy. It was a move to save Greece from the imminent danger of communism imposed forcibly by the agents of a tough Russia. It was also a move to save Turkey from the certainty of a similar fate if her neighbor Greece were over-

The ERP is not a get-tough policy, either. Originally the Marshall Plan was meant to include Russia and her satellites. The European trend toward mutual military defense, with ERP's help, is a defensive gesture which arises from Russia's opposition to ERP and continuing ag-

Neither was the decision to rebuild Western Germany and make it an economic unit an example of toughness toward Russia. This, too, was a forced move resulting from Russia's insistence on a policy which would amount to America's financing German reparation payments to Russia.

But four recent events finally have given some notice that the U.S. intends to get tough.
