Old soldiers don't quit under fire, and so Field Marshal Jan Chrisbattle line, unbowed either by his 78 years or by his defeat in last week's election The world-famous soldier-statesman's United Party was beaten by the Nationalists headed by Dr. Francois Malan, and Smuts lost the prime ministership which he had held since 1939. The marshal even lost the race for re-election in his own constituency and so was deprived of his seat in Parliament. There was speculation that Smuts might quit politics and retire to his farm. However, there were two big arguments against such a move: 1. The Nationalists had won by a narrow margin, giving them a majority of only five seats in Parliament. Actually, despite the seat distribution. Smuts still had nearly 60 per cent of the population back of him.

Stand For Isolation

2. Doctor Malan and his followers stand for isolation from British Empire affairs and for the establishment of a republic. They also aim at social, cultural and territorial segregation of the 9,000,000 non-Europeans for the population of some 11,368,000.

Let's Go To The Rodeo

oath .--- Ecclesiastes 9:2.

The stage is set for another outstanding celebrationthe 14th Annual World Championship Midland Rodeowhich opens Thursday night in the huge all-steel plant of Midland Fair, Inc., and again Midland will be host to throngs of visitors from over the Southwest.

The big and widely-known Western attraction will continue through Sunday night, with thrill-packed performances scheduled Thursday. Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon and night. The eyes of the rodeo world will be focused during the next four days on our West Texas city, which has gained prominence by consistently staging one of the nation's finest rodeos.

And the 1948 show promises to be the biggest and best in history, with advance enthusiasm in Midland and over the area indicating record crowds at all performances.

Midland Rodeo has developed into an institution of the Southwest, and perhaps is the territory's biggest single drawing card. It belongs not only to the residents of Midland but to all citizens of this great and prosperous empire, and is an attraction of which citizens may well be proud.

Midland citizens and business firms, however, take the lead in staging and supporting the event which is the tary agreements for allocation of scarce materials in Amer-

J. D. Hicks, $10 South Dallas Street, reported to police Tuesday the theft of his automobile.

SAN ANTONIO -(P)- If Mrs. Dorothy Lawler finds a few likely $10,000 suitors she doesn't want to marry, a Laredo, Texas, waitress would like to look them over. Mrs. Aline McCleney read news-paper stories of Mrs. Lawler's offer to marry the best prospective bridegroom who has $10,000 for a wedding present.

So she wrote to a San Anton newspaper asking for help.

"If there is any way to get in touch with her (Mrs. Lawler)," the Laredo woman said, "please tell her after she picks one out, to please arter she picks one out, to please give the rest of them my address." Mrs. McCleney, who described herself as five feet, two inches tall with black hair and green eyes, in-dicated she wouldn't be a stickler for the $10,000.

"The difference between her and I," she wrote, "is I just want a good man to make a living."

SUGAR LAND. -(P)- Texas prison manager O. B. Ellis was expected at central prison farm here Wednesday to counsel two convicts who cut their heel tendons. Capt. R. J. Flanagan, warden, said Oliver Twist, 21, and William-Franklin Burnett, 27, both sent up from Dallas County, slashed their heels Tuesday because picking beans was "just too hard." Flanagan said the men want inside jobs.

"There's hardly enough work here to make a man eat good, much less make him tired from work," Flanagan said.
