Armo Spears Convicted Of Murder

15-Year Sentence Assessed By Jury; New Trial Sought

Armo Spears, 42, former cafe and liquor store owner, was convicted of murder in 70th District Court here at 11:20 a. m. Thursday and was sentenced to 15 years in the state penitentiary.

Spears was indicted for murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Robert L. Wallace, 30-year-old cafe cook, last October 12. The case was placed in the hands of the jury at 8 p. m. Wednesday.

T. D. Kimbrough, attorney for Spears, said a motion for a new trial will be filed. Meanwhile, Spears was remanded to the custody of Sheriff Ed Darnell.

Spears was calm as the verdict was read and as he was sentenced by District Judge G. C. Olsen.

Arguments in the case were concluded Wednesday evening. The jurors worked until 10:30 p. m. when they retired. They resumed their deliberations at 8 a. m. Thursday. Ted Thompson was foreman of the jury.

Sheriff Darnell, Eddie Stumm, and A. A. Jones were called to the witness stand Wednesday afternoon to testify as to the good character of Wallace. The taking of evidence was concluded at 2:14 p. m. Wednesday.

A motion for an instructed verdict was denied by District Judge G. C. Olsen before he presented his charge to the jury. The County Attorney Joe Mims opened the state's argument and T. D. Kimbrough followed for the defense. R. W. Hamilton, a special prosecutor was the next speaker and Henry Russell of Pecos, an attorney for the defense, followed.

District Attorney Joe Mims presented the concluding argument at a night session of the court Wednesday.

Spears told the jury he fired the fatal shot because he was afraid of Wallace and because of his attention to Wallace to stop his attention to Mrs. Spears before the divorce was granted last August. He blamed Wallace for breaking up the "home," and said he later told Wallace that he planned to marry.

Jurors in the case were Thompson, L. G. Yarbrough, Jr., H. T. Taylor, Barron Wiley, George Vannaman, T. E. Stewart, B. H. Spew, E. N. Thomson, R. C. Vest Jr., Keith M. Stuart, John M. Speed Jr., and W. W. Waddill.

Midland Ready For Rodeo Opening At 8 P. M. Thursday

Forty-dollar hats, handmade boots and skin-tight pants are very much in evidence. Saddle-toughened men slouch in hotel lobbies with the casual grace peculiar to cowboys. Cowgirls in colorful costumes, all curves and curls, flash smiles bright as a Spring morning off the Pecos. It's rodeo time again in Midland.

The 14th Annual World Championship show opens Thursday night at 8 o'clock, and cowboys and cowgirls from all parts of America's cattle country are here for the biggest, fastest show ever held in this section of the great Southwest.

Seventy-eight cowhands are signed up for roping and riding events, Fred Alvord, rodeo secretary, announced Thursday morning. Among these contestants are top professionals of the business, buckaroos from Montana and Wyoming, California and Arizona, New Mexico and Idaho. Also among them are dozens of workaday ranch hands from cattle outfits right here in West Texas, competing for a chunk of the $7,400 purse winners will divide.

The greatest cowboy exhibition ever held will be featured in the rodeo opening Thursday night and in the other four nights. More than 20 young ladies have entered this event, in which a $1,500 prize list plus entrance fees will be awarded. They are a beautiful bunch of femininity, these cowgirls, but they won't be judged on personal appearance when it comes to their rodeo performance. They will win or lose according to the way they ride in a thrilling, dangerous leg race.

Midland night is designated "Midland night" at the rodeo, and performance Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon and night will honor other cities of the area.

A huge parade was to file through the streets at 4 p. m. Thursday, revealing all the picturesque, the glamor and glory of the old West and the new. The opening event of the rodeo Thursday night and at succeeding performances is the grand entry, in which all contestants and featured trick riders appear.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman, in a mood to fight for a new era in the world, said Thursday as he made ready to take his case to the people in 18 states.

To the latest suggestion that he withdraw from the race, Truman replied with a sharp declaration he was "not brought up to run from a fight."

The President left Democratic Party chieftains on the sidelines in ordering up his special train for a strenuous speaking tour which may hold the answer to his political future.

The White House labeled the cross-country swing "non-political," but disclosed plans for five major addresses and a score or more off-the-cuff rear platform talks expected to furnish ammunition for the 1948 campaign.

Truman sets out at 10:05 p. m. for a prepared address at Chicago Friday night after brief talks at Fort Wayne and Gary, Ind.

The presidential special will turn eastward again from Los Angeles the night of June 14.

'Miss New Mexico' Here For Rodeo

Juanita Battenfield of Clovis, N. M., arrived here Thursday morning to participate in the glamorous Cowgirl Sponsor Contest at the 14th Annual World Championship Midland Rodeo which opens Thursday night. The celebration will continue through Sunday night. Miss Battenfield, one of New Mexico's best all-around cowgirls, is among the more than 50 sponsors here from four states to compete in the cowgirl event in which prizes valued at more than $1,500 are offered.

Civil Rights Fight Looms As Senate Debates Draft

WASHINGTON (AP)—A five-year peacetime draft to meet the manpower needs of both the regular armed services and the reserves was laid before the Senate Thursday as "the premium on our peace insurance policy."

This description came from Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Senate Armed Services Committee in a speech prepared for the opening of debate on the controversial measure.

Gurney and other GOP leaders hope to win Senate passage of the draft revival bill by early next week—possibly through extra hour sessions. But there is stormy debate and possible trouble ahead.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.)—with advance pledges of widespread Southern support—has promised to fight for an amendment that would require the services to set up segregated white and negro units for all men who asked to serve only with those of their own race.

On top of this, Senator Langer (R-ND), an avowed foe of the draft, said he will offer seven amendments to cover President Truman's civil rights program.

The Senate measure would require all men 18 through 25 to register. Those in the 19-25 group would be liable for induction and two years service. Eighteen-year-olds could volunteer for one year of training.

Under terms of the Senate bill, Gurney said drafted men after completing two years of service would have to serve in the reserve for five years. They could avoid this by volunteering for an additional year in the regular service, or two years in the National Guard.

The 18-year-olds who train for only one year would have to serve six years in the reserve or four years in the National Guard.

Veterans with more than 16 months service between Sept. 16, 1945—date of the World War II draft law—and enactment of the new bill would be deferred along with those with more than 90 days' service during the "shooting war."

That is defined as between Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941, and VJ-Day, Aug. 14, 1945.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $3,686,733,250 Navy appropriation bill for the new fiscal year beginning July 1, was passed Thursday by the House and sent to the Senate. Passage was by voice vote.

CHICAGO (AP)—Four members of the International Executive Board of the CIO United Farm Equipment Workers resigned Thursday when the board voted to comply with non-Communist phases of the Taft-Hartley Act.

NANKING (AP)—Chinese sources reported a big battle under way Thursday between five government divisions and 100,000 Chinese Communists on the Honan plain east of Nanyang.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House passed Thursday a bill lifting the 10 per cent excise tax from cosmetics used in personal services in barber and beauty shops. The bill now goes to the Senate.

New Flood Threat Seen In Northwest

PORTLAND, ORE.—(AP)—The Columbia River system spawned a new flood in its headwaters Thursday. Hundreds of miles downstream, winds whipping in from the Pacific flocked the crest of the old one over the tops of weakened dikes.

Warning of the new flood crashed like a body punch into tired residents of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia, who have been battling two weeks against the river's worst rampage.

From the Canadian Rockies down the Columbia's tortuous 1,000-mile course to the sea, flood-battered cities and farm communities rallied to face the second round all except those who have not yet won the first one.

Mediator Seeks Accord On Hour For Cease-Fire

Count Folke Bernadotte sought Thursday an accord between Arabs and Jews on the exact hour of ending the fighting in Palestine, possibly by Sunday. He conferred in Egypt and arranged to fly to Amman, Tel Aviv and Beirut.

Both sides have agreed to a four-week armistice in the 20-day-old war. The chairman of the UN Security Council, Bryan DeLoach, Paris, ruled the negotiations unconditional despite the five Jewish "assumptions" and the three Arab "explanations"—poles apart.

The Swedish count was empowered as UN mediator to fix the moment for shooting to stop.

The Arabs said five days would be required because of poor communications to their five armies scattered through Palestine. The United States was reported ready to insist the guns be stilled by Sunday.

Fighting Continues
While at least temporary peace has been agreed upon, the fighting went on in the Negev Desert and to the northeast and southeast of Tel Aviv.

Israel's Foreign Ministry made the costly mistake of unilaterally deciding the cease fire was effective at 6 p. m. EST. last Tuesday, the hour when Arab and Jewish answers had to be filed. Neither the UN nor the Arabs had ordered the cease fire.

Convinced of their error, the Israelis cancelled the premature cease fire order Wednesday night.

The four-week armistice is parlayed with a total arms embargo to the seven Arab nations and Israel. Hosts were so intense, and the expressed understandings of the truce conditions were so different, it was impossible to forecast whether real peace would actually come.

House Panel Asks Cut In ERP Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 25 per cent cut in funds for the Marshall Plan and other foreign aid programs was urged Thursday by the House Appropriations Committee.

The committee sent to the House floor for probably hot debate Friday a $5,980,710,228 global assistance measure.

This is a reduction of only $553,000,000, or 7.5 per cent, in the amount Congress itself authorized and President Truman asked.

But the effect is a one-quarter slash for this reason: The authorization law provided that the money could be spent during 12 months. But the committee said the cash it is willing to put up must be stretched out over 18 months.

Slightly more than $5,000,000,000 of the total asked had been budgeted for use during the 12 months ending next April 30, or at the rate of $417,000,000 per month.

Spending Rate Slashed
The committee trimmed that total to $4,447,000,000 for 18 months at a spending rate of $247,000,000 monthly.

Other funds in the bill were cut $150,000,000 with the money to be spent during a 12-month period as originally planned.

The dismissed weeks of closed-door hearings during which the committee heard Paul G. Hoffman, ECA administrator, estimate the four-year cost of the foreign aid program at from $13,000,000,000 to $18,000,000,000.

Hoffman told the committee he regards the program as "a war to win the peace" and as good business for America rather than charity for Europe.

3—THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, JUNE 3, 1948

Social Events Will Fete Cowgirl Sponsors Here For Midland Rodeo

Pretty cowgirl sponsors here to take part in the 1948 Annual World Championship Midland Rodeo will be the honorees in a round of social events which will keep them in a whirl during the time they are not competing in the rodeo arena. More than 50 cowgirls from Texas, Arizona and New Mexico had registered at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday morning.

The social events have been arranged by members of the Hostess Committee who were on hand to greet the visitors upon their arrival here. Mrs. Joan Nobles is chief hostess, assisted by Co-Hostesses Elizabeth Ann Cowden, Monte Jo Glass, Dorothy Faye Holt, Alma Faye Cowden and Norma Jean Hubbard. Members of the hostess group were guests of the Lions Club at its luncheon Wednesday noon.

Thursday noon, the Rotary Club was host to the large group of sponsors at its luncheon in Hotel Scharbauer.

Annual Sponsors Ball
The cowgirls Friday morning will be the guests of the hostesses at a Coke party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Glass, 911 West Texas Street.

The annual Sponsors' Ball will be held Friday night in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

LEG ART

THE success of leg make-up depends upon a fuzz-free skin on which to work and a smooth technique of applying paint.

If you shave legs, pave the way for the razor with a stubble-softening lather. A dry shave too often leaves plain-point stubble.

For a smooth technique of putting on liquid stockings, use the mitt method. For that, strap a velour powder puff to your hand then pour enough liquid make-up into a saucer for one application and dip in mitt to soak up the stuff.

Apply mitt to legs with vertical toe-to-knee strokes. The use of a mitt almost guarantees uniform coverage with no over-lapping. If you'll watch what you're doing. After using mitt, hang it up to dry. To use again, simply moisten it with water. —ALICIA HART, NEA Staff Writer.

New OES Officers Are Installed In Rites At McCamey

McCAMEY — At an impressive candlelight ceremony Monday night, Mrs. Lois Rambo and C. B. Lee were installed worthy matron and worthy patron, respectively, of McCamey OES Chapter No. 618.

Anna McCollum and Vera Powell presided at the register. With a background of an all-white dais, the lectern was decorated with flowers in the colors of the star points from which satin streamers draped to the floor. Just back of the worthy matron's station was a large star of silver on a background of blue, surrounded by smaller stars. Across the large star were the words "Serving Others," the worthy matron's theme for the year. Tall candles, in which cathedral tapers burned, stood on either side.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Letha Elms, the retiring matron, who also gave the welcoming address. The "Lord's Prayer" was given in unison. Ruth Gaddy presented the retiring matron and patron, Mrs. Elms and J. E. Elms, with past matron and past patron pins. Wanda Elms, daughter of the past matron and patron, dedicated a song to her parents.

The junior past matron gave a farewell to her officers and asked them to retire. As the lights were lowered the Bible was presented in a most impressive manner. Ruby Nelle Braly and Mrs. Ruby Braly entered carrying lighted candles. They were followed by Dorothy St. John, who carried the opened Bible. Mrs. Braly presented the installing officers, who were: grand installing officer, Mrs. Gene Jacobs; installing marshal, Mrs. Louise Hudson; installing chaplain, Mrs. Ida Lee; installing secretary, Mrs. Lillian Morris; installing organist, Mrs. Hazel Edwards. All wore red rose corsages.

Officers Listed
Each officer-elect, with the exception of the worthy patron, associate patron and sentinel, was dressed in a blue tulle evening dress, each carrying a small white Bible topped with a gardenia with white satin streamers. The Bible was opened by Misses Ruby Nelle Braly and Dorothy St. John. As each officer entered, a suitable reading was given by Mrs. Braly.

The officers are: Mrs. Lois Rambo, worthy matron; C. B. Lee, worthy patron; Mrs. Iva Boyett, associate matron; W. E. Boyett, associate patron; Mrs. Ila Gene Faulkner, secretary; Mrs. Lena Andrews, treasurer; Ruth Gaddy, conductress; Mrs. Caille Fisher, chaplain; Mrs. Peggy Smith, marshal; Mrs. Margorie Rice, organist; Mrs. Elizabeth Tallaferra, Adah; Mrs. Edna Simmons, Ruth; Mrs. Bonnie Pinkerton, Esther; Mrs. Edith Haley, Martha; Mrs. Roberta Maxcy, Electa; Mrs. Lena Wilkerson, warden; and Olin Smith, sentinel. After Mrs. Rambo was installed, Mrs. Braly sang "Star of the East."

Mrs. Rambo presented gifts to the installing officers and others who assisted with the installation.

Many Midlanders Attend Ceremony Opening New Youth Center Here

All Teen-Agers Are Invited To Join Building Presented On Silver Platter

By JOAN INGRAM
Started first in 1944, the Youth Center began then on the long, up-and-down hill road, finally to arrive at its destination Wednesday night.

The corner of Illinois and E streets bustling with activity a day and a night, when several hundred Midlanders, both adults and teen-agers, viewed the Center at its formal opening.

The asbestos siding exterior is the only reminder that the building formerly was a USO Army Canteen, leased from the city.

Outside improvements on the 100-foot lot, leased from the Presbyterian Church for five years, included cement curbs, sidewalks, property grading and general repairs.

Natural and mauve walls, hardwood floors and functional furniture have transformed the inside into an attractive, fun-inspiring building.

Located in one corner is a large, curved counter, from which all kinds of soft drinks and any flavor of ice cream a teen-ager could order.

Big blue plate glass mirrors decorate the wall behind the fountain. The Youth Center is complete with reading retreat, library, Hollywood powder rooms, air conditioners and telephone.

On the east side of the lot is a rectangular cement court for shuffle-board and other such games. For the present, music will be played from a record player. However, it is hoped that a juke-box will be installed soon.

Plans are to have the dancers put in nickels for the records they wish to play until the box is paid for, then the music will be gratis.

Workshops Planned
Underway also are plans for the construction of workshops where photography, airplane building and other hobbies can be conducted.

Anyone looking for Bill Engel, Youth Center director, will find him in his office in the southwest balcony (if he isn't entertaining, or being entertained by, the members).

Engel, a former USO director in Killean and Laredo, is a native of Washington, D. C. Having spent most of his school days in Europe, he is well versed in tales of the continental people. Later he returned to Europe, after World War I, to study music. Engel was connected with a publishing house in New York for 16 years.

"This center," Engel says, "is not for high school students. It's for all teen-agers. If a fellow or girl's 13th birthday is tomorrow, he can apply for membership tomorrow."

Membership is open to any and all Midland youths who meet the age requirements, 13 to 20. The annual fee, $1, is used to purchase equipment for the Center. It is not profit.

While Engel is the director, he stressed that he would not run the Youth Center. "The members will make their own rules and see that everyone obeys them. They will have committee chairmen who will be responsible for the different functions of the Center," Engel announced.

Richard Clark recently was elected over-all chairman. Committee chairmen serving with him are Joan Boykin, secretary; Joy Gayton, membership; Sarah Link, finance; Bob Short, program; Don Marx, building and grounds; and Swan Hagler, publicity.

OTTO JONES HERE
Otto Jones, manager of the Spade Ranch in Mitchell County, and an official of the Colorado City Frontier Roundup and Rodeo, arrived here Thursday morning to attend the Midland Rodeo.

You Can Wear New Bare-Topped Dresses; Choker-Necklaces Delect Neck, Shoulders

Strands of white beads wound around the throat and allowed to swing down the back minimize neck length and bony shoulders.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

You don't have to pass up those smart, cool, bare-topped Summer fashions just because your neck is long and thin and shoulder bones show.

What you can do to cut down length of neck and make bones look unimportant is to wear multiple strands of choker beads. Fashion models, who are often exaggeratedly slender, wind yard-long strings of colored beads around their necks; swing any pendant loops that are left over to the back. This gay addition to nude-topped clothes—sun duds and evening gowns—serves two purposes. The jewelry is decorative. The horizontal lines of the choker-necklace minimize neck length and the pendant loop dangling in the back makes shoulder bones look unimportant. Here's another decorative trick you can use to relieve the vast expanse of a bare neck: Wear a long necklace as a halter. Attach it to a bare-topped dress with jeweled pins or clips, and make the string of beads serve as a halter-strap.

McCamey News

McCAMEY—Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ash and sons, Joe Dan and Jerry Dean, of Crane were in McCamey Friday, where they enjoyed a picnic supper in the City Park with relatives and friends.

Mrs. R. Short and children, accompanied by two nieces, Anne and Carla Horton of Sundown, visited recently in the home of her sister, Mrs. D. W. Ash, in Crane.

Mrs. Orab James is here on a business and pleasure trip from Fort Stockton. She is visiting in the Fred Gibson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gibson and children, Rhonda and Freddy, and Mrs. Elizabeth Rains were in Artesia, N. M., last week, visiting Mrs. Rains' daughter and Mrs. Gibson's sister, Mrs. Max Schulze, and family.

Earl Stribling of Pecos, formerly of McCamey, visited this week in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stribling.

Burly McCollum and Jess Russell were in Midland Tuesday on a business trip.

The Vacation Bible School, sponsored by the Methodist, First Christian and Presbyterian Churches, will hold its final ceremony next Sunday. A picnic for the children of the class is scheduled for noon Sunday, and that night, at 7:30, the parents will attend a special commencement class to be held in the Methodist Church.

McCamey Girl Scouts Meet With Leaders

McCAMEY — The Senior Girl Scouts, Troop One, met recently in the home of their leader, Mrs. Earnest Wesner, and Mrs. C. Evans, assistant leader.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Florence O'Callaghan, and the minutes were read by the secretary, Mamie Roberts. The girls discussed the subject of a Summer trip, and decided that, instead of taking a trip, the troop will have a slumber party at the Little House.

Edward, Prince of Wales who was the son of Edward III, was known as the Black Prince, probably because he wore black armour.

The British Attitude

The British government seems to have washed its hands not only of the Palestine mandate but also of its responsibilities as one of the leading members of the United Nations. The UN's handling of the Holy Land crises, first hampered by an awkward American policy, now suffers from a calculated British policy of obstruction. In the face of all the evidence, Britain refuses to admit that the Palestine war is a threat to peace. Her delegation in the Security Council has blocked an American resolution which would recognize that threat.

Meanwhile the Arab belligerents have continued to receive British arms. Egyptian flyers in British planes have dropped British bombs on Israeli cities. The British government disclaims all responsibility for the actions of King Abdullah's Arab Legion unless the Council finds Abdullah guilty of aggression. And it thwarts all Council attempts to take such action. Yet this best fighting outfit of the Arab armies is still subsidized by Britain to the tune of $8,000,000 a year, and it is still commanded by British officers.

The United Kingdom is at least morally bound by the General Assembly's decision on partition, even though it abstained from voting on the question. But its present actions are not even neutral, let alone sympathetic to UN policy.

At the same time the British press and public seem to be largely anti-American as well as pro-Arab. Truman's recognition of Israel has come in for sharp criticism. Certainly the American position has been inconsistent, to say the least. But the recognition of Israel is defensible. It makes some amends for this government's desertion of its early and active support of partition. It also accepts an accomplished fact.

The present British position is even less excusable than the stand that Britain took when Mussolini invaded Ethiopia. For today's policy is one of open support of the aggressor rather than of the hesitant inaction toward the Fascist invader. And this support of the Arabs is particularly cold-blooded when the service of Jews in the British army is contrasted with the hostility and open pro-Hitlerism that some of the Arab leaders displayed in World War II.

British policy has opened up an unpleasant rift in Anglo-American relations. But that is only a minor issue. The real tragedy and danger are Britain's selfish injustice toward the new State of Israel and her stubborn refusal to cooperate with the United Nations in trying to stop an unnecessary conflict which contains the seeds of peril for Britain and the world.

Frugal Conversationalists

When Jacob Malik arrived to replace Andrei Gromyko as Russia's chief spokesman in the UN, he set some sort of record by answering "No comment" to about 30 questions put to him by New York reporters. At that, the new delegate may turn out to be more talkative than Gromyko, whose only answer to so many questions has been just plain "no."

Embarrassing Precedent

Two Oklahoma boys, 11 and 12, stole a plane and, as you probably read, flew it 120 miles and landed it safely. Their knowledge of flying, they said, came from reading comic books. We feel that those kids will be cited by a lot of their contemporaries when parents start saying, "For heaven's sake, put down those comics and go read a book that will teach you something."

An Oregon man has eaten pancakes every morning for 25 years. He certainly believes that one good turn deserves another.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Creation Of German State Seen As Result Of Five-Nation Talks

By DEWITT MACKENZIE, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst. It looks very much as though we finally may be about to witness the creation of a new provisional German state out of the three Western zones occupied by America, Britain and France.

That's the way this column interprets the joint announcement by the United States and the leading countries of Western Europe that they have reached tentative agreement for the development of Western Germany. This accord is reported to provide for full German participation in the European Recovery Program.

Besides America, the nations involved in this far-reaching agreement are Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. The latter five recently formed an alliance, known as the Benelux group, and the nations have agreed to work together in the various governments to give their formal approval, which the U. S. State Department says it hopes will be done "at an early date."

If this provisional German state is established, it will represent one of the most important of the post-war developments. It will, of course, mean there is no present possibility of creating a unified Germany by joining with the Eastern Soviet zone of occupation.

As a matter of fact, the Russian area has been thoroughly communized, and the Muscovites have persistently refused to cooperate with the Western zones. Proposals of this British Military Government in Germany Wednesday issued a scorching report charging that the Russian occupation zone is a police state where "Soviet ruthlessness" has eliminated virtually all political opposition. The report declares the position of Germans opposing the Red policies has become so hopeless there is "apprehension that nothing short of force will improve conditions."

However, the Western Democracies haven't abandoned hope of achieving a united Germany in due course, despite the fact that the Bolsheviks show no signs of cooperation. Having tried everything they know to achieve unity, the Democracies now apparently propose the drastic step of setting up a new German state because it is essential to European Recovery.

Pre-war Germany was a keystone of the European economic structure. The continent cannot recover unless she is put on her feet. So the objective of the agreement among the Democracies is to make Germany self-supporting and thus able to contribute to European Recovery as a whole.

Veterans May Enroll In Correspondence School

Veterans who desire to study at home under the G. I. Bill again may enroll with the International Correspondence Schools, David Eckert, San Angelo representative of the school, said here Thursday. He announced ICS again is accepting enrollments of veterans under the G. I. Bill of Rights and Public Law 16 by virtue of a new contract recently effected with the Veterans Administration.

SOVIET AMBASSADOR DEPARTS FOR MOSCOW

NEW YORK (AP)—Leaving La Guardia Field Wednesday, Soviet Ambassador Alexander Panushkin said he will confer with his government in Moscow on "lend lease questions."

The talks, he said, will include "the matter of the return of the American ships" loaned to Russia during the war.

Manhattan's Gold Diggers Strike It Rich

By HAL BOYLE. NEW YORK (AP)—More gold diggers have struck it rich in Manhattan than all the mining prospectors in the fabulous West. But there also is quiet and unglamorous quest for gold that goes on here constantly—and nets above $500,000 a year.

These prosaic treasure seekers are the men who have the job of recovering the fragmentary particles of gold lost by 500 New York City firms in the manufacture of precious metal jewelry.

There is an old saying that gold is where you find it. This is particularly true of these indoor prospectors. They have found it in the air, in wash water, and by putting a vacuum cleaner to the hair of women jewelry workers.

These minute specks of gold also lodge in the clothing of workmen, in shoes, tools, work benches, chairs and floor cracks. It's worth the cost of the treasure hunt to regain them. They add up to big money.

"We recover about $50,000 annually from such sources," said W. Waters Schwab, president of the J. R. Wood & Sons, the nation's largest wedding ring manufacturing firm.

Recycling Floor Sweepings. In its 94-year history this firm has introduced many methods of gold recovery now typical in the precious metal jewelry industry, which centers here.

The largest amount is probably recovered simply by burning floor sweepings and refining the bits of gold that have fallen from work benches.

Many firms now also supply aprons to their expert workmen and require them to be worn. The company launders the aprons itself. The water goes through settling tanks as does the water from special basins in which the workmen also must wash their hands each night before leaving the plant.

This prevents the waste of gold which accidentally stuck to the workmen's clothing and hands. Jewelry manufacturers long suspected their workrooms had 14-karat air. Introduction of a special type filter to trap microscopic particles of gold floating in the air confirmed this to an amazing degree.

"In a single department where gold is worked as much as $10,000 can be salvaged in a single year," Schwab said.

For a time a number of plants recovered considerable gold dust—and perhaps dandruff, too—by vacuuming the hair of women employees. This practice now is obsolete.

"The ladies stood on their dignity and objected," Schwab laughed. "They insisted they wash their own hair or be taken to a first class beauty parlor—free."

So beauty and industry came to a compromise. The managements put away the vacuum cleaners—and the ladies agreed to work with their hair lightly bound in keratinchiefs.

"Do we wash the keratinchiefs?" said Schwab. "Indeed we do."

Doctors Investigate Leukemia But Exact Cause Is Unknown

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

Leukemia is a condition of unknown cause in which there are not only more white cells in the blood than there should be but also there are abnormal forms and types of cells. Normally there are between 5,000 and 10,000 white cells in a cubic millimeter of blood, but in leukemia the number of white cells is normal and abnormal—rises to 30,000 or 40,000 and sometimes more than 100,000 in a cubic millimeter.

There are several types of leukemia. In the rapid or acute cases, the body becomes overwhelmed with these abnormal white cells. It is usual for a patient to become weaker rapidly. Bleeding may take place from the gums or into the skin. In the slower or more chronic cases, enlargement of the lymph glands in the arm pits, groin or neck may be the first sign of the disease. The spleen also is usually enlarged. Increasing fatigue is another common early sign.

The exact diagnosis of leukemia is based on examination of the blood under the microscope. This is done by taking a small drop of blood and counting the white cells. The blood is also smeared on a glass slide, stained with a special dye and examined under the microscope.

Those who are afflicted with leukemia, especially the chronic varieties, can be helped temporarily in many cases by blood transfusion, sometimes by X-rays over the spleen, or by certain kinds of arsenic preparations taken by mouth. Other

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Three Mighty Important Ideas. Maybe you read, where a great encyclopedia has sorted all basic ideas into a few select groups. Under the letter "T" they have: Temperance - Truth - Tyranny. Sounds like a funny combination. Add to philosophic a little, notice that Truth is in the center—between Tyranny and Temperance.

Now and then you hear folks criticize temperate people who enjoy a moderate glass of beer... who talk about "two beers" getting some one into trouble, and claim: "There ought to be a law!"

Then Truth steps in between, and points out that two beers never got anybody into trouble—and that somebody's trying to distort the facts. No, there shouldn't be a law—there should be Truth.

From where I sit, those ideas are arranged just right. Temperance on one side, Tyranny on the other—and Truth in the middle—seeing that Tyranny never encroaches upon Temperance.

Texas' Allen Lawler Will Play Pro Football

TEKARKANA, TEXAS.—(P)—Allen Lawler, University of Texas sprinter and football player, says he will play professional football with the Chicago Bears next fall. Lawler, who graduates this summer, said the Bears told him they need a "fast man to catch passes." His teammates of the last two years, ace passer Bobby Layne, has already signed with the Bears.

22 Pitchers Toe Rubber In Loop Tilts

By The Associated Press
Pitchers and pinchhitters passed in parade in the Texas League Wednesday night. Twenty-two hurlers trudged to the mound and only one found it comfortable to stay. At the same time, 12 pinchhitters plied their trade. For the most part, they were not too successful.

The standings remained unchanged for a change, with the most notable happening San Antonio's ninth straight loss. Houston caused it 9-4.

In other games, Dallas rebounded from a bad licking Tuesday night to trip Fort Worth 6-3; Tulsa took a wild 14-10 decision from Oklahoma City and Beaumont edged Shreveport 6-5.

Pete Masar was the only pitcher to go the route, giving up 10 hits to San Antonio. His mates took advantage of Padre errors to keep him in the game. They scored six times in the second inning.

Warren Plays Fireman
Tulsa took an 11-1 lead in the first three innings, then Oklahoma City broke loose. Grant Dunlap's homer with two on base helped the Indians make up some of the margin, but Tommy Warren played fireman and protected the Oilers' seventh victory in eight games.

Three unearned runs in the seventh inning was good enough for Beaumont. Two Shreveport errors produced the tallies.

Dallas pushed across four runs in the sixth inning, then added two in the seventh to beat Fort Worth. Three Cat pitchers couldn't halt the Rebels.

Seven Southwestern Tracksters Drop From Duel Of Champions

DALLAS.—(P)—Seven Southwest Conference trackmen have withdrawn from the "Duel of Champions" meet here Friday night between Big Seven and Southwest Conference athletes.

Withdrawal of the seven men, all place winners in conference competition, enhanced the Big Seven's chances at an upset victory. Four A&M athletes dropped out in favor of commencement exercises.

Richard Brooks, Texas, dropped out of the mile; Webb Jay, A&M, from the broad jump and 100-yard dash; Bill Cardon, A&M, from the 200-yard low hurdles; Arthur Evans, A&M, high jump; Jim Hoff, Rice, and Don Sparks, Texas, from the 300-yard run, and Johnny Davis, A&M, from the pole vault.

Replacements include Allen Lawler, Texas, who will defend his meet championship in the 100-yard dash; August Erfurth, Rice, who will do the same in the 220-yard low hurdles; Bob Walters, Texas, in the pole vault and Walter Coleman, A&M, in the broad jump.

The first group of Big Seven athletes is due to arrive here Thursday night.

Borger Backs Into Second Slot In Loop

By The Associated Press
Borger was back in second place in the West Texas-New Mexico League Thursday, though the Cassers didn't exactly win this spot.

Lubbock dropped a doubleheader to Albuquerque Wednesday night 9-1, 5-3, to slide to third as the Cassers were bowing to Abilene 14-9.

Pace-setting Pampa split with Clovis, losing the first game 12-7, then taking the nightcap 11-7. Amarillo won an easy one from Lamesa 14-8.

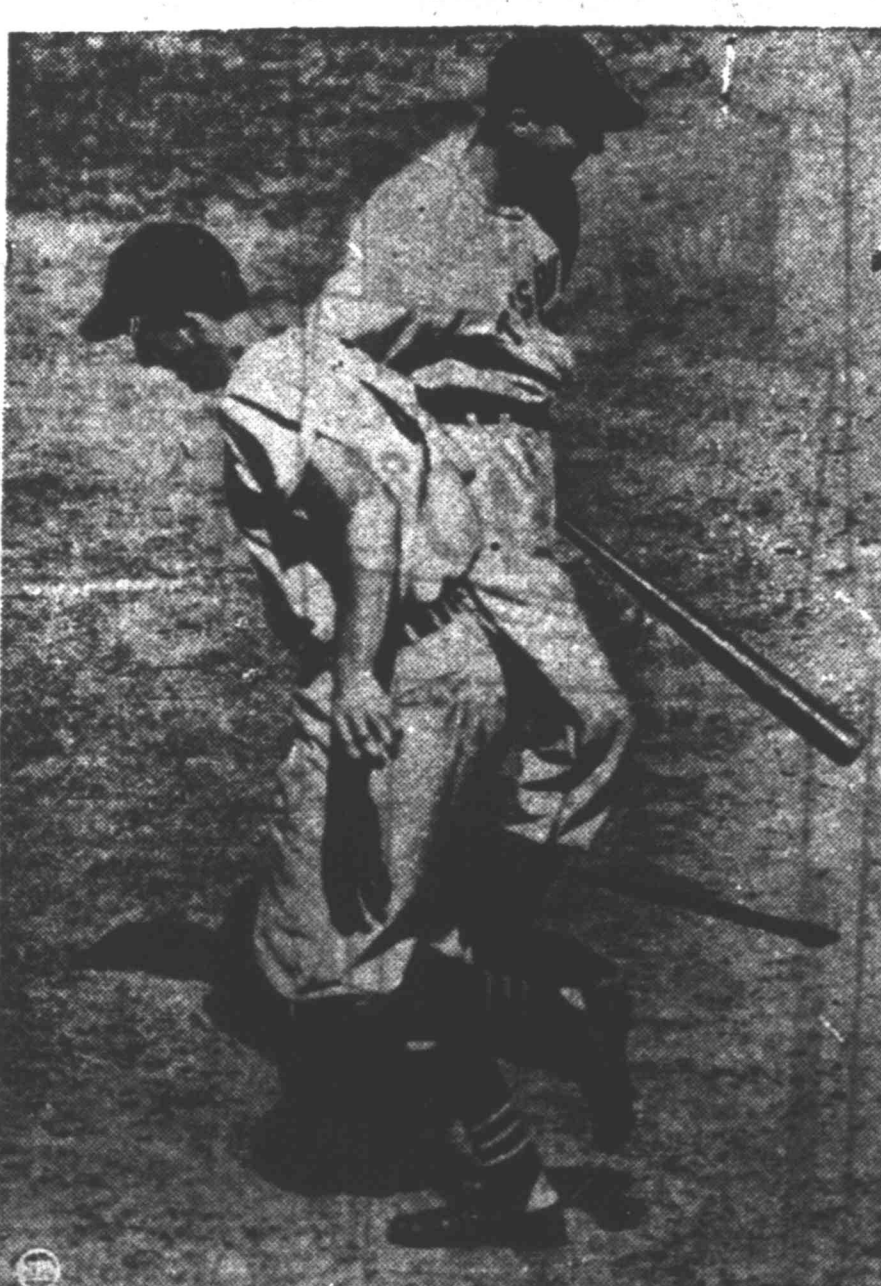

Dan Pinto's lusty hitting paced the Dukes to both victories over Lubbock. He hit a two-run triple in the first game and duplicated the feat in the nightcap.

Seven runs in the third inning was good for Clovis in the first game, but in the nightcap, Pampa cut loose against George Matthews for five runs in four innings.

Bob Crues hit his 24th homer of the year and Frank Mekules and Paul Halter hit for the circuit as Amarillo downed Lamesa.

Five Borger errors combined with seven hits enabled Abilene to beat Borger.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Durocher's Hurling Staff Gets Right To Start Bums Climbing

By RALPH BODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Slowly but surely the Brooklyn Dodgers are climbing back into the National League pennant race. The defending champions, after a disastrous start that found them in and out of last place, are in sixth place Thursday, only five games behind the post-rising New York Giants and two games out of the first division.

Manager Leo Durocher's pitching staff, which took plenty of beatings in the early going, has suddenly righted itself. Ralph Brannen, Freacher Roe and Joe Hatten leading the way. In the Dodgers' first 31 games the starting Brooklyn pitcher managed to finish only seven times. In the last seven starts Durocher's opening selection has gone the distance five times. During this streak the Dodgers have won five games, lost one and tied one.

Hatten Goes Route
Hatten went the route for the second time this season Wednesday night, pitching the Brooks to a 5-3 victory over the fading Cardinals in a night game at St. Louis. It was the Dodgers' first victory in five meetings with the Cards, who now have lost six straight.

By losing, the Cards dropped a game and a half behind the Giants who trampled the Reds 7-4 in a day game at Cincinnati.

Larry Jansen, star Giant right-hander, scattered 11 Red hits in posting his sixth win of the year. Jansen helped his own cause, driving in three runs on two singles.

The third place Pittsburgh Pirates also lost ground, falling two games behind the Giants as they bowed 5-1 to the Boston Braves in a night game at Pittsburgh. Johnny Sain held the Pirates to three safeties, one of which was Ralph Kiner's twelfth home run of the year in the ninth inning.

Indiana, As Loss
In the American League the Cleveland Indians retained their slim first place margin over the Philadelphia Athletics. The Indians dropped a 2-1 five-hit decision to Bas Scarborough and the Washington Senators, but remained seven percentage points ahead of the As as the Athletics also lost 7-3 to the Chicago White Sox.

Bob Lemon, who entered the night game unscathed on 25 straight innings, went the route for Cleveland. It was his third loss as against seven wins.

Browns Nudge Boxes
The last place White Sox raked Bill Dietrich and Nelson Potter for 11 hits in their after-dark struggle in Philadelphia while Joe Hayes halted the As on nine safeties in coasting to his fourth victory.

St. Louis' surprising Browns moved over the Detroit Tigers into fourth place as a result of their 3-1 night game triumph over the Red Sox in Boston.

Fred Sanford checked the Sox on seven blows while his mates collected nine of lefty Mel Parnell. The Tigers, who now trail the Browns by a game, lost a 1-0 decision to the Yankees in a day game at New York.

In the only other day game, the Chicago Cubs nosed out the Philadelphia Phillies 2-1 in 12 innings at Chicago.

BUYS ANGUS CATTLE
SAN ANGELO.—(P)—Fred M. Allison of Corsicana was the biggest buyer at the fourth annual Texas Aberdeen-Angus Association commercial distribution sale here Wednesday. He bought about $33,000 in stock, including a bull for $1,000.

Homer Norton Will Coach Galveston High School Team

GALVESTON—(AP)—Homer Norton, who guided Texas A&M to one national championship and who has coached college teams for 20 years, is going to be head man of Kirwin High School's football team next Fall. Rumors say he'll get $3,000 for the chore.

Norton announced Wednesday night he had accepted the job. He plans to operate a beach hotel here, but said:

"Upon learning that Kirwin High School was without a coach and considering the fact that I would be residing in Galveston, I've altered my plans and I have agreed to coach the Kirwin team this year."

Kirwin is a Catholic school for boys with an enrollment of about 200.

Ball Games Set Not To Conflict

In cooperation with the Midland Redee and churches of the city, Harold Webb of the Indians announces ball games will be played at 3 p. m. Saturday and at 5 p. m. Sunday in Indian Park here. The opposition in both games will be improved and gaining Del Rio.

Webb set the game times so as not to interfere with the Saturday night redoe performance, Sunday's church service hours and two Sunday redoe performances. It was beyond Webb's control that Longhorn League games were scheduled here during the redoe.

Oilers "Hex" Tribe

ODESSA—That old Odessa hex hung heavy over Oiler Park here Wednesday night and the Odessa installation of the Longhorn League beat the Midland Indians 2-0 in a whale of a ball game. The two meet again Thursday night.

We use installation because apparently all Odessa has to do to beat Midland is "be there". In five games this season Odessa has won four. The same hex persisted last year.

The Indians registered nine hits to Odessa's four. Weldon Stewart pitched four-hit ball for Midland and gave up no walks. Both teams played errorless baseball. Stewart struck out five as did Pitts of Odessa. The Oilers nipped the Tribe twice with double plays.

The fact that Midland's nine hits were all singles, three by Prince and two by Nipp, coming when they did no good, accounts for the loss in part.

Same Old Story

It was the same old story of when they play Midland, the mediocre (our opinion) Odessa nine shined to the high heavens with impossible catches and stops and luck of the All Mighty in denting the plate. However an 18-year-old Indian "boy" pitched masterfully in the pinches for the Oilers.

Three singles and two fielder's choice for Odessa produced two tallies in the fourth inning. That did it.

Joe Louis Now Not So Sure Of Plans To Retire

NEW YORK—(AP)—Joe Louis is weakening in his determination to retire after the Joe Walcott fight June 22. If he wins and continues, his likely September foe is Gus Lesnevich, the durable light heavyweight king from Cliffside Park, N. J.

The champ isn't looking past Walcott, who came so close to grabbing his heavyweight title last December. However, he is so anxious to dispel reports of his poor condition that he talks of the future.

Writers who watched him weigh in at 218 pounds popped the retirement question. They asked if he really meant it.

The answer was evasive, not in the customary Louis fashion.

"I don't know yet whether I'm going to change my mind or not," he said.

Gun Due In London

That could mean a lot of things but it definitely was a change from his original "this is my last fight" statement.

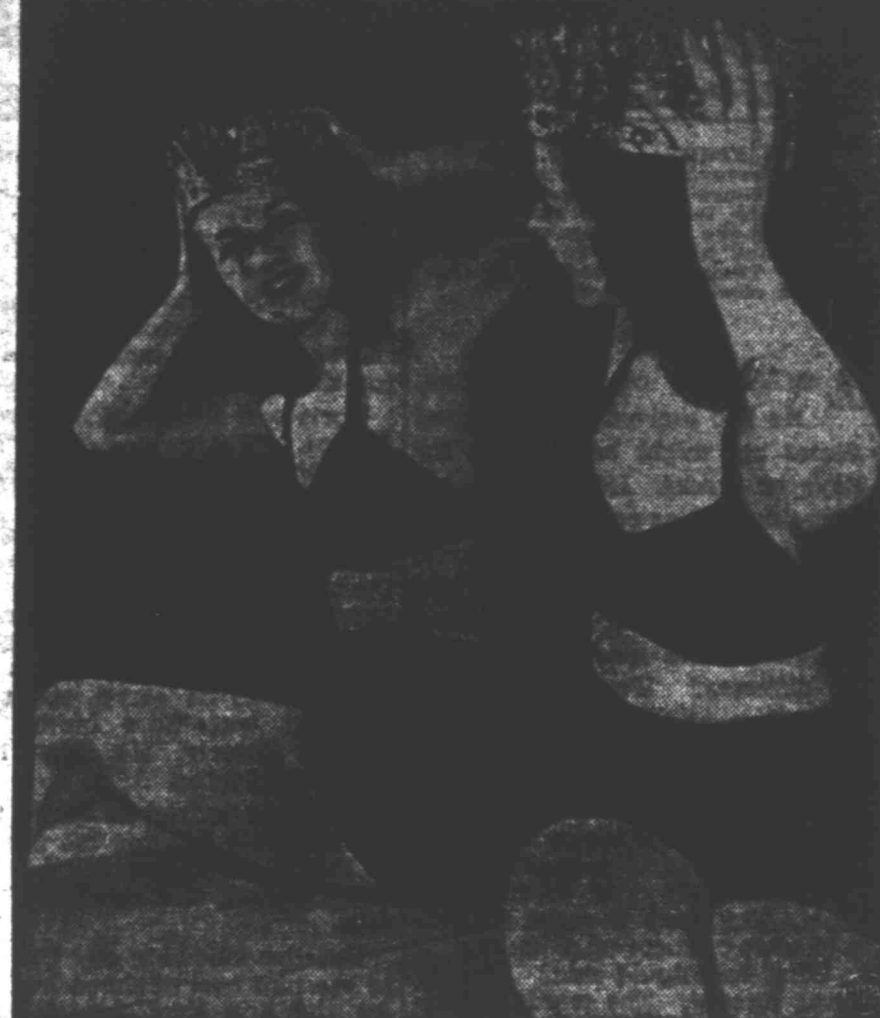

Lesnevich is in light training for a July 26 bout at London with Freddie Mills. He is scheduled to leave on the Queen Mary June 24, which, by a strange coincidence, is the day after the Louis-Walcott go.

If Louis should dump Walcott and announce his retirement had been postponed, many think Gus and Manager Joe Vella might miss the boat to England.

ZONING COMMISSION WILL MEET THURSDAY

A meeting of Midland's Zoning Commission will be held at 7 p. m. Thursday in the city hall, Chairman John J. Redfern, Jr. announced.

The Most Unusual Offer Ever Made In The Tire Business!!

YOUR MONEY BACK IF Super-Cushion TIRES DON'T GIVE YOU THE SOFTEST RIDE YOU'VE EVER HAD! YOU RIDE... THEN YOU DECIDE!

Due to the demand for Super-Cushion tires we are able to make this unusual offer for only these few more days. Come in — we'll put a set of Super-Cushion tires and tubes on your car. Drive it for one week. Then, if you don't agree they give you a softer ride than any tire you've ever owned, we'll replace your old tires and tubes and give your money back. The Super-Cushion is a remarkable new kind of tire. It is bigger and softer than conventional tires and runs on only 24 pounds of air pressure. It is so superior that we can afford to make this amazing offer.

Super-Cushion TIRES BY GOOD YEAR

SUPER-CUSHIONS give you a remarkable new ease in car handling. Your car hugs the road, seems to float through traffic, to flow around curves.

SUPER-CUSHIONS soak up crosswise jolts, soak up vibration. Results: less driving fatigue, less wear and tear on your car, fewer rattles, fewer repair bills.

SUPER-CUSHIONS consistently average more mileage than the best standard tires. More — they make small cars ride like big ones ... make big cars ride better.

SUPER-CUSHIONS run cooler, and because they're softer they "roll with the punch", are harder to cut, bruise or blow out.

Arrange for a Super-Cushion trial on your car today.

MILLIONS OF SUPER-CUSHIONS ARE NOW IN USE ON NEW AND OLDER CARS

Nobody Loves Forever

By Margaretta Brucker

THE STORY: As the time for Tom's return approaches, Jessica grows more and more apprehensive. She tells David she doesn't want to see him until she has had a chance to talk with Tom. Then she wonders if this was a wise thing to do.

XX

A MESSAGE came from Tom. He had arrived in the United States but might be held up for days or weeks. He would come home as soon as possible.

Jessica spent a night of terror. As the distance between Tom and herself diminished she became more and more upset. Would Tom be different? Would he be the same Tom who overrode her every wish and was as stubborn and determined as his mother? What would she do if she were to see him again?

In the past, love-making had been her only way to influence Tom. The very thought brought a shocking return of memory. What had David said? Nobody loves forever. The words sounded flippant and cheap, but true, nevertheless; for what she had felt for Tom, that heady, wild infatuation, had died with his departure.

She tossed and turned in bed. Next morning she awoke with a headache. She was too restless to stay in the house all day and welcomed Doris' invitation to go to a movie that evening. Lucy agreed to listen for Betsy, who always went off to bed at seven.

The theater was jammed and they had to wait in the crowded lobby. Doris cheered, gum and prowl through the crowd trying to spot two seats. For a little while Jessica stood alone. She thought, I'm glad it's a silly show. Soothing and relaxing.

THE lights inside went on suddenly; the organ burst into a selection which marked the intermission. The crowd moved toward the lobby. She saw Doris push toward her and just then she caught a glimpse of a pair of familiar shoulders.

David. He was not alone. The girl with him wore no hat. A mane of pale gold hair touched her fur-clad shoulders.

Doris saw them and winked. Jessica. "There goes Sara Linton," she said in a loud whisper. Jessica saw nothing on the screen that evening. Her imagination carried her away and she saw David and that pale-haired girl together—at the Mayflower, chatting over a drink, or possibly in Hugh Linton's home. David did not need to be secret about his meetings with Sara Linton, she thought bitterly. He didn't have to hide anything.

She was unfair to think that. He was only keeping his promise to her when he evaded her and never called, she reminded herself. But the following day the urge to see him overwhelmed her, and for the first time Jessica called him at his office. Just for an instant she believed she recognized the voice of the girl who answered. Could it be Genevieve?

Then she forgot everything but the relief when David answered. "Anything wrong?" he asked. "She was breathless, the call was silly. She said, 'David—'"

He laughed with a touch of triumph in his deep voice. "Look," he asked, "will you meet me this afternoon?" She hesitated. He urged, "You want to see me, don't you?" In the end she agreed. She was too absorbed in her own thoughts to hear the door to the kitchen open. Her mother-in-law's harsh voice startled her.

"When Tom comes home there'll be no more of this gallivanting about with strange men," she said flatly.

Her face looked drawn and pinched today. Colorless. Her eyes glittered angrily behind her glasses.

JESSICA left the telephone and started toward the stairs. She had thought Mrs. Blake gone from the house when she called. Did it matter, she thought rebelliously. Mrs. Blake came farther into the hall. "It's disgraceful for a girl to forget her husband when he has been off fighting for his country," she declared.

"The fact that Tom is a soldier has nothing to do with our relations," said Jessica, controlling her tongue with an effort. "Wearing a uniform doesn't make any man a hero to his wife. A man wins the respect of his wife when he shows her consideration—not when he leaves her alone with people who hate her."

There was a moment of dreadful silence. "I was homesick and lonely when I came here," she said rapidly. "I didn't realize the mistake I made when I married Tom. I did wrong, and I was unfair to myself."

"I planned to be independent, and then Betsy came. If you had shown just a little love—"

"Mrs. Blake broke in harshly. "Nothing will ever make you seem Tom's wife to me; you think you're too good for us."

Jessica said firmly, "You're quite wrong, and I'm sorry—"

McKenney on Bridge

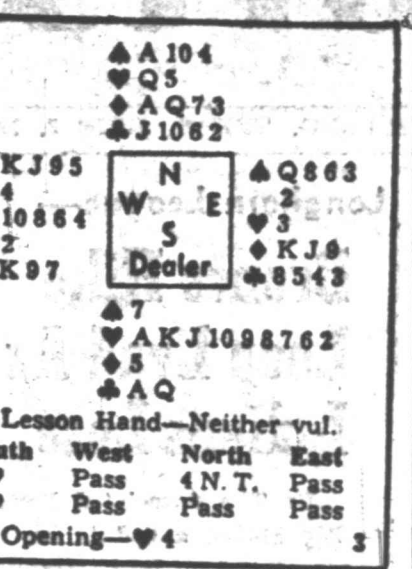

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

Several years ago Fred Kaplan of New York City started an ace-showing convention over two-bids that has become quite popular in the east. When partner opens with a forcing two-bid, it calls for one of the following responses:

With two or more aces, bid four no trump. With three or more kings, or the king-queen of one suit and the king of another suit, bid three no trump. This bid de-then leads the six of hearts, overtakes in dummy with the queen, and ruffs the seven of diamonds. Declarer has no further problem as he can discard the queen of clubs on dummy's queen of diamonds.

If the king of diamonds had not dropped, declarer might find West with both the king of diamonds and king of clubs. In that case he could run off the whole heart suit and get a possible squeeze on West.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE OUT OUR WAY

SAY, AMOS! WHY DON'T YOU HIRE ME AS PUBLICITY MAN—PAID IN ADVANCE? I'LL ROUND UP A CROWD O' NICE, REFINED PEOPLE TO CLAP HANDS, STOMP AN' WHISTLE WHEN YOU UNVEIL YOUR SWEAT FOR THAT CRITIC!

NO, NO, JAKE! NO ARTIFICIAL ENTHUSIASM, PLEASE!—AND DON'T DISTURB THE COVER!

LEANDER PRESENTED IT TO ME TO PROTECT THE PAINTING FROM JUST SUCH STICKY PAWS AS YOURS!

LEANDER: WHAT IS THIS CREEPY FEELING I'VE GOT—LIKE A TORNADO OR RIOT COMING?

YES OR AN ATOM BOMB UNDER THE BED?

VIC FLINT

YOU SAY YOU CAME TO SEE ME ABOUT THE STAMP I LOST? YOU MUST BE MR. FLINT THEN. DO YOU HAVE IT WITH YOU?

NO—AND MY NAME'S NOT FLINT. MY SISTER FOUND YOUR WALLET WITH THE STAMP IN IT OUTSIDE THE CLEARING. SHE WAS TO COME HERE AND RETURN IT.

I HAVEN'T SEEN YOUR SISTER, BUT I'VE SEEN THIS MESSAGE!

IT SAYS TO CALL A MAN NAMED VIC FLINT ABOUT YOUR WALLET. I DON'T GET IT—

BUT I DO! YOU'RE THE MAN WHO JOSTLED ME AT THE CLEARING! YOU'RE A PICKPOCKET!

BETTER LET OUR LITTLE ANNIESIA VICTIM SLEEP. I'M GOING TO PHONE VIRGIL SPENDER AGAIN AND SEE IF HE CAN SHED ANY LIGHT ON HER!

Fourteen stories above a San Francisco street, on a three-foot parapet, winds whip the skirt and hair of Mrs. Wong Loy, 41, who attempted suicide after an Immigration Department decision to deport her. In lower half of the picture, arrow, as she falls full-length along the ledge to which she had been clinging for three and one-quarter hours. Note the firemen's net which would have caught her if she had fallen outward.

Colin's Cafe Will Reopen Here Friday

Colin's Cafe, 110 South Main Street, will reopen at 5 a. m. Friday under management of Billie McMillan and Jean Colin, it was announced Thursday.
Managers of the large cafe said it has been remodeled throughout to make it an attractive restaurant for Midland patrons. It will be open daily from 5 a. m. to 1 a. m., except on Saturdays, when it will remain open until 3 a. m.

Second B-36 Bomber Is Delivered To Army

PORT WORTH—(AP)—The second B-36 bomber has been delivered to the Air Materiel Command at Wright Air Force Base, making the 900-mile flight to Dayton, Ohio, from Port Worth in three hours and 55 minutes.
An Air Force spokesman said work at Consolidated Vultee here was progressing rapidly on another plane, which is destined for delivery to the 8th Air Force.

Odessa, Andrews Delegates Attend San Antonio Meet

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Thirty school superintendents, principals, counsellors and P-TA leaders from eight Texas cities opened a three-day meeting here Thursday. Special services which the school are offering children was one of the main topics of discussion.

Delegates from Austin, Houston, Edinburg, Dallas, Fort Worth, Andrews, Odessa and San Antonio listened to George W. Mills, director of the Gardueta School of Social Service, Our Lady of the Lake College here, at the opening session.

The visiting teacher-counsellor movement has been successfully incorporated into the school systems in various sections of the country, Mills declared. He said it had resulted in a lessening of classroom problems.

"Early discovery and correction of problems within the child's life before they become too serious is the aim of the visiting teacher," he asserted.

Midland Legion Post Wins Bid For District Convention Next Fall

Midland will be the host city for the District 16 convention of the American Legion next fall, at dates to be announced later, it was reported at the last monthly meeting of the Woods W. Lynch Post No. 19 of the American Legion.

The report came from a group of Midland delegates to the recent District 16 convention at Alpine. Attending the convention from Midland were Dave Allen, delegation chairman, Don Schuyler, Merle Scott, Mary Buttry, Joe Buttry, Melvin Haney and Margaret Haney. Mrs. Haney represented the Midland American Legion Auxiliary.

At the convention, Bill Sohl of Alpine was elected district commander. Johnnie Crooks of Odessa, first vice commander, and Mrs. Bill Sohl, district commander of the Auxiliary.

The Woods W. Lynch Post is second largest in the district, with 404 paid-up memberships. Post Adjutant Floyd O. Rhoden reported.

Texas Jail Refugee Waives Extradition

LITTLE ROCK, ARK.—(AP)—Detective Chief C. O. Pink said a man identified as one of three who broke jail at Tyler, Texas, May 28 has agreed to waive extradition.

Pink said the prisoner, captured in a laundry here Sunday night, is Wilbert J. Simmons, 21.

A night watchman found Simmons in the laundry, and making him believe a black cigarette holder was a pistol, held him at bay until police arrived.

The roes was one of the first flowers to become domesticated. More than 200 species have been discovered and named.

New Civic Music Association Is Organized Here

A new organization, the Midland Civic Music Association, was formed by officers and directors of the Midland Concert and Lecture Association at a meeting early this week. The new association, which will supplant the concert and lecture group, will be affiliated with the Civic Concert Service, a national cooperative, which will provide a comprehensive year-round service.

Officials said plans call for a concerted membership drive in the early fall. Membership will be limited to the capacity of the high school auditorium. At the conclusion of the membership drive, which will last a week, the rolls will be closed for the year, with no members to be accepted after that time. Single performance tickets will not be available.

A series of nationally-known artists and entertainers will be selected to appear here during the season.

The Civic Concert Service, Inc., is the originator of the organized audience plan, and has been operating in the United States 27 years. Twenty-five Texas cities are affiliated with the concern.

Officers of the new Midland organization are J. Eric Bucher, president; Richard Hughton, Joe Kogler, E. L. Stephens, H. Winston Bull, Mrs. Frank B. Eess and Mrs. James O. Simmons, vice presidents; Nell Shaw, secretary; and J. T. Baker, treasurer.

Directors are Roy A. Minear, Mrs. J. P. Butler, Walter H. Walne, Jr., Mrs. P. J. Lee, Jr., Mrs. James T. Smith, Mrs. Frank B. Eess and Mrs. James O. Simmons, vice presidents; Nell Shaw, secretary; and J. T. Baker, treasurer.

Fort Worth Station Plans Fall Television Operation

PORT WORTH—(AP)—WBAP-TV, Fort Worth television station, should be on the air about September 15, Harold V. Hough, station director, said Wednesday. He said plans are being made to telecast some of the Dixie Series baseball games if Fort Worth is in the series.

Mother of Southwest Conference Secretary Dies

DALLAS—(AP)—Funeral services will be held in Covington, Texas, for Mrs. J. H. Stewart, 76, widow of the late Rev. J. H. Stewart, for 40 years a prominent Methodist minister in the Central Texas Conference.

Mrs. Stewart, mother of James H. Stewart, executive secretary of the Southwest Athletic Conference, died Wednesday in Washington, D. C.

American Troops Leave Korea

(NEA Telephone)
United States troops board a lighter to be transported to the U. S. transport General Alteman at Inchon, Korea, destined for San Francisco. This is part of a streamlining of forces in Korea in anticipation of the eventual withdrawal after the establishment of the Korean government, which was elected in the May 10 balloting in Southern Korea.

Scout Court Of Honor Slated Thursday Night

A district Court of Honor for Midland Boy Scouts will be held at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the district courtroom of the Midland County Courthouse, Ernest T. W. Neill is advancement chairman.

Advancement and merit badges will be presented to members of troops 51, 53, 54, 85 and 152. Scouts, Scouters, parents and other interested persons are invited to attend.

Daniel Announces For Second Term

AUSTIN—(AP)—Attorney General Price Daniel Thursday announced for reelection.

Now completing his first term, Daniel said during the Summer he would make a complete report to the people concerning the work of his office, regardless of whether or not he has any opposition.

So far, no opponents have filed against him.

Jeanne D'Ambly Leads Powder Puff Derby Pilots Into Miami

MIAMI—(AP)—Women pilots converged on Miami Thursday from all parts of the country for an air show and the climax of a 2,600-mile cross-country race.

First to land here in the California-to-Florida race was Jeanne D'Ambly of Palm Springs, Calif., who landed her Stinson at Amelia Earhart Field after a two-day daylight trip. Miss D'Ambly arrived at 4:50 p. m. Wednesday.

Five others competed in the race. Mrs. Frances Nolde of Reading, Pa., spent the night in Waco, Texas, and planned a stop at Pensacola, Fla., enroute here. She said she had to be back home in Reading Monday "to do washing for the youngsters." Dorothy Kirovna of Stockton, Calif., forced down by engine trouble near El Paso, Texas, planned an early takeoff to finish the race. The twin sisters, Claire McMullen and Betty McMullen Loufex of South Pasadena, Calif., also were somewhere along the route.

First Baptist Bible School Exercises Held

The First Baptist Church vacation Bible school commencement exercises were held Wednesday night before a full auditorium of parents and friends.

The program began with the regular days opening exercises for demonstration purposes. Then each department presented a short program after which the service was dismissed and handwork completed during the school was exhibited.

The periods of the Bible school were divided into approximately one and one-half hours of Bible study and instruction and 30 minutes of handwork.

Total enrollment for the school was 208 with an average attendance of 248. One hundred twenty-five were 100 per cent in attendance.

Midland District Given 84 Locations For O&G Explorations During Week

The 84 new locations for oil and gas explorations reported to the Midland office of the oil and gas division of the Railroad Commission of Texas, during last week, for drilling in the near future in District No. 8, were scattered among 18 counties.

New County led the list with 21 new locations. Hockley and Pezos Counties each had nine new drillsites on the report.

Andrews, Crane and Whittier Counties were each credited with six new locations. Gaines and Howard Counties were given five new projects each.

Cochran had four new drillsites. Staked, Hale, Mitchell, Scurry and Sterling were each listed for two new locations.

Cuberson, Hubbard, Terry, Upton and Ward each drew one new location.

A total of 12 of the locations were for wildcat prospectors. Gaines and Pezos County received two each. The others were scattered, one to the county in Andrews, Cochran, Cuberson, Hubbard, Scurry, Sterling and Terry.

Olympic Romance

Ann Curtis, 21, one of America's chief hopes for swimming honors, and Gordon Cunco, 24, University of California basketball player, beam after the announcement of their engagement. They expect to be married after the Olympic Games this summer.

One Plow Horse Knows Where The Drinks Are

CHICAGO—(P)—Pulling a plow under a warm sun was thirsty work and Admiral, a big bay plow horse, had ideas on where to get a drink.

Owner Marshall Polo and Admiral were plowing up some vacant lots on the southwest side when the hot sun worked up a thirst in both. Polo unlatched the animal and went for some water for himself and horse.

But Admiral had another idea. The horse ambled three blocks down street and into the open door of a tavern.

Orville H. Rowe a justice, said "That big horse just walked in, looked the juke box over and then nudged its head right in between us at the bar."

When Polo finally caught up with his horse, he found Admiral sniffing a beer, eating a few slices of bread and chasing it all down with a bucket of water.

Sues After Stumbling Over Garson's Footprint

LOS ANGELES—(P)—Mrs. Tillie Siegel claims a footprint of actress Greer Garson caused her downfall literally.

Mrs. Siegel, 46, says her fall occurred in the court of Grauman's Chinese Theatre in Hollywood January 7. In a suit for $5,000 damages, she directed against the theatre but not against Miss Garson. Mrs. Siegel alleged she stubbed her toe on the imprint in cement of the actress' foot.

The resulting fall, she averred, caused her bruises and a sprained shoulder.

Bored With Pension, Looks For Job At 103

HAYDEN, ARIZ.—(AP)—Francisco Lopez has been retired for nearly three years and does not like it. He will be 103 next October 4.
He is said to be the oldest person in the United States retired under the old age insurance plan of the federal Social Security Board.
He went on the federal insurance roll January 1, 1939, when he was 88 and worked steadily until he was 100. At that time the Kennecott Copper Company for which he had worked since 1909 felt he was entitled to retirement.
He and his wife, Elena, 73, each receive checks of $42.20 monthly from the federal government. But Francisco wants his old job back as gardener and copper mill messenger.
He has just completed a house for himself and his wife. He also keeps busy chopping wood.

Arabs Observe Tribal Customs, Even In War

JERUSALEM'S OLD CITY.—(AP)—A tough Bedouin fighter of the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion struggled through excited crowds in the old city to deliver a surrendered Haganah officer to legion headquarters. The prisoner asked for a glass of water.
Before handing the Jewish soldier the water, the Arab tested it himself, abiding by an ancient tribal custom which shows a guest the water he is offered is wholesome.

Russian, U. S. Infant Education Differs

LAKE SUCCESS.—(AP)—Conversation between Soviet Russia's Jakob A. Malik and a New York Herald Tribune reporter, Peter Kihns:
Malik: You really should learn Russian.
Kihns: I know two words—da (yes) and nyet (no).
Malik: Yes, but all the newspapers here say we only say nyet.
Kihns: Well, in the United States the first word we teach our babies is da. Maybe there's a difference between your country and mine.
Malik (grinning): The first word we teach them is nyet.

Army Always Pays Off—Sooner Or Later

MADERA, CALIF.—(AP)—James D. Cleveland got a $24,725 bonus travel pay check recently. It was due him for separation from the Army in the Philippines.
So, what? Well, it's been due Cleveland, now 73, ever since the Spanish-American War.

GE Engineer Invents Baby Crying Alarm

SCHENECTADY, N. Y.—(AP)—An electronic device that warns parents when the baby cries at night has been designed by a General Electric Company engineer.
The unit, attached to the crib, picks up the sounds and causes an ordinary home lamp to flash at the parents' bed.
It is effective as far as 100 feet away and can be regulated for weak or strong-lunged children.

Jack Najork, GE engineer, designed the unit primarily for deaf or hard-of-hearing parents.

Jean Courvoisier's Battle Is Disease, Hunger And Fear

While his Haganah escort scrambles over the rubble to avoid sniper fire, Courvoisier calmly follows with Red Cross flag to help search for battle victims in Jerusalem.

On trip from Jerusalem to Cairo, escorting 100 Egyptian civilians out of the Holy Land, Jean Courvoisier (right) gets road directions from an officer of the Haganah.

By DAVID S. BOYER

IN PALESTINE WITH THE INTERNATIONAL RED CROSS (NEA)—Jean Courvoisier is six feet four inches of Swiss energy, intestinal fortitude and worry fighting a separate war in the battle of the Holy Land.

His war, which he is conducting with half a dozen other International Red Cross delegates here as his allies, is against disease, starvation and fear.

It would be a shot in the arm for anyone who admires valor to watch this curly-headed, Ichabod Crane assemble his knees under the dashboard of his Red Cross sedan and go screaming off to places no one else will go. Whether there are wounded to be rescued, women and children to be fed, vaccines to be raced to villages where epidemics rage, or bodies to be recovered, it is all the same. It is the day's work. Less intolerable.

All he asks is the satisfaction

Pocket Mirrors Pay Off For Customs Men

NEW YORK (AP)—Day and night squads of armed men carrying flashlights and pocket mirrors swarm aboard ships entering New York harbor.

The alert, eagle-eyed men of the U. S. customs enforcement division don't carry the glassware from milady's handbag or use in combing their hair or preening their features. Pocket mirrors are standard equipment in the grim, unrelenting war on narcotic smuggling.

Placed strategically, a mirror shows up what may be ingeniously hidden behind a lavatory wash-bowl, a seaman's bunk, or in the machinery of the ship's engine room.

From stern to stern, expert searchers go over a vessel like a fine-tooth comb.

New York "Hot Feet" Vigilance of these customs officers has paid off handsomely. In the last year they've confiscated contraband drugs valued at several million dollars in the illicit market, said Harry M. Durning, U. S. customs collector for the New York port.

New York, in law enforcement parlance, is a "hot" port—about the hottest in the world.

International smugglers have renewed efforts to penetrate port surveillance with narcotics for American dope peddling rings. History, said veteran port officials, is repeating itself. A post-war resurgence of narcotic smuggling is comparable to one after the First World War.

Collector Durning attributes the alarming increase to a break-down of prewar safeguards abroad, worldwide unrest and unsettled economic conditions and the age-old desire for quick, high profits.

Wash French Ships Collector Durning's vigil against smuggling, customs officers pay particular attention to all ships coming from French and Mediterranean ports. That's where they said, most shipments of illicit drugs originate.

Ships from Britain and Ireland, the officers said, seldom figure in drug smuggling. Always suspect, however, said Herman Lipaki, chief of the U. S. customs enforcement division, are vessels coming from Naples, Genoa, Marseille, Le Havre and Antwerp.

Lipaki's men recently scored their biggest catch of the year when they discovered narcotics valued at $1,000,000 secreted about a ship from Le Havre.

One bundle of drugs was found in the ship's galley at the bottom of a full barrel of flour. Another batch, encased in a water-proof bag, reposed in a soup tureen full of water. Other packages were discovered inside the lining of the ship's oven and in a box of sea biscuits.

Need More Men Another recent haul came when shore patrol officers under Durning raided the basement of a dingy waterfront tenement. They found 36 ounces of narcotics and complete equipment for testing, diluting and preparing drugs for illicit sale to addicts.

In a drainpipe in the basement they found $18,000 in cash and a pistol. From a man caught fleeing the basement they confiscated four more ounces of drugs. Total value of the catch was placed at $300,000.

On March 22 Lipaki's port patrol officers arrested two sailors off a Turkish freighter as they went ashore carrying $50,000 worth of drugs.

They can only "spot" check. Their inspections frequently are prompted by information received from other government agencies, undercover agents or informers abroad.

Blonde for Sale

Mrs. Dorothy Lawlor, of Hempstead, N. Y., "doesn't believe in love any more" but wants security for herself and children. So she ran the "Situation Wanted" ad reproduced below. It said: "Wife for able, divorced, blonde, attractive, wants man to marry her and support her and two children. Must be willing and able to make immediate $10,000 cash settlement." She got 12 answers the first day.

The Right Knife Prevents Waste

The right knife simplifies preparation of citrus fruit.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Many home experts say the well-equipped kitchen needs at least six pieces of cutlery—paring knife, bread knife, carver, utility knife, long fork and sharpening steel. The Associated Cutlery Industries of America point out that during the war our metallurgical research developed the finest quality steel, which is now being used for American cutlery.

For citrus fruit preparation, the right knife saves time, appearance and the fruit itself. For example, with grapefruit, one "sweep" of the utility knife and the grapefruit is halved, clean, smooth and ready to serve "as is"—or, if you want to serve half a grapefruit with a professional look and for more convenient eating, use the curved grapefruit knife to cut around the outer edge and around the middle "core" to remove it easily. Then cut from center to outer edge between each section.

For salads or fruit cup, to get smooth whole segments, peel the skin from the grapefruit with a paring knife, cutting deep enough to remove all the white membrane with the skin. Then separate the sections and peel clean.

Ambrasia (One serving)
One medium Valencia orange, 1 tablespoon shredded coconut (dry or moist).

Slice or dice the peeled orange. Sprinkle or mix with coconut. Chill and serve.

June Ambrasia (Serves 8)
Six Valencia oranges, 1/2 cup shredded coconut, 2 bananas, 1 cup strawberries, 1/4 cup sugar or 2 tablespoons honey.

Dice the oranges with sharp knife. Slice the bananas. Add the sweetening and coconut. Mix and cover with strawberries. Chill before serving.

New Orleans Dredges Lake To Get Beach

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—They're turning part of Lake Pontchartrain bottoms-up so New Orleans people can escape the summer heat.

When they get through, they'll have a 30-acre beach which the New Orleans Levee Board claims will be the largest made by man in the United States.

The levee board, a state agency, owns and operates the beach. There has been a beach there for years, but with the city's population growing, and storms washing away the sand, the space has grown too small to handle the crowds.

A huge dredge is pumping thousands of tons of sand and silt daily from the lake bottom into an area 2,300 feet by 400 feet. When a million cubic feet has been pumped in as a base, a foot of white sand imported from the Gulf Coast by barge will be spread over the top.

The levee board has appropriated $750,000 for the improvement.

The third molars are called wisdom teeth because normally they are not cut until a person is between 18 and 25 years old.

Japs Hold Memorial Rites For Eaten Eels

TOKYO (AP)—Restaurant owners and gourmets held memorial services recently for the souls of 35,000,000 eels. The eels were eaten last year in Tokyo.

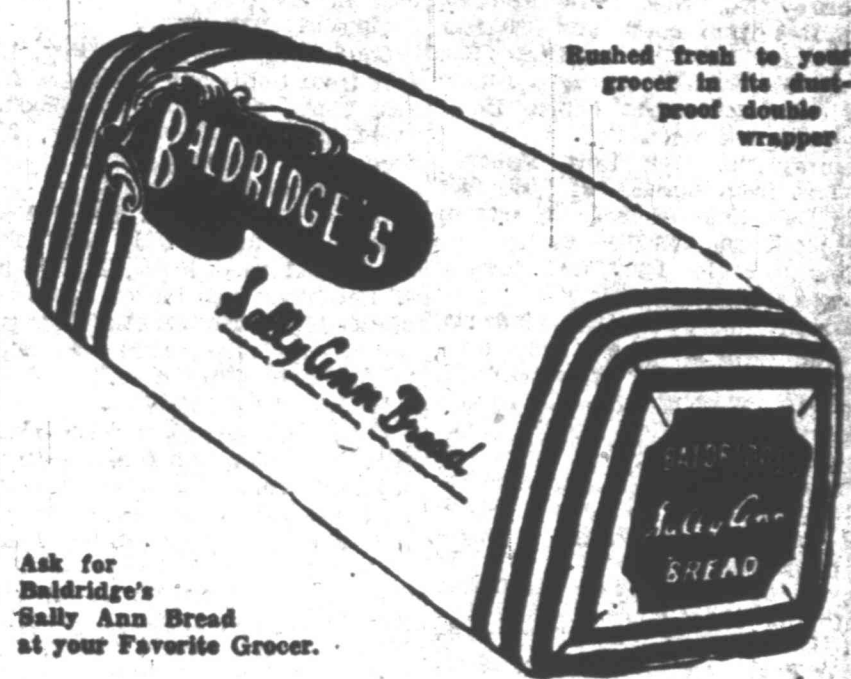

Two hundred cafe proprietors and eaters stood reverently as Buddhist priests chanted prayers. After the services, they dumped 4,000 baby eels into the Sumida River presuming to grow up, be caught and eaten.

Rent Skyrockets As Philadelphia Prepares

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The overwhelming demand for housing accommodations for the Republican National Convention the week of June 21 has skyrocketed prices in a point where a home has been rented for $1,000.

An apartment taking up a whole floor went for the same price, done apartments in buildings are being rented $200 for the week of the convention.

You've never used anything like it!

Out of the vast new knowledge gained in wartime research comes Tide—an amazing discovery that brings you a wonderful new kind of washday. Tide does what's never been done before—washes clothes cleaner than any soap, yet leaves colors brighter! Tide is completely NEW and different . . . as you'll see for yourself the first time you try it. Tide's wonder suds billow up instantly even in hardest water . . . they look different . . . feel different from any soap you've ever used!

ONLY Tide DOES ALL FOUR!

1. Washes clothes cleaner!

Yes, cleaner than any soap made! No matter what soap you may be using now, Tide gets your whole family wash cleaner—even greasy overalls! Tide not only leaves clothes free from ordinary dirt, but actually removes dingy soap film as well!

2. Actually brightens colors!

Tide leaves no film to dull dainty washable colors. What's more, Tide removes film left by former soap washings—that's why color brightness perks up like magic after a Tide wash!

3. Never "yellows" white clothes!

Tide keeps shirts, sheets, pillowcases gleaming white, week after week. Never turns them yellow, no matter how often they're washed or how long they're stored!

4. Gives more suds—

Prove it in your dishpan!

Kind-to-hands suds! Faster suds! Longer-lasting suds than any soap in hardest water! Tide cuts grease like magic . . . washes dishes cleaner than any soap! No acum in the water! No cloudy film on dishes and glasses! That's why they rise and dry so sparkling clear—even without wiping!

NO OTHER WASHING PRODUCT KNOWS HOW TO MAKE THIS STATEMENT

As Sight And Sound Medium, Television Is Still Trying To Find Its Effectiveness

NEW YORK (NEA)—Technically, television has learned to handle itself extremely well in the last year. But as a sight-and-sound medium it is still struggling to determine how and where it is most effective.

Today, sports is its biggest and most popular fare. Baseball, football, boxing, wrestling, basketball have sold television and television receivers, this last year. Television made Toscanini a boxing fan. With the Petrillo ban on live music on television now lifted, Toscanini in turn is making new fans for television; "live" music has helped to eliminate long hours of "black screens"—television's jargon for blank periods on receivers.

Industry experts expect sports to continue to provide television with its biggest appeal. But they expect local sports to take over from national broadcasts except for big events like the World Series, Rose Bowl games and major heavyweight title bouts.

Same Place

Frank Mullen, NBC executive vice president, says that "eventually I think you'll find sports occupying the same place they occupy in radio—important locally all the time, important nationally occasionally.

Television already is training its cameras on important Broadway plays. These have to be limited for television to fit its limited time allowance—usually not more than an hour for any program. Musicals have been cut more effectively than more serious dramas among those attempted so far, but the technique is new and may be improved.

The lifting of the Petrillo ban against music on television has given vaudeville a big shot in the arm. William Morris, president of one of the biggest booking agencies in the country, expects television to develop vaudeville personalities that will "challenge the performances of Harry Lauder, Charlie Chaplin and other variety greats."

Video viewers already have had a chance to see Toscanini and other great symphony conductors, and the Metropolitan Opera Broadcasters are experimenting in fashion shows, cooking schools and even an art course.

New York's Paramount Theater successfully transferred a television picture of a boxing match to its theater screen 80 seconds after the original picture was televised, thereby tying television to the movies.

Mobile television trucks cover some spot events and flash the picture to main studio transmitters by wireless or by coaxial cable. Regular newscasts include still pictures of news events transmitted by Telephoto and copied on special film for television broadcasting.

The experimenting with programs goes on daily. The industry isn't sure where it will end.

"Television," says J. R. Poppo, president of the Television Broadcasters Association, "holds the key to enlightenment which may unlock the door to world unity and understanding."

Drink Lecture Is Not Appreciated By Hearer

JACKSON, MISS.—(AP)—A hitchhiker told state highway police that he was shoved from a moving automobile and then run over by a motorist to whom he had given a lecture on the evils of strong drink.

State Highway Patrolman Billy Jones reported that the hitchhiker, 37-year-old Hollis Leroy Meets of Ashland, Ky., was found unconscious with back and chest injuries on a highway.

The hitchhiker, Jones said, told him later the motorist became irritated when he countered the offer of a drink with a lecture on the evils of liquor, pushed him from the car, which he then put into reverse, and ran over him.

New Style Guillotine Chops Up Old Planes

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The navy is chopping up its old airplanes with the same style machine that chopped off aristocrats' heads in the French revolution.

Built by Norfolk (Va.) air station engineers, the guillotine has been brought up to date with electric power.

Its three-ton blade snips stricken planes a day into melting pot pieces, the navy said. Previously one man with a burning torch needed a whole day to cut up one hull.

Last year the Norfolk station sold $14,540 worth of scrap, 40% of which was profit, the navy reported.

One million dollars was spent by the United States during World War II in keeping tabs on the weather.

Aggie Editors Are Not Journalists But Gain Experience In Expression

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff

The daily college newspaper at Texas A&M, The Battalion, is different.

The editors' desks are littered with slide rules, architects drawings, veterinarian syringes and semigraph records for oil maps. The "Bat" editors do not claim to be journalists. They are students in the engineering, agriculture, arts and science and other departments of vast A&M.

They write, draw, edit and get in the way of the printers and they learn to express themselves in their specialized subjects.

The Battalion is one of seven publications at A&M you'll find Bat editors working around on the other six—The Agriculturist, The Commentator, (arts and science) The Engineer, The Little Battalion (freshman publication) The Longhorn (annual) and The Southwestern Veterinarian.

Taking a quick rundown of the Bat staff you find James R. B. Nelson, Stamford, petroleum engineering student and Charles Murray Eagle Pass, majoring in English, the co-editor; J. T. Miller, (Dallas) pre-law, writes editorials; Tom Carter (geology) edits stories; Harry Saunders (architect) of Abilene is a proofreader; Ken J. Mahak of Cameron, another student of architecture, does good cartoons for the Bat and other publications.

Writes Features

R. L. Billingsley, Waxahachie, (electrical engineer) writes features; Maurice Howell, (agriculture) of McKinney is advertising manager; Grady Griffin, mechanical engineering student from Dallas is the photographer and has his dormitory room fixed up as a dark room for developing negatives.

Art Howard (architect) of San Antonio is sports editor and Joe Trevino (architect) of Edna, and Hardy Ross, chemical engineer from Palestine, are the two engravers.

The Bat even had its foreign correspondence, a collection of stories on distant lands really done on the campus by various staff members under the name of "Ivan Yantis."

Bat staffers work on the newspaper during their spare time. It's a free and easy place, with almost the air of an old-fashioned newspaper office.

Nobody is reading the New Yorker or PM, or longing for self-expression and the big time. They seem to be having a big time right there in old Goodwin Hall, once a dormitory.

Even the sacred Associated Press report, sports editor and Joe Trevino (architect) of Edna, and Hardy Ross, chemical engineer from Palestine, are the two engravers.

Sports Gets Good Play

The boys treat a sports story more tenderly. If it concerns A&M, it may get a good play on the sports page. But China, Patagonia and Tibet are forgotten.

There is talk at A&M of formalizing the free and easy methods of publication. Scuttlebutt at the Bat is that a department of journalism is in the offing—perhaps with a Ph.D. of journalism in charge. Just another journalism department, some of the A&M boys fear.

"I won't have to worry," a Bat reporter said. "By the time they make those changes I'll be drilling oil wells in South Africa."

He lammed out of the news room to an engineering class.

Great Dane Is Only One Animal, Says Jury

CHICAGO (AP)—Even a Great Dane can't be considered as more than one animal, a municipal court jury has ruled in permitting Mrs. Gladys Clark to keep her apartment.

The Bowers Realty Company sought to evict Mrs. Clark on grounds she was violating a clause of her lease which read: "Animals, birds or reptiles are not allowed on the premises."

Mrs. Clark's attorney argued that the lease referred to "animals" and that Mrs. Clark's pup, Diana, was singular.

The jury agreed.

Desertions Alarm Red Authorities

BERLIN—(AP)—Authoritative reports published here claim that thousands of Russian soldiers and their wives are deserting to live illegally in Germany rather than return to the Soviet Union.

The Neue Zeitung, official German language newspaper of the American Military Government, quoted an estimate from a Soviet commandant in the Russian occupation zone that the soldier desertions alone amounted to more than 10,000.

This commandant was reported to have asked German police to help round up deserters living "in the black" (underground), many under assumed names.

American intelligence officers who have observed part of this deserter flow since the beginning of the occupation said they believed it was prompted "more by realism than idealism."

One high intelligence official said: "Most of the Russians who desert do so to retain their physical comforts they have come to know in the West rather than through any conversion to western democracy."

Chinese Pick-Pockets Want No Interference

So 150 of them showed up at police headquarters and demanded food and clothing because police interference had robbed them of a means of making a living.

The cops told them to beat it. They did, vowing to return to their trade and adding they would brook no police interference in the future.

IT MAKES CENTS TO CAN AND PRESERVE

One way of beating high food costs is to have plenty of delicious home-made preserves and jellies on hand this year... berries, peaches, plums, figs and grapes. Stack your pantry shelves full. Youngsters... and grownups, too, really go for berries and fruit preserved at home. To put up prize-winning preserves, the kind your family and friends rave about, be sure to use 100% Pure Cane Sugar. For the best pure cane, demand IMPERIAL Pure Cane Sugar. Imperial is pure cane, real cane, and quick-dissolving—so important in preserves and jellies. Imperial Pure Cane Sugar reaches you fresher too, because it's refined right here in Texas.

Police Get Credit But Fence Makes Stop

AUSTIN—(AP)—Police got the credit, but it was really a barbed wire fence that caught the burglar.

It was their man, hopelessly hung by his suspenders in the fence.

Grandpa Puma Lives Nine Lives At Once

AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND—(AP)—The grand-daddy of all pumas in this city's zoo has reached the ripe old age of 17, and is still without a tell-tale gray hair about its muzzle. Statistically-minded naturalists say it is almost unheard of for a puma to live more than 10 years.

Zoo officials are confident that, after a check has been made with the London Zoological Society, Auckland's puma will win official recognition as the Methusalem of pumas.

The puma belongs to one of the largest of the cat family. Unlike most of Auckland Zoo's other animals, the puma has never been named. It was born in Central America, and was reared at the San Diego, Calif., zoo before coming to Auckland in 1931 when only a few months old.

Zoo officials attribute the puma's longevity to regular hours and regular meals. Its current diet is from 10 to 12 pounds of meat a day.

The puma, however, is not likely to have many more birthdays. A cub will be flown from San Diego shortly. After the cub has settled down in Auckland, says Zoo Curator E. R. Sawyer, the veteran puma will be "quietly disposed of."

The original Siamese twins came from Bangkok to Boston in 1829 and 11 years later settled down as farmers in North Carolina.

Glasscock Educational Advisory Committee Completes First Work

GARDEN CITY—Glasscock County members of the Gilmer-Aiken Committee, working for better schools in Texas, elected officers at a meeting Monday night and mailed two opinionnaires dealing with school work to the state committee.

C. G. Parsons, school superintendent, was elected president, and H. M. Fitzhugh, county agent, was named secretary.

Since Glasscock County has had a county unity system with one consolidated school since 1937, the committee was able to mark off as completed one of the chief objectives of many counties—the reorganization of school districts.

Principal topics of discussion at the meeting were teacher tenure and teacher qualifications. Members of the committee include C. G. Parsons, Ira Lee Watkins, Mrs. Bob Ballenger, Johnnie Phillips, M. V. Little, H. M. Fitzhugh, Mrs. Weldon Parker, O. L. Rich, Joe B. Calverley, Y. C. Gray, Gordon Griggs, Gracia Ross, Mrs. Alton Cook, L. O. Shelley and A. W. White.

The term "Siamese twins" was first applied to Chang and Eng joined twins born in 1811 at Meklong, Siam.

Fur Dealer Buys Own Goods At Reduction

INDIANAPOLIS—(P)—Max Sacks was one of the buyers.

Those two $250 fur scarves he bought for $30 each had been such bargains too.

Detective Sergeants George Hubbard and Ernest Hughes said Sacks, proprietor of Sacks Brothers Loan Company, told them a man came in some time ago offering a scarf he said was worth $250 for $30. Sacks bought it. Some time later the same man came back with another—also valued at $250.

The scarf man returned to the Loan Company a third time. Sacks, suspicious, whispered to the detectives, who were in his office. They arrested the man on a vagrancy charge.

Detectives listened to his story and then arrested his former wife on a vagrancy charge. Sacks was surprised when he learned her identity.

The woman, he told detectives, was his employee and the scarves he had bought were from his own vault.

More Farmers Own Land, Survey Reveals

WASHINGTON—(P)—More farmers are becoming full or part owners of their land, while farm tenancy is declining at a steady pace.

In a study of farm ownership, B. T. Inman of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics reports that, last year only 26.9 per cent of the nation's farms were tenant-operated. This compares with 31.7 per cent in 1945 and 42.4 per cent in 1939, the peak year for tenancy.

The survey also indicates that the percentage of farm land under lease dropped slightly in the two-year period 1946-47—from 39.4 per cent of all farm land to 38.9 per cent.

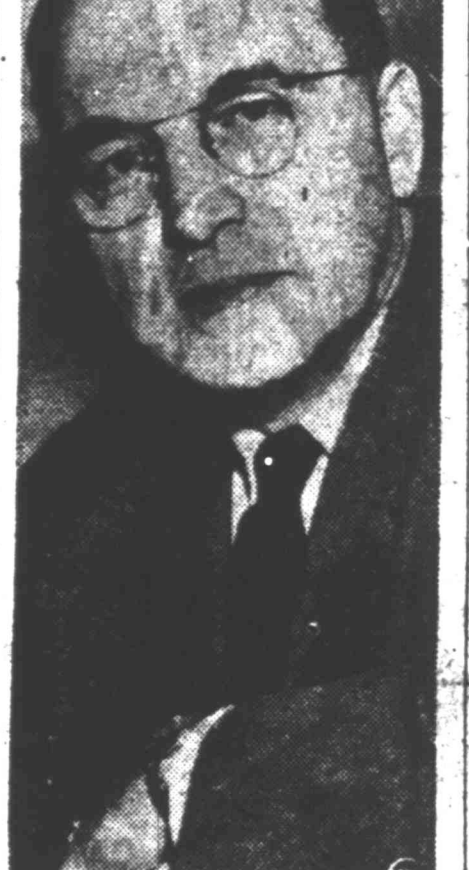

One of the most revolutionary and the one which got the most serious consideration and endorsement from the group was a suggested reform of U. S. divorce laws. It was submitted in behalf of the American Bar Association by Judge Paul W. Alexander of the Domestic Relations and Juvenile Courts of Toledo, Ohio.

The plan would force married persons to get approval from the court first, before they could even file for a divorce. This would be done by having the couple in trouble place its case before an official group of several impartial experts, psychologists, social workers or others qualified to judge the case. These experts would study all the facts and

Professional Home Planners Suggest Ways Of Better Life

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
WASHINGTON—(NEA)—There could be some wonderful new things in store for the American family if the sociologists, psychiatrists and professional home planners were put in charge. That's what the sociologists, psychiatrists and professional home planners say.

At a recent National Conference on Family Life, 900 of the background of the trouble and if they decided that nothing could be handed to the court. The actual divorce would be almost automatic without regard to special grounds.

Dr. Robert G. Foster: Between husband and wife, six or eight years.

Sham Battle
In reality most divorces are a "sham battle against the little man who isn't there," Judge Alexander says. The plan would eliminate this. The bar group hopes to get the President to recommend that all U. S. divorce laws be made uniform to comply with this basic idea. It is copied after the procedure used in the better juvenile courts.

A novel plan for a housing development was also unveiled. It would have a variety of housing units—large and small ones, some for rent, some for sale, some in walk-up apartments. Then a family could move around according to changing needs without tearing up its roots. And families with different levels of income could all be living more closely together, rather than in definitely segregated sections of a city as they do now.

One new idea was in the form of advice to persons about to get married. Dr. Robert G. Foster, a University of Kansas sociology professor, recommends that a man should marry a girl at least six or eight years younger than himself. Women mature faster than men, he says. So at the start of a marriage a man must give himself a good lead in order that the couple can spend the crucial years between the ages of 40 and 60 more nearly equal as to sophistication, maturity, etc.

Dating Advice
It is Doctor Foster's belief that junior high school girls should date high school boys, that high school girls should date college boys and that college girls should go with the unmarried junior chamber of commerce men. Marriages resulting from such courtships would end up happier than the ones between persons of the same age, he claims.

Dr. Eduard C. Lindeman, a social philosophy professor from Columbia University, had two ideas on how the head of a family could improve his management. First, he says, the family budget should be openly arrived at. "All members of the family group, I think, have a right to know what the family income is and how it is expended and they also have a right in accordance with their capacities, to participate in policy-making to determine priorities in family spending," he says.

His other suggestion is to keep family log. It would be a "running account of events, with critical interpretations." Each member would do some of the writing of it and each one would be free to review what had been recorded. He says it would "revolve a genuine feeling of cohesion without undue pride, or that variety of family conceit which complicates later adjustments."

More Religion
Although the conference ended with no specific list of recommendations for action to help the present plight of the American family, many individual suggestions were offered. They included the expansion of social security, providing federal aid to education, improving public health services, passage of more liberal federal housing legislation, the extension of community welfare services and the need for more religion in the home.

And there was the unanimous conclusion of the experts that since science as yet had found no substitute for the American family, it was well worth trying to save.

COLORS OFTEN HELP HAIR HIGHLIGHTS

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Are you one of those girls whom Nature endowed with "mousy-colored" hair? If so, stop fretting because your hair isn't as eye-catching as that of your blonde or red-headed friends. Remember that you can wear much stronger dress colors than these friends can. Moreover, you will discover, if you will experiment with bright dress shades, that many will bring up glints of red or gold in your hair which you never suspected were there.

Give blue in various dress shades a trial. Also give rich green shades a chance to bring up hidden color in your hair.

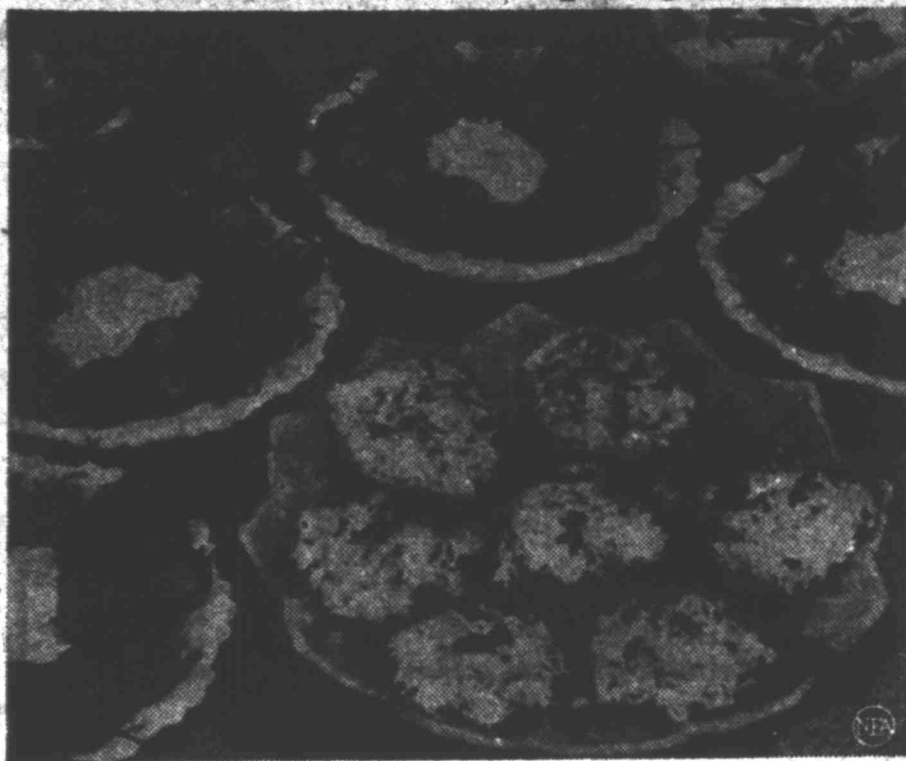

The best way to try out colors is to make the test with crepe paper collars in the various colors with which you want to experiment. Crepe paper is available in colors which almost exactly duplicate many of the popular dress colors worn today.

To determine which colors will do the most for your hair, view the effect of your crepe paper collar in a mirror held up in strong sunlight.

Waiving mice, a rare domesticated breed, are supposedly of Japanese origin.

In the eighteenth century "pop" was British slang for "paw" or "hook."

Coconut Kisses, Tempting Dessert

Coconut kisses and fresh strawberries—a June delight.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Fresh strawberries with powdered sugar and a dish of coconut macaroons—there's a Summer tidyl for anyone. Here are three variations on the theme of "kisses."

Coconut Kisses
(Makes about 30)
Two-thirds cup sweetened condensed milk, 3 cups (1/2 pound)

shredded coconut, 1 teaspoon vanilla (optional).
Mix sweetened condensed milk and coconut. Add vanilla, if desired. Drop from teaspoon onto greased baking sheet, about 1-inch apart. Decorate with raisins, walnuts, or cherries, if desired. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 10 minutes or until delicately brown. Remove from pan at once.

Coffee Coconut Meringue
(Makes 2 1/2 dozen meringues)
One-quarter teaspoon salt, 2 egg whites, 1 tablespoon soluble coffee, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 cup shredded coconut, 1/4 teaspoon vanilla.
Add salt to egg whites and beat until foamy throughout. Mix soluble coffee and sugar together and add to egg whites, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating after each addition until sugar is blended. Then continue beating until mixture will stand in peaks. Fold in coconut and vanilla. Drop from teaspoon on well-greased cookie sheet. Bake in very slow oven (250 degrees F.) 30 minutes, or until done.

Friendly Skunk Leaves Cops Short Of Breath

ALTADENA, CALIF. (AP)—Sheriff's deputies at the Altadena station inhaled freely recently for the first time in a week.

The skunk—at first it was thought to be more than one—which had taken up residence under the station house was caught in a wire box trap.

The trapper was Louis Van Iersel, a Pasadena City College student who claims to be the only skunk trapper in Pasadena.

The skunk, incidentally, had been nicknamed "The Deputy" because of its unmistakable, if badgeless, authority.

For Day Or Date | Just Something the Arabs Whipped Up

Jewish soldiers look over a home-made eight-inch mortar taken from Arabs during fighting near Tel Aviv. The piece was made by Arab railway workers. To fire a round, they drop a match into a hole in the bottom of the barrel. Job was crude, but it worked. Photo by David S. Boyer. NEA-Acme staff correspondent.

Expert Says U. S. Has Huge Copper Reserve

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has 20,000,000 tons of copper that can be mined under available methods, a geological survey copper expert said recently.

Ralph E. Cannon, Jr., told a House Public Lands subcommittee investigating the need for stockpiling strategic metals that in his opinion "chances are excellent" for the discovery of at least another 20,000,000 tons.

The present maximum output in this country is some 1,100,000 tons a year, he said, adding new copper consumed domestically is several thousand tons more than that.

Butter production in the United States in 1945 (1,685,000,000 pounds) was the lowest since 1920.

Description Too Vivid For Accused Robber

BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND (AP)—Trembling Miss Jane Underhill, 37, told a Birmingham court she sat petrified while a holdup man threatened her with a knife and ransacked her home.

"But," she told the court, "he suddenly turned to me and said: 'I am just as frightened as you are, really.'"

There was a thud in the dock. James Battle, 34, accused of the holdup, had fainted.
