Truman-Barkley Ticket Is Indicated

Platform Writers Ignore Tideland, Skirt Civil Rights

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—Embattled Democratic platform drafters Tuesday skipped a point-by-point endorsement of President Truman's civil rights program.

But, in a compromise move intended to re-unite the Southern and self-styled "liberal" party wings, they wrote what some Truman supporters called a "strong" race issue plank.

It is reported to omit the far-reaching states' rights declaration angry Dixie delegates had demanded.

The 4,500-word document was drawn by a subcommittee for action by the 105-member full platform committee Tuesday. It calls for repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act and for an increase in the minimum wage from 40 to 75 cents an hour.

Some of the drafters voiced confidence that the compromise will avert any floor fight when the platform goes before the national convention Wednesday.

Stamps "Secret" The second preliminary draft was stamped "secret." Nevertheless, reports leaked out that, in addition to the race and labor planks, it proposes on living costs—a broad attack on inflation including standby price and rationing controls.

Foreign affairs—a strong plank for continued and strengthened international cooperation for world peace.

Palentine—revision of the arms embargo to permit shipment of arms to the new state of Israel; immediate and full recognition of its territorial integrity; economic aid to Israel and the internationalization of Jerusalem.

Housing—federal encouragements.

California Politics Waxes Warm And Wet

GLENDALE, CALIF.—(AP)—Politics get pretty serious here, too. Albin Nelson, 42, Democrat, was listening to his party's convention broadcast from Philadelphia Monday night when a stream of water struck him in the ear.

The spitting Nelson called police and accused his neighbor, Miss A. C. Madsen, 64, of thrusting her garden hose through his window and letting fly.

Moreover, he said, her radio kept him awake during the Republican convention.

After talking it over, officers said Nelson decided not to press charges.

Miss Madsen's only comment: "I'm a good Republican."

Escaped Texas Army Prisoner Surrenders

DUNN, N. C.—(AP)—A court-martialed Texas soldier who escaped from an Army prison camp at Fort Jay on Governors Island, N. Y., and swam ashore, has surrendered, Sheriff W. E. Salmon said Tuesday.

The sheriff identified the man as 21-year-old James Edward Biddell of Beaumont.

Biddell was originally sentenced to 50 years for desertion in Germany. He was returned to the United States and his time out to five years. He was turned over to the Port Beaght provost marshal.

Pepper Fan

Senator Claude Pepper of Florida receives a congratulatory kiss from his wife, after he announced in Philadelphia he would seek the Democratic nomination for President.

Three prominent Texans' Texas' three most prominent public servants, Gov. Beauford Jester, left; Senator Tom Connally, center, and House Minority Leader Sam Rayburn, listen to the discussion at the caucus of Texas Democrats. The delegation deferred for hours a vote on a resolution to bolt the party if Truman is the nominee.

THE $64 QUESTION— How To Close It Is Convention Riddle

By PETER EDSON
NEA Staff Writer

PHILADELPHIA—The great riddle of the Democratic convention is how to close it. Shall President Truman be brought up here from Washington to thrill the revolting ranks of his party with one of his now-famous off-the-cuff demonstrations of his dynamic personality, and send the rebels home reunited to do and die for the ticket? Franklin D. Roosevelt did that in 1936, with a mass rally in the stadium next to Convention Hall.

Those in charge of this convention for Truman—principally J. Howard McGrath, the national chairman, and Sergeant at Arms Leslie Biffle—apparently haven't made up their minds on this momentous question.

The alternative to having the President make his acceptance speech in Philadelphia is to have him go back to Independence, Mo., and be formally notified there of his nomination there. You can imagine the scene:

The President would casually announce he was going home for a few days' rest. He would be sitting on the porch in his shirt sleeves and slippers, and with his television make-up on. When all of a sudden, who should come down the street but a committee of distinguished Democrats.

The band would wheel up and render a few bars of Beethoven's Fifth—you know, dit, dit, dit, da—the old war-time V for Victory. One of the delegation would then step forward and read a piece saying that at a recent spontaneous gathering of disinterested and unbiased public citizens in the City of Brotherly Love, it had been unanimously decided to run Judge Truman for the presidency. Surprise, surprise, surprise.

Nobody would be prepared for this event—except for 1,000 newspapermen, photographers, the press, the radio spicers and recorders, and all the Democrats within a day's driving distance of Independence.

Truman, blushing modestly, would deliver a few impromptu remarks—carefully prepared in advance by his ghost-writers to make sure he dedicated the spot to the right guy this time—meaning to himself.

The supposed advantages to this program is that it would avoid a homey, Down in old Missouri touch to a pretty sordid and soggy convention. Also, it would give the delegates time in which to go home and patch up their wounds and feud-shattered friendships.

Open Confession The objection to this program is that it would be an open confession that the President didn't dare face an unfriendly reception from all the disappointed and disgruntled people who tried to stop him.

This includes ADA leaders Leon Henderson and Walter Humphrey; Jimmy Roosevelt of California; Southern Senator Claude Pepper; Lister Hill, John Spartman and Olin Johnston; Southern Governor J. Strom Thurmond; Fielding Wright and William Tuck; City boss Jake Arvey of Chicago and Frank Hague of Jersey City.

Where all these people and their followers are going from here is a mystery. They represent a lot of ancient prejudices and phobias about states' rights, civil rights, liberalism, and every other lam. The die-hard fanatics who hold these varied beliefs have been threatening to walk out of the Democratic party for years. This time they have talked so much and so loud they'll either have to take their walk or keep their peace forever more. The only man who can pull these pieces of lumpy-dumpy together again is the party's candidate for the presidency. What this convention needs is a big lift.

When this was suggested to Chairman McGrath he asked, "What do you mean? Have the President come up here for the opening?"

Schools Award New Contracts, Employ Teachers

Trustees of the Midland Independent School District Monday night awarded contracts totaling $32,785.40 for construction of additional facilities in the school system here.

The J. W. Bateson Construction Company of Dallas received construction contracts totaling $230,912. Included were contracts of $189,181 for a new high school gymnasium, $42,353 for additions to South Elementary School, $44,459 for additions to West Elementary School, $24,239 for West Elementary and $44,827 for a junior high school cafeteria.

C. E. Smith Company of Midland received plumbing contracts totaling $27,878, including $18,048 for the gymnasium, $2,276.88 for South Elementary School, $2,380.47 for West Elementary and $2,275.06 for the cafeteria.

Thus, total contracts for each unit of the construction and expansion program included $233,257.28 for the gymnasium, $47,718.28 for South Elementary, $49,889.87 for West Elementary and $51,778.28 for the cafeteria.

New Teachers Named Trustees also elected new teachers, including Miss Georgia McElroy, Miss Emma Eubank and Mrs. Louise Knight for the junior high school; Clifford Robertson as South Elementary athletic coach; Miss Molly Hinds for North Elementary; Miss La Vera Bailey as high school English teacher; Mrs. Laura Clemens as teacher at Midland Air Terminal, and W. D. Ladd as principal of North Elementary.

Three teacher resignations were accepted, including those of Earl Glasie, assistant high school coach and physical education instructor; Miss Patricia Doyle who taught last year in South Elementary; and Miss Elaine Connelly, who taught in North Elementary. Glasie has accepted a position as head coach at Del Rio.

Presidential Nod Thrusts Kentucky Senator Out Front

By JACK BELL
CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—President Truman put out the word Tuesday he "will be most happy" to have Senator Alben W. Barkley as his vice presidential running mate. That appeared to clinch a Truman-Barkley ticket for the Democrats.

Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath, announcing the President's sentiment, said Truman had not closed the door to others, however, and was leaving it to the Democratic convention to say who should run with him.

But the delegates in this hall were obviously in a mood to turn to Barkley. They gave the 70-year-old Kentucky Senator a 28-minute rousing demonstration Monday night after he made a fighting keynote speech.

Informed of McGrath's statement, Barkley told reporters: "I still have no statement to make as far as I'm concerned. I'm not trying to be evasive but I've got to make up my own mind as to whether I would accept or not."

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—If Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky is nominated as President Truman's running mate by the Democratic convention, who do you suppose has been lined up to tell him so?

Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky. A list of proposed committee assignments drawn up by the Democratic National Committee Tuesday listed Barkley as chairman of the committee to notify the vice presidential nominee.

any condition, and I'm not going to make up my mind until I am temporary chairman of the convention. "After I get out from under that, maybe I'll have something to say."

Barkley told reporters earlier the President had telephoned him congratulations on his keynote speech but had said nothing about the vice presidency.

Along with announcing the White House welcome mat is out for Barkley, McGrath told a news conference: "It is possible President Truman will address what may be the closing session of the convention Wednesday night in Philadelphia."

McGrath said he hopes the convention can meet in almost continuous session Wednesday to wind up its business.

This would mean jamming through adoption of a platform and selection of presidential and vice presidential candidates into one day.

All signs had pointed strongly to Barkley for the last 12 hours although some big city leaders, including Frank Hague of Jersey City and Paul Phipps of New York, were taking the view that some younger man should have the No. 2 spot.

First Demonstration The Kentuckian, as minority leader of the Senate, has gone down the line for President Truman's legislative program.

The slow-starting demonstration for Barkley, paced at the beginning by the strains of "My Old Kentucky Home," developed into the line for President Truman's legislative program.

Chamber Of Commerce Will Sponsor 'Bigger And Better' County Fair

Authority to proceed with plans for a "bigger and better than ever" Midland County Fair this Fall was voted by directors of the Midland Chamber of Commerce at their regular meeting Monday night in Hotel Scharbauer.

R. L. Miller, supervising director of the Livestock - Agriculture Committee, discussed preliminary plans for the annual event, which he termed a wholesome influence on the community. He urged extra effort on the part of businessmen to make the fair the best in history and said plans are to stage the fair about the middle of September. The directors approved a maximum expenditure of $750 in staging the attraction.

The urgent need of a downtown building in which to hold the fair was emphasized by Miller who said it might be necessary to show in a tent. He said members of the Fair Committee will proceed with plans immediately.

Telephone Situation President Tom Sealy reported on the telephone situation and told of a letter received from the president of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in response to an appeal by the Chamber of Commerce for improved service here. He also told of the recent visit of telephone officials from St. Louis, Dallas and Fort Worth to investigate the telephone service problem.

H. F. Fox, district manager of the telephone company, explained the present expansion program and pledged immediate improvement in local and long distance service. He said still more improvement will be noticeable within 30 days, and further improvement will be in effect this Fall. He told of the installation of additional toll positions and switchboards which will relieve the congested situation in the exchange here.

Several directors said they also (Continued on page 10)

Additional Space For Post Office Use Sought Here

The Post Office Department is advertising for bids for additional quarters for post office purposes to relieve the congested situation in the central office here, officials announced Tuesday.

About 2,400 square feet of floor space in the vicinity of the U. S. Post Office Building is desired. Lease proposals should be on the basis of five or 10 years, beginning December 1, or date of occupancy. The bids will be received in the office of Post Office Inspector L. G. Bragdon at Fort Worth up to August 10. Information concerning the bidding requirements and appropriate specifications may be obtained from Postmaster N. G. Oates.

The additional quarters will be used as a classified station, and will have all the facilities of a central post office, Miss Elma Graves, assistant postmaster, said.

Congested Situation She said limited facilities and space in the present offices have created a congested situation which in many instances has caused a slow-down in mail service. She pointed out it has been almost impossible to keep pace with the rapid growth of Midland and the vast increase in postal business in the cramped quarters available. The new station should relieve the situation to a great extent, she said.

Efforts have been underway several years to obtain permission to build a new post office building in Midland and other West Texas cities. Inspectors from the Post Office Department were here several weeks ago to inspect facilities and to determine requirements for improved service.

Two Negroes Confess Rape, Fatal Shooting

OPELOUSAS, LA.—(AP)—Two negro brothers were held here Tuesday, Sheriff Clayton Guibauze said, after they confessed they raped a 21-year-old woman and shot to death her male companion.

The sheriff said the brothers, identified as Matthew Cook, 23, and Joseph Cook, 24, made almost identical written confessions. Both said they had raped the woman and beaten her escort, Albert Couvillion of Melville, but each blamed the other for firing the fatal shot.

Guibauze said the story told by the brothers followed that related to him by the woman.

Couvillion, a retired Navy Lieutenant, was shot twice in the back.

Physicians who examined the woman expressed the opinion that she had not been physically molested.

Dying Farm Brought Back To Life; 700 Men Revive 168 Worn-Out Georgia Acres

When farm surgeons with tractors and bulldozers had finished their work, the deep wound of erosion had nearly been sewn up without trace of a scar.

WINDER, GA. (NEA)—Seven hundred men are using a million dollars worth of equipment completely rebuilt the worn-out 168-acre Carlyle-Blakey farm at Winder in one day.

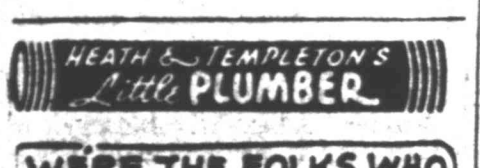

While a crowd of more than 50,000 watched—and sometimes got in the way—here are some of the things that were done:

The entire farm, half of which had been idle land, was revitalized and refurbished.

A gully as deep as a three-story building was filled, leveled off and set to sod.

Three irrigation waterways were put in, and the land they watered was planted respectively to fescue grass, Ladino clover and sericea.

Seven acres were planted to cotton, eight acres to corn.

The Door That Alben Opened

By HAL BOYLE
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dear Alben did it.

No dark horse but an old and honored, wheelhorse of the New Deal—Sen. Alben Barkley—rode to the rescue of the torpid Democratic National Convention.

In 48 stirring minutes of old-fashioned sledge hammer oratory Monday night he evicted the surging delegates together in a frenzied outburst of party enthusiasm.

They gave him a 28-minute ovation. It was the first time the Democrats had found anything they could agree to cheer—or be cheerful about.

It was an antique bugle Barkley blew and an old but popular tune—the call to battle. It is the call that through the ages has made men bury their differences and fall in line.

As he stood there, a chunky, powerful man in a white linen suit, he was a kind of elderly David trying with verbal muscle to win King Saul—in this case the Democratic convention—back from black depression to hopeful action.

And he sang his summons to political war like a skilled minstrel who knows his tale well. This was the third time in his long career he had sounded the keynote battle cry at a national convention.

He spoke from a rostrum behind which hovered the portrait of Franklin Delano Roosevelt—the man he had served so long and who once heaped names him as his captain in a letter beginning "Dear Alben."

Like any veteran commander who knows that no army wins by internal weakness, he stressed Democratic claims of achievement rather than convention differences.

His powerful, old-time eloquence hit at the Republican enemy time after time, but he never mentioned together the two key words that have split this convention like a raw red wound—will rights.

But he touched upon the issue in interpreting Thomas Jefferson's statement in the Declaration of Independence that among the self-evident truths of mankind is the proposition that all men are created equal.

And the old man from Kentucky went down the line for President Truman, just as he had for President Roosevelt, even after he broke with him.

Self-evident
"I am declaring these truths to be self-evident," said Barkley, "Jefferson meant that they were not subject to dispute, not to be submitted to a jury or a political convention, not to be subject to compromise or evasion or subtraction."

And he continued with the most marked emphasis he gave to any sentence in his long speech:

"What he (Jefferson) declared was that all men are equal; and the equality which he proclaimed was equality in the rights to enjoy the blessings of free government in which they may participate, and to which they have given their consent."

Only a scattering of applause greeted him here.

But the delegates cheered repeatedly his praise of the New Deal record and his quips at the Republicans.

They laughed uproariously when he jibed that "a bureaucrat is a Democrat who holds some office that a Republican wants" and "the Republican politicians have not been closer to Lincoln in two generations than to quote him."

Planned and Unplanned
When he finished with a prayer, the convention erupted in planned and unplanned tributes. The rebel yells broke out, and for nearly half an hour the band played "Dixie music," "The Missouri Waltz," and "The Sidewalks of New York."

There was camaraderie there in the aisles, and cheers and weeping, and James Roosevelt sang with the crowd—"My Old Kentucky Home." He went to the rostrum and held high the hand of his father's old fellow campaigner. The crowd loved it.

The ovation brought to a peak the move to make Senator Barkley—the man who has always tried to put the team above the man—the party's vice presidential candidate.

It was the reward of a lifetime of party loyalty.

Some die-hard anti-Truman Southern delegates even began campaigning for a new compromise ticket—"Barkley for president, James Roosevelt for vice president."

Neither Barkley nor Roosevelt gave it any encouragement.

But its backers who had just heard Barkley say, "Behold, destiny itself knocks at our door," thought: "Open the door, Alben."

The door Senator Barkley had tried to open led to party harmony.

The door he did open seemed to lead straight to the vice presidential nomination. But the door to real harmony—was it even ajar?

Senate Candidates Begin Tapering Off

By The Associated Press
Coke Stevenson sounded off on a familiar theme—the need for a cut in federal taxes—as he tried to convince East Texas Monday night that he's the man to send to the U. S. Senate.

Landon Johnson's subject was just as familiar—his belief that America must accept world leadership to survive. He spoke Monday at Bryan in the south central part of the state.

Meanwhile, George Peck was in Houston, trying to win his law business and getting ready to whip through the last two weeks of his Senate campaign in his home area.

He turned his speaking chores over to J. E. Sparkman, a Houston Chronicle printer and member of the typographical union.

Five less-heralded candidates laid plans, in the meantime, to meet in Dallas Wednesday night and pick one man to carry the fight against Stevenson, Johnson and Peck.

Terrill Sledge, Cyclona Davis, F. E. Clark, Roscoe H. Collier and Jesse V. Saunders agreed to poll their strength behind one of their number. They invited three other candidates to help out.

Dr. Ireland Resigns Scout Chairmanship

The resignation of Dr. H. A. Ireland as chairman of the Midland District of the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, was announced Monday night at a meeting at the Ireland residence.

Ralph Smith, vice chairman, was elevated to the chairmanship to succeed Doctor Ireland. Smith also succeeds to the council's executive board.

A vote of appreciation was extended Doctor Ireland for his outstanding service to Scouting and to the youth of Midland. A Scout statuette was presented to him as a token of appreciation.

The retiring chairman and his family are moving from Midland soon.

Those present at the meeting were Ireland, Smith, G. W. Breneman, Bob Pine, Berte R. Haigh, Grady Kidd, H. A. Spratt, the Rev. Clyde Lindsley, M. D. Mauck, Stuart Painter and P. V. Thorson.

Monahans Accident Claims Second Life

MONAHANS (AP)—Freedom Taylor, 25, died Sunday of injuries suffered Saturday in a highway accident in which Jimmie Larue, 12, was killed instantly.

The accident occurred about 15 miles west of Monahans.

The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Larue. Taylor was employed at Larue's laundry. He leaves a widow and daughter.

The Larue boy's burial will be in Dallas, his former home.

Midland Reservists On Training Cruise

Two Midland sailors, Francis C. Stokney and Robert B. Peyton, both seaman recruits, USNR, have sailed from New Orleans on a Naval Reserve training cruise.

Stokney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin B. Stokney, 707 West Tennessee Street, is aboard the destroyer USS Lind, and Peyton is aboard the destroyer USS Hank Peyton, 710 South Big Spring Street. The destroyers will be among those engaging in maneuvers in the Caribbean.

More than 400 reservists are taking their annual training cruise aboard modern destroyers of the four-ship squadron bound for Guantanamo Bay and Santiago, Cuba.

The reservists will be given gunnery drills, battle problems, and lectures to refresh their previous training and acquaint them with the latest developments in Naval equipment.

Planes, submarines and destroyers will practice under simulated war conditions during the two-week cruise.

Monroe To Be Speaker For Methodist Men

Frank Monroe will be the speaker at the meeting of Methodist Men of First Methodist Church at 7 p. m. Tuesday night.

Monroe, superintendent of the Midland Public Schools, will tell of the plans for improving and enlarging the physical properties of the school system. He also will discuss other subjects connected with the schools.

A covered dish dinner provided by the members will be served. The meeting will be held in the Scharbauer Educational Building of the church.

The largest flying bird is the Trumpeter Swan, which weighs about 35 pounds.

Midland Voters—

In seeking re-election to office of Constable, Precinct 1, I should like to refer you to my record in this office during the 10 months I have served.

If I have failed to see you personally to ask your support in the July 24 primary, it is because duties of the office prevent my devoting much time to campaigning. Your vote will be sincerely appreciated.

Singapore Muslims Oppose Crematorium

Singapore (AP)—The proposal that Singapore build a Crematorium is running into opposition from the colony's Muslim minority. "Islam prohibits cremation of the dead," a Muslim Missionary society official declared. "It is a most contemptible act in the eyes of Islam."

The Society plans to make strong protests against the suggestion of the Singapore municipal commissioner, that the colony save land by burning corpses instead of burying them.

WEST VIRGINIA FARMER LEAVES 214 DESCENDANTS

Six sons, three daughters, 87 grandchildren, 111 great-grandchildren, and seven great-great-grandchildren survive.

Man is nearly always involved, directly or indirectly, in the causes that make birds extinct.

Wolfe City Doctor Holds Twins Record

Sherman (AP)—Dr. J. O. Chestham of Wolfe City believes he has established some kind of a record in delivering twin babies.

During his practice he has delivered 34 sets of twins.

His latest set was born to Mrs. Hershel Marical, who lives south of Wolfe City in Hunt County. The babies, a boy and a girl, were Mrs. Marical's third set of twins, and Dr. Chestham delivered all three sets.

This is the second time Dr. Chestham has attended a mother who has given birth to three sets of twins in a row.

Mrs. Otis Fuller offered the opening and Mrs. Ward the closing prayers. Present were Mrs. Stalcup, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. T. A. Fyler, Mrs. G. G. Hasel, and Mrs. W. E. Cowen.

The Annie Barron Circle met in the home of Mrs. Alice Neill, 403 North Weatherford Street.

Miss Alta Merrill gave the opening prayer, and Mrs. R. O. Walker led the Bible study.

Mrs. Walker, Mrs. J. W. Schroeder, Miss Merrill and Miss Mary Neill a visitor, were dismissed with a prayer led by Mrs. Neill.

Mrs. Noel Cason, 1901 West Texas Street, was hostess to the Mary Elizabeth Truly Circle. Mrs. Cason led the opening prayer, Mrs. Richard Hinkle the Bible study and Mrs. C. F. Hunter the closing prayer.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Cason, Mrs. Hinkle, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Harry Rhodes, Mrs. Scott Brown and Mrs. Fred Wycoff.

Congratulations To

Mrs. E. C. Heikkila And Children Return After Two Years' Residence In Germany

Mrs. E. C. Heikkila and sons, Joe and Eddie, have returned to Midland after spending almost two years in the American Zone in Germany. They arrived in New York City June 11 and in Midland June 30. Mrs. Heikkila left in October, 1946, to join her husband, Major Heikkila, AAP, then stationed at an air depot near Munich. For the last year they have been living at the Rhein-Main Airbase near Frankfurt.

Major and Mrs. Heikkila and their children have visited extensively in the French and American zones in Germany and in Austria, Italy, Switzerland, France and Belgium. Their older son, Joe, attended the American Dependents' Schools in Munich and Frankfurt.

Major Heikkila reports that the dependent families in Germany live in American Army style; that is, they buy what they need at the post exchanges and depend on resources of the bases for amusement.

"We had little contact with the German people except for those connected with the airfield or our personal servants," she said. "Outwardly, at least, they were respectful and very eager to please the Americans."

Mrs. Heikkila was impressed by the devastation and suffering of the countries she visited. "If Americans in this country could only realize what gifts of food or clothing mean to those hungry, ill-clad people, they would not hesitate to help them through foreign relief," she stated.

In Germany she worked with other dependent wives with the GYA (German Youth Activities). German girls were taught cooking and sewing, and the boys were taught handicrafts and sports. All were given food and clothing.

No War Talk
In spite of their sufferings, Mrs. Heikkila reports most of the Germans she met had high morale.

"They realize how lucky they are to be living in the American zone," she said. "They appear to be terrified of the Russians."

Almost no news or information came out of the Russian zone, and the only newspaper published in the American zone, the Stars and Stripes, did not give much space to war rumors or diplomatic crises.

Mrs. Heikkila says she was amazed to find so much talk of war with Russia when she returned to this country.

"It's wonderful to be back in Midland," she says. "I have grown so much I hardly know it."

Mrs. Heikkila plans to occupy her time with the construction of a two-story business and apartment building while awaiting her husband's return in April.

Ways to "beat the heat" and make the Summer months a real vacation time:

Choose your clothes first for comfort so that "getting dressed to go out" isn't something you dread.

Change your Winter ways of entertaining to Summer ways. No big dinners indoors, no parties that take a lot of planning and fuss. Make your entertaining as easy and as informal as possible. You'll enjoy it more and so will your guests.

Take a Summer vacation from a set householding routine. Be content with less than perfect housekeeping.

Don't be ashamed of loafing. Loaf whenever you get a chance. Take Your Time.

Don't hurry. Take your time, no matter what you're doing. Relax enough to enjoy having your children at home.

Live as much as possible out-of-doors. Comfortable chairs for the yard may be a better investment than new draperies for the living room.

Above all, realize that Summer living should follow an entirely different pattern from Winter living.

GOT QUICK RHEUMATIC RELIEF WITH MERTOXY

"For the past 15 years I have been bothered with frequent rheumatic pains in my left shoulder. In my work I have to use my arms and shoulders a great deal. I was beginning to stiffen up. After taking Mertoxy Compound for a short time this condition was quickly corrected. So that now I am free from rheumatic trouble and free of the aches and pains. I was also troubled with gas and bloating, which were very painful. I felt tired and rundown; just seemed to have no life or pep at all. Had severe headaches, too. The gas would seem to press against my heart and lungs and make it hard to breathe. Now I can get anything I want to eat, which was impossible before taking this splendid medicine. My nervousness and my general condition do not have to get up at night as I did before."

You can get Mertoxy Compound from any Texas drugstore at the new REDUCED price.

LOCAL PEOPLE SAY INNER-AID IS WONDERFUL

Hundreds Here Turn To New Medicine Which Clears Away Bowel and Stomach Acid and Puts Quick Stop to Indigestion, Gas, Headaches, Sleepless Nights and Constipation. Costs Only Few Cents a Day.

Many Midland people are now turning to INNER-AID, The New Medicinal Compound, now being introduced in this city at leading drug stores. Although Inner-Aid was announced here only a few days ago—in connection with a National-wide fight being started against Bowel and Stomach Acid—already hundreds of local men and women are taking—and praising—this Great Liquid Preparation.

ALWAYS CONSTIPATED
Victims of the "Modern Scourge"—Bowel and Stomach Acid—scarcely know what is wrong with them. They can't digest food properly, spit-up hot, strong, acidulous liquids, have skin eruptions, coated tongue, thick, bad taste, foul breath, can't sleep right, get a headache, worn out and—ALWAYS CONSTIPATED. They appear to have all the symptoms of common "bowel and stomach disorder." Yet, "doctoring" for "bowel and stomach disorder" seldom brings benefit, because ordinary bowels and stomach medicines do not reach the acidulous root of this trouble. So these discouraged, ailing people are turning to suffer—wondering why all medicines fail them—why they have to be sick all the time—why they can't feel strong and well like normal men and women.

WORKS WITH FOOD
Such suffering people will now find—in INNER-AID—a REAL measure of RELIEF. This medicine is taken shortly before meals: thus it works with your food and neutralizes acids. At once there is an easier feeling in the stomach and chest. Within 10 minutes the gas starts leaving you. The treating, bloating and painful gas swelling are relieved.

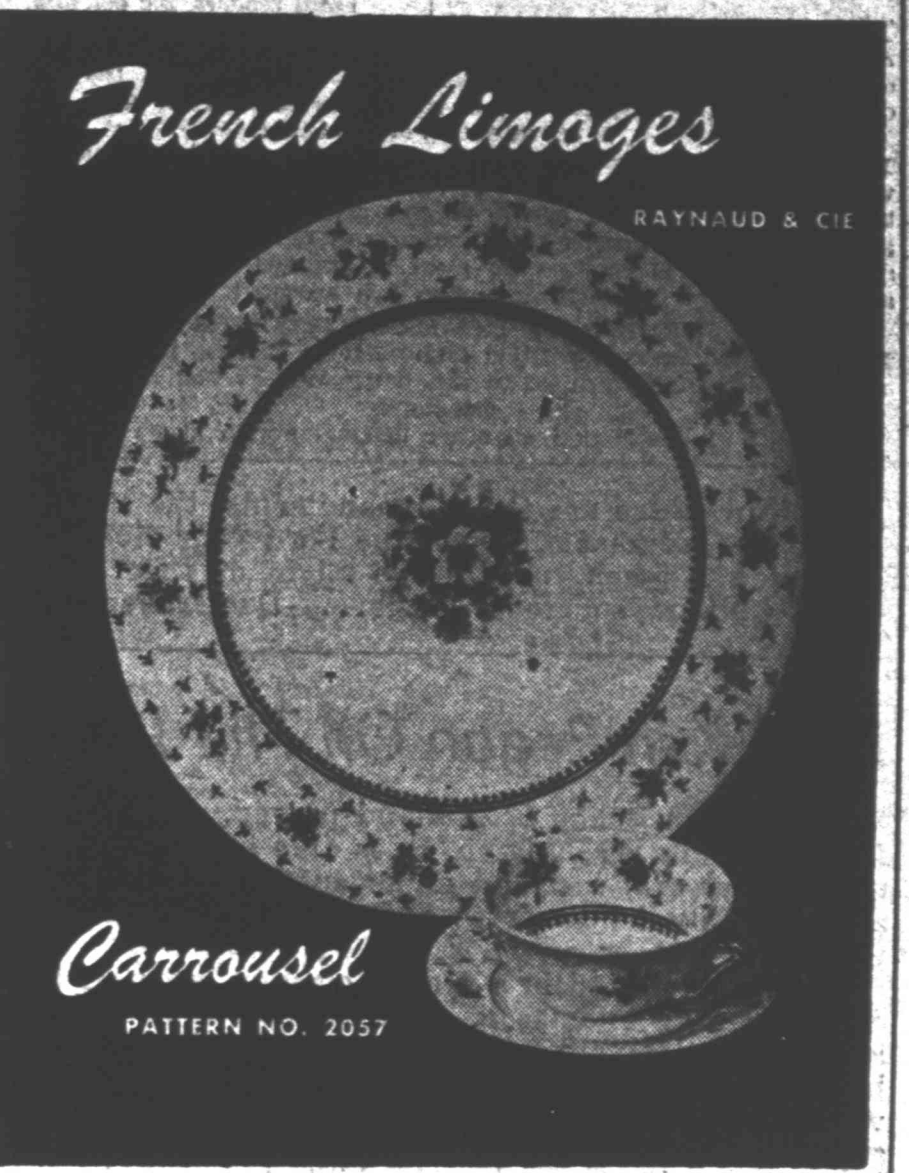

This benefit comes quick, usually from one dose! A course of the medicine—three to seven weeks—has an amazing effect upon the stomach organs. If you suffer from indigestion, gas, swelling, bloating, upset stomach, spitting up of food and liquids, etc., you should by all means try this medicine.

A GREAT LAXATIVE
INNER-AID also is a LAXATIVE. It contains a combination of cleansing ingredients not often found even in high-priced Special Bowel Compounds. The laxative power of this new medicine alone is worth TEN TIMES ITS COST. They cleanse the bowels REALLY CLEAN, bringing out old, black, acidulous substances that may have been the real cause of all your suffering. Then headaches, skin eruptions, worn out feeling and sleepless nights—due to acidulous congestion—come to quick end.

COST IS SMALL
SUFFERERS! Don't go on feeling worn out, headache, miserable. Get Inner-Aid—TODAY! Cost of 5¢ medicine is small—only a few cents a day for a FULL COURSE!

Sold in this city, by all leading drug stores.

Keep Ken Regan On The Job!

Rep. Ken Regan of Midland proved, during his first few months in Washington, he is able and well qualified to represent this vast and important West Texas district, and certainly he deserves reelection to a full term in Congress.
He was elected in a special election last year to succeed R. Ewing Thomason. In that short time, Regan has accomplished much more than many congressmen who have served several terms. And these accomplishments were gained even though he is a new Democratic representative in a Republican Congress. His record in Washington is excellent, proving his ability to handle the job to which he was elected to fill an unexpired term. It now is time to return him to Washington for a full term.

The Reporter-Telegram supported Ken Regan in the special election, believing him the most capable and best qualified man in the race. On the basis of his record, this newspaper is supporting Ken Regan for reelection to his first full term in Congress. He has proved his ability and now is in a position to use it and his experience for the benefit of this great district and its citizens.

We believe any office holder who works hard and who establishes a fine record while serving an unexpired term is deserving of at least one full term in office. Regan is in that position and merits reelection.

Unfortunately Regan has been ill in a Washington hospital for several weeks, and has been unable to personally conduct his campaign. Yet, Ken Regan's wife and his many friends and supporters throughout the district are carrying on a fine, straight-forward campaign in his behalf. Under the circumstances, Regan must depend largely on the efforts of his friends for reelection. He has done a job of which his supporters are proud.

Serving citizens of West Texas and serving them well is nothing new to Ken Regan who previously served a full four-year term as state senator from this district. He had an excellent record in Austin, and was elected unanimously as president of the Senate.

Before his election as state senator, Regan served first as an alderman, then as mayor and later as president of the Chamber of Commerce of Pecos. His outstanding leadership, his sincere desire to serve the best interests of the people, his willingness to work, and his ability to get the job done were proven in each instance. Ken Regan has distinguished himself as an able, capable and efficient public servant. He also served with distinction in both World Wars.

A successful independent oil operator and businessman, Regan is the type man needed in Washington today. This West Texas district is fortunate in having a practical and high-type citizen willing to represent it in Congress. Ken Regan has done a marvelous job during the short time he has been our representative. He deserves a full term.

Let's reelect him in the July 24 Democratic Primary.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

U. S. Greatly Expands Project Of Information And Education

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON—This month the State Department's Information and Education Program for foreign countries begins tripling operations under Assistant Secretary of State George V. Allen. For Congress has stepped up the spending money from the $10,000,000 of last year to $28,000,000 for next.

What this means is more American libraries and cultural centers operating abroad, exchange of more students and learned men, more U. S. technical experts to foreign governments, more American documentary films about the United States for showing to foreign audiences, and last but not least, more "Voices of America" programs beamed in foreign languages to countries where it is important that the American story be told straight.

Biggest problem of "the Voice" under its new boss, Lloyd Lehrbas, is of course keeping out of trouble at home. The recent hullabaloo in Congress over a series of corny feature shows beamed to Latin America has resulted in withdrawal of the private broadcasting companies from this field. The State Department will do it all.

Assistant Secretary Allen says that the aim is "to present our civilization in its true color, which is gray—not lily white. . . . We are willing to admit our imperfections and to tell the truth as nearly as we can ascertain it."

To keep the American Voice from going sour, an advisory board is being appointed by the White House. It will be headed by Mark Ethridge, Louisville publisher, and will include Erwin Canham of the Christian Science Monitor, Mark May of Yale Institute of Human Relations and Philip Reed of General Electric.

Of the $28,000,000 new money which Congress is putting into the information and education program, roughly $7,000,000 will go to the Voice. Four and a half million more will be spent on construction of new relay stations abroad, so that the programs will have better reception in foreign countries.

Another $4,500,000 will go for the State Department's daily wireless bulletin—some 6,000 words of condensed news sent to U. S. diplomatic and consular offices all over the world.

Two and a half million will go for administrative expenses and salaries in the U. S. The total expenditure will be $28,000,000.

Haunted

NEW YORK—(AP)—under the sting of competitive need the railroads are trying as never before to make friends.
Many roads virtually ignored this problem less than three years ago. Now they have joined in urging employees, both in stations and on the trains, to be courteous and helpful.
The Association of American Railroads said a great expansion in training of employees for contact with the public is under way or projected for this summer.
Rail officials want their workers to convince you, as passenger or shipper, of their sincere interest in your comfort and welfare.
There's a dollar-and-cents angle, of course. More friends mean more customers. This in turn brings more revenue, makes more jobs.
At the end of 1945 a group in the railroad's transportation study committee reported "only a few" roads making any real effort to improve relations of their employees with the public.
Warning that one ill-mannered worker can make a customer a permanent enemy of the railroad, the report stated:
"Courtesy cannot be left to chance."
While some lines depend on efforts of individual supervisors to instruct and encourage employees in habits of courtesy, others have adopted formal programs—classes, conferences, correspondence courses, circulars and moving pictures.
On the New York Central, train crews have been asked by Gustav Metzner, president, to "explain to our passengers" the reason and probable length of any exceptional delay.
The new courtesy campaigns are intended as a personalized supplement to such tangible service improvements as through-coast-to-coast sleepers, travel credit plans, better reservation systems and new streamlined equipment.
Personal services offered travelers have expanded greatly. The Chesapeake & Ohio and Missouri-Kansas-Texas will make hotel reservations. C. & O. also has wood customers with such devices as auto ferrying service, "no-tipping" rules on diners and a central bureau for reservations.
The Santa Fe, among others, provides courier nurses to cater to needs of traveling invalids or persons with infirmities. The Baltimore & Ohio revives a prewar practice of serving meals at seats to coach passengers.
Success of any program of improving customer relations, the railroads have learned, depends on its leadership.
E. E. Woodruff, president of the Erie railroad, is one of those who believes training must "start at the top." Officers and foremen on the Erie are selected for ability to get along with people.
An aid in being helpful to railroad patrons is knowledge of what they like and dislike in transportation service. Many lines seek customer expressions in this respect.
The Federation for Railway Progress distributes cards to facilitate such comments.
One of the most ambitious of the formal public relations training programs for employees is that of the New York Central. More than 80,000 of this system's 135,000 workers have attended such classes, and a correspondence course has been started to reach additional thousands.
Here are highlights of other training activities reported in a recent A. A. R. survey:
Union Pacific—A traveling "courtesy director" instructs employes at times using a special "schoolhouse" car. A motion picture on courtesy and public relations has been prepared.
Southern Pacific—An outstanding organization working on a contract basis conducts courses in which 3,500 are participating. Company officials say the project stresses what the employe will get out of improving his ability to get along with others, and that when he recognizes the value of this, benefit to the company will be automatic.
Missouri Pacific—Public relations department sends suggestions by direct mail to employes' homes.

Rutherford To Speak At Political Rally

J. T. Rutherford of Odessa, candidate for state representative, has accepted an invitation to speak at the political rally here Monday night, officials of the League of Women Voters, sponsor, said Tuesday. His acceptance brought to 27 the total number of candidates who will attend the event.
The rally will be held at Indian Park, starting at 7:30 p. m. The candidates will be given from three to five minutes in which to present their qualifications and platforms. Persons attending may ask questions on vital issues.

Radio Show Dramatizes AP's Centennial Year

NEW YORK—(AP)—Highlights in The Associated Press' 100 years of newswriting and reporting were dramatized Monday night on "The Cavalcade of America," nationwide (NBC) radio program.
The dramatization, dedicated to the men and women of the AP, started with the organization of The Associated Press in New York City in 1848.
The original membership consisted of six newspapers, while the AP's services now go to approximately 4,000 member newspapers and radio stations and subscribers. More than a million words flow every 24 hours.
Among the events dramatized were the nomination of Gen. Zachary Taylor, Lincoln's Gettysburg address and the Johnson flood—all reported by the AP.

Youth Fined Airplane Ride For Auto Speeding

CHICAGO—(AP)—Stuart Becker, 19, hurried home from a vacation in Canada by plane to appear in traffic court Monday on a charge of speeding.
Judge Gibson Gorman told Becker it was refreshing to find a defendant who made an effort to appear in traffic court.
He also told Becker that his $45 airplane ride was considered simple fines and he dismissed the speeding charge.

Best Treatment Of Snake Bite Is Simply Not To Get Bitten

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service
Of the poisonous snakes, rattlesnakes are probably the most widely distributed. They are present in many vacation spots, including much of the Rocky Mountain area and most of the southwest. It is claimed that the danger from rattlesnake bites in the United States is increasing because of the increase in outdoor recreation.
The best way to treat snake bites is not to get bitten at all. High leather shoes or leather boots will stop the bite. People who vacation in regions where rattlesnakes are found ought to give this matter some thought. In one report from Texas about one-third of those bitten died, so this matter is really serious.
Two Kinds Of Cure
In general, the treatment of snake bite is of two kinds. The first, which is local, is aimed at preventing spread of the poison from the bite to the vital organs and at removing much of the poison before it is absorbed. The second is designed to neutralize or counteract the absorbed venom and to prevent or lessen its effect.
Local treatment includes use of a ligature, tourniquet, or band tied above the bite. Some doctors advise short deep cuts over the fang marks, together with the application of some device of suction which pulls out at least some of the venom. General treatment consists in using antitoxins or substances aimed at neutralizing the venom. Pretty good antitoxins have been developed to combat the venom of some snakes.
We really need to learn a good deal more about our poisonous snakes how they bite and how the bite should be treated. For the present the intelligent person will make every effort not to get bitten rather than to rely on treatment after the event.

Questions and Answers

Q—What is a "pocket veto"?
A—A bill which the President does not sign within 10 days after Congress adjourns automatically dies by "pocket veto." When Congress is in session an unsigned bill becomes law unless vetoed within 10 days after it reaches him. To veto a bill it is necessary for the President to send a message to Congress.
Q—When were the Dark Ages?
A—The Dark Ages extended from the fall of the Western Roman Empire in 475 AD to the revival of learning in 1150—about seven centuries. During this period learning was at its lowest ebb in Europe.
Q—How many masts has a brig?
A—Two masts; a brig is square-rigged.
Q—When is Hogmanay Night?
A—New Year's Eve, marking the end of the Christmas season in Scotland, when children go about singing and soliciting gifts.

Houston Youth Leads Qualifiers In Junior Joust

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Match play starts Tuesday in the 22nd annual State Junior Golf Tournament, with 17-year-old Don Addison of Houston leading a field of 154 qualifiers.

Addison turned in a four-under-par 67.

Chester Hauser of Kerrville, L. M. Crannel, Dallas, and Billy Penn, Austin, turned in 70 apiece. Last year's champ, Billy Maxwell of Abilene, equalled par with a 71, and so did Delmus James of Abilene.

Match play is in four flights. Tuesday's championship flight pairings included:

Don Addison (87), Houston, vs. Eloy Lelas (73) Mercedes.

Billy Maxwell (71), Abilene, vs. James W. Smith (75), Vernon.

Billy Penn (70), Austin, vs. Gerry McGraw (74), Abilene.

Bob Seaman (72), Houston, vs. George Salhab (75), Beaumont.

Don January (69), Dallas, vs. Art McKay (73), Amarillo.

L. M. Crannel, Jr. (70), Dallas, vs. Dick Goerlich (74), Beaumont.

Joe Ruby (72), San Antonio, vs. Raymond Meann (75), Amarillo.

Chester Hauser (70), Kerrville, vs. Morris Williams (74), Austin.

Bill Smith (72), Hillsboro, vs. Billy Reruth (75), San Antonio.

Williams TKOs Jack In Sixth

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Williams finally found an opponent who didn't know what it meant to back-track and the String Bean Kid from Trenton, N. J., used him as a medium to prove he's a great lightweight champion.

Williams scored a six-round technical knockout Monday night over Beau Jack, windmill-swinging former shoe-shine boy. Each entered the ring at 124 pounds.

A disappointing crowd of 12,862 paid $63,787 at Shibe Park and saw the ever-advancing Jack swarm all over the champion in the early rounds. Williams, jabbing and counter-punching, simply waited patiently for an opening.

In the sixth, the champion caught Jack with a left hook and battering him with countless rights and lefts, pinned him against the ropes. Jack wanted to fight but couldn't and finally Referee Charley DeGart stepped in and called a halt after 33 seconds of the round.

Memphis Star Paces Qualifiers In Women's Southern Tournament

NASHVILLE, TENN. (AP)—The 1948 Southern Women's Golf Tournament moved into match play Tuesday with Margaret Gunther of Memphis apparently the girl to beat. She toured the par 78 course Monday in 73 strokes.

Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Texas, gave the medalist quite a run, taking second honors with a 74.

Florida's golfing girl champ, Bopie Whitaker of Winter Haven, whizzed around the course in 75, one better than the pre-tourney favorite, Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, N. C.

Other state champions to come through as expected were Mary Lena Faulkner of three Georgia crowns to her credit; Betty Mimms White of Dallas, the Lone Star State title; and Betty McKinnon of Mt. Pleasant, Texas, who recently captured the Arkansas women's award.

IF YOU HAVE RECOVERED? DEL RIO COMES FOR TWO—

Indians Win Torrid Tilt For Salvage

The Midland Indians and the Del Rio Cowboys meet at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday in Indian Park to open a two-game series. The second battle will be played Wednesday night.

The Cowboys currently are on the upgrade in the Longhorn League and do not desire to be "outsiders" of the Indians any more. Harold Webb has named Dick Willensberg starting trier hurler.

By TANNER LAINE

In as thrilling a finish as was ever unreeled in Indian Park, the Midland Indians edged the Odessa Oilers 12-11 Monday night to take the salvage tilt of a three-game series.

The Tribe came from behind in the last half of the ninth with a sweet two-run rally that won the close battle.

The game left an overflow crowd wilted in excitement. It produced just about all one could ask from a ball game. Midland fairly exploded in the second inning with eight runs. Odessa punched steadily and ate up the difference until coming into the ninth, Midland had but a 10-9 lead.

Odessa sent Leo Rheingans, outfielder, into the fray as a pinch-hitter in the first of the ninth. He promptly smashed a home run over the center wall to tie up the game 10-all. Bolen struck out. Wells tripled. Crisman came in to pitch for Midland. Brinkopf grounded out. While Cowser was batting, Wells stole home with what looked like the winning run for the Oilers. Cowser errored on. Moody grounded out.

Then came the thrilling last half of the ninth when Midland won the torrid tilt. Armendaris came in to pitch for the visitors. Nipp struck out. Mellillo singled. Big Jim Prince, who has a back injury, came in to pinch-hit for Haggard. Prince hit a smoking single and it got away from the left fielder with Mellillo scoring. Specht stepped up and drilled a single which scored Prince from third and that broke up the ball game.

Prince had hurriedly shuffled out of civilian clothes and came from the clubhouse to produce his pinch hit.

Midland used four pitchers in the fray and Odessa paraded three. Late owners became the winner and loser with Crisman getting a win and Armendaris a loss.

The Indians jumped on starting pitcher Coleman of Odessa with this eight-run outburst in the second. Nipp struck out. Mellillo singled. Haggard tripled scoring Mellillo. Specht walked. Grove struck out. Perry hit scoring Haggard. Jakes walked. Collins hit scoring Specht.

Two Men Plan To Build Golf Course Near City

H. L. Winkler of Dallas and Walter Thompson of Houston announced Tuesday they are going to build a golf course for Midland.

The two sportsmen purchased the 240-acre Frank Prothro place, which is northeast of the city. The site is just two miles from Highway 80.

An 18-hole, grass-greened course will be started within a few days. There also will be practice grounds and a putting green. A famous golf course architect has been employed to plan the setup.

Winkler was with a sporting goods firm with headquarters in Dallas for 12 years. He is a well-known sportsman.

Thompson is a golf professional. He was pro at the Golfcrest Club in Houston six years. Also he was pro at the Woodlawn Club of Sherman.

Midlanders interested in a golf course are urged to contact these two men with any suggestions desired. Their address is General Delivery, Midland, until a box can be obtained.

DOWN SPORTS LANE

The Lone Star League resumes its slam-bang race Tuesday night, a squad of all-stars having put leading Kilgore in its place with a 3-2 decision Monday night.

Ledy Lee Roy Jones, former Longhorn League hurler, started the game for Kilgore. He gave up one run in three frames.

Can a man outrun a horse? Jesse Owens, the great star of the 1936 Olympics, has been doing it—or had been doing it until he went up against a Texas Quarter Horse name Wonder.

The race was at Oakland, Calif., last month and it was the first time the great negro sprinter ever had met a Quarter Horse.

Owens was in his sprinter's crouch and the horse was just standing there when they fired the gun. Wonder shot away from the starting line like a bullet. Owens ran about 15 yards, then quit and walked off the track.

A study of the records shows that the West Texas-New Mexico League is the hardest hitting circuit in all professional baseball.

It was the only league last year with six of the eight clubs hitting over 300. It scored 8,440 runs—an average of over 15 per game—and it pounded 1,200 homers.

The circuit hasn't changed this season. At the half-way mark six of the eight clubs were batting .300 or better, the league had accounted for a total of 4,554 runs and 584 homers.

ROUNDUP UP THE STRAYS... The Third Invitational Pecos County softball tournament will be held July 26-30 at Fort Stockton.

There are 85 medals and trophies to be awarded with a $100 cash prize to the winner. Midland is invited to send a team or so and July 20 in the deadline. Anyone of team interested should communicate with Paul Counts, manager, Fort Stockton Chamber of Commerce.

George Dockins, Fort Worth's star relief pitcher, is expected to start for the Cats in the Texas League All-Star game Tuesday night.

At the Cats the "Stars" are expected to throw three left-handers: Perkowski of Tulsa, Matar of Houston and Sierra of San Antonio.

There will be a lot of feeling in the Clemson-Rice football game in 1949 when the Tigers, formerly coached by Jess Neely, meet the Owls, which are now his pupils.

The finals of the first national Junior Olympics for youngsters from 10 to 15 years of age will be held in Cleveland August 27-28.

Longhorn League managers voted on their All-Star game selections last weekend. Don't be surprised to see Rip Collins of Midland at second base for the Midland-Odessa-Del Rio-Big Spring outfit.

This COLUMN and Gene Gregston (Odessa's Second Guesser) exchanged "Now I've Seen Everything" at the game Monday night.

Leo Rheingans, who hit a homer as a pinch-hitter to put Odessa into a tie in the ninth inning, lost his hero role to that of goat in the last of the ninth when he errored Prince's drive. He had gone into left field to spell Bob Cowser as a defensive maneuver that failed to work.

We heard a classic remark by an Odessa fan as Jim Prince sauntered from the clubhouse to produce his timely hit as a pinch knocker. "Oh my Lord, he's got well!"

Lewis Williams, linotyper at The Reporter-Telegram, thanks Harold Webb for "clobbering" an irate Odessa fan who was picking on Williams' big brother, just a youngster. Webb had plenty of backers including some of his boys who came roaring to the fray—Jakes, Presley, Prince, et al—30 for strays, ever use a rawhide rope?

Cats Take On All-Star Nine At Fort Worth

By HAROLD V. BATHIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Tulsa's Oilers were back in second place and the Shreveport Sports were moving toward a first division berth Tuesday as the Texas League took time out for its annual all-star game.

The all-star contest is scheduled for Fort Worth Tuesday night, where Al Vincent, Tulsa manager, sends his powerhouse team recruited from the other seven clubs against the league-leading Fort Worth Cats.

Tulsa trimmed Dallas 5-4 Monday night to surge into the runner-up spot while second-place Houston was tumbling before Shreveport in a doubleheader. Shreveport won the first game 6-3 and the after-places 3-0 to advance within a game of fourth-place San Antonio.

Fort Worth kept its two and one-half game edge on the field by whipping Oklahoma City 4-1, Beaumont and San Antonio were idled by rain.

The All-Stars, recruited from the other seven clubs to meet the league-leading Cats, are generally favored to win but more than 12,000 are expected to turn out to see them do it.

Battle of Southpaws
Manager Bobby Bragan of Fort Worth had veteran George Dockins, a relief specialist in the regular league race, ready to go as far as his left-handed effectiveness will carry him.

Al Vincent of Tulsa, skipper of the All-Stars, planned to "south-paw 'em to death" as he nominated three lefties for three-inning stints apiece—Harry Perkowski of Tulsa, Pete Matar of Houston and Andy Sierra of San Antonio.

The game will start at 8:15 with these starting lineups:
Fort Worth
All-Stars
Sommers, s. a. 2b
Kress, Tulsa, 1b
Burns, Tulsa, rf
Kirby, Shreveport, c
Fondy, 1b

Nationals Have All To Lose, Little To Gain Against Battered Americans

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—The National League had everything to lose and little to gain Tuesday as it squared off against the American League rival in the 15th annual all-star baseball game.

A victory over the battered and undermanned American League outfit is imperative or the Nationals will lose a load of prestige. The odds have dropped from the American League favorite at 11-20 to almost even money.

The American Leaguers were minus their "Big Four," consisting of sluggers Ted Williams and Joe DiMaggio and ace pitchers Hal Newhouse and Bob Feller. In addition, George Kell was stricken as a starter.

Tommy Henrich of New York and Hoot Evers of Detroit were selected by Manager Bucky Harris to replace his two sterling outfielders. Harris was undecided between Vic Raschi or Joe Page as his starting pitcher. Newhouse can't pitch.

Originally Newhouse, the Detroit Tigers' great lefthander, was slated to get the starting nod. Hal, however, reported he was suffering from buritis and could not pitch. Feller, although hale and hearty, bowed out and was replaced by Joe Dobson of Boston. Kell's starting place was given to Ken Keltner of the Cleveland Indians.

The biggest blow suffered by the American Leaguers was that of Williams. The Red Sox power hitter has a torn cartilage on his left side and will not see action.

DiMaggio has been troubled by a swollen left knee and may be used as a pinch hitter only. Kell may see action in the latter part of the game. He has a swollen ankle suffered in last Friday's game.

Leo Durocher's National Leaguers, with the exception of Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals, are in fine shape. Schoendienst has a sore shoulder.

Players Blast Holdouts
The clouds, which hung so heavily over the "dream game" Monday, were somewhat diminished. Players' Representative Dixie Walker said the players themselves were going to take action against anyone purposely evading all-star participation, and Commissioner A. B. Chandler declared, "In the future the player selected to the all-star teams will be there. Players receive no extra pay for participating, the proceeds going to a players' pension fund.

It is almost a certainty Harris will pitch both Raschi and Page of his own team. Bob Lemon, the brilliant Cleveland righthander, probably will pitch the middle three innings.

Righthander Ralph Blanca (10-6) will open for the National League.

Lavern Roach Bests

Washington Negro

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Lavern Roach, 197-pound Texan from Plainview, defeated Aaron Perry of Washington Monday night by a unanimous 10-round decision. Roach mailed the 140-pound Washington negro with scores of straight lefts that left Perry groggy in the final five rounds. Roach was slowed in the early rounds by a bloody right eye.

Perry couldn't outmaneuver the Texan's precise left hand, although he carried the fight to his opponent on several occasions.

A typical evening of run-making left the West Texas-New Mexico League race in status quo.

There were 83 tallies in four games Monday night with the leading Albuquerque Dukes maintaining their iron-fisted hold by trimming Lubbock 10-5 but with the real scoring happening at Amarillo and Borger.

Amarillo whammed Lamesa 22-3, and Abilene whipped Borger 17-9. Dixie Davis made his start as manager at Abilene by leading the Blue Sox in a 17-hit epurage. He got three blows himself.

Pampa battered across nine runs in the eleventh inning to beat Clovis 13-4 in the other game of the night.

Bitter Reprieve

THE STORY: Playboy Marcus Sterling has stolen his wife's diamond necklace and handed it over to racketeer Harry Steele. To cover the theft, playboy makes it appear a professional burglar. He then goes to Margaret Country Club and steals the necklace. He has also taken a sealed packet from his wife's safe. This, Marcus discovers later, is $10,000 in cash which the bank had withdrawn from the bank to give him. Next morning, Police Lt. Talbot arrives at the Sterling home. Sgt. Gable shows him over the diamond necklace. He takes him upstairs to see the body of Miriam Sterling. The face has been washed in with a heavy candlestick that still lies on the bed. Near the head is a small, hand-drawn revolver. The doctor says she has been dead six or seven hours. Talbot finds Miriam's checkbook. He notes it when he notes a stub dated the previous day made out to cash for $10,000. He tells Gable he wants to talk with Stella Nelson, the maid who was responsible for calling the police.

XIV
STELLA NELSON came along docilely, frightened, but on her own power. Her blue eyes stared widely at Talent and Gable when they had closed themselves in the large silent dining room. "Sit down, Stella," Talent said, "and try to forget how awful this has been for you. I can understand that, and I'm not going to bother you much. But you happen to be the only one who can help us. So now let's start from the beginning. You got here at 10 minutes to eight, is that right?" "That's right. I'm due back on Friday at eight, because I get breakfast Friday mornings. Cook... that's Mrs. Gowder... has a longer trip... she stays with her married daughter on Staten Island Thursday nights... and it's generally ten when she gets here." "I see, Stella. Who let you into the house when you got here, or did you have a key?" "I have a key, but I didn't need it." "How's that?"

"Yes, and the clock is been knocked over and the drapes were blowing from the open window." "And it was while you were in the library that you noticed the electric lights at the wall near the door, is that right?" "Yes. The switch for those lights is in the hall." "Talent moved his chair, leaned toward her and bestowed upon her his most amiable smile. "This is all very important to us, Stella, and you're being very helpful. Now I'd like to ask you a question, and I want to be sure you won't take offense at it. Just believe me it's very important. When you went into the library from the kitchen, were you smoking a cigaret, and in your fright did you drop it on the rug and then smash it out with your foot?" "The girl's eyes blazed. "No! Of course, not. I would never dare smoke in the house, except in my own room." "Remember, I asked you not to be offended." "Well, excuse me. But I did see the cigaret you're talking about, mashed out on the rug." "Oh, that helps fine. You saw it. Well, after that Stella, after you left the library, what did you do?" "I went up the back stairs, and well, I... myself a drink. He does that mornings, sometimes." "Lights from the library? You mean electric lights were on?" "Yes. Then I just knew there were some lights on but later I saw that it was the wall lights near the door." "I see. Well, you were going to the back stairway. Then?" "I went up to my room on the third floor, to leave my bag and change my dress. I came back down in a minute or two. Then, because the house was so quiet and I didn't hear anyone stirring, I thought about the front door and thought I oughtn't leave it unlocked. I went in the hall and to the library, to look out the windows to see if anyone was in one of the cars. Then I saw... when the girl shuddered and halted, Talent said, "You mean that you saw the broken window and the glass on the floor?"

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

Five weeks in a hospital keep a fellow somewhat tied down. However, bridge players were very good about bringing me material, and my former staff of the American Contract Bridge League came along with a week's supply of hands.

This is the second one, and it is from Mrs. R. P. S. Harris, who is known to players throughout the country because she keeps their master point records. She knows whether you have one point to your credit, or 1250.

One of the players who held the South cards in today's hand arrived at a contract of six clubs, but Mrs. Harris (North) did not give her partner a chance to do so. When she bid four no trump, and her partner showed two aces with the five-heart response, Mrs. Harris bid five no trump asking for kings. South had to bid six hearts to show two kings, whereupon Mrs. Harris bid six no trump.

She won the opening lead of the six of hearts in dummy. Thinking that she did not have much of a problem, she cashed the ace of clubs, only to learn the sad news when East showed out. She could not cash a second club at this time.

The proper play, which Mrs. Harris made, was to lead the king of diamonds from dummy. She

Texas Democrats Give Conditional Support To Laney

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Texas' 30 presidential votes were tied conditionally Tuesday to Gov. Ben Laney of Arkansas...

The Lone Star delegation came to this decision after a furious six-hour caucus fight.

The Texas vote is pledged to Laney only so long as he does not bolt the party.

The Arkansas governor came before the caucus at its invitation and aroused the delegates to rebel yells with an appeal that gave him the vote over the delegation leadership opposition.

Will Ben Truman "If Harry S. Truman is the nominee of the party I will not vote for him. Neither will I vote for Tom Dewey. What are you going to do?" he asked.

The Texans had asked Laney to appear to answer the question of whether he would bolt.

"Let's don't go off on an emotional drunk. We are bound by our convention's instructions," said State Senator Rogers Kelley of Edinburg.

He wanted the delegation to drop two resolutions then pending. One would have committed the Texas votes to any loyal Democrat who is opposed to bolting.

Jester Votes 'No' Later, the resolution was amended to limit the support to Laney's candidacy at this convention.

Kelly's position was that it was futile to fight Truman in view of his certain nomination.

Attorney General Price Daniel did not believe the qualified endorsement of Laney would violate the delegation's instructions.

"Let's give a complimentary vote to a spunky little guy like Laney and stay with our Brownwood obligations," he said.

Governor Jester said he admired Laney and agreed with his views on state and civil rights.

He then voted against the resolution, saying "I believe in keeping pledges and instructions."

The Laney resolution was adopted by a voice vote.

The Texans could still change their minds and Jester leaders may call for a delegation poll on the convention floor when the matter comes up there.

(Continued from page 1) foot exploration in the Tucker area of Southeast Crane County, to test it will be 600 feet from west and 2,970 feet from south line of section 21, block 3, H&T.O. survey.

The location is seven miles north of Imperial, which is in North Pecos County. Rotary tools will be used and drilling will start by July 17.

MID-CON HAS DISCOVERY FROM WICHITA-ALBANY

Mid-Continent Petroleum Corporation No. 9-U University, on the west side of the Fullerton field, in North Pecos County, has been completed by a new discovery from the Wichita-Albany section of the lower Permian, for that immediate area.

This new producer is 660 feet from north and 610 feet from west line of the south half of section 18, block 13, University survey.

It made a daily flowing potential of 482.09 barrels of 44 gravity oil, from pay at 7,890-7,968 feet.

That zone had been treated with 500 gallons of acid. The pay showed no formation water. Gas-oil ratio was 1.812-1. The flow was through a 1/4 inch tubing choke.

HUMBLE GETS SOME OIL IN SWABBER NO. 4 Y&A

Humble Oil Refining Company No. 4 Yarbrough & Allen, Southwest Ector County Ellenburger wildcat, swabbed on the open hole between 10,595 feet and the current total depth at 10,780 feet for eight hours.

Recovery was 45 barrels of load oil and 40 barrels of new oil. The oil was cut with 30 per cent based sediment and drilling water. Swabbing was continuing.

The project is four miles south of the Yarbrough & Allen field, and 2,377 feet from north and 576 feet from west line of section 21, block B-14, psi survey.

Panama Now Has Two Presidents

PANAMA, PANAMA (AP)—Panama had two presidents Tuesday—Henrique Obarrío, elected in a surprise move by the National Assembly, and H. Enrique Adolfo Jimenez, who will not quit his term in office.

The assembly voted 28 to 25 Monday night to unseat Jimenez and install Obarrío as provisional president until Oct. 1, 1952.

They also elected two vice presidents, Carlos Sucre, a former cabinet minister, and Juan Alberto Morales.

The same resolution annulled the recent election which Arnulfo Arias Madrid, a former president, won on the basis of complete unofficial returns.

Strike Paralysis Threatens France

PARIS, FRANCE.—(AP)—Approximately 20,000 French civil servants were called out on strike Tuesday in a movement which may snowball into a paralyzing stoppage affecting 1,000,000 government workers.

The Executive Committee of the non-Communist Workers' Force Union called the strike because the government refused to grant certain employes a first $500 franc ($12) monthly wage increase.

The committee said concessions offered by Premier Robert Schuman's Cabinet in its meeting Monday night were insufficient.

Only a small percentage of France's 1,000,000 government workers have received strike notices, but the departments are so interwoven that strikes by a few groups could soon bring all activities to a halt.

About 40,000 Finance Ministry employes already are on strike. Their numbers were increased Monday night by the walkout of communications employes at the nation's airports, which paralyzed most of France's aerial traffic and also that in French North Africa.

Premier Robert Schuman's Cabinet issued a decree which in effect mobilized striking weather and radio men and made them liable to penalties for desertion if they failed to report for work.

The measure apparently prepared hours ahead of the airport strike, may foreshadow the Cabinet's plans for breaking the whole series of stoppages.

convention's first real lift Monday night.

In the nearly half hour it lasted it showed that the old warhorse had made a lot of friends in the Democratic Party.

Barkley touched off the demonstration for himself with a rip-roaring attack on the Republicans.

He brought the house down with a rally at Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the GOP nominee, who called in his acceptance speech for a house cleaning to sweep the cobwebs out of Washington.

"When the Democratic Party took over the government of the United States 16 years ago," the white clad, perspiring Kentuckian roared, "even the spiders were so weak they could not weave a cobweb in any department of the United States."

Southerners Join Parade
The delegates liked it and they stood up and yelled.

When the Senator finished a few minutes later, a palpably manufactured demonstration began for him. A sweating delegate whipped into the air a sign proclaiming "Barkley for vice president." The march was on to the tune of "My Old Kentucky Home."

But when the band swung into "Stars and Stripes Forever" the delegates picked up enthusiasm. Pretty soon they were shouting and whooping as though they were enjoying the proceedings thoroughly.

Then the Senate's Democratic members began their parade to the platform. The crowd was so thick that the delegates on the back and testify to his availability for the vice presidential nomination.

A lot of them were Southerners, demonstrating that the rebelling South—still fighting over the platform's proposed civil rights plank—could take Barkley and like him.

Other Reports
A report on the recent general membership luncheon was made by Chairman Jack Wicker, who said at least one more luncheon will be held this year.

James N. Allison outlined the possibility of presenting the U. S. Navy Band in concerts here this fall.

Sealy said the Chamber of Commerce has applied for permission to intervene in the request of Pioneer Air Lines for a permanent operating certificate. He also reported the State Adjutant General has advised him of the withdrawal of the Midland National Guard unit due to lack of interest and support.

Sealy said the matter has been referred to the Military Affairs Committee.

tions and until recently supplied them with money, war materials and officers. If such aid is not forthcoming from Britain, the Arab war effort will be cramped considerably.

Fighting in Palestine increased in violence on ground and aloft.

Count Folke Bernadotte, the UN mediator, asked the Security Council for quick and forceful intervention to end the combat.

The Jewish informant, associated with the Israeli Foreign Office, said old warrior King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan is believed to be trying, with Iraqi backing, to convince Egypt, Syria and Lebanon to cease fire and talk terms.

The king was reportedly convinced his Arab Legion, locked in battle on the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road, could gain more through a negotiated peace than by fighting.

The Jews followed up their capture Monday of Er Ramle and Lydda by taking Suba, five miles from Jerusalem.

Egyptian planes attacked Tel Aviv, and the increasing Israeli Air Force bombed the main Egyptian base at Gaza.

The Israeli Army and the crack troops of the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion were fighting an increasingly-violent battle within sight of Er Ramle and Lydda for supremacy of the road from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem.

Yugoslavian Court Hears Charges Against 'Spies And Terrorists'

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA.—(AP)—The Croatian Supreme Court heard charges Tuesday against 50 accused "spies and terrorists." The indictment charged the Vatican with abetting the defendants and British-American occupation authorities with harboring them.

The mass trial opened Tuesday in Zagreb. Chief defendant is Ljubo Milosh, former Ustachi commander accused of responsibility for the death of more than 200,000 persons during the German occupation.

The accused are part of a group of 95 whom the Croatian Interior Ministry said had been picked up by Security Police as they entered Yugoslavia during the last year.

They are accused of setting out to disrupt communications, plunder warehouses and cooperatives, destroy the Yugoslav five-year plan and to overthrow, by armed force with outside help, the existing order in Yugoslavia.
