Truman Says Prospects For Peace Excellent

Clay Reports To Officials On Blockade

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said Thursday prospects for world peace are good—in fact, excellent. He spoke just before getting a first-hand report on the Soviet blockade of Berlin from the U. S. commander there, Gen. Lucius D. Clay.

Clay made his report in Truman's office at a meeting of the National Security Council lasting an hour and 50 minutes. Truman is chairman of the council. Secretary of State Marshall and military leaders are members. Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters Truman sat in on the meeting for about an hour. Ross added—

Teen-Agers Complain Of Freeze-Out

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Complaints from many 18-year-olds that they are being squeezed out of a chance to volunteer for military service seemed likely Thursday to get attention at the special session of Congress.

Staff aides of Chairman Gurney (R-S.D.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee said he already has asked Secretary of Defense Forrestal for a report on possible changes in the Selective Service Act.

Thousands of the teen-agers jammed recruiting stations Wednesday to sign up for a one-year term in the Armed Forces, thus avoiding a draft call for 21 months service when they turn 19. However, Congress said only 161,000 men could be accepted during the next year—and there are an estimated 1,300,000 in this age bracket now.

Gurney's committee aides gave these reasons for the 161,000 ceiling on the teen-age volunteers:

1. Only $500,000,000 was approved by Congress for the one-year training program and unless an extra amount is appropriated at the special session further expansion is barred.
2. A larger number of 18-year-olds would require more regulars to train them, thus reducing the combat strength of the Armed Forces.
3. The one-year volunteers cannot be sent outside this country, except for brief training cruises or flights by those in the Navy and Air Force. But draftees can be dispatched on any overseas assignment.

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, National Selective Service director, gave a broad hint Wednesday that it will be October 1, at the earliest, before the first inductees don their khaki. He added that the method of selecting men for induction has not been decided, and probably won't be until next week. He indicated he prefers taking the 18-year-olds first and then working downward, but left the door open to a return to the lottery system.

Conservation Of Water Is Urged

Midland's water situation was somewhat improved Thursday morning, but City Manager H. A. Thomason said the condition remains critical. He expressed appreciation to citizens for their cooperation in the volunteer conservation program.

The water level in the big reservoir was about 12 feet higher Thursday than on Wednesday, but the tank still was far from being full.

Officials said the critical situation is a distribution problem which will be relieved when the new source of supply at the Wadley tract is tied into the system.

They urged citizens to conserve water in every way possible, and to water lawns and garden from 6 p. m. to 11 p. m. only.

Britain Stands Pat On Demands To Russia For Lifting Blockade

LONDON—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin declared Thursday Britain will not back down on her demands for lifting of the Russian blockade of Berlin as a preliminary to four power talks on Germany.

"It is impossible," he told the House of Commons, "for a self-respecting government to sit down and discuss these things when your troops are cut off from normal communications and two and one-half million people are being used to put pressure upon you to come to a decision."

"If these technical difficulties are now removed and we have free access to our troops and free access to the people we have undertaken to feed, then nothing can stop discussions at once."

Bevin said he was in close touch with the United States and France on the further steps to be taken in the light of the Soviet government's reply to our joint note.

Big Steel Follows Wage Spiral Trend In Boosting Prices

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—The nation's steel industry is following the pattern of the U. S. Steel Corporation—boosting wages and the prices of its products.

The developments are coming just as fast as the industry's statisticians can figure what prices they feel the steelmakers must get for their products.

Just how soon the public will learn how much more it will have to pay for the hundreds of items produced from steel is problematical.

One thing is certain: Price advances will follow—all along the line.

Hospital Bid Opening Set September 9

Bids for the construction of the Midland Memorial Hospital will be opened here Thursday, September 9, Dr. John B. Thomas, president of the Midland Memorial Foundation, announced Thursday.

He said Wyatt C. Hedrick, architect, advised him last Wednesday that plans and specifications will be in the hands of interested contractors late this week.

The Idaho senator, running for vice president on the Henry Wallace ticket, made this statement at a news conference shortly after Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) had charged Communists are using the new party as a tool.

Arriving here for the party's first convention opening officially Friday, Taylor told reporters he doesn't think there are very many Communists actively engaged in the Wallace movement.

"I think the 'pink' Communists will support the new party," he said. Taylor defined a "pink" Communist as one who believes in the Democratic processes and a change by evolution instead of revolution.

New Democrats some doubt that this frontal attack, prepared for delivery before the committee which is drafting a platform for the Wallace convention meeting here Friday, would ever be delivered formally.

Refugees Seek Haven At Boston

PROVINCETOWN, MASS.—(AP)—The pilgrim-like voyage of seven European families turned toward Boston Thursday and toward official consideration of their plea for homes in a land of freedom.

The 64-foot ketch "Gundel," which crossed the Atlantic from England, put out from this old coastal port early Thursday morning with its crew of 29 Baltic-born men, women and children.

Capt. John Rosenberg, master of the craft, said they hoped to find a berth at Boston Thursday afternoon. At Boston they will be awaited by U. S. immigration officials who said they would "investigate" the ship and her company.

The seven-family party of 15 men, seven women and seven children were headed for Boston, but turned in here Wednesday when they ran out of fuel for the vessel's auxiliary engine and became short of food.

Food and other supplies were given to the refugees by residents of this town, which is only a short distance from where the first Pilgrims landed.

The refugees originally had fled Soviet-controlled Latvia to Sweden, where they lived for four years and pooled their resources to acquire the ketch for $12,000.

Rosenberg told Coast Guardsmen "We want to live in freedom. If we can't land in the United States, we will have to try Canada."

"We can't go back," he added.

Italian Police Find Hidden Munitions

MILAN, ITALY—(AP)—Their suspicions aroused by the appearance of armed demonstrators in last week's general strike, police staged a search of the Breda Arms Factory Wednesday night and found five hidden stores of weapons and ammunition.

Authorities Seek American's Release

BERLIN—(AP)—U. S. authorities were seeking Thursday the release of an American civilian, Richard Gott of Altoona, Pa., believed to have been arrested by the Russians for attempting to drive through their highway blockade between Berlin and the West.

Flash Flood Strikes Central Ohio City

LANCASTER, OHIO—(AP)—A flash flood poured into the west side of this Central Ohio city at 1 a. m. Thursday, menacing some 1,000 homes and forcing scores of families to leave by boat.

Hundreds of a creek which empties into the Hoeking River, roared swiftly after heavy rains Wednesday night and left its banks on the west side of town where ground is lowest.

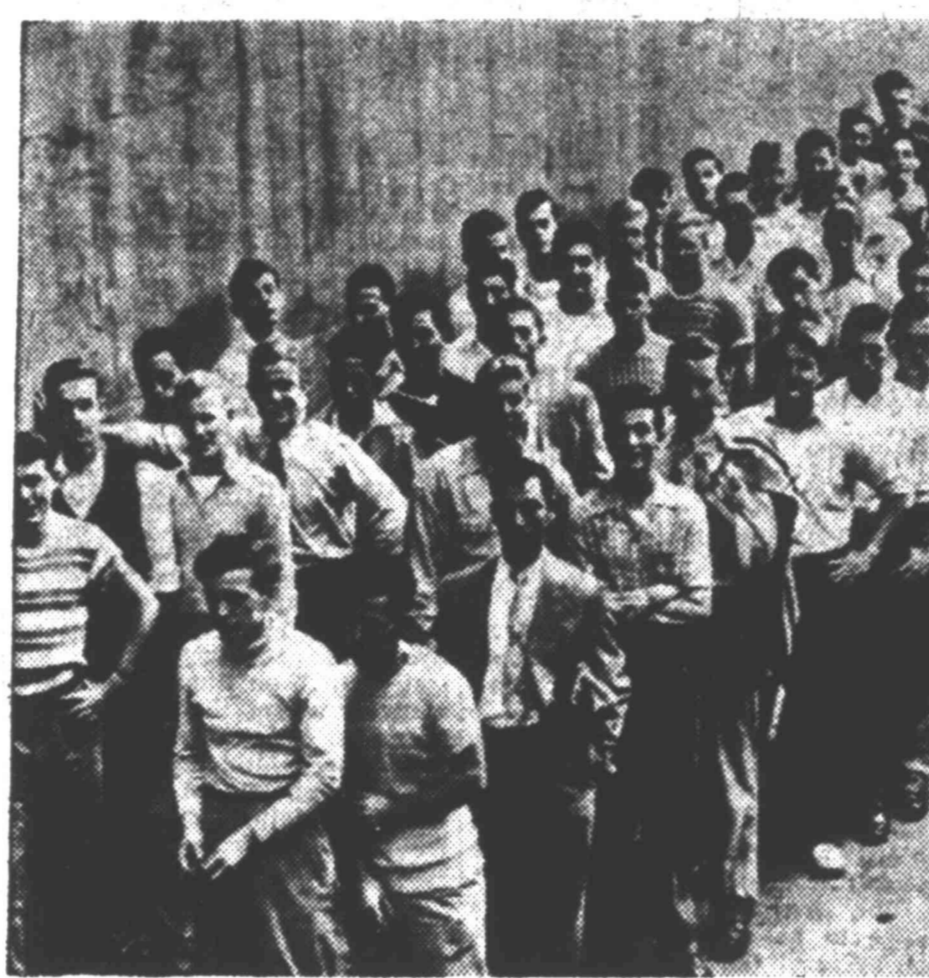

Most of the west side residents were caught unaware of the flood and were unable to get out without assistance. Fellow townsmen used small river craft to evacuate them.

Taylor Refuses To Renounce 'Pink' Support

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—Senator Glenn Taylor of Idaho said Thursday that "pink" Communists may support the new Third Party and he refuses to renounce their backing.

The Idaho senator, running for vice president on the Henry Wallace ticket, made this statement at a news conference shortly after Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) had charged Communists are using the new party as a tool.

Arriving here for the party's first convention opening officially Friday, Taylor told reporters he doesn't think there are very many Communists actively engaged in the Wallace movement.

Wage Increase Erases National Threat Of Strike Against Ford

DETROIT—(AP)—A 13-cent an hour increase for 116,000 CIO production workers Thursday erased a national strike threat against the Ford Motor Company.

Climaxing more than 21 hours of nearly continuous negotiation, the CIO United Auto Workers also won an increase in premium pay, work improvements, and a group insurance plan revision.

The union estimated these "fringe" benefits would total an additional 3 1/2 to 4 cents an hour.

The UAW-CIO also estimated the annual increase cost to Ford of the new contract at $22,000,000. The firm made no estimate.

Details of the revised contract, which expires July 15, 1949, were revealed jointly by the union and the company.

The UAW-CIO had cleared the decks for a strike in Ford's 46 plants across the nation in case an agreement was not reached this week, but withheld setting a date.

Vice President John S. Bugas of the Ford Company said the new agreement included the same wage offer the union turned down a week ago, "plus a few additional fringe adjustments" worked out in our negotiating sessions."

The 13-cent-an-hour increase brings the Ford average hourly production wage rate to between $1.65 and $1.66.

Hitchhiker Gets Lift From Bottle

A lone hitch hiker was standing on a highway leading out of Midland, hoping to get a ride on to his destination before nightfall. It was late afternoon and the hot sun was bearing down.

A young girl came out of a nearby food store carrying a soft drink. She crossed the street, approached the hitch hiker—a perfect stranger—and held out to him the bottled drink. He accepted reluctantly, expressing sincere thanks.

The young man watched his benefactress as she re-crossed the street and vanished from there, then emptied the contents of the bottle. Refreshed, he resumed his ride-getting efforts.

Officers Study Autopsy Reports In Triple Slaying

MANSFIELD, OHIO—(AP)—Police studied autopsy reports and fingerprint gleanings Thursday in a search for clues to the brutal kidnap-slayings of a Mansfield reformatory executive, his wife and 21-year-old daughter.

Bodies of the three, John E. Niebel, 50, superintendent of the reformatory firm for 20 years; his wife, 52, and their daughter, Phyllis, were found Wednesday in a cornfield, eight hours after they were kidnaped.

Richard County Prosecuting Attorney Theodore Lutz said Thursday that as yet he had "no information to connect the crime to any definite suspects."

Authorities concentrated on Coroner D. C. Lavender's autopsy report.

Coroner Lavender reported Niebel had been hit with a blunt instrument, but that the blow was not hard enough to kill. He had been shot through the top of the head.

The daughter had been shot through the top of the head on the left side, and the bullet lodged under her right eye.

Mrs. Niebel had been shot through the head and in the abdomen.

Coroner Lavender said "We are investigating the possibility that the daughter had been criminally attacked."

Russians Pick Up Two American MPs In Soviet Zone Of Berlin

BERLIN—(AP)—Two American military policemen were arrested by the Russians Thursday after they drove into the Russian zone "by mistake," the provost marshal's office said.

They were Privates Elwood E. Dwinell of Mabton, Washington, and George G. Hunt of Camp, Ohio.

The provost marshal's office said they were on a regular patrol in the American sector of Berlin when they accidentally drove into the Soviet zone on a side road.

In coming out, they took a main street leading back to the American sector and were picked up by a Russian patrol.

German police notified American authorities.

"Dwinell and Hunt were last seen being escorted down Unter Den Linden by the Russians to the Soviet headquarters," the assistant provost marshal, Lt. Col. E. R. Kelly said.

"We are in contact with the Russians now and expect that they will be released soon."

He added, "No trouble is anticipated."

Censorship Clamped On Arab Newspapers

BEIRUT, LEBANON—(AP)—Newspapers were forbidden Thursday to publish news reflecting on the Arab League.

The Press Bureau ordered them to desist from dispatches on differences within the Arab League and between two of its states about the cease-fire, resignations of Arab states ministers, and comments derogatory to the league or leaders of the member states.

SEABOARD WILDCAT IN TERRY FLOWS OIL FROM LIME ZONE

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware, No. 1 E. M. Hinson, North-east Terry County wildcat, 10 miles northeast of Brownfield, has discovered a new oil field from a Pennsylvanian lime.

This project ran a one hour and 30 minute drillstem test at 9,406-28 feet, using a five-eighth inch bottom hole choke.

Gas showed at the surface in five minutes. Oil started flowing at the top in one hour and 25 minutes, and flowed to pits for five minutes before the tool was closed.

It was estimated that the flow during the five minutes was at the rate of 40 barrels of oil per hour.

After the tester was closed 30 stands of oil were unloaded from the drill pipe while it was being pulled. In addition, 5,550 feet of pipe line oil and 100 feet of heavily saturated drilling mud was recovered when all the drill pipe had been pulled and broken down.

There was no water. Open flowing bottom hole pressure was 1,300 pounds, at the end of the test and was increasing. Shut-in bottom hole pressure, after 15 minutes, was 2,500 pounds.

Informed sources say that the total oil produced during the one hour and 30 minutes the tester was open was at least 80 barrels, with no water.

It is expected that operator will run casing and complete the discovery as it is.

The new producer is 660 feet from north and west of section 91, block 4-x, psi survey.

Top of the current Pennsylvanian lime was picked at 9,402 feet. Exact age of the formation has not yet been determined.

AMERADA TO DRILL GAINES VENTURE TO 5,250 FEET

Amerada Petroleum Corporation has filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas, requesting permission to start drilling immediately on its No. 1 San Salvador Development Company, Inc., et al., a 5,250-foot wildcat in Northeast Central, eight miles southwest of Colorado City.

The venture is 17 miles east of Seagraves, and in the extreme northeast corner of the county. It is located 660 feet from south and east lines of the south half of section 4, block 4, C&G survey.

That puts it about two miles north of the nearest production in the Cedar Lake field.

C. & I. STAKE PROSPECTOR IN NORTH PECOS TERRITORY

Culbertson & Irwin, Inc., No. 2-A Iowa Realty Trust is slated as a 1,500-foot wildcat in North Pecos County, 13 miles south of Imperial.

The prospector will be 2,310 feet from southwest and 1,550 feet from northwest lines of section 131, block 10, H&G survey.

It is to dig with cable tools, and will start by July 26.

SW MITCHELL WILDCAT IS TO TEST TO ELLENBURGER

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware and Shamrock Oil & Gas Corporation No. 1 Charles C. Thompson is to be an 8,000-foot wildcat to test the Ellenburger in Southwest Midland, eight miles southwest of Colorado City.

It is to be located at the center of the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 76, block B-27, psi survey. Operations are to start in the near future.

N-C MITCHELL VENTURE TO SWAB AFTER ACID SHOT

Fullerton Oil Company, Phillips Petroleum Company, Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc., et al., No. 1 Strain, North Central, eight miles southwest of Colorado City, test a packer at 7,844 feet, over total depth of 7,886 feet, in the Ellenburger.

The zone between those two points was treated with 1,000 gallons of acid.

Operators had swabbed out all but five barrels of the load oil, when the packer slipped. Another packer is to be set and the acidized interval will be swabbed. So far no free oil has been developed from the prospector.

It is 660 feet from south and east lines of lot 10, Reigers survey.

DEEP MIDLAND PROSPECTOR TAKES DRILLSTEM TEST

Guilford Corporation No. 1-E Wilson Bryant, Central Midland County, deep exploration, 14 miles south of the city of Midland, and 890 feet from north and 1,390 feet from west line of section 38, block 3P, TP survey, T-3-S, drilled to 12,063 feet, in Devonian lime, entered at 12,025 feet, and was taking a drillstem test.

Operator representatives said no signs of petroleum have been encountered in the current formation.

SCHLEICHER VENTURE TO TRY AGAIN FOR TEST

Eastland Oil Company and E. M. Wallenmaier, No. 1 Cheek, North-Central, Schleicher County prospector, five and one-half miles northeast of Eldorado, tried a drillstem test in the top of the Ellenburger from 6,775 feet to the corrected total depth of 6,905 feet.

The packer stuck and there was no test. Another attempt to take a test, will be made as soon as the (Continued on page 12)

By EPSIE KINARD

NEW ORK —(NEA) — The Look has settled down to stay for another season. It shows signs, however, of making ample concessions this Fall to objectors of exaggerated fullness.

Hemlines are as long, if not longer. With the exception of great coats, cocktail suits and billowing evening gowns, a lot of yardage seems to have been whittled out of The Look. The result, as seen in sneak previews of Fall collections, is silhouettes tapered down to a better job of tapering women's figures.

The something new that's been added to The Look is new detail. On dresses, the interest is focused on belts or sashes, neckline bustness, trick closings or unusual sleeve treatment. Sometimes one sleeve grabs the spotlight. Case in point is Anna Miller's slim-fitting black wool dress from which a lipstick red wool sleeve flashes from its somber background like an escaping flame. An heraldic motif of gold embroidery helps this sleeve to put on its brilliant solo act.

News in suits is the Edwardian or Regency look spiced by trimmings of Victorian flavor. Collars and bandings of velvet, braid or fur heaped up on suits with flared jackets and long tapering skirts make impressive exhibits of hand-some wools colored as brightly as a parakeet's plumage.

One outstanding suit of green virgin wool, for example, is intricately banded with black Persian lamb by designer George Car-

Social Situations

SITUATION: You mention, while talking to a friend who is visiting in your city, that you want to take him to lunch or dinner during his visit.

WRONG WAY: Say, "Telephone me and we'll make some plans."

RIGHT WAY: Say, "I'll get in touch with you and we will make some plans." The out-of-town visitor may hesitate to call you, feeling that if he does so he is asking to be entertained.

Many Never Suspect Cause of Backaches

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15-million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

PUBLIC OFFICES
As above plus 4 years State Senate and past ten months as Sixteenth District Representative in Congress.

What is your attitude toward the progressive reduction of trade barriers by the U. S.?
Some reductions are justified but consideration for our national economy must at all times be considered so that our people may continue to be gainfully employed and our high standard of living may safely continue.

What do you consider the most important issues facing the country which call for Congressional action? Defense Program. Reductions of Debt and Expenditures. Continued aid to European Recovery, both as humanitarian responsibility but with ultimate benefit to our economy. Withholding vast internal improvement programs against the time when private employment may be slack.

What government action should be taken to encourage a healthy domestic economy?
Reduction in top heavy governmental departments. Streamlining and consolidating them — eliminating the unnecessary—reducing centralized government in Washington, observing greater States' Rights — Rapid reduction of our national debt with corresponding reduction of income and other Federal taxes to help individuals and encourage business.

What do you consider the most effective ways of strengthening the United Nations?
Proceeding with or without Russia. Greater cooperation among nations. More frequent meetings to build confidence among smaller nations that may bring about an early peace throughout the world.

WILSON'S

WeTheWomen

All of the companionship of many a marriage comes from the efforts made by the wife to share her husband's interests and hobbies. But a better kind of companionship results when both try to be companionable. How good a companion are you to your wife?

Do you at least once a week suggest doing something you know she enjoys, like going out to dinner?

If she has an absorbing hobby, like growing flowers, do you make an effort to learn one flower from another and to help her willingly when she asks your help on a hard job?

When you are in town together will you window-shop with her instead of hurrying her along?

How About Relatives?
Do you put yourself out to be nice to her friends and relatives when they are visiting in your home?
If your wife works do you take an interest in her office news, and in her accomplishments and progress?
Do you show some interest in her ideas—instead of acting superior toward any ideas she has?
Do you share the job of home-making with her, at least to the extent of noticing what she does and praising her for her efforts?
Are you willing to try something new if she suggests it?
If you can say "Yes" to most of these questions, you're doing your part to make your marriage one in which the companionship isn't all one-sided.

Tito's Real Sin

There have been some amusing as well as puzzling aspects to the Tito-Cominform fight since the first big blow-off. Communist parties in the other puppet states have been following the Moscow line and dutifully throwing bricks through Tito's windows. Tito's Communists have been bravely throwing them back—but always careful not to aim them in Moscow's direction.
 It has been something like a fight among the kids of one family, with all contestants keeping a wary eye on mother for fear she'll move in and whale the whole bunch of them.

Behind all the window dressing, however, the fundamental problem has not been solved. And that problem, according to Bogdan Raditsa, is Tito's failure to communize Yugoslavia. Since he formerly was Tito's information director, Raditsa knows the situation. Probably no writer in this country who can speak freely and honestly knows it any better.

But it is not necessary to agree with him without thinking. Even when one discounts the great distance that makes all issues seem clear-cut, his opinion still seems logical.

Tito's assignment apparently has been to industrialize as well as communize his country. Yugoslavia is a vulnerable outer bastion of the Communist empire. It is poor and backward, sadly lacking in the strength and self-sufficiency that would be needed if war threatened.

But since the Kremlin has run down the iron curtain between its step-children and the west, Yugoslavia has had to turn to Russia for the help she must have in her start toward strength, self-sufficiency and industrialization. She has needed money, machinery, transportation and other essential materials, not only for factories but for farms.

No country's industry can be great or even adequate without a big labor force. And as this country's history shows, it cannot have that labor force until less and less people are raising more and more food with the help of machinery and scientific farming, thus releasing workers to industry. Nor can a country be industrially powerful if it is not able to trade freely.

Yugoslavia's farms are ill-equipped and her farmers are stubbornly uncooperative. And if reports out of Russia are true, the Soviets don't have enough of anything but land and labor themselves. They can't give their backward satellites like Yugoslavia the help that they need, and they won't let the puppet dictators look elsewhere for help.

It seems small wonder, then, that Tito was giving the Kremlin gospel a rather free translation in his effort to put his country on its feet. His vain and pompous way of going about it may have irritated the Kremlin almost as much as his boldness. But the Soviet leaders seem to have little cause to doubt that Tito still professes their own ruthless, tyrannical faith.

His methods must be the galling things. For, by departing from their instructions, he has suggested that they don't have the infallible answers. It looks as if the real failure can be blamed on Soviet planning, not Tito's disobedience. And it isn't likely that any Marxist scoldings or trials and purges can remove that appearance.

Sleep is fine, but it's advisable these days not to be caught napping.

The less some people have on their minds the more they seem to want to talk it off.

Obstacles are merely something that should make you get busy.

A club in Illinois has voted for speechless dinners. How will they ever keep tab on Mike and Pat?

Bids Tabulated On San Angelo Building

SAN ANGELO—The J. W. Bateson Construction Company of Dallas submitted the low bid on the construction of a proposed 10-story office building here Wednesday afternoon. The firm's base bid was $819,168.
 Other low bids brought the cost of the office building to $1,047,174, about $100,000 higher than was anticipated.
 A meeting of subscribers to stock for the building was to be held Thursday to discuss the proposals.

Man Ends Bad Luck By Hanging Himself

NEW YORK—(AP)—The police blotter told these facts about Damiano Filiberto, 55.
 Friends had urged him to take a rest. His nerves were jittery. His wife and one of his eight children were ill.
 His business, the Manhattan Waste Products Company, had suffered recent financial reverses.
 When Filiberto went to work, he found his offices had been ransacked by burglars. A short time later, he was found there dead, hanging from an overhead pipe.

Navy Fixes It Up To Tear It Down

BILOXI, MISS.—(AP)—Leave it to the Navy to get things done in odd ways.
 A Navy SB2C-5 fighter plane suffered major damage recently when it crashed on landing here. Pilot Frank J. Starczyewski was unhurt. He was with a group of seven others, most of whom are stationed at Norfolk, Va., who paused at Kessler Air Force Base for refueling.
 They were flying planes from Jacksonville, Fla., to Corpus Christi, Texas, to be salvaged as no longer fit for Navy service.
 However, the damaged plane will be repaired here so its salvage flight can continue.

The new organic detergents, now widely used for washing and often referred to as soapless soaps, were first used in the textile industry for wool scouring and the treatment of fabrics before dyeing.

McCamey Man Injured In Hit-Run Accident

RANKIN—Two Big Lake men are in jail here on charges of hit-and-run and failure to stop and render aid as a result of a mishap near McCamey early Wednesday when Bill Rawson, 19, of McCamey was injured. Rawson is in a San Angelo hospital, where his condition was reported "fairly good."
 Some twenty new and a handful of older anti-hay fever drugs will be available in quantity for the first time to doctors throughout the county.
 The American Academy of Allergy is putting on the biggest campaign in its history for the obliteration of pollen-producing weeds, grasses and trees.
 A member of the Chicago Society of Allergy said doctors will determine in the next few weeks which of the new so-called anti-histaminic drugs like benadryl, antergan and pyribenzamine are most effective.
 "In the meantime," he added, "these drugs can bring a lot of help to hay fever sufferers in general, and nearly every drug house is continuing work to find still better ones."
 One house, Abbott Laboratories, went beyond the symptoms and drugs and came up with a new pollen detector. Its inventor is Oren C. Durham, chief botanist for the laboratories.

WHAT—NO ADS TODAY?

EVER look through a newspaper like this that contained no ads whatsoever?
 Weren't you disappointed? Didn't you find it dull?
 Of course you did. Most folks find the ads just as interesting, just as worthwhile as many of the other features. For one thing for which you buy this paper is to learn about goods and services—where you can get them and at what price.
 But that's only the beginning. Suppose there were no ads every day. What would happen to the jobs in your family?
 Every pay check in America depends ultimately on somebody selling something to somebody else. And the advertisements that you read and hear on the air are the lowest cost, fastest way yet devised to sell goods and services.
 Obviously, without the ads people wouldn't buy and sell so much. Soon businesses would begin to fail. Soon there'd be fewer jobs, poorer jobs. Soon your job would be affected.
 Jobs depend upon good, healthy buying and selling. And advertising, by selling more goods to more people, makes your job—and everybody's job—better and more secure.

OTHER WAYS ADVERTISING HELPS YOU AND YOUR FAMILY

- 1 Brings you better goods for less money.
- 2 Makes shopping more pleasant and easier.
- 3 Gears consumer demand to production, to create prosperity.

Advertising... Makes your job more secure

Odessa Restricts Use Of City Water For Lawn Sprinkling

ODESSA—Restrictions on the use of water for watering lawns and other irrigation purposes were announced Wednesday by Mayor A. F. Brown of Odessa, dividing the city into two zones for watering purposes.
 Users living on the north side of east-west streets and those on the east side of north-south streets will be permitted to water lawns on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Users on opposite sides will water on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, the schedule relates.
 Mayor Brown explained that there is no shortage of water, but city mains are not adequate to maintain pressure at the end of lines when all users are watering at one time.

Polio Envelops 75 New Victims In Texas

AUSTIN—(AP)—Polio's surge through Texas enveloped 75 new victims last week.
 That total was announced by the State Health Department Wednesday. The new cases occurred in 30 counties.
 The incidence, 14 fewer cases than in the week previous, boosted the year's total cases to date to 811 in 88 counties. This compares with 452 cases in 81 counties for the comparable period in 1946, the last bad polio year.
 The Health Department said new cases of polio struck as follows last week:
 Anderson 1, Aransas 1, Bee 1, Bell 1, Bexar 3, Caldwell 1, Cameron 1, Cochran 2, Comanche 1, Dallas 5, Denton 1, Duval 1, Erath 2, Gaines 1, Galveston 2, Harris 17, Hidalgo 5, Jim Wells 2, Milam 6, Montgomery 1, Navarro 2, Nueces 2, Refugio 1, Rusk 1, San Patricio 1, Smith 1, Tarrant 8, Tom Green 1, Travis 2, and Uvalde 1.
 There had been 86 new cases reported for the week previous.

Mid-West Farmers Turn To Airplanes

DES MOINES—(AP)—"How ya gonna keep 'em down on the farm?" There's an easy answer to that question, says Norbert Locke.
 "Just buy them an airplane."
 Locke, director of the Iowa aeronautics commission, cites 2,500 farmer-aviators in Iowa, a large portion of whom have their own planes.
 "The airplane is having a very definite effect on keeping our young men and women on the farm," Locke claims.
 "A plane takes the monotony out of farm life," he explains. "The city no longer is as far away as it used to be, even with automobiles. And a plane has its social advantages as well as its practical benefits."
 Among the young folks, the farm-owned plane has been useful in some relatively long-distance courtships. "A farm youth in one corner of the state can schedule weekend dates with a girl who lives in the other."

Odessa Sells Million Dollar Bond Issue

ODESSA—One million dollars worth of city bonds were sold here Wednesday afternoon to R. A. Underwood and Company of San Antonio on a low bid of 3.47 per cent. The bonds will mature in 1968.
 The bond issue, voted in June, is for water and sewer improvements and expansion, a new disposal plant, and a new police and fire station.

Oil Workers To Strike At Celanese Plant

KINGSVILLE, TEXAS—(AP)—A strike of about 700 CIO Oil Workers International Union workers at the huge Celanese Corporation plant here loomed for midnight Friday.
 Luther B. Owens, president of Local 552, said he expected to receive official permission for the strike from National President O. A. Knight Thursday.
 Wage negotiations between the company and union have been in progress since mid-June.

The DOCTOR Says DDT Is Most Helpful Agent In Fight To Control Malaria

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
 Written for NEA Service

For many generations malaria has been one of the great health problems of the world. It thrives, however, only in those places in which the mosquitoes which can carry the infection are able to thrive. This keeps it down in northern sections of this continent, although it has been found as far north as Canada.
 There are several kinds of malaria. The most serious is now called Pacific Vivax. This type is hard to get rid of and may be carried by the common anophelis mosquito of North America.

Service Men Had It
 Many men in service during the last war encountered serious difficulty with this malarial parasite. Indeed there was considerable fear that returning service men might bring new dangerous kinds of malaria back to this country and infect others. This has not happened to any serious degree, however. Although there have been a few cases of imported malaria, there seems little likelihood of any widespread difficulty.
 Malaria in all its forms causes fatigue, usually some fever, and a general below-par feeling. There are several kinds of treatment which are more or less successful but just what should be used depends on the type of malaria involved.
 One mode of attack on malaria

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS
 By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
QUESTION: What can be done for a bad body odor?
ANSWER: The cause of a bad body odor is not easy to discover. It is possible that some substances such as onions or garlic should be eliminated as this will sometimes cause an odor. Certain nervous diseases can also cause excessive sweating.

is to destroy the mosquito. In the past mosquitoes have been attacked in their breeding places by spraying with kerosene or other poisons.
 The chemical DDT has proved a boon. The effects of DDT against the mosquito at all stages of development are excellent. Furthermore areas which have been dusted or sprayed with DDT solutions remain deadly to the mosquito for a long time. Perhaps with the help of DDT and other measures, malaria eventually can be entirely eliminated from the world. It ought to be.

KENT, OHIO — (NEA) — The show-boat is puff-puff-puffin' along the Ohio and Kanawha rivers this Summer, bringing to life the dream of G. Harry Wright.

A speech professor at Kent State University, Wright also is probably the outstanding authority on showboat history, a sideline that began when he was a boy on the banks of the Ohio in the showboat's heyday.

Now the showboat, "Majestic" is the only one on the rivers—and Wright is the reason it's there. Wright chartered it to serve both as an actor's laboratory for Kent State students this Summer and to bring back some of the cultural heritage of America.

One other showboat — "Goldenrod" — is operating, but it hasn't moved away from the wharf in St. Louis for 11 years. The "Majestic" was the only one Wright found that was fit to travel.

Wright and his 23 student thespians will spend the Summer re-creating showboat atmosphere with modern touches here and there, at river towns all along the Kanawha and Ohio.

And when they run up the curtain on such standbys as "Ten Nights in a Barroom," it will be in the real showboat tradition. Wright has travelled nearly 15,000 miles along the Mississippi and Ohio rivers and their tributaries, searching out and interviewing old-time showboat owners and performers, for the history that's going into the cruise of the "Majestic."

Polar Bear Proves To Be Terror On Land

MOSCOW — (AP) — A rare case of a Polar bear leaving the sea and attacking beasts on land has been reported by Dawn of the East.

The attack took place recently in the tundra of the Khatangsky region where a polar bear attacked a herd of reindeer, slaying four young deer before a hunter killed the bear.

"Hunters," said a message, "know of only one such other event during their lifetime."

BRITAIN'S TELEPHONES

LONDON — (AP) — Britain now has 4,650,000 telephones, or 8.6 per hundred of population, the general post office announced.

In Brazil, 400 different species of plants were found in an area of three square miles.

Dudes Are Back In Saddle In East's Synthetic West

NEW YORK — (AP) — The dudes are hitting the trail again, pardner, to ranch life way out East.

Maybe it's not exactly like the sagebrush and hills of the West (why, one of 'em even spreads insecticide to kill bugs along its trails), but thousands of vacationists go for the rugged life. Some of them graduate to the wild west dude ranches after they've learned to climb aboard a horse.

In a section where land is expensive, even in the country, the dudes haven't nearly as much territory as western dudes over which to ride and roam. But, in their own way, they have just as much fun—lots of different kinds of it.

Riding is just part of the activity on a big eastern dude ranch. On some, you can also play ping pong, tennis, badminton and croquet; shoot archery, pitch quoits, croquet, shoot, swim in a pool or lake, see movies and go on weiner roasts, picnics and hay rides. On one ranch there is also a little western town complete with a trading post and a last chance bar. This is the one which fogs many of its trails with insecticide fogging machines to destroy mosquitoes and flies.

Square Dance
Come Saturday night, the dudes—both men and women—get dressed up and throng to the hall for the big square dance, as the caller sings "Get Your Hair in a Braid and Let's Get Going."

Sunday is rodeo day on most ranches. After a horseback ride to church and a big dinner, the dudes throng to the corral to watch the ranch hands in the mounted quadrille—a square dance done on horseback—and to see the boys "buck out" some of the rodeo stock. The flags fly. The steers bellow. The horses flash in a cloud of dust. The cowboys yip and the dudes cheer. Sometimes they fall off the fence.

Nobody knows how many eastern dude ranches there are. Vern Walters, western-born pioneer eastern dude rancher who runs Cimarron Ranch at Peekskill, N. Y., with his Brooklyn wife, Lu, estimates there are nearly 100. Most are in New York. There are also a number in New England and the South.

One hundred and twenty acres is good size. They take many more guests than the westerners and big ones house many of them in dormitories. They generally have fewer horses and give dudes but one ride a day.

Whirl Of Entertainment
Dudes ride in groups (morning or afternoon) accompanied by cowboys.

Eastern dudes are generally young white collar workers who like a lot of activity. Hence the whirl of entertainment.

Eastern ranchers say the eastern dude doesn't spend as much money on fine clothes as some of the western variety do. Not for him $50 hats and custom-made boots. He is content to wear blue jeans with inexpensive boots or shoes and a wide-brimmed felt hat. He likes a little flash in shirts, though—purple and plaid and such.

Depletion Of Timber In 30 Years Seen

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The forest service says that the nation's "saw" timber will be exhausted in about thirty years at the present rate of cutting unless private owners take steps to conserve, replant and reforest.

An official of the department told a reporter that if the forests are handled properly, however, the danger of exhausting the "saw" timber—which can be cut for lumber and other forest products—would be over in a few years and there would be enough lumber for everyone.

"Cutting of saw timber is about 50 per cent greater now than the amount we are growing," the official said.

"It is estimated that 38 billion board feet of lumber will be cut this year from American forests—as much as in peak war years."

The forest service is hoping to impress upon private owners the value of proper cutting of forests and of keeping trees growing.

About 90 per cent of the timber is cut from private forests, it said. The official said recent surveys show that about 64 per cent of the cutting of trees is still done in the "old style," with no planning for preservation of the forests. Twenty-eight per cent is "fair" and only eight per cent is said by the foresters making the survey to be of the kind that would build up the forests.

Sympathetic Police Faces Have Red Hue

BOSTON — (AP) — Sympathy almost burst buttons on blue-coated bosoms when two bedraggled men were found clinging to driftwood in Boston harbor.

The "castaways" said they had been in the water 23 hours—since their fishing boat sank.

A police boat rushed them ashore; a waiting police ambulance hurried them to City Hospital. The press interviewed and photographed the pair as they departed after treatment for immersion, and a reporter gave them a dollar for taxi fare.

"Yep," said Ma J. George Mulcahy, master of the Deer Island house of correction, as he later scanned the photos, "they're William A. Grinnell of Portland, Ore., and William Strachen of Boston. They escaped from the island where they were each doing six months."

Red faces and blue tunics contrast nicely.

WT-NM League—

Four Home Runs Aid In Berger's 13-7 Victory Over Clovis

By The Associated Press
Albuquerque and Amarillo open their crucial series in the West Texas-New Mexico League Thursday night a day late. Rain postponed the series opener Wednesday night.
The Dukes hold a one and one-half game lead over Amarillo and this series could see the top spot change hands.
In the three games played Wednesday night, Berger beat Clovis, 13-7; Pampa downed Abilene, 10-7; and Lubbock edged Lamesa, 11-9.
Four home runs helped Berger win. Gordon Nell hit two and Tommy Fox and Eddie Carnett one each. Chick O'Neill contributed a homer for Clovis.
Avon Driggers won his 13th game of the year when he weathered an 11-hit assault by Abilene.
Lubbock came from behind to beat Lamesa. Manager Jackie Sullivan singled home what proved to be the winning run in the eighth after Charles Scarborough hit a two-run homer. Sullivan had hit a grand-slam homer in the fifth.

By The Associated Press
Big Spring's pace-setting Broncs easily defeated Del Rio, 14-3, Wednesday night to retain a three and one-half game advantage over second place Midland in the Longhorn League.
The Indians managed a 6-5 victory over San Angelo, while Odessa clung grimly to third on a 13-8 decision over Vernon. Sweetwater was the only second division team that could win—beating Ballinger, 7-4.

Major Leagues— McCarthy's Red Sox Finally Catch NY Yanks In Standings

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Joe McCarthy finally has caught the New York Yankees, the club his Boston Red Sox consider "the team to beat" for the American League flag.
While Cleveland, Philadelphia and New York have been struggling to play 500 ball since the traditional July 4 holiday, Marce Joe's Sox have won 16 of 20 starts in a sizzling surge.
Now they have nipped the Yanks, the team they fear most. By winning a day-night doubleheader from lowly Chicago while New York and Cleveland were splitting a pair, the Red Sox moved into a three-place tie with the world champs.
While the Yanks and Indians wrestle on the Yankee Stadium turf for two more days, Boston has a golden chance to gain more ground in its continued series with the White Sox. Only 3 1/2 games back Thursday, Boston can be in a position to challenge for the lead Saturday when Lou Boudreau's Indians move into Fenway Park.
McCarthy must have been encouraged, too, by the relief win of Tex Hughson, the tall Texan who has been lost to the team most of the season. Options to Austin, Texas, in Class B Big State League to bake the miseries from his sore arm, Hughson was recalled during the all-star game vacation. So far he has pitched only two hitless innings but one of them was enough to receive credit for his first victory of the year.

Hughson came in to pitch the ninth inning of Wednesday night's game with Chicago, picking up the verdict when the Red Sox rallied for three runs in the last of the ninth to take a 10-9 edge. They had won the afternoon half by a 3-1 score for Joe Dobson's 12th success.
Sam Mele, who has been squatting on the bench in recent days, kept the Sox in the night game with a two-run homer in the third after Bobby Doerr doubled with the bases loaded. Mele doubled in the ninth inning spurt and scored the winning run on a fly ball.
Long before this happened, the Yankees and Indians were trading home run knockouts at the stadium. New York banged up on the Tribe in the first of a double-header for a 7-3 decision over Bob Muncie.
The Yanks held an 8-4 lead going into the seventh frame of the second game but they couldn't hold it. Joe Page was rapped lustily in a relief chore, leaving the game with the score tied and two men on base in the eighth. Karl Drews took over and walked pinch-hitter Wally Judnich to load them up. Then Jim Hegan delivered a grand slam homer for the ball game, 12-8.
Philadelphia ran into disaster at Shibe Park where the St. Louis Browns, suddenly turned sluggers for a night, pounded out 21 hits in a lopsided 17-5 romp.
Washington's Walt Masterson managed to get by with a 12-hitter as the Senators dumped Detroit, 6-1.
Brooklyn's surge again featured the National League doings as the Brooks won a pair from Chicago, 9-3 and 7-1, clipping Boston's lead to six games.
Ralph Branca had little trouble pitching win No. 13 in the opener as third baseman Tom Brown continued his hitting streak, knocking in four runs with three singles. Ralph Hamner was the victim.
Warren Spahn, shaky of late, pitched steady, effective seven-hit ball as the Boston Braves downed Cincinnati's Ewell Blackwell, 6-2.
Harry Brecheen turned in a brilliant effort for St. Louis, striking out 10 New York Giants, in earning his 10th win, by an 8-4 score.
The Phillies shaded Pittsburgh, 3-2 in 10 innings despite the first major league homer by Elmer Riddle, veteran Pirate pitcher.

Indians Nip Colts 6 To 5

SAN ANGELO—The Midland Indians, minus the services of Manager Harold Webb, who witnessed the game from the stands, edged the San Angelo Colts 6-5 in a Longhorn League baseball game here Wednesday night.
The Colts stepped into the lead with two runs in the first frame, scored without the benefit of a base hit. The Indians tallied a lone run in the third, then added three more in the fifth on four base hits and a free pass to go into a 4-2 lead. A fifth Tribe tally was tacked on in the sixth.
But the Colts came back in the bottom of the sixth to tie the score at 4-4.
The final and winning counter came in the top of the seventh when Specht singled and romped in on Willenberg's long double into left center.
The Colts and the Indians resumed their feud Thursday night in Colt Stadium.

The big #54 question in the American League today is "How old is Paige?" Famous negro pitcher recently signed by the Cleveland Indians. The Satchmo's age has been guessed at anywhere from 39 years to 52 years old. No one seems to know the right answer, not even Paige himself.
Paige declares he's 39 years old. Dan Daniel, New York World-Telegram scribe, claims Satchel to be 52 years old. In 1946 Paige himself told interviewers he was 40 years old.
In 1941 the New York Sun listed Paige's age between 34 and 40. That would make the negro's age now between 41 and 47. In this same year Life Magazine announced Paige's age to be 33 and the New York PM claimed Satchel to be 41. In the New York Times, Paige was 38 years old for two years straight, according to the clipping of this newspaper. Everyone is guessing but no one seems to know.
However, no matter how old Paige is, his age will not prevent his pitching and winning ball games in the American League.
Ernie Nelson, crafty little southpaw, just purchased by Manager Harold Webb of the Midland Indians from the Greenville Majors of the Big State League, has arrived here. Ernie and his wife are in need of a place to live, so if anyone, baseball fan or otherwise, knowing of a place will contact Ernie, or Sportslane, it will be very much appreciated by Ernie.
Webb said Nelson will play right field for the next few days as Eddie Mellillo, Indian third sacker, is in the hospital with a case of appendicitis. Meanwhile, Julian Pressley will guard the "hot corner." If Eddie has to undergo an operation, Manager Webb says he will have a player here to relieve Eddie immediately, until he is ready to return to the line-up.
Eddie will be missed, as he has been one of the leaders keeping the Indians in the first division. Get well quick Eddie, we need you.

ROUNDUP THE STRAYS
Texas' representative to the National All-American football tournament next month will be Abilene, home of Texas' largest VFW post.
The Utah University head football coach claims his opening game opponent, Jeff Cravath of Southern California, is trying to get permission to widen the Los Angeles Coliseum Field 10 yards because the Trojan linesmen are too big to line up on a regulation football field.
The New York Giants obtained their nickname because the earliest Giant teams were made up of very tall men. No country in the world is more devoted to sports than Canada.
From 1907 to 1917 Washington University won 63 football games and tied four while not losing a single game.
Walter Camp's first All-American football team was chosen in 1889.
Howard Green, Longhorn League president, appeared at the All-Star game in Odessa Tuesday night, but not with much respect.
Green was booed heavily by the fans at that game.
Two major league scouts also witnessed the game.
Joe Louis is planning a tour (destination unknown) next January.
Johnny Mize got a stolen base the other day at New York.
This was nearly as great a sensation to the Giant fans as when Durocher was named manager of the New York team.
30 for strays.
Best of luck to Eddie Mellillo in the hospital.

150 Top Ranking Golfers Enter Reading Open

READING, PA.—(AP)—Ben Hogan and Lloyd Mangrum brought their duel for golf's money winning honor down to the Berkshire Country Club's long fairways and well-trapped greens Thursday in the first round of the $15,000 Reading Open Tournament.
Nearly 150 other top ranking pros and amateurs also have entered the four-day tourney but Hogan, U. S. Open and PGA titlist, and the long-hitting Mangrum are favored.
Mangrum went into the tournament setting the pace financially. He has won $20,421.99, passing the former Texas mite from nearby Hershey, Pa., in last week's Dapper Dan play at Pittsburgh. Hogan's earnings total $20,197.56.
The field numbers just about every name golfer in the country with all of the sport's 10 leading money winners matching drives, chips and putts in the same tournament for the first time this year.
In addition to Hogan and Mangrum, they include Bobby Locke, Skip Alexander, Jimmy Demaret, Johnny Palmer, Dutch Harrison, Cary Middlecoff, Clayton Heffner and Chick Harbert. First prize will be $2,500.

TWENTY-EIGHT CHAMPIONSHIPS—

870 Teams Compete In Schoolboy Football

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Three state, eleven regional and fourteen bi-district championships will be decided next fall in Texas schoolboy football with 870 teams competing. This is the all-time high in number of schools.

The Interscholastic League's gigantic gridiron program has been revamped from top to bottom. The city schools—Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio and Dallas—have been grouped in one conference. The small cities are in Class AA. The towns are in classes A and B. Then there will be more than 200 schools supporting six-man football teams.

Until this year there has been only one state championship determined. That was for the schools with 100 or more enrollment. But with the city schools formed their own conference and the league voted to have a state championship in Class A. The AA state title race continues.

This will be the first year without spring training. However, all schools have the privilege of starting fall practice August 15 instead of September 1 as in the past.

The city conference determines its district champions by November 27. Since there will be only four district titles, it will require only two weeks to determine the state championship. In the bi-district pairings the San Antonio and Houston champions meet while Dallas plays Fort Worth. There are 26 schools in the city conference.

Class AA determines its district champions also by November 27. There are 14 districts, meaning two districts will have byes in the first round of the play-offs. These districts are No. 1 made up of Amarillo, Borger, Brownfield, Lubbock, Pampa and Plainview, and No. 8 composed of Gladewater, Henderson, Kilgore, Longview, Marshall and Texarkana. There are 84 schools in this conference, under tentative classifications announced by the Interscholastic League. The final listings will be made September 15.

The other districts in Class AA are: 2—Childress, Electra, Graham, Quanah, Vernon, Wichita Falls; 3—Abilene, Big Spring, Lamesa, Midland, Odessa, San Angelo, Sweetwater; 4—Austin (El Paso), Bowie (El Paso), El Paso High, Ysleta; 5—Bonham, Denison, Gainesville, Greenville, Paris, Sherman; 6—Denon, Grand Prairie, Highland Park (Dallas), McKinney, Sulphur Springs; 7—Breckenridge, Brownwood, Cisco, Mineral Wells, Stephenville, Weatherford; 8—Cleburne, Corsicana, Ennis, Hillsboro, Temple, Waco, Waxahatchie; 9—Bryan, Groesbeck, Jacksonville, Lufkin, Nacogoches, Palestine; 11—Beaumont, Orange, Port Arthur, Port Neches, South Park (Beaumont); 12—Freeport, Galena Park, Galveston, Goose Creek, Pasadena, Texas City; 13—Austin, Corpus Christi, Kerrville, Laredo, Victoria; 14—Alice, Brownsville, Edinburg, Rosenberg, Kingsville, McAllen, Robstown, San Benito.

Ranger is the only school to leave Class AA except those schools that went into the city conference. Added in Class AA were Port Neches, Freeport, Texas City, Victoria and Alice. Ranger dropped into Class A.

Conference A, which has 231 schools in 32 districts, will determine its district champions by November 20. Thus this class will finish its state championship race the fourth week in December the same as Class AA.

Here are the Class A districts: 1—Canyon, Dalhart, Dumas, Hereford, Perryton, Phillips, Tulla; 2—Clarendon, Lefors, McLean, Memphis, Shamrock, Wellington; 3—Abernathy, Crosbyton, Floydada, Lockney, Matador, Paducah, Ralls, Spur; 4—Levelland, Littlefield, Morton, Muleshoe, O'Donnel, Post, Seagraves, Slaton, Sudan, Sundown, each square inch of a man's palm.

TEXAS LEAGUE—

Tulsa's Harry Perkowski Tabs Victory No. 17

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff

Harry Perkowski is practically a lock to become the first Texas League pitcher to win 20 games this season.

The Tulsa ace won his 17th game against four defeats by spacing nine Shreveport hits Wednesday night in the Oilers' 14-6 victory.

Another who might reach 20 victories this year is Bob Austin, who pitched the Fort Worth Cats to a 3-2, 10-inning decision over San Antonio. It was his 14th win of the year.

In the other games, Beaumont swept its series with Oklahoma City on a 4-3 decision and Houston rallied for a 7-2 victory over Dallas.

Tulsa scored 12 runs in the last four innings to run away with the game, though Shreveport managed to push over five tallies over the same distance.

Masur Ties Record
Al Masur of Shreveport tied a Texas League record when he handled 15 chances at second base. He was credited with seven putouts and eight assists.

Solly Hemus connected for a double with the bases loaded in the eighth inning to rout Dallas. Hemus drove in five of the Buffs runs. All three of Fort Worth's runs were unearned, with the winning tally coming in the tenth. George Schmees' double scored Wally Flalia this frame.

Eldon Muratore hit a two-run double after one out in the ninth frame to give Beaumont the nod over the Indians. Oklahoma City had gone ahead the top half of the inning with a single tally.

W. T. Mayfield, State Land Commissioner Candidate, Is Visitor

W. T. (Bill) Mayfield of Travis County, a candidate for State Land Commissioner, spent Wednesday night here while on a whirlwind campaign tour of West Texas. He was accompanied by John D. Harvey of Eastland, and formerly of Rankin.

They left early Thursday to continue their trip to other cities in this area.

"My opponent has been in the Land Office 27 years; it's time for a change," Mayfield declared while campaigning here.

Mayfield pledges, as Land Commissioner of Texas, to work to make the G. I. Constitutional Amendment effective. He said it now is just an empty letter.

He also favors adequate and fair bidding for leases and royalties on public lands. Mayfield points to his experience for years in the insurance and real estate business as State Land Commissioner.

Mayfield was born in Bandera 47 years ago, and has three sons, all of whom served as Marines in World War II.

Two Former Governors To Endorse Johnson

AUSTIN—AP—Two former Texas governors, James V. Allred and Mrs. Marian A. Ferguson, Thursday were scheduled to make radio speeches Friday endorsing U. S. Senatorial Candidate Lyndon Johnson.

Allred told The Associated Press here by long distance from Houston he had seen Thursday where another former governor had endorsed one of Johnson's opponents. Gov. Dan Moody spoke for Candidate George Peedy in a radio broadcast Wednesday night.

"I just wanted to announce that two more former governors are for Johnson," Allred said. "Mrs. Ferguson and I are going on the air in the morning for him."

The broadcast is to be carried at 6:45 a. m. Friday.

Army Rushes Emergency Air Strip in Berlin

Since the Russians clamped down their blockade on Berlin, the U. S. Army has been flying food and other supplies to the beleaguered people of Berlin. The greatly increased air traffic has overcrowded the city's airfields and the Army is rushing emergency facilities. Here, Army equipment levels an emergency strip at Tempelhof airfield, built over a base of war rubble. (Photo by NEA-Temple staff correspondent Al Cocking.)

MODGLING GETS 99-YEAR TERM IN TAVERN SLAYING
TEMPLE, TEXAS — (AP) — Zara Modgling faced a 99-year prison sentence after a jury Wednesday found him guilty of murder with malice. Modgling was charged in the slaying of Ray Roberts, who was shot at a tavern near Temple June 19.

Great American Game Of Politics Is Toughest Of All

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK — (AP) — Water polo used to be regarded as the most strenuous of sports. Anyone who sat through the Republican and Democratic conventions in Philadelphia, however, would have to admit it is tiddly-winks in comparison to the great American game of politics.

There is a sport that really strains muscles and—on occasion—brains. To play water polo you have to know how to swim in palm water and slug your opponent only when you're beneath the surface, where the referee can't see you. In politics the water never is calm. You may have to spend your life swimming against the stream and end up nowhere. Or you may dive in and never come up.

Midland Lions Band Is Enroute To New York City

The popular and widely-known Midland Lions Club Band is enroute to New York City where it will be the official orchestra of the Texas delegation at the annual convention of Lions International opening Monday and continuing through Thursday. The band members boarded an Eastbound Texas and Pacific train here at 5:55 a. m. Thursday on the first leg of their journey to the convention city. They were to transfer to a Texas Lions Special in Fort Worth Thursday afternoon after playing a concert in the Fort Worth railway station. Arrival in New York is scheduled Saturday night. A large group of club members, friends, and wives and children of the musicians were at the station Thursday morning to give the band a royal send-off. Carl Hyde and John Biggs, band chairman, and Director Scotty Lawhon said the goodwill ambassadors will boost Midland and West Texas at every opportunity.

And what other game requires as much physical stamina and sure-footed dexterity? A man has to be able to hit with his mouth, and develop a skin thicker than a rhinoceros. He needs a tuff ear and an iron bottom to sit out the long hours of legislative debate. He has to be an expert on everything from chicken farming to atom hatching. He has to vote to please his constituents, his wife and the still many voice of conscience. He has more bosses than a private in an army of generals. And after a lifetime, just when you yearn most for the applause you may have to say, "I want to play, but I can't play it the way they want me to." And you step down a has-been, another man goes in, his crowd cheers—and the game goes on. Your reward is to have old friends call you by a title you no longer own—"Senator," "Governor," "Congressman."

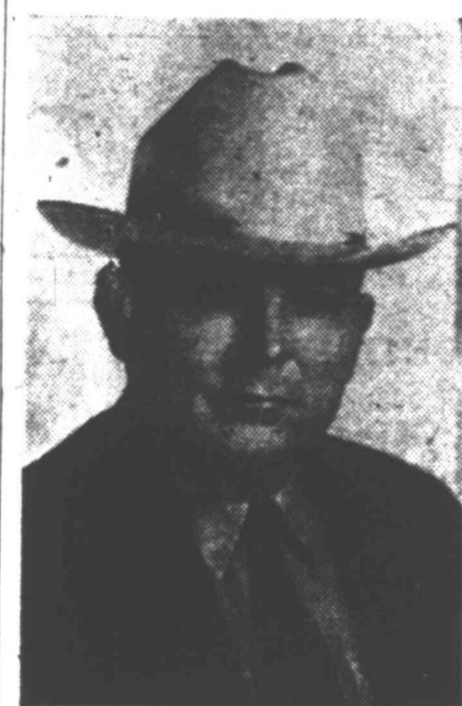

Peace Depends On U. S. Standing Firm Against Russia, Says Peddy

DE LEON — (AP) — Senatorial Candidate George Peddy said Thursday that the future peace of the world depends on "our standing firm" against Russian aggression. He said in a speech prepared for delivery at an American Legion watermelon festival here. "The battle between Communistic Russia and Democracy has reached a crucial stage. Russia is determined to prevent the nations of Western Europe from regaining their strength. Russia is determined to block the Marshall Plan and run us out of Berlin." He said that if Russia wants "to fight us, we had best have the fight now."

Mexico To Cheapen Value Of Peso
MEXICO CITY — (AP) — Mexico decided Thursday to cheapen the peso. She has lost a long fight to keep it at 48 to the U. S. dollar where it has been pegged since 1940. The new exchange rate will be set after consultation with the international monetary fund. The Bank of Mexico, effective Thursday morning, stopped all buying and selling of foreign currencies until the new rate is set. Announcing this action, Secretary of the Treasury Ramon Beteta called it a drastic step forced by "the critical economic situation through which the world is passing."

Kermit Firm Robbed Of Cash And Checks

KERMIT — The Alberts Motor Company of Kermit was robbed of $229 in currency and checks sometime before dawn Wednesday. Two small checks and $214.55 in silver and currency were taken. The robbers cut their way into the company's safe with an acetylene torch. Kermit Firm Robbed Of Cash And Checks
JACKSON, MISS. — (AP) — Strategists for the South's rebellious Democrats plan to meet in Atlanta Saturday to map their campaign against President Truman and his stand on civil rights. Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi announced the meeting late Wednesday and said Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, named by the Rebel Democrats as their choice for President, would attend. Wright was chosen as Thurmond's vice presidential running mate at a meeting of the States' Rights group at Birmingham last Saturday. Florida has the largest area of swamps and wet lands of any of the states of the Union—19,800,000 acres.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Of the four precincts in Midland County, precinct two has approximately one hundred and fifty votes; precinct three, about fifty votes; and precinct four, about two hundred votes.

This makes a total of four hundred votes that will elect THREE members of the Commissioners Court.

Precinct one, which includes all the city of Midland, has more than FIFTY-FOUR HUNDRED VOTES that will elect ONE Commissioner.

Voters in precinct one should be concerned about electing a capable business man, who lives in and pays taxes in Midland.

They Asked For It And They Got It

INDIANAPOLIS — (AP) — The Broad Ripple American Legion Post didn't figure with the generosity of the War Department when it asked for a souvenir to decorate the lawn. The Legionnaires were hoping for some small weapon. But they got a 15-ton M-5 tank. And now they have to figure out how to get it from the freight yards to their post without ruining city streets.

EVER LOOK BEHIND AN AD?

I AM an ad. I'm one of hundreds in this paper. And I'd like to take you by the hand and show you what's behind these ads. Obviously their job is to sell goods or services. That's why you look at these ads or listen to radio advertising. You're looking for something that you want to buy. But advertising affects you and your family far more deeply. Buying and selling goods and services is what, in the last analysis, creates all the jobs, all the pay checks in America. And ads that you read and hear are the fastest, most powerful, most economical way yet devised of selling. More and better advertising means more sales. More sales mean more jobs and better jobs. Less advertising means less sales, less business activity. So whenever you see or hear advertising, be thankful for it. Be glad that people like to hear and read it. For advertising, by selling more goods to more people, makes your job—everybody's job—more secure.

OTHER WAYS ADVERTISING HELPS YOU AND YOUR FAMILY
1 Brings you better goods for less money.
2 Makes shopping more pleasant and easier.
3 Gears consumer demand to production, to create prosperity.

Advertising... Makes your job more secure

North's Gold Hunters Learn To Listen For Gamma Rays On Uranium Hunt

Jack Sutherland: An old dog learning new tricks.

COBALT, ONTARIO (NEA)—Grizzled old Jack Sutherland sat on an ore dump at Cobalt, yanked a pair of earphones off his head, and bellowed his uncensored views on the atomic age to the surrounding hills.

"When power is applied to the tubes of your Geiger-Muller counter," the booklet on his lap said, "you will hear intermittent clicks in your headphones... caused by gamma rays with which the earth is being constantly bombarded from the outer cosmic spaces. Gamma rays are also emitted from radio-active (uranium) ore, but their beat in your headphones will be steady, increasing in rapidity as the source of the ore is approached."

Sutherland panned his way as a prospector by dead reckoning and a practical knowledge of geology, and struck it rich in Cobalt's silver bonanza. Today he is an old dog trying to learn new tricks, like hundreds of others ranging through the north not quite able to associate "gamma rays" and "outer cosmic spaces" with what they hope to find: Uranium.

Others Who Know
But there are others who know all about these things who also range the north; young geophysicists, electronic experts, geologists, fresh from college. They are a new generation of prospectors equipped with scientific knowledge, and scientific instruments akin to, but more accurate than, the divining rods and fabulous doodleburgs of olden days. No gold strike ever attracted more prospectors than the present hunt for uranium.

Added impetus was given the search last March when the Canadian government established a firm price for uranium, provided facilities for refining radio-active (uranium) ores; and offered other inducements to encourage private enterprise to find and produce the precious metal.

Previously, Canada, the United States, and other governments quickly appropriated uranium wherever it was found. There was little incentive for private interests to invest time and capital.

Headed By Gene Tunney
One of the first strikes reported following the new government policy was by Gold-Uranium Exploration, Ltd., owner of 23 uranium claims about 100 miles south of Eldorado Mine, a company headed by Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight champion.

This Spring the Ontario Government Department of Mines announced it would send geophysicists to Cobalt, about to explore for uranium on the premise that this metal is usually found in close association with cobalt.

About three million tons of cobalt are piled on the hillsides of this historic mining camp, placed there when cobalt had little value but had to be removed in order to get at the rich silver veins of Cobalt's 44 mines. Immediately following the Government announcement prospectors converged on the little community with their Geiger-Muller counters, ear-phones, strange language and words that the old timers of Cobalt could not quite understand, and started climbing the huge ore dumps "listening for things."

The old timers have not been slow to follow suit. They recognize that just dead reckoning will not locate uranium. They are struggling manfully with the "outer cosmic spaces" and such things, as they comb the hillsides wearing earphones instead of earlaps, listening for the "bombardment of gamma rays."

Texan Released From Mexican Jail Under Bond Of 5,000 Pesos

RAYMONDVILLE, TEXAS (AP)—H. Edwin Harris was back on his Lyford, Texas, farm Thursday, free after 48 hours in a Mexican jail and under a $1,000 bond on charges of attempting to hire Mexican cotton pickers.

Harris said Wednesday night after he was released from the Reynosa, Mexico, jail:

"I fully expect to stand trial in Mexico on the charges against me."

He said he would report each Saturday to Judge Heriberto de la Garza's court until his trial on August 5.

Harris, 31-year-old Texas A&M graduate and former State Department employe, was snatched by immigration officers at Reynosa Monday.

The Texan was held in a community cell with 150 other prisoners until bond was set Wednesday. The 5,000 pesos bond is approximately $1,000. It was cut from 8,000 pesos by Judge de la Garza when U. S. Consul Henry Krause intervened. Grover C. Harris, Raymondville, Texas, a brother, provided the bail.

Harris said "I had not entered into any negotiations to hire cotton pickers and will say so at my trial x x x."

Midwest Gets Relief From Excessive Heat

CHICAGO (AP)—Most of the Midwest got relief from the hot, humid weather Thursday but the muggy conditions continued from the Gulf States northward to the Middle Atlantic States and the Ohio valley.

A drop in temperatures was reported from the New England States westward through the Great Lakes region into the Northern Plains States. The mercury stayed around seasonal levels west of the Rocky Mountains.

Showers and thunderstorms were reported in several areas, while a flash flood hit Lancaster, in Central Ohio, and threatened 1,000 homes. Rain fell in Michigan, the Ohio and lower Missouri valleys, the central Mississippi Valley and from Eastern Kansas to the Texas Panhandle.

Creeks and small non-navigable rivers are the property of the owners of the land through which they flow.

Farmer Makes a Beachhead in a Wheat Field

Billy Koelsch, St. John, Kan., wheat farmer, nudged his combine to a war surplus landing barge when heavy rains made his fields too muddy for ordinary tractors. Koelsch's ingenuity saved his wheat crop, which yielded about 30 bushels to the acre. With regular equipment, he would have had to wait another week before he could harvest.

Arrest Of Twelve U. S. Red Leaders Poses Odd Question

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The question is: What is a Red not a Red, or do Communists who are bent on mischief always give warning by displaying the Red danger signal?

It's an ironic circumstance — though perhaps not strange — that while twelve top leaders of the U. S. Communist Party were being indicted on charges of advocating the overthrow of the Washington government by force, there should also arise the pressing query of whether foreign Communist delegations in the United Nations are a threat to American security. There is a divergence of testimony regarding the Bolsheviks attached to the peace organization.

Last week two State Department officials testified before a Senate Judiciary subcommittee that hundreds of foreign agents may be operating subversively in the United States on UN credentials.

Wednesday Secretary of State Marshall in effect disavowed this testimony. He told a news conference he didn't know of any case in which a foreigner coming to America for the UN had in any way threatened American security.

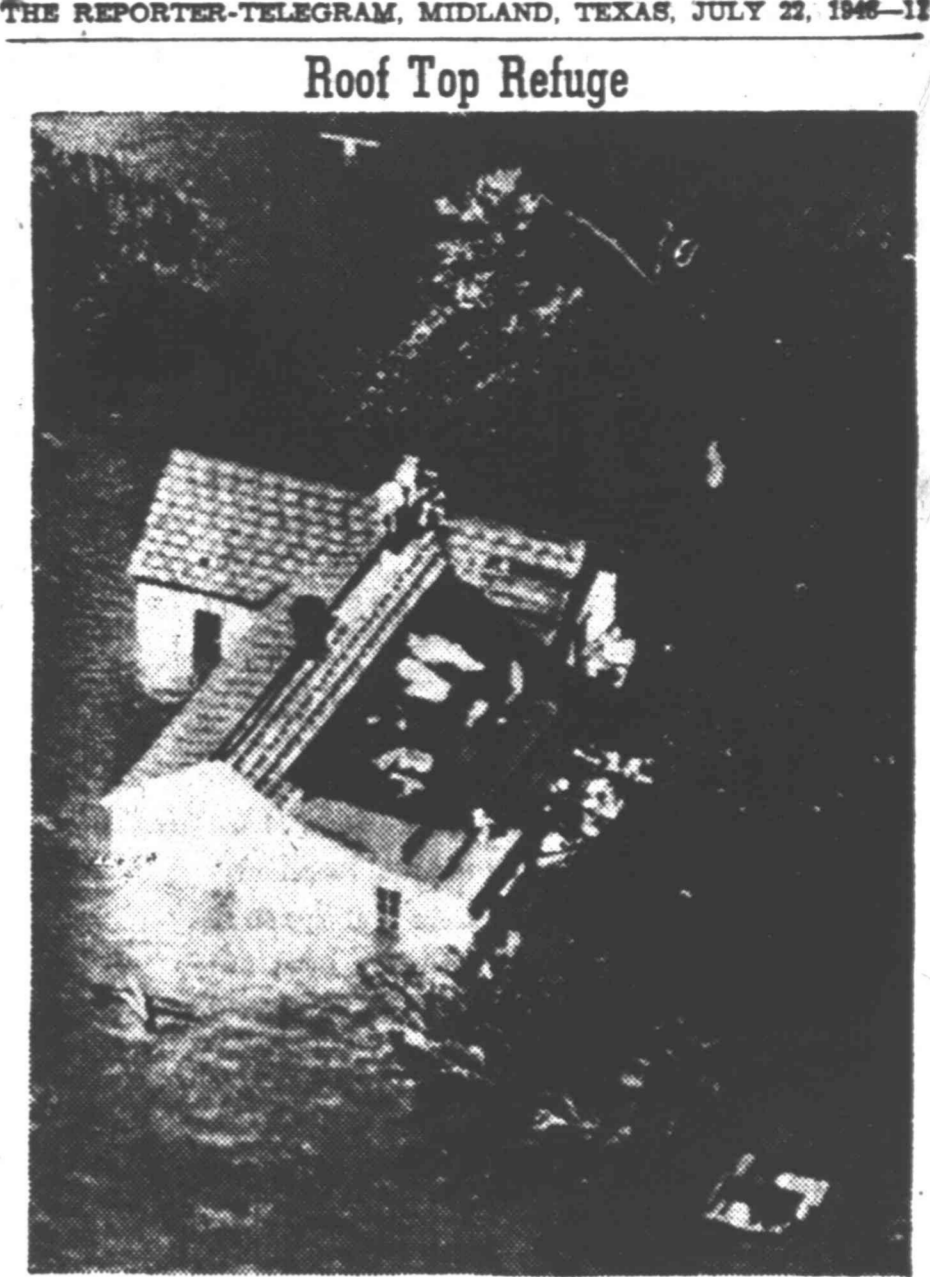

Directed By Cominform

As regards the Communist leaders indicted in the United States, they deny that the party is engaged in subversive activities or that it takes orders from Moscow. That being so, it would make the American Communist Party unique, since it is common knowledge that all other Red parties are under the direction of the Cominform, which gets its instructions from Moscow.

The whole history of Communism since the Bolshevik revolution of 1917 is one of efforts to overthrow foreign governments.

The law under which the American Communist leaders have been indicted was passed in 1940. Among other things it makes it unlawful for any person "to knowingly or willingly advocate, abet, advise, or teach the duty, necessity, desirability, or propriety of overthrowing or destroying any government in the United States by force x x x."

Thus it is a violation of the law for any person to advocate the establishment of a government after the manner which have been employed in Czechoslovakia and in other helpless countries which Moscow has been taking over by strong-arm methods. The Moscow brand of Communism has no more legal rights in the United States than did Al Caponism.

Cotton Outlook Is Best In 20 Years, Says Brannan

DALLAS —(AP)—The outlook for American cotton in the immediate future is better than for at least two decades, Secretary of Agriculture Brannan said Thursday.

He cautioned, however, that "it is not safe to put too much dependence on foreign markets."

Addressing the Ninth Annual Cotton Congress, Brannan said cotton exports this year are expected to be about 2,000,000 bales compared with 3,500,000 bales last year. He added that this country should be able to maintain a sizeable export market for the next few years.

"What will happen after that will depend upon the supply of foreign cotton, the degree to which synthetic industries have been restored or expanded, the price of American cotton, and the ability of foreign nations to pay for imports from the United States," he said.

"For the next few years at least," Brannan said, "the largest market by far for American cotton will be the domestic market. The outlets for cotton here at home have, by no means, reached their upper limits."

More Optimistic

A Texan took an even more optimistic stand.

Cotton now has opportunities for growth and development "which have never been paralleled in the history of our industry," Burriss G. Jackson told the Congress.

At the same time, the Hillsboro man said in a keynote address, "as our economy returns to one based on the normal functioning of the basic law of supply and demand, the pressure exerted on cotton by its competitors both at home and abroad daily become greater."

"Our answer can only be one of increased sales effort through promotion, reduction of costs through efficiency, and improvement of quality through research."

Jackson is chairman of the statewide Cotton Committee of Texas. He said that approximately 1,000 persons from 20 states were on hand for the first session of the Ninth Annual Congress.

Truman Ready To Talk With Demos Of All Opinions

WASHINGTON —(AP)—President Truman said Thursday he will talk with Democratic leaders of all opinions in advance of the presidential campaign.

He told a news conference he is ready to talk with whatever groups Senator J. Howard McGrath, Democratic national chairman, brings to the White House.

McGrath said after a conference at the White House Wednesday that representatives of divergent views will be included in the groups he planned to bring in.

The party chairman put out the welcome mat for any Democrats who have been opposing Truman's candidacy—including the Dixiecrat leaders. He said all elements of the party would be "welcome" at the White House talks.

Truman flatly declined at his news conference to discuss the contents of the special message he will deliver personally before the extra session of Congress next Tuesday.

Truman did say he had no intention of detailing the international situation in his message to Congress.

While his press secretary, Charles O. Ross, has said passage of civil rights legislation will be recommended to Congress, Truman would not go into that either.

A reporter said there has been much speculation as to the reason for Truman calling Congress back. Jackson told the Congress the President might want to elaborate on that.

Truman said he had set out his reasons very carefully in his speech to the Democratic convention.

He would not comment on the ticket of the Dixiecrats who withdrew from the Democratic convention in protest against his and the party's civil rights platform plank.

Valley Farmers Face Shortage Of Pickers

MALLEN, TEXAS —(AP)—Rio Grande farmers worried Thursday about a rapidly-developing cotton picker shortage.

Several Valley ginners said the Texas Employment Commission offices in the Valley were not providing them with as many crews of pickers as needed.

Ray E. Bozeman of Harlingen, director of District 13 of the Employment Commission, said:

"We're still getting together as many crews as we possibly can and are putting them in the field. But as long as the gins are running 24 hours a day and paying the picking prices they are, I'm not going to send out of the district for pickers."

Canadian Army Pleads For Former Sergeant

VANCOUVER, B. C. —(AP)—Canadian Army officers Thursday sent out pleas for clemency for a discharged Canadian Army sergeant who was arrested in Fort Worth, Texas, Tuesday on a charge of desertion from the U. S. Army.

The sergeant is M. J. Allison, who holds the Canadian Distinguished Service Medal for service in Northwest Germany.

Lt. Col. J. W. Toogood of Vancouver pointed out that Allison claimed he left the United States forces early in the war to enlist here because he wanted to "get into the fight."

First annual fair in America was held in 1838 at Duxbury, Mass., just 18 years after the landing of the Pilgrims.

Lewis Union Defends New Coal Contract

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Counsel for John L. Lewis argued Thursday that if the new soft-coal agreement violates the Taft-Hartley Act then coal companies agreeing to it are jointly guilty of violation.

Welly Hopkins, attorney for the United Mine Workers, made the statement in opening arguments at a National Labor Relations Board hearing.

The hearing is on charges that Lewis and the UMW insisted on an illegal union shop clause in the new contract signed July 13 with steel industry-owned mines.

Three Face Charges In Alleged Assault

JASPER, TEXAS —(AP)—Lloyd Lively, 30, has been charged with criminal assault on a 14-year-old Hamilton girl and two others charged as accessories to the assault.

Robert W. Hillin, district attorney, said here Wednesday.

Hillin named the two persons charged as accessories as J. W. Holt, 33, and Mrs. Etha Parrish, 33.

Hillin said the girl, enroute to Houston from Hemphill Friday by bus, was taken to a house in East Jasper, where she told officers she was held prisoner until Sunday morning.

Biggest Passenger Plane To Fly Continent

BURBANK, CALIF. —(AP)—The world's biggest passenger plane, the Navy's new Lockheed Constellation, will make her first transcontinental flight Sunday.

The 180-passenger 92-ton sky giant will take off early Sunday for a 2,500-mile non-stop flight to the Naval Air Station at Patuxent River, Md.

Solon Says Housing Legislation Not Needed

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Representative Horan (R-Wash.) said Thursday he does not expect the special session of Congress to pass any housing legislation.

"More housing is being constructed throughout the country than can be used," Horan told a reporter.

The representative said he does not believe any price control legislation will be considered.

Strikes Threaten Aid Timetable In Italy

ROME —(AP)—Strikes threaten to upset the Marshall Plan timetable in Italy.

A quickening quarrel between organized workers and management over wholesale labor layoffs has focused attention on the creaky condition of Italy's industry.

Production must be doubled and new markets found for Italian goods if the Marshall Plan is to meet major objectives.

Caught in the tight squeeze of mounting costs (about 85 times above prewar levels) and falling demand, Italian industrialists have trimmed their sails, cutting production and laying off labor.

Labor Confederation (CGL) leaders belonging to both the union's Communist majority and pro-government minority, reacted sharply and swiftly. Strikes and slow-downs have cut into the making of most everything from spaghetti to steel.

By best estimates 2,000,000 workers are unemployed in Italy now.

TRIO ACQUITTED OF HOUSING LAW VIOLATIONS

FRESNO, CALIF. —(AP)—A federal court jury Wednesday acquitted William C. Albany, Wade J. Howells and Richard M. Vall of charges they violated housing laws in building and selling 55 homes to veterans. All three men were officers in World War II, and Vall is a member of the American Legion National Housing Commission.

Honeymoon Deferred For Convict And Bride

LOS ANGELES —(AP)—It was honeymoon deferred Thursday for Paul Richard Judd, 21, and his bride, Mary Lee Davis, 20.

The young couple were married Wednesday in Superior Judge Walter S. Gates' chambers.

The bride was nattily attired in a shirkin ensemble. The groom wore handkerchiefs. He's going to San Quentin Prison to serve five years to life for burglary.

"I'll wait for him," said the new Mrs. Judd.

Sleeping car service first was used in the United States in 1847, between Harrisburg and Chambersburg, Pa.

Crewnmen Escape Death In Superfort Crash

BOULDER CITY, NEV. —(AP)—Egt. Frank Rico of Wolfboro, N. H., was recovering Thursday from a broken arm suffered when a B-29 Superfortress was forced down on Lake Mead.

Four other occupants were uninjured. The plane, on a scientific flight testing sun intensity Wednesday, sank with valuable U. S. Bureau of Standards instruments.

New Mexico Soldier Is Electrocuted At San Angelo Air Field

SAN ANGELO —(AP)— Staff Sgt. Adlie Stinson of Deming, N. M., stationed at Goodfellow Air Field here, was electrocuted Wednesday night when he touched a goli in the radio range station.

He was showing Willard W. Owens, a San Angelo radio station engineer and ham operator, a part which Owens needed to contact by short wave an Air Force operator stationed in Japan.

It was reported that Owens had heard Capt. Richard Crosby, formerly of Austin, calling from Japan, and needed another part for his own set in order to advise Crosby as his mother was seriously ill in a hospital here.

Chiung Kai-Shek Flies To Red-Besieged City

NANKING —(AP)— Chiang Kai-Shek conferred in Red-besieged Tsiyuan on the Shantung capital's defense, and then flew back here.

An unofficial announcement said the generalissimo landed at the Red pressed city which 150,000 Reds have under attack.

Other government sources said National planes manages to land reinforcements and supplies for the Tsiyuan garrison.

Here's Uncle Sam's Newest Man O'War

Incorporating lessons learned during World War II, the light cruiser USS Worcester, just completed in Camden, N. J., is the latest addition to the American fleet. The 17,000-ton ship, shown in the Delaware River, was named after the Massachusetts city which raised the $30,000,000 it cost. The Worcester, armed with six-inch guns, has a watertight hull. If hit below the water line, only the hold actually damaged would be flooded.

hole and the drilling mud is conditioned.

This venture is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 69, block LL, GC&SF survey.

H. & M. TO DRILL PROJECT IN CENTRAL GAINES REGION
Henderson & McMillan, of Midland, have filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas, asking for a permit to start drilling by August 20, on their No. 1 Amerada-Coffey, as a 5,300-foot exploration in Central Gaines County, four miles northwest of Seminole, and adjacent to production in the Seminole field.

It will be 330 feet from north and east lines of section 252, block G, WTRR survey. Rotary tools will be used.

MAGNOLIA 1 WINSTON IS WAITING FOR ORDERS

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Winston, South-Central Survey County wildcat, four miles south of Snyder, and 330 feet from north and west lines of track 72, survey 37, Kirkland and Fields survey, ran a one hour and 45 minute drill-test in a Pennsylvania lime at 6,882-6,918 feet.

Recovery was 200 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud and 2,860 feet of salt water.

An electric log survey was run, and operator is now considering whether or not to run casing and test a thin oil section above the water, or to drill ahead.

AT&PC EXECUTIVES ARE IN MIDLAND FOR CONFERENCES

A party of top executives of American Trading & Production Corporation, are in Midland for conferences with George J. Hells, the concern's West Texas manager, and members of his staff.

Heading the group is Jacob Blaustein, of Baltimore, president of American Trading & Production. Others in the party are: M. J. Gately of Baltimore, executive vice president of AT&PC; Henry A. Rosenberg, of Baltimore, president of Crown Central Petroleum Corporation, and a director of AT&PC; and Ben Bloom of Houston, manager of operations for Crown Central.

Headed by the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers at the Ector County Park in Odessa, Wednesday night.

A. C. Bulnes, of Midland, engineer in the area headquarters of Shell Oil Company, Inc., was the speaker. He gave a paper on analyzing data developed in cores.

Plans for the representation of the Permian Basin section at the meeting of the petroleum division of the AIME in Dallas, October 4, 5, and 6, and at the regional meeting of the national organization in El Paso, October 24-27, inclusive, were discussed by Burton Atkinson, president of the organization, and others.

ONLY FEW AMERICANS FLEE FROM BERLIN

BERLIN —(AP)— U. S. Army Headquarters said only 300 American dependents have left Berlin in six months for reasons other than redeployment or transfer.

There now are 862 families of occupation and military government personnel in Berlin, a total of 1627 dependents.

RED PAPERS PLAY UP COMMUNISTS' INDICTMENT
MOSCOW —(AP)— Pravda and Izvestia devoted major space Thursday to the indictment of 12 American Communists on a charge of conspiring to overthrow the United States government. Neither printed any editorial comment.

New Mexico Plane Crash Fatal To Two

LAS CRUCES, N. M. —(AP)— Two Las Cruces men were injured fatally Wednesday when their light airplane crashed in a cotton field south of here.

They were Weldon DuPriest, 30, who died enroute to a hospital, and Maxie Buster Blevins, 40, who died Thursday morning.

Blevins operated a garage here. His mother lives at Kerrville, Texas.

Bigger And Better County Fair Planned At Meeting Thursday

Preliminary plans for a bigger and better Midland County Fair were formulated by a group of Midlanders at a Chamber-of-Commerce-sponsored meeting Thursday morning the Scharbauer Hotel.

Barney Barnard was named general chairman of the 1948 fair. Buck Green, chairman of the C. of C. Fair Committee, presided at the session.

Dates of the 1948 event will be September 30-October 2. The group decided the fair this year will include livestock exhibits, beef cattle, dairy cattle, rabbits, poultry and swine will be shown. Tentative plans call for the fair to be held in the City-County Auditorium, the American Legion Hall, and in a tent to be rented and erected at a suitable place.

Attending the meeting Thursday were Buck Green, R. D. Struggs, Barney Barnard, L. T. Sledge, Jr., Sherwood O'Neal, J. T. Baker, R. L. Miller, Hubert Martin, Mrs. Nettie B. Messick, DeWayne Davis, Delbert Downing and T. G. Jenkins.

10,000 Children Transported From Greece To Red Areas

LONDON —(AP)— At least 10,000 Greek children have been taken from their rebellion-torn homeland into Russia's Balkan satellite countries.

The Greek government charges they have been kidnaped.

Britain's Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, addressing his Labor Party colleagues, spoke of Greek children being "abducted," but offered no estimate of their numbers.

A special investigating committee from the United Nations reported earlier that many children "are being forcibly as well as willingly removed from their homes in Greece."

The committee's report cautiously stated that "a part of them is being collected in certain countries to the north of Greece."

Guerrilla leader Markos Vafedakis sent a note to Secretary General Trygve Lie of the United Nations admitting "a transport of 10,000 children was sent to democratic countries"—meaning mainly Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria.

Tourists Are Cautious In Matters Of Money

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Summer vacation travel is rolling toward a new high mark, but travelers are doing out dollars more cautiously than they did a year ago.

Increases in living costs have made many motor tourists expensive, says the American Automobile Association. The AAA's travel specialists report these indications:

1.—There are more auto vacationers than in 1947, but a larger proportion of travelers are trying to hold down vacation costs.

2.—Rates at Summer hotels, inns and cabins, which climbed in 1946 and 1947, are beginning to level off.

3.—Food prices are higher in many sections of the country than last year.

The national park service reports that meal rates in many parks have increased from 10 to 15 per cent owing to mounting food costs and wages. The park service says "there is little or no change in the rates in many parks, but there have been a few slight increases."

Motor transportation rates in the parks are said to be the same as last year. Saddle-horse rates are about the same. Lodging facilities in many parks are very limited, the heavy demand offsetting slight increases in accommodations for overnight guests.

Rotarians Urged To Vote Saturday

C. V. (Cap) Lyman, state Democratic executive committeeman, urged Midland Rotarians to vote in the Democratic Primary Saturday, during his address at the club's regular meeting Thursday noon in the Scharbauer Hotel.

Calling on citizens to take their "politics seriously," Lyman told how party bosses managed to get control of the party in Northern cities. He urged all citizens to take politics seriously and to take an interest in city, county, state and national governments.

"Get out and vote. Be good Americans and good Texans," he urged.

Describes Convention
R. W. Hamilton and W. A. Yeager who attended the recent Democratic National Convention in Philadelphia described it and told of the caucuses of the Texas delegates.

"The South took the worst beating since the war between the states," Hamilton declared.

He praised the activities of Gov. Beauford Jester of Texas at the Philadelphia meeting.

James T. Smith, president of the club, outlined its financial condition. Bob Payne was program chairman. James Mims announced that G. E. Mershon and Ralph Barron will be Rotary hosts this week.

Air Chief Urges More Propeller Development

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Emphasis on jet planes has obscured the important fact that propellers—on both gas turbine and piston engines—will be needed by military planes for many years.

General Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force Chief of Staff, expressed concern in a letter to industry leaders over a possible slowing down in propeller development.

Southern College Loops Plan Dual Track Meet

ATLANTA —(AP)— A joint track meet pitting Southern Conference individual champions against those of the Southeastern Conference is being planned as an annual event at Georgia Tech next May.

Athletic Director W. A. Alexander, after a conference with Southern Conference Commissioner Bernot Moore and Athletic Director Bob Fetzer of the University of North Carolina, announced preliminary plans.

Alexander said replies have been received from most of the universities involved and that all endorsed the project. Fetzer is polling the Southern Conference members on the idea.

The meet, to be inaugurated next year, will be run off without preliminary heats or field trials since each event will be limited to six men—the top three contestants in each conference's annual track meet.

himself told reporters simply that he had "reported on the German situation."

He said he is flying back to Berlin Friday night. Clay flew here Wednesday night for a quick round of conferences.

Clay wouldn't comment on whether he received any "policy guidance" from the council.

Nor would he comment when a reporter asked, "Will there be any change in the situation as a result of this conference?"

Truman said flatly he will not discuss the Berlin situation nor any other aspect of foreign affairs in his message to Congress next week.

No Comment
He first responded with a no comment reply when asked "What do you make of the Berlin situation?"

But later on, a reporter reminded him that from time to time he had given his idea of the prospects for attaining world peace. The reporter asked, "What is your estimate of the chances for world peace now?"

Truman replied at once — he thinks the chances for world peace are good. In fact, he hastened to add, he thinks they're excellent.

Secretary Marshall made a statement on that Wednesday, Truman said, adding he is in complete agreement.

He then was asked whether he meant Marshall's statement that the United States intends to do everything possible to work out a peaceful settlement at Berlin. Truman answered yes.

Scattered Clouds Act As Shield From Sun

By The Associated Press
Scattered clouds acted as occasional shields from the glaring sun over most of Texas Thursday.

West Texas produced both the hottest and coolest temperatures Wednesday and received all of the state's rainfall. Thundershowers were promised Thursday afternoon and night in the west and south parts of East Texas, and in scattered parts of West Texas.

Amarillo received 38 inch of rain Wednesday after the mercury hit a ceiling of 99 degrees. Prestidio remained the state heat champ with a top of 109, but had a later cooling shower of .16 inch.

Other rainfall reports: Pampa 34; Lubbock 30; Salt Flat 29; Clarendon 18; Wink 13; Crystal City and Brady 0.

Numerous West Texas points had high readings Thursday of 100 degrees or more. They included: Wink, 104; Wichita Falls, Abilene, Midland, Clarendon and Childress, 102. Amarillo and Guadalupe Pass shared the state's coolest overnight temperature, 65. Galveston had the high minimum, 82.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETE DROWNS IN CAMP POOL

SAN BENITO, TEXAS —(AP)— Efrain Canas, 17, San Benito High School athlete, drowned Wednesday while swimming in a pool at a camp near here. Friends said they believed the youth suffered cramps while swimming.

Locations Listed For 61 Oil Tests In Midland District

The Midland district (No. 8) of the oil and gas division of the Railroad Commission of Texas reported 61 new locations for oil explorations in territory in the past week. There were 67 new locations listed in the district during the previous week.

There were seven prospecting ventures on the list, four wildcats, and three semi-wildcats. The four wildcats are to be drilled in Crane, Ector, Mitchell and Sterling counties. The semi-wildcats go one each to Cochran, Howard and Scurry Counties.

Amended applications were filed for five projects which were already being drilled. Two of these developments were in Pecos, and one each was in Crane, Ector and Howard Counties.

Andrews County, with 18 new drillsites at the top of the list for new activity last week. Cochran, Ector and Hockley Counties drew six each of the new prospectors and Pecos received five of the new ventures.

Crane and Garza were each slated for four of the new explorations; Gaines and Howard were listed for three, each.

Scurry got two of the new locations, and the other six were scattered one each in Glasscock, Mitchell, Sterling, Ward, Winkler and Yoakum Counties.

The Real Pershing: He Was Proud Of MacArthur, Marshall

His officers and men remember General Pershing best as a stalwart military figure, a great horseman who was always perfectly at home in the saddle.

By FRED S. FERGUSON
President, NEA Service
(War Correspondent for United Press with A.E.F. World War I)
General Pershing was quartered in a little two-room suite of the Walter Reed Hospital. The last time I had spent any time with the General was some 12 years ago when I had dinner with him in Paris. At that time he was still vigorous and active, and it was somewhat of a shock to visit the Commander of the A.E.F. of 1917-18 as a broken old man. His hair was white, his face thin, his cheeks sunken and his hands were the hands of age. He greeted me cordially, and we sat down to an hour of reminiscences as well as discussion of World War II.
As to General George Marshall, Chief of Staff of the Army, he said: "Marshall is doing a good job. He's a good man. He has come to me from time to time, and from what he has told me of what he is doing, I'm sure he's doing a good job."
General Pershing's mind was alert, and this was demonstrated while we were talking about Marshall. He asked me when I had first known Marshall. I replied that I had met him first upon the old Toui sector in France, adding "at the time he was Chief of Staff of the First Division." This was a slip of the tongue, but the General snapped back with his characteristic sharpness: "He was never Chief of Staff of the First Division. He was Chief of Operations." And this, of course, was correct.
Of General Douglas MacArthur, who was then putting up a valiant defense in the Philippines, Pershing said: "MacArthur is a great soldier. We who have known him have always known that. He is doing a remarkable job of defending his position in the Philippines, but it is no surprise to me since I know the sort of soldier MacArthur has always been."
Discussing the general war situation, particularly in the Far East, where British and Dutch possessions were falling to the Japanese, Pershing said: "It all demonstrates the futility of expansion and the claiming of posspeech which he made to the officers of the First Division on April 16, 1918 in France on the importance of "the will to win." The speech was "off the record" at the time and was never published until it appeared in Pershing's book covering his experiences in the war. It was, however, a great speech and he told me during this conversation that it was entirely extemporaneous.

He said he had done some thinking about what he wanted to say as he bumped along over the rough French roads in his car, but that he had made no notes. He said he felt, however, that these officers who were about to lead their troops into actual battle for the first time should have some word from and what he said represented what was really in his heart and mind. "The will to win," he said, "that's the thing. Maybe if some reference to that was made at this time, it might help."
During the course of the conversation the General complained of being chilly, although I found the room entirely warm and comfortable. He went into the next room and brought in a folded shawl. Since he seemed to be having trouble getting it apart, I volunteered (Continued on page 10)

Low-Cost Main Dishes Can Cut That Grocery Bill

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

If you've been watching your food bills soar and you know that it's usually your main dishes that cost the most—those main dishes that supply your family with a good portion of the protein they need for body-building and tissue repair. How can you give your family an adequate supply of the necessary protein and yet keep food costs down?

When our national diet was looked at recently by government experts they found that last year more than two-fifths, 41 per cent, of our protein came from meat, poultry, fish, eggs, dry beans, peas, and nuts. One-fourth, 25 per cent, came from bread and other cereal foods. Milk, cheese and ice cream provided another fourth.

With these three food groups to call upon you can see that we need not have protein-deficient diets even when it is necessary to economize. Here is how a mother of a family with both eyes on the budget can make main dishes add up so that they save money and yet supply plenty of nutrition.

Take meat. The first thing to do, if your meat bill is too high, is to use thrifter cuts. Swiss steak, one of the most delicious of beef dishes, is made from either round steak or chuck. With 2 1/2 pounds and the following recipe you can make a main dish that will serve four hearty appetites at two meals. Beef brisket, beef short ribs, ox joints, liver and kidneys, fresh or smoked tongue, shoulder of lamb or veal, are some of the other thrifter cuts that offer the same protein, the same B vitamins and the same minerals as more expensive roasts, steaks and chops.

When it comes to poultry, stewing chickens or fowls are usually a more economical buy than broilers, fryers or roasting chickens. As a rule, they cost less per pound and have a higher proportion of meat to bone than broilers or fryers. From a 5-pound dressed fowl—dressed weight means that the bird has been bled and picked but not drawn—you get about 2 pounds of meat, including viscera, head, feet and bones, and about 3 pounds of chicken meat, including giblets. This makes enough meat for the main dish for several meals for a family of four if one of the chicken dishes is extended.

Fish are a boon to budget-watchers because there are so many varieties and some of these varieties—whether fresh, frozen, canned, or salted—can always be found at a reasonable price.

Because eggs are an important source of protein it often is economical to use them for a main dish as well as to supplement other proteins in a meal.

Dry beans and peas are economical sources of protein—but their proteins are not complete by themselves. When a meal features split pea soup, or a pot of baked beans it is a good practice to serve a cheese salad or a dessert containing cheese, milk or eggs to round out the food value. Or use the beans with a limited amount of meat, as in chili con carne.

Bread and cereal foods may be used in dozens of ways to make a protein dollar go further. They are economical extenders for meat, fish, eggs, cheese.

MONEY-IN-YOUR-POCKET RECIPES

Two-Meat Swiss Steak
Ingredients Needed: 2 1/2 pounds round or chuck steak, flour, dry mustard, salt, pepper, canned tomatoes or tomato juice, onions, fat.

Method: Mix 1/2 cup flour, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, and 1/4 teaspoon pepper together well. Use meat pounder or the edge of a heavy saucer pound the mixture into the steak until all the flour is absorbed. Heat a little fat in a heavy kettle and brown the meat thoroughly and slowly in it on both sides. Add 1 cup canned tomatoes or tomato juice and put 1 1/2 cups onion strips on top of the meat. Cover and simmer gently for 2 1/2 to 3 hours, or until tender. This will provide four people with main-dish servings for two meals.

Economical Meat Muffins
Ingredients Needed: Flour, baking powder, salt, 1/2 pound raw chopped beef, salt and pepper, onion, bouillon cubes, 1 egg, butter or vitaminized margarine.

Method: Sift 3/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder and 1/2 teaspoon salt together. Blend 1/2 pound chopped raw beef with a sprinkling of salt and pepper and 2 tablespoons of finely grated onion; stir into flour mixture. Dissolve 2 bouillon cubes in 1/4 cup boiling water and add 1/2 cup cold water to them. Beat 1 egg very well and add with 2 tablespoons of melted butter or vitaminized margarine to bouillon mixture. Add to flour mixture, stirring only until ingredients are moistened. Fill greased muffin pans 2/3 full and bake in a hot (400 F.) oven for about 20 minutes, or until done. Serve with the following Vegetable Sauce. Makes about 12 muffins.

Vegetable Sauce
Ingredients Needed: Peas, carrots, celery, bouillon cubes, butter or vitaminized margarine, salt, pepper, flour.

Method: Dissolve 3 beef bouillon cubes in 2 cups boiling water; add 1 1/2 cups fresh peas, 1 cup thinly sliced carrots, 1/2 cup celery crescents, 3 tablespoons butter or vitaminized margarine, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, and cook until tender. Blend 4 tablespoons flour with 1/2 cup cold water until entirely smooth and add to vegetables; cook until thickened and bubbly, stirring constantly. Makes 6 servings.

Zucchini Squash With Cheese Sauce
Ingredients Needed: Zucchini squash, butter or vitaminized margarine, flour, milk, salt, Worcestershire sauce, cayenne, grated Cheddar cheese.

Method: Wash 3 medium-sized zucchini squash but do not pare; cut in one-quarter inch slices. Cook in a very small amount of boiling salted water until tender. Melt 4 tablespoons of butter or vitaminized margarine, add 4 tablespoons of flour and blend well. Add 2 cups milk gradually and stir until thickened and bubbly. Season

Churchill Says Crisis Severe Inside Kremlin

WOODFORD, ENG. (AP)—Winston Churchill suggested that the Kremlin is warring with a severe Russian political crisis.

The denunciation of Yugoslavia at a time when the Berlin crisis was at its height indicated this, the wartime prime minister told a Conservative party rally in his home district. At the same time he cautioned that the Western allies can yield on the Berlin issue only at the risk of a third world war.

Recalling the Communist information bureau's denunciation of Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, Churchill said of Russia's rulers: "Their prime interest is to preserve their personal power over the hundreds of millions of people of many different races whom they rule with a rod of iron."

"We cannot tell what internal stresses are at work in this grim oligarchy. It would seem to me that they must be very severe at the present time and that one part of the dictatorship is working separately or even contrary to the other."

It is said that 5,000,000 years ago the sun weighed about twice as much as it does now.

Hitler Headquarters Now 'Amerika Haus'

MUNICH, GERMANY (AP)—Hitler's former headquarters where the Munich pact of 1938 was signed is now "Amerika Haus"—a U. S. information center for Germans. Here 15,000 books, 5,000 magazines and newspapers, music rooms, lecture halls and a theater are provided for Germans to learn about the United States and the rest of the world from which they have been isolated so long. It is one of the biggest of several such centers in American zone cities.

COINED PHRASE

Louis XII, of France, coined the phrase, "Let George do it." Whichever he wished to evade a distasteful duty, he permitted his faithful and obliging minister, Cardinal George of Amboise, to do it.

Naples Sea Port
Builds To Normal

NAPLES—Italy's worst war-damaged port will be back to normal within eight or ten months. That is the opinion of Dr. Gaetano Basso, engineer in charge of Naples harbor reconstruction, who has already carried out repairs which enabled the port to operate at 90 per cent of pre-war capacity. Germans retreating northward in 1943 gave their demolition techniques a full workout at Naples. When the allies arrived, they found three-fourths of the piers out of use for months to come, nearly 150 vessels sunk and all elevators and railway tracks destroyed. U. S. Army engineers improvised hasty repairs so the port could supply Allied armies as they moved north, but most permanent reconstruction for the Italians. "Our job started when the Allied forces handed back the port to Italian civil authorities," Basso said. "In the two years since, the port has resumed its peace-time aspect. Piers and warehouses have been re-built, electric water plants and cranes have been restored to normal service, and the finishing touches are being given to the much bombed maritime station."

Here's Suds In Your Eye

(NEA Telephoto)
When fire swept the plant of the Lehigh Chemical Products Company, in Trainer, Pa., three 50,000-gallon tanks of liquid soap burst open. Firemen, playing streams of water on the tanks, created mountains of suds which flowed outside. The $60,000 blaze resulted in a new sport for boys around Trainer—suds fights.

Swiss Prepare For National Defense

BERN, SWITZERLAND—(AP)—Switzerland, where neutrality is written into the constitution, is getting ready to fight in national defense.

Swiss Army Corps commandant Louis de Montmolin, who is chief of staff, told a recent news conference the staff did not anticipate a surprise attack on Switzerland by any great power. But, he continued, "we must continue to develop our information service so that at the moment when the first shots are fired our country our army must be ready to fight."

In fact, he said, a reorganization of the entire Swiss military setup was indispensable. What he had in mind, he explained, was a gradual process taking into account the new weapons. The ideal situation, he said, would be to go underground, literally, with all vital commodities, but no country could afford that.

De Montmolin warned the Swiss to be prepared for a revival of gas warfare, for a launching of bacteriological warfare, for atom bombs and rockets, and "the certainty of more extensive air war." But the chief of staff thought it would be "premature" to dispense with Switzerland's infantry—the rifle-men who have had a reputation for marksmanship since William Tell. He said he considered Switzerland's militia army, made up of men who have to perform a few weeks military service each year and who are required to keep up their rifle practice, "in keeping with our modest means and our conception of national defense."

STEADY EMPLOYMENT

CINCINNATI—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds have had only three groundskeepers since the team joined the National League in 1876. Matty Schwab, who is recognized as one of the top men in his profession, has been chief groundskeeper for the Reds since succeeding his father in 1903.

PARK BEARS GET FILL OF CIVILIZATION

BEFLTON, MONT.—(AP)—Sophie, a black bear, and her three cubs had a wonderful time with the tourists in Glacier Park until modern civilization's big killer caught up with them. An automobile killed one of the cubs. Sophie gathered up the little body and disappeared into the deep woods, followed by the other two strangely subdued offspring.

State Fair Livestock Show Increases Prizes

DALLAS—(AP)—Cash prizes in the junior livestock show of the 1948 State Fair of Texas will total $10,168, an 11 per cent increase over the 1947 list. The show will be held October 9-12. It will include the junior dairy show, utility dairy show, steer show, pig show, negro pig show and sheep show.

Meet The Jeepster

The latest member of the Jeep family is Willys-Overland's newly unveiled sports phaeton, the Jeepster. Styled in the continental fashion, the car is a glamorous, smooth-riding descendant of its rugged forbear and is one of the first full-sized light cars to appear on the market. It is powered by the Jeep engine, and has independent front wheel suspension. The Jeepster weighs only 2500 pounds, gives as much as 29 miles to a gallon and has a low center of gravity for roadability. Willys-Overland calls it "a sun car built for fun."

Plan Summer Buffet Meals Around A Cool Meat Dish

Do your Summer entertaining buffet style! It's one of the easiest ways to take care of guest dinners and luncheons during the warm weather months. Buffets are easy on the hostess because she can prepare many of the dishes in the cool of early morning—and they're a perfect joy to the guest because of their complete lack of formality.

State Democratic Conventions Are Endurance Tests

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN—What's the difference between a state Democratic convention and an endurance contest? Nothing.

Somebody should tell the people in charge of Democratic affairs in Texas—whoever they may be—that it takes more than one day to do all the things a convention has to do, or thinks it has to do.

The law says the convention must be held. It says when it shall be held. It says what it must do, both in the cases of the May and September meetings.

But there isn't anything in the law saying how long the convention shall last.

Usually, these meetings drag on through a 12-hour day and sometimes they go on for 18 hours, and sometimes for two 12-hour days. Usually, when there is a controversy and there is initial doubt as to which side has the votes, there is a long delay in getting started while each faction jockeys for a favorable position.

There was a long delay in starting the recent Brownwood convention because delegates were slow in registering, and the list to make up the temporary roll was not ready. This session stretched out for 12 weary hours, with no formal break for lunch or dinner.

Why not start the convention at noon, run it on through eight or nine o'clock, and wind it up the next day in a three or four hour session? That way everybody would get enough sleep, or at least have the opportunity to sleep if they wanted to.

The outlook is for more controversy at the September convention. The nomination of President Truman there, plus another Southern revolt meeting, is almost certain to bring on an elector fight.

Back in 1944, you recall, the September convention's action in putting forth a new list of electors was declared legal by the State Supreme Court. That year the May convention's electors were only conditionally bound to vote for the national party nominee. The September convention's pro-Roosevelt majority weeded out the anti-Roosevelt electors.

This set ample precedent for an effort by the extreme right wing, anti-Truman, anti-federal civil rights faction of the party in Texas to put up a list of anti-Truman electors at Fort Worth September 14.

- The menu for the Summer buffet should be cool and light, but it also should be sustaining. Meat, as the main dish of the Summer buffet, gets things off to a good start. A jellied veal ring (a "must" for any Swedish Smorgasbord) is the center of interest on any buffet table when filled with potato and green onion salad, and garnished with tomato and cucumber slices. (For the effect of this attractive combination, see picture above!)
- Here's a recipe for a well-flavored jellied veal ring which is ideal for a wedding buffet, after-the-concert supper, porch buffet, or a cool help-yourself dinner.
- Jellied Veal Ring
- 1 veal knuckle
 - 1 lb. veal shoulder
 - 1 bay leaf
 - 2 cloves
 - 2 teaspoons salt
 - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 3 quarts water
 - 1 slice onion
 - 1 stalk celery
 - 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- Have knuckle cut in 3 or 4 places. Combine knuckle, diced veal shoulder, bay leaf, cloves, salt and pepper in a large heavy kettle. Add 3 quarts hot water, bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer, covered, for 2 hours or until meat falls from bone. Remove from heat. Remove bay leaf, veal knuckle and veal. Strain broth from meat and save. Put meat thru food chopper (medium grade) with onion and celery. Cook down meat stock until it measures about 2 cups. Add veal and Worcestershire sauce. Grease a ten-inch ring mold slightly. Pack meat mixture into mold and chill until firm.
- Jellied Veal Ring
- Potato, Egg, and Green Onion Salad
 - Sliced Tomatoes and Cucumbers
 - Hot Green Peas
 - Hot Cloverleaf Rolls
 - Chiffon Pie or Cake with Fruited Whipped Cream Beverage
- Here are other buffet menus for various Summer occasions which are built around meat:
- Platter of Smoked Tongue, Baked Ham
 - American Cheese and Swiss Cheese Slices
 - (Garnish of Watercress and Radishes)
 - Sautéed Potatoes
 - Jellied Fruit and Nut Salad Ring
 - Tossed Salad of Greens and Tomatoes
 - White or Whole Wheat Rolls
 - Sherbet
 - Cookies
 - Beverage
- Cold Cuts
 - (Liver Sausage, Thuringer, Spiced Ham, Jellied Tongue)
 - Hot Potato Salad with Green Onions and Bacon
 - Small Tomatoes Stuffed with Cottage Cheese and Salted Nuts
 - Relishes
 - Rye Bread
 - Fresh Fruit Shortcake, Beverage
- Cold Roast Pork or Roast Beef
 - Deviled Eggs
 - Ripe Olives
 - Mixed Fruit Salad Bowl
 - Whipped Cream Dressing
 - Jellied Vegetable Salad
 - Potato Chips
 - Parkerhouse Rolls
 - Lattice Fruit Pie with Cheese Beverage

More Business Set Up In Singapore

SINGAPORE—There are three times as many companies registered in Singapore now as in pre-war days, according to the registrar of companies. The new companies are engaged in a wide variety of activities, including manufacturing, building, contracting, fishing, shipping, importing and exporting.

Their capitals average between $100,000 and $500,000. Companies with less than $100,000 nominal capital are rare these days," the registrar said, "although pre-war they were quite common. This may be a sign of the depreciation of the value of the dollar," he added, "but million dollar companies (of which Singapore has a considerable number) today cannot carry on as large a volume of business as did pre-war companies at $250,000."

Red Writer Calls For Dropping Foreign Labels

MOSCOW—(AP)—A writer in Izvestia called recently for the dropping of foreign labels from Soviet-made products.

"It is time," he asked, "that a stop be put to this practice of insulating the work of Soviet engineers and workers by the affixing of foreign labels to native products."

Among terms still in use, he said, were: Petit-beurre, petit-four, éclair, nice, arrowroot and Osborne biscuits, cakes.

"Many goods in Leningrad cafes and restaurants bear foreign names while many of the restaurants themselves bear such names as Metropole, Angleterre, Nord, Astoria etc.," he said.

Warm Dish Welcome On Picnic

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Outdoor appetites welcome warm food on a picnic. Give them this lima bean dish and everyone will be happy and well fed. The budget will be happy, too.

Picnic Lima Beans
(Serves 6)

One and one-half cups dried lima beans, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 quart water, 8 bacon slices, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 1 cup diced onion, 1 clove garlic, minced, 1 1/2 cups canned tomatoes, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 teaspoons chili powder.

Soak lima beans overnight. Add beans and two teaspoons salt to one quart water and cook beans until tender. Drain. Four beans into well-greased large yellow dish or heat-resistant glass refrigerator-oven set. Cook bacon slices until well done but not crisp. Drain bacon.

Brown green pepper, onion and garlic in bacon fat. Cut four slices cooked bacon into small pieces. Add to browned mixture with tomatoes, two teaspoons salt, pepper and chili powder. Cook five minutes. Pour tomato mixture over lima beans. Arrange remaining four slices of bacon on top of beans. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 25 minutes.

Lima Beans and Sausage Bake
(Serves 6)

One cup dried lima beans, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 quart water, 1 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 12 small sausages, 2 tablespoons butter or other fat.

Soak beans overnight. Add beans and two teaspoons salt to one quart water and cook beans until tender. Drain. Season beans with salt, pepper and mustard. Line a well-greased round cake dish with sausages. Pour seasoned beans into dish. Dot with butter, margarine or other fat. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 25 minutes or until sausages are done.

Bitter Reprieve

By Drexel Drake

THE STORY: Playboy Marvin Sterling has stolen his wife's diamond necklace and handed it over as security on a $10,000 gambling debt to racketeer Harry Bladon. To cover the theft, perpetrated while his wife slept, Sterling makes it appear a professional burglary. He spends the night at Edgewater Country Club to establish an alibi, along with the necklace, he also took a sealed packet from his wife's safe. This turns out to be $10,000 in cash which Miriam Sterling had withdrawn from the bank for him.

Next morning Mrs. Sterling is found murdered in bed. At the same time, Sterling gets rid of Miriam's body by mailing it in a sealed packet to his secretary, Miss Wilson. Police Lt. Talent brings Sterling home. He is confronted with the body, the evidence of burglary in the library, Sterling says he knows he's under suspicion but is just as anxious as the police to get his hands on the murderer.

XXII

NO one stirred immediately. Neither Talent nor Trapgood could have guessed that the initiative was so sweepingly to be taken away from them.

Talent managed a patient, soothing grin.

"Let's not be careless about those words 'under suspicion,' Mr. Sterling," he said. "If you mean by that we suspect you of murdering your wife, that's preposterous and beyond any notion that has entered our heads. There are degrees of suspicion. In a murder case, every straw is weighed. We go after an explanation for every unexplained circumstance. If you prefer, call them suspicious circumstances. Certainly your absence from home last night, particularly as you did not leave home for your club until after midnight, and again particularly as it left your wife at home alone in this big house in a secluded community, comes under that head. I appreciate your candor and welcome your offer of help . . . putting it that we have the same job. So let's get the time element straight."

"Okay, Lieutenant," Sterling

ling volunteered. "When I came home about 10, with my mind set on going out to Edgewater for overnight, I went up to my room and packed my bag. Then I wrote a note to my wife and put it in her room where you saw it. I came downstairs, left my bag in the hall, and came in here for a drink. I was having, I believe, my second drink, when Mrs. Sterling came in. Naturally, I told her I was going to Edgewater, mentioning that I had left a note."

"So that it was yesterday's newspaper when she got up to her room and she didn't bother about it," Trapgood conceded.

"Exactly," Sterling said.

"YOU say she was in here with you a short time only," Talent said. "Long enough for a drink, or a cigarette?"

"She didn't smoke while she was in here, Lieutenant. She sat in that chair," Sterling pointed.

Talent got up, walked to the smudged spot on the rug near the doorway. "There's a real point, Mr. Sterling, in asking you if she smoked a cigarette while she was in here . . ."

"I'm sorry," Talent said, "but I was misled into that assumption because of the note you left for your wife on the mirror of her dressing table. Naturally, that's how I knew you were at Edgewater."

"I've assumed that," Sterling said quietly.

"Mrs. Sterling came home alone, did she?"

"Of course. She was coming home for the night."

Trapgood cupped his chin and inserted, "We're right, are we, Sterling, in assuming that you were here alone until your wife came home?"

"I was the only one in the house. I was sitting in this chair reading. She came in here and sat with me a short time before going upstairs."

"Yet you left a note for her, and one we can't be sure she read because apparently she didn't take it down from the mirror," Talent said.

"Well, she really had no reason to take it down and read it," Sterling

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

The most important lesson to be learned in bridge is to count your tricks. In today's hand East gets into the right contract. Six spades could be defeated easily, but with the diamond opening, the six-heart contract is assured if the declarer counts his tricks.

He can count five spade tricks, three heart tricks, a diamond and a club—10 tricks in all. If the spades are divided 3-3, he can throw one of his clubs away on a spade and ruff a club. That will give him 11 tricks, and he still cash the ace of diamonds at this point.

Next the jack of hearts is led from dummy and overtaken with the queen. South might as well take this with the ace, and his best play is to lead back the king of clubs.

This is won in dummy, a spade is led to the king, the trumps are picked up, the ace of diamonds cashed, and now East goes over to dummy with the five of spades. On dummy's three good spades East discards his club and two diamonds, and the seven of hearts is available to ruff dummy's club.

The Real Pershing—

At Walter Reed Hospital, in Washington, General Pershing spent his declining years in the comfort of a modest suite where he enjoyed visits with his friends and consultations with military leaders who sought his advice.

laughed and told of an amusing incident when one South American general asked him if he would like to watch a review from horseback. Pershing was a great horseman, and entirely at home in the saddle. After looking the South American general over, however, Pershing said that he replied to the general's inquiry as to going on horseback by saying: "I await your pleasure. If you would like to conduct the review from horseback, I'll be most happy to join you." Pershing went on to say that when the time for the review came, there were no horses, and he added: "I think he had never been on a horse."

I had only recently returned from a trip through South America during which I had visited Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Peru and the General was very interested and inquired as to what I had observed of their military strength. He told of a tour which he had made of South America, covering much of the same ground I had covered and said that there were reviews staged in his honor at most of the places he visited. He

Increased State Aid To Schools Matched By Most Districts

AUSTIN — Local financial support of Texas' public schools has kept pace with the greatly increased state aid during the last decade. A comprehensive state-wide study has been released by the Texas State Teachers Association in co-operation with the State Department of Education. It discloses that through increased property valuation or hikes in taxes most local school districts are doing their share in paying the cost of their schools.

During the 1946-47 school year, the latest for which complete figures are available, the study disclosed the state paid 53 per cent of the cost of education and the local districts 47 per cent.

These approximate figures hold true for each of the last 10 years despite the fact the constitution of Texas provides that the state shall pay for two-thirds of the costs of the schools.

Most schools have nine-month terms. The constitution sets out that "the state shall maintain and support schools for not less than six months."

Expenditures for public schools have increased from a total of $76,706,149 in 1935-36 to $137,609,088 during 1946-47. The local support in 1935-36 was $1 per cent to 49 for the state. The average salary of teachers in the mid thirties was approximately $1,100.

Houston Physicians Confirm Benefits Of New Polio Treatment

HOUSTON —(AP)—Doctors at the City-County Jefferson Davis Hospital Wednesday afternoon confirmed reports that polio patients treated with thiazolyl, a new sulfapyridine drug, are up and walking around.

They also said the acute illness period of patients treated with the drug is being cut as much as one-quarter of the usual five to eight-day period.

The doctors, who declined to be quoted by name, warned, however, against over-optimism.

"We feel the drug is doing some good," one of them said, "but we just want to be sure before we make any claims."

Use of the drug here and at the John Sealy Hospital at the University of Texas School of Medicine at Galveston was revealed last Saturday.

Jefferson Davis officials said "more than 40" patients have been treated locally with thiazolyl—also known as "Drug No. 2"—and another new drug, aureumycin.

Might Be Answer

Dr. Chauncey Leske, dean of the university school, Saturday night confirmed the reports but said "It is too early to give any opinion on the value of the drug." He said 31 patients have been treated at Galveston.

In confirming the local experiments, one doctor Saturday said thiazolyl conceivably could be the answer to paralyzing polio.

He said it has halted paralysis in a few cases, but added that spontaneous recoveries occur often in polio.

He said the tests have shown sufficient promise to warrant exhaustive studies.

One of the most heartening characteristics of the drug, he explained, is that it can be administered by tablets or intravenous injection without causing harmful reactions, a drawback of many new drugs.

Thiazolyl is one of many compounds derived from the original sulfa drugs.
