Here's proof the Gas Retrigerator

More and more Texas families prefer Servel! For Servel is the one refrigerator that offers permanent silence, longer life-and proves it with a ten-year

Why is it possible to guarantee this modern refrigerator for ten years? Servel has no moving parts in its freezing system. No motor or machinery that can wear or cause noise. A tiny gas flame (butane gas, natural gas or manufactured gas) does the work. So the Gas Refrigerator stays silent, lasts longer. And actually, among its 2,000,000 delighted owners many tell us, "Still silent, worry-free, after 20 years!"

But a different, simpler freezing system is only part of the story. The new Servels bring you every new foodkeeping feature, too. Come see the famous Gas Refrigerator - first choice of more and more Texas families. See it today.

Wage-Earners Have Stake

The current issue of the CIO's "Outlook" is devoted to proving that a "mere handful" of persons control this nation's big corporations. About one out of every 20 adults owns corporation stock, the CIO's Department of Research and Education reports belittlingly.

So what is that designed to prove? That ordinary Americans are a have-not people? Name some other country in which one out of 20 owns corporate stock, and there'll be at least ground for debate.

Is the CIO trying to make it appear that the American worker doesn't have enough, after existing, to invest in stocks? The enormous investment in insurance, savings accounts, war bonds makes that silly. So does the almost unbelievable spending on amusements, recreation, travel, liquor, race-track gambling and the like.

The real reason for this report, in the midst of third round wage demands, looks rather clear. It seems to be an attempt to suggest that the average American, having no corporate stock in his name, shouldn't worry if wage boosts squeeze profits out of company operations.

That is hitting below the belt. The CIO's economists are smart, well-informed men. They know that every American has a direct stake in the profitable operation of this country's industry and commerce.

Husband Surrenders After Fatal Shooting

FORT WORTH -(P)- An inquest verdict was awaited Monday in the death of Mrs. Wyema Morrow, 44, who was shot to death while scuffling over a gun in her husband's car.

J. Bennett Morrow, 46, a choir leader, surrendered to the sheriff's office here following the shooting

The Morrows were married last November, he said. Several months ago, he said in a statement, she began to have "nervous spells" and Sunday she "flew into a rage." Morrow, choir leader at Rosen Heights Church of Christ, said his wife ran to the car, where there was a pistol, and he followed her. He said the gun went off while they were scuffling for it.

Scables, or the seven-year itch, is no respecter of persons, and may strike anyone without warning. The disease is caused by an insect which burrows into the skin and causes irritation and intense itching.

The tendency for the itching to be worse during the night is one of the most constant symptoms of scables, at least during its early stages. This helps in the diagnosis, but examination of the entire body is usually necessary to make certain Sulfur Used

Several good methods of treatment are available. For a great many years, good results have been obtained by the use of various sulfur compounds. Sulfur ointments, sulsmall town between Lubbock and fur pastes and other combinations of sulfur, together with soap and water, may be enough to cure. A lotion containing rotenone has

HEALTH COMES FROM WITHIN

When you turn off the electric light switch you do not expect the light to burn. Do you think that you have more right to expect your organs to function when the current is turned off? If Nature can get her forces from the Brain to the tissue cells, health will result. If the bony segments of the spine press upon the nerves and thereby cause interference to the normal flow of life force from brain to body, you should have this interference corrected, in order to enjoy health.

Deputy Averages Three For Five In Scramble

ALHAMBRA, CALIF. -- (P) After a 20-mile foot chase in the best Hollywood tradition. Deputy Donald Doughty got his man -

three men in fact. The chase, which started at Ontario in San Bernardino County, where Doughty is on the sheriff's staff, wound up here in Los Angeles County. It was conducted mostly on the top of a long, moving freight train. Doughty reported he was chasing five men who had robbed Jerrold Samuels, 18. They hopped aboard the caboose of the outgoing freight at Ontario and he clambered after. Skittering from box car to box car. Doughty said he finally cornered there of the men at the coal

The other two jumped off, but Doughty figured three-for-five was a pretty good average in that fastmoving league.

Hebert: So it is safe to assume there were innumerable other groups Sunday. operating under heads like Silvermaster and Perlo?

Miss Bentley: It is extremely stand ahead of its mystery witness, Vega. Alexander Koral, who has been described by committee members as able to crack the spy case "wide In addition, it awaited word from the State Department whether it can subpoena another much-wanted witness, Mrs. Oksana Stepanovna Kosenkina, a Russian who is out of the committee's reach in the Soviet Consulate in New York. Representative Nixon (R-Calif) hammered at Perlo to say whether he would deny specific charges since his statement made a blanket de-Perlo stood on his constitutional las. rights. He said he wanted to leave his denial in his statement but he would not say whether he had been part of a group of government information sources for Red agents. Nixon noted a sentence in Perlo's statement that "I categorically assert that I have never violated the laws or interests of my country." Nixon said there is a law barring government employes from giving out secret information. He asked: "Do you mean you have never divulged any secret information to any unauthorized person?"

Perlo declined to reply.
