Humble Trying Another DST At No. 1 Mitchell

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 J. C. Mitchell, Northwest-Terrill County wildcat, 30 miles northwest of Sanderson, tried to take a drillstem test to total depth of 8,742 feet in shale and sand. The packer failed and there was no test.

Operator was preparing to go in with another packer and make the second attempt to get a test.

The current section is thought to be somewhere in the Pennsylvanian shale and sand.

Sun 2 Ellwood Testing Possible Ellenburger

Sun Oil Company No. 2 Ellwood estate, in South-Central Mitchell County, about 15 miles south of Colorado City, was taking a drillstem test at 7,614-29 feet in a shale and lime formation, thought by some observers to be in the Ellenburger.

A core at 7,624-29 feet recovered five feet of shale, with some streaks of lime. There were no shows of oil or gas in any of the material.

Some geologists picked a tentative, unofficial top of the Ellenburger to be at 7,614 feet, on an elevation of 2,132 feet.

Location is 660 feet from southwest and southeast lines of section 25, block 16, SPRR survey.

Upton Project Makes New Hole After DST

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-A TXL, slated 12,500-foot exploration in North-Central Upton County, 30 miles south of Midland, and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 31, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S, ran a one and one-half hour drillstem test at 9,921-46 feet in a lime section thought to possibly be in the Pennsylvanian.

Recovery was 90 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water. The venture is drilling ahead. It is due to continue to the Ellenburger.

R & B 1 Neal Drills On Down In E-C Upton

Richardson & Bass No. 1 Neal, wildcat in East-Central Upton County, about six miles northwest of the Benedum field, and 660 feet from north and 1,990 feet from east lines of section 9, block Y, GC&SP survey, had reached 11,407 feet in Devonian lime and chert, and was drilling ahead.

Republic Natural Gas Company No. 1-E-A Barnett, two and three-quarter miles northwest of the initial Ellenburger producer in the Benedum field, and 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 40, block Y, TCRI, survey, had progressed after treating the zone at 4,293-4-392 feet, with 500 gallons of acid.

At last report no free oil had been swabbed out, and the exploration was still recovering residue from the acid. It is 330 feet from west and 660 feet from north lines of section 19, block 15, H&TC survey, and about eight miles southeast of Sterling City.

Humble 1 Foster Still Swabbing Out Residue

Humble No. 1 Rufus T. Foster, south stepout from the discovery for production from the Wichita-Albany section of the lower Permian, to open the Marvin field in Southeast Sterling County, was swabbing after treating the zone at 4,293-4-392 feet, with 500 gallons of acid.

At last report no free oil had been swabbed out, and the exploration was still recovering residue from the acid. It is 330 feet from west and 660 feet from north lines of section 19, block 15, H&TC survey, and about eight miles southeast of Sterling City.

Albaugh And Progress Test Paramore Again

Ray A. Albaugh and Progress Petroleum Company No. 1 Nellie Cannon Paramore, Northwest Sterling County deep prospector, 17 miles northwest of Sterling City, was taking a drillstem test at 7,019-67 feet in a Pennsylvanian lime horizon.

This development had encountered some possibilities of production in the San Andres, Permian lime above 2,400 feet. It has not logged any further indications of oil or gas since drilling below that point. The project is scheduled to continue to around 9,000 feet to explore into the Ellenburger.

The drillsite is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 203, block 29, W&NW survey.

Garza Prospector Runs Surveys After Testing

Honolulu Oil Corporation No. 1 Shelby County School Land fee, slated 400-foot wildcat in North-Central Mitchell County.

Life Underwriters Meet Here Saturday

Members of the Permian Basin Life Underwriters Association will meet Saturday noon in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer for their September meeting. R. J. (Doc) Graham of Midland, vice president, announced Friday. The monthly meetings are alternated between Midland and Big Spring.

A special program will be presented by George Vannaman of Midland, O. A. Hickman of Big Spring, president, will preside.

Underwriters from Midland, Big Spring, Odessa, Monahan, Kermit, Wink, Peos, Andrews, McCamey, Crane, Stanton and Rankin are expected to attend.

Two Preliminary Winners

Two of the preliminary winners in the Miss America contest, now being held at Atlantic City, N. J., are given their awards by Barbara Jo Walker, center, winner of the contest last year. On the left is Vera J. Ralston, Miss Kansas, and on the right is Dorothy Jane Free, Miss Tennessee.

Air Force Adds 89,000 Men, 13 New Plane Models In Year

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Air Force has a fledgling flock of new-type warplanes and 89,000 more men than it had a year ago.

It took stock of its position Friday as the September 18 first anniversary of its status as a separate, independent arm of the fighting services approached.

In the last year, said an Air Force summary, 13 new models have been introduced, among them three fighters, two bombers, three transports, a trainer, a pilotless jet target aircraft and a cargo glider.

Jet engines are used exclusively in all the new fighter types and in the two bombers.

The fighters include: The Curtiss-Wright F-87 "all weather" craft, designed to battle under virtually any climatic or local weather condition. The original model had four jets, but the production line version will have only two.

Parasite Fighter
The North American XF-85, the dart-winged jet which set an unofficial speed record of 669.75 miles an hour at the Cleveland Air Races last week.

The McDonnell XF-85, the parasite fighter designed to be carried in a bomb bay of the Giant B-36 bomber for release at or near the target when interception is encountered.

With the fighter models was the first two-place Lockheed P-80, intended for use in teaching pilots of conventional engine planes to change over to the swift jet types.

In the bomber class, the Air Force unveiled the knife-winged Boeing XB-47, rat-1 in the 500-mile-an-hour class and powered with six jets. The XB-47 is comparable to the familiar B-29 in size.

It also came up with the North-

Transport To Aid Volcano-Stricken Philippines Isle

MANILA—(AP)—Deadly gases again flared poured from erupting Hibok-Hibok Volcano on Camiguin Island as about 13,000 Filipinos huddled in two Southeastern ports awaiting rescue by ship.

The Philippine Coast Guard cutter Anemone messaged briefly that all towns on the tiny island were deserted except Sagay and Mahinog on the Southern end. Both, the cutter said, were jammed with refugees threatened by chlorine gas emitted by the volcano in its tenth consecutive day of eruptions.

The Anemone said there were increasing volcanic explosions from the mile high mountain during the night.

Philippine Naval authorities considered that with the arrival of the U. S. Army transport General Weigel at dawn Saturday sufficient facilities would be on hand to evacuate the islanders. The 17,000-ton General Weigel was enroute to Manila from San Francisco when a distress call from the island was broadcast.

The U. S. Navy offered to aid the Filipinos but no direct appeal to the Navy has been made.

President Elpidio Quirino's cabinet met to consider relief problems for the 50,000 islanders, most of whom have been evacuated to nearby Mindinao.

Word that all of the Filipinos still on the island were safe came from volcanologist Arturo Alcaraz, who, 18 hours earlier, broadcast an urgent appeal for ships to take off the inhabitants as the poisonous gases started spewing from the volcano.

Church Census Slated Sunday

The Ministerial Alliance of Midland Friday announced a religious census of the city to be taken Sunday afternoon by representatives from the Asbury Methodist, First Methodist, First Christian, First Presbyterian, Nazarene, and Episcopal churches.

Workers who will make the canvass will attend a luncheon in the Midland Cafeteria at 12:30 p. m. Sunday, with the canvass to start immediately afterward. Volunteers are still needed to assist in the task, Mr. Snell said.

The canvass is under the direction of the Rev. H. H. Hollowell, pastor of the First Methodist Church, assisted by the ministers of the other churches. The cooperating churches plan to follow the canvass with campaigns to interest newcomers and inactive members in their respective churches.

De Gaulle Support Promised Queuille In French Cabinet

PARIS—(AP)—De Gaullists in the National Assembly promised their votes to Henri Queuille Friday, virtually assuring him confirmation as premier.

The development came as Queuille, a Radical Socialist (Conservative), prepared to ask the assembly to approve him as head of the fifth French government since January, 1947, and the fourth since the liberation.

"Our members will vote almost unanimously for M. Queuille," said a statement issued by Paul Giacobbi, president of the De Gaullist parliamentary group.

Queuille announced his acceptance of the premiership Thursday night, only a few hours before a spokesman for Gen. Charles De Gaulle issued a statement demanding new general elections.

The country's labor troubles continued. Workers marched toward the Elysee Palace, residence of President Vincent Auriol, only to be dispersed by police before arriving there.

Employees of the Renault Auto Factory left their jobs to march toward the center of the city. They attacked a force of police which met them and a dozen demonstrators and 20 police were reported injured.

Many short work stoppages were reported around the country, most of them protests against the rising cost of living.

Fight Looms For Records Of Election

HOUSTON—(AP)—Officials of the incoming and outgoing County Democratic Executive Committee in Jim Wells County Friday were deadlocked in a struggle for possession of election records which may determine whether Coke Stevenson or Lyndon Johnson wins the Democratic nomination for United States senator, the Houston Chronicle said Friday in a special dispatch from Alice.

Among them are voters' lists, tally sheets and other records of Jim Wells County Precinct 13 which provided, in a revised return, 202 of the votes which gave Johnson a 162 vote lead over Stevenson.

Demand Released
H. L. Adams, Alice, who was elected chairman of the Jim Wells County Democratic Executive Committee in the August 28 primary, said Tom Donald, outgoing committee secretary, had refused his demand for the records and supplies.

H. L. Poole, who was named to succeed Donald, said 10 members of the committee had signed a letter making formal demand upon Donald to turn over to Adams the records, supplies, bank account and "all other material pertaining to the office of Democratic chairman and the Democratic Executive Committee."

The list and supplies involved in the dispute are said to be locked in the vault of the Texas State Bank of Alice, of which George Parr of San Diego is president.

Parr for years has dominated Duval County politics and is influential throughout the 27th State Senatorial District.

Officers Probe Mysterious Hurt To Film Actress

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Blond Rita Johnson, once considered as a successor to the late Jean Harlow, was in critical condition Friday with a brain injury suffered mysteriously four days ago.

The 35-year-old film actress underwent delicate surgery in which three specialists removed a blood clot pressing on her brain Thursday night. Thereafter her condition was reported slightly improved.

Hollywood Police Detectives Knox Weaver and Al Goossen began an investigation to determine what it was that might have struck Miss Johnson's head in her apartment, apparently between the hours of 4:30 and 6 p. m. Monday.

The known circumstances were given reporters by Miss Johnson's friend, actress Mary Ainslee. She related that:

"Bumped My Head"
Friday afternoon Miss Johnson telephoned to say she would be a little late for a cocktail party because she was washing her hair. Miss Ainslee called at Miss Johnson's apartment about 6 p. m. to take her to the party.

Miss Johnson greeted her by saying, "I bumped my head. It hurts terribly."

Miss Johnson partially collapsed. Miss Ainslee helped her to bed and called a doctor. Miss Johnson lapsed into unconsciousness before saying how she was injured.

The actress was admitted to the hospital Thursday after Dr. Lee Siegel, her personal physician, said he tried without success for more than two days to get hospital accommodations.

American Officials Predict Disagreement On Italian Colonies

WASHINGTON—(AP)—American officials Friday gloomily predicted a new Big Four disagreement over Italy's war-lost colonies, accompanied by fresh Russian propaganda bias.

Diplomatic authorities said they see no chance for success when and if the Foreign Ministers Council tackles the issue briefly in Paris next week.

Secretary of State Marshall cleared the way for such a meeting when he told the Soviet Embassy late Thursday that the United States is "wholly agreeable" to Russia's surprise suggestion.

But Marshall said Moscow's proposal that the council reconvene Friday was "impossible because of the time element. He offered to have a representative on hand Monday.

Britain and France previously had agreed to the Russian move.

Cattleman Predicts Abundant Meat Supply

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—There will be plenty feed for cattle this Winter and plenty of meat for the United States next Spring, Bryant Edwards, president of the Texas and Southwest Cattle Raisers Association, predicted Friday.

Edwards told 50 directors attending their quarterly session that due to excellent grain and other crops, cattle raisers will have plenty of feed.

He predicted there would be plenty of meat in the Spring, but made no guess as to prices.

Thurmond Blasts Truman Program In Midland Talk

Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina brought his campaign for President of the United States on the States' Rights Party ticket to Midland Thursday afternoon, and was greeted here by a large and enthusiastic group of West Texans who crowded the mezzanine floor of Hotel Scharbauer at an informal reception given in his honor.

The presidential candidate, the first ever to visit Midland on a campaign, lashed out at his major opponent, Harry Truman, Thomas Dewey and Henry Wallace, and their platforms in a "from the heart" address which was transcribed for re-broadcast Thursday evening over KCRS, Midland, and KRIG, Odessa. The noted Southerner, whose spirited talk was interrupted again and again by applause and yells, was introduced by James N. Allison.

Governor Thurmond was cheered wildly when he said, "Harry Truman inherited the office of president; he never was elected president and he never will be."

He said the report brought in by President Truman's special committee on civil rights was "the most damnable report ever to come from a president's committee." He termed the FEPC bill "the most vicious proposal ever conceived by man."

Probers Claim Important Finds In Atom Inquiry

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, wartime boss of the Army's atomic bomb project, testified Friday at a House committee's investigation of an alleged atomic espionage plot.

The retired Army officer appeared in response to an Un-American Activities Committee subpoena. He was questioned behind closed doors.

Asked by newsmen if he had any information of value to give the committee in its spy hunt, Groves said:

"I think I can tell them a great deal about everything for which I was responsible. Unlike a good many other people, I am not dependent on files."

He said the main objective of the Manhattan project during the war "was to get the bomb so we could end the war and save American lives."

Security, he said, "was just a part" of that job.

Groves now is a vice president in charge of advanced research for the Retington Band Company.

Strike Pay Dirt
Earlier, committee members claimed to have struck pay dirt in their digging into the alleged atomic spy plot. Their findings are being kept secret as they proceed with public hearings beginning next Wednesday.

A seven-hour closed door session Thursday brought from Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) the terse announcement that "This was a very important session and the Fifth Un-American Activities Committee made 'substantial progress.'"

Thomas said he and Reps. Vail (R-IL) and McDowell (R-Pa.), who conducted the session, delved further into the Hiss-Chambers controversy and "a very important espionage case."

They called half a dozen more witnesses for Friday.

Former Air Force Officers Charged In Black Market Deals

BOSTON—(AP)—A federal grand jury Friday indicted three former Army Air Force officers and one other man on charges of dealing in $500,000 worth of bonds once held by Nazis that were peddled in a European black market.

They were indicted specifically for violating the Trading With the Enemy Act.

Federal officers said three of those indicted—Edward R. Ashton of Enfield, Conn., Gerald A. Rowland of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Seymour Lerner of Brooklyn—were officers in the Air Transport Command.

Indicted with them was Wendell M. Weston of Weston, Mass., who federal officials said helped in disposing of many of the bonds.

H. M. Phillips Found Dead Friday Morning

Herbert M. Phillips, about 55, Midland barber, was found dead Friday morning in his tent on the Cloverleaf Road.

His death was discovered by a neighbor, H. L. Hale, who reported he had gone to Phillips' tent about 7:30 a. m. to take the latter some coffee. Phillips had been in ill health some time.

Survivors include a son who lives in Odessa and a daughter in Houston. Funeral arrangements are pending.

BATON ROUGE, LA.—(AP)—President Truman's name was taken off Louisiana's ballot Friday by the Democratic State Central Committee.

MARGATE, ENGLAND — (AP) — The Trades Union Congress, backbone of Britain's ruling Labor Party, approved Friday a resolution calling on the government to increase reciprocal trade with Soviet Russia.

GRAFENWOEHR, GERMANY—(AP)—Practice maneuvers here Friday gave ample evidence that American forces now in Germany would be whipped quickly by a strong thrust from the East.

SHANGHAI — (AP) — The government Friday ordered Shanghai business and industrial enterprises to register and hand over all their foreign exchange holdings by September 19 in exchange for the newly-born gold yuan.

Stalin Guides Cautious Faction Of Communism

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK—(AP)—Why doesn't Soviet Russia attack the United States today?
I might if I were ruling Russia, and had committed my country to the presumptuous idea it could conquer the world by force.
Russia is so committed by its long-spoken adherence to Marxist evolutionary doctrine. Why doesn't it now launch a full-scale assault against the battered European remnants of Western capitalism? It has the largest peacetime army in history—and battle-trained.
The answer lies in a cautious man now living and a bold man years dead.
The living man is phlegmatic Joseph Stalin. The dead man was his old ideological enemy, Leon Trotsky, one of the intellectual sky-rockets of history.
The quarrel that divided these two inheritors of Lenin, Communism's demi-god, still is a big factor influencing the peace of the world in 1948.

Stalin Bides His Time
From his grave bearded Trotsky cries:
"Fight for the world-wide rule of the proletariat today!"
In the Kremlin Stalin, the man believed by some to be behind Trotsky's murder in Mexico, says nothing and bides his time. He waits with buffalo patience to consolidate the gains of Communism within his own country before launching his fist against the world, a fist that sometime has to be thrown or Communism will collapse in failure before the fortified fact of reformed capitalism.
But will that fist be thrown in Stalin's lifetime? I doubt it. He has missed his grand opportunity—if opportunity it was.
Stalin now is 68 years old. If he shared the eager egotism of Adolf Hitler, who set out to win the world at 30 and died without an acre at 56, he would have turned loose his tremendous hordes against Western civilization sometime between May, 1945, and now.
The fact he hasn't done so yet is the best guarantee he won't try it while he is at the helm of the Russian state. Those who disagreed with him—those who had a more aggressive attitude toward the West—have died comparatively young from mysterious ailments, like an ax through the skull, that afflict those who don't interpret him properly.

have endorsed the proposal," he said.
The governor and his party, including his attractive wife, landed at Midland Air Terminal about 2:30 p. m., and were met by a group of Midlanders headed by Richard Brooks, who was in charge of arrangements for the visit here, Allison and Henry Nixon, who served overseas with Governor Thurmond during World War II. The visitors were brought immediately to Hotel Scharbauer, where friends and supporters from Midland, Odessa and other Permian Basin cities greeted the candidate for president. The South Carolinian shook hands with several hundred persons during his two-hour stop here. The governor's plane, furnished and flown by Walker Innman of Georgetown, S. C., took off from the Midland airport for Lubbock at 4:30 p. m.
George M. McNabb, Governor Thurmond's press secretary; Sam Kinch, Fort Worth Star-Telegram correspondent, and Dawson Duncan of the Dallas Morning News, were others in the governor's party.
Condemns Proposals
Governor Thurmond, who said he was happy to be in Texas and among "his kind of folks," stated the Congress of the United States can do only those things which the constitution permits it to do, and that many proposals, including the anti-lynching and anti-poll tax proposals, sponsored by the Democratic and Republican parties, are unconstitutional.
Condemning the proposed Fair Employment Act, the speaker said America's freedom and liberty will be taken away if the proposal ever becomes a national law. He termed the act a sham and a pretense, and told of President Truman's plan of enforcement through the FBI if and when it becomes law.
The 46-year old South Carolina governor, who, as a paratrooper combat veteran, landed on the coast of Normandy on D-Day, discussed the proposed anti-poll tax legislation, the object of which he said is for the federal government to take charge of elections, and the anti-lynching proposal, which he termed a plan of federal encroachment on state courts.
He also attacked the proposed anti-race segregation proposal, and said the United States is not ready to bring about an amalgamation of the races.
"If any state wants to adopt any of these measures it is not their right and privilege, but it is not the business of the United States Congress to enact such measures," he declared.
Battle For America
He said Truman had ordered the Army to abolish race segregation against the advice and recommendation of the Army itself.
Governor Thurmond said the States' Rights candidates are fighting such unconstitutional proposals, and are waging a battle for America.
"If elected we will use our power for the good of America, and if not elected we hope our fight will have crystallized the thinking of real Americans to the point where Congress will not pass such unconstitutional laws as recommended by our opponents," Thurmond said.

Sailor Says Faith In Christ Prompts Murder Confession
HOUSTON—(AP)—Prompted by his newly-found faith in Christ, a 21-year-old sailor hitch-hiked here from California to complete his confession of the murder of T. W. Hightower, 55, who was killed July 12, 1947, in his liquor store on the Humble Road near Humble.
After hours of conference with District Attorney A. C. Winborn, the sailor, John Reginald Robertson, gave the names of two youths who he said accompanied him to the Log Cabir Liquor Store to hijack Hightower's store and a deputy sheriff arrested the other boys.
They made written statements concerning the slaying and robbery.
Charges of murder and robbery by firearms were filed in Justice W. C. Ragan's court against Robertson, Dow Benson Little, 18, and Randal David Duncan, 17.
"This is no confession I am making," Robertson said repeatedly. "When I received Christ into my heart, my conscience was cleared of this killing. I am no longer guilty in the eyes of God. My task now is to make things straight in the eyes of man."

Annual Football Luncheon Held
The Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce held its annual football season kickoff luncheon Friday noon in the Scharbauer Hotel. Special guests were members of the high school coaching staff.
R. L. (Bob) Wood introduced Barnes Milam, head football coach at Midland High School, who was the speaker. Other members of the staff present were Audrey Gill, Jack Mashburn, Carl Knox and Joe Aiken, Frank Monroe, high school superintendent, was also a special guest.
Milam said "Midland is building a system. Within a year or so we will go into high gear, whereas in the past we may have been in low. Our system begins in the elementary schools, where there will be competitive football. We have three coaches for elementary footballers. We have three coaches in junior high and five in high school."
Milam made no prediction of the outcome of Friday night's game. He promised his eleven would be out to win in a sportsmanlike manner.
Irby Dyer presided at the luncheon for Riley Parr, president who could not attend.

20 Yugoslav Soldiers Killed By Greek Troops
ATHENS—(AP)—The government announced Friday that 20 Yugoslav soldiers were killed by Greek troops when a Yugoslav force entered Greece with Communist Rebels two days ago.

With 30,000 people watching, 500 men completely modernized Mrs. Nellie Thrasher's 175-acre farm in Frederick, Md., in one day. Feature of "Maryland Conservation Field Day," the demonstration included building a barn, a pond and new drainage ditches, repairing her house, trees, roads and fences, and terracing and fertilizing her fields.

Burglar Alarm Test Disappoints Crowd
Downtown Midland was peaceful enough at 10 p. m. Thursday. A few window shoppers and weather prophets were milling about the sidewalks. Then suddenly heads came up, necks craned, idle conversation ceased, as an erratic bell clanged out into the night.
"Fire!" whispered a started voice.
"Nope, ambulance."
"Neither one," said another. "The sound ain't moving. It's coming from there."
The group turned, followed the direction of his gesture—the First National Bank. It was a burglar alarm!
Two level-clad youngsters were the first to move. Then the rest followed, some running, a few striking up a dog-trot, most stretching their legs into a speedy walk, but all heading for the bank, intent on heretofore capturing bank robbers—any number of them, "tommy guns" and all.
The bell rang on, drawing a larger, more enthusiastic crowd. A strong hush surrounded the bank. No one knew what to do except look into the windows and talk. That's what they did.
At length the ringing stopped, and two men sauntered out of the side door. They noticed the excited crowd.
"Just testing the alarm," they announced.
The information buzzed throughout the crowd.
"Aw . . . just testing."
"Well, I'll be darned! Just trying the fool thing out."
People began leaving. After the crowd thinned out, a police car arrived on the scene, and a patrolman worked himself out from behind the steering wheel and ambled over.
The situation was quickly explained to him.
"Testing it!" he blurted, glancing around at the victims of a false alarm. "Well," he muttered as he went back toward his automobile, "it works."

New Efforts Hold Small Hope Of Ending Walkouts

By The Associated Press
New efforts were made Friday to end crippling strikes in the oil, shipping and trucking industries but hopes of early settlement appeared dim.
In San Francisco, leaders of striking CIO Longshoremen counted ballots Friday to determine if the union wanted them to sign non-Communist affidavits and to accept the West Coast employers' last offer—long since withdrawn.
The first tabulation came from Seattle, where the union announced a vote of 1,468 in 19 against its leaders signing the affidavits.
Negotiations were resumed by all six major struck oil companies with CIO Oil Workers and state conciliators in an effort to end the week-old California refinery walkout.
Meanwhile there were these other developments:
Reese Taylor, president of the Union Oil Company, announced in Los Angeles that 1,000,000 gallons of oil were being shipped to Los Angeles from the mid-West.
The federal government announced a temporary embargo on the export of gasoline and other oils from West Coast ports.
In New York, striking truckers have to decide whether to reduce their wage demands in a move to break a 10-day deadlock with employers.
A union membership meeting was called for Friday afternoon to consider the compromise formula, recommended by leaders of striking Local 807 of the AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters.
There were indications, however, that the 10,000 idle New York City drivers and helpers might not approve the proposal, which calls for scaling down of wage-increase demands from 25 cents to 17 1/2 cents an hour.

Less Trouble With Men
Among the new transports is the Consolidated-Vultee XC-99—transport sister of the B-36 bomber—which the Air Force claims is "the world's largest land plane." It can carry 90 fully equipped combat troops or 50 tons of cargo.
The Air Force is having much less trouble getting men than in building up its fleet of planes, with big production orders just getting underway. Some like big-scale orders for the XB-47, are yet to be signed.
It reports its strength now at more than 400,000 men and officers, an increase of 89,000 in the last year. And it expects to have no difficulty in attaining the 444,500-man strength the budget will allow by next June 30. Indeed, it has spurred the draft and is relying on volunteer recruiting.

He's Had Seven Operations

Robert Earl Bowen, pictured here with his mother, Mrs. George Bowen of Midland, is a healthy youngster—when he's not busy having an operation. He's had seven, although he is less than three years old. Born Feb. 23, 1946, Robert was operated on in Fort Worth for pyloric stenosis (closing of a tube leading into the stomach) less than two weeks later. By Aug. 6, 1946, he had undergone the same operation five times. Last March, he had an operation for hernia and fought off an attack of pneumonia at the same time. A few days ago, Robert was released from Western Clinic-Hospital here after another hernia operation. He's an active, exuberant youngster who likes to play, but his parents have been advised he may have to undergo still other hernia operation.

Youngster Needs Own Small Grooming Aids

Small-scale grooming aids such as soft plastic curlers and brush encourage a little girl to care for her hair herself.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

If you want your small daughter to take more pride in her good grooming, try giving her the small-scale aids she needs to care for her hair herself. Teach her a simple routine to follow with which unskilled little hands can cope.

One that is not too difficult for little fingers to swing includes bushing with a small, firm-bristled brush and combing out tangles with a round-toothed comb sized to fit a youthful grasp.

Other small-scale aids which will satisfy a future glamor girl's yearning for curler locks are miniature, easily manipulated, vinylite plastic hair curlers. Because these devices are soft and flexible, they won't frizz baby-fine hair.

With such curlers, hair is gently waved rather than stiffly curled. As a little beauty's hands develop more skill, show her how to cleave her locks into a straight part, to braid pigtails. Shampoos, however, are better left to more thorough adult hands.

U. S. Girl To Be In Dutch Wedding

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Margaret Cartwright, pretty 23-year-old assistant bank librarian, is going to Europe to be a bridesmaid for a Dutch girl she's never seen. Two years ago Margaret began corresponding with Lizeke de Brauw, daughter of Baron Albert de Brauw, one-time mayor of The Hague.

Their international friendship developed after an American soldier told Margaret that Lizeke would like to correspond with someone in the states.

Since then, they've found a lot of mutual interests. For one thing, Margaret likes art—and Lizeke has been working in an art museum. A few days ago Lizeke wrote that she's getting married and wouldn't it be lovely if Margaret could be a bridesmaid? It would, Margaret agreed. She secured a three-month leave of absence from the Peoples First National Bank to make the trip.

Two Beta Sigma Phi Chapters Open Year With Plans For Style Show

Initial Fall meetings for two chapters of Beta Sigma Phi were conducted Thursday night, and both turned their attention to plans for the benefit style show which the three Midland chapters will sponsor September 27.

Iota Beta Chapter, meeting in the American Legion Hall, discussed proposed activities of the new year including the style show, and heard two program talks, "The Sorority Woman," by Lou Lemley, and "Formation of Greek Letter Societies," by Mrs. Kenneth C. Heald.

Guest From California

Mrs. Bryan L. Denson, a member of a California chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, was a guest. Members present included Mrs. John D. Beal, Mrs. Alton Brown, Mrs. Jimmie T. Gaines, Mrs. Richard McKnight, Mrs. James T. Morris, Mrs. Ernest Nance, Mrs. John W. Rhoden, Mrs. Mary Ellen Wood, Mrs. Otto Wink, Mrs. J. DeLo Douglas, Mrs. W. E. Sloan.

Gwendolyn Berry, Nellie Clark, Ruby Gilbert, Lailara Harbison, Melba Knipping, Norma Middlebrook, Miriam Parks, Fatsy Parkey, Dorothy Raines, Mary Watson, Dixie Lou Wilson, Lorene Wood and Joyce Jones.

Xi Theta Chapter devoted its entire evening to a business meeting conducted by Dorothy Hamilton, president. Mrs. R. H. Frizzell, Jr., was elected as the Xi Theta representative to the City-County Federation, with Mrs. Lloyd Zeller as alternate.

A crested crystal bride's tray was presented to Mrs. Arnold E. O'Neill, the former Dorothy Sain, as a gift from the chapter.

Program schedules for the year were distributed by Mrs. A. L. Barr, program chairman, to Mrs. Jack K. Doran, Mrs. J. H. Pine, Mrs. Art Dimmy, Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. James H. Walker, Mrs. Riley Parr, Mrs. G. B. Hallman, Mrs. Zeller, Mrs. Frizzell.

Rankin B&PW Club Has Regular Meet

RANKIN—The Rankin Business and Professional Women's Club met Thursday noon in the private dining room of the City Cafe for its monthly business-luncheon.

Mrs. Luella January provided pre-luncheon music, and Mrs. Leah Johnson pronounced the invocation. Yellow daisies, the club flower, arranged with maiden hair fern and pots of ivy decorated the U-shaped tables. Twenty-two were served.

President Lelia Workman presided. Following the business session Misses Nettleton and Quiet sang "The Bells of St. Mary's," accompanied by Mrs. Virginia Ivy, and Mrs. Clara Hill gave an illustrated talk on the conducted tour of the Northern states, Canada and Alaska.

Two new members, Flora Shaw and Christine Yocham, were voted into the organization.

Guests other than those on the program for the luncheon were Flora Shaw and Ann Workman.

Two-City Walther League Has Meeting

Meeting in the Odessa Lutheran Church Wednesday night, the Redeemer-Grace Walther League of Midland and Odessa heard a discussion by the Rev. Glynn C. Kollmeyer, Odessa pastor, on "Christian Stewardship."

Marie Meissner spoke on "Advantages of Proportionate Giving Over the Dues Method," and the league voted to try the method for six months.

The business meeting opened with a prayer by the Odessa pastor and a hymn and closed with the Lord's prayer. Four guests, Eugene Johnson, Ruth Blair, Walter Nauert and Johnie Reich, were present with 17 members.

IN HOLLYWOOD

Apparently Tyrone Has Passed That 'Point Of No Return'

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—Life is so cozy for Tyrone Power department (or No Escape): Linda Christian's mother, Mrs. Amesquita Alvarez, is expecting a baby in October. If it's a boy, he'll be named Tyrone.

Valentin PARRERA, husband of the late Grace Moore, will marry a French actress late this year.

RETONGA GREATEST EVENT OF HIS LIFE DECLARES TEXAS MAN

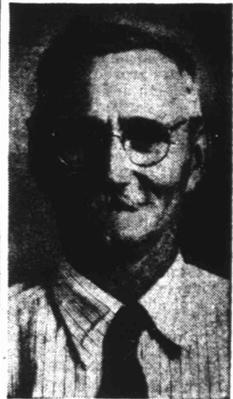

Could Hardly Bear Aches And Pains In Muscles And Hips. Also Suffered Tortures from Bloating And Constipation. Feels Fine Now and Hails Retonga.

"I felt better the very first day that I started taking Retonga," gratefully states Mr. Robert H. Ely, widely-known resident of 2806 Rues St., Fort Worth, Texas.

"I suffered torment from aches and pains in my muscles and hips," continues Mr. Ely. "In fact, it reached the point where I could hardly get along, even with the aid of crutches. I dreaded for night to come, for I knew that I would be lucky if I got just a few cat-naps. After nearly every meal I would have that full, bloated feeling in my stomach. I had to use strong laxatives continually and I lost so much weight I was beginning to look like a skeleton."

"The relief Retonga brought me was one of the greatest events of my life. Within a short while the aches and pains left and I began to go as I pleased. I sleep good, eat heartily without bad after effects, no longer use strong laxatives, and I have regained 15 pounds. My friends all ask me what I have been doing to look so much better and only one word gives them the answer—Retonga."

Retonga is intended to relieve dis-

Pioneer Wins Its Spurs

Pioneer Air Lines, a Texas concern which serves Midland and numerous other points in Texas and New Mexico, has completed three years of operation under a temporary certificate granted by the Civil Aeronautics Board on what might be termed a trial basis.

The airline now seeks a permanent certificate on the grounds it has carried out the policies of the CAB, and has provided needed, efficient and safe air transport service to the various cities on its route. A hearing is scheduled this month.

Judging from the company's Midland operation and from the airline's annual report, we would say Pioneer surely has proved its worth and has demonstrated clearly its intention and ability to operate as a permanently certified air carrier. In other words, Pioneer has won its spurs, and should be granted a permanent certificate.

The business enjoyed by the airline from Midland Air Terminal should be proof enough of the need and efficiency of Pioneer service here. Transportation to and from Midland would be severely handicapped should the service be discontinued.

The company's annual report for last year points out the progress made in each phase of company operations has established Pioneer Air Lines as a going concern. The airline, in a year of rising costs which burdened the industry and eliminated profits for many carriers, ended 1947 by showing a profit.

During 1947 the company increased from 20,687 to 62,698 the number of persons it flew to their destinations. The average number of flights available to and from each city was increased to almost triple the service provided daily in 1946. The number of planes in the fleet was doubled during the year, the report said.

Pioneer has come a long way in three years. But what the airline has done is told in a brief, which accompanied its application to the CAB, as follows:

It has provided an efficient and safe air transport service on schedules best designed to serve the local convenience and necessity;

It has demonstrated its capacity for honest, efficient and economical management;

It has contributed to the development of a sound air transport system, as required by the foreign and domestic commerce of the United States, the postal service, and the national defense;

It has demonstrated a lessening tendency to rely upon government support in the form of air mail payments for its continued operating success;

It has consistently demonstrated its ability to operate economically, while developing many new operating techniques designed to increase the efficiency of operations.

The Civil Aeronautics Board should grant Pioneer a permanent operations certificate.

Building Contractors Get Most Assistance From Housing Bill

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—New housing bill amendments passed by the special session of Congress provide several aids to builders. Buyers get no direct benefits, though it is hoped builders will be able to lower their prices.

In the case of pre-fabs, prospective purchasers apply for a loan just as for conventional-type housing, as explained in earlier articles of this series. Take the case of a man wanting to buy a pre-fab given a long-term value of $9,000 by FEA—the Federal Housing Administration. He goes to a lending institution which through FEA can get guarantees for a loan of 90 per cent on the first $7,000, 80 per cent on the top $2,000. This totals $7,900. The buyer will need $1,100 cash. His loan will run for 25 years at five per cent. Monthly payments would be $45.90.

Under the new law, when the agent or dealer gets a signed contract for this house, he can take it to a bank and apply for an FHA-insured, 180-day five per cent loan for 80 per cent of the manufacturer's price to the dealer. Allowing the dealer a 10 per cent profit on a house selling for $9,000, this would make the price to the dealer about $8,200 in round numbers. Eighty per cent of that would be $6,560.

With this short-term loan the dealer could prepare site and cover his erection costs. He would repay the loan when the purchaser got his loan from the bank, within 30 days after house completion.

As under the old law, the pre-fab manufacturer can get an FHA guaranteed loan for 90 per cent of his costs of production, less profit. Take the example above, where manufacturer's price to dealer was $8,200. Allowing the manufacturer 10 per cent profit on this figure, his net costs for this unit would be $7,450. It would cover his costs for materials and labor in production. He would pay off the loan when the dealer paid him.

Mass-production on-site builders have had no government assistance heretofore. The new housing bill tackles this problem by guaranteeing construction loans to builders. On any project for 25 or more new, single-family houses, FEA will insure a loan for up to 80 per cent of the complete cost of each unit—up to a maximum of $6,000 per unit—with interest at four per cent. There are a couple gimmicks in the new law intended to promote construction of more housing for rental. They're pretty technical. One is a provision authorizing FEA to insure rental housing mortgages until March 31, 1949, on the basis of 90 per cent of the replacement cost as of Dec. 31, 1947, instead of on the basis of actual cost today. The net effect is to allow the government to insure a larger mortgage, but on a somewhat less liberal basis.

The former mortgage limit of $1,800 a room has been raised to $3,100 for each family unit. This is an advantage to builders in the erection of rental housing projects for both large and small family units. It will not apply to builders of one or two-room bachelor or efficiency apartments. A further requirement of the new law is that no mortgage will be insured unless the builder takes an oath that in selecting tenants, he will not bar families with children.

The old maximum loan guarantee limit of $3,000,000 has been raised to $50,000,000, to encourage building of bigger developments. Terms of these loans have been liberalized.

In areas where FEA determines there is an exceptional need for low-rent housing, or for a veterans' cooperative housing project, a 90 per cent of Dec. 31, 1947, construction costs may now be insured.

What all these liberalized terms mean in the long run is simply that rents will have to be higher to meet the increased costs.

Most experimental provision of the new housing bill sets up a system of "yield insurance" for investors in housing projects "for families of moderate means." This provision would guarantee profits of two and three-quarters per cent. It was lifted from the original Taft-Ellender-Wagner Bill. Nobody knows how it's going to work.

Miss Texas Makes Bid For Finals In Atlantic City Event

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. —(AP)—Miss Texas, green-eyed Bonnie Jean Bland of Orange, reveals her self-designed evening gown in the Miss America pageant Friday night.

The blonde Miss Bland appeared in the bathing suit review Thursday night. An audience of 10,000 greeted her appearance with applause.

Miss Bland wore the official black and white striped, one-piece bathing suit. Her bust measurement is 34 inches, waist 24 inches and hips 35 inches.

The judges will tally up points after Friday night's evening gown review. Saturday they will announce 15 finalists. Each will share in the $25,000 worth of scholarships offered by the contest with $5,000 going to Miss America.

Miss Texas' appearance in the pageant here climaxes a series of beauty contests. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Bland is currently a sweetheart nominee of the University of Texas, the University's Aqua Carnival queen and sweetheart of the Orange, Texas, Lions Club.

Texas Harvests Cotton Crop Without Need For Mexican Pickers

DALLAS—(AP)—Texas will harvest its cotton crop this year without Mexican pickers and won't need them at all after 1950, the executive secretary of the Texas Cotton Ginners Association declared here.

Jay C. Stillely said the Texas crop is being harvested adequately this year by about 30,000 pickers, instead of the 45,000 usually employed when Mexican help was available.

He said this is possible because growers have agreed to work longer weeks and to release workers as soon as possible.

Stillely said widespread introduction of mechanical cotton pickers into Texas during the next two years finally will rule out all need for Mexican help.

"By 1950," he said, "these machines will be doing fully 50 per cent of the harvest work over the state."

"Our normal supply of labor will easily take care of the other 50 per cent."

★ THE DOCTOR SAYS ★

More Institutions Needed As Number Of Aged Increases

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D. Written for NEA Service

No one likes to grow old, but there is nothing that can be done to prevent it. The change from a vigorous, healthy person into a feeble and sometimes ailing one is distressing to family and friends, as well as to the individual personally.

Women, in general, have a considerably greater hold on life than men do. There are, in other words, many more old women than there are old men.

In other respects, however, women in their older years are not so fortunate. A high proportion of women over 85 suffer from the effects of a decline of function in the inner ear and the connections of this organ with the brain.

Nearly three out of four women of this age or over suffer from dizziness, a liability to tumble, and, even more, from difficulty in getting around in the dark. A high proportion—nearly 70 out of 100—are deaf.

Men May Be Luckier. These are not happy qualities, and the combination of dizziness and difficulty in getting about in the dark enormously increases the danger to elderly women of broken bones. Men, who live to this age, suffer in a similar way but there is some question whether they are as liable to serious ear difficulties as the women.

Particularly important is the increasing number of elderly people in our population. This means that more and more vigorous adults are becoming responsible for aging parents. More homes and institutions, capable of caring comfortably and happily for the increasing number of us who are living into old age, would help to reduce this burden.

Q—What was the first book in which the character Sherlock Holmes appeared? A—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle introduced Sherlock Holmes in "A Study in Scarlet," published in 1887.

Q—How did the Marathon race get its name and distance? A—The name derives from the celebrated run made between Marathon and Athens by Pheidippides to inform the Athenians of the Greek victory. The distance for this race has been set at 26 miles, 385 yards, somewhat longer than the distance covered by the original Marathon runner.

Q—In writing AD and BC what is the correct position of these abbreviations? A—In dates, AD precedes the year and BC follows the year, as AD 35 and 4000 BC.

Q—Who said, "There is no royal road to learning"? A—The famous mathematician Euclid, upon being asked by Ptolemy Soter, his pupil, if geometry could not be made easier, replied, "There is no royal road to learning."

Q—How old is palmyristy? A—Its origin is not definitely known, but palmyristy existed in China 300 years before Christ and most ancient Greek writings make mention of it.

Townsend Will Join Longhorns

ODESSA — (AP) — Byron Townsend, Odessa's all-state back last year and the outstanding schoolboy football player of the year, is going to the University of Texas. Townsend announced Thursday he would enter Texas. "I think it is the best place to go," he said. Townsend had declared previously that he would attend some Southwest Conference school and not go outside the circuit. Oklahoma was known to have actively sought the 185-pound backfield star. Townsend was selected as the outstanding football player in Texas high schools by vote of the Texas Sports Writers Association. The Odessa back was chosen all-state in 1946 and 1947. In 1946 he led Odessa to the state title. Last year Odessa was defeated by Highland Park of Dallas in the semifinals. He also is an all-around track star.

Closing Series Of '48 Season On Tap Friday

By The Associated Press
Texas League teams open their last series of the 1948 season Friday night. The final three games have Oklahoma City at Dallas, Beaumont at Shreveport, San Antonio at Houston, and Tulsa at Fort Worth. Rain washed out half of the schedule Thursday night. The Beaumont-San Antonio and Shreveport-Houston games were postponed. Tulsa edged Dallas 3-2 in ten innings in the final meeting of the two teams, and Mike Garcia set Fort Worth down with one hit as Oklahoma City took a 1-0 decision. Al Vincent scored the winning run that beat his old Dallas charges. The Tulsa manager went into the game as a pinch-runner. A crowd of 2,960 boosted attendance at Tulsa this year to a new high—223,469. Carl Kennedy's triple scored Johnny Hernandez in the second inning with the run that beat Fort Worth. George Schmees' single in the eighth inning was the only hit off Garcia.

Some 8,000,000 feet were cut annually at the peak of the timber cutting in Wisconsin.

Big Spring squared its Longhorn League playoff series with Vernon Thursday night and Midland went one up on Odessa. The Big Spring Broncs handed Vernon a 4-2 beating to even the series at one game each. Midland beat Odessa 7-3 in the first game of the four-out-of-seven series. Friday night Vernon plays at Big Spring and Midland-Odessa take a night off. They will resume play Saturday at Odessa. Clyde Perry's double and three singles led a 13-hit Midland attack against two Odessa hurlers, Johnny Faucett homered for Odessa in the seventh. Big Spring erased a first-inning Vernon lead with two runs in the second, added another in the fourth on Will Ross's home run and sewed up the game with one more in the ninth. Vernon's other run came in the eighth off one hit and two walks.

Midland Bulldogs Open 1948 Football Season Friday Night

The Midland Bulldogs come out fighting Friday at 8 p. m. when they meet the Ysleta Indians in the opening game of the 1948 season in new Memorial Stadium here. It's an important game for the young and inexperienced Bulldogs. They have a great spirit and play together. Friday night will see how they work under fire. There is not much to choose between the two teams. Weight is about even. Ysleta 4-AA has more experience and a potent passer in Gillis. Last year the Indians scalped Midland with a last-minute pass which won 13-7. But the Bulldogs are at home this time and seek revenge. Coach Glen Jordan and his Ysleta boys arrived in Midland late Thursday. The Bulldogs took a tapering drill Thursday, working on game techniques of kicking off, receiving and the formations for various procedures. Coach Barnes Milam's Purple wearers are in fair shape for the opener. Larry Buckingham, letter back, still favors an ankle injury but will see action. Starters Named Expected to start for Midland are: Gene Hill and Lloyd Henderson, ends; Don Deal and Dan Branham, tackles; Jack Lynch and John Greene, guards; Dick Miller, center; Cecil Stephens, Larry Messersmith, Bill Little and Dee Bivens, backs. Branham, a powerhouse lineman, is the only starter from last year on this eleven. However, several of the starters played a lot last year including Little, Henderson, Messersmith and Bivens. Stephens dropped out of football last year after winning a starter's berth. All the chills and spills and thrills of the opening football game of the season are promised Friday night. A fine, new plant (stadium) is ready to be used. Midland would like to break it in with a victory. Ysleta would like to spoil this. Come and see.

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, SEPT. 10, 1948-5

PLAY AGAIN SATURDAY— Tribe Takes Opener 7-3

The second Shaughnessy playoff game between the Midland Indians and the Odessa Oilers will be played at 8:15 p. m. Saturday in Oiler Park at Odessa. Then the two clubs move to Midland for two games and three if necessary. Sunday afternoon gametime will be 4 p. m. Monday night's battle is slated at 8:15 p. m. in Indian Park. The clubs are down and every game counts for the most as these two "geographically" hot rivals fight to win four out of seven games and take the first round of the playoff. It will be Leiland Crisman, Odessa fireballer, on the mound Saturday night for Midland. Sidelux is expected to fire Ernie Facco. ODESSA—Playing errorless baseball behind the little pitching master, Ernie Nelson, and toting heavy war clubs, the Midland Indians won the opening game of the Longhorn League Shaughnessy playoff here Thursday night 7-3. Rained out Wednesday night, the two clubs went at each other in full force Thursday. And it was all Midland. Nelson kept nine safeties. The Oilers fairly well scattered and one of the runs he allowed was a homer by Pop Faucett in the seventh frame. He walked three Oilers, two of them in the ninth inning. He threw his pesky curve and a slider to keep the Odessans subdued all night. Midland played smart baseball to win. Except for its nine hits, Odessa did not get a ball out of the infield.

3-AA Teams Open Friday

All 3-AA eleven's swing into action Friday night. In Midland, Barnes Milam's Bulldogs open up in a new stadium against the 4-AA Ysleta Indians. The Sweetwater Mustangs go North to Vernon. Pat Gerald, coach of the Ponies, formerly coached the Vernon Lions. Big Spring's lightly regarded Stars take on the Brownwood eleven at Brownwood. San Angelo's Bobcats host the Denison Yellowjackets in one of the top area attractions. Lamesa debates with Class A Pecos at Lamesa. The Golden Tornadoes will be out for a win, having lost to Class A Seminole 6-0 last weekend.

Pep Solid Favorite Over De Marco In Non-Title Scramble

NEW YORK — (AP) — Paddy De Marco of Brooklyn, a rising star in the lightweight class, makes his most important start Friday night at Madison Square Garden against featherweight Champion Willie Pep of Hartford, Conn., in a non-title 10-rounder. Winner of 32 fights in 34 starts in a professional career dating back to 1945, De Marco comes up to the Pep scrap with a string of 21 straight victories. The most impressive links in that success chain were two decisions over Terry Young, rugged New York veteran. De Marco, who finished training at 134 1/2 pounds, had a weight pull on the 128-pound champion who has lost only once, to Sammy Angott, in 133 outings. Now 20-year-old Paddy makes the big step taking on Pep, who is one of the best fighting men of the day. A slick boxer who has a good wallop for a featherweight, the Hartford stylist is a solid 5 to 13 choice to rack up another scalp.

DOWN SPORTS LANE

with TANNER LAINE

One thing we like about this 1948 MHS football team it isn't composed of a bunch of stars—individual standout performers, that is. It's a team — all for one and one for all. That's good, brother. Such a team is apt to go farther than one with a luminary to nurse. One weakness of Midland in recent years has been the dependence on one griddler. If he went, the team might go. If he didn't, the team was licked before it hardly began. There is not a boy on the 1948 eleven one could single out and say, "here is the fair-haired lad, an absolutely necessary." Of course there will be boys, who make touchdowns and outstanding plays, but there are apt to be several of them. Or any given night, any given boy on the team might become the hero of the ball game. The team with a hot-shot star is more vulnerable. Knock out its ace and it is whipped. We are grateful Midland isn't such a team this season. Go to it tonight, kids, and play together. That's the best way to do it.

To say, Midland fans were not pleased with the antics of the Big Spring Broncs here in the Labor Day double-header is putting it too mildly. The fans were disgusted. And we have this to say to the scribes, that riding piggy-back across home plate, supposedly scoring two runs at once, would have resulted in a protest but for the lateness of the season. It is illegal. Traspusius Bosch, Perez and company have been mighty cutie-pie all season. The sickening thing of it is, they got away with it. They evidently knew that the Longhorn League was run from right field by their ball club in the person of Pat Stacey, who can tell Howard Green to fly to the moon sideways and Green will try it. There were several little tricks performed by the Broncs in the double-header which angered the fans. But the umpires seemed to be their same old inactive selves. Or perhaps they had been instructed: "You cannot harm the Cubans. They must be glove-handled." Had we been Umpire Richards when Bosch came over and snatched the ball out of our hand and a threw it to the pitcher as if to say—"I said it was okay, go ahead"—we would have thrown Bosch so far out that ball park it would take a dollar to send him a postcard. And Tony's trick of wearing two caps and two gloves might have provoked a laugh from his ardent Big Spring lovers but it didn't get a smile out of us. It was unbecomingly and not constructive to good baseball.

All season the Broncs have stalled. We never saw an umpire speed them up or even question them. If the Big Spring Broncs have special licenses to stall and act cute—Longhorn League president, we would like to know why? The once - postponed Delbert Downing-Sportlane skeet shooting match it slated at 4 p. m. Friday. Downing insulted this corner with a letter Thursday in which he said skeets were not led by the shooter but were thrown from a house. Downing says skeets fly. In our case the Downing, the skeets you shoot at will go unmoistened on in unbroken flight. Downing will be coached by Jim Mascho. Sportsfans will use shells and guns and advice of George Class. Any rookie in Midland wishing to try a hand at skeet shooting can come out to the Midland Gun Club and take the winner. And that will be me.

MAJOR LEAGUES— Rex Barney Hurls First National Loop No-Hitter

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The greatest pennant races in major league history were forced to play second fiddle Friday to a 23-year-old, rosy-cheeked Omaha boy who only a few short months ago was struggling to stay in the big time. This tall youngster from Nebraska, blond-haired Rex Barney, rapped loudly on the door to pitching greatness Thursday when he hurled a no-run, no-hit game against the New York Giants. It was the first of the 1948 National League season and the second in the majors. Barney's superlative pitching enabled the Brooklyn Dodgers to defeat the Giants 2-0 at the Polo Grounds and advance to within three and a half games of the league leading Boston Braves. There have been 89 other no-hitters tossed in the majors since the turn of the century, but Barney's mound masterpiece, is set apart from all others, for it was achieved at the expense of what has generally been rated the hardest hitting ball club in modern times. Yet this heralded wrecking crew did not come close to connecting for a base hit against Barney's fireball delivery. There wasn't a difficult chance handed by a Dodger fielder. Only six balls were hit to the outfield. Only five were hit solidly, two traveling 400 feet or better, but all were routine outs. Only four Giants reached base as Barney faced 29 batters in winning his 13th victory. He fanned four. Five others were out on pop fouls. Two New Yorkers got on via walks and two on Brooklyn errors.

Dukes Even Up With Pampa As Amarillo Wins

By The Associated Press
Amarillo used Joe Budny's four-hit pitching and three home runs to take the first game of its West Texas-New Mexico League playoff with Lubbock 8-2. Albuquerque evened its playoff series with Pampa at one game each on a 6-3 victory Thursday night. Friday night Albuquerque and Pampa play at Pampa and Lubbock continues at Amarillo. Bob Crues socked his 70th home run of the year and Paul Halter and Dick Gentzow hit for the circuit for Amarillo. Don Moore spoiled Budny's shutout with a two-run homer in the fifth. Albuquerque came from behind to defeat Pampa. The Oilers got a run in the first and added two more in the third on a walk, a double by Joe Fortin and a triple by Ray Parker. Albuquerque broke loose for two runs in the third and got another in the fifth. The Dukes got two more in the seventh on a walk, Ron Bowen's triple and Frank Shone's outfield fly, and added another for good measure in the eighth.

Four Ball Event Has Co-Medalist

ODESSA — (AP) — The West Texas Four Ball golf tournament swings into first round play Friday with co-medalists. Bob Watson and Coyal Francis of Wichita Falls and Bill Roden and Bob French of Odessa tied for medal honors Thursday with scores of 67. Watson and Francis meet Sam Reynolds, Wichita Falls, and Billy Maxwell, Abilene, in first round play. Roden and French meet Van Ligon, Midland, and Leroy Branham, San Antonio. Dick Martin, Dallas, Don Cherry, Wichita Falls, Earl Stewart, Longview, and Maxwell carded 68s Thursday. Galvin Rhodes and Arthur Corbin, Dallas, L. M. Crannell, Denton, and Joe Conrad, San Antonio, had 68s.

STANTON NEWS

STANTON—Mrs. J. J. Mills is visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. J. Harrison, in Dallas. She went to attend the wedding of her granddaughter, Dona Lou Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Massey and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McGreil have returned from a family reunion at Fall Creek in Hood County, where about 80 members of the family gathered. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Prickett and daughters, who had been visiting in Arkansas, stopped at Fall Creek for the reunion on their way home.

Mrs. Monte Queen of Costa Mesa, Calif., is visiting her son, Jack Arrington, and Mrs. Arrington.

A play will be presented at 8:15 p. m. Friday in the grammar school auditorium by women of the Friendship Club of the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Edwards and family were recent visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hardy, at Garden City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nowlin and children spent several days in Christoval recently. In another party in Christoval over the weekend were Mrs. Sage Free, Mrs. Lloyd Odum, Mrs. Mace Howard, Leroy

Midland Firemen Will Raise Funds To Buy Portable Iron Lung

Starting next week Midland firemen will launch a drive to raise money for a $1,200 portable iron lung, it was announced Friday.

The lung, called a Mullikin Respiator, is of a compact type which can be used anywhere. It may be operated by electricity or by hand. All firemen of the department will be trained to use it in any emergency where it is needed.

Such emergencies include those in which a person is overcome by gas, smoke, heat, or other causes. Also, the machine could be used in emergency polio treatment.

One of the respirator's advantages is that it can be used while transporting a patient from one place to another. For example, a child stricken with polio might be kept breathing by use of the lung while being taken to a hospital.

Firemen will make personal calls on business offices in the downtown area, as well as calls on individual citizens. The department also will send Midlanders sheets of gummed seals, and recipients will be invited to send contributions to the fire station.

Melons In Alaska Yield Little Profit

FAIRBANKS, ALASKA—(AP)—California watermelons, trucked from the Imperial Valley to this Yukon boom city, paid for the Alaska vacation of Ed Watkins of Los Angeles.

The fruit and vegetable dealer reports, however, that it can't be sold. Trucks headed for the territory carry a one-way payload. There is nothing waiting here to be trucked to the States.

Watkins' trip was just a holiday idea. He headed north with six tons of melons and no particular destination in mind. The truck stayed together, so he kept going.

Twelve days out of the Imperial Valley, Watkins pulled into Fairbanks, sweating in mid-90 temperature.

The melons had cost $70 a ton. The first week his selling price was 25 cents a pound. Later he dropped the tag to 10 cents.

What looks like a sizable profit shrinks quickly when trip costs are tallied. The truck clocked off 4,000 miles coming in. It's just as far going home. Gasoline stations along the northern half of the distance pump fuel at 66 cents a gallon. Oil, tires and repair parts are equally high. The Canadian road tax must be figured. Watkins' was $45.

A risk of the trade is the possibility of losing all of the perishable cargo if the truck breaks down. "You can't sell your load," explains Watkins, "if you break down in Canada." The Canadian government has an embargo on U. S. farm produce. The duty is too high for a profitable sale.

Singing Convention Observes Anniversary

SNYDER—One of the fastest growing organizations in this area, the Eight-County Singing Convention, will observe its second birthday anniversary Saturday with an all-night singing in the main auditorium of the Snyder North Side Baptist Church.

J. Lawrence Deavers, president, and James Patrick, vice president, report the roundup in gospel song will be staged in the new $20,000 air-conditioned church auditorium.

The convention was organized two years ago. It was conducted sometime as the Four-County Singing Convention.

Countries included in the convention are Scurry, Mitchell, Dawson, Howard, Martin, Coke, Nolan and Midland.

First Aid For The Law

KANSAS CITY—(AP)—Police found it rather easy to trace a driver after a recent accident near here.

Edward M. Nyflor of Lansing, Kan., reported that his car had been side-swiped and forced off the road by a vehicle which, he said, failed to stop after the accident.

The only tangible clue to the identity of the driver was his automobile license tag, which apparently fell off the car in the impact.

HUNGRY RACE HORSES GET BAD NAME AT SEA

SYDNEY—(AP)—Race horses are getting a bad name in these parts. Meshhead, former in board stallion, bit the boss's ear on board ship when it was traveling from England to Melbourne. Tori Bin, five-year-old mare, bit off the left thumb of her trainer Leslie Perkins at Newcastle, New South Wales.

GE Develops Low Cost Light Switches

NEW YORK—(AP)—A new wiring system, designed to reduce the amount of expensive electrical work in homes by putting all switches on a low voltage bell-cord hook-up, has been developed by the General Electric Company. It is claimed to minimize fire hazards and outlets.

Wall switches merely operate magnetic master switches at each outlet, so that the wiring to and from all switches can be as light as ordinary doorbell systems.

The economy of installation of this remote control wiring is expected to increase the number of switches in homes, making it economically practicable to operate lights and outlets from a number of points. Coffee makers in kitchens can be switched on from bedrooms when the family gets up. An entire house can be lighted at once from a bedroom if an intruder is heard. Radios can be switched off momentarily from telephone locations. Front and back door lights can be controlled not only from the doorways, but also from kitchen, living room or bedrooms.

Heretofore, such elaborate systems have been prohibitive in cost for the average small house, because of the expense of heavy materials required by fire codes.

$100 OFFERED FOR ONE CAT

MONTEREY, CALIF.—(AP)—There's a hot cat in the hills near here, worth $100 to the hunter who brings him in. He's a large male mountain lion seen in the Carmel Valley, and catmen offer to double the $50 state bounty.

Cemetery At Sea May Be Lost Freighter

DARWIN—(AP)—A cemetery of human bones has been found at the bottom of the Timor Sea near Melville Island.

The bones were found by a diver from a pearling lugger, operating along a sea lane from the Timor Sea into Darwin. They may be the remains of the crew of the 2,000-ton Philippine freighter Don Asidro. The freighter was bombed and burned by the Japanese in February, 1942.

The ship was loaded with American beer, and became the war's most unique canteen. Local divers let a Royal Australian Air Force station on a nearby island have a constant beer supply.

Court Refuses To Name Guardian For Dr. Ross

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Judge William C. Davis Thursday refused to appoint a guardian ad litem for Dr. Lloyd I. Ross, San Antonio surgeon convicted of murder.

Attorneys for Ross had asked that a guardian be appointed for him in the face of a $92,500 damage suit in 37th District Court.

Davis said, in effect, that a guardian is not justified in the damage suit because there is a controversy as to the sanity or insanity of Ross.

Ross was convicted last year at La Grange in the rifle slaying of Mrs. Gertrude Q. York, wife of Willard York.

One leg is stronger and longer in the average human being.

Rankin News

RANKIN—The Rankin schools opened Monday morning with an assembly in the high school auditorium. New faculty members were introduced and a short program was presented. Several new courses are offered this year, including music and commercial studies. Superintendent Bill announced that 217 pupils registered the opening day, an increase of 65 over last year.

Bobby Fitzgerald of Breckenridge is visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fitzgerald.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shiller have as their guests their sisters, Miss Elizabeth Shiller of Beanville, Texas, and Mrs. J. L. Moore of Caldwell, Texas.

Nat Guest, 69, employed on the Langford Brothers ranch south of Rankin, was injured Wednesday when thrown from a horse while rounding up goats. The injured man was taken to a McCamey hospital, where X-rays disclosed a broken hip.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Horton and family, who have been Rankin residents for several years, have moved to Fort Worth to make their home. Walton Fosge, Hamp Carter, H. P. Neal and Tom Workman attended a meeting of directors of the Ranchers Wool and Mohair Association in Fort Stockton Thursday.

Mrs. A. J. Bushong fell Wednesday afternoon as she was entering a place of business in Rankin and broke her hip. She was taken to a San Angelo hospital Thursday.

New York state has 290 airports, with about 90 seaplane bases.

The Most Important People on Earth

Boys and girls with a great heritage and a glorious future! They're the most important people on earth... for they still have time to accomplish so many things we left undone.

We have given them our love and all the material blessings our means would allow. And we have given them America...

But one thing more we must provide, if they are to live up to the opportunities they face. We must give them a vital religious faith. We must give it to them in larger measure than we have possessed it ourselves.

Religious Education is a task for our churches. But the foundation of religious interest must be laid in the home. Sincere parents, setting an example of the Christian worship and life, can lay the surest foundation for the Church's character-building program for our boys and girls.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE STORY: Dying in the Indian desert, British secret agent Hilary Sherstone feels a desperate need to get back to England and to Nana Farthing, his family home. He doesn't know the house has been let and that dreamy, 37-year-old Sabrina, whom he has never met, has adopted his old room and eagerly awaits his return. Hilary does return to England and to Nana Farthing—after death. He is in his old attic room when Sabrina comes up, sits on the window seat.

HILARY sat down cautiously on the other end of the window seat and watched her, wondering what was in her thoughts. At last she spoke again, very low, to herself. "I don't see why I shouldn't talk to him sometimes—up here," she said.

"Who, me?" said Hilary, delighted. "You turned? He slowly, and her eyes went dubiously round the room, blinking a little in the sunlight. If only there was a picture of him, it would seem more reasonable to pretend he was actually there and could hear if she spoke to him. On the other hand, she knew his name. . . . You couldn't live in a room all your life and not leave your name somewhere in it—or could you?"

She cast a helpless, ingratiating look round the four walls again, as if seeking him. Where could he look? Would he mind very much if— "If I could find his name," she said wistfully, just above a whisper. "I think I could talk to him sometimes."

"My name is Hilary," she told her, with sudden, aching desire that she know it. The feeling grew on him minute by minute as he watched her that some sixth sense of hers would surely hear him, that already her sensitive, childlike perception had picked up some impression of his nearness and that she was glad of it.

SHE had risen and gone to the desk, and now she stood looking down at the blotter. "There's that letter to Thompson," she murmured, "only he didn't sign it."

"The phone rang," he explained. "He might have had a book-plate," she muttered, drifting disconsolately across the carpet. "But all he ever does is write 'Sherstone' inside the cover."

"It's in my Kipling," he said, following her. "Surely you've had the Kipling off the shelf?" She stood behind the chest-of-drawers, scowling at the handsome rows of books in their open shelves which lined the walls.

"To your right, Sabrina—the other side of the mantelpiece—He spoke urgently from the middle of the room behind her, motionless there, striving desperately now to reach her with some sense of his words. "Those red and gold books on the second shelf to the right of the mantelpiece—they were given to me by a dear maiden aunt with the vice for scribbling on fly-leaves, dates and all. Find my Kipling, Sabrina—"

She wavered, hung on one foot, moved vaguely towards the mantelpiece, and halted again. "Keep to your right, Sabrina—that's I—you're getting warm now—the Kipling, Sabrina, you can't miss it—no, the shelf above that one—above it—"

Her feet had carried her forward uncertainly. Her hand came up, hovered, and fell on "Puck of the Pook's Land."

"Got it!" cried Hilary with infinite satisfaction, from the middle of the room. SHE lifted the book off the shelf and opened it, turning the leaves lovingly. "Did you read this when you were little, I wonder?" she murmured. "I did, more than once. It would be fun to read it again—together."

She carried the book to the chest-of-drawers and sat down there, one foot beneath her.

"To darling Hilary on his 12th birthday, with fondest love from his Auntie Dot, Sept. 6, 1916. She gave a little gasp of triumph and excitement, and read the words again unbelievably. "Why, that's it! I've found you." And she repeated thoughtfully—"Hilary."

"That's it!" he said, watching her. "Hilary," he said again softly. "It's perfect. It couldn't have been anything else."

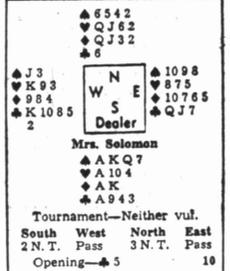

"You heard me!" he marveled. "You must have heard me—in a way. I can get through to you. Perhaps with practice I can make you know all the things I want to tell you—because you found your way to me."

She had pulled a pillow into place behind her back and begun to read, becoming instantly absorbed. Hilary went back to the window seat and sat down there. He had a good deal to think about, as they sat together through the lazy June morning. He would have come back to England, he was thinking, in the ordinary course of events, some time later in the summer—about the middle of August. He would have come down to Nana Farthing at once to see about his room. He and Sabrina would have met then—those clear gray eyes, that wide, engaging smile, the warm little fingers—her implicit confidence in the man who belonged to this room. . . . He would have had to exercise patience—she was so young—but she was his, and he liked to think he would not have been clumsy, or hurried her. . . . Obviously, whenever, however, he came, he was to find her waiting for him. But it oughtn't to be like this. Something had gone wrong, out there on the Frontier. It was never meant to be like this. . . .

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service
Bridge fans are accustomed to reading about the winning of bridge championships by Mrs. Peggy Golder and Charles J. Solomon of Philadelphia. However, some of the fans may not know that these champion players are now Mr. and Mrs. Solomon. They kept up their winning streak by capturing the Adirondack mixed pair title at the tournament held recently at the Adirondack Inn, Sacandaga Park, N. Y. Mr. Solomon, by the way, has a bridge show on television in Philadelphia, which I understand is proving quite interesting to the bridge players of that territory.

ronadack Inn, Sacandaga Park, N. Y. Mr. Solomon, by the way, has a bridge show on television in Philadelphia, which I understand is proving quite interesting to the bridge players of that territory.

Mrs. Solomon helped to win the Adirondack mixed pair championship when she executed a very neat endplay in today's hand. On the opening lead of the five of clubs East played the Jack and Mrs. Solomon (South) refused to win the trick. East returned the queen of clubs. Again Mrs. Solomon held off with the ace and West played the deuce. Now came the seven of clubs. South won and West played the eight.

Mrs. Solomon then cashed her four top spade tricks and the ace and king of diamonds. Next she led her fourth club and threw West in the lead. West cashed the fifth club, and then he had to lead away from his king of hearts, which gave Mrs. Solomon her ninth trick.

WAR VETERAN BENEFITS GROW IN PHILIPPINES
MANILA—(AP)—Filipino war veterans or their dependents received approximately $7,547,000 in benefits from the U. S. Veterans Administration during the first quarter of this year, official figures show. Officials say this is the largest amount paid during any quarter and indicates the steady increase in the number of claims being processed. Longevity from one area to another

Although it has never been officially designated, the Road Runner, commonly called the Chaparral Bird, is generally regarded as the State Bird of New Mexico.

SECOND HAND GARDEN TOOL BRUSSELS—(AP)—A prehistoric tool which experts consider dates from 50,000 years before Christ, has been discovered by Andre Marchal of Profondeville, near Dinant, as he was digging his garden.

Highest Church in Europe Is Dedicated
ROME—(AP)—The highest church in Europe has been dedicated at 12,367 feet on Mount Orler by Monsignor Angelo Grazioli of Verona, the Vatican's "Osservatore Romano" reported.

The church, dedicated to the dead in all European wars, was built on one of the tallest peaks of Orler mountains in the central Austro-Italian Alps.

More than 400 people attended the ceremony, many of whom made the seven-hour ascent of the peak fasting, to receive communion in the new church.

Mid-West People Expect Longer Lives

NEW YORK—(AP)—The chances for long life in the United States are best in the Mid-West, a study of death rates shows. The best record for longevity in the country is found in the West North Central States—Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, the Dakotas, Nebraska and Kansas.

These left expectancies are three to four years longer than the Mountain States, which have the least favorable record. The Mountain States include Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada and Utah. The high death rate among the large Spanish-speaking population of Arizona and New Mexico is mainly responsible for this difference between the two geographical areas.

At the age of 45, men and women of the West North Central States still can look forward to the longest life. The expectation then is 27.56 more years of life for men, and 30.23 for women. At 45, the lowest expectation of life is in the highly industrialized northeast, the bulletin finds. In the Middle Atlantic States of Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey, men of 45 can expect, on the average, only 24.74 more years and women 27.56. Men of 45 in New England can expect 25.37 more years, and women 28.32 years.

The best record in preventing infant mortality was shown on the Pacific Coast. In the Mountain States area, the infant mortality rate was fully 50 per cent higher.

The variation in mortality and longevity from one area to another undoubtedly arises out of a variety of factors—differences in the general standard of living, degree of industrialization, density of population, adequacy and availability of medical and hospital facilities, climate, etcetera. An intensified effort to reduce the toll of premature death in the less favored areas would tend to equalize the mortality throughout the country at the level of the best areas.

TURKEY TO OPEN A FREE PORT
ISTANBUL—(AP)—Istanbul, Turkey's finest deep water port in the Hatay, is to become a "free" port, according to reports from Ankara.

Under the plan, foreign nations will be permitted to unload cargo for transshipment without customs formalities. The plan would give Turkey additional foreign currency through payments for labor, warehouse space and dock facilities.

Pocket Veto is the term commonly applied to the action of the President in withholding approval of a bill for ten days when Congress adjourns before that time.

Drunk Tries To Give Fire Alarm
A 49-year-old Galveston man, arrested by police early Friday for drunkenness, tried to start a fire on North Weatherford Street and turn in an alarm.

He was caught when the telephone operator suspected something wrong as he tried to turn in the fire alarm. He had "cussed out" the operator.

The barracuda, a large savage pike-like fish of tropical seas, is more apt to attack man than the shark.

Communist Would Use FEPC, Thurmond
Tells Lubbock Crowd
LUBBOCK—(P)—Communists would use the proposed Fair Employment Act "to serve their own purposes," States' Rights Presidential Candidate J. Strom Thurmond said here.

The governor of South Carolina
Thursday night told a political gathering:
"By clamoring for their rights under the FEPC, they (the Communists) will force their agents and saboteurs into every tool and die room, every machine shop and every industrial plant and laboratory, atomic or otherwise, in America."

The FEPC is part of the Civil Rights program proposed by President Truman. It would prohibit discrimination in employment because of race, color or religious belief.

He said the so-called Civil Rights program "is made up of 'the very measures which Thaddeus Stevens conceived in his hatred of the South, following the war between the states.'"

"When Congress passed the Thaddeus Stevens program, the Supreme Court of the United States promptly declared the legislation unconstitutional—even in the atmosphere of reconstruction—and upheld in all its vigor the doctrine of states' rights."

"To these discredited measures have been added proposals which even Thaddeus Stevens himself would not have stood for."

Federal Police System
"They advocate principles and precedents which, if adopted, will inevitably bring about a change in the very form of our American government."

The program, Thurmond said,
"advocates the setting up of a federal super police system in the Department of Justice."

"Liberty quickly perishes under such a set-up, as we have seen in Europe in our own time. It is the business of the states and the local communities to exercise the police power in this country. The people of America do not want the federal government to usurp the police function and thereby sow the seeds of a gestapo in America."

DENIES COMMUNIST RUMOR
SEOUL—(P)—President Syngman
Rhee Friday dismissed as "a lie, plain and simple" a Korean Communist report that Japanese officers would be brought here to train an army for South Korea.

Jelly Gets Car And
Its Occupants In Jam

COOPENHAGEN—(P)—A car hit a tree near the road outside the island of Funen. The front part of the car was smashed, but all members of the family inside escaped injuries.

The cause of the accident was—a dish with jelly. The dish had been placed in the back of the car together with other foods, and when the driver drove comparatively slowly through a village, several hundred bees were attracted by the smell. They swarmed through the open car window and dive-bombed into the juice.

The passengers tried to defend (1) the jelly, (2) themselves. But the bees struck back and buzzed around while making furious attacks here and there. Result: the driver lost control of the car and subsequently struck a tree.

'GHOST' MESSAGE
BRINGS IN THE DOUGH
LONDON—(P)—A newly formed
International Spiritualists Federation got off to a mystic start Friday.

Eva Lees said her father, the late Robert James Lees, sent her a message from the beyond asking her to donate twenty pounds ($80) a year to the federation in his behalf.
She forked it over.

Certain hair breeds of sheep are distinguished from goats only by the direction of the tail, which is upward in goats and downward in sheep.

WHAT ABOUT YOU AND ME AND ADVERTISING?
You have a job. I am an ad. And here's why I'm so important to you.
No matter what your job is, in the last analysis it depends on somebody selling something to somebody else. And advertising is the lowest cost way yet devised to sell goods or services.
It's obvious how this works with the new postwar businesses that have come along. It's taken advertising to put them over. It's just as true of the basic industries we've had for years. Advertising is the spark plug of American business.
Suppose nobody read the ads or listened to radio advertising. Soon businesses would start to fail. It wouldn't be long before these failures would affect your pay check.
It's good advertising—powerful advertising—that makes the wheels go 'round... makes business grow and prosper... makes jobs.
So next time you see or hear it, remember—advertising makes your job more secure.

OTHER WAYS
ADVERTISING HELPS
YOU AND YOUR FAMILY
1 Brings you better goods for less money.
2 Makes shopping more pleasant and easier.
3 Gears consumer demand to production, to create prosperity.

HERE'S HOW U.S. NATIONAL INCOME ROSE IN THE
LAST 36 YEARS—THE GOLD-EN AGE OF ADVERTISING
Advertising...
Makes your job more secure
BY SELLING MORE GOODS TO MORE PEOPLE

This rise in the standard of living for you and yours is unparalleled in all history. Advertising helped raise this standard—is needed even more today to sell industry's new developments.
