Investigator Starts Jim Wells Vote Inquiry

Election Judge In Precinct 13 Quits As Pressure Rises

ALICE, TEXAS—(AP)—An investigator for the U. S. Senate started an inquiry Tuesday into Jim Wells County voting in the August Democratic runoff primary in which Coke Stevenson charges there were enough irregularities to lose him the nomination to Lyndon Johnson.

Arthur E. Broer, chief investigator for the Senate Rules Committee subpoenaed C. H. (Hap) Holmgren, county clerk, to produce all of the ballot boxes used in the election, with their contents.

He also subpoenaed B. F. (Tom) Donald, at that time secretary of the County Democratic Executive Committee, to produce all records in his possession. Donald said he would comply.

A similar investigation by a master appointed by Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson of Dallas was stopped several weeks ago by the United States Supreme Court on a stay obtained by Johnson.

Stevenson, who since has announced his support of Jack Porter, the Republican senatorial nominee, carried his fight to the Senate, which is the sole judge of whom it will seat.

Flyers Are Missing In Chute Leap

DENVER—(AP)—An airman reported that he and three others aboard a missing Air Force B-17 parachuted Tuesday before the plane crashed into a mountain in North-western Colorado.

Maj. Philip Wachtel of Lowry Air Force Base said Staff Sgt. James L. Helms, radio operator of the craft, telephoned from Salt, Colo., that he was the last aboard to parachute from the disabled plane. It left Hamilton Base at San Francisco for Denver late Monday night. Wachtel said Helms reported he was "shaken up" after leaping from the plane. He had not seen any of the others after leaving the craft. He did not report the time of the crash.

Sixteen C-47s and a ground team were scouring the area near Colorado's Grand Mead for the missing plane. Helms reported the plane crashed four miles northeast of Haystack Mountain.

Wachtel identified those aboard as First Lt. William H. McQuinn, First Lt. Stewart S. Ackerman and Staff Sgt. Edward A. Cook, all of Denver.

Johnson Demands Senate Seize All Texas Vote Boxes

AUSTIN—(AP)—Rep. Lyndon Johnson, Democratic U. S. senatorial nominee, Tuesday asked a U. S. Senate committee to impound "all ballot boxes in all counties" in Texas if any boxes are impounded for an investigation of the Democratic runoff primary.

In a letter addressed to Senator C. Wayland Brooks, chairman of the Senate's Committee on Rules and Administration, Johnson declared that in event of a recount, "it must be comprehensive enough to embrace all ballots cast in all the 252 counties where the primary election was held."

The nominee asked the committee to investigate irregularities in returns of eight counties, other than South Texas counties to which the committee's attention had been directed by Johnson's opponent, Coke Stevenson.

Johnson said he had read press reports indicating plans to impound ballot boxes in several counties in connection with Stevenson's request that the committee investigate the runoff primary.

"I do not know what charges have been made or what basis the committee has for acting to impound ballot boxes in any particular county but if any of the ballot boxes are impounded in any of the counties, I respectfully request that all ballot boxes in all counties be impounded," Johnson's letter read, continuing:

An intensive get-out-the-vote campaign will be waged by the Midland League of Women Voters.

Zapata And Starr Records Impounded

HARLINGEN, TEXAS—(AP)—Ballot boxes, tally sheets and poll lists in Zapata and Starr counties were reported seized Monday night.

Truman Phelps, a Laredo attorney, said he accompanied an investigator of the U. S. Senate Committee on Elections to the county seats of the two counties, where the voting material of the second Democratic primary was impounded.

Phelps said the investigator was Joseph Langan, one of two from the Senate committee sent to probe reports of fraudulent voting in South Texas during the August Democratic primary.

Langan was not available for comment.

The Laredo attorney said the ballots, tally sheets and poll lists were taken into custody by the investigator and would be sent to Washington.

He said the investigator seized all election returns and poll lists from three of the four precincts in Zapata County, but that the tally sheets and poll lists of Precinct No. 3 were missing.

Coke Keeps Mum On Senate Investigation

AUSTIN—(AP)—Coke Stevenson said Tuesday he is "not at liberty" to divulge developments in the U. S. Senate investigation into the Texas Democratic senatorial race.

The former governor said he has not seen and does not know the name of the investigator sent to Texas to check election returns by which Rep. Lyndon Johnson defeated him for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Asked if he had heard any news in the investigation, Stevenson replied:

"Yes, but I'm not at liberty to tell you just yet. There's a reason for not saying anything for a few days," he said.

Asked if he knew where the investigator is now, Stevenson said, "I can tell you he's still around."

Fings Porter Candidacy

In statewide broadcasts Monday night and Tuesday morning Stevenson said again that Johnson is not the Democratic Party's legal nominee for U. S. senator.

The former governor continued his support for Republican Candidate Jack Porter.

Stevenson said that though he was casting his vote in November for Republican Candidate Porter, "I am a Democrat and I expect to remain a Democrat."

"With the help of good Democrats who believe in honest politics, Jack Porter will become our next United States Senator," he said.

Dulles Charges Red Action In Berlin Is Linked To Balkans

PARIS—(AP)—John Foster Dulles told the UN Political Committee Tuesday that Russian action before the world peace agency was part of "a general effort to extend the power of Soviet Communism throughout the world."

The American delegate spoke as small powers of the Security Council renewed their efforts to mediate the Berlin blockade crisis after Russia's veto of a compromise offered by six smaller powers.

Dulles, foreign affairs advisor to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican presidential candidate, said international Communism is working for world revolution through "force, coercion and terrorism."

He linked the Greek question, which is before the General Assembly, and the Berlin deadlock, before the Security Council, as parts of the Russian plan to dominate the world through Communism's spread.

Dulles said he was presenting a resolution to send the UN Special Commission on the Balkans (UNSCOB) back to work for another year investigating the Greek civil war and appealing to Greece's Northern neighbors to cease aiding efforts to overthrow the Greek government.

Part Of World Plan

The resolution would order those three Northern neighbors of Greece to cease all aid at once and cooperate with UNSCOB in a continued inquiry into the civil war.

Dulles said the "violent effort to establish in Greece a Communist government is but part of a general effort to extend the power of Soviet Communism throughout the world."

Miner Dies In Skirmish With Police

PARIS—(AP)—One striker was killed and two policemen were wounded seriously Tuesday in Southern France in a new outbreak of violence in the nationwide coal miners' strike.

The interior Ministry said government forces passing a striker's road block near Ales were met by a blast of gunfire and hand grenades. Several policemen were wounded, the ministry said. The striker and the two seriously wounded policemen were struck by gunfire.

The government force was preparing to clear strikers from four coal mines and a power plant near Ales, about 50 miles northwest of Marseille.

As the government force approached the pits, a number of small mines also exploded, a ministry spokesman said.

About 100 strikers were captured, most of them bearing arms, a ministry statement said.

Seek Foreign Airlifts

The death of the striker Tuesday brought the coal mine strike death toll to three. Two strikers were killed last week in a clash between troops and pickets in St. Etienne.

Under Gen. Astier de la Villatte, commanding the Ninth Army Region, police are now patrolling the entire Ales area, including the hills dominating the Gard Valley.

"They are looking for a certain number of foreigners whose presence has been indicated among the elements of disorder," the interior Ministry said.

Interior Minister Jules Moch warned Monday that foreigners found among demonstrators would be thrown out of the country.

Size Of Majority Is Only Question Now, Say Dewey Admirers

EN ROUTE WITH DEWEY TO CHICAGO—(AP)—An unofficial political popularity contest in four of the nation's biggest cities was underway Tuesday as Gov. Thomas E. Dewey trailed President Truman into Chicago.

At stake—from the Republican viewpoint—is the size of the margin by which the GOP nominee's victory would be won in the presidential election next week from Tuesday.

Confident Dewey has enough rural and smaller city strength to put him over, these Republicans were intent on cutting down the usual Democratic majorities turned out by Chicago, Cleveland, Boston and New York City.

For that reason Cook County Republicans were reported determined to match or exceed the votes given to Truman on his visit to Chicago Monday.

Similarly, Republicans will try to out-do their Democratic rivals when Dewey follows the President into Cleveland Wednesday, into Boston Thursday and into New York City Saturday.

No Speaking Stops

Dewey has announced that in Chicago Tuesday night he will outline how he proposes to put into effect "friendly" policies toward labor, business and agriculture if he is elected. The speech will be broadcast (NBO) and televised (ABC) at 9 p. m. Central Standard Time.

His election is taken so much for granted in his camp that the Republican nominee is not expected to reply to the blistering attacks directed at him by the President.

Even in its final week the GOP campaign apparently is moving with the throttle only half open.

On all the 16-hour trip from Albany, where his special train pulled out at midnight Monday night, to Chicago, no speaking stop was arranged in advance.

Neither was there any plan for the Dewey "Victory Special" to pause for an appearance by the candidate in its daylight journey from Chicago to Cleveland Wednesday.

Johnson Demands Senate Seize All Texas Vote Boxes

That Snerd Boy A Hayseed? Lamp Those New Fall Duds

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—Hollywood neuters are in the same bracket as Cadillac—popular and darned expensive. So naturally the average movie star would rather do without a swimming pool than a psychiatrist.

"But in this lush welter of complexes and complications there's one celebrity who's different. He stands blockhead and shoulders above the rest. Kid by the name of Mortimer Snerd."

I went over to see Mortimer with double-barreled intent. I wanted to gander at his brand-new wardrobe I'd heard about and I wanted to find out just what kept him, as a noted squirrely specialist put it, "probably the most essentially normal mentality in Hollywood."

I discovered Mortimer, clad in overalls, reclining indolently on a bale of hay back of Edgar Bergen's garage.

"According to the mental transom peakers," I said, "by now you should be grade A for the loony-bin. A boy of your tender, formative years, browbeaten by Bergen and always shoved in the back seat where Charlie's concerned."

"Back seat?" drawled Mortimer cheerfully. "I like thuh back seat. Not so crowded for mah cow, Bessie."

Not so smart. "Is it true," I pressed, "that a publicity-minded psychiatrist once gave you a free analysis by listening to you on the air and rated you 100 per cent normal—but had to use a chart showing the mental capacities of guinea pigs?"

"Well, sure," said Mortimer. "But, gawh, he was exaggerating. I ain't so smart as a guinea pig—nor not nearly so purty."

I steered from a different angle.

New Look Fading, Slim Silhouette Now Reappearing

The new look seems to be through and the slim silhouette appears to be on the way back, according to fall fashion trends noticed in the second annual fashion fair at New York.

Now more than ever women are trying frantically to take off the extra bulges.

In recent months many weight-reducing preparations have appeared on the market, some of them based on "the diet and vitamin plan," which means cut down on the intake of food and fortify with vitamins for hunger distress.

A survey among drug stores in Texas shows that one preparation, Barcetrat, which is the outstanding seller in the reducing field, is not based on this vitamin plan.

Any Texas druggist can supply you with 4 ounces of Barcetrat. Just add this to 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice and take according to directions. No starvation diet.

The makers of Barcetrat guarantee to refund your money if the very first bottle does not show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves.

Four ounces of Barcetrat costs little and hundreds of Texas women have highly endorsed it. Nearly a million and a half bottles have been sold in Texas in the past four years.

"What with Bergen twitting you about being stupid and Charlie forever riding you, how have you avoided frustration?"

"Oh," said Mortimer. "I'm just naturally light on muh feet, I guess, so I... avoided whut?"

"Frustration. You know what the word 'frustrate' means?"

"Hmmm. Frustrate." His face, contorted with the fearful effort of thinking, suddenly brightened.

"Sure, I went to thuh movies last night and saw Lassie. I liked the pitcher frustrate."

Solid Ivory There was no need to delve any further into the subject of minds. In order to enjoy its disorders, you have to have one—which lets Mortimer off the street car right there. This, then, was the secret of his ivory tower insulation against the standard Hollywood jitters. The ivory was solid and undeniably.

"Show me," I invited, "your wardrobe—your new clothes."

"Muh new suits?" Why, sure. Mr. Bergen let me pick 'em out muhself. In the house Mortimer proudly threw open the door of his wardrobe. I was glad I hadn't taken off my sunglasses.

"This here's a pin stripe," he said, exhibiting something with wide green and white vertical bars, like a landscape seen through a picket fence. "And this one's muh new checked suit. Bought it because thuh criss-cross reminds me of the wres on muh hawp pen."

"You'll certainly be individual," I said, shuddering away from a mustard-colored jacket with pleats and a belt in the back.

"Yup. And here's muh brand-new yellow shoes and a new straw hat. Got a string-toe to tie to muh lapel when the wind blows."

"Wait till Lucius Beebe sees this," I said.

Mortimer chuckled. "When I'm dressed up, yuh'd never know to look at me that I'm off'n a farm."

"Homes need safety-valve people. At least one member of the family (preferably all) should be good at relieving others of their troubles, good at draining off their feelings of hostility, fear, and anger."

That tip comes from Dr. L. E. Woodward, field consultant of the National Committee for Mental Health.

How about that, Mrs. America? Are you a safety valve for your family?

When Johnny comes marching home from school in a belligerent mood, do you try quietly and calmly to get him in a better frame of mind and then find out what has gone wrong at school, or do you threaten to punish him if he doesn't behave himself?

How about Hubby? When things go wrong can you keep a serene attitude and look for a sensible solution instead of going to pieces?

How you answer these questions makes a big difference, because if anyone is going to be the home's safety valve it usually must be the woman.

She is the member of the family who is home more than any other. She is the one who knows each member of the family best and who usually can most accurately sense the moods of other members.

Community Theater Tryouts Scheduled Wednesday Night

Tryouts for the next Community Theater production, "The Late Christopher Bean," by Sidney Howard, will be held at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the City-County Auditorium. Joe Koeiger chairman of the Casting Committee, said Tuesday.

He urged all persons interested in trying out for the play to be present Wednesday night. He said it is not necessary that those trying out be members of Community Theater.

The play is a popular comedy. Koeiger said, and perhaps has been produced by more professional and amateur companies than any other comedy written by an American author.

Beautification Of Fairview Cemetery Planned By County

A proposed plan for the beautification of Fairview Cemetery was outlined by County Judge Clifford C. Keith to representatives of Midland garden clubs and the Woman's Wednesday Club at a conference Monday in the county judge's office.

Keith told the group county machinery will be sent to the cemetery within a few days to remove dead trees, grade roads, and to conduct a general cleanup campaign.

The women also were advised negotiations are underway with an engineering firm to draft a plan for landscaping the property. The plan and recommendations of the firm will be submitted to the Commissioners Court for action, Keith said.

Representatives listed attending the conference included Mrs. C. A. Goldsmith, Mrs. George W. Glass, Mrs. C. P. Yaden, Mrs. O. H. Jones, Mrs. L. C. Link, Mrs. Bob Hill, Mrs. Rex Russell and Mrs. M. R. Hayes.

Beautification of the cemetery is a major project of the year for the four garden clubs of Midland. A committee representing the group called upon the Commissioners Court several weeks ago to take steps to beautify and improve the cemetery property. They were told at that time a committee would be named to study the matter and to submit recommendations.

The club representatives indicated they will continue their efforts until certain improvements are made and until the cemetery's appearance is in keeping with the general appearance of Midland.

Wisdom And Realism Needed

Belgium's Premier Spaak thinks there is too much "open diplomacy" in the United Nations. We don't know that we agree with Spaak's choice of phrase.

There is nothing wrong with open diplomacy as such. The Wilsonian ideal of "open covenants openly arrived at," though never fully realized, is still a worthy goal.

What Spaak obviously objects to are the uses to which open diplomacy is being put. He says that debate in the UN does not have the healthy spontaneity it had three years ago.

He was referring, of course, to the speeches in which representatives of Russian-block countries and the western democracies have charged each other's governments with desiring and preparing for war.

There is no denying that a threat to the peace exists. But a succession of angry speeches will do nothing to remove it. On the contrary, such speeches can only fill the minds of millions all over the world with dread and resignation.

Very often it is not the fire itself, but the cry of "Fire!" that starts a panic. Very often it is not an organic ailment but apprehension that reveals itself in the symptoms of a serious disease.

Spaak offers no remedy for this situation in the UN. He says only that some "more moderate system" must be developed to replace the abuses of open diplomacy without resorting to secret diplomacy.

Perhaps there is not set of rules that can change the present situation. But this much is clear. The people of the world do not want war. They are not planning war.

The threat of war, the prevention of war and the fate of the world rest not with the world's people, but with the delegates in Paris and their superiors at home.

The solution does not mean appeasement of Russia by the West. Yet it does not mean that the West must fan the flame higher by matching Russia's anger and stubbornness and nationalistic pride.

Enough angry words have been spoken and recorded and read. The need now is for wisdom and realism. And the time is growing short.

Emerson's Prophecy Fulfilled

We are assured that the gadget-development organization that Bing Crosby heads is marketing Emerson's famous "better mouse trap." It is said to be able to hold any mouse, and at the same time be unable to so much as scratch a finger of the smallest toddling explorer.

The autograph hunters will now kindly step to one side so that the rest of the world may beat a path to Der Bingle's door.

We often wonder why they are called the secrets of success when everybody is always telling them to everybody else.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

States' Rights Dems To Fold After Election, Editors Say

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON—The States' Rights Democratic Party of the South will die shortly after the election. This is the careful judgment of an even 90 per cent of 150 Southern daily newspaper editors polled by NEA Service for this column.

This prediction is important. Many of the papers and their readers in this 15-state area from Maryland to Texas are sympathetic to the objectives of the new political movement headed by Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina and Gov. Fielding Wright of Mississippi.

Many Southern politicians feel these states should be left alone to work out their peculiar race relations problems. But a big majority of their daily papers feel that a separate political party is not the right vehicle for this movement.

It has recently been announced that a conference of the States' Rights Party leaders—who don't like to be called "Dixiecrats"—will meet in Memphis, Tenn., before election day. The purpose is to perfect a permanent party organization.

Only 10 Per Cent See Future
Of 70 Southern editors bold enough to answer the question: "Do you think the States' Rights Party will die after election, or grow stronger?" only seven thought the party had any future.

It is noteworthy that all the editors responding from Mississippi and South Carolina—States' Rights strongholds—predicted the party will die. One Florida editor thinks the movement may hang on till 1952, then disappear like every other third-party movement in the United States.

Governor Thurmond has frequently stated that the main purpose of his party in the present campaign was to force the election into the House of Representatives. This could be done if either President Truman nor Gov. Thomas E. Dewey won a majority of 266 out of the 531 electoral college votes.

In the House election, each state has only one vote. Governor Thurmond and his followers hope the Southern and border states might hold a balance of power in the House, thus forcing the Northern Democratic states to support his candidacy, rather than a Republican. If successful, this maneuver would put the Solid South back in the saddle on the Democratic donkey.

So they say

In the Pentagon building in Washington there are people who are men of action, of military trade, who are preparing a new war, working out plans for 50 years ahead.

—Dr. Abraham Leon Sachar, president of the new Brandeis University.

Today our national life swings along on a steady cadence of national optimism. The tragic era of confusion, extravagance, cruel economic dislocation and costly administrative bungling is at an end.

—Rep. Joseph W. Martin (R) of Massachusetts.

The gap between what we believe as American ideals and what we practice is creating moral dry rot, within us. We must act now because the mental health of America is threatened by this gap.

—Mrs. Sadie T. M. Alexander, attorney who was a member of President Truman's Committee on Civil Rights.

This is the second of a series of stories about cards that I have selected from the book "Right Through the Pack." This is not a lesson book, but it has some of the greatest bridge hands that I have ever seen.

I do not know how today's story will strike you, but can you imagine a player legitimately winning 13 tricks without the ace of trumps? Under the rules today it would not be possible, but under the old rules, it was. And this is the story told by the ace of hearts.

While North and South held some good cards and did a lot of fancy bidding, the flaw was in the fact that neither of them held the ace of hearts. When the dummy went down after the opening lead of the king of spades, South became disgusted and said, "Down one—I have to lose the ace of trumps."

The first trick was won in dummy with the ace of spades. Declarer cashed the king and then the queen and ace of clubs, discarding a diamond from dummy on the third club. Now a club was ruffed in dummy, a diamond ruffed in declarer's hand, a spade ruffed in dummy and another diamond ruffed by South. Again he ruffed a spade in dummy, ruffed a third diamond in his hand, and led a third spade from his hand.

This was trick 11, and at this point the ace of hearts heard West exclaim, "I have only two cards left and dummy has three." East counted his cards and had four. "Thank heavens for that," said South. "It's a miracle."

West argued that there must be a rule to cover the situation. They looked up the laws, which in those days said that if such a discrepancy was not discovered before the ninth trick, the hand must be played as dealt. South therefore had to continue with the play.

He continued the cross-ruff for the last three cards in his hand and the last three in dummy, and to his astonishment and joy, East was able to follow suit each time. So declarer made 13 tricks.

Verdict Returned In Double Tragedy
SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Justice of the Peace H. B. Voges of New Braunfels late Monday returned a verdict of "presumable murder and suicide" in the deaths of Henry Rahe, 71, and his son, Valentine, 30.

The two men were found Sunday in a pasture nine miles north of New Braunfels. Both had been shot with a small caliber rifle. A .25-30 caliber rifle was found in the hands of the younger man.

IN Cordova, Carmen—even as Pablo said—was having a wonderful time. Her eyes were fever bright as she whirled in a wild dance. She danced in the main room of Lucas' house, a beautiful house, rich and luxurious.

He was looking at it wonderingly when he heard the sound of a walking horse outside the cave. Dancaire and Pablo glanced up. Don Jose replaced the shoe and went quickly toward the entrance as Carmen came in. She was wrapped in a long cloak, her manner wary and defiant.

"Where have you been?" he demanded. She didn't answer but walked toward the table.

"Answer me." She looked at him obliquely, picked up an orange and began to toss herself in a graceful swirl of skirts and legs into Lucas' lap. She threw her arms around him and kissed him on the mouth.

"Where have you been?" he demanded. She didn't answer but walked toward the table.

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

ENROUTE THROUGH MIDWEST—Too many voters have the idea that once they pick a president every four years their voting job as American citizens is over. They don't seem to realize that no president, no matter what the party, can get up across a program without an intelligent Congress.

If Congress is made up of party hacks and hangers-on, chiefly interested in patronage and nepotism, almost any administration will bog down. With a view to sorting out the congressional wheat from the chaff, therefore, here is the Washington Merry-Go-Round scorecard of Congress.

First, no attempt is made to evaluate Southern Democrats, since their real election comes in the primaries. These are the congressmen who don't deserve to be re-elected. Those who merit re-election will follow in a subsequent column.

The List
Charles K. Fletcher, San Diego, Cal., Republican—Tool of the real-estate lobby, has been under federal investigation for embezzling money from his own building-and-loan association to build a hotel on land sold a contractor by the congressman's father. Next to Rep. Jesse Wolcott of Michigan, Fletcher was the lobbyist chief inside executor of public housing.

Robert F. Rockwell, Colorado, Republican—Though one of the wealthiest men in the state, he has put a local political leader, Crissa B. Bond, on the government payroll at $22,300 a month, supposedly as a member of Rockwell's office staff. However, Bond, never in Washington, travels with Rockwell during his campaign. Rockwell has voted consistently against all progressive measures.

Edwin A. Hill, Birmingham, N. Y., Republican—Has four members of his family on the payroll, from his father down to his 16-year-old son who is a "folder" in the House document room, and his 19-year-old daughter who has been a student at Maryland University. Voting record—reactionary.

Leo Isaacson, New York, Laborite—Never amount much more than a weak echo of Sen. Glen Taylor and Rep. Vito Marcantonio. Republicans and Democrats are joining forces to oust him from his short-term seat. Disarming manner dogged will.

Howard Buffett, Nebraska, Republican—A jack-of-all issues, a run-at-the-mouth politician and bedrock reactionary. Once he even upbraided Sen. Arthur Vandenberg for his liberal views and "token democracy." Goes off half-cocked on any and all questions. Nervous, abrupt, honest.

Wat Arnold, Missouri, Republican—The hard-shelled isolationist who can't see beyond his own corn patch. Bulky, earthy, placid, likable. Rarely opens his mouth in Congress but keeps the voters in line by writing lengthy newsletters to constituents in which he preaches thrift, and honesty, over-the-back-fence philosophy.

Harold Youngblood, Michigan, Republican—A wishy-washy conservative. Deserted his city constituents by opposing rent control. To the West.

John Sanborn, Idaho Republican—Never opened his mouth in the House except to cast his vote with the hard-shelled isolationists who oppose Dewey's views and "token democracy." So inconspicuous alongside his colleagues that he was almost anonymous, but used his free-mailing privileges to spread propaganda for Silver Lobbist John McBride.

Frank Barrett, Wyoming, Republican—Darling of the big cattlemen even though he, himself, happens to be a sheepman. Fought against Jackson Hole National Monument because it removed some grazing land from the cattlemen in favor of scenic beauty.

Wint Smith, Kansas, Republican—Has been just as poor as a congressman as he was an attorney for the Kansas Highway Commission.

Bert Gearhart, California, Republican—Has a consistent record in favor of the California wine interests, for isolation, and he reached a new high in statesmanship when he introduced a bill barring newboys from Social Security benefits.

Horace Seely-Brown, Connecticut, Republican—a pushbutton party liner. Party leaders merely push the buzzer and Seely-Brown votes as they tell him. Was one of five House members who voted against higher education allowances for war vets.

P. W. Griffiths, Ohio, Republican—A do-nothing congressman, who once admitted to newsmen that in four years he had never delivered a single speech.

Fred Smith, Ohio, Republican—A horse doctor who left any horse sense at home when he came to Congress.

Raymond Burke, Ohio, Republican—Travels at rocking-chair speed in an atomic age. Lets the GOP bosses and Seely-Brown votes as they tell him. Was one of five House members who voted against higher education allowances for war vets.

Robert McGarvey, Pennsylvania, Republican—Colorless. Backset. A horse doctor who left any horse sense at home when he came to Congress.

C. W. Bishop, Illinois, Republican—Never should have given up calling for politics. His chief claim to notoriety is that when a group of congressmen called at the Vatican he talked back to his holiness, the Pope.

Fred Crawford, Michigan, Republican—acid-tongued, he is always talking his way into trouble, defiantly opposed admitting Hawaii into the union because he didn't want to have a couple of "Jap" senators; later reversed himself and supported both Hawaiian and Alaskan statehood. Created a furor by demanding that John Virden resign from the Commerce Department because his daughter worked for Soviet news agency Tass; was forced to drop the words when it turned out Virden was a friend of the GOP. Divides his time between his office and a Maryland farm.

Quarterhorses Sell High At San Angelo

SAN ANGELO—(AP)—Thirty-two lots of Quarterhorses brought an average of $471 in a sale of Hankins Brothers of Rock Springs here Monday.

Perry Cotton of Visalia, Calif., paid top price of $1,500 for Booger H., a three-year-old gelding.

O. E. Hootch of Lubbock paid $1,100 for Dan Traveler, a sorrel horse colt. He also paid the top price for a female, buying Duchess H., a two-year-old, for $900.

Moonshiners Get Ready For Christmas

HOUSTON—(AP)—Two "corn likers" stills were confiscated here Monday, the first to be seized in the gulf coast area in two years.

E. D. DuBose, investigator for the Federal Alcohol Tax Unit, said he believed the "moonshine" was being prepared for the Christmas holidays.

He said two negroes were arrested in the San Jacinto County raid.

The Loves of Carmen

By SOPHIE KERR
Copyright, 1948, NEA SERVICE, INC.

"I went to the bull fight yesterday and saw a matador called Lucas. They say he has an embroidered cape that cost 3000 duros. Imagine that! A cape for 3000 duros. Almost as much as the reward for you."

AS he moved closer to Don Jose he saw she was wearing a new dress. It was very elaborate and made of the best quality of silk.

"Where did you get that dress?" Carmen realized she had made a mistake. A glimmer of fear moved across her face. "That's my affair."

He struck her sharply across the face. "Where did you get that dress?" Stung by the blow, she stared at him in silence.

He held her by the shoulders and shook her. "I'll kill you! As heaven is my witness, I'll kill you if you don't tell me!" She struck her again.

He threw her arms around his neck, trying to stop him with caresses. "Joseito," she panted. "Joseito." She kissed him frantically.

He twisted his face away from her. "Who is he? Where did you get it?" Again she tried to kiss his face, his neck, crying wildly, "Look, Joseito, look how Carmen loves you!"

But his hands went to her throat. "I know you. I know what you are. Who is it now?" She struggled with him, terrified. Finally, she screamed.

Dancaire came out of the shadows and separated them. Carmen ran to the cave's entrance. She stopped a moment, threw one terrified glance back at Don Jose, then ran out into the darkness. Dancaire had to use all his strength to hold Jose as the sound of splashing hoofbeats drifted back to them.

Don Jose got away from Dancaire and went outside, panting, looking after Carmen, trying in vain to see which way she had gone. Dancaire blew a sigh of relief. "Well—I thought this was it! I'm beginning to believe in those cards myself." (To Be Continued)

Proper Balance Of Calcium Is Essential To Body Health

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service
Calcium is one of the most important elements of the body. Chemical combinations of calcium are particularly needed by the teeth and bones, but calcium is required also in other parts of the body.

Calcium taken into the body must be in a form which can be easily absorbed and used. Vitamin D helps in the use of calcium by the body and this is gained from sunlight or it can be obtained in prepared form. A hormone produced by one of the internal glands called the parathyroid is also important.

When vitamin D is not present in sufficient quantities, the calcium is not deposited properly and the bones become soft and pliable, producing rickets, bow legs, etc. If the parathyroid glands are removed, the amount of calcium in the blood drops rapidly, regardless of the amount of calcium taken in.

This causes a condition called tetany which produces muscular spasms. Too Much Is Harmful Too much calcium can be present in the tissues as well as too little. For example, a good deal of the material deposited in the walls of hardened arteries (arteriosclerosis) consists of calcium. As yet, no way has been found to dissolve or remove excess calcium in the arteries nor is there any method of preventing these deposits.

Dairy products supply good quantities of calcium. Consequently infants and growing children, who need calcium for their rapidly growing bones, get most of their calcium from milk. Additional calcium can be supplied in various tablet or capsule forms. However, although calcium tablets may supply the calcium needed, they will not furnish the other nutritional elements present in such excellent foods as milk and cheese.

Experts Pick 1948 Diamond All-Stars

NEW YORK—(AP)—Five players from the American and five from the National make up the 1948 Major League All-Star Team as selected for The Associated Press by 220 baseball experts throughout the nation.

Only six of the 16 big league clubs, three in each league, are represented in the third annual all-star aggregation. The world champion Cleveland Indians won two berths as did the National League champion Braves.

The Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Cardinals, runner-ups in their respective circuits, also placed two representatives each. One man from the New York Yankees and one from the New York Giants complete the team.

Of the 10 men selected, no fewer than six are holdovers from the 1947 all-star team. They consist of the entire infield of Johnny Mize, Joe Gordon, Bob Elliott and Lou Boudreau; Ted Williams and Joe DiMaggio, who comprise two-thirds of the outfield. Williams, slugging outfielder of the Red Sox, is the only performer to be elected to all three teams starting in 1946.

Williams, Muzal Lead
No player was an unanimous choice. Stan Musial, the National League's batting king, and Williams, the champion stickman of the American League, were tied for the most votes. Each drew 212 of the 220 ballots cast.

All Williams' votes were for left field. Musial's were scattered over three positions. The Cardinals' great fly-chaser, who led his loop in batting, runs scored, hits, runs batted in, doubles and triples drew 193 votes for right field, five for center and 12 for first base. The powerhouse from Ann Arbor drew 117 of the 206 first place votes and piled up 1,885 points to beat out runner-up Notre Dame by 270 points. The Irish, second also a week ago, gained 19 first place votes and polled 1,615 points.

Michigan, unbeaten and untied in five outings, downed Minnesota 27-14 last Saturday while the Irish surged to a 27-12 victory over Iowa for their fifth straight conquest of a perfect season.

The Irish, as they did a week ago, scored heavily in second place votes, beat out North Carolina's unbeaten squad for runner-up honors. Midland High's Bulldogs should fight like all get-out to beat San Angelo in the stadium dedication game Friday night.

The Purple should give and give and give some more. This is it.

This is the time to win one, whatever the odds, whatever the cost in physical expenditure.

The 1948 Bulldogs must uphold the Midland spirit and tradition of players of the past. These were great players, some of them great players—who gave their all for MHS.

The 1948 Bulldogs must set a precedent for other players to come—kids who are now in the grades and the one love of their lives is to represent Midland on the varsity gridiron.

Midland's colors in the past have stood for something. There was a time when Midland was feared on the football fields of West Texas. Men like Jay Francis, Windell Williams, Jimmy Edwards, Woodrow Adams, Gordon English, Dell True-love, Odie Kelley, Docie Foster, Black Jack Taylor, Ivan Hall, Paul Klatt, Boog Eison, Dave Wofford, Mike Buffington, M. C. Hall, Pat McMullan, Bill Richardson, Jimmy Watson and many others put the Purple banners high in history.

And the very name Memorial Stadium should make the Bulldogs fight harder Friday night. Memorial Stadium is dedicated to the memory of all former students of MHS, who gave their lives in two World Wars.

We appeal to the Bulldogs of 1948 to play with the will to win and to win. It will be expended by those former students who made the supreme sacrifice. They may not be there Friday night but surely they will be looking down and they deserve to see nothing short of an all-out effort by this year's football team.

Bulldogs of 1948, it's up to you Friday night.

Another successful West Texas Open Skeet Shoot history. The Midland Gun Club is to be congratulated for the fine tourney it staged.

Assisting the event by the donation of trophies were these firms and individuals: Midland Chamber of Commerce, Jack Goddard, Ed Reagle, Bum Cowden, Bill Barker, Middleton Cleaners, Laura Jesse, Hughes Jewelry, Watson LaForce, Ish McKnight, Shepard Roofing Company, L. B. Yarborough, Tom Sloan, Mid West Motors, John I. and P. D. Moore, Hughes Tool Company, Carl B. King Drilling Company, Mascho Oil Company, Russell C. Conkling, Tall Davis, J. Louis Thomas, Al Cowden, C. W. Chancellor, Hal Rachel, Frank Williamson, Hub King, Glass & Myrick, Scruggs Motor Company.

Drinking at football games and all other high school events has been declared a misdemeanor in the City of Dallas, and is punishable by a fine not to exceed $200.

F. C. Cobb, athletic director of Dallas schools, makes this comment on the ordinance: "We have employed two plain-clothes men for the past few years to watch for drinking in the stadium and they have done a very good job, but with an ordinance such as this that has teeth in it, I do not look for any further trouble."

Passed Dec. 9, 1947, the ordinance makes it unlawful to possess, transport, or consume any alcoholic beverage at high-school athletic contests, at school-sponsored dances, parties and other social gatherings, and on the grounds and in the buildings of public schools. It provides for the confiscation of liquor by police officers, and declares such possession, transportation or consumption to be a misdemeanor and provides for a penalty.

Port Arthur Holds No. 1 Position In Schoolboy Rankings
DALLAS—(AP)—Port Arthur's ranking as the No. 1 schoolboy football team in Texas is secure for another week.

The Dallas News' poll of sports-writers Tuesday listed the Yellow-jackets first, Amarillo second, Waco third and Baytown fourth.

Sweetwater and Arlington heights (Port Worth) moved up to fifth and sixth place respectively.

Texas A&M and Henderson were ranked seventh and eighth. Odessa and Alamo Heights (San Antonio) tied for ninth position.

To Dedicate Stadium In Night Event

Midland school's fine new athletic plant—Memorial Stadium—will be dedicated Friday night. The formal dedication will begin at 7:30 p. m. with the Midland-San Angelo 2-AA football game following.

Here is the dedication program: master of ceremonies, Frank Monroe; "Star-Spangled Banner" by the MHS band; a medley of World War I and II tunes by the band, Frank Hoffman directing; marching by the Gold Jackets, girls drill squad, under direction of Mrs. Inez Chestnam; a silent tribute with all participating, followed by Taps played by W. L. Thompson and Larry Mayfield; introduction by the Rev. Howard H. Hollowell, pastor of the First Methodist Church; introduction of the Board of Education; Tom Sealy, president, of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, will present the main speaker, who is Dr. J. W. Marshall, president of Wayland College, Plainview; formal dedication by Percy F. Bridgewater, vice president of the school board.

Then it's play ball with a fighting eleven of Midland Bulldogs striving to upset a heavy and favored eleven of San Angelo Bobcats. Both teams will be fired to the top degree for the grid battle. Midland wants to dedicate its stadium with a win. San Angelo would like to spoil it.

New Braunfels Grid Outfit Adds Another Scalp To Win String

NEW BRAUNFELS, TEXAS—(AP)—In this neck of the woods, folks, is a football team.

Point-a-minute boys they are—the Unicorns of New Braunfels High School. They have romped to 351 points in seven games and nobody has come close to scoring on them.

They have rolled up almost 4,000 yards rushing and passing and that's better than 550 yards per game.

They beat Alamo Heights of San Antonio 26-0, and Alamo Heights only last week tumbled the No. 2 team in the state—Brackenridge of San Antonio—21-0. Guess that makes the Unicorns about 40 points better than Brackenridge.

Brackenridge, you will recall, lost to Port Arthur, the team that's rated No. 1 in Texas, only 14-6.

Port Arthur
New Braunfels won't be playing Port Arthur, although local fans sure wish the Unicorns could. New Braunfels is in the Class A division; Port Arthur is in Class AA.

Guess New Braunfels will have to be satisfied with the Class A state championship.

Last week the Unicorns beat Lockhart 49-0. That was supposed to be their toughest opponent of the season. The championship of District 24-A rested on the outcome.

Unicorn boosters are not loathe to tell you that Coach Weldon Bynum has 25 starters on his squad, each capable of being a 48-minute man of the highest caliber.

But with all those top gridders, Bynum is not without his "big gun." He's Jerome Bindsell, a 176-pound senior who this year has made 13 touchdowns and 36 points after touchdown for a total of 114.

The Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Cardinals, runner-ups in their respective circuits, also placed two representatives each. One man from the New York Yankees and one from the New York Giants complete the team.

Of the 10 men selected, no fewer than six are holdovers from the 1947 all-star team. They consist of the entire infield of Johnny Mize, Joe Gordon, Bob Elliott and Lou Boudreau; Ted Williams and Joe DiMaggio, who comprise two-thirds of the outfield. Williams, slugging outfielder of the Red Sox, is the only performer to be elected to all three teams starting in 1946.

Williams, Muzal Lead
No player was an unanimous choice. Stan Musial, the National League's batting king, and Williams, the champion stickman of the American League, were tied for the most votes. Each drew 212 of the 220 ballots cast.

All Williams' votes were for left field. Musial's were scattered over three positions. The Cardinals' great fly-chaser, who led his loop in batting, runs scored, hits, runs batted in, doubles and triples drew 185 votes for right field, five for center and 12 for first base. The 27-year-old pride of Donora, Pa., won a place on the '48 all-star team at first, but lost out last year in the outfield to Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh.

DiMaggio, Sparkplug of the Yankees, won the centerfield post hands down with 210 votes, third highest total among the 63 vote-getters. DiMag, with Williams and Musial, make up one of the greatest hitting outfields ever put together on an all-star team. They hit 103 home runs and drove in 415 runs last season.

Boudreau, playing manager of the Indians, and the logical choice for the American League's most valuable player award, ranked fourth with 209 votes to win the shortstop berth easily.

The All-Star Team
First base—Johnny Mize, Giants.
Second base—Joe Gordon, Indians.
Third base—Bob Elliott, Braves.
Shortstop—Lou Boudreau, Indians.
Left field—Ted Williams, Red Sox.
Center field—Joe DiMaggio, Yankees.
Right field—Stan Musial, Cardinals.
Catcher—Birdie Tebbets, Red Sox.
Right-handed pitcher—Johnny Sain, Braves.

Every position had at least four candidates. Eleven outfielders were named, 11 first basemen, eight second basemen, five shortstops, 10 catchers and 12 pitchers.

Woodchucks and groundhogs are the same animal. They live in burrows which they dig themselves and belong to the squirrel family.

Michigan Retains Top College Grid Rating In AP Poll

NEW YORK—(AP)—Michigan's rampaging Wolverines retained their rating as the top college football team in the country Tuesday in the weekly Associated Press poll of the nation's sports writers.

The powerhouse from Ann Arbor drew 117 of the 206 first place votes and piled up 1,885 points to beat out runner-up Notre Dame by 270 points. The Irish, second also a week ago, gained 19 first place votes and polled 1,615 points.

Michigan, unbeaten and untied in five outings, downed Minnesota 27-14 last Saturday while the Irish surged to a 27-12 victory over Iowa for their fifth straight conquest of a perfect season.

North Carolina's Tarheels held on to third place, drawing 46 first place ballots and 1,658 points. The Irish, as they did a week ago, scored heavily in second place votes to beat out North Carolina's unbeaten squad for runner-up honors. Points are figured on the basis of 10 for a first place, nine for second and so on down the line to one for tenth place.

California Gains Points
California, Army, Georgia Tech and Pennsylvania, also among the nation's unbeaten teams, retained fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh places, respectively.

The Golden Bears, who brushed past Washington 21-0, gained 13 first place votes and piled up 1,239 points. Army, which turned back previously unbeaten Cornell 27-6, drew four first place ballots and wound up with 1,214 points.

Georgia Tech finished with 929 points and one first place vote. The Yellow Jackets rolled over Florida 42-7. Penn State, 20-14 conquerors of Navy, drew 505 points.

Missouri's Tigers moved up from ninth place to eighth, replacing Penn State. Missouri, which turned back Iowa State 49-7, drew 386 points. Penn State, held to a 14-14 tie by Michigan State, dropped out of the top ten to 12th place.

Midland High's Bulldogs should fight like all get-out to beat San Angelo in the stadium dedication game Friday night.

The Purple should give and give and give some more.

This is it.

This is the time to win one, whatever the odds, whatever the cost in physical expenditure.

The 1948 Bulldogs must uphold the Midland spirit and tradition of players of the past. These were good players, some of them great players—who gave their all for MHS.

The 1948 Bulldogs must see a precedent for other players to come—kids who are now in the grades and the one love of their lives is to represent Midland on the varsity gridiron.

Midland's colors in the past have stood for something. There was a time when Midland was feared on the football fields of West Texas. Men like Jay Francis, Windell Williams, Jimmy Edwards, Woodrow Adams, Gordon English, Dell True-love, Odie Kelley, Docie Foster, Black Jack Taylor, Ivan Hall, Paul Klatt, Boog Eldson, Dave Wofford, Mike Buffington, M. C. Hall, Pat McMullan, Bill Richards, Jimmy Watson and many others put the Purple banners high in history.

And the very name Memorial Stadium should make the Bulldogs fight harder Friday night. Memorial Stadium is to be dedicated to the memory of all former students of MHS, who gave their lives in two World Wars.

We appeal to the Bulldogs of 1948 to play with the will to win skin to the will to win expended by those former students who made the supreme sacrifice. They may not be there Friday night but surely they will be looking down and they deserve to see nothing short of an all-out effort by this year's football team.

Bulldogs of 1948, it's up to you Friday night.

Another successful West Texas Open Sket Shoot is history. The Midland Gun Club is to be congratulated for the fine tourney it staged.

Assisting the event by the donation of trophies were these firms and individuals: Midland Chamber of Commerce, Jack Goddard, Ed Reagle, Bum Cowden, Bill Barker, Middleton Cleaners, Laura Jesse, Hughes Jewelry, Watson LaForce, Iah McKnight, Shepard Roofing Company, B. Yonborough, Tom Sloan, Midway Motors, John I. and P. D. Moore, Hughes Tool Company, Carl B. King Drilling Company, Mascho Oil Company, Russell C. Conkling, Tallorite Clothes, Inc., F. R. Herrill, J. C. Barnes, John Darden, Paul Davis, J. Louis Thomas, Al Cowden, C. W. Chancellor, Hal Rachel, Frank Williamson, Hub King, Glass & Myrick, Scruggs Motor Company.

Drinking at football games and all other high school events has been declared a misdemeanor in the City of Dallas, and is punishable by a fine not to exceed $200.

P. C. Collier, athletic director of Dallas schools, makes this comment on the ordinance: "We have employed two plain-clothes men for the past few years to watch for drinking in the stadium and they have done a very good job, but with an ordinance such as that that has teeth in it, I do not look for any further trouble."

Passed Dec. 9, 1947, the ordinance makes it unlawful to possess, transport, or consume any alcoholic beverage at high-school athletic contests, at school-sponsored dances, parties and other social gatherings, and on the grounds and in the buildings of public schools. It provides for the confiscation of liquor possession, transportation or consumption to be a misdemeanor and provides for a penalty.

Gray kangaroos seem to grow as long as they live.

To Dedicate Stadium In Night Event

Midland school's fine new athletic plant—Memorial Stadium—will be dedicated Friday night. The formal dedication will begin at 7:30 p. m. with the Midland-San Angelo 3-AA football game following.

Here is the dedication program: master of ceremonies, Frank Monroe; "Star-Spangled Banner" by the MHS band; a medley of World War I and II tunes by the band, Frank Hoffman directing; marching by the Gold Jackets, girls drill squad, under direction of Mrs. Ines Chestnut; a silent tribute with all participating, followed by Taps played by W. L. Thompson and Larry Mayfield; introduction of the Rev. Howard H. Hollowell, pastor of the First Methodist Church; introduction of the Board of Education; Tom Sealy, president of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, will present the main speaker, who is Dr. J. W. Marshall, president of Wayland College, Plainview; formal dedication by Percy F. Bridgewater, vice president of the school board.

Then it's play ball with a fighting eleven of Midland Bulldogs striving to upset a heavy and favored eleven of San Angelo Bobcats. Both teams will be fired to the top degree for the grid battle. Midland wants to dedicate its stadium with a win. San Angelo would like to spoil it.

New Braunfels Grid Outfit Adds Another Scalp To Win String

NEW BRAUNFELS, TEXAS—(AP)—In this neck of the woods, folks, is a football team.

Point-a-minute boys they are—the Unicorns of New Braunfels High School. They have romped to 351 points in seven games and nobody has come close to scoring on them.

They have rolled up almost 4,000 yards rushing and passing and that's better than 550 yards per game.

They beat Alamo Heights of San Antonio 26-0, and Alamo Heights only last week tumbled the No. 2 team in the state—Brackenridge of San Antonio—21-0. Guess that makes the Unicorns about 40 points better than Brackenridge.

Brackenridge, you will recall, lost to Fort Arthur, the team that's rated No. 1 in Texas, only 14-6.

Fort Arthur
New Braunfels won't be playing Fort Arthur, although local fans sure wish the Unicorns could. New Braunfels is in the Class A division; Fort Arthur is in Class AA.

Guess New Braunfels will have to be satisfied with the Class A state championship.

Last week the Unicorns beat Lockhart 40-0. That was supposed to be their toughest opponent of the season. The championship of District 24-A rested on the outcome.

Unicorn boosters are not loathe to tell you that Coach Weldon Bynum has 25 starters on his squad, each capable of being a 48-minute man of the highest caliber.

But with all those top gridders, the team is not without its "big gun." He's Jerome Binsdel, a 176-pound senior who this year has made 13 touchdowns and 36 points after touchdown for a total of 114.

Port Arthur Holds No. 1 Position In Schoolboy Rankings
DALLAS—(AP)—Port Arthur's ranking as the No. 1 schoolboy football team in Texas is secure for another week.

The Dallas News' poll of sports-writers Tuesday listed the Yellow-jackets first, Amarillo second, Waco third and Baytown fourth.

Sweetwater and Arlington heights (Port Worth) moved up to fifth and sixth place respectively.

Texasians and Henderson were ranked seventh and eighth. Odessa and Alamo Heights (San Antonio) tied for ninth position.

NO CLUES IN FIRST BAPTIST ROBBERY

The robbery of the safe in the office of the First Baptist Church Saturday night remained a mystery Tuesday, the Rev. Vernon Yearby, pastor, reported. No clues to the robbery have been uncovered.

A total of $53.50 in change was taken by the culprit, who opened the safe in which the money was kept.

Mr. Yearby said the church this week has added a nightwatchman to its payroll.

The average octane number of premium gasoline has increased from 70 to 80 octane number since 1930.

The Tide Is Rolling For Demos, Truman Tells Chicago Crowd

ABOARD TRUMAN CAMPAIGN TRAIN—(AP)—President Truman claimed that "the tide is rolling" for the Democrats as he turned Tuesday from a roaring Chicago welcome to renew his election drive in Indiana and Ohio.

Spurred by the cheers of hundreds of thousands in the Illinois city, Truman declared that on election day "Some of the reddest-faced people the country has ever seen will be the pollsters."

And in Cleveland's Public Hall Tuesday night, associates said the President will give the poll takers an even more thorough going-over for their predictions of heavy majorities for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the GOP nominee.

Jacob Arvey, chairman of the Cook County Democratic Central Committee and former Mayor Edward J. Kelly arranged an ovation for the President in Chicago such as he has not seen in all his cross-country stumping campaign which started in Michigan on Labor Day.

Like Hitler, Mussolini Bill Horstman, manager of the Chicago Stadium, estimated that 24,000 persons were jammed into the big westside arena, and another 200,000 stood around outside to hear Truman as he declared democracy at home is threatened by forces similar to those that backed Hitler, Mussolini and Tojo.

The President said that "powerful reactionary forces" working "through the Republican Party" are "silently undermining our Democratic institutions."

Grinning happily at the applauding throng in the stadium, the grey-haired chief executive said he had gotten the "facts" of the campaign before the people by a strenuous personal campaign.

"I've seen and talked to more than six million people in the United States and they know the facts now," he said.

"They are determined to sweep back the forces that threaten Democracy in this country. "We are sweeping toward victory."

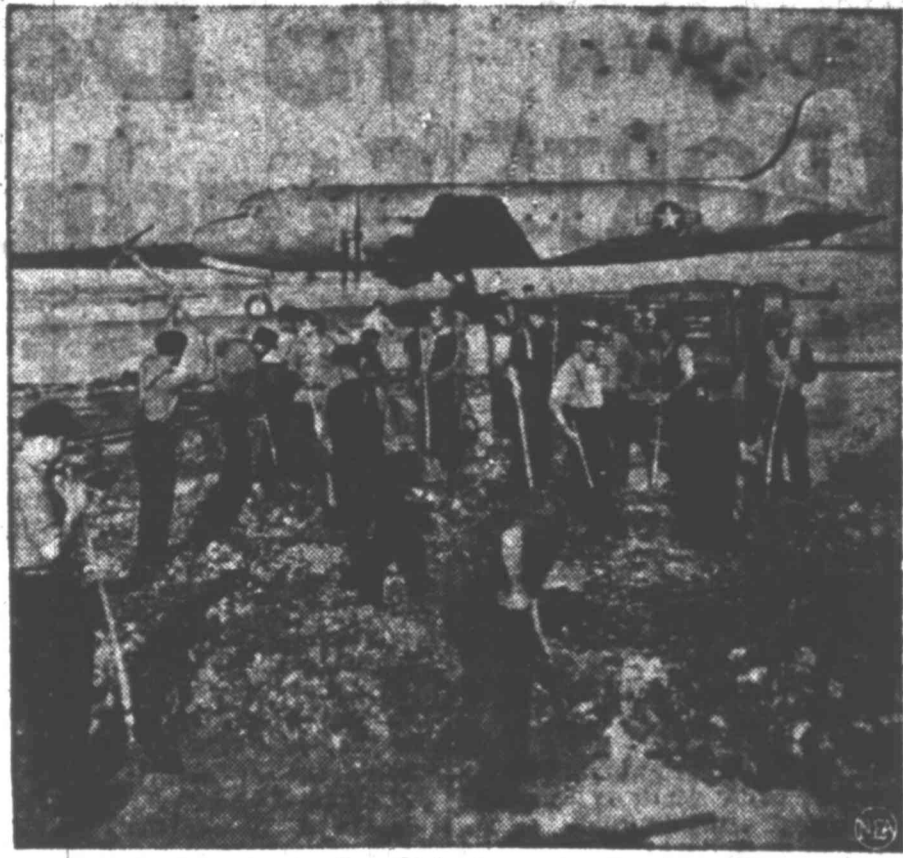

"Everywhere I go, I hear news and see faces that make me know the tide is rolling for us. "In the next few days, it is going to roll even higher. . ."

Berlin Airport Being Enlarged

Gatow Airfield, in the British sector of Berlin, is being expanded to handle more airlift planes. Already, some 400 planes fly about 3,000 tons of supplies over the Russian blockade daily. German laborers lay foundation for a new strip, while a C-47 lands in background. (Photo by NEA-Acme staff correspondent Erich Engel.)

Dulles—

Despite the veto, well-informed quarters predicted negotiations to settle the dispute within the Council would continue among the United States, Britain, France, Russia and the neutral members.

Sources close to Juan A. Bramuglia, acting president of the Council, said the Argentine felt the Western and Soviet viewpoints on Berlin still might be reconciled after further conversations.

There was no immediate indication what the next Security Council move would be. However, a British source said U. S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman met Tuesday at the French Foreign Ministry to discuss the situation.

Authoritative sources in the American delegation supported Bramuglia's belief that further talks still are possible. They said there probably will be a lull, however, because of Vishinsky's veto.

Britain Receives $310,000,000 Loan

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Economic Cooperation Administration Tuesday loaned $310,000,000 to Britain. The money is to be used for purchase of industrial machinery, equipment and materials as part of the European recovery effort.

The agreement was signed by American and British officials at the Export-Import Bank of Washington, which administers ECA loans.

The sum represents the amount of Marshall Plan aid which is available to Britain on a loan basis in the first nine months of ECA operation—in other words until the end of this year.

King George Opens Parliament Session

LONDON—(AP)—King George VI opened the new session of Parliament amid ancient pomp Tuesday and called for the nationalization of Britain's steel industry.

Britain's Labor government already has nationalized such industries as coal mining, transport and aviation. Owners of holdings in those industries were paid off in government securities giving about the same incomes.

Thousands of spectators stood in a drizzling rain to watch the monarch and Queen Elizabeth drive in a state coach from Buckingham Palace to the House of Parliament to open the crucial session.

On the throne in the House of Lords the king wore his crown and robes of state the first time in ten years.

Foreshadowing a bitter fight on steel nationalization, which Winston Churchill's Conservatives have opposed, the king announced:

"A measure will be laid before you to bring under public ownership those companies extensively engaged in the production of iron ore, or of pig iron or steel, or in shaping of steel by the rolling process."

That was all the king said on steel in his speech written for him, according to custom, by his ministers. He said also, "You will be asked to consider proposals for making legal aid and advice more readily available to persons of small or moderate means."

Airport Manager Clears Up Mystery Of Missing Baggage

HOUSTON—(AP)—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of $1,340 in photographic equipment belonging to Leotis Melchior was cleared up Tuesday.

The Metropolitan Opera star told police the equipment disappeared shortly after his arrival here Saturday.

Monday police were informed by William Z. Rozan, concert booking agent, that an unidentified man had handed a bag containing the equipment to a porter at the Municipal Airport.

But R. S. Gray, night manager of the airport, Tuesday told a different story.

"Naw," he said, "that bag wasn't stolen. It's been in my office since Saturday night."

Gray explained the bag was found on an airport sidewalk and was locked up in the airport office.

Tot, 'Run Over' By Freight Train, Has No Serious Injuries

CLINTON, IOWA—(AP)—A year-old boy who lay between the rails while a 17-car freight train passed over him showed only bruises Tuesday.

The child is Allan Lee Langrehr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Langrehr.

The baby, left with his grandmother Monday while his parents shopped, awakened from a nap and toddled out to the nearby Milwaukee Railroad tracks before his absence was noted.

Two trainmen saw the freight thunder over the child. They found him crying but otherwise unhurt. A physician said Tuesday the X-rays showed no internal injuries.

Lake Texoma Proves Top U. S. Attraction

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Lake Texoma is the greatest public recreational drawing card in the nation, the National Park Service has announced.

More people went to Lake Texoma last year than to Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C., Yellowstone National Park, or any other park or monument in the nation.

A total of 2,397,508 persons went to visit the 500 miles of shore-line that in the Lake Texoma recreational area during the travel year ended September 30.

Second public attraction was Lake Mead in Arizona and Nevada, which drew 1,607,422.

Newton B. Drury, Park Service director, said the phenomenal popularity of Lakes Texoma and Mead probably was due to the absence of other large fishing and recreational waters in the Southwest.

Budding Politicos Overlook Bet In Not Endorsing Rain

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—It is a rainy day outside, and I wonder if any political candidate is going to endorse it.

It has always seemed to me that rain was one of the most blessed things in the universe. And not because it refreshes the green things that grow in the fields—but because of what it does to human beings.

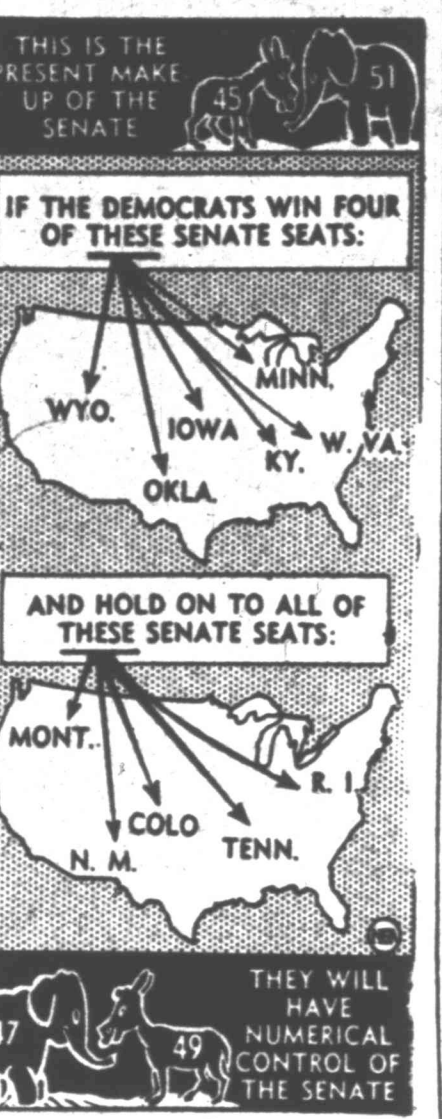

Rain wets down and washes the dreary, dusty face of nature. In the same way it washes the pettiness out of people, and makes them kinder to what they want to be. At least it does for most people.

Sunshine has the opposite effect. Sunshine is an insidious tonic that makes everybody feel wonderful—but selfish. It makes a man say to himself, "Boy, today I got the world by the tail." And sunshine is a liar. Nobody ever really had the world by the tail—for long.

Rain tells the truth. It doesn't fool anybody. It tells him what he is. Look at a plowhorse, standing in a pasture under the slanting silver pencil beams of the rain. You can tell by the kinship of their kind, and this is the great gift of rain.

Rain does for mankind in a cheap and harmless way what war does in an expensive and wasteful way. It makes a man aware of the loneliness he is born to and dies in. It makes him want to be closer to his fellows, a feeling he always has when hardship threatens, the skies clatter, and his world darkens.

Senate Slugfest

Political observers see close fights in the senatorial races in these 11 states. The Democrats, should they come through as outlined above, would gain control of the upper house.

Lore Named Midland Redistricting Head

DALLAS—James A. Lore, Midland attorney, has been named Midland County chairman of the Texas Committee for Redistricting, according to an announcement by state chairman John Ben Shepperd.

"Texas has not been redistricted in 27 years," Shepperd pointed out in announcing the appointment.

"The state constitution, however, directs that it shall be done every 10 years by the Legislature based on each new federal census."

Failure of the Legislature to redistrict following the 1930 and 1940 census has resulted in many counties with increased population being denied fair representation, according to Shepperd. To correct this situation, the Texas Committee for Redistricting is enlisting popular support for passage of Amendment Two on the general election ballot November 2.

If Amendment Two is approved, Midland County, with an estimated increase of 15,951 in population since the state was last redistricted, will be among those counties to benefit from increased representation in the Legislature, Shepperd said.

Carver School Lists Honor Roll Students

Crude Production Soars To New High Third Week In Row

TULSA OKLA.—(AP)—The nation's crude oil production reached another new all-time high during the week ended October 23—the third straight record-breaking week—the Oil and Gas Journal reported Tuesday.

The Journal listed the week's total daily average production at 5,597,735 barrels, an increase of 12,030 barrels over the previous week's record.

Oklahoma, the Journal reported, reached its production high for the year with a gain of 2,200 barrels to 434,450 barrels.

Other large gains were listed for these states:

California, up 11,500 barrels to 949,000 barrels; Kansas, up 4,400 barrels to 306,950; Indiana, 1,500 to 26,000.

Florida increased 150 barrels to 975; Alabama gained 50 to 1,450; Kentucky was up 100 to 24,000; and Colorado jumped 540 to 47,990.

Greatest declines were reported by the Journal for Illinois, down 2,800 barrels to 178,000; Michigan, off 2,450 to 45,500; Arkansas, 850 to 81,200; and Wyoming, 910 to 160,700.

The Eastern area decreased 150 barrels to 67,250; Mississippi dropped 50 to 126,350; Louisiana was off 700 to 481,250; and Montana was down 300 to 24,018.

Production was unchanged in Texas, 2,507,000 barrels; New Mexico, 133,210; and Nebraska, 350.

Resurging German Nationalism Holds Out New Hope, Perhaps Peril, To Allied West

By GEORGE BRIA
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

BERLIN—A newspaper cartoon shows four giant soldiers sprawling in the ruins of a city. A tiny bespectacled man stands on the outskirts.

"Pardon me," he asks timidly, "Where is the German sector?"

The cartoon, published this summer, is out of date.

For a "German sector," born of East-West strife, has grown in the mind if not the body of Germany.

It reached its climax early in September in a demonstration of 250,000 Germans against the Russians in Berlin. Some of them stoned the gigantic Soviet war Memorial commemorating the Red Army sweep from Stalingrad to the heart of Germany.

One man defied bullets to climb on the Brandenburg. Top and fling down the red flag. It was a plain red flag and not the official Soviet banner, but only a pedant would quibble on the difference.

Even a year ago such a hostile demonstration against one of the occupying powers would have been hard to conceive. Today the mind has become so grooved along East-West lines that the outburst was hailed by Western supporters as a defiant cry of freedom, and by the Russians as an attack by Fascist gangsters.

Sign of Rising Tide

Who was right? Neither side, entirely. More accurately, the demonstration signified the greatest sign to date of the rising tide of a new German Nationalism.

Few experienced observers of the German scene would venture to say the mass of Germans had entirely rubbed off the taint of Nazism and militarism and, in three short years, become peace-loving freemen.

On the other hand, most agree that the Germans daily are displaying a greater show of independence in the zones controlled by the British and Americans. From Joseph Cardinal Frings in Cologne to Socialist Franz Neumann in Western Berlin the cry is Germany for the Germans.

The rebirth has been nursed along by official British and American policy. A high point came last Spring when British military governor, Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, lifted the few remaining official

Hearings On Gas Flaring Scheduled In Austin Tuesday

AUSTIN—(AP)—Operators of 17 Texas oilfields were scheduled to appear before the Railroad Commission here Tuesday to show cause why the fields should not be closed because of gas flaring.

The operators were ordered to appear by the Commission, which charged them with venting gas in "unjust, wasteful amounts."

West Texas fields named in the commission's show-cause order are: North Cowden, Foster, Fullerton, Goldsmith, Levelland, McElroy, Seminole, Slaughter and Wason.

PIONEER OILMAN DIES AT TYLER

TYLER, TEXAS—(AP)—Last rites were to be held Tuesday for Alvin M. Sutton, 69, pioneer oilman. Sutton, who operated in Texas, Arkansas and Mississippi, died here Monday after a long illness.

Truck Driver Burns To Death In Crash

PLAINVIEW—(AP)—A 20-year-old truck driver, Howard Francis of Kress, Texas, was burned to death Monday night when his truck loaded with butane gas caught fire after an accident.

O. T. Staggs and W. C. Evans saw the truck turn over near here and attempted to pull Francis from the vehicle as the gas began burning. Both men were slightly burned.

Handkerchiefs should be hung over the line and pinned in the middle instead of at the corners.
