New Canyon Strike Made In Scurry By Ryan, Hays, Burke

A new Canyon-Pennsylvanian discovery has been developed in North-Central Scurry County. About six miles north of the town of Snyder, oil flowed on two drillstem tests at Ryan, Hays and Burke No. 1 R. B. Brown, wildcat.

The venture topped the Canyon reef at 6,530 feet, drilled ahead to 6,594 feet and drillstem tested for 15 minutes with packer at 6,540 feet.

Gas reached the surface in three minutes, drilling mud in eight minutes and oil flowed at the top in 10 minutes. The well flowed to pits and there was no official estimate or gauge on recovery. However, observers say it flowed at the rate of approximately 28 barrels of oil per hour.

A second test of the reef was taken at 6,593-6,644 feet, with the tool open two hours and 25 minutes. In two and one-half minutes after the tool was opened, gas reached the surface. It was followed by drilling mud in 47 minutes and oil in 53 minutes.

No Water The well flowed to tanks for one hour, producing 18 barrels of oil. Gravity of the petroleum was 42 degrees. Gas-oil ratio was 570-1. There was no water.

Operation of this development has been taken over by Sunray Oil Corporation. A string of 5 1/2-inch casing has been set at 6,535 feet, leaving open hole to 6,644 feet, total depth. The new operator is to make production tests and complete the project.

It is 860 feet from north and west lines of tract 8, section 20, J. P. Smith survey.

Nearest production to this strike is about three miles to the north, where pay is from the Canyon in the Snyder field. Whether the new development is a new discovery or a long shoot extension to the pool can be determined only by further exploration.

Royalty on acreage offsetting this strike is reported as selling for as high as $1,500 to $2,000 per acre.

Norsworthy Spots Wildcat In Scurry

C. L. Norsworthy, Jr., of Dallas is starting operations by April 25 on a 300-foot, rotary tool wildcat in West-Central Scurry County as his No. 1 E. H. Williamson.

The wildcat is 680 feet from north and east lines of the E. H. Williamson tract in section 256, block 97, H&TC survey, which puts it eight miles west of Snyder and in the general area of the Diamond M field.

Seaboard Runs DST At Gaines Venture

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware drilled tests in a 2,000-foot limestone and shale formation in East-Central Gaines County with its No. 1 Doss, wildcat 10 miles southwest of the Cedar Lake field.

The tool was open 30 minutes at 12,281-12,337 feet, using a 2,000-foot water blanket. A slight blow of air held at the top for 15 minutes.

Recovery was the water blanket and 40 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, gas or water. More hole was being made below 12,346 feet in lime, shale and chert.

No Shows Develop On Test In Midland

Shows developed on a drillstem test at the Midland Memorial Permian at Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Turner, wildcat 12 miles southeast of Midland and 1,100 feet from south and east lines of section 46, block 37, T-2-S, Leonard Leach survey.

The examination for 50 minutes at 8,065-8,144 feet, recovering 40 feet of drilling mud. Drilling was continuing.

North Snyder Gains To New Producers

Standard Oil Company of Texas has completed two more commercial oil wells from the Canyon line of the Pennsylvanian in the North Snyder field of North-Central Scurry County.

The concern's No. 3-2 Brown, 1,900 feet from north and 680 feet from west lines of section 440, block 97, H&TC survey, flowed 585 barrels of oil per day through a 10/64-inch choke on a 24-hour potential.

Gas-oil ratio was 830-1. There was no water. Production was natural from the open hole at 6,557-6,577 feet.

The other new Canyon producer is Standard No. 3-3 Brown, 1,900 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 448, block 97, H&TC survey.

Flowing natural from the open hole pay zone at 6,536-6,546 feet, it was finished for 488 barrels of oil daily, with no water and a gas-oil ratio of 880-1. The flow was through a 15/64-inch choke.

Sinclair Drills Ahead With Two Ventures

Drilling was continuing at two wildcat wells by Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company.

The company's No. 1 Lindy, extreme South-Central Lynn County venture, one mile north of Odessa.

Continued Heavy Rains Reported Over Entire State

Heavy rain continued in much of Texas Wednesday—and without the damaging hail and wind which accompanied Tuesday's rain.

The heaviest fall apparently was at Brownwood in Central Texas, where the downpour threatened to flood low-lying residential areas.

Brownwood's rainfall since Monday night totaled 5.20 inches, most of it Tuesday and Tuesday night. The high water there apparently reached its peak about 1 a.m. Wednesday, after which it receded. No water actually got into the homes in Northern Brownwood.

Other heavy rainfalls, all for the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a.m. Wednesday, included Austin 2.56 inches, Galveston 2.05, San Antonio 1.98.

J. F. Everett Rites Held Wednesday

Funeral services for John Floyd Everett, 44, were scheduled at 3 p. m. Wednesday in the Ellis Chapel, with the Rev. Clyde Lindsey, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiating. Interment was to be in Fairview Cemetery.

The American Legion Post was to have charge of the services.

Everett was found dead in his small apartment Tuesday morning by firemen who were called there to extinguish a blaze. Death was attributed to suffocation.

He was a veteran of World War I. Everett was born in Midland and attended public schools here.

Survivors include two children, Juanita and Jeanne, of Fort Worth; a brother, Noel Everett, of Big Lake, and two sisters, Mrs. E. O. King, of Odessa, and Mrs. I. W. Fortenberry, of Huntington Park, Calif.

Oxygen Tent Given To Midland Hospital

An infant's oxygen tent has been donated to the Midland Memorial Hospital by the Irene Nix Circle of the First Methodist Church. It was announced Wednesday by E. R. Andres, administrator of the hospital.

The oxygen tent is one of the first pieces of equipment to be donated to the hospital.

Any other organization desiring to assist in equipping the hospital is requested to contact Andres. Dr. John E. Thomas, president of the board of trustees, or John P. Butler, treasurer.

Andres expressed appreciation "for the fine gesture" of the circle in donating the oxygen tent.

Mrs. H. O. Henderson is chairman of the circle.

House Passes G-A Measure

AUSTIN—(AP)—The House Wednesday finally passed the first of the embattled Gilmer-Aikin school reorganization bills. The vote was 85 to 30.

Backers of the bill beat down the last-ditch strategy of opponents who had sought to break a quorum and thus block final action by a walkout.

The House was four members shy of the 100 needed to take legislative action when it met at 10 a. m. The House sergeant-at-arms was ordered a short time later to round up missing members to permit further study of the bitterly fought public school bills.

Some of the missing members came in—some under their own volition, others in custody of officers of the House.

Soon after 11 a. m. it was apparent there was a quorum present and the House could face squarely the school issue that has kept it in a turmoil for weeks.

It voted 86 to 16 to suspend the rules to permit immediate final passage. Rep. H. A. (Salty) Hull of Fort Worth had asked the House to postpone final action until next Wednesday—until two other bills in the program could be acted on.

The Hull motion lost 78 to 30. Passage on second reading came immediately for the bill by Senator Jim Taylor of Kerens setting up a new system of state supervision of the public schools. It would abolish the elective office of state superintendent—one of the key points raised in opposition—and attempt

Communist 'World Peace' Parley Opens In Paris Wednesday

PARIS—(AP)—A Communist-sponsored "World Peace Conference" opened Wednesday with a plea for the formation of peace committees throughout the world to carry out the congress's plans.

The French Communist atomic scientist, Frederic Joliot-Curie, told the 1,800 delegates from 52 nations: "We will show the warmongers that they have to reckon with us. We fight this fight with the certainty of victory."

Joliot-Curie said an atomic war would be "terrible even for its initiators" but that the atom bomb or other atomic weapons would not be the decisive factor in the fighting. He is the head of France's Atomic Energy Commission.

Unlike a world peace congress held in New York last month, this one opened with no anti-Communist pickets outside the meeting place and no evidence of any special police precautions.

O. John Rogge Present Joliot-Curie was the first speaker following the reading of names of the preparatory committee which he headed. Among 12 vice presidents announced to the meeting were O. John Rogge of New York, former assistant U. S. attorney general; Soviet writer Alexander Fadeyev; Louis Aragon, editor of the pro-Communist Paris newspaper Celes; former President Lazaro Cardenas of Mexico, and Danish author Martin Andersen.

Applause repeatedly interrupted Joliot-Curie when he assailed American atomic energy policy.

He assailed the Marshall Plan as "installing a blockade" against trade between Eastern and Western Europe. The consequence, he predicted, would be depression and unemployment.

Five days of speech making lay ahead of the delegates, with a heavy oratorical fire expected against the North Atlantic Defense Alliance.

Mrs. Flanigan Dies At Home In Midland

Mrs. J. M. Flanigan, 68, of 1211 West Texas Street, died at her home at 5:30 a.m. Wednesday. A pioneer Midland resident, Mrs. Flanigan had lived here 47 years.

Funeral services are to be held at 3 p. m. Thursday in the First Methodist Church, with the Rev. E. H. Holmwood, pastor, officiating. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery.

She was born October 25, 1880, in Kaufman, Texas, and in 1904 was married to J. M. Flanigan, who died in 1935. Her husband was a Midland merchant for many years.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Clifford C. Cool, and a son, James M. Flanigan, of Midland; a sister, Mrs. Jim T. Boggs, of Dallas; two brothers, Frank G. Hindman, of Kaufman, and T. C. Hindman, of Dallas, and a granddaughter, Patricia Flanigan, of Midland.

Mrs. Flanigan was a member of the Methodist Church.

EXPECTS TO TALK COSTS WASHINGTON—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson said Wednesday he expects to talk costs when he discusses European arms aid with the Senate Foreign Relations committee Thursday.

As a climax of the meeting, the group will be taken on a field trip through the oil fields of West Texas and New Mexico Saturday.

D. L. Garner Rites Scheduled Thursday Funeral services for David L. (Whitey) Garner, 66, will be held at 4:30 p. m. Thursday in the Ellis chapel. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Woods W. Lynch Post No. 19, American Legion, will have charge of the services.

Garner, a disabled veteran of World War I, had lived in Midland 22 years. He was born in Arkansas.

He died early Tuesday morning of suffocation when his apartment on East Davis Street caught fire as he slept.

Survivors include: a brother, John Garner of California, and two sisters, Mrs. Rosie Hardesty of Fort Worth, and another sister whose name was not learned.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A court reporter charged—and the chief prosecutor denied—Wednesday that brutality and threats were used to get confessions from Germans in the Malmedy massacre case.

Moscow-Bound

Vice Admiral Alan G. Kirk Wednesday was appointed ambassador to Moscow. Kirk is being transferred from the ambassadorship to Belgium. He also has been serving as minister to Luxembourg. At Moscow, he will succeed Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, who was relieved recently to take command of the First Army in New York.

City Adopts Budget, Sets Tax Figure

The City Council Tuesday night adopted a budget and fixed the city's tax rate for 1949-50 at a meeting which was a continuation of the budget hearing recessed from the previous Tuesday night.

The new budget lists anticipated expenditures totaling $805,696.55 and revenues amounting to $900,700.

The tax levy is $1.75 per $100 valuation, a reduction of five cents from the 1948-49 rate of $1.80. The reduction is in the interest and sinking fund requirement which this year is set at 70 cents. The general fund requirement is $1.05.

The city's tax valuation for 1949-50 is $21,500,000 as compared to $19,600,000 for 1948-49.

The budget was adopted after Mayor William B. Neely had proposed the adoption of an ordinance changing the city's fiscal and budget years, beginning April 1, to coincide with the tax year, beginning October 1. He also proposed that an interim budget covering the six-month period from April to October be adopted. He said such a move would separate the political year from the accounting year and should prove a generally desirable practice. The mayor said he had consulted bankers and officials of the League of Texas Municipalities concerning such a change and had received favorable reactions. Many cities are adopting similar procedures, he said.

Other Suggestions City Manager H. A. Thomason pointed out it would be impossible to operate under the proposed budget for a six-month period because of tax payment periods. He said it would be necessary to rework the budget should the proposal be adopted. He was favorable to making the fiscal, budget and tax years

Reds Attack As Loyalists Reject Terms

NANKING—(AP)—The dreaded Chinese Civil War exploded all along the Yangtze River front late Wednesday. Communist attacks were started at several points. Gunfire could be heard and, for the first time of the war, seen from the capital.

Pukow, across the river, was under attack. Kiangpu, on the north bank seven miles southwest of Nanking, was hit. Serious fighting was reported by government sources opposite Wuhu, 60 miles southwest of here. Hsiakou, 85 miles north of Hankow, was the focal point of the Red 43rd Army.

A top ranking Nationalist general expressed fear the Reds may try a quick landing in this vicinity, trapping Nationalist officials in the capital.

The general feeling at the moment was that Wuhu is the government's weak point. The river front there provides a good landing area. Intense activity

Observers on the Nanking river front said they saw a number of fires about two miles west of Pukow.

Communist shells burst on the north bank of the Yangtze. Wharves along the river front there were shaken heavily by the firing. There was intense troop activity throughout Nanking. Soldiers were marching up to the river front.

Along the river, troops were digging trenches and other earthworks.

The Military News Agency reported that simultaneously the Communists launched their heaviest attack so far against Taiyuan, besieged capital of Shanai Province, 600 miles to the Northwest.

The legislators' quote Ho as saying the terms were those laid down by a victor.

The premier stressed the fact that the Red terms were not in keeping with efforts of the government to seek peace.

Earlier Premier Ho Ying-chin told the Chinese Parliament the government had rejected Red peace proposals in their present form.

He held the legislators the Communist plan would not provide for lasting peace, a member disclosed after the secret parliament meeting.

Foreign armor, who were not further identified, said the Consort, which left Nanking in the morning, may have stopped at the Amethyst to pick up casualties before proceeding downstream toward Shanghai.

The firm said no fire was observed in the vicinity of the Amethyst but that smoke was rising from Communist positions opposite the island on which the sloop was grounded.

Fish Story Not Funny To Cops

ORANGE, TEXAS—(AP)—Orange had a heavy rain Tuesday night. Wednesday morning motorists saw scores of deep sea fish floating along pavements flooded by the heavy rains. It looked as if the Gulf of Mexico had invaded the city.

Sudden policemen didn't think it was funny. They explained that a truck loaded with fish had overturned, spilling its cargo.

World Mourns Death Of Stephen S. Wise, Noted Jewish Leader

NEW YORK—(AP)—The body of Dr. Stephen S. Wise, world-famed Jewish leader and militant defender of liberal causes, lay in state Wednesday at the Free Synagogue, which he founded 42 years ago.

The 70-year-old rabbi spent a lifetime preaching for peace, freedom and tolerance, first here Tuesday at Lenox Hospital.

He had undergone an operation early this month for what the hospital called a "malignant stomach ailment."

His body will remain in state through Thursday. Funeral services will be held Friday in Carnegie Hall.

Death of the crusading rabbi, who was president of both the American Jewish Congress and the World Jewish Congress, stirred sorrow around the world.

Thousands—including those with whose opinion Wise sometimes had clashed—mourned his grief and affection.

Opponent For Peace Wise was a central figure in the long battle for establishment of a Jewish homeland in Palestine.

From rostrums here and abroad and in the hearing rooms of lawmakers, the blunt, outspoken rabbi fought in behalf of civil rights, labor welfare legislation, racial equality and world unity.

In recent days, he had become deeply troubled by the tense international relations. He had expressed this country's leadership was bent upon war rather than peace.

He strongly criticized Soviet policies but said the alternative would be the "tragedy of fascism."

"I am going to spend the week which I am celebrating my 70th birthday, until my dying breath."

Wise's humanitarian endeavors brought him the respect and admiration of Jews and Christians alike.

IN HOLLYWOOD
Notes From Palm Springs,
 Foremost Desert Resort

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
 NEA Staff Correspondent

PALM SPRINGS, CALIF.—Sunbaked notes from poolside at the Palm Springs Biltmore:

America's foremost desert resort has one of America's most illustrious mayors—big, bronzed, silver-haired Charles Farrell, the screen's lover boy of the early Thirties.

Not to mention the town's honorary mayor, Bob Hope.

"We make a great team," Charles told me at the Raquet Club. "We're both hams and we're always on."

Charles' Raquet Club is his life now and he'll continue to spin all movie offers. He was a star when the town's current crop of hobby-soxers were in diapers, but recently they talked him into arranging a special performance of "Seventh Heaven," his Oscar-winning hit with Janet Gaynor.

They showed the picture one afternoon in the town's biggest theater. All the municipal employees talked Mayor Farrell into knocking off work early so they could see the show. All the hobby-soxers and all the matrons came.

Charles blushed as he told me about it.

"I got a lot of mash notes from the matrons."

The local newspaper, the Desert Sun, lists the days' temperatures under the title, "The Gay Nineties." That's what they are now, too (as yesterday), after an off-season of cold, snow flurries and an earthquake which cost the resort hotels a fortune in lost business.

But now the weather is as it should be and the Biltmore has extended its season until May 15.

Palm Springs night life is always gay. There's the Stables, where ex-Governor Jimmie Davis and his "Sunshine Band" play for square dancers (Yippee!), and the Chi-Chi, where mimic Arthur

WE, THE WOMEN

Even Experts Can Be Wrong
 On 'Poor Risk' Marriages

By NUTH MILLETT
 NEA Staff Writer

A woman who has been happily married for 12 years says she took one of those "Will Your Marriage Be Happy?" tests recently. Just for the fun of it, only to discover that according to the answers she gave, she and her husband never should have married each other at all.

According to the outcome of the test, their marriage was a mighty poor risk.

Her husband is an only child, and worse yet, the child of divorced parents. When they married she was earning more than he was.

He was starting his career at the bottom. They are of different religious faiths. And to add the final handicap to the marriage, her mother lives with them during part of each year. According to most marriage experts, all those facts are serious drawbacks to a happy marriage.

This wife says she is glad she didn't see that test BEFORE she married her husband. It might have scared her.

But being ignorant of all the chances against their being happily married, this couple went ahead with complete faith that their marriage would be happy and last a lifetime.

"Here we had all those terrible problems and didn't realize how serious they were," the wife says with a chuckle. "So we just met our problems as they came and they never seemed insurmountable."

Love Can Balance

I tell you that story because in spite of all the experts' advice young men and women keep right on falling in love with and marrying what the experts would call "poor risks."

But if two persons are deeply in love, if they take it for granted that they'll stay married for life, if they meet their problems as they come along, they'll probably get along all right. They may not be ideally happy all the time. But then few people are—whether married to a good risk or a poor one.

Love is a more powerful force than the marriage experts usually admit. When marriage is based on real love, a couple can meet almost any kind of problem, overcome all sorts of handicaps, and end up by laughing at the experts.

That is, if the young couple go into marriage confidently, never having any doubt that the marriage will last.

A NEW TRIND IN DRAPERIES

Lately there has been a noticeable change in the type of drapery desired in the modern home. Very few homes use strictly modern angular furniture— or adhere to any one of the traditional styles. The overall feeling is to the style—with a slight blending of other styles. This is especially true of drapery. Fabric cornice boards with full drawn drapes are being used more and more. This type of treatment goes away with the venetian blind and to a great extent the roller shade. It can be used in modern rooms—using the cornice board at the ceiling or possibly hanging the drapes from a traverse track at the ceiling.

Full drawn drapes to hang properly should be lined—also interlined. The interlining really helps in preventing fading. When drawn there should be at least one hundred percent fullness. This is absolutely necessary if the drapes are to give a pleasing effect. If the space to be covered is ten feet—allow twenty feet of drapery. It is also important to extend the curtain room when the drapery is open. We would enjoy discussing problems with you.

Mrs. J. J. Black Chosen To Direct Camp For Girl Scouts During Summer Season

Mrs. J. J. Black of Midland was named director of the Girl Scout camp in the Davis Mountains near Alpine, at a meeting in Odessa Tuesday night preceding a Permian Basin Area Council session in the Odessa Girl Scout House.

Mrs. Black will take charge of the camp for the summer season which will start June 6, after going to Stillwater, Okla., next week to take a camp director's training course. She has been camp chairman in the Midland Girl Scout Association and is leader of Senior Girl Scout Troop 5. Her services at the camp this summer will be on a voluntary basis, without pay.

It was announced at the meeting Tuesday that camp reservations for the first two weeks of the season all have been filled, and registrations henceforth must be for later periods.

Regional Head Speaks
Miss Eunice Fries of Dallas, regional director of Girl Scouting, was present for the council meeting. She talked on area organization and proposed plans for the 1949-50 program.

Mrs. J. E. Starley of Pecos, executive secretary for the area, reported that Girl Scout registrations since January 1 have totaled 691 girls and 247 adults. The Rev. R. J. Snell of Midland distributed financial statements and asked that all towns pay their area quotas soon in order that the area may function until Fall without a deficit.

Others from Midland who attended the meeting were Mrs. R. E.

Morgan and Mrs. I. A. Searles. Present from other cities of the area were Oscar Maples, president, Mrs. Maples, Mrs. Raymond L. Lyne, Mrs. Sam Montgomery and Mrs. N. B. Holder of Kermit; Julia Tullis, Mrs. George Ramer and Mrs. Newton Key, McCombs; Senator E. F. Berkeley, Alpine; H. L. Wilder and Mrs. W. R. Shelton, Monahan; Walter Butts, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Puckett, Mrs. Peeler Matthews, Mammie Lannom and Mary Ethel Dunn, Fort Stockton; Mrs. R. E. Scott, Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Mrs. F. N. Lisicum, Mrs. I. W. Lovelady, Mrs. J. W. Stafford, Mrs. C. M. LaLonde, Georgia Taylor and Mrs. R. J. Kneidle, Odessa.

Expert Advises Not To Dye Hair Until Summer Season Ends

By ALICIA HART
-NEA Staff Writer

If you are thinking of dyeing your hair, you might prefer to wait until Fall to take this step. You might, after listening to the warning of Perc Westmore, Hollywood studio stylist. He warns that bleached or dyed hair is more readily streaked by sun and sea-water exposure than naturally colored hair.

Another argument for postponing your hair-dyeing venture until Fall is the promise of greater summer freedom which going natural offers a woman. The touch-ups which can be taken in stride during the Fall and Winter months might prove irksome if you have to forego pleasant out-door attractions in order to give your hair the attention it requires.

Still another argument for deferring the step until Fall is that brilliant summer sunlight has a wicked way of exposing your subterfuge if you hope to keep your color-dodge your own secret.

World Clubwomen Spotlight Mutual Aid At Convention

By KAY SHERWOOD
-NEA Staff Writer

NEW YORK—Constructive efforts that women of the world are making to understand each other's problems and how they are working to build better communities were spotlighted at the annual convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, April 25-30.

About 2000 delegates and visitors from the four corners of the globe are expected to gather at Hollywood, Fla., to represent 18,500 women's clubs in the U. S. and in 31 foreign countries.

To give clubwomen a preview of what's coming up at this meeting Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck, General Federation president, sums up the convention plan in an interview.

Q. How does the General Federation promote better international understanding?

A. Affiliating women's clubs abroad with the GFWC is a definite aim. International scholarships for exchange students is another approach. Encouraging personal correspondence between U. ## Morning Stretch In Bed Easy Exercise

By ALICIA HART
-NEA Staff Writer

Morning "set-ups" which can be done in comfort and are not too strenuous for a mature woman are stretching exercises which may be taken before you climb out of bed. Such exercise helps to wake up circulation and to limber up muscles.

Before you start to stretch, kick off the bed covers so that they won't hinder freedom of movement. Then push your pillow out of the way so that you will lie flat on the mattress. Next, swing arms overhead and push up as hard as you can while pushing your head back into the mattress. The idea is to tense muscles of the torso, the legs and feet until your body is rigid. Relax quickly, swinging arms back to your sides. Repeat five or six times.

For the next morning stretch, bend left knee and pull leg up as close to your chest as possible; swing leg up in air, holding toes at the ceiling. Lower left leg and repeat with right leg. Continue, alternating the bending and stretching of legs for five or six counts.

Guest Speaks At Year's Last PTA Program

A program which the members present pronounced the most interesting of the year closed regular meetings of the North Elementary Parent-Teacher Association for this term, with Andres Lambert as guest speaker in the school auditorium Tuesday afternoon.

Lambert, a ministerial student in Wayland College at Plainview, was born of Latvian parents who were refugees in Russia. His subject was "The Home and International Relations." He told of his own homeland, Latvia, warned there is only poverty and hunger in communism for all the nations which have come under its sway and urged parents to teach their children to pray for Russia.

Delegates were elected from the unit for the district conference of Parent-Teacher Associations which will be held in Big Spring Friday.

They are Mrs. Stanley Erskine, Mrs. Waldo Leggett, Mrs. R. E. Donnell, Mrs. F. D. Breedlove, Mrs. Brutus Hanks, Mrs. W. E. Crites and Mrs. Sherwood O'Neal.

Mrs. George Grant read a history of the year's work in the association, which she has compiled to add to the full history.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing. How quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcostrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if you're still carrying extra pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back slurring curves without yearning for much better you feel. More alive, prouder appearing and active.

10 pounds lost in 10 days
Mrs. M. C. Britton, 206 W. Wilford, San Antonio, Texas, writes as follows: "I am a faithful user of Barcostrate. I had gained 100 pounds in 10 years and needed so badly to lose 10 pounds, so I started using Barcostrate and my answer was over for I lost 10 pounds in 20 days. I now weigh 135 pounds. I eat most anything I want and hold my same weight."

5 doctors prove this plan breaks the laxative habit

If you take laxatives regularly—here's how you can stop!
Because 5 New York doctors now have proved you may break the laxative habit. And establish your natural powers of regularity, eighty-three per cent of the cases tested did so.

Stop taking whatever you now take. Instead: Every night for one week take 2 Carter's Pills. Second week—once each night. Third week—once every other night. Then—nothing! Every day! drink eight glasses of water; set a definite time for regularity.

Five New York doctors proved this plan can break the laxative habit.
How can a laxative break the laxative habit? Because Carter's Pills "unblock" the lower digestive tract and from then on let it make use of its own natural powers.

Further—Carter's Pills contain no habit-forming drugs.
Break the laxative habit... with Carter's Pills... and be regular naturally.
When weary, overworking, overwork makes you irregular temporarily—take Carter's Pills temporarily. And never get the laxative habit. Get Carter's Pills at any drugstore for 35¢ today. You'll be grateful the rest of your life.

Liberal Isolationists

More than 300 Americans, in an open letter, have urged the Senate to turn down the North Atlantic Treaty.

One of the letter's sponsors, T. O. Thackrey, is a consistent Communist apologist. But the bulk of the signers, including Protestant bishops, several college presidents and deans, and other distinguished citizens, scarcely can be called either leftists or innocents.

The liberal isolationist is anti-Fascist and non-reactionary. But like the rightist isolationist, his policy is peace at any price.

The liberal isolationist can recognize both bigotry and Communist propaganda when he meets them. But his recognition does not save him from being an asset to both.

Capitalism and communism not only can but must live together in the same peaceful world, the open letter states. That is true. But it is not the whole truth.

No country has ever chosen a Communist government in a free and unfettered election. Yet millions now live under such governments. That is a fact which must be faced.

But that does not mean that we must sit by while millions more become the unwilling subjects of Communist dictatorship. When Russia is forced to accept the status quo by the free world's united determination and strength, then talk of "the same peaceful world" will be sensible as well as hopeful.

It's Up To Greece

Secretary of State Acheson acted wisely, we believe, in turning down Great Britain's suggestion that this country increase its military aid to Greece.

Our government cannot cut off funds from Greece without assuring a Communist victory. But with its other commitments, it cannot add unscheduled millions to this seemingly lethargic Greek struggle for national survival.

Something To Cackle About

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Drew Pearson says: GOP maneuvers to regain lost favor; soft coal flows at Democratic meeting; Truman girls for battle.

WASHINGTON—The Republican National Committee has sent out a frantic warning that, unless the GOP acts quickly to offset the bad publicity over its alliance with the Dixiecrats, it may jeopardize the re-election of three stalwart Republicans—Taft of Ohio, Caphart of Indiana, and Donnell of Missouri.

The GOP National Committee also is pleading with senators to sign a cloture petition limiting debate on civil rights when it comes up again.

So far, the national committee admits, the Republicans have taken a beating in the press for their compromise on the filibuster. As an example of Negro reaction, the committee cites the editorial bitterness of the Afro-American, a leading Negro newspaper, which hitherto always has supported the Republican ticket.

"We made a grievous mistake in supporting the re-election of a Republican Congress," declares the Afro-American after the Republican-Africanist deal. "Twice in the past week have the actions of the Republicans in the Senate shown us how grievous was our error."

The women's points out that most newsmen believe it is impossible to muster the necessary 60 signatures to shut off a civil rights debate, as required under the compromise agreement. That is the reason the committee urges every Republican senator to a man—to sign the gag petition.

Not only will this save the re-election of Taft, Caphart and Donnell, argues that national committee, but it will cut into the Democratic vote in Kentucky, California, Illinois, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Oklahoma, Maryland and New York—where there is a heavy Harlem ballot.

Note: The letters sent out to GOP senators by the national committee were signed by Val Washington, himself colored. He is assistant to national GOP chairman Hugh Scott.

Merry-Go-Round: Senator Millard Tydings, the dapper Democrat from Maryland, was bustling around the Senate floor the other day as if conferring on matters of state. He hustled from one senator to another, whispering earnestly. The truth was, he was trying to get rid of some free tickets to the race track.

Speaker Sam Rayburn proudly has been displaying a cashier's check for $40,000 which he raised for the Democratic Party during a Jackson Day speaking tour in Texas. That ain't hay.

The editors of Saturday Evening Post consider Minnesota's boy-wonder, Sen. Robert Humphrey, as a presidential prospect. Humphrey has assigned feature writer Rufus Jarman to write a detailed profile to be published probably in two articles. Democrat's Woo.

In a bid for Democratic unity, party leaders threw private dinner the other night for freshmen congressmen and turned on the soft soap.

Sen. J. Howard McGrath, Democratic national chairman, blamed the Republicans for all the trouble over civil rights.

"The Republicans are to blame," he cracked. "Because they formed a coalition with the Dixiecrats to block a change of Senate rules."

Bribery Charged Comal Ex-Sheriff

NEW BRAUNFELS—Former Comal County Sheriff W. A. Scholl is under $2,000 bond Wednesday on a complaint charging he accepted a bribe.

Justice of the Peace H. R. Voges Tuesday bound Scholl over to the next grand jury. He overruled a defense motion for dismissal.

Scholl, sheriff for eight years prior to January 1, is charged with accepting a bribe from Albert O. Smith of San Antonio last Friday.

Smith testified in an examining trial Tuesday he gave Scholl a bribe to dissuade the ex-sheriff from testifying in a cattle theft case.

Rate of night fatal accidents has risen 20 per cent in rural areas.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Iodine Necessary For Proper Body Functioning And Growth

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

Iodized salt for the prevention of goiter was recommended in 1924 by the Michigan State Medical Society in cooperation with the State Board of Health.

Iodine is needed for proper functioning of the human body. The physicians mentioned point out that iodine is as necessary to the normal functioning of the thyroid gland (the enlargement of which produces goiter) as water is to the growth of plant life.

In children who live in areas in which the food or water does not contain enough iodine and who are stunted in growth for that reason, iodine and thyroid extract is of great help in restoring normal speed of growth.

Iodine also is important in other respects. It plays some part in animal and human fertility. As early as 1917 salts containing iodine were fed to Michigan sheep in order to prevent the high death rate which was occurring among the newborn lambs.

Some people have objected to the addition of iodine—in the form of sodium iodide—to salt for fear it might be dangerous. Careful studies, however, have shown that harmful effects do not occur.

In one survey involving more than 50,000 children, not a single child was found to have developed any bad effects whatever.

WASHINGTON COLUMN Statehood For Hawaii Cheap, But Alaska Would Cost Money

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Any consideration of taking Hawaii and Alaska into the Union as forty-ninth and fiftieth states raises the question of money. Will it cost the mainland taxpayer more to support Hawaii and Alaska as states than as territories? Will it cost the taxpayers of those two territories more if they are admitted to the Union? Will the people of the territories and of the mainland get more for their money, regardless of who pays for it?

Answers to these questions for Hawaii are relatively simple. Admission of the islands would make little difference on income or outgo. The cost of the territorial government to the U. S. Treasury is now about $50,000 a year, for salaries of governors and legislators.

That cost would be transferred to the islands under statehood. On the other hand residents of Hawaii pay full federal as well as local taxes. They would continue to pay them under statehood. Incidentally, Hawaii's federal taxes of over $100,000,000 a year are greater than the taxes paid by 12 of the states.

Hawaii has for a long time carried the costs of its own court, police, highway, health and educational systems. Admission to statehood would make no difference to federal or island taxpayers.

Statehood, would, however, enable the Hawaiians to receive larger benefits from some of the federal grant-in-aid programs. The present school lunch program, for instance, limits the amount that may be allocated to the territories. Admission to statehood would enable Hawaii to get state's full share, based on area and population.

Government Bears Burden: The situation with respect to Alaska is more complicated. In the first place, the federal government owns 97 1/2 per cent of all real property in Alaska. The federal government carries the full load of operating the Alaska railroad, the highway system, education, health, courts and law enforcement, except in cities. The federal government also cares for the Eskimos, Indians and the Inuits.

The total cost comes to around $180,000,000 for the current year. Federal tax collections for Alaska are estimated at about $15,000,000 a year. So income is only a tenth of outgo.

Under proposed legislation to grant Alaska statehood, four sections in each township—amounting to one-fourth of the land area—would be given to the State of Alaska. Timber cutting, mining rights and tax revenues from these areas would support state government.

Today the United States is spending about $8,000,000 a year just for governmental functions in Alaska. This represents about $100 for each of the 90,000 inhabitants. Whether all this cost could be saddled on the state government is questionable. Residents of Alaska pay city taxes, federal income taxes and one-tenth of the amount of their federal income tax as a territorial income tax.

Gov. Ernest Gruening has set up a territorial budget and during his administration in territorial legislature has passed laws putting Alaska in shape to take over full financial responsibility as a state. Much of the opposition to Governor Gruening's confirmation for reappointment as territorial governor comes from absentee owners of Alaskan fishery and mining industries, which don't want to pay taxes to put Alaskan government on a self-supporting basis.

But even under statehood, the federal government would have to subsidize shipping lines to the mainland and operate the Alaska railroad. Both are losing propositions.

More goods are shipped to Alaska than are shipped back as fish, furs or mineral products. For defense reasons, Alaska's aerial highway system would have to be supported at the rate of about three federal dollars for every one Alaskan dollar. Airports and communications also would have to be federally maintained.

Admission to statehood would enable Alaska to get a full share of federal funds now arbitrarily denied her by Congress.

The first Alaskan legislature in 1913 petitioned Congress for eight reforms: liberalization of land laws; greater protection for fisheries; opening of more areas for settlement; reduction of transportation costs; building of more roads; payment of salaries to U. S. commissioners; more agricultural research, and appropriation for Alaska by Congress on a scale comparable to grants given the Philippines and Puerto Rico.

After 36 years, Alaska, still is asking the same things. Alaska's development is definitely limited by its climate. But its residents point to the Scandinavian countries, supporting 13,000,000 people, as evidence of how Alaska might be developed as a state. As a territory, its population has grown from 30,000 to only 90,000 in 36 years.

ROGER THE LODGER

By Elizabeth R. Roberts

THE STORY: Roger is a problem lodger in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts. He latest episode was a party for three Russian men and their wives. Roger had planned to cement his relations with the Russians, but they all have been slightly stymied. However, Roger comes out of the affair with a promotion to captain.

WITH his captain's bars, Roger also got leave to go home. "Mary would be a good deal of help to you in this big house," he said, solicitous as always of my welfare. "I think I should bring her back with me." (Bill's and the guest room were at the moment unoccupied.) Then, as usual, Roger tipped his hand. "My bitter half and two public enemies have visited my mother about long enough. Both sides are crying 'quit.' I've got to do something about it." He considered this for a minute; I suppose he was considering it, for he knit his black brows and stated fixedly out of the window. "We could manage here very nicely with you and The Landlady. You'd like Mary?" he concluded, temptingly.

Whether I'd like Mary or I wouldn't like Mary was entirely beside the point. What I wouldn't like would be shifting sides and having Robbie and me lodging and at the mercy of Roger on our own house—or, rather, more at his mercy than we already were.

I was in an open frame of mind when a friend asked if we'd take in a couple, an Air Corps major and his wife. "Older people, settled and responsible," my friend said.

They were older and they were responsible. Major Capner was an instructor, bald, on the round side, with a spare chin, and he said he was 35 years old. Their only child, a boy of 14, was in boarding school in Massachusetts and Molly had rented her house furnished in order to gussy around the country with the Major. Gypsy was the word she used, and its use marked her as a woman of perspicacity.

Saturday night, Robbie and I were guests of the Capners at the Officers' Club dance, and it was while tripping the light fantastic with Major that he asked whether I'd ever been in a B-17. "I'm taking Molly up tomorrow. Would you like to go?" "Would I like to go?" I asked. "Major said he could sign in a wife, or mother, or both, and since Molly would be going, it meant I'd have to be Mrs. Capner, Sr. for the flight. Gallantly he regretted it was not possible to sign in a sister. I agreed to be Momma in fact, listened to my friend's bragging which would greet my introduction as the mother of this balding, middle-aged man.

carphones there and tuned in on a Sunday broadcast while we watched the earth slide by beneath.

I learned that Montana is pocked with small lakes and water holes; that strip farming, in winter, looks like giant sebra skins stacked out to dry with ropes running parallel for a distance, then shooting off at crazy angles as though for leg or neck.

THE wings tipped, one side and then the other. This was our signal to report. We scrambled through the bushes to reach our places, like lackeys, behind the pilots.

"Where do you want to go?" the Major shouted above the roar of the motors.

"Glacier Park," I shouted, pointing ahead to the shining mountains. He tipped the wings slightly to say "Roger," and, to my consternation, let go his controls, took the earphones from his head, backed out of his place, and mentioned me to sit down.

"NO!" I shouted. "Not me, NO!" Gypsy prodded from behind, the co-pilot, nodded encouragingly, and Major pushed me into his vacant chair. He held the earphones while he pointed to the instrument panel. "See that level?" he shouted. "Just keep the level true to it." He pointed to a simple gauge which had a stationary line running across it. A free line indicated the angle of the ship's position in relation to the horizon. When the ship was on absolutely even keel, it fell into position with the stationary line.

He pulled the pedals on which he now placed my feet, pressing down first with the left wing, which dipped the starboard wing. "See how easy it is?" he shouted. "Before I could draw breath to shout 'NO,' I grabbed the wheel and, pushing it down, pitched the plane straight for the earth. Raising it, he righted the ship. "Easy, isn't it?" he shouted. "All you have to know. Now, let's see you fly 'em." He placed the earphones over my head and to my ears. Then he backed away. (To Be Continued)

Feller's Flop Is Sole Sour Note In Big Time Openers

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Feller's failure was the most disturbing note of the major league baseball openers which otherwise read like a carbon copy of 1948.

A year ago Bobby pitched a two-hit shutout opening day as the Cleveland Indians rushed into a six-game winning streak. Before they stopped winning, they were world champions.

Tuesday Feller was yanked after two innings because of wildness and a sore arm. He yielded one run as the Indians lost to the upstart St. Louis Browns 8-1. Red Garver scattered seven hits to beat the champs before 12,817, the Browns' largest opening crowd in 15 years.

Otherwise things were normal. Rip Sewell of Pittsburgh resumed his favorite job—beating the Chicago Cubs. He scored his tenth opening day triumph 1-0. Lou Brissie, the Philadelphia A's brilliant second-year man, repeated his 1948 rookie job of spilling the opener for the Boston Red Sox 3-2. Larry Jansen of the New York Giants continued to find it tough to whip Brooklyn, losing 10-3 under a deluge of homers by Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella and Carl Furillo.

Crowds slightly off
With outfielder Joe DiMaggio on the bench in street clothes, the New York Yankees shaded Washington 3-2 on a ninth inning home run by Tommy Henrich. The crowds were slightly off but some of the smaller parks were the sites of Tuesday's games. The total for Monday and Tuesday was 257,459 as compared to 331,783 in '48. However, the remaining openers Friday, including an expected 70,000 at Cleveland, should better last year's 16-game total.

The largest crowd was 53,435, a Briggs Stadium opening record that came to see the Detroit Tigers thump the Chicago White Sox 5-1.

Bouncing back from Monday's shutout by Kent Heinzelman, the Boston Braves whipped the Philadelphia Phillies twice, 4-3 and 11-2, before a Patriots' Day crowd of 30,337.

Cincinnati capitalized on errors to whip the St. Louis Cardinals 3-1.

Lawsuit, Fund Drive Mark McAllen Fight For Baseball Club

McALLEN —(AP)— A hearing on whether a McAllen baseball park is a nuisance continued Wednesday and so did a drive to raise money to keep the McAllen club in the Rio Grande Baseball League.

Four men who own homes near the park brought suit to have the ball park declared a nuisance. The men—J. W. Martin, W. E. Bostelman, Paul Richardson and Birchard Newton—want an injunction to keep the McAllen team from playing in the park. The hearing is at Edinburg.

Andrew J. Paris, known as America's bubble gum king, built the park and owns the franchise in the league. Three of the men testified at the hearing Tuesday. They said in 93rd District Court that the yells of the crowd, noise of automobiles and the sealing off of their homes from the glare of lights would cause untold suffering in "semi-tropical heat."

Alice Seeks Franchise
The homeowners call the site of the park a "suburban residential area."

Paris calls it rural and farm area. Rio Grande League President Bill Byrd extended for five more days a deadline for certification of the McAllen club's readiness to play.

A group of Alice men are reported ready to take over the McAllen franchise, should it become available.

Dan Sanborn, head of the fund raising drive, said the campaign to keep McAllen in the Class D league has netted $15,000 in pledges. He said about $35,000 is needed and that response so far has been "good."

Neil Pratt, Syracuse University miler from Erie, Pa., is the best middle-distance runner in the school's history.

Five Cinder Records May Fall Saturday In Jayhawk Relays

LAWRENCE, KAN. —(AP)— The heat will be on at least five records in the 24th running of the Kansas Relays Saturday.

Marks in danger include the discus throw, mile run, pole vault, university two-mile relay and college class sprints medley.

The final list of entries announced by Meet Director Bill Easton show a total of 722 contestants representing 19 schools in the university class, 28 in the college division and nine junior colleges.

Entries for the interscholastic relays, scheduled for Friday, total 1,510 athletes coming from 168 high schools.

The "Glenn Cunningham" mile standard of 4:10.1 established by Blaine Riedout of North Texas State in 1940, will be endangered by Wisconsin's Don O'Rmann, Jerry Thompson of Texas and Tarver (Cy) Perkins of DeKalb, Ill., the defending champion.

Pole Vault Hopes
Thompson turned in a 4:12.3 in the recent Texas Relays. At least four boys will go after the pole vault record of 14 feet, 2 inches set by Beufus Bryan of Texas in 1939. Warren Bateman of Colorado and Harry Cooper of Minnesota are the defending co-champions. Bill Carroll, Oklahoma, and Wisconsin's Tom Bennett are others who have done 14 feet or better within the last year.

Anchorman Mike Mercado is the only returning member from East Texas State's sprints medley record-making team of last year, but the Texans appear faster than ever. Arturo Ochoa, Bob Williams and Don Hurst teamed with Mercado for a 3:27.9 in the Texas Relays and 3:31.9 in the Southern Relays at Birmingham last week.

East Texas set the Kansas Relays mark at 3:31 last year.

WT-NM Loop Opens Wednesday Night

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
NEW YORK —(NEA)— Joe DiMaggio's hot heel could disassemble the Yankees' dream outfield, one of the greatest in baseball history.

Charlie Keller is highly questionable. Tom Henrich may be needed at first base.

When the New York Americans plucked young King Kong Keller from the Maryland campus, right under Clark Griffith's nose, Col. Jacob Ruppert was as pleased as he was with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, the latter his pet player.

Ruppert's Dream
Colonel Ruppert wanted the Bombers to excel at everything, and he went far back into the records to find something at which to shoot.

When he first saw Keller in Newark in 1937, he predicted that soon the Yankees would have a fly-chasing triumvirate outstripping the immortal Hooper-Lewis-Speaker trio that thrilled American League crowds from 1909 through '15.

Colonel Ruppert, who played baseball well as a youngster, saw and admired Harry Hooper, Duffy Lewis and Tris Speaker of the Red Sox, but they weren't Yankees.

And to the New York brewer, anybody or any combination that wasn't attached to the Yankees just couldn't be the best.

So when he got a good gander at Keller with the Newark Bears, he beamed, and said: "Now we'll show those fellows who are always talking about Hooper, Lewis and Speaker."

Unfortunately, Colonel Ruppert did not live to see DiMaggio, Keller and Henrich perform as a unit. The man who built Yankee Stadium died Jan. 13, 1939, the year Keller broke in with the parent organization.

A lot of old-timers will tell you that DiMaggio, Keller and Henrich did not outdo Hooper, Lewis and Speaker, but they made a mighty fine stab at it.

They all hit a long ball, threw like rifles, ran like thieves, and were highly intelligent. Each was peculiarly adapted.

DiMaggio accomplished something that even the remarkable Gehrig could not do. The Big Boy from Fishermen's Wharf carried the club.

Colonel Ruppert personally scouted DiMaggio in a post-season game in the San Francisco Bay area.

He took a chance, and wound up taking what turned out to be one of the great baseball bargains. DiMaggio threw out his knee while seated in a jammed jitney bus, of all things, in 1934.

This is why the Yankees got him for $25,000 and five players named Oscar Hocks, or something like that. They let the youngster remain with the Seals in '35, to be certain he was sound, among other things, and brought him up to put the breath of life back into the Yankees in '36.

When Commissioner Landis freed Henrich from the Cleveland chain in April, 1937, Colonel Ruppert gave the Massillon kid $25,000 for signing.

Keller had broken discs removed from his spine in June, 1947. Last Summer, the soft-spoken chap from Fredericksburg broke his throwing hand falling while making a shoestring catch.

Now when he hits the ball, nothing much happens.

So this could be the closing chapter of an extraordinary baseball story.

Rain Cancels All Midland Ball Games

Rain caused the cancellation of one game and the postponement of another here Tuesday.

The scheduled tilt between the Midland Indians and the Sweetwater Swatters was called off and probably will not be played due to lack of time before the season opens.

The Midland-Big Spring High School contest slated here will be played next Wednesday. Coach Garvin Beauchamp announced.

All other District 3-AA games scheduled Tuesday also were postponed.

It's a Bird

Donald Kerr of New Orleans has an artificial left leg, but is still able to get up in the world, and make spectacular returns like this. He did not have enough tricks, however, and was eliminated by John Franczak of Chicago in the first round of the National Badminton Championships on Chicago's Navy Pier.

SPORTSLANTS

BY SHORTY SHELburne

The National Baseball Congress has released an estimate saying there will be from 300 to 500 semi-pro baseball leagues in operation in the United States this year.

The 1949 program is the greatest ever for the expansion and betterment of sandlot baseball in America.

The Alpine Cowboys, sponsored by Herbert Kokernot, Jr., will be back again this season to battle for the national crown.

Many words have been written about Kokernot and each one of them was due him. He has limited nothing to give Alpine and West Texas one of the finest semi-pro teams in the world.

It was largely through his efforts the St. Louis Browns and Chicago Cubs played big league baseball in Alpine this season.

Roy Mann, a first base candidate on the Midland High baseball team, suffered finger injuries when a window fell on his hand this week.

The absence of Mann throws Marion Tredaway back on first base. Bill Branch will take over at short.

Bear Curfman, a veteran football official well remembered in this area, has been named to referee the annual All-Star grid game at the state coaching school in Beaumont this year. He also will interpret the new rules in schoolboy football.

Indians Drill For Tilts With Broncos And Odessa Oilers

Manager Harold Webb was scheduled to send his Indians through a stiff workout Wednesday in preparation for the Thursday night exhibition game with the Big Spring Broncos in Big Spring.

Webb indicated he will use Sam Van Hoozer and possibly Levi Clay or Rudy Kellee against the Broncos.

Ray Coos, promising outfielder, has been sent to St. Louis for observation and treatment of an injured arm. He will be absent from the lineup for several days.

The Big Spring club will meet the Indians in Indian Park here Sunday afternoon.

The Odessa Oilers are scheduled against the Indians here Friday night.

Andy Mogish, Syracuse University freshman basketball mentor, has switched to the Orange freshman nine this spring.

R. G. DeBerry, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. DeBerry of San Angelo, is making a top hand on the tennis squad at Texas A&M. R. G., Sr., was a coach at Stanton High School in 1940 and 1941. He helped pilot the last district grid champion from Stanton.

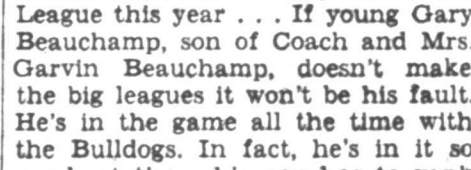

Slingshot Sammy Baugh—the great, no less—will appear in a matched roping at the San Angelo College Rodeo May 8 and 7.

If he's as good at tossing the loops as he is at tossing passes, Lee Williams of Christoval, his opponent, might as well give up.

Baugh is a rancher in the off season. He owns a spread near Roby.

HALF SLANTS... The latest addition to the Big Spring Broncos is one "Potato" Pasquel. He's an outfielder-infielder-pitcher-hitter, according to Tommy Hart, Oh, yes, he's a Cuban, too... Dick Gyselman, Sweetwater manager, has been ill in the hospital with chicken pox... The Philadelphia A's, our choice to surprise in the American League, won the Grapefruit Circuit with a record of 23 wins and seven defeats... We're glad to see Ted Thompson get the "Top Wrangler" of the month award. His was one of the hottest teams in the City Basketball League this year... If young Gary Beauchamp, son of Coach and Mrs. Garvin Beauchamp, doesn't make the big leagues it won't be his fault. He's in the game all the time with the Bulldogs. In fact, he's in it so much at times his pop has to yank him out... Bob Clark, a member of the Odessa High School coaching staff, will be director of the National AAU Track and Field Meet for women to be held in Odessa August 12 and 13... The Odessa Shriners are sponsoring the meet... The Midland Tennis Club has run into difficulties on the proposed sale of club property in West Midland. A definite decision on the disposal of the property will be made at a meeting in the county courtroom Thursday at 8 p. m... Joe Robertson is planning to sponsor the diamond sport in a big way this year. He will have a softball team, coach the Junior Legion club and possibly sponsor a semi-pro nine. Joe is a baseball man, through and through.

Yank-Saver

Third Baseman Billy Johnson plays first base like he had been there all his life, and apparently solves a Yank problem.

Electric Room Coolers

Here's how an Electric Room Cooler Works...

● The good old summertime has a lot of things in its favor—and some disagreeable points as well. Hot days and breezeless, stifling nights are among the things that make summer uncomfortable for everyone, unless steps are taken to beat the heat.

Electric room coolers, drawing fresh outside air through water-soaked filters, keep a constant flow of cool, refreshing air circulating throughout your house or apartment. Both days and nights are more comfortable, more enjoyable when electric room coolers are on the job.

The arrows above show how an electric room cooler, placed with an eye to best circulation of the porch-cool, fresh air it draws from outside, keeps gentle, refreshing air currents moving throughout your house or apartment. Easy to install and economical to operate, electric room coolers readily adapt themselves to any type of home construction.

Electric room coolers to fit your cooling needs are available in many styles, shapes and sizes. Visit your favorite electrical cooling-equipment dealer now for the room cooler of your choice.

City Cabs Dependable And Quick

Dependable service has paid off in dividends of customer confidence, according to Horace Newton, manager of the City Cab Company, 311 North Colorado Street.

The City Cab Company has been under Newton's management for seven years but the firm has been serving Midland for many years. City Cab drivers constantly are reminded to keep safety uppermost in their minds.

Four of the five cabs in service are 1949 model automobiles and the other is a 1948 model, which assures the utmost in comfort to the passenger.

Radio-Equipped
The cabs are equipped with two-way radios and the drivers are in contact with the dispatcher at all times. This assures quicker service since the nearest cab is sent to answer the call.

The firm offers cab service 24 hours of the day.

The automobiles used by City Cab Company are serviced regularly and the brakes checked at regular intervals to insure uninterrupted service as well as a safeguard against accidents, Newton said.

Courtesy has become a by-word with City Cab drivers and the driving record of all personnel was thoroughly checked before employment.

The term "midshipman" was first applied to boys who carried orders between officers in the after castle and sailors in the forecastle and hence were often amidships. It is now applied to U. S. Naval Academy students.

Bowling, League Is Open

Plamor Palace Place To Play

There's plenty of time left to get in a summer bowling league before play starts in the next few weeks at the Plamor Palace.

But it won't be necessary to get into a league for this pleasant, waist-reducing pastime, according to "Jonesie," the manager, since there will be lots of open play.

The winter leagues now are winding up.

The Plamor has eight maple alleys which are kept in the best of condition at all times. It is located at 211 West Wall Street and has been serving the recreational needs of the community the last 10 years.

The alleys are scientifically resurfaced by Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company with a Red Crown resurfacing machine in accordance with annual requirements of the American Bowling Congress.

Pleasant Recreation
Men, women and children alike find enjoyment in this pleasant recreation. Nothing has been spared by the Plamor to add to the comfort and convenience of its patrons. The hall is air conditioned and a full stock of refreshments and candies is kept on hand at all times.

The Plamor also has installed two shuffleboards which have proved their popularity with the customers.

The management cites figures to show that bowling holds a top position for indoor recreation in the nation and says that interest in the pastime rapidly is increasing with Midlanders.

One of the oldest rings known was a gold Egyptian ring found at Gizeh bearing the name of Cheops, the Pharaoh for whose tomb one of the pyramids was built.

Pigeons' Foe Gets the Bird

In San Francisco, where the mayor launched a campaign against pigeons in Civic Center, this brazen blue pigeon showed what she thought of the whole business by laying an egg in a judge's chambers in Superior Court. Court reporter Dick Penland tries to coax the hen back to retrieve her future offspring before legal minds resort to the frying pan.

Weeping Statue Girl Has Movie Ambitions

NEW YORK—(AP)—"I'm just a little girl and I haven't got any powers."
That's what Shirley Anne Martin said Tuesday night on a Columbia Broadcasting System radio and television program. "We, the People."
Here from her home in Syracuse, N. Y., where many people say they saw a broken statuette of St. Ann shed tears after she kissed it, the 11-year-old girl said: "Oh, so many people, they came from everywhere. They say it's a miracle and they come and pray. They want to touch me and heal them if they're sick. But I can't heal anybody—I'm just a little girl and I haven't got any powers."
On the program, Shirley held a replica of the statuette which she says "weeps when I kiss her." The statuette itself was left in safekeeping at her home.
Years of Happiness
She said she believed the tears were "tears of happiness."
"I think that St. Ann is happy because I love her," she said.
Shirley told reporters she wanted to be a movie actress when she grows up. She said she had appeared in newsreels, she protested:
"But that ain't movies."
The girl's mother, Mrs. Arthur Martin, said their Syracuse home was thronged with crowds.
At the spot where Shirley first kissed the statue after it fell from a window and broke April 2, visitors pick up dirt from the driveway and carry it home, Mrs. Martin said.

Illinois 'Cat Bill' Brings Deluge Of Verbal Warfare

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—(AP)—Cat fanciers and bird lovers are clashing and pecking at each other in Illinois.
Their verbal warfare is seen-sawing on Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's desk, where the "Cat Bill" awaits his action.
A flood of letters and telegrams urged Stevenson to veto the measure, which cleared the legislature last week. He has several more days to act.
The letters run five to one against the bill.
The communications have come from as far away as Spokane, Wash., and New York City.
The tug of war is over a proposal to declare cats roaming off their owner's premises a public nuisance and to legalize their painless capture by any citizen. A lawbreaking cat could be fined $1.
What About Seed-Eaters?
The announced intention of the bill is to protect insect-eating songbirds. Miss Gertrude Charney of Chicago, president of the Friends of Birds, Inc., labored six years to put over the bill.
A telegram to Stevenson from a Chicagoan raised this question: "If this silly bill protects only insectivorous birds, what about the puss whose taste runs to seed-eating birds and how will the cat catcher know the difference?"
A World War I veteran from Xenohurst, Ill., who mailed his Purple Heart medal to the governor said final approval of the bill would leave him without "even the right to own a pet in the country I bled for."
The medal will be returned.

Technique Of Television Worries Hal

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK.—(AP)—Is television any more than keeping your mouth wide and your eyes agape?
"I don't know for sure except I've been on the darn thing. That is, I've been on a television program. Just how to talk to the rest of you who haven't had this adventure I'm not sure."
Life has passed you by. And I, like a good fellow, want to tell you what it's like.
I would say there are two ways to meet television—male and female. I am male. That is the deplorable technique. You sit there on a couch until the program starts.
Ah, but if you are female! That is a different matter. That is the technique above. The lady goes upstairs and gets herself overhauled—as if a simple thing like that would surprise you when she came back down.
Cameras! Get At You
And guest men? Well, I was a guest man. There I was and what was I to say?
All of a moment there you are with two or three cameras pointing at you waiting for you to say something important. And all you can think is "What will posterity think?"
And posterity isn't on the program—that is one thing that isn't scheduled yet.
You are between two girls and you are supposed to be talking about a book called "How to Be Happy While Single."
Finally you wind up trying to defend this idea:
"Everybody has to be lonely in this world, but marriage makes it possible for two people who like or respect each other to be less lonely together."
After that I lost all sense of television. I was up to my ears in female argument. Not an unfamiliar position, either, for a man married night twelve happy years.

VHP Entertainment To Be Presented In Methodist Church

The Rev. Howard Hollowell, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Wednesday stressed the fact the entertainment to be presented at 8 p. m. Friday in the church by Veterans Hospital Programs is open to the public. No admission will be charged.
Three widely-known personalities, Pat B. Withrow, Jr., noted speaker, humorist and song leader; Mildred Young, radio, concert and opera singer; and Bobby Del Rio, noted accordionist, will appear on the hour's program.
Veterans Hospital Programs, a national organization supported by the Protestant Churches of America, is the outgrowth of an inspirational idea that sprang from a single pre-war entertainment program at Fort Bragg, N. C. in 1940.
Units of the VHP tour the nation, performing in Veterans Administration hospitals for the enjoyment and comfort of the veterans of World Wars I and II.
The finest music, both instrumental and vocal, with emphasis on sacred songs and well-known light classics, are presented on VHP programs. A message on devotion and the power of prayer is delivered as a part of each program. More than 12,000 servicemen joined some church after hearing the message in a three-year period, sponsors said.
Since 1945, an average of more than 150 programs have been given each year in veterans hospitals.
A large crowd is anticipated for the Friday night appearance here.
The custom of wearing rings was transmitted by the Greeks and Etruscans to the Romans.

Examined the new DE SOTO? You won't know what's happened until you do!

"The Car Designed with YOU in Mind" is changing a lot of minds!

Crowds of people have visited our showrooms since the first announcement of the new De Soto. It has been very interesting to watch their reactions. First of all, of course, they walk all around the car and admire its smart, low lines and its sleek appearance. They tell us they like its looks because it is "modern but not modernistic."

But the big surprise comes when they open those wide doors and step inside. The roof does not hit their hats. There's lots of headroom. The steering wheel doesn't hit the driver's knees. And because the luxurious seats are their high, you can see everything without craning your neck.

Get in. Front seat or back, they're both wider. There's more leg room for all passengers, too. And you get all this extra space without sacrifice of convenience, because the outside dimensions of the new De Soto are not increased. You can still park with ease. And you needn't rebuild that garage.

Before you make any decision about any new car, come in and let us show you De Soto's many great features including Tip-Toe Hydraulic Shift with Fluid Drive, that lets you drive without shifting. Compare this car with any other at any price... for beauty, comfort, safety and value. Then decide. Teach "The De Soto Lesson" every Tuesday night, all CBS stations.

Scrap Metal Exports To Mexico Increasing

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Shipment of scrap metal to Mexico has risen sharply recently but Commerce Department officials say they believe it isn't being reshipped to Russia.

Department officials said Tuesday shipments in January and February this year were 5,569 and 7,782 long tons, respectively. This compares with a monthly average of 2,881 tons for 1948 as a whole.

The officials said the increase followed the easing of the scrap shortage in the United States.

Officials indicated they were not worried about reshipment to the Soviet bloc, since those nations can get plenty of scrap in Germany.

Outcome Of Chinese Fight With Reds To Affect Entire World

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AF Foreign Affairs Analyst

China's civil war boiled up again along the Yangtze in all its old fury. The Nationalist government—weak and harassed but refusing to bow its neck to unconditional surrender—had rejected the sweeping demands of the victorious Chinese Communist forces for peace. The Red response was a resumption of hostilities by its powerful armies.

Whether we are witnessing the beginning of another protracted onslaught by the Communists remains to be seen. Probably it depends on whether this furious blow results in a reopening of peace negotiations by the groggy and disorganized Nationalists.

Wednesday's developments are likely to be written down as among the most critical in the world war between communism and all other political creeds.

The fate, not only of China, but of Asia as a whole is involved. Indeed the conflict of the isms may ultimately be decided in that vast theater.

One of two things can grow out of the current situation in the immediate future:

1. A coalition government of Communists and Nationalists might be formed. The Communists are reported to have proposed that such a regime be inaugurated by May 1, Favorite Red Procedure.
2. The civil war continue its bloody course, with the Reds ruling Northern China and carrying the fight into the southern part of the country.

The formation of a "coalition" is a favorite Red procedure in taking over a new state. The coalition quickly undergoes a purge and gives way to complete Red domination of the government.

Then if the Communists had the strength to control the whole country militarily, communism would be established. Otherwise the civil war would break out again, and give way to complete Red domination of the government.

Observers generally expect that, if full scale fighting is resumed, while the Reds might be expected to make quick advances, this doesn't necessarily mean they could sweep Southern China. On the contrary, the prospects are that the fighting would progress by zones, with Nationalist forces putting up a vigorous battle in many areas.

Mrs. Morris grabbed a phone and called police.

But the utilities truck got there almost as soon as the police did, and put a new fuse in the switch-box.

Senators Inspect Squalor In Shadow Of Capitol's Dome

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON—(AP)—"When you ain't got it, you ain't got it," the Negro man said mildly, meaning money. He was leaning against a battered shack a few blocks from the Capitol.

He was trying to explain why people lived in the slums of Washington, thousands of people, whites and Negroes, but mostly Negroes. What kind of work did they do? "Mostly ketch as ketch can," the man said.

He was looking at senators, policemen, newspaper reporters and a doctor while ragged Negro children played around them.

The group was making a quick tour of the slums in Washington that spread out around the Capitol. The slums start within 100 feet of the Senate Office Building.

Housing Bill Debate

They were being taken around by Senator Paul Douglas, Illinois Democrat. The others in the party were one Democrat, Senator Green of Rhode Island, and these Republican senators: Morse of Oregon, Ferguson of Michigan and Baldwin of Connecticut.

They had just come from Senate debate on a bill to provide public housing and wipe out slums in the cities of America. They wanted to see slums first hand in the nation's capital.

They went into a house where 13 people sleep in three beds in two rooms. No lights except an oil lamp, no heat except a coal stove in the kitchen. No running water. The water is in the yard. So is the toilet.

The plaster was off the walls. The windows broken. The furniture was claptrap junk. Outside in the yard the grandfather was lying on a bare bedspring, warming himself in the sun. He makes no money at all? No. How much does his son make? One buck yesterday, maybe no buck today.

I asked many Negro men and women what was the highest pay anyone in their row of houses got. The highest I heard anyone say was $35 a week, when a man had

SHAKE HANDS WITH AN AD!

I HAPPEN to be an advertisement. And goodness I know, you've read hundreds of ads.

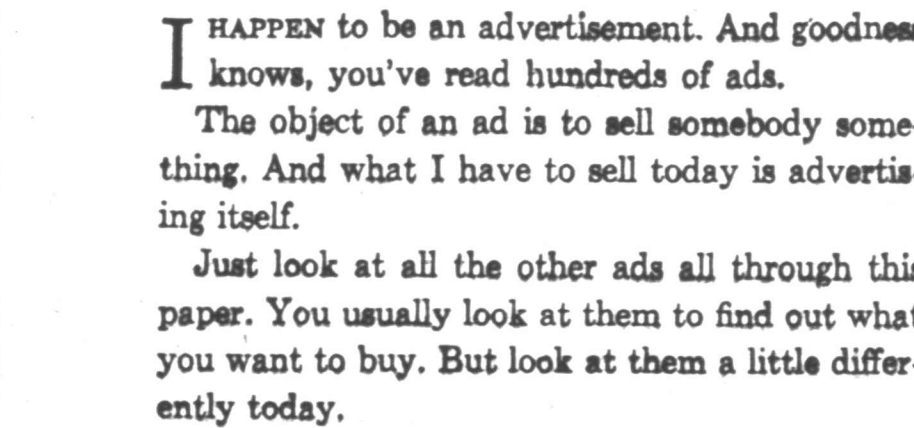

The object of an ad is to sell somebody something. And what I have to sell today is advertising itself.

Just look at all the other ads all through this paper. You usually look at them to find out what you want to buy. But look at them a little differently today.

Look a little more closely and see the job they're doing. Every ad is selling something—goods, an idea, services.

And every job in America ultimately depends on somebody selling something to somebody else. That's what makes the wheels go 'round. And advertising is the lowest cost way yet devised to sell goods.

So no matter what kind of job you have, be thankful to the ads like me. The advertising you see and hear is selling goods. And in the last analysis, that's what makes your job secure.

More Than 90 Are Sickened In Probe Of 'Smog' Conditions

DONORA, PA.—(AP)—More than 90 persons were ill Wednesday and a dozen others had left town as government experts tried to duplicate smog conditions suspected of causing 23 deaths last fall.

Doctors reported numerous cases of hoarseness, sore throats and coughs as the Public Health Service sought for the third day to determine if the suffocation cases last October were caused by a combination of smoke and fog.

Through the tests, the government agency hopes to prevent a recurrence of the October tragedy.

As a result of the deaths last fall the nine smelters of American Steel & Wire Company were operated at limited capacity. They operated full-blast last Monday so resulting fumes could be observed in connection with the tests.

Asthmatics Leave Town

Dr. William Rongaus, Donora Borough health officer, said the effects reported by residents Tuesday were "like the early symptoms during the smog."

Some persons have left town for the period of the test, particularly those suffering from asthmatic and heart ills. These were particularly vulnerable last October.

Worst sufferer Tuesday was the little town of Webster, across the Monongahela River. Prevailing winds blew toward Webster and citizens there said they got the full effect of the fumes issuing from the smelter.

Dr. Rongaus said 12 persons reported "smog symptoms" to him. He said he did not believe the fumes sufficiently strong to cause any serious danger.

G-A Bill—

to unify state direction of the schools.

The House by a vote of 76 to 7 approved a motion by Rep. William George Richards of Lockhart instructing the officer to "arrest 'em, handcuff 'em, tie 'em—anything to get 'em in."

This action came after a record vote showed there was a quorum and that the House therefore was unable to begin debate again on the bill.

Checking a report that such a maneuver had been planned, an Associated Press reporter Tuesday night asked Rep. Sam Hanna of Dallas whether it was true.

"It is quite likely a lot of representatives won't be in town tomorrow," said Hanna, a caustic critic of the G-A bill. He said he planned to be out of town.

"Everybody knows it by now, that the House likely will not have a quorum tomorrow, at least, not until safe in the day," Hanna added.

Fourth Week Of Talk

Wednesday marked the fourth week in which the House has debated the school bill, already passed by the Senate. Two days each week, Wednesday and Thursday, are the only times the House can take up Senate bills.

An explosive bill to allow cooperative development of oil fields fell just shy of Senate passage Tuesday. By Senator George Moffett of Chillicothe the bill was passed on second reading. Then seven senators blocked 20 of their colleagues who attempted to suspend a rule requiring bills to be read on three separate days. A four-fifths vote is needed to suspend the rule.

Opposition centered on whether the measure would give the oil industry an exemption from the anti-trust laws of Texas.

"This bill is aimed at only one thing—to knock a little hole in the anti-trust law of this state that they (oil companies) can slip through," declared Senator Wardlow Lane of Center, who has led the fight against the measure.

Amendments Fare Badly

A proposal by Rep. S. J. Isaacks of El Paso to abolish the poll tax as a voting requisite was short 79 to 40. His measure is a companion bill to one approved by the Senate Monday.

The House riddled a resolution by Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio to prohibit state levy of an income tax on persons or corporations or taxation of employee's payroll. The prohibition also would apply to political subdivisions.

The House put on amendments to prohibit a general sales tax ever being levied, knocked out the exemption of corporations from income tax, and made the exemption for persons apply only to those making less than $5,000 a year.

No direct vote on the proposition was taken at the House quit work on the measure in order to consider a calendar of local or uncounted bills. Thirty-eight of these were passed and sent to the Senate.

Rains—

Waco 1.48, Houston 1.14 and Big Spring 1.13.

But the rain covered almost all the state. At mid-morning Wednesday the only point not getting some moisture was El Paso in the extreme west tip of the state.

Welcome Moisture

There was no doubt it was a welcome rain. Rains in Texas this year have been spotty, and not heavy. The current heavy rains come at a good time to put the soil in shape for spring planting, or give a healthy boost to crops already planted.

The rains are expected to continue through Thursday in East Texas, but may end Wednesday night or early Thursday in Central and West Texas.

Other rainfall: Corsicana .70, Abilene .08, Dallas .50, Beaumont .39, Fort Worth .56, Palestine .78, Lubbock .18, San Angelo .31, Victoria .78, Mineral Wells .81, Junction .45, Tyler .25 and Dalhart .19.

Officials of the Lower Colorado River Authority were jubilant over the two to three inches of rain over the Colorado River watershed. They said the moisture will be highly beneficial to crops, ranges and for storage on ranches and farms.

Kills Grasshoppers

For the state as a whole, the Department of Agriculture's crop reporting office at Austin said it too early to say what effect the rains will have, but said it "looks good."

The office said many areas were on the borderlines, beginning to need additional moisture for small grains. Travis County Agent Elmo V. Cook saw another benefit. He said the hard cold rain undoubtedly killed many young grasshoppers.

For the Rio Grande Valley and some of South Texas, the rain, hail and wind late Monday and early Tuesday spelled thousands in damage.

One Fatality Recorded

There was considerable hail damage at San Angelo and the heavy rain marooned several oil well derrick in the Susan Park oil field.

And rain at Big Spring left land in this area in the best shape since 1941.

At Lubbock, farmers were optimistic that the best subsoil moisture in years would push crops to record highs. They anticipated increased cotton acreage and production. The season for cotton planting on the plains is about two or three weeks away.

Tornado winds damaged several plants over the South Plains.

One fatality was recorded. James David Johnson, 32, a farmer, was killed by lightning near Harford.

The storm winds hit shallowwater and swept a mile-wide area to Monroe. About 19 farm homes, barns and outbuildings were damaged, some heavily.

C. L. Dowell of the Lower Colorado River Authority said at Austin that heavy hail had been reported between Liberty Hill and Ingram.

A seven-foot rise was reported on the Llano River at El Paso and the LGRA said the North Concho at San Angelo was reported on a 19-foot rise.

Housing Bill Debate May Produce Night Session For Senate

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The Senate may work overtime Wednesday night if leaders think there's a chance to get a final vote on the housing bill.

But first a handful of amendments must be debated, then acted on.

The Administration's program calls for building 810,000 public housing units in the next six years, slum clearance, and a farm home project.

Opponents contend among other things that the plans is too costly, and that it would "socialize" the construction industry and harm private builders. They have tried to riddle it with amendments.

One amendment up for debate was proposed by Senator Cain (R-Wash.). It would let the citizens themselves decide at the polls whether they want public housing in their areas.

Senator Myers (D-Pa.), the acting majority leader, said if there was any indication a vote could be reached Wednesday night, he would hold the Senate overtime.

Fact Hearings Indefinite

The House Ways and Means Committee, working on the Administration's social security program, heard AFL President William Green endorse the plan.

The Senate still hasn't decided when it will start open hearings on the North Atlantic Defense Treaty, Chairman Connally (D-Texas) of the Foreign Relations Committee said he may decide Thursday.

Meanwhile, spies and saboteurs edged back into the headlines. Senator Mundt (R-SD) proposed that the House Un-American Activities Committee investigate whether the United Nations organization at Lake Success, N. Y., was being used (1) to hide Soviet spies, and (2) give jobs to former U. S. government workers fired for security reasons.

Sister Kenny Quits As Foundation Head

MINNEAPOLIS.—(AP)—Sister Kenny, originator of a treatment for infantile paralysis, Wednesday announced she had relinquished administration of the foundation bearing her name.

The foundation operates seven centers in the United States for treatment of the disease.

Sister Kenny, 62, has been replaced by Dr. E. J. Huenekens, a Minneapolis pediatrician who has practiced medicine 40 years. He also is a clinical professor of pediatrics at the University of Minnesota Medical School.

Chief significance of the change, Dr. Huenekens said, is that the foundation "now has medical auspices and a change of atmosphere."

Sister Kenny is an Australian nurse.

She will make her home here where her treatment got its first real recognition by medical men. She will serve as a consultant, but only at the request of Dr. Huenekens, he said.

Sister Kenny said: "My mission to the United States has been fulfilled in every possible way. That is, my contributions have been investigated and evidence of scientists support my clinical observations."

colicoid. He suggested operating under the proposed budget this year and making the change next year.

Councilman Stanley Erskine and Robert I. Dickey said they did not favor taking any action which would curtail the city's operations for a six-month period.

Following the budget adoption, a proposal by Councilman H. E. Chiles that the proposed changing of the fiscal and budget years and the amending of the budget again be brought up for discussion prior to September 1, was adopted by unanimous vote. The motion was seconded by Erskine.

Chiles moved the adoption of the budget and Dickey seconded.

Increased Expenditures

The anticipated budget expenditures of $805,896.85 compare with last year's $649,583. The anticipated revenues, totaling $900,700, compare with $706,000 for 1948-49.

Prior to the adoption of the tax rate ordinance, the mayor suggested the matter be deferred in view of the possibility of a budget revision later in the year. No action on the proposal was taken.

The ordinance was adopted on motion of Dickey and seconded by Councilman W. F. Heil. The vote was unanimous.

The former action of the council in voting to advertise for bids for a certified audit of the city's books and accounts by a certified public accountant was rescinded and a resolution authorizing the asking of bids for an audit from qualified public or certified accountants was adopted. Bids will be opened April 28.

The action was taken following a discussion of the matter by Ralph McCleskey, president of the Midland-Odessa Chapter of the Texas Association of Public Accountants, who said both public and certified accountants should be allowed to bid on the job.

Zoning Action

A resolution approving the proposed street lighting program and authorizing the mayor to sign the contract with the Texas Electric Service Company was approved.

It was agreed the city's proposed zoning ordinance will be discussed at the regular meeting next Tuesday night. Action on the controversial subject may be taken at that time.

At the suggestion of Councilman Frank N. Shriver, it was voted that future meetings of the council be held at 7:30 p.m. rather than 7 p.m.

Home Demonstration Agent Gives Helpful Hints In Destruction Of Midland Insects

With many Midland residents now planting flowers and setting out ornamental shrubs, several suggestions for controlling insects and other pests in the flower garden are offered by Mrs. Nettie Messick, Midland County Home Demonstration Agent.

Probably the most prevalent insect here is ants, according to Mrs. Messick, and suggested for their control is chlordane. This material should completely cover the ground upon and around the nest, using a 10 per cent solution. If a wettable form is desired, pour about one teaspoonful of two-three per cent solution down into the nest. For larger colonies greater amounts should be used.

Ants of various sizes and color are present in almost every flower garden. In general, most of the ants are not harmful to the plants, but the fire ant is an exception. This ant will feed on almost anything that can be found and will often kill the plants. Other ants will be found on the plants but feed principally on the honeydew which is secreted by plant lice or on a sweet secretion exuded from the flower buds.

Suggested Controls
Other pests and the suggested controls are as follows:
Aphids or plant lice—These are black to brown or green soft-bodied insects about one-eighth of an inch long. They devitalize the plants by sucking sap from the foliage. They are first noticed on the undersides of the leaves along the mid-ribs and veins and in the terminal buds. They secrete honeydew which attracts flies and ants.

Suggested control is one and one-half teaspoons of nicotine sulphate to one gallon of soapy water. Thoroughly wet the foliage, especially the lower surfaces of the leaves, or dust eight teaspoons of nicotine sulphate and one pound of hydrated lime.

Cutworms—These are dark colored and from one to one and one-half inch in length, found during daytime curled in soil at base of plants. This worm cuts at the base during the night.

Control is poison bran made as follows: five pounds of bran, one teaspoon of Paris Green, two quarts of water and one-half pint of molasses. This material should be applied late in the evening by broadcasting if the infestation is general or applied as a thin line along the rows of flowers or one-half teaspoonful near the base of the plants. Do not put bait on the plants. Treating the ground around the plant with five per cent DDT dust is also effective for cutworm control.

Leaf-eating caterpillars—These are the immature stages of butterflies and moths. They exist in a wide variety of sizes and colors and are familiar to everyone. Some caterpillars, such as the "wooly bears" are covered with long conspicuous hairs whereas others may be entirely naked. They are all chewing insects with voracious appetites and may eat away large amounts of foliage.

Dust With DDT
To control, dust plants thoroughly at two-week intervals with five per cent DDT dust. Repeated applications should be made at weekly intervals until insects are controlled.

Scale and mealy bugs—Both scale and mealy bugs are soft-bodied insects and move about very little. The body of the mealy bug is covered with a substance that looks very much like the insect had been sprinkled with corn meal. The scale insect is characterized by the small shell-like covering or scale which covers its body. They vary in size, form and color. Mealy bugs and scale damage to plants is done by the insects sucking the juices. The plant soon has an unhealthy appearance and growth is retarded or the plant may even die.

The control of these pests, once they have become established on the plant, is dependent upon a timely, careful, and thorough application of the proper remedy. Good control may be obtained by thoroughly spraying the plants with a mixture of three level tablespoonfuls of white oil emulsion (Summer strength of an oil emulsion) and one and one-fourth teaspoonfuls of 40 per cent nicotine sulphate in one gallon of water.

How Horses' Tails Figured In History

TENSLEEP, WYO. —(AP)— Mike Bennett had no idea of making history back in the fall of 1883. All Mike wanted to make at that time was a horsehair check-rein for a wild bronc. He was short of material, and being a resourceful man, he chopped the tails off five Indian ponies.

It developed that removal of the tails was a serious breach of conduct, as the only time an Indian bobs his pony's tail is when he's mourning the death of someone. There was no death to mourn. The Indians decided the only way to bring the thing to a balanced conclusion, was to kill Mike.

This lively bit of Americana stems from the Tensleep Creek sector near here. It is one of scores of readable incidents included in the U. S. Forest Service's history of the Bighorn National Forest. In the past three decades the service has compiled millions of words on the backgrounds of its 19 forest preserves in the Rocky Mountain area.

Rangers annually gather additional information from the old settlers in the various districts. The data includes notes on old Indian trails, camps, hunting grounds, fights, explorers, military posts and expeditions against the Indians, old boundaries, and miscellaneous items such as the one about Mike Bennett.

John Spencer, regional forester, says the histories are of value in establishing dates of land-ownership, settling boundary disputes, and studying the cyclic damage of pests like the bark beetle. Spencer says the histories of the forests also provide the only available histories of dozens of communities in the areas involved.

P. S.—The Indians weren't able to catch Mike. He was killed several years later, however, by a posse of ranchmen. The rancher caught him of stealing a horse. Not just the tail.

Manly Clothes For Boy Babies Created By Famous Designer

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor
A crusader for the manly dignity of boy babies is Merry Hull, who believes no man-child should be subjected to the indignity of lace, ruffles and ribbon bows. Having designed properly masculine attire for her own offspring, the energetic Merry is now making the same boon available for other small he-men. She believes a boy child should wear pants from birth, and designs them with plenty of diaper-room. All are made with adjustable features to allow for growth. All are strictly man-tailored, with nary a ruffle or a bow.

This designer believes boys should be boys, from crib to college, and manages to make even the tiniest garments with a distinctly masculine air.

No Federal Buildings Sighted For District At The Present Time

MONAHANS—There are no immediate prospects for extensive construction of federal buildings in the 16th Congressional District of Texas despite the fact that the Federal Works Agency recently recommended 19 such public buildings.

This is the opinion expressed by Mrs. Kate George, secretary to the district's congressman, Ken Regan of Midland.

Mrs. George's opinion came in response to an inquiry written by Alton C. Linne, president of the Monahans Chamber of Commerce, who called the congressman's attention to recent news stories from Washington indicating that Monahans and other Permian Basin cities were in line for federal buildings in the event of congressional appropriation.

Speaking for Regan, currently recuperating from an operation, Mrs. George wrote: "The Public Buildings Administration of the Federal Works Agency about every two years has been sending to the Congress a list of cities where public buildings are needed. They recommend 19 such projects in the 16th Congressional District of Texas. Congress for many years has not appropriated any funds for Federal buildings and none are available now except for a few buildings in the District of Columbia. As to what this Congress may do toward making any money available for these purposes it's anyone's guess. They are certainly no immediate prospects."

Committee On Babies' Rights Proposed To Bar Silly Names And Embarrassing Photos

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

With a sharp eye on "Baby Week," it might be a good idea to suggest that infants are future people and, therefore, have certain rights.

Parents, grandparents and admiring friends have a tendency to take advantage of these helpless citizens. They evolve fantastic names for them, which the children subsequently hate but can't do anything about. Oh, sure they can go to court, or they can use nicknames. Frequently parents call children by nicknames which dog said infants through to senility.

They take pictures of children in poses which embarrass them all through life, particularly if the infants grow up to be famous or notorious.

I would impose harsh punishment on parents who immediately nickname their first man-child "Butch." It really seems years since I've seen a proud parent of a boy who wasn't fondly called "Butch."

Changeable Names
And they talk baby-talk to them. In the event I were a member of the Committee on Babies' Rights, an organization I'm now toying with establishing, I would have a mandatory rule that babies be given a temporary name. At voting age, the individual would be given a chance to take a long look at his own name and some others he's heard and decide how he could be tagged for the rest of his life.

Little girls should be equally well protected from parents who give them boy's names. I know a nice little girl named Christopher and boy, is she going to be sick and tired of that one by the time she's of dating age.

Pictures With Dignity
My committee would sternly suppress pictures of nude children, on or off bear rugs. It may seem cute at the time to pose Willie in the altogether, maybe carrying a pail of sand. But it will turn him crimson with embarrassment when his best girl spots it in the album when he's an impressive 18. And he'll turn blue with sheer fury when it turns up in a national magazine the year he's planning to run for president. The committee would insist that baby pictures depict babies garbed for play or sleep and looking dignified.

Baby-talk, of course, would be outlawed. I suppose it really doesn't do much more than make children bored, but it certainly makes idiots of their adorers. Children should grow up admiring their elders, because they will be elders themselves some day. The committee would preserve baby-talk for lap-dogs and kittens who don't understand it, either.

In the interests of children's welfare, provisions undoubtedly should be made to protect those adults who can take children or leave them alone. That will prevent the formation of an Anti-Children's Committee in the highly organized world.

Ban On Snapshots
As things stand, any adult who isn't fanatically fond of children stands a good chance of being regarded as an inhuman fiend. The Committee on Babies' Rights would insist that fathers with candid cameras and a wallet full of snapshots keep said wallets in their hip pockets except when it is necessary to extract money therefrom. Only grandparents enjoy exclaiming over pictures of other people's babies.

Mothers of young children would be required to limit their visits to non-baby houses to 30 minutes. This will make for better human relations the world over.

When two parents of young children are in the company of non-blessed adults, the conversation should be permitted to touch on non-baby subjects once or twice in the course of the session, and diaper-conversation during bridge sessions should be limited to the usual post-mortem period between hands.

School Teachers Gussed Wrong

LONDON—The old school report cards of many distinguished Englishmen reveal some shocking things.

The school masters of a generation ago regarded Field Marshal Lord Montgomery "rather backward for his age," and he was said to be weak in what an artilleryman needs—mathematics. G. K. Chesterton, who became mighty in the world of letters, couldn't write very well, said the school master shortly before the turn of the century.

Old report cards are posted for the public to read at an exhibition called "The English at School." Both Montgomery and Chesterton attended St. Paul's school and the report cards displayed cover their senior years, when they were 18 years old.

The word money is believed to be derived from "moneta," an attribute of the Roman goddess Juno, because the ancient Roman mint was established in the temple of Juno Moneta.
