Drillite of Barnsdall No. 8 A. L. Wren is 467 feet from south and east lines of tract 9, section 20, block 1, J. P. Smith survey. It is on an elevation of 2,480.7 feet.

Location for Barnsdall No. 1 A. L. Wren has previously been reported. It is understood that creator plans to drill these eight projects one at a time.

Gaines Slated For 8,000-Foot Wildcat

An 8,000-foot wildcat has been staked in Southeast Gaines County by Forest Oil Corporation and Anderson-Fricker Oil Corporation as their No. 1-A Farmer County.

The drillite is 860 feet from west and 680 feet from south lines of labor 12, league 317, Farmer CSLS survey, which puts it about 25 miles southeast of Seminole.

Beginning by May 10, a rotary outfit is to be moved in and drilling is to commence.

Shell Spots Permian Venture In Flanagan

Shell Oil Company, Inc. is starting immediately on a venture into the Clear Fork-Permian of South-Central Gaines County in the immediate vicinity of its No. 1 Hawkins, Ellenburger discovery to open the Flanagan field.

The new project will be Shell No. 2 W. L. Hawkins, staked 690 feet from east and south lines of section 2, block A-23, reported drill 12 miles south of Seminole. That makes it one-half mile south of the Ellenburger strike.

The Clear Fork is expected to come in above 7,300 feet. Drilling will be with rotary tools.

Good oil shows were encountered in the Clear Fork at No. 1 Hawkins when drilling through. An outpost to the discovery, Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Flanagan, flowed oil in commercial amounts on a test in the Clear Fork.

The Magnolia exploration, 1,930 feet from north and 860 feet from west lines of section 9, block A-23, reported drill 12 miles south of Seminole. That makes it one-half mile south of the Ellenburger strike.

Red Plot To Bottle Up Navy Ships Is Nipped, Disclosed

SHANGHAI—(AP)—United States, British and French Naval craft left the Shanghai waterfront because of a reported Communist plot to block their passage to the sea, a U. S. Navy spokesman said Tuesday.

The spokesman, from the staff of U. S. Vice Adm. Oscar C. Badger, said "reliable sources" told the United States Navy Communists planned to scuttle a ship near Woosung, the Chinese Nationalist garrison, that would have blocked the larger ships from the sea.

The spokesman evidently disclosed this "plot" to offset accusations that the U. S. Navy had "run out" on Communist-threatened Shanghai.

Details of the "plot" came from the same source which previously had tipped the Navy the Communists had a similar plan to bottle up Naval vessels in Tientsin earlier this year, the spokesman said.

The Navy evacuated numerous persons from Tientsin shortly before the city fell and the route to the sea was cut.

The Navy spokesman said the "plot" was "nipped in the bud." He declined to give details, saying it was a Chinese matter.

He said after the plot was "nipped" the American President Lines Liner President Wilson came up to the Shanghai waterfront past the Woosung garrison. The Wilson tied up at a bund pier and evacuated 300 persons after an overnight stay.

The spokesman said the Navy had not left the Shanghai area. He said at present three destroyers and an LCI (landing craft infantry) were anchored near Woosung, 12 miles from here. Transport landing ship tanks was due Wednesday. He said the LCI was making a daily shuttle run between Shanghai and Woosung.

Ready For Evacuation The spokesman, at a news conference, pledged the Navy would keep ships here as long as there was any possibility of an emergency evacuation. He said the present group of ships can accommodate the 1,650 Americans still in Shanghai.

The Navy spokesman disclosed that the transport Chilton, last major U. S. vessel to leave the Shanghai waterfront, had gone to Tsingtao with all of the Marines who had been quartered aboard her.

This disclosure recalled Admiral Badger's statement of last Winter when the Marines were brought here that he would "give consideration to the protection of American interests" in Shanghai. Many business men thought the Admiral meant he would use the Marines to guard their property here.

The spokesman said any such probability was eliminated when Chinese Communists fired on British warships in the Yangtze River last month.

He said the U. S. Navy will not become embroiled in China's civil war.

He said the Navy had decided to anchor its remaining ships downstream from the Woosung forts, which guard the waterway. He said the ships were staying in that area so they would not have to pass the forts if the Communists should capture them or if their gunners should desert to the Reds.

State President Talks To Real Estate Board Chester Seales of Wichita Falls, president of the state board, spoke to members of the Midland Real Estate Board and their guests from the Odessa Real Estate Board at a luncheon meeting Tuesday in the Private Dining Room of the Scharbauer Hotel.

Special guests introduced included: William B. Neely, mayor; H. A. Thomason, city manager; T. E. Jenkins, city engineer; M. G. Ulmer, banker and businessman; and John J. Redfern, Jr., oil man.

Tornadoes Damage Southwest

Gazing at the wreckage of the G. L. Purcell home in Bonham, Texas, this small boy typifies the sentiments of many other Southwesterners during the last weekend. Tornadoes, striking over a three-state area, caused widespread damage and at least 12 deaths. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell escaped injury by going into their storm cellar when they noticed the approaching storm.

Baylor Law Students Cry For Mehaffey

WACO—(AP)—"We Want Mehaffey" was the rallying cry of Baylor University law students Tuesday.

"Mehaffey" is Mrs. A. J. Mehaffey, Waco housewife, mother of two children (aged 9 and 11), and Baylor law student.

The Waco News Tribune said news leaked out that Mrs. Mehaffey polled the most votes in the annual May Queen election. She hadn't sought the honor. Students just wrote in her name.

This was a hard blow to the 19 teen-age glamour girls from Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana who thought they had the field to themselves.

But there was every indication Mrs. Mehaffey would not be named queen. Dean Abner McCal of the law school said her candidacy had been filed 48 hours late, and was not accompanied by the required filing fee.

Law Students Rebel "If she wasn't entered," said the dean learnedly, "how could she win?"

That's where the law students rebelled. They argue Democracy should be served, despite technicalities. The least they'll settle for is a separate coronation for their fellow law student, if the crown officially is given to one of the glamour belles.

Mrs. Mehaffey herself is a bit bewildered. She is widely known as the wife of a Waco dealer in used cars and alligator steaks, whose trade name is "Pore Old Mehaffey."

She is not saying exactly how old she is. But she was a campus beauty in her undergraduate days at Baylor—back in the '20s. She also studied at the Sorbonne in Paris. Mehaffey received her Baylor law degree in 1940. Mrs. Mehaffey decided she wanted one, too.

Cloudy Skies Hint Showers In Texas

By The Associated Press Widespread showers may return to Texas Wednesday. Tuesday a cloud blanket covered much of the state and temperatures were not climbing to Monday's high readings.

U. S. Weather Bureau at Dallas said there may be a few showers in Texas Tuesday night but that Wednesday "they'll probably be pretty general."

Only the extreme Southwest and Western parts of the state had cloudless skies Tuesday morning.

Rent Ruling Stirs Anger

NEW YORK—(AP)—Housing Expediter Tighe Woods said Tuesday both landlords and tenants would be happier under the new rent regulations.

But even as Woods spoke at a businessmen's meeting here, a city-wide rent strike against any increases was urged. And New York realty interests were highly critical of the new policy.

The strike threat came from Rep. Vito Marcantonio, chairman of the American Labor Party.

The new law, Woods said, "goes right down the middle, protecting landlords against rents that would deny them a fair profit, and protecting tenants against being charged a higher rent than the fair new operating income adjustment allows."

It would require them to file detailed financial statements, similar to those required of labor unions. Also, it would extend the loyalty and non-Communist oath not only to principal officers of unions and firms but to policy-making groups as well.

Non-Communist oaths now are required only of union officers, and only unions have to make detailed financial reports if they want to use national labor board facilities.

Rayburn and Democratic Floor Leader McCormack (D-Mass) were scheduled to speak for the new proposal. A House vote was possible before nightfall.

The parliamentary situation was such that, before getting to the Labor Committee's Lesinski bill, the House would have to vote on the Wood measure, a union-opposed bill that would re-enact most of the Taft-Hartley Law.

House Republicans generally called the Democratic move one of desperation, and said they were surprised.

Hits Money Truck And Loses Billfold

FORT WORTH—(AP)—An armored truck loaded with money bags collided Tuesday with an automobile driven by Charles Fincher, 30. The truck turned over. Fincher was knocked out of his car by the force of the collision.

All the money bags were recovered and transferred to another truck. Fincher was taken to the hospital—with his billfold missing. It disappeared during the excitement.

Shanghai Tightens For Siege

Anyone either entering or leaving Shanghai, even for homes in the suburbs, is searched carefully by soldiers at various check points throughout the city's perimeter. Papers held in man's hand (dressed in white) are resident cards, without which permission to pass is refused.

Rayburn Says House Will Accept Labor Bill With Revisions

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Speaker Rayburn (D-Texas) predicted Tuesday the House will accept the new compromise Democratic labor bill with its Taft-Hartley features.

Shortly before the House started its fifth day of labor debate, the veteran Texan told reporters he expected the measure to draw strong Democratic support from both the North and South.

The compromise is far different from the simple T-H repealer unions want. For one thing it would continue the present law's 80-day injunctions for dealing with national emergency disputes, but some of the procedure in this section would be changed.

In two respects, the bill would impose new restrictions on employers.

It would require them to file detailed financial statements, similar to those required of labor unions. Also, it would extend the loyalty and non-Communist oath not only to principal officers of unions and firms but to policy-making groups as well.

Non-Communist oaths now are required only of union officers, and only unions have to make detailed financial reports if they want to use national labor board facilities.

Solon Asks Tornado Warning Service

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A tornado warning service was suggested Tuesday by Rep. Brooks (D-La.). He's taken it up with the Federal Weather Bureau and is hopeful something can be worked out to warn residents of tornado areas at least when conditions are such that a howling windstorm might strike.

Brooks said the forecasting service hesitated somewhat at predicting tornadoes for fear of causing panic among wide areas.

"But I favor calling a spade a spade," said the representative.

PRODUCER ANNOUNCES COPPER PRICE REDUCTION

NEW YORK—(AP)—Phelps Dodge Corporation announced Tuesday a reduction in the price of copper to 20 cents a pound from 23 1/2 cents. This was the first price reduction by a copper producer. Phelps Dodge is one of the leading primary producers of copper.

Rumors Say Blockade To End May 11

NEW YORK—(AP)—The three big Western Powers were reported Tuesday to be completing a joint declaration of policy on the Berlin blockade to lay before Russia within 24 hours.

Speculation in some quarters was that this would call for lifting the blockade as early as next week.

A State Department spokesman indicated there was a possibility the envoys of the United States, Britain, France and Russia would meet some time Tuesday.

But Philip C. Jessup, U. S. ambassador-at-large, denied reports a four-powered meeting had been scheduled.

The joint declaration will propose dates both for lifting the blockade and convening the Council of Foreign Ministers for a discussion of the whole German question, it was understood.

Officially, Jessup and the British and French representatives—Sir Alexander Cadogan and Jean Chauvel—maintained the secrecy which was surrounded the 10 weeks of talks since Jessup first talked to Russia's Jakob A. Malik on the subject.

Usually well informed quarters, however, said it would be safe to speculate on these dates in connection with the Western position—May 11 for ending the blockade and May 25 for the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Russia's two top representatives here, Malik and Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, spent the morning at Lake Success, where they were delegates to the United Nations Assembly.

These reports followed a meeting of British, French and American envoys here Monday which lasted more than an hour. The only official announcement after this session was a terse communique saying the blockade discussions still were progressing "satisfactorily."

The next step would be presentation of the Western Power proposal to Jakob A. Malik, Russia's key man in the blockade talks here.

A U. S. spokesman cautioned against undue hope for speed, hinting Malik and the French and British envoys were awaiting further instructions from their home governments.

College Money Bill On House Calendar; Loyalty Act Passes

AUSTIN—(AP)—A $8 million dollar money bill for state-supported colleges went to the House calendar for action Tuesday.

It was the last of the major money bills reported during the session in the House Appropriations Committee. Two years ago, the Legislature voted 46 million dollars to support the colleges during the current fiscal period.

The House already has approved the judiciary and elementary bills. All the major appropriations measures which must be passed before final adjournment still are hung up in the Senate Finance Committee.

The House Appropriations Committee Tuesday added $78,680 for Stephen F. Austin State Teachers College and a $15,000 item for small grain research to the total recommended by its subcommittee.

An effort to add $15,000 a year for wool and mohair study funded by an 8 to 9 vote. Several other additions were beaten down, including an increase of $350,000 for Prairie View University for negroes.

New Taxes Again As reported favorably for House action, the higher education bill calls for expenditures of $57,968,680 in the next two fiscal years.

The question of whether the state will need new taxes was handed to a House Revenue and Taxation subcommittee Monday night. Two tax bills were shunted to subcommittee.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

DETROIT—(AP)—CIO United Auto Workers Local 600 Tuesday ordered a strike Wednesday at Ford Motor Company's huge Rouge Plant without awaiting approval of the International Union.

HONG KONG—(AP)—The American Consulate here Tuesday re-issued a warning to Americans to get out of South China interior points, saying conditions anticipated in its first warning had "become reality" since the Communist crossing of the Yangtze.

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Senate Tuesday completed legislative action on the first of the Gilmer-Aikin school bills by accepting House amendments to the reorganization measure.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The State Department has given Spain permission to negotiate with the Export-Import Bank for an American government loan, but a highly informed official said Tuesday he assumes the bank will turn down the Spanish request.

American Frontiers In Heart Of Europe, Bradley Tells Solons

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley told senators Tuesday America's defense frontiers lie "in the heart of Europe."

The Army chief of staff was before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in a pre-approval of the 12-nation North Atlantic Security Alliance.

"Geographically," he said, "many of these member nations are already in positions where any aggression into Western Europe would be a conquest of their homeland."

"I assure you that our frontiers of collective defense lie in common with theirs in the heart of Europe."

Ice In Your Hair Is A Hazard At Sunny Palm Springs Resort

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
PALM SPRINGS, CALIF.—Did you ever go to a night club floor show and get part of the floor in your hair? I did.

I was sitting rinkside for George Arnold's "Rhythm on Ice" revue at the Del Tahquits supper club here. George and his troupe of 11 skaters whirled around in a series of brilliant routines.

And every time they went around the rink I got ice spray in my hair. I wasn't dizzy, I was frapped.

George's act, really good, introduced frozen sand to Palm Springs.

The troupe travels with a portable ice rink the size of an average night club dance floor. It's unfolded and filled with sand. Then the sand is soaked with water and frozen to form a solid base. Sprinkle well with water before each performance and you have a temporary slick surface.

Of all the fabulous people in fabulous Palm Springs, Sam Levin now heads the list.

Sam is the veteran San Francisco theater chain owner who built the Palm Springs Biltmore Hotel as a $1,000,000 hobby for himself and his son, Robert. Theater Magnate.

Quite a guy, Sam. He made a fortune with his San Francisco theaters from 1908 to 1922. Then he retired to have fun with his family. He's still having fun with them.

Another son, Irving, who became one of my favorite people when he introduced noiseless popcorn bags in the Levin movie houses, runs the theater chain.

Son Robert runs the hotel. Sam supervises, putters around in the hotel kitchen at midnight as an amateur chef and reads books about rare birds.

Sam once had one of the finest collections of rare birds in America. He once paid $800 for a parakeet. He hired men to catch flies and raise maggots to feed his birds. He tried to breed flamingos, which the birds say can't be done. He built a big swamp for the flamingos at Atherton, 30 miles from San Francisco, and trucked in mud for them to stand in. But the books were right. They refused to breed.

He tired of the hobby, presented half his collection to the city of San Francisco, and sold the other half to the Catalina Island bird park.

Sam came to Palm Springs once for the winter. He fell in love with the place. So he built the Biltmore and now commutes by plane between San Francisco and Palm Springs.

Frank Sinatra's $110,000 home is the No. 1 tourist attraction, but it's unpopular with visiting press and magazine photographers. Frankie won't let 'em in.

I told you about his swimming pool in the shape of a baby grand piano. Frankie at one time thought of building it in the shape of a baby sock, but then thought better of it.

The big Palm Springs Indian Festival is coming up. The Palm Springs Indians have reason to celebrate. Some of them collect as much as $1000 a month for their land leases.

Big Date

The latest date palm in the world—80 feet—was beside the pool at the Wonder Palms. Climb it and you get a five-pound box of dates. The Wonder Palms bartender whips up the most refreshing drink on the resort—boysenberry juice, grape juice, limes and vodka.

Plans for the "eighth wonder of the world" tramway to the heights nearby Mt. San Jacinto will soon materialize. The final survey has started. The cable cars will travel from an elevation of 1000 feet to more than 10,000 feet in just a few minutes. From swimming pools to skiing—that's Palm Springs' future.

Village sight: A dog, wearing a straw hat and colored glasses, sitting in the front seat of a yellow convertible. His master, no doubt, is a seeing-eye man.

Now it can be told: Remember that photograph this winter of a group of pretty girls in fur coats meeting the train in a snowstorm at the Palm Springs railroad station? The picture appeared in almost every newspaper in the nation while members of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce gnashed their teeth and even considered suicide.

The photograph was arranged and taken by a publicity man for the chamber who had been fired the week before.

That's sweet revenge.

Committees Direct Home Demonstration Council Activities

Activities of the Midland County Home Demonstration Council, which is sponsoring observance of National Home Demonstration Week May 1-7, are planned and directed by committees. When the council is reorganized at the start of each calendar year, new committees are named.

Each committee sets its goals for the year and makes recommendations to all home demonstration clubs of the county for carrying out the plans.

Mrs. O. R. Phillips, Mrs. D. M. Bissell and Mrs. O. O. Reed comprise the yearbook committee, which has asked that suggestions for the 1950 program be presented by club members at the September council meeting for use as the basis for the next yearbook.

The finance committee has the responsibility of outlining plans for raising funds to carry out council projects. Mrs. Truman Harris and Mrs. Joe Chastain are members.

Mrs. E. D. Ward and Mrs. Emmitt Sherman are on the exhibit committee, which encourages club and individual entries in the Midland County Fair and has asked each club to arrange an exhibit in the council meeting room this year.

A scholarship fund which the council has maintained for many years and which has assisted several young women of the county in attending college, is directed by the education committee. Mrs. Sherman Chapman and Mrs. I. J. Howard, each club has been asked to add $10 to the scholarship fund this year, and for the first time the fund has been made available to 4-H Club boys as well as girls.

Carolyn Oates Is Dinner Hostess To Methodist Council

The final meeting of the church year for the Senior Department Council of the First Methodist Church was conducted after a dinner given for the members Monday night by Miss Carolyn Oates, superintendent of the Youth Division.

She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. N. G. Oates, in serving the dinner in the Oates home, 610 North Main Street. Department colors, blue and yellow, appeared on the table in the arrangement of cornflowers and daisies, the yellow carnations, which also has charge of pooled orders to purchase products not grown in this county.

Tea For Newcomers Scheduled May 12

Invitations have been sent to approximately 100 women who are new residents of Midland, to a tea scheduled for 2 p.m. May 12 in the Ranch House. Purpose of the tea is to launch the organization of a Newcomers Club.

Plans for the party are being directed by Margaret Frances Barber. In the house party will be women representing the various churches of the city.

Because Midland has a growing population which brings many new residents here each month, the Newcomers Club is planned to help them get acquainted and enable them to take their places at once in the city's activities.

Sympathies Vary On In-Law Trouble, But Not Conclusions

By NUTH MILLET
NEA Staff Writer

A recent column based on the complaint of a mother-in-law who said her daughter-in-law never invited her to her home for a meal brought in some interesting mail.

The mothers-in-law who wrote me seemed sure of why the daughter-in-law never wanted to have her husband's mother to a meal.

"She's probably too lazy to cook a good dinner," said some. Others suggested that she was probably ashamed of her housekeeping.

The daughters-in-law had their own opinions. They felt that the young wife probably realized she wasn't as good a housekeeper or cook as her mother-in-law and feared her mother-in-law would disapprove of her way of doing things.

So, oddly enough, even though the sympathy of the young wives was for the daughter-in-law and the sympathy of the older women was all on the side of the mother-in-law, both sides reached somewhat the same conclusion.

The young wife didn't invite her mother-in-law to her house for meals because she didn't want to be compared unfavorably with her mother-in-law as a cook and housekeeper. If that's the explanation, mothers-in-law and daughters-in-law can both learn something from these letters.

Shouldn't Try To Compete

For the daughters-in-law: Don't try to compete with your mother-in-law as a homemaker. After all, she is experienced at the job and you are just learning. Admit readily to her that you've a lot to learn, and don't be too proud to ask her to show you how to do something at which she excels.

No older woman is going to be critical of a younger woman if the younger one shows respect for the older woman's ability.

For the mothers-in-law: Don't snoop when you visit. Be a grateful guest. Accept things as you find them, with no raised eyebrows. And give your daughter-in-law a few verbal pats on the back-in her husband's hearing. Nothing will boost your stock more than that.

For both: Don't try to compete with each other. That's where most mother-daughter-in-law trouble starts, with each woman trying to prove she's superior to the other. (All rights reserved, NEA Service, Inc.)

TEXAS LADY LOSES 47 POUNDS

The following remarkable story shows conclusively that Barozestra DOES take effect. It contains nothing harmful. In fact, it contains ingredients that make you feel better. No starvation diet—no weakness—no hunger. Barozestra, the original grapefruit juice recipe, takes off fat quickly, safely and you can eat plenty.

Here is proof

Here is what Mrs. H. H. Bishop, Route 2, Stamford, Texas, wrote us:

"I am very glad to endorse Barozestra, as please accept my sincere thanks and appreciation for the great benefit I derive from its use. I not only lost weight, but also feel and look better in every way."

"I had to have a very serious operation and was told that I must lose a lot of weight before the operation could be performed. I went on a diet and tried very hard to reduce, but wasn't losing much weight until I heard of Barozestra. I began taking it and the weight I was losing. I weighed 200 pounds when I started and I lost a total of 47 pounds and was able to undergo my operation. I can truthfully recommend it to others, since it did so much for me.

At all drug stores

If you are overweight and take too much fat, just go to your drug store and ask for four ounces of liquid Barozestra. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, safe way to take off weight, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Duess May Be Weakness

There are two good reasons for believing Leon Dennen's explanation of the recent Soviet cabinet shakeup, which he has given in an NEA dispatch from Paris.

The former ministers, says Dennen, were kicked upstairs to become the chief architects of a "Molotov Plan" aimed at countering the North Atlantic Treaty.

Now that this believable report has been made, hindsight can say that it almost was predictable. The Atlantic Pact, coming on the heels of the Marshall Plan, gave notice that the free democracies really meant business.

The result is not encouraging. If the "Molotov Plan" is announced, as predicted, almost the whole Northern Hemisphere will be divided into what amounts to two armed camps.

Such an alliance would make the Kremlin virtual boss of perhaps a half billion people. If the Reds gain all of China, it would put about a quarter of the earth's inhabited territory in the Soviet sphere.

It all adds up to a rather dismal prospect. Yet the program that Dennen reports is not without its possible disadvantages. The alliance, except for the uncertain situation in China, merely formalizes what was already a fact.

The reported pact would not increase the Communist empire's industrial output very much, if at all. Nor would it solve all the economic and ideological problems that have plagued the Kremlin.

Marshall Tito and Mao Tse-tung, the Chinese Red leader, have shown signs of independent thinking. Tito would be a small figure in such a mighty coalition, but Mao is a more important factor.

There is a great deal of compulsion implicit in the program which Dennen says is in the offing. The North Atlantic Treaty, on the other hand, is a willing alliance of friendly and independent nations.

It is estimated this year's health tax in Britain will be $208,000,000 higher than last year. It's enough to make them sick.

Always Permissible In Making A Trade

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: American housewife is duped by Farben-ized food; Congressman Keefe makes startling disclosures on chemical substitutes in foods; Truman reminisces on New Mexico.

WASHINGTON—The American housewife doesn't know it, but more and more of the food she buys for her family contains the same basic "ersatz" ingredients which I. G. Farben, the notorious Nazi cartel, developed for German troops and civilians in the last war.

The extent of this Farben-izing of American food, unbeknownst to the consumer, has been partially investigated by the Food and Drug Administration, which has been holding hearings on the use of synthetic substitutes for milk and shortening in bread.

However, the whole story hasn't been told the public, chiefly because of official bookkeeping. Food and Drug officials write their hands and say they have no authority under the law for a full-fledged investigation. They admit, however, that more and more chemical substitutes are being used in various foods and that they do not know what the final result will be on the health of the nation.

Meanwhile Republican Rep. Frank Keefe of Wisconsin, who has been quizzing the Food and Drug Administration, has made some startling disclosures about what goes into many of the things we eat.

1. That bread can and is being chemically to a point where it has little if any nutritional value; 2. That non-nutritional chemicals, "mostly the result of the work of I. G. Farben chemists," are being palmed off on the unsuspecting public, in place of milk, fats and eggs in such foods as cake, doughnuts, cereal mixes, peanut butter, ice cream, candy, salad dressing, milk drinks, synthetic whipping cream, pickles and food flavors.

3. Manufacturers and pharmaceutical houses which produce synthetic foodstuffs have not made adequate research to determine if the substitutes are poisonous. While there is no proof of toxicity in most of the substitutes, Keefe points out that seven persons died after using a substitute salt prepared for people who cannot use ordinary salt in their diet.

Taste Ahead of Nutrition. The synthetic ingredient which many bakers now use in bread is a compound of polyoxyethylene glycol and stearic acid, known as polyoxyethylene monostearate. Stearic acid is derived from animal fats, but polyoxyethylene glycol, a substance similar to purified anti-freeze for automobiles, has no nutritional value.

The American consumer is produced chiefly by the Atlas Powder Company of Wilmington, Del., and Glyco Products Company of Brooklyn and is distributed in slightly different forms under the trade names "Sta-Sort" and "MYR-48."

In fact, this deceptive quality-gives a pleasing taste to the chemical, but it is the chief selling point of its distributors. Vernon C. Usher, Inc., of Chicago, which makes a somewhat similar synthetic compound called "Top-Sort," frankly states in his literature to the baking trade:

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Written for NEA Service

Generally championship tournaments are held over a weekend, beginning Friday and ending on Sunday. Regional championship events, however, require an entire week of play, and these regional tournaments have good representation from all the surrounding states.

The recent Eastern States regional championships tournament in New York had a schedule which was spread out over a month. The mixed pair event was held on one Sunday, while the mixed team on Sunday.

four was held on the following Sunday. Although the participants this year were mostly from metropolitan New York, most of the events were larger than usual. A new event was tried out this year and proved quite popular. It was a one-session individual contest, in which the players play with different partners each round and against different opponents.

Now the problem was how to play the game. Mr. Cohen did not make the mistake of laying down the jack of spades. He knew he had to hold his spades losers to two, so he made the correct play of a small spade. This left only two trumps and one diamond.

So they say

If the atom bomb is the secret weapon by which we have prevented military aggression from the Kremlin, the Russian secret weapon is the hope that a depression will develop in the U. S.

Our ties with the U. S. are morally and materially as strong as though we were a member of the Atlantic Community.

The gist of Congress is in its infancy and has a long time to live. It will be judged in the end on how well it is able to handle the responsibilities and who was responsible for its achievements and who was responsible for its failures.

There are some of our own people who still think that the Communists are the left wing of the Socialist movement. They are not. The Socialist movement was a movement for freedom in its widest sense. From the point of view of freedom, Communists are on the extreme right, more reactionary than some of the old tyrannies which we knew in the past.

The Human Race

ISLAND OF ESCAPE By Hugh Lawrence Nelson

THE STORY: Four lonely wanderers go to Spars Island on a fishing boat from the Chesapeake. One of them, Bea Cosgrove, is sold by Miguel Ock, skipper of the boat, to a man who gives her a pistol to draw attention from the automatic which she had hidden on the boat.

HENRY GOUGH HARDING'S close-cropped hair, either gray or blond, fitted his massive skull like a cap. His deeply tanned skin, his bushy black eyebrows emphasized the blue of his eyes.

Bea watched his long fingers stir through the contents of the four bags. He stopped poking, fished out the tiny revolver.

"Which of you felt the need for this?" "It's mine," Bea said. She felt a rush of color to her face as he stood there studying her, making no attempt to hide his amusement.

"And you are?" "Miss Cosgrove." He picked up her letter. "So, Miss Bea Cosgrove, Spinster. Schoolteacher for 20 years. Hair dark. Eyes hazel. I would have said green. Weight 128. Height five feet five. Age 48. Excellent character, more trustworthy and dependable. Hmhm." He looked at the gun again, tossed it in a short arc out into the water. "So."

He picked up another letter. "Mrs. Lilly Warren." "Here," Lilly said. "So I see, Mrs. Warren, widow. Pretty secretary. Hair natural red. Eyes black. That's interesting. Weight 115. Height five feet four. Age 41. Well spoken of by last employer. Vivacious and gay."

He picked up another letter. "Mrs. Jones, also a widow. Housewife. Hair brown to gray. Eyes brown. Weight 110. Height five feet nine. Age 44. Recommended as a quiet, devout, hard-working woman by pastor of local church."

Red, spotted Agnes Firth's cheeks as she waited for Harding to begin on the last letter. "Miss Agnes Firth, spinster. Social worker. Hair blond. Eyes blue. Weight 118. Height five feet three. Age 43. Excellent record at social work until her resignation over two years ago."

Harding tore the four letters into small scraps, scattered them into the water. "On Spars Island we have the present and the future. When I tore up those letters, I erased the past and any holdovers of the necessity of lying and scheming in the world you've left. It is a new beginning, a new chance for you all."

THE house's stone foundation and the veranda on the west and south sides blended with the hill to the north and overhung the sheer drop of cliff to the east. Broad stone steps on the west led up to the veranda and the wide front porch. On the south, two twin narrow-gauge tracks appeared abruptly on the steep slope leading to the cove and disappeared in an opening in the foundation.

The glistening white of the two-story structure was saved from the appearance of an overgrown box by the square tower at the southwest corner.

Inside the house the mutton-smelling candles on the large dining table flickered when Henry Harding stood up to end the meal. "I know you're all tired, and I'll not keep you long. There are some things to be said, and a decision to be made. One of you may become my wife. I intend to be blunt now to save future misunderstandings."

"First, something about myself. Some years ago I was a small, lewd, real estate dealer. Oil was discovered on some property I acquired. I sold part of my holdings for millions. "I acquired this island. Some of you may remember the newspaper headlines: ' eccentric Millionaire to Found New Eden.' People laughed at me, but I poured a portion of my money into Spars Island. The boat you came on has been under my charter. For over a year now I have had crews of men working. Putting up buildings, starting the gardens, the Rocks of sheep, bringing in supplies and storing them away safely. These candles we use were made here, represent a first step in my desire to make Spars Island independent of outside help. You saw the last of the crews leave. We are far from the path of planes and steamers. Everything now is up to us." He paused, frowned.

Bea watched his long fingers stir through the contents of the four bags. He fished out the tiny revolver.

"Now, a word about my money. Even if a marriage is consummated, my wife cannot hope to get any of my money by leaving or outliving me. The money stays with Spars Island. It is tied up legally with the island's future. Is that understood?"

THERE were nods and murmurs from the women. "Good. We shall not mention it again. For you four, the next three months can be looked upon as a period of trial and adjustment. You must prove to the you can shed your old ways of life. True, that may be easy since you were neither happy nor successful. Here, each will have certain tasks. At first we will rotate these tasks each week. By trial we will determine where talents lie. "I have outlined roughly what is ahead. Do you still wish to stay? I have arranged with the master of the Simpatco to lie offshore tonight. If I light the beacon on the water tower he will return tomorrow. Anyone who wishes can leave then."

Henry Gough Harding smiled, left the table for a moment and returned with materials of varied colors over his arm. He spread them out, showed they were garments. One black, one orange, one blue, and one green.

"I have outlined roughly what will be separated into those of the house, the dock, the garden, and the sea—which covers supplies." He picked up the black. "Miss Cosgrove, since you volunteered to get the meal tonight, may I ask you to take charge of the house for the first week? This is your badge of office. Please wear it tomorrow."

The black was introus. The material though of a coarse weave was soft, clinging. She said, "If it fits, I'll be glad to wear it." He said stiffly, "It will fit. I have had your measurements. I have planned. The green and the garden go to Mrs. Jones. "I can garden," Mabel said. "I got a green thumb." "To Miss Firth, the orange, and the sheep." "I'll do my best," Agnes said. "I don't know anything about sheep." "Just keep them away from the cliffs. They're stupid animals, apt to commit suicide."

BEA COSGROVE'S fingers tightened. She glanced quickly at the man, but he had already turned to smile at Lilly Warren. "The blue is yours. For the present there will be much to do in the house and in the garden. I'll look forward to it," Lilly said. "One thing more. There are no pockets in your costumes. I do not know whether any of you ladies indulge in the tobacco habit. On Spars Island, during the dry season, there is no smoking, no carrying of matches. Fire is our enemy. The brush and grass are tinder dry. In a week, or two or three, the rains begin. Now, any questions?"

Mabel Jones tried to stifle a yawn. "I'll clear away," Bea said. "It is getting late." She finished cleaning, washed the dishes and pans and hung the tea towel on a rack near the wood-burning stove. She slipped out all the candles but one, moved quickly to the sugar cupboard, hiked up her skirts with one hand while she made a nest between bags with the other. She forced the automatic in the cavity, pocketed down the bags.

A slight sound, a movement of air made her turn. She stood motionless. The swinging door swung gently back and forth a few times before it came to rest. Suddenly, blindingly there was a blaze of light. Bea looked around wildly until she made out the customary mosaic of electric lights. She walked into the bow brightly lit main room. The three women were huddled near the table. Henry Harding came in through the front door. "For tonight, as a special occasion, I've turned on the electric lights. You may have light to retire without candles. Good night."

Henry Harding came in through the front door. "For tonight, as a special occasion, I've turned on the electric lights. You may have light to retire without candles. Good night." (To Be Continued)

Civil Rights Rider Pointed At Federal School Aid Measure

WASHINGTON —(AP)— A civil rights amendment to the $300,000,000 federal aid to education bill was up for Senate action Tuesday, but opponents of the legislation were confident of beating it.

The amendment, offered by Senator Lodge (R-Mass.), would deny aid funds to states whose public elementary and secondary schools are not open to pupils "without regard to race, color, creed or national origin."

Senators Aiken (R-Vt.), Douglas (D-Ill.) and others said adoption of the amendment would kill the whole bill because of the opposition of senators from Southern states.

First Amendment Beaten
Lodge proposed giving the states a flat $10 a year for each public school child, instead of taking into account not only the number of children but also the annual income payments in each state, as the bill provides.

Under the bill the federal payments to the states would vary from $5 to slightly over $29 per pupil, with the largest per-pupil allotments going to the poorest states.

Texan Charged As Deserter From Navy Faces Court Martial

PEARL HARBOR —(AP)— A Texan who starred in Navy baseball is being court-martialed here on a charge of "desertion in time of war."

Louis E. Williams, 24, Hutchins, Texas, offered a defense plea Monday that the Navy two-year statute of limitations outlawed the offense. It was rejected by the court.

Williams is a seaman first class, is accused of deserting Pearl Harbor Submarine Base in July, 1948.

Last August, he led a Navy baseball team to the Pacific championship. When it was packing to leave for the all-Navy playoffs at San Diego, he gave himself up.

Williams says he never left Pearl Harbor during the three years except to play baseball. Playing under the name Roy, he was a 400 hitter and a star left fielder.

He says he slept in the Ordnance Section main barracks, wore a uniform, slid into show lines when hungry, attended station movies and even worked occasionally at the supply base.

The desertion charge carries a maximum death penalty.

Redskins Swamp Sweetwater 11-5 Series Continues Here Tuesday

Sports

6—THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, MAY 3, 1949

Nipp, Adams, Pena, Rose Blast Extra-Base Blows

The Midland Indians and the Sweetwater Swatters go at it again in the final game of their two-game series in Indian Park at 8 p.m. Tuesday. The Swatters will move out Wednesday and Ballinger comes to Indian Park for a one-game stand Wednesday night.

The Midland Indians extended their winning streak to three games Monday night by thrashing the Sweetwater Swatters 11 to 5 in a loosely-played contest. Weldon Stewart, making his first mound appearance of the season, went all the way to gain credit for the victory.

The only time there was any question about the outcome of the game was in the second inning when Sweetwater scored three runs to take a one-run lead. After that, the Indians scored and scored and scored.

After Stewart had blanked the Swatters in the opening half of the first, Midland scored two runs on three doubles. Bob Rose slapped a two-bagger into rightfield and Carri Nipp drove him in with a double to left. Gus Pena then doubled Nipp across.

Byron Nelson, defending Texas PGA Open champion, was entered in the best-ball event. Another woman pro was added to the field Tuesday with announcement by Betty Jameson of San Antonio that she would be here Wednesday for a golf clinic.

Five professionals qualified for the National PGA at Richmond, Va., in sectional rounds Monday. Jack Harnden of El Paso shot a four-under-par 138 for the 36 holes to lead the 30 pro posting scores.

Second were Ray Hill of Shreveport and Raymond Gafford of Fort Worth with 141. Frank Champ of Lake Charles, La., and Charles Klein of Amarillo captured the two other spots with 143's.

Nelson is exempt from qualifying being a former National PGA champion.

The win-starved Midland Bulldogs clipped the Abilene Eagles 8 to 1 in a District 3-AA baseball game in Abilene Monday.

The Purple jumped on Abilene's starting hurler, Leslie Price, for three big runs in the first and never were headed.

The Bulldogs counted three more in the third and two in the seventh.

Abilene's only tally came in the fifth.

The Bulldogs took advantage of several Abilene errors and hit the ball when it counted most.

Max Harris went all the way for Midland to get credit for a seven-hitter.

WT-NM League—94 Runs Recorded In Wild Contests; Jim Prince Homers

By The Associated Press
It was one of those nights in the West Texas-New Mexico League. The boys went run-crazy. Exactly 94 — count 'em—filtered across the plate in four games.

The biggest slugfest was the Berger-Amarillo thing. The Gassers beat Amarillo 24-14 to stay in the league lead.

Borger, winning its ninth straight, used 24 hits to pulverize the Gold Sox. The Gassers scored eight runs in the third and nine more in the fourth.

Albuquerque, in a virtual tie with Borger for the top, held the pace, licking Clovis 17-15 in the other big scoring battle. Clovis pitched in eight errors in the three hours and seven minutes of play. Tom Breisinger doubled in the winning runs.

Mike Dooley hit a homer with the bases full and Jim Prince parked one with two on in leading Lubbock to a 14-4 decision over Pampa.

The only low-score game was at Abilene, where the Blue Sox beat Lamesa 5-1 behind the four-hit pitching of Rene Vega.

Longhorn League—San Angelo Colts Grab Loop Lead As Broncs Nip Oilers

By The Associated Press
San Angelo held undisputed lead in the Longhorn League Tuesday.

The Colts did it by winning while Odessa lost Monday night.

San Angelo used 13 hits to beat Vernon 13-9. Camillo Bello and John Kick blasted homers for the Colts, the former with two on and the latter with one aboard.

Odessa fell before Big Spring 7-5. Fred Rodriguez was hammered for 13 hits but was tight in the clinches, striking out 13.

Midland moved into a tie for second place with Odessa and Big Spring by beating Sweetwater 11-5.

Three Sweetwater players, including Manager Dick Gyselman, were put out of the game for arguing with an umpire.

Ballinger edged Roswell 8-7, pounding 11 hits. Ballinger used four pitchers.

According to the Department of Commerce, 1,400,000 of the nation's 3,900,000 small business firms have come into existence since the war.

Leo, On Carpet, Loaded For Bear

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Leo Durocher marched back on to Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler's carpet again Tuesday.

But this time the fiery Leo went before Chandler loaded with statements in support of his claim that he was not at fault in an alleged assault on a fan at the Polo Grounds last Thursday.

Fred Boysen, the fan, has filed a charge of simple assault against Durocher, claiming the New York Giant manager hit and kicked him. But the Giant's official family came here for the hearing armed with affidavits that Leo was not the guilty party. One of those affidavits was signed by a fan who said he thought he accidentally kicked Boysen when the latter fell.

Durocher now is under an indefinite suspension which Chandler slapped on him the day after the incident.

The commissioner said Monday he was "of an open mind," but his desk was piled high with letters and telegrams asking for leniency for the Giant pilot.

A source close to Chandler has said the suspension was imposed immediately as a precautionary measure. That source said Chandler feared there would be acts of vandalism from the Harlem section of New York if Durocher remained in uniform.

Durocher, accompanied by Giant President Horace Stoneham, Garry Schumacher, assistant to Stoneham, and Club Secretary Eddie Brannick, smiled for photographers when he arrived here Monday night by plane from New York. However, the whole party appeared to be in a very sober state of mind.

Amarillo Sandies May Upset Corpus Christi Trackmen

AUSTIN — (AP) — The Amarillo Sandies, who scored only 1 1/4 points in the 1948 meet, are the only team conceded a chance to defeat Corpus Christi for the state AA track title here this weekend.

The powerful Corpus Christi Buc, long favored to cop the state championship, scored 66 points in winning the Region Five meet, but Amarillo accumulated 67 in sweeping Region One.

Amarillo qualified 10 men for the state while Corpus Christi qualified only seven. Both qualified their mile and 440-yard relay teams.

Corpus Christi holds the best time in the regional in the 440, 44 seconds. Both turned in 3:33 in the mile relay, the second best regional times.

The Sandies will rely chiefly on field events men for their point-gathering in the individual events. Corpus Christi has a strong running team and points to its outstanding sprinter, Bobby Dean, as the potential high scorer of the meet.

Eight Nags Warm Up In Derby Trial

LOUISVILLE, KY. — (AP) — This Kentucky Derby business really begins to warm up Tuesday with eight candidates for Saturday's $100,000 jamboree squaring off in a race worth $90,000 less—the Derby Trial.

Several of the "leading men" in the world famous classic were slated for action in the one-mile trial. It is the final test before Saturday's colorful show.

The three big horses in Tuesday afternoon's race appear to be Fred W. Hooper's powerful combination of Olympia and Ocean Drive, and Greenree Stable's ever-dangerous Capot. Each was to carry 118 pounds.

Then there is the Calumet Farm pair of De Luxe and Ponderosa. The rest of them in the trial, Mrs. H. J. Dahm's Roundleer, Arthur P. Cotter's Jet Cotter, and Afton Villa Farm's Jack Town, could be in there just for the ride.

Daddy Ringtail

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And The Coffee Cup

Daddy Ringtail started to read a book one night, after everyone else was asleep in the monkey house. I don't know what the book was about, or whether it had any pictures, but it must have been a wonderful book.

Daddy Ringtail didn't want to put it down. He read and read that night, and even the moon had gone to bed, when at last Daddy Ringtail fell asleep in his chair without even taking off his clothes. He slept there in the chair the rest of the night.

Sammy and Bobby Ringtail, those monkey boys, awoke very early the next morning, almost as soon as the daylight came in their windows. Sometimes they slept late, but not that morning. Something woke them up. They jumped out of bed and ran through the monkey house for fun.

"Daddy Ringtail!" they said together. "What are you doing in that chair?"

"Oh me! Oh my!" said Daddy Ringtail, because he hadn't been asleep long enough. He opened one of his eyes, but there he saw again quickly, because his head was hurting from not enough sleep.

"Daddy Ringtail," said Sammy, "try hard to open your eyes." And Daddy Ringtail did, but only one of them would stay open. He was so very sleepy.

Mother Ringtail came in the living room just then. She knew Daddy Ringtail needed some help, and she wasn't sleepy like he was. "Sammy! Bobby!" she said "You boys let Daddy Ringtail alone now. Don't talk to him until he has had his coffee."

She made some coffee on the stove. She gave a cup to Daddy Ringtail. Only then could he open both of his eyes and keep them open. And if you have a daddy who can't open both of his eyes

In the morning, or one who won't talk to you until he has his coffee, remember that he is just like Daddy Ringtail was that morning, poor fellow. But remember, too, that people should never drink coffee until they are old enough to do it. If you don't know how old that is, then you aren't old enough yet yourself. Happy day! Tomorrow's adventure is Daddy Ringtail and the Pink Winkledink. (Copyright 1949, General Features Corp.)

Recession—

Inventory replacement revives business should find itself on a sounder and infinitely more satisfactory basis.

The shift to a "moderately solid and orderly pattern of prosperity" will be blocked or delayed, Shreve said, if the government raises taxes and lays down economic controls—as proposed by President Truman—as it embarks on a policy of inflation financing.

"It is self-evident to all thinking men," he declared, "that the federal budget should be balanced through the economy in spending—not through higher taxes."

Another speaker at the session offered a plan to build prosperity: "Businessmen should give prompt attention to the task of pricing consumers back into the market" by lowering prices and bringing out new products, said Harry A. Bullis, board chairman of General Mills, Inc., Minneapolis.

A price decline is "natural and inevitable," Bullis said. "We are laying the groundwork for a long and sustained rise in the living standard of America."

New Yardstick For Rent Ceilings Gives No Prompt Answers

WASHINGTON—AP—The Government came up Tuesday with a new formula for figuring fair rent ceilings—but it provided no immediate answer on how much it will increase rents.

The new formula will be applied to the 14,000,000 dwellings still under federal rent control. It was worked out under orders from Congress to provide the landlords with a "fair net operating income."

Housing Expediter T. H. Woods Monday night announced details of the new "yardstick" designed to provide property owners a net operating income of 25 to 30 per cent on rental units.

Under the new policy, "small" landlords—those renting one to four dwelling units—will be allowed net increases if net income is less than 25 per cent of gross income. In such cases, rents will be topped to provide a 30 per cent operating income.

For "large" landlords—those renting more than four units—increases will be permitted to bring operating income to 25 per cent if the net figure now is below the 20 per cent average.

Woods said it impossible to fall how many rents will be increased under the formula. No accurate figures are available to know how many landlords net operating income comes now average.

The procedures also outline specific steps which must be taken by landlords to get rental books.

Landlords first must petition rent control offices for increases. That provides automatic notification to renters, who then will be given an opportunity to oppose the increase.

Housing authorities said machinery already has been set up to handle landlords' applications for increases. That provides automatic notification to renters, who then will be given an opportunity to oppose the increase.

Pushcart Hits Car At Conclusion Of Down-Hill, Zip-Trip

COLORADO SPRINGS—AP—A pushcart made a 10-mile zip-trip down a mountain side to involve a 27-year-old Lettie Kincaid in a traffic accident.

The cart, a light affair used by a railroad section gang high in the Rockies, took off on its solo spin from a spot on the other side of "fanout" Springs.

The section hands jumped in a car and gave chase along a road paralleling the track on which the cart travelled. But before they caught up with it the cart buzzed through Manitou Springs and into the Western sector of this city, smashing squarely into the small coupe of Kincaid, as the driver attempted to make a grade-crossing.

Kincaid said he saw the cart coming but he underestimated its speed. His coupe took quite a beating. The cart, however, was undamaged.

Oil Imports Must Be Cut, Says IPAA

NEW ORLEANS—AP—The Independent Petroleum Association of America says petroleum imports must be cut this year or this nation's safety may be jeopardized.

The association's supply and demand committee made the statement Monday while reviewing downward its 1948 prediction of 1948 demand.

The committee said demand is falling because of:

Abnormally warm weather reducing heating fuel needs.

General business condition changes reflected in decreased industrial activity and a decrease in wholesale price levels.

Large increases in foreign oil supplies available for consumption in the world market.

The committee observed: "It is obvious that the total supply of oil now available from both domestic and foreign sources is in excess of current oil demands."

"This requires reductions in supply in order to avoid wasteful and unnecessary above-ground storage, the reductions can be in domestic output or imports or both."

But, the committee said, "The safety of our country could be jeopardized by curtailing domestic production to the point where the incentive would be lacking to continue the necessary exploration and development work to provide for the larger oil requirements of the future."

The committee estimated domestic production limit could cover the anticipated demand for 8,000,000 barrels per day for gasoline, kerosene, distillate, residual and other petroleum products. Only 130,000 barrels need be imported per day in the second and third quarters of the year and only 180,000 per day in the fourth quarter, the committee said.

Dollarhide-Silurian Extension Indicated

Good indications of an extension to the Dollarhide-Silurian production in the Dollarhide field of Southwest Andrews County have been indicated by the Silurian Oil Company No. 1-B Cowden, outpost to the field.

Top of the Silurian was drilled on 8,855 feet. Driftless tests of the horizon have shown good prospects.

The last test of the zone was run with the 200 open four hours and 30 minutes into 8,855 feet, recovering 200 feet of clear oil and 200 feet of drilling mud cut with 50 per cent oil. No free water has developed.

Operator has drilled ahead to 8,722 feet and 8,615 feet. The test was waiting for cement to cure on bottom-hole casing cemented on seven-inch casing cemented on bottom-hole casing. Plus it is to be drilled shortly for production tests.

Location is 680 feet from south and east lines of section 14, block A-33, oil survey.

Seaboard Is On DST In Gaines Woodford

A drillstem test of the Woodford shale was in process at Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 Dees, Southeast Gaines County field, 19 miles southwest of the Cedar Lake field and 4,200 feet from east, 7,430 feet from south lines of league 282, Lynn CSL survey.

Total depth was 12,742 feet.

Vealmore Extended North Into Borden

Pennsylvanian production from the Vealmore field of North-Central Howard County has been extended north into Borden-Central Borden County by the completion of Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 4 H. N. Kant, 1,970.4 feet from west and 1,987.4 feet from north lines of league in section 24, block 22, T-5-N, 7P survey.

The well flowed 24 hours through 14/64-inch choke to make a potential of 444.80 barrels of 45.5 gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 688-1 and no water.

Production was natural from the open hole section at 7,770-7,840 feet.

Iron Deep Lime Zone Develops No Shows

A deep lime formation thought to be Ellenburger made no shows on two drillstem tests at Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-F Sawyer, deep wildcat in Southwest Iron County eight miles northwest of the town of Barnhart and 800 feet from south, 1,830 feet from east lines of section 191, block 1, TP survey.

The first test was for 80 minutes at 1,749-7,780 feet with a slight air blow that recovered 580 feet of drilling mud.

On the second investigation, the mud was open 204 hours and 20 minutes at 9,783-9,830 feet. Recovery was 180 feet of drilling mud. There were no shows of oil, gas or water.

Drilling was continuing from 9,800 feet in time. The current formation has made water at a lesser depth.

Pacific Western To Plug Failure In Lamb

Pacific Western Oil Corporation was preparing to plug and abandon its No. 1-B Brown, deep wildcat in Southwest Lamb County, eight and one-half miles southwest of Sudan.

The prospector drilled to 2,135 feet in time, developed no shows of oil or gas and plugged back to 4,380 feet for another examination.

With packer at 4,380 feet, the tool was open two hours. Recovery was 200 feet of drilling mud and 1,400 feet of salt water.

Location is 430 feet from north and east lines of league 18, league 213, Deer Bluff oil survey.

Lone Star 1 Made Is Dry And Abandoned

After reducing hole for a drillstem test in the Pennsylvanian and recovering water, Lone Star Producing Company No. 1 1/2-M, North-Central Seaboard County wildcat, is dry and abandoned.

Total depth was 2,297 feet in a deep lime formation thought to be Ellenburger. The deep horizon also made water.

The dry hole is 800 feet from south and east lines of section 31, block 97, H&TC survey, about three miles east of Dermott.

Money Bill—

mittes pending determination of the Senate.

The House Monday unanimously approved and sent to the Senate a loyalty bill requiring state employees to sign affidavits that they have not been members of any subversive organization the last two years.

A bill amending the Unemployment Compensation Act to reduce the tax on payrolls was passed by the House and returned to the Senate with an amendment. It would lower the present tax of five-tenths of one per cent on payrolls by one-tenth of one per cent for every five million dollars surplus in the tax fund over the $50 million dollar level.

More Unemployment Benefits
The tax is reduced to one-tenth of one per cent reductions would cease.

Weekly unemployment benefit checks would be raised from $18 to $20, and the benefit period would be extended six weeks beyond the present 16-week limit.

These employees would save six to 10 million dollars in taxes each year, Gov. Allan Shivers estimated.

The Senate also changed a bill by Senator Clegg of Greenville to permit rather than force counties to raise salaries of deputies, clerks or other employees up to 36 per cent if they have the money to do it. The bill was sent to the House by 32-15 vote.

The House passed a bill by Rep. Wagoner of Fruitland allowing expense accounts of district attorneys and district judges to be paid by the county per year to $500.

It passed on second reading by Rep. Carlton Moore's bill creating a six-man board to license naturopaths.

NATURAL GAS BILL GOES TO SENATE FLOOR

AUSTIN—AP—A House-passed proposal to set up a standard measurement of natural gas was referred to the Senate Monday.

The bill was introduced in the Senate's State Affairs Committee Monday night. It calls for a unit of gas as one measured under 14.7 pounds per square inch pressure at 60 degrees Fahrenheit.

A Puff of Wind Blew Her Away

Adelaide Rudolph of Cleveland, Ohio, is old and weighs only 99 pounds. Her friends have often humorously predicted that a puff of wind would blow her away one day. That's just what happened. On a windy, rainy night as she hurried to catch a bus, the wind caught her umbrella and lifted her off her feet. She fell to the pavement and suffered a broken collar bone and a black eye. Here in the hospital, Miss Rudolph worries only about missing her 91st birthday party, while Sister Alice fixes her hair.

House Considers Two Labor Bills—Anything Can Happen

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON—House consideration of new labor legislation can lead to some strange results. Before the House are two bills. First is the Democratic Administration measure introduced by the two Congressional Labor Committee chairmen, Senator Elbert D. Thomas of Utah and Rep. John Lesinski of Michigan. This Thomas-Lesinski bill would repeal the Taft-Hartley law outright. It would then re-enact the Wagner law with three principal changes:
1. Jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts would be barred.
2. Settlement by arbitration would be encouraged for disputes arising out of existing union contracts.
3. Strikes in vital industries affecting the public welfare would be settled by free collective bargaining in 30-day cooling-off periods, without the use of injunctions.
Second measure before the House is the bill introduced by Congressman John S. Wood of Georgia, chairman of the Committee on Un-American Affairs. The Wood bill has strong support from the ranking Republican member of the House Labor Committee, Samuel J. McConnell, Jr.

Technically the Wood bill repeals the Taft-Hartley law. But it goes on from there to re-enact most of the Taft-Hartley provisions. Of 20 major provisions, the Wood bill is tougher than the Taft-Hartley law on four, easier on three, identical on six and makes only minor changes on seven.
Outcome Unpredictable
Under the House rule adopted for consideration of labor legislation, the Wood bill is to be taken up as an amendment to the Thomas-Lesinski bill. The Wood bill may be amended on the floor of the House. That rule opened the way for anything to happen. It left the final outcome absolutely unpredictable.
As four days or more of debate on the possibility was that the Wood bill might be so badly amended that it would have to be defeated. In that event, the House would have before it only the Thomas-Lesinski bill, which on the final vote could not be further amended.
Whatever the outcome in the House, it will be up to the Senate to straighten out the mess as best it can. The Senate version will then go back to the House. Ultimately, labor legislation will go into conference between Senate and House labor committee members. They will have to work out a compromise. So there is every possibility that what comes at the end will be a horribly patched-up job.
In trying to follow this complicated legislative battle, it is well to keep in mind a few of the basic differences between the Taft-Hartley, the Wood, and the Thomas-Lesinski bills.
The Taft-Hartley bill revived the use of court injunctions in labor disputes. The Wood bill retains this provision, but makes it really tougher by authorizing the National Labor Relations Board general counsel to seek an injunction before the courts to issue restraining orders on application without notice or hearing. The Thomas-Lesinski bill eliminates injunctions but makes NLRB cease and desist orders enforceable in court.
Emergency
On national emergencies from strikes affecting the public welfare, the Taft-Hartley law provided 30-day cooling-off periods for investigation. The Wood bill duplicates this but provides also that injunctions against strikes may be obtained before boards of inquiry are appointed. The Thomas-Lesinski bill cuts down the period for investigation to 25 days with five days more for settlement and no provision for injunction.
On union security, the Taft-Hartley law banned the closed shop and permitted union shops only after employee elections. The Wood bill has the same restrictions except that all existing and valid closed shop contracts are outlawed and that union shop contracts are permitted till employees vote against them. The Thomas-Lesinski bill would leave the whole question up to labor and management to work out, as they desired.

Texan Is Charged Again In Alleged Assault, Kidnaping
BOSTON—(AP)—The government is trying again to bring a Texan back here to face federal charges of assaulting his mother-in-law and splitting away his daughter.
The charged man is Louis Bon Conley, 29, ex-Army sergeant from Amarillo.
Many people in Amarillo, local authorities said they understood, have contributed to a Conley defense fund because they resented a Massachusetts judge's remark that "Some women would just as soon beat a woman as a horse."
Monday the federal government prepared a brief outlining its case for Texas authorities. Court attaches said authorities hoped Conley would be returned by court order or would return here voluntarily in time for the June session.
Conley is under a Plymouth County, Mass., indictment for the second time. The first indictment was found faulty. The indictment alleges Conley assaulted his mother-in-law with a dangerous weapon and took away his daughter, Lynette, three.

Texan Cattlemen Oppose Farm Plan
WASHINGTON—(AP)—Texas and Southwestern cattle raisers are bitterly opposed to at least some phases of the new Administration farm program. Their association president, Bryant Edwards, told the House Agriculture Committee.
They especially are against the idea of subsidies, Edwards said Monday, terming the payments "repugnant."
The plan, proposed by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, also is impractical from an administrative standpoint, he said.
Edwards declared:
"At no time in the history of this nation has our industry ever sought governmental support of prices. Nor has our industry ever been subjected to any character of program ever resembling such a plan."
He continued:
"It was stated that subsidies would be paid according to grades of the cattle.
"Who would grade these cattle? Where would they be graded? What would be done with reference to the substantial numbers of cattle sold for small town slaughter? Who would grade or count them?
"Would the government attempt to follow every animal from the range to rack? If so, the task would be gigantic and the employees in this industry alone would outnumber the Armed Forces."

Mrs. Anna June Deeds, 24-year-old divorcee, and her two children, Drema Kay, four, and Hazel Joyce Deeds, six; Mr. and Mrs. James Ellison and their three-month-old daughter, Diana Frances, and Homer Tincher, about 30, a visitor.

★ THE DOCTOR SAYS ★
Polio Symptoms Recognized, But Disease Puzzles Doctors

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service
When a human being becomes infected with the virus which causes poliomyelitis, there may be no obvious signs of the disease.
In other cases a slight fever, lasting from one to seven days, may occur, perhaps with a mild sore throat, nausea, some pain in the abdomen, or headache. This may be accompanied by some stiffness of the spine and perhaps painful breathing.
In the typical cases of polio, the symptoms mentioned are likely to be followed by varying degrees of muscular paralysis or other signs showing that the spinal cord or lower part of the brain have been attacked.
There are many questions which still cannot be answered. The cause is almost certainly a virus which is something like a germ, although much smaller. We do not know, however, how the disease is spread. Although the virus is generally supposed to go from person to person by some more or less direct route, it may be present in some domestic animal or in some growing food substance.
It is not even known whether the virus is spread through the air and breathed into the human body or by something which is eaten and swallowed into the stomach and intestinal tract. There is some evidence on both sides.
Why should polio become more frequent in the late Summer months and early Fall? This has not yet been explained. It seems to be true, however, that each year polio begins to become more frequent in the Spring in southern sections of the northern hemisphere and as the weather warms up it goes north.
There must be some vital clues which will explain the things about polio which are not yet understood. When they have been found so that the danger from polio can be reduced, all of us will breathe a sigh of relief.
