It will be at the center of the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 418, block 97, H&TC survey.

The drillsite is on a seismograph high. It is on acreage secured in a farmout from Standard Oil Company of Texas.

Contract has been awarded to Carl B. King Drilling Company of Midland. Equipment was being moved in prior to spudding.

This venture is about eight miles southeast of Superior Oil Company No. 1 Jordan extreme Northwest Scurry County wildcat being "drilled tight." The venture will be 330 feet from south and west lines of the west 80 acres of the southeast quarter of section 73, C. T. survey. It is on a 2,300-acre block.

Operations are starting drilling soon toward 3,500 feet. If no production is developed on that depth, plans are to drill ahead to 5,200 feet in search of the Ellenburger.

Standard-Fryer Drilling Company has the contract.

Hjwatha Completes Diamond M Outpost

Hjwatha Oil & Gas Company has completed a one-mile southeast extension to Canyon-Pennsylvania production in the Diamond M field of West-Central Scurry County at its No. 1 Wilson, 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 183, block 97, H&TC survey.

Flowing 24 hours through a three-eighths-inch choke, the well made a potential of 305 barrels of oil, with gas-oil ratio of 500-1. There was no water. Casing pressure was 250 pounds and tubing pressure 300 pounds.

Production was natural from the open hole section at 6,745-6,761 feet.

Atlas To Drill Into Kimble Ellenburger

A wildcat test into the Ellenburger has been started in Kimble County by Atlas Exploration Company of Houston.

It is the concern's No. 1 Dutton, 330 feet from north and west lines of section 47, block 4, TW&NG survey. Elevation is 2,266 feet.

Test report had it drilling under 1,800 feet in white lime, after cementing 8 5/8-inch casing at 1,465 feet. The deep zone is expected to come in above 1,100 feet. Drilling is with cable tools.

Hunt Gets Gas Signs In Crockett Simpson

Paint gas signs developed on a drillstem test in a lime formation thought to be Simpson at Hassie Hunt Trustee No. 1-L University, Central Crockett County wildcat, are five and one-half miles northeast of Fort Lancaster.

The tool was open one hour and 15 minutes at 7,249-7,315 feet. Recovery was 45 feet of slightly gas cut drilling mud, with no signs of oil or water.

The prospector was coring ahead from 7,386 feet in lime on last report.

The formation at 7,044-87 feet where the venture flowed gas at the rate of 2,500 cubic feet per day unofficially is picked as either Devonian or Silurian. Its identity is not verified by any source.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 10, block 29, University survey.

Stanolind To Test In Ector Devonian

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company was preparing to drillstem test in Devonian lime and chert with its No. 2-D Cowden, wildcat projected to the Ellenburger in Central-Southeast Ector County, eight miles east of Odessa and 690 feet from north and west lines of section 40, block 43, T-2-S, TP survey.

It was botomed on 11,878 feet. Point at which the packer was to be set for the examination was not reported.

Chicago Chosen For Baptist Meet

OKLAHOMA CITY—(P)—The Southern Baptist Convention, breaking a 104-year precedent of never going into predominantly Northern Baptist territory, voted Friday to hold the 1950 convention in Chicago.

OKLAHOMA CITY—(P)—The deadlock over choice of a 1950 convention city Friday forced a secret vote by an estimated 5,000 Southern Baptists—torn between Houston and Chicago.

Dr. W. Morris Ford, Longview, presented a majority report of the convention committee favoring Houston. The Rev. Roy S. Hollo- mon, Oklahoma City, pressed for designation of Chicago in a minority report.

On a voice vote and a standing vote Dr. Robert C. Lee, convention president, was unable to reach a decision. Results of the ballot were expected to be made public Friday afternoon.

Chicago had offered a minimum of 6,500 hotel rooms. Houston guaranteed 1,500. The housing of visitors and messengers to the convention—usually about 12,000—annually is the chief problem to be solved by convention hosts.

Atlanta, Ga., was reported to have been designated for the 1951 session. San Francisco also is seeking the convention.

May 10-14 was set as the dates for next year's session, the 93rd. President Relected

The convention president, Dr. Robert C. Lee, Memphis, Tenn., unanimously won reelection to a second term Thursday.

Dr. J. D. Grey, New Orleans, was elected first vice president and U. S. Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla.) second vice president. Other nominees were Dr. Homer G. Lindsey, Jacksonville, Fla., and Dr. E. Herman Westmoreland, Houston.

The Baptists ignored the report of one committee, choosing Gloriaeta, N. M., instead of Harrison, Ark., as the site of a permanent Summer assembly for the denomination west of the Mississippi River.

The Baptists heard their first out-and-out temperance lecture of the convention.

W. Henderson Barton, associate general superintendent of the Temperance League of America, said: "We want every one of the 6,000,000 Baptists, from the President of the United States on down, to sign a pledge for total abstinence from liquor and to keep that pledge."

Anybody Wanna Sell His Goat?

The Midland Chamber of Commerce is in desperate need of a goat... Yes, a goat.

The organization often is called upon to supply various and sundry things and this time it is a goat—a West Texas goat.

It seems that Midland representatives of the West Texas Beer Distributors Association attending a state convention in Galveston recently offered a goat as a special prize for something or other.

And Gus Schneider of Bellville was the winner. Now he wants his prize, which the Midland Chamber of Commerce has been asked to locate.

Anyone having a goat for sale or trade is asked to contact Delbert Downing at the C. of C. Incidentally, the goat must be of barbecue age and size.

Such is the life of a chamber of commerce executive.

Amarillo Tornado Claims Seventh Life

AMARILLO—(P)—Mrs. Hazel Duffey, 38, of Fort Worth died Friday, seventh victim of a tornado that lashed the southern section of Amarillo Sunday night.

Mrs. Duffey was visiting a sister, Mrs. Charles Maserang, 23, in Amarillo when the tornado struck. Mrs. Maserang was killed Sunday night.

Western Allies Go To Paris Meeting In Offensive Role

BERLIN—(P)—America, Britain and France will go into the Paris Foreign Ministers Conference in their strongest positions since Yalta.

This is the situation of the Big Four as seen Friday in Berlin, where France, Britain, the United States and Russia wrangle daily.

The Soviet Union's bargaining situation has been considerably weakened economically and politically since the Moscow and London conferences.

Breakup Of Ford Strike Talks Looms

DETROIT—(P)—The Ford Motor Company Friday flatly refused to open simultaneous union contract talks while negotiations continue for settlement of the CIO United Auto Workers' 16-day-old strike.

The UAW threatened Thursday night to walk out on strike peace talks unless the company agreed to begin consideration of a new contract by next Monday. The union's Ford contract expires July 15.

John S. Bugas, Ford vice president, reaffirmed in a news conference Friday the company's previous stand that it would not consider starting contract talks before June 1.

"The union is using this attempt to double up on negotiations as a means of confusing the issue in this strike," Bugas declared.

Mediator Joins Parley

Bugas statement came as Federal Mediator Arthur C. Viat intervened for the government in across-the-table peace talks on the 16th day of the strike.

President Walter Reuther of the striking UAW-CIO declared the union is "very emphatic and definite" about its intention to pull out of the negotiations unless Ford agrees to open simultaneous talks with the union by next Monday on a new contract.

Thousands were driven from their homes and crop and property damage mounted steadily.

A flash flood on Cottonwood Creek dealt a severe blow to Guthrie, 30 miles north of Oklahoma City.

Red Cross workers counted more than 1,000 homeless after the swollen creek sent a wall of water surging through the center of the town.

Several persons were believed missing as houses floated away. Water was seven feet deep in one block. City officials reported 30 blocks in Guthrie under water.

Many Highways Closed

The Cimarron, North Canadian and Washita Rivers and their backwaters caused the major flooding. The Arkansas was expected to overflow at several points in Eastern Oklahoma Friday.

River observers said they expected serious trouble from the Arkansas.

Many state highways were closed.

Officers Elected By Zoning Board

New officers were named at a meeting of the Zoning Commission of Midland Thursday. They are: John M. Hills, chairman; James L. Daugherty, vice chairman and Dr. V. P. Neilsen, secretary.

Retiring officers include John J. Redfern, Jr., chairman; John Biggs, vice chairman and A. C. Caswell, secretary.

The commission received two applications for zoning classifications from L. H. Pittman and C. W. Post. The requests were referred to sub-committees for study.

A meeting of the commission will be held June 2.

Doctor, On Trial For Murder, Tells Story Of Wife's Seduction

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA—(P)—Speaking at times in a whisper, Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, Jr., Friday related his wife's confession that she was "seduced" by the man he is accused of slaying.

The young doctor said his wife "told me the whole story" of the affair with Byron C. Hatman, in which the defense alleges resulted in her dishonor last July 31.

Dr. Rutledge is charged with stabbing Hatman to death in a Cedar Rapids hotel room night last December 14.

After testifying calmly as to his early life, the defendant's demeanor changed when questioning turned to his love for blonde Sydney Rutledge and the troubles which came to him. His voice sank low and broke at times. He said he still loved her.

The young doctor's wife left the courtroom when he began his testimony.

He told how he overheard a locker room conversation at the Norwood Country Club in St. Louis last August 10.

"He tells me that my wife had been out with Mr. Hatman and from (Continued on page 12)

Lions Accept JayCee Clean Up Challenge

The ambitious challenge of Midland JayCees to the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs for a street cleaning contest has been accepted by the Lions Club. The JayCees neglected to challenge the Lions in their initial offer.

The contest will be held at 5 p.m. Monday on West Illinois Street, between Loraine and Colorado Streets. The contestants will use fire hose, brooms, mops, brushes and other clean-up equipment.

Jimerson and Kit Carson will captain the Lions team and Dr. Henry Schlichting will head the JayCee scrubbers.

The event will be a feature of the JayCee-sponsored Clean Up-Fix Up-Fix Up Campaign in Midland.

Opportunity Drive Bond Purchases Hit $30,150 Mark Here

Midland citizens Wednesday and Thursday purchased $18,125.50 worth of U. S. Savings Bonds (Series E) to bring the week's total to $30,150 in the Treasury Department's Opportunity Drive.

The drive opened Monday and will continue through June 30. The Midland County quota is $220,000.

John P. Butler and Jack Wicker are chairman and vice chairman, respectively, of the Midland campaign.

'Booger Boo' And 'Dead Man' Are Top Rodeo Broncs

"Dead Man" and "Booger Boo" are among the top bucking horses which Everett Colborn and Gene Autry will bring to Midland for action in the 15th Annual World Championship Midland Rodeo, June 1-5.

Other tough, tough and steady broncs in the Colborn-Autry string are "Old Black Joe," "Snow Cone," "Full-O-Pop," "Dusty Bound," "Kickapoo," "T-Bar-Me," "My Weakness," "Cavaladeo," "Chief Tybee," "Shooting Star," "Big U," "Noeline," "Conclusion," and "Bear Park."

Colborn said the horses and other stock being brought to Midland Rodeo are the wildest and meanest ever seen in West Texas.

Fort Worth's Water Plant Is Restored

Hundreds of sweating men toiled at Rosser, Texas, Friday, sandbagging the levees of the rampaging Trinity River to brace them against a dreaded break.

At places, the swollen river lapped within 16 inches of the top of the dike, Richard McMurray, Associated Press reporter, said.

Rosser is 30 airline miles and about 100 winding river miles below Dallas.

At 8:30 a.m., the river at Highway 34, two miles downstream from Rosser, stood at 36.90 feet.

U.S. Vetoes Greek Talks With Russia

WASHINGTON—(P)—The United States has told Russia that if it wants peace in Greece it should get the Communist satellite states to stop aiding the Greek guerrillas.

Until such help is ended this government will not relax assistance to non-Communist Greece.

These two points were disclosed in a lengthy statement issued by the State Department Friday. The statement brought out that the department has rejected Soviet efforts to get the Greek situation out of the United Nations and into the hands of the great powers for what amounts to a compromise settlement.

The statement declared: "We are prepared to discuss any matter with the Soviet Union in the proper forum—in the case of the Greek government it is the United Nations."

The declaration on Greece was released as a result of a Press report Thursday night that Russia had proposed informally at United Nations Headquarters that the United States and Britain join in a common effort to settle the fighting.

James A. Cotton, engineer in charge of the Army Engineers sub-office in Fort Worth, said the water Thursday night was about three feet from the tops of levees in Northern Ellis County. It was rising three inches an hour.

Meanwhile, Fort Worth started shaking the water off its back.

The main problems were restoring the drinking water supply to Texas' fourth largest city, cleaning up muck and rebuilding the levees that gave way to let the river drive 13,200 people from their homes, drown 10 and cause $5,000,000 to $25,000,000 damage.

Hopes for an improved city water support perked up early Friday. An electric pump motor capable (Continued on page 12)

Acheson Proclaims 'No Compromise' On Leaving For Paris

WASHINGTON—(P)—Secretary of State Acheson left for the Paris foreign ministers meeting Friday bearing President Truman's best wishes and pledged to a firm policy in dealing with the Russians on Germany.

The President was at the airport to see Acheson off at 11:05 a. m. Truman shook hands with the secretary and then turned to reporters, saying:

"I wish him luck."

Truman was asked whether he thought the Paris meeting would be an auspicious occasion.

"That remains to be seen," the President said. "You can tell more about it after it has been in session a while."

Pressed further Truman referred reporters to Acheson's statement pledging a "no compromise" stand in the talks with the Soviet on Germany's future.

In a pre-departure statement he made clear his primary concern will be not an East-West agreement on Germany made just for the sake of agreeing. Instead he spoke of a determination to protect the economic recovery and political stability of all Western Europe, in which Germany plays a vital part.

Fires Blaze Along River Front Opposite Shanghai

SHANGHAI—(P)—Twenty-six fires burned late Friday along the Whangpoo on the Pootung side of the river as a result of shelling and demolition.

The blazes appeared to range from small villages on the horizon to industrial installations a few hundred feet from the east bank of the river opposite Shanghai's Bund.

A garrison communique claimed the Nationalists threw back all new Red efforts to close in from the Pootung area across the Whangpoo. Nevertheless four Red shells fell in Shanghai proper—killing half a dozen Chinese.

Although the famed Bund, western front street, is closed, the expected evacuation of troops has not developed.

Lunghwa Field still was operating. Every departing plane was jammed with passengers.

At one time the Reds were within five miles of the field. Now they are only three miles from it. But the Whangpoo is between them and the field.

Economy Talkers Bounce Back Again After Third Setback

WASHINGTON—(P)—Economy-talking senators bounced back for another try Friday after suffering three straight defeats in their drive to cut federal spending.

One undaunted Democratic senator in the economy group proposed the deepest cut yet—a 30 per cent slash in the Army Civil Functions bill.

Sponsored by Senator Douglas (D-Ill.), the amendment would whack $300,000,000 out of the $751,000,000 measure up for Senate debate.

Even those backing the economy move most vigorously predicted privately Douglas' proposal would be scuttled.

The third defeat came late Thursday on the $1,465,000,000 Agriculture Department bill. The measure passed the Senate by a voice vote and went back to the House, which allowed $21,000,000 less.

Before the final action there were two attempts to whittle the Senate bill. Both failed, by votes of 82 to 32 and 80 to 32.

Those two votes gave the backers of Administration budget plans their most decisive victory since the start of the economy drive.

Piggly-Wiggly I Store Burglarized

Community Theater's Version Of 'Laura' Builds Up Suspense In Mystery Plot

Suspense was built up steadily through the three acts of "Laura," mystery drama by Vera Caspary and George Sklar, in the Midland Community Theater's presentation Thursday night. It opened a four-day run in the City-County Auditorium.

The play will be presented Friday and Saturday nights, and at a Sunday matinee to which residents of nearby cities have been especially invited. Matinee performances were introduced in the Community Theater at its last previous production and proved successful enough for a repeat arrangement.

"Laura," a modern mystery which depends for its interest on plot development, was the first of that type presented by the Community Theater this season. Other productions have all had the benefit of unusual staging, costumes, dialect or quaint characters to share interest with—and sometimes overshadow—the plot.

Newcomers featured:

Stage action was kept moving rapidly by the cast, and by the backstage workers with sound and light effects, whose timing was almost perfect.

The cast presented several newcomers to the Community Theater in performances which call for encores. June Griffin Winham in the title role, William L. Adam as her elderly admirer who admitted his theatrical posing was adopted to "cover up colorless personality," Charles Berg, Jr., as her tall and handsome fiancé, Mrs. Charles A. Shaw in an hysterical bit as a frustrated janitress, and Stan Schaffner in an even smaller bit as a gum detective, all gave promise for future roles in the organization.

Different Roles

J. W. Hunt, whose previous appearance on the stage here was as the elderly blustering Uncle Chris in "Remember Mama," had an entirely different role as a self-assured detective. Walter Beardsley enacted a teen-age city boy convincingly, in contrast to his role as a suave and not quite honest art dealer in "The Late Christopher Bean."

Edelle Daily, the remaining member of the cast who has been seen in other Community Theater plays, touched about the stage as the forthright Bessie, a maid with a touch of Irish in her ancestry, completing the catalog of differences in comparison with her previous gender roles in "Angel Street" and "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

E. J. Elliott is serving as stage manager for the production, and James O. Simmons is house manager. Art Cole directed—S. C.

Greek Red's Peace Offer

With all the excitement over the lifting of the Berlin blockade, the Greek Communists' bid to end the civil war did not get a lot of attention. Yet the offer is interesting as well as important, since it is a piece with the rest of current Communist strategy in Europe.

Taken by itself, the guerrillas' willingness to negotiate peace would have been hard to understand. They had scored some recent gains, and appeared to be winning such engagements as were important enough to warrant the cost of cables from American correspondents.

It was quite a generous offer, too. The rebels did not insist, as they had before, that the American and British military missions withdraw as a preliminary to negotiations. They said they would agree to a neutral, non-political interim government. They proposed free elections under UN supervision and promised to abide by the results.

The only conditions laid down were that any agreement should respect the independence of Greece, and that the election supervisors should not be made up exclusively of the western governments.

The guerrilla government's minister of justice, who made the offer, was both naive and realistic about what would happen after the elections. He said that it would be up to the new government, whatever its complexion, to decide whether Greece should continue to get Marshall Plan aid.

Naturally, any decision on future aid would depend on the American government. And Washington would scarcely be expected to continue helping Greece if, as the guerrillas predict, the Communists should win the election. However, the naive statement may have been meant as a face-saver.

Undoubtedly the rebel leaders had their orders from Moscow to start calling the whole thing off, at least for the time being. This, with the Berlin negotiations, seems to offer unmistakable proof that the Soviet government is going to give Europe a spell of quiet and relaxation while it concentrates more time, money and energy in the Far East.

It also seems to prove that the recent tactics in Europe have been inconvenient and expensive for Russia as well as for the United States. The Western Powers' counter-blockade put an economic squeeze on the Soviet sector of Berlin. And whatever help Russia and the satellites were giving the Greek rebels probably could be used to better advantage elsewhere.

So the Soviets seem to want a breather in their two-front cold war. But they can scarcely ease their own tension without easing ours as well. An end of the airlift and of the Greek war will relieve this country of anxiety as well as expense. It will give our government more time to think about the next Communist moves which, most likely, will come in the East.

It is to be hoped that Washington will take this time that is being offered and do some hard and clever thinking. Right now the government hasn't much Far Eastern policy except to stop throwing good money after bad in China. That is neither very positive nor very promising. It is obviously necessary for the United States to get ready for the next round.

Hard luck is what other people bore you talking about.

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Drew Pearson says: Real estate lobby suffers setback at private dinner; Senator Humphrey has new symbol for GOP; people still grateful to Lou Gehrig.

WASHINGTON—Hottest backfire the real estate lobby has suffered in its battle against public housing didn't get into the newspapers. It occurred at a private dinner in Washington in honor of Sir Harold Bellman, British housing tycoon.

The dinner was given by Mrs. Frances Freed, widow of the late Alvin S. Freed, a big construction tycoon who built the Buckingham apartments across the Potomac in Virginia. At the dinner were Edward Carr, ex-head of the National Association of Home Builders; Oscar Krutz, president of the National Savings and Loan League; and Gordon English of the American Loan League, the latter indicted for violation of the lobbying act.

Sir Harold is chairman of the Abbey National Building Society—British equivalent of the Savings and Loan League—and his American friends were all set for an evening of oratorical fireworks against public housing on both sides of the Atlantic.

The British financier got a big hand when he blasted at "stringent government controls" on private housing construction in his country. Suddenly, however, the applause died like a busted light bulb.

Figuring he also would blast public housing in England and thus provide ammunition they could use against the Taft-Hartley-Wagner housing program, the dinner guests began asking about the dangers of "socialized housing" in America.

"I can't agree to that," replied Sir Harold. "Of course, I would rather not comment on your American program for public housing, because I do not feel it proper to do so. But I can tell you that the British program has worked out satisfactorily. In fact, as I see it, it's the only way to provide adequate housing for low-income groups."

Miss Maudie of the Minnesota Jack-in-the-box Senator Hubert Humphrey has come up with a new symbol for the GOP in place of the traditional elephant. At a Democratic banquet in Pittsburgh, Humphrey suggested the new symbol for the Republican Party be the mole.

"The mole," Humphrey explained, "only sees in the darkness and is blinded by the sunlight." "That is typical of the Republicans," explained the senator from Minnesota. "They are just discovering the yesterday's paper, and are unwilling to recognize that there will be any tomorrow."

Merry-Go Round Out in Seattle, Republicans are scheming to run a woman against bachelor Senator Warren Magnuson of Washington next year. They figure the only candidate who can beat the handsome senator is Mrs. Pearl Wanamaker, state superintendent of education, but there is some worry that Mrs. Wanamaker at heart is a Democrat.

The Wardman Park Hotel in Washington refused to let Dr. Ralph Bunche, the negro diplomat who mediated the Palestine dispute, speak in one of its hotel rooms. The Middle East Institute had reserved a private room in which Dr. Bunche was to hold a round-table discussion with a small group of experts. But when the hotel discovered that Bunche was a negro, it canceled the reservation and returned the money.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Heredity Possibly Involved In Club Foot, But Cause Unknown

A child born with a deformed inwardly twisted foot, is said to have a "club foot." The exact cause of this condition is not known. It is possible that the club foot is merely the result of an abnormal position of the foot inside the womb of the mother. This is one theory.

In some cases the club foot may be caused by a failure to develop properly before birth. This may be because something inherited directly from the parents, but no one knows certainly.

The tendency toward club foot among children is greater in some families than in others. Older mothers have more chance of bearing a child with a club foot than do young mothers who have had one child with a club foot are more likely to have children born later with a similar deformity.

In recent years it has been discovered that mothers who have had German measles during the first three months of pregnancy have an increased chance of bearing children with some deformity, such as a club foot. Just why this happens is still unknown.

The deformed foot, especially the heel, is usually smaller than the normal foot. Frequently the foot is so twisted that all of the weight is carried either on the ball of the foot or even on what would normally be the top of the foot. The tendons and bones of the foot are therefore

So they say

We can suppress it (rising nationalistic spirit in Germany) by running it underground, or we can watch it quietly to see if the better forces in Germany can prevent its growth before we take action. I think the latter course more advisable.

We should go ahead calmly (with ratification of the North Atlantic Treaty) and not be influenced by various peace offensives or wars of nerves.

Young offenders between the ages of 18 and 21, not now within the juvenile court's jurisdiction, should be put in the forgotten group in our penal and social system.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Written for NEA Service

I had luncheon at Reuben's the other day with Morey Amsterdam. I was so called interested in that kiddie toy drive he put on last year for underprivileged children. Believe it or not, Morey secured 30,000 toys, 1250 dolls and 4500 pounds of candy.

In discussing bridge Morey complained that we have too many conventions and regulations. He said "Why don't you push all the chips in once in awhile." I explained to him that sometimes these little gadgets, or so called bidding conventions, were necessary to keep you from losing all of your chips at one time.

Out came a lead pencil, and another table cloth was ruined, and we laid out today's hand. Morey argued that he would open with a two heart bid, but I thought one heart was enough. I did not argue with him when he said North should jump to two spades and that South's next correct bid was three diamonds.

I now explained that North would like to know how many aces and kings his partner has. Therefore, the four no trump bid and the response would let him know his partner had two aces. The five no trump bid found out the partner had one king. There was no holding Morey back now. He said he would simply bid seven no trump, which is ice cold.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. QUESTION: What can be done to stop a smoker's desire for tobacco? ANSWER: There seems to be nothing which is generally recommended in the way of chemical or drug to aid the smoker in stopping. The use of will power is about all that can be suggested.

If a club foot remains untreated the condition tends to become worse, largely because of the increased pressure from abnormal weight-bearing. Treatment should be begun early and continued for a long time, since there is danger of recurrence.

The population by hand is often helpful. Bandaging can be used early. Casts and a number of different kinds of operations are employed. Just what should be done for a particular child with a club foot depends largely on how severe the deformity is, age of the child, and what previous treatment he has had.

WASHINGTON COLUMN Congress Hasn't Made Dent In Domestic Legislation Heap

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON—President Truman's program for domestic legislation is in an even worse way than his requests to Congress for action in the fields of foreign affairs and national defense.

With four months of the present session of Congress gone and less than three months to go, it is important to review this state of affairs. It shows how overworked and mired down Congress has become. It shows how utterly futile was the filibuster which tied the Senate in knots for several weeks.

It shows how wasteful was the House Easter recess of 19 days. It shows how advisable some kind of reorganization of the legislative machinery would be to permit more action on important matters and less dawdling on inconsequential.

In 12 messages to Congress this year, President Truman has proposed almost 90 domestic measures of importance. The Congress itself and the executive departments have proposed another 40. Thus far only seven have been acted upon.

Honest differences of opinion are, of course, responsible for much of this lack of action. Many of President Truman's programs are highly controversial. When any considerable number of congressmen are opposed to any given piece of legislation, they naturally will attempt to delay it if they think they cannot kill it outright.

And in the long run, it may be better to postpone action than to rush in and pass laws that may be no good or definitely harmful. Action Should Be Taken Striking some kind of a balance between action and inaction is, of course, desirable. At present a good case can be made that there is too much inaction on the important national issues.

Eight of the President's recommended programs concern health, welfare and social security. Hearings on all are in progress, but so far none has been passed. Whether any will be passed is doubtful.

In the inventory are found the many bills to provide health insurance, extend social security coverage and benefits, increase unemployment insurance, construct more hospitals, expand medical education, provide medical care to Indians, Puerto Ricans and Virgin Islanders, improve stream pollution controls and make the Federal Security Agency a government department of cabinet rank.

There are nine major housing proposals. Extension of rent control is the only one passed. Though the Senate has put through a new low-rent housing and slum-clearance bill. This has been in the works since 1945, incidentally. That gives some idea of how long it sometimes takes to put a sound idea through Congress.

The Senate is far ahead of the House on education, having passed national science foundation and federal aid to education bills. They also have been in the works for years. School survey, school construction and promotion of higher education bills need action.

Ten farm legislation proposals of importance are stymied behind Secretary of Agriculture Brannan's new plan to stabilize farm income. This is one that will probably take time to work out. But it should now be fairly obvious that the present farm price support laws are working. So something should be done before a major break hits the farm economy.

A dozen pieces of major labor legislation also are dammed up behind efforts to revise the Taft-Hartley Law. Increase of minimum wage, strengthening of the Labor Department, an industrial safety program, regulation of private employer agencies, establishment of a labor extension service and half a dozen measures affecting employment of women are on the legislative docket.

The President's economic stabilization program seems dead. No legislation to promote full employment is at all likely until the more immediate problems of management-labor relations are fixed.

Eleven natural resources measures—none of which seems to stand much chance at this session—include American, Columbia and Missouri River Valley authority plans, extension of reclamation laws to Louisiana and Arkansas, revision of mining laws, development of synthetic fuels, reorganization of the National Park Service.

Twenty important bills have to do with development of transportation and industry and have little chance for action: The St. Lawrence Seaway project. Revision of postal rates. Modernization of the Coast Guard. Aviation legislation. Stronger anti-trust laws.

Eighteen dealing with changes in government, including tax revision, Civil Service classification and other matters. Finally, there are 11 major civil rights measures. If they are acted upon in the twentieth century, it will be nothing short of a miracle.

Q—In what way did President Truman redesign the presidential seal? A—On Oct. 26, 1945, Truman adopted a new presidential flag, with a redesigned presidential seal. Up to that time, the head of the American eagle on the seal had been turned toward the talon holding the arrows of war. Truman had the head reversed so that it faced the talon with the olive branch.

Q—What is the pulse rate of a dog? A—The pulse rate of an adult dog ranges from 90 to 100 beats per minute, but in old age falls to 60 or 70 beats per minute.

Q—How many original copies of the Bay Psalm Book are in existence? A—Of the Bay Psalm Book, there are only 11 copies known. There are only about 200 First Folios, and, of course, each manuscript is unique.

Q—Does India have any freshwater lakes? A—Wular Lake, though only 15 miles long and six miles at its widest, is the largest permanent natural freshwater lake in all India.

Q—How many varieties of dogwood are there? A—The dogwoods comprise 40 different kinds of plants, chiefly trees and shrubs. They are distributed widely in temperate regions, and some of them yield a very hard and valuable wood. Fifteen species have been identified in North America.

For every man, woman and child in the United States, there are 14,500 pounds of steel in use.

Merchants Asked To Combat Fires By Clean Up Drive

Fire Chief Jim Walker Friday called upon merchants to help fight fire losses by 100 per cent participation in the JayCee-sponsored Clean Up Campaign.

Citing the fact that immaculate premises are more inviting to customers, the chief pointed out that a thorough clean-up brings in more business, results in bigger profits, more attractive merchandise, and fewer fires.

He reminded merchants that 43 per cent of all businesses forced to close by fire never re-open.

Good housekeeping is the first step in a store check-up, the chief noted, suggesting that the shop-owner clean out all refuse that may have collected in the cellar, behind counters, or in packing and shipping rooms. These are ready fuel for a carelessly dropped match.

Electrical Safety
Aisles and entrances should be kept clear for immediate exit. Fire doors should never be blocked open and fire escapes should never be obstructed by cartons or boxes.

Check all electric wiring for fraying, he suggests. See that cords aren't looped over nails or run through doorways where they can be crushed. Before adding heavy-duty electric appliances consult an expert electrician to see that circuits aren't overloaded.

Insist that smoking regulations be obeyed.

If the store has a sprinkler system, see that sprinkler heads haven't become corroded and are not obstructed by cartons of merchandise.

ANCIENT PHILADELPHIA
The city upon whose ruins Amman, capital of Trans-Jordan, has been built was called Philadelphia by its Egyptian conqueror, Ptolemy Philadelphus, about 2000 years ago.

The Sand Lots of America

Baseball has been a healthy and wholesome influence in the lives of American youth. It has taught them the lessons of fair play and obedience to rules in all human relations. Like other clean sports, it has furnished an outlet for youthful energies and enthusiasm.

The delinquency in America today is traceable to idle time spent in street-loafing and back-alley sessions with questionable associates rather than in healthy, constructive activities.

In contrast, it has been said that the character and stamina shown by American boys on the battlefields of the world was built up on the sand lots of this country in clean and invigorating sports.

Only a nation founded on the concepts of Christianity can produce this fair-minded and honest sportsmanship. Only by upholding such standards as the Golden Rule can we expect our youth to engage in constructive spare-time activities.

Thus we find that religion is the true answer to delinquency. So that Christian teachings may become a greater part of our national life, we must bring our youth into the Church where they will learn to live and play by the Golden Rule.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Patton Posts Second Victory As Indians Blast Colts

Pressley's Homer, Hughes' Fielding Aid 9-3 Win; Clown To Perform Friday

The Midland Indians play host to the San Angelo Colts in Indian Park in the final game of their two game series at 8:15 p.m. Friday. Left: Ernie Nelson will pitch for Midland. Johnnie Jones, nationally famous baseball clown, will appear as special added attraction.

The Big Spring Broncos move here for a three-game stand, starting Saturday night.

The Midland Indians lost all signs of their 16-7 loss to Odessa and Thursday night worked almost to perfection behind Glenn Patton as the fireball right-hander posted his second win of the season, a five-hit 9 to 3 victory over the San Angelo Colts in Indian Park. Although he was pitching with an injured finger, Patton never was in serious trouble. He struck out eight Colt batters and allowed only one extra-base knock.

Stanley Hughes was a little more sensational than usual at shortstop. He robbed San Angelo's Jacobson of a certain base hit with a one-handed, running back catch in the third inning and dug plenty of batters out of the dirt.

Warren Sitter picked up speed in the fourth to start a double play the hard way. It went from Sitter to Hughes to Sitter.

Pressley Homers

Julian Pressley, the pitching hero of Wednesday night's game, clouted his second homer in as many nights in the eighth inning with two on base.

The Indians jumped into the lead with a run in the first on Hughes' double and a single by Sitter. They added another in the second when Pena got on by error and Rose and Patton singled in succession.

The tempo stepped up in the third and the Tribe added two runners. Nipp singled, Adams got life on an error and Rose singled him home.

Three San Angelo errors, a walk to Sitter and a single by Pressley gave Midland two more in the fourth.

The Colts counted one in the fifth when Pressley threw wide to first on Jake McClain's hopper to third. John Kluck then unloaded a double to score McClain but was out when he tried to stretch it into a triple. Gus Pena threw like a bullet to nip Kluck at third.

Cox came on to pitch for the Colts, relieving starter Pat Patrick. In the fourth, he held the Redskins in check until the eighth when Pressley cleared the bases. Hughes and Jones were on, having singled and doubled, respectively.

San Angelo's final two runs came in the eighth also. An error by

He hasn't gone crazy folks. It's just Johnnie Jones, the famed baseball comedian, who will appear at Indian Park here Friday night. The "man-sized" bat he holds here has several man-sized gloves and other props to go with it. Jones is on his second tour of the minor league parks in the United States. He appears here Friday night only.

Texas League—Murderous Eagle Bals Ring Again To Swamp Padres 13-3

By The Associated Press

When Dick Burnett, the free-swinging oil man, built his Dallas Eagles this year he said he wasn't looking for speed but for fellows who didn't need it because they socked the ball over the fence.

That's how Dallas has been thundering along at the head of the Texas League race. The Eagles are murderous at bat.

Thursday night Dallas proved this, using home runs to bash San Antonio 13-3. The Missions had a 3-0 lead when the roof caved in the sixth. Leo Wells parked one with the bases full to put Dallas ahead, and Jerry Witte hit two more in later innings.

Dallas remained four games ahead of runner-up Shreveport although the Sports also won. They licked Oklahoma City 10-7, ending an eight-game winning streak for the Indians.

Houston sank further into the cellar as Fort Worth whammed the Bulls 8-0.

Beaumont and Tulsa couldn't play at Tulsa because of rain.

Bowie, El Paso, Is One-Up On Lamesa In Playoff Series

By The Associated Press

Two teams already are in the Texas schoolboy baseball tournament and another may qualify Friday.

Denison, winner of the District 8 championship, and Waco, which captured honors in District 9, go directly to the state meet at Austin June 6, 7 and 8. They drew byes in the bi-district round.

Bowie of El Paso needs to win from Lamesa Friday to qualify for the state tournament. The El Paso team, champion of District 4, beat Lamesa, champion of District 3, 9-1 Thursday in the first game of a bi-district play-off series.

Amarillo and Lubbock decide the championship of District 1 Friday when they meet at Amarillo. They will be playing the third game of the series. Amarillo won the first 7-3 and Lubbock the second 15-8.

Sybil Flournoy Eliminated By Fort Worth's Copeland

Mrs. Gloria Ezell, defending champion, continued to set the pace in the Midland Country Club Women's Invitation Golf Tournament here Thursday as she edged Mrs. Bobbie Huestis of Odessa 1-up on 19 holes, shooting a much better brand of golf than she did in qualifying. The second round matches narrowed the field sharply and some of the favorites fell by the wayside. The finals are scheduled Saturday over the Country Club course.

Mrs. Bonnie Atwey of Odessa disposed of her fellow citizen, Mrs. G. E. Shows, also by a 1-up score.

Mrs. Guyette Hodde of Hobbs, N. M., fast in establishing herself as the dark-horse of the tournament. Her game strictly was first rate Thursday as she moved into the semi-finals by defeating a favorite, Mrs. Olive Day of Fort Worth, 1-up.

MAJOR LEAGUES—Detroit Picks Up Game On Yanks

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer

Detroit's Freddie Hutchinson, who turned back Washington with seven hits Thursday 10-1, is as handy with the bat as he is on the mound.

Hutch drove in three runs with a single, double and triple in the attack that hung loss number three on Rae Scarborough.

Detroit picked up a full game on the first-place Yanks, who were dropped by Cleveland 3-2.

Jittery defense cost the Boston Red Sox a 10-inning game on an error by first baseman Billy Hitchcock on Vera Stephens' throw. The Red Sox made four errors in the game but Hitchcock's was the big one that gave Chicago a 7-6 margin.

The Philadelphia A's and St. Louis Browns were not scheduled and a National League game between the Phillies and Chicago Cubs was postponed because of threatening weather at Wrigley Field.

The Boston Braves and New York Giants tied for first place in the National for an entire week, remain deadlocked. The Braves came up with two in the ninth to top Pittsburgh 3-2, and the Giants bumped off Cincinnati 6-2.

Brooklyn moved into a third-place tie with Cincinnati on Frazer Roes' 2-0 shutout of St. Louis.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

High blood pressure, if not controlled can be a very serious condition. In the realm of Chiropractic, the cause of high blood pressure is the result of improper nerve supply to the blood vessels. Contraction of the blood vessels causes reduced space for the blood to occupy, and therefore, increased pressure.

Restoration of the normal nerve supply causes relaxation of the constricted vessels. Through Chiropractic, many people have obtained permanent relief from distressing symptoms of high blood pressure.

Southeast Coaches To Consider Plans For Bolting NCAA

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. —(P)—Southeastern Conference coaches Saturday will consider proposals which may take the Deep South schools out of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The issue is the NCAA sanity code, which outlaws aid to college students solely because of their athletic ability.

Coaches will discuss four possible changes in present rules. All would permit financial help for athletes. In this conference, such help has been given most often to football players.

The coaches also will discuss what happens to SEC if it withdraws from the NCAA. The latter adopted the sanity code in January, 1948, and applied it to its 400 college members.

Neither the coaches nor the conference itself has acted on the suggested code changes. But the code as it stands has been termed "unworkable and impractical" — and worse — by SEC officials.

Official conference action may come at a May 28 meeting in Atlanta. That's the date of a joint session with the Southern and Southwest Conferences.

The announced purpose of that meeting is to discuss the sanity code. Written announcements to SEC officials include as a topic to be discussed, this question: "Can the three conferences withdraw (from NCAA) and combine and successfully conduct an athletic program?"

Four suggested changes. In an event, the NCAA meeting in New York next January will have to decide whether rules will be changed. That will be the show-down.

The four suggested changes, any of which might be adopted as the SEC program, are in substance:

1. To permit free meals for college athletes during practice periods and during the seasons of the sport in which the student is engaged (only one meal daily is now permitted).

2. To permit free meals for athletes during the entire school year at a training table (this now is prohibited).

3. To change scholarship requirements to allow each school to determine the grade basis on which such awards are given (NCAA rules fix limits on scholarship awards to athletes).

4. To allow athletic scholarships not to exceed all fees, room, board, books and a small amount for laundry.

SPORTS SLANTS

by SHORTY SHELburnE

The most discussed thing in baseball circles here Thursday was the pitching performance of Julian Pressley against the Odessa Oilers Wednesday.

It's common and popular belief Manager Harold Webb has found himself a relief hurler to augment his pitching staff when need be.

Pressley's work was nothing short of phenomenal. Les Palmer, an otherwise potent hitter, was just a raw recruit when he faced Pressley.

Al Monchak and Frank Mormino of murderer's row on the Oilers were able to get nothing but singles all night.

The strikeouts registered, eight out of 12 men in three innings, definitely were strikeouts. Most of the batters went down swinging.

—SS—
A. D. Ensey had his piece to say about Webb using Pressley and Rose as hurlers.

He didn't like the idea. He groaned, "It'll ruin baseball."

Our reply was just this: If Midland played a hundred games a year in Odessa and used infielders to pitch every one of them, it wouldn't have any bearing on baseball as a whole. Folks in the Odessa stands should be glad they had a chance to see the trick performed.

After all, it isn't every day you get a chance to see an outfielder strike out the side two times in a row and pitch four-hit ball for six innings.

We liked it.

—SS—
The departure of Charlie Keller to the minor leagues (Newark) is the first big step in breaking up one of the toughest outfielders ever seen in the major leagues. With Keller, Joe DiMaggio and Tommy Fenrich patrolling the outer gardens in their prime, there wasn't a better trio in baseball.

Keller was only slightly less colorful at the plate than the great DiMag. Henrich long has been known as the one really steady player on the Yankee squad outside of DiMaggio.

Keller probably won't be back to the majors again, what with all the hard luck he has suffered. But if he never comes back, he has written the score to many a home-run tune as he rattled the boards and the extremes of Yankee Stadium where there never will be any boards. He has earned his place in line with the famous Yankees of all time.

The next step in breaking up the trio probably will come sooner or later this season unless DiMaggio fools us.

Of course, Henrich seems to have just hit his stride. Those two homers he clouted against Cleveland Wednesday are the evidence.

—SS—
Bert Baez, the hurler released by the Big Spring Broncs, will hurl against Midland again but it won't be against the Indians. He's joined the Latin American Tigers in Big Spring.

The Tigers, with Baez on the mound, are scheduled against the Midland Colts in Big Spring Sunday afternoon.

Mateo Sotillo, fire ball right-hander who hasn't lost a game for the Colts this season, will pitch for the Midland team.

—SS—
Coach Tugboat Jones of MHS thinks the best thing that has happened to schoolboy football in many years is the ruling out of football camps.

He says it's too easy to lose a good man or two because they won't obey the rules at a camp. The boys always are tempted to go AWOL after hours or otherwise break the rules when they are away from home on such a venture.

Joe Coleman of Odessa High feels just about the same way as Tug on the thing.

—SS—
Pepper Martin, former San Angelo player-manager and Odessa Oiler, has been transferred from Greenville to Lubbock by George Schepps.

Martin replaces the veteran Chick Fowler, Chick went to Greenville in the swap out.

—SS—
The Lubbock Hubbers also have a unique situation in Chris Haskins, a capable right-hander.

Haskins is a member of the Texas Highway Patrol. Even so, he is finding time to pitch for Lubbock. He won his first start this week.

—SS—
HALF SLANTS . . . A. D. Ensey says the best pitcher the Oilers have had this season and his second in as many nights. Every club in the league would like to have a shortstop like Stanley Hughes. He's far out in front of the others . . . Ditto for Kenny Jones.

When a king crab is turned over on his back, he rights himself by rising on his tail.

Daddy Ringtail sat down on the ground underneath the tree to think about this. Willy sat down beside him, and Willy knew that Daddy Ringtail was trying to think of something that a little fox might well learn about.

"No moss," Willy asked.

"No moss," Daddy Ringtail said. He meant that a rolling stone is so busy rolling that it never stands still long enough for moss to grow on it.

But Willy wanted to see for himself, and so Daddy Ringtail took him over to the creek. "There's a stone that isn't a rolling stone!" Daddy Ringtail said. He pointed down near the edge of the creek, in the dark shade, where water splashed over a rock that hadn't rolled in a long, long time. Women Acquitted In Robbery Case

RENO, NEV. —(AP)—A woman wrestler and two girl companions took the verdict calmly in a first degree robbery case here. But their friends cheered when the jury acquitted them of the charge.

The three were charged with beating and robbing Salvatore Manriquez, Sacramento, Calif., cafe owner, of some $1,500 gambling winnings January 28.

The girls are Johnny Mae Young 28, the wrestler; Eva Lee McDevitt, 24, a Houston club owner, and Mary Anise Huse, 22, a former barmaid and night club photographer from Monrovia, Ala.

The jury had been asked to decide whether Manriquez was "rolled" or was the victim of his own amorous advances.

"The defense wants you to think 'Amorous Sal' came to own to enjoy all the vices," Assistant District Attorney Gordon Trompdon told the jurors.

"I can't stomach this age-old story that when a woman is involved she was being attacked by a beast."

The girls' attorney, Peter Echeverria, who was admitted to the bar only last week, attacked Manriquez' lapse of memory as being "very convenient for a married man."

Manriquez had testified he couldn't remember anything after several drinks with the women until he woke up in their car with his head streaming blood. He was pushed out and almost froze to death before he was found.

Fort Worth Snaps Back After Flood

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
FORT WORTH—(AP)—"If we can only rake together a stick of furniture, we'll make out."

That was James A. Pate talking—a young Marine veteran with a family who lost his home and possessions in the Fort Worth flood this week.

His is the spirit of Fort Worth, a city on the mend.

"You'll find no discouragement here," said Amon C. Carter, Fort Worth publisher. "The flood was a bad break, but better breaks are on the way."

The flooding Trinity, bursting through levees Tuesday, drowned 10 persons, left an estimated 13,200 temporarily homeless and wrought $5,000,000 to $25,000,000 in property damage.

But this spunky city rolled with the punch and is bouncing back to normal.

Everything Under Control

Its stores are crowded—its business section hums with activity.

"Everything is under control," said W. O. Jones, Fort Worth's city manager. "Barring accidents, we'll have our water supply completely normal by Saturday morning. We are really cleaning up the flooded area and rehabilitation will come later. The Red Cross and Salvation Army, Carswell Air Base, National Guardsmen, city employes and others have done a wonderful job."

"Citizens have cooperated 100 per cent in following instructions. But I wouldn't expect anything less of citizens of Fort Worth."

The crippled water supply is the biggest problem. "I need a bath," is the cry of the day. Many rent hotel rooms—some hotels have private water supplies—just to take baths.

"Outside of the water problem, most of Fort Worth was not affected by the flood," Carter pointed out. "The greatest distress is in the loss of lives, homes and personal belongings. The greatest financial loss was to industries and businesses in the affected area."

Disaster Relief Fund

"Not more than two or three per cent of Fort Worth's citizens were touched by this disaster. It is true that 10 per cent of Fort Worth was inundated—but it was a sparsely-settled area."

The Star-Telegram is sponsoring a relief fund and expects to collect $100,000 of the $25,000 already collected. Carter and Sid Richardson of Fort Worth each gave $10,000. Jesse Jones of Houston gave $2,500 and Fred Florence, Dallas banker, $1,000.

Army Engineers will open sealed bids here Monday for repair of levees damaged. It is possible dirt-moving equipment will be in operation early next week. There were seven major and seven lesser breaks in levees along the Clear Fork and the Trinity.

"The levees will be patched immediately," Jones said. "Then we'll see that they're built bigger and better."

And Carter said: "The Texas spirit of our people is undaunted."

Fort Worth Flood Relief Situation Is 'Well In-Hand'

William Holden, executive vice president and general manager of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, Friday morning told Midland Chamber of Commerce Manager Delbert Downing that the Fort Worth flood relief situation appears to be well in hand and that contributions of funds and clothing from other cities apparently are not needed at this time.
Downing telephoned Holden to offer assistance from Midland to Fort Worth flood sufferers. Numerous citizens here had expressed desires to contribute cash and clothing for Fort Worth residents who suffered heavy losses in this week's flood there.
Holden expressed appreciation to the Chamber of Commerce and to Midland citizens for the offer of assistance. He said 20 clothing collection stations have been set up in Fort Worth and that the emergency is being taken care of satisfactorily. Cash contributions also are being received in Fort Worth. The Red Cross is on the job there, Holden told Downing, and if additional help is needed organizations here and elsewhere will be so advised.

what I heard Mr. Hattman had been bragging about," the doctor answered.
When he and Mrs. Rutledge returned home, he said, she told him the whole story of going sailing with Hattman and drinking with him.
"Did she tell you she went out to dinner with him, that he forced his way into your apartment and forced himself upon her?" Defense Attorney R. S. Milner asked.
"Yes, she said he knew her sexually by force," the doctor answered in a voice barely audible.
Dr. Rutledge said "I was heart-broken. We sat up all night talking about it."
The doctor said he called Hattman the very next day and told him to leave Mrs. Rutledge alone. He went on to say that Hattman continually called him and Mrs. Rutledge indecent names and threatened him.

Witnesses Describe Fatal Beating In Trial Of Wichita Falls State Hospital Attendant

WICHITA FALLS —(AP)— Testimony continued Friday in the trial of T. C. Saucier, 33, accused of beating and stomping a patient to death at the Wichita Falls State Hospital. Two witnesses testified Thursday they saw Saucier do it. He is on trial for murder with

Truman Breaks Ice To Close Rift With Dixie Rebels

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Truman Friday appeared to have broken the ice on Southern appointments with his nomination of Abraham Benjamin Conger as federal judge in Georgia.
Conger was recommended by Senator George (D-Ga.), vigorous foe of the President's civil rights program and one of the Democratic Party who has refused to go along with Truman's request for $4,000,000 in new taxes.
The President's action in sending the nomination to the Senate Thursday was widely interpreted as a victory for those in the Democratic Party who have counseled against trying to punish Dixie lawmakers who didn't get out and root for the President in last year's campaign.
McGrath Is Pleased
Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath, as leader of this group, has been trying his best to patch up the breach which the civil rights issue caused between the Southern and the main body of the party.
McGrath, who went to bat at the White House for George on the nomination, told a reporter he was "very pleased" at the President's decision to appoint Conger.
The action also made it seem Truman wasn't laying down an iron-clad rule when he said recently that those who don't support his program in Congress can't expect a voice in patronage, or job dispensing, matters.

Flood—

of boosting the supply 15,000,000 gallons daily arrived by truck from Fort Wayne, Ind.

New Motor Installed
Before noon, the motor was installed and in operation. All sections of the city were expected to have water by midnight.
Victor Brown, driving the truck with the pump, ended his dramatic race as police sirens howled the news of his arrival.

Brown, 40, climbed stiffly from the cab and announced he had stopped the truck at 11:50 a.m. Thursday for a 15-minute meal. The rest of the time he kept rolling.
"It was the most important cargo I ever hauled," he explained. "I turned on my radio Friday morning and heard the announcer says folks in Fort Worth had no water, even for drinking. That's why I continued to shove it so hard."
In Oklahoma and Texas, state troopers picked the truck up every 25 miles. Brown said he would have made the trip in 28 hours had it not been for heavy rains in Missouri.

The water was dropping fast in the low residential and industrial areas flooded in Dallas.
Tornado-jittery, Panhandle citizens, meanwhile, looked happily at clear skies—for the first time in more than a week of twisters.

HOUSTON OIL MAN HERE

H. R. Rutherford, prominent Houston oil operator, was a Midland visitor Friday.

malice in the death of Thomas Houston Gibbons, Sulphur Springs produce dealer. Gibbons died last March 4 less than 20 minutes after he was admitted to the hospital. Saucier was a hospital attendant.
One witness was Travis McLaughlin, 29, of Sulphur Springs, who entered the hospital on a voluntary 90-day commitment for alcoholism. The other was Silbur W. North, 36, an attendant.
McLaughlin said he and Gibbons were turned over to Saucier and North.

McLaughlin said he and Gibbons went into the linen room and that he followed while North stood at the door. McLaughlin testified Saucier then told Gibbons to take off his clothes.
"Mr. Gibbons reached for his shirt collar to unbutton his shirt," McLaughlin said. "Saucier hit him in the pit of the stomach with his fist."
North said Gibbons bent over to catch his stomach and then Saucier hit him in the back of the head. He fell to the floor. His head popped like a shotgun. And there was blood on the side of his face. Saucier kicked him.

McLaughlin said Saucier then picked up Gibbons, knocked him down again and "stomped him and kicked him with the right heel of his shoe."
McLaughlin also said David Beck, an attendant also under indictment in Gibbons' death, came into the room and jumped on Gibbons.
Dies In Bath Tub
The witness said both Saucier and Beck beat and stomped the prone man and that Saucier choked him while Gibbons pleaded for help.

North said that in the bathroom Gibbons took a "wild swing" at Saucier and that the attendant grabbed him, knocked him down and stomped him "six or seven times." He said Gibbons then was placed in the bathtub.
"I said, 'Saucier, I believe he's dying,'" North testified.
"Saucier said, 'No, he isn't.' I felt his heart and pulse and said, 'He's dead now.'"
North said Gibbons then was taken to an adjoining room where a doctor was called. The man was pronounced dead, North said.

Allies Go—

allied by the Atlantic Pact, France now is closer to Britain and the United States and united in a common German policy.
Russia's position is much less enviable.
At the end of the war the Soviet had the only zone which could support itself economically, particularly in food. Its standard of living was far higher than the industrial West. Now, stripped by reparations and shipping vast quantities of goods to Russia, the Eastern zone is a deficit area. Its standard of living has tumbled far below Western Germany. Its money, despite rumors, is worth only one-fourth as much as the west mark.

(2) At the end of the war, the Russians had a chance to win German support by a lenient occupation policy. Now there is no hope for such support except by force of arms. Ruthless suppression of all anti-Communist opposition, the installation of a small Communist minority as the ruling class and reduction of the population to serfs of the state has aroused widespread opposition. An opposition vote of 33 per cent last weekend in an election rigged to produce a 100 per cent "yes" vote is an index of the Soviet Union's political failure.
A major factor in the lowering of Soviet prestige in Europe was the failure of Russia's attempt to force the Western Powers from Berlin by starving the population through the blockade.
The West's stand with the airlift heartened not only Germany but all of Europe to resist communism.

Program Planned On Arrival Of Legion Bus Here Saturday

He has invited all Midland children to be present for the program and to inspect the bus.
A radio program will be held as a part of the program.
