

Saucy Straws Star In The Sun

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Fashion takes over Anglo-U.S. relations by making matches between hats of Bahamian straw and wardrobes of American cotton.

To find unusual textures and colors of natural straw, hat designer Mary E. Goodfellow went to the Bahamas for "silver top" palmetto and brown cocconut. The results are a new "M.E.G." collection of gay color-spiced rollers, sombreros, clothes and sailors in neutral shades of straw which can go anywhere this summer that a cotton dress or a cotton suit can go.

—EPIE KINARD, NEA Fashion Editor.

Millinery stars in the collection of Bahamian straws styled for wear with American summer cottons are the hats pictured. Neutral-toned "silver top" palmetto straw makes the rippled cloche which the picnicer wears (above). The brown and white dotted band encircling the crown drapes easily over the brim. The roller's sunshade (top right) of pale beige cocconut straw is brightened by a boldly striped tie silk band. Western-styled sombrero (center right) of palmetto straw ties under the chin with a red cord which also rings the crown. Interwoven light and dark cocconut straw forms interesting pattern for roller (bottom right) which has striped cotton band around crown.

Vacation School To Start Next Monday In Christian Church

Vacation Bible School for youngsters of the First Christian Church will begin next Monday and continue for two weeks with sessions from 9 to 11 a. m. five days a week. Mrs. Sidney P. Hall is superintendent of the school.

Divisions for beginners, primary and junior age groups have been arranged. Lessons, stories, handicraft and recreation for each group will make up the school sessions.

Faculty members for the vacation school include Mrs. E. D. Riddle, Mrs. David Smith, Mrs. W. G. Ataway, Mrs. Tom Potter, Mrs. J. W. Gregston, Mrs. J. H. Doran, Mrs. R. H. Frizzell, Jr., and Mrs. Clarence Symes, Jr.

Mrs. Kate George Completes Thirty Years In Capital

WASHINGTON—Mrs. Kate George, secretary to Rep. Ken Regan of Midland, last week completed 30 years in Washington and Sunday was entertained by Miss Altavene Clark, Amarillo, executive officer of the House Agriculture Committee.

Mrs. George has served as secretary to congressmen of the 16th Congressional District since 1923. During this period the district has had five congressmen—Claude Hudspeth, R. Ewing Thompson and Regan.

Her first job in Washington was with Rep. Carlos Bee of the San Antonio district in 1919.

Ruth Melton Bride Of W. F. Chumney

Ruth Mildred Melton and W. F. Chumney, both of Midland, were married in a Sunday afternoon ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Warren, Ark., home town of the bride. After a trip they will be at home here.

The Rev. D. Black Westmoreland, pastor, officiated for the wedding and the bride's father, A. R. Melton, gave her in marriage. Mrs. Kenneth Freeman of Forrest City, Ark., cousin of the bride, was her matron of honor and her brother, James Melton, served as best man.

Other attendants were Esma Jeff Sears of Viola, Ark., bridesmaid; Marion Rowland of Warren, James Stutheit of Pine Bluff, Ark., and Tommie Beaufort of West Memphis, ushers. Beverly Russell was the flower girl and the candles were lighted by Lamar and Lucretia Neill.

Miss Melton has been in Warren the past two weeks, and has been complimented with several parties by friends there. One was a dinner last Monday in the home of Mrs. Vol Ford, Jr., with Martha Montgomery as co-hostess. Another was a shower in the home of Mrs. Wisener, a member of the wedding party. Assisting as hostesses were Mrs. W. C. Hargis and Mrs. Bernie Hargis. Approximately 50 persons called or sent gifts.

Plain baked custard becomes party fare when it is served with a sauce of canned red cherries. Thicken the juice from a can of sour pitted red cherries with cornstarch and sweeten with sugar. Cool and add some of the cherries before passing with the custard.

Wedding music was by Mrs. Marion Rowland, the bride's aunt, and Mrs. Wayne Wisener.

The bride, whose parents reside in Warren, has lived in Midland a year and a half, and has been employed with the Shell Oil Company. She

French Heels Club Schedules Style Parade

A style show will be presented by members of the French Heels Club for the Ladies Golf Association at its luncheon in the Midland Country Club Friday at 1:30 p. m. The show, sponsored by Colbert's, is the first of a monthly series planned by the club, with various Midland stores as sponsors.

Models will be Mrs. Charles Pierce, Elizabeth Williams, Pat Butcher, Shirley Culbertson and Mary Jones, all members of the French Heels Club. Mrs. Paxton Howard will act as commentator.

Proceeds of the style shows, as of other events sponsored by the club, will be contributed to the Midland Youth Center. Members of the Golf Association are invited to attend the luncheon Friday and to bring guests.

Plans for the style show were completed, and Bobbie Perry was welcomed as a new member of the club, at a called meeting Thursday in the home of Miss Williams. A regular meeting is slated at 7 p. m. Thursday of this week, in the home of Shirley Lones.

Refreshments were served at the called meeting to Mrs. Pierce, Jane McMillan, Sally Temple, Jan Knickerbocker, Betty Kimbrough, Miss Jones, Miss Butcher and Miss Culbertson.

Worth its Price in Peace of Mind!

SOON AFTER YOU take possession of a 1949 Cadillac, you will find that it has brought you something almost priceless which only ownership of the car can reveal.

You will find that each time you start the motor, and roll out into the street or highway, you have the wonderful conviction that you are wholly the master of every driving situation.

You will know—from experience—that the powerful, eager engine will put you any place in the traffic line you wish to occupy . . . almost as quickly as you reach the decision.

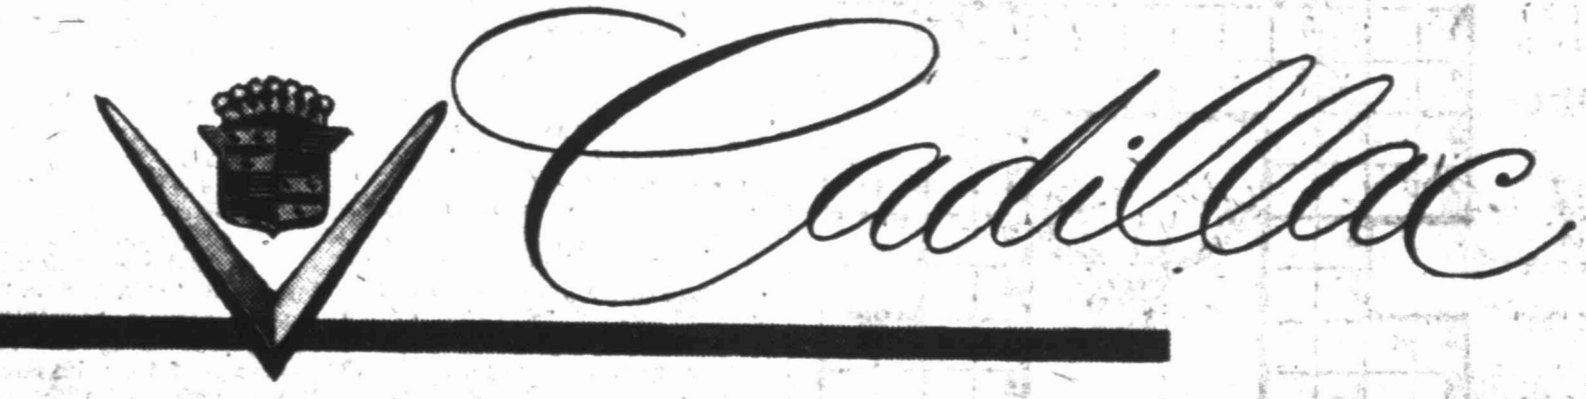

You will know that the big, velvet-soft hydraulic brakes can settle you down to a stop or a snail's pace—under the slightest pressure from the daintiest foot.

You will know that you are as nearly free from mechanical failure as it's possible to be.

And you will know that you and your passengers are riding in all the safety a motor car can afford.

Sitting there at the wheel—with the motor running so quietly you can hear the soft ticking of the electric clock—and with the miles sliding by so easily that each one is a special delight—we think you'll agree that a Cadillac is worth its price in peace of mind!

Why not move up to Cadillac when you purchase your next car—and enjoy this great mental satisfaction which only the "Standard of the World" can bring you?

Long-Term Arizona Convicts Charged In Tax Refund Racket

PHOENIX, Ariz.—(AP)—Six inmates of the Arizona State Prison have been charged with filing false and fraudulent claims against the federal government for income tax refunds.

Arraigned before U. S. Commissioner C. B. Wilson, four of the inmates waived preliminary hearing and were bound over to federal court. Preliminary hearing for the other two will be held September 16.

Those who waived hearings were: Paul A. Down, 23, alias Lee Ray Rolland, Boring, Ore., 3-5 years for burglary; Willie Williams, 34, Ogden, Utah, 9-10 years, assault with a deadly weapon; Essie Knotts, 39, Austin, Texas, 5-10 years, burglary; Frank Simmons, 39, Knoxville, Tenn., 5-10 years, robbery.

Held for hearing: Eddie Thomas, Tucson, Ariz., 8-10 years, rape; Woodrow W. Avery, 31, Tucker, Ark., robbery.

Smuggled Forms

Discovery of a tax refund check in the mail of a long-time prisoner caused Warden Lon E. Walters to start an investigation.

He said convicts forged names of other prisoners as taxpayers and smuggled blank forms on which fictitious employers certified the income and deductions as "tax-payers."

In other cases, Walters said, the convict simply reported non-existent income and taxes paid on forms not requiring employer certification.

Midlander Has Part In Navy Operation

Bille E. Smith, airman, USN, son of L. J. Smith of 326 North Carrizo Street, recently participated in "Operation Moving Van" as a crew member aboard the aircraft carrier USS Valley Forge.

The flight and hangar decks of the large carrier were used to transport the Staff Headquarters men, equipment and office files, of the Commander, Air Force, Pacific Fleet, and two other units from Pearl Harbor, T. H., to San Diego, Calif.

"Operation Moving Van" was unique in that Vice Admiral H. B. Sallada and his staff continued to carry out functions and operations during the move by setting up temporary offices in every available nook of the ship.

Daddy Ringtail

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Little Fawn Lost

Daddy Ringtail was walking along the river's edge when he heard a someone crying. As he got nearer to the someone, he heard a rustling in the bushes. The crying stopped.

"Please don't run away from me," called Daddy Ringtail. "Whoever you are, maybe I can help you."

But whoever it was seemed to be very timid. He wouldn't come out of the bushes at first, and when he did come out, he was a little fawn, which really means a very little deer.

"Well, happy day!" Daddy Ringtail said. "I don't believe I've ever seen you before."

"No," said the little fawn. "I've never seen you before either," and then the little fawn started crying harder than ever.

"Now, now," said Daddy Ringtail. "Don't you ever cry any more. I'm Daddy Ringtail. I live over there in the top of that very tall tree. Maybe I can help you, if you'll only tell me what your name is."

"Oh, Daddy Ringtail, I don't know what my name is. I don't know where I came from, or where I am going. But I do know that I'm hungry and tired," said the little fawn.

"Well, you come home with me," said Daddy Ringtail. "You can have all the food you want. I'll call you Little Fawn until we can find out your real name."

After Little Fawn had eaten and rested, he went with Daddy Ringtail to look for his home. Although they looked up and down and everywhere—almost as far as the zoo in the city, still they could find anyone who knew Little Fawn Lost or where he lived.

Daddy Ringtail took care of him until he grew up enough to take care of himself.

At last Little Fawn Lost wasn't a fawn any longer, either, but a big strong deer. And I don't suppose you could really say Little Fawn Lost was even lost any more, for now he lived on the island in the river that flowed through Daddy Ringtail's forest.

But no one ever found out his real name, so they still call him Little Fawn Lost. He'll be Daddy Ringtail's friend for always, and tomorrow I'll tell you some more about him.
