Five Accused Of Attack On Native Clerk

WASHINGTON —(P)— Chinese Communists have seized the American consul general at Mukden and four members of his staff, it was disclosed Saturday. The State Department at once ordered intervention with the highest Red authorities.

The Communists accused the official, Angus Ward, and his companions of beating unconscious a former Chinese employee. They said the case would go before "the Mukden People's Court."

The arrests apparently came a week or so ago. Official word reached here Saturday after taking five days to squeeze out of China. The Chinese Communist radio gave its version Saturday.

About the same time, the State Department hotly denounced actions against American diplomats on the other side of the Communist world — Czechoslovakia. The Red regime there had accused two American diplomats and arrested an embassy clerk on spy charges.

It was learned that almost certainly the next American step will be ouster of one or two Czech diplomats from this country on the ground their activities are contrary to the interests of the United States.

The Czechs have an embassy here and a consulate in New York and other cities.

Five Diplomats
State Department officials took note that the Mukden incident fit a pattern of crackdowns by Communist authorities on American diplomatic outposts in many places.

Yugoslavia Lashes Back At Cominform Neighbors, Moscow

BELGRADE —(P)— Yugoslavia lashed back at Cominform neighbors Saturday night, accusing them of war mongering, stirring border troubles and staging mass arrests to curb the spread of Titoism.

Developments came fast in the row which began 18 months ago when the Russian-dominated Cominform blacklisted Premier Marshal Tito's government.

These were the developments:

1. Yugoslavia's official newspaper, Borba, charged that Bulgaria was plotting a new "stimulus" in which some of its top officials—to halt the spread of Titoism in that country.

2. Late Saturday night the Foreign Affairs Ministry published its rejection of a note from Russia demanding that Yugoslavia name an ambassador to Russia, Karl Mrazovich.

3. The Yugoslav Interior Ministry accused Hungary of stirring up border troubles and said Hungarian troops lobbed shells for eight hours across the border into Yugoslavia last Thursday night. No one was hurt and Yugoslav border troops did not reply, the ministry said.

The Yugoslav rejection of the Russian note branded the recall demand a new "stimulus" in what was called a Soviet campaign to shut off relations and to minimize Yugoslavia's position in a "progressive world."

Without citing the source of its information, Borba said that in one Bulgarian district alone—Pleven—2,500 persons are under arrest, four-fifths of them on political charges.

County Valuation Increase Reported
Figures released Saturday by J. M. Speed, Midland County tax assessor-collector, show the county's 1949 taxable valuations to be $13,062,520.

Speed said this is an increase of $1,712,130 over 1948.

Personal property valuations for 1949 amount to $5,550,000 and real property, $7,732,115. Speed said.

Pistol Shot Wounds Texas Oil Man's Son
FORT WORTH —(P)— The son of a Fort Worth oil man was wounded Saturday by a pistol shot at a party of college students.

Carroll Ridgley Young, 21, son of Marshall Young, underwent three hours of surgery for a forehead wound. He was reported in fair condition.

Truman Ties Air Force To 48-Unit Size

WASHINGTON —(P)— President Truman overrode Congress Saturday on the hotly-debated 58-group Air Force issue.

He signed a $15,585,863,498 military appropriation—the biggest in peacetime history—but in doing so he ordered the secretary of defense to impound $615,000,000 the lawmakers had voted to build up the Air Force to 58 groups.

Truman's budget provided for a 48-group force and that is about what he'll get. The Air Force will acquire about 1,400 new planes instead of 1,800.

In forbidding the proposed expansion of the air arm, the President said in effect that it isn't only the original cost but the upkeep—more men to man the planes, more operating costs, more replacement expense; all in all "greatly increased" future expenses.

Furthermore, he declared, to give the Air Force more than provided in his budget would be "inconsistent with a realistic and balanced security program which we can support in peacetime."

The $15,585,863,498 appropriation represents more than $100 for each man, woman and child in the United States. It is far more than one-third of the entire federal budget.

GOP Solons Critical
Heads of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees did not question the validity of the President's action. Senator Byrd (D-Va.), who has led a fight to cut federal costs, praised it. But some Republican lawmakers were critical.

Senator Brewster (R-Me.), interviewed at Bangor, Me., said he was not surprised at the President's move but added it raises the question: "What are the limits of his disregard of Congress?"

The big money bill provides the following sums:
Army: $4,280,844,298 cash and $643,546,000 contract authority.
Air Force: $4,083,286,000 cash and $1,827,735,000 contract authority.
Other military operations: $195,150,000 cash. These operations include financing the office of the secretary of defense, the National Security Council and the National Security Resources Board.

The funds cover spending in the current fiscal year, which ends next June 30.

$80,000 Church Plant Permit Helps Building Mark To $4,175,249

Building permits in Midland marked to well past the four-million mark for 1949 during the week ended Saturday with $172,300 in construction grants issued. The year's mark now is $4,175,249.

An $80,000 permit was issued to the First Christian Church for church buildings at 1301 West Louisiana Street. The church plant will be 40 by 122 feet in overall size, of brick and frame. Part of the structure will have two floors. It covers all of Block 2.

C. Williamson was issued a permit for a $65,000 residence at 1601 West Storey Street. Size will be 55 by 115 feet. It will be frame and brick structure.

G. C. Ponder received two permits, each $5,000, total $10,000, for two frame residences at 203 and 204 West Jay Street. Sizes will be 49 by 25 feet.

Other Permits Listed
Other permits of the week included: Alfords Petty, $5,000, concrete and tile business structure at 912 South Main Street, 25 by 50 feet; Velvin Construction Company, $5,000, frame residence at 803 West Kansas Street; B. R. Fine, $3,000, frame structure to 409 North Lamessa Road, 18 by 24 feet; Yellow Cab, $400, additions concrete cab stand at 107 North Colorado Street, 6 by 8 feet; E. C. Washington, $300, add to frame servants quarters at 209 North Madison Street, 10 by 18 feet; A&L Housing, $100, add to frame structure at 200 North A Street.

Tired City Slates 'Do Nothing Week'

GILMER, TEXAS —(P)— With its Yamboree just wound up, Gilmer begins another week of celebration Sunday.

"We're too tired to get up a committee on arrangements," said Mayor Bob Gates, "we're just passing the word—'Relax.'"

About the only things in town will be prayer meetings.

★ LATE NEWS FLASHES ★

CINCINNATI —(AP)— The Disciples of Christ Church Saturday night called on President Truman to "fulfill his oft-repeated promise to withdraw the Hon. Myron Taylor as his personal representative to the Vatican."

WASHINGTON, MISS. —(AP)— George W. Armstrong, Sr., Saturday night declared he intends to use his oil millions to establish an Armstrong University in Texas, either at Fort Worth or Port Arthur, to oppose "race mongrelization."

LOUISVILLE, KY. —(AP)— Robert Stewart Peters, 19, was arrested at his home here late Saturday in connection with a Brownsville, Texas, safe-cracking in which Floyd Luther Lewis, an escaped convict, was slain. The dead man carried a driver's license bearing Peters' name.

Steel-Coal Strike Losses Pile Higher

PITTSBURGH —(P)— Another sliver of hope slanted feebly across the nation's darkened steel-coal strike picture Saturday.

The government—working feverishly to crack the industry-stifling steel deadlock—dropped squarely in the lap of the CIO United Steelworkers a move by small producers to recall the steelworkers a move by small producers to recall the steelworkers a move by small producers to recall the steelworkers

Otherwise, the situation remained as dour as ever.

The steel and coal strike twins have outgrown their swaddling clothes. A robust four and six weeks old respectively, they have left the nation's economy badly battered.

While President Truman says the strikes do not yet add up to a national emergency, more than a million workers are idled and losses are in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

In the steel and coal capital of Pittsburgh, requests for jobless aid are flooding state employment offices at the rate of 10,000 a day, most of them as an indirect result (Continued on Page 11)

TMA Head Demands Truman Intervene In Steel-Coal Walkouts

HOUSTON —(P)— The president of the Texas Manufacturers Association Saturday demanded that President Truman make use of the Taft-Hartley Act to end the coal and steel strikes.

Robert E. Clements, Amarillo, in a letter to the President, said hundreds of Texas industries will close their doors within a few weeks if the strikes are not settled.

"We are convinced the current strikes in the steel and coal industries imperil our economy," Clements said. "We are convinced these conditions create a national emergency."

He said the Taft-Hartley Act makes it possible for the President, in event of such an emergency, to invoke provisions which would result in a continuance of work for 80 days while attempts are made to secure a settlement.

He said it is reported reliably that more than 1,000,000 bales of cotton now in the fields cannot be ginned unless steel from sources now shut down can be secured.

"The great oil and gas industry of the Southwest shortly will suffer because of a shortage of pipe and other drilling and operating equipment," he advised the President.

JEWELRY STOLEN FROM GABLE'S FORMER WIFE
HOUSTON —(P)— Mrs. Maria F. Gable, former wife of Film Actor Jack Gable, Saturday reported loss of $7,947 in jewelry.

She told police the valuables were removed from her parked car. They were among the contents of two overnight bags.

GIVE... GIVE ENOUGH—Community Chest Finance Campaign To Open Tuesday

With "GIVE... Give Enough" as the slogan, Midland County's 1949 Community Chest finance campaign will swing into action Tuesday, hogging the civic activities spotlight the remainder of the week. B. L. (Bert) Ryan is the general chairman.

Leaders and volunteer workers are determined to complete the drive by Saturday—exceeding the $32,000 goal before then if possible.

A rally at 9 a.m. Tuesday in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer will be the starting signal, with workers to fan out in all directions following the session. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

All leaders, team captains and members are invited and urged to attend the breakfast.

Six youth welfare and charitable organizations will share in the Chest funds—their combined operating budgets for 1950 making up the overall Chest budget. The six agencies and their allocations are:

Boy Scouts, $13,500; Girl Scouts, $4,385; Youth Center, $9,142.50; Goodfellow's, $600; USO, $1,312.50; and Salvation Army, $2,000. A campaign expense item, totals $1,059.

Less Than Last Year
The 1949 budget is $1,923 less than last year's $33,923 budget.

Division leaders for the campaign include Jack Wilkinson, industrial; Jerome Grayum, commercial; Bill Pomeroy, general; Paul Davis, Big Gifts; A. N. Hendrickson, farm and ranch; Boyd Laughlin, office buildings. Each leader has named his assistants.

Mrs. William F. Pennebaker, executive secretary, is in charge of the campaign headquarters in the Buffalo Trail Council Boy Scout Building on North Colorado Street. (Continued On Page Three)

Drunk Brings Along His Own Breakfast

One drunk, among the several nabbed by police Saturday night, didn't intend to put up with the regular jail fare for breakfast Sunday.

Officer Bill Keel of the Police Department, who made the arrest in the 190 block of North Main Street, said the drunk had the following on his person: a quantity of money, knife, ruler, bill-fold and two eggs.

Soldier Held For Attempt To Burn Wife To Death

BELLEFRONTE, Pa.—(AP)—A soldier was held in the Centre County jail here Saturday after police said he poured kerosene on his wife's head and then pushed her over an oil stove.

Constable Sarkis Joseph at near-by Howard said he arrested Pvt. Russell Pike, 36, of Fort Meade, Md., Friday. He added that formal charges will not be filed until the outcome of Mrs. Pike's injuries is known.

She was removed to the Lock Haven Hospital, where doctors said she suffered a fracture of the skull and severe burns on the head and back.

The officer said Pike told him he wanted a divorce and his wife wouldn't give it to him.

Joseph said Pike told him he had argued with his wife, poured the kerosene on her head and pushed her head over an oil stove. He ran out through a window but was arrested a short time later in a nearby cornfield.

Willie Hill Receives Jail Term And Fine

Willie Hill, negro charged with aggravated assault, was sentenced to 90 days in jail and assessed a $150 fine Friday afternoon by County Judge Clifford C. Keith.

The charge was filed on the negro after his estranged wife suffered severe lacerations during an altercation in the Latin American sector of the city.

McKenney On CANASTA

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Written For NEA Service

While I believe Canasta is going to be most popular with the masses, I find many of our outstanding card players also are making a study of the game.

One of these is John Crawford, of Philadelphia, who is an expert on all types of card games. I am going to ask Mr. Crawford a question in each of my columns so he can show you the different techniques he uses in the game.

Question: Mr. Crawford, in playing four-handed Canasta will you explain to my readers some important points in partnership play?

Answer: Watch your partner's discard. Then take into consideration your left-hand opponent's discard to your partner. This will tell you what cards your partner does not want, when he refuses to pick them up. Also you can discard the same cards as your partner's discards.

In other words, you should try to keep the same cards you think your partner has, and in this way you both are more apt to be saving the same cards. The above applies mostly when you and your partner need 120 points for your initial meld.

When you need 50 or 90 points for your initial meld the game is apt to proceed too quickly to develop your hand in any particular manner. Also if you discard the same cards as your partner, they are apt to be used by your left-hand opponent.

(Since your partner doesn't have it, your opponents probably have.)

Another important point to remember in four-handed Canasta is, if your side needs 120 meld and you do not have the jokers or wild cards, then it is up to you to play to protect your partner. In other words, one hand plays to meld 120 points while the other partner tries to build up his hand so that he will be able to play off his partner's hand.

In my next article Mr. Crawford will give you more of the fine points on Canasta. Now for my regular questions and answers:

Question: Is it wise to pick up small packs or should I wait for the pack to have 10 cards or more?

Answer: You should always take any pack if it is beneficial to you and your partner. Consider twice before turning down any pack of five cards or more.

Question: It seems fairly easy to get a concealed hand in four-handed Canasta. Is it good strategy to play for a concealed hand?

Answer: It certainly is not. In four-handed Canasta you should never try for a concealed hand. Not only will you very likely get caught with it, but you may be able to help me make my initial meld?

Answer: You most certainly can. The up-card can be counted as part of your minimum meld if you wish, but no other card in the discard pile can be used for that purpose. After you legally have melded the up-card and picked up the pack, you can proceed to play cards from the pack onto your meld or make new melds.

HOUSTON BUS DRIVERS TO STRIKE WEDNESDAY

HOUSTON—(AP)—Houston's city bus drivers will strike at midnight Wednesday.

The result of a strike ballot among drivers and mechanics was announced Friday night. The vote for the strike was 791 for to 76 against. The men also voted 840 to 26 to reject a company proposal of a ten-cent hourly pay boost and some other contract benefits.

New York Playboy Remains Unconscious In Houston Hospital

HOUSTON—(AP)—Allen Thomas Sturges, II, continues unconscious in a Houston hospital.

The 26-year-old New York society figure was found shot in the head last Saturday in an upstairs spare bedroom in a private home in Houston's River Oaks residential suburb.

Police said the bullet wound was self-inflicted. Surgeons have not removed the bullet.

Sturges' mother, Mrs. E. N. Taveniere, Englewood, N. J., has been at her son's bedside since Tuesday night.

HOLLYWOOD — Trade paper headline: "RKO rushing Ingrid Bergman's 'Stromboli' as Oscar candidate." Wouldn't loving cup be more appropriate?

A representative of the London Palladium is in town trying to talk Jane Wyman into doing a two-week song and dance appearance there. Even Hollywood has forgotten that Janie sang a mean song before anyone thought she could do heavy drama.

Jane Powell and Geary Steffen have set the marriage date—November 5 in Beverly Hills. Hollywood is lifting its eyebrows at that frank story of Laraine Day's marriage to Leo Durocher in the current Motion Picture. It's the first time she's ever talked for publication on the subject.

Benny Rubin's daughter, Lyla, will break into show business via a New York TV series. . . . Buster Crabbe will be the menace in Johnny Weissmuller's next jungle picture. Johnny and Buster used to menace each other in different pictures—as rival Tarzans.

Steve Allen, talking about a Hollywood big shot: "He's a very important fellow. He has three yachts, seven cars and 14 ulcers."

"Outside the Wall" is Marilyn Maxwell's first starring role after a long succession of bright supporting parts. Marilyn once did seven shows a day at the Steel Pier in Atlantic City.

"I was only a singer," she told me, "but I played the same bill with three famous actors—Plicka, Lassie and Thunderhead."

Charles Laughton is getting $2000 a lecture guarantee for his current tour. He's plugging "The Man on the Eiffel Tower" for free. . . . Mack Sennett dug up some of his old contracts to legally pave the way for his "Down Memory Lane" film. One of them was the first film contract Bing Crosby ever signed. It guaranteed Bing the magnificent salary of $100 a week for a year.

Hollywood film censors will be bushing overtime when "The Black Cat" is shown in French film with English dialog, his U. S. screens next month. The heroine, Simone Signoret, makes Amber look like Whistler's Mother.

Night life department: Writer Sy Barlett tossed a big party. He finally got to bed at 3 a.m. and arose at 9 the next morning just in time to say goodbye to some of his guests who were just leaving.

Jane Greer and Howard Hughes are huddling over "Celestial Flight," the story of a beautiful aviatrix Jane owns the story and wants to star in it. . . . Coals to Newcastle department: Dorothy Lamour's new line of sarong dresses will be sold to South Sea Island belles via a Honolulu wholesaler.

Red Skelton will be the next comedian to go straight on the "Suspense" airshow. He'll play a tense, dramatic role in a chiller called, "The Search for Isabel, and Producer Bill Spier says he's loading one of the sound men's guns with real bullets—just in case.

Chinese Reds-

The Communist radio pictured the Mukden population aroused by the accounts of a "savage and brutal act" perpetrated by American imperialists.

The Red account said that on September 27 Ward told an employee, Chi Yu-Heng, to do some work he couldn't do, and thereupon ridiculed the workman. Finally he fired the Chinese and refused him severance pay in addition to wages, it was related.

Chi came back October 10 to demand the extra money and was beaten in the consulate, together with his brother, the Communists said. Its description of injuries mentioned only bruises and a small cut but it described Chi as bleeding profusely when police found him.

The department described two of those arrested as Ralph C. Rebers of Rochester, N. Y., a consulate clerk; Shiro Tatum, an American-born Japanese, and two men holding European citizenship.

Officials here said they had the impression the Communists were trying to whip up a storm of popular passion over this matter against the five accused men. In all, State Department officials said, there are 13 Americans at the Mukden Consulate, including Mr. Ward. But officials were unable to provide a complete list.

During the many months they have been detained by the Communists, Ward and his staff several times have been assured they were about to be given transportation from the city to some place where they could establish contact with other American authorities but this never has worked out.

The department sent urgent orders to the American representative in Peiping, Consul General O. Edmund Clubb, to try to obtain Ward's release from the "highest Chinese Communist authorities."

Clubb also has been instructed to seek a full report direct from Ward, whose only channels of communication with the outside world are Communist-controlled.

The Red wires against U. S. diplomats in East and West appear to be tailored to conditions.

Mississippi School Snubs $50,000,000 Endowment Offer

NATCHEZ, MISS.—(AP)—Jefferson Military College—describing its financial situation as "desperate"—turned down a $50,000,000 Saturday and broke all ties with Texas Millionaire George Armstrong, who made the offer.

The college trustees met for 90 minutes and then concurred again on Armstrong's withdrawal of the offer conditioned on the 147-year-old prep school incorporating his ideas of "white supremacy."

A statement by the trustees said there had been "a complete misunderstanding between Armstrong and the board of trustees."

The trustees not only rejected the endowment, but also refused Armstrong's unconditional offer to pay the school's $5,000,000 bank note and support it during the rest of this school year.

Harry Dibrells Given Supper In McCamey

MCCAMEY.—A surprise buffet supper recently honored Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dibrell, who are leaving McCamey to make their home in Coleman. The supper was held recently in the McCamey Country Club, of which Dibrell was manager.

About 15 couples attended and bridge was played during the evening. The Dibrells have been managers of the club for four years, and resigned because of his ill health.

Rosa Ellen Oakley And Dr. Hutcheson Marry In Andrews

ANDREWS.—In a candlelight ceremony in the Baptist Church Wednesday evening, Rosa Ellen Oakley became the bride of Dr. Z. W. Hutcheson, Jr. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Oakley of Ardmore, Okla., and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Hutcheson of Bolivar, Mo.

The Rev. Eugene Brand, pastor, read the ceremony before an altar banked with white chrysanthemums and floor candelabra filled with white candles.

Mrs. Max Ramsey lit the candles while Gerald Johnston sang "The Lord's Prayer" (Malot), accompanied by Mrs. Johnson.

The bride, given in marriage by Dr. Richard Ramsey, wore a beige Miron wool suit with a draped collar. Her accessories were balenciago and her Winter pink velour hat was trimmed with balenciago feathers. She carried a white Bible topped with brown orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Ramsey, the bride's only attendant, wore a taupe velvet suit and brown accessories. Her flowers were pink camellias.

Max Ramsey was best man. Mrs. Hutcheson is a graduate of Texas State College for Women in Denton and has been physical education director of Andrews High School for the last two years.

Hutcheson was graduated from William Jewell College in Bolivar, Mo., and Baylor University Medical School in Houston. He has been with the hospital in Andrews for three years.

Botany Text Book Written By Druggist

OAKLAND, MD.—(AP)—Joseph E. Harned is 79 years old. He has run a drug store here for 57 years, and he says he is a druggist, not a scientist.

But he has written a botany text book, "Wild Flowers of the Alleghenies." It is used in schools and libraries all over the country. The botany departments of Harvard, Cornell and other universities encouraged the work and helped him with it. He has two honorary doctorate degrees. He is listed in "Who's Who" and "American Men of Science." Also, he's a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He is the friend of many scientists and of the late Thomas Edison.

He insists, however, he is still just a country kid pursuing a hobby. "His book has been praised both for its accuracy and its popular style. It has brought him letters from all over the world."

Serenade To Mom

Mrs. Clara Sulkowski, at left, a tuberculosis patient at a Cleveland, Ohio, hospital, listens to a popular song presented by her children, Betty Lou, five, Richard, 11, and Arthur, seven. Her husband, Steve, holds the music. The troubadours have been regular weekend visitors to the hospital since their mother entered it almost a year ago. Their serenades not only cheered Mrs. Sulkowski, but became a special event for other patients in the tuberculosis pavilion. Soon Mrs. Sulkowski will be well enough to leave. The remaining patients will miss their Sulkowski serenades.

Austin Lad Is Safe, Happy After Rescue From Well Pipe

AUSTIN.—(AP)—Three-year-old Bobby Gow went home from the hospital Saturday, body sound and mind untroubled by his almost incredible experience of Friday afternoon.

His doctor said it was unlikely Bobby would remember the terror of being held prisoner three hours inside an 8-inch well casing.

Bobby, the tiny son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gow, slipped from sight into the abandoned well pipe 50 feet from his backdoor at 2:48 p.m. Johnny Schneider, 12-year-old neighbor, saw Bobby disappear. He let out a shout, bounded into the house and told Gow what had happened.

As Gow rushed to the scene of the accident Johnny picked up the telephone and dialed the Fire Department.

League Of—

Herman (Heinie) Roach of El Paso and A. H. Dennison of Odessa are the State Board candidates.

The issuance of $200,000 in bonds is proposed for constructing and equipping a County Park Building here. The building bonds would be retired in not more than 35 years at an interest rate of three and one-half per cent, from a 35 cent tax rate on each $100 valuation.

Arguments for and against each of the proposed amendments to the State Constitution are listed in the State organization's Let Freedom Ring. The propositions, condensed as to wording, are:

(1) To authorize counties of more than 75,000 population to adopt civil service systems for county employees by popular election; (2) To provide annual legislative sessions and annual salaries for legislators; (3) To provide for creation of hospital districts; (4) To abolish the poll tax as a requirement for voting; (5) To authorize creation of city-county health units.

(6) To authorize a statewide system for retirement and disability pensions for appointive county officials and employees; (7) To require district judges to conduct proceedings at the county seat of the county in which a case is pending except as otherwise provided by law; (8) To authorize creation of rural fire prevention districts; (9) To provide for trials without a jury in larceny cases; and (10) To qualify women to serve on juries.

"You've got a date, November eighth. So make a note, be sure to vote" is the League's get-out-the-vote slogan for the coming election.

Culberson—

Culberson asserted that imports of foreign oils have increased from around 300,000 barrels per day in March to approximately 700,000 barrels per day at this time.

Oil from Canada also is coming into competition with West Texas crude, Culberson declared. He said that in less than a year a pipe line from the new oil fields in Canada to the refineries in the Chicago area will be in operation.

"It is to the best interest of the nation and of the oil industry for West Texas to retain its place in the crude oil picture," Culberson said.

Refineries Needed "So long as I am a member of the Railroad Commission, I will take the position that any increase or decrease in the overall allowable for the state will be straight across the board, and not on a selective basis."

"I have contended for many years that the best way for West Texas to be assured of a safe, stable and satisfactory market for its crude is for this region to have a number of large refineries located out here in the producing area."

Progress Being Made He revealed that great progress has been made in Texas in recent years in eliminating flaring of gas from oil wells. He predicted that in the near future no oil will be produced from any well in Texas until, and after, proper arrangements have been made to use every cubic foot of gas developed along with the oil.

Approximately 300 persons attended the event.

Culberson was introduced by W. D. (Bill) Lane of Midland, chairman of the API chapter. Arrangements for the meeting were under the direction of Early N. Spiars, first vice chairman of the organization.

Lane announced the annual meeting of the Permian Basin Chapter will be held November 25, in the Ector County Park in Odessa.

A musical entertainment program will be presented and officers for 1950 will be elected.

A barbecue supper was served following Culberson's address at the Saturday night meeting.

Sweet foods and drink are tasted with the tip of the tongue; bitter things with the back of the tongue.

A&M Gets Metzger Firearms Collection

DALLAS.—(AP)—A collection of rare military and civilian firearms, valued at more than $100,000, was given to Texas A&M College Saturday by the daughters of the late Carl Metzger of Dallas.

The Metzger collection includes 587 pistols, 200 rifles and several ancient weapons which preceded the gun. It was given to the college under the terms of Metzger's will.

ATTENDS CONVENTIONS James N. Allison, Reporter-Telegram publisher, left Saturday for Mineral Wells, where he will attend the annual convention of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association, opening Sunday and closing Tuesday.

From Mineral Wells he will go to Fort Worth to attend the 1949 convention of the National Associated Press Managing Editors Association, which opens Wednesday.

Odessa Hangs Up Ninth Straight Over Bulldogs

By SHORTY SHELBURNE
Sports Editor The Reporter-Telegram

ODESSA—What the Midland Bulldogs, the coaches, Midland fans and we had hoped would happen didn't happen in Broncho Stadium here Friday night. For the ninth straight year Odessa's Bronchos rolled over the Midland Bulldogs with a flash of speed and power. The final score was 55 to 7.

That's the way the game was doped to end but we diehards had held out that this might be the year for Midland. After one quarter of watching the polished Broncho machine operate against the slower and less-experienced Bulldogs, we knew it wasn't our time.

Odessa scored every time it got the ball with the exception of once in the fourth quarter when the Bulldogs held on their three-yard line and another time when Midland gained possession of the ball on a fumble.

Joe Coleman, Odessa coach, had his boys playing a methodical game. They drove hard, blocked hard and tackled hard. Speed was the key to success for the Bronchos and they used it to an overwhelming advantage.

First Score
It took just 11 plays for Odessa to score after receiving the opening kickoff. Joe Howell, T. W. Harvey and Joe Childress alternated at ripping the Midland line. Howell went over from the three. Dawton Hughes kicked the point.

Following the kickoff, L. C. Thomas moved the ball five yards on two running plays and a pass fell incomplete. Reed Gilmore got off a bad punt that traveled only 13-yards and Odessa took over on the Midland 43.

Joe Howell picked up 24 yards on two plays, Harry got three and Joe Childress slipped over from the 16. Hughes converted.

The Bulldogs, with Jack Burris and L. C. Thomas carrying, could move only four yards. A pass failed.

GAME AT A GLANCE

Midland	Odessa
First downs	15
Yards gained rushing	357
Yards lost rushing	9
Yards gained passing	77
Passes completed	2 of 4
Passes intercepted	3
3 for 79 punts, No. Yds. 0 for 0
4 for 20 punts, No. Yds. 4 for 30
Score by periods:
Midland	0 0 0 7-7

and a fourth down try at the line gained only four, the ball going over on the Midland 24.

Howard Dye picked up 14, Howell got four on two plays and Dye broke through on a quickie to score from the 16. Hughes converted to make it 21-0 as the first period ended.

Crowley Returns Kickoff
Charles Crowley returned the kickoff nicely from the Midland goal line to the 21. That's where the Bulldogs showed their first spark of offensive power.

Jack Burris carried the ball but the success of his 18-yard gain goes to Charles Crowley and Reed Gilmore for their fine blocking. Crowley was out as a flanker to the right as the play developed, he drifted back toward the ball and cut down the Odessa end as Burris came to the right side. Gilmore got two Broncho secondary men with a fine block and Burris was in the clear. He was downed by the safety man.

Coach Tugboat Jones had promised a gambling, wide-open game against the Bronchos and it started to develop at the point.

Burris picked up seven off tackle but a penalty set the ball back five. Burris got six more on third down.

Gilmore Gambles
With fourth down and four to go, the Bulldogs went into a deep punt formation with Gilmore back. He faked a punt and fired a pass to Burris on the line of scrimmage. Burris slipped slightly and was downed just inches short of the first down, the ball going over.

The Broncho backfield started to work again with quick-openers and pitchouts. Dawton Hughes got 18 yards through the middle to the Midland 31. Howard Dye picked up four to the 27. From there, Bobby Jackson took a pitchout from Charles Clover and went over standing up with a 27-yard sprint. Hughes converted.

Following the kickoff, Midland showed signs of moving again. Charles Crowley took the kick and faked a handoff. The fake sucked the Bronchos nicely and Crowley rambled 38 yards before he was downed on the Odessa 47, getting the ball into Broncho territory for the first time.

Move To Odessa 26
Jack Burris picked up two off tackle. Crowley got three and Thomas got one. A five-yard penalty against Odessa gave Midland a first down.

Burris got nine on the flanker play used earlier and another penalty moved the ball to a first down on the Odessa 26.

Burris failed to pass on first down and was smothered. The ball got away and Odessa recovered.

Moving from their own 38, the Bronchos rolled along straight down the field.

Carl Beard and Dawton Hughes ripped off gains of 26 and 17 yards, respectively. Jackson got two and Hughes picked up 13 more, placing the ball on the Midland two.

Beard went over for the TD but Hughes' try for point failed. The half ended before the ball could be put into play with Odessa leading 34 to 0.

Third Quarter
Opening the third quarter Burris took the kick and returned it 21 yards to the Midland 31.

A pass fell incomplete and Burris lost nine on a fumble. He gained eight of it back next play but a fourth-down punt was forced. Gilmore booted out of bounds on the Odessa 42, a 28-yard kick.

Bobby Jackson started the Bronchos rolling again with a 13-yard sprint. Billy Nichols got four and T. W. Harvey made 13.

A 15-yard penalty backed the ball up to the Midland 27. From there Beard picked up four, 15 and three. On fourth down, the Bulldogs held for no gain and took possession of the ball on their own six.

Reed Gilmore punted out to the Midland 38 where Odessa took over.

Dye Scores
Howell and Dye alternated to move the ball to the Midland three in four plays. Dye carried it over and Hughes booted the point, making the score 41 to 0.

The Bulldogs took the return kickoff and showed more spark than at any time during the game. Ralph Bost entered the lineup to do the passing and distinguished himself in great form with his accurate chunking.

Reed Gilmore broke out the spread plays Coach Jones introduced at the start of the Odessa tilt. They clicked like clock work on a 70-yard drive.

Brooks To Gilmore
Gilmore gathered in a 17-yard handoff on the Odessa 44 for another first down. The lineups to do the passing and distinguished himself in great form with his accurate chunking.

Brooks passed to Burris for 14 and another first on the Odessa 32. The Bulldogs wouldn't be stopped.

After two passes fell incomplete, Brooks hit Gilmore on the 18 for another first down.

By that time the Odessa defense was going crazy. Brooks took advantage of it and ran the ball for seven.

Thomas got four yards on two plays for another first down on the Odessa seven.

Gambing all the way, Gilmore carried another pass. It worked, Brooks pitching to Dwane Bush who made a great catch just inches off the goal line.

Thomas hit the middle on a guard wedge for the touchdown.

Linebacker Reverses
Following the kickoff, Jimmy Lineberger jarred the ball loose from Jackson and recovered it on the Odessa 49.

The Bulldogs opened up with passes again. Jack Mobley and L. C. Thomas gave the passes fine protection. Two aerials went incomplete. Burris picked up nine and Thomas got two for the first down on the Odessa 38.

The drive bogged down there as passes fell to the ground and the ball went over on downs.

Seminole Edges By McCamey 7 To 6 In Hard-Fought Game

McCAMEY—Both teams waited until the last five minutes of play to score, but Seminole edged by the McCamey Badgers 7 to 6 in a District 5-A game here Friday night.

After battling through three scoreless periods, McCamey started an 88-yard march. Bobby Stapp and Frank Stokes sparked the drive with Stapp going over from the three. Stokes tried to run the point but failed.

Following the return kickoff, Seminole marched to the McCamey five where the Badgers held for downs.

But Stapp fumbled and Lucius Allen recovered for Seminole. Guinn Hood pushed across for the Seminole TD. Bart Affleck booted the game-winning point after touchdown.

The Badgers drove 61 yards to the Seminole one just as the game ended.

BOWLING

Dunagan Sales turned on the steam in the City Major League last week and swept three games from Permian Mud Service.

Mes-Co defeated league leading Houston Hill in two games. The Reporter-Telegram came to life and took two from Banner and Tommie's Electric won two from Pabst Blue Ribbon.

The standings:

Team	W	L
Houston Hill	14	7
Tommie's Electric	13	8
Pabst Blue Ribbon	12	9
Permian Mud	12	9
Dunagan Sales	12	9
Mes-Co	11	10
Banner	8	13
Reporter-Telegram	3	18

Kruger Jewelry got back on the winning track again last week in the Ladies Bowling League and strengthened its hold on first place.

The league leaders took two from Heath & Templeton, Borden's won two from Fowler and Stanley. Palling beat Livingston's in two and Yellow Cab took two from Hardwick-Stewart.

H. Halderman swept individual honors with a 193 for high game and a 512 for high series.

Team highs went to Borden's. A 582 was good for single game and 1,680 sewed up high series.

The standings:

Team	W	L
Kruger Co.	15	6
Yellow Cab	14	7
Powder & Stanley	13	8
Borden's	12	9
Heath & Templeton	9	12
Falling	8	13
Hardwick-Stewart	7	14
Livingston	6	15

Things get underway with duck season opening at NOON next Friday, November 4.

Except opening day, ducks may be hunted from one-half hour before sunrise to one hour before sunset. The season closes—the first season, that is—one hour before sunset, November 21.

Here's a special note: Federal Duck Stamps will be on sale at post offices and may be purchased for $2. The stamps are available at post offices only.

Opening right on the heels of the first duck season will be the blacktail deer season west of the Pecos River.

Nimrods may take their first shot at a blacktail deer one-half hour before sunrise next Sunday morning, November 6.

Shooting is lawful from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset.

The bag limit is ONE blacktail, ONE black tail and ONE whitetail, or ONE whitetail, according to Game Warden Evans.

Under no circumstances is a hunter allowed to take two black-tails or two whitetails. He may kill one of each, however.

Another special note: Don't forget the deer tags attached to big game hunting licenses this year. It's something new and all hunters are cautioned to remember the tags. Deer tags are required for all deer, blacktail, whitetail or otherwise.

They must be attached to the antlers immediately after a deer is killed.

Bauer Sisters To Play Here Sunday

One of the top golf exhibitions of the year will be presented at Midland Country Club at 1:30 p.m. Sunday when the famous Bauer sisters, Marlene and Alice, battle Mrs. Essie Stafford and Mrs. Byrd Flourney in an 18-hole match.

The exhibition is open to the public and will be presented free of charge.

Marlene Bauer, currently the most heralded woman golfer in the United States, is the 1948 National Women's Junior Champion. She has attracted nationwide publicity in several big tournaments this month, including the Texas Women's Open in which she went to the finals.

Marlene is only 15 years of age but handles the clubs like a veteran golfer.

Alice, five years older than Marlene, is the Palm Springs Open champion. She shoots consistently low scores and has gone far in the nation's major tournaments for women.

The two Midland women to oppose the Bauers are top notch in this part of the country.

Mrs. Essie Stafford was Midland Country Club champion in 1948 and went to the finals this year. She is defending consolation champion of the Midland Country Club Women's Invitation.

Mrs. Flourney won the Midland Country Club title from Mrs. Stafford in this year's tournament. It is the second time she has held the crown.

Pro J. C. Hardwicke Saturday said a large gallery is expected for the exhibition.

Rice Owls Coast Over Texas Tech

HOUSTON—(AP)—Rice used but did not need some of its crippled players Saturday in taking an easy 28 to 0 victory over Texas Tech of the Border Conference.

The running of Fullback Bobby Lantrip and the passing of Tobin Rote and Vernon Glass made the Rice offense click at will. The Owl defense meanwhile was keeping over from the one-yard line for a pair of touchdowns, while Rote tossed a 16-yard scoring pass to Reserve Fullback George Glauser for another shortly before the half.

Glass, who engineered the Rice team to its thrilling victory over Texas last week, completed the scoring in the final period with a 48-yard toss to Sophomore Halfback Billy Burkhalter.

End James (Froggie) Williams, who kicked the winning field goal against Texas, protected a shoulder injury and entered the game only to kick the four extra points.

Lantrip stands out. Tech entered Rice territory six times but its deepest penetrations were to the Owl 20, 21 and 22, where Rice held.

Rote, with a bad ankle, played very little, but he completed 8 out of 11 passes for 127 yards. Lantrip, however, was the day's big ground gainer, carrying the ball 19 times for 141 yards.

Glass passing closely revealed that of Rote, completing seven of 10 for 121 yards.

Both Rice first-string guards were nursing injuries and only Carl Schwarz saw limited action. S. J. Roberts was kept on the bench.

The Owls' smoothly functioning offense made it necessary for Rice to punt only one time. A 15-yard penalty late in the fourth quarter forced the kick. Tech stopped three Rice scoring threats and took over on its two, 29 and three.

Stevenson Paces Raiders
Rice finished with 285 net yards rushing and 248 through the air. Tech had 240 on the ground and completed 6 of 16 pass attempts for 76 yards.

The Red Raiders, paced by Calvin Stevenson and J. W. Thompson launched several long midfield drives but bogged down on passes after moving across the Rice 30.

Stevenson carried the ball 11 times for a net of 86 yards, while Thompson had 51 on 9 tries.

Rice made 19 first downs to 17 for Tech.

Walker's Toe Gives Mustangs 7-6 Edge Over Texas Steers

DALLAS—(AP)—All-America Doak Walker came off the bench for another golden moment Saturday, kicking the extra point that brought Southern Methodist a breath-taking 7-6 victory over Texas.

Appearing in only 11 plays and obviously a weak young man as the result of a siege of influenza, the great Walker was the man when the time came.

Hammer Kyle Rote, great Southern Methodist halfback, had taken a pass and skipped to the touchdown that tied the score. It was 6-6, only because Raleigh Blakely, Southern Methodist wingman, had crashed through to block Randall Clay's try for point.

Then the hushed throng of 75,000 watched the great Walker as he stood there and aimed at the Texas goal posts. Back came the ball and Walker stepped into it. The oval sailed like a bird between the uprights. That was the ball game although Texas had the crowd in hysterics with drive after drive that carried deep, deep into Southern Methodist territory.

Steers Fumble Chances
Texas stormed and passed, getting to the Southern Methodist three-yard line with six minutes to go but down here Ray Borneaman, key man in the Longhorn drive, fumbled and Grover Walker recovered for SMU.

Rote boomed a kick out to the Southern Methodist 34 and then Texas, stymied in three tries, tried a field goal. It was a forlorn effort. On the 39-yard mark, Ben Tompkins put his foot into the ball but it didn't even reach the SMU goal line.

Southern Methodist was outplayed in everything except the score. Most of the breaks went its way and when Texas did get one it couldn't crack the SMU line or fooled away its chance.

With only two seconds to go, Ben Procter, Texas wingman, took a 38-yard pass from Paul Campbell across the goal line but dropped the ball.

The first half was scoreless—the first time this has occurred in the Southwest Conference this season. Texas scored deep in the third period when Fred Benners, SMU sophomore, back to pass from behind his goal line had the throw blocked by Bill Wilson. The ball bounded into the air and into the arms of John Adams on the SMU two. Adams merely fell across the goal line.

The loss kicked Texas out of the conference championship race. Eight times Texas was in Southern Methodist territory and only once could it cash in.

Southern Methodist never got past midfield until late in the third period. Erratic punting by Rote in the first half kept SMU in hot water, but Kyle was tops in other ways. On the SMU touchdown, which came on a 73-yard drive, Rote took a throw from Benners on the Texas 12 and stormed his way over a half-dozen Texas would-be tacklers.

Texas rolled up 270 yards, 155 of it on the ground. Southern Methodist got 118 rushing and 86 passing. The Longhorns led in first downs 11 to 9.

Leading ground-gainers of the day were Clay, who hammered out 76 on 16 runs, and Rote with 63 on 13 tries. In passing, Campbell completed 11 for 115 yards and Benners five for 72.

Pyote Runs Up Big Score Over Toyah

PYOTE—Pyote's six-man grid team turned the field into a race track here Friday night as it slaughtered the Toyah High School team 62 to 0.

The win kept Pyote's record clean for the season.

Pyote meets Grandfalls, also defeated, in the final game of the year next Friday.

Hunters Do---

Handle every firearm as though you knew it to be loaded. Always check barrel and action of a gun for obstructions. Carry your gun with the muzzle pointing at ground or sky. Always unload your gun before leaving it unattended. When out of the field, carry your gun with the action open.

Hunters Don't--

Never fire anywhere unless you are sure of your target. To avoid dangerous ricochets, never fire at rocks or water. Never take a chance on mixing gunpowder with alcohol. Never point a firearm at anything you don't want to shoot. Never climb a fence or tree while holding on to your gun.

6--THE REPORTER--TELBORAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, OCT. 30, 1949

Baylor Bears Fly High On 40-14 Score

WACO (AP)—Baylor rode high in the ranks of the nation's undefeated teams, smothering Texas Christian 40 to 14 with a potent offense and a tight defense at Municipal Stadium Saturday.

Texas Christian's Lindy Berry had a bad off day. Baylor's Adrian Burk and his pass-snatching mates were at their best, and that was at the ball game.

Wink Blasts Pecos 40-18

WINK—The combination of Bud Rollins and Pat Drumm led the Wildcat teams of old used to do when he broke away for 53 yards on the second play from scrimmage in the first period. He was downed by Fairley on the Pecos 15 but a few plays later bounced through for the touchdowns. He also converted.

Carson intercepted a pass on the Pecos 30 to set up Wink's second TD. Drumm went over from the 18. The try for point failed.

Wink led 13-0 at the half. But the Wildcats stormed back to score 27 more points in the second half. Drumm made runs of 29 and 22 yards to score and set up another touchdown.

Rollins broke away on jaunts of 63, 71 and two yards in the last half. Fairley was the one-man show for Pecos. He ran 20 yards for the Eagles' first TD early in the third period. He took a five-yard pass from Orlando Gutierrez in the end zone for another touchdown and an 18-yard aerial from Buddy Card for the final Pecos score.

The win established Wink more solidly as a contender for the District 5-A crown.

Baylor scored another touchdown in the final frame after recovering a fumble on the 20. Louis Gajdosik plunged over and Dickerson's placement was good.

Then Marshall Alford blocked Larry Isbell's punt and Keith Flowers ran 34 yards for a TD score, with Lindley's placement again perfect for the extra point.

Berry Can't Deliver. Berry completed 11 of 19 passes for total yardage of 192. Only one of his passes was intercepted.

Berry was able to connect only on two of 11 tries for 15 yards, but six interceptions of Berry's pitches were a tribute to a headup pass defense that throttled the vaunted Christian attack.

But it wasn't all Burk for Baylor. The air-minded Bruins' total yards gained by air was 216, and they powered for 121 on the ground. TCU netted 61 yards by passes and a scant 25 on the ground.

The Christians threatened several times, but miscued, and just-missed passes hurt badly. Early in the game a long heave from Ben Wilde to Snake Bailey was a near-miss that was a heartbreaker for the TCU team that was definitely off stride.

Bill Moorman blocked a Baylor kick early in the fourth period, TCU winding up with the ball on the Baylor three. The Baylor line refused to budge on four line plays and that's the way the ball game went all afternoon.

Louis Trains Hard For Exhibition Tour. NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Louis insists he isn't planning a comeback but the retired heavyweight champion is going to unusual extremes to prepare himself for his exhibition tour.

The brown bomber did five miles of road work Saturday morning and in the afternoon boxed three rounds at a Harlem gym. He meets Billy Gillum of Newark, N. J., in a four-round exhibition at Atlantic City, N. J., Monday.

Downhearted Pups Smash Lamesa 20-0

The Sixth Grade Bullpups of John M. Cowden Junior High swept to another victory Saturday 20-0 over Lamesa in Memorial Stadium here.

The Bulldogs and Tornados of the future fought on even terms throughout the scoreless first quarter. Late in the second quarter, Stu Chancelor, the Pup's left-handed passer, turned pass interceptor and gobbled up a Lamesa heave and went 15 yards to pay territory.

With the ice broken, Chancelor pegged to Brounley Parmley for a 40-yard scoring pass in the third quarter. Parmley ran 10 yards after taking the pellet.

Frank Midkiff completed the Midland scoring in the fourth quarter with a 10-yard line buck for a tally.

Run Extra Points. Bill Dillard ran over one Pup extra point and Frank Midkiff ran the other.

The Midland lineup: ENDS—Parmley, Robinson. TACKLES—Brounley, Whitley. GAUARDS—Scott, Hudson. CENTERS—Mills, Cutbirth. BACKS—Midkiff, Dillard, Sapp and Chancelor.

RESERVES—Frick, Vanderpool, Phillips, McNeese, Daniels, McBride, Welton and Landright. Midland made 10 first downs to two by Lamesa.

Former McCamey, Crane Grid Stars In College Game

McCAMEY—Three players from Crane and one from McCamey will be listed when Sul Ross College and McMurry College football teams collide in Monahans Saturday night. All will be on the Sul Ross roster.

Jake Davis, former McCamey High School backfield ace, is playing his first year for the Lobos. He captained the McCamey Badgers in 1943 and graduated here in 1944.

Bob Mathis, a former Crane captain and all-district end, is in his third year on the Sul Ross team. He is an end with the Lobos just as he was in high school.

Bobby Higdon of Crane is a three-sport man at Sul Ross. He has lettered three years at halfbacks for the Lobos and makes the basketball and track squads. He also was an all-district selection while in high school.

Dwain Stacy, another former Crane all-district candidate, is a freshman at Sul Ross. He is a back for the Lobos.

The Lobo-McMurry game is rated one of the best college "tits to be played in this area this year."

SMU Freshmen Top Texas Shorthorns

DALLAS (AP)—Sammy Stollenwerk's extra point gave the Southern Methodist University freshmen a 13-12 upset decision over the Texas Shorthorns Friday.

Stollenwerk's conversion came after one of two touchdowns scored by Bill Forester of Dallas.

Tom Stolhandske scored twice for Texas on short line plunges. Gib Dawson starred for the Shorthorns. He picked up 81 yards on 18 carries, returned three kick-offs for 112 yards and did a creditable job of punting.

Ted Shipkey, new football coach at Montana University, last season was coach of the Los Angeles Dons of the All-America Conference.

Porkers Run Over Texas A&M 27-6

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. (AP)—Ground-minded Arkansas overpowered the hapless Texas Aggies almost exactly as expected, 27 to 6, here Saturday.

The Razorbacks were 19-point favorites in the betting.

The victory before some 20,000 Arkansas home-comers evened the Razorbacks' Southwest Conference record at two wins and two defeats, and left A&M winless in three league starts.

The young Aggie team fought stubbornly to hold Arkansas to a one-point, 7-6 lead in the first half but couldn't withstand the pounding any longer.

Arkansas netted 293 yards rushing, most of it on short line jabs. Joe Dugan accounted for 105 yards on two runs, the only long ones of the afternoon for Arkansas.

While the Aggies could manage only 55 yards running into Arkansas' big line, they kept the game in doubt until the fourth quarter with sophomore Dick Gardema's sharp passing. He connected on 14 of 25 tosses for 143 yards.

A game-opening drive was stopped by a fumble at the A&M seven, but Arkansas began the scoring when a pass interception gave it the ball at the A&M ten on the next play. Don Logue passed two yards to Pat Summerall for a touchdown. Duval Thornton kicked his first of three extra points.

The Aggies started to roll with Gardema's passing eating up 42 of the 62 yards made in the march. His 12-yard toss to End Wray Whittaker brought the score early in the second period.

Jim Cashion fumbled the snap from center on the try for point and Bob Schaeffer was unable to kick. Dugan went 26 yards to the Aggie four on a Status of Liberty play to set up Arkansas' third-quarter touchdown. Louis Schaufele drove over from the one-yard stripe. He fumbled in the end zone and Teammate Bill Stencil recovered. Officials ruled Schaufele already was over and credited him with the score.

Yale Lary was smeared on the Aggie nine while trying to get off a fourth-down punt early in the final stanza. Geno Massant powered five yards for the game-icing tally.

Billy Bass intercepted a desperation pass by Gardema and ran 16 yards untouched for the Razorbacks' final marker.

Michigan Blasts Illinois 13 To 0

CHAMPAIGN, ILL. (AP)—The inspirational fury boiling within Illinois on "Bob Zupke Day" suddenly escaped into nothingness with a fumble two yards shy of a touchdown and Michigan took the cue to blast the Illini out of the Big Ten football lead 13-0 Saturday.

Hold out of Michigan territory in the first quarter and stalled on the Michigan 18 in the second, Illinois rocketed 78 yards in five plays midway in the third. Sophomore Johnny Karas streaked 56 yards on a double reverse and cut-back that set up the scoring opportunity.

Another sophomore, Ronnie Clark, then took turns with Karas as Illinois pushed to the four. Clark finally shot at the middle on the third down, but the ball squirted from him on the second and Walt Teninga recovered for the Wolverines.

Michigan captured a 7-0 lead in the second period on a 51-yard pass play from Chuck Ortmann to end Harry Ails.

The Wolverines' brother act of Don and Tom Peterson took charge of the second touchdown siege in the final period.

Abilene Eagles Drop Sweetwater Horses

SWEETWATER—A superior passing attack and hard ball playing gave the Abilene Eagles a 27 to 12 victory over the Sweetwater Mustangs in a District 9-A game here Friday night.

The passing of Hub Ingraham and the running of Prentice Martin aided the Abilene cause greatly. Both teams were offensive-minded. Neither punted during the contest.

Good Skate Notre Dame Sinks Navy

BALTIMORE, MD. (AP)—Machine-like Notre Dame bopped Navy Saturday 40 to 0, handing the Middies the worst defeat in their football series.

Showing their gridiron wares to an Eastern audience for the first time this season, the Fighting Irish broke the game wide open with a 20-point assault in the second quarter. They coasted from there on.

Navy made a whale of a game of it for one quarter, and part of the second. Then, zing, zing, came the touchdowns.

The chief Notre Dame slasher was Ernie Zaleski, a skittering left halfback. Zaleski scored three of the six Notre Dame touchdowns as he became the main actor in the affair.

Ernie Grabs One. Ernie got Notre Dame out in front in four minutes and 35 seconds of the opening period. He grabbed a 22-yard toss from Quarterback Bobby Williams on Navy's 25. He was in the clear, and merely romped the rest of the way.

After fooling around the rest of the period and stopping two amazing Navy drives, Notre Dame dropped the roof on the boys from Annapolis in the second quarter.

It was the 33rd straight game without a loss for Notre Dame, a new modern record. Army had shared the previous unbeaten mark with the Irish.

Keane's 98-Yard Run Gives Alpine Edge

ALPINE—Andy Joe Keane took a Reagan County High School punt on his own two yard line and raced 98 yards to paydirt to give the Alpine Bucks a 6 to 0 victory here Friday night.

Johnson, Marino and Miller played good ball for the team from Big Lake but didn't muster the scoring punch to win.

Iraan Braves Roll On With 14-6 Win

IRAAN—The Iraan Braves continued their undefeated season here Friday night, downing the Menard Yellowjackets 14 to 6 in a District 6-B game.

Sam Cox was the offensive power for Iraan. Menard's TD came after an Iraan fumble was recovered on the Braves' 14 and a clipping penalty moved the ball to the one.

Three Of Eight Who Escape Prison Still Evade Police Search

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — A manhunt for three gun-toting convicts still at large from a Delaware prison turned to Philadelphia Saturday after a cafe holdup which police said was pulled by two of them.

The two gunmen forced 15 patrons at Bill's Cafe to stand with their hands up while they took $85 out of the cash register and fled.

Police said victims of the taproom holdup were shown newspaper photographs of the escapees and positively identified the bandits as Willie Edwards, 28, and Joseph A. Lankford, 25, two of the three men still at large from New Castle County workhouse near Wilmington, Del.

Five Back In Prison

Five of the eight prisoners who broke out Wednesday night have been taken into custody and are in solitary confinement at the prison.

Delaware State Police Friday night captured Danny Norris, 30-year-old life-term murderer, and Victor M. Bryson, 20, at the home of Bryson's brother-in-law, John Andes, in Minquale, Del., not far from the prison.

The pair surrendered without a struggle.

A few hours later another prisoner, Edward Ernst, 25, Wilmington, walked into Penn Hill State Police Station about two miles north of Wilmington and told Capt. Harry S. Shaw: "I know you're looking for me. I want to surrender."

Thursday night Maryland State Police seized John Henry Minor, 28, Bear Creek, Fla., and Jesse W. Palmer, 23, Tusculum, Ala., after a wild highway chase at North East, Md.

Still at large besides Edwards and Lankford is Edward J. Hardy, 23, Gloucester, Mass. Lankford is from Beaufort, Del., and Edwards is from Satauma, Ala.

Two English Dog Breeds Declining

AF Newsfeatures

LONDON—Two famous breeds of dogs—the old English mastiff and the Newfoundland—have all but disappeared in Britain.

An official of the British kennel club reported that a recent count showed only seven old English mastiffs in the country.

It has been estimated that Newfoundlands are down to 13, he added. This official explained:

"These two breeds never were very popular and during the war many of the mastiffs were exported to America because of the feeding difficulties in this country."

"Now some Americans have been very kind and have returned one or two of the progeny of these dogs to Britain. They are among the seven remaining mastiffs here."

"With regard to the Newfoundlands there are only one or two from which it is possible to breed, but breeders are hopeful of being able to build up the stock again."

"These are the only two breeds that have been affected seriously by the war and it was chiefly on account of their size."

Brothers Reunited After Many Years

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Two brothers met here the other day for the first time in 47 years. Samuel and Leopold Austolker parted when Leopold left Latvia for South Africa in 1902. Later the rest of the family including Samuel came to Philadelphia.

Samuel changed his name to Stokler and started an auto accessory business in Baltimore. Leopold changed his name to Austoker and started a lumber business in Johannesburg. Both were successful.

At a family reunion here each brother said he lived in the country with the greatest opportunities.

Monahans Kicks Kermit Out With Surprise Victory

KERMIT—The defending State Class A Champion Monahans Lobos knocked the Kermit Yellowjackets right out of first place in the tight District 5-A race with a 13 to 7 victory here Saturday night. The loss dropped Kermit into a second-place tie with Andrews and boosted the Wink Wildcats into first place.

Monahans dominated the first half, staging two long drives to score. A stout Lobo defense held Kermit at bay when the Yellowjackets had the ball.

Carl Chumney, ace Monahans halfback, slipped over from the three to climax a 48-yard drive on the ground late in the first quarter. The try for point was no good.

Chumney again.

Midway of the second period, Chumney crossed from the four for the game-winning touchdown. Monahans had driven 45-yards on the ground with a bruising attack. No gain during the drive amounted to more than eight yards at one time.

Kermit fought back hard in the third quarter but some fine punting by Monahans kept the Yellowjackets off the field.

Taking the ball on its own 21 early in the fourth period after a Monahans punt, Kermit started mixing it up.

The Jackets took to the air with Jim Horry doing the chinking.

Horry pitched a long one to Wayne Culvahouse on the Monahans 35 with only two minutes to play and Culvahouse went the remaining distance to tie the double striped 29-29.

Following the return kickoff, Kermit regained possession of the ball after a punt and was in the midst of another drive when the game ended.

Monahans led in first downs 11 to nine.

Operating Deficit At Yale Disclosed

NEW HAVEN, CONN. — (AP) — Yale University showed an operating deficit of $526,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30.

Speaking at a convocation of alumni representatives at the university, Prescott S. Bush, a Fellow of the Yale Corporation, predicted that the decrease in income for the current year would reach $1,000,000.

The drop has been charged to a special reserve fund set up for post-war adjustments and contingencies which, Bush said, now has been pared to $190,000. He declared that the situation called for internal economies and strict budgetary controls, and added:

"It calls for an increase, also, in current income, both through substantial gains in the alumni fund and in endowment for faculty and scholarships."

Preservation of "Yale's pre-eminence," Bush asserted, "requires improvements and additions to our plant and buildings."

Jimson Weed Base Of Worm Operations

BERKELEY, CALIF. — (AP) — Tomato and Tobacco hornworms range farther than the two plants for which they are named, reports Dr. Harold T. Reynolds of the University of California. His studies show that these creatures use the Jimson weed (which nobody cares about) as a base of operations from which to attack potatoes, peppers, and eggplants.

Tomato and Tobacco hornworms are closely related by Dr. Reynolds says an entomologist can easily tell them apart. Both have been chewing up American plants since colonial days and they've recently got to be quite a pest in California.

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, OCT. 30, 1948-7

'B' Bulldogs Out Battle Odessa In Crushing 0-0 Tie

The Midland 'B' Bulldogs battled the Odessa 'B' Bronchos to a standstill in Memorial Stadium Saturday night and outclassed them with a fine offensive game in a 0-0 tie.

Never on a Midland football field in the last 10 years have we seen blocking and tackling like Coach Red Rutledge's 'B' boys displayed in the tilt. A heavier Odessa line cut noise with the fighting youngsters as they set the red-shirted team back on its heels.

Midland dominated offensive play throughout the game, playing most of the time in Odessa territory. Three times the Bulldogs were within 25 yards of a touchdown but each time a fumble or a penalty bogged the drive down.

The passing of Harold Hensley was great. He chunked 'em short and long.

Backs Shine

Dan Black, Hensley, Robert Melton, and Cutbirth ran the ball nicely both from a T formation and the single wing.

Hensley and Black ripped off the longest gains, each racking up sprints of 20-yards or more.

Guy Vanderpool and Underwood played first-class defensive ball in the middle of the Midland line.

Al Scoggins flat wore a bigger Odessa lineman out with bone-rattling blocks.

Frank Ingham was the outstanding defensive man of the ball game, all around. He recovered two Odessa fumbles, intercepted a pass and stopped the Odessa ground game plenty of times.

W. H. Black and Leo Hatfield intercepted passes and distinguished themselves with bruising tackles.

Melton Intercepted

Robert Melton intercepted two Broncho passes.

Midland held a wide edge in statistics getting seven first downs to three for Odessa and out-gaining the Bronchos 119 yards to 64 on the ground.

Odessa completed two passes for a total of 48 yards while Midland connected with three for 27 yards.

GUARDS — Scoggins and Baker.

CENTER—Van Buskirk.

BACKS—Hensley, Cutbirth, Melton and Dan Black.

'Who's Walker?' Asks Austin Youth

DALLAS — (AP) — Perhaps the least nervous of all spectators at the thrilling Southern Methodist-Texas football game Saturday was four-year-old Johnny Carter of Austin, mascot to the Texas cheerleaders.

Asked if he wanted to grow up to be a football player, Johnny allowed he'd rather be a cheerleader.

"Don't you want to be like Doak Walker?" he was asked.

"Who's he?" said Johnny.

Purdue Punctures Minnesota Bubble With 13-7 Upset

MINNESOTA — (AP) — Minnesota's bubble really burst Saturday. Purdue furnished the needle with a 13-7 upset victory.

It was a keyed-up Purdue squad that took the field. They were expected to lose by two to four touchdowns. But the Bollermakers showed in the first period they didn't believe it.

They tested the Gopher line and found it could be penetrated. Then they tried passes and found that they worked. The combination produced a touchdown for Purdue in the second period and, but for a piece of bad luck, might have added another score.

To insure their victory, the Bollermakers intercepted a pass and added another score in the fourth period.

It wasn't until the last period that the Gophers averted a shut-out by throwing two long passes to get within scoring range. Halfback Dick Lawrence did all the passing, with the ball going to End Bud Hausken for the lone Gopher tally. End Gordon Soltau added the point.

Southern Cal Bests Washington By Last Quarter Touchdowns

SEATTLE — (AP) — A couple of legs of football dynamite exploded for six touchdowns in a blazing second quarter Saturday, but Southern California outlasted a threatening University of Washington team for a 40 to 28 triumph.

WEST POINT, N. Y. — (AP) — The powerful Army Cadets coasted to victory Saturday over Virginia Military Institute 40 to 14.

After the brilliant Arnold Gallifia had propelled the Army regulars to a safe 27-0 margin at halftime, Coach Earl Bink sent in all the players he could locate, including his son, Bob. As a result the red-jerseyed visitors made quite a match of it in the last two quarters.

Toward the end of the third period, Taylor Hay, a substitute VMI end, made the longest run, a 77-yarder, after snatching an Army fumble out of the air. An intercepted pass and a 50-yard sprint by Halfback Fred Anson gave the Virginians their second score just before the contest ended.

Ohio State Buckeyes Beat Northwestern

COLUMBUS, OHIO — (AP) — Ohio State's once-beaten Bucks kept their Rose Bowl and Western Conference title hopes alive Saturday by beating Northwestern 24 to 7.

The victory before 81,872 fans put the Ohioans even with Iowa in the race for the Pasadena classic. Ohio State and Iowa each have won three games and lost one in conference play.

Scoring in every period, the Bucks dominated play all the way. Northwestern failed to reach the middle of the field in the first half, and staged but one sustained drive all day. That was a 74-yard march in 17 plays with Fullback Art Murakowski wheeling over from the three for the marker.

That brought the Wildcats up to a 10-7 deficit in the early part of the third period, but the Bucks deficit in the final minutes touched down to make it convincing.

Army Cadets Coast To Win Over VMI

WEST POINT, N. Y. — (AP) — The powerful Army Cadets coasted to victory Saturday over Virginia Military Institute 40 to 14.

After the brilliant Arnold Gallifia had propelled the Army regulars to a safe 27-0 margin at halftime, Coach Earl Bink sent in all the players he could locate, including his son, Bob. As a result the red-jerseyed visitors made quite a match of it in the last two quarters.

Toward the end of the third period, Taylor Hay, a substitute VMI end, made the longest run, a 77-yarder, after snatching an Army fumble out of the air. An intercepted pass and a 50-yard sprint by Halfback Fred Anson gave the Virginians their second score just before the contest ended.

Views Air Demonstration

Number Of Active Rotaries Increases In Permian Basin

On October 15 there were 411 active rotary drilling rigs in the Permian Basin of West Texas and Southeast New Mexico. That figure is from the regular semi-monthly survey of Reed Roller Bit Company.

The total of 411 active rigs on October 15 was only nine less than the 420 active rotaries which were working in the Permian Basin on Oct. 15, 1948.

The Oct. 15, 1949 total was an increase of 41 units over the 370 active rotaries in the West Texas-Southeast New Mexico region on October 1 of this year.

The Reed survey for the Permian Basin covers all territory in West Texas east of the east lines of Hall, Motley, Dickens, Kent, Scurry, Nolan, Runnels, Concho, Menard, Sutton and Val Verde County, and all territory south of the north lines of Hall, Briscoe, Swisher and Castro Counties, and in the south half of Deaf Smith County.

It also covers all of the southeast quarter of New Mexico.

Congressman Sees Increase In Imports Of Foreign Oil

AUSTIN—"It is obvious that the amount of foreign oil being imported is going to increase. The domestic industry to be subjected to a still further loss and embarrassment. To permit excessive imports of any commodity of which this country produces a surplus is wrong in principle. When domestic industries are weakened or destroyed, American standards of living must suffer accordingly."

That was the opinion expressed by Congressman Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls, who will address approximately 200 directors of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association in Abilene on November 1.

Davis Is New Man On Lion Land Staff

Lewis W. Davis is a new landman in the Midland division office of Lion Oil Company.

He came here from the company's headquarters at El Dorado, Ark., and will work with C. V. (Brick) Lisman, Lion's division landman, and his staff.

Davis and his family will be settled as Midland citizens as soon as they can find suitable housing accommodations.

Many Midlanders Are On Committees For Geological Society Of America Annual Meeting To Be In El Paso

The West Texas Geological Society, one of the largest regional chapters of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, will host the Geological Society of America and associated societies sixty-second annual meeting to be in El Paso, November 10 through 12. The associated societies are the Paleontological Society of America, the Mineralogical Society of America, the Society of Economic Geologists, and the Society of Vertebrate Paleontologists.

The Geological Society of America is one of the oldest geological associations in the United States. It has a worldwide membership, and embraces all phases of the geological sciences as distinguished from other societies which concentrate on one phase of geology as applied to industry.

First Time In West

Previous annual meetings of the GSA have been held in New York and other eastern cities because of the concentration in that area of scientific schools and faculties as well as centers of research. It is a distinct honor and privilege for the annual meeting of these affiliated groups to be held in this region, leaders at the West Texas Geological Society assert.

Registration will begin at 1 p. m., November 9, at the Cortez Hotel, in El Paso meeting headquarters.

This annual meeting has been organized by committees composed largely of Midland members of the West Texas Geological Society, and will be preceded by five field trips sponsored by the WTGS. The annual field trip has been expanded this year to include these five which completely cover the general geology of the Trans-Pecos and West Texas area, these trips being:

Trip No. 1: Petrology and igneous geology of the Big Bend area—Marathon.

Trip No. 2: Cenozoic geology of the Llano Estacado and Rio Grande Valley-Lubbock.

Trip No. 3: Central Mining District, New Mexico—Silver City, N. M.

Trip No. 4: Permian rocks of the Trans-Pecos region—Alpine.

Trip No. 5: Pre-Permian rocks of Trans-Pecos area and of Southern New Mexico—Alpine.

All trips will be by car, originating at the above listed points and terminating in El Paso, Wednesday, November 9.

Some Trips Are Open

Reservations are being good on all trips, but there are still a few vacancies, particularly in the Big Bend trip, which will cover both the igneous and sedimentary geology of the area, and in the trip covering the Cenozoic geology of the Llano Estacado, through Snyder, in Scurry County, through Lubbock, Clovis and Santa Fe, N. M., and the upper Rio Grande Valley. Those who plan to attend any of the trips but have not yet made arrangements with the field trip committee should do so immediately by contacting Robert E. LeBond, at Tide Water Association Oil Company, chairman for the Big Bend trip, L. E. (Ed) Patterson, at Cities Service Petroleum Company, chairman of the Llano Estacado trip, or John M. Hills, suite 21, Permian Building in Midland, general chairman of all the field trips.

Need More Cars

It is understood that the Llano Estacado trip needs more men who can provide cars transporting some of those who have no transportation. Reservations for a field trip do not include accommodations in El Paso for the meeting.

The field trip committee of the West Texas Geological Society has expended considerable time and effort in the compilation of guide books, consisting of road logs, maps, and other data, covering each trip. No advance sale of these guide books is being made except upon payment of the full registration fee for the particular field trip. Extra copies of these guide books may be obtained at the conclusion of each trip and also in El Paso at meeting headquarters.

Committees Assigned

Committees in charge of arrangements for the meeting are:

Ronald K. DeFord, general chairman; L. A. Nelson, W. A. Waldschmidt, vice chairman; E. Russell Lloyd, treasurer; L. A. Nelson, reservations, rooms and travel; George R. Ginson, Alan J. Leeper and R. D. Chambers, session rooms and equipment; Berte R. Haigh, John A. Wilcox, Clay T. Smith and Gerald H. Bartley, exhibits; Dana M. Secor and Lewis Burleson, annual dinner; Addison Young, E. Leg Thackery and Waring Bradley, luncheons; Carl F. Barnhart, Robert L. Clarke, W. B. Clark, Gayle P. Crawford, Howard E. Davis, I. B. Hamilton, and R. C. Spivey, registration and information; Robert I. Dickey, smoker; Robert N. Watson, excursion and entertainment; W. B. Strain, bulletin boards and communications; Mrs. Thomas P. Clendenin, ladies entertainment, and Alden S. Donnelly and C. H. Atchison, publicity.

A schedule of the program and special events for the meeting will be published later.

Albuquerque Is Site Of NMO&GA Annual Meet November 30

ROSWELL — The 21st annual meeting of the New Mexico Oil & Gas Association will be held in Albuquerque, November 30, it was announced by Art McQuiddy, executive secretary of the group.

"We expect this to be one of the best meetings in the history of our association, and anticipate a large attendance not only from oil men of New Mexico, but also from other states in the southwest," McQuiddy said.

He went on to explain that an outstanding speaker from Washington has been invited to make the main address of the meeting at the annual banquet of the group, which will be held in the dining room of the Alvarado Hotel.

The membership of the New Mexico Oil & Gas Association is comprised of individuals and companies engaged in the production of oil and gas in the state, as well as those engaged in the business of leasing lands for oil and gas production and those holding royalty interests in oil and gas production in the state.

Emery Carper, pioneer oil man of Artesia, is president of the association. Other officers include Van S. Welch, vice president; Harry Leonard, treasurer; and John Kelly, F. J. Dangle, R. L. Hendrickson, J. N. Dunlavy and W. B. Macey, members of the executive committee.

Van Den Bark Heads Geological Staff Of Phillips In District

Edwin Van Den Bark is the new district geologist in Midland for Phillips Petroleum Corporation for West Texas and Southeast New Mexico.

He succeeds M. H. (Jack) Steig, who held the position several years. Steig has taken a leave of absence on account of his health.

Fred W. Forward has been named assistant geologist, to fill the place formerly held by Van Den Bark.

Started in 1939

After going to work for Phillips at the concern's headquarters in Bartlesville, Okla., in 1939, Van Den Bark came to Midland in 1942 and was in the district office of the concern here until 1942 when he went into military service.

When he was released from service in 1946 he was assigned to the Phillips district office at Corpus Christi, and worked there until the middle of 1947, when he was returned to Midland.

Van Den Bark was named assistant district geologist for Phillips in this territory in 1948 and held that position until his recent promotion to the "head man's" place.

Kolm Is Program Chairman For MGS

Paul H. Kolm is the new program chairman of the Midland Geological Society. He succeeds F. H. McGuigan who held the place the last 12 months.

Kolm announces that he is planning an interesting program for the next meeting of the organization. That session will be at 12 noon on November 15. It will be in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

L. E. Patterson, new president of the MGS will preside at the November 15 meeting.

Stanolind Builds Pipe Line To Serve Knowles Oil Field

A new six-mile, four-inch pipe line is being built to serve the Knowles-Devonian field in Central-East Lea County, New Mexico.

The field is just north of the town of Knowles and only a short distance west of the west lines of Gaines county, Texas.

The line is being built by Stanolind Pipe Line Company and will go from the Jones Ranch field in extreme Northwest Gaines County into the Knowles pool.

To Stanolind Trunk

At the Jones Ranch station it will connect with Stanolind's system which feeds into the concern's 16-inch trunk oil carrier from the Slaughter station in Hockley County to Cushing, Okla.

The new line will be in operation soon. The Knowles field has two completed producers from the Devonian and a third exploration in that area is due to start testing in that formation in a few days.

Up to now Amerada Petroleum Corporation has the only oil wells in that field.

Stratigraphic Panel On Nomenclature Is Selected By WTGS

A committee has been activated by the West Texas Geological Society to be known as "Committee on Stratigraphic Nomenclature," W. T. (Bill) Schneider, president of the organization has announced.

The purpose of the committee is to represent the society to individuals, to other regional societies, national committees, and other organizations of national or international scope on matters of stratigraphic nomenclature.

It is also to serve as arbiter in differences of opinion arising from stratigraphic nomenclature in West Texas and New Mexico.

The committee will assist authors, students and other geologists in using correct stratigraphic and nomenclature.

Members of the committee include E. Russell Lloyd, chairman, Ronald K. DeFord, John M. Hills, T. S. (Ted) Jones, and R. V. Hollingsworth.

Wildcat--

of the Woodford shale at 12,295 feet to the top of the Devonian at 12,345 feet.

Its geological position is said to be satisfactory and it is expected to be completed as a producer from the Devonian, the pay section in the two wells so far finished in the Knowles field.

Will Drill Deeper

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Poster, slated 8,000-foot prospect, four miles south of Hobbs, in Central-East Lea County, and 19 1/2 feet from south and east lines of section 23-19-38E, was bottomed at 3,880 feet in lime, and was to start making new hole as soon as a string of intermediate casing which had been set on the present bottom was securely cemented.

It is projected to the Drinkard zone of the lower Permian.

Idaho Mayor Doesn't Like High Position

ABERDEEN, IDAHO —(AP)—The mayor of this potato town of 1,500 people doesn't like the job — he'd rather farm. Keeping pigs out is one of the troubles of Mayor James Chapman, 58. It's against the law to raise 'em in town.

"This stuff of telling people what to do isn't in my line," Chapman says. "I'm not cut out to have all that power." But Aberdeen, where there are more churches than filling stations, insisted that Chapman take a second two-year term. He said "people just figured I'd be able to devote more time to the mayor's job than anyone else." His salary is $75 a year.

Story Comes Back To Midland To Be Hancock Landman

Hugh Story is back in Midland as district landman in the Permian Basin for Hancock Oil Company of California, a new oil exploration and development concern for the Permian Basin.

Headquarters for Hancock are at Long Beach, Calif. The concern maintains its Mid-Continent office at San Antonio. Rae Freese is general manager for the company in the Mid-Continent.

The Hancock offices in Midland are at 104 Wilkinson-Poster Building.

Story left Midland in June of 1948 to go to Wichita Falls to be district geologist in North and West-Central Texas for Cities Service Oil Company. He held that position until he resigned recently to return to this city to go to work for Hancock.

Prior to going to Wichita Falls he was assistant district landman in Midland for two years for Cities Service for West Texas and Southeast New Mexico.

Dirt, Squirt and Quirt

— FARM, DAIRY AND RANCH NEWS —

Rain again last week hampered the cotton picking in Midland County. It was not until Thursday that cotton began rolling in to the three gins here, in any appreciable amount. Total bales ginned for the week was 610 to bring the season's figure to 5,710.

The number of bales ginned week before last was 645, which also was below par, owing to wet weather. The picker situation continues tight in the county. The Texas Employment Commission office here says it still can place at least 1,000 pickers, but no bracers have been reported brought in from Mexico to pick the crop here. Pickers were being paid $2 per hundred last week.

The Midland County PMA Committee, headed by W. E. Pig, chairman, and County PMA Supervisor Charles Champion will attend a district meeting of the setup Wednesday in Big Spring. Among topics to be discussed is the marketing quota referendum.

Members of the Pecos County Sheriff's posse will be in McCamey Sunday afternoon to match roping skills with members of the Upton County Sheriff's posse at the Upton County Fair Grounds just south of McCamey. The roping will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Highlighting events of the day will be a match race tie down, with 12 members of each organization roping two calves, with the lowest aggregate time of the teams winning. Other events will include a bell roping event and jackpot calf roping.

The Upton County team defeated the Pecos ropers at Fort Stockton two weeks ago.

The Texas weekly crop and weather bulletin for last week reports that pastures continue to supply abundant feed in practically all parts of the state. General weekend rains added further to moisture reserves in all areas and assured good early growth of winter weeds, rescue grass, and clovers. Wheat pastures in the northwest were supplying an increasing amount of grazing. Some eastern Panhandle counties needed additional stock to utilize the rank growing wheat pasture. All classes of livestock were in good to excellent condition. Replacement cows, heifers, ewes and ewe lambs were in demand.

The big capacity pasture of Steve Currie, Glasscock County rancher, draws comment in the November issue of Capper's Farmer.

"When Currie seeded an irrigated mixture pasture he got more grazing than he expected," the story relates. "Water and a variety of grasses gave a 70-acre field capacity for 90 grown cows and their calves during the summer. The mixture included southern smooth brome, perennial ryegrass, orchard grass, fescue, crested wheatgrass, alfalfa and ladino clover."

Gins in the Pecos area are turning out approximately 800 bales of cotton daily, with the harvesting in full swing. Capacity of the gins is around 1,000 bales daily.

Approximately 5,000 head have been brought into Reeves County this year to assist in gathering the big crop. Some 17,000 bales have been ginned.

Although at least 2,000 more pickers could be used in that sector, the farmers reportedly plan to get along with the pickers already there. Most of the Mexican nationals are working under three-month contracts which expire in December and January.

H. M. Reynolds, former Midlander who owns and operates Mac's Meat Company at Stanton, says range conditions over this country are excellent and cattle are fatter than he ever has seen them. He is finding plenty of cattle for slaughter and says the average price on all classes of cattle is around 21 1/2 cents.

Mac's Meat Company slaughters about 30 head of cattle a week.

Experts have come up with some rather discouraging information in a report on losses from erosion and soil starvation.

It is said there are approximately 450,000 acres of cropland in the nation, of which 5,000,000 acres have been destroyed beyond repair. Another 50,000,000 acres are so badly damaged they are considered marginal or sub-marginal. And still another 100,000,000 acres are losing topsoil rapidly.

The experts blame this degeneration on the fact that each year about 2,000,000 tons of phosphate out of the soil and replace only about 800,000 tons. They say it is imperative that phosphate fertilizers be available to farmers at the lowest possible costs. Steps are being taken in this direction, the report states.

Reports from out Pecos way are that Buck Jackson has purchased 400 head of Brahman heifers from Jess Burner. Jackson also has purchased 25 calves from Bill Collier and 100 head from Mrs. T. Collier and Son of Pecos. Still the buyer, Buck got 80 head of stocker cattle from Will Collins of Toyah and 100 calves and yearlings from Winston and Elsworth of Pecos.

Seller Buck Jackson disposed of 110 stocker cattle to J. M. Hickey and Son of Fort Worth, and 240 heifers to Miller, Fisher and Arnold of Pecos and Marathon.

Rural Youth Day at the recent State Fair at Texas set a record for the number of farm and ranch youth ever assembled at a single point when 75,000 swarmed the Dallas exposition grounds. Must have been quite a gathering.

Total attendance for the 16-day fair was 2,047,540, an increase of 135,000 over the year previous.

Jess Burner, Pecos, recently purchased 600 calves from the Anderson Estate, also of Pecos.

Commercial hatcheries in Texas produced 2,000,000 chicks during September according to the monthly report of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. This hatch was 33 per cent above September, 1948, output which was approximately average for the month and exceeded by four per cent the previous record high of 1,920,000 chicks hatched during September, 1942.

Taking first, second and third places in individual endeavor, the Texas Tech wool judging team took top honors in the third annual American Royal in Kansas City recently. The victory gave the second leg toward capturing the Kansas City Star award which went to Texas Tech in 1947 and 1949.

High individual honors were won by W. C. Davis, Sterling City member of the Tech team. Second place was taken by Buddy Winters, Lamesa, and third by Ewing McIntire, Sterling City. James Waddell, Sweetwater, was the fourth member of the Tech team, coached by H. Ray Burkhardt, assistant professor of animal husbandry.

The first national show of a new breed of turkeys, Beltsville Whites, will be held as a feature of the 1950 Southwestern Exposition and Flat Stock Show in Fort Worth.

At the same time, a meeting of the Texas Turkey Federation, of which Joe Fechtler of Dallas is president, will take place.

The new breed, small white bird—derives its name from the United States Experiment Station at Beltsville, Md., where it was originated. Dr. Stanley Marsden, the originator, has been invited to attend the show and to address the Texas Turkey Federation.

Many types of trees and shrubs have proved their value under growing conditions found in West Texas, according to S. E. Keating of the Big Spring Field Station, who has been testing trees and shrubs for use in this section. A report on the project is available through the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, county agents.

Keating's report of the project is to give ranchmen and farmers of this area suggestions on the selection and use of trees and shrubs which will do well in this part of the state. Many species have been grown since the establishment of the station, both in field plantings with cultivation and in actual landscape plantings, he says.

Among the evergreen shrubs that have proved well are abies, agave, cactus, Texas silversia, evergreen euonymus, firethorn, Pfitzer juniper and the privet.

More than 20 deciduous shrubs are described and most have done well in the Big Spring tests. Among this group are the Amur honeysuckle, beautybush, bird-of-paradise, chastetree (lilac & cut-leaf), Chinese lilac, desert willow, redbud, Yambouit spiraea and many others which can be seen in the homestead landscape plantings.

Keating's report describes five species of vines which have done well. They are English ivy, ever-blooming honeysuckle, green-wreath mountain laurel, coralvine, silvertine fleecflower and Virginia creeper.

Shade trees, says Keating, should have first consideration in the landscape plans for the farm or ranch home. In planting shade trees, the inroads synthetic fibers have made into consideration to avoid crowding later, he says. The Siberian or Chinese elm, American elm, green ash, velvet ash, thornless honeylocust and the native hackberry are all adapted to this section.

The Arizona cypress, Italian cypress, Chinese arbutus, Rocky Mountain juniper and red cedar are the evergreen trees that have done best.

Improved methods in cotton classing are being developed in a new laboratory of the Cotton Research Committee just completed at the University of Texas. Work done in the laboratory will help meet the needs of the synthetic fibers have made in the domain of King Cotton.

The new laboratory is equipped with instruments which measure length, length uniformity, strength, fineness and maturity of cotton. All measurements will be made under controlled conditions. The air-conditioning system designed for the laboratory is so equipped that it will be possible to simulate various weather conditions, which will make it possible to observe the effect of differences in temperature and humidity on the cotton fiber.

West Texas farmers are urged to cut the roots of grain sorghums as soon as combining operations have finished to prevent further moisture loss in the soil.

Dr. A. W. Young, head of the plant industry department at Texas Technological College, says a "Hoeme" or chisel-type plow with sweeps will cut the roots and leave stubble to act as a wind and water erosion controlling agent.

"Stubble form a barricade that will save farmers a great deal of their best soil if properly managed," Dr. Young explained.

Caller Sets Pace For Western Dance

'Swing Your Partners ...' Pioneer Day Dances Lure Two Midlanders Into Near-Careers As Instructors And Callers

By SUE COLEMAN

Father Not Enthusiastic had called dances in his youth, that she was practicing the art, he promptly replied that a woman cannot call square dances. Mrs. Halfast has found that idea in other quarters, too, and has had to demonstrate to prove her ability to some doubters.

She believes that a woman can call as well as a man if she has the important quality of rhythm, knows the dance steps thoroughly and has a voice loud enough and clear without being shrill. Voices which are pitched unpleasantly high cause much of the dislike for women callers, she thinks.

From calling occasionally at club dances, she progressed to acting as guest caller in clubs which were being organized, to instructing adults and children's groups and finally to regular caller and teacher of new square dance groups in the city.

Last Spring she conducted weekly square dances in the Midland had called dances in his youth, that she was practicing the art, he promptly replied that a woman cannot call square dances.

Neither Mrs. Halfast nor Johnson is a product of the old school of square dancing, the popular pastime of pioneers in West Texas. Both grew up in the period between its original popularity and its modern revival, and learned to square dance after they were adults.

Mrs. Halfast saw some square dancing when she was a girl, but she and her friends considered it an outmoded rural entertainment and preferred the big apple. It was the housing shortage that really interested her in the old-time dancing.

When the Halfasts moved to Midland several years ago, they lived in a hotel until a house was available, and there they saw the dances of the Roundup Club, the leader of the square dance revival in Midland.

The women in ruffled dresses and the men in Western garb, that group danced the old figures expertly and the Halfasts were impressed enough to persuade some friends to try it after they had a house of their own to dance in.

Their first effort was to clear the furniture from a friend's home and practiced there. Their enthusiasm attracted other dancers, and that was the beginning of the Sashaway Square Dance Club, one of the largest in the city now.

Mrs. Halfast had her first experience as an instructor as she helped teach new members. She has served the club as president.

She learned to dance well, some of the club members became interested in calling. Halfast wanted one of them, and Mrs. Halfast wanted to try it too. Her first attempt remains keenly in her memory.

"I surely got them in a mess," she summarizes the experiment briefly. But she was not discouraged, and began practicing calls to radio music while she was washing dishes or doing other household chores, hoping that the neighbors would not begin to doubt her sanity.

She had noticed that while dancing that the best callers had that best rhythm, so she practiced that especially. Soon she was able to keep a roomful of dancers moving smoothly.

When she wrote her father, who was organized, to instructing adults and children's groups and finally to regular caller and teacher of new square dance groups in the city.

Both, however, subordinate square dancing to their major jobs. In Mrs. Halfast's case, it takes second place to her home and family, husband Ed and 12-year-old son Eddie. For Johnson, it is recreation after his day's work with the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

'Mounted Trusty Horse...' Demure Mrs. Stall Likes Action In Western Stories She Writes

By FRANCES HAGAMAN

It doesn't take a rough and tumble cowboy to write Western stories. Sometimes they can be done by a woman who would look more natural behind a teacup than a typewriter.

Although Mrs. W. A. Stall is a small, rather demure woman, she has written Western stories for years and loves them.

Drinking and gambling scenes are her favorites and she intensely dislikes love plots.

"I like to write action stories," she says, "and think they are easier to do than the types of stories we find in American women's magazines. As long as you can keep your characters moving, they are much easier to get in and out of situations than if you just have them sitting and talking."

Few readers however would recognize her as Mrs. Stall, because for writing she uses her maiden name, L. or Louise Isbell. Her Western stories have been published in "Romantic Range" and other Street and Smith publications.

But her stories are not confined to Westerns and she has written for Fleetway House, an English publishing firm, and for the Farm Journal and Capper's Monthly. The English magazines were directed toward the home, and two for which she has written are "Woman and Home" and "Woman's Companion."

Spring, who writes under the name of Mary Barr Scott. Together they have written several serials.

"I've learned to write the hard way," Mrs. Stall says. "I think that perhaps young writers can learn a lot more from sitting down and writing than they can from spending their time hunting people to teach them to write."

She added that young writers usually do not want to go to enough trouble for their stories. They are not willing to work at polishing them and making every word exactly what they want.

"When my story goes out," she says, "I have done the best I can do at that time. Of course, I may be able to go back years later and improve it, but not then."

Mrs. Stall added that she is meticulous in her work and always has wanted her manuscripts to be as perfect as it is possible for her to make them.

She said her own work for many years and says she feels this is good experience for young writers because when they see their own manuscripts come back they soon get over the disappointments of not selling.

Chinese Loyalists Admit Losses, Plan Counterblow At Reds

CHUNGKING, CHINA.—(AP)—The Chinese Nationalists Saturday conceded Communist capture of Yungkuang, 90 miles northeast of Kweilin, and said heavy fighting was in progress near Fenghuang, 210 miles southeast of Chungking.

Kweilin is a major Nationalist base in Kwangsi Province 350 miles southeast of Chungking.

Fenghuang, where the Nationalists said 20,000 Reds were attacking, is a gateway to Kweichow Province, which lies between Kwangsi Province and Chungking's Szechwan Province.

The top Nationalist generals, however, were gathering in Chungking for a conference which one of them said was intended to make Southwest China an inviolable fortress and a base for an eventual counter-offensive.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, who will be 63 years old Monday, is expected to arrive from Formosa in a few days. Already in this provincial capital are Generals Pai Chung-hai from Kwangsi and Hu Tsung-nan from the front north of Chungking. Their commands, estimated at about 200,000 and 175,000 men, respectively, are the two largest of the Nationalists here.

Bodies Of Azores Crash Victims To Be Flown To Paris

PONTA DELGADA, SAO MIGUEL, THE AZORES.—(AP)—The bodies of Marcel Cerdan, the French boxer, and 47 other persons killed in the crash of an Air France Constellation in the Azores will be flown to Paris, the company announced Saturday.

A special plane is being sent Sunday to Santa Maria, which has the major airport in these Portuguese islands, to collect the bodies. It is expected to return to Paris Monday. A French technical mission headed by Civil Aviation Inspector Louis Mirepoix Saturday was at the scene where the big airliner, north of its normal course, crashed into the side of a mountain on this island.

National Forest's Dedication Held

PACKWOOD, WASH.—The Gifford Pinchot National Forest of more than 1,400,000 acres was dedicated recently. At the exercises, Lyle F. Watts, chief of the United States Forest Service, declared that conservation ideas and forces set in motion by the late Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania may determine the future security and prosperity and progress of this nation.

"They may, indeed," Watts added, "determine the future welfare of the entire human race." Foresters from all over the country assembled at the La Wis Wis recreation area, 15 miles from this community and 95 miles southeast of Seattle, for the dedication ceremony. Pinchot, while serving as chief forester under President Theodore Roosevelt in 1908, set aside a vast region embracing mountains, lakes and woodland in the State of Washington as "Columbia National Forest." The change in name was authorized by President Truman.

Midland Firemen Win At Convention In Fort Stockton

PORT STOCKTON—A six-man scramble outfit from the Midland Fire Department won third place in that event at the Permian Basin Firemen's Association Convention here Saturday. On the Midland team were Newel Beauchamp, Marvin Beauchamp, Grady Brown, Leon Griffith, Earl Baker and John Bourke. Firemen from throughout the Permian Basin were here for the convention. Olin Cuberson, member of the Texas Railroad Commission, was the principal speaker for the event. H. R. Brayton and Frank Williams of the Texas A&M Extension Service also spoke. A barbecue was held at Rooney Park at 6 p.m. and a dance followed at 9 p.m. The Fort Stockton Fire Department was host for the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Leave For Tullia Home

Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne Davis will leave this weekend for Tullia, Texas, where Davis Monday will assume his new duties as manager of the Tullia Chamber of Commerce. He has been assistant manager of the Midland Chamber the last 18 months. He served as secretary general of the annual Midland County Fair the last two years, and also was active in JayCees, Lions Club and Reserve Officer Affairs. Chamber officials indicated the assistant manager's post here will not be filled until after the first of the year.

Steel-Coal—

Costs Held Down By Careful Budget

By DREW CAMPBELL Midland and Midland County would support the Community Chest because each contributor to the Community Chest is assured that his donation will purchase the maximum in service. All expenditures by Chest agencies are budgeted. The budgets are itemized and must be reviewed in detail and approved by the budget committee of the Chest, before they are submitted to the Chest board, which has the responsibility of final approval. The budget committee is composed of business men and women who spend long hours in careful review of all agency requests to see that costs are not excessive and to eliminate all unnecessary expenditures. These are some of the reasons why I contribute to the Community Chest.

Bride To Live In Midland

Mrs. James Lockert Sleeper, Jr.

Smith-Sleeper Vows Repeated In Church

Mr. and Mrs. James Lockert Sleeper, Jr., who will reside in Midland after a trip to Mexico City, were married in an evening ceremony in St. Clement's Episcopal Church, El Paso, Saturday. The bride is the former Elizabeth Smith of Midland and El Paso.

Hayslip-Slitter Marriage In Chicago Told

Announcement of the marriage of Barbara Hayslip of Midland and Warren Slitter, who was a member of the Midland Indians Baseball Club during the 1949 season, is made by the bride's sister, Mrs. Irene Humphrey, with whom she made her home.

The wedding was solemnized in the Lorimer Memorial Baptist Chapel in Chicago on October 22, and the couple will be at home in Chicago through the winter. Slitter's contract has been purchased by the Gainesville baseball team of the State League and they expect to live there next summer.

Mrs. Slitter is the daughter of Mrs. Macey Hayslip of Idabel, Okla., and W. H. Hayslip of Atlanta, Ga. Slitter's parents live in Chicago.

Attendants for the wedding were Dorothy Hackman, maid of honor, and Lenord Lindroth, best man, both of Chicago. The bride wore a gown of satin and lace and a lace hat with scalloped brim, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony, with the bridegroom's parents as hosts, and the couple cut the wedding cake. Friends who filled the chapel for the wedding also were reception guests.

The bride, who was graduated from Midland High School with the 1949 class, was introduced to the Slitter family friends at two parties in Chicago before the wedding.

DAR's Will Elect Divisional Delegate

A delegate to the divisional meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be elected at a meeting of the Lieut. William Brewer chapter Tuesday. Mrs. W. Hamilton and Mrs. Dan Hudson will be hostesses to the group in Mrs. Hamilton's home, 1110 West Texas Street.

The divisional meeting will be for Divisions 1 and 2 and will be in the Longhorn Room of Hotel Texas in Fort Worth November 10. The general theme of the program for the Tuesday meeting will be centered around Indians, beginning in colonial times and continuing through a general discussion of the American Indian.

BETA DELTA DINNER A formal dinner and pledge ritual is scheduled by the Beta Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Thursday night. The meeting will start at 6:30 p.m. in the home of the chapter sponsor, Mrs. W. T. Pratt, 211 West Kansas Street.

MEETING CANCELED The Midland Garden Club meeting which was scheduled for Thursday has been canceled because of the flower show Wednesday.

Vows Said In Simple Service

Before her marriage Friday morning, Mrs. Charles F. Wilson was Jane Marie Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Frank Johnson of Midland. The wedding ceremony was read by the Rev. R. N. McCollum, rector, in St. John's Episcopal Church at Odessa.

Members of the bride's immediate family were the only witnesses for the simple service, and the couple left afterward for a trip with an unannounced destination. They will live in Midland after the return.

Miss Johnson was married in a navy blue suit with matching accessories, the costume brightened by a hat of better times shade. She carried a white prayer book with a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Waldo Grossman, who was dressed in royal blue velvet. J. V. Terrell of Odessa was the best man. The bride's mother, her brother, James Frank Johnson, and Grossman went from Midland to witness the ceremony.

A graduate of Midland High School and the University of Texas, Mrs. Wilson has been an independent geologist here for several years. She is a member of Beta Delta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, and served last year as president of the City Beta Sigma Phi Council. Wilson is employed as a land man for Republic Natural Gas Company.

Hallow'een Carnivals To Be Monday Night In All City Schools

This year marks the tenth anniversary of Parent-Teacher Association sponsored Hallow'een Carnivals in Midland. Since the first carnival was held at North Elementary School in 1939, the City Parent-Teacher Council has acted as coordinator of the different school carnivals.

This year, carnivals will be held Monday night at Midland High School, Junior High School, West Elementary, South Elementary, North Elementary and Terminal. The primary purpose of the carnivals each year is to entertain the school children on Hallow'een night, the council has announced.

Also, they are the only money-making projects of the P-T-A units during the year. No funds or materials are solicited for the carnivals.

The carnivals have grown each year since 1939, when the City Council was asked to take a hand in organizing them, and each year parents and teachers work together to make them something enjoyable for both children and grown-ups.

The carnivals this year include such entertainment as horse-back riding, a magician, spook houses, fish ponds, museums, doll beauty contests and many other types of games.

Girls Of Troop 10 Aid TB Seal Sale

Girl Scout troops of Midland are taking turns working in the office of the Midland County Tuberculosis Association, folding the Christmas seals which will go on sale Friday in the annual tuberculosis program to raise funds for the work.

Troop 10 was on duty Friday. Members working were Joan FitzGerald, Ann Fitzgerald, Carolyn Paris, Evelyn Hubbard, Dorothy Black and Barbara Delany. The troop leaders are Mrs. J. J. Black and Mrs. W. H. Carter.

Other intermediate and senior troops will continue the work this week. The folded seals are to be mailed to county residents when the sale begins, with letters explaining how the association uses the money raised by Christmas seal sales to prevent and control tuberculosis in this community and over the nation.

Bridge Tournament Announced At Golf Association Luncheon

A bridge tournament for women of the Midland Country Club and their out-of-city guests, to be held next Friday and Saturday in the clubhouse, was announced at the luncheon of the Ladies Golf Association in the club dining room Friday.

Mrs. Nelson Puett, social chairman of the association, said the tournament will be sponsored by the club and the Golf Association. The games will start at 2 p.m. Friday and each person who enters must have a partner. Refreshments will be served each afternoon and prizes will be awarded.

For members who prefer canasta to bridge, tables will be reserved for that game also. One November Luncheon Because of the holiday weekends in November and the fact that the bridge tournament will occupy next weekend, the Golf Association will have only one luncheon in the month. It will be on November 18, when the French Heels Club will present a style show and the hostesses will be Mrs. Ted Love, Mrs.

Weds Saturday Morning

Mrs. LeRoy Gibson

Couple Marry, To Live Here

A morning ceremony Saturday was read in the sacristy of St. Ann's Catholic Church when Dorothy Mudd of Anson was married to LeRoy Gibson of Midland. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mudd of Anson and his parents are Mrs. Annie L. Gibson of Anahauk and W. O. Gibson of Houston.

The Rev. Francis Taylor read the double-ring ceremony before an improvised altar banked with baskets of white gladiolus and asters. Floor candelabra holding white candles stood on either side of the altar.

Mrs. C. J. Scheffler of Odessa was her twin sister's only attendant and Pat Duncan of Midland was best man.

The bride wore a semi-formal navy blue moire taffeta dress. The fitted bodice had a low sweetheart neck with a rolled collar and long pointed sleeves. The very full circular skirt was gathered on each side at the waist.

Her headdress was a bridal wreath of pink flowers with a navy sash and pointed sleeves. Her shoes were navy suede pumps and her only jewelry was a tiny strand of pink beads.

For her bouquet, she carried a prayer book covered with white satin and topped with a white orchid surrounded with stephanotis.

Mrs. Scheffler wore a pink taffeta dress with low sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. The full skirt had a draped effect across the front and gathered to a bustle in the back. On her head she wore a navy taffeta wreath with a ruffled effect, sprinkled with tiny pink flowers. Her pumps were navy suede and her hair was styled in a bun.

Top Musicians Star In Film Which Club Will Sponsor Here

The roster of "Carnegie Hall," the motion picture to be sponsored locally November 9 and 10 by the Civic Music Club, reads like a "Who's Who" and features 14 of the world's finest artists as well as many top-notch screen stars.

"Carnegie Hall" is to be shown in the Yucca Theater at popular prices, with members of the Civic Music Club as sponsors. Mrs. J. B. Koenig is president of the club. The motion picture is one of the programs which the club brings to Midland each season as part of its aim of supplying good music for hearers in the city.

Star musical performers include Pianist Artur Schnabel; Conductor Bruno Walter; Cellist Gregor Piatigorsky; Mezzo-Soprano Ruse Stevens; Basso Solo Pinaas; Dance Band Leader Vaughn Monroe; Conductors Leopold Stokowski, Fritz Reiner, Arturo Rodinski, and Walter Damrosch; Coloratura Lily Pons; Violinist Jascha Heifetz; Tenor Jan Peerce, and Harry James the trumpeter.

Shooting of the picture was done principally on the stage and in the auditorium of the world-famed temple of music. The story unfolds the half-century history of the hall which was built and opened in 1891 by the late Andrew Carnegie. Day by day before shooting began, workmen swarmed through the hall.

Other members present were Mrs. J. Earl Wilson, Mrs. Bert Goodman, Mrs. Walter Goodman, Mrs. J. D. Dillard, Mrs. Love, Mrs. Henry Oliver, Mrs. W. H. Black, Mrs. A. Knickerbocker, Mrs. Richard Hughton, Mrs. L. E. Patterson, Jr., Mrs. J. H. Chapple, Mrs. H. C. Hood, and Mrs. Bill Barker.

Married In Church Ceremony

Mrs. Hulin Floyd Copeland

Wedding Read In Dimmitt

In an evening ceremony Saturday, Mary Jean Webb of Midland and Hulin Floyd Copeland of Gainesville were married in the First Methodist Church of Dimmitt. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Holland Webb of Dimmitt and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Copeland of Austin.

The Rev. Horace Brooks, pastor, read the double-ring ceremony before an altar with baskets of bluish pink gladiolus and carnations and floor candelabra filled with bluish pink candles on either side.

Before the ceremony, Nolan Froehner sang "I Love Thee" (Grieg). He was accompanied on the organ by Ray McIntire, cousin of the bride, who played several selections, the traditional wedding marches and during the ceremony, "To a Wild Rose" (MacDowell). McIntire sang "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte) as a benediction at the close of the ceremony.

Bride's Dress Pink Mrs. A. J. Kemp, Jr., of Dimmitt was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Anna B. Ellis of San Angelo and Rowena Hudson of Odessa. Robert McWhorter of Eldorado was the best man and R. Frank Davis of Austin, James A. Thompson of Royalty and Millard Allan Webb of Dimmitt, the bride's brother, were ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a shell pink satin gown with a bateau neckline edged with a double row of gathered illusion and lace medallions centered with clusters of seed pearls. The long, fitted sleeves came to points.

The groom wore a navy tuxedo suit with grey trim and navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The matron of honor was dressed in a toast brown suit. Accessories were in green, and her corsage of white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are residing at 604 Banner Street. She is a 1949 graduate of Midland High School and has been employed by the Banner Dairies. Smith attended school in Oklahoma City and had two years' service with the Merchant Marine before he came to Midland. He is employed with the Service Drive.

A pre-nuptial compliment to the bride was a shower Thursday in the home of Mrs. L. P. Moore, where the rooms were bright with autumn flowers. The honoree wore a black taffeta frock with a corsage of white carnations.

Guests included Mrs. D. M. Driver, Mrs. R. C. Russell, Mrs. J. C. Lawrence, Mrs. Ewer Smith, Ruby Hudgins, Mrs. L. R. Anderson, Mrs. Abeher, Mrs. Kenneth Price, Mrs. Charlie Bush, Mrs. Embering, Mrs. Leonard Ramsey, Mrs. O. A. Woodson, Mrs. Kenneth Easterling, Mrs. Dillard Nail.

Eunice Hudgins, Mrs. Sam Murray, Mrs. Tommie Withrow, Mrs. Top Hale, Mrs. J. L. Easley, Mrs. Edna Gidley, Mrs. E. V. Guffey, Mrs. Johnny Carter, Mrs. Charles Way, Mrs. Thelma Reese, Mrs. Dennis Cope, Mrs. Mary Bowen, Mrs. Esther Krizan, Pauline Hebert, Mrs. Don McGregor, Mrs. E. L. Bush, Charlene Harris and Mrs. A. B. Patton and daughter.

A pot-luck luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. Wednesday for the Lion Tamers Club members, who will meet in the home of Mrs. P. A. Forrest on the Andrews Highway. Each member will contribute a dish for the meal.

After the luncheon, Mrs. Ray Howard will have charge of a program and Mrs. L. V. Basham, president, will preside for business.

Evening Ceremony Is Read

In a candlelight ceremony in her parent's home, Maxine Spivey Saturday evening became the bride of Eugene Gray of Lubbock. Mrs. Gray's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Spivey, 810 North San Angelo Street, and Gray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gray of Lubbock.

The double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Troy Denton, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Seminole, at an improvised altar before the fireplace in the Spivey home. Pink asters in baskets and entwined with greenery were on either side of the altar, as were floor candelabra filled with tall white tapers.

Helen White was maid of honor. Jeanie Spivey, younger sister of the bride, lighted the candles. Floyd Boles of Lubbock was best man.

Pre-nuptial music was by Verla Lee Goins, Anna Joyce Streeter and Nellie Lee. The trio was accompanied by Mrs. Yates Brown, and sang Because (D'Hardielot) and a medley of familiar selections. Mrs. Brown also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of ice-blue lace over taffeta. The oval neckline was fashioned with a rolled collar and the long sleeves came to points over her hands. The pointed bodice was attached to a full skirt. Her satin shoes matched the color of her dress, as did her short veil of illusion which fell from a small halo. Her bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and white satin ribbons tied with lovers' knots and extending to streamers.

Miss Spivey's dress was palomino lace over taffeta with a full skirt and short-sleeved, fitted jacket which was buttoned with tiny, covered buttons. Her shoes were brown, and her palomino illusion veil was like the bride's.

'Pieces For Peace' Will Be Dedicated In Program Monday

World Community Day will be observed by the Midland Council of Church Women at its meeting in the Asbury Methodist Church on Monday. The program theme will be "Peace Is Possible," and gifts in the "Pieces for Peace" project will be dedicated. Officers for 1950 are to be elected.

A dramatic skit will present the program theme after a discussion, "Three Ways to Peace," by the Rev. Lennox Mester, pastor of the host church. In the cast of the skit, Mrs. C. G. Pickett will enact The Woman; women's voices offstage will be those of Mrs. J. G. Chausney, Mrs. Delbert Downing and Mrs. F. A. Forrest, and the Voice of the Nazarene will be that of the Rev. R. J. Small.

Other characters represent United Nations organizations: Mrs. R. B. Lambert, World Health Organization; Mrs. David Smith, Food and Agriculture Organization; Mrs. Preston Firtle, Economic Commission for Europe; and Mrs. J. M. Ratcliff, Educational, Social and Cultural Organization.

Opening with the "Call for the Day" by Mrs. L. G. Byerly, council president, the program will include a prayer and meditation by the Rev. Jackson Fleider, associate pastor of the First Methodist Church; a (Continued On Page 4)

At Home After Wedding

Mrs. Eddie Smith

Wedding In Parsonage Unites Miss Driver And Eddie Smith

The marriage of Uvonne Driver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Driver, and Eddie Smith of Midland, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Easley of San Pedro, Calif., was solemnized in the home of the Rev. A. L. Teaff, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, who officiated for the service Saturday evening.

Only a few close friends were present for the single-ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Lory Absher were the couple's attendants.

The bride wore a navy tuxedo suit with grey trim and navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The matron of honor was dressed in a toast brown suit. Accessories were in green, and her corsage of white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are residing at 604 Banner Street. She is a 1949 graduate of Midland High School and has been employed by the Banner Dairies. Smith attended school in Oklahoma City and had two years' service with the Merchant Marine before he came to Midland. He is employed with the Service Drive.

A pre-nuptial compliment to the bride was a shower Thursday in the home of Mrs. L. P. Moore, where the rooms were bright with autumn flowers. The honoree wore a black taffeta frock with a corsage of white carnations.

Guests included Mrs. D. M. Driver, Mrs. R. C. Russell, Mrs. J. C. Lawrence, Mrs. Ewer Smith, Ruby Hudgins, Mrs. L. R. Anderson, Mrs. Abeher, Mrs. Kenneth Price, Mrs. Charlie Bush, Mrs. Embering, Mrs. Leonard Ramsey, Mrs. O. A. Woodson, Mrs. Kenneth Easterling, Mrs. Dillard Nail.

Eunice Hudgins, Mrs. Sam Murray, Mrs. Tommie Withrow, Mrs. Top Hale, Mrs. J. L. Easley, Mrs. Edna Gidley, Mrs. E. V. Guffey, Mrs. Johnny Carter, Mrs. Charles Way, Mrs. Thelma Reese, Mrs. Dennis Cope, Mrs. Mary Bowen, Mrs. Esther Krizan, Pauline Hebert, Mrs. Don McGregor, Mrs. E. L. Bush, Charlene Harris and Mrs. A. B. Patton and daughter.

A pot-luck luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. Wednesday for the Lion Tamers Club members, who will meet in the home of Mrs. P. A. Forrest on the Andrews Highway. Each member will contribute a dish for the meal.

After the luncheon, Mrs. Ray Howard will have charge of a program and Mrs. L. V. Basham, president, will preside for business.

OES Official At Crane Is Honored

CRANE—Lela Wilson, who is completing a term as deputy grand matron of District Two, Section Eight, Order of Eastern Stars, was honored at the recent regular meeting of the Crane Chapter as delegates were chosen to attend the annual Grand Chapter session in Dallas November 7.

A gift from the members of her home chapter was presented to Mrs. Wilson, with a corsage. Ethel Owens worthy matron, and Edith Goble, associate matron, were elected Grand Chapter delegates.

November 19 was the date set for the annual oyster supper of the Crane Chapter, and Mrs. Goble will be general chairman. Announcement was made that a visit planned by the worthy grand patron for next Saturday cannot be made at this time so plans for entertainments in his honor in this district have been canceled.

Charlene Cowden and Birdie Bosh served over 90 members and visitors.

Methodist Women In Crane Have Program

CRANE—An all-day program was conducted by the Methodist Women's Society Tuesday in observance of a week of prayer. Mrs. John E. Clark was leader, and reports were given by Mrs. Caskey, Mrs. J. H. Davis and Mrs. C. A. Shaffer on the institutions which will receive contributions made at similar services in all Methodist Churches.

Mrs. Caskey served as reader and Mrs. R. O. Tomlinson was pianist. The program closed with a communion service conducted by the Rev. E. O. Tomlinson. Luncheon was served in the church at noon.

Others present were Mrs. Burt Barnett, Mrs. H. G. Bell, Mrs. Fred Platts, Mrs. R. O. Warren, Mrs. Lulu Chaney, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. F. D. Husted.

For a luncheon salad mix chopped hard-cooked egg with minced lettuce and ham and use sour cream for the dressing. Serve on salad greens or use as filling for split toasted frankfurter rolls.

Couple Married In McCamey Leaves For Home In Kansas

MCCAMEY—In a ceremony in the Methodist Parsonage Wednesday night, Betty Joe Matejovsky became the bride of M. Dale Kluth, Jr.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Matejovsky of McCamey and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kluth, Sr. of Tulsa, Okla. The single-ring ceremony was read by Rev. C. J. Mann, pastor of the Methodist Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a hunter's green gabardine suit with brown and brown accessories. Her shoulder bouquet was of bronze chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Jackie Lambeth was the bride's only attendant. She wore a brown and white stripe suit with blue blouse and brown accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. Mr. Lambeth was best man.

The bride is a graduate of McCamey High School and attended North Texas State Teachers College and Draughton Business College in Lubbock. She attended Oklahoma schools and Oklahoma A&M College.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Matejovsky home. Arrangements of Fall flowers were used in the living room and on the dining room table. Attending the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Olin Cordes and daughter, Linda, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Halamick, Mr. and Mrs. Jack George, Mrs. Hal Cooper, Frederick Matejovsky and Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Lambeth.

The bridegroom has been employed by the Selmsograph Service Corporation in Big Lake. The couple left immediately after the reception for Tulsa to visit his parents before going to Council Grove, Kan., where Kluth recently has been transferred. They will make their home there.

Waldorf Salad—that old standby of apple, celery, walnuts, and mayonnaise—takes on new interest when it's served on a bed of water-cress and accompanied by a mound of creamed cottage cheese. Dust the salad and the cheese with a little paprika for color.

Mrs. Chastain Gives Parent's Selfishness Can Help Children

Mrs. Joe Chastain gave a demonstration on getting making at a meeting of the West Side Home Demonstration Club Thursday in the home of Mrs. O. B. Jackson.

Other demonstrations were given and reports on projects were heard. Mrs. Joe Davis and Mrs. Nicholson were guests of the group and the members present were Mrs. L. E. Moncrief, Mrs. O. R. Phillips, Mrs. A. L. Bessie, Mrs. J. C. Specter, Mrs. Howard Palmer, Mrs. J. G. Hudson and Mrs. Guy Wright.

Parent's Selfishness Can Help Children

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Sometimes a little selfishness on the part of "Mom" can go a long way toward keeping a family well adjusted and happy.

Parents always want the very best in life for their children. This shouldn't mean, however, that the bread-winner in the family goes about with a threefold cost while Junior races the fastest toy automobile in the neighborhood.

There are young mothers who tearfully admit they had nothing new to wear in years because the budget won't allow for new clothes. These self-denying moms, however, find room in the same budget for elaborately frilled dresses for their pre-kindergarten youngsters, though they themselves are happier and healthier in simple, comfortable clothes.

Make Two Mistakes

All parents should squeeze out of family routine and responsibilities, just a bit, to find time to express their own personality. They owe it to themselves to do the things they want to do, to learn and practice the adult-way of enjoying life.

Delegate Named And P-TA School Slated In McCamey Meeting

MCCAMEY—Mrs. James Gaddy, Jr., president of the McCamey Parent-Teacher Association, was elected its delegate to the state P-TA convention to be held in Waco November 18-19, at a recent regular meeting.

Announcement was made of a school of instruction for officers and chairmen in the P-TA, beginning at 10 a.m. November 9 in the P-TA room. The Teachers' room distributed by Mrs. P. E. Carter.

The annual membership drive closed last week, and Mrs. Wanda Comstock's room won the award for the elementary school and Mrs. Irena Hoffmeyer won the high school award. Attendance awards for the meeting went to Mrs. Tenny Johnson and Mrs. Miss Rogers' room.

Charles Langdon was the guest speaker, discussing "Jury Service for Women." He was introduced by E. R. Shurman. Mrs. Carter, program leader, presented Ann Hawkins to sing a solo with accompaniment by Mrs. Nettleship, pianist, and Mrs. Henderson, violinist, and Ann Carter and Miss Henderson to sing a duet number.

Spivey Vows—

 veils, ballroom length dress cut like her sister's, but with cap sleeves. Tiny pink rosebuds in the back of her hair formed her headdress and she wore black shoes.

Mrs. Spivey's street-length dress was two-piece and made of sheer royal blue wool. Her accessories were brown and her corsage pink split carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a black dress and accessories and tall-man roses.

The reception after the ceremony was also in the Spivey home. The satin covered table was centered with a candelabrum entwined with fern and pink carnations. The white, three-tiered cake was at one end of the table and the punch bowl at the other.

Bouquets of pink asters were on the buffet and throughout the house.

Mrs. James Johnson served the cake, Mrs. Dan Fletcher the punch, and Billie Middleton of Galveston was at the bride's book.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Denver, Colo., Mrs. Gray was wearing a teal blue wool gabardine suit with black velvet trim and black accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

At Home In Odessa.
 When they return, they will be at home at 819 East Fourth Street, Odessa.

Mrs. Gray is a graduate of West Columbia High School and attended Texas State College for Women in Denton for three years. During the Summer, she was employed as secretary for the Texas Employers' Insurance Company in Midland.

Gray was graduated from Lubbock High School, served two years in the United States Navy and attended Texas Technological College in Lubbock. At present, he is associated with his father as a plumbing contractor in Odessa.

Among the out-of-city guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wilson of Brookhaven, Miss.

 council report by Mrs. R. V. Oberholzer, and summary of an executive board meeting by Mrs. Willard Bumpass, and the business session. The presiding, offertory music and postlude will be by Mrs. J. P. Carson, Jr., pianist.
 The offertory prayer will be by Mr. Snell, pastor of the Trinity Episcopal Church, and the closing prayer by Dr. R. Matthew Lynn, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.
 Dedication of the "Pieces for Peace" will climax the program. These are packages of material to be sent to Europe through a World Community Service project. Each woman in the council has been asked to prepare a package, and Mrs. Byerley announces that Midland stores have given a number of remnants to add to the collection.
 Mrs. Theo Ferguson is director of the program; Mrs. Ed Pierce, program chairman, and Mrs. J. O. Hyde, project chairman for the day. The council includes women of the First Presbyterian, Trinity Episcopal, First Christian, Asbury Methodist and First Methodist Churches, who will attend the council rather than their usual women's society meetings Monday afternoon.

Doris Ann Boley Is Bride Of Burvin Hines In Fort Worth

Doris Ann Boley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reginald Boley of Fort Worth, and Charles Burvin Hines of Abilene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raymond Hines of 2007 West Kentucky Street, Midland, were married in the Polytechnic Church of Christ at Fort Worth Saturday evening.

Leroy Brownlow, minister, officiated for the double-ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by Bobby Holden and Mrs. T. R. Boley, Jr., of Fort Worth, and a school friend, Mrs. Kenneth Griffin of Midland.
 Cletas R. Hines of Midland was best man for his brother, who had served him similarly at his own recent marriage to Myrtle McKee in Midland. H. Lynn Packer and T. R. Boley, Jr., were groomsmen. The ushers, who lighted the candles also, were Charles L. Sherwood and Howard Hodge of Fort Worth. Kathy Brown, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl.
Chorus Sings
 An A Cappella chorus directed by Estun Kite sang "I Love You Truly," hummed an obligato for Mrs. Kite and for T. R. Boley, Jr., soloists, and sang the "Lohengrin" wedding chorus for a professional and "The Lord Bless Thee and Keep Thee" as a recessional.
 The bride's dress, designed by her mother, was of white slipper satin, the bodice joined to a yoke of Chantilly lace with seed pearl and bugle beads. The full, floor-length skirt fell into a formal train. Two braids of the satin with pearls formed the headpiece which held the veil. Her arm bouquet was of gardenias and stephanotis.
 Her attendants' dresses had circular skirts and basque bodices. Miss Holden's was of melon taffeta, Mrs. Boley's of teal and Mrs. Griffin's of toast shade. The flower girl wore yellow taffeta and scattered yellow rose petals from a basket.
Reception In Home
 Families of the couple and members of the wedding party attended a reception in the Boley home after the ceremony. Mrs. Boley, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hines and the bride's attendants assisted in receiving guests. Frances Stewart of Irving served the wedding cake and Noel Egan the punch. Mrs. Cletas R. Hines was at the bride's book.
 Mrs. Boley wore a gown of mulberry crepe with rhinestone trim and black accessories, and Mrs. C. R. Hines was dressed in toast gray with brown accessories, both with corsages of Vanda orchids.
 The couple left on a wedding trip to the New Mexico mountains. They will be home at 3305 South Sixth Street, Abilene, after November 4.
 Both are graduates of Abilene Christian College with BS degrees in business administration. Mrs. Hines was a member of Zeta Phi Sorority. She attended Polytechnic High School, Fort Worth, and he was graduated from Abilene High School. He is employed as a salesman with an Abilene motor company.

Wedding In—

 over her hands and the basque bodice was fitted at the waist. The gathered skirt extended to a cathedral length train.
 Her imported French illusion veil fell to fingertip length from a scalloped collar of matching illusion and seed pearl medallions. She carried a prayer book centered with a white orchid surrounded by pink rosebuds.
Maiden Wears Taffeta
 The maids of honor and the bridesmaids wore dresses of wild plum taffeta, with high necks, tiny round collars and ledge sleeves. The basque bodices were fitted and the full skirts were fashioned with a flying pane on each side which was gathered over the hip with deep self-heading.
 Their caplets were of pale pink satin with self roll trim and they carried arm bouquets of pale pink roses.
 The bride's mother wore a gray crape dinner gown and a Winter Pink hat trimmed with a plum colored feather. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. Copeland's gown was electric blue crepe and she wore a silver and blue hat, and American Beauty roses.
Midland Friends Assist
 The reception after the ceremony was in the Webb home. Blush baby roses were used for the centerpiece of the serving table, with cut glass candelabra on each side, and the wedding cake and tea service on the ends of the table.
 In the house party for the reception were Mrs. Allan Webb, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Joe Ball and Mrs. Harold Stephens of Dimmitt, Mrs. Fred Bohneke of Fort Worth, Mrs. Erwin Hall of Seymour, Mrs. Jack Rodgers, Mrs. Arthur Dimney and Mrs. John Nicholson of Midland, Mrs. James Gunter of Claude and Juanelle Talbott of Lubbock.
 When the couple left on a wedding trip, to Monterrey, Mexico, the bride was wearing a green tweed suit with hunter's green accessories and a golden hay hat. Her corsage was a white orchid.
 Mrs. Copeland is a graduate of Texas Technological College in Lubbock, where she was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. She has lived in Midland the last 18 months and was employed by Standard Oil Company of Texas.
 Mrs. Copeland is a graduate of Austin High School and Texas A&M College. He was a captain in the United States Infantry and spent some time in Japan during World War II. He also works for Standard Oil in Gainesville, where they will live.

Couple Marry—

 gloves pink. She also wore a strand of pink beads.
 Her corsage was of white carnations and stephanotis.
 Mrs. Mudd wore a simply-styled dress of dark green silk crepe and a double gardenia shoulder corsage.
Reception Held
 The reception was after the ceremony in the home of Mrs. Fred Goodman. Decorations were baskets of white gladioli and asters. The centerpiece of the serving table, which was covered with a lace cloth, was of white stock and asters. Table appointments were silver and crystal.
 The bride and bridegroom, Mrs. Mudd and Mrs. Scheffler were in the receiving line and others in the house party were Mrs. Joe Hemphill and Pat Withers.
 After the reception, the couple left for a short wedding trip. On their return they will be at home in Midland. As her going away ensemble, the bride wore a navy blue and sea-green tweed suit with a sea-green blouse and navy accessories.
 Mrs. Gibson is a graduate of North Texas State College in Denton and has taught in both elementary and junior high schools in Midland. While in school, she was a member of Kappa Kappa Kappa sorority, Junior Mary Arden society, Green Jackets, an honorary art society and was listed in "Who's Who in American College and Universities."
 Gibson also was graduated from North Texas State College and is employed by Magna Petroleum Company in Midland. He was a member of Talon Fraternity and was active in varsity football and basketball.
 Out-of-city guests included C. J. Scheffler of Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brooks of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Uglund of Roswell, N. M.

Top Musicians—
 restoring the interior to the 19th Century grandeur it once knew. The night in 1891 when Carnegie Hall opened with Walter Damrosch conducting the New York Symphony.
 Along with the magnificent music in the romantic story of the Hall's great history are featured Marsha Hunt, William Prince, Martha O'Driscoll and Frank McHugh. Performers who had been connected with the actual musical history of Carnegie Hall were chosen for the musical phases of the production. Walter Damrosch (the first conductor to wave a baton in the Hall's stage) was assigned the role of playing himself. A young actor impersonates the conductor in the early '90s.
 All fields of music are included in the production. Serious musicians will be impressed with the New York Philharmonic Symphony and its outstanding conductors. Persons interested in vocal music will delight in the soloists—a mezzo soprano, a coloratura, a tenor and basso.
 It is interesting to note that the instrumentalists—Heifetz and his violin; Piatigorsky and his price-less Stradivari cello, and Pianist Artur Schnabel—all appear as soloists in this picture. During 1949, these musicians formed a trio and gave repeated concerts in standing room capacity audiences, causing critics to declare the trio was a classic example of musical perfection.
 Modern music is not neglected in the movie. Vaughn Monroe stars as does Harry James.
Goes Into Studios
 Scenes center principally around the stage and auditorium of Carnegie Hall, but the colorful studio section of the building—those cubicles which house so many famous painters, vocal teachers, musicians and exponents of the dance—are woven into the life story of this musical landmark.

BIRTHDAY IS HONORED
 Mrs. John Carlson was honored with a surprise birthday party recently in the home of Mrs. Mickey Heaton at Terminal. Mrs. Heaton and Mrs. Harry Johnson were hostesses. Mrs. Guy Haverstock and Mrs. Edna Thacker were other guests and Mrs. Carlson was given a lace tablecloth.

of pearls and diamonds which had belonged to her mother, and carried Mrs. Stevens' bridal handkerchief of lace. Her bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

Made alike with portrait necklines, bequeathed waist and deep diagonal tuck in the hooped skirt with a bow at the side, the attendants' gowns were of satin. Mrs. Burdick's was of mauve rose shade and the others of antique green. All carried American Beauty roses and wore picture hats of satin matching their dresses, with lace brims.

A reception immediately after the ceremony was held in the home of Mrs. J. Burges Perrenot, 608 West Randall Boulevard, a close friend of the bride's family. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, the bride's father and the bridegroom's parents, and members of the wedding party received the guests.

Take Mezie Trip
Pink chrysanthemums decorated the living room and white mums were used in the reception hall, library and dining room. The three-tiered cake, surrounded by a garland of tulle and stephanotis, centered the table and the punch bowls were set at either end. White tapers in silver candelabra lighted the table.

When the couple left on a trip to Mexico, Mrs. Sleeper was wearing a costume suit of winter navy with matching accessories. They will live in Apartment D, 608 Watson Street, when they return from the trip.

The bride is an alumna of Texas Western College and a graduate of the University of Texas. She is a member of the Junior League of El Paso, the Midland Service League and the Delta Delta Delta Alumnae Association. She has been employed with the Texas Gulf Production Company here the last year.

Sleeper was graduated from Baylor University and holds a masters degree in geology from Texas Technological College. He served as a lieutenant in the Air Force during World War II and is now a geologist with The Texas Company.

Midland friends who went to the wedding in addition to those in the wedding party, were Mrs. Ben Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Callahan, Aileen Maxwell, Neta Beights and Ann Hubbard.
Other out-of-city guests included Mrs. Jesse Walker of Abilene, an aunt of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Kilpatrick of Palo Alto, Calif., uncle and aunt of the bride; Howard D. Burdick and Mrs. K. W. Germond of Fort Worth and Mrs. Allan Baird of Abilene.

North Elementary Carnival To Have Magician, Horse

Duck Kirkey, the magician who swallows razor blades, will be one of the chief attractions at the North Elementary Parent-Teacher Association Hallowe'en Carnival Monday. The carnival will begin at 8:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Kirkey is a traveling magician, rather than a local man, and has been engaged for the performance by a member of the North Elementary P-T-A.

Horse-back riding also will be a feature of this carnival, as will a turtle race.

Everyone has been invited to eat at the carnival. Sandwiches, coffee, doughnuts, cold drinks and candy will be served.

NEW BROWNIE TROOP HAS FIRST MEETING
Brownie Girl Scout Troop 40 had its organizational meet recently in the Recreational Hall of the First Baptist Church. This will be the regular meeting place of the troop and the time will be 4 p.m. each Wednesday. Mrs. F. L. Houghton is troop leader and Mrs. C. C. Boles, assistant.
Clara Lou Butcher was hostess at the first meeting and plans for the Father-Daughter box supper were made.

Latvian Dress

Members of the Wayland College International Choir, which will sing here at 8 p.m. November 3 in the Junior High School Auditorium, dress in costumes from different parts of the world. The above costumes, representing the different districts in Latvia, were made by Mrs. George Lambert, a Latvian student at Wayland last year. The hand embroidery on the dresses is made up of ancient emblems of the country and the designs on the headdresses have special meaning. The choir's appearance here is being sponsored by the Junior High School Girls' Choir.

Past Flower Shows Recalled In Plans For Display Wednesday

Preparations for the annual Fall Flower Show by garden club members of the city for invited guests, replacing the open-to-the-public shows during the war years. The first was in Mrs. Walter Cremin's home, where arrangements were displayed to 200 callers.
In the Spring of 1944 an iris show was held in the home of Mrs. Frank

Starting in 1943, a series of annual flower show-teas was held in homes of the city for invited guests, replacing the open-to-the-public shows during the war years. The first was in Mrs. Walter Cremin's home, where arrangements were displayed to 200 callers.
In the Spring of 1944 an iris show was held in the home of Mrs. Frank

Mrs. M. S. Dickerson

The Midland Garden Club, oldest of the six organizations which are sponsoring this year's show, was for several years the only garden club in the city and conducted the early shows. The first, in April of 1941, was a wild flower show staged with the cooperation of the Texas Highway Department.
It was presented in the North Elementary School, with 273 varieties of wild flowers displayed. Highway Department employes brought the plants from over West Texas and placed them in naturalistic settings, and club members used more wild flowers to make appropriate table arrangements such as seed verbenas on a glass breakfast table and cacti with colorful pottery on a patio table.
First Fall Display
In the Fall of 1941 the club had its initial showing of locally grown flowers, fruits and vegetables. There was no schedule and no certified judges; the county home demonstration agent and a nurseryman judged the entries, which were displayed on orange and apple boxes covered with sheets.
The next year a Victory Garden Flower Show was presented in the then new City-County Auditorium, where the 1949 show will be held. The custom of a decorative theme was started then, with an effective harvest scene made by heaping fruits and vegetables on a V-shaped table in the middle of the room. Flower arrangements were displayed on shelves along the walls, and there was a model garden tool room and a garden wedding scene.

By the October show date in 1947, the Yucca and Tejas Garden Clubs had been organized and they joined the Midland Garden Club in presenting the flower show in the City-County Auditorium. It had a formal garden theme, with a bed of damp sand built down the center to hold vines, shrubs and flowering plants, and also bird baths, trellises, a lily pond and tea tables to hold the flower arrangements.
New Clubs Assist
The Perennial Garden Club, formed in 1948, was added to the list of sponsors for the show last year, which was staged in the American Legion Hall. A coral scene on the stage was decorated with native shrubs and plants, and classifications were named for popular Western songs.
Since then, the Seneca and Pyracantha Clubs have been organized and their members are working with the other four clubs to present the "Fall Flower Harvest" this week. Entries in both the horticultural and arrangement classes may be made by any resident of Midland County, and material must have been grown in the county.
Entries are to be made at the City-County Auditorium from 8 to 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, and the show will be open to visitors at 2 p.m. after judging is completed. Two sweepstakes awards will be made this year, one in the horticultural division and one for arrangements.

Brownie Troop Has Investiture

An investiture service was held for Brownie Girl Scout Troop 38 at a meeting Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. F. W. Darr, leader.

Mrs. Kirby Thompson, assistant leader, and Mrs. Bill Roush assisted Mrs. Darr.

Guests were the mothers of two girls, Mrs. Marvin Wise and Mrs. Herman Cardwell.

Community Theater Drive For 1950 Members Open This Week

Membership for 1950 in the Midland Community Theater is open now, and the annual enrollment campaign will start this week with Mrs. I. A. Searles as chairman.

Early enrollees will receive bonus admissions to the final production of 1949, "The Winslow Boy," play by Terence Rattigan which will be staged on December 8-10. In addition, they will have the regular admission tickets for 1950 plays.

Paxton Howard, president of the theater, is urging that the present members reply at once to letters which have been sent inviting them to renew their memberships, and that persons who have seen Community Theater productions and decided to become members, enroll without waiting for a committee

small TALK

While guests at the Fine Arts Club tea and art exhibit Wednesday were looking at Martine Threlkeld's breath-taking flower paintings, Leona Bryant informed them that the red roses in the antique green-and-gold frame will be hung in the Bryants' new home.

It was commissioned for exactly that spot by her brother and sister-in-law, the George D. McCormick, who are neighbors of Mrs. Threlkeld in Austin.

The Bryants moved the first of the week into the new place just off West Wall Street, and Leona is excited over the house even more now than she has been during the weeks while it was being remodeled to their own plans. Friends, neighbors or passersby who admire the handsome rose-red brick exterior in its setting promptly are invited to come some more—she is that proud of it!

Paxton Howard

committees and permit more call on new residents of Midland who must be informed of the Community Theater's activities before they decide to enroll," he explained.

Theater memberships are in three classes: Regular, which give 16 tickets plus the privilege of enrolling one or two children in the Children's Theater, at a price of $15; Patron, 24 tickets plus enrollment of as many as three children, at a price of $25; and Sponsor, 60 tickets plus privileges of the Children's Theater, at a price of $50 or more.

Tickets which are received with these memberships may be used at any time during the year—all at the same play if the member wishes to take a party to one show or a few at each play.

The run of the annual minstrel-revue produced jointly by the Kiwanis Club and the Community Theater each Fall will close Sunday at a matinee performance beginning at 2:30 p.m. It is the fifth production of the year for the theater.

Preceding plays of 1949 were "I Remember Mama," domestic comedy, "Frysalion," a George Bernard Shaw play, "Laura," a mystery drama and "My Sister Eileen," a farce which opened the season this Fall.

Mrs. McKee Hostess For DYT Luncheon And Canasta Games

After luncheon, the group played Canasta.

Members attending were Mrs. Orville Houck, Mrs. J. P. Carson, Jr., Mrs. E. P. Birkhead, Mrs. Glenn Rhoademaker, Mrs. L. V. Basham, Mrs. T. S. Henderson, Mrs. Joe Roberson, Mrs. John A. Sewell and Mrs. E. M. Watkins.

The next meeting will be November 10 with Mrs. Roberson.

Bridge Party Given By McCamey Woman

MCCAMEY—Mrs. Russell Rambo won high score prize and Mrs. Buck Jones, second high, at a bridge party given recently by Mrs. W. G. Ingram in her home.

Other guests were Mrs. Jack Bolts, Mrs. J. R. Smith, Mrs. A. D. Neal, Mrs. Paul McFaddin and Mrs. Burt Williams.

Rebekah Lodge Better Baby Program Announced For November 3-December 1

A better baby program, with a contest as its chief feature will be sponsored by the Midland Rebekah Lodge. It will continue through the month of November and close with a pageant December 1.

Open to all children under five years of age in Midland and vicinity, the contest will have no entry fee or charge for the physical examination which will be given each baby.

Children are to be registered for the contest in the Dunlap Company November 3, 4 and 5, during store hours.

After the check-up, each healthy baby will be given an engraved health certificate, a child's ribbon diploma or a special gold seal award certificate, depending on its health rating.

Beauty To Be Judged

Included in the baby show program will be a Baby Beauty Judging, with the contestants dressed in simple sunsuits, bathing suits, trunks, pinafores or diapers. Beauty of form, features, charm and personality will be the factors considered by the judges.

The most handsome and manly boy and the most beautiful girl selected from each of the six age classes will receive loving cups and then will compete for the titles of Miss and Master Midland '49.

The program will end with the Baby Coronation Pageant December 1 in the City-County Auditorium.

It will include an infant, junior and senior king and queen and princes and princesses, dukes and duchesses, counts and countesses and lords and ladies-in-waiting in each court.

Awards will be loving cups, trophies, Oscars and royalty certificates.

Members of the lodge who are in charge of the program are Gertrude Wallace, Leota Johnson, Thelma Gray, Louise Standefer, Bertha Raven, Joyce Carroll, Peggy Meyers and Patsy Sperr.

Weiner Portraits In Oils, Pastels On Display In Midland

E. M. R. Weiner, nationally known portrait painter, is in Midland for at least two weeks and his works may be seen in Room 202 of Hotel Seharbauer.

With paintings in both pastels and oils, his works include portraits of Jack Vickers of Wichita, Kan., and his wife, two daughters and daughter-in-law; A. L. Derby, Walter Beach, and William Jardine, secretary of Agriculture during Herbert Hoover's administration.

The paintings may be seen during the day until 5 p.m. and in the evening by appointment.

Weiner was born in Kingston, N. Y., but has been a longtime resident of Beloit, Wis., and has done most of his work in the Midwest. He is a graduate of Cornell University and studied portrait painting from Wayman Adams and George Bridgman. He was an instructor in Beloit College for several years but left the school recently to begin his own art school.

Frances Whigham Entertains Friends At Hallowe'en Party

Frances Whigham entertained with a Hallowe'en party Thursday night in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Whigham.

Orange and black crepe paper streamers hung from the ceiling and cutouts of black cats, owls, witches and skeletons were on the windows and doors.

Guests were Martha Forrest, Gale Hoover, Virginia Outbirth, Wanda Moore, Betty McMully, Tommie Jean Underwood, DeWayne Chestnut, Jimmy Evans, Darla Adamson, John Putnam, Thomas Dilday, Frances Padgett, Diana Meyer, Kenneth Howell, Shirley Burnham and Jan Vanderpool.

Shirred eggs make an excellent dish for Sunday breakfast. To prepare them break 2 eggs into each individual greased baking dish and bake in a slow oven until as firm as desired. Serve with crisp bacon.

Andrews Schools' Hallowe'en Carnival To Be Monday Night

ANDREWS—The crowning of the Hallowe'en Queen at 8:30 p.m. will be the highlight of the annual carnival to be held in the Junior High School auditorium here Monday night.

There will be booths in the auditorium, a house of horrors in the shop building and boxing matches in the gymnasium. Food will be served in the cafeteria.

Mary Beth Haught will be high school queen, Margaret Singleton, junior high queen and Linda Rutledge, queen of the elementary grades. The queens will be accompanied by their escorts and 31 princesses and their escorts.

Kiddies' Toggery

"THE SHOP FOR YOUR CHILD!" 109 North Marientfeld Midland, Texas

Rain keeps some people indoors, but West Texas welcomes it, and many made a point of getting out on the damp days we have had lately. Bea Mathews, in a raincoat and with a gay scarf tied over her hair, was shopping in a drizzle and grinning cheerfully, while Marian Aldrich was strolling in a gentle shower wearing an enveloping plastic coat but with her head bare.

Chilly Fall weather inspired Grace Wallace's enthusiastic, "Aren't you glad it's cool enough to wear suits again? When it's too warm for a suit I never know what to wear." She had on a becoming wine-colored one as she spoke. Thelma Denson and Frances Morton probably will join her in the sentiment; they both are habitual suit-wearers and look their smartest in the tailored togs.

Grace's mama, a guest for a few days from Uvalde, explained to some of her daughters' friends that she visited here only in the warmer seasons of the year; think it's too cold in Midland in Winter. She lives in Uvalde and doesn't like any snow at all, even the little we have here.

Do-Ci-Do Club Adds Many New Members

A large group of new members was welcomed into the Do-Ci-Do Square Dance Club at its dance in the American Legion Hall Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Young and Mrs. Ed Alstrin were the hosts.

The new members are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bridgewater, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cassidy, Mr. and Mrs. Art Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dewey, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ervin, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gray, Mr. and Mrs. John Healey.

At the next club dance, on November 9, hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Leif Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Cassia.

Group To Continue Clothing Drive

The First Methodist older youth group will continue its clothing drive this week. They will pick up clothes Wednesday night after 7 p.m. Anyone having clothes to donate to the drive may call No. 1410 and leave an address, so the garments may be picked up Wednesday.

The group held the drive in the form of a scavenger hunt last Wednesday. They collected 247 pounds of clothing which will be packed and sent to Europe.

Girl Scout Week Will Open Sunday

Annual Father-Daughter Suppers To Be Highlight

National Girl Scout Week, the annual period in which Girl Scouts call attention to their organization and its work, is starting Sunday. Midland Girl Scouts and the adults who work with them will observe the week with a full program of activities.

Each Girl Scout is expected to attend the church of her choice Sunday morning, a national custom in observance of the week. A traditional program in Midland, the annual father-daughter box supper, will be held Wednesday night, and the week will end with cookouts or other outdoor activities of the individual troops Saturday.

Tuesday, designated as National Friendship Day, calls for programs on that topic in troops which meet that day, and on Friday, home day. Girl Scouts are expected to carry out projects in their homes. Monday is arts and crafts day, emphasizing another leading Girl Scout program phase.

The annual clothing drive which Girls Scouts conduct for the Midland Service League is to begin Thursday, and clothing collected by the troops is to be taken to the league workroom in the Red Cross Building Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

Father-daughter box suppers are Midland's own celebration of Girl Scout Week each year. One will be held at each school, except at North Elementary, and the girls of that school will entertain in the Midland High School cafeteria instead. All will begin at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Each girl packs supper for herself and her father in a decorated box, and prizes are awarded for the prettiest and most unique boxes. After the judging and supper, programs are presented. Featured on the program is a style parade by the fathers, modeling hats which the daughters have trimmed.

E. M. Bradberry is to be the master of ceremonies for the North Elementary supper, Mrs. I. A. Searles for the South Elementary program. Art Cole will serve for West Elementary and Delbert Downing for Junior High.

Mrs. Karl Nichols is chairman for the clothing drive, planned to supply the Children's Service League with wearable clothing to be given to needy children of the community this winter. Warm garments suitable for school wear are wanted especially, although all sorts of clothing for children of all ages can be used.

Each troop is working out its own plans for collecting the garments; some have placed boxes at schools to receive donations. Anyone who will give clothing in this drive is asked to notify a member of any troop or to take the contributions to the room Friday afternoon or Saturday morning.

MIDLAND STUDENT HAS PAINTING IN ART SHOW
Gail Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Black of 801 West Kansas Street, Midland, had a water color painting in the Annual October Artists' Curb Show held this weekend in El Paso's Public Library Park.

Miss Black is a sophomore student at Radford School for Girls and her work appeared with that of nine other Radford art students.

Girl Scouts Attend Church Services

The Rev. R. J. Snell, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, smilingly welcomes three representatives of the Midland Girl Scouts to Sunday services. Treasurer of the Permian Basin Area Council of Girl Scouts and public relations representative of the Midland Girl Scout Association, "Reverend Bob" long has been identified with the growth of Girl Scouting in Midland. Clapping the rector's hand is Ruth Ann Erskine, Troop 33, representing the Brownie branch of the organization. In the center is Judy Blas, Intermediate Scout of Troop 20. At the right is Sue Johnson, Troop 8, of the Senior Girl Scouts. This troop is in its ninth year of Girl Scout training.

Girl Scouting Grows In City To Total Of 46 Active Troops

Ten new troops have been added this year to the list of Girl Scouts in Midland, as membership has grown to a total of approximately 900. There now are 46 troops active, including four for negro girls.

New troops have been organized each year during the history of Girl Scouting in the city, and annual training schools are conducted to prepare adult leaders and troop committee members to direct them. Mrs. Vernon Bottoms is organization chairman for the Midland Girl Scout Council this year, and is in charge of forming the new groups.

She has announced the following list of troops and leaders:

Senior Girl Scouts—Troop 1, Mrs. M. B. Arick and Mrs. Buster Charlton; Troop 8, Mrs. Don Johnson and Mrs. E. W. Anguish; Troop 12, Mrs. I. A. Searles; Troop 4, a freshman troop now in process of organization.

The troops for negro Girl Scouts and their leaders are Troop 30, Brownies, Lula Suggs; Troop 31, Intermediates, Cecil Ligon; Troop 32, Senior, Mrs. J. B. York, and Troop 46, Intermediates, Mary Price.

Wink High School Exes Name Officers

WINK—Mrs. Jewel Vinson was named president of the Ex-Students Association of Wink High School at its organization meeting here Friday night. Other officers are Frank Rutledge, vice president, and Veta Braubury, secretary-treasurer.

Former students attending the first Homecoming Day voted to make it an annual affair.

Scores of exes were present for the celebration, which opened Friday morning and closed with a reception and party following the Wink-Pecos football clash Friday night.

Supr. R. A. Lipscomb was in charge of general arrangement. He has been superintendent here since 1930.

More Training Given Girl Scout Leaders

The most complete training schedule for Girl Scout leaders ever attempted is being carried out this fall in the Permian Basin Area, with Mrs. I. A. Searles of Midland, area field director, as instructor.

Mrs. Searles served the area as volunteer trainer last year, and was given the field director's post at the start of the 1949-50 year. She is conducting a series of training courses to help leaders and troop committee members learn their jobs and make their work easier.

First of the series was the basic group leadership course in Midland the week of September 19. Then followed a workshop in Andrews, September 29 and 30, the basic group course and workshops in Odessa, October 3-7, the same course in Kermit with Wink leaders invited to participate, October 12-14, and in Fort Stockton October 17-19. Workshops were conducted in McCamey October 20 and 21.

The training classes are to continue through November and into December, with workshops slated for Pecos and Balmorhea, November 7 and 8, the basic course at Monahan, November 9 and 10, and at Alpine, November 16 and 17.

A course at the Girl Scout Camp in the Davis Mountains is planned for November 18 and 19, with leaders from Sanderson, Van Horn, Valentine, Fort Davis, Marathon, Presidio and Fort Stockton invited to participate. If this plan does not materialize, the dates will be used at Sanderson and Marathon.

Workshops and training for Latin American leaders are scheduled in Midland November 28 to December 1, and a course for Van Horn and Valentine, December 5-9.

Bells Will Call Girl Scouts For Worship In Churches Of Choice As National Week Opens

By GENIE HARMS BLISS

Ding Dong—Come Out! Ding Dong—Girl Scouts! Ding Dong—Church Time! Ding Dong—Thanks To Thee!

The bells will ring in Midland each Sunday morning, calling, reminding, inviting that it is time for worship. Sunday the bells will ring longer and with special meaning for almost 1,000 Midland Girl Scouts and registered adults in conjunction with Girl Scouts throughout the United States who will open Girl Scout Week observances with uniformed church attendance. By this attendance Girl Scouts enact the first tenet of their promise, "On My Honor I Will Try To Do My Duty To God."

When green and brown capped girls reverently bow their heads in Midland churches, they have reason to be thankful.

The Midland Girl Scout Association announces The Girl Scout Little House soon will be a reality instead of a dream. If the girls' hearts rival the song of the bells with uniformed church attendance, that there will be a meeting place to call their own, a Little House which is a Girl Scout home.

Plans Drawn

Plans for The Little House drawn by Architect J. J. Black are to be presented to contractors for bids in the near future by Mrs. Robert M. Payne, chairman of the Little House Committee, for the association.

Last Spring Midland's City Council designated the city block between D and E Streets on West Washington a City Park for use of the Girl Scout organization. With the lot assured, nucleus funds for the Little House were collected from the following sources: donations from an anonymous oil man, profits from the Coke machine in the courthouse, tips for obtaining special license plates gathered by the tax assessor's office, and pennies saved in past years from the Girl Scout budget. Black is donating his services as architect.

With funds amounting to more than $1,000, the organization has purchased the shell of a barracks building owned by the Midland School Board. This building will be renovated and placed upon the lot for The Girl Scout Little House. Plans for obtaining funds for this purpose are being formulated by the committee.

Community Chest

The Girl Scout organization is a member of the Community Chest, but rules prohibit use of Chest funds for building purposes. Voluntarily the Girl Scouts lowered their budget by $2,000 for this year's Community Chest drive.

Operating expenses for 1949 were kept at a minimum and the Girl Scout Association has a $2,000 balance to begin the next fiscal year. This is the only Community Chest member which requested less operating expense than last year. In membership there are almost 1,000 Girl Scouts in Midland County.

Speaking of the necessity of a Little House, Mrs. Payne remarked, "If you had ever carried equipment to and from churches, school rooms and homes not designed for Girl Scout meeting places you would understand the great difficulties leaders have undergone."

"The Little House will enable leaders to have a central meeting place designed and equipped for Girl Scout training. Opportunity for craft work will be available. Outdoor activities may be pursued. All this can be done in but a short distance from home. The Little House will be located almost equidistant from North, West, South Elementary and the Junior High Schools."

Troops convene at present in schools, churches, homes and various other places.

Central Meeting Place

Mrs. R. E. Morgan, president of the local association, stresses that coordination of the various troops may be obtained by use of a central meeting place. At present coordination of troop programs presents a major problem to the association. "No one," Mrs. Morgan states, "can possibly realize the thousands and thousands of volunteer hours Midland women have spent building the Girl Scout organization. There are approximately 150 registered adults at present."

"These adults have given most willingly of their time because they recognize the well known fact that Girl Scout training is one of the most powerful movements combating juvenile delinquency. Girl Scouting is not just another activity. It is a way of life."

Records show there now are 48 active Girl Scout troops. Since the formation of the Girl Scout Council in 1941, which has become the Girl Scout Association, steady and rapid growth has been noted.

Throughout the week Midland Girl Scouts will participate in varied activities celebrating National Girl Scout Week.

Maggie Boosts Girl Scouts

Miss Star Margaret O'Brien receives the thanks of Mrs. C. Vaughan Ferguson, of New York, national president of the Girl Scouts of the U. S. A., for her work in a short movie titled, "Come Along With the Girl Scouts." The film, now being shown nationally, is a plea for volunteer adult leaders for Girl Scout troops.

Year's Program Of Girl Scouts Maps Varied Activities

Events of National Girl Scout Week are highlights of the year's program in Midland troops, but there are other activities which are scheduled annually and some which are changed from year to year. A complete program for the year is mapped each Fall by a committee from the Midland Girl Scout Association.

Mrs. W. F. Pennebaker was program chairman when the 1948-50 schedule was prepared, and has been succeeded by Mrs. C. E. George. Early activities are for adult leaders, designed to prepare them for work of the year.

First on the program was the Leadership Training Course, which was conducted during the week of September 19 by Mrs. I. A. Searies, area field director. The association had its social meeting for officers, committee chairmen, troop leaders and committee members, in the Parish House of the Trinity Episcopal Church on October 3.

Community Project

First community project of the year for intermediate and senior troops, folding Christmas seals for the Midland County Tuberculosis Association's annual sale, already has started.

A court of awards is to be held in January and another on April 27, with chairmen yet to be announced. Book Week will be observed with a city-wide program on February 21 with Mrs. George in charge. Brownie troops will fold Easter seals for the Children's Service League in March, and each troop will have a Girl Scout birthday party in the week of March 12.

To end the year, a late Spring pageant tentatively is planned, with Mrs. Searies in charge.

Funds For Girl Scout Program Come From Community Chest

Financial support for the Girl Scouts in Midland comes from the Community Chest, which will launch its campaign for 1950 funds while National Girl Scout Week is being observed in the city. The Girl Scout organization is one of six agencies which share the Chest funds.

Its estimated budget for 1950 has been announced, calling for total expenditure of $2,385, of which the Chest is asked to supply $4,385. The remaining $2,000 is the expected balance in the bank for the Girl Scouts at the close of 1949. The overall Chest budget totals $32,000.

R. R. Harrell is finance chairman of the Midland Girl Scouts Association, the adult organization which guides the program here.

Training Comes First

Budget estimates for 1950 are grouped in eight divisions. First on the list is the training program, and $900 is asked for training leaders at approved courses in Midland and elsewhere, supplies for leaders and workers, and expenses of trainers while in Midland.

Program expense is expected to total $300, including the annual tea, the father-daughter banquet, court of awards, entertainment for leaders and obtaining speakers.

Annual Day Camps call for $750 of the budget funds. This is for the Summer Day Camp at Cleverdale Park and the yearly camp for negro Girl Scouts.

Organization expense of $400 will include supplies for leaders and troops, material for troop projects, films for leader enrichment and troop study, and equipment.

Administrative Costs

The fifth budget item is public relations, calling for $500. This will cover registrar's work, camping out of season at Mitre Peak Girl Scout Camp, Summer camp scholarships, radio time and material, photographs and newspaper cuts, and playing host to area council meetings.

Administrative expense of $300 will be for stationery and supplies, and entertainment of national and regional staff members.

Seven hundred dollars is allotted for Leaders Clubs, to pay for working material for troops and visual education for both leaders and Scouts.

The area pledge of $2,000 and the national charter fee of $35 will complete the budget. Area pledges from all cities in the Permian Basin Area support the work done by that organization, including the area camp at Mitre Peak near Alpine.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses have been issued by the county clerk to LeRoy Jones Gibson and Dorothy Marie Mudd, and Edward John Smith and Dora Yvonne Driver.

Association Is Girl Scout Planning Body

Bringing together the plans of 46 different troops for observance of National Girl Scout Week, the Midland Girl Scout Association is giving the program as it does other activities of the members here.

Although each troop plans its own projects and programs, all participate in some city-wide events including those of Girl Scout Week. The association plans those events, recruits and trains troop leaders, supplies reference material and other equipment for troop activities and correlates the efforts of the 46 groups.

Officers Listed

Mrs. R. E. Morgan is serving as association president this year, with Mrs. C. E. Bissell as vice president; Mrs. W. W. Wilson, secretary; J. C. Rinker, treasurer, and Mrs. Don Johnson, registrar.

Committee chairmen are Mrs. Vernon Bottoms, organization; Mrs. Rinker, training; R. R. Harrell, finance; the Rev. R. J. Snell, publicity, with Mrs. Floyd Coleman assisting on newspaper publicity and Dick Looby on radio publicity; Mrs. C. E. George, program; Mrs. J. J. Black, camp, and Mrs. Robert Payne, building fund.

Members of the association's 1949 nominating committee are Mrs. George Turner, Mrs. J. K. Redden and Mrs. Stanley Brakine.

Leaders Clubs Are Formed To Assist Girl Scout Workers

Better correlation of Girl Scout programs for Midland troops and an exchange of information among leaders are provided in leaders' clubs, organized at the beginning of troop meetings this Fall in each school.

The separate clubs replace the former city-wide Leaders Club, which had become unwieldy with the growing number of troops. Each club now has its officers and also a representative to meetings of the Midland Girl Scout Association.

For leaders of troops in the South Elementary School, Mrs. Fred Burleson is chairman; Mrs. D. G. Dawkins, secretary; Mrs. C. O. Fredregill, club representative; and Mrs. Bill Roush, organization chairman.

Other Leaders

Mrs. R. R. O'Neal is chairman of the North Elementary Leaders Club; Mrs. Charles Gibbs, secretary; Mrs. H. T. Brady, representative; and Mrs. H. L. Huffman, organization chairman.

Officers of the club at the West Elementary School are Mrs. Fred Speers, chairman; Mrs. Charles Horton, secretary; Mrs. R. L. Goss, representative, and Mrs. Jack Moore, organization chairman.

For the Junior High club, Mrs. Clyde Davidson is chairman; Mrs. W. H. Carter, secretary; and Mrs. J. J. Black, organization chairman. Mrs. Don Johnson is chairman of the Senior Troop Leaders Club and Mrs. M. E. Arick, organization chairman.

Important Roles In 81st Legislature Were Played By Lone Star Lawmakers

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Texans played leading parts in the long running first session of the 81st Congress.

Speaker Sam Rayburn of Bonham guided the House of Representatives keeping it at least two steps ahead of the Senate from the opening day of the session in January until adjournment the night of October 19.

In fact, senators still were giving out with oratory when Rayburn banged his gavel and adjourned the House.

Before the echo of his gavel's sound had died, Chairman Cooley (D-NC) of the House Agriculture Committee leaped to his feet to say three young women of his staff were on hand to sing a tribute to Speaker Rayburn and to lead the "vacation-bound congressmen in some farewell melodies.

With that the three secretaries—none from Texas—begin to sing "The Eyes of Texas." Rayburn grinned and broke out in song, then waved to the entire House to stand for the Texas national anthem.

Throughout the chamber the Texas members were leading the chorus, and enough other members knew the words to make the song ring out into the corridors and foyer.

Others Are Leaders. Other Texans with leading roles in the work of the House were Reps. Bob Poage of Waco, who handled farm bills; George Mahon of Lubbock and Colorado City, who steered the $15,000,000 military appropriation measure to passage; and Albert Thomas of Houston who handled the civilian agency funds.

On The Senate Side. The veteran Tom Connally successfully piloted the administration's foreign program, as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Lyndon B. Johnson, although a new member, gained considerable recognition in conducting several hearings, and led the successful fight for rejection of the nomination of Leland Olds for reappointment to the Federal Power Commission.

Around The Capital. Baylories in Washington are playing the drive of the university for funds to build a new stadium at Waco. Connally and Poage head the list of notable alumni here. One of Poage's assistants, Houston Clinton, Jr., class of '49 in law, handled the "kick-off" banquet launching the local drive.

The Texas State Society opened its Fall season with a dance and card party at historic Gadsby's Tavern in Alexandria, Va. It was in this building that Washington took over command of colonial forces. The four-story red brick building, well preserved, is now owned by the Alexandria American Legion Post.

Department States Rubber Exports Off. WASHINGTON—(AP)—Shipments of rubber and rubber products from this country dropped to $7,913,269 in August, the Department of Commerce reported.

Except for last November, when a shipping strike sharply reduced shipments, August exports were the lowest since October, 1945.

Exports of truck and bus tires, valued at $3,153,448 in August, were the lowest so far this year. Shipments of passenger car casings, valued at $626,223, were somewhat above recent levels.

The department said rubber and rubber product shipments for the first eight months of this year totaled $82,445,494, a decline of 11.5 per cent from the same period last year.

Clinic To Be Built Near Midland Memorial Hospital

A modern, well-equipped clinic will be built in the 2200 block of West Illinois Street by three doctors, who are moving to Midland. They are Doctors John, Henrie and Clarence S. Mast. The location is across the street from Midland Memorial Hospital. It will be known as the Mast Clinic. The doctors are brothers. The clinic structure will be of latest design and will contain a pharmacy department in which a registered pharmacist will be on duty. Modern equipment, including X-ray, will be installed. The Masts, well-known doctors in West Texas, chose Midland as a location for their clinic because, they said: "Midland is destined to become a medical center and it is an alert, growing city." They added: "When we came out of military service, we toured the country to find the exact location we desired—Midland is it." All three of the doctors are Johns Hopkins University Medical School graduates.

TEXAS TODAY—

Job Of Removing Chaos From Lawmaking Is Up To Legislative Council

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas is trying a new angle of attack on knotty legislative problems. It has joined 22 other states in setting up a legislative council to pre-digest proposed major laws before starting them on the formal road to enactment.

Backers of the plan hope it will result in a more orderly process of lawmaking. They hope it will eliminate some of the haphazard legislation and lawmaking blunders that have marred many past sessions.

Eventually, it may supplant the custom of setting up a wide variety of interim committees to study proposed legislation and bring it before the lawmakers. The theory is that one such committee including both Senate and House members, reinforced by a technical staff of researchers, can operate more efficiently and with less expense than several such bodies.

The Texas Legislative Council was held at its first meeting that this has been true in Kansas, where the idea of unified between-session research was pioneered in 1933.

The speaker was Frederick H. Guild, a tart-tongued little man who admitted he might be correctly addressed as "doctor," but not as "professor." He is the director of research for the Kansas council. His salary is $8,500 a year and he said this was a little embarrassing because it was more than the governor of Kansas got until the chief executive's salary was raised recently.

Hobby For Many Years. Guild told the Texas council that the idea of such legislative research agencies had been a hobby of his for many years as a member of the American Political Science Association. He admitted bias in favor of the notion of letting unbiased research dig up all the facts on which to base legislation and governmental policy, letting the chips fall where and on whom they may.

He said even the lobbyists in Kansas were beginning to be sold on the idea since sometimes things they wanted turned out to be supported by the facts. Not always, but sometimes.

Guild related that there had been something missing in the lawmaking process in Kansas and the first problem of the council was to restore the confidence of the people in the legislature.

Before that happened, the legislature had to restore confidence in itself. He said the council helped to do this.

The lawmakers had been trying to do a job without the proper tools. The research staff employed to dig into any problem and come up with the facts were seen as the proper equipment for sound legislation based on services the public needs, plus full information on all factors bearing on it.

Recommendations Plan. Guild said he was completely sold on the idea. He thought Kansas was profiting by it. He unequivocally recommended that Texas follow a similar pattern.

Just how the Texas council will work is still not known. Committees were appointed at the first meeting to work on a possible agenda and to make policy recommendations. This should jell before the November meeting of the council, but whether it will be able to set up its permanent staff of researchers in time to have much effect on the January session of the legislature remains to be seen.

Also unknown is what the legislature's collective attitude will be toward recommendations made by a council as the result of academic research.

You can already hear some members shouting the frazzled phrase: "long-haired professors." Guild said he knew all about this. The council's big problem in pushing its ideas through the lawmaking bill will be to sell the legislators themselves on the soundness of the procedure of using the scientific approach to state policy problems.

But when you put research in its shirt-sleeves and remove the ivory tower stigma from it, he said, you can get somewhere. Many legislators have had experience in local government and the practical aspects of lawmaking.

When you can combine this with the factual results of real research, you have translated the problem into terms that can be understood.

Soft-Hearted Police Auctioneer Helps 100 Detroit Youngsters Buy Bicycles For Buck

DETROIT—(AP)—About 100 Detroit youngsters now are riding new bicycles because a police auctioneer had an understanding heart.

Alex Anderson was auctioning off unclaimed property—bicycles, sports equipment, adding machines, wallets and jewelry—at the Police Department's annual sale.

His customers included children clutching hoarded nickels and dimes and a group of grownups.

Anderson wheeled up the first bike and a man at the back shouted a bid of $10. Another called out $15.

"Now hold everything," said Anderson. "This is for kids. Only kids will bid and the bidding starts at a quarter."

It didn't go much higher than that. After two young brothers had bid a dollar, Anderson stopped the bidding and the grinning boys took the bike.

After that Anderson wouldn't hear a bid over a dollar until each child had a bicycle. One little girl explained she had saved only 82 cents.

"Pay the man your money, honey," smiled Anderson. "You've got a bicycle."

After the last child rode off happily, the adult bidding quickly disposed of the remainder for a total sale of $3,554.

Wives Get Rough In Tarrant County. FORT WORTH—(AP)—A Tarrant County dairyman asked in district court a divorce on these grounds:

His bride of six months chased him "through and over" fences with a butcher knife.

Cursed his mother. Ripped out wires from his auto. And finally, dumped out a day's production of milk.

Specimens of Douglas fir trees have been found in Canada which are believed to be more than 700 years old.

Part Of Camp Hood Will Be Renamed Gray Air Force Base

TEMPLE—(AP)—A part of Camp Hood becomes "Gray Air Force Base" November 1.

"We appreciate them thinking that much about Robert," said Mrs. J. Marvin Gray, mother of the boy for whom the base is named.

Capt. Robert Manning Gray, killed in a plane crash in India. That was six months after he flew with Jimmy Doolittle's Tokyo raiders.

Gray went to Texas A&M College one year, then switched to John Tarrant College, where he played football.

He enlisted in the Army in 1941 and became a flying cadet. He won his wings at Kelly Field.

On Oct. 18, 1942, his plane crashed while he was flying the Hump in India.

Old Age Is Tough, Says Peggy, 12, On Leaving Radio Show

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—After giving the best years of her life to radio, Peggy Bruder has to live up her microphone job because of old age. "I don't feel too old to go on, but I guess they know best," she said mournfully.

Peggy is 12. "An old woman," she said. "I realize that."

For three years Peggy has been a star panelist on WOR's network program, "Juvenile Jury." On the program five experts from four to twelve years hear the problems of other children and suggest how to solve them.

"What those five-year-olds come up with you wouldn't believe," said Peggy, a blue-eyed girl with long, blonde curls.

"It gets to the point where the problems don't seem serious—only comical. And we try to make the audience laugh because of a clever answer."

Getting Sophisticated. And that is the key to her temporarily forced retirement. For a child trying to be clever is rarely as funny as a child who is spontaneous. Or as Jack Barry, program moderator, put it:

"We depend for laughs and pace on the off-the-cuff answers of the kids. At 12 a child begins to get a little sophisticated."

Sunday Peggy will make her final broadcast. After that she has nothing to look forward to but adolescence, high school, college, an acting career, matrimony, motherhood and children, middle age, grandmotherhood, some more old age—and then the final curtain. That's all there is left when you're already 12.

Miss Bruder, who is a star student in the eighth grade, isn't too dismayed at the road ahead.

"Radio really has been wonderful to me," she said, just to prove she held no hard feelings because the show must go on without her. "It's taught me to face an audience and to ad lib. I no longer have stage fright."

"Now I want to go on and be a dramatic actress. I love it, and I've been studying for it. I think I'd rather be in the movies—every girl looks forward to that. But right now I believe television is the right thing to be in."

Jimmy Spiva May Live To Birthday; Had Early Party

Remember little Jimmy Spiva of Terminal?

He is the little boy who was given an early birthday party.

He was given his seventh birthday party, September 11 at Cloverdale Park.

His birthday is November 1. They were afraid Jimmy might not make it but it seems now that he will. He is alive in California taking treatments.

Jimmy doesn't know that he has leukemia.

Jimmy Spiva

How much longer Jimmy will live past his birthday, if he does, is problematical.

Midland persons, who are friends of the Spivas, have contributed toward medical treatment for the boy. They invite other citizens to join them. Contributions may be mailed to Mrs. R. C. Champion at 610 South Baird Street in Midland.

Jimmy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Spiva. The Spivas live at Terminal. The father is a painting contractor.

The cast of "Undertow" includes: Virginia Breedlove, as Miss Abby Blackwell; Billie Love as Mrs. Rosalie Blackwell Edwards; Maggie Murphy as Mrs. Grant; Betty Parker as Miss Susan Jordan; Margie Carter as Miss Mary Ann Jordan; Carol Glahn as Mrs. Klitzmuller; Jo Ann Nelson as Mrs. Sorenson; Marijann Forest as Mrs. Wood and Wanda Jo Hankla as Mrs. Slickner.

When In Rome— Notebook Theme

The Latin classes of MHS have turned in their six-week notebooks. Each of these notebooks has a special section about early Roman life. A few of the following have the most varied sections:

Martha Frick has illustrations of scenes of early Roman life. She also has a chart showing the relation of Latin words to English, Spanish, Portuguese, French and Italian words.

Mary Ann Seales has cut out different headlines from newspapers and magazines and placed them in her notebook. Under each, she has written the Latin stem for the key words in the headlines.

John Wood has written a paper explaining the Roman form of government and has compared it to our present day democracy.

Roving Reporter

By HELEN CARTWRIGHT
Your Roving Reporter this week decided that the term "school spirit" was a very broad term. Therefore students were asked their definition of the term "school spirit":

Myra Lumpkin — "Backing all school activities."
Jean Blackwell — "Show enthusiasm for everything the school does."
Wayne Bailey — "Keeping up school work and supporting the teams of the school."

Pauline Rasgo — "Participating in all school activities."
Vera Beasley — "Be loyal to the school."
Dorothy Allen — "Cooperate with the school."

Daisy Merritt — "Saying something good about all the teams representing the school."
Janet Hoffer — "The feeling you have for the school."
Randall Gibson — "Doing your best for the school."

John Klingler — "Wholehearted support of all activities of the school."
Wanda Burnside — "Everyone cooperating to make the school a better place."

"What You Can To Help"
Rosalynn Leggett — "Doing what you can to help the school."
Claudine Hammar — "Taking part in school activities."
Barbara Long — "Being a good sport—win or lose."

Sam Van Landingham — "Doing your best in your school."
Eddie Spain — "The way you feel about your school."
Royce Measures — "It's what it takes to make a good school and a thriving one."

Margaret Thomas — "Obey the rules of the school in assembly, games, etc."
Mary Ann Seales — "Treating school property as you would your own."

Marcelino Moreno — "Cooperating with everyone."
Mary De Berry — "Attitude of kids toward school."
Sue Talkington — "Everyone standing behind all activities of school."

George James — "It's being thankful for the things we have—not griping about the things we don't have."

Matthews Attends Principals' Meet
Mr. Charles Matthews, MHS principal, returned Wednesday, October 26, from Austin where he attended a meeting of the Texas Association of Secondary School Principals. Wesley Martin, principal of Midland Junior High School, also attended the meeting.

Several of the subjects discussed at this meeting were: "Essential Factors Underlying an Effective Guidance Program," "Life Adjustment Education," and "Special High School Problems," such as enrollment and withdrawal.

Masquerade Ball Held At Center Hallowe'en Event

Ghosts stalked the floor, witches danced with delight, and there was confusion in general when it came to the identity of the group members assembled at the Youth Center-sponsored masquerade ball, Saturday, October 29.

The Youth Center has sponsored many dances since the beginning of the school year, particularly after home football games. The masquerade dance is in keeping with the Hallowe'en season.

The center dance was very successful and all identities were kept until a late hour when there was a general unmasking.

Traditional Decorations and Hallowe'en's traditional colors, orange and black crepe paper streamers adorned the nooks and corners of the Center. Pumpkins hung around the snack bar and shocks of corn were placed around the floor which was waxed especially for the occasion.

Music was furnished by the juke box. David Anguish headed the decoration committee and was assisted by Nancy McKinley, Gail Baker and Maxine Hill.

Chaperones for the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Slough, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ragan and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gwyn.

Bulldogs Take On Cubs Friday
The Midland Bulldogs travel to Brownfield to play their second conference game of the season Friday, November 4.

Brownfield and Midland both have suffered defeats this season due largely to inexperience. Midland should take this game, however, as the Bulldogs are slightly larger and have shown a vast improvement over their early season play.

Brownfield runs the T-formation with a few single wing plays mixed in. Dale Cary is the Brownfield "T" quarterback and does the passing for the Cubs. The Cub backfield is rounded out with Bob Billings, fullback; Clyde Chambliss and John Thompson as halfbacks. The Cub line averages 170 pounds per man but the weight is all in one man, Guard Hartsell Blake, who weighs an even 250. When Blake leaves the game Brownfield weight average drops considerably.

L. C. Thomas is a very consistent fullback for the Bulldogs. Jack Burris is looking better day after day on end sweeps and off-tackle slants. Charles Crowley does most of the Bulldogs' passing. Reed Gilmore does the signal-calling from the blocking back position. Bob Evans, Harrie Smith, and Jimmy Lineberger are the Bulldogs' most dependable ends. The middle of the Bulldog line consists of Jim O'Neal at center; Jack Mobley and Dalton Byers at guard positions; Wood and Alfred Baze at tackle positions.

Freshmen Comment On 'Vandalism'
Vandalism was the topic discussed in Mrs. Paris' freshman English classes Monday, October 24. The students were asked their opinions of vandalism and what they thought would be the best remedy for it. These freshmen had some very mature ideas on the subject. The following are a few of their answers:

Jean Waddill — "A vandal wants to be the talk of the high school, but if he knew that he only was destroying his character, he would stop."

Teddy Kerr — "I think vandalism is caused by the person who is not thinking."

Patsy Blansett — "We should take it upon ourselves to have courage enough to ask the vandal not to do things like that."

Eva Faye Brown — "I think vandalism can be stopped if the vandals are made to realize what they are doing and how selfish and silly they are being."

Golden Rule Suggested
Joann Hamilton — "It could be stopped if every time they started to commit vandalism, they would put themselves in the place of the people whose things they are destroying."

Pat Bostwick — "Most kids use vandalism to destroy things of which they are jealous."

Barbara Ware — "Vandalism is caused by selfish, ignorant people who think they are smart."

Glenn Williams — "Vandalism could be stopped if he, or she, would sit down and think things out clearly."

Ruth Nell Kuykendall — "Any person who commits an act of vandalism shows that he is ignorant and has no respect for other people's property."

Buzzy Bray — "Vandalism is a thing that has gone on all through history. I believe that it is caused by lack of rearing and it surely reflects on the parents."

Love's Lane

By BILLIE LOVE
Has anyone seen my dark blue sweater?

"Twirp season is here! Happy Day! Now I have a chance for a date with my current swoon man. I'm going down to the BOI, bureau of information, both (pronounced boy booth) and see if he already has a date, first thing in the morning."

Fiction or Fact? There are 29 typewriters in the typing room and 44 complete bricks above the water faucet directly across from the typing room.

Clifford Wilcox will be back in school before very long, and we will soon be seeing him in his role of the grandfather in the Junior Play, "Meet Me In St. Louis."

The cafeteria now has its new oven, which accounts for the hot rolls, cornbread, and fresh pastries being served in the lunch room.

To geometry students: Using the following axiom: "Things equal to the same or equal things are therefore equal to each other," see if this statement is true: man and cat are animal—man has whiskers—cat has whiskers—therefore cat equals man.

Afternoon classes have a few laughs, especially since we have had a daily third grade visitor who has lost her "dark blue sweater." She bangs on the door, dashes in and states her problem, only to be met with negative answers. The only difference was in Miss Gordon's English class where she spied Max Schaffer and let out a lusty, "Hello Max."

Orchids to the custodians who removed the tar from the front of the school and... Onions to those who put it there.

Dates Announced
November 14 and 15 are dates of the annual Junior Play, "Meet Me In St. Louis," adapted from Sally Benson's book by Perry Clark. Miss Verna Harris, director, says. The admission fee will be 40 cents for students and 50 cents for adults. The curtain will rise promptly at 8:00 p.m. both nights.

What's This All About Hallowe'en!

By KATHERINE LEWIS

As Hallowe'en draws near and one is confronted with witches, goblins, black cats and ghosts the question arises—What is the meaning of all this and how was the celebration begun?

Hallowe'en, or All Hallows Eve, ante dates Christianity and goes back to the time when the Druids, ancient tribes of Germany, Gaul, and England, believed that on this particular night of the year, Saman, Lord of Death, called all the evil spirits together and they roamed the face of the earth. Large bon-fires were built to drive the spirits away and the Druids stayed around the fires and told one another their own experiences with the ghosts. In parts of Ireland, this procedure was called "Oidhne Shamhna" meaning "vigil of Saman."

How did the world begin celebrating Hallowe'en by playing games and eating fruits and nuts? Pomona, goddess of fruits and gardens, was responsible for that. Ancient Rome held celebrations after the crops were harvested which was a time of games and feasting. Both the Druid's celebration and the Roman festivities were the same time more or less combined.

Modern Way Is Far Cry
The modern way of celebrating this occasion is a far cry from the above so thus comes the question of how this change came about?

During the Christian era, All Saints Day came into being in November, and a few of the superstitious customs and traditions were replaced. However, the people still kept some of the old beliefs. Through the centuries and with the enlightenment of Christianity the occasion gradually became one of make-believe for the entertainment of children. Hence the costumes and carnival atmosphere. No matter what the origin it remains a time of pranks, of mystery, and of great fun for the young people of many lands.

The Brahmaputra River, with a length of 1880 miles, ranks 28th largest in the world.

Cafeteria Menu

Monday: Country sausage with cream gravy, mashed potatoes, green beans, raw carrots, canned peaches, hot rolls, milk.

Tuesday: Cheese, spaghetti with tomatoes, beans, combination salad, cornbread, hot rolls, cake squares, milk.

DUNCAN, B. C. —(AP)—A "you-all" southern accent on the police radio of this Western Canadian town baffled officers recently. The voice identified itself as of the Charleston, S. C. police department. Freak atmospheric conditions apparently were responsible.

Concrete Floors Need Special Care

When the concrete floor of a basementless house rests on the ground, a waterproof membrane of asphalt saturated felt will help keep the interior of the home dry and comfortable. The ground should be covered first with a coarse granular fill about six inches deep. This should be topped with a thin coating made from one part Portland cement, three parts screened sand and water. To apply the waterproof membrane, mop hot asphalt over the cement coating. Place a layer of 15-pound asphalt saturated roofing felt over the hot asphalt. Then mop with hot asphalt again, place a second layer of felt and apply a final hot asphalt coating on top. The concrete floor slab goes over the protective asphalt felt. Care must be taken to keep the edges of the slab from touching the foundation walls. It is advisable to use fiber or cork board insulation between the slab and the foundation to block the passage of cold from the ground to the house floor.

Solid Brick Walls Require Insulation

Although many owners of homes of solid brick or masonry construction believe otherwise, it is twice as important to insulate the walls of these homes as to insulate the walls of a frame house, and four times as important to insulate the solid walls as the roof, it was asserted by the Construction Research Bureau, New York clearing house for building information.

Studying tests conducted at the University of Illinois, the bureau said that 40 per cent of the season's fuel can be saved if the eight-inch-thick walls of a two-story solid brick or masonry house are insulated with 3 1/2 inches of mineral wool between the brick and plaster. Insulation of this thickness in the walls of a frame house of the same size saves 19 per cent of the fuel. The difference is that solid masonry is a better conductor of heat than wood.

The tests showed that where 138 fuel units are required to heat a house with uninsulated walls eight inches thick, 36 units can be saved with full-thickness mineral wool, and that even one inch of mineral wool will save 45 units. Fuel savings with four inches of this insulating material between roof and living area amount to 13 units in a frame house requiring 100 heat units, or in a solid masonry house requiring 138. "From this it should be evident that side-wall insulation is a must for a solid masonry house of any size, even more important than roof insulation," the bureau said. "A 3 1/2-inch layer of mineral wool has the insulating efficiency of 12 feet of concrete."

Squeaking Floors In Home Usually Mean Loose Boards

By BOB SCHARFF
Written for NEA Service
Does your floor squeak? Usually this means loose boards in either the subflooring or the finish flooring.

Careful examination of the floor where the squeaking occurs usually will reveal the fault. If a single floor board moves when weight is applied and released, you have only the finish floor board to work on, but if two or three together move slightly, then the subflooring is loose.

If the fault is in the subflooring of the first floor, it's easy to get at from the basement. Screw a hardwood cleat to the joist, then pull the subfloor board down to it with long screws that carry through the subfloor and more than halfway into the top flooring. When the finish floor is to blame, drive a few carefully-placed 7/8-inch screws through the subfloor and into the loose top boards. Finish With Putty

If the loose boards are above a plastered ceiling, drive in 1 1/2-inch finishing nails. Be careful not to split the boards. Set the nails with a punch and finish with putty. Spot on a touch of varnish or shellac after the putty has set, to cover the hole.

Where movement is detected at the butt ends of the strips, a screw straddling the joint will pull both ends down solidly. Use a 7/8-inch, number 10 flat head screw in a counterbored hole centered on the joint. Counterbore just enough to allow the screw head to be hidden with wood putty. Finish the hole to match the floor as closely as possible.

If floorboards that are apparently tight squeak, locate the spot and drop a little penetrating oil or powdered graphite into the crack.

Rationless Meals For Czechoslovakia

PRAGUE —(AP)—For the first time in ten years Czechs can walk into some restaurants these days, order a steak and a bottle of Pilsner beer and walk out without plunking down ration coupons. But only a few Czechs can take advantage of this new freedom because "off ration meals" usually cost from 50 to 100 per cent more than those paid for with the little blue stamps. The price for a rationless meal, including soup, beer, a meat course and dessert, is a minimum of 100 crown ($2). Few Czechs can afford such prices more than once a week.

Space, Dollar-Savers For Home Are Listed

A space-saver as well as a money-saver is a broad hinged shelf in the kitchen that drops down against the wall when not in use for eating or kitchen work. A variation of this is the shelf that folds up flat against the wall after use.

Save money and space with built-in kitchen cupboards and dish shelves; built-in drawers in clothes closets; built-in desks and bookshelves. Built-ins save floor space and give the home individuality.

Eliminate the fussy fireplace mantel; frame the opening with wide stock molding. This gives a pleasing design for either traditional or modern houses.

Let interior wood paneling retain its natural finish to avoid frequent painting. A light coat of wax will bring out the natural beauty of the wood.

Interior doors made of boards and battens and securely cross-braced on one side cost less than ready-made doors and add a picturesque touch to a ranch-type house.

Keep plumbing pipes as close together as possible, to save building and material costs. Plan kitchen and bathroom back-to-back with the kitchen sink on the wall next to the bath; if a two-story house, place the bathroom directly above the kitchen.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And The Bouncing Egg

When Sammy Ringtail was only a little monkey boy, he found an egg that was very round like a ball. It was brown, too, like a rubber ball that is brown. The egg looked exactly like a brown rubber ball, except that it was really an egg. Sammy climbed up to the monkey house to show it to Daddy Ringtail. "Hmmm!" said Daddy

Ringtail, because he was sitting there on the porch in a chair, almost asleep.

"Daddy Ringtail," said Sammy, when Daddy Ringtail was holding the egg in his hand and looking at it, "it looks so much like a ball; do you think it will bounce like a ball if I drop it?"

What a question! Whoever heard of an egg that will bounce. Daddy Ringtail smiled. "An egg won't bounce," he said. He gave it back to Sammy and closed his eyes to go to sleep.

Sammy walked over to the edge of the porch. He looked way down at the ground. He looked at the egg. It did look so much like a ball. Sammy had the ball in his pocket that the egg looked like. He pulled it out. It was a brown ball, like the egg, and round even as the egg was round. He held the ball out in his hand, over the edge of the porch, and dropped it. It fell down and bounced and fell and bounced and fell. What a wonderful bouncer the ball was, but at last it quit bouncing and lay very still. Sammy could see it down on the ground.

Sammy looked at the egg in his hand as he stood there on the porch. He looked again at the ball on the ground. They looked so much alike, the egg and the ball. Why wouldn't the egg bounce? Daddy Ringtail had said it wouldn't, but Daddy Ringtail had never tried to bounce the egg. He might be mistaken, Sammy thought, and he knew of a way to find out.

He held the egg out in his hand, over the edge of the porch. He turned it loose. It fell. Down, down, and down. It hit the ground. Kersplatt! And that was the end of the egg. It broke, you know, and didn't bounce even once, but Sammy was satisfied. He had found out for himself. Too bad about the egg, now that it was broken, for who can put a broken egg together again? Nobody, but happy day!

Hughes Jewelry Celebrates Fourth Anniversary Here

Observing its fourth anniversary as a Midland business institution is the Hughes Jewelry Company, 203 West Wall Street. The firm, owned and operated by John H. Hughes, was opened in its present location four years ago, on October 28.

Many new lines of fine merchandise have been added by Hughes Jewelry Company since its opening.

Hughes has been a Midland resident 15 years and has been in the jewelry business in West Texas since 1930.

The firm is located in a modern store which was remodeled when the business was started.

Manufacturing Jewelers — Two men are employed in the watch repair department which also does diamond setting and engraving. Manufacturing jewelry work is another service of the firm.

The leading lines of fine watches, silver, sterling, plate, china and crystal regularly are featured by the store.

Fine English reproductions of Sheffield plate designs in silverware may be found at Hughes Jewelry Company.

Hughes expressed his appreciation to his many friends and customers who made the growth and success of the firm possible.

Bissell, who has been in the insurance business 20 years this month, has been in that profession here since 1946 when he was released from the Air Force with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

He was assigned to Midland Army Air Field in May of 1942, serving as commandant of cadets. His family moved here later that year. Bissell was in the insurance business at Providence, R. I., previous to the war years. He served at several Air Force installations in addition to MAAF. Relieved from active duty early in 1946, he returned to Midland to make his permanent home.

He has been active in civic, church, youth and military affairs here. A member of the Chamber of Commerce, he was named "Top Wrangler" of that organization's Wranglers Club two consecutive years, rounding up approximately 300 new C. of C. members. He is adjutant of the 9816th Air Force Reserve Unit here, and is vice president of the Permian Basin Area Girl Scout Council.

Father Describes What It's Like To See His Youngster Wage Battle Against Polio

By LLOYD SVEN
Written for NEA Service

FARGO, N.D. — "Get the respirator!"

The doctor darts back to the hospital room where my four-year-old son, Bradley, lies, stricken with polio, writhes in an oxygen tent.

The iron lung is wheeled in a doctors and nurses carry Brad from his bed.

My wife, Dorothy, stands beside me, hands clenched. "Hurry, hurry, hurry!"

The attendants snap the respirator cover shut. Doctors fit the collar around Brad's little neck. All you can see is the curly head with the ashen face so motionless.

The electric cord plugged in. The rhythmic huff and clank of the bellows on the respirator begins.

Fear seethes inside you, until you are breathing hard and fast, trying to help your boy's lungs get life-saving oxygen. He needs so terribly fast.

You are beseeching God incoherently, trying to sustain your wife at the same time.

A doctor comes over. "I think we are winning."

You look at the little head. A nurse holds an oxygen mask above Brad's colorless lips.

Opens Eyes

Later—agonizingly later—the grey little face gets a pale pink. Then slowly the cheeks are the healthy tan you knew so well. Brad opens his eyes, feels oxygen tickling his face.

"You dummy. You dummy, take the dumb thing off," he says.

The doctor says to Brad: "Good boy," then turns to you. "He's out of immediate danger, thanks to the respirator."

The respirator—the iron lung which first struck terror in your heart, became a close friend, because it is breathing for your boy. Your boy who has bulbar polio.

You take up your vigil outside the door, and thank God for that iron lung, and the doctors and nurses who are watching Brad as if he were their own.

You remember how hopeless it seemed—until the Fargo chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis got on the job.

Remember Call

You remember the telephone call you got that day from the chapter: "There are two things we don't want you to worry about. One is the medical care, it is as good here as it is anywhere. The other is the money. We will pay for everything where the cost would force you to lower your ordinary living standards."

One terrible night your son begins to have trouble swallowing. He suddenly is out of step with the respirator. Color drains from his face.

Doctors work feverishly, deflating the room with the iron lung blurs. A doctor finally says, "He's snapped out of it."

"Are there nothing but crises with polio?" you ask brokenly.

He said wearily, "Fighting polio is like climbing into a boxing ring blindfolded against a heavyweight champ. He lands a blow. You try to keep a step ahead of him but you don't know where he's going to punch next."

Wander All Day

The iron lung huffs on. Brad lives by intravenous feedings until the wonderful day comes when again he can swallow normally. Penicillin shots are administered daily—not to fight the polio virus, for there is no known medicine which can conquer it—but to ward off pneumonia.

"This must be costing a lot of money," I said one day to the hospital administrator.

"There is no charge for the iron lung," he said. "The respirators in Fargo were purchased by the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and other organizations and they are free."

Bulbar polio only rarely is paralyzing to the limbs, but Brad sustained that also. Hot pack treatments began.

"Where do you get the hot pack machines?" I asked a nurse.

"The National Foundation," came the oft-heard answer.

First Of Month

It was the first of the month. The bills piled up. Hospital's $416, for 16 days. Oxygen—$155, the private room needed because a respirator takes up so much space, $136, and other charges.

Special nurses every hour—$550. They earned every cent of it, with constant devotion and vigilance to the patient. The doctor's bill isn't in yet, but he, too, deserves a life and death fee.

That bill, more than $1000, is only for the first 16 days and it's only one case of polio. In this,

Billy Joe Sveen in the worst epidemic year in the United States, with 40,000 cases anticipated for the year, is it any wonder the National Foundation's funds are exhausted?

What lies ahead for my son? Long days of recuperation, of hot packs and treatment including special nursing. How many can pay such bills without lowering their standard of living?

Anyone wonder why the National Foundation has been forced, reluctantly, to come with a special appeal for funds? Anyone doubt that the money is well spent?

I can tell you, straight from my heart that it is.

Shotgun Tests For Multiple Ills May Save Many Lives

NEW YORK —(AP)— A shotgun hunt to find and halt diseases you don't even know you have looks like the next big health step.

The shotgun hunt will be a quick series of tests at one time to check for tuberculosis, diabetes, anemia, some kinds of cancer and heart diseases, syphilis, and other diseases. It will take perhaps 15 to 30 minutes.

At present such hunts are done separately, like firing single bullets. There are cancer detection centers, mass chest X-ray surveys for TB, surveys to find diabetes and syphilis.

These hunts find thousands of people who have the disease being checked. People are sent to their physicians for early treatment that can save life. But each hunt can overlook other serious, even unsuspected diseases.

Tying the tests together was described to the American Public Health Association by Dr. Lester Breslow, chief of the Chronic Disease Service, California State Department of Public Health.

Even a simple battery of tests probably could spot 20 to 25 people with unsuspected, significant disease out of each 1,000 examined, he said.

PECOS—The Pecos School District now includes an area of 1,317 square miles—larger than the state of Rhode Island—and the valuation of the district is placed at $12,808,199, Ray Whitley, city school superintendent, told members of the Lions Clubs and guests at a recent meeting.

Pecos school district is divided into four sections, with the Pecos area leading in valuations—$3,765,858. The other sections and the valuation in each include: Oria, $1,609,980; Patrole, $832,875; and Saragosa, $1,475,806.

Reviews Growth

In his talk Whitley reviewed the growth of the Pecos school system during the last few years, and praised the school board for the excellent progress made in the construction of new schools in the district. He declared more building must be done in the near future if the school problem is to be solved here.

The Pecos schools will receive approximately $81,000 this year under the new Gilmer-Aiken Law, Whitley asserted. Also, for the first time, the local school district will receive aid on its transportation costs—$49.50 per pupil transported or the actual cost, whichever is smaller. It will amount to about $7,000 per year.

There now are 68 teachers in the Pecos system and all have at least BA degrees while nine of them have MA degrees.

JayCee Directors To Hold Annual State Meeting In Lubbock

ABILENE—The Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce will open its annual State Board of Directors meeting in Lubbock Saturday, November 5. The Keynote Luncheon will mark the beginning of activities with the main address to be given by Clifford D. Cooper, president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. J. W. Marshall, president of Wayland College, El Paso, will be guest speaker at the general assembly on November 5. He will speak on the organization's number one state project, JayCee Universal Understanding.

El Paso, Mexico City Highway Will Be Open In Few Months

EL PASO—(P)—In just a few months the Mexican Central Highway from El Paso to Mexico City will be open to tourists.

It's a new paved route that explores colorful sections of the land below the border. And it will be an important segment in the proposed hemisphere highway from Guatemala to Alaska.

Gov. Foglio Miramontes of Chihuahua, Mexico, says it will be completed by the end of 1949.

Already a few tourists have traveled the unfinished highway. Detours are necessary from Parral, in the state of Chihuahua, to Durango, capital of the state of Durango. Otherwise, the entire road from Juarez to Mexico City is completed.

The major concern of tourists thus far is the lack of suitable tourist accommodations, but these are expected to improve once the highway is completed. Many of the old hotels and restaurants along the route have begun remodeling and enlargement programs.

From the Mexican border city of Juarez, the road winds through five Mexican state capitals, to health resorts, fishing and hunting paradises, and quaint Mexican villages. Fishing Reported Good Chihuahua is the first big city after Juarez. Beyond Chihuahua are Boquilla Lake, where good fishing is reported and the hot sulphur springs of Camargo. Parral, a copper and silver mining town, has a large American settlement.

At present, the highway from Parral to Durango is unpaved but convenient detours to Torreon, a thriving commercial and agriculture center, leads tourists around this section and allow them to continue to Durango, a major entrance to the rugged Sierra Madre mountains. Durango is also the principal resort city located on the west coast of Mexico, which is only an hour's flight by Lama Airlines, the Mexican affiliate of United Airlines. The area around Durango offers hunting for bear, deer, mountain lions, duck and geese.

Pecos Construction Permits Set Record

PECOS—Building permits issued in Pecos for the week ended October 26 totaled $125,700, the highest for any single week since permits were required starting September 1.

This brought the total on building permits to $401,776.97 since September 1. Most of the 24 permits issued this week were for residential construction.
