Tex-Harvey Outpost Has Some Oil Shows

Possibilities of petroleum production have been encountered at a northwest outpost to the Tex-Harvey field in Central-East Midland County at Ted Weiner, and associates No. 1 Hugh Dixon.

This venture had it shows of oil and gas in a drillstem test in the lower Permian at 5,990-7,186 feet. The test was open eight hours. There was a strong blow of air throughout the period.

Recovery was 6.136 feet of heavily oil and gas out drilling mud with some water. Some of the water has not been definitely determined. However, it is generally believed that it is drilling water.

To Deepen 130 Feet
The possible extension is to drill 130 feet deeper to about 7,316 feet and run another drillstem test.

This project is an old exploration which was drilled to 6,150 feet and abandoned as dry at that point in 1947.

Weiner and associates recently re-entered it and are drilling it on down to try to make an oil well from the Sprberry sandy lime section of the lower Permian, which is the pay horizon in the Tex-Harvey field.

Location is 600 feet from south and east lines of the west half of the southeast quarter of section 9, block 37, TP survey, T-3-S.

Scurry Discovery Is Shutin After Flowing

S. B. Roberts, and associates No. 1 Lewis, Central-West Scurry County wildcat, seven miles west of Snyder, has shown more indications that it is a commercial oil well and a discovery for a new producing area from the Canyon reef field.

After the well flowed a total of 177 barrels of oil in 15 hours from open hole between 5,941-58 feet, following acid treatments of 1,000 gallons and 3,000 gallons, the flow died.

The project was swabbed to kick off again, and in five hours it made 46 barrels of oil. The well was then shutin overnight.

When opened after the shutin it kicked off and flowed six and one half hours through an 18/64th inch tubing choke and produced 128 barrels of oil. That, filled all storage on the lease and the well was again shutin.

As soon as more storage is available operators plan to take potential test and complete.

This new production is 467 feet from south and west lines of the southeast quarter of section 246, block 97, H&W survey. That makes it one and one half miles northeast of the nearest producers on the northeast side of the Diamond-M field.

C-S Gains Prospect Sets Casing To Test

Samedan Oil Corporation and Anderson Brothers of Midland, No. 1-E-A Andrews, Central-South Gaines County wildcat, 15 miles south and west of Seminole, had set 7-inch casing at 12,078 feet and is to perforate and test.

The prospective discovery has shown for production in the top of the Ellenburger from 11,899-978 feet. The project was a 41-gallon separator and a test run at 11,890-12,000 feet. That interval showed signs of gas and considerable water.

It has shown for production from the Devonian for a possible 40 barrel-per hour flow.

The development is in the north-west part of the Robertson field, which produces from the Gloriaeta and from the upper Clark Fork. No. 1-E-A Andrews showed signs of production from two zones in the Clark Fork.

The location is 600 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 19, block A-24, pal survey.

Tucker Pool In Crane Gains New Producer

George T. Abell has completed his No. 1-TAS from the Waddell sand of the Simpson in the Tucker field of Southwest Crane County.

Flowing natural, with no water, through a one-half inch tubing choke, the well made a daily production of 354 barrels of 41-gravity oil, with a gas-oil ratio of 4,800-1.

Completion was from open hole between the 5 1/2 inch oil string set at 5,790 feet and the total depth at 5,995 feet.

Open flowing casing pressure was 300 pounds and the open flowing tubing pressure was 370 pounds. This new source of petroleum is (Continued On Page Nine)

Texans Keep Poll Tax; Veto Women On Juries

By The Associated Press
Texans summarily rejected a proposal that state legislators be given a pay raise and meet annually instead of every other year.

They also voted to keep the poll tax as a voting requirement and vetoed a proposal that women be permitted to serve on juries.

Seven of the 10 constitutional amendments voted on Tuesday lost out, returns to the Texas Election Bureau showed Wednesday.

Two apparently were adopted, the unofficial vote-counting agency reported. One—a proposal for trials without jury to determine insanity—hung in the balance Wednesday.

In general, Texans voted against proposals likely to result in higher taxes. The two approved amendments will need no tax support. One would provide for rural fire prevention districts. The other would give the Legislature more leeway in passing laws regulating district court terms and sessions.

The vote was very light. The amendments had not aroused a (Continued On Page Two)

Total Collections In Community Chest Drive Now $21,487

The annual Community Chest finance campaign Wednesday continued its upward trend, with returns totaling $21,487—$10,513 short of its $32,000 goal, Bert Ryan, general chairman, announced.

The breakdown of contributions by classifications is as follows: Big Gifts, $5,295; Ranch and Farm, $1,540; Office Buildings—$3,774; Commercial—$4,200; Residential—$1,513; Unclassified—$3,108; and Schools—$559.

Two more 100 per cent firms were announced Wednesday. They are Midrow Aerial Surveys and Texas Employment Commission.

Drive continues. The drive is continuing at full blast, with no let-up planned until the overall Chest budget is reached.

Ryan urged volunteer workers to complete their assignments promptly and to report receipts to campaign headquarters daily.

The organizations participating in the Chest funds are Girl Scouts, Youth Center, Boy Scouts, Goodfellows, USO and Salvation Army. Contributions may be mailed to Community Chest, Midland, Texas, or left at the Chamber of Commerce.

Voters Turn Down Bond, Tax Issues

Economy-minded citizens held a slight edge here Tuesday as voters went to the polls to decide two important Midland County proposals—both involving increased county taxes.

A proposal to issue $200,000 in bonds for the erection of a County Park Building was nosed out by a 63-vote margin—the vote being 347 for and 410 against.

A second proposition which would have authorized the levying of an additional road tax not to exceed 15 cents on the $100 valuation for further maintenance of public roads within the county, lost by a 77-vote margin. The total was 379 for and 456 against.

A total of 831 ballots were cast, according to complete but unofficial returns.

Favorites in No. 3. 3, favored the Park Building proposal by a six to four vote, while voters in Precinct No. 5 were equally divided (31-31) on the proposition.

Precinct No. 1 voted 65-62 for the road tax levy, and Precinct No. 4 favored its passage by an eight to one count. Three voters in Precinct No. 3 favored the additional tax levy, while an equal number disapproved it.

The results in all boxes on the two proposals were comparatively close.

Both the Park Building and road tax levy proposals were considered by the Midland Chamber of Commerce. The organization had made the building job its No. 1 project of the year.

Plans for the structure had been prepared without cost by a Texas A.M. College engineer. Midland Park, Inc., had offered to deed to the county a five-acre tract adjacent to its rodeo grounds as a site for the proposed structure.

The park building would have been used for fairs, stock shows, sports events, musical attractions, displays and meetings of various kinds.

R. L. Miller, chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Administration (CAA) announced the new safety move Tuesday night, a short time after disclosure of the near-collision between an Eastern Air Lines Constellation and an instrument flying Air Force plane. The aircraft was carrying 64 persons on a flight to Miami.

The CAA did not relate its announcement to the bomber incident. It said the new regulation results from a series of air safety discussions with Air Force and Navy officials which started several weeks ago.

The other five amendment proposals were disapproved, as follows: No. 1, County Civil Service, 436-457; No. 2, Legislative Sessions and Pay, 256-631; No. 3, Hospital Districts, 371-519; No. 5, City-County Health Units, 429-466; and No. 6, County Pensions, 326-572.

Two Of Injured Still Confined To Hospital

Two of the seven persons injured in an auto-truck collision here Tuesday morning still are confined to Western Clinic-Hospital for treatment.

They are Lillian Whitley, who suffered a fractured skull and lacerations, and Imogene Graham, whose leg was fractured. Both are negroes.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Marshall and East Kentucky streets and involved a loaded Buick truck and an automobile loaded with cotton pickers.

The witness, Maj. Gen. German Pol of the Bolivian Air Force, contended that the P-38 was not Bolivia's but was still the property of Universal Marine and Supply Company at the time of the crash in which 55 persons died November 1.

Bolivian acceptance, Pol told the Civil Aeronautics Board, hinged on the outcome of the test flight by Erik Rios Bridoux, only survivor of the collision.

Pol said the P-38 had been bumped down three times for faulty brakes, faulty radio and trouble with one of its two motors.

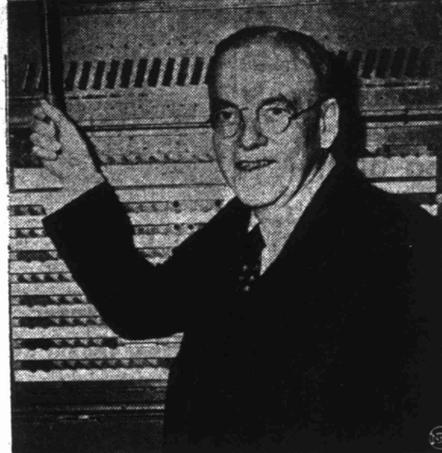

The Bolivian officer was the third witness as the CAB opened what was believed to be the most elaborate crash investigation ever held.

Earlier witnesses were Joseph O. Fluet, New York, chief of CAB Region One, and George H. Bodger, assistant to the vice president for operations of Eastern Air Lines, owner of the passenger plane.

Investigators expected the highlight of the inquiry to be the story of the injured Bolivian pilot.

Democrats Score Smashing Victories

By The Associated Press
Smashing Democratic victories in New York's U. S. Senate race and in widespread city elections set President Truman and the party high command chortling Wednesday over the outlook for 1950.

Republicans didn't find much to crow about in Tuesday's elections. They held on to the New Jersey governorship they already had and tossed out a Democratic mayor here and there.

But they took a mauling in the day's feature political bout in New York State. Democratic Herbert H. Lehman easily knocked Republican John Foster Dulles out of the U. S. Senate seat Dulles has held down since last July.

There was one, big, clear-cut issue: Lehman campaigned hard for the Truman home-front program; Dulles had campaigned against it.

The President himself, gleefully calling out returns at a dinner in his honor by the Women's Democratic Club of Washington, interpreted the result as a vote of confidence in this "Fair Deal."

Truman said it would have "a very decided effect on the election in 1950" when control of Congress is at stake. So did the Democratic national chairman, William Boyle, Jr.

Furthermore, Boyle said, Lehman's victory "was only the highlight of a national trend" that won out again over Republican "generalities" and "scare attacks." Part of that trend was a repeat win for Democratic Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York City.

The GOP national chairman, Guy George Gabrielson, said in a statement, "The principles which Senator Dulles expounded in his campaign are those which ultimately (Continued On Page Nine)

School Board Studies Construction Plans

The board of the Midland Independent School District in session Tuesday night studied architect's plans for two proposed structures—a new northeast elementary plant and a new high school addition.

The plans were returned to the architects after certain changes had been made by the board to fit the particular needs of the Midland system.

The board approved a request of the Band Aid organization to install an inter-communication system in the band hall.

Routine business matters included payment of bills, approval of financial statements and interviews with representatives of two bonding firms.

Attending the session were board members George Abell, R. W. Hamblen, Cooper Elyce, Mrs. Ernest Elyce and Mrs. W. H. Gilmore. Frank Monroe, superintendent, represented Midland schools.

CHICAGO (AP)—John L. Lewis told his 380,000 striking soft coal diggers Wednesday to go back to work until November 30, pending further efforts to reach a contract agreement in the industry.

The back to work order came immediately after a meeting of the United Mine Workers' 200-man Policy Committee.

Red Bluff Unit Blasts WTCC Plan

PECOS—Directors of the Red Bluff Water Power Control District, concerned over the proposal to deliver the water resources of Texas into the hands of the federal government for control and distribution, Tuesday let go a blast at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which has been discussing area water problems with the Interior Department.

The WTCC and its water project were the major items of discussion at a meeting of the Red Bluff directors here, Tuesday.

The district operates and maintains a reservoir on the Pecos River for the impounding of water for irrigation.

"We're having difficulty in determining just who is advocating the surrender of our water resources to Washington," a statement issued by President E. W. Sweatt of Ward County said.

"We need in the newspaper that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce reportedly is advocating surrender of water rights to Washington, but when we inquire of the individuals from this section who are on the board of directors of the organization, we find that such elected directors never heard of the proposal until they, too, read of it in the papers."

"Apparently the directors from this immediate section of the state are not within the confidence of those actually directing the affairs of the organization which, by its name, appears to be sectionwide in its scope. That's what gives us concern. West Texas represents a vast empire and it inspires fear to think that an organization attempts to bespeak the attitude of this section (Continued On Page Two)

Even Brazil Has Java Inflation

HOUSTON (AP)—Do you sit down to breakfast all upset over the leaping coffee prices? Calm yourself, friends. We're all in the same boat, or cup.

For instance, normally there's an awful lot of coffee in Brazil. That's the place from which you probably get yours.

And the price of a cup has jumped from 36 centaves to 44. So says Claude W. Courand, first secretary of the U. S. Embassy in Rio de Janeiro. He is visiting here.

Cafe owners even went on a two-day strike to force the government to let them raise the price. Forty centaves is two cents U. S.

Colder Weather Heads Into Texas

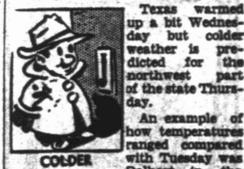

Texas warmed up a bit Wednesday but colder weather is predicted for the northwest part of the state Thursday.

An example of how temperatures ranged compared with Tuesday was Dalhart in the Upper Panhandle. Tuesday morning Dalhart had a low reading of 24, well below freezing. Thursday Dalhart's low was 41.

Clouds moved across most of the state Wednesday. Only North-Central Texas and the extreme north portion of East Texas were clear.

Weather Bureau reports Wednesday morning showed no measurable rain in the state for the preceding 24 hours.

Tuesday's high readings ranged from Laredo's 84 down to 69 at Guadalupe Falls.

Don't You Trust Divorcees? Attitude Is A Common One

By NUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

A young divorcee complains to me that married women don't seem to trust a divorcee. If she's young and attractive they keep an eye on her when their husbands are around. She's resentful of that attitude and puzzled by it.

It's nonsense, of course, for married women to be suspicious of all divorcees. But it's easy to understand why they are.

If she wants the friendship and sympathy of the wives she meets, the divorcee often goes about it in a strange fashion.

In order to build up her own ego she often seems to have to prove to herself that though she lost one man she's still attractive to men in general. To do that she'll play up to the husbands she meets and pay little or no attention to their wives.

She's usually successful at getting men interested in her for several reasons. She is experienced enough to know how to flatter a man's ego. She probably is trying twice as hard as a complacent wife to be attractive to men. And as an added attraction, she always can tell just enough of the story of her "unhappy" marriage to arouse a man's sympathy and interest.

The divorcee's record of being able to get a second husband makes her look dangerous to the wife, too. At age 30, statistics show, the divorcee stands a far better chance than a single girl or a widow to get a husband.

If the divorcee is that attractive to men then she's a dangerous woman to have around, reason the wives.

So my advice to the divorcee who thinks wives are on their guard against her is to do one of two things: Either be careful when she's with married couples to pay more attention to the wives than to the husbands.

Or, if she isn't willing to do that, to resign herself to being a "suspicious character" until she gets another husband. At which time she'll move over to the wives' corner again.

SITUATION: You are putting the last-minute touches to the dinner table.

RIGHT WAY: Have the water glasses filled before your guests enter the dining room.

To Become Second Lady

This is the first formal portrait of Mrs. Carlton S. Hadley to be released since she announced her engagement to Vice President Alben Barkley. The couple will be wed in St. Louis, Mo., on November 18.

Mrs. Hadley To Wear Blue For Wedding

HOLLYWOOD—P—Vice President Alben Barkley's bride-to-be will have a Hollywood-designed trousseau, although apparently she doesn't know it.

Mrs. Carlton S. Hadley in St. Louis denied reports that her wedding gown and going-away things were being created by Marusia, famed Hollywood designer.

At the same time, Marusia was busy designing and making the ensembles. Mrs. Hadley apparently ordered her clothes from Montaldo's, fashionable St. Louis department store. Montaldo gave the order to the Hollywood designer.

Marusia described the wedding gown as having a natural rounded line, tiny waist and a gently flaring skirt with invisible pockets. The "russia blue" has much pearl gray in it.

The going-away dress, the designer said, is a two-piece affair of imported Jersey wool, the same shade of blue as the wedding gown. The jacket is a casual hip length loose coat, carrying out the mauve effect in a shadow stitch plaid.

Education To Halt Alcoholism Is Topic Of West P-TA Talk

Preventive education in the treatment of alcoholism—a disease, was discussed by Horace Fort of the Yale Institute of Alcoholic Studies at a West Elementary Parent-Teacher Association meeting Tuesday night in the school.

As an observance of National Education Week, the group held open house in the school rooms before the meeting.

During the business session presided over by Mrs. M. O. Gibson, Mrs. Tom Potter, study group chairman, announced that the group will have its first meeting at 9:15 a.m. Tuesday in the school with Mrs. D. W. St. Clair as speaker.

Mrs. Marshall Bagwell announced that the first meeting of the preschool group will be held at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in her home. Mrs. James J. Jones, carnival chairman, announced that a carnival proceeds totaled $1,011.31.

Six Factors

Mrs. J. B. Elder, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

Fort emphasized that alcoholism is a disease and listed the following six factors as parts of a wholesome home atmosphere:

1. A child has a great need for security and the knowledge that his parents love each other is the greatest security he can have.
2. A child should be weaned progressively.
3. A child should be encouraged to talk to his parents.
4. A tolerance for "no" should be developed in children — each child must know the bounds within which he must live.
5. A child must be taught to love and not to possess.
6. Parents must be consistent in reward and punishment.

Fort added that alcoholism is a symptom of maladjustment and that the factors that cause maladjustment begin in childhood.

Music Training For Girl Scout Leaders Scheduled Thursday

Beginning at 2 p.m. Thursday, a training session on folk dancing, music and singing games will be conducted by Janet E. Tobitt, a free-lance professional teacher of groups who will be in Midland under sponsorship of the Girl Scout Association.

She is music consultant to the Girl Scouts of the USA and has had long experience with Girl Scout troops and with Girl Guides in her native England.

Girl Scout troop leaders and assistant leaders are invited to the session, which is open also to workers with Boy Scouts, 4-H Clubs and church youth groups. Miss Tobitt teaches by group participation in the songs and dances which the leaders may later teach to their own groups.

She began collecting folk dances and songs as a hobby when she was teaching in England, then found that they were useful in her work over the United States and in several foreign countries to collect more songs, dances and games, and has published such books as "Sing Together," "Promenade All," and "Dramatized Ballads."

Watch New Wage Act

The new 75 cents an hour minimum wage law must be reckoned as a triumph for President Truman, even though it removes a sizable block of workers from coverage of the act.

This law and the 1949 Housing Act, calling for a big public housing program, rank as the chief installments paid by Congress this year on the President' sweeping fair deal proposals.

The new act may cost industry about $300,000,000 with perhaps half that sum going to workers in the South and Southwest where scales are lowest.

The previous act protected some 22,000,000 workers. The new one will safeguard the wages of from 200,000 to 1,000,000 fewer employees.

The language of the final compromise is so written that wage-hour administrators say it may take years to determine exactly how many workers have been deprived of protection.

In signing the bill, Truman contended it provides certain other advantages to labor besides higher basic wages.

The President said the new act allows greater flexibility in provision for payment of overtime wages.

If this should prove true, it would be an important gain. Surveys among workers have indicated that in their quest for security they are concerned far more with stability of employment than they are with pension plans and similar proposals.

But whatever the ultimate outcome on these points there is no doubt the law will go down on the Truman side of the ledger in any totaling up of lawmaking achievements for the year.

Operation Transmitter

Our State Department admits that the Russians have "jammed" Voice of America radio broadcasts so successfully they have driven away the voice's mass audience in the Soviet Union.

But at least we have the fun knowing that to do this job the Russians need about 10 times as many people as it takes to present the broadcasts, and it requires about eight jamming transmitters to blot out one regular broadcaster.

Don't Be So Rough, General

Major Gen. Harry Vaughan has acknowledged that his doings are viewed as "unethical" in many quarters. But he says he isn't worried because he only has to please two people—his wife and President Truman.

The interpretation we choose to interpolate is that the general is telling us all to go to. Nothing new in that, except that it's a bit more polite than he usually puts it.

Like Old Times

A locomotive builder is said to be working hard on devising a diesel locomotive whistle which will sound like the familiar mournful wail of the steam locomotive.

Well, maybe that's it. But we suspect that this particular research just reflects America's reluctance to yield its romantic railroad past.

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
Drew Pearson says: Harry Truman and Harold Ickes agree on Indians; Armless veteran brings admirals and generals together; Navy's pitfalls pointed out by pro-Navy civilian.

WASHINGTON—Harry Truman and Harold Ickes, both men of positive opinions and quick tempers, had a long and friendly talk the other day.

It was because of Ickes' interest in Indians that he was first made secretary of the Interior 17 years ago. He had been recommended merely as commissioner of Indian affairs, but at the last minute FDR made him secretary of the Interior instead.

One of the things Ickes talked to Truman about was the plight of the Navajos and the veto of a bill just passed by Congress putting the Navajos under the state laws of Arizona and New Mexico.

The Catholic Church has been worried over the divorce and remarriage systems of the Navajos by which they merely appear before their own tribal authorities if they wish to divorce.

However, both Ickes and Truman felt that the Indians were entitled to their ancient tribal customs. Furthermore, Ickes was suspicious that the move to put the Navajos under state laws might be a blind on the part of the politicians to take over their water rights.

He suspected the big New Mexican cattlemen and ranchers—most of them Republicans, but some of them contributing nonetheless to Democratic Senator Clinton Anderson—of engineering this part of the bill through Congress.

The incident occurred at American University's rally to raise $225,000 for its war memorial athletic center, at which time young President Paul Douglas had the courage to invite Major Gen. Edward S. Bruns of the Army, Admiral Glen Davis, Major Gen. Edwin Lyon of the Air Force, Brig. Gen. E. A. Pollock of the Marines, and Admiral Merlin O'Neill of the Coast Guard.

As this array of officers arrived, there was an awkward pause. Swiftly Russell, who once starred in "The Best Years of Our Lives" stepped into the breach. Extending the two hooks where his hands had been, he said: "Gentlemen, let's all shake."

What's Wrong With Navy? No battleship admiral is more pro-Navy than Ferdinand Eberstadt, close friend of Secretary Forrestal and long a power in the civilian circles behind the Navy. Yet in 1948, Eberstadt wrote a realistic report which gives some idea what Secretary of the Navy Matthews and Chief of Naval Operations Sherman are now up against in trying to keep the admirals in line.

No one can accuse Eberstadt of being prejudiced against the Navy. Yet here is what he reported to then Secretary of the Navy Forrestal in 1945:

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Worth of Minimum Wage Law Hangs On Administrators

By DOUGLAS LARSEN, NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—For the next three months textile plants will be working full blast to produce all they can under the old minimum wage of 40 cents an hour.

On midnight between Jan. 26 and Jan. 27, 1950, the new 75-cent-an-hour minimum wage goes into effect. The production of textiles will be the largest single industry affected by it.

In spite of this obvious benefit to workers, and the great praise of the new law by President Truman and Emil Rieve, president of CIO's Textile Workers Union of America, there is not unanimous opinion among labor experts that the law eventually will prove to be a net gain for labor.

When he signed the bill President Truman said: "This act has proved to be wise and progressive remedial legislation for the welfare not only of our wage earners but of our whole economy."

Before those bold words are proved true, there's the question of job of administering the law over long enough time to give it a fair test. This is where the trouble will be, according to the experts.

The biggest problem is how many workers might suddenly find themselves unprotected by the new law, who were covered by the old one. The first estimate was 300,000. Now a Labor Department spokesman says 750,000. It all revolves around the fact that Congress only has the authority to legislate for workers engaged in interstate commerce.

The old law simply states that any workers in occupations "necessary" to the production of goods in interstate commerce were covered. For 11 years there was court litigation on this term, to try to determine who was and who wasn't covered.

When the measure was debated in Congress a member estimated that it would take 10 years of litigation before any clear outline of the meaning of that part of the act emerged. A Department of Labor official who was taken part in administering it isn't even that optimistic. He says:

"Only the gods can predict what the courts will do with those words when the lawyers begin arguing about them. The Supreme Court is in for a lot of years. I just hope that we in the department can come to some agreements on what they are supposed to mean."

He admits that the guesses on how many workers will be excluded from the act's protection might be very conservative, that there might be more than 1,000,000. He also admits that many other sections of the law will involve long drawn-out controversies.

In addition to textile plants being affected, the southern lumbering industry, the production of fertilizer and the manufacturing of wood furniture in the Carolinas also will be affected.

Many types of bulbs for flowers, such as the tulip, should be planted in the Fall before the ground freezes.

casually, "I am still most anxious to meet our fellow artist, Martin Falter."

O'Neill frowned. "He knows better than to stay in my company. And if he didn't know before, he knows now. I told him just what I thought of him. And I told him just what he could expect from Tom O'Neill unless he keeps out of my sight."

Tom waved a hand toward Bob who was leaning on his one good elbow not far away, openly listening to the conversation.

Bob gravely bowed endorsement. "Unmistakably and irreducibly. With clarity and dispatch."

Nell stood up and touched Andy's arm. He made a slight gesture toward her and continued to give Tom his attention.

"I would like to hear more about this, my friend, but there is a small errand I must attend. Would you be so kind as to remain here, you and Nell, for a short time, and wait for me?"

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Every Case Of Heart Murmur Should Be Checked Carefully

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Services

THE HEART has four chambers which contain blood. When the muscular walls of these chambers contract, the blood is pushed from one chamber into the other. Valves are present inside the heart which keep the blood from flowing back into the chamber from which the valves fall to hold the blood back as they should, some goes the wrong way.

When the doctor listens over the heart in such cases he hears a sort of rushing sound which is called a murmur.

For example, in some children the growth of the heart and the valves between the heart chambers do not quite keep in step so that a slight murmur can be heard even when the valves really are normal. This kind of murmur is "functional" and is not serious. It disappears as the youngster grows older.

More serious are the murmurs which come from abnormal valves which are causing growth in the child was born that way or from disease. The valve deformities present at birth are comparatively rare and usually can be discovered quite early.

Rheumatic fever injures the heart valves by causing growth in the lips or cusps of the valves so that they cannot close completely. If the damage to the heart valves has been severe, the murmur may mean that physical activity has to be curtailed. However, in many cases the growths are small and not active and even though they have produced enough damage to cause a murmur to be heard, the heart is able to do its job without trouble.

In each case the cause of a murmur should be investigated. Merely hearing a murmur in the heart, however, does not always mean that ordinary exercise has to be eliminated, or that a shorter life is in the cards.

"Kicked by a Moscow Mule." Bob observed cheerily. "That's what ginger beer and vodka will do."

Nell slid from her stool and walked over to the booth. "Ginger beer and vodka?" asked Yakov. "At once? Together?"

He searched the amiable face in front of him. The man had sleepy-looking eyes of an indeterminate aquatic color, and there was a fan of creases, indicating either joviality or sun, rayed from their corners. There was a round button of a nose, a surprisingly well-modeled mouth and a fleshy chin.

Bob was answering his question: "Sure. Put ginger beer and vodka in a chilled copper mug and you have a Moscow Mule. Try one?"

Yakov nodded. "It should be an experience."

Bob began his manipulations. "Coming right up."

While he waited for his drink, Yakov watched Nell awaken. Tom, the white thatch finally bobbed up and the pink face turned toward her.

Vocational Guidance For Girls Will Be Altrusa Club Project

A vocational guidance project to assist senior girls of Midland High School in choosing vocations and planning preparation for them, will be adopted by the Midland Altrusa Club at a dinner in the Private Dining Room of Hotel Scharbauer Tuesday night.

The club will sponsor an organization for high school girls in the senior class, which has as its purpose exploration of various vocations. Members and other Midland women in different professions will speak to the girls and answer questions about careers.

Willie Harding, vocational guidance chairman in the Altrusa Club, was named chairman of a committee to work with school authorities in forming the organization and to set up its program. Also on the committee are Lucile Carroll, DeAlva Brewer and Addie Penn. Dr. Wyrrell Speaks

Dr. Dorothy Wyrrell was guest speaker to the club Tuesday, discussing "Socialized Medicine." Introduced by Grace Wallace, Altrusa president, she reviewed the various proposals for compulsory health insurance in the United States, giving estimates of the cost and their requirements for doctors.

Public opinion in this country has turned away from socialized medicine, she believes, since England's experiment with that form of health care started several months ago. She said the English system has resulted in harder work and less pay for doctors, and less time being given each patient because doctors are required to care for so many patients.

She added that socialized medicine has been successful in the Scandinavian countries and other small nations, but expressed her belief that in a large nation the necessary provisions for public health and individual medical care are better left to states and communities.

Mrs. Carroll, county librarian, was asked to explain the plan for organization of Friends of the Library groups, which have as their purpose the enrollment of persons who are interested in library progress and wish to aid it.

The club voted to place in the library's memorial section a book in memory of Mrs. Fred Halsh, late sister of a member, Mrs. Lenzie Davidson.

Four Altrusans plan to leave Friday morning for Shreveport, La., for the annual convention of the District Seven. Mrs. Wallace, Annie Ford, Maurine Mims and Bertie Boone will represent the Midland club.

A group of members agreed to assist Thursday night in preparing Christmas seals for mailing in the annual seal sale of the Midland County Tuberculosis Association. They will work in the City-County Auditorium.

Famous Stars And Music Are Featured In 'Carnegie Hall'

Great stars and great music make "Carnegie Hall," the film sponsored by the Civic Music Club currently showing at the Yucca Theatre, an outstanding production.

The movie began its run with a matinee performance Wednesday and will continue on a regular run through Thursday night.

The picture takes the audience on a sentimental journey through the hall whose walls reverberate with memories of great musicians who have performed on its stage. Fourteen ranking musical celebrities are appearing in the film.

All these stars—Heifetz, Piatigorsky, Jan Peerce, Lily Pons, Ezio Pinza, Astor Rubinstein, Conductor Walter Damrosch, Leopold Stokowski, Fritz Reiner and Bruno Walter, Harry James and Vaughn Monroe—give full-time performances instead of playing walk-on parts. They sing and play a repertoire that includes the music of Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Beethoven, Schumann, Debussy, Liszt, Saint Saens, Mozart and De Falla. Story With Music

Among the arias are the famous "Bell Song" from "Lakme"; the "Seguidilla" from Carmen; the basso aria "Simon Di Boccanegra" from a Verdi opera and "O Sole Mio."

The story thread which ties together all this music is portrayed by screen stars Marsha Hunt, William Prince, Martha O'Driscoll and Frank McHugh.

Olin Downes, music critic of the New York Times has a part too. He can be seen attending concerts in the film just as if he were carrying out assignments in his own personal career.

For the most part, the layman who has always wished to see the musical great at work in their own natural setting will be gratified with "Carnegie Hall." Throughout the film these artists who usually are heard only briefly on the radio or appear for a short scene in Hollywood pictures are given major emphasis.

Each unit will send one or more delegates to the convention in Waco November 16-18.

One duty of the committee would be to classify motion pictures scheduled for showing in Midland theaters, according to their desirability for various-age groups.

Brooklyn Retains Shotton As Pilot; Eyes Red Pitcher

BROOKLYN—(P)—The Brooklyn Dodgers are going all out for the one man they believe will help them win not only the 1950 National League pennant but the World Series as well. The man is Southpaw Pitcher Ken Raffensberger of the Cincinnati Reds.

The hint that the Dodgers are hot after a "good, reliable" veteran pitcher, with no names mentioned, was dropped at an official press conference conducted by President Branch Rickey Tuesday. The conference was called to announce that 65-year-old Burt Shotton would be back as manager of the Dodgers next year.

SHORTY SHELburnE

It didn't take Jiles Burnham, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Burnham, long to get his deer when the season opened.

Hunting with his father near Sanderson Sunday, young Jiles brought down an eight-point, 185-pounder.

Incidentally, Jiles was hunting with the first "excursion certificate" ever issued at Midland Hardware and Furniture Company where most hunters get their licenses.

The Odessa-Lubbock game at 2:30 p.m. Friday in Odessa's Broncho Stadium is expected to draw the largest crowd ever to witness a football game in that city.

Some 21,000 tickets had been sold through last week and the last 1,000 were to be placed on sale Wednesday, giving the tilt a total of 22,000.

A large delegation of fans from Lubbock is expected to follow the Westerners to Odessa for the deciding game of District 3-AA.

Lubbock has been given the favorite's role by pre-game dopesters.

Two big events are scheduled in Monahans the weekend of November 19-20.

In fact you might say three big events, opening with the annual Monahans-Pecos grid clash on the Monahans field Friday night.

The other two are: A turkey shoot covering both Saturday and Sunday and an All-Colored Rodeo also running Saturday and Sunday.

The shoot is to be held south of Monahans on the Grandfalls Highway.

The rodeo will be staged in the Monahans Rodeo Arena.

Wink and Ballinger loom as the two possible Class A powers with a chance of bringing the State Class A title to West Texas again this season.

The Wildcats, backed by years of tradition on the gridiron, will could fight their way through the state campaign if nothing serious occurs in the way of injuries.

Down in Ballinger, Coach Waymon Wilson, former Stanton grider and one of the most successful coaches in the state, has come up with another great team.

Ballinger is undefeated and untied for the season. Its stiffest district test is expected Friday when the Bears go to Coleman for a grudge battle.

We all remember Ballinger for its surprising showing against the double-tough Monahans Lobos in the regional tussle last year.

Jimmy Lineberger and Graham Mackey, both ends, have been named captains for Thursday night's game between the Bulldogs and Big Spring.

Lineberger is a regular starter at defensive end. He has developed into one of the toughest, most agile defensive men on the squad.

Mackey sees duty both on offense and defense. He is a hard worker and is sure to help the Bulldogs a lot in the remaining games.

Bob Plumley, Yaleta's ace passer and a capable ball carrier, was injured in an automobile accident Saturday night.

He is the guy who engineered and contributed more than any other individual player to the defeat of the Bulldogs in the season opener.

NEW YORK—(P)—Big Leon Hart, Notre Dame's husky 240-pound end, is this week's lineman of the week.

Hart's work in the Michigan State game earned him the award in the weekly Associated Press poll.

Frank Leahy, Notre Dame coach, thinks so highly of his six-foot-four end, he would like to try him at fullback, carrying the ball.

However, Hart is too good a blocker at end.

Hart's performance surpassed that of Jimmy Kynes, Florida center, who sparked his team to an upset triumph over Georgia. Playing on both offense and defense, Kynes turned in one of the best games of his career. He always was in the right spot at the right time.

Two tackles, Dick Johnson of Virginia and Jack Jennings of Ohio State, played major roles in their teams' victories over Pennsylvania and Pitt.

Lubbock-Odessa Tilt Tops Vital Schoolboy Slate

By The Associated Press
One district championship definitely will be determined and several others may be this weekend in Texas schoolboy football.

Paris plays at Gainesville in District 7 of Class AA and the winner will take the title.

The feature battle of the week, however, will be at Odessa where Lubbock, the state's No. 1 rated team, plays Odessa in District 3.

Regardless of which wins, the championship will not be decided mathematically but for all purposes it will. No other team in the district appears capable of handling either Lubbock or Odessa.

In the City Conference two district crowns may be determined. In District 1, if Sunset (Dallas) beats Crosier Tech (Dallas) and Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) loses to Adamson (Dallas), it will all be over and Sunset will be champion. If both Sunset and Woodrow Wilson win it will require their meeting to decide it.

In the San Antonio District, San Antonio Tech can win the title by beating Thomas Jefferson. Otherwise it will require the Jefferson-Brakenridge game to determine it.

Down in District 8 of Class AA, Highland Park (Dallas) can sew up the crown if it locks McKinney, Marshall vs Longview.

In District 9, Marshall can win the title by beating Longview.

The state's four undefeated, untied teams all have games but only Lubbock appears in any danger. Wichita Falls meets Childress, Port Arthur plays Fort Neches and Corsicana takes on Ennis.

The schedule by districts includes: 1—Friday: Pampa at Plainview; Saturday: Borger at Amarillo. 2—Friday: Wichita Falls at Childress, Graham at Vernon. 3—Thursday: Big Spring at Midland (non-conference); Friday: Brownfield at Lamesa, Lubbock at Odessa. 4—Friday: Austin (El Paso) vs Bowie (El Paso). 5—Friday: Sweetwater at San Angelo, Abilene at Brownwood. 6—Friday: Breckenridge at Weatherford, Mineral Wells at Stephenville.

Good Little Man

Bimbo Ceconi was considered too small for major college competition, but his 185 pounds have put the Pittsburgh Panthers back in the big time.

Injuries, Illness Hit Bulldogs Hard

Injuries and sickness dealt the Midland Bulldogs a harsh blow Tuesday, leaving a riddled squad to face the Big Spring Steers in Memorial Stadium Thursday night.

Stan Coker, defensive tackle who suffered a leg injury in Monday's scrimmage, wasn't even suited out Tuesday. His ankle was swollen badly and prevented his wearing a shoe. It is doubtful he will be able to play a down against the Steers.

But the offensive inside tackle, wasn't in school Tuesday, being confined to his home with a bad cold. His condition was believed to be bordering on influenza and coaches said it is doubtful he will see much action in the coming tilt.

Luther Mooney, substitute wingback, injured an ankle in Tuesday's workout and was forced to retire from the scrimmage. It is possible he will be able to run a few plays in Thursday's game.

Offense was stressed in Tuesday's workout. Coach Tugboat Jones again matched the "Reds" against the "Whites" under regular game conditions.

John Steinberger was inserted at the inside tackle post in the workout and probably will play the position most of the time against Big Spring. Charles Crowley and Jack Burris looked sharper on trap plays and end runs Tuesday. Ralph Brooks ran the ball more than usual and drifted along nicely on several plays.

L. C. Thomas looked better defensively and was blocking better. He still handles the ball on offensive power plays.

Passing came in for a little work in Tuesday's session. Burris and Brooks did most of the tossing. Crowley pitched a few times. Left session Wednesday.

A light session of offensive work was scheduled Wednesday afternoon at the Bulldogs' camp. A final look at Big Spring plays on the blackboard was to follow the field work.

Indications are that a nice crowd will be on hand for the game. A large number of Big Spring fans are expected to follow the Steers here.

Brains Department

Egad! Some of the gentler among my millions of gentle readers beseech me to put a stop to the fusticuffs being displayed all too frequently nowadays on the gridiron.

It seems there are more good 10-round bouts on the football field than there are in the ring—huh!

Well, in the days when I was blocking for Willie Heston, Jim Thorpe and Walter Eckersall—not to mention tossing forward passes to Snakes Ames—all were too numb to notice an occasional friendly up-percut.

But the gladiators' tempers seem to be a bit shorter in these modern times than was true among the giants of that distant era. Today if

Five-Yard Smith Is Aggie Nominee For All-Conference Slot

COLLEGE STATION—(P)—As far as Texas A&M College is concerned, the all-Southwest Conference fullback can be found at Kyle Fields each afternoon.

His name is Bob Smith and he's the best power runner the conference has produced in many seasons.

All of the other leading ball-carriers in the conference perform for teams that have won more games and scored more touchdowns than Smith's Aggies, yet none of them have come close to matching his record.

The Cadet crusher has amassed 665 yards in 120 carries. That's an average of 5.5 yards every time he's taken the football. He's scored as many touchdowns (seven) as any other player in the conference despite the fact his team has been blanked in three games and held to six points in two others.

Only Five Losses
Smith has gained another 100 yards on kickoff returns and pass receptions. He also ran 30 yards to another touchdown that was called back. The enemy has been able to toss him for a loss only five times this season.

Smith's best days were against Southern Methodist and Texas Tech with three touchdowns each and grand total of 289 yards against these two teams. He's also one of the few sophomore backs in the country who hold the distinction of having scored a touchdown against Oklahoma's rock-ribbed first team line.

The 1948 winning U. S. Open golf score of 276 recorded by Ben Hogan is the lowest score ever posted in that tourney.

Daniel Baker's Paul Tyson, Winless Thus Far In Eight Starts, Is Hopeful For Future

BROWNWOOD —(AP)— Daniel Baker College hardly will be challenging Notre Dame any time soon and it's season record is minus mediocre but Coach Paul Tyson retains his optimistic outlook.

By now he has learned the names of the boys on his team. A coach has more confidence that way. Besides it's embarrassing to have to ask a boy his name before sending him into a game.

'C' Bulldogs Visit Big Spring Thursday

The Midland 'C' Bulldogs are scheduled against the Big Spring 'C' Steers at 3 p.m. Thursday in Big Spring.

Coach Joe Atkins said few changes in the starting lineup are expected. Several boys are nursing minor injuries but are expected to be ready for duty.

The 'C' team will finish the season against the Odessa 'C' Bronchos here next week.

Fans Reminded That Game Set Thursday Night

Fans are again reminded that Midland High's football game with Big Spring which had been scheduled here Friday—has been moved up to Thursday night.

Regardless of what is printed on the tickets—the game is Thursday night.

will prevail, because they are right."

In New Jersey, Gabrielson said, the reelection of Republican Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll was a blow at "boosterism" and "Bogusism."

Driscoll handed a direct defeat to his Democratic rival, State Senator Elmer H. Wene. And he gave an indirect drubbing to Frank Hague, the former Jersey City mayor and boss of the state Democratic organization who backed Wene.

Jersey Boss Steps Down

Hague announced he is "stepping aside" at 73, he said, he has reached an age when it is impossible to "carry on the arduous duties" of the Democratic leadership.

Boston voters tossed out the last old-time boss still in power when they refused a fifth term to Democratic Mayor James M. Curley. They picked another Democrat, City Clerk John B. Hynes.

The Democrats got no big numerical reinforcements in Congress. They did win all the congressional seats at stake, but those numbered only three.

Lehman's victory gives them an extra hand in the Senate. But at the start of the new session, the Senate line-up probably will be just what it was after the 1948 election: 54 Democrats, 42 Republicans.

And in the House, it will be 262 Democrats, 170 Republicans, one Democrat-Liberal, one American-Labor, one vacancy.

That will be a gain of one seat for the Democrats. San Francisco voters replaced the late Rep. Richard Welch, a Republican, with Democrat John P. Shelley, president of the California Federation of Labor.

In Brooklyn, a Democrat, Mr. Edna F. Kelly, was elected to fill a Democratic vacancy.

Democratic Mayors

In New York, such cities as Syracuse, Binghamton, Rome, Port Jervis, and others, picked a Democrat for the first time in 24 years.

New York City itself gave Mayor O'Dwyer an easy win in his bid for a second term. He licked Communist-supported Rep. Vito Marcantonio, the American-Labor candidate who ran a poor third, and Newbold Morris, the Republican-Liberal-Fusion hopeful.

Philadelphia threw out four Republican city officials who won four years ago by margins of around 70,000 to 80,000 and installed Democrats in their places.

Virginia ran off the only other governorship race outside New Jersey according to form. Democratic State Senator John S. Battle swamped Republican Walter Johnson as expected.

But the Old Dominion state rejected a constitutional amendment Battle supported, to ban payment of a $150 poll tax as a requirement for voting and leave it to the Legislature to fix new requirements. Texas also turned down a poll tax repealer.

Texas, Louisiana Reply To Federal Tidelands Claims

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Louisiana and Texas held to their contention Wednesday that they and not the government hold title to the oil-rich offshore tidelands in the Gulf of Mexico.

They answered the Justice Department's request that the Supreme Court follow up the California Tidelands decision and rule that the government now is the owner in fee simple of the offshore lands or is possessed of paramount rights in and full power over them.

In the California case the court ruled that the federal government "has paramount rights in, and full dominion and power over, the lands and minerals in the Gulf of Mexico but it denies that the government holds title to the lands."

Lease Rights Denied

The state's position is that the California decision simply gives the government the same regulatory rights over the offshore lands as it has over all other land in the country.

These powers, he told a reporter, do not include the right to lease out this land for oil drilling. That, he said, is a right of the title holder—namely the state.

Texas' answer to the government's suit reiterates the state's contention that the federal government has no claim to the offshore lands whatsoever because of the terms of the Texas annexation act. This act, Texas argues, reserved to Texas its claims to these lands to a distance of three leagues offshore, or about 10 1/2 miles.

In case this contention is not upheld by the court, Texas asked that a special master be appointed to take evidence in the case. The master then would submit findings for review by the court.

Plans Are Outlined For Organization Of Geophysical Society

Organization of a regional society of geophysicists for the Permian Basin was definitely started at a meeting in Midland Tuesday night.

The meeting, held in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer, was attended by 129 persons. All geophysical companies operating in the territory were represented.

Lorenz Shock of National Geophysical Company was named to act as temporary chairman of the group. C. Winthrop Payne of The Pure Company was selected temporary secretary.

Committees Are Appointed

Schools appointed a number of committees to work out various details connected with setting up the permanent organization.

As soon as those committees complete their assignments another meeting will be called and the formal start of the society will be made.

Refreshments for a fellowship hour which preceded the business session were provided by Strawn Merchandise Company.

Expression Derived From Old Pastime

CHICAGO —(AP)— The expression, "beating about the bush," is derived from the old pastime of beating about the bush. World Book Encyclopedia researchers say the idiom began in the 1400's in England, and it resulted in many a night out for men who hunted birds and were known as batfowlers. It adds:

"The batfowlers, armed with a light and a weapon resembling a baseball bat, cautiously surrounded a large bush. Their one hunter would beat the other small bushes nearby to frighten the birds in the large bush. Dazzled by the light, the birds floundered a blow on the noggin. It was from this 'sport' that 'beating about the bush' wormed its way into our language."

Where the boys went from there is lost in the mists of history.

Psycho Prof Says Purple Passages Perfectly Proper

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—If your youngster indulges in a little mild profanity, don't become alarmed and think you're rearing a problem child.

So advises Dr. Benjamin Spock, author of the best seller "Baby and Child Care," and an associate professor of psychiatry at the Mayo Foundation.

Dr. Spock said a purple passage or two is natural behavior in children over six years of age. It shows they are trying their wings in a bid for independence.

API Transportation Director Honored By Navy Service Award

CHICAGO—(AP)—The Navy's "Distinguished Public Service Award" was presented Wednesday to James E. Moss, director of the Division of Transportation of the American Petroleum Institute.

The award, the highest honor conferred on a civilian by the secretary of the Navy, highlighted the morning meeting of the API's twenty-ninth annual meeting. It was made at a special ceremony at the group meeting of the Division of Transportation.

The award was presented to Moss in recognition of his work during the war years as a port and tanker consultant for the Coast Guard and Navy. He served as a special consultant for the Coast Guard from May, 1942, until December, 1945. He has been head of the API's Division of Transportation since it was established in January, 1946. He also is manager of the API's Washington office.

Later Wednesday, J. Howard Pew, director and retired president of Sun Oil Company, Philadelphia, and one of the founders of the institute, was to receive the API's "Gold Medal for Distinguished Achievement." The medal is in recognition of his outstanding contributions to the public welfare through the petroleum industry.

"Certificates of Appreciation" were awarded seven leading production men by the Division of Production of the API at another group session Wednesday morning.

Recipients of the awards, presented by R. L. Wheelock of Corsicana, Texas, vice president of the API Division of Production, were: W. G. Corey and H. N. Marsh, both of Los Angeles; H. W. Ladd, Tulsa, Okla.; E. J. Nichol, Houston, Texas; A. H. Riney, Bartlesville, Okla.; F. H. Schnoor, Taft, Calif., and John R. Suman, New York.

The election of a new president held the center of attention of the 4,500 oil men attending the four-day meeting, which ends Thursday. Gen. Baird H. Markham, 63-year-old director of the American Petroleum Industries Committee, New York, appeared to be the leading candidate for president. Markham, a native of Decatur, Texas, formerly commanded the 45th Division, Oklahoma National Guard, and is a veteran in the oil field.

Ralph Graves of the Tidewater Oil Company, New York, also was mentioned as a possibility to succeed William R. Boyd, Jr., who retires Wednesday after serving as president for nine years.

The Board of Directors Tuesday approved a recommendation of its executive committee creating the office of chairman of the board of directors and providing that the chairman shall be presiding officer at meetings of the board, its executive committee and general meetings of the members.

These functions currently are performed by the retiring president, Boyd, who was elected a member of the board to succeed George A. Hill, Jr., of Houston, who died last week. Harry P. Sinclair, chairman of the board of Sinclair Oil Corporation, resigned as a board member and P. C. Spencer, president of the same company, was elected to succeed him.

Gets His Razors Ten Years Late

BELFAST, NORTHERN IRELAND—(AP)—Three days before war broke out in 1939, Barber Charlie Liddy ordered six razors from a firm in Germany.

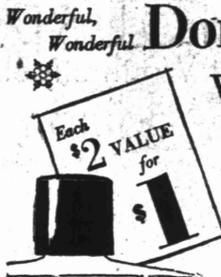

He enclosed a money order which he wrote off as a loss when the war started.

Wednesday the razors were delivered. With them was a note from Wagner and Lange of Selingen, the makers, saying they were sorry about the delay.

Soldiers Go For Black-Eyed Peas

EL PASO—(AP)—Black-eyed peas, a traditional Southern dish, have proved a hit with one of the world's most cosmopolitan groups—soldiers.

"They gave the peas an experimental 'test run' at Fort Bliss here the other day. Reporting on it to Representative Beckworth (D-Texas) Maj. Gen. J. L. Homer, commanding officer, said:

"Of 19,667 enlisted men served, 16,153 or 82.2 per cent ate the black-eyed peas. Percentage of edible waste left by the foot-sloggers was only .0122.

"The overall average of 84.2 appears to me to be a very good indication of general acceptance," said the general.

Little Janet Latsha Reported Improving

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—(AP)—Authorities at St. Joseph's Hospital say Janet Latsha has improved since she came to Albuquerque three weeks ago critically ill with asthma.

"She's not the same girl at all," said one attendant. "She's happy as a lark."

Six-year-old Janet was flown here from Oklahoma City with her mother, Mrs. Wilma Latsha, on October 14. It was hoped the climate would help her. Their home is in Nacogdoches, Texas.

Latest Gold Strike Turns Into Brass

CASTAIC, CALIF.—(AP)—California's latest gold strike was a little too strong on brass.

A rash of gold fever spread through this little community when Charley Allen discovered shiny metals in a wall behind his cafe. Prospectors converged on the town, only 10 miles from the site of California's first gold discovery in 1842.

They thought Allen had the real thing. Claims were filed and samples of the golden stuff were sent to the assayers.

The assayer's quickly cured the fever. It said there was a little gold all right, but that the shiny stuff was brass.

Former Nazi Denied Role Of Christ In 1950 Passion Play

OBERRAMERGAU, GERMANY (AP)—The little village of Oberammergau turned down a former Nazi Tuesday for the role of Christ in next year's performance of the world-famed Passion Play.

The judges, consisting of the Village Council, a committee of residents and the parish priest, rejected Alois Lang, 56-year-old former Nazi sympathizer, for the part.

Instead they selected Anton Preisinger, a 37-year-old innkeeper, to play Christ.

Lang, who played the role of Christ in the last performance of the Passion Play in 1934, went before a denazification court last year where he was classified in the "least dangerous" class of Nazi.

Started in 1634

Lang was chosen by the committee to read the prologue to each eight-hour performance. The play tells the story of Christ's life from his entry into Jerusalem until the ascension.

The committee chose Anneli Mayr, pretty 20-year-old daughter of a village building constructor, to play the role of the Virgin Mary.

The Oberammergau Passion Play has been performed every ten years since 1634 with interruptions during World Wars I and II.

The play, which attracts thousands of Christians, is the result of an ancient pledge of the villagers after the black plague swept through the Alpine village in 1333.

This meeting was one of a series scheduled for the month of November to be held in strategic cities in the 32-county area of West Texas from Fort Davis to Brownwood to be served by Boys' Ranch, the purpose of which is to initiate the beginning phase of a drive for funds necessary for retirement of a $50,000 indebtedness on the Ranch property and required facilities necessary to the care of boys.

DADDY RINGTAIL • By Wesley Davis

Daddy Ringtail And Tracker Story

I was telling you the other day about the Train Track Walker who all his life had been walking and walking along the railroad tracks. Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, was talking with the Train Track Walker whose name was Tracker. They were sitting on the railroad tracks where anyone could sit if they went across the river from Daddy Ringtail's monkey house there in the Great Forest. "Why do you do it?" Daddy Ringtail said to Tracker. "Why are you a Train Track Walker, always walking along and walking along the railroad tracks?" "Why do people do anything?" said Tracker. "Because they have to or because they want to." But Tracker smiled when he said it, and the smile seemed to say that he was a Train Track Walker because that is what he wanted to be.

He told Daddy Ringtail to look down the tracks, way down the tracks from where they were sitting. "Oh but they really don't!" Daddy Ringtail said. "They just look like they do, because way down there is a long way off." And he was right, of course, but Tracker shook his head and laughed. "That's what everyone says," Tracker admitted. "Everyone says the tracks don't really come together, but I don't know, I'm a Train Track Walker, because I want to see for myself." And that's why Tracker stood up as he finished talking. He waved goodbye and walked on down the tracks, on to the place where the tracks seemed to come together.

He will walk and walk, you know, all his life, and always ahead of him, down the tracks, he'll see a place where the tracks seem to come together, and he'll try to get there and walk and walk, but always ahead of him, way off ahead of him, there'll be the place where the tracks seem to come together but don't. But we shouldn't feel too sorry for him, I think. He knows what it is that he wants to do, and what it is he wants to be... a Train Track Walker. And I know he'll always be happy, for a Train Track Walker is what he is. (Copyright 1949, General Features Corp.)

Princes Of India Still On Payroll

NEW DELHI—(AP)—The crownless princelings of India numbering about 600 together draw from the Indian exchequer an annual privy purse of $9,500,000. States Minister Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel appealed to the Constituent Assembly recently to honor the pledges given to the princes for the "bloodless revolution" achieved by the integration of their states within two years of freedom. Patel said that before the integration the princes had been drawing from their respective states' treasuries an aggregate amount of $40,200,000. The privy purses had been guaranteed only during the lifetime of the princes, Patel said, adding that for subsequent generations it would be considerably less.

Novel Rabbit Good On Cold Days

Senior Rabbit—South of the border rabbit uses corn and cheese, both plentiful in November.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer
Cheese and canned corn—both November plentiful—go into this novel rabbit, perfect as a cold-day, one-dish luncheon:
South-of-the-Border Rabbit (4 servings)
Two tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon chilli powder, 1 cup milk, 1 cup grated old English type cheese (about 3 ounces), 1 egg, well beaten, 1/2 cup cooked or canned tomatoes, 2 1/2 cups cooked or canned corn (No. 2 can) 4 slices of toast, 4 sprigs parsley.

Melt butter or margarine in saucepan. Stir in flour, salt and chilli powder. Gradually add milk, stirring constantly. Cook until mixture is thickened and no starchy taste remains. Add grated cheese and beaten egg to white sauce; stir until cheese is melted. Remove from heat and add tomatoes and corn. Cut each slice of toast into four triangles in each of four heat-resistant glass pie plates, six-inch size. Pour rabbit over toast in pie plates. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until rabbit is slightly browned on top, or for about 15 minutes. Garnish with parsley for serving.

Turkey Chowder (6 servings)
Two tablespoons chopped bacon, 1/4 cup chopped onion, 1 cup diced celery, 2 cups cubed potatoes, 1 cup diced cooked turkey, 2 cups turkey broth, 1 cup whole kernel canned corn, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, salt, pepper.
Place bacon in frying pan over heat. When some of the fat has been cooked out add the onion. Continue cooking until onion is soft and brown. Meanwhile, cook celery, potatoes and turkey in broth until the vegetables are tender. Then add corn, cooked bacon, onion and parsley. Blend flour with milk and stir into cooking mixture. Cook about 15 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Season to taste.

New Fleet Boss

Adm. John J. Ballentine, above, was named commander of the Sixth Task Fleet in the Mediterranean by his old classmate, Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, the new chief of naval operations. Ballentine, a veteran carrier officer and Pacific war hero, takes over the post recently vacated by Sherman.

Shipment Of Onions Brings On Tempest

BEIRUT, LEBANON—(AP)—A minor tempest was stirred up when the Trans-Arabian Pipeline Company here received 15 tons of potatoes and onions in a shipment of supplies from the states. Local newspapers and officials complained because Lebanon—western terminus of the oil line the American firm is building from Saudi Arabia—currently has a serious surplus of thousands of tons of both items. Red-faced company officials explained it was a mistake in their New York office. They said a well-meaning employe there made up the list on the basis of usual needs at the eastern Saudi Arabian end—where there are no local potatoes or onions. The situation was resolved to the satisfaction of all when the company donated the shipped-in foodstuffs to Arab refugees of the Palestine war.

+ Crane News +

CRANE—Turning a hobby into a business, W. B. Decker recently has opened a leather shop in a corner of the Crane Feed store. Decker has been working with leather objects a number of years and has become very skillful at this work. Among the hunters who left Crane Saturday and early Sunday to be on hand for the opening of the deer season were: R. E. Wesley, R. D. Shaffer, Joseph A. Beyers and Jack Boyd. In another party were Jimmy Zarnonitis, Red Knox and Dan Lively. Jack Lewis met his brother from Dallas for a hunt. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Morton plan to leave later, and other parties are making plans to go out before one season closes. The Rev. H. D. Christian arrived in Crane on Friday after attending the State Convention of the Baptist Association. He opened a revival at the First Baptist Church Sunday, assisted by the Rev. Byron Bryant of San Antonio and the Rev. S. L. Turner of Mont Belvieu.

Washington Burglar Has His Troubles

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A passerby spotted a man pounding away on the safe in a restaurant at 4 a.m. That was the beginning of a series of frustrations for the burglar. When police arrived he scuttled for the rear exit—but couldn't find it. He climbed to a skylight and smashed his way to the roof—but the drop to the ground was too far. He crawled into the bedroom of an adjoining apartment—but the occupant woke up and chased him downstairs. He crouched in a closet, where the officers found him. Then came the final blow. When he stood up his pants fell down. They were weighted with $8.10 in small change, sales tax collections stolen from the restaurant.

The 1948 American League flag won by the New York Yankees was the sixteenth captured by the team.
