Five Men Die In New B-29 Disaster

Search Plane Plunges Into Muddy Beach

TAMPA, FLA.—(P)—A B-29 taking off to hunt for the missing B-29 near Bermuda crashed here Friday. Five were killed, four were injured and four escaped. The plane was from MacDill Air Base and was one of almost 100 Air Force, Navy and Coast Guard planes which had been searching for the bomber which ran out of fuel and crashlanded in the sea Wednesday.

The crash of the MacDill bomber occurred shortly before 8 a.m.

Seconds after it took off from the field which borders Tampa Bay, its Number Four engine began smoking. As it turned to land, it crashed.

The tide was out at the time and the ship plunged into mud and slime. The mud prevented a crash boat from reaching the wreckage and greatly hampered firemen trying to reach the scene with hose.

MacDill field officials said the bomber came from Walker Air Force Base, Roswell, N. M., where the names of the crew will be announced.

Judge Rules Judy Must Stand Trial

NEW YORK—(P)—Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan ruled Friday that Judith Coplon must stand trial with Russian Engineer Valentin Gubitchev on spy conspiracy charges.

Ryan denied a motion by the ex-government girl's lawyer, Archibald Palmer, to hold that the trial would put his client in double jeopardy—that is, put her on trial twice for the same offense.

Miss Coplon already has been convicted in Washington on a similar charge involving the theft of official secrets for passing on to the Russians.

The judge directed that she and Gubitchev must go on trial together next Tuesday.

And the sober-faced Gubitchev, who had refused up to now to enter any defense, changed his mind and decided to have a lawyer represent him.

Ryan also declined to strike one count from the four-count indictment against the petite, 28-year-old Miss Coplon and Gubitchev, a 32-year-old engineer now suspended from his United Nations post.

In an all-week series of motions and arguments designed to block a second trial, all Miss Coplon has been able to get is an order that the government must return a lipstick and other personal belongings taken from her when she was arrested.

Ryan ruled Thursday that papers taken from her purse by the FBI at that time may be used as evidence against her.

Clear, Cool, Crisp Weather To Continue

More of the same Saturday, says the weather man.

Midland Woman To Head TFWC

By SUE COLEMAN
Reporter-Telegram Society Editor
AUSTIN—Mrs. J. Howard Hodge of Midland was scheduled to be declared president for the 1950-51 term of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs when the polls close at 4 p.m. Friday at its annual convention here.

Voting started at 10 a.m. Friday, and officers will be installed in a ceremony Friday night closing the convention, which has had a record attendance.

Mrs. Hodge and the other candidates for state offices, all unopposed, were presented at the Thursday morning session to an applauding audience in the downtown office where an election contest was scheduled.

Mrs. L. James Wathen of Dallas withdrew her candidacy for the second vice presidency in favor of her opponent, Mrs. John O. Douglas of Houston, before the candidates were presented.

In the Thursday program, convention delegates and visitors were grouped by districts as the district presidents under Mrs. John J. Perry's administration gave their final reports and those who took office last Spring were inducted.

Mrs. J. M. Montgomery of Fort Stockton, immediate past president, and Mrs. Joseph Best of Wink, new president, represented the Eighth District.

Battered Body Of Missing Idaho Girl Is Found In Canal

BURLEY, IDAHO—(P)—Blonde Glenda Joyce Briscoe, a 17-year-old girl who was criminally attacked before her body was thrown into an irrigation canal, police said Thursday night.

An autopsy revealed the attack on seven-year-old Glenda, who rode to her death in a dark blue sedan. The little first grader's body was found Thursday by a friend of the family, 18 hours after she had been kidnapped from near her home.

Cassia County Coroner Vern McCulloch, who with Sheriff Saul Clark reported the autopsy revealing the girl definitely had been criminally assaulted, said "We have two or three leads xxx to follow up xxx."

Hope for a quick capture of the girl's kidnaper faded Thursday after two men, one in Idaho and another in Utah, were picked up for investigation but released after questioning.

Glenda stepped into the car, which police said was driven by a round faced man in his twenties, at 5 p.m. Wednesday. Her beaten body was found Thursday in the canal, one mile southeast of this aroused and angry Idaho farming community of 5,300 persons.

The prostrate parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briscoe, were sequestered in their Burley home.

The father is a truck-driver. Glenda, who was born in San Diego, Calif., has an older sister, Sandra Lee, nine.

Stroble Captured In Los Angeles

Fred Stroble, 66, center, suspect in the slaying of six-year-old Linda Gussie, is held by Los Angeles detectives a few minutes after he was identified in downtown Pershing Square and turned over to police.

A towel deliveryman, Joe Miller, recognized Stroble from newspaper pictures and turned the man over to a traffic officer, Arnold Carlson. After a brief questioning by the district attorney's office, police say Stroble confessed the slaying.

Vice President Barkley boards an airliner at Washington, D. C., enroute to St. Louis, as he happily points out, to be married to Mrs. Carleton Hadley. The marriage took place at noon Friday. At left, Mrs. Hadley wears the "Barkley blue" suit in which she was married. The woolen suit was designed by Hattie Carnegie. Four cabochon-cut rhinestones highlight the collar. The shaped jacket buttons from a small, rounded collar, nips in at the waist and curves the neckline.

Vice President Barkley, Mrs. Hadley Are Wed In Church Ceremony Friday

ST. LOUIS—(P)—Vice President Alben W. Barkley and Mrs. Carleton S. Hadley were married Friday in a ceremony climaxing a romance that has been in the public spotlight for the last four months.

The vice president, who will be 72 next Thursday, and his attractive bride of 38 were wed by Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of the Missouri Area of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Hadley, who first met the vice president on a cruise down the Potomac last July, wore a smartly tailored woolen suit of "Barkley blue."

Only 33 members of the immediate families and newsmen were in the chapel at St. John's Methodist Church when the ceremony began with the familiar words, "Dearlly beloved, we are gathered here in the sight of God..."

Newsmen outnumbered the relatives. The bride did not promise to "obey" the vice president. The Methodist marriage ritual hasn't included that word for ten years. "Alben" and "Jane" were pronounced man and wife. The bishop addressed them as "Alben" and "Jane."

The wedding ceremony, first for the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Those whom God has joined together, let no man put asunder."

David M. Barkley of Paducah, Ky., Barkley's son by a previous marriage, was best man, and the only attendant. Mrs. Hadley chose her brother, William W. Rucker of West Palm Beach, Fla., to give her away.

Following the ceremony an informal family luncheon was planned at the home of Mrs. T. M. Sayman, friend of Mrs. Hadley, with a limited number of press, radio and television representatives permitted to attend. A three-tiered wedding cake about two and one-half feet high acquittal.

Government Opens Second Hiss Trial

NEW YORK—(P)—The government opened its prosecution in the second perjury trial of Alger Hiss Friday, charging the former State Department official "lied, lied twice" when he denied giving secret papers to Whittaker Chambers.

The second trial of the 45-year-old Hiss got under way Thursday. A jury was picked to try the case in less than two hours. His first trial ended last July 8 when a jury of two women and 10 men divided eight for conviction and four for acquittal.

BOSTON—(AP)—Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson said Friday that from now on the armed services are going to do their own budget-slashing instead of leaving economy up to Congress.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman's new mention of a tax boost, in a Thursday news conference, as the only way to erase the federal deficit, touched off fresh demands by Republican spokesmen here Friday for a spending cut instead.

Stroble Admits Slaying

LOS ANGELES—(P)—Muttering "I don't deserve to live," pasty-faced Fred Stroble, 66-year-old baker, braced himself in a county jail cell Friday for swift grand jury action in the sex slaying of six-year-old Linda Joyce Gussie.

Stroble, the grandfather of one of Linda's favorite playmates, poured out his sordid story to District Attorney William Simpson as a 48-hour fugitive search throughout the West and into Mexico wound up Thursday on a stool in a downtown Los Angeles bar—about five blocks from Central Police Station.

Simpson said Stroble, formally charged with murder, admitted that he strangled and bludgeoned the pudgy little girl to death when she resisted his improper advances. Arrangement was scheduled Friday in Municipal Court.

Drunk On Wine
"I had been drinking all day—wine. I wouldn't have done it if I hadn't been drunk," Stroble was quoted as saying.

"I strangled her first with my hands, then with a tie. She was quiet. I wrapped her up in the blanket and carried her out to the incinerator. x x x I stabbed her with the ice pick, and then I slammed her with the flat side of the axe six times on the head... Stabbed In Back "Then I went back into the kitchen and got a (butcher) knife. I remembered a trick I learned while watching a bull fight in Mexico. I stabbed her in the back, just below the skull, between the shoulder blades. That makes death come easily and fast.

"The little girl did not suffer too much. She was dead within eight or 10 minutes.

Community Chest Drive Will End On Thanksgiving Day

MIDLAND COUNTY'S 1949 Community Chest finance campaign will end Thanksgiving Day, Chairman Bert Ryan said Friday in urging those who have not contributed to do so promptly.

Cash gifts Friday noon totaled $27,474. The goal is $73,000, which leaves $45,526 yet to be obtained. The quota is to be reached.

"And the job must be pushed to a successful conclusion," Ryan stated. He said leaders and team captains have reorganized their forces for the final drive.

The chairman also appealed to those not contacted by workers to mail their contributions to the Community Chest or leave them at the Chest of Commerce.

The Chest funds will be used to finance the operations of six youth welfare and charitable organizations in 1950. They are Boy Scouts, Youth Center, Girl Scouts, USO, Goodfellows and Salvation Army.

"Widow's Mite"
The call upon Midlanders to follow in proportion, the example set by an 84-year-old woman who Thursday sent to Community Chest headquarters a $3 contribution, which she termed the "widow's mite." A letter accompanying the gift said:

"Please accept this $3 gift. Wish it was $300. But thought it might help. From an 84-year-old lady in the country. Thanks. God will bless you for letting us know."

Ryan said that is the spirit it will take to put the Chest campaign "over-the-top."

Leaders in the Office Building Division said the work in most of the buildings has been completed. Captain Cal Glass credited Celia Mervis and Anne Wemple with the success of the campaign in the Midland Tower.

Follow-up work started Friday morning in the business district under the direction of Gerome Grayson, Commercial Division chairman.

The campaign has been underway more than two weeks, with more than 200 persons engaged in the county-wide effort.

Wildcat At Snyder Is Now Taking DST

Standard-Fryer Drilling Company No. 1 J. B. York, Central Scurry County wildcat, in the northwest sector of the Snyder townsite and about two miles east of the nearest completed oil wells from the Canyon reef line in the Kelley field, was bottomed at 6,759 feet and was taking a drillstem test.

This venture entered the Canyon reef at 6,730 feet, on an elevation of 2,346 feet, to give it a datum of minus 4,384 feet. According to interested observers that should give it at least 100 feet of Canyon section above the water in that formation.

The 29 feet of the zone so far penetrated logged good indications of production.

Location is 680 feet from north and west lines of section 180, block 3, H&GN survey.

Third Well Finished At Fort Chadbourne

William Hamm, Jr., No. 1 S. L. McNay has been completed for the third producer from the Pennsylvania in the Fort Chadbourne area of Northwest Runnels County.

The venture rated a 24-hour calculated potential of 146.6 barrels of 46-gravity oil, with a gas-oil ratio of 1.286-1.

No formation water was reported. Completion was from open hole between 5,290 feet and 5,331 feet. The flow was through 12 64th inch tubing choke.

No. 1 McNay is two miles west of Fred M. Manning, Inc. No. 1 McNay, Marble Falls discovery on the east side of the area. It is three-quarter miles east of Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Sallie Odum, recently completed Strawn lime discovery.

The new producer is 2,227 feet from southeast corner of section 292, block 3, H&GN survey, and three and one-half miles northwest of Wingate.

Kelley Outpost Finds Pool Producing Limit

Sun Oil Company No. 2 Lemons, southwest outpost to production from the Canyon reef line, on the northwest side of the Kelley field, has apparently reached the limits of that producing area.

This venture topped a lime at 6,797 feet and topped a section designated by some geologists as the Canyon reef at 6,833 feet. Elevation is 2,434 feet.

A drillstem test was run at 6,851-71 feet. The tool was open one hour. Gas showed at the surface in 50 minutes. The volume was not gauged or estimated.

Gels Oil, Gas, Water
Recovery was 1,159 feet of gas, oil and salt water cut drilling mud. It was estimated that 50 per cent of that fluid was oil. In addition there was a recovery of 15 feet of clear salt water.

Operator now is cutting a core from 6,871 feet to 6,921 feet. Location is 953 feet from south and 1,787 feet from east lines of the southwest quarter of section 205, block 97, H&TC survey.

C-S Midland Venture Gets Top Of Devonian

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1-BB TXL, Central-South Midland County exploration to 13,000 feet to explore into the Ellenburger, had reached 12,222 feet in Devonian lime and chert.

This venture is a one-location northwest outpost to the discovery well of the Pegasus field, which is just across the county line to the south in Central-North Upton County.

It entered the Devonian at 11,589 feet, to give it a datum of minus 8,700 feet and make it 480 feet level to the field opener.

Location is 694 feet from south and 680.5 feet from east lines of section 25, block 41, TP survey, T-4-S.

Completion Reported On Four Scurry Wells

Completion has been reported on four new natural flowing producers from the Canyon reef line in Scurry County, three in the North Snyder field and one in the Diamond M field.

In the North Snyder field, The Pure Oil Company completed its No. 7 Whitley for a calculated 34-hour potential of 1,208 barrels of 44.2-gravity oil. No water was reported. Gas-oil ratio is 745-1.

The flow was through a three-quarter inch tubing choke from open hole between the 5 1/2-inch oil string cemented at 6,800 feet and the total depth at 6,950 feet.

This source of oil is 860 feet from south and east lines of section 394, block 97, H&TC survey.

Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 11-4 Brown flowed through a one-half inch tubing choke to rate a calculated daily potential of 792 barrels of oil, from open hole in the Canyon reef line between the 7-inch oil string set at 6,553 feet and the total depth at 6,886 feet. Gravity of the oil was 43.5 degrees and the gas-oil ratio was 980-1.

This new producer is 487 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 450, block 97, H&TC survey.

Diamond-M Adds One
Standard also completed its No. 6-S Brown in the North Snyder field.

Flowing natural through a 24/64th inch tubing choke, the well made an initial daily production of 226.9 barrels of 43.5-gravity oil, with a gas-oil ratio of 980-1. No formation water was reported.

Coal Operators Cry For T-H Action Now To Keep Mines Open

WASHINGTON—(P)—President Truman's statement that he will use the Taft-Hartley law in the coal dispute if there is an emergency brought an operator cry Friday that there already is one.

Truman took his stand at his news conference late Thursday; he would not say whether he thinks an emergency would come with another walkout of the miners November 30. That is the end of the present working period decreed by President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers.

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers Association, replied from Lexington, Ky., that "There already is a national emergency." Moody added in a speech that Truman "obviously is up against a November 30 deadline. However, he denies the existence of a national emergency."

Truman's stand—keeping out of the dispute for the present—left the way open for a new peace meeting between Lewis and the operators before the present strike runs out. However, no immediate conference was arranged and Moody said he saw no present hope for resuming contract negotiations.

Truman surprised most people watching the coal situation by stating flatly he would not step in until an emergency arose, and was relying on the Taft-Hartley Act in that event. The law provides for an 80-day court injunction to keep production going if necessary to the public welfare. He has used the law before, although it was passed over his veto.

The coal mine owners had been all set for appointment of a fact-finding board; they said they were confident it would find that Lewis was entitled to no wage or welfare-pension advances this year.

Quick-Change Act Saves Ava From Ruining The Dialogue

HOLLYWOOD — Not in the script.
Melvyn Douglas and Ava Gardner were playing a scene for "Carriage Entrance." The script said Douglas comes into Ava's bedroom, awakens her and the ensuing conversation is one of the dramatic high spots of the film.
Ava was wearing a nightgown with a low-cut neckline.
Director Robert Stevenson looked at the scene through the camera finder and ordered the gown back to wardrobe to be remade with a throat-hugging collar.
"What's wrong?" asked Ava.
"With that nightgown," said Stevenson, "nobody will be listening to what either of you are saying."

Kirk Douglas interviewed secretaries the other day and finally hired a young lady who seemed most deserving of a job. Midland Operation Is Making Further Hole

General American Oil Company No. 1 Peck, Southwest Midland County wildcat, 30 miles southwest of the city of Midland, a 2.5 mile northwest of the Pegasus field, had reached 10,158 feet in Pennsylvania lime, and was drilling deeper.

This venture was reported to have topped the Pennsylvania at 10,022 feet, on an elevation of 2,902 feet, to make it only 80 feet low to the top of the Pennsylvania in the first producer in the Pegasus field.

It has been learned that previous reports that this venture is contracted to go to 13,000 feet to test the Ellenburger are in error. Slated To 10,500 Feet

Interested operators reveal that the contract under which this prospect was started call for it to be drilled to 10,500 feet. That contract has not been changed.

If it should stop at 10,500 feet it would not reach the Ellenburger. Location is at the center of the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 21, block 41, TP survey, T-4-S.

Dawson Prospect Has No Shows, Digs Ahead

Seven Caraway No. 1 Loe, Northwest Dawson County wildcat, seven miles northwest of Lamesa, and 660 feet from the north and west lines of labor 12, league 3, Taylor County School Land survey, was making hole below 7,520 feet in the lower Permian, after taking a drillstem test at 7,400-7,520 feet.

The tool was open two hours. There was a slight blow of air for a part of the period. Recovery was 30 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, gas or water.

The prospector is contracted to 10,500 feet to explore into the Pennsylvania lime.

67 Dysentery Cases Reported, Doctor Issues Precaution

Housewives are urged to wash all vegetables as a precaution against dysentery, according to an announcement Friday by Dr. F. E. Sadler, director of the Midland City-County Health Unit.

"While we can't be sure vegetables are causing the large number of cases of dysentery, we have no other suspects upon which to place the blame, so it is a good precaution," Dr. Sadler said.

He pointed out further that all vegetables—whether to be cooked or eaten raw—should be washed thoroughly.

In the first two weeks in November, 67 cases were reported to the health unit, and Dr. Sadler indicated that this figure probably represented only one-fourth of the total cases, since many were treated at home and others were not reported to the health unit by busy doctors.

Mrs. Dickerson Gives Speech To Garden Club

Mrs. M. S. Dickerson discussed the use of foliage, berries and dried materials in arrangements for the Midland Garden Club at a meeting Thursday morning in the home of Mrs. Butler Hurley.

She explained the types of arrangements in which these things may be used and the principles of their design. Methods of preparing such things as sumac and cockscomb for future use were included in her talk. She explained that cockscomb may be preserved by tying it and hanging it upside down.

Reeds, cattails, seed pods and ornamental corn are good in dried arrangements, she said, adding that containers should be of such materials as unglazed pottery, copper, pewter or wood knots. She added that pyracantha foliage is good in baskets and that wisteria, beans and house plants furnish good foliage for winter arrangements.

Careful Treatment Erases Blackheads

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

The discovery that blackheads are polka-dotting her nose, chin or forehead is enough to give a young teen-ager worry.

Although working the tiny blackheads out with fingernails is the worst possible approach to this problem, it's the one to which girls often resort. Mauling the skin until "wounds" uglier than the blackheads appear is what results from this "treatment."

Blackheads should go, however. They can be worked out by rubbing granular soap over the affected area until pores are freed of their burden. Another suggested step is to apply a steaming towel to the blackhead-beamishing skin after washing the face with soap and water.

Two-Step Treatment
Usually stubborn blackheads will yield to this two-step treatment. If a toothpick, wrapped in alcohol-dipped cotton is rubbed gently over the spots, many unclogged pores will stay that way.

For more persistent blemishes there are blackhead extractors on the market that are helpful to use. These must be sterilized in boiling water or alcohol before they are used on each separate blemish.

Medicated pore pastes or creams used nightly after a thorough washing and steaming will aid in keeping evacuated pores healthy and clean.

A girl can continue to keep her face unblemished if regular soap-and-water clean-ups are always followed by an application of astringent lotion which helps to shrink distended pores and to keep them resistant to soil.

A diet that's not too rich in fats and oils will also do its part in keeping a girl's complexion free of blemishes.

Unification Plans

Vice Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, the newly named chief of Naval Operations, certainly was taking the calm view when, in speaking of the defense establishment, he said: "I imagine there will be healthy differences of opinion."

Adm. Louis E. Denfeld's ouster from this job and Sherman's appointment do not end the bitter Navy-Air Force controversy recently aired in Congress. They merely lead it into a new phase.

First of all, Sherman must be confirmed by the Senate. And many senators, taking their cue from representatives angered over Denfeld's abrupt dismissal, may want to question the whole sequence of events that brought it about.

Moreover, the House Armed Services Committee itself has given notice that it will inquire into the Denfeld case.

Until that time, it would be fruitless for any outsider to attempt to gauge the wisdom or propriety of President Truman's action in tossing Denfeld out. The official story is that Secretary of the Navy Matthews found his attitude toward armed forces unity an unsatisfactory one well before the October congressional hearing.

Congressmen declare the firing was a reprisal against Denfeld for speaking his mind to Congress. They insist that the Administration broke a pledge against reprisals for such testimony.

Who can say now where the real truth lies? We should have a better notion of the facts after Congress delves into the case in January. But just offhand it would seem to be a tough task to shatter the official account, for the President's world stands behind Matthews.

However that issue comes out, Sherman has about two months to get under way on the job of bringing the Navy back into the unification fold. If he does his preliminary work well, he may lay groundwork solid enough to withstand the fresh turmoil looked for in January.

Sherman was chosen over nine men higher on the Navy's seniority ladder, presumably because he is a known supporter of service unity. He helped plan the unification compromise in 1946 which broke a long deadlock between the Navy and the other branches.

He did not seek the present appointment. But he brings to the assignment some definite qualifications. He is the youngest (53) chief of Naval Operations in history. He can be expected to plunge into his work with great vigor, and to approach it with a flexibility of mind desperately needed in the unification crisis.

Every citizen should wish him well. All should hope that he will strive for service unity in the spirit urged recently by General Eisenhower. To the general the important thing is not that one service shall gain a victory over another, but that a military and naval establishment be created which is thoroughly suited to the proper defense of the United States.

It is the country that counts—above the Army, the Air Force or the Navy.

A pedestrian apologized after being knocked down by a motorist. And science spends millions searching for freaks of nature.

—And So, Doc, This Is The Way It Is—

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Party bosses practice vote discrimination against organizations of Young Democrats; Seek to discourage intelligent youngsters; Prefer good party hacks.

LOS ANGELES—While President Truman has been preaching civil rights for the South, he has practiced exactly the same kind of vote discrimination toward groups of Young Democrats as he has criticized in Southern States.

The National Convention of Young Democrats in Chattanooga this week illustrates this vote discrimination, and also highlights the fact that the Young Democrats, once a live wire, progressive organization, in many states has become a Charley McCarthy for Democratic bosses, sometimes bought and paid for.

California Case Flagrant The throttling of Young Dems in New York State is not Truman's fault. But definitely at Truman's doorstep can be laid an even more flagrant case of vote denial—this one in California.

In that state the Young Democrats of California, Inc., has disintegrated into a group of about 100 jaded party hacks who, in effect, have sold the letterhead of their organization to the American Young Dems given jobs by George McLain of the California Young Democratic Clubs.

As a result, a rival group of Young Democrats — "the California Young Democratic Clubs" — has mushroomed up to 4,000 members, in contrast to less than 100 members for the old regulars. And on July 8, the new group officially applied for recognition by Washington.

Furthermore, it developed that the old and decrepit Young Dems had not paid their dues. They had borrowed $1,250 from Ed Pauley and Jimmy Roosevelt in 1947 to pay their dues, but something happened to their money—perhaps too much entertainment at conventions. Instead, a promissory note was deposited at headquarters for $1,500 in lieu of dues.

Under the Young Dem's constitution, the state organization which pays for its dues is supported by the state committeemen and gets official recognition. But in the case of California, the White House mysteriously intervened.

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

Many people who complain that they do not sleep well at night actually sleep much more than they think they do. They are often awake on first going to bed and this period often seems longer than it is.

There are very few diseases which can cause sleeplessness or insomnia. These usually produce other symptoms besides insomnia and do not explain the inability to sleep which the ordinary person complains of so much.

Worry is the principal cause of inability to go to sleep at night and of the wakefulness during the night. The mind, especially of those who earn their living by desk work, often is too active at night and makes sleep difficult.

There are ways of helping to get into a "sleepy" frame of mind. Reading a book, entirely away from the usual occupation and one which is not too exciting, often is helpful.

Many people find soothing music a relaxing pre-bedtime occupation. Handwork of some kind helps others.

Unfortunately a great number of people who complain of sleeplessness try various drugs. This tendency to use drugs as a sort of crutch in getting to sleep should be resisted. The sleep-producing drugs have their place but most of them are habit forming if taken over long periods.

There probably are few people living in cities who have not at one time or another suffered from a certain amount of difficulty in sleeping. The fact that this difficulty has been only temporary with most of us shows that ordinary insomnia is not dangerous. No one ever dies of simple insomnia.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Written for NEA Service

If you do not think that women play bridge as well as men, ask Mrs. Helen Pendleton Rockwell of Warren, Pa. Mrs. Rockwell is the daughter of Maj.-Gen. Joseph Pendleton of the U. S. Marines, in whose memory Camp Pendleton in California has been named.

"Mrs. Rockwell," I said, "do you really think that women play bridge as well as men?" "I certainly do think so," she replied with the spirit of the Marines in her voice, "and that applies to other things as well. If we had a woman at the head of the Navy today, do you think she would just go to Congress, ask them to increase the number of Marines, dissolve the Army, and the safety of the country would be in good hands."

Bridge hand diagram showing cards in each hand and a dealer position.

Today's hand came up in a recent tournament at Warren. Mrs. Rockwell says that most of the men blew the hand, but several women defeated the contract.

North opens the king of hearts and South puts on the eight-spot, which encourages North to continue with a heart. That is a man's style, Mrs. Rockwell claims, not a woman's. A woman will overtake her partner's king with the ace and lead a diamond. Now when South gets in with the ace of trumps, a diamond trick is cashed and the contract defeated.

If North continues with a heart at trick two, West will ruff it with the spade and now he is losing diamond will be discarded on dummy's good club.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Marine Hero Donated Money To Better Industrial Relations

By DOUGLAS LARSEN NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Before he died a hero's death on Iwo Jima, Marine Lt. Benjamin Rush Toland made out his will to give 40 per cent of his modest estate for the promotion of better employer-employee relations in the U. S.

Half of the money he asked to be given to the National Association of Manufacturers, to be spent in any way that organization saw fit, to try to carry out the terms of his will. The sum turned out to be $1,200. But NAM officials added $16,000 to it and created two research projects. One now is finished. It is a report called "Effective Communication in Industry."

Dr. Paul Pigors, associate professor of industrial relations at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was selected by NAM to make the study and report on it. Dr. Pigors' theme is that if employer and employee have an effective way of talking to each other they will get along a lot better. His study explains the problem and he makes some sound recommendations.

About Lt. Benjamin Toland, a foreword in the report says this: "He was 24 years old when he was killed in action on Iwo Jima. Ben Toland had a brilliant athletic and scholastic career. He was captain of the St. Paul's School hockey team, co-captain of the Yale freshman hockey team, played football and tennis. He was a leader in student activities, member of Phi Beta Kappa, a graduate summa cum laude of Yale. On Iwo Jima, Feb. 21, 1945, he took command of a wounded fellow-officer's platoon, took the assigned ridge, and here Lieutenant Toland was killed by a mortar burst while laying out air markers. He died as he had lived—serving others beyond the call of duty."

Suggests Face-To-Face Talks Dr. Pigors explains that one of the basic difficulties in the failure of good communication between workers and top bosses is the lack of face-to-face talk between executives and employees. In most modern industries this is impossible. But he frankly charges management with a big share of the blame in not trying to overcome this difficulty.

He says, "When executives assume that their successful experience in communicating with each other can be projected into their relationship with workers and union representatives, they make a mistake. He explains, "top management communication down the line cannot be timed to reach every individual worker at the moment when his feelings make him most ready to understand and accept the message."

When workers think they have reason to be suspicious of management, or in the case of "chronic kickers," Dr. Pigors argues, "top management words are likely to fall flat on their faces, or even to backfire." He poses the problem, "How can management set to work to transform their attitude of suspicion into one of trust?"

As an answer he offers some "dos" and "don'ts" to management. Make Proper Overtures One thing not to do, Dr. Pigors says, is to hand a new employee a copy of the company handbook with the remark, "You'll find out all you need to know by reading this." He says:

"If induction is to be fully effective it needs to be a fresh start for all concerned. A sound method for communicating the general outlines of the organization is by giving periodic orientation courses. In these newcomers can get a bird's eye view of company operations as a whole. Such a course should, if possible, be started off by the chief executive himself."

Dr. Pigors' study shows that executives don't use their foremen properly, as "communications centers." He states: "Many foremen receive little, if any, training for the most difficult parts of their job; namely, for getting on with people and for talking and listening to their subordinates every day as representatives of top management in such a way as to promote a feeling of organizational membership." He doesn't leave the union entirely free of blame in this matter. He says:

"The union has a chance to do much to explain its own feeling and purposes to new workers. It is unfortunate that the act of joining has become pretty bleak; in many cases a mere cash transaction, with no effort to evoke individual understanding and loyalty."

Twenty per cent of Lieutenant Toland's estate was divided between the CIO and AFL for the same purpose of improving labor relations. This part of his contribution was given to local councils to spend and there is no report on what was done with it.

Questions and Answers

Q—What are the relative advantages of raw and boiled linseed oil in paints? A—The raw oil is for out-of-door use, as its oxidation rate is slower, which results in longer life under relatively severe conditions. The oxidation rate of the boiled oil is too rapid for outdoor exposure but it is well suited to interior use. The boiled oil dries faster, and its characteristics approach those of a varnish.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN GOD?

Why do I ask? Because so many people claim they do not believe in Specific Chiropactic, yet it works hand in hand with God, or nature, or whatever you choose to call it. In Specific Chiropactic nothing is taken away or added to this God made body. Nature's forces are merely permitted to work the way God intended.

DR. FITCH, D.C.

BELOW IS AN OUTSTANDING EXAMPLE OF THE WAY GOD WORKS!
Case No. 122-8—Child, 2 Years Old.

The case was carried into our office in the arms of the mother. The child could neither walk or talk. The entire left side was paralyzed. The case also had convulsions of the epileptic type. All of those disorders came about as a result of an automobile accident. Before coming to us this case had been to over 17 different doctors and their efforts were futile.

To prove how fast nature really works when given a chance, here is what happened. In the course of three months under Specific Chiropactic this child began to say a few words, could sit up alone and, with help, could take a few steps. The paralyzed limbs had relaxed and could be used again. The child's weight had increased 18 pounds. The convulsions still continued, but not as severe or as often. One of the County Health officials, upon seeing the child, stated "I wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it."

Her 'Parish' For Navajos Covers 16,000,000 Acres

Irene Hoskins and pupil: She has to teach them to read Navajo so they'll be able to read English.

FORT DEFIANCE, ARIZ.—(NEA)—A Navajo girl, away at a school in Phoenix, was coming home for a visit. She wrote her mother a letter, telling her the good news. But when she arrived home her mother wasn't there.

The older woman couldn't read. She'd gone on a journey for several days, looking for someone to read the letter to her. And because she couldn't read she missed her daughter's visit.

That story is typical of life on the Navajo reservation, where 80 per cent—some 52,000—of the Indians are illiterate. There are schools for about a third of the Navajo children. It's that condition that Irene Hoskins, Iowa-born Quaker missionary, and others are trying to correct.

Sponsored By Council
For more than two years, Miss Hoskins has driven her truck and trailer over some 16,000,000 acres of desert in Arizona, New Mexico and Utah, bringing the ability to read to the people. Her job is sponsored by the Interdenominational Home Missions Council of North America.

Before she set out on the road, to bring education and the church to the Navajo's bee-hive shaped "hogans," she had taught in reservation schools.

Since two-thirds of the Navajos speak no English, she feels that the first step in teaching them to read English is to teach them to read Navajo. She is still learning the difficult Navajo tongue, and keeps up her own lessons while teaching others.

Roads Are Poor
Her "parish" is an immense stretch of desert, dotted with tiny settlements. Roads are poor, making her work all the more difficult.

During one day's "classes," Miss Hoskins and her Navajo intermediary and translator Mrs. Edna Maloney, may visit four or five "hogans," covering 12 miles.

She finds that most of the Navajos, who have several names, want to first learn to write their English names. Some of them don't even know the correct pronunciation.

McCAMEY DELEGATES
McCAMEY—Mrs. J. W. Gaddy, Jr., president of the McCamey Parent-Teacher Association, and Mrs. D. Locklin are in Waco, where they are attending the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers as delegates from the McCamey group.

There are more than 50 known species of deer, found almost all over the world except South Africa and Australia.

History Of Photography Being Displayed In New Public Institution In Rochester

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—(NEA)—The history of photography, from the earliest types of cameras to the latest in Telephoto equipment, is on display at a new institution here.

Called the George Eastman House, the photographic museum occupies the 37-room home of Eastman, one of the industry's pioneers. The displays are free to the public.

A camera autographed by Daguerre, the early French photographer who gave his name to the Daguerreotype, is one of the earliest items in the collection. The latest NEA-Acme Telephoto equipment offers a contrast to the old material used by Daguerre and his contemporaries.

Examples Shown
Actual examples or precise replicas of other early cameras, such as those used by Fox Talbot and Niepce, are shown. Contrasted with them are the most modern types of motion picture projection systems. Visitors will be able to see six-minute color movies, by pushing a button, which show how the old-fashioned cameras operated.

George Eastman's own collection of photographic items is on display in the former dining room of the house. Eastman's first account book, the first Kodak camera and other exhibits related to him are shown.

An old-fashioned portrait studio of the 1870's, complete with dark-room tent, is faithfully reproduced on the institute's second floor.

Other displays trace the development of lenses, photography in the graphic arts, motion picture photography, projectors and amateur still cameras.

Military Display
One room is devoted to military photography. "Gun" cameras from both World Wars, aerial cameras, periscope cameras and military photographs from the Crimean, Spanish American and Civil Wars are on display.

One room, called the Hall of Contemporary Photography, shows the varied applications of present-day photography, such as its use in science. The manner in which scientists use cameras to track down the atom and explore nuclear fission is explained. And there is a picture taken with a stream of electrons rather than with rays of visible light.

NEA-Acme Telephoto equipment is displayed as an example of the most modern means of fast distribution of press photographs to all parts of the world.

Youth's Arrest Ends North Texas Manhunt

FORT WORTH—(P)—A 20-year-old youth Thursday night calmly told a tale of bold banditry in four counties. He then was whisked to Denton, where Chief of Police Jack Harrison said charges of armed robbery would be filed against him.

Deputy J. V. Green found Lawrence Edward Byrom at the home of his mother.

The youth told police his mother, Mrs. Edith Palmer, convinced him in tearful pleadings to give himself up.

Byrom admitted in a statement witnessed by a Fort Worth Star-Telegram reporter and others, two robberies Wednesday night—one in Dallas, the other at Denton—and the abduction Thursday of a Cooke County cotton farmer.

The arrest of Byrom ended a manhunt that started here Wednesday night and that at one time had 30 officers and an airplane searching North Texas.

The Air Force also announced that Lubbock Air Base at Lubbock, Texas, would be renamed Reese Air Force Base. This is to honor First Lt. Augustus F. Reese, Jr., of Shallowater, Texas, who was killed in action over Sardinia.

Mexican Coffee Is Nickel Per Pound

DALLAS—(P)—In Mexico City you can go down to the corner grocery and buy a pound of the best coffee for forty centavos (less than five cents).

So said Col. Miguel Lanz Duret, publisher of two of Mexico's newspapers, in Dallas for the convention of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity. "And Mexican coffee is the best in the world," said the colonel. He added: "If you like it."

In Dallas, retail coffee prices range from about 55 cents a pound in a paper bag to about 73 cents in vacuum packed cans.

Add nothing to modern paints, the amateur painter has been warned. Adding a little of this and a little of that to modern household paints may entirely change their characteristics.

Time-Honored Nickel Cup Of Java Fades Slowly Into Limbo Of Forgotten Things

By RADEE WINGET

NEW YORK—(P)—Can a man get rich selling a cup of coffee for a nickel?

That argument right now is steaming up hotter than a cup of Java in January.

Restaurant men, coffee dealers and customers don't need a cup of coffee to keep them awake while they debate the cost of serving it.

Continued increases in the price of coffee beans are causing the pinch on the nickel cup.

What started the whole thing originally was not enough rain in Brazil. Brazil supplies us with 55 per cent of our coffee. The drought cut the supply. Other coffee growers in South and Central America have their own production troubles that reduced output. On top of that, we drink three cups of coffee today for every two cups we drank before the war. That boosted demand.

All Along The Line
This kind of tug of war between supply and demand resulted in one thing—a price increase all along the line for coffee.

The time-honored nickel cup of coffee is fading slowly into the limbo of forgotten things. The jump in price usually is from a nickel to a dime despite the fact that higher roasted coffee has added only a fraction of a cent per cup to costs.

But there are some staunch coffee servers in New York and elsewhere who figure they can make money at a nickel a cup despite the rise in the cost of coffee beans.

First off, they get 60 cups to the pound.

That's one cent a cup for the coffee itself. Add to that one quarter to one-half cent a cup for sugar. Then there is cream. You can get by with less than one cent a cup for cream—or cream mixed with milk. That brings the total to 2 1/2 cents a cup.

Then there is restaurant overhead to be added. That's the most fertile area for arguments.

40 Cents A Throw
The sidarm joint down Main Street can add a fraction of a cent to its cup and not be cheated. The Waldorf-Astoria Hotel charges 40 cents for a pot that holds two cups. It frowns on half-pot orders. The difference between the Main Street nickel cup and the 40-cent Waldorf pot is principally overhead.

A great number of restaurants also get only 40 cups to the pound and are paying up to 75 cents a pound for coffee. Forty cups is about what the average housewife gets from her coffee. The cost, consequently, is nearly two cents a cup.

A typical drug store-restaurant pays around 40 cents a quart for light cream. At 33 ounces to the quart and one ounce per cup, that is about one and one-half cents a cup for cream.

Sugar is harder to figure. One restaurant estimates sugar at not more than one-half cent a customer. From that you can deduct a saving for overweight customers who shun sugar.

That amounts to a cost of four cents a cup.

With overhead being what it is, the charge for such a cup is 10 cents. The big boost in the cost of roasted coffee takes only a small slice out of profits.

what happened to the price of coffee and why!

DURING the past several years, the world's production of coffee has declined, while consumption has been on the rise. Thus the demand has become slightly greater than supply on a world-wide basis.

In recent months a severe drought in one major coffee growing country, coupled with hurricanes and floods in other countries, has damaged the crop to be harvested next year. The extent of that damage is not certain, but it appears that early estimates were somewhat exaggerated.

protecting your supply

Many consumers, reading and hearing of this crop damage, have laid away an extra supply in their kitchens. This "run" on coffee in stores has produced a few localized and temporary "shortages."

If you have been limited by your grocer in the number of pounds of coffee you can buy, more than likely that is his voluntary attempt to protect his stock of coffee—and yours—until his next shipment arrives.

Remember, not a pound of coffee is grown in the United States... it is an imported commodity. Coffee companies here must depend upon growers in foreign countries for their entire supply.

where coffee prices start

Recently these growers, for the reasons mentioned above, together with other contributing factors, have been in a position to demand—and get—more money for their green coffee than ever before. Thus the prices of green coffees have risen by leaps and bounds. So rapid in fact, has been the climb, that we have been selling coffee to grocers and grocers have been selling to you, at prices below what was called for by the actual prices we were paying for green coffee in the producing countries the same day.

Coffee companies in the United States operate on a volume basis. The profit on each pound of coffee is small indeed. Without a tremendous volume there would be no profit at all. Likewise, the grocers of today sell coffee on a near-cost basis.

The increased price you are paying for coffee originates in the coffee growing countries—not with the roaster or your grocer.

No one can foretell how far this combination of unusual forces may push coffee prices upward, nor how long the situation may continue.

But we at Folger's believe that there is ample coffee on hand and in sight to supply the normal consumer demand for this special Mountain Grown coffee.

and we make this promise

When you buy Folger's Coffee it will be the same wonderful coffee with the individuality of flavor that has always set it apart from all other blends.

Considering how much pleasure a cup of Folger's Coffee gives you—surely you must agree that penny for penny Folger's still provides the most pleasure you can put on your table.

The holiday season is here, and Mother has begun bringing home baskets of tempting food like the one above. One glance at the assorted nuts, the fancy preserves, the fruits, the puddings and cakes, remind us that Thanksgiving is at hand, and that we will soon be enjoying the treats of this festive season.

But enjoying our blessings is not enough. We must be thankful as well—and true thanks is possible only when we share with others.

When in the joy and excitement of the moment we stop to remember those who are less fortunate, we are not only bringing happiness to others, but we are making our own pleasures more genuine, more deeply felt.

In order to develop generosity—and indeed all virtues, we must join wholeheartedly in the work of the Church. Here we can learn how to serve our fellow men most effectively, and in so doing, enrich our own lives.

Two B-29 Bombers Collide In California

An Air Force B-29 Superfortress lies twisted and crumpled on marshy MacDonald Island near Stockton, Calif., after it collided head-on with another B-29 during a routine "round robin" training flight. The planes were from Spokane, Wash. Eighteen of the airmen aboard the two planes were killed. In the lower photo, rescuers probe the wreckage in search for bodies. Rescuers were hampered by dense tule fog.

Guest Teams Will Give DeMolay Rites

Initiation of 40 members of the Midland DeMolay Chapter will be held Saturday and Sunday with degree teams from Fort Worth and Odessa performing the rites, according to an announcement by J. M. McDonald, president of the Midland Shrine Club.

Initiates of the newly-chartered chapter will meet at 5:45 p.m. Saturday at the Masonic Hall, 215 1/2 West Wall Street, and go in a body to the John M. Cowden Junior High School for a barbecue. Following the meal, they will return to the hall for initiation. The Odessa degree team will administer the rites.

Sunday's program will include the installation of officers, and will be held at 2:30 p.m. in the gymnasium of the John M. Cowden Junior High School. Members of the Fort Worth degree team will conduct this ceremony, including the Flower Sermon ceremony.

Texans Invited To Join Legionnaires In 'Democracy Day'

AUSTIN—(P)—Texans have been invited to join in a mass, intensive, one-day study of democracy on December 7.

Gov. Allan Shivers Wednesday designated the date as "Democracy Beats Communism Day" and urged Texans to cooperate with American Legion posts in a "calm, patriotic appraisal of Democracy."

Hundreds of Legion posts over the state will stage day-long programs starting with breakfasts and winding up with night church services.

The program is under the sponsorship of the Legion's Americanism Committee whose chairman is John Ben Sheppard of Gladewater. The "Operation Democracy" plan in general follows the pattern tried out at Gladewater last March 20-28 in a series of programs emphasizing the democratic way of life.

Efforts will be made to include each citizen and school child in each community. Programs start with a breakfast which will be addressed by State Commander Joe Spurlock over a radio network.

Governor Shivers goes on the air at 12:30 p.m. in another network broadcast linking all luncheon meetings.

Arrest Of 14-Year-Old Youth Puts End To Seven-Week Crime Wave In Three States

TEXARKANA—(P)—A thin, wiry, 14-year-old boy who has led officers of three states a merry chase for seven crime-packed weeks, was captured Friday at his Texarkana home.

The boy, small for his age, launched his crime wave seven weeks ago by stealing a coon from the Texarkana zoo.

Since then, officers say, he has:

1. Stolen a long string of automobiles, motorcycles and even a motor scooter.
2. Burglarized an ex-police commissioner's home of $380.
3. Escaped from officers three times. Once was a thrilling get-away from a 30-man posse when he jumped from a car while handcuffed.

"Tipped that the boy was back in Texarkana after escapades in Houston, Arkansas and Louisiana, detectives and policemen from Texas and Arkansas found him hiding in a closet of his home here and he surrendered without resistance.

Texarkana City Detective Homer Goff said the boy was "as far back in that closet as a person could get."

Started With Coon
Here is the boy's crime career as outlined by officers:

He was caught and released after he had stolen the coon. Then he stole two motorcycles here.

He was apprehended after stealing the first motorcycle but broke away from the officer who had him in custody.

On the second motorcycle he rode to South Texas. He wrecked it and stole a motor scooter in Houston.

He visited the Houston home of his stepfather but ended the visit abruptly by stealing $58 from the home and his stepfather's car.

He drove the car to Texarkana and abandoned it.

Then he went on to Nashville, Ark., and burglarized the home of an ex-police commissioner of $380. He also stole a couple of cars in Nashville. He went on to a town near Shreveport and stole another car.

Escapes From Posse
He drove that car to Houston and parked in front of the home of an aunt. He went in the house and went to sleep. The aunt called officers to come and get him, but he awakened and heard them coming. He jumped through a window and hid until they were gone.

They made the mistake of leaving the stolen car in front of the house. The boy promptly got in it and drove away.

He was next spotted in a wood near Addicks, Texas, in Harris County. A 30-man posse called for him to come out, but he didn't. They waded into the wood and caught him. Officers in the group handcuffed him and placed him in their car and headed for Addicks.

Enroute, the boy opened the back door of the car with his toes and leaped out. This time, the posse didn't catch him.

The next word of him was the telephoned tip to police here Thursday night that he was in town. It resulted in his arrest.

Texarkana officers said they would turn him over to Nashville, Ark., authorities.

Brother Charged In Slaying At Amarillo

AMARILLO—(P)—Billy Max Mann was charged with murder with malice in the rifle slaying of his brother, Donald Mann, 23.

Police arrested him Thursday night in an Amarillo depot. His brother was shot to death about 8:30 p.m.

District Attorney Lloyd King said murder charges had been filed.

Police were told that Donald Mann was in the living room of a home in the southwestern residential section of Amarillo. He was making a phone call when Billy Max Mann appeared in a doorway leading to a hall. Police said Billy Max Mann began firing.

Donald ran from the room after the shots, leaving a trail of blood through the dining room and kitchen. The trail continued around the house and across the front yard to the curb in front of a neighbor's home. Here Donald collapsed.

The slain man returned to Amarillo a week ago from Louisiana.

Police said Donald Mann, Billy Max Mann, and Arliss McKinney, Donald's former wife, were alone in the house at the time.

A REPORT TO THE CITIZENS OF MIDLAND AND MIDLAND COUNTY

Your Community Chest campaign has been under way since November 1st. Many voluntary workers have given generously of their personal time as well as having contributed to the drive.

The goal is $32,000 for the continued operation through 1950 of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Center, U.S.O., Salvation Army, and the Goodfellows . . . all worthwhile services of your community. To date the sum of $27,400 has been raised, leaving $4,600 needed.

Our workers have tried to contact all residents of Midland and Midland County able to contribute to this excellent cause—this has been a big job for the time allotted, and it is inevitable that quite a few persons and firms have been missed, even though the workers have been industrious and diligent. Had all personal contacts been made that had been hoped for, we feel sure that the goal would now have been passed.

In order to release the many workers still on the job, it has been concluded to end personal solicitations next Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, whether or not the goal has been reached.

We do not believe that the generous citizens of Midland and Midland County will permit this campaign to fall short of the goal . . . in fairness to our boys and girls, and to our welfare organizations, we cannot fail.

Will you, if you have not given, or if you feel you have not given enough, either call the Chamber of Commerce, telephone 55, for a volunteer worker to pick up your contribution, or leave it in the Chamber of Commerce office in the Scharbauer Hotel, or, if more convenient, place it in an envelope simply addressed to the Midland County Community Chest, Midland, Texas. ACT NOW! Do your part for your community.

Bulldogs Meet Lubbock

Midland Shoots For Upset; Westerners Are After Flag

The Midland Bulldogs get their last chance to share in the District 3-AA title Friday night when they meet the top-rated Lubbock Westerners at 8 o'clock in Memorial Stadium.

The Bulldogs have a record of one win and one defeat in conference play while the Westerners are undefeated for the season. Midland will be shooting for an upset. There's no other way to class it if the Bulldogs muster the power to win.

Lubbock, fresh from a 7-6 victory over Odessa, has turned down eight opponents in stride. Only three times have the mighty South Plains boys failed to score at least 40 points this season.

Bobby Brown—the Lubbock all-state candidate—engineers the Westerners from a T-formation. He is classed as the state's best man-under and Texas' finest passer.

Wayne Stroud, Charles Williams and Malcolm Young do most of the ball-carrying for the Lubbock eleven. Stroud is the power. He can carry for a TD from any point on the field.

Wide Open Game
Midland will play a wide open game against the Westerners, gambling all the way to try and keep the score "right."

Ralph Brooks will be the key man in the Midland backfield this game. He has sparked in two games and helped the Bulldogs to their only score against Odessa.

Coach Tugboat Jones has set up some defenses and introduced some offensive plays that'll give the Westerners trouble. It will be a new type of football for the Bulldogs Friday night.

Lubbock has much to lose in the fracas. The Bulldogs have little to lose.

A win for Midland would turn the 3-AA race into a tangle. The Bulldogs and Odessa each would have a chance to share in the title.

Coach Tugboat Jones has promised the cash customers a razzle-dazzle game of football. Even though the Bulldogs are out-winged, classed the underdog and lacking speed and experience, Midland will be going all-out.

The probable starting lineups:
MIDLAND
ENDS—Smith and Bush.
TACKLES—Wood and Coker.
GUARDS—Byerley and Mobley.
CENTERS—O'Neal.
BACKS—Gilmore, Burris, Brooks and Thomas.

LUBBOCK
ENDS—Wright and Reeves.
TACKLES—Ross and Nelson.
GUARDS—Madrell and Gray.
CENTERS—Wienke.
BACKS—Brown, Young, Stroud and Williams.

Jackie Robinson Of Brooklyn Honored As National's Best

NEW YORK—(AP)—Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers, batting champion and second base spark of a pennant winner, has been elected most valuable player of 1949 in the National League.

First member of the negro race to make the grade in modern big league ball, the 30-year-old former UCLA collegian from Cairo, Ga., drew a total of 264 points to 226 for Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals. Robinson said he was "very happy" over his selection.

Twenty-four members of the Baseball Writers Association, three from each city in the circuit, acted as a committee. Each listed 10 players in order of their value and 12 of the 24 put Robinson on top.

Enos Slaughter of the Cards and two of Robinson's Brooklyn teammates, Pee Wee Reese and Carl Furillo, each received two first-place ballots. The other one went to Lefty Ken Heintzelman, the Phillies' 17-game winning pitcher. Only Robinson and Musial were on every ballot.

On a point basis, with 14 for first, nine for second and so on down to one for tenth, Slaughter with 181 was third and Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner, the home run king and runs-batted-in leader, was fourth with 133. Reese, Dodger captain and shortstop partner of Robinson in fine double-play combination, drew a fifth-place total of 118 points.

MINOR EARTHQUAKE
LONG BEACH—(AP)—A minor earthquake rocked Long Beach about 5:15 p.m. Thursday. No damage was reported.

SPORTS SLANTS

by SHORTY SHELburnE

Sports Slants has received several requests in the last few days to appeal for tickets to various football games in the Southwest Conference.

It takes a magician, no less, to dig up ducats to most games played in the conference. Not being a magician, we'll just ask you to notify us if you happen to have an extra ticket or two to any of this week's games or those next week.

We have a special request for SMU-Baylor ducats.

L. C. Thomas, the power in the Midland backfield, has scored a total of 48 points this season from the fullback spot. Because the Bulldogs have done most of their scoring from close up, Thomas has plunged over for eight touchdowns to take a wide lead in the individual scoring.

Charles Crowley, extra-point kicker and as capable a back as we have, runs second to Thomas with 13 points. Crowley had counted only one TD but has booted seven points.

Ralph Brooks probably is the most potent scorer considering the number of games he has carried the ball. He has crossed the double-stripe two times.

Harrie Smith and Jack Burris have scored one touchdown each, bringing the Bulldogs' total scoring for the season to 83 points.

Here's a special note to football fans interested in the Stanton-Hermleigh District 8-B game. The tilt has been shifted to Snyder. Game time is 5 p.m. Friday in the Snyder stadium.

Hermleigh is undefeated in conference play and Stanton's Buffaloes have lost only one. The game will decide the championship.

Things often are taken for granted so long we begin to believe they are governed by the rules in sports. Take baseball for example.

Commissioner A. B. Chandler and a dozen "baseball brains" have re-coded the rules for the diamond sport.

There'll be plenty of changes when the new rule book is written.

We have taken it for granted so long, we all probably thought the rule book said the home club always was to bat last. However, the rule book said no such thing until it was re-written.

Previously, the manager of the home team had the right to say which team would bat last.

The prize of all the rules, never before in the book, is the one written in which says, "The object of each team is to win by scoring the most runs."

Before, it didn't say what the object of the game was.

If you have tried to get tickets to the Army-Navy game and didn't succeed, this may help explain why. Chances are your congressman or President Truman has your ducat to the annual classic.

The President has an allotment of tickets each year "which he purchases," according to a Navy spokesman.

And each senator and each representative annually gets eight tickets from the Navy and eight from the Army, making 16 each.

FIVE ARE BACK
NEW YORK—(AP)—Only one of the six National Hockey League teams has a new captain this season. Doug Bentley has replaced Gabe Stewar as leader of the Chicago Black Hawks. Holdover captains are Butch Bouchard, Montreal Canadiens; Sid Abel, Detroit Red Wings; Ted Kennedy, Toronto Maple Leafs; Milt Schmidt, Boston Bruins and Buddy O'Connor, New York Rangers.

100th DUKE WIN
DURHAM, N. C.—(AP)—Wallace Wade scored his 100th football win since taking over the coaching reins at Duke University when Duke beat North Carolina, 14-13. His first Duke win was a 13-0 decision over VMI in 1931, his first season at the Blue Devil helm.

Classen Picks Stanford To Nip California Bears

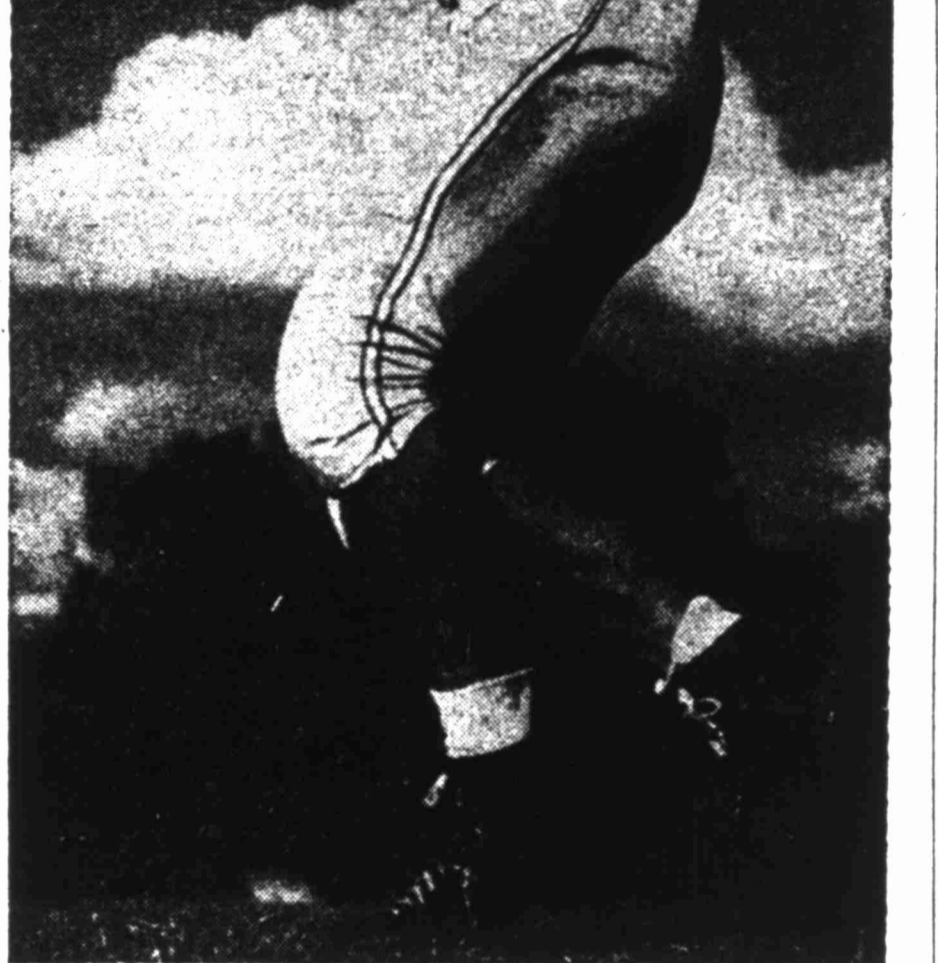

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK—(AP)—Heading for the final weeks of the football season with an .809 average on 479 correct guesses and 114 stumbles, here are this week's picks:

Notre Dame over Iowa: The current Irish unbeaten streak should go on although it was the Hawkeyes who ended the Rockne mark in 1921. Michigan over Ohio State: The home field gives the Wolverines what little advantage there is in this annual clash.

Minnesota over Wisconsin: Minnesota, which enjoyed a mental visit to the Rose Bowl in mid-season, needs a victory here to stay in the race.

Stanford over California: With the coast title and the Western Rose Bowl invitation at stake, the Indians are the pick here although California generally is favored.

Southern California over UCLA: The Trojans by a touchdown. Oklahoma over Santa Clara: The Sooners count their current winning streak from their loss to the Broncos a year ago. Oklahoma is after revenge.

Paul Campbell, University of Texas passing ace, swapped a clarinet for a football back in high school several years ago and has been tootin' it up on the gridiron ever since. He currently is leading the Southwest Conference passers in yards gained. He'll be firing the oval at receivers in the annual Texas-Texas A&M classic next week.

District 5-A Closes Grid Race Friday

The regular season of play in District 5-A football comes to an end Friday night with four conference and one non-conference game scheduled. The Wink Wildcats, current league leaders and rated the favorite to represent the district in the state flag race, move into Crane for the week's feature tilt. Monahan plays host to the Pecos Eagles for the annual grudge game between the two schools. Andrews goes to Seminole, where Seminole Coach Gordon Wood will take a parting shot at another of the loop-leaders. He has succeeded in shooting down two this season. At McCamey, Fort Stockton's Panthers battle the Badgers in a tilt which will decide who finishes next to last. Denver City is buried deep-six in the cellar. Kermit, out of the conference race after having topped it most of the way, has completed play in the district. The Yellowjackets take a trip to Hobbs, N. M., Friday night. Wink needs only to whip Crane to gain undisputed possession of the district crown. Andrews is the only other team with any chance of sharing the title. If Wink loses and Andrews wins, the Mustangs will be on top.

Sixth Grade Pups Play San Jacinto In 'Peanut Bowl'

The first Midland team ever to play in a bowl game takes the field in Odessa's Broncho Stadium at 3 p.m. Saturday. It'll be the Sixth Grade Bullpups of John M. Cowden Junior High School against the San Jacinto Elementary Mustangs, champions of the Odessa Elementary School league, in the "Peanut Bowl."

The Bullpups are undefeated for the season and haven't allowed an opposing ball carrier to cross their goal line. The Odessa team is undefeated in seven starts.

The game, sponsored and staged by the Odessa Kitanis Club as a feature of National Kids Day observance, stacks up to be a top-notch.

The Midland team will leave the Junior High Gym at 1:30 p.m. and will ride in a parade preceding the tilt.

While holding their opponents scoreless this year, the Pups have piled up 68 points. Bill Dillard and Frank Midkiff have led the offensive assault all season.

Dillard is the team's speed merchant and can go all the way from anywhere between the goal lines. Midkiff supplies the power for the Pup eleven.

Stu Chancellor, a capable youngster, quarterbacked the club. He is a triple-threat, doing the passing, punting and some of the running. Larry Sapp, a deadly blocker, complements the backfield.

Coach Lloyd Curlee is running the team from a T formation this year. He has a few plays from the single wing and a few spread plays but sticks to the T most of the time. The club averages 95 pounds per man. It will hold a weight advantage over the Odessa eleven.

The San Jacinto team depends on Frank Mote, a 71-pound racer, for its scoring. He is aided by Layton Kirklind, Dick Stice and Tom Alexander in the backfield. Officials for the game will be furnished by the Midland-Odessa Chapter of the Southwestern Football Coaches and Officials Association.

The starting lineup for Midland: ENDS—Brownlow Farmley and Gary Roberson. TACKLES—Leslie Whitley and Charles Prick. GUARDS—Coy Hudson and H. C. Feemster.

CENTER—Dickie Mills. BACKS—Stu Chancellor, Larry Sapp, Frank Midkiff and Bill Dillard.

Eighth Grade Pups Lose To Big Spring In Wide-Open Game

BIG SPRING—The Big Spring Junior Steers and the Eighth Grade Bullpups of John M. Cowden Junior High of Midland played a wide-open football game here Thursday night. Big Spring won 58 to 38.

Both teams showed they were offensive-minded rather than defensive.

Russell Rutledge scored four touchdowns and an extra point for the Pups. He ran two kickoff backs for TD's. The first one was an 80-yard run and the last a 73-yard jaunt. He took a pass and scored another and went all the way on a quickie for his fourth.

Bill Show scored for Midland on a pass play. He took the pass and ran 58 yards to pay dirt. Darrell Spivey added the other touchdown on a buck. He also scored an extra point.

Eighth Grade Pups' Grid Game Will Be Kids Day Feature

National Kids Days will be observed in Midland Saturday in rare form. It'll be all-out for the celebration for Midland kids.

The celebration will center around the Eighth Grade Bullpup grid game against Colorado City at 2:30 p.m. in Memorial Stadium.

A downtown parade led by the Junior High Band and Drill Squad will add much color to the day's activities.

The band and drill squad will perform at halftime also.

The football game will be the last of the season for the Eighth Grade Pups. Coach John Higdon's boys defeated the Colorado City Juniors earlier in the season.

'C' Bulldogs Lose To Odessa Bronchos

The Midland 'C' Bulldogs completed their 1949 football season with a 68-14 loss to the Odessa 'C' Bronchos at Odessa Thursday.

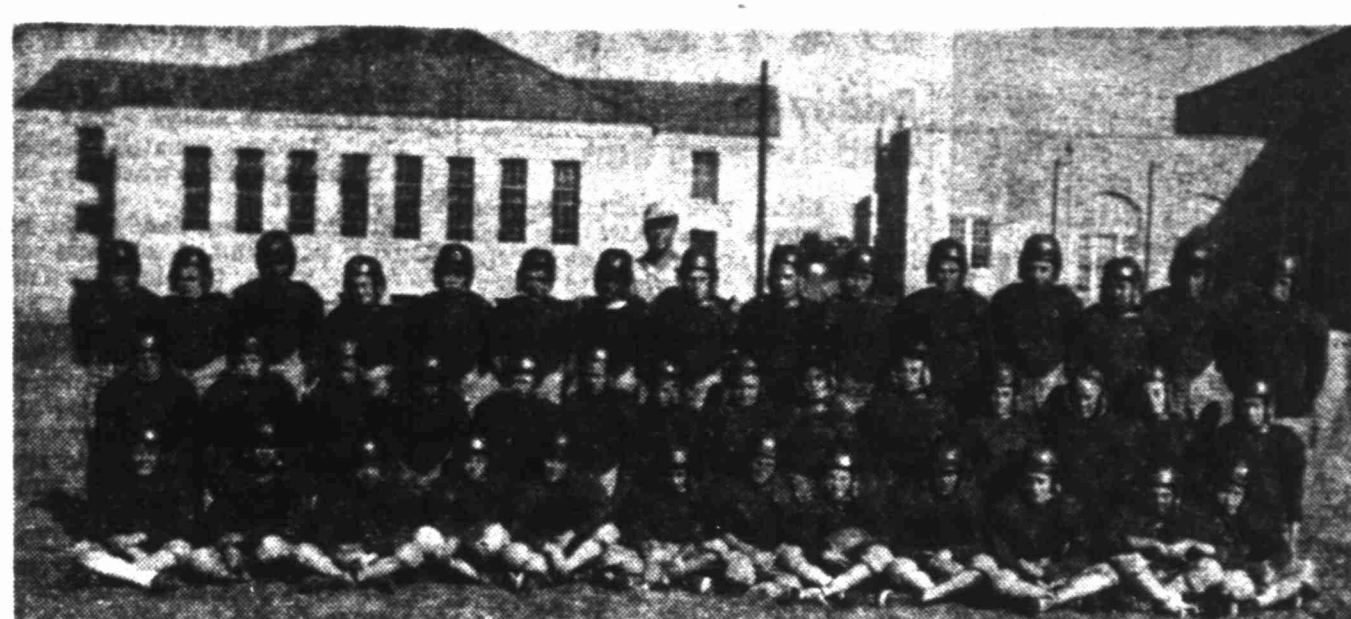

The power-packed Odessa team scored freely throughout the game, taking advantage of the injured Bulldog crew.

Russell Cox was the offensive spark for the Bulldogs. He scored on a 30-yard end sweep and set up the other touchdown with a 28-yard run. Charles Patterson plunged it over from the two.

The 'C' Bulldogs, coached by Joe Atkins, had a successful season except for a pair of defeats at the hands of Odessa.

The dodo, a defenseless clumsy bird found on Mauritius when the island was discovered early in the sixteenth century, was entirely exterminated by 1851, unable to cope with man's weapons or domesticated animals.

Midland's First Bowl Team

This is Midland's first bowl team. The Sixth Grade Bullpups of John M. Cowden Junior High School meet the San Jacinto Mustangs of Odessa in the "Peanut Bowl" at 3 p.m. Saturday. The tilt will be played in Broncho Stadium. The Bullpups are: Top row, left to right, Hammock, Ruff, Walker, Chancellor, Martin, Farmley, Dillard, Feemster, Scott, Hudson, Roberson, Whitley, Sanchez, Booth, Vanderpool. Middle row, Frick, Carpenter, Mills, McNeese, Harris, B. Harris, Reeves, Blancett, Morneo, Griffith, Monroe, Raton, Daniels, Pyett. Bottom row, Wallington, Walden, Menchaco, Landrih, Welton, Sapp, Outbirth, Howard, Midkiff, Mayhew, Phillips, Schwabe. McBride, also a member of the team, is not in the picture. Coach Lloyd Curlee is shown standing back of the team in center.

'B' Bulldogs Play Last Tilt Of Season In Odessa Saturday

Another Midland football team rings down the curtain on the 1949 season Saturday night. The Midland 'B' Bulldogs play the Odessa 'B' Bronchos at 7 p.m. in Broncho Stadium to close the season.

Coach Red Rutledge's squad has been crippled by injuries for several weeks but will be in fair shape for the finale.

Rutledge announced the following starting lineup:

ENDS—Johnson and Black. TACKLES—Vanderpool and Lavery. GUARDS—Underwood and Scoggin. CENTER—Spence.

BACKS—D. Black, Ingham, Melton and Hatfield.

Cage Coaching School Scheduled At Lubbock

LUBBOCK—(AP)—The fourth annual Clarence Fox Coaching School will be held here November 27 and 28. More than 100 high school basketball coaches of the North and South Plains have been invited.

Texas Tech Coach Folk Robinson and West Texas State Coach Gus Miller, NAIB president, will deliver lectures Sunday and Monday. Basketball squads from the two Border Conference colleges will be used to demonstrate offensive maneuvers.

SHOOT IT'S HUNTING. PORT COLLINS, COLO.—(AP)—You go hunting for deer or elk. But when it's duck or pheasant you're after, you're shooting, not hunting. So says Mrs. J. C. Clevenger, whose husband, dean of students at Colorado A&M College, is an authority on guns and hunting. "A person hunts big game, but shoots small game," said Mrs. Clevenger.

Four 'Big Tilts' Listed Friday On Schoolboy Slate

By The Associated Press. Four "big games" are on tap Friday night as Texas schoolboy football moves toward the playoff.

District titles go to the winner of these games in Class AA: Vernon-Wichita Falls, Temple-Corsicana, Austin-Corpus Christi and Baytown-Galveston.

Several other clubs in Class AA and the City Conference almost can start making playoff plans with victories Friday night. These include Lubbock, Breckenridge, Abilene, Conroe, Harlingen and San Jacinto.

Pampa, Paris, Highland Park of Dallas, Sunset of Dallas, Alice, Marshall and Sunset already have clinched playoff spots.

Corsicana is undefeated, untied, and Baytown is unbeaten but tied. Both face tough foes Friday night.

Port Arthur, Wichita Falls and Lubbock are the only other three teams with perfect records.

Lubbock meets Midland in a 3-AA contest. Breckenridge runs into Mineral Wells; Abilene meets Big Spring; Conroe plays Palestine; Harlingen goes to Brownsville, and San Jacinto tackles John Reagan in a Houston City Conference game.

Two games were played Thursday night. Crozier Tech of Dallas swamped North Dallas 38-7, and Lamar of Houston knocked off Austin of Houston 20-7.

While these big "two" divisions of the interscholastic League are in the home stretch, Class A schools end regular season play this week.

Rosebud Thursday night sacked up the 21-A title by blanking Cameron, 20-0, in a playoff game between these two teams. Last week, Cameron beat Rosebud 7-0. Edison of San Antonio beat Hot Wells 20-13 for the 31-A crown. There are fourteen undefeated teams in the vast Class A setup, though some have been tied.

The only meeting Friday night between undefeated, untied teams in this division will match Del Rio and Uvalde for the 32-A title.

Owls, Ponies, Hogs Are Harold's Picks

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF, Associated Press Sports Editor

Saturday will be the most important day in Southwest Conference football. A champion may be born.

Rice's mighty Owls meet dangerous underdog Texas Christian at Fort Worth in the big one. Rice can clinch at least a tie for the title by licking the Horned Frogs.

Over at Dallas, Southern Methodist will be trying to help their conquerors, the Owls. The Methodists play Baylor and a victory over the Bears coupled with a Rice win would end the championship race in favor of the Owls. A win for Baylor would put the showdown on November 26 when Baylor plays Rice.

Baylor, knowing that if it wins the next two games the Cotton Bowl gates will swing wide, since in the event of a tie for the title the team that beat the other in regular season play gets the bid, will be throwing everything it has into its battle with Southern Methodist.

Texas Christian, staging a garrison finish of a campaign that once appeared hopeless, can be expected to give Rice a terrific struggle. The odds say Rice is 10 1/2 points better and that Southern Methodist has a seven and one-half-point buge over Baylor.

While Rice swipes at Texas Christian and the Baptists and Methodists stage their annual feud, one other conference member will be playing an intersectional game. Arkansas will be entertaining William and Mary. Little Rock, Arkansas is favored by six points.

Texas and Texas A&M do not play this week. They will meet next Thursday to end the season for both teams, each having been eliminated from title consideration.

Our record for the season is 28 wins, 7 losses and 2 ties. It has been getting worse each week. But we had no reputation left anyway, so here goes for Saturday: Rice vs Texas Christian at Fort Worth. The Christians upset Texas but the incentive isn't so great this week; Rice knows what it's in for—Rice by a touchdown.

Southern Methodist vs Baylor at Dallas—It's been a long, long time but we see no reason for it not going another year—Southern Methodist by two touchdowns.

Arkansas vs William and Mary at Little Rock—Arkansas couldn't be that bad two weeks in a row—A good ball game but Arkansas by two touchdowns.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Evening Sun

The night was coming to the Great Forest. Old Mr. Sun was low in the sky, going down the other side of the world to China. Daddy Ringtail was walking along through the forest with Sammy, hurrying and hurrying to get back to the monkey house before the night made the way too dark to see.

"Daddy Ringtail," said Sammy, "Old Mr. Sun is almost gone."
"Yes," Daddy Ringtail agreed, "the night will come when the sun is gone."
And the monkey daddy and his monkey boy walked on and on, hurrying, while the night came nearer and nearer because the sun was farther and farther away.
"Daddy Ringtail," Sammy said suddenly, "what if the sun doesn't come back tomorrow?" Sammy was very young when all this happened, and he sounded a little afraid that the night would be in the forest forever.
But Daddy Ringtail said: "You mustn't worry about it. The sun will be back tomorrow. It always has come back."
"But it may not come back this time," said Sammy.
And then, because Sammy was afraid that the sun might be gone forever, Daddy Ringtail put the monkey boy up on his back and climbed with him to the top of a tall tree. They could see the sun on the other side of the sky, as though it were going down in a hole. Oh, but it was a beautiful thing to see, all blue and purple and gold.

"Look at the sun!" Daddy Ringtail said. "How beautiful it shines when it's nearly gone, all blue and purple and gold!"
Daddy Ringtail told Sammy that beautiful things are made for seeing, which was a promise that the sun always would be back tomorrow, and the next day too, and all ways. And if you ever are afraid that the sun will be gone forever, you can remember how wonderfully it shines in the late evening, promising and promising that it will hurry back for the morning. Happy day! Happy evening always, too, and the same for night and morning.

Hallanan Blasts Barkley Statements On Tideland

DENVER, COLO.—(AP)—A recent statement by Vice President Alben W. Barkley, that the federal government must control tidelands oil in order to assure its availability in event of national emergency, was described here Friday as "utter nonsense" by Walter S. Hallanan, of Pittsburgh, Pa., chairman of the National Petroleum Council.

"The facts are," Hallanan said, "that in the recent war, the only oil that was not immediately and continuously available was that which the federal government had kept locked up."

"There is no security in anything that is locked unless we have the key to the door. It certainly has been demonstrated that the government does not have this key to the development of oil reserves."

The council chairman also challenged the vice president's assertion that the nation has enough oil in reserve for only twelve years. "That is perfectly ridiculous, as every practical oil man knows," he declared. "The truth is that we are finding more oil than we consume and that our underground inventories today stand at the highest point in all history."

Ancient Bugaboo

Hallanan said the talk that the nation is running out of oil is "a bugaboo that is almost as old as the industry itself."

Barkley's statement, to which Hallanan took issue was made in a speech by the Vice President at the annual meeting of the American Petroleum Institute held in Chicago, earlier this month.

Declaring that the problems now facing the American oil industry are more critical and ominous than any in its 90-year history, Hallanan said that their solution calls for industrial statesmanship of the highest character and for harmony, unity and co-operative effort of all segments of the industry.

"We cannot expect to 'muddle through' the present serious situation," he asserted. "We cannot rest upon our oars and wait expectantly for something to turn up. The serious questions now upon the industry's doorstep can be resolved only through aggressive and determined action. Every person connected with the oil business must lend a hand and pull an oar in one common cause."

No Security In Complacency

The council chairman said the United States had enjoyed a position of dominance and superiority in the sphere of world oil for so long that many are unwilling to recognize the serious challenge to its position of world leadership.

"There is no security in the complacency of a mental Maginot line based upon the fact that the United States is the largest producer and consumer of oil in the world," he added.

"While there may be some comfort in this knowledge, we must not permit ourselves to be blinded by the grim reality that we no longer have the largest proven reserves in the world, and that we are no longer the largest exporter of oil."

"The curve of foreign production has been going steadily upward, and there is no reason to believe that it will be halted. On the other hand, there is substantial basis for the fear that the increase will be accelerated in the years immediately ahead. The economic and political pressures for increased foreign production are tremendous. They have their repercussions in the chancelleries of the world. They are the subject of serious discussion at every international round table."

"The impact of these pressures is already being felt in the most serious way by the American oil industry. Our domestic output of crude has already been cut back more than one million barrels daily in order to accommodate this flood of foreign production that can find no other dollar market. We have managed to get along so far through these sacrifices, but we must realize that as the pressures for increased foreign production continue—and they will continue—our problems here at home will become just that much more serious."

Hallanan expressed the conviction that the oil industry's co-operation with government, through the National Petroleum Council, in meeting acute shortages of petroleum products immediately after the war, had saved the industry from federal control.

"I am strongly of the conviction," he said, "that if the oil industry had refused to co-operate when the federal government asked it to do so in the peace-time readjustment, the events of later months, which brought the industry under fire, would have resulted in bringing the house down upon us. This would have been a tragic mistake. It would have given our traducers the club they would dearly like to have."

"As the National Petroleum Council ends three years of co-operative public service, we can take the utmost pride and satisfaction in the knowledge that this experiment in co-operation between government and industry represents a new and bright milestone in the American way of doing things. It has been an outstanding and trail-blazing achievement in the public interest and in the preservation of the freedom of the petroleum industry."

TRUMAN WILL KEEP HANDS OFF PRIMARIES

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Truman says he never mixes in primaries. This was his reply Thursday to a news conference request for comment on James Roosevelt's bid for the California governorship.

Truman would not comment specifically on the Roosevelt race.

One inch of rain on an acre of land would fill more than 600 barrels of 45 gallons capacity each.

Faces Trial Soon

The trial of Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) on charges of "padding" his office payroll is expected to get under way some time this month. The trial has been put off repeatedly since last January because of the legislator's claims of ill health. Trial date is now set for November 21.

India Harking Back To Golden Age For Flag, Coin Symbols

AP Newsfeatures
India is going back to her golden age for symbols on her flag, coins and seal. Torn by religious strife, she is turning to a religion which has declined to minor status in her territory for the same symbols.

The Asoka pillar, the Asoka lions and the wheel of law also recall a great emperor and stress peace and virtue. They are used where America would use the eagle, Britain the lion.

Asoka, the emperor, ruled India from 264 to 228 or 227 B. C. He was the grandson of Chandragupta who founded the Maurya or Peacock dynasty. Chandragupta took provinces of India from Seleucus who was one of Alexander's successors. Most of India.

When Asoka came to the Peacock Throne, he ruled all but the southern tip of what is now India and much to the north which was never part of British India. Ruling while Rome was still rising to power, he was probably the most powerful man of his time. India still remembers him as a kindly, virtuous and efficient king.

In the ninth year of his reign, Asoka went to war. When he saw the horrors of war, he turned to religion. His work with the Buddhist faith has been compared with that of Constantine with the Christian. He made large grants to the Buddhists and encouraged their work. However, as far as India is concerned, Buddhism declined after Asoka. It is of little importance there.

Strictly Ethical
There are many who feel that Asoka's personal religion was purely ethical with no theology and no ritual. To help spread his faith and his precepts, he set up pillars in 14 different places in India. They were inscribed with texts and symbols.

It is one of these pillars, the Sarath capital in Asoka, India, from which the symbols being used by the modern Indian state are taken.

The wheel of law was inscribed on the pillar and has been widely used since. It is a symbolic design said to designate the common man, purity and good sense. Modern India uses it as the central design in her flag.

On India's coins and seal, a picture of the pillar with three of its lions are used where the king's head was placed formerly.

Little Janet Latsha, Asthma Victim, Much Better, Says Mother

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. —(AP)— Next Thursday will be a special Thanksgiving Day for Mrs. Wilma Latsha.

She is thankful that her six-year-old daughter, Janet, is alive. Janet was flown here from Oklahoma City a month ago for treatment for asthma which doctors said was killing her.

Now, she plays beside her bed. She hasn't had an attack in a week.

Mrs. Latsha is formerly of Nacogdoches, Texas. She's working as a dietitian's assistant in the Catholic St. Joseph's Hospital here, where Janet is being treated.

STATE FUNDS SOUGHT TO KILL RABBIT FOXES

MALAKOFF —(AP)— Henderson County Judge James Spencer wants Gov. Allan Shivers to make available more money for killing rabbit foxes around Malakoff and in other parts of the county.

Five cows in this East Texas area have died of hydrophobia and evidence indicates they were bitten by mad foxes.
