Producing Ability Of Midland Prospector
To Be Known Shortly

Value of the show of oil and gas encountered in Central Midland County at York & Harper, Inc., No. 1-A TXL, in the Fusselman section of the Silurian will be determined shortly.

That project is now swabbing on open hole between the bottom of 7 5/8 inch casing which is cemented at 12,096 feet and the total depth at 12,685 feet.

The swabbing started early Monday, and at the time this report was prepared recovery was mostly drilling mud. No free oil had been brought to the top at last report. However, it is expected that considerable more time will be required to swab out all the mud in the hole, so that the petroleum yielding ability of the prospect can be determined.

This prospector is located 12 1/2 miles south of Midland, and 690 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of the southwest quarter of section 25, block 39, TP survey, T-2-S.

Shewed Possibilities
It showed possibilities of making some sort of an oil well in a drillstem test in the Fusselman at 12,573-685 feet. The tool was open two and one-half hours.

When 1,446 feet of drill pipe had been pulled after the test free gas was encountered. When 5,642 feet of drill pipe had been pulled fluid was found.

Total recovery was 80 feet of clean oil and 3,340 feet of oil and gas out water blanket and drilling fluid. No signs of formation water were shown. Some of the fluid recovered from the drillstem test was unloaded from the drill pipe while it was being pulled.

A string of 75 7/8 inch casing is cemented at 12,026 feet. Operator went in with the swab to make a thorough test of the producing ability of the section which showed the oil and gas in the drillstem test.

It is expected that the project will show its value after another 24 hours of swabbing.

GAOC No. 1 Peck Is Now Taking Test In
Pennsylvanian Lime

General American Oil Company No. 1 Peck, Southwest Midland County, is now taking a test in the Pennsylvanian limestone at the center of the northwest quarter of section 21, block 41, TP survey, T-4-S, was bottomed at 10,369 feet in Pennsylvanian limestone and was preparing to run a drillstem test.

This venture is reported to have topped a possible pay zone in the Pennsylvanian at 10,335 feet. The section from there to the current bottom drilled soft and showed oil stains and some porosity.

It is expected that the results of the test will be known within 24 hours. The hole had to be conditioned before operator could go in with the tester.

C-E Motley Wildcat
Is Staked By Humble

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-H Matador Land & Cattle Company is to be a 9,000-foot wildcat to find and test the Ellenburger in Central-East Motley County in the northeast part of the Permian Basin.

No. 1-H Matador Land & Cattle Company will be 558 feet from south and 830 feet from east lines of section 131, block M, Matador Land & Cattle Company survey. That makes it 16 miles east of Matador.

Drilling is to begin in the near future.

C-S Crane Venture
Is Spotted By Gulf

Gulf Oil Corporation has filed an application with the Commission of Texas requesting a permit to drill its No. 1 Jax M. Cowden and others as a 5,500-foot wildcat in Central-South Crane County.

The venture will be 12 miles southwest of Crane, and 880 feet from southwest and northeast lines of the south half of section 7, block 2, H&TC survey.

Operations are to begin immediately. It is projected to test the Devonian.

Barnsdall Offset To Scurry Strike Slated

Barnsdall Oil Company has staked location for its No. 1 Williamson as a direct west offset to S. B. Roberts No. 1 Lewis, wildcat discovery one and one-half miles northeast of the Diamond-M field and two and one-quarter miles west of the Kelley field, in Central-West Scurry County.

No. 1 Williamson will be 487 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 248, block 97, H&TC survey.

It is contracted to drill to around 7,000 feet to test the Canyon lime reef, the pay in the Diamond-M and Kelley fields.

Flames Threaten Pennsylvania City

Six Persons Are Injured As Fire Sweeps Building

POTTSTOWN, PA.—(AP)—Fire raged out of control in the heart of Pottstown's business district Monday. Hundreds of fire fighters battled the flames which first attacked the three-story Kessler Drug and Department Store Building and spread to adjoining buildings.

First reports indicated the blaze was started when an oil burner exploded. The fire broke out about 10 a. m., and was still out of control two hours later.

At least six persons were injured. It was impossible to learn the extent of their injuries at first.

Pottstown is a city of 25,000 about 40 miles west of Philadelphia. The city was blackened with smoke as thousands of persons jammed the streets to watch the flames soar skyward. It was impossible to see across a street through the thick smoke.

Firemen Overcome By Smoke
Several buildings in the downtown area were threatened. One report said the fire had spread to J. C. Penney Company.

Several firemen were overcome by smoke. The fire spread also to Kinney's Shoe Store, adjoining the drug store. The Pottstown Business School, which is in the same building as the drug store, also was swept by the flames.

Telephone Employees Call Meetings To Take Strike Vote

Meetings of employees of departments of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company are scheduled in Midland Tuesday, in Odessa Wednesday, and in Big Spring Friday, for the purpose of setting up machinery for taking a strike vote and to set up a strike fund.

Lee Mears of Midland made the announcement Monday after he returned from a meeting of the Southwestern Division Number 39 of Communication Workers of America, CIO, held in San Antonio last weekend. A vote of 600 to 1 at the San Antonio meeting instructed a negotiating committee to use every method at its disposal, including a strike vote to bring about an immediate and satisfactory termination of the present 1949 negotiations with Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. The present contract with the company expires December 1.

Employee demands include wage adjustments, town relocations, shorter work week, pension matters, and some fringe items, Mears said.

Bloodless Panama Revolt Sees Chiari Emerge As Leader

PANAMA, PANAMA.—(AP)—This little Central American country, site of the Panama Canal, changed presidents over the weekend in a bloodless night-time revolt staged by police force leaders.

President Daniel Chari, surgeon-politician who has been president less than four months, resigned after he belatedly police surrounded his palace. Vice President Roberto F. Chiari, in a surprise move, assumed the presidency at 6 a. m. Sunday.

Emerging as the new "strong man" of Panama's turbulent politics was Police Chief Col. Jose Remon, 41.

Registration Demanded
Chari was swept out of office because he tried to fire Remon and two of his top aides in the 3,000-man police department that is Panama's only armed force. Chari said he demanded the resignation of the three police leaders because they held interests in two monopolies outlawed by the Supreme Court—beef slaughtering houses and commercial bus companies.

Instead of resigning, Remon ordered out his police and isolated the presidential palace. Radio broadcasting was suspended, newspapers were ordered to withhold their Sunday editions and telephone service was stopped.

This happened Saturday night. By 4:30 a. m. Sunday, before most of Panama's 700,000 inhabitants knew what was happening—Chari had bowed to the police, and his ultimatum and resignation had been threatened bloodlessly.

Midland Brothers Believe In Signs

The Midland brothers, ages 8 and 6, returned to their home "starved for a drink of water" Saturday afternoon after attending the eighth grade football game at Memorial Stadium.

"The kids were out to drink at water at the field if you were that thirsty," their mother asked. "A sign there said 'No Drinking' and I didn't think we were supposed to," the older boy answered.

Blame For Noronic Disaster Placed On Owners, Skipper

OTTAWA.—(AP)—The owners and master of the cruise ship Noronic were blamed by a Supreme Court of Canada judge Monday for the September 17 flash fire which took 118 lives as the luxury vessel lay at a Toronto dock.

Justice R. L. Kellock, reporting as commissioner in the Transport Department's inquiry, ordered the master's certificate of Capt. William C. Taylor suspended for a year.

He also recommended a series of measures designed to tighten safety regulations for vessels like the Noronic.

A 30,000-word report was presented to the House of Commons following the reading by Justice Kellock of a brief court judgment suspending the captain. In the report, Justice Kellock found the loss of life and the loss of the ship were caused by a "failure" of the Canada Steamship Lines, Ltd., the Noronic's owners, and Captain Taylor to take adequate precautions against fire.

The justice censured the owners and the master, saying they failed to provide proper means of detecting and fighting fires while in dock, and for getting passengers off the ship in the event of fire in port. In several cities.

Hearings on the disaster were held in Detroit, Cleveland and Toronto. Most of the passengers of the cruise ship were holiday makers from the Detroit and Cleveland areas.

No other licenses were affected by Justice Kellock's order. Survivors among the 600 holiday makers were on the cruise ship told of the scene of panic and terror when a wall of flame swept through the ship. Passengers, most of them in bed, were awakened by screams and smoke. Many jumped overboard to safety as the fire consumed the 35-year-old Great Lakes steamer at her dock.

Taylor acknowledged in testimony at Toronto that he had "one small drink, under two ounces," of Scotch whiskey, but he said he was not at all under the influence of liquor.

Government Loan Cotton Is Being Stored At Airport

Thousands of bales of West Texas cotton, 1949 crop, are being stored in buildings and on the ground at the Midland Air Terminal, L. A. Rodenhiser, airport superintendent, said Monday.

He said approximately 10,000 bales of cotton already have been trucked to the Terminal and estimated an additional 30,000 bales yet may be stored there.

The government loan cotton is being handled by the Midland Warehousing Company, which has leased storage space at the airport from the City of Midland as a central gathering and storage point. The field has been approved by the government for cotton storage.

The cotton is being trucked to Midland from a number of West Texas counties. All area counties this year are said to have bumper crops and gins here and elsewhere over the area are running far behind the harvesters. Excellent weather has aided the farmers in gathering their cotton.

The City of Midland also has leased a large building at the Air Terminal to the Commodity Credit Corporation for the storage of cottonseed, Rodenhiser stated.

ODESSA.—The trial of Armo Spears of Midland on a murder indictment was continued until Jan. 16, 1950, by Judge Paul Moss in 70th District Court here Monday noon.

Spears' attorneys filed a motion for continuance as the trial opened Monday morning, on the grounds that two defense witnesses are ill and cannot testify. It was the third continuance of the case since the State Court of Criminal Appeals granted Spears a new trial last January 19. Spears is free on bond.

Spears is charged with murder in the death of Robert L. (Bob) Wallace Oct. 12, 1947, in Midland. He was convicted in Midland of the slaying on June 3, 1948, and sentenced to 15 years in prison, but the Court of Criminal Appeals reversed the decision and granted Spears a new trial.

The case then was transferred from Midland to Odessa on a change of venue, granted by Judge Moss last March.

In granting Spears a new trial, the appellate court ruled that in the Midland trial evidence pertaining to a divorce received by Spears was inadmissible and injurious to the defendant.

The special venire of 119 persons ordered to report to the courtroom Monday was dismissed by Judge Moss.

Parachute Stopper For Air Force's New Jet

This is the first picture released by the Air Force to show the unique parachute braking technique used on the new Martin XB-51 three-jet ground support bomber. The powerful swept-back wing bomber, seen landing at Baltimore, Md., made its first flight on October 28. The parachute, stowed aft for use at the pilot's discretion, enables the plane to land on smaller fields. For taking off in short space, it is equipped with the jet-assisted take-off device.

35 Persons Missing In Dutch Plane

OSLO, NORWAY.—(AP)—Land, sea and air teams pressed an intensive hunt Monday for a missing plane feared to have carried 35 persons, including 28 undernourished Jewish refugee children, to a flaming death in the tangled forests of Southern Norway.

The plane, with the 28 children, three nurses and four crewmen aboard, last was heard from by radio at about 6 p. m. Sunday night as it neared Oslo's Fornebu Airport. Soon afterward a sharp flash, followed by an explosion, was reported near Gjersejoen Lake, a mile southeast of Oslo.

Ships Are Alerted
Home guards and police, along with hundreds of volunteer searchers, combed the dense forests and the lake region swamps. Rescue vessels searched in Swedish and Norwegian waters far out in the Skagerrak on Sunday by way of Scandinavia. The youngsters, ranging in age from six to 12 years, had been so undernourished that they had been threatened with tuberculosis. All 55 children were to have had six months of rest and rehabilitation in Scandinavia before travelling on to Israel.

Forces In Albania Boosted By Russia

BELGRADE.—(AP)—Responsible sources say Russia has increased the number of her military men stationed in Albania to an estimated 12,000, about twice as many as were there four months ago.

The reports, apparently authentic, came from responsible non-Yugoslav sources.

The reports said the Russian newcomers to Albania appeared to be technicians, officers skilled in guerrilla warfare and training experts.

Some sources here thought the influx of Russians might be part of the war of nerves against Yugoslavia and Premier Marshall Tito. Others said such Russian reinforcements could indicate plans for guerrilla hit-and-run warfare against Tito, with Albania as a base.

Oklahoma Coed Still Listed As Missing

DURANT.—(AP)—A Southeastern State college coed still is missing and officers and her parents have no clues.

Miss Vivian Daney, 19, of Tallhina, Okla., was last seen late Tuesday after she got off a bus reading was 24 in Dalhart in the upper Panhandle. The highest overnight minimum was 53 at Galveston and Brownsville.

No rain was reported and none was forecast. Skies were clear Monday except for an area from Waco southward to the coast where it was partly cloudy.

The Weather Bureau forecast more sub-freezing weather for the Panhandle Monday night.

Temperatures over the state this morning were 38 at Lubbock, 30 at Amarillo, 35 at Midland, 48 in Fort Worth, 44 at Tyler and 53 at Austin.

Woman Reopens Battle On U. S. Withholding Tax Law

BRIDGEPORT, CONN.—(AP)—Vivien Kellems fired a law suit at the government and more criticism at Secretary of the Treasury Snyder Monday in her battle against the income tax withholding law.

The suit, Miss Kellems announced here, was filed in Federal District Court in an effort to recover $7,819.20 which, she asserted, the government took from her "in the tradition of the boldest bank robber."

Of Snyder, she said: "The only difference between Mr. John Snyder and Mr. Jesse James is Mr. James was an outlaw and used a gun."

Previously, Miss Kellems had invited Snyder to have her indicted for her refusal to collect withholding taxes from her employees in her Cable Grip manufacturing plant. She wanted to be indicted, she explained, in order to test the constitutionality of the withholding tax.

Treasury Seized Money
Her invitation was ignored. The Treasury Department, instead, seized $7,819.20 of her money through liens on her company's bank accounts.

It's that money, she said Monday in a prepared speech to the Bridgeport Chamber of Commerce announcing the suits that she now hopes to recover from the government.

The government began seizing Miss Kellems' money in May, 1948 after she announced she would no longer act as an unpaid tax collector and would refuse to withhold taxes.

Throughout her controversy with the government, Miss Kellems said, her employees have paid their income taxes themselves instead of (Continued On Page Eight)

Body Of Raped Child Found In California

FRESNO, CALIF.—(AP)—The raped body of a 17-month-old girl was found in a muddy field near Fresno Sunday night, her head jammed into the mud.

Deputy Coroner L. R. Webb said the girl, Josephine Yanex, was raped and then smothered in the mud. There were teeth marks on the body.

The child was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yanex, of Euron. She was kidnaped from her parents' car in front of a dance hall at Euron, 40 miles southwest of here, early Sunday.

J. Ed Martin, head of the Fresno County Sheriff's Office Criminal Identification Bureau, said the killing was "the most vicious murder ever committed in Fresno County."

Constable Jeanne Peterson and Deputy Sheriff Gene Fredmore said the girl was abducted while her parents were absent from the car for a few minutes.

The child's coat had been thrown over her and she was nude except for a shoe on the left foot and her bonnet, the strings of which were drawn tightly around her neck.

Temperatures Skid In Northern Texas

By The Associated Press
A norther sent temperatures skidding Monday in North Texas. The mercury dropped below freezing in the Panhandle and South Plains overnight. Lowest reading was 24 in Dalhart in the upper Panhandle. The highest overnight minimum was 53 at Galveston and Brownsville.

No rain was reported and none was forecast. Skies were clear Monday except for an area from Waco southward to the coast where it was partly cloudy. The Weather Bureau forecast more sub-freezing weather for the Panhandle Monday night.

Chest Needs $3,993

With only three more days to go, returns in Midland County's annual Community Chest finance campaign Monday stood at $28,007, $3,993 short of the $32,000 goal. The drive will end Thursday.

Bert Ryan, general chairman, called on Midlanders to put the drive "over-the-top" now, stressing the urgent need of reaching the goal in order that activities of six youth welfare and charitable organizations will not be curtailed next year.

"It is up to Midland citizens to take care of their own, and I am confident the last minute contributions will bring the 1949 campaign to a successful conclusion," Ryan said.

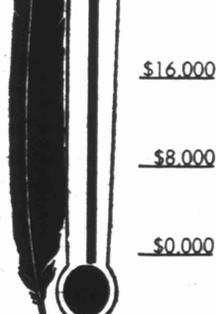

"Our bank deposits are at a record high, business is good, and we have more citizens than ever before. There is no reason why the drive should not go over."

Follow-Up Work
Ryan urged firms and workers in the various divisions Monday were working hard to complete assignments as promptly as possible. Scores of follow-up calls were being made.

More than 200 volunteer workers have participated in the county-wide campaign since it opened here November 1.

Organizations participating in Chest funds are Youth Center, Salvation Army, Goodfellows, Boy Scouts, USO and Girl Scouts.

Middle-Class Spain Pulling Devil By Tail For Survival; Satan Apparently Winning

However frugal, even in a Madrid hovel like this, Spaniards have a hard time keeping up with the minimum essentials of staying alive.

However poor the middle class may be, most seem to be able to afford a maid. This one in La Caruna carries luggage for her employers.

MADRID, SPAIN (NEA)—scores of middle-class Spaniards can afford to eat them only once a week. Veal, for instance, is 16 pesetas a pound; beef, 12 pesetas and goat, when available, seven pesetas. Except for cheaper varieties like sardines or squid, fish is as expensive as meat. A can of condensed milk is six pesetas.

These girls work all hours (Spaniards seldom time until 10 p.m.), have practically no time off, are not entitled to social benefits, and often have to put up with a makeshift bed in the kitchen or under the stairs. On the other hand, they are considered part of the family. Since they usually come from the peasant class, primitive living and hard work are no novelty. And somebody else takes care of "pulling the devil by the tail" for them.

Vesper Services At Youth Center Begin As Weekly Events

A devotional on "Gratitude to God" was given by Mrs. Ray Gwyn, director, at the first Midland Youth Center Vesper hour Sunday afternoon.

Vespers will be held at the Center at 8 p.m. each Sunday for all Midland young people. Beginning at this time, they are over early enough to allow young people to attend Sunday night services in their own church. The vespers are held, Mrs. Gwyn said, to fill the need of the many Midland young people who attend no Sunday night service at all.

Also on the program Sunday were three recordings by St. Luke's Chorists. They were "Now the Day is Over," "He Leadeth Me" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul."

Next Sunday's program will include the singing of hymns with Diana Daugherty at the piano.

The Center will be closed all day Thursday because of Thanksgiving. Mrs. Gwyn has announced, but will be open from 2 to 5:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday. Regular hours will be kept Friday night and there will be a semi-formal dance Saturday night.

Specialization In Football

With tongue in cheek, an English professor at the University of Indiana has forecast the sad collapse of college football by 1960.

The way Prof. Samuel Yellen sees it, in an article in the Atlantic Monthly, the first step in football's demise began in 1947 when the University of Michigan team introduced the now widespread platoon system.

First, little schools like Wabash and Amherst will have to give up the game. As for bigger schools, they will manage all right for a time. But around 1952, some outfit like Notre Dame will carry the platoon idea a bit further.

The opponents won't catch on at first. Later, however, they'll begin to develop specialized defensive units designed to cope only with the specialized offensive group.

You can see that the possibilities here almost are endless. A coach might need half a dozen fullbacks, each for special plays.

Yellen, squinting into his crystal ball, sees mighty Michigan at last devising the ultimate solution. Since money will be the great need, why not another stadium seating another 100,000 people?

But here's the big feature. The two fields are connected by a tunnel. Michigan shuttles its platoons and specialized units from one game to the other, more or less as they are needed.

Then the inevitable tragedy occurs. Traffic in the tunnel is pretty heavy and confusion is the rule. So no one really can be blamed when the signals get mixed and Michigan's defensive platoon trots out and lines up against Michigan's offensive squad.

Well, at least he shows some nerve in tackling one of the big questions that is kicking around today. The question is: What is becoming of the "whole man" in a world that divides work and thought ever more minutely?

Service With A Smile

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND (Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: European officialdom kowtows to junketing senators after solons' row with Swedes; Letter from one senator's wife describes round-world vacation at taxpayers' expense; Eisenhower loses plush quarters in Pentagon.

WASHINGTON — When the Swedes failed to roll out the royal carpet for a party of junketing senators, two of the snubbed solons—Elmer Thomas, the Oklahoma speculator, and John McClellan, the Arkansas Dixiecrat—actually threatened to cut off Marshall Plan aid to Sweden.

This served as a none too subtle hint to other countries that the best way to stay on the Marshall gravy train was to butter up the wandering senators. As a result, the senators and their wives are now having the vacations of their lives.

This has been revealed in a personal letter from a feminine member of the troupe—McClellan's wife, Norma. Although the senators are supposed to be studying how to save the taxpayers' money, Mrs. McClellan writes: "John is truly relaxing and having the time of his life, and he and I are having a long delayed honeymoon."

To help the McClellans enjoy their second honeymoon and the other senators to take a round-the-world vacation, the taxpayers are furnishing an Air Force plane and crew plus five Army and State Department officials. There is even a special doctor along.

The senator's wife also gives an idea of how other European countries, anxious for Marshall Plan dollars, are bowing and scraping before the junketing senators. "These people over here stand in awe of us," writes Mrs. McClellan breathlessly. "Each country that we visit seems to be trying to outdo the one we have just left in entertaining us. Nothing that can be done is left undone."

"Just as an example . . . When we arrived in Norway, we were met at the plane by our ambassador and many of his top officials, and the king's top officials, Army, Navy, etc. . . . A spectacular air show was planned as a greeting to us, and then a luncheon by the minister of defense. Every minute of the afternoon was filled with interesting and exciting things to do . . .

"That evening," continued the wife of the senator from Arkansas, "the prime minister of Norway opened one of the oldest castles in Europe and gave a state dinner in honor of us. Our way to the castle after entering the gate . . . was lighted by flaming torches like those used in ancient times and sentries stationed every few feet. I wore a silver satin dinner gown with train. . . . But it broke my heart to get my train so dirty on those stone floors."

"When we left our hotel to enter the limousine that took us to the castle," Mrs. McClellan continued, "the police had to keep the crowds back that had gathered to see us. . . . Part of Norway borders Russia, and we have to be well guarded over here."

Annapolis Cadets Feel Budget Pinch; Free Bus To Golf Course Discontinued

By DOUGLAS LARSEN WASHINGTON (NEA)—A sampling of opinion among midshipmen of the Naval Academy at Annapolis reveals that they share little of the bitterness against unification held by their superior officers in the Pentagon.

Most of them think that the feud is just too high-level for service men of their lowly rank to get excited about. One result of the economy caused by unification does bother them, however. The free bus which used to be provided for the golfers to take them to the course from school has been stopped. To get to the links now, they've got to use the bus line and pay a fare. As one second-year man puts it: "First they take away the giant trailer. Now they've taken away the bus to the golf course. I wonder what is coming next?"

Who Is It Controlling? Ever since the new federal rent control law was put on the books this year, Tiggs Woods, the rent control director, has avoided the press very carefully, refusing to outline top policy on decontrol. Meanwhile screams are going up all over the country that the new law should be called the "federal decontrol law."

It is a giant, troop-carrying, jet-propelled helicopter for the Air Force. So far most details of it are top secret. Air Force only has given him money to build one. If it flies and does the job the Air Force hopes it can, he'll get a fat production contract from them.

Only fact on it that is known is that it will be powered by two giant General Electric jet engines with the thrust being applied at the tips of huge rotors. This idea in powering helicopters has proved successful on one small job so far. How it will work on a big helicopter is the problem.

It'll either be called the "Sky Crane" or "Flying Train" depending upon what the special Air Force committee on aircraft nicknames approves.

High Price Of Influence A report just out shows $6,293,622 was paid by lobbyists in 1948 for their efforts to influence legislation during the first half of the 81st Congress. That's an average of $11,852 per member.

Just One Big Family A buffet dinner held before the premier of the new movie "Battle Ground" attracted all the big brass in Washington. Secretary of Navy Francis Matthews and his wife were there. After getting their food they found places at an empty table.

A few moments later Air Force Chief of Staff General Vandenberg and his wife walked by looking for a place to eat. Spotting Secretary Matthews, the general slapped him on the back and said: "Well, Mr. Secretary, do you think there is enough unification for my wife and I to join you and Mrs. Matthews?"

Matthews replied: "Of course, sit down. We've probably got more unification than anybody else."

That'll Keep Him Quiet The mild-mannered and scholarly Dr. Earl J. McGrath, U. S. commissioner of education, was recently in his home in Philadelphia to make a speech. It so happened that no planes were scheduled at that time. Hearing of his plight, however, a friend offered to get him on a special private flight of a two-engine transport due to leave in a few minutes.

When he arrived at the plane the pilot asked the commissioner if he was nervous about flying. Dr. McGrath said it didn't bother him because he was a pilot himself. Thinking this was a little bragging on the commissioner's part the pilot asked him if he would like to try his hand at the controls. McGrath said yes, he would. A little taken back, the pilot asked him if he had a license for multi-engine planes. Dr. McGrath produced one. The pilot was left with no alternative but to let the commissioner pilot the plane for the full flight—which he did with great skill.

Cactus Jack Garner To Celebrate 81st Birthday Tuesday UVALDE (AP)—Cactus Jack will be 81 Tuesday. That's another milestone for John Nance Garner, 32nd vice president of the United States, toward a personal ambition: to live to be 83.

Garner, ruddy faced and white haired, said when he retired from politics in 1941 that he wanted to live that long. "So that more than half my life can be that of a private citizen."

For 46 years, Garner was in public life—as a Texas legislator and congressman, speaker of the national House of Representatives and vice president. No Celebration Planned There's been no announced plan for any celebration of Garner's birthday. He doesn't hold for much of that. Last year he and an old crony, Ross Brundfield, were deer hunting on the day before he became 80.

Garner is the only Texan ever to become vice president. Twice he sought the Democratic nomination as President. Each time it went to Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the man with whom he served as running mate two terms. Cactus Jack said he was going to retire from politics after he swore in Henry Wallace as his successor in 1940. He did just that. He has taken no part in local, state or national campaigns. But he's still remembered and respected by the nation's leaders. Last year, President Truman stepped off his campaign train for a big "Texas" breakfast with Garner.

ECA CALLS MEETING FOR SMALL BUSINESSMEN WASHINGTON (AP)—A regional meeting will be held in Dallas November 28 under the Economic Cooperation Administration to help small businessmen who want to export products under the Marshall Plan.

Maybe she went directly to the babe. They locked the shop door behind them. Neither of them looked back. They did not see the black convertible which crept up in front of the shop and swung into the side driveway.

When they reached the house, Stephanie accepted Charlie's hand as she climbed from the car. She turned a grave face toward the dark house: "I'm worried, I wonder if Hagar could have had an accident. She drives that little car of hers at top speed all the time."

"Tell you what," Reddy said, "why don't I come in and wait with you a while. If she doesn't come back, we can drive around and hunt her up."

Stephanie nodded. "Come in then. I'll make a sandwich and some tea. Or, there's beer, if you'd like that."

HE walked toward the kitchen. "Look, Stephanie Smith, this is after-hours, let's use first names. Mine's Charlie. He stopped in the doorway. "What's so interesting out the back window?"

Without turning, she said: "There's a light on in Hagar's studio. I was trying to see if she's walking around in there."

She leaned closer to the window screen: "Hagar!" she called, "Hagar, are you working?" They listened. There was no sound except the rustle of the wind in the tall palm trees. She unlocked the back door and switched on the outside light. They picked their way silently across the damp grass. They found the door to the studio standing open gingerly. He followed her in and they looked about them in the cluttered studio. Stephanie shook her head in puzzled fashion: "She never leaves this door unlocked, or the light on. Most of her cameos are in that case over in the corner—they're quite valuable, too. She's always so careful about protecting them. See those bars across the windows? And that big window has a burglar alarm on the sill." (To Be Continued)

The CAMEO By Virginia Teale Copyright 1949, NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Charlie Reddy, a young lawyer assisting Chief Peters' investigation of the murder of Martin Patler, has called Miss Blair to find out about a missing cameo, which Patler was well known to own. Stephanie, who does not know that someone placed the missing cameo in Hagar's collection and that it is now in Stephanie's possession.

you know how. And we can't—that is, we haven't had a chance to find out how. Reddy's gray eyes searched her face. "I understood that you and Miss Blair only saw the cameo twice."

"But we looked at it very close the day Arnold Pfeiffer brought it here." "Look, Stephanie Smith, how about breaking down and letting me be your friend—I have a hunch you could use one. I guarantee you can trust me with whatever's on your mind." He came toward her.

She backed away from him. He looked with surprise at the tears in her eyes. "No," she said shakily, "no. I can't trust you! You're investigating this—this mess, aren't you? You're part of the police department, you're not interested in me except as a source of information."

Her blue eyes flashed fire: "I'm not giving you any! I wouldn't, even if I could!" He shrugged, sighing. "Believe it or not, but I am interested in you! And as a person, not as a principal in this case. And I think we could be good friends. But, until this thing is all cleared up, we apparently haven't got a chance of establishing a personal rapport."

Her eyes locked with his. His grin returned and he released her: "Because you're one of the suspects," he said lightly, "it wouldn't be ethical for me to invite you out to dinner, so we'll just put that in the Happy Anticipation department. But nothing in the book says I can't drive you home. Isn't it about closing time?"

"Did you say 'locket'?" I thought it was a pin." Her eyes averted, she spoke slowly: "Hagar and I have reason to believe it is a locket." "Either it is a locket or it isn't. If it is, it opens, and usually reveals family photographs or a lock of someone's hair." "But it won't open. Not unless Stephanie gave him a relieved smile. "It is," she agreed, "and I'd love a ride home." She moved around the shop, turning out lights, adjusting blinds. "I can't imagine what's happened to Hagar. She said she'd be back around 4.

Baylor And Rice Seek Bowl Spot

By WILBUR MARTIN Associated Press Staff

Grudge games take a back seat in the Southwest Conference this week as Baylor and Rice battle for the championship and the host spot in the Cotton Bowl.

Texas and Texas A&M square off at College Station Thursday in their traditional Thanksgiving Day game.

Southern Methodist and Texas Christian meet Saturday in their annual tilt and Arkansas plays Tulsa.

But the big game is at Houston, where Baylor and Rice shoot for glory and the estimated $120,000 take that goes with a Cotton Bowl bid.

A Rice victory will give it a clear title, but if Baylor wins it will share the crown with the Owls. And a Baylor victory would put it in the Cotton Bowl. The precedent has been followed in the past in the event of co-champions.

Rice clinched a share of the title by beating Texas Christian last week, 20-14.

Beats SMU

Baylor whammed Southern Methodist, 35-26. Arkansas lost to William and Mary, 20-0, in the only other game played.

Doak Walker, SMU's All-America quarterback, scored three touchdowns and kicked two extra points last week to replace Randal Clay of Texas as the conference's leading scorer. He has 82 points to 64 for Clay.

Lamar Makes Bid For Little Rose Bowl

By The Associated Press

This is the week when the last undefeated, untied college football team in Texas makes its bid for the Little Rose Bowl in California.

Lamar of Beaumont faces stern competition, however, in the showdown game of the Southwestern Junior College Conference, Tyler's Apaches, who have lost only one game, battle Lamar at Tyler Friday night.

Lamar can win the title undisputed and a clear road to the Little Rose Bowl. A Tyler victory would throw the championship into a tie.

But regardless of whether either of the teams goes to California, one of them is certain to be in the Texas Rose Bowl at Tyler December 10.

Ohio State Is Expected To Get Rose Bowl Bid

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK —(AP)—California and Ohio State are expected to be tapped formally Monday for the Rose Bowl—but sponsors of the other big post-season football shows still are shopping around.

Pickings are mighty slim for the Sugar, Cotton and Orange extravaganzas, which, like the Pasadena game, will be shoved up to January 2 to avoid conflict with the Sabbath.

From long range, the major bowl appear to stack up approximately this way:

Rose Bowl—California vs. Ohio State

Sugar Bowl—Oklahoma vs. Tulane

Cotton Bowl—Rice or Baylor vs. Villanova

Orange Bowl—The Rice-Baylor leftover vs. Maryland or Tennessee

Others in the picture are Virginia, Santa Clara and Kentucky

Some of these teams must dispose of formidable rivals this week to keep their hopes throbbing.

Officials of both the Pacific Coast and Western Conferences said they would announce the Rose Bowl representatives Monday.

Lynn Waldorf's California Bears, who closed out their second straight perfect season with a 33-14 victory over Stanford, Saturday are a cinch for the host role, but the identity of their opponent is a bit less certain.

Finishes In Tie

Ohio State finished in a tie for the Big Ten Championship by playing defending titlist Michigan, a bowl ineligible, to a 7-7 tie Saturday.

Conference faculty members, who pick the representative by vote, are not bound to choose the leader and could, on a whim, give the nod to twice-beaten Minnesota.

The Sugar Bowl committee is scheduled to meet Monday night.

Baylor and Rice clash Saturday at Houston in the tell-tale game of the Southwest. Baylor can clinch a tie with Rice for the league title by scoring a victory. Otherwise, the Owls, who have lost only one outside engagement with Louisiana State, take the league title and Cotton Bowl bid unchallenged.

Cripps Wants Church To Remain Free From Politics In Britain

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Sir Stafford Cripps, Britain's austere chancellor of the Exchequer, advises the Church of England to stay out of politics.

The chancellor is widely known as a Christian who puts his beliefs into practice seven days a week. He is credited with applying his religion to his Socialist politics as well as to his personal life. Even his political opponents agree on that.

So when Sir Stafford takes the church to task, folks want to know what's cooking. Well, not only the chancellor but the Labor (Socialist) Party has been greatly worried lately over speeches by prelates of the Church of England. The political leaders are wondering what part churchmen may play in the next general election which will determine whether the experiment in socialism is to continue.

Prelates Express Concern
For example, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, archbishop of Canterbury, who is head of the Church of England, recently referred to the coming election as a "gathering shadow." He told the Synod of the Convocation of Canterbury that there was "need for united effort to overcome our economic plight." Other prelates have expressed concern over economic conditions.

Some political observers have expressed belief that the church leaders may be attempting to bring about a coalition government. The Socialists have thumbs down on that.

State Church
In considering the position of the Church of England it must be noted that it is the established church, that is, a state church. Those members of the House of Lords in Parliament who are known as the "lords spiritual" are bishops and archbishops of the Church of England.

The king is "defender of the faith." It therefore is easy to see why there is a difference of opinion in Britain as to how far the church should become involved in political matters. It is doubly clear when one recalls that the clergy of the Church of England are, broadly speaking, conservative and therefore are not in harmony with socialism.

This statement isn't altered by the fact that occasionally one encounters a "liberal" like the Very Rev. Hewlett Johnson, dean of Canterbury Cathedral, who is known as the "red dean" because of his extreme left views and his great friendship for Soviet Russia.

PORT WORTH —(P)—Vanguard of an expected 800 West Texans began checking in here Monday in preparation for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce's 32nd annual meeting and banquet Tuesday.

Greatest Compliment a Car Ever Had!

NUMBERED AMONG THE HAPPIEST Cadillac owners are many, many dealers who sell and service other well-known makes of cars.

They feel perfectly free to avail themselves of Cadillacs because they know that all the world holds Cadillac in a class apart. Hence, it is no reflection on the cars they sell when they seek, for themselves and their families, the exclusive advantages which "the Standard of the World" provides.

This, of course, is the greatest compliment a motor car ever had—and the respect upon which it is founded has been fifty years in the building. Throughout all this time, there has been the strictest adherence to the highest ideals of engineering and production. Not once has the inflexible rule of quality been eased for a single day.

It is a wonderful thing to own such a car. It is a wonderful thing to drive it—to relax in it—and to have it as a cherished possession. All in all, it enhances the enjoyment of the whole day's activities.

We think you would sense all this—and more—after an hour or so at the wheel. Why not come in some day, quite soon—for a ride that's a revelation? We should be happy to have you any time.

Beefsteak, Families, Insurance Occupy Thoughts Of Survivors Adrift On Ocean

HAMILTON, BERMUDA.—(AP)—Beefsteak, families, insurance and "Move over and give me a little room!"
That's what survivors of the ditched B-29 said they thought about during 79 miserable hours on two six-man life rafts in heavy Atlantic swells north of Bermuda.
The 18 survivors—four of them on stretchers—arrived here Sunday afternoon aboard the Canadian Destroyer Haida. The ship picked them up Saturday afternoon after a U. S. Air Force B-17 sighted them about 400 miles northeast of Bermuda.
Two of the 20-man crew drowned before they could get through the heavy swells to the two life rafts. One of the 18 survivors was suffering considerably from shock.
Brought To Shore
Eight of the bruised and salt-crusted airmen walked unaided from the crashboats which brought them to the shore from the destroyer.
Most of the men were considered in good condition. Some had suffered from seasickness and salt-water sores. But the majority seemed fairly fit.

Miss Kellens recently moved her plant from Westport to Stonington after a tilt with the Westport zoning officials, disclosed Monday that before filing the suit she had made formal demand on the Treasurer's Department for return of the $7,819.20.
"This Treasury has refused to do and therefore we are now permitted under the law to bring suit," in the announcement of the suit, Miss Kellens said.
"Unfortunately this suit will not test the constitutionality of the withholding tax law. But it will decide one very important and fundamental question can a private citizen, who has never been appointed a tax collector, be penalized for not collecting taxes that have been paid and made to pay those taxes twice? The government admits that all withholding taxes have been paid directly by the individual employees; there are no taxes due nor do they claim interest, since these taxes were paid on time. But with no charge having been made against us, no trial held, and no judgment rendered, we have been fined $7,819.20 simply because the government insists that we collect and pay the taxes rather than to permit our employees to pay their own taxes themselves."
Joining her in the suit are her brother, David L. Kellens, and the Kellens Company. The action is directed against the government and John J. Fitzpatrick, federal collector of internal revenue in Connecticut.

Monry Ready For Defense Conferences

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Britain's Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery of Alamein arrives in the United States Monday for an unofficial but highly important round of meetings with America's top-ranking military men.
On the record, the little British warrior with the famous black beret comes to this country as the guest speaker on November 29 before the English-Speaking Union in New York.
But during his 12-day trip he will visit with General Eisenhower, his boss in World War II; Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff; Gen. Joseph L. Collins, Army chief of staff, and other military and diplomatic leaders.
To Talk Defense
Monty already has announced he will "talk defense with anyone who will listen." There is no doubt the military men will be ready to listen. Montgomery is chairman of the Western Union Defense Alliance. He has been working for months on plans for Europe's defense.
These plans for England, Belgium, France, Holland and Luxembourg will form the hard core of the basic defense plans for the North Atlantic defense for which Congress has taken $1,000,000,000.
And it is on these plans the Western Allies will gamble in their fight to hold Europe against any attack from Russia and her satellites.
Many military men believe the Western union could choose M. Kocian, saying "It looks like an accident," let the boy home with orders to return with his parents Monday for further questioning. Kocian would not identify the girl.
The attractive brunette Portland High School sophomore, was found dying on a bed in her home.
Youth Tells Of Shooting
The boy first said she shot herself. Kocian related, then told this story.
He and Katherine had been arguing "about her going out with other fellows."
The boy got a revolver belonging to Katherine's father and pointed it at his head with the firing pin half-cocked "to frighten her in a sort of Russian roulette game."
"Screaming 'give me that gun!' Katherine grabbed at the weapon as the boy lowered it. The revolver went off sending a bullet into her chest."
Barley pronounced his bride "such a good driver that I glide along without nerves" and added, "things have been so peaceful that I'm getting suspicious. We don't even argue about what route to take."
Mrs. Barkley murmured, "You sound like you're on a honeymoon."

High School Lovers Quarrel Results In Death Of Sophomore

PORTLAND, ME.—(AP)—A high school lovers quarrel ended Sunday night, police said, in the fatal shooting of a pretty 16-year-old girl.
Katherine B. Furbush was shot in the chest apparently while struggling with her boy friend, also 16, for possession of a revolver he had pointed at his own head.
Detective C. M. E. Kocian, saying "It looks like an accident," let the boy home with orders to return with his parents Monday for further questioning. Kocian would not identify the girl.
The attractive brunette Portland High School sophomore, was found dying on a bed in her home.
Youth Tells Of Shooting
The boy first said she shot herself. Kocian related, then told this story.
He and Katherine had been arguing "about her going out with other fellows."
The boy got a revolver belonging to Katherine's father and pointed it at his head with the firing pin half-cocked "to frighten her in a sort of Russian roulette game."
"Screaming 'give me that gun!' Katherine grabbed at the weapon as the boy lowered it. The revolver went off sending a bullet into her chest."
Barley pronounced his bride "such a good driver that I glide along without nerves" and added, "things have been so peaceful that I'm getting suspicious. We don't even argue about what route to take."

Beware The White Line

You can hypnotize yourself into an accident by watching the white center line too closely, says Carol Lane of New York, travel expert for the Shell Oil Company. "A drowsy or over-tired driver who stares steadfastly at the line and fails to keep a sharp eye on oncoming cars and side traffic is almost certain to meet disaster soon or later," she warns. Use the white line as a safety guide, not as a possible hypnotic trap.

Sinus Victims Who Want New Climate Must Look Carefully

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service
An inflamed sinus often causes headache, pain in the cheeks and a general run-down feeling. A stuffed or dripping nose is common. It is a miserable affliction that can be washed out, at least temporary relief is often obtained. The injection of drugs which shrink the mucous membrane often is helpful. This shrinkage may open the passage-ways temporarily and thus enlarge the air space.
In spite of everything some people continue to suffer seriously with sinusitis and become so miserable and run-down that they consider change of climate. Theoretically the best climate for a person with sinusitis is one in which there is not much change in temperature between night and day. A temperature of 68 to 75 degrees with the air neither too dry nor too moist but a little breeze from time to time would be ideal. We should all love such a perfect climate if we could find it.

Climates Vary
Parts of Florida and Southern California are close to this ideal. Arizona, although quite different, appears to be good for some sinus sufferers. In most parts of Arizona, however, there is a great deal of fluctuation between day and night temperature and the air is too dry to be good for some people.
When a sufferer from sinusitis wishes to consider a change of residence it is well to try the new climate for several weeks or months before making a final decision. Certainly the climate of the northern sections of the United States is not good for sinus sufferers, but what climate is best is still a matter of individual trial.

Alaska Is Great Place For Girls To Find Husbands

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK—(AP)—Looking for a good strong man to build your life around, Sister?
"Well, if you're a robust, warm-blooded girl, don't overlook Alaska. The odds are in your favor there."
"It's a great place for a girl to find a husband," said Maurice T. Johnson, mayor of Fairbanks, which he says is the third largest city in Alaska and "the largest one farthest North."
It has 12,000 people, counting its farflung suburbs.
"There are about three men to every woman—maybe more—throughout the territory," said Johnson, adding this note of caution: "But a lot of young girls who came up there and saw our rough-hewn old miners might feel disappointed. They might even want to turn around and come back."
However, although the men are as rugged as the scenery, a girl needn't worry about there being any lack of heat in the long Alaskan winter.

To Float Bonds
Mayor Johnson and City Clerk E. A. Tomseth came to Manhattan to fix that. They had the chore of signing a $4,500,000 bond issue to build Fairbanks a new municipally owned power plant and water treatment system.
"It was the first revenue bond issue ever floated in Alaska," said the mayor.
Johnson said Times Square failed to come up to the Northern Lights in splendor, and opined the climate here didn't equal that of Alaska.
"In June we can play baseball at midnight without artificial lights," he remarked. "It never gets dark in Summer."
The mayor, before taking off for Fairbanks, expressed relief he had been able to complete his business in New York before winter trapped him here.
"I understand you had a 25-inch snowfall in one day a couple of years ago," he said. "I am never here now like that up home. Only had 31 inches all told last year. Don't see how you handle it all."

GALLEGOS WILL BE SENTENCED WEDNESDAY

QERING, NEB.—(AP)—Agapito Gallegos, 38, will be sentenced here Wednesday morning on his conviction Saturday of manslaughter.
He was charged with second degree murder in the killing of his common law wife, Mrs. Genevieve Carrillo, in 1948.
Gallegos was arrested September 19 in El Paso, on a tip from relatives of the woman. He made a statement and the woman's body was exhumed September 24. The slaying was not known here until the arrest at El Paso.

Have

By BOYCE HOUSE
Broadway reviewers write in acid. Of a new musical show, one critic wrote, "The audience knocked everything except the knees of the chorus—Nature had anticipated them there."

But a small-town drama editor surpassed this with, "Uncle Tom's Cabin was presented last night. The bloodhounds were poorly supported."

And so did the English critic who reviewed a play called Dreadful Night. His entire article was, "Excellent."

Murder-Suicide Plan Of Officer Fizzles

WICHITA, KAN.—(AP)—Police reported an Air Force officer, upset over being grounded because of the Air Force cutback program, attempted to kill his wife Sunday.
Detective Carl Spriggs said Lt. Arthur E. Chatham, 32, also threatened to kill himself and his four-year-old daughter.
Police quoted Mrs. Chatham as saying her husband was "in love" with flying and had suggested a murder-suicide plan as a solution to the situation that a mass meeting will be held Monday night under the sponsorship of Parent-Teacher groups. Purpose of the meeting will be to discuss methods of dealing with sexual criminals.
Fred Strohle, 66-year-old retired baker, was to appear Monday for a preliminary hearing on charges of choking, bludgeoning and stabbing little Linda to death after molesting her in a bedroom.
Strohle now is in solitary confinement after jailers reported "rumblings" among other prisoners.
"I have heard rumblings and rumors about what other prisoners might try to do to him," said Chief Jailer Charles A. Fitzgerald.

Sexual Molestation Cases Increase

LOS ANGELES.—(AP)—Some 25 cases of sexual molestation of children—way more than usual—have been reported in Los Angeles in the week since six-year-old Linda Joyce Glucoft was slain sadistically.
The citizenry here is so keyed up about the situation that a mass meeting will be held Monday night under the sponsorship of Parent-Teacher groups. Purpose of the meeting will be to discuss methods of dealing with sexual criminals.
Fred Strohle, 66-year-old retired baker, was to appear Monday for a preliminary hearing on charges of choking, bludgeoning and stabbing little Linda to death after molesting her in a bedroom.
Strohle now is in solitary confinement after jailers reported "rumblings" among other prisoners.
"I have heard rumblings and rumors about what other prisoners might try to do to him," said Chief Jailer Charles A. Fitzgerald.

Yeggs Take $4,000 From Phone Company

DALLAS.—(AP)—Almost $4,000 in coins and $200 in bills were taken from a Southwestern Bell Telephone Company office by safe crackers.
Police said the burglary was discovered Sunday afternoon by A. H. Leach, manager of the public telephone office.
The safe crackers took a telephone company truck to haul away the loot.
Most of the stolen money—$2,500 of it—was in nickels.
The truck later was found abandoned.

Dollarhide To Get Branch Post Office

ANDREWS.—Following a visit and inspection of the Dollarhide community, located approximately 25 miles southwest of Andrews, Postal Inspector G. W. Morrow of Abilene has recommended that a post office be established there.
The office will be served out of Andrews by a Star Route carrier, as are the Fullerton and Flory offices. The mail will leave Andrews soon after it arrives from Midland. The carrier will return to Andrews in time to make connections with the Midland carrier returning to Midland.

Watch Out For The Symptoms!

Laughed out loud when I heard Hoot Davis was down with Chicken Pox. A man of forty-five catching a kid's disease!
So I went to see him, armed with jokes about "second childhood" but forgot them fast when I got there. Hoot looked terrible and had quite a fever.
While we talked, I come to think of how Chicken Pox is a lot like other "diseases"—diseases of the character, such as intolerance, self-righteousness or just plain ignorance. They're excusable in children, but when they come out in adults they're ten times as bad—and can be mighty "contagious."
From where I sit, we should all watch out for the "symptoms"—little things like criticizing a person's preference for a friendly glass of temperate beer or ale. We've seen personal freedom wither away in other countries, when individual intolerance was allowed to get out of hand and become a nation-wide epidemic.

Plan Envisioning Future Recreational, Educational Needs Submitted To City

Recreational and cultural needs of Midland for years to come are envisioned in a plan which will be presented to the City Council Tuesday night with a request from the Woman's Club Building Plans Committee for designation of a plot of city land as the site of a Woman's Club Building. The plot of ground would be known as the Civic Center Park.

Although the committee is asking only for ground needed for the building, Mrs. A. P. Shirey, site selection chairman, said, it also will show the council members a sketch of plans for a proposed center which would supply space for other buildings to be erected in the future.

The space, approximately 20 acres, is included in 80 acres of city-owned land just east of the Midland Airpark, north of the city.

The plan for the center was drawn by O. H. Koch of Koch and Fowler, municipal engineering firm of Dallas, after he discussed proposals with the committee while he was here recently as a consultant on other phases of city planning.

Mrs. Shirey, with representatives of the Midland Art Center, the Community Theater and the Woman's Club, previously discussed the plan with city council members, who favored the plan in general but asked the women to develop it and present a definite proposal. The plan prepared by Koch is the response to that request.

Other Sites
In addition to the Woman's Club Building, it locates sites for a Community Theater building, an exhibit building which could house fairs and displays of various kinds, an art center with workrooms and a gallery for display of paintings, a garden center including a greenhouse and a plot for experimental gardening, a swimming pool, tennis courts and a large parking area. A well sufficient to supply water for landscaping and use in the buildings is on the plot.

Plans for a Woman's Club Building are being put in definite form by a planning committee, of which Mrs. Earl A. Johnson is chairman, and Mrs. Shirey's group is a sub-committee. Organizations affiliated in the Midland Woman's Club, with the American Association of University Women cooperating, are interested in the building and have started a fund to erect it.

Other buildings which the plan envisions are being and for some time have been discussed by organizations which feel the need for them. The Midland Palette Club Art Center is planning and working toward an art building. The Palette Club, nucleus of the organization, voted last year to expand its membership and its program with a view toward a building which will prove more adequate than its present small studio.

The Midland Community Theater, now housed in the City-County

Auditorium, also has started its building fund and looks toward a future home of its own with suitable stage, comfortable seating and backstage facilities for producing all types of theatrical entertainment.

Ground for experimental plantings as well as a building for meetings and flower shows, is the dream of the city's garden clubs, which have outgrown their previous arrangements for displays, demonstrations and meetings with the expansion from one to six adult clubs and a junior club in the last three years.

Voters of Midland County rejected in a recent election a proposal for an exhibit building of the type suggested in this plan. Its construction was urged by officials of the Midland County Fair and the Midland Chamber of Commerce, who pointed out that the county lacks a building suitable for large shows and exhibits, and that the fair is hampered by the need for space and will be limited until facilities are provided.

Sketch of proposed Civic Center will be submitted to City Council

Convenient, Attractive
The plan which the council will study contains no definite proposals for any of these structures—it simply plots the space which could be used for each, and shows them in relation to each other, which would make a convenient and attractive center at present and in the future when all the buildings may be erected.

Acceptance of the plan would not mean the obligation of the organizations to use the space designated for their buildings, but would make it available if they chose to use it immediately or in the future.

Burma's Sales Tax Meets Disapproval

RANGOON—Burma's five Chambers of Commerce—Burmese, British, Indian, Chinese and Muslim—got together to express joint frank disapproval of the Burmese government's general sales tax.

President of the Burmese Chamber, U Tha Tun Aung, in a letter widely published in local press, criticized the government for planning multiple taxation at 6 1/4 per cent compound interest at each stage on all commodities which in normal practice pass through several hands before reaching the consumer.

The final result, warned the letter, will be a call upon the public to meet price increases of 50 per cent or more.

Approximately one-fourth of all tax revenue collected by the various state governments in the United States is paid by motorists.

Wing Tanks Add Range To Superfortress

A new version of the Boeing Superfortress, the B-50D, seen in flight over Wichita, Kan., carries two 700-gallon external fuel tanks under the wings. The long-range bomber, derived from the famed wartime B-29, can carry 28,000 pounds of bombs "more than 8,000 miles." Top speed is more than 400 miles an hour, and the plane is equipped for refueling in flight to increase its range. The wing tank fittings can carry 4,000-pound bombs in place of the gas tanks.

Lining Skirt Back Will Prevent Sag

by ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Even though the tweed suit is fashion's newest pet, the tendency of the skirt to "sit out" may need to be curbed.

Almost any kind of soft woolen is apt to give in to the strain of a lot of sitting.

The way to solve the problem, however, of keeping the bulge out of the back of a new suit skirt is simple. Line the sitting area of the skirt with a piece of rayon lining material. Tack it inside of the skirt from seam to seam.

Since a new suit is a good investment and often must be used for several seasons, taking this precaution against skirt bulges is a good idea to put to work even before the skirt is worn.

Because the protective piece of fabric is tacked to the skirt lightly but firmly, the lining can be easily removed before your suit goes to the cleaners.

If the entire back of the skirt is lined—this should be put in from waistband to hem—sitting-down spread is not only prevented, but a girl can for all purposes of shadow-proofing dispense with a slip or a petticoat.

Plastic Tie Relieves Gravy Spot Sufferers

by GLORIA YARBROUGH
AP Newsfeatures

HOLLYWOOD — Do you have gravy spots before your eyes? Relief for you sufferers is on the way.

"A plastic tie," says Irene Colie, who has created the new cravat, "is the remedy for that old soup-splattered tie."

"You won't need to worry about spilling coffee down your front, or dragging your tie through the soup. All you have to have to make your plastic tie the good as new is a damp cloth."

"It's the ideal tie for the young man whose girl is always getting lipstick on his tie. Even greasy cosmetics come off this new tie with just a little soap and water."

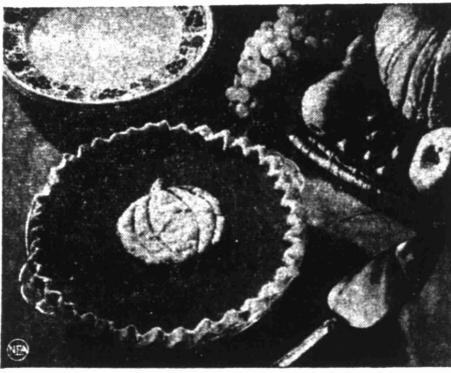

"It will cut out cleaning and ironing bills. If you should get caught in the rain, you won't have any fear of getting your tie streaked, faded or even wet. It is water repellent, will last indefinitely, holds its shape beautifully—and the knot will not slip," says Mrs. Colie.

The tie has a lustrous appearance and comes in white, pastels, and all basic colors. It's made of standard four-in-hand and bow sizes.

Pumpkin Pie Can Have Spicy Crust

TRADITIONAL ENDING—Vary Thanksgiving dinner's traditional pumpkin pie with a new, spicy crust.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Pumpkin pie is the traditional end to the Thanksgiving feast. But vary that tradition a little by using a spicy pastry.

Rich Pumpkin Pie With Spicy Pie Crust

Mix together in large mixing bowl, 3 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 1/4 teaspoon cloves, 1/2 teaspoon ginger and 1 1/2 teaspoon salt. Stir in 1 1/2 cup New Orleans type molasses and 1 1/2 cups strained cooked or canned pumpkin. Add 1 egg milk. Beat together 2 eggs and 1 egg yolk, saving egg whites. Add to pumpkin mixture. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into pumpkin mixture. Pour into 9-inch spiced pastry shell and bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 45 minutes or until inserted knife comes out clean. Cut a large pumpkin shape from left-over pastry and bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) until brown. Place in center of baked pie.

Spicy Pastry For Pumpkin Pie

Sift together in large mixing bowl 2 cups sifted flour, 1 1/4 teaspoon baking soda, 1 1/4 cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 1/4 teaspoon ginger, and 1 1/4 teaspoon cloves. Cut in 2 1/2 cup shortening. Mix together 1 tablespoon vinegar and 3 tablespoons orange juice, or any fruit juice you may have on hand. Add to pastry and mix lightly with a fork. Roll dough 1/8 inch thick and line a 9-inch pie pan with the pastry. Cut off the pastry one inch beyond the edge of the pan. Turn the border under to make a rim around the pan. Press rim between thumb and forefinger to make scalloped edge.

Pecan pie is another good dessert idea. Here's the recipe which Mrs. Noble J. Johnson, wife of the representative from Indiana, gave to the Congressional Club Cook Book.

Pecan Pie (Serves 6)

Three eggs (well beaten), 1/4 cup dark brown sugar, 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 1 cup light corn syrup, 1 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1 cup pecans.

Combine eggs, sugar, syrup, salt and melted butter. Mix well. Add vanilla and pecans. Bake in unbaked pastry shell about 40 minutes in a slow oven (325 degrees F.).

Summer-Dried Skin Needs Super-Creams

By BETTY CLARKE
AP Newsfeatures Writer

One good reason for using creams at the end of the Summer is dry skin. Whether you go back to school or a job in the Fall, skin will need extra - special treatment until it gets back to normal. If it is flaky in patches or looks leathery about eyes and mouth, sun and wind may have dried the natural oils of your skin.

You'll need super-cleansing and mild stimulation to smooth the skin to normal. A little kit containing several super-rich night emollient and cleansing creams is ideal while you are going through your dry-skin session. Super-rich cleanser can absorb accumulated soil without massage. You can apply and remove it with a cleansing tissue, then apply a cooling complexion lotion and a foundation which will impart a new luminous skin beauty for Fall.

Young girls do not need frequent slathering with creams. If proper cosmetic preparations are used just when needed, you will not get dependent on them. Soap and water is a good cleanser in the meantime, creams and lotions are good for removing makeup. But super-rich night creams should be used when they are required.

Turnabout
When photographers lined up in the White House to snap President Truman opening the annual Christmas Seal drive, the President pulled out this miniature camera and focused it on the cameramen. "I can really take care of you fellows now," he said.

Nail Polish Keeps Shine On Metals

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

To prevent the gold-colored pulls or other metal ornamentation on your new handbag from tarnishing, paint the metal lightly with clear nail polish.

Clear polish, carefully applied with quick, even strokes, is equally good for keeping bright and shiny any inexpensive gold-colored metal. Costume jewelry, for example, tarnishes easily without a protective coating. The polish acts in exactly the same manner as lacquer does when applied to your silver bonbon dish.

You won't want to use nail polish as a covering on a very large surface nor will you use it on your good silver or gold pieces. But for small, inexpensive pieces—buttons, lipstick cases, cuff links—the clear lacquer is ideal for keeping metallic splendor undimmed.

Have Roast Turkey For Thanksgiving

GOOD OLD DAYS—Add zest to old-fashioned roast turkey by garnishing with raw cranberry relish.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

First you select the best turkey you can find. Then you look for the best way to roast it. That's the American Thanksgiving formula.

Freda De Knight, in this writer's judgment, is one of the best cooks the land over. And her recipe for old-fashioned roast turkey is one of the most satisfactory. Here it is, taken from her "A Date With a Dish."

Old-Fashioned Roast Turkey
(Allow 1/2 to 3/4 Pound Per Person)
Twelve to 15-pound turkey, 1 tablespoon salt, tablespoon paprika, 2 tablespoons bacon fat, 1 teaspoon garlic salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper.

Stings turkey while dry and remove all pin feathers. Clean inside and out. Wash and dry. Sprinkle inside and out with salt and pepper. Fill with your favorite stuffing. Sew up or close with skewers; neck cavity may be filled with stuffing, if desired. Fold wing tip up and under back. (Never stuff turkey tightly, allow for expansion.)

Rub turkey well with bacon fat, salt, pepper, paprika, and garlic salt.

Cover with a clean white cloth which has been dipped in melted fat or milk. Cover well. Roast slowly uncovered, making sure cloth stays damp at oven temperature, 300 degrees F. Allow 20 minutes per pound. Baste from time to time with drippings, turning turkey completely to brown on all sides. Cloth may be removed during last half hour, so the turkey skin will be brown and crisp.

Boil giblets and neck with celery tops, onions, and seasonings to make gravy.

Cranberries, of course. But how to serve them—that's the next Thanksgiving question. Here is an answer you will enjoy.

Cranberry Nut Relish
Four cups cranberries, 1 orange, quartered and seeded, 1 lemon, quartered and seeded, 1/2 cup seedless raisins, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 1/2 cup chopped walnuts.

Put cranberries, fruit and raisins through food chopper using coarse blade. Mix in sugar. Let stand in refrigerator an hour or so to blend flavors. Just before serving stir in chopped nuts.

Return Of Flapper Almost Complete

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor
NEW YORK—(AP)—From the neck up, at least, the return of the flapper is complete.

Most popular hat of the season, predicted for even greater acceptance next Spring, is the head-hugging cloche reminiscent of the jazz age.

A recent showing of resort and advance Spring hats staged by the Millinery Fashion Bureau played up the "Torrid Twenties" trend with performers in "raccoon" coats made of shag rugs, college banners and all the rest of the impedimenta of the flapper era. All this was background for the close-fitting cloche hats that occupied the spotlight.

Boysish Bobs
The flapper hats, of course, are designed to fit over the boysish bobs that are required equipment for modern debs, just as they were for their mothers back in the days of bathtub gin.

With shorter skirts predicted for next Spring, with the bunny-bug coats and short evening dresses of the current mode, the flapper cycle is almost complete.

U. S. To Carry Farm Load, Says Expert

LUBBOCK —(AP)—The American farmer will carry the major food load for the rest of the world says Dr. A. W. Young, head of the plant industry department of Texas Technological College.

The American will do this by better methods of farming. These are hybrid seeds, fertilizers, and terracing. Dr. Young foresees a possible crop production increase totalling better than 50 per cent. He says that atomic science studies someday will result in control of the mutations which give better crops. This atomic improvement will be added to the other three.

Dr. Young says that American farmers still have a lot of land compared with some other nations. There is six-and-a-half farm acres available for each American, compared to one for each Englishman and two-tenths for each Japanese.

Original 'Schnorkel'

Ancestors of this South American Mata Mata turtle had the "Schnorkel" device for breathing under water long before anybody ever thought of it for submarines. At Chicago's Lincoln Park Zoo, the turtle shows how it's done.

Water Jug Is Found To Be A 'Fire Bug'

PERCY, ILL. —(AP)—Roy Meyerhoff theorizes that many farm haystack fires can be traced to the old water jug. He got the idea while trying to find out what caused his jacket to burn on his farm here one sunny day.

He figured he had the answer when he moved his hand past his water jug near the jacket. The sun's rays focused by the jug—like a magnifying glass—burned his hand. He believed many haystack fires probably can be traced to the common practice of farmers leaving their jugs on haystacks while they work.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And The Bedtime Prayer

Once upon a time in the long ago, Sammy Ringtail, the monkey boy, was spending the night with Mumpump Monkey, Bobby, who was left by himself in his bed, there at Daddy Ringtail's monkey house. "Daddy Ringtail," said Mother Ringtail, when she came back to the living room from putting Bobby to bed. "Daddy Ringtail, Bobby won't say his prayers."

Daddy Ringtail got up from his chair in front of the fire in the fireplace. He put another piece of wood on the fire, thinking all the while of what he should do with a boy who wouldn't say his prayers at night.

Said Mother Ringtail: "I don't know what to do with him." Daddy Ringtail didn't answer, because he was busy thinking. He poked and poked at the fire until there was no need to poke at it any more. The flames were licking at the logs, and the coals underneath were red. It was a beautiful thing to see, and sometimes, with a fire like that, you can think of things you need to do. Yes, and Daddy Ringtail had decided at last what to do about Bobby. Daddy Ringtail went into the boys' room to talk to Bobby. Yes, and Bobby's eyes were big and round—not because he was afraid of anything, but because it was good to be in his bed at night, safe and warm, while the wind came howling round the house, and the fire was crackling in the fireplace. "Bobby," said Daddy Ringtail, "why is it now that you won't say your bedtime prayer?" Bobby said why. He said that he wanted to keep the prayer new, and how could he keep it new if he said it every night? He couldn't, he was thinking.

Daddy Ringtail smiled to hear all this, and then he sat down on the edge of Bobby's bed. He understood how it was that someone might want to keep a prayer new, and not use it up by saying it too much. And so Daddy Ringtail taught Bobby the words for another bedtime prayer to use when the other prayer was resting. Everything now was right, all right, and the night was a happy night indeed. Oh, it is very good to have more than one prayer to say at bedtime. How many prayers have you? (Copyright 1949. General Features Corp.)

Tavern Door Swings Back To Alexandria

ALEXANDRIA, VA.—(AP)—Historic Gadsby's Tavern, where George Washington used to spend some of his spare time, is getting its door back.

The door was sold 50 years ago to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. Col. and Mrs. Charles Batten Moore have bought it back as a contribution to the campaign to restore the old inn.

Approximately 74 per cent of the 5,750,000 farms in the United States now use electricity, an increase of 25 per cent in the last three years.

Plane Report Asked By Administration

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Administration and the armed forces have called upon the public to report cases of "buzzing" or reckless flying by any pilot.

Administrator D. W. Rentzel says reports should be made to the Aeronautics Administration's nearest office, which usually will be found listed in the telephone directory under "United States Government." It's important to get plane numbers if possible.

Use Harvest Theme On Table

HARVEST THEME—Use a striking centerpiece of harvest fruits and vegetables and linen cloth in harvest pattern.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Red, yellow, greens and browns, all the harvest colors belong in the Thanksgiving table centerpiece. To get them, use harvest fruits and vegetables—squash, apples, quinces, grapes, pears, cauliflower and plums. Pile tastefully into a low mound and set off with tall ivory candles mounted in hollowed-out quinces or apples.

Use a linen cloth with harvest pattern. Fine china decorated with wheat sprays can help carry out the scheme. To complete the harvest theme, decorate each folded napkin with a sprig of bittersweet or a little cluster of straw flowers.

After the lordly Thanksgiving dinner, there is always the question—what shall we do with the leftover turkey? Here are two novel and delicious answers:

Turkey a la King
(8 to 10 servings)

One-half cup butter or fortified margarine, 1 tablespoon grated onion, 1 (3-ounce) can sliced broiled mushrooms, 1/2 cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, few grains pepper, 1 teaspoon paprika, 2 cups evaporated milk, 1 cup giblet broth or canned chicken broth, 1 cup beer, 4 cups diced turkey, 2 pimientos, diced, 1 green pepper, diced, 1/2 teaspoon rosemary (optional).

Melt butter or margarine; add onion and mushrooms, cook over low heat five minutes. Combine flour, salt, pepper and paprika, blend with mushroom mixture. Combine evaporated milk, broth and beer; add; cook over hot water, stirring constantly until thickened. Add turkey, pimientos, green pepper and rosemary. Cover and cook 10 minutes longer. Serve on rice.

Curried Turkey
(4 to 6 servings)

One-quarter cup salad oil, 1/2 cup chopped onion, 1/2 cup chopped apple, 3 tablespoons flour, 2 teaspoons curry powder, 1/8 teaspoon ginger, 1 1/2 cups leftover gravy, 1 cup beer, salt and pepper to taste, 2 to 3 cups cubed, leftover turkey.

Heat salad oil; add onion and apple; cook five minutes. Combine flour, curry powder and ginger; add and blend. Add gravy and beer. Stir over low heat until smooth. Simmer 10 minutes. Add meat; simmer five minutes longer. Serve with fluffy rice.

Make Short Jackets From Old Fur Coats

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

If you're thinking of using that old nutria, beaver or seal skin coat as a lining for a new cloth coat for winter, don't do it. According to many designers who restyle outmoded furs, those cited are too bulky to be used as linings. It's better, they say, to cut an outmoded coat of bulky fur down to make a short jacket. An excellent idea offered for restyling is to make a "shirttail" swagger out of your old nutria, beaver or seal-skin or even Persian lamb coat. A "shirttail" swagger is a short, loose jacket that looks like a man's shirt all worn on the outside. Even the outmoded sleeves and neckline of an old fur coat can be restyled along the lines of a man's shirt.

Little pea jackets, styled in the manner of Winston Churchill's favorite windbreaker, can also be pulled out of an old fur coat. Old buttons replaced by new ones of brass or silver in single or double file down the front of a coat help, according to designers, to bring an old coat up to date. So will linings of plaid wool or taffeta. Nice idea which they add to this list of suggestions is to buy enough extra material when you buy a lining to make a matching scarf for your restyled coat.

Old furs which do make unbulky and luxurious-looking linings for new cloth coats are those with thinner, slicker pelts, such as, for example, broadtail.

DROUGHT CUTS DEER FOOD

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The National Park Service says deer, elk and other animals that winter on the lower ranges of Yellowstone Park will have less feed this year because of lack of rain in April and May.

Extra Care Gives Invalid Big Lift

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

When a woman is ill, the little extra beauty care that she gives herself, or has her nurse give to her, will help to lift her morale and safeguard her looks.

Hair that's messy because fever flushes out perspiration and oil cannot, of course, be washed. But it can be made to look fluffy, fresh and sweet-smelling with a scented talcum powder which can be brushed out almost as fast as it's dusted into hair.

No sick woman wants to thrash about in a smear of face cream (as effective as that might be for a fever-dried skin). But an application of cream, removed after it cleans and refreshes skin, will add to an invalid's comfort and look of well-being.

Hands and feet treated to a creamy lotion will feel and look pampered. If massage accompanies the application of cream, hands and feet will feel more relaxed.

Time spent convalescing passes more swiftly when a woman spends some of it polishing off her beauty chores; giving herself a slow and painstaking manicure and pedicure; getting rid of corns and callouses; weeding out superfluous hair; plucking eyebrows to make arcs that have the look of almost compass-drawn perfection.
