Midland Wildcat Gets Oil

A new oil field has been discovered in Southwest Midland County at General American Oil Company No. 1 Mrs. Hal C. (Jostie Faye) Peck.

This prospector, located 30 miles southwest of the city of Midland flowed oil at the estimated rate of between 20 and 25 barrels per hour, through a five-eighth inch bottom hole choke, during a drill-stem test in the top of a Pennsylvanian lime pay zone at 10,334-338 feet. There were no signs of formation water and the production was natural.

The test tool was open for three hours and 23 minutes. A 1,200-foot water blanket was used.

Gas showed at the surface in 15 minutes and oil started flowing out at the surface in one hour and 55 minutes.

Falls Drill Pipe

The drill pipe flowed oil steadily for 45 minutes and then flowed by heads for an additional 43 minutes before the tester was pulled.

After the tool was closed operator started out with the drill pipe, which continued to unload oil, by heads. Operations were shut-down at approximately 10 p.m. Monday night, to avoid fire hazard caused by the oil and gas spraying over the drilling equipment.

Operator was to resume pulling the drill pipe at 7 a.m. Tuesday. It was expected that the pipe would all be out of the hole shortly after noon Tuesday.

At the time this report was prepared it had not been decided whether the discovery would be drilled deeper or be completed as it is.

Had Other Shows

This new field opener is five miles northwest of the Pegasus field, and at the center of the northwest quarter of the north-west quarter of section 21, block 41, TP survey, T-4-S.

It showed good indications of production from the Wolfcamp, lower Permian between 9,300 and 9,800 feet.

A string of 9 5/8 inch casing is cemented at 9,294 feet, in the top of the Wolfcamp pay horizon.

Some geologists think No. 1 Peck is on the same structure with the Pegasus field, while others hold to the idea that it is probably on a separate reservoir.

Y. & H. No. 1-A TXL Is Now Swabbing To Clean Out To Test

York & Harper, Inc., No. 1-A TXL Central Midland County prospective discovery from the Fusselman zone of the Silurian is still swabbing out drilling mud, which is cut with some gas and oil.

This venture was swabbing at last week when it took a two and one-half hour drillstem test. Recovery was 870 feet of clean oil, and 3,240 feet of oil and gas cut water blanket and drilling mud. A part of the fluid unloaded from the drill pipe while being pulled. There were no signs of formation water.

A string of 7 5/8 inch casing is cemented at 12,026 feet.

To Be Cleaned Shortly

Operators started swabbing with a 9,000-foot line. When all of that rope was in the hole the well was still swabbing out drilling mud which was cut with oil and gas. It was necessary to change lines and that delayed the swabbing to bottom.

Interested observers expect the prospect to be swabbed clean of the mud in a short time and it will then be possible to get an accurate test of the oil and gas yielding ability of the wildcat.

This indicated new field opener is 12 1/2 miles south of the city of Midland, and 690 feet from north and 690 feet from east lines of the southwest quarter of section 25, block 39, TP survey, T-3-S.

It is approximately 20 miles northeast of the General American Oil Company No. 1 Peck, new Pennsylvanian lime discovery in Southwest Midland County.

Kelley Connector To Set Casing To Gauge

William Hamm, Jr., No. 1 J. A. Joyce has shown for production between a northeast extension and an indicated two mile east spread to the Kelley field in Central Scurry County.

The show for production came in a drillstem test from 6,672-712 feet. Gas was at the surface in five minutes, with oil in 27 minutes, estimated at the rate of 20 barrels per hour. The test was for 45 minutes.

Operator then deepened the venture to 6,772 feet in the Canyon lime reef and was preparing to cement casing for completion. The Canyon reef was topped at 6,882 feet.

No. 1 Joyce is three quarters of a (Continued On Page Nine)

Three Bodies Are Found In Wrecked Car

NAVASOTA —(P)— The bodies of two women and a man were found in a wrecked automobile two miles south of here early Tuesday.

State Highway Patrol Capt. Glen Rose said tentative identification of the man has been established as William L. Wilson, Jr., Fort Worth.

He said papers found on the bodies of the women carried the names of Mrs. Ruby Fields, San Angelo, and Jean Barbee, Galveston.

Rose said investigating officers found the three bodies about 3:45 a.m. after receiving a call from a cross-country truck driver who said he had found the vehicle overturned in a ditch.

The bodies, Rose said, were soaked in gasoline, apparently from a broken gasoline tank. There had been no fire.

The bodies were taken to Navasota where attempts for identification began.

Investigating officers said examination of the road near the scene indicated the automobile was headed south and failed to make a curve at the Waller-Grimes County line.

Rose said the car apparently went off the road to the right, then veered across the road into a ditch on the left.

Thomason Is Named Bryan City Manager

BRYAN—H. A. Thomason, former city manager at Midland, Monday night was named Bryan city manager at a meeting of the City Commission. He succeeds Mills P. Walker, resigned.

Thomason will take office December 1, at an annual salary of $10,000. He has purchased a home here from Col. Herbert R. Roberts, formerly with Allen Academy.

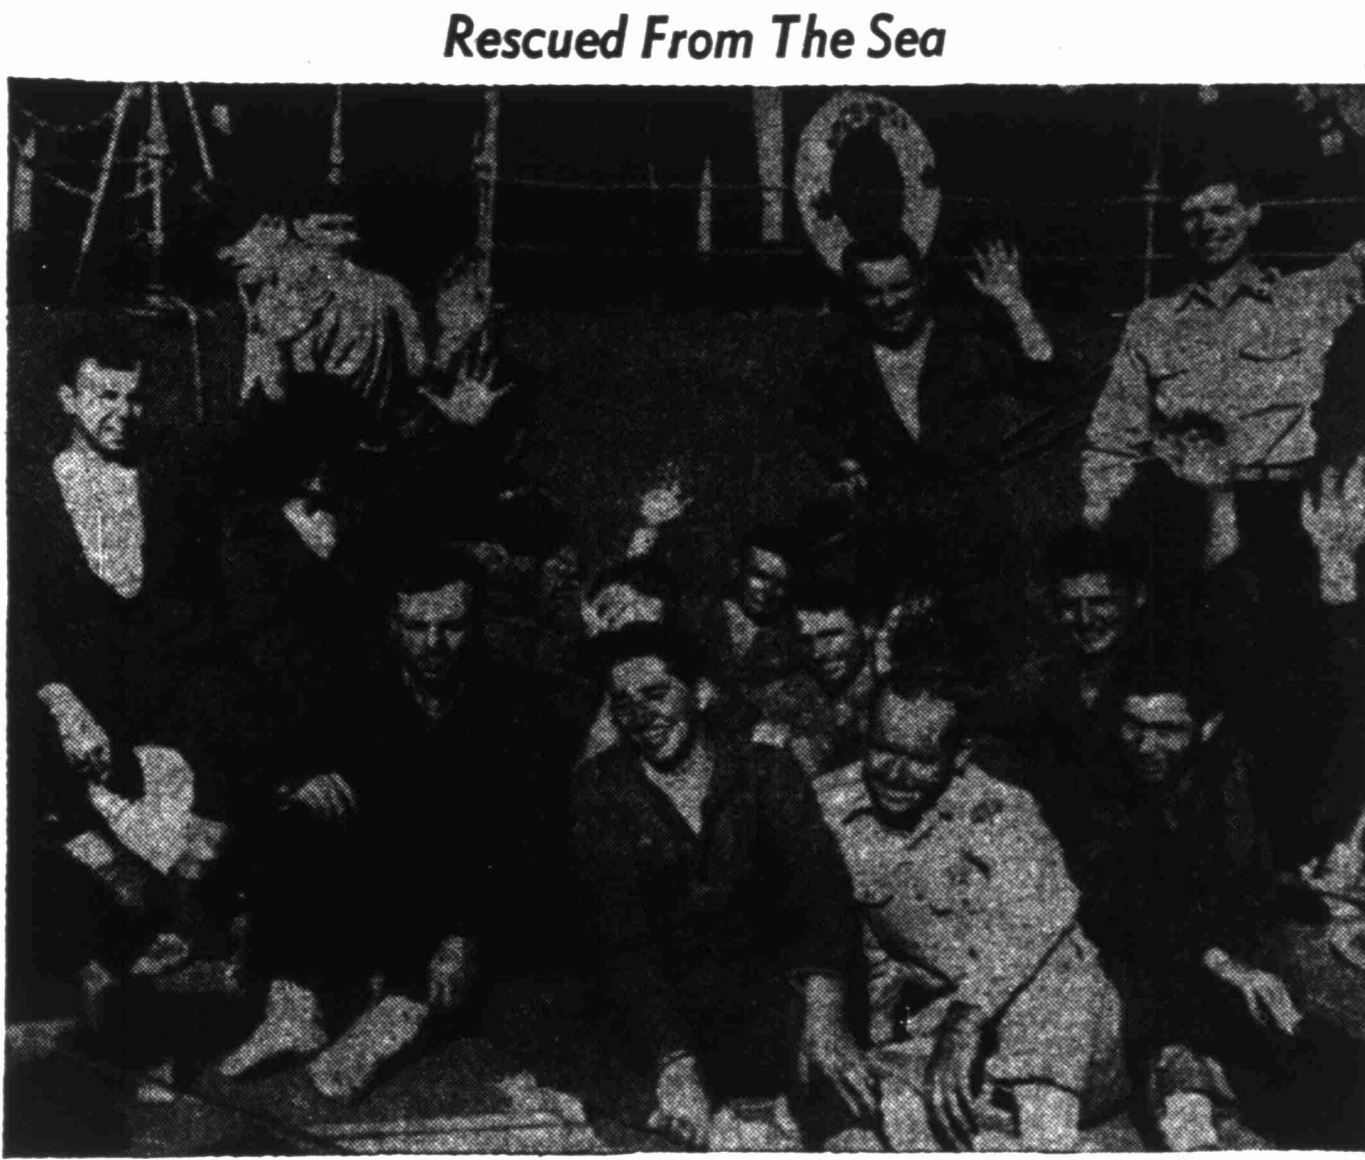

Thomason's resignation as Midland's city manager was effective October 1. He had served in that capacity since Jan. 1, 1948, when he moved to Midland from Marshall, where he served three years as city manager. He previously had been city manager at Livingston for 17 years.

Thomason is a former president of the Texas Association of City Managers and is active in affairs of the national association.

Thomason has been succeeded by W. H. Oswald as city manager here.

One of Texas' best-known city managers, Thomason was responsible for numerous improvements and expansion programs here during one of the city's greatest periods of growth and development.

Thomason said Tuesday he and his family will move to Bryan late this month. The Thomasons have two children in school here. The family has been active in civic, social, school and church affairs here.

Eighteen men of the 20 aboard the plane survived. They were picked up after spending three days in rubber life rafts.

Communist-Led Forces In Fierce Battle With Constabulary On Luzon

MANILA —(P)— Constabulary headquarters reported Tuesday a big battle was raging between Communist-led Hukbalahaps and constabulary forces in Batangas Province, about 60 miles south of here.

About 300 dissidents, using trench mortars and machineguns, engaged two constabulary companies, the report said.

There was no immediate report on casualties.

Brig. Gen. Alberto Ramos, chief of the constabulary, said he would leave for the battle scene early Wednesday.

The Hukbalahaps (Peoples' Alliance Army against Japan) were organized as left wing guerrillas against the Japanese during their occupation of the islands. In Central Luzon they have been pitted against the landlords and the rural constabulary since the end of the war.

Took To Hills

President Elpidio Quirino, who was reelected on November 8, tried when he became president to persuade the Huks to surrender their arms. A very few did but most took to the hills and continued to clash with the constabulary.

Annual Christmas Seal Sale Launched In Midland County

Midland's annual Christmas Seal Sale was launched Monday afternoon when sheets of the attractive 1949 seals were mailed to 5,956 firms, organizations and individuals in the county.

The sale is sponsored by the Midland County Tuberculosis Association, which receives its sole financial support from seal sale proceeds.

The goal this year, Chairman W. Dave Henderson said, is $6,200, an increase of $700 over the 1948 figure. He said the increase is due to expanded operations to serve a larger population and to finance the bringing of a mobile X-ray unit here next Spring.

Special Solicitation

Proceeds from special solicitation work, conducted the last two weeks, amounted for $1,261.

Leaders pointed out that Midland County never has failed to meet its Christmas Seal sale quota. They predicted the 1949 quota will be met promptly.

Midlanders are asked to mail their checks for the seals as promptly as possible, so the campaign will be off to a good start. Those not receiving seals may obtain them by telephoning the Tuberculosis Association office, No. 2310.

"Buy Christmas Seals... Use Christmas Seals" is the slogan.

American Seized On Spy Charge

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY —(P)—Hungary announced Tuesday it had arrested Robert Vogeler, an American businessman, and Edgar Sanders, a Briton, on charges of spying and sabotage.

Vogeler is an assistant vice president of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company and its Eastern European representative, with headquarters in Vienna. Sanders represents the company in Budapest.

Hungary also announced the arrest of Imre Geizer, managing director of Standard Electric Co. Ltd., of Budapest, a subsidiary of I. T. T. he, too, is held on a spy charge.

The Hungarian foreign office Monday denied it knew anything about reports of the arrest of Vogeler, who disappeared Friday morning during a business trip to the Hungarian capital.

The Hungarian government announcement said Vogeler and Sanders had confessed to sabotage and spying.

Reports in Vienna said the files of the I. T. T. in Budapest had been confiscated when he and a person reported to be his secretary were arrested.

(Mrs. Vogeler speculated in Vienna before the Hungarian announcement was made that her husband was being held in a Budapest jail until he agreed to sign "some sort of confession of espionage or sabotage." Other informed sources in Austria made a similar conjecture.)

Only Survivor In Air Tragedy Is 12-Year-Old

OSLO, NORWAY —(P)—The Dutch mercy plane that disappeared Sunday was found wrecked Tuesday near Oslo, with a 12-year-old boy the only survivor among the 28 Jewish refugee children and seven adults it carried.

Police announced they had recovered 31 bodies. The front part of the plane was smashed in landing in a forest on the west side of Oslo Fjord, 30 miles from the city. The tail remained intact.

The surviving boy was taken to a hospital at Drammen, where the head physician said: "It is almost a miracle that a 12-year-old boy should be as fit as he is after almost two days in that wreck. Though there is no indication of shock condition, he speaks only a little bit and he has not given his name. He is to be left complete to rest until tomorrow."

The boy had slight burns, a nose scratch and a swollen right wrist. No more, he believed.

The fire was only the slightest chance that there were any more survivors, the rescue parties reported.

The searchers found the twin-engine DC-3 transport after searching since Sunday through the dense forests of southern Norway. It was lost en route from Tunis, North Africa, to Norway with the 28 undernourished refugee children, three nurses and four crewmen.

The plane smashed into the forest, cutting a broad swath through the trees.

Several bodies were found strewn about in the dense woods.

The nearest house to the crash scene is almost two miles away, and apparently its occupants did not hear the explosion when the plane crashed.

The boy, one of the pitifully underfed refugee children who had been on their way to rest and rehabilitation in Norway, speaks French, officials said.

All the children had been destined eventually to go on to Israel, the Jewish state.

A vast hunt for the plane had been under way since Sunday. About 2,300 volunteer searchers had stumbled through tangled forests of South Norway seeking the plane.

Cash gifts still are being received by mail and at the Chamber of Commerce. The leaders urged persons who have not yet contributed to do so promptly.

"Midland County must not fail in this all-out effort," they said.

Thirty bales of cotton were damaged by fire early Tuesday when a blaze broke out in the bed of the truck on which the cotton was being hauled. The truck was parked at 701 South Dallas Street when the fire started.

Midland firemen answered the call and extinguished the blaze after an hour's battle.

The cotton was said to be en route from a gin at Tarzan in north Martin County to Midland Air Terminal.

The cause of the fire has not been determined.

Movie Stars Often Become 'Difficult' To Get Pay Hikes

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Exclusively Yours: Stars frequently become "difficult" in order to win new contracts or bigger salaries. But Bette Davis is the first star I ever heard of willing to admit it.

Bette now says she "acted up" during filming of "Beyond the Forest" in order to break her Warner contract. She says she never wanted to make the picture, predicting that the book, because of censorship, never could be transferred honestly to the screen and that its entertainment value would suffer.

Gary Cooper is getting more laughs than Bob Hope from Americans seeing his picture in Paris. The French voice dubbed in for Cooper is high and effeminate. When the delicate tones roll out from Gary's towering bulk, people go rolling into his aisles.

John Barrymore, Jr. is taking his first dramatic lessons—from M-G-M coach Gertrude Foggier—on advice of his famous aunt, Ethel Barrymore. Ethel told Junior she was pleased with his film debut in "The Sundowners," but pointed out he should start formal study.

"I'm studying judo," said Junior.

"Great for a dark alley," said Ethel, "but not for the screen."

"Harvey" Is On The Way

Don't be surprised if Mervyn LeRoy turns up as the director of "Harvey" at U.I. The film rolls in January with Jimmy Stewart as the big rabbit's pal. There will be no major changes in the play—author Mary Chase's contract forbids them. She also has complete script approval.

UI is having big huddles with Milton Berle in New York. They want him for "The Lion Tamer."

At Horowitz hardly can wait for the day when UI hires an actress named Free Popcorn. Her name on a marquee would assure nightly sellouts.

"Of course," says Al, sadly, "the theaters would demand that we change her name. So we'd change it to Carmel Popcorn."

Maria Montez, who has been in Europe for almost a year, has to return to the U. S. by January because of the quota laws. Dana Andrews will do an excellent public relations chore for Hollywood when he goes out on the road to plug "My Foolish Heart." He'll address public service organizations on Hollywood. Queer Coincidence

Attention Lana Turner and Lon McCallister: A blonde in the chorus at Larry Potter's supper club calls herself Lana McCallister.

Bing Crosby and George Jessel finally got together by accident at a Hollywood restaurant and patched up an old feud. They left the best of friends. Aubrey Scheck, I hear, has another big hit in "Port of New York," story of the Customs Service. It stars Scott Brady and gives mimic Arthur Blake his first film role.

Sight of the week: Dignified Charles Coburn in blue jeans, loud shirt and cowboy boots at the Normandy Village Inn at Palm Springs.

Ellen Drew will sing on the screen for the first time in "The Baron From Arizona," her co-starrer with Vincent Price. She'll warble a Spanish love song.

TV stations are buying those 10- and 15-year-old movies for fantastically low prices. The average price is $25 a reel—$150 for a feature-length picture of six reels. Most of them are so bad they leave you reeling.

Electric Cooking School Attracts Crowd; Ends Tuesday

Reddy Kilowatt went to work at the Electric Cooking School Monday night. Mrs. Roy Tilman and Mrs. William H. Harrison, with his help, prepared an entire Thanksgiving dinner, using only electric equipment.

The school was held in the Junior High School Auditorium, and will be conducted again at 8 p.m. Tuesday. A Christmas dinner will be prepared in the second session. Gifts again will be awarded.

Sponsors are Western Appliance, Inc., Midland Hardware and Furniture Company, Texas Electric Service Company, Wemple's Music and Appliance Store, Electric Appliance Service Company, Pieper's Appliance Company, Tex Equipment Company, Coffey Appliance Company, Cox Appliance Company, White's Stores, Inc., Bann Supply Company and Western Auto.

Capacity Audience
A capacity crowd filled the auditorium to watch Mrs. Tilman and Mrs. Harrison, both Midland women, prepare the meal. Both are former home demonstration agents and have had 16 years experience in cooking demonstrations.

Electric equipment used in preparing the meal included a range, refrigerator, home freezer, coffee maker and mixer. An electric dishwasher also was on display but was not used.

The menu included a roast half turkey with pecan stuffing and giblet gravy, orange yam puffs, buttered broccoli and glazed carrots. Spiced pears, fruit salad and hot rolls also were prepared. Meal extras were celery whirls and stuffed olives and hot pumpkin arts were the dessert.

Complete Meal
The turkey was cut in half to show how the average family can have a traditional Thanksgiving dinner without an excess of left-over meat.

The meal preparation and demonstration ended with the complete meal on the table, ready for serving. Fall fruits and vegetables were used as the table centerpiece.

The flowers were furnished by Midland Floral Company and Midland Glass Company supplied the large mirrors used as stage background.

Cartoons Illustrate Talk To Writers

Original sketches of her own cartoons were used by Mrs. Leonard Swords to highlight her discussion of "Gag Writing for Cartoons" Monday night. She spoke to the Creative Writing Group of the American Association of University Women to which Mrs. Jack C. Kimbrough was hostess.

Mrs. Brandon E. Rea read an original feature article, "The Social Monopoly." This is the second in a series of six articles which are take-offs on the clubwoman type. The first, "The Childless Chairman," was read at a previous meeting.

A letter of thanks to Mrs. J. W. Carroll for the space she provided the group in the Midland County Library was written.

It was announced that Mrs. Forbes B. Pennycook will discuss "Photography for Your Features" at the group's next meeting. Mrs. Rea will be the hostess in her home, 210 North Big Spring Street, on December 14.

Others attending the meeting were Mrs. W. A. Stall, Mrs. Frederick Conners, Mrs. John S. Powell and E. J. Elliott.

Community Theater Board Talks Of 1950 Members And Plays

Completing of membership enrollment for 1950, choice of plays to be presented during the year and establishment of a play library for the Midland Community Theater were subjects discussed by the Board of Governors in a meeting Monday.

Resignation of Mrs. Robert Fitting as a member of the board was accepted with an expression of regret. Each board member has been chairman of a standing committee this year, and Mrs. Fitting has headed the play selection committee and also has been editor of "The Prompter," program publication.

Membership enrollment for the next year is stressed in November and early December each year, and the board reviewed reports of members already listed for 1950. Paxton Howard, president, will send letters this month to former members who have not yet enrolled, asking their renewal.

Membership Open
The Board of Governors appreciates the response thus far to invitations to membership and trusts that all 1949 members will renew without waiting for personal solicitation," Howard said.

Membership is open to any resident of Midland, and membership cards will be mailed to persons who send their checks to the Midland Community Theater, 301 West Missouri Street. Memberships are in three classes, priced at $15, $25 and $50. Each gives the holder a specified number of admission tickets to productions of the year, a voice in election of officers and theater policy, and the privilege of enrolling children in the Children's Theater.

A list of plays which have been suggested for 1950 production will be submitted to members of the audience for "The Winslow Boy," final 1949 play which will be presented December 8-10, for designation of choices for next year's program.

A library of plays is being established as a permanent part of the theater, and anyone who will donate or loan volumes of plays is asked to do so.

The board meeting was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Waldschmidt, both members. Others present were Howard, Mrs. Coe Mills, Norris Creath, Mrs. J. P. Butler, Mrs. I. A. Searles, Mrs. Fitting, Art Cole, and William H. Pomeroy, Jr.

Lehman's Victory

The victory of Herbert H. Lehman, Democrat, over Senator John Foster Dulles, Republican, in the New York Senate race is of more than merely state concern.

The only side issue dragged into the campaign was that of alleged racial or religious bigotry on the part of Dulles.

The Republican nominee made a statement in upstate New York which Lehman declared stamped him as a bigot.

But everything suggests that essentially the voters made their choice on the basis of the main issue—the Truman "Fair Deal."

Whether it actually tells us much about what will happen next Fall no political experts really can say.

Lehman's victory would seem to be notice to the Republicans that the popular sentiment which catapulted Truman surprisingly into a second term is running stronger than ever in the nation's most populous state.

The New York result thus defines more sharply the Republican task in 1950. No one doubts that the "Fair Deal" again will be the issue from the Democratic viewpoint.

The nation will watch with interest to see what program GOP leaders devise for the coming re-match on this question.

"Is This All You Have?"

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

WASHINGTON — The nation will be months recovering from the effects of the coal and steel strikes, but the disputes demonstrated one healthy fact: American industry and labor have "grown up" in their labor relations.

It hasn't been many years since violence and bloodshed were the rule in major strikes. As recently as May 1937 Chicago police pursued and shot down steel union pickets, killing four instantly and fatally injuring six others in the May-Day massacre at Republic Steel.

However, except for a few minor outbreaks in coal-mining areas, both management and labor recently demonstrated the American spirit of fair play can be made to work in labor disputes. Much credit belongs to CIO President Phil Murray and his steel workers for peaceful self-policed picket lines; also to certain employers, notably the Jones and Laughlin Steel Company.

Former Admiral Ben Moreell, far-sighted president of Jones and Laughlin, saw it that that union pickets at his plants got free hot coffee and doughnuts almost every night. Moreell also ordered that huts, equipped with electric heaters, be built for the pickets and even installed a telephone in a hut at the Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, plant so the strikers could communicate with union headquarters.

Moreell also made a practice, whenever possible, of personally visiting the picket lines for a friendly chat. There was nothing patronizing about it. The salty, likeable former sea dog respected the position of the strikers as much as they respected his.

There were some bright moments, too, in the gruelling 52-day coal strike. In the past most company stores shut off credit during strikes. However, this year practically all the big coal companies continued credit during the long strike. In the South, several operators provided hot meals for miners' children when they heard the youngsters were going to school without breakfast.

All in all, it was a far cry from the hot tempers and tear gas of a decade ago.

Swedish Hospitality: Those insulting digs at Swedish hospitality by Sen. Thomas E. Dewey, with the story of another Senate subcommittee which visited Sweden about the same time.

While Senator Thomas charged that the Swedes snubbed him, the subcommittee on housing led by Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, returned with glowing accounts of Swedish hospitality. The Sparkman subcommittee included Allen Frewer, Delaware, Ralph Flinders of Vermont and John Bricker of Ohio.

Bricker proved himself a real ambassador of good will in a speech at the Stockholm City Hall, lauding Sweden on its efficient housing program and the cooperation shown him and his colleagues. The white-tatched Ohioan injected some American good humor into the proceedings by denying that Senator Frewer was his son—even if the Delaware Democrat did call him "Pop."

Bricker later got a big hand in Rotterdam when he remarked that he had a special reason for "feeling at home here, because my folks came from Holland in the 17th Century."

Unfortunately, however, this good will didn't cop the same headlines as the sensational Thomas technique of how not to win friends abroad.

Note—When the Senate group left Rotterdam, the city-chimes played "Yankee Doodle." Alabama's Sparkman would have preferred Dixie, but seemed as pleased as his Northern colleagues.

Girlstown's Tiniest Resident Recovering

WHITEFACE, TEXAS — (AP) — Girlstown's youngest resident, "Little Marie" is recovering from polio. And that makes the other nine residents of Girlstown feel a lot cheerier.

Marie is only two years old. Like other residents of the home, she is a girl who does not have a proper home, through no fault of her own.

Miss Amelia Anthony, founder and director of Girlstown, eight miles south of here, said the child was sent to a Dallas hospital when her illness was diagnosed as polio. Monday, word was received that she is recovering satisfactorily.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service. A common pest of old age is the development of a condition of the eyes called cataracts.

How much fuzziness there is depends on the amount of cloudiness in the lens. If only part of the lens is involved, not all of the field of vision will be disturbed.

There is no reason to believe that eyestrain leads to the development of cataract, though, of course, eyestrain should be avoided for other reasons. Hereditarily, and particularly increasing years, seem to have more to do with most cases of cataract than anything else.

A beginning cataract, in which the cloudiness is slight, is spoken of as "incipient." When the process of clouding has been completed it is called "ripe" or "mature."

Operation is the best treatment for cataract. When the cataract is "ripe" or "mature," it can be removed and full vision restored in uncomplicated cases.

CHARLIE REDDY walked around examining several completed sculptures. He looked longest at a stylized madonna carved from myrtle wood, then turned, smiling, to Stephanie.

"Do I know the model for this piece? It looks like you." She didn't answer and he saw that her eyes were fixed on a large figure with a soiled cloth draped over it. Eyes wide, she turned her white face toward him and pointed a shaking finger.

"That. Over there. Hagar doesn't have a piece that large." He followed her glance then whirled as she gave a small sharp scream.

"Look!" she whispered. "Look down below, on the floor!" The edges of the drapes were stained dark red, and the floor beneath was wet dark red. You couldn't mistake that color, he thought woefully. It wasn't paint.

Stephanie had covered her face with her hands and was sobbing jerkily. Oh, it couldn't be Hagar! It couldn't be Hagar! Oh, please!

WASHINGTON COLUMN

'Welfare' Costs Seem Modest Compared To Military Budget

By DOUGLAS LARSEN NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—A congressional report just completed attempts to give an objective, non-political analysis of just how much of a "welfare state" America does have.

It's a study of what is being done by government directly to aid the unemployed and low-income families. The authors, members of the Joint Committee on the Economic Report, avoid any comment on what is good or bad about the various programs. But certain evaluations are obvious.

Mostly the same old story of efforts in comparison to the staggering expenditures on such things as foreign aid and national defense. For instance, last year the total bill for old-age assistance, aid to dependent children, aid to the blind and general assistance was $1,700,000,000. That includes costs to federal, state and local governments.

Under a new public low-rent housing program annual contributions of about $238,000,000 have been authorized for the whole country. That's just about the same amount appropriated for military housing.

There are about 17,200,000 workers who are not covered by any kind of old-age or unemployment insurance. They include agricultural workers, domestic help and others.

There are 5,200,000 persons who work for federal, state and local governmental agencies. Only a tiny fraction are covered by any kind of unemployment insurance.

"Inability to engage in gainful work because of illness or injury ranks high among the economic hazards of workers in the U. S. But only the state of Rhode Island, California and New Jersey now administer temporary disability programs providing cash benefits in case of non-occupational disability."

Those examples show how little consideration there has been in the long-time development of overall welfare programs. The money is not going to satisfy greatest needs first. Nevertheless, the report furnishes an imposing list of activities that are being carried on in this field.

By August of this year there were more than 2,600,000 persons getting old-age assistance and 1,400,000 dependent children receiving help. The federal government does not give direct cash help to needy persons except in those two categories, and in the case of a few persons who come under a "general assistance" program.

Under the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, which works with the state agencies, 58,000 handicapped persons a year get rehabilitation training which enables them to become self-supporting.

There are federal grants to the states totaling $22,000,000 a year for health and welfare services for mothers and children and crippled children. And about one-quarter of all U. S. kids in public schools benefit from the national school-lunch program administered by the Department of Agriculture.

The report says: "Although most of the veterans' programs are designed for the benefit of all veterans and their dependents, there are specifically intended to meet the needs of the low-income veterans and their surviving dependents. Such programs show a great increase in participation during periods of general unemployment."

The authors admit that several other important federal programs, which they don't consider in detail, contribute indirectly to helping low-income families. They say:

"Perhaps the most important of these are the agricultural price-support program, although not specifically directed to that end, has reduced sharply the number of low-

his arms: "It's Nell O'Neill," he told her quietly. "She's dead."

She stood a few seconds, then slumped into Reddy's arms.

SOME minutes later, Charlie had carried Stephanie back to the house, revived her and started the coffee dripping. She was on the divan, her hands clenched, trying to think, to feel. He dragged a chair close and sat down.

"I suppose you're afraid it might have been Hagar Blair who punctured Mrs. O'Neill. But, forget it. It just isn't logical, she'd have no reason. He eyed her intently. "She wouldn't have a reason, would she?"

Stephanie pressed his handkerchief to her face, muffling her words: "I think she might have. And it's my fault!"

He leaned forward. "Stephanie! It's important that you tell me what you know about this! There are two murders now, and that means there's great danger for everyone who's even remotely involved in this."

She was looking vaguely at the ceiling. Reddy made his voice more urgent.

"Listen, Stephanie. When someone commits a murder, he or she is not necessarily a dangerous person. The crime could result from an intense momentary emotion—fear, anger, jealousy, any number of things. But when the murderer kills a second time, things take on a very ominous aspect. And we're almost sure both of these deaths were caused by the same person, because of the weapon used."

Stephanie's tears had stopped and she was giving him her attention.

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority

Whenever I go to Washington, I always enjoy my luncheon date with Maj.-Gen. James A. Ulio, the former Adjutant General of the Army. Now that he has adopted two hobbies, one farming, and the other obtaining scholarships for American war orphans.

One must admire the active minds of the men who have handled our gigantic military undertakings. When I am with one of these men, who is also a card player, I enjoy laying out a hand and discussing the tactics of the play with him, as compared to military strategy.

Take today's hand, for example. On the opening lead of the deuce of diamonds you play the five-spot from dummy and East plays the queen. Would you win this trick?

Before you say yes or no, let us look over the situation. We know that we have a losing diamond, and if the ace of hearts is on the wrong side, we have two losing hearts. That, of course, we cannot know if we find the king of clubs right—but the military man says, "Nothing is sure to be right. Plan your defense and attack on the assumption that everything is wrong."

Therefore we must keep West out of the lead. Let East hold the first trick. He will return a diamond and you take it with the ace. Now pick up the trump and lead the queen of clubs. East wins with the king, but now he cannot get West in to lead a heart. He can return a club or cash his ace of hearts. If he leads a diamond, South discards a heart from his hand, trumps in dummy, and the other two hearts are thrown away on dummy's good clubs. That way you actually make five-odd.

REBELS SLAY 30 RANGOON, BURMA — (AP) — Thirty passengers aboard an Irrawaddy River ferry were killed in a rebel attack on the vessel 40 miles south of Mandalay, according to reports reaching here Tuesday.

As I'm able in the interests of justice. You can trust me, Stephanie. And you must, you may be in danger. Just as your friend Hagar is in danger!"

At the mention of Hagar's name, Stephanie sat up and swung her feet to the floor. Her blue eyes were wide and very dark:

"Charlie! I'm scared! Where is Hagar? Where could she be?"

He opened his mouth, but there was a sound of liquid meeting water in the kitchen and he jumped up and raced toward it.

When he returned, he carried a small tray with cups, sugar and coffee pot which he set down on the low table in front of the divan.

He poured. "Can you drink yours black? Better for you."

She nodded, her eyes on his face wonderingly: "How can you be so calm when there's a—when Nella is—?"

He grinned faintly. "Calm? Who's calm? Usually I can pour a cup of coffee without splashing it all over the place with a paper napkin. "Here now, take this."

She took the cup and smelled the steam appreciatively.

He settled back in his chair: "I'll have to call the chief pretty quick about this, but first I wish you'd tell me everything, anything, you know." He gave her an encouraging grin. "Better confide cozily over the coffee cups than down in our cold, gray bastille."

Hoopie Wouldn't Be Surprised To See The Turkey Eat The Man This Thanksgiving Day

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Famous Turkey Day Blocker
Hall and farewell, zillions of gentle readers!

We stand on the brink of the culmination of the 1949 grid season—and on the threshold of Turkey Day feasts of gymnastics and digestion!

Egad, it has been veritably a halcyon season, with your prognosticator picking 96.8 correctly on a great many of the more important struggles. (Ed. Note: He's just a little bit foggy with his wording of that one, isn't he?)

In view of the frequency of unprecedented upsets, most of which were forecast by your sapient scribe, it would not be surprising on Thanksgiving Day to see the turkey eat the man—haw-haw!

My forecast this week is enlarged to take care of the Thanksgiving schedule, a batch of games, November 26, and the two remaining important games, December 3.

Some will construe Navy's neat victory over Army as an upset, November 26, but it's in the cards, men. The same holds true for Auburn's triumph over Alabama, December 3.

In conclusion, thank you for your loyal following of my scintillating brochures, and I suppose you are thanking me, too, for giving you so much pertinent information. Har-rumph!

Sooners Have Hard Time In Deciding On Best Bowl Bid

NEW YORK—(AP)—Oklahoma is like a man who has been invited to three Thanksgiving dinners and doesn't know which to accept.

The unbeaten, untied Sooners are top candidates for the Cotton, Sugar and Orange Bowl games and probably would have been in the running for the Rose Bowl if that college football post-season extravaganza wasn't tied up by an agreement between the Pacific Coast and Western Conferences.

With the "official" selection Monday of Ohio State and California as Rose Bowl opponents, the attention of the football world shifted to Oklahoma.

The Sooners, unbeaten in 19 straight games, held a bowl discussion Monday but which oval they favored to grace by their presence remained a secret.

Sugar Appears Favorite

The general belief was that the players favored a return trip to New Orleans' Sugar Bowl. The Sooners clipped North Carolina there 14-6 last year.

Dan Rogers, selection chairman of the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, has spread out the welcome mat for Oklahoma to play the Southwest Conference champion on January 2.

The Southwest champion will be decided Saturday when Baylor battles with Rice in Houston.

Down Miami way most of the inhabitants would like to see Oklahoma take on Tulane's once-beaten Green Wave in the Orange Bowl. Other combinations that would be welcomed are Southern Methodist vs. North Carolina, and Kentucky or Santa Clara against the loser of the Baylor-Rice contest.

Air Grows Tense In Southwest As Big Games Near

Smiles were at a premium Monday in Southwest Conference football camps as seven teams headed into the last big week of the 1949 season.

Sighed Scout Walter Roach of Texas Christian University: There's "no hope" of stopping Doak Walker and Southern Methodist University Saturday.

Scout Herman Cowley of Southern Methodist advised the Mustang coaches to "call off" the TCU game. Might as well, was his attitude.

There was a slightly cheerier note at Texas, Texas A&M, Arkansas, Baylor and Rice. But here, too, the usual Monday morning moaning was in evidence.

Most of the teams got a light workout Monday or practiced not at all.

SMU is expected to be in good physical shape for TCU, and TCU will be at near peak condition for SMU.

Texas, Rice, Baylor and A&M also are expected to be in good shape. Arkansas still is bothered with injuries.

L. R. (Dutch) Meyer said his TCU team played its best game of the year last week as it lost to Rice 20-14. Rice was the ninth T formation club the Horned Frogs have faced this year. The Frogs used the single and double wing and so does SMU.

Baylor's gridders struggled with academic figures in final examinations Monday. Tuesday, they get back to struggling with offensive and defensive formations.

Texas and Texas A&M open the week's schedule Thursday at College Station. Rice and Baylor play for a Cotton Bowl bid and the conference championship Saturday. TCU meets SMU, and Arkansas plays Tulsa.

Ends Ray Stone and Paul Williams, Tackle Jim Lansford, Linebacker June Davis, and Guard Bud McFadin will be back in shape for Texas in the Aggie game.

A&M drilled behind locked gates Monday and more of the same is scheduled Tuesday and Wednesday.

Rice Coach Jess Neely said he would hold contact work to a "minimum" this week. He said Rice couldn't take any chances on more injuries.

Linebackers Joe Watson and Gerald Weatherly missed practice Monday but their ailments won't keep them from playing against Baylor.

Arkansas, which has scored only six points in the last three games, plans to concentrate on offense in practice this week.

Coach John Barnhill said his ace fullback, Leon (Muscles) Campbell, will see no action against Tulsa. Campbell, sidelined most of the year, re-injured a knee against William and Mary last week.

SPORTS SLANTS

by SHORTY SHELburnE

We have received reports that college football may come to Midland next season.

Jack Fielder, assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church here, recently contacted McMurry officials and reports they are favorable to playing in West Texas again. The Indians met Sul Ross at Monahans this year.

—SS—

We understand the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce might consider sponsoring the tilt here. The site naturally would be Memorial Stadium.

We would endorse the tilt all the way if it can be arranged at a low enough guarantee for the competing teams.

Texas would hate to see it go and turn out like the Hardin-Simmons vs. New Mexico game did in Odessa this year. The Odessa Chamber of Commerce was several thousand in the red on it.

—SS—

According to Fielder, McMurry would like to play Mississippi Southern here. That would make the tilt all the more attractive because Southern is rated as having good prospects next season.

Of course, the talented Brad Rowland would be in the McMurry lineup.

The Indians lose only four first stringers this season.

—SS—

At least one member of the Midland Police Department is a good shot.

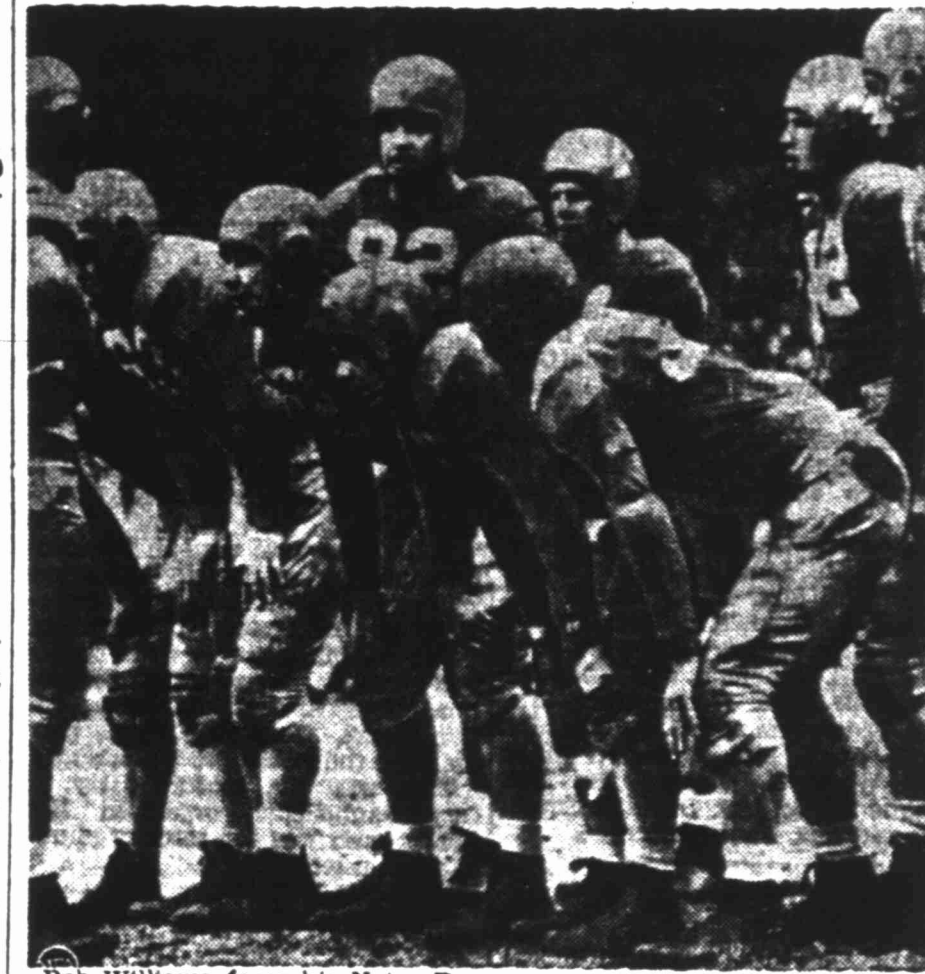

Leroy Stewart, one of the night patrolmen here, had his limit of deer before the season was four hours old.

He downed an eight-point buck at 8:10 a.m. on opening day and at 9:05 he killed a 10-pointer.

He was hunting two miles north of Doss.

Along with Leroy was his father, the SPCA chief here. His report says

Tough Audience

Bob Williams faces his Notre Dame teammates in this new kind of huddle, introduced this Fall. The middle of the line crouches and is backed by a second row consisting of the other three backs, flanked by the ends, Leon Hart, 82, left, and Bill Wightkin, 83. Saving time, it enables the Irish to get in more plays, prevents those other than the quarterback from talking.

Now Comes Milk Bowl—What Next?

CAMERON—(AP)—And now the Milk Bowl. It will be played at Yoe High School Athletic Field here the night of December 9.

It will match pee-wee teams from Gause and San Saba. Each will be made up of players weighing 100 pounds or less.

Gause school has a football team for the first time in history this year. Dixie Walker and Joe Moore, former professional baseball players, spearheaded a drive to raise funds for equipment, bringing about the organization of a football team.

Gause, which is near here, will be host team in the bowl game which is being sponsored by the Cameron Chamber of Commerce. Moore is general chairman.

Ralph Wildman, sports director of Radio Station WFAA in Dallas, is credited with originating the Milk Bowl. He will serve as co-chairman.

—SS—

all he killed was about three days of time looking for a buck.

—SS—

The Lamesa Tornados, opponents for the Midland Bulldogs in Memorial Stadium Thursday afternoon, probably won't have much football team left when graduation takes its toll. But it's all senior this time.

One dozen of the gridders who'll be in the lineup Thursday will receive diplomas at the end of the school term.

Jerry Phillips and T. J. Womack, ends; Jamie Pearson and Robert Adair, tackles; Jim Bob Boothe, guard; Bill Hart, center; Bill Wilson, center, and Bobby Hawkins, Randall Reeves, Ronald Chapman, Larry Lattimore and Dick Echols, backs, graduates.

All are first stringers.

The Tornados took last week off to rest up for the coming tilt with our Bulldogs. The Purple did duty against Lubbock.

Pros Would Lick Irish Says Boyle

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK—(AP)—Could undefeated Notre Dame knock off one of the top professional football teams?
 Impressed by the record of 36 games without a loss rung up by the rambler, a number of writers have opined that the fighting Irish could beat many play-for-pay teams. And some even have crawled clear out on the limb and proclaimed that Notre Dame could outscore the best pro eleven.
 I am no fonder of tanned pork than the average man, but if Frank Leahy's boys in Green can whip the Cleveland Browns I'll be glad to eat—without benefit of gravy—the football they do it with. And that is one proposition I don't mind engaging with a proposition.
 In their classes both teams play nearly perfect football, but they aren't in the same class. Frank Leahy can employ the discipline of the old college try—if his boys don't play their hearts out, they're ranked. But Coach Paul Brown of Cleveland, just as much a perfectionist as Leahy, has the added discipline of the dollar. His men know if they don't win they won't eat next year—at least not with the Browns.
Fair Well To Do It
 His team doesn't merely do most things well. It does everything well. There is a specialist for every job, paid well to do it right. And the job is done right.
 The simple truth is that by half-time the Browns would have torn the Notre Dame line to splinters and smothered its backs so often they would have a feeling they were playing in elderdown quilts.
 And meanwhile Cleveland would have passed or linebucked the dazed Ramblers silly.
 Against the powerful Yankees last Sunday the Cleveland quarterback, Otto Graham, a shy 195-pound lad who likes to play the violin, completed 19 of 34 passes for 322 yards. He had thrown 69 consecutive passes in five games before one was intercepted. Mac Speedie, an end, caught 11 Graham-flying passes for 228 yards, a conference record.
 Yes, Notre Dame is mighty—but it would be mighty foolish ever to trot out on a gridiron with a pro team like the Cleveland Browns. For professional football separates the men from the boys, and there is no way for the boys to bridge the gap.

Bob Smith Leading SWC Ball Carriers; Burk Leads Passers

DALLAS—(AP)—Ball-carrying and passing leaders of the Southwest Conference appear in good position to stay that way as the football campaign enters its final week.
 Bob Smith of Texas A&M, who tops the runners with 671 yards on 133 carries, is 84 yards ahead of Gordon Wyatt of Rice. Geno Mazzanti of Arkansas is third—just nine yards back of Wyatt.
 Thursday Smith plays against Texas at College Station and Saturday Wyatt makes his last appearance of the season against Baylor at Houston. Mazzanti plays his final game Saturday against Tulsa at Fayetteville.
 Wyatt and Mazzanti will have to have a great day in order to overtake Smith.
 In passing Adrian Burk of Baylor leads by 85 yards over Paul Campbell of Texas. Eighty-five yards in passing, the way the boys have been getting as 84 rushing. But it's a good lead for a passer like Burk.
 Burk has thrown 169 passes and connected on 99 for 1,318 yards. Campbell has completed 8 out of 153 for 1,233 yards. Lindsey Berry of Texas Christian is only 38 yards back of Campbell and could win the passing title. He has completed 89 out of 193 for 1,196 yards.
Procter Best Receiver
 In pass-receiving, Ben Procter of Texas leads with 39 catches for 642 yards. J. D. Ison of Baylor has gathered in 36 for 411 and Morris Bailey of Texas Christian has snared 33 for 462. Procter's lead isn't safe at all.
 Berry leads in total offense with 1,421 yards on 306 plays. He's 172 yards ahead of Burk who has rolled up 1,249 yards on 193 plays.
 Kyle Rote and Doak Walker of Southern Methodist are one-two in punting. Rote with an average of 43.4, on 15 kicks and Walker with 41.8 on 22.
 Bobby Dillon of Texas leads in punt returns, averaging 19.5 yards on 10. Berry is second with 17.8 on 19.
 Rice is the league's offensive team leader, averaging 359 yards per game. Texas is second with 355. Texas is the defensive topper, giving up only 213 yards per game. Baylor is second with 217.

California Replaces Oklahoma As No. 2 Team In Press Poll

By JACK HANB
 NEW YORK—(AP)—California has replaced Oklahoma as the runner-up team behind fleet Notre Dame in The Associated Press weekly football poll.
 By thumping Stanford 83-14 to move into the Rose Bowl as the Pacific Coast Conference champion, California took up the rugged task of chasing Notre Dame.
 Only a Notre Dame disaster in its remaining games could send California over the top.
 The fighting Irish from South Bend, Ind., captured 113 of the 151 first place votes from football writers and sportscasters across the nation.
 California drew 24, Oklahoma 11, College of the Pacific two and Army one.
Final Vote Next Week
 Notre Dame has led the poll seven straight weeks since Michigan took the opener. The final vote will be taken next week.
 The "big four" of Notre Dame, California, Oklahoma and Army still dominate the picture. They run going this season, isn't half as tough getting as 84 rushing. But it's a good lead for a passer like Burk.
 Burk has thrown 169 passes and connected on 99 for 1,318 yards. Campbell has completed 8 out of 153 for 1,233 yards. Lindsey Berry of Texas Christian is only 38 yards back of Campbell and could win the passing title. He has completed 89 out of 193 for 1,196 yards.

Lamesa Will Be Tough Opponent

The Midland Bulldogs were to get down to hard work Tuesday in preparation for the Thanksgiving Day game against the Lamesa Tornados in Memorial Stadium.
 Probably the toughest game of the season for the Bulldogs is shaping up. Lamesa has a record of six wins and two defeats and will be out to clout Midland in this final game of the 1949 season.
 Third place in the district standings is at stake.
 Playing on the Lamesa team will be 12 seniors who have a great deal of experience. The line will be big and the backfield fast and shift.
 Against this experienced club Midland will be sending a team of youngsters, most of whom are playing their first year of football.
 The Tornados showed much power in battling Odessa three weeks ago. They held a 14 to 0 halftime edge on the Bronchos.
Good Backs
 In Jerry Phillips Lamesa has one of the finest ends in the district. Ronald Chapman, Larry Lattimore and Dick Eckols form the first line offensive backfield along with Bobby Hawkins. All are capable.
 The Bulldogs will count on Ralph Brooks and Jack Burris for a lot of ball carrying duty against the Lamesa eleven. L. C. Thomas and Charles Crowley will be ready to furnish the power for plays through the line.
 Coach Tugboat Jones has indicated stiff drills on both offense and defense will be held. Offense was stressed in Monday's workout.
 Alfred Baze and Stan Coker, tackles, are back in shape after being slowed by sickness and injuries the last two weeks. They will split duty at the inside tackle post.
 Coach Jones is looking for a hard fight out of the Tornados and hopes to have every man available and in good shape. He has cautioned the Bulldogs Lamesa will be ready and gunning for the decision.

Booster Club Meets Here Tuesday Night

The Midland Bulldog Booster Club will hold its regular weekly meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Junior High School Cafeteria.
 A movie of the Midland-Lubbock game will be screened as the regular feature of the program.
 All Midlanders interested in the Bulldogs are urged to attend.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And The Rain Game

What do you do when maybe you're lonesome, but you can't get out of the house because of the rain that's raining down? Sammy Ringtail, the monkey boy, could tell you what to do. It's about a Rain Game. Don't laugh!

Sammy was sitting there by the window in the monkey house, all by himself, he thought. Sammy sat looking through the window, out across the forest. He saw how everything, all the trees, were dripping wet from the rain. He heard the rain and the wind too as it howled around the house. It pushed hard against the window, beating and beating against the glass, as though it would like to cover him with glistening raindrops.

And then Sammy played the Rain Game, the game he'd never tell anyone about for fear they'd laugh. He played like the window there was a window to his fort, the kind that soldiers used to get in when the Indians came out to fight. Sammy played like the raindrops on the window were arrows, Indian arrows, that Indians were shooting at him.

It was fun to be in the fort, there in the monkey house, safe against all the raindrop arrows that beat against the window. There were playlike Indians out in the trees, and Sammy could see them playlike when the wind blew hard through the leaves, but the monkey boy felt oh so safe. The monkey house was his fort, you know, and nothing could harm him.

But suddenly he knew that Daddy Ringtail was standing beside him, looking out the window too. Sammy hoped that his Daddy hadn't heard the playlike talk about Indians and arrows, for the game was so much playlike it might have made a grown-up somebody laugh.

But Daddy Ringtail saw the raindrops pattering on the window, and he said they were like Indian arrows. Yes, Daddy Ringtail remembered the time when he had been a monkey boy, and when he had played the Rain Game. "Raindrop arrows!" Daddy Ringtail said. "But we are safe and warm in our monkey house." Oh, it was fun for them to play the Rain Game. What a happy, happy day it was. Happy Day!

Cotton Growers in 10 West Texas Counties Are Warned Not To Ship, Gin Outside Area

In an effort to control a "considerable buildup" in pink bollworm infestation, G. W. Chowns, District Supervisor of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Division of Pink Bollworm Control, has issued a warning to cotton growers in 10 West Texas Counties and one New Mexico County that cotton grown in this area may not be shipped out of the area for ginning.

The counties in which the Bollworm Control unit calls Group 7 are Lea County in New Mexico, and Gaines, Dawson, Borden, Andrews, Martin, Howard, Mitchell, Ector, Midland and Glasscock counties in Texas. Group 7, according to the Bureau's rating of infestation by the worm, is the worst in the area under supervision.

Chowns said that an inspection had been made in Midland County of gin trash on October 1, and that another inspection was now in progress. He noted that "there has been a considerable buildup in pink bollworm infestation during that period."

Quarantine Regulations
Under the Bureau's quarantine regulations, cotton from less heavily-infested areas may be moved into this area for ginning, but none can move from Group 7 into less-infested areas. Ginners outside of Group 7 are instructed to turn down cotton coming from this area, Chowns said.

Chowns emphasized that inspections so far do not indicate that quality of cotton in the Midland area is being adversely affected by the infestation, but that intergroup shipping of cotton was being prohibited to keep the infestation from spreading.

According to a bulletin issued by L. F. Curl, of San Antonio, who is in charge of the Division of Pink Bollworm Control for the Bureau, it is not intended to prohibit a gin located in Scurry County from receiving seed cotton from a few miles across the line in Borden County. It is essential, however, that long distance movements of seed cotton for ginning be discontinued and ginners will be held strictly accountable and will be expected to refuse to gin cotton produced a long distance from their gin.

Chowns pointed out that the overloading of gins in this area had prompted some growers to haul cotton long distances to less heavily-infested areas.

Five-Year Prison Sentence Is Meted To John F. Becker

WICHITA FALLS — (AP) — John Frederick Becker, 43, former assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Paducah, faces a five year prison sentence on charges of embezzling $48,386.15.

Federal District Judge William H. Atwell sentenced Becker to Leavenworth Penitentiary Monday after receiving Becker's guilty plea. Becker also pleaded guilty to six counts of false entry in accounts of bank deposits.

Atwell told Becker he had taken more than $100,000 since 1941, but prosecution was outlawed because of statute limitations.

C. C. Renfro, Becker's attorney, said the defendant had sold his large dairy interests and home at Paducah to repay more than $34,000.

Young Sailor Held In Painter's Death

TEXARKANA — (AP) — A young sailor was held in jail Tuesday, charged with murder without malice in the automobile death of an elderly painter.

District Attorney Maxwell Welch said that Commissaryman Third Class Carmel Stripplin, 22, signed a statement saying he was drunk when the car overturned on a little used road.

Charles W. Gould, 64, formerly of Detroit, was found dead in the wreckage at sunrise Monday.

Stripplin was on furlough from the Patuxent River, Md., Naval Air Station. He said in his statement that he left the accident scene in search of help about 1 a. m., but was too intoxicated to return to the wreck.

The sailor was held in lieu of $2,500 bond.

Dr. R. Matthew Lynn, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will preside. He is president of the Kiwanis Club. The Rev. Francis Taylor, pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church, will give the invocation, and the Rev. Vernon Yearby, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will lead the singing. The Rev. Robert J. Kemsies Report, Not Kinsey Report

CINCINNATI, OHIO — (AP) — Chances are the Kemsies report never will become as familiar to the general public as the Kinsey report, probably because the former deals with birds, not humans.

Emerson Kemsies, local ornithologist and biology teacher in the Cincinnati public schools, for several years has been carrying on field work on the distribution of migrating and breeding birds in Southwestern Ohio.

Man, 77, Found Guilty Of Assaulting Girl, 15

DALLAS — (AP) — H. C. Marshall, 77, owner of a string of pie factories, was fined $1,000 in county criminal court Monday after a jury found him guilty of aggravated assault against a 15-year-old girl.

The girl, an employe at a Dallas pie factory, accused Marshall of indecent attentions to her.
