Court Backs FCC In Pay-TV Trials

Principals in Suit Against Church

Mrs. Alice Ryan, 41, right, of Glen Head, N. Y., mother of four, has sued the Roman Catholic Church for $2,375,000 in damages.

Experimentation Is Key To Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals today upheld authority of the Federal Communications Commission to permit trial operation of pay-television systems.

Its determination to oversee carefully the form which programming takes under the subscription system. Surely its power to see that this area of the public domain is not less for paid television than for the existing system of so-called free television.

Judges Walter M. Bastian and Warren E. Burger joined in the Edgerton opinion.

The court rejected protests by Connecticut Committee Against Pay TV; Stanley Warner Management Co.; Loew's, Inc.; Connecticut Theaters; Manchester Drive-In Theater Corp., and Outdoors Theaters Corp.

They had protested FCC authorization for RKO Phonovision Co. to conduct a three-year trial operation of pay-television in Hartford, Conn.

The system would be conducted by Zenith Radio Corp. Phonovision.

Edgerton said that Connecticut Committee Against Pay TV was an organization representing Hartford theater owners.

The committee had argued that FCC lacked statutory powers to authorize a TV broadcast system which requires the payment of fees from the public; the commission erred in granting a temporary license to RKO without knowing what programs would be telecast; the commission also erred in excluding the RKO's proposed programming plans which would serve the public interest.

Edgerton said that Congress had authorized the commission to study the uses for radio and to provide for experimental uses of frequencies.

"The plain language of the statute makes clear that Congress placed an affirmative duty on the commission to experiment with and develop the most desirable deployment and utilization of the nation's communications facilities," he said.

Man Sought For Attacking Officer

Police Patrolman Blas Bailon was attacked by a man wielding a crowbar near the Rio Theatre on the North Side Wednesday night. He was not injured in the scuffle, Leo Hull, assistant chief of police, said Thursday morning.

"His feelings were hurt more than anything else because he was unable to outrun the man afterwards to make an arrest," Hull said.

Bailon said he saw the man with the crowbar behind the Rio Theatre and attempted to question him. The patrolman chased the subject to the near Silver Dollar Cafe where the man turned and attacked him with the bar. Bailon took it away and the man left running.

A warrant, charging aggravated assault on a police officer, was issued for the man's arrest. He was identified by Bailon, but he had not been arrested Thursday morning.

Ft. Polk GIs Plan Protest

FT. POLK, La. (AP) — Gen. Harley West, commander at Ft. Polk, confirmed that 200 men outside a base service club Wednesday night and decided to write their congressmen to protest what they called inequities in serving their military terms.

Yarborough said Texas' per capita income, education and old age pensions are below the national level and "we cannot any longer afford to have mediocre leaders."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House said today a proposed exchange of television talks by President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev has been postponed because the atmosphere now is not right.

The men were of the 49th (Texas) Division activated during the Berlin crisis last fall.

Connally was at Waco for a breakfast rally Thursday, planned a TV appearance there in the afternoon and was to address the Cameron Chamber of Commerce at a dinner in the evening.

HOUSTON (AP)—Mayor Lewis Cutrer ordered today that principal downtown city buildings be desegregated at once.

Some servicemen said the meeting lasted about 1 1/2 hours, and during that time about 700 men passed by. No disorder was reported.

Connally said he has invited to address the rally but its sponsors, the Young Americans for Freedom, withdrew the invitation after he became a candidate for governor in Texas.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A Minuteman intercontinental range missile launched out of an underground blasting silo today and raced more than 3,000 miles to the south Atlantic.

A similar meeting was held Monday night. A source said other meetings were planned.

Daniel has said he hasn't begun his campaign.

Mrs. Lomita Yates Harris, 41, lay on the floor. Her daughter Leann, 9, was on a bed. Both had been shot in the temple.

Kennedy Hands Out Sharp Nudges At News Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says the U. S. economy is healthier than some of its gloomy skeptics. He's also given Congress a sharp and obvious nudge to pass legislation he believes will let it that way.

Later the President said the test for Congress is not the pace at which it acts but the action it takes. Specifically, he mentioned medical care for the aged and "those pieces of legislation which will help us fight the next economic downturn."

Trade — Halting a 25-nation agreement to reduce tariffs, Kennedy said further trade expansion depends upon congressional enactment of his program to widen the government's authority to negotiate reciprocal tariff cuts.

Kennedy, at a news conference Wednesday, announced a personal move to return steel industry negotiators to the bargaining table in an effort to eliminate one threat to economic recovery—a steel strike.

To an audience of 385 newsmen and spectators, Kennedy had this to say on other topics:

Soviet Union—In connection with Khrushchev's orders this week for new measures to increase farm output, Kennedy said there has been no talk of sending surplus food to the Soviets and added he's glad U. S. agricultural difficulties — in contrast — are caused by overproduction.

He made public a message to company executives and David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, urging them to renew contract talks by next Wednesday. Both sides agreed to do so.

Summit—He set off a roar of laughter with this response, to indicate he hasn't changed position, when told commentators are saying he is about to eat his words against attending a summit conference without progress on a lower diplomatic rung.

Nuclear—Creation of nuclear-free zones around the world probably will be discussed at Geneva, he said. But he wondered if they would make much difference when missiles can deliver bombs to targets 6,000 miles away.

Viewing the whole economy, Kennedy observed that unemployment in February reached its lowest level in 19 months, profits are at a record high, prices are fairly stable and goods are moving.

He disclosed he had advanced concrete proposals to Soviet Premier Khrushchev for cooperation in outer space—reportedly on such projects as communications and weather forecasting satellites.

He said it would be perfectly proper to discuss Berlin and

Tech Vote Favors Change In Name

LUBBOCK (AP)—Texas Tech students turned out in force Wednesday to express opinions on a change in the school's name.

Returns showed 4,301 students favored a name change, 859 were against and 71 couldn't decide. About half the 10,000 students voted.

32 Persons Die As Bus Runs Wild

CUERNAVACA, Mexico (AP)—Thirty-two persons, including 12 school children, were killed Wednesday when a bus ran wild after the brakes apparently failed on a steep hill.

lem villages, shortly before the Evian conference was launched Wednesday and continued firing through the night.

By the French account, five Algerian Moslem civilians had been killed and 24 persons, including four members of the French army, wounded, while French counter-fire put seven rebels out of combat.

The rebel delegation, which flew to Evian from neutral Swiss soil to this chilly French Alpine sea, met with French officials for three hours before breaking for lunch in separate dining rooms in the Hotel du Parc conference site.

Kin Of Oil Pioneer Die

SAN SABA (AP)—A neighbor found the granddaughter and great granddaughter of oil millionaire Ira Yates dead of bullet wounds in their ranch home Wednesday.

The talks were to continue until shortly before sunset, the practical limit for the helicopter flight back across Lake Geneva to rebel headquarters outside Geneva.

The fact that the rebel delegation remained on for lunch was probably also an indication that the talks were going well.

Will Ask New Herring Trial

ODESSA (AP)—Prosecutors in the Mack Herring sanity trial say they will go to Austin Friday to ask for a new hearing for the teen-ager.

Herring, 18, Odessa high school athlete, was declared insane in a hearing which ended Feb. 26.

Only question before the jury was whether he was insane when he pulled the trigger killing Elizabeth Jean Williams, 17.

Dist. Atty. Dan Sullivan said today that he and Winkler County Atty. John Banks believe the jury should have ruled on whether Herring is insane now.

They plan to file a petition with the state Supreme Court asking a new hearing.

The shooting occurred March 22 last year. Herring told officers the girl pleaded with him to kill her. He said he kissed her goodbye then pulled the trigger of a shotgun while she held the muzzle to her temple.

Witnesses said the girl had asked several youths to kill her. No reason for her death wish was revealed.

Sheriff Spends Night In Jail

BEAUMONT (AP)—Sheriff C. H. Meyer emerged from the Jefferson County jail Wednesday, saying he had spent the night there after he had been served with an indictment alleging he had filed a false statement about his 1960 campaign contributions and expenditures.

Witnesses said the girl had asked several youths to kill her. No reason for her death wish was revealed.

Justice of Peace Walter Grice returned a verdict of suicide. He said a 12 gauge shotgun was fired. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Daniel who have been running the motel for Smartt for the past year since Smartt's wife passed away, heard the shot and discovered the body.

Constable Reagan Baker served a paper on Meyer late Tuesday and escorted the sheriff to the county jail.

Meyer's exit from jail followed approval by the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin of an order setting a hearing for April 4.

Man's Life Ended By Shotgun Blast

Sams D. Smartt, owner of the Triple Gables Motel at 3500 West Highway 80, died instantly from a shotgun blast in the driveway of the motel at 1:30 p. m. today.

Justice of Peace Walter Grice returned a verdict of suicide. He said a 12 gauge shotgun was fired. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Daniel who have been running the motel for Smartt for the past year since Smartt's wife passed away, heard the shot and discovered the body.

The major steel companies quickly agreed with Kennedy's call at his news conference Wednesday for the deadlocked bargaining to resume by next Wednesday. The United Steelworkers Union said it will comply. Presumably the resumed talks will be at Pittsburgh, as before.

Dr. Littell Is First Speaker In C-City Series

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Dr. Franklin H. Littell, 44, professor of church history at SMU spoke as commissioner at the Colorado High School Auditorium Wednesday night before a crowd of 800.

Edgerton said that Congress had authorized the commission to study the uses for radio and to provide for experimental uses of frequencies.

The plain language of the statute makes clear that Congress placed an affirmative duty on the commission to experiment with and develop the most desirable deployment and utilization of the nation's communications facilities," he said.

Dr. Littell's talk was the first part of a three session study on communism being offered in Colorado City by the Lion's Club, the City National Bank and the Ministerial Alliance. On March 13, Dr. John M. Claunch, a former member of the Texas Legislature and presently dean of the Dallas College of SMU, will speak and on March 20, Arthur A. Smith, vice president of the First National Bank of Dallas, will speak.

Dr. Littell's theme Wednesday night was that only an aroused Christianity could combat the "false religion" of communism.

The answer to communism lies in an intelligent committed belief in the Christian creed. The church was here before communism and will be here after this belief is gone."

In a question and answer session following his talk, Dr. Littell was asked whether he would consider the very small number of Communists in this country as dangerous. He replied that he had seen young people's groups of three or four hundred, subdivided by three or four dedicated Communists.

Also Dr. Littell defended the National Council of Churches, expressed doubt as to whether the film "Operation Abolition" gave the full story of the Communist inspired riots at San Francisco in 1960, and slammed both leftists and rightists as dangerous to American freedom.

A warrant, charging aggravated assault on a police officer, was issued for the man's arrest. He was identified by Bailon, but he had not been arrested Thursday morning.

NEWS BRIEFS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy flies to New York today on the first leg on a more than 15,000-mile journey to make a semi-official visit to India and Pakistan.

scientific exploration of space, a solar observatory raced around the globe today gathering a wealth of data about sun-earth relations.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and 24 other nations have agreed to chop about 20 percent from tariffs on a wide range of items—from automobiles to Scotch whisky. And U. S. officials said America came out ahead 4 to 3 in the deal.

The new U. S. satellite, nicknamed OSO-1 was fired into orbit from Cape Canaveral Wednesday by a Thor-Delta rocket. The name derives from Orbiting Solar Observatory.

First reaction to the agreement—which President Kennedy termed highly advantageous to the United States—was favorable.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —South Vietnamese forces reported 23 Communist guerrillas were killed today in one operation near the southern tip of Viet Nam. Authorities feared another concentration of Red fighters had evaded 1,500 government troops chasing them in the Mekong River delta.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy chalked up a victory today in getting suspended steel labor talks scheduled again—with a fresh reminder the public interest requires an early settlement consistent with price stability.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy is reportedly proposing to Premier Khrushchev a series of concrete steps for joint action by the United States and the Soviet Union to explore and develop outer space for peaceful purposes.

The major steel companies quickly agreed with Kennedy's call at his news conference Wednesday for the deadlocked bargaining to resume by next Wednesday. The United Steelworkers Union said it will comply. Presumably the resumed talks will be at Pittsburgh, as before.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., said Wednesday he will fight passage of the Padra Island seashore recreation area bill sponsored by Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex.

Meyer's exit from jail followed approval by the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin of an order setting a hearing for April 4.

It takes in practically the whole island, leaving very little for commercial development, Tower said.

Urban Precincts Hold Majority Of Electors

Big Spring voting boxes hold better than 85 per cent of the total voting strength of Howard County, a check of the poll tax figures for the current year discloses. Mrs. Zarah LaFevre, county tax-assessor, reported Wednesday the final official total of poll tax and exemption certificates issued by her office at 9:51 p.m.

The seven Big Spring boxes account for 8,116 of the total. If the two other incorporated towns in the county are lumped with the Big Spring boxes, the percentage of votes charged to the nine voting boxes represents nearly 93 per cent of all of the votes in the county.

Cosharna has 671 qualified electors and Fariss 152. These are the county's two other incorporated communities. The other six rural boxes in the county combined have a voting strength of only 506.

Two of the rural boxes showed a decline this year in poll tax receipts and exemption certificates compared with the figures for 1961. Gay Hill was down 24 voters; R-Bar showed a loss of five. Moore box had one more voter on the rolls this year than it had in 1961.

Yesmoor showed the biggest rally, percentage wise, of any box in the county. Records in 1961 credited this precinct with 18 qualified voters. This year the box mustered 82 voters.

Observers credit this increased interest in voting to the future which developed a few months ago in the school district of which Yesmoor is the center.

A movement was initiated to annex the district to Ackerly (Sands) and the annexation was narrowly defeated. A second attempt failed to get to the polls because of a court injunction. However, proponents and opponents of the proposal were gravely disturbed over the heavy percentage of the district's voters who were found to have failed to qualify themselves to vote. A campaign to register all voters this year resulted.

This year, under plans now being pursued, voters in the Big Spring boxes and perhaps in the Cosharna box, will have an opportunity to make use of voting booths.

In 1961, the total number of poll tax receipts and exemptions was 8,170 which was explained by the fact that the year was a "non-political" one and voting interest was low.

This year, on the other hand, is fraught with political interest and the 2,000 additional electors is explained by this condition.

Students Get Holiday While Teachers Attend Convention

Public school students in Big Spring will have a holiday Friday while their teachers attend the annual District 4 convention of the Texas State Teachers Association in Odessa. Big Spring teachers will be among approximately 3,500 teachers from 15 West Texas counties attending the convention.

JULIAN STREET

The convention program will include two general sessions to be held at 10 a.m. and at 4:30 p.m. in the Odessa High School fieldhouse, afternoon workshops and sectional meetings, and luncheon programs for many teacher groups.

Julian Street Jr., director of educational services for the United States Steel Corporation since 1952, will be the speaker in the morning general session. In a career which has been devoted to industrial, educational and governmental information programs, Street served, during World War II, as special consultant to the Secretary of Treasury in behalf of the War Bond campaign.

After the war he was appointed to help in information for the UNESCO Relations Staff of the Department of State. In 1948 he joined the Economic Cooperation Administration as information officer at its European headquarters in Paris.

The principal speaker in the 4:30 p.m. general session will be Dr. Earl Hanson, who is now completing his 38th year as superintendent of Rock Island Public Schools, Rock Island, Ill.

Dr. Hanson has travelled widely throughout the world and is author of numerous articles in professional journals and magazines, and holds offices in numerous local civic organizations as well as in state and national education associations.

The convention in Odessa will begin with a House of Delegates banquet in the Permian High School cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. today. The official delegates will elect new officers for the coming year and will hear reports from chairmen of various association committees. From each school district there will be one delegate for every 25 teachers.

Counties included in the District 4 of Texas State Teachers Association are Midland, Ector, Scurry, Berden, Gaines, Dawson, Andrews, Martin, Howard Mitchell, Winkler, Glasscock, Upton, Crane, and Reagan.

Officers of the district are Mrs. Gerald Gordon, Colorado City, president; Sebron Williams, Big Spring, vice president; S. M. Anderson, Big Spring, past president and state executive committee officer; Mrs. Clarice Douthitt, Odessa, state executive committee officer; Mrs. Clarice Douthitt, Odessa, state executive committee officer; Joe Young, Seminole, state executive committee officer; Joe Gentry, Crane, secretary; Jerome Snyder, Midland, treasurer; Frank Wilson, Colorado City, membership chairman; Jack Longthorn, Snyder, NEA membership committee; T. A. Roach, Wink, district executive committee chairman.

NOTHING BUT CHRIST

By A Christian Writer

The apostle Paul said, "For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified." (I Cor. 2:2)

We say the same! Christ said, "I am the way... no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6.)

So we must say that no fraternity can save you; neither can good moral living; you must have Christ. No heathen religion can save. In fact none of the so-called "Christian bodies" can get you to heaven, unless it truly brings you to Christ and keeps you there.

6 In School Trustee Race At Deadline

The time for filing for a place in the forthcoming election for trustee of the Big Spring Independent School District ended Wednesday at midnight with six names on the ballot.

New entries are Ray Thomas, industrial engineer, and Al Milch, developer, who filed Wednesday evening.

Other candidates who have filed, in the order on which their names will appear on the ballot, are incumbents Mrs. R. B. G. Coper, Joe Moss, attorney, Wendal Parks, insurance agent, and Bob Rogers, sales representative, a newcomer.

Mrs. Coper and Parks were elected to the board in 1959. Joe Moss was appointed to replace Dan M. Krause, who resigned Nov. 7, 1961.

B. F. LOGAN RECEIVES 50-YEAR MASONIC AWARD Herman C. Bartlett and J. F. Gibson make presentation

Coahoma Masonic Lodge Honors Logan With Award

COAHOME — Benjamin F. Logan, 401 NW 9th, Big Spring, has been honored by the Coahoma Masonic Lodge No. 992 with the presentation of a 50-year Masonic award.

Mr. Logan was made a Master Mason Aug. 7, 1911 at the Coahoma lodge, where he has held his membership continuously. He was made a life member of the lodge June 24, 1943.

The award was presented to Mr. Logan by Herman C. Bartlett, Lamesa, deputy grand master of the 80th Masonic district, and J. F.

Gibson, worshipful master of the Coahoma lodge.

After the award was made, Mr. Logan was presented with a large cake decorated to represent his 50 years as a member of the lodge. Refreshments were served to all members.

Two other members of the Coahoma Lodge have received the 50-year award. They are J. C. Neel, who now resides in Los Angeles, Calif., who also is a charter member of the lodge, and R. A. Marshall, Coahoma, who was made a Master Mason in 1909. Both of them also are life members of the Coahoma lodge.

Ray Thomas Files For Trustee Post

Leslie Raymond Thomas, better known in Big Spring as Ray, has announced as a candidate in the April 7 election for trustee of the Big Spring Independent School District.

Thomas is an industrial engineer at the Howard County Hospital Foundation and Clinic. Previous business experience includes six years as the operator of a local grocery store and six years with Cosden Petroleum Corp.

"The education of our school children has always been one of my prime concerns," he said. "As the parent of a child who is now in school, I have an additional interest in maintaining high educational standards."

Thomas is a native Big Spring. He was born here Jan. 23, 1926 and attended public schools in Big Spring. He studied at the University of Texas from 1946-49.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas have two children. Brenda Kay is a student in the first grade at College Heights. Clifton, five, is not of school age.

Thomas is an active Mason, as well as an adult leader in the Hi-Y program in the eighth grade at Rannels Junior High School. He is a member of the First Methodist Church and is secretary of a Sunday School Class.

RAY THOMAS

He spent 2½ years with the submarine service during World War II, receiving his discharge with the rank of Gunner's Mate Second Class.

"We have a fine education system in Big Spring and I would like to keep it the best we can offer our children," he said. "If the voters chose to place me on the board of trustees, I will work to improve local education in any way I can."

Sheriff Given More Help For Check Work

Howard County Commissioners Court Thursday authorized Miller Harris, sheriff, to employ a typist to handle clerical work in the newly established bad check department.

A petition, signed by 100 businessmen of the city including representative of the three banks and commending the commissioners and the sheriff for setting the department in operation and expressing the belief that it will do much to curb the bad check situation, was laid before the court. The petition also urged that the commissioners augment the personnel in the department to facilitate its work.

Sheriff Harris handed each commissioner a letter detailing activities of the new department through January and February and asking that a typist be provided to help with the work.

L. J. Davidson, commissioner,

Wright's PRESCRIPTION CENTER 24-HOUR PRESCRIPTION SERVICE 419 Main AM 4-8276

moved that the sheriff be authorized to employ a typist effective April 1, to serve through the remainder of the year. The salary was pegged at $235 per month. The motion, seconded by Ralph White, was unanimously adopted. Mrs. Pauline Petty, county clerk, asked for an extra deputy to serve through June 10. She pointed to the increased business now being handled by her office and mentioned that the elections would further augment the work. The request was granted.

Light Trace Of Rain Falls

A few scattered raindrops pattered down on Big Spring Wednesday night and, for a fleeting interval, hopes of rain burned high in the hearts of local residents.

However, the hopes faded when the drops soon halted and the official report was that the community had had a "trace" of rain. Traces of rain are all that have been credited to the county since 1962 began.

The cloudy skies which prevailed Wednesday continued in control Thursday. The breeze felt dampish and springlike but up to noon, nothing else had developed. Balmier weather held all day Wednesday and the low last night was a warm 54 degrees.

Forecast for today and Friday held faint promise of possible slight showers. The same cloudy skies, balmy temperatures and spring-like atmosphere, is expected to continue.

Milch Enters Race For School Trustee

Al Milch, president of Kentwood Development, Inc., filed Wednesday for a place on the ballot in the April 7 election for trustee of the Big Spring Independent School District.

Milch is also a partner in the Cortese-Milch Construction Company which deals in real estate, insurance and loans. In the past year the firm has been in operation in Big Spring, San Angelo, Wink and Andrews.

"I think my business and financial experience can be of direct benefit in serving the progress of all phases of Big Spring schools," he said.

He was born in San Angelo in 1919 and attended school there. Milch graduated from Hardin-Simmons University with a degree in physical education and English.

After graduation he was principal and head football coach at Roscoe High School. He has also been an athletic director or a coach at Hardin-Simmons, Arlington State College and Sul Ross State College. He was athletic director and head coach here three years.

"My experience as a teacher, principal, coach and athletic director has given me valuable knowledge about school systems," he said. "I have always been interested in the welfare and education of children here or at any other school."

Mr. and Mrs. Milch have three children, Suzanne, 12, in the sixth grade at South Ward; Larry, 10, in the fourth grade at Washington; and Merrill, seven, a second grader at Washington.

Milch was married to the former Margene Sellers, Abilene, a graduate of Hardin-Simmons. Mrs. Milch taught school here until this year.

He has been a member of the Rotary Club for 13 years. Other civic affiliations include participation in YMCA membership drives and acting as a chief in the Y Indian Guide program.

Rocha-Valtierra Rites Slated Here Saturday

Mass for Gregorio Rocha-Valtierra, 51, employe of the Big Spring Country Club for the past seven years, will be said at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church at 8 a.m. Saturday. Father Patrick Casey will officiate. Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements and interment is to be in the City Cemetery.

Mr. Rocha, who was born Nov. 17, 1911, in Leon Guanajuto, Mexico, died in a local hospital Thursday morning after a long illness. He came to the United States in 1915 and lived in San Marcos until 1939 when he moved to Big Spring.

Survivors include his widow; one son, Nickie Rocha, three brothers, Donasiano Rocha, Demetri Rocha and Tranquillino Rocha; two sisters, Mrs. Elodia Ayala and Mrs. Tomassa Chavez; and his father, Casimiro Rocha. All are residents of Big Spring.

Y Plans Special Friday Program

The YMCA will have a multitude of activities open to Big Spring youngsters Friday, due to classes being out. Joe Leach, physical director, said there would be free swim and free gym, as well as numerous other activities.

Optimists Change Dates For Play

Big Spring Optimists met Wednesday morning at the Wagon Wheel Restaurant with City Manager A. K. Steinheimer and Police Chief Jay Banks bringing the program. Guests present besides Steinheimer and Banks were Bill Samples, Norman English and FBI agent L. L. Robertson of Dallas.

The 17 members present voted to hold the Optimist sponsored play, to be presented by Variety International Productions, at the Municipal Auditorium at 8 p.m. April 13. Tickets will be available soon.

Optimists are conducting a membership drive and invite all interested men to join.

Three Accidents Are Investigated

Three accidents were investigated by police Wednesday, with no injuries reported. The first occurred at Twenty-second and Nolan. Drivers of the vehicles were Alan Dale McClinton, 605 W. 17th, and Aubrey Leopold Guina, 2615 Lynn Drive.

Other locations, with drivers of vehicles involved, were: Sixteenth and Austin, Thomas Jordan Gregory, 1200 E. 16th, and Linda Sudberry Cole, 1404 Benton; 1714 Gregg, Melba June Threatt, 101 Cottonwood, and Lula Coan Rasberry, Roby.

Another accident was reported at the police station by Nina S. Anderson, 170-A Fairchild. She was driver of one vehicle, and the second was a pickup truck, traveling east on Marcy.

Annual Snake Hunt Planned

SWEETWATER — The annual Rattler Roundup gets underway here Friday when registration starts at noon.

Most of the hunting will be Saturday and Sunday. Last year hunters from over the state harvested 2,000 pounds of writhing rattlers. The recent cold weather has caused the rattlers to remain in their dens, and officials are expecting another big roundup.

The snakes will be brought here, weighed and turned into a big pit at the Sweetwater Coliseum. The Army has indicated it may want some for research purposes. The remainder of the snakes will be turned over to makers of anti-venom serum.

Bill Ransburger and Tommy Wiseman are the co-chairmen of the project for the sponsoring Jaycees. There will be cash prizes for the greatest aggregate catch, for the biggest and smallest rattlers, plus other awards, but only those who register will be eligible for the prizes.

Hunters will seek out snakes on approved pastures. Most rely on flushing snakes from their dens with gasoline fumes. Then comes the fun of latching on to them and bringing them back to be weighed.

Candidate Plans Ft. Polk Visit

DALLAS (AP)—Largent Parks Jr., candidate for state representative, Place 9, Dallas County, has announced plans to take his campaign to Dallas men with the 49th Armored Division stationed at Ft. Polk, La., and eligible to vote absentee in the Democratic primary May 8.

Parks said he will hold a campaign rally at the DeRidder, La., municipal airport next Wednesday night.

His announcement claimed Parks is the first legislative candidate to campaign out of the state.

DEAR ABBY

Take It To Your Dad

DEAR ABBY: The worst thing that can happen to a boy is to be born two years before his sister. I am 16 and my sister is 14 and my parents won't let me get a date for anything until my sister has a date. If she doesn't get one, I have to take her. They say, "Just take her there and she will make her own good time." It never happens that way. I have to dance every dance with her and it's no fun for me. What should I do? I can't say I don't feel good again as I have used up that excuse already.

STUCK WITH MY SISTER
DEAR STUCK: Your parents may mean well but they are being very unfair to you. This sounds like a mother's idea. Appeal to your father.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter (24) wants to marry a divorced man (29). He is Protestant and so are we. No children are involved. I have met him and believe, if given half a chance, he would make a good husband for our daughter. The big problem is my wife. She doesn't know him and doesn't want to know him. All she knows is that he is a divorced man and that makes him no good. I am interested only in why he and his first wife were divorced, whether he would treat our daughter with respect and support her, and for my part that is good enough. These young people love each other. I have investigated him at his place of work and they speak very well of him. He looks like a gentleman and acts like one. How can I convince my wife to give him a chance? She thinks it's a case of one man sticking up for another.

DAD
DEAR DAD: Dear Old Supermom is both wrong and presumptuous in this case. A divorce doesn't blacken a man's character any more than bachelorhood purifies it. And a 24-year-old woman doesn't need Mom's approval for a "chance" at marriage.

DEAR ABBY: This is from a heart-broken 14-year-old girl. My mother is 37 and very pretty. My dad is 39 and a wonderful father. Lately my mother has been asking me to tell some lies to my father for her. Like where she is if he telephones and she is not at home. I think she is not being true to my father. I cry at night over this because I don't want our family broken up, Abby. What can I do to keep them together? Nobody listens to children.

HEART-BROKEN
DEAR HEART-BROKEN: Some people DO listen to children and perhaps your mother will if you tell her what's on your mind. Frequently "from the mouths of babes" can come some timely advice.

Still worrying about the same old problem? Write to Abby for a personal reply. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3265, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Roy Thurston To Represent Local Toastmasters Club

Roy Thurston took top club honors in the Big Spring Toastmasters contest and will represent the club in the area contest to be held in Big Spring, March 24. Reeves Moren, local second place winner will be the alternate speaker.

Thurston won the club elimination with a speech titled, "Cycle of Love." Moren, president-elect of the club, used a theme "Driver Education is Necessary" for his runner-up honors. Thurston is club president.

The Big Spring Toastmasters, along with clubs at Webb Air Base, will host the area meet at the Cosden Country Club with more than a dozen representatives to compete for the area honors and advancement to district competition.

The club is also staging a campaign for Bill Schlect for the post of District Governor. Election will be at the April meeting of the district.

Bill Hambrick and Raymond Andrews were selected as club representatives at the area business conference Saturday afternoon, preceding the evening contest speeches on March 24. The business is also scheduled for the Cosden Club.

Re-Enlisting Is Big Step

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP)—Sailor Frank Moncreif took a big step when he re-enlisted—about 6,000 feet.

He stepped out of a plane flying at that altitude. So did Chief Warrant Officer Lewis T. Vinson. As they fell, Moncreif handed Vinson a baton. In it were his re-enlistment papers.

At 2,500 feet the men opened their parachutes and descended to a marker on the desert. There an enlistment officer signed Moncreif on for six more years.

Moncreif, 30, has been in the Navy seven years, most of it as an underwater demolition team member. He is now assigned to a Navy parachute exhibition team at El Centro Naval Air Facility. Vinson is the group's jumpmaster.

Capt. Shortt Wins Pilot Honor Again

Capt. Albert Shortt has won the "Pilot of the Month" award for the third time since being in the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron. During February he earned the highest over-all score in the incentive program to repeat his performances of August, 1960 and December, 1961.

Capt. Shortt is being reassigned to Spain but before heading overseas he will attend survival training at Stead AFB, Nev. He leaves Webb AFB this weekend.

An old-timer with the 331st, Capt. Shortt joined the organization in 1954 when the unit was at Stewart AFB, N. Y. He holds the ADC pilot rating of expert and is assistant flight commander of "B" flight. He is a senior pilot with 2,719 hours of flying time.

Next In Orbit 'Determined Boy'

SPARTA, Wis. (AP)—"Don was a determined boy, who knew where he was going."

That's how his one-time science instructor remembers Donald Kent Slayton who is scheduled to become his country's second man in orbit next month.

There are many other recollections of the astronaut by family and friends.

He played a trombone for four years in the high school band, and was proud of the uniform; he raised a prize sheep and won a blue ribbon, and sometimes he ran the five miles from school to his farm home to keep in shape for the track team; he has 3,000 hours in the air, and he told his mother the wildest ride of his life was in a taxi cab taking him from one Chicago airport to another.

For Don Slayton—he did not become Deke until Air Force buddies made a nickname of his initials—the urge for wings came early. The Sparta High School yearbook said of him in his junior year that his theme song was "keep 'em flying."

Walter Pribnow, who was Slay-ton's science instructor and now is superintendent of schools at Appleton, Wis., remembered that during Don's senior year he took a special interest in an aeronautical text.

"We made black airplane models for identification," Pribnow said. "Don was a determined boy, who knew where he was going." Slayton was born, 38 years ago last week, in the Sparta hospital to Charles Slayton and his second wife, Victoria, both of Norwegian stock, and spent his boyhood on the family farm near the town of Leon.

He was graduated from Leon Elementary School at the head of his class and entered Sparta High School in a class of 100. A new $1.5 million high school, just completed, will be named for him if, the board said last week, he approves the move.

In high school, he played trombone for four years with the band, and there is a picture of him in the band uniform, looking proud, and a little shy. He was out for the track team all four years, and played on the school's Future Farmers of America basketball team for three years.

Don, his brother Howard, his sisters Beverly and Verna, and Russ and Lloyd Harris made the five-mile trip to school daily in a Model T Ford the Harris boys bought for $26.

During track season, Don sometimes ran the five miles to improve his wind and legs.

It was with the Future Farmers that he raised the prize Oxford sheep, and after winning classes at the Monroe County Fair in Tomah went on to the state fair.

Graduated 16th in his class, he enlisted in the Air Force on his 18th birthday.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration biography of his Air Force career takes up most of a page: 56 combat missions over Germany, seven over Japan, time out to win an aeronautical engineering degree at the University of Minnesota, a brief tour as a civilian engineer.

"He quit a good paying job at Boeing," his mother says, "because he was grounded."

He went back into service with the Minnesota Air National Guard and then to a berth as an experimental jet test pilot at Edwards Air Force Base.

While in Germany, Slayton married a civilian secretary, Marjorie Lunney, whose home is in California. They have a 4-year-old son, Kent. In a brief visit home after Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. made the first orbital flight, the Slaytons were busy with plans for building a home near NASA's new headquarters at Houston, Tex.

At home, his parents—now 74 and 67 years old—bear little of the Mercury project. Charles Slayton is town treasurer of Leon. "We share Don's confidence in this program," his mother says. "We know that God willing, Don's flight will be as successful as Glenn's."

"No parents have a right to interfere with their children's futures. If Don is happy in what he is doing, we are happy. "And Don would not be happy unless he was flying."

Safe Driving Awards Made

Five area men have been presented with safe driver awards by the Soil Conservation Service, symbolizing an aggregate of 60 years of accident-free driving.

The SCS counts as reportable any accident where there is damage to a government or a private vehicle, said W. S. Goodlett, area conservationist. Only full calendar years of employment are counted in earning the award based on driving in the performance of work.

Lee H. Williamson, agricultural engineer, with headquarters in Big Spring, was presented a 25-Year Safe Driver Award signed by the administrator of the Soil Conservation Service, D. A. Williams. Williamson gives engineering assistance to the Odessa, Midland, Stanton, Big Spring, Colorado City, and Snyder work units.

Allen V. Sheppard, work unit conservationist at Colorado City, was presented a 15-Year Award. Jake D. Hodges, work unit conservationist at Stanton, received a 10-year safe driver award.

Allyn B. Cox, conservationist at Midland, received a 5-year award.

William M. Miller, conservation agronomist, with headquarters in Big Spring, received a 5-year award. Miller is the agronomist for the Big Spring and Lubbock areas.

Fined $100, Costs

Jackie Lepard, charged with writing worthless checks, pleaded guilty to the charge in Howard County Court on Tuesday. Judge Ed Carpenter fined him $100 and costs and ordered him to serve 30 days in the county jail.

Tracksters At Local High School

LCC Tests Jayhawks In Regional Battle

The HCJC Jayhawks have everything going for them in this afternoon's Region V basketball tournament game with Lubbock Christian—the season's best record among competing teams, the luck of the draw and etc.—but that doesn't mean the Jayhawks are going to roll over and play dead for the locals.

LCC, which has had a miserable season by Pioneer standards, would like nothing better than to knock off the Hawks and if the Big Spring collegians are reliving the glories of the past they could be sitting on the sidelines of this eight-team meet by nightfall.

Game time is 2 p.m. If the Hawks win this one, they return to play at 9 p.m. Friday night against the survivor in the Odessa-Amarillo contest.

Other first round games today

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

HCJC's track and field team will be seeking its fourth straight Border Olympics championship in Laredo this weekend.

Only one other school has come in for as many as three division crowns at Laredo and that team, Victoria, is due to be back in force this week. Victoria has topped the Border Olympics championship on six different occasions, starting in 1950.

Others which have ruled the division since it was set up in 1942 include the East Texas State frosh, Laredo Army Airfield, Rice frosh, Brownville JC, Schreiner, San Antonio JC and Cisco JC.

Dexter Pate, the Big Spring Steers' main pitching hope in the upcoming District 3-AAAA pitching wars, appears to be quicker and have a much better curve ball than he had last year. There's no doubt about him being more durable, too.

He asked to be left on the mound all the way in the Steers' opening game with Colorado City. Usually, hurriers are quite willing to be relieved after the first three or four innings in early games.

Jack Gray, the former basketball coach at the University of Texas, is now in the pipeline construction business. He says he doesn't miss coaching in the least.

The head football coaching job at the University of Tampa in Florida pays only $8,000 per annum. Most Class AAAA high school coaches in Texas make more than that.

The "winter book" favorites to play in the Rose Bowl next Jan. 1 are USC for the Big Five Conference and Michigan State, Ohio State or Purdue of the Big Ten.

Midland Lee High, a District 2-AAAA baseball foe of Big Spring, will be shy of mound strength this spring but has two of the best high school catchers in West Texas.

Carl Schreiner, the all-around athlete who has already received an appointment to attend the Air Force Academy, will, no doubt, be the Rebels' regular backstop. Johnny Burns will back him up, if he can beat out Dwayne Casbeer. Schreiner hit .500 in conference play last year.

An angry young golf pro is Sonny Ridenhour of Lexington, N.C. Ridenhour was quoted as saying recently:

"Not more than two or three 'name' golfers in the country could run a decent country club. They don't have the background and they don't have the experience."

Ridenhour might have added that most of them wouldn't have the patience, either. Most country club pros must be prepared to work up to 16 hours a day, have a working knowledge of all the equipment needed to maintain the course itself, give lessons, assign and repair golf carts, know how to operate an A-1 shop and fraternize without aligning himself with one clique or another.

Pat Valentini, who once fought Ezzard Charles for the heavyweight boxing championship of the world (in 1949), now operates a place called Valentino's Ringside Bar in North Hollywood, Calif.

The house specialty is "beer with a punch."

HCJC Girls Shut Out HSU In Abilene Net Matches

The HCJC girls' tennis team is looking forward to its first Western Conference match of the season with Odessa, which will be played March 16 at Webb AFB, after having vanquished HSU in Abilene Tuesday.

Here are the results of Tuesday's matches: — Betty Ellison, HCJC, over Eula Faye Ham, HSU, 6-0, 6-1; No. 2 singles—Hermelinda Lopez, HCJC, over Ethel Thomas, HSU, 6-0, 6-0; No. 3 singles—Lucia DeLeon, HCJC, over Loretta Kennedy, HSU, 6-1, 6-0; No. 4 singles—Mary Griffin, HCJC, over Nancy Spill, HSU, 6-1, 6-0.

Track Team To Laredo

R. C. Moore, track and field coach at the local high school, said he was well pleased with the improvement the Steer team showed in a scrimmage with Snyder Wednesday afternoon.

No points were kept in the meet but when the two teams run at 4 p.m. here next Wednesday all conditions relative to a regular meet will prevail.

John (Red) Schwarzenbach, Big Spring's best bet to score points in the district meet this year, threw the shot put 32 feet 8 inches and the discus 154 feet 5 inches. No one else was close to him in either event. His effort in the discus was by far his best of the year.

San Angelo won regional honors last year but is seeded no better than third this year—behind HCJC and NMMI.

In two meetings with LCC this season, the Jayhawks have won by scores of 96-82 and 89-71.

HCJC carries a record of 27-4 into the tournament, having lost only to Paris, Cameron, Okla., the Texas Tech freshmen and NMMI. All of the locals' defeats came on the road.

In Western Conference play, the Hawks ended up with a 15-1 record. Their only loss was by one point to NMMI in Roswell.

In capturing the WC championship, they succeeded NMMI as the league titlist.

Probable starters for the locals will be Elvis Spradling, Earnest Turner, Lou Balenton, Walter Carter and Jerry Tillman.

LCC is apt to go with sharpshooting Jerry Haley, who has had a phenomenal year with the Pioneers, Richard Lundy, Bob Burke, Doug Goen and Stan Lynch.

Haley, a Colorado City product, stands only 6-2 but he is a tremendous shooter from outside.

The Lubbock team is coached by Lester Perrin.

River's Jay's Bull Runs In Sunland Event Friday

EL PASO — A full field of ten plus four on the also eligible list has been carded by Racing Secretary Steve O'Donnell for the Friday Ladies' Day feature, named to honor visiting officials from the well-known Nebraska track, Ak-sar-ben. To be run at 5 1/4 furlongs as the 9th event on the program, it appears to be a wide open race.

Likely pre-race favorites are a pair of thoroughbreds who visited the winner's circle their last time out. W. Knox's hard hitting mare Phyllis Hamby showed steady improvement throughout the fall and winter meet in allowance company, closing out her performances with a wire to wire six and a half furlong win. Trainer Cecil Harrell has been working the 5-year-old daughter of Sir Bim regularly and is given a good chance of copying added laurels.

Courageous will also come in for serious consideration off his 5 1/4 furlong win of two weeks ago. Owner-trainer Don Herber appears to have the six-year-old gelding in top condition, and he'll have Jack Wallace handling the reins tonight at 120.

Dropping down in class is owner-trainer A. Dugan's Milbourne. Blessed with early foot, the 6-year-old gelding, could, if given a break at the gate, take all the marbles. Celestino Dominguez is up.

Also dropping down in class is E. M. Jones' Fire Play, who has the rail advantage in the sprint event.

Making her spring debut is F. M. Miller's Record Album. The 5-year-old mare was a consistent performer at Sunland Park last season in similar company, six times in the money in ten starts at distances from 5 1/4 furlongs to a mile.

One of the better claiming placers at any distance, who adores Sunland's magic carpet, is Andy Kittle's Red Lane. The 6-year-old gelding has been in the money in all of his last seven starts on the mile oval.

R. W. River's Jay's Bull and R. S. LeSage's Cover Mark have shown fairly good form in their recent endeavors, while rounding out the field are a pair of longshots who have only had one previous start — A. T. McMillan's Slipper's Jeep and Mrs. Carl Craig's Winto.

Douglas Fills Role As Coach For Redlegs

By FRED SMITH
Associated Press Sports Writer

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A hunch followed by a wild diamond melee in Milwaukee led to the Cincinnati Reds acquiring a coach who never played professional baseball in his life.

The hunch was the late Powell Crosley's, owner of the Reds. He thought professional football teams were better conditioned than baseball teams. So the Reds hired Otis W. Douglas as physical training consultant. He had an impressive record in every major sport except baseball.

He suited up, put the Reds through their paces, and sat on the bench, hollering encouragement.

Then at Milwaukee occurred a classic free-for-all when Jim O'Toole of the Reds was caught in a run down and bumped into Eddie Matthews of the Braves.

Douglas led the charge from the Cincinnati bench and helped restore order.

President John P. McHale of the Braves wrote the National League office questioning the right of the Reds to have a physical consultant in uniform on the bench and saying that if Douglas could lead the Reds, the Braves were entitled to sign up Rocky Marciano.

So Douglas was made a coach—the only one in the record book to have no baseball statistics after his name.

"He's helped us," says Manager Fred Hutchinson. "Maybe there was some luck involved, but we had few injuries last year and the ones we did have healed quickly."

Douglas takes a scientific approach as befits a man with a doctorate in education from William and Mary.

The Reds like him despite the fact he makes them walk on their ankles, bend down and touch the ground with knees stiff, and similar tortures.

He knows sports. He coached track, football, and swimming at William and Mary. These same sports plus wrestling, gymnastics, and basketball at the University of Akron, was a player and trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Steerettes Play Big Lake Today

Fresh from a double victory over Abilene Cooper in Abilene on Tuesday evening, the girls' volleyball teams will journey to Big Lake for a pair of games today.

Against Cooper the A team defeated Abilene, 38-18, with Beverly Casey scoring 12 points. The B team triumphed 58-12.

The B team will play at 6:30 p.m. today and the A team is slated for 7:30 p.m.

Matthews Hurls Tigers To Win

SNYDER — Leonard Matthews pitched the Snyder Tigers to a 5-2 victory over Abilene Cooper here Wednesday, setting the Cougars down with four hits.

Steve Free, Spencer Dyer and Freddie Miller each drove out two hits for the Tigers, who were playing their first game. Cooper now has a 2-1 record.

Cooper 100 000 1-2 4 4
Snyder 400 010 x-5 9 1
Ogden and Gribble; Matthews and Smith.

Loudermilk, the top conference scorer and leader of SMU's co-champions, and Mounts, talented scorer for the co-champion Red Raiders, were unanimous selections.

LHS Westerners Play Here Friday

Fresh from a 10-2 victory over the Abilene Eagles, the Lubbock High School Westerners visit Big Spring Friday to meet Roy Baird's resident Steers in a double header.

The first of two seven-inning games gets under way at Steer Park at 1 p.m.

Big Spring also plays two here Saturday, at which time they host Sweetwater.

The Steers will carry a 3-1 record into the field tomorrow. Lubbock is 1-3, having lost twice previously to Odessa High by scores of 7-2 and 6-5.

Earl Parker is coach of the Westerners, who are regarded among the favorites in District 3-AAAA.

Coach Baird has nominated Dexter Pate and Bowman Roberts to

Top Notch Pros To Open Play In Pensacola Meet

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — A topnotch field tees off today in the $20,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament. And once more the fabulous Arnold Palmer is accorded the favorite's role by the galleries and a lot of the pros themselves.

"The fellow has everything," one pro said. "He can drive, his approach shots are perfection, and his putting — well, he can sink 'em."

Palmer himself wasn't too sure. "I'm driving as well as I ever have in my life," the 32-year-old Pennsylvania said, "but my chipping and putting still aren't too sharp."

He was named golfer of the year in 1960 when he broke the record for money winnings in one year with earnings of more than $75,000.

Best of the practice round scores reported Wednesday was a 64 by Mason Rudolph over the 6,700-yard par 72 Pensacola Country Club course. The Clarksville, Tenn., pro's snappy round was featured by a hole in one on the par three, 170-yard seventh hole.

Another ace was scored by John Paul Jones of Hinsdale, Ill., whose seven-iron shot dropped

Loudermilk Named To All-SWC Club

DALLAS (AP)—The 1962 all-Southwest Conference basketball team wound up a six-man outfit because the coaches, while agreeing on the top four players, had differences of opinion on the fifth.

Their choices are Jan Loudermilk of Southern Methodist, Del Ray Mounts and Harold Hudgens of Texas Tech, Carroll Broussard of Texas A&M, Phil Reynolds of Texas Christian and Jerry Carlton of Arkansas. The last two tied for the fifth spot. Loudermilk hails from Big Spring.

Loudermilk, the top conference scorer and leader of SMU's co-champions, and Mounts, talented scorer for the co-champion Red Raiders, were unanimous selections.

Big Spring's lone loss came at the hands of Letty Steve Hillhouse and Colorado City and that by a score of 2-1.

Gary Dement and Alan Johnson may pitch for Lubbock against the Steers. Johnson is only a sophomore.

Other starters for the Westerners are apt to be Jimmy Fullerton, third base; Buzz Henderson, second base; Don Riggerstaff, center field; Lonnie Light, left field; Phil Johnson, shortstop; Dement in right field, if he doesn't pitch; Danny Davis, first base; and Rickey Barrett, catcher.

Both coaches must be cagy with their pitchers, since Lubbock also plays a double header Saturday, meeting Midland High in Midland.

John Farley and Danny Davis also pitch for the Westerners. Max Ince is apt to handle the right field spot for the visitors, when Dement is pitching.

Police Issue Street Guide

Boy Scouts of three troops will begin selling a new directory, "Big Spring Path Finder, Street Guide," throughout the city Friday morning. The guide was compiled through the Big Spring Police Department and funds from the sale will go toward the police activity fund.

"This fund is used in sponsoring youth activities," Capt. L. A. Hiltbrunner said. Wednesday morning, "We use it for flowers also. In the past we have sponsored a baseball team, but will sponsor a Boy Scout troop in the future, and these funds are our only means of financing it," he said.

The directory gives a history of Big Spring, and includes an emergency service directory, church list, civic club list, and a major street map. Streets are listed alphabetically and are located in relation to major streets in the city, so that a reader may find other streets.

Hiltbrunner said the directory will be issued annually each January and that all new streets and additions will be included to keep the book as up-to-date as possible.

Hospitalized

Arthur Leonard is in the Malone Hogan Foundation Hospital after having undergone surgery for removal of a cataract in his right eye. Last year he had a corneal transplant on his left eye at Houston, and after several months of encouraging progress, the transplant failed to take. Since that time he has been without sight.

SUPPLY CATCHES UP, BUT DEMAND IS FALLING OFF

Some weeks ago, the Big Spring Post Office was swamped with demands by eager citizens for copies of the Department of Defense brochure on what to do in the event of a nuclear attack. The trouble was, according to E. C. Boatler, postmaster, there were no copies of the brochure on hand at that time.

"I know that there had been a lot of publicity out of the capital in which it was stated that every post office had an abundant supply of these booklets," Boatler said, "but it so happened that our post office was one that didn't have any."

"We had to tell the folk who asked that we could not deliver." Things have changed now. Boatler has plenty of the brochures. Several huge boxes of the booklets are on hand—"enough for everyone in town, I think," he said.

And, as might be expected, the public has lost interest. "We've got 'em now and nobody seems to want any," moaned the postmaster. "What will we do with them?"

Band Festival Set In Lamesa Saturday

LAMESA (SC) — Nearly 2,000 bandsmen, including the Texas Tech concert band, will be in Lamesa Saturday for the second annual Lamesa invitational band festival.

Twenty-one area bands will compete for trophies in concert and sight-reading, according to Jim Williams, director of the host Lamesa High School band. The event is co-sponsored by the Band Boosters and Lamesa Chamber of Commerce.

VA To Make Direct Loans

The Veterans Administration has announced that $75,000,000 will be distributed to field offices on July 2 for the purpose of making direct home loans. Approximately 25 million dollars will be obtained from principal repayments received from borrowers who have direct loans, and the balance will come from Treasury borrowings under current authorization.

VA officials estimate that it will be possible in May to notify field offices of their respective allotments. At that time VA Regional Offices will be authorized to furnish direct loan applications to veterans on their waiting lists in advance of the distribution on July 2.

During 1961 the VA made 23,488 direct loans for a total of $244.9 million. These loans were made to veterans residing in rural areas and in small cities and towns where GI financing by private lenders historically has not been generally available. As of Jan. 31, 1962 the VA had made 202,794 direct loans totaling $1.7 billion. The direct loan program started in 1950. Since the program began in 1950 less than one per cent of the loans made have had to be foreclosed.

U.N. Demands Katanga Action

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United Nations has demanded that President Moise Tshombe of Katanga punish members of his armed forces for alleged aggression against U. N. forces near Kaminville last Monday.

The United Nations released Wednesday a message to Tshombe from Robert Gardiner, officer in charge of U. N. operations in the Congo, containing the demand.

News Leader Strikes Out At Extremists

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Felix R. McKnight of Dallas said here that "slogans and name-calling must give way to honesty, integrity and respect for truth."

McKnight, president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, made his remarks in a lecture at the University of Michigan School of Journalism. He also is vice president and executive editor of the Dallas Times Herald.

The time has come for the press "to take off the gloves and try to bring sanity to the emotional bing that has had this country dangerously off balance," he said.

"Loose, aimless talk has become far too prevalent in this country," he added.

"Remedies for irresponsibility must originate with the American press," McKnight continued. "We must take leadership in the area of complete responsibility and we must blow the whistle on those who endanger our being."

While granting that many social issues involve emotional factors, he said that "there is a far more menacing situation developing in this country."

"We seem," he continued, "to be split loosely into two foggy camps known as liberals and conservatives. I wonder whatever happened to just plain Americans?"

Then McKnight answered his own question by citing astronaut John Glenn as an example of a patient, brave and plain American, and suggested: "Impetuous extremists should carefully study the character of John Glenn."

Graham Plans Dallas Visit

DALLAS (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham will come to Dallas early in 1963, Baptist officials announced.

The orator will make his Dallas appearance during a three-day Texas Baptist Conference on World Evangelism scheduled for Jan. 14-15 in Dallas' Memorial Auditorium.

Announcement of Graham's Dallas engagement came during a quarterly meeting of the Texas Baptist Executive Board.

Mounted Patrol To Ride In Parade

The Big Spring Mounted Patrol will ride in the San Angelo Livestock Show parade at 10 a.m. Friday, according to Lloyd Murphy, president. Linda McNew, local queen candidate, will also be present.

Murphy urged all members of the Patrol to ride in the parade. A trophy will be presented to the winning posse or riding group. The winner will be decided according to rules established by the American Association of Riding Clubs.

Persons who will ride in the parade should be ready at 9 a.m. at the meeting point at Central Park and Concho.

The clubs will be guests Friday at the 2 p.m. show in San Angelo Coliseum.

The Dallas, a group of singing airmen from Webb AFB, have been signed to a contract with the Joel Recording Company, Big Spring. The five are Airman I.C. Elwood Jones, second tenor (front); from left to right, rear, are Airman E.C. Sammy Woods, baritone lead; Airman E.C. Delma Jackson, bass; Airman E.C. Curtis Harrington, first tenor, and Airman E.C. Maxwell Eggleston, baritone. Unannounced is the name of their first record, but it will be of rock 'n roll variety.

Pat Bishop Selected For School Band Of America

Pat Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bishop, 1517 Vines, has been selected as one of the members of the School Bands of America which plans a European tour this summer.

She is one of 75 high school band members chosen from approximately 25 states on the basis of musicianship, character and personality.

Acceptance by the band opens the way for participation in a people-to-people project endorsed by the Presidents Music Committee. Each member is responsible for his or her own finances of the trip, although in many instances individuals and organizations give assistance as sponsors. This would be helpful in Pat's case.

The School Band of America was founded in 1961 by Edward T. Harn of Bloomington, Ill., who directs it. The itinerary includes England, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Monaco and France, and 15 concerts are

Efficiency Award

Police Report New Rash Of Dog Poisoning Cases

Dog poisoning in Big Spring has become a serious matter—and a dangerous one, for children.

Leon Hull, assistant chief of police, said Wednesday afternoon that nearly 30 dogs had been picked up in the last few days by the animal warden, Ted Lancaster. He said all had been poisoned except one, which had been shot.

"These poisonings are not just in one area of town either," Hull said. "It's happening all over town."

"Putting poison out on meat or other food is one of the most dangerous things a person can do. It indicates a disregard for lives of children who do not know better than to pick up something edible," he continued.

Lancaster said he picked up three dogs Monday and two Tuesday, all within 50 feet of each other on North Goliad. He picked up five dogs one day in the 1000 block of Johnson, and found meat in the alley with so much poison in it that it had turned green.

Other poisoned dogs had been found in the Kentwood Addition, and in practically all parts of the city.

"It is definitely against the law to shoot a firearm of any kind in the city limits, whether at a dog or anything else," Hull said. "It is also against the law to put out poison of the kind found in the city."

"It seems that this sort of thing comes in cycles about once a year, but this is the worst we have seen. It is possible that one or two persons are distributing the poison over town for it hardly seems probable that people all over the city would get the same idea at the same time," he said.

Church Holds Houston Meet

Miss Arah Phillips, Rev. and Mrs. R. V. Dean and Rev. and Mrs. V. Ward Jackson are in Houston this week attending the State Minister's Meeting.

Rev. Jackson is the State Chairman and will preside over all business sessions as well as furnish a guiding hand in the programming for the coming year, 1962-63. There are 72 congregations of the Church of God, in Texas and it maintains a college in Houston. Approximately 300 are expected to attend the convention.

Dr. T. Franklin Miller, who has been with the local congregation in the past will be the speaker.

Miss Phillips, a board member went earlier to attend a Board meeting of the College.

At the close of the Sunday morning service this week, the local congregation extended a unanimous vote of confidence to the pastor, Rev. Jackson, to continue his ministry with the church. This was his fourth anniversary with the local congregation.

"I wish to thank you for this unanimous vote of confidence. We shall look forward to greater accomplishments in the future," Rev. Jackson said.

Sgt. Karns Signs For Re-Enlistment

T. Sgt. Don E. Karns of the 3560th Pilot Training Wing at Webb AFB re-enlisted for four years. Sgt. Karns, a Webb veteran of four years, is currently assigned to the wing personnel office as NCOIC of the officers division.

An Air Force member since October, 1948, Sgt. Karns served on Guam, in the Philippines and Panama, Korea, Alaska, and in Japan. Landing with the 49th Fighter Group at Taegu in July, 1950, Sgt. Karns was among the first U. S. airmen to join the United Nations forces in Korea during the Conflict. He won three battle stars with the unit.

Band Boosters Plan Car Wash

The Band Boosters Club will hold a car wash this weekend to raise funds for the school band's proposed trip to the World's Fair in Seattle, Wash.

The car wash will be held at George Oldham's El Paso Station, 2008 S. Gregg, and motorists may make a donation for the car wash. The service will be available between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday and from noon until 6 p.m. on Sunday.

All proceeds will go toward the World's Fair trip.

Suit Against Zale's Halted

AUSTIN (AP)—The State Supreme Court has refused to allow the state to proceed in its suit against Zale Jewelry Co.

The court overruled state efforts to stop interference of Dist. Judge Dallas Blankenship of Dallas in the state's suit seeking to enjoin Zale's from allegedly practicing optometry.

Today's ruling was against the state's bid for rehearing on a court ruling last week in which the high court overruled a motion for leave to file petition for a writ of mandamus. The writ would have ordered Blankenship not to interfere in the suit.

The suit, filed in November 1961, was halted when Blankenship granted an injunction last month to Ellis Carp, Dallas, which prohibited the state from proceeding in the suit.

Carp operates Lee Optical on a lease basis with Zale's.

Five Sergeants Win Promotions

One senior master and four master sergeants of the 331st Fighter Interceptor Wing were promoted to chief master sergeant and senior master sergeant, respectively, the 331st has announced.

Hiked to chief master sergeant was Harold M. Copeland, 331st Flight Line chief. Promoted to senior master sergeant were C. M. Biegelow, NCOIC of Material Control; Arnold F. Kleinsasser, NCOIC of the Missile Section; Charles B. Pierson, Missile Maintenance Supervisor; and Grady Wilson, NCOIC of the MG-10 Radar Section.

The promotions were effective March 1.

Den 4 Meets

Den 4 of Pack 14 met Tuesday with Den Mothers Mrs. Maxine Thornton and Mrs. Ruby B. Bruns. A trip to the city's water filter plant was made and refreshments were served. Seven Cubs attended.

MR. AND MRS. O. L. HARP

O. L. Harps To Observe Golden Anniversary

LAMESA (SC) — A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Harp on their golden wedding anniversary will be held March 11, from 2 until 5 p.m., in their home at 1007 N. 12th St., Lamesa.

Hosting the affair will be their children, Mrs. A. F. Hataway, London, Ark.; O. L. Harp Jr. of Welch; Mrs. C. W. Stafford of Littlefield; Mrs. W. C. Coulter of Lamesa; Mrs. Corine O'Brien, Palmdale, Calif.; Mrs. Frank St. Clair, Tatum, N. M.; and Bill Harp, Lamesa.

Mr. and Mrs. Harp were married by the Rev. Ben Davis, March 12, 1912, in the old Fairview community, known now as Welch. The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson.

Their first home was in Fairview and in 1925 the couple moved to Dimmitt. They returned to Dawson County in 1933 and have made their home here since that time. Harp is a retired farmer.

Mrs. Harp will carry the white batiste handkerchief at the reception which she carried at her wedding. The handkerchief was a gift to the bride from Mrs. K. L. Moore and has been carried at the weddings of Mrs. Harp's five daughters, four granddaughters, two daughters-in-law and one great-granddaughter-in-law.

Circles Of WSCS Have New Study

Twenty-four members of the Fannie Hodges and Fannie Stripling WSCS circles, First Methodist Church, met together Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. H. Clyde Smith. A worship center was arranged by Mrs. A. S. Wood.

Mrs. Darrell Hulme led the Bible study on "The Meaning of Suffering" written by Ralph W. Sockman. She stressed two goals—to experience faith in the saving and keeping power of God through Christ and to develop through the fellowship of suffering true compassion for the needs of others. Also discussed were cause of suffering and resulting reactions.

Mrs. Bill Shepherd reviewed "The Will of God" by Leslie D. Weatherhead. Mrs. C. R. Moad talked on "The Sources of Suffering" that we can and cannot understand.

The next meeting was announced for March 13, at the home of Mrs. Neil Norred, where the study will be continued.

repertoire, this particular symphony ranks among the greatest in the affection of audiences. Ever since its first performance in 1898, musicians and laymen alike have read significance into every phrase.

It will be remembered this theme was used during World War II as a symbol of victory—the rhythm of the Morse code signal for the letter "V" (dot-dot-dash) corresponding with opening notes.

Also included on the program will be a short, modern French work, "Overture to an Imaginary Opere" by Jean Rivier.

HYPERION PROGRAM

Youth Activities Are Noted In Club Topics

American youth was discussed in a program presented for the meeting of 1963 Hyperions Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Fred Stitzell, 706 W. 17th. Co-hostess was Mrs. Louis Stallings.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Ken Perry presided during a business session. Mrs. James Duncan introduced Dale Simpson and Bennett Brook, members of Young Americans for Freedom, who talked on the organization and Communist activities in the country. Brook told of the YAFF's purpose and how it was founded. He said that members sell American flags and have proposed to sell patriotic schoolbook covers. Also he said that a new radio program, sponsored by the organization, is presented each Sunday afternoon and is entitled "Youth Speaks Out."

Simpson's subject was "Communist Target—Youth." He pointed out that since 1959 American youth has been and is the number one target of Communists, whose all-out action is moral deterioration. "When this is accomplished, youth is then molded into a Communist personality," Simpson continued. He and Brook then conducted a question and answer period concluding the program.

Refreshments were served from a table spread with white linen cutwork cloth having a centerpiece of yellow jonquils.

Hostesses for the next meeting will be Mrs. Jack Little and Mrs. Hayes Stripling Jr.

Soils Discussed For Garden Club Program

A panel discussion on alkaline and saline soils and moisture conservation was of interest to members of the Big Spring Garden Club meeting Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hogan.

On the panel were Mrs. Allen R. Hamilton and Mrs. D. M. Penn

VA Program Feature Of Club Meet

A business session of the Airport Home Demonstration Club was held Tuesday afternoon in the office of Ara Cunningham at the VA Hospital.

Roll call was answered with names of shut-ins to whom cards should be sent. The president, Mrs. Vern Vigar, announced plans for serving lunch for the Fat Stock Show, March 15: an exhibit to be held at the old Student Union Building at HCC, where all city clubs will display their work; serving cookies, March 28, at the state hospital; sending all occasion cards to sixth floor patients at the VA Hospital; and an egg hunt, April 21, for the VA's sixth floor patients.

Mrs. Vigar distributed Civil Defense pamphlets and called attention to the next meeting, March 20 at 2 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Earnest Miller, 1614 Bluebird.

Miss Cunningham told of volunteer workers in the hospital and announced plans for an orientation program on Thursday morning. After her talk she conducted a tour of the hospital.

The meeting concluded with refreshments served to the seven members and Miss Cunningham.

who told the group that the alkaline soil of this part of the country has an insoluble salt content that has to be fought constantly. To combat this salt the PH value of the soil must be lowered. Organic materials such as humyard fertilizer, compost and peat moss should be added. To improve the structure of the soil, add sand. Other suggestions for countering the alkaline content were additions of sulphur, cotton seed meal and super phosphate. This is generally done in the spring or fall. For better grass, a sulphur mixture added to the fertilizer is beneficial.

The saline soil has a soluble salt and can be eliminated, according to the speakers.

Moisture conservation is achieved by having a good supply of organic material on the soil, good surface mulches or terracing where needed.

Wayland Yateses' Daughter Is Born

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Yates are the parents of another daughter whose name is Diana Dale. She was born March 6 in Abilene, at 8:15 a.m. and weighed seven pounds, three ounces.

Mr. Yates is the former city editor of the Herald and Mrs. Yates worked in the women's news department for several months. Their address in Abilene is 1350

Announcements were made of the Garden Club Council's sale of styrene at the YMCA and of Flower Show School No. 2, in the Robb-Piner room at the Y on April 3, 4, 5. Garden Club Week has been proclaimed by Governor Daniels as March 12-18. District One spring meeting and garden club short course will be held at Tech in Lubbock on March 19-20. The state meeting is slated for April 24, 25, 26 in the Shamrock Hotel, Houston.

As a memorial to the late Mrs. B. L. LeFever, the club will place a horticultural book in the county library. A moment of silent meditation honored her memory.

A colonial arrangement of Dutch iris, roses and daisies placed on a reflector was a centerpiece for the serving table. A pair of bluebirds was the accessory. Mrs. Robert Stripling served coffee.

Foremost Piano Team To Play In Midland

One of the world's foremost two-piano teams, Luboshutz and Nemenoff, will be featured by the Midland Symphony Association at its fourth concert, Saturday evening, March 10, at 8:15 p.m., in the Midland High School Auditorium.

They will perform "Concerto in E Flat for Two Pianos and Orchestra" by Mozart, and "Fantasy on Themes" from "Die Fledermaus" by Johann Strauss. Walter Mantani will conduct.

Pierre Luboshutz and Genia Nemenoff who is Mrs. Luboshutz off-stage are considered among the greatest two-piano teams in the world. The last 23 years they have been playing for audiences the world over, displaying a virtuosity borne of constant teamwork and musical collaboration.

Both were established concert artists when they met in Paris; he conducted a master class for professional pianists, and she was one of the students. Following their marriage, the prospect of separate careers and solo tours seemed unattractive for a happy marital combination, so they joined musical forces and became a two-piano team.

Recently, the duo-pianists appeared on the Bell Telephone Hour on television and performed the Fledermaus themes. It was arranged by Pierre Luboshutz especially for themselves, and is a bravura piece for two pianos and orchestra.

In addition to Mozart and Strauss selections which the orchestra will play with the guest artists, the major orchestration of the evening will be "Symphony No. 8 in C Minor" by Beethoven. Of all orchestral works in the

Lenten Dishes Are Colorful

Something colorful in Lenten dishes is offered in the recipes during the season. Red pimiento and green olives brighten the rice dish and the cocktail sauces for the seafood delicacies.

These tuna "muffins" are an unusual but easy way to use tuna fish. The muffins are actually a sort of timbale but baked in a muffin pan. To give them plenty of zip, they're seasoned with lots of red pimiento and Worcestershire sauce. Green olive slices make a pretty and edible garnish. A sauce is easily made by using condensed cream of mushroom soup diluted with milk.

TUNA "MUFFINS"

- 1-3 cups water
- 1½ tps. salt
- 2-3 cup uncooked white rice
- 1 tps. finely chopped green pepper
- 1 7-oz. can tuna fish, drained and flaked
- 3 whole canned pimientos, chopped
- ¼ tsp. black pepper
- 3 tps. Worcestershire sauce
- 3 eggs
- Stuffed green olive slices for garnish, if desired
- 1 10½-oz. can condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 1 cup milk

Put the water, salt, rice and green pepper in a two-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat down as low as possible. Cover with a lid and leave over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove saucepan from the heat but leave lid on 10 minutes.

After the rice cooks, stir in the tuna fish. Add the pimiento, black pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Stir well. Add the eggs and stir vigorously to mix well. Press the mixture into well greased muffin pans, forming a muffin about 2½ inches in diameter and amounting to a liberal ¼ cup. This recipe makes 12 of these small muffins. (You may use other size muffin pans if you wish larger or smaller servings.)

Place muffin pan in a pan of hot water. Bake in a pre-heated 350 degree F. oven for 45 minutes. Remove from the oven and lift from the pan of hot water. Allow to stand about 5 minutes while muffins stand, cut around the edges. Gently lift out and serve on a hot platter. Garnish each muffin with slices of stuffed green olives, if desired.

Serve with a mushroom sauce made by heating together the mushroom soup and milk. This recipe makes 12 muffins 2½ inches in diameter. Allow two muffins to each serving.

COCKTAILS

An important part of any festive dinner is an attractive appetizer such as a lobster and oyster cocktail which are easy-to-prepare and nutritious. These cocktails should be served in an artistic manner accompanied by a tangy flavorful sauce. The purpose of any appetizer is to create eye appeal and stimulate the appetite.

OYSTER COCKTAIL

- 1½ pints oysters
- Lettuce

Cocktail sauce
Lemon wedges
Drain oysters and dry on absorbent paper. Allow six oysters for each serving and arrange in lettuce cups on individual salad plates. In the center of each plate, place a small container of cocktail sauce. Garnish with lemon. Serves 6.

COCKTAIL SAUCE

- 1 cup catsup
- 2 tps. vinegar
- 1 tps. horseradish
- 1 tps. chopped celery
- 1 tps. chopped onion
- ¼ tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 3 drops tabasco
- Blend all ingredients and chill. Serves 6.

LOBSTER AND ORANGE COCKTAIL

Egg Prices Adjust To Increase

By The Associated Press

Egg prices at Texas markets continue to adjust to increased spring production. So eggs, especially larger sizes, are a stand-out food value this first week of Lent, says the Agriculture Department.

Broilers, turkeys and red meats also are in good supply at reasonable prices. And many markets are providing larger selections of fish.

Florida grapefruit and oranges, priced slightly lower than last week, head the list of good buy, in-season fruits. Winesap and Rome Beauty apples, bananas and lemons continue available in abundance.

Strawberry shipments from Texas and Mexico have increased; prices are some lower. More avocados and Mexican pineapples are available.

For best buys among vegetables, look to carrots, celery, greens and green onions, potatoes, Texas spinach, turnips and rutabagas.

Most Florida vegetables are some higher than last week. These include green beans, corn, eggplant, cucumbers, peppers and squash. Texas cabbage is higher and relatively scarce. Carrots, lettuce and tomatoes also claim higher wholesale price tags in some markets. Onions are slightly lower.

Milk and all dairy foods, peanut products and dry beans are plentiful and all offer valuable protein at attractive prices.

GOLDEN GLOW OF QUALITY

That's what Skinner Macaroni has. A rich appetizing color. A difference you can see and taste. Skinner uses only 100% amber glow wheat... the very best for macaroni products. Next time you buy macaroni, buy Skinner. It tastes better, cooks better, looks better.

Beet Salad Has Color, Substance

Pretty and delicious, this molded beet salad will serve a group.

MOLDED BEET SALAD

- 1 can (1 lb.) whole medium beets
- 4 cups water
- 1 large pkg. (6 ozs.) lemon-flavored gelatin
- 2 cups finely diced celery
- Salad greens and cucumber
- Drain beets and dice. (Reserve beet juice for some other use.)
- Heat 2 cups water to boiling and pour over gelatin, stirring until dissolved; stir in the remaining 2 cups cold water. Place the beets and celery in a ring mold (at least 6 cups); pour in the gelatin mixture; chill until set. The beets will color the gelatin. Unmold; surround with salad greens and put some in the center. Pare and flute cucumber with tines of a fork; slice thin; arrange slices at intervals over jellied mold. Makes 8 to 12 servings.

Spoon Bread Lunch

Spoon bread makes a good luncheon dish when it's served with crisp bacon and fried apple rings or maple syrup.

there's a big difference

Yes, there's a whale of a difference in the freshness of chicken. And Youngblood's Fryers and Fryer Parts are always fresh... a freshness captured at its peak by flash freeze to give you always... a better chicken dinner.

Canned Meats Boost Cook And The Family

There's no need to feel like a Mother Hubbard when you keep plenty of canned meats on your cupboard shelf. Canned meats, always ready at your fingertips, are boosters to the cook as well as to other members of the family. And, canned pork and beef luncheon meat on a fruit-nut stuffing supplies the high-quality, complete meat protein necessary to good nutrition.

Don't miss an opportunity to dress up this convenience food. It takes so little to add a flair with your personal touch. You can play "French chef" and make a flavorful stuffing using ingredients you might happen to have on hand. A combination of dates, nuts, chopped apples, celery and bread cubes is a complement to the layered sliced luncheon meat. Corn relish and lemon-buttered asparagus are added making a colorful meal to brighten the day.

LUNCHEON LOAF ON FRUIT NUT STUFFING
 Yield: 4 servings
 12 oz. can pork and beef luncheon loaf
 2 cups bread cubes
 1 medium red-skinned apple, chopped
 1/4 cup orange juice
 1/4 cup chopped dates
 1/4 cup chopped nuts
 1/4 cup chopped celery
 1 egg
 2 tbsps. melted margarine

GLAZE
 2 tbsps. honey
 2 tbsps. orange juice
 Slice luncheon loaf into 8 slices. Combine remaining ingredients to make stuffing. Place half of the stuffing on the bottom of an 8 by 8 by 2 inch baking dish. Arrange 4 luncheon loaf slices on the stuffing. Place remaining stuffing in baking dish. Top with 4 slices of luncheon loaf. Combine honey and orange juice and spread over luncheon loaf. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1/2 hour.

PRIZE PILAF
 Yield: 6 servings
 12-oz. can pork and beef luncheon loaf
 3 tbsps. chopped onion
 1/2 stick (1/4 cup) melted butter or margarine
 1/4 cup flour
 2 cups milk
 1/2 tsp. salt
 1 cup shredded cheddar cheese
 1 cup cooked rice
 3 tbsps. chopped green pepper
 3 tbsps. chopped pimiento
 1/2 cup chopped peanuts, chow mein noodles or crushed corn flakes

Cook onion in butter until tender but not brown. Add flour and blend. Gradually add milk. Cook until thick and smooth stirring constantly. Add salt. Cook 5 minutes. Blend in cheese until thoroughly combined. Dice luncheon loaf into 1/2 inch cubes. Combine all ingredients except peanuts. Pour into a greased 2 quart shallow baking dish. Sprinkle nuts over top of casserole. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 30 minutes.

Stir Up Some Fun In Advance

By VIVIAN BROWN AP Newsfeatures Writer
 There's a small revolution in the world of young moderns. Girls want to learn to cook. So many of their married friends display culinary talents gleaned from bridal cook books that a girl who can't reciprocate with her own cooking feels left out.

One girl pleads for some recipes that are "inexpensive, keep the kitchen clean, and can be cooked in advance."

Here are some dishes that meet these requirements:

FLANK STEAK
 Here's an inexpensive steak dish, a variation of London Broil. Marinate a flank steak in a mixture of 1/4 cup salad oil, 1/4 cup soy sauce, 3 tablespoons honey, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1 1/2 teaspoons garlic powder, 1/4 teaspoon ginger and 1 onion chopped. Turn the steak occasionally if marinade doesn't over it. When ready to serve, broil 5 minutes on each side in oven or over charcoal grill. Cut it very thin a la London Broil on the slant.

POTATOES AU GRATIN
 A good make - it - in - advance potato dish is this one. Peel and slice two medium potatoes for each person. Put in casserole, salt, pepper, and dot each piece with butter with a layer of sliced onions in between. Sprinkle cheese and breadcrumbs over top. Add milk until it rises to just below the first layer of potatoes. Cook at about 325 degrees until brown on top (about an hour).

EASY CHICKEN
 Place cut-up frying or broiler chicken in flat oven dish. Coat each piece with French dressing. Sprinkle with tarragon. Let stand a couple of hours. Turn chicken over when ready to put in the oven and let cook for an hour or more at 325 degrees until golden brown.

TUNA FISH CASSEROLE
 Here's a favorite dish that is good served with green salad: Melt 2 tablespoons butter, blend in 3 tablespoons of flour, salt and pepper to taste. Add a level teaspoon of mustard and 4 cups of milk. Add a two - inch piece of loaf - type yellow process cheese after sauce has thickened. Cook until cheese melts. Cook a 12-ounce package of egg noodles. Add 2 cans of tuna fish to sauce just before pouring over drained noodles. Put mixture in large casserole dish. Sprinkle cheese and breadcrumbs on top. Place in oven and cook 30 minutes to half-hour. (You could substitute 2 cans of cream of mushroom soup and 2 cups of milk to make sauce, leaving out cheese, but it is better made from scratch.)

COCONUT COOKIES
 And here's an easy-to-make macaroon to serve with sherbert or ice cream. Mix 2 cups grated coconut (a 7-oz. package) with 1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk, dash of salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, dash of almond extract. Drop by spoonful on greased baking sheet about one-inch apart. Bake in moderate oven 325 degrees about 15 minutes or until golden brown. Remove from baking sheet with spatula or pancake turner as soon as pan is removed from oven. This should make 36 macaroons about the size of a half-dollar.

Marguerites At Tea Time

Sunday tea doesn't call for much fancy food but it can be made outstanding with the addition of Spiced Marguerites made from plain saltine crackers.

SPICED MARGUERITES
 1/2 tsp. cream of tartar
 1/4 tsp. ground cinnamon
 1/4 tsp. finely grated orange rind
 1/4 cup sugar
 1 egg white
 16-18 crisp saltines
 Stir cream of tartar, cinnamon and orange rind into sugar. Beat egg white at moderately slow speed until stiff straight peaks form. At moderately high speed, gradually beat in sugar mixture so peaks are very stiff and glossy. Place crackers on cookie sheet; drop heaping teaspoonful of the meringue onto each. Bake in slow (300 degrees) oven about 30 minutes—crackers will be golden brown. Cool in oven with door open. Marguerites may be stored for several days in airtight container. Meringue topping will be crisp.

Lemon Flavored Rice Pudding

This is an easy dessert you can make in a hurry. Put 1/4 cup uncooked white rice, 1 teaspoon salt and 1 1/2 cups water in a two-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat down low. Cover with a lid and leave over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove the saucepan from the heat but leave the lid on 10 minutes. Prepare lemon pudding by the directions on a package of lemon pudding mix. Stir the warm rice into the hot pudding. Follow lemon pudding mix package directions for making a meringue of egg whites. Fold this meringue into the warm rice mixture. Serve hot or cold topped with toasted coconut. This will make about 10 servings.

SPACE NEWS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — When more U.S. astronauts are selected, a Montgomery Negro leader says, a Negro should be among them.

The Rev. Uriah J. Fields, president of the Montgomery Melioration and Restoration Society, reported he had made that quest to Director James B. Webb of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Qualified civilian test pilots will be considered for future space flights, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration says.

A spokesman for NASA said it will be possible to add civilian test pilots because the crews for future projects, such as the two-man Gemini and the three-man Apollo, can be chosen at a more leisurely pace.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — New planes by the dozen have been ordered for Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn, Jr., America's first orbital astronaut.

A 31-member, fifth-grade class at Worthington, a Columbus suburb, voted unanimously to name a pair of experimental rats John and Glenn.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Space administrator James E. Webb says a United States expedition to the moon will bring it back as early as possible.

But Webb, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, added, "I would say 1970 is a better guess, maybe 1969."

Webb told the Advertising Council that NASA cannot conclude from the successful orbiting of Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. that U.S. spacecraft can dispense with some of the elaborate automatic-control devices now used.

Although Glenn did not become ill, the effect of a violent oscillation might make some later astronaut too sick to manage his capsule, Webb said, and automatic control would be essential to keep the craft in proper attitude and bring it home.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A scored rocket fragment found in a South African farm has been identified as a piece of Atlas booster 109D which hurled astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. into orbit.

The 3-foot by 2-foot sheet of metal was flown here Thursday and markings stamped on the surface definitely labeled it as part of the fuel tank on Glenn's rocket. Identification was made by General Dynamics-Astronautics, maker of the Atlas.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. says the day will come when man will cruise the skies much as he now maneuvers his automobile on the highways.

To travel in space like that, Glenn said in congressional testimony, spacecraft many times more powerful than the Friendship 7 in which he orbited the globe three times will have to be developed.

When they are, Glenn said, a pacemaker will be able to steer wherever his curiosity dictates, or from one orbit to another as in a sky auto.

Then, the Marine lieutenant colonel said, "Man will really take his rightful place in space."

Glenn said the hydrogen peroxide jets on his space capsule could change only its attitude, roll, pitch or yaw, not its path.

And, he said, the more powerful retro (braking) rockets could slow him down to take him out of orbit and start his fall to earth.

Meachams Treasure A Memory Of Okinawans

Culture and etiquette of the Far East is not surpassed according to those who have lived with and among the Orientals. Women of these countries are gentle and practice daily the good manners which they learned in childhood, according to Mrs. Benjamin Meacham, wife of Chaplain Meacham at Webb Air Force Base. The Meachams and their daughter, Marilyn, lived for two years in Okinawa where Japanese culture prevails.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Meacham had as her guest, Naomi Sullivan, daughter of S. Sgt. and Mrs. William F. Sullivan. Naomi, whose mother is Japanese, was born in Tokyo and remembers much about her home in Japan. Attired in traditional dress of her country, a poppy red, embroidered kimono and obi, Naomi was much at ease seated upon a cushion while sipping tea. She wore the tube (split-toed socks) and zori (thonged slippers). While serving cookies, tea and coffee, Mrs. Meacham explained that according to tradition the obi is where Japanese women carry their troubles so that they will be behind them. One such obi, or wedding sash, she has used for upholding her handsome "obi" chair in the living room.

The tea set was a farewell gift from a blind friend in Okinawa and on the day of the interview, words were received from him stating that the doctors in Japan have reported that he may see again. This was a joyous occasion in the Meacham household and a time for celebrating with Naomi, who is a music pupil of Mrs. Meacham's at Airport School. The tea service of delicate china was brought forth on a silver tray and Mrs. Meacham pointed out that when the little tea cups are held by a Japanese it is always turned so that the flowers may be seen by the person seated opposite.

The low table where tea was served was a reminder of Okinawa where often meals were cooked and served at the table. "The habachi was placed on the table and a wonderful meal was prepared as you watched," Mrs. Meacham stated. "Sukiyaki was one of the dishes cooked in this manner," she continued. An American-Chinese wife of a Presbyterian chaplain gave the instructions for Sesame Chicken Salad a la Chinese and Mrs. Meacham's maid, Chiyoko Yasutomi Michiko Shinzato, gave her Chiyoko's Fried Rice recipe.

A treasured volume in the Meachams' kitchen is the "Sugar and Spice from Near and Far" cookbook. This book was compiled by the NAHA Protestant Chapel Guild at the Okinawa Air Base, to help Okinawan students at the Christian Institute, Okinawa. Mrs. Meacham has chosen only a few of their favored recipes, ones which she believes could be prepared with little effort.

Chicken sukiyaki is prepared in the same manner by adding boned, sliced chicken. This dish is usually served with a fresh raw egg, beaten with a fork or chopsticks, never an egg beater.

SESAME CHICKEN SALAD A LA CHINESE
This salad is usually served as one of the dishes during a Chinese banquet. The secret is to shred everything very fine and add salad dressing just before serving. Something very different.
2 cups shredded cooked chicken
1/4 cup shredded green onions
1/4 cup chopped peanuts
1/4 cup sesame seeds
2 cups shredded lettuce
1/4 cup salad oil or sesame oil
2 tps. mustard
1/4 cup soy sauce

Toss together first five ingredients. Mix oil, mustard and soy sauce well; pour on salad when ready to serve, toss lightly.

CHIYOKO'S FRIED RICE
1 1/2 cup rice
2 tps. grease
1/4 pound ground meat
2 wieners sliced in thin rounds or 1 pkg. wieners in place of ground meat
1 to 2 tps. soy sauce
1/4 cup chopped green onion
2 eggs, scrambled and chopped
Cook rice and cool. Fry meats and onion in bacon grease; add soy sauce and seasoning, eggs and rice. Warm and serve.

SWEET AND SOUR PORK
1 1/2 lbs. pork steak, cubed
1 egg, beaten
Cracker meal
1 onion, sliced
2 stalks celery, diced
1 can pineapple chunks
2 green peppers, diced
1 carrot, sliced
2 tps. flour
4 Tbsps. vinegar
2 tps. soy sauce
Dip pork in egg and coat with cracker meal. Fry in deep fat and drain. Brown onions and celery, drain pineapple, reserving chunks; combine juice with onions and celery. Make thickening of flour, vinegar and soy sauce; combine with first mixture, boil for five minutes. Add green pepper, sliced carrot and pineapple chunks. Toss meat and sauce together and serve over rice.

CHINESE EGG ROLL
1/4 cup flour
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 cup water
2 eggs
Sift flour, measure; sift again with salt. Add water and eggs, beat until smooth. Grease and heat a 9 inch skillet. Pour thin layer of batter in hot skillet. Tip skillet so mixture forms a very thin pancake. Cook over moderate heat until golden brown on one side. Remove and place on flat surface to cool. Makes four. FILLING

1/4 small onion
1/4 cup bean sprouts
1/4 cup cooked pork or chicken
1/4 cup tuna fish
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. monosodium glutamate
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 tps. soy sauce
Chop onion, bean sprouts, meat in small pieces. Flake fish. Mix with seasoning and soy sauce. Place spoonfuls of filling on uncooked side of each pancake; roll tightly, folding inside. Seal with toothpicks and fry in deep fat at 360 degrees.

Pork Complemented By Waldorf Salad
This favorite salad is particularly good to serve with pork.

WALDORF SALAD
4 medium green apples
1 cup thinly sliced celery
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 tsp. sugar
Salt to taste
Lettuce
1/4 cup coarsely broken walnuts
1 drained pimiento
Pare, quarter and core apples; cut into thin fan-shaped pieces. Mix with celery, mayonnaise, sugar and salt. Arrange on lettuce. Sprinkle with walnuts; garnish with strips or small fancy shapes of pimiento. Makes 6 servings. If eating apples are used, omit sugar.

SUKIYAKI
1 1/2 lbs. beef sirloin sliced 1/4 inch thin
2 onions, sliced thin
1 bunch green onions
1 cup fresh or canned mushrooms sliced
1 bunch watercress
4 green peppers sliced, cut diagonally in 1/2 inch pieces
1 cup thinly sliced bamboo shoots
1 pkg. frozen french string beans, cut across
1 cup shredded Oriental cabbage (long)
Sukiyaki sauce
Rice (serves four)

Arrange the sliced, fresh vegetables and meat ahead of time on an attractive platter and keep refrigerated. Use an electric skillet, or a rather heavy pan, large enough to hold everything, over a hot plate. The main idea is to cook while eating so that fresh, hot sukiyaki is always ready. If one prefers the meat rare, or the onions on the raw side, it can be prepared right at the table to individual order.

Melt some suet in pan and quickly cook vegetables, excepting watercress. Turn the vegetables. Add the meat and saute with half of the sukiyaki sauce and a little water. Add cleaned watercress sprigs. No ingredient should cook long, as crispness is desired. Sukiyaki is served along with rice. Add extra sukiyaki sauce for the necessary moisture.

Canned Luncheon Meat Can Be Company Dish

Keep handy canned luncheon meat on your canned goods shelf. It can be a life-saver, or rather, a meal-saver many times. With the easy recipe below, you can transform the canned meat into a real little gem of a main dish for six. The recipe also uses tomato sauce, ketchup, canned mushrooms, rice and bacon—other real convenience foods usually on hand. Slices of bacon are wrapped around strips of luncheon meat and secured with toothpicks. These are slowly cooked in a skillet until the bacon is crisp. Then tomato sauce, ketchup and succulent canned mushrooms are added. Quick, isn't it?

To show off the tomato-meat flavor, the meat and sauce are served over fluffy white rice. Notice how easily you can add extra flavor to rice by cooking garlic, chopped onion and green pepper in with the rice.

MEAT IN A BLANKET
1 12-oz. can luncheon meat
6 strips bacon
1 8-oz. can tomato sauce
1/4 cup ketchup
1 3-oz. can chopped broiled mushrooms
1 cup uncooked white rice
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. black pepper

2 cups water
1/4 cup thinly sliced green onions or chopped onions
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
1 clove garlic, minced
Split the loaf of luncheon meat in half. Cut each half into 3 pieces. Wrap a strip of bacon around each piece of meat securing both ends of the bacon with toothpicks.

Place in a cold skillet. Cook over a medium heat until the bacon is crisp on all sides. Pour off the fat as it cooks out of the bacon.

Add the tomato sauce, ketchup, mushrooms and their liquid. Simmer about 10 minutes. Add water if a thinner sauce is desired.

About 30 minutes before the meal, put the rice, salt, black pepper, water, onions, green pepper and garlic in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil over a high heat.

Turn the heat down low. Cover with a lid and simmer over low heat 14 minutes. Remove the saucepan from the heat but leave the lid on until time to serve, at least 10 minutes.

To serve, place the rice on a hot platter. Arrange the meat over the rice. Pour on the sauce.

This recipe makes 6 servings.

Lenten Food Supply Plentiful At Market

By The Associated Press

Lenten meal planners will find good supplies of fish at markets this weekend.

This holds true for almost all parts of the country. An exception is the Midwest, where fish is in short supply and prices are up from a year ago.

Among other Lenten favorites, eggs are still very reasonably priced throughout the country.

For non-Lenten meals, there are a variety of bargains in red meats and, regionally, poultry.

Chuck roasts are almost a universal beef feature, but steaks and ground meat are also attractively priced in many stores. Pork is not quite as much of a bargain as in recent weeks, but shoulders and smoked picnics are specials at many markets.

Frying chickens may be up a penny or two many places but they remain a good buy. So do turkeys.

Recent severe weather in the South has cast a pall over some vegetable prospects, notably new potatoes and cabbage, with price rises possible.

Weekend bargains will include spinach, green beans, carrots, celery, lettuce, onions and squash. Fruit favorites are apples, oranges, grapefruit, avocados, bananas and, regionally, strawberries.

Grab Two For Safety First

One way to increase the safety of your bathroom—the most accident-prone room in your house—is to install two ceramic grab-bars in your bath and shower enclosure. Set one low, just above the tub line, and the second at a convenient height for the average adult. Two grab-bars set firmly in the ceramic tile wall will give an extra measure of safety in slippery tub areas. The lower bar should be in easy reach of youngsters.
