Supreme Court Puts Life Into Representation Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Supreme Court has pumped judicial life into the issue of whether a state can adopt amendments to its own constitution giving rural voters greater proportionate voice in the state legislature than city voters.

It directed that the Michigan Supreme Court consider, in the light of the U. S. Supreme Court ruling March 26 in a Tennessee case, whether amendments Michigan adopted to its constitution in 1962 are in violation of the federal Constitution. The Michigan Supreme Court had dismissed a complaint raising the issue.

In the Tennessee case, the high court had ruled that federal courts may hear complaints by voters who say their votes are diluted by an unfair apportionment of state legislative seats.

WIDE CONTROVERSY

Both cases bear with variations on an issue of great controversy in numerous states: A contention that a minority of rural voters is able, through unfair apportionment of seats, to control the state legislature.

In Tennessee, there is a reapportionment act which complainants in the case contended had not been carried out.

In Michigan, the apportionment had been written by amendments into the state constitution.

In the only other action of national implications, the high court refused to consider an appeal based on complaints against an alcohol tax agent's using a tape recorder to record a conversation by telephone with a suspected seller of bootleg whiskey.

The case came from Atlanta, and the Circuit Court of Appeals had ruled there was no violation of the Federal Communications Act since the agent was simply recording something he could have testified about.

GROSSLY UNEQUAL

The Michigan case came before the U. S. Supreme Court in an appeal by August Scholle, who sued on behalf of himself and as president of the Michigan State AFL-CIO. Scholle contended the amendments to the state constitution set up permanent districts which were grossly unequal in population.

Monday's action by the U. S. Supreme Court was a three-line order which said merely the decision of the Michigan Supreme Court in dismissing Scholle's complaint was set aside and the case was remanded to the Michigan Supreme Court for further consideration in the light of Baker vs. Carr.

The Baker vs. Carr case was the one decided March 26.

The Baker vs. Carr case involved similar complaints by Tennessee metropolitan voters.

Justice Harlan wrote a dissent in Monday's action, and the court noted that Justice Frankfurter took no part.

In the Baker vs. Carr decision, both Harlan and Frankfurter dissented.

NO VIEWS ON CLAIM

Justice Clark and Stewart wrote a concurring opinion to the action. This said that the order reflected no views by the Supreme Court on Scholle's claim that equal protection of law was denied him.

"It may well turn out," the opinion said, "that the assertion of invidious discriminations is not borne out by the record. Monday's order simply reflects our belief that the Michigan Supreme Court should be the first to consider the merits of the federal constitutional claim, free from any doubts as to its justiciability."

Harlan's dissent said Scholle's appeal should either be dismissed for lack of a substantial federal question or the court should note that it has probable jurisdiction and agree to hear argument on behalf of Scholle.

Scholle's appeal alleged violation of the constitutional guarantees of due process of law and equal protection of law.

TAPE RECORDING

In the Georgia case, the resulting tape record was admitted in evidence in U. S. District Court in Atlanta, over protests by defense attorneys. They cited a section of the Federal Communications Act providing that "no persons not being authorized by the sender shall intercept any communication and divulge or publish the existence or contents" of the communication.

Upholding use of the ear piece device and admission of the recorded conversation, the U. S. Circuit Court in New Orleans stated: "Taking a sensible view of it, the only difference between a person testifying to a conversation in which he participated or overheard and a recording of the conversation is that the recording has the advantage of furnishing trustworthy evidence."

The Circuit Court also referred to a 1957 Supreme Court opinion in another case.

QUESTION OF SECRECY

The high tribunal then stated: "The clear inference is that one entitled to receive the communication may use it for his own benefit or have another use it for him. One party may not force the other to secrecy merely by using a telephone."

The appeal acted on today was filed by Ralph B. Carnes and Roger W. Smallwood, who were convicted in the Atlanta court. Carnes was sentenced to four years on a conspiracy count. Smallwood got three years on charges of conspiracy and possession of whiskey and a still.

The appeal was rejected by the Supreme Court in a brief order which made no comment. Justice Douglas noted that he favored hearing the case.

WHAT FOR?

By A Christian Writer

If we deny that baptism is for salvation, then we are at loss to tell what it is for. Nowhere does the Bible say that it is for a testimony to others, or that it is just a symbol, or that it is for joining a church. Surely this command, like all others, has a purpose. The Bible says it is "for the remission of sins," or to wash away thy sins" (by Christ's blood, of course); that "baptism doth also now save us"; that "he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved" (Acts 2:38; Acts 22:16; I Pet. 3:21; Mark 16:16).

Be it understood that baptism is not for salvation unless it is an expression of faith in Christ and a picture of repentance, which is in our hearts (Gal. 3:26; Rom. 6:3, 4; Acts 17:30).

Now in progress: Wednesday night lecture series. Speaker this Wednesday, 7:30 p.m., Darrell Flint, from Forsan. Subject: "Educating Our Children."

You are always welcome at the church of Christ, 3500 West Highway 80, T. H. Tavel, preacher (on Australian preaching mission 'til May 15) Box 1283, -adr.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a Texas firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment that is not only stopping hair loss... but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If your symptoms indicate that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. This is all the more remarkable in light of the fact that the great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped. But how can any man or woman be sure what is actually causing their hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Actually, there are 18 scalp disorders that can cause hair loss.

No matter which one is the cause of your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. If you still have hair (or at least some fuzz) on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... it is the time to act.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them information to help them analyze your problem. This information should include how long your hair has been thinning, and whether or not you now have or ever have had any of the following conditions: Do you have dandruff? Is it dry or oily? whether your scalp erupts in pimples or other irritations, does your forehead become oily or greasy? does your scalp itch and how often? and any other information you feel might be helpful. All letters will be answered promptly. Send the above information, and your name and address to Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., Box 66001, Houston 6, Texas.

When there is an interference in this spinal nerve section of your central nervous system, almost any organ or gland will become weakened or irritated. If your transmission lines are clear, you can be sure your health will be normal. To be sure, you might do as this case taken from our clinic files:

This woman came to the clinic complaining of headaches, extreme nervousness, pains in the hands, trouble with the arms and sides, leg cramps, nervousness and the final complaint of fatigue. She had obtained other treatment which had helped one or the other symptoms but they always returned. She was X-rayed and the cause located in the spine. The causes in her case prevented normal function of the body and so when correction had taken place she told me that she would not take a million dollars for the good that she had received. This was all new to her as she had never tried Chiropractic before and she had never realized how Chiropractic corrected the cause of physical difficulties. We saw her this spring and she is still feeling good.

Why don't you start feeling good? Hansen Chiropractic Clinic, across from Piggly Wiggly, is open until 6 each evening. Call AM 3-3324 for an appointment for an examination to determine if your spine is the cause. —Adv.

WHY AM I ALWAYS TIRED?

By HALVARD T. HANSEN, D.C.

You're as peppy as your nerves permit! If you are slowing up, you'll find that your life energy transmission lines are faulty. Instead of investigating, we generally blame constant fatigue on the weather, overwork, too many social obligations, etc. Result—we often put off a physical check-up until we hear of a friend dropping dead of a heart attack, or some other physical impairment that moves us to "wonder."

The human body has the ability to compensate for its own loss or injury—and it has its own warning signals such as headaches, fevers, skin eruptions, dizziness, changes of weight, indigestion, nausea, difficult breathing, etc. Fatigue is one of the most common symptoms of physical impairment. When the body loses its ability to adapt, alter or compensate for itself, it is sick! We find ill health is usually the result of faulty body mechanics resulting from defective nerves—and usually the sick patient can't relax, can't sleep or rest because their nerve system is too heavily taxed—too burdened with spinal pressures and other interferences.

DEAR ABBY

What Causes Suspicion?

DEAR ABBY: We had a discussion about the letter in your column from "Neighbor Lady" who noticed, while cleaning her venetian blinds, that a high school couple stood out in front of her house for an hour looking into each other's eyes, holding hands and acting so in love right there on the sidewalk. She asked if she should tell that girl's mother because that's the way trouble starts. And you gave her one of your smart alec answers like, "You must have the cleanest Venetian blinds in town. Now go to work on your mind."

HOUSTON: I say she should put on a neat housedress every morning. Stubbishness is "old-fashioned" in modern living, too.

DEAR ABBY: I think you were wrong. You should have told her to tell the girl's mother. That IS the way trouble starts with those boy-crazy girls. Please retract your answer.

DEAR DEEP: Each son and daughter should contribute according to his or her capabilities, for the deceased was the father of all of them.

ANOTHER NEIGHBOR LADY DEAR ANOTHER LADY: Sorry, but I can't retract my answer. Just what did YOU do in high school that makes you suspicious of every teen-age girl who holds hands with a boy, and is the open yet?

DEAR DEEP: You are mistaken. Pizza is NOT pie. It is bread. And no one eats pizza with a knife and fork. An Italian would so more think of eating pizza with a fork than a Mexican would think of eating tacos with a fork. Thank you. DIANE

DEAR ABBY: I've been married for four months. I'm 44 and my wife is 40. She insists on doing her housework in her nightgown. I think she ought to put on some clothes, especially to hang the laundry on the line. She says it is old-fashioned and I say I don't care if it is. What is your opinion? DEAR ABBY: I think you are wrong. You should have told her to tell the girl's mother. That IS the way trouble starts with those boy-crazy girls. Please retract your answer.

Although active in duties with the United Nations, Irene Dunne still finds time to return to the theatre. She says acting is her true love. Recent appearances have been on "GE Theatre" on CBS.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Irene Dunne Believes In Keeping Flexible

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD—Every once in a while, Irene Dunne takes time off from her duties with the United Nations to return to her old love, "acting." At CBS the other day I visited with her on the "GE Theatre" set. The director stopped to chat a moment. "Isn't she beautiful?" he exclaimed.

"That's not just flattery," I said. "You look marvelous and your figure is divine. What's your secret?"

"Some people say you are what you eat," Miss Dunne replied, "and there is a great deal of truth in that; but it is not the whole picture. I believe that you also are what you think. When you are young, what is inside does not show, but with maturity your interior living is reflected in your face to build or destroy beauty, depending on the quality."

"Maturity is a desirable state, and women who try to escape it appear rather ridiculous. And those who make no effort to cultivate it are missing a joy of life." Miss Dunne was called before the cameras, and as she rose quickly and walked across the stage, there was a youthful flexibility about her that made me ask as soon as she returned, "Do you exercise every day?"

"I try to. You have to use your body if you want it to continue to work for you."

I wanted to hear more about her routine and she said, "It is mostly for circulation and stretching. One of my favorites is to stand and raise my hands above my head, and then rotate myself. It keeps my waist slim and gives me a good stretch."

"I enjoy standing in a doorway and kicking back and forth as high as I can, keeping my head up and my knees straight. Sometimes I do knee bends, and sometimes I sit on the floor, hug my knees and rock back and forth.

"This keeps my hips slim, and for flexibility of the spine, I like to do a half somersault. I used to play a lot of golf. I worked to get a low handicap, but one thing that always surprised me was despite all the walking that one did, not too many of the players had good figures. We use so few muscles in our way of life today that a routine of gymnastics is necessary to keep the body in shape. The important thing is to be consistent. My favorite time for exercising is before I go to bed. There are no interruptions, and I can sleep well after a workout."

The conversation flowed to food, and Miss Dunne was most enthusiastic about the need of fresh vitamins and minerals found in raw fruits and vegetables.

"Everyone agrees that cooking takes away some of the nutritional value, so I like to have mine raw. I find it very revitalizing to drink fresh vegetable juices. I have a wonderful machine that eliminates the pulp, and in a matter of seconds I can fill a glass with juices of carrots, spinach, cucumbers or any combination I want to make."

"I persuaded a friend of mine, an older man who was quite exhausted, to buy one of these juicing machines, and it was remarkable the way he responded. His vitality picked up, and he was able to work twice as hard without getting tired."

"Fatigue is a destroyer," she pointed out. "I have all too often allowed myself to become completely exhausted. This is foolish, and now I have too much respect for the gift of health to abuse my body that way."

"I have been procrastinating, but as soon as I finish this show, I'm going on a spring cleaning diet. I shall have nothing cooked. I'm going to rid my body of the accumulation of toxics with a combination of raw vegetable and fruit juices. It is always surprising how satisfying this diet is. The calories may not be high, but I'm never hungry or tired when I'm on it."

Everyone who sees Irene Dunne remarks about her beauty and youthful figure. This is no inherited gift, but the results of a plan to care for her body, which she refers to as "my house."

As a favor to her many fans Miss Dunne has given Lydia Lane her own special diet. Leaflet M-100, "Irene Dunne's House Cleaning Diet," is different from any other diet ever offered. It isn't necessarily one for losing weight. It is more for ridding your body of toxics and making you feel invigorated and alive. For your copy of this brand-new sensationally effective diet, send only 10 cents and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane Big Spring Herald.

40 Years Old - Proud Of Middle Mark

By JOY MILLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The slender smiling wife of the new Soviet ambassador makes no bones about the fact that she's 40—and happy about it.

"I don't feel my 40 years," said Irina Nikolaevna Dobrynin, apple-cheeked and pretty. "I think it is a good age for a woman. You can understand so much more than when you are younger. You think more deeply. Yes, it is much better."

She came to this conclusion Monday night during an interview at a reception she and her 42-year-old husband, Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin gave for a group of eight Russian professional women on a month's tour of this country.

Although they've been in their Washington post only five weeks, the Dobrynins have spent seven of the last 10 years in this country, first on his assignments in Washington and later when he was an undersecretary of the United Nations.

An everyday kind of English is something she has learned in her years in this country.

"When I first came in 1952 I couldn't understand a word although I had studied it in Moscow," she said.

Her only child, Elena, 14, wants to teach English, she said with mingled amusement and pride. The girl is now in school in Moscow, living with Mrs. Dobrynin's widowed mother.

Both the ambassador and his wife hold engineering degrees. They met as students at the Moscow Aviation Institute.

"There were only a few girls," she recalled. "I was always interested in mathematics and technical things."

After graduating she worked in an aviation plant until Elena was born.

As for fashion she said, looking down at the chic black little nothing dress she was wearing, "I don't go to any particular designer. When I see something I like, I buy it. I think every woman likes good dresses."

Well Near Snyder In Flames

SNYDER (AP)—A small explosion as workmen tried to seal off escaping gas turned an oil well into a roaring column of flames late Monday.

Workmen were pulling tubing when the explosion occurred. The cause has not yet been determined. The blaze destroyed a giant oil rig truck, another truck and a portable rig. Estimates of the loss ranged up to $100,000.

Flames leaped 100 feet into the air at the well, the Watson No. 2 on the Winston Brothers Ranch one-half mile south of here in West Texas. There were no injuries.

Snyder Fire Chief Warren Boyd said seven or eight workmen were able to escape unharmed because the blaze spread slowly.

Extreme heat forced firefighters to keep their distance from the well. They blamed the pressure of escaping gas for a rumbling noise in the earth.

Operators said they were trying to get in touch with Red Adair, famed oil field fire expert from Houston. He was reported to be in Algiers.

Soto believes his five-year effort, which was about to start paying off, would have been the first attempt to sell palm trees on a large scale. The packaged trees were to have been sold in supermarkets and department stores.

Hearing Set For Review Of Colorado River

The Colorado River Municipal Water District will be represented at a May 22 hearing in Ballinger for a review of the Colorado River and its tributaries.

The order of hearing announced by the U. S. Corps of Engineers said that the purpose is to develop multi-purpose plans of improvement for the Colorado River Basin in the interest of navigation, flood control and allied purposes.

E. V. Spence, CRMWD general manager, expressed curiosity as to the hearing inasmuch as the U. S. Study Commission-Texas report has just completed a monumental review and report on this same subject. All state and local as well as federal agencies had come together with the information of the Colorado River basin and this was used as the basis for a generalized master plan of development.

The U. S. Army Engineers, however, indicated that it has pending an order for such a hearing.

Road Job To Caldwell

W. D. Caldwell, Big Spring, Tuesday was awarded the contract to pave 11 miles of newly constructed county road and seal coat 16 1/2 miles of old road.

Caldwell had bid $27,270.31 for the job. He told the county commissioners that he was ready to begin work at once—"we can start tomorrow, if that's what you want," he said.

The commissioners had delayed deciding which of four bids to accept. The bids were opened Monday morning. Jones Paving and Dirt Co., Big Spring, was the low bidder with a bid originally $28,897.63. It was discovered later that the contractor had made an error in multiplication and that actually his bid was $25,897.63.

This posed a problem for the commissioners, who debated if this was a changed bid made after the others had been opened and considered.

Mr. Hayden moved that Caldwell's bid, which was second low, be accepted on the basis that an error had been noted in the Jones' bid and that Caldwell's organization has men and machinery for the job immediately available.

Roads to be paved are five miles on the Center Point road; four miles on the Vealmoor to Gay Hill road; one mile on the Catholic church road and one mile on the Allendale Street in Worth Peeler addition.

The roads to be sealcoated are five miles on the Moss Creek Lake road; three miles on the Moore road; one-half mile each on the West Knott, Eason Nursery and Forsan road and one and one-half miles on the Driver road.

West Texas Sand and Gravel Co. was awarded contract to furnish gravel for the jobs.

Commissioners Refuse To Pay Trip Expenses

Howard County Commissioners Court refused Monday to pay the expenses of Mrs. Zarah LeFevre, county tax assessor to attend the professional conference of tax collectors and assessors in San Antonio.

Mrs. LeFevre called attention of the commissioners to the meeting which is to be May 7-9. She also cited a letter from Robert S. Calvert, comptroller of public accounts, in which he pointed out that SB 394 passed by the regular session of the 55th Legislature, created the conference and provides that all necessary and actual expenses for meals, lodging and transportation to these conferences may be allowed by the county.

Mrs. LeFevre estimated that her expenses would not exceed $75 for the conference, which she told the commissioners was important in that it offered opportunities for her to learn ways to improve the efficiency of her office.

Her request for expense allowance was denied on a motion by Joe Hayden, seconded by Rufus Stallings, Ralph White abstained from voting and the motion carried 3-0.

Eleven regular members of the club were on hand for the meeting. George Shipley is president of the club.

J. A. Peugh Dies Tuesday

John Allen Peugh, 90, of the Knott Community, died Tuesday morning in a local hospital after a lengthy illness. He was a retired farmer and had lived in Howard County since 1911 when he moved from Stephenville.

Mr. Peugh was born Feb. 9, 1872 in Alabama. He married Miss Adeline Barteaux in 1932 in Walters, Okla.

Funeral will be conducted from the Nalley-Pickle chapel at 2 p.m. Thursday with the Rev. Vernon Tin, pastor of the Knott Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park under the direction of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

Survivors include five sons, J. E. Peugh, Knott, M. O. Peugh, Plainview, H. B. Peugh, Tulsa, Okla., N. A. Peugh and H. D. Peugh, Santa Barbara, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. W. T. Shockley, Knott, Mrs. C. V. Hewitt, Big Spring, Mrs. Eula Bayes, Wichita Falls; a step-son, J. H. Puckett, Snyder; a brother, R. B. Peugh, Lubbock; 28 grandchildren, and 15 great-grandchildren.

Scattered showers or occasional light rain fell early in the day east of an irregular line linking Palacios, Waco, Abilene and Childress.

Fog hung low at a number of places. It was cloudy and humid in most other sections except for occasional patches of clear sky in extreme Northwest Texas.

Drenching rains moving across North Central Texas Monday evening caused the Weather Bureau to post alerts against flash flooding. Water rising faster than it could drain blocked dozens of underpasses in the populous Dallas-Fort Worth area for a time.

Another special warning against light flooding went out for the South Texas area along the Neuse River from Tilden to Three Rivers. Many other streams threatened to leave their banks and spread into low areas in the wake of downpours measuring up to 4.75 inches at Realitas near Alice and on the J. B. Chadwick Ranch southeast of Hondo.

The rainfall brought welcome relief for South Texas farmers and ranchers. Some had seen no appreciable moisture since last October.

Farmers who had delayed planting because the soil was too dry were expected to start sowing thousands of acres.

Showers or drizzle fell early Tuesday at Abilene, Fort Worth, Dallas, Childress, Wichita Falls, Tyler, Lufkin, College Station, Palacios and Galveston.

It was foggy at Austin, Cotulla, Houston, Longview and Texarkana.

Occasional showers were expected to continue into Tuesday night over East Texas and parts of Central Texas, while clear to partly cloudy skies were in prospect for West Texas by evening.

Magazine Reports Ike Was Jittery Over U-2 Program

NEW YORK (AP)—President Dwight D. Eisenhower expressed fear at the time he approved the U-2 spy plane program in 1955 that one of the planes might fall into Soviet hands, an article in Look magazine says.

That was five years before the U-2 piloted by Francis Gary Powers crashed in the Soviet Union, heightening the crisis in relations between the two nations.

An article in the current issue of the magazine quotes friends of Eisenhower as saying he told advisers when he approved the program:

"If one of these planes is shot down, this is going to be on my head. I'm going to catch hell. The world would be in a mess."

The article quoted the advisers as replying that the Soviets wouldn't disclose it because they wouldn't run the risk of being humiliated by the revelation that their spies had been invaded repeatedly.

"The President was not convinced," the magazine article said. "They would protest, he felt, because that would be the only way to stop the flights."

The article said the President in 1958 expressed continued misgivings about the project in a conversation with his press secretary, James C. Hagerty.

It said he told Hagerty that he often had asked the Central Intelligence Agency: "What happens if you're caught?" And the CIA always replied, "It hasn't happened yet."

The Look article, "The Secret History of the U-2," also said that Allen W. Dulles, then CIA director, inspected records of the routine preflight psychological examination Powers took just before his last flight.

"If he (Dulles) had been the agent on the scene, he decided, he would not have sent Powers over the Soviet Union that day," the article said.

It added that Dulles "did not reveal the specific reasons for his reservations about Powers."

Powers was captured, convicted of spying and sentenced to prison. He recently was freed in exchange for Col. Rudolf Abel, a Soviet spy convicted in the United States.

The Look article was written by David Wise of the New York Herald Tribune's Washington bureau and Thomas B. Ross of the Chicago Sun-Times Washington bureau.

Woman Sets Flight Records
HANNOVER, Germany (AP)—Jacqueline Cochran flew a four-engine jet 5,120 miles from New Orleans to West Germany at an average speed of 489 miles per hour Sunday and claimed 49 new flight records.

The noted American flyer—first woman to break the sound barrier—said her Lockheed jet "Scarlett O'Hara" had reached a top speed of 620 m.p.h. during the three-leg flight.

Miss Cochran, wife of financier Floyd Odlum, took off from New Orleans with three companions at 1:20 a.m. Sunday and landed at Hannover at 3 p.m. EST after refueling stops at Gander, Nfld., and Shannon, Ireland.

The National Aeronautics Association said her claim of 49 records was the largest ever submitted for a single flight.

Miss Cochran previously had set 33 national and international records. Sixteen of these are still unbroken.

Special Counseling Class Reports 32 Are Enrolled
Enrollment reached 32 Monday night at the second class period in the short course on interviewing, problem solving and counseling being offered by the evening division of Howard County Junior College.

"That should be about all who will register," Tolford Durham, instructor, said.

Durham noted that the number included representatives from eight credit unions. The course is designed especially for persons working in a counseling capacity with credit unions, but it can be useful for anyone who deals in a counseling capacity, he said.

T. J. Compton, area supervisor for the Department of Public Welfare, and Erwin Fisher, manager of the Social Security Office, will be visiting instructors at the session Monday. They will take up "Human Motivation."

Other subjects included in the eight-week course are counseling, obstruction to communication, motives, goals, perceptions and tensions, problem solving, the art of questioning and techniques of counseling.

Guilty Pleas Draw Sentences
Two pleas of guilty were heard in 118th District Court Tuesday morning.

He allegedly stole a Gibson electric guitar belonging to Juanita McDonald. The offense occurred March 24. He was arrested, officers said, with the stolen guitar in his possession.

Yester Z. Riley, indicted for forgery, drew a three-year suspended sentence. He was accused of attempting to pass a forged check for $82.41 on March 1 at the Cannon Shoe Store.

District Attorney Faces Busy Schedule During May

Gil Jones, district attorney, faces a busy month ahead.

Sometime about the end of April or perhaps the first of May, he must be in Rusk to oppose a motion by John Edwin Myers, convicted murderer, for a new trial. Jones has had his investigator, Bobby West, in Cherokee County recently looking for ammunition to counter the defendant's plea for another trial.

Myers was found guilty in Rusk of the Sept. 1 murder of Arthur DeKraai, an Iowa hitchhiker, shot to death near here. The jury assessed death as Myers' punishment. He is seeking a new trial on the grounds that there was misconduct in the jury room.

On the heels of the Rusk hearing, Jones must be in Houston in U. S. District Court to oppose a habeas corpus petition brought by V. A. Gomez, Gomez, under seven year sentence for receiving and concealing stolen property, is seeking to get out of the state penitentiary by the writ of habeas corpus route.

On May 15, Jones has to be back in Big Spring where the Howard County grand jury, in recess, will resume its investigations. The grand jurors are investigating an oil case in which petroleum produced on one lease has been allegedly stolen and trucked to another lease.

On May 21, Jones will be in 118th District Court to represent the Howard County School Board and the Big Spring Independent School District in the trial of the suit to test the validity of an annexation order attaching the Gay Hill and Center Point common school districts to the Big Spring district.

The case, which has been on file for a year, has been returned to this court for trial on its own merits.

Borden, Garza Dispute Tax Collections

Garza County, defendant in a lawsuit brought by Borden County in 118th District Court over certain lands on the border of the two counties, has filed its answer denying the allegations set up by the plaintiff county.

The answer also suggests that if Borden County pursues the case, that Scurry, Lynn and Dawson counties should be added to the list of defendants. The answer states that the boundaries of these counties, like that of Garza County, join with Borden County. Borden County, the Garza County answer states, seeks to change abstract records of the State Land office on specific sections of land. If any such changes are to be made, the defendant alleges that the State Land Commissioner must be made a defendant as he is an indispensable party in the suit.

G. P. Webb is attorney for Garza County. R. H. Weaver, Big Spring, filed the suit for Borden County.

The original petition was filed months ago but an amended petition has been filed more recently and it is this petition which Garza County is answering.

The plaintiff alleges that certain tracts of land which are properly a part of Borden County are on the tax rolls of Garza County and that taxes are collected by that county from the owners. Borden County says that such taxes should be collected by Borden County and not by Garza County.

Soviet Fallout In Double Dose

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the world's leading authorities on fallout said today radioactive debris from the Soviet Union's atomic test series last fall is expected to be about twice as plentiful this spring and summer as the fallout was following the Soviet tests in the autumn of 1958.

Dr. Willard F. Libby, former member of the Atomic Energy Commission and still a member of AEC's Advisory Committee, told a reporter, "Even though Russia's 1961 series was a 'cleaner' series, relatively speaking, in comparison with the (fall) 1958 series, the fallout still will be twice as big as it was in 1958."

Father, Son Die In Crash

DENTON (AP)—A light plane carried a business man pilot and his young son to death as it fell into a rain-soaked field Monday.

James Richard Long, 28, of Wichita Falls and his son, James Jr., 9, died in the crash. Long was a grandson of the late James H. Allison, longtime vice president of the Wichita Falls Times and Record-News.

Long, a former Rice and Southern Methodist University student, represented the Parker-Ford Investment Co. in Wichita Falls. He was a nephew of James N. Allison, publisher of the Midland Reporter-Telegram.

Capt. Smith Goes To PR School

Capt. Charles A. Smith, Webb AFB Information Officer, has been selected to attend the Boston University School of Public Relations at Boston University. The course opens May 2 and continues to June 26.

Upon completion of the course, Capt. Smith will return to Webb. While Capt. Smith is attending the University, Capt. Donald E. Jonker, currently assistant base operations officer, will act as information officer.

Capt. Smith came to Webb from Clark AFB, PI, in September, 1960. He is a graduate of the University of the Philippines and has served in the European Theatre and Korea, in addition to the Philippine tour.

State Files Abatement Plea In Moss Case

The state of Texas cannot be sued for monetary damages unless the legislature has expressly consented to the suit, it is pointed out by the attorney general's office in a plea in abatement and to the jurisdiction filed in the case of H. S. Moss vs. Howard County et al.

Because Moss seeks monetary damages from the state and has not obtained legislative permission to bring such a suit, the plea alleges that the state is not properly a party to the suit. Nor is the State Highway Commission properly a party to the suit named in the plaintiff's petition by its chairman Herbert C. Petry Jr.

The petition asks that the 118th District Court, where the case is pending, abate the action as it relates to these two parties.

Moss, who owned a tract of land which was taken by condemnation proceedings when IS 20 was built some seven or eight years ago, is suing the county, the state and the

Top Students At Klondike

LAMESA (SC)—Judy Koehler and Jannice Bailey have been named as valedictorian and salutatorian of Klondike High School. The two top students compiled respective 4-year averages of 95.3 and 93.5, according to Principal O. B. Barkowsky.

Commencement exercises will be conducted on May 13 and May 17.

J. C. Bailey, with an average of 93.25 and Dennis Bailey, 90.78, gained honors as valedictorian and salutatorian of junior high school, respectively.

Individual officials for rental he claims is due on the land.

He claims he did not accept the award made by the special commission at the time of the condemnation proceedings. Later he alleges his appeal from the findings of the commission was dismissed and that his request that it be reopened was not granted.

He claims he has approximately $11,000 in rental due him from the property which has been incorporated into the highway right-of-way.

What About All Monopoly?

To the Editor:

A sad song of praise issues forth from "some" of President Kennedy's reaction to the assertion of private enterprise freedom of action.

Distressing, too, were events in the state of Hawaii. The past month saw the good people of Hawaii enduring starvation because of the dictatorial powers of the laborers' union on the West Coast. None of us were moved with concern for action which literally isolated a state of the United States of America. What if it had been Texas? Why is the union monopoly free from the President's wrath? Or, more personally, where was our concern for the citizens of our states? We must look with grave concern on dictatorial powers wherever they appear, shouldn't we?

Mrs. Norma Porter
Big Spring, Texas

To the Editor:

To be short and to the point, it's pretty hard to tell, except by the slant of the car, when you ascend or descend the East Viaduct. Since a reasonable percentage of the citizens of Big Spring pay city and county taxes, it seems someone could approve the installation of a few badly needed light bulbs.

Sincerely,
Betty Dennis

ADA Leader Says JFK Backs An 'Anti-New Frontiersman'

By The Associated Press
One out-of-state influence accused another Monday night of trying to take a hand in the Texas governor's race.

Vice chairman Joseph Rauh of the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) asserted the Kennedy administration was backing an "anti-New Frontiersman" against five other Democrats in the contest.

"Right now there are six candidates for governor," Rauh said in a televised Washington interview. "Five are violently anti-New Frontier. One is pro-New Frontier. That's a man named Don Yarborough."

"Now you would think, therefore, that the administration would be supporting Don Yarborough. But, oh no. Because of Vice President (Lyndon B.) Johnson's presence in the race — former Secretary of the Navy John Connally — the administration support today is going to the anti-New Frontiersman in Texas. Now this is a dreadful thing."

Rauh said that if Yarborough should be elected, he "would be a spokesman for liberalism at all the government meetings of the South — you could build a wholly new drive for liberalism in the South on Don Yarborough as the governor of Texas."

At another point the ADA leader asserted:

"John Connally has campaigned up and down saying he has nothing to do with the New Frontier. He's against federal aid to education. He's against medical care for the aged.

"He's said in so many words: 'I'm against the New Frontier.'"

Marshall Formby, speaking at Waco, asserted Monday he was "the only free candidate in this race" for governor. He moved on to campaign in Dallas Tuesday.

"The exercise of the free choice of a free man in voting for or against any candidate is one of the great institutions of this land," Formby said. "Texans should be free to grant or withhold their votes and support without any coercion, intimidation or threat of reprisal."

Gov. Price Daniel told a group of supporters in Houston that no business would think of changing its top four executives in the same year, and added that Texans are going to elect a new lieutenant governor, attorney general and speaker of the House.

"New faces are sometimes important in government," Daniel said, "but today it is more important to the people of Texas that we have a familiar face, an experienced hand, in one of the state's top four elective offices."

Connally, in a night speech at Victoria before swinging through the Lower Rio Grande Valley Tuesday, asserted "constant confusion, uncertainty and hesitation" over state fiscal policies which would have meant more and better jobs for Texans.

"With all the natural wealth and advantages enjoyed by Texas," he said, "it is ungrateful that the per capita income for Texans is still less than $2,000 a year."

Will Wilson said Daniel claims credit "for other men's achievements" by taking a bow for dams and other water projects started by former Gov. Allan Shivers.

The attorney general called law enforcement proposals of the governor "political hogwash," asserting that "vice, gambling and corruption ran wide open in Galveston and other counties during all the years that Price Daniel was attorney general."

Yarborough offered a plan to make Texas "the manufacturing supplier of Latin America."

As the three main points in such a program, Yarborough called for scholarships to every school district starting to teach third graders Spanish, to top high school graduates fluent in Spanish and interested in a foreign trade career, and to Texas college graduates wanting to do postgraduate work in Latin American universities.

Edwin A. Walker, speaking at a dinner rally in Houston, said he was a Democratic candidate for governor because the party "is betrayed at the top."

"Today you are getting hand-picked officials sent down from Washington," Walker told an audience of about 500 persons. "I'm sure I've got no support from the national level, and that suits me fine."

City Manager Applications To Be Reviewed

Members of the Big Spring City Commission will begin considering prospective applicants for the post of city manager during tonight's meeting, which begins at 7 p.m.

The commissioners have eleven applications, plus a list of names submitted by three persons. Steve Matthews, executive director of the Texas Municipal League; H. W. Whitney, city manager at Corpus Christi; and A. K. Steinhilber, at the request of the Big Spring commission, have each submitted a list of persons considered qualified. Some names were on each of the three lists.

The commission will begin discussions of prospective applicants in order to replace Steinilber, who goes to Beaumont as city manager May 14.

Two ordinances on zoning will be read and considered, and one emergency ordinance closing East Sixteenth between Virginia and Lexington, will be read. Closing of the street is considered necessary because it is filled with water lines between the water filter plant on the south side and the new clear well on the north. Heavy use by employees between the two make its use hazardous to the public.

Among other items to be discussed will be a salt water seepage problem from One-mile Lake into the city sewage system, bids on a level indicator for the new elevated storage tank, and items which may come up before the meeting.

DISTRICT WILL SEND TWO EXPLORERS TO CONFERENCE

Two Explorer Scouts will be chosen Thursday night to represent the Lone Star District at the National Conference of Explorers in Ann Arbor, Mich., Aug. 26-30. It will be the first national conference ever held for Explorers.

Bill McRee, Scout executive, said a meeting of the District Explorer Cabinet would be held at the Chamber of Commerce office Thursday at 7:30 p.m. to select the two delegates.

"The cabinet met last Thursday night and decided that each Explorer unit, Post, Ship, or Squadron, would select one member for each 10 members, or fraction, of the present unit membership," he said. "Those selected by the unit will be placed in a hat at the cabinet meeting next Thursday night, and a public drawing held to determine who will make the trip."

"Candidates must be top young men who can bring back something valuable from the conference, and teach it to others," he continued.

"The candidates selected will furnish the first $25 for the trip and the cabinet will raise the balance."

The conference will be held on the campus of the University of Michigan. The program will provide a variety of events. Nationally known speakers, exhibits and demonstrations, social and athletic events, will be included in the plans. Delegates will live in student dorms, eat in student cafeterias, tour the campus, and conduct the meetings and discussions in university auditoriums and classrooms.

TV Show Depicts Heart Operations

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—In a remarkable hour program, NBC demonstrated Monday night the life-saving miracles performed by surgeons all over the country, mending defective and diseased hearts and circulatory systems.
It was called "Breakthrough," because each of the four delicate operations, shown close-up and in detail, has been developed in recent years—one shown was not possible as recently as two years ago.

First surgery was performed on a Washington woman with a diseased heart valve. The surgeon gave her a new one—made of plastic. In order to make the replacement, a heart-lung machine took over the body's blood-pumping functions while the surgical team stopped the woman's heart action by pouring a slush of iced saline solution into the chest cavity.
The picture moved to Houston, Tex., where another surgical team was removing a plug in the neck artery of a woman threatened by stroke. We watched the surgeon open up the artery, clean out the stoppage and then patch the artery with a piece of dacron.

Third operation showed the attachment of an electric battery, powered by transistors, to the heart of a Minneapolis man. His heart had stopped beating on several previous occasions, and the battery, giving out tiny, regular pulses, was designed to prevent heart failure. The wires were connected to the heart, and then attached to the tiny battery, implanted just below the skin of the abdomen—a spot easily reached in three to five years when new batteries will be needed.
Finally, surgeons stitched up a congenital hole in the heart of a 10-year-old San Francisco boy—a hole which would have been fatal if left unrepaired.
Dr. Henry Swan, a heart specialist, discussed each operation as it proceeded with the working surgeon, and in many instances translated the terminology into laymen's terms.
At the end of the program, we saw all the patients, convalescing or completely recovered. The little boy was shown—playing football.
Although the first few minutes were a little hard to take, the program was handled so well and the operations were so fascinating that the hour was a hopeful and— you should pardon the pun—heartening experience.

Shifflet Moves In Equipment

Shifflet Brothers, Construction Co., Abilene, successful bidders on construction of Big Spring's new sewage treatment plant and rehabilitation of the old plant, began moving in equipment to the job site Monday.
City Manager A. K. Steinheimer said the contract had been checked and approved by the State Health Department and the U. S. Public Health Service.
Cost of the two projects will run close to three-quarters of a million dollars. The new plant will be constructed just south of the present sewage treatment plant.

OMAHA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
108 South 18 Street . . . Omaha, Nebraska
January 19, 1961

Mr. W. C. Sanders, Manager
Tourist Department
Chamber of Commerce
San Antonio, Texas

Dear Mr. Sanders:

Your letter of January 9 addressed to Mr. Oliver Roberts has been referred to me for attention. Mr. Roberts has retired as General Manager of the Chamber and has been gone since October, 1959.

The annual race meet in Omaha and the pari-mutuel betting that accompanies it is a sometimes controversial matter and is accepted with mixed feelings by a number of our people. There is no question, but what it attracts a large number of visitors to Omaha during the 45 days of the meet.

The motels and restaurants enjoy a capacity business during the entire event. The downtown interests enjoy some business.

If a referendum were taken today among the business interests, both in the downtown area and in the vicinity of Ak-Sar-Ben's Race Track, I am confident that it would be overwhelming in favor of continuing with the annual event despite the complaints that are frequently expressed.

We have the good fortune to have one of the outstanding race plants in the country and to have one of the outstanding 45-day meets scheduled. Our daily attendance is upwards of 10,000 with absolute capacity of 18-20,000 on Saturdays and holidays. The track is open Tuesday through Saturday, beginning about May 10 and closing with the final race on the 4th of July.

As I stated earlier the motor hotels, the motels, the restaurants, supper clubs enjoy a capacity business because it is a fun group of people. The retail stores receive some benefits.

I trust this answers your inquiry.

Yours very truly,
(Signed)
Norman Haried, MANAGER

Carr To Speak To ROW Group

A Lewin Carr, utilities engineer with the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads in Fort Worth, will address visitors at a meeting of the American Right of Way Association Friday at noon at the Sands Restaurant in Odessa.
Carr, a retired colonel formerly with the U. S. Corps of Engineers, will speak at the dinner meeting and will conduct a question and answer period immediately following.
A person need not be a member of the association to attend. The talk will take up relocation of facilities because of widening or re-routing of public roads.

Armed Defiance For Blue Laws

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Missouri's blue laws have met armed defiance.
A man took a bottle of bleach and a box of detergent off the shelves of a store, put the money on the checkout counter and strode out.
Two clerks overtook the shopper on the sidewalk and explained that he couldn't buy soap on Sunday.
The shopper whipped out a pistol.
"I need the soap and you got the money," he said, and walked away.
