J. L. Lancaster, T&P Pioneer, Dies In Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — John Lynch Lancaster, whose 67 years as a railroad man included leading the Texas & Pacific Railroad through one of its greatest growth periods, died Thursday night at his home. He was 92.

He ended his long career as one of Texas' best-known and most colorful railway executives when he resigned in May, 1952, as chairman of the board of T&P. He was named chairman of the board in 1939 and had served as president of the railway from 1917 to 1945.

Born in Jackson, Tenn., on Dec. 29, 1869, he began his railroad career in 1883 in the engineering department of Illinois Central Railroad.

In 1904 he became assistant engineer of Missouri Pacific and two years later was named vice president of the Union Railway of Memphis. He was president of the Memphis Union Station for three years before he joined T&P in 1915 as assistant to the first vice president.

He was made first vice president the following year and was elected president in May, 1917. From July, 1918, to December, 1919, during World War I, he was federal manager of T&P, and of several small lines in Texas before being renamed T&P's president Dec. 1, 1919.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Roy Dowling of Dallas; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at 11:30 a.m. Saturday at Sparkman's Ross Avenue Chapel.

The family has requested that memorials be in the form of contributions to charity.

Candidates At End Of Trail, Voters To Ballot Saturday

7,000 In County May Go To Polls

Howard County voters, estimated at 7,000 strong, go to the polls Saturday to cast ballots in the first primary election of the year. The polls open at 8 a.m. in the 16 Democratic voting places in the county. They close at 7 p.m. This year, voting booths will be on hand for the electors who choose to use them, in the seven Big Spring boxes and in the box at Coahoma.

This year, too, the Republican party is holding its own primary election for the first time. It has no local slate of candidates but has a number of multiple state races in which the party must make a choice. No matter which primary a voter may participate in, he may vote for candidates in either party at the general election in November.

The election, which got off to an apathetic start in the early days of campaign, has built up impetus at an amazing pace in the past few weeks. Where observers were gloomily forecasting one of the lightest primary turnouts in many years, two months ago, today it is indicated one of the biggest turnouts in a non-presidential year will cast their votes.

The interest has been generated by several contests. One, which started off mildly, and has become a major center of interest, is the race for 118th District Court judge. Ralph Caton, presently judge, is seeking his first full elective term. He is running against Harvey Hooser Jr., former county attorney, and a member of a pioneer family of the county. Both men have waged an intensive campaign and were still at it Friday as the fading hours of the election season neared.

Another local race which has generated increasing enthusiasm is that for county judge. Ed Carpenter, incumbent judge, stepped out of that race to run for state legislature (another contest which has election observers talking to themselves) and left the field wide open. Lee Porter, county auditor, who has served as county clerk in the past, filed as a candidate for the post. Three other candidates entered the contest and all have for support. The other candidates are A. M. Dick, Lewis Heflin and Russell Rayburn. It has been a long time, oldtimers say, when so intensive a campaign for the county judgeship has been made by candidates.

Carpenter's contest with David Read, young member of the legislature, has also built up into what might be called a horseshoe. The two candidates have swept over their seven county district repeatedly and contacted hundreds of voters. The two county commissioners races, likewise, have had their impact in building election interest. Ralph White, seeking re-election as commissioner from Commissioner Precinct 2, has four busy opponents — Dwight B. McCann, John Nutt, Max L. Thomas, and Ray C. Nichols. In the Commissioner Precinct 4 race, L. J. Davidson, incumbent, is battling a field of five — Raymond River, C. L. (Jack) Roden, R. S. (Red) McCann, E. C. (Geo) Reeves and John W. Ray Sr. Pauline Petty, county clerk, is making her first race for re-election against an opponent. Heretofore, she has been unopposed. This time she is competing against Roberta Oldfield, former secretary to the county-commissioner's court.

Frances Glenn, county treasurer, also usually without opposition, is competing for her job against Mae Darrow, who formerly was a deputy in the county clerk's office. Jess Slaughter, pioneer office holder, has an opponent seeking his post as justice of the peace Precinct 1, Place 2. He is Royce Satterwhite. Wade Choate, district court clerk, Walker Bailey, county superintendent, and Ralph Baker, county surveyor, have no opponents. The state race candidates, too, have had their part in stirring up interest. A flood of these office seekers has swept over the county repeatedly in recent weeks.

HOW'S THAT AGAIN? DEPT.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Barry Goldwater Jr., 23, son of the Republican senator, says he is thinking about joining the U.S. Peace Corps. "Joining the Peace Corps would give me the satisfaction of doing something for someone else," said young Goldwater Thursday.

Goldwater, who graduates from Arizona State University in June with a major in business administration, said he had discussed the idea with his father during the last Christmas vacation.

Howard GOP To Do Voting In County Court House

Howard County Republicans voting Saturday in their first county primary will do all of their balloting in the Howard County court house.

Ralph Hughes, county Republican Executive Committee chairman, said that he had arranged with the county judge for the Republicans to use four rooms as voting places.

Republicans who reside in voting Precincts 1, 8, 12, 13 and 14 in Howard County will go to the abstractors office in the northwest corner of the first floor of the court house.

Those who live in Precincts 2, 9, 10 and 15, will vote in the county commissioners court room on the second floor of the building.

Those who live in Precincts 3 and 16 will vote in the county court room at the extreme west end of the second floor of the court house.

Those who reside in Precincts 4, 5, 6, 7, 11, will ballot in the Justice of Peace court room at the extreme east end of the second floor.

Hughes said that the precinct conventions will be held in the same rooms at 8 p.m. The polls open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

The GOP has no local candidates in the primary race. A handful of contests are listed in the state-wide offices. Jack Cox and Roy Whittenburg are contesting the gubernatorial nomination. Others include, Kellis Dibrrell and O. W. "Bill" Hayes, lieutenant governor; Desmond A. Barry, Joe B. Phillips, and Giles Miller, congressman at large; Dennis Taylor; 19th District congressman; Bernold M. Hanson, state railroad commissioner; Albert B. Fay, state land commissioner; Harry J. Hubbard, state agriculture commissioner.

In addition, the party is running three candidates on a write-in basis. They include T. E. Kennelly, attorney general; Allen Lacy, state treasurer; Mrs. Hargrove Smith, state comptroller of public accounts.

Officers Check Murder Report

Sheriff Earl Abercrombie of Scurry County today was checking the story of a man who told him that he shot a man to death and dumped his body in Lake J. B. Thomas.

The incident, according to the man's story, happened on April 23. Sheriff Abercrombie was to take the man to the lake at noon today to pinpoint the alleged spot for a check.

The prisoner, not identified, said he was uncertain in which county the actual killing occurred — that it may have been in either Howard or Borden County.

Sheriff Abercrombie told Deputy Sheriff Fern Cox of Howard County Friday morning that the man had said he later sold the pistol he had used in a Big Spring pawn shop, under the name "B. L. Jones."

Cox said that he had checked out this phase of the report and that a pistol, which fitted the general description given by the man in Seymour, had been pawned here by B. L. Jones on the date stated.

In Snyder, the sheriff's office reported Friday morning that the officer was "out on a call at the lake" and probably would not be back in his office until after lunch. Details on the alleged slaying were vague. Abercrombie went to Seymour Thursday where he talked with the man. Local officers were waiting further word before launching any wide investigation.

Politicos Strain Toward Victory

With each candidate confident of victory, the long, weary months of criss-crossing the state end tonight. The voters go to the nearest polling place Saturday to wind up one of Texas' most raucous primary campaigns.

But, the last 48 hours of campaigning were like the last final leap to the finish line as candidates told why they should be elected.

Gov. Price Daniel hurled a sharp challenge Friday at those who claim the state government is bankrupt. Engaged in a crucial re-election battle Daniel charged that people who say Texas is bankrupt are not right.

"Despite what you may hear," the governor told the Texas Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons in Fort Worth, "this state is financially sound."

SEE MAJORITY Marshall Formby said in San Antonio he expects to poll the majority of the Democratic votes cast Saturday by those "not beholden to political bosses and ward heelers."

The voter who is not afraid of the LBJ machine will vote for me," Formby said. Another Democratic candidate for governor, Will Wilson, told newsmen at the Press Club in Wichita Falls that he will actively fight excessive oil imports if elected governor.

The attorney general charged that Daniel had not been a "fighting governor" on the oil import situation. Edwin A. Walker demanded in a telegram to the governor "that you, as the chief executive of the state, answer to the people of Texas for the action of the Texas Employment Commission, and explain."

Edwin A. Walker demanded in a telegram to the governor "that you, as the chief executive of the state, answer to the people of Texas for the action of the Texas Employment Commission, and explain."

Why the TEC is now holding open meetings in the Rio Grande Valley at state expense, cooperating with Washington in an unconstitutional and immoral use of pressure to force Texas farmers to pay a minimum wage?"

ENDS CAMPAIGN John Connally ended a 25,000 mile campaign swing of Texas at midnight Thursday when he arrived in Fort Worth.

Connally said there has been a tremendous reaction from the people of Texas both to the election and his campaign in the last 10 days. Connally, asked by Beaumont newsmen if he was or ever had been a lobbyist, said "No."

He told newsmen, in answer to a question about control of lobbyists, that he thought there should be reasonable controls with disclosures of interests and purpose. Newsmen asked Connally what revisions he would propose in state government if he is elected governor. He outlined three points: (1) limiting the office of governor to four years (two 2-year terms); removing from the Labor Department all athletic activities and functions; and (3) correlating the various activities

Democratic Precinct Conventions Saturday

Precinct conventions for the Democratic Party, at which delegates will be chosen for the county convention, will be conducted Saturday — the date of the first primary.

Rural boxes will hold their precinct conventions at 2 p.m. in the voting places in each precinct. The precincts in Big Spring — 1, 2, 3, 4, 8, 15, and 16 — will meet at 8 p.m. Saturday. The conventions will be in the voting places.

Frank Hardesty, County Democratic Committee chairman, said that the precincts will name one delegate to the county convention (which is to be Saturday, May 12, at 8 p.m.) for each 50 votes cast in that precinct for the governor in the last general election. At the county convention, the county will select one delegate to the State Democratic Convention for each 300 votes cast in this county in the last general election for the governor.

Hardesty also pointed out that any voter who presents himself at the precincts to vote on Saturday

Titov Takes Look At Industrial Might

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet space explorer Gherman Titov takes a look today at American industrial power, then his the caviar trail at a Soviet diplomatic reception.

Tourist Titov, after a day of sightseeing, speechmaking and receptions in Washington with U.S. astronaut John H. Glenn Jr.,

Reuther Demands Jobless Action

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Automobile Workers Union, called today for more drastic action by the government to end unemployment and to spur the economy.

After the steel plant tour, Titov attends a luncheon at a Baltimore hotel, then hurries back to Washington where he will be guest of honor at a diplomatic reception at the Soviet Embassy.

Thursday the two trail blazers in space seemed to hit it off despite the language barrier while Glenn guided Titov through swarms of tourists on a whirlwind tour of the capital and introduced him to President Kennedy. Kennedy told Titov, "I'm very happy to welcome you, as are the American people."

Glenn and Titov even found time to put their heads together to solve—to their satisfaction—the mystery of the space fireflies. After their chat, Titov reported to an international space meeting that "I believe, and I think Col. Glenn is of the same opinion, that they result from fuel being ejected. This will have to be checked out by the next astronaut."

TRADE OR FADE, SAYS KENNEDY 'Spurn Timidity, Lead World'

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — President Kennedy beckoned to America today to spurn timidity and lead the free world into a genuine Atlantic Partnership of expanding, two-way international trade. The choice confronting the nation in May 1962, Kennedy said in a prepared address, is "to trade or fade."

More trade, the President insisted, will mean more jobs, more national security, and a bulwarked foreign policy. And the tools to obtain them, he said, are in a legislative kit—his proposed trade expansion law now before Congress.

The arguments were old ones, but the phrases were new and so was the setting for them—a new $10-million wharf in America's third greatest port. "I know of no occasion," Kennedy said, "where the topic and the location of a presidential address have so neatly fit together."

The President flew down from Washington to make the address, accept a key to the city, and then fly on to Eglin Air Force Base in western Florida to watch the Air Force display its might.

Once more in his New Orleans speech, Kennedy spelled out what he considers some old and new economic facts-of-life which, he said, require America's moving ahead. "For what we are moving toward is an open partnership among all free nations, a gradual leveling of trade barriers that will draw the whole non-Communist world together with the strings of economic self-interest. And that partnership will be specifically and initially expressed in terms of a genuine Atlantic Partnership—between the Common Market of Europe and the common market of 50 United States," he said. "That partnership will be based on what already comes close to a trillion dollar economy. It will produce nearly 90 per cent of the free world's industrial power; the lion's share of its technical skills; two of its greatest markets for raw materials, and a very large portion of the capital available for investment and development. "It will extend these benefits of these new opportunities to the continents of Asia, Africa and Latin America, who will be able to buy more from the industrialized nations by selling more goods in our markets. And, finally, it will pose to the leaders of the Communist world a direct, deep and abiding challenge."

The United States, Kennedy said, must be willing to buy as well as sell. It must be willing to allow European producers easier access to our market in return for opening the doors in their common tariff wall. This is what Kennedy seeks from Congress—the power to reduce and in some cases wipe out tariffs on a reciprocal basis. A few people and industries may be hurt, he conceded. But safeguards have been built into the projected trade law for them. "No one," he said, "is going to be sacrificed to the national interest with a medal and an empty grocery bag."

No One Guesses How Estes Case Will End

By ROBERT E. FORD
DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Billie Sol Estes said last year he was worth $50 million. Today his financial empire has collapsed and criminal and civil charges mount.

National finance companies, the federal government and plain dirt farmers in Texas are trying to recover from a series of jolts handed them by the 37-year-old man who gained the title of "boy wonder of West Texas agriculture."

Investigations continue along four general lines—his dealings as the world's greatest distributor of anhydrous ammonia fertilizer and tanks for the substance, cotton allotments on lands he controlled, his relationship with Department of Agriculture and other federal officials, and his vast grain storage operations.

PROBE BEGUN

A congressional investigation is under way. A federal grand jury already has indicted him for fraud. Eight criminal indictments for felonious theft have been returned against him by a grand jury in his hometown of Pecos, Tex. Another grand jury at Amarillo, Tex., is expected to receive new evidence soon. Scores have filed suits totalling millions, some trying to obtain money from Estes, others trying to void contracts with him.

His entire financial affairs are in the hands of a receiver who is being required to post bond of $10 million.

The Estes empire began wobbling when a group of lending companies called him to a super-secret meeting in Dallas. His empire crashed three days later when he was jailed under federal fraud charges. Lending companies claimed he bilked them of $24 million. Estes himself said he owed $32 million and had assets of $20 million.

Estes, a Church of Christ elder and minister, has issued no defense. He has simply remained silent on the basic issues of the case.

HE'S CHEERFUL

The man who says he grew up in moderate circumstances on a

Texas farm and made his first million before he was 30, took the original blows cheerfully.

"I've felt better in the last week than I ever have in my life," he said. "I've always felt that if a man had five real friends he would be real lucky. I've been real lucky."

The original pin which burst the vast financial bubble involved storage tanks for the fertilizer. Mortgages were found on record totaling $34.5 million for 33,500 tanks in 11 West Texas counties. Only a few hundred such tanks are needed in the area. The FBI in charges against Estes and three officials of a manufacturing firm, claims most of the tanks don't exist.

COURTS OF INQUIRY

The probe spread. Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, held six courts of inquiry. One of many points covered involved possible improper influence by Estes with Agriculture Department employees.

William E. Morris, an Agriculture Department employee, was fired because he failed to make himself available to department investigators looking into allegations Estes accompanied several officials on shopping tours in Dallas for expensive clothing. Morris' wife quit her job as part-time secretary to Rep. Ed Edmondson, D-Okla. Emery E. Jacobs, deputy administrator of the agricultural stabilization and conservation service, quit his job but denied any wrongdoing.

The names of governors, senators and congressmen and other high federal officials have been mentioned in the case—either in print or privately.

The Republican National Committee said Estes was appointed to the National Cotton Advisory Committee by President Kennedy.

GOP VIEW

"Loaded with political TNT, an FBI probe now under way may yet come to rest on the doorstep of the White House," said the committee's publication, "Battle Line."

No mention has been made of the White House or the President in extensive testimony, however.

Estes did claim, a witness testified, that he could telephone Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Johnson would quash an FBI investigation. But the investigation continued.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., started a probe with his Senate investigations committee. The general accounting office began looking into the matter for the House Inter-Governmental Relations subcommittee.

Meanwhile Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., introduced a resolution asking for investigation of cotton allotment transfers as well. No one will venture a guess where it will end.

Released

Sgt. George E. Groom, of St. Joseph, Mo., left, and Sgt. I.C. Francis Quinn, of Niagara Falls, N.Y., are shown as they faced newsmen at a press conference in Saigon. The two soldiers were released by Communist Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam after 22 days in captivity.

Vote May Provide Medical Bill Clues

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Some clues to the thinking of Florida voters on President Kennedy and his program for medical care of the aged will be provided in state primary election voting next Tuesday.

More than 900,000 Floridians are expected to turn out for the Democratic and Republican primaries where congressional contests have overshadowed races for George Smathers' U.S. Senate seat and two State Railroad Commission posts.

FIREWORKS

Kennedy himself provided some of the fireworks for the campaign, which has been red-hot in two Miami area congressional races.

The President lost Florida to Richard M. Nixon by 46,000 votes in 1960, but Gov. Farris Bryant, who gave Kennedy lukewarm support then, said recently Kennedy was 50 per cent stronger now.

Kennedy, in effect, kicked off the campaign when he endorsed his friend, Sen. Smathers, and his most consistent Florida supporter in Congress, Rep. Dante Fascell of Miami.

Smathers' two Democratic rivals—Roger L. Davis, 32, Fort Lauderdale attorney, and Douglas R. Voorhees, 50, Miami Shores real estate salesman—accused

Kennedy of trying to influence primary voting.

Since then, Davis and Voorhees, comparatively unknown and handicapped by lack of funds, have failed to mount much of a drive. Smathers remained in Washington most of the time and didn't bother with a formal campaign.

UNOPPOSED

The Republican U.S. Senate candidate, Emerson Rupert of St. Petersburg, is unopposed.

It has been something else in Fascell's case. Fascell, 45, has drawn hot opposition from State Rep. David C. Eldredge, a conservative. Their bitter two-man contest has provided voters of South Dade and Monroe counties a clear-cut choice between liberal and conservative.

Eldredge has charged Fascell with being an integrationist and with blindly following the Kennedy line. Over-all Fascell has supported Kennedy's program 82 per cent of the time, even more than Smathers who has sided with the President less than 50 per cent of the time.

Fascell has called Eldredge a "little Faubus, a reference to Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas, and has charged Eldredge with being supported by right-wing organizations connected with The John Birch Society.

WINNER'S FOE

The winner of the Fascell-Eldredge battle will take on either of two Republican candidates—J. C. McGinn Jr., or Ralph W. Schmidt.

Five other of the state's 12 congressional seats are being contested on the Democratic side and two on the Republican. Four of the Democratic fights are for the new congressional seats Florida gained in the 1960 census.

In the new 3rd Congressional District of Miami and North Dade County, former U.S. Sen. Claude Pepper is opposed by State Sen. W. C. Herrell and two other Democrats.

Pepper, champion of New Deal causes in the Roosevelt and Truman administrations, is the only candidate to endorse the Kennedy administration right down the line.

"I'm a real Democrat—a Roosevelt Democrat, a Truman Democrat and a Kennedy Democrat," said Pepper, who spent 14 years in the Senate before losing to Smathers in 1950.

CANDIDATES

Republican candidates are Dr. Robert C. Bartlett, a physician; Paul J. O'Neill, a financial consultant, and Robert A. Peterson, president of the Greater Miami Crime Commission. Dr. Bartlett advertises his membership in The John Birch Society.

In the four other Democratic congressional battles the King-Anderson bill which embodies the President's plan for medical care of the aged through Social Security, has been made a campaign issue in varying degrees.

OUR AUTHORITY

By A Christian Writer

Some are saying, "Reason in religion." Some religions that the Bible is an infallible guide. Others deny it too; but not openly.

We ask, whose reason shall guide us? What is reasonable to one man is unreasonable to another. Would not one be bigoted to think he could get all to accept his reasoning? It would be like trying to agree on the length of something by reasoning and without using a standard of measurement.

Even if we agreed in our reasoning, this would not mean we had found truth.

"And again, the Lord knoweth the reasonings of the wise, that they are vain" (I Cor. 3:20, R.V.)

is our guide openly deny

On the other hand, the Bible is always right. Also it is possible for men to agree on the Bible. "For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace" (I Cor. 14:33).

True, men do not all agree on the Bible; but this is not because God has authored confusion. It is man's fault: not God's. Some of us are either (1) not studying the Bible diligently, or (2) we are not really accepting it as final authority.

Pastor Given Annual Award

FORT WORTH — A comparatively small church in a West Texas town of 3,900 inadvertently brought state-wide recognition to its minister because its members shared him with the community and gave encouragement to his work among Latin Americans and Negroes in the area.

It is the First Christian Church of Seymour, whose minister the Rev. B. Robert Devin was named Thursday as "Town and Country Minister of the Year" at the 75th annual assembly of the Texas Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).

Made annually by the Texas Board of Christian Churches, the outstanding service in rural areas award is given in recognition of and for work in development of community spirit.

Minister of the West Texas church for the past four years, the Rev. Devin was selected specifically for his inter-racial work in Seymour which began in 1958 by endeavoring to conduct services in Spanish for migrant Latin American laborers. This led eventually to the C.S.a de Amistad (House of Friendship) mission, now a vigorous church. He also had a hand in helping raise funds for refurbishing a Negro (Baptist) church in Seymour.

Opens Today In Rodeo Arena

The Boy Scouts and Cubs of the Lone Star District will hold a Fair and Exposition at the Big Spring Rodeo grounds Friday afternoon and Saturday. Scouts are scheduled to arrive between 4 and 6 p.m. Friday for setting up camp by troops and posts. Around 400 are expected.

The public is invited to attend the fair and see what Scouts and Cubs of the district are doing. Bill McRee, Scout executive, said Friday.

The program for the fair and exposition for Scouts will include: Friday afternoon and night, setting up camp, cooking and eating supper, (from 4 to 7 p.m.), assembly in arena for opening ceremony, unit campfires, singing, stunts, and skits.

Taps will sound at 10 p.m. Scouts will get up, cook and eat breakfast at 7 a.m. Saturday. They will clean up camps, make ready for inspections, and get displays and demonstrations ready by 9:30 a.m.

Saturday's time schedule for all events includes:

- 9:30 to 11:30, troops put on demonstrations, and have displays in their campsite areas. Cubs will be on hand at this time to set up their displays.
- 11:30 to 12:30, tidy up campsites, and displays.
- 1:30 p.m., Cub groups begin to arrive for Olympics and display activities.
- 2 p.m., all Cubs, Scouts, and Explorer units assemble for parade around arena, followed by flag ceremony.
- 2:30 to 5 p.m., Cub Olympics to be held in south end of arena. Boy Scout skill contests held in north end of arena. Explorer units and members of the Order of the Arrow will serve as judges in the Boy Scout events.
- 5:30 to 7 p.m., cook supper, eat, and clean up.
- 7:45 p.m., units will assemble for parade around the arena. The grand finale program will feature the best Indian Dance teams from the entire Buffalo Trail Council for Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer units.

Ten events will be featured in the Scout patrol contests. They will be: use of the compass, fire-building, knots, map making, fire built by flint and steel, tent pitching, observation, nature identification, Scout law relay, and signaling (wig-wag).

The Cub Scouts Olympics will start at 7 p.m. Saturday. All events will be held in three divisions, eight, nine, and 10-year-old boys.

These events will include sack race, running broad jump, soft ball throw, obstacle relay (Den activity based on eight boys, even if some boys have to go twice, over six to eight obstacles), ball throwing (for Den Mothers only), 50-yard dash.

Cub packs have the option of having a picnic supper on the grounds or eating at home. They will come back in time for the grand entry parade at 7:30 p.m.

Carl Corbin, assistant Scout executive, will serve as master of ceremonies. Stanley Martin, who leads singing, will give a special exhibition. Mike Bishop will also give a special exhibition.

Lester Munday, Snyder, well-known Indian dancer, will be on hand to entertain all attending the fair and exposition.

County Sends Four Teams
To Tech For Competition

Four judging teams from the ranks of the Howard County 4-H Clubs will be in Lubbock Saturday for the district elimination contests slated at Texas Tech.

The county is sending a senior and a junior livestock judging team, a grass judging team and an electric demonstration team to the competition. The first and second place teams at Lubbock go to the state meet in College Station on June 5-6-7.

The grass judging team's personnel were to be determined this afternoon. There are six youths competing for places on the team and an elimination test was to bring the number down to four.

Lovell Kuykendall, assistant county agent, said that his junior livestock team will be made up of Mark Barr, David Adkins, Robert Haney and John Phillips. Junior judging team members cannot be over 13 years of age.

Senior livestock judging team, made up of boys 14 years old and older, is Bud Saunders, Jerry McNew, Phillip Richey and Bob Adkins.

The six boys trying for the four places on the grass judging team were H. K. Elrod, Danny Wash, Harry King, Lonnie Nichols, Ron-

Hospital To Train Nurses

The Big Spring State Hospital will be a training station for student nurses beginning in September, according to Mrs. Otillie Jolley, director of nursing service at the hospital.

At that time, student nurses from Odessa will begin taking the psychiatric nursing phase of their training at the local hospital. Josephine Lamb, supervisor of psychiatric nursing for State Mental Hospitals, completed the arrangements during a week-long visit here this week.

Students in the affiliate nursing program at Odessa Junior College will visit the local hospital two or three days each week for about nine weeks, Mrs. Jolley said. They will hear lectures, discuss this aspect of their training and work with patients on the various wards. About 15-20 will be in each class.

"We are happy to get this program at the hospital," Dr. Preston E. Harrison, superintendent, said. He and Mrs. Jolley have been working with Miss Lamb for almost a year on the program.

State Pays
Big Bill
For Schools

Texas state government in the fiscal year ending in June, 1961, paid out the nation's fifth largest amount of money for educational purposes, the Dallas Field Office of the U. S. Department of Commerce reported.

During the fiscal year, the State's government expended approximately $506,446,000 for the education of its students, an amount exceeded only in the states of California, New York, Michigan and Pennsylvania. In doing so, however, Texas dropped from third place in rank among the states in 1951 to fifth place in 1961.

Texas' per capita expenditures last year of $51.74 took it from 12th position among all states in 1951 to twenty-sixth place last year. During the decade, the state dropped behind such other states in per capita payments as Arizona, Alabama, Montana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Colorado, Oklahoma, North Dakota, West Virginia, New York, Georgia, Indiana, Vermont, and Florida.

Harry C. Meyers, manager of the Commerce Department's Dallas field office said, an analysis of a report just released by the Bureau of the Census on State Government finances revealed by the Bureau of the Census on State Government finances revealed that Texas more than doubled its out-go of funds for education in the past decade.

Installation Highlights OWC Luncheon Event

Mrs. James W. Gehrig Jr. assumed the office of president of the Officers Wives Club Thursday at the OWC luncheon held at the Officers Club, Webb Air Force Base. Officers were introduced by Mrs. Benjamin Yeargin and acknowledged by the base commander, Col. Wilson Banks. Mrs. Franklin Snyder, the retiring president, presided.

Luncheon hostesses were of the 3561st Student Squadron with Mrs. Gary L. Heartsill, chairman.

Others inducted were Mrs. James L. Butera, vice president; Mrs. Charles Simler, second vice president; Mrs. E. A. Davis, third vice president; Mrs. W. L. Shaffer, secretary; Mrs. Richard H. McManigill, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Head, treasurer; and Mrs. Warren Wood, assistant treasurer.

Col. Banks expressed appreciation for the club's contributions and support in base activities and congratulated the newly installed board.

A social hour preceded the luncheon. During the hour, swim suits were modeled among the guests gathered in the lounge. This was a complimentary feature by Margie's.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Robert Murdoch, Mrs. D. E. Jonker, Mrs. J. C. Wood and Mrs. F. W. Armstrong.

A patriotic theme was noted in the dining area where the main table was centered with scales of justice filled with blue iris, red carnations and white daisies. Spread with white cloths, all tables were centered with blue and red runners. Stars and stripes on place cards marked each place setting.

Announcement was made of Armed Forces Day and Webb's 10th anniversary date, May 19. Mrs. Snyder outlined all-day events at the base to include open house, an air show, opening of the swimming pool, floor show and formal dance with orchestra.

Head OWC

Also announced was the annual orientation to be held from 9 to 11 a.m. each day on May 14, 15 and 16. Persons interested in enrolling for a first aid course were asked to contact Mrs. Donald Pendergrass, and for the benefit of the Little League, a Friday night dance is planned at the Officers' Club, as announced by Mrs. Head.

For their contributions to the organization, the president paid tribute to Mrs. J. F. Holt, Mrs. Leland Younkin, Mrs. A. L. W. Short, Mrs. Robert Bales, Mrs. William C. Hall, Mrs. Robert Murdock and Mrs. Jonker, all of whom will be leaving soon. This was acknowledged by Mrs. Holt who in turn expressed appreciation to the membership.

New officers were pinned with corsages by Mrs. Francis Bates. Mrs. Snyder received gifts from the club and from the retiring board, presented by Mrs. Yeargin.

Guests were Mrs. Donald McMillan, Mrs. Marion Edwards, Mrs. V. J. Belda, Mrs. Robert Stripling and Mrs. R. W. Whipple. Decorations chairman was Mrs. D. E. Sommer, assisted by Mrs. Edward Jacobs.

Some 300 Registered For HD Club Exhibit

A wealth of time and talent was exhibited Thursday during a county-wide Home Demonstration exhibit at Howard County Junior College. Throughout the day visitors numbering some 300, were welcomed by club members, the exhibit chairman, Mrs. J. F. Skelly, the THDA chairman, Mrs. Ross Callihan, Mrs. W. N. Norred, council president, and Mrs. Delaine Crawford, county HD agent. The event, planned in observance of National Home Demonstration Week, was an all-out effort to display the work and activities of clubs during the year. Various crafts, handwork, clothing, paintings and other art work, flower groupings, food, etc. were shown. Also on display were easled charts and placards pointing out the programs of study and work in relation to education, recreation, health and safety, Civil Defense, citizenship and management of energy, time and money.

Club Inducts New Slate Of Officers

New officers of Forsan Study Club were inducted Thursday evening when a dinner was held at Coker's Restaurant. Mrs. W. M. Romans presided and accepted her second term as president.

Signifying progress, "The Wheel," was theme for the installation ceremony conducted by Mrs. Richard L. Patterson whose recognition as an artist was proclaimed in introductory remarks by Mrs. C. B. Long, mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. Joe Holladay was recognized by the club as "teacher of the year." Also honored was Mrs. Joe B. Hoard who was named "club woman of the year." Both received gifts from the membership.

Prior to the installation Mrs. Patterson spoke to the 42 members and guests concerning "Federation," pointing out the privileges and duties gleaned from Federated membership. She made reference to the Federated district meeting which she attended in El Paso, comparing the session with a previous meeting in Big Spring.

A placard displaying a wheel, with the hub representative of the club president, was used during installation. Spokes of the wheel were the supporting offices. Others placed in office were Mrs. Ronnie Gandy, vice president; Mrs. Hamlin Elrod, recording secretary; Mrs. Clifton Ferguson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Tom Spell, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Shortes, parliamentarian; Mrs. Dub Day, historian; and Mrs. M. M. Fairchild, reporter; Mrs. Long, Federation chairman.

The Collect was given by Mrs. Romans who afterward told of the club's organization and federation in 1938. Two of the charter members were present and were introduced as Mrs. Bill Conger and Mrs. J. D. Leonard.

Mrs. Romans spoke before a backdrop displaying the Space Needle which set the world travel theme. World globes based in red roses were used on the tables. The lower half of a large globe filled with roses and honeysuckle formed a centerpiece for the main table. Miniature globes, planes, flags, etc. were placed at intervals between the flower arrangements. Favors were globe-shaped pencil sharpeners.

Guests attending were Mrs. Roy Stockstill, Mrs. Jim McCorkindale, Mrs. Ara Cunningham, Mrs. Marco Westmorland, Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. Paul Lancaster, Mrs. Jesse Overton, Mrs. Douglas Smith, Mrs. B. Lawsuits End In Tennessee Voter Cases

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Consent judgments in federal court have ended lawsuits against 70 landowners accused of evicting voter registrars who joined a voter registration drive.

The judgments, rendered Wednesday, restrain 90 of the 1957 Civil Rights Act. Charges against the other 20 were dropped.

All defendants lived in Haywood County, Tenn.

The settlement between the plaintiffs and the Justice Department ended more than a year of litigation in federal courts. Negotiations for a settlement of similar charges against 80 landowners in Fayette County, Tenn., reportedly are under way.

The Haywood landowners agreed not to interfere with or take economic reprisals against Negroes who try to register to vote in the future, and the government was to drop its federal court orders against the landowners.

The dispute began in 1960 when the government filed complaints against the landowners charging they were evicting Negroes who tried to register voters.

The complaints accused the landowners of terminating tenant leases, barring some Negroes from jobs, refusing to sell them provisions, and cutting off sources of credit.

A federal injunction issued April 20, 1961, prohibited 34 landowners from evicting Negro tenant farmers if it was done because of their voter registration activity.

No Campaign Gift From Estes, Solon Declares

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Ed Edmondson, D-Okla., has asserted he never accepted money from Billie Sol Estes, the West Texas farm financier.

The Oklahomaan wrote Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson that he shared in a desire "to get to the bottom of any wrongdoing which may be present in the entire matter, and search for the complete truth about it will have my cooperation."

Edmondson said published reports about a campaign contribution from Estes, indicted on charges of fraud and theft, prompted the letter.

He once returned a $100 campaign donation from Estes, Edmondson added.

Edmondson sent copies of his letter to Atty. Gen. Robert Kenney, Secretary of Agriculture or McClain, D-Ark., of a Senate Government Operations Committee.

Laymen Meet

Capt. Alfred L. Short and Lt. Nat Crandell were hosts at the recent meeting of the Lutheran Laymen Men's club in the education building of the St. Paul Lutheran Church.

Program for the meeting, following the hamburger steak dinner, featured discussion of the topics "When Christians Make Us Slip"; "What Keep From Slipping"; and "How to Keep From Slipping."

Attending the meeting were James Crawford, Capt. Oppgaard, Lt. Robin L. Roger Wright, Sgt. Les Gary, Al Roberts, Lt. Knutson, the Rev. Clair Weiderhoff and the two hosts.

ican astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. guided him on a tourists' tour. Titov would nod his head and look intently at whatever was being shown.

He's short, just five feet four inches, and looks European, with his brown wavy hair worn longer than is the usual style here. Physically, Glenn stood out more, with his bronzed skin and close clipped red hair.

And it was Glenn the crowds of tourists recognized when the two men would go around that Titov was there, too.

Teen-agers squealed. Glenn would smile and wave. And Titov, smiling, clapped back once or twice, Soviet style.

During the tour, Titov stepped up and helped escort Glenn's wife, who also shepherded his own small brunette wife, Tamara, 24.

Waiting to go up to the top of the 333-foot high Washington Monument in an elevator with Glenn, the man who's orbited around the world in space 17 times, quipped: "This is the first joint Soviet-American Journey into space."

He made a gathering of world scientists on space research chuckle four times with his ad lib while reading his address on orbital flight.

He delivered the address with apparent ease, occasionally putting his elbow on the rostrum and resting his cheek on one hand while keeping the other hand nonchalantly in his pocket.

He spoke with gestures, too, like Glenn has done, trying to explain what happens when a man gets out into space.

At the White House, after meeting with President Kennedy, Titov and television cameras with apparent ease.

What had impressed him most was very glad to have met Lt. Col. Glenn. Titov said he had followed Glenn's flight and read to see the person in person.

His talk with the President was very good, Titov said. "He has paid very much attention to us by receiving us."

Two years ago, when the 118th District Court bench became vacant, attorneys of this area endorsed Mr. Ralph Caton as the best qualified attorney available to assume the judgeship. Mr. Caton is now seeking his first full elective term, and still continues to receive the solid backing and support of nearly all our local attorneys.

This indicates very well the excellent record he has made as District Judge, since his fellow attorneys are those most familiar with his qualifications. He has been industrious, completely impartial and fair, and has made his decisions entirely on the merit of the cases presented. He has conducted himself and his Court in the highly professional manner expected in a District Court. Most important, he has demonstrated in his past proven performance, a wide knowledge of the law.

We ask your consideration of Mr. Ralph Caton for District Judge as a competent, proven, public servant of high character and demonstrated ability.

Unions, Executives Lash Panel's Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — Non-operating rail unions and railroad executives today criticized a public board's recommendation to President Kennedy that 450,000 union members get a $100-million annual pay increase.

going to get it? "It's worse than the steel settlement."

their own and in the public interest."

The union spokesmen, describing as deplorable the board's recommendation Thursday of a 10.2 cent hourly average increase, thought it was too high.

Ren Heineman, chairman of Northwestern Railway, called the three-man public board's recommendations "a very severe blow to the industry. It is difficult to see where we'll get the money."

NO STATEMENT
In Chicago a spokesman for the Western Carriers Conference Committee said there would be no statement until the conference had an opportunity to study the recommendations.

G. E. Leighty, chairman of the committee representing 11 unions of nonoperating rail employees—those engaged in service and maintenance as contrasted with engineers and other operating personnel—said the proposed pay increase "departs from all recognized standards of justice in wage determination."

WAGE HIKE
In an apparent allusion to President Kennedy's stated desire that wage settlements generally conform to productivity increases, Leighty said in his statement:

Under the law, both sides have 30 days in which to bargain before a strike can be called. The 11 unions have already obtained authority from their members to order a walkout at the end of the no-strike period.

The emergency board, headed by labor arbitrator Saul Wallen of Boston, roundly criticized the rail industry and unions for poor bargaining records in past years.

REPEATS CHARGE
He repeated his charge that the railroads had tried to prejudice the board in advance by declaring last month that a wage increase meant a rate hike.

Kennedy carefully refrained from endorsing the board's report after receiving it at the White House Thursday. He said it represented a diligent effort to help solve the big pay dispute and that he was gratified to note the board maintained its proposals and stayed within administration economic guides.

Railroad labor's productivity has risen much faster than the general national average."

Loyal Demos In Alabama Regain Reins

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Old-line Democrats have regained control of party machinery in Alabama and with it the power to prevent another states rights presidential revolt.

Virtually complete returns from Tuesday's primary gave the loyalist faction at least 39 seats on the incoming 72-member State Democratic Executive Committee and a chance to pick up eight more.

States righters who spearheaded the 1960 uprising—which saw six of Alabama's 11 electoral college votes go to Sen. Harry Byrd, D-Va., instead of Democratic nominee John F. Kennedy—were sure of no more than 25 places on the new committee.

The six states rights electors who ran as Democrats refused to cast their ballots for Kennedy because of the national party's racial stand.

Loyalists won 37 state committee seats outright in Tuesday's election and 10 seats were to be decided in a May 29 runoff because no one got a majority of Tuesday's votes in those contests. But the party regulars will get two of them automatically because in both instances loyalist will be running against loyalist.

In the remaining eight undecided races, it will be loyalist vs. states righter.

In putting loyalists back in control of the state committee, the voters reacted just as they did 12 years ago following another states rights revolt. All 11 presidential electors in the 1948 election had withheld their ballots from Harry S. Truman.

SMU Takes Large Steps

DALLAS (AP)—Trustees of Southern Methodist University Thursday voted to raise tuition, adopted a record budget and announced the hiring of a nationally known expert to help SMU plan for the future.

The tuition boost of $75 will increase cost from $325 to $400 per student each semester.

A new budget of $8,933,291.61 was adopted for academic year 1962-63. It's the biggest in SMU history, comparing with this year's record-high budget of $8,647,760.85.

The board announced Dr. Oliver C. Carmichael, a leading authority on higher education, will next year become a senior consultant for a proposed master plan study to outline future academic and campus growth of the university.

Dr. Carmichael, former chancellor of Vanderbilt University and former president of the Carnegie Foundation for Advancement of Teaching, is presently a consultant to the Ford Foundation.

"The question of a tuition raise is always difficult," said President Tate. "In the case of Southern Methodist University it reflects a nationwide trend of rising costs and devalued currency and the need and determination of this university to keep improving its educational offering."

He said that in recent years SMU has faced fierce competition in retaining outstanding teachers.

The average faculty salary at SMU has increased from $5,165 to $7,497 since 1954, an increase of 37 per cent. The U. S. average is about $8,144, he said.

Corps Not Jungle Gym

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Peace Corps official says the training program for overseas duty is not designed to turn out Tarzans on Janes—despite the charge of a 65-year-old widow that she was ousted for refusing to do pushups and run a mile before breakfast.

Janis Fletcher, of Panhandle, Tex., said the Peace Corps ran her ragged at its training camp in Arecibo, Puerto Rico, and finally dropped her from a group bound for duty in Brazil because she objected to the physical training program.

The Peace Corps denied Mrs.
Fletcher was pressed to undertake physical training beyond her ability.

"Obviously a woman of her years would not be expected to perform like the younger people," Timothy J. Adams, acting chief of public information, said Thursday night.

Peace Corps Director Sargent
Shriver said Mrs. Fletcher's dismissal was not due to her inability to take part in physical
conditioning.

"There were other reasons and these were discussed with her,"
he said. "One of them was that of all candidates for Brazil she had the lowest language facility."

Mrs. Fletcher told a different story—and she told it in a letter to her senator, John G. Tower, R-Tex. She said she was dropped because "the staff at the camp disliked me because I objected to the training. There could have been no other reason."

Adams said the Fletcher matter
"is closed as far as we're concerned." But Tower demanded an investigation before the Senate votes on the Corps' $63.75-million budget.

Mrs. Fletcher said younger Peace Corps volunteers at the Puerto Rico camp stayed up until the wee hours and did much drinking. She said she was "cursed and shoved beyond my strength" in a program that
"would do justice to any Army training."

Shriver said he couldn't imagine anyone in the training camp cursing the Texas schoolteacher. He said night discussion groups were allowed to drink beer, but there was no moral laxity.

He said Peace Corps selections
are based on merit, not politics, race, religion or age. "We have said from the beginning that Peace Corps standards would be high," Shriver said. "They have to be and we don't intend to relax them because of political pressure."

Adams said Mrs. Fletcher was one of eight trainees dropped for various reasons from the Brazil-bound group.

"Every Peace Corps applicant
is invited to training with the understanding that there will be no final selection for overseas assignment until it is over," he said.

He said three people over 40
successfully completed the training program in Puerto Rico without complaint and now are overseas.

One, Adams said, is Miss Sue Sadow of San Francisco, who also was 65 when she entered training.
She now is teaching in Sierra Leone, he said.

Meanwhile, the Peace Corps came under congressional fire from another direction.

Rep. Glen Lipscomb, R-Calif.,
asked Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, brother-in-law of Shriver, to look into the agency's operations.
Lipscomb said Shriver "may be violating the law by using appropriated funds to lobby congressmen." He issued a statement saying the General Accounting Office verified that the Corps used government funds to send unsolicited
letters to congressmen.

The California representative said he got one of the letters from Shriver praising the Peace Corps and urging support for a House-passed measure increasing the size of the organization.

Peace Corps Director Sargent
Shriver said Mrs. Fletcher's dismissal was not due to her inability to take part in physical
conditioning.

Teachers Lose Court Attempt

DETROIT (AP)—Seven teachers of Anchor Bay High School in New Baltimore, Mich., failed Thursday to obtain a federal court injunction against the school board, which had suspended them for a week.

The teachers were suspended
and the school's principal, Rudy Kamischke, was fired by the board after they wore black arm bands of mourning following the election defeat of a teacher tenure proposal.

The board action precipitated a brief strike by most of the school's 351 students, who protested the suspensions and the firing of Kamischke.

U.S. District Judge Theodore Levin denied the temporary injunction and reprimanded the teachers. He found no basis for their charge that their rights of freedom of speech had been violated.

Gen. Longstreet's Widow Dies At 99

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. (AP)—
Helen Dorch Longstreet, widow of Confederate Gen. James Longstreet, fighter for things in which she believed, Southern beauty and World War II airplane factory worker, is dead at 99.

She had hoped to reach 100 but the end came quietly Thursday in Milledgeville State Hospital.
She was one of the very few surviving widows of a Civil War general.

Mrs. Longstreet never liked to talk about her age, but her niece and only survivor, Mrs. R. H.
Rumph of Atlanta, said she was born in Carnesville, Ga., April 20, 1863.

In failing health for 10 years,
she entered the state mental hospital in 1957. Doctors described her case as mild and said she seemed perfectly happy.

Mrs. Longstreet attended Bren-au College at Gainesville, Ga.,
and there met Longstreet's daughter by his first wife, Marie Louise Garland who died in 1889.

On Sept. 8, 1897, she married Longstreet at the old governor's mansion in Atlanta. He was 76 and she 34.

Her greatest fight was a battle to clear her husband "of any accusation wrongfully made against him that he failed to carry out Lee's orders at Gettysburg." She contended he "had been cautious,
nothing more."

Longstreet was second in command to Lee of the army of North Virginia. He was described as immovable in the battles of Williamsburg, First Manassas, Second Manassas and Antietam. But a show of caution at Gettysburg drew the charge that he had ignored orders.

The general called "the bulldog of Chickamauga," was almost killed by his own troops in an error at the battle of the "Wilderness. However, he was present at Appomattox where he urged Lee not to surrender.

He fell into virtual disgrace
among Southerners when he applied for a job with his cousin by marriage, Ulysses S. Grant.

It was after the general's death in 1904 that Mrs. Longstreet began a career which included the holding of more jobs than she could remember in later years.
She was at one time a newspaper reporter, a freelance writer on politics, the postmistress of Gainesville, Ga., a Veterans Bureau employe, and a riveter in a B29 bomber plant.

As state librarian, she was the first woman in Georgia to hold public office.

"I had to get the legislature to change the law before I could assume office," she recalled a number of years ago. "A hundred thousand women signed a petition that the law be repealed so I could be appointed."

Her employment, during World War II as a riveter at the Bell bomber plant at Marietta, Ga., created a storm of protest by un-

As Your STATE REPRESENTATIVE

HE HELPED OUR CITY
ON WATER RATES

David Read won warm praise from our city leaders for the part he played in getting legislation passed to permit an equitable adjustment of water rates between the city and the State Hospital.

HE HELPED OUR CITY ON POLLUTION CONTROL

David Read has been commended for helping get legislation passed for control of water pollution — a step that was necessary to bring about a new dam on the Colorado River — meaning more water for Big Spring and other CRMWD cities.

These are just two examples of how David Read has worked for our welfare. He is a young man of proven energy, initiative and interest in better government.

He will be of more value to his District this next term because of seniority which will give him assignments on important committees.

David Read has done a fine job. He deserves your support for re-election. Please vote for him tomorrow.

Jury To Get Impact Case

ABILENE (AP)—Jurors hearing the lawsuit over the validity of impact in 42nd Dist. Court here are expected to begin deliberation on a verdict Friday.

Testimony in the suit involving the 47-acre municipality adjacent to Abilene ended Thursday. Impact mayor Dallas Perkins was accused from the witness stand at one point in the trial of attempting to bribe a former Impact resident to work in behalf of the incorporation.

Aubrey Isom testified he declined this offer from Perkins as well as Perkins' offer to pay poll taxes for Isom and his wife. Perkins denied the charges.

Perkins took the stand for more than three hours Thursday morning in a surprise move by the plaintiffs' attorney. He testified about his early plans for developing Impact.

Clint Small, Austin lawyer, questioned him about real estate transactions and asked "if the real purpose of establishing Impact was not to bring liquor into Taylor County."

Perkins repeatedly denied that opening liquor stores in Impact and Taylor County was ever his sole purpose for incorporation.

Four witnesses including Perkins and Isom were called by the plaintiff attorney.

John D. Cofer, Impact attorney, called Perkins and Impact councilman J. P. Rodgers as defense witnesses.

Annual Episcopal Council To Be Held This Weekend

Emmanuel Church, San Angelo, will host the fourth annual Council of the Episcopal Diocese of Northwest Texas this weekend.

Delegates to the council from St. Mary's Parish in Big Spring will be Major Sherrod Osborne Jr., Ralph Hughes, Fred Doelp, Dr. Milton Talbot, J. R. Anderson, and Harold Bull; Dr. J. H. Burnett Jr., senior warden; and Conny Wade, junior warden.

The Council will open at 8 p.m. today with a prayer service. The Bishop of Northwest Texas, the Rt. Rev. George H. Quarterman, will deliver his annual address to the Council. The opening service will be broadcast on a diocesan wide radio network, and in Big Spring can be heard on Radio KBST.

The business session of the Council will convene on Saturday morning. The executive council of the Diocese, which met in Lubbock in February, has recommended a program budget of $164,525 for 1962, and $178,044 for 1963; the Council will be asked to approve both programs.

Several elections will be a part of Saturday's session. A clergyman and a layman will be elected to the standing committee, the advisory body to the Bishop, for three year terms. Two clergymen and two laymen will be named for one year terms on the Executive Council, which acts for the Diocesan Council between annual meetings.

In 1963, the Anglican Congress, made up of all bodies of the Anglican Communion will meet in Toronto, Canada, and the Northwest Texas representatives, one clergyman and one layman, will be elected at the Saturday business session.

On Saturday evening, F. E. Cellier, Sears, Roebuck & Co. executive from Chicago, will address the Council banquet. The Rev. Gray M. Blandy, dean of the Episcopal Seminary of the Southwest, will be the preacher at the closing service of the council at 9 a.m. Sunday morning.

Coincident with the meeting of the Council, the churchwomen of the Diocese will be in session, with Mrs. Paul C. Young, Mrs. Ray Boren, Mrs. Donald Lester, Mrs. P. A. Ratliff, Mrs. M. W. Talbot, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, Mrs. Shine Phillips, Mrs. Ralph Hughes, Mrs.

Conny Wade, and Mrs. E. V. Spence representing the local delegation.

Dean Blandy and Bishop Quarterman will address the women at their Saturday business sessions. The United Thank Offering of the Churchwomen will be presented at a service of Holy Communion at 7 a.m. on Sunday, at which time their officers will also be installed by Bishop Quarterman.

More than 200 delegates and visitors from the 72,000 square mile area of the Diocese are expected to attend the meeting.

CAIRO (AP)—A well-informed source today denounced as lies published reports that President Gamal Abdel Nasser had been shot and wounded.

Elect A Hard Worker To The Senate
ELECT TRUETT LATIMER

Held many committee posts, including chairmanships and vice-chairmanships of important committees. He has served on 12 of these including two terms on appropriations, two on water, three on agriculture and four on insurance.

In 1959 he chaired the departmental appropriations subcommittee which cut the budget requests 37 million dollars. . . . Conducted an investigation of the Health Department, uncovering information which brought about the resignation of the Health Commissioner and a re-organization of the department. . . . Was the house author of the bill creating the Water District which is now constructing a reservoir on Hubbard Creek for the cities of Albany, Anson, Abilene and Breckenridge. . . . Helped re-write the Texas Insurance Code in 1955. . . . Authored the 1957 Texas Water Planning Act. . . . Authored the 1957 Texas Feed Control Act. . . . Authored legislation calling for constitutional revision study. . . . Served as member of powerful Legislative Budget Board and other important interim committees.

He has successfully sponsored many pieces of legislation with local and statewide significance. Latimer believes in working hard for the people he represents and also in taking positive stands on issues confronting the Legislature.

Mundt Says Estes Records Disappearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., voiced suspicions today that records are disappearing in an effort to handicap a Senate investigation of Texas financier Billie Sol Estes' relations with the agriculture department.

Mundt is the senior Republican member of the Senate investigations subcommittee conducting the inquiry. He joined a mounting Republican chorus, including former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, demanding an all-out investigation.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., is looking into charges that Estes profited handsomely from associations with high Agriculture Department officials and others in Washington.

Estes, 37, Pecos, Tex., Democrat who had a spectacular rise to wealth, is under indictment on charges of obtaining millions in mortgages on nonexistent fertilizer storage tanks.

Mundt told a reporter he has full confidence in McClellan and believes the chairman has the Estes inquiry off to a good start.

"But this is not the king-size effort that something of this magnitude merits," Mundt said. "This investigation ought to be speeded up, and I think it will be, with the assignment of more men to the investigation."

"I have a sneaking feeling that some records are beginning to disappear, and will be hard for the investigators to find," Mundt said.

Mundt declined to discuss the basis for his suspicions or to say who he thought might be spiriting records out of files.

McClellan has announced only that he had ordered the present preliminary investigation to determine whether the evidence would justify hearings by his subcommittee.

McClellan is reported convinced the evidence will justify public hearings—when he is sure his investigators have the material at hand and ready for use.

He disclosed Thursday another expansion of the investigating staff with the recruitment of four more accountants and investigators to join the half dozen or so already known to be assigned here and Texas, where Estes has his base.

The Senate and House Republican leaders Thursday demanded an all-out congressional investigation and indicated they felt a special committee should handle it.

The GOP leaders—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana—released their demand at their weekly news conference after talking by telephone with Eisenhower at his home in Gettysburg, Pa. They said the demand was made with the former president's blessings.

"We are convinced that the manipulations of Mr. Estes are only a glaring symptom of a basic sickness—a sickness that has attached itself to the billions of handouts from the Agriculture Department," the statement said.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman fired back a few hours later with a statement of his own. He called the Republican charges "a deliberate, political attempt to make millions of American farmers the victims of the actions of one man in Texas."

Politicians Take New Look At Texas Shrine

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Politicians, never at a loss for words about the Alamo, are taking a new look at the shrine.

Since well before 1900, office seekers have made it a point to visit the onetime Spanish mission where more than 100 men died fighting thousands of Mexican troops during Texas' War for Independence in 1836.

Most have placed a wreath inside the chapel and all have had words to say about the Alamo. Candidates are still talking, but there's a difference.

They've stopped talking about heroes and started talking about tourists.

For tourists have become a major issue in Texas politics. Rarely is a speech delivered these days without the candidate deploring a recent decline in revenue from the tourist trade, then assuring his listeners that he alone can reverse the trend.

The speeches are in striking contrast to those of past years, when orators spoke of the bravery of Davy Crockett, Jim Bowie and William Travis.

"You have the New Orleans of Texas," Houston lawyer Don Yarbrough said in a recent speech. "This city is one of the most picturesque in the world, with its Alamo and the other missions, and it has been terribly ignored."

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson recommended establishment of a state park adjoining or within a few blocks of the Alamo, and said the park should contain "a panorama display that would show the entire Texas Revolution."

Former Navy Sec. John Connally pledged in several speeches to boost the Alamo and other Texas tourist attractions.

Roy Whittenburg called for "a cooperative program between the state and the city Chambers of Commerce, to do a more efficient job of attracting tourists at a minimum of cost."

"Where the Alamo is concerned, cooperation between the Chamber of Commerce here and the State of Texas could do a much more efficient job that would cost the city no more than it is spending now and cost the state very little," Whittenburg said.

Mexicans and Texans were on the opposing sides in the Battle of the Alamo, but Jack Cox pledged to work for improved tourist traffic between Texas and Mexico.

Several speakers have quoted Carolina Sen. Ben (Pitchfork) Tillman that a tourist is "worth about as much as a bale of cotton—and a whale of a lot easier to pick."

Voting Is 'Dry'

AUSTIN (AP)—No beer or wine can be sold by any retailer until 8 p.m. Saturday. Liquor Control Board Administrator Coke Stevenson Jr. announced. Liquor stores cannot open until 8 p.m., one hour after the polls close, and must close at the 10 p.m. curfew.

Reading Matter In Britain Shows Broad Sense Of Humor

By RONALD THOMSON

LONDON (AP)—The notice on the door of the city hall in Kent was brief and to the point—"The evening of clairvoyance on Tuesday has been canceled owing to unforeseen circumstances."

If you live in England, you get used to things like this.

West Wickham fire station is situated in a road which is blocked at both ends.

The English love laughing at themselves, but now and again they wonder why it's so easy. A lot of very silly things seem to happen here.

The weekly magazine New Statesman has been compiling a record of such oddities over the years.

One of the great classics is an order issued by the British Admiralty dealing with the storage of torpedo warheads.

"It is necessary for technical reasons that these warheads should be stored with the top at the bottom, and the bottom at the top. In order that there may be no doubt as to which is the bottom and which is the top for storage purposes, it will be seen that the bottom of each warhead has been labeled with the word 'top.'"

Deadpan announcements in newspapers provide some of the best fun.

From the seaside resort of Margate came this one: "The council has adopted a new slogan, 'There's life in the Margate air,' which is now being stamped on envelopes containing reminders that annual cemetery fees are due."

A profound mystery occurred in the town of Bath.

"On Saturday," said a local paper, "the Stanley Engineering Co. held its outing to Southsea. Owing to pressure of work none of the staff was able to go. However, a most enjoyable time was had by all."

The church column in another newspaper announced: "The minister intends to preach a series of sermons on the Seven Deadly Sins, omitting lust."

The element of violence always adds to the interest.

In the divorce court in London, Justice Karminski ruled that a wife who threw "almost every form of domestic utensil" at her husband was not cruel because on nearly every occasion she missed.

Officialdom is never out of the fray for long.

The mayor of Lincoln said, "There is no housing shortage in town. This is just a rumor put about by people who have nowhere to live."

A government employment bureau went on record thus: "Until recently the admission of foreign workers was confined to female applicants. This restriction has been relaxed and we have extended our activities accordingly. The term 'girl' now stands for any type of applicant regardless of sex."

PEYOTE RITES

Ancient Indian Ceremony Still Resists White Man

By BOB HARING

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Peyote is both a cactus and a religion—and a vestige of ancient Indian culture which still resists the white man's encroachment.

Few white men have ever seen a Peyote ceremony, but many have tried to eliminate the Indian religious practice which involves eating parts of the Peyote cactus.

Missionaries and others have denounced the Peyote ceremony as a pagan ritual.

But practitioners of Peyote deny this and they have some support from white men.

FEW TO ATTEND

Dr. Sol Tax, a University of Chicago anthropologist and one of the few white men ever to attend a Peyote ritual, called it one of the most wonderful religious experiences he ever had. And a University of Oklahoma anthropologist, Dr. William E. Bittle, called Peyote a panacea to a large number of Indian ills.

It is estimated that Peyote has 130,000 followers in this country and that 20,000 of Oklahoma's 190,000 Indians attend Peyote ceremonies.

One of the major attempts to outlaw Peyote came in the 1940s, when the Oklahoma legislature was petitioned by a group of church leaders to put a stop to the Indian religion.

D. M. Madrano, of Tulsa, a lawyer and Caddo Indian, headed a committee which investigated Peyote.

BILL KILLED
"We called leaders of the Peyote clans to testify and after they were finished, so was the bill," he said.

"Peyote is the natural and old way for the Indians to worship God."

Charges that the cactus is habit-forming and harmful to health are untrue, Madrano said.

The plant itself is a green, spineless cactus which resembles a small carrot.

Madrano attended Caddo Peyote services during his investigation. The form may vary from tribe to tribe, but the basic service—usually held on a Saturday night—is the same.

Worshippers usually number 12 to 24 persons. The leader takes a seat facing east. Others are seated on hay and blankets around the teepee.

THE NECESSITY FOR CHRISTIANS TO BE WITNESSES FOR CHRIST, WHEREVER THEY ARE, AND TO SUPPORT THEIR TESTIMONY BY A RIGHTEOUS LIFE

Scripture—Acts 3-5; 1 Peter 2.

By N. SPEER JONES

KEY WORD for today's subject might be "boldness."

The letter on which our lesson is based is Peter's first epistle (written about 60 A.D.) to the Jewish Christians, "exiles of the Dispersion," who were scattered about the Mediterranean. Our lesson also encompasses some early experiences of Peter, almost 30 years before he wrote this letter.

In both the experiences and the letter, Peter—who had once lacked the courage even to acknowledge that he knew the persecuted Christ—shows that he has so overcome his weakness that boldness in witnessing for Christ is now one of his most salient characteristics.

This change on Peter's part was evident soon after the descent of the Holy Spirit on

As this word spread farther, so that people from other towns brought their sick to Jerusalem to be healed, the high priests once more imprisoned them. Once more, Peter and the others, through the Holy Spirit within them, were able to stand their ground, boldly accusing their accusers.

Now we see a different example of boldness. One of the Jewish council had the courage to come to the apostles' rescue. When Gamaliel spoke out, telling the council to leave these men alone, he addressed a body so enraged that they were ready to kill (Acts 5:33-39).

This Gamaliel, a doctor of law, was undoubtedly the same man who was the teacher of Paul (Acts 22:3). "So great was Gamaliel's fame that one of the ancient Hebrew books of the

"Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may prove what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect."
—Romans 12:2

Pentecost (the seventh Sunday after Easter), when Peter and John in Christ's name healed the lame man at the temple (Acts 3:1-10). When the amazed crowd collected, Peter was bold enough to admonish them for their sin in having denied and crucified Christ, and to exhort them to repent.

In the trial the next morning before the high priests, Peter again boldly accused them of their sin, then even more boldly refused, under threats, to keep silent about Christ, saying, "We cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:5-20).

This boldness was evidenced by all the company of Christ's followers in Jerusalem in those early days, who willingly gave up their wealth—their economic security—in order to spread the word of their beliefs (Acts 4:32-35).

Christians, in other words, must be bold enough to live temperately.

"Mishna," when he died, said "The glory of the Torah ceased, and purity and sanctity died out also." J. R. Lumby, quoted in Peloubet's Select Notes, p. 166.

Many years later, in his letter, Peter encourages lonely believers by reminding them that they are a chosen race, "God's own people," so that they "may declare the wonderful deeds of Him" Who called them "out of darkness" (1 Peter 2:9).

Not only must they be bold in declaring their faith, but they must give their words validity by living as blameless a life as possible. Peter urges strict compliance with man's laws in order to squelch the rumor that Christians, with their talk of God's and Christ's kingship, are not plotting overthrow of the empire.

"ATHIESM"

"Theism" and "Theo" relate to God. "A" in the Greek is a negation meaning "No" hence an athiest is one who says there is no God. To say there is no God is to say there is nothing higher and greater than man. This in turn is to say that man is self-existent and totally self sustained. This also leaves man to make his own rules and to live without respect for higher authority. To respect what the heavens and earth declare, namely that there is God as Creator, Redeemer and Provider is to respect Him as appellant and Plaintiff against evils that exist in the world. A respect for God's existence is to have set up in one's life the purest and strongest standard against trying to "Get by" and I'm convinced that athiesm is herein guilty of seeking to "get by". It amounts therefore to a "Setting aside" of Principles. It becomes a means of evasion of duty, a kind of anarchy, which, without respect to the authority of God and the Bible sets up erratic standards of its own. Athiesm amounts to an effort to "Escape". Since Athiesm is a denial of Bible authority it may therefore take on many shades and colors. It may deny only a part of the Scripture; it may set up by way of substitution for Bible authority a presumed authority of "The Church" so called. For when once the idea has been destroyed of respecting the authority of the Bible man can have "Thrust down their throats" the idea that religious authority rests in the church or in a Priest, a conclave of preachers or a creed book. Once the idea of Anarchy is established stubborn pride will rule out what Christ says about the church for which He died. What then will rule a man's life is "Your own choice" and this is always said with a total disregard of Bible teaching. Why should any Bible believer think he has any choice of churches any more than he has a choice of Gods. Please read Ephesians 4:1-6 and John 17:20-21. But actually not all people are actually athiest who follow anarchy in religion. (The idea of you go your way and I'll go mine) but they do represent one shade or color of disbelief of what the Bible says. "Faith" is more than a bare belief in the existence of God. It is rather a belief in His word, (The Bible) to equate faith in God with faith in His word is to equate an athiest with one who does not believe God's word. This is safely within the principle of John 14:15. Elbert R. Garretson, Evangelist

CONTROL TOWER

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Clearance, weather information, assigned altitudes and airways, landing instructions... we take these for granted. We simply fly from point to point, our progress and safety undergirded by an intricate web of scientific communication.

Perhaps that's why, today, so many assume that some celestial system ought to assure everyone comfort, success and happiness.

But the control tower can operate only because every pilot respects its purpose and has faith in its instructions.

Our moral progress and our spiritual security are the constant concern of the Church. Its worship and guidance undergird the lives of all who respect its Purpose, and have faith in the truths of God which it teaches.

Hawks In Roswell For League Meet

ROSSELL, N. M. — Howard County Junior College is the solid favorite in the Western Conference Track and Field meet, which gets under way here this afternoon and continues through Saturday morning.

The Jayhawks from Big Spring won the team championship with- in the circuit at Amarillo last weekend. Individual titles only will be determined here.

The Hawks and other conference schools will be taking their final warmups before the National JC meet, which takes place in Big Spring two weekends hence.

HCJC is favored to win both hurdles, the high jump, sprint medley relay, discus throw, pole vault, quarter-mile relay, 440-yard run, 100, 800, 220 and mile relay here.

NMMI, the host school, is the choice in the shot put, mile run and two-mile while Lubbock Christian should prevail in the broad jump.

Tommy Wise of HCJC won both hurdles in last week's meet at Amarillo, negotiating the 220-yards in 14.3 seconds and the high in 24.5.

Lou Belenton of the Hawks, who has cleared 6-4 this year, is the choice in the high jump.

HCJC's sprint medley relay team, consisting of Dean Chestam, Don Carter, Tommy Yarbro and Milton Morrow, was tied by NMMI last week. Each was clocked in 3:37.7. Coach L. L. (Red) Lewis reasons his team can do better this time out.

Gary Walker of the Big Spring school reigns supreme in the discus throw. He has done 157 feet 11 inches this year, although his best (and winning) throw last week was 147-8/8.

The Hawks have two fine pole vaulters in Larry Mauldin of Abilene and Ronnie Overby of Snyder, either one of whom could come through. Mauldin has cleared 13-3 this year, last week won with an effort of 13 feet even.

HCJC doesn't figure to get much competition in the sprint relay, with Kenny Kesterson, Chestam, Yarbro and Herman Robinson running. That foursome won in the time of 42.1 last week.

Yarbro, an Abilene product, looms as the best bet in the 440. He's been under 50 seconds several times, last week was clocked in 49.9.

Chestam and Robinson figure to fight it out in both the 100 and 220. Chestam won both events last week, running the century in 9.6 and the furlong in 21.4 around one curve.

In the 880 last week, Milton Morrow of the Hawks won in 2:05.9 and may cut a few seconds off that time this week.

HCJC's winning mile relay team last week was timed in 3:24.6 and reportedly was given a tussle by NMMI. It may have to do better this time to win. Running with the team are Robinson, Morrow, Yarbro and Carter.

NMMI has a fine performer in Charles Barham, who figures to win both the mile and the two-mile. The Bronchos also loom strong in the shot put, where Tom Landy excels.

Lubbock Christian looks the best in the broad jump. Leslie Winspur, a New Mexico product, won that event for the Pioneers last week with a leap of 21 feet 4 inches.

Other boys who figure heavily in HCJC's plans include Kenneth Windham of Jim Ned, who hurdles, broad jumps and can run some of the relays; Ernest Turner, 220 entry from Grand Prairie; and LeRoy Smith of Big Spring, a mile.

In Conference Meet
Pictured above is Hermalinda Lopez of the HCJC tennis team, who will be competing in the Western Conference meet at Roswell, N.M., this weekend. Miss Lopez is one of the favorites in the two-day meet.

Sir Gaylord Out Of Derby Dash

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Sir Gaylord, strong favorite to take Saturday's Kentucky Derby, was declared officially out of the race today by trainer Casey Hayes after developing a lameness following a half-mile workout.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The 8th Kentucky Derby lost one of its choicest today and possibly could lose Sir Gaylord, the 8-5 choice.

Verne Winchell's Donut King, a California-owned horse, was withdrawn by trainer Ron Mc Anally. Donut King showed up with an infection in his left hind foot Thursday about the time the names of 18 horses were being dropped into the entry box.

"We could take a chance with the derby," said Mc Anally, "but he had that infection last winter at Santa Anita and when it re-occurred this time, we thought it better to hold him back for the Preakness at Pimlico on May 19."

There was much conjecture on the condition of C. T. Chenery's Sir Gaylord, the derby favorite, unbeaten in four starts this year, came out of a workout this morning slightly lame. The lameness did not appear to lessen as the horse was walked around the barn.

The lameness was in the right front leg, the same leg in which Sir Gaylord suffered a slight injury that put him on the shelf after the Everglades Stakes at Hialeah Park in February.

"I don't see how the horse can run," said trainer Casey Hayes after watching him cool out and then placing him in the stall. Hayes said the lameness was in the same leg on which the horse suffered an ankle injury last February but not in the same spot.

Hayes added that X-rays will be taken to determine extent of the injury.

Hayes also said no definite announcement would be made on the withdrawal of Sir Gaylord or the possible replacement of him in the derby by Cicada, his stablemate, until Chenery arrives from Virginia later today.

Meantime Cicada, the stable's ace filly, was kept eligible for the 1 1/4 mile $125,000-added race. Cicada was entered Thursday along with 17 other horses as insurance in the event something should happen to Sir Gaylord.

The running of the derby, at Churchill Downs, could take place three-eighths of a mile from the starting point.

Steers Wind Up Play Saturday In Angelo

Fresh from a very satisfying victory over the Abilene Eagles, the Big Spring Steers visit San Angelo Saturday to wind up their baseball season against the Bobcats in a 2 p.m. game.

The Steers are now deadlocked for sixth place in the standings. San Angelo, although it has lost its last three games, has third place in the circuit virtually nailed down.

Roy Baird, the local coach, will send either Dexter Pate or Bowman Roberts to the mound, probably the latter. Pate set the Eagles down with two hits while leading the Steers to a 15-3 victory last Tuesday.

Pate, a senior, is now 6-5 for the season. Roberts is 2-5. Bowman, a righthander, is also a senior.

San Angelo could counter with Milton White, who was very impressive in the previous game against Big Spring. White rattled out six hits as the Bobcats won a 7-3 victory at that time. White has had a full week's rest.

Baird will probably start a lineup composed of Jerry Tucker behind the plate, Jeff Brown at first base, David Maberry at second, Tommy Young at shortstop, Coy Mitchell at third, Jack Irons in left field, Rickey Wisener in center and Bobby Mearns in right.

Of that group, only Brown and Mearns will be back in 1963.

San Angelo's coach, Johnny Elam, is apt to go with a lineup which includes Butchey Terrell in center field, Gary Golightly at Golightly at third, White on the mound, Charles Spieker behind the plate, Glenn Rodriguez at shortstop, Weldon Allen in right field, Alex Decuir at second base, Ronnie Henson at first base and Norman Schuessler in left field.

The Steers have a conference record of 4-9 and 11-12 overall. San Angelo is 8-5 in conference and 12-9 for the season.

Class B Teams Open The Show In State Meet

AUSTIN (AP)—The Class B division, with a championship fight projected between Booker and Rising Star, got the annual Texas Interscholastic League track and field meet on the way Friday.

More than 800 athletes will battle in the big elder path carnival in which Abilene seeks a record sixth state championship in Class AAAA. Brownwood is favored in Class AAA, Fort Stockton in AA, and Hallsville in A.

At least two records were on the line as the Class B division went through preliminaries in the running events and two field events and finals in the pole vault, discus and broad jump.

Jack Howard of Fort Worth Masonic Home was expected to crack the shot put record of 55 feet 1 1/4 inches. He has made 56-7 this season. Larry Witt of Roseville endangered the 180-yard hurdles record of 19.7. He made this time in the regional meet.

The A classes get going this afternoon but only in field events. Randy Matson of Pampa is expected to better the AAAA discus record of 174 feet 8 1/2 inches and also set an overall record. He has thrown the platter 186 feet 6 1/2 inches. Records also may come in field events of Classes AAA, AA and A.

Tonight finals will be run off in Classes AAA and AA, deciding champions in each. Brownwood appears an easy favorite in AAA but the records will probably be set by other schools.

Tommy Keene of Vernon is a strong bet to wipe out the 440-yard dash record of 48.0. He has turned a 47.6. Norris Weir of LaPorte should take down the pole vault record of 13-5 1/2.

Class AA could establish a half-dozen records.

If Buddy Lucre, the Fort Stockton hurdler, is able to compete (he has a tendon injury) he might hang up a record in the high hurdles. He has done 14.2 and the record is 14.3. Richard Galleon of Crystal City will be after the mile record of 4:27.4. He has 4:24.3 already this season. Fort Stockton's mile relay team could wipe out the record of 3:23.0. Tommy Marshall of Yoakum has bettered the pole vault record of 12 feet 8 1/4 inches. Pat Hubbard of Denver City and Lucre each has equalled the low hurdles record of 19.1.

Class A is due to establish five records. Mike Holmes of Big Lake might take down the 100-yard dash mark of 9.8 and the 220-yard record of 21.4. Jim Runge of Eldorado the 440-yard standard of 49.8. Jerry Utrecht of O'Donnell the high jump record of 6 feet 2 inches and Evaristo Carreon of Roscoe the pole vault mark of 12 feet 4 inches.

LOOKING 'EM OVER With TOMMY HART

The total pari mutuel handle at Sunland Park's spring meeting, which closed last week, amounted to $7,377,373—which averages out to $194,141.30 a day.

Of that amount, $6,270,767 was returned to the public. In the 381 races, 116 lived up to roles as favorites. A total of $462,600 in purse money was distributed, for an average $1,214 a race.

The highest daily double payoff came on the combination of Mah Moon and Country Delivery back on March 17, at which time the lucky ticket holders won $93.60. Sand Trout paid $149.20 to his backers on Feb. 10, a record for the season.

The top quinella payoff occurred on Feb. 23, at which time Admiral Bingo and Air Pine ran one-two and rewarded their backers with $397.80 on the minimum ticket.

Close to 1,000 horses (96 to be exact) were quartered at the track sometime during the meeting.

When Colorado City's Steve Hillhouse pitched that perfect game against Sweetwater the other day, he was working on a 3-2 count on only one batter. He threw the sixth pitch by the batter for a strikeout.

Only once did a Sweetwater player hit the ball out of the infield against the little lefthander.

Hillhouse, born in Oklahoma, moved to Colorado City when he was an eighth grader.

Larry Isbell, who led the Baylor Bears into a post-season bowl game a few years ago, is now in the sales department of a Tulsa cement company.

Bill Sinches, San Angelo High School's fine all-around athlete, has signed a letter-of-intent at HCJC, where he'll play basketball. At one time, the University of Oklahoma was said to be close to signing Sinches. Bud Wilkinson wanted to exploit Bill's football talents.

Sinches will be one of four Negroes seeking places on the 1962-63 Jayhawk basketball team. The others: holdovers Earnest Turner and Lou Belenton and freshman Charles Cumber.

Quite probably, Sinches would have performed for the San Angelo College team had officials there not adopted a semi-official policy of not using Negro boys.

SAC is integrated but Negroes are not encouraged to try out for any sport, for some reason. (There are those who will bet that the school will have to adopt a new philosophy toward colored athletes in the not too distant future.)

Sinches is one of four boys signed by HCJC out of high school this spring. The others are Dick Ebling, Big Spring; Jimmy Odom, a 6-4, cager from Lubbock High School; and Cumber. Odom weighs 205 pounds.

Warren Hacker, who pitched in the old WT-NM league, walked into 18 batters last season while toiling for Chattanooga and the Chicago White Sox. He pitched in 120 innings.

Moe Iba, who performed for Oklahoma State's basketball team against Texas Western when Big Spring's Harold Davis was coach there, will be the new assistant cage mentor at the El Paso school next year. He'll help Don Haskins, who also played his college ball at Oklahoma State.

Only Three Local Contests In Dawson Primary Election

LAMESA (SC) — Only three contested races are on the Dawson County Democratic ballot for the primary election Saturday. Sharing the spotlight of interest is the Republican primary, the first in the county's history.

The battle for the top county job has incumbent R. F. Spraberry seeking a third term, challenged by Leslie Pratt and Hubert Watkins, all of Lamesa. The only other races in the immediate county are in the 28th Senatorial District and 75th Legislative post, sought by four candidates each.

The only local GOP candidate is Gene Dean, Lamesa, who is seeking the post of representative. While Democrats vote in the usual 17 precincts, GOP voters will ballot only in four city boxes: Pct. 1, next door north of Cope Butane on the Big Spring highway; Pct. 2, V. Z. Rogers school cafeteria; Pct. 3, North Elementary school; Pct. 4, South Elementary school. Election officials are F. P. King, Harmon Burkett, Rex Dunn and Mrs. Will Morris, respectively.

Demo party chairman Mrs. Suttle Purcell and Vernon (Hap) Bratcher, GOP chairman, have indicated all is in readiness for the voting. Demo precinct conventions will be held in the district courtroom and GOP members will hold their conventions in the Chamber of Commerce offices Saturday.

Gas Well Fire Is Snuffed Out

HOUSTON (AP)—A gas well fire which may have cost the Humble Oil and Refining Co. $2 million has been snuffed out in Galveston Bay.

The well blew out and has been burning since last Oct. 22. It is believed to be the most expensive and troublesome blowout in Humble's history.

During the six months of round-the-clock work, Humble used a directional relief shaft, a quarter million dollar steel fence, oyster shells, laughing gas, bay water and drilling mud to put out the blaze.

Kiwanians Visit Hospital, Plan Annual Rodeo Feed

Five young patients in the Big Spring State Hospital, now undergoing mental illness therapy, Thursday told Big Spring Kiwanians of the progress they are making toward normalcy. They were members of a panel selected by the hospital to appear before the club which visited the hospital as its observation of National Mental Health Week.

The five—four men and a young girl, praised the institution and its staff. Each said that he or she came to the hospital with a grave misapprehension as to the nature of such places.

The young woman said: "I expected to be locked up like an animal. She said that instead of this barbaric treatment, she found people who were kindly, deeply concerned in her welfare and eager to help her. The other speakers echoed the same sentiment.

Dr. Paul Young, chief of social psychology, and the Rev. Max Maguire, chaplain, were in charge of the program. Dr. Preston Harrison, superintendent, welcomed the visitors and presented Dr. Young and Maguire.

The Kiwanians were dined in the messroom of Ward 10. Jack Alexander, lieutenant governor for the 23rd Kiwanis Club division, presided.

Announcement was made the club is again sponsoring the big barbecue which last year was one of the opening events of the annual Howard County Rodeo. The date is May 30. Tickets are now on sale. Any Kiwanian can supply tickets.

The barbecue will be served at the City Park from 5 to 7 p.m. on the opening day of the big rodeo. The Kiwanians last year made a contract with the Big Spring Rodeo Association, to serve the meal to the members of the numerous roundup clubs and others who were in town for the rodeo parade. Out of this plan grew the public barbecue. Hundreds were served at the initial event.

4,000 Watch Stock Sale

KINGSVILLE (AP)—A crowd estimated at 4,000 watched the 22th annual sale here yesterday of King Ranch Santa Gertrudis cattle and the famed spread's quarterhorses.

Twenty-five quarterhorses sold for a total of $46,045 or an average of $1,841.80 each. Twelve colts sold for $17,410 or an average of $1,450.83. Lloyd Jenkins of Fort Worth paid the top price for a quarterhorse at $2,425.

Thirteen fillies went for $28,635 or an average of $2,202.69 each. The top price for a filly was paid by Mike G. Rutherford of Buda.

Twenty-four Santa Gertrudis bulls sold for $82,125 or an average of $3,422. G. W. Adkisson Jr., manager of the Winrock Farms at Morrilton, Ark., paid the top price for a bull, $9,700.

Ten Santa Gertrudis heifers sold for $8,100 or $810 average, with the top price being $1,300 by Rurimar Ranch in Lutedale, Miss. The heifer was bred by Armstrong Ranch, Armstrong, Tex.

Students Must Have Social Security Cards

The time for summer vacation from school is rapidly approaching. Students who will be working for the first time this summer will need a social security account number, according to Erven Fisher, manager of the local Social Security office.

An application for a number may be obtained from the post office or from the local social security office, 700 Rannels. The number must be shown to an employer.

This is important to the summer worker and to the graduate who will be starting a career. All employment is credited under the individual's account number.

DEAR ABBY Better Change The Routine

DEAR ABBY: I am a delivery man. There is a divorce on my route who is undergoing psychiatric treatment. She is lonely and says that her doctor told her that companionship would be helpful. When I stop at her house she invites me in for coffee. I stay and visit with her a little while. I told my wife about it, because there is nothing to hide, and she had a fit. She told me not to do it again. I am afraid if I refuse this lady's hospitality she might have a setback. What should I do?

DEAR ABBY: Even though you may be "what the doctor ordered," I think you ought to change your routine—if not your route. Your wife is no fool.

DEAR ABBY: Is there anything wrong with answering a question with another question?

I came home from school and my father said to me, "Did you put your books and things away?" I replied, "Do you see them?" He walked over and slapped my face. Another time he asked, "How are you doing in algebra?" I answered in a very nice tone, "Did you get any complaints?" He slapped me a good one for that. I am getting tired of being slapped around and want to know if you think my answers to him were disrespectful. They were simple questions, weren't they?

DEAR ABBY: Please give me any suggestions you have for how to get along with a man who shouts at the top of his lungs whenever things don't go his way. He comes from a real noisy, loud-mouthed family. They yell and holler at each other, and the one who yells loudest wins the argument. I know what his people were like before I married him, but wasn't smart enough to know that as soon as the honeymoon was over he would act the same as the people he grew up with. We've been married 17 years and have four children and he thinks we are just here to scrape his feet on. I thank you. DOOR MAT

DEAR DOOR MAT: You are not going to change your husband, so you might as well change your tactics. Avoid subjects that provoke his shouting. Tune out his tirades with practiced deafness and save your nerves.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "UNBELIEVABLY IGNORANT": You are cheating your husband. Send me your name address and I'll tell you what books to read on the subject.

For a personal (unpublished) reply to your problem, send Abby a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

FRANCES GLENN

I try to express my thanks by doing my best to serve as your county treasurer.

Prompt, courteous, accurate performance has been and is still my aim in this important place.

No one will appreciate more or work harder to merit your continued confidence.

LEGAL NOTICE

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING AN ORDINANCE ENTITLED "ZONING REGULATIONS OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING, TEXAS," PERMITTING THE SALE OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES FOR OFF-PREMISES CONSUMPTION IN CERTAIN DISTRICTS AND PROHIBITING THE SALE OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES FOR OFF-PREMISES CONSUMPTION IN OTHER DISTRICTS AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, the Zoning Regulations of the City of Big Spring do not specifically define, prohibit or permit the sale of alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary, for clarification, to specifically authorize the sale of alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption in certain districts;

THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING, TEXAS, that the Zoning Regulations of the City of Big Spring, Texas, pertaining to "Retail Sale of Alcoholic Beverages for Off-Premises Consumption" be amended by adding Article 12 to Sub-Section A, which shall read as follows:

12. The sale of alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption is hereby permitted in the following districts: C-1, C-2, C-3, C-4, C-5, C-6, C-7, C-8, C-9, C-10, C-11, C-12, C-13, C-14, C-15, C-16, C-17, C-18, C-19, C-20, C-21, C-22, C-23, C-24, C-25, C-26, C-27, C-28, C-29, C-30, C-31, C-32, C-33, C-34, C-35, C-36, C-37, C-38, C-39, C-40, C-41, C-42, C-43, C-44, C-45, C-46, C-47, C-48, C-49, C-50, C-51, C-52, C-53, C-54, C-55, C-56, C-57, C-58, C-59, C-60, C-61, C-62, C-63, C-64, C-65, C-66, C-67, C-68, C-69, C-70, C-71, C-72, C-73, C-74, C-75, C-76, C-77, C-78, C-79, C-80, C-81, C-82, C-83, C-84, C-85, C-86, C-87, C-88, C-89, C-90, C-91, C-92, C-93, C-94, C-95, C-96, C-97, C-98, C-99, C-100.

13. The sale of alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption is hereby prohibited in the following districts: D-1, D-2, D-3, D-4, D-5, D-6, D-7, D-8, D-9, D-10, D-11, D-12, D-13, D-14, D-15, D-16, D-17, D-18, D-19, D-20, D-21, D-22, D-23, D-24, D-25, D-26, D-27, D-28, D-29, D-30, D-31, D-32, D-33, D-34, D-35, D-36, D-37, D-38, D-39, D-40, D-41, D-42, D-43, D-44, D-45, D-46, D-47, D-48, D-49, D-50, D-51, D-52, D-53, D-54, D-55, D-56, D-57, D-58, D-59, D-60, D-61, D-62, D-63, D-64, D-65, D-66, D-67, D-68, D-69, D-70, D-71, D-72, D-73, D-74, D-75, D-76, D-77, D-78, D-79, D-80, D-81, D-82, D-83, D-84, D-85, D-86, D-87, D-88, D-89, D-90, D-91, D-92, D-93, D-94, D-95, D-96, D-97, D-98, D-99, D-100.

LETTER

Defending Rep. Read

To the Editor:

In regard to the letter to the editor by Frank Goodman, I think that something needs to be said about the aspersions cast against our Representative David Read.

In regard to the statement made by Mr. Read at the Farm Bureau meeting, Mr. Goodman was not present. Mr. Read did make a statement that "there is a dangerous and cancerous growth in our farm and bracer program which is a real danger to our state and our nation; and this cancer is the National Labor Relations Board." This certainly refutes the statement made by Mr. Goodman.

There was no pledge made by Mr. Read to support HCJC or our State Hospital — however, our Representative did support them to the extent they received the largest appropriation in the history of either institution.

In regard to the claim made of Mr. Read's change in the Speaker's race, and the fact that he voted for the sales tax, can simply be summed up by saying that most of the troubles in our state and federal government are caused by politicians either refusing to admit they have been wrong or refusing to act in being wrong again. When public men concede that

A Reporter's Life As Seen A La Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
 AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—You know how they do these television police shows—the camera showing the action and the urgent voice of the unseen narrator explaining what's going on.

Herewith, then, a personal dramatized account of a real-life, disillusioning incident:

(The setting is a newspaper office, full of cluttered desks, old coffee containers, clattering teletypes and reporters rushing in crying "scoop!") Theme music comes up and over, rising to a crescendo.

Narrator: The meet was set by a third party. A contact called—from a coin booth, of course—to say that Sgt. Steve Carella of the 87th Precinct had gone on the tightrope and had something to tell me.

Carella, the smartest, toughest, bravest cop in the precinct. Undercover! This was news—and I wanted the story.

My name is Lowry. I'm a pusher (pencil).

We set the meet: 9:30 the next morning in a good place, a restaurant called Schrafft's on 51st between Fifth and Sixth. My contact said Carella was using his real name Robert Lansing and had taken an acting job in NBC's May 20 war drama "A Sound of Hunting." Sounded like a good cover.

At 9:30 on the dot I walked into the restaurant, cleverly disguised as a lady shopper. I sat down at a corner table and ordered coffee, black. My contact arrived, nervous. To allay suspicion we ordered breakfast—fruit juice, pancakes, sausages. Our eyes never left the door. No Carella. The minutes ticked away.

By 9:45 it was certain something had happened. The contact made some telephone calls. Carella had left his hotel. By 10 we were sure: Carella was not going to show. Why? Had he decided not to talk? Had someone else decided he was not to talk?

We left and separated swiftly. I went back to the office—to wait. What had happened? After all Carella had never failed to break a case.

The call came at 10:30. It was Carella—he called himself Lansing, of course. "I couldn't find it," he said. "The restaurant. I was there at the corner of 51st and Sixth but I couldn't find Schrafft's. And it was drizzling too. Later I noticed the note said it was between Fifth and Sixth. So maybe we can set up something again. . . ."

A cop's life is hard enough. But when you're on the tightrope, brother, it can be pretty lonely. Particularly in a drizzle on the corner of 51st and Sixth.

ABC is staying with animated cartoons even though they've not had a very inspiring reception this season. It will add one, "The Jetsons," to its Sunday night schedule next fall. Where "The Flintstones" is about a Stone-Age couple, this one is about a Space-Age pair.

Recommended weekend viewing:
 Tonight—"Andy Williams Show," NBC, 9:30-10:30 (Eastern Daylight Time)—with Ann-Margret and Dick Van Dyke.

Saturday—Kentucky Derby, CBS, 5-5:45 p.m.
 Sunday—"The Nation's Future," NBC, 6:30-7:30 p.m.—Discussion between astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., and Cosmonaut Gherman S. Titov.

Little Hope For 13 Miners

ODENDAALSRUST, South Africa (AP)—Little hope was held today for 13 miners trapped for two days in a gold mine rock fall 5,200 feet underground.

Rescue workers recovered the bodies of three miners Thursday but said they might not reach the other entombed men until Saturday.

Two More Sign For Annual Miss Big Spring Contest

Two more Howard County beauties have signed up for the annual Miss Big Spring Pageant.

The contest is to be held June 16 in the city auditorium, sponsored by the Jaycees. Winner of the senior division will compete for the Miss Texas title, both contests being official preliminaries to the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, N. J.

Sign-up station is at Cizon's Jewelers.

Gordon Cizon, chairman of the entries committee, announced these qualifications for senior contestants: Must have been a resident of Howard County for the past six months (excepting coeds at Howard County Junior College who are from out of town); must be single and never have been married, divorced, or had marriage annulled; age at time of pageant must be no less than 18 nor more than 28; must be of good character and must possess poise, personality, intelligence, charm, and beauty of face and figure.

Entrants may be either amateurs, or professional models, actresses, etc.
 Prerequisites are the same for junior division contestants, except for age and talent. Seniors must perform or demonstrate a talent of the entrant's own choosing; juniors are not required to take part in the talent show.
 Age limits for the juniors are not less than 16 and not more than 18 on June 16.
 Entering the senior division is Patricia Eugena Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard E. Saunders of the Sterling City Route.
 A student at HCJC, Miss Saunders was a cheerleader, drillmaster, FFA sweetheart, and was voted best all-around girl in Garden City High School. At HCJC, she was named the Rodeo sweetheart. Her father is assistant fire chief at Webb AFB.

She will choose as her talent sewing and dancing.

Miss Saunders' vital statistics include height 5 feet 7½ inches, weight 130, blue eyes, brown hair, fair complexion, and measurements of 35-14½-36.

Janet Everett has entered the junior pageant. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Everett of 516 Dallas and attends Big Spring High School. She is active in Girl Scout leadership, YMCA, FHA, and swimming instruction. She also has had extensive training in dance and piano.

Miss Everett has measurements of 35½-26-39½, is 5 feet 5 inches in height, weighs 120, and has blue eyes, blonde hair and fair complexion.

Wolfhounds To Join This

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—A battalion of the U.S. Army's crack 27th Infantry Wolfhound Regiment will join Thai troops for maneuvers in jungle warfare during the next week, an American military spokesman said.

The Wolfhounds, one of the toughest American fighting units in the Korean War, participated in last week's Southeast Asia Treaty Organization ground-air exercise.

The spokesman said it was decided to keep the Hawaii-based troops here for another two weeks for an exchange of ideas with the Thais. The Wolfhounds have built up a reputation as experts in jungle warfare.
