Tail Section Of Crashed Plane

A civilian at the French village of Villeneuve Le Roi looks into the tail section of the Boeing 707 airliner that crashed and burned in an attempted takeoff from the adjacent Orly Airfield. It was the worst single plane disaster in aviation history.

Under charter by Air France, the plane carried 132 passengers and crew—122 of them Americans. Only two crew members survived the crash.

Evidence Indicates Pilot Tried To Stop

PARIS (AP)—Evidence mounted today that the pilot of the chartered jetliner that crashed with the loss of 130 lives made a desperate attempt to halt his takeoff.

The four-engine, Air France Boeing 707 jet rose only a few feet before plunging to earth, smashing through a fence and exploding into flames at Orly Airport Sunday. All 121 American passengers, including many Atlanta cultural leaders, eight crew-men and Air France's Atlanta agent were killed.

The investigation of the crash may not be completed for six months, but there were a number of indications that Capt. Roland Hoche, one of Air France's most experienced pilots, was aware of an impending disaster and frantically tried to halt the huge craft.

Pierre Loiseau, a radio operator at the Orly control tower, said he saw smoke coming from the big jet's wheels, indicating that the pilot slammed on the brakes as the plane approached its normal takeoff point. Loiseau said the plane swayed from side to side as though the pilot was maneuvering in an effort to cut speed.

Skid marks on the runway indicated the pilot had his brakes on for about 500 yards. Investigators reportedly found the plane's throttle levers in the reverse position, another indication that the pilot tried vainly to halt the jet.

Francoise Authie, 23, one of the two stewardesses who were the only survivors, said she felt the engines slow as the plane rolled down the runway.

"When the engines slowed down I knew we would not take off," she said. "I did not imagine for a moment that we were in danger. Then it happened—like that—suddenly."

She said there were several severe jolts as the plane came apart with a loud crashing noise. The plane's electronic flight recorder, which may hold the secret of what went wrong, reportedly was found in the burned wreckage.

A U.S. Federal Aviation Agency spokesman in Washington said that "based on preliminary reports, no technical reasons are apparent at this time as to why the Air France aircraft crashed."

Atlanta Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. reported it may be some time before identification of the 106 Atlantans killed in the crash is completed and arrangements are made to send the bodies home.

The plane had been chartered by the Atlanta Art Association for a European tour that was derailed by a close when tragedy struck. Mayor Allen flew here Monday to assist in the identification and spent much of the day in the five morgues where the victims' bodies lay.

"It's the most difficult job I've had to do in a long time," he said. "This has been a most grievous task and a very sorrowful journey."

TULSA (AP)—A drop in Oklahoma oil production caused most of a decline in U. S. output last week, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

The Journal said average daily production of crude oil and lease condensate last week was 7,192,380 barrels, down 54,650.

Oklahoma production declined 32,500 barrels per day to 503,600. Colorado was down 1,800 barrels daily to 119,100.

Figures for other states included Arkansas 82,000, Louisiana 1,275,850, New Mexico 300,250 and Texas 2,533,325.

Ellender Doubts Estes Influence

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Allen Ellender, D-La., chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, says Billie Sol Estes duped farmers and bankers but doubts he got special favors from Washington officials.

Ellender said he was "not sure" that Estes had used his political connections to get special favors from Washington officials.

Further Algerian Killing Is Ordered

Mrs. Marshall Denies Making Suicide Hint

HOUSTON (AP)—Mrs. Henry E. Marshall of Bryan, widow of the slain agriculture official, was quoted today by the Houston Chronicle as denying she ever said her husband shot himself.

Johnnie Turner of Groves, a relative of the dead man, said Mrs. Marshall upon learning of her husband's death June 3, 1961, exclaimed, "He did it. He did it. And I know why." Turner said Mrs. Marshall's exclamation gave him the impression at that moment that she believed Marshall's death a suicide.

A grand jury at Franklin is investigating the death of Marshall, 52, chief of production adjustment for the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, and Marshall's investigation of Billie Sol Estes.

Since Marshall was found dead on his ranch eight miles north of Franklin, Mrs. Marshall has said many times she thinks her husband was killed. She still insists she had no reason to kill herself.

In response to Turner's statement, the Chronicle quoted Mrs. Marshall as saying: "I did not say that and I have taken a lie detector test which proves I am telling the truth about this."

She said if Turner accused her of making such a statement, "then he should take a lie detector test."

Audie Murphy Pokes Youth

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actor Audie Murphy says he punched a teenager in the face during a discussion over law letters but denied he pulled a gun.

Murphy, America's most decorated soldier during World War II, is accused by two youths of threatening them with a pistol Sunday night on a Hollywood street.

The actor, 37, told police Monday that he was at the apartment of Miss Judy Pope, 24, to talk to her about law letters, pictures and threatening telephone calls that she had been receiving.

During the visit, Miss Pope received another phone call concerning a law picture in her mailbox, Murphy said.

"I looked across the street and saw these two guys sitting in a car. I went over and identified myself and showed them my (special) deputy sheriff's badge. They could also see my pistol, which I had stuck in my belt," Murphy told officers.

"Then one of them got belligerent and slapped at my flashlight. Almost automatically I gave him a little punch in the face," Murphy said.

Murphy said he wanted to quit the pair to find out if they were connected with the phone calls. He denied pulling his gun on them.

The youths, Edward L. Mayer, 18, and Robert T. Beasley, 19, both of Hollywood, told officers they had no connection with the notes, pictures or phone calls.

Negro Leaves Dixie On Crutches

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The 34th "Revere Freedom Rider" to leave Little Rock with a one-way bus ticket provided by the Capital Citizens Council was, on the way to Hammond, Ind., today, a pair of crutches beside her bus seat.

Amis Gathridge, president of the segregationist group, said Estella Pitts, 37, a Negro of Louisville, Ark., fell from a pickup truck in May and broke both legs.

Gunpowder Stains Puzzle For Jury

FRANKLIN, Tex. (AP)—Discovery of gunpowder residue on the back of Henry H. Marshall's shirt heightened the puzzle today for a county grand jury investigating Marshall's death.

Marshall, 52, an Agriculture Department official who had been investigating cotton allotments held by Billie Sol Estes, was wearing the garment the day he was shot.

Texas Ranger Capt. Clint Peoples disclosed Monday that state police found two gunpowder stains on the back of the shirt about six days after Marshall was found dead on his farm near here last year. He had been shot five times with a bolt-action rifle, which lay nearby. The inquest verdict was suicide.

Peoples said he did not think the gunpowder specks contradicted a finding by Dr. J. A. Jachimczyk, Houston pathologist, that five bullets struck Marshall from the front.

"I can't speculate how they got there," the ranger captain said. Dr. Jachimczyk performed an autopsy after the body was exhumed two weeks ago, when the Robertson County grand jury began its investigation. The probe followed indictments of Estes, West Texas farm promoter, on fraud and theft charges.

The pathologist has said Marshall probably was murdered. Members of the grand jury took a recess until Wednesday, when they may have a further report from Dr. Jachimczyk. He has been making laboratory tests on stomach contents and on carbon monoxide he found in the remains.

JFK Hits AMA Denial

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy, striking back in the battle for his medical care program, today charged the American Medical Association to set the record straight on its policy toward Social Security.

The White House made public a briskly worded letter from Kennedy to Dr. Leonard W. Larson, AMA president, in reply to a message Larson had addressed to the President late last month.

In his letter, Larson charged Kennedy with spreading the impression that the AMA once referred to the Social Security system as a "cruel hoax," and declared this was untrue.

Larson said the AMA never took a position on the Social Security system, never opposed it and even supported one section calling for extension of public health services.

Kennedy had declared a few days earlier at a news conference that the AMA was one of the chief opponents of Social Security in the 1930s.

In his letter to Larson, Kennedy cited actions he said were taken by the AMA in 1939, 1949 and 1953, all critical of Social Security.

"If your organization did not oppose Social Security before its enactment—only afterwards—I will be glad to point out this unique distinction at my next press conference," Kennedy said.

City Gets Sprinkling

A rain crept up on Big Spring some time Monday night.

There was some evidence on the hoods and tops of cars parked outside and the Big Spring Experiment Station's gauge registered .01 of an inch. Not much, but it was the first measured since May 21 when the same gauge measured .16 of an inch.

Other gauges in the area, including those checked by Texas Electric Service Co., showed traces but none measurable. Water usage for Big Spring for the first five months has jumped 39,442,000 gallons over the same period last year.

Records at the city hall showed the peak day for 1962 to be May 31 when 9,891,000 gallons went through the meters. The average daily usage for May was 9,236,770 for a monthly total of 287,701,000 gallons.

But Response Lack Indicates Rift In OAS

ALGIERS (AP)—The Secret Army Organization ordered a new wave of terror today but only two killings were reported. French officials interpreted this as a further sign of deep rifts and indecision.

A Moslem was shot down not far from the center of the city and the body of another Moslem was found in the Bouzareh suburb but calm reigned in most parts of Algiers.

During the night, a police station and two buildings owned by Moslems were set afire. This was still far short of recent terror activity.

The secret army warned Monday night in a pirate radio broadcast that it was ending the five-day truce in terrorism but that it hoped for further contacts with the Moslem nationalists.

"GOOD SENSE" French officials continued to hope for a "solution of reason and good sense." They believed the secret army was torn by ideological and deep ideological and leadership troubles. But no officials appeared to know exactly what was going on.

In contrast, fear began to sweep Algeria's European community anew. Most Europeans began to lose hope for a reasonable settlement that would safeguard their future in a Moslem-run Algeria.

Early this morning, crowds of Europeans besieged banks to withdraw their savings. Police stations and administrative buildings were crowded by men and women filling out repatriation documents and demanding passports. Long lines waited in front of shipping company offices.

Officials said plans were being prepared to swamp the European city with Moslem policemen, if terrorism returns. So far, 750 Moslem auxiliary policemen are on active duty.

SATISFACTORY The secret army broadcast said contacts with the Algerian nationalists so far were satisfactory but no agreements were reached because of "maneuvers" of French authorities.

The U.S. State Department denounced the secret army's threat to resume its campaign of "wanton murder" and again expressed full support for President Charles de Gaulle's efforts to bring peace to Algeria.

"Such wanton murder has no excuse, no justification, and can only lead to a sadder future," said State Department press officer Lincoln White in a statement issued in Washington.

There were fears that a new secret army terror drive would be met with full-scale retaliation by the Moslems instead of the restraint which had prevailed after the Europeans began indiscriminate killing of Moslems.

DISAPPROVAL Bands of Moslems machine-gunned French troops and civilians on the outskirts of Algiers Monday. French officials believed the attacks were by Moslem commandos who wanted to show their disapproval of any contacts with the secret army.

Three French soldiers and two civilians were wounded in the attacks. Three Moslems and two Europeans were killed in other terrorist attacks.

French officials said they had reports of a serious rift between the secret army's military and political leaders. The politicians were reportedly pushing the move for negotiations with Moslem authorities in hopes of salvaging something out of the present chaos. Military leaders were apparently still hoping a revolt would sweep France and bring support for their cause.

In France, the secret army's former No. 2 commander, ex-Gen. Edmond Jouhaud, lost his appeal to set aside his death sentence for treason. Jouhaud's only hope now is that President de Gaulle would commute his sentence to life imprisonment. This appeared unlikely.

Venezuelan Red Arrested, Freed

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—President Romulo Betancourt's government arrested Venezuela's top Red Monday night after crushing remnants of a bloody, Communist-backed revolt, then had to release him because of his parliamentary immunity.

Authorities arrested Gustavo Machado, secretary-general of Venezuela's Communist party and member of the Chamber of Deputies as he returned by plane from a 30-day trip to Moscow.

The arrest of Machado was seen as a sign Betancourt intends to outlaw both the Communist and Revolutionary Left parties.

Nixon's Battle Top Item For California Primary

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Richard M. Nixon's embattled return to the political arena topped an extra-long ballot in California's primary election today.

Two key questions awaited an answer in the former vice president's quest for the GOP nomination for governor against a hard-charging conservative candidate who calls his followers "the new breed of California Republicans."

1. Could the party's 1960 presidential candidate overcome the vigorous challenge by a political upstart, Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell; and if so, by what margin? 2. Could the winner solidify the ranks of the GOP—outnumbered 4 to 3 by Democrats in registration—for the November effort to oust Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown?

Brown? Brown had no serious opposition in his own party primary. Between 60 to 70 per cent of the seven million voters were expected to check into 31,212 precincts during balloting from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. (8 p.m. in San Francisco). Warm, sunny weather was in prospect.

County clerks looked for a slow count. The reason: a record number of candidates and issues. There were 1,400 state and local office-seekers in Los Angeles County alone. Six initiative measures, including $970 million in bond issues, also appeared on the ballot, and only San Francisco uses voting machines.

Party nominations at stake included six state offices, U.S. senators, 38 congressmen—a gain of eight; and 100 of the 120 state legislators. A majority of incumbents are Democrats.

Shell, a former college football captain who waded in against Nixon's support by most Republican state leaders, drew the lines sharply in his final pre-election statement.

He called his candidacy a challenge to "the old die-hard party machine" and spoke out against "the kingmakers and the me-tooers." He said the question wasn't whether he would win, but by how much.

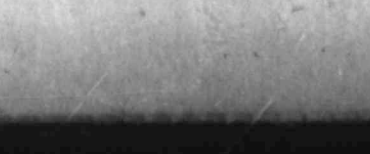

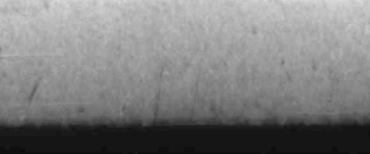

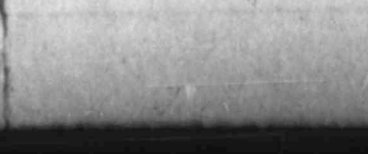

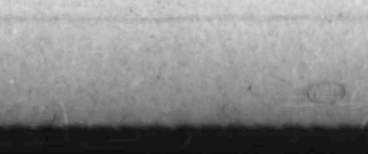

Nixon, who pointed his campaign toward November, maintained his silence on the 43-year-old Los Angeles assemblyman. He broke with Shell in denouncing the John Birch Society but he has tried to minimize intra-party bickering in hope of presenting a united Republican front against Brown in the fall.

Brown, arriving in San Francisco to vote in his home precinct, predicted he'll be re-elected no matter who the Republicans put up.

Aside from the Nixon-Shell clash, the primary offered Republicans the opportunity to renominate Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel or choose one of two Los Angeles right-wingers—Howard Jarvis and Loyd Wright.

Kuchel's foes charged that the Senate minority whip had voted 60 per cent of the time with Americans for Democratic Action,

All-Out Battle For Senate Seat

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—It's a fight right down to the wire in the Kennedy-McCormack battle for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator from Massachusetts.

Both sides claim an advantage in the contest which has Edward M. Kennedy, youngest brother of President Kennedy, competing with State Atty. Gen. Edward J. McCormack Jr., a nephew of Speaker John W. McCormack of the U. S. House.

Their first engagement comes at the three-day Democratic state convention opening Thursday at the Springfield Municipal Auditorium.

At stake is the endorsement of the convention, which gives the winner automatic top place on the ballot for the party primary Sept. 18.

Both have indicated they will fight it out anyway in the primary. The convention loser can get his name on the party ballot by filing nomination papers with 2,500 signatures.

There are 1,723 delegates authorized. A majority vote of 862 is needed to win.

Kennedy and McCormack have been traveling the state for weeks, stalking delegates. McCormack has stressed experience and maturity as attributes needed in the Democratic nominee.

McCormack is 38, a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, a former member of the Boston City Council for six years and state attorney general for four. Kennedy announced his candidacy for the Senate nomination last March 14, shortly after his Feb. 22 birth on which he reached the age of 30—the minimum age for a member of the Senate.

Both McCormack and Kennedy insist their famous relatives in Washington are staying clear of the Massachusetts senatorial battle, at least until after the primary.

Kennedy in a recent public debate flatly denied an accusation by McCormack that there was pressure from Washington on the convention delegates.

Kennedy said "I hope that nobody will vote for me because my brother is President of the United States, and another brother is attorney general—and I also hope that no one will vote against me for that reason."

The President said in a Washington news conference he is staying out of the nomination fight, but expects to support the Democratic nominee after the primary.

Candidates Trade Caustic Remarks

HOUSTON (AP)—Texas candidates for governor have said they don't expect to start the general election campaign for several months, but it seemed to be going full tilt already Monday night.

John Connally, who won the Democratic nomination in Saturday's runoff, and Republican nominee Jack Cox both were on hand for the opening of the new Sheraton-Lincoln Hotel in Houston.

Cox arrived first and took a first floor lobby stand to shake hands. Connally, a little late because his plane ran into rough weather en route from Fort Worth did his handshaking in the second floor lobby.

Pointing up indications the campaign may grow as bitter as before the primaries, Cox had some caustic remarks about Connally and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson at a dinner give by Houston backers of the GOP candidate.

"The brazen tyranny of Connally and Johnson over Texas will end in November," Cox declared, "and we will not be hogtied again for trading at the national market place in 1964."

"Although this combine has succeeded shamefully in times past, this time I am confident it will fail. Texans have been pushed too far. There is a breaking point. I think we have reached it."

Connally conferred with campaign workers in Houston and scheduled another conference today with his Dallas campaign manager, Eugene Locke.

Don Yarborough, who opposed

Connally in the Democratic runoff, conceded after the Texas Election Bureau issued its final tabulation yesterday afternoon. Connally had 564,721 votes, or 51.17 per cent of the total, and Yarborough 53,827. The election bureau estimated 1,800 votes had not been reported.

"The decision was a narrow one," Yarborough said in a statement distributed by aides in Austin, who said he was not available for direct comment.

"My supporters waged an unbelievably courageous fight. I am convinced that their efforts have served to awaken all Texans to the magnificent achievements that lie ahead for Texas if we face the responsibilities and challenges of our times."

9 Years In Iron Lung End In Death

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Mrs. Joel Werfel, who never forgot how to smile even though hopelessly paralyzed, is dead after nine years in an iron lung.

The 35-year-old housewife, mother of a daughter, Deborah, 12, was stricken with polio during an outbreak which swept Montgomery in 1953. She died Monday.

Her courage and cheerfulness in the long and trying years won the admiration of people throughout Alabama. A book she wrote which she called "Please Scratch My Nose," was completed shortly before her death.

God's Unfolding Plan

By F. H. Terrell, preacher, Church of Christ, 506 West Highway 80, P.O. Box 1283

In the Bible there is an unfolding plan. It begins with the story of the human race in the beautiful Garden of Eden (Gen. 2).

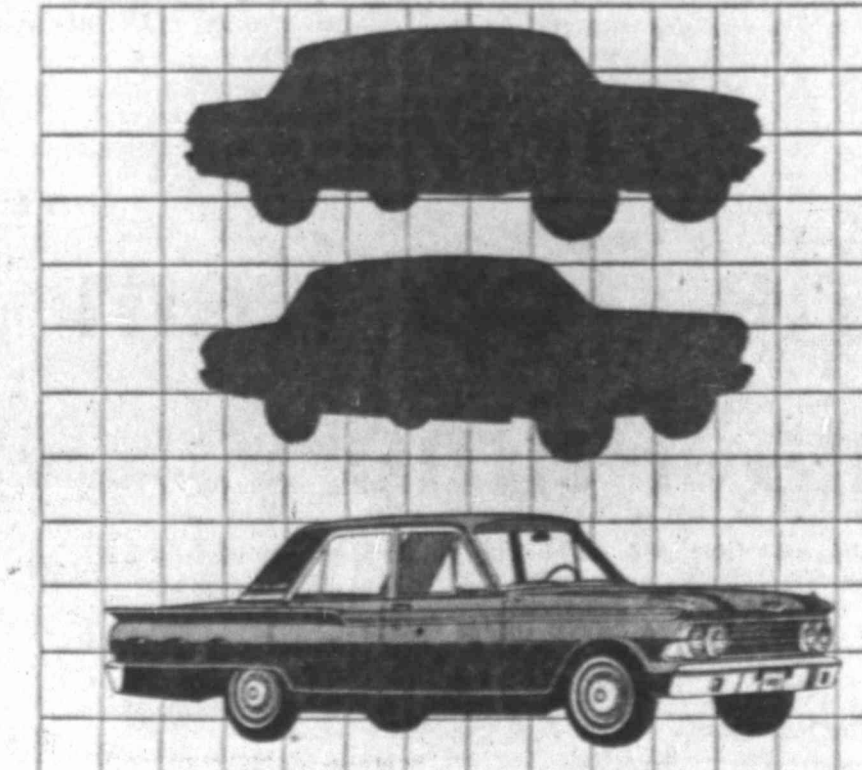

By the exercise of his free choice, man elected in disobedience to God, and sin entered the world. When man sinned, and even before God drove him from the Garden, the Lord promised a coming Saviour (Gen. 3:15). In cursing the serpent, which embodied the devil, the Lord said that the seed of the woman would bruise his head, and he would bruise the heel of the seed of the woman. This was fulfilled in the death and resurrection of Christ, who was truly the seed of the woman. Satan struck Christ; but not at a vital point. He only wounded Him in the heel.

The resurrection meant that Satan was defeated, and would ultimately be destroyed. The Seed of the woman had wounded Satan at a vital point—the head. (To be continued.)

Plan to be with us Wednesday night, 7:30; also to attend the debate June 19-22. You are always welcome.

Does Ford Fairlane's "compact" price mean it's a compact car?

Rambler is a compact!
The experts classify cars by wheelbase. Anything under 114-inch wheelbase is a compact. The biggest Rambler's wheelbase is only 108 inches!

Chevy II is a compact!
Chevy II tries to sound like a middle-size car... but its wheelbase is only 110 inches!

Our Ford Fairlane is right between the compacts and the big cars—gives you compact price with big-car room and ride!

Fairlane's wheelbase is a full 115.5 inches. From bumper to bumper, Fairlane measures 197.8 inches... 14.8 inches longer than Chevy II... 7.8 inches longer than the longest Rambler. Fairlane is as roomy inside as most of the cars on the road today... and rides more smoothly than most. Yet it's a foot shorter... easier to park than the big cars... less gas-wasting bulk. Look at the facts, and you, too, will go Fairlane. Come size it up today.

Latin Aid Plan Hasn't Won The People Over Yet

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

LIMA, Peru (AP) — Juan Jose Benitez spat contemptuously on the hard dirt floor of his hovel. "The Alliance for Progress? Yes, I have heard of it. But nothing will change. The ricos will get all the money. Always the ricos (rich men) get all the money."

Juan Jose is better off than most heads of families living in the harridas — the vast slums which stretch for miles around the outskirts of Peru's capital. He is a sort of foreman on an estate and he earns 80 cents for eight hours. On this he supports his wife and seven children.

His neighbors work eight hours for 20 cents. They are just peons — laborers.

Juan Jose Benitez and his neighbors are in the same boat as many thousands.

Slums are the plague of Latin America's cities, and housing an outstanding social problem.

TWO ROOMS

Juan Jose Benitez' home is better than many because it has two rooms. Geese wander about inside the house. The only furniture is one big bed and a wooden table. Evidently the children sleep on the dirt floor. Barefoot Juan Jose does not own the house. It belongs to the landlord who owns the nearby hacienda. You can see the landlord's home in the distance, a picture of Latin American luxury.

Another day I visited Valparaiso, a lovely Chilean city on the Pacific. A storekeeper said that for two years he hadn't been able to save enough money to buy even the most elementary things his wife and four children needed.

NO ONE CARES
An elderly man told me "nobody in the government cares about us. How long can we go on this way?"

Valparaiso's slums are not as bad as many in Latin America, but still are bad enough to generate deep bitterness among a fairly sophisticated people who are becoming increasingly impatient.

Of all Latin countries, Chile has done the "most in the past 15 years to attack its housing problems. Where conditions are improved, there is definite impact among the people. Their political attitudes tend to become more moderate."

The United States has supported the construction of model villages in the Chilean countryside and four have been inaugurated. They bear the names of U. S. states (Minnesota, Maine, Texas and Alabama.)

Communists and extreme leftists tried to spoil the inauguration ceremonies, but their efforts flopped. The local people delighted with their villages, ignored the extremists.

PERON A HERO
In Argentina, I visited slum areas and talked to people in the poor districts. In some areas I found them still regarding former dictator Juan D. Peron as a hero.

Why? Because he looked in their direction, realized they were there promised them work and higher wages. Nobody, they told me, had done that before. It may or may not be true, but that is the way they feel.

Violence lurks in the slums of all the big cities of Latin America. The desperation among people living at subsistence level is easy prey for the Communists and extremists. All it takes is a promise, and an offer of somebody or something to blame for their plight.

Also killed were Mrs. Preston Smith, 43, and Gale Martin, 23, of Roswell, N.M.

Injured but reported in satisfactory condition were Leonard Martin, 15, of Roswell and Sonia Gaskins, 21, and Karen Gaskins, 1, both of Florida.

State policeman A. J. Mahoney said the car containing the priests crossed the center line and met the other auto head-on.

Priest, 2 Others Killed In Crash

TATUM, N.M. (AP) — A San Antonio priest was killed and another critically injured Monday in an auto crash which also killed two New Mexico residents.

The Rev. Paul Maybrey, 41, was killed and the Rev. Howard Bowne, 34, was injured. Both were oblates at St. Anthony's Seminary in San Antonio.

Also killed were Mrs. Preston Smith, 43, and Gale Martin, 23, of Roswell, N.M.

Injured but reported in satisfactory condition were Leonard Martin, 15, of Roswell and Sonia Gaskins, 21, and Karen Gaskins, 1, both of Florida.

State policeman A. J. Mahoney said the car containing the priests crossed the center line and met the other auto head-on.

DEAR ABBY
You're Never Too Old!

DEAR ABBY: I was married in love when I was a girl. I never had a man my parents thought would be good for me. I am 49, a widow and the grandmother of seven. I met a man last summer and have fallen in love with him. He is 56, single and says he is in love with me, too. We are getting married soon. So many of my friends tell me that people our age marry only for "companionship" or convenience, but we are too old for love. His relatives tell him he is in his second childhood. Is love only for the young, Abby?

YOUNG AT HEART

DEAR YOUNG: "Love" is for anybody with the emotional capacity to enjoy it. Age means nothing.

DEAR ABBY: What can be done about these women who get all dolled up and go to hospitals and make a wreck of the patients? Last week my married daughter went to the hospital for a major operation. The families on both sides agreed that no one except her husband should visit her because they wanted her to get plenty of rest. They even put a NO VISITORS sign on her door.

The mother of a friend of hers barged in to "cheer her up." She brought her all the bad news and gossip in town. She carried a big box of pictures of her whole family and talked on and on. She stayed two hours and my daughter was nearly in hysterics by the time this woman left. How can a helpless patient protect herself against such "do-gooders"?

SICK GIRL'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Unless the patient has the courage to point out the NO VISITORS sign she is indeed helpless. Most hospitals have rigid regulations about who shall visit and how long they may stay. And those that don't, should.

DEAR ABBY: I am 15 years old, and the most miserable girl alive. I've been told that I have a very pretty face. I am five feet three and weigh 225 pounds. My parents took me to a doctor four months ago, and he put me on 900 calories a day. I lost 18 pounds, but then I started eating things that weren't on my diet, and I put it all back again. I gain an average of 20 pounds a year. Abby, I want to die. I look at myself, and I am disgusted. I cry a lot. But I cry and eat. Now I am crying, but I just got through stuffing my face. Please tell me how to stick to a diet once and for all.

HOPELESS
DEAR HOPELESS: Who said you were hopeless? I don't believe it. (1) Buy yourself the size dress you want to be, and try to put it on every night. (2) Paste a picture of a beautifully proportioned girl on your bathroom mirror. (3) Put a sign on the refrigerator that says, "IT'S NOT WORTH IT!" (4) Exercise everything but your jaws. (5) Pray!

How's the world treating you? For a personal unpublished reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of the Big Spring Herald.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have a Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to ABBY, Box 3363, Beverly Hills, Calif.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Impulsive Eating Is Anne Helm's Problem

By LYDIA LANE

HOLLYWOOD — Before Anne Helm came to Hollywood for "The Interests," she was a model in New York. "I began modeling at 14, and ever since then I have been a weight watcher," Anne confessed.

The waiter handed us menus and without looking at it, Anne ordered two hard-boiled eggs, sliced tomatoes and black coffee.

"I have tried all kinds of diets, but this is the most satisfactory because eggs are filling and seem to agree with me. In three days, I can lose four pounds."

"I am a problem eater," she continued. "When something goes wrong and I go on an eating binge, I know I'll hate myself, but so far I haven't been able to exert discipline."

Anne mentioned that she felt talking about dieting was not a good idea.

"If you have to lose weight, it's your problem, and no one is interested. When I'm working and my mind is occupied, I find it much easier to reduce."

Anne has beautiful, long nails which she cares for herself.

"Before I give myself a manicure, I heat some odorless castor oil and soak my fingertips in it. I massage it well into my cuticles. I also like to use oil on my heels to keep them soft."

We talked about getting suntan on our legs so we could go without stockings.

"In the summer, pedicures are every bit as important as manicures," she said. "If you plan to go without stockings and wear toeless shoes, the polish on your nails should be kept neat or your whole appearance will be marred."

FOOT CARE

Let Lydia Lane's leaflet M-35, "Foot Notes," help you care for your feet. You'll learn how to give yourself a pedicure as well as the cure for tired aching feet. For your copy send only 10 cents and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, Big Spring Herald.

Pampers Feet

Anne Helm, today's Hollywood Beauty, has beautiful fingernails and does her own manicuring. She believes that pedicuring is just as important as manicuring. During the summer, many women gain their appearance by neglecting to take care of their feet.

'ROUND TOWN

With LUCILLE PICKLE

About the time mamas get accustomed to school being in session and get their duties over with concerning class parties etc., here it is the end of the session and the papooses are all home again and then we go into the other routine. This is the stay in bed longer, later breakfast, I-Hate-To-Chop-Weeds, it's time to practice and later dinner hour time of the year. It either makes stronger boys or weaker mothers. But as the saying goes, It's a Great Life If You Don't Weaken.

Mr. and MRS. RICHARD HOOPER returned early Monday morning from Burnet where they have visited their children, MR. and MRS. JAMES DICKENS, and Jim, Sherris and Steve. If you were in a social gathering and saw a person you hadn't seen in over 30 years who came from your home town could you know him or her? VIRGINIA BURGESS and LT. COL. LEONARD EINHSTEIN recognized each other at a Sunday morning affair at the Larson Lloyd home. Both had been in public school at the same time in Blairsville, Pa., a town of 5,000. They finished in the late 20s or early 30s and hadn't seen each other since. Miss Burgess was graduated from New York University which is the alma mater of Mrs. Einstein but they were not there at the same time. Anyway, the Easterners, joining in with the Westerners had a good time recalling their school days and even sang a song or two for old Blairsville High.

Toastmixers' Members Have Open Discussion

An open discussion on current events opened the second session of Toastmixers Monday evening at the state hospital. Lt. Col. Topics of the membership included "The Space Race," "Texas Holidays," "Progress of Medicine" and "Space Exploration."

Mrs. Richard Wright led the group in The Pledge of Allegiance, after which Mrs. Frank Meacham, coordinator, used the autograph for table topic songs. Mrs. Einstein, president, conducted the business session with assistance by Mrs. Hila Weathers, the hospital's volunteer service director and Toastmistress coordinator.

Mrs. Bill Ragsdale, Toastmistress coordinator, announced that the Toastmixers nominating committee was set up and that nominees for office will be presented at the next meeting, June 18. Election of officers is slated for the first meeting in July.

Plans were made for the next meeting to feature creative poetry. The closing thought was given by Mrs. Albert Freeman.

HCJC Expects New Record In Registration

Summer school registration for the first session at Howard County Junior College has broken its all-time high record of 171 set last summer. As classes began today E. M. Keese, registrar, announced that at least 200 students had signed up for both night and day periods.

"We expect, before late registration ends Friday, to enroll at least 210 or 215," he added.

Keese also noted that the emphasis this summer is on English and American history, whereas last summer there was a heavy load on math courses.

College officials are urging more people to enroll for a beginning typing class this summer. At present, enrollment is not sufficient to hold the class. Registration will remain open for several days for the course.

The college is employing 10 instructors this summer and has added one new staff member, Jim Dickson, government teacher, formerly with Odessa College.

More Cars Are Owned 'Out West'

DETROIT — Households in the western part of the U. S. have a higher percentage of automobile ownership than other sections of the country, the Automobile Manufacturers Association reported today.

This is one of the many items of motor vehicle and highway transportation information contained in the 1962 edition of "Automobile Facts and Figures," a statistical yearbook published by the AMA.

In the study of all U. S. households, 85 per cent of western families owned cars. Thirty per cent of the families in those states owned more than one car, compared with 18 per cent multi-car ownership in southern and eastern households.

The AMA statistical book also showed that 57 per cent of all U. S. households owned one car, 19 per cent had two and 2.5 per cent owned three or more. Of the 53 million household studied, 78.5 per cent owned at least one car.

Ownership and use of motor vehicles were at an all-time high in 1961. More than 76 million registered vehicles traveled an estimated 733 billion vehicle miles during the year. Of these vehicles, 63.5 million were passenger cars and 12.5 million were trucks and buses.

The yearbook also revealed that automotive horsepower in use reached a total of 10.8 billion, or 85 per cent of the energy developed by power-producing machines in the U. S. By comparison, in 1920 only 281 million automotive horsepower provided 62 per cent of the U. S. total energy.

Taxes take 26 cents of every new automobile dollar. Total special taxes paid by highway users in 1961 amounted to $10.6 billion, of which $3 billion were motor truck taxes.

Imports of new passenger cars declined for the second straight year. New car imports in 1961 totaled 279,437, or one-third less than the previous year.

New In The Business

Don Hitchcock, left, former manager of the Travelodge, welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert White as new managers of the motel while Mrs. Hitchcock, right, looks on. The Whites come to the Big Spring establishment as their first venture into the motel business.

Whites Take Over Motel, Replacing Don Hitchcocks

The motel business is new to Gilbert and Thelma White, new managers of the Travelodge on West Fourth Street. Mr. and Mrs. White took over management of the motel from Mr. and Mrs. Don Hitchcock who are moving to San Diego this week.

Before accepting their present position here on June 1, the Whites were in the oil field supply business in Odessa, where they had lived for eight years after moving from their original home in Lubbock.

The fact that Mrs. White has a sister and brother-in-law who run a Travelodge in Los Angeles accounts for the rather unusual switch the couple made from oil field supplies to motel managing. During the first few days Mrs. White has found the new work "very interesting," and the Whites have been kept busy as the summer season begins and vacationers from all parts of the country pass through Big Spring on US 80.

The couple has one daughter, Mrs. Lee Files Wood Sr., living in California. The "pride and joy" of the family, they say, is young Lee Files Jr., two months old.

Bridge and golf are the Whites' major outside interests and they hope to become active in one of the local bridge clubs later as business permits. They are members of the First Presbyterian Church in Odessa.

The out-going manager, Don Hitchcock, and his wife will be leaving for San Diego June 6 to accept a job in the main office of Travelodge. The Hitchcocks arrived in Big Spring from Idaho a little over a year ago and since that time have been active in many community activities, one of the most important being the Chamber of Commerce.

Although not native Texans, the Hitchcocks feel they have "adopted Texas and Big Spring." "We want to thank all our friends and guests. All we have accomplished here we owe to them," Hitchcock stated. "We hate to leave Big Spring, for we have made many friends during our year here."

Chamber Group Looking Through 2,000 Slogans

Members of the Chamber of Commerce committee considering a slogan for Big Spring were surprised Monday evening to learn that they had received approximately 2,000 entries in the contest which closed May 31. They had first estimated the number of entries at 200, but found that many people had entered some 20 slogans apiece.

The committee will meet again tonight to begin considering the slogans. Winner of the contest will be announced Friday and will receive $100.

Storms Forecast For Wide Area

The Weather Bureau forecast high winds and hail for a large segment of West Texas Tuesday in an area 60 miles on each side of a line from Carlsbad, N.M., to Graydon in the Oklahoma Panhandle. The storms were expected to bring hail and high winds from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m.

In the forecast area were Levelland, Littlefield, Hereford, Amarillo, Borger and Dalhart.

Houston Hard Hit By Storm

Houston property owners surveyed damage running into thousands of dollars Tuesday in the wake of a giant thunderstorm which punished the city with winds up to hurricane force.

Restive weather elsewhere sent tornadoes writhing over parts of West Texas during the night, and occasional thunderstorms continued in North Central Texas until early morning.

The Weather Bureau predicted more scattered thunderstorms Tuesday and Wednesday in Northwest, North Central and Northeast Texas. Thunderstorms were expected in most other sections.

In Houston, 2.30 inches of rain drenched the downtown district during the 14-hour storm, leaving some streets flooded during rush hour traffic.

Canvass Costs Bean 9 Votes

Woodrow Bean, candidate for congressman-at-large in Saturday's Democratic runoff election, lost nine votes in Howard County in the canvass of the election results by a Special Canvassing Board this morning.

Changes were made in two box totals. In Box 4, the Main Street Fire Station, the corrected figure is 383 votes, five less than was previously reported, and at Box 7, the R-Bar box, the figure was changed from 20 to 16.

No other discrepancies were noted. On the board were Frank Hardesty, Howard County Democratic chairman, George Melear, L. R. Mundt, W. D. Berry and Margaret Ray.

111 Transfers Are Requested

Transfers of pupils requested by the deadline Friday totaled 111, according to Walker Bailey, county school superintendent.

They are subject to approval by the Howard County School Board which meets Thursday at 6 p.m. for a dinner meeting at Coker's Restaurant.

Regular transfers requested were from Gay Hill 27, Center Point 42, Vealmoor 12, Big Spring 27, Coahoma two, and Forsan one.

Special transfers, for students whose names do not appear on the census rolls, may be requested until Oct. 1. Other applications for special transfer of students whose grade is not taught within the district of residence may be made at any time subject to approval by the Commission of Education.

Russian Sets Discus Mark

MOSCOW (AP)—Vladimir Trusenev, who has done most of his throwing in the shadow of the Soviet's top musclemen, today held the world discus record—a mighty 202 feet, 2 1/2 inches.

Until a month ago, Trusenev, a 31-year-old Leningrad veteran, never had reached the 190-foot mark. Kim Bukhantsev and Algis Baltusnikas were winning most of the Soviet titles.

Monday in a city meet in his home town, according to Tass, the official Soviet news agency, Trusenev got off his record-breaking heave, erasing Al Oerter's 23-day old pending record of 200-5/8, held by Jay Silvester of Trenton, Utah.

Even the Russians were surprised at Trusenev's effort. He could do no better than 15th at the 1960 Olympics.

At his home in Babylon, N.Y., Oerter, the 25-year-old, two-time Olympic gold medal winner, said he was surprised that Trusenev broke the record.

"I've heard of him, but I didn't think he'd by the guy to break it," said Oerter. "I can't wait to meet him. Gosh, you can't throw them far enough these days."

Oerter and Trusenev probably will meet during the United States-Soviet Union track meet at Stanford University on July 22-23.

It was at the Coliseum relays in Los Angeles that Oerter became the first discus thrower to break the magic 200-foot barrier.

The Soviets never really have been top discus throwers. The Soviets didn't get to the 190-mark until last year when Baltusnikas set a national record of 190-1/4.

Just a month ago, Bukhantsev broke Baltusnikas' mark with a heave of 195-1/4 at Leselidze. Trusenev was second in that meet with a 190-3/8.

Ken Venturi Fails To Gain Open Spot

By DON WEISS Associated Press Sports Writer
Ask the nation's golf professional to pick the fellow tourist with the No. 1 picture swing and chances are a majority would nominate Ken Venturi.
The same Venturi will be among the missing when a field of 150 tees off for the start of the U.S. Open Championship at Oakmont, Pa., June 14.

Venturi was the best-known casualty Monday as the final stage of qualifying began for the National Open. The 31-year-old San Francisco pro, who had the Masters championship in his pocket and lost it in 1956 and again in 1960, failed to make the grade in the 36-hole sectional competition at Memphis, where he and many others took the test a day after competing in the Memphis Open.

Bill Collins and Jim Ferree also missed out, as did former British Open champion Kel Nagle of Australia, as 50 berths in the U.S. Open were determined at Memphis and in sectionals at Cincinnati, Dallas, Kansas City, Denver and Tacoma, Wash.

Eighty-one more spots will be contested for today at seven other locations, topped by the Montclair N.J. sectional where the $100,000 Classic Open begins on Thursday.

Sam Snead, winner of everything else in golf except the open, heads a Montclair lineup that also includes Bob Rosburg, Paul Harvey, Phil Rodgers, Bobby Nichols, Stan Leonard, Earl Steward, Jack Fleck and Don Fairfield. Other tests in Pittsburgh, Chicago, Detroit, Atlanta, Washington, D.C., and San Francisco will complete the two days of qualifying for the 131 non-exempt berths in America's premier tournament.

Nineteen players, including defending champion Gene Littler, were totally exempt from the eliminations that began two weeks ago. The others who drew passes into the championship proper were Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Billy Casper, Tommy Bolt, Dick Mayer, Jerry Barber, Bob Goalby, Doug Sanders, Jack Nicklaus, Mike Souchak, Doug Finsterwald, Doug Ford, Eric Monti, Jacky Cupit, Gardner Dickson, Billy Maxwell, Gey Brewer and Johnny Pott.

Butch Baird of Galveston, Tex., clipped three strokes off par in leading the 27 Memphis qualifiers with 68-68-137 for the 6,724-yard, par 35-35-70 Memphis Country Club course. Lionel Hobert, who won the Memphis Open on Sunday; his brother, Jay, and Cary Middlecoff, Jackie Burke, Don January, Don Whit, Dave Ragan, Mason Rudolph, Art Wall, George Mayer, Bruce Crampton, and Joe Campbell also survived the Memphis test, which took a 36-hole score of 143 or better.

Bob Zimmerman of Dayton led seven qualifiers at Cincinnati with 70-68-138. Amateur Labron Harris Jr. of Stillwater, Okla., headed the five qualifiers at Dallas. Army Capt. Orville Moody shot 67-70-137 for top position among four qualifiers at Denver. Stan Thrisk of Kansas City and amateur Jim Tom Blair of St. Louis each had 158 totals in Kansas City. Eight golfers sought two berths at Tacoma, and the leader was Adrian Bigras of Ft. Lewis, Wash., with 70-70-140.

Lady Luck Helps Jockey Standout

NEW YORK (AP)—Put it down in your notebook—this guy John Lawrence Rotz is the hottest rider in the country right now. He not only can ride with the best of them, he also has Lady Luck going for him.

The former Illinois farm boy, modest with curly black hair and an upturned nose, is a $100,000-plus man in annual salary. Ten years ago he was graduated from Warrensburg, Ill., high school, and although he didn't get a degree in horsemanship, he knew where the hay was stacked.

Rotz, 27 and a very eligible bachelor, rides Greek Money Saturday in the $125,000-added Belmont Stakes at Belmont Park. The colt will be one of the favorites in the 1 1/2 miles race, last and toughest of the Kentucky Derby-Preakness-Belmont triple crown.

Rotz scored two of the biggest upsets in racing when he won the $188,300 Preakness aboard Donald P. Ross' Greek Money and the $111,900 Metropolitan Handicap with Mrs. Katherine Price's Carry Back. Rotz admits there was a lot of luck involved.

Greek Money broke the Laurel track record in winning the Chesapeake Stakes under jockey Art Chambers April 14. The colt was kept out of the Derby to await the Preakness.

"We had the filly, Leapfrog, pointing for the Acorn Stakes in New York the same day as the Preakness."

Bo Belinsky May Be AL Rookie Of The Year

BOSTON (AP) — Who has the inside track for American League rookie honors this year—Bo Belinsky, Manny Jimenez or another bright newcomer?
League headquarters, not wanting to seem partial, left the answer up to fan discussion today when it issued a report on the 43 rookies on squad rosters. The home office notes that about 20 already have bid strongly for recognition.

Southpaw whiz Belinsky, of no-hit fame appears the current choice on the defensive side of the ledger. The glib Los Angeles hurler has a 6-2 record and a glittering 2.51 earned run average to go along with the AL's first no-hitter since 1958.

Offensively, Kansas City outfielder Jimenez heads the race for the batting crown by consistently turning back challenges from veteran stickmen. The Dominican Republic native is batting .362. A lefthanded swinger, he has mastered the art of hitting to the opposite field.

Kansas City and Los Angeles rank one-two in rookie population. The A's have eight, including catcher Joe Azcue and third baseman Ed Charles, who came in the deal that brought Jimenez from Milwaukee. The others are outfielder Jose Tartabull, plus pitchers Dave Wickersham (6-1 including last six in a row, 2-70 ERA), John Wyatt, Dan Pfister and Diego Segui.

The Angels' six are promising catcher Bob Rodgers, infielders Felix Torres and Tom Burgess, and pitchers Dean Chance and Bob Botz.

How about co-league leaders New York and Cleveland?
Switch-hitting Mike Tresh handles shortstop so well for the Yankees that there is talk predecessor Tony Kubek will be an outfielder after he returns from service. Tresh has socked home 27 runs with his workmanlike .370 batting average.

More recently, outfielder-first baseman Joe Pepitone has blossomed into a dangerous slugger for the defending world champs with 10 extra base hits and 10 RBI to show for 21 hits.

Cleveland is impressed by its rookie outfielders, Al Laplow and Ty Cline.
Second baseman Bernie Allen plus righthanded pitchers Joe Bonkowski and Lee Stange get a major assist in helping the surprising Minnesota Twins remain close to the pace. Allen is a steady glove man and gets extra mileage out of his .247 average. Bonkowski has a 4-4 record, and Stange (1-0) has struck out 29 in 35 innings.

Minnesota's Dick Rollins, hitting .335, is not classed as a rookie though he had only 17 at bats in 13 games last year. Reason: He accumulated more than 45 days on a major league roster during the period of the 25-player limit.

Chicago claims "the strongest, most accurate arm in baseball" for outfielder Mike Hershberger (.274, 22 RBI), and has five complete games out of righthander Joe Horien (5-2).

Though temporarily eclipsed by a leg injury, 6-5, 225-pound John 'Boog' Powell of Baltimore is a strong contender for rookie laurels. The Orioles rate him the best ever produced by their farm system. In the 37 games he's played, Powell has hit six homers and driven in 21 runs while hitting .268.

Picher Dave Stenhouse has proved a rugged foil as his 2-1 record for last-place Washington attests.
Boston offers a battery of giants, righthanded relief pitcher Dick Radatz (6-6, 240) and catcher Bob Tillman (6-4, 210). Radatz has 37 strikeouts and a 2.17 earned run average for 29 1/3 innings.

Tillman has five tape-measure homers, 12 RBI since winning the regular assignment May 29.

LADIES' GOLF TOURNEY LURES PLAYERS FROM SEVERAL CITIES

Golfers from Midland, McCamey, Lamesa, Big Lake, Odessa, San Angelo and Andrews — as well as Big Spring — were due to tee off in the One-Day Ladies' Invitational Golf Tournament at the Big Spring Country Club today.

The linksters will shoot for low gross and low net prizes in each flight. Entry fee was $3 per person and that includes the price of a buffet-style meal at the conclusion of play.

Midland reportedly had 11 players entered, McCamey five, Lamesa a half dozen or more, Big Lake five, Odessa two, San Angelo eight and Andrews an undetermined number.

The final foursome was due to leave the No. One tee around 11 a.m., according to pro Jerry Green.

Winners will be determined on a handicap basis.

Mike Robinson Fashions No-Hit Game For Forsan

Mike Robinson pitched a no-hit game as Forsan Baptist defeated the Westside Baptist, 9-0, in YMCA Church Softball league play at the City Park Monday night.

In other contests, First Baptist turned back East Fourth Baptist, 15-5, and Airport Baptist outlasted College Baptist, 11-10.

Robinson fanned five and didn't walk a batter in the fifth inning game against Westside Baptist. E. Hollis, the loser, gave up only three earned runs, whiffed four and issued five free passes.

Pat Brunton and K. Cowley pitched for Forsan.

Cheatham Signs McMurry Letter

Dean Cheatham of HJCC, high point man in last month's National Junior College Track and Field meet here, has cast his lot with McMurry College in Abilene.

Cheatham's best times last season were 9.6 for the hundred and 20.9 for the 220.

He won the century, and 220 and had a leg on the Hawks' sprint relay team which set a record in that event in the Nationals.

Koufax Covets 20-Game Year

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer
If anything fits Sandy Koufax to a T, it's a K.

The Los Angeles Dodgers' whiffing added another flock of K's to his amazing strikeout total Monday night, fanning 13 batters en route to a three-hit, 6-3 victory over Philadelphia in the only game played in either league.

The triumph, moving second-place Los Angeles within two games of National League-leading San Francisco, boosted Koufax' record to 9-2 and further propelled the 26-year-old left-hander along the road to what he wants most—a 20-victory campaign.

"Strikeouts are nice to have," says Koufax, "but I wouldn't trade a 20-victory season for all the strikeouts records in the book."

Koufax has quite a bit to trade with.

He's the only pitcher in major league history to strike out 18 twice, hold the league record for 289 strikeouts in one season and fan 10 or more 36 times—all during an 8-year career. But his 18-13 record last year was the closest he's come to winning 20.

Koufax's standout effort against the Phils gave him a total of 123 strikeouts in 101 innings this season, marked his fourth consecutive complete game triumph and gave him a string of 10-16-10-13 set down via the strikeout route over the four-game span.

The Dodger swiftly allowed a leadoff single to Tony Taylor in the first inning, then retired 17 batters in order before Taylor walked in the seventh. He fired in the ninth, allowing John Callison's single, a walk to Roy Stevens and a pinch-hit homer by Jackie Davis with two out.

The Dodgers pulled ahead to stay against Art Mahaffey (5-7), winless in seven starts against Los Angeles, with a run in the first on Maury Willis' single, his steal of second and bunt singles by Willie Davis and Tommy Davis. The Dodgers chased Mahaffey in the second when Wally Moon and John Roseboro tagged consecutive homers leading off the inning.

The Dodgers move over to Pittsburgh tonight for a two-nighter with the Pirates while the Giants, who have held the top spot by winning 11 of 12, will be at Chicago for a bay game, Cincinnati is at St. Louis, Milwaukee at Houston and New York at Philadelphia for other nighters on a full program.

It'll be Stan Williams (5-1) and Don Drysdale (8-3) for the Dodgers against Earl Francis (2-2) and Bob Friend (5-5). The Giants will send Jack Sanford (6-4) or Willie O'Dell (6-3) against the Cubs Bob Buhl (3-3).

The American League spotlight falls on New York, where Cleveland's surprising Indians and the defending world champion Yankees open a 3-game series that will determine first place in the tight race

Peace Corps In 38 Nations

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — Nearly 5,000 Peace Corps volunteers will be serving in 38 countries by the end of the year, says Sargent Shriver, director of the corps.

Addressing 10,000 persons at the Kansas State University commencement Sunday, Shriver said there are 1,400 volunteers in 15 countries.

"All 15 countries have asked us to double, triple and even quadruple the number of volunteers," he said.

MGM Has Finally Won The 'West'

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—MGM has finally won the West, but it took a couple of years and $15 million.

"How The West Was Won" is finally in the can. The man most responsible for putting it there is producer Bernard Smith, who shepherded this unique film project from idea to two hours and 36 minutes of expensive celluloid.

It is the biggest Western ever made—by several million. But it might not be safe to term it a Western in Smith's presence.

"I would call it an epic," he said. "Any saga of the migration of a people is something more than a Western."

He also put the record straight on a couple of other matters: That the film is episodic— "There are five main sequences, but the stories are connected, and several figures reappear."

That it went overboard in budget— "We expected to spend $12 million and we spent $15 million. We went over budget for two reasons: 1. Natural delays like weather; we had 17 straight days of rain in Oregon. Also we were working in Arizona with about the only steam train left west of the Mississippi; when it broke down, we just had to wait until it was fixed."

"2. We shut down in the four winter months when we couldn't shoot anyway and thinned out a command decision on whether to make the last sequence a relatively quiet one or go all-out with spectacle. I won out for spectacle, and we've got the darndest train robbery sequence ever filmed."

Other spectacle shots, all filmed in Cinemascope: shooting rapids on a raft, a running Indian fight, a Civil War Battle, a buffalo stampede.

Smith, a sturdily built man with short-cropped steel-gray hair, said that the project originated a few years ago with a spread in Life magazine.

"Someone suggested to Bing Crosby that 'How The West Was Won' would make a good record album," he continued. "After the album came out, someone suggested to Bing that it would make a good television special. He started working on that when someone else suggested it would make a good movie."

Bing tied in the movie with one of his pet charities, St. John's Hospital in Santa Monica. He later bowed out of the deal after MGM took it over, but St. John's still will profit—10 per cent of the world gross.

The film will open this fall in London and other world capitals, but won't be shown in the United States until after the payoff of the other new Cinemascope feature, "The Brothers Grimm." The projected run for "West" in each theater: three years.

Air Service Probe Spurred

WASHINGTON (AP)—A broader investigation of competitive air service in the Midland-Odessa, Tex., area has been turned down by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Its decision not to expand proceedings on American Airlines Service to the West Texas area was made Monday.

The CAB denied a motion by Dallas and its chamber of commerce for a hearing on the issue of deleting American from the Dallas-Midland-Odessa market, and for simultaneous consideration of applications of any airlines that might wish to replace American in that market.

The board recently ruled tentatively that Midland-Odessa should be deleted from American's certificates. It granted interested parties opportunity to file objections, and Dallas, Midland and Odessa did so.

Noting that even without American's flights Midland-Odessa would still have non-stop trunk line service to Dallas through Continental Air Lines, the board said it found no reason to expand the proceeding as proposed by Dallas.

Two local service airlines, Trans-Texas and Central, had asked that their applications for the route be consolidated into the proceeding if the motion of Dallas was granted.

The CAB said both of the local airlines are applicants for routes between Dallas and Midland-Odessa in the board's pending case on Southwestern area local service.
