After a short run down the highway

DC4 Ends Stay In Cotton Patch

A big DC4 dwarfed other traffic on US 87 near Ackerly this morning as it ended a month's stay in Joe Lemon's cotton patch. The Slick Airways four-engine aircraft was airborne about 9:30 a.m. after using US 87 as a runway.

This morning, Lemon used his tractor to pull the big plane onto the US 87 right of way, before some 100 spectators. Texas Highway Department crews routed traffic around the craft and other law enforcement officers were there to give a hand. Telephone and power company crews stood by, in case high wires were damaged in the projected takeoff. And overhead, the Air Rescue helicopter from Webb AFB hovered in case of another mishap.

Since the plane crashed, the engines have been removed and repaired and at least one section of the underside was replaced. The emergency landing was blamed on engine failure.

Advance Vanishes, Stock Market Slips Into Decline

NEW YORK (AP)—An early advance evaporated under stiff selling pressure today and the stock market again slipped into a decline this afternoon.

The market closed Thursday at 363.00 on the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks, marking the lowest level since that average hit 362.27 on Dec. 12, 1958.

W. E. Hutton & Co., offered a different view. He said: "Many people seem to think someone is personally responsible for what has happened in the market recently. The fact is that this decline stems from the abuse of common stocks by almost everyone in the period of over-speculation."

Ford Attends Dealer Meet

DALLAS — Top executives of Ford Motor Company met Thursday with more than 1,000 company dealers from throughout the Southwest and Mid-South. It was the sixth of nine conferences in which Henry Ford II, chairman of the board, and other company officials hope to meet with every Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealer in the United States. At a news conference preceding the dealer meeting, Ford reported that Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealers had sold 962,000 cars and trucks from Jan. 1 through June 10 to record the highest sales for the period since 1955 and the second highest in history. For the first 10 days of June, Ford said, Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealers sold 5,524 cars a day. This daily sales rate was up 17 per cent over the same period last year, he reported. The dealers, he said, also sold 963 trucks a day for a 25 per cent increase over the first 10 days of June last year. The combined car and truck sales rate was 6,487—up 18 per cent from a year ago.

Ford pointed out that a part of the automobile market's strength lies in the demand for the "in-between" cars. "Our research over the past few years gave us strong indications that considerable demand existed for a new kind of automobile—one sized between the compact and the so-called standard-sized cars," he said. "So, we designed the Ford Fairlane and the Mercury Meteor specifically for this market. Sales of both have certainly vindicated our judgment."

Trappers Hear Program Plans On Screwworms

GARDEN CITY (SC)—Twenty-five government trappers from West Texas counties and about 30 Glasscock County ranchers met at the courthouse in Garden City Wednesday to learn about the screwworm eradication program. Oliver West, Glasscock County agent, spoke briefly about plans for the massive program of sterilizing male screwworm flies by radiation. He also projected a movie on "Production of Screwworm Flies." A Mr. Ellard, Lubbock, district supervisor of predator and rodent control services, talked on problems of catching coyotes and other predatory animals.

YMCA Reports 625 Enrolled

A total of 625 youngsters and adults have enrolled for activities in the YMCA summer program. "We are running about on par with last year," Francis Flint, general secretary, reported. A breakdown of the total shows 267 registered for five fun clubs with no figures yet on membership in the Bauer club. The Parkhill, Marcy, Airport club has 33 members; Cedar Crest, Boydston fun club, 41; Washington, College Heights, 76; Lakeview, 41; Kate Morrison, 76. Twenty-four are signed for special interest classes in golf, judo and archery, and 188 for other interest classes in arts and crafts, physical fitness and trampolines.

PLAN OF SALVATION (7)

By T. H. Terbet, preacher, Church of Christ, 1060 West Highway 50, P.O. Box 1383

If we are saved by faith only, then repentance has nothing to do with it.

If, on the other hand, the word, "faith" is broad enough to include repentance (and is surely is), then it is broad enough to include anything the Lord may have chosen to put in the plan of salvation.

God has chosen to put into the plan of salvation, not only repentance, but also confession and baptism. We have already seen that repentance and confession of Christ are named as conditions to salvation. The same Bible names baptism as a condition to salvation.

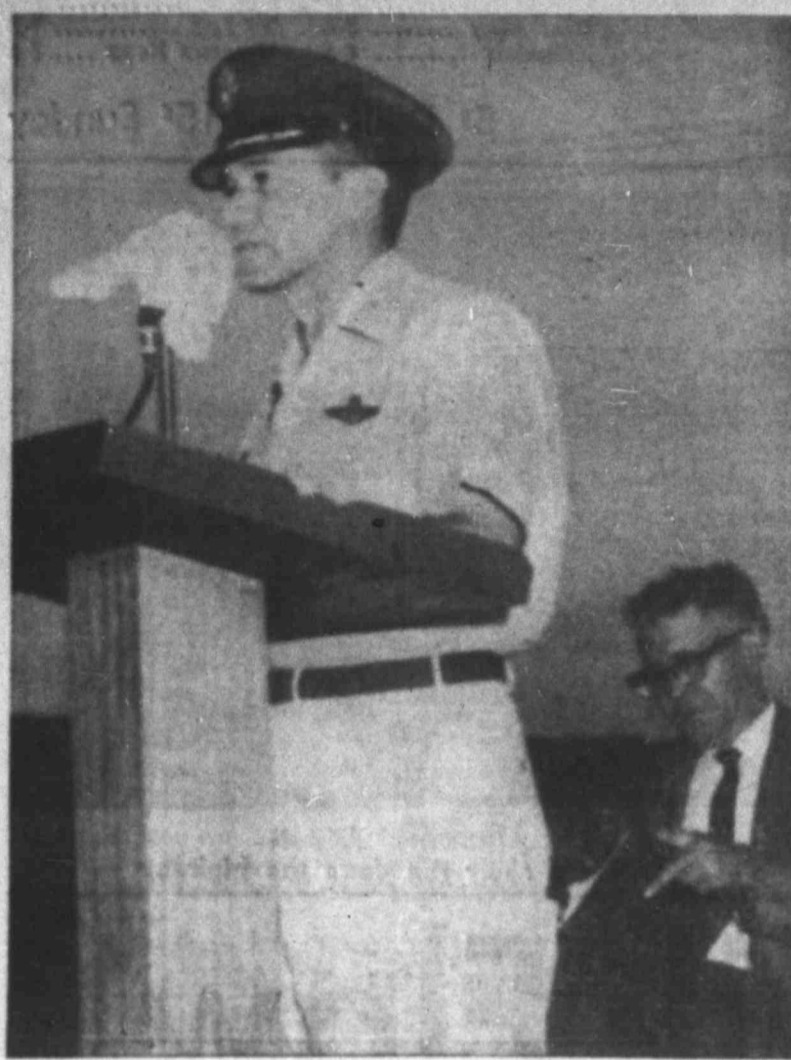

Next Tuesday evening at the City Auditorium, there is a four-day public debate on the plan of salvation. A representative of the local Primitive Baptists and I will do the speaking. Everyone is welcome.

Plan to be with us Sunday: Bible classes, 9:30 a.m.; worship, 10:30 a.m. and 7 p.m.

RELIGIOUS DEBATE

An orderly and friendly discussion between the Primitive Baptists and us will be at the City Auditorium next week (evenings of June 19 to 22 at 7:45 p.m.) and is open to the public. No judges; it is a study situation for the benefit of all who want the truth. Welcome.

FLAG DAY CEREMONY
Col. H. C. Collins, W. D. Berry

Spirit Of '76 Far From Dead

In a ceremony at Webb's Little League Park Thursday evening, Col. Harold C. Collins, commander of the 3560th Pilot Training Group, told a crowd of some 300 who witnessed annual Flag Day ceremonies of the Elks Lodge that "the spirit of '76 is far from dead."

The colonel said that "never before in the history of our country have we needed, so badly, men and women with the moral courage of our forefathers."

"There are people today who seem to think that patriotism is corny and outdated," he said. But thank God they are a decided minority. The overwhelming majority of our people are as sincere and honest as the men who have brought success to our arms since the beginning.

"Patrick Henry's immortal words: 'Give me liberty or give me death; and Nathan Hale's: 'My only regret is that I have but one life to give for my country'... are but counterparts of the Marine sergeant who shouted to his platoon as they crouched in the trenches... 'Come on, you bums! you want to live forever!' "This flag will endure just so long as our people remain true to the principles enunciated by those who gave their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor.

that it might inspire freemen, everywhere. "These are critical times" continued Col. Collins. "It is not enough to be against communism... or against Castro. We must be for the United States of America.

"And to the degree that we fail to instill these ideals into the minds and hearts of our children, we will, to that degree, hasten the day of national disaster."

Col. Collins was introduced by W. D. Berry, exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge, following the presentation of the various flags used by the United States since the first flag was adopted in 1777. While the flags were presented, Fred Greenberg read the history of the flag. The response was given by the Rev. Donald Hungerford, pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

The drum and bugle corps of Boy Scout Troop 17, sponsored by the Elks Club, under the direction of Cap. Pernel Johnson, played several selections prior to the beginning of the service, and were on hand at the close of the service when the flags were furled. The local Elks Lodge has been observing Flag Day since the organization's establishment in accordance with the national Elks Club, which as originator of the special day, has been holding annual ceremonies for over 80 years.

Retired Air Force Major To Aid Missions In Japan

Reversal of a 70-year policy has opened the way for Leo G. Bradford and his family to return to Japan as a layman associated in missions work.

Bradford, a retired major in the U. S. Air Force, related his experiences in Japan and told of his decision to return there as he addressed the Downtown Lions Club Wednesday.

While in the Air Force, he got to know Gen. Genda, who as a naval commander, had led the planning of the Pearl Harbor assault. Ultimately, he presented the general (then being groomed to head Japan's air force) with a New Testament but drew a rebuke for timidity of Americans about Christianity.

"If Japan had won," Bradford quoted the general, "the first ones down the gangplank would have been Buddha and Shinto priests."

To Gen. MacArthur's suggestion that America send 4,000 missionaries to Japan, churches responded with a dozen or so, Bradford related. There is a fertile field for Christian witness in Japan, he continued, and this determined him and Mrs. Bradford to see if they could return there.

Thus he retired from the Air

Pleas Not Guilty To DWI Charge

Joe K. Mitchell entered a plea of not guilty Thursday in Howard County Court to a charge of driving while intoxicated. His bond was set at $500 by Judge Ed Carpenter. Mitchell is being held in county jail, pending posting the bond.

Bond of $5,000 was set by Justice of the Peace Jess Slaughter for Joe Pat Andres, Anton, who is being held on a charge of felony theft. He was arrested Wednesday.

John C. Thomas, charged in Slaughter's Court with theft over $50 was released Thursday after posting $1,500 bond.

Georgia Judges Barking Shins On Dognapping Case

SYLVANIA, Ga. (AP)—For two years, Georgia judges have been peering over the bench at a lemon and white pointer and wondering: Does she or doesn't she know who her real owner is.

W. L. Scott of Sylvania says the dog's name is Dale and belongs to him.

But George McDonald of Savannah says the dog's name is Queen and belongs to him.

Scott claims he raised Dale from a pup and that McDonald stole her.

McDonald says he raised Queen from the time she was six months old and a friend gave her to him. McDonald was charged with theft of a dog and he, Scott and Queen (or Dale) went into Screven County Superior Court. For the duration of the litigation, the dog has been boarded with Dr. W. H. Gibson, a veterinarian.

The solution seemed simple. The dog was turned loose in the courtroom. Both men called.

"Here, Dale," called Scott. The dog ran yelping to him.

"Here, Queen," called McDonald. The dog ran yelping to him.

A Screven County jury believed Scott's story and convicted McDonald of dognapping.

McDonald appealed to the Georgia Court of Appeals, which sent the case back to Superior Court for a new trial.

The second time around a mistrial was declared.

Finally, on the third try, Judge Corson Hilton directed a verdict of innocent on the technical ground that the state did not prove the dog was stolen on the day it was alleged to have been stolen.

Armed with his Superior Court acquittal, McDonald filed a civil suit for repossession of Queen (or Dale).

The case is scheduled to be called during August.

Dr. Gibson, who has been ordered to hold onto Dale (or Queen), declined to say how much the state has paid to board the dog so far.

Quiet Carolina Lad, 10, Inherits Tobacco Millions

BRUNSON, S. C. (AP)—A tall 10-year-old boy who has led an unobtrusive life in this rural South Carolina community is heir to the lion's share of one of the country's largest fortunes.

Walker P. (Skipper) Inman Jr. was bequeathed more than $30 million of the $40 million estate left by his grandmother, Naneline H. Duke.

Mrs. Duke, widow of the founder of the American Tobacco Co., died April 12 at the age of 90. An order admitting the will to probate was signed Thursday in Surrogate Court in New York.

Since the death of his parents,

Skipper has lived in this little community near the Georgia border, midway between Augusta and Savannah, with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lightsey, and his half-sister Susan Inman. Susan is a student at the University of South Carolina.

The boy's father died in 1955 at his plantation at Georgetown, S.C. A coroner's jury decided that he died of an overdose of barbiturates. It said there was no evidence of foul play.

Skipper, a brown-eyed youngster, celebrated his 10th birthday last March. He attends the public elementary school here where he is regarded as a good student. He regularly attends Sunday School at a local Baptist church.

Mrs. Lightsey said she hoped Skipper could continue at the school and otherwise maintain his normal routine. She expressed fear that now he is the center of public attention it might be necessary to send him away to school.

One acquaintance of the family said the youngster keeps largely to himself, swimming in a pool at the Lightsey home and riding his pony.

His uncle is a farmer and operator of a trucking firm and a feed and fertilizer business here. Lightsey was an unsuccessful candidate for state senator from Hampton County in Tuesday's Democratic primary. He ran last in a three-man race.

Young Inman is a grandson by Mrs. Duke's first marriage to Dr. William P. Inman of Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Duke, the former Miss Naneline Holt of Macon, Ga., was a widow at the time of her second marriage.

Skipper's aunt is Doris Duke, who is wealthy in her own right. She was remembered in her mother's will with a bequest of personal property, jewelry and clothing, but no cash.

Mrs. Duke left $5 million to Duke University, in trust for the benefit of its medical school and hospital. Other bequests totaled about $800,000, and the balance went to her grandson.

Her late husband, James Buchanan Duke, was chief benefactor of the Duke Foundation.

Mrs. Lightsey declined to discuss what arrangements have been made for handling the $30 million, bequeathed her nephew, until he reaches his majority of 21.

Duke University officials were elated with the $5 million bequest, one of the largest it has ever received.

DEAR ABBY

It's Their Decision

DEAR ABBY: Last night our 19-year-old daughter called us from over the state line and told us she was married. It is okay for a girl her age to be married in that state, but not this one. She and the 26-year-old boy have gone together a year. They are both in college and my husband and I are ready to break their necks. We don't know what to do. She said she was married in the courthouse and we want her married in a church. IS it too late for that now? Please advise us.

MIDNIGHT LETTER: When your daughter comes home, tell her and her husband that you would like them to be re-married in a religious ceremony. Then speak with your clergyman and he will guide you.

DEAR ABBY: I am engaged to a young man and plan to marry him soon. Recently he told me that he is in the habit of sleeping in his underwear, and intends to do so after we are married. (He picked up this habit in the Army.) The thought is repulsive to me. Is there any way I can get him to break this habit without making a big deal out of it?

BRIDE-TO-BE: DEAR BRIDE: Tell him you intend to sleep in yours!

DEAR ABBY: I am a man who likes his night out once a week. I usually go out with my father and we throw darts. My wife and I started hollering for a night out once a week too, so I said, "Okay, so go already." She goes out with her girl friends and they stop into a bar for a drink and then see a movie. I don't like her in bars without me and told her so. But she says there is no harm in it. I trust her, but do you think I am trusting her too much? We have been married 10 years and have 3 children.

SUMMER IDEAS Projects For All The Ambitious Teenagers

By VIVIAN BROWN AP Newsfeatures Writer
Many of you girls have inquired about ways to earn money at home because outside jobs are scarce.

Study your community's needs to determine what would be in demand. Staging children's parties is an idea. You supply everything down to the cake and help run the party on the big day.

Another made to order money maker for young people is raising and selling plants. Booklets and pamphlets on growing plants in your area may be obtained from state agricultural services.

Herbs are easy to grow and sell. Good herb books can acquaint you with all the lore necessary to provide a little pamphlet with your herbs. Remember, as a sales pitch, that some people make a potpourri of herb foliage to use for scenting lingerie.

Popular herbs are those used in romantic history and is thought by many people to be indispensable to tomato dishes, is a good herb to cultivate.

People who sell herbs prefer to start them in pots as they are tender transplants. The way to start a market is usually by simply advertising in a local paper: "Herbs for sale" or whatever you have.

MRS. ZIRAH LEFEVRE

Mrs. LeFevre Chosen For Texas Publication

Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county tax assessor and collector, has been chosen to be included in a publication, "Texas Women of Distinction." A compilation of past and present activities of outstanding Texas women of today, the book will be published during the latter part of the year.

Mrs. LeFevre was born in Calhoun County, Texas on Sept. 28, 1918. A graduate of Big Spring High School, she married R. C. (Dick) LeFevre in 1937. Her children are Leroy, a graduate of Texas A&M, and now a chemical engineer with Dow Chemical Corp., Freeport, and her twin sons, Jay and Zay, sophomores at Pepperdine College, Los Angeles, Calif. She has one grandchild, Michelle Leroy's daughter.

After her husband's death in 1945, Mrs. LeFevre worked in the police department most of the time from 1945 to 1954 serving under three different chiefs of police. One year during that period was spent with the police department in Abilene. She worked in the accounting department at the VA Hospital and as chief of civilian payroll at Webb AFB prior to running for a public office in 1959.

Mrs. LeFevre, with the help of her sons, built her present home at 308 West 18th. They did much of the construction work and all of the inside finishing. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Patton, live with her at present.

Mrs. LeFevre is a member of the Tax Assessors Collector Association of Texas and the Texas Association of Assessing Officers. She is secretary to the Board of Directors of the Howard County Employees Federal Credit Union; a member of the Altrusa Club; serves on the legislative and educational committees of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Women's International Bowling Congress. Mrs. LeFevre has supported Little League baseball activities since it was originated in Big Spring. She is an active member of the 14th and Main Church of Christ.

Troika Bells May Be Ringing In The Kremlin

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Special Correspondent
AP Business News Analyst
Troika bells may be ringing excitedly in the Kremlin in expectation of big dividends from the East-West accord in Laos.

The troika is a symbolic thing for the Russians—three horses hitched together to pull one wagon. Last year Premier Khrushchev demanded the troika system for the United Nations, with one representative each—and one veto each—for the Communists, the West and the neutralists.

At last they seem to have been successful, with the arrangement that is supposed to bring peace to the confused little kingdom of Laos in Indochina. And the Lao-tian troika was not a Communist idea. It was proposed by the right-wing royal government that the United States backed.

Earlier in the hearings, some witnesses from the g-string crowd have told stories of girls being pressured into prostitution. But Mrs. Lopushok testified no one ever dared to try to lure or drive her into prostitution, because "they knew better."

She said she was forced to "mix" with the customers at night clubs, to hustle the sale of drinks to customers. In other highlights of her testimony, Mrs. Lopushok told of 1. Having her clothing stripped forcibly from her body by a couple of bartenders at a Chicago club known as the Aloha, and forced to dance "raw" for the customers.

She was given details of her trip to the fraternal house at Knox College, at Galesburg, Ill. She told of the stripping incident in flat, emotionless tones. "I was a young girl," she said, "about 19 1/2."

Mrs. Lopushok said she studied dancing in Europe and is "one of the best" Latin-type dancers. She said she does "strictly no bumps and grinds, strictly footwork."

She said she received a payment of about $200 a month from whom? After the baby was taken. She said only recently she received a telephone call from a lawyer—the fourth in succession employed by the foster parents—asking her to sign adoption papers.

She said she once made the mistake of attending a meeting where "I opened my mouth too wide. They shut me up."

She said many other girls were as bitter as she was.

He contended there is much the union could do to protest its members from exploitation. "They are absolutely aware of the conditions in these clubs, they know all about it," the sergeant said.

The trio also refused to say whether Chicago-area mobster Frank La Porte was in business with them.

SOURT BY FBI
Subcommittee counsel Jerome Adlerman said the FBI has been trying for six months to locate La Porte and subpoena him. Secret Army Continues Its Ruinous Drive

ALGIERS (AP)—Seven plastic bombs heavily damaged three surgical pavilions and the central laboratory of Algiers' vast Mustapha Hospital today in the wake of a Secret Army Organization announcement that it was launching an all-out campaign to lay waste to Algeria.

Hospital officials said not a single person was injured by the blasts. In recent months, after the secret army raided several hospitals, most Moslem patients were evacuated to makeshift clinics. The hospital said the surgical pavilions and laboratory have been rendered useless.

PRIME TARGET

A group from the Moslem National Liberation Front, the FLN, inspected the sprawling, 2,500-bed hospital late Thursday and announced the Moslems planned to take it over. That made it a prime target for the secret army in its plan to destroy everything that might be useful to the Moslems after independence.

A clandestine radio transmitter announced Thursday night that the secret army's high command had decided to accelerate its scorched earth campaign because it had failed to obtain more concessions for the European settlers from Algeria's future Moslem rulers.

The broadcast ordered all Europeans to leave Algeria. But an earlier secret army broadcast from Oran, the territory's second city in western Algeria, said European residents of western Algeria would regroup in major cities in that area for a last-ditch defense against Algerian independence.

DE GAULLE PLOT

Along with its desperation fight to leave an independent Algeria a waste land, the secret army mounted a new offensive against the French government and President Charles de Gaulle. The government announced the smashing of a new secret army plot to kill De Gaulle — the third in nine months. Widespread arrests of secret army agents in France were reported.

Former French Premier Georges Bidault, in an interview with a Brussels newspaper, indicated the secret army still was fighting to take over France. Gen. Philippe Ginetet, commander of French forces in the Oran area for only two weeks, was shot and gravely wounded by secret army gunmen outside a military hospital chapel in that secret army stronghold. An army doctor walking alongside was killed. They had gone to the chapel to pray at the coffin of a lieutenant colonel assassinated the day before.

CAMPAIGN PUSHED

Even as the threat of greater destruction was being broadcast, the European terrorists pressed their campaign of scorched earth and murder. They killed four persons Thursday, wounded nine others and set 21 fires in public and private buildings that might be of use to Moslems after a European exodus.

The secret army said it was ordering the European settlers to quit Algeria because the Moslems had refused to give guarantees to the European minority beyond those provided in the March 18 agreement at Evian between the Nationalists and the French government.

Singer Is Fined
For Racism Balk

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Blind Negro singer Ray Charles, whose record sales have crossed the million mark, paid a $757 judgment in Fulton Civil Court Thursday because he refused to sing at a segregated dance in Augusta, Ga.

Charles, a native of Albany, Ga., went blind when he was eight.

The singer's attorney, Guy Taylor, told the court that Charles refused to sing for the dance because Negroes were admitted as spectators only.

Taylor moved that the court direct a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, Arthur T. Wilson, who claimed in his petition that Charles owed him the money spent on advertising. Charles paid the $757 judgment for breach of contract.

House Okays Debt Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has chalked up for President Kennedy what may be a short-lived victory in his fight for a temporary national debt ceiling of $308 billion.

By a vote of 211-192 it sent to the Senate Thursday a bill upholding the President's position after defeating, 258-145, a Republican-backed drive for a $306-billion limit.

More trouble lies ahead in the Senate. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the finance committee, opposes the larger figure.

Byrd has suggested no compromise figure, but informed guessing is that in its final form the limit will be pegged at $308 billion, a figure the administration claims won't give it enough leeway to deal with fiscal fluctuations during the coming year.

Kennedy suggested at his news conference Thursday that failure to raise the debt ceiling could have a profound effect on the economy.

The question came up when he was asked to comment on Republican charges the administration has been pressuring congressmen to support a higher debt limit or risk loss of defense work in their districts.

Without replying directly, Kennedy said he hopes it was explained to all congressmen that failure to boost the limit would force the government to stretch out payment of its bills.

He recalled that the Eisenhower administration was forced to do this in 1957. Kennedy said the Brookings Institution and scholars from other organizations have concluded this stretchout was a factor in creating the 1958 recession.

The Senate Finance Committee, headed by Byrd, doesn't plan to start hearings on the debt limit increase before June 25. That is five days before the end of the present fiscal year, when the temporary debt ceiling of $300 billion drops to $285 billion, about $9 billion less than the expected national debt at that time.

Four Democrats joined the House Republicans in their fight for a $306-billion roof. Twenty-one Republicans voted against it.

On passage, 202 Democrats and 9 Republicans gave the President his victory, while 39 Democrats joined 153 Republicans in opposition.

The voting came after debate in which Republicans charged defense Department officials with blackmail and criminal conduct.

They alleged department officials illegally used federal funds to solicit the aid of defense contractors to urge balking congressmen to support the President's higher debt limit request.

Federal law prohibits the use of appropriated funds by government agencies to lobby for legislation.

Road To Success Can Be Healthy

NEW YORK (AP)—Afraid the road to success is a shortcut to the grave?

Nonsense, says Dr. Allan J. Fleming, medical director for E. I. Du Pont de Nemours at Wilmington, Del.

"As a result of our studies on executive health, we feel we can assure the up-and-coming young executives that the risk of developing stress disease as he climbs the executive ladder is in no way increased by the climb," he said.

Writing in Advanced Management-Office Executive magazine, Dr. Fleming told of studies comparing top executives, low-level executives and just plain people.

The results, he said, showed no significant difference among these groups in terms of ulcers, high blood pressure, heart trouble, overweight or cholesterol.

Cape Cod Finds Itself A Battleground In Race War

EDITOR'S NOTE — Cape Cod has long been a summer playground. Now it's a battleground, caught in a racial conflict it thought it had long ago solved for itself.

By SID MOODY
HYANNIS, Mass. (AP) — The sure signs of summer are already inching out along the beckoning finger of Cape Cod.

The college kids, not yet tanned, are down in madras shorts, dirty sneakers and dad's Volkswagens looking for live-it-up vacation jobs in the hotels.

The national colors of the Cape, white for the clapboards and dark green for the shutters, are being freshly applied to the ancient

Officers Fined For Beating

CAMP HOWZE, Korea (AP)—Two U.S. Army officers were reprimanded, fined $600 and suspended from command functions for six months for beating a Korean.

The incident had touched off a storm of South Korean demands for jurisdiction over American servicemen who commit offenses while off duty.

A nine-member court martial imposed the sentences on 1st Lt. David W. Swanson, 25, of Galesburg, Ill., and Thomas M. Wilde, 25, of Wordsworth, Ill.

The two pleaded guilty of unlawful detention, assault and battery and giving false testimony under oath. The military court deliberated on the sentence for more than an hour. The fines are to be paid in $100 monthly installments. The sentences are subject to review by higher military authorities.

Swanson, a company commander, and Wilde, his executive officer, were accused of ropping and beating Lee Il-yong, 30, after the Korean was caught inside their area May 29. Lee suffered head injuries, a broken finger and multiple bruises, the Army said.

The incident touched off student demonstrations last week at two universities in Seoul and one in Taegu, South Korea's third city, demanding that the United States quickly sign a status-of-forces agreement with the Seoul government.

Cisco's Daylight Time Test Ends

CISCO, Tex. (AP)—Cisco's experiment with daylight saving time lasted only a week—but the town of 5,000 might try it again sometime, the Chamber of Commerce says.

On June 1, after much discussion, Cisco became the only town in Texas to go on daylight saving time.

One of the advantages was to have been the extra hour free in the evenings. But businessmen, who depend on patronage from customers in three counties, found their earlier closing time worked against them.

At the end of the first week on DST, a canvass showed that most of the business section wanted to go back on Central Standard Time like their neighbors.

cottages of the summer folk from Boston and New York. Behind the fences of the Kennedy family compound a sprinkler arches its bright beads back and forth across the lawn. On Memorial Day a long snake of cars moved down the mid-Cape highway with the season's first tourists.

Down at the bus station a few men waited for other arrivals, Negroes sent from the South because Hyannis is the summer home of President Kennedy and his brother, Attorney General Robert Kennedy. Sometimes a Negro wearing an old Army shirt or a pair of work shoes dusty from a cotton field steps off and is taken to the town welfare office. Once a mother and her 11 children got off. Perhaps it was then Hyannis realized this summer would be different.

If Cape Cod had its drawers, it would relax behind its hedges and white picket fences and let the world go by.

But now the nation is peeking over the fence to see how the Cape is doing as an unwitting battleground of America's race problem.

"This thing," is what most Cape Codders call the influx of Negroes sent here free of charge by White Citizens Councils in the South.

DIDN'T ASK
"We didn't ask to be in this," said town Selectman E. Thomas Murphy who is in charge of welfare. "But these colored people didn't ask to be colored, either. We've been preaching equality and now it's a chance to put it to the test. We'll just have to do our best."

The White Citizens Councils, sparked by lawyer Amis Guthridge of Little Rock, Ark., have been recruiting Negroes with promises of a land of Canaan in Hyannis.

Posters circulated in the South proclaim "President Kennedy's brother assures you a grand reception in Massachusetts. Good jobs, housing, etc. are promised."

But there is no housing. Except in the summer, there are few jobs. The biggest industry on the Cape is a candle factory. It has about 60 employees.

There are construction jobs, building the sprawl of motels going up, but there aren't that many. A number of residents live off the tourist industry during the 12 fat summer weeks. That income and relief carries them through the lean months of winter.

Army Engineers Get Water Report

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel sent to Army Engineers today a feasibility report on the Plumb Creek flood control project near Wichita Falls.

The Texas Water Commission held a hearing on the project June 11 and recommended that it be approved.

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

"If we do that the Guthridges will start crowing we in the North are hypocrites, that we don't practice what we preach."

"Ship them back? We can't do that, either morally or by law," said the Rev. Mr. Warren. "That would just be treating them like cattle which has been done already."

NOT ALWAYS BEST
So Cap Cod has decided to do its best. But the best foot hasn't always been forward.

The phone in John Levine's welfare office has rang several times with voices that muttered, "Get those niggers out of here."

Warren and Murphy have filled fat folders with hate mail from the South but a local letter, one of the few from the Cape, disturbs them more.

In a bold, graceful script a man wrote:

"These Negroes should be shipped back immediately. In delaying you are having a bad effect on the Cape season about to start and real estate values. Has any one inquired about the legitimacy of this horde of children?"

It was signed "A Cape Cod Summer Resident."

Murphy crammed the letter back in the folder. "So what if the children are illegitimate? It isn't their fault."

NO EXCEPTIONS
But the bulk of the Cape Codders have long been well-mannered hosts to tourists and are making no exceptions of the refugees. Cape Cod Community College offered its faculty dormitory until June 11 when the summer semester starts. Townspeople have offered food, clothing and toys for the children.

On Memorial Day a minister from Boston took several of the youngsters and their parents on an outing. A local woman took Victoria Bell, mother of the 11, and her daughters to a beauty parlor and paid to have their hair done.

"We only been here a week," said Mrs. Bell, "but the children been getting good food and milk and already look better."

Dave Harris, 42, has moved in with a local family and has a steady job as second cook at the Cranberry Goose, a fashionable old inn a few miles north of Hyannis.

A COLD WIND
He was the first to arrive and was greeted by the President's brother, Ted, a candidate for the Guthridge himself had recruited Harris with a parting, "When you come back you'll be driving a big, red automobile and we'll go fishing on my farm."

Negroes are not strangers to the Cape but there aren't too many, maybe 200 or 300 of the 8,000 residents of Hyannis. Half of the NAACP membership of the Cape chapter is white.

Hyannis has had over 40 arrivals so far—pawns. Stevenson calls them — and Murphy thinks the area can handle them. But not many more, even though Massachusetts pays the welfare bill. There just aren't rooms or jobs.

WONDERING what makes the daily newspaper the top advertising buy? It's the number and quality of the people the daily newspaper reaches, and their friendly reaction to newspaper advertising. When an advertiser invests in any medium, he's buying an audience for his sales message. The newspaper audience is large. Almost 100,000,000 people read a daily newspaper every day in the U.S.* And that audience remains very constant. There's no "summer slump" in newspapers, no peak listening or viewing hours, no special moment when you must nail down an audience or miss out completely. The daily newspaper sells around the clock. Readers can study it at their leisure...enjoy it...relax with it...clip it...buy from it. And they do.

LAMESA (SC) — The third annual Miss Lamesa Pageant will be conducted at 8 p.m. Saturday in the high school auditorium with eight beauties vying for the 1962 title.
Twenty-seven of their counterparts from three to five years of age will compete in a Parade of Dolls, the winner being acclaimed the 1962 Dawson County Doll.
Pageant entries include Betty Mae Sanders, Laphaine Greenlee, Katie Neill, Olivia Beeman, Ailene Adcock, Linda Wright, Patricia Beckham and Kay Greenwood.
The Miss Lamesa pageant, sponsored by the Lambda Phi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, is an official preliminary to the Miss Texas and Miss America pageants and will be judged according to the Miss America point system.
Lamesa businessmen have provided a $350 scholarship for the winner.
The panel of judges includes: Mrs. Lowell Littleton, Ozona; Robert A. Collins, Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Adams, Midland; Mrs. Howard Brown, Big Spring, alternate.
Pat Green of Lamesa will be the master of ceremonies for the pageant and Tony Greaves for a parade of dolls.
A parade through downtown Lamesa will kick off pageant activities at 4 p.m. Friday and the contestants will be interviewed individually by the judges beginning at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.
Judging in the pageant will be based on evening gown, talent, poise, personality, grace and general appearance. Swimsuit judging will be held prior to the public showing.
The dolls will be escorted across the stage, five finalists will be selected and each asked a single question by the emcee. The winner will be determined by audience applause.
Other special entertainment will be provided.

Final Dam Arguments Set

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Water Commission will hear attorneys' final arguments July 18 on the proposed $65 million Millican Dam on the Navasota River near Bryan.
David Kuitgen, attorney for the Brazos River Authority, sponsoring agency for the federal project, and E. H. Thornton Jr., of Houston, attorney for the opponents, will present the closing arguments.
The commission closed its fifth day of hearing on the controversial project Thursday. It must report on the feasibility of the project to Gov. Price Daniel, who will then tell the U. S. Corps of Engineers whether to proceed with the project.
The hearings were delayed twice after opposition appeared to protest.
A Bryan attorney told the commission Thursday that the Army engineers abandoned a site where U. S. 196 crosses the Navasota in favor of the Millican site after they learned of an April, 1961 resolution by the commission's predecessor, the State Board of Water Engineers, endorsing the Millican site.
Coulter Hoppess of Bryan, president of the Navasota River Improvement Association, said a congressman told him the other was abandoned "because the corps interpreted the resolution as an injection of the sovereignty of Texas into the matter and that they no longer had any discretion in the site location."
W. H. Humphries of Bryan, association secretary - treasurer, later testified to the accuracy of Hoppess report.
The proposed reservoir will cover 117,000 acres to spread over an area 30 miles long and 17 miles across at the widest point.

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that

IN TEXAS... near Galveston, Confederate General J. B. Magruder piled cotton bales on the decks of little river boats. These famous "cotton clads," manned by the 26th Texas Cavalry, trounced the Federal war fleet then holding Texas' largest port. As the war ships hastily departed, the event was toasted in good Texas-brewed beer.

For then, as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation—light, sparkling refreshment that adds a touch of Southwestern hospitality to any occasion. Texans have always enjoyed the good fellowship that goes with every glass.
TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

Judge Tells Of Links In Estate Hearing

HOUSTON (AP)—Harris County Probate Court Judge Clem McClelland testified Thursday that part of an administrator's fee from an estate was invested in a private corporation from which he was authorized to draw money.

McClelland testified for nearly four hours during a court of inquiry concerning the processing of estates in his court. The hearing was before Justice of the Peace W. C. Ragan.

Dist. Atty. Frank Briscoe asked McClelland if he had suggested to Richard H. Putney, administrator of the $165,000 estate of the late Clara L. Currie, that Putney invest half of the $10,000 administrator's fee in Tierra Grande, Inc., a real estate investment corporation.

McClelland said he had authorized payment to Putney of a $10,000 fee for his administration duties, and said he had learned Putney bought some stock in Tierra Grande, but he denied he had ordered Putney to do so.

"Did you tell Putney, 'Put my half into Tierra Grande?'" Briscoe asked McClelland.

"No, and I'm tired of you asking questions like that," McClelland replied.

Earlier, McClelland testified his secretary had written checks on Tierra Grande's bank account. When asked by the district attorney if the money was used to pay his personal obligations, McClelland replied it was a matter of adjustment.

Ragan had to shout for order repeatedly during the hearing and he threatened to clear the court several times.

One attorney, Raymond H. Wilson, was held in contempt of court and ordered out of the courtroom for arguing with Ragan. Ragan told Wilson he would decide later the amount of punishment.

JFK Calls On GOP For Nonpartisanship

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy, giving Democrats in Congress a light pat on the back, has urged Republicans to ignore party labels and vote for his major proposals.

Kennedy's prod at his news conference Thursday amounted to a confession that he needs GOP votes on some issues as well as a challenge to Republicans to adopt a nonpartisan stance on "matters of great national importance."

As a senator, Kennedy recalled, he sided with former Republican President Dwight D. Eisenhower on such questions as raising the debt limit and permitting aid to Communist Poland and Yugoslavia as a tool of foreign policy. He encouraged Republican support on these propositions. And he put special emphasis on his farm bill, already passed by the Senate, to couple production controls with price supports for wheat and feed grains.

AIRLINE STRIKE
Kennedy also used the nationally televised conference to exhort flight engineers "to meet their public responsibilities" and abandon strike threats against Pan American, Trans World and Eastern air lines. He did not rule out the possibility of seeking authority to seize the airlines if the engineers walked out, but said he hoped they would submit their dispute to arbitration or find some other peaceful solution.

Then, in reply to questions, Kennedy suggested politics and old positions be discarded in favor of fresh thinking on business and the economy. Here, he appealed to Republicans outside of Congress to concentrate on "the real problems of our country" and wait until 1964 to argue politics. Those problems exist regardless of who occupies the White House, he said, commenting that Eisenhower held office during the 1958 and 1960 recessions.

PLEASURE IN PLUNGE?
The chief executive said he couldn't imagine anyone deriving political or personal pleasure out of the stock market plunge or economic crises. That was his response when asked about a columnist's report that the current big business attitude toward Kennedy is: "Now we have you where we want you."

Kennedy previously had remarked that most businessmen are Republicans and happier when a Republican is president.

He got a laugh by saying: "I can't believe I am where big business wants me."

Laughter again rolled through the auditorium when he said he'd read the column in the St. Louis Post Dispatch, the newspaper was added to the White House reading list when the New York Herald Tribune was canceled.

On support of his legislative program, Kennedy said members of his own party have done pretty well, except for a few who habitually vote with Republicans. He noted that when the House passed his request Thursday to raise the debt ceiling to $308 billion, only nine Republicans voted with him but "Democrats met their responsibility."

CLOSE VOTE
Kennedy said if Republicans make his farm bill a party issue, "We will find ourselves with a very close vote on a matter which has the first chance of bringing some order out of what is a very chaotic situation."

The administration measure, he contended, would save taxpayers $4 billion over the next four years. Defeat, he said, would reinstate the program of Eisenhower's secretary of agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson—and he maintained this has cost more than $6.5 billion a year, would continue piling up surpluses and depress farm income.

Kennedy had this to say on other topics:

Economic Policy—Asked whether government would play an active role in industry and labor wage-price discussions, he said that in a free economy, "We have to attempt to work out the solutions on a voluntary basis."

Deficits—It's not true, Kennedy repeated from his Yale speech of Monday, that budget deficits necessarily induce inflation. One course to avoid recurrent recessions, he said, is to follow a budget policy related to the economy and not to traditional positions which may be outmoded.

BETTER RELATIONS
Soviet Union—If agreement on an independent coalition government sticks in Laos, Kennedy said the atmosphere may change and more amicable relations may be possible with the Soviet Union. But he saw no parallel between Laos and Berlin and said there is no current thought of a summit meeting.

Foreign Aid—Senate-voted restrictions on aid to Yugoslavia and Poland represent favors for Moscow, Kennedy said. More broadly, he said the aid program is designed to maintain the Free World's position and "encourage friends of freedom." It must continue, he added, "because the race is not over."

Southeast Asia—Kennedy said U.S. policy in Southeast Asia should always be under review, a point made by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana in a speech questioning results of U.S. moves in that region. Kennedy said withdrawal from South Viet Nam or Thailand "might mean a collapse of the entire area."

Space—While the Pentagon plays a significant part in the space program, Kennedy said, the civilian space agency will retain primary responsibility. The United States is not yet first in space, he said, but is engaged in a major effort that will produce important results in the coming months.

New Education Experiment Planned
PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Warren, Pa., school board will start an experimental program next fall in which children as young as 3 years and 8 months will be admitted to kindergarten if they are ready for schooling.

The University of Pittsburgh announced the plan Thursday. The university will cooperate with the school board in the program.

Dr. Jack Birch of the university's special education and rehabilitation department said one aim is to find out what effect early admissions will have on the school system in later years. Another is to prove that some children are ready for formal schooling earlier than others.

Senate Is Hope For Foreign Aid Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is looking to the House to unlock handcuffs the Senate clamped on foreign aid to Communist Poland and Yugoslavia.

Several House members are known to be concerned about the prohibition the Senate placed last week on all but surplus food assistance to Communist or Marxist dominated countries. Several are preparing to argue vigorously that this restriction be struck from the aid bill.

The test of Kennedy's campaign for a free hand may come when the House takes up the measure, perhaps in 10 days to two weeks. At his news conference Thursday Kennedy endorsed criticism of the Senate action voiced by Ambassadors George F. Kennan in Belgrade and John Moore Cabot in Warsaw. They had reported that the Senate restriction could seriously undermine U.S. efforts to wean Yugoslavia and Poland from Moscow.

MAJOR SETBACK
"Both of them regard this action as a major setback and a great asset to Moscow," Kennedy said. "I don't think we should do those favors."

The State Department is gravely concerned about the restriction voted by the Senate and also about a requirement written into Kennedy's trade bill by the House Ways and Means Committee. This would deny Poland and Yugoslavia the preferential tariff treatment accorded friendly countries under the most favored nation principle. The House has not yet taken up the bill.

In foreign aid and trade matters, Yugoslavia has been treated by this country as a friendly nation and Poland has been given special concessions.

This policy has never been universally popular in Congress. Some Democratic leaders have suggested calling Kennan and Cabot to Washington to defend their views personally before the appropriate congressional committees, if time permits. The State Department is known to be agreeable.

NOT ALLAYED
But opposition in Congress has by no means been allayed.

"We have ample evidence that Yugoslavia is itself more and more with the Kremlin," Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, said. "(Marshal) Tito himself has said he is shoulder to shoulder with the Soviets in peace and in war."

"I certainly haven't very convincing evidence that Poland is moving, or trying to move, out from under Moscow's control."

"I'd have to see concrete evidence in either case."

Hickenlooper said he sees no particular reason for calling the ambassadors in for congressional briefings.

On-Job Training
LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Gary Hansen Thursday was appointed director of Michigan's commission on the aging. He's 25 years old.

K Called Meddler In Canadian Affairs

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker has accused Soviet Premier Khrushchev of vengeful meddling in the Canadian election with a charge that Diefenbaker's Conservative government is making preparations for nuclear armament.

With the election of a new Parliament coming up Monday, Diefenbaker said Thursday in a campaign speech Khrushchev "doesn't want this government back because we took a stand on Soviet colonialism that he doesn't like."

Soviet Ambassador A. A. Aroutunian delivered a Kremlin protest Thursday which said if nuclear warheads are located on Canadian territory, the Soviet Union would have to take counter-measures to safeguard its security.

Diefenbaker's government immediately rejected the Soviet note as "inadmissible interference in Canadian affairs."

Diefenbaker's chief opponents unanimously backed him against the Soviets.

Lester B. Pearson, Liberal leader, termed the Soviet statement "arrogant and clumsy" and said it would not affect Canadian attitudes "toward nuclear weapons or toward Soviet imperialism."

T. C. Douglas of the New Democratic party said Khrushchev should know Canadians deplored the "callous and contemptuous" Soviet resumption of nuclear testing last fall.

The Social Credit leader, Robert Thompson, said the Soviet statement was "ill timed and nothing more than Russian interference with a Canadian election."

Canada is building two Bomarc missile bases at North Bay, Ont., but has not decided whether to accept nuclear warheads or get them from the United States after an attack. Diefenbaker indicated Thursday night that a Conservative government would never allow U.S. nuclear warheads on Canadian soil except in wartime.

"We have given the assurance," he said in a broadcast, "that Canada will not join the family of nuclear nations but at the same time will discharge our responsibility for the security of Canada by assuring that if war should come—which God forbid—Canadian armed forces will be in a position to defend with the best defenses available."

As the election campaign drew to a close, all signs pointed to a close contest. Public opinion polls generally indicated that the Liberals would score sharp gains in comparison with their resounding defeat in the 1958 election.

NEIGHBORS AND FENCES

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Maybe Walt and Jerry don't realize the paradox in this scene. They're simply leaning on the fence while their youngsters enjoy the new sliding board in Walt's backyard.

But fences once implied enmity... fear... selfishness. They are first cousins to the walls the ancients built around their cities.

Centuries of Christian influence have implanted a different spirit in men's hearts. A fence today can add interest and beauty to neighbors' gardens, while keeping Walt's and Jerry's kids from running across the flower beds.

There are countless evidences of Christian influence in our community today. The Church has elevated human ideals. Faithful worship and spiritual growth bring us closer to those ideals.

Musicians Union Tightens Rule

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Members of the American Federation of Musicians (AFL-CIO) no longer will be allowed to play live music at performances where pre-recorded music is played. But, there are exceptions to the rule.

The musicians adopted the ban Wednesday at the federation's 6th annual convention. However, the resolution stated that exemptions could be granted by the federation of its locals.

Members also were directed not to record music when the music is to be combined with live musical performances.

Dan Blocker Thumbs Nose At U.S. Calorie Counters

By BOB THOMAS
AP TV Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Amid a nation of calorie-counters, Dan Blocker of "Bonanza" stands out like a monument. He's 260 pounds of unabashed bulk.

None of that safflower oil and gluten bread for Dan. Why should he ruin his meal ticket?

Yet when I met up with the towering Texan, he was lunching on cottage cheese salad and gelatine. "Picked up eight pounds on P.A.'s," he explained, referring to personal appearances, any television star's bread and butter.

"Trouble with those tours is everybody wants to feed you. They give you a big breakfast and a big lunch and then a big dinner, thinking they're doing you a favor. You feel like a heel not to eat."

Dan admitted he would probably take off 50 pounds if he gave up the beer and booze. But he hasn't yet found enough reason. And he'd be in danger of destroying the image of the big, blustery Boss Cartwright on NBC's Sunday night Western.

Health problems? He's got none. Even got a top rating in an insurance physical exam recently.

"Can hardly remember when I didn't weigh at least 200 pounds," he said. "Never worried me, though my folks thought about it. I guess. Once when I was about 10 and weighed 200, they put me in the car and took me to a pediatrician in Lubbock, Texas.

"He examined me and said, 'There's nothing wrong with this boy; he's just going to be a big son of a gun.'"

The Army gave him the same bill of health, even though at 310 pounds he was well over the usual limit. "We'll make an exception in your case," said the doctor, and Dan replied, "thanks a bunch."

Tornadoes Hit In Panhandle, Some Damage

By The Associated Press

Civil defense sirens screamed a warning of approaching tornadoes in Amarillo Thursday night, but the Panhandle city was spared ruin from the deadly dancing twisters.

In adjacent towns, however, a couple of tornadoes dipped to the ground, one at Canyon, knocking over a house trailer, unroofing a residence and damaging a garage.

There were no injuries reported. Sirens were set off at 8 p.m. in the Panhandle metropolis as a tornado was reported bearing down on the city's eastern edge. A few minutes later, the Weather Bureau said two twisters were aimed between the city and Amarillo Air Terminal.

Tornadoes played around the city for more than two hours with accompanying heavy rain and hail. None of downtown Amarillo was hit by the twisters that scurped near the town.

Borger police said a funnel was sighted four miles south of Fritch at 8:55 p.m. Two minutes later, the tornado was reported over Amarillo. The Amarillo FFA tower said it was the third twister of the evening over the same section of the Panhandle city.

Just after 9 p.m. a tornado, two miles west of Pullman Switch, lifted harmlessly into the air.

Four miles from Pecos, another funnel cloud dropped down and Mrs. O. E. Greggston watched as the twister destroyed her large poultry houses, killing chickens and tearing up cages.

Pecos residents watched a big, black funnel move southeast of the town as it snapped down utility poles as it moved.

Shortly before 10 p.m., the Weather Bureau issued an "all clear" for the western Panhandle.

Thursday's tornadoes posed the most serious threat to a large metropolitan area in the past two weeks of almost daily violent weather in Texas.

And conditions are ripe for another evening of wild weather, as state forecasts call for scattered thunderstorms in nearly all areas.

Early Friday skies were clear to partly cloudy over most of the Lone Star state. Some patches of fog and low clouds had begun to develop over portions of South Texas. The Weather Bureau said the cloudiness was expected to increase during the morning hours.

The turbulent weather that raked West Texas Thursday night had weakened considerably by dawn and most of it had moved eastward into Southwestern Oklahoma.

Temperatures in the state at 4 a.m. ranged from 61 at Amarillo to 78 at Galveston and Presidio.

Miss Big Spring Pageant To Be Held Saturday Night

Saturday night will be an important date in the lives of two Big Spring girls. More than a score of beautiful young ladies are awaiting the announcement that will name one of them Miss Big Spring for 1962 and another, Junior Miss Big Spring.

The new official representative of the city and county will go to Fort Worth to compete for the Miss Texas title and, should Big Spring win that honor for the first time, she will go on to Atlantic City, N.J., for the Miss America contest.

The big event begins at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the city auditorium. Admission charge will be $1.50 at the door, with advance tickets selling for one dollar. Tickets may be bought at Hemphill-Wells, Cizon's, or from any member of the sponsoring Jaycees.

The contest will be conducted on two levels. Only winners in the senior division will be eligible for the Miss Texas pageant, but juniors receive considerable training and experience toward the day when they may enter the senior classification.

All contestants must appear in both evening gown and bathing suit revues, with emphasis on personality, poise, and beauty of face and figure.

Additionally, each senior contestant must demonstrate on stage some skill or talent at which she is adept. Motion picture films will be screened for both judges and audience for those talents not designed for stage work.

The judges will be from out of town, and scoring will be strictly on a point basis. A disinterested accountant will add up the scores at the end of the contest, so that not even the judges know the winners' identities until the figures are added and the results announced.

To help the audience obtain a better view of all contestants, a ramp will be extended from the stage into the auditorium.

Members of the Jaycee auxiliary, the Jaycee-sites, will supervise backstage, and all relatives and friends of contestants will be excluded from those areas.

The new Miss Big Spring will receive a $100 gift certificate, plus an expense paid trip to Fort Worth. The junior winner will be presented a trophy.

Senior contestants and the talents they will exhibit onstage include: Mary Ellen Walker, humorous sketch; Lana Dale Lewis, fashion designing and modeling; Virginia Ruth Morris, dance; Patricia Eugene Saunders, sewing and dancing; Verryla Lee Hewitt, swimming and dancing; Melinda Marie Ray, wardrobe designing; and Annette Parrish, piano.

In the junior division are Karla Rae Seward, Patricia Kay McBride, Peggy Ray Barraza, Sharon LaRue Smith, Sonja Diana Arick, Joanna Patterson, Claudene

Terrazas, Bonnie Kaye Koger, Susan Rae Gibbs, Peggy Jo Greenfield, Cherie Sabbato, Janie Carol Joffcoat, Janet Everett, Dianna Harris, Linda Parker, Donna Jo Percy, Dina Baxter, and Judith Ann and Joan Elizabeth Lyster.

A late entry in the senior pageant is Annette Parrish of 1403 Princeton. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Emory Parrish who are, respectively, a postal carrier and cashier at Webb AFB. Miss Parrish, herself, is an employee of the Social Security office.

With five years of piano study behind her, the contestant will play the piano during the talent portion of the pageant.

Miss Parrish is a member of the Civic Theatre, and was a member of the National Honor Society during her junior and senior years in high school. Her vital statistics include height of 5'6", weight of 120, blue eyes, fair complexion, and reddish-blond hair. Her measurements are 36-23-36.

Latest entry in the junior divison is Dianna Harris, daughter of Col. and Mrs. C. F. Harris of 112 Gunter. Col. Harris is a retired U.S. Air Force officer.

Miss Harris has had two years of ballet instruction, has seen much of Europe, and has held many titles in school. These include Runnels Junior High School cheerleader, 7th grade favorite, 8th grade ranch queen, 9th grade basketball queen, and 9th grade harvest queen.

Her vital statistics include height 5'6", weight 118, blue eyes, brown hair, fair complexion, and measurements of 34-23 1/2-37 1/2.
