Tshombe Yields A Bit After House Arrest

But Situation Still Confused

Fights For Life

A baby known only as Baby X is shown in incubator at a Dallas hospital after the new-born boy was found beside a road only hours after he was born. He was found bundled in a bed sheet and a pink rug by a tree. Mrs. Charles Harris, a hospital nurse, tends the child. Police are seeking leads to the mother's whereabouts. She left no trace of her identity.

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP)—With his army disintegrating and his control over Katanga shattered, President Moise Tshombe yielded a bit today to the United Nations after a brief period of house arrest. Accompanied by a police jeep, he set out ahead of a U.N. column to urge his scattered troops not to resist a movement to Sakania, an important border point about 120 miles southeast of this Katangan capital. In ordering his house arrest, the United Nations had demanded that the president guarantee freedom of movement through the secessionist province. Apparently he was released, however, after giving assurances only for the Sakania movement. "I am authorized to declare," said British Consul Derek Dodson, to the United Nations complete freedom of movement on the road to Sakania.

ARMIES FLEE

Remnants of Tshombe's disorganized forces have fled to the Sakania area, a crossing point into northern Rhodesia. Tshombe's arrest was ordered Wednesday night by U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant after the Katanga leader again threatened to blow up the big industrial installations and hydroelectric dam at Kolwezi, 150 miles northwest of Elisabethville. Thant demanded that Tshombe guarantee peaceful U.N. entry into Katanga. The U.N. also has repeatedly demanded freedom of movement throughout the province.

NOT CLEAR

It was not clear why Tshombe was released with only a partial guarantee of freedom of movement in Katanga, or why U.N. forces did not move on Kolwezi, the most important town still in Katangan hands. George Sherr, a member of the U.N. staff in Elisabethville, took the view that Tshombe's offer "means freedom of movement everywhere in Katanga," declaring: "Either one implements Thant's plan or one doesn't."

ORDER ENFORCED

Katangan sources said Tshombe tried to leave his presidential palace Wednesday night U.N. Tshonian troops stopped him, enforcing the house arrest order. It was understood Tshombe then contacted the British consul in Elisabethville and through him offered U.N. troops freedom of movement to Sakania. U.N. authorities then agreed Tshombe could go free. Katangan sources said Tshombe declined a United Nations escort in leading the U.N. advance, and a U.N. spokesman confirmed that he was out in front of the U.N. column unescorted.

NO QUESTION

"Unless such proof is given," the statement said "there can no more be any question of contact with Mr. Tshombe on other matters; and therefore ONUC—U.N. Force in the Congo—has been instructed to restrain him from further irresponsible acts." Tshombe already was surrounded by U.N. forces. When he returned to Elisabethville Tuesday from his emergency headquarters in Kolwezi, U.N. troops were withdrawn from the presidential palace and replaced by Katangan gendarmes. U.N. forces control the rest of Elisabethville.

U.N. forces also were massed at Jadotville, about 70 miles northwest of Elisabethville, ready to move on Kolwezi, 80 miles farther on. A report from AP correspondent Adrian Porter in Kolwezi indicated they would have little trouble taking the town.

British, Belgian Consuls Ousted By Congoese

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—British and Belgian consuls in Elisabethville were declared persona non grata—unwelcome—today by the central Congoese government.

Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko called in British Ambassador Derek Riches and Belgian Ambassador Count Kerkhove de Dentergem and asked for withdrawal of the consuls because of "the political positions recently adopted by these diplomats, which are incompatible with their functions." (The British Foreign Office said a time limit of 24 hours had been set).

The two consuls, Britain's Derek Dodson and Frederik Vandewalle of Belgium, have been in the forefront of attempts to mediate between Katanga's President Moise Tshombe and the United Nations. The Congoese government had been contemplating breaking off diplomatic relations with Britain because of British moves over Katanga. The semi-official Congoese news agency said Wednesday the Leopoldville regime was expected to turn down a badly-needed British gift of $2 million because of the differences on Katangan policies.

Dodson was instrumental in trying to get a cease-fire in the Katangan capital on Dec. 27, the day the U.N. moved to clear all Katangan roadblocks around the city at the start of the current U.N. action.

It was Vandewalle who drove with Tshombe back to Elisabethville Wednesday after meeting him at the Rhodesian border.

Motors Pace Moderate Rally

NEW YORK (AP)—Chrysler and other motors paced a moderate stock market rally early this afternoon. Trading was active. The market spent most of the morning in a further consolidation of recent gains, showing mixed prices.

Chrysler, up well over a point, touched a new 1962-63 high of 80 and was by far the outstanding performer in its group.

Selected gains among utilities, electrical equipments, chemicals and aerospace issues helped establish a plus for the list as a whole.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 6 1/2 with industrials up 1.2, rails up 1, and utilities up 2.

Brokers saw nothing special in the news to account for the renewed advance and were inclined to credit much of the improvement to short covering in other stocks as well as Chrysler.

U.S. Reports Job Situation Is Unchanged

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today the nation's job situation remained virtually unchanged in December. Employment declined seasonally by 420,000 and unemployment increased by 16,000.

The usual cold weather effect on employment brought the total number of workers holding jobs to 67,561,000 compared with 67,981,000 in November. Unemployment rose to 3,817,000 compared with the 3,801,000 in November. The December idle increase was considerably less than the 100,000 normally expected in December.

The seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment to the work force was 5.6 per cent in December, compared with 5.5 per cent in November and 5.5 per cent in October. The jobless rate has been in this range through most of 1962.

Harold Goldstein, assistant labor statistics commissioner, said the December figures reflected no basic change in the job situation. He said it has remained much the same since early 1962.

Non-farm employment rose seasonally in December to 63.5 million or about 1.5 million above a year earlier.

Farm employment dropped more than seasonally between November and December to 4.1 million. This was believed due to extremely cold weather. Farm employment, however, is on a continuing decline.

Goldstein said the indicated growth of the labor force in 1962 was about 600,000 to 700,000, or considerably less than the growth anticipated on the basis of population figures.

Cold Wave Sweeping In

A gusty, dusty northwest wind, hinting of greater chill to come, swept into Big Spring shortly before noon today as an advance warning of a cold wave scheduled to hit the city tonight.

The wind was whipping up sand and gave the low second sandstorm in as many days. The wind brought a rough termination to a morning which had been pleasantly warm.

The weatherman told of a cold wave of intense impact on the way and a warning to ranchers to protect livestock.

The cold wave, accompanied by shifting winds which may reach gust speeds of as much as 45 miles per hour, will take over late tonight. The temperature will top to the low 20's and Friday with a possibility of some snow or freezing drizzle. The temperature Friday will not get above the upper 20's, the forecast said.

Moisture at this season would hamper still further the already late harvest of cotton, but otherwise would be of benefit.

Severe weather with probable hazardous driving appeared in store for the northern portion of the state and possibly into Central Texas.

That terror of motorists—freezing rain or drizzle—was expected in North Central, Northeast and Southwest Texas. Possible freezing moisture was expected in South Central Texas.

Dock Strike Has Effect On World

By ROGER LANE
NEW YORK (AP)—Because of the East Coast dock strike workers at a West Germany automobile factory will get an enforced two-day vacation next week.

Fifty thousand banana farmers in Ecuador, lacking insurance on their perishable crop, half of which is sold in the United States, are threatened with ruinous losses.

A million tons of U.S. food consigned as aid to foreign nations is jammed up in nearly paralyzed ports from Maine to Texas.

Losses to the domestic economy alone are estimated at beyond $400 million, and rising $20 to $25 million a day.

These are some of the effects of the work stoppage that has tied up general cargo at 41 Atlantic and Gulf coast ports since Dec. 23. The strike stemmed from a contract dispute between 60,000 members of the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association and the New York Shipping Association, representing the shipping industry.

Alexander P. Chopin, association chairman, appraised the dollar cost domestically. "It's like throwing a pebble into a quiet lake," Chopin said. "The longer the strike lasts, the farther it ripples back into the nation, squeezing off commerce."

In Chicago, the wholesale price of bananas jumped $1.50 a 40-pound box to $5.25. Imported phonograph record players were in short supply in New York Dealers in imported cars ran low on, or out of, some popular models.

In a New Orleans wharf shed, a $150,000 shipment of government-owned cheese lay exposed to spoilage.

Chief sufferers so far have been the payroll dock and allied maritime workers, port city stores and taverns they patronize, steamship lines and import-export businesses.

No major industrial shutdowns were reported because of inability to move goods from factory sites, or store them. Many businesses adjusted to shipping and storage problems.

The day after the strike began, rail shipments of general cargo to affected ports was embargoed. Even so, more than 14,000 rail cars clogged yards and approached to the docks this week. Two-thirds of them were filled with grain for export elevators.

Elevators neared their working capacity of 3.9 million bushels in Philadelphia and 11.5 million bushels in New Orleans.

Oil, coal, sugar, ore and other bulk materials movements were affected little or not at all at Boston, Norfolk and other ports. This type cargo is loaded and unloaded automatically—without longshoremen labor.

Security State Ups Interest Rate To 3 1/2

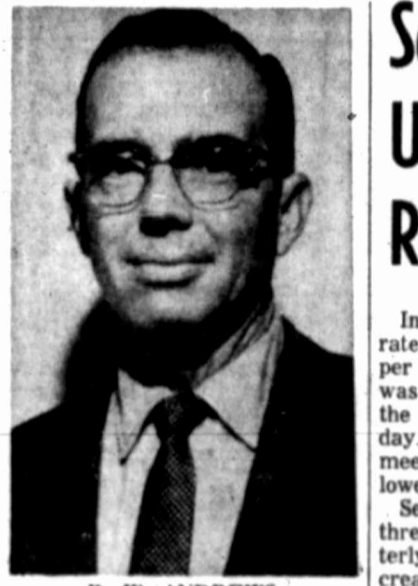

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mona Lisa continued to pack them in today and headed for a possible record as a drawing card at the National Gallery of Art.

While the Leonardo da Vinci masterpiece basked in the glory of her first American showing, word came that another famous lady and a Paris Louvre companion—Whistler's Mother—may be headed for the United States.

Mona attracted 11,250 visitors Wednesday and museum officials looked for a pickup in attendance on succeeding days.

Whether Mona would surpass the record of about 900,000 remained to be seen. This was set in 1948, when art treasures, secreted by the Germans in salt mines during World War II and found by triumphant Allied troops, were exhibited here.

A French Embassy aide said the James Whistler portrait and another famed painting, La Veilleuse, a 17th Century work by Georges de La Tour, may be shipped from the Louvre next month for display at an Atlanta, Ga., museum.

State National Rate To 3 1/2 Pct.

NEW YORK (AP)—A carelessly discarded cigarette may have caused a smoky fire Wednesday in the 102-story Empire State Building.

No injuries resulted from the blaze, during which night workers had to flee offices from as high as the 85th floor of the world's tallest skyscraper.

The fire marshal's office later advanced the "educated guess" that a workman's discarded cigarette fell on the felt-like covering of a cold water pipe that rises to the 85th floor through a utility shaft.

The fire apparently smoldered for hours before developing into choking curtains of smoke.

Most Ranch Squatters Move

CHIHUAHUA, Mex. (AP)—Only one ranch in this area is still being occupied by squatters, San Gonzalez Herra, acting governor of Chihuahua, said Wednesday night.

He said that the landless peasants, who staged the demonstration in their demand for land, had returned home on other ranches after accepting a promise to support their demands before the federal government.

Conservative Gets Appropriations Job As Tunnell Names Chairmen

AUSTIN (AP)—Speaker Byron Tunnell named Rep. W. S. Healy of Paducah today to head the House Appropriations Committee, one of the most powerful in the legislature.

Healy, a conservative spending will be largely responsible for carrying out Tunnell's intentions of "holding the line on spending."

Healy served in the same capacity in the 56th Legislature.

Other top committee chairmen assignments were given to Rep. Menton Murray of Harlingen, congressional and legislative districts; Rep. Ben Jarvis of Tyler, banks and banking; and Rep. Jim Cotton of Weatherford, constitutional amendments.

The redistricting committee will be charged with reshaping the state's districts if the House and Senate choose to undertake redistricting. The Senate was given to re-districting in the last session, and the House districts shaken up considerably. However, there was no congressional redistricting which led to Rep. Joe Pool going to Congress in an at-large capacity.

LOAN SHARKS
The Banks and Banking Committee will handle loan shark legislation—high on the legislative calendar for consideration.

The Constitutional Amendments Committee handles a variety of legislation—including a try at attempts to change the Constitution to allow liquor by the drink or betting on horse races.

Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas was named chairman of the House Revenue and Taxation Committee—the committee which decides which tax bills are sent to the entire House for consideration.

Rep. John Allen of Longview will be the chairman of the State Affairs Committee—the committee governing any slant hole drilling regulations and topics dealing with the oil industry.

The House adjourned until 10 a.m. Monday.

Other chairmen of committees included: Aeronautics, Collier Adams; Lubbock; Agriculture, W. T. Dungan; McKinney; Claims and Accounts, G. F. Mutscher; Brenham; Commerce and Manufactures, Donald Shipley; Houston; Common Carriers, Paul Floyd; Houston; Conservation and Reclamation, Eligio de la Garza; McAllen; Contingent Expenses, Wayne Gibbens; Breckenridge; Counties, Henry Grover; Houston; Criminal Jurisprudence, Robert Hughes; Dallas; Education, Jack Woods; Waco; Engrossed Bills, Nelson Cowles; Hallsville; Enrolled Bills, Tommy Shannon; Fort Worth; Examination of Comptrollers and Treasurers Accounts, Red Berry; San Antonio; Federal Relations, Don Garrison; Houston; Game and Fisheries, James Slider; Naples; Highways, James Townsend; Brady; Insurance, David Crews; Conroe; Interstate Cooperation, Bill Walker; Cleveland; Judicial Districts, Robert Fairchild; Center; Judiciary, Joe Chapman; Sulphur Springs; Labor, Jerry Butler; Kennedy; Liquor Regulation, John Blaine; El Paso; Livestock and Stockraising, Leon Thurman; Anson; Local and Uncontested Bills, Bob Johnson; Dallas; Military and Veterans Affairs, Forrest Harding; San Angelo; Motor Traffic, R. H. Cory; Victoria; Municipal and Private Corporations, Richard Slack; Pecos; Penitentiaries, Jack Crain; Nocona;

Privileges Suffrage and Elections, Maurice Pipkins; Brownsville; Public Health, Stanley Boyesen; Yaskum; Public Lands and Buildings, Wilson Foreman; Austin; Public Printing, Howard Green; Fort Worth; Representation Before Legislature, Renal

Rosson; Snyder; Rules, Ben Barnes; DeLeon; School Districts, George Hinson; Mineola; State Hospitals and Special Schools, W. H. Miller; Houston.

FIRST BILL
The Senate passed the first bill of the legislature—a $40,000 back-pay bill.

The measure, sponsored by Sens. Charles Herring of Austin and Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, provides for back-pay for Senate employees, supplies and per diem pay for senators for about the last two weeks of the last special session.

The House in the waning minutes of a special session last year refused to pass a bill which included the pay provision.

Tunnell led the House through its final stages of organization Wednesday.

Senate committee assignments cannot be named until Lt. Gov.-elect Preston Smith takes office Jan. 15.

The speaker said that House members probably will not draw for bill numbers until Monday.

LOW NUMBERS
House members draw for the first 149 bill numbers, each hoping to pick a low number. The lower the number, the earlier a bill can be heard by committees and brought before the floor for debate and a vote.

A low bill number also determines its priority on the daily House calendar.

Whisper At White House

Vice President Lyndon Johnson leans in for a whispered word with House Speaker John McCormack of Massachusetts, after a breakfast conference at the White House between President Kennedy and top Democrats of House and Senate. The Democratic delegation assured the President that all efforts will be made to push through Congress a constructive program.

DEAR ABBY
Tell Him And Then Hang Up

DEAR ABBY: About a year ago I met a man. I'll call him Paul. We went together constantly and I learned to care for him deeply. He said the feeling was mutual. Then I found out from a friend that Paul was getting married. In September he married a very respectable girl. He has called me since his marriage and has begged me to see him again. So far I have refused although my feelings for him have not changed. I want to know two things: (1) Why would a man with a young, attractive and newly acquired wife want to see someone else? (2) What should I do?

DEAR MIXED UP: (1) Some men are more interested in the chase than in the prize. Once they've caught it, they seek the excitement of the chase again. Your friend is such a man. (2) Tell him the only married man you'd have time for would be your own husband. And hang up!

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who has traveled a lot and thinks she knows everything. She says that in the Middle East, the traditional bridal dress is RED. I have been unable to find this in any book. Is it true?

CHECKING UP
DEAR CHECKING: Yes, in East Pakistan. And the groom's face is covered with gilt (not gull) to complete the picture.

DEAR ABBY: Where do I start if I want to check the character and background of a person? A young woman with a child comes to my home uninvited and stays for weeks at a time. She is trying to capture my 33-year-old son. He is a very smart man in some ways, but he's never been married and is stupid where it comes to women. Please, before he marries her, tell me how to get some information on her. BOX 443

DEAR BOX 443: You could hire a private detective to check up on her, but it seems to me that a "smart" man of 33 should be smart enough in all matters to take care of himself. The woman is not "uninvited" if she visits you on your son's invitation. Why don't you have a talk with your son and get the facts, ma'am?

DEAR ABBY: I am an interior designer and free-lance artist and sometimes I work from 6 p.m. until 4 a.m. My police requires light. My next door neighbor threatens to call the police because she claims my light keeps her awake. What if her window opened on a street light or neon sign? Is there any law against keeping one's light on 24 hours if necessary? I don't want to make trouble, but I want your opinion on this.

NIGHT WORKER
DEAR WORKER: It is your privilege to keep your light on all night if you wish. If the light bothers your neighbor, SHE should get herself a heavy shade.

CHECKING UP
DEAR CHECKING: Yes, in East Pakistan. And the groom's face is covered with gilt (not gull) to complete the picture.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Young Blood In GOP Plans Counter Ideas

WASHINGTON (AP)—More of President Kennedy's legislative proposals will be met with counterproposals, rather than simply fought headon, if newly influential younger Republicans have their way.

This policy of "more alternatives" was described today by Rep. Charles A. Goodell, R-N.Y., as a principal objective of the younger Republican House members who installed Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr. of Michigan as chairman of the House Republican Conference and increased their voting strength in the Republican Policy Committee.

Goodell, a third-term congressman, was one of the organizers of a smooth operation with the limited aim of capturing for the younger members a share in the House Republican leadership—but not its top command. Mounted in little more than a weekend, and taking the older leaders by surprise, the coup was a complete success.

Goodell talked about it in an interview, and others—including some who did not want to be quoted—contributed their versions of the group's objectives.

These included:
1. Generally shaking up the GOP House leadership, whose main figures are Rep. Charles A. Halleck Jr. of Indiana, the minority leader, and Rep. Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, the whip.

2. Making the Republican conference, the mass meeting of all Republican members, "a more imaginative influence" on party policies.

3. Increasing the self-confidence of the younger Republicans and encouraging them to act on good ideas which they have them.

4. Providing what the insurgents regard as a more attractive image of the party leadership to the country in general.

Ford, 49, in a separate interview, left no doubt he regards himself as a representative of the less senior Republicans. His election, he said, was symbolic and "gave the younger people a feeling that 'by golly we can do something—we have a spokesman of our own choice in the party'."

Both Goodell and Ford, however, were emphatic that no permanent bloc within the party is planned.

Both cautioned against viewing the division that resulted in Ford's election as a liberal-conservative split.

Ford said he considers himself fully as conservative on domestic matters as the older House GOP leaders.

JFK Wins First Battle, But It's No Breakthrough

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration has won the first battle of the new Congress—the showdown over the House Rules Committee. But not even the victors claimed it was a major breakthrough for the President's program.

Only the tougher fights to come will show whether it was a real or hollow victory.

The tough fights were shaping up even as the Congress members were welcoming each other back to the Capitol, meeting new members and generally going about the task of getting back into business.

Republicans fired opening salvos at the President's estimated $99-billion budget, saying that his proposed tax cuts plus bigger spending would bring a whopping deficit.

Some of the GOP's young Turks let it be known they intend to offer alternatives to Kennedy's programs rather than just condemn them.

The first day's drama centered on the House vote of 235 to 196 to retain 15 members on the Rules Committee instead of having the total drop back down to 12 as it was before the last session.

Presumably the enlarged membership would give liberal supporters of the Kennedy program an 8-7 edge and keep the committee from falling back under conservative control.

Obviously the result pleased the President. He had contended that unless the committee was enlarged his program would be emasculated.

His aides were saving their cheers for later. One top administration leader, asked if the rules outcome meant the House would now give the Kennedy program its blessing, said bluntly: "Hell, no!"

The same rules fight was won two years ago by a narrow 217 to 212 margin under the prodding of the late House Speaker Sam Rayburn.

By passing it this time by a much safer margin, the House gave Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., his biggest victory since he replaced Rayburn a year ago.

Voting for the increase were 207 Democrats and 23 Republicans. Forty-eight Democrats joined 148 Republicans in voting against it.

Major changes in support of the increase were a net pickup of eight in the Georgia delegation and a big gain in the California delegation swollen through redistricting.

For the President, however, this represented only the first of many hurdles in attempting to get Congress to approve tax cuts and revisions, federal aid to education, health care for the elderly financed through Social Security, and other proposals.

These measures all will be subject to extensive hearings and uncertain action by originating committees before they even reach the rules group.

Coming in the forefront of them may be a bill introduced in the House Wednesday and to be offered in the Senate Monday to set up a youth conservation corps and to authorize a program of local public service works projects. This measure, aimed at putting a minimum of 50,000 youths on the rolls at an annual cost of $3,500 each, seemed calculated to raise the inckles of conservative Republicans and Democrats. It did.

"How can the President suggest adding around $175 million a year to our civilian expenditures and propose tax cuts at the same time when we may face the biggest deficit in our history?" Asked Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said the 87th Congress had chalked up a good record for the Kennedy administration and there was every reason to believe the 88th Congress would be "even more successful."

Speaker McCormack said that while "no president gets everything he wants," he is confident the outcome will be a successful one for Kennedy.

Army Draft Quota Highest In Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department has set the Army's draft quota for March at 9,000 men—the biggest monthly quota since January 1962.

The higher quota, announced Tuesday, was signaled in November when the Army disclosed it would increase its strength by 20,000 men through larger draft calls for six months. The aim is to build the Army manpower to 980,000.

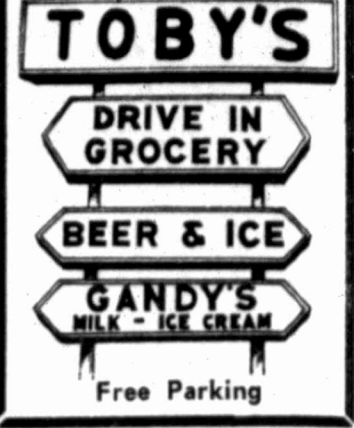

The quota for January and February is 4,000. In December, 6,000 were drafted. A year ago, the Army drafted 15,000 in January as part of the buildup during the Berlin crisis.

God is also interested in our physical welfare; and invites us to pray for the temporal needs of one another. When the apostle Peter was in prison, prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him (Acts 12:5), and he was delivered from the hands of the executioners.

We are told to pray for the rulers that we may have peace (1 Tim. 2:1, 2). When John wrote to Gaius he said, "Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth" (1 Jno. 1:2, ASV).

There is a vast difference in our praying for the sick and in the healing of the sick which was done

Skybolt Most Destructive Unexploding Weapon Yet

By ELTON C. FAY
An AP News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—What ever else may come from the Skybolt project, the missile stands now as one of the most destructive that never carried a warhead. It damaged relations between the United States and Great Britain.

It caused great controversy within the U.S. government. It brought highly conflicting—at least on the surface—statements from Air Force officials, on the one hand, and Defense Department officials about a test shot.

The fog continues, for no one in the Air Force or Defense Department will talk for attribution at this stage.

Congress may dispel some of it. Sen. Richard Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, has announced that his group will look into the disputed program and why the administration shot it down.

FIVE FAILURES
There were six announced Skybolt tests in which five successive failures occurred. Following the sixth trial, an official Air Force announcement issued at Cape Canaveral, Fla., said the test was successful, that the missile flew more than 800 miles and "impacted in the target area hundreds of miles down range."

A week later, Defense Department sources took issue with this. Their account ran like this: "The Skybolt didn't 'impact' in the target area because the missile consisted only of the booster and second stage and there was no nose cone to impact."

What happened, these sources said, was that the first stage separated at the proper point and the second stage continued on into its high trajectory, then reentered the atmosphere. There the second stage began disintegrating from heat produced by air friction, dropping debris along its path as it burned.

But, with sketches of trajectory pattern and the predicted point at which a nose cone would have landed—if one had been used—the Defense Department sources claimed that the impact point would have been 87 nautical miles—about 100 statute miles—beyond the predicted spot in the ocean.

CALLLED SUCCESS
The Air Force stands by the general phrasing of its original announcement. A spokesman says the sixth test "was successful and attained all its objectives."

When missileers test rockets without re-entry cones or warheads, the purpose usually is to test the propulsion system and, to some degree, the guidance system.

By custom, the target area in such tests can mean a rectangle of scores or even hundreds of square miles. Using a nose cone, the target area narrows down to a comparatively few miles.

However, the controversy over the Skybolt test has injected two questions: whether use of a predicted point of impact was applicable and whether some of the debris from the disintegrating second stage might not, as a matter of fact, dropped close to the predicted point as the burning wreckage curved down along the terminal arc of its trajectory.

POLITICAL SIDE
The controversy, like many debates in Washington, has expanded from a discussion of purely technical detail to one over policy. One question raised has been why was the test conducted on Dec. 22 a day after President Kennedy had informed British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan that the Skybolt program was being dropped by the United States?

Air Force sources have said that the office of Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara had been told that the test, postponed twice, would be conducted and that no order to stop it was received.

This seems to be substantiated in an official Defense Department chronology of events which says that on Dec. 21 the Air Force's undersecretary, Dr. Joseph V. Charyk, discussed the test plan with acting Secretary of Defense Roswell L. Gilpatric "who decided not to instruct the Air Force to cancel or postpone the test on Dec. 22."

A few hours after the test, Gilpatric issued a statement which said the test first had been scheduled prior to the Kennedy-Macmillan meeting.

He also said this: "Today's single test did not conclusively demonstrate the capacity of the missile to achieve the target accuracy for which the Skybolt system was designed. It is always expected that some tests of this sort would succeed and that others will fail. Doubts as to the prospect of success of the Skybolt system in its entirety and its reliability when operational were among the factors responsible for the recommendation of the secretary of defense against further funding the program. The results of today's test have not caused any change in that position."

One unusual aspect of the Skybolt controversy: it doesn't appear to involve disagreement among the three armed forces.

The report is that this time, the staff chiefs of the Army and Navy backed up Air Force Gen. Curtis

E. LeMay on the need for Skybolt, but that Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, supported McNamara against continuation of the program. The Joint Chiefs of Staff merely give advice to an administration. They recommend but don't order.

Cut In Import Quotas Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Small Business Committee has recommended an immediate reduction of import quotas on oil and oil products, excluding residual fuel oil, or as an alternative imposition of a tariff.

The recommendations came from a subcommittee headed by Rep. Tom Steed, D-Okla., which made a study of oil imports last year, and were approved by the full committee.

Reduction of oil import quotas, other than residual fuel, to 1 million barrels a day, or to an amount not exceeding 10 per cent of domestic production for the preceding year, whichever is the lesser, was urged.

Imports of crude and oil products, excluding exempt imports from Canada and Mexico, totaled 1,648,245 barrels a day in October 1962, the report said.

The report, submitted to the House, proposed that as an alternative reduction of import quotas serious consideration be given to a tariff of at least $1.25 a barrel on foreign crude, unfinished oils and finished products.

Webb Awards Three Contracts

A contract for repair of base roads and miscellaneous vehicle parking areas was awarded this week, according to Major Harry C. Hon, AF Contracting Officer. The contract went to the W. D. Caldwell Co., Inc., Big Spring, for $24,904.75.

Another Big Spring firm—Oliver Nichols Jr.—split the trash and rubbish removal contract with Stephenson Disposal Service of Weatherford. Nichols' portion amounted to $7,513.00, and the Weatherford firm will draw $6,975.00 for their work. Twenty-nine invitations were sent out, and eight bids were received.

An Odessa firm, the Texas Roofing Co., was low bidder on the re-roofing of three buildings. The amount of the bid was $5,327.

Almost Anything Could Blast Katanga

KOLWEZI, Katanga (AP)—A barroom brawl in this fear-riddled town could be enough to touch off the dynamite ready to destroy much of Katanga's industrial wealth.

Diehard secessionists have placed explosives where they can do the most damage, and white residents fear African troops may set them off without waiting for orders from Katanga President Moise Tshombe.

Tshombe's lieutenants have little control over the town. Civil-military administration is teetering.

Drunken troops stroll around commandeering cars and behaving much as they please. Everyone is scared.

White civilians, most of them Union Miniere workers, fear the African troops. Foreign mercenaries fear the African troops. The African troops fear the United Nations and almost everything else but unarmed people unable to fight back.

The Africans, who tasted bitter defeat when Tshombe left here for Elisabethville, are looking for a scapegoat. White mining men and mercenaries could be their choice.

Both groups know it. The whites have to stay but the mercenaries are looking for an escape.

A few diehard types are with African troops in the huge copper and cobalt plant of Union Miniere and the Ntulo hydroelectric plant and dam, which supply more than half Katanga's mineral output and most of the province's power.

They've placed explosives which if fired could paralyze the country. By blowing the dam wall, they could start flood waters rolling north into the rest of Katanga and a wave of water rolling down the Congo River.

Supposedly only Tshombe has the power to order the destruction.

But Union Miniere officials fear that the African gendarmes may go ahead with the demolition out of sheer bitterness at losing the war or out of panic if U.N. troops approach.

The threat of destruction has been Tshombe's trump card in dickering for a settlement with the shaky central regime in Leopoldville, which desperately needs a share of Katanga's mineral wealth.

With Tshombe's departure Kolwezi supposedly is being run by Foreign Minister Evariste Kimba and Finance Minister Jean Kibwe.

but they have lost control.

Gen. Norbert Moke, commander of the Katanga army who a year or so ago was a sergeant, looks like a man lost.

He tells newsmen he is too busy to talk to them and refuses to give them passes.

The mercenary second in command, "commandant Jean Marie," warned: "Passes won't do you any good. We are armed and we have trouble looking after ourselves."

He said there 600 African troops are at the front line near Jadotville and another 2,000 are idle around Kolwezi.

There are about 200 white mercenaries left in Katanga. A few talk of fighting on.

Mobile House Is Demolished

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A four-room house, built to show the Air Force how easily it could be moved from one place to another, was demolished while being moved. A tow truck struck a railroad underpass Wednesday and dumped the 16-ton, wood-beamed structure onto a heavily traveled Nashville street.

Built by National Homes Corp. of Lafayette, Ind., the house was being towed to Eglin Air Force Base, Fla. Clarence Felker, an official of National Homes, said the test model cost about $50,000 and was almost a total loss.

Howard Hawks Takes Time In Making Movies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Amid the crisp, cool efficiency of Revue Studios a movie is shooting with the casualness of a Hollywood that has all but disappeared. When I arrived on the set of "Man's Favorite Sport?" one afternoon, nothing was happening. The star, Rock Hudson, was playing solitaire bridge. The rest of the crew was idling. Nothing happened that morning, either. Hudson and his costars Paula Prentiss and Austrian actress Maria Perschy sat around a table to read the script pages that had been brought in that day. No film was shot. Yet there was no gnashing of corporate teeth in the upper levels of Universal Pictures or the upper reaches of MCA. The money-watchers knew that Howard Hawks was in charge and all was well. An even-tempered and ageless 66, the lean, white-topped director works his own way or not at all. He is no slave to schedules or scripts. He fiddles with a scene until he feels it's right. The actors in "Man's Favorite Sport?" sometimes get their script pages the same day of shooting, sometimes not at all. "This studio is lousy with television series," Hawks explained. "I don't want to write a funny scene into the script and then see it on television eight months before the picture comes out." The new film is a return to the wacky comedy that Hawks perfected in "Twentieth Century," "Bringing Up Baby" and "His Girl Friday." The Hawks theory is that such hits cannot be ground out like sausage. It takes time to think up gags and bits of business. Time and money. The plot portrays Hudson as a sporting goods salesman who is no sport. He gets into all kinds of scrapes learning to use the equipment. "The budget is $3 million and it should be an even better investment than 'Hawaii' at that figure," said the confident Hawks. "Comedies like 'Pillow Talk' that rely on dialogue have a limited potential abroad—maybe 30 per cent of the total gross. A sight comedy like 'Man's Favorite Sport?' should be able to get 65 per cent of its profit abroad."

Ratliff Draws A Short Straw

AUSTIN (AP)—Sixteen senators won four-year terms in the upper chamber after a drawing for terms of office was made necessary by the 1961 redistricting act. The senators who drew a four-year term were: A. M. Aikin Jr., Paris; Jim Bates, Edinburg; Criss Cole,

Houston; Mrs. Neveille H. Colson, Navasota; Tom Creighton, Mineral Wells; Louis Crump, San Saba; Ralph M. Hall, Rockwall; D. Roy Harrington, Port Arthur; Grady Hazlewood, Amarillo. Also Culp Krueger, El Campo; George Parkhouse, Dallas; William N. Patman, Ganado; Walter H. Richter, Gonzales; Andy Rogers, Childress; Franklin Spears Jr., San Antonio; and Murray Watson, Mart. The 15 senators drawing two-year terms were H. J. Blanchard, Lubbock; Galloway Calhoun Jr., Tyler; Martin Dies Jr., Lufkin; Dorsey B. Hardeman, San Angelo; Charles F. Herring, Austin;

Abraham Kazen Jr., Laredo. Also, Don Kennard, Fort Worth; George Moffett, Chillicothe; William T. Moore, Bryan; Frank Owen III, El Paso; David W. Ratliff, Stamford; Bruce Reagan, Corpus Christi; A. R. Schwartz, Galveston; Jack Strong, Longview; and J. P. Word, Meridian.

President

Frank N. Ikard, new president of the American Petroleum Institute, is pictured in the New York offices of the API. Ikard, a former Texas congressman, has served the last 13 months as executive vice president of API, the oil industry's largest trade association. Ikard, 48, succeeds Frank M. ### Role Of Estes Minimized In Dunn Battle

PECOS, Tex. (AP)—A bitter community feud bubbled Thursday between political factions including avowed friends and enemies of Billie Sol Estes, Pecos' most famous resident.

At immediate issue was whether the single hospital in this West Texas city could fire a foe of Estes, the bankrupt promoter convicted of swindling, from the institution's medical staff.

And the fact that many persons have switched sides in the old split minimized the role of Estes in the controversy.

Dr. John Dunn, 35, who claims his tip to FBI investigators caused the Estes financial empire to collapse last spring, is at the center of the dispute.

COURT ORDER

Dunn, crying "foul," seeks a state court order keeping him on the staff and thus privileged to send patients to the Reeves County Memorial Hospital here. If he's barred, the nearest hospital is 52 miles south at Fort Stockton in another county.

Dist. Judge J. H. Starley scheduled a hearing Thursday on Dunn's request for a temporary injunction, but legal maneuvers raised doubt it would be held.

Dunn has told reporters his ouster from the hospital staff resulted entirely from a personal investigation of Pecos crime boss while he formerly was police surgeon. He asserted his evidence, now in the hands of state and federal authorities, could lead to charges against a number of leading citizens of Pecos, a city of 15,000.

Pecos residents, startled by disclosures in the Estes case, predicted sensational testimony in the Dunn injunction suit.

Clouding prospects for a courtroom showdown were three moves by counsel for Dunn late Wednesday.

TWO MOTIONS

His lawyers filed two motions. One demanded that Judge Starley disqualify himself to hear the injunction suit on the ground that he is biased and unable to give a fair decision. The other asked postponement of the hearing until Jan. 17 so additional attorneys engaged by Dunn can familiarize themselves with the case.

In addition, Dunn submitted an amended petition, broadening the scope of his injunction suit. It alleges, as before, that the hospital's non-medical board of directors acted arbitrarily and without cause in refusing Jan. 2 to reappoint him to the medical staff. The revised suit charges in addition that the directors and others connected with the hospital conspired to destroy Dunn's medical practice and force him to leave Pecos. It asks $50,000 in damages.

A registered letter from the hospital board advising Dunn he had been dropped from the staff stated:

"We do not feel it would be proper or appropriate to set out our various reasons not to reappoint you to the staff. We feel that you are well aware of the strained relations existing between yourself and professional employees of the hospital."

CHARGE MADE

The hospital board chairman, Harrison Beauchamp, subsequently accused Dunn of disrupting operations by harassing hospital personnel. Dunn denied this was true, said no accusation had been made against him and complained he had not been given a hearing. Hospital board members named in the injunction suit along with Beauchamp are Price Francis, Carlton Williams and Martin O'Neal, all of Pecos, and Dave Thomason of Toyah.

Along with these individuals the Dunn petition claims those conspiring against the physician include three then remaining on the medical staff—Dr. Bruce Hay, Dr. E. W. Schmidt, and Dr. Harold Lindley—the hospital administrator Roy Ayers, and the institution's superintendent, Mrs. James Jenkins.

New Traffic Signals Now Ready To Be Activated

The new traffic signals at the intersection of Birdwell Lane and Marcy Drive have been installed and activation of the lights is awaiting proper signs on both streets, including speed limit signs. Stencils for the signs, to be painted on the traffic lanes, were being cut Thursday morning, and signs may be completed today.

"I can have the lights working in an hour," City Electrician Roy Rogan said early this morning, "after the speed limit and warning signs are ready."

The new traffic signals will remain green on Marcy until activated by Birdwell traffic from the north or south. A continuous string of traffic on Birdwell will have the lights working on a regular cycle, similar to that at Gregg and Marcy.

New speed limits are being set for the approaches on Marcy, Director of Public Works Bruce Dunn said.

"Eastbound traffic will slow to 40 miles per hour at Virginia, and down to 30 miles at Muleshoe. Westbound traffic will be slowed at the same distances east of the lights."

"After Marcy traffic passes Birdwell the speed will pick up to 40 miles and back up to 30 miles per hour except at the Goliad intersection where Marcy traffic is slowed to 45 miles per hour."

Dunn said the speed zones are temporary and will be used until further study is completed of the traffic pattern after lights are in operation.

"We are urging drivers to be extra cautious until they are used to the signals," Dunn said.

The concrete curbs have been placed in the traffic lanes at the intersection of Old US 80 and the new 80 west, Skeet Forsythe, street superintendent, said Thursday. The use of sand bags to channel traffic, until drivers become accustomed to the island, were discontinued Wednesday when the concrete was laid.

"Johnny Johansen, park superintendent, is getting cactus and native plants ready to be planted in the west end island," Dunn said.

"We are also designing a similar traffic channelization on Wasson Road at the city park entrance, and Forsythe will begin work there in the near future. Wasson and Randolph intersection will remain in use for a little while longer because a proposed service station at the corner will require a possible change in the design."

Dunn said the speed zones are temporary and will be used until further study is completed of the traffic pattern after lights are in operation.

Chamber Has 476 Sold

Ticket sales for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet bounded forward by 42 Wednesday bringing the total sold to 476, according to Chamber manager Carroll Davidson.

He urged Chamber members and others of the public who plan to attend the banquet Friday night to make their reservations in advance if possible. Tickets, however, will be available at the door for persons who could not purchase them in advance.

The affair begins at 7:30 p.m. at the Goliad Junior High School gymnasium Dr. Charles W. Jarvis, San Marcos, is to be guest speaker. He is a full-time dentist who has gained wide popularity and experience as a public speaker.

Don Newsum will cater the meal which will consist of roast beef, baked Virginia ham and all the trimmings which go into a banquet.

Other business of the night will be assumption of office by new officers and directors of the Chamber and presentation of the Jaycee Distinguished Service Award.

Four Join Lions Club

Four new members were welcomed into the Downtown Lions Club Wednesday. Dr. W. A. Hunt conducted the installation ceremonies for W. H. Brigman, Clyde McMahon Jr., Rex Hopkins and Bob Fuller.

Jim Smith, television announcer, reviewed the spectrum of the world and told the club that "we're at war with Communism, and we're losing it." Three times in the past year period, he said, the United States had assumed the offensive then backed off.

"Some of these days we're going to run out of countries to give away," he said. He declared three of each four emergent countries were either in the Communist orbit or so inclined. No help could be expected from any country the U. S. has aided, he said, and in the event of hot war the U.S. might have to go it alone.

He suggested use of overseas programs for military purposes, return to a brink-of-war program, forcible destruction of the Berlin wall and insured access to that city, investigation of the state department, exacting a following when aid is given, etc.

Jeff Brown was named by District Manager W. A. King, chairman of the committee to select a club entry in the district contest. He also outlined details of a district and state member contest.

New Telephone Building Slated

LAMESA (SC) — General Telephone Co. of the Southwest has announced plans for the construction of a new office building at North Tenth and Dallas streets here.

District Manager W. A. King said the one-story structure would house the company's local business office only. General's plant and traffic departments will be quartered in the company's downtown business office.

King said that the upcoming central office equipment additions related to General's proposed microwave network would require additional space at the downtown office, necessitating removal of the business operations.

The microwave system, which provides a wireless means of sending and receiving long distance telephone calls, is scheduled to be placed into operation by mid-1963.

What Happened To The Smiths?

WASHINGTON (AP)—If you yell "Thompson!" in the lobby of the House of Representatives four congressmen might answer.

The Thompson clan holds top name duplication honors in the 88th Congress though Rep. Vernon Thompson, R-Wis., spells it without a "p."

The other three are Reps. T. A. Thompson, D-La., Frank Thompson, D-N.J., and Clark Thompson, D-Tex.

In addition to the four Thompasons, the House has three Rogerses, three Martins, three Wilsons, three Smiths, two Boltons and two Joneses.

The Senate has no trios, but has pairs of Byrds, Jordans, Longes, Williamases and Younges.

Dinner meeting was held by the Past Matrons, OES, in the Wagon Wheel Restaurant Tuesday evening with Mrs. J. C. Smith and Mrs. Pearl Brashaw, hostesses. The invocation was given by Mrs. J. T. Allen.

Two committees were named by Mrs. J. D. Benson, the presiding officer. On the telephone committee are Mrs. R. L. McCleeny, Mrs. G. C. Graves, and Mrs. Joseph Hayden. The visiting committee includes Mrs. R. J. Michael, Mrs. H. F. Williamson and Mrs. C. A. Murdoch.

Members were seated at a linen covered U-shaped table holding a centerpiece of pink and green candles based in silvered foliage. Hostesses for the next meeting, to be held in Smith's Tea Room, are Mrs. Harry Lees, Mrs. Glen Cantrell and Mrs. Hayden.

Deputy Grand Pays Visit

GARDEN CITY (SC) — Mrs. Frances Clark of Odessa, deputy grand matron, District 2, Section 8, Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of Eastern Star, made her official visit with the Garden City Chapter No. 143 Monday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Mary Pearl Lewis of Odessa.

A salad supper was held in the hall preceding the meeting, with 19 members and guests present.

Mrs. Oletha Overton, worthy matron of the Garden City Chapter, president. The chapter's gift to the honored guest was presented by Mrs. Ila Keathley.

New Violence At Ole Miss

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—A new incident of minor violence has been reported in the midst of a federal grand jury investigation into rioting on the school campus three months ago.

William Jordan Temple was hit by flying glass Wednesday night after a soft drink bottle was thrown through a window into a dormitory room. Temple once sat with James H. Meredith, the Negro who shattered the university's segregation barrier, during a meal in the school cafeteria.

Temple, a freshman from Washington, D.C., was hit on the forehead by flying glass but was not believed seriously hurt.

Meredith ate in the cafeteria Wednesday night, and university students, who all but ignored him for the past few months, renewed their anti-segregation demonstrations. Another group of students collected outside, but Meredith left through a rear door for his dormitory.

Meredith announced Monday he would leave the university after the current semester ends if the climate did not change.

The grand jury took testimony from several students Wednesday.

Petition Asks To Seize Liquor

Wayne Burns, county attorney, has filed a petition in 118th District Court asking permission for the seizure and forfeiture of 1,223 containers of assorted liquors and 750 containers of assorted beer.

Burns said the liquor was seized last Friday by officers of the Texas Liquor Control Board in a closed package store just south of town on US 87.

He said the state contends that the liquor can be taken over by the state for its possession has long since expired—last September.

OIL REPORT

Texaco Continues Testing Project For Shallow Pay

Franklin is a new PHD (San Andres) site in Garza County about eight miles northwest of Post. It is contracted for 3,000 feet by rotary tool and location is 1,320 feet from the south and 330 feet from the east lines of section 1,246, P. H. Talley A-738 survey, on a 40-acre lease.

In Dawson County, Texas, Inc. has drilled No. 1 R. A. Carr at an 11,800-foot Mississippiian project and a five-eighths mile northwest outpost to the Lamesa, West (Spraberry and Mississippian) field. Drill site is 1,000 feet from the north and 2,108 feet from the west lines of section 15-36-S, T&P survey, about two miles southwest of Lamesa.

Pair Set In Fields

Texaco, Inc. has completed No. 1 J. M. Winterbotham Jr. as a San Angelo sand discovery for Irion County. It is five miles southwest of the Dove Creek (San Angelo) pool.

The well potential on pump for 30 barrels of 27.1 gravity oil, plus 31 barrels of water, from perforations between 1,120-130 feet after treatment with 500 gallons of acid. The gas was too small to measure. The operator is bottomed at 1,240 feet and operator plans to dual the well in the San Angelo from a second set of perforations between 1,050-160 feet. Site is C SE SE, section 3, GC&SF survey, abstract 115, about nine miles southeast of Mertzon.

Capps Lime Pays

Estimated 4,000 Persons Attend Building Opening

An estimated 4,000 persons from the Big Spring area toured the new First Federal Savings and Loan Association Wednesday on the opening day of its two-day open house.

"The peak crowd was on hand for the opening, but a steady stream came through most of the day," Robert Stripling, secretary-treasurer, said. "The numbers coming in today are just as great."

Employees are on hand to show visitors the luxuriously appointed rooms, refreshments are being served and registration is taken at several locations for drawings being held each day of the grand opening. Twenty gift certificates are being awarded each day.

Members of the Ambassador's Club of the Chamber of Commerce served as the reception committee Wednesday, assisting with registration and passing out souvenir ballpoint pens. The association's personnel is handling the chore alone today.

R. L. Cook, president, and Stripling urged all citizens to visit the new building.

Child Hit By Car

A 15-months-old child was slightly injured at 6 p.m. Wednesday when he walked behind a car being backed from the driveway at 1001 NW 2nd Jimmy Marcus was taken to a local hospital in a private car where his injuries were reported not serious. He was treated and released.

Mrs. Clem Wrightsil, 1001 NW 2nd, was attempting to back her car from the driveway when it bumped the child.

One other minor accident was investigated by police Wednesday. Margaret Keisinger, 2298 Main, and Leatrice A. Esting, 900 E. 13th, were drivers of vehicles involved in 800 Main.

Borden Survey Group Named

GAIL—C. C. Nunnally, county judge of Borden County, announced the members of the Borden County Historical Survey Committee today.

Judge Nunnally said that Mrs. Frank Miller, Fluvanna; Mrs. Ben Weathers, Ira; Mrs. W. M. Stephens, O'Donnell; Sheriff Sid Reeder, Gail; Bob Beal, Luther; Mrs. Edd Murphy, Ira; and Eugene Smoot, Gail, are the committee members. They are appointed to serve a two-year term.

Judge Nunnally said that Gov-elect John Connally has designated Jan. 19 as Texas Historical Preservation Day. On this date all new county historical survey committees are to meet on call of the county judges to elect officers, appoint subcommittees and make plans for their year's work.

Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, Abilene, state committee chairman, pointed out that every county has a unique history and that Borden County is no exception.

It was announced recently that the old jail on the Borden County court house grounds, built before the turn of the century, had been designated as a Medalion building—a relic of the past to be marked by a symbol.

Bank Shareholders Vote Dividend

LAMESA (SC) — Shareholders of the First National Bank of Lamesa unanimously approved a 23.13 per cent stock dividend at the annual meeting held Wednesday.

The dividend increased capital stock from $225,000 to $300,000 by a transfer of funds from the undivided profits account and will be distributed pro rata to shareholders of record on Jan. 9.

McQuain Funeral Still Pending

Funeral services for H. D. (Doc) McQuain, 70, former oil operator and long-time resident of Big Spring, are still pending at Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home. Mr. McQuain died in a local hospital, after a long illness, Wednesday morning.

Funeral arrangements are pending the arrival of a daughter, Mrs. William E. McElhannon, Hywickham, England.

Steward Charged In Hicks Murder

James Monroe Steward, 37, now in the Martin County jail, has been charged with murder with malice in a complaint filed in the justice of the peace court of Jess Slaughter. He is accused of shooting Travis Hicks, 37, to death on or about Dec. 1, 1961.

Miller Harris, sheriff, said he would go to Stanton Thursday to take custody of Steward. The prisoner will be returned to Howard County and held here pending action on his case by the Howard County grand jury which is tentatively slated to convene Jan. 28.

Steward, a convict serving a sentence for burglary, is alleged to have shot Hicks to death in a Big Spring motel cabin on or about the first day of December, 1961.

The body of the victim was discarded in a lonely field in Martin County just across the Howard County line. It was found Sept. 1, 1962 by a farmer working in a nearby field.

The Martin County grand jury reviewed the case against Steward last Monday but Gil Jones, district attorney, said he did not ask for an indictment at that time.

"The slaying actually occurred in this county (Howard) and it will be better to try the matter here," said the district attorney. No bond was set for Steward.

Rites Held For G. A. Klingman

SAN ANGELO—Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Thursday for George A. Klingman Jr., 64, San Angelo, in the Harris and Irving Street Church of Christ. Mr. Robert Boyle of Fairground Road Church of Christ officiated and burial was in Fairmount Cemetery. Johnson Funeral Home was in charge.

Mr. Klingman, who had been a patient in the Big Spring State Hospital, was run over by a truck and instantly killed early Wednesday morning. The accident occurred on US 87 in front of the Big Spring institution. The victim was walking across the highway at the time.

Mr. Klingman was born in Louisville, Ky. He served in the navy in World War I and was in the convoy which escorted President Wilson, to France.

He attended Abilene Christian College and was an outstanding leader on the campus. He was well known in musical circles and was popular as a vocalist. He received a degree from ACC and taught two years in Abilene High School.

He is survived by five sisters and two brothers.

Dawson Historical Group Selected

LAMESA (SC) — The appointment of a county historical survey committee has been announced by Leslie C. Pratt, Dawson County judge.

Members of the panel selected for a two-year term include Mrs. M. C. Lindsey, U. S. Dalmont, Mrs. Richard Collins, J. E. DuBoise, Mrs. Raymond Orson, Joseph N. Spikes and C. C. Roberts.

The panel will hold its organizational meeting on call by Judge Pratt, probably Jan. 19, the date set by Gov-elect John Connally as Texas Historical Preservation Day.

since the man is a convict and is in the local jails on a bench warrant which turned him over to the local authorities. He was serving time in Huntsville when he was brought back here.

Officers said that Steward had made a detailed statement admitting he shot Hicks.

Kiwanis Club Cancels Meet

Big Spring Kiwanians canceled their usual Thursday luncheon meeting this week because of the annual installation banquet set for Saturday night.

The club will install its new officers at a dinner slated for 7:15 p.m. Saturday at the Cosden Country Club.

John Maravchik, Odessa, new lieutenant governor for Kiwanis Division 22, will be installing officer.

S. A. Walker will be installed as the new club president, succeeding J. C. Pickle.

A feature of the night will be the announcement of the outstanding Kiwanian of 1962. This club member has been selected but his name is being kept secret until the dinner. He will receive a plaque.

A feature of the Saturday night dinner will be the appearance of the H.C.J. Choir under the direction of Ira Schantz.

Civil Service Birthday Set

Civil Service employees at Webb AFB this week will join other agencies in an area in preparation for the coming observance of the 80th birthday anniversary of the United States Civil Service.

The Civil Service Act was signed on Jan. 16, 1903 by President Arthur, who was pleased with the Congress on which he had prevailed to eliminate by law the old spoils system. Prior to the enactment of this legislation, the party which won the national election immediately replaced all government employees who had not supported the party in power.

In the proclamation issued by President Kennedy, all federal departments and agencies are urged to arrange ceremonies in honor of the public services performed by these public servants.

Since the passage of the bill, some 80 years ago, the number of civil service employees has increased from less than 100,000 to well over 2,000,000.

Webb's quota of civilian personnel is 636. Although there are 732 civilians employed on the base, 92 are in the employ of various units and paid out of non-appropriated funds. These people are not Civil Service employees, and are not paid by the federal government.

The total payroll for all Webb Civil Service employees is $3,780,000 annually. Warren B. Farrow, civilian personnel officer, said there are fewer civilians employed at the base than last year but the annual payroll is larger due to the recent increase granted by the Congress.

Farrow has been named by the Regional Director of the Civil Service Commission to coordinate the anniversary activities in this area.

Salesmen Are Picked Up Again

Three magazine salesmen, who were picked up by police Tuesday for soliciting without permits, were back at the police station at noon Wednesday. This time it was for using high pressure methods. Chief Jay Banks said they were warned earlier Wednesday for attempting to force their way into a home.

When another call came, the men were brought to the station, their permits revoked, and money refunded.

"We appreciate people calling about unscrupulous methods being used by door-to-door salesmen," Banks said. "We are not trying to stop legitimate sales but don't believe citizens of Big Spring appreciate high-handed methods."

All door-to-door salesmen seeking permits are fingerprinted and photographed at the police station before permits are granted.

Police, in other activity, apprehended two runaway boys from Odessa, investigated theft of food from Hull & Phillips No. 2 store by a 12-year-old boy, and a house burglary at 1105 NW 8th where Mrs. French Williams reported a bag of sandwich cookies stolen after entry was made by taking off a lock hasp on the front door.

Men Arrested With Bad Checks

Two men were arrested by Sheriff Miller Harris and Deputy Bill Whitton at Toby's Drive In on South Gregg Wednesday after they had allegedly attempted to cash a check at the store. Both men, Harris said, were drunk.

One, who gave San Angelo as his home is 49 years old. The other, 37, lives in Ballinger. Harris and Whitton said the men had two obviously bad checks on their operator at the time—one that they were attempting to cash and another which was in one of their pockets.

Both men were fined for drunkenness in justice court this morning. They could not pay the fines and were remanded to jail. Harris said he did not know if a check charge would be filed against them.

Paul Brown Fired After Long Tenure

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Paul Brown, the football master who led the Cleveland Browns for 17 years after gaining coaching glory at the high school and college level of the game, has been fired.

The end of a gridiron era in Cleveland came late Wednesday with an announcement from Arthur B. Modell, club president.

"Paul E. Brown, head coach and general manager of the Cleveland Browns, will no longer serve the team in those capacities. Brown will remain as a vice president. He will finish out the balance of his six-year contract at the same compensation and will continue to be a stockholder."

would remain with the National Football League club he founded in 1946.

But Modell, who hopes to name a successor within 10 days, said: "I fervently hope Paul Brown will continue his association with the Browns for a long time to come. I have every indication he will stay with us."

Modell indicated Brown's shoes would be filled by two men—one a coach and the other a general manager.

"As for a coach I have four men in mind now," Modell said. "One is in the college ranks and the other three are pro coaches, but not necessarily head coaches."

Some names that drew speculation were Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys; Bill Austin, an assistant with Green Bay, Ohio State's Woody Hayes and the Browns' backfield coach, Blanton Collier.

Modell said he had been thinking about removing Brown for the past three weeks. He told Brown Monday.

"It was not a pleasant thing to do," said the 39-year-old former

New York advertising executive who bought the club for $4 million in March 1961.

"Paul Brown has made enormous contributions to the game of football, legendary contributions. I hope the club will continue to have his advice and guidance.

"The only reason I will give for the change, is that I believe it will serve the best interests of the Cleveland Browns."

Brown is believed to be drawing in excess of $50,000 a year from the Browns. But it was no secret that friction was building up between him and Modell, both of whom are strong personalities.

Until Modell came on the scene, Brown was the boss of everything to do with the Browns. He had a free hand. He was the only man in the NFL with a team named after him.

The name was given to the team when it first started in 1964 in the All-America Conference. The Browns won every championship in the four years that league lasted, piling up a record of 52 victories, four defeats and three ties.

In 13 NFL seasons the Browns have won seven Eastern Conference titles and three league championships.

Brown's 33-year coaching record is probably unmatched. It spans two seasons at Severn Prep, five at Massillon, Ohio, High School, three at Ohio State University, two at the Great Lakes Naval Station in Chicago and the last 17 with the Browns. He won 296 games, lost 75 and had 15 ties.

As a coach, Brown was a cool precisionist. He revolutionized many coaching ideas since copied by others in the pro ranks. A master organizer, he took movies of all games, kept exhaustive statistics on players and was the first to employ an entire coaching staff for 52 weeks and keep them all busy.

Brown's oft-criticized method of sending in players from the bench has been imitated in varying forms by nearly every coach in the NFL.

Despite growing criticism in recent years because the Browns had not been in a championship game since 1957, Brown never gave a thought to stepping down.

Two years ago he said: "I love my job. I love the challenge of it. It's my life."

Strict and demanding, Brown would not tolerate what he called "boozers" or "chasers" no matter what their football ability.

"We want men who are willing to pay the price," he would tell the squad at the opening of pre-season practice each summer.

"High-class players win the big ones. These are the real pros, the men who can be stunned early in a ball game and have the courage to come back and take it all."

One man who fits that description is Lou (The Toe) Groza, the great place-kicker who is the only surviving member of the original Browns.

"I'm shocked and surprised," said Groza when he heard the news. "We have had a wonderful association through the years and I have only the highest admiration for the man. His influence on pro football will remain for a long time."

Andrews, a Class AAA school, had a 3-7 won-lost record the last season. All other members of the Andrews coaching staff were also rehired.

Going To Colts

Detroit Lions defensive back-field coach, Don Shula, 33, smiles from his desk in Detroit after the Baltimore Colts announced they had hired him to succeed Weeb Ewbank as head coach of the National Football League club. Bert Bell, spokesman for the Colts, said Ewbank had been asked to remain with the club in another capacity. Bell would not say what Shula's salary would be. Shula is a former Colt player. ## NCAA Slated To Continue AAU Fight

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Delegates to the National Collegiate Athletic Association convention headed home today after adopting an unexpectedly tough four-point policy that shows they intend to keep fighting the Amateur Athletic Union.

The delegates also reaffirmed their support of three new sports federations which have invaded fields governed by the AAU. The immediate effect of the strong stand—which was particularly unexpected in the wake of apparent progress toward arbitration of the dispute under Gen. Douglas MacArthur—will be on the AAU sanctioned major indoor track and field meets in the East which begin at Boston Saturday night.

It was learned that none of the NCAA Eastern colleges entered in the Boston meet would compete. After Wednesday's action, the 600 NCAA member schools are pledged to a policy that calls for withdrawal from membership in the AAU until the situation improves, a boycott of AAU events not sanctioned by the federations, withdrawal of all personnel from AAU committees in basketball, gymnastics and track and field, and a limitation which restricts use of institutional facilities and equipment to collegiate and federation activities.

The policy on facilities and equipment carries the proviso that the AAU may "enjoy these same privileges" if it either accepts membership in the federations or agrees to a form of dual sanctions.

Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, doubted any defiance of the policy, which came in the form of a resolution.

While the AAU indoor meets are the immediate losers, the cut-and-dried over all meaning of the NCAA policy is that the colleges and universities are out of events not sanctioned by the federations until some sort of a settlement is reached in the 2½-year dispute that has raged over administration of amateur athletics.

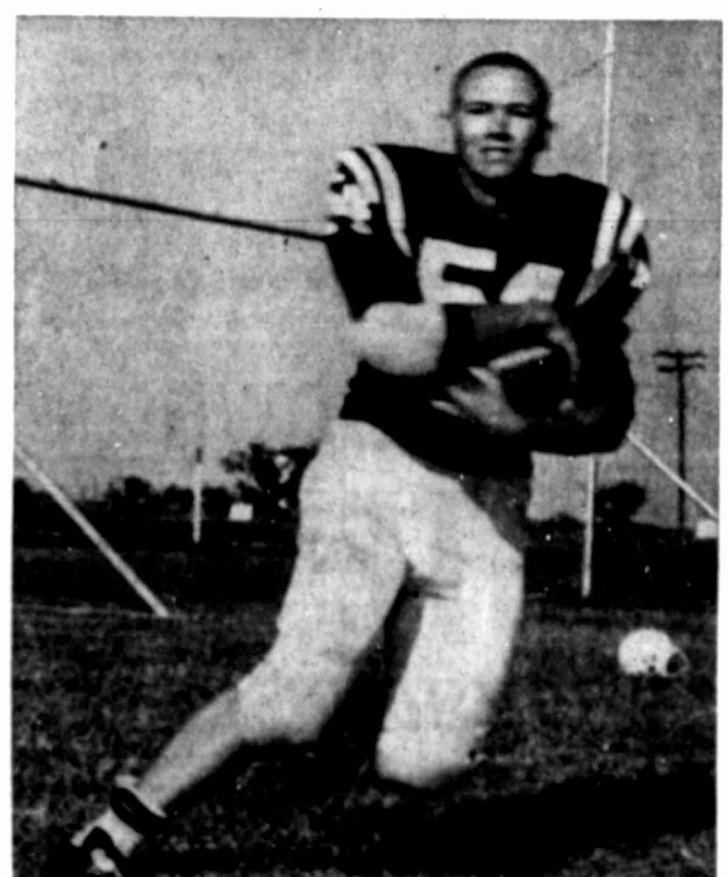

The AAU holds international recognition as the U.S. governing body in three sports in which federations have been created—track and field, basketball and gymnastics.

President Kennedy's entrance into the matter followed collapse of a coalition plan for track and field worked out in New York two months ago and was directed at saving the makeup of U.S. squads for the Olympics in Tokyo next year.

Frazier Rehired As Pony Coach

ANDREWS—Rumors that head football coach Glenn Frazier was going to lose out were quieted Tuesday night when the Andrews school board renewed his contract for another year.

Andrews, a Class AAA school, had a 3-7 won-lost record the last season. All other members of the Andrews coaching staff were also rehired.

JIMMY FLYNT
Bufs' Player Of Year

Jimmy Flynt Is Forsan Honoree

A 190-pound senior who was equally at home playing eight or 11-man football has been named winner of The Daily Herald's Player of the Year award at Forsan High School.

He is Jimmy Flynt, a running fullback who played a major role in the Bufs' sweep to the conference championship.

Flynt averaged 62 yards a game rushing the ball. He scored four touchdowns over the season — one each against Dawson, Stanton, Imperial and Grandfalls.

In the 11-man game against Stanton's B team, which Forsan won by four touchdowns, Flynt piled up 189 yards carrying the ball.

Good as he was on offense, Flynt was considered an even better player on defense. He averaged 12 tackles a game and in the Stanton game fielded Stanton ball carriers on 21 occasions.

Jimmy was handicapped by a broken hand during part of the game. He played only one quarter of the game against Garden City after experiencing the injury. The Forsan offense invariably suffered when he wasn't in action.

Jimmy has been named to play in the annual All-Star Eight-Man game, which will be unveiled at a yet undisclosed site this summer.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Flynt, former Big Spring residents.

Jimmy will be honored at an all-sports banquet at Forsan High School later this year. His coach was Oscar Becker.

N. Dame Upsets Rugged DePaul In Irish Gym

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Notre Dame's tender sophomores may not set the basketball world on fire but they're turning into a bunch of old spool-sports.

New Year's Eve, they knocked Illinois into the unbeaten ranks, the only blemish on the record of the 5th-ranked Illini.

Wednesday night, proud DePaul, boasting a spotless 8-0 record, came into the South Bend fair of the Irish with three sophomores leading the way, the Irish pushed to a five-point half-time lead, then raced away for an 82-62 decision.

The sophos who did most of the damage were Larry Sheffield, who scored 21 points; Don Reed 17, and Walt Sahm 16.

Reed was the big man. He came off the bench to ignite the Irish with nine minutes left in the first half.

When he left the game with eight minutes to go, Notre Dame held a solid 66-58 lead.

Notre Dame now has a 9-3 record. DePaul will have an opportunity to get even on its home court next Wednesday.

Sophomores have been standouts all over the country this season. In another game Wednesday night, soph Billy Rado of Georgia dinked in 23 points in a losing cause. Georgia Tech, 7th-ranked nationally, barely eked out a 73-70 decision over the Bulldogs to keep its record a perfect 10-0.

Billy Cunningham, another super-soph, also did Herculean work for a losing cause. His North Carolina club, No. 10 in the current Associated Press poll, lost a 78-70 Atlantic Coast Conference decision to Wake Forest. Cunningham led all scorers with 25 points.

Virginia turned back North Carolina State 78-69 in another AAC game. The results left Wake Forest and Duke, which coasted past Navy 85-70 in a non-league game, tied for the loop lead.

Nick Werkman of Seton Hall, the nation's top scorer among the major collegians, registered a paltry 21 points in the Pirates' 79-47 victory over Rider, a New Jersey rival.

Other major results: Pitt 61, Westminster, Pa., 51; St. Francis, N.Y., 51; Villanova 48, Fordham 89, Rutgers 66, Oklahoma City 88, Centenary 84, Seattle 58, Montana 44, Louisville 70, Kentucky Wesleyan 64, St. Joseph's, Pa., 74, Lehigh 61, Temple 83, Lafayette 62, Miami, Fla., 103, Jacksonville 91.

Vaughan Is Named Outstanding Hand

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America have named Glenn Vaughan, Houston Colt rookie shortstop, as the outstanding Texan in minor league baseball in 1962.

Vaughan, 18, will be honored at Houston's third annual major league baseball dinner Jan. 22.

Vaughan, an all-star shortstop in the Carolina League last year while playing for the Colt's Durham farm club, hit .289 with 10 home runs and 71 runs batted in during 140 games.

Liston Could Foul Up Plans For Title Bout

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Liston has finally called the shot on a return bout for the heavy-weight championship, but Sonny Liston may fire another knockout punch.

the off-again, on-again return battle which seemed settled Wednesday when Patterson's attorney, Julius November, announced the fight would be held in Miami Beach, Fla., April 4, under the auspices of Championship Sports Inc. From his corner in Chicago, Liston said he knew nothing about the date and site for the return with Patterson and emphasized "they better start talking to me about this thing."

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

When the Goliad and Runnels Junior High basketball teams squared off in the Goliad gym here earlier this week, there wasn't an empty seat in the house.

One coach estimated the turnout at 1,200. For that reason, the scene of the tussles will be transferred to the more spacious Steer gym when the teams clash again on the evening of Feb. 4.

The varsity Steers, on the other hand, rarely attract banner turnouts. It's hard to figure out why the junior high athletes lose a lot of their followers when they attain high school.

Granted, there's a lot of rivalry between the two schools, but why can't the basketball buffs maintain their interest in the boys when they start playing as a unit? The varsity Longhorns deserve better support and probably would play better if they got it.

Borger High School is in the midst of a football boom, the likes of which have never been experienced in that Panhandle city.

The Borger basketball team has fallen upon hard times, however. Plainview recently dealt Borger the worst defeat ever dealt a Tex Hanna-coached club, 64-43. And the defeat took place in Borger, at that.

Hayden Fry, the SMU football coach, may move freshman Mac White, an all-Southwest Conference quarterback his freshman season, to halfback this spring.

Reason: Mac, who hails from Gainesville, lost the tip of his right index finger when he got it caught in a door not long ago. The accident likely would handicap his passing and ball-handling.

White guided the SMU Colts to an undefeated season and the SWC freshman championship.

The Chicago Bears of the NFL sold an average of 3,244 standing room tickets to their home games the past season, which should give you an idea of how the pro game has caught on in the Windy City.

The average attendance at Bear home games totaled 43,832 — and would be more if the Bears could jam any more into Wrigley Field, home of the Bears.

The Los Angeles Angels of the American (baseball) League have an option to purchase a piece of land in the burgeoning Long Beach area south of Los Angeles proper.

Walter O'Malley, owner of the Angels' landlords, the Dodgers, exacts a stiff fee from the American League club for rentals, keeps much of the concessions money and takes all of the parking fees — which is the reason Gene Autry and Company are looking for a new field.

O'Malley never let a little thing like friendship stand in the way of making money.

Forsan's H. K. Elrod, who has developed rapidly as a basketball player since the current season began, has reason to remember last week's 32nd Annual Reagan County Tournament at Big Lake. He was named to the all-tournament squad.

In four games in the meet, Elrod scored 54 points. He was especially poisonous against Eagle Pass, when he scored 24 points in leading the Bufs to a 49-43 victory.

Forrest Gregg, the former SMU lineman who made good with the Green Bay Packers, didn't wear sneakers in the NFL championship game with New York because the management didn't buy enough shoes in his size prior to the contest. He wears size 13 sneakers and Ron Kramer beat him to the last pair.

al foul to put the game away.

Utah State is the next opponent the Miners will face at home. The Aggies' venture into Memorial gymnasium on Feb. 8 for a rematch. Texas Western handed the Aggies their first loss of the season in Logan earlier in the year. The Aggies are expected to throw all the corks out to get even for the 66-59 licking at the hands of Haskins' crew.

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Don Meyers, of the University of Colorado, who set a world indoor pole vault record of 16 feet, 1½ inches in Chicago Dec. 20, may be out of action indefinitely, CU officials said Wednesday night.

They said Meyers is suffering from mononucleosis, a blood disease.

Officials fear that the disease could knock him out of all winter competition and set him back in training for summer meets as well.

Brownsville Will Honor Grid Club

BROWNVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Jan. 14 has been proclaimed Golden Eagle Day in the Lower Rio Grande Valley to honor the Brownsville High School Eagles. Brownsville Mayor Gene McNair issued the proclamation Wednesday.

He said the order came in view of what he called the remarkable and admirable record the Eagles had during the past football season.

Boxing Czars Set To Meet In Mexico

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Boxing will take a big step forward next month when commissioners from all over the world will meet in Mexico City to discuss the problems of the sport and to see what can be done to unify the various commissions and associations.

One of the major ills of boxing is the failure of the various associations to work together on the rules, world championships and suspensions. Some of the groups do have tie-ups but there is no universal, binding agreement.

A few years ago there was a World Championship Committee which worked effectively in settling title disputes. This committee included the National Boxing Association (now the World Boxing Association), the New York Athletic Commission, the British Boxing Board of Control and the European Boxing Union. These bodies also consulted with other associations including the Orient.

The WCC broke up when the NBA said it had to have more voting power because it represented so many states.

Since then the NBA has expanded to include Asian and South American representation and has changed its name to the World Boxing Association.

Justino Montano, of Manila, the WBA vice-president for Asia, in commenting on the Mexico City meeting, said:

"We are interested in getting the British Boxing Board of Control and the European Boxing Union, which has 17 members, to join with the WBA and thereby eliminate all differences in rules and policies governing boxing."

The meeting could be fruitful. There is much to be done. If they can agree on a World Championship Committee with disciplinary power and general recognition of suspensions, they will accomplish a lot.

Too often fighters, barred from one state or country because of incompetence or medical reasons, are permitted to fight in other states or countries. This has led to serious injuries to fighters who have been overmatched. It could put an end to the transporting of setups from one country to another to build up new national heroes.

Boxing no longer is completely dominated by the United States. A check of Ring Magazine's annual ratings for 1962 shows that of the 109 champions and contenders listed for 10 divisions, the U.S. has 44 fighters including five champions. Twenty-seven countries have a share in the other 65 positions.

Jayhawks Lose Jack Swanner

The crippled HCJC Jayhawks suffered more grievous wounds Wednesday when it was announced by Coach Buddy Travis that Jackie Swanner, freshman from Plainview, is quitting school.

Swanner is married and is having to go to work, he told Travis. He will not accompany the Hawks to Lubbock Friday.

Travis said his team is now down to six able-bodied boys. Dick Ebling is the only substitute available for action now.

Walter Carter, the Hawks' great all-around performer who suffered a broken hand in the HCJC Christmas tournament here, will be sidelined for three weeks to a month, Travis stated.

Swanner had scored 82 points for the Hawks this season and had been especially effective in the club's last few games. He hit his season's high in the San Antonio tournament, when he scored 23 points.

Philly Selected

Tshombe In Fantastic Peace Drive

MOKAMBO, Katanga (AP)—President Moise Tshombe today made a fantastic peace drive to the Northern Rhodesia border.

He told the remnants of his Katanga army not to oppose a U.N. armored column rolling down the road some miles behind him. A solitary white-painted jeep was the only U.N. vehicle in Tshombe's motorcade.

But behind him was a U.N. force of armored cars and armored troop carriers determined to open the key supply route to Elisabethville from the Rhodesian frontier.

Planes roared overhead to give the U.N. troops air cover should they meet any opposition.

The Katanga leader drove down the dusty 174 miles of road to this Katanga border post in a big black American sedan. Wherever he stopped he was given a cheering, shouting, tumultuous welcome from African villagers.

Tshombe made a dozen stops in all to speak to little groups of Katangan gendarmes forming roadside honor guards to greet him.

They were dressed in a weird collection of tattered uniforms and armed with an assortment of weapons.

They said they had been unpaid for weeks and were short of food. But all seemed pleased to see their leader.

Tshombe told them the U.N. armored column was following him and ordered them not to fire on it.

"I want to save my people from massacre," he said.

Horton Elected Mineral Wells Bank President

Perry R. Horton, who was reared in Big Spring, has been elected president of the City National Bank in Mineral Wells.

He was elevated to this post Tuesday following the annual stockholders meeting. R. Preston, who had served as president of the bank for the past 25 years, became chairman of the board. George L. Welch is executive vice president of the bank.

Horton has been a director in the bank since he moved to Mineral Wells in 1955 with his wife, Polly, and their two young sons, Jay and Kirk. He is owner of the double Gate Ranch near Strauss, and has other business interests.

A native of Big Spring, Horton entered service after graduating from Big Spring High School and saw five years service as a pilot in the U.S. Army Air Force, much of which was with the U.S. 8th Air Force under British command flying over enemy territory in Africa and adjacent enemy territories shot down in 1943 while on a B-25 mission. He spent four months recuperating. He emerged with a captain's commission and with decorations including the Distinguished Flying Cross, Purple Heart with Oak Leaf Cluster, the Air Medal and Unit Citation Medal.

After his return home in 1946 he moved to Palo Pinto County and has been active in ranching, livestock and other affairs. He served as president of the Palo Pinto County Livestock Association and as captain of the Palo Pinto County Sheriff's posse.

He is a brother of Mrs. Vana Belle Shaw of Big Spring.

London Fire Brigade sent 15 fire trucks to the blaze after an alarm was sounded by a palace painter. It took an hour to bring the flames under control.

Damage was mostly confined to a section of roof over the servants quarters in the apartment of Princess Marina, Duchess of Kent. This adjoins the home being readied for Margaret.

Servants fled from the building roof.

Princess Marina came out with Princess Margaret to watch the fire. They were joined by Princess Alexandra and Prince Michael, Marina's son and daughter.

A fire brigade spokesman said the servants' quarters in Princess Marina's residence were badly damaged.

Margaret and Armstrong-Jones—who now bears the title Earl of Snowdon—moved into No. 10 Kensington Palace after their marriage in 1960.

The new apartment is known as No. 1A and is being remodeled at a cost of $238,000—a sum which brought growth from Laborite members in Parliament.

The Ministry of Works had hoped to have No. 1A ready in about a month's time.

Agency Joins National Group

Big Spring Employment Agency, 604 Periman Building, owned and operated by Jeff Brown and Bill Crooker, has been elected to membership in the National Employment Association, the oldest trade group in the private employment agency field.

According to an announcement by D. Dale Hughes, executive secretary of the NEA, the election of Big Spring Employment Agency will bring Big Spring an employment service dedicated to the highest standards of practice in relations both with employers and job applicants.

Brown said, "We are pleased to be associated with this nationally recognized organization and are proud to have so conducted our business as to have earned this recognition."

Historical Group Named In Martin

STANTON (SC)—Jim McCoy, Martin County Judge, appointed a County Historical Survey Committee for two-year terms. It includes Roy Pickett, Mrs. Jim Eiland, H. M. McReynolds, Mrs. Glenn Brown, J. D. Renfro, Mrs. Leo Turner, Bobby Deavenport, Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Woodard Sale and Finley, all of Stanton.

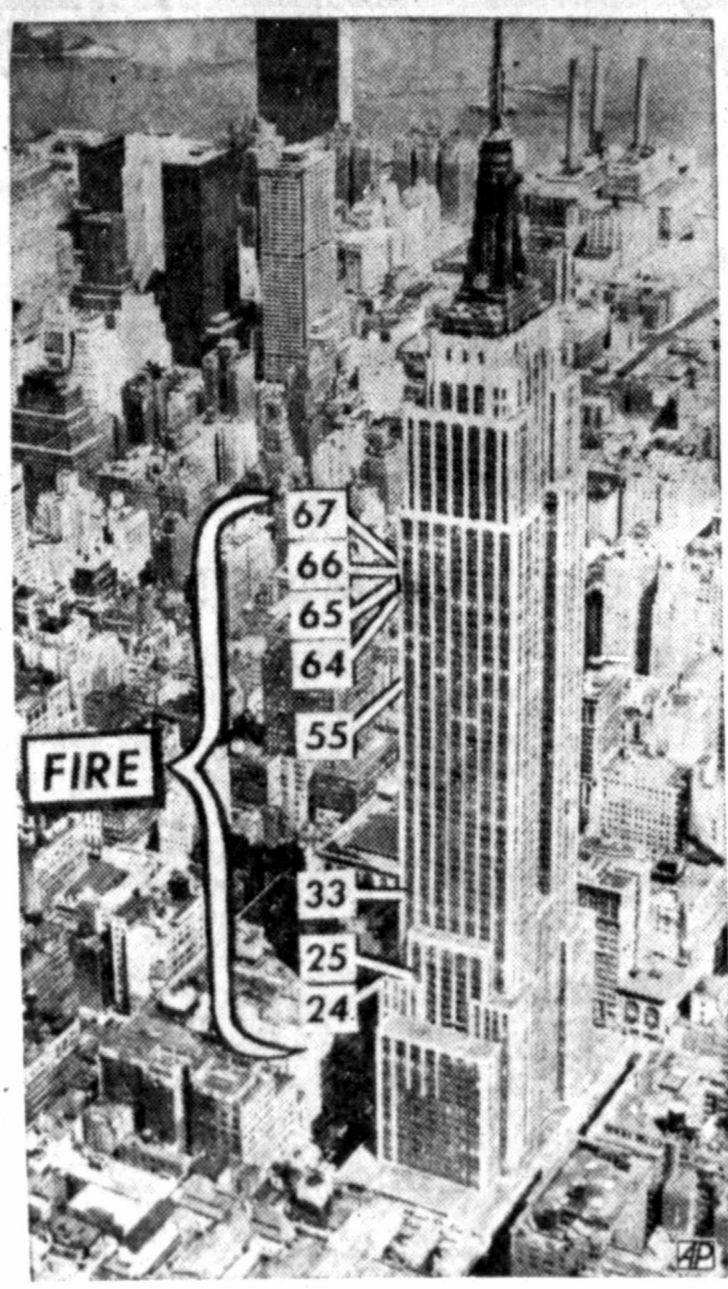

Governor-elect John Connally has designated Jan. 19 for committees to meet on all of the county judges to elect officers, appoint subcommittees and formulate plans for the year's work.

Planning Tour

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Pascual Gutierrez Roldan, director of Mexico's nationalized petroleum industry, leaves next week for an extensive business tour of Latin America.

The Pemex director begins his trip Jan. 16, and after visiting several countries will end in Brazil. He will discuss plans to sell Mexican surplus petroleum to Latin nations.

He will offer other countries help in developing their own petroleum industries.

Where Fire Hit

This diagram shows the floors involved in the fire in the 102-story Empire State Building in New York. Evidence of the flames was seen at one time or another on eight floors including the 24th, 25th, 33rd, 55th, 64th, 65th, 66th and 67th. The fire ravaged offices on the 64th, 65th and 66th floors. This view of the building is looking east. In center background is the United Nations Building.

Fire At Palace Brings Part Of Royal Roof Down

LONDON (AP)—Fire broke out at Kensington Palace, the home of Princess Margaret, today and brought part of the roof crashing down near an apartment being prepared for her.

The princess watched firemen train hoses at the top of the palace as smoke gushed from upper story windows.

The blaze started in the palace rafters near the 20-room apartment being prepared for the princess and her husband, Antony Armstrong-Jones. When it broke out, Margaret was in her present quarters at the other end of the palace.

London Fire Brigade sent 15 fire trucks to the blaze after an alarm was sounded by a palace painter. It took an hour to bring the flames under control.

Damage was mostly confined to a section of roof over the servants quarters in the apartment of Princess Marina, Duchess of Kent. This adjoins the home being readied for Margaret.

Urban Affairs Issue Looms Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—Undiscouraged by the defeat of the plan last year, President Kennedy will ask the new Congress to create a Department of Urban Affairs with full Cabinet status.

Officials who gave this word today admitted that prospects for passage this year are dim, but said the administration hopes at least to get the legislative wheels oiled for a big push in 1964. The proposal ran into racial controversy a year ago.

Freeman Outlines Details Of 2-Price Plan For Wheat

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman outlined today details of the Kennedy administration's controversial two-price plan for wheat for 1964. He asserted it would insure growers against income and market chaos.

The plan, authorized by Congress last year, must be approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in May or June.

The plan is opposed by the American Farm Bureau Federation and supported by the National Farmers Union, the National Grange and the National Farmers Organization.

Freeman told a meeting of backers of the plan that it would assure wheat producers an income in 1964 at the 1961-62 average level of $2.3 billion. Such an income, he said, would be very favorable relative to other segments of agriculture.

Freeman said the national acreage allotment will be 40 million to 50 million acres, compared with 55 million for the 1963 crop—the minimum permitted by law under the old program which the new plan would replace. Individual farm allotments would be reduced 10 per cent from 1963 allotments.

The secretary said about 925 million bushels of the 1964 crop would be supported, through a certificate device, at a national average of $2 a bushel—the same as for the 1962 and 1963 crops—for the entire production. This quantity of wheat would be designed to meet domestic need for wheat for food and the bulk of the exports. This quantity would be apportioned among individual farms by means of certificates.

Wheat grown on allotted acres in excess of a farm's share of the domestic food and export market would be supported, Freeman said, at about $1.30 a bushel. This rate would be designed to encourage use of extra wheat as feed and other nonfood uses.

Assuming total wheat production were 1,070,000,000 bushels, roughly 86 per cent of a farm's total production would be subject to the $2 support and the balance to the $1.30 rate. The crop was 1,091,787,000 last year under a temporary plan requiring a 10 per cent reduction in plantings from the 55-million-acre national allotment and 1,234,743,000 in 1961 on a 55-million-acre allotment.

The plan provides for government payments in addition to the supports. On the 10 per cent reduction in allotted acreage from the 1963 level, farms would get payments at 30 per cent of the $2 support level times the normal yield of the farm. If a farm's normal yield is 25 bushels and its county support rate is $2, its diversion payment would be 60 cents a bushel times 25 bushels or a total of $15 an acre.

The plan also provides for added payments. They would be designed to encourage farmers to make additional voluntary reductions in plantings. The plan would permit a farm to reduce its plantings up to 20 per cent below its new and lower basic 1964 allotment. Payments would be 50 per cent of the $2 support level times the normal yield on the additional acres idled. For example, these payments would be $25 an acre on a farm with a normal yield of 25 bushels an acre.

Freeman said if Congress enacts a new feed grain program in time, production of additional wheat would be permitted on a farm's base feed grain acreage.

The secretary said defeat of the new wheat plan would result in $1 a bushel wheat prices and an income from wheat fully $700 million less than he estimated for the administration plan. However, opponents of the latter plan have said they would ask Congress to pass a new program eliminating controls and providing for basic supports at around $1.45 a bushel and for voluntary retirement of crop land under a payment incentive.

Lofty Marker Stands Over Graves Of Texas Heroes

By JOE DAVENPORT
 Writer For The Associated Press

LA GRANGE (AP) — High on a bluff overlooking the peaceful Colorado River, a granite monument stands as a sentinel guarding the remains of Texas slain in a massacre and before a firing squad.

The shaft towers 48 feet over the granite grave of men killed in the Dawson Massacre and the unlucky "black bean men" of the Mier Expedition — all deaths during a 10-year undeclared war between Mexico and the Texas Republic.

Texas' peace treaty won at San Jacinto in 1836 wasn't recognized in Mexico and after five years of uncertainty the inevitable came. Texas President Mirabeau B. Lamar, succeeding Sam Houston, sent an Army to get the New Mexico Territory in 1841. The force failed, Mexican reprisal came fast.

First came Gen. Rafael Vasquez in the spring of 1842. He took Goliad, Victoria, Refugio and San Antonio, then went home. Next came Gen. Adrian Woll during the fall. He grabbed San Antonio.

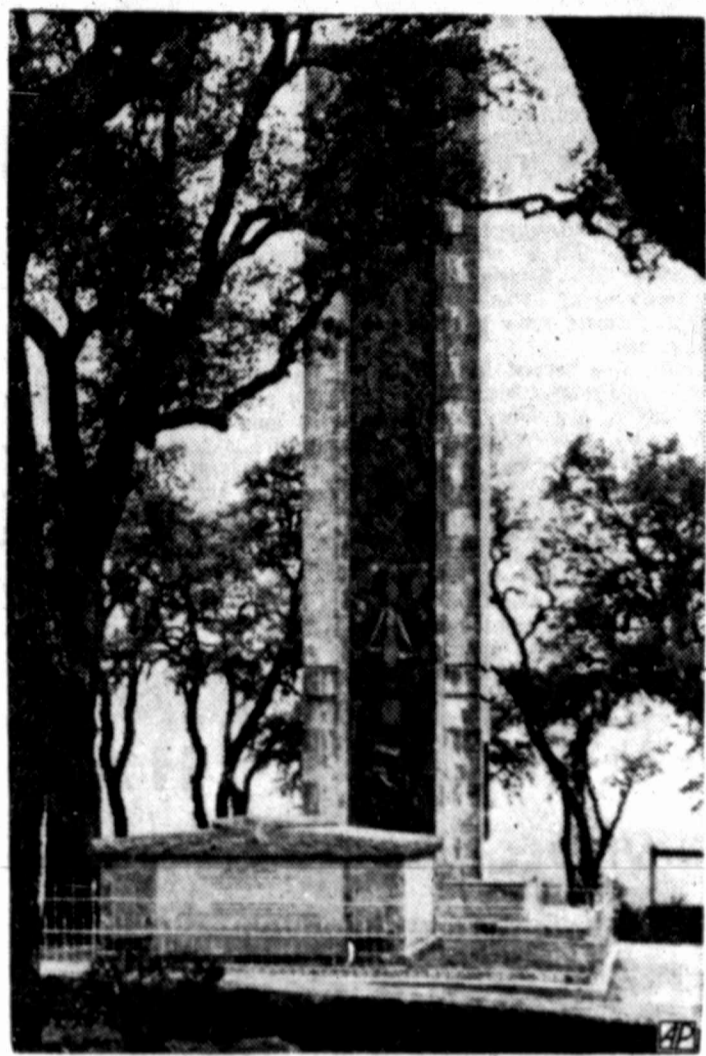

Irate Texans, commanded by Col. Matthew Caldwell, marched on San Antonio and whipped Woll at Salado Creek, but not without a band of 53 men from Fayette County meeting disaster.

The group banded under La Grange's meeting oak and followed Nicholas Mosby Dawson. Riding hard to help Caldwell, the band rode smack into Woll's retreating army.

Dawson and 34 others fell under lance, saber and cannon, their bodies left naked to the elements. Texans wanted retaliation. Re-elected President Houston bent to demands and sent 750 men off into a wet November. In command was Alexander Somervell who apparently had orders to maneuver until tempers cooled, then return home.

The plan worked, almost. Houston hadn't counted on the intense feelings of men like Bigfoot Wallace. Col. William S. Fisher and Capt. William Mosby Eastland, Dawson's cousin.

Somervell returned with a majority of the army. About 250 remained behind under Fisher's

Monument To Valor

command. Most of those remaining had kin killed in battle or still in Mexican prisons. On Christmas 1842, plucky Texans engaged Gen. Ampudia's 2,000 troops in Ciudad de Mier. Informed that Mexican reinforcements were coming and with ammunition exhausted, the Texans surrendered. Eastland's company was last to ing six days of harrowing freedom the lost troopers killed horses for meat to eat and blood to drink before being ambushed and recaptured.

Only 176 Texans were now alive. Santa Anna ordered all shot. His officers refused to execute the sentence. He relented by ordering death for one in ten.

Into a big pitcher went 159 white beans of life and 17 black beans of death before a firing squad. After the grisly lottery, the survivors were marched to dungeons in Perote Castle to be released almost two years later.

Wallace and other prisoners returned to Mexico with U. S. Gen. Zachary Taylor in 1846 and recovered the remains of those drawing black beans. The bones were shipped to Eastland's home of La Grange and stored in the courthouse.

Bones of Dawson and his men were exhumed from near Salado Creek, and in 1850 the remains of both expeditions were reburied on Monument Hill, now a state park.

A towering monument was erected by 1936 and it still proudly stands marking the end of two wearying, bloody journeys of patriots returned home for infinite rest.

Speed Limit Change Sought

AUSTIN (AP) — Rep. Forrest Harding of San Angelo wants to raise Texas speed limits to 70 miles per hour. He said he will formally file a bill within a few days.

A top speed limit of 30 miles an hour would be set for business and residential areas.

The bill would authorize the State Highway Department to make studies of highways and increase the maximum speed limit where it thought it could be done safely.

"It seems that the speed limits can be safely raised on a lot of superhighways and expressways," Harding said.

The bill would also allow minimum speed regulations.

MAKING WAY FOR THE SPACE AGE

Remote Mississippi Town Hears Its Death Sentence

By DAVID ZINMAN
 GAINESVILLE, Miss. (AP)—Life drifted on lazily in the sleepy backwoods community of Gainesville.

Deep in the piney forests of southern Mississippi, its 100 residents enjoyed a quiet existence on the banks of the Pearl River—a world apart from the breakneck pace of the big cities.

For relaxation, they fished for catfish and white trout, hunted deer and wild ducks in nearby Honey Island Swamp, chatted over coffee in Louise Elizabeth Loveless' country store.

That placid life is gone. Gainesville died today. Its executioner was the space age.

The Mississippi test facility is acquiring 141,000 acres to test the world's biggest rocket engines that one day will send astronauts to the moon. The $500-million base is wiping Gainesville off the map.

"I remember the day I heard about it," Mrs. Loveless, 56, said. She is leaving her store and her ten-room home built 100 years ago.

"I couldn't believe it," she said. "It was a shock to everyone in Gainesville. Nobody did any housework that day."

Gainesville is so small and remote, many Mississippians never have heard of it.

Back in the early 1800s, it was a flourishing sawmill center, a bustling river town. Before the days of paved roads when the steamboat was king, Gainesville was said to be the most important town in all southern Mississippi. "For more than 100 years," wrote S. G. Thigpen Sr. of Pica-yune, a historian of the region, "Gainesville was the only trading place, the only town, the only point of contact with the outside world for a big area here in south Mississippi."

Gainesville was named for Amrose Gaines, a doctor to whom the Spanish gave a grant of land before 1800, not far from where the Pearl River sweeps its waters into the Gulf of Mexico.

Dr. Gaines went to New Orleans to fight yellow fever, died there, and is buried in one of Gainesville's two cemeteries. All the graves are being dug up and transplanted to make way for the rocket base.

In its early days, Gainesville was a headquarters for pirates and freebooters. When Mississippi joined the Union in 1817, the government cleaned them out.

Gainesville's key river location soon made it prosper. Steamboats churned up to its shores. It became a county seat for a while. Its sawmill and turpentine stills hummed.

On paydays, Gainesville's men paddled out to the floating barrooms that anchored off the Louisiana bank—just across the Pearl River—to avoid Mississippi's dry laws.

Above all, it was a friendly town. E. J. Stockwell, 92, remembers a justice of the peace fining two brawling men $1 each for fighting in the street.

Onlookers chipped in nickels and dimes to pay the fine. And then the justice bought drinks for everyone.

"Yessir," Stockwell said, "that was Gainesville in the old days." Gainesville's halcyon era ended in 1883. The railroad came through, but bypassed Gainesville. Shipping shifted to railroad towns, and Gainesville slowly declined. It never recovered.

In 1962, Gainesville had only some 35 families. It had a small unused school, one store, two Baptist churches.

But its people were firmly rooted. They loved its remoteness and closeness to untouched nature. Some lived in homes in which their families had stayed for generations.

"Wherever I go, I know there will be something lacking," Mrs. Loveless said.

Mrs. Gibson was hostess for the meeting.

P-TA Council Makes Plans For The Month

A 12-hour Civil Defense course, to be used in the Education for Family Living Course, was agreed upon by members of the City Council Parent Teacher Association Tuesday at Goliad School. The course will be conducted by Miss Bo Bowen, who will hold the first session Monday, Jan. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in Goliad Cafeteria. The Tuesday session, with Mrs.

Dwight McCann presiding, opened with a devotion by Mrs. R. E. Ray. Guest speaker for the program was Mrs. Hollis Puckett, 16th District president, whose subject was "The Purpose of Living." A letter of appreciation was read from the VA Hospital in regard to the Council's assistance with a Christmas party. Mrs. McCann introduced Mrs. Augustine Fierro, newly elected president of Bauer P-TA.

December reports were made by unit presidents, who stated that a total of $2,750 in U.S. Savings Stamps was sold. Mrs. J. H. Hoeman reported on the revisions of Council by-laws, and Mrs. McCann announced a district board meeting for Tuesday, Jan. 15, at 9:30 a.m. in the Lamesa office of the Pioneer Gas Company.

Local unit presidents were reminded of a meeting Monday, Jan. 14, at 1:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Buford Hull, 700 E. 16th St. Materials for the Mothers' March of Dimes will be distributed.

Mrs. McCann expressed thanks for help given in the Sabin Vaccine Clinic.

Concluding the meeting, a birthday skit, "The Verdict Is Yours," was given in tribute to W. C. Blankenship, City Council legislative chairman, and the principal of College Heights School, Mrs. R. E. Ray.

Mrs. R. G. Robertson and Miss Bowen assisted with the skit, after which refreshments were served to 34 members.

A tentative date, April 19, was announced by Mrs. Puckett for the spring conference in Lamesa.

Cancellation

The Knott Parent-Teacher Association meeting scheduled for Thursday evening has been cancelled because of the basketball tournament being held at Howard County Junior College.

Film On Birdlife Is Shown

Films taken of birds outside her kitchen window were shown to members of the Oasis Garden Club by Mrs. C. O. Hitt when they met in the home of Mrs. Gene Turner Wednesday morning. Mrs. Hitt, a birdwatcher, told the club that efforts should be made to conserve birdlife in this area. She suggested ways to feed birds in the winter months and encourage them to stay near homes.

The meeting was opened with a new year's prayer by Mrs. W. F. Taylor, with Mrs. J. D. Leonard presiding. A committee was appointed to include Mrs. Albert Hohertz and Mrs. Lois O'Barr Smith who will secure a location in one of residential parks where the group will plant a tree on Arbor Day.

Mrs. M. C. Stalling spoke to the group about the fundamentals of grafting on shrubs and trees.

Refreshments were served to 15 members and Mrs. Harward Hanson was elected to membership. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. C. B. South on Feb. 13.

Guests Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bushner of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Ronald McClean of Los Angeles, Calif., have returned to their homes following a visit with the Howard H. Johnsons of Western Hills.

Bridge Winners In Country Club Games

Six tables were in play at the Big Spring Country Club Duplicate Bridge Club games Tuesday afternoon.

Winners were Mrs. Glenn Lingenteiler and Mrs. William E. Harris, first; Mrs. Ayla McCann and Mrs. B. B. Badger, second; Mrs. Jack Irons and Mrs. E. L. Powell, third; and Mrs. J. H. Fish and Mrs. Hayes Stripling, fourth.

Noble Grand Installed

Lodge 287 included Mrs. Jean Burton, district deputy president; Mrs. Jim McCoy, deputy marshal; Mrs. C. Christopher, deputy warden; Mrs. Virgie Johnson, deputy chaplain; Mrs. J. Wilkes, deputy musician; Mrs. H. Louder, deputy inside guardian; Mrs. R. Linney, deputy secretary; and Miss Sammie Laws, deputy treasurer.

Pink and green bouquets of sweetpeas in crystal vases decorated the hall. Cake decoration repeated the motif, and it was embellished with the names, "Julia and Jewel."

Fifty persons attended the session, and sick visits, numbering 48, were reported. Mrs. Crenshaw read communications.

Named To Magazine's '63 College Board

Miss Diane Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Baker, 1707 Yale, has been chosen as a member of Mademoiselle magazine's 1963 national college board, made up of students from colleges and universities across the country. Miss Baker will be a mid-term junior at Texas Tech, where she is majoring in marketing in the school of business administration. She is an officer in Chi Omega and was named basketball princess.

MISS DIANE BAKER

The college board competition is designed for young women with talent in art, writing, fashion, merchandising, promotion or advertising. Several months' preparation went into the entry submitted by Miss Baker.

As a member of the college board, the Texas Tech student will report news from her college to the magazine. She is eligible to compete for one of the 20 guest editorships that will be awarded by the magazine in May. Winning a guest editorship would mean that she would go to New York City for the month of June to help edit, write and illustrate the magazine's August college issue for 1963. Also the winners will be considered for future staff positions with Conde Nast publications.

Narcotics Topic For P-TA Program

Statistics and dangers of narcotics were discussed by Capt. Eubanks of the Big Spring Police Department Monday evening for the Sands Parent Teacher Association. Held at the Sands High School, the meeting was conducted by Mrs. Bill Hambrick.

Prayer was offered by A. H. Smith, after which a report was made by the project committee. The speaker was introduced by Arnold Oats.

During a social period refreshments were served by Mrs. Dudley Coleman and Mrs. O'Brien Bowlin.

Play Is Presented On Mission Work

A skit entitled, "Asia's Rim," was given when the First Church of God WMS met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. D. Jenkins. The hostess was in charge of the program which told of mission work being done in Korea.

Those taking parts in the skit were Mrs. Richard Reagan, Mrs. Truett Thomas, Mrs. Georgia Caudle, Mrs. Ethel Hickson and Mrs. Arah Phillips.

The Rev. Walter Tiesel, a missionary who has been stationed in Barbados, will be the guest speaker for the next meeting of the group.

The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. A. L. Holly.

Noble Grand Installed By Rebekah Lodge 284

Mrs. Julia Hewett was installed as noble grand of Rebekah Lodge 284 Tuesday evening at the Lodge Hall. She chose her theme, "Build Better Rebekah Old Fellowship"; her flower, the sweetpea; pastels for color; and Acts 20:32, her scripture.

The elected officers installed were Mrs. R. R. Fields, vice grand; Mrs. H. Harris, recording secretary; Mrs. G. Gross, finance secretary; Mrs. L. Griffith, treasurer; Mrs. L. Hughes, representative; Mrs. Mary Brown, alternate; Gene Crenshaw, team captain; Mrs. C. N. Gilliland, funeral marshal; and Mrs. Maggie Richardson, lodge mother.

Appointed officers installed were

Mrs. R. L. Bowman, warden; Mrs. Elaine Morrow, conductor; Mrs. O. L. Rodricks, chaplain; Mrs. L. Grider, musician; Mrs. A. J. McCall, flag bearer; Mrs. E. Wilson, Rebeekah flag bearer; Mrs. M. Newton, Christian flag bearer.

Also, Mrs. Ruby Simpson, Texas flag bearer; Mrs. C. D. Herring, RSN; Mrs. Mary Brown, LSN; Mrs. C. N. Gilliland, RSVG; Mrs. Crenshaw, LSN; Mrs. Eula Pond, RS chaplain; Mrs. T. A. Melton, LS chaplain; Mrs. F. Love, RSPNG; Mrs. W. N. Wood, LSPNG; Mrs. J. L. Unger, inside guardian; Mrs. Edgelee Patterson, outside guardian; and Mrs. W. C. Moore, junior past noble grand.

Study Club Hears Talk By Bonner

A Big Spring High School counselor, Wayne Bonner, was the speaker for a Child Study Club session, Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Bill Johnson. Mrs. Zack Gray was the cohostess.

"Choosing a Career" was the subject which Bonner discussed, outlining his work with students. He told of standardizing tests used to determine a child's abilities. He stressed the point that all children are different, and urged each mother to recognize her child's ability and be satisfied. Bonner explained that one phase of his work is to listen to a child's problems, in academics and at home.

A letter was read which was sent to the Big Spring School Board, expressing the club's views on outside agencies and youth organizations in the schools.

Mrs. Badger Is Circle Hostess

Mrs. Bob Badger was hostess to members of the Fannie Hodges Circle Tuesday at her home, where a program was presented by Mrs. L. L. Patton. "What Shall We Tell Our Children About Race" was the program topic, with Mrs. R. C. Hill and Mrs. R. F. Harper taking part. The worship center, depicting the different races, was prepared by Mrs. L. B. Mauldin.

Refreshments were served to 12 members and three guests. Mrs. J. G. Boatman, Mrs. R. L. Hoover and Mrs. Dick Baldrige and Mrs. Dick Baldrige were present.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 12 at the home of Mrs. Harper.

Correction

The "Father's Night" listed in Wednesday's Date Book is scheduled at College Heights school, tonight instead of Cedar Crest. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. with Bruce Frazier as the guest speaker. Homemade pie and coffee will be served following the meeting.

Planning Stressed In Landscaping Homes

"Use of Shrubs in Home Landscaping" was Mrs. O. R. Littell's subject, speaking Wednesday to members of the Big Spring Garden Club. Mrs. Littell of Odessa, a national flower show judge, was a guest of the club which met at the home of Mrs. Garner McAdams. Co-hostess was Mrs. Marion Edwards.

The speaker prefaced her talk with a brief history on landscaping in the United States. In planning home landscaping, she said that yards should be divided into three distinct areas—public, private and service.

Mrs. Littell suggested that front yards be planted with shrubs, evergreens and flowering shrubs. She pointed out that shrubs of Japanese origin are grown more successfully in this area than are the English shrubs.

Flowers, annuals and perennials, and shrubs should be planted in the private area. And in the service area, which might also be the children's play yard, planting should be kept simple, using hardy varieties of plants, she said.

Twenty-two members were present. Mrs. Littell was accompanied by Mrs. Sparkman, Odessa, formerly of Louisiana, where she was flower show governor in her parish.

Coffee was served from a polished mahogany table, appointed with silver. A yellow, green and white motif was featured in napkins and refreshments. Mrs. J. E. Hogan presided at the coffee service.

Mrs. Clyde Angel, civic chairman, reported that plans had been completed for the council's annual project, decorating for the Chamber of Commerce dinner. Mrs. A. C. Bass, chairman of therapy and geriatrics, reported that Christmas arrangements were delivered to three nursing homes during the holidays.

The treasurer, Mrs. Chris Watson, reported that $10 had been contributed to the St. Mary's Episcopal Church fund in memory of the late Mrs. David M. Penn.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 6 at the home of Mrs. Watson. Mrs. Hayes Stripling will serve as cohostess.

Fairview Home Demonstration Club made plans for the year, while meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. N. Adams. Ten members were in attendance, and a guest was Mrs. Edgar Phillips.

The program for 1963 was outlined and yearbooks filled out. Members agreed that the books should be sent to inactive members. Also they decided to serve cookies to patients at the state hospital the first week in February.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess.

Program Outlined By HD Members

Members of the DeMolay Mothers Club are urged to attend a meeting tonight, 7:30 o'clock at 609 Colgate.

Time Well Spent

Mrs. Wally Slate holds a part-time job and budgets her time with homemaking so that she can enjoy her family and friends. Here, daughter Kay, and son, Mark, help her decide on a menu that will please them all.

Working Mother Plans Her Time With Family

By JO BRIGHT
Mrs. Wally Slate, 1600 Vines St., is one homemaker who has faced the fact that working mothers must cut corners and eliminate some of the fancy frills when they have active families.
Mrs. Slate, whose husband is a supervisor of bagging and loading in the polystyrene department of Cosden Petroleum Co., holds a part-time job that consumes her morning hours every day. She is employed by her father, Cliff Proffitt, in the offices of the Pearl Distributing Co.
"I didn't learn to cook—I went into it blindly," said Mrs. Slate, who feels that mothers can provide good, nutritious meals without spending all their time in the kitchen. Almost as important, she said, is that a mother budget her time so that she is able to participate in her husband's and children's interests.

DAUGHTER BAKES
The Slate's have two children. Daughter, Kay, a striking brunette of 14, is in the 8th grade at Runnels Junior High where she has been a cheerleader and is currently on the student council. Kay does most of the baking for the family and turns out some appetizing cakes and cookies. She is taking a homemaking course in school and applies what she is learning when assisting her mother at home.
Their son, Mark, is 10 years old and a fourth grader at Washington Place School. He doesn't claim to be of any help to his mother in the kitchen, but has definite preferences in regard to food. He like the other members of the family, enjoys good steak—and he likes it cooked rare. Mark, a football player, played end for the South team during the All-Star

YMCA football game recently.
Wally Slate is a handy fellow to have around the outdoor grill, where many of their meals are prepared when the weather permits. He frequently supervises the barbecuing of chicken, steaks and hamburgers for summer suppers on the patio. Often corn-on-the-cob and bread are wrapped separately in foil and cooked on the grill with the meat. Generous servings of baked beans and a simple salad with a drink completes the menu.

FAVOR SEASONING
The Slates, who like their food highly seasoned, believe there is no such thing as being too heavily handed with the use of garlic salt, bay leaves or onion. They all enjoy Mexican dishes, but Mrs. Slate said they patronize a favorite restaurant for this type of food.
Slate golfs regularly and tries not to miss a football game. If friends drop in afterward, Mrs. Slate can provide almost instant snacks by using various dip mixes available. Here are some of the dishes that are requested frequently in their home:

- LEMON GLAZED POUND CAKE
1 cup shortening
2 cups sugar
4 eggs
2 1/2 cups flour
1 cup buttermilk
1/2 tsp. soda
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. soda
1 tsp. lemon extract
Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs to mixture one at a time. Combine with other ingredients and bake 1 hour at 325 degrees.
GLAZE
1 cup powdered sugar
1/2 cup lemon juice
Combine and pour over cake while still warm.
PECAN CRISPYS
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup butter
1 box brown sugar
2 beaten eggs

- 2 1/2 cups flour
1/2 tsp. soda
1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup pecans
Cream shortening, butter and sugar. Add eggs, then other ingredients, mixing in pecans last. Cook 15 to 20 minutes or until lightly browned at 350 degrees.
PALM SPRINGS LEMON CHEESE PIE
15 oz. can sweetened condensed milk
1/2 cup sour cream
3 oz. pkg. softened cream cheese
1 tsp. almond flavoring
1/4 cup fresh lemon juice
9-inch graham cracker crust
Prepare crust and set aside. In mixing bowl, combine milk, cream and cream cheese. Beat until thick. Mix in flavoring and lemon juice and pour into crust. Sprinkle top with crumbs, refrigerate overnight and serve very cold.
CHICKEN PAPRIKA
5 lb. chicken
1 cup stock
1 chopped green pepper
2 medium onions, chopped
1 medium bunch celery, chopped
2 medium tomatoes, chopped
2 tbsps. shortening
2 tbsps. paprika
Salt and pepper to taste
1 pt. sour cream
3 cans Chinese noodles
2 gloves garlic
Cover chicken with water and cook until tender. Remove from bones and cut in small pieces. Fry onions and garlic in shortening until tender. Add chicken stock, celery, tomatoes, pepper, salt and paprika. Cook slowly until celery is tender. Then add chicken and cook about ten more minutes. Just before serving add sour cream and bring to a boil. Serve over noodles. This recipe serves eight.

Just What Is Chowder?

What is chowder?
Chowder is a hearty stew which all nations of the world claim as their own creation. Culinary history shows us that chowder, a long-time U.S. favorite, was popular in Europe long before this country's beginning.

In the little fishing hamlets of France, "faire la chaudiere" (fair la SHOW-dee-air, meaning prepare the cauldron) became a community enterprise marking the fishing fleet's return from the sea. Each family contributed part of its fishy catch plus a variety of vegetables. All were carefully cooked together to make a hearty stew.
When French fishermen crossed the Atlantic and settled in New Foundland, they brought their cauldrons and soup-making traditions with them. The word "chaudiere" was "Yankeefied," and the word "chowder" came into common usage.

Through the years, American chowders have been modified to take in the most abundant produce of many parts of the country — including meat, fowl and vegetables. For example, the Middle West created corn chowder and the West Coast contributed tuna chowder, which probably was inspired by the huge quantities of tuna brought to Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco.

Today, thanks to modern canning methods, chowder ingredients are as close at hand as your kitchen cupboard. And they're as easy to prepare as opening and combining various canned condensed soups and adding a bit of cooked fish, canned shrimp or meat plus your favorite vegetables and spices.

Soups And Winter Are Made For Each Other

In a recent release, the old Farmer's Almanac out of Dublin, New Hampshire, predicted a long cold winter with twice as much snow as last. It's not too late to conspire against this arctic inclemency—get out your long woolen underwear and throw a log on the fire.

Right now is the time to stock the larder. When the weather's acting up and the barometer is going down, soup is a sure cure for the chills. It waits on the cupboard shelf until hunger calls and then reveals all its rewarding goodness in a host of different flavors.

Soup is a great favorite with men. They like the hearty kinds with lots of solids.

Chowders particularly are favored during the cold months for either lunch or supper with a salad or sandwich and a fine dessert. Guests, too, will be delighted with a big tureen of chowder—bubbling hot and deliciously aromatic. And because chowder is such a warm and friendly food, it creates a happy dinner-time atmosphere—there'll be plenty of demand for seconds, too.

Thanks to canned condensed soups, all the work of slicing, peeling and cooking is done for you. You can whip up main dish chowders simply by cooking onion and then blending a pair of soups stored on your kitchen shelf. Your chowder will look and taste as though you've spent many hours preparing it.

Serve your dinner-in-a-bowl company chowder in easy, buffet style with crusty slices of toasted French bread.

- SHRIMP CHOWDER
1/2 cups chopped onion
1 tbsps. butter or margarine
1 can (10 1/2 oz.) condensed cream of celery soup
1 can (10 1/2 oz.) condensed clam chowder
1 1/2 cups cans water
1 can (5 oz.) shrimp, drained
1 tbsps. chopped parsley
In saucepan, cook onion in butter until tender. Blend in remaining ingredients; simmer about 5 minutes or until flavors are blended. Makes 6 servings.

- FAMILY NIGHT TUNA CHOWDER
2 tbsps. chopped onion
2 tbsps. chopped parsley
Dash leaf thyme
2 tbsps. butter or margarine
2 cans (10 1/2 oz. each) condensed cream of vegetable soup
1 soup can milk
1 soup can water
2 cans (7 oz. each) tuna, drained and flaked
In saucepan, cook onion, parsley and thyme in butter over low heat until onion is tender. Blend in soup, milk and water; add tuna. Heat; stir now and then. Makes 5 or 6 servings.
Note: Cooked salmon or crab may be substituted for tuna.

Tasty Pot-Roast Is A Favorite

Economy is an important keynote of meals featuring pot-roast. Your budget will welcome this consideration when the Christmas bills begin to accumulate.

Pot-roasts fortunately provide plenty of satisfying eating as well. The hearty appetites of your family nearly always list this cut as one of their favorites, for a pot-roast offers ample, meaty servings.

This unusual idea for preparing a pot-roast will gain praises, too. The meat cooks with onion salt and Worcestershire sauce as the seasonings. When the meat is tender, currants, apple jelly and flour are blended into the cooking liquid to form a sweet, zesty gravy.

- POT-ROAST WITH CURRANT-APPLE GRAVY
3 to 4 lb. beef arm or blade pot-roast
1/4 cup flour
2 tbsps. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1/2 cup onion salt
3 tbsps. lard or drippings
1/2 cup water
2 tbsps. Worcestershire sauce
1/4 cup currants
1/3 cup apple jelly
Flour for gravy
Combine 1/4 cup flour, salt, pepper and onion salt. Dredge meat in seasoned flour. Brown in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add water and Worcestershire sauce. Cover tightly and cook slowly 2 1/2 hours. Add currants and continue cooking 30 minutes or until meat is tender. Remove pot-roast to heated platter. Add apple jelly to cooking liquid and heat through. Thicken cooking liquid with flour for gravy. 8 servings.

Good Buys In Texas

By The Associated Press
Fresh produce markets hit a more-normal pace this week after a holiday lull and the December freeze. A few items still are on the short side, reports the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Cabbage prices are sharply lower at most markets. Also lower are lettuce, celery, radishes, tomatoes and Texas cauliflower.

Squash is scarce and high. Limes are much higher. Wholesale prices are up on cucumbers, onions and potatoes.

Best-buys at many Texas points are cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, celery, lettuce, onions, potatoes, radishes and turnips. Supplies of sweet potatoes are liberal and quality is good at modest prices. They're keeping well. Other best buys among fruits include avocados, Emperor grapes, and winter pears. Canned and frozen red tart cherries are plentiful.

A trickle of Florida oranges and grapefruit is showing up, but most come from California and Arizona. Light volume of pineapples and papayas are available. Peanuts, raw and roasted, are ample.
Egg prices remain firm at rather modest winter levels. Turkeys and broilers are a shade higher but still very economical. Most red meats traded lower at wholesale last week. The main exception was cow beef that sold higher. High-quality beef prices, on the hoof, worked lower for the seventh consecutive week.

Chocolate Pie Fans Will Love This Chocolate Chip Recipe

When we heard about a new chocolate pie recipe, we straightway tried it. For what flavor and dessert appeals more to American tastes?

Our testers' verdict? Delicious and different. In this rule chocolate is added "as is" over a layer of custard to give interesting flavor and texture. In testing the dessert, we used the new "glazed" semi-sweet chocolate chips with their handsome glossy coating. Good luck with the recipe!

- CHOCOLATE LAYER PIE
2 eggs
2 cups milk
3/4 cup sugar
1-3/4 cup flour
1/4 tsp. salt
2 tbsps. butter or margarine
1/4 tsp. vanilla
1 baked 8-inch pie shell
1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1/4 cup chopped pecans

In the top of a double boiler, mix the egg yolks with 1/4 cup of the milk. Mix together thoroughly 1/2 cup of the sugar, the flour and salt; add to egg-yolk mixture and blend. Add the remaining 1 1/4 cups milk and mix well. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until thickened—usually about 6 or 7 minutes. Cover and cook 15 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Remove from boiling water. Stir in the butter and vanilla. Pour into pie shell. Sprinkle chocolate and pecans over filling. Beat egg whites until foamy. Beat in the remaining 1/4 cup sugar thoroughly, a tablespoon at a time; continue beating until meringue stands in stiff straight peaks. Spread meringue over pie filling. Bake

Melted Chocolate

A favorite pie gets new treatment: Semi-sweet chocolate pieces are layered over a custard filling and then they are hidden under a snowy meringue.

In a hot (425 degrees) oven 5 to 10 minutes or until meringue is delicately browned. Cool. The crust should stay crisp if the pie is not refrigerated, so try to serve the pie in a reasonable time after cooling.

Banquet Franks

Here's a quick supper to prepare during the busy days when fast minute shopping is under way. Cut 12 frankfurters lengthwise and spread with mustard. Combine 2 cups mashed potatoes, 1/4 cup chopped onion, 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento and 1/4 cup chopped parsley. Spread mixture on cut surface of 6 frankfurters. Place remaining frankfurters on top, cut side down. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 20 minutes. This makes 6 servings.

Cabbage Roll Tip

Stuffed cabbage rolls are most often made with a ground beef and rice filling. But they may also be stuffed with a ground cooked ham and bread crumb mixture; if you use this combination moisten it with a little white sauce and season with onion and parsley.

Chicken Liver

Quick dish: cook halved chicken livers in butter or margarine; add to heated canned meatless tomato spaghetti sauce. Serve the sauce over cooked pasta with a green salad and crusty French bread for a speedy supper.

Raised Eleven Children With 'No Trouble'

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—How do you bring up 11 children and have "no problems at all?" "I suppose it was because we had great love for them and wanted them to be happy so they'd be good," said Mrs. Richard T. Seidel, named with her husband and children as the National Catholic Family of 1962. Two sons are priests, Fathers John J. Seidel, 35, curate of St. Peter Canisius Church in Chicago, and Thomas E. Seidel, 31, Holy Cross father who teaches at Notre Dame High School, Chicago. Two youngest daughters are nuns—Sisters Mary Gabriel, 23, and Catherine, 19. They are at the Benedictine Priory in St. Paul. Announcement of the selection for the honor was made Wednesday by National Catholic Welfare Conference. Sunday the family will receive a plaque at services at Visitation Church, with the presentation to be made by Archbishop Leo Binz of St. Paul. Seidel, 63, a retired oil executive, said his family is extremely grateful and humbly proud about the honor. He said there probably are many other families better qualified. He said the children always were well behaved and attended daily Mass with their mother "from the time they were toddlers." Reciting the Rosary has been a daily ritual for years, he said. Mrs. Seidel voiced the hope "that our being named the Catholic Family of the Year will encourage our children and grandchildren to carry on with the same fine home life." They have 16 grandchildren. The other Seidel children are: Richard, 37, Wilmington, Del.; Stephen, 36, St. Paul; Joan, 26, Rochester, Minn.; and Mrs. Miriam Murphy, 33, James, 29, Robert, 28, and Barbara, 25, all of Minneapolis. Joan and Barbara are school teachers. Two children died in infancy. Tunisia Outlaws Communist Party TUNIS, Tunisia (AP)—The Tunisian government has decided not to tolerate the Communist party in Tunisia, informed sources said Wednesday night. There was no official comment from the government although rumors that the Communist party has been banned have persisted for several days.

Judge Names Historical Group County Judge Lee Porter has named Ed Fisher, Mrs. H. C. Stipp and Joe Pickle as members of the Howard County Historical Survey Committee for a two-year term. Gov.-elect John Connally has designated Jan. 19 as Texas Historical Preservation Day. On this date, all new county historical survey committees are to meet on the call of the county judge. Officers will be named and plans for possible activities will be discussed. More than 240 Texas counties now have historical survey committees. Survey committees work to coordinate historical preservation with local group and state organizations. Throws Light On The Question WASHINGTON (AP)—Charles D. Everett, 20, told Washington police who arrested him Tuesday he held up liquor stores during the daylight hours only. "I'm afraid to be out on the street at night with all that money," he said.

Confidence Or Complacency, We've Got It

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Even the convening of Congress leaves the general feeling of confidence and complacency unshaken. There are plenty of things Congress could do for or against business, the taxpayer and the consumer. But the usual air of worry with which industry, the stock market and taxpayers view the convening of a new set of legislators is fairly muted this year. Perhaps Americans are just too used to by now to crises—most crises that didn't live up to advance billing—to believe that anything much will happen. Little things, yes. But big things that make much of a change in jobs, incomes, sales and profits, no.

Or they believe that whatever does happen is likely to make things moderately better, if it has any effect at all. Complacency is always branded as a risky, if not dangerous thing. And Americans doubtlessly count up their present blessings and prospects and call it confidence, rather than complacency.

Also, over the years they've watched the government try many schemes to ease their burdens or advance their prosperity. And here too, the advance billing often hasn't been borne out by the results. Much closer to most Americans than the halls of Congress are the factories or offices where they work. And right now their worries appear to be concentrated there. Mostly it's about job security. In both factory and office more output doesn't necessarily mean more jobs. Often it means more machines instead.

And a survey of consumer confidence in November and December by the University of Michigan's Survey Research Center finds that fears of spreading unemployment are still widespread. Otherwise, general confidence had climbed slightly since a tally last September. Slowly rising incomes bolstered it. Of the families surveyed 39 per cent said they were making more money than a year earlier.

Other surveys have shown that some families say they would spend any savings through a tax cut quickly. Others say they would use it to pay pressing debts. Many say they would like to turn it into various forms of personal savings—just in case things at the factory or the office didn't go as favorably as they now hope and expect. So what the Congress does will be watched—and every personal gain, however small, will be appreciated—but neither hopes nor fears are as high just now as in many previous session openings.

No Salary Boost Seen For Congress WASHINGTON (AP)—Top Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress reported they knew of no plans for boosting salaries of members of Congress this year. Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., the majority leader, was asked to comment on a published report that members are laying plans to vote themselves a big raise in their current $22,500 salaries. He told a reporter: "This is news to me. I know of no plans for members of Congress to change their salaries."

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., the GOP minority leader, said he knew of no such move. House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., said, "I never heard of it."

So, It Is Going To Be A Dynasty WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's shrewd political eye has lighted on one of his family as presidential timber or at least a sprig. The evidence, on Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's office wall, is a photograph of his son David, 7, sitting beside the pool on the White House south grounds. The picture bears this inscription from David's uncle, the President: "A future president inspects his property."

Robert Kennedy said the photograph was taken last year by the First Lady.

Texans Settled Into Office In Washington

lished in office suites vacated by non-returning members. Rep-at-large Joe Pool moved into Room 142, Cannon Building (heretofore called the Old House Office Building); Rep. Ed Foreman of the Odessa - Midland - El Paso district, moved into Room 316. Pool also started setting up two offices in Texas—in Dallas and in Austin. With the explanation that he is a congressman for 10 million Texans—not just his home city of Dallas—Pool picked his staff from over the state. Jack Fisk of Austin was named to run Pool's office in the state capital, in the Lowich Building. Cliff Bevins and Jack Gidcomb were put in charge of the Dallas operations. On the staff here are V. E. Smith of Fort Worth, Alicia Garza of Laredo, and two local young women with experience in congressional secretarial work, Jeanne Farnsworth and Carol LaVarn. Foreman, the Odessa Republican who ousted Rep. J. T. Rutherford, appointed Jim Reed of Midland his top aid. Others on his staff include Mrs. Olga Barrieta of El Paso and three local secretaries, Sylvia Comfort, Hope Huska and Diane Charuhas. Rep. Bob Casey of Houston took advantage of his mounting seniority to move to better quarters. He transferred from a suite in the Cannon Building to Room 1331, Longfellow Building (formerly called the New House Office Building), next door to Rep. Walter Rogers of Pampa and down

Huge Balloon Lands Near Austin

AUSTIN (AP)—A huge weather balloon landed Wednesday near Bergstrom Air Force Base. The Austin Statesman and city police were besieged with telephone calls concerning the 450-foot balloon. It came to earth five miles south of here. The balloon, sent aloft from Goodfellow Air Force Base in San Angelo, was filled with instruments designed to pick up wind patterns, humidity rates and other data for long-range forecasting.

Plans Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prime Minister Amintore Fanfani of Italy will visit Washington later this month.

Female Rules This Coast Guard Base

GALVESTON — Boots is the only female in the U. S. Coast Guard.
"She owns this base, lock, stock and barrel," said Lt. (jg) Theodore E. Deming, operations officer. "Just ask her."
The 6-year-old dog with white-with-black markings was described by Deming as "a gentle but powerful female of mixed origin, who rules the Coast Guard base."
Boots lived aboard the 180-foot buoy tender Iris for three years; she transferred to base duty following Hurricane Carla last year. "Boots has had more sea duty than I have," Lt. Cmdr. John L. Klenk, commanding officer at the station, said. "She was a real heroine during Carla. She rode out the storm with us on the Iris three days. We think Boots is a real good sea dog and an excellent shipmate."
Lt. Deming says Boots demanded a transfer from the Iris after the hurricane. Official orders were issued, signed, sealed and dated by the base's former CO, Capt. L. G. Haverland.
Boots has full run of the base, but considers operations headquarters her duty post.
She's a sort of operations officer, Deming said. "She has refused to go aboard the Iris since her stormy experience."
Boots accompanies Lt. Deming to lunch almost daily, stopping at the galley door for her food and waiting to return with the officer.
"We think Boots is about six years old, but she's just like a woman—cagey about telling her age," the officer said.
Every Guardman at the base knows and loves Boots, who answers to muster of troops daily. "Sometime she lines up with the men and participates in the drills and reviews," Deming said, "but we never know when she'll decide to take on the duties of our commander."
If a woman shows up in operations, Boots eyes her scornfully and in a fit of jealousy seems to bark: "What are you doing here?"
Mrs. Granahan
New Treasurer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Rep. Kathryn E. Granahan, D-Pa., has been sworn in as treasurer of the United States at a White House ceremony.
With President Kennedy standing by her side, Mrs. Granahan took the oath from Herbert Miller, assistant executive clerk of the White House.
"It is a pleasure to pass on this certificate (of appointment) to a distinguished former member of Congress and a great campaigner," Kennedy told her.
Mrs. Granahan, of Philadelphia, succeeds Mrs. Elizabeth Rudel Smith who resigned last April.

A Devotional For The Day

Lord, save us; we perish. (Matthew 8:25.)

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for Thy watchful care. We ask Thy forgiveness for disobedience and neglect of Thy commands. Grant us power to do Thy will. We thank Thee for salvation through Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Case Of Community Pride

Congratulations are in order to the officials and members of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association on their new home.

This is an outstanding facility, both in beauty and utility. It certainly conveys an image of pride and permanence on the part of the association, and it reflects an attitude of supreme confidence in the future of the community which it serves.

One of the striking things about the new building, however, is not alone in the cordiality and utility which has been created for customers but also in the consideration given the community. In this respect the First Federal has gone a second mile. All in all, there is likely nothing in this region that will excel the association's new home and few that will approach or equal it. This is a source of community pride, too.

Enterprise Needed

Dr. Heinz Nordhoff, president of Germany's Volkswagen company is at least one European who questions the traditional image of the American businessman as a "go-getter."

Anxious to obtain American suppliers for his operations in the United States, Dr. Nordhoff wrote 500 letters to American businessmen inviting them to sell him parts and materials. Less than 250 potential suppliers answered the letters. Of those that answered 40 per cent were perfunctory replies and less than 10 per cent exhibited any real interest in selling.

A composite picture of the American businessman, as viewed by European businessmen and reported by Roscoe Drummond in the Christian Science Monitor reveals: That the American businessmen are too inflexible and far from imaginative, have a lack of initiative and an indifference and absence of enterprise in seeking markets abroad for their products.

If there is even more than a germ of truth in this appraisal the United States will fare poorly indeed in the emerging European Common Market and no better in the world as a whole. One of the most competitive marketing situations in history is upon us. If we cannot export to the world at a competitive price, then we will surrender our old as well as our new markets.

Unfortunately business has its directors and those who fail to consider realistically the necessity of a fair profit. Unfortunately also, some businesses have their elements of complacency when it comes to crawling into the market place and slugging it out.

The Rights Of Congress

WASHINGTON—Yes, there is a Congress. It is composed of 435 representatives and 100 senators—all of them elected directly by the people of the United States.

For two months now, day after day, newspapers and television and radio have told of the activities of the President—conferences and speeches, statements on public policy and plans for legislative proposals. The country may have indeed gotten the impression that the President runs the government. Actually, the President proposes, but Congress disposes.

FOR UNDER A written Constitution, the President cannot interfere with the operations of Congress as specified in that document, and Congress cannot interfere with the exercise of any constitutional power delegated to the President.

Yet, as the 88th Congress goes into its first session, the impression the country has been given by some news dispatches and radio and TV discussions is that the President is trying to tell Congress what to do or for the length of its debates. Again and again, the Supreme Court has decided that these rules are solely within the power of Congress itself to prescribe.

THE PRESIDENT constitutionally can have nothing to say about the fight over the Senate or House rules. He has no voice in such matters. Strictly speaking, it is unconstitutional for him to endeavor to influence the votes of the members of either house on these questions, even though they may indirectly relate to the progress of his legislative proposals. The Constitution gives the President no right to lobby or to use his presidential office to secure the passage of legislation at any time, whether by the promise of or threats to withhold favors to members of Congress. He can recommend legislation to Congress, but he cannot coerce members of either house to vote as he demands.

THIS IS IMPORTANT to the integrity of democratic government today and in the future. Specifically, the House and Senate may each decide for itself how much power a minority in its membership shall have. This is a function that cannot be legally tampered with from the outside.

The authority of the House Rules Committee to conduct its business is entirely independent of the merits of legislative proposals themselves. A bill can be pigeonholed in any committee by a majority of the committee. But the House can, by petition of a majority of the members, get a bill to the floor for action.

AS FOR THE anti-filibuster rule in the Senate, in some instances it makes little difference, theoretically, whether a two-thirds or a three-fifths majority is necessary to end debate. Actually, the measures that are debated at length often have better than a one-third minority against ending debate. Today, for example, the so-called conservative "coalition" draws votes from both parties. Nobody knows whether giving the power to three-fifths, or 60 members, of the Senate to end debate will make it any easier to get such a vote in specific instances than under the present rule requiring two-thirds, or 67 members, of the Senate. When issues become acute and only a narrow majority in the Senate itself is in favor of a measure, it isn't hard to pick up a few votes to keep a filibuster going. The right to debate amendments at length also gives the minority an opportunity to prolong the discussion by introducing new amendments, all of which can be debated thoroughly.

A CONTROVERSY over the Senate rules has come up in recent years at the beginning of almost every session. No concrete legislative measures are usually being considered, though in the background generally is the "civil rights" issue. While the assumption is that only the Southerners are interested in this question, there are growing indications that Northern senators find themselves concerned about limitation on debate and "tag rule."

MEANWHILE, a lot of time will be used up on the rules problem in the first few days of the session. Oddly enough, if the rules are modified so as to diminish the rights of the minority in either the House or the Senate, this will be erroneously hailed in the headlines as a victory for the President. For he is not permitted under the Constitution to have a part in the making of the rules of either house. The reason for playing it up as a presidential victory or defeat is the assumption that back stage administration—in disregard of the Constitution—is using whatever influence it can command to cause members of Congress to vote as the White House dictates, rather than as they might really want to from the standpoint of their constituents.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

The Soviet Union once again is going through an agonizing reappraisal of its agricultural plan.

What is basically wrong with Russian agriculture was summed up pretty well, we imagine, in a recent report issued by a group of Americans who visited the Soviet Union and saw for themselves. As one spokesman put it, they saw "how not to run a farm." Essentially, the report said, Soviet farm failures stem from an almost complete lack of incentive on the part of farm labor to increase its productivity and on the strangling inefficiency of a total bureaucracy.

Obvious causes of Soviet farm stagnation that were apparent to the visitors included (1) a 40-year lag in pest control methods, (2) a 30-year lag in the use of farm machinery, and (3) a pitiful incompetence in quality control and standardization. But behind these obvious problems lurk the absence of incentives and unwieldy bureaucracy.

Among other things, this situation emphasizes one of the wondrous aspects of our American system of private enterprise that all of us tend to take for granted. Say an American farmer has a flat tire on his tractor. Does he stand around waiting for some bureaucrat to arrange to have it fixed? No, he does it himself or simply buys a new one, if that seems best. The price may not please him, but the supply ordinarily doesn't concern him in the least. If one store or dealer doesn't have what he needs, another one will.

In other words, the American isn't dependent upon some bureaucrat in an office somewhere having made the right decision as to how many tractor tires would be needed a month or a year. . . . The Communist system is at fault. Nature doesn't respond very well to bureaucratic decrees, and neither does human nature.

The vital lesson for us in all this is to realize where the source of our strength lies—in the free enterprise system—and to guard and defend it from all encroachment. . . . The magic is in the system. Let's hang on to it!

Arithmetic And Human Nature

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arithmetic makes sense until humans get mixed up in it.

This is why President Kennedy, who went to Harvard, has trouble making his numbers come out right when he does his homework on Congress.

Yet if numbers mean anything—and you'd think they would in Congress—Kennedy is in pretty good shape compared with other presidents in the past 100 years.

BUT FROM the way he talks he expects rather rough going with the legislators who opened shop Wednesday even though his own Democrats are far more plentiful than Republicans.

No matter how much he adds and subtracts, his problem is getting the Democrats, whose party made a lot of campaign promises in the 1960 elections, to stick together and vote as a party.

He had the same trouble doing it these past two years, although the two parties were divided just about the same, with the Democrats away out in front.

In the Senate this year there are 67 Democrats and 33 Republicans, a plurality of 34 for the Democrats.

SINCE THERE are 100 seats in the Senate, the Democrats' 67 give them 67 per cent of the membership.

In the past 100 years only four other presidents—Lincoln, Johnson, Grant, and Franklin D. Roosevelt—had a higher percentage of their own party in the Senate.

The Democrats outnumber the Republicans in the House—which has 435 seats—258 to 176. There's one vacancy.

This means they have a plurality of 52 members or 59 per cent of the total membership.

Of the 19 men who have sat in the White House since 1863, including Kennedy, 10 others had at least one in their presidency had a higher percentage of their own party in the House.

THOSE 10 WERE Lincoln, Johnson, Grant, Cleveland, Theodore Roosevelt, Wilson, Harding, Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Truman.

Nevertheless, although Kennedy is not as well-fixed in the House as 10 other presidents, he's better off than eight.

But all the arithmetic gets goofy because no one ever learned how to condition all the members of a president's party in Congress to shout "Yes, sir,"

Narcotic Addiction Not Easy To Detect

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: What signs should one watch for to determine whether an acquaintance is addicted to dope?—Mrs. A. B.

Contrary to fiction (written or word-of-mouth) addiction to narcotics is not easy to detect in its early stages.

Deprived of drugs, addicts become nervous and sometimes even violent. But they return to normal behavior just as rapidly, once they get drugs. Pupils of the eyes are usually small; however, there is so much variation in people that this is hardly a reliable sign; it's no more than a helpful indication at times.

As an addict becomes more dependent, he ultimately turns to injecting drugs into veins of the arm with a hypodermic, and then the needle scars are a giveaway.

Dear Dr. Molner: Our two-year-old grandson speaks a few words, but nouns only. No verbs. His hearing is very sharp, and he has a good memory and seems bright. He mimics very much, and communicates most of his wishes by pointing to what he wants, or gesturing. We are very worried that he may be mute.—A. B.

Mute, when he speaks words? Of course not. I think you're expecting too much from him. There is a lot of difference in the age at which youngsters decide to talk.

I've even known of youngsters that didn't talk at all—not even nouns—until about three years' old. And at least one such hasn't stopped talking since!

what he wants by pointing, why should he talk? Overprotection and anticipation of a child's wants may, indeed, slow up their need to speak, but I don't know that this necessarily means any harm in the long run.

The best way to promote speech in a child is to talk to him in adult language (but simple words, of course) and he's likely to try to imitate it. When the child is a good mimic, that helps. I wouldn't worry about this youngster.

A polyp is an abnormal growth. A papilla is a perfectly normal thing which projects from a structure, which project from an eighth to a quarter of an inch at the inside outlet of the rectum. (By definition, a papilla can be any normal projection, such as a nipple.)

A polyp (an intestinal one, but this does not apply to a polyp in the nose) has a tendency to become malignant and hence requires watchfulness.

Enlarged papillae, on the other hand, are swollen due to inflammation or irritation. Since almost any kind of tissue can become malignant, we can't say that papillae can't do so. However, a mere enlargement of a papilla isn't alarming.

Never take a chance on diabetes! For better understanding of this disease, write to Dr. Molner in care of the Big Spring Herald for a copy of the booklet, "Diabetes—The Sneaky Disease." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of handling.

Because of the tremendous volume of mail received daily, Dr. Molner regrets that he cannot answer individual letters, but whenever possible he uses readers' questions in his column.

Dear Dr. Molner: Will you ex-

Around The Rim

Ticklish Times For The City Family

These are tempestuous times for over 200 residents; employees of the City of Big Spring. Between now and April 1, decisions will be made that will affect every single city employee—his pay, his working conditions, and his equipment.

Likewise, it is an important period for the rest of us, and these decisions will affect the services we expect from the city and the amount of taxes and fees we are required to pay.

THE CITY administration and city commission are faced with the annual task of drawing up a city budget, which will be effective April 1 and govern expenditures for the following fiscal year. All major equipment purchases, salary increases, and number of additional employees must be approved now or—in general—wait another year.

As usual, the commission is faced with playing a game of catch-up, trying to keep pace with a growing city. As the Master Plan expands major services, money must be found to maintain or support these improvements. This year, the Master Plan calls for two fire stations, from operating funds, the commission must employ firemen and purchase equipment.

THE PUBLIC WORKS department has similar problems. More paved streets under the Master Plan program require maintenance, more new subdivisions require expanded garbage collection and extended utility lines, to mention a few.

The police department has made great progress, but is still woefully short of manpower and equipment. The expanded city is still patrolled by the same number of cars and men as when the city was half its present size.

And in practically all departments, the pay scales are still low in comparison with industry and other cities.

THESE ARE SOME of the problems faced by the commission as it mulls over the annual problems. As in the past, the final answer to many of these problems will certainly be "wait until next year," a familiar song to city employees.

In the face of the city's growth, the commission has been remarkably frugal in the last three years. Despite a growing demand for services, the commission and administration have held the line on a tax increase. Water, sewer and garbage rates were increased once. Each year, a tax increase was discussed, only to be postponed, and it probably will be discussed again this year.

AS THE CITY continues to grow, the demand for more and better service will continue. Whether this year or the next, or even the next, eventually a tax increase will be a necessity. Whenever it comes, it will be a difficult decision for the commissioners to make; just as it has been difficult all these years promising city employees better salaries, better equipment and better working conditions "next year."

These are tempestuous times for the city commissioners, too.—GLENN COOTES

It's Just Not Worth $1,000

Flattery will usually get anyone some place with me. A little soft soap goes a long way toward making most columnists happy, in my experience of the breed.

But flattery is going to get some Democratic fund raisers no place with this member of the true faith, who has just been invited to chip in $1,000 for a dinner in honor of President Kennedy on Jan. 18.

IN THE FIRST PLACE, I am staggered that anyone thinks I can pay that sum even for a political blue-plate special, and—in the second—that I can eat that many vittles. It is probably a noble thing to try to pay off the party debt through breaking bread, but not through breaking me.

I am one of the party faithful to whom the $5 table d'hôte is an adventure in expensive-account living, and a $1,000-a-plate dinner smacks of a Cecil B. de Mille bacchanalian revel wherein slave girls light Nero's cigar with a treasury note.

NOT TO PUT too fancy a face on it, I was brought up on plain living and high thinking, for the simple reason that my Democratic forebears couldn't afford any other. And before it plans any further $1,000-a-plate repasts, the party of my choice and inheritance ought to ponder the fact that if I had $1,000 to pay for a dinner I might, in all probability, be a Republican.

From time to time, in the not-too-distant past, I have complained about the number of $100-per-person dinners, testimonials and fund-raising events to which I am invited. Even these are pointless flattery. Now to have the ante raised tenfold, as far as I am concerned, is merely an exercise in hope over experience on the part of the Democratic party fund raisers.

FROM THE invitation and advance publicity, it isn't at all certain that President Kennedy will even appear at the $1,000-a-plate dinner, which goes to show how well the Kennedys eat at home. But even were he to appear, such is my standing in the party that I would be so far below the salt that I might as well be on a salt-free diet. It would be just my luck to be so far down the table that I wouldn't rate a glimpse of Mrs. Kennedy's latest hairdo.

SINCE THIS invitation arrived, I have been trying to think of someone for whose conversation at table I would be willing to swap $1,000. Jack? Lyndon? Charlie? Ev? Nelson? George? Dick? Barry? And the answer to all is "NO!"

Why pay out fancy money for something that's going to be a drug on the market by the time the new Congress is open a fortnight and a commodity that is sure to be so fulsome in 1964 that we shall all be snapping off radio and teevee for surcease?

Now, if it were possible, it might be worth $1,000 to break bread with Socrates or Plato (Aristotle would be a bit sticky, probably), or Dido. It would be interesting to get her first-person story about why she took on so. Or wouldn't anyone else like to know what the last Mrs. Julius Caesar thought of her husband?

AT ONE TIME it might have been worth $1,000 to know what Cleopatra thought of J. Caesar, but I've out of Cleopatra at the moment. Overexposure, so to speak. Or a dinner with Sir Francis Bacon, discussing the authorship of Shakespeare's output, could be worth a grand.

But $1,000 for a dinner with a mixed grill of contemporary politicians? Someone is out of his mind, and it ain't me. Let 'em lower the boom to $10 and I might be willing to help out.

Goldwater As 'Mr. Republican'

WASHINGTON — "Mr. Conservative" wants an additional handle to his name.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona would like to earn the right at this congressional session to be known as a top flight legislator. He's out to close the prestige gap on "Mr. Republican" as the late Sen. Taft came to be known for party and parliamentary leadership.

THIS MAY BE the year to do it—or to make a beginning. As 1962 opened Goldwater ranked 26th in seniority among 100 senators. Since then, death, defeat and retirement have removed Senators Chavez, Wiley, Caperton, Kerr, Schoepfel, Dvorshak, Butler, Francis, Chase, and Bush.

Goldwater moves into the top layer of the Senate. Among the 33 Republicans he is headed in seniority only by Aiken, Hickel, Engle, Saltonstall, Margaret Smith, Milton Young, John Williams, Carlson, Bennett, Dirksen, Mundt and Kuchel. In the shadowy hierarchy of the Capitol, rank has his privileges.

LAST YEAR Goldwater gained a coveted seat on the Armed Services Committee. He's ranking member on the Committee on Education and Welfare, and will have there a new Kennedy for a sparring partner. It was against Sen. John F. Kennedy and against Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy that Goldwater sharpened his anti-Labor punches in years gone by.

Goldwater has on tap several bills for reforming labor legislation. The most ingenious is a gimmick that would throw Reverse English on the law that governs compulsory unionism. As things stand today, any state can invoke Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act and vote itself voluntary unionism, or the right-to-work. Goldwater's gimmick is to make right-to-work the law of the land, but allow States to vote themselves a union shop provision—if they like.

THE BRONZED Arizona also plans a bill that would direct the Labor Secretary to bring law suits for workers who declare their rights violated by union leadership. He has another bill for a secret strike vote upon petition of 30 per cent of the affected workers. He will re-introduce his last year's bill to allow tax credits for education, thus rendering Federal Aid to Education unnecessary.

Relieved of the heavy speaking schedule he carried as Elections Committee chairman, Goldwater will have more time for his floor duties. He will fight the President's Skybolt cancellation. He will battle the Congo policy. He has figures to show that government relief jumped 170 per cent—from $13 billion to $38 bil-

Officials See Hope In High-Level Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials expressed hope today that periodic high level talks with Soviet representatives, such as the one now under way here, will lead eventually to a breakthrough in improving East-West relations. Major Kennedy administration hopes at the moment still center on the possibility of getting an American-British agreement with the Soviet Union for a nuclear weapons test ban. This is due in part to the belief that the widening split between the Soviet Union and Red China may influence Soviet nuclear test policy.

Kelsay Meek Gets Government Post

Kelsay R. Meek, Dallas, a former Big Spring resident, has accepted an assignment in the Department of the Interior in Washington, D.C.

A teacher in a Dallas high school, Meek was invited to Washington in December by Rep. Henry Gonzalez of San Antonio and was interviewed at the department. Meek is a 1958 graduate of Big Spring High School and holds both A.B. and M.A. degrees in political science from Trinity University in San Antonio. Since his graduation he has been a government teacher at Dallas. Mrs. Meek is the former Mary Kay Range, Mesquite, and she also is a Dallas teacher. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Meek, now name their home in Stanton.

Mass Jump Planned

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A mass parachute jump by more than 50 soldiers will be staged Saturday at Camp Gary near San Marcos. The soldiers are training in advanced medical aid procedures at Brooke Army Medical Center.

Type-Casting Is Bitter Complaint Of TV Actors

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The most bitter complaint of successful television stars involves a hallowed Hollywood practice called type-casting.

Hugh O'Brien, during the last two seasons of "Wyatt Earp," worried that he would never be able to get away from a horse and six-shooter. Ann Sothern feared she was stuck for life in a comedy role of private secretary. Raymond Burr did a few weeks of summer stock last summer, playing the lead in "Critics' Choice," just to prove he was somebody besides Perry Mason. Jane Wyatt recently was delighted to play an unhappy woman with an alcohol problem as a change from the perfect housewife.

The problem, happily, is not confined to those with important star names. It also afflicts a hardy, skillful and busy group of featured players. These are the television regulars who work so often that their faces are almost as familiar as those of the stars, but whose names get lost somewhere in the long lists of credits.

Such an actor is Murray Hamilton. We've all seen him many times—as a villain in "Gunsmoke," and "The Untouchables," as a psychopathic killer in Alfred Hitchcock shows, as a prosecuting attorney in "The Defenders." He's a pleasant-faced man of 38—looks younger—whose principal career problem is versatility. "I think that's really hurting," he said. "Once a producer puts you in a role, he never seems to see you doing anything else. After I was first cast as a heavy in 'The Untouchables,' I couldn't ever persuade them that I could also do something else. I could go on doing psychopathic killers forever for another producer."

Hamilton is determined to break the mold, regardless of its penalty in terms of income. He will soon emerge as costar in a Broadway comedy, "The Heroine," whose opening is held up by the New York newspaper strike. "It may not be a smash," he admitted, "but at least the right people—the producers and the theater people—may see it. And it will show I can do comedy."

"What every serious actor wants is to be a trouble shooter. That's the guy who is known to be able to tackle almost any kind of role—and gets called when a producer doesn't know what to do with a part. "As a featured player," he said sadly, "people recognize me, but they rarely know my name. They say, 'I've seen you on television,' which isn't exactly the identification a performer wants."

Cold Wave Warnings

By The Associated Press

Cold wave warnings were hoisted for most of Texas as a new mass of arctic air that brought blizzards to the Great Plains states roared toward Texas Thursday. The front was expected to push into the upper Panhandle late Thursday afternoon and spread rapidly over the state during the night. Lows ranging down to zero and occasional snow have been predicted for the Panhandle by dawn Friday and freezing weather has been forecast for all of the state except the southernmost sections. Livestock warnings also have been issued for much of Texas as the first major storm of the new year barreled southward toward the state. The U.S. Weather Bureau said that there was also the danger of freezing rains in the central and southern parts of the state before dawn Friday. The new storm was expected to snap the unusually mild weather which has prevailed over the state for the first 10 days of 1963. Skies were fair over Texas early Thursday morning except in Southeast Texas, where they were partly cloudy. Dalhart, with 29 degrees, was the only point reporting freezing temperature. Elsewhere readings ranged up to 65 degrees at Brownsville. McAllen recorded a balmy 83 degrees Wednesday afternoon for the highest reading in the state. Bidwell Freed NEW YORK (AP)—J. Truman Bidwell, former board chairman of the New York Stock Exchange, was acquitted Wednesday on income tax evasion charges.

Tax Charges

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A Waco sand and gravel contractor has been indicted on charges of federal income tax evasion. The indictment Wednesday charges that James High, 67, evaded $11,674 in taxes between 1956 and 1959.

Why Newspaper Advertising is The Advertiser's BEST BUY

... of the total of 10 Billion Dollars spent on advertising in America, nearly one-third was placed in Daily Papers!

Why do advertisers show such confidence in the power of newspaper advertising?

They know that advertising is a two-way street . . . that readers are constantly looking for a myriad of goods, services, bargains and ideas. They know the people read newspapers thoroughly.

Experience has shown them that newspaper readers are enthusiastic prospects who know what they want and that the place to find it is in their daily newspaper. Advertisers know that their daily newspaper reaches more prospective customers more effectively and economically than any other medium.

Tail Of Talent

That fellow on the left with furry ears may be Baltimore's answer to Picasso. Jack, the burro, has just sold the above picture for $50. Talent scout Arthur Watson, the Baltimore zoo director, read that Soviet Premier Khrushchev described abstract art as looking as if it were done with a donkey's tail. Watson decided to Jack to work, and Jack, with the help of a paint-smeared tail, produced "Black Wisk." Watson is also holding additional orders for the burro's talented tail.

Forgery Plot Aimed At Freeing Con

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Alcatraz Warden Olin Blackwell, who uncovered a plot to free a notorious bank robber with forged documents, said Wednesday night it's possible a convict could be freed by such papers "but it's highly unlikely."

"We double check all such orders. It was last week when we got this court order setting aside a term for Roy Drake. The reference numbers to his commitment papers didn't jibe."

"So, I sent the papers back, suggesting maybe there was an error, perhaps a typographical error. But even beyond that we would have double checked had everything appeared OK."

"In Washington, the Justice Department said it is conducting an investigation of the plot but declined to comment on its scope."

The Indianapolis Star said the forgery of papers to set aside one of two 15-year sentences imposed on Roy Rudolph Drake, 38, of Indianapolis, in 1956, was discovered Monday as the result of Blackwell's action.

The court order setting aside the 15-year term bore the rubber-stamped signature of federal judge Cale J. Holder of Indianapolis.

Also termed forgeries were a cover letter to Drake explaining the order, a similar letter to Blackwell and a memorandum entry, all bearing the forged signatures of court clerk Robert G. Newbold.

Newbold said a preliminary investigation had cleared members of his staff.

Had the order gone through, Drake would not have been freed but would have been made eligible for immediate parole.

"With the forgers we have nowadays," Blackwell said, "it's conceivable papers like these could be made good enough to stand up. But we check so carefully I doubt it would work."

"I don't know Drake's role in this. I do know whoever handled the paper work knew an awful lot about Drake and about his case. Everything got here almost letter perfect — through the regular mail."

Drake led a wild career of crime before he was captured in New Orleans following a pair of Indianapolis bank holdups that netted $82,500. Prior to that he broke out of California's San Quentin prison twice and once escaped a Missouri prison.

In 1943, he took part in a $100,000 holdup of the Beverly Hills, Calif., hotel.

Blackwell has been Alcatraz warden for a little over a year. He's had a hectic time of it. Last June three bank robbers—brothers John and Clarence Anglin from Alabama and Frank Morris of New Orleans—staged the most carefully executed escape from "the Rock" in its 28-year federal prison history. Officially, they are presumed drowned.

In August a self-taught prison lawyer, Charles Benton Russell of Fresno, Calif., successfully challenged a firearms law conviction under which he was sent to Alcatraz following his escape from a Reno, Nev., jail. He was freed by court order.

On Dec. 16, two more bank robbers broke out. One of them, John Paul Scott, 35, of Leitchfield, Ky., became the first escapee known to have reached the mainland. He was found naked ashore more dead than alive. His partner, Darl Dee Parker, 31, of Canton, Ohio, was picked shivering off a rock 100 yards from the prison island.

Three Enter Guilty Pleas

Three defendants who were indicted Monday by the Martin County grand jury for forgery, pleaded guilty to the charges against them Wednesday.

Gil Jones, district attorney, said that Charles Popcoe, Bill Valentine and Concepcion Diaz Melendez were each sentenced to three years in the penitentiary by Judge Ralph Caton.

The men allegedly were involved in the attempted forgery of stolen money orders.

Most Texans Are For Rules Change

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Texas delegation in the U. S. House supported the administration proposal for a 15-man Rules Committee by a vote of 14 - 9 Wednesday.

The delegation's two Republicans — Ed Foreman and Bruce Alger — were joined by seven Democrats in opposing the controversial rules committee issue which was passed 235 - 196.

It was the first day in Congress for both Foreman and Congressman-at-large Joe Pool, a Democrat. The two freshmen members were sworn in earlier in the opening day ceremonies.

The vote of the 23-member delegation, which is one larger than in the last Congress for the 15-man rules group — Reps. Brooks, Gonzalez, Mahon, Patman, Pange, Pool, Purcell, Roberts, Teague, Thomas, Thompson, Thornberry, Wright and Young, Against — Reps. Alger, Beckworth, Burleson, Casey, Dowdy, Fisher, Foreman, Kilgore and Rodgers.

Welcoming ceremonies for new and returning members were held and others are planned for later.

The Texas State Society of Washington will hold a reception for Sunday afternoon in the sparious House Ways and Means Committee room so that its thousand members can meet the new members and greet the returning ones.

Rep. Wright Patman, Texas, a Democrat and successor to the late speaker Sam Rayburn as dean of the Lone Star State delegation in the 88th Congress, and Mrs. Patman have invited all Texas congressmen and their families to a luncheon in the House restaurant Saturday.

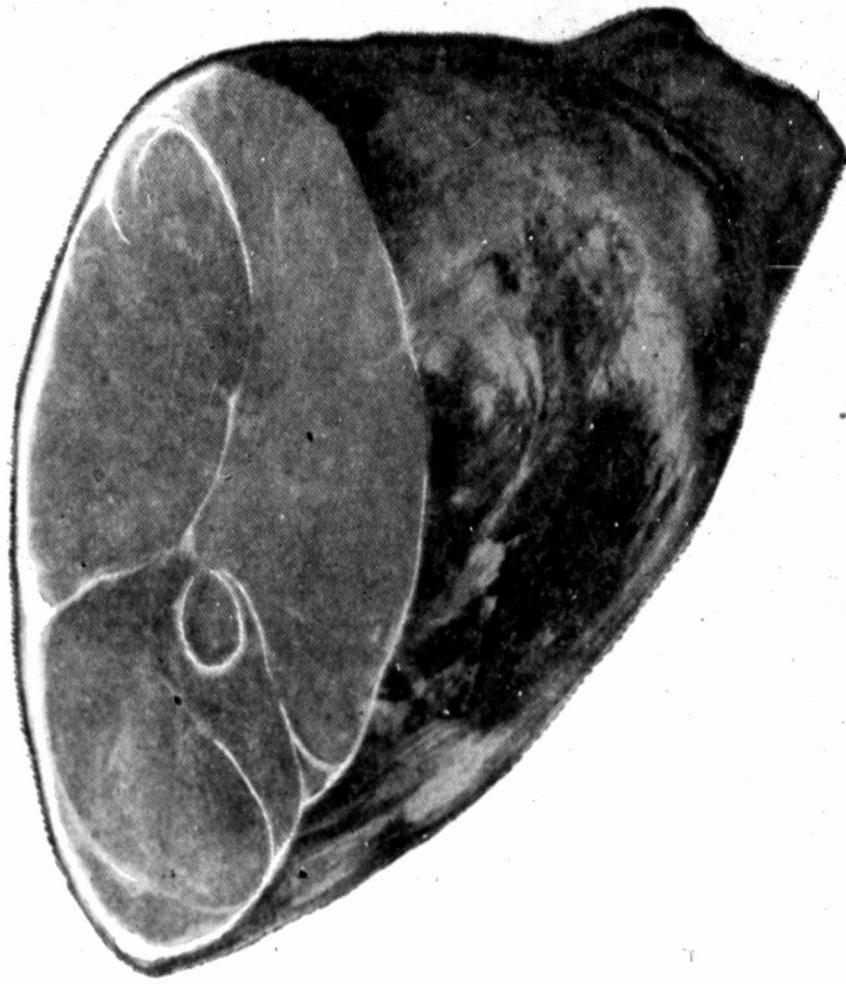

Wednesday was the first opening of Congress since 1913 in which the late Borah congressman was not a participant. Rayburn opened the 87th Congress two years ago, then died late in 1961.

In the Senate, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas presided at the opening ceremonies of that body. He administered the oath of office to all new and re-elected senators.

Johnson strode over to the House side of the capitol Wednesday to have a late lunch with the Texas congressional delegation. He also attended some of the reception parties in the capitol.

Rep. Joe Kilgore, Democrat of McAllen, is scheduled to be the delegation's chairman during the coming session.
