Shamrock (Texas) Ready For Big Day

SHAMROCK, Tex. (AP)—A bit of Ireland comes alive in the Texas Panhandle Saturday when Shamrock throws the biggest St. Patrick's Day celebration in its history.

This town of 3,000 virtually has been covered in green and white banners and bunting. The weekly newspaper has been printed with green ink and the menu for the big kickoff banquet is in Gaelic.

Shiny green top hats are everywhere, and shamrocks by the thousands will be flown in from Ireland.

All male citizens are required to have a donegal (Irish-style) beard, or carry a "shaving permit" with them at all times.

Thirty-six hours of continuous entertainment has been planned, centering around a two-mile long parade down Main Street Saturday. This will feature forty-five elaborate floats and a score of bands, drill teams and horse clubs.

Twenty Shamrock beauties will compete for the "Miss Irish Rose" title, all wearing green skirts and white peasant blouses.

A sound stage has been erected in the center of town for stage bands, Western music, twist contests, fiddlers and brass bands.

As one resident put it: "Everybody in this town is involved in St. Patrick's Day. We start preparing in the middle of January."

There are 27 volunteer committees handling the affair, which is sponsored by the St. Patrick's Association, Inc.

The fete began when the Shamrock band director decided in 1935 that the town should take advantage of its name and put on an annual Irish celebration. Each year things have gotten bigger.

About 40,000 visitors from surrounding counties are expected for the fun Saturday, with plenty of tourists stopping off for the night.

The rest of the year Shamrock is a quiet place, surrounded by cotton fields and stock farms. It got its name by sheer chance. The town had to submit three names when it applied for its post office, and someone suggested kiddingly that the third choice be Shamrock, for luck. It turned out the other two names were in use in Texas.

BULLETIN

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Bob Rogers, head basketball coach at Texas A&M, resigned today effective April 1. Rogers said he has made no plans.

A&M tied with Rice as runner-up to champion Texas in the Southwest Conference basketball race.

A&M won 9 conference games and lost 5, and had a season record of 15 victories and 9 defeats.

Powder Plant Blast May Have Killed 3

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A section of the Trojan Powder Co. plant blew up today, possibly killing three men and injuring eight, none seriously.

Newsmen, who were denied access to the scene, said the report of the number of dead was not confirmed.

The injured men, in Allentown Hospital, declined to discuss the accident, saying all information would have to come from company officers or a public relations man.

These officials were unavailable.

Senate Worker To Testify At Cotton Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has authorized one of its employees to testify at a review hearing on some of the cotton acreage deals of Billie Sol Estes.

The resolution, passed Thursday by a unanimous voice vote, permits Arthur Kaplan, of the staff of the Senate Investigations subcommittee, to testify before an Agriculture Department review committee at a hearing to be held in Fort Stockton, Tex. The case involves a firm known as Agriculture Inc., one of Estes' companies.

The department has declared transfer of the cotton allotments from Oklahoma farmers to Estes was illegal. The review committee is considering an appeal from this finding.

Senate employees are forbidden to testify in proceedings of other branches of the government without permission.

Carr To Widen Slant Action

FORT WORTH (AP)—Atty Gen Waggoner Carr says he plans to employ at least four outstanding members of the Texas Bar to help try civil and criminal cases arising from the investigation of slant-drilled oil wells in East Texas.

The state attorney general, speaking Thursday at the Southwest District meeting of the American Petroleum Institute's division of Production, promised vigorous support in disposing of the cases.

He said his office has filed 57 civil penalty suits and predicted 200 more such cases will be filed.

Carr said his office has the primary responsibility for trying these cases and that he has assigned some of his best legal talent to the job.

He added "it is our intention to employ the services of at least four of the outstanding members of the Texas Bar, two criminal and two civil, trial lawyers."

Grand juries in East Texas have returned indictments in 300 criminal cases, he said, and the responsibility for their prosecution is that of the local district attorneys.

Stock Market Turns Upside

NEW YORK (AP)—Gains of selected blue chips gave stock market averages a nudge to the upside early this afternoon, but the over-all list was mixed in quiet trading.

Stocks firmed after their spell of late weakness Thursday and cautious investment demand resulted in scattered improvement.

While changes of most key stocks were fractional, some high-quality issues advanced a point or so.

Oils, some chemicals and utilities benefited from buying, but there was no strong group leadership.

The Associated Press average of 90 stocks at noon was up .3 at 256.6 with industrials up .5, rails unchanged, and utilities up .2.

Civil Rights Panel Member Arrested

Students interested in learning more about possible careers made use of Career Day discussion opportunities this morning at Goliad Junior High School. The sessions began at 9 a.m. and were to continue through 3 p.m. Here, Helen Hart tells her intent listeners about a career in secretarial work. Business representatives from many careers gave their time today to tell students about work which they may do some day.

Secretarial Aspirants

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Rights Commission said today one of its staff members was arrested in Greenwood, Miss., Thursday night for refusing to use segregated facilities at a bus station.

The commission said Chester F. Relyea, its assistant general counsel, was released after being held for about an hour.

Relyea was in Greenwood investigating complaints of voter intimidation, shootings and discrimination in the surplus food program there, the commission said.

Greenwood has been the scene of three recent shootings, the spokesman added.

Relyea was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Wilbur Smith after he refused to obey an order to use the "white" waiting room at the bus terminal, the commission said.

While he was held at the police station, the deputy told him, Relyea reported that some charge would be "thought up" to hold him because it was necessary that "the races be kept separate in Greenwood."

General counsel Clyde Ferguson said formal complaints would be lodged with both the Justice Department and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

He said the commission will continue to seek an end to "the unconstitutional and illegal practices still extant in Mississippi."

Cubans In Car Try To Crash Way Into Uruguayan Embassy

HAVANA (AP)—Four Cubans in a stolen car tried to crash their way to asylum in the Uruguayan Embassy's residence in a Havana suburb Thursday, press reports said today. Cuban militiamen outside opened fire, killed one and wounded another.

Whether any made it into the residence or were arrested was not clear in the account carried by Prensa Latina, the Cuban news agency.

Uruguayan officials were not immediately available for comment.

The shooting incident is bound to put a new strain on the frayed relations between Uruguay and Cuba.

The agency asserted that after the shooting broke out, Cuban refugees appeared with arms on the balcony of the embassy residence. It also charged that when a Cuban Foreign Ministry official appeared at the scene, one of the men on the roof pointed a gun at him.

"The presence of rifles carrying arms is evident proof of the violation of the right of asylum," the agency charged.

The agency labeled the incident grave and charged Cuban refugees had turned the embassy residence into "a refuge of delinquents." About 250 Cuban refugees are believed to be in the compound in the Havana suburb of Cubanacan. The embassy itself is downtown.

The fact that all four of the Cubans were named indicated the

Bill To President

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress sent to President Kennedy today legislation extending the military draft for four more years.

The draft law was passed by the House of Representatives Thursday and is expected to reach the president's desk by Friday.

The bill extends the draft from 1965 to 1970, a four-year extension. It also provides for a two-year extension of the draft for those who have already served in the military.

Mexicans Plan Petrochemical Complex Spending

REYNOSA, Mexico (AP)—The Reynosa Chamber of Commerce announced that $5 million, including $1 million for a new petrochemical plant at the Petrosol Mexicano complex here, will be spent by the federal government in the northern border area within the next year.

The Reynosa Chamber of Commerce said President Adolfo Lopez Mateos will start some Reynosa projects during his visit here Monday.

Some such projects are in Matamoros and Nuevo Laredo.

YIDDISH SONS OF ERIN

Matzo Balls Turn Green For St. Patrick's Fete

NEW YORK (AP)—Traditional Jewish matzo balls go Irish green for the occasion—and so do a lot of other things—as the Loyal League of Yiddish Sons of Erin celebrate St. Patrick's Day and Purim tonight with gay music and laughter.

After a banquet, presided over by a black-haired colleen named Cohen, about 180 guests will have a chance to enjoy their interpretations of Irish jigs and the Hora, a Jewish folk dance.

Their gathering place on Manhattan's East Side is decorated with shamrocks and the Jewish and Irish flags.

Only green olives will be allowed on the premises. And floating in the consommé will be the green matzo balls.

"You'd be amazed at the number of New Yorkers who are of Irish-Jewish descent," says Ann Lantini, treasurer of the league, a Jewish lass born in County Cork who attended a convent school.

Leatrice Cohen, 22, brown-eyed and 5-foot-3, will wear the shamrock-becked beauty crown which she won competing against 60 other Irish-Jewish girls for the title of Colleen Queen Esther Her father came from Belfast.

The St. Patrick's Day Purim tie-up is serious—more or less. St. Pat's Day falls on March 17, while Purim is celebrated approximately at the same time. This year it fell on March 10.

Purim is the Jewish festival celebrating the deliverance of the Jews from the plotting by Haman, Persian royal minister, through the intercession of Queen Esther.

20 Steers, 70 Lambs Are Sold At Auction

Twenty steers and 70 lambs, representing nearly 25,000 pounds of choice meat (on the hoof) sold at the auction sale which climaxed the 1963 edition of the Howard County FFA and 4-H Club Fat Stock show last night.

The steers ranged in price from $125 a pound—paid to Mark and Maxwell Barr for their grand champion—downward to 37 cents. Only two steers brought the lower price.

The reserve grand champion steer, sold by Buz Mann, was bid in for $1 a pound.

A syndicate, composed of Tom Good, M. M. Edwards, First Federal Savings & Loan and Ed Carpenter, paid the Barr brothers $1,175 for the 940 pound animal. This was nearly $70 over the price paid for the champion last year.

Mark Barr was the owner of the 1962 winner. In the past two years, the Barr brothers have sold three steers for better than $1,000 each.

One of the buyers had a more than casual interest in the purchase of the Vincent lads' steer—Ed Carpenter, state legislator, is Mark and Maxwell Barr's grandfather.

Howard County Hospital Foundation, Cowper Hospital and Clinic, Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital and Lorin McDowell teamed up to pay Mann $910 for his reserve champion.

The three champion lambs each brought their young owners $1 per pound. Coahoma State Bank paid $85 for the champion finewool lamb shown by Sam Oakes. Polard Chevrolet paid Debra Buchanan $110 for her Crossbred Champion and Lucy Thornton received $95 for her prize winning Southdown from Smith Coleman Oil Co.

Sixty-seven other lambs were sold at prices which averaged about 42 cents a pound. One or two surged higher during the bidding. Jimmy Crawford was paid 47 cents for his 100 pound Crossbred lamb by Cosden; Terry Seochting got 47 cents for her 95 pound Southdown from H. F. Schwarzenbach. Creighton Tire Company paid the same price for Bob Adkins' lamb.

Two lambs sold for 50 cents a pound. One was Vernon Long's Finewool, sold to Walker Drug, and the second was Johnny Knapp's lamb bought by Southwestern Tool Co.

Bidding went high when Blake Talbot's 70 pound, 14th place light weight finewool was paraded into the ring. R. A. Middleton bought the lamb for 72 cents a pound—next to the champions, the highest price paid for a lamb.

Cosden Petroleum Corporation followed its usual custom of bidding in all of the entries shown by sons and daughters of its employees. The company bought eight lambs and one steer.

Average price (excluding the two champions) for the steers was 39.26 cents. Resale bid of 22.90 by Piggly Wiggly prevailed for the beef while M. K. Melton & Son Meat and Produce Company's (San Antonio) resale offer of 15.40 for lambs was high. Average price for lambs, with the three champions eliminated, was 42.60 cents.

Randell Sherrord was auctioneer and the sale moved at high speed. The 90 animals had been sold, awards made to the steer and lamb champion showmen and the winner of the Loy Acuff Award in two hours. The big barn was filled with spectators throughout the evening despite the chilly night.

Here Helbig said the total of the sale will not be known until the records have been posted and

Top Showmen Receive Trophies

Olen Fryar, Coahoma FFA member, is the champion lamb showman of the Howard County FFA and 4-H Club Fat Stock Show. Robert Haney, 14-year-old 4-H Club member, is the champion steer showman.

These youngsters were singled out last night as the choice of an anonymous judge who watched all of the exhibitors in action Wednesday.

Trophies were presented to both winners Thursday.

School Bus Hit By Car

None of those injured were listed in serious condition. Doctors released four of the students after emergency treatment.

Winter Gives Sampling Of Coming Spring

By The Associated Press
Winter started its last week of a three-month stand today with a sampling of spring-like weather in the major part of the nation. But there were some wet spots in the West, with snow and rain moving from the Pacific Northwest and Northern California into Idaho and western Utah. Snow fell in higher elevations but amounts were mostly light. However, the storm earlier dumped up to six inches of snow in coastal mountains in Northern California.

The snow headed into Wyoming, Colorado, Montana and the Western Dakotas, with rain across some areas eastward into Wisconsin. Only other wet spots this morning were along coastal areas of the Carolinas. Some cloudiness was reported in the southern Plains and scattered sections of the southern Atlantic Coast and Ohio Valley. Mostly fair weather prevailed in other sections of the country. Temperatures over the bulk of the nation were in the 30s and 40s, with readings in the 50s and higher in the Gulf Coast states and the Southwest. Coolest spots were northern New England, the northern Great Lakes, with the mercury dropping into the teens.

No storms or rain hit the flood-stricken sections of the Southeast where the huge cleanup operations continued. Many counties in the hardest hit regions of five states—Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee, Virginia and Alabama—have been declared disaster areas. The first major floods of the season have caused millions of dollars damage to property.

Crude Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Bureau of Mines forecast market demand for domestic crude oil during April at 7.21 million barrels daily. This compares with demand of 7.25 million for March.

Flood In Kentucky Hills

The snake-like path of the raging North Fork of Kentucky River is shown sweeping through the towns of Hazard, top, and Lothair, bottom. The flood, one of the worst in eastern Kentucky history, forced more than 25,000 persons to flee their homes with property damage running in the millions of dollars.

Bristling Cross Examination Highlights Estes Trial

EL PASO (AP)—A witness testified here Thursday he collected $90,000 by leasing to Billie Sol Estes fertilizer tanks he never saw, then proposed to make the bankrupt promoter rich by selling Estes' life story. Bristling cross examination by the head of Estes' legal staff, John D. Cofer, stressed the role of finance companies in sharing the blame for Estes' financial manipulations.

Cofer bore down as witnesses told of borrowing millions with Estes' connivance on anhydrous ammonia (fertilizer) tanks and other equipment. The government claims these items never existed. It was the first full day of testimony in the trial for Estes on federal charges which brought collapse of his vast fertilizer sales, grain storage and farming operations nearly a year ago. A jury of ten men and two women was sworn to hear the defense the day before. Still on the stand as court recessed overnight was cotton farmer Jesse James Taber of Van Horn, Tex. He told of entering into deals with Estes for ammonia tanks and related equipment mortgaged for $46,800, which was bought from the Lubbock Machine and Supply Co., and propane tanks on which the loan was $129,850. Even larger amounts figured in the accounts of previous witnesses.

One was J. C. Williamson, who identified himself as a Midland, geologist, cotton farmer and writer. Williamson mentioned two deals involving loans of $374,111 and $319,020. It was Williamson also who admitted approaching defense lawyer Cofer with a proposal "to make a lot of money" by peddling exclusive rights to the life story of Estes. There was no indication Estes or his lawyers ever gave the idea serious consideration. In general, witnesses testified they agreed either to buy or lease ammonia tanks then lease the tanks and other equipment to Estes, accept a leasing bonus and sign receipts for delivery of tanks they never were permitted to inspect. Their common story was that Estes wanted to provide tanks for use by fertilizer customers and claimed he could write off lease payments as tax deductions, whereas outright purchase of the tanks offered no tax advantage.

HERE IT IS

In another letter I am asked this: "Tell us where the Scripture is which speaks of the congregation that met in any place as 'The Church of Christ.'" My answer: Paul, writing to the church in Rome, said, "The churches of Christ salute you" (Rom. 16:16). Now, there cannot be the plural, unless there is a singular. The plural is made up of two or more singulars. There could not be churches of Christ unless there was a church of Christ. The church of Christ in two or more locations, are, when considered together, churches of Christ. Paul's statement, "churches of Christ" could mean nothing more than the church of Christ in two or more locations. Also the congregation at Ephesus is referred to as "the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood" (Acts 20:28). God in this passage can be no one but God the Son, that is, Christ. (Continued tomorrow)

Young Woman Raped, Beaten

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A young pregnant woman was dragged off a Houston street into a car early today, beaten and raped, then dumped in a field on the city's West Side, police said. She is Gail Eishen, 20, a secretary for the liquor control board. She is expecting her first child in two months. Police Lt. L. D. Morrison quoted a doctor who examined Mrs. Eishen at a hospital as saying, "It is my opinion at this time that the girl has been raped." Detective Don Harmon said Ronald Clifford Rust, 19, and Walter Lee Sirois, 22, were arrested for questioning. No charges have been filed against them. Harmon said two men were picked up in a red convertible described by Mrs. Eishen's husband as the assailants' car. Officers said Mrs. Eishen crawled to a nearby house and asked the occupants to call police. Her husband, Mike Eishen, 23, a service station attendant, said he and his wife were about two blocks from his home when two men drove up. One grabbed Mrs. Eishen, dragged her into the car, then drove off, Eishen said. Eishen told police they were walking home because their car was out of gas. They live just south of the downtown area. His wife appeared to be tiring, Eishen said, and he went ahead to get their second car. Eishen said he was about 30 feet from his wife when the car drove up. "When the car drove up, I turned around and looked, she was being dragged into the car. There wasn't a thing I could do; the door slammed and the car took off," Eishen told police. "I chased the car on foot, but couldn't catch up," he said.

Former O'Donnell Man Found Slain

LUBBOCK (AP)—The body of Robert O. Burdett, about 41, was found Thursday and police could not find at once a motive for the shooting. Burdett had been shot in the back of the head and dragged from a car. He was found early today face down in a pool of blood in a residential section. The body was identified by an aunt, Mrs. Ralph Burdett, with whom he had been residing after coming here from O'Donnell,

California Area Lashed By Storms

DINUBA, Calif. (AP)—A swirling tornado-like wind that blasted Dinuba in the night and snow, rain and hail to the north ended an early spring for northern and central Californians. People in this town of 6,000 located close to the middle of the state never saw a tornado before so they're still not sure what it was that whipped through the community Thursday. No deaths or injuries were reported. An estimate of damage was not made. The wind hit with the noise of a thunderclap. It touched down hard on a two-block square downtown section, then made a U-turn, returning at reduced velocity for a pass at the residential section. Dinuba Police Capt. John Davidson was sitting in the police station when he heard a radio report from a patrol car. "I just saw a roof fly by," said the voice as the lights went out in the station. Police patrols found most plate glass windows downtown shattered. Roofs were missing from some buildings. The entire area was darkened because power lines had been blown down. Power remained out in some places for the night. Police blockaded the downtown area. Trees were uprooted in downtown and residential sections. Two garage roofs were blown onto grounds of Dinuba High School. Pieces of corrugated sheet iron from a newly-constructed carport was strewn in the area. An unusual snow hit coastal mountains in the northern part of California. Six inches fell near Gasquet close to the Oregon border, a large amount for the area in March. The Weather Bureau forecast

Warm But Wet Is Forecast For The State

A warm but wet weekend is forecast for much of Texas. Southerly breezes pushed moisture-laden clouds into the state during the night. This led to some light showers in East Texas early Friday, and promises more rain in wide areas of the state at least through Saturday. A slow warming trend was forecast, but the cloudiness was expected to restrict temperatures Friday. Early morning temperatures ranged from 35 at Dalhart to 59 at Brownsville, McAllen and Galveston.

Robbers Arrested

DALLAS (AP)—Two men who admitted robbing a Konawa, Okla. bank Thursday were arrested five hours later by police and FBI agents at suburban Irving. Rain and hail were reported throughout northern California. San Francisco received .08 inch of rain and a hail storm. Sacramento also experienced hail and .14 inch of rain.

Realtor Panel Defines Ethics Of Race Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Association of Real Estate Boards has made it clear—for the first time—that it is no violation of the realtors' code of ethics to sell a Negro family a home in a previously all-white neighborhood.

Until about 15 years ago, the NAREB code of ethics specified that a realtor should not sell to a nonwhite person in an all-white neighborhood.

The change in view is evident in a revision of the code and an association book interpreting it, distributed to local real estate boards.

As revised, Article 5 of the code of ethics now reads: "The realtor should not be instrumental in introducing into a neighborhood a character of property or use which will clearly be detrimental to property values in that neighborhood."

The NAREB book interpreting the code was distributed to local boards early this year—the first time this had been done.

One case, illustrating Article 5, involved the sale of a house in an all-white neighborhood to a nonwhite buyer.

The realtor was taken before the local board's committee on professional standards. He contended that since the words "occupancy" and "race" formerly in the code had been removed many years ago this demonstrated an intent to "exclude any such considerations from the article."

The book said the realtor was found innocent of unethical conduct and concluded that occupancy is not to be considered as a factor in interpreting the phrase "character of property or use."

The book was prepared by the NAREB committee on professional standards over a period of three years.

NAREB has no day-to-day enforcement powers over local boards. However, each local group pledges to abide by the code of ethics and flagrant violations could result in expulsion. The code was first adopted in 1913.

Officially, NAREB's position is that the realtor acts as agent for the house owner and if the owner doesn't want to sell to a Negro it isn't the responsibility of the realtor to go against his wishes.

There is considerable evidence, however, that many local real estate boards have gone beyond this position in enforcing segregation in housing, and not only in the Deep South.

One reason that had been given was that injection of a Negro family into an all-white neighborhood would be detrimental to property values and thereby violate the code of ethics.

Ban Extended In East Texas Field

AUSTIN (AP) — The Railroad Commission Thursday extended again its plugging ban in the East Texas field to April 11.

Well plugging was first prohibited June 1, when the first of the more than 400 illegally deviated wells were uncovered in the slant-hole scandal.

The order provides that the commission district supervisor may allow plugging if it is shown that it "will not impede the continuing investigation for deviated wells" but will allow elimination of dry, depleted or damaged wells.

Communists Denounce JFK Central American Parley

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
An AP News Analysis

The Communist world has pulled out all the stops to denounce President Kennedy's meeting, opening Monday, with Central American presidents. An attempt to provoke violence during the meeting cannot be ruled out.

The meeting will be in San Jose, Costa Rica, and will be concerned to a large extent with the menace of Fidel Castro's communism in the Central American area.

Costa Rica's Communist party appears to have arranged an alibi in advance, should those intent on harassing the meeting succeed in breaking through the heavy security arrangements.

Manuel Mora Valverde, a leader of the Costa Rican party, announced publicly that the Communist party would not accept the blame for any "physical measures against the presidents" during the meeting.

From Moscow, in Spanish-language broadcasts to Central America, have come denunciations of the meeting as "a new plot against Cuba and the peoples of Central America." Moscow calls the meeting an attempt to form a Central American military bloc to attack Cuba and hold back revolution elsewhere in Latin America. In what could be called Communist-Castroist action, broadcasts repeat that "the people will thwart this new criminal plan."

The Castroist People's Vanguard party of Costa Rica has been issuing declarations in leaflet form appealing to the people to "raise the standard of national sovereignty and peace as well as to fight for the enforcement of the principles of nonintervention and the right of nations for self-determination." Daniel Oduber, Costa Rican foreign minister, has not ruled out the possibility of a try from Cuba to violence during the meeting. He announced that whatever security measures are taken will be "directed against small hostile groups sent here to obstruct the presidents' conference."

Central American authorities consider Havana-directed subversion to be a major obstacle in the way of progress in the area. Presidents of the United States, Guatemala, Nicaragua and Panama will discuss ways of countering the Cuban activity. Some Central Americans are reported demanding all action short of war.

The presidents also are going to talk about economic problems and how to improve standards of living. This will include a discussion of the Central American common market, to which the U.S. President probably will pledge significant help.

There is apparent agreement among the leaders that such help is likely to be ineffective unless ways are found to keep terrorist action from frustrating the effort.

Borden County Launches Drive Against Cancer

Friday at 8 p.m., the Borden County unit of the American Cancer Society will sponsor a benefit show in the auditorium of the Borden County High School. Variety acts and a fashion parade by Borden County children will be featured.

The Comancheros, a string band from San Angelo College, will play and Miss Moharr of Texas, Nancy Friend of Ozona, will show her all-mohair wardrobe. The public is invited.

With this benefit the Borden County Cancer Unit hopes to uphold the record it established when organized in 1958 and has held for five consecutive years—the first county in the state to over-subscribe its assigned quota by the greatest percentage of any county. This percentage has always been more than 400 per cent.

In this sparsely settled county, giving has been almost 100 per cent. An extensive educational program on the work of the Cancer Society and the development in Cancer Research has also been carried on. Special stress has been put on educational material for presentation in the high school.

Dentist Charged In Tax Complaint

DALLAS (AP)—A dentist has been charged with failure to file an income tax return for five years beginning in 1956.

Dr. J. D. Burleson of Odessa was named in the charges filed by U. S. Atty. Barefoot Sanders.

The complaint alleges that Dr. Burleson, a resident of Lamesa before moving to Odessa, had filed no return for 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959 and 1960.

The unreported income amounted to more than $60,000, the complaint said.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Southern governor has called on the state governments to take the initiative in providing the Negro with a fair economic chance — "because it is right, it is just because it is good business."

THE NEW UNITY EFFORT

A recent national journal carried the news of a proposed merger between two leading denominational bodies of the Protestant world. One must admire and congratulate any group which is concerned and disturbed over the present status of divided Christendom. Jesus prayed for the unity of His disciples. John 17:21. May the day hasten when all division is dissolved into the perfect harmony characteristic of the Godhead!

But we might well ask: "Why not go back beyond Protestantism and Catholicism and return to New Testament Christianity to unify all men in the principles of the first church of Christ?" Should we be satisfied with anything less than a complete unity upon Truth? Why not go back to the church of Jerusalem? Not unity in 15th Century Protestantism, but unity in 1st Century Christianity! Back to the Bible! And to the church of the Bible! Unity upon the worship, doctrine, organization and mission of the original church of Christ! This is what Christendom needs. This is that for which Christ prayed and Paul pleaded. What a challenge!

You are encouraged to attend the Northside church of Christ, 601 N. Runnels St., pleading for a restoration of the church of Christ of the First Century. Sunday: 10 and 11 a.m. and 6 p.m.

chairmen who exercise extraordinary authority over America's foreign and defense policy. With the South turning against its traditional free trade policy, as a result of the growth of textile and other industry in that region, the blow to the chicken market can have serious repercussions.

IF THE EUROPEAN farm bloc prevails and prices are fixed at the highest subsidized level of the German producer, with an external tariff wall keeping out American feed grains, the consequences are unforeseeable. The pessimists say it will mean United States troops will leave Europe within two years or less.

THE BASIC FACT is that the revolution in agriculture beginning in this country 20 years ago is only getting a start in Europe. The same methods will produce the same revolutionary results we have seen here—mountainous surpluses threatening the price structure and sending the farmer into the political arena to demand his fair share of the national income.

THE POLITICAL RUB, as Freeman underscored in his private talk with Hallstein, comes from the fact that this market has been developed primarily in Arkansas, Georgia and several other Southern states. These states are represented in the Senate by key committee

ONE THING in all this is certain. The revolution in agriculture cannot be halted. European farmers are beginning to copy American assembly-line techniques in chicken raising. Tinkering between country and country or even between bloc and bloc on tariff rates and production quotas will not suffice. Nothing short of a world food conference facing up to the new revolution and the paradox of surpluses in the face of hunger and want will get close to solving the riddle.

Around The Rim Diplomatic Retort A La Razzberry

It is both angering and depressing, angering because the fanatic fringers, left and right, react with absolute lack of rationality to Communist propaganda; depressing because sensible people seem not to have the wit or the spine to answer it properly.

A CASE in point in regard to the latter, or depressing, reaction is the stuffy, quasi-diplomatic, and therefore unbelievable retort of American officials to Communist charges of gas warfare in South Viet Nam.

I hereby offer a solution which is about as unorthodox as Harry S. Truman, and probably would be just as effective—mainly because it involves him.

NOT LONG AGO, it was hard to find anyone willing to admit having voted for that mulish old Missourian, but today a lot of people, including many of his former bitter enemies, are looking back wistfully and wishing later residents of the White House had shown the same no-nonsense attitude.

My proposal would create a special office, yet to be named, with Mr. Truman in charge—in fact, except for a few office assistants, he would be the office. Purpose: to take on all Communist propaganda aimed at Uncle Sam and riddle it as only old Harry can do.

AS AN EXAMPLE of the probable dialogue, centering on the Viet Nam gas warfare charges:

REDS: American imperialists are using poison gas against the peace-loving peoples of South Viet Nam.

HST: There's a lot of gas out there, but it's all coming from those windbags in Peiping.

REDS: ... and wanton, cruel dumping of poisonous chemicals by the Yankee criminals has destroyed crops, killed cattle.

HST: Our chemicals burned off the Viet Cong guerrillas' favorite ambush spots along the jungle roads—the rice and cattle that vanished went into some Red bellies.

REDS: HUNDREDS of people have perished, and the monsters of the Pentagon are rubbing their hands gleefully at the torture they have inflicted on innocent peasants.

HST: You're $%+& right we're rubbing our hands gleefully, in fact we're laughing like hell. Mainly because those hundreds of people who perished were Viet Cong—and they died of good old-fashioned lead poisoning.

REDS: Who can guarantee that people of other countries will not become victims of this weapon?

HST: You mean, like Red China? —BOB SMITH

Nice Work If You Can Get It

There are few things we Americans admire more than old-fashioned git-up-and-go. So we have always had a special place in our collective heart for the young man or woman with the will, ambition and spunk—to say nothing of the physical stamina—to work his way through college.

In a day of skyrocketing college costs (it isn't called "higher" education for nothing), more and more students are dependent upon full or part-time jobs.

FOR GENERATIONS certain jobs in all colleges have been the classic preserve of the self-supporting collegian. Young men and women have washed mountainous stacks of dishes, waited on endless miles of tables, baby-sat, performed janitorial chores, tutored their conferees—and still do.

But times change—the old gives place to new. And it is interesting to learn that new opportunities for working one's way through college are constantly presenting themselves to the alert student. There is a need currently at the University of Florida, Gainesville, Fla., who is helping pay as she goes through the halls of learning by stuffing envelopes.

IN THIS WAY the young lady earns $167.54 per month, a fat sum for any working student. But although the coed will eventually graduate, it will be useless for other ambitious coeds to apply for her job, unless they, too, possess her unique qualification. Her basic and indispensable qualification is a real, true sugar daddy who is also a member of the United States Congress.

It is for him that she each month stuffs some 220 envelopes with a bulletin of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, called "Infant Care."

FOR PERFORMING this singular task Katherine E. Meader, 22, daughter of Rep. George Meader (R., Mich.) is on Daddy's Congressional payroll for the aforementioned $167.54 per month or slightly more.

David Lawrence

Basic Ills Of The Economy

WASHINGTON — Unemployment is rising, yet business is not supposed to be in a recession. President Kennedy is asking for a tax cut that he believes will stimulate the economy and goes so far as to say that a recession will come if the tax bill is not soon passed.

FOR THE GRIM TRUTH is that a tax cut by itself will not remedy the basic ills of the economy. There are today many things wrong with the economic situation as a whole, but they are being ignored for political reasons.

Statistics in generalized categories alone do not tell the whole story.

First of all, the total volume of sales is growing, but not as rapidly as it should if more jobs are to be created.

SECOND, total profits may show up well compared to previous records, but this can often mean merely that large businesses are making more profits on a bigger volume of sales while many of the marginal companies are suffering.

Third, the rate of profit in business is lagging due to higher and higher costs.

Fourth, while many corporations and individual businesses throw in the sponge each year, the number has increased in the last few years. The sales of the companies that go out of business are absorbed by the larger companies, and unemployment grows.

FIFTH, big companies are face to face with rising labor costs and are trying every way, especially through automation and technology, to lower their labor costs.

Sixth, population is increasing, but the number of jobs being created isn't keeping pace with the growing number of persons of working age in the country.

WHAT'S BASICALLY wrong with the national economy? It isn't difficult to find out, but the administration as well as most of the politicians of the opposite party will not even discuss the subject in their public speeches, let alone come forth with a solution.

The best way to explain the problem is to analyze any major strike that has cost a community hundreds of millions of dollars. For instance, the New York newspaper strike cost the people directly or than $2,000 per year—a sum that even in these inflated days will go a long way toward picking up the educational tab at college or university.

Of course, Miss Meader not only has to put the bulletin in the envelope, but go to the trouble of addressing it to such constituents in Daddy's district as have just had a baby and are, hence, in need of "Infant Care." It is devoutly to be hoped that the brochure does as much for the new parents and their offspring as it does for an older parent, Rep. Meader, and his offspring.

THIS NEW METHOD of working one's way through college as a Congressional employee in absentia has just come to light through a survey being made into a subject that has long fascinated voters in all parts of the country: The number of deserving relatives that some ever-lovin' Congressmen keep on their tax-supported payrolls.

For decades such occasional surveys have revealed that one of the most constant characteristics of members of Congress is a passionate loyalty to their sisters and their cousins and their aunts, no less than to their respective wives, sons, daughters and kissin' cousins.

TIME HAS case-hardened the average voter to this political fact of life. The semi-annual revelations may disturb him momentarily. But it never maddens him sufficiently, for example, to retire Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D., N.Y.) whose Puerto Rican wife lives in that lovely island while drawing down in excess of $12,000 annually for doing virtually the same chores as Miss Meader—stuffing envelopes.

And if Miss Meader wants to shoot for a Ph.D. after she gets her B.A., surely Rep. Meader's constituents will re-elect him rather than interrupt her education. When she picks up her diploma it won't be with dish pan hands.

(Copyright 1963, United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

indirectly involved nearly $400 million, and must have cost Uncle Sam a large amount in lost taxes from individuals and businesses. It shouldn't have taken three months for both sides to recognize the facts of life—the point beyond which fatal injury would be imposed on some of the employers, with a consequent reduction of available jobs in the industry—but it did. Many employers can't wait that long and hence capitulate.

IT ISN'T THE EFFECT of the strike alone but the underlying causes that merit careful analysis. How, for instance, can a company with a narrow margin of profit or actual losses pay increased labor costs which are based on the capacity to pay enjoyed by the more successful companies?

In industry after industry, rates are fairly uniform and labor's demands are figured on what the most prosperous businesses can pay. Differentials in wage rates have sometimes been applied, but they are not usual. Some of the larger companies sit at the bargaining table in an industry-wide negotiation knowing that the settlement they themselves can afford will drive competitors out of business.

IT MAY BE doubted whether the economy will be materially stimulated by private spending generated by a tax cut. Increases in government spending will not do it, either. For, as one set of government projects is completed, there have to be replacements, and the drain becomes continuous.

Nor can the problems of the economy be solved by gloating over statistics that show a rise in total profits. It's the number of businesses that survive and the rate of profit each can enjoy, as well as the sums available for investment, which in the end can mean an increase in jobs. All the other devices are temporary remedies designed to alleviate pain but not to cure a chronic illness.

NEW MARKETS and expansion of existing markets are vital. These need large sums of venture capital. Overseas markets for American goods can be increased. But a favorable climate at home and abroad for venture capital requires confidence and a long-range program, rather than the temporary remedies now being proposed. The latter, when added up, merely postpone but do not avoid deep recessions and possibly depressions.

Instead of bringing sandwiches for lunch, bring jack cheese, hard-boiled eggs, an apple or an orange, sandwiches made with cold meat between slices of Swiss cheese, rye-type crackers (you could keep a box of these in your desk), cottage cheese in a small carton, tomatoes, carrot sticks, celery sticks, a thermos of tomato juice or tea or coffee. Bonnets, Birds, Bees In Spring Party Motif

A garden scene, radiant with color, was encompassed in the Big Spring Country Club Thursday morning when a host of friends were received by Mrs. Robert Currie, Mrs. Curtis Driver and Mrs. Jess Wilbanks, hostesses for a coffee.

Straw bonnets, flowers, birds, cages and nests, bees and a tree bursting with blossoms were used in profusion throughout the club. One portion of the ballroom was carpeted with grass, enclosed by a picket fence and marked with an ornamental wheelbarrow, all in keeping with the theme of spring.

Copper coffee services gleamed on linen covered tables sprinkled with microscopic daisies. Flower arrangements included a mass of stock, Dutch iris, daffodils and gladioli in a yellow and white bouquet on the register table. Party food was artistically arranged on a table beneath the boughs of a large tree ornamented with flowers and birds. Large straw bon-nets, beautifully decorated with ribbon and blossoms, attracted all who came, as did the small flower-filled straw baskets worn as corsages by members of the house party.

Defying cool breezes and over-cast sky, many guests appeared in their spring suits and hats, while others chose to be comfortable in their lovely furs and winter apparel. Among the latter was Mrs. Douglas Orme in perfectly matched grey hat and suit. Mrs. G. H. Wood was beautifully attired in what appeared to be one woven with only a whisper of metallic gold stripe. Some elected to combine comfort of suits and furs with their gay spring bonnets, but one of the most fetching hats seen was that worn by Mrs. Kent Morgan. Hers was a dome of woven straw in red, white and blue accenting her all-white knit suit.

Mrs. Hank McDaniel and Mrs. R. L. Beale, talking together, presented a pretty picture. Mrs. Mc-

Daniel in her red silk suit with a dash of blue at the neckline, repeated the color in shaded tones of her turban. Mrs. Beale also was in a silk suit, complimenting Mrs. McDaniel's red with green. Her hat was a white sailor, and with her was her neighbor, Mrs. Friend Talbot wearing a light blue silk suit piped in navy, the colors duplicated in a stunning hat of braided straw and silk.

Mrs. Ralph Caton's blue eyes were matched by a light blue knit, and Mrs. Jack Davis chose to wear red with multi-colored shoes and bag. Another spring ensemble was that worn by Mrs. Jim Zack in navy with neckerchief of red and white and one of those new sombrero sailors—in red.

Included among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Sidney Clay of Plainview, Mrs. W. F. White and Mrs. Poe Woodward, both of Midland, Mrs. Bill Heflin and daughter, Miss Joan Heflin, of Brownfield, Mrs. J. C. Greenhaw of Andrews, Mrs. Margaret Barcus of Waco and Mrs. Nick Reed of Sterling City.

Members of the house party were Miss Nell Hatch, Mrs. H. B. Robb Sr., of Dallas, Mrs. Kenneth Buss, Dallas, Mrs. Lee Rogers, Mrs. E. P. Driver, Mrs. W. J. Currie, Mrs. Robert Middleton, Mrs. Jerry Worthing, Mrs. Ell McComb, Mrs. John Currie, Mrs. Harold Talbot, Mrs. M. M. Miller, Mrs. Eva Pyatt, Mrs. Manson Harris of Dallas, Mrs. J. Y. Robb Sr., Mrs. H. A. Mertz of Ponca City, Okla.

Also, Mrs. L. W. Sharp of Dallas, Mrs. Vance Lebkowsky, Mrs. A. L. Warren, Mrs. Jack Irons, Mrs. H. B. Robb Jr., Dallas, and Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow.

Speaking of Eye Care and Eyewear... What Do You Expect in Professional Service and Cost?

These days, with the cost of everything still on the rise, you would like to find ways of reducing money output without loss of quality in the products and services you require. Especially, most people are aware of the high cost of necessary professional health services, such as eye care and eyewear. Most everyone would like the opportunity of having competent eye examinations and, when required, eyewear of excellent quality, without excessive cost.

If you are such a person, and have not yet given TSO the opportunity of serving you, now is the time to think about what TSO provides. It's also time to think about how it compares from a quality and cost standpoint with what you are now receiving.

When a TSO Doctor of Optometry examines your eyes, first a case history of your eyes and vision is recorded. Next, your eyes are examined internally for any evidence of disease or defect, such as glaucoma or cataract. Then, for visual abnormalities, such as near or farsightedness, astigmatism or muscle imbalance. If the need is indicated, glasses or—if preferred—contact lenses are prescribed and expertly fitted for the clearest, most comfortable vision possible. TSO's well-known standard of quality in eyewear is your best assurance of this. TSO provides these outstanding services at most reasonable cost. Finest quality single vision glasses, including professional eye examination, lenses and frame are as low as $14.85. Bifocals, as low as $17.85. Single vision Micro-Sight contact lenses are $85, complete with professional eye examination and fitting. Bifocal contact lenses are also available at a reasonable cost. Convenient credit terms are available if desired. Guard against eye disease and poor vision with an annual, professional eye examination at TSO.

College Trustees Approve Two Alteration Projects

Alterations approximating $1,000 were approved by trustees of the Howard County Junior College at their monthly meeting Thursday at the Dora Roberts Student Union Building.

The installation of a wash rack to be used as an auxiliary to the auto mechanics class was approved. It will make possible washing and steaming cars and engines to be used in the class. Estimated cost of the slab, apparatus, sewer lines is $670. Trustees also approved $420 for installing additional shelving in the library basement storage area.

A committee will screen prospective architects for consideration if and when the college undertakes an additional building program. Horace Garrett, board president, named Dr. C. W. Deats, Tom Barber and K. H. McGibbon as members of the committee. Dr. W. A. Hunt, college president, presented a schedule in which he suggested that the college would need new buildings for science and library, but that renovations could be made in other facilities to provide additional office space and gymnasium space.

The board received a report on the automotive mechanics class which started March 4 and has 20 enrolled. It granted permission for the dean to attend a guidance and counseling session in Boston, Mass., during the summer and for a delegation to be sent to the Phi Theta Kappa national junior college scholarship meeting in Miami, Fla. The trip would be by car and at the same amount previously estimated for one student and a sponsor by air. Bills and the financial statement for the past month were approved.

OIL REPORT

Texas Pacific Coal and Oil Company No. 1 Rosa Barnett, southwest Upton County wildcat, has been completed as a discovery from two pay sections of the Pennsylvanian detrital.

It made 261.6 barrels of 48.4-gravity oil on an calculated 24-hour potential flowing through a 32-64 inch choke from perforations between 8,401-407 feet. The section was acidized with 500 gallons. Basis for potential was an actual flow of 239.9 barrels of oil with a gas-oil ratio of 7,348-1 for 22 hours.

Earlier the prospector was financed from the lower Pennsylvanian detrital for a calculated daily potential of 563.04 barrels of 38.4-gravity flowing through a 24-64 inch choke from perforations between 8,183-87 feet and 8,194-97 feet after a 500-gallon mud acid wash.

The explorer has also indicated production from the Atoka at 8,596-655 feet, as an extender to the pay from that horizon in the nearby multipay King Mountain field. That zone will not be tested at this time, the operator reports.

Collector Wins Praise For Research Paper

Mrs. Eva Nell, member of the Big Spring Coin Club, was congratulated recently for her research and discussion of the history of silver dollars, dating back to the 1300's. A letter from Glenn Smedley, assistant to the editor of the magazine of the American Numismatic Association, was read at the Thursday meeting of the local club, commending Mrs. Nell.

W. E. Wozencraft, president of the club here, will attend the state convention of the Texas Numismatic Association March 29-31 in San Antonio. He is to attend the meeting as the club's official representative.

Seventy club members attended the meeting in the Elks Club rooms at the old Crawford Hotel. In addition to the members there were 11 visitors. Seven new members were present for their first official meeting. These were O. E. Roy Moore, Jim Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Ronald Robey, Farrell Hammill and Billy Ward. The latter three are junior members.

The program was conducted by Mrs. Dale Smith. All present were asked to tell briefly when and how they started their coin collections.

Next meeting of the club will be April 11. An invitation to all persons interested in coins to attend was made by the president.

Six Scouts were on hand for the meeting. The session opened with singing of "America" and each Cub answered the roll call by naming two state birds. Theme for this month is "Around the U.S.A."

The group will meet next March 20, when the boys will take a nature trip.

NEWS ROUNDUP

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union appears to have fallen behind in fulfillment of its promise to get several thousand troops out of Cuba by mid-March but indications are that a large group will be leaving Havana this weekend.

The U.S. government is keeping a close watch on the situation. For the past several days normally informative officials have declined to discuss numbers of troops which have left Cuba so far. The problem appears to be one of analyzing and checking intelligence reports to determine exactly what has happened.

LUBBOCK (AP)—Top echelon lawmakers fly here from the state capital today to see what can be done about Texas' ailing park system.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Speaker Byron Tunnell head the group which includes five Senate Finance Committee members, 14 members of the House Appropriations Committee and two members of Gov. John Connally's staff.

They are making the trip to hear what Texas Tech's Horticulture Department has decided about the Parks System after a two-year "depth study" of the problem.

Connally, who told the legislature the Parks System "is sick to the point of dying," received tentative results of the study last January.

The governor said he endorsed the studies prepared by Texas Tech and the Texas Research League "which propose that we develop fully the productive parks and return to local political subdivisions those that offer little or no statewide recreational appeal or tourist attraction."

ROME (AP)—American lyric soprano Frances McCann, 42, was found shot to death today just inside the door of her room in a Rome hotel.

Police said she was shot by Ernest Boxmann, 54, a resident of the hotel, the Bernini-Bristol on midtown Bernini Square.

They said Boxmann then fired a bullet into his own head.

He was taken to a hospital in critical condition.

Hotel officials said Miss McCann and Boxmann had taken fourth floor rooms three days ago.

Halfway House Gets Financial Assistance

The financial struggle of Big Spring's Halfway House has been partially won. Two benefactors have contributed gifts totaling $200 to help erase a deficit of almost $400.

One of the contributions was $100 voted by the Kiwanis Club Thursday at noon. The other donor of $100 wished to remain anonymous.

The Halfway House is a rehabilitation home for patients at the Big Spring State Hospital. A patient who is well enough to leave the hospital lives there making his own living, until he is ready to return home.

"The gifts will be given to the board of directors to be dispensed through its finance committee for operation of the unit as needed," Bennett Brooke, chairman of the board, said Thursday.

Washington-Moscow Link Called Way To Avoid War

GENEVA (AP) — The United States said today a direct, secret communications link between Washington and the Kremlin would greatly reduce the danger of accidental nuclear war.

U.S. Ambassador Charles C. Stelle told the 17-nation disarmament conference it should discuss the establishment of such a link as a matter of urgency.

The proposal was first made to the conference last year but has never come up for discussion as the delegates concentrated on a treaty to ban nuclear tests.

Faced with deadlock on this issue, delegates decided to move on to a discussion of general disarmament and other measures to reduce the risk of war.

Hospital May Get Interns

Interns may soon be available to the Big Spring State Hospital, according to Dr. Preston E. Harrison, superintendent.

This possibility was brought up Thursday during a visit here by Dr. S. H. Frazier, director of the Houston State Psychiatric Institute. The interns may be able to serve a part of their training period at the local hospital.

"Dr. Frazier noted that it would be helpful for both organizations, if he could send some of his residents here for about three months of training on a rotating basis," Dr. Harrison said.

The Institute has 29 residents at this time. Dr. Frazier said upon his return to Houston he would check to see if scheduling for his residents can be fitted for such a program.

Dr. Frazier toured the hospital and spoke to three groups. His main purpose for the visit was to find out how his unit can help the Big Spring hospital with treatment of the mentally ill.

He was a chaplain with the U.S. Army during World War II.

Brooke heads an advisory board organized this week to keep the Halfway House project functioning as a smoothly operating unit. The group will also be able to assist residents of the House with employment and in an advisory capacity.

"Some other groups have expressed a desire to help. All assistance will be greatly appreciated," Brooke said.

Although the Halfway House is designed to be self-sustaining, like many beginning groups, results were not as satisfactory as hoped.

Although the men at the House are all able to work, some have found difficulty obtaining it. At the present time only six of the nine residents are working regularly. All patients share equally in the cost of providing quarters, food, etc. Expenses each month for the project are about $600. Maximum payment for each patient is $75 a month.

The group advertises for work daily. One of its members now employed has worked most of his life in oil fields and another has almost completed his training as a sheet metal worker. All can perform manual tasks, such as yard work.

All patients are carefully screened before they enter the Halfway House. Except for the monetary problems, the House has operated as expected.

"If we had the money, we would start a Halfway House for women immediately," Dr. Preston E. Harrison, superintendent of the hospital, said. "We have several dozen good candidates."

The present Halfway House was the third such unit established in Texas and without an unexpected delay in opening, it would have been the first. It is the first exclusively for mental patients.

Maxwell Near Tourney Lead

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—At the brink of 45 Tommy Bolt admits he has mellowed a bit, but he still has the same old ability to hit a golf ball.

Bolt tore into the 6,537-yard Lakewood Country Club course Thursday for a 7-under par 65 and the first round lead in the $25,000 St. Petersburg Open.

"I just got a little lucky," he said as he came off the final green.

Billy Maxwell of Las Vegas said he could have used a little luck. Maxwell finished with a 66, but complained that he missed two golden opportunities for birdies.

Going into today's second round knotted for third place at 67 were Dave Marr of New Rochelle, N.Y., and a couple of North Carolinians—veteran Julius Boros and Raymond Floyd, 20, of Fayetteville.

Floyd, only four months off the PGA tour and yet to earn a dollar, shot his best tournament round yet.

The field of 149 pros and 10 amateurs gave par a licking. Sixty-two of the pros and two amateurs matched the 36-36-72 standard or bettered it.

Bolt, who will be 45 later this month, did the job with an eagle and five birdies. The eagle 3 came on the 451-yard sixth hole when he reached the green in two and dropped a 30-footer.

"I feel playing better," he said. "I feel better."

Bolt said he is using a new driver, and getting 15 to 20 yards more on his tee shots.

"I never knew that 15 to 20 yards more could make that much difference," he said. "Last year I'd lash that thing and I couldn't hit it out of my shadow."

Viramontes Takes West Texas Post
CANYON, Tex. (AP)—Jimmy Viramontes, formerly on the University of Texas basketball coaching staff, has been named head basketball coach at West Texas State College.

A native of New Mexico, where he was an all-state basketballer at Las Cruces, Viramontes announced his resignation at Texas to be effective April 1.

West Texas State's athletic director, Frank Kimbrough, said Viramontes' appointment would be effective at the Canyon school on June 1.

Viramontes, 35, is a former U.T. basketball star and has been on the Longhorn staff seven years during which time the team won two Southwest Conference championships.

At West Texas State, the new coach succeeds Metz LaFollette who resigned a month ago, effective June 1.

Since Jackson became eligible at mid-term 12 games ago, the Chiefs have been beaten only once. They have a 19-9 record, compared to Colorado's 18-6.

Tourney Starts At Y Tonight
Three games are on tap at the YMCA this evening in the Employees District Basketball tournament.

The meet, which has attracted seven teams, will be concluded with a 7 p.m. contest at Webb AFB.

Tonight's pairings: San Angelo, Sprayer and Chemil vs. Midland, 6:30 p.m.; El Paso vs. Amarillo I, 8 p.m.; Big Spring Lakeview Y vs. San Angelo Tucker Drilling, 9:15 p.m.

Amarillo II drew a first round bye and challenges the winner of the Lakeview-San Angelo contest at 3:30 p.m. Saturday at Webb.

The other semifinal game starts at 2 p.m. Saturday at Webb.

From brewing time to taste sublime

IN TEXAS BEER IS A NATURAL

Brewed slowly, by a centuries-old natural process, beer is Texas' traditional beverage of moderation—light, sparkling, delicious.

And naturally, the Brewing Industry is proud of the millions of dollars it contributes to this state's economy through wages, advertising, rentals, insurance, transportation and utilities. Money made in Texas, spent in Texas. In Texas, beer belongs. Enjoy it.

Mighty Cincy Tries Texas At Lawrence playing in that Missouri Valley Conference, you've got to be great.

"If they have a good night, they're good enough to beat us. If they have a bad night, we're liable to beat them. We have a young team but we think we have pretty good speed, pretty good height, pretty good depth and pretty good shooting."

The Longhorns, like Colorado and especially Oklahoma City, have an over-all height advantage over Ed Jucker's Bearcats, although under Bradley's system of rotating eight or 10 players they surrender some of the margin at times.

Cincinnati, 23-1 this season and beaten only six times in 85 games since Jucker took over as head coach three years ago, starts 5-foot-10 Larry Singleton along with the four holdovers from last year's NCAA champions, 6-8 George Wilson, 6-5 Ron Bonham, 6-2 Tom Thacker and 6-1 Tony Yates.

The only height on the bench comes from 6-8 Dale Heidtting whose play has been limited all season by an ankle injury, and 6-4 Gene Smith, a sophomore.

By contrast, Texas, 19-6, starts a front line of Mike Humphrey and Joe Fisher, both 6-8, and Larry Franks at 6-5. The backcourt is 5-9 Jimmy Gilbert and 6-1 Jimmy Puryear. The rotation system gives reserves John Futz at 6-8, Jack Dugan at 6-7½, and Mutt Heller at 6-3, as much playing time as the starters.

"We can be hurt if we get into foul trouble or run into an injury," said Jucker. "In rebounding power and bench strength, we don't measure up to last year. That Texas depth could be important."

Colorado, the Big Eight Conference representative, and Oklahoma City, an at-large selection, are rated about even but Sox Walseth of Colorado still is shaking his head over the size of the Chiefs.

"My little kids were just walking off the court when Abe Lemons brought his bunch out to practice Friday afternoon," said Walseth. "I got my guys out of there fast. I never saw so many big ones in my life. I may have to use blinkers to keep my kids from getting scared to death."

Colorado's two big men, in scoring, rebounding and size, are 6-6 Ken Charlton and 6-8 Jim Davis. Lemons plays 6-4 Gary Hill and 6-5 Bud Koper, both 20-point scorers and normal forwards, in the back court because they are his "little men." Up front are Eddy Jackson at an even 7 feet, Bill Johnston at 6-9, and Jim Miller at 6-6.

Since Jackson became eligible at mid-term 12 games ago, the Chiefs have been beaten only once. They have a 19-9 record, compared to Colorado's 18-6.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Delnor Poss, the local high school basketball coach, is preparing an article on the game for Texas Coach Magazine.

A film starring the Dallas Cowboys of the NFL, entitled "The 1962 Cowboys in Action," available to schools, service clubs and other groups without charge, can be obtained by telephoning the football team's Dallas office, LA 6-0111.

Narrated by Frank Gleiber, the movie runs for 25 minutes. First section of the film shows the Cowboys on several touchdown drives, as well as on defense. The second half is devoted exclusively to plays that either went for scores or set up TD's.

For the first time in 23 years, the King Ranch of Texas is without an eligible for the Kentucky Derby.

This racing stable, owned by Robert J. Kieberg, won the classic with Assault in 1946 and with Middleground in 1950.

King Ranch nominated for the event for the first time in 1956, when it made the filly, Split Second, eligible. The winner that year was Ben Venture, who sired the two Derby winners owned by King Ranch.

Tommy Yarbro, HCJC's fine sophomore runner from Abilene, became ill during the Border Olympics but refused to drop out of contention.

The Hawks barely squeezed by Victoria College in the race for team honors but they would, no doubt, have won easily had Tommy Wise been available to run the hurdles. He's out, due to injuries.

Archie McClure of Victoria won the highs at Laredo and Allen Newberry of Lubbock Christian the 330-yard intermediate hurdles but Wise, at his best, is capable of beating both boys.

HCJC's Larry Mauldin hasn't yet hit his peak in the pole vault because he has shin splints.

Wilma Rudolph, who is probably past her peak as a sprinter, says she may pass up the 1964 Olympic Games. She's planning a teaching career.

Add to the list of the nation's colleges which have dropped football, St. Vincent of Latrobe, Pa. (Arnold Palmer's home town).

Financial burdens, decreasing attendance and scheduling difficulties contributed toward the final decision.

Abe Beckman, the Midland golf pro, suggests the Odessa Pro-Am promoters might have hurt their meet by booking it over the July 4 weekend.

Beckman reminds that most of the West Texas pros will be busy catering to members of their own clubs over the holiday, will find it difficult, for that reason, to take off and play in the tournament.

Of course, the Odessa people had to pick their dates with care—they wanted a weekend when a share of the "name" players would be free.

Spec Gammon, the Odessa scribe, said it: "And then there was a guy who said he didn't invite Sonny Liston and Floyd Patterson to his party 'because the last time they were together they ALMOST had a fight'."

The Big Spring High School baseball team won only four of its nine starts, yet outscored the opposition by a margin of 79 runs to 55.

Coach Roy Baird says his charges must learn to win the big ones, the games which can be decided by one run in the late innings. The Steers' first three defeats came by one-run margins.

Lasater, Lions Compete In Odessa Meet Saturday

COMMERCE — The East Texas State Lions, improving from eight to 33 points in one week, journey to Odessa for the West Texas Relays Friday and Saturday.

The Lions scored only eight points at the Southwestern Relays in Fort Worth for what was a tenth place tie but scored 33 points at the All-College meet in Commerce for a fourth place finish last Saturday. The Lions moved ahead of two teams that had outscored them at Fort Worth but were still behind McMurry, Northeast La. and Howard Payne.

At the Odessa meet, the Lions will have the regular run of field events but will have several relays that were not run in the two previous meets. Aside from the customary 440 and mile relays, the Lions will also be engaged in the 800, sprint medley and distance medley relays.

R. L. Lasater of Big Spring, who set a record in the 100 last year at the West Texas Relays with a 9.5, will try to improve on that mark although he has not looked quite as speedy as last year so far this season.

Last week, Lasater was second in a 101 yard sprint against the wind on a slightly wet track and again runnerup on a 22 foot 220 run on a curve.

In the field events, track Coach Delmer Brown will use Cooper Ford and Marvin Kennelley in the weight events. David Sikes will pole vault while Dudley Haas and

Cats, Devils Launch Drive For Crown

By TED MEIER

Cincinnati's Bearcats and Duke's Blue Devils, who finished first and second in the final Associated Press college basketball poll of the season, start on the road tonight that they hope will lead to a battle between them for the national collegiate championship.

The Missouri Valley champions of the Missouri Valley Conference and the Aims for an unprecedented third straight national title, open their NCAA tourney play against Texas, champions of the Southwest Conference. The Blue Devils, kings of the Atlantic Coast Conference, tangle with New York University, an independent power ranked ninth nationally.

The two games highlight a full slate of eight second round games that sees 16 teams in action at four regional sites tonight.

This is the line-up; times are Eastern Standard:

Eastern Regionals, College Park, Md.; Duke, 24-2, vs. NYU, 18-3; West Virginia, 22-7, St. Joseph's, Pa., 22-4.

Midwest Regionals, East Lansing, Mich.; Illinois, 19-5, vs. Bowling Green, 19-6; Chicago Loyola, 25-2, vs. Mississippi State, 21-5.

Midwest Regionals, Lawrence, Kan.; Cincinnati, 23-1, vs. Texas, 19-6; Colorado, 18-6, vs. Oklahoma City, 19-8.

Far West Regionals, Provo, Utah; Oregon State, 20-7, vs. San Francisco, 17-8; Arizona State, 25-2, vs. UCLA, 20-7.

Tonight's regional winners play in the quarter-finals Saturday night with the four survivors earning trips to Louisville for the semi-finals and final next week, March 22-23.

While the big schools are at it, Wittenberg and South Dakota State battle tonight at Evansville, Ind. for the NCAA small college championship.

"Everybody has been pointing for us, game after game, and this will be no different," said Ed Jucker, Cincinnati coach on the eve of the Texas game. "But we're ready, mentally and physically."

Since most everyone regards Cincinnati as a shoo-in over the Longhorns, the Duke-NYU tussle shapes up as perhaps the best of the second round. This one pits Duke's All-America Art Heyman and Player of the Year against NYU's All-America Barry Kramer and many think Duke's 18-game winning streak may go by the boards.

Big Spring tied it when Baxter Moore drove in Eric Nichols with a one-baser in the fourth while Hughes had reached base on an infield bobbie and stole second.

Jerry Haggard walked to open Monterey's half of the fifth and moved up to sacrifice. He counted on a hit by Gary Huey.

Monterey added an insurance run in the sixth, pinch runner Chris Galanos coming home when catcher Jeff Brown of Big Spring overthrew third.

Big Spring had two runners on in the first inning but couldn't move them around. The Steers also had runners on in ever, round but the sixth thereafter, but Hughes was air-tight in the clutches.

Outside of Moore's run-productivity, Billy Andrews was the only Steer to hit safely. He doubled in the fifth.

Roy New will probably go to the mound for Big Spring against Lubbock today.

Sandy Koufax Shows Return To Form In Stint On Mound

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

A winter's rest apparently has worked the Midas touch on the injured finger that tarnished Sandy Koufax' golden arm.

The 27-year-old fireballer left a hander with the amazing strikeout record had everyone wondering what all the concern was about as he pitched five innings and allowed only three hits and an unearned run in the Los Angeles Dodgers' 5-2 victory over the New York Yankees Thursday.

Koufax' performance in the exhibition game at the Yankees' Fort Lauderdale, Fla., home base, marked the first time any Dodger pitcher had attempted to go five innings. It was Koufax' second spring workout. He allowed a run and two hits in a previous three-inning stint.

The circulatory ailment that numbed Koufax' finger last year generally is considered the major reason the Dodgers lost the pennant. Before he was sidelined on July 17, Koufax had won 14 games, pitched a no-hitter against the New York Mets and struck out 18 batters against the Chicago Cubs. The Baltimore Orioles remained the lone unbeaten team with a 15-hit attack that subdued Minnesota 11-7 at Miami. It was the Orioles' fifth victory.

KOUFAX

The Chicago White Sox and Kansas City A's won their fifth in six games. The Sox blasted Pittsburgh 16-5 at Fort Myers with a three-homer attack and the A's belted Philadelphia 5-1 at Clearwater behind Ted Bowsfield's pitching and hitting.

Cleveland whipped San Francisco 7-3 at Phoenix, Ariz., Washington beat the New York Mets 4-2 at St. Petersburg, Cincinnati edged St. Louis 3-2 at Tampa, the Los Angeles Angels defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2 at Mesa, Ariz., Milwaukee nipped Detroit 4-3 at West Palm Beach and Houston outlasted Boston 12-11 in 11 in-

Koufax' performance in the exhibition game at the Yankees' Fort Lauderdale, Fla., home base, marked the first time any Dodger pitcher had attempted to go five innings. It was Koufax' second spring workout. He allowed a run and two hits in a previous three-inning stint.

The circulatory ailment that numbed Koufax' finger last year generally is considered the major reason the Dodgers lost the pennant. Before he was sidelined on July 17, Koufax had won 14 games, pitched a no-hitter against the New York Mets and struck out 18 batters against the Chicago Cubs. The Baltimore Orioles remained the lone unbeaten team with a 15-hit attack that subdued Minnesota 11-7 at Miami. It was the Orioles' fifth victory.

Steers, Westerners Meet At 4:00 Today

Roy Baird's Big Spring Steers try to get back on the victory track in a 4 p.m. baseball game here today with Lubbock High's Westerners.

The Longhorns dropped a 31-decision to Monterey in Lubbock Thursday. Gary Hughes parceled out only two hits to the Longhorns. Monterey managed to get only four blows off Jack Roden, the Big Spring hurler. Roden fanned three and walked only two.

Monterey scored in the third when Eldon Frost reached base on a fielder's choice, stole second and raced home on a hit by Keller Smith.

Big Spring tied it when Baxter Moore drove in Eric Nichols with a one-baser in the fourth while Hughes had reached base on an infield bobbie and stole second.

Jerry Haggard walked to open Monterey's half of the fifth and moved up to sacrifice. He counted on a hit by Gary Huey.

Monterey added an insurance run in the sixth, pinch runner Chris Galanos coming home when catcher Jeff Brown of Big Spring overthrew third.

Big Spring had two runners on in the first inning but couldn't move them around. The Steers also had runners on in ever, round but the sixth thereafter, but Hughes was air-tight in the clutches.

Outside of Moore's run-productivity, Billy Andrews was the only Steer to hit safely. He doubled in the fifth.

Roy New will probably go to the mound for Big Spring against Lubbock today.

Half Of Texas Land Is Under SCS Program

More than half the agricultural land of Texas is now under cooperative agreement with soil conservation districts, according to H. N. Smith, Temple, state conservationist, Soil Conservation Service.

More than 150,000 farm and ranch operators have completed conservation plans for more than 80,000,000 acres. An additional 47,000 operators are in the process of completing their plan on another 28,000,000 acres according to reports from soil conservation districts over the state.

During 1962, some 14,000 operators completed their plans for more than seven and one-half million (7,500,000) acres, continued Smith. In addition, more than 8,100 farmers and ranchers revised their conservation plans during the year to bring them up to date to include changes in land use and treatments.

The state head of the SCS said that a conservation plan is like a blueprint for a house to be built. It charts a practical course of action for the operator and the agencies assisting the landowner to apply a conservation program on his land.

Committee Has Survey Form

A survey form has been adopted for use in determining what items can be profitably distributed from Big Spring.

The wholesale and distribution committee of the Chamber of Commerce will use the form to gather information from local retailers and distributors in its efforts to attract wholesalers to Big Spring. The survey form is prepared so that the information can be transferred to IBM cards for rapid tabulation.

On the subcommittee preparing the form at a meeting called by Florida congressmen Dante Fascell and Claude Pepper to determine just how serious the problem has become and how it can be corrected.

Flood Of Cuban Refugees Has Miami In A Tight Spot

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The flood of Cuban exiles has brought economic distress to this city of refuge and the only solution is a stepped-up resettlement program that will spread the load over other parts of the nation.

This was the gist of testimony Thursday at a hearing called by Florida congressmen Dante Fascell and Claude Pepper to determine just how serious the problem has become and how it can be corrected.

A wave of fear swept through Miami's huge Cuban colony when the hearing was announced.

"The refugees fear that we have entered into a policy of coexistence with Castro Cuba," said Wendell Rollason, director of the Inter-American Affairs Commission, a private organization concerned with problems of the exiles.

"They think this hearing is a sign that we have turned against them and want to disperse them completely."

Fascell and Pepper asked each Cuban witness to assure his people that the United States government is dedicated to the overthrow of Castro and the return of freedom to Cuba.

"Just because we don't invade doesn't mean that we do not intend to get rid of Castro one way or another," Pepper said.

He asked that the Cubans be told also that the hearing did not grow out of any feeling of hostility but "out of the need to help our own people who are in distress."

There was conflicting testimony over how many Cubans are in Miami and how many have moved into jobs formerly held by Floridians.

Labor leaders testified that the Cubans were forcing Americans out of jobs by accepting substandard wages, had worked as strike breakers, and had created "a simmering situation that could explode at any time."

Negro leaders pleaded for help, declaring that so many of their people had been thrown out of work that hunger was more widespread than it was during the great depression.

"Many Negroes have lost their homes," said Neal Adams, operator of a grocery store in one Negro district. "Negroes are cooking over outside fires because they can't pay fuel bills. Negro children are being taken out of school because they have no shoes."

Robberies are increasing, but these are 'bread' robberies. Our people must eat. They come into my store every day begging for credit and for the scraps I throw in my garbage cans."

Harry Tyson, director of the Miami office of the Florida State Employment Service, estimated that Cubans have taken over 50,000 jobs, mostly from Negroes and unskilled whites.

Rollason said 22,000 Cubans are working 8,000 in jobs created by Cuban capital brought into this country.

As the price of freedom, Castro demands all of a Cuban's possessions. Before he adopted this policy, some escaped with their assets and created small businesses, farms and industries in south Florida.

Big Parade Will Precede Circus Performances Here

Al G. Kelly and Miller Bros. Circus, appearing here under the sponsorship of the Big Spring Kiwanis Club, will present three performances and appear in a mammoth downtown circus parade this weekend.

Jay Banks, chairman of the club circus committee, said that the parade will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday—one hour ahead of the first of three performances the show is to present. The circus tent will be erected near the Rodeo Bowl west of town.

Two shows—a matinee and an evening performance—Saturday will be followed Sunday by a matinee. The Kiwanis Club shares in the receipts from the show and will use the profits to further its work with underprivileged children.

Banks said that Jack Alexander and Walter Eubanks are the club's committeemen arranging for the parade. The procession forms at 11th Street on Main and will move northward on Main at 1:30 p.m. It will proceed to Second Street, go west on Second Street to Scurry and back to 11th Place. Included in the parade will be the high school band, the Goliad and Runnels Junior high school bands, the Webb AFB color guard, possibly the Coahoma high school and Stanton high school bands.

CIRCUS HIGHLIGHTS

Place: Rodeo Bowl Grounds.
Time: 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. Saturday, 3 p.m. Sunday.
Event: Al G. Kelly & Miller Bros. Circus.
Sponsor: Big Spring Kiwanis Club.
Parade: 1:30 p.m. Saturday, starting at 11th and Main Streets.

There will be at least 30 units in the parade including cars in which will be the city officials, officers from Webb, Kiwanis Club officials, the Suez Mounted Cavalry, the Sheriff's Posse, the Civil Defense rescue unit, numerous commercial entries and the circus wagons, will be in the line. The troupe of elephants, featured in the circus, will occupy an important place.

A general invitation to anyone who wants to take part in the procession was extended by the club. Segments 28 and 29, just ahead of the last segment of the procession, are left open for any additional units not already assigned.

The performances will be at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. Saturday and at 3 p.m. Sunday. The menagerie will open an hour ahead of the main show at each performance. The tent, with capacity of 3,000 will be erected Saturday morning.

Kiwanians point out there will be plenty of parking space in the area where the tent is to be located. Ticket sales have been under way for some days and tickets may also be bought at the box office. General admission for adults is $1.50 and 75 cents for children. Reserved seats are obtainable inside the big top.

Announcement of plans for the show was made at the Thursday meeting of the club. All Kiwanians were asked by Banks and by Alexander to be on hand to take part in the parade preparations.

The program Thursday featured Ira Schantz, Howard County Junior College, in a vocal selection with Jack Hendrix at the piano. A brief announcement was made of the Howard County Spelling Bee which is to be held at the HJCJ auditorium Saturday at 10 a.m.

TRY 'XYLOPHAGOUS' OR 'ASCETICISM' Can You Spell With Champs?

How good are you at spelling? Saturday, the best speller in Howard County, under the age of 16 years, will be selected at a county spelling bee. The winner of this match goes to Lubbock April 6 to compete with the champion speller from 24 other counties. The regional winner goes to Washington to compete for the national spelling championship—an event held annually in the nation's capital for the past 36 years.

In those years, champions have been crowned and near-champions downed by 30 words. It is these words which have brought laurels of victory or tears of defeat to the best spelling kids of the county.

Abbacy, Abrogate, Acquiesced, Afflatus, Alburnen, Asceticism, Brethren, Canonical, Condominium, Crustaceology, Dulcimer, Eudaemonic, Gladius, Intelligible, Interning, Luxuriance, Oligarchy, Onerous, Pronunciation, Propitiatory, Propylaeum, Psychiatry, Sacriligious, Sanitarium, Semaphore, Smaragdine, Syllepsis, Therapy, Transept, Unclinated.

It is not likely the youngsters at Howard County Junior College auditorium Saturday morning will have to wrestle with these jaw-breaking words but, in the event the match turns out to be close, it is possible the pronouncer will turn to this section of the official spelling list for giant killers to settle the title.

At the national meet, other contestants who were well along toward the national crown have been toppled from their pedestals by such words as Xylophagous, Peripatetic, Syzygy, Metonymy and Insouciant.

Of course, when the match begins at the HJCJ auditorium, Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, the official pronouncer will not start with such monsters as these. But the words she will submit to the 21 young contenders will become increasingly difficult the longer the match continues.

Other Docketed Cases Cancelled

A long drawn-out law suit over the custody of a child, which began last Monday in 118th District Court and is still under way, has led to the cancellation of all other litigation scheduled for trial this week. Judge Ralph Caton has announced. He also instructed Fern Cox, district court clerk, to notify all jurors on the panel, who are not serving in this particular trial, that their services are not needed any further this week.

It was indicated the case would continue through Friday at least. Judge Caton has set a criminal docket to open in the court Monday. He has also indicated that he would like to see the present case terminated by Friday afternoon.

The case, styled In Re: Joe Neal Jennings, has George Thomas representing the litigants on one side and Gil Jones, as attorney for the other side.

Tourism Agency Setup Approved

AUSTIN (AP)—House members agreed with Gov. John Connally that Texas should have a separate state agency to attract tourists.

The House sent to the Senate on voice vote Thursday a bill by Rep. Bill Walker, Cleveland, setting up a Texas Tourist Development Agency. The agency would be directed by a six-man advisory board, appointed by the governor. A full-time administrator would carry out directions of the board.

The bill now before the Senate does not carry any appropriation. Any money for 1964-65 spending would have to be added in the Senate or by a conference committee. Connally asked a total of $300,000 for the new agency with $335,000 going for travel promotion, publicity and advertising. All promotion and advertising would have to be on a nationwide scale and must be approved by the six-man board.

Today, a group of House and Senate members fly to Lubbock with Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and a large delegation to inspect plans for development of state parks. The development plans were drawn by the horticulture department of Texas Technological College under a contract with the State Parks Board.

Both houses are in recess until Monday at 11 a.m.

Agreement was reached on a compromise bill to allow creation of a Padre Island National Seashore area.

A conference committee of five senators and five representatives agreed to retain the House wording that specified "a majority of" the school land board would convey title to the 80.5-mile island to the federal government.

The committee also changed the bill to give Texas and the federal government concurrent jurisdiction in criminal matters. The House version would have given the state exclusive jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases.

One conferee said the compromise bill should be ready for Senate and House action by late next week. Sen. Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi and Rep. Menton Murray of Harlingen led delegations from the two houses.

In the Senate Thursday, Sen. Culp Krueger, El Campo, talked for two hours to delay Senate action on a bill to expand the eligibility of the teacher retirement system. The bill, already passed by the House but already amended in the Senate, would permit teachers to use their best 10 years of service as a base for computing retirement benefits instead of the current 1950-55 base. Krueger estimated passage of the bill would increase the deficit in the teacher retirement fund by $158 million.

The House also sent to the Senate a resolution allowing golden eagles to be hunted from planes, and a resolution providing that two-thirds of the state could petition for a proposed amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

Legal Insanity Rule Lashed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A law professor told the National District Attorney's Association that the "McNaghten Rule," now used to determine criminal insanity, should be modified.

Prof. Arthur M. Sherry of the University of California law school spoke at the group's convention.

"If a defendant is so mentally disordered that he is unable to control his conduct, he is not responsible for his actions—regardless whether he knows right or wrong."

The McNaghten Rule provides that a person is sane if he knows his act is considered to be wrong. "Too many offenders who are judged sane, tried, convicted and imprisoned are later unleashed on society to commit some other, perhaps more serious crime," Sherry said.

Defendants acquitted because of mental disorders should be committed to the department of corrections for custody, instead of being released, Sherry said.

Record Low Count Listed

Enrollment in Big Spring public schools dipped below the 7,400 mark for the first time this year on the last tabulation of students. It dropped to 7,394 pupils, six less than the previous week.

Elementary schools accounted for most of the loss while secondary schools showed a gain. The elementary count was 4,379 pupils, a drop of nine; secondary schools had 2,854 students, up by three; and special education remained unchanged at 161.

The enrollments for the various schools are: Airport 465, no change; Bauer 505, up three; Boydston 524, down five; Cedar Crest 295, up one; College Heights 520, up one; Kate Morrison 264, down six; Lakeview 206, down one; Marcy 544, up four; Park Hill 276, down four; Washington 780, down two; Goliad 904, up one; Lakeview Junior High 68, up one; Runnels 740, up one; and Senior High School 1,142, no change.

St. Paul Presbyterian To Observe 10th Anniversary

St. Paul Presbyterian Church will observe its 10th anniversary Sunday. The church was organized by the Presbytery of El Paso (now Presbytery of the Southwest) March 19, 1953, with 54 charter members.

At the morning worship, the guest speaker will be Maj. Nolan Young, a former ruling elder of the church, formerly of Webb Air Force Base, more recently of Laredo AFB, and now in transit to an overseas assignment. His topic will be "Tests of Our Faith."

In the evening, following a family night covered dish supper, the speaker will be a former minister, the Rev. Jack Ware, now pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Pecos.

Of the 54 charter members, only 19 are now members, due mostly to the transitory population the church has served. Present membership is 209 and the church has plans for expanded facilities which it hopes to realize in the near future.

The public is invited to both the morning and evening services.

Jesus Demonstrates His Authority

THESE COMES AN HOUR IN MAN'S LIFE WHEN HE MUST DECIDE WHETHER TO ACCLAIM CHRIST AS SAVIOR OR TO JOIN IN CONDEMNING HIM

Scripture—Mark 11:1-12:12.

By N. SPEER JONES

THE EVENTS of this week's lesson span the time from the Friday before Christ's crucifixion to the Tuesday morning before. As we have seen, Christ and His followers are on their way to Jerusalem for the Passover.

They leave Jericho on Friday morning and arrive that evening at Bethany, where they stay at the home of Lazarus, Mary and Martha. There, too, they spend the Sabbath, which, of course, for the Jews was (and is) on Saturday.

Saturday night, Matthew tells us (26:8), Christ went to the home of Simon the Leper for supper, where he was anointed by Mary. John tells us (12:9-11) that many of the Jews of Jerusalem went out to see Him at Lazarus' home, thus rousing more jealousy in the chief priests, who called a meeting of the Council to discuss putting Him to death.

Bethany (meaning "the house of dates") and its neighboring village of Bethphage ("the house of unripe figs") are about a mile and two miles outside of Jerusalem. On Sunday morning (April 2, A.D. 30) Jesus sends two of His disciples to Bethphage to procure the ass on which He rides into Jerusalem.

Why does the Lord ride upon an ass? He is not tired, for it is morning and he is known to be a vigorous walker. He meant, instead, to give special symbolic significance to His entry into the Jewish capital. Throughout the Old Testament the horse is a symbol of war, luxury and rapine. The ass, on the other hand, is symbolic of peace, humility and quiet—the very virtues which Christ wants established in the capital of His kingdom.

On Monday Christ made His pronouncement against the fig tree, an enigmatical passage in the Bible, about which much has been written. The incident apparently represents the Son of the Mass-priests to be a symbolic picture. Based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., and used by permission. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

GOLDEN TEXT

"Why do you call Me, 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I tell you?"—Luke 6:46.

The three groups of religious leaders—chief priests, scribes and elders—now find cause to challenge openly Jesus' authority, which they do when He returns to the temple on Tuesday. He was not of the priestly tribe of Levi. He had had no rabbinical training, etc.

Christ's answer is another question, by which the so-called authorities find themselves trapped. They could not say John's authority was from men, for all Jews revered him as a leading prophet; nor could they say it was from God, for they would have to accredit Christ.

Then Christ condemns these authorities in parables, Matthew (21:33-44) records three, but Mark includes here only one. Here He tells Israel's leaders symbolically that He knows of their plots to kill Him, and warns them of the consequences—for it is Christ, of course, who has been written, "The Son of the Mass-priests to be a symbolic picture."

College Crisis

DALLAS (AP)—A prediction was made at a Southern Baptist meeting here that church-related colleges will not survive another decade if present education trends continue and financial support does not improve. Rufus C. Harris, president of Mercer University in Macon, Ga., said the best teachers are going to state-supporter schools where salaries are higher, and that the crisis of church-related colleges is getting worse.

Contributions Peak

NEW YORK (AP)—Private philanthropy last year reached an all-time national high of $8.7 billion, with more than half the total—$4.4 billion—given to churches, reports Catholic Market Magazine.

Refugees Credit

HONG KONG (AP)—The Maryknoll missionaries have started a credit union here to provide low-cost loans for refugees. The Roman Catholic mission order has previously set up such unions in five other countries where it serves.

THE ALL-SUFFICIENCY OF THE SCRIPTURES

If you read in the Bible its own claim of being all sufficient as a religious and moral guide, would you credit it as telling the truth and have the confidence to base your hope for eternity upon it? That is exactly the claim it makes and demonstrates within its pages its own divinity from a super-human source. It settles all moral and religious questions and confutes and silences error in every form: All that "pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue"—II Pet. 1:3. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for—doctrine—reproof—correction and instruction which is in righteousness that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto every good, or unto all good works." It produces the "New Birth." "Being born again, not of corruptible seed but of incorruptible by the word of God that liveth and abideth forever." I Pet. 1:23.

In matters of religion no man, no leader of religious thought, priest, preacher or rabbi has a plebiscite, a voice or a vote. The Word of God is the only matter of fact; infallibility does not rest in popes or churches in ministers or men lettered or unlettered; the only authentic official in the whole religious world is Christ and His eternal Word, "Heaven and earth shall pass away but my words shall not pass away"—Matt. 24:35.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

NO PLACE TO GO

All dressed up, the expression goes, and no place to go. These boys are hardly "dressed up." But the rest of the description fits them perfectly.

They are two of the millions of American children who are growing up WITHOUT A CHURCH. Boys with the God-given right to grow up in faith . . . with the American right to worship God freely according to the dictates of their own conscience. But someone hasn't understood their rights.

Parents who make no provision for their children's religious education are, in effect, robbing these children of the most precious heritage of every American. Grownups who, by the tell-tale example of indifference, encourage boys and girls to emulate the Godlessness that the Iron Curtain seeks to foster are undermining the spiritual substance of our nation.

No more serious problem faces America today than the children who on Sunday morning in a land of churches have no place to go.

Honestly, now, are you creating the problem—or helping to conquer it?

Execution Age Raised To 17
 ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Gov. Carl E. Sanders has signed into law a bill changing from 16 to 17 the minimum age for execution of criminals in Georgia.
 The new law will not benefit Preston Cobb Jr., 17, a Negro, convicted when 15 of murder in the slaying of his 70-year-old white employer.
 The Cobb case brought the age issue before the General Assembly shortly after it convened Jan. 14. After the State Supreme Court affirmed Cobb's conviction, the U.S. Supreme Court in December refused to review it.
 The trial judge fixed March 1 as the execution date but a habeas corpus suit delayed the execution.

Mexico Monday Observes Oil Expropriation Date

By JACK RUTLEDGE
 MEXICO CITY (AP)— Mexico celebrates Monday an event which shocked three world powers and rocked its own economy 25 years ago.
 This was the 1938 expropriation of foreign oil companies by grim young leftist President Lazaro Cardenas, still controversial in Mexican politics.
 The 25th anniversary finds Mexico for the first time with all expropriation debts paid.
 Major observance will be in Tampico, with President Adolfo Lopez Mateos, who nationalized the electric power industry, presiding.
 Pascual Gutierrez Roldan, director of Petroleos Mexicanos (Pemex), will report that Mexico's largest industry is sound and growing.
 The president says production has climbed to 116.8 million barrels a year, compared with 38.8 million in 1938. Pemex is operating 3,700 wells in 120 fields. Proven reserves, the president says, total 4.99 billion barrels compared with 1.24 billion in 1938.
 A Hollywood company plans to make a movie about the expropriation.
 The movement started when Mexico began to shift toward socialism. First railroads were nationalized. Cardenas later expropriated 35 million acres from big estates and gave them to farmhands.
 Then labor and management started arguing in the oil industry. The 17 U.S., British and Dutch oil producing and shipping companies set their value at $400 million. Mexican officials put the figure much lower.

 The 18,000 oil workers came up with 100 demands, including many the government said were impossible.
 They asked tripled wages, a 40-hour week, modern homes, 15 pounds of free ice daily, free first class fares on trains to anywhere for vacations, cars and chauffeurs for union leaders, 12 acres of land each.
 On March 1, 1938, the Mexican Supreme Court approved higher pay for the workers—from $1.12 daily to $1.45—and granted certain benefits.
 The oil companies refused to accept the verdict. Cardenas then expropriated the companies, turning them over to Mexicans under government control. He asserted that foreign oil companies had tried to control the Mexican government and the republic's economic and social life.
 The oil companies said the expropriation was unwarranted and illegal. They said they had elevated Mexico's labor standards and had helped to contribute to Mexico's advancement through investments and heavy tax payments.
 They said they were ready to meet the court decision if Mexico did not insist on granting labor certain rights of management.
 "It's too late," Cardenas told them.
 The United States protested and ceased buying silver from Mexico, a direct economic blow.
 Britain broke off relations. Mexico's economy sagged, the peso dropped. Foreign investments retreated, trade abroad slumped.
 Mexico began doing more business with Hitler Germany. It traded a million barrels of oil to Cuba for 50,000 tons of sugar.
 The confiscated oil industry also fell apart because of graft and a lack of technicians and financing. A retaliatory embargo by foreign companies on replacement parts for oil equipment was another factor. By 1949 Pemex exploration was a virtual standstill.
 The industry was rescued by Miguel Aleman, a business-minded lawyer who became Mexico's president. Aleman named pennington Antonio Bermudez to head Pemex in the early 1950s. He put the company on its upward climb. Pemex was about solvent by 1958.
 The 14 American companies agreed to settle their $150 million claim for $24 million plus interest. The final payment of $4.5 million was made in 1947.
 The British and Dutch companies claimed $250 million and for a decade insisted the expropriation was illegal. An agreement was reached in 1947 to pay them $81 million plus interest. The last payment was made in September, 1962.
 Mexico, once the second largest oil producer, is now well behind other international producers. Gutierrez Roldan says imports of foreign oil products, generally from Texas, will be shut off this year, and that exports will increase.
 Pemex has moved into the petrochemical field, with profit. New fields, new wells, new refineries, new ammonia plants, plans for a synthetic rubber industry—all point to sound growth.
 Help had to come from abroad, however. U. S. and European banks helped with $150 million. A French loan for a similar amount was recently announced.
 Pemex was hurt in the past two years when Mexico's boom contracted, due in part to the Castro scare. It is recovering.

Boys Are Held For Shoplifting

Three boys were in custody of Bob Darland, juvenile officer, following a report of shoplifting at Wacker's on Eleventh Place. One boy was picked up at the store, and two were picked up at Goliad Junior High morning. Darland said the boys had been involved in several shoplifting incidents in the past two or three days.
 Two more juveniles were involved in a fight on the North Side Wednesday. One boy received a long gash on his legs when the other slashed at him with a long-bladed pocket knife. The wounds were not serious.
 Two other boys were turned over to the juvenile officer Tuesday for vandalism to a vacant house on Birdwell Lane. The glass had been broken from doors and windows, and light fixtures damaged.
 Big Spring police have had few minor accidents during the week. Only two were reported Wednesday and one was a hit and run.
 A new car, parked at 2114 W. 3rd, was struck by a car which left the scene. The other, at 803 W. 18th, involved a parked car, owned by Mrs. William J. McLaughlin, which rolled into collision with another parked car owned by H. C. Stipp, 819 W. 18th.
 A report of an attempted burglary at the City Auction Co. building, 801 Lamesa Dr., was investigated. A door had been damaged and opened, but the manager, Cipriano Juarez, said nothing was missing.

DEAR ABBY
 Choose Carefully

DEAR ABBY: Who in the world can a person trust anymore? Our preacher sat right in our living room and told all the details of some domestic trouble another couple was having. He knew full well these people were friends of ours. Then I found out that my doctor discussed my case with my aunt without any inquiry on her part—she says. Yesterday a friend of mine told her daughter something I had told her in confidence just to get it off my chest. Heaven help me if I ever need a lawyer. I here they are the biggest gossips of all. I repeat—who can a person trust?
DISGUSTED
DEAR DISGUSTED: Most clergymen can keep a secret. And so can most doctors. But professional people under obligation to keep confidences, occasionally talk too much. If your confidences are always revealed, perhaps you are prone to pick the wrong confidants.
DEAR ABBY: Can you please tell me why women are so touchy about telling their right eye?
BEATS ME
DEAR BEATS ME: Beats ME, too. When a girl is young (around 14 or 15) the nicest compliment you can pay her is to say she appears to be about 19. When she reaches about 30, if you tell her she looks 35 you are apt to get smothered with kisses.
DEAR ABBY: A boy called me at 12:30 at night and woke up my father. My father got real angry and told him if he didn't have any better sense than to call at that hour he should never call me again. The boy said he'd "think" about it. You can imagine how much angrier my father got after that. The next day my father told me about what happened and he said I was not to answer any more telephone calls from boys until next year when I'll be in the Ninth Grade. This is the first time anything like this has ever happened to me. Do you think my father is being fair?
PUNISHED
DEAR PUNISHED: Your father was understandably irritated by the boy's attitude. But I think it's unfair to punish you because of another's insolence.
CONFIDENTIAL TO "Fictitious Names": You'd better think up another name. You aren't getting away with anything.
