Ex-Marine Claims Bizarre Spy Case

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—William S. Zilli, 38, winner of the Medal of Honor, would neither confirm nor deny he was the Capt. Jackson mentioned by Szili. Szili, 31, was quoted as saying he was given an honorable discharge March 16, 1962, after 12 years of service. He said he appealed to congressmen Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., and Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., and to Sens. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., and Hugh Scott, R-Pa., but they replied that the incident was handled "by such high authorities" they could do nothing, Szili said.

Szili, who lives in Norristown, in adjoining Montgomery County, said he wrote to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy who advised him to contact the Veterans Administration. Szili said when nothing came of this he wrote President Kennedy and this brought two Secret Service men to his home. They talked to him and his wife, Genevieve, a short time and then left, he continued.

Szili said a legal officer at Camp Lejeune, N.C., made him sign the statement saying he knew he could be fined and imprisoned, the story said.

Because of the incident, the story continued, Szili has been unable to find steady, profitable employment and Mrs. Szili, who is expecting a baby in September, has not seen a doctor yet because they haven't had sufficient money. They have three children. The oldest is 8.

Szili is the son of a retired Navy warrant officer. He joined the Marines during the Korean War, serving in Korea.

Back in the states he was chauffeur for several generals and in 1956, Szili asked to be sent to Guantanamo Naval Base in Cuba. He went there that year, became a staff sergeant and in 1958 was sent to Officer's Candidate School. He was commissioned a second lieutenant that year and 18 months later promoted to first lieutenant.

14 Bodies Of 22 Missing Miners Found

CLARKSBURG, W. Va. (AP)—Climaxfield Coal Co. announced shortly after noon that 14 bodies of 22 men trapped by an explosion in its Compass No. 2 mine near here have been recovered.

There was practically no hope for the other eight—even deeper in the mine—would be found alive.

Three bodies were found first near the main mine tunnel, about a mile and a half from the main entrance. Eleven other were found a short time later in a lateral working section.

The 22 men, all married, had 63 dependents.

Announcement of the finding of the first victims of the Thursday's explosion was made by mine Supt. Harry Chapman, whose brother is one of the missing miners.

The bodies, Chapman reported, were found near the opening of a drift in which 13 miners were scheduled to be working when a rumbling gas explosion hit the mine.

Seven other men were assigned to a drift 2,000 feet farther into the mine and two men were assisting both crews.

Outside the mine's entrance, women, coal miners in working gear, police and coal company officials kept vigil.

There was nothing on the outside to indicate what had taken place. Fans which circulate air through the mine continued to operate. The shaft was not damaged. The elevator which can carry 10 men down into the working area was still operating.

Leonard Timms, state mines director, said the trapped men were about 1 1/2 miles from the shaft when the explosion rumbled through the deep works.

As rescue crews leaped through mine drifts toward the explosion area 5,000 feet back in the mine, a company official said:

"We have hopes, but chances are slim they're still alive."

At the shaft head at Dola, six miles northwest of here, wives of the trapped men, officials, off-shift workers and miners who escaped the blast kept a dawn vigil.

State Police blocked rural roads to keep away the curious. Ambulances and rescue vehicles stood by.

Pickets At State Capitol

Eleven-month-old Blas Villareal III and his sister Dorcas joined four other sisters and relatives in picketing in front of the State Capitol in Austin, urging support of a bill before the state Senate to abolish capital punishment. The children's father is condemned slayer Blas Villareal Jr., who was convicted in the 1961 slaying of a Houston man.

'Defensive Bombs' Hit Refineries In Havana

Anti-Red Meeting Told Of Operation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Alexander Rorke told an anti-Communist meeting today he was aboard a plane that dropped "five defensive bombs" on refineries in Havana Thursday night.

Rorke, listed on the program as a television reporter-photographer, did not explain what he meant by "defensive bombs" but presumably it was a play on words on the contents by the Russians that they have only defensive weapons in Cuba.

"The bombs went off, but the tanks did not blow," he said.

He added "we made two passes—they can't deny it."

Rorke spoke to a meeting billed as an anti-Communist liaison seminar.

Later, Rorke told a reporter he was from New York City and had been a reporter for the National Broadcasting Company in Cuba and was imprisoned there when Fidel Castro came to power. He said also it was his boat, Violynn III, which was taken by the British.

Rorke introduced a man to the assembly as Laureano Batista, and said "He won't say he did it, and I won't say he did it." This was in reference to any role in Thursday night's operation.

Rorke said that "as to where the plane left from," he could say that "it was a small land mass off the Eurasian continent."

He called the operation "a defensive mission in a defensive plane."

He said not one shot was fired at them.

He said there were four people aboard the plane, including an American student from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology who was on his way to Boston.

Rorke laid particular stress on the desire of the Cubans for action to free their country from Castro.

"The Cubans for action are organized despite what you are told, and always have been," Rorke said.

He told reporters the bombing was at 8:55 p.m. and that those aboard the plane included Cuban freedom fighter technicians as well as Cubans.

He said they were over the Havana area, just east of Morro Castle for 4 minutes and 40 seconds.

He said also "I took movies as we approached."

ANOTHER STILL HELD

One Suspect Freed In Integrationist Slaying

GADSDEN, Ala. (AP)—Tight-lipped authorities have freed one of two men questioned at length about the roadside slaying of a Maryland integrationist pilgrim.

The other man still was being held today on an open charge.

The man released was identified as Gaddis Killian, 44, who reportedly turned himself in when his wife told him officers had been looking for him.

Neither he nor authorities would talk to newsmen when he was released late Thursday night.

The Tuesday night rifle slaying of William L. Moore, 35, a Baltimore mailman, was termed a "senseless, brutal killing with no apparent motive except hate" by a state investigator, Lt. Maurice Chambers.

Moore was hiking from Chattanooga, Tenn., to Jackson, Miss. where he had hoped to present his anti-segregation views to Gov. Ross Barnett.

Authorities declined to name the men they picked up, but Mrs. Killian and Mrs. Floyd Simpson said their husbands were taken into custody Thursday for questioning.

Mrs. Simpson said her husband operates a small store in a building owned by Killian. The location is about 18 miles from another store Moore stopped at shortly before he was shot twice at close range with a rifle.

Prointegration signs Moore was carrying were found near the body.

After investigators abruptly ended their hours-long questioning of the two men, six state and county officers went to adjacent DeKalb County, apparently to check out a new lead.

Maj. Bill Jones, chief of the investigative division of the State Department of Public Safety, declined to comment on the progress of the investigation.

MEETS WITH HARRIMAN

Khrushchev Declares He's For Peace In Laos

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Khrushchev assured Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman today that he joined with the United States in affirming full support of the accord on keeping Laos neutral and peaceful.

Khrushchev made the declaration in a joint communique issued after he had discussed the Laos situation for three and a half hours in the Kremlin with Harriman.

The communique declared that "The President (Kennedy) and chairman of the Council of Ministers (Khrushchev) reaffirmed that both governments fully support the general agreements on the Laotian question about which there was an exchange of views between them at Vienna and a mutual understanding reached."

The communique noted that Harriman delivered to Khrushchev a personal letter from President Kennedy on the Laotian situation.

Prospects appeared remote that the Soviets would intervene to check the Pathet Lao.

In Laos, informed sources in Vientiane reported the Pathet Lao shelled positions held by neutralist Gen. Kong Le's troops with artillery and mortars from 3 a.m.

until 2 p.m. Thursday but apparently did not otherwise try to drive the neutralists from their positions. The firing reportedly stopped when a storm broke over the area.

The sources said that members of the International Control Commission who flew to the Plaine des Jarres at the time heard and saw the Pathet Lao shell bursts.

Harriman, the chief U.S. negotiator at the Geneva conference on Laos, arrived from London Thursday night aboard a Soviet airliner.

Cosden-Fina Deal In Suspended Animation

A $90-million deal involving Cosden Petroleum Corporation and American Petrofina, Inc. hung in suspended animation here today.

Stockholders declared three recesses Thursday pending arrival of a tax ruling from the Internal Revenue Service in Washington, D.C., and at noon Friday there was no word that the IRS had acted.

Two of the Cosden directors, representing W. R. Grace & Co. which initiated the projected sale of Cosden, had to return to New York. Consequently William P. Gage, director of research for Grace, and George Blackwood, head of the Dewey, and Almy division will not be on hand should the ruling come through in time for a 2:30 p.m. parley today of the stockholders.

After the meeting at 11 a.m. Thursday, called presumably to give final blessing to the sale of all Cosden assets, had been recessed until 2 p.m., two similar delays arose. At 2 p.m., R. L. Tollett, Cosden president, said simply that the ruling had not been received. Nelson Phillips, Dallas, vice president and general counsel, moved recess until 4 p.m. and at 4 p.m. the procedure was repeated until 2:30 p.m. Friday.

Tollett noted at the 4 p.m. session in the company's meeting room in the Petroleum Building that legal counsel of both companies had advised against closing the trade until the tax ruling could be received and reviewed.

The terms of the agreement specifically set out that the trade is subject to a favorable ruling by the Treasury Department on reserved production payments, as well as other matters.

If a recess is necessary Friday afternoon, matters could be complicated further, for it therefore would be unlikely that a ruling could be expected before Monday. That is the date specified in the agreement for formally closing the transaction in Jersey City, N. J.

'Embarrassed' Official Quits Game, Fish Board

AUSTIN (AP)—Wilson Southwell of San Antonio resigned today as a member of the State Game and Fish Commission.

Southwell said he "felt he had been embarrassed by members of the commission." He did not elaborate in his brief resignation statement.

Commission members asked Southwell to reconsider his decision but he refused. Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the commission, had no immediate comment.

The resignation came after the commission had pledged themselves to support the recently created Parks and Wildlife Commission.

The Parks and Wildlife Commission, a combination of the Game and Fish Commission and State Parks Board, ran into heavy opposition from both agencies before winning legislative approval.

The Game Fish Commission accepted a motion today by commission member Frank Wood, Wichita Falls, to pledge all efforts "within its power to see that Texas has the finest parks and wildlife commission in the nation."

The Game and Fish Commission voted to construct an artificial reef of reinforced concrete drainage pipe in the Gulf of Mexico near Galveston. The commission said it had given up the idea of using old automobiles for artificial reefs.

The commission also decided to set public hearings on a proposal adopted in January to order a three-inch legal limit on the size of oysters taken on private and public reefs in Galveston Bay.

Terry Leary, coordinator of the commission, said he was disappointed that 113.3 million Americans will lose an hour apiece Sunday—all because of Ben Franklin.

When he was ambassador to France almost 200 years ago, thrifty Ben awoke unusually early one morning and found daylight streaming through his window while most of the citizens of the city still slept.

Franklin worried about the "wasted" daylight and conceived a plan to conserve the daylight by advancing clocks one hour.

This was the germ of Daylight Saving Time, which becomes effective generally at 2 a.m. Sunday in more than half the states, all or in part, and the District of Columbia.

The millions who lose an hour each when clocks are set ahead to comply with the new schedule will regain it when the clocks are turned back an hour in the fall.

Transfer Time Is Here Again

It is time to file applications for transfer for all boys and girls who cannot or will not attend the school they are now attending next term.

Walker Bailey, county superintendent, said that boys and girls in schools which do not teach their new grade must change to some other school. This can be done by the parents coming to the office of the county superintendent sometime in May and making formal application for transfer. Deadline is June 1.

New Line Being Tested

The new 18-inch water line from the filter plant to the Kentwood and South Mountain area was being tied in at the plant this morning. Director of Public Works Ernest Lillard said.

The contractors, Propandle Construction Co., Inc., propose to fill the line today and make a test Monday, he said. "In the meantime they have started work on laying the line from the new elevated storage tank to connect with the downtown system at Second and Owens."

The total cost of the additions to the distribution system, under the Master Plan bond program, including contract price and engineering, will be $142,473.18. An addition to the original plans include a 12-inch line from the tank to the front of the Big Spring State Hospital, east of US 87, at a cost of $11,729.88.

The city commission authorized the extension of the 12-inch line, while the contractor was on the field, so that added water service could be provided for the hospital if and when equitable water rates are established for the hospital.

Opening lead: Queen of ♠
A careless play by East at the opening gun in today's hand permitted declarer to subject him to the successive humiliations of a squeeze and end play subsequently.
East's opening one spade bid did not serve to hinder his opponents from bidding up to four hearts with dispatch. West opened the queen of spades, and without giving the matter a moment's thought, East overtook with his king in order to continue the suit. Declarer ruffed the third round with the jack of hearts.
Trumps were drawn in three pulls. It appeared on the surface that the contract hinged on a successful diamond fi-ness, but East's opening bid made it clear that the diamond king was adversely located. South's only chance then, was to execute an end play on his right hand opponent.

Declarer cashed his last trump discarding a small diamond from the dummy. East had thrown a spade on the previous round of hearts, and his next discard was a club. Three rounds of clubs were taken, ending up in dummy, and East discarded the ten of diamonds on the last club. A spade was led from the North hand putting East in with no recourse but to lead away from his king-jack of diamonds. Dummy took the last two tricks.

East should have organized his campaign at trick one. His diamond holding behind the dummy's strength should have alerted him to the desirability of obtaining a play from his partner in that suit. There is little chance that West has a trump holding which can be promoted thru an overruff in spades, nor is it likely that East will lose by postponing the cashing out of his spade tricks. It is suggested that East play the discouraging deuce of spades on the opening lead. This will alert West to the fact that a shift is desired, and North's hand will make it clear that only a diamond play can be of any assistance to East. The diamond shift will effectively disrupt declarer's plans to achieve an end position.

Trinity Mission To Enter Church Status

The congregation of Trinity Lutheran Mission will be organized into an official church and congregation Sunday.

The mission was launched about two years ago, when the Rev. Donald Kenning was called by the board of American missions of the Lutheran Church in America, as a mission-developer. He arrived in Big Spring June 7, 1961 and began his work by surveying the city.

First services were held in the River Funeral Chapel Sept. 25 of that year. Worship was continued there until Jan. 14th, 1962, when the group needed additional space for Sunday School facilities. The congregation rented a commercial building on US 80 at Wright Street, where they will continue to

National Coin Week To Be Observed Here

An elaborate display of rare coins will be placed in the show windows at Prager's Mens' Store starting Saturday—the Big Spring Coin Club's contribution to the observance of National Coin Week. The display will remain through May 4. National Coin Week is from April 27 through May 4.

Joe Maenner, chairman of the local club's committee for observance of the week, said that other displays are planned. One will be at the Service Club at Webb AFB, May 2.

Monday, Mayor George Zachariah is to sign a proclamation calling attention to the week and recommending that all residents view the exhibitions.

This is the second year the Big Spring Coin Club has observed National Coin Week. The club has more than 200 active members and a number of exceptionally fine coin collections are owned by local residents. Some of the most unusual of these will form a part of the Prager store exhibit.

Another special feature of the week is the operation of a special coin auction board at the Bill Kenney pawnshop. On this board, all members of the club and any citizen in the community who has a rare coin he is willing to sell, are invited to offer their holdings for sale. The collectors bid in the coins at prices usually well above catalogue listing.

All receipts from the auction sales (one of which was held last Friday) will be donated to the Howard County Rehabilitation (Crippled Children's) Center. Last week's receipts were $21.50. Another sale will be held Friday (today). Another board will be set up and continue through next Friday.

Other members of the special week committee are Emory Parrish, Lee Sanderson, Billie Smith and Bill Kenney.

Choir Festival Set Saturday

Saturday more than 700 boys and girls, ages 9-12, comprising 19 choirs, will meet at the First Baptist Church, Big Spring, for one of the regional State Junior Choir Festivals promoted by the music department, Baptist General Convention of Texas.

The program will begin at 9:30 a.m. and will consist of a period of worship, rehearsal periods, a period for choir adjudication, and a concert period, with the singing of the festival anthems: "Blessed Man Whom God Doth Aid," "Alleluia, Sing to Jesus," "Christmas Bell Carol," and "Heralds of Christ." Fritz Smith, San Antonio, and Al Wilson, Plainview, will be the guest clinicians. V. F. Fordehase, secretary of the church music department, will be in charge of the program.

DEAR ABBY

Some Hot, Some Cold

DEAR ABBY: You were wrong when you said "the customer is always right" in regard to the air-conditioning in a restaurant. It is far easier to get customers than it is to get a good waitress. If the waitress wants it cooler, we make it cooler. And we serve hot coffee for the customers who need it.

IN BUSINESS 30 YEARS

DEAR ABBY: Just read the complaint from CHILLED. I have been an air-conditioning engineer for years so can speak with some authority on this subject. In eating places where the hostess stands still, she is cold. The waitress who rushes around is hot. The customers are both cold and hot. The younger ones who get up and dance are hot. On ships, the woman with the baby says you are giving her baby pneumonia. The man in the next stateroom says it is so stifling he is getting seasick.

Nuts to everybody!
WALT, THE SOURPUSS ENGINEER

DEAR ABBY: One of my sons has been taking money from my purse since childhood. He is now 18 and is about to graduate from high school. We are still unable to leave money around without having it "disappear." He seldom admits to taking it, but there is no question about his guilt. We've tried reasoning with him, punishing him and even increasing his allowance. Nothing works. Can you suggest any other methods to break him of this habit?

ANXIOUS MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: Psychiatrists tell us that many youngsters steal money because they feel cheated of love or affection. The money fills the real or imagined void. Your son appears to need professional help.

CONFIDENTIAL TO DISAPPOINTED FATHER: If you will pull a few wires while your children are growing up, you won't have to pull any strings to get them into a "good" college. (Suggested wires to pull: television, hi-fi and telephone.)

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Social Security Benefits Showing Increase Locally

Monthly old-age, survivors and disability insurance benefits in Howard County now top $133,000. Erven Fisher, district manager of Social Security in Big Spring, said today on releasing his annual county benefit data report. The new monthly figure represents an increase of 15 per cent over the corresponding period last year.

"This increase can be attributed to the changes in the law in recent years, as well as to the growth of aged population," Fisher said.

Monthly benefits first became payable in January, 1940, and they have continued without interruption for 23 years, accompanied by a steady growth in the number of beneficiaries. Fisher noted that as of Dec. 31, 1962, some 2,271 Howard countians were collecting about $1,600,000 annually from Social Security, an increase of 14 per cent over 1961. More people in Howard County, he said, could draw social security benefits if they knew more about the law.

As of January, 1963, in the nation at large, more than 18 million beneficiaries were receiving payments at the rate of $1.18 billion per month.

The average monthly old-age retirement benefit in January was $78.19 for all states, while in the state of Texas the average was $68.49.

The following table shows the number and amount of each type of monthly benefit paid in Howard County as of Dec. 31, 1962.

| Beneficiary Group | Number of Beneficiaries | Payments |
|-------------------|-------------------------|----------|
| Retired Worker | 1065 | $73,137 |
| Wife or husband | 313 | 10,959 |
| Widow or widow's | 199 | 17,819 |

Alabama Visitor

Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy pauses to speak to some of the people who greeted him on the steps of the Alabama State Capitol in Montgomery. Kennedy visited the capitol to confer with Gov. George Wallace.

Bobbie Plans Further Talks, Warns Of Violence

ATLANTA (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy said today that unless moderates get together America can expect a rise in militancy and extremism on both sides of the racial issue.

Kennedy said he believed the country is "on the right road now" in dealing with civil rights problems and "I think we will get the job done."

As for Negroes, he said, "You can't expect a group of people to continue to be treated as inferiors. It would be the most natural thing in the world to go in some different direction."

He made that comment during a news conference in response to a question as to whether he considered the Black Muslims a subversive group. He said he did not class the Negro organization, which advocates black supremacy, as subversive.

The attorney general, on a courtesy visit to Southern governors and U.S. district attorneys, had breakfast today with Gov. Carl E. Sanders. He praised Georgia's progress in working out civil rights problems through cooperation by political, educational and religious leaders.

The attorney general already had visited with two Dixie governors. He warned at Columbia, S.C., one of the few remaining segregation strongholds, that real racial progress must be made or there will be worse agitation and bloodshed 10 years from now.

His breakfast with Sanders marked the start of a busy day in Atlanta, where a number of schools and colleges have desegregated.

The agenda included meetings with three U.S. attorneys. One of the primary reasons for the Southern tour was to consult with local Justice Department personnel.

Receiving their caps will be Billie Henderson, Christine Ramirez, Mrs. Bess Ernest Mrs. Jewel Fields, Mrs. Dorothy Hensley, Mrs. Patricia Holder, Mrs. Bobbie Hopper, Mrs. Louise Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Wynell Lavender, Mrs. Martine McDonald, Mrs. Patricia Patkowski, Mrs. Lou Dan Reed, Mrs. Dollie Shober, Mrs. Mammie Thornton, Mrs. Frances Tims and Mrs. Gertrude Unger.

They were buried under two inches of asphaltic concrete, when the overlay was put down by Parker & Parker Construction Co. in the Highway Department's program of retopping Gregg Street.

Rogan said Friday morning that the lights were being activated on time switches now until the re-topping work is completed. The activation will have to be raised to the level of the new surface or be replaced by other methods. Rogan said the six activators in the four approaches could be replaced by four photo-electric eye systems but that the cost would be high.

"In the meantime we will have to live with the problem until the highway work is completed, and then try to get the activators dug out or replaced," he said.

City Manager Larry Crow and Assistant Manager Roy Anderson left at 9 a.m. today to attend a meeting of the West Texas City Managers Association in Odessa. The one-day meeting will be attended by managers from an area extending from Big Spring to El Paso.

Reds Buzz 'Copters In East Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — Soviet planes approached two U.S. helicopters over East Berlin today in an apparent effort to discourage their routine flights over the Communist half of the city.

The helicopters were on routine flights in the Berlin Control Zone, which stretches over both parts of the city.

The Soviets have objected repeatedly to American helicopter flights over East Berlin, but the Western Allies contend that they have a right to fly anywhere in the control zone. The zone covers a circle of 20 miles radius from the center of the city.

Last August the Soviets threatened to shoot down an American helicopter which took off on a routine flight over the zone after filing a flight plan with the Berlin Air Safety Center. The center is administered by all four occupation powers — the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France.

The Soviets did not carry out their threat, and the U.S. commandant in Berlin protested to the Soviet commandant.

Today, a U.S. spokesman said, one of the helicopters was flying along the border when a Soviet jet fighter approached. The other helicopter was directly over East Berlin.

Edie Says This Is Age Of Fashion Hairstyling

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — "This is the age of fashion, hairstyles," Edie Adams exclaimed. "You have to go along with it. That's why wigs have become popular. Your hairstyle sets the keynote. It used to be the color of your hair that took the spotlight. Women had streaks in their hair, had the ends tipped in a different color or a spectacular color — silver blonde, beige blonde — every shade imaginable. Thank heavens that's had it. It was so hard on my hair."

EDIE ADAMS

Edie's hair is now a honey blonde—almost her own shade. "Because this is the age of creative hairstyling, hair coloring tends to follow nature. Even when you can afford professional services, every woman should know how to do her hair for an emergency or when she is traveling. And even if you can't afford to go to a salon regularly, you should save for a professional hair cut. It is the foundation of the hairstyle. The beauty of the way it falls into place depends on a good cut.

"The simplest hairdos are most flattering and most difficult to do. That smooth look with the French twist or a chignon in back may have been set with several different types of rollers and some back-combing. Try to recognize the difference between a plain coiffure and one that has imaginative simplicity.

"Women used to wear their hairstyles the same from their marriages to their graves, but today it's almost a must to go along with the trend. This does not mean you have to be a slave to it. That is a great weakness of American women. They all look too much alike—all follow the same image. I never realized it so much until I went to live in Europe. There they make fun of us for it. You expect school children to want to conform to that extent, but not adults.

"I am a great one for trying what is new. It may be wrong, but I want to find out. I was one of the first to try contact lenses. That was when they had to make an impression of your eye ball with wax. They have gone a long way since then. I used to sit for two hours waiting for the pain to go away. I can tell you this, if contact lenses are not comfortable by then, they never will be. "I kept trying every new model hoping to find an improvement. It is not pleasant to have your eyes water and wash out your lenses so that you have to find a washroom to go through the routine of replacing them. Now I have lenses I can wear all day with no discomfort. They hit the eye on four points with air vents and open spaces for the tears to wash through. Mine are bi-focal, and I have a pair with lenses corrected for sunlight so I won't squint.

"I have them in all colors be-

Mrs. B. R. Newton presided for the business session when an installation luncheon was set for May 9 at Coker's Restaurant. It will be a joint affair with the newly organized Progressive Forum. The installation ceremony will be conducted by Mrs. J. W. Dickens.

Project Topic For Program

Altrusa International's Founders Fund Vocational Aid program was explained and statistics given by Mrs. Helen Hooker, governor-elect of Altrusa District 9, Thursday when she spoke for the local membership. From Abilene, Mrs. Hooker was introduced by Mrs. Alma Gollnick, chairman of the information committee. The luncheon was held at Coker's Restaurant with the president, Mrs. H. D. Cowden, presiding.

Addressing the group, Mrs. Hooker explained the purpose of the vocational fund, which affords grants to women of all ages who need training or retraining, personal rehabilitation or equipment to become employable or self-employed.

The project, the only one of its kind, was established in 1953, and is administered by the International Committee. Grantees are recommended by local clubs. She continued by pointing out the progress made and the growth of the fund since its beginning. She said that District 9 leads over other districts in the number of grantees.

Mrs. Hooker commended the local group for its contributions, work and its increased membership, and concluded her talk with brief case histories of grantees.

Mrs. Cowden noted that the Big Spring Club had doubled its vocational fund this year, and the group was reminded of the installation dinner which is slated for June 19 in the Gold Room of the Big Spring Country Club.

Some 30 members were present. Guests attending were Mrs. Plummer of North Platte, Neb., Mrs. Al Carter, Mrs. Hank McDaniel, Mrs. Modesta Simpson and the speaker.

GS CAMP VOLUNTEERS

Day camp for Girl Scouts will depend upon securing volunteers who will train for operation of the camp in June. Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr. urged women, regardless of whether they have been registered in Scouting, to contact her if they can and will help with the camp. All they need is an interest in helping girls, she said.

The first day of training on May 1 from 9 a. m. to 12 noon at the Girl Scout hut on Lancaster Street will deal with camp government, expectations, and other operational details. The second session May 8 will follow a similar pattern. The third session on May 15 will be at the camp grounds to demonstrate camping skills. The camp itself will be staged on June 3-8 and June 10-15.

Tea Will Honor Mrs. Womack

Mrs. Royce Womack, worthy matron of the Laura B. Hart Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, will be honored at a tea Sunday in the home of Mrs. A. C. Bass, 106 Washington.

Invited are members of Chapter 67 and OES members in surrounding towns. Calling hours will be from 2:30 to 5:30 p. m.

Neck Determines Kind Of Pearls

What kind of pearls you wear largely depends on the shape of your neck.

A woman with a long and thin neck should wear a short strand lying loosely just above the collar bone. A multiple strand with the first strand near the base of the neck also helps to improve the proportions.

A long-necked woman should not wear high, tight chokers and plunging lines of sautoirs (ropes) or opera length necklaces.

A woman with a short or wide neck can improve her neckline with a string of oval shaped pearls that fall just below the collarbone. Two or more strands are attractive if the strands are separated slightly.

Welcome

TO

WEBB PILOT TRAINING CLASS 64-G

Big Spring and all its people extend the friendly hand of a West Texas welcome to the student pilots of Webb's Class 64-G. These young men, here for a complete course of primary and basic jet-flying instruction, become citizens of our city for more than a year, and it is our earnest hope that they will find here a helpful, cheerful and hospitable atmosphere; and that when they must leave, they will do so with a kind feeling in their hearts for Big Spring, its business establishments, and all its population.

May we urge our new student pilots, as time permits them, to become acquainted with our town, to know about the churches and the schools, the facilities for leisure and enjoyment, the shops and the service establishments.

Particularly do we ask them to drop in and see us, just to let us get acquainted, and say in person what we are saying here. There's no obligation to buy at any time . . . we want to be of service, and of assistance if we can.

Yes, it's all wrapped up in one wholesome, hearty word . . . "WELCOME!"

A "HOSPITALITY GIFT" For New STUDENT PILOTS

If the Webb student pilot or his wife will call within the next 10 days at the store or service establishment whose name appears with his under his picture (bringing this page with him for identification), he will be given a "welcome gift" by that firm. There is no obligation, and we simply ask that the visit be for getting acquainted. Be our guest!

"Let not things, because they are common, enjoy for that the less share of our consideration."
Pliny the Elder

DAILY GUIDE—Just an ordinary day, but do not neglect the usual routine matters. You may want to be free over the weekend to enjoy some extra social activities.

Arians should plan an especially festive weekend since they have everything in their favor for enjoyment. They can enjoy a hint of the favorable trend of their year ahead. The more you have done to earn happiness, the more likely will it come this year.

Leos and Sagittarians can also count on a happy weekend with friends and loved ones.

However, Taurans, Scorpios and Aquarians may not fare as well unless they are very wise in the way they handle matters. Aquarians need to pay attention to career, reputation and contacts with important people. Taurans need to be wary in personal relationships and career matters, as well as domestic conditions. Scorpios are likely to be carried away with their emotions. The Leos could easily stir things up, and keep everyone else in a turmoil.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, TAURUS!

Your problems regarding home base, career, and personal relationships may have been solved by now, but if not, do try to clear some of them up before June. You will want to be free to enjoy sudden release from some tight situations which could have been holding you down. Social or romantic excitement is due then, and you should be able to express your personality more individually and enjoy new contacts. The situation regarding your career remains critical so do not neglect duties and the extra hard work necessary. The public, mate, or associates will still be a puzzle at times, especially this year in October.

Kennedy Farm Bill Passed By House

WASHINGTON (AP) — A key Kennedy administration farm bill, extending basic provisions of the feed grains price support and acreage diversion program, has won House passage.

A 208 to 196 roll call vote Thursday sent the measure to the Senate.

Republicans had demanded that action be put off for at least a month. They contended the timing of the feed grains vote amounted to a pressure move to win farmer approval of a wheat bill that passed Congress last year. Wheat growers vote on that in a referendum May 21.

The sole purpose of this legislation at this time is to bring about a favorable vote on the wheat referendum," Rep. Charles Hoeven, R-Iowa, told the House.

But the House rejected a Republican bid to send the bill back to the Agriculture Committee, to put off action until after the wheat referendum.

Democratic leaders have said the feed grains measure is the only major farm bill the administration will send Congress this year.

The Republicans argue that if the wheat referendum, on a support-acreage control plan originally proposed by Kennedy, should be rejected by farmers, the Democrats would hasten to pass a new wheat bill at this session of Congress.

Democratic leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma said unless the feed grains legislation passed before the referendum, wheat farmers would be "voting in the dark," without knowing how that support program would fit in with the wheat plan.

As for the Republican argument that there would be new wheat legislation, Albert snapped:

"Anyone who makes any statement about the potential of legislation of this kind is being extremely reckless with the wheat farmers of the United States."

Republicans also complained that the feed grains bill would put too much power in the hands of Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

Rep. Clarence Brown, R-Ohio, said the bill included "well-covered compulsory provisions."

"It would give this man Freeman, who as I know never spent a day of his life on a farm, the power to make all sorts of decisions not only for the farmers of the country but for the Congress as well," he said.

Under the bill, Freeman would have broad discretion in setting price supports and acreage diversion payments for growers who voluntarily sign up for the program.

Cooperating farmers would get price supports ranging from 65 to 90 per cent of parity, the yardstick designed to give farmers a fair return in relation to their crops.

CLAUDETTE PEEL DAY

Fellow Pupils Help With Donations

By SAM BLACKBURN
Wednesday was "Claudette Peel Day" at Runnels Junior High School. Sunday, if all goes well, again—this time for the Guy Peel family at 101 Madison.

CLAUDETTE PEEL

Claudette, a plucky little 13-year-old seventh grader, has had about the worst break a youngster could encounter. A malignant tumor of the bone developed in her left arm. She was sent to Anderson Hospital in Houston. Surgeons amputated the arm just few inches below the shoulder April 17.

MONETARY GIFTS
Wednesday, her classmates declared the day at Runnels Junior High School in her honor and brought small monetary gifts for her. The day's collection, abetted perhaps by a few donations by some of the teachers, the janitorial staff and others, hit $105. It is still growing today. Members of the faculty, whose paychecks came in Thursday, were fattening the pot still further.

He said Claudette's trouble was rapid in development. "About a month ago," he said, "she complained her arm hurt. About two weeks ago, a sort of lump formed on the upper arm. We took her to the hospital and they took X-rays. They told us what we were up against and instructed us to go to the Houston hospital as fast as we could. That was Monday and Wednesday Claudette was in the operating room."

ENCOURAGING LETTER
"It was sure an encouraging letter," smiled the father. Roscoe Newell, principal at Runnels, said he would talk to Guy Peel, all younger than she, and can have company, the money given by her schoolmates will be delivered to her in person. Peel and his family moved here from Odessa last November.

Her physician here said that it was well the surgeons had been able to save a little of her arm. He also said that the malignancy is often found in adolescent children.

She's a very active child," said her father. "She knows she's a mighty sick little girl. We told her how bad it was and she took it like a little heroine. She's in good spirits and is sure that everything is going to work out just fine."

OPERATION
"If the operation got all of it," he added, "Claudette has a good chance to do all right." Claudette is a pupil in Mrs. Forest Gambill's homeroom at Runnels.

Moon May Have Role In Next Election

WASHINGTON (AP)—Since caveman days the moon has exerted undue influence on human affairs—and now it threatens to affect the 1964 presidential election.

A lively debate is under way on the big question: Should we spend $20 billion—more or less—on a crash program to land men on the moon in this decade?

President Kennedy says yes. Some others, notably Republicans, express grave doubts. The scientific community is split.

CONFOUNDING MOON
Less well known, perhaps, is the fact that the moon confounded ancient calendar makers. For centuries astute Babylonian astronomers—and later the even smarter Greeks—tried in vain to construct a satisfactory calendar based on the moon's movements. Twelve moons simply do not make a year—and that's that.

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE
A number of Senate Republicans complain that the space program threatens to cut unduly into the domain of private enterprise.

ROCKEFELLER CRITICIZES Nuclear Programs
NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says the Kennedy administration's nuclear programs for Western Europe would cause a "crazy quilt of nuclear forces within NATO."

Nautilus Ex-Skipper Called Back To Aid Rescue Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy has called back from retirement Capt. William R. Anderson, skipper of the pioneer nuclear submarine Nautilus, to help pull together its underwater rescue programs and techniques for salvage from the ocean floor.

Anderson's return to temporary active duty with a new naval group was learned today, little more than two weeks after the nuclear submarine Thresher sank a mile and a half under the Atlantic's waves with 129 men.

But the Nautilus electric power was unaffected and she was driven to the surface. Investigators into the Thresher's loss have considered, among many other possibilities, that a fitting popped, flooding a compartment and causing an electrical short circuit which cut off all power to the control planes.

Anderson said his section, will be concerned not only with seeking new techniques for finding and salvaging sunken ships, but locating and recovering other objects, such as nose cones from ballistic missiles or satellite vehicles which fall into the sea.

Anderson avoided speculation on what might have caused the Thresher disaster. A reporter asked Anderson about an earlier incident aboard the Nautilus when she was threatened for a few minutes.

Revival

Rev. Wilbur Gaede, pastor at Olton, will be the speaker for the revival at Wesley Methodist Church, beginning Sunday and continuing through the week.

Morton Lashes JFK Over Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky has charged President Kennedy with playing politics over Cuba.

Goldwater said that while he does not advocate early invasion of the island, he is not afraid of going to war over Cuba.

"During the 1950s there were few if any Republican voices raised in support of Castro and there were few, if any, Democratic voices raised in condemnation of Castro," Morton declared. "This record is clear."

"Nobody in Congress is proposing war," Cramer said. "But the United States has sent troops to Thailand and Viet Nam. It has troops in Berlin. And the President says we can't do anything about Cuba. That sounds very hollow to me."

When the invasion was attempted under the Kennedy administration in April 1961 at the Bay of Pigs it failed, Morton added.

Sen. John G. Tower of Texas, in a radio interview (CBS-Capitol Clockroom), said he does not "currently advocate invasion" and then commented, "We should shoot at Soviet oil tankers if necessary. I think the Russians would have to withdraw. I can't believe that Khrushchev would initiate a thermonuclear war just over Cuba."

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The question is often asked "If the churches of Christ have New Testament authority for every practice, where does the New Testament authorize the Sunday School?"

Scriptural authority is based upon four premises: 1. Specific Commands; 2. Generic Commands; 3. Approved Examples; and 4. Necessary Inferences. Authority for the Sunday School is found in the Generic Commands.

What is a Generic Command? It is one in which the Lord does not reveal any specific method of executing a command. "Make thee an ark" (Gen. 6:14) is a Generic Command for God left certain details of the construction of the ark up to the discretion of Noah.

The command includes the tools Noah desired to use although they are not specifically mentioned.

Jesus gave a Generic Command by saying "Go...teach all nations" (Matt. 28:19). God did not say how to "Go." We may, therefore, ride, fly, walk or swim. Neither did the Lord say how to "teach." We may, therefore, teach individuals, small groups, large groups or multitudes. We may teach standing or sitting; at the beginning of the service or at the close. We may teach in one assembly or many assemblies. The Lord simply commanded us to "teach." He did not specify any one method of teaching. Any method that is expedient is authorized by the command of Christ to teach the gospel! The Sunday School is an expedient method of teaching. It is, therefore, authorized in the New Testament.

Bible classes for all ages are conducted by the Northside church of Christ (601 N. Runnels) Sunday at 10 a.m. Worship: 11 a.m.; 6 p.m. Visit with us!

A customer walked into a Plymouth dealership the other day and asked where he could get a Fury just like the one that beat Chevrolet and Ford in 8 out of 10 tests at Riverside. Big Government

Critics of the "big government," which is usually equated with the "federal bureaucracy," are pointing in alarm at the increase in the U.S. government's civilian employment under the Kennedy administration. And federal workers, now numbering 2 1/2 million, have increased by 130,000 since Kennedy took office and will increase by 36,000 more if his next year's budget requests are met.

Few objective observers will dispute that at any time federal employment probably could be trimmed—granting improved efficiency—without seriously impairing essential or even merely desirable governmental operations. Our government undoubtedly is the biggest thing around. But this federal bureaucracy issue should be kept in something like rational perspective, and so it was put recently in a floor speech by House Majority Whip Hale Boggs, D-La.

Rep. Boggs pointed out that federal civilian employment has actually declined 3 per cent since 1953—the Korean War peak—a period during which state and local governmental employment was increasing an astonishing 63 per cent. Those are figures to ponder when hearing arguments that everything is being concentrated in Washington and that more functions and activities should be shifted to lower levels of government.

Boggs also reported that federal employment has declined even more in ratio to the nation's population. The federal government had 1.6 employees for every 100 persons in the country in 1962, which dropped to 1.4 in 1958. The outlook is for 1.3 employees per 100 population by next year.

It is significant also that 72 per cent of federal civilian employment is in three agencies that few congressmen would want to cut: The Defense and Post Office Departments and the Veterans Administration. Also direct federal employment shrinks beside private employment dependent on federal contracts. The space agency, for example, has 26,000 employees, but has let contracts to private concerns employing half a million; such indirect employment runs to millions in relation to the Defense Department.

All of this is not to say that there is not fat in the federal payroll or that Congress should not try to eliminate any waste or nonessentials it may spot in the President's proposals. Indeed it should. But it is a reminder that a big nation is apt to maintain a rather big government establishment. Perhaps it would be useful if some general acceptance could be had of a right ratio rather than gearing it to a fixed number.

days of the calamitous "Great Leap Forward." Most of the gain, however, has been canceled out by the rising Chinese population—up to 40 to 50 million since 1957.

Premier Khrushchev's food problems are less desperate but no less nagging. His seven-year (1958-65) agricultural plan is averaging over-all crop increases of only 13 per cent annually instead of the projected eight per cent. Retail prices of both meat and milk were boosted last summer and consumers are grumbling. For the first time since the 1930's, a significant share (12 per cent) of the government's economic development funds has been allocated to the farming sector in 1963. Now Khrushchev has announced plans to take cattle out of the hands of private owners on state farms. If he does, he could accuse the Red Chinese of "revisionism" for their retreat back to private initiative—but only revisionism seems to work down on the Red farm.

Restoration of such capitalist-world features as private plots, private reclamation and rural trade fairs marks a general strategic about-face from the and drawers of water and become part of industrial America. The drama of change and the striking contrast with Mississippi are shown in figures compiled by the Department of Commerce. In new investment in plant and equipment South Carolina went from $75,200,000 in 1958 to $125,400,000 in 1960. While there was a slight drop the following year the total was nevertheless $107,900,000.

WITH A population of about the same size Mississippi in 1958 had $37,900,000. This went to $63,700,000 the following year but by 1961 it had dropped to $38,200,000.

New people coming into South Carolina—technicians, engineers with growing families—want good schools. They do not want to be caught in the middle of a violent quarrel between segregationists and integrationists, nor do the managers of industry who determine where new plants shall be located. This is what Gov. Russell and the others have learned in the course of trying to move their state into the latter half of the 20th Century.

THERE IS nothing new in the commission's finding that Mississippi receives far more in federal funds than it pays out in federal taxes. This has been true in most states of the Confederacy for nearly a century.

One of the finest interpreters of the Confederacy for nearly a century. One of the finest interpreters of the dilemma of the South, the late Thomas L. Stokes, a Georgian by birth, frequently pointed out the relationship between a deep-seated sense of inequity and the demagoguery of the bloody shirt. A strong Southern conviction was that the North was mining out the soil and other resources of the South and returning only a small slice of the profits from Northern manufacturers. Tapping the federal government—for rivers and harbors in a simpler day—was one way to try to even up the score.

IN THE TERRIBLE years of the Civil War the educational system of the South was destroyed. It was not until 1900 really that a beginning was made at building it back. An awareness of this handicap has spurred leaders in both South and North Carolina and elsewhere to concentrate on improving education at every level.

Certainly the pace is too slow and the fierce quarrel over integration has cut across the urgent need for growth and change. But the pace of change is too slow in the Northern cities where Negroes remain crowded into slum areas with only a limited opportunity to break out. With a growing sense of frustration and even hatred, these slums are the breeding ground for crime and delinquency, with in some instances a virtual breakdown of law and order.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS Commission pointed out that the National Aeronautics and Space Agency is putting a $400,000,000 moon rocket engine test center in Pearl River and Hancock counties in Mississippi. NASA justifies this for reasons of transportation and other details of operation. It will mean a large influx of engineers and scientists who may help to change the climate of the state. But for the long pull government alone cannot work the transformation.

Critics Without An Answer

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy doesn't seem to know how to get rid of Castro and the Soviet troops out of Cuba, without risking war with Russia. His Republican critics boldly challenge him to do more.

But, when their ideas are examined, they turn out to be a lot less bold than they may sound. They have proposed either half-way measures or hedged when they tried to sound most vigorous.

At his news conference this week

Kennedy asked his critics to say whether they want to go to war to get rid of Castro. If not, he asked them to say precisely what their solutions are.

REPUBLICAN Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, one of the most consistent demanders of action, said he is not afraid to go to war over Cuba but he is not advocating an early invasion of the island.

He didn't explain how Cuban communism could be demolished without an invasion.

Nevertheless, he said: "If we are not willing to take risks we might as well give up. Republicans have not advocated invasion of Cuba. Neither have they shrunk because of fear from the possibility of this happening."

What does this mean? It might be considered an attitude toward the danger of war. But it is neither a solution nor an answer to Kennedy's question.

Kennedy himself was less than precise in taking a dig at former President Eisenhower for not getting rid of Castro while he was in the White House.

"Perhaps," Kennedy said, "it would have been easier to take action then than it is now. But those who were in positions of responsibility did not make that judgment."

WAS HE suggesting Eisenhower should have ordered an American invasion before the Russians moved into Cuba? If so, he had a similar chance but didn't take it.

Sen. Thurston Morton, R-Ky., pointed out that all Kennedy did was finish what Eisenhower was preparing to do. An invasion by Cuban exiles but not by Americans. The exiles' invasion, backed by Kennedy, fell on its face.

Going back over Goldwater's proposals of the past, this is what he had advocated: "Hit-and-run raids by the exiles. Kennedy stopped them on the grounds that they accomplished nothing and might get this country into conflict with the Russians. The Republicans' Senate leader, Everett Dirksen of Illinois, said: 'A blockade (Kennedy and Dirksen said a full blockade would be an act of war.)'

AND AN invasion if necessary. But that's a little less bold than it looks. Goldwater only suggested an invasion by the exiles with some American support, but no invasion by this country unless the other Latin-American countries took part.

Goldwater said: "I think we can accomplish it (an invasion) without having to commit our own troops."

Blessing Of A Garden

NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions—how many do you agree with?

The best insurance against a feeling of uselessness in old age is a garden.

Sorrow's crown of sorrows among the elderly is the realization they are no longer needed. To stay young in heart and purpose you have to dwell in a world that is dependent upon you and cannot get along without you.

When you plant a garden you create such a world. It will wither without your hand.

A Social Security pension at 65 is a fine and welcome thing. But Uncle Sam would have a happier senior citizen—and improve the landscape—if at retirement time he gave every man and woman a quarter acre of earth and a pocketful of seeds.

It's hard to feel old when you're busy helping something to grow. One of life's pleasant sights is a fat woman having a belly laugh. There is so much of her having a good time—she's a real mirthquake.

Are you tired of magazines that devote their entire issues to a single general subject—such as women, money or the atom bomb? They give me a big yawn.

I never trust a man who says he feels good on Monday mornings. He is bound to be either a liar or a hypocrite.

An optimist is a person who gives a modern child a penny and expects to get back a look of gratitude.

It takes a born critic to be a good dentist.

The worst part of being a career diplomat is having to pretend you like civar.

When a woman doesn't care much about a man she addresses him impersonally. But if she is fond of him she gets a tireless thrill out of calling him by his first name. Thus you can always tell what a girl thinks of you by how often she employs your name.

Life is never utterly hopeless to a fellow as long as he can still enjoy eating corn on the cob.

Wisdom drowns in the first martini; folly flowers in any poured thereafter.

Nine out of ten husbands never read the fine print in their life insurance policies—but four out of five of their wives do.

A single girl doesn't become an old maid until she brings home her second cat.

An old bachelor never seems lonelier than when he's trying to make friends with a baby.

If there were only one tree in the world, what kind would you want it to be? I'd like it to be an apple tree. Second choice, Oak. Third choice, Elm. Honorable mention, Maple.

Mononucleosis A Self-Limiting Disease

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D.
Dear Dr. Molner: What about the "blood disease" known as "mononucleosis"? Is it spread only by saliva? Can it recur, or may one have it once and become immune?

It seems to be spreading among teenagers.—L. F.
Infectious mononucleosis is a virus infection. It is characterized (and thus named) by the presence in the blood of a large number of white cells, called mononuclear. A blood test is an excellent way of diagnosing a suspected case, but this does not imply that treatment of the blood is necessary.

Rather, mononucleosis is a self-limiting disease. Like the common cold, you get it and you get over it, and there isn't any specific cure.

Whether it is spread "only by saliva" is not known, but it does spread from person to person, especially among young people, and often among college students in dormitories or troops in military installations.

The characteristics include fatigue, swollen and tender glands (it is also called "glandular fever") and sometimes a transient hepatitis—that is, a liver condition, but not to be confused with the more serious types.

Plenty of rest and wholesome complications, are the essential treatment. Taking the ailment too lightly isn't wise, because relapses can occur.

type of ailment that should frighten anyone. It clears up leaving no after-effects. One attack usually confers immunity, which very possibly may be why we see it among young people and rarely among older ones.

I question whether it really is "spreading among teenagers," but suspect, rather, that it is being diagnosed more readily instead of being passed off as something else.

Exactly how the virus is transmitted is not known. Mononucleosis has been called "the kissing disease" because of the age of its most frequent victims, but that doesn't explain its spread in non-educational schools or army barracks. It may spread pretty much the way colds do, or measles, or whatnot.

Sir: I have developed an itchy condition of hips and legs. I have tried soda and starch baths without success. Have you any suggestions? I am 80 and in good condition otherwise.—C. N.

I'd see a dermatologist to make sure that you haven't fallen victim to some skin ailment. If he says no, that it's just a result of the drying of skin which comes as we get older, he can suggest other remedies, among them special soaps, lanolin creams or bath oils. I'm twenty-odd years younger than you are, but find that a cocoa-butter based soap helps me.

On the other hand, it isn't the

Around The Rim

Three Corners For Armageddon

Ordinarily, I put no stock in prophecies, spiritualism, alleged miracles, and other assorted matters of the occult. Yet, I am aware that the potentialities of the human mind and of the universe itself are as yet only vaguely understood. Also, it is not so easy to explain away things like the prophecies of Nostradamus and the Star of Bethlehem.

This column contains no personal prophecies; but it behooves me to take note of certain events:

ON OCT. 17, 1917, according to Roman Catholic officials, three Portuguese shepherd girls witnessed an apparition of the Virgin Mary, in which prophecies were made—some to prove that the girls were not merely having nightmares, the main prophecy centering on a coming conversion of the Soviet Union. On Nov. 7, 1917, the Soviet Union came into being (Oct. 25 by the Western calendar).

Communism, from the start, suffered a disease known as "revisionism"—human nature (or perhaps another Force) working changes in Karl Marx' original doctrine. Lenin, Trotsky, Stalin all revised and amended. Russian family life and religious traditions, to say nothing of Russian nationalism, also helped the forces of revisionism.

IN MID-CENTURY, Marshal Tito took Yugoslavia out of the Kremlin camp and backed off from doctrinal Marxism. During the 1950's, Premier Khrushchev of the Soviet Union wore away Stalinism and backed off from doctrinal Marxism. Often, he seemed to waver between speaking of God and denying Him.

In 1962, the world may have barely missed an early Armageddon over Cuba.

Only China favors all-out nuclear war, which she someday will be able to wage—and the Chinese Communists have moved steadily in the direction of Marxist purism.

IN 1963, an unbelievable thing happened—Khrushchev's son-in-law paid a visit to Pope John XXIII, and was heartily accepted. Meanwhile, Khrushchev and U. S. President Kennedy (a Catholic) seemed restrained, and there was talk of a summit meeting. The Pope's encyclical was addressed to all men who would listen, not just Catholics, and it received fairly good press notices in Russia—both unorthodox events. Khrushchev announced major revisions in Communist ideology, supported by the party. There was talk of a possible concordat between the Kremlin and the Vatican.

I said this column is no prophecy—merely an adding together of evidence. Readers may add the same evidence and get wholly different answers. But here's how the future is beginning to look to me:

THE MARXIST EMPIRE is centered in China, with big chunks of Asia added. The Marxists finally have a full stock of nuclear missiles.

The Protestant Alliance consists of the United States, Canada, and most of Western Europe, with major outposts in Africa and Asia.

The third empire, whose name can only be guessed at, has two capitals—Rome and Moscow—and extends from Siberia to Latin America, with outposts in Asia and Africa and Protestant Alliance nations of the Protestant Alliance.

You may recall that Armageddon is supposed to be a three-way battle.

No More Spilling Of Martinis

In this aggressively scientific world, which continually stuns adults whose only acquaintance with science consists of a hit-and-run encounter with high school chemistry, I try to bring enlightenment from time to time.

Such enlightenment, in turn, is handed on to me by a few friendly spies toiling in the laboratories that are rapidly remaking the world nearer the heart's desire of the Bunsen burner and the test tube.

A LETTER FROM a secret operative begins: "I have just run across some special intelligence on the Scientific Front that ought not to be withheld longer from your public. Word has just reached me from the laboratory over the hill that the boys in the back room, to their amazement, have developed a solid-state martini."

"Their amazement stems from the fact that these Ph.D.s were (1) working on some esoteric space problem and (2) that neither the prime nor any of the subcontractors involved have everything remotely to do with the liquor business."

"THE DISCOVERY of the solid martini appears to have been the accidental product of high thinking and low resistance. It is now regarded in the laboratory as a reward of hard work and good, clean living. The scientists responsible sneaked a little of the stuff over to my lab, and it is actually true that you can spread the stuff on a cracker or eat it with a spoon."

"I have promised not to reveal anything more about it, as the inventors are thinking of applying for a patent. But I can say that it tastes like a liquid martini and acts like a martini and is a solid send."

"ALSO, IN DEFENSE of modern scientists, who are still regarded as dreamy, impractical fellows who are trying to blow up the world, I want to report the practical comments of one of the men responsible for the solid martini. He pointed out to me that such a martini would solve the problem of the man who recently consulted his doctor because his— the patient's—hands shook so alarmingly.

"THE PATIENT suggested that possibly he was drinking too much, but the doctor said a cocktail or two before dinner was therapeutic."

"But, Doc, I really drink," the patient insisted.

"How much a day?" asked the physician. "A pint, a pint and a half."

"Gosh, Doc," said the patient, "I spill that much."

"Just to show you what practical men of affairs scientists have become," my spy continues, "this scientist guarding the secret of the solid martini said: 'Our product would eliminate that sort of waste.'"

BUT THE ABOVE is not the only communication from the science front. The second is from a Ph.D. engaged in research and development for one of America's largest chemical firms. He writes to say that one of the greatest achievements of American science is the cannibal-resistant American.

You may remember that some weeks ago a titled Britisher in the House of Lords flatly stated that Americans are no longer a gourmet item among cannibals, because we were so long a favorite, because of the amount of DDT in our respective systems.

"WHAT AN incredible achievement!" this scientist writes exulting of the cannibal-repellent American. "Of course, the cannibals are missing a good bit. If only they resumed their normal diet of a Yank in every Sunday pot, they also would get a little DDT in their blood. This would enable them to resist the anopheles mosquito and its friendly tenant, malaria, which kills so many of them."

"RESISTANCE to elephantiasis, yellow fever, dengue, swabs and bubonic plague would be only a few dividends from a return to the menu of chlorinated Yankee soup."

We Fight For Laos, Not For Cuba

WASHINGTON—Most Americans can't pinpoint Laos on a world map. They know it's somewhere in Southeast Asia. Yet they read in the newspapers that American Marines are being rushed to the area, that American soldiers have been losing their lives next door in South Vietnam, and that the President of the United States is engaged in serious discussions which are indicative of a crisis with the Soviet Union about Laos.

IN CONTRAST, just 90 miles away is Cuba, where the Soviet Union has between 10,000 and 20,000 troops and technicians and the latest weapons of warfare, but the United States hesitates to invade Cuba, though it is apparently ready to threaten the use of military force in Laos.

THE FOREIGN POLICY of the United States today toward Russia is a mixture of strong words at times and long periods of inaction. The strange attitude with reference to Cuba because of a fear of offending the Soviet Union, is of course, explained in the hackneyed phrases of diplomacy. In the one case, it is argued that Thailand—next door to Laos—has "invited" American help, while, in the case of Cuba, it is pointed out that Castro has "invited" Soviet help.

IN THE LAST few days, Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Democratic leader in the Senate, has come out in favor of an economic embargo against Cuba by all countries in this hemisphere. He wouldn't have made such a statement without the approval of the President. The plan undoubtedly is to mobilize sentiment behind the whole idea as the United States, through diplomatic channels, begins to urge the Latin-American countries to organize an economic boycott against Cuba under the auspices of the Organization of American States.

THIS, HOWEVER, is a long and tedious process and looks like a temporary scheme to answer the criticism about a "do-nothing" policy. After several months it will become apparent that an economic embargo against Cuba is hardly effective. When and if, as Sen. Strom Thurmond, Democrat of South Carolina has urged, the United States faces up to the Communist threat everywhere and begins to consider a severance of diplomatic relations with the Soviet government, then—and only then—will situations such as have arisen in Laos and in Cuba begin to be changed from defeat to victory for the free world.

Billy Graham

Why are there four different forms of creation related in the books of Genesis as follows: Genesis 1:26-27; 2:21, 22 and 4:11 and a fifth form in Isaiah 2:22? Does this indicate that God was using the trial and error method to determine which method or form was the correct one? F. C.

The Scripture you give in Isaiah 2:22 has nothing to do with what the form of creation, but rather tells us of the transitory character of man's life. He is not on this earth forever. He is only here for a short time.

The other records display a very logical progress. For example, Genesis 1:26, 27 simply makes the statement that God did create man and woman. Genesis 2:6-8 goes into a little more elaborate detail on precisely how man was formed out of the dust of the ground, and when God formed Eve out of man. He was not experimenting but doing a very deliberate act to show the very intimate relationship that would exist between man and woman.

The Scripture that you cite in Genesis 4:1 has nothing to do with creation, but this is the propagation of the human family beginning with the two original created ones, Adam and Eve. God is not in the experimental stage of creation at any time. What He has created has been created perfectly. He was perfect in the beginning—he became imperfect through sin. He needed redemption; this redemption was provided by Christ on the cross.

Dr. O'Brien To Conduct Base Religious Mission

Webb's Annual Protestant Religious Mission will begin Monday, continuing through May 2 with Dr. P. D. O'Brien, formerly of Big Spring and now of Houston, as speaker.

Dr. O'Brien is well known throughout West Texas; he was pastor of the First Baptist Church, Big Spring, for almost a quarter of a century. Dr. O'Brien has appeared before Webb audiences many times; on several occasions he has spoken to graduating classes at Webb.

Religious Missions are an integral part of the Air Force Chapel Program. Essentially, these missions have a three-fold purpose: to realize faith, to reaffirm faith, and to re-examine one's life. The appeal is to all Protestant personnel: military, civilian, plus any others. It encourages all to participate in spiritual endeavor; to draw closer to the vital spiritual values of life.

Protestant Women of the Chapel, under the guidance of Mrs. Harold Collins, are sponsoring coffee in the base housing area to encourage attendance. Chaplain (Capt.) Neil Wolfe said that these coffees were also designed to get base personnel better acquainted with their neighbors Sunday School teachers and officers are encouraging members of their classes to attend the services.

Chaplain Wolfe, in urging attendance at all services, said: "Plan to attend each service, beginning at 7:30 each evening—Monday through Thursday."

Air Police on the main gate have instructions to direct base visitors to Chapel parking facilities.

A Southern Baptist Church With A Cordial Welcome

REV. FREDDIE GAGE

Young Pastor Leads Crusade

The evangelist for the Evangelistic Crusade at Baptist Temple Church, Eleventh Place and Goliad, next week will be Rev. Freddie Gage, Houston.

Only 29 years of age, Evangelist Gage has earned a prominent place in the annals of evangelism and his team is regarded as one of the most potent evangelistic teams in Southern Baptist history.

More than 2,000,000 persons have gathered to hear him in the 300 local churches and city-wide campaigns he has conducted. Over 31,000 have united with Southern Baptist congregations following his preaching. He has addressed more than 300 high schools and college student bodies. In Southern Baptist churches where he has led campaigns, attendance records have been set.

He is something of living proof of his slogan, "God Can Do Anything," for as a youth he was a hep-cat, a typical delinquent. He lived a hoodlum's life, was known to most Houston policemen by name, was sentenced to the state reform school in 1948. Later he was paroled to his father, and his subsequent conversion completely changed his life. The cure for delinquency, he proclaims, is the saving power of Christ.

GOLDEN TEXT
"Be still, and know that I am God"—Psalm 46:10.

psalm, goes as far back as Genesis 4:2, where we learn that Abel was a shepherd. In the New Testament we find this concept developed in Matthew 26:31, John 14:2-16, Hebrews 13:20 and others.

The sheep in Palestine are gathered at night into a yard enclosed with a wall which is surmounted by thorn bushes to keep out wolves. In summer the flocks move up the mountain-side, where sheep and shepherd sleep in the open, protected only by makeshift walls of tangled thorn bushes.

It is thought that the oasis described in the twenty-third psalm is a beautiful place known as Ain Fara, where even today shepherds take the flocks.

Psalms Of Personal Trust

THE PSALMIST'S TESTIMONY TO HIS EXPERIENCE OF GOD'S PROTECTING CARE

Scripture—Psalms 23:1-6.

By N. SPEER JONES
IN THIS LESSON we study two of the most famous of all the Psalms. The reason for their fame is to be found in the title of our lesson; the twenty-third, especially, is often memorized, even by the very young, to provide a source of strength and faith in troubled times to come.

David's image of the Lord as a shepherd is one which appealed strongly to Christ; therefore we find it liberally in the pages of the New Testament. It also made its way into pictorial art, perhaps at first on the walls of the early catacombs. Later the image was symbolized in the bishop's crook.

The idea of the shepherd's goodness, which reaches its zenith in the twenty-third to shelter them from the noon-day heat. Thus the same practices and the same geography have remained for at least three thousand years, for this psalm was written about 1025 B.C.

In this famous psalm, notice that the first and most important blessing given us by our Shepherd is rest (verse 2). This points up even more the importance of our Sabbath as a day of rest.

The psalm goes on to detail the additional blessings of restoration of soul, guidance, divine companionship, protection, correction, a promise of provision in time of danger, of bounty and of the continuance of these blessings throughout eternity.

The "rod" and "staff" mentioned have caused considerable commentary. The Hebrew word which is usually translated rod is apparently the equivalent of a scepter. Staff, on the other hand, conveys the idea of support.

The occasion for the forty-sixth psalm was quite probably the miraculous deliverance of Jerusalem from the army of Sennacherib in 701 B.C. This was during the reign of Hezekiah.

The mention of the river in verse 4 is probably inspired by the fact that of all the great historical cities of the ancient world, Jerusalem was the only one which did not stand upon a great river. Only a tiny rivulet flowed past the base of the rock on which the temple stood. This leads us to believe that the river mentioned is the great outflow of God Himself in the tabernacle.

SUPREMACY OVER THE CHURCH

We are told by history that one supreme care facing Pope Leo the First was to maintain Papal Supremacy over the whole church.

My friends, "Papal" is a word derived from the Latin "Papa" meaning "Father." Jesus taught something which is by and large being ignored today and has been for centuries, in Matt. 23:9 he said, "And call no man your father upon the earth; for one is your Father, which is in Heaven." In the New Testament you may read the whole 27 books and not even once read of "Father Paul" or "Father James" etc. The only legitimate religious authority back in the early days of the church or even now was the Word of Christ given through His inspired apostles and then written for us in the New Testament. It is a dereliction of duty to veer off from New Testament teaching. The early church had the New Testament, first by word of mouth from the inspired men, then they immediately wrote down their divinely inspired instructions. John on Patmos being the last. There is no other religious guide for men today than the New Testament! This means there is no supremacy over the church by divine right, divine sanction papalwise or otherwise, just the New Testament of our Lord; read, hear and obey it for by it you will be judged in the final day. Bruce Crampton Low In Texas With 64

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The fellow they call "the iron man" of the golf tour—Bruce Crampton of Australia—took the lead in the $30,000 Texas Open Thursday and observed that it was just like last year.

Thereafter, he stepped out and won himself $31,000, including first place in the Motor City Open at Detroit.

Thursday, Crampton was sensational with his irons as he carved a 7-under-par 64 out of the 6,775-yard Oak Hills Country Club course for a 2-stroke lead over four other hotshots—Phil Rodgers, Tommy Aaron, Johnny Pott and Don January.

Golf play in the Western Conference winds up next week at Roswell, N.M.

The final round of league competition will be held in conjunction with the annual Western Conference tournament, at which time the individual champion will be determined. Play in the tournament itself will be over 72 holes—36 Friday and 36 Saturday.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Ray (Red) McMahon, one of the Big Spring bowlers competing in the State Men's bowling tournament at Fort Worth last weekend, renewed acquaintances with a man who was a familiar athletic figure in Big Spring a quarter of a century ago.

That would be Charley Barnabe, who managed the Big Spring WT-NM baseball league entry prior to World War II.

The one-time big league relief pitcher (Chicago White Sox) is now semi-retired and living in Waco. Among the players who performed for him here in 1933 were Al Berndt, now a successful apple farmer near Yakima, Wash.; Johnny Soden; Letty Frank Jacot; Clarence (Pea-Vine) Trantham, who still resides here; and Dick Hobson, at the present a Los Angeles policeman.

Big Spring was fighting a big battle with a short stick the year Barnabe ran the local club. Several other teams in the circuit had working agreements but Big Spring had to go it alone.

The local club played its games in a park located in the west part of town—at about Fifth Street and Galveston. The ball orchard had a very short right field fence but the barrier was made more formidable with a 30-foot screen wire atop it.

Barnabe, who managed a successful semi-pro club around Waco after he departed here, has blossomed into quite a bowler. He posted a single score of 625 and an all-time total of 1,750 in the State meet last week—not good enough to get top rating but good, nonetheless.

Mets Triumph Again, Boast Best Record

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Casey Stengel's New York Mets edged the Chicago Cubs 3-2 Thursday and now are 6-9 on the season for a 400 percentage—the highest in their history.

The Mets, who usually find one day of the week as bad as the one before and no better than the one coming up, used Frank Thomas' run-producing single in the first inning and a two-run sixth inning homer for the first Thursday victory in their two-season history.

Coupled with Thomas' hitting was the tight seven-hit pitching of Roger Craig and a rare third to first to shortstop doubleplay that ended the game.

Elsewhere, a San Francisco moved into a tie with St. Louis for first place in the National League by beating the Cards 8-4, and Houston beat Milwaukee 7-5. Pittsburgh and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

In the American League, Baltimore took over the top spot with a 3-2 triumph over Kansas City in 10 innings. Minnesota shut out Washington 3-0 and the Los Angeles Angels defeated Detroit 7-5. The other clubs were idle.

The amazing Mets got their first run off Dick Ellsworth on singles by Ron Hunt, Charlie Neal and Thomas. In the sixth, Neal doubled and Thomas slammed over the park. Brock came across with the first run in the fifth, scoring on Jimmy Schaffer's double. Bob Will's pinch-hit single drove in Brock in the sixth.

The victory was the first in three decisions for Craig while Ellsworth's record was brought to 2-2.

Jayhawk Queens Again Crowned Net Champs

For the third straight year, nest of margins—one point over HCJC's girls have won the West-Odesa League.

The win this spring, achieved at the Jayhawk College, 5-1, to turn the Thursday morning on the Kiwa-trick tennis courts here, came by the thin-

HCJC wound up with a total of 21 points, compared to 20 for Odesa and 13 for Amarillo. Lubbock Christian College and South Plains entered teams in the league but did not score a point.

The victory of the Queens was amazing, in view of the fact that coach Smith lost two girls she was heavily counting on before play got under way.

The Butter twins, Kay and Karen, turned in the big wins for HCJC Thursday.

No. 1 singles—Kay Butler, HCJC, over Ann Elkins, Amarillo, 6-3, 6-4; No. 2 singles—Karen Butler, HCJC, over Sandra Wilson, Amarillo, 6-1, 6-1; No. 1 doubles—Butler twins, HCJC, over Elkins and Wilson, Amarillo, 6-2, 6-1; No. 2 doubles—Linda Deo and Gail Sims, Amarillo, over Elaine Patterson and Sue Lewis, HCJC, 6-2, 4-6, 11-9.

Over the season, HCJC's girls have now won 14 matches while losing only twice. The losses came at the hands of Odesa College in doubles play on each occasion—once at HSU in Abilene April 6 and again at Austin April 6.

The No. 2 doubles match Thursday required 2½ hours to complete.

Coach Smith took her girls to Denton for a tournament immediately after play had been completed Thursday.

In boys' competition, Amarillo College swept all four matches. Results: No. 1 singles—Ronnie Boyd, Amarillo, over Jim Brown, HCJC, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2; No. 2 singles—Wayne Simmons, Amarillo, over Doug Parker, HCJC, 6-2, 6-3; No. 1 doubles—Boyd and Simmons, Amarillo, over Brown and Parker, HCJC, 6-4, 6-2; No. 2 doubles—Robert Hayes and Gary Starrs, Amarillo, over Tom Miller and Frankie Frenza, HCJC, 6-2, 6-0.

Longhorns Visit Abilene Today

Big Spring goes to Abilene today to meet the Abilene Cougars of Cooper High in a 4 p.m. District 2-AAAA baseball game.

The contest was originally scheduled for Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. but was moved up to prevent a conflict with a dual track meet between Abilene High and Cooper High.

Cooper is 3-6 within the conference while Big Spring is 1-8. Jack Rodden (4-5) will probably pitch for Big Spring while Kenneth Wright is apt to go to the mound for Cooper. Wright has a 4-2 record.

Other starters for Big Spring are likely to be Rickey Wisener in center field, Bill Andrews at second, Roy New at third base, Jeff Brown at first base. Charley West catching, Buster Barnes in right field, Rick Peters or Eric Nichols in left and Baxter Moore or Howard Bain at shortstop.

H. P. Hawkins, the Cooper coach, is likely to start Randy Cumby, hitting .346, at third; Harry Hamric (.333) at shortstop, Jack Stricklin (.200) at second, Bob Ramsey (.179) at first, Pat Gray (.294) in center, Mike Frush (.342) in left, Don Bowen (.172) in right and Roy McCharen (.200) behind the plate.

The other conference teams play Saturday. The Steers don't play again at home until Saturday, May 4, at which time they host Midland High.

Local Girls Seek State Championship At 4 P.M.

ABILENE — The eighth annual Texas State Invitational Volleyball tournament will be held on the Hardin-Simmons University campus this weekend with 21 teams in five classifications competing for championships.

The meet gets underway Friday morning in Rose Field House and concludes Saturday afternoon. Competition is scheduled for classes B, A, AA, AAA and AAAA, according to Mrs. Lee Shaw, president of the Texas High School Volleyball Association and coach of the Denver City entry. Hardin-Simmons is serving as host of the meet. The tournament

Gotham Bowl Is Rejected

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association has ejected the Gotham Bowl from the ranks of approved post-season football games.

But 13 other football bowl games were approved Thursday, plus a host of other special competitions, ranging from ice hockey to cross country.

The Gotham Bowl, hard luck king of post-season events, has never been a financial success. Last year, the two teams chosen to play, Miami and Nebraska, even refused to board planes for New York until they had been assured that a check covering their expenses had been deposited in a bank.

The NCAA's 18-man policy-directing council began a three-day meeting Thursday, but carefully avoided comment on the hottest item in college sports, the Georgia-Alabama football situation. The NCAA's Committee on Infractions has been asked to report on the alleged conversation between former athletic director Wallace Butts of Georgia and head football coach Paul Bryant of Alabama.

Church League Is Accepting Teams

Any church desiring to enter a softball team in the Church league can make application to league treasurer Gene Hoeman, 1308 Lamar Street, by Wednesday, May 1. A $10 entry fee should be enclosed.

Another meeting of the Church league representatives will be held at the Westside Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m. Monday, May 6, at which time a schedule will be drawn up and final plans will be made for league competition.

QBC Firms Up Plans

The Big Spring Quarterback Club, which will tackle the job of promoting the annual spring football game between the Exes and the 1963 Steers, has adopted a $3,000 budget for the 1963-64 school year.

Practically all of the money remains to be raised.

The booster organization will have charge of the ticket sales for the annual grid attraction, which will be unveiled at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 25 in Memorial Stadium.

Tickets for the game will sell for $1 for adults and 25 cents for students. The QBC hopes to pack the stadium.

Membership fees of the club were set at $5 during Wednesday night's meeting of the QBC's Board of Strategy. The fee embraces families in cases where man and wife both attend meetings and participate in programs.

The annual pre-season barbecue honoring the players and their coaches will be held at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 5, in the City Park.

NBC Purchases Game TV Rights

NEW YORK (AP)—The tidy total of $926,000 should go a long way towards re-establishing confidence.

That's the sum for which the National Football League sold the television rights to its 1963 championship game on Dec. 29. The National Broadcasting Co. bought the rights Thursday paying the largest price ever for broadcast rights to a one-day sports event and more than $300,000 over the previous contract.

Both NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle and NBC director of sports Tom Gallery called the deal an expression of confidence in the professional league "at this time."

The apparent reference was to a recent NFL investigation of gambling which resulted in indefinite suspension of Paul Hornung and Alex Karras and the firing of five others.

Bullets Defeated By Tulsa, 5-2

Felix DeLeon's three-run homer in the seventh inning was the difference as the Tulsa Oilers beat San Antonio 5-2 and jumped into the Texas League lead Thursday night.

Austin edged El Paso out of first place with a 3-2 decision. Albuquerque defeated Amarillo 6-1.

They change stands Friday night, with Albuquerque at Tulsa, Austin at Amarillo and El Paso at San Antonio.

In the game at Tulsa, Hunkey Mauldin relieved Oiler starter Dennis Aust in the seventh inning with Tulsa ahead 2-1 and stranded the tying run on second base.

Winner's Almost The Last To Hear

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Mrs. Montana, who won a Mrs. America contest home decoration event, was about the last to hear of her success.

The news reached her in the form of congratulatory telegrams from her home state.

Judges named Gloria Heggen,

38, of Ekalaka, Mont., top home decorator Wednesday and duly told reporters their choice. Next day, Mrs. Heggen was bewildered by telegrams received from friends in her home town and other Montana communities.

She checked with contest officials. They said they had forgotten to notify her.

In Thursday's competition, Mrs. Maine, Phyllis Brynes, of Portland, won the hair styling event.

VISITING MINISTER
Mr. and Mrs. B. A. (Buck) Rogers

California Pastor Will Speak At Bible Center

The Rev. B. A. Rogers, pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church, Lompoc, Calif., will speak at the Bible Evangelistic Center, 419 E. 3rd, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. He is the brother of Sig Rogers, who conducts regular services at the center.

Rev. Rogers has been 31 years in the ministry, after academic work at Baylor University, Oklahoma Baptist University and Southwestern Baptist Seminary. He has pastored churches in Oklahoma, Texas, North Dakota and California. He organized the Immanuel Baptist Church in Odessa in 1939, the Greenleaf Avenue Baptist Church in Whittier, Calif., in 1944, and led in building the Travis Baptist Church at Midland in 1957. He maintained a radio program for five years in Lompoc, Calif.

The visitor has served the Lompoc church four years and is currently on a three months leave of absence for a mission tour of South America. His daughter and son-in-law are in Colombia in South America and the Rogerses will visit them, in connection with a preaching tour.

Mary Hardin-Baylor Choir To Present Concert Here

The Mary Hardin-Baylor College A Cappella Choir will present a concert at 8 p.m. Saturday at the East Fourth Street Baptist Church. It will also sing for the monthly meeting of the Big Spring Baptist Association Youth Rally. The First Baptist Church will assist in providing lodging and meals.

The choir, under the direction of Roy W. Hedges, is currently on its annual spring tour making appearances in churches and schools in eight Texas cities and towns. It will sing a variety of songs from secular to sacred. The choir will visit San Angelo, Midland, Monahans, Pecos, El Paso, Ysleta, and Fort Stockton on the tour.

The A Cappella Choir was organized in the fall of 1955, beginning as a small group of 24 girls. It has grown into a select organization limited to 40 voices.

Hedges, director and organizer of the choir, is an associate professor of music and philosophy at the college.

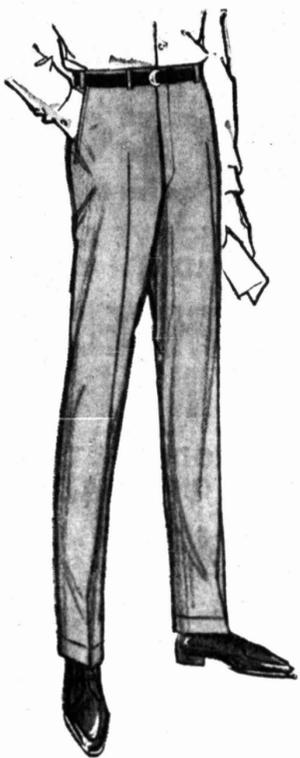

Polk Due Back In Pulpit Sunday

Rev. Robert F. Polk, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will return to his pulpit Sunday following a three week preaching mission in the Japan New Life Crusade. Rev. Polk was the preacher for the Sengawa Church-Mission in Tokyo, and one of several hundred Baptist preachers, ministers of music and laymen who are participating in the campaign. The crusade is sponsored jointly by the Japan Baptist Convention, the Baptist General Convention of Texas, and the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board.

At the 11 a.m. service, Rev. Polk will report on his ministry in Japan. The Sengawa Church-Mission showed outstanding results from the revival, doubling its membership in the first two days of the campaign. Reports throughout Japan and the other preaching points of the Far East are similar, with thousands making decisions. Baptist missionaries report their work has been advanced 50 years because of the movement.

House Approves Loan Regulation

AUSTIN (AP)—The House stamped approval Thursday on a bill to regulate loan companies after a morning and long afternoon of debate. The vote was 96-37.

The measure, already passed by the Senate but amended by a House committee and again on the House floor, covers loans of $1,500 and less.

One House amendment radically changed a Senate provision regulating loans less than $100. The Senate allowed interest of $1 per $5 cash advanced on these loans.

Rep. Joe Cannon of Mexico called the bill "a Robin Hood act in reverse."

The amendment, by Rep. Jack Woods of Waco, provided for one-

The present authorized interest rate is 10 per cent a year, but a 1960 constitutional amendment gave the legislature the right to set new rates.

The Senate, like the House, adjourned until Monday after passing on a voice vote a House-approved proposal to regulate cities' annexation powers. Senate amendments will return it to the House.

This bill would let cities set up buffer zones 1/2 mile to 3 miles deep around city limits in which the city would have certain controls over housing developments and other construction. A city could annex only 10 per cent of its actual land area in any year.

Senators also refused to concur in House amendments to a bill making many revisions in elec-

Surveyors Find Odessa's Body

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—A surveying party found the body of Jesse James Greer, 72, of Odessa, Tex., Thursday between the levee and the Mississippi River near downtown Baton Rouge.

Coroner Chester Williams ruled the death an accidental drowning.

Greer stopped in Baton Rouge April 8 while en route by bus to Mobile, Ala., to visit two sons. Investigators said he apparently slipped and fell into the river.

The surveying party found the body in the mud after the river receded. The body will be returned to Odessa for burial.

AUSTIN (AP)—Secretary of State Crawford Martin filed suit Thursday for $125,000 damages as a result of an April 4 accident which he blamed for loss of vision in his left eye.
