Kennedy Delaying Rights Decision

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy is delaying a decision on asking Congress for broader federal authority in civil rights cases while awaiting the results of efforts to end racial disturbances in the South.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the assistant Democratic leader, said a request for authority to permit the attorney general to initiate cases for individuals alleged to have denied their rights remains a possibility.

Humphrey said Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy "does not feel at this time the need for this authority" because the President's brother felt any such immediate request might agitate the situation in Birmingham, Ala., and elsewhere.

But Humphrey said he is confident there will be a decision made later on whether to add the controversial proposal to the administration's voting rights recommendations now before Congress.

Any such request would be likely to result in a stormy Senate filibuster by Southern opponents of civil rights measures. The political explosion that would greet any administration push to get action on such a bill could easily endanger congressional passage of a tax reduction to which Kennedy has given No. 1 priority in this session.

But the administration is under pressure from Northern Democrats and Negro leaders to move faster in the civil rights field than it thus far has shown a willingness to go.

Humphrey complained that federal action has had to be confined largely to the use of U.S. marshals and troops to keep the peace. He said the government ought to have the authority to sue in the courts to enforce citizens' civil rights.

Humphrey said forthcoming Senate hearings on the presidential request for extension of the life of the Civil Rights Commission may bring the issue to a head.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., announced Tuesday an effort to tack on to a pending feed grains bill a rider to give the attorney general the right to sue in civil rights cases.

He told the Senate his action could not be interpreted as "avoiding a showdown on this crucial national issue." He said that such a showdown "must and will come on this Senate floor."

"The culmination in Birmingham of a swiftly moving events which have given such cause for alarm makes it essential that the Congress carry out its responsibilities to the nation in civil rights legislation," he declared.

It's Not The Knees, It's The Principal Of The Thing

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — "She has nice knees and I don't blame her for showing them," said John Pfifer, whose daughter, Jo Ann, was sent home Tuesday from a high school class tour of Washington because her skirts were too short.

Jo Ann, 18, had completed five days of the scheduled 10-day bus tour of the East Coast with 87 classmates. She worked as a sales clerk to earn most of the $400 required for the tour.

Jo Ann, a senior at suburban Mehlville High School, said the principal and four teacher chaperones warned her to lengthen her skirts, borrow another girl's clothes, constantly wear a coat, or return home.

"Half of the clothes Jo Ann took along were those she has worn to school," said her father.

Kermit Bierbaum, superintendent of schools, declined to comment.

Vacation School Dates Are Slated

WESTBROOK (SC) — Vacation Bible School for the First Baptist Church has been scheduled June 10-14 with registration June 8.

Mrs. S. L. Yielding will be principal. Department superintendents will be Mrs. H. P. Geron, nursery; Mrs. Charles Ranne, beginning; Mrs. N. J. Mahan; Mrs. Rex McKenney, junior; and Mrs. Hoyt Roberts, intermediate. Mrs. Paul Byrd will be in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Bertie Rice and Mrs. George Sweatt will assist in the primary department. Other workers are needed, according to Mrs. Yielding. Girls in the Young People's Sunday school class will also assist.

Racial At A Glance

By The Associated Press

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Negro leader appeals for removal of state patrolmen from racially troubled city but Gov. George C. Wallace says they will stay as long as needed. Some 3,000 riot-trained troops still on standby basis in state.

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy delays decision on asking Congress for broader federal authority in civil rights cases pending outcome of efforts to end racial disturbances.

WASHINGTON — The President agrees with Alabama publishers racial troubles should be handled by local authorities when possible. White House says Kennedy's trip to Alabama Saturday will not include previously announced motorcade visits to three cities. Press secretary explains he was using erroneous schedule which never had been approved.

CAMBRIDGE, Md. — State police join city officers in arresting about 40 jeering Negro demonstrators protesting earlier arrest of 14 teenagers who tried to integrate a movie theater. State police patrol streets with K9 dogs.

RALEIGH, N.C. — Negro college students parade through downtown streets to state Capitol following arrest of 34 Negroes during attempted sit-ins at segregated eating places.

GADSDEN, Ala. — Group of "freedom marchers" arrested May 3 transferred to jail at Gadsden after integrationists announce plan to start vigil at Fort Payne. Vigil is shifted to Gadsden.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Planned demonstration called off by student leader who says mayor is doing all he can to settle racial troubles. Further marches depend on outcome of biracial committee meeting.

Anti-Climax Was Exciting

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — As this is written, astronaut Gordon Cooper is scheduled to start his big space trip today, after Tuesday's disappointing cancellation.

Those four hours leading up to the anti-climactic cancellation proved, however, to be interesting and exciting television and radio even if we have gone through the same thing several times before.

The three major networks provided, as usual, excellent television coverage. Their staffs consist of veteran Cape Canaveral hands, and their knowledgeable commentators seemed able to anticipate decisions by the officials in charge.

It seemed ironic that the great rocket and its Faith 7 capsule were ready to fly but was restrained by the malfunctioning of two pieces of incidental earth-bound equipment.

The most difficult job of the broadcasters obviously was keeping up a steady stream of chatter and pictures during long hours when nothing much was happening that the cameras could pick up. All three networks used material from previous space shots to good advantage and nobody repeated too often.

NBC stayed with the shoot for the longest time, including the post-cancellation press conference and live shots of Cooper as he climbed aboard the capsule after his five-hour wait.

We'll watch again for the launching and those television pictures from space.

Legislature In Brief

AUSTIN (AP) — The Legislature Tuesday:

Senate: Debeat minor legislation in forenoon; killed Senate bill to create senior college at Odessa 15-13; passed to House bills that would let Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Act be enforced by injunctions, remove Colorado County from the new civil appeals court district created at Corpus Christi and give the State Board of Control full authority over state buildings.

House: Passed to the Senate Proposed amendments to set requirements for directors of conservation and reclamation districts; increase terms of office for notaries public; require appointment of state judicial districts each 10 years; passed to Senate a bill creating a 12-man commission to study economy in government.

BILLY SOL

I have nothing to hide; even though some have tried to embarrass me with questions about a national figure, who is being tried by the courts of our land for fraud. The papers have announced prominently that he is a member of the church of Christ, and is doing some preaching. Querists have insinuated that I would shield any member of the church of Christ. The querists are sadly mistaken. I am not upholding anyone in crime. If Mr. Estes is guilty as accused, then no one should uphold him in what he did.

Now, I do not judge him; for I am not his judge. Neither is the congregation for which I preach.

Violent Winds Lash Kansas

By The Associated Press
A violent wind storm lashed areas in the Topeka, Kan., area today, injuring at least 10 persons and destroying about 20 trailer homes.

The storm, which hit hard in a trailer court on the southeast edge of Topeka, overturned 25 other trailers. Heavy rain and strong winds swept wide areas in eastern Kansas.

A storm which developed in western Kansas during the night set off severe thunderstorms in eastern Nebraska. Tornado winds were reported northeast of Lincoln while hail and heavy rain pelted the Grand Island area.

Precipitation in other parts of the nation was light and spotty. Skies were mostly fair from eastern Texas eastward and northeast across the Ohio Valley eastward to the Atlantic Coast.

Temperatures in the 70s were the rule in the southern half of the Plains and Mississippi Valley region and in the 60s in the southern two-thirds of the Atlantic Coast region. The 50s prevailed in most other parts of the country.

Wallace Accused Of Destroying Pact

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A Negro leader says Gov. George C. Wallace is trying to undermine a biracial agreement on Birmingham's racial problems by keeping state troopers in the city.

While the Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth was calling on Wallace Tuesday night to remove the highway patrolmen, Wallace again was calling on President Kennedy to withdraw special federal troops he sent into Alabama.

Wallace replied to Shuttlesworth, one of the top leaders in the desegregation campaign, that the state troopers would remain in Birmingham as long as he thinks they are needed to help maintain law and order.

have been sent to military posts in Alabama, but they are not in Birmingham.

The President had lunch Tuesday with 25 Alabama publishers and editors and the main topic of discussion was the state's racial problems.

Kennedy reportedly urged cooperation between local Negro and white leaders, and said that any Negro trend toward extremism would best be offset by conferences between moderates on both sides. The luncheon had been scheduled for some time.

NOT INCLUDED

The White House announced that Kennedy's trip to north Alabama Saturday for a Tennessee Valley Authority function will not include visits to Tusculum, Sheffield and Florence, as had been announced previously.

Mushrooming developments relating to Alabama's racial problems included:

—President Kennedy delays decision on asking Congress for broader authority in civil rights cases pending results of efforts to end racial disturbances in the South.

—About 300 Negroes met in Selma, Ala., 100 miles to the south, to plan a voter registration drive. The sheriff and about 600 deputies stood guard, turning away carloads of white persons. No trouble was reported.

—An integrated group including actress Madeline Sherwood planned a day-long vigil at a jail in Gadsden, Ala., where "freedom marchers" are held.

—Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Souther integration leader, said in Cleveland, Ohio, that racial discrimination "must be uprooted from our society." He said desegregation in Birmingham would send repercussions throughout the South.

USE RESTRAINT

—Negro leader Roy Wilkins in New York urged "forebearance and restraint" in the use of federal troops in Alabama. He is executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

—A Harlem rally supporting the integration drive in Birmingham ended in scuffling Tuesday night. Two persons were hurt, store windows were broken, and four men were arrested.

—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said at Little Rock, Ark., that the President sending troops to points near Birmingham might encourage further racial demonstrations by Negroes in an attempt to bring riot-trained soldiers into the city.

—Reps. Armistead Selden and George Huddleston, Alabama Democrats, praised law enforcement in Birmingham but criticized the stationing of federal troops in the state.

—An Alabama legislative committee, formed to investigate racial troubles, scheduled meetings in Birmingham.

WORLD PRESS

—The U.S. Information Agency said in Washington that prior to last weekend, when rioting erupted, much of the world press was critical of the President for keeping the government out of Birmingham's racial troubles.

The agency said the Communist press has tried to give the American image a black eye because of the racial troubles.

Shuttlesworth, 41, titular head of the desegregation campaign, said Wallace should withdraw the state patrolmen immediately.

"We want the city police, whom we respect, to take charge," he said.

Shuttlesworth again charged brutality on the part of patrolmen. Alabama Safety Director Al Lingo has denied such charges.

Wallace said in Montgomery, "I am going to withdraw the state policemen when I am satisfied there will be no repetition of this past week's rioting and lawlessness and when constituted local officials concur in this."

"I mean it when I say law and order are going to prevail in this state."

"LAWLESS MOB"

Wallace wired the President that federal troops, stationed in Birmingham, were an open invitation to violence by "lawless Negro mobs."

Birmingham has been relatively quiet since Saturday night's rioting, set off by the dynamiting of the home of a Negro leader and a motel headquarters of the integration movement. The few incidents reported were mostly cases of rocks thrown at automobiles in various sections of the city.

NO REPLY

The White House announced no reply to Wallace's latest telegram protesting the federal troops, but the President has shown no inclination to recall the soldiers in previous exchanges with the Alabama governor.

In his latest telegram, Wallace demanded that what he termed an "advance echelon of a military striking force" be withdrawn from Birmingham. This was a reference to about 25 officers of a headquarters planning unit in the city. Wallace said their presence invited new rioting by Negroes.

About 3,000 riot-trained soldiers

Challenges President

Gov. George Wallace, right, with Adj. Gen. Alfred C. Harrison at his side, goes over the text of a telegram he sent to President Kennedy challenging the President's authority to send troops into Alabama for possible duty in racially tense Birmingham. Wallace told the President that state and local authorities had the situation under control in the wake of rioting and that no federal troops were needed.

State Weather Warm, Sticky

By The Associated Press

Warm, sticky weather prevailed over much of Texas Wednesday. Low clouds developed over parts of the state during the night and spread northward to Central Texas. There were a few high, thin clouds over other sections.

Beaumont and Lufkin had early morning fog.

Forecasts promised moisture in only two areas, however — evening thunderstorms dotting the north and west fringes of North-west Texas and isolated thunder-showers in extreme Southwest Texas. Little change was predicted generally.

Occasional thunderstorms dotted Northwest Texas late Tuesday but there was no word of violent weather to match that flailing some places in West Texas the night before.

Presidio in the West Texas Big Bend recorded Tuesday's top temperature of 104 degrees. Other highs ranged down to 83 at Galveston.

A Devotional For The Day

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. (I Corinthians 12:27, RSV.)
PRAYER: Our Father, we thank Thee for receiving us as members of Thy church, the body of Christ. Help us to accept responsibilities and tasks that will be productive of good and will bring honor to Thee. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
(From The 'Upper Room')

Fruits Of The Flight

Perhaps by the time this is in print, Astronaut Gordon Cooper will be orbiting the earth on an epochal flight, one series of stepping-stone flights that some day will carry man to the moon.
Aside from the challenge of venturing into new unknowns, there are several matters of importance connected with these flights and the commitment of our resources to them.
One is the elimination of all possible hazards to promote the safety of the individual. We are not in the business of gambling with human life, and each step we take is taken only after it has been established beyond a reasonable doubt that the astronaut will be returned in sound physical condition.
There may be some matter of prestige riding on these experiments and for what- ever this is worth, we certainly are concerned about success. It is not so much that we have to be looked up to as something on a stick but more that we do not want our adversary to underestimate our abilities or potentialities. By conducting our operations in the open so the whole world may see, we reap a maximum of benefits in world respect.

There also is the matter of knowledge to be obtained from the flights. Lessons learned will affect technology in multiple fields. Already numerous new products have resulted, new fuels, new electronic systems, new efficiency, new processes for foods, etc.
Finally, there is the matter of security. We have to go up there and be able to stay up there, for the simple reason we cannot afford to give someone else the advantage of "high ground." Whether it is mentioned or not, one of the overriding reasons for missile and space exploration is military security. From these flights we master lessons and techniques which, if there were ever a necessity, could be applied to the defense and the striking power of our nation. Without this we could be critically exposed.

Two Strong Years

If we had any ambitions to press for senior college status for Howard County Junior College, now would be a good time except for the lateness of the session.
The House Monday passed a bill to confer senior college status upon Odessa's junior college and bucked it along to the Senate. There the matter of a jammed calendar may choke the bill until adjournment applies the coup de grace.
Having been beaten in an effort to hold off creating new senior colleges pending a study of the commission on excellence in higher education, Odessa is a good deal of the leverage applied to force this issue, and they are ready to dilute the whole system—but good.

The ambition for our college, however, does not embroil it in this field of bitter conflict. Our ambition is that we have here the strongest possible two-year college, that the facilities and the faculty be maintained at more than adequate levels, and that students who complete their work here be assured of the most thorough background that can be had in two years of college work. This may call for more state as well as local support, and it is to be hoped that senior college burdens will penalize adequate discharge of state responsibility to competent junior colleges.

Holmes Alexander Wrong Things To The Wrong Persons

WASHINGTON — "Now, tell me once again," said Dr. Clarence W. Couchmaster, the national psychiatrist to the distinguished young statesman on his couch. "You say you and your brother can't seem to get first things first."
"Yes, and it's been going on nearly three years now," said the distinguished young statesman. "My brother and I get a lot of things done, but somehow they get done in the wrong persons, in the wrong places, at the wrong times."
"FOR INSTANCE?" asked Dr. Couchmaster in his kindest manner.
"Well," said the distinguished young statesman, "we've got a situation in Birmingham where police dogs are snapping at Negroes. That isn't a very good way to get the Negro vote, is it?"
"Perhaps not," Dr. Couchmaster agreed dryly.
"And the same way with those fire hoses. My brother and I like to hose people with oratory, and some of them seem to enjoy it, but nobody enjoys high-pressure water from fire hoses."
"YOU'RE BEGINNING to think that the Negroes will wish you hadn't incited them to riot, is that it?"
"That's right," said the young statesman. "My brother and I also seem to be doing the wrong thing to some other people, namely, the Democratic party. Since we came to power, Democrats have been losing votes in the South the way trees lose leaves in the autumn. Poor Lester Hill came within a gnat's nose of losing his Senate seat to a Republican in Alabama. It seems impossible, but it almost happened. Just the other day Hugh Point, North Carolina, elected a GOP state for mayor and city councilmen. All over the South in local elections, the Democrats are losing ground. There isn't any doubt whose fault it is—it's ours."
"I SEE," said Dr. Couchmaster. "You feel your Democratic friends might be a little resentful of the way you're liquidating their assets in the South. I get what you mean—you keep doing the wrong things to the wrong persons."
"It's not only in the South that my brother and I have undermined the Democratic party," said the statesman. "I feel that my politics at home and blunders abroad have helped to build up the most colorful, most attractive, most vigorous Republican figure since Theodore Roosevelt. We've given Barry Goldwater such a chance to shine that half the country seems to think Barry knows how to balance the budget, kick down the Berlin Wall, throw Castro out of Cuba and put a man on the moon for peanuts."

"SO, INSTEAD of knocking Goldwater down, you've built him up," summarized Dr. Couchmaster. "Instead of strengthening the Democratic party, you're pulling it to shreds in the part of the country where it used to be strongest. Also, instead of advancing racial rights by quiet statesmanship, you've made mob scenes almost a commonplace in this self-rule country, and."
"Besides all that," nodded the distinguished young statesman, "we have alienated the Cuban freedom fighters, forced the Revolutionary Council to disband, and ruined the only man they had to rally around, Miro Cardona. We made such a point of showing Britain into the Common Market that De Gaulle rejected her—because of us. It's hard to see how the British people will think we've done very well by them, and the next British election seems sure to go Socialist and anti-American."
"IT HARDLY PAYS to be a friend of yours any more—is that how you feel?" asked Dr. Couchmaster sympathetically.
"That's about it," said the distinguished young man sadly. "We may soon put the governor of Mississippi in jail, and we're headed for the same kind of a showdown with the governor of Alabama. But Hoffa is still free. Castro got a hero's welcome in Moscow and the only deal in which Khrushchev ever tried to help us is turning sour in Laos. Sometimes it seems as if my brothers and I can't win anything except elections."
"THAT PART SEEMS to bother you, too," said Dr. Couchmaster as the young statesman frowned.
"Well, yes it does in a way," the distinguished young man agreed. "I really do love this country, and I want to be the best leader it ever had. But if we keep on winning elections and keep on losing everything else, things will be rough all over for the U.S.A."
"It's a sad case for everybody concerned," Dr. Couchmaster had to agree.

QUESTION: I hear you mention the word "conversion" a great deal. Catholics call it conversion when a Protestant becomes a Catholic, and vice versa. Just what do you mean by conversion? D. R.
ANSWER: The word "conversion" belongs neither to the Protestants or the Catholics—it is a Biblical word and therefore has deep spiritual meaning. In the early days of mechanized travel they would take a horse-drawn buggy, put a gasoline engine in it, and in that process of "conversion" the contrivance took on a new name: gas buggy.
Now man was created for a specific purpose. Something happened that hindered him from fulfilling his reason for existence, and his need was "conversion."
So important is this spiritual conversion that our Lord said, "Except ye be converted, ye shall not enter the kingdom of heaven."
What is conversion? William James said: "A self which is divided, inferior and unhappy, becomes unified and consciously right, superior and happy in consequence of its firmer hold upon religious realities."
How do we experience conversion? By repenting of our sin, and accepting God's estimate of our unworthiness, and His offer of forgiveness and new life. Then putting our faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.
Yes, you can learn to breathe

'YOU CALL DUCKS, I CALL SHOTS — RIGHT?'

James Marlow Something To Argue About

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's action in Birmingham's racial trouble, whether or not it boils again, has given lawyers something to argue about.
He has sent 3,000 troops into Alabama military bases—near but not in Birmingham—for possible use in Birmingham if there's a repetition in that city of last Saturday night's violence against Negroes and the Negro riot which followed.
The question is: Does he have a right to use troops in such a situation when no federal law, court order or function is specifically involved? The governor of Alabama, George C. Wallace, says no.

HE CITES the Constitution — Article 4, Section 4 — which says the federal government shall protect a state against "domestic violence" if the legislature or governor asks such protection.
Under such constitutional authority the President could use troops. But Wallace says Kennedy

Hal Boyle Schools For Bachelors

NEW YORK (AP)—Schools for bachelors?
Why?
After discussing recently the idea of special schools to prepare girls to be wives and boys to be husbands, I received the following letter:
"You have the shoe on the wrong foot, brother.
"One of the biggest problems in the world today is the population explosion. What is the cause of it? Two many husbands and wives. They are the ones who have children.
"Instead of schools to make more wives and more husbands, why not instead create schools to train more lads to become, happy, independent, self-respecting bachelors? This would automatically also result in more spinsters, thus shutting off the human population explosion at its source.
"Most husbands today aren't men. They're henpecked slaves whose sold their masculine birthright down the river. The modern women of today aren't worth the powder it takes to blow their big ears off anyway."
The letter was signed, "A thoughtful bachelor of 68 golden years—and proud of it."
At first glance the proposal advanced by this hale and hearty old single-footer seems to have at least a spurious merit.
It certainly is true that in the long run a marked increase in the supply of bachelors would gradually slow down the birth rate. But is this the best way to go about it? Would America be much better off with millions more bachelors around? The answer would seem to be a firm "No."

There is no doubt that at times a family finds a certain type of bachelor handy. In return for a home-cooked meal, he performs chores around the house, baby-sits the kids while the parents go to the movies, fills in as a fourth at bridge, and cheerfully spongers your departing mother-in-law to the air terminal.
We had a number of such bachelors hanging around our house when we were first married. But they were only temporary bachelors. As soon as they saw the joys of home life, they wandered off and got married themselves.
There remained a single hard-core bachelor whom I'll call Albert. He couldn't sew on a button. When the garbage had to be carried out, he suddenly developed a bad case of tired hands. All he could do was stick his feet under our table and eat.
Well, finally my wife became aware of Albert's double-digiting nature, and one fine spring night she tossed him out.
The fact about most permanent bachelors is they are simply male clingers. They are responsibility-dodgers who aren't avoiding marriage so much as they are looking for a new father and mother to take care of them.
Schools for bachelors? Maybe it's a good idea that could reform schools—where they could learn to grow up and face life like real men.

To Your Good Health Emphysema A Loss In Lung Elasticity

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D.
Dear Dr. Molner: I was told at the hospital that I need to learn to breathe correctly.
The attendant said I stop breathing when I sleep, and otherwise have shallow breaths. Has anyone ever LEARNED to breathe? I've tried and tried, and it tires me. Can anything be done?—MRS. H. C.
Of course you don't stop breathing when you sleep. All our body processes (except snoring!) tend to quiet down when we sleep. Heart action, metabolism, blood pressures, temperature—all make use of the chance to rest.
Both the rate and depth of your breathing will depend, of course, on whether you have some lung disorder, such as emphysema—a loss of elasticity in the lungs.
You exert muscular tension to inhale. You exhale mainly by relaxing and letting the lungs push the air out. The amount you can take in with the next breath depends on how much stale air has been expelled.
Hence, with emphysema (and this is true of some sufferers of asthma, because many of them develop emphysema, too) it is important to use the lungs to the best effect possible under the circumstances.
Yes, you can learn to breathe more correctly. Many already have done so. Even while awake, many of us fall into the habit of doing much of our breathing with the stomach muscles, and chest movement is reduced.

A conscious effort to use your chest muscles will make fuller use of your lung capacity. Like any other muscular activity, it gets easier after you've kept doing it for a jime.
You can't do this consciously while you are asleep, and it is to be expected that your breathing will be shallower.
Do your best while you are awake. Then let things take care of themselves while you sleep.
Dear Dr. Molner: How can I cope with acne? There are several pupils in the school where I teach who would like your advice. MRS. J. M.
There is too much to say on the subject for one column, so I've written a small booklet, "Acne—The Teenage Problem." It is available in return for 20 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Address requests to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald. Acne can be subdued if you use patience and persistence.
Dear Dr. Molner: Is it safe for

Around The Rim Started, But We Must Keep Going

Sunday will mark the beginning of Soil Stewardship Week, as well as the observance of Rural Life Sunday. Perhaps a number of ministers will have something to say on the subject of preserving our basic resource of land. It's something for which we still stand in need of a great deal of preaching.

LOCATED AS WE are in the great open spaces, we find it easy to be deluded with the idea that land is abundant and inexhaustible. No longer can we push westward to new land reservoirs, as our forefathers did when they tired of wrestling with worn out farms. The amount of unbroken land is limited, and much of that which will be turned likely would be far better off if it never felt the plow. The point, however, is that most of the additional land to be brought into crops in the future will be more or less marginal.

IN A TIME OF surpluses, of programs to restrict acreage and therefore production, it is difficult to be concerned about soil fertility. A time of want is nowhere on our immediate horizon. Yet, if soil is allowed to get away or is allowed to lose its minerals, organic content or productive compounds, the moment of disaster could be hastened like two jet aircraft approaching on collision course. The reason is simple, because demands for food and fiber are increasing even more rapidly than the accelerating rate of population increase. If and when land yields and population demands come in balance, it will be too late to maintain that balance, and perhaps too late to prevent disaster.

WHAT IS THE ANSWER? I don't believe anyone knows. Within the past quarter century we have made a stab at soil conservation—a good start. The weakness in what we have done so far is a tendency to assume that the results of one year or of several years points to a sure-fire solution. Nature doesn't work on a timetable of seconds, but rather on generations and centuries and ages.

While we need patience and perspective, we are not to be indifferent and totally resigned. Instead, we must have the patience to peck away, to try to discern the great currents of nature and bend our programs to them.

THE PRACTICES we have developed within the past quarter century seemingly constitute a good beginning. Most of those which have stuck are those which have indicated results in good years and bad. They have helped to hold more water where it will do good and have reduced erosion by wind and water. Some not only hold soil, but perhaps to return nitrogen and other compounds to the soil. More important, they have put back some of the organic matter which is such an important element of soil.

But we are still losing soil. It is unlikely that we will ever be able to design or devise any system which will withstand the most devilish thrusts of nature in rain and wind. Yet we can do a lot better job than we are doing, and we must. Now that we have sprung from the starting blocks in our race to save the soil, let us have the good sense to realize that we have only taken the first step. We still have everything to learn and do.

Inez Robb Sad, Sad Days For Restaurateurs

Boys! Boys! For heaven's sake stop crying! Stifle your sobs! Quit bawling in public!
You're breaking my heart!
And I do mean all the restaurateurs, hoteliers, and allied brethren who have been running to Washington, D.C., to beg their Congressmen to do something about the grievous injustices visited upon them since the Federal government decided to crack down on expense-account living.
THREE GENTLEMEN restaurateurs of my acquaintance were in the capital recently to make such a piteous appeal to the New York Congressional delegation for relief from the new tax laws that I can scarce retell their story without mingling my tears with theirs.
The trio was composed of Vincent Sardi Jr., boniface of Sardi's, a famous restaurant that attracts theatre types; Jerry Berns of "21," where the elite meet to eat or did, to hear Jerry tell it, until deprived of their cuffs; and Toots Shor, whose emporium has long catered to the cream of the sports world and other high-class drinking types.
THEY — THE TRIO — sang their sad songs for New York's Congressmen. I understand there was hardly a dry eye or glass in the house.
Now that the Internal Revenue Service has cracked down on the expense-account types, Toots testified that the Businessman's Blue Glass Special (with choice of olive or twist of lemon peel) is flowing like molasses in January.
"NOW A THREE-DINK customer is only taking two drinks and a two-drink man only one," Toots told the New York delegation, and added, "It's very depressing."
And it is, indeed, depressing. For all anyone can tell at the moment, the Internal Revenue Service is doing more for the WCTU than Carry Nation. Toots' melancholy observations may be a warning to this country that what really menaces it is creeping prohibition.

"YOU COME to New York and it's dead!" Vincent Sardi reported, although my observation is that there's a lot of life in the old girl yet and she's still toujours gai-er than any of her rivals.
However, the devastation spread by the crackdown on expense-account or cuff living isn't confined to New York. Pick up any out-of-town newspaper—North, East, West or South—and the moaning at the bar by the men who run or own one is enough to bring a heart of stone. It bears all the earmarks of a nationally synchronized campaign of tears.
WHEN I WALKED recently into a neighborhood cafeteria I discovered—propped up among the condiment and ketchup bottles—a cardboard plea, which I being distracted in restaurants through the nation, saying in part:
"Good-will entertaining in restaurants is still a legitimate business expense. You do not have to discuss or transact business during or after a meal in a restaurant to get a deduction for a business meal."
IT IS NOW apparent that everyone in the nation, save thee and me, has been living on the cufferoo, or the expense account, for years and years. And that the American way of life cannot be saved unless unhampered, uninhibited expense-account living is immediately reinstated in all its splendor.
I'm laughing with tears in my eyes, too, at the thought of increased taxes to enable the Good-Time Charlies-on-the-Cuff to continue to live in the manner to which they have become accustomed. Here, Toots, give me a corner of that crying towel!

David Lawrence Voluntarily Or By Compulsion?

WASHINGTON—It is important to put the Birmingham episode "in perspective." But what perspective? There are three perspectives—the legal, the political, and the moral. They are all pertinent. Each has played a significant part in producing the present controversy and in the attempts to find a solution.
The legal perspective is by no means definitive. Illegality has bred illegality. From 1896 to 1954—a period of 58 years—the Constitution was interpreted one way by the Supreme Court of the United States. Now it is being interpreted by the Court in exactly the opposite way.
THERE IS, moreover, a debate over whether the Court can amend the Constitution and call it "interpretation." Also, the Fourteenth Amendment, on the basis of which the Court in 1954 ordered public schools to be desegregated, is itself of dubious origin. It was never ratified by legal process. After the legislatures of the Southern states had been accepted as fully legal bodies in ratifying the Thirteenth Amendment abolishing slavery, they were denounced as illegal shortly thereafter when they rejected the proposed Fourteenth Amendment. Congress, which had already deprived the Southerners of their seats in both houses, suddenly ordered the Southern states to ratify the Fourteenth Amendment. Federal troops were sent in to compel ratification.
MANY PEOPLE in the South, therefore, look upon the 1954 decision of the Supreme Court as based on a fraud. Significantly enough, though the Supreme Court has decided many questions of law on the assumption that the Fourteenth Amendment is a part of the Constitution, the Court itself has repeatedly refused for the last 95 years to take any case for consideration that might involve passing judgment on the legality or illegality of the "ratification" device used arbitrarily by Congress in 1868.
THIS NATURALLY has had an impact on the political perspective. No senator or representative in the South gets elected unless he is sympathetic with the view of the majority of the people there on these questions. In the North, the large Negro vote influences the politicians of both parties to brush aside debates on constitutional questions involved in the exercise of state or federal powers. The theory applied is that the Negro has suffered injustice long enough and that the end now justifies the means.

But what is the basic moral issue? While people in the South, especially the women, fear not mixed schools as such or mixed use of public eating facilities. They fear socialization of the two races and intermarriage of their children when they grow up.
NEGRO LEADERS become impatient with the slowness of the legal process and organize demonstrations at the behest of pastors of their churches. White people in the South also used to become impatient over the slowness of legal processes. The mobs cried out, "He's guilty of murder, let's lynch him."
CONSULTATIONS between white and Negro leaders which started last week at Birmingham are constructive in purpose. They show the beginning of a conciliatory attitude which probably will never abolish deeply rooted feelings about the mixing of races in intimate ways, but which, nevertheless, recognizes a simple fact: Violence will not solve anything and continued illegalities on either side will not solve anything. About all that can be achieved is to develop gradually and through the rule of reason what the diplomats call a "modus vivendi." This is a formula by which both sides find a method of living with or adjusting to a problem, even though many of its phases remain unsolved and emotional overtones continue a long, long time thereafter.
FOR THE CONTROVERSY is basically human—a resentment against discrimination, legal or illegal, on the one hand, and a basic conflict, on the other hand, between differing concepts of freedom of association as an individual right. The unanswered question is how much can be accomplished by legal compulsion or coercion—economic and political—and how much by the slow but more lasting process of voluntarism in the community.

Pirates, Schreiner Top State Threats

KIRKWOOD

By TOMMY HART

Two of the saltiest contenders for HJCJC's championship...

Schreiner, coached by S. M. Meeks — himself a former Southwest Conference sprint star — is sending ten athletes here.

Victoria, which has Monroe Northcutt as its tutor, will be represented by 16 boys.

Victoria has won more National titles than any other school. It emphasized the sport several years ago, but is coming back strong.

Rox Jacobson of Conroe is a leading threat for Schreiner in the shot. Rox is a threat to the meet record, having delivered the shot 50 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

The Mountaineers will also mount a strong threat in the high jump, where Lee Weatherbee, former-Schreiner. Tony Batista of Wichita Falls. John Blevins of Vernon and Don McFarland of Freer will join Owen on the Schreiner sprint relay team, which has been clocked in 42.5.

The Mountaineer mile relay team, consisting of Ronnie Turnbow of Sweetwater, David Barker of Lamarque, Richard Kaysar of Wichita Falls and Owen, has a 3:18.3 clocking to its credit.

McFarland is a leading threat in the hurdles. He has run the highs in 14.9 and the lows in 23.3, which is under the meet record. No one entered in the local show has done better.

Wayne Fitzgerald of Kerrville is Schreiner's top pole vaulter. He has cleared 13-6.

Victoria has a fine hurdler in Jim Falkins, who has negotiated the highs in 14.9 and the lows in 24.8. John Brandon and John Keisling give the Pirates strength in the quarter mile. Brandon has been timed in 49.2 and Keisling in 49 flat.

Roger Kirkwood of Victoria is an ace half miler and miler. He has completed the mile run in 4:26.0 and the half mile in 1:52.7. Kirkwood also gives the javelin a ride, having hurled it 174 feet.

Another half miler who may pick up some points for Victoria is Charles Mietzen, who has been timed in 1:56.9. Shot putters for Victoria are Gerald Wynn (45-11) and Skippy Butler (44-8).

Ronnie Jones of the Buccaneers has run the 220 in 21.8.

Perhaps the Pirates' top performer, however, is Archie McClure, who runs the high hurdles in 14.8 and the lows in 24.1. McClure has also high jumped 6-2 and has broad jumped 22-11.

Victoria's mile relay team has been clocked in 3:21.1, its sprint medley relay foursome in 3:27.5 and its sprint relay team in 42.8.

Other Texas schools besides host HJCJC are due to make only token appearances in the two-day show. San Jacinto has only one boy entered but he is a good one. Cyley Thompson will represent the Pasadena school in the hurdles. He's run the highs in 14.8 and the lows in 23.4.

Blinn College of Brenham will be tough in certain events but may not have the overall strength to compete for the team championship.

Coch Gerald Williams will bring a dozen boys here, including Mickey Bass, 49.9, in the quarter; Ford Brown, 22.5 in the broad jump; Gilbert Smith, 9.8 in the 100 and 21.8 in the 220; and Steve Sarton, 48.9 in the quarter.

Blinn's top performer is apt to be Charles Lorenz, who has cleared 14-6 in the pole vault. Blinn's mile relay team has been clocked in 3:20.0 and its sprint relay foursome in 42.1.

Amarillo will enter only one boy, broad jumper Chester Dunivan. Cisco will have two boys here. They are Gary Brister and David Culbertson. Leland Willis is the Cisco coach.

Lubbock Christian will bring in good relay teams. The LCC mile relay combination has been timed in 3:20.0, its sprint medley group in 3:30.7 and its sprint relay quartet in 43.1.

Lubbock's Jerry Brown has been timed in 49.2 in the quarter and 1:57.9 in the half. Allen Newberry of the Pioneers has pole vaulted 13-7. LCC's Ray Patterson has run the 440 in a fast 48.4. His teammate, Glen Whitaker, is down to 4:30.0 in the mile. Lubbock is coached by Hugh Rhodes.

San Antonio will have a fine half miler in Harry Dietzmann, who has been clocked in 1:57.6 and a good miler — in Charles Grant (4:26.0). The Alamo City school also has a 9.6 century dash star in Dwight Miles. Miles also has his time in the 220 down to 21.1, which could win. San Antonio's sprint relay team has been timed in 3:30.0. Wilbur Dennis is the San Antonio coach.

South Plains College's best entry could be Delbert Spencer, 4:30.0 in the mile and 1:58.4 in the half. Frank Hunt is the South Plains coach.

The massive cinder show gets under way at 7:40 p.m. Friday. Semifinals in some running events and finals in some field events are carded Saturday morning while other finals begin at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Fans can gain admission to all three sessions with the purchase of a $1.50 ticket.

Entry fees can be paid either to Charley Bailey, Bill Crooker or John M. Pipes. The charge is $5.

The Sectional round takes place at the Big Spring Country Club Monday, June 17.

The low scorer becomes eligible to play in the National Public Links meet, scheduled for Sacramento, Calif., in July.

Last year, Jimmy Patterson of Big Spring won the right to represent this area in the Nationals. Sikes of Arkansas emerged as the Public Links champion for the second year in a row.

Linksters all over West Texas are eligible to take part in the Sectional play. Big Spring is one of three sites in Texas where public links players can qualify for the Nationals.

A low-ball partnership tournament, sponsored by the Big Spring Golf Association, will be held at the Mundy course Memorial Day, May 30, proceeds from which will be used to pay the expenses of the Sectional winner to and from the National tournament site.

Entry fee for the Memorial Day play is $3 and entries will shoot for between $250 and $300 in prizes.

Entries will use their handicaps in the May 30 play. Play will get under way at 8 a.m. and linksters will be permitted to tee off until 2 p.m.

Golfers with handicaps of ten strokes and under will be allowed to team only with those bearing handicaps of 11 strokes and over.

Entry fee for the tournament includes the green fee.

The city has agreed to lease the golf course to the BSGA for the one-day tournament.

Bill Patton is chairman of the tournament's prize committee this year and has nine other members of the association helping him assemble the awards.

Merchants are donating practically all of the awards, just as they did last year.

A golfer does not have to be a member of the association to play in the May 30 meet.

The Jets won their fifth straight American Little League game at at the expense of the Lions here Tuesday night, 12-7.

Richard Walling, who came on in relief of Gary Hinds, gained credit for the mound victory. The Jets got behind the two with a 12-hit offensive, including a home run, double and single by James Newman.

Newman's round tripper, his third of the year, came in the second with two on.

Danny Parchman had a double and a single and Walling two singles for the winners, who scored eight times before the Lions could cross the plate.

Randy Sundry hit twice safely for the Lions and he was the only Lion to connect with a base knock.

Herbert Nearing Pitching Record

By BOB GREEN

White of the White Sox in 1904. His 36 consecutive scoreless innings compares with the record 56 by Walter Johnson in 1913.

In his last four starts he has allowed a total 15 hits. He stopped Baltimore on four hits, Washington on three and New York on two. Against the Tigers, he struck out seven and walked none.

Jim Landis gave him all the hitting support needed, driving in all the Chicago runs on a homer and a two-run single.

Kansas City rushed in four first-inning runs, two on a blooming double by Jerry Lampe, then held off Cleveland on the six-hit pitching of Ed Rakow.

The 33-year-old right hander, trade bait a couple of years ago but a 20-game winner last season, spaced six hits in scoring his fourth consecutive shutout Tuesday night, a 3-0 decision over Detroit.

The victory enabled the American League leading White Sox to retain their one-game lead over Kansas City, 5-2 victors over Cleveland.

New York's Yankees scored a 2-1 triumph over Minnesota behind four straight hits pitched and veteran Robin Roberts won his first game of the season after four losses, pitching Baltimore to a 6-1 decision over Washington.

The Los Angeles Angels' game at Boston was rained out.

Herbert, just another good journeyman pitcher until he was traded to Chicago a couple of seasons ago, has five shutouts in six decisions this year, with four of the blankings in order. He is within one of the major league record, five in a row, by Doc

Giants Open Extended Home Stand Atop Loop

By JIM HACKLEMAN

After plundering enemy territory with amazing success, the San Francisco Giants have returned to Candlestick Park—and find home isn't the worst place in the world to be, after all.

The Giants opened a two-week stand at San Francisco Tuesday night and squeezed out a 3-1 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates, with right-hander Jack Sanford registering the 100th victory of his National League career.

In a turnabout for the defending NL champions, Candlestick hasn't been a happy haven for them this season. They were a remarkable 61-21 there last year, while only 42-41 away from home. This spring they've won only 7 of 15 at Candlestick, but have feasted on the road at a 13-5 clip.

By winning Tuesday night, the Giants pushed 1 1/2 games ahead in the league scramble. Wondrous Warren Spahn and the Milwaukee Braves trimmed St. Louis' second-place Cardinals 4-3. The Chicago Cubs, 2-1 winners over Cincinnati on Ken Hubbs' two-run homer in the eighth inning, moved into a virtual tie with Pittsburgh for third, 2 1/2 games off the pace.

In other NL games, the Philadelphia Phillies beat Don Drysdale in a 5-1 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers, and the Houston Colts posted their sixth straight victory and dumped New York into the cellar, edging the Mets 4-3.

San Francisco managed only four hits off Bob Friend in the seven innings he worked but bunched a walk to Willie Mays, singles by Willie McCovey and Orlando Cepeda, an error and Joey Amalfitano's sacrifice fly for two runs in the fourth. They added another off Harvey Haddix in the eighth.

Sanford now 6-2, allowed just three hits before being lifted in the ninth after a one-out single by Bill Virdon. Billy Pierce then gave up a hit to Bob Skinner, but Bob

Wood also clubbed two home runs and a single, driving in four runs. Farris and John Rutherford drove out triples for the winners.

Card Hurlers In No-Hitter

Ford Farris and Tom Wood teamed up to throw a no-hit game as the Cardinals topped the Dodgers, 6-0, in National Little League activity here Tuesday night.

The pair hurled a near perfect game — only one Dodger batter reached base in the six innings played.

Rusty Banks walked for the losers off Farris in the third inning. Farris fanned six and Wood eight during the juncture. Each boy worked three innings on the mound.

Wood also clubbed two home runs and a single, driving in four runs. Farris and John Rutherford drove out triples for the winners.

Sanders, Lee Golf Winners

Jerry Sanders and Jack Lee combined to post the best low-ball score in the Partnership Golf tournament staged by the Big Spring Golf Association at the Mundy course over the past two weekends.

Sanders and Lee pitched together a 62.

Jimmy Newsom and James Petty steamed in for a second place finish with a 63.

Three teams were tied for third place, each with a 64. One consisted of Bill Patton and Farris Hammond, the second of Bob Waters and Rex Bishop and the third of Loy Carroll and Paul Mosley.

In all, 42 players took part in the meet. Each was given a new golf ball by the association.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Cliff Patton, who should know, says Big Spring's Albert Fierro has all the equipment to become the premier kick-off specialist in District 2-AAAA.

Patton, who used to boot the ball through the uprights with unerring accuracy for the Philadelphia Eagles, had worked with Fierro only a few minutes the other day when an improvement in Albert's technique was noticed.

According to Patton, Fierro has so much potential the opposition should never be able to return a kickoff against him. That means Fierro's boots would usually carry all the way out of the end zones.

Such a stratagem invariably is demoralizing for an opponent, which then must put the ball in play on its own 20-yard line—a long 80 yards away from pay dirt.

Patton says a good kickoff man can become an equally deadly punter almost every time. When he was playing for the Eagles, Cliff used to punt in practice about the same distance downfield as the Eagles' regular kicker—and would have been pressed into service for that purpose had he been needed.

Sightings on the ball are important for a place kicker, according to Patton, but the real vital factors in that phase of the game are a good center and the man holding the ball.

Unless a team has two men who know what they're doing in snapping back the ball and pinning it down, a place kicker is hamstrung before he ever starts. So says Cliff, who was one of the best at getting extra points in the NFL in his day.

Incidentally, Cliff weighed 287 pounds when school began last fall but he's now down to 262, which is three pounds under his playing weight in pro ball.

Columbia Basin, Wash., got the trip to the Junior Rose Bowl game last fall but coach Tommy Steigleder, Henderson County Junior College of Athens, Texas, says his team would have gotten the bid had not the Washington eleven accepted.

As it was, Steigleder had his club in three bowl contests — the Industrial Bowl at Longview, the Hospitality Bowl at Gulfport, Miss.; and the Texas Junior Rose Bowl at Tyler.

Ever hear of two hunters killing a rattlesnake and being fined $95 for it?

I know of two Latin-American men, one of whom resides here, who visited their mother in a neighboring county recently and went hunting for rabbits.

They didn't see any rabbits but did run upon a large rattler and shot it to death.

They were rounded up by the long arm of the law, hauled into court and fined $95. I assume they were charged with trespassing but the levy seems ridiculous in view of the fact that the two slew an unfriendly, ill-tempered thing like a reptile.

Max Burnell, recently named head football coach and athletic director at the new Bishop Lynch Co-Institutional High School in Dallas, formerly was head coach at St. George High School in Chicago.

The Dallas school, which opens a $3,000,000 building in September, will compete in the State Catholic League when it attains its full year level two years hence.

Reds Capable Of Beating U.S. Cagers: Vaughn

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—The assistant coach of the United States team in the World Basketball Championships got his first look at the Soviet Union team Tuesday night and commented:

"They're perfectly capable of beating us."

Both the Russians and the Americans wound up preliminary competition in the tournament with 3-0 records. While the U.S. was battling to turn back Italy, 87-77, Hank Vaughn, the U.S. assistant, was watching Russia's towering team rout Uruguay 94-75.

"After what I've seen," he said today, "the top four teams are the United States, Russia, Yugoslavia and Brazil. We expect to be No. 1 but Russia could cause us quite a problem, especially with their great play around the boards."

The Big Four mentioned by Vaughn made it easily to the final six-team eliminations later in the week, along with France and Japan.

Jerry Shipp of the Bartlesville Oilers and Vinnie Ernst, 5-foot-8 sparkplug of Providence's National Invitation Tournament champions triggered the U.S. to victory over Italy. Shipp scored 24 points and Ernst 19. Don Kojis had 14 points and Lucius Jackson 10.

School Trustees Adopt New By-Laws

The first step in a complete overhaul of policies, rules and regulations for the board of trustees of the Big Spring Independent School District was taken with the adoption of by-laws at a regular meeting Tuesday. After several changes in wording to more accurately describe the intent, trustees approved the by-laws following second reading. First reading also was given to regulations governing internal operations of the board.

The status of a proposed street on the north side of the Airport Elementary School campus was clarified and the trustees dedicated 50 feet for a street.

The land for the school site was obtained from the Rodeo Association in June, 1951. At that time the Rodeo Association dedicated 50 feet for a street and a similar instrument was drawn up by which the school would do likewise. However, records show that no action was taken.

Trustees accepted a lease agreement with the Little League for use of the baseball park on the Bauer Elementary School campus and discussed other use of school facilities by Little League teams. E. S. Murphy, assistant superintendent-business, will seek release of liability by the school for injuries which might be incurred during use by the Little League. Murphy said this could be accomplished by having parents release the school of liability at the time that they release the Little League organization of such liability.

At the same time, efforts will be made to coordinate use so that better control can be exercised in the event of damage to school property.

A light installed on the Boydston campus was approved and appreciation expressed to the members of the Boydston Parent-Teacher Association for donating $86 to cover the cost of the first two years of operation. The light may act as a deterrent for vandalism.

Trustees voted an expression of appreciation to the Band Boosters Club for its activities during the current school year. It has, during the year, paid more than $2,500 for uniforms for band students, $180 to send nine students to All-State Band competition, $150 to bring a guest soloist to Big Spring for a concert, $275 for senior band jackets and $1,300 to send the band to Corpus Christi to take part in the Buccaneer Days Festival.

A resolution was passed expressing appreciation to Clyde McMahon, who retired as president of the board at the last election. He had served on the board since January, 1958 and as its president the last three years.

Resignations were accepted from 11 teachers. Mrs. Mary Lou Hopkins was approved for employment as a replacement for a teacher in the third grade at Marcy.

Graduation Set For Common School Districts

Eight Gay Hill students and six from Center Point, all completing elementary school work this year, will receive diplomas at exercises Thursday in Gay Hill auditorium. The two schools do not teach high school subjects and the young graduates must transfer to some other school to continue their education when the 1963-1964 term opens.

The Gay Hill graduates are: Sydney Wanda Carr, Glenda Kay Class, Sharon Laverne Harrison, Alfonso Lopez, Maudella Jane Murphy, Peggy Jean Oliver, Elaine Puckett and Carol Dorine Starn.

The Center Point graduates are: Beverly Joyce Edens, Ronnie Earl Hutt, Van Arthur Lewis, Refugia Yucca Ramirez, Rita Jane Ryan and Darrell Bruce Thomas.

Darrell Flynn, Elbow, will be the guest speaker at the graduation. The program opens at 8 p.m. Walker Bailey, county superintendent, will be master of ceremonies. George M. Archer and Robert E. Van Meter of Gay Hill, and M. G. Kilgore of Center Point will also take part in the program.

Lubbock Man Dies

LUBBOCK (AP)—B. B. Eubanks, 56, of Lubbock died today when his car was struck by a Santa Fe passenger train on the western edge of Lubbock. Police were investigating the possibility the car was stalled on the track.

Safety Patrol Is Training

The safety patrol at Washington Elementary School plans to be ready when school opens in September. The first classroom and on-the-job training classes were held Monday with Warrant Officer Sherrill Farmer and Traffic Patrolman J. D. Campbell, of the Big Spring police department, as instructors.

Three or four more classroom and outdoor training sessions will be held for next year's patrol before school is out this year. The second will be Thursday.

Students taking part in the patrol activities are selected by the principal and teachers on a voluntary basis.

Are So-Called "Bargain" Eyeglasses Really A Bargain?

Have you ever heard this famous quotation: "Quality Is Remembered Long After The Price Is Forgotten"? This is true. Of course, this doesn't mean that real values shouldn't be looked for whenever they truly exist. But, there is a difference in real value and so-called "bargains" . . . and this is especially true when it comes to eye care and eyewear.

So-called "bargain" eyeglasses may, in fact, not be a bargain at all. Unknown to the purchaser of so-called "bargain" eyeglasses, some important elements could be left out of the lens prescription, or a special type of bifocal or trifocal lens may be omitted, just to cut the cost of making the glasses. These omissions could result in strained eyes, discomfort and improper vision. Also, inferior quality frames might be used which could reduce the wearing comfort as well as the useable life of the glasses.

There is no good reason for risking priceless eyesight and comfort on so-called "bargain" eyeglasses, when real value in professional eye care and eyewear is available at famous

Texas State Optical. For the past 27 years hundreds of thousands of people throughout Texas have learned to rely on TSO for outstanding professional eye care and finest quality eyewear at reasonable cost.

At TSO, your eyes are carefully examined by an experienced Doctor of Optometry . . . both for internal evidence of disease or defect and for visual abnormalities. If glasses are needed, an accurate prescription is formulated and they are prescribed and fitted to meet your exact visual requirements, and to give you the best vision and utmost comfort. If you need single vision glasses, your cost is as low as $14.85, including examination, finest quality lenses and frame; if you require bifocals, your cost is as low as $17.85, complete, with examination, lenses and frame. Convenient credit is available at no extra cost.

The next time you need professional eye care and finest quality eyewear, see the dependable TSO Doctor of Optometry in whom you can place complete confidence and trust for the care of your eyes and your vision.
