Air Show Elements Arrive For Exciting Exhibitions

Air Show backers were pointing today for a take-off on a gala round of events Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Howard County Airport.

While Chamber of Commerce aviation committee members completed a check on advance ticket sales for the Sunday afternoon event. Meanwhile, it was announced that a booth would be set up Saturday evening at the Steer-Exes football game to facilitate sale of Air Show tickets, $1 and 50 cents (school age). Tickets will be available at the gate Sunday, or they may be had in advance at the chamber office, Prager's, Zales Jewelry, Stanley Hardware, or Vernon's.

Elements of the dare-devil show were flown in Friday, and the remainder of personnel and equipment will arrive Saturday.

The National Air Show will feature Harold Krier, America's top precision aerobatic pilot; Charles Hillard Jr., a Texan who has earned the title of triple-A Light Plane Aerobatic Champion; and Leslie "Reds" Didget, a parachute jump master.

Static displays and fly-bys of private aircraft will add to the show's attractions. Webb Air Force Base will provide flyovers of F-104, T-37's to help show some of the progress made in aviation since the Wright brothers got their first plane off the ground 60 years ago.

Lunch Sunday will be an easy proposition for the Mrs.'s of Big Spring families. Y's Men's Club members will do the cooking chores and dish out freshly fried shrimp, potatoes, cole slaw and iced drinks starting at noon for persons who wish to help boost youth activities of the YMCA.

Col. Withycombe To Be New Webb Commander

Col. Howard J. Withycombe, currently on temporary duty in Pakistan, will be the new commander of Webb AFB, according to an announcement today by Col. Wilson H. Banks, wing commander.

Col. Withycombe's regular assignment is chief of staff at the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs.

Saturday, Col. Banks will depart for approximately a month's temporary duty in Washington, D. C. This will be in preparation for his reassignment as chief of the Air Mission in New Delhi, India, where he will go probably the latter part of August.

Following his graduation from flying training in 1941, he was an instructor at Brooks Army Air Field, Observation School. Later he served at several Texas bases as operations officer and squadron commander in bombardment training schools.

In 1944 Col. Withycombe was assigned overseas to India. At the end of WW II, Col. Withycombe, then a lieutenant colonel, was stationed in Shanghai and was serving as aide and personal pilot to Gen. Wedemeyer.

He served at the Pentagon for three years beginning in 1949 as staff assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Personnel.

Col. Withycombe entered the Air Force shortly after receiving his bachelor of arts degree in economics and business from San Jose State College in California in 1939.

Col. Withycombe has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal and two decorations from the Chinese Nationalist Government. He is married and has two sons. One son is attending the University of Florida and the other is a first year man in the Air Force Academy.

Report Of Virgin Mary Vision Sends Thousands To Small Farm

ALICE (AP)—People are flocking to a small farm near the South Texas town where a housewife said she saw a vision of the Virgin Mary etched in an old water tank.

It is estimated 19,000 persons have traveled to the farm since Mrs. Tony Botello Sr. reported seeing a life-size image of the Virgin Mary the morning of April 17.

Jim Wells County officials say the fact that the owner of the farm is now charging $1 per car for the privilege of visiting the scene is not checking the flow of visitors.

Sheriff Halsey Wright "very conservatively" placed the number of persons driving to the farm last Sunday at 5,000.

The farm is owned by Jack Butler, Alice paint contractor, and is rented by the Botello family.

Mrs. Botello, about 35 and mother of three, said she saw the vision about 7 a.m. as she looked from a kitchen window.

Some who have visited the scene since word of the reported vision got around say they can see an image in wood of the tank. Others seem to think it is merely a grain deviation.

Landslide

A barn completely disappeared into the bottom and these two houses were carried into this gaping hole during a landslide at St. Joachim-de-Tourelle on Quebec's Gaspé peninsula. No one was hurt. Some 50 miles away, at Murdochville, six men were presumed drowned when four cars plunged off a washed out bridge over the York River.

Legislature Approves Big Spending Measure

U. S. Invokes Sovereignty On Wallace

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—The federal government invoked its sovereignty today in a move to block Gov. George C. Wallace from preventing the enrollment of a Negro at the University of Alabama.

A complaint by the Justice Department opened the way for possible injunctive action against the defiant governor who has pledged to bar personally any Negro who attempts to enroll at the state institution.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge Seymour H. Lynne ordered Wallace to appear before him June 3 in Birmingham to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued.

"This action is brought by the United States in its sovereign capacity to safeguard the due administration of justice in its courts and the integrity of its judicial process," said the complaint filed by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The show cause order quoted Wallace's public statement that he was invoking "the sovereignty of this state and I will be present to bar the entrance of any Negro who attempts to enroll in the University of Alabama."

Under an order of another federal judge, Vivian J. Malone, 29, Mobile, plans to enroll at the main campus in Tuscaloosa and David M. McGlathery, 27, Huntsville will enter the extension center at Huntsville. Registration opens June 10.

Wallace's intention, if carried out, "would cause immediate and irreparable injury to the United States consisting of the impairment of the integrity of its judicial process and the obstruction of the due administration of justice," said Lynne in ordering Wallace to appear before him.

Mayor Albert Boutwell and nine councilmen, confirmed Thursday as the legal government by the Alabama Supreme Court, were hailed by a Negro leader as symbols of a new era.

"The Negro people look to the Boutwell administration for direct progress in the area of race relations," said the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth, a key figure in a lengthy desegregation drive which landed about 2,400 Negroes in jail for demonstrations.

"Justice and progress have triumphed," said Shuttlesworth. "Birmingham's image has already improved."

Boutwell and the council took over the government when the court ousted a three-commissioner system dominated by Police Commissioner Eugene Connor, a bitter segregationist who personally directed policemen in handling demonstrations.

The new mayor, considered a moderate, said he would appraise the city's racial problem "and work toward its harmonious solution."

Almost simultaneous with the legal victory for the mayor-council, a Chamber of Commerce committee warned that the city's economy had been severely damaged by racial strife.

"Something must be done," said Caldwell Marks, chairman of an industry-hunting committee. He said prospective industries have refused to consider Birmingham because of the turmoil.

The second largest authorization is $493,950,000 for the Air Force, a 15 per cent cut from the $581,685,000 requested.

Biggest item in the bill is $692,862,000 for military housing—including debt retirement, operation and maintenance, and construction of 10,000 new houses in this country and abroad.

The price cutting began at the first of the week when Gulf set a new price on its competitive product. It was reported Gulfthane was marked at 23.9 Friday.

Regular gasoline at the major stations had been 29.9 at the time the war opened. The current quotation is five cents under the price last week.

Some filling station men glumly predicted that the price would go even lower before the war closes.

Odessa College Bill Refused

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Senate refused Thursday to consider a measure that would make Odessa Junior College a state-supported senior college.

A motion requiring a two-thirds majority to suspend the rules and take up the measure failed 16-14.

The House-passed bill by Rep. George Cook of Odessa would give Texas its 23rd state college.

U.S. Everest Team Hurt By Frostbite

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP)—The American Everest expedition asked today for an emergency helicopter flight to take Barry Bishop and William Unsoeld to a hospital in Katmandu. They got to the top of Everest Wednesday. Bishop by the south col, Unsoeld by the west ridge.

A radio report from the base camp said they were frostbitten on all their toes during a night spent without shelter 28,000 feet up on the mountain after the summit climb.

Dr. Thomas Hornbein and Luther Jerstad, a sepaed serious frostbite so far as he knows, expedition leader Norman Dyhrenfurth radioed.

Unsoeld, from Corvallis, Ore., made his climb with Hornbein, from San Diego, Calif. Bishop, from Washington, D.C., and an employee of the National Geographic Society, which sponsored the expedition, climbed with Jerstad, from Eugene, Ore. The world's highest mountain never before had been conquered from the west ridge, the route Unsoeld and Hornbein took.

It was the first time any nation had had four men on the peak of 29,028-foot Mt. Everest on the same day. The four barely missed each other at the very top, but Bishop and Jerstad finally discovered the other two had crossed over the peak and were coming down the south col.

The four met below the main summit at 9 p.m. Wednesday.

Unsoeld, from Corvallis, Ore., made his climb with Hornbein, from San Diego, Calif. Bishop, from Washington, D.C., and an employee of the National Geographic Society, which sponsored the expedition, climbed with Jerstad, from Eugene, Ore. The world's highest mountain never before had been conquered from the west ridge, the route Unsoeld and Hornbein took.

FOR SCHOOLS

Impacted Areas Bill Approved

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Education Committee approved today a bill to continue federal aid to impacted school districts, but only if they desegregate their schools.

The bill would extend for one year the present law, which pours about $550 million in federal funds into 4,000 school districts, some in every state.

The so-called impacted areas are those which have large numbers of children of U.S. employees or service personnel. Federal aid has gone to them for several years.

This time the bill also includes an amendment that requires any segregated school district to file a desegregation plan with the U.S. Office of Education by June 30 this year in order to qualify, and to have the plan in operation by June 30, 1964, to remain in the program.

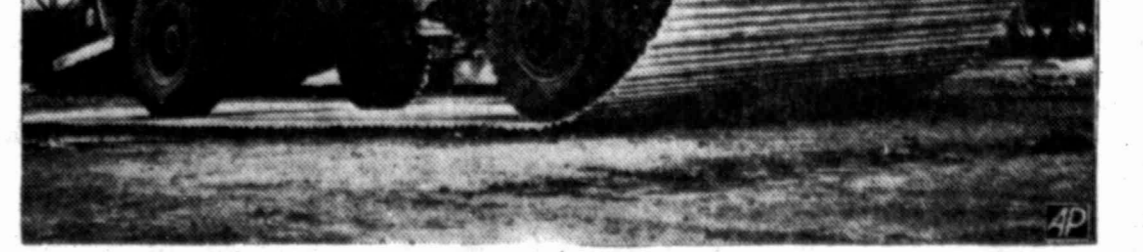

The bill approved today also includes the District of Columbia in the program.

Backers of the bill say they expect it to pass the House, anti-discrimination amendment and all. However, such an amendment usually acts as a red flag to the Southern forces in the Senate, who have the weapon of filibuster to use against it.

Rep. John Dent, R-Pa., chairman of the subcommittee which approved the bill last week, said "these are voluntary funds. If any school district says it doesn't want them, that is its privilege."

The federal funds are provided for school districts crowded with children of federal employees, because of Army posts or other federal installations. At present, they are going to more than 300 congressional districts, and this makes the bill overwhelmingly popular when it comes up for extension.

The amendment would bar these federal contributions to any school districts which do not integrate schools by June 30, 1964.

Northeastern U.S. Is Chilly

By The Associated Press
It was chilly this morning in the northeast quarter of the nation but temperatures moderated in the Midwest after record low marks for the date in many areas Thursday.

Temperatures dropped to the 30s and 40s across most of the cool belt, with readings in the 20s reported in mountain areas of Pennsylvania.

One of the low marks was 26 in Bradford, Pa.

The Weather Bureau reported that the mercury dropped to 43 late Thursday night at the Central Park Meteorological Observatory in New York City, setting a record low reading for May 23.

Some of the cool air dipped into the Southeast except for Florida and Gulf Coast areas. Temperatures in the 50s were reported in many areas, with 41 in Asheville, N.C.

In other areas east of the Rockies readings were mostly in the 50s with the 60s in the Deep South and the 70s in southern Texas and Florida. In the West, the 50s and 60s prevailed in most areas, with the 70s and 80s confined to the southwest Desert region.

There were only a few wet spots. One rain belt extended from West Texas and Colorado westward to northern California and Oregon. Showers sprinkled areas in Minnesota and Florida.

Alliance For Progress Has Good Effects In Techo City

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Walk down the main street in Techo City and you'll come to a small drug store. Outside in blazing noon is the name "Drogueria Jacqueline."

It's a tribute from a humble Colombian family to the wife of President Kennedy and to the Alliance for Progress which has given them a home and a future. When Techo City is finished this summer it will be complete with schools, hospitals, churches, movies, civic centers, markets and stores to supply the needs of 71,000 persons. Most of them will be from the slums of Bogota or the hillside shanty towns.

President Kennedy laid the first brick for the project when he visited Bogota in December 1961. He handed the first deed to Argenil Plazas, a father of 13, whose farm in his native state of Tolima had been destroyed by bandits.

He had been paying $30 monthly rent for two rooms and a tiny kitchen in a Bogota slum. Plazas is now paying $8.60 for a two-story home with four bedrooms, kitchen, bath, a patio and garden that all will soon be his own.

Plazas, now a second-hand clothes dealer, wrote Kennedy recently a letter to the President quoted in a message to Congress. "We now live peacefully, free from misery," the letter said. "We are no longer homeless outcasts but live in dignity and freedom."

Techo City consists of 770 acres about five miles from Bogota. Construction is divided into three categories. The first and most important is called "aided self help." The applicant, determined by a point system designed to give priority to those who most need housing, builds his own home under supervision, makes no down payment and has 12 years to pay off his loan at low interest rates.

Every house has a kitchen, bath, bedrooms, electric connections, sanitary features and a yard.

A house in this bracket costs $685-$1,130. An applicant for the lowest cost house would have an income of $28-$36 monthly. His monthly payments would run $6.17, about what he used to pay for a single room without kitchen or bath for his whole family in Bogota slum.

The second category includes multifamily apartments. The construction is done by private builders. Down payments are required but the interest rates are generous.

The third category was devised to encourage the participation of private capital in the construction of middle-class housing. These projects are built on private property by private builders with long-term financing.

Pope Shows Improvement

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII continued to show progressive improvement today and did a bit of work before beginning a nine-day spiritual retreat, Vatican officials said.

The officials said the condition of the 81-year-old Roman Catholic ruler was satisfactory and that he clearly was showing a steady gain of energy.

But the officials cautiously avoided speaking of a complete recovery. It was clear that there still was concern that he might suffer a relapse again.

His illness—anemia and a stomach disorder believed to be ulcer or cancer with hemorrhaging—has been marked by alternating periods of strength and weakness.

THE POSSIBILITY

A person, once saved, should not fail to get to heaven; but it is possible, Jesus said, "Whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire" (Matt. 5:22). Surely it is possible for a person once saved to say this.

"Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer, and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him" (1 Jno. 3:15).

Surely it is possible for a person once saved to commit murder, and if he does so he no longer has eternal life dwelling in him.

Should a law be passed exempting Christians from being tried for murder? Would you advocate such a law in America?

Even if one hates his brother he is a murderer (1 Jno. 2:15). Is it possible for hatred to enter the heart of one who has been saved, or is he a perfect person who cannot be tempted, and never needs to ask for forgiveness?

Castro Visit Puts Cuba In Deeper Orbit

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
An AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Through his richly ballyhooed visit to the Soviet Union, Fidel Castro has apparently converted Cuba into a full-fledged Soviet satellite.

If this means he is now going home to Havana, loaded with Soviet medals, to launch aggressive Communist operations against other Latin-American countries, the world may well face another and far graver military crisis than that of last fall in the Caribbean.

For President Kennedy has made clear to the Communist leadership that peace in the Caribbean can be preserved only under two conditions. One is that Premier Khrushchev must not ship nuclear rockets to Cuba again. The other is that Castro must avoid hostile actions against neighboring countries.

The assumption in hush Washington quarters is that Khrushchev wants to preserve Castro's Cuba as a showplace of Communist conquest far from the shores of the Soviet Union. If this proves to be correct, it is expected that Khrushchev will keep the impulsive and erratic Cuban prime minister under a tight leash indefinitely.

MORE PLEDGES

In the course of farewell ceremonies for Castro in Moscow Thursday, Khrushchev renewed his previous pledges to come to Cuba's aid if it is attacked. He said that any future crisis over Cuba would be harder to solve than that of last October, when, under direct U.S. challenge, he agreed to remove his nuclear missiles and nuclear-capable bombers from the Caribbean island.

His words as to the gravity of a future crisis were reminiscent of warnings issued earlier this year by President Kennedy to the effect that any new aggressive move by the Soviet Union against the United States through Cuba would confront the world with the most dangerous crisis it has known.

Kennedy has also emphasized that any attack by Cuba against the United States or any Caribbean nation would precipitate a severe crisis. He said the same would apply to any Cuban attack on surface or air transport in the area, or any effort to export arms to other countries.

POLICY LIMITED

Short of some such hostile act, U.S. policy toward Cuba under the Kennedy administration is limited to anti-Castro measures using economic, political and diplomatic weapons.

This program of anti-Castro measures short of war will be a long time achieving any positive results, U.S. officials privately concede. But with the depth of Soviet involvement, now dramatized by Castro's Moscow reception, officials say that any other course would involve risk of a conflict not justified by the immediate aim of ridding Cuba of communism. U.S. authorities estimate Soviet military personnel in Cuba totals about 13,000 or 14,000 men.

Up to last October-November when the Soviet missile crisis was at its peak, Soviet military aid to Cuba in arms and equipment was estimated here to be worth $300 million. After the crisis subsided the Soviets are estimated to have sent in another $300 million worth.

Apart from the military aid, the Soviet Union has also supplied an estimated $200 million of economic assistance to Cuba. Some officials say that for many months now it has been costing the Soviet Union about a million dollars a day to prop up the Cuban economy.

MAY TELL ALL

If Castro won new pledges of military and economic aid during his visit, he may wish to announce the fact upon his return to Havana.

In Moscow Thursday, he appeared to be following the Khrushchev line all the way, even to making a plea for unity in the Communist camp.

Castro's Soviet visit, therefore, may be taken as marking a significant stage in the development of his ties with the Kremlin and his country's position in the Communist bloc.

Mother Locates Son - Too Late

CULVER CITY, Calif. (AP)—When Ricky Fernandez, 12, ran away from home last week, his mother, Sally Buentempo, filed a missing persons report with police and began searching for her son. Wednesday Ricky was struck down by a hit-and-run driver while riding a bicycle in nearby Venice. Officers spent all day tracing the youngster's home and finally spotted the missing person report.

The mother was rushed to the hospital. Her son had suffered a fractured skull and was in a coma.

The boy died Wednesday night without regaining consciousness.

Bureau Of Mines Makes Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Bureau of Mines has forecast that market demand for domestic crude oil in June will be 7,385,000 barrels daily.

This compared with a forecast of demand of 7,320,000 barrels daily during May.

Equal Pay For Women Gaining

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has approved the principle that women should be paid the same wages as men for equal work and it is close to becoming the law of the land.

It has taken 16 years of plugging to get this recognition of "simple justice," Asst. Secretary of Labor Esther Peterson commented after House passage of the equal pay bill Wednesday by voice vote.

The Senate passed a similar bill a week ago. Now, if both chambers can iron out minor differences in the measures sponsored by Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., and Sen. Pat McNamara, D-Mich., it will be headed for President Kennedy's signature. And Kennedy is for it.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz called passage "a major step in the long struggle toward providing full equality for women in our society."

The measure will become effective a year after the President signs the bill. In cases where collective bargaining agreements are involved, it may be two years. The bill would prohibit discrimination because of sex in the payment of wages to some 27 million workers now covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act which includes minimum wage laws.

The Wage and Hour Division of the Labor Department would enforce the equal pay provisions. Large manufacturers, wholesalers and retail concerns doing more than $250,000-a-year business are mainly involved.

Agriculture, hotel, motel, restaurant and laundry workers are excluded along with professional, managerial and administrative personnel.

On the House floor, the measure was championed by both men and women.

Mrs. Green, who has championed such a bill since she came to Congress nine years ago, told the House "vested interests" oppose the measure. Progress has been made on Jim Crow laws, she said, "and it's high time to work against Jane Crow legislation."

There were moments of humor in the sometimes technical debate. When Rep. William M. Colmer, D-Miss., rose to oppose this "legislation for a minority," the dean of congresswomen, Rep. Frances Bolton, R-Ohio, informed him:

"It is some time since women of this country have been in the minority."

MIRACLE PRODUCT ELIMINATES EXTERIOR PAINTING

Textured Coatings of America has developed a remarkable product for exterior walls that virtually eliminates outside painting for many years to come. This product, call TEX-COTE, combines the long-lasting properties of fiberglass, asbestos, mica, and perlite to make a wall surface that resists all climatic extremes.

Throughout the country, School Boards have found textured coatings so economical and lasting over the past several years that they are now specifying this type of material for a large amount of new construction and renovation work.

Many thousands of textured coating applications have been made on home, commercial and industrial buildings throughout the world, and these buildings have remained in perfect condition after more than 10 years exposure in all weather extremes.

The United States government and most of the large companies have used textured coatings for many years. This remarkable exterior surfacing provides water-proofing, insulation and beauty, far outlasting any ordinary paint.

Comes in Colors

TEX-COTE comes in 12 beautiful decorator colors — and does not change the structural lines of the building. Actually it adds beauty to any home or structure and increases its value.

Old Art Form Is Suddenly 'New'

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The fastest growing segment of the entertainment industry is something that has been around since pre-revolutionary days—folk music.

Folk records sell in the millions. Folk festivals are popping up all over the country. Folk musicians have moved out of the coffee houses and into the bigtime. Every college campus has its crews of guitar and banjo-thumping folksters, eternally hopeful of being tomorrow's Kingston Trio or Peter, Paul and Mary.

A high priest of the folk movement is Edwin Pearl, and from him I learned more about the why's and wherefore's.

He operates the local Ash Grove which has spawned Bud and Travis, The Limelighters and many another top act. It is, says Pearl, the only night club in the country that regularly presents pure folk music.

By pure he means that the music is the real McCoy, with no help from tin pan alley, and the instruments are never, never, amplified. "Nothing seems to appall a true folk lover like an electric guitar.) Pearl has scoured the hills of North Carolina, Kentucky and other regions for authentic musicians, importing some to Los Angeles virtually barefoot.

The 30-year-old native Angeleno explained that he has been running the Ash Grove for five years, and there were times when the operation was touch and go. Late-ly it has been all go. He admitted that the Kingston Trio was the prime force in selling folk music to the masses, though like all purists he disapproves of their commercial style.

The reason for the upsurge of folk?

Pearl offered this theory: "The appreciation of ethnic origins usually skips two or three generations. I believe we're going through a reaction to the trend started after the First World War—the movement to the cities."

"People who left the farms and hills had no great interest in the native music of the areas they came from. But after a few decades of city life, there is an urge to return to the simple, un sophisticated elements of life in a less complicated area."

The Beginning Of Knowledge

Solomon once said: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge." Prov. 1:7. The knowledge of which he spoke was the media by which men were brought to salvation. Without this knowledge all men will perish. Hosea 4:6; John 8:32. Heaven is reserved for those who know God. II Thess. 1:8.

But the beginning of this saving knowledge is "fear of the Lord." That does not mean "terror of the Lord." It is more than terror and deeper than trembling. "Fear" is that "respect" or "reverence" we owe the Lord.

Every act of service must stem from reverence to Christ. His will is our desire and His commands are our wishes. The motive for our actions is respect for His laws.

One cannot acceptably serve Christ who respects his own desires above his Lord's. One does not show respect to the Lord when his parents' and relatives' wishes take precedence over his God's wishes. There is no virtue in rejecting the commands of God because "our forefathers did not obey Him"; or because our hardened hearts refuse Him obedience.

If the Lord has commanded you to obey Him in a way that you have not heeded, why not today throw off your chains of pride, bury your prejudices, crucify your rebellious self and humbly, sincerely, follow Him all the way in all things. This respect is the beginning of knowledge!

The Northside church of Christ (601 N. Rannels) welcomes you! Sunday: 10 and 11 a.m., 6 p.m.

It's Not A Sweet Thought But Price Of Sugar Is Up

By DARDEN CHAMBLISS
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Soaring sugar prices have made some people mad, others worried and others wailed stubbornly. Some others, however, don't seem to care or, a Los Angeles grocer suspects, haven't noticed that prices have risen 14 times this year.

A San Antonio, Tex., sugar broker, Eddie Gittinger, is among those whose gander is up. He thinks the big problem is hoarding by industrial users. Refiners should start rationing, he suggests.

"I would like to see this thing ended suddenly and leave the speculators holding the bag," he snaps.

A woman who operates a corner ice cream shop in suburban New York would like to see it ended suddenly too. She buys her sugar retail, and moaned when she saw what had happened to the five-pound bag that had cost 53 cents last fall.

"I don't know what I'm going to do," she said Thursday. "I can't pay 70 cents and still make a profit."

In Washington, D.C., the Agriculture Department said there will be ample supplies of sugar unless consumers start hoarding.

Rep. Lenor K. Sullivan, D-Mo., announced that a House Banking subcommittee she heads will open hearings into the sugar price increases early next month.

Dorothy Apruzzese of Merrick, N.Y., sympathizes.

"It's just terrible," she said. "But I'm not going to buy any bags at 70 cents. I'll wait until it comes down and use saccharin instead."

"I don't know what I'll do about the kids," she said. "Let them use honey, I suppose."

Mrs. Apruzzese, who has five children aged 16 months to 15 years, said she didn't buy ahead when the rises began.

Indications are that she is typical.

The Shop and Stop supermarket chain surveyed its stores from Manchester, N.H., to North Providence, R.I., and reported buying was normal everywhere except for an increase at one Rhode Island store.

Grocers in Chicago, Denver and other cities gave a similar report.

A Los Angeles merchant said he's seen little evidence of stock-up, but adds he rather expects some "when the news gets around."

In Midland, Tex., the price of a 5-pound bag jumped from 57 cents last week to 79 cents Thursday. In Chicago, some independent grocers are asking 79-89 cents.

The problem is worldwide. In London, the Cabinet met Thursday on the problem of prices reaching, "a quite unprecedented level." In Ottawa, the House of Commons was asked to investigate.

In the United States the impact of sugar price boosts on sugared items has been softened or delayed by long-term contract buying, stiff price competition and the fact sugar is often a minor portion of the retail price of the item. There has been some switching to non-caloric sweeteners.

An Austin, Tex., baker says he has boosted doughnut prices by 5 cents and that his $1-party cake now costs $1.10.

If sugar price rises keep climbing, stocks of sugar bought at old, lower prices will disappear and many manufacturers will have to pass along at least part of their increase.

Some food handlers say that there could be another 50 per cent boost in wholesale prices before the fall beet crop comes in.

There is no threat of a shortage in the United States, industry spokesmen and Agriculture Department officials have insisted. It is merely a matter that the United States has been forced to bid progressively higher to get foreign sugar.

There could be a shortage in the United States, of course, comments W. H. Louviere, president of Imperial Sugar Co., of Houston, if consumers panic.

"Sudden hoarding," he warned, "could temporarily tax refiners' physical ability to ship fast enough to keep grocers' shelves filled."

The holdout mood expressed by Mrs. Apruzzese seems well entrenched, however, judging from the cold stares and no takers at one New York shop's "stock up now" placard.

In addition, said an Atlanta, Ga. resident, the higher prices make it a little easier to do a tough job: Diet.

All In Vain

Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio, in a filibuster effort to kill a controversial congressional redistricting bill, speaks to an empty Senate chamber at Austin. Sen. Abraham Kazen, Laredo, began the filibuster, was later relieved by Sen. Don Kenard, Fort Worth, who in turn was relieved by Sen. Spears.

Woman Held On Forgery Charge

Velda Parton of Abilene is in the county jail facing charges of forgery and passing. Bond has been set in her case at $1,500. She has not posted bond. Sheriff Miller Harris brought the 28-year-old woman from Abilene Thursday morning. She is accused of passing a number of forged checks in the community.

Three men, charged with aggravated assault have posted $500 bonds and been released from the jail. They are Manuel Jiminez, Santiago Cevallos, and Leandro Cevallos.

New Yorkers Wish Happy 46th Birthday To Kennedy

NEW YORK (AP)—A birthday salute waded kind words and soft music in President Kennedy's direction—and cold cash into Democratic coffers Thursday night.

More than 600 New Yorkers marked Kennedy's 46th birthday, which comes next Wednesday, at a star-studded dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Each of the diners had contributed at least $1,000 to the Democratic party this year — yet the White House insisted it was a bipartisan gathering. This little joke seemed to be part of the birthday fun.

After the dinner and a rousing entertainment, Kennedy drove to the uptown apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. T. Smith, old friends who entertained him until nearly 2 a.m.

Then Kennedy returned to his own quarters at the Carlyle Hotel to rest before flying back to Washington. He will be guest tonight at the annual White House press dinner.

Just across the Waldorf-Astoria lobby from the Kennedy party, the American Iron and Steel Institute simultaneously presented an award to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Kennedy didn't encounter Eisenhower during his stay at the hotel. But he couldn't resist the temptation to joke about their proximity.

"Just down the hall," he said, "the steel industry honored my distinguished predecessor, President Eisenhower, with an award as the person who has done most for the steel industry this year. Last year, I won the award."

This reference to Kennedy's 1962 battle to stave off a steel price increase brought as much laughter from the President's audience as the earlier efforts of such professional comics as Bob Newhart and Jimmy Durante.

Before going to his party, Kennedy paid a 10-minute courtesy call on former President Herbert Hoover, who lives in the hotel, the presidential visit interrupted Hoover's dinner.

Kennedy did not run into three other luminaries at the hotel — Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who is a permanent resident and the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, who checked in Thursday.

The Kennedy party, featuring top entertainers, was a fun affair from start to finish.

Wives' Welcome

Club Goes Native For 'Aloha' Festivities

The Officers Club went native, providing background for the Thursday morning "Aloha" coffee, sponsored by the Officers Wives Club. Hostesses for the half-and-half affair were wives of 61-E, Webb Air Force Base. Estimated to be the largest turnout of this year for a morning party, the attendance numbered some 100 wives. Mrs. F. D. Johnson was in charge of arrangements, and Mrs. Robert Pedigo was chairman of the decorating committee. Native spears, fishing nets, shells, a grass hut and a profusion of blossoms and palm trees lent the proper atmosphere for the festive occasion. As they arrived, guests received leis of pastel tinted blossoms. They were served from a table, spread with green linen cloth and appointed with silver. A banked fruit arrangement and candles formed the centerpiece. A giant-sized sea shell, adorned with silver sea horses, was filled with crushed ice and topped with large, chilled strawberries. Pineapple, melons and other fresh fruit and berries were served with the party food. Mrs. Johnson made the introductions, including that of the new permanent party, Mrs. Ross F. Scott from Offutt AFB, Neb., Mrs. Fred C. Mueller, McGhee AFB, Tyson, Tenn., Mrs. John R. Humphrey, Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Eustace M. Bunn Jr., Atlanta, Ga., whose husband is with the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron. She welcomed wives of Class 64-G, and acknowledged the departure of Mrs. Lawrence Casey, who soon will leave with Maj. Casey when he retires to Phoenix, Ariz. The new members of the Officers Wives Club board were introduced by Mrs. Robert Sander, first vice president of OWC. To the melody of Aloha the hula ritual was performed, followed by a performance to the strains of Happy Talk from South Pacific. Attired in brightly printed sarongs and leis, the performers were Mrs. J. W. Marples, Mrs. C. C. Hilton, Mrs. K. R. Vance Jr., Mrs. J. F. Johnson, Mrs. J. R. Yorick, Mrs. R. D. Fox and Miss Judith Oldham. Door prizes were won by Mrs. F. N. Senches and Mrs. Thomas A. Nelson.

Oasis Garden Club Sponsors Party

A party was held Thursday morning for the Garden Therapy Class at the Exceptional Children's School with the projects and therapy committee of the Oasis Garden Club, the hostess group. Due to the inclement weather, the party was held at the school instead of the city park as planned. Mrs. Halverd Hanson presented the story of the totem pole and explained the origin of the totem pole in the local park. Refreshments were served to 30 children and their teachers by Mrs. Gene Turner, Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. J. D. Leonard, Mrs. Carl South and Mrs. Joe B. Johnson. The club will continue to sponsor the class in garden therapy when the fall school term begins.

A brief examination of the above diagram will surely convince the reader that South must go down to defeat in his four spade contract. That South actually made the hand is, in our view, not altogether a slur on the defense which was to be sure somewhat reprehensible but, this does not detract from the credit due to South for his ingenuity.

South opened the bidding with one spade and West overcalled two hearts. After North's pass, East was tempted to enter the auction but he was not sure in which direction he could compete profitably and his singleton heart acted as an effective deterrent, so he passed. South rebid his spades and, when North offered a delayed raise, he carried on to game.

West led the king of hearts and, when the dummy was put down, it appeared that everything hinged on the club fi-ness since declarer was off two heart tricks and one diamond on the face of things. When East followed to the opening lead, South knew that he had a singleton heart, for surely West must have a five card suit to justify an overcall at the two level.

Declarer decided that he might obtain a little extra working room if he could sever the line of communications between his opponents. After winning the first trick with the ace of hearts, he accordingly drew two rounds of trumps ending up in dummy. Now a small diamond was led. East rushed in with the ace and continued the suit, as South ruffed.

A small club was led and the queen was played from the dummy. East was in with the king, but this time he had no safe means of exit. He finally chose to get out with a club and North's ten won the trick. The ace of clubs was cashed on which both South and West discarded hearts. Another club was led from dummy and when East covered he was permitted to hold the trick as South threw another heart. East found himself end-played for a second time. Whether he returned a club or a diamond, declarer could discard his last heart while he ruffed in dummy. The defenders took in all, two club tricks and one diamond.

East could and indeed should have defeated the contract by ducking the diamond lead from dummy, for this would give West a chance to cash out his two heart tricks. Declarer however had earned his triumph by giving his opponent an opportunity to make the wrong play.

Stock Market Bounces Back; And It's Healthier Than Before

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market has bounced back—and then some—from the crash of 1962.

In the year since the "Black Monday" of May 28 a sorely sick market has recovered robust health. Actually, say experts on Wall Street, today's market is much more solid than the one that soared to an all-time peak in late 1961. The market has been nudging that level recently.

After hitting its historic 1961 high in a frenzy of speculative stock buying, the market slipped for nearly six months and then collapsed with a thud heard around the world.

The panicky trading on "Black Monday" and on May 29 and 31 (May 30 was a holiday) was later described by the New York Stock Exchange as "the most dramatic market event in more than three decades."

GONE DOWN
The market continued drifting downward, reaching a low of 535.76 on the Dow Jones industrial average June 26. It had been at 611.89 on May 25, 1962, and 734.91 on Dec. 13, 1961. This May 17 it stood at 724.81.

The Associated Press 60-stock average has reached an historic high. It was 273.6 on May 17 after having been 240.9 a year earlier.

For the next few months the market wallowed with the badly burned smaller investors clinging to the sidelines.

The market faced many stresses and strains. International crises upset it. There was apprehension about the Securities and Exchange Commission's investigation of the securities industry. The possibility of a recession caused anxiety.

But in October the market got a lift when the Soviets agreed to remove missiles and bombers from Cuba in compliance with U.S. demands.

From that point the market mounted an advance that was one of the sharpest and longest in history.

It fed on increasingly good reports about business.

NO RECESSION
"We didn't get the widely predicted business recession despite the loss of $100 billion in stock values," said Eldon Grimm, investment analyst for Walston & Co.

"Corporate profits reached a record. Total dividend payments by corporations were at an all-time high. And the consumers carried the ball with heavy purchases of new cars."

"There was a general feeling that business was getting better."

High quality blue chip stocks led the market parade. Oils, motors, utilities and rails were in the vanguard.

Most of the buying in the last quarter of 1962 and the first quarter of 1963 was done by professional traders, institutions and the funds. The little fellows continued to buy of the market, selling more stock than they were buying.

The market took encouragement from the initial report of the SEC investigation, which it characterized as mild, and from the ability of the steel industry to make selective price increases without government interference.

The market took on a new character.

GROWTH MANIA
Recalling the mania for so-called growth stocks of smaller and newer companies in the 1961 rise, Gerald M. Loeb, vice president of E. F. Hutton & Co., said:

"The motivation behind the current market is a reversal of this thinking. Recognition is being given to historical success and size, rather than anticipated success and size."

"This seems the current professional view. The broad public has apparently not yet comprehended this. It has tended to refrain from buying or selling the blue chips."

"So far the public has been wrong. Take General Motors, with sales last year of $14.6 billion and with 284 million shares outstanding. At the current price around 73 it is up in a few months from a low of near 45, an advance that should satisfy any speculator. There is nothing to indicate that the rise is near its end."

There are increasing signs that the public at long last is coming back into the market. Some Wall Streeters see it in increased activity of lower priced stocks.

Adolph Woolner, in charge of search for the big brokerage firm, Bache & Co., feels that the public was "made wiser and more understanding" by its experience in 1962.

"Seeking better quality, they appear less likely to be swayed by the siren song offering quick profits, regardless of risk, and more willing to build portfolios slowly and more carefully, value upon value."

NOT OVERBOARD
Walston's Grimm said the public "isn't in the market head-over-heels on borrowed money. It hasn't gone overboard on growth and fantastically overpriced stocks."

"A couple of years ago it was just a numbers game. Now people are looking at stocks three or four times to determine values."

"There's none of that new issue froth, chasing the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow."

With the market, as measured by the industrial average, knocking on the door of a new all-time high, Grimm feels it has a good chance of getting there this summer.

And he thinks the investors are enthusiastic and confident about the possibilities.

But, he said, surveying a board

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Friday, May 24, 1963 7-A room full of ticker tape watchers in Walston's office on Wall street:

"Still there's no one out there stomping his feet and clapping his hands like they were doing a year and a half ago."

Monastery Notes 1,000th Birthday

By PHILIP DOPULOS
AP Special Report

MT. ATHOS, Greece (AP)—This is a rare year in the 10-century history of the rugged Mt. Athos Peninsula and its monks who want nothing of worldly life.

The Orthodox monasteries are marking their 1,000th birthday and hoping that their community—despite a dwindling population—will go on forever.

About 250 guests, all men, will gather here next month for religious services and other observances of the anniversary.

The visitors will find that 10 centuries have changed little on the Macedonian Peninsula, a six-mile-wide strip of land jutting 30 miles into the Aegean Sea.

It remains largely a community of monks living in scattered monasteries or as hermits in isolated caves and huts.

Footpaths wind through forests, linking the monasteries and the peninsula's few villages. There isn't an automobile around.

Visitors from the outside must get passes from Greek officials and have them approved on Mt. Athos by the monks' own government, consisting of an elected representative from each monastery.

Women are never permitted. Even female domestic animals—cows, hens, mares—are barred. The only exception was Queen Helen of Serbia in the 13th century. The monks admitted her because she had been one of their greatest benefactors.

Legend says she entered a Mt. Athos church to pray and a voice from an icon said: "Begone; this is no place for a woman."

The peninsula has been off limits to females since 919—about a half century after monks started retiring to Mt. Athos.

The real birth of Athonite monasticism was in 963, when Emperor Nicephorus Phocas of Byzantium issued a golden bull, or charter, to St. Athanasius the Athonite for the establishment of the monastery of Megisti Lavra.

It was the first of the 20 major monasteries.

Eleven are cenobitic (common life). Everything must be shared. Food is eaten in a refectory. Meat is never allowed.

The others are idiorhythmic (private rhythm). Property can be held. Monks cook their food separately in their cells. Meat is allowed except on fast days, which amounts to two-thirds of the year on Mt. Athos.

Chestnut trees provide the monasteries' main income. There is hardly a better source of timber in rocky Greece. Wine, olives and hazelnuts also are money earners for the monks.

At the turn of the century about 10,000 monks were on Mt. Athos. Today there are hardly 2,000 about a third hermits. Many are too old to work. Each year brings about 25 novices—scarcely enough to keep up the depleted ranks.

Once half the monks were Russian. Today about 60 are left, and all but two came here in czarist days. The two exceptions were Russian exiles who lived outside the Soviet Union before coming here.

Seventeen of the 20 monasteries are Greek. The other three are Serbian, Russian and Bulgarian.

Since the growth of communism, there have been few novices from Red nations. The Greek government—fearing Communist infiltration—has been hesitant even to admit these few.

But there is still a feeling of certainty that the community of Mt. Athos will go on.

The millennium celebration this year is part of the effort to tell the world of Mt. Athos, to make sure that time never runs out for the peninsula.

Only Eternal Values Real, HCJC Graduates Reminded

"The world you are inheriting is morally and spiritually sick, and therein lies your challenge." This was the essence of the message the Rev. Donald Hungerford, St. Mary's Episcopal rector, had for 39 graduates of Howard County Junior College in commencement ceremonies Thursday evening.

To Jana Kay Crowover went the honor of being the ranking member of the class with a 2.87 grade point average out of a possible 3.0. Close behind was Conroy Lacy with 2.77. In addition to topping the class scholastically, Miss Crowover and Lacy have been extremely active in school affairs. She had edited the yearbook and Lacy was named the outstanding male student. He also was a leading basketball player.

Perhaps the largest crowd ever to witness a graduation ceremony at HCJC was on hand for the exercises which marked a return to cap and gowns. Lt. Tom McDaniel played the march music, prayers were by Dr. R. Gage Loyal, First Presbyterian minister, and Martin Landers, faculty member, and Dorothy Downey, accompanied by Sonnet Johnson, sang. Dean Ben Johnson certified the graduates and Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, presented the 39 Associate in Arts and 10 Applied Arts degrees.

Graduates and their families were honored at a reception held afterwards in the Dora Roberts Student Union Building.

In almost every field of endeavor, man's accomplishments whether these decisions hurt America." While giant strides are being made in medicine, the problems of alcoholism, heart disease and mental illness swell. Stricken with an "edifice complex," the Christian voice seems confused. But, said Rev. Hungerford, young people today can achieve order and sense if they realize that the only real things are those which are eternal, that God, not man, belongs in the center of things.

Guilty Plea Indicated In Slaying Case

Roosevelt Carter, 27-year-old Negro farm hand, under two indictments for murder with malice, plans to plead guilty to the charge against him in 118th District Court on Wednesday.

Dee John Davis, one of his two court appointed attorneys, said that Carter has waived the right to a special venire and will plead guilty to the slaying of one of the two men—probably to the indictment charging the murder of Jerry Johnson. The other victim of the shooting was Walter Roland Williams.

Dist. Atty. Gil Jones said he hopes the case can be completed in one day, Friday, May 30, is a holiday and it is planned to push the case through at top speed.

Carter will be represented by Davis and Wayne Basden. He is accused of shooting two young Negroes to death in front of a beer tavern last Jan. 15. Present plans, Davis said, are to have Carter plead guilty to the slaying of one of the two men—probably to the indictment charging the murder of Jerry Johnson. The other victim of the shooting was Walter Roland Williams.

Boosting Buddy Poppy Sales

Gary Johnson and Debbie Smith, pupils at Boydston School, are among the young people who will be helping the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary Saturday in its traditional Buddy Poppy sale.

"Honor the dead by helping the living" is the slogan for this appeal which finances much of the VFW welfare work. Mrs. Dwight McCann is sale seal chairman.

New Cool Front Enters

Another weak, cool front—the third within a week—headed into Texas with a promise of light rains and occasional thunderstorms Friday.

There were showers and drizzle during the night in parts of Central and West Texas, and menacing storms pummeled El Paso Thursday.

Hail storms up to one-half inch thick rattled on the rooftops as El Paso measured .66 inch of moisture. It was the far West Texas city's first rain heavy enough to measure in an even 100 days.

Early morning drizzles dampened Lubbock and Wink, and it was at least partly cloudy at most other points Friday.

With the Pacific cool front approaching, showers were expected to spread eastward across the state Friday night and Saturday. Scattered thunderstorms were predicted across the northern half of Texas but little or no moisture in southern sections.

Extended forecasts, covering the next five days, called for temperatures several degrees above normal and moderate showers dotting most areas.

Gradual warming started Thursday to rout an unusual late May chill. Top afternoon temperatures ranged from 93 degrees at Presidio down to 57 at Lubbock.

Claudean Terrazas, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Terrazas, 1101 South Bell, has been selected as one of the two featured twirlers to appear with the Texas Tech College band in 1963-1964.

Miss Terrazas, who graduated from Big Spring High School, will be attending Tech for her first year. She is majoring in business administration. She has won many awards in twirling throughout her school career here.

She first tried out for the Texas Tech spot March 16 and qualified to be a finalist. On May 18, the elimination contest was held and she and Vicki Keene, Levelland, were selected for the featured spots by Dean Killion, Texas Tech band director.

Poverty In China But It Has Another Side

EDITOR'S NOTE — Refugees from Red China report hopelessness behind the Bamboo Curtain but there is another side to the coin. In the last of a special series of articles a British author who just completed a travel agency tour of the country offers a glimpse of Red China's living standards.

By RICHARD P. LISTER

PEKING (AP) — The average Chinese worker earns about 70 yuan a month—$30. At the Wuhan Iron and Steel Company, the lowest wage was $15 a month, for apprentices, the highest, for skilled workers, $50. The manager received just over $100 a month. These were basic wages, to which a production bonus might be added.

It does not sound like much. But what counts, of course, is what the worker can buy with it. If he has an apartment, or part of an apartment, in one of the new blocks that have sprung up in the cities and villages since the revolution, he will pay 2½ to 5 yuan a month for it—not more than $2. What he pays is based on his family income—3 to 7 per cent of it. On top of this he pays a fee for light and water, which averages out at about half a yuan per month, or 25 cents. Repairs are free. Having paid his rent, he has to buy his food, and this will cost him about $5.

ANOTHER FAMILY

He will in most cases be sharing his apartment with another family, but to a man who probably spent his boyhood years sleeping nine or ten to a room in a hotel, this is no particular problem.

He has a bed for his wife and himself, and separate beds for his children, a radio, tables and chairs, and a picture of Chairman

Mao Tze-tung on the wall. The furniture is good quality, the rooms clean and bright; there are no carpets. His wife shares the kitchen with someone else, but the food she cooks there is enough for them all; and this is luxury, in a land where "enough", for the majority, has always been a distant dream.

These, it must be remembered, are the showplaces, the best accommodation available to the more fortunate workers. Millions, in the cities, must still live in the crowded old dwellings of yore.

Having paid his rent, and bought his food, the average worker has two-thirds of his wages left, about $20. What can he do with it? Here the picture is a little different. The goods are there—clothes, radios, bicycles, furniture—but the prices are not so very different from those for the cheaper ranges of similar goods in the West. Roughly speaking, he is in the position of a man with the wages of 1933 living in the world of 1963.

He is decently dressed in his blue jacket and trousers, with a shirt—but never a tie—and a roll-necked pullover if it is cool; a blue jacket for cold weather. But these are all the clothes he has and they serve him for feast days, holidays, and work days.

He has a radio, and a bicycle—the streets are full of bicycles—but a camera or a television set is a rare luxury.

He does not even dream of possessing a car.

LITTLE LEISURE

Before he needs a car, after all, he needs leisure; and Chang is not yet very rich in this commodity. He works eight hours a day, six days a week. A man is given four days off a month, a woman six. They have two weeks' holiday a year, if they are lucky—some have none—and this may be spent in visiting relatives. Their own children may be staying with grandparents, and be seen only on rare occasions. In the spring, one or two days must be spent in visiting the tombs of their ancestors, an annual honor that most Chinese pay to the spirits of the departed.

The idea of medical treatment available to all, ideally for nothing, was a surprise to the Chinese we saw. If a worker has to see a doctor or go to a hospital, the Chinese told us proudly, he gets his treatment free; but his family or dependents have to pay half the cost of their treatment. This can be rough.

COST LOW

Still, the cost of hospitalization is low, and comes to little beyond the cost of board and lodging. Chang, as a worker, receives his full pay when sick; and he retires at 60 on three-fourths pay. Mrs. Chang gets the same pay as her husband, but she gets two days more a month off, retires five years earlier, and has two months off on full pay when she has a baby.

At the Chao Yang workers' living quarter, outside Shanghai—a newly built residential and industrial area—we visited the homes of several textile workers and their families.

In the primary school, we were led about by the hand by the enchanting children—two children per visitor, and if a hand was relinquished several more hands were always eager to grab it. They showed us the playgrounds, the swings, the fountains, the dancing

University Prof To Study Stages Of Learning

AUSTIN—Do people learn gradually, through practice, or in sudden, two-stage leaps?

That question is being investigated by a young University of Texas psychologist who approaches learning theory through mathematical models.

Dr. John M. Theios, 26, assistant professor of psychology, is attempting to develop a systematic theory of how learning takes place, especially that type of learning known as "conditioning." He has a new $20,000 grant from the National Institutes of Health to support his research for three years.

As a step toward discovering how people learn, Dr. Theios will observe how laboratory animals are conditioned to avoid unpleasant experiences.

"Mother is sleeping after the night shift."

Techniques to be followed in Dr. Theios' research are the eye-blink response in rabbits, using light and a puff of air, and avoidance conditioning in rats, using a mild electrical shock. He hopes to ascertain how the animals learn to avoid a noxious stimulus and then to formulate a mathematical theory that will account for their conditioning.

Kennedy Chosen Father Of Year

NEW YORK (AP)—President Kennedy has been chosen as National Father of the Year for his "courageous defense and leadership" of the free world.

The national Father's Day Committee called the President a humane champion "of the rights and dignity of the individual over all of the globe."

Noting that President and Mrs. Kennedy now have two children and are expecting a third in August, the committee said:

"Large families are a tradition with the Kennedys and it would seem that the President has no intention of breaking with this tradition."

Qualified nurses wishing to make applications for Howard County—Big Spring Health Unit Nurse may secure blanks from Mrs. Nadean Wozencraft, secretary at the health unit in the Reed Hotel Building.

"Applications will have to be made and interviews arranged with Dr. R. A. Johnson, Midland, during his weekly visits to Big Spring each Tuesday," Bo Bowen, said this week.

Miss Bowen has submitted her resignation, effective June 30, to take a new position as director of the Bennett House Nursing Home.

She said she would assist the nurse, who is employed to get started off on the job.

"I am going to take my vacation during the first two weeks in June," she said, "but I will be around Big Spring most of the time. There are lots of things not in the book which perhaps I could help convey."

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

SEC. B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1963 SEC. B

Wanted: More Facilities, New Name, Says Educator

Howard County Junior College needs a new name.

The name should be designed to be readily recognized; it should make no reference to "Junior."

"Our present name," Dr. W. A. Hunt, president of the college told the Big Spring Kiwanians Thursday, "is too long. When we do something worthwhile, the odds of our receiving full publicity are entitled to get from the press, for example is hampered by 'Howard County Junior College' being too long."

"I would like to get rid of that word 'junior' in our name."

Somehow to me, the word junior implies inferior rating and that, we insist, our college definitely is not."

Dr. Hunt spoke to the Kiwanis Club on the program the college has for the future and warned that by 1965 the demand on it for educational opportunities will be 40 per cent greater than they were in 1960. He cited that by the end of this year, HCJC will have served nearly 20,000 individuals educationally in the 17 years of its existence. He also stated the college has the highest rating scholastically of any college of its type in the nation. "The quality of an institution," he said, "is measured by the quality of its product. We can point to our graduates as truly quality students. Their records in other colleges prove this beyond all debate."

The college has drawn up a master plan for its future expansion and improvement, said Dr. Hunt. Two key features of this program are already needed—a new library building and a new science building.

"We have to have these facilities and will have to have them soon," said the educator. "We may have to turn to the people for approval of a bond issue, but if this is the case, the tax rate will not be increased more than 4 cents."

Local people were farsighted in establishing a college here in 1946, he said. Many other communities blew their opportunities in this respect and have lived to regret it.

Recently, he said, representatives of an industrial firm came to the college while checking Big Spring as a potential site. Convinced that the college could and would play a role in training, they said that this well could give this community leverage in the final site choice.

Guests at the meeting were the 7-Teens—an all-girl combo from Colorado City. These youngsters, played several popular and novelty selections. They were featured at the Veterans Administration Hospital Thursday afternoon.

Major Robert Short of the Salvation Army called attention to National Salvation Army Week, and formally presented the Kiwanis Club with a scroll in appreciation for the help given the local citadel by the club. President Soc Walker accepted the certificate on behalf of the Kiwanians. Ward Jackson was program chairman.

Rodeo Entry

Sue Tilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tilson, will represent Odessa in the 30th annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo starting here Wednesday evening. Miss Tilson will vie with a dozen others for the rodeo queen title.

Deans Named

AUSTIN (AP) — Three men, each 16 years in office, were named deans Wednesday of the House of Representatives. They were Reps. Will Smith of Beaumont, Grayson McIlhenny of Wheeler and Menton Murray of Harlingen. The Senate named Sen. A. M. Alkin Jr. of Paris its dean.

Martin Queen Contest Set

STANTON (SC)—Mrs. Owen Kelly, county chairman of the Martin County Farm Bureau annual queen's contest, has announced this year's event for August.

The county winner will attend the district queen's contest in Lamesa Aug. 26. The district winner will compete in the state finals Nov. 10-14 in Fort Worth.

To be eligible to enter the contest, a girl must be the daughter or sister of a Farm Bureau member who has 50 per cent income on farm or ranch; must be single, between the age of 16 and 22, as of Sept. 1, 1963.

The Courtney community will be supervised by Mrs. E. B. Howard, Mrs. Tom Smith and Mrs. W. E. Kelly. Mrs. M. L. Graves is chairman of the Stanton area. Mrs. S. J. Foreman will be the chairman of Lenora. The Tarzan community will be served by Mrs. Bruce Key and Mrs. J. M. Payne.

Awards will be made in the queen contest. All district winners and an attendant for each, will receive an expense paid trip to the state convention Nov. 10-14 in Fort Worth.

DEAR ABBY

Better Just Give It Up

DEAR ABBY: I am very much in love with a lovely, adorable girl who is 16 years younger than I am. (This could be the problem.) This charming lady says she loves me, but her mother would never approve of our marriage because of the age difference. She is devoted to her family and would never marry against their wishes. I waited ten years after my last marriage before considering marrying again, and believe I have found the girl. I am 38 and she is 22. I insist on an open courtship, but she refuses to be seen with me. Is age that important? Do you think she loves me, or is she just being kind to an "old man"? How can I win her?

STILL TRYING
DEAR STILL: You can't. And if you're wise, you'll quit trying.

DEAR ABBY: When people drop in unexpectedly late in the afternoon, are invited to stay for dinner but refuse (saying they have another appointment) and yet continue to visit well past dinner preparation time, is it possible to start preparing dinner? This has happened several times. Yesterday the company left two hours after our usual dinner time.

MRS. C.
DEAR MRS. C.: If you permit uninvited guests to delay your dinner two hours, you are asking for the inconvenience they have caused you. What's wrong with saying, "Excuse me—I have to prepare my dinner?"

DEAR ABBY: In the two years I have been a widow I have learned more than in all the years I was married. I never realized there were so many frightened, unsure married women around. If I need someone to help with the household chores or heavy work, I look in the classified ads. I'd rather pay $10 an hour than ask another woman's husband to do any favors. SADDER BUT WISER

CONFIDENTIAL TO WILLING WIDOW: Make sure it's a gleam

In his eye—not just the sun hitting his bifocals.

Get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to Abby and send a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., for Abby's new booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Knights Templar Set Special Rites

Strange the difference of men's talk!

—Samuel Pepys
DAILY GUIDE — Don't act on bad news today. Things may look very different next week, if you can wait that long. If not, discount criticism and delays. Transportation and communications not favored, so do not write, telephone or take trips which are not necessary.

This month has brought to a climax many issues, so about now we can be all feeling rather weary of disturbing news and events. President Kennedy's planetary accents are very strong today, so we can expect some news from him. Decisions made now have a long range effect.

Virgoans ought to be getting themselves in readiness for some fast moving events, surprises, and changes. Geminians, Pisceans, and Sagittarians are also going to find the next month exciting with action of an unpredictable nature. The weekend can bring well-come relief from recent tensions. Plan pleasant recreations. Those born at the end of April, August or December should find things working out very favorably for them on Sunday.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, GEMINI! You may not like some of the changes coming along for you, but in the end they be found to give you greater freedom from home ties or domestic conditions. June can give you a jolt, but don't be afraid to break old patterns. Immediate pending matters should be cleared up next week. Guard against hidden health or work conditions, especially in October.

Turn to friends for social lifts during the year: they can be especially helpful this year. Professional or educational contacts can bring you needed mental stability while things are moving so fast around you.

THOSE WHO KNOW RECOMMEND TSO For Professional Eye Care

Texas State Optical's list of satisfied patients continues to grow... longer every year. Why? Because patients, who appreciate the fine professional eye care they consistently receive at TSO, tell their friends and relatives about the service. More and more, new TSO patients visit the offices throughout the state because of a recommendation. They know they can depend on TSO, because of the reputation for high standards and fine quality that TSO has been building since 1935. Guard against eye disease and poor vision with an annual, three-phase examination at Texas State Optical. The TSO Doctor of Optometry first records a complete visual history. Second, he examines your eyes internally for evidence of disease or defect, such as glaucoma or cataract. Finally, your eyes are examined for visual abnormalities, such as near or farsightedness, astigmatism, or muscle imbalance. Should the need for glasses be revealed, they will be carefully and accurately prescribed and fitted at TSO. And the cost is reasonable—as low as $14.85 for single vision glasses — as low as $17.85 for invisible bifocal glasses, including examination, lenses and frame. Or if you have been considering contact lenses, single vision TSO Micro-Sight contact lenses are $65 complete, and bifocal contact lenses are also available at a reasonable cost. Convenient credit is available at no extra charge. So, if someone hasn't already—don't wait for a recommendation. Guard against eye disease and poor vision—visit the TSO office nearest you soon.

THIS IS GASOLINE. You might believe that, give or take an additive or two, most of it's about the same. It's either regular, or premium, and that's that. But this beakerful is regular and premium. Blended half 'n' half. We call it El Paso Red Flame 440. (We call our regular "400," and our premium "480." So this fifty-fifty blend is 440.) And it's just one of the five octane grades the Precision-Blending pump offers. So, the pump lets you select a blend. The higher the blend number, the higher the octane... the lower the number, the lower the price. You select and save. Naturally, we'll sell you straight regular, or premium, if that's what fits your car best. Anything to get the job done. ROAD-RUNNINGEST GASOLINE IN THE WEST!

Worship in the House of God

THE SPIRIT OF WORSHIP WHICH BRINGS THE RICHEST POSSIBLE EXPERIENCES, ESPECIALLY IN THE HOUSE OF GOD

Scripture—Psalms 24; 84; 121; 122; II Chronicles 5, 6.

BY N. SPEER JONES

ONE MAY, and should, worship God in many places—wherever one happens to be, in fact. However, there is special significance to the act of worshipping God in His own house—the church. Today's psalms relate specifically to such worship, as does the account from Chronicles, which details the dedication of God's first real house of substance.

The 24th Psalm was written by David, most probably on the occasion of another and previous step in according God a formal dwelling-place here on earth. II Samuel 6 records how David brought the Ark of the Covenant from Kirjath-Jearim, where it had lain neglected for nearly half a century, to the house of Obed-Edom and thence to the city David had established as his capital, on Mount Zion.

Verse 30 brings to mind the importance of worship in God's own house, and the great importance of any time spent in worship. In communion with the Greatest Intellect, we rouse our own highest thoughts; in communion with the Greatest Soul, we enlarge our own to its greatest capacity.

Psalms 121 and 122 belong to a series of 15 (120-134) entitled Songs of Ascent. This "ascent" means a going-up to worship and refers specifically to the going-up of pilgrims to Jerusalem to worship. Psalm 121 was probably sung before the pilgrims left their own countries; 122, perhaps, at the start of the great journey. Others in the group lead the worshipers along the journey and into Jerusalem itself.

GOLDEN TEXT
"I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go to the house of the Lord.'"—Psalm 122:1.

In 1892, thousands of people participated in the great occasion, with—as the historian Josephus records—seven choirs of musicians and singers preceding the Ark in the great procession, with David himself playing the harp and dancing.

Paalm 84 is also a processional hymn. It has been used traditionally at great pilgrim festivals in Jerusalem, where the worshippers gathered on the western hill overlooking the temple. Even today the great synagogue in Jerusalem stands in the day of Christ to hear for the first time the Gospel of Christ. No scenes were acted, no actors used, no plots or fiction were employed in the making of this film on a spiritual awakening.

Regular services of the church are Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., and at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, said Sig Rogers, minister.

VAIN, IGNORANT AND TRUE

Vain worship condemned in Matt. 15. Ignorant worship is set forth as unavailing in Acts 17:23. True worship is described in John 4:24 as being in spirit and in truth. The Bible sets forth these three ways men seek to approach God. Friend, if you or I are ignorant of the truth established and the warnings given in the Bible we probably have no one but ourselves to blame for our shortcomings and immaturity. It is only by knowing what God has told us that we are prepared to live and do right before Him or be prepared for Him in the afterlife! It is rather unthinkable that God would have to go to each man and shake him out of his sleep to get him to awaken and listen to the truth or to stop long enough from his onward and busy rush in pleasure-money-madness to listen; but rather God has caused His information and His Truth to be recorded in "The Book." The chief business of the devil is to cause men to ignore, scorn and ridicule. Where are you willing to stand? Is your worship merely according to your own liking, your own fancy and whim, or do you believe? Believe the Bible; believe what it says? Are you worshipping, or pretending to be some process you have not found in the Bible? Have you cared? Does it make any difference? Some worship is vain, some is ignorant, some is true. Our prime purpose on earth is to learn just what we are considering here.

Getting It Down Pat

The Big Spring Steers aim a play straight at the cameraman in the above picture as they coaches watch intently. The Longhorns are marking time for Saturday night's football extravaganza with the Exes at Memorial Stadium. The contest, which starts at 8 o'clock, winds up spring workouts for the Longhorns. The game is being promoted by the Quarterback Club.

Steers, Exes Meet At 8:00 Saturday

Pronounced as ready as can be by their coaches, the Big Spring Steers take the field at 8 o'clock here Saturday evening against the Exes.

The Memorial Stadium contest winds up spring football drills for the Longhorns, who have been hammering away at each other for three weeks now.

The Big Spring Quarterback Club is sponsoring the game and hopes for a mammoth turnout of fans. Tickets for the game sell for $1 (adult) and 25 cents (student), despite what is printed on the tickets.

Dodgers, Giants Launch Series In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — National League pennant favorites Los Angeles and San Francisco, already pulling away from the rest of the field, open a three-game series tonight that draws memories from 1962.

The Giants, thanks to a faster start, hold a one game edge over Los Angeles. But the Dodgers have won eight straight and 11 of 12 games in a bid for the lead. Third-place St. Louis is 4 1/2 games back.

Two weeks ago, the Dodgers swept a three-game set from the Giants in their first meeting since San Francisco won the 1962 pennant playoff.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Game officials who will work the Saturday night football game here between the Big Spring Steers and the Exes are donating their services to help out the Quarterback Club.

The QB's, of course, hopes to make enough from the game to pay for most of its program during the 1963-64 school year — an ambitious undertaking. The booster organization is shooting for a crowd of 5,000.

Jimmy Ray Smith will serve as referee of the Saturday game. Weldon McCullom will be the field judge, Bill Mims the head line man, Bill Brigham the umpire and Wesley Phillips the back judge.

Harold Fischer will work the game clock while Bob Zellars will be the announcer.

The Steers, according to Coach Don Robbins, could use a few BIG linebackers.

The boys now manning those positions are giving 110 per cent but the biggest weighs only 165 pounds or so. Robbins is hoping they'll put on a few pounds during the summer months.

The Longhorns have been hurting because their junior high graduates have been barred from working out by Texas Interscholastic League rules — another case where the league has gone too far in drawing up its statutes.

Some of the junior high boys are going to log a lot of playing time this fall and they desperately needed the spring work.

Films of some of the local players can be seen on local television this evening, starting at 9:30 p.m.

A letter writer who didn't sign his name draws attention to the fact that the program printed for the National JC Track and Field Meet here last week confused a lot of readers because it failed to distinguish between meet and world juco records.

The reader also noted other discrepancies in the program's listing of records (e. g., Willie White's world JC mark in the 100-yard dash is 9.4 and not 9.5). He's so right.

Conley Thinking Of Easy Shoes

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP)—Ailing Red Sox pitcher Gene Conley is wondering if the time has come to end his dual career as a major league athlete in both baseball and basketball.

Sidelined by a virus expected to keep him out of action until the Sox return from Detroit after the weekend, Conley admits he feels the pressure of his year-around competition.

He also performs for the New York Knicks of the National Basketball Association and suffered an ankle injury which slowed his baseball start this season.

Devils Decision Dodgers, 6 To 0

Gary Newsom and Johnny Hodges teamed up to set the Devils down with one hit as the Dodgers won a 6-0 National Little League decision here Thursday night.

The Devils collected seven hits, two of which were off the bat of Riley Falkner.

Newsom got credit for the win. Dodgers: AB 8 R 6 Devils: AB 8 R 0.

Tulsa Oilers Finally Win

By The Associated Press

Camillo Estevis pitched a shut-out for 8 2/3 innings Thursday night against Tulsa as Albuquerque snapped a five-game losing streak and jumped from fourth to second in the Texas League.

Estevis struck out nine Oilers. El Paso, the league leader, and San Antonio, just two games behind, were rained out at El Paso. Amarillo edged Austin 4-3 in 10 innings.

Ron Campbell blasted the second pitch by Austin reliever Dave Fracaro in the 10th inning out of the park for Amarillo, its squeaker.

Athlete Of Year Will Be Named

DALLAS (AP) — The Southwest Conference "athlete of the year" will be selected from eight nominees tonight at a Southwest Conference Letterman's Association dinner.

Nominees include football players Sam Byer of Texas A&M; Pat Culpepper of Texas; Danny Abraham of Arkansas and Ray Scheonke of Southern Methodist; trackmen Jacky Upton of Texas Christian and Fred Hansen of Rice, a baseball player Ramey Brandon of Texas Tech; and Ronnie Goodwin of Baylor, who excelled in both baseball and football.

Hodges In No Danger Of Being Shipped Out

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer

On the strength of his first night on the job, Gil Hodges appears to be in no danger of having to leave the country.

Hodges, moving from cellar to cellar, took over as manager of the last place Senators Thursday night, shifting from the New York Mets who occupy a similar position in the National League.

Before the game, the appointment came up for discussion on Capitol Hill, where one congressman said if Hodges can do anything with the slumping Senators he will be just the man to take over the U.S. foreign aid program.

Gil seems to be safe at home for a while. The Senators responded to new leadership by rolling over quietly before Robin Roberts and the Baltimore Orioles, 6-0, for their 11th loss in their last 12 games.

Roberts held the Senators to two hits, both by shortstop Ed Brinkman, and didn't walk a man as he pitched his third straight complete victory. The 36-year-old right-hander lost his first four this season.

The victory, Baltimore's ninth in 10 games, moved the Orioles a half game in front in the American League over the idle Chicago White Sox.

The other two games on the slim baseball card also produced shutouts, both in the National League.

The St. Louis Cardinals moved back into third place with a 1-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs, and the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Milwaukee Braves 2-0.

Ernie Broglio, the Cardinal ace, ran his record to 5-1 with a five-hitter. Lefty Dick Ellsworth, who allowed only four hits in seven innings, was the Cub victim.

Catcher Gene Oliver's homer in the fifth accounted for the only run.

Jim O'Toole won his seventh against three losses on a three-hitter against the Braves. Denny Lemaster, the loser, threw a four hitter. The Reds scored in the fourth on an error and a pop double by Daryl Spencer.

The Senators wasted little time showing their new manager how life is lived in the other cellar. Starter Claude Osteen gave up all six Baltimore runs in the first three innings. Solo homers by Al Smith and Jerry Adair and a run double by Jack Brandt were the big blows.

Hodges and the Senators had come under congressional scrutiny during a House of Representatives committee hearing on foreign aid.

AFL-CIO chief George Meany asked if Hodges would make a good manager of the Senators.

Rep. Edna Kelly of Brooklyn, noting Gil's long service with the Dodgers when they occupied that area, said: "Anybody from Brooklyn is bound to do a good job."

Rep. Wayne Hays of Ohio said: "All I can say is, if he does, we ought to get him to run the foreign aid program."

Actually, about the only managerial move Hodges was allowed to make turned out well. He yanked Osteen in the third for Jim Duckworth, who blanked the Orioles the final 5 2/3 innings.

Osteen was the 14th consecutive left-hander who failed to last against the Orioles, who are 12-1 against southpaws. But Osteen was selected to pitch before Hodges took over.

Mantle To Clear Park, Some Day

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Ralph Houk has changed his mind. More accurately, Mickey Mantle has changed Houk's mind.

The manager of the New York Yankees, after seeing Mantle come within the length of a bat hitting a fair ball out of Yankee Stadium, now is convinced Mickey will accomplish the feat some day.

"I never thought it was possible for a man, any man, to hit a fair ball out of Yankee Stadium," Houk marveled. "But now I won't be at all surprised when Mickey does it."

Houk was commenting on Mantle's prodigious wallop Wednesday night, a home run that slammed against the upper facade, on the rise, several feet below the roof, 108 feet high, and 367 feet from home plate.

The home run came off Kansas City relief pitcher Bill Fischer in the bottom of the 11th inning and gave the Yankees an 8-7 victory.

The second Mickey hit the ball all of us in the dugout knew it was a home run. The sound of ball meeting bat had a certain ring to it," Houk said.

"The strangest thing, however, was that not a word was said in the dugout about winning the game. Everybody's immediate reaction was 'Oh, my God, did you ever see anything like that?'"

"It just had to be the hardest ball I have ever seen hit. I didn't see the one Mantle hit here back in 1956 which they tell me landed in about the same spot. But I saw him hit that 565 foot home run in Washington and until Wednesday night I never thought anybody could hit a ball harder or farther."

Mickey, as modest as he is muscular, acknowledged it was the hardest ball he has ever hit.

How did he compare the two drives, this one and the one off Washington's Pedro Ramos in '56?

"No comparison," he said. "This was my best shot."

Teen-Agers Get Pat On Back

To the Editor:
Through the short-comings of a few, word has been circulated that the Junior and Senior boys and girls of this community are something short of juvenile delinquents. We, as a body, would like to take this means of letting you know that all of these boys and girls have been observed either on the football field, basketball court, golf course, baseball diamond, pep squad, Y activities, or just around town and this same group have conducted themselves in a gentlemanly and ladylike manner. These boys and girls like to pride themselves on the fact that they are well liked and respected in our community. An example of this would be at the recent junior-senior prom and midnight show following the prom. These boys and girls like good clean fun—this they cannot be denied. Too many of us are eager to condemn rather than congratulate. To the Juniors and Seniors of Big Spring High School we would like to say that we are very proud of you.

Very truly yours,
Board of Strategy,

To the Editor:
If we wish to remain free from the clutches of the federal government, then we must refrain from requesting the government to aid our programs even though the money was taken from us beforehand. The boom in ignorance is in itself an amazing display of misconceptions about prevailing conditions in this country. The vast programs of federal aid to education proposed by the administration has failed of enactment simply because of the lack of demonstrated need and effectiveness for such federal intervention in our schools.

Sincerely,
WILLIAM N. BLANSITT

Local Man's Disk May Prove A Hit

Already, we've had a couple of policemen releasing records—maybe it was inevitable that the fire department would get into the act.
And an unusual act it is. Fireman John Minnick's first platter has just enough of a new touch that it might possibly prove to be a seller. Even if the Minnick disk fails to go over, at least one of the songs he composed may be picked up by a professional artist. The record is on Minnick's own J.E. M. label. The two sides are "Cold Blue Water" and "Sitting and Wondering," both in the country and western vein.
Minnick described his inspiration this way:
"About two months ago, I was just sitting at home strumming on my guitar and the tune just came to me. I thought, 'Now, that's pretty good music. All I need is some words to go with it.'"
And where did he get the idea for the lyrics?
"No particular reason, they (the words) just fit the tune. I was sitting and wondering what that can be utilized by popular as well as country and western artists. "Sitting and Wondering" probably will never be anything but country.

"Cold Blue Water" is in waltz time, with a slow introduction, and a meshing of traditional and minor-key styles. Some of the passages are pretty, and the lyrics make sense.

"Sitting and Wondering," like its twin song, is not loud and clashing. Although it is strictly in the so-called hill-billy style in both words and music, the arrangement was deliberately muted. As a result it is more soothing than clangor, and is definitely danceable.

Minnick played with Hoyle Nix for nearly 10 years, and then joined the local fire department six years ago. Music has remained in the family, however—Minnick still plays for the hospitals; son Edwin is a drum major at Runnels Junior High School, a n d daughter Sheila is the Runnels band sweetheart.

Helping Minnick on the record were Lewis Tierney, fiddle; Don Toll, lead guitar; Weldon Myrick, steel guitar; Larry Nix, bass; Kenneth Lane, drums; and Ace Ball, rhythm guitar.

"What can I do about it?"

That's what parents often say when told about the decline in our children's physical fitness. To be sure, parents can't assume full responsibility for this problem. But parents should see to it that their children get proper health care—and that physical fitness isn't neglected in schools.

Urge your local school officials to provide a physical education program that calls for at least 15 minutes of vigorous activity every day for all girls and boys. A basic program has been developed that is improving the fitness of our children. It is easy to administer in any school. It costs little to get it started. It can improve any child's physical fitness.

If you'd like to know more about this program, write to The President's Council on Physical Fitness, Washington 25, D. C.
