Russia Sends Another Man Into Orbit

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev announced the Soviet Union put its fifth man into orbit today. He hinted at least one more cosmonaut may join him in what may be another space venture lasting several days.

Tass reported the space craft was orbiting the earth once every 88 minutes from altitudes of 112 miles to 146 miles. The capsule was reported circling at a 65 degree angle in the equator and broadcasting on 20,006 and 143,825 megacycle frequencies.

Tass said the purpose of the new launching is to continue studies of the influence of various factors of space flight on the human body and to continue study of conditions of a long flight. This indicated that the flight of Bykovsky may be a long one.

The space race launched in earnest in the spring of 1961. The latest was the 22-orbit flight in Faith 7 by Maj. L. Gordon Cooper Jr. who was launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., May 15.

BRITISH SCANDAL TAKES ON TINGE OF ESPIONAGE

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan called in his top security aides today after a lawyer told him party girl Christine Keeler claimed a Soviet attaché tried to use her to wangle nuclear secrets from former War Minister John Profumo.

Home Secretary Henry Brooke—who is head of all police units in Britain—and Lord Dilhorne, head of the judiciary.

Eddowes released the text of his letter to the press. He said he did so because, so far as he knew, Scotland Yard's Special Branch, which deals with security offenses, had ignored the same information when he gave it to them in March.

hold on the party, scarred and shaken by the Profumo scandal, seemed to be weakening steadily. From Selwyn Lloyd, former chancellor of the exchequer whom Macmillan fired 11 months ago, came what looked like a new and dangerous challenge to the prime minister's leadership.

When told that Miss Keeler, through another firm of lawyers, denied she had told anyone such thing, Eddowes declined to comment.

The annual Flag Day Ceremony of B.P.O. Elks Lodge 1386 will be held today at 6 p.m. at the memorial on the east side of the Howard County Courthouse lawn.

MORAL STANDARDS
The country is asking for courageous and confident leadership not based on expediency, but based on obedience to high moral standards and irrefragable behavior in high office.

SOLID FRONT
The cabinet still stood by Macmillan. But there was no assurance the solid front would be maintained.

Opening lead: Jack of ♠ Certain card combinations have not been fully treated in bridge texts due to the fact that their successful manipulation may hinge on an opponent's error rather than a true lie of the cards. In today's hand, declarer's skillful maneuver completely hoodwinked his opponent East—and yet some might choose to say that the latter was merely an unfortunate victim of circumstance.

Against the four heart contract, West opened the jack of diamonds and dummy's queen was taken by East's king. The ace of diamonds was ruffed by declarer. Two rounds of trumps were cashed ending up in dummy and now everything hinged on the handling of the spades, for South must restrict his losers in that suit to two tricks.

Prospects were not very good for it appeared to declarer that the missing spade honors were divided. If West held both the ace and king of spades, he probably would have opened that suit in preference to leading a diamond. On the other hand, if East had the top spades as well as the top diamonds and a singleton heart, he would surely have taken stronger action over North's opening bid.

The only legitimate play is to find one opponent with a doubton honor in spades. By first leading the suit thru that player, his partner's high card is driven out with an honor. On the return, the opponent who had the doubton originally is obliged to play his high spade on a small card.

Since a five-two division in spades was somewhat against the odds, South decided to bank his hopes on the human element. At trick five, he merely led the jack of spades from the dummy in the manner of one who was about to take a finesse. East played low and the jack forced out West's king. Later on, another spade play from the North hand established declarer's queen, since East was obliged to put up the ace.

Had East played the ace the first time, his partner would have held a tenace in the suit over the declarer's queen-seven. Whether he is to be charged for not having so done, we will leave up to the reader.

We will permit you a peek and now everything hinged on the handling of the spades, for South must restrict his losers in that suit to two tricks.

GOP Leaders Lash Strategy Of Peace

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican congressional leaders have bitterly assailed President Kennedy's "strategy of peace" charging him with an unrealistic view of the Communists.

Kennedy's declaration that the United States would not be the first to test nuclear weapons again in the atmosphere was especially scored Thursday by Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and House GOP leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

"We are deeply troubled," said Dirksen. And at the same news conference, Halleck declared, "The President's latest course—the adoption of a self-imposed moratorium—is the most doubtful act of all."

The target of the Republicans' fire was the major foreign policy address Kennedy delivered Monday at American University commencement exercises.

The theme of the address was that the time has come for a break in the Cold War and that both the United States and the Soviet Union should re-examine their basic attitudes toward each other.

Dirksen and Halleck said the President's "drastic shift in policy toward the Soviet Union" makes a congressional review of U.S. foreign policy imperative. His proposal to "re-examine our attitude toward the Soviet Union" is a triumph for all the accommodators in his administration and it flies in the face of all known experience in dealing with the Communists," Dirksen said.

In announcing that high-level discussions will shortly begin in Moscow aimed at an early agreement on a comprehensive nuclear test ban treaty, Kennedy said, "Our hopes must be tempered with the caution of history—but with our hopes go the hopes of all mankind."

Of this Dirksen said a self-imposed nuclear moratorium is "grave enough to contemplate, but when it and a mere scenery shift of negotiations from neutral Geneva to hostile Moscow are used to ornament a major change in policy, we are deeply troubled."

Alabama Guardsmen Go Home As Peace Comes

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—Thousands of Alabama National Guardsmen return to their civilian jobs today after a third Negro entered the University of Alabama system quietly and without incident.

Dave M. McGlathery, a 27-year-old mathematician at the Marshall Space Flight Center, registered at the Alabama Extension Center Thursday.

Later he took his seat for his first class in "series and special functions," an advanced mathematics course for graduate students.

McGlathery said the course would be difficult, but "I'll stay with it." He said he noticed no reaction from his fellow students.

With the three Negroes now enrolled—McGlathery at Huntsville and two others at the main campus in Tuscaloosa—the Army authorized possibly 13,000 federalized National Guardsmen to return to their regular occupations.

Units released from standby duty were those not involved in guard duty at Tuscaloosa or those engaged in summer training.

Approximately 17,000 Alabama guardsmen were called into federal service Tuesday after Gov. George C. Wallace attempted to prevent the enrollment of two Negroes at the main university campus.

About 2,000 guardsmen are deployed at Tuscaloosa. An additional 2,000 are on two weeks of active duty training at Ft. McClellan, Ala., Ft. Gordon, Ga., and Camp Shelby, Miss.

As McGlathery was registering at Huntsville, campus life was beginning to return to near normal at the university in Tuscaloosa, 160 miles to the southwest.

Barricades were removed from most of the campus and automobiles were permitted on the university grounds for the first time since Saturday.

Newsman noted new gestures of friendship extended by white students to Vivian Malone of Mobile and James A. Hood of Gadsden. The two Negroes were enrolled Tuesday as federalized Alabama National Guard troops moved on to the campus and ended Wallace's "stand in the schoolhouse door" efforts to bar them.

ONE AMONG MANY

The sincere young preacher who wrote me seems to think that I depend solely on Acts 2:38 for proof that baptism is conditional to salvation. But this is only one verse among many that teaches it. First Jesus said in Jno. 3:5 that one must be "born of water and of the Spirit." Now none of the nine nouns and pronouns in this verse is figurative. Water means water, just as Spirit means Spirit. Since baptismal water is the only water connected with Christianity, there can be no mistake about baptism being in the new birth. Thus, Paul states that the new life begins when one arises from baptism (Rom. 6:4).

Mark 16:16 is another verse which shows baptism is conditional to salvation. It says, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved."

Demonstration Is Broken Up

DANVILLE, Va. (AP) — Police and the threat of fire hoses broke up a planned all-night vigil by Negroes on the steps of the Municipal Building Thursday night.

Under scoring what was termed a get-tough policy, state police sent two armored cars and police dogs into reserve on the outskirts of this city of 47,000 which has been teetering on the edge of racial violence for nearly two weeks.

Mayor Julian R. Stinson, who returned Thursday night from a Richmond conference with Gov. Albert S. Harrison Jr. to find about 100 chanting demonstrators camped on the steps, told Negro leaders he would meet with them today.

But "I am not going to meet with a bunch of criminals," he said. Stinson said 66 of the demonstrators had been identified through photographs as having police records. Of these, he said, 43 had been arrested during the demonstrations.

The all-night vigil had been called after Negroes marched on City Hall—in the day's second demonstration—to confront the mayor with their demands but were told he was still in Richmond.

News men, summoned to meet with the mayor, were crowded in the city council chamber when a fire truck rolled up amid cries from the demonstrators and unrolled three high-pressure hoses.

Three of the Negro leaders left the steps and talked with fire officials, then briefed the demonstrators. About half of the Negroes began moving away. The rest huddled along the brass rail running down the center of the wide steps.

At 11:15 p.m. the spotlights which illuminate the municipal building were turned on. A fire official called from the street, "Is anyone leaving?"

Police Chief Eugene McCain shouted, "Get out of here. We are tired of fooling with you." The police at the top of the steps then moved down, forcing the Negroes ahead of them.

"Keep these people moving," McCain shouted. "Don't let them stop until they get to Almerigo," a Negro section of town.

Group To Seek American Isles

MEXICO CITY (AP) — An organization has been formed here to urge the government to press for possession of eight islands off the United States' Pacific coast between Tijuana and San Francisco.

The organization is called the National Coalition for Defense of the Territorial Sovereignty of the Mexican Republic. It asserted the United States has been illegally occupying the islands since 1848.

The islands are Santa Rosa, Anacapa, San Clemente, Santa Catalina, Santa Barbara, San Icos, Santa Cruz and San Miguel Farallon.

Carr Says Murray Made $1.7 Million During Term

Farm Ruling Is Upheld

PECOS (AP) — A local farm review committee has reaffirmed its decision reinstating a cotton acreage allotment for a farm operated by Don Vinson of Reeves County, cancelling a $12,298.45 penalty levied against Vinson by the Agriculture Department.

The committee acted Thursday, upholding the ruling it issued after hearing the case in February. The government contended that the deal in which Vinson sold farm land in Reeves County to Mrs. Cora Habbocks and then leased back the land, after she had transferred to it cotton allotments from Navarro County, was not a bona fide sale.

By law a farmer who loses land because of public works can transfer his cotton acreage allotments to a new farm. At issue in the rehearing was the question of whether the Navarro County farm was the sole property of Mrs. Habbocks, an elderly widow.

The government introduced an affidavit by Mrs. Ella Adams, a daughter of Mrs. Habbocks, stating she considered the sale to involve only cotton allotments.

Lawyers for Vinson introduced records from the Navarro County clerk's office showing the farm was deeded to Mrs. Habbocks by her parents in 1921.

They argued that the farm therefore was the sole property of Mrs. Habbocks and not community property, and that the children of Mrs. Habbocks had no claim to the land until after her death.

stronger code of ethics for state officials. Carr's report to the Travis County grand jury and his letter to Connally were based on a two-month study of Murray's personal and income tax records. Murray resigned April 10, two days after published reports that while a commissioner he made large sums in the oil and gas industry, which is regulated by the agency. In his letter to Connally, Carr said in part: "The investigation does strongly point up the need for a re-examination and re-evaluation of our conflict of interest statute, keeping in mind the question on to what extent, if any, a public official should be permitted to personally engage in the business or industry which he is required to regulate as a part of his official duty."

He urged the governor to request that the Legislature Council make a "thorough study with resulting recommendations to the legislature for an improved and strong code of ethics, and that such study be given priority."

"Quite successful" was the way Carr's letter described Murray's dealings in the oil business. Murray said the same thing when he resigned, but added he did not understand why a poor man would make a better commissioner than a successful oil man.

"If there was no criticism from the oil operators who would suffer if I was unfair," he said, "Then I do not see what difference it makes if I am a poor oil man or a rich oil man."

Murray also said that he saw no conflict of interest with his state job and he welcomed a grand jury study of his activities while a commissioner. Included in the $17 million profit reported by Carr was $952,763 for sale of Murray's interest in the BMM Drilling Co. Sales of Swenson Ranch leases in Throckmorton County in 1959 and 1960 totaled $175,215 and sale of Hudgens Unit No. 1 in Wharton County netted $202,715.

According to Carr's report, Murray's income between 1946 and 1962 ranged from a low of $9,566 in 1946 to a high of $1,051,508 in 1961, a total which included sale of the drilling company.

Federal Jury Convicts Four Of Conspiracy

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — A federal court jury convicted four men, including former Congressman Thomas F. Johnson and Frank W. Boykin, of conspiracy Thursday night. Attorneys for the four said they will appeal.

Johnson, 53; Boykin, 78; J. Kenneth Edlin, 64, and William L. Robinson, 37, were found guilty on 32 counts. The maximum punishment totals 19 years imprisonment and $70,000 in fines for each defendant.

U.S. Dist. Judge Roszel Thomson postponed sentencing pending motions for appeal.

Johnson also was convicted of conflict of interest and the other three men with aiding in the conflict. He was accused of trying to get Edlin cleared of mail fraud charges lodged in 1959 in connection with his operation of a Maryland savings and loan firm.

Edlin eventually was convicted of the charge and served five months in prison. He and Robinson, his attorney, are from Miami.

Boykin, a Democrat, had represented Alabama's 1st District in Congress for 28 years until he was defeated in a primary in May 1962.

The indictments against Johnson were returned three weeks before last November's general election. Johnson, also a Democrat, lost his bid for re-election to Republican Rogers C. B. Morton. Johnson represented Maryland's Eastern Shore in Congress for two terms.

The statute on which the indictments were based prohibits a congressman from receiving compensation for any services in a matter in which the United States is a party unless his personal interest is made known.

The government also contended it was deprived of its right to conduct its affairs without undue influence and pressure.

Officers Named In Damage Suit

BEAUMONT (AP) — Three law enforcement officers were named Thursday in a $100,000 damage suit filed by a salesman who says they beat him.

Roy Daniels, 39, filed the suit against Sheriff Lt. Cecil Rose, deputy Sheriff George Morton and Wayne Bogus of Houston, a state police undercover agent.

The three also are named in three other suits which allege they beat persons in their custody.

Daniels charged he was kicked in the face and manhandled March 17 when the officers "burst in" the door of his room in the King Edward Towers.

County records show Daniels was arrested, March 17, and charged with possessing a dangerous drug, a misdemeanor.

Viet Nam Buddhists Pledge New Sacrifices

SAIGON (South Viet Nam AP) — A faith which for thousands of years has preached poverty, self-denial and nonviolence, exploited this week into a ghastly human sacrifice in the middle of a busy Saigon street.

More ritual suicides have been promised by Buddhist monks and nuns involved in Tuesday's suicide by fire of a 72-year-old monk.

The monks are speaking in a new tone, one which prescribes more bloodshed and might even topple South Viet Nam's government, headed by President Ngo Dinh Diem, a Roman Catholic.

"This thing is beginning to look almost like Japanese Shinto—the banners, the ritual suicide, the blazing fanaticism," said a Saigon Catholic priest. "I think it could lead to the destruction of the religious faith in Viet Nam."

South Viet Nam's Buddhist leaders explained their position in a communique.

of their functions, on Buddhist priests. Buddhist pagodas are integral parts of most communities. Buddhist monks have an important influence on about 80 per cent of the people.

The monks in Saigon are more or less divided into two main denominations, the "Mahayana" and the "Theravada."

The Mahayana, many of whom have studied abroad, regard themselves as the progressives. They are the main leaders of the current rebellion against government policy.

But the Theravada monks, the conservatives, are represented in the movement, and there are indications Vietnamese national Buddhism has increasingly welded itself into a single purpose during the past month.

Tough-talking Buddhist leaders show no sign of relaxing their stance. But all of the spectacular demonstrations of the past month have been led by no more than a thousand monks and nuns.

The big question remains whether the powerful South Vietnamese army will be caught up in the flames lit by the new Buddhist movement.

While many of the army's top commanders are Catholics, some of its generals and other officers are Buddhists. Probably about 80 per cent of the army as a whole leans more toward Buddhism than anything else.

In some areas, soldiers reportedly have asked to participate in Buddhist demonstrations but have been forbidden to do so. Generally, the war against Communist guerrillas has continued during the Buddhist crisis, and there is no inkling of any military rebellion.

Young Reds Receive Awards

MOSCOW (AP) — Ten teen-age members of the Leningrad club of young cosmonauts received honorary certificates Thursday from Chief Air Marshal Alexander Novikov.

Tass news agency said the 10 have flown TU-104 jet planes, undergone training in pressurized chambers and jumped from parachute towers.

The Leningrad club was organized by school children 15 to 17 years old on April 12, 1961, when Yuri Gagarin made the first manned space orbit. Fidel Castro is an honorary member of the club.

YOUR STARS TODAY

By Constella

Most joyful let the Poet be; It is through him that all men see.

—Wm. Ellery Channing.

DAILY GUIDE— Take time out to enjoy nature, a song, a little color. It is amazing how few people realize the importance of color. It has a healing magic, as we are discovering through use in therapy for physically and mentally ill persons.

You may not realize it, but color can give you a lift in body, mind and soul. Look for it today, just as an experiment, even if it is only to look in a florist window, window shop, visit an art gallery. The moon is in Pisces, a sign sensitive to poetry, music, and the arts. It is an emotional sign so let the emotion be constructively creative.

This has been a week that ought to have been freer from tensions, and the weekend promises unusually happy conditions for enjoyment. Remember that you have free will to make your days good or bad. The first question people ask me when they are told the planetary pattern is: "Good or bad?" The mathematical timing is given by the movement of the stars, but what you do by the clock is what counts. You have a weekend appointment with little pleasures.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, GEMINI! Many details to be attended to in the next few weeks. Announce plans, talk over ideas, and get around to see people. After that give attention to details regarding finances through early summer.

Around the 22nd of this month another accent on the changing patterns of your domestic life can be expected. You are in a continual cycle of change for the next few years, so do not expect that you can settle down permanently.

You will probably break with some of your past; get ready for new ventures. Older people, in laws, or those in educational or professional fields can give you solid support at this time, and loved ones can be generous and helpful.

Tomorrow He May Die, But Lad Becomes Citizen

By SAM KINDRICK
San Antonio Express Staff Writer
Written for the Associated Press

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Jimmy Yokley, 4, became a U.S. citizen Thursday.

Tomorrow he may die.

Doctors at Brooke General Hospital hold no hope for the German-born boy stricken with a brain malady. It was this that prompted his adopted parents to request an unusual naturalization ceremony.

"If he must die, the baby will die an American citizen," said his father, Staff Sgt. Maurice Yokley of San Antonio.

Federal Judge Adrian Spears waived the four remaining days on the two-year residence requirement so the youngster could be naturalized.

Jimmy Yokley has undergone seven brain operations since July 1961. Doctors think his trouble may have started with an insect bite.

"I've had that baby since he was 16 days old," whispered his mother, Mrs. Reima Yokley.

"And I gave birth to that baby every time God gave him back to me," she said.

Doctors say he may live minutes or days.

"They told us there is no hope," Yokley said.

The Yokleys have a daughter, Tangle, 7. It was after her birth that Mrs. Yokley learned she could bear no more children.

They adopted Jimmy while Yokley was stationed at Ludwigsburg, Germany. Then Yokley was transferred to the Redstone Arsenal at Huntsville, Ala., where the boy first became ill.

"It started with a place on his knee," Yokley said. "It looked like an insect bite."

Physicians at the Redstone Arsenal later diagnosed a brain injury. Operations were performed there and at Walter Reed General Hospital in Washington, D.C. Then Yokley was sent to Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio.

Jimmy's condition worsened Saturday and he was taken to the Army's Brooke Hospital.

The latest development is a brain abscess. The parents are convinced doctors have done their best.

Judge Spears said after the ceremony: "So frequently people take their citizenship lightly. I am happy to see people who take it so very seriously."

Little Hope Moscow Talks To Lead To Real Test Ban

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
An AP News Analysis

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top U.S. officials have very little hope at the moment that the Moscow nuclear test ban talks next month will lead to a breakthrough in the long East-West deadlock.

Their primary reason is that Soviet Premier Khrushchev is reported to be holding rigidly to his position that a test ban treaty can be adequately enforced without any kind of international inspection inside the Soviet Union.

Another reason for lack of optimism regarding the U.S.-British-Russian negotiations in mid-July is that officials believe Khrushchev is under heavy pressure from his military advisors to hold another series of nuclear weapons tests later this year.

was chosen to follow this line at this time.

SINO-SOVIET SPLIT

The speculation most generally favored by U.S. officials is that the display of Soviet friendliness may be a maneuver dictated by Khrushchev's strategy in approaching talks with the Red Chinese over the split in the Sino-Soviet bloc, rather than by Khrushchev's desire to create a favorable atmosphere for the test ban talks.

Soviet and Chinese representatives are scheduled to meet in Moscow on July 5. One of Khrushchev's purposes at the moment could be to try to get across to the Red Chinese and to people in Russia that his policy of "peaceful coexistence" with the West is paying off in improved relations with the United States.

The theme of Moscow's comment on Kennedy's speech has been that the American president was moving toward peaceful coexistence.

Behind the scenes, however, all well-informed officials here agree that there had been no hint of any kind of concessions by Russia toward the test ban. There is even a serious question in the minds of top policy makers whether the offer Khrushchev made last December of two or three on-site inspections a year in Russia still stands.

In discussions with some Western visitors in recent weeks Khrushchev has spoken of that offer as a thing of the past. It has not been formally withdrawn, however.

The messages which Khrushchev sent Kennedy and Macmillan last week have not been made public. But it can be stated on excellent authority that while the tone was generally cordial Khrushchev devoted considerable space to arguing that international inspection is not necessary to police the test ban and that if the Western powers want to end tests all they have to do is accept the Soviet position.

Associates say that President Kennedy did not seek the new negotiations on the issue because of any word whatever that they might be successful but only because he feels that the time in which an agreement might be possible is becoming desperately short.

Kennedy has said at recent news conferences that this is the critical summer for these negotiations.

The Soviet position at the moment, as American officials see it, is unpredictable and is likely to be influenced more by political strategy related to the quarrel with Red China than by concern for a test ban agreement.

But this in itself probably means that the possibility of an agreement is not completely foreclosed because if relations between Moscow and Peking continue to get worse Khrushchev might decide that a balancing policy in Russia's interest would be to try to improve relations with the Western powers.

Father's Day Quiz — Is Dad A Dud?

By JOY MILLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Is dad a dud these days, or does he still have standing in the family circle?

For years, psychologists and sociologists have been taking potshots at pop, calling him everything from a figurehead to a henpecked onlooker. Many an anthropologist has sighed over that crumbling institution known as fatherhood.

But what do those closest to the beleaguered parent say? Do the kids have an opinion?

They do — and it's one of the nicest presents father will get this Father's Day.

A survey by Associated Press bureaus turns up the heartening view that youngsters from 3 to 18 think dad not only is one of the good guys, in most cases he's the best.

To the 10-year-old of a Maine lobsterman — he's "my best friend."

A Seattle girl, 15, says "he's the most terrific guy. He's always helping."

A little boy in Salt Lake City, who sees his divorced father on weekends says wistfully: "Fathers are about the best things on earth. They try and spend as much time as they can with you and if they can't, they try and make it up to you."

That's not saying the head of the household doesn't have a fault or two.

The young ones worry because he smokes, cusses, nags, "expects too much of me," doesn't spend enough time with the family because he works too hard and long or — in fewer instances — because he puts in too much time at church meetings or playing golf.

Dad's worst habit for a 10-year-old boy in Atlanta is "he's always harking 'ho this, don't do that, hurry up.' He's always on my neck."

A fifth grader in Juneau, Alaska, says his father is at his worst when "he pushes mommy out of bed in his sleep."

For a 3-year-old boy in Portland, Maine, daddy's most unforgivable lapse is "He doesn't like carrots when they are not peeled."

What would they like dad to do that he doesn't?

Come to their Little League games, not leave picnics so early, play football, bowl, ski, socialize, relax and enjoy himself more, fix something right away when it needs it, "not joke when I'm serious," "sit down" and discuss things more with me — a 16-year-old girl — and from 13 on up, toss them the keys to the car.

"I wish he would help me more and try to understand that I am going through a difficult period of life," says a 12-year-old girl, while one 7 is more concerned that "he hasn't taken us to the zoo."

In Mineola, N.Y., a 17-year-old high school junior says, "My biggest gripe is this: after I've studied for two or three hours in the afternoon, dad'll come in while I'm listening to records. And he'll always ask, 'Why aren't you doing your homework?'"

What are the nicest things about father?

"When I'm in trouble he's always there to help" — girl 13.

"He shaves" — girl 3.

"He has candy in the jar at his office" — doctor's daughter, 7.

"He cuts up with my friends — he's not an old fogey" — girl, 14.

What does father mean — a pal or someone to look up to?

A majority think he's both, although one 13-year-old boy comments: "If I treated him like a pal and were to tell him to shut up he'd knock me for a loop."

A girl 17 delivers this opinion: "The word father makes me think of someone not especially close to the family. He should be called 'daddy.' A daddy is someone to talk to, get money from."

And an 18-year-old boy sums it up this way: "He's a friend. He just does everything with you, a real all-round guy and he keeps you in line."

K'S REASONS

If this is the outlook, Washington authorities are puzzled about the reasons why Khrushchev has chosen during the past week to respond as he has to Western initiative related to the test ban issue.

The first of these moves came a week ago when he accepted a proposal by Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan to hold high level discussions in an effort to re-examine the inspection and detection problem and see whether the deadlock might be broken.

The agreement was announced by Kennedy on Monday in a speech appealing for better relations between Russia and the United States. The speech, even though it contained some criticisms of the Communist system and its lack of freedom for individuals, was published in full in Moscow and has since drawn some favorable press comment there.

Kennedy administration officials were pleased with both the publication and the favorable comment, but are intrigued that the Russians

Ancient Landmarks

"Remove not the ancient landmarks, which thy fathers have set." Prov. 22:28.

In the days of Solomon it was customary to mark the boundaries of one's property by a stake. Occasionally a covetous neighbor would move the landmark in order to enlarge his own land. Solomon charges that this practice must not be condoned.

There are also spiritual landmarks that designate ancient truths. The New Testament sets forth these very vividly and clearly. They mark the boundaries between the kingdom of God and the kingdom of Satan. They must not be moved. Neither the progress of centuries nor the advance of aeons alters these principles.

If you own a New Testament, you have these ancient landmarks. By examining them closely you will find from whence you came, why you are here, and whither is your destiny. They answer the questions: "What must I do to be saved?" and "What must I do to keep saved?" Have you obeyed these commands exactly as they were given? Have you believed that Jesus is the Christ? Have you been baptized into Him? John 3:16; Acts 2:38. Are you living steadfastly to His cause, abounding in His kingdom? II Pet. 1:5-11. These ancient landmarks will determine the destiny of your soul.

The Northside church of Christ (601 N. Runnels) invites you to hear the gospel each week. Sun. 10 and 11 a.m.; 6 p.m.

PARIS — As so often in the past, France is launched on her own solitary and grandiose destiny under the leadership of a heroic figure like those who star the pages of French history.

BUT IN THE nuclear age a solitary destiny comes very high, as France is now discovering. To build testing grounds in the Pacific is enormously expensive.

IT IS NOT surprising then that in the closed circuit of the De Gaulle regime serious doubts about this course are expressed. One of the doubters is said to be the Minister of Finance, Valéry Giscard d'Estaing, who is an aristocrat and a conservative.

BUT, SINCE political life in France is dead and for all practical purposes hijacked almost no one asks what the reward is to be for all the treasure, the brains and the technical skill poured out in this effort to stand alone with a national nuclear deterrent.

Keeping Our Bases In Spain

MADRID — At any moment now Americans can expect to learn the Franco asking price for continuance of the important Strategic Air Command bases near Madrid, Seville and Saragosa.

IF THE PRICE is right, the United States will certainly maintain the four strategic bases, which assume special importance since we have lost our air fields in Morocco.

IT IS HOPED that Franco will not make these two demands, but it is feared that he will. Uncle Sam could not deliver on either. As for the Common Market, Franco would indeed believe in miracles if he thinks the United States can ease Spain into the lodge when it can't even protect American chickens from the Inner Six.

IF, IN ADDITION, Franco asks for both military and economic aid, the bargaining is expected to be long, tough and wearing. At the end of six months after

They refer to the enforcement of execution of "laws of the United States," but neither at Little Rock on September 24, 1957, nor at Tuscaloosa this week were there any specific laws involved that deal with desegregation of public educational institutions.

CONGRESS, MOREOVER, had explicitly enjoined the President and everybody else from using the military forces in any way to execute the laws unless specifically authorized to do so by the Constitution or an act of Congress.

Pastor Quits On Race Issue

LINDEN, Ala. (AP)—A white Baptist minister who said Negroes should be permitted to worship in his church has resigned.

The resignation, effective today, came after members of the congregation divided on the stand taken by the minister, the Rev. Joe H. Patterson, 33.

The Rev. Mr. Patterson made his stand May 17 at a meeting of the board of deacons of the Linden Baptist Church when a deacon asked, "What will our church do if any Negroes come to worship here?"

"I could not close the door of the house of the Lord to anyone who desired to come," the pastor wrote in the church bulletin. "I might just slam the door in the face of Christ himself."

No Negro had sought to attend services of the church, but some members became disturbed when they saw a car occupied by Negroes parked nearby on a Sunday night a few weeks ago.

Linden is a community of about 2,500 in west-central Alabama, approximately 100 miles west of Montgomery.

Dallas Is Cited By Safety Council

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council's second highest award for a traffic safety program has gone to Dallas.

The city also received two achievement certificates for its public education program and its engineering and planning performances.

Ten other Texas cities were cited: Abilene, Amarillo, Corpus Christi, Lubbock, Mission and Wichita Falls were recognized for their educational programs on traffic safety in the schools; Austin, Borger, Fort Worth and Waco were cited for traffic engineering; and Waco for organization of traffic safety improvement on both government and citizen levels.

An Odd Way To Meet Kinfolk

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—A minor traffic accident Wednesday saved Mrs. Louise Rambold of Grants Pass, Ore., a 10-cent telephone call to a cousin she had never met.

The cousin, Mike Lewis, a police sergeant, was dispatched to investigate the accident.

Dramatic Advances Made In Fight Against Leukemia

By FRANK E. CAREY
WASHINGTON (AP)—New and dramatic advances have been made in the last two years against acute leukemia.

That is the presently incurable blood-cancer disease that recently killed Ernie Davis, the great Negro football player of Syracuse University and the Cleveland Browns.

Government cancer fighters say there are grounds for hope that additional major gains will be achieved in the years ahead in prolonging the life of victims of this strange malady, which occurs in various forms in both children and adults.

LESSER GAINS

Lesser gains are being made against chronic leukemia — the kind that recently killed Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., 69, who was chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Chronic leukemia is fortunately a somewhat less pressing problem than its acute fellow-traveler—and advances in treatment in the last decade or so have made life more comfortable for many of its ultimately doomed victims.

Three new drugs have been developed since 1961 against acute leukemia—two of them in the past year. This brings to six the number of drug weapons against the malady.

That is the first bit we have had in years, I suppose, Dr. Kenneth M. Endicott, director of the National Cancer Institute, recently told a House Appropriations subcommittee.

Leukemia kills about 14,000 people annually and adds some 16,000 new cases every year to the approximately 800,000 Americans suffering from all forms of cancer at any given time.

ON INCREASE

Leukemia, for reasons unknown, has been on the increase in the last few decades.

Even with the new drugs, life-prolongation in acute leukemia still averages less than two years. But there have been notable exceptions of victims surviving up to 10 years after the initial diagnosis. Drug benefits are limited largely to children.

Fifteen years ago, victims of acute leukemia almost invariably died within three or four months after the initial diagnosis. Some died within a few days.

Chronic leukemia, while also ultimately fatal, is much slower to kill. The average survival is three to five years, but a few victims may live 10 years or longer. Notable cases have survived almost 40 years.

Drugs are not as consistently effective against acute leukemia in adults as they are in children.

Unfortunately for Ernie Davis, who was 21, none of the drugs have any significant effect against the form of leukemia he had—acute monocytic leukemia.

FOOLING THE CANCER

Some of the older drugs temporarily fight the cancer by "fooling" it into "thinking." The chemicals are nutrients needed by the malignancy in order to grow. But none of the drugs could, in the lingo of the football field, fake or "mouse-trap" Ernie's cancer.

Ernie, who loved the thrills of science and nature as well as the next man, undoubtedly would have been interested in these facts about the new advances.

1. One of the three new drugs, called Vineristine, is an extract of the periwinkle plant, a form of myrtle. Another called Methy-Gag for short, is an entirely new type of compound among some two dozen chemicals, out of literally thousands tested so far, which have been found useful against various types of cancer.

The third new one, called Cyclophosphamide, is a new member of a class of compounds called nitrogen mustard, the first of which originally was used as a poison gas in World War I.

TEAM METHOD

2. Researchers and grantees of the National Cancer Institute see promising possibilities in "team" application of the drugs—what is, using varied combinations against the foe, which inexorably develops resistance to a given individual drug.

3. Researchers have developed two new "supportive" treatments which show promise of forestalling death in other ways—thus giving additional time to allow the drugs to produce their maximum punch.

One is a method of preparing the transfusing blood plasma that is rich in so-called platelets—a powerful blood fraction which often becomes deficient in leukemia patients.

The other is a method of transfusing plasma rich in normal white blood cells in which the leukemic patient is also deficient.

To take advantage of the new drug techniques and the new supportive treatments, the National Cancer Institute has organized a special research task force against acute leukemia.

ACCURATE PREDICTORS

One objective is to identify—and eventually use as a "screening" technique for finding new and useful drugs—those animal tumors which most accurately predict the effects of drugs in leukemic patients.

The other aim is to devise methods of making the new supportive treatments available to more hospitals throughout the country.

Alfred with the leukemia task force is another which will coordinate a major national effort to explore the possibility—increasingly backed by animal evidence—that at least some forms of human cancer, especially the leukemias, are caused by viruses.

If proof of that were established and scientists were able to isolate the causative viruses, the way might be open to the production of preventive vaccines.

Texas U. Shows Radio Telescope For Moon Studies

AUSTIN (AP)—University of Texas engineers demonstrated today a radio telescope designed to pinpoint landing sites on the moon.

The dish-shaped antenna was built to provide reference data for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The antenna, hand-polished to plate glass smoothness and housed under a large rotating astrodome, is at the university's electrical engineering research laboratory, part of the Balcones Research Center near Austin.

"The laboratory will coordinate its observations of solar bodies with the U.S. space program," said Charles Tolbert, director of the new observatory. "When the NASA mission is on the moon, our emphasis will be on lunar observations."

Taking part in the dedication were Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, Dr. H. H. Ransom, university chancellor; Dr. W. W. Hagerty, dean of engineering, and university regents.

Lung Transplanted In Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Transplanting of a healthy lung to a 58-year-old man has been disclosed by surgeons of the University Medical Center here.

The hospital team said the transplant was made Tuesday and the patient was reported doing well after the three-hour operation.

Surgeons said they replaced a

10-A Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Friday, June 14, 1963

cancerous lung with a healthy lung from an unrelated donor.

Hospital spokesmen said it is too early to know what degree the immune response—the body's defense against foreign "invaders"—will prevent rejection of the transplanted lung.

The transplant was tried, surgeons said, after detailed studies in more than 500 experimental animals over a 7-year period.

Miss Big Spring Pageant Saturday Looks Promising

DORINDA MEDFORD

SUZANNE COMPTON

JOANNA PATTERSON

LINDA FULBRIGHT

The 1963 Miss Big Spring Pageant is shaping up to be one of the best yet. Although numbers are down in the junior division, the senior contest has a lineup of experience, beauty and talent yet to be equalled in Big Spring.

To be staged beginning at 8 p.m. Saturday, the pageant also promises to be one of the fastest moving, with seven enrolled seniors and twelve juniors. The senior contestants will be required to demonstrate talents during one portion of the program, and this year there are several contestants who have been in previous pageants and have developed their various talents to a high degree.

The program will consist of four portions for the senior including, besides the talent demonstration, an evening gown appearance, a bathing suit revue, and interviews with the master of ceremonies. Juniors are not required to demonstrate talents.

Winner of this year's Miss Big Spring title will go on to Fort Worth Aug. 14 to vie for the Miss Texas title and, possibly, to Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 2 for a try at the Miss America crown.

MANY TALENTS

Among the talents to be demonstrated here Saturday evening are those in voice, music, dramatic readings, and baton twirling. Judging will be on a strict point system by a select panel of judges.

A special guest at the pageant will be Penny Lee Rudd, Miss Texas of 1962.

The city auditorium's stage will be decorated according to the theme, "Step into Space," designed by Daryl Hohertz and executed by Jesse Jackson and fellow Jaycees. This will include a floating capsule.

Tickets may be bought at the door, or in advance at Cizon's, Anthony's, Zack's and a special downtown booth. Following the pageant a dinner party will be held in the Settles Hotel Ballroom for sponsoring Jaycees, Jaycee-Ettes, contestants and their dates, and special guests.

LATEST ENTRIES

Latest entries in the senior division: Suzanne Compton, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Compton, 1804 Laurie.

Miss Compton, a 1962 graduate of Big Spring High School, will further her education at Howard County Junior College. She won second place in the Junior Miss Big Spring Pageant twice and has won medals in voice competitions. She was the DeMolay Sweetheart in 1962-63, the Key Club Sweetheart the same school year. She will present a recital of Gershwin melodies during the talent performances.

The contestant has green eyes.

brown hair, fair complexion, stands 5'8", weighs 125, and has measurements of 35-24-36.

Dorinda Kay Medford, 18, daughter of J. E. Medford, 1801 Morrison. A graduate of Big Spring High School in 1962, she will further her education at Howard County Junior College.

Miss Medford, who has had six years training in the art, will present a piano concert during her appearance in the talent section. She was active in the choir while in high school.

Miss Medford measures 32-22-33, weighs 105, stands 5'5", has hazel eyes, light brown hair, fair complexion.

BATON TWIRLING

Dana Lynn Tesson, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Tesson, 1509 Vines. Miss Tesson is a graduate of Abilene High School and has attended HCJC. She has placed high in baton twirling contests, and was track coach at HCJC in 1962. Her talent demonstration will be twirling.

Miss Tesson weighs 112, is 5'4" in height, has blue eyes, brown hair and fair complexion, with measurements of 32-23-35.

Ilameta Carr, 19, daughter of Fred Carr, Vincent St., Coahoma.

She is a 1961 graduate of Big Spring High School and has attended the University of Texas two years.

Miss Carr won plaudits for her acting abilities while in high school, and has appeared in three university productions, including one major role. Among the many honors she has gleaned were Best Actress Award, American Legion Award, and third place in state Interscholastic League poetry reading.

She will portray Joan of Arc in a scene from "St. Joan" Saturday night.

Miss Carr's statistics include measurements of 34-22-35, height of 5'6", weight 112, green eyes, brown hair, fair complexion.

FORMER WINNER

Sandra Elaine Baker, 19, daughter of Mrs. Denia Baker of Rt. 1, Big Spring. Miss Baker is a student at Texas Tech.

She was Junior Miss Big Spring in 1960, and runner-up for the Miss Big Spring title in 1961. She also has held many other similar titles, including Farm Bureau queen and West Texas De Molay Sweetheart.

Miss Baker has brown hair, brown eyes, dark complexion, weighs 109, stands 5'4", and her measurements are 34-22-34.

Virginia Ruth Morris, daughter of T. R. Morris, 1012 Stadium.

She is a 1962 graduate of Big Spring High School and is a stu-

IT'S NO WONDER THOSE WHO KNOW RECOMMEND TSO For Professional Eye Care

When you find an unusually competent personal service, you naturally recommend this service to friends and relatives. That's what has been happening at TSO for many years. More and more people come to TSO for the first time because of a recommendation. And they do so with full confidence—because they have been told that the care and service they receive at TSO will be outstanding in quality. This is not by accident or chance. Through the years, TSO has provided professional eye care and fine quality eyewear at reasonable cost. At TSO, Doctors of Optometry perform a careful, three-phase examination. First, your complete visual history is recorded. Then, your eyes are examined internally for any evidence of disease or defect, such as glaucoma or cataract. Finally, they are examined for visual abnormalities, such as near or farsightedness, presbyopia, astigmatism or muscle imbalance. Glasses are prescribed only if your examination reveals the need. The cost is reasonable at TSO—as low as $14.85 for single vision glasses, complete with examination, lenses and frame. Invisible bifocals are as low as $17.85, complete. Perhaps you have been considering contact lenses. TSO enjoys their reputation as contact lens specialists, made possible through years of research and the extensive experience of over 35,000 contact lens fittings. TSO Micro-Sight Contact Lenses—unsurpassed in technical excellence—are $65, complete with examination, prescription and fitting. Bifocal contact lenses are available too, at reasonable cost. Convenient credit, if desired, at no extra charge. So, whether a friend has recommended TSO—or you decide on your own—guard against eye disease, eyestrain and poor vision—visit TSO soon.

to death at the stake on June 3, 1886. Others met death by various means such as clubbing and beheading, between 1885 and 1887.

Visitors to Uganda today see shrines and churches erected near Namugongo and other areas in memory of the boys.

There have been several books and papers written about the martyrs.

Many churchmen believe the rapid spread of Christianity in Uganda was spurred by the examples of the martyrs.

In a little more than 30 years more than half of Uganda's 6.5 million people have become Christians in one of the fastest growths of Christianity on the African continent.

Clergy Use Magic In Work

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—There's magic in the Protestant ministry today—and it's helping the clerics work.

During a recent convention of the Society of American Magicians, several Protestant clergymen explained how they are using their hobby of magic in religion.

The Rev. Robert C. Anderson, a captain in the Chaplain Corps of the U.S. Army stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., said magic and religion are more compatible than most people realize.

He illustrated his point by "transforming" three separate silk handkerchiefs into one large, handsome scarf imprinted with a butterfly.

"This illusion," said Chaplain Anderson, "has helped me show individuals how they could change aimless, fragmented lives into lives of personal worth and of service to the community."

Maj. Wayne Lockhart of the Salvation Army, another of the magicians, changed a black silk handkerchief into white in his magic red velvet bag.

"This is a simple, yet very instructive way to show a person how he can change his life for the good," Maj. Lockhart said. "This is a particularly popular trick in my prison visiting."

Other ministers who are members of the society said they use their magic to entertain hospital patients and in parish use for Sunday School sessions and church parties.

"Magic is particularly good for children," one minister said. "But you'd be surprised how old the children can be, church-goers or not."

First Methodist VBS Opens Monday

Vacation Church School begins Monday at the First Methodist Church for a two week session.

The "Widening Relationships" classes begin at 9 a.m. each day and are open to children four years old to the sixth grade.

Along with the main theme, kindergarten classes will stress "Friends Near and Far," the primary text, "Friends From Many Lands"; and the junior text "Meet Your Neighbors."

Mrs. Robert C. Hill will be directing the school assisted by Mrs. D. A. Hulme. Other workers include Mrs. Martin Staggs, supplies; Mrs. Larry Patton and Mrs. Walter Hoover, recreation.

Mrs. Walter Osborne, Mrs. Herb Stoner, Mrs. Bob Burkhalter and Mrs. R. E. Koenig, refreshments.

Nursery workers are Mrs. R. H. Mallens, Mrs. Floyd Puckett, Mrs. Floyd Martin, Mrs. D. F. Bigony.

Catholic History Series Continues

The second presentation in a series of the history of the Roman Catholic Church will be presented on the Catholic Hour over KMID-TV Sunday at 4 p.m.

This presentation was produced by the National Council of Catholic Men and is dedicated to the late Pope John. This sequence deals with the Middle Ages, from the time of Charlemagne to the fall of Constantinople.

Boys Who Died For Faith To Be Honored By Church

By RICHARD F. LONG
FORT PORTAL, Uganda (AP)—Africa's first saints below the Sahara are expected to be canonized later this year in Rome.

They are the Uganda martyrs—22 Roman Catholic boys who, with 13 Protestant youngsters, died for the Christian faith between 1885 and 1887 in this middle-Africa country.

No exact date has been set for the canonization of the Catholic martyrs. However the Vatican has said it expects the ceremony will take place after bishops gather from all over the world for the second session of the Vatican Council. The second session begins in September.

The story of the Uganda martyrs is one of the most stirring episodes in the annals of Christianity in Africa. It is also one in which both Catholics and Protestants take pride.

The youngsters were slain shortly after the white man first came to Uganda and Central Africa. British explorers were followed by missionaries of both faiths, the Protestants arriving in Uganda in 1877, and the Catholic missionaries, the White Fathers, in 1879.

The central and most powerful native figure at the time was the kabaka (or king) of Buganda, the main province of Uganda.

The leading missionaries of the respective faiths were Alexander Mackay of the Protestant Church Missionary Society and Father Simon Lourdel of the Catholic White Fathers.

Christianity had a small growth in the beginning. Because the kabaka wanted the missionaries near him, however, many of the pages in the kabaka's court became Christians. It was these boys who were to later die for their faith.

Then there came a time when the Christian missionaries lost favor with the kabaka and there were various persecutions against both faiths. A new kabaka, Mwanga, crueller than his predecessor, ascended the throne. This kabaka was known for his vices and for his opposition to Christianity.

One day he ordered the pages in his court to commit acts which they felt were against the tenets of their new-found faith.

The pages refused to do them. To refuse the kabaka, an absolute ruler, anything, meant death.

Most of the boys were burned

THE RIGHTEOUS CHARACTER OF GOD IS OUR ASSURANCE THAT SOME DAY RIGHTEOUSNESS WILL PREVAIL IN THE WORLD

SCRIPTURE—Psalms 11; 72; 82; 106; Amos 5:8.

By N. SPEER JONES
THE COLLECTION of psalms in today's lesson reflects the importance of righteousness in religion. The word comes, of course, from our simple word "right." To be righteous, therefore, is to do what is right.

In Psalm 11, which is one of David's, we find that the author is in a situation so desperate that friends urge him to flee for his life. He refuses, not only because he has faith in God's upholding of the righteous, but because to flee would not be righteousness on his part, but cowardice.

Psalm 72 is one of the only two in the Psalter which, so far as we can tell, were authored by Solomon. The other is the 127th. His opening prayer is for himself and his heir, that they judgments may be righteous according to God. Justice, in the first clause, probably refers to the specific judgments which the king must make; righteousness, in the second, probably here means the inner spirit of accord with God's way, which makes any specific judgment right.

In verse six, Solomon asks that he and his son be like "rain upon mown grass," which at first glance seems odd because literally this is not a blessing at all. What the author must mean is rain upon a newly mown field from which the old grass has been cleared. This would cause the grass to sprout again, almost overnight, just as a good leader's influence brings out the latent potential in his followers.

earthly judging, as Christ Himself said. The fundamental criterion for any judgment is righteousness.

In Psalm 106 we return to the old theme of God's everlasting righteousness and patience, and Israel's everlasting unrighteousness. The problem here is the one of the necessity of judgment on the part of the righteous even though the unrighteous especially one's own unrighteous; this is the problem faced by every disciplining parent.

The task of Amos was roughly the equivalent to that of preachers in this country today, who must point out the sinfulness in an era of outward prosperity. Under Uzziah and Jeroboam II, a period of great splendor and prosperity for Israel.

For the Lord is righteous, He loves righteous deeds; the upright shall behold His face.—Psalm 11:7.

"POURING AND SPRINKLING"

"Baptism" is from the Greek "Baptizo" means burial, or immersion. "Sprinkling" is from the Greek "Rantizo" it means to rain, or sprinkle. Christ taught baptism — He taught "Baptizo" but He did not teach "Rantizo," hence He did not teach sprinkling. Christians follow Christ; "Christian" is a name but a name with a meaning.

A Roman Catholic pope named Stephen II in 753 A.D. said, "Pouring or sprinkling is only admitted in cases of necessity"; (in cases of sickness) Dean Stanley of Episcopalianism said in 1890, "The universal practice of the church for thirteen centuries was immersion." I might add that it is still the practice of the "Bible," hence of the "Bible people," hence of the "Bible Church." Phillip Schaff in 1885 said, "Baptism is to immerse in water." There is not a Greek lexicon on earth that defines baptism to mean sprinkle. I do not refer to our ordinary dictionaries; these are not the standard for such terms, since they give only the ordinary, common usage of a word.

Sprinkling as a substitute for Bible baptism is illusive, hollow and sinful. It was for similar sins of presumption that Cain's offering was rejected and that Nadab and Abihu were slain and that caused the death of Uzzah. God hates presumption; sprinkling is a presumptuous substitute for God's command to be "buried with him by baptism" — Rom. 6:1-6.

PROBING THE UNKNOWN

Early dawn at Cape Canaveral . . . and out of the flaming roar a finger of science probes the unknown.

Man has never been content to live behind a curtain of mystery. He must seek . . . discover . . . explore.

Nor is man's soul less eager than his mind! For if we are meant each day to learn one more truth of our environment, we are meant, too, to learn one more truth of our Creator. There is hope that scientific probing can enrich our physical life; there is promise that religious searching will deepen our spiritual life.

Tomorrow depends on every lesson learned at Canaveral. But, to even greater degree, on every truth learned at Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

"San Angelo hasn't beaten Corpus Christi Ray yet," coaching aide John Garrison of Spring Branch High School, said between rounds in the Big Spring Golf Open here Sunday.

"You can always expect Bill Stages to come up with something, and everybody down our way expects him to be tough this year," Garrison went on.

JOHN GARRISON

Garrison, who planned to play with Obie Bristow in the Open after John Garrett of Rice University had first been announced as Obie's partner, says prospects are better than average at his own school but Port Arthur is the favorite in his particular area.

Henceforth, sports writers in the five cities comprising District 2 AAAA will shoulder the job of selecting all-conference teams. The coaches will be relieved of the responsibility of naming star-spangled units but they will be consulted by the writers in their respective towns and their recommendations will be welcomed and seriously considered.

Most of the mentors, no doubt, are relieved over the news that they no longer will be required to submit their ideas of all-star units.

For the first time in many years, the district will be furnished official football statistics — for conference games only.

The Daily Herald has furnished its readers individual statistics for all football games involving 2-AAAA teams for the past several years.

Labron Harris Sr., who helped "sell" the first annual Big Spring Golf Open by consenting to appear here, will team with his son, Labron Jr., for next month's Odessa Pro-Am.

Bob Dickson, Harris partner here, says he won't be playing in many more tournaments this summer, outside of the Oklahoma State Amateur. He's already won that title three times.

After Midland's Bobby Nichols appeared in one of those network TV golf shows, he was given the use of a Lincoln Continental for a year.

This spring's San Angelo Relays finished $1,100 in the red, but the Board of Civic Development there picked up the tab and has confirmed that a 1964 meet will be held.

The BCD will sponsor the freshman football game in San Angelo next fall, pitting Texas A&M against Texas Tech. In hopes that it can get an early start on a Relays fund, The Texas A&M team has agreed to make the trip for bare expenses.

When ACC and Fresno State played football in San Angelo last fall, the paid gate was in excess of 7,000 and ACC rarely draws that well at home.

San Angelo has become one of the finest football cities in the state and the outlook is even better, now that 3,000 seats are being added to its stadium.

J. D. Partridge, one-time Odessa athlete, is now one of the coaches at El Paso High School. He previously had been at Andrews and Amarillo High School.

Legion Team Loses, 6-4

LAMESA—The Big Spring nine opened on a bad note in the first game of the season in the American Legion play Thursday night as they lost a 6-4 game to Lamesa.

Big Spring had a 4-0 lead but Jack Roden, the starting pitcher, faltered and even though he had relief help from Freddie Meyers the damage was already done as Lamesa won the game and Roden was credited with a loss.

Jimmie Wyatt was the winner for Lamesa as he went all the way striking out eight and giving up only seven hits.

Neil Robinson and Don Osborne each went two for three for the locals. Wayne Robertson collected a single and a double for the winners.

Rockets Outscore Talons In Thriller

The Rockets and Talons locked in a scoring duel Thursday night in the International Little League and after the last run finally crossed the plate the scorekeeper found the Rockets ahead, 11-10.

Mike Mimms was the winner even though he gave up 10 hits.

Steve Mew was the loser as he twirled a five-hitter but gave up 11 runs.

Two Fast League Games Scheduled

The Merchants' game with F. C. Smith Construction at 6:45 p.m. in the first game of tonight's Fast Football League competition at Webb AFB this evening.

In the second contest, Morton's opposes Webb AFB at 8:30 p.m.

Under a new rule adopted by the league, no inning in the first game will be started after 8:10 p.m. The lone exception will be where the score is tied and extra innings are necessitated.

Team will be allowed 15 minutes beyond scheduled hours to field teams after which the forfeit rule will be invoked.

Frick May Look Into Conflict

DALLAS (AP)—The Dallas News quoted Commissioner Ford Frick today as saying he would ask the Houston Colts of the National League for an explanation about televising a Houston-Milwaukee game into the Dallas-Fort Worth area while Dallas-Fort Worth was playing at home.

The News reported Frick acknowledged receiving a complaint from owner Ray Johnston of the Dallas-Fort Worth Rangers of the Pacific Coast League and said he would write the Colts to ask details of the televising arrangement.

Johnson had protested to Frick and to George Troutman, president of the minor leagues, that the Colts violated a "gentlemen's agreement" when they permitted the June 2 telecast.

Frick, said the News, explained that individual clubs could make agreements but that no such broad arrangements could be made by the major leagues.

Allen's Mace Catches Fire As Twins Romp

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Onrushing Minnesota was tough enough even while Bernie Allen was having his hitting woes. But now that the sophomore second baseman has regained the touch, the Twins should be double tough.

Allen, plagued by a season-long hitting slump, had a batting average of only .175 going into Thursday night's game with Kansas City. He crashed two home runs and added a single, giving him seven hits in his last 12 times at bat, and helped the fourth-place Twins to a 6-3 victory over the A's.

It was the Twins' 20th triumph in their last 26 games and lifted them to within two games of first place Chicago. When their surge started, the Twins were last, 8½ games off the pace.

The White Sox, idle Thursday, took over the top spot when Baltimore came from behind in New York, beat the Yankees 5-4 and broke a five-game losing string. Boston trounced Washington 7-5 and Cleveland beat Detroit 5-3 in the only other games scheduled.

In addition to Allen, who hit .269 with 12 homers last season, Vic Power and Bob Allison were the big guns in Minnesota's 13-hit attack. Power had three singles and a double and Allison drove in two runs with a double.

Jim Perry, now 5-4, got the victory with relief help from Jim Kaat.

Brooks Robinson's two-run single in the seventh brought the Orioles from behind against the Yankees. The blow pinned the loss on reliever Bill Kunkel. Robinson made it stand up in the eighth when he threw out Joe Pepitone at the plate after making a fine play on a slow roller. Steve Barber, 10-5, won it, but needed help from Dick Hall.

Willie Kirkland's two-run homer was the difference for the streaking Indians, who won their seventh straight even though out-hit by Detroit 10-5. The Tigers Al Kaline had three hits, including his 13th homer, and took over the American League batting lead at .352.

In Contest Here Tonight

Thompson, Josey Matched In Sunday Roping Duel

Roy Chapman has scheduled another in his series of matched roping contests at the Roy Chapman Arena west of Webb AFB for 2 p.m. Sunday.

Roy Thompson of Post will be pitted against R. E. Josey. Station The two will toss lariats at eight calves.

Josey recently beat J. L. Sawyer in the arena after Sawyer had previously shaded Horace Rankin.

Admission price for the match has been pegged at 75 cents. The stands at the roping arena

Foursome Low-Ball Meet Scheduled This Weekend

Members of the Big Spring Golf Association are eligible to participate in the four-man low-ball tournament, which starts at the Munny course Saturday and continues through Sunday.

Foursomes can play 18 holes either day and become eligible for the merchandise awards to be given away. Entry fee is $2 per person.

Unlike other BSGA tournaments players can choose their own partners for this type meet. However, handicaps will be used.

This is another in a series of tournaments where BSGA members are establishing handicaps for a "grand" tournament planned by the organization later this year. In order to become eligible for the annual tournament, players must have competed in at least five of the monthly meets scheduled by the BSGA.

Members of the association will gather at the Chamber of Commerce at 7 p.m. next Thursday to discuss the annual tournament.

All members are being urged by BSGA officials to be in attendance.

Three Contests On Tap Tonight

In American Softball League play at the City Park this evening, Hester's Office Supply opposes Skateland at 6 p.m. Pioneer Natural Gas tangles with Forsan at 7:30 p.m. and the pace-setting 31st Squadron team squares off at 9 p.m. against Texas Electric.

British Politico Talks With Red

MOSCOW (AP)—Harold Wilson, leader of Britain's Labor party, has called on First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan, who has been ailing since early May with kidney trouble. They spent 90 minutes at Mikoyan's dacha near Moscow. Afterward, Wilson said Mikoyan is "obviously a lot better but not yet 100 per cent." He described the visit Thursday as a social call and said foreign affairs were not discussed. He said they talked about trade, industrial development and personal matters.

Dan Duryea Loses Count Of The Ways He's 'Died'

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Dan Duryea, during 20 years of motion picture and television villainy, has lost count of the death scenes he has played.

Dan has met the heavy's inevitable fate by shooting, stabbing, poisoning, electrocution, tumbling, burning, falling, collision and suicide.

His specialty—the kind of role that started him on his long, profitable career as a bad guy—has been the sniveling menace. But he also does very nicely as the weak smart aleck and the trigger-happy coward.

Duryea believes he reached some sort of peak during the past television season when he played a phony psychiatrist in an episode of "The 11th Hour," hypnotizing a woman patient so thoroughly that she killed him by clobbering him with a bottle while sobbing. "I love you, I love you."

Duryea has profited by his special brand of sleek menace. Thus he never complains seriously about type-casting, though he occasionally yearns to do some light comedy.

On Sunday afternoon he will appear as an unsavory character in "Major Adams," on ABC, a re-run of a "Wagon Train" episode from the days when the late Ward Bond was playing the trail master.

Recommended weekend viewing:

Sunday—"The Devil's Disciple," ABC, 8:10 P.M. (ET)—motion picture adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's play with Sir Laurence Olivier, Burt Lancaster and Kirk Douglas; "San Francisco Detective," NBC, 10-11—documentary on police work.

DEAR ABBY
It's Her Affair

DEAR ABBY: I am at my wits' end and don't know which way to turn. My 34-year-old sister has never been married and is pregnant. She lives next door to us and has no intention of leaving town. My husband says he'll divorce me and clear out rather than be classed with her and her kind, or have our children related to her illegitimate one. He says if she were a teen-ager she could be excused, but not a 34-year-old woman with a good education and a good paying position. She's been around plenty and should have known better. I don't know why she doesn't just go away some place, put the child in an orphanage and hush the whole thing up. We'd be willing to help her if she'd just leave town. She says she'll have a better chance to marry with a child to offer—that all men love children. I say she's crazy. What can we do?

DEAR WITS: You can't order a 34-year-old woman to leave town, put her child in an orphanage and hush the whole thing up. If she doesn't care what people think about HER, she certainly won't care what they think of YOU. If there is any "moving" in such a sad case, I'm afraid the move must be yours.

DEAR ABBY: Is it old-fashioned for parents to expect their daughter's fiancé to ask them if it's all right with them if he marries their daughter? Our daughter has had a ring since last January. The young man has visited in our home since that time (he lives out of the city) and so far, he has not asked US if he could marry our daughter. Our daughter says that he has asked HER, and she said yes, and we shouldn't be so formal. Do you think we are expecting too much of a fellow who thinks he is old enough to get married?

ONLY HER PARENTS
DEAR ONLY: Even though your daughter has already tipped her mitt, and there is no hand to ask for—she should tell the young man to ask you anyway.

DEAR ABBY: My boss is the pawing and pinching kind. At lunch time he races to get a seat next to me at the counter and then he starts in. He is forever putting his hands on my arm, my shoulder and even on my face! He sometimes presses his cheek against mine. I am afraid someone will see us and get the wrong impression. When some innocent remark is made, he always manages to turn it into something suggestive about sex. He never offers to pay for my lunch—he just wants a free "thrill." How can I get rid of him and keep my job? A good job is hard to find.

OFFICE WORKER
DEAR WORKER: You will never convince me that a job is THAT hard to get. Give the octopus your notice and vamoose.

JFK Asks Unions To Battle Racism

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has asked labor union officials to join the federal government in a massive attack on job discrimination.

And he got a long-distance pledge from AFL-CIO President George Meany that the unions will support him.

The President made his appeal Thursday as he conferred at length with more than 280 union representatives at the White House.

After the session, one labor leader said Kennedy made five major requests of the AFL-CIO for what he termed "this summer of determined effort."

- The points were listed this way:
1. The President asked the AFL-CIO to set up a top-level committee to work with the administration in a concerted drive on job discrimination.
 2. Kennedy asked for all-out support from the trade union movement for his legislative package of social and economic measures.
 3. He urged an all-out campaign to build up voter registrations, particularly among minority groups.
 4. He called on international unions to put more Negroes in position of responsibility. Kennedy was quoted as saying "As I look around this room, there are too many white faces, both down there and up here."
 5. He proposed that the unions take the initiative in forming biracial councils across the nation.

The meeting with the labor leaders was one of a series of presidential discussions with influential people who may be able to bring about voluntary lowering of racial barriers in both the North and South.

Kennedy met with businessmen and mayors last week. He plans to meet with religious leaders next Monday. On Tuesday he will hold a luncheon meeting with a group of governors to discuss civil rights and other federal-state problems.

The President concluded Thursday's session by bringing in former President Harry S. Truman. After a noisy ovation, a union official reported, somebody got a big laugh by shouting: "Give us hell, Harry!"

The former president's talk consisted mainly of expressing satisfaction that a Democrat is in the White House and predicting Kennedy will be re-elected.

The unionists heard, too, from Meany via a message from Geneva where he is attending an international conference.

"This is not a time for half measures," Meany said in the statement. "We can no longer expect Negro Americans to be content with a little liberty. They are entitled to full liberty, full citizenship, full standing in the community, not next year but now."

Meany promised the help of the AFL-CIO in pushing a "full, enforceable civil rights program on every front."

Publisher Weds Canadian Widow

LONDON (AP)—A source close to Lord Beaverbrook confirmed today that the 84-year-old publisher was secretly married last October to the widow of Sir James Dunn, Canadian industrialist and financier. She is 52.
