Lawyers Are Urged To Defend Liberty

DALLAS (AP)—Gov. John Connally challenged the state's lawyers Thursday to not bask in their comforting retainers but to help insure that tyrants continue to fail in the face of American freedom.

The governor led off the opening session of the 81st annual meeting of the State Bar of Texas. Some 2,500 Texas attorneys attended the meeting.

He said the cry for freedom still echoes across the far reaches of the earth.

"Travel where you will... no matter where you go, you will find always the desire for independence, for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," he said.

Frank N. Icard, former Democratic congressman from Wichita Falls, said the fact that a large portion of the nation's population lives on federal funds threatens the country's representative government.

Icard is president of the American Petroleum Institute. He defended the role Congress plays in the national government and quoted Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., as saying that more than 50 million Americans are receiving federal payments of one kind or another.

Some critics, he said, say Congress is too big and cumbersome and should give up some of its powers to the executive branch and the regulatory agencies.

"It can do so, in my opinion, only at the greatest peril," he warned.

The great reason of this nation's strength, he said, is that Congress has stubbornly refused to grant unwarranted powers to the executive and administrative agencies.

Icard said he is suspicious of "planning" when used in connection with the economy.

The public sector of the economy cannot grow at the expense of the private sector, he said.

Julian E. Freeman of Houston was elected chairman of the military law section of the State Bar. Other officers of the section named were Philip E. Hamner, San Antonio, first vice president; John C. Ford, Fort Worth, second vice president; Eugene Marlette, Fort Worth, secretary treasurer, and W. L. Storey, Dallas, a council member.

The taxation section elected Robert Jewett, Houston, chairman; Whitfield J. Collins, Fort Worth, chairman-elect; Ray Rosoff, Dallas, secretary, and three council members: Starr Pope, Corpus Christi; Vester Hughes, Dallas, and Jesse H. Oppenheimer, San Antonio.

Franco-German Leaders Fail To Find Accord

BONN, Germany (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer failed to agree today on what kind of relations the Common Market should have with Britain, West German officials reported.

The officials, emerging from a three-hour conference of top West German and French leaders, reported that the meeting resulted only in a delay of the problem.

They added that no effective agreement could be reached, either, on farm prices — another difficulty that has been holding up progress in the Common Market.

De Gaulle was scheduled to leave late this afternoon for Paris.

Adenauer was smiling as he saw De Gaulle to his car, but other ministers looked discouraged. High hopes had been set on this meeting.

NEW STUDIES Werner Schwarz, West German agriculture minister, said new studies would have to be made on measures proposed to solve farm problems.

"Anything further has to be done in Brussels," he added.

Foreign ministers and agriculture ministers of six Common Market countries are due to meet there next week.

De Gaulle and Adenauer met on this second day of the French president's visit to discuss the kind of relations the West European market should have with Britain, blocked by a French veto from entering the Common Market.

The U.S. government was keenly interested in the discussion. It wants Britain admitted to the six-nation Common Market to keep it in close Atlantic partnership with the United States.

De Gaulle prefers to keep the Common Market a closed corporation, dominated by France. He envisions a third power equal to both the United States and the Soviet Union.

TWO DAYS OF TALKS The meetings today were the windup of two days of French-West German talks, first conference under the two nations' treaty of cooperation designed to end their long enmity.

There was no indication that Adenauer and Vice Chancellor Ludwig Erhard had made any progress in reconciling De Gaulle's "third force" concept with President Kennedy's desire for a close transatlantic partnership. But there also was no indication that De Gaulle had swung Adenauer and Erhard from their espousal of Kennedy's view.

The only new agreement announced after the first day's talks was for an exchange of language-teaching officers and soldiers in small groups.

Last January De Gaulle vetoed Britain's application to join France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg in the Common Market. Ever since there has been a great debate about what to do next.

HELD OUT The French have held out against close ties of any kind between the Common Market and the British. They have refused to consider letting Britain become an associate member.

He told the conference, "We may fuss at sinners for drinking, stealing and committing adultery, but it will do no good. They do it because it is their nature. Christians will do right, because it is their nature."

Professional football player Buddy Dial of the Pittsburgh Steelers told the audience that his greatest thrill was in knowing Jesus Christ.

"We all need to get ourselves out of the way and let Christ come in," Dial said. "I can't get enthused about anything that doesn't pertain to Jesus Christ."

The evangelistic conference was characterized throughout by a world's spiritual, social and racial problems. Total attendance exceeded 10,000.

Thousands Vow To Be Soul Winners At Meeting

DALLAS (AP)—Nearly 8,000 delegates to the Southern Baptist Evangelistic Conference saw thousands vow to become what they called "better soul winners" here Thursday.

Dr. C. E. Autrey, director of the Southern Baptist Evangelistic Division, Nashville, Tenn., closed the three-day meeting with a stirring sermon.

Dr. Autrey said people may be wrong about baptism, the second coming of Christ and other doctrine, but they must not be wrong about "the new birth."

"As a sinner turns, by the help of God, from his sins, God makes him new. That is the new birth," the evangelist said.

Dr. Autrey said no amount of religious activity or church work can take the place of "this new birth."

He told the conference, "We may fuss at sinners for drinking, stealing and committing adultery, but it will do no good. They do it because it is their nature. Christians will do right, because it is their nature."

Victory Claimed Over Iraq Rebels

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—The Iraqi government claimed today a major victory over the rebel Kurds of Mullah Mustafa Barzani in northeastern Iraq, saying it forced the rebels to within 20 miles of the Iranian border.

The claim was made by Baghdad radio on the 25th day of operations against the Soviet-trained tribal leader, who seeks to establish a Kurdish state in Iraq's oil-rich northern area.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor W. Wirtz called on both sides today to make a last-ditch effort to settle the railroad work rules dispute by collective bargaining. He asked for an answer by Sunday.

If no agreement is reached to continue talks, the railroads already have said they will put controversial new work rules into effect after midnight Wednesday. Union officials have warned this would bring an immediate strike. Wirtz, in a news conference after a 30-minute meeting with the negotiators for the railroads and five operating unions, indicated that, if his proposal were rejected, the administration would seek legislation immediately.

Wirtz proposed a temporary solution for two key issues in the dispute, the question of removal of some 40,000 firemen from freight and yard trains, and the make-up of the crews of all trains aside from those riding in the car.

In both issues, he proposed acceptance of the recommendations of a presidential emergency board in May as a basis for a two-year trial.

During this two years, a new group with equal representation from unions and the railroads would study the question.

To iron out details of the temporary agreement, Wirtz called for a 30-day negotiating period beyond the Wednesday deadline, with both sides agreeing that James J. Reynolds, assistant secretary of labor, would make a binding decision on any issue not settled during the period.

CHINESE ARRIVE

Showdown Looms For Communists

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet and Red Chinese delegates opened a showdown-meeting tonight over control of the world Communist movement.

The Chinese flew into Moscow in midafternoon and were greeted by a facade of friendliness. But they were under instructions to stand firm on Peking's challenge to Premier Khrushchev's leadership of world communism.

The two delegations began their talks at a secret location. The Russians made an effort to play down the meeting. There were no Soviet newsmen or photographers at the airport and no announcement that the Chinese had arrived.

The outcome could determine the future of hundreds of millions of persons for years to come. The Kremlin conference was the most dramatic peak in communism's 1948 split between Stalin and Premier Tito of Yugoslavia.

Despite a last-minute exchange of angry charges, the Kremlin sent the head of its delegation to the airport to meet the Chinese. He is Mikhail Suslov, 60, member of the powerful party Presidium. With him was a large delegation of party officials.

The Chinese delegation was led by the Chinese Central Committee general secretary, Teng Hsiao-ping, 60.

The delegation arrived about a half hour late aboard a big Soviet TU104 jet airliner.

Also on hand were nearly 200 Chinese residents of Moscow, headed by the smiling Chinese ambassador, Pan Tzu-li.

Mounting charges and counter-charges between Moscow and Peking, apparently doomed chances of any real accord between the Communist giants.

At issue is Premier Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence with the West versus Mao Tse-tung's insistence that war and violent revolution are necessary to achieve Communist domination of the world.

Mass Motoring Shuffle Quickens Fatality Count

By The Associated Press

Auto passengers contributed to a rising highway death toll today in the nation's Independence Day weekend mass motoring shuffle as the holiday fatality count quickened.

The toll near mid-day was 182. Several crashes involved cars carrying groups, and killed several persons at a time.

The four-day holiday death toll was mounting at a pace close to that of Independence Day 1961 when a record 509 traffic fatalities were counted.

During the long weekend period which ends at midnight Sunday, many roads were thronged with cars, especially in vicinities of beaches and other recreation spots.

The death count began at 6 p.m. (local time) Wednesday.

The National Safety Council said the steadily rising toll was not keeping pace with the 1961 total in which a record 509 persons died on a corresponding four-day Fourth of July weekend.

The NSC has estimated 550-650 persons may die in traffic accidents during the weekend.

Three members of a northeastern Iowa family were killed Thursday when two cars collided at an intersection in West Union, Iowa.

The violent death toll for the long Independence Day weekend soared to 27 in Texas Friday with 13 persons dying in traffic accidents.

Drownings took eight lives. The Associated Press started the holiday death count at 6 p.m. Wednesday and planned to continue the tabulations until midnight Sunday.

Miss Cruz Herrera, 16, of El Paso fell into the Rio Grande Thursday five miles upstream from El Paso and was swept to her death. A 50-man search party hunted the body Thursday night.

Three persons were killed and another was injured when two automobiles collided head-on about 5 1/2 miles north of Beville on U.S. 181 Thursday. Killed were Mrs. Althea H. Stephens, 38; her son, Jodie Dale Stephens, 2; and Mrs. Margie Burre Sanders, 24, all of Corpus Christi.

William Marion Gerhart, 49, was shot to death at his home

Leading Clergymen Arrested Trying To Integrate Park

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, chief executive officer of the United Presbyterian Church, and other Protestant, Catholic and Jewish clergymen were arrested when they attempted to integrate an amusement park near Baltimore in a massive Independence Day demonstration.

At least 36 clergymen were among the 263 whites and Negroes arrested. The police docket in suburban Woodlawn, where the Gwynn Oak amusement park is located, read like a religious who's who.

All were charged under Maryland's trespass law which permits the owner of a business to refuse entrance to any person he wishes.

Sixty-nine demonstrators who had to be carried from the park also were charged with disorderly conduct.

To the hundreds of patrons who had flocked to the 68-acre park for a July 4th picnic complete with roller-coaster rides, ferris wheel and carnival barkers, the demonstration was just added excitement. Most ignored the integrated protestors, but a few stopped to jeer as police walked and carried them to commandeered school buses and patrol wagons.

"Take 'em all. Lock 'em up and throw away the key. It looks like a revival meeting," were among the catcalls. A few cherry bombs were tossed, but for the most part everything was orderly.

Integrationists responded by singing freedom songs and waving placards stenciled with such messages as "Freedom Now."

Hearings are scheduled tonight before the Woodlawn trial magistrate. Some of the demonstrators—perhaps all—may request postponements.

More than 200 of the nearly 400 who took part in the protest came from New York City and Philadelphia in buses.

State Patrolman's Bullet Ends Convict's Killing Spree

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP)—A state patrolman's 200-yard rifle shot from behind a hedgerow ended a killing spree by a convict whose Independence Day bid for freedom left three persons dead, one wounded and four hostages thankful they survived.

One of the hostages, plucky 14-year-old Richard Hale, emptied a pistol at the dying killer after the patrolman's bullet tore through the prisoner's chest as he attempted to dig a foxhole in a pecan field.

Melvin Allen Weaver, 23, a convicted robber from Franklin, Ohio, died holding a gun and a stick he had been using to dig the foxhole. He left behind him a trail of death and threats of death.

gun away and shot him in the abdomen. Finch died.

Weaver returned to the hospital room where Deputy Aron Creel, 40, guarded the other prisoners. He shot Creel twice in the face and head and took his gun. Creel died.

Hubert Mayo of Marianna, visiting his ailing father, heard the gunfire, stepped out of his father's room and was shot in the back of the head by Weaver. Mayo died.

The other three prisoners refused to accompany Weaver when he left the hospital.

Officers said Weaver's body contained several bullet wounds but that he was dying when the boy fired the pistol.

Deputy J. J. McCrary said at Marianna that Weaver had no prior police record. "He always was very quiet; he just sat around brooding."

Weaver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Weaver, left Franklin, Ohio, to come to Americus.

Just Visiting

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Former President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower returned Thursday night to Denver where they were married and were greeted warmly by about 50 old friends. They'll be here six days.

UNITY

Paul defined the church as the body of Christ, in Ephesians, 1:22, 23—"... And gave Him to be head over all things to the church, which is His body..."

Then, in chapter 4, verse 4, he said, "There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling."

Also in I Corinthians 12:30 he said, "But now are they many members, yet but one body."

To summarize: (1) The church is the body; (2) there is one body; (3) but one body. Therefore the Lord recognizes only one church.

Through a study of His word, you can find the identifying marks of the Lord's one church, and become a member of it. Let everyone do so, and there will be no more division.

Chicago Mayor, Negro Leader Are Hooted Down

CHICAGO (AP)—An angered Mayor Richard J. Daley and a Negro church leader were jeered from the speaker's platform at a Fourth of July rally which gathered an estimated 20,000 persons on Chicago's downtown lakefront.

Daley, boss of the Democratic party in Illinois, led a 3 1/2-mile "Freedom March" through the downtown area sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The march and rally were arranged in connection with the NAACP's national convention. The convention sessions, suspended for Independence Day, resume today.

More than 100 whites and Negroes waved anti-Daley placards as they rushed down the aisles to the platform. The placards reflected claims of segregation in Chicago schools and ghetto conditions in Negro sections of the city.

"Tokenism must go," they shouted each time the mayor attempted to speak. "Down with ghetto! Daley must go!"

The din raised by the demonstrators, a number of them heard, forced Daley to stop after he said: "We recognize your problem, and are trying to do something about it."

But flustered, red-faced and angry, the deep-voiced Daley gave up after several starts on his welcoming address and thundered into the microphone, "I recognize a contingent of the Republican party is here," then walked off.

The Negro church leader, the Rev. J. H. Jackson, also was shouted down. He is president of the National Baptist Convention which claims 5 million Negro members.

Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., was enthusiastically cheered before and after his speech, although he urged a policy of moderation and non-violence such as that practiced by the late Mohandas Gandhi in India.

Hecklers called Dr. Jackson "Uncle Tom" when he tried to speak.

Opening Round Of Rights Battle Is Peaceful Enough

EDITOR'S NOTE — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has carried the administration's civil rights bill into the first round on Capitol Hill. Here's a review of the opening skirmishes and a look at the bill's prospects.

By STANLEY MEISLER
WASHINGTON (AP)—No one has struck any bloody blows in the first round of the civil rights battle in Congress.

Two committees have made it clear they will give Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy most, but not all, he asks. He has made it clear he will accept limited changes.

There is nothing surprising in this situation. No one expected the Senate Commerce Committee and the House Judiciary Committee to lay major snags in the way of President Kennedy's civil rights proposals.

The snags will be laid later by other parliamentary groups in Congress. And the battle will get tougher and hotter with a sure filibuster by Southern Democrats.

In this opening round, most of Atty. Gen. Kennedy's testimony and the questioning of him by representatives and senators centered on Title II of the President's bill—a provision to outlaw segregation in restaurants, stores, hotels, theaters and other privately owned enterprises open to the public.

TWO ISSUES

The controversy over this provision centered on two issues:

1. Should the ban on segregation be based on the interstate commerce clause or the 14th Amendment of the Constitution?
2. Should the law set down a cutoff point for exempting public places—say, those doing a business of less than $150,000 a year?

The first indications were that these issues may be important to Republicans and Democrats like Sen. Frank Lausche of Ohio, who feel that the government should not go too far in telling businesses, especially small businesses, what to do.

First indications also showed that the attorney general, who knows the bill must have bipartisan support, was prepared to meet objections on these issues.

But it was not quite clear just exactly where either Kennedy or the committees stood on at least one of the issues—the cutoff point, if any.

And Republicans, particularly in the Senate committee, did not want the responsibility for proposing a cutoff point.

BEGAN TESTIMONY
The round opened 10 days ago when Atty. Gen. Kennedy began his testimony before the Civil Rights Subcommittee of the House Judiciary Committee.

During questioning by Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the committee, Kennedy said, "If Congress decides to do it we would be happy to work with you to set some cut-off lines."

Some committee Republicans led by Rep. John V. Lindsay of New York wanted Kennedy to base the bill only on the 14th Amendment which prohibits anyone from depriving someone of his constitutional rights because of race.

Kennedy, however, preferred to base the bill mostly on the clause that allows Congress to regulate interstate commerce.

The subcommittee is considering all parts of the civil rights proposals, including the sections on voting rights and public school desegregation suits.

Celler expects the subcommittee to finish its hearings in two weeks and recommend a bill to the full committee by Aug. 1. Celler expects the full committee to approve it by Aug. 15.

CUT-OFF POINT

Observers predict this bill will have a cutoff point for privately owned enterprises but no one seems sure just what the dollar figure will be.

After the bill leaves the Judiciary Committee it will go to the Rules Committee, which has five Southern Democrats, five Northern Democrats and five Republicans. Unless the Republicans join with the Northern Democrats, the Rules Committee, headed by Rep. Howard Smith, D-Va., would probably not send the bill to the floor of the House.

Celler said he would wait two weeks. If the Rules Committee failed to approve the bill, he said, he then would circulate a discharge petition. When 219 representatives sign such a petition, a bill automatically goes to the floor.

The Senate Commerce Committee is not holding hearings on the whole civil rights bill, just Title II. The rest of the bill is in the hands of the Senate Judiciary Committee, headed by Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., a Southern segregationist with not the slightest disposition to hurry on this matter.

Testifying before the Commerce Committee earlier this week, the attorney general said the administration had considered and then given up the idea of putting a $150,000 cut-off in the bill.

Kennedy said Title II is not intended to apply to tiny places where customers have a social relationship. He gave as example a rooming house with two, perhaps three boarders.

OTHER EXEMPTIONS

He listed other exemptions as bowling alleys, pool halls, most laundries and dry cleaners, physicians, lawyers, and barber shops that don't serve too many interstate travelers.

But, on the question of a cut-off, Kennedy warned the committee to write provisions that would "sharpen definitions, rather than to create loopholes or water down the bill."

Observers believe the committee is not fully satisfied with the bill but wants to put some cutoff into it. Members want to exempt small places but because the issue is a moral one, don't know how. One prevailing question: "How can you say, 'Some people can discriminate and some people can't?'"

ZIP Numbers Showing Up

Big Spring's new Zip Code numbers are beginning to make their appearance on mail handled in the local post office. E. C. Boatler, postmaster, said. The new numbers became effective July 1.

He said that letters with the local numbers included in the address and as a part of the return address, are beginning to be noted. Letters from out-of-town are also displaying the numbers.

The code system is designed to expedite handling mail. There are two numbers for Big Spring—one for box mail and another for carrier delivered letters. The carrier number is 79720. The box number is 79721.

The Post Office Department explained the system by saying that the first digit of the number indicates the geographic location. The second and third digits plus the first indicate the major city or sectional center of the district. The fourth and fifth digits identify the post office.

Housing Loan To San Angelo

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Community Facilities Administration has loaned $1,875,000 to finance construction of a 10-story apartment building at San Angelo, Tex.

The project, designed for the elderly, is to be known as Rio Concho Manor.

The Urban Renewal Administration also reported that it has approved a grant of $20,120 to aid Diboll, Hemphill and Fineland in Texas in their planning programs. The grant will be administered by the Texas State Department of Health.

ADEN (AP)—Sixteen British servicemen returned safe and well to Aden after 12 days captivity in Yemen.

They were among 43 British service personnel ambushed by Yemeni tribesmen June 22 when they strayed into Yemen during a training exercise. Nineteen soldiers got back across the border the next day, four were killed in the ambush, and four servicemen were released June 24.

A Devotional For The Day

Ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. (Galatians 5:13.)
PRAYER: Our Father, whose love has come nigh to all mankind in the person of Thy Son, forgive us for failing to follow our Savior as we should. Help us to repent of our sins and to find true liberty through faith in Him. These things we ask in His name. Amen.

Preserving Historic Shrine

Fort Davis, one of the most significant and picturesque of the frontier Western military posts, has been designated by Secretary of the Interior Udall as the 18th National Historic Site to be put under the administration of the National Park Service. It certainly deserves such ranking with Fort Laramie, Wyo., and Fort Raleigh, N. C., as posts of lasting national interest.

As secretary of war, Jefferson Davis, later president of the Confederacy, in 1854 ordered establishment of a fort in the Davis Mountains area to protect the "water route" across the arid Southwest from the Texas Gulf Coast to the California gold fields. Taken over by Confederate troops during the Civil War, Fort Davis was the pivot of warfare with the Indians—the Comanches and Apaches—from its creation to 1880, and was actively manned until 1891. It was a crossroads for wagon trains to and from Mexico and from the Gulf Coast to California. It had an impressive role in the winning of the West.

Oddities Of Politics

Politics is as infinite in its variety as the permutations and combinations of one chess that one eight-armed octopus can give another eight-armed octopus. Witness, for instance, the cat-among-the-pigeons act being performed by Republicans as they survey the apparently ebbing political fortunes of Nelson Rockefeller.

most eager candidates in the land are those who protest daily that they are not candidates. Abhorring a vacuum even as nature, Republican leaders feel impelled to take steps to fill any vacuum that may be created if the leading contender for the nomination, Rockefeller, must finally be eliminated from consideration. Therefore, they are reported to have passed over George Romney and selected William Scranton as their candidate to stop Goldwater. Recently the pros have conceded that the current odds favor Sen. Goldwater's nomination.

Some Credits For JFK's Trip

ROME—As the President's tour ends some of the consequences can be appraised. While they are not all on the credit side of the ledger the balance is, on the whole, favorable.

First the German visit, which was the essential part of the exercise, established beyond doubt that the President had to live up to the commitment he made months before. To have cancelled the tour would have had a serious and perhaps even disastrous result in weakening the outward evidence of America's partnership with Europe.

AT ALMOST the same time the German Foreign Minister, Gerhard Schroeder, one of the new men in Germany who had been a serious contender for the chancellorship, said precisely the opposite. He seemed to be reflecting Kennedy's words when he told an audience in Dusseldorf that it was not enough merely to reassert the partnership with America—deeds demonstrating this partnership must go along with words.

MUCH OF THE REPORTING has pitted Kennedy against de Gaulle in prize-fight terms—the Frenchman's up, the American's down, third round coming up. Perhaps this was inevitable given the nature of headline news. But officials traveling with the President and the President himself in his press conference in Bonn have insisted that they were engaged not in rebutting de Gaulle but in supporting the majority view in Europe—the view of five of the six members of the European Common Market—that partnership with the United States is essential to the security and well-being of the West.

BUT IN ITS frankness and often unsparring honesty it may prepare the way for an understanding that could in turn lead to tangible achievements in line with the American University doctrine. While it is still in the realm of speculation knowledgeable associates of the President are discussing a meeting with Khrushchev before the end of the year. The sequence would be a moratorium on testing arrived at in the mid-July meeting in Moscow, renewed negotiation on a test-ban agreement at a lower level and then, with the ground rules carefully laid down, a meeting of the principals.

Third And Hottest Summer

WASHINGTON (AP)—This will be President Kennedy's third and hottest summer in the White House.

Five things come to mind:
1. He has talks, through his representatives, coming up in 10 days with the British and Russians in Moscow on a nuclear test ban.
2. He still has to get his program through a tardy Congress.
3. He still has to get his civil rights program through.
4. Negroes are planning a massive Washington demonstration to convince Congress they want the civil rights program.
5. He has to do everything else that goes with his job and probably some unexpected things.

It until Negroes around the country showed by their demands for equality that they wanted action. He had done little to antagonize the Southern Democrats whose help he needs for his general program in Congress and whose votes he may need when he tries for re-election in 1964.

But Negroes and Southern Democrats will both be watching how much he fights for civil rights.

He'll be adroit, indeed, if he comes out of this fight without antagonizing one side or the other.

But just about the time the fight in Congress is supposed to be reaching a peak on civil rights—at the end of August—Negroes plan their great demonstration.

Just No Work At All

NEW YORK (AP)—Few people get much work done the day before a holiday. But on the day after a holiday practically no work at all is done in the average business office.

It is just a long eight-hour coffee break as the suburban, mosquito-bitten survivors gather around and tell each other tall stories of what happened to them. You wouldn't think it possible so many strange things could happen to so small a group of people on a single holiday in a civilized country.

"I was just lying there reading a book by Franz Kafka," says the homely young secretary, "when I saw this fellow struggling in the surf. So I swam out and pulled him ashore, and when I bent down to give him mouth-to-mouth resuscitation he reached up, took my hand, and asked me for a date every night next week. And guess what—he's the son of a wealthy lawyer."

The lazy office boy limps in with a bandaged ankle, and explains: "Twisted it sliding into home plate with the winning run."

HE HAS TO fight for it although he showed no signs of suggesting it until Negroes around the country showed by their demands for equality that they wanted action.

He had done little to antagonize the Southern Democrats whose help he needs for his general program in Congress and whose votes he may need when he tries for re-election in 1964.

But Negroes and Southern Democrats will both be watching how much he fights for civil rights.

Several Tests Can Determine Cancer

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: Before removal of an obstruction in the intestine, is there any definite test to ascertain malignancy?

I have heard that cancer cells can be invisible, but that various tests can be employed in detection. Are these tests always perfect?

After removal of the obstruction, can a test show definitely whether the cancer has spread?—C.B.

Such an obstruction can be tested for cancer in advance of surgery only if there is some way to get a biopsy, a small sample of the tissue. This can be done if the obstruction is so located as to be accessible with instruments—in the lower colon, for example. Or, in some cases, a smear of bowel secretions may be subjected to the Papanicolaou test which has been so effective in detecting early cancer of the cervix.

In any event, however, the obstruction would have to be removed, and examination of it for cancer would be automatic.

We can't say that cancer cells are "invisible." True, we can't see them with the naked eye (although the growth itself, either a "sore" or a tumor, may be visible enough and by its appearance give a persuasive indication of whether it is malignant).

The definite test is examination under a microscope, the sample first being stained with a dye to make the cells readily visible.

Sometimes a specimen, because it is suspicious, may have to be re-examined, and samples from adjacent tissues also studied. For all practical purposes, however, we can say that such microscopic examination will give a definite answer.

It is quite another matter, however, to say, after an operation, that cancer has not spread. That is why, instead of using the word "cured" right away, we talk in terms of "five year survival." If there is no sign of the disease that long afterward, we can feel pretty certain.

At the time of surgery all possible precautions are taken. Adjacent tissue is examined. The liver if possible will be examined for the presence of nodules. One of the lymph glands very often is removed for microscopic examination—if malignant cells have reached it, the cancer has already begun to spread. If not, the outlook is enormously brighter.

Various blood tests have been devised, enzyme determinations, sedimentation rate and so on, but they can give only approximations. They are not definite by any means.

Therefore we have the one reliable method: Microscopic. It shows whether the tissue being examined is malignant. It will not reveal whether some other area is affected. That is why, in a suspected area, we often take several biopsies arranged in a ring, to give an indication of a greater expanse.

Dear Dr. Molner: I may be old-fashioned, but I don't think fried eggs, fried potatoes, etc., are good for little children ages one and two. And what is your opinion of giving them raw bacon?

—Mrs. G.M.

Raw Bacon? Absolutely NOT. Even though it is smoked, it has not been cooked enough to destroy trichinella, if any are present—and trichinosis is a vicious disease.

I don't favor encouraging children from babyhood to get into the fried food habit, but such eggs, while perhaps unusual, wouldn't hurt a child a year or two old.

"You Can Stop Sinus Trouble!" is the title of my booklet explaining what sinus trouble really is, and encouraging sinus sufferers to do something about it. For a copy write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover handling.

Dr. Molner is happy to receive readers' questions, and whenever possible uses them in his column. However, due to the great volume of mail received daily, Dr. Molner regrets he cannot answer letters individually.

Around The Rim

At Gettysburg

What with the Gettysburg Centennial celebrations just over and everyone trying to find a role to play, I suppose it's time for me to do my bit.

I draw from the family records—letters and other memorabilia—which my father had to pass onto me verbally, since our connection to the family tree has been through women and younger brothers, neither of which inherit much of value. (Particularly land.)

WHAT I OFFER is a description of Lee at Gettysburg, and you must make allowances for various discrepancies between me, my father, his father, and my great-grandfather, who was present at the battle.

The reason he was there was that he had married one of Lee's 50-odd first cousins, and therefore rated a position as captain on Cousin Robert's staff. Although he had occasion to dodge a few bullets, he never led a charge in his life.

As were we when Pickett and his men charged, almost childishly so. He turned about, remarking the pride with which the men bore themselves, and their ranks were straight. I caught his eye once, and he smiled quickly, turning attention back to the battle.

"THE ARTILLERY was terrible, and Cousin Robert was made calm. Soon, we all were in a more sober mood, because the cannonfire was slaughtering our men. Still, we stood erect and proud at seeing how they kept bravely going, particularly as Cousin Robert hid his grief behind his composure."

"When they straggled back into our lines, Cousin Robert stamped a little, and dropped his head. He turned about, and I could see full into his face, and there I saw a tear or two, which he quickly wiped away. He straightened, and went to the business at hand, although his composure was not again quite as before. His compassion was too strong."

SO MUCH FOR Gettysburg, and Great-Grandfather Smith's account. I have seen similar descriptions in various history books, but these all agreed that there were no fears, and that Lee's loss of composure came when Pickett returned to headquarters following the disaster.

I don't know, myself—I wasn't there.—BOB SMITH

The Trials Of A Papal Audience

VATICAN CITY—A Papal audience is a splendid occasion and an impressive event to file in one's memory.

But there is more to it, a great deal more, than meets the eye. In the first place, there are those 209 marble steps, a veritable Everest of marble, that the invited must climb to reach the second floor of the Vatican apartments where the Pontiff receives. Those steps would challenge a Sherpa even of Tensing's abilities. And there are no boosters in the way of oxygen tanks en route.

OH, YES, there are elevators in the Vatican. But they are reserved for heads of state, which means President Kennedy, distinguished guests, members of the College of Cardinals, eminent clerics and the old and the infirm.

Alas, I fitted into none of these categories, although on the 209th step I would have successfully qualified for the last two. So it was shanks' mare for me and other newsmen who attended Pope Paul's first audience for the press the day before his coronation and three days before President Kennedy's arrival.

newsmen. Some obviously didn't even own pencils.

LET THIS BE said quickly: Individuality, Italians are among the most delightful of men. In a crowd they are murder. Their contempt for persons who queue up patiently or take their orderly place in line is withering.

The Italian, no matter how late he arrives for a conference, is always first at the barrier. He is an expert in pushing, shoving, kicking, coughing, kneeling and, when it serves his purpose, at the rabbit punch. The wise make way for him. Those who are inclined to stand their ground end up as the walking wounded.

THE MOTTO of the Vatican, like that of the U. S. Army, is "hurry up and wait." After surmounting the marble slopes, the press was asked to wait in a vast corridor outside the Clementine Hall, where His Holiness received us.

What followed, as the Italian began commando tactics to be first at the door of the hall, was a pitched battle. One could easily identify the foreign correspondents by the amazed apprehension and the egg on their respective faces.

ALL MY LIFE I had believed that an audience with the Pope would be a triumph of dignity and stately behavior. I could not believe that a Donnybrook would precede it. But it did.

When the door to the Clementine Hall was opened, there was a rush through it like the 5 p.m. subway assault on the Brooklyn local. It took plain clothes men and other guards to clear the aisle and force people to sit down before the entry of the Pope.

By the time the Supreme Pontiff arrived, order reigned. The audience itself was an experience to be treasured. But what went before was inexcusable.

APPALLING AS IS the mountain of marble, it does not begin to compare, however, with the other hazard which—to put it bluntly—is the Italian temperament. That latter includes the Latin's touching family loyalty. To any news event which he thinks might interest his family, from grandparents to bambino, the Italian newsmen brings them all. His credo is get-them.

However, this situation is apt to make for overcrowding. I have discovered in recent days. A good, rough estimate would conclude that not one out of five of the 900 "members of the press" who attended this Papal audience were bona fide

New Relations With The Vatican?

WASHINGTON—There must be a "wall of separation" between church and state, says the Supreme Court of the United States. In public schools supported by government money, even a brief prayer is not permitted by the court.

Now some new questions are being asked here: Did President Kennedy, wisely or unwisely, ignore the separation doctrine when he presented, as a gift to Pope Paul VI, a gift desk box on the lid of which are engraved not only the papal seal but the seal of the President of the United States, which is usually reserved for imprint on official communications? Was this symbolic, rather than indicative of a formal relationship such as might occur naturally between heads of state?

DIPLOMATIC NICETIES were brushed aside also when the Pope himself, in the presence of the President last week, made an address in which he said in part:

"We are ever mindful in our prayers of the efforts to ensure to all our citizens the equal benefits of citizenship which have as their foundation the equality of all men because of their dignity as persons and children of God."

specials served uninterruptedly in the United States from 1826 to 1893. Regular diplomatic relations were initiated in 1848, with the establishment of an American legation at the Vatican. This mission continued until 1867, when Congress refused to appropriate further funds.

PRESIDENT Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1939 sent the late Myron C. Taylor to the Vatican as his personal representative during World War II. Mr. Taylor continued the same capacity under the Truman administration until 1950—President Truman in 1951 submitted to the Senate the name of Gen. Mark W. Clark to be American ambassador to the Vatican. It was a formal move to establish full diplomatic relations. Strong opposition to the idea developed, and General Clark requested that his name be withdrawn from nomination. No other nominee was submitted for approval by the Senate, and the whole plan was dropped.

SO THERE IS at least a precedent for proposing diplomatic relations with the Vatican. Talk of it often arises largely because of the desire to achieve a liaison status with a most influential "instrumentality in the world of diplomacy."

Billy Graham

People who go to worship seem satisfied, but I come away feeling that I didn't get as much as I should. Can you tell me how to worship?

F. N.

I'm afraid you may have the wrong conception of what worship is. I have heard people say: "I just didn't get anything out of the service," and similar remarks. It is easy to forget that worship is giving, not getting. All week God has been giving to us, and on the Lord's Day, we give Him our adoration and gratitude. I think the best way to worship is just to be grateful, and this is pleasing to God.

In these prosperous days we are inclined to think of everything in terms of "What is there in it for me?" But it is wrong to carry our secular selfishness into the temple of God, and to think only of what "we get" out of worship.

Give God your love, your gratitude. Meditate on His goodness; count your blessings. And although selfish satisfaction is not your goal, I'm sure there will be a certain satisfaction in just knowing you have been in the Presence of God.

THIS COMMENT on what some might call a problem of "internal politics"—the racial controversy in the United States—illustrates the tendency nowadays to ignore the rigid lines of formality with respect to matters within a country which are deemed to have a distinctly moral aspect when viewed from the outside. This has always been the traditional Vatican attitude, though lately, out of a kind of new deference perhaps to the power of the Soviet Union in the world, there has been less outright condemnation of communism and of the persecution of Christians that was so unequivocally expressed in previous years.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY's conference with Pope Paul last week comes at a critical time in world affairs when the moral forces of mankind are being mobilized to help influence the Russian people to develop a government which will join the free nations in removing the fear of nuclear war.

Mr. Kennedy happens to be the first Roman Catholic to be elected President of the United States, and it is doubtful whether he would wish to revive the question of diplomatic recognition of the Vatican by the American government because of the impact of such a proposal on domestic politics. It is perhaps not generally realized that the United States had consular representatives at the Vatican from 1797 to 1848, while papal consular offi-

1,200 Cuban Exiles Arrive

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Independence Day found nearly 1,200 newly arrived Cuban exiles getting used to the feel of freedom. The Red Cross crammed them aboard a vessel which may be the last to bring out Cubans who want to leave Fidel Castro's domain.

As the SS Maximus tied up Wednesday at Port Everglades, 20 miles north of Miami, its passengers chanted "ferry, ferry" — a plea for establishment of a shuttle service for friends and relatives eager to follow them to this country.

The freighter brought in the record load of refugees on its return from delivering the last installment of $53 million in food and medicine at Havana. That was Castro's price for liberating last December more than 1,100 men he captured in the Cuba invasion of 1961.

Not all the Maximus passengers were Cubans. Miss Ruby Miller, 50, of Ottawa, Kan., and Miss Lucille Kerrigan, 47, of Kansas City, Kan., said they were expelled by Castro after 18 years in Cuba as Baptist missionaries. Traveling with them was Miss Kerrigan's adopted daughter Susie, a 15-year-old Cuban.

'War Chest' For Teachers

DETROIT (AP) — A "war chest" fund for Utah teachers who are boycotting the public schools there had a $5,000 kickoff today with predictions it would pass the $1 million mark.

Classroom teachers from across the country, attending the annual convention of the National Education Association, chipped in with $1, $5 and $10 bills in support of the Utah teachers who may be without jobs when school opens this fall.

The Utah teachers have said they will not return to the classroom until their demands for more state aid to education are met. Gov. George D. Clyde of Utah has refused to call a special session of the Utah Legislature and the teacher-state government dispute is in a complete deadlock. The emergency fund is being raised by the 800,000 members of the department of classroom teachers, the largest and most influential group within the National Education Association. It was started at the department's annual banquet Thursday night.

Reporter Defends Press Freedom

LONDON (AP) — Reporter Brendan Mulholland walked to freedom today after four months in jail for refusing to break the newsman's unwritten code — never divulge secret news sources. The columnist for the London Daily Mail was cheered by crowds of fellow newsmen as he stepped through the gates of a prison in Sussex.

Mulholland originally had been sentenced to six months in jail for refusing to say who told him that William John Vassall was a known homosexual and spy. Vassall, an admiralty clerk, was convicted of spying for Russia.

Farmer Injures Hand In Mower

J. R. Farmer, 114 Cedar Road, will probably be dismissed from the Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital this weekend. He has been in the hospital since Tuesday night, as result of serious injuries to his left hand caused when he inadvertently caught it in the blade of a power lawnmower. Surgeons were able to repair the damage, according to attendants, and the hand will be saved. Most of the damage was to the thumb and forefinger.

Coast Guard Quietly Draws Up Its Nets

NEW YORK (AP) — The U.S. Coast Guard is quietly stepping up defenses against America's coastline against any smuggling of spies, saboteurs and weapons into this country, the New York Journal-American said today.

A Washington dispatch by Ed Eastrom of the Hearst Headline Service said: "Without fanfare, the Coast Guard has sent out 'Operations Instructions 30-63.' It is addressed to a host of federal and state agencies and sounds an alert against 'clandestine entry of saboteurs and espionage agents and the smuggling of weapons and devices for sabotage, including nuclear or other mass destruction weapons, into the United States from the sea.'"

The newspaper said the order sprang from a sweeping survey order by Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, under whom the Coast Guard operates in peacetime.

Among other things, instruction 30-63 directs attention to a little-known law that offers a reward up to $50,000 to any citizen who helps catch anyone trying to smuggle in or build an atomic weapon.

The Atomic Weapons Rewards Act, passed at the request of the Justice Department, also gives U.S. sanctuary to any alien revealing such an effort.

White Man's Slayer Sought

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — A Dallas man was shot and killed Thursday night by a rifle-wielding Negro he had surprised hiding in bushes near the home of the white man's father-in-law.

Killed by a rifle bullet wound in the head was James Henry Wallace, 30, of Dallas. Police said Wallace was visiting relatives in Texarkana over the Independence Day holiday.

Police related this story: Wallace and his father-in-law, Henry Hooks, drove up to Hooks' driveway and was met by a machine salesman who told them that two Negroes were hiding in bushes nearby. The Dallas man shined his automobile headlights into the bushes and two Negro men, one firing a rifle, jumped out, ran to a car and sped away.

Wallace and Hooks gave chase, but at an intersection the two Negroes had stopped. One stepped out of his automobile and fired again at Wallace, this time striking him in the head. He died two hours after the 10:30 p.m. shooting.

Police Chief Max Tackett said today his entire force was searching for the two Negroes.

Births Down, Data Indicate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Births decreased, but deaths, marriages and divorces increased during April, 1963, compared with April, 1962, in reporting areas, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare said today.

There were an estimated 322,000 registered live births in April, the smallest number for this month since 1956. The total was about 6,000 less than for April, 1962.

The death rate for April, 1963, was 9.8 per 1,000 population, higher than for April of any year since 1952. Although the influenza epidemic was subsiding elsewhere it reached the West Coast in March and contributed to the relatively high level of mortality.

April deaths totaled 151,000, compared to 147,000 in April, 1962. During April of this year an estimated 119,000 marriages were reported, 6.3 per cent more than during the same month of 1962. In April, the number of divorces reported was 24,155, an increase of 9.2 per cent over April, 1962.

Guard To Stay In Cambridge

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — National Guard troops will not be pulled out of Cambridge, Md., until next Monday, an aide to Gov. J. Millard Tawes said today.

Odell M. Smith, assistant to the governor, said Tawes "decided to extend the period until next Monday" after talks with Gen. Milton Reckord, Gen. George M. Gelston and Col. Carey Jarman, commander of state police.

Senate Sets A Short Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate set a record today by meeting for just three seconds solely to record an adjournment to Tuesday noon.

It was a token session arranged to get through the post Fourth of July holiday and weekend and still comply with the rule forbidding a recess of more than three days, not counting Sundays, unless the Senate gets formal permission of the House.

Rights Battle Disrupts Solons' Plans For Home

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's call for civil rights legislation has disrupted plans of Texas members of Congress to spend a lot of time in their districts this autumn and fall.

"This session will probably go to noon, Jan. 3, 1964," Democratic Rep. Wright Patman, dean of the Texas delegation, said. The date is the scheduled start of the second session of the current 86th Congress.

Rep. W. R. (Bob) Poore, D-Waco, a 26-year veteran in the House, agreed. "I'd say we are likely to be here a long while yet," he said, "and I'd say we aren't likely to get much done for a good while either. Then, of course, there's always a chance this civil rights issue might blow over much quicker than expected."

Rep. Clark Fisher, D-San Angelo, commented: "We'll probably be here 'til the snow flies." The prospects of a continuous session at least through the school vacation period has fouled the plans of some of the members with children who had hoped to get home with their families.

Rep. Bob Casey, D-Houston, father of 10, has rented a summer cottage on the shores of the Potomac where it empties into Chesapeake Bay. He visits the cottage on weekends.

Rep. Henry Gonzalez, D-San Antonio, who has eight children, has had three with him this month: Rosemary, 20; Stephen, 13; and Francis, 9.

Since his 1961 election, Gonzalez has lived in an apartment near the Capitol while his wife remains with the family in San Antonio. He frequently returns to San Antonio, and Mrs. Gonzalez with some or all of the children occasionally visit Washington.

The West Texas community of Harper which celebrated its centennial this month staged a parade that included a survey with a fringe on top. Part of the survey came from near Harpers Ferry, W.Va.

Rep. Clark Fisher, D-San Angelo, who likes to ride around the countryside, spotted a one-seater buggy for sale last fall in the Virginia community of Hillsboro. He bought it and then looked for some means of getting it to his ranch at Junction.

Later, driving to Texas, Fisher spotted an old surrey for sale at a little country town in Arkansas. He bought it when the owner agreed to truck it to Junction. Fisher then arranged for someone in Hillsboro to ship down a tongue and harness from the first surrey to repair the second.

Fisher's grand niece, Sue Lewis of Junction, and three friends drove the handsome, repainted and refurbished surrey in the Harpers centennial parade.

A pretty black buggy with yellow wheels is displayed in front of a house in Hillsboro, at the foot of Virginia's Blue Ridge mountains. Offers to buy it are frequently made but it's already owned by Fisher.

One of these days, a truck which brings white-faced Herefords up from Texas to be fattened for market — and there's quite a bit of such livestock operations in northern Virginia — will transport the buggy back to the Fisher ranch at Junction.

Woman Got Her Start By 'Reading' Medicine

GALVESTON (AP) — It was almost like the old days when doctors learned medicine by what they called "reading" under a doctor's supervision.

At least that is the way Mrs. David Blacklock started on her way to medicine. She was one of the candidates for medical degrees at the recent Texas Medical School graduation.

Her husband, a doctor, suffered injuries in 1956. Among other things, his eyes were impaired. During the physician's long months of recuperation at home during a part-time practice, Mrs. Blacklock read books on radiology to him.

A petite, blue-eyed blonde, Mrs. Blacklock received a bachelor's degree in music from Baylor University.

"The more I helped him and the more I read to him, the more fascinating the subject of medicine became, but it was my husband who first suggested I return to school and study medicine and it was he who gave me the most encouragement," she said.

Her first step was two years of pre-med study at the University of Houston.

"I commuted every day, putting 22,000 miles on the family's car." In the fall of 1959, she enrolled at the Galveston medical school.

"It hasn't been easy, but I'll never get tired of learning and with my family's help and encouragement I've come through," she said.

"I plan to intern at the medical center and then all I want to do is supplement him (Dr. Blacklock) and be with my family."

Church - State Settlement Is Seen On Polish Prelate

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP) — This Communist country's chief authority on church-state relations says he is confident a settlement will be reached regarding Archbishop Josef Beran, the confined spiritual head of the Roman Catholic Church in this country.

Health Minister Josef Plojhar says the Prague government is ready to contribute to such a settlement and to the solution of related questions, "if the Vatican takes the right initiative, as already begun under Pope John XXIII."

He did not spell out what form settlement might take, or the nature of the "related" questions. In an interview, Plojhar for the first time disclosed details about the living conditions of the archbishop, now 74, who was removed from his office and banished from Prague by the Communist government more than 12 years ago.

Beran is at Nova Rysa monastery in southern Moravia and is not allowed to leave. Plojhar said the archbishop is in good health and working on a book on the life of Agnes, a beatified Bohemian woman of royal blood who founded the first nunnery in Prague.

Former Residents Injured In Car Wreck At Dallas

Mr. and Mrs. Bill (Billy) Bob Watson, Midland and formerly of Big Spring, were reported in an improved condition today in St. Paul Hospital in Dallas.

The Watsons were injured in a two-car crash Wednesday that took the lives of two men in Dallas. He was described in fair condition, suffering from spine and scalp injuries. Mrs. Watson was in good condition. She suffered facial lacerations.

They had gone to Dallas to do some Christmas buying at the Trade Mart for their store in Midland. They phoned Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carter, Richardson, whom they had known in Midland, and the Carters decided it would be easier to drive to the Watsons' motel than to lay out directions for them to find the Carter house.

The two couples decided to go out for dinner, but on the way they wanted to go by Richardson to inspect the Carter nursery. Thunder 33, drove their new Thunderbird east toward Garland on Arapaho Road. Bobby Killebrew, 31-year-old filling station worker, was driving north on the Plano Road. The Plano road has the right of way, but one of the signs on the Arapaho road was gone, and Watson had no warning of the dangerous intersection.

The Chrysler smashed into the right rear wheel area of the Thunderbird. Carter, 35, a CPA and father of six children, was killed instantly and so was Killebrew. Mrs. Carter is in serious condition at Baylor Hospital.

Billy Bob Watson, the son of the late Charlie Watson and Mrs. Judy Watson, was reared here. Mrs. Watson is the former Candace Dickinson, who went through high school here. She is a niece of the Rev. and Mrs. Jordan Grooms.

Dull Trading For Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Oils resumed a dominant position as the stock market moved slightly higher in dull, post-holiday trading early this afternoon.

With many Wall Streeters away on a four-day weekend, there was little excitement. Gains of most stocks were fractional. Many leading issues were unchanged and quite a number took slight losses.

Some of the oils advanced a point or better. Big Three motors were all higher. Rails moved uncertainly in view of the chance of a nationwide railway strike next Thursday. Steels were unchanged to a shade lower.

Selective demand in various issues of the important stock groups kept market averages a bit on the upside. As usual, movements among the higher-priced and more volatile stocks were wider. Some posted gains of 2 or 3 points.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 4, to 273.2 with industrials up 9, rails off 3, and utilities up 3. As the oils advanced, gains of a point or close to it were scored by Texaco, Getty, Sinclair, and General American.

Gains for Ford, General Motors, and Chrysler were fractional. Gains of around 3 were made by Xerox and IBM. Polaroid gained more than 2. Control Data over a point.

Moderate losses were taken by U.S. Steel, Kennecott, Southern Railway, Sears, Roebuck and Montgomery Ward.

Payment Ends Fight

DALLAS (AP) — A $250,000 payment to 42 members of the United Steelworkers of America will go out in checks today, ending a court struggle that began six years ago with a strike at the Daingerfield, Tex., plant of Lone Star Steel Co.

Oscar Mauzy, Dallas attorney who represented the union, said the money will be divided on a percentage basis among the employees.

He said the highest payment will be $11,000 with the average about $8,000. The settlement this week closed the dispute which began in 1957 with the strike. The company replaced the strikers with new employees and later refused to hire back the 42 former employees.

The conflict was turned over to an arbitrator who ruled that Lone Star should rehire the workers, in addition to paying back wages.

Chancellor Wins Fiddlers Title

HALE CENTER, Tex. (AP) — James Chancellor of Dallas fiddled his way to first place Thursday in the 7th annual all-American country fiddlers contest.

Chancellor, 20, previously won the world's championship contest at Crockett three times. He won here in a run-off with Vernon Solomon of Rhomb. Eck Robertson, 75, of Amarillo took first place in the old-timers' contest. Chancellor has appeared periodically in Big Spring and has many friends here.

Dodgers Widen Gap In Nat'l

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Stop the music! The Los Angeles Dodgers just pulled the rug out from under that game of musical chairs the contenders have been playing in the National League.

The band stopped playing Thursday night when rookie Ken McMullen cracked a grand slam homer that powered the first-place Dodgers to a 10-7 victory over second-place St. Louis and ballooned their bulge to 2½ games over the Cardinals.

Now, riding a sweep of the three-game series with St. Louis, a four-game winning streak and momentum that has catapulted them from 2½ games behind to 2½ in front, the Dodgers have added strong odds to their line-up in the struggle for the NL pennant.

The team leading the pack on July 4 has gone on to win the pennant 39 of 62 times. However, as the Dodgers know, they led at this point last year. San Francisco played in the World Series.

The Chicago Cubs took over third place three games back by beating the New York Mets 2-1 and 3-0 behind Glen Hobbie's two-hitter and Paul Toth's three-hitter. Milwaukee dropped defending champion San Francisco into fourth place by belting the Giants 6-3.

Houston shoved Cincinnati into fifth place with 5-2 and 6-2 victories over the Reds. Philadelphia swept a pair from Pittsburgh, 4-0 in 10 innings on Art Mahafey's two-hitter and 5-1.

The Cardinals led 4-2 going into the sixth inning behind Ernie Broglio, 9-4, when McMullen, 21, supplied the fireworks. Before the inning was over, eight runs had poured in and the Cardinals, who came into Los Angeles with a one-half game lead, left with a five-game losing streak. Jim Gilliam shared hitting honors with McMullen, driving in four runs with a single and double as Ed Roebuck picked up the victory in relief.

The Cubs won the opener in the ninth against Roger Craig, 2-13, as Ernie Banks reached second on an error, took third on a wild pitch and scored on a wild throw by catcher Norm Sherry. Craig has lost 11 straight. The Cubs scored all their second game runs in the first inning on a two-run homer by Billy Williams and Ron Santo's solo shot.

The win was the 14th for the Bengals in 20 assignments.

San Antonio Duo Lead At Odessa

ODESSA (AP) — Hardy Loudermilk and Johnny Thornton of San Antonio led the way into the second round of the $15,000 Odessa Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament today but their advantage was a narrow one.

Loudermilk, the pro of the duo, eagled the 17th hole with a 10-foot putt to furnish the margin as the San Antonio players registered a 7-under-par 65 in the opening round Thursday.

The Big Spring team of Bobby Wright and Wendy Green had a first round score of 71 in the Odessa Pro-Am while the tandem of Jerry Green, Big Spring, and Jerry Scott, Austin, settled for a 75.

Eddie Don Harris Is New Club Champion

By PAT WASHBURN

Eddie Don Harris, a comparative newcomer to the club, won the 1963 Big Spring Country Club Golf championship by defeating Jack Cook, 2 and 1, in the 18-hole final staged Thursday afternoon.

Cook's game came apart at the seams on the last nine holes. Harris had his troubles, too, but he came up with the big shots when he needed them. He was two up at the turn.

Five putts rimmed the cup for Cook on the back side, then rolled away. He missed a three-footer on the 16th.

On 17 Cook needed a 40-foot chip shot to keep from losing. In a go-for-broke try he again rimmed the cup but it wouldn't

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Bob Stephenson, Stanton's splendid quarter miler who finished fourth in that event in the State meet, is headed for Texas Western College in El Paso.

Stephenson was offered scholarships from both Baylor and SMU, as well as Howard County JC. Bob played football and basketball at Stanton but will concentrate on track at the El Paso school.

Big Spring's Gary Walker, HCJC's star discus thrower, has accepted a full scholarship from Northeastern Louisiana College, where the former Abilene mentor, Bob Groselose, is coach.

Walker could have gone to the University of Houston on a full scholarship but coach Johnny Morriss of Houston didn't come through with a concrete offer until after Gary had committed himself to Northeastern.

Gary wanted to attend a school with a strong course in Engineering. He'll probably major in Math and Physics at Northeastern.

Richard Green, the Dallas sprinter (9.5 in the hundred) who had visited the local college and indicated a great deal of interest, has informed coach L. L. (Red) Lewis of HCJC he will enroll at Texas Southern University instead.

The Negro youth said the decision was a hard one to make but he thought he'd be better off in the all-Negro school.

Incidentally, Lewis will probably make a quarter miler out of Johnny Hairte, the Southland youth who specialized in the sprints in high school.

Steve Brooks of Dallas Thomas Jefferson has agreed to come to school here for tuition, books and fees—Lewis wasn't in a position to offer him a full scholarship.

The youth, who stands 6-3, has shown a lot of promise in the quarter mile. He's been timed in 49.6 for his lap in the mile relay and in 50 seconds flat off the blocks. If he improves as expected, he'll go on full scholarship his sophomore year.

Lewis reasons his recruiting job will be complete once he lines up another sprinter.

The Arnold Palmer-Gary Player Challenge Golf series, which was seen locally on TV last winter, has been renewed for next season and will be filmed in color.

The series will be presented twice each week over the ABC network.

Challenge Golf left much to be desired in the way of entertainment (for the golf buff) last year but should improve. The comments on strategy and play offered by Player and Palmer proved interesting but the photography was incredibly bad. The technical quality was dark and fuzzy.

Camera angles, in addition, were such that viewers couldn't see putts drop into the cups on the greens.

The cameramen weren't at fault, in a way. They barely caught the action but the full picture didn't show on the video screen.

The producers of the show took stock of the many complaints and reportedly will make every effort to do better.

So far, challenges to Palmer and Player will come from the tandem of Doug Sanders and Bob Rosburg, Gene Littler and Bo Winingar, Ken Venturi and Byron Nelson, Joe Campbell and Dave Ragan.

Yankees Improve Odds To Repeat As Champs

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Past performance charts show the odds are 2-1 in favor of the club heading the American League on July Fourth finishing first at the wire. It's happened that way 41 times in the league's past 62 seasons. But chances are you'd have to give much better than 2-1 on the New York Yankees, who wound up the holiday midway mark leading the race by 4 1/2 lengths.

The Yankees were outsize choices to hang up their fourth straight pennant and 27th over-all at the outset of the season and by now must rate about the surest bet in baseball. The Yankees picked up one-half game on the holiday program Thursday, even though they managed only a split with the Chicago White Sox. Behind left-hander Whitey Ford's pitching and a late-game scoring burst, they romped in the opener 9-1—winning their seventh straight and third in a row over Chicago—before dropping a 4-2 decision. The Detroit Tigers put a double damper on hopeful Minnesota, beating the Twins 5-3 and 3-1; and Jerry Kindall hit key home runs as Cleveland set back Boston twice, 4-3 in 14 innings and 7-5. The results moved the White Sox back into second, 4 1/2 games behind the Yanks, dropped Minnesota into third, 5 games off the pace, and left fourth-place Boston 6 1/2 games out.

In other AL action—Washington swept its first doubleheader of the year, 2-1 and 3-2 over Kansas City, with John Wyatt balking across the winning run in the opener and walking it across in the second game; and Baltimore completed a three-game sweep of Los Angeles, trimming the Angels 7-4. Ford, winning his ninth straight for a 13-3 record, struck out 12 and did not allow a runner past first base until the ninth inning. Elton Howard and Roger Maris homered for the Yanks. Nellie Fox' first homer of the season with a man on in the sixth was the big hit in Chicago's second game victory, Juan Pizarro, 10-4, was the winner with strong relief help from Hoyt Wilhelm. Gary Peters of the White Sox and Bill Stafford of the Yanks were the losing pitchers. The Tigers built early leads in both games in pinning the two losses on the Twins. Norm Cash's two-run single in the first inning and two more runs in the third gave Detroit all it needed in the opener, won by Phil Regan. In the second game, the Tigers broke a 1-1 tie in the third on Rocky Colavito's double and singles by Bubba Phillips and George Thomas. Hank Aguirre turned in a six-hitter.

Jim Hall, Rich Rollins and John Goryl homered for the Twins, whose losing pitchers were Lee Stange and Jim Kaat.

Gary Bell allowed just one hit in five innings of relief in the first game at Cleveland and became a winner when Kindall socked the first pitch thrown by Hal Kistad in the bottom of the 14th for a homer. Fred Whitfield homered twice for the Indians' first three runs.

In the second game, Cleveland shattered a 2-2 tie against Chet Nichols with a four-run barrage. Jim Grant went all the way for the Indians although allowing 11 hits, including Red Sox homers by Carl Yastrzemski, Gary Geiger and Lu Clinton.

District ASA Meet To Begin At 6:45

Although they have pitching problems, the Merchants are favored to win the championship of the annual-District 7 ASA Softball tournament, which gets underway way at 6:45 p.m. in the City Park here today and continues through Saturday. Both the champion and the runner-up are eligible to take part in the State ASA tournament, which will be unreeled in Brownwood next month. Four teams are entered in the meet here and two defeats will be required to eliminate a club. The opening contest pits the Merchants against E. C. Smith Construction. Phillips 66 tangles with Webb WAFB in the other first round en-agement. That one is down for 9 p.m. No admission will be charged for the games. Play will be resumed at 4 p.m. Saturday, at which time the losers in this evening's engagements will square off. The winners of tonight's contests will clash at 6 p.m. Saturday while other games are booked for 8 p.m., 10 p.m. and possibly 12 midnight. H. Boyce Hale is director of the tournament. Smith's could give the Merchants plenty of argument for the championship if the Contractors get organized. Webb is the darkhorse entry in the tournament and has been showing to better advantage each time it leaves the starting gate. The base team is still in need of a top flight pitcher, although both John Terry and Bob Pekar have shown to advantage in their stints on the hill. Phillips will seek to field a winner from a blend of veterans and young players. A shortage of pitching hurts this club, too. The contingent is capable of making the other squads hustle, however. Among outstanding players in the tournament are Marion Tredaway of the Merchants, Bob Pekar of Webb and D. A. Miller and Melvin Lindsey of Smith's. Here are the rules by which the teams will play:

- Teams will furnish one new and one playable ball for each game. Only the Texas ASA Hardwood 100 will be used.
- Protests will be appealed immediately to the District Commissioner, and settled before the next pitch. The Commissioner is expected to keep himself available at all times during the tournament.
- Umpires and managers are urged to keep teams hustling at all times.
- Wire line obstructions are playable beyond the poles at 1st and 3rd bases. All other lines are in foul territory.
- Warm ups will be on the outside of the park, while a game is being played.
- Games to start as scheduled unless delayed by previous game and/or bad weather; 20 minutes will be allowed for warm up at the conclusion of preceding game.
- Ten runs behind after 5 innings; game to be called in favor of leading team.
- Team not ready to play 3 minutes after starting time will forfeit.
- The game will be completed.
- Colt toss for home team.
- Only ASA umpires will be used.
- A ball batted out of play is not re-playable until the pitcher has disposed of the batter or the batter has fouled the ball out of play. UMPIRES WILL ENFORCE THIS RULE WITHOUT FAIL.
- Trophies will be given for 1st and 2nd, and nine individual trophies for all district teams.

Poised For Meet

Bernard McMahan (above), who plays second base for the Merchants, will be active in the District 7 ASA Softball tournament beginning here this evening and continuing through Saturday.

Dodgers Peck Away To Win

The Dodgers spotted the Yankees 10 runs, then came back to peck away and win handily, 17-12, in a National Little League game Thursday evening. The Yankees pounded out nine singles for 10 runs in the first inning to drive Rowan Settles from the mound. This turned out to be a mistake, for Danny Thornton came on to cut the Yanks down with only three hits and two runs the rest of the way. He struck out seven and walked five. The Dodgers went ahead in the top of the fifth, 11-10, only to have the Yanks pull ahead, 12-11. Ronnie Broadrick got the Dodgers' first home run of the season to knot the count in the sixth, carrying the ball off the top of the fence. What proved to be the winning run came in on a fielders choice, although the Dodgers padded the margin. Steve Tidwell got a triple, Rowan Settles a double, David Pickle, who relieved Tidwell, was tagged for the loss.

Indians Edge Tigers, 5-4

McMahon's Indians rallied for three runs in the final inning to defeat the Whately Tigers, 5-4, in a Junior Teen-Age Baseball league thriller here Thursday evening. Charley Douglas, who came in relief of Gary Miesars, notched the mound victory. The two surrendered five hits to the Tigers while the Indians collected eight off Van Tom Whately, the loser. Miesars had three of the satifies for the Tribe, including a timely double in the seventh. Larry Harp clubbed a second inning two-baser for the winners.

Unity Shown At Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG BATTLEFIELD, Pa. (AP)—Through the smoke of cannon, the ranks of Blue and Gray advanced, sunlight glinting on sabers.

Suddenly, when they were close enough to see the whites of each other's eyes, the murderous whang of recorded gunfire stopped pouring from the public address systems.

And in the silence the 30,000 spectators saw the Reds and the Boys in Blue lower their muskets and march together to that place of terror of 100 years ago — the Bloody Angle.

There the troops of North and South formed hollow squares, pledged alliance to the national government and raised the Stars and Stripes as a U.S. Navy band played the national anthem.

And thus Wednesday in a display of unity ended the three-day commemoration of the Battle of Gettysburg, the beginning of the end for Gen. Robert E. Lee and his men of the Confederacy.

Beckwith Hearing Set For Monday

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—The arraignment of Byron de La Beckwith, indicted for the June 12 slaying of civil rights leader Medgar Evers, has been rescheduled for next Monday.

Circuit Judge Leon Hendrick delayed the arraignment when two defense attorneys for Beckwith could not appear in court.

Beckwith, 42, a resident of Greenwood and a member of the pro-segregation Citizens Council, was indicted Tuesday by a grand jury of 17 white men and one Negro.

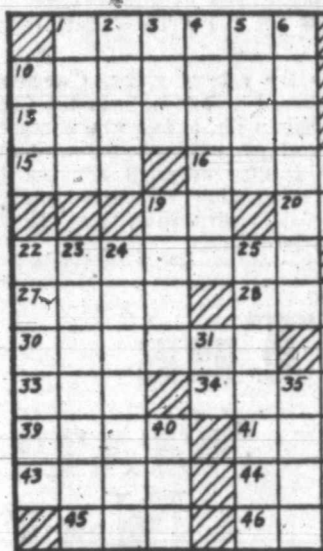

Evers was shot in the back in the driveway of his home just after midnight. He was returning from an integration meeting.

Evers was Mississippi field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Romania Seeks Western Ties

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Foreign Minister Bruno Kreisky says Communist Romania appears to be seeking closer economic ties with the West in an effort to strengthen its industrial potential outside the Moscow bloc.

The Romanian move, coupled with a policy of demonstrative neutrality in the ideological feud between the Soviet Union and Communist China, has further weakened unity in the Eastern camp.

Kreisky, returning from two-day talks with President and Communist party chief Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej and other officials, said the Romanians were "eager to exploit all possibilities for increased trade with Western countries, especially in the industrial field."

The formal purpose of Kreisky's visit was the conclusion of an agreement on reimbursement of Austrian financial assets in Romania.

The Austrians, however, also negotiated a number of long-term business contracts with Romanian government-controlled heavy industrial enterprises.

Such Romanian deals with Western countries run counter to the Soviet scheme of "division of labor" in the Communist Council for Mutual Economic Assistance.

LBJ Urges More Action On Rights

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson has called for less talk and more action to secure the civil rights of all Americans.

"The words of the Declaration of Independence — the words of the Constitution of the United States — do not need to be further interpreted," Johnson said. "They need to be implemented — for all Americans."

Thus in the city where the Declaration of Independence was adopted 187 years ago today by the Continental Congress, the vice president, a Southerner, called on Americans to make "liberty more certain for each of us."

"These times — the issue of this moment in our history — call out for men and women who love their country to step forward with responsible leadership to implement in our national life the ideals of our national literature," Johnson said in a speech prepared for delivery at Independence Hall.

The concept of equality as set forth in the Declaration is clear and unmistakable, Johnson said.

"We would demean ourselves, we would demean our patriotism, we would demean our dignity as free men to interrupt the course of our national progress to enter upon a prolonged debate about either the meaning of those words — or the obligation they impose upon us to honor and fulfill their meaning," Johnson said.

Didn't Know She Was Pregnant

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—A Fort Lauderdale woman says she was pregnant for nine months and never knew it.

Mrs. John Connor, 30, found out when she went to the hospital with stomach pains she thought were appendicitis and was wheeled into the emergency room.

"We had no idea this would even happen," said her husband, who explained they had been married seven years and had no children. He said she had gained no weight during the past year.

The baby, a 7-pound boy, was doing fine.

DAILY GUIDE—There are no major adverse aspects, but in the background is the eclipse of the moon this weekend so we cannot count too much on things going smoothly. An inclination to ignore practical matters today might cause some loss. However, those who are engaged in some cultural, creative pursuit could be successful.

Cancerians, Scorpios and Pisceans have a favorable period in which to find harmony and enjoy some inspirational or artistic activity.

Keep alert now as an eclipse period is likely to make people somewhat unstable, emotional, and careless. Little accidents can mar the day.

In the background, there could be an emphasis on old world problems, on pressure brought on the people of the U. S. Space exploration is likely to be accentuated again around this time.

Take it slow and easy tomorrow. Do not plan to start any new or important action around this eclipse period; the ultimate outcome is unfavorable. Wait for a better time to launch projects.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, CANCER! Two long-term cycles are accentuated, one this month, and one early in October. The high-powered mental stimulation that has begun has no doubt upset all daily routines, and you have more ideas than you can handle.

Be careful in dealing with neighbors, and in traveling. You could be too erratic, nervous or hasty. The other cycle concerns some close ties that could bring misunderstanding and emotional upset early in October.

Finances remain about the same; keep things well organized. A short cycle, lasting this year and through early spring, is highly favorable to your career, giving you opportunities to win recognition and higher status.

Rocky Still In Presidential Ring

EDITOR'S NOTE — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is reported determined to stay in the contest for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination. Do Republican leaders believe he will fight it out? What steps are being taken aimed at brightening his political image? Jack Bell, veteran AP political writer, analyzes the situation.

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The firm message has been passed to Republican leaders that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has every intention of pursuing vigorously his quest for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination.

At what some of his friends believe is the low mark of his popularity, the New York governor is depicted as determined to stay in the contest for a nomination some party members thought he had forfeited when he married the divorced mother of four children.

As evidence of the Rockefeller intentions, associates point to the maintenance at full strength of the presidential task force of trained assistants the governor has been assembling in New York City and Albany for several years.

They cite the quiet Rockefeller selling job being carried on by George L. Hinman, New York Republican national committeeman, who heads the presidential task force with headquarters in Rockefeller Plaza, who is emphatic about his man's availability.

Rockefeller himself is reported to feel that politically things have got so bad they are bound to get better. From an acknowledged top running position he has plummeted to a level at which, for the moment, he can count with certainty on not much more than New York's convention support.

"He quit in 1959 when there was a whole lot less reason for him to get out than there is now," this Republican said. "If he could change his mind then, he could change it again."

A Rockefeller booster said the situation isn't the same as that in which the governor found the field had been sewed up for the nomination of then Vice President Richard M. Nixon. He added that nobody is likely to get a pre-convention lock on the nomination as Nixon did.

"The governor is a very stubborn man," this Republican leader said. "He has made up his mind to go after the nomination and, in my judgment, he will make an all-out fight for it."

Some steps are being taken aimed at brightening the governor's political image.

Rockefeller's associates believe a settlement is near by which his wife's four children by her previous marriage can be with their mother part of the time.

The involvement of the children seems to have heightened criticism of the marriage far beyond the point the governor expected.

The belief is that this could be mitigated by satisfactory custody arrangements publicly announced.

The governor and his new wife have about completed the political circuit in New York, where their receptions have been friendly.

They will make their first out-of-state appearance late this month at the governors' conference in Miami Beach, Fla.

SPEAKING BIDS

If the schedule is maintained, Rockefeller will accept some of the speaking invitations that continue to pour in to him. This would give him the opportunity to build up a record of sharp opposition to President Kennedy's policies. Such opposition would be aimed in part at quieting any "me-too" complaints from those within his own party who think that his views are too alike those of the President.

Where it is apparent that Rockefeller and Kennedy are closer in their thinking than the governor is with some Republicans, a formula has been worked out.

Where he approves some Kennedy action, Rockefeller is likely to follow the pattern he set in commenting on the President's civil rights legislative program.

In this case, he urged that Congress act promptly on the program. He called the issue a bipartisan one. But he went on to say that the legislative proposals were long overdue and didn't go as far as New York laws do.

His appeal to the Republicans lies in trying to sell them the idea that he might carry New York and the big electoral vote industrial states.

Rockefeller is under compulsion to employ some conservative language in talking to his own party members. But he can't compromise on such issues as civil rights and expect to cut into Kennedy's hold on the big cities, even if it means sacrificing the opportunities some GOP members think they have of carrying most of the South.

This dilemma might discourage an average politician, but apparently not Rockefeller.

NO LEGEND

Here's Real Betsy Ross Story

ELDON, Mo. (AP) — A silver-haired matron sits in her parlor and calmly relates how her great-grandmother straightened out Gen. George Washington in the matter of a flag—where to put the stars and where to put the stripes.

It's all part of the family lore for 72-year-old Mrs. Carl Buehler, long-time resident of this central Missouri town.

She heard the story from her grandmother who was born and reared in the Philadelphia home of her own grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Claypoole—better known as Betsy Ross.

So, Betsy is no legendary Revolutionary figure for Mrs. Rachel Buehler. Instead, the family grapevine passed her down as a bit of a black sheep, a strong-willed woman who left her family of Quaker Tories to marry John Ross, proprietor of an upholstery and flagmaking shop.

Ross was not only an Episcopalian but was involved in that Revolution business as well, and when he died of wounds received in a skirmish, he left his 24-year-old widow to run the business.

BETSY ADVISES

As Mrs. Buehler heard it from Betsy's granddaughter, one day Gen. Washington, a man named Morris and a Col. Ross (John's uncle) came into the shop.

Washington wanted a flag, says Mrs. Buehler, and he had a six-point star in mind. But Betsy said a five-pointed star would be more symmetrical. She showed them how she could fold a piece of paper and with one snip of the scissors make a perfect five-pointed star.

"Betsy suggested they put the stars in a circle so no state would be ahead. Then the men suggested adding a new stripe for each new state. But she proposed instead to add a new star and keep the stripes for the original 13 states."

Thus, this nation does not now

It's Different

Rachel Buehler examines the 50-star flag that her great-grandmother, Betsy Ross, probably wouldn't recognize as descendant of her original design of 13 stars in a circle.

have a 50-stripe flag, which would look, as Betsy may have sensed, like a seersucker suit flying from a flagpole.

SHE MADE MORE FLAGS

It's not known whether Betsy was ever paid for her work on the first Old Glory. But she did make more flags, Mrs. Buehler says, and a receipt for payment to her exists, dated 1777.

Betsy stayed on at the upholstery shop, marrying Joseph Ashburn who was captured and died in a British prison. Another Philadelphia in the prison, John Clay-riague," Mrs. Buehler says with a chuckle.

But Betsy's marriage to Claypoole produced five daughters, the eldest, Clarissa, going back to Betsy's home to bear a child after her husband died in an accident.

The new baby was Mrs. Buehler's grandmother.

"My grandmother grew up in Betsy's home and remembered her," Mrs. Buehler says.

Later the child, who became Rachel Wilson Albright, lived for many years with other family members in Fort Madison, Iowa. Her youngest son, Daniel, moved to St. Louis where Mrs. Buehler was born.

INHERITS TEAPOT

"Every summer from the time I was about 6 until I was 16 or 17, I used to go up to Fort Madison and stay all summer long," Mrs. Buehler reminisces. "My father would put me on the train."

"My grandmother would tell the story over and over again. I'd help her polish the silver, and she'd tell me it was to be mine."

But, of the full silver service which had belonged to Betsy, Mrs. Buehler only has a staghorned teapot.

She occasionally excites the ladies of the Daughters of the American Revolution when the local chapter meets at her modest two-story home, by pouring from Betsy Ross's teapot.

Mrs. Buehler tells the narrative in an easy going way without a hint of superpatriotism. She is neither Quaker nor Episcopalian, but Baptist. She and her husband are quietly part of this town of 3,100 where he operated a drug store 45 years until retiring last year.

The Buehlers have a son, an Eldon physician, and two grandchildren, including Elaine, 15. That's where Betsy Ross's teapot is going.

"But she doesn't seem very interested in it right now," Mrs. Buehler observes.

Give God A Chance—God Will Open Doors For You!

drowsy afternoon

It is good to lie down on the grass and look up into the sky. Your mind starts to wander — the way it always does when you take the time really to look at it. The heaven is so immense that you can't find a word big enough for it. Those thunderheads, building up in the west — they are so huge that they dwarf the work of man into total insignificance.

The stars are still up there too. We can't see them in the daytime and always this seems strange. But they are just as much there as they are at night — and you don't have to see them to know it.

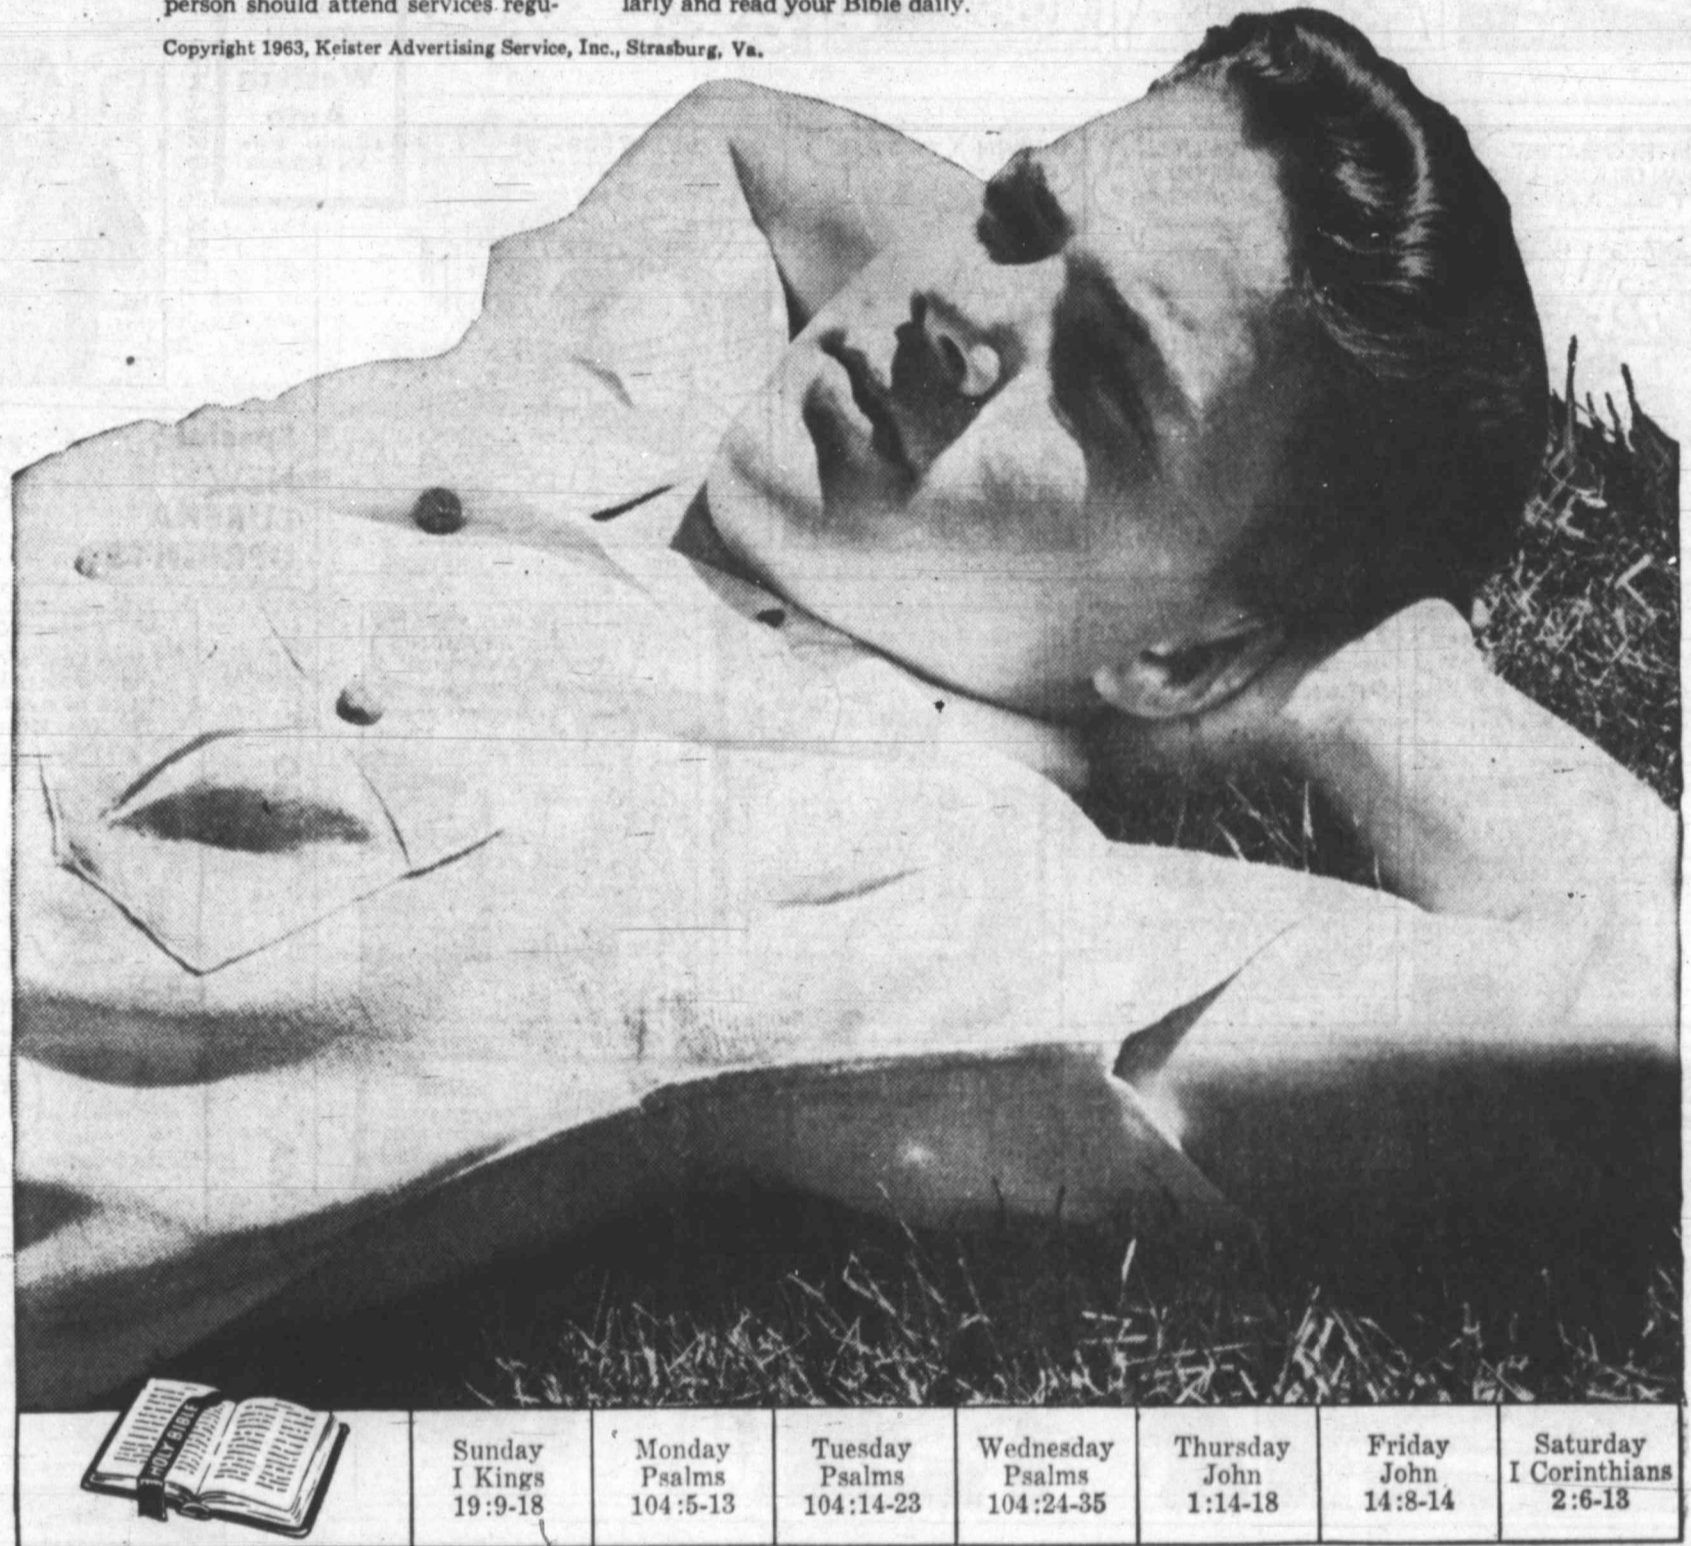

You don't have to see God either, to know that He's there — though some people seem to feel it's something that has to be proved. They couldn't be more wrong. God's evidence is everywhere. Just walk into a church on Sunday and sit down and listen awhile, and then you will know for sure.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

ONE AFTER ANOTHER THE CREW OF THE BRUNN DEL MAR IS QUESTIONED.

GASOLINE ALLEY

Getting mixed up with a horse is bad enough, but hiring Joel—
He's doing fine, Phyllis! And he's very devoted to Pam Scratch!

OF COURSE THE DEAR COUNT WAS PENILESS, BUT YOUR FATHAH WAS VERY WEALTHY. THE COUNT WOULD HAVE SETTLED FOR A REASONABLE SUM!
SURE, AND MY DEAR PARENTS WOULD THEN HAVE SUPPORTED ME AS BEFFITS A COUNTESS!
WELL, AUNT AGATHA, I WASH'T ABOUT TO BE AUCTIONED OFF TO BUY A TITLE FOR 'THE FAMILY'!
WHAT A DISGUSTING WAY TO PUT THE MATTAH! YOU WERE A FOOL!

THE AIR IS CHARGED, AND TRACY IS ALL EYES.
HE SPIES SOMETHING IN A WASTEBASKET AND DEFTLY RETRIEVES IT.

MARY WORTH
ANYWAY I ADD IT UP, OUR COMBINED SAVINGS TOTAL $362.75, DARLIN!—IT'S NOT EXACTLY THE NATIONAL BUDGET!
I'VE BEEN SITTING HERE THINKING... ABOUT SOME-AHEM... YOUNGER COUPLES I'VE OBSERVED, MY DEAR!
WHEN THEY FIND EACH OTHER, THEIR OPTIMISM IS A DEFIANT GLOVE-SLAP ACROSS THE FACE OF THOSE WHO CAUTION THEM TO WAIT—AND WAIT!
ARE WE SO LACKING IN LOVE—OR FAITH IN OURSELVES?
MURIEL WRIGHT—AT 11 O'CLOCK MONDAY MORNING, YOU ARE GOING TO BECOME MRS. STERLING WORTH!

Heat, Showers Texas Outlook

By The Associated Press
Holidaying Texans, those left in the state, could expect more high temperatures and scattered thundershowers again Friday, the Weather Bureau said.

About the same type of weather, not quite so hot, would greet those traveling into Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Scattered thundershowers that fell Thursday kept temperatures below the 100-degree mark in most places, but Wichita Falls in the Upper Red River Valley marked up a torrid 106.

Wichita Falls was the only point reporting as much as 100 degrees and other "maximums" ranging downward to Alpine's 81.

Although scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers were looked for in every section of the state, there was no precipitation at dawn. Skies were clear to partly cloudy over the state except in the Midland-Wink area.

Texas temperatures at 4 a. m. ranged from 68 at Amarillo to 81 at Galveston. By contrast, Howard Air Force base in the Canal Zone tropics had a 77-degree reading at the same time.

Thursday's thundershowers fell along the middle and lower Texas Gulf coast and in far West Texas.

The bidding: South 1♥ West 2♥ North 3♦ East 4♥ Pass

Opening lead: Deuce of ♠ West contrived a neat swindle to hoodwink the declarer in today's hand.

The four heart contract was reached with dispatch and West opened his fourth best spade. North's ten forced out the ace and East shifted to the ace of clubs. He continued with the queen and declarer was in with the king.

South played the ace of hearts from his hand and West followed quite nonchalantly with the ten. He had been doing some thinking on his own, and he realized that, if declarer were left to his own resources, he would cash the top heart honors and then lead toward the dummy's jack — thus restricting West to one trump trick. Only drastic action on West's part could alter his opponent's course.

The fall of the ten hearts gave South something to think about. Now that the defense had cashed their two aces, his only concern was in holding his trump losses to one trick. Of course, if West's heart holding consisted of the queen-ten doubleton, South could score an overtrick by playing the ace next to drop the queen. If the ten was a singleton, however, the play of the ace would surrender the contract, for it would establish two heart tricks for East.

South finally decided to make a safety play in the trump suit. He crossed over to dummy with a diamond and led the jack of hearts. East followed with a small heart, declarer intended to let the jack ride. If the finesse lost, South's contract would be assured because the trumps must now break.

When East failed to follow to the jack of hearts, it was revealed that declarer had been conned into making a losing play, for West could not be prevented from winning two trump tricks.

Negro Churches Being Rebuilt

ALBANY, Ga. (AP) — An Albany construction firm is using three crews to rebuild three Negro churches destroyed by fire nearly a year ago during racial unrest in nearby southwest Georgia counties.

B. B. Blaylock, head of the firm, explained he hoped to complete the churches simultaneously so they could be dedicated at the same time.

The three churches — Shady Grove Baptist in Lee County and Mount Olive and Mount Mary Baptist in Terrell County — are expected to be finished in about four months or so at a cost of about $30,000 each.

Several campaigns were organized to raise funds to rebuild the churches. The Southern Christian Leadership Conference, headed by the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., and Jackie Robinson, retired Negro baseball star took part in the fund raising. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York donated $10,000 and the Atlanta Constitution raised $10,500.

Mississippi Debars Attorney

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — William Higgs, a prize-winning civil rights attorney, has been debarred from the practice of law in Mississippi.

Chancery Judge Stokes Robertson took the action against Higgs for making "some completely false statements under oath." The grievance committee of the Hinds County Bar Association recommended the move.

Higgs, a 27-year-old white native of Mississippi, was not present at the proceedings. He went to New York in February to receive the Albert J. Lasker Civil Rights Award and did not return. He said he was afraid to return to the state after his arrest on a morals charge.

A 12-man jury later convicted Higgs in absentia of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Circuit Judge Leon Hendrick testified Wednesday that statements in an affidavit made by Higgs "were completely false."

Mary Has A Little Statue

STERLING, Mass. (AP) — This town has dedicated a statue of Mary Sawyer, who: "—had a little lamb, "Its fleece was white as snow, "And everywhere that Mary went.

"The lamb was sure to go." The statue was unveiled Thursday on Sterling Common by Alfred Altman of New York, head of the National Dairyman's Association, Inc., who owns a summer home near the cottage where Mary Sawyer reportedly lived.

Legend tells how Mary, born in 1806, was given a sickly lamb by her father. She nursed it to health and one morning it trailed her to school.

John Roulstone, a divinity student, heard of the incident and wrote three verses about Mary and her lamb which became one of the most popular of nursery rhymes.

Andrew Jackson Sub Commissioned

VALLEJO, Calif. (AP) — The heir to Andrew Jackson's congressional seat gave the main speech at the commissioning of a nuclear submarine named for the former president.

Rep. Ross, Bass, a five-term Democratic congressman from the 6th district in Tennessee, said conditions when Jackson was president—1829 to 1837—were much the same as in today's unsettled, risky world.

The Polaris missile-carrying vessels of 7,000 tons is the first of a planned nine ships of the Lafayette class. It was launched Sept. 15, 1962, and commissioning came following successful sea trials. Total cost of the Jackson was about $110 million.

President Plans To Relax Today

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — President Kennedy planned to relax today along the Cape Cod shore after a frenzied Fourth of July for the Kennedy family.

Three generations of Kennedys were involved Thursday in such matters of urgency as a potential national railroad strike, a birth, an operation, and the President's reunion with his wife and two children after a 10-day trip to Europe.

Today, Kennedy looked forward to nothing more strenuous than routine conferences with some of his staff and an afternoon cruise on Nantucket Sound.

The vacation lasts only until Monday when Kennedy flies back to Washington. But it does provide his longest respite in weeks from wrestling with racial and other domestic issues and from the strain of his visits to Germany, Ireland, England and Italy.

The President hadn't seen his family since he flew to Europe June 22. And he barely made it here to greet them at the end of the holiday. He conferred at the White House with Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz on the rail strike threatened for midnight Wednesday, then boarded the presidential jet and took off for the cape.

About the same time, Atty. Gen. and Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy were flying by helicopter from Hyannis Port to Boston, where she gave birth Thursday night to a 6-pound, 14-ounce boy. He is their fifth son. They also have three girls. The baby is the second of the children born on July 4. The other is the eldest, Kathleen, 12.

For the patriarch of the Kennedys, former ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy, it was the 21st grandchild.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's wife, Joan, wound up in another hospital Thursday. A 30-minute operation removed an abscess from the inside of her throat. Sen. Kennedy, D-Mass., and his wife also were vacationing here.

Ambassador Kennedy was sitting on the porch of his home in the "Kennedy compound" and the First Lady and two children were standing on the lawn when a helicopter brought the President from nearby Otis Air Force Base.

Tow-headed Caroline, 5, and John Jr., 2, rushed to the daddy with outstretched arms. They got a hug and a kiss. Then it was Mrs. Kennedy's turn, and it was a warm embrace. Finally the President walked up to the porch and thrust out a hand to his father, who never has recovered from a stroke suffered in December, 1961.

The President's wife is expecting another baby late next month. She plans to spend most of the waiting time at the rambling, gray-shingled home on Squaw Island which she and her husband have rented for the summer. Their own place in the compound isn't quite large enough now for a growing family and temporary White House offices. Squaw Island is only half a mile away.

Pipe Organ Broadcasts To Begin On FM Station

A series of pipe organ broadcasts, styled "Great Pipe Organ Music from Great Churches," begins Sunday on KFNE-FM at 5 p.m. The series will include concerts on world-famous organs by outstanding organ virtuosos, according to Lt. Tom McDaniel, a pipe organ enthusiast who is helping with arrangements.

The program will be non-commercial, he said, and is being broadcast as a public service by Don Anderson, owner of the FM facility here.

"There are no pipe organs in Big Spring," McDaniel pointed out, "although Midland has six and several are in San Angelo." It is his hope that Big Springers will encourage some local church to install one of the organs here.

The series of 26 concerts originate from churches, he said, but not all the music will be religious. It includes the best in organ concert music from all the great periods of music.

Among the artists performing in the series are E. Power Biggs, Frederick Swann, Virgil Fox, and William Whitehead. Whitehead is a native of Midland. He was the first organist to win the Annual Young Artist Award of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Some of the organs being used in the series are the U. S. Naval Academy Chapel organ; the organs of First Baptist Church, Philadelphia; St. James Episcopal Church, New York; The Cathedral of Mary Our Queen, Baltimore; and the Military Academy chapel at West Point. The West Point organ is the world's fifth largest pipe organ and the second largest in any church edifice. This instrument has 14,666 pipes. The broadcasts that feature the West Point and Annapolis organs will also include the Cadet and Midshipman choirs on the program.

Sunday's program will be broadcast from Central Moravian Church, Bethlehem, Pa., with Robert Elmore performing. The program will include "Fantasy on In Dulci Jubilo" and "Rejoice Greatly" by Bach; "Fantasy on Nursery Tunes" and "What Offering Shall I Bring Thee Now" by the performer, Elmore; and "Prelude and Fugue on BACH" by Liszt.

DEAR ABBY

It Is Illegal, No Exceptions

DEAR ABBY: Our son is 16 and very popular. We finished off our basement so he could entertain his friends there. We put in a TV, stereo and billiard table. Last Saturday night he had six couples in for a party. We served sandwiches and soft drinks. We have a rule—no beer or liquor. The next morning, while cleaning up, I found several empty beer cans and an empty vodka bottle hidden behind the TV. We questioned our son and three of his friends. One boy admitted to bringing the beer. A girl had brought the vodka from home. We told them it was against the law for minors to drink. They tried to tell us it was okay if done in a private home. Please print this with your comments in case we need something concrete to show them.

DEAR GRAY: When you and your husband enter a store, agree on a meeting place (under the clock, or at the south door) and have an understanding that if you should become separated, you meet there.
