'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Our area has missed many chances lately for a much needed rain but we have had a good accumulation of clouds. Perhaps if we harnessed all the hay fever sufferers together and synchronized the sneezes we could blow something into the clouds or at least guide them over our dry area.

Forty-three members of the W. S. MARTIN family were together this weekend at a reunion at the home place located between Knott and Fairview. One of the daughters, MRS. SHIRLEY FRYAR, and her husband, who reside in the family home, were hosts to the gathering occasioned by the visit of MISS ANNE MARTIN of Santa Barbara, Calif.

Others present were MRS. BILLY HUGHES, Seminole, Okla.; MR. and MRS. FRANK MARTIN, Midland; MR. and MRS. FRED MARTIN of Odessa; MR. and MRS. CLARENCE SCHAFER and two daughters and MR. and MRS. MARTIN FRYAR and three daughters all of Coahoma; MR. and MRS. BILLY FRYAR and three children, Stanton; MR. and MRS. PHILIP STOVALL and twin daughters of Knott; MR. and MRS. DEWEY MARTIN, MISS GAYNELL MARTIN, MR. and MRS. R. C. THOMAS and five children.

SUPPER SET

The salad supper to be held for members of Spoudazio Fora Study Club this evening in the home of Mrs. J. M. Hill, 1806 Dorley, will begin at 7 p.m. instead of 7:30 as announced previously.

HINTS FROM Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise: We use pom poms, made of your ever-useful nylon net (purchased at a dime or department store) as favors for a big luncheon honoring officers of different clubs in our city.

HELOISE

These were made of various types of pastel-colored net with a perky little flower in each one they really were beautiful on our tables, and we received many compliments.

Dear Heloise: Buy nylon net, cut it in four inch strips as long as you want it. Gather down the middle (I find a heavy string best) and tie it until it looks like a pom pom. This is wonderful for scrubbing pots and pans that mashed, potatoes, rice, etc., are cooked in. They never sour and never get sticky.

One woman wrote that at a ladies' luncheon club they had a Heloise centerpiece. It was composed of 75 different colored pom poms. After the luncheon was over each woman went home with a pom pom. The centerpiece took the place of flowers. They used the money they ordinarily would have spent on flowers to buy the net. Quite attractive, eh? Heloise

Dear Heloise: When I wash my husband's work pants I hang them out first to damp dry.

When I finish hanging out the rest of the laundry I put the pants on stretchers—holding them up to the light to get the leg seams together perfectly.

Then I hang them back on the line, pinning them at the waist and turn the garden hose on them real hard, being sure to fill the pockets with water! The weight of the water running down pulls out all the wrinkles. I haven't put an iron in the home of Mrs. Ed Waite Clark, 2709 Carol. During the business session plans were made for the forthcoming rush season. Mrs. Dick Lindsley told of the tour taken by several members through the state hospital and said that the group will serve as hostesses for the December birthday party for patients.

The group voted to sponsor a booth in the Lion's Club Funarama during the first week of October. "Definition of Happiness" was the program presented by Mrs. Jerry Marples. She was assisted by a panel including Mrs. Louis Jones, Mrs. Melvin Clark, Mrs. Johnny Gocheneur and Mrs. Bob Badger.

PHI PALS

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Phi pals were revealed and gifts exchanged by members of the Mu Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi when the sorority met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Ed Waite Clark, 2709 Carol.

Mrs. Bob Wray, social chairman, told of plans for the year's activities. She said that the chapter would sponsor a booth at the Funarama scheduled Sept. 30 to Oct. 3. Mrs. Tom Enloe, program chairman, outlined program plans and distributed year books. She reviewed the yardstick points by which the programs are judged. Mrs. Enloe was elected to represent the chapter as Valentine Queen at San Angelo later in the year.

Mrs. Wray and Mrs. Jim Taylor presented the program, "Body Beautiful." Emphasized was the fact that features do not make beauty since it begins with the mind. Good grooming habits and proper mental attitudes were stressed. Eleven members were served from a table covered with yellow linen and centered with yellow gladioli and miniature chrysanthemums, interspersed with Beta Sigma Phi symbols in gold.

MRS. HERBERT H. DAHNKE has returned from a two-week vacation in Colorado, where she visited with former Anchorage, Alaska neighbors, COL. and MRS. JOHN L. KEARNEY in Denver and MRS. SHANE FLEMING, Aspen.

MAJ. and MRS. DAHNKE are to leave this weekend for some trout fishing in White Mountains at Greer, Ariz. They are to be gone a week and will return by Silver City, N. M., and Juarez, Mexico.

Dear Heloise: I am a beautician and would like to tell housewives how to preserve a manicure.

Keep a fresh bottle of clear polish on hand at all times and put a fresh coat on every few days. A thin coat will suffice. Be sure to extend the clear polish to the edge of the nail and under the nail a bit to add to the life of the manicure. Vi Clark

Dear Heloise: Round toothpicks make effective skewers when closing the opening of stuffed chickens. The picks are easy to insert and don't rust. Just push the picks through both sides of the opening and secure by lacing together with thread or dental floss. Myra Novick

Dear Heloise: We put our bath mats and rubber sink mats right into our automatic washing machine, add a few bath towels and they come out sweet and clean.

We are owners of a spanking new 40-unit motel and are 100 per cent sanitary. A big time-saver is mixing the bath towels with the mats and we have found it does not hurt the life of the mats. Mary Jane Rineuld

The roughness of the towels rubs against the rubber mats and scours away the soil. It's wonderful. Heloise

Dear Heloise: One of your reader's tips about mending rubber gloves, reminded me of the way I use rubber gloves that leak too much for washing dishes.

I use them for all my yard work, including washing the car. As long as they're not actually submerged in the water, they don't seem to leak too much.

They are also ideal for painting. When used this way there is no paint ingrained around my fingernails. This eliminates cleaning the hands with turpentine. Also, if the phone rings or a diaper has to be changed, a person doesn't have to wipe off the paint first. All they have to do is remove the gloves! Mrs. C.

Brownwood's Unique Coliseum To Open

BROWNWOOD (AP)—Gov. John Connally will dedicate Thursday a $650,000 coliseum that was literally inspired by a bolt of lightning.

GOV. JOHN CONNALLY ... for dedication

Finishing touches on the building will barely be completed in time for the 8 p.m. dedication ceremony. The governor will be honored at a dinner an hour before the dedication.

A massive, circular structure of concrete and steel, the coliseum is only a few feet from the site of Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hall, the city auditorium destroyed by fire after lightning struck the 1924 building in May, 1960.

The new Brownwood Coliseum's concrete dome, which weighs three million pounds, was poured on a mound of dirt on the ground and then lifted by 36 hydraulic jacks to the top of 36 steel columns. The structure is one of the few buildings in the world using this method. After the dome was lifted, the coliseum was built beneath it by general contractor Bennett and Forbess Inc., of Brownwood.

Girl Scouts sold sandwiches and soft drinks on the day the dome took its first two-inch journey upward Oct. 11, 1962. An estimated 150 persons watched the first slow movement. The jacks, one atop each of the 36 columns, had to move in unison, and the going was slow. By Oct. 15, the dome was up six feet; on Oct. 18, the dome reached the top, 31 feet from the ground.

The feat was publicized in several state magazines and newspapers, in a national construction publication and in at least one magazine overseas in London.

Plans for an auditorium-coliseum committee were discussed the day after the 1960 fire. By the next week, a committee began work on the project. A $650,000 bond issue was approved by a 2-1 margin Nov. 22 in April 1962.

Cuban Refugees Reach Mexico With Navy Ship

MERIDA, Mexico (AP)—Ninety-five hungry and thirsty Cuban refugees landed on Cozumel Island Sunday.

Reports from the isolated Caribbean island belonging to Mexico said 91 immediately asked asylum. The other four apparently were crewmen of their confiscated vessel.

The group, including 46 women and 21 children, was said to have forced crewmen of the Cuban government vessel to change course and head for Mexico.

The trip took five days, and the Cubans ran out of water and food. They said the trip had been difficult.

The vessel reportedly was a lighthouse ship of the Cuban navy. All who asked asylum were bitterly critical of the Castro regime.

Doctors Locate Defect That Spreads Leukemia

DALLAS (AP)—Two Dallas researchers report they've discovered a defect causing wild growth of white blood cells to produce a common form of leukemia.

This may point the way through examination of other types of cells, they said, to detect how control of cellular growth is lost in types of cancer other than leukemia.

Dr. Morton Prager and an assistant, Miss Sara Bryan, with the Wadley Research Institute and Blood Bank, told of their findings on the eve of the American Chemical Society's 143th national meeting.

Dr. Prager said that as far as could be determined, this was the first defect in regulation of cell growth to be found in leukemia.

The discovery concerns granulocytic leukemia, one of two forms. The other is lymphocytic leukemia. Each name refers to the specific type of white blood cell involved.

Dr. Prager said the defect lies in an enzyme system which operates inside white blood cells to regulate the production of pyrimidines, the essential components of the cell's genetic material—deoxyribonucleic acid and ribonucleic acid. The genetic material guides growth and reproduction of cells.

"Cancer, of which leukemia is an example, frequently has been characterized as a wild, uncontrolled growth," Dr. Prager said.

"The significant thing about finding a loss of regulation of pyrimidine synthesis in granulocytic leukemia is that this represents a loss of one of the tumor as a whole as it expands and invades various parts of the body."

Joyce Kilmer Oak To Be Cut Down

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP)—They're cutting down the Kilmer oak Sept. 18 and time will have triumphed.

The stately white oak, believed to have inspired Joyce Kilmer to write the poem, "Trees," has succumbed to old age.

The tree, located on the Rutgers University campus, is believed to be 300 years old.

Peace Hostage Swap Is Studied

NEW YORK (AP)—Lawyer James B. Donovan, who negotiated the release of Cuban prisoners, said Monday that he will help with a proposed plan to exchange "peace hostages" with the Soviet Union.

Donovan said he would go to Geneva next June 22 for a meeting with Russians who have expressed interest in an exchange of "peace supporters."

The object of the meeting would be to work out an agreement for a pilot exchange of 30 to 50 persons, including some close relatives of high ranking officials.

U.S. Mood Against Aid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.S. delegate Jonathan B. Bingham told a special U.N. committee Monday that the mood of the American public, as reflected by Congress, is against any further increase in foreign aid.

Bingham spoke at a session of the committee considering the establishment of a United Nations capital development fund to speed the flow of capital to underdeveloped countries.

Bingham said existing U.N. mechanisms covered every aspect of the needs of underdeveloped nations.

I wasn't brought up to run around naked in front of strangers. I am allowed three visits to the camp before it becomes mandatory that I disrobe, too. My husband says I have an evil mind, and that man was much happier when he went around naked and lived with nature in the trees. Should I try to forget my shame and go with him? He can't join unless I do. He is 25 and I am 23. We have a child one year old.

Chinese Blast 'Holy Alliance'

TOKYO (AP)—Red China asserted today that Soviet leaders have joined the United States, India and Yugoslavia in a "holy alliance" to strangle revolutionary movements and reinstate capitalism.

An article in the Red Chinese theoretical journal Red Flag said Premier Khrushchev "has for years been agitating and pulling strings for the new holy alliance."

Broadcast by Radio Peking, the article predicted that "the new holy alliance" will be destroyed as were its predecessors.

The United States represents imperialism in the alliance, said Peking. Prime Minister Nehru's India represents reaction, and President Tito's Communist Yugoslavia revisionism — violation of Marxist-Leninist principles.

"What dirty and despicable deals they are going to make calls for close attention by the people of the world," Peking said.

In the latest Peking contribution to the running China-Soviet quarrel, Red Flag took a long look at the holy alliances of the 18th and early 19th centuries and said their "halcyon days" did not last long.

"They may storm and rage for a while," Red Flag said, "but they are fated to fail. This is the law of history."

The journal said that since World War II, China and a number of other countries have embarked on the road of socialism "bringing into existence the socialist camp of 13 countries, including Cuba."

Now, it said, a new alliance has appeared as a reaction against revolution. Leaders of the alliance declare its purpose to be sacred and noble, Peking said, and to maintain peace and order, rectify social chaos and build freedom.

"Translated into plain language," Red Flag said, "these holy statements should read: to strangle the revolutionary movements of the oppressed people and the liberation movements of the oppressed nations, to preserve the order of imperialist and reactionary domination, and then to reinstate capitalism in the socialist countries."

Red Flag reviewed the negotiations that led to signing of the limited nuclear test ban treaty by the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union.

"Emerging from this 'acid test,' the Soviet leaders have at last

Chamber To Keep Offices In Permian Bldg.

Chamber of Commerce members at a special meeting Monday evening voted unanimously to maintain the present Chamber offices in the Permian Building.

The meeting of the general membership of the Chamber had been called by directors to determine the sentiments of Chamber members. They then acted according to the membership directive at a meeting of directors immediately following the general session.

With the present lease on quarters in the Permian Building to expire Oct. 31, Chamber directors had the alternatives of purchasing a building or continuing to lease.

A proposal which could have put the Chamber in its own building was made by Jeff Brown and Daryl E. Hohertz. They suggested that a cooperative building could be constructed at Tenth and Gregg with several business firms participating, including the Chamber, each owning a portion of the property. It could be financed 100 percent and purchased at a slightly higher monthly cost than the current lease.

As a counter proposal, Flato Realty Co., owners of the Permian Building, presented for consideration a lease for three years at slightly less than the Chamber is currently paying. At this time the Chamber is paying $208 a month, about half the normal rental, in exchange for property on which the building stands. The Chamber has had offices in the Permian Building since it was opened 10 years ago.

Angry Russians Boot Red Chinese Off Train

MOSCOW (AP)—Irate Soviet authorities have booted out the crew and Chinese passengers of the Peking-Moscow Express, charging they tried to sneak in anti-Soviet propaganda and staged a sitdown strike when the literature was seized.

The incident, which marked the Soviet Union's second charge of propaganda smuggling against the Red Chinese, occurred over the weekend at Nauski on the Soviet-Mongolian border about 2,700 miles east of Moscow.

The Soviet Foreign Ministry in a note handed to the Red Chinese Embassy accused the Chinese of trying to prevent Soviet officials from inspecting the train when it crossed the border Saturday.

The note said the Chinese locked the customs men in the train after the officials had seized literature "of a character hostile to the Soviet Union."

Refusing to continue the trip until the propaganda material was returned, the Chinese staged a sitdown strike, locked hands, blocked the entrance of office buildings and grabbed at passing Russians, the Soviets charged.

Must Be Patient With Viet Nam Policy, Says President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says the United States must pursue a policy of patience in South Viet Nam and avoid a get-tough slash in aid.

An aid cut, Kennedy said Monday night, might bring about a collapse of the Vietnamese government of Ngo Dinh Diem and open all of Southeast Asia to the threat of a Communist take-over.

The President, in a nationally televised interview on NBC's Huntley-Brinkley Report, conceded there was no easy solution to the Vietnamese problem marked by internal opposition to the Diem regime and the government's widespread arrests of Buddhists and students.

Kennedy expressed the administration viewpoint in these words: "We are using our influence to persuade the government there to take those steps which will win back support. That takes some time and we must be patient, we must persist."

Carpenter Is Club Speaker

Some 45 members of the Howard County Democratic Club Monday night heard State Representative Ed Carpenter in a discussion of the proposed reapportionment of seats in the Texas Legislature.

Frank Hardesty said Carpenter felt a reapportionment would cause West Texas Districts to lose some voice in state affairs. Hardesty added that Carpenter is interested in hearing an expression from voters on the proposed change.

Rep. Bob Eckhart of Harris County heads a group which has filed suit asking for a reapportionment of seats. Specifically, the group asks that large cities be permitted one representative for each additional 5,000 population.

Carpenter represents a seven-county area in West Texas with a total population of about 51,000. Hardesty pointed out. He said Gov. Connally may call a special session to deal with the reapportionment problem if the Eckhart group wins its suit.

Carpenter also reviewed legislation introduced at the last session. Roscoe Cone, president of the club, observed that Carpenter was pleased that all of the business was accomplished during the regular session.

"This means a saving of about $1,000,000 over the previous lengthy session," Cone added.

PLAYER OF WEEK AWARDS

McHugh And Swanson Draw Praise For Performances

A boy who scored five touchdowns and a 151-pound lineman who performed like a 190-pounder were among those who won Player of the Week certificates.

While Simmons took care of the Cardinals, Bill White took care of the Cardinals, becoming the third National League pitcher to reach the 100-RBI level by driving in three runs with a double and two singles.

ATHLETES AT FIVE HIGH SCHOOLS were honored and will be forwarded the certificates.

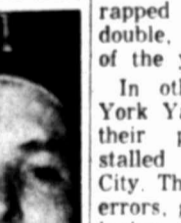

quarterback Gary Green here. Gary has come a long way since last season. He was especially effective on defense. He initiated 12 tackles and assisted on 12 others.

BACK — Johnny Swanson, 140-pound junior halfback, was singled out for his defensive play against Merkel.

PLAYERS OF WEEK — Kenneth Soles did much to help Forsan sweep the issue against Dawson. The elusive quarterback scored one of his team's five touchdowns and connected for six of seven passes, good for 68 yards.

Hall, Peters Make Bids For Honors

By JIM BECKER Associated Press Sports Writer Outfielder Jimmie Hall is making a drive for American League rookie honors with his bat. So is pitcher Gary Peters.

Twins Monday night in a 7-4 victory over Cleveland, tying the league homer record for rookies set by Ted Williams in 1939.

Hall hits good as an outfielder should, and he plays every day. Peters is pitching beautiful baseball, but he only works every fourth day.

Peters has three home runs, a triple and four doubles in his 19 hits, and has 12 RBIs. He is hitting .250.

State Sees No Guides For Reapportionment

HOUSTON (AP)—Lawyers for the state claim the legislature has no guidelines for reapportionment of Texas.

They contend in a revised answer to the federal lawsuit to force reapportionment that the legislature could not safely reapportion the state until the U.S. Supreme Court acts on similar cases now before it.

The revised answer was submitted at a pre-trial hearing Monday.

Set for trial Sept. 23, the suit ranks as one of the most significant politically for the state in some time.

If congressional representation is readjusted to present population figures, certain areas, such as Harris County, stand to gain a congressman. Some would have to be merged with other districts to keep one.

The state's answer, filed by Asst. Atty. Gen. Albert Jones, and others, also said those bringing the suit, including Harris County Republican Chairman George Bush, have not asked relief from Congress as they should. It contended the federal court has no jurisdiction in the matter.

William Cassin, a lawyer for those asking reapportionment, told a three-judge panel at the pre-trial hearing that the suit asks only that the present state law setting up congressional districts be declared unconstitutional and that state officials be enjoined from carrying out that portion of the law.

He said the court will not be asked to reapportion the state unless the legislature refuses to do so.

The suit states there has been no comprehensive congressional reapportionment since 1933 and a vote in most urban areas is worth less than in many rural areas, where a congressman serves fewer people than a congressman in an urban area.

The suit is against Gov. John Connally, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, Secretary of State Crawford Martin and others.

Lawyers for both sides agreed to certain exhibits and materials that will be admitted as evidence in the Sept. 23 trial. These include maps of congressional districts and counties as well as census figures.

Judge Joe Brown of the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals and U.S. Dist. Judges Joe Ingraham and James Noel will hear the case.

No Dice, Army—This Is One You Can't Have Yet

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Sorry, Uncle Sam. Tommy Does doesn't want to be in your Army any more. His eight days in the stockade convinced him.

Tommy had planned to enlist Sept. 23, two days after his 17th birthday.

"A buddy and I were in Kansas City, Kan.," he related. The buddy, Larry Avis, was AWOL from the Army.

"When he was ready to turn himself in, I walked him down to the police station. Larry figured he'd play a practical joke and he turned me in."

Larry and Tommy were taken to Ft. Leavenworth, then transferred to the stockade at Ft. Riley, Kan.

Larry received six months at two-thirds pay. Tommy also was charged with being AWOL from the same outfit, C Troop, 15th Cavalry, Ft. Hood, Tex.

Tommy argued he wasn't in the Army. After eight days in the stockade, officers said Ft. Hood reported no AWOL complaint.

The Army still believed Tommy was AWOL and transferred him to a special department for servicemen without a company.

Tommy walked away July 26 and hitchhiked home to Wichita.

On Aug. 28 police arrested him on traffic charges. The Army was notified and a sergeant came for Tommy.

"I told him I wasn't in the service, that I never had been in the service and that I was 16 years old. But he took me to Ft. Riley and put me back in SPD (the special unit)," Tommy said.

"They kept telling me I was in the service. Then Wednesday last week I left again and hitchhiked home. Wichita police stopped me Thursday. They thought I was in the service again."

"Finally they all got together and decided I wasn't in the service."

Tommy went to see a lawyer and learned he can't sue the government for false arrest charges.

Says Tommy: "I know one thing, boy I'm not gonna enlist this month."

FBI Checking Beating Report

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The FBI office here is investigating charges that about 20 white men—some armed and some masked—beat three visiting African students and their two white companions near Tuscaloosa, Ala., Sunday night.

The five were treated Monday at Vanderbilt University Hospital for cuts and bruises, then left for Akron, Ohio, after a four-hour talk with FBI agents and telephone conversations with representatives of the State Department and the Ghana Embassy.

"We have received a complaint and are investigating to see whether a federal law has been violated," said Edward T. Steele, FBI agent in charge. He declined to elaborate.

The Rev. W. P. Trost, pastor of the First United Church of Christ in Akron, Ohio, said he and the others were on a tour he had arranged when their car was blocked by other cars as they started to enter the main highway leading from Tuscaloosa to Birmingham.

The Negroes, all from Ghana, are Stephen Koll, 23, a student at Cornell University; Emmanuel Ransaw, 22, who attends Lakeland College in Sheboygan, Wis.; and Roland Glover, 22, of Central College, Pella, Iowa. The other white man is James Bernard Glover, 20, who attends the University of Akron, Ohio. He is not related to Roland Glover.

But Glad To Have It Back

Burglars seem to have broken into the Thrifty Food Store across the street from Big Spring High School the night of June 22. If so, Paul Hood, manager, didn't know anything about it at the time. And he wouldn't know about it now except for a letter he got in the mail Monday.

This letter, printed with a ball-point pen on ruled paper, reads: "Here is the money I took from your place June 22. I am sorry."

Hood said he is pleased to get the money back but that he didn't know it had been taken.

"We had a break-in in June or thereabouts in 1962," he said. "But this fellow seems to mean last June 22. I suppose it is possible he could have been in the store that night and taken the $2."

Naturally the letter with the two $1 bills was not signed.

Oil Output Shows Dip

TULSA (AP)—U. S. oil production dropped last week, with lower allowances for September taking effect in Louisiana and Texas, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

Average daily production was 7,477,650 barrels a day, down 70,340.

Texas production was down 26,000 barrels to 2,611,000. Louisiana output was off 38,775 to 1,428,900. Oklahoma output rose 3,600 to 534,500.

Arkansas produced 75,875. Colorado 103,300 and New Mexico 303,200.

Council Discusses Removing Meters

COLORADO CITY (SC)—Colorado City's Council is considering the removal of parking meters on Oak Street and Third Street, following a report from City Manager Ford Merritt that the meters were taking in little money.

The council told Merritt to keep a record of receipts from these meters for a month and they would consider the removal at the October meeting.

The council set Oct. 14th for the opening of bids on repair and painting of city water storage tanks, and will meet with the Mitchell County Commissioner's Council next Tuesday to discuss financing of the local Mitchell County Frontier museum, now financed by donations and Museum memberships.

Connally Urges Citizens Group To Promote Parks

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. John Connally is urging the formation of a citizens group to promote state parks programs.

Connally made the suggestion Monday after accepting a summary of a two-year, $70,000 study of state parks needs.

"I would think that it might be well that you encourage the development of a civilian arm interested in parks development," Connally told Elio Urbansovsky, head of the Texas Tech parks department, and Will Odum, chairman of the Parks and Wildlife Commission.

"This is something that over the next few years could be of tremendous benefit to the state. We actually have a selling job to do," Connally said.

Similar citizen groups promote highway and game programs before the legislature.

Connally described the Tech study as "the finest thing along this line I have ever seen."

The report suggests expenditure of $462 million in 1963-2000 to improve parks and add 373,000 acres of recreation land to the present 62,000 acres.

Allotments Failing To Control Surplus

WASHINGTON (AP)—This year's cotton crop is offering evidence of a lack of effectiveness of acreage allotments in controlling production of surplus crops.

This year's federal cotton program called for a reduction of nearly 10 per cent in plantings. The cutback was required under an allotment and marketing quota program because demand from the 1962 crop declined and surpluses increased rather sharply.

In its September cotton production report Monday, the department put the crop at 14,310,000 bales, down only 4 per cent from last year. Thus more than half of the reduction in plantings under the allotment program is being offset by an increase in the average yield of cotton per acre.

The acreage yield was forecast at 482 pounds, up 16 pounds from the previous record set in 1952.

What farmers obviously did was to plant their best acres, use more fertilizer and insecticides and improved cultivation practices.

Thus a 1963 crop which had been designed to hold production below needs so that some of the surplus might be used may instead add half a million bales to the oversupply. Domestic and export demands from the 1963-crop supply have been forecast at 13.8 million bales.

This year's cotton allotments were at the minimum permitted by law. The situation raised the question of whether the present cotton control program will be effective in the future in a regulating production, in view of technological advances in cotton production.

Technological advances already have made an old acreage allotment program ineffective for wheat.

Viet Nam's Power Lady To Visit U. S.

By The Associated Press
BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, powerful first lady of South Viet Nam, says she will visit the United States in mid-October but has no plans to attend the U. N. General Assembly session as reported earlier.

The sister-in-law of South Viet Nam's bachelor president, Ngo Dinh Diem, stopped in Bangkok briefly Monday night en route to an international parliamentary conference in Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

ALGIERS (AP)—Boistered by approval of a new constitution, Algeria's ruling party has launched a campaign to do away with the formality of elections Sunday and name Premier Ahmed Ben Bella president by acclamation.

The ruling Front of National Liberation announced the plan Monday, Ben Bella, Algeria's premier for a year, is the only candidate for the presidency.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Nikolai T. Fedorenko, Soviet ambassador to the United Nations, says his country is determined to overcome U.S. Soviet differences and cooperate in the peaceful uses of outer space.

But he said the Soviet Union still will insist that any international agreement covering space exploration bar the use of so-called spy satellites. The United States has long argued that this cannot be separated from disarmament issues.

Fedorenko addressed the opening session Monday of the U. N. Committee of peaceful uses of outer space.

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP)—The British liner Queen of Bermuda arrived Monday night reported she was buzzed by an unidentified plane and sighted mysterious buoys with radio antennae in the Atlantic.

Major Is Killed

BURNET, Tex. (AP)—Mai John Morris, 42, of Holloman AFB in New Mexico, died Monday in an auto accident. His car overturned, hit a guard rail and halted upside down 6.5 miles south of Burnet.

Supreme Court Justice, Wife Slain Near Austin Back In 1935

AUSTIN (AP)—It was a cool April evening in 1935 when Texas Supreme Court Justice William Pierson and his wife rode with their son on a lonely road north-west of Austin.

Only the son, Howard Pierson, returned.

Wounded in the arm, the brilliant young Pierson, 20, told police robbers jumped his parents and shot them to death.

He later told police he shot his parents then shot himself in the arm.

Why? To this day, no one is certain. His stories on the motive varied.

Pierson, now 49, has never been tried for murder.

LEGALLY INSANE
Six months after the April 24, 1935 slayings, Pierson was judged "legally insane."

Officials at the Rusk State Hospital told Austin police officials in June that Pierson, in their opinion, is now sane.

The hearing will determine whether Pierson should be returned to Rusk or possibly stand trial for the 1935 slayings. Indictments charging him with the murder of his father and mother are still pending.

The mild-mannered University of Texas student told Sheriff Lee Allen in 1935 that he lured his parents to a spot off Bull Creek Road on the pretense of showing them some Indian relics he had found. The site where the bodies were found is now in the midst of a big housing development.

FOR INSURANCE
The sheriff said Pierson told him the parents were killed for their $17,000 insurance.

Pierson told reporters he shot his mother and father because the son wanted to be a great scientist, but the father wanted him to be a lawyer.

The family physician said young Pierson fancied the father favored a brother, William Pierson.

At another time, young Pierson said he had a "good reason which all will understand when fully disclosed."

After entering the Austin State Hospital in late 1935, Pierson escaped in 1938. He was captured in Minneapolis in 1940. He escaped again on Dec. 9, 1952 and was recaptured in Syracuse, N.Y., on Dec. 16, 1955.

Altogether he had about five years of freedom during his escapes.

NEVER LEAVE
After his 1955 capture, Pierson said he was tired of ducking the law and would never again leave his ward at the hospital. He said he would rather live the confined life of the dangerously insane than the haunted existence of the hunted.

After his first escape, Pierson worked as a door-to-door book salesman. During the second escape, he was a porter and dishwasher from one coast to the other.

Pierson said he lived in some "cold water flats" and attended movies, people and girl friends. His life was lonely.

He was captured after going to a lawyer in Syracuse and saying he killed his parents a number of years before that. He was seized on his way to an appointment with a psychiatrist.

Three months ago Rusk hospital officials decided Pierson was medically sane.

Pierson was returned to jail here last week handcuffed and chained around his waist. He wore rimless glasses, a sport shirt, cotton pants and rubber sole shoes. A billed cap covered his thinning gray hair.

He was mild-mannered and polite but he had nothing to say.

"Are you a reporter?" Then I'd rather not say anything," was his only comment.

Pierson Sanity Hearing Opens

AUSTIN (AP)—A jury including a woman will try to decide whether Howard Pierson now is sane and should be tried for killing his parents 28 years ago.

The first witnesses were called today in a sanity hearing evoking faded memories of a sensational murder case. It took most of Monday to select the jurors.

Pierson, 49, and his wife had been confined during all but five years of the time since the roadside slayings of his father, Associate Justice William Pierson of the Texas Supreme Court, and his mother. He was a 20-year-old University of Texas student at the time.

The five years of freedom resulted from escapes in 1938 and again in 1952 from the state hospital here. Since he was recaptured in 1955, Pierson has been a patient at the Rusk State Hospital in East Texas.

Pierson bearing a bullet wound in one arm, told police he and his parents were ambushed by robbers in 1935 as he drove them to inspect some Indian relics he had found near Austin. Later he admitted killing the couple and shooting himself.

Grand jurors returned two indictments charging Pierson with murder, but he was adjudged insane and sent to the state hospital.

Officials at the Rusk institution said recently, however, that Pierson now is sane. In event the jury here agrees, Dist. Atty. Tom Blackwell said he will prosecute Pierson under the 1935 murder indictments.

Blackwell told reporters a $250,000 trust fund awaits Pierson if he is freed.

Wearing a dark blue suit, white shirt and blue tie, Pierson sat quietly as jurors were questioned. Also in the courtroom were a brother, Dr. William Pierson, retired University of Washington professor who lives in Florida, and a sister, Mrs. Harvey Thomas of San Diego, Calif. Both jotted frequent notes.

Some wisdom must thou learn from one who's wise
—Euripides

DAILY GUIDE—Another good day, but this one has a little more weight, so it would be good to seek out those who can give you aid and support, advice and compliments. Those in authority can be very helpful. Some worthwhile business can be accomplished.

By evening you may be ready for a little celebration with friendly companions. The mood is one of generous hospitality.

Labrans are just about at the end of their weeks of extra activity, so if there is something they neglected to clear out of the way, today and tomorrow are the best days for that final push. Remember that some paper work, correspondence and plans, however, must be tentative, since changes and adjustments are likely in the next few weeks.

Virgoans can be popular and feeling happy. Scorpios should be ready to go into action now and keep moving forward for a few weeks.

Tomorrow the accent is more on home and domestic interests, with added emphasis on hospitality and pleasant companionship.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, VIRGO! The big cycle, and long term one, remains to keep your personal affairs in a continuous state of turmoil. You need not let this worry you since the eventual big changes should be for the best.

However, you will have your ups and downs for several years. Watch your daily schedules and the people who come into your every day environment next month, some hidden matter could bring emotional upsets.

Next year some discipline or responsibilities come through marriage or alliances, so your individual freedom can be restricted.

Finances favorable now and through the early spring.
