DEBRIS LITTERS GALVESTON STREETS IN HURRICANE
Rosenberg monument (center) rides out 74-mile-an-hour storm winds

Hurricane Cindy Rams Into Prepared Coast

Boats, Glass Chief Damage At Galveston

GALVESTON (AP)—A few shattered plate glass windows appeared today to be the heaviest damage in Galveston from Hurricane Cindy.

The highest winds reported here were 74 m.p.h.

Streets in various sections were flooded during the night. By early morning many had drained and again filled when heavy showers came at 10 a.m.

A check with police, hospitals, the Red Cross and Civil Defense failed to turn up any report of persons injured.

A 33-foot pleasure cruiser sank at the Galveston Yacht Basin, swamped by the heavy rain.

Another boat, the 40-foot cabin cruiser Cheri, was damaged when the 102-foot sailboat Puritan broke from her moorings during the night and crashed into the smaller vessel.

The 7:30 a.m. tide was at 3.4 feet above mean sea level and falling slowly, the Weather Bureau said. The highest tide was 4.6 feet above mean sea level at 4:30 a.m.

Rain since midnight Sunday in Galveston measured 3.1 inches with almost one inch of this falling between 2 and 3 a.m. today when the strongest part of the hurricane passed Galveston.

CINDY BORES IN TOWARD TEXAS COAST
Hurricane strikes between Port Arthur, Galveston

Fishermen Won't Move

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—Die-hard fishermen kept right on taking redfish off the leeward side of the Galveston Pleasure Pier as hurricane Cindy approached the coast.

"The old Gulf's pretty rough," pier attendant Paul Grady said Monday night, "but it looks like these fishermen are going to ride out the hurricane and never miss a cast."

Extra Telephone Help Rushed In

HOUSTON (AP)—The Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. sent 125 operators to Freeport, Orange, Galveston, Texas City and Port Arthur today to help handle the increased telephone traffic as a result of Hurricane Cindy.

The operators were being brought in from Austin, San Antonio, Victoria, Corpus Christi and Lubbock.

Mobile generators were sent to the five Gulf Coast cities in case of power failure.

Storm Breaking Up As It Veers Inland

PORT ARTHUR (AP)—Hurricane Cindy slammed into the Texas coast at 8 a.m. today with winds of 80 miles an hour and then began disintegrating as it moved inland.

Cindy, third hurricane of the year and the only one that has reached the mainland, hurled high winds and tides at the Texas and Louisiana coast all night. The hurricane sprang up quickly and unexpectedly Monday and diminished as rapidly today.

The ill-defined eye crossed the coast between Galveston and Port Arthur.

Less than an hour later, Civil Defense authorities in the Port Arthur-Beaumont-Orange area told refugees to go home.

The authorities said damage was minor, although considerable loss to the pecan crop appeared certain.

13,000 FLEE

An estimated 13,000 persons—most of them in Cameron Parish, La., fled ahead of the storm, as a half million did ahead of Hurricane Carla two years ago this week. Carla killed 34 and did $500,000 damage.

The Cameron evacuation was spurred by memories of Hurricane Audrey in 1957 when more than 500 died in that low-lying section which was battered by monumental tides.

Civil Defense authorities in the Port Arthur-Beaumont-Orange triangle said at 8:45 a.m. that the only thing keeping residents from returning home was lack of inclination to fight winds and rains.

"There is no major damage or flooding of homes anywhere so far as we know," said Civil Defense authorities. State police said the same thing.

NOT AS MUCH

Deputy Sheriff Carl Reon said at Cameron, La., that Cindy failed to bring as much rain or as high tides as had been expected. He said water didn't get into Main Street this time — and two years ago, during Carla, the street was navigable by motor boat. But Reon said he did not want refugees to return to Cameron until Cindy had moved well inland.

In addition to the estimated 10,000 who fled Cameron Parish, Port Arthur sheltered 1,500 refugees, Beaumont 525 and Galveston 1,078, Civil Defense authorities said.

At least five boats were reported in trouble at one time or another in the Gulf of Mexico during the storm.

Weathermen predicted that rains as great as 10 inches would fall as a result of the hurricane. Strong winds spread out 100 miles from the eye.

DISORGANIZED

The Weather Bureau described the hurricane's eye as poorly defined with the entire hurricane disorganized.

The storm sprang up suddenly in the Gulf of Mexico yesterday and did not reach the power of a hurricane until late afternoon.

During the night Cindy turned slightly to the west after first aiming at Sabine Pass which separates Louisiana and Texas.

At Port Arthur, about 530 persons sought refuge in Edison Junior High School.

The Lambert family was among them. They prayed.

"We came here just to be safe," said Mrs. L. A. Lambert as she looked up from her rosary. With her were her husband, both their mothers, their child and her husband's brother.

The town of Cameron, La., was sealed off as rising tides covered the only highways leading inland.

It was in Cameron and surrounding Cameron Parish that more than 500 died in Hurricane Audrey in 1957.

The 10,000 residents of the parish moved inland, most to Lake Charles and Sulphur.

THREE MISSING

At least three persons were missing on boats off the parish.

Twenty-six men, trapped by the sudden forming of the storm, rode out the winds and battering waves on two offshore oil well drilling rigs. Crewmen on one rig reported 30-foot waves and 55 mile-per-hour winds.

Lake Charles Mayor Alfred Roberts declared his city in a state of emergency and said it was prepared to feed up to 10,000 refugees.

Salvation Army and other relief agencies moved in.

Port Arthur's 20,000 population boarded up, taped windows and sandbagged to reduce damage.

Mrs. Walter Sumner, a Civil Defense worker, said 1,500 refugees were in 10 shelters in Port Arthur and another 325 in shelters in nearby Beaumont.

SEEK RESCUE

The Coast Guard at Galveston reported four shrimp fishing vessels in need of help but not sinking. The Coast Guard said two 100-foot cutters from south of Freeport will seek to rescue the boats.

Waves roared at the Galveston seawall, erected after up to 6,000 persons perished in a great hurricane in 1900.

Boats which could do so sought shelter in harbors. At one time, nine boats were trying to reach Port Arthur. The Coast Guard helped six of them find channels in the abnormally high water. The other three were believed to have headed for Galveston.

The Port of Houston shut down to ride out the storm.

Two men were rescued from the fishing vessel Cathy and Barney, after it caught fire and went adrift 50 miles offshore from Morgan City, La.

The suddenness with which Cindy sprang up gave Cameron residents little time to collect belongings or hatten down their homes and stores.

"Just go inland and go quickly," warned deputies and Civil Defense workers.

It was this same week two years ago that Hurricane Carla — which weathermen call the most intense in modern history, struck the Texas coast a little south of Cindy's entrance point.

Carla took 34 lives — a half million to safety ahead of the storm — and caused property loss of $500 million.

BOMBING AFTERMATH

Negroes Mapping March On Wallace

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Birmingham Negroes incensed over the bombing deaths of four of their children plan to march on Montgomery to lay directly before Gov. George C. Wallace their feeling that he is to blame for the slayings.

At their first gathering since the Sunday morning dynamite blast, an estimated 1,200 Negroes took a unanimous standing vote Monday night to endorse a march on the state house.

The vote came after three integration leaders called for non-violence and accused Wallace of causing the racial tension that led to the dynamiting of the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church. No date for the march was set.

An afternoon funeral service for Carol Robertson, 14, one of the four girls killed by the blast, was scheduled at St. John's African Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth told the rally that mass services for the other three victims will be held Wednesday afternoon at the Sixth Avenue South Baptist Church—where the rally was held. The three were Denise McNair, 11, and Addie Mae Collins and Cynthia Wesley, both 14.

FEDERAL POWER

Negro leaders here and around the nation called for use of more federal power in Birmingham, but a government source in Washington said there was no legal basis to put additional troops in the city now. There are 300 federalized National Guardsmen on alert here.

Sheriff Melvin Bailey said two white teen-agers were arrested on an open charge in the slaying of one of two Negro boys shot to death a few hours after the dynamite blast.

City police said the other youth was killed when they fired buckshot at fleeing Negroes after a rock-throwing incident.

In Washington, President Kennedy expressed "a deep sense of outrage and grief" over the bombing and called on all Americans to put aside prejudices and to unite in working for justice and peace.

"Words and actions" of Wallace and the segregation system caused the Sunday deaths, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said at the rally.

DEFY LAW

He said Wallace "had allowed himself to defy the law of the land and to deal with Negro citizens in Alabama as if they didn't live in the state."

The governor declined comment on the proposed march on the state capitol and on King's accusation. He had said earlier he deplored the bombing and hoped the perpetrators would be caught.

They have not been caught. Neither have the persons who staged 21 other bombings in the past eight years.

FBI bomb experts continued to sift through evidence at the church for clues.

Another investigation is under way by a federal grand jury, ordered by U.S. Dist. Judge Clarence William Allgood to look into possible interference with federal court school integration orders.

THREE SCHOOLS

The city's first week of public school integration preceded the church bombing and resulted in boycotts and demonstrations by some of the white students of the three schools entered by five Negroes. Some adults also were involved in the first demonstrations.

Birmingham citizens are reminded of the bombing by church bells tolling at noon each day this week.

Businessmen had another reminder of the racial climate — slipping sales throughout the area.

"People put off shopping trips," one businessman said. They are concerned about their children — it goes deeper than just downtown Birmingham — it affects every phase of the business, social and civic life of the community."

80 PER CENT

Another merchant said business is about 80 per cent of normal.

There is a breakdown of law and order in Birmingham and we need the power of the United States," said Shuttlesworth, an official of the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights, in addressing the rally.

The Rev. Ralph Abernathy, treasurer of King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said at the meeting that "if the federal government had done its job, Gov. Wallace would be in jail right now" and the church would not have been bombed.

Another call for federal action came from James B. Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality. From San Francisco, he wired President Kennedy to send federal marshals to protect Birmingham residents.

"We have no confidence in the state marshals," he said. "They showed their stripes before."

Local Woman Dies In Crash

Mrs. Gerald P. Collins, 909 Abrams, wife of a Webb Air Force Base airman, was killed in an automobile accident Sunday near Klamath Falls, Ore. Her husband, Airman 1C Gerald P. Collins, 2560th Organizational Maintenance Squadron, and a son, Gary Lee Collins, 3, were critically injured.

Two other children, Martin A. Collins, 3, and Sheri Lee, Gary Lee's twin sister, were not injured.

The Collins family was on a trip, during his 30-day furlough. They left Big Spring Aug. 29.

Airman Collins is the son of Elmer H. Collins, Sebastopol, Calif., and Bernice Estelle Bodi, of Santa Rosa, Calif.

Webb AFB officials said no other information was available today.

Student Nurses Begin Instruction

Just under a year ago 17 student nurses from Odessa Junior College completed the first student nurse training program to be conducted at the Big Spring State Hospital. It was so successful that the school and hospital agreed to a repeat performance.

Another such class of students today began orientation for the psychiatric portion of their instruction. In this class there are 20 students, including former Big Springers Ina Richardson and Helen Muskardin. They will commute by bus to Big Spring each Tuesday and Thursday for the next nine weeks.

After a two-day orientation, each student will be assigned to a ward. The student will work with a single patient as much as possible, keeping a history of the experience for classroom purposes. Also, they will receive lectures in almost every phase of treatment for mental illness.

Today's program includes welcome by Dr. Preston Harrison, hospital superintendent, and discussion of legal considerations by Desmond Powell. Other speakers are Dr. Frankie Williams, clinical director; H. F. Montgomery, personnel director; Mrs. Hila Weatherly, volunteer coordinator; Mrs. Otillie Jolley, director of nursing; and Dorothea Baldwin, head of occupational therapy.

Other students in the class are Martha Adkins, Vonnell Boyd, Vicki Breneman, Darline Byford, Mildred Cole, Hannah Cooper, Era Hammond, Wanda Lary, Pearl Phillips, Margie Reece, Gertrude Reiser, Mary Robinson, Frances Sinclair, Carolyn Tanis, Beverly Palmer, Wanda Williams, Dorothea Wright and Loretta Young.

Instructors are Mrs. Beatrice Caruth and Mrs. Frances Sanders.

HCJC COUNT FOR SESSION HITS RECORD

Howard County Junior College, which Monday broke the 800 mark for the first time, continued to add students today.

Tuesday morning Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, said 840 students had signed for college credit courses. Seventeen registered during the day Monday and nine in the evening, making a gain of 26 students for the day. There were still others signing Tuesday for classes. Enrollment continues through Saturday.

Of the total, 415 are fulltime students, a 24 per cent increase over last year. Webb AFB enrollees now total 220, and it is possible other airmen and officers will sign for college work.

Every classroom is being put to use, said Dr. Hunt, and there is hardly a time of the day or evening that all are not in use.

The rate of gain is much sharper than anticipated. Some increase had been expected, he said, but the big jump was in prospect next year.

DESPITE THAW

Trouble Brews In Africa As Session Opens For U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The thaw in Soviet-Western relations heartened delegates of 111 member states convening to open the 18th General Assembly today but trouble brewed over white rule in Africa.

Diplomats were expected to press demands during the 3-month session to follow up the limited nuclear test ban treaty with further steps in easing East-West tensions.

Many kept an ear cocked for rumblings over racial strife in Africa.

The 32 African delegations have made plain they will concentrate their fire on the racial and colonial policies of South Africa and Portugal with demands for an economic boycott and renewed attempts to split both nations from the world forum.

Britain also will be the target for Asian-African charges that it is supporting a white government in Rhodesia at the expense of the mainly black population.

The South Viet Nam government's struggle with the nation's Buddhists also is expected to touch off fireworks.

The United States said it will support a demand by 14 Asian-African nations for General Assembly debate on their charges that President Ngo Dinh Diem has suppressed Buddhist rights in South Viet Nam.

Normally the question would be aired first in the social committee which deals with human rights, but the Asian-African want a direct full-dress assembly debate.

Main attraction of the opening week will be the appearance of President Kennedy who is scheduled to deliver the U.S. policy speech Friday.

It will be Kennedy's first appearance before the assembly since 1961. A diplomatic luncheon has been arranged for him and Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson by Secretary-General U. Thant. Kennedy is not expected to confer privately with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko or any other diplomats during his brief stay in New York.

Gromyko, head of the Soviet U.N. delegation, is expected to give his government's policy statement Thursday.

Paralleling the session will be talks opening next week between Gromyko, and Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home.

Gromyko has demanded that the world work toward a German peace treaty guaranteeing independence for West Berlin. He has also called for withdrawal of foreign troops from South Viet Nam and South Korea. The assembly faces a provisional agenda of 81 items with word that the Africans will add two more calling for equal distribution of seats on the Security Council and enlargement of the General Committee.

UF Launches Drive Monday

First of the big rockets in this year's United Fund campaign will be fired Monday morning.

It will be launch day for the Employees' Division—one which is getting special attention this year as an earnest appeal is made to get all working people to help carry a small share of this community undertaking.

John R. Taylor, head of the division, has volunteers working to bring out all employers of five or more people to a breakfast session Monday at 7 a.m. at the Settles Hotel. There they will be urged to enlist their own people in a monthly pledge plan, using payroll deductions whenever possible.

"We think the whole secret of success in this year's program rests in this great division, which reaches so many people," said Jack V. Smith, general campaign chairman.

"We are asking merely that people of moderate wage and salary set aside about seven or eight cents a month per agency for the 13 organizations which derive operational money from the United Fund. It seems that no good citizen blessed with a job would want to do less. If every person would just accept this small share, we would have our drive over in a few days."

Taylor said he is hoping for a big turnout Monday morning. "We want to demonstrate to employers that the message of this one-time gift ought to go to all the people in the community. That is the way the job gets done."

WHERE ELSE?

"The idea of restoring primitive Christianity is of utmost importance." Thank you for this good statement, Mr. H., in your letter to me. Christianity as presented in the New Testament is pure and perfect. What we usually see today is a corruption of Christianity. The Scriptures were given to guide us (II Tim. 3:16, 17), and we need to get back to the Bible to primitive Christianity, to the New Testament church. This is the plea being made by churches of Christ in your country. I assume you refer to that plea made prominent in the 19th Century to speak where the Bible speaks and be silent where the Bible is silent; to be Christians only, and only Christians. I ask you: If not in the churches of Christ, where will you find these biblical ideas upheld today? By T. H. Tarbet, preacher, church of Christ, 3800 West Highway 86, where you are always welcome. —Advt.

Defense Race Order Blasted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Carl Vinson, powerful chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, accused Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara today of seeking to make servicemen into political agents in the fight against racial discrimination. Vinson, a Georgia Democrat, announced he has introduced legislation that would make it a court-martial offense for military men to use the powers McNamara gave them July 26 in a move to combat any discrimination against servicemen.

Retail Sales In Spotlight

NEW YORK (AP) — Retail sales will command the center of the stage the rest of this month and the first half of October. How much consumers buy, and especially what they buy, will give a strong clue to the strength of the current economic upturn. Unexpectedly high personal spending helped moderate the last recession. Revival of "rushes of durable goods, particularly big ticket ones, such as household appliances, give the present upturn a new lease on life when it seemed to be faltering a year ago.

Auto and appliance sales have been unusually strong for several months. At the moment car sales may be turning weak, while the makers are bringing out the new models. How these catch on should be apparent next month. Appliance sales have close ties with home building. Construction of housing units, especially apartments, has been strong this year.

Morocco Bases Being Evacuated

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—Crews are packing up equipment at U.S. military bases in Morocco, once a vital part of America's nuclear deterrent.

Under agreement, the U.S. Air Force will surrender three giant bases which cost more than $500 million. All Strategic Air Command planes have left the bases. Of the 15,000 men originally manning the installations, 1,000 remain to head over the bases to the Moroccan after 12 years of American presence.

The scheduled handover is Dec. 31.

The fate of the naval base at Kenitra (formerly Port Lyautey) has not been decided. The United States would like to maintain a weather, signal and rescue station there. The Moroccans are reported inclined to agree, limiting American personnel to 1,500.

ARMY UNITS

Moroccan army units have taken over most installations at Kenitra, which the U.S. Navy has used since 1942.

Evacuation of the bases stems from an agreement between former President Eisenhower and Morocco's late King Mohammed VI in 1959. A desire to rid the country of all signs of foreign interference brought Moroccan pressure on the United States.

The bases were built when Morocco was under French rule.

The evacuation illustrates how new African nations risk economic hardship rather than bear foreign presence. The bases provided $30 million a year for Morocco and employed 8,000 Moroccans who, in turn, fed perhaps $50 million a year.

The bases were factors prompting American aid to Morocco of the $50 million a year $150 MILLION.

Evacuation became an issue in November, 1958 when the late king publicly demanded it.

U.S. units in the country helped Morocco during natural disasters such as the 1960 Agadir earthquake and periodic floods.

U.S. helicopters have flown countless mercy missions. There were gifts of blankets, clothing, wheat, various foodstuffs.

None of this seemed to affect the Moroccan attitude. When American sailors and marines rushed to Agadir, the Moroccan press repeated demands for evacuation of bases.

NO REGRETS

Today there are no official regrets. Occasionally Moroccans who are losing jobs tend to complain that "Americans again are leaving us in a lurch."

The United States pledged to surrender the bases in "working condition."

The United States also formally pledged to help Morocco reconstruct the bases. Nothing concrete has been done.

The Ben Slimane base was given up two years ago. The Moroccans first turned it over to a Soviet Air Force team which delivered a gift of MIG jet fighters. Later, the MIGs were moved to Meknes in Central Morocco and the base gradually deteriorated.

Officially, vague plans exist for conversion of the three air force bases to be handed over this year.

HUGE AIRPORT

Many Moroccans would like to see the biggest—Nouassour—become a huge airport serving adjacent Casablanca.

The government would like to convert the Ben Guerir base between Casablanca and Marrakech into a tourist center for a tuberculosis sanatorium.

The third base at Sidi Slimane is supposed to become a canning factory for the sugar refinery built nearby by Polish technicians. But the refinery was built to Polish specifications and proved unsuitable. No sugar has been refined.

Outside the commercial factor, there seem to be few regrets at the Americans' departure.

New Frontier Look To Arrive If Wilson's Laborites Triumph

LONDON (AP)—If Harold Wilson becomes prime minister his Labor government will have a "New Frontier" look.

"We're all tired of seeing this country pushed around," Wilson has proclaimed. "We need to get Britain firing again on all six cylinders, instead of idling on two or three."

This is similar to President Kennedy's tack in his 1960 campaign. Wilson admires Kennedy.

Wilson, who is 47, has shaped a "shadow Cabinet" which would form the core of a Labor administration if Harold Macmillan's Tories are beaten. About 45 party topnotchers in all are being groomed for other posts in a government that needs 70 ministers and deputies.

MIDDLE-ROAD

Collectively Labor's team presents an image of middle-road respectability, with little of the fiery Socialist radicalism of their crusading, yesterdays. Individually, the leaders give an impression of technical competence and high intellectual achievement. Their whole emphasis, in the pre-election period at least, is moderation. The election must come by October 1964, but could be called earlier by Macmillan.

Wilson, dogged by a leftist reputation, has perched himself warily on the point of balance between the party's left and right. On the explosive issue of nationalization, which still divides Britons, Wilson displayed his balancing ability in a February broadcast:

STEEL INDUSTRY

"We shall have to expand publicly owned industry. We're going to renationalize steel. We're not afraid to propose the creation of new publicly owned industries based on scientific discoveries."

This suggests he is interested more in establishing growth points in public industry than in nationalizing 100 or so private firms as Tories charge. He indicates the state might finance and launch new pilot industries which perhaps would be too costly for private companies to finance.

LONG-DISTANCE

Labor supporters argue that in the world of Kennedy, Khrushchev and De Gaulle, Wilson's intellect, experience and background qualify him to lead. He knows the loneliness of the long-distance runner from his own track days at Oxford as well as from his 18 years as a member of Parliament. In public he stresses his ordinary origins and tastes. He prefers beer to champagne.

Wilson has seen to it that Labor's right, left and center have places in the party's high command. Five key men flank him. They are right wingers George

Clothes Pose Postal Issue

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—The Mobile post office ran into a problem when it added two women to its staff of city mail carriers Monday. Supt. John Dickens said the problem was the question of clothes for the ladies.

"We haven't decided on uniforms for them," he said. "For the time being we are just requiring them to wear hats. The government gives $100 a year clothing allowance, but how this will suit a feminine wardrobe, I just don't know."

Dickens said Katherine Warren, a mother of two and Vivian McDonald, a grandmother of seven, would receive no special privileges.

"We hire our carriers because they can do the job," he said. "The women completed all requirements of a carrier, including handling a 2½-ton mail truck."

Wheat Sales Show Gleam

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials see some grains of sunshine in Canada's sale of $500 million worth of wheat to the Soviet Union.

They believe the deal—the biggest commercial wheat transaction in history—will brighten prospects for larger U.S. wheat sales abroad and dramatize Communist farm failures.

Under the agreement announced in Ottawa Monday, Canada will sell Russia 228 million bushels of wheat over the next 10½ months.

Part of the deal involves shipment of $33 million of the wheat directly to Cuba.

Sen Kenneth Keating, R-N.Y., termed this "a shocking breach" of Western Hemisphere efforts to isolate the Castro regime and called for a strong U.S. protest.

Kennedy administration sources indicated, however, that Washington would not lodge a complaint. They said Canada had informed the United States of the agreement shortly before it was signed.

The United States raised questions about the Cuba shipments but Canada said Russia had made them a necessary condition to the transaction.

U.S. diplomats were not protesting because Washington's own embargo does not forbid selling food or medicines to Cuba.

Traditionally Russia has been an exporter of wheat and Premier Khrushchev even boasted that the Soviet Union's agriculture would overtake that of the United States by 1963.

The explanation from the Kremlin for the big order of wheat was that bad weather had hurt this year's crop.

Abduction, Race Futile For Bandit

KIRBYVILLE, Tex. (AP)—What started out to be merely a small food store holdup turned into a brief abduction and a roaring highway chase.

At nearby Pine Grove, a holdup man took $60 from Mrs. Eloise Denham, grabbed her son Donnie, 14, as hostage, and fled.

She quickly called her husband, O. Denham, who seized his shotgun, jumped into a car and overtook the bandit 5 miles outside Kirbyville, forcing him to a roadside halt.

The fleeing man countered by holding a pistol to Donnie's head and ordering Denham to drop his shotgun and walk into a wooded area. At the robber's command, Donnie retrieved his father's gun and car keys, then followed the elder Denham on foot.

But the bandit didn't get away after all. A state patrolman intercepted him soon afterward and the holdup man rolled his car over in a high speed chase.

He was held in the Newton County jail.

DEAR ABBY

And How Do YOU Look?

DEAR ABBY: I know what THINNER AND Madder is going through. I lost 45 pounds in the last six months and I feel better and look younger and prettier for it. Everyone I know tells me how great I look—except one person. She insists that I don't look like myself, and that she preferred the old fat me! Incidentally, her husband is one of those who complimented me. Well, this woman who preferred the old fat me recently got contact lenses, so when I saw her, I told her she didn't look like herself and that I preferred the "old bespectacled her!" She got the message, and now she isn't speaking to me any more. I don't feel that I've lost a friend—I just showed her up for the jealous cat she was.

THIN AND HAPPY

DEAR THIN AND HAPPY: If you wanted the last laugh, you got it, but people who fight fire with fire eventually make ashes of themselves.

DEAR ABBY: I am almost 16 years old and have been wanting a private telephone in my bedroom ever since I was 12. My mother keeps using the excuse that she doesn't have the money. Well, my boy friend told me that he would put the telephone in my room as a gift, and he would also pay my telephone bill every month. Now my mother says that I still can't have it, but she won't give me a reason. Do you think that's fair? What can I do about it?

WANTS A PHONE

DEAR WANTS: There is more than a telephone involved here. Tell your boy friend you appreciate his generosity, but you aren't allowed to accept such costly gifts.

DEAR ABBY: What is the right thing to do in this situation? We had planned for over a month to put supper together at a friend's house on a certain evening. That

A Devotional For The Day

"Come to me all ye labouring and burdened and I will refresh you." (Matthew 11:28. MOFFATT.)

(From The 'Upper Room')

Challenge Under Great Pressure

The insane act of dynamiting a Negro church and killing four children gathered for Sunday School has set a fuse spewing in Birmingham, Ala. This is the sort of thing that can bring only revulsion among reasonable persons.

Leadership, both white and colored, face a tremendous challenge under conditions of great pressure. Responsible people should encourage and support them, and agitators in both camps should be ignored and discouraged.

Discipline Rather Than A Platform

Outspoken former President Harry Truman left mouths agape at a Democratic rally when he tore into busybodies for adding to the racial turmoil.

This is, of course, an over-simplification in language few will misunderstand, but it does underline the principle of teaching discipline. Apparently the young people missed that lesson in deliberately ignoring the laws of this land.

Around The Rim The Days Of Faultless Starch Books

Rummaging through the kitchen cabinet out at our house the other day I came across two small sample boxes of Faultless starch.

on hand and the number of youthful raiders lined up on the other side of the counter.

IT REVIVED memories of the wild searches we kids used to make from time to time. I wonder what became of those small classics of my childhood.

SINCE THE TOWN was not very big and the number of grocery stores relatively few we had only a limited territory to cover.

THE STARCH BOOKS, contrary to what I have read in other places, did not come inside the individual boxes of starch.

THE BOOKS had a pungent starchy smell and the covers were in various shades of gray, green, brown and black.

"YOU GOT ANY STARCH books, mister?" we would ask plaintively.

I wonder where the countless thousands of these booklets that company sent out have gone? A set of the little books would almost be a museum piece now.

FOR THIS NUGGET of news I am indebted to Radio Liberty, the excellent American organization whose round-the-clock broadcasts carry news and views of the West into Soviet homes in both European and Asiatic Russia.

THREE POWERFUL stations — one in Germany, one in Spain and one in Formosa — carry the outside world into the Soviets where Izvestia estimates that 150,000,000 citizens daily tune in on radio.

NEVERtheless, improved Russian-Western relations have their own dangers for the Western allies.

THE RADIO LIBERTY staff includes more than 200 former Soviet citizens who have escaped to the West.

It was almost as if the Senator were giving his own blessing to the kind of world in which Khrushchev once warned that all our grandchildren would live — the world which Communist call socialism.

LASTING GOOD

By Halvard T. Hansen, D.C.

One of the most important things to look forward to in Chiropractic Service is its "lasting good." This factor alone is sufficient proof to indicate chiropractic deals with the direct cause of ill health and specifically with sickness. It is sufficient to promote interest of any person who is in bad health. One should consider chiropractic upon the immediate onset of sickness, so that the nerve pressures and irritations are removed before organic and structural changes occur in weakened tissues.

The response is quicker and I find that the patients who complete the required chiropractic service continue to enjoy good health. It is the "lasting good" in our service that makes possible our comprehensive schedule.

All vital organs of the body function because of their nerve supply. This nerve supply often becomes corrupted when the spine becomes injured or any of its bones displaced. Such displacements may alter the nerve supply to the vital organs, upset their regularity of function and cause countless ailments.

Note this case, well over three years since examination and treatment: she came in complaining first of her neck and shoulders and very low back, vertigo (dizziness) leg and foot discomfort, monthly periods and head disorder. She had been treated before but still her troubles continued. We examined her and the X-ray showed areas of spinal disorder. Treatment was commenced and now—over three years later, she is well and her complaints are a thing of the past. No 794.

You too might be a chiropractic case and if, so only spinal correction will get you well. Call the Hansen Chiropractic Clinic across from Piggly Wiggly for an appointment — AM 3-3324. —adv.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

by Heloise Cruse

Dear Heloise:

Iron-on name tapes can be easily made by typing the names and addresses on a strip of iron-on tape . . . then cutting to the proper size. If you have quite a dark ribbon on your typewriter the labels will wear through many a wash. They may be sewn on or ironed on.

Mrs. Harold Murray

Mothers: If you don't have a typewriter, try using ball-point ink or indelible pencil. Great!

HELOISE

Dear Heloise:

Our home is an old house that has been restored. The walls and bathroom give us lots of trouble. Our bathroom walls were plaster and had cracked noticeably. They needed patching and painting.

A few months ago I covered the walls, ceiling, and even the medicine cabinet and window sill with contact paper. It completely covered all of the cracks and patches. Furthermore, we no longer have to look "forward" to painting each year!

If women cannot afford to do the entire bathroom at one time, they could cover the walls and later when the budget allows, do the ceiling. All this requires is a wiping with a moist sponge.

Mrs. David Bradley

Dear Heloise:

I always used to hate to wash my breadbox because those bread crumbs just seemed to stick in the corners . . . One day I used the vacuum cleaner attachment to suck up all the bread crumbs before washing the breadbox. Believe me, it works. Try it when your vacuum is on. Saves time.

Mrs. M. W.

Dear Heloise:

Next time you make a meat loaf, cheat . . . just a little bit!

If you have an empty frozen juice can, stuff it with a little of that extra meat loaf, and cook along with your regular meat loaf. This may be put in your deep freeze after cooling or will keep in your refrigerator for a couple of days.

It is really cute for parties, Sunday night snacks or to put on top of crackers when company drops in! It may be served cold or reheated. Nice for lunch boxes, too. Helena.

Vada Beien

Dear Heloise:

After you have finished knitting a sweater, afghan, or anything that has to be put together, instead of using regular pins, try the long plastic pins we are using these days with our hair rollers! I also find these plastic pins handy when working with net or any loosely woven material. They are nice and long, do not come out of the material, and best of all . . . no finger pricks.

Dear Heloise:

I save all the wax from the top of my homemade jams and jellies. I put these pieces in a fruit jar filled with water. This soaks off anything that might have stuck to them.

When the time comes around to make jelly again I melt this down, heat it to the boiling point (thus sterilizing it completely) and use it to cap jars of jelly over and over and over.

RULES FOR REPORTING

Are you among those chosen ones to serve this year as club reporters? Then you will be in contact with the Big Spring Herald for the ensuing club year and will be interested in the essentials of good reporting.

The first rule to follow in making out a report is that of the five Ws—who, what, when, where and why. Give the name of the organization or club, what it did, when it met, where and why. This information must be complete and accurate.

Every meeting is held for a purpose and this purpose should be the feature of the story. Only the highlights of a program need be mentioned and in the order of importance, rather than in the order included in the program.

Names of everyone taking part in the meeting and on the program should be given in full. If married, a woman's name should be given with her husband's name or initials—Mrs. John Jones; if widowed, her husband's name or initials are used—Mrs. John Jones; if divorced, the husband's name is dropped and the given name used—Mrs. Jane Jones; and if single, the status should be so designated—Miss Jane Jones. Proper spelling is important. Make certain of correct spelling before calling in or mailing a report.

ABWA MEETS

Rules To Live By Set Forth In Talk

Three rules were cited by Perry Cotham, minister of the Church of Christ, when he spoke to members of Cactus Chapter, American Business Women's Association, Monday evening. The program was held at the Settles Hotel for the initiation of four new members. Mrs. Darwin Webb, Mrs. E. L. Hansen, Miss Karen Mallon and Mrs. Travis Denton, who was reinstated.

The rules set forth by the minister were the Iron Rule—might is right; the Silver Rule—one of self seeking; and the Golden Rule—showing concern for others. He said that women in business should ask themselves each day, "Which rule was practiced predominantly with others today?"

In presenting his topic, "Religion in Business," Cotham first asked, "Why shouldn't we strive to apply Christianity to our everyday lives in business, as elsewhere?"

Twenty members were present in addition to visitors from the ABWA chapter at Snyder who were Miss Dawn Wells, Mrs. J. T. Hughes, Mrs. W. G. Teaff and Mrs. W. G. Carey.

Marriage Is Told

The marriage of Miss Nora Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fox, 904 Abrams, and Clifton Eugene Woodard, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Woodard, Decatur, Ala., was solemnized Saturday at 8:30 p.m. The ceremony was performed in the East Fourth Baptist Church by the Rev. Jack Strickland.

Yellow and bronze mums were used in altar arrangements, forming a background for the nuptial rites. A program of traditional music was provided by Miss Jan Curry, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a day dress of eggshell knit and blue accessories. Her corsage was blue and white carnations.

Dressed in blue, Miss Linda Baham served as maid of honor. Her corsage was white carnations. The bridegroom was attended by Ray Carrier, best man.

A reception was held afterward in the home of the bride's parents. The lace covered refreshment table featured the three tiered wedding cake which was frosted white and embellished with pink flowers. The bridal figurines were placed on top.

The couple is now at home at the Shick Apartments, West Sixth St. The bride is a junior at Big Spring High School, and the bridegroom, a graduate of Decatur High School, is an airman second class at Webb Air Force Base.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

There couldn't have been a more beautiful time of year to open the First National Bank from the standpoint of coordinating the decor in the building with seasonal flowers. Well, a wish granted with the work of local florists who really outdid themselves in giant displays of golden yellow, white and bronze chrysanthemums, as well as many other selections of roses in lavish creations. Everything blended perfectly right down to the dresses worn by officers and directors wives and other feminine members of the reception group.

With all the modern woods, furniture, drapes and office machinery throughout the building, there was a touch of sentimentality in the offices of HORACE GABRETT where, in a place of honor, is an oak table and an arm chair that were the property of his late grandmother, MRS. DORA ROBERTS.

MR. and MRS. DON LESTER and their children, Cindy, Linda and Tony Frank, returned late Sunday from Austin where most of Mrs. Clark's family gathered to welcome home MRS. WILMA CLARK who has just returned to the states after a trip around the world.

The meeting of the family was in the home of MR. and MRS. CHARLES CLARK. Another son, GEORGE, and his wife and baby were up from Shreveport, La.

Mrs. Clark has been overseas for a year and visited in Japan, Korea, Hong Kong and India. She spent Easter in the Holy Land and later was in Greece and Yugoslavia. She plans to return here in about 10 days.

We missed the Pep Squad at the football game Friday night. There's nothing like an organized group to get the word over, and we like the feeling of unity in a high school effort. Some girls take part in the pep group that do not enter into the activities. And how come only one drum majorette? She's good, but surely more than one of our talented girls can qualify.

MRS. C. M. WILKERSON and family have as their guests, MR. and MRS. ED WILKERSON of Nashville, Tenn. The Wilkersons' son-in-law is Gordon Stocker of the Jordanaires whose recordings with Elvis Presley are familiar to many. The couple will leave tomorrow to return to Tennessee.

MR. and MRS. RAD WARE are in Dallas where Monday he underwent surgery on his right eye for a detached retina. This is the third operation he has had on his right eye, plus one on his left eye. It will be several days before his doctors at St. Paul's Hospital will know if the operation was successful. His room number is D-633, and Mrs. Ware is staying at Travelodge, Room 114.

LASTING GOOD

By Halvard T. Hansen, D.C.

One of the most important things to look forward to in Chiropractic Service is its "lasting good." This factor alone is sufficient proof to indicate chiropractic deals with the direct cause of ill health and specifically with sickness. It is sufficient to promote interest of any person who is in bad health. One should consider chiropractic upon the immediate onset of sickness, so that the nerve pressures and irritations are removed before organic and structural changes occur in weakened tissues.

The response is quicker and I find that the patients who complete the required chiropractic service continue to enjoy good health. It is the "lasting good" in our service that makes possible our comprehensive schedule.

All vital organs of the body function because of their nerve supply. This nerve supply often becomes corrupted when the spine becomes injured or any of its bones displaced. Such displacements may alter the nerve supply to the vital organs, upset their regularity of function and cause countless ailments.

Note this case, well over three years since examination and treatment: she came in complaining first of her neck and shoulders and very low back, vertigo (dizziness) leg and foot discomfort, monthly periods and head disorder. She had been treated before but still her troubles continued. We examined her and the X-ray showed areas of spinal disorder. Treatment was commenced and now—over three years later, she is well and her complaints are a thing of the past. No 794.

You too might be a chiropractic case and if, so only spinal correction will get you well. Call the Hansen Chiropractic Clinic across from Piggly Wiggly for an appointment — AM 3-3324. —adv.

All's Well In Fourth Day For Quintuplets

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP) — The Fischer quintuplets went into their fourth day at 3 a. m. today breathing easily and with reported good color.

Dr. James Berbos, who delivered the four girls and a boy between 1 and 3 a. m. Saturday, had termed the first 72 hours crucial. He left St. Luke's Hospital shortly before midnight, apparently satisfied his charges were doing well.

He cautioned that the premature quints born to Mary Ann Fischer, 30, still could have hurdles, saying, "There's no magic number for any danger period. It just depends on their day-to-day condition."

The quints took their first formula Monday—about a teaspoon of artificial milk every two hours—and were reported to be assimilating it well.

FULL NAMES

The babies also got their full names and an array of gifts informally assessed at more than $35,000.

Their mother had her first meeting with newsmen since the births, and told three photographers Monday night, "I feel fine and they were picking Catherine in my honor, I'm very proud."

The quints were deluged with gifts, ranging from diaper service to college scholarships.

The offers included a four-year scholarship for James Andrew to St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia, scholarships to all five at Northern State College here, and scholarships for all four girls to two girls' schools, Presentation Junior College here and Mount Mary College at Yankton, S.D. The latter two are operated by orders of Catholic nuns.

HOSPITAL HOME

The Fischers had made a decision on whether to move to a different home when things settle down.

Their landlords, Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Harrington, offered to give the family the house now occupied, or land for a new home. The Chamber of Commerce promised either to build the Fischers a new home or buy them one. There also was an offer of free labor to build a new home.

Others gave new kitchen and laundry facilities for a new house, free landscaping and free moving service.

The babies received insurance policies, stock certificates and every item of clothing and baby accessories possible.

There also was a year's supply of milk and five large teddy bears. Cash gifts ranged from $5 to $250.

Mrs. Fischer was the recipient of a fur-trimmed coat, free beauty treatment, and a ring bearing the birthstones of all her 10 children.

UNUSUAL GIFTS

Among the more unusual gifts were a year's supply of feed for the Fischer's two milk cows, a year's supply of honey from the South Dakota Beekeepers Association, a year's supply of cookies and crackers, an adding machine, a three-year supply of shampoo and sport shirts for the parents. Among other fringe benefits was a sheriff's badge and $100, attesting "to the indisputable fact that Fischer is a real man." That gesture was voted Monday night by the Hartford County (Conn.) Sheriff's Association.

Mrs. Fischer is expected to go home the latter part of the week, but the babies won't get out of their incubators for another five to seven weeks.

OIL REPORT

Three Prospectors Report Oil Flows

In a flurry of wildcat activity, three prospectors reported new oil this morning, one of them from three sections. A new prospect in Martin County was announced.

Austral Oil Co. and Cactus Drilling No. 1 Mabee had new oil from the Fusselman, Dean and the Wolfcamp. The project is bottomed at 12,482 feet and perforated the Fusselman between 12,980 - 13,024 feet. Operator fraced with 30,000 gallons and 20,000 pounds, recovered the load, then began flowing 38 barrels of new oil per hour through a 14-64 inch choke. Gravity of the oil is 8.5 degrees with no water.

On an earlier test in the Dean sand, perforations were between 9,463-94 feet and tool was open 35 minutes. A good flow was reported in 10 minutes, gas surfaced in 15 minutes, and operator recovered 240 feet of free oil. 38.2 gravity.

The tool was open one hour in the Wolfcamp, which was perforated between 10,222-274 feet and gas surfaced in 45 minutes. Operator recovered 70 barrels of free oil of 37.7 gravity.

This wildcat is 467 feet from south and east lines of the northeast quarter of section 19-39-2n, G&MMR&A survey.

Dawson County, is making hole in sand and shale below 8,506 feet. Operator recovered 20 feet of drilling mud on a one hour drillstem test of the lower Spraberry from perforations between 8,255-340 feet. Location is 1,000 from north and 700 from west lines, section 33, D. L. Cunningham survey.

HMH No. 2 Foster, Sterling County test, has made 13.77 barrels of new oil from Gloria perforations between 2,075-82 feet and is still pumping. The hole is bottomed at 2,232 feet. Site is 2,173 from north and 1,860 from west lines, section 24-22-H&TC survey.

Two Projects Filed

Continental Oil Co. has spotted two projects in the Howard County field of Howard County. All tests of the San Andres. All will seek 2,400 foot bottoms and they are clustered six miles east of Forsan, in block 29, W&N survey. No. 4 B G Chalk is 1,650 from south and 330 from east lines of section 114. No. 8 C Chalk is 1,320 from north and east lines of section 140. No. 7 D Chalk is 1,650 from south and 330 from east lines of section 124.

Rep. Halleck Asks Action, Not Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republican leader Charles A. Halleck said today that budget-cutting action, not a speech, is what President Kennedy needs to get his tax reduction program through Congress this year.

While Halleck promised to "listen with some interest" to Kennedy's nationwide television and radio address on taxes Wednesday, he said his own view is unchanged.

If Kennedy sends Congress "a significant schedule for voluntary reductions in his original spending requests, Congress will pass a tax reduction bill this year—it is that simple," Halleck said.

House Democratic leaders meanwhile, said they have the votes to pass the $11 billion tax cut bill in that chamber next week.

The administration's worries center in the Senate.

The chances for final action on the measure this year are seriously threatened by a prospective filibuster on civil rights by the opposition of Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va. Byrd, Finance Committee chairman, wants a reduction in spending to go along with any cut in taxes.

MAK Site Spotted

Texas Crude Oil Co. and Sinclair Oil and Gas Co. has staked No. 19 Breedlove in Martin County as a wildcat project 1 1/2 miles northeast of the MAK (Spraberry) pool discoverer. Operator will seek the section at 9,500 feet. It is 5,194 feet from the north and 660 from east lines section 9-H, H. A. Monroe survey. It is 17 miles northwest of Tarzan.

VA Orientation Attracts 23 New Adult Volunteers

Some 30 adult volunteers attended an orientation session at the Big Spring Veterans Administration Hospital Monday night, including 23 adults entering their first year of volunteer work.

The remaining volunteers have participated in previous orientation sessions.

Seven civic organizations were represented by the volunteers. They are the Airport P-T.A., American Red Cross, Veterans of World War I Auxiliary, World War I Barracks, the American Legion and its Auxiliary and the Servicemen's Wives Club.

The Midland American Legion and Auxiliary also were represented at the orientation.

Heads of departments briefed the volunteers in the many areas of special knowledge in which volunteers serve, such as X-ray, nursing service, laboratory, dental office, registrar, personal services and dietetics.

James S. Kilgore, administrative assistant to the chief of staff, president, V. J. Belda, hospital director, gave the welcome. Chaplain C. O. Hitt provided refreshments which were served by Mrs. Ara Cunningham and staff members.

The adults will fill volunteer vacancies which occurred when high school summer-time volunteers returned to school.

A briefing session in hospital techniques highlighted an orientation for Gray Lady volunteers at the hospital at 1:30 p. m. today, as a follow-up to the general orientation.

Mrs. Moore T. Sautelle, executive secretary of the Big Spring Chapter of the Red Cross, gave a

JFK SPEECH TO BE AIRED

NEW YORK (AP) — President Kennedy's speech at the United Nations Friday will be carried live by all major television and radio networks.

The exact time of the address is indefinite, but it is expected to be between 11 a. m. and noon EST.

It will be carried live by television and radio networks of the National Broadcasting System and American Broadcasting Co. and the Mutual radio network.

Credit Course Draws 42 To First Night Session

High interest was evident Monday night as 42 registrants attended a course in retail credit procedures at the First Federal Savings and Loan Community Room.

The course will continue through Wednesday, with sessions beginning at 7:30 p. m. A number of area businessmen and interested personnel from Webb Air Force Base are participating.

Lowry M. Carpenter, retail credit specialist from the University of Texas and former credit manager for a leading auto appliance company, is course instructor. He discussed credit policy and several different types of accounts, including 30-day, revolving, deferred payment and charge.

Evaluation of credit applicants and the credit interview also was discussed by Carpenter. Other topics included in the course are: increasing credit volume, decreasing collection problems and controlling accounts slowly.

The course is sponsored by the Big Spring Credit Women's Club and the Credit Bureau. It has the sanction of the Retail Merchants Association of Texas, Retail Credit and Executives of Texas, Associated Credit Bureaus of Texas and the Texas Lone Star Council of Credit Women.

Concert Ducats Are Distributed

Tickets for the season's Community Concert series were distributed among Community Concert Board members Monday evening at the home of the ticket sales chairman, Mrs. James Duncan, 1300 W. 16th.

Mrs. Clyde Angel, board chairman, presided and led a discussion on distribution of news and advertising in the various media.

Staging was discussed and Dr. J. H. Burnett announced that there would be a matinee performance for school children by the San Antonio Symphony Orchestra. That performance will not be included as a part of the series but will be a special program for children only, with a minimum admission charge.

This year's series includes the Broadway comedy, "Mary, Mary" (Oct. 21); Celeste Holm in "With Love and Laughter" (Nov. 11); San Antonio Symphony (Jan. 30); Midland-Odessa 85-voice chorale (March 10); and Ferante and Teicher, renowned piano duo (March 21). The season memberships are $9 for adults and $4 for students. No single admissions are sold for the performances.

Minor Collisions Checked By Police

City Police investigated three minor traffic accidents in Big Spring Monday.

Involved in a mishap at 1712 S. Gregg were Kenneth Allen Sanders, 2009 Aspen, Alamo, and N. M. and Viola Cecil Lindsay, Box 296, Stanton, Claire Gift, 46-B Chamute Drive, was involved in a collision with a parked car at 1501 S. Gregg.

The final mishap occurred at E. 4th and Nolan. Drivers were Martin J. Carr, Webb Air Force Base, and Nathan E. Cahoon, Route 1, operator of a city garbage truck.

Damage in each of the accidents was minor, according to the police report.

Seven Missing In Rest Home Blaze

RIGGINS, Idaho (AP) — Seven patients were reported missing today in a fire that destroyed the Paradise Pines rest home near this tiny western Idaho community. Thirty others were evacuated safely.

Sheriff's Deputy Frank Heath said some bodies were sighted in the charred wreckage, but the number of dead was not determined.

The fire, believed to have started in a wood-burning stove near the center of the sprawling, one-story wooden structure, burned the rest home to the ground.

Thirty patients were taken by ambulance to a hospital at McCall, 30 miles to the south, and 18 remained there for treatment.

Reserve Officers Finish Training

A training program for 18 of Big Spring's Reserve Police Officers will be completed Thursday, according to Police Captain Jay Banks.

The course began two weeks ago and covered several different phases of police work. New reserve officers who are completing the course are C. Ray Wright, Ronald McCuiston, Eldon Earl Watt, Willie Graham and James Woodruff.

Burglars Make Off With Tire, Lemons

Minor thefts kept Big Spring police busy with investigations Tuesday morning.

Someone stole an automobile tire Monday night from Lee Burckow at the Big Spring Produce Company, officers said.

The Ben E. Keith Company of 311 NW 4th Street lost a case of lemons to a burglar early Tuesday morning. A company driver had delivered the crate to the firm at 5 a. m. It was missing at 6 a. m.

Report Due On Autopsy

Results of an autopsy on Isaac Smith, Big Spring Negro, are slow getting to Big Spring.

No word has been received yet. Walter Grice, justice of the peace, last week authorized pathologists at John Sealy Hospital, Galveston, to perform the autopsy.

Smith, shot in the face Aug. 27 with a shot gun, died in the Galveston hospital under conditions which the doctors regarded as unusual. He had shown every sign of recovering from the wound, the doctors told Grice, and then suddenly died. Grice said he has been expecting a call from the hospital.

Eddie Lee Wright, another Negro, is at large on $3,500 bond on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder in connection with the shooting.

3 Murder Cases Placed On Docket

Three murder cases have been set for trial in 118th District Court the week of Oct. 14.

Judge Ralph Caton, in announcing the three cases, appointed attorneys to represent two of the defendants Tuesday morning.

He appointed Roger Brown as counsel for George Ives and Wayne Basden to appear for Jose Nunez Lopez. The defendants, who are being held in the county jail, were brought into court and interrogated to determine if they would be able to provide attorneys for their defense.

Third case set down is that of James Steward, a convict, who is currently in the state penitentiary serving a sentence for burglary.

Gil Jones, district attorney, had asked that the three cases be docketed for disposition. He filed a motion with the court asking that a bench warrant be issued for Steward. This will enable officers to take custody of the defendant at the state prison and bring him back to Big Spring. Steward, it was said, has no attorney, and one will have to be named after he is returned here.

A special venire will have to be drawn from the jury wheel for these cases. Whether there will be three separate special venires or whether an agreement may be reached so that one can be used for all three cases remains to be seen.

It is highly improbable, court attaches said, that more than one of the three cases could be disposed of during the one week of court. It was pointed out a plea of guilty could be entered and trial time would be sharply curtailed. No indication exists of such a development.

Judge Caton said Steward would be the first defendant to be called up for trial.

Steward is accused of the slaying Nov. 26, 1961 of Travis Hicks, Hicks, an itinerant electrician, who disappeared on that date. On Nov. 1, 1962, a farmer found a badly decayed body sprawled in a clump of weeds just across the Martin County line. The skull was found to contain a 22 caliber slug. Identification of the skeleton as Hicks' was established by materials etched on a set of dentures.

The election will be held Saturday and polling places are the high school library, Gay Hill School and Kate Morrison elementary school.

Assuming the bonded indebtedness of the former common school districts of Gay Hill and Center Point, and parts of the Forsan district are concerned in the bond assumption part of the election. Setting the maximum of $1.50 per $100 valuation for local maintenance taxes is the other issue. In neither case will the rate be changed for taxpayers.

Bible Fund Picks Up $35 More

The Bible Class fund, easing to a conclusion, picked up $35 more today, making $3,481.21 contributed to support of this program.

Among the latest donors are the St. Mary's Episcopal Guild, $25; the Young Homemakers' Club $5; and the Homemakers' Guild, School Class of East Fourth Baptist $5.

Contract Awarded

Contract for the removal and replacement of utility poles on a highway project called the Newton Road in northern Howard County, was awarded Monday to the Road in northern Howard County Commissioners Court.

Three bids were submitted and the R&S offer of $1,047.60 was the lowest. Other bids were Caldwell Electric, $1,400, and Seth G. Lacy Electric, $1,247.50.

SNAKE GIVES SCARE

City Police were summoned early Monday morning when a Big Spring woman discovered a snake curled up in one of the burners of her kitchen stove at 103 Carey Street.

Animal Warden Bob Barker captured the snake and killed it. The snake was identified as a harmless "prairie runner."

Ramos Fails To Post Bond

Abel O. Ramos, 31, charged with murder with malice following the fatal stabbing of Benigno Gutierrez, Lubbock, Saturday night, is in Howard County jail today after failing to post $7,500 bond set by Justice of the Peace Walter Grice Tuesday morning.

Ramos was arrested early Sunday at the home of his brother who lives on Grafa Street in Big Spring. His home was in Colorado City. Ramos said he did not know, when arrested, that Gutierrez was dead.

Gutierrez died about an hour after the stabbing. He was taken to Howard County Hospital Foundation for emergency surgery after police found him on the ground about a block from Marquez's Place, 401 NW 4th, where the cutting allegedly occurred. He suffered a half dozen cuts in the face, neck, chest and stomach.

Services for Gutierrez, a former San Angelo resident, have been set for 9 a. m. Wednesday at St. Mary's Catholic Church in San Angelo. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery under the direction of Robert Massey Funeral Home.

Rosh Hashana Ushers In New Year For Jewish Faith

The observance of Rosh Hashana will usher in the holy season and a new year for those of the Jewish faith here this week.

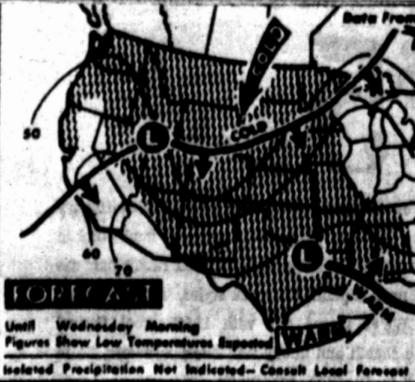

Temple Israel will gather at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Settles for the start of the Rosh Hashana observance marking the beginning of the year 5,724 on the Jewish calendar. Rites will continue at 10 a. m. Thursday in Room No. 1 at the Settles. Most stores owned by those of Jewish faith will be closed for the day.

The time is for reflection upon one's mode of living, a period of prayer for the renewal of one's days. It also is regarded as a moment of introspection and balance for life. It is a time for prayer to God to remember His creatures and decrees of good life, and a time for prayer for forgiveness of transgressions.

This period also will mark the beginning of the 10 Days of Penitence, climaxed by the observance the evening of Sept. 27 and all day Sept. 28 of Yom Kippur, the day of atonement. This is perhaps the most sacred of all the Jewish religious holidays. These services will be held at Webb AFB Chapel.

Nuclear Ban Gains Another Supporter

WASHINGTON (AP) — The limited nuclear test ban treaty picked up another promised vote today — that of Sen. Farnsworth Ervin, D-N.C.

Ervin, who had been uncommitted, told the Senate he had come to his decision in belief that rejection of the treaty "would irretrievably destroy, if not absolutely destroy, any opportunity for the United States to furnish leadership to the free world during the foreseeable future."

Ervin's announcement raised to 78 the number of senators committed to or inclined to vote for the treaty.

Ratification requires a two-thirds majority of those voting, or 67 if all 100 senators vote.

As to prospects for the vote, Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana told newsmen he is hopeful it can be reached this week.

VOTE THIS WEEK

Mansfield, who saw reporters after the weekly meeting of congressional leaders with President Kennedy, said there would be voting this week on reservations and understandings even if the final vote on ratification has to go over until next week.

Ervin said his decision to support the treaty was the most difficult one he has had since he came to the Senate nine years ago.

He said he had misgivings, based on military considerations, about the treaty but felt ratification was "the less of two undesirable choices available to us."

The treaty drew support from Sen. Stuart Symington and opposition from Sen. Strom Thurmond.

ATOM HOLOCAUST

"Unless there can be some understanding among the growing number of nations that will have the weapon, a nuclear holocaust is only a question of time," declared Symington, a Missouri Democrat.

Symington, a former secretary of the Air Force, said in a prepared Senate speech the treaty banning all but underground testing "will not affect to any appreciable extent our capability to destroy the Soviet Union if a retaliatory strike is required."

On the other side of the debate — which shows indications of continuing into next week — Thurmond, a South Carolina Democrat, charged the treaty constitutes "major risks and jeopardies to the capability of the United States to deter a nuclear war in the future."

The Senate granted unanimous consent Monday to move from debate on the treaty itself to consideration of the resolution of ratification, to which a series of reservations, understandings and interpretations have been offered.

FINAL BALLOT

But so many senators remain to speak on the issue that the goal of a final vote by Friday still appeared doubtful.

Both Symington and Thurmond are members of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, which heard much military and scientific testimony critical of the treaty.

Symington lined up with the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who held that there are military risks and disadvantages to the treaty, but that with safeguards for U.S. security the treaty was acceptable.

But Thurmond said in his prepared address that the military chiefs merely "went along with the White House," and that this was different from supporting the treaty.

"The chiefs of staff may not have been threatened outright, and most probably were not," Thurmond said, "but the chiefs live in an environment which daily demonstrates the rule of rigid compliance with decisions from above."

"Many lessons in the foolishness of disagreeing with policy decisions had been taught quite recently, with graphic examples that could hardly fail to impress the Joint Chiefs of Staff and all other officers," Thurmond said.

Thurmond, an Army Reserve Major General, then referred to President Kennedy's failure to reappoint Adm. George W. Anderson as chief of naval operations and the President's limitation of Gen. Curtis E. LeMay to a one-year term as Air Force chief of staff. Anderson and LeMay had disagreed with the Administration in some policies, including the TF warplane contract award.

POLITICAL ISSUES

The joint chiefs, Thurmond said, have testified they were instructed to consider the political as well as the military considerations of the treaty. These political considerations, he said, were given them by Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Undersecretary W. Averell Harriman, "and this is the basis for their support of the ratification of the treaty."

Symington said he had listened to the testimony of 44 witnesses as a member of both the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the Preparedness subcommittee.

Buna Newspaper Changes Hands

BUNA, Tex. (AP) — Jesse M. Bardwell, formerly of Baton Rouge, La., has bought the weekly Buna East Texan.

Joe Mosby, who founded it in January, 1963 sold the paper. The Jasper County town had been without a newspaper 40 years.

Mosby has joined the news staff of the Big Spring Herald.

Bardwell and his wife are former owners and publishers of the Clinton, La., Citizen-Watchman and the Archer City, Tex., Archer County News.

Chamber Committees Slate Joint Session

A joint meeting of the wholesale and distribution and industrial committees of the Chamber of Commerce is set for 7 a.m. Wednesday at the Settles Hotel, Carroll Davidson, Chamber manager, said today.

The main purpose of the meeting will be to get the two committees, both working toward improvement of Big Spring, to work together. At this time the wholesale and distribution committee is conducting a survey to determine which products can be distributed effectively from the city. This ties directly into efforts of the industrial committee to get more new businesses to establish here.

Mel Stinson, chairman of the wholesale and distribution committee, will be in charge of the joint session.

Malaysia Quickly Hits At Indonesia

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Malaysia today broke diplomatic relations with Indonesia and the Philippines, the government announced.

Shortly before the announcement, screaming, rock-throwing Malay demonstrators stormed the Indonesian Embassy compound, setting fire to one building and smashing windows and furniture. The riot was retaliation for a similar mob action Monday against the Malaysian Embassy in Jakarta and the Malay Consulate in Medan, North Sumatra. Indonesia bitterly opposes the new Malaysian Federation of Malaya, Singapore, Sarawak and North Borneo.

More than 1,000 persons took part in the demonstration at Kuala Lumpur. About 200 surged into the embassy grounds.

No one was injured during the 35-minute demonstration.

Riot police, armed with clubs, rifles and tear gas, made little attempt to break up the melee with force. Many grinned broadly as they tried to shoo the demonstrators away.

An official government statement said Prime Minister Tunku Rahman took the action to break relations after a meeting of the Malaysian Cabinet.

The announcement said Thailand has been asked to handle Malaysia's affairs in Indonesia and the Philippines.

Rahman said in a statement his government took the action because Indonesia "has broken off diplomatic relations with Malaysia without any apparent reason. We have no choice but to do likewise and to recall our ambassador and the embassy staff and at the same time to close down our consulate in Medan."

He said the Philippines had asked that the status of the Philippine embassy in Kuala Lumpur be reduced to that of a consulate. The Prime Minister said this was unacceptable and therefore there was no choice for Malaysia but to recall its ambassador.

Film Club Set To Open

"Throne of Blood," an adaptation of Shakespeare's "Macbeth," set in sixteenth century Japan, will kick off the 1963 season of the Big Spring Foreign Films Club Thursday.

After a year's lapse, the cultural affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce is attempting to revive interest in the showing of quality foreign films. Heading the effort is Maj. John Woodd.

Showing will be to members only. Tickets, at $5 each, will entitle members to view 10 presentations offered between now and May 14, 1964. They are available now at the chamber, Mellinger's Store and Southwestern Investment Co., and will be sold at the door on opening night.

Each presentation includes a main feature about 1 1/2 hours in length and two film shorts. To be shown along with the main attraction Thursday are "The Jinx," a 16-minute Italian production, and "The Mischief Makers," from France. All three are black and white films.

About 50 memberships have already been sold. Maj. Woodd said, but at least that many more must be sold to assure the showings.

Sentenced To Jail

Sixty days in county jail was meted out to Trudy Holter Monday in Howard County court when she entered a guilty plea to a charge of writing a worthless check. Judge Lee Porter assessed the sentence on recommendation of Wayne Burns, county attorney.

Wind-Fed Flames Hit Lumber Yard

BUSINESSMEN TOLD Aid Cut Would Damage Export Trade, Says JFK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy told American businessmen today that "disastrous" cuts in the House in foreign aid funds would damage the country's export trade as well as its security.

In a speech prepared for 400 executives at the White House Conference on Export Expansion, Kennedy made a bid for industry support in the administration's push for restoration of the aid money in the Senate.

"I hope you will join me in seeking to reverse these disastrous cuts," he said.

Although the two-day export conference was called to enlist business cooperation in the government-wide effort to eliminate the balance of payments deficit, Kennedy devoted a third of his address to what he called "our much abused foreign aid program."

The White House foreign aid request was $4.5 billion, but after successive slashes by the House Foreign Affairs Committee and the House itself, the authorization bill now calls for only $3.5 billion.

Explaining his contention that the cuts would impair private commerce, Kennedy said: "No foreign aid program, of course, can or should substitute for private initiative. It can assist in breaking the path, and that is an important reason for us all to give it support.

"These aid expenditures abroad are not, as is sometimes believed, the cause of our adverse balance of payments. More than 80 per cent of our current aid commitments are for expenditures in the United States, and next year off-shore (foreign) expenditures by aid will be even lower.

"But aid can help our balance of payments by helping exports—and the recent cuts in this program by the House of Representatives, while saving at most only $20 million in American dollars on our balance of payments accounts, will have a severe impact upon our exports as well as our security."

Before the President spoke, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz urged the businessmen to expand their exports to help close the full-employment gap as well as the balance of payments gap.

Wirtz said every $1 billion of added exports creates 150,000 new jobs for American workers. Production for export sale, he said, engages 14 to 15 per cent of the payrolls in industries making light machinery, chemicals and metals.

"High wages, high productivity and high labor standards have marched hand in hand with increasing exports," Wirtz said.

"The United States has built the world's greatest trading volume on such foundations."

Acknowledging that increased exports imply higher imports, with resulting loss of some jobs, Wirtz said the two-way expansion of foreign trade creates more jobs than it eliminates. The Trade Expansion Act provides federal aid for companies and workers damaged by import competition.

Labor should join industry in bringing home to workers their stake in expanding export volume, Wirtz said, adding:

"Perhaps, more directly, the unions in their day-to-day, as well as formal, exchanges with management can encourage a bolder approach—or sometimes even a first venture—by management into the export market as an outlet for the products of the plant or industry."

HOW TO MAKE LIGHT WORK IN THE KITCHEN

Properly planned lighting in the kitchen makes meal preparation easier, more pleasant and more efficient. It helps eliminate little annoyances like misread recipes... dishes (or vegetables) that have to be washed twice. For a well-lighted kitchen you need two kinds of lighting:

GENERAL LIGHTING

... to provide a pleasant level of over-all room illumination without glare or shadowy areas. As a suggestion for the average rectangular kitchen, a 12-inch enclosed ceiling fixture with a 150-watt bulb, or a shielded fluorescent fixture with two 40-watt tubes usually will provide adequate light.

LOCAL LIGHTING

... to eliminate working in your own shadow at the sink, range or work counters. Use over the sink either incandescent or fluorescent lamps, shielded behind a facing board or recessed into the ceiling. A shielded fluorescent wall bracket is recommended over the range. Shielded fluorescent tubes under the cabinets will provide ample light on counter tops.

A Texas Electric lighting specialist will be glad to make specific recommendations for better light in your kitchen and elsewhere in your home.

Wise Drivers Prepare Now For Winter

The first hints of winter have already been given. Two minor cool spells in the past few weeks are the first indication that winter is not far away. Coats and woolens are not the only things which need to be taken out of mothballs and put into shape for another cold season. Your car also notices the difference in weather and needs to be given special care to keep it in proper running order during the season of difficult starts and frosted windows.

Chuck's Automotive Repair, 900 W. 5th, is ready to give any car that needed attention to get it ready for instant service during the cold season. Chuck's specializes in motor tune-ups, overhauling or adjusting brakes, work on automatic transmissions and almost any general repair which may be needed.

For the best service, customers should call AM 4-8957 for an appointment. An important part of any service is to have it performed at the convenience of the customer. The men at Chuck's Automotive Repair know their business when it comes to automobile service. They want it to be your business too.

Quick, Quality Service Is The Goal At Wagon Wheels

Three Wagon Wheel Drive-Ins have long been recognized as popular eating places in Big Spring. Located on main highways in west, east, and south Big Spring, they are well known for sandwiches, hamburgers, and working people's lunches, as well as for drinks served. Another reason for their popularity is preparation which gives that "home-cooked" taste. Convenient for persons just getting off from work who want to eat out without the bother of going home, cleaning up and dressing, the Wagon Wheels make it possible to drive up in work clothes or lounging apparel. The customer can sit in the car and eat. If a housewife is too tired from a day's work to prepare an evening meal, or a noon lunch, the Wagon Wheel Drive-Ins are especially convenient. The whole family can simply get into the car and enjoy a break in the routine by eating out. The working man or woman who needs a lunch prepared, at noon or at midnight, may call in and have it ready to pick up. It will be tasty and ready to eat. Wagon Wheel Drive-Ins are located at Fourth and Birdwell, Phone AM 4-6920; 2011 Gregg, AM 4-2831, and at US 80 West, AM 3-4881. Call them. It's the Wagon Wheel Drive-Ins "Where food and drink are a little bit better." They are operated by H. M. and Ruby J. Rainbolt.

Thixton Can Repair It

Do you own a bicycle, motor scooter or motorcycle? If so, Cecil Thixton, at 908 W. 3rd, can keep it in good repair. If parts are needed, and are available, Thixton can repair any make. Schwinn bicycles, favorites of youngsters needing transportation to school or for the man or woman who just likes to ride, are available in the show room. Thixton is also dealer for famous Harley-Davidson motorcycles. He has parts and accessories for all models. If you need service, repairs, tires, or accessories, see Cecil Thixton.

Diesel Efficiency Featured By Texas & Pacific

No. 920, a four-unit diesel, pulls a mile-long string of freight cars into the Big Spring yards. These diesel-electric locomotives, which began replacing the old steam engines in late 1946, have proved to the railroading and shipping world that speed and ease of handling can speed up freight movement. The T&P now has more than 220 of these big locomotives, with more than 140 being Class A high-powered engines used in main-line service.

Drive-In Window Is Customer Aid

There are no hidden charges added to the cost of prescriptions at Carver Drive-In Prescription Pharmacy, 310 E. 9th. Two pharmacists compound prescriptions carefully, and a drive-in window makes it easy for customers to pick up their purchases without having to dress up or get out of the car. There is no "free delivery" offered by the pharmacy, and the customer is given advantage of the saving. Milton Carver, owner, points out that many miscellaneous items, in addition to medicinal supplies, are stocked on the shelves and counters. One such attraction, on a convenient display rack, is the well-known Pangburn's chocolates.

Typewriters In Four Colors

There are four decorator colors used in finishing the "Empress typewriter," so that it may blend with office or home decor. Thomas office supply also features all kinds of office equipment and supplies, for the big office, little office, or home.

Britons Cheer Queen's News

LONDON (AP) — Britons cheered today the news that Queen Elizabeth II is expecting her fourth child. Some saw the royal household charting a trend toward a return to the Victorian ideal of large families.

Banner headlines relayed Buckingham Palace's announcement Monday that the 37-year-old monarch is expecting next year. Such news usually is made public six months in advance, placing the expected time of birth in late March.

Royal aides said the queen will be attended by Sir John Peel, surgeon gynecologist to the royal household, delivered the queen's other children, Prince Charles, 14, Princess Anne, 13, and Prince Andrew, 3.

A maternity ward will be set up soon in Buckingham Palace, aides said.

Elizabeth is on a vacation at Balmoral, the royal estate in Scotland, until October. She canceled her public engagements.

"The queen is very well and everything is proceeding normally," reported Sir George Middleton, the physician caring for her at Balmoral.

The news that Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip will be parents of four children is expected to have a personal meaning for many young British couples who look to royalty to set a pattern for family life.

The queen's great-great-grandmother, Queen Victoria, had nine children, a common average for British families during her reign from 1837 to 1901.

The fourth royal infant, if a boy, will be the third in line to the throne, after Prince Charles and Prince Andrew. If a girl, she will be fourth, after the two princes and Princess Anne.

Peel will be assisted by four or five physicians in the delivery, the royal aides said.

The royal physician, now on a lecture tour in South Africa, also will attend the queen's cousin, Princess Alexandra, who is expecting her first baby soon after Christmas.

Meanwhile, medical sources at Zarauz, Spain, reported that Queen Fabiola of Belgium suffered a miscarriage Saturday night in her third month of pregnancy. This followed a cautious communique from the palace in Brussels's saying, recent reports that the queen was pregnant were unfounded. She and her husband, King Baudoin, have been on a vacation at Zarauz.

Dr. Torres Back At VA

Dr. Agustin Torres, former member of the Big Spring Veterans Administration Hospital staff, has returned after more than a year's absence, according to V. J. Belda, hospital director.

Dr. Torres was chief of laboratory service from September, 1961 to July, 1962. He now returns to that same position after leaving here he became director of clinical pathology and director of the school of medical technology at Horton Road Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio.

He is a board certified pathologist and a fellow of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. A naturalized United States citizen, he is a native of Mexico.

Dr. Torres has done specialized study in pathology at Baylor University College of Medicine in Houston. He is especially interested in cancer of the prostate and the leukemias.

Before coming to Big Spring initially, he worked with the VA Hospital in Temple.

The Torres' live at 2607 Crestline. They have two children. Linda is a seventh grader at Goliad Junior High and Agustin Jr. is in the fifth grade at Park Hill Elementary.

Scout Roundtable Slated Thursday

A Boy Scout leaders' roundtable will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the old student union building at Howard County Junior College. E. G. Patton and R. L. Cranford will be in charge of the program; they ask all Scoutmasters and assistants to be present at the October program planning meeting.

Outdoor sessions of Scoutmasters' training courses are scheduled for Oct. 5-6 at Camp Pegasus southwest of Midland. Bill McRee, Scout executive, said today.

"All Scoutmasters who want to take the course for their training awards, should be there," he said. "The courses are held only twice each year."

Coahoma Cubs To Meet Tonight

Cub Pack 45 of Coahoma is holding a parents meeting and fall program kick-off tonight in the Coahoma Methodist Church at 7:30 o'clock. All boys who are currently registered should attend with their parents.

Notice has already been received by most Cub age boys in Coahoma. Parents and boys should attend and be prepared to register in the pack. Cubs must have passed their eighth birthday and not yet had their eleventh one.

A program of weekly den meetings for all boys and a monthly pack meeting for every family is a part of the program.

Illini Students Protest Bombing

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—About 300 University of Illinois students, white persons and Negroes, stood several minutes in a silent vigil Monday, protesting against a church bombing in Birmingham, Ala., which killed four Negro girls.

Leaders said similar vigils would be conducted all week by the university branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

★★ YOUR STARS TODAY ★★
By Constella

The greatest happiness of the greatest number. —Beccaria

DAILY GUIDE—With this New Moon the emphasis is on pleasant associations, social activities, communications with friends and neighbors, visits and invitations. Surely you will find something in the general happy over-all picture to please you.

It is a fine week to arrange little get-togethers, outings, and short trips. For the ladies this could be a great week for shopping, windows shopping the fall showings or planning accessories, decorations for the home, new arrangements and furnishings.

For the men, this week offers opportunities to pay compliments to the ladies and entertain them with theatre or dinner invitations or by gifts of flowers or small adornments. Children also receive loving attention.

You might think this is rather frivolous and very lightweight activity, but the light touch can bring a great lift now; make the most of it!

Tomorrow Libra is accented, so peace, beauty, and pleasant cooperation can bring happiness.

Those who are married should smooth out any difficulties.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, VIRGO! You could be fussing too much over details right now. Wait until the end of the month, when you can be sure of being able to carry forward more smoothly.

Some situation in your everyday routines and contracts could be working up to a climax in first few days of next month. In complications may restrict your personal freedom which you now enjoy.

Partners, associates, mate, or public will be more demanding and bring greater responsibilities. Watch health next February, you could have been working too hard. After April travel is highly favored.

No Splits, Asks Barry

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater told a partisan crowd at Dodger Stadium that factionalism in the Republican party would be "a form of political suicide."

The Arizona Republican, a leading presidential prospect, also took a slam at the Kennedy administration in Monday night's speech.

"There seem to be many in the Republican party," Goldwater said, "who have decided how we can lose (the 1964 presidential election). They keep wanting to read people out of the party. We hear them say nothing as to leading people into the party."

The senator said such an approach would lead to a "return to systems of splintered factions and warring classes in the United States."

The senator said that the 1964 presidential race may become "the most vicious campaign of opposition since the War Between the States."

He called the Kennedy administration "rocking chair leadership."

"A frontier full of ox-cart philosophies isn't enough," he said.

No Camp? Girls Start Their Own

TRUSCOTT, Pa. — Two Truscott teenagers decided recently they wanted to go to a day camp. But the nearest camp was at Vernon, 50 miles away.

The two, Sue Eubank and Kay Looney, eighth grade students at Crowell but who live at Truscott, then decided they would have their own.

Lack of adult supervision didn't stop them.

The girls borrowed books from the local Camp Fire Girl group and planned a program. Neither the Camp Fire girl supervisor or other mothers had time to help with the camp, since summer is a busy time in their farming and ranching community.

So with plenty of adult encouragement, but little supervision, the two girls planned crafts suitable for the young campers who averaged about 10 years of age.

By using available material for crafts, no purchases were needed. The camp was free.

The girls called a meeting of all Truscott girls in the second through the sixth grades to explain the camp and tell the campers what to bring.

Then on June 18, they met at the Truscott postoffice for a brief flag ceremony and piled into the Camp Makuala station wagon, driven by Sue's father, J. B. Eubank.

The camp was located a few miles southwest of town on the banks of China Creek, a prime water source for early day settlers.

Upon arrival, each girl made a name card, using an Indian name. Next the youthful directors led a nature hike to discover and name butterflies, wildflowers and cloud formations.

Other activities included making and autographing flags decorated with Indian symbols, a lecture on Indians and Indian ways, and making currier boxes from oatmeal boxes and decorating these with rock and charcoal faces.
