MOBSTER JOSEPH VALACHI, 60, (L) WALKS TO SENATE HEARING Underworld figure accompanied by Chief U.S. Marshal James McShane

Mobster Puts Finger On Crime's Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mobster Joseph Valachi, 60, came to the capitol today to testify in a Senate crime probe and put the finger on underworld big shots. The convicted dope peddler and murderer was hustled into a heavily guarded hearing room in the old Senate office building where the Senate Investigations subcommittee was to hear in private what he learned about a nationwide crime syndicate as one of its members. A public hearing is to be held Friday. After the closed hearing had been under way for about 40 minutes, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, a subcommittee member, left the hearing room briefly on an errand. He told newsmen Valachi was "talking freely."

Valachi hopes his testimony will help to topple the leaders of his old crime society, known to its members as La Cosa Nostra. The Senate investigations subcommittee arranged today's session to give its members a chance to appraise the story Valachi is expected to tell of brutal murder, crime for profit and terrorism. Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., already has heard the story in two interviews with Valachi. McClellan said he saw Valachi Tuesday and that he appeared to be in good spirits and eager to testify in revenge against syndicate leaders for having ordered him slain as a stool pigeon. The subcommittee is exploring the affairs of a nationwide crime syndicate known to its members as La Cosa Nostra, and to others as the Mafia or Black Hand. Rumored, a paper is burned in the hand of a new recruit to the secret criminal society as he takes an oath of secrecy and vows to obey any order without question. Deputy Chief Inspector John F. Shanley of the New York City police testified Wednesday that to his knowledge Valachi is the first Cosa Nostra member who dared to abandon the credo of silence in the presence of police.

events interrupted only occasionally by questions from senators. Muskie was asked whether Valachi is seeking immunity from prosecution for anything he might say in his testimony. "You'll have to ask the chairman (Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark.)," Muskie replied. The subcommittee itself has no authority to grant immunity to anyone. A squat, brown-haired man in a gray suit, the grim-faced Valachi was smuggled into the office building by a guard of six U.S. marshals, and quickly taken down a long corridor to the hearing room. This is the first time in about a year the mobster-murderer had been brought out of hiding by the law. Officers believe the underworld has posted a $100,000 reward for anyone who can silence him. Valachi hopes his testimony will

Police Official Describes Customs, Silence Of Mob

WASHINGTON (AP)—You tip your hat to your betters in the mobs. You try to keep them "clean"—in the eyes of a trial jury. And when the police ask questions you have no answers. Deputy Chief Inspector John F. Shanley of the New York City police told the Senate Investigations subcommittee about it Wednesday. The subcommittee is investigating the affairs of La Cosa Nostra, a secret criminal society which, Atty Gen Robert F. Kennedy testified, runs a richly profitable nationwide crime syndicate. Shanley pictured the outfit as divided into "families," or cliques, each with its own geographical domain, and its commanders leading ostensibly respectable lives, worried about their "public image." These are men, he said, whose word means life or violent death to followers and others, but it's hard to prove in court. Through terrorism they breed both respect for leadership and a showing of respect. "Among some older men, it involves hat tipping and bowing reminiscent of royalty," Shanley said. He added that many a time this has let the police know that a seeming nonentity is a big shot behind that modest mask. "The top members of this evil group, as a rule, do not mix or even do business with their immediate subordinates," Shanley said. "They deal with them through a buffer member, usually around the same age, who is carefully selected and highly trusted. "This underling acts as an aide but he is no menial. He drives the boss when necessary but he is not his chauffeur; he handles messages from the field but he is not a messenger. He would fight for his boss but he is not a bodyguard; he travels with the boss socially but he is not his equal." The buffer, Shanley said, provides the contacts between the boss and those who see to it that dirty work is done, but never in the presence of a third person. Thus, he said, only the buffer could testify against the top man in a court, and it would be one man's word against another's.

ANNE RHODE

Semifinalist Named At CC

COLORADO CITY (SC)—The Colorado City High School has placed a semifinalist in the National Merit Scholarship contest. She is Anne Rhode, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Rhode.

The qualifying senior is one of about 15,000 high school students over the nation who placed high enough on preliminary testing for a crack at one of the merit scholarships. Additional testing and screening will determine finalists and, from these candidates, winners of awards will be picked. The amount of the scholarship is determined on need, assuring the winners of continued higher education.

Another advantage of placing high on the test is that even if the student does not win a National Merit Scholarship, the recognition for exemplary work will virtually assure the student of a choice from many other scholarships offered.

House Passes Tax Cut; Senate Battle Looming

Kennedy Scores Major Triumph

Work Pushed On Redesign Of FM 700 Loop

County, city and Chamber of Commerce representatives came away from an interview with the Texas Highway Commission in Austin Tuesday encouraged over prospects for redesign of FM 700 from US 87 west to US 80. "We know that it has to be done," remarked D. C. Greer, state highway engineer. "The sooner we get it, the better off we all are going to be." His observation followed a presentation by County Judge Lee Porter in which he filed a resolution by the county commissioners court. All members of the court were present at the hearing. They pledged to secure right of way for the project. Mayor George Zachariah opened the presentation, introducing the delegation and pointing to the urgency of improving the west leg of FM 700. Traffic on the southeast loop, he pointed out, has rocketed in a few years to the point that it carries between 5,000 and 6,000 cars per day. Herb C. Perry, commission chairman, observed that the traffic volume more than justified the improvement, but that action had been held up because of some urgent work in and around Big Spring. Greer noted that there were some rough spots, referring to terrain over which part of the road may traverse, but he praised the courage of Howard County officials in pledging right of way. Perry also took occasion to express appreciation to Howard County for past cooperation with the highway department. As chairman of the chamber's highway committee, Joe Pickle told the commission that the community would do all within its power to help officials with the project. Porter had told the commission that now was the time to move on the route because subsequent development might make roadway more costly, if not prohibitive. He pointed to congestion and hazardous conditions on the present road around Webb Air Force base entrance and Airport School area. Attending the hearing were State Rep. Ed Carpenter, Mayor Zachariah, City Commissioners W. L. Thompson, John Stanley, City Manager Larry Crow, Judge Porter, County Commissioners Rufus Stallings, Ray Nichols, Joe Hayden, and L. J. Davidson, Chamber Manager Carroll Davidson, and Pickle.

LODGE FIRES BACK AT DRAGON LADY'S BLAST

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge charged today that Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu's description of junior U.S. Army officers here as "little soldiers of fortune" was cruel and insulting. Mrs. Nhu, South Viet Nam's powerful first lady was sister-in-law of bachelor President Ngo Dinh Diem, also accused the officers of "engaging in irresponsible behavior." She explained her blast last week in Rome during her world tour to explain her ruling family's position in its feud with Buddhists. "It is incomprehensible to me how anyone can speak so cruelly," Lodge said in his first public political statement since his arrival Aug. 22. "It is a shocking statement. These junior officers are risking their lives every day. Some of them have been killed side by side with their Vietnamese comrades. These men should be thanked and not insulted." Lodge's statement was expected to have the effect of a diplomatic bombshell on the strained relations between the Kennedy administration and President Diem's authoritarian government. A barrage of direct and indirect anti-American comments from Mrs. Nhu and other members of the regime was launched after President Kennedy described Diem's crackdown on Buddhist student opposition as "repressive."

SOVIET SILENT Buyer Is Lacking In Big Wheat Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—In all the hub-bub over a possible sale of U.S. wheat to the Soviet Union, at least one element is officially lacking: The big buyer. Czechoslovakia, a member of the Soviet bloc, has approached the United States on the chance of a wheat deal. But Agriculture and State Department officials insist that the Soviet Union itself has made no move, either directly or indirectly. However, action of President Kennedy in requesting two House committees to discuss the matter with two Cabinet members today was open to the interpretation that the government had knowledge that an offer was on the way.

STUDY MATTER The House Agriculture and Foreign Affairs Committees will go over the matter with Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges. Two farm-minded senators—Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., and George T. Aiken, R-Vt.—told newsmen they had heard from commercial and private trade sources that the Communists want to buy as much as 200 million bushels of wheat and a quantity of feed grain. Generals it been taken for granted that the Communists would buy American grain only if they could get it at the cut-rate price at which it is sold to friendly countries under an export subsidy program. That price is about 60 cents a bushel below the domestic price. Commerce Department regulations deny benefit of the subsidy to the Soviet bloc. The domestic price is supported above world levels by a farm price support program.

DOMESTIC PRICE There is nothing in the laws or regulations that would keep the Soviets from buying all the wheat they wanted at the domestic price. Obviously they do not want to pay that much. A matter to be settled is whether congressional action is necessary. Chairman Allen J. Ellender, D-La., of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said action by Congress may be necessary. But Agriculture Department lawyers have leaned in the other direction. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Senate Democratic leader, said he believed an American-Soviet wheat deal would be "worth considering" and would likely get careful study from the administration. Mansfield, traveling with President Kennedy on his western speaking tour, told newsmen a private sale of U.S. wheat had been discussed by Kennedy and members of his party.

NO OPINION The President, said Mansfield, indicated interest without expressing an opinion on whether an export license should be granted. The talks private American interests have been carrying on in Ottawa, Canada, about the possibility of a big grain deal with the Soviet Union have hit some snags. The Peavey Co., a large midwestern milling and grain firm, said Wednesday it had sent representatives to Ottawa with the understanding that an Agriculture Department spokesman would be participating. But when none showed up Peavey withdrew its officials.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has passed President Kennedy's $11-billion tax cut bill by a 271-153 vote, handing him one of the biggest legislative victories of his administration. The battleground immediately shifts to the Senate, where administration forces already have launched an all-out drive for passage this year. The prospects are highly dubious. If the Senate should approve the bill in its present form, ultimate reductions would range between $100 and $200 a year for most tax-paying families—more in the upper brackets. Senate Democratic leaders voiced strong confidence they have the votes to pass the bill eventually. It will remain alive in 1964 if it fails to get through this year. But the administration is pushing hard for 1963 passage so that the new reduced withholding can take effect Jan. 1. As the House passed the measure, two-thirds of the benefits for individuals would be effective at that time. The drive for fast Senate action puts the spotlight squarely on Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Pa., finance committee chairman, who opposes any tax cut without offsetting spending reductions. Byrd announced that his committee would begin closed-door briefings on the bill with congressional staff experts a week from today and that they will continue at least a week.

UNTIL OCTOBER This probably means that Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon will not get a chance to lead off the public hearings until Oct. 14 or 15. Senate Democratic leaders did not at once take issue with Byrd publicly but privately expressed deep disappointment at this decision. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Senate Democratic leader, told a reporter he would talk with the Virginian in an effort to get him to speed up the committee's work. But Mansfield conceded Byrd had advised him it might well take the Senate Finance Committee two months to complete its action on the measure.

THANKSGIVING This would mean it would not reach the floor until after Thanksgiving. Such a schedule would allow only three weeks for floor debate and votes and completion of the conference with the House before Christmas week, assuming that Congress is willing to remain in Washington that long. Senate tax debates always are much longer than those in the House since it is only in the Senate that floor amendments can be offered.

RATTLED BY RATTLERS

Two high school age boys generated some excitement at Goliad Junior High School during the noon hour Tuesday by tossing two dead rattlesnakes on the school playground. "A couple of the girls were upset, but there wasn't too much excitement," S. A. Walker, Goliad principal, said. Walker said a custodian picked up the snakes and disposed of them in the school incinerator. The boys who made the unexpected delivery sped away in a pickup truck. High School principal John F. Smith, was notified of the incident.

Sugar Beet Plant Blast Kills Four

MOSES LAKE, Wash. (AP)—Four men were dead and a fifth presumed dead following a string of explosions that ripped through concrete storage silos in the Utah-Idaho Company's $7 million beet sugar factory Wednesday. Two other men were unaccounted for and seven others injured. The blasts chopped down two 135-foot silos, leveled off two more about halfway up and blew the tops off four others. They apparently were touched off when a spark from a welding torch ignited sugar dust.

Fight Coming In Congo Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.S.-backed move to limit a U.N. force in the Congo through next June faced powerful opposition today from the Soviet bloc and several non-Communist nations. Sponsors of the proposal won the first round Wednesday when the General Assembly's 111-nation budgetary committee gave top priority to the question of financing an extension of the Congo operation. But opposition was building up. U.S. representatives have expressed confidence the General Assembly will approve the costs of a curtailed force, estimated at from $18 million to $25 million. Soviet bloc delegates insist the issue should be decided in the Security Council, where Moscow could veto it. They are expected to exert the greatest pressure against assembly extension of the life of the U.N. Congo force. France, Portugal and South Africa also were counted among the dissenters. Like the Soviet bloc, the three have refused to pay any part of the Congo costs. Secretary-General U Thant has told the assembly he must know by Oct. 1 whether it will approve the costs of an extension. He has said 6,000 men are needed for an effective force and about $25 million is needed to maintain them for six months after the Dec. 31 expiration date. Thant has warned that unless the money is raised, he will liquidate the force of about 7,500 men at the end of the year. The Nigerian foreign minister, Jaja Wachuku told the budgetary committee he spoke for the 32 African nations in appealing for continuation of the U.N. force. But some African states are hostile to Congolese Premier Cyrille Adoula's regime and believe the U.N. force is helping to keep him in power.

KICKOFF BREAKFAST

Special Gifts Division Starts Intensive UF Campaign Effort

"We're planning a whirlwind 10-day campaign and expect to wind it up by the end of next week," Jeff Brown, chairman of the Special Gifts Division of the United Fund Campaign, told 66 workers at a kickoff breakfast this morning. The division workers picked up 232 prospect cards and, by the middle of the morning, the first contacts were being made. The division must account for $10,000, almost 10 per cent of the total effort. Jack Y. Smith, campaign chairman, reminded the division of the importance of the United Fund. Angy Glenn, office manager, explained how to make reports and contact prospects. The United Fund drive got off to a good start at Webb AFB, earlier this week when Col. Howard J. Withycombe, Wing commander, told some 100 key workers that he hoped the base would come through with a 100 per cent contribution again this year. He also said he believed if all teams went to work enthusiastically, that the drive could be finished ahead of time. George Zachariah, mayor of Big Spring, thanked base personnel for the cooperation shown in the drive in past years and emphasized that this cooperation is an example and inspiration to the people of Big Spring. Smith spoke briefly in the interest of the fund, and the extra effort needed this year to reach the goal. Lt. Col. J. L. Lauer, base personnel officer, assisted by Capt. Margaret Wyatt, presented the outline to be followed by workers. Col. Lauer explained that every member of the base must be contacted if the drive is to be a success and he urged workers to present the proposition enthusiastically—and not to be the least bit timid. "This is a worthy cause," he said, "and there is no excuse for being apologetic about it." Of the 13 agencies participating in the campaign, most make substantial contributions to the welfare of base personnel during the year. Two of these organizations contribute more than they receive: the Air Force Aid Society and the American Red Cross. These two organizations return to Webb each year more money than the base contributes to the entire campaign. Last year the Air Force Aid Society made $3 loans and 10 grants to Webb personnel, totaling $5,437.90; the Red Cross came to the aid of base personnel with $5,173 to 189 servicemen. Capt. Wyatt distributed brochures to the project officers, along with material needed by the workers in their solicitations. The drive, officially, will not get under way until Sept. 30, but Webb workers will begin their

Birmingham Police Push Bomb Probe

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Police pushed investigation into the city's latest bombing, apparently a treacherous decoy-type bombing, while a two-man presidential team scheduled another round of meetings today with white and Negro leaders. The latest bombing occurred early Wednesday, hours after the arrival of former Army Secretary Kenneth C. Royall and former Army football coach Earl Blaik. Royall and Blaik were sent by President Kennedy to promote racial harmony in this tense city. They described themselves as "friendly guests." Investigators of the bombing said a minor explosion set off in a clump of bushes and honeysuckle vines was apparently designed to lure people and police onto the street. Then they would have been caught in the full force of a second blast from a shrapnel bomb, which exploded 14 minutes later and hurled nails and pieces of metal through windows and into walls of houses, investigators said. Residents of the southeast Birmingham section failed to rush out after the initial blast, however, and there were no injuries when the shrapnel bomb went off. Royall and Blaik met with white and Negro leaders Wednesday and indicated they had scheduled another round of meetings today and in following days. Details were not released.

UNITED FUND Milk Fund Helps Needy

The Big Spring Milk and Ice Fund, one of 13 participating agencies in the United Fund, has a budget of $233 a month to furnish milk and ice to needy families. Any money left over each month buys medicine for families which would otherwise go without it. Milk is delivered regularly by Gandy's Milk Co. to 16-18 families under the care of the fund. A family is put on the list only after it has been examined by the county health nurse and it has been determined that a need exists. Constant rechecks by the nurse follow to see that the need remains. H. V. Crocker, fire chief, has been treasurer of the fund for the past 10 years. "We give each family ample milk to supply their needs," he said in explaining the functions of the fund. "We get all of our money from the United Fund and most of it goes to pay for the milk."

$11 BILLION REDUCTION FOR NATION

Tax Slash Would Benefit Nearly Everyone

EDITOR'S NOTE — The tax bill which has cleared the House and now awaits Senate action, involves far more than a cut in tax rates. It is a complicated measure involving many other changes. Here are some questions and answers on how it might affect you.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The tax bill approved Wednesday by the House would reduce income taxes by $11 billion for the nation as a whole. If the Senate passes it in its present form, what will the measure do for you? Here are answers to some of the questions

A puzzled taxpayer might be raising: Q. Will this mean more money in my pocket? A. The Treasury Department says "virtually every American taxpayer" will pay less taxes if the bill is approved by Congress. Q. How much more money?

20 PER CENT A. That depends on your income. For example, the Treasury figures that average tax reductions for those in the $5,000-$10,000 income range will be about 20 per cent. Using percentages, the biggest tax cuts will go to those earning less than $10,000 a year. But, whatever the percentage, those with high salaries will usually get more dollars in their pocket than those with lower salaries. Take the case of a married couple with two children, earning $6,000 a year and now paying a tax of $600. Under the bill, they would pay $450 in 1965. This would mean a tax cut of 25 per cent and a savings of $150. But, if this couple earned $20,000 a year, they would pay a tax of $4,124 now and, if the bill is passed, $3,428 in 1965. This would mean a tax cut of only 17 per cent but of $696. Q. Do I have to wait until 1965?

A. No, the full tax cut would go into operation then. But two-thirds of the cut would start in 1964. Most taxpayers would feel this on the first of the year as the government would begin withholding less money from their weekly paychecks. Q. Is it possible I won't have to pay any taxes at all? A. The bill would eliminate tax-paying for 1.5 million individuals and families. A single person now has to pay taxes if he earns $667 a year. The new minimum would be $900 a year. A married couple with no children now pay taxes if they make $1,333 a year. The new minimum for them would be $1,600. Q. Does every provision in the bill mean a cut in my taxes? A. No, several provisions of the bill actually raise taxes in certain respects, but experts at the Treasury Department figure these are offset by the general reduction in tax rates.

LOCAL TAXES Q. Can you give me an example? A. The most important is the provision that would prevent taxpayers from deducting certain state and local taxes from their taxable income. At present, taxpayers may deduct state and local taxes on gasoline, cigarettes (in some states), and liquor (in some states). They also may deduct poll taxes and fees paid for license tags and driver's licenses. All this would be eliminated by the bill. Q. Are there any other provisions like that? A. Yes, the bill would provide that a taxpayer could exclude sick pay from his taxable income only after the first 30 days of his illness. He now has to wait seven days in most cases. In addition, a taxpayer now does not have to pay a tax on the premium paid by his firm for a group-term life insurance policy. Under the tax bill, he would have to pay a tax on the premium paid by his firm for any insurance that was greater than $30,000. DIVIDEND TAXES Q. Will there be any changes in the way I pay taxes on my income from dividends? A. That's one of the key provisions in the bill. Under the present law, a taxpayer excludes the first $50 of his dividends from his taxable income (or, if a married couple, $100 of their dividends). He then may subtract from his final tax an amount equal to 4 per cent of the rest of his dividends. Under the tax bill, he could exclude the first $100 (or $200 if a married couple) of his dividends from his taxable income in 1964. Then he could subtract from his final tax an amount equal to 2 per cent of the rest of his dividends. In 1965, he again could take the $100 exclusion, but he would not be allowed to subtract any percentage from his final tax. Q. Does this mean a tax cut or a tax boost? TAX CREDIT A. That depends. It means a cut for those people who only receive a few hundred dollars in dividends each year. The increase in the exclusion means more to them than the elimination of the tax credit. But, for those who earn a good deal in dividends, the elimination of the tax credit will hurt them far more than the increase in the exclusion will help them. Q. Is there anything special in the bill for persons over 65? A. Under the tax laws, a taxpayer can not deduct all the money he spent on medicine and drugs. He first must subtract from his expenses an amount equal to 1 per cent of his adjusted gross income. The tax bill would allow

Road Projects Under Study

AUSTIN (AP) — The State Highway Commission has taken under advisement requests for highway projects costing $11.3 million. The requests were presented Wednesday by delegations from these counties: Jefferson—Leaders from four communities asked a $5 million interchange for U.S. 69-96-287, Spur 380 and Texas 347 and a $2.1 million widening of FM 366 from Texas 347 to Texas 87. Jasper — County Commissioner Harvey Horn asked widening of a 9-mile stretch of U.S. 96 from Bessmay to FM 1004. It would cost $885,000. Anderson — Willard Johnson, Palestine lumber dealer, protested property damage which would result from relocation of U.S. 287 in Palestine. Ward — County Judge Carl Estes asked an interchange for Interstate 20 at Monahans. Construction would cost $65,000 to $117,000.

persons over 65 to deduct all their expenses. CORPORATIONS Q. Is this bill designed to cut the taxes of individuals alone, or are there benefits for corporations as well? A. The bill would cut taxes for corporations, too. The rate for the first $25,000 of corporation income would be cut from 30 to 22 per cent and the maximum rate from 52 per cent to 50 per cent in 1964 and to 48 per cent in 1965. Q. Have we talked about all the provisions of the bill? A. We've discussed all the major provisions, but this is a very long and complicated bill, brimming with many changes in the tax law. The bill would change provisions for child care, moving expenses, income-averaging, charity contributions, casualty and theft loss, property sales, and other items. A taxpayer, under the bill, would have to read the Internal Revenue Service's new instructions very carefully before making out his return in 1964 and 1965.

TIME OF REJOICING

The walls of Jericho fell by faith; but not until after they were compassed about for seven days (Heb. 11:30). In like manner Saul of Tarsus was saved by faith; but not until after he had obeyed the commands to confess Christ, repent and be baptized. He did not have the joy that always accompanies the finding of peace with God. Until he was immersed, he fasted; and Christ has used the words "fast" and "mourn" interchangeably (Matt. 9:14, 15, Acts 9:9, 18, 19). When one is saved is a time of rejoicing; not of mourning (Luke 15:5-7, 9, 10, 32). Saul was not deceived into thinking he was saved when he was not; so he must have broken his fast and rejoiced at the proper time. It is no wonder Saul did not rejoice until he was baptized, for until then he still had his sins. He was told, "... be baptized, and wash away thy sins ..." (Acts 22:16). By T. M. Tarbet, preacher, church of Christ, 3000 West Highway 80, where you are always welcome. —Adv.

California Sea Serpent Found

MALIBU, Calif. (AP)—An ancient mariner's nightmare — a 13½-foot sea creature, or serpent — now rests, well pickled, in an ichthyologist's formaldehyde solution. The creature, officially dubbed an "Oar Fish," was discovered Wednesday after it washed up on the beach at Malibu. The car fish sports a horse-like head, silver skin, big blue eyes and a fire-engine-red dorsal fin. Dr. Vladimir Walters, a UCLA ichthyologist, said the fish normally resides at 600-foot depths, and that the specimen was only the second one ever found in good condition. He added that it would have measured 18½ feet, but its 5-foot tail was gone.

Drinking Man's Home Not Castle

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP)—No longer is a man's home necessarily his castle, if he's been drinking in it, says the Santa Barbara County Board of Supervisors. A new ordinance amendment gives sheriff's officers the green light in hauling tospots off to jail if they become a nuisance to their wives. A person may now be arrested on suspicion of being disorderly or drunk to the annoyance of any other person in a private home or on any private property. Formerly the suspect would have had to stray to public property before he could be arrested.

Actor's Estate Near Half Million

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Court records show that early screen star Richard Barthelmess' estate amounted to nearly half a million dollars in California. The actor's will, signed Feb. 15, 1952, and already admitted to probate in New York, was filed in Los Angeles Wednesday to dispose of 450,000 in California real property. Barthelmess died last Aug. 17 in New York at the age of 68. The bulk of his estate goes to his widow, Jessica Stewart Barthelmess of New York City, and his daughter, Mary B. Bradley, of San Rafael, Calif.

Judge Answers 'Shiner's Excuse

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — James Junior Rackley explained to U.S. Dist. Judge J. Smith Henley that he resorted to making moonshine whisky only because the summer was dry and he couldn't find work. That also was the problem in 1955, he said, when he was put on probation for making moonshine. Judge Henley asked how long a prison term it would take to keep Rackley from starting his operation again. "I don't know," answered Rackley. "I ain't never been there." The judge decided 60 days would be sufficient.

Rightist Military At Helm Of Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Rightist, anti-Communist military chiefs held power in the Dominican Republic today after deposing President Juan Bosch and accusing him of leading his country toward communism, economic ruin and war with neighboring Haiti.

Bosch, 54, a liberal intellectual, was expected to be sent into exile in Puerto Rico. But he apparently still was a prisoner.

Puerto Rican Gov. Luis Munoz Marin, a close friend, had expected Bosch in San Juan Wednesday night. An aide to the governor said he had learned Bosch had been taken to the San Ysidro air base 9 miles from Santo Domingo. Bosch's wife, and young son and daughter already were in San Juan, visiting Munoz Marin's family.

The Dominican military command said Bosch was "surrounded by all kinds of guarantees and considerations."

SUSPEND RELATIONS
The United States suspended diplomatic relations with Santo Domingo and a $50-million aid program. The State Department said "any overthrow of a democratically elected government is a loss to the policies of the countries of this hemisphere, including our own."

The Dominican ambassador to Washington, Enrique del Rosario, cabled the junta: "I will not serve an illegal, unconstitutional government."

He told a news conference: "Some of the newly rich businessmen, who were happy at making a profit under (the Trujillo) dictatorship, have been fighting the democratic government from the start."

The leaders of the bloodless coup summoned Bosch's political opponents to pick a "respectable man" to lead the nation of 3 million out of what they said was a chaotic state "brought about by administrative indecision."

... ousted president

The silver-haired president was seized in his palace before dawn Wednesday. The bloodless coup ended his seven-month rule as the Dominican Republic's first freely elected president in more than 30 years.

YEARS IN EXILE
Even Bosch's friends, some of whom called him a dreamer, had wondered whether the poet-novelist had the practical ability, after years in exile, to lead a nation released from dictatorship by the May 30, 1961 assassination of Rafael Trujillo.

The military leaders, headed by armed forces minister Elby Vinas Roman, said they ousted Bosch primarily because he coddled Communists. He had rejected a military demand in July that he crack down on leftists. There also was widespread dissatisfaction with a recent law confiscating properties of all Dominicans who prospered under the 31-year Trujillo dictatorship. The law affected practically every Dominican who had money in a bank.

SLOW TO INVEST
American interests, with a $100-million investment in the country already, were reluctant to invest additional capital in the atmosphere of uncertainty. A coup had been rumored in the making for weeks.

The military outlawed the Communist party and organizations supporting Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro, arrested many left-wingers, abolished the constitution, dissolved the legislature, banned public gatherings and ordered a 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew. Santo Domingo was calm.

An armed forces communique said the military command guaranteed Dominicans "human and civil rights, including political rights, the right of free enterprise and other rights so that business, industry, banks and foreign and national capital can contribute without fear of expropriation."

ALL OBLIGATIONS
It also vowed to respect all international obligations, especially inter-American resolutions against communism and Castroism.

The communique indicated a conciliatory attitude toward Dictator Francois Duvalier of Haiti, which shares the island of Hispaniola with the Dominican Republic. The military leaders accused Bosch of "dangerous improvisation of international incidents" in his feud with Duvalier and said this "could have led to a dangerous and unnecessary international conflict."

Suggestion Pays Off

Little Lower Temperature Only Trace Of Cool Front

By The Associated Press

Somewhat lower temperatures were about the only trace left Thursday of Texas' latest cool front.

Skies cleared throughout the state except for a few clouds in extreme South Texas and the Lower Rio Grande Valley. There were occasional showers during the night in Northeast Texas along the Red River.

Early morning temperatures dipped into the 40s in the Texas Panhandle. It was 30 degrees warmer on the lower coast.

Except for a possibility of isolated showers in eastern and central sections of the state, forecasts called for little change through Friday.

Afternoon temperatures Wednesday ranged from 96 degrees at Presidio down to 80 at Alpine, Dalhart, Gaiveston and Lubbock.

Vietnamese Crisis Crosses Lines Of Religion, Politics

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—The Vietnamese crisis crosses over many lines, both religious and political.

President Ngo Dinh Diem's government, in moving against the Buddhists, contends this 2,500-year-old faith has become tainted in Viet Nam by the Hammer and Sickle. Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, the president's sister-in-law, says the Buddhist efforts are a plot to end the Diem regime—"to topple the government by using all means, but intoxication of the world."

The government's argument runs like this: There are many Communist sympathizers in South Viet Nam. Three-quarters of the population is at least nominally Buddhist. Inevitably, some overlap between these groups is likely.

Documents vouched for by U.S. intelligence agencies have been seized from the Communist Viet Cong, specifically instructing all cadres to incite and exploit religious tension. These documents began turning up more than a year ago.

TWO MONKS
In February, 1962, the South Viet Nam National Liberation Front (Viet Cong) named two Buddhist monks to its central committee. It also named one Roman Catholic priest.

The Government delegate to the Central Vietnamese area, a Catholic, says he believes all religions in South Viet Nam are infiltrated by Communists.

The Ngo family has charged that Buddhist opposition leaders are Communist sympathizers and that some are Communist agents. The charge is especially aimed at the leader of the Buddhist opposition movement, Thich Tri Quang, who took sanctuary at the U.S. embassy.

AGAINST FRENCH
Much of the evidence against Buddhist opposition leaders is pegged to associations with the Viet Minh during the war against the French.

Added to this, the government has displayed Viet Cong weapons and ammunition which it says came from raids on a Loi and Quang pagodas.

U.S. intelligence men say they are certain that some evidence was planted.

Nevertheless, there is no reason why a Communist agent cannot become a Buddhist monk, and there seems little doubt some did.

So did government police agents. One is in asylum at the U.S. embassy. For nine years up to 1962, Le Mai Chi was on the Saigon secret police force and American officials feel he may still be, despite his plea for refuge at the embassy.

President Points To Water Projects

GREAT FALLS, Mont. (AP)—President Kennedy, fighting hard for voter enthusiasm in the Rocky Mountain region, argued today that his administration has gone all-out for water resource projects. Swinging into the third day of his 10,000-mile western speaking tour, Kennedy plugged for his water projects after making an emotional foreign policy address late Wednesday at Billings, Mont., before spending the night in Grand Teton National Park, in neighboring Wyoming.

Kennedy flies to Great Falls from Grand Teton today before winging into Washington and Utah but even before he left Grand Teton, the traveling executive made public the prepared text of his Great Falls talk. In an obvious bid to whip up support in the water-conscious West, which voting returns indicate has become increasingly conservative, Kennedy recalled that in the 1960 presidential campaign he pledged "a reversal of the policy of 'no new starts'."

NEW PROJECTS
Kennedy said that by mid-1964 "we expect to have approved new construction starts on a total of 211 water resource projects and 192 watershed projects" costing about $4 billion.

OIL REPORT

Dual Finaled In Tex-Hamon Field

TEXAS No. 1 Koehler, a Tex-Hamon field project 13 miles south of Lamesa in Dawson County, has been patented in two sections, the Fusselman and Lower Mississippi.

Bottomed at 11,688 and plugged back to 11,613, the project reported a Fusselman flowing potential of 440 barrels of oil per day from 11,620-30 foot perforations through a 9-4 inch choke. Gravity of the oil was 42.2 degrees. The gas-oil ratio was too small to measure and the tubing pressure was 840 pounds.

Shrine Circus Draws 11,000 To Benefit Performances

An estimated 11,000 persons attended the fourth Shrine Circus presented in Big Spring, George Bair, chairman of the circus committee, said today. The arena was about 85 per cent filled for a 3 p.m. performance Wednesday and there was only standing room for an 8:15 p.m. show.

The Shrine Circus drew the crowds before the regular performances with clown of Big Spring and surrounding areas for their generous acceptance of the Shrine Circus," Bair said.

Proceeds from the circus go to support Shrine hospitals and burn centers. Crippled childrens hospitals operated by the organization have been in service since 1922, when the first of 17 proposed was built. There are 13 in operation today, representing an investment of $25 million. They operate on an annual budget of $7 million.

Business Is Good But Not Booming

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Battle-scarred American consumers are used to creeping inflation—prices of one thing or another going up here and there from time to time. But talk of a new concerted spurt just ahead may well be premature. Times aren't that booming, no matter what the stock market says. Retailers and manufacturers are still too competitive. Recent price rises, mostly of industrial materials or products, are considered too scattered and too tentative to change the present trend — which, alas, is that of still further creeping inflation. But a general substantial price rise looks dim indeed to most economists, in and out of government, at this time.

Texas Cities' Cleanup Cited

WASHINGTON (AP)—Beaumont and Port Arthur, Tex., and Newport, Ky., were cited here by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy as examples of the effectiveness of aroused public interest in fighting organized crime.

Kennedy, in testimony before a Senate investigating subcommittee, said that where there is little public interest the cash registers of organized crime clang loudly. "Where public interest is aroused—and stays aroused—racketeers are driven into bankruptcy or prison," he said.

A notable example is Newport, Ky., which was long known nationally for wide-open gambling and prostitution.

Kennedy said Beaumont is another example. "Since late 1960, when a special squad of Internal Revenue Service agents began intensive investigation there, the wide-open vice and corrupt law enforcement which had existed for decades have been largely eliminated," he said. "This result has been achieved by joint state and federal efforts, which continue."

He said a number of public officials—including the sheriff, district attorney and police chief—of Beaumont and Port Arthur admitted receiving substantial amounts as "political contributions."

"In one case," he added, "these amounted to $85,000 in five years."

"All of these officials have been removed. Three leading local gambling figures have been convicted of tax charges, and still other cases are either pending or under investigation."

Franklin Spears Eyes No. 2 Spot

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — State Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio said today he is thinking seriously of running for lieutenant governor in the 1964 Democratic primary.

Spears, a liberal Democrat, said he thinks Lt. Gov. Preston Smith is the most vulnerable state officer.

"The incumbent is a nice guy, but he's mediocre," Spears said. "The incumbent offers nothing in the way of leadership. It's going to take more than that for Texas to continue on its way to top position among the states."

Spears' term in the Senate does not expire until 1966.

A former state representative, Spears is the nephew of Federal Judge Adrian Spears.

THE GOLDEN RULE

A Devotional For The Day

Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks. (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18).
PRAYER: Our Father, we thank Thee for all the benefits we receive from Thee. Thou knowest the best time for us to receive them. Grant us patience that we may wait Thy time. In Christ's name. Amen.
(From The 'Upper Room')

Good Work, Douglas

We join with his friends and classmates in congratulations for Douglas H. Brandon, Big Spring High School senior who has been singled out as a semifinalist in the annual Merit Scholarship competition.

The announcement that he is one of 13,000 students across the nation so honored is a compliment to his school, his community, as well as his personal scholarship. We wish him continued success on the second qualifying test that could make him a finalist in this stiff competition.

It will take hard study and continued scholarship on Brandon's part to continue in congratulations to Douglas H. Brandon, Big Spring High School senior who has been singled out as a semifinalist in the annual Merit Scholarship competition.

He has already proved his ambition, resourcefulness and ability. Brandon has been a straight "A" student and has carried a heavy scholastic load in order to complete four years of high school in three years. This in itself is a remarkable achievement.

Good luck, Douglas. This is the sort of achievement which has enduring meaning.

Off To A Good Start

Good reports followed one another this week as the United Fund got its annual campaign effort off to one of the best starts of recent years. Within 48 hours of the kickoff breakfast for the Employees Division, four firms announced they had reached 100 per cent participation.

Other divisions are poised to make their efforts in the weeks to come and all of us will have an opportunity to participate in this joint support for 13 local welfare and youth guidance programs.

Big Spring and Howard County have a good record in support of this annual one-time request for these agencies. And the credit for this record goes to the people who dig deep once each year to make it possible. This year, campaign workers are making every effort to contact the individual wage earners and tell them the story of the United Fund—what it does, who it is, and why it is important.

A worker will be contacting you soon, to tell you about the campaign. Hear him out. Remember, he is probably one of your neighbors, giving his spare time and volunteer service to a worthwhile cause.

It will take all of us, doing our fair share, to reach the goal.

David Lawrence That Meaningful 'Cash Flow'

WASHINGTON—"Cash flow" is a meaningful term in the business world. It indicates how much cash is on hand which to carry on daily operations. So it may come as a surprise to most people to learn that under the so-called "tax cut" now being proposed, the 13,000 corporations which bring in the bulk of the tax revenues are going to have no immediate benefit from the revision of tax rates.

THIS IS BECAUSE large corporations—those with tax liabilities in excess of $100,000 a year—will be required to pay during the next year a major part of their 1964 tax liability together with their usual payments for 1963 taxes. This will amount to about the same as they paid in 1963 or on 1962 tax returns, even though the rates themselves are scheduled to go down next January.

President Kennedy, in his address on TV and radio to the nation a few days ago, said: "Every businessman can keep a higher percentage of his profits in his cash register, or put it to work expanding or improving his business."

BUT WHOEVER did the memoranda prepared for the President's speech didn't make clear that eliminating tax payments would be involved. What is most disappointing, of course, is the news that most of the very businessmen who are expected to get the economy moving by reason of the tax cuts will not have available to them next year the benefit of these tax reductions. In fact, it will be seven years before the acceleration of cash payments will be completed. So it is hard to see where the stimulus to spending in business and the incentive to expand and create new jobs will be coming from or how they will avoid a recession.

The House Ways and Means Committee report last week showed that payments to the Treasury from corporations averaging about $5 million a year would average more than 99 per cent as much in tax payments during the next five years as the tax payments under present law. Thus, the ability of the large corporations to finance operations, build new plants and get new machinery will be no greater under the new tax schedules than they are under the present schedules of tax rates.

"CASH FLOW" is made up of net profits after taxes and depreciation charges. Dividend payments come out of "cash flow" and the balance is available for current operations. Many financial experts have pointed out that dividends paid to follow "cash flow" more closely than they follow net profits. Retained profits and depreciation charges—on the "cash flow" after dividends—make up more than 60 per cent of the funds used by corporations. The other 40 per cent is the amount obtained by long and short-term borrowings and from the sale of a corporation's equity stocks.

Increased "cash flow" in the next seven years will be just about equal to the increase in tax payments being made during that period so as to get on a current basis. This is but another way of saying that the so-called "tax cut" will be merely a bookkeeping transaction for another seven years and that the amount of available cash will not be materially changed within that period by reason of tax cuts.

THE SMALLER corporations, to be sure, will get the benefit of the new tax rates immediately. The amounts made available, however, are very small. A company with $100,000 profits now has to pay $46,500 in taxes and, under the new rates next year, will pay $43,000 and in 1965 and later $41,500. This means a saving of $5,000 a year by 1965, which, of course, will be beneficial. But it does not compare with the much larger sums that usually become necessary to make improvements in a business.

The real reason, however, why the special exemption was retained for the corporations with tax liabilities of $100,000 or less is that the "cash flow" of the smaller businesses is vital to their existence. They carry on their operations and pay their monthly bills to a considerable extent with the tax money that isn't due until the following year.

But the problems of the larger corporations are not in essence very different. They, too, depend on "cash flow" to conduct their month-by-month operations and more of them will have to borrow because of accelerated payments to the Treasury. This means an extra expense for interest charges.

WHAT IS DIFFICULT to understand is why the House Ways and Means Committee, upon the recommendation of the Treasury, voted to discriminate against the larger corporations by compelling them to pay in 1964 a bigger part of the taxes that normally wouldn't be due until 1965 and to continue such advance payments for a seven-year period.

There has been much talk lately about "equal protection under law," but the corporation which earns a gross profit of over $200,000 will discover when the pending tax bill is enacted that there is no such thing as equality between corporations. For a penalty is imposed upon success at the very time that the President has been telling the nation that the whole purpose of the new tax cut is to furnish incentive for the creation of jobs to cure unemployment.

in 1945 that he decided to become an actor. He set out on an intensive program of self-education, listening to the radio to improve his pronunciation, endlessly reading and studying the dictionary to build his vocabulary.

He worked as a janitor to support himself while taking acting lessons.

"It was lonely work, and I hate loneliness," he recalled. "But loneliness has been my partner all my life—and still is to some extent."

"I don't lead a social life. I don't go to dances or night clubs. I am as much of a recluse as I can be and not have it too noticeable. My greatest recreation is doing things with my three children."

"I've been the angry young man for too long," he said. "I want now to do pictures that make people feel glad they're human—and that point out being alive is fun."

'YEAH—HOW ABOUT SOME STRUCTURAL CHANGES?'

James Marlow Economy Request Would Leave JFK Free

WASHINGTON (AP)—There's a big difference between urging President Kennedy to keep expenses down and telling him he has to if he wants a tax cut. Some Republicans ignored it, two in particular.

Urging a president to economize leaves him free to ask for higher spending if he thinks it necessary for the nation's welfare. For Congress to put a limit on how much he can ask, paralyzes him no matter what the national need.

For Congress to impose such a limit is a sophisticated form of buck-passing. Congress, not the President, holds the purse strings. He can only spend what Congress votes him. Congress has the ultimate responsibility for economy.

AWAY BACK last spring two Republicans, Reps. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin and Thomas B. Curtis of Missouri, were complaining about Kennedy's tax-cut proposal. They wanted spending cut.

Both are members of the House Ways and Means Committee, which handles taxes.

Byrnes and Curtis got more uneasy and more specific as the months passed and it seemed likely that their committee, where Democrats outnumber Republicans 15 to 10, was going to approve a cut.

Kennedy said he wanted the cut to stimulate the economy by giving individuals and businesses more money to spend, even if it meant putting the country deeper in the red for a while by reducing revenue from taxes.

THE COMMITTEE Democrats went along with Kennedy but on Sept. 10, when they approved the cut, they urged him to declare he would go along with the idea that "all reasonable means" should be used "to restrain government spending."

Kennedy agreed, more than once. It didn't tie his hands behind his back. It allowed him room, if he thought necessary, to require it, to ask for increased spending.

And in his radio-television broadcast Sept. 18 he promised federal spending would be limited to "only those activities which are fully essential to the nation."

THIS WASN'T enough for Byrnes and Curtis. They got time on the air, too, to give their side. Curtis said Kennedy "hedged" his promises. Byrnes said Kennedy is endangering the economy.

Both wanted Congress to write a spending limit into the tax-cut bill.

But Wednesday the Democrat-run House approved Kennedy's $11-billion tax cut and, while doing so, beat down a Republican motion that would have prevented a tax cut at all unless Kennedy submitted a reduced spending budget for this year and next.

But Curtis had already put his finger on the problem—for the politicians in Congress—when in his broadcast of Sept. 21 he said:

"THE TOUGH part is when you get into the business of assigning priorities to good programs. It is tough for a person, particularly one in politics, to say 'no' to a desirable program because we can't afford it and all the other desirable programs this year."

That could be interpreted this way: It would be easier on the politicians, in explaining to the people back home why some "desirable" program was cut or eliminated if they could put the blame on the President instead of Congress.

But all the argument may end in smoke. Although the House approved a tax cut, the Senate may not. If the Senate doesn't go along there can be no cut.

The budget Kennedy submitted to Congress this year was the highest in history—$98.8 billion.

Hal Boyle Life A Struggle, Says Poitier

NEW YORK (AP)—"I think of life as a struggle," said Sidney Poitier, "and a struggle at the core of which is man's effort to fashion order out of chaos."

"Because he has a mind and a brain, he is predestined to this struggle eternally."

At 39 Poitier, a man who says he "had to live in a hurry," is rated by many as the world's greatest Negro actor.

Although he feels that personally he is the exception to racial discrimination in the theater—if there is an exception—Sidney has taken a leading role in the fight against segregation.

"I have to be active in it," he said, "because I believe that out of that chaos must come social order. And part of that order will be integration."

Poitier's own life has been a victorious struggle against ignorance and poverty. Raised in barefoot and happy freedom on an island in the Bahamas, he came to this country at the age of 15 after one year of formal schooling.

Before he joined the Army, which trained him in physiotherapy, Sidney worked as a longshoreman, ditch digger, pin boy in a bowling alley, truck driver, store clerk and parking lot attendant.

To Your Good Health Movement Essential For Arthritis Sufferers

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D.
Dear Dr. Molner: I see that you advise movement of the joints to the fullest extent for arthritis, but not exercise. I have it in both legs. Moderate walks seem to help. Do you recommend this?—D. C. P.

Yes, I do. Movement is important to keep the joints from becoming too stiff.

In cases of acute rheumatoid arthritis, exercise can be harmful. In the lesser types, it's important to keep moving. By this, I don't mean constantly, but every day, and several times a day, perhaps.

I recall a woman who, in her 20's had rheumatoid arthritis. Her doctor (widely respected in medical circles), told her that if in the morning she forced herself to get moving, no matter how much it hurt, she would return pretty much to normal. But if she let the pain win, and moved as little as possible, she would be a cripple for the rest of her life. She gritted her teeth—and moved—and to see her now, you'd never know she had rheumatoid arthritis.

So I say MOVE. Call it movement. Call it exercise. But MOVE!

Here's another letter on the subject:

Dear Doctor: I have had arthritis for many years. I hate to take "pain pills." I have found that tennis has helped me tremendously. It was a big fight at first. My legs felt like rubber and my arms like lead and I could hardly lift them.

I have been playing for a year now at least once a week or more often. If I skip the game for two weeks my arms and legs ache and become stiff.

To me tennis is better than medicine and it affords a great deal of enjoyment, whether I win or lose.

I agree, also, about heat. The relief from a hot bath is wonderful, if only temporarily.—B. J.

I don't know B. J.'s age, but I don't recommend tennis for a person in the 60's who hasn't had any strenuous exercise for years.

However, I recommend walking, and more vigorous activity if it appeals to you. Use your common sense and your interests to decide HOW you move. Heavy strain on the joints is harmful rather than helpful, but—well, I'm right back at the beginning. The important thing is MOVEMENT. I think aspirin, for more than one reason, is good, and I disagree with "B. J." about trying to avoid "pain pills." Move, but make it easy to move if aspirin helps.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is it safe to donate clothes of a person who has cancer of the face and hands?—MRS. R. H. S.

Yes, because cancer is not transmitted from person to person. It develops individually. The only precaution is to wash or clean the clothing first. The cancerous areas may harbor unrelated infections.

Of all the problems that pediatricians encounter in children, pinworm is the commonest. To learn the newest methods of treatment for this pest, write in care of The Herald, for the booklet, "The Commonest Pest, Pinworm," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim A See-Saw History

Our local little theatre organization has had a see-saw history since it was organized some eight years ago. It was immensely popular in those early days, with a large membership and considerable community support. In addition to its regular program of plays, it produced an Easter pageant that marked the high point of its accomplishments.

But through the years, the active membership has dwindled and today, it is often difficult to find enough people to cast even the simplest production. It has been left to a handful of die-hards to keep the spark of little theatre alive. In fact, except for less than a dozen people, there would be no little theatre in Big Spring today.

ITS LACK of success is difficult to pinpoint. Few such groups have been given so much by its community. While still a young organization, the City of Big Spring gave the organization a building in City Park, ideally suited to a small theatre group. It was far and away better than the ramshackle barns often used in some areas.

A few years later, the City of Big Spring spent almost $2,000 on the building to make it even more suitable. Then various businessmen have made handsome contributions, including furnishings, materials for a curtain, dozens of gallons of paint, electrical supplies, lumber, chairs to mention but a few. It was estimated at one time that up to $2,000 had been donated to get the building in shape. In addition, the organization has invested all its funds in building materials.

AND YET in many ways the building is no further along toward being a place for play production than the day it was first given to the group. And recently, the City was asked to spend another $5,000 on the building.

Perhaps one of the problems has been the ever changing leadership. With each new election, comes a new group with new plans that may, or may not, track the ambitions of the officers before them. Almost invariably, the new officers are new to the organization as well.

And so, the organization has not always been able to maintain a continuing program of work, consistent with what has gone before. There has been little assurance that plans being made today will be followed through tomorrow.

WHATEVER the answer to the organization's problems may be, it would appear that money is not one of them. It has had the kind of help from its beginnings which appears to have solved little.

Support through a membership enlistment program and more people in the audience would probably be the most valuable help the organization could have.

Inez Robb Above The Mundane Level

My friend with the whim of iron stirred another drop of lemon into her tea.

"I've been giving a lot of thought recently to Governor Rockefeller and the decision he's going to have to make eventually," she began.

"You mean whether or not to try for the Republican nomination and the presidency?" I asked.

"YOU CAN PUT IT on that mundane level if you want to," she said, "but if he is really shooting for the stars, his choice is between the poets and the historians. For true immortality, take the poets every time! Do you seriously believe that Cleopatra would be roaring around in living, breathing color if Shakespeare hadn't rescued her from history?"

"For that matter, who would Phaedra be if she were never remembered by Guinevere or Isolde or even Parnassus, who shocks congressmen, if it weren't for poets and playwrights and novelists? And, by the way, congressmen apparently don't read much except the Congressional Record, or they'd know that Phaedra never won any Girl Scout medals or entered the Pillsbury Contest."

"BUT TO GET BACK to Rockefeller—the polls are currently running against him. Now, this could be only a temporary condition. But if the trend continues to Sen. Goldwater, the governor is in danger of winding up as a few paragraphs in some future books by Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. or by Theodore H. White.

"On the other hand, if he throws in with the poets, he can be remembered as the American Duke of Windsor who renounced an empire and a throne for love. Just think what some future Keats or Auden or Archibald MacLeish or Marianne Moore could do with his story!"

My friend with the whim of iron poured herself another cup of tea.

"WHAT ROCKEFELLER should be

Holmes Alexander If Voltag Of Votes Could Be Measured

WASHINGTON D. C.—Senator Hugh Scott, a man of wit who speaks many a true word in jest, once proposed that there be three kinds of votes in the United States Senate, as there are in the United Nations: positive, negative and abstention.

He was not at the time talking about the Nuclear Treaty, but his cogent proposal came back to mind during the final days of debate.

THERE IS HARDLY a doubt that the Treaty would have failed its two-thirds majority if some means had existed for registering the numerous and serious misgivings with which Senators gave their reluctant consent. Of course any Senator can abstain from any vote by purposely absenting himself, or by not answering "present" when his name is called. But such action is easily misunderstood, and it requires the mortal fortitude of heroes, of which we have too few. Scott's rule, if in force, would permit a clear and honorable way to record dubiety—something which was present, but not accounted for, in the lopsided majority nose-count that built up around the ratification of this Treaty.

FOR EXAMPLE, two Senators of equal ability, Russell and Symington, arose on the same afternoon, expressed almost identical misgivings about the Treaty, yet announced for opposite votes. Both were worried about an arms race that would lead into a war of unimaginable frightfulness. Russell spoke of the "almost unbelievable destructive power of nuclear weapons." Symington, with no precision, spoke of a thermal airburst that could scorch human skins as far as 100 miles away.

Both men saw military disadvantages to the United States. Both acknowledged what Symington called "the gnawing vulnerability questions" which cannot be fully answered at the present state of our knowledge. Both saw the danger of Russian cheating. But Russell found the risks—as well as the whole philosophy of unsuspected disarmament—to be unacceptable. And, Symington, found that we could accept the risks "with our eyes open" and should go ahead in hopes of some day "bringing nuclear weapons under some form of satisfactory control."

OBVIOUSLY, both Russell, and Symington had thought the matter through, but Russell's feelings against the Treaty were far stronger than Symington's feelings for the Treaty. This, I think, has been the pattern throughout all the testimony, all the discussion, all the debates. The Treaty is one which informed persons can vigorously oppose but cannot vigorously endorse.

Take another matching pair of Senators, Jackson and Robertson. We find Jackson saying, "I am compelled to conclude . . . that the Treaty involves serious—perhaps even formidable—military and technical disadvantages." Yet Jackson decided to vote for it on the grounds that the Administration is aware of the risks and will take precautions. On the other hand, Robertson, noting the same risks, concluded that the Administration Treaty is insupportable.

JACKSON'S YES-VOTE does not carry a fraction of the conviction in Robertson's no-vote. If the voltag of opposition in many yes - votes like Jackson's and Symington's were measurable, we would know a good deal more about the true "consent" that has been given the Treaty. If there had been an honorable and accepted method by which Senators could abstain because of considerable doubt, the final vote on the Treaty would tell a different—and a truer—story.

Billy Graham

Although my husband believes in God, he feels that religion is a Sunday affair when we attend services. When I told him that I want to be reborn in Christ, my husband objected because he fears I will become a radical about religion. How can I overcome his objections?

D. J.
Your husband's belief that religion is a Sunday affair is shared by altogether too many people. We moderns are inclined to compartmentalize life. Too many people "file" their religion on Sunday evening, and come next weekend, pull it out of the file for temporary use. This detaching religion from everyday life is one of the tragedies of these times. When we study the lives of dynamic Christians who have influenced the world for God, we are impressed with their absolute devotion to Christ. We need more of "this one thing I do" attitude, instead of "these many things I dabble in" philosophy.

It seems, because of your failure to take a stand for that which you believe to be right, that your husband is converting you, rather than you influencing him for Christ. It is possible that he may be testing you to see if you believe strongly enough to act upon your convictions. The world, including your husband, often looks in vain for someone who will dare to take a courageous stand for what they believe.

Shasta Introduces Ford For 1964 Here Friday

New styling and performance are highlights of the Ford line of motor cars which go on display in Big Spring Friday. Shasta Ford Sales, 500 W. 4th, will open its doors on the complete line of new cars for the inspection of area residents.

Total performance in a completely restyled package, with three new roof lines and a roomier interior, keynote the Ford for 1964.

All 16 models in the 1964 Ford lineup—including the 4-door hardtop models—are designed to combine an exterior look of luxury with still more of the engineering features that have made the 1964 Ford a good seller.

The vehicle has been redesigned inside as well to reduce the front compartment tunnel size by one-third and to increase headroom and seat height over 1963 by as much as an inch.

New in the Ford power lineup is a Thunderbird Special 352 CID V-8 with 4-barrel carburetion rated at 250 horsepower and offering both good performance and good economy on regular fuel.

Completely restyled for the first time since its introduction four years ago, the Ford Falcon for 1964 combines a new look of action with a more spacious interior, added economy and a dramatically smoother ride.

The new luggage compartment of the 1964 Ford Falcon is longer and wider with 25 per cent more usable cargo space. The new rear deck lid is four inches wider for improved luggage accessibility.

Modifications to the crankcase emission control system of the 144- and 170-cubic-inch six-cylinder engines and to the automatic choke of the 260-cubic-inch V-8 give these 1964 Falcon engines improved economy.

The 1964 Ford Falcon continues the widest model choice in the compact field with 17 models in five series including: Standard 2- and 4-door sedans; Futura 2- and 4-door sedans, 2-door hardtop, 2-proved engines to action-keyed new styling, the 1964 Fairlane offers a full measure of performance and economy in a family-sized package.

"Fresh styling for 1964 may give some the impression that the Fairlane has become a bigger car," said Donald N. Frey, Ford Division assistant general manager. "Actually, it retains its original size—about equal to the 1956 full-sized Ford outside and comparable to the 1959 Ford inside."

The new lines of the 1964 Fairlane are complemented by a selection of five engines, three of which are of the same basic design as the V-8 which powered the Lotus cars to second and seventh place finishes in the 1963 Indianapolis 500-mile Memorial Day Classic.

"Combined with five transmissions for 1964, they offer a full-line of performance and economy choices designed to meet the requirements of nearly any driver," Frey said.

Included in the lineup are 170- and 200-cubic-inch six-cylinder engines and 260- and two 289-cubic-inch V-8s. Transmissions available with designated engines include three-speed manual, the Fordomatic two-speed automatic, overdrive, four-speed all-synchromesh manual floor shift, and a new Dual Range Cruise-O-Matic automatic.

The 1964 Fairlane model lineup includes 2- and 4-door sedans and a 4-door Ranch Wagon in the Fairlane Series. The Fairlane 500 series includes 2- and 4-door sedans, a 2-door hardtop, a 2-door sports coupe, and a 4-door Custom Ranch Wagon.

The 1964 Thunderbird has been given a longer hood and a shorter roofline, while the all-new body side panels are highly sculptured. The front end features a more forceful power dome, wider spaced and higher set headlights, and an integrated bumper and grille. The rear end has new rectangular taillights set within the integrated rear bumper.

New in interior styling too, the Thunderbird features a cockpit styling motif in the driver's compartment.

The standard equipment offered last year, including a 390-cubic-inch engine, power steering, power brakes, and swing-away wheel, have been carried over in 1964. Many options also are available, including air conditioning, AM-FM radio; a reclining passenger seat with extendible headrest that provides living room comfort on wheels; and a safety-convenience control panel with vacuum door locks, doors ajar light, and emergency flasher.

Texan Refuses To Register As Communist

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A San Antonio man identified at a Washington hearing as a Communist says he did "what any other self-respecting American would have done" when he refused to register as a Communist.

John W. Stanford Jr. said Wednesday he had written President Kennedy an open letter telling why he failed to show up for a hearing before the Subversive Activities Control Board.

He was represented at the hearing Monday by Washington lawyer Joseph Forer.

William Lowery of Dallas testified before the board that he had been a member of the Communist party since 1945 and that Stanford was elected state executive secretary of the party in 1958.

The hearing was called by Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy to require Stanford's registration under the Subversive Activities Control Act. Stanford claims he is being persecuted for his political beliefs. Declaring he does not intend to register, he said:

"When I received a copy of Atty. Gen. Kennedy's petition to the Subversive Activities Control Board I did what any other self-respecting American would have done: I told him that the government has no business telling me what my politics should be."

"I refused to file a form of self-incrimination, and I refused to answer his allegations against me."

Meanwhile, Dist. Atty. James Barlow said in San Antonio he was studying the law to see if his office could take any action against Stanford.

Texas' Communist control act requires Communists in the state for five or more days to register with the Department of Public Safety.

"This may involve a constitutional question as to whether a person can be punished under a state law for an act of sedition against the U. S. government," the district attorney said.

Barlow and State Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr were asked by the Justice Department to take no action against Stanford until the federal government resolves its question.

Uncertainty, Pressure Head Conditions In Guatemala Now

GUATEMALA (AP)—The desk of Clemente Marroquin Rojas, deputy editor of the newspaper La Hora, is cluttered with unpublished antigovernment editorials.

He turns out a new one every day. At the end of each he invariably adds a line: "Because I know this will not be approved for publication, may it serve to enlighten the censor."

La Hora is the only newspaper with a censor in all Guatemala. The other newspapers, warned by the government not to publish anything critical of it, practice a form of self-censorship. When it came down to the fiery Marroquin Rojas, however, it was like asking Niagara to hush up.

The editor represents one sector of resistance to a 6-months old military regime which many Guatemalans fear is turning into a long-playing dictatorship.

"We have a brand new, bubbly volcano—right in the presidential palace," says a Guatemalan politician, now idle. "We're wondering just when it'll erupt."

A taciturn, career military officer, Col. Enrique Peralta Azurdie, calls signals, as chief of government. The army stepped in March 30 to boot out President Miguel Ydigoras who was in the last stages of a six-year term, called by Guatemalans the most corrupt in their history.

The army has shown no sign of relinquishing power. Col. Peralta once mentioned a period of two years before elections, but has not recently reaffirmed that.

The government has undertaken administrative and fiscal reforms but there is widespread apprehension about accompanying measures that liquidated almost all vestige of constitutional guarantees, including the inviolability of home and person and the right of expression. People are living under a state of siege, a modified form of martial law.

OTHER CROPS A new law says that after four years cotton growers must devote land to other crops to protect the soil. They contend the law will destroy their thriving business.

Owners of sugar mills were ordered to pay an arbitrary price to cane growers after the Ministry of Agriculture could not solve the problem.

A consensus is that the military regime is contributing toward reorganization of the Democratic Union party which once backed leftist-leaning President Juan Jose Arévalo. Two figures being touted as future presidential timber are Juan de Dios Aguilar de Leon, boss of the National Electrification Institute, and Col. Peralta's second cousin, Enrique Peralta Mendez, minister of economy.

Where does Col. Peralta fit into all this?

The chief of government generally is not regarded as having presidential pretensions or being politically sophisticated. A tough disciplinarian with strong anti-Communist sentiments, he works out of the Defense Ministry rather than the presidential office. Under Ydigoras he served successively as superintendent of the national farms, agriculture minister and minister of defense. A close collaborator now is his brother, Arturo Peralta Azurdie, a lawyer.

ARMY CHIEF There are whispers of dissatisfaction among the military over the way things are going under Peralta and the 11-man administrative team that includes five civilians. One of the important malcontents reportedly is Col. Miguel Angel Ponciano, army chief of staff, key figure in the coup that put the military in power.

Lawyer Miguel Ortiz Passarelli, whose 1957 presidential election victory over Ydigoras was concealed by army-backed charges of ballot fraud, believes the military regime has an easy way to head off a dangerous crisis.

Restoration of the constitution, he says, would automatically put into the provisional presidency the legitimate successor appointed by the last Congress, in this case army Col. Catalino Chavez, who, by law, would have to call elections within four months.

MEXICAN DISPUTE

Pemex Sure Gasoline Strike Will Be Avoided

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Pemex, the government petroleum company and only source of gasoline in Mexico, expressed confidence Wednesday that a threatened nationwide shutdown of gasoline stations would not occur.

A spokesman suggested that who made the threat in a price dispute with Pemex get out of the business if they weren't satisfied with their profits.

Protesting station operators had contended the price Pemex charged them and the limit on what they could charge the public left less than two U.S. cents a gallon profit.

"The majority of the dealers are not complaining," the Pemex spokesman said, "and that's because they know how to administer their businesses."

The threat of a shutdown was made Tuesday by Pablo Martinez, president of the permanent commission of the National Union of Gasoline Dealers.

He said stations in 16 towns already were closed and the movement would spread unless Pemex agreed to lower its price to the stations or allow an increase in the retail price.

Restoration of the constitution, he says, would automatically put into the provisional presidency the legitimate successor appointed by the last Congress, in this case army Col. Catalino Chavez, who, by law, would have to call elections within four months.

Ford, Koufax Due To Open Series

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—New York Yankee left-hander Whitey Ford, baseball's biggest World Series winner, will pitch the first game of the 1963 October classic, probably against Los Angeles' Sandy Koufax, at Yankee Stadium next Wednesday.

Yankee left-hander Al Downing and right-hander Jim Bouton will pitch the second and third games for the Yankees, manager Ralph Houk said today in making known his series plans. He did not specify the order of pitchers for the second and third games.

Houk said he would depend on just three starters, thus assigning Ralph Terry, pitching hero of the Yankees' 1962 World Series triumph, over San Francisco, to bullpen duty.

Willie Mays Bids For Batting Title

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Watch Willie Mays, baseball's bionic center fielder. He may be the first guy to win a batting title with an off-year.

The San Francisco Giants' center fielder, who fought through a protracted slump and then was forced into a four-game layoff with nervous exhaustion early this month, is on a hitting tear. Willie went 4-for-4 Wednesday—a triple, two doubles and a single—although the Giants were beaten by Philadelphia 6-4, and powered himself right into the middle of the scrap for the National League batting title.

Mays was hitting .301 when he was sidelined, and in a phenomenal climb since then he has raised his average to .317. He's currently on a 13-game hitting streak, 25-for-83 and a .472 clip. Ahead of Mays in the scramble for the batting crown are: Defending champion Tommy Davis of the pennant-winning Los Angeles Dodgers—he's at .323 after two singles in three trips in a 1-0 triumph over the New York Mets. Sandy Koufax won his 25th in that one, and became the fourth pitcher in major league history to strike out 300 in one season.

Yearlings Oppose SA Lee At 7:30

Big Spring Runnels Junior High meets what is generally regarded as its highest test of the season in a 7:30 o'clock game in the old stadium with San Angelo Lee.

In two starts to date, the local ninth graders have defeated Sweetwater, 12-0, and lost a 14-8

Earl Flagens Is Due Back In Garden City's Lineup

GARDEN CITY — Quarterback Earl Flagens, out with an injured finger since the 1963 season began, will return to action for the Garden City Bearcats in their game Friday night in Gail.

his players to Gail—the Garden City squad has grown in numbers since the season began. Woodley anticipates a rugged test, since Gail fought back to defeat Forsan last week.

Flagens cannot pass due to the fact that he is still wearing a guard on the finger. For that reason, he will play either end or halfback for the Cats. Gary Pagan, who throws the long pass very well, will remain at quarterback. Other starters for coach Jack Woodley's team will be Dennis Swidenberger, halfback; Vernon Newsom, who will alternate at halfback and guard; Jimmy DuBose, guard; Bert Hilger, center; Lonnie Short, guard; and Riley Chandler, end.

Western To Play Lobos Saturday

EL PASO — Three Big Spring players will be in the starting lineup when Texas Western meets New Mexico University in Albuquerque at 8 p.m. Saturday night. They are Jimmy Evans, 190-pound senior end; center Dexter Pate, also a 190 pounder; and a quarterback Jerry Tucker, 180.

The Bearcats are free of injuries for the first time since the season got under way. Woodley plans to take all 21 of

New Mexico will be making its first start of the year. Texas Western defeated North Texas easily last week. Tucker threw two touchdowns passes and Evans scored on an aerial.

Sunland Queen

Susie Boyd will reign as Queen of the Sunland Park race track this year. The El Paso beauty, a senior at Texas Western College, will help the 85-day season get under way Saturday.

Countdown Is In Progress

EL PASO — Racing in the "Grand Style" returns to the Land of Enchantment Saturday as Sunland Park, located only a sprint from El Paso, throws open its doors for a seventh season of racing.

Advance reservations indicate the popular desert course can anticipate one of its finest and most colorful meetings.

The finest assemblage of thoroughbreds and quarter horses ever stabled at the local oval are ready for the 88 days of action, which indicate that all records for attendance and handle are in jeopardy.

Under a confident new management, Sunland enters its fifth year of operation guided by R. F. Haynsworth, noted El Paso civic leader.

As a result of a record number of nominations, Sunland's new GM was jubilant over response to the back to back stake events, the $2500 Inaugural Handicap to be run Saturday and the $3000 Mr. Vale Memorial which will have its second running Sunday.

Although advance reservations for season box seats exceed demands of previous seasons, good seats are still available at a season saving of $88. Reserved box seats are available at $2 per day, which includes clubhouse parking. Reserved boxes are available on a daily basis at 25.00 per seat. Daily parking is 25 cents, and general admission remains $1.00. All prices include state and federal tax.

GAME DUCATS GOING FAST

All but 150 of the 900 adult tickets allotted to Big Spring for Friday night's football game in Snyder were gone by 11 o'clock this morning and school officials anticipate a sellout.

The ducats still available were for the first three rows on the east side of the stadium. They are priced at $1.50 and are available at the Business Office, 602 E. 13th Street.

Snyder officials have indicated they are expecting the largest crowd of the year for the game and one of the largest in the school's history. Student tickets are available here only at the Senior High School.

TCU Backfield Tops, Concedes Abe Martin

By The Associated Press
Abe Martin shattered the early season moaning and groaning dirge of Southwest Conference coaches Wednesday when he declared that the current Texas Christian backfield is his strongest in 11 years of coaching.

He rated the combination of quarterback Gray Mills, halfbacks Jim Fauver and Larry Bulach and fullback Tommy Crutcher even stronger than the powerful TCU backfields of 1955, 1956 and 1958.

Then Martin watched his line-men practice to protect the punter in Saturday's game with Florida State at Tallahassee and reverted to talking like any other conference coach. "We've had 14 kicks blocked in a game," he mourned. "The first group did a fair job protecting the kicker but the other crowd stunk."

OF CLUB TOURNEY Dillon, Jones In Fem Finals

Billie Dillon, the defending titlist and medalist, meets Bette Jones in the 1963 finals of the Women's Club Golf Tournament at the Country Club today.

The two tangle over 18 holes. Billie vanquished Jodie Sabbatho in the semifinals Wednesday, 4 and 3, while Bette outlasted a determined surge by Madeline Atkins, 1 up.

FIRST FLIGHT

— Edith Ramsey over Libby Sanders, 1 up. Ramsey meets Mickey Marcum in finals today. Consolations — Polly Mays over Alta Lee Underwood in finals, 3 and 2.

SECOND FLIGHT

— Faye Morgan over Barbara Gage in finals, 1 up. Consolations — Lucille Boykin over Winnie Patterson, 1 up.

THIRD FLIGHT

— Ann Gingold over Ernestine Smith, 3 and 2. Gingold meets Maxine Boardman in finals today. Consolations — Lou Ann Davis over Clyde Gaffard in finals, 4 and 3.

King's Mavericks Play In Snyder

Head coach Tom King and the ninth grade Goliad Mavericks will journey to Snyder tonight for an 8 o'clock meeting with Travis as the two teams face each other for the first time in the 1963 grid campaign.

King is happy with the improvement of the team. "With the exception of a few injuries we've been looking real good," he said this morning. "The defense is improved and we've just begun working on the offense which is starting to come around. Our quarterback is starting to throw better."

"They'll be one of the best teams we meet this fall. They're big and they're speedy. They have several backfield men who run the 100 in the 10's and they'll be hard to contain. Their line averages out right at 200."

Announcing... Dr. C. N. Rainwater and Dr. Douglas Smith wish to announce the removal of their offices from the Permain Bldg. to 704 Main St. AM 4-6321

Two Bulldogs Lead Parade

Ross Montgomery, big Midland junior, is the leading scorer in District 2-AAAA football with a total of 25 points.

Montgomery leads a team-mate, John Rice, by a total of two points. Montgomery ran across an extra point, in addition to making four touchdowns. Rice's point aggregate was accounted for by four touchdowns.

Four other players in the league have each scored in double figures. The scoring chart:

Valuable Reserves

A tough first football unit at Coahoma High School this season relies heavily on its reserves. From the left, they are Bobby Pherigo, sophomore end; and John Lowe, senior end; Butch Fraser, senior quarterback and fullback; Gary Null, junior guard; and Teddy Merrick, sophomore guard. The Bulldogs will idle this week, returning to play Oct. 4 against Big Lake at home.

Today's hand which produced a sizable swing in a recent team of four contest might be titled by its victim as "justice thwarted." Although the element of luck in the deal is admittedly great, this player might well have achieved a happier fate had he paid closer attention to his opponent's bidding before selecting his opening lead.

At one table, North opened the bidding with one diamond and South proceeded directly to four no trump. Employment of Blackwood holding a void suit and three losing spades is utterly pointless but, once North confessed to having both missing aces, South barged right into seven hearts. Where he was going to dispose of all of his losers appeared to be a matter of small concern to him. It was at this point that fate apparently stepped into the proceedings. West opened the queen of spades and South proceeded to make a mockery of justice. Declarer played the ace and trumped a spade in dummy. The ace of clubs was cashed on which a spade was stuffed and now the queen of clubs was put thru. East did not cover, but declarer successfully shed his last spade, and after drawing trump he claimed the grand slam.

West bemoaned his ill-fate bitterly and, while he is entitled to a little "tea and sympathy" for his sad story, it is suggested that he did not give due consideration to his initial attack. South's blatant sequence of bids proclaimed that his side held every first round control. The spade lead therefore has little to recommend it and, since there is no hope of cashing a trick immediately, West might just as well get out with a trump on the outside chance that this might inhibit declarer from ruffing something in dummy. It can hardly cost since South would not leap with such precipitation into a grand slam lacking solid hearts.

At the other table, a small slam in hearts was reached on the bidding sequence presented in the diagram. The West at this table did, in fact, select a trump lead, and declarer was unable to bring in his contract. Deprived of the spade ruff, he had only 11 top tricks and was obliged to fall back on a diamond finesse to obtain a 12th trick. When this failed, he was permanently disconnected from the dummy, and the outcome was a three trick defeat. The total swing on the deal to the victorious team was 2,510 points.

Lumbering Holdup

No. Earl Austin of Tulsa really isn't holding up the front end of his lumber truck — but he was held up in making deliveries today. It seems the load of lumber on the truck shifted as he started to drive up a slight grade. This caused the truck to get up in the air. Austin said it wasn't a sudden move, but that it "just tilted back." The truck had to be unloaded to get it back to earth. (AP Wirephoto)

No-Pit Delay Is Requested

AUSTIN (AP)—Several oil companies asked the Texas Water Pollution Control Board today to postpone until Jan. 15 a no-pit order in Yoakum County.

The order, which would halt use of oil field disposal pits, was scheduled to go into effect Oct. 1. Asking for the delay were Continental, Tidewater and Humble all of which own leases in the South Wasson Field of Yoakum County.

Company representatives told the board that by Jan. 15 a new $300,000 salt water disposal system capable of handling 8,000 barrels daily would be in operation.

Brownwood Bond Issue Approved

BROWNWOOD, Tex. (AP)—A $713,000 municipal bond issue carried by a 3-to-1 margin.

The issue included water and sewer extension, street improvements, purchase of additional parking area near a new coliseum, a new library, a new central fire station and the remodeling of city hall. About 1,580 voters turned out.

Rich Delinquents Object Of Drive

RYE, N.Y. (AP)—Privileged children of upper-income homes, who amuse themselves with petty thefts, vandalism and party-crashing, are the object of a city-wide cleanup drive spearheaded by Mayor H. Clay Johnson of this Westchester County community.

But to get the job done, says the mayor, the well-to-do parents of the children will have to be rehabilitated first.

"The parents are to blame for this affluent delinquency," Johnson said. "We must restore the respectability of moral indignation."

Johnson, 50, hopes to effect the restoration through formation of a "Rye Council for Youth" to write a code of behavior for parents as well as their offspring.

A group of 60 community leaders held a meeting to square up to the problem. Attending were teachers, businessmen, churchmen, Lions, Kiwanians and Rotarians and Boy and Girl Scout leaders.

They heard Mayor Johnson lay the blame for Rye juvenile offenses on permissive parents who have abdicated their responsibilities for the sake of "status symbols they try to acquire."

"Parents have been bullied by their children into giving excessive privileges," he said.

For example, he said, if two parents allow their children to have parties at home without adult supervision, then their neighbors will permit their children unsupervised parties too.

"They do this to gain status, for fear their children will be unpopular. This is wrong. These parents need a code to permit them to feel they can exercise some discipline."

To the traditional thinkers, who automatically associate juvenile delinquency with slums and broken homes, Rye is a paradox.

NO SLUMS
The city has no slums, more than 23 per cent of its land is devoted to recreation—parks, athletic fields and youth centers.

Like Johnson, vice president and general counsel of the Royal Globe insurance Companies, the breadwinners of Rye's neatly tended homes are important men in their organizations.

Their children go to high-priced colleges and finishing schools. Yet, says the mayor: "There seems to be a complete contempt for adult authority among many youths. Extensive vandalism has occurred. Parties have been crashed. The welfare of the community has been menaced."

Shoplifting has been a big problem for nearly a year, Johnson said.

The mayor said there have been few prosecutions because the merchants are afraid to anger their customers — the parents of the children who were stealing their goods.

"Merchants were either willing to forget about it or put it on the parents' charge account. Most parents are willing to buy their children's way out of trouble," he said.

Optimism Sets Business Pace

NEW YORK (AP)—Confidence is gaining on caution as autumn gets going.

Some basic industries like steel and aluminum are revising upward their performance goals. Retailers note with pleasure that consumers aren't retrenching. On the contrary they are spending a bit more and going further into debt, which spells confidence in their ability to repay.

All this is over and beyond what the stock market or Congress may do.

Each will put its mark on both business and consumer confidence. But at the moment Americans seem to channel much of their caution into assessing the bull market and congressional moves. They may hope for, but don't count on, congressional pump priming, such as a tax cut soon or an increase in government spending above the usual one which the public has come to take for granted.

Both consumers and businessmen seem to think they're going to do all right anyway, even if the market and Congress are unpredictable.

Caution is far from out of fashion. It still tempers business thinking, and thus puts a brake on any urge for a full-throttle boom. But summer has been kinder to much of the economy than many had hoped for back in June. So autumn comes on stage with built-in confidence that business should see its normal fall advance and perhaps a little bit more.

Steel companies are now planning production increases. Steel sales were higher than expected this summer, and orders coming in now would point to a 10 per cent rise in shipments next month.

The Aluminum Association reports that record high production in August and the strength of new orders now seem to assure that this year's output will top the high mark set last year.

The Bureau of Public Roads predicts total motor vehicle registrations this year of 3,035,000, up 3.8 per cent from 1962.

Personal income totals continue to rise, with monthly fluctuations in the percentage of increase. Incomes now are running at an annual rate of $464.9 billion, a record high.

Exiles Say Cuba Training Guerrillas

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Exiles say Cuba intends to parachute Colombian, Venezuelan and Panamanian Communists into their own countries by the end of October to wage guerrilla war.

The Cuban Revolutionary Student Directorate, an anti-Castro exile group, said 600 such paratroopers have been trained. Brazilians, Peruvians and Bolivians also are practicing jumps and tactics, the directorate said.

A directorate spokesman said Tuesday it had been advised by underground sources that three drops have been made — two in Venezuela and one in Panama.

"No weapons, only men landed," the informant said.

The '64s from Ford are here: The Year of the Test Drive starts today!

Ford cars have changed. Only a test drive can tell you how much. Races and rallies, economy runs, braking and acceleration tests have bred into our 1964 models the kind of total performance you just can't create on the test track alone. They are hard-muscled, fast-moving, sure-footed. Open competition helped make them that way. They offer you substantially more car than anything at their price. You don't have to take our word for it. We're willing to rest our case on our cars.

Red Methods In Texas Told

DALLAS (AP)—By day William J. Lowery is a Dallas shoe salesman. By night, for 18 years, he has been a volunteer citizen agent reporting to the Federal Bureau of Investigation on Communist activities.

His undercover role was disclosed only Monday as he testified at a Justice Department hearing in Washington.

Lowery, 47, slight and graying, told some of his experiences in an interview Wednesday night. He related these details:

The Communist party has succeeded in Texas recruiting drives

"and is growing." It has concentrated these efforts on college students, trade unions and minority groups.

Its members are trained in methods for advancing Communism on a mass basis and then infiltrate organized groups to practice what they've learned.

Lowery joined the Communist party Sept. 23, 1945. He has been a Dallas delegate to secret state committee sessions, one held here as recently as last year.

His wife, son and daughter knew what he was doing and "paid a high price." Worry over his undercover role caused his wife to become "constantly physically ill."

"I'm proud of her," Lowery said, "for no average person could have stood up under this." What prompted him to undertake the FBI assignment?

"I was convinced that the Communist party was going to take over this country," Lowery said. "If something wasn't done, and I knew my family would be hurt, a lot more than."

Lowery said he was "paid a high price" for his undercover work. He said he was "constantly physically ill" because of the stress.

Ulbricht Rocks China Ambassador

WARSAW (AP)—Walter Ulbricht, East German Communist leader who's on a state visit to Poland, stood face-to-face with the Chinese ambassador to Warsaw and said during a formal toast:

"We condemn decisively the divisive policy of the leaders of the Communist party of China, which is directed against the interests of Socialist countries, against the unity of the world Communist movement and against the interests of all peace-loving peoples." This means old Stalinist Ulbricht is in Premier Khrushchev's camp in the ideological dispute between the Soviet Union and Red China.

The ambassador, Wang Pingnan, speaks German, but he didn't turn a hair.

Pope Reaches 66

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI observed his 66th birthday today, 97 days after becoming the ruler of the Roman Catholic Church.

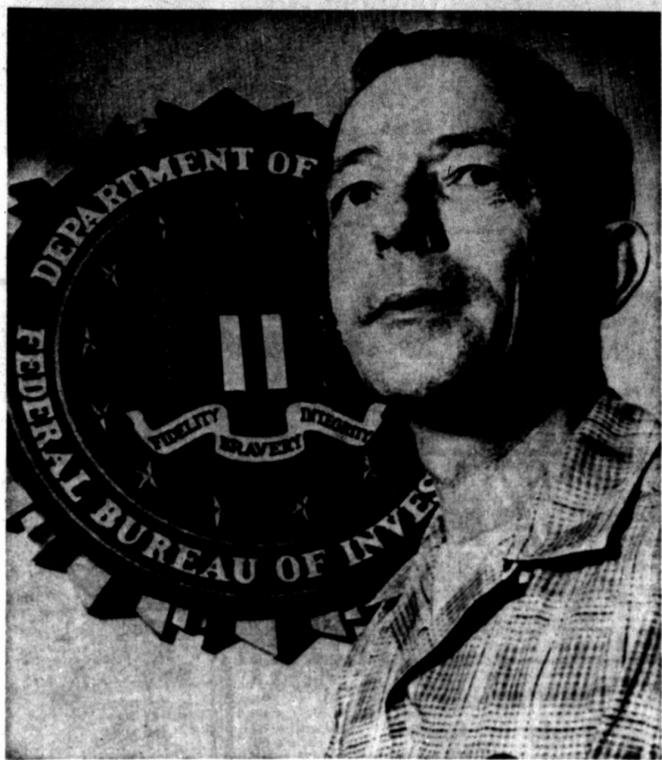

JFK To Dedicate Salmon Water Dam

REDDING, Calif. (AP)—President Kennedy dedicates this Saturday the Whiskeytown Dam which will provide hot and cold running water for spawning salmon.

This is the first dam designed by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation providing such service.

Salmon like water of 55 degrees Fahrenheit for spawning. But water behind the dam can vary from 30 to 40 degrees from the surface to the bottom.

So Whiskeytown Dam, near Redding, will have built-in control gates at two levels. Water from each outlet can be mixed to provide just the right temperature for the fish.

Goldwater Gains, Says Gallup Poll

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—George Gallup, director of the American Institute of Public

Tiny Teacher Finds Pupils On Her Level

DARRINGTON, Wash. (AP)—First-grade pupils in Miss Frieda Groenveid's class can look their teacher squarely in the eyes. She is 4 feet tall.

Being of a size with her pupils bothers neither Miss Groenveid nor the youngsters.

"Children need an answer," she says. "When you give it to them, that's all they need."

This is her first month as a teacher and Miss Groenveid admits she had the usual opening-day jitters of the new schoolma'am. One boy, clutching his mother's hand, looked the teacher in the eyes and asked: "How come you are so little?"

"I'm as big as you are," said the little teacher as the mother blushed. "Aren't we going to have fun?"

Fun is one of the nice things about being a first-grader here, but there is always order and respect. When Miss Groenveid mounts her kitchen stool—she calls it "my throne"—the class falls silent. Darrington School District officials believe they have found themselves a gem in their new teacher.

"I can really say that I've never wished that I were tall," says Miss Groenveid.

"My parents always emphasized that I would have to make my own way without depending on people feeling sorry for me."

After graduation from Seattle Pacific College she came to Darrington out of choice—she was born here, although she grew up in Everett.

Throughout the school she is known as "the little lady." Pupils from the upper grades often drop by to help her with physical tasks, such as posting bulletin board material.

Death, Ruin Take Over Mountain Homes Of Kurds

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — A pall of gray smoke from the blazing countryside hangs over the mountains of northern Iraq, where the Iraqi government is trying to crush the two-year-old Kurdish revolt with a scorched earth policy.

Government planes bomb villages to ruins, set fire to vast tracts of the green countryside and machine-gun anything that moves.

The 15 to 2 million colorful, turbaned Kurds live in a mountain region about the size of West Virginia. Their leaders demand self-rule in terms the government says it cannot grant. Fearing that self-rule by the Kurds threatens Iraq's rich northern oilfields and could lead to an independent Kurdish state, the government has decided to settle the Kurdish problem once and for all.

The horrors of war have hit hardest on the plains and in the central section of Iraqi Kurdistan, in the remote valleys near the Turkish border, inhabited by about 1,000 families from the tribe of rebel leader Mullah Mustafa Barzani.

long by 100 miles wide. This correspondent spent eight weeks on foot and horseback traveling through more than 400 miles of it.

Rebel leaders told me 20,000 Kurds—mainly women, children and noncombatants—have been killed since the fighting began in September 1961.

They claim 90 per cent of the crops in the grain-producing lowlands and half the fields in the mountain valleys have been destroyed by the government's scorched earth policy. Hundreds of precious livestock—cattle and goats—have perished.

Despite the attacks and the rout of the Barzani families, tough tribesmen in the north and a well-organized, uniformed army in the south part of Kurdistan appear in control of almost all the mountain regions.

HAVEN'T LOST

Despite ringing government claims of victory, the rebels maintain they haven't lost a battle since the government offensive was renewed in June. They say their own death toll in battle since then is less than 100 men, and insist they have killed 20 or 30 times that many government troops.

Hundreds of villages are in ruins, and hardly a hamlet in Kurdistan is not scarred with bomb craters. In some areas every village is deserted. The men are fighting the government and the women, children and the elderly have moved to the slopes.

There they live like primitive cave dwellers, sheltering in caves, beneath the trees or in the shadow of big rocks on the boulder-strewn hillsides.

The government offensive was started in 1961 by dictator Abdel Kerim Kassem. The Kurds declared a cease-fire last February when Kassem was executed in a revolution by the Ba'ath Socialist party. The Ba'ath resumed the attack in June.

Kurdish morale appears high despite their bloodshed and the destruction of villages and crops. Rebel leaders say the harshness of the government assault has forged the strongest national unity the tribes have known in 50 years of Kurdish uprisings.

JOHN LEE SMITH

John Smith, Ex-Lieutenant Governor, Dies

LUBBOCK (AP) — John Lee Smith, former lieutenant governor of Texas, died in a Lubbock hospital today at the age of 69.

He had undergone an operation for cancer May 20.

Smith served as lieutenant governor from 1943 to 1947 and moved to Lubbock following his term of office. He had been associated with a son, Mark Spencer Smith, in a law firm here.

Born in Chico in Wise County, Smith later moved to Throckmorton and served in France in World War I.

He was Throckmorton County judge in the middle 1920s and was a member of the State Board of Education from 1927 through 1930.

Before becoming lieutenant governor, he was a state senator from 1940 through 1942.

He served as grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias in Texas in 1932. From 1942 to 1944 he was supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythias in the United States and Canada.

Smith was married in 1919 to Ruth Elrod who died in 1947. He married Mrs. Mary Clements in 1950.

Besides his widow and son, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Colleen Baggarly who lives in Dallas. Another son, John Lee Smith Jr., was killed in an automobile accident at Lubbock in 1939.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Church of the Nazarene in Lubbock. Burial will follow in Lubbock.

Steward Returns For Murder Trial

A bench warrant for James Monroe Steward has been issued and the convict, now in the state penitentiary at Huntsville, will be brought to Big Spring early next week, Miller Harris, sheriff, said today.

Steward, charged with murder, will go on trial in 118th District Court Oct. 14. He has been indicted for shooting Travis Hicks, an itinerant electrician, to death on Nov. 26, 1961.

Gil Jones, district attorney, had asked that the defendant be returned here to stand trial. A special venire will be drawn soon to serve in the trial.

Fete Honors Thornberry

AUSTIN (AP)—Local sponsors estimate that about 1,500 persons will show up tonight at Wilson Fox's riverside ranch near Taylor to honor U.S. Rep. Homer Thornberry, D-Tex.

Thornberry has been appointed by President Kennedy and confirmed by the U.S. Senate as federal district judge in El Paso. He is expected to resign as representative of the 10th Congressional district and assume the federal judge position around the first of the year.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, who was congressman for the 10th district before Thornberry, is scheduled to attend along with Gov. John Connally, U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., and State Sens. Charlie Herring, Austin, and Walter Richter, Gonzalez. Chief Justice Adrian A. Spears of the U.S. Western District of Texas will head a delegation from San Antonio.

Thornberry is a native of Austin and a graduate of the University of Texas. He was a member of the Texas House of Representatives from 1937-41. He resigned as district attorney of the 53rd district court, Austin, to serve in World War II. He later re-entered private law practice.

From 1946 to 1948, he was an Austin city councilman and was mayor pro tem in 1947-48. He was elected to the 81st Congress Nov. 2, 1948, and has been re-elected each term since.

The 10th district has a population of 353,454 in 10 counties—Bastrop, Blanco, Burnet, Caldwell, Hays, Lee, Travis, Washington and Williamson.

Vast Terror Plot Columbians Blame

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — President Guillermo Leon Valencia Wednesday blamed a terrorist plot of emergency proportions for the 36 bomb blasts that shook five Colombian cities Tuesday night.

One bomb shattered windows at the U.S. center in Manizales. Another exploded in front of the presidential palace here damaging the presidential guard's dormitory. Police said the explosions caused no injuries.

"This is the beginning of a new stage in the fight between the government and extremists," Valencia said. "We are facing a vast terrorist plan of truly emergency size."

Picks Up Prisoner

Sonny Busby, deputy sheriff, is in Perryton today to take custody of Daryl Ferguson, wanted here on a charge of forgery, Miller Harris, sheriff, announced. Busby was to return to Big Spring this afternoon.

Burglars Are Routed

The operator of the Handy Liquor store on the Snyder Highway, awakened early Thursday morning by a noise in the store, routed three burglars and fired three shots after them as they raced across adjacent pasture land. None of the shots took effect apparently.

Audrey Standard, deputy sheriff, said that nothing was taken. The trio did not get into the store. The burglars had climbed on the roof of the store, owned by Harold Letcher and operated by W. M. Bassham, and had removed the air conditioner. It was the sound of this device being shoved to one side that aroused Bassham, who lives in a house nearby.

He ran out of the house and three prowlers scampered down the side of the building. They raced to the south. Bassham fired at the fleeing figures.

Standard said the burglars abandoned a small sledge hammer and a screwdriver in their flight.

Newspapers make a big difference in people's lives . . .

People who lead vital, dynamic lives mesh their thinking and activities into the whirring gears of today's social, economic and political machinery.

To stay in gear, they need all the help and information they can get. Most of it they get from newspapers . . . the only news medium which puts information in their hands in a retainable form to be read and digested when they need it and have time for it.

To be of genuine importance to people, newspapers must be free. No people are free where the press is gagged. So, it makes a big difference in people's lives whether or not their newspapers are free.

IT MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE to people whether the cold war is warming up, whether we are losing or winning the space race . . . newspapers bring people the truth.

IT MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE to home owners whether taxes go up or down, whether fire and police protection is adequate . . . newspapers keep them informed.

IT MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE to investors whether prices of securities go up or down, whether business is good, employment up or down . . . newspapers provide this news regularly.

IT MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE to housewives whether or not they get the most for their money when they shop for food, furniture or fashions . . . newspapers help them to shop intelligently.

IT MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE to sport fans whether their favorite teams win or lose, where and when fishing's best. They find out in their newspapers.

IT MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE to women what the latest fashion news is from Paris and Hollywood . . . their newspapers tell them.

IT MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE to merchants whether or not customers are attracted to their stores . . . they use newspaper advertising to make this happen.

Newspapers make a big difference in the lives of everyone because

Flower Show School Plan Is Stressed

The forthcoming Flower Show School No. 3 was stressed in the Wednesday morning session of the Big Spring Garden Club. Plans were announced in the home of Mrs. J. I. Balch with eight council members present.

Travel Theme Is Stressed

"Travel and Vacations" was a program prepared by Mrs. Thomas Seeborg for the Tuesday evening meeting of Tall Talkers Toastmistress Club. Mrs. John Bold gave the invocation, opening the meeting in the Community Room of the First Federal Building.

OFFICERS NAMED

Women Organize New Airport Circle

An organizational meeting and election of officers was held for women of the Airport Baptist Church Tuesday. Mrs. Ernest Hodo presided.

Homemakers Have Monthly Party

Mrs. George Hall was hostess in her home Tuesday afternoon at the monthly party for members of the Homemakers' Class of the First Christian Church. Cohostess was Mrs. A. C. Savage.

A business session followed the devotion made by Mrs. J. D. Benson. Reports on sick people were made and cards written. Members voted to buy bread which will be used by the class for sewing at the state hospital.

Question and answer games were directed by Mrs. O. G. Burns for 13 members and a guest, Mrs. W. H. Ratliff of Marshall.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a white lace cutwork cloth. Appointments were of crystal. Bouquets of artificial roses were placed throughout the entertaining area.

It's All In A Day

They Are Cheaper By A Dozen And A Half

WAPAKONETA, Ohio (U)—Mary Neumeier felt sure she was going to have twins. Her doctor said he heard only one heartbeat. Relatives assured her there never had been twins in her family or her husband's.

Barbara, like the other children from 3-year-old Angie to Janice, who's 18, will at some time be pressed into baby sitting service. From the beginning, the Neumeier children learn how a family democracy operates.

DINNER IN SHIFTS The other children are Jim, 16, Becky, 15; Bonnie, 13; Teresa, 12, Dick, 11; Alice, 10; Nancy, 9; Joe, 8; Mary 7; Philip, 6; Fred, 5; Mike, 2; and Sam 1.

No big modifications have been made in the modest eight-room house to accommodate 20 persons. There is one bathroom. The bedrooms (five) are ordinary sized, and the kitchen is not large. The back yard is small.

With the exception of a long row of hooks in the downstairs hall to hold coats and hats for everyone, the house might be home to a family of four.

Dinner is eaten in shifts because at no time, except the wee hours, is everyone at home at once. Elmer Neumeier, a carpenter by trade, works for a rubber company.

Janice and Jim have jobs. Dickie carries papers. Becky, Bonnie and Teresa babysit. Besides that, there are school activities, Boy Scouts and 4-H Club.

Quiet hour is between 2 and 3 p.m. usually, when preschoolers are napping or playing outside. Then Mrs. Neumeier, so accustomed to tying shoes, combing hair, buttoning blouses while she works suddenly glances about warily, wondering why it is so still.

These fit nicely in the groove above the removable tip of the chair leg. When they get dirty they can be easily replaced. They are not noticeable and it sure does save mopping time and elbow grease when floor cleaning time arrives!

When I make French toast I always add a little oil in the broken eggs before beating them. I then bake the French toast in my waffle iron! Delicious.

To prevent the narrow strips of cloth from pulling free on the back of self-covered buckles, I apply clear dependable glue or clear nail polish to the material after pushing all portions into the serrated buckle groove!

This is particularly good on types of material which are loose by woven or anything that will ravel. Just tuck the ravel and loose threads "under," then apply the polish.

Dear Mommy: When the bed is unmade I know how these unsightly spots bother you. I had a bottle of ink spilled on mine.

In fact, knowing what I do now, I often wonder why mattress manufacturers do not make the edging on box springs and mattresses in a good synthetic plastic-type material of some sort. Don't you? Anyway, that's what I did.

These fit nicely in the groove above the removable tip of the chair leg. When they get dirty they can be easily replaced. They are not noticeable and it sure does save mopping time and elbow grease when floor cleaning time arrives!

Dear Heloise: I would like to share my discovery with others. I have found a way to keep black marks from getting on our floors from dinette chairs being pulled out and pushed under the table.

I have the kind with the removable rubber tips on the bottom of the metal legs.

Cordial Welcome Greets Escapees

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Two prisoners worked hard Wednesday sawing through a steel wall in City Jail. But when the hole they made was big enough to peek through, they stared straight into the face of Jailer Buford Hill. He had heard their sawing.

Even if Edward Lonis and Sam R. Scruggs had completed the job they wouldn't have gotten anywhere. Their hole opened to a plumbing-utility room leading only to the first of several locked doors.

Africans Unenthusiastic Over Easing Of East-West Tension

TUNIS (AP)—Unlike leaders on other continents, a number of African statesmen show increasing concern because tensions between the West and the Soviet bloc appear to be easing.

Since the signing of the limited nuclear test ban, many African officials have expressed fear privately that the two power blocs may reach an agreement that would reduce East-West competition in Africa.

That struggle for influence is a main source of income for most new African nations. Much of Western and Communist aid for Africa stems from the fear that "if we don't do it, the other side will."

Most African nations get money from both East and West and don't hesitate to play one against the other.

Many Africans fear that reduction or elimination of the big power competition would throw them back on the mercy of their former colonial masters.

Tunisian Foreign Minister Mongi Slim, one of Africa's top spokesmen, warned in a talk with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in New York that there should be no easing of East-West tension "at Africa's expense." Slim's statement was broadcast by the Tunisian radio which also quoted him as saying any international entente should be used to speed up decolonization in Africa.

A number of editorials and comments have accused representatives of the major powers at the U.N. General Assembly session of a lack of interest in Africa.

A Tunisian radio commentator stressed with bitterness that President Kennedy and Gromyko devoted only fractions of their U.N. addresses to African problems.

The African nations want to make the current assembly session an "African session." Officially the liberation of Portuguese territories and of South Africa from white rule are the aims. But many observers believe some nations are using the campaign to divert attention from overwhelming problems at home.

Ogallala Pit Ban Studied By Officials

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Water Pollution Control Board is weighing a recommendation that all surface discharges of oil field brine into unlined earthen pits on the Ogallala formation be discontinued "within a period to be determined by the board."

This was suggested Wednesday by the Texas Water Commission as the result of a seven-month study of the Ogallala formation in Texas' High Plains.

The commission also recommended that:

1. All surface discharge of oil field brine into lined pits, tanks or sealed ponds be reported to the board.
2. The board meet with the Texas Railroad Commission and High Plains underground water conservation districts to insure adequate surveillance and enforcement of any board orders which may affect the area.

3. The board give further consideration to pollution of underwastes into unlined pits in the ground waters resulting from the surface discharge of industrial area.

In reporting on the Ogallala area, the commission said there is an "established relationship between the surface disposal of oil field brine and the resulting continuous contamination of ground water resources which constitute the sole source of water supply to an economy based primarily on irrigated agriculture."

The Ogallala formation underlies all or parts of 48 counties in the High Plains, covering about 31,500 square miles. More than five million acres of cultivated land are under irrigation in the High Plains, or 73 per cent of the total irrigation in the state.

The commission's report stated that contamination of municipal water wells has been established in well fields belonging to Odessa, Whiteface, Seminole and Leveland.

JFK Maps Texas Visit

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas News said today that President Kennedy plans to visit Texas Nov. 21-22.

The dispatch was from Jackson Hole, Wyo., where Kennedy was on tour.

Such a trip had been reported as a tentative plan for some time.

Specific details have not been worked out, but earlier reports said he may visit Dallas, San Antonio, Houston and Fort Worth, both to assess the political climate and to raise money for the Democratic party.

Stenographer Wills Million To Cancer

NEW YORK (AP) — A bequest of nearly $1 million from a one-time Jersey City stenographer came to the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund Wednesday.

The bequest was more than 2,000 shares of International Business Machines stock which Miss Lydia C. Endall bought over the years with money put aside from her salary.

Growth of the company sent the stock's value soaring and built her humble savings into a fortune.

Miss Endall worked for the Commercial Trust Co. in Jersey City as stenographer and secretary from 1903 to 1909. Most of her life she lived at the YWCA. She died in 1959 at age 67.

Life Looking Rosier For Prominent Young Elopers

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — Life looked rosier today for the two young lovers from Philadelphia, Mary Lee Davis, 15, niece of Princess Grace of Monaco, and John Paul Jones Jr., 19, son of an architect. They had court permission to marry under Iowa law.

Three weeks of living here secretly, 1,100 miles away from their fashionable homes in the East while police were looking for them, was past history for the young elopers, who come from wealthy families.

The couple cleared the first hurdle toward becoming man and wife late Wednesday when they walked into the chambers of Dist. Judge Tom Murrow with the Jones boy's father.

The elder Jones was unshaven but relieved after flying into Des Moines early Wednesday with Mary Lee's stepfather, Eugene C. Conlan, when the presence of the young couple here was discovered.

Because of Mary Lee's age she could not marry in Iowa without the court's permission, which was granted.

"The children have their parent's consent to be married," the judge was told.

The couple must produce blood test certificates and submit parental consent in written form. Then they can apply for the license and within three days they can be married.

Profumo Report Rocks Macmillan

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan dug in today for an all-out battle with the Labor party opposition and critics within his own Conservative party over Lord Denning's report on the Profumo scandal.

In his 55,000-word document, Denning, Britain's second highest jurist, held that Macmillan and his ministers failed in their responsibility by not discovering and dealing with the romance between former War Minister John Profumo and prostitute Christine Keeler.

The prime minister plainly intended to fight back. He scheduled a radio address to the nation tonight.

Harold Wilson, the Labor party leader, was expected to renew his demand for a special session of Parliament—now in recess—to discuss the report. Macmillan has turned this request down once.

Denning emphasized he had found no breach of national security, nor any truth in widely circulated rumors that members of the cabinet indulged in wild sex lives.

But he said Profumo's conduct—his admission that he had dated the 19-year-old call girl and had addressed her as "darling" in a letter—was enough to create "a reasonable belief that he had committed adultery with such a woman."

"It was the responsibility of the prime minister and his colleagues, and of them only, to deal with this situation," said the report, "and they did not succeed in doing so."

The question of a betrayal of state secrets arose because of Miss Keeler's friendship with a Russian naval attaché while she was having the affair with Profumo.

Profumo, husband of actress Valerie Hobson, at first denied to Parliament there was any impropriety in his relationship with Miss Keeler. In June, in a statement resigning from the government and Parliament, he admitted he had lied.

Subsequent revelations at the vice trial of Miss Keeler's sponsor, the late Dr. Stephen Ward, further shook the country and produced a national debate on the state of British morality.

In his report, however, Denning said he found no general decline in British morality. But he added there was blatant evidence of secret sex parties among an element of London society.

He cited the instance of a man wearing a black mask, who served dinner at one party "nearly naked except for a small lace apron around his waist such as a waitress might wear."

But contrary to rumors, the man was not a cabinet minister, Denning said. The jurist said he had learned the man's identity but did not make it public. In some instances, Denning said, the dinners were followed by "perverted sex orgies."

DEAR ABBY

A Time To Tell

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a father who would call the police and tell them to pick up his own son for driving in a drunken condition? The boy had had only a few drinks and was not so drunk that he would have endangered his own life, or anyone else's. He was 19, had been driving for three years and never had any trouble with the police before this. Don't you think this was a pretty rotten way to teach his son a lesson?

A FRIEND
DEAR FRIEND: I doubt if many fathers would inform on their own sons—whether or not I advised them to do so. But if that were the ONLY way to keep a dangerous drunk off the streets—to prevent his death as well as the death of others—I think a parent should ask the police for help.

DEAR ABBY: Somebody started a rumor about me. No one seems to know who started it, but a very good friend of mine who told me she heard it from a person who said she heard it from another very good friend of mine. The person who was SUPPOSED to have started it has been a good friend for years, and I don't believe she ever said it. The middle person would be more likely to have started it. I promised not to go back to the person who was supposed to have started it, but I would like to hear it from the horse's mouth. How do I do it?

TALKED ABOUT
DEAR TALKED: Ignore the rumor. The only thing you can be sure of getting from the horse's mouth is a horse laugh.

DEAR ABBY: That woman who warned women drivers against wearing high heels because her heel caught on the rug and jammed the gas pedal, causing her car to go out of control and landing her in the hospital, could have avoided the accident. How? By simply reaching down and turning off the ignition. Women drivers, bah!

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NICKI": What makes you think he's different? A man who'd cheat on his wife would think nothing of cheating on his girl friend.

First Negro Coed Enrolls At Tulane

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A Negro co-ed has become the first of her race to enroll in Newcomb College, the women's undergraduate division of Tulane University. She is Deidre Dumas of New Orleans, a sophomore transfer from Xavier University, predominantly Negro school here. Miss Dumas began classes Monday at Newcomb. Tulane accepted Negro students last spring.

Garage Produces Six-Foot Reptile

DALLAS (AP)—City bus driver Floyd Jensen decided to clean out some of the items accumulated in the garage at his home. He moved a soft drink cooler and leaped backward with a start. Coiled neatly behind it was a 6-foot boa constrictor. "I didn't know what it was at first," Jensen said. "Then I saw its head and how big it was and got scared."

Pound keeper James Corbitt hauled the non-poisonous reptile to the city zoo.

McGhee Says Next Step With Reds To Be Difficult

DALLAS (AP)—Taking the next step with Russia will be more difficult than the nuclear test ban negotiations, George C. McGhee, U.S. ambassador to West Germany, forecast during a brief, overnight visit in Dallas.

The ambassador spent a few hours with his parents in Dallas before flying back to Bonn Wednesday. He had been called to Washington for consultation with President Kennedy.

"The fact that we were able to negotiate the test ban treaty gives some evidence that other theaters might be negotiated. This remains to be seen. But other treaties will be more difficult," McGhee said in an interview.

For example, he said, Germany shares the U.S. view that any non-aggression agreement with the Warsaw Pact nations must be accompanied by some increase in the security of Berlin.

The nuclear test ban treaty, he said, has no direct relevance to the Berlin question, which Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Andrei Gromyko and British representatives will discuss Saturday.

The Germans were consulted about the test ban treaty and favored it in substance, he said.

Responding to references to Germany's uneasiness over U.S.-Soviet talks, McGhee said the Germans retain a natural fear that peripheral issues might be solved, causing their allies to forget about reunification of Germany.

McGhee said the movement of the 2nd Armored Division from Ft. Hood to Germany by airlift is a military exercise, but with political side effects.

"We hope the Germans will be impressed when they see we can move troops in and out in a hurry," he said.

DAILY GUIDE—It might be wise to go over things today to see if you could possibly have been careless, heedless, or unrealistic. Coming up soon are some major planetary aspects which could give jolts to those who are dreaming away under delusions that all is sweetness and light. Don't count too much on what appears to be so. There are bound to be some hidden factors, propaganda, and downright tricks that could muddle the picture soon.

Scorpios are taking things into their own hands and may not act with unselfish motives. Taurians need to keep alert and not count on other people. Leos can be vexed with confusion at home base. Aquarians have further pressures coming.

Tomorrow brings further activities for Capricorn, with some business matters needing concentration in next few days; Virgos also should keep alert now, writing or talking or traveling all should be geared for a sudden leap forward. For others a neutral day of holding business in readiness for forward movement next Monday.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, LIBRA! It would be wise not to talk too much about your ideas or push plans until after the 10th of next month when you can go ahead very decisively. Much goes on behind the scenes these days for you, and this continues to be true this year, also with extra accent this coming summer on health and work. Some social contacts or ties with loved ones could have been a worry, and this might flare up again next month, next February or late fall of next year.

Charter Approved
AUSTIN (AP)—The State Banking Board approved a charter for the Citizens State Bank at Paris Wednesday.

Mart Offers Poultry Cut

BRUSSELS (AP)—The European Common Market offered the United States a small cut in its tariff on U.S. poultry today but demanded that Americans abandon the idea of further negotiations on the issue.

The demand made double certain that the United States would reject the offer to trim 1.3 cents from the 13.43 cents-a-pound duty, a 10 per cent cut in a tariff the Common Market raised 180 per cent last year.

The United States was expected to press for negotiation of the dispute by the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, the 45-nation international trade organization.

It took the foreign ministers of the six market nations—France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—only 20 minutes to reach a unanimous decision.

Christian A. Herter, President Kennedy's chief negotiator here, had said earlier the 1.3-cent reduction was inadequate. A French spokesman said the U.S. proposal for arbitration of the dispute by GATT was badly received and was not even discussed.

The United States is expected to announce retaliatory tariff increases against the Common Market countries by early next month.

Given Passports

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—State authorities have issued passports to 31 Polish bishops including Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski to attend the Vatican Council, a Roman Catholic Church official said.

Honored

A.I.C. Donald W. Norrington, of the 3561st Student Squadron at Webb AFB, has been selected as Airman of the Month. He came to Webb in March, 1961, and was assigned to the Link Trainer Section as an instructor. Norrington's selection was made on the basis of military bearing, courtesy, neatness, knowledge of duties, skills and personality. He is excused from all fatigue duty for 30 days, and is awarded a three-day pass.

Fire Fighting Show Planned

The Lone Star District Cub Scouts will be host to a fire fighting demonstration at Webb AFB at 10 a.m. Saturday.

All Boy and Girl Scout troops, packs, dens, or individual scouts with chaperones are invited to attend.

Detachment 32, Air Rescue Unit at Webb, will demonstrate how a fire is brought under control by using a helicopter and firemen. The Webb Fire Department will show how they tackle a huge fire. The fire fighting teams will display skills in controlling fires as quickly as possible for rescue purposes.

Persons attending are asked to drive to the large parking lot next to the Officers Club where they may leave their cars and board buses which will take them to the fire demonstration area. Air Policemen at the gates will provide assistance and direction. Scouts should arrive at the parking lot as soon after 9 a.m. as possible so they can be in place when the drill exercise begins.

JFK Fate Said Up To Conservatives

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Conservative Americans will decide the fate of President Kennedy in next year's election, says former Minnesota Congressman Walter Judd, a Republican and a conservative. Judd, who lost his House seat last year to a Democrat, told a news conference in Dallas, "There are more registered Democrats in this country than there are Republicans, but I believe there are more basically conservative people... than there are others. What these people do will be the determining factor."

East German Boss On Visit To Poland

WARSAW (AP)—East German Communist boss Walter Ulbricht arrived in Warsaw today on a state visit to Poland. The makeup of Ulbricht's delegation indicated economic and industrial issues will be stressed in his talks with Polish leaders.

Selected

A.I.C. Juan M. Longoria was selected as Airman of the Month of the Weather Detachment at Webb AFB for September. He received his basic training at Lackland AFB. Before coming to Webb in October, 1959, he completed an overseas tour in Japan. Airman Longoria and his wife call Corpus Christi home. He will receive a three-day pass and release from fatigue duty for 30 days.

Convicted Man To Be Freed

HOUSTON (AP)—Albert Lyons, 57, operator of a shoe shine stand, went to prison in June for the knife slaying of Shelly Smith, also 57.

Now another man has admitted to the slaying. Steps are being taken to free Lyons.

"There is enough doubt about Lyons' guilt to warrant his release from the penitentiary," Dist. Atty. Frank Briscoe said.

Joe Branch, 27, told officers last week he killed Smith on March 2. Branch already had been charged with two other murders.

Briscoe said his office will act to free Lyons as quickly as possible. The quickest way would be a pardon by Gov. John Connally.

Lyons was brought to Houston for a lie detector test. The polygraph operator told Briscoe the results showed Lyons is telling the truth when he denies killing Smith.

Lyons pleaded guilty to the murder charge, but now says he entered the plea because he was afraid of the death penalty if he contested the case.

Living Cost Holds Even

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost of living held even during August, the Labor Department said today. The consumer price index remained at the July level of 107.1 per cent of the 1957-59 base period.

A spokesman for the Bureau of Labor Statistics said that present indications are that the September index reading will show about the same level.

In the May-July period of this year, the index rose by about 1 per cent. The August standing of 107.1 means that it cost $10.71 to buy the same consumer items that could have been bought in the 1957-59 period for $10.

In August, lower food prices, particularly for fresh fruits and vegetables, offset higher transportation and recreation costs to keep the price index constant.

However, the index was 1.5 per cent higher than in August, 1962, mainly because of higher price levels for food and housing.

The bureau also reported that the net spendable earnings of the average factory worker — his take-home pay after taxes — declined in August by 67 cents a week.

Fraud Is Charged

QUEBEC (AP) — An investigation of purchases by Quebec Province's former Union Nationale government has resulted in charges of fraud and conspiracy involving a total of $309,000 in government funds.

ASOPO DE POLLO
For a pre-game party

Make Mexican Dishes Score Before Game

If football fever has hit your house or crowd, the loyal rooters are making plans for the traditional big games ahead. Football season offers the perfect excuse for follow-up parties and pre-game snack parties. South-of-the-border dishes are perfect for these occasions. Many of the dishes can be prepared quickly with little fuss or bother.

For your next party, try some of these recipes for Mexican dishes.

ASOPO DE POLLO
4 lbs. fryers (cut up)
1-3 cup salad oil
1 large onion, sliced
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 1/2 cups rice
1 can concentrated tomato juice, undiluted
1-3 cup chopped parsley
1 tsp. salt
4 cups boiling water

1-3 cup chopped stuffed olives
3 tsp. capers
Brown the chicken in oil; remove from skillet. Add onion, garlic and rice to skillet. Sauté, stirring until rice is golden brown. Stir in concentrate, parsley and salt. Add water, return chicken to skillet. Cover and simmer 1 hour or until chicken is tender. Stir occasionally, spooning rice and liquid over chicken each time. Remove chicken to platter, stir olives and capers into rice. Serve on platter with chicken. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

GUACAMOLE
2 ripe avocados
1 fresh tomato, peeled and chopped
1 tsp. minced fresh onion
2 tbsps. fresh lemon juice
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. ground black pepper
1/4 tsp. cayenne

Cut avocados in half, remove seeds, peel and mash along with tomato. Add remaining ingredients and place a heaping teaspoonful on each slice of tomato in the above recipe. Yield: 6 servings.

MOCHOMOS
3 cups shredded cooked pork
2 tbsps. finely chopped fresh onion
1 tsp. shortening or cooking oil
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. ground black pepper
1 small head lettuce, shredded
2 fresh tomatoes, sliced
Guacamole
Cook meat and onion in shortening or oil until golden. Season with salt and ground black pepper. Place in center of a platter, surround with shredded lettuce, and tomato slices topped with Guacamole. Yield: 6 servings.

Enrollados Are Filled With Pork And Potato

Shredded head lettuce forms the fresh green base for a platter of Mexican Enrollados. These are tortillas filled with a smartly seasoned pork and potato mixture, then rolled and topped with sauce. The crisp, delicately cool lettuce contrasts deliciously with the pungent Enrollados.

ENROLLADOS
6 (2 lbs.) medium fresh tomatoes
2 cups shredded cooked pork
1 cup chopped fresh onion

1 clove fresh garlic, minced
1 1/2 cups diced cold cooked potatoes
2 tbsps. butter or margarine or olive oil
1 1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. ground black pepper
1/2 tsp. crushed red pepper
12 tortillas or large corn meal pancakes
1 small head lettuce, shredded
1/2 cup fresh onion rings
1 tsp. salad or olive oil
1/2 tsp. salt

1/4 tsp. ground oregano
1/4 tsp. ground black pepper
Dice tomatoes and put them through a coarse sieve. Set aside. Cook pork, onion, garlic, potatoes and 1-3 of the tomato puree in butter or margarine or olive oil. Add salt, black pepper, and red pepper. Heat tortillas as directed on the package, if used and spoon 2 tablespoons of the mixture on each, or, if not available, use corn meal pancakes. Roll up and arrange on shredded lettuce. In the meantime, sauté onion rings in salad or olive oil. Add remaining tomato pulp and rest of seasoning. Stir and cook 5 minutes. Serve over Enrollados. Yield: 6 servings.

For corn meal pancakes mix together 1 cup corn meal, 1/2 cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon soda and 1 teaspoon sugar. Add 1 cup sour milk or buttermilk, 1 beaten egg, 2 tablespoons melted shortening or bacon drippings and 2-3 cup water. Mix well. Drop from a tablespoon onto a hot greased griddle. Cook until brown on the bottom and bubbles have formed over the top. Turn to brown other side. Yield: 12 pancakes.

ENROLLADOS ARE DELICIOUS
Pork and potato mixture fills tortillas

Tortillas Are Used As Basic Bread

The tortilla is the base or complement of many Mexican dishes.

TORTILLAS
3 cups cornmeal
2 cups sifted flour
3 tps. salt
4 tbsps. shortening
1 1/4 cups warm water
Mix cornmeal, flour and salt; cut in shortening. Add water enough to mix ingredients so that they will stir into a ball. Turn out on boards and knead until smooth. Form dough into small balls 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Let stand 15 minutes. Flatten each with rolling pin to 6 inches in diameter. Bake on hot griddle without fat, turning to brown both sides.

"Tortillas," United States style, may also be made by combining 1 cup pancake mix, 1 cup cornmeal and 2 cups milk, and cooking like any pancake. Makes 1 1/2 dozen.

Food Of Mexico Has Heritage

Mexico, rich in heritage and tradition, is among those nations of the world whose traditional dishes are noted for rich flavor and uniqueness.

The food of Mexico also reflects its history. There are the dishes native to the country, which today are prepared much as they were in the days of the Aztecs. These dishes are made of frijoles, chilis and masa (corn) which are native to Mexico. The Indians lived on them along with game, fish, chocolate, pumpkins, avocados, tomatoes and potatoes.

With the arrival of Cortez and his men in 1524 came the favorite dishes of Spain — those made with rice, olive oil and wine. These foods were so good they were soon adopted by the Mexicans.

In 1863 during the reign of Napoleon III, Maximilian and Carlotta and their court came to Mexico with their cooks skilled in the preparation of French, Austrian and Italian dishes.

The best of these were assimilated by the Mexicans, producing a truly cosmopolitan cuisine. While these factors have contributed to Mexican cuisine, it is still distinctly characteristic of the nation.

The people of Mexico have learned to make a little meat go a long way and, by means of beautifully blended herbs and spices, to give the cheapest of food unbelievably delicious flavor — as you will see when you try the recipes in this week's food section.

FRIJOLAS REFRITOS

Drain the pre-cooked beans and return one cup of bean stock to the beans before mashing with a potato masher. Heat fat in deep skillet and when very hot — test with a sprinkling of flour — when flour browns immediately, it is ready. Fry the mashed beans, stirring until they form a mass and pull away from the side of the pan. Mold in a long roll and serve hot or fill small tortillas with the mixture for snacks.

MEXICAN CHIVE CHEESE DIP

8-ounce package cream cheese
2 to 3 tablespoons cream
1 tablespoon chopped chives or onions
Dash of garlic powder
1 tablespoon finely minced parsley
1 teaspoon chili powder
1/4 teaspoon salt

Combine cream cheese and cream, blending until smooth. Add chives (or onions), and garlic, salt and chili powder and mix well. Sprinkle with minced parsley.

SALSA VERDE

4 ripe tomatoes or canned tomatoes
6 green chilis (hot small ones)
1 medium sized onion
1 clove garlic
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vinegar

Mash garlic in wooden salad bowl. Peel fresh tomatoes. Remove seeds and veins from chilis. Chop chilis and onion in small pieces, add seasonings and vinegar. Mix well and serve for those hardy souls who wish a very hot addition to their Mexican food. Yields 3 to 4 cups sauce.

TOSSED GREEN SALAD

1/2 head lettuce
1/4 bunch curly endive
1/4 bunch romaine or escarole
2 tomatoes, cut in wedges
1 avocado, cut in wedges

Break lettuce into salad bowl; tear endive and romaine or escarole into bite-size pieces, add tomato and avocado wedges. Pour salad dressing over greens and gently toss until well coated. Serve immediately. Serves 6.

For a taste-different touch, add one teaspoon of chili powder to one cup of your favorite oil-and-vinegar salad dressing, shake well, and allow to stand for several hours. Chill. Shake well each time before using.

MEXICAN RICE

1 cup rice
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 small onion, chopped
1 clove garlic, minced
1 1/2 cups beef broth or bouillon
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 small green pepper, chopped
1 cup canned tomatoes
2 teaspoons chili powder

Sauté rice, onion and garlic in butter or margarine until golden brown. Add beef broth or bouillon, tomatoes, green pepper, salt and chili powder. Cover and cook over low heat 25 to 30 minutes or until rice is tender and liquid absorbed. Fluff with a fork and serve immediately.

FRIJOLAS

2 cups red pinto beans
1/2 pound salt pork
1 pinch oregano

Pick over beans to eliminate any foreign matter. Soak overnight. Drain and cover with fresh cold water. Add salt pork and oregano, boil slowly until tender, 4 to 6 hours. If possible cook at simmering temperature all day. As water boils off, add boiling water, never cold as it toughens beans. Yield: 10 servings.

TAMALE PIE

1 1/2 pounds ground beef
2 medium-size onions, chopped
1 1/2 cups (12-ounce can) cooked corn kernels, drained
2 cups (two 8-ounce cans) tomato sauce
1 tablespoon chili powder
1/2 cup water
1 cup yellow corn meal
2 cups liquefied instant nonfat dry milk
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 package (8-ounce) sharp process cheese food, shredded

Brown beef in large skillet over medium heat; add onions and sauté until onions are lightly browned. Stir in corn, tomato sauce and chili powder. Cook, stirring constantly, until beef is tender. Combine water and 1/2 cup of the corn meal; stir into meat mixture. Let simmer, stirring occasionally, until slightly thickened, about 15 minutes. Heat liquefied instant nonfat dry milk over very low heat until just below boiling point. Stir in remaining 1/2 cup corn meal; cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Remove from heat. Add a small amount of milk mixture to eggs; blend well and return to remaining milk-corn meal mixture. Stir in cheese; mix well. Turn meat mixture into 3-quart casserole; top with milk-corn meal mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 30 minutes or until top is lightly browned and firm. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

MRS. B. B. BADGER

Mexican Dinners Win 'Oles!' For This Cook

By JO BRIGHT

For many people in this area, thoughts of Mexican food conjures up visions of fried beans, tacos, steaming enchiladas—and Mrs. B. B. Badger, bent over her stove, preparing such a dinner for friends or church.

Mrs. Badger, a local resident for almost 18 years, has used her cooking talent almost half that long to benefit her church, St. Mary's Episcopal. As a member of St. Mary's Guild, she gives of this talent, as well as much time in cooking dinners as a fund-raising activity for the church. Many Mexican dinners for small groups have been prepared in her kitchen and she has, at times, served as many as 70 people.

Mrs. Badger has charge of the church kitchen for the guild. She has produced meals for district clergy meetings and for the Pastor's Association breakfast. During a building fund campaign, she served breakfast for 22 members three mornings in a row.

Some time ago, when 12 men from the church attended a retreat in San Angelo, she suggested a menu and supplied enough food to furnish four appetizing meals for the group, at a cost of only $27.

TASTE TEST

"I suppose cooking is my forte," she said, and countless compliments attest to this. Being from the school that cooks by taste test, it is difficult for her to give recipes. Flavorings and herbs are added a "pinch" or "dab" at a time until she is satisfied with the flavor of every dish.

"My husband won't eat out, so I cook three meals a day at home," said Mrs. Badger. "By keeping everything I need in stock, I can fix anything he wants in five minutes."

Badger is mostly a steak-and-potatoes man, but likes enchiladas or eggs prepared in any fashion. Like many men, he does not care much for salads, preferring instead something more substantial.

RETIRED

Mr. and Mrs. Badger are both from Austin. Before retirement he held a position with the Texas Department of Agriculture. She was formerly a bookkeeper but decided long ago to give up her job and take up bridge instead.

The game might be termed a hobby, since it is her consuming interest outside the home and church. On an average, she plays four times a week and attends area tournaments. At home, she works puzzles to keep her mind active and reads detective magazines to put herself to sleep.

"My real hobby is people," she said. "I love to meet people and love most all that I meet."

Mrs. Badger's specialty in cooking is enchiladas, and she prefers to keep this recipe to herself. However, here are other recipes she shares with us.

SPANISH RICE

2 cups long grain white rice
1/2 cup vegetable oil
1/2 cup chopped onions

1 bell pepper, sliced
1 can mushroom pieces
1 pint beef bouillon (1 cube) in hot water

Pinch each of salt, garlic salt, cumin seed, oregano

Heat oil in covered skillet. Pour in rice, stirring until browned. Add salt and garlic salt and stir. Add 1/2 cup bouillon, cover, turn to low heat and steam. Add small amount of liquid as needed to steam for 40 minutes. Add other ingredients, stir lightly and cover. Continue steaming until done.

AVOCADO DIP

1 pkg cream cheese
1 avocado (large) or 2 small
Chopped onion to taste
Garlic salt, red pepper, olive oil, mayonnaise, salt, and lemon juice as needed

Soften cheese. Mash avocado with fork. Mix all ingredients and beat with fork. Top with paprika.

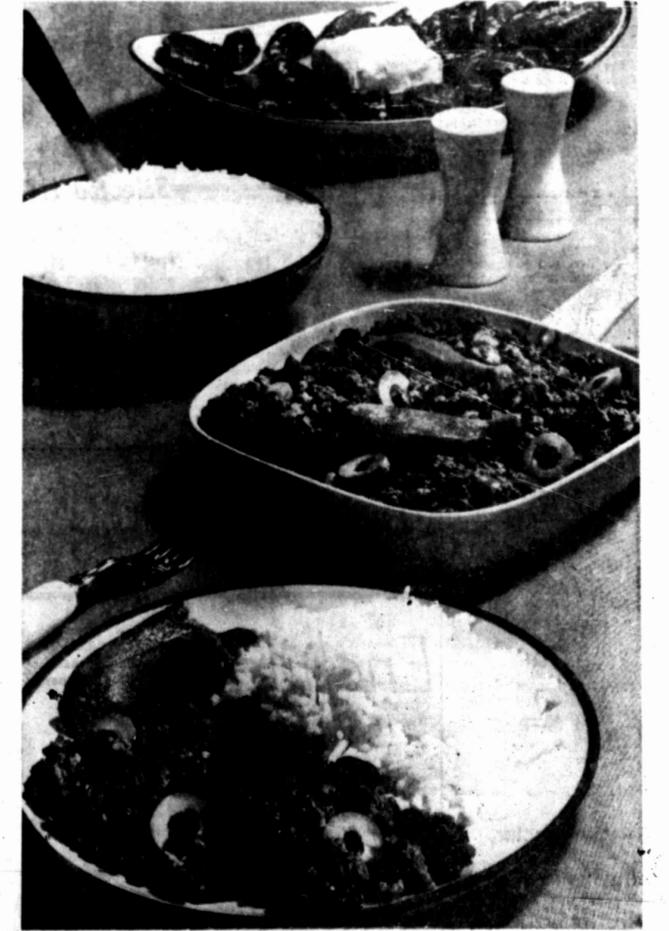

PRAINES

1 lb. box light brown sugar
1 small can evaporated milk
2 cups pecans
1 tsp. vanilla or less

Pinch salt

Pour milk in sauce pan and turn on heat. Add sugar and stir, and bring to boil. Add pecans, vanilla and salt. Boil about five minutes, stirring frequently. Set aside to cool while you put wax paper on cookie sheets, then beat until cool enough to drop small amounts onto paper with spoon.

If it thickens before you are through, heat to thin.

Picadillo Is Hash

This is a recipe for Mexican Meat Hash. To make this dish, use 1 lb. lean chopped beef, 1 small onion, diced; 1 clove garlic, whole; 1/4 cup green pepper, diced; 3 tbsps. olive oil, 1 cup canned tomatoes, 1 (8-oz.) can tomato sauce, 1 tsp. vinegar, 1 tsp. sugar, 1 tsp. salt, 2 bay leaves, 8 capers, 1/4 tsp. oregano, 1 tsp. aromatic biters, 1/2 cup raisins plumped in 1/4 cup hot water,

1/4 cup sliced Spanish olives and pimento. Sauté the onion, garlic, pepper and hamburger in olive oil and scramble the meat until brown. Remove the garlic and add the rest of the ingredients. Cover and simmer for 20 minutes. Garnish with whole pimento and serve with rice. Makes 6 servings.

Unusual Disturbance In Antarctic Region Studied

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington: ANTARCTIC MYSTERY: A government scientist says there is evidence of an unusual "atmospheric pressure disturbance" in the antarctic about Aug. 3, possibly the result of a volcanic explosion or the collapse of a huge iceberg.

The Atomic Energy Commission meanwhile reiterated a statement that it has "no evidence of an event in the antarctic caused by a nuclear explosion."

SIGNS OF CHANGE: Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says there are signs the Russians are beginning to modify their goal of dominating the world. In an interview on the television program CBS reports, filmed last week before he flew to South Viet Nam on a fact-finding mission, McNamara contended that one sign of change was the test-ban treaty.

He said that unlike Russia, the United States entered the agreement from a position of superior strength.

EDUCATION: The Senate Labor Committee has approved a $1.75-billion college construction bill as well as an expansion of vocational education asked by President Kennedy.

In all, the committee acted on four education bills in a burst of speed Wednesday which Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., called "almost a miracle." Both Republican and Democratic members supported the measure.

The college bill would authorize $1.5 billion over the next five years for classroom construction at four-year colleges, $900 million in grants and $600 million in loans, plus $250 million in the same period for grants to community junior colleges.

DEFENSE MONEY: By a 77-0 vote, the Senate has approved a $47,530,707,000 defense appropriation measure after brushing aside all major efforts to cut it.

The bill now returns to the House which previously approved $258 million less than the Senate.

BAMBOOZZLE CHARGE: Rep. John W. Byrnes, chairman of the House Republican Policy Committee, has challenged President Kennedy's assertion that federal employment increased by only 5,600 last year.

"A deliberate attempt to bamboozle the American people on the eve of the important House vote on the tax cut," charged the Wisconsin Republican.

Byrnes said that Civil Service Commission figures through July show an increase of 168,580 federal employees during the 2½ years of the Kennedy administration.

Local Contractors On Committees

Two Big Spring contractors have been named to head committees of the Texas Chapter of Associated General Contractors of America, Delma Shelburne, president, has announced. They become members of the executives council for the year and will attend the mid-year meeting in Austin Nov. 8-9.

Paul Kasch, of A. P. Kasch and Son, will head the apprenticeship committee and Arlie E. Suggs, Suggs Construction Co., is chairman of the public affairs and legislative committee.

General contractors and architects from the Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, San Angelo and Andrews areas will hold a joint meeting in Midland Oct. 3, at the Sands Hotel. John W. Gary, of Gary and Hohertz, Big Spring architects, announced the change of meeting date this week. The dinner meeting will be held at 7 p.m.

Edith Churning Steadily Toward Puerto Rico, Haiti

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Residents of the southern coastal areas of Puerto Rico, the Dominican Republic and Haiti were warned today to flee to higher ground before the arrival of dangerous tides pushed up by hurricane Edith.

At 8 a.m. (EST), the 100-mile-an-hour storm was churning up the Caribbean Sea 175 miles south of Puerto Rico and increasingly heavy swells were racing toward that island.

This afternoon and tonight, following the passage of the hurricane, the San Juan Weather Bureau said flooding could be expected on the south coast and central regions of Puerto Rico.

Dangerously high storm tides, the Weather Bureau said, will reach the southern coast of Hispaniola (which embraces the Dominican Republic and Haiti) some time tonight.

Forecasters at the National Hurricane Center at Miami declined to predict what course the hurricane might take beyond the next 12 hours.

Forecaster Arnold Suggs declared, however, that the storm "is not going to dissipate and it cannot get out of the Caribbean without hitting something. Somebody is in trouble."

Since it was born in the Atlantic Ocean, and crashed through the Windward and Leeward islands, the hurricane has maintained a beeline course to the west-northwest. If it continues in this direction, the storm center would pass south of Hispaniola.

Cuba was next in line for trouble after Hispaniola. A northward turn, always possible, would be necessary before a threat developed to Florida and the rest of the U.S. mainland.

Radio reports received here by Pan American World Airways said the hurricane damaged 90 per cent of all property on the French island of Martinique at the eastern end of the Caribbean. There was no mention, however, of death or injuries.

Fee is Attached To Zoning Requests

City Commissioners Tuesday night approved a city ordinance providing for the payment of a $35 fee for zone change requests to cover expenses incurred in processing the requests.

A $20 refund will be given to each person whose request is not approved by the zoning board. Advertising expenses would be eliminated by a denial of the request, John Burgess, city attorney, said.
