Demos See Rights, Tax Cut Passed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic congressional leaders after consulting with President Kennedy today said that there is no valid reason why Congress can't pass both the tax and civil rights bills this session. They said every effort will be made to do so.

However, earlier reports indicated that the administration has abandoned plans to try to hurry up Senate Finance Committee action on the tax cut. This apparently reduced chances of passing it this year.

House Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts said that "No two programs are more essential to the well being of the nation."

JOB DEMAND

Without the proposed $11 billion tax cut, he said, the economy cannot meet the demand for jobs posed by an exploding population.

Without enactment of the civil rights bill, he said, the nation will diminish morally.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana echoed the speaker's sentiments. He said there is no intention to pass either the tax bill or the civil rights bill alone but to pass both before the congressional session ends.

McCormack and Mansfield, flanked by other Senate and House Democratic leaders, talked with newsmen after their weekly breakfast session with President Kennedy.

STRONG STAND

There appeared to be a link between today's strong stand for pushing both tax and civil rights measures to enactment and a statement over the weekend by Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, a probable leader in the Republican presidential nomination next year, that Kennedy would have to choose between a tax cut and civil rights bill for enactment in this session.

Answering a question, Mansfield said he had received no indication when Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., of the Senate Finance Committee, would bring the House-passed tax bill before the committee for consideration. He said, however, that he would expect Byrd to start hearings shortly.

An administration nose count indicated it could not muster a majority within the 17-member committee to strip Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., of control over the scheduling of hearings on the House-passed measure.

Although Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., had indicated previously he would move for such a showdown today and Byrd was braced for battle, Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., said he did not believe any such challenge would materialize.

Senate Seeks New Life For Rights Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders try again today to extend the Civil Rights Commission for one year. Even Sen. Richard B. Russell, a leading Southern opponent, concedes the compromise measure will pass.

The six-year-old commission, whose authority expired Monday, appeared in for at least a week of suspended animation. It would have 60 days to wind up its business if the extension did not go through.

Russell, a Georgia Democrat, told the Senate Monday the best thing would be to let the commission die.

STOP-GAP

The one-year extension is a stop-gap to preserve the life of the commission until Congress considers President Kennedy's civil rights legislation, which includes a four-year extension and greatly broadened powers for the commission.

Dr. John Hannah, chairman of the commission, said he believes Congress will approve an extension.

Hannah, in a statement at East Lansing, Mich., declined comment on the criticism of Southern senators, saying the commission's work "is too important to get into personalities."

COMPLAINTS

The commission's job is to look into complaints of civil rights violations and recommend remedies. Meanwhile, Negro leader Roy Wilkins said "there must be no delay" in passage of Kennedy's civil rights package.

Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, made the declaration Monday in issuing a statement from the Legislative Conference on Civil Rights of which he is chairman.

The statement said "any intimation that a civil rights bill may be postponed until next session is fantastic in the light of what has happened throughout the country."

BACK TO HOUSE

The one-year extension measure is in the form of an amendment on a minor House-passed bill and will have to go back to the House for approval.

It is the fourth time Senate leaders have tried to win approval of legislation to extend the commission's life.

In Senate debate Monday, Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., said the commission merely duplicated the work done by the Justice Department's civil rights division and created "ill will and increased racial tension."

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-S.C., said that "constant agitation on racial matters is impairing our national unity."

Military Pay Boost Signing Seen Tonight

Increase Aimed At Middle Ranks

One-Day Effort

Wade Choate (right) turned in the pledge cards of the County Employees Division of the United Fund this morning to Angy Glenn, office manager. The report represented 100 per cent of county employees and over $200 more than was given last year. This division's effort kicked off today and was completed today, a high mark of the campaign.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House sped to President Kennedy for expected prompt approval today a bill to raise military pay an estimated $1.2 billion a year.

The compromise measure passed the Senate last week. Its effective date is today.

The raises, largest in history, would average 14.4 per cent and range up to $120 monthly.

Even so, government officials said that thousands of low-ranking personnel probably would continue to seek charity or outside jobs.

The basic pay of recruits, for example, would go up only $5 a month to a new scale of $105 monthly. Counting subsistence and living quarters allowances, many of them would still end up with annual incomes of about $2,400 a year.

MIDDLE GRADES

Most of the increases would go to officers and enlisted personnel in the middle pay grades—those at points in their careers at which they face decisions on whether to continue in the military life.

The bill is a compromise between earlier measures passed by the House and Senate. It would bring raises as high as $120 a month for majors, lieutenant commanders, senior sergeants and chief petty officers.

Other increases include: captains and Navy lieutenants, $115 a month; sergeants, majors and equivalent ranks, $55; corporals and their equivalent ranks, $35.

The recruits, privates, corporals and sergeants, and corresponding Navy ranks, with more than two years service would get boosts ranging from $15 to $40 monthly.

In addition, men in combat areas like South Viet Nam would receive an extra $55 a month and servicemen who must leave their dependents at home would receive $30 a month more.

SINCE 1958

The increase would be the first in basic military pay since 1958. Reservists and National Guardsmen would share in the increases, getting more money for drills and training duty.

Other provisions:

1. Most persons now receiving military retirement pay would get a 5 per cent cost-of-living increase.
2. Military doctors and dentists would get an increase of $50 at their sixth year of service and $100 at their 10th year.
3. The secretary of defense would have the authority to decide whether foreign duty pay should be continued for service people on duty in Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

ON WELFARE

It is the men in the lower enlisted ranks, many with a wife and several children, who have been drawing welfare payments and free surplus food or seeking outside employment in some parts of the nation.

Officials pointed out that eligibility that "they threw him out."

"Who was 'they' . . ."

Valachi clearly uncomfortable under the questioning, said: "That was the rumor. Let's put it this way—whatever was in charge."

Then, as Javits pressed for a better answer, Valachi declared: "The police threw him." But he said all he really knew about it was that "the boys" of the mob had told this story.

"You believed it?" Javits asked.

"Yes, I did."

15 MARSHALS

A group of about 15 U.S. marshals surrounded Valachi as a protective guard to make sure nothing happened to the ex-gangster as he entered the old Senate office building and was taken to the crowded big hearing room.

Valachi, naturally a man of iron gray hair, showed up last week with dazzling reddish brown hair. Today his hair was more on the brown side.

He told reporters last week that he dyed his hair as a disguise because of reports the underworld has condemned him as an informer and put a $100,000 price on his head.

Valachi looked neither to right nor left and acknowledged no questions from newsmen as he and his guards walked swiftly to the hearing room this morning.

KISS OF DEATH

Valachi says he decided to tell his story of a national crime syndicate, which he says is known as La Cosa Nostra, because he received the kiss of death from the man he named as the syndicate's "boss of bosses," Vito Genovese.

Subcommittee counsel Jerome Adelman announced that the convicted killer and dope peddler would tell of a "gangland war for power and vengeance" which liquidated Peter Morello as the crime syndicate's old boss. The subcommittee said police testimony would back up Valachi's story.

Former Big Spring Mother, Tots Die

CHICAGO (AP)—The wife of an Air Force officer threw one of her young sons from the 21st floor of a South Side apartment building Monday night, then leaped to her death with another son in her arms, police said.

Lawrence Tunnell, 2, was cradled in his mother's arms when Capt. Lawrence E. Tunnell, 31, found the bodies of his wife and sons.

Police said Ann Scott Tunnell, 22, threw Scott, 1, from the window of the Twin Towers Apartments, then jumped from the window with Lawrence in her arms.

Military police were summoned by Lt. Col. Rodham Routledge, a resident on the 16th floor, who said he saw the woman's body hurtling past his window.

WINDOW OPEN

Tunnell, a native of San Angelo, Tex., told police he had returned to the apartment after washing clothes, found the window open and the screen removed. He said he saw something on the grass below and went to investigate. Two military policemen arrived as Tunnell was leaning over the body of his wife.

Tunnell said his wife had been depressed for several weeks.

The family moved to Chicago in June 1962 when Tunnell enrolled at the University of Chicago graduate school to study geophysical science.

Tunnell, a 10-year veteran, is attached to the Air Force Institute of Technology at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio.

The couple had been married six years. Mrs. Tunnell was a native of Oklahoma City, where her mother, Mrs. H. C. La Boef, still resides.

AT WEBB

Both of the couple's sons were born at Big Spring, Tex. Tunnell formerly was stationed at Webb Air Force Base.

The Twin Towers Apartments is a housing project for military personnel and their families located near the 5th Army headquarters.

Former associates of Capt. Lawrence E. Tunnell here expressed shock today over the death of his wife and two sons. They described the couple as "tremendous people" while they were stationed at Webb AFB.

WEATHER UNIT

Capt. Tunnell came here from the Roswell, N. M., Air Force Base and was assigned to the weather detachment at Webb. He assumed command of this unit Jan. 19, 1962 and served in this capacity until May 18, 1962, when he was selected to attend the Air Force Institute of Technology and work toward his master's degree in meteorology. He was a graduate of the University of Texas with a degree in physics.

Both of their sons were born at the Webb Hospital, Lawrence Edward in January of 1961 and Scott Lawrence on March 1, 1962. They made their home on Ent Street in Webb Village.

Employees Fast With Donations

The most outstanding report of the current United Fund campaign was made this morning, when Wade Choate, chairman of the County Employees Division, turned in a 100 per cent report on the same day the division launched its effort.

Not only did the report represent every county employee, but the total gifts were more than $200 higher than last year. This report hit a high mark in the campaign for a quick report and 100 per cent response.

Other public employees to kick off this week include divisions of Federal Employees, State Employees and City Employees.

The Saunders Co., another firm in the Employees Division, has reported 100 per cent participation. These employees gave gifts of more than eight times as much as last year.

The annual UF drive began in earnest this week with reports maintaining the momentum set in the first few days.

"Volunteers can put this campaign over the top easily," Jack Smith, campaign chairman, said, "if they continue to make contacts and give every Big Spring an opportunity to participate."

Big Spring has 13 agencies participating in the campaign and depending on it to continue their youth guidance and welfare work. These include the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Air Force Aid Society, Texas Rehabilitation Center, Howard County Rehabilitation Center, Texas United Fund, Milk and Ice Fund, Red Cross, Salvation Army, Westside Youth Center, YMCA, Lakeview YMCA and Summer Recreation Program.

UNITED FUND Fun Program Provided

Swimming, tennis, crafts, dancing are only a few of the many activities assured elementary school children through the Summer Recreation Program.

Summer Recreation is one of 13 needs met through the United Fund. This year $1,000 is allotted. The amount is a very small part of the total budget of the United Fund, but it goes a long way in this coordinated effort of the YMCA, the City of Big Spring and the schools to provide constructive and wholesome activities for youngsters during summer months.

The program is open to any elementary school child and there is no cost outside a nominal fee for use of the Y's swimming pool by persons who do not belong to the Y and incidental materials costs. The children are picked up each day at their respective schools and carried to the Y for most of the activities.

Last year 413 children were enrolled in Fun Clubs of the program and another 199 took part in special classes such as wrestling, tennis, tumbling and trampolines, basketball, etc. There were 963 in swimming classes ranging from learn-to-swim to pupils with several years of experience.

CRIME PROBE Valachi Reveals Hoods In Vegas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph Valachi swore today that Vito Genovese, his old boss in a crime syndicate, has "lots of interests" in legalized gambling in Las Vegas, Nev.

He said he understood that Genovese has "a tie" with the gambling operations of Meyer Lansky in Las Vegas.

Genovese, convicted on a narcotics charge, is now in the Leavenworth federal prison. Valachi has testified that Genovese nevertheless still bosses New York operations of a nationwide crime syndicate.

Valachi, in his second day of testimony before the Senate investigations subcommittee, was questioned by Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y. Javits ask Valachi whether it was true that Genovese has "lots of interests in gambling" in Las Vegas.

STILL IN VEGAS

"Yes, sir," said Valachi.

Javits: "As far as you know, is Vito Genovese still in Las Vegas?"

Valachi: "Yes, senator," and named Lansky as one of those with whom he said Genovese is associated.

Javits: "They are associated and it persists to this day?"

Valachi: "Yes, sir."

Javits then sought without success to explore for some inside facts about the death of Abe Reles, which Valachi had mentioned in testimony Friday.

The Friday hearing Valachi had sought to illustrate his contention that mobsters in jail can arrange the murder of associates on the outside.

THROWN OUT

He cited the case of two witnesses who, he said, met untimely ends while Genovese was awaiting a murder trial. He mentioned that Reles had been "thrown out" of a hotel window and killed in New York, while waiting to testify.

Javits, quoting Valachi's testi-

Jackie Begins Greece Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy leaves today for a two-week vacation in Greece that will include a cruise in the Aegean and East Mediterranean seas on a yacht owned by shipping magnate Aristotle Onassis.

The First Lady is scheduled to depart for New York after she makes her first public appearance in two months, joining her husband in welcoming Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie at Union Station.

Later in the day, Mrs. Kennedy is scheduled to fly to New York aboard the family plane Caroline to catch a commercial jet airliner tonight for the flight from New York to Athens via Rome.

She is due to arrive in the Greek capital Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Kennedy will be accompanied on the trip by her sister and brother-in-law, Prince and Princess Stanislas Radziwill. The White House said Monday they obtained use of Christiana, a 303-foot yacht, from Onassis, a friend of theirs.

Asked whether Onassis would be aboard with Mrs. Kennedy, the First Lady's press secretary, Pamela Turnure said: "Not to my knowledge."

Mrs. Kennedy's headquarters while in Greece will be the seaside villa of another shipping magnate, Marcos Nomikos, at Cavouri Bay, 15 miles southeast of Athens. The First Lady stayed there in 1961 when she spent nine days in Greece.

Algerian Army Units Joining Rebel Chief

ALGIERS (AP)—Units of the Algerian army today began joining the dissident troops of rebellious Col. Mohamed Ou El Hadj. The colonel called for a decisive fight against President Ahmed Ben Bella's government.

A government officer in Tizi Ouzou, capital of the Berber area of Kabylie which is the nerve center of the revolt, said most noncommissioned officers and men in the area have deserted.

Informants in Tizi Ouzou said all was quiet in the city and virtually all troops disappeared from the streets.

TO MOUNTAINS

Small convoys were seen heading toward the mountains where Ou El Hadj has been organizing his stronghold.

Ou El Hadj called on officers and men of his 7th Military Region "to join us in our combat." The time has come to engage in a decisive struggle against the dictatorial regime," the appeal said.

There was no immediate comment from the government in Algiers. It appeared to know little about the situation in the mountainous region, some 60 miles east of the capital.

Ben Bella sought to rally the Algerian masses against the threat to his one-man rule.

peared to willing to enforce Ben Bella's order for a crackdown on the Berber colonel.

By ordering Ou El Hadj officially removed from his command Ben Bella brought on the wrath of the Berbers, the most united ethnic group in Algeria.

A call was issued for a mass demonstration of support to Ben Bella tonight in the Algiers Forum Square.

Ben Bella tried to electrify the lethargic masses by announcing that Moroccan troops were concentrating near the Algerian frontier. He said Morocco was backing the Berber revolt which broke out Sunday in the Kabylie Mountain region east of Algiers.

FEAR NOTHING

Speaking to "Moroccan soldiers of (King) Moulay Hassan are ten meters (yards) from the Algerian frontier. We know what it means. We fear nothing. We can defend ourselves."

Morocco has been demanding a portion of the Algerian-held Sahara and the relationship between the two governments has been stiff and frequently hostile. Ben Bella implied the purpose of the alleged concentration of Moroccan troops was to draw Algerian troops away from the Kabylie and to the frontier.

Lyndon To Visit Benelux Nations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Lyndon Johnson will make official visits to the three Benelux countries late this month and early in November, the State Department said today.

Johnson was invited by the governments of Belgium, The Netherlands, and Luxembourg and is undertaking the tour at the request of Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

TOLLS OUT ON AREA CALLS

Toll-free service between Big Spring, Sand Springs and Coahoma became a reality today.

At 12 midnight, the Big Spring and Coahoma exchange were cut into extended area coverage. This means that the 550 patrons of the Coahoma Telephone Co., Inc. may dial Amherst and five digits to get numbers in Big Spring. Conversely, Big Spring patrons of Southwestern Bell may dial 391 and four digits for Sand Springs numbers and 394 and four digits to get Coahoma stations. It is no longer necessary to go through the operator.

Negroes Split In Cambridge Voting

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—With a divided Negro leadership apparently holding the key to the outcome, Cambridge voters decide today whether to ban racial discrimination in places of public accommodation.

City officials, hoping approval of the city charter amendment will ease racial tension in this town of 12,000 on the Eastern Shore of Chesapeake Bay, predicted a turnout of 80 per cent of the 5,282 registered voters.

Opponents, many of the restaurant operators and other businessmen, predicted a 60 per cent vote despite an emotion-packed campaign and a forecast of clear, cool weather.

ALL NEGRO

Much hinged on the size of the vote in the virtually all-Negro Second Ward, where 1,535 voters were registered.

Gloria Richardson, the Negroes' most vocal champion in the long battle over integration, has urged them to boycott the referendum on the ground that it involves a constitutional right not subject to public vote. Other Negro leaders, including City Councilman Charles E. Cornish and officials of nationwide integrationist groups, pleaded for a large turnout to assure passage of the amendment.

Mayor Calvin W. Mowbray and the council campaigned vigorously for the amendment. They argued its defeat would deepen the stain on the city's reputation created by several eruptions of violence during integrationist demonstrations last summer. Six whites were wounded by gunfire and several buildings were burned the night of July 11 after one demonstration.

SPECIAL PATROLS

National Guardsmen and state police assigned special details to patrol areas near polling places.

The National Guard, ordered into Cambridge June 14 by Gov. J. Millard Tawes after a series of violent outbreaks, was withdrawn a week after the council's July 11 enactment of the charter amendment. It was reassigned to the city after new uprisings July 8-11 and has remained here since.

Decision May Come Soon On Wheat Sale To Soviets

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Kennedy with his advisers and announced his decision before the week is out.

Sens. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., and Allen J. Ellender, D-La., expressed belief Monday that the President has the authority to act on his own and should.

If the President waits for Congress to pass a resolution urging him to take executive action it could involve long debate and then "there wouldn't be any deal," said Fulbright, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee.

Ellender, chairman of the Agriculture Committee, said Kennedy may call an administration pow-wow on the politically hot question today.

AIR VIEWS

The two senators expressed their views to newsmen after their committees heard from Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and Undersecretary of State George W. Ball.

The three, who have been sounding out Capitol Hill sentiment on a wheat deal, told the senators that the President is weighing the political as well as economic effects.

Official United Nations sources said in New York Monday that the Russians have indicated to American traders—but have not as yet made a firm offer—that they want to buy $250 million worth of U.S. grain.

COUPLE OF DAYS

They said Kennedy's decision was expected within a couple of days.

In talks with American grain traders, Soviet negotiators have reportedly said they would like the shipments to begin no later than early November.

All American wheat exports are subsidized by the government by about 60 cents a bushel so it can compete for foreign markets. This is because the price support program pegs the domestic price at about $2 a bushel, about 60 cents above the market price for the rest of the world.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, voiced the sentiment of those opposed to the deal when he said Congress had set a policy that sales at subsidized prices should not be made to the Soviet Union and said "it should not be done."

UNIFORM POLICY

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., said no decision should be made until the United States and its allies agree on a uniform policy.

Mundt told reporters there is a

"50-50 chance" the administration will "come to Congress for a declaration of policy."

Senators said both Hodges and Freeman voiced favor of presidential action and felt Kennedy did not need any legislation.

The senators said the political factors included what the effect might be on the 1964 presidential campaign if Kennedy approves the deal.

"There will be considerable criticism if he does," Fulbright said. "And there will be criticism if he doesn't. Either way, he is going to be criticized."

Justice Culver To Quit Bench

AUSTIN (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Frank Culver said today he will retire Jan. 1.

Culver's retirement concludes 36½ years in state courts Former Gov. Dan Moody first appointed Culver as a district judge in Fort Worth.

Culver said he was retiring to make way for a "younger and more vigorous successor."

He became a member of the Supreme Court in 1952.

After graduation from Vanderbilt, and the University of Texas Law School Culver practiced in Fort Worth, with over two years' service in World War II.

During World War II he was for 3½ years with the 36th Division and with the 8th Service Command. He was discharged as a colonel.

On Jan. 1, 1951, he became a justice of the Fort Worth Court of Civil Appeals, nominated and elected without opposition. In 1952 he was elected to succeed Justice John Sharp on the Supreme Court.

Justice and Mrs. Culver will return to Fort Worth to retire.

Trade Talks Start

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A delegation from Poland has started talks with Mexican officials on a reciprocal trade agreement, due to be later this month.

Dr. Kirkpatrick Gets New Honor

Dr. Marjorie Kirkpatrick, medical director of the Texas Rehabilitation Center at Gonzales, has been named the Texas Handicapped Person of the Year by the Governor's Committee for Employment of the Handicapped.

Dr. Kirkpatrick formerly practiced at Big Spring before she was almost totally paralyzed in a car mishap.

She previously had been cited for her courage and skill, and only two months ago the Texas Rehabilitation Association named her the Physician of the Year.

A native of Taylor, Dr. Kirkpatrick comes from a family of physicians for her father and brother both are in private practice. She earned her medical degree from the University of Texas in 1949 and came to Big Spring in 1952 to begin her private practice as a member of the Medical Arts staff. Three years later she was returning from a hunting trip when the car in which she was riding overturned north of Big Lake. Her companion, Mrs. Rozelle McKinney, was injured fatally, and Dr. Kirkpatrick was paralyzed. For months she fought gamely to regain use of her arms, and it appeared her medical career was over.

However, she entered the Warm Springs center as a rehabilitation patient and remained to join the staff. Subsequently, she was named medical director and now gets about the center with the use of her electric-powered wheel chair.

The presentation last Friday was made by Gov. John Connally.

UNCLE SAM SHORT

American Money Flows Overseas

EDITOR'S NOTE—The many holes in the United States' pockets through which dollars slip abroad are listed in this second of five articles by Sam Dawson, Associated Press business news analyst, on the balance of payments problem.

By SAM DAWSON AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Uncle Sam is financially embarrassed in his dealings with the rest of the world because for several years he's been sending more dollars abroad than he has been getting back. And yet his exports of goods and services exceed his imports by around $4 billion a year.

Some of the cause of the deficit lies in government policies. But not all of it. How then do all these billions of dollars flow out of the country?

First there are commercial imports, now costing around $16.8 billion a year, four per cent higher than a year ago.

MORE PROSPEROUS Their total cost in dollars may rise still more as the country becomes more prosperous. Some imports are raw materials that U.S. industries will be chewing up. Some goods come in because they are cheaper than Americans can produce—and in a number of cases curbs have been put on this inflow. Others are quality or high style or novelty goods that Americans buy when they are flush.

Second, money flows out when American banks make loans to foreigners. The United States has been the fattest source for such capital. And interest rates here usually are lower than those charged by foreign banks.

FOREIGN STOCKS Third, Americans have been buying foreign stocks and bonds. The government says that sales here of new long-term foreign securities are now running at an annual rate of $1.7 billion.

Also, corporations or well-heeled individuals with idle cash have been sending dollars to Europe for short-term securities paying higher interest than obtainable here. This outflow is called hot money.

And whenever there's much talk about the dollar being under pressure because of the balance of payments deficit, some speculators send their dollars abroad to buy gold or securities or for deposit in banks.

DOLLARS ABROAD Fourth, American corporations have been spending dollars abroad to build factories and distribution centers. Motivations are cheaper production costs, or crawling under tariff walls other nations build against American-made goods, or getting close to fast growing consumer markets abroad.

But these invested billions abroad aren't all on the deficit side of the balance of payments. A lot of dollars flow back as earnings from these plants.

A fifth source of the outflow of dollars lies in the large amounts of American securities, real estate, factories and resources owned by foreigners. Interest, dividends and profits on these holdings speed dollars overseas.

U.S. TOURIST A sixth source of U.S. dollars for foreigners is the American tourist. In 1962, the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis points out, Americans spent $1.9 billion in foreign countries, plus $563 million on foreign carriers. The total this year is expected to be higher.

This $2.5 billion outflow last year was only partly offset by the $1 billion foreign visitors spent here, including what they paid U.S. carriers for transportation.

Finally, the U.S. government spends billions of dollars on military programs abroad and other billions on grants and loans to other countries.

Tomorrow: Are other nations free of this problem?

A vigorous rally in the final round enabled bridge luminaries Lew Mathe and Ed Taylor of Los Angeles to capture the Life Masters Pairs at the Summer Nationals held in the California metropolis recently. The blue ribbon event of the American Contract Bridge League ran for six days and featured a number of interesting hands, one of which is presented here.

On the deal depicted in the diagram, most North-South pairs reached a contract of four spades. Where a club was opened by West, the defenders cashed out two tricks in the suit and then exited with a heart. When South got around to playing the diamonds, he led a small one from his hand and put up the dummy's queen when West played low. On the return, declarer finessed the ten of diamonds losing to the jack and now West cashed the ace for the setting trick.

At only one table did the declarer succeed in holding his losses in the diamond suit to one trick, enabling him to fulfill his contract for a very fine score. The defense started out by cashing two clubs and then shifting to a heart.

South drew the trumps in three rounds but, before attacking diamonds, he decided to get a count on his opponents' hands. All of the hearts were run as declarer shed two small diamonds. West had followed to four hearts and two spades. His original lead of the deuce of clubs had presumably marked him with a maximum of four cards in that suit, which meant that he had at least three diamonds, and that East had at most a doubleton.

On the basis of the count, South resolved to play West for the jack of diamonds. Since he was in the dummy after running the hearts, he led a small diamond and played the king from his hand. If the king held, it was his intention to lead back another diamond and play low from the dummy in the hope of feinting a doubleton ace on his right.

When the king of diamonds was captured by West's ace, the latter was obliged to return the suit in order to avoid giving the declarer a ruff and sluff. South permitted the five of diamonds to ride successfully around to his ten, and North's queen took the final trick.

HOW BAPTIZED

It takes more than immersion to make Scriptural baptism. Saul was commanded to be baptized "calling on the name of the Lord." (Acts 22:16). This was a part of the command. Without it, the command would not be obeyed. This expresses the right attitude of the heart during baptism. The heart is to be calling on the name of the Lord.

Calling for what? Well, what was Saul's need, as stated in the verse? It was the washing away of his sins. . . . be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord" (Acts 22:16). His heart's desire was for the washing away of his sins; and his baptism was the expression of this desire. So it must be with everyone.

And one must realize he is lost at the beginning of his baptism; otherwise he will not be calling on the name of the Lord for forgiveness, in his baptism.

Colleges Seeking Fiscal Transfusion

AUSTIN (AP)—A group of state college board members urge a spending transference in 1964-65 for Texas' 20 state colleges.

Gov. John Connally has said the $12.4 million he vetoed in the appropriations bill would serve as a "nest egg" for such a purpose.

The group, the Committee of Governing Boards of State Colleges and Universities, said in a statement after a meeting Monday that extra funds will be needed to meet enrollment increases and for teaching salaries, libraries and research.

Although 1964-65 spending was set in the last appropriations bill, Connally said after the veto that he would watch education developments closely to see if money provided by the legislature will meet college needs.

SPECIAL SESSION He said then: "If I determine there is a critical need for a special session, I'll have no hesitancy in calling one."

The committee said the 20 colleges will have an enrollment totaling 10,000 more than the number on which this year's appropriations were based. It predicted 9,000 more students will enroll next fall.

The group estimated an additional $15 million will be needed for 1964-65 teaching salaries, libraries and research "in order for Texas simply to keep up with the national pattern."

BELOW AVERAGE Lanier Cox, University of Texas vice chancellor, told the committee that average college teacher salaries in Texas are well below the national average and "the situation will be worse by next year."

Cox said the State Commission on Higher Education requests for appropriations were cut by $17 million, mostly in teaching salaries.

Connally told the committee it must remedy a lack of communication between educational institutions and industrial leaders. He suggested the committee hold regional workshops with legislators and industrial leaders.

Connally also urged the board members to "take a good hard look at yourselves" to see if all programs are necessary.

The committee instructed its executive committee to work out a program of action in cooperation with the governor's 25-man higher education study group and the state commission.

East Texans Woo Business In Connecticut

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Eighty East Texas leaders were here today to meet with Hartford's business community.

The Texans are mostly members of the industrial committee of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce. They are touring Eastern industrial centers. They told their story Monday in Boston. They also will visit New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The trip is to publicize opportunities for industrial expansion in East Texas.

Truett Smith, chairman of the committee, told Bostonians his group's mission was "not to try to take any industry away from this city or this state." He said: "Our purpose is to tell your major industrialists in this area what we have to offer in our region of the Southwest. We know that many of them will be establishing branch plants somewhere in our section of the country, and when that time comes, we would like to have them think of us."

Truman Jones To Show New Continentals Here

While continuing its classic styling theme, the 1964 Lincoln Continental incorporates substantial increases in interior spaciousness and luggage capacity.

Ben D. Mills, vice president and general manager of Lincoln-Mercury Division of Ford Motor Co., said 1964 marks the first major change in dimension of the Continental since the current series was introduced in 1961.

"A three-inch increase in car length, wheelbase and rear door width, together with a wider roof, give the 1964 Lincoln Continental interior spaciousness and improved riding qualities that are translated directly to increased passenger comfort," Mills said.

The new Lincoln will be on display at Truman Jones Motor Co., 511 S. Gregg, beginning Wednesday.

The Continental roof is 5.4 inches wider in 1964 providing the car with a new styling flair in addition to increased headroom in both front and rear seats. The increased length of the car gives the Continental a longer profile. The car has a new grille and exterior ornamentation plus extensive new body sheet metal. There are new floor, sides and underbody reinforcements.

The spaciousness of the rear seat compartment has undergone other major improvements in addition to headroom. There is an increase of two inches in leg room and nearly two and one-half inches in effective knee room plus nearly one-half an inch of additional space in hip room. Greater width of the rear doors also gives passengers easier access to and from the car. Hip room also is increased in the front by 1.2 inches.

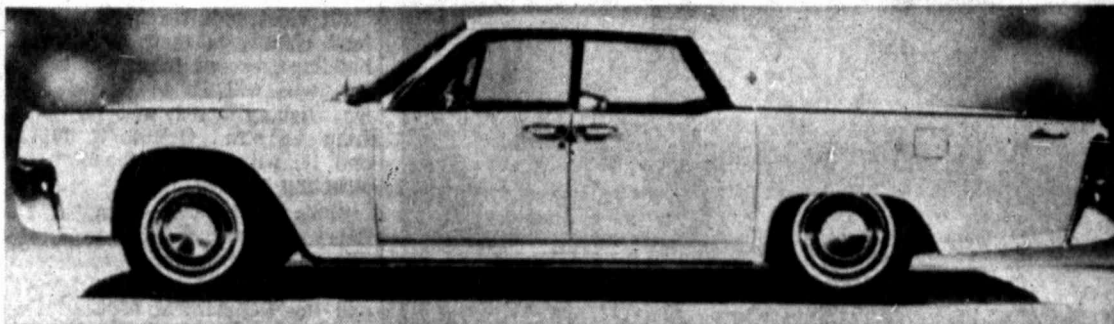

The riding qualities of the Continental have been further improved by the three-inch longer wheelbase. Handling and roadability continue to set a high standard for luxury cars.

The luggage capacity has been increased by 15 per cent with a new deep-well floor pan providing two cubic feet additional capacity.

The more spacious interiors are highlighted by more luxurious appointments. The air conditioner outlets are an integral part of a new instrument panel. Individually adjustable front seats are also a new option for 1964.

New low-silhouette precision-built tires have been developed especially for the 1964 Continental. The new tires, which permit the use of 15-inch wheels, last longer and contribute to longer brake life.

First showings: the 1964 Lincoln Continental. Discover the greater spaciousness behind its classic profile.

When you inspect the new Continental you will discover why more than half the people who buy in our price range choose the Continental.

Notice the greater passenger room.

Come in, and inspect the new Continental yourself. Its profile is only three inches longer than in 1961-2-3. Yet you will find a roomier rear compartment, with four inches more leg room and 2.5 inches more knee room than in 1963. This makes for twice the knee room of the 1961 and 1962 Continental. And the luggage compartment is 15% larger, for a total increase of 33% over 1961-2.

But with all this added space, the Continental retains all the qualities that set it apart from every other automobile:

1. Timeless styling is a prime reason the Continental retains so high a value.
2. The Continental is available in just two models: the sedan and the convertible. There are no lower priced models, because there is no compromise of its standards to offer lesser versions.
3. Both the sedan and the convertible have four doors opening at the center for the easiest entrance. Continental offers the only American four-door convertible.
4. The unusual rigidity of integral construction contributes to its unequalled ride.

5. Within, virtually every luxury is included as standard equipment.
6. The Continental also includes full power auxiliaries as standard equipment.
7. The Continental is built at Wixom, Michigan, in a special plant which sets the world's highest standards of precision automotive engineering.
8. No other car is so thoroughly tested. Every Continental must pass 189 road performance tests in addition to thousands of examinations and inspections during manufacture.
9. The Continental is uniquely free from maintenance. It is constructed to last.

Before you decide on your next automobile, drive the Continental. It is the world's finest automobile. Please call us, and we will be happy to arrange a demonstration at your convenience.

Truth is on the march; nothing can stop it now.

—Ennio Zola
DAILY GUIDE—October promises to be a troubled month in general, so your particular circumstances may depend on much that will happen around about you. This week brings two major planetary aspects, so some pressures can be worrisome.

Today, however, there is a chance to accomplish a great deal if you are so minded. Pending matters should be pushed to completion in the next few days, with Thursday the best time to collect benefits. Arians are highly favored then to reap awards, rewards, social popularity and all manner of boosts to their egos. Those born the last two days of March are the most likely to win laurels.

Tomorrow looms up as something of a gamble, and the loss can be a subtle one not easily recognized at this time. The gain can be great in terms of wealth, spiritual victory, and creative progress. The minority groups can achieve a triumph.

Personally, watch the angles; selfish interests can cause sacrifice. Great creative force is released to those who can use it constructively.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, LIBRA!

After the 11th you can talk or write about your ideas and plans, and get around more through the rest of the month. Be wary in financial matters this week, maybe tomorrow especially.

Much may be going on backstage in your life right now, and during the coming summer it may be necessary for you to watch your health. Working conditions can also be more difficult. Deeply thought-out changes are in the making, but do not force any issues in the coming year.

Make the most of favorable opportunities for marriage, marital relationships, partnerships now. You can achieve through others better now than being on your own.

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—When Mississippi's segregationist Gov. Ross Barnett arrives at Princeton University today he will find both the university and community welcome mats missing.

Barnett speaks tonight at the university as a guest of the Whig-Clio Society, an undergraduate debating club. Also scheduled are an anti-Barnett campus rally and picketing by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

When the society extended the invitation to Barnett, Princeton

President Robert F. Goheen said the action was "untimely and ill considered."

DEAR ABBY

There's Some Reason-Find It

DEAR ABBY: I have three children. A boy of 20, and two girls, 16 and 13. I am at my wits' end with the boy. He graduated from high school two years ago and has been sitting home ever since. He never goes out. He has no friends and says he doesn't want any. He sits in the house all day watching television and complaining about the meals. He is always criticizing me and picking on his sisters. Nothing is wrong with him. He is big, strong and healthy. I tried to get him to join the Army or get a job but he threatens to hit me if I don't quit nagging him. My husband is dead. What should I do? WITS' END

DEAR ABBY: Recently our bridge club met at the home of one of the members. I won first prize and another woman won second prize. When we opened our prizes hers was so superior to the little doodad that I won for first prize that I felt terribly cheated. Everyone present commented on the nice prize she had won. Don't you think the winner of the second prize should have said, "There must be some mistake"?

DISAPPOINTED

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: Not necessarily. If the hostess, who had bought the prizes, did not indicate that a "mistake" had been made, perhaps there was no mistake. If I were you, I'd forget it.

DEAR ABBY: To "insulted" whose guests complained about the temperature in her home: A very witty friend of mine recently bought a large home. When I complained that I was chilly, she left the room and returned with her gas bill in one hand and a sweater in the other. She said, "Here, put this on and shut up!" Personally, I thought it was hilarious.

SHERMAN OAKS
DEAR SHERMAN: I'm glad you thought it was hilarious. A sweater wouldn't have helped me much in a large, chilly room. I'd have requested an electric blanket—but then she'd probably have shown me her electric bill.

Super University At Dallas Fills Higher Education Void

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A few years back, an eastern electronics firm with 6,000 employees decided against moving its plant to Dallas: — not enough brains around here.

Dallas leaders were shocked. They were still indignant when several local electronics firms complained that West Coast companies were luring away Ph.D.s. "What's this fuss over egg-heads," an angry civic leader demanded, "when Dallas has everything—oil, cattle, cotton, water, power, transportation, labor and lots of room, fresh air and sunshine?"

Amid the outcries of wounded pride and amazement, some Dallas leaders began to do something. They were led by Erik Jonsson, board chairman of Texas Industries, Inc., and then president of the Chamber of Commerce.

First they recognized the problem: MOST VALUABLE Brainpower is the most valuable commodity in the electronic and atomic age; brainpower is measurable in Ph.D.s, and a shortage of Ph.D.s and laboratories for them threatened to stymie the economic growth of the Southwest.

They came up with the solution: A multimillion-dollar "Super University" known as the graduate research center of the Southwest.

Construction is under way with an initial $25 million in privately raised capital, $5 million of it from Dallas alone. The center has received $2 million in grants and contracts for research projects.

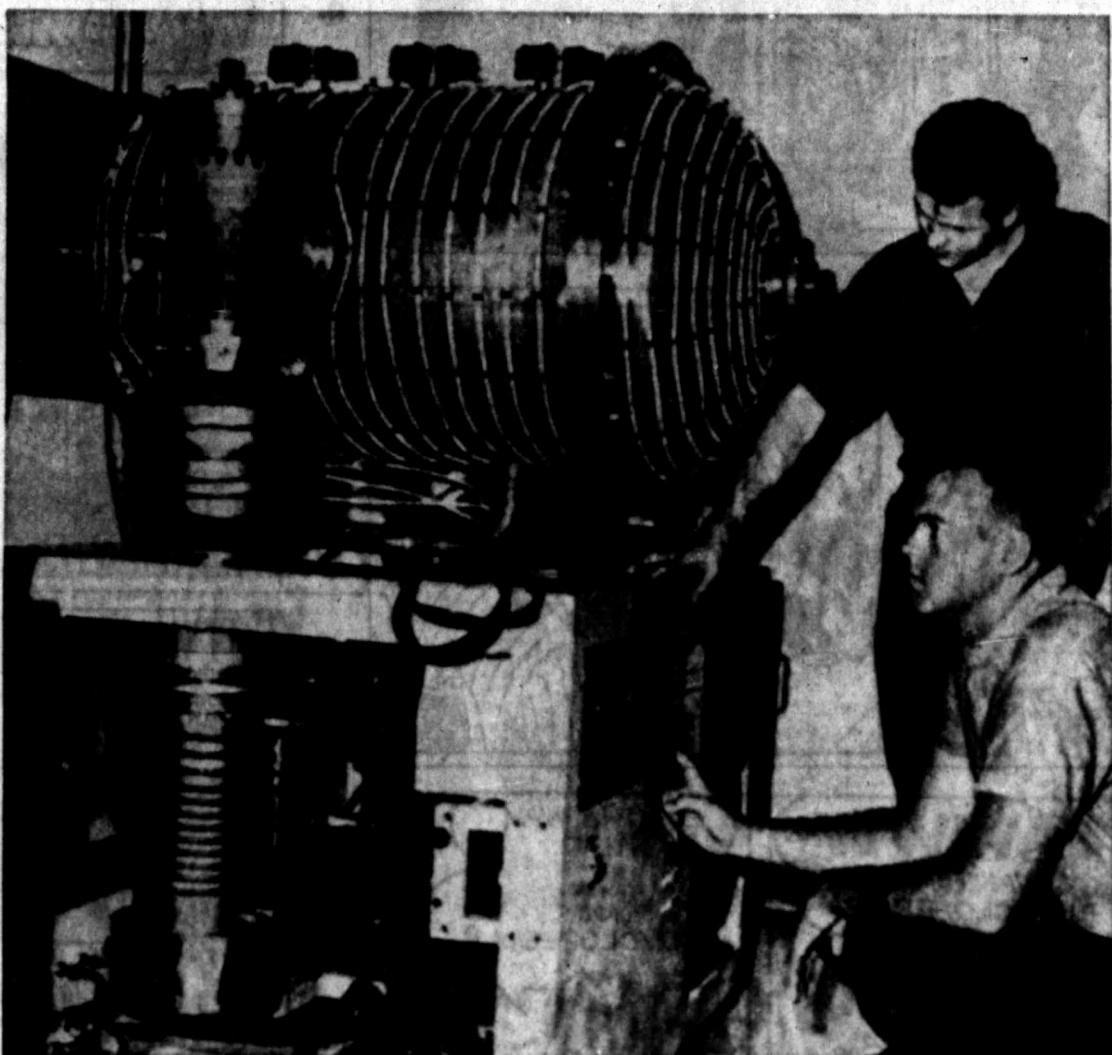

The center will have a staff of one thousand and is intended to become a "mecca for men of science and technology."

In brief, the center will: Occupy a 1,400-acre campus near Richardson, northeast of Dallas, outfitted with the most advanced research equipment available.

AROUND WORLD Assemble a "community of scholars" from around the world. Begin research projects that will cost $45 million in the first five years, for the benefit of industry, agriculture and medicine.

Increase the number of earned Ph.D. degrees in southwestern universities from 500 yearly to 2,000 yearly by 1975, through an interchange of professors and other incentives.

President of the center is Dr. Lloyd V. Berkner, credited with being the father of the international geophysical year. For a decade he headed Associated Universities—a combine of Harvard, Yale, MIT, Princeton, Cornell, Columbia, Johns Hopkins, and the Universities of Pennsylvania and

GRADUATE RESEARCH STUDENTS CHECK VACUUM CHAMBER Frank Watkins (kneeling) and Reagan Andrews at unique Dallas university

Rochester. This group worked with the Brookhaven National Laboratory on Long Island.

SCIENTISTS' IDEAS Outstanding scientists already are bringing their ideas to the center. Dr. Anton L. Hales, who heads the geophysics division, has led a summer research party in the Great Lakes region. Dr. Ivor Robinson, head of the division of mathematics and mathematical physics, is conducting a study into relativity theory. Next December, scientists will come here for a symposium on relativistic astrophysics. The center is in temporary quarters at the Southern Methodist University. A staff of 100 persons—including 70 scientists, engineers and technicians—is at work.

Although the center will be qualified to award doctoral degrees, it does not plan to do so. Instead, it will work closely with universities in the Southwest by an interchange of professors, setting up laboratory facilities and findings available to the universities.

Cool Stays With Texas

By The Associated Press
Texas stayed pleasantly cool Tuesday, and another weather front was on the way to help keep it that way.

Skies were clear throughout the state. Early morning temperatures were in the 40s to 60s.

Weather Bureau observers reported a new cool front, the second within three days, would start moving into the Texas Panhandle by Wednesday afternoon. Meanwhile, all of the state except the extreme northwest section was expected to warm a bit Tuesday night, and further warming was promised in the south and east Wednesday. No moisture was predicted.

Coast interests kept tab on Hurricane Flora, which developed Monday off the coast of Venezuela. A late advisory placed the storm's center 450 miles south-southeast of San Juan, Puerto Rico. It was still too early to tell whether the hurricane would threaten Texas.

Top temperatures Monday varied from 74 degrees at Galveston to 88 at Dalhart.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a Texas firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment that is not only stopping hair loss . . . but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If they believe that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to satisfy everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But how can any man or woman be sure what is actually causing their hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Actually, there are at least 18 scalp conditions that can cause hair loss. No matter which one is the cause of your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have hair (or at least some fuzz) on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair . . . now is the time to do something about it, before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatments will help you. Just send them the information listed below. All inquiries are answered promptly, by mail and without obligation. adv.

AID TO UNITY Council Approves Church Definition

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican Ecumenical Council today approved in principle a keystone document redefining the nature of the Roman Catholic Church. It is expected to help advance the cause of Christian unity.

A Vatican official said more than 2,200 prelates voted for the schema (topic) "de ecclesia" (concerning the church). The official said about 45 council fathers voted against, and about 25 cast blank ballots. Exact figures were expected to be announced later.

The vote at the council working session in St. Peter's Basilica gave the green light for detailed discussion of the schema, which examines anew the structure of the Roman Catholic Church and the rights and duties of the Pope, bishops, priests and laymen.

In the detailed discussion which began immediately after the vote, the schema undoubtedly will undergo changes. Before it becomes an official document, there will be further votes on individual parts and on the final text.

The importance of today's vote was that the council decided to go ahead with the schema, which had been revised from an original text strongly criticized at the council's first session last December as too academic and rigid in tone. An unfavorable vote today would have possibly shelved the topic.

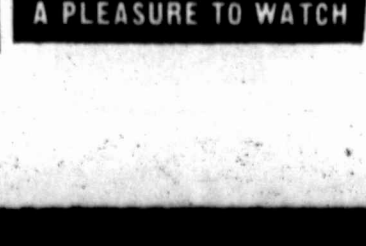

Today's vote ended the general discussion. Text of the schema is a council secret. However, it is known to expand the sharing by bishops in the Pope's authority.

The last Ecumenical Council, in 1870, defined papal infallibility and emphasized the supreme power of the pontiff. A complementary thesis on how the bishops as a body share in that authority never reached the floor.

Oil Pipeline Is Stalled

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Construction of a $350 million oil pipeline from Houston to New York has stalled in northern Virginia.

A small group of landowners has rejected offers for right of way across their property. They oppose condemnation suits on the grounds that Colonial Pipeline Co. has no right of eminent domain under Virginia law. An Oct. 17 hearing has been set.

The 1,600-mile pipeline has been called the nation's largest privately financed construction project. Nine major oil companies or organized Colonial Pipeline.

Surgeon Plans Senate Race

AUSTIN (AP) — Dallas heart surgeon Milton V. Davis said today he will seek the Republican nomination as United States senator.

Houston oil executive H. S. Bush said on Sept. 11 that he also will try for the nomination.

San. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., is expected to be a candidate for re-election in his second full term. Primary elections will be held next May.

Jack Cox, also of Houston, has indicated he may enter the GOP race.

Both Bush and Davis are "long-time Republicans. Cox ran for governor in the Democratic primary of 1960, then was again defeated as a Republican in last year's general election for governor.

Bush is the son of former Sen. Prescott Bush, R-Conn. Former Texas Rep. Lloyd Bentsen Jr. said he is considering running against Yarborough in the Democratic primary.

Davis said he is a "Goldwater supporter" and a party man and will support any national Republican nominee. He said he agrees with the voting record of Sen. John Tower, R-Tex.

"The public posture of the present administration is frightening in many respects," Davis said, referring to what he called a transfer of power to the executive branch. "Mr. Kennedy and his henchmen are just riding the wave. There is a great movement among the press and in academic circles to strengthen the office of president and I am most concerned in this area."

A HEALTHY STOMACH

By HALVARD T. HANSEN, D.C.
The stomach, as the receiving and sorting department of the body, is a potential source of many and serious disorders, if this organ fails to function properly. These troubles, as one slight difference or another may serve to distinguish them, when they are distinguished clearly at all, are given many names. But they all come back to one thing: The stomach is not functioning properly. Why? Because the power that enables the stomach to function is weak, or out of control. That power is the vital energy delivered through the stomach nerves to the stomach muscles. There is interference with its delivery. Spinal adjustments open up the lines of nerve communications and enable the stomach to get back to a full-time basis. Then there is health. Take this case for example: This man came to us over three years ago complaining of a chronic stomach condition. After much medication and doctoring, the "nervous stomach" still bothered him. We checked him and found through spinal analysis and X-ray the areas of strain and origin of his complaints. When we see him from time to time, he tells us that since his adjustments, his stomach is doing all right and, in fact, has never had any recurrence of his stomach or spinal trouble. No. 1101. Maybe your trouble is caused by irritation of your spinal nerves and that is the reason you still have physical complaints. It might pay you, too, to have your spine examined. Call the Hansen Chiropractic Clinic, across from Piggly Wiggly, AM 3-3324. — adv.

Objectives For Oil Operators Are Outlined

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The new chief spokesman for Texas independent oil operators said today six objectives must be achieved if the independents are to continue in business.

Problems outlined by E. Bruce Street of Graham ranged from stabilization of oil imports to reversal of what he called an announced threat by the federal government to extend its oil and gas regulatory powers.

"The problems confronting us are difficult and the failure to provide satisfactory solutions could remove the independent from the industry scene," he said. Street, 51, presented his six points while accepting election as president of the 6,500-member Texas Independent Producers & Royalty Owners Association.

His objectives also included equitable sharing of the domestic market by all oil producing states, equitable treatment for gas producers by the Federal Power Commission, a more equitable system for purchase of Texas natural gas, and strengthening of the state's market demand system of oil prororation.

In a speech at the closing session of the association's annual membership meeting, Street said a world surplus of oil is adversely influencing the short range oil policies of government.

"We, therefore, must take an active part in shaping the political decisions that will affect our business," he said.

STABLE IMPORTS
"First, and fundamentally, we need to bring about a dependable stabilization of imports. Too long has our future, and the future of this nation, been dependent on an imports program that has been more shimmer than substance."

A resolution proposing that Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall be asked to schedule a public hearing on proposals to strengthen the mandatory imports control program was placed before the convention Monday.

Battling Oldsters Hailed Into Court

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Henry Gibson, charged with breach of peace, and John Hill, charged with malicious striking, were summoned to police court today.

Patrolman Harry Robinson said he halted a brawl between the two men Sunday at a private home but the two broke away and started the fight again.

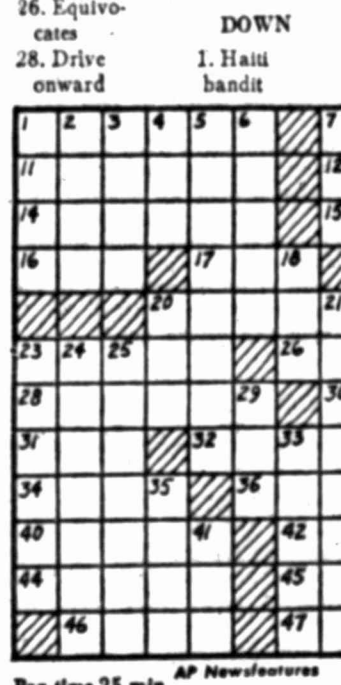

Robinson said Gibson, 87, and Hill, 94, were beating each other with walking canes. Gibson was treated for a scalp cut.

Training Dog Takes A World Of Patience

By PAT WASHBURN

Training a bird dog is much like bringing up a kid—it takes a lot of patience, a lot of time, a lot of know-how, and a few mistakes mixed in with a mother's special pinch of luck, but the end result can be very satisfying and rewarding.

That's what Noel Harvell will tell you and he's a bona fide expert on the subject—dogs, that is. He's a large, friendly man with small twinkling eyes who moves remarkably fast for his size while he's continually exercising his favorite talent—a gift for gab. He'll tell you more in three minutes about dogs than most jockeys will tell you about horses in an hour.

And if it's a typical day, and for him most days are just the same, he'll be sweating profusely under a boiling Texas sun while he's handling a frisky bird dog at the end of a straining leash. He loves every moment of it because he loves to hunt—and to hear him talk if you don't hunt with a dog you're still living in the sticks.

"In this country you can take a dog out and find more birds than you can shake a stick at," Harvell said in his own likable homespun way. "This came as a revelation. 'I can follow four men hunting ahead of me and if I have a dog I can find more birds than they ever saw—birds that they walked right past. These dogs have very sensitive noses and they can smell things that humans can't. That's why they are invaluable.'"

LOAD, BILL, LOAD

Harvell, who has two bird dogs penned up only 30 yards from his house, begins training them when they're six to eight weeks old.

The first step is known as "yard-breaking." A dog with the animal on a leash the food is set in the same place each day. Harvell does not let him eat at first but holds him back and commands sharply. "No." When he finally lets him go he says loudly, "Okay." These are the first two words a dog learns and the same process is repeated until the dog is three to three and a half months old.

During the same period, the dog becomes acquainted with the scent of quail while being taught to hold a point. A flag, coated with quail feathers and attached to a string, is all that is used. Holding the dog on a tight leash, Harvell waves the flag only inches from the animal's nose. The leash is slowly loosened, not enough so that the dog can grab the flag, but just enough to let him lean into a point. The dog is picked up by his tail to teach him to curl it properly over his back. The command "whoa" is given constantly. The dog slowly gets the idea that he can't touch the flag so he freezes into a point instinctively. The dog quickly learns to hold a point. Eventually the dog holds a point so well that Harvell can pick the dog up and his nose will stay pointed toward the birds.

Mold That Point

After Harvell has control he removes the leash and lets the dog range in front of him and improvement continues rapidly. The dog is taught arm signals and Harvell can make him run in any direction by the mere motion of a hand and a step in that way.

Toward the end of the training period the dog is taught to wear rubber "booties" which are miniature replicas of ordinary galoshes. But these "booties," which are designed not to protect the dog's feet against water but against a very common Texas annoyance—cockleburrs. The boots last a lifetime.

"If you take a dog out hunting in West Texas and don't put booties on them they'll lay down on you and won't hunt any more," Harvell said. "Heck, I know. I've had to carry a dog all the way back to the truck before and that's no fun. They just can't stand those cockleburrs."

Harvell advises these things when training a bird dog:

"Be sure the dog hunts for you and not for himself—don't let him flush the birds. Always train him by yourself. If you don't he'll want to play and he'll get confused. Teach him to hunt only birds, not cats, sheep, or cows."

Harvell's last comment was made with a big grin. "There's no better domestic animal for a pet than a bird dog. The more you pet him and treat him nice the better he hunts for you."

Harvell always gets a lot of quail.

Hickey Fired By 49er Club

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Red Hickey is out, Jack Christiansen is in but the question is the same: can the San Francisco 49ers win in the National Football League.

Hickey, the fiery head coach who starred at Arkansas and played end for the Los Angeles Rams, quit Monday in the wake of a 45-14 loss to the Minnesota Vikings.

Hours later Jack Christiansen, out of Colorado State and a six-year All-Pro with the Detroit Lions defensive secondary, was named in Hickey's place. Christiansen joined the 49ers in 1958 as coach for the defensive back, the same season Hickey took over as head man, relieving Frankie Albert.

Hickey said he had considered the move for a couple of weeks "unless we started winning." The loss string stands at 10 straight—two from last year's regular campaign, five exhibition games and three regular games this year.

When the Vikings buried his apparently demoralized squad Sunday in Minnesota, Hickey told President Vic Morabito he wanted out now. Morabito announced tersely Hickey's resignation was accepted.

"In this game you either win or move on," Hickey said. "It was either quit or put Vic in the embarrassing position of having to fire me." Hickey said he had no immediate plans.

Later, at a news conference, Morabito emphasized Christiansen's appointment was for only the remaining 11 games this year. He denied he was thinking in terms of Paul Brown or Y. A. Tittle for the future as the possible 49er head man.

Brown was ousted by the Cleveland Browns last year and is being smarting to get another shot in the NFL. Tittle was traded by Hickey to the New York Giants because "he was obsolete." Since then Tittle has become the Giants' mainstay and fans have been riding Hickey for letting him get away.

Billy Hitchcock Baffled Over Inertia Of Players

BALTIMORE (AP)—For Billy Hitchcock, the cause was harder to understand than the effect.

A man of fierce pride and determination, he accepted his dismissal as manager of the Baltimore Orioles without complaint—convinced he had done his best while acknowledging he may have fallen a bit short.

But he couldn't understand why a professional athlete playing baseball for a living, had to be prodded to produce a maximum effort.

"I've managed the way I played—to the best of my ability," Hitchcock said as the season entered its final week with his job in the balance.

On Sunday, after being told he would not be rehired for 1964—before General Manager Lee MacPhail issued a public announcement—Hitchcock said:

"It's the manager's job to make the players put out and produce, and I guess I didn't do it."

After finishing second in 1960 and third the following year, the Orioles dropped to seventh during Hitchcock's first season as manager and wound up fourth this year. Attendance has dropped to an all-time low.

MacPhail has offered Hitchcock a job as field director with the Orioles. He would assist MacPhail and farm director Harry Dalton scout and instruct at training camps.

Sooners Grab No. One Spot In AP Poll

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Oklahoma Sooners, who have gone through a seven-year drought since their last championship team, took over first place by a landslide today in the second Associated Press weekly poll of the nation's Top Ten football teams.

Oklahoma, which defeated the 1962 national champion Southern California Trojans Saturday 17-13 in blistering 105-degree heat at Los Angeles, vaulted from third to the No. 1 rating by polling 36 of the 33 first-place votes from a special panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

The Trojans, who received 23 first-place votes a week ago, skidded to eighth place. Arkansas, No. 8 last week, dropped out after being defeated by Missouri 7-6.

While Alabama remains in the challenging No. 2 spot, and other teams were slightly juggled in the ratings, Mississippi edged back into the picture at the No. 10 spot after blasting Kentucky 31-7. Ole Miss, rated No. 2 in the opening poll, had dropped from the first ten after being held to a scoreless tie by Memphis State.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's Oklahoma Sooners, who ranked No. 8 in the 1962 final season poll, received 495 points in the latest census, based on 10 points for first, nine for second, etc.

The top ten, with first-place votes in parentheses:

1. Oklahoma (36)	495
2. Alabama (2)	402
3. Texas (2)	365
4. Wisconsin (1)	294
5. Northwestern (1)	269
6. Navy (2)	248
7. Georgia Tech (2)	240
8. So. Calif.	163
9. Pittsburgh	153
10. Mississippi	137

Others receiving votes, listed alphabetically: Air Force, Arkansas Army, Baylor, Duke, Michigan State, Missouri, Nebraska, North Carolina State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oregon State, Penn State, Rice, Texas Christian, Washington.

HUGHES GETS TD CREDIT

Strike out the second touchdowns credited to Charley West in Big Spring's game with the Oilers last week. Credit it to Johnny Hughes instead.

That was the one in which the receiver was running out of the end zone as he caught the ball and later dropped it.

The two boys were right together on the play. Observers in the press box credited the catch with West and coaches verified it Saturday morning—before viewing films of the game.

The movies turned up the facts, however. Neither of the boys had bothered to mention the play following the game.

Irons, Fierro Face Bovines

Dick Irons and Albert Fierro lead individual departments among Big Spring Steer backs after two games.

Irons has picked up 77 yards in 19 carries for an average gain of four yards per carry. Bakelite Moore is second, having accounted for 50 yards in 13 attempts for a 3.8-yard average.

Fierro is off to another fine season as a passer. He has completed half his 28 aerial attempts for 210 yards and three touchdowns. Only one of his bombs has been picked off by the opposition.

Leading receiver on the team is Charley West, who has gathered in eight passes for 129 yards and one touchdown. His average gain has gone for 16.1 yards.

Johnny Hughes has punted the ball nine times for an average of 36.2 yards.

Cubs Add 2 Players

CHICAGO (AP)—Second baseman Paul Popovich and right-handed pitcher Sterling Slaughter, a pair of Amarillo, Tex., farm hands, were added to the Chicago Cubs' roster today.

The Cubs also asked waivers on veteran infielder Alex Grammas to give him his unconditional release.

Koufax Is Healthy, Series Odds Drop

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The odds favoring the New York Yankees by 7½-5 returned to normal today as did the reports on the temperature of Sandy Koufax, the Los Angeles Dodgers' brilliant left-hander who will pitch the World Series opener at Yankee Stadium Wednesday against Whitey Ford. The odds began to fluctuate as rumors flew that Koufax, who posted a 25-5 record during the season, had come down with the flu. When the Dodgers arrived in New York late Monday night, Koufax said he never had the flu, only a slight cold.

"It's all over now," said Koufax. Dodger Manager Walter Alton, asked about Koufax' cold, said briskly: "Tell them he'll pitch."

While Alton was expressing no doubts about his pitching ace, he was concerned about two others, veteran left-hander Johnny Podres, who became a questionable second game starter.

McMullen pulled a hamstring muscle last Thursday and has not pitched since. Alton thinks the youngster will be able to start but if he cannot, Jim Gilliam will switch over to third base and Dick Tracewski, a light-hitting, good-fielding reserve, will open at second base.

Alton was highly vexed with Podres' pitching performance against Philadelphia Saturday night. The 30-year-old left-hander, who shut out the Yankees in the final game of the 1955 World Series, was pounded for eight runs and 12 hits in 2-3 innings. Included were two home runs.

"I wanted him to stay in five or six innings to get the work since he hadn't pitched all week," said Alton. "I left him in until it got so embarrassing I had to take him out."

The Dodgers' late arrival enabled the Yankees to engage in a long workout during which Ford, lefty Al Downing and right-hander Jim Bouton took long turns pitching. The trio is expected to start all the games, even if the series goes the seven game limit.

Ford and Downing will pitch the first and second games here, said Yankees Manager Ralph Houk at the end of the workout. "It will be Bouton in the third game in Los Angeles."

"The club is in the best condition it's been all year," Houk said. "Mickey Mantle is running better than at any time since he got hurt and Roger Maris' back doesn't seem to be bothering him now."

There had been some talk that Houk might decide to pitch Bouton, his young 21-game winner, in the second game instead of Downing, who was hit hard in his brief outing against Minnesota Saturday. Houk dispelled that thought quickly.

"It would be silly of me to change my thinking on him in five innings after the great work he's done all season," Houk said. "The youngster won 13 games from mid-June through September and not one was a bad one."

Houk said the scouting reports on the Dodgers confirmed what everyone knows—that the Dodgers are built on speed and pitching.

"Everybody figures it's going to be a pitching series," he said, "and they could be right. But you never know. It may go the other way."

"This Dodger team cannot hit with the Giants of 1962 but we're not underestimating them. The Dodgers have fair hitting, great speed, good pitching and a better defense than we heard."

"More important, they win the important games. Our scouts have told us they looked exceptionally well in all departments in the important series against the Cardinals two weeks ago."

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Sports dialogue:
DICK YOUNG, New York scribe:

"Leo Durocher is a lame duck coach with the L.A. Dodgers. His goose was cooked when Buzzy Bavasi listened to a tape-recording that supplied material for the SE Post article on Leo's career. It was the unprinted portion that made Buzzy's ears blister—some five minutes of tape where Leo ripped Walt Alton, with the proviso that the material would not be used by the magazine if Durocher remained with the Dodgers this season. You must understand that the interview took place last winter, and only after Leo was retained did Bavasi learn of it. Durocher's stipulation with the magazine was this: If I am not with the Dodgers when the article is written, you may use the Alton material. If I am still with the Dodgers, you must kill it. Leo survived, and the blast was buried—but obviously not deep enough. The tape was played to Bavasi, and that is the reason Durocher is sitting out his time in the Dodger dugout, and not on the coaching lines. He is a great baseball talent who doesn't know when to keep his mouth shut—never did."

LEO DUROCHER

LEO DUROCHER

FRANK HOWARD, Clemson football coach: "We play that ole ugly kin' of football. We ain't dirty or nothin', but we play tough and mean. We like to keep control of the ball. Then they ain't got it."

HERB CAEN, San Francisco columnist: "The 49ers are REALLY having a bad year. In the team's official yearbook, the section headed 'Offense!' features a photo of the LA Rams on offense and our fellows on defense, as usual. Or, as Howard Brubaker puts it, 'Our opponents are proving more offensive than the 49ers are repulsive.'"

JOHN P. CARMICHAEL, Chicago writer: "It has been eloquently said before that baseball isn't doing itself any good by patterning after a floating crap game."

BUSTER BRANNON, TCU's veteran football scout: "I'd want a little time to think about it, but offhand, I can't think of any school that ever had halfbacks in the same backfield with the ability of Ronnie Bull and Ronnie Goodwin. They were exceptional."

JIM MARTIN, Baltimore's place-kicker, discussing San Francisco's two breakout specialists, Abe Woodson and Kermit Alexander, after the Colts had scored a narrow 20-14 win over the 49ers recently: "It was like staring down the barrel of a rifle. All I could picture was them breaking loose and us losing. The only answer to them is a kick into the end zone, and luckily I had a good breeze and was able to do it. But, boy, that pair can really chill you."

WALLY LEMM, St. Louis Cardinal coach, following his team's 28-24 NFL victory over Philadelphia: "Guard Ken Gray was the guy who kept blowing that defensive man out of there. He was the guy who made those runners go. You can offer me any guard in the NFL, and I wouldn't take him for Ken."

JIMMY CANNON, New York writer: "On a golf course, smoking a cigarette in quick jerky moves, Porky Oliver suggested an impatient man who was late for an important appointment. The way Porky made his living never truly interested him. What called to him lay beyond the final green. No one will ever know how great Porky Oliver might have been because he never gave himself a chance. . . . He let a lot slip away but there was no regret in Porky. He made golf fun and it was never more than a game with him. Guys cherish his memory as if he were a parade which had come down their street in boyhood."

Abe Martin Likes Team's Chances

By The Associated Press

Coach Abe Martin of Texas Christian is so enthusiastic about his football team he might pick it to win Saturday's big Southwest Conference game with Arkansas if he was prodded enough.

Of course, it's about time. The Frogs haven't been able to handle Arkansas in four years.

"Arkansas has a good team. The Frogs are a good football team. It will be a tight, rugged, hard game. We are not scared," said Martin, who seemed to be indicating he thought his team just ought to take those Razorbacks in tow this time.

Coach Frank Broyles of Arkansas didn't have much to say about it. He was busy Monday trying to plug up the leaks that developed in the 7-6 loss to Missouri. His only change was to shift Jerry Jones from fullback to guard. Guard was where Jones played in the first place.

Coach Jess Neely of Rice also was feeling good over his team's showing in the 21-12 victory over Louisiana State. And he wasn't building Penn State, the next opponent, into an ogre, as is customary with most coaches.

Texas Tech and Texas A&M, who meet in the other conference game of the week, reported injuries to be concerned about.

The Aggies may have to play without halfback George Hargett, who got his knee hurt in the Ohio State game last week. Texas Tech had several players bruised up in the Texas game with tackle Jimmy Walker likely to be out Saturday night because of a bruised thigh.

Southern Methodist, which plays Air Force at Dallas Saturday, will have a radically changed line-up. Coach Hayden Fry advanced six players to the first team and he also listed three guards on the ailing list.

Baylor came out of its 27-0 victory over Houston in relatively good shape. Only sophomore tackle Chris Breedlove got an injury.

Coach Darrell Royal of Texas was bravely trying to indicate his team was thinking of Oklahoma State as it returned to practice but he let it slip that the boys were also thinking about Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1 team which they meet next week.

Wynn Selected As Successor To M. Harder

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Baseball's take funny bounces, too. Ask Mel Harder, who was fired as Cleveland pitching coach and replaced by Early Wynn, the man he taught to pitch so well.

Harder was an institution in Cleveland—until Monday. Then Gabe Paul, the Indians' general manager, fired Harder, 53, who had been with Cleveland for 36 years, a record tenure in baseball.

The man Paul turned to was Wynn, 43, who came back this year to win his 300th major league game—and did it, although he lost two games along the way.

"Early was reluctant to take the position with us only because he didn't want anyone to think he was seeking Mel's job," said Manager Birdie Tebbets.

"I simply told Early that Mel wasn't going to be with us next year in any case. And that if he wouldn't accept the offer to become our pitching coach, we'd bring in somebody else."

Harder joined the Indians in 1928 and posted a 223-186 record in 20 seasons as a Tribe pitcher. He was a player-coach in 1947, but had devoted full time to teaching since the 1948 season, when the Indians became world champions.

Among the pitchers Harder helped achieve success were Wynn, Bob Lemon, Mike Garcia, Herb Score and even the great Bob Feller. Now Harder is looking for a job.

"I'm checking out a few clubs," he said. "About four years ago, the Yankees and White Sox offered me a coaching position. Maybe somebody will want me now."

The Indians didn't give any reasons for the firing, but it's no secret that the front office has been unhappy about the Cleveland pitching staff.

Tebbetts said of Wynn: "He's a fierce competitor and some of this, we hope, will rub off on our young pitchers."

Wynn is being taken off the active roster and his pitching days probably are over. "It's not in his mind or mine to reactivate him," said Tebbets.

Big Turnout Due Tonight

When the Big Spring Quarterback Club meets tonight at 7 o'clock in the high school cafeteria the biggest turnout of the still young football season is expected.

A film of the Big Spring-Snyder game will be shown with head coach Don Robbins doing the narrating. Delnor Poss will follow with a scouting report on Wichita Falls and then all the coaches will be available in a question and answer period.

The meeting will be closed with a progress report on the efforts of the club.

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Raymond Marshall of Lubbock went gunning for his third Texas senior golf championship as match play started today with three former titlists in the field.

Marshall won in 1959 and last year. If he takes it this time, he'll tie R. H. Nix of Dallas, who won three titles in the 1940s.

Other former champions in the field are Hezlie Carson of San Angelo and Pete Edwards of Lubbock.

John Townsend Jr. of Houston and H. R. Pipkin of Fort Worth each shot a one-over-par 72 Monday to tie for medal honors in the qualifying round.

PLAYER OF WEEK Latin Youths Are Honored

Three Latin American boys among area football players singled out by the Daily Herald this week for outstanding performances in games unrivaled last weekend.

They are Albert Fierro and Rica Flores, both of Big Spring; and Sands' little Jessie Cavazos, a back who weighs only 107 pounds.

All of the honored players will receive specially engraved certificates and automatically become eligible for Player of the Year awards to be presented at the end of the 1963 season.

The Herald gratefully acknowledged the help of the coaches of the various teams in selecting the boys.

The selections:

BIG SPRING
BACK—The honor this week goes to quarterback Albert Fierro, 190-pound senior quarterback, who threw for two touchdowns and ran for another in the Steers' 23-6 victory over Snyder. Fierro exhibited fine leadership against the Tigers, ran the ball well and invariably sought out his targets.

LINEMAN—A strong guard named Rica Flores, who plays left guard on defense, earned the accolade. Of Rica's performance Friday night, coach Don Robbins said: "He did a fine job of blocking when we had the ball. He played his position well and did a good job of rushing the passer when Snyder had possession. He also did a good job of stopping the Tigers' end sweeps."

STANTON
BACK—A junior fullback named David Dunn was tagged for his performance against Fort Stockton. The undermanned Buffaloes lost the game but the 160-pound Dunn gave more than he took. Coach Bill Milan says of Dunn: "He's a go-getter, a hustler and he likes to play." David blocked very well against Fort Stockton. In addition, he is a good pass receiver and is learning to become a dangerous ball carrier.

LINEMAN—For the second straight week, senior tackle Larry Merrifield earned the honor. Coach Milan had the following words of praise for the young man: "He never lets up in his hustle. He has only played three games in his life but he shows the desire we are looking for." Larry participated in 12 tackles against Fort Stockton.

SANDS
BACK—Jessie Cavazos, sophomore halfback, who weighs only 107 pounds, earned the honor with his courageous play against Robert Lee. He did a fine job of blocking and lugging the ball.

EARL PLAGENS
Fine comeback

Coach Arlen White praised Jessie for his work on defense and said he wished he had more like him, pointing out that his lack of height was his only drawback.

LINEMAN—For the second time this season, Larry Chapman won the honor. The 150-pound junior end was the only Mustang who caught passes in the Robert Lee game. He also participated in 17 passes on defense, nine of which he originated. His blocking was also praised by the Pony coaching staff.

GARDEN CITY
PLAYER OF THE WEEK—Sophomore Earl Plagens, who had a finger mangled shortly before the season began in a farm accident, played a tremendous game as an end against Gail for the Bearcats. He usually is a quarterback but was moved out to a wing because he is still wearing a brace on his finger. He caught a touchdown pass in the first quarter, good for 60 yards. He caught another in the second, the play covering 21 yards. Earl played halfback on defense. Of his performance, coach Jack Woodley said: "He made his share of mistakes but did real well, considering this was his first game. He has great desire and he's going to be a great ball player one of these days."

FORSAN
PLAYER OF THE WEEK—Kenneth Sales, who scored three touchdowns for Forsan in an 11-man exhibition against the Stanton B team, is recipient of the honor this week. (Forsan ordinarily plays eight-man ball.) Kenneth plays quarterback for the Buffaloes. His TD runs were for 80, 64 and 48 yards. Coach Oscar Broeker had this to say of Kenneth and his teammates: "If Kenneth and the others looked uninspired, we think they did real well, considering the fact that the team had a siege of virus. All the kids were real sick, including Soles. They were just out there playing, and that was all."

McHan Joins 49ers
To Strengthen QB

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—Well-travelled pro quarterback Lamar McHan has arrived to join the San Francisco 49ers as insurance to No. 1 signal caller John Brodie, still nursing an off season arm injury.

McHan is an ex-Chicago Cardinal and Green Bay Packer who played the last two seasons at Baltimore. He had been put on waivers last week.

Coyote Game
Ducats Ready

Tickets for the Big Spring-Wichita Falls game Friday night will go on sale Wednesday at 8:30 a.m. at the School Business Administration office at 12th and Austin. Don Crockett, in charge of sales, will be selling the single game ducats until 5 p.m. each day with the sales discontinuing at 2 p.m. Friday and then only being sold at the gate, which will open before the game at 7 o'clock. All adult tickets will be $1.50.

Student tickets will go on sale in all schools Thursday with the price being 50 cents, if bought in school, and 75 cents at the gate. Season tickets are on sale for $6, which is $1.50 less than the original price of $7.50 because of one home game already being played.

Thus far 820 season tickets have been sold, which is 45 more than last year's total.

SMU Shows Leader

DALLAS (AP)—Southern Methodist's Danny Thomas, a name associated with show business, made the most progress in one game of any player in Southwest Conference football history.

Danny put on a show all of his own Saturday as he passed for 214 yards, ran for 19 and punted for the fantastic average of 49 yards against Michigan.

Predicts Better Year

CHICAGO (AP)—Ernie Banks, the Chicago Cubs' slugging first baseman, figures to be as good as new when the 1964 season rolls around.

Banks, one of the Cubs' all-time sluggers, suffered the worst season of his 10-year career during 1963 when he finished with a .227 average with 18 home runs and 64 runs batted in.

Errors Hurt NFL Champs

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi is a puzzled man. He is unable to explain the sudden outbreak of game errors by the Packers as they strive for a third straight National Football League championship.

"I can't understand it," Lombardi said Monday in reviewing statistics of the Packers' two victories and one defeat.

"We've been a team that has made very few mental and physical mistakes. This year we have had a flock of them. If we continue like this, it's going to catch up with us. We've been stopping ourselves and this must end."

En route to the NFL title with a 13-1 season record last year, the Packers had the fewest passes intercepted—a mere 13—and lost the ball on fumbles just 15 times. In three games this season, they have surrendered the ball on nine interceptions and five fumbles.

Green Bay gave up three fumbles and two pass interceptions Sunday, but managed to pull out a 31-20 victory over Baltimore.

Willie Davis, an All-League selection as a defensive end, said he thought the Packers may be "going into games a little tight."

"We're trying to overdo this thing," Davis said. "We've always been a closely knit team. The mere fact that the offense is experiencing some difficulty means we're just going to have to hang in there together."

"We've got to feel that they're going to get rolling. It's only a matter of time."

The Packers are tied with the Minnesota Vikings in games behind Chicago's undefeated Bears in the Western Division. Lombardi is satisfied with his team's standing—although unhappy with the flock of mistakes by his offense.

Miller Is Leading All AAAA Schools

DALLAS (AP)—Corpus Christi Miller, Dumas, Denver City and Albany lead the Texas schoolboy football campaign going into October.

These teams were picked as No. 1 in their respective classes in the Dallas Times' weekly poll.

Miller took over first place in Class AAAA as Port Arthur, beaten 7-6 by Pasadena, dropped to fourth. San Antonio Brackenridge retained No. 2.

Dumas rode on top of Class AAAA with a unanimous vote of sports writers participating in the poll.

Denver City last to Levelland in Class AAA last week but still clung to No. 1 in Class AA. Stamford moved up to second ahead of Sinton.

Albany continued No. 1 in Class A, New London No. 2 and Pearland No. 3, as was the case last week.

McHan Joins 49ers
To Strengthen QB

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—Well-travelled pro quarterback Lamar McHan has arrived to join the San Francisco 49ers as insurance to No. 1 signal caller John Brodie, still nursing an off season arm injury.

McHan is an ex-Chicago Cardinal and Green Bay Packer who played the last two seasons at Baltimore. He had been put on waivers last week.
