Oswald Map Plots Assassination Line

DALLAS (AP) — Dist. Atty. Henry Wade confirmed today that a Dallas city map with X marks and a line drawn on it which corresponds to the path of the bullet that killed President Kennedy was found in Lee Harvey Oswald's room.

Wade said fingerprints of Oswald, the slain Marxist assassin of the assassination, also were found on the foreign-made rifle which killed the President.

Oswald was slain Sunday by Jack Ruby, 52, a night club owner and self-appointed executioner who undertook swift, savage reprisal for the Kennedy murder.

TRAJECTORY

Wade said the map has X's at various downtown intersections. At the intersection of Houston and Elm Streets a line traces the trajectory similar to that of the gunfire which took the President's life.

The map may have constituted what police termed "major evidence" against Oswald in Kennedy's assassination, but which they had refused to reveal.

The News said officers theorized Oswald marked spots on the map from which a sniper could get a good shot at the Kennedy motorcade.

SINGLE BULLET

Oswald died Sunday with a single bullet wound in the side, fired by Ruby as he stepped from a crowd of 200 in the basement of the Dallas City Hall.

"It's too good for him!" someone shouted after the 24-year-old self-styled Communist dropped in his tracks, a single cry of anguish escaping his lips. Police quickly overwhelmed and disarmed Ruby.

It was an incredible climax to the wildest weekend in Dallas history—a savage, sudden moment of raw drama that was caught by national television networks and broadcast with shocking impact into American living rooms.

MUCH HARDER

"He took Kennedy's death much harder than that of our 88-year-old father five years ago," said Ruby's older sister, Eva Grant. "He couldn't eat Friday. He kept talking about Jackie and the Kennedy kids."

Oswald had been formally accused of the sniper assassination of Kennedy last Friday as the President rode beaming beside his wife, Jacqueline Kennedy, in a triumphal motorcade through downtown Dallas.

Also wounded in the shooting was Texas Gov. John Connally, who is recovering. Later authorities said, Oswald shot to death a Dallas policeman, J. D. Tippit, who—wittingly or otherwise—interrupted his getaway flight.

The first reaction of Dallas police to Oswald's murder was to mark the assassination case closed, and concentrate on trying to convict Ruby.

But federal officials felt otherwise. President Johnson ordered a full government probe of Oswald's slaying, and the FBI proposed further investigation into the presidential assassination with the hope of eventually giving the American people the full story. Later, Dallas Dist. Atty. Henry Wade listed what he said was a complete summary of the evidence against Oswald.

A wild tumult broke out immediately after the shooting of Oswald in the basement of City Hall. But it was nothing compared to the public uproar over the slaying.

PROPAGANDA

Communist propaganda organs abroad promptly depicted Oswald's death as a coverup to mask sinister rightist forces which they blamed for the President's assassination. Moscow bitterly resented the linking of Oswald with communism.

Willard Sullivan, pioneer druggist and former city commission member, suffered a coronary attack at his home Sunday afternoon and is now in Cowper Hospital and Clinic. Sullivan's condition was described at noon by his physician as being "good."

Also in the hospital is W. H. Oliver, manager of the Settles Hotel, who suffered an attack sometime Sunday afternoon.

Hospital attendants said it has not been definitely established that Oliver had suffered a heart attack. His condition was believed to be satisfactory Monday.

Grieving Nation Says Goodbye To JFK

Many Dignitaries Attend Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP) — A grieving capital — and the world — said goodbye today to John F. Kennedy, dynamic in life and revered in his martyr's death.

The broad streets were lined by hundreds of thousands of people, many of them weeping, as the flag-draped coffin drawn by six white horses went by.

After it came the young widow, Jacqueline, a black veil shielding her face and draping her shoulders. For the first stage of the slow, sad journey she rode in a black limousine.

The great copper dome of St. Matthew's Cathedral, blue-green from decades of weathering, glistened in a crisp, clear day as the cortege approached it for the requiem Mass.

As the procession came by the White House on the way to the cathedral the Marine band played a dirge. Earlier, the strains of "Onward Christian Soldiers" had filled the air.

Along with the 34-year-old widow of the fallen chief executive, and sorrowing with her, went one of the greatest arrays of world statesmen ever assembled. From 53 countries they came — 26 as heads of state or government.

Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston, an old friend of the Kennedy family, came to celebrate the Mass at the church named for St. Matthew the evangelist and apostle.

The white horses pulling the caisson carrying the coffin plodded along quietly, but the traditional riderless horse turned, twisted and pranced sideways.

Before the casket was placed on the caisson at the Capitol, Mrs. Kennedy had knelt before it and prayed briefly.

Then, as the coffin was carried from the catafalque, there was a roll of ruffles and flourishes.

TO CADENCES

"O God of Loveliness," a band played, and the procession began, to the measured cadences of muffled drums and a mournful dirge.

A bell tolled as the cortege approached the White House. It reached there at 11:35 a.m., while church bells tolled mournfully.

Then at the White House, Jacqueline Kennedy set out on foot, leading the procession to the cathedral.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy clutched Mrs. Kennedy's hand as they walked out the northwest gate of the White House.

President and Mrs. Johnson walked behind a line of members of the immediate family who followed Mrs. Kennedy.

French President Charles de Gaulle was close behind, leading the foreign leaders.

Chief Justice Earl Warren, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and others also were in the walking procession.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen headed a group from Congress.

But for President Johnson, the case was not closed. He ordered the FBI to make an investigation into Oswald's killing in the Dallas jail basement by a self-appointed executioner, Jack Ruby, the operator of a Dallas strip joint.

As Oswald slumped to the floor clawing at his stomach one of the 200 jamming into the basement shouted: "It's too good for him."

Not long after Oswald died hundreds of miles away, Mrs. Kennedy, her eyes shadowed by fatigue and grief, stood with daughter Caroline before the flag-draped casket in the Capitol and heard Chief Justice Earl Warren speak these words in eulogy to the late President:

BITTERNESS

"If we really love this country; if we truly love justice and mercy; if we fervently want to make this nation better for those who are to follow us, we can at least abjure the hatred that consumes people, the false accusations that divide us and the bitterness that begets violence."

"Is it too much to hope that the martyrdom of our beloved President might even soften the hearts of those who would themselves recoil from assassination, but who do not shrink from spreading the venom

Johnson Follows Funeral With High-Level Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson traveled the last miles with John F. Kennedy today — and then set his own course in meetings with a massive array of world statesmen.

Everyone watched for clues as to how Johnson would get along with President Charles de Gaulle of France. De Gaulle differed from Kennedy on such great questions as NATO, the European Common Market, and the French government's insistence on its own nuclear force.

WITH DE GAULLE

Whether Johnson, noted as a master persuader when he was the Democratic leader of the Senate, would get together with

De Gaulle on an in-depth discussion of world affairs was not yet certain. But the possibility remained.

First came the sad task of accompanying the martyred President Kennedy's body to the grave. Part of the journey was on foot, from the White House to St. Matthew's Cathedral for the requiem mass, then by car to Arlington National Cemetery, for a hero's burial.

After the funeral, Mrs. Kennedy arranged to receive the foreign dignitaries at the White House. Then Johnson plunges into his first round of personal diplomacy as President.

RECEPTION

He scheduled a 90-minute reception — 5:30-7 p.m. — for the more than 100 foreign dignitaries who journeyed to Washington to pay their respects to the late President Kennedy.

The social gathering in the State Department's diplomatic reception rooms gives the new President little opportunity for more than a passing contact with foreign leaders with whom he will have more dealings later.

Today's emphasis, however, was on mourning, not international affairs.

But in these swift moving days Johnson had to work business in between the hours of mourning.

Sunday he accompanied the Kennedy cortege from the White House to the Capitol where the flag-draped casket was placed in state under the dome of the rotunda.

VIET NAM

He also talked over the federal budget for next year and held a top-level review of the troubled South Vietnamese situation.

Carrying through on an appointment originally set up by Kennedy, Johnson heard a report from the U.S. ambassador to Saigon, Henry Cabot Lodge.

White House sources subsequently announced that Johnson approved this three-point major policy directive:

1. The United States remains determined to help South Vietnam stamp out the Communist Viet Cong.
2. Still in force is the Kennedy objective of withdrawing at least 1,000 U.S. servicemen from Viet Nam by the end of this year, and pulling out virtually the whole contingent of 16,000 men by January 1965.
3. All U.S. personnel in South Viet Nam should aid the new, post-Diem Saigon government "in its consolidation, in its development of public support for its policies and for winning the war against the Viet Cong."

LOCAL FUND AIDS TIPPITS

Contributions to the family of Dallas policeman J. D. Tippit began spontaneously today in Big Spring, and the Herald is receiving the money.

Patrolman Tippit was slain shortly after President John F. Kennedy Friday. Lee Harvey Oswald was accused in both deaths.

J. B. Bruton contributed $5, followed by an anonymous friend, who gave another $5. Persons wishing to take part may send contributions to the Herald for acknowledgment. The funds will be forwarded to the family.

The Tippit family was not covered by personal insurance, police insurance or pension funds. The policeman leaves his widow, and three children, aged 4 to 13.

Crowd Fills Soviet Church

MOSCOW (AP) — Five hundred diplomats and Russians crowded into the little Roman Catholic Church of St. Louis le Francois today to attend a memorial service for President Kennedy.

Bishop Alexei of Tallin, deputy chief of the foreign relations section of the Russian Orthodox Church, headed a delegation of officials from his Church. Protocol representatives from the Soviet Foreign Ministry also attended.

The service was primarily ritual. In the front of the dark little church was a black casket topped by a cross. Columns on either side were draped in black. The Rev. Joseph F. Richard of New Bedford, Mass., who is assigned to Moscow's foreign colony, officiated.

U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler and his wife sat in the front row. Chiefs of most Western diplomatic missions also were present.

After the Catholic service, the diplomats drove to Protestant services at Spaso House, Kohler's residence.

The big ballroom of the embassy residence was converted into a chapel, with crepe draping one end of the long, columned hall. Three members of the embassy's Marine guard stood at attention on either side of the improvised altar.

A cross and a photograph of President Kennedy stood on the altar. An American flag draped in crepe stood next to the pastor's lectern.

A Beautiful U.S. Flag History

The history of the U. S. Flag is this week's feature in "The Herald's AMERICAN DOCUMENT" collection. It is an antiqued parchment, and will make a lovely item for framing. It is a part of our heritage that should be in every home. It sells at The Herald office (or you can order by mail) for only 26¢.

Four other documents may still be had, at 26¢ each, or these four are put together in a special packet that sells for only $1.02. These are: The Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights, the Star-Spangled Banner and the Prayers of Peter Marshall.

Start your collection right now — you'll be proud of every document.

Case Isn't Closed

But for President Johnson, the case was not closed. He ordered the FBI to make an investigation into Oswald's killing in the Dallas jail basement by a self-appointed executioner, Jack Ruby, the operator of a Dallas strip joint.

As Oswald slumped to the floor clawing at his stomach one of the 200 jamming into the basement shouted: "It's too good for him."

Not long after Oswald died hundreds of miles away, Mrs. Kennedy, her eyes shadowed by fatigue and grief, stood with daughter Caroline before the flag-draped casket in the Capitol and heard Chief Justice Earl Warren speak these words in eulogy to the late President:

Willard Sullivan, pioneer druggist and former city commission member, suffered a coronary attack at his home Sunday afternoon and is now in Cowper Hospital and Clinic. Sullivan's condition was described at noon by his physician as being "good."

Also in the hospital is W. H. Oliver, manager of the Settles Hotel, who suffered an attack sometime Sunday afternoon.

Hospital attendants said it has not been definitely established that Oliver had suffered a heart attack. His condition was believed to be satisfactory Monday.

Snow, Freeze Forecast For Big Spring Tonight

For the first time this fall, the forecast for the Big Spring area carried the word "snow" today.

The weatherman, who missed his bet on frost Saturday morning and again on Sunday morning by narrow margins, is betting again—this time he not only predicts freezing temperatures for early Tuesday but he also sees a prospect of snow in the making.

Sunday, the weather forecast had said the temperature would touch below freezing. Actually it never got below 33 degrees, according to Webb AFB station. That reading was at 7 a.m.

Monday morning, the temperature was a chilly 35 but cold wind, cloudy skies and general discomfort began to build up as the morning advanced giving a ring of authenticity to the forecast of even chillier weather to-night.

The forecast said the high today would be 58 but there was little chance that it would get that high. At 11 a.m. it was 47 degrees and this was a couple of marks lower than it had been earlier in the day.

The weather forecast said that it would be 30 degrees in Big Spring tonight.

Her Face And Figure Envied By Starlets

By LYDIA LANE

HOLLYWOOD — At a star-studded award dinner, every eye was on glamorous Barbara Stanwyck as she walked with beautiful carriage in a white sheath, dramatized by a black sleeveless floor-length sequined coat.

"When I'm her age," a starlet whispered, "I hope I'll have a figure like that."

"You should wish to have one like that now," was the candid reply of her producer escort.

Later, when Miss Stanwyck and I talked she said, "I've worn the same dress size since I began my career. But I've taken care of my body by exercising and eating the right foods. It takes so little effort to retain what you have, and it is such a struggle to get back into shape if you have acquired bad habits."

"I have never had the fear of growing old. When my hair started to turn gray I said I would not dye it unless the cameraman wanted me to, and fortunately it photographs blonde. I have not had to waste all that time in a beauty salon. But to some people gray hair is a symbol of their departing youth, and they hate it."

"I insist on cleanliness. I do not use wash cloths and never have. But I buy big rolls of sterile cotton and take my make-up off with that. I like the feeling of soap and water, but I use an imported bar that lathers and has a cream base."

"Every morning I do some breathing and stretching and limbering exercises. I want to keep my body supple. I stretch to the ceiling and breathe deeply. As I go up on my toes, I inhale, and as I come down I exhale. Then I bend over and touch my toes and as I come up, I do deep breathing exercises. This brings color to the face and fills the lungs to capacity. Lack of oxygen always shows in the face and by the way one moves," she concluded.

Baby Boys Catered To In Fashion

NEW YORK (AP)—Baby boys usually get the short end of fashion. And a few mothers, at least, think this is unfair.

Baby girls get laces and embroidery and smocking and confection colors and all the other things that little girl dresses are made of.

Baby boys get durable, unadorned apparel not unlike what they will wear right into manhood.

Mindful of the problem, infant-wear designers are making trousers baggy enough to accommodate diapers, a new matching shirt, the pants are dressier than a wee tot's play rompers, but just as grand to crawl in.

The colors, like cadet blue or green, are virile but not harsh. The fabrics, not exactly gray flannel, are denims and corduroys, always successful with man, boy and baby.

Most of all, the suits are ever so subtly decorated, just enough to please mothers and not enough to upset dads.

Welcomed As New Member Of Group

A newcomer to Webb AFB, Mrs. R. G. Bortner, was welcomed and departing wives bade farewell by women of the Headquarters Section of the PT Group at the home of Mrs. B. R. Underwood, Mrs. B. R. Butler was cohostess.

Those who are leaving include Mrs. R. F. Daley, who is going with her husband to the RAF Command Staff School; Mrs. J. F. Seaton, going to Adana, Turkey, and Mrs. J. A. Nichols, retiring with her husband to Abilene.

Guests for the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Jordan were Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Smith. The Smiths arrived Friday and left Sunday to return home.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Pre-Patching Proves Positive Precaution

Dear Heloise:

After my children have worn new pajamas for about two months, I iron patches with iron mending tape in matching colors, on the inside of the pajamas where the knees usually wear out.

"These iron-tapes and patches can be purchased at any dime store."

The patches will not show if you will iron them on the inside of the clothing before the garment is worn through.

The idea is also great for the elbows of flannel shirts.

Marilyn Stafford

HELOISE

Dear Heloise:

Save the aluminum plates that frozen dinners come in after holiday feasts when there seem to be so many leftovers that no one cares to eat for a few days.

Make up your own frozen dinners using exactly what each individual member of the family likes. Cover with foil, label and freeze.

After a month or so the family will think a turkey dinner is a big treat. This is also a good idea for every day leftovers that are not really enough to save.

WINNERS TOLD

Duplicate Clubs In Play For Weekend

Two duplicate clubs were in play for the weekend, both holding Master Point sessions.

COSDEN COUNTRY CLUB Six tables were reported by the Sunday Cosden Club players with Mrs. Fred Kasch and Mrs. Jack Irons placing first in north-south position. Second place went to Mrs. B. B. Badger and Mrs. J. H. Holloway.

East-west winners were Mrs. Bill Emerson and Mrs. Joe Herbert, first, and Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow and Mrs. A. Swartz, second.

ELK'S DUPLICATE CLUB Winners for the Elk's Lodge players, Saturday evening, were Mrs. Fern Durham and Mrs. Rogers Hefley, high; Mrs. Ayra McGann and Mrs. George Pike, second; Mrs. Fred Haller and Mrs. Joe Herbert, third; and Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Fish, fourth.

Next Saturday was announced as Charity Night at the Elk's Lodge Hall.

All duplicate players were reminded of the two-session Rankin games slated for Saturday. Those wanting reservations may contact Mrs. Noble Harkrider or call MY 3-2532 at Rankin.

and yet too much to throw away.

Make a frozen dinner each time this happens. Sometimes do not label them! When you have enough for each member of the family have a surprise supper!

This makes a big hit with the children, is a help for mom on a busy day, and no more waste food. It also keeps the refrigerator from getting that cluttered look with dishes and bowls and cuts down on dishwashing. . . . Florence Nick

Dear Heloise:

We have two rubber floor mats on the floorboard of our car. They're not only good to put our feet on but when it's snowing they may be removed from the floorboard and thrown across the windshield. Let the windshield wipers hold them in place. Then when you get in the car all you have to do is move the windshield wipers, take off the floor mats, and presto—clean windows without all of that scraping, scouring and freezing hands.

The mats may be put right back on the floorboard and they have been given a good cleaning in the meantime. . . . Wilson

Dear Heloise:

Just line the pan in which you bake meat loaf, etc., with foil and save the hard job of scrubbing a dirty pan.

Foil may be discarded. Fingernails can't! . . . Mrs. William Waterman

Dear Ladies:

Recently I was in the kitchen of one of the most fabulous restaurants in one of our biggest cities. They are noted for their scrambled eggs. The chef's secret was . . . "We never wash the skillets in which we scramble eggs." This must be the secret. He convinced me, gals . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:

To prevent freezing pipes . . . after wrapping your outside water pipes and hydrants with cloth, papers, etc. . . . then cover them completely with those plastic bags which come on dry cleaning. This keeps your foundation "wraps" dry.

Moisture, when allowed to get in these basic coverings, is what sometimes causes the pipes to freeze. The plastic keeps the moisture out . . . Plumber

How right you are. I just checked with a plumbing company. Thanks for saving our pipes and preventing stoppage of water, which is what happens when those pipes freeze. To say nothing about the bills . . . Heloise

AN ADMISSION

Speaking of the Baptists' idea of baptism, the leaflet under review says: "They believe that it is a picture of the burial and resurrection of our Lord, that it symbolizes a person's salvation, and publicly commits him to Jesus Christ."

How can anyone deny that baptism is essential to a man's salvation, and at the same time admit that it "identifies him with the church?" The Bible tells us that "the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved" (Acts 2:47). Thus, there were no saved folk outside the church. It was not that the saved joined the church if they wanted to. The Lord added them when they were saved. It was not just a portion of the saved that were added to the church; it was "such as should be saved." No exceptions were made.

Redemption is in Christ (Eph. 1:7). We are baptized into Him (Gal. 3:27). Being in Him, we are in the church, for it is His body (Col. 1:18).

Millions View Dallas Death With Horror

By The Associated Press
Millions of television viewers throughout the nation watched in stunned horror Sunday as a murder was committed. It undoubtedly was the first time so many people witnessed a real-life homicide.

But many looked beyond the grisly aspects of the spectacle to find in the deed some type of justice worked against Lee Harvey Oswald, the man accused, but not convicted, of assassinating President Kennedy only two days before.

AGAINST CODE
The overwhelming majority of those polled by The Associated Press looked upon Oswald's slaying by Dallas night club proprietor Jack Ruby as a frightening revolt against the American code of justice.

Many thought the murder mirrored a breakdown in the moral standards of the nation. Clergymen condemned it as a serious breach in Christian ethics.

Still others saw in Oswald's death a practical loss. They wondered aloud whether the world would ever know if the true presidential assassin had paid for his crime.

OPENLY CHEERED
In Dallas, where the slaying of both the President and his suspected killer took place, some openly cheered the killing of Oswald. But many more, along with the clergy and civic leaders, denounced the slaying as an unlawful and damaging act.

In Albany, N.Y., an unidentified woman telephoned a newspaper office to recommend that Ruby be given the Congressional Medal of Honor.

"Good," said Chicago cab driver Carl Moore. "It was justified. The man who did it was a nut. But he (Oswald) got what he deserved."

Most of those polled felt that a man still innocent in the eyes of the law had been slain at the hands of a murderer.

DUE PROCESS
Rolland R. O'Hare, district attorney of Detroit, expressed fear that "due process of the law is on the verge of becoming a victim of assassination."

Mayor Earle Cabell of Dallas issued an urgent appeal "for all of us to come to our senses, to resist hysteria."

The Rev. Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, president of the Lutheran Church in America and chairman of the central committee of the World Council of Churches said:

"Life, as the gift of God, deserves to be respected far more than it is, and self-control ought to be restored to its rightful standing among the Christian graces where the Bible puts it."

Widow Mingles With Crowds For Another Glimpse Of Casket

FINAL WAVE FROM LITTLE JOHN Family follows Kennedy's casket from White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy went back for a second look at her husband's casket in the Capitol rotunda and pleading, "Let me walk, let me walk," mingled with crowds that mourned the slain President.

The 34-year-old widow of President Kennedy seemed reluctant to leave his casket.

With her two children, she had come in a funeral procession Sunday to leave the President's body to lie in state in the Capitol for public viewing by many thousands.

Mrs. Kennedy, with her daughter Caroline beside her, had knelt and kissed the casket before she departed about 2:30 p.m.

WITH ROBERT
Unexpectedly, she was back about 9 o'clock Sunday night, on the arm of her brother-in-law, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, as long lines of people waited to pass the President's bier.

She walked slowly by the ropes keeping the public from the casket area and once again knelt and kissed the coffin.

Until she had left it at the Capitol, Mrs. Kennedy had remained near her husband's body since he was slain in Dallas Friday afternoon.

On her sudden nighttime re-appearance, the slow-moving crowd came to a halt. When Mrs. Kennedy rose, she turned her tear-stained face and looked for a long moment at the faces of those who came to pay their respects to her late husband.

As she and the attorney general left, Mrs. Kennedy seemed to look searchingly at the faces of the incoming throng.

"Let me walk, let me walk," she said as they descended the Capitol steps. At first Mrs. Kennedy went unrecognized, but soon she was discovered and some followed after her party of police and Secret Service agents.

It was learned Mrs. Kennedy personally had decided on many of the details of the presidential funeral, including the decision that the mourners would walk some eight blocks from the White House as was done at the funeral of Abraham Lincoln, the president slain almost 100 years ago.

Protocol and research experts had brought to the White House plans of the funerals of George Washington, Lincoln, Ulysses S. Grant, Woodrow Wilson and Franklin D. Roosevelt for guidance.

TO WASHINGTON
Mrs. Kennedy, who shared her husband's interest in history, agreed on the marching procession in the streets, a theme dating back to Washington's funeral.

Kennedy's Irish cousin, Miss Mary Ann Ryan in Dublin, was sent a special Kennedy family invitation, relayed by the U. S. Embassy, to come to the funeral. She had entertained Kennedy on his visit to his ancestral home at Dunganstown, Ireland, last summer.

All of the members of the President's family, except his father, Joseph P. Kennedy, 75, had gathered in Washington for the funeral.

TO KNEEL
His mother, Rose Kennedy, 73, flew from Hyannis Port, Mass., Sunday night and with other members of the family also went to kneel at the casket in the Capitol rotunda.

Joining Mrs. Kennedy at the White House were the attorney general, his wife, Ethel, the President's sisters, Eunice Shriver, Patricia Lawford and Jean Smith, with their husbands, the President's youngest brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy and his wife, Joan. Also Mrs. Kennedy's younger sister, Lee Radzwill, who flew here from London.

Mrs. Kennedy's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, who live in nearby Georgetown, were to be at the funeral.

While the President's funeral was under way here, a special private Mass was scheduled at the Cape Cod home of Kennedy's father, who is still suffering from effects of a stroke suffered in December 1961 and could not make the trip here.

Father Stays At Hyannis

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy grieved in the privacy of his summer home today as the rest of the nation paid final homage to his slain son.

Although pronounced fit to travel, the 75-year-old Kennedy elected to remain at home. His niece, Ann Gargan, and the Rev. John Cavanaugh, long-time friend and president emeritus of the University of Notre Dame, were with him.

Dr. Russell S. Boles, Boston neurologist, said the former ambassador displayed "tremendous courage" upon learning Saturday of his son's assassination. The family waited 21 hours after John F. Kennedy died before telling his father.

Kennedy suffered a stroke two years ago and has been confined to a wheelchair since.

Y Awarded Certificate

The Big Spring YMCA last week was recognized by the National Council of YMCA's with the award of a 1964-66 Eligibility Certificate. The certificate was granted for excellent work done at the local Y in the field of physical education.

Only Y's holding eligibility certificates are permitted to participate in inter-Association sports competition. The certificate also is an honor award, showing that the Y follows high standards of performance and accomplishment in keeping with the YMCA's objectives. Such a certificate is awarded every three years, going only to Associations which qualify for it.

The Big Spring Y was cited for conducting a balanced and interesting program of physical education, for its PE committee and volunteer leadership as well as its qualified professional leadership, and for operating under an up-to-date policy.

Ten Sergeants Win Promotions

The 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Webb AFB was notified last week that seven staff sergeants were promoted to the grade of technical sergeant and three technical sergeants would go to the grade of master sergeant. Promotions for the 90 men will be effective December 1.

Going to master sergeant will be T. Sgts. Martin E. Anderson, Richard L. Lienhart and Richard A. Zenner. The seven new technical sergeants to be promoted are Sgts. Larry A. Allen, Ronald D. Anderson, Harold G. Gansware, Marshall K. Kuhns, Roy E. Messer, James L. Rutherford and Marchmont M. Thompson.

Sound Economy Underlies Nation

NEW YORK (AP)—The shock of a death passes in time. The basic U.S. economy is sound. The majority of Americans are not panic prone.

All signs point to a continuation by President Johnson and the Congress of the late President Kennedy's general policies affecting business, industry and finance.

This is the hopeful expectation of almost all business leaders and economists who have assessed the long-run consequences of the assassination.

They feel that confidence—at both consumer and business levels—will prove strong after the initial period of shock and bewilderment.

Gyrations in stock and commodity markets are expected for a time. They customarily react dramatically to any shock, particularly to any news that involves short-term uncertainties. And in the markets reaction breeds reaction, as they get back in step with the rest of the economy.

But confidence of the public as a whole, rather than just the passing judgments of stock and commodity traders, is the key to the business future.

Confidence is a fragile thing. There is no fixed guide to how consumers and businessmen will feel and act.

The general expectation, however, is that after the first shock the consumer will go on with his plans, and that business will go ahead with its production schedules and planning for modernization and future expansion.

Only an unexpected change in the policies of the new administration and the attitude of the Congress, or in the trade and political policies of other nations could upset the basic strength of the economy, in the view of those economists who have spoken out so far. That strength is unquestioned today.

If other nations believe the new administration will follow the same policies as President Kennedy—and this seems highly probable—the dollar will remain strong in world money markets.

All of these business and financial conditions are, of course affected by President Kennedy's assassination. Uncertainty, and reassessment may slow the rise in the economy that got under way in late summer.

But this need be only temporary—if Americans keep their heads.

Mrs. Graham's Funeral Held

STANTON — Services were held Monday afternoon for Mrs. Zora Elizabeth Graham, 63, wife of Irvin Graham, who lives three miles west of Stanton.

Mrs. Graham, a resident of this city 43 years, died Nov. 23 in Lubbock Methodist Hospital after an extended illness.

Services were in the First Methodist Church of which she was a member. The Rev. C. R. LeMond officiated, assisted by A. Ellmore Johnson, pastor of the Church of Christ in Stanton and the Rev. O. A. McBrayer, pastor of St. Lawrence Methodist Church in Midland. Burial was in Trinity Memorial Park in Big Spring with Arrington Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Graham was born Oct. 1, 1900, in Lamar County. She married Mr. Graham in Tahoka. The Grahams moved to Stanton from Lamar County.

Survivors, in addition to the husband, include three sons, T. E. and J. W. Graham, Midland, and Max K. Graham, Kalspell, Mont.; her father, J. W. Young, Stanton; two sisters, Mrs. Nora Lucile Carr, Sunnybell, Calif., and Mrs. Effie Sheekles, Midland; two brothers, J. T. Young, Stanton, and J. R. Young, Five Point, Calif. There are eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

No State Law Violated With Carrying Of Rifle

DALLAS (AP) — The district attorney's office said Lee Harvey Oswald did not violate any state law when he carried a mail-order rifle into a downtown building before President Kennedy was shot.

But, said Chief Asst. Dist. Atty. A. D. Jim Bowie, Jack Ruby did violate the law Sunday when he carried a pistol into City Hall.

Ruby, whose real name is Rubinstein, shot and killed Oswald, the 24-year-old accused assassin of the President.

Bowie explained the state's unique gun laws, which date back to frontier days.

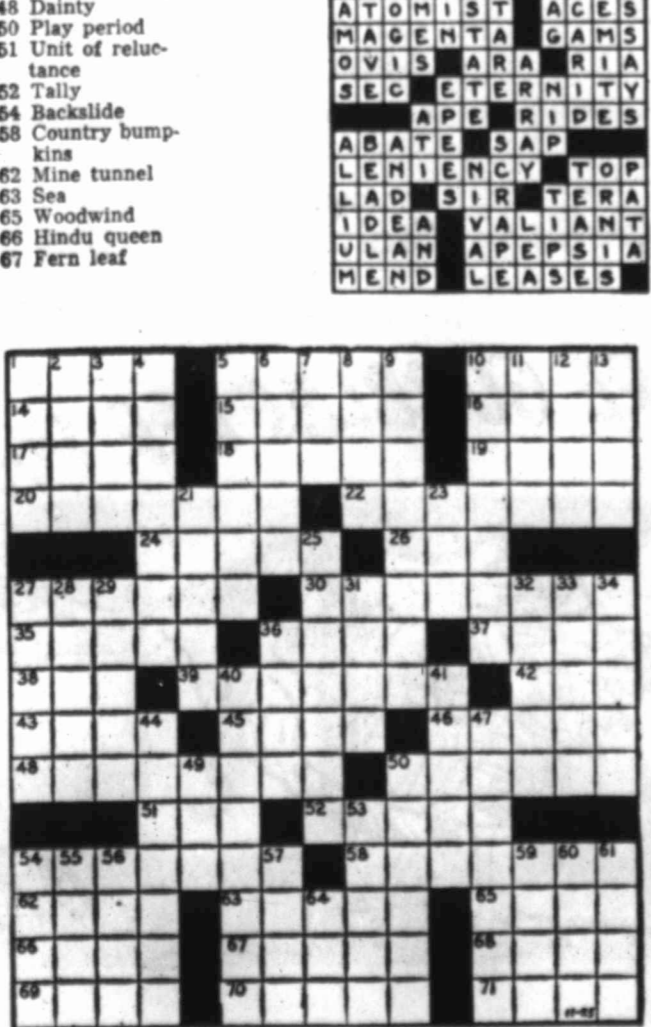

"We have no laws which prohibit the buying of guns," Bowie said. "We do have state laws which prohibit the carrying of weapons, but they apply only to pistols and not to rifles or shot-guns."

Oswald thus was free to carry a rifle into the building from which Kennedy was shot. Dist. Atty. Henry Wade said Oswald had the rifle concealed in a package, however.

Bowie said Ruby had a legal right to keep a pistol in his home or club, but violated the law when he took the .38-caliber pistol on the streets.

It never touches a drop.

The Volkswagen is cooled by air. Not water. An ingenious advantage. Since air cannot freeze, the Volkswagen engine cannot. Even at temperatures below zero, it is safe and sound.

The VW has no radiator problems for an eloquently simple reason. It has no radiator.

Viz: It never needs anti-freeze. It never needs flushing out. There is no radiator hose to crack and leak and possibly lose expensive anti-freeze.

When drivers line up for anti-freeze etc. on the first bitter, winter day, the Volkswagen owner is spared the annoyance.

Not to mention the expense. The VW has an equal advantage in hot weather. Air cannot boil any more than it can freeze. Neither can the Volkswagen.

In bumper-to-bumper traffic, when tempers and water grow short, when cars sit at the side of the road waiting to cool, the little Volkswagen goes right on past.

It is above it all. Riding on air.

Caused By Hatred, Pastors Declare

DALLAS (AP)—"Hatred is what produced this tragedy. The proper response is one of penitence... for our own feelings of hatred."

"Jesus said that a man who hates his fellowman is guilty of murder and that is what happened in this city Friday."

"These words were spoken by the Rev. Marshall Pinkerton, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and resounded those of many ministers in Dallas Sunday."

This anguished city's churches, overflowing with mournful and bewildered citizens, echoed the sadness of the world.

A tragic sequence of events had unfolded in their city: President Kennedy was slain and less than 48 hours later the accused assassin was also shot.

Just a few weeks ago U.N. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson was spat upon and hit after making a speech here.

Hate, not only in Dallas but throughout the nation, has become big business supported by large contributions and "exceedingly competent leadership" the pastor of the world's largest Methodist church said.

The Rev. William Dickinson Jr., of Highland Park Methodist Church, said.

Hospitalized

Alvis William Cummings, Gatesville, was admitted to Howard County Hospital Foundation and Clinic late Saturday after he received bruises and lacerations during a scrape on the North Side. His condition was satisfactory.

GOREN ON BRIDGE

 ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ
 Q. 1—Opponents vulnerable. As South you hold:
 ♠A74 ♥K105432 ♦AKJ105 ♣KQ52
 The bidding has proceeded:
 South West North East
 1♦ Double Pass 1♠

What do you bid now?
 A.—Two clubs. While the normal procedure is to rebid a six card suit before showing a four carder, exceptional treatment is recommended in the present instance for, if the bidding reaches some higher number of spades when it gets back to you, you may rightly fear to show the clubs. By showing both suits now you will place partner in a better position to take appropriate action should a competitive bidding sequence develop.

Q. 2—As South you hold:
 ♠863 ♥J104 ♦63 ♦KQ52 ♣KQ52
 The bidding has proceeded:
 West North East South
 1♠ Double Pass 2♣
 Pass 2NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—Three no trump. Partner's double and subsequent rebid of two no trump, after you have promised nothing, shows in the neighborhood of a two no trump opening. Even if he has only 20 points your six will provide sufficient strength for game.

Q. 3—Both sides vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠A10432 ♦AQ106 ♦KJ108 ♣KQ52
 Your right hand opponent opens the bidding with one heart. What do you bid?
 A.—Pass. There is no action you can take that is not fraught with great danger. A take-out double will surely produce a spade response from partner and there is no suit you can show conveniently. Your best hope for a profit is to hope that the opponents bid themselves into trouble.

Q. 4—As South you hold:
 ♠Q874 ♥AQJ1065 ♦1093 ♣KQ52
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South
 1♠ Double ?
 What do you bid?
 A.—Two hearts. While you have the values for a redouble, such action is not recommended due to the void in partner's suit. However, a mere bid of one heart might be treated by partner as an effort to show some mediocre hand containing a reasonable heart suit. A jump bid is therefore recommended which in our system is considered to be a one round force. Subsequent action will depend on partner's rebid.

Q. 5—As South you hold:
 ♠61093 ♥KQJ7 ♦AQ1043 ♣KQ52
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South West
 1♥ Pass 2♠ Pass
 2♦ Pass ?
 What do you bid now?
 A.—Three diamonds. This is admittedly an underbid but it would not be good tactics for you to take any action that would carry the bidding past the three no trump level. Since you made a strength showing response initially, partner will surely play you for a second hand.

Q. 6—As South you hold:
 ♠10 ♥Q63 ♦K1086 ♦AKQ43 ♣KQ52
 The bidding has proceeded:
 South West North East
 1♠ 1♦ 1♠ Pass
 2♠ 2♦ 3♥ Pass
 3NT Pass 4♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—Four spades. This may seem like a strange preference with but one spade; however partner's jump rebid in spades before even showing the hearts indicates that he has at least six and very probably seven spades. He will thus be able to stand repeated diamond forces much better in his longest suit.

Q. 7—As South you hold:
 ♠KAKQJ98 ♦Q943 ♦A2 ♣KQ52
 The bidding has proceeded:
 South West North East
 1♥ Pass 2♠ Pass
 3♥ Pass 3♠ Pass ?
 What do you bid now?
 A.—Five hearts. Prospects for slam are excellent if partner has any sort of diamond control. The sudden leap beyond game, when all other suits have been mentioned, clearly asks him if he can take care of the diamond situation. It will also serve to assure him that a singleton heart would constitute adequate trump support.

Q. 8—Both sides vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠863 ♥KQ ♦A72 ♦AKQ85 ♣KQ52
 The bidding has proceeded:
 South West North East
 1♠ 3♦ Pass 3NT ?
 What do you bid now?
 A.—Pass. Do nothing that might stir up the animals. You have the opponents in a contract that is virtually beaten off the top so why push them into one that might be a laydown? East's vulnerable three no trump bid makes it pretty certain that your partner has a totally worthless holding for you.

DEAR ABBY
Give Him A Deadline

DEAR ABBY: I met a widower 14 months ago, and he seemed sincere when he told me he would marry me as soon as he unveiled his wife's monument. The unveiling took place last July, and now his excuse is that he doesn't think he should marry until his daughter is married. (She is 20 and as yet isn't even going with anybody). He has also said in a kidding way that maybe I am too old for him (I am 50). He does not take out anyone but me, and is very good to me. He's bought me some nice gifts, and his family seems to like me. Should I continue seeing him, or should I tell him to leave me alone and find a younger woman?

DEAR ABBY: I should like to comment on the letter you printed from a bride-to-be who wanted the popular song, "What Kind of Fool Am I?" sung at her wedding. In 1938 I belonged to St. Agatha's choir. Our director was an organist, a young priest who often played popular tunes during the Holy Mass. Among his favorites were "Deep Purple," "Bei Mir Bist Du Schoen," and, of all things, "Heaven Can Wait!" Father slowed down the tempo appropriately, but the tunes were recognizable and the effect was beautiful.

DEAR NEEDS: Give him a deadline. If he doesn't come up with a wedding ring by Christmas, you'll know there ain't no Santa Claus.

DEAR ABBY: Is there such a thing as not having a "head" for figures? Our son made "A's" and "B's" in everything but math, and he got a "D" in that. Do you think he should be punished for this?

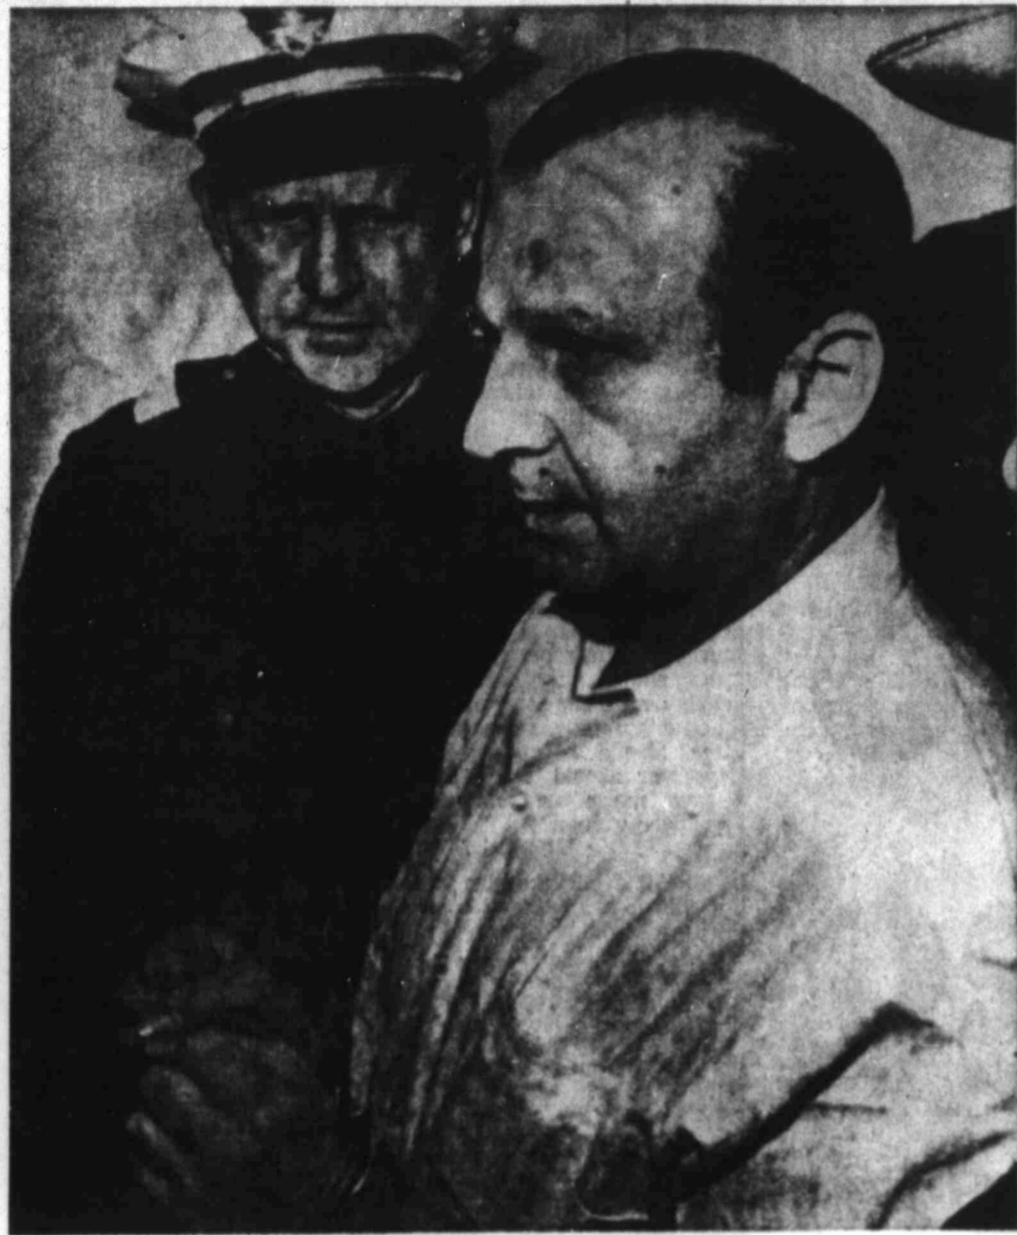

DEAR DAD: When one does not have a "head" for something, but applies his tail (to the chair) and devotes enough

Nixon Stock Again Climbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The possibility that Republicans may give former Vice President Richard M. Nixon a second crack at the presidency appeared to be growing today. The assassination of John F. Kennedy and the ascension of Lyndon B. Johnson to the office has forced a radical reassessment by GOP strategists of the 1964 campaign. Where once they conceded privately they had only an uphill chance of defeating Kennedy's bid for a second term, they now feel the odds are nearly even, they may be able to deny Johnson a first elective term. For a race with Kennedy, many wanted to gamble on the theory that a conservative like Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., could defeat a Democratic liberal. Now the Republican candidate is likely to face a Democrat identified in the public mind as a Southern conservative. For this is how Johnson is viewed by many, despite the support he has given as vice president to the Kennedy legislative program and his efforts to shed the tag of sectionalism. Nevertheless, the Republicans perceive a broad avenue leading toward the nomination of a man who can try to out-Johnson Johnson in being for positive action on civil rights and for prudent social welfare programs without having to bear the party umbrage of being a "me-too" candidate. The Republican who ordinarily would fit this description is Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York. But to get his party's nomination, Rockefeller will have to overcome the political liability of divorcing his wife of 35 years and marrying a divorced mother of four children. If Rockefeller cannot surmount this political barrier—and many liberal Republicans are indicating by searching frantically elsewhere for a champion that they think he cannot—Nixon may prove to be their only refuge.

Business Ready For Big Growth

NEW YORK (AP)—Business seemed getting set to start another big expansion drive—before the shock of President Kennedy's assassination. Predictions for spending next year for new plant and equipment had ranged from a moderate increase to a possible 10 per cent boost. Plans may be held up while industrialists assess the new business climate. But the first tangible sign of quickening business interest already has come in the language of dollars. Manufacturing firms have sharply boosted their appropriations for capital spending—as much as 45 per cent in some key industries. The total set aside is the highest since 1956, when the last big boom was in full swing. DUPLICATION The greater part of the actual dollar outlay would be made in 1964. And if the appropriation trend that started this summer continues, next year could see a duplication of the outpouring of money by corporations which made 1955-56 a notable expansion era, unchallenged since in year-to-year spending increases. Appropriations can later be cancelled, but mostly they are not. So the $3.2 billion which directors of 602 leading manufacturing firms earmarked in just the last three months for capital spending—if matched by the multitude of firms so far unreported—could mean the 1964 economy can expect a stronger boost than heretofore foreseen. EXPANSION This year business spent $29 billion on new equipment or on plant expansion. Private surveys of business inventions show expenditures next year may run from 4 to 10 per cent higher. The Department of Commerce's own survey of intentions for 1964 is due out this week. The most optimistic forecast so far has been for a $43 billion expenditure. But the money-on-the-barrel-head appropriations, as tabulated by the National Industrial Conference Board, shows that in the July-September quarter money set aside by 602 corporations increased 19 per cent over the second quarter of the year. The total of $3.2 billion approaches the $3.3 billion back in the summer of 1955. In the 1955-56 boom spending suddenly swelled by 22 per cent. 22 PER CENT Significantly perhaps, appropriations this summer by industries turning out durable goods increased 22 per cent over the April-June quarter. Bellwethers are the primary iron and steel firms, up 45 per cent; motor vehicles and equipment, up 35 per cent; fabricated metal products, up 79 per cent; instruments and photographic equipment firms, up 64 per cent. Economists have been watching closely the trend of business spending because it is the third leg of the economy. The other two—consumer and government spending—have shown but moderate rises. A definite increase in business spending might give the economy the pep it needs to be desired if more jobs are to be created. Kennedy Street MEXICO CITY (AP) — The newspaper La Prensa has started a campaign for a street in Mexico City to be named for President Kennedy. The tabloid said it had numerous requests from citizens for the campaign.

Ruby--Guys And Dolls Character

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — "A snub-nosed .38 he always carried. 'Guys and Dolls' character, that's Jack Ruby."
"He's like a boxer whose nose never got broken."
He's the man millions watching television Sunday saw gun down Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused killer of President Kennedy.
The strip-tease club operator has a "million friends in show business" and a lot of ex-business associates. Most peg him in a different way.
"I don't think political affiliation had anything to do with Ruby's action," said attorney Tom Howard, who will defend him on a murder charge.
"I don't think Ruby has any political affiliation — Democratic or Republican — or if he even knew which he was."

BADLY SHAKEN
His sister, Eva Grant, said he was badly shaken by Kennedy's death.
"He couldn't eat Friday. He kept talking about Jackie and the Kennedy kids."
"I'm crying. I can't take it."
That's what Al Gruber, a friend in Los Angeles, said Ruby told him over the telephone early Sunday in talking about the Kennedy shooting.
Jack Ruby, 52, born Rubinstein, is breezy, emotional and hot-tempered. He brawled himself away from poverty and the streets of Chicago.
He made it good — for him — here about 15 years ago with his first little swinging place, the Silver Spur.

AFTER THE BUCK
"Man," said a one-time partner in dance promotions, "he was hungry for a buck. He's always after it. He lives for the business — the two clubs (Carousel, Vegas)."
Some saw him as an intense patriotic man, a hero worshiper of presidents.
To others:
"I think Ruby just got himself an impulse and operated on him (Oswald)," said Herbert C. D. Kelly in New Orleans. A business associate of Ruby two years ago, Kelly figured Ruby was more upset over the killing of a Dallas patrolman, than over the President's death.
"Patriotic, he wasn't. A police buff, he was."
To Dist. Atty. Henry Wade he is just a killer. "I'll ask the death penalty."
A guy you like or dislike, to night club columnist Toni Zoppi of the Dallas News: "Not many people are in between."

MORALS KICK
"I think he was on some sort of morals kick," said a woman who had dated him. "He didn't drink, smoke, cuss. But he always treated the ladies nice."
Wade met Ruby for the first time Saturday night, when Ruby crashed a news conference as police outlined more of what they termed an air tight case against Oswald as the President's assassin.
"I know all the policemen," Ruby breezily told Wade. "And all the newsmen."

BEING AROUND
Ruby did. He was used to being around. Maybe that's why it wasn't too surprising when he popped out among the crowd of police and newsmen, waiting as Oswald was being transferred from the city jail to the county jail.
He fired at point-blank range, one shot from the nickel-plated, packing the pistol had caused two of his three arrests in recent years. Being tough, showing off the muscles he worked on building with exercise each day, caused another—for a night spot fight.

He lived in the world of his business and seldom saw the sun come up.
A flashy dresser, when he first came to Dallas he chose fancy Western wear.
CHICAGO COWBOY
"They called him the 'Chicago cowboy,'" Zoppi said.

AREA SIDELIGHTS

Distance Still Biggest Thing

By M. A. WEBB
Some one has said the biggest thing in West Texas is distance. Having lived in West Texas, before coming to Big Spring, this writer learned that long ago. It has been brought home again in the past three weeks while covering a four-county area, in two days each week. The route includes Ackery, Coahoma, Forsan, Garden City, Elbow, Lomax, Knott, Stanton, and points in between. The first thing necessary is to get acquainted, and we want to express appreciation to all the folks who have been so cooperative in telling us about the "goings on" in their communities. We are looking forward to many new friends.

I went into Fire Chief R. Krause's place of business at Coahoma Monday, and he had gone deer hunting down in the Bandera country. He called Mrs. Krause Sunday night and said he had his buck but was going to stay awhile so others in the party could get venison.

Glasscock County Judge Otto Dozier of Garden City also had gone into the hills and was lucky. He returned home Tues-

"He felt very badly about the Kennedy assassination," said George Senator, manager of Ruby's Vegas Club, a public dance hall. "He kept saying: 'Oh, that poor family.'"
Ruby's one-time partner in dance promotions had a different idea as to why the President's death in Dallas shook him.
"It's the business. You live for the holidays in this town. Two months of free spending and it carries you the rest of the year."
"Who's gonna live it up now?"

day night with fresh meat for a while. Some people are just plain lucky—or good shots.
Recently walked into the Elbow-Forsan Junior High school (and they have changed the sign on the front of the building now), and caught Principal Darrell Flynt in a pair of coveralls and with a pipe wrench in his hand. Something had happened to the air conditioner, and he just took the water line loose and drained it.
Then last Monday found Supt. W. A. Wilson, at Coahoma, in the boiler room trying to correct a malfunction. His secretary said a top school man had to be able to handle any situation.

Noticed several farmers out with tractors and plows following the rains this week. Some were plowing deep too. It has been so dry that most of them couldn't put plows in the ground, if they did, were afraid the top would blow away after it was turned over.

Sparkling Dallas Reeling Of Week's Degradation

DALLAS (AP)—In the space of 48 hours, this sparkling metropolis—while trying desperately to show its best face to the world—was degraded twice.
The first time, authorities said, it was by a ne'er-do-well, self-styled Communist with a mail-order rifle: Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, born in New Orleans, charged with the assassination Friday of President Kennedy.
The second time, it was by a small-time, brawling strip joint owner who killed Oswald despite a police cordon: Jack Ruby, 52, born Rubinstein in Chicago, who took it upon himself to act for the courts' Americans cherish and shot down Oswald on Sunday.

GRIEF, SHAME
Dallas reacted with deep grief and shame to President Kennedy's death.
The reaction to Oswald's death was more complex. Some openly said the killing was a good thing. Others, secretly, thought it. But over most the weight of shame settled more heavily.

The burden of conscience became enormous. That it could happen here!
Dallas has a metropolitan population of more than one million. Its big growth came when Northern and Eastern manufacturers began moving their industrial plants to the city.

CONSERVATISM
It is now a cosmopolitan city. But it is, indeed, a citadel of political conservatism at certain levels—just, as a matter of fact, as areas in New York, Philadelphia, Boston or Indianapolis.

Dallas reacted with deep grief and shame to President Kennedy's death. The reaction to Oswald's death was more complex. Some elements...have built their nests precisely in Texas."

But it struck an exposed nerve.
Before the President's visit, Dallas was agonizingly conscious that only a month ago Adlai Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, was struck with a far right placard and spat upon—and that the new president, Lyndon B. Johnson, and his wife had been spat upon and jostled here in the 1960 election campaign.

TO BEHAVE
For weeks, news stories quoting city leaders, editorials and letters to the editor had urged the people to behave, to lay aside bitterness and to welcome President Kennedy as befitted his office. The far right complied.

Then...
"This is a black mark Dallas will never live down," said one resident despairingly. That was the day the President died.

Sunday night...
"This thing is going to tear this town apart," a young woman said.
On a small grassy slope in a small park Sunday were two wreaths. A card on one said: "In memory of our beloved President, John F. Kennedy. From the bereaved citizens of Dallas." The other said simply: "We are all so sorry."

Hayden Presides

DALLAS (AP) — Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., will take over President Lyndon Johnson's old job of presiding over the Senate. Hayden is president pro-tem of the Senate.

Does BLADDER IRRITATION MAKE YOU NERVOUS?
After 21, common kidney or bladder irritations affect twice as many women as men and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent, burning or itching urination both day and night. Secondly, you may lose sleep and suffer from headache, backache and feel old, tired, depressed. In such irritation, CYS-TEX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in urine, acid urine and by analgesic pain relief. Get CYS-TEX at druggists. Feel better fast.

Cards Conquer NY For Triple Lockup

By The Associated Press
The St. Louis Cardinals, a bounce-back bunch trying to prove that youth must be served, have thrown the National Football League's Eastern Conference title scramble into a triple tie with only three games remaining.

Led by the passing of quarterback Charley Johnson and a quartet of defensive specialists with only 10 years of pro experience between them—Larry Wilson, Garland Boyette, Sam Silas and Joe Robb—the Cardinals whipped the New York Giants 24-17 Sunday.

Three weeks ago, New York quarterback Y. A. Tittle passed for four touchdowns and the Giant defense forced the Cardinals to give up the ball four times on interceptions and three times on fumbles. The result was a 38-21 victory over St. Louis.

It was a completely opposite story this time. Tittle, who had only four passes intercepted in 10 previous games, watched Wilson steal two. Boyette pounced on a fumble that led to the Cardinals' clinching touchdown. And Robb and Silas smashed Tittle to the ground twice in the last two minutes as he brought the Giants within striking distance of the tying touchdown.

The triumph catapulted the Cardinals into a first-place tie with the Giants and Cleveland Browns, who defeated Dallas 27-17. All three teams have 8-3 records. The Browns will be at St. Louis this Sunday while New York is at Dallas.

Pittsburgh's Steelers remained in contention in the East, boosting their record to 6-3-2 by battling the Western Division-leading Chicago Bears to a 17-17 tie. The Bears now are 9-1-1 to 9-2 for the Green Bay Packers, 28-10 conquerors of San Francisco.

Irons Retains Rushing Lead Over Fierro

Top ranked statistical leaders for the Big Spring Steers finished the season Friday night against San Angelo and each remained in command of his department although Albert Fierro came close to overtaking Dick Irons for the rushing honors.

Irons finished his high school playing career showing 342 yards gained in 91 carries this fall for an average of 3.8. He scored two touchdowns along the way. Fierro, also playing his last game, ran up a total of 342 yards in 87 attempts for a 3.8 mark. He led all Bovines in scoring as he accounted for 11 six-pointers.

In passing, it was all Fierro. He was the only Steer to throw a pass throughout the ten game schedule. He tossed 194 and completed 77 for 1,111 yards. His average completion was 14.4 as he saw eight of his aeriels become interceptions while seven went for touchdowns.

In the pass receiving category, Charley West ended the year with 28 catches for 423 yards and a 15.1 average per completion. He went over for two touchdowns.

Johnny Hughes, the junior kicking specialist of the Steers, finished the season with a fine 35.7 average per boot. He teed the ball 32 times for 1,143 yards. Irons, who was noted for his quick kicks, ran up 203 yards in four punts for a 50.8 average.

When the four freshmen above are mentioned to Howard County Junior College basketball coach, Buddy Travis, there's always a smile. They were all named to the all-state high school basketball squad last year and they're showing up good again this season for the Jayhawks. From the left:

Jim Flowers, 5' 11" forward from Miami; Terry Williams, 6' 1" Hobbs, N.M. guard; Keith Bond, San Jon, N.M. guard who stands 6' 1"; and Thomas Carter, a 6' 1" forward from Hobbs, N.M. All four are being considered as starters.

Big Games Postponed In Nation's Football

By The Associated Press
The traditional clash between Army and Navy, scheduled in Philadelphia Saturday, still is in doubt. Officials of both service institutions have expressed a desire to play, however, so the chances of cancellation appear to be remote.

Nebraska won the Big Eight title, its first in 23 years, and clinched the Orange Bowl spot in one of the few games played Saturday. The 10th-ranked Huskers rolled over No. 6 Oklahoma 29-20.

Big O Gets On Streak

CINCINNATI (AP) — A blazing first half by Oscar Robertson and Jerry Lucas and sharp-shooting by Adrian Smith and Wayne Embry in the second carried the Cincinnati Royals to a 122-113 victory over the St. Louis Hawks in Sunday night's only National Basketball Association game.

The "Big O" hit at a 100 percent clip in the opening period—five shots for five goals. In the second quarter, Lucas scored nine points in 2 minutes, 35 seconds.

Sunday's only other scheduled meeting, Boston at Detroit, was postponed out of respect for the death of President Kennedy.

The Royals and Hawks paid tribute to the assassinated President by saying a one-minute silent prayer before the start of the game.

Two games were played and two others postponed Saturday. The New York Knickerbockers whipped Detroit, 108-99, and St. Louis downed Cincinnati, 133-121.

BOBCATS PLAY FRIDAY

Grid Playoffs Are Set For Weekend

By The Associated Press
Four teams that have scored more than 400 points and 11 that are unbeaten and untied square off this week as the big push for state championships begins in the four-pronged Texas schoolboy football race.

One of those 400-point machines is San Antonio Brackenridge, which lost two games but still led all others in the Class AAAA division at putting the ball over the opposition's goal line.

Brackenridge which rolled up 401 points in 122 for its foes, faces its toughest test of the season in the very first game of the playoffs. It's undefeated, untied San Antonio Lee, one of the state favorites.

LaMarque leads the point parade in Class AAA with 403 in 10 games while Dalhart has 401 as the top scoring outfit of Class AA. But the biggest splash on the scoreboard was made by Hull-Daisetta, which romped 418 points in remaining unbeaten and untied through 11 games.

Class AAAA and AAA are in their bi-district round this week with eight games in each division. Classes AA and A are in their second round, each also having eight games.

There's still one district representative to be named in Class AAAA with South Oak Cliff, the state's No. 1 team, playing Dallas Woodrow Wilson Tuesday night for the District 7 title.

The winner will meet Fort Worth Paschal in the bi-district round.

In other pairings Yesieta Bel Air plays San Angelo, Amarillo Tascosa clashes with Grand Prairie, Houston Waltrip takes on Spring Branch, Port Arthur plays Pasadena and Temple engages Corpus Christi Miller.

U.S. Tennis Hopes Play

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—The United States will defend its big Davis Cup 1-2 punch—Chuck McKinley and Dennis Ralston—into the Victorian Tennis Championships starting Thursday at the Kooyong Club.

McKinley is returning to action after being sidelined by a recurring back ailment which struck him recently in the New South Wales Tournament at Sydney.

Ralston, 20, from Bakersfield, Calif., won the New South Wales tourney and went to the finals of the South Australian Championships before losing to John Newcombe, 19-year-old Australian junior titleholder.

Here are the pairings, playing dates and team records:
CLASS AAAA (first round)
Yesieta Bel Air (7-1) vs. San Angelo (8-2) at San Angelo, Saturday, 7:30 p.m.

PAT WASHBURN'S The Roundtable

It pays to start to football games early. Just ask Forsan football coach OSCAR BOEKER — he was made a believer Friday night when his Buffaloes journeyed to Jayton for a bi-district contest with the Jaybirds.

After eating an early supper, the players took off separately for the last leg of the trip. Boeker, driving one of the cars with both of his starting halfbacks, KENNETH SOLES and DAVID ROBERTSON, took a wrong turn and ended up in Post instead of Jayton. That was two hours before the game so he still had plenty of time to reach Jayton.

When he arrived amidst cheers and ribbing he flashed his usual smile and drawled, "I thought we'd never make it."

A Forsan player before the game "Before the game today we were sitting around kind of having an impromptu pep rally when we heard about President Kennedy getting shot. I thought, 'That's a quiet all of a sudden and that ended the rally.'"

Another Forsan player: "Now that I've heard about Kennedy, I'm so upset I don't feel like playing football."

A Jayton fan after the Jaybirds had beaten the Forsan Buffaloes: "Forsan may have lost this game but almost everyone I've talked to on the sidelines and in the stands has said that this Kenneth Soles, who runs halfback for Forsan, is the best boy they've seen all season. He's one of the greatest runners I've ever seen in high school. A lot of the people at this game came out here to see him."

Abilene Cooper coach CLOVIS RILEY, after the Cougars had lost to Abilene High by one point, 21-20, Friday night "It hurts no more to lose by one point than it does to lose by a lot of them."

RONNIE HENSON, first-string quarterback for the San Angelo Bobcats who missed Friday night's game with Big Spring because of a fractured jaw, should be back in the signal-calling spot when the Bobcats open bi-district action against Yesieta Bel Air. Henson had a special face mask built in Dallas that will enable him to take over the reins once more from his junior understudy, Pascual Piedfort.

San Angelo ran into a little bad luck this fall in football — and it wasn't all in the Big Spring-Bobcat meeting. The Board of City Development in this fair city decided to sponsor a freshman grid contest between Texas A&M-Texas Tech in an attempt to make some money to offset what is lost regularly in the San Angelo Relays.

It didn't quite work out that way, much to the dismay of several people. The football game receipts, now in, showed a net loss of $716.50.

Texas Is Seeking First No. 1 Title

By The Associated Press
Three games this week could wrap up everything in Southwestern Conference football except a second bowl spot.

Texas, the nation's No. 1 team, goes after the undisputed championship of the conference and the national title in a battle with traditional enemy Texas A&M at College Station Thursday.

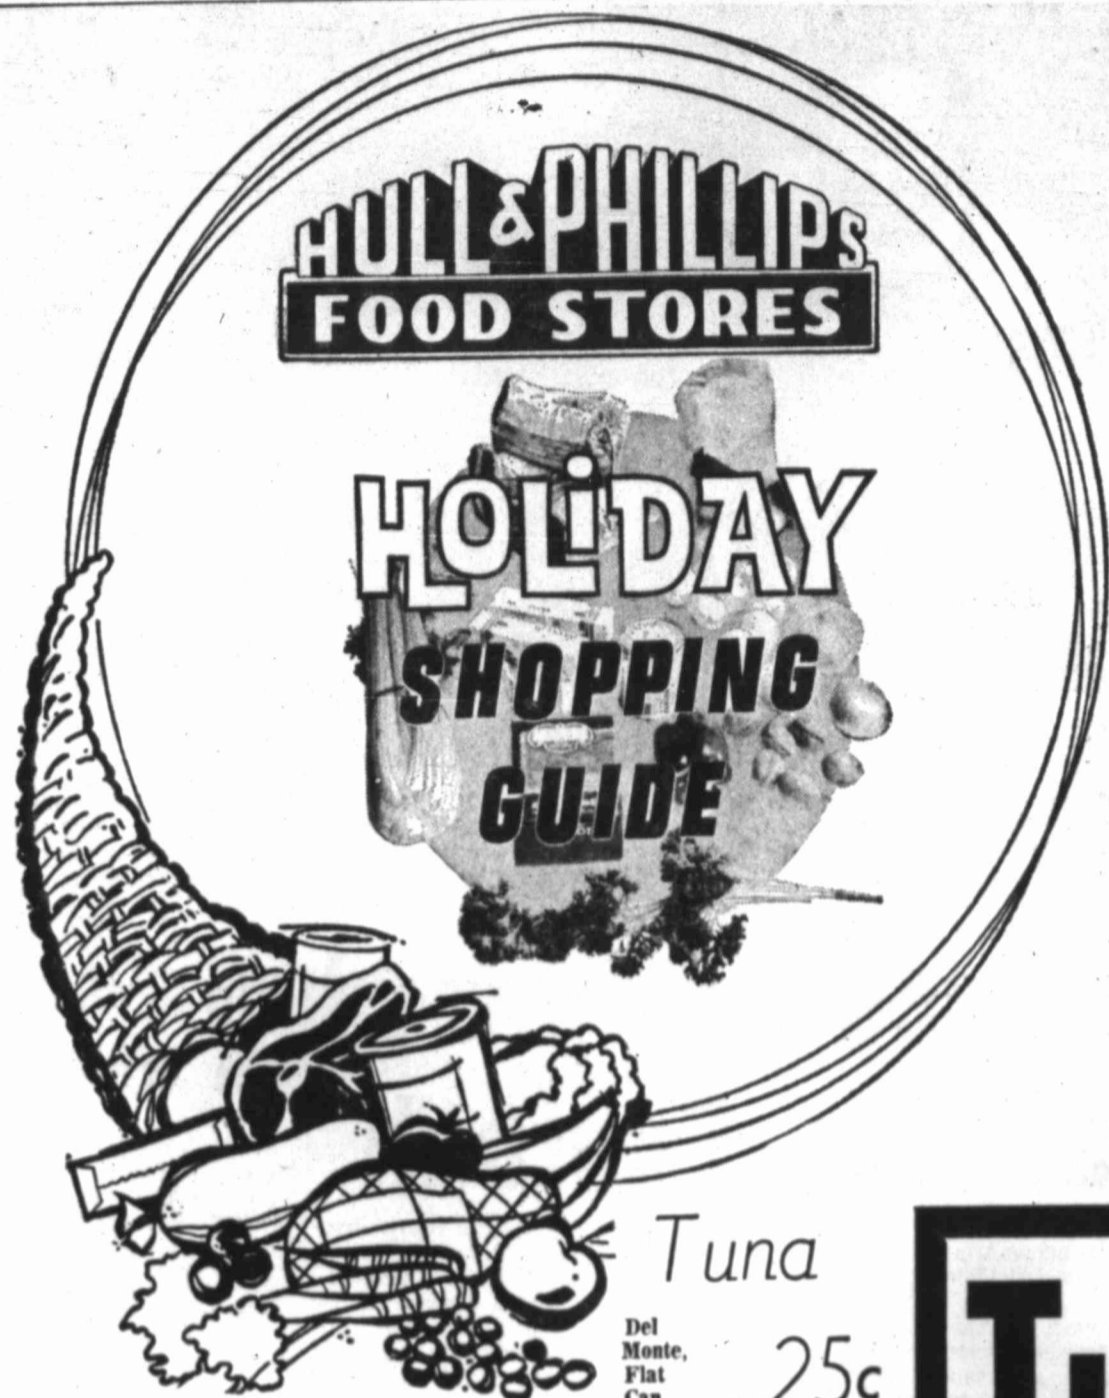

Victory or a tie will do the trick for Texas so far as the conference crown is concerned. Only a victory could add the national title—Texas' first in 71 years of football. But no matter what happens Texas is host team in the Cotton Bowl.

Saturday Baylor and Rice tangle at Houston with the winner likely to get a bowl bid. Victory for Rice would, however, knock Baylor out of a chance of tying for the conference championship in the event Texas should lose to A&M.

Nightmarish Rerun Again Futile For Dallas Doctors

DALLAS (AP)—No pulse, no blood pressure. Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused killer of President Kennedy appeared dead on the emergency room operating table.

"We knew we had a slim, a very slim chance to save him," said Dr. Robert McClelland.

It seemed a nightmarish rerun of a desperate race against an ebbing life. Only two days earlier it was the President in a stark emergency room twin, just 10 feet down the hall in Parkland Hospital.

Blood. Transfusion. That was first. Five, six quarts flowed into the 24-year-old self-styled Communist, gunned down by a night club operator Sunday as he was being switched to another jail.

Four of the doctors working so desperately were on the team that worked in vain on the President.

McClelland, Malcolm Perry, M. T. Jenkins, Ronald Jones.

Jack Ruby's bullet, fired at pointblank range, smashed through the lower left chest, through the lung and diaphragm, nicked the spleen, tore through the aorta and hit the liver and kidney.

"The damage to the aorta, the main artery from the heart, caused a massive blood loss," said McClelland.

"We managed to control the major bleeding spots and to get out the blood clots," said Dr. Tom Shires, Parkland's chief surgeon. "But the loss of blood had caused a cardiac arrest—a heart stoppage."

The doctors opened his chest.

Then like a relay team, they took turns slowly, trying to match nature, massaging the heart.

"Then we used a cardiac vice that times the impulses of the heart to keep it beating," said McClelland.

"But the heart had been so badly damaged by the loss of blood, it couldn't be kept beating."

At 1:07 p.m. he was dead. It was different in the President's case.

"The bleeding was much slower and far less blood was required for him," said the doctor, "but the damage to the brain was something we couldn't do anything about."

Fort Worth Policemen Guarding Oswald Body

FORT WORTH (AP) — The body of Lee Harvey Oswald was moved to Fort Worth Sunday night and two policemen assumed guard at once.

The officers were posted outside the room where the body of Oswald, accused of slaying President Kennedy, lay in Miller's Funeral Home.

"We don't expect any trouble," said Lt. S. D. Pruitt, heading the police guard, "but we're here to protect the peace."

Oswald, 24, was shot dead Sunday in Dallas. Jack Ruby, 32, owner of a Dallas striptease club, was charged with the slaying.

Only a handful of reporters and officers were present when the ambulance arrived with Oswald's body.

Funeral director Paul Groody said he received word at 7 p.m. from the Secret Service to come and pick up the body. The body arrived at 10:55 p.m.

Oswald's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, lives here.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dynal)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation 219. At all drug counters.

Oswald Said Good With Wife, Kids

DALLAS (AP) — The world knew Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, as the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Mrs. Ruth Paine, a housewife in the Dallas suburb of Irving, knew him as a friend. "Lee was a good family man," she said. "He loved his family, his kids."

An interest in the Russian language brought Mrs. Paine, in her 30s, together with 22-year-old Marina Oswald, the woman Oswald married in Russia when he tried to renounce his American citizenship.

In September, Oswald ran into hard times while looking for a job in New Orleans.

OUT OF MONEY

"Lee was out of money and looking for a job. He had a pregnant wife and child. That's why I brought them to my home."

Sunday, Mrs. Paine was watching television when she saw Oswald mortally wounded as he was being taken to another jail.

Stunned, she said: "Oh no."

What sort of man was the self-styled Communist accused of slaying the President?

Mrs. Paine remembers when she left New Orleans with his pregnant wife and little girl. "Lee looked very bleak saying good-bye to his family. He was pleased the baby was coming. He was concerned to be able to provide for it."

AFTER ARREST

Marina stayed with Mrs. Paine until after her husband's arrest. Oswald spent weekends at the Paine home.

"He was just a father here," Mrs. Paine said. "He romped with my children."

Mrs. Paine didn't talk politics or philosophy with Oswald.

"I never heard him say anything about President Kennedy."

"I don't think he had any friends," Mrs. Paine said of Oswald.

Oswald worked in the building from which President Kennedy was shot, but Mrs. Paine said, "I'm quite sure he came there by chance."

Oswald heard of the job in the Texas Book Depository through a friend of Mrs. Paine.

Although Oswald visited the Paines on weekends, the night before President Kennedy was shot, he asked for the first time to stay on a week night.

FOUND BLANKET

The next day Mrs. Paine found a blanket lying on a work table.

Then, Mrs. Paine said, Marina remembered that she had opened the blanket earlier and saw what she thought was the butt of a gun.

And Marina?

She's an outgoing person. Although she spoke little English, she didn't feel uncomfortable at neighborhood coffee klatches, even when Mrs. Paine wasn't there to interpret for her.

Governor Able To Walk Around

DALLAS (AP) — Gov. John Connally, seriously wounded at the time President Kennedy was assassinated, has regained enough strength to walk around his hospital room.

Mrs. Connally, obviously still upset by the death of the President and the wounding of her husband Friday, said the governor is now apparently out of danger.

"He asked me to tell everyone he is going to be all right," she read Sunday from a prepared statement to newsmen at Parkland Hospital.

"John had a very, very close call," she said with tears in her eyes. "We thank God he was spared. The governor joins me in asking that all Texans observe a day of mourning Monday in memory of the President."

"Gov. Connally has asked me to convey to the people of Texas, the nation and the world our deep sorrow of the sickening tragedy which struck at one of President Kennedy's most triumphant hours."

"Words cannot fully express to Mrs. Kennedy and to the President's family our feelings, which we know all Texans share."

"Our son John will be our personal representative at the funeral of the President in Washington Monday."

The governor's press aide said there would be no comment from Connally on the death of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

Connally was struck in the back by a bullet. Officers said it came from a rifle fired by Oswald. The governor suffered chest, wrist and thigh wounds.

Connally's office said the gov-

Adjournment Drive Pushed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tax reduction and civil rights, President Kennedy's top legislative proposals, appeared likely today to be temporarily sidetracked by a drive to adjourn Congress and give President Johnson a breathing spell.

The push for early adjournment was led by House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana and had substantial backing from members of both parties who believe Congress should adjourn and engage in no more bickering this year. The two pending proposals are the most controversial in Congress.

DEC. 14

Halleck's adjournment target is Dec. 14. Democratic leaders have called for continuation of the session until Jan. 3, with a Christmas recess of two weeks. Jan. 3 is the date for opening of the next session of the present Congress.

"We should expedite what we have to do and adjourn," Halleck said in an interview. "Let's give the new President time to get his feet on the ground."

The vehicle for Halleck's adjournment drive is a resolution to provide temporary financing for federal agencies whose appropriations for the present fiscal year have not been made. It is the fourth such resolution since the fiscal year started on July 1 and comes before the House Tuesday.

FOR DECEMBER

The new measure would provide funds for the month of December. Halleck will attempt to change the date probably to next Jan. 31 on the assumption that Congress could dispose of other necessary measures between now and Dec. 14.

Democratic leaders already have all but officially given up hope of action this year on civil rights and tax legislation but feel that Congress should remain in session as long as there is any chance for action.

Black Named Councilman

LAMESA (SC) — Dr. Douglas B. Black has been named to fill the unexpired city councilman post of the late Jack Mitchell.

Lamesa City Council named the Lamesa physician to the post until the next municipal election in April, 1964. Mitchell, serving his fourth year, died Nov. 14 after a long illness.

Dr. Black, a member of the staff of Medical Arts Hospital and Clinic, is a native of Tennessee and was graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1942. He moved to Lamesa in 1948 and has been practicing since that time.

Because of his most recent appointment, Dr. Black will resign the post of city health officer.

LBJ Confers With Robert

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Houston Post reported in a copyrighted story today that moments after the death of President Kennedy, Lyndon B. Johnson conferred with the dead President's brother, Robert F. Kennedy.

The two agreed, the paper said, that Johnson should immediately take the oath that made him the 36th president of the United States.

The story, written by Executive Editor William Hobby Jr., said the attorney general and Johnson conferred by radio-telephone while Johnson was aboard the presidential plane, "Air Force One," at Love Field in Dallas.

Robert Kennedy and Johnson agreed that the vice president should take the oath before leaving Dallas, it said.

The oath was then administered by U.S. District Judge Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas. The Post said that right after talking to the attorney general, President Johnson placed a call to the late President's mother, Mrs. Rose Kennedy, in Hyannis Port, Mass.

Garden City Men Honored By Lodge

GARDEN CITY — Two men, members of the Garden City Masonic Lodge for 50 years, were honored at a social meeting Saturday night. About 50 members and their wives were present.

John Lee Parker, and Joe Barton, were recognized, presented gifts and certificates honoring them for their 10 years of membership and service to the lodge.

Hoffa Says Bobby Just Another Lawyer Now

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The assassination of President Kennedy made Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy "just another lawyer," James Hoffa said Sunday.

The Teamsters Union president, one of Robert Kennedy's bitterest foes, declared: "He's not going to be able to guarantee patronage, or advancement to the court of appeals, or Supreme Court because the passing of our President by assassination makes him just another lawyer.

Estimated 240,000 View JFK Casket In Rotunda

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thousands upon thousands of persons braved long hours in freezing weather to file past the casket of John F. Kennedy in the Capitol rotunda. Other thousands waited without success. Charles J. Sullivan, chief of Capitol police, estimated 240,000 had moved past the bier of the slain President when the doors were closed to the public at 8:30 a.m.

At least 2,000 others, still waiting in a line stretching blocks away, were left stranded after standing for six to seven hours. Police steered them to vantage points around the Capitol plaza from which they could see the funeral procession leave for the White House. The steady shuffle of feet had continued without a break from 3 p.m. Sunday through the afternoon and night as the crowds waited patiently for a chance to pay their last respects. Former Vice President and Mrs. Richard Nixon were among the last to be admitted, along with a small group of officials' families and others, after the waiting line was halted.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Mrs. Hazel Merritt wishes to thank the many friends for all telegrams, condolence cards, florals, food and all kind deeds shown. May God ever bless you in our way of saying thank you.

Johnson's First Letters Go To Caroline, John Jr.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first two letters Lyndon B. Johnson signed as President were to the two children whose father is buried today. The letters to Caroline Kennedy, 6 years old Wednesday, and John F. Kennedy Jr., 3 years old today, told them at the beginning they perhaps are too young to understand it all now. Johnson wrote them last Friday just after his return from Texas and only hours after he had been sworn in to succeed their slain father in the highest office of the nation.

Crash Kills Six

HANNOVER, Germany (AP) — Six persons were killed today when a slow passenger train rammed an express train near Hannover, the German Federal Railways announced.

Church Winds Up Member Drive

Kentwood Methodist Church members wound up a membership drive Sunday with a Thanksgiving dinner and a pouncing for the minister, Rev. Henry Salley. About 85 attended. The membership campaign report listed 27 new members, and Rev. Henry Parmenter was speaker. All in attendance brought a gift for the Rev. Salley during the pouncing. The meeting was closed with a showing of the colors and taps in memory of President John F. Kennedy.

Sympathy Voiced By Madame Nhu

ROME (AP) — "I understand fully how you should feel," Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu said in a cable to Mrs. John F. Kennedy Sunday. Mrs. Nhu's husband and her brother-in-law, President Ngo Dinh Diem of South Viet Nam, were killed during a military revolt Nov. 1 while she was touring the United States. She joined her children in Rome two weeks ago and has been in seclusion at a convent.

Irving R. Levine, National Broadcasting Company correspondent, said Mrs. Nhu had sent this cable to Mrs. Kennedy: "Though not having the pleasure to know you, or hearing from you personally, I wish to tell you of my profound sympathy for you and your little ones in your time of shock and grief."

EQUIVALENT. "Though I have said that anything happening in Viet Nam will surely find the equivalent in the U.S.A., truly I would not wish for anyone what the Vietnamese and myself are now enduring while we were so near our victory against communism."

"But though not being proven alike, I understand fully how you should feel before that ordeal which God has bestowed on you. I sympathize the more, for I understand that the ordeal might seem to you even more unbearable because of your habitually well-sheltered life, notwithstanding how particularly incomprehensible it would be if, as reported, President Kennedy's assassination comes from Communist hands."

IDENTICAL. "Indeed, such a murder where even the wounds inflicted on President Kennedy were identical to those of President Ngo Dinh Diem and of my husband, and coming only 29 days after the Vietnamese tragedy, would only prove to the world that even power or extreme graciousness with communism still does not protect from its traitorous blows. "My children and I have especially prayed for President Kennedy when we learned that he did not regain consciousness to receive the last sacraments of the church. Be assured also that our most fervid thoughts and prayers are with you and your dead ones."

Like the Kennedys, Mrs. Nhu and her four children are Roman Catholics.

RIDERLESS HORSE IN CORTEGE CARRIES REVERSED BOOTS, STIRRUPS
Mrs. Kennedy's steed Sarbar symbolizes fallen soldier as casket moves to Capitol

Grief Marks JFK Cortège

WASHINGTON (AP) — The mournful beat of muffled drums. The slow clip clop of the caisson moving down Pennsylvania Avenue. Caroline and John pressing their faces against the back window of the slow rolling limousine. The silent staring masses shuffling past the flag-draped coffin in the great rotunda of the Capitol.

Tragic and unforgettable, these images of grief shimmer in the air today as the nation observes a day of solemn mourning to mark the funeral of its assassinated leader, John F. Kennedy.

Down an avenue of stifled sobs and open tears, he had passed Sunday on his final journey from the White House to the Capitol, retracing in reverse the route he traveled on the occasion of his triumphant inaugural less than three years before.

300,000 WATCH
A crowd of 300,000, packed tight to the building line along the famous street, doffed their caps and bowed their heads as the black draped caisson, pulled by six white horses and led by a seventh, rolled in stately procession along the mile-long route.

Just behind pranced the riderless horse, symbol of the slain warrior, with its pair of empty cavalry boots reversed in the stirrups and a saber in a silver scabbard swinging from its saddle. Led by a military man, the dark bay horse was Mrs. Kennedy's Sarbar.

Next came a single sailor carrying the personal flag of the President, then Mrs. Kennedy and the children riding in a limousine with President and Mrs. Johnson and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy. At one point in the procession, Robert Kennedy lifted John, whose third birthday is today, onto his knee. Mrs. Kennedy clutched Caroline's hand.

HONOR GUARD
Ahead of the caisson bearing the casket marched an honor guard composed of the joint chiefs of staff and the commanders of the Marine Corps and Coast Guard, clergymen of the three major faiths, and a company of Navy enlisted men, who marched in memory of the young Navy lieutenant and war hero who became their commander in chief.

John F. Kennedy's final ascent up the broad Capitol steps he had once climbed as a young congressman and senator and then as the youngest man ever elected president were marked by the distant booming of a 21-gun salute and the slow strains of a service band playing "Hail to the Chief."

STRAIGHT AHEAD
Erect and starting straight ahead, Mrs. Kennedy followed the casket up the steps, leading the children by the hand.

As Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Chief Justice Earl Warren and House Speaker John McCormack intoned the eulogies over the public address system, the crowd began forming itself into a long line, waiting its turn to move into the rotunda and file past the flag-draped coffin.

It was the same spontaneity of affection that had caused thousands to break through the police barriers and join in line behind the funeral cortege as it moved down Pennsylvania Avenue. Nothing like it had ever happened before at a presidential funeral.

ALL NIGHT
All through the night people came to the Capitol. With slow steps and solemn faces they filed past the bier.

Some crossed themselves as they walked by, some dabbed at their eyes with sodden handkerchiefs, most stared with long unwavering gazes, their faces soft, their eyes sad.

No one spoke.

But not anything, not the leg-weary weight nor the numbing cold produced a word of complaint from the endless line of people.

Would they have come, dozens were asked, if they had known how long it would take. Of course, they replied. "He was our President."

Fund To Aid Cop's Family
DETROIT (AP) — Michigan was asked Sunday to aid the family of a Dallas police officer whose death was all but obscured by the slayings of President Kennedy and Lee Harvey Oswald.

Herbert Adams, president of the Michigan Fraternal Order of Police, asked Michigan residents to contribute to a memorial fund for the family of policeman J. D. Tippit. Tippit was slain shortly after the President, and Dallas police charged Oswald with both slayings. Oswald, in turn, was shot down by Jack Ruby, a striptease club owner.

The family was not covered by personal insurance, police insurance or pension funds. Mrs. Tippit, Brenda Kay, 18; Curtis Ray, 4, and Allen, 13, will receive some money from a police retirement fund.

Pays Respects
MOSCOW (AP) — Mrs. Nina Khrushchev, wife of the Soviet premier, paid her respects to President Kennedy at the American ambassador's residence today and emerged with tears in her eyes.

Oswald Tried To Obtain Visas From Russia, Cuba

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The day night it had evidence that newspaper Excelsior said Sun-

The newspaper did not disclose the source of its story, but said that it was from "a high official source." It said it corroborated the report and found that Oswald was in Mexico from Sept. 26 to Oct. 3.

The newspaper said Oswald crossed the border at Nuevo Laredo Sept. 26, met with Cuban Consul Eusebio Azcue the next day and requested a visa so he could travel to the Soviet Union via Cuba.

Excelsior said the consul told Oswald his request would have to be submitted to the Cuban Foreign Ministry for clearance, a procedure usually taking about three weeks.

At that, the story said, Oswald's temper flared and he left the Cuban consul's office, slamming the door.

LBJs Back Together As U. S. First Family

WASHINGTON (AP) — The family of Lyndon B. Johnson stood side by side today, together for the first time since he became president. The older daughter, Lynda Bird, 19, a sophomore at the University of Texas in Austin, returned home Sunday night. The younger, Lucy, 16, is a high school junior at National Cathedral School for Girls here.

Mrs. Johnson, 50, has been at her husband's side since the slaying of President John F. Kennedy catapulted him to the highest office of the land.

However, she did not plan to walk with him today in the procession escorting Kennedy's body to Saint Mathew's Cathedral for the funeral service.

Like the wives of other officials, she was to go to the cathedral in a limousine and join her husband later for the burial in Arlington.

Mrs. Johnson has come and gone from her Washington home almost unnoticed in the rush of the capital city. No police escort leads the way for her chauffeured limousine.

Longtime personal friends of the Johnson family have dropped by their home, a big house like a French chateau named The Elms, on a small hill in northwest Washington. Behind the screen of pine trees and the big magnolia trees there is an obviously busy household. In the big kitchen, staffed by the Johnson's long-time help, there is coffee always ready for the policemen who took their stand around the home within minutes of the Texas shooting that elevated Johnson to the presidency.

SAID NOTHING

Mrs. Johnson has said nothing in public since that day.

Sunday she and Lucy went with the President to church. Lucy returned home, but Mrs.

Johnson went on to the Capitol with her husband for the services there. Then she returned home alone.

For Lucy, a slender brunette, life has changed. Sunday afternoon when she drove her own car, a small white convertible out of the driveway, a Secret Service man sat beside her.

Confidence In Curry Voiced

DALLAS (AP)—City Manager Elgin Crull expressed confidence today in Police Chief Jesse Curry.

In answer to questions, Curry said he has no intention of resigning. "I have done the best I can," he said.

Crull said that if Curry were to resign, the resignation would not be accepted.
