Terror Wave Fails To Stop Elections

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Despite spectacular last-minute exploits, pro-Communist terrorists in Venezuela appear to have lost their fight to force the army to call off Sunday's presidential elections.

There are increasing signs that the extremist Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN) have lost both their physical punch and the appeal to urban masses.

Chances are considered good that the elections will go off with a minimum of trouble.

Apparently indifferent to the terrorists, some 15,000 people attended a political rally this week in the same Caracas square where a few days before guerrilla snipers staged a spectacular battle and 24 persons were killed.

CARAVANS

Noisy political caravans roam the capital streets each night without incident. President Romulo Betancourt is barred by the constitution from succeeding himself, but Raul Leon, the candidate of Betancourt's Democratic Action party, is expected to defeat six opponents.

The pro-Castro FALN had hoped that its campaign of terrorism would cause the army to oust Betancourt and cancel the elections. The Communists figured this would solidify the anti-military opposition behind them.

The FALN is believed to have been first weakened by the Cuban missile crisis in October 1962, which revealed Cuba as just another Iron Curtain satellite.

In later months there was a steady improvement in the police campaign against the hit-and-run terrorists. The FALN attacks began deteriorating. This week the FALN returned to propaganda blows, attempts to capture world headlines and damage the Betancourt government's reputation at home and abroad.

A U.S. Army officer was kidnapped Wednesday. Thursday five men and a woman hijacked a Venezuelan airliner and forced the pilot to fly to Trinidad. No one was harmed. Authorities handed the hijackers over to Venezuelan officials.

They were flown back to Caracas today for trial. Caracas police continued searching for the kidnapped U.S. officer, Lt. Col. James K. Chensault of Sherman, Tex. The FALN has said it would release him unharmed Saturday.

25 DEGREES

Hard Freeze Finally Arrives

Jack Frost held Big Spring and Howard County in his icy fingers for five hours last night and afforded the area its first hard freeze of the 1963 fall season.

The temperature topped to a chilly 25 degrees as a cold front whipped into the area on the heels of a hard north wind. There was considerable blowing dust Thanksgiving Day afternoon and the weather was chill despite the bright sun.

The biting cold, without the wind, moved in around 1 a.m. The temperature fell to 25 and stayed there for five hours. Even at 7:30 a.m. it was only 28 and downtown at 8 a.m. it was still 22 degrees. Thin skims of ice formed over water in low places; windshields were coated over with frozen dew.

"The cotton fields turned black overnight," said one farmer. "That's what we've been waiting for—this is the hard freeze we needed to strip the plants of the last leaves, pop open the bolls which are ready to burst. We can go in now and finish off the cotton harvest."

The freeze Friday morning was the most delayed in any fall in 30 years. Prior to the chill today, the lowest readings at the U.S. Experiment Station so far this fall had been 33 degrees on Nov. 25 and 26.

The freeze brought to an end one of the longest growing seasons this county has had in many years. The last frost of spring was March 9 when it was 27 degrees. The growing season held for 265 days which is a month and eight days longer than the average 227 days set up in the county over the past 60 years.

Herb Helbig, county farm agent, said that the frost was welcome and that farmers were ready for it. The only mourners were flower growers who watched with interest the flourishing blossoms on rose bushes and were hopefully anticipating outdoor roses blooming in mid December.

The 25 degree weather was nippy but not uncomfortably cold.

The reading did not compare with the coldest Nov. 29 on the books—back in 1911 when the mercury dropped to seven degrees.

Farm Prices May Decline

WASHINGTON (AP)—The long upward trend in prices of farm land may be due for a slowdown.

The Agriculture Department, describing the outlook as cloudy, sees both price-depressing and price-supporting forces at work.

If Robert F. Kennedy remains as attorney general and Johnson follows his advice in this field, the President would refuse to compromise this provision any further.

"However, lower net farm income in 1964 because of higher production expenses and lower cash receipts from wheat may dampen the current strong demand for land," the department said today.

Hearing Slated

AUSTIN (AP)—The Banking Board set hearings today for Dec. 5 on applications for new state banks at Midland, Canyon and Howe.

Civil Rights LBJ's Biggest U.S. Problem

WASHINGTON (AP)—The political necessity of getting Congressional action on civil rights is President Johnson's biggest domestic problem—just as it was John F. Kennedy's.

The current mood of moderation among the lawmakers may produce some relatively speedy action on aid to education, vocational training and other bills when they return from their holiday next week.

But the fierce controversy over the late President's program for an expansion of racial equality will test all of Johnson's vaunted ability to tack with the legislative wind to reach his objective.

Johnson has called for action now on Kennedy's civil rights legislation. The possibilities of getting it likely will be discussed today at a meeting between Johnson and Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Kennedy's relations with Congress were building to a crisis—a situation Johnson has inherited. Yet the new President cannot afford in an election year not to get what Negro voters regard as meaningful civil rights legislation.

NOT ASSESSABLE
Kennedy's strength with the Negroes was unquestioned, Johnson's is not readily assessable.

If the President has to compromise the civil rights bill to get Congress' approval for it, he could lose ground sharply with Negroes, particularly if the Republicans nominate a strong civil rights advocate.

There now is no apparent way to move past the barrier of a Southern Democratic filibuster in the Senate a bill containing the controversial section that would enforce desegregation on selected businesses dealing with the public.

If Robert F. Kennedy remains as attorney general and Johnson follows his advice in this field, the President would refuse to compromise this provision any further.

Bullets Fly Near Grave Of Oswald

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A motorist told police two bullets hit his pickup truck Thursday night as he drove past the cemetery where Lee Harvey Oswald, accused slayer of President Kennedy, is buried.

J. B. Ardry, 40, of Fort Worth, said he halted the truck and "just took off" on foot. He was unharmed.

Police found bullet holes in the right window and the windshield of the truck.

Johnson Vows 'New Greatness'

CAPE CANAVERAL RENAMED FOR MARTYRED KENNEDY

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Cape Canaveral today bears the name of Cape Kennedy, honoring martyred John F. Kennedy, who designated it as the blastoff point for trips to the moon.

President Lyndon B. Johnson also named this Florida East Coast promontory's vast facilities for rocketry the John F. Kennedy Space Center.

The surprise action Thursday night drew mostly favorable comment here but it posed some problems for businesses which have capitalized on the Cape Canaveral name.

Some officials, including Gov. Farris Bryant of Florida and missile-space program executives, drew heartening inference that Johnson's action means full speed ahead on the man-in-the-moon flight and other projects President Kennedy pushed.

Johnson announced the changes to a nation-wide television and radio audience in his Thanksgiving message.

At Cocoa Beach, closest civilian community to the cape, Bernard Fischer, operator of a restaurant, said, "I think changing the name of the center is a wonderful idea."

"I don't know about renaming the cape—it's been Cape Canaveral since it was named anything," he said.

Fred Boyer, map consultant for the Rollins College Library, said that name appears on a 1598 war map. "Canaveral" is a Spanish word meaning cane or reed field.

Ruby's Attorney Wants TV Coverage For Trial

DALLAS (AP)—Jack Ruby's lawyer says television viewers who saw his client kill the accused assassin of President Kennedy also should have a chance to watch as Ruby is tried for murder.

"In this case I think there are strong arguments for live telecasts from the courtroom and I can see no reason why we should object," defense lawyer Tom Howard said Thursday.

Dist. Judge Joe Brown, in whose court the case will come up Dec. 9, said he had not decided whether to admit TV cameras. Under Texas judicial rules, this is a matter left to the judges' discretion.

Ruby, 32, a Dallas night club owner, fired a single bullet into the midsection of Lee Harvey Oswald, a pro-Communist charged with killing Kennedy, as police started to transfer Oswald from one jail to another Sunday.

He is being held without bond in the Dallas County Jail, a few yards from where a sniper's bullet mortally wounded the late President a week ago today.

'Tomorrow Ours To Win Or Lose'

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson, while ordering new honors to the memory of John F. Kennedy, has vowed that his own administration will seek "a new American greatness."

In effect, the new President's brief Thanksgiving Day address to the nation was an appeal to put "this midnight of tragedy" into the past and to look ahead to the work that must be done.

"A great leader is dead, a great nation must move on," he declared. "Yesterday is not ours to recover, but tomorrow is ours to win or to lose. I am resolved that we shall win the tomorrows before us."

MEETINGS
Johnson plunged into the work with a heavy schedule today that include meetings with chief military, diplomatic and intelligence advisers.

Speaking of his aims, Johnson said in his radio and television address Thursday night: "I pledge to you the best within me to work for a new American greatness—a new day when peace is more secure, when justice is more universal, when freedom is more strong in every home of all mankind."

Johnson marked the passing of his predecessor also by calling for an end to hatred and fanaticism.

Johnson appealed to all segments of society "to banish rancor from our words and malice from our hearts, to close down the poison spring of hatred and intolerance and fanaticism."

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson, exponent of a vigorous national space program, found himself confronted today with dramatic new evidence of Russia's intensified pace in the race.

The Soviet Union Thursday night announced a new series of rocket tests in the Pacific Ocean beginning next Monday and lasting almost two months.

The tests, said the Soviet news agency Tass, will be made "in view of the enlargement of the program of scientific research in the further exploration of outer space."

The series presumably is part of the Soviet Union's program to land men on the moon—a program on which the United States also has embarked, with the support of Johnson.

The United States is expected to keep close on the new Soviet rocket tests.

It has become custom for U.S. ships, aircraft and radar stations to track Soviet rocket firings into the Pacific.

One of the impact areas designated in the Moscow announcement is in the vicinity of the Marshall Islands, where previous rockets have been directed. The other is northward in the Pacific, generally east of Tokyo.

The U.S. is able to track Soviet rockets virtually from the point of launching in the Caspian Sea area to the impact point in the Pacific.

Radar tracking stations, with ranges of several thousand miles, are believed to be operating in Turkey. These provide data on the initial phase of the flights.

Another powerful station in the Aleutian Islands can pick up the image of the rockets as they soar high above eastern Russia and the Maritime Provinces and follow them down to where ships and aircraft track them in the final phases of trajectory.

Others today joined the group helping the family of the Dallas policeman slain in line of duty, J. D. Tippit. The local memorial fund is now up to $228. The Herald will receive additional gifts only over the weekend, so if you want to help, please send your check—made to J. D. Tippit Fund—immediately. The money will be forwarded to proper Dallas sources.

These gifts are acknowledged today: William B. Frizzell, $3; Mr. and Mrs. John I. Rudeseal, $5; George Bair, $5; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thomas, $5; Salem Baptist Church, $25.

Texas Gov. John Connally, wounded by the same sniper, ate Thanksgiving dinner with his wife, three daughters, a brother and sister-in-law.

A physician's statement said Connally's "over-all condition is improving encouragingly, but convalescence naturally will require some time, due to the critical degree of the wounds.

A Beautiful U.S. Flag History

The history of the U. S. Flag is this week's feature in The Herald's AMERICANA DOCUMENT collection. It is an antiquated parchment, and will make a lovely item for framing. It is a part of our heritage that should be in every home. It sells at The Herald office (or you can order by mail) for only 26¢.

Home Movie Catches Moment Of Kennedy's Assassination

This six-picture 8-mm movie sequence released by Life magazine to the Big Spring Herald and other newspapers shows the exact moments of President Kennedy's assassination in Dallas. ($25,000 paid by Life to a Dallasite for the movies was given to the J. D. Tippit family.) At the top left, Kennedy is hit by the first shot as his wife turns to him. Left bottom, Kennedy slumps forward as Gov. John Connally turns to him. Top center, second shot hits Connally; bottom center, third shot hits Kennedy as he slumps into wife's arms; top right, Mrs. Kennedy stands up looking for help; bottom right, the stretchers on car's trunk trying to help Secret Service man Clint Hill into the limousine. (Copyright 1963, Time, Inc.)

Aide Team Shapes Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new team of presidential advisers is sure to shape up in the White House soon, bearing the stamp of Lyndon B. Johnson and Texas.

President Johnson likely will want to keep some of the men who surrounded John F. Kennedy in his two years and 10 months in the White House.

But he won't want to keep all, nor will all want to stay. The job of presidential aide or adviser usually demands fierce loyalty and at times personal closeness. Presidents want long-time associates and familiar faces around them. Johnson is no exception.

One likely prospect is Bill Moyers, 29, deputy director of the Peace Corps. The slender Texan has been at Johnson's side since the new President succeeded Kennedy.

Although Moyers says he plans to return to the Peace Corps, he has moved into the White House, in a room next door to Johnson's office. Some observers predict he will wind up as the new President's number one aide, a job like that of Kennedy's special counsel, Theodore C. Sorensen.

An ordained Baptist minister, Moyers was a newsman for Mrs. Johnson's radio and television stations, a key member of Johnson's staff when the President was Senate majority leader, and a manager of Johnson's unsuccessful drive for the presidential nomination in 1960.

EX-NEWMAN

Kenneth O'Donnell, Kennedy's appointments secretary, already has cleared his White House desk, and there is speculation the job may go to Horace Busby, a former Texas newspaperman who has often helped Johnson on speech writing.

White House sources say that Johnson will retain McGeorge Bundy, Kennedy's special assistant for national security affairs. Johnson, an expert on domestic but not foreign affairs, may need Bundy's knowledge on international military and diplomatic matters.

The White House denies reports that Johnson has accepted the resignation of liberal historian Arthur Schlesinger Jr., a Kennedy assistant and speech writer. Johnson invited him to sit in the presidential gallery when the new President addressed a joint session of Congress Wednesday.

Most observers expect White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger to leave. A reliable source in Helsinki says he will be succeeded by Carl T. Rowan, now ambassador to Finland.

Rowan, 38, a Negro, joined the Kennedy administration as a deputy assistant secretary of state in 1961. He is a former reporter for the Minneapolis Tribune.

BIOGRAPHY

Another possibility for the press secretary job is Booth Mooney, who was Johnson's executive assistant in the Senate and wrote a biography in 1958. Friends of Johnson have passed the word that "Mooney could be important—watch him."

Other names to watch for a possible place on the Johnson team:

Walter Jenkins of Wichita Falls, Tex., Johnson's administrative assistant and his oldest employe in point of service.

George B. Reedy, a special assistant who has served Johnson for 12 years as public relations man and speech writer.

Arthur G. Perry, a longtime aid, who was in Europe last Friday when the assassin's bullets killed Kennedy.

NEWS BUREAU

Elizabeth Carpenter, former head of a Washington news bureau who now works as a special assistant.

Mrs. Willy Day Taylor of Cameron, Tex., a longtime "girl Friday" to Johnson.

Gerald W. Siegel, vice president and counsel of the Washington Post, a former chief counsel to Johnson's Senate Democratic Policy Committee.

There are a host of friends from Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal days: Abe Fortas, Thomas G. Corcoran, Benjamin V. Cohen, James H. Rowe, Dean Acheson, Clark M. Clifford, Oscar Chapman, Eliot Janeway and Grace Tully.

Revolt Of Liberal Demos Looming

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson faces a revolt among a group of House Democratic liberals, a revolt that began before the death of President John F. Kennedy.

It is aimed not at the President, but at Congress. It aims at punishment, by withdrawal of party seniority privileges, of those Democrats who refuse to support the national party ticket and policies. President Kennedy always declined to take such a drastic step, preferring conciliation and persuasion.

Leading the revolt is Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., one of the party's most articulate and thoughtful strategists in the House.

SOUTHERNERS

His target is the "subversives and quislings of the Democratic party," whom he defines as some Southern conservatives.

Bolling takes issue with President Johnson's belief, as expressed in his speech to Congress Wednesday, in "the ability of Congress to act, to meet any crisis, to distill from our differences strong programs of national action."

Bolling said in an interview that Congress is not viable, or able to live, under its present structure.

He said it has not been viable for a long time "but hasn't been observed as such" because the late speaker of the House, Sam Rayburn, held it together and made it work by his personal prestige and influence.

"We staggered along with the appearance of functioning largely because of Rayburn," Bolling said. "It is not the fault of the Republicans. They are a conservative party, by and large. But they are responsible. We—the Democrats—on the other hand, are totally irresponsible."

LOYALTY

Bolling's solution? "The minimum is, we start with a demand for at least a minimum of party loyalty. They must at least support the national ticket."

"The maximum would have the effect of altering the power structure. This is the only kind of reform that would have any meaning."

"The faults of Congress are not intrinsic, but lie with the Democratic party. My approach is to maximize the number who behave like Democrats and minimize those who don't."

This can be done, Bolling said, by denying the privileges of party seniority, including committee chairmanships, to Southern Democrats who openly defy and work against the national Democratic ticket.

Join Hands To Assist

Four Methodist Churches in Big Spring Tuesday join hands in an effort to help the fifth.

The First Methodist, Wesley Methodist, Park Methodist and Kentwood Methodist will sponsor a chili supper from 5-8 p.m. that day to raise funds to help meet the budget of the Northside Methodist.

"The congregation there has done such a splendid job, even though it has been a difficult one, that we would like to show our appreciation for the good work and give them a hand," the Rev. Marvin James, of the host First Methodist, said.

The chili supper will be at the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist. Members of its WSCS will assist ladies from the Northside WSCS in serving the food. The public is invited.

Preparations are being made to feed at least 500 persons. Tickets are available from any of the churches or at the door Tuesday. They are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Holiday Traffic Fatalities Running Close To Normal

By The Associated Press

The Thanksgiving weekend moved through its second day Friday with traffic fatalities running about the same as a normal nonholiday weekend.

The fatality toll, which began at 6 p.m. (local time) Wednesday and ends at midnight Sunday, reached 146. On nonholiday weekends this year 100 persons have died daily in traffic.

The National Safety Council made no estimate of the number of traffic deaths. A spokesman said the Thanksgiving holiday has less highway travel than most holiday weekends.

An Associated Press survey from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 13, to midnight Sunday, Nov. 17, showed 477 traffic deaths. The survey was made for a comparison with the Thanksgiving weekend.

A Thanksgiving fatality record was established last year when 514 persons died on the nation's highways and roads. It was the highest for Thanksgiving since the Associated Press began counting in 1958. The lowest toll for a Thanksgiving four-day weekend was 442 in 1960.

Traffic took nine lives in Texas during the first 36 hours of the Thanksgiving Holiday weekend.

Shortly before midnight Thursday, two Burleson men were killed as their car hit an overpass pillar near the Fort Worth business district. They were James Keen, 23, and Clayton Phares, 21.

A pedestrian, Robert Seymour Brooks, 47, of Seagoville was killed by a truck near Waco about 1 a.m. Friday.

A car-truck accident just west of Mineral Wells killed J. C. Shack, 31, of Mineral Wells, driver of the truck, and Mrs. J. W. Hudson, 42, of Brownwood, who was in the car.

Two cars collided near Sugar Land Thursday, killing Mrs. Georgia Cullather, 48, of Houston. Six persons were injured.

Charles Sparks of Wilson was killed Thursday when his pickup truck and a freight train collided near Post in West Texas.

Mrs. Bertha Williams, 54, a Negro, died in a four-car smash-up during a heavy rain at Jacksonville in East Texas Thursday. R. C. Buckner, highway contractor and former mayor of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Williams' two sons were injured.

George Sillas, 72, of Fort Worth was killed in another four-car crash about 5 miles west of Mineral Wells on U.S. 180 Wednesday night. Three persons were injured.

A Devotional For The Day

Ever since the creation of the world his invisible nature, namely, his eternal power and deity, has been clearly perceived in the things that have been made. So they (men) are without excuse; for although they knew God they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him. (Romans 1:20-21. RSV.)

PRAYER: Our Father seeing Thy goodness and ample provisions, we pray that our hearts may turn to Thee with love and gratitude. We pray in the name of Christ, our Savior, who is Thy gift and our greatest blessing. Amen.

(From The 'Upper Room')

The People Will Decide

Dr. Willis Tate, the wise and personable president of Southern Methodist University, has expressed concern that the cost of achieving excellence in this state's higher education will frighten many Texans.

He has gained that impression while serving on Gov. Connally's Committee on Education Beyond the High School. And his concern probably will prove justified if: 1. The committee recommends what really will meet the state's exploding needs, and 2. Public opinion is not adequately prepared for the shock of what it will take to cope with those needs.

State appropriations for higher education have doubled over the past five years. They probably will have to more than double again if facilities are to be provided for the increasing proportion of the increasing number of high school graduates enrolling in college. There are other factors: Expansion and improvement is needed most in the costliest area of higher education—graduate schools. Faculty salaries must be sharply raised to get and keep first-class talent.

The urgency is not only a matter of providing educational opportunity for Texas youth. Economic development is becoming closely tied to higher education, and as Texas continues to lag in educational progress it will continue to lag in economic progress, which hits everybody's pocketbook. Higher education may be shockingly costly, but it is a rewarding and essential investment in the state's future.

That argument, however, failed to impress the 58th Legislature, which earlier this year chopped $17 million off college and university budget requests already trimmed by the Commission on Higher Education; it was money clearly needed for libraries, research and faculty salaries. Connally's committee will report next August, and the 59th Legislature in 1965 is supposed to launch a new era in higher education in Texas. Whether it does will depend on whether the people are prepared to pay the going price for education excellence.

Can Be Salvaged

Business is constantly looking for holes to plug in needless loss of effort and money. One loss in need of attention is that of alcoholism, or what to do about workers with a drinking problem.

Fire them? That's most often the answer, but studies show that the alcoholic worker frequently is at least and average if not a cut above the average worker in skills and background. To discharge him or her means a loss in investment by a company. On the other hand many if not most of these are salvageable. One company managed to retain as high as 80 per cent as satisfactory employees. Long-term sobriety (more than two years) was achieved in 65 per cent of cases among several firms studied, and one large manufacturer reports that the discharge rate was reduced from 95 to 8 per cent among problem drinkers. Absenteeism dropped 70 per cent from this cause and tardiness 61 per cent.

Apparently, intelligent, forthright dealing with this problem pays the business operator, not to mention the tremendous dividends it pays to families of those affected, the community, etc.

There is no magic panacea. But there are many agencies which can help, if management will only make use of them in referrals and otherwise. Among them are the National Council on Alcoholism, Inc. (and its chapters, such as we have here); Alcoholics Anonymous, Al-Anon Family Groups, state programs on alcoholics, plus those of medical groups, hospitals, the clergy, labor unions and others.

The Nation Under Johnson

WASHINGTON — Questions are being asked by people on every side here and abroad as to what the effect will be on public policy as a consequence of the change of administration. What kind of President will Lyndon Johnson make? What policies of the Kennedy administration will he maintain or alter or abandon? What will be the effect in the field of foreign policy and on the attitude of governments abroad toward the United States? What becomes of the Republican case and the contest for the nomination, especially as it affects Messrs. Goldwater, Rockefeller and Nixon? What will be the impact on American business and on chances for a recession or a boom?

THE ASKING of this questions is evidence of the complete involvement of American policy in the life of a single leader. Here are some answers that seem logical:

1. National Politics: President Johnson will follow the practice of those Presidents who have come into the office during a term for which a deceased predecessor had been elected. The new President always feels committed to carry on existing policies and to retain the Cabinet. Modifications will come as changing circumstances may require. But Mr. Johnson's campaign for the nomination must be made in the next eight months before the Democratic national convention meets and must inevitably be based on a championing of Kennedy policies and principles at home and abroad.

2. FOREIGN POLICY: It will not change perceptibly. The same advisers and personnel who counseled Mr. Kennedy will, in the main, be at President Johnson's side.

3. Domestic legislation: The Kennedy program of tax reduction and "civil rights" will be enacted with the same modifications that would have been legislated if Mr. Kennedy had lived. A bipartisan coalition in Congress still rules the day. The deceased President would have been compelled to compromise. Lyndon Johnson will compromise and will make it seem like a victory.

4. WORLD PEACE: President Johnson knows he will have a united country behind him and that American policy in its broad aspects has universal approval. The question of whether peace efforts can be effective depends now, as before, on the Communist regime in the Kremlin, about which Mr. Johnson has no illusions.

5. Republican party problems: Overnight a change has come. The anti-Kennedy drive now will have to become an impersonal criticism of policies, rather than of the man, if a constructive issue is to be developed by the Republicans. The voters will not be inclined to blame President Johnson for any mistakes of his predecessor. Democrats, on the other hand, will naturally take credit for recognized achievements of the administration during the preceding three years or more. The Republicans have only one course to pursue—the exposition of a non-radical philosophy which reflects the convictions of the rank and file of Republicans, as distinguished from the "me-tooism" of many so-called "liberal" Republicans.

6. EFFECT ON BUSINESS: The momentum of the last several months will continue into the first half of 1964 anyway and perhaps longer, because businessmen feel that Lyndon Johnson is at heart friendly to the existing system of free enterprise and, in that sense, is not a "New Frontiersman."

Billy Graham

In the beginning God created Adam and Eve, but they sinned. All generations after that have sinned and have had to suffer miseries of a sinful world because of it. But that isn't fair! We are born with a tendency to sin, so we sin. Isn't it a defect in God's creation? How can we be blamed? Since God is good, can He be unfair?

Your reasoning doesn't take in all the facts. You see, Adam and Eve didn't have to sin! In fact, they were given every inducement not to sin, but they deliberately disobeyed.

By the same token, though we are prone to sin, we don't have to sin. Each of us has the capacity to make the same choice Adam and Eve made, and today, as then, we all choose to sin when we reach the age of accountability. We tell a lie—we are jealous—we get angry without just cause.

In a sense our destiny hinges on our choice! We are not only judged for Adam's sin, but for our own. Adam knew no privileges that are not ours through Christ, and he knew no remorse that is not ours, if we elect to be disobedient. Nothing has changed—there are no new sins, only new sinners. But if we will, our lives can be a Paradise with God's fellowship at the very center. This is what Christ accomplished by the Cross.

New Legal Situation For Televised Killing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jack Ruby created a legal situation never — literally — seen before when, in full view of practically all America, he gunned a man to death.

Ruby couldn't claim self-defense. He shot Lee Harvey Oswald, charged with assassinating President John F. Kennedy, in the Dallas city jail while the handcuffed Oswald was surrounded by police. Nor could he claim it was an accident.

He couldn't try to say he did not do it. Millions saw him on television as he did it. Other millions saw him do it on endless television reruns. Newspapers carried pictures of it from coast to coast.

THE U.S. Supreme Court has already said what it thinks of the effect on a local community which sees a man confess on local television to a local crime. But Ruby did more than confess, and it wasn't local.

Since Kennedy and Oswald were both killed in Dallas, the people there could not but be particularly aware of the events. And it would be a poor Dallas citizen who didn't have an interest in the events and what Ruby did.

YET, RUBY will be tried before a jury of Dallas citizens. This raises a question: Can Ruby get a fair trial in the legal sense that the people on his jury have not already prejudged him?

And, since the whole nation was a witness could he in the same sense get a fair trial anywhere in this country?

Ordinarily where there are unusually strong local feelings about a crime, or where the people have unusual interest or knowledge of it, the defense lawyer can ask for a change of venue.

THIS MEANS having his trial in some other city where there was not the same local feeling, interest or knowledge. But the interest in, and knowledge of, what Ruby did was national. A change in venue would seem senseless.

The Supreme Court stepped into a local case earlier this year.

Wilbur Rideau, a Louisiana Negro, was convicted of murder in a 1961 crime in which a bank was robbed, a woman clerk was stabbed to death, and three other bank employees were wounded by a lone bandit.

RIDEAU WAS apprehended. The sheriff got a confession from him and then, on a local television station, had him repeat the confession in full public view. This TV confession was broadcast three days in a row.

The defense lawyer contended that by the television showing Rideau was "allowed to convict himself" before the public in an area from which residents were called as jurors at the trial.

Further, the lawyer argued, three of the trial jurors saw the broadcast and two of the jurors were deputy sheriffs.

THE STATE argued the three TV-watching jurors swore they could and would decide the case solely on evidence produced at the trial and that the two deputies had honorary commissions and had no connection with the sheriff's department.

Rideau's lawyer asked that the trial be held in another parish—county. The request was denied and, after being found guilty, Rideau was sentenced to death.

On June 3, 1961, the Supreme Court overturned the conviction. Justice Potter Stewart, speaking for the court, said Rideau was denied constitutionally guaranteed due process of law when he was refused a change in venue.

STEWART SAID: "The people of Calcasieu Parish — where the trial was held—had been exposed repeatedly and in depth to the spectacle of Rideau personally confessing in detail to the crime with which he was later charged.

"For anyone who has ever watched television, the conclusion cannot be avoided that this spectacle, to the tens of thousands of people who saw and heard it, in a very real sense was Rideau's trial—at which he pleaded guilty to murder.

"Any subsequent court proceedings in a community so pervasively exposed to such a spectacle could be but a hollow formality. Due process of law in this case required a trial before a jury drawn from a community of people who had not seen or heard Rideau's 'televised' interview."

There's A Good Reason For Surgery

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Why do doctors never complete a hysterectomy the first time, or by a single operation? Why do they leave just one ovary when everything else is taken out, or leave the uterus when the ovaries are removed, etc., when probably there will be another operation later? I know of several cases, including my own. I don't know why I am writing this, but I got it off my chest anyway. —K. B.

Well, it makes you feel better to get things off your chest, at that.

First of all, I'm sure you know that it isn't true that doctors never perform a complete hysterectomy. Often they do. Ovaries, if healthy, are left because they serve a useful purpose. They secrete hormones which, in concert with those from other endocrine glands, regulate the body's activity in many ways. When, at menopause, the ovaries cease providing these hormones, the result is a temporary group of symptoms which we call the "change of life" — hot flashes, nerves, menstrual irregularity and finally cessation.

After a time the other endocrine glands and the body become adjusted. By leaving the ovaries, we postpone this problem until the normal time for it.

Where, because of disease, the ovaries are removed, there is no point in removing the uterus, too, just because it happens to be there. If it is healthy, nothing is gained thereby. True, some subsequent trouble may or may not develop. If it does, then is the time for surgery.

You don't remove it or anything else, just on the long gamble that something might all it later.

An established principle of medicine is to do nothing that might harm the body except when it is the lesser of two evils. You don't perform surgery just for the sake of surgery. You perform it only because it can alleviate some greater trouble.

Dear Dr. Molner: If some of the oil is left in the spinal fluid after a myelogram, will it gradually absorb? I'm worried. —M. W.

There is no need for concern. Only a small amount is used. It is absorbed very slowly, but disappears eventually.

Around The Rim

'J'aime Jack'

He was still Senator Kennedy then—a lazily warm October day in 1959. But it was apparent to one and all over the nation that John F. Kennedy was off and running hard toward the upcoming presidential election of 1960.

KENNEDY and his vivacious wife Jacqueline arrived in midday in Crowley, La., some 19 miles from where we were newspapering at the time. They were the guests of honor at Crowley's annual International Rice Festival, something of a Cajun classic commemorating the huge rice production of Southwest Louisiana.

There was the traditional parade through downtown Crowley, a small city about the size of Lamesa, with the Kennedys happily waving and being waved at from the back seat of their convertible.

AT THE COURTHOUSE speaking stand, Sen. Kennedy made a brief, sharp, entertaining and non-political speech. The big crowd of sunburned French farmers, carnival-hatted teenagers and cotton-candy-munching children cheered and applauded readily. The adults had a pretty good idea that they were watching a future President of the United States in action, and they liked what they saw. Crowley is in solidly Democratic country.

Then Jackie took the microphone.

"Bon jour, mes ami," she began, then continued for several minutes in flawless French—a much better oratory than any of the Cajuns themselves could have pronounced.

THE CROWD ate it up. She was interrupted time and again during her short talk with ear-ringing cheers.

Sen. Kennedy made a hit, but his wife made a bigger one.

After the public festivities, the Kennedys were guests of honor for a dinner featuring nearly all the Cajun dishes you could name — crawfish etouffee, shrimp creole and the like—and they sampled it all.

SOUTH LOUISIANA was one region that Kennedy, Johnson and the Democratic strategists never had to give the least worry to in plotting that 1960 campaign. But that October, 1959, visit to Crowley gained many more humble friends for the Kennedys.

Shortly afterward, thousands of Louisiana cars began displaying stickers reading "J'aime Jack" (I like Jack). Indeed they did, for the next year, Louisiana's 7th District—the Cajun country—gave Kennedy the biggest majority of any district in the whole nation, 77 per cent of its vote.

A Restriction On Guns?

The futile wisdom of hindsight is heard everywhere as people ask each other, "Why wasn't the bubbletop up?" "Why can people buy guns so easily?" "Why was he allowed to go to Dallas after the Stevenson incident?" "Can't the Secret Service make the President take proper precautions?"

IN THE HEAT of the nation's anguish, a Congressman has proposed making it a Federal crime to attack the President, Vice President and members of the Cabinet. (In view of the fact that the hate campaign began as an attack on Chief Justice Earl Warren, after the school desegregation issue, members of the Supreme Court and Federal judges should also be included.)

As the nation learned again to its sorrow this week it is not a Federal crime to kill the Chief Executive. Local police, after such a dread event, can make a hash of the investigation, as we have also discovered.

IN THE COUNTRY'S present emotional state, the passage of the above measure is quite possible, even in the present do-nothing Congress. But any attempt to regulate the sale of firearms of any size or caliber, or of any quantity, for that matter, will be met with the stiffest resistance.

As one who has lived most of her life in New York, where the Sullivan Act regulates the sale and possession of a weapon, it had never occurred to me that such a statute was the work of the Communist conspiracy. Certainly, the Communists are bent on buying us. But I had not connected that unswerving objective with the regulation of firearms.

HOWEVER, while visiting in the Southwest 10 months ago, I discovered that there is a fairly widespread organization fighting any and all regulation of guns, particularly their registration by owners.

Such registration, say impassioned partisans, is simply a Communist plot to pinpoint every weapon in the country. This will make it duck soup for the Communists, comes the revolution, to seize every gun—our means of self-defense—as the first order of takeover business.

I TRIED TO explain that the Sullivan Law had been passed in New York in 1911, six years before the Communist revolution in Russia, and that it seemed highly unlikely that any New York legislator had, in those days, been sufficiently prescient to anticipate the policies of communism.

After this incidence I was deluged with the Pro-gun for True-Blue patriotism propaganda. Any attempt to regulate the sale of guns or register their owners was, the pamphlets declared, anti-American and prima facie evidence of subversion or worse: treason.

IT IS QUITE likely that a law will be passed to make it a crime to attack physically or to murder a President, Vice President and members of the Cabinet. The public mood would welcome such a statute.

But any attempt by Congress to pass a national law regulating private traffic in firearms or decrease ownership—registration and such weapons will find a vigorous lobby already in being, prepared to fight tooth and nail any such proposal.

Challenge For Action

WASHINGTON — If President Johnson faces a challenge almost unparalleled in scope he also has an opportunity such as few men in our history have been given.

That opportunity is to convert the shock, horror and humiliation of the events of the past few days into a swift, constructive forward movement. The nation in a state of shame and shock over this unspeakable blow is surely ready to accept a powerful initiative.

THE STAGNANT, foot-dragging Congress has been an expression of the frustration and bafflement in the country. It has seemed impossible to bring about any resolution of the deep and embittering divisions. President Kennedy had become reconciled, outwardly at least, to postponing the key pieces of his legislative program—the tax cut and the civil rights bill. This is all that remained of a bold and comprehensive series of proposals the youngest President ever to serve in office had advanced, beginning with his first State of the Union message.

AT THE LAST press conference he held Kennedy spoke of an "18-month delivery" for the two pieces of legislation which were imperative before the start of the presidential campaign. But there was no assurance in view of the sit-down strike of Southern committee chairmen and the certainty of a filibuster conducted with all the resourcefulness of such an implacable enemy as Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia that action could come by March or April.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON in his years as majority leader was a master of the legislative process. The protege and close ally of the late Speaker Sam Rayburn, he knew as well as anyone in this century how Congress worked and how and why it failed to work. While his methods were sometimes rough and he often left bruised feelings in his wake, he got results.

That is his great advantage at a critical moment in the nation's history. Already there is talk in Congress that since the two major pieces of legislation are stalled in committee it might be well to get on with neglected housekeeping such as the long-delayed appropriation bills for most of the government departments and then go home. Before Ken-neddy's assassination Congress had been scheduled to stay until December 20 and break up for Christmas recess.

THE LOGIC of the situation may dictate an interval in which the new President pulls together the many tangled threads of the incredibly difficult task he has inherited. But the danger is that such an interval will efface the memory of what the country has just been through. The partisan passions, for the moment stilled, will revive and the same fractious pieces frozen into the old immobility.

This immobility was in part concealed from the world by the vigor, the outward confidence, the high style and good humor of the late President. Those aware in other capitals, however, of the heavy responsibility America carries have long been disturbed and uneasy at the prospect of an unresolved dilemma carried into a Presidential campaign stretching out for a full year.

ABSORBED AS we are in our own concerns, our own political entanglements, it is hard for most Americans to realize how closely everything that happens here is followed and analyzed. The shock of the President's assassination, climaxed by the fantastic lawlessness of the murder in the police station of the accused assassin, has been very great. Twenty-four hours after Kennedy's death was flashed to the world this reporter spent an hour and a half in a telephone link with London, Paris and Mamburg, Germany, discussing the late President and the new President with informed observers in each country, both journalists and high-ranking political figures.

THE QUESTIONS to the American participant came thick and fast. Who is this man Lyndon Johnson? Will he alter the foreign policy of President Kennedy? Is this a crushing blow to American liberalism? Will the fact that the accused assassin was a Marxist touch off a new and more virulent extremism of the right wing? A new and more dangerous test in Soviet-American relations?

The words President Johnson speaks to the nation and the world can supply many answers. But deeds, and immediate deeds, will speak louder than words.

Hearty Meal, Good Cigar Notes Churchill Birthday

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill, still fond of a hearty meal and a good cigar, will be 89 Saturday.

"He's feeling very fit," said a family spokesman, "better than in a long time."

Churchill dined Thursday night with London's exclusive The Other Club, which he and Lord Birkenhead founded in 1911. Its members get together solely to indulge their taste for good food, drink and conversation.

Churchill presided at the dinner for 20 men. The menu included smoked salmon, oysters, dressed crab, filet of sole, saddle of lamb, sliced pears and ice cream with chocolate sauce.

Since he broke his hip in a fall in 1962, Churchill has been much less active. His hearing is bad. Often his mind wanders back to events of long ago while he forgets those of yesterday.

But occasionally there are flashes of the brilliance and clarity of mind so characteristic of his long career, say close friends.

This has been a year clouded with sadness.

His oldest child, Diana, killed herself. The husband of his actress daughter, Sarah, died of a heart attack.

His happiest moment probably came when he and his wife celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary Sept. 12.

A few relatives will gather at Churchill's London home Saturday for a family celebration.

"Nothing special," said the family spokesman, "yet very special as all 89th birthdays must be."

History-Filled Fort At Goliad Excavated

GOLIAD (AP) — Diggers are working slowly in uncovering 10 levels of habitation in Goliad Fort, which goes back to La Salle in the 1600s—at least historically.

"Remember Goliad" was one of the cries of the Texas Revolution against Mexico. For it was there that Fannin and 400 members of the Texas Army were massacred in 1836.

The excavation is being made by the Kathryn O'Conner Foundation. Mrs. O'Conner is the spry matriarch of one branch of the cattle and oil O'Connor clan and a keen student of Texas history.

from the fact that the mission first was founded near one along Garcitas Creek northeast of Victoria in 1722.

The site was one where La Salle had built Ft. St. Louis in the previous century and part of the old fort was used.

But like La Salle's fort, Indian attacks made the fort untenable and the fort and its accompanying Mission of Espiritu Santo were moved in 1726 to the Guadalupe River northwest of Victoria.

were returned to La Bahia and most of them shot.

After Sam Houston defeated the Mexican Army, the fort and chapel fell into ruins. The town of Goliad was built across the river.

The presidio grounds and chapel were bought from the town of Goliad in 1833 so the chapel might be used by Mexican descendants as a church. That has been its history since. The purchase price was $1,000.

ATOP A HILL

Still the same structure as built in the late 1700s, the sturdy chapel may be viewed from Highway 183 perched atop a hill. Only the interior has been remodeled extensively.

The church was a chapel for the fort and was not a mission. Railford Stripling of San Augustine, architect for the foundation, made the estimate of 10 levels of occupation. He said there was a town there before the fort was established, and before that it was the site of Indian encampments.

PRESENT SITE

Then in 1749 Spanish authorities ordered the fort moved to its present site, facing Mission Espiritu Santo across the San Antonio River.

Both the fort and mission had varying fortunes during the following years and the mission eventually closed. But by 1800 the present stone church had been built, a stone wall surrounding the fort, and a town of nearly 1,500 had grown around the walls.

After 1800, the fort fell to the Anglos and then the Mexicans and by 1836, year of Texas independence, little of the town was left.

Texans had occupied La Bahia late in 1835 and in March 1836 Fannin was in command.

FORCE TRAPPED

But the force abandoned the fort to join with another group thought to be in Victoria and a week before Palm Sunday was trapped on the prairie.

After fighting a day-long battle, the Texans surrendered the next day on terms reported by guaranteeing freedom. They

A Claim...

A CONTRADICTION

If a man should say, "I love life," and at the same time raise a gun to his head with the intent of ending his life, his action would contradict his claim. In exactly the same way, if a person should say, "I accept Christ as my Lord," and then fail to submit wholly to Christ, his behavior would contradict his claim.

Jesus asks, "Why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46). Can you answer this question? If Christ is your Lord, you are his servant and must submit to his commands. If you call Christ "Lord" but do not obey him, are you not contradicting your claim?

In the mind of man, worshipping God is synonymous with being a Christian. But to acknowledge Jesus as the Christ, to call him Lord, is in reality far more than this. On this very point Jesus declares: "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven" (Matthew 7:21). Jesus recognized that there is a vast difference between calling him Lord, and obeying his will.

Christianity, far from being merely a way of doing certain things, becomes a way of doing everything—a realization that one is no longer "the captain of his soul," no longer free to do as he pleases in religion: "... whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do these things that are pleasing in his sight" (1 John 3:22). There is now purpose and order and direction to his whole life—secular and spiritual. He is led by the King Eternal.

If the Lord, through one of his apostles, says, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins" (Acts 2:38), this presents no problem—it is instantly obeyed.

Or if the Lord, through another apostle, admonishes his saints to be steadfast in worship, "not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together . . ." (Hebrews 10:25), this is joyously received.

When he instructs, "Walk in spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh" (Galatians 5:16), the servant complies and becomes more like the Master.

So also with all the Lord's commands. They are accepted, revered, and applied, because the Christian knows that "this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous" (1 John 5:3). Thus the child of God implies complete submission to the will of Christ when he says, "Lord, Lord."

Mrs. Inez Lewis Leaves 1st Baptist

Saturday will be a fateful day for Mrs. Inez Lewis, 1715 Harvard. On that day she terminates 26 years of service as church secretary at the First Baptist Church.

The retirement will not be all holiday—at least not at first. Mrs. Lewis is scheduled for an operation to remove cataracts from her eyes Dec. 2.

"I guess it will be a few months before I can see and get around well again," Mrs. Lewis said, "but as soon as I can there will be plenty of things going on around the church that I can do."

RETIREES SATURDAY ... after 26 years service

The church has been her life during these 26 years. When she started on Sept. 1, 1937, she was the only paid employee of the church besides the pastor. The late Dr. C. E. Lancaster was pastor at that time. She was church secretary during the entire 20-year tenure of Dr. P. D. O'Brien and now works under Rev. Robert F. Polk. During all of those years she has never missed a day from work for illness or any other reason.

"The years have been full ones," she said. "There is always something going on at the church and I have met so many wonderful people working here."

Mrs. Lewis was born in Colorado City nearly 65 years ago. She came to Big Spring 32 years ago and reared her four children here. Only one of them still remains in Big Spring, that being Runnels Junior High coach Dan Lewis.

A daughter, Mrs. Joe S. Tooley, lives in Cleveland. Her other sons, Larry Lewis and John Lewis, live in Conroe and San Diego, Calif., respectively.

Big Spring will remain her home, Mrs. Lewis said.

She has seen many changes at the church since those days at the tail end of the depression. Then the membership of 832 could scrape together offerings of only $17,098. By contrast, the present membership of 1,263 gave $183,245 to the church during the year ended Oct. 1.

In 1937 the church consisted of only one building. The primary departments at the rear of the church were added in 1953, the annexes in 1948, and additional property north of the church was purchased in 1958. In 1937 the First Baptist and the East Fourth Street Baptist were the only Baptist churches in the city.

One of the main tasks of Mrs. Lewis has been to keep books on the church finances. Too, there has been the job of preparing a schedule of events each week and accumulating information on things happening among the congregation.

The congregation will find a void in the church office when she leaves.

Students Preach Revival Today

A group of ministerial students from Hardin-Simmons University will conduct a youth revival at the Berea Baptist Church, 4204 Wason Road, beginning at 7:30 p.m. today.

Rev. Darrell Robinson, pastor of the church, said Gera Saffel will preach at all of the services. John Hastings will be the song leader. Services also will be held at 7:30 Saturday and at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

Students here. Only one of them still remains in Big Spring, that being Runnels Junior High coach Dan Lewis.

CROP NEEDS BEST SEED

Any garden illustrates what Paul said about Christian giving. We cannot get a crop if no seed is planted and the more effort one puts into the garden, the better the results will be.

Christian giving, by the cheerful giver, is the message brought to us in today's International Sunday School Lesson.

We are told in II Corinthians 8 that Titus went to Corinth to take up a collection for the Christians in distress in Jerusalem. The Corinthian Christians pledged very generously, but did not follow through with their pledge to help.

Paul pleaded with them to complete what they had begun, that there might be positive proof of their love. He made an eloquent appeal for Christian generosity.

The Golden Text, taken from II Corinthians 8:7, "Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also."

Kentwood Church Schedules Revival

The executive director of the Texas Methodist Stewardship Movement will be in Big Spring Sunday through Thursday to lead a Stewardship Revival at the Kentwood Methodist Church, according to the Rev. Henry Salley, pastor.

Eugene F. Jud, executive director since March, is a layman Methodist who formerly was a public school administrator for 16 years. He has been with the Stewardship Movement for three years.

Services Sunday will be at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., with 7:30 p.m. services each weekday during the revival. The choir will present music each evening.

Jud will meet with special groups of the church each day. Any other persons or groups wishing to see Jud should contact Rev. Salley at AM 4-5439. Spring after the revival to take part in the Big Spring Methodist District Conference to be held at the First Methodist Church Dec. 6.

Rev. Jackson To Speak Here

The man credited with an idea that turned into the Japan New Life Movement last spring will be at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning.

The Rev. Dub Jackson Abilene, who has spent almost his entire ministry as a missionary in Japan, will bring the 11 a.m. message, ushering in the annual Little Moon missions offering season. From the idea of simultaneous revivals in Japan, the movement grew last year until several hundred Baptist ministers and laymen joined with Japanese brethren in a nationwide evangelism that drew over 30,000 responses.

Deplores Prejudice

MUNSTER, Germany (AP)—Members of the Baptist Church here have sent an open letter to the presidents of the Southern Baptist Convention in the United States and the Baptist World Alliance, deploring racial prejudice, and comparing it with Nazi persecution of the Jews.

Assembly of God School Choir To Entertain Here

The 36-voice Harvester Choir, under the direction of Jory Waldon, from Southwestern Assemblies of God College, will appear at the First Assembly of God Church at West Fourth and Lancaster Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

From Southwestern's student body, Professor Waldon has selected the finest voices to make up the choir. Features of the choir are trios, quartets, a male chorus and several accomplished soloists.

Most of the members of this choir have participated in church singing for several years before joining this group. Their ability united with the versatility and arrangements of Waldon's efforts assure every listener the best of religious singing.

Pastor Homer Rich extends a cordial invitation to the public and the friends of the First Assembly of God Church to join his congregation in worship and hear this unusual group of talented young people sing.

seems to be the weekly wash. Dirt, grime and stains turn bright new clothes into an unsightly heap each week. Our sins in the sight of God are dirty linen. The only way the spots of sin can be permanently removed is through accepting Christ as Saviour.

WHERE DOES YOUR FAITH STAND?
Paul wrote of faith that stood in God; of faith that stood in the power, word and the wisdom of God. In I Cor. 2:5. "That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men but in the power of God." Faith is not a fancy, nor an opinion. "Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God" — Rom. 10:17. In Faith you are free from man-made strictures and religious laws. The devil binds men in shackles by false teachings. These in turn depend on false teachers. Men who are free from the thralldom of false doctrines have read and studied their Bibles! They bring everything they hear in the religious realm to the test of the Word of God. People enslaved bring whatever they might hear to the test of their favorite preacher, priest or some pre-conceived notion. The Bible is all-sufficient — "That the man of God may be perfect thoroughly furnished unto every good work" — II Tim. 3:16-17. Paul said Therefore "Preach the word," II Tim. 4:1-2. A man has no faith in the Christ he professes if he has placed his faith in the church he has "joined;" or in the preacher or priest or creed of man. The philosophies of men are often enticing and the ways of the world are often inviting but we need God; therefore we need the Bible to guide us in the will of God and to show us of Christ who is the way and the truth and the life that leads to God.
Elbert R. Garretson, minister

A REMINDER

One of the charms of being young, is the ability to forget. That is, to forget quickly, what might appear to be a hurt, a wrong, a slight, an injury. Then, as we grow older, there is a tendency to brood over hurts, and wrongs, and injuries — real or imaginary — and sometimes we lose that beautiful mental balance, between forgetting and remembering.

There is a place to take all your hurts, your memories, your injuries of spirit; that place is your church. There you will find peace and contentment. Tie a string around your finger, now! Remember church this Sunday!

Industry Retorts To Shoddiness Charges

NEW YORK (AP)—How good is the label, "Made in U.S.A.?" Despite recent criticism of the defense and space industry, manufacturers say American craftsmanship is better than ever.

But some corporation and government officials have been disturbed over charges of shoddy workmanship in the nation's space and nuclear submarine programs.

Is the criticism justified? In some cases, say industry sources contacted in an Associated Press survey. But the overall success of America's nuclear and space programs, they say, indicates that industry is meeting the challenge.

RICKOVER
Perhaps the toughest critic of American industry is Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, the Navy's atomic expert. He has charged that the nation's factories are not meeting the challenges in his field—nuclear submarines.

Poor workmanship, Rickover said recently, plagues the atomic-submarine program. Many of the problems, he said, are with conventional parts: Parts delivered late, parts not made to standard, or made of the wrong material.

Rickover said management should shoulder most of the blame.

"Too often," he said, "management is content to sit in plush offices, far removed physically and mentally from the design and manufacturing areas, relying on paper reports for information about the status of design and production in the plant itself—the real center of the enterprise."

IN ITS PLANT
"Much of American industry," said Rickover, "does not know what is going on in its plant." Asked about this, one manufacturing representative replied:

"The admiral is going to have to be a hell of a lot more specific before anyone can answer these charges. This is something every manufacturer is constantly struggling with. I don't know any who wouldn't agree that there is a need for better quality control. No manufacturer wants to turn out a bad product."

PRODUCTION
The marvel, said another industry source, is that American industry does as well as it does—considering the speed, complexity and varying quality of modern production.

In Detroit, Chrysler Corp. cited a reliability record of 95 per cent for its Redstone missile and a perfect showing for its Jupiter missile.

"Both programs," said Chrysler, "were completed on schedule and with a reliability unsurpassed in industry."

Soviet Accuses Britons Of Adding To Cold War

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet armed forces newspaper Red Star accused Britain today of seeking to boost military preparations and intensify the cold war.

The paper said the British decision to merge the army, navy and air ministry into a single defense ministry "further intensifies the aggressive policy of the British imperialists."

"The concentration of military power in one place will sharply increase the role of the military in determining both the home and foreign policy of the country and in the spending of its financial and other resources," Red Star added.

A complete inventory of defensive prospects provided East with the clew to the play that sunk declarer's ship in today's hand.

The first round of bidding requires very little comment. When North rebid one no trump South jumped to three hearts. This call designates a good six card suit and furthermore insists on an ultimate game contract. Remember, in our methods all jumps by responder are forcing to game. North's doubleton now became adequate trump support, and he carried on to four hearts.

West led the three of diamonds and East's jack held the first trick. This was the moment of decision for East and he paused to survey the situation. His early conclusion was that there was little point in continuing the diamonds. West's lead of the trey must be either a singleton or part of a three card holding, since it is the lowest card outstanding in the suit. On the basis of the bidding, East was convinced that South had the singleton, since he had shied away from no trump.

There was a brief temptation to shift to a spade which would establish some tricks for the defense if West held strength in that suit. The only objection to this play was that East had no card of reentry once the ace of spades was dislodged. In fact, the only means of entry available for the defense would have to be in trumps. So considered, the proper play becomes clear-cut.

At trick two, East shifted to his singleton six of clubs, right into the dummy's strength. Declarer immediately led the ten of hearts and, in an effort to foil his opponents, he refused the finesse, going right up with the ace and returning to the queen. His play was to no avail, for West was in with the king, and a club return enabled East to score his remaining trump with a ruff.

East returned the king of diamonds which was trumped by South, but subsequently declarer was obliged to concede a spade to East for the setting trick.

Flair For Decorating Depicted In Windows

A woman's flair for decorating often shows in the way she treats her windows. Today, the homemaker in the know takes a tip from interior designers and builds imaginative window treatment around a shade of difference.

The shade of difference is created with handsome fabrics and coordinated trimmings—a happy combination that adds charm and warmth to any room. By varying fabrics and trimmings it's easy to set the appropriate mood for each room in the house with these decorative and durable shades.

Often, the new shades are dramatic enough to act as the sole window treatment. But whether used alone or with draperies and curtains, they contribute a new look to the entire room's decor.

Thanks to a new process now available through shade dealers, it's possible to have the fabric of your choice permanently bonded or laminated to shade cloth. This makes it easy to achieve over-all unity in your color scheme by matching shades to draperies, slip covers, or even wall-covering. Or, if you are handy along "do-it-yourself" lines, you'll enjoy making your own fabric-trimmed shades. Use one of the special fabric adhesives now on the market.

There are more beautiful decorator cottons available now than ever. You'll find a variety of striking colors, interesting prints and textures to go with any decor and fit any budget.

COORDINATION If you're faced with the problem of fitting a modern picture window into a traditional theme, have your shades laminated with one of the fascinating new documentary prints in tone. The same fabric also can be used for sill-to-floor cafe curtains and tie-back draperies, and further repeated in the slip cover of a favorite armchair. Use a flat decorative braid for edging shades and curtains. The result will be an Early American look with fresh vitality and charm.

AN increasingly popular decorating scheme is to coordinate fabric wall-coverings with decorator cottons at the window. With this in mind, cover one wall and window shades with matching fabric. Have white or neutral-colored pull-back draperies to break up pattern.

IN addition to covering the entire window shade with fabric, there are a number of eye-catching ways to trim plain cloth shades. One method is to apply a design from your draperies or other fabrics in the room to the shades.

Whether you choose a floral or a scenic design, first outline the area you're planning to cut out with clear nail polish, applied on the back of the fabric. This prevents edges from fraying. Then locate the cut-out on the shade, preferably near the bottom so the design won't disappear when the shade is rolled up. Start out by putting adhesive on the shade near the center of the design and work out from the center with your fingers.

When the main part of the cut-out is anchored, apply adhesive on the back of the cut-out around the edges. Then smooth it all down with a clean, soft cloth.

UNUSUAL TREATMENT Another way to give unusual treatment to a plain shade is to use trimmings — ball fringe, braid, scalloped edging, or tassels. You'll find a wealth of them readily available. And, for a change of decorating pace, these can be attached to both straight-hem and scalloped shades.

New installation techniques also give shades strong dramatic impact. Among interesting treatments for a window wall is a group of shades hung alternately from top and bottom-up. Shades installed at the floor or sill level have cords which operate easily at the sides. For additional decorative

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Don't Send Hubby... Buy Mop Yourself

Dear Gals: Did you ever send your husband to the store to buy a broom or mop? Men usually come home with what they call the best.

For goodness sakes, whether he buys it, or you buy it, or you order it from the store, get the lightest weight broom or mop.

Here's why: Sometimes expensive string mops are heavy. They have a lot more strings, last longer, etc.

But for a poor little housewife with a tired back, aching feet and a bunch of kids... lifting that heavy mop is quite unnecessary. Test this yourself: Buy a cheap mop, wet it thoroughly and put it against an expensive, heavy string mop and see which weighs the most. One will outweigh the other, two or three-to-one. Just who is going to shove, push and pull it around? You or your husband? Another thing about this is the heavy thick mops are harder to wash, harder to clean and tinsel. Take longer to dry, also. It's much better (and will save lots of energy) if you will buy a small, light-weight mop (and broom, too, for that matter).

I am well aware that the expensive mop might last long, but I find that you can buy two cheaper mops that weigh much less, for about the same price as a heavy one. Just buy them twice as often! It eventually comes out to the same cost moneywise. I figure my energy and yours is worth a lot more than something which lasts a long time. My answer is to buy lighter weight mops and brooms... Heloise

Dear Heloise: Have you ever tried adding one-half teaspoon of baking powder to mashed potatoes and then continue beating them until they're fluffy? I do this after my potatoes are thoroughly mashed and it always makes them beautiful. Would you try it? Bertha Reynolds

I did, Bertha, and the potatoes were beautiful... just like you said... Heloise.

Dear Heloise: I am writing at a cluttered breakfast table... with the second cup of coffee in hand... to tell mothers that I put one-half cup of vinegar in my last rinse water when I wash my baby diapers. My pediatrician told me this. One cannot smell the vinegar after the diapers are dry—nor is it necessary to use vinegar each time to rinse them. Every other time seems to be sufficient for my baby. Now I must clean up this kitchen and feed the current baby... Peggy Redder

Dear Heloise: I have a big house and two little kids. Naturally I cannot watch after them every second... the little bells on their shoes and I can always tell where they are by the "ting-aling."

This is especially good for mothers when they have something cooking in the kitchen where a child should not be playing. If the child should walk into the kitchen... a mother can easily hear the little bells "ding" and grab the tyke before he gets into more trouble... Mother

Dear Heloise: If the wonderful wash-and-wear shirts are dried until just slightly damp it takes just two minutes to press with a barely warm iron and they look beautiful. I put our shirts in the dryer and have learned to take them out at just the right time. I like to keep my sewing machine open while I am ironing. Then... it just takes two seconds to sew up little seams or tears that need mending. Another good idea is to keep black and white threaded needles on the end of the ironing board and this saves mountains of sewing later (which I hate)... S. Jane

Aggies Scare Texas But Lose, 15-13

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—The Cotton Bowl bound Texas Longhorns, who capitalized on having one of their passes intercepted, have wrapped up their first unbeaten and untied season since 1929 and virtually clinched the college football championship.

The top-ranked Longhorns were held to a lone field goal for three periods by a stubborn Texas A&M team Thursday before starting a fourth quarter stampede that led to a 15-13 victory, the Southwest Conference championship and probably the No. 1 spot in the nation in the final voting.

The Aggies built a 13-3 lead on 54 and 29 yards touchdown passes by Jim Keller before Texas started to move. Tommy Ford's two-yard touchdown run closed the gap, then Tommy Wade started passing the Longhorns goalward on the winning drive. Wade started on his own 20—and before the series was over had accounted for 61 of the 80 yards in the air. He also had a pass intercepted during the drive.

Texas A&M defender John Bortheron picked off the pass, but hardly had gained possession when he fumbled. Texas recovered on the 44 for a first down that kept the drive going. Wade eventually hit Phil Harris with a pass that put the ball on the one, and Duke Carlisle cracked over for the winning touchdown with 1:19 left.

Texas' other score came on a 27-yard field goal by stocking-footed kicker Tony Crosby in the first period. It was the fourth time this season that Crosby's boots had provided the margin of victory.

Texas made its dash to glory under the eyes of Navy scout Belichick, whose Middles-may furnish the opposition in the Cotton Bowl.

They also had added incentive. The Longhorns apparently had dedicated the game to Governor John Connally, recovering from bullet wounds in a Dallas hospital. Connally's wife called Texas Coach Darrell Royal following the victory to extend the governor's congratulations.

It was Texas third consecutive Southwest Conference crown—marking the first time a SWC team had accomplished that feat in the 49-year history of the league—and the first time a Southwest Conference team had put together a perfect season in a quarter of a century.

"I'll tell you," said Royal in the dressing room, "I don't want to win many like this."

He received ready agreement from Texas A&M coach Hank Foldberg.

Said Foldberg: "It was the greatest injustice on a group of young fellows I've ever seen. Our Aggies were No. 1 today. We played them right off their feet."

But then Foldberg admitted: "Texas has always been able to come up with the big play when they really need it."

And, that's how champions are made.

Were Bovines Playing Game For Connally?

By CHARLES GREEN
COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Darrell Royal finally made it—an undefeated season that gives him a pretty secure claim to the national college football title.

"I'm a little shaken," Royal said after his Texas Longhorns beat Texas A&M 15-13 in a thrilling end to their regular season.

"We have a lot to be thankful for this Thanksgiving," he said. "We got breaks galore."

Minutes after the game Royal left the wild confusion of the Texas dressing room to take a telephone call in an Aggie coaching office. It was from Mrs. John Connally at Parkland Hospital in Dallas, where the Texas governor is recuperating from wounds suffered when President Kennedy was assassinated.

"Nellie, you say you wouldn't let him watch all of it? Well, I wouldn't have watched it all either if I hadn't had to," Royal said.

The governor and his wife are former Texas students. And the Longhorns, judging from Royal's telephone conversation, dedicated the game to Connally. Royal was not saying for sure.

"It was a personal thing the boys did—not something they did to get their names in the papers," he told a reporter.

In his phone conversation Royal said: "Well, it was strictly the boys' idea. They know his interest in the squad, how he came to practice and into the dressing room. They came to my office with the idea to send something to the governor. The way he faced adversity was an inspiration to them."

For Hank Foldberg, coach of the Aggies, things didn't turn out as he hoped. A national television camera caught him just before halftime as he turned and said: "Mrs. Templeton, we'll win this one for Ben."

Ben Templeton Jr., president of the Aggie Club, and his wife were killed in a plane crash Tuesday night in Louisiana. The club is a statewide booster organization that contributes thousands of dollars to the school each year.

Templeton, 35, was a wealthy Dallas businessman. The woman to whom Foldberg spoke apparently was Mrs. J. Ben Templeton Sr.

Royal quickly gave a pause to any talk about his team's opponent in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1.

"I'm going to do my damndest not to even think about football for a few days," he said when asked which team he preferred to play. "All the rooters of the Orange and White have a lot to be thankful for, athletically speaking."

St. Louis Poised For Brown Battle

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—St. Louis and Cleveland, two of the three teams tied for the Eastern Conference lead in the National Football League, meet Sunday in a vital game that could drop the loser out of the race.

If Charley Johnson and the youthful Cardinals knock off the Browns for the second time in three weeks, they should go on to at least a tie for the Eastern crown. Only Philadelphia and Dallas will remain in their path.

It is a "must" game for the Browns who finish their schedule on the road at St. Louis, Detroit and Washington.

New York and Pittsburgh figure to keep on winning until their showdown game Dec. 15, the last day of the regular season. The Steelers are only one game back of the Giants, Cards and Browns.

With Green Bay idle after tying Detroit Thanksgiving Day, the Chicago Bears can't afford to falter against the Minnesota Vikings, a team they thumped 28-7 in September.

The American Football League will be playing the games scheduled last weekend postponed out of respect to the memory of President Kennedy. The big one is Houston at San Diego which could be a preview of the title game.

With a 71-38-5 record for the year, here we go into the last three weeks of the season. All games are to be played Sunday.

St. Louis 24, Cleveland 29 — If the Cards can shake their home jinx.

Tyler Defeated On Long Dash

GULFPORT, Miss. (AP)—A 90-yard kickoff return by Gall Rolison gave East Mississippi Junior College an 18-14 victory over Tyler Junior College in the ninth annual Hospitality Bowl football game Thursday.

The East Texas team scored first on a 20-yard pass from Vidal Cañin to Gordon Sewell early in the first period.

Tyler's second touchdown came on a 68-yard play in the third quarter as Ronnie Davis ran 48 yards, was hit and lateraled to David Boone who went the remaining 20. Billy Ballard kicked both of Tyler's extra points.

Tyler was leading 14-12 when Rolison got loose for his 90-yard jaunt and the winning touchdown.

It's A New Game

Rugged Plainview To Face Steers

By PAT WASHBURN

Big Spring basketballers begin the season on a torrid pace Saturday night as they meet the Plainview Bulldogs in a 7:30 encounter at the Steer gym.

And the Bulldogs will be tough.

"Plainview will probably be state champs," Poss said recently. "They have a wonderful team."

But Bovine prospects are also looking up this year after a so-so 13-14 record in 1962-63.

The five starters will be three two-year lettermen with the other two gathering in one monogram in the sport.

The two year men are: Albert Fierro, a 6'2" senior at 180 who goes at the forward slot; DeeRoby Gartman, a 6'0" 170-pound senior who is also a forward; and Charlie West, also a senior at 5'11" and 165-pound — he will be going at guard. All three are fresh out of a football campaign.

The other two men are Mike Peters, a senior forward a 6'0" and 170 and Ronnie Banks, a senior 5'10" guard at 155.

Two sophomores, Simon Terrazas and Paul Thomas, will be seeing action at the post slot for the Bovines. Terrazas stands at 6'3" and Thomas at 6'7".

Fierro should be a sparkplug for the Steers. He returns with the highest scoring average of any player on the team—12.2. Fierro is also a top rebounder, gathering in 325 in last year's season. Gartman, with an 8.0 average, hauled in 235 rebounds and was the team's leading free throw shooter with 35 of 45 for a 77 per cent average.

Banks will be one of the play-makers of the Steers and should be valuable for his hustle. West has to be reckoned with from the outside since he hit 40 per cent of his shots last year. The last starter, Peters, has the best shooting percentage from the floor of any starter—a creditable 44 per cent.

A B-team game will be played at 6 p.m.

PAT WASHBURN'S The Roundtable

MORRIS McADOO, Big Spring Steer football fan, in a recent letter to Bob Milburn, San Angelo sports-writer:

"To: BOB MILBURN & all other San Angelo cotton-pickers. I mean, Football pickers:

"I would like to take this opportunity to write you a little note. For some time now, well in fact, ever since the beginning of 2-AAAA football season year; you 'Mr. Milburn,' in my opinion, as well as the opinion of several more Big Spring fans, have been against our great football team here in Big Spring. As of this morning, I would like to ask you what you thought about the little tussle here in Memorial Stadium in Big Spring, Texas, last night.

"I noticed in San Angelo Standard-Times this morning that 'Fierro Directs Steers' Unsettled. Well, Mr. Milburn, I saw the game and as far as I am concerned there was no upset to start with. Ever since Big Spring beat Wichita Falls, I have considered them to be one of the best, if not the best, team in the 2-AAAA conference. Now after last night's great victory, I can say that the best team won. (In this case, you have tried and succeeded in forgetting the score, it was Big Spring 20—San Angelo 6). The only thing that disgraced our team was that we let you score 6 points.

B lack and gold will get you told— O h: Those Big Spring Steers were bold— B obby boy, your Bobcats were rolled, solded, and cold— M y those Steers played a game— I f I fated guessing won't get you fame— L ittle you thought the score would be B.S. 20—S.A. 6— B ut by now you know you took your licks— U re Bobcats played like there was no lights— R n over Bobcats, the game wasn't even tight— N othing matters now Bob—nothing is going to turn out right—

"Now, Bob—one last thought—just think how much higher your percentage in picking the winning team would have been, had you not picked Big Spring to lose again! P.S. See you next year in San Angelo.

Sincerely yours, Morris McAdoo (A Big Spring Steer Football Fan)

"Bob—laying all kidding aside—I sure hope the Bobcats win the state championship."

Fred Sanner, sports-writer for the Abilene Reporter-News, in his column "The Double Take":

"Bearden (Bob Bearden, Abilene High quarterback) is the top quarterback in a district that has many good ones, such as Big Spring's FIERRO, and Angelo's HENSON, Odessa's BILL PARKS and Odessa Permian's ALAN MORAVICK."

It might behoove Mr. Sanner to take a more careful look at a few statistics before he begins picking the district's top quarterback. We're not saying Bob Bearden isn't good, certainly everyone who has seen him in action will admit that he's one of the best. But considering the figures posted in the official record book for the 1963 season, I think most people will agree that he was shaded by Big Spring's Albert (The Slingshot) Fierro.

Bearden topped Fierro considerably in one department—rushing—and it's only fair to point this out. Big Bob had a fine season as he rang up 507 yards while Fierro totaled 209.

But in every other way the Big Spring lad looked better—and that's why he's the logical choice for all-district.

Look at scoring. Fierro led all district personnel with a number totaling 58—Bearden racked up a creditable but distant, 32. And in passing, Fierro again gets the nod—41, 757 yards; Bob, 407.

Any questions, Mr. Sanner?

Merkel Bumps Off Big Lake

SAN ANGELO — With C. B. Brown chugging for 144 yards in 18 carries, the Merkel Badgers thundered past a dangerous foe in the Reagan County Owls of Big Lake as they took a 19-8 victory.

The win advanced Merkel into the state quarterfinals against the victor in today's Stratford-Petersburg game in Dumas.

The Badgers scored the first time they got the ball, that coming at their own 30 after an Owl fumble. Following a 22 yard ramble by Weldon Tittle and 37 yarder by Jackie Reynolds to the 11 yard stripe, the Badgers poured over requiring six plays in the march. Brown added the kick.

The next time Merkel got the ball they again scored, this time going 61 yards in only four plays. Reynolds got the score from the 10 yard marker after Brown had scampered 40 yards to that point. Tittle's try for points failed.

Merkel took the second half kickoff for a touchdown, this time netting 51 yards in 10 maneuvers. Brown went the last 24 on an inside reverse. Reynolds tried to run for the two points but was bumped out of bounds on the one.

San Antonio Brackenridge, the defending Texas Class AAAA schoolboy football champion, gets a big test Friday night when it meets unbeaten and untied San Antonio Lee in a bi-district playoff.

Dumas moved a step closer to winning its third straight state Class AAA championship Thursday when it rallied in the final quarter to defeat Andrews 7-3 in a bi-district battle.

Graham, another Class AAA power, downed Snyder 19 - 6 while the Dalhart Wolves, rated the state's top Class AA football team, defeated Mueshoe 16-2 in a regional playoff.

In Class A, Merkel marched over Big Lake 19-8 and Val Alstyne edged Clifton 14-12 Thursday night.

Other Class AAAA games for Friday include Ysleta Bel Air at San Angelo, Texarkana at Garland, Houston Waltrip at Spring Branch and Pasadena at Port Arthur.

In Class AAA playoffs Friday night it's Wort Worth Castleberry against McKinney at Denton, Ciciana at Palestine, Nederland at Conroe, El Campo at La-Marque and Gonzales at Austin Johnston.

Class AA battles Friday night see Winters and Crane tangling at Midland.

No One Can Read First Bible Printed In America

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Bible Society is observing the 300th anniversary of what it says was the first whole Bible printed in the Western Hemisphere—and one that no one can read now. It was written in the language of the Massachusetts Indians. The Bible society says the work also was the first Bible printed in an American Indian language and the first for which it was necessary to create a written form of a spoken language. An Algonquin language was used for the translation, the society said, and the Bible was in use on Martha's Vineyard as late as the 1700s.

For many years there has been no one who understands the language, even among the descendants of the Vineyard Indians. In connection with a display of the work at the society's headquarters in New York the society said the volume is known as the John Eliot Bible, being named for its translator. Eliot, driven from England in 1631 because of his outspoken Puritan sentiments, came to be known as the "Apostle to the Indians." He sought to improve their living conditions, preached to them in their own language and helped establish schools for their children.

One of his major aims soon came to be a translation of the Bible into their own tongue, which had no written form. To create a written form, and to translate another language into it, proved a formidable task. Eliot, aided by an English speaking Indian, Job Nesutan, spent 40 years at it. By 1655, with the aid of Nesutan, Eliot completed a translation of Genesis and Matthew and printed copies. Only one survives. It is in a London library. Another problem hampering Eliot was the fact that his Boston print shop was too small for printing the whole Bible.

DEAR ABBY

She's Got A Problem

DEAR ABBY: I am 53 and have been married only eight years to a man who is 66, short, fat and bald. He chases women of 35 and 40. For the past six months he has been going around publicly with the worst kind of women. He has even brought them to the house in my absence, knowing I would arrive and catch them. He admitted to my face that he is trying to get me to divorce him, but I am not going to let him off the hook so easy. I made a bad deal and, at my age, I am content to sit with it. How would you handle him in the future?

WRONGED

Kennedy Silver Dollar Proposed

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Fifty million silver dollars expected to be minted next year should carry the image of the late President John F. Kennedy, says Sen. Alan Bible, D-Nev. "Such coins used daily by all Americans would provide a practical and useful memorial recalling to every citizen the principles, ideals, hopes and aspirations of this great humanitarian," Bible said this week in a message to Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon. Kennedy asked Congress last week to appropriate funds for minting the silver dollars.

Little Girl, Big Problem

Rita Maria Neris, 3, looked strangely alone when police spotted her taking a stroll along a downtown street in Dallas. It didn't take long to find out why—she was an extremely young "runaway." Her problem? "Momma found a new baby at home," she tearfully told a friend and policeman. Mother and daughter were reunited later at the Juvenile Bureau and returned home. Rita's young friend is unidentified. (AP WIREPHOTO)
